101 ¹ A psalm by David. I will sing about mercy and justice. O LORD, I will make music to praise you.

² I want to understand the path to integrity. When will you come to me? I will live in my own home with integrity.

³ I will not put anything wicked in front of my eyes. I hate what unfaithful people do. I want no part of it.

⁴ I will keep far away from devious minds. I will have nothing to do with evil.

⁶ My eyes will be watching the faithful people in the land so that they may live with me. The person who lives with integrity will serve me.

102 ¹ A prayer by someone who is suffering, when he is weary and pours out his troubles in the LORD'S presence. O LORD, hear my prayer, and let my cry for help come to you.

² Do not hide your face from me when I am in trouble. Turn your ear toward me. Answer me quickly when I call.

⁴ My heart is beaten down and withered like grass because I have forgotten about eating.

⁷ I lie awake. I am like a lonely bird on a rooftop.

⁸ All day long my enemies insult me.
Those who ridicule me use my name as a curse.

⁹ I eat ashes like bread and my tears are mixed with my drink

¹⁰ because of your hostility and anger, because you have picked me up and thrown me away.

¹¹ My days are like a shadow that is getting longer, and I wither away like grass.

¹² But you, O LORD, remain forever.
You are remembered throughout every generation.

¹³ You will rise and have compassion on Zion, because it is time to grant a favor to it. Indeed, the appointed time has come.

¹⁴ Your servants value Zion's stones, and they pity its rubble.

¹⁵ The nations will fear the LORD'S name. All the kings of the earth will fear your glory.

¹⁶ When the LORD builds Zion, he will appear in his glory.

¹⁸ This will be written down for a future generation so that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD:

¹⁹ "The LORD looked down from his holy place high above. From heaven he looked at the earth.

²² when nations and kingdoms gather to worship the LORD."

²³ He has weakened my strength along the way. He has reduced the number of my days.

²⁴ I said, "My God, don't take me now in the middle of my life. Your years continue on throughout every generation.

²⁵ Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth. Even the heavens are the works of your hands.

²⁶ They will come to an end, but you will still go on. They will all wear out like clothing. You will change them like clothes, and they will be thrown away.

²⁸ The children of your servants will go on living here. Their descendants will be secure in your presence."

103 ¹ By David. Praise the LORD, my soul! Praise his holy name, all that is within me.

² Praise the LORD, my soul, and never forget all the good he has done:

³ He is the one who forgives all your sins, the one who heals all your diseases,

⁴ the one who rescues your life from the pit, the one who crowns you with mercy and compassion,

⁵ the one who fills your life with blessings so that you become young again like an eagle.

⁷ He let Moses know his ways. He let the Israelites know the things he had done.

⁸ The LORD is compassionate, merciful, patient, and always ready to forgive.

⁹ He will not always accuse us of wrong or be angry with us forever.

¹⁰ He has not treated us as we deserve for our sins or paid us back for our wrongs.

¹¹ As high as the heavens are above the earth— that is how vast his mercy is toward those who fear him.

¹² As far as the east is from the west— that is how far he has removed our rebellious acts from himself.

¹³ As a father has compassion for his children, so the LORD has compassion for those who fear him.

¹⁴ He certainly knows what we are made of. He bears in mind that we are dust.

¹⁵ Human life is as short-lived as grass. It blossoms like a flower in the field.

¹⁶ When the wind blows over the flower, it disappears, and there is no longer any sign of it.

¹⁷ But from everlasting to everlasting, the LORD'S mercy is on those who fear him. His righteousness belongs to their children and grandchildren,

²⁰ Praise the LORD, all his angels, you mighty beings who carry out his orders and are ready to obey his spoken orders.

²² Praise the LORD, all his creatures in all the places of his empire. Praise the LORD, my soul!

104 ¹ Praise the LORD, my soul! O LORD my God, you are very great. You are clothed with splendor and majesty.

² You cover yourself with light as though it were a robe. You stretch out the heavens as though they were curtains.

³ You lay the beams of your home in the water. You use the clouds for your chariot. You move on the wings of the wind.

⁴ You make your angels winds and your servants flames of fire.

⁷ and fled because of your threat. Water ran away at the sound of your thunder.

⁸ The mountains rose and the valleys sank to the place you appointed for them.

¹⁰ You make water gush from springs into valleys. It flows between the mountains.

¹³ You water the mountains from your home above. You fill the earth with the fruits of your labors.

¹⁴ You make grass grow for cattle and make vegetables for humans to use in order to get food from the ground.

¹⁵ You make wine to cheer human hearts, olive oil to make faces shine, and bread to strengthen human hearts.

¹⁷ Birds build their nests in them. Storks make their homes in fir trees.

¹⁸ The high mountains are for wild goats. The rocks are a refuge for badgers.

²³ Then people go to do their work, to do their tasks until evening.

²⁶ Ships sail on it, and Leviathan, which you made, plays in it.

³⁰ You send out your Spirit, and they are created. You renew the face of the earth.

³² He looks at the earth, and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

³³ I will sing to the LORD throughout my life. I will make music to praise my God as long as I live.

³⁵ May sinners vanish from the world. May there no longer be any wicked people. Praise the LORD, my soul!

Hallelujah!

105 ¹ Give thanks to the LORD. Call on him. Make known among the nations what he has done.

² Sing to him. Make music to praise him. Meditate on all the miracles he has performed.

³ Brag about his holy name. Let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

⁷ He is the LORD our God. His judgments are pronounced throughout the earth.

⁸ He always remembers his promise, the word that he commanded for a thousand generations,

⁹ the promise that he made to Abraham, and his sworn oath to Isaac.

¹⁰ He confirmed it as a law for Jacob, as an everlasting promise to Israel,

¹¹ by saying, "I will give you the land of Canaan. It is your share of the inheritance."

¹² While the people of Israel were few in number, a small group of foreigners living in that land,

¹³ they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

¹⁴ He didn't permit anyone to oppress them. He warned kings about them:

¹⁵ "Do not touch my anointed ones or harm my prophets."

¹⁶ He brought famine to the land. He took away their food supply.

¹⁷ He sent a man ahead of them. He sent Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

¹⁸ They hurt his feet with shackles, and cut into his neck with an iron collar.

¹⁹ The LORD'S promise tested him through fiery trials until his prediction came true.

²⁰ The king sent someone to release him. The ruler of nations set him free.

²² Joseph trained the king's officers the way he wanted and taught his respected leaders wisdom.

²⁴ The LORD made his people grow rapidly in number and stronger than their enemies.

²⁵ He changed their minds so that they hated his people, and they dealt treacherously with his servants.

²⁶ He sent his servant Moses, and he sent Aaron, whom he had chosen.

²⁷ They displayed his miraculous signs among them and did amazing things in the land of Ham.

²⁸ He sent darkness and made their land dark. They did not rebel against his orders.

²⁹ He turned their water into blood and caused their fish to die.

³⁰ He made their land swarm with frogs, even in the kings' bedrooms.

³¹ He spoke, and swarms of flies and gnats infested their whole territory.

³² He gave them hail and lightning instead of rain throughout their land.

³³ He struck their grapevines and fig trees and smashed the trees in their territory.

³⁴ He spoke, and countless locusts and grasshoppers came.

³⁵ They devoured all the plants in the land. They devoured the crops in the fields.

³⁶ He killed all the firstborn sons, the first ones born in the land when their fathers were young.

³⁷ He brought Israel out with silver and gold, and no one among his tribes stumbled.

³⁸ The Egyptians were terrified of Israel, so they were glad when Israel left.

³⁹ He spread out a cloud as a protective covering and a fire to light up the night.

⁴⁰ The Israelites asked, and he brought them quail and filled them with bread from heaven.

⁴¹ He opened a rock, and water gushed and flowed like a river through the dry places.

⁴² He remembered his holy promise to his servant Abraham.

⁴³ He brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with a song of joy.

⁴⁴ He gave them the lands of other nations, and they inherited what others had worked for ⁴⁵ so that they would obey his laws and follow his teachings. Hallelujah!

106 ¹ Hallelujah! Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

² Who can speak about all the mighty things the LORD has done? Who can announce all the things for which he is worthy of praise?

³ Blessed are those who defend justice and do what is right at all times.

⁴ Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people. Come to help me with your salvation

⁵ so that I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, find joy in our people's happiness, and brag with the people who belong to you.

⁶ We have sinned, and so did our ancestors. We have done wrong. We are guilty.

⁸ He saved them because of his reputation so that he could make his mighty power known.

¹⁰ He rescued them from the power of the one who hated them. He rescued them from the enemy.

¹¹ Water covered their adversaries. Not one Egyptian survived.

¹² Then our ancestors believed what he said. They sang his praise.

¹³ They quickly forgot what he did. They did not wait for his advice.

¹⁴ They had an unreasonable desire for food in the wilderness. In the desert they tested God.

¹⁵ He gave them what they asked for. He also gave them a degenerative disease.

¹⁶ In the camp certain men became envious of Moses. They also became envious of Aaron, the LORD'S holy one.

¹⁷ The ground split open and swallowed Dathan. It buried Abiram's followers.

¹⁸ A fire broke out among their followers. Flames burned up wicked people.

¹⁹ At Mount Horeb they made a statue of a calf. They worshiped an idol made of metal.

²⁰ They traded their glorious God for the statue of a bull that eats grass.

²¹ They forgot God, their savior, the one who did spectacular things in Egypt, ²² miracles in the land of Ham, and terrifying things at the Red Sea.

²³ God said he was going to destroy them, but Moses, his chosen one, stood in his way to prevent him from exterminating them.

²⁴ They refused to enter the pleasant land. They did not believe what he said.

²⁵ They complained in their tents. They did not obey the LORD.

²⁶ Raising his hand, he swore that he would kill them in the wilderness,

²⁸ They joined in worshiping the god Baal while they were at Peor, and they ate what was sacrificed to the dead.

²⁹ They infuriated God by what they did, and a plague broke out among them.

³⁰ Then Phinehas stood between God and the people, and the plague was stopped.

³¹ Because of this, Phinehas was considered righteous forever, throughout every generation.

³² They made God angry by the water at Meribah. Things turned out badly for Moses because of what they did, ³³ since they made him bitter so that he spoke recklessly.

³⁴ They did not destroy the people as the LORD had told them.

³⁵ Instead, they intermarried with other nations. They learned to do what other nations did, ³⁶ and they worshiped their idols, which became a trap for them.

³⁷ They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

³⁸ They shed innocent blood, the blood of their own sons and daughters whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. The land became polluted with blood.

³⁹ They became filthy because of what they did. They behaved like prostitutes.

⁴⁰ The LORD burned with anger against his own people. He was disgusted with those who belonged to him.

⁴¹ He handed them over to other nations, and those who hated them ruled them.

⁴² Their enemies oppressed them and made them subject to their power.

⁴³ He rescued them many times, but they continued to plot rebellion against him and to sink deeper because of their sin.

⁴⁴ He saw that they were suffering when he heard their cry for help.

⁴⁵ He remembered his promise to them. In keeping with his rich mercy, he changed his plans.

⁴⁶ He let them find compassion from all those who held them captive.

⁴⁷ Rescue us, O LORD our God, and gather us from the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and make your praise our glory.

107 ¹ Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

² Let the people the LORD defended repeat these words. They are the people he defended from the power of their enemies

³ and gathered from other countries, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

⁴ They wandered around the desert on a deserted road without finding an inhabited city.

⁵ They were hungry and thirsty. They began to lose hope.

⁶ In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He rescued them from their troubles.

⁷ He led them on a road that went straight to an inhabited city.

⁸ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

⁹ He gave plenty to drink to those who were thirsty. He filled those who were hungry with good food.

¹⁰ Those who lived in the dark, in death's shadow were prisoners in misery. They were held in iron chains

¹¹ because they had rebelled against God's words and had despised the advice given by the Most High.

¹² So he humbled them with hard work. They fell down, but no one was there to help them.

¹³ In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He saved them from their troubles.

¹⁴ He brought them out of the dark, out of death's shadow. He broke apart their chains.

¹⁵ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

¹⁶ He shattered bronze gates and cut iron bars in two.

¹⁷ Fools suffered because of their disobedience and because of their crimes.

¹⁸ All food was disgusting to them, and they came near death's gates.

¹⁹ In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He saved them from their troubles.

²⁰ He sent his message and healed them. He rescued them from the grave.

²¹ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

²² Let them bring songs of thanksgiving as their sacrifice. Let them tell in joyful songs what he has done.

²³ Those who sail on the sea in ships, who do business on the high seas, ²⁴ have seen what the LORD can do, the miracles he performed in the depths of the sea.

²⁶ The sailors aboard ship rose toward the sky. They plunged into the depths. Their courage melted in the face of disaster.

²⁷ They reeled and staggered like drunks, and all their skills as sailors became useless.

²⁸ In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He led them from their troubles.

²⁹ He made the storm calm down, and the waves became still.

³⁰ The sailors were glad that the storm was quiet. He guided them to the harbor they had longed for.

³¹ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

³² Let them glorify him when the people are gathered for worship. Let them praise him in the company of respected leaders.

³³ He changes rivers into a desert, springs into thirsty ground,

³⁴ and fertile ground into a layer of salt because of the wickedness of the people living there.

³⁵ He changes deserts into lakes and dry ground into springs.

³⁶ There he settles those who are hungry, and they build cities to live in.

³⁷ They plant in fields and vineyards that produce crops.

³⁸ He blesses them, and their numbers multiply, and he does not allow a shortage of cattle.

³⁹ They became few in number and were humiliated because of oppression, disaster, and sorrow.

⁴⁰ He poured contempt on their influential people and made them stumble around in a pathless desert.

⁴¹ But now he lifts needy people high above suffering and makes their families like flocks.

⁴² Decent people will see this and rejoice, but all the wicked people will shut their mouths.

108 ¹ A song; a psalm by David. My heart is confident, O God. I want to sing and make music even with my soul.

² Wake up, harp and lyre! I want to wake up at dawn.

³ I want to give thanks to you among the people, O LORD. I want to make music to praise you among the nations

⁴ because your mercy is higher than the heavens. Your truth reaches the skies.

⁵ May you be honored above the heavens, O God. Let your glory extend over the whole earth.

⁶ Save us with your powerful hand, and answer us so that those who are dear to you may be rescued.

⁷ God has promised the following through his holiness: "I will triumph! I will divide Shechem. I will measure the valley of Succoth.

⁸ Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim is the helmet on my head.
Judah is my scepter.

⁹ Moab is my washtub. I will throw my shoe over Edom. I will shout in triumph over Philistia."

¹⁰ Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

¹¹ Isn't it you, O God, who rejected us? Isn't it you, O God, who refused to accompany our armies?

¹² Give us help against the enemy because human assistance is worthless.

¹³ With God we will display great strength. He will trample our enemies.

109 ¹ For the choir director; a psalm by David. O God, whom
I praise, do not turn a deaf ear to me.

² Wicked and deceitful people have opened their mouths against me. They speak against me with lying tongues.

³ They surround me with hateful words.
They fight against me for no reason.

⁴ In return for my love, they accuse me, but I pray for them.

⁵ They reward me with evil instead of good and with hatred instead of love.

⁶ I said, "Appoint the evil one to oppose him. Let Satan stand beside him.

⁷ When he stands trial, let him be found guilty. Let his prayer be considered sinful.

⁸ Let his days be few in number. Let someone else take his position.

⁹ "Let his children become fatherless and his wife a widow.

¹⁰ Let his children wander around and beg. Let them seek help far from their ruined homes.

¹¹ Let a creditor take everything he owns. Let strangers steal what he has worked for.

¹² Let no one be kind to him anymore.
Let no one show any pity to his fatherless children.

¹³ Let his descendants be cut off and their family name be wiped out by the next generation.

¹⁴ Let the LORD remember the guilt of his ancestors and not wipe out his mother's sin.

¹⁵ Let their guilt and sin always remain on record in front of the LORD. Let the LORD remove every memory of him from the earth,

¹⁶ because he did not remember to be kind. "He drove oppressed, needy, and brokenhearted people to their graves.

¹⁷ He loved to put curses on others, so he, too, was cursed. He did not like to bless others, so he never received a blessing.

¹⁸ He wore cursing as though it were clothing, so cursing entered his body like water and his bones like oil.

¹⁹ Let cursing be his clothing, a belt he always wears."

²⁰ This is how the LORD rewards those who accuse me, those who say evil things against me.

²¹ O LORD Almighty, deal with me out of the goodness of your name. Rescue me because of your mercy.

²² I am oppressed and needy. I can feel the pain in my heart.

²³ I fade away like a lengthening shadow. I have been shaken off like a grasshopper.

²⁴ My knees give way because I have been fasting. My body has become lean, without any fat.

²⁵ I have become the victim of my enemies' insults. They look at me and shake their heads.

²⁶ Help me, O LORD my God. Save me because of your mercy.

²⁷ Then they will know that this is your doing, that you, O LORD, are the one who saved me.

²⁸ They may curse, but you will bless. Let those who attack me be ashamed, but let me rejoice.

²⁹ Let those who accuse me wear disgrace as though it were clothing. Let them be wrapped in their shame as though it were a robe.

³⁰ With my mouth I will give many thanks to the LORD. I will praise him among many people, ³¹ because he stands beside needy people to save them from those who would condemn them to death.

110 ¹ A psalm by David. The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit in the highest position in heaven until I make your enemies your footstool."

² The LORD will extend your powerful scepter from Zion. Rule your enemies who surround you.

³ Your people will volunteer when you call up your army. Your young people will come to you in holy splendor like dew in the early morning.

⁴ The LORD has taken an oath and will not change his mind: "You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest."

⁵ The Lord is at your right side. He will crush kings on the day of his anger.

⁶ He will pass judgment on the nations and fill them with dead bodies. Throughout the earth he will crush their heads.

⁷ He will drink from the brook along the road. He will hold his head high.

111 ¹ Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart in the company of decent people and in the congregation.

² The LORD'S deeds are spectacular. They should be studied by all who enjoy them.

³ His work is glorious and majestic. His righteousness continues forever.

⁴ He has made his miracles unforgettable. The LORD is merciful and compassionate.

⁵ He provides food for those who fear him. He always remembers his promise.

⁶ He has revealed the power of his works to his people by giving them the lands of other nations as an inheritance.

⁷ His works are done with truth and justice. All his guiding principles are trustworthy.

⁸ They last forever and ever. They are carried out with truth and decency.

⁹ He has sent salvation to his people. He has ordered that his promise should continue forever. His name is holy and terrifying.

¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. Good sense is shown by everyone who follows God's guiding principles. His praise continues forever.

112 ¹ Hallelujah! Blessed is the person who fears the LORD and is happy to obey his commands.

² His descendants will grow strong on the earth. The family of a decent person will be blessed.

³ Wealth and riches will be in his home. His righteousness continues forever.

⁴ Light will shine in the dark for a decent person. He is merciful, compassionate, and fair.

⁵ All goes well for the person who is generous and lends willingly. He earns an honest living.

⁶ He will never fail. A righteous person will always be remembered.

⁷ He is not afraid of bad news. His heart remains secure, full of confidence in the LORD.

⁸ His heart is steady, and he is not afraid. In the end he will look triumphantly at his enemies.

⁹ He gives freely to poor people. His righteousness continues forever. His head is raised in honor.

¹⁰ The wicked person sees this and becomes angry. He angrily grits his teeth and disappears. The hope that wicked people have will vanish.

113 ¹ Hallelujah! You servants of the LORD, praise him. Praise the name of the LORD.

² Thank the name of the LORD now and forever.

³ From where the sun rises to where the sun sets, the name of the LORD should be praised.

⁴ The LORD is high above all the nations.
His glory is above the heavens.

⁵ Who is like the LORD our God? He is seated on his high throne.

⁶ He bends down to look at heaven and earth.

⁷ He lifts the poor from the dust. He lifts the needy from a garbage heap.

⁸ He seats them with influential people, with the influential leaders of his people.

⁹ He makes a woman who is in a childless home a joyful mother.
Hallelujah!

114 ¹ When Israel left Egypt, when
spoke a foreign language,

² Judah became his holy place and Israel became his kingdom.

³ The Red Sea looked at this and ran away. The Jordan River turned back.

⁴ The mountains jumped like rams. The hills jumped like lambs.

⁵ Red Sea, why did you run away?
Jordan River, what made you turn back?

⁶ Mountains, what made you jump like rams?
Hills, what made you jump like lambs?

⁷ Earth, tremble in the presence of the Lord, in the presence of the God of Jacob.

⁸ He turns a rock into a pool filled with water and turns flint into a spring flowing with water.

115 ¹ Don't give glory to us, O LORD.
Don't give glory to us. Instead, give glory to your name because of your mercy and faithfulness.

² Why should other nations say, "Where is their God?"

³ Our God is in heaven. He does whatever he wants.

⁴ Their idols are made of silver and gold.
They were made by human hands.

⁵ They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.

⁶ They have ears, but they cannot hear. They have noses, but they cannot smell.

⁷ They have hands, but they cannot feel. They have feet, but they cannot walk. They cannot even make a sound with their throats.

⁸ Those who make idols end up like them. So does everyone who trusts them.

⁹ Israel, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹⁰ Descendants of Aaron, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹¹ If you fear the LORD, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹² The LORD, who is always thinking about us, will bless us. He will bless the descendants of Israel. He will bless the descendants of Aaron.

¹³ He will bless those who fear the LORD, from the least important to the most important.

¹⁴ May the LORD continue to bless you and your children.

¹⁵ You will be blessed by the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

¹⁶ The highest heaven belongs to the LORD, but he has given the earth to the descendants of Adam.

¹⁷ Those who are dead do not praise the LORD, nor do those who go into the silence of the grave.

116 ¹ I love the LORD because he hears my voice, my pleas for mercy.

² I will call on him as long as I live because he turns his ear toward me.

³ The ropes of death became tangled around me. The horrors of the grave took hold of me. I experienced pain and agony.

⁴ But I kept calling on the name of the LORD: "Please, LORD, rescue me!"

⁵ The LORD is merciful and righteous. Our God is compassionate.

⁶ The LORD protects defenseless people. When I was weak, he saved me.

⁷ Be at peace again, my soul, because the LORD has been good to you.

⁸ You saved me from death. You saved my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.

⁹ I will walk in the LORD'S presence in this world of the living.

¹⁰ I kept my faith even when I said, "I am suffering terribly."

¹¹ I also said when I was panic-stricken, "Everyone is undependable."

¹² How can I repay the LORD for all the good that he has done for me?

¹³ I will take the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁴ I will keep my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.

¹⁵ Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

¹⁶ O LORD, I am indeed your servant. I am your servant, the son of your female servant. You have freed me from my chains.

¹⁷ I will bring a song of thanksgiving to you as a sacrifice. I will call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁸ I will keep my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, ¹⁹ in the courtyards of the LORD'S house, in the middle of Jerusalem.

Hallelujah!

117 ¹ Praise the LORD, all you nations! Praise him, all you people of the world!

² His mercy toward us is powerful. The LORD'S faithfulness endures forever.
Hallelujah!

118 ¹ Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

² Israel should say, "His mercy endures forever."

³ The descendants of Aaron should say, "His mercy endures forever."

⁴ Those who fear the LORD should say, "His mercy endures forever."

⁵ During times of trouble I called on the LORD. The LORD answered me and set me free from all of them.

⁶ The LORD is on my side. I am not afraid. What can mortals do to me?

⁷ The LORD is on my side as my helper. I will see the defeat of those who hate me.

⁸ It is better to depend on the LORD than to trust mortals.

⁹ It is better to depend on the LORD than to trust influential people.

¹⁰ All the nations surrounded me, but armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹¹ They surrounded me. Yes, they surrounded me, but armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹² They swarmed around me like bees, but they were extinguished like burning thornbushes. So armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹³ They pushed hard to make me fall, but the LORD helped me.

¹⁵ The sound of joyful singing and victory is heard in the tents of righteous people. The right hand of the LORD displays strength.

¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD is held high. The right hand of the LORD displays strength.

¹⁷ I will not die, but I will live and tell what the LORD has done.

¹⁸ The LORD disciplined me severely, but he did not allow me to be killed.

¹⁹ Open the gates of righteousness for me. I will go through them and give thanks to the LORD.

²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD through which righteous people will enter.

²¹ I give thanks to you, because you have answered me. You are my savior.

²² The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

²³ The LORD is responsible for this, and it is amazing for us to see.

²⁴ This is the day the LORD has made. Let's rejoice and be glad today!

²⁵ We beg you, O LORD, save us! We beg you, O LORD, give us success!

²⁶ Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD. We bless you from the LORD'S house.

²⁷ The LORD is God, and he has given us light. March in a festival procession with branches to the horns of the altar.

²⁸ You are my God, and I give thanks to you. My God, I honor you highly.

²⁹ Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

119 ¹ Blessed are those whose lives have integrity, those who follow the teachings of the LORD.

² Blessed are those who obey his written instructions. They wholeheartedly search for him.

³ They do nothing wrong. They follow his directions.

⁴ You have commanded that your guiding principles be carefully followed.

⁵ I pray that my ways may become firmly established so that I can obey your laws.

⁶ Then I will never feel ashamed when I study all your commandments.

⁷ I will give thanks to you as I learn your regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

⁸ I will obey your laws. Never abandon me.

⁹ How can a young person keep his life pure? He can do it by holding on to your word.

¹⁰ I wholeheartedly searched for you. Do not let me wander away from your commandments.

¹¹ I have treasured your promise in my heart so that I may not sin against you.

¹² Thanks be to you, O LORD. Teach me your laws.

¹³ With my lips I have repeated every regulation that comes from your mouth.

¹⁴ I find joy in the way shown by your written instructions more than I find joy in all kinds of riches.

¹⁵ I want to reflect on your guiding principles and study your ways.

¹⁶ Your laws make me happy. I never forget your word.

¹⁷ Be kind to me so that I may live and hold on to your word.

¹⁸ Uncover my eyes so that I may see the miraculous things in your teachings.

¹⁹ I am a foreigner in this world. Do not hide your commandments from me.

²⁰ My soul is overwhelmed with endless longing for your regulations.

²¹ You threaten arrogant people, who are condemned and wander away from your commandments.

²² Remove the insults and contempt that have fallen on me because I have obeyed your written instructions.

²³ Even though influential people plot against me, I reflect on your laws.

²⁴ Indeed, your written instructions make me happy. They are my best friends.

²⁵ I am close to death. Give me a new life as you promised.

²⁶ I told you what I have done, and you answered me. Teach me your laws.

²⁷ Help me understand your guiding principles so that I may reflect on your miracles.

²⁸ I am drowning in tears. Strengthen me as you promised.

²⁹ Turn me away from a life of lies. Graciously provide me with your teachings.

³⁰ I have chosen a life of faithfulness. I have set your regulations in front of me.

³¹ I have clung tightly to your written instructions. O LORD, do not let me be put to shame.

³² I will eagerly pursue your commandments because you continue to increase my understanding.

³³ Teach me, O LORD, how to live by your laws, and I will obey them to the end.

³⁴ Help me understand so that I can follow your teachings. I will guard them with all my heart.

³⁵ Lead me on the path of your commandments, because I am happy with them.

³⁶ Direct my heart toward your written instructions rather than getting rich in underhanded ways.

³⁷ Turn my eyes away from worthless things. Give me a new life in your ways.

³⁹ Take away insults, which I dread, because your regulations are good.

⁴⁰ I long for your guiding principles.
Give me a new life in your righteousness.

⁴¹ Let your blessings reach me, O LORD.
Save me as you promised.

⁴² Then I will have an answer for the one who insults me since I trust your word.

⁴³ Do not take so much as a single word of truth from my mouth. My hope is based on your regulations.

⁴⁴ I will follow your teachings forever and ever.

⁴⁵ I will walk around freely because I sought out your guiding principles.

⁴⁶ I will speak about your written instructions in the presence of kings and not feel ashamed.

⁴⁷ Your commandments, which I love, make me happy.

⁴⁸ I lift my hands in prayer because of your commandments, which I love. I will reflect on your laws.

⁴⁹ Remember the word you gave me.
Through it you gave me hope.

⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my misery: Your promise gave me a new life.

⁵¹ Arrogant people have mocked me with cruelty, yet I have not turned away from your teachings.

⁵² I remembered your regulations from long ago, O LORD, and I found comfort in them.

⁵³ I am burning with anger because of wicked people, who abandon your teachings.

⁵⁴ Your laws have become like psalms to me in this place where I am only a foreigner.

⁵⁵ At night I remember your name, O LORD, and I follow your teachings.

⁵⁶ This has happened to me because I have obeyed your guiding principles.

⁵⁷ You are my inheritance, O LORD. I promised to hold on to your words.

⁵⁸ With all my heart I want to win your favor. Be kind to me as you promised.

⁵⁹ I have thought about my life, and I have directed my feet back to your written instructions.

⁶⁰ Without any hesitation I hurry to obey your commandments.

⁶¹ Though the ropes of wicked people are tied around me, I never forget your teachings.

⁶² At midnight I wake up to give thanks to you for the regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

⁶³ I am a friend to everyone who fears you and to everyone who follows your guiding principles.

⁶⁴ Your mercy, O LORD, fills the earth. Teach me your laws.

⁶⁵ You have treated me well, O LORD, as you promised.

⁶⁶ Teach me to use good judgment and knowledge, because I believe in your commandments.

⁶⁷ Before you made me suffer, I used to wander off, but now I hold on to your word.

⁶⁸ You are good, and you do good things. Teach me your laws.

⁷⁰ Their hearts are cold and insensitive, yet I am happy with your teachings.

⁷¹ It was good that I had to suffer in order to learn your laws.

⁷² The teachings that come from your mouth are worth more to me than thousands in gold or silver.

⁷³ Your hands created me and made me what I am. Help me understand so that I may learn your commandments.

⁷⁴ Those who fear you will see me and rejoice, because my hope is based on your word.

⁷⁵ I know that your regulations are fair, O LORD, and that you were right to make me suffer.

⁷⁶ Let your mercy comfort me as you promised.

⁷⁷ Let your compassion reach me so that I may live, because your teachings make me happy.

⁷⁸ Let arrogant people be put to shame because they lied about me, yet I reflect on your guiding principles.

⁷⁹ Let those who fear you turn to me so that they can come to know your written instructions.

⁸⁰ Let my heart be filled with integrity in regard to your laws so that I will not be put to shame.

⁸¹ My soul is weak from waiting for you to save me. My hope is based on your word.

⁸² My eyes have become strained from looking for your promise. I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

⁸³ Although I have become like a shriveled and dried out wineskin, I have not forgotten your laws.

⁸⁴ What is left of my life? When will you bring those who persecute me to justice?

⁸⁵ Arrogant people have dug pits to trap me in defiance of your teachings.

⁸⁶ (All your commandments are reliable.) Those people persecute me with lies. Help me!

⁸⁷ They almost wiped me off the face of the earth. But I did not abandon your guiding principles.

⁸⁸ Give me a new life through your mercy so that I may obey the written instructions, which came from your mouth.

⁸⁹ O LORD, your word is established in heaven forever.

⁹⁰ Your faithfulness endures throughout every generation. You set the earth in place, and it continues to stand.

⁹¹ All things continue to stand today because of your regulations, since they are all your servants.

⁹² If your teachings had not made me happy, then I would have died in my misery.

⁹³ I will never forget your guiding principles, because you gave me a new life through them.

⁹⁴ I am yours. Save me, because I have searched for your guiding principles.

⁹⁵ The wicked people have waited for me in order to destroy me, yet I want to understand your written instructions.

⁹⁶ I have seen a limit to everything else, but your commandments have no limit.

⁹⁷ Oh, how I love your teachings! They are in my thoughts all day long.

⁹⁸ Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, because your commandments are always with me.

⁹⁹ I have more insight than all my teachers, because your written instructions are in my thoughts.

¹⁰⁰ I have more wisdom than those with many years of experience, because I have obeyed your guiding principles.

¹⁰¹ I have kept my feet from walking on any evil path in order to obey your word.

¹⁰² I have not neglected your regulations, because you have taught me.

¹⁰³ How sweet the taste of your promise is! It tastes sweeter than honey.

¹⁰⁴ From your guiding principles I gain understanding. That is why I hate every path that leads to lying.

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path.

¹⁰⁶ I took an oath, and I will keep it. I took an oath to follow your regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

¹⁰⁷ I have suffered so much. Give me a new life, O LORD, as you promised.

¹⁰⁸ Please accept the praise I gladly give you, O LORD, and teach me your regulations.

¹⁰⁹ I always take my life into my own hands, but I never forget your teachings.

¹¹⁰ Wicked people have set a trap for me, but I have never wandered away from your guiding principles.

¹¹¹ Your written instructions are mine forever. They are the joy of my heart.

¹¹² I have decided to obey your laws. They offer a reward that never ends.

¹¹³ I hate two-faced people, but I love your teachings.

¹¹⁴ You are my hiding place and my shield. My hope is based on your word.

¹¹⁵ Get away from me, you evildoers, so that I can obey the commandments of my God.

¹¹⁶ Help me God, as you promised, so that I may live. Do not turn my hope into disappointment.

¹¹⁷ Hold me, and I will be safe, and I will always respect your laws.

¹¹⁸ You reject all who wander away from your laws, because their lies mislead them.

¹¹⁹ You get rid of all wicked people on earth as if they were rubbish. That is why I love your written instructions.

¹²⁰ My body shudders in fear of you, and I am afraid of your regulations.

¹²¹ I have done what is fair and right.
Do not leave me at the mercy of those who oppress me.

¹²² Guarantee my well-being. Do not let arrogant people oppress me.

¹²³ My eyes are strained from looking for you to save me and from looking for the fulfillment of your righteous promise.

¹²⁴ Treat me with kindness, and teach me your laws.

¹²⁵ I am your servant. Help me understand so that I may come to know your written instructions.

¹²⁶ It is time for you to act, O LORD.
Even though people have abolished your teachings,

¹²⁷ I love your commandments more than gold, more than pure gold.

¹²⁸ I follow the straight paths of your guiding principles. I hate every pathway that leads to lying.

¹²⁹ Your written instructions are miraculous. That is why I obey them.

¹³⁰ Your word is a doorway that lets in light, and it helps gullible people understand.

¹³¹ I open my mouth and pant because I long for your commandments.

¹³² Turn toward me, and have pity on me as you have pledged to do for those who love your name.

¹³³ Make my steps secure through your promise, and do not let any sin control me.

¹³⁴ Save me from human oppression so that I may obey your guiding principles.

¹³⁵ Smile on me, and teach me your laws.

¹³⁶ Streams of tears flow from my eyes because others do not follow your teachings.

¹³⁷ You are righteous, O LORD, and your regulations are fair.

¹³⁸ You have issued your written instructions. They are fair and completely dependable.

¹³⁹ My devotion for your words consumes me, because my enemies have forgotten your words.

¹⁴⁰ Your promise has been thoroughly tested, and I love it.

¹⁴¹ I am unimportant and despised, yet I never forget your guiding principles.

¹⁴² Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your teachings are reliable.

¹⁴³ Trouble and hardship have found me, but your commandments still make me happy.

¹⁴⁴ Your written instructions are always right. Help me understand them so that I will live.

¹⁴⁵ I have called out with all my heart. Answer me, O LORD. I want to obey your laws.

¹⁴⁶ I have called out. Save me, so that I can obey your written instructions.

¹⁴⁷ I got up before dawn, and I cried out for help. My hope is based on your word.

¹⁴⁸ My eyes are wide-open throughout the nighttime hours to reflect on your word.

¹⁴⁹ In keeping with your mercy, hear my voice. O LORD, give me a new life guided by your regulations.

¹⁵⁰ Those who carry out plots against me are near, yet they are far away from your teachings.

¹⁵¹ You are near, O LORD, and all your commandments are reliable.

¹⁵³ Look at my misery, and rescue me, because I have never forgotten your teachings.

¹⁵⁴ Plead my case for me, and save me.
Give me a new life as you promised.

¹⁵⁵ Wicked people are far from being saved, because they have not searched for your laws.

¹⁵⁶ Your acts of compassion are many in number, O LORD. Give me a new life guided by your regulations.

¹⁵⁷ I have many persecutors and opponents, yet I have not turned away from your written instructions.

¹⁵⁸ I have seen traitors, and I am filled with disgust. They have not accepted your promise.

¹⁵⁹ See how I have loved your guiding principles! O LORD, in keeping with your mercy, give me a new life.

¹⁶⁰ There is nothing but truth in your word, and all of your righteous regulations endure forever.

¹⁶¹ Influential people have persecuted me for no reason, but it is only your words that fill my heart with terror.

¹⁶² I find joy in your promise like someone who finds a priceless treasure.

¹⁶³ I hate lying; I am disgusted with it. I love your teachings.

¹⁶⁴ Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous regulations.

¹⁶⁵ There is lasting peace for those who love your teachings. Nothing can make those people stumble.

¹⁶⁶ I have waited with hope for you to save me, O LORD. I have carried out your commandments.

¹⁶⁷ I have obeyed your written instructions. I have loved them very much.

¹⁶⁸ I have followed your guiding principles and your written instructions, because my whole life is in front of you.

¹⁶⁹ Let my cry for help come into your presence, O LORD. Help me understand as you promised.

¹⁷⁰ Let my plea for mercy come into your presence. Rescue me as you promised.

¹⁷¹ Let my lips pour out praise because you teach me your laws.

¹⁷² Let my tongue sing about your promise because all your commandments are fair.

¹⁷³ Let your hand help me because I have chosen to follow your guiding principles.

¹⁷⁴ I have longed for you to save me, O LORD, and your teachings make me happy.

¹⁷⁵ Let my soul have new life so that it can praise you. Let your regulations help me.

¹⁷⁶ I have wandered away like a lost lamb. Search for me, because I have never forgotten your commandments.

120 ¹ A song for going up to worship. When I was in trouble, I cried out to the LORD, and he answered me.

² O LORD, rescue me from lying lips and from a deceitful tongue.

³ You deceitful tongue, what can the LORD give you? What more can he do for you?

⁴ He will give you a warrior's sharpened arrows and red-hot coals.

⁵ How horrible it is to live as a foreigner in Meshech or to stay in the tents of Kedar.

⁶ I have lived too long with those who hate peace.

121 ¹ A song for going up to worship. I look up toward the mountains. Where can I find help?

² My help comes from the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

³ He will not let you fall. Your guardian will not fall asleep.

⁴ Indeed, the Guardian of Israel never rests or sleeps.

⁵ The LORD is your guardian. The LORD is the shade over your right hand.

⁶ The sun will not beat down on you during the day, nor will the moon at night.

⁷ The LORD guards you from every evil. He guards your life.

⁸ The LORD guards you as you come and go, now and forever.

122 ¹ A song by David for going up to worship. I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to the house of the LORD."

² Our feet are standing inside your gates, Jerusalem.

³ Jerusalem is built to be a city where the people are united.

⁴ All of the LORD'S tribes go to that city because it is a law in Israel to give thanks to the name of the LORD.

⁵ The court of justice sits there. It consists of princes who are David's descendants.

⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who love you prosper.

⁷ May there be peace inside your walls and prosperity in your palaces."

⁸ For the sake of my relatives and friends, let me say, "May it go well for you!"

⁹ For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek what is good for you.

123 ¹ A song for going up to worship. I look up to you, to the one who sits enthroned in heaven.

² As servants depend on their masters, as a maid depends on her mistress, so we depend on the LORD our God until he has pity on us.

³ Have pity on us, O LORD. Have pity on us because we have suffered more than our share of contempt.

⁴ We have suffered more than our share of ridicule from those who are carefree. We have suffered more than our share of contempt from those who are arrogant.

124 ¹ A song by David for going up to worship. "If the LORD had not been on our side..." (Israel should repeat this.)

² "If the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked us,

³ then they would have swallowed us alive when their anger exploded against us.

⁴ Then the floodwaters would have swept us away. An overflowing stream would have washed us away.

⁵ Then raging water would have washed us away."

⁶ Thank the LORD, who did not let them sink their teeth into us.

⁷ We escaped like a bird caught in a hunter's trap. The trap was broken, and we escaped.

⁸ Our help is in the name of the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

125 ¹ A song for going up to worship. Those who trust the LORD are like Mount Zion, which can never be shaken. It remains firm forever.

² As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people now and forever.

³ A wicked ruler will not be allowed to govern the land set aside for righteous people. That is why righteous people do not use their power to do wrong.

⁴ Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, to those whose motives are decent.

⁵ But when people become crooked, the LORD will lead them away with troublemakers. Let there be peace in Israel!

126 ¹ A song for going up to worship. When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, it was as if we were dreaming.

² Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with joyful songs. Then the nations said, "The LORD has done spectacular things for them."

³ The LORD has done spectacular things for us. We are overjoyed.

⁴ Restore our fortunes, O LORD, as you restore streams to dry riverbeds in the Negev.

⁵ Those who cry while they plant will joyfully sing while they harvest.

⁶ The person who goes out weeping, carrying his bag of seed, will come home singing, carrying his bundles of grain.

127 ¹ A song by Solomon for going up to worship. If the LORD does not build the house, it is useless for the builders to work on it. If the LORD does not protect a city, it is useless for the guard to stay alert.

² It is useless to work hard for the food you eat by getting up early and going to bed late. The LORD gives food to those he loves while they sleep.

³ Children are an inheritance from the LORD. They are a reward from him.

⁴ The children born to a man when he is young are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

⁵ Blessed is the man who has filled his quiver with them. He will not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the city gate.

128 ¹ A song for going up to worship. Blessed are all who fear the LORD and live his way.

² You will certainly eat what your own hands have provided. Blessings to you! May things go well for you!

³ Your wife will be like a fruitful vine inside your home. Your children will be like young olive trees around your table.

⁴ This is how the LORD will bless the person who fears him.

⁵ May the LORD bless you from Zion so that you may see Jerusalem prospering all the days of your life.

⁶ May you live to see your children's children. Let there be peace in Israel!

129 ¹ A song for going up to worship. "From the time I was young, people have attacked me..." (Israel should repeat this.)

² "From the time I was young, people have attacked me, but they have never overpowered me.

³ They have plowed my back like farmers plow fields. They made long slashes like furrows."

⁴ The LORD is righteous. He has cut me loose from the ropes that wicked people tied around me.

⁵ Put to shame all those who hate Zion. Force them to retreat.

⁶ Make them be like grass on a roof, like grass that dries up before it produces a stalk.

⁷ It will never fill the barns of those who harvest or the arms of those who gather bundles.

⁸ Those who pass by will never say to them, "May you be blessed by the LORD" or "We bless you in the name of the LORD."

130 ¹ A song for going up to worship. O LORD, out of the depths I call to you.

² O Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be open to my pleas for mercy.

³ O LORD, who would be able to stand if you kept a record of sins?

⁵ I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and with hope I wait for his word.

⁶ My soul waits for the LORD more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning.

⁷ O Israel, put your hope in the LORD, because with the LORD there is mercy and with him there is unlimited forgiveness.

⁸ He will rescue Israel from all its sins.

131 ¹ A song by David for going up to worship. O LORD, my heart is not conceited. My eyes do not look down on others. I am not involved in things too big or too difficult for me.

² Instead, I have kept my soul calm and quiet. My soul is content as a weaned child is content in its mother's arms.

³ Israel, put your hope in the LORD now and forever.

132 ¹ A song for going up to worship. O LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured.

² Remember how he swore an oath to the LORD and made this vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³ "I will not step inside my house,
⁴ get into my bed, shut my eyes, or close my eyelids

⁵ until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶ Now, we have heard about the ark of the promise being in Ephrathah. We have found it in Jaar.

⁷ Let's go to his dwelling place. Let's worship at his footstool.

⁸ O LORD, arise, and come to your resting place with the ark of your power.

⁹ Clothe your priests with righteousness. Let your godly ones sing with joy.

¹⁰ For the sake of your servant David, do not reject your anointed one.

¹¹ The LORD swore an oath to David. This is a truth he will not take back: "I will set one of your own descendants on your throne.

¹² If your sons are faithful to my promise and my written instructions that I will teach them, then their descendants will also sit on your throne forever."

¹³ The LORD has chosen Zion. He wants it for his home.

¹⁴ "This will be my resting place forever. Here I will sit enthroned because I want Zion.

¹⁵ I will certainly bless all that Zion needs. I will satisfy its needy people with food.

¹⁶ I will clothe its priests with salvation. Then its godly ones will sing joyfully.

¹⁷ There I will make a horn sprout up for David. I will prepare a lamp for my anointed one.

¹⁸ I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown on my anointed one will shine."

133 ¹ A song by David for going up to worship. See how good and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters live together in harmony!

² It is like fine, scented oil on the head, running down the beard—down Aaron's beard—running over the collar of his robes.

³ It is like dew on Mount Hermon, dew which comes down on Zion's mountains.

That is where the LORD promised the blessing of eternal life.

134 ¹ A song for going up to worship. Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, all who stand in the house of the LORD night after night.

² Lift your hands toward the holy place, and praise the LORD.

³ May the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

135 ¹ Hallelujah! Praise the name of the LORD. Praise him, you servants of the LORD

² who are standing in the house of the LORD, in the courtyards of the house of our God.

³ Praise the LORD because he is good. Make music to praise his name because his name is beautiful.

⁴ The LORD chose Jacob to be his own and chose Israel to be his own special treasure.

⁵ I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is greater than all the false gods.

⁶ The LORD does whatever he wants in heaven or on earth, on the seas or in all the depths of the oceans.

⁷ He is the one who makes the clouds rise from the ends of the earth, who makes lightning for the thunderstorms, and who brings wind out of his storerooms.

⁸ He is the one who killed every firstborn male in Egypt. He killed humans and animals alike.

⁹ He sent miraculous signs and amazing things into the heart of Egypt against Pharaoh and all his officials.

¹⁰ He is the one who defeated many nations and killed mighty kings:

¹¹ King Sihon of the Amorites, King Og of Bashan, and all the kingdoms in Canaan.

¹² He gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to his people Israel.

¹³ O LORD, your name endures forever. O LORD, you will be remembered throughout every generation.

¹⁴ The LORD will provide justice for his people and have compassion on his servants.

¹⁵ The idols of the nations are made of silver and gold. They were made by human hands.

¹⁶ They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.

¹⁷ They have ears, but they cannot hear. They cannot breathe.

¹⁸ Those who make idols end up like them. So does everyone who trusts them.

²⁰ Descendants of Levi, praise the LORD. You people who fear the LORD, praise the LORD.

136 ¹ Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

² Give thanks to the God of gods because his mercy endures forever.

³ Give thanks to the Lord of lords because his mercy endures forever.

⁴ Give thanks to the only one who does miraculous things— because his mercy endures forever.

⁶ to the one who spread out the earth on the water— because his mercy endures forever.

⁷ to the one who made the great lights— because his mercy endures forever.

⁸ the sun to rule the day— because his mercy endures forever.

⁹ the moon and stars to rule the night— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁰ Give thanks to the one who killed the firstborn males in Egypt— because his mercy endures forever.

¹¹ He brought Israel out from among them— because his mercy endures forever.

¹² with a mighty hand and a powerful arm— because his mercy endures forever.

¹³ Give thanks to the one who divided the Red Sea— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁴ He led Israel through the middle of it— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁵ He swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁶ Give thanks to the one who led his people through the desert— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁷ Give thanks to the one who defeated powerful kings— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁸ He killed mighty kings— because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁹ King Sihon of the Amorites— because his mercy endures forever.

²⁰ and King Og of Bashan— because his mercy endures forever.

²¹ He gave their land as an inheritance— because his mercy endures forever.

²² as an inheritance for his servant Israel— because his mercy endures forever.

²³ He remembered us when we were humiliated— because his mercy endures forever.

²⁴ He snatched us from the grasp of our enemies— because his mercy endures forever.

²⁵ He gives food to every living creature— because his mercy endures forever.

²⁶ Give thanks to the God of heaven because his mercy endures forever.

137 ¹ By the rivers of Babylon, we sat down and cried as we remembered Zion.

² We hung our lyres on willow trees.

³ It was there that those who had captured us demanded that we sing. Those who guarded us wanted us to entertain them. They said, "Sing a song from Zion for us!"

⁴ How could we sing the LORD'S song in a foreign land?

⁵ If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget how to play the lyre.

⁶ Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you, if I don't consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

⁸ You destructive people of Babylon, blessed is the one who pays you back with the same treatment you gave us.

⁹ Blessed is the one who grabs your little children and smashes them against a rock.

138 ¹ By David. I will give thanks to you with all my heart. I will make music to praise you in front of the false gods.

² I will bow toward your holy temple. I will give thanks to your name because of your mercy and truth. You have made your name and your promise greater than everything.

³ When I called, you answered me. You made me bold by strengthening my soul.

⁴ All the kings of the earth will give thanks to you, O LORD, because they have heard the promises you spoke.

⁵ They will sing this about the ways of the LORD: "The LORD'S honor is great!"

⁶ Even though the LORD is high above, he sees humble people close up, and he recognizes arrogant people from a distance.

⁸ The LORD will do everything for me. O LORD, your mercy endures forever. Do not let go of what your hands have made.

139 ¹ For the choir director; a psalm by David. O LORD, you have examined me, and you know me.

² You alone know when I sit down and when I get up. You read my thoughts from far away.

³ You watch me when I travel and when I rest. You are familiar with all my ways.

⁴ Even before there is a single word on my tongue, you know all about it, LORD.

⁵ You are all around me—in front of me and in back of me. You lay your hand on me.

⁶ Such knowledge is beyond my grasp. It is so high I cannot reach it.

⁷ Where can I go to get away from your Spirit? Where can I run to get away from you?

⁸ If I go up to heaven, you are there. If I make my bed in hell, you are there.

⁹ If I climb upward on the rays of the morning sun or land on the most distant shore of the sea where the sun sets, ¹⁰ even there your hand would guide me and your right hand would hold on to me.

¹¹ If I say, "Let the darkness hide me and let the light around me turn into night," ¹² even the darkness is not too dark for you. Night is as bright as day. Darkness and light are the same to you.

¹³ You alone created my inner being. You knitted me together inside my mother.

¹⁴ I will give thanks to you because I have been so amazingly and miraculously made. Your works are miraculous, and my soul is fully aware of this.

¹⁵ My bones were not hidden from you when I was being made in secret, when I was being skillfully woven in an underground workshop.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw me when I was only a fetus. Every day of my life was recorded in your book before one of them had taken place.

¹⁷ How precious are your thoughts concerning me, O God! How vast in number they are!

¹⁸ If I try to count them, there would be more of them than there are grains of sand. When I wake up, I am still with you.

¹⁹ I wish that you would kill wicked people, O God, and that bloodthirsty people would leave me alone.

²⁰ They say wicked things about you. Your enemies misuse your name.

²¹ Shouldn't I hate those who hate you, O LORD? Shouldn't I be disgusted with those who attack you?

²² I hate them with all my heart. They have become my enemies.

²³ Examine me, O God, and know my mind. Test me, and know my thoughts.

²⁴ See whether I am on an evil path. Then lead me on the everlasting path.

140 ¹ For the choir leader; a psalm by David. Rescue me from evil people, O LORD. Keep me safe from violent people.

² They plan evil things in their hearts. They start fights every day.

³ They make their tongues as sharp as a snake's fang. Their lips hide the venom of poisonous snakes. Selah

⁴ Protect me from the hands of wicked people, O LORD. Keep me safe from violent people. They try to trip me.

⁵ Arrogant people have laid a trap for me. They have spread out a net with ropes. They have set traps for me along the road. Selah

⁶ I said to the LORD, "You are my God."
O LORD, open your ears to hear my plea for pity.

⁷ O LORD Almighty, the strong one who saves me, you have covered my head in the day of battle.

⁸ O LORD, do not give wicked people what they want. Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become arrogant. Selah

⁹ Let the heads of those who surround me be covered with their own threats.

¹⁰ Let burning coals fall on them. Let them be thrown into a pit, never to rise again.

¹¹ Do not let slanderers prosper on earth. Let evil hunt down violent people with one blow after another.

¹² I know that the LORD will defend the rights of those who are oppressed and the cause of those who are needy.

¹³ Indeed, righteous people will give thanks to your name. Decent people will live in your presence.

141 ¹ A psalm by David. O LORD, I cry out to you, "Come quickly." Open your ears to me when I cry out to you.

² Let my prayer be accepted as sweet-smelling incense in your presence. Let the lifting up of my hands in prayer be accepted as an evening sacrifice.

³ O LORD, set a guard at my mouth. Keep watch over the door of my lips.

⁴ Do not let me be persuaded to do anything evil or to become involved with wickedness, with people who are troublemakers. Do not let me taste their delicacies.

⁵ A righteous person may strike me or correct me out of kindness. It is like lotion for my head. My head will not refuse it, because my prayer is directed against evil deeds.

⁶ When their judges are thrown off a cliff, they will listen to what I have to say. It will sound pleasant to them.

⁷ As someone plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones will be planted at the mouth of the grave.

⁸ My eyes look to you, LORD Almighty. I have taken refuge in you. Do not leave me defenseless.

⁹ Keep me away from the trap they set for me and from the traps set by troublemakers.

¹⁰ Let wicked people fall into their own nets, while I escape unharmed.

142 ¹ A maskil by David when he was in the cave; a prayer. Loudly, I cry to the LORD. Loudly, I plead with the LORD for mercy.

² I pour out my complaints in his presence and tell him my troubles.

³ When I begin to lose hope, you already know what I am experiencing. My enemies have hidden a trap for me on the path where I walk.

⁴ Look to my right and see that no one notices me. Escape is impossible for me. No one cares about me.

⁵ I call out to you, O LORD. I say, "You are my refuge, my own inheritance in this world of the living."

⁶ Pay attention to my cry for help because I am very weak. Rescue me from those who pursue me because they are too strong for me.

⁷ Release my soul from prison so that I may give thanks to your name. Righteous people will surround me because you are good to me.

143 ¹ A psalm by David. O LORD, listen to my prayer. Open your ears to hear my urgent requests.

Answer me because you are faithful and righteous.

² Do not take me to court for judgment, because there is no one alive who is righteous in your presence.

³ The enemy has pursued me. He has ground my life into the dirt. He has made me live in dark places like those who have died long ago.

⁴ That is why I begin to lose hope and my heart is in a state of shock.

⁵ I remember the days long ago. I reflect on all that you have done. I carefully consider what your hands have made.

⁶ I stretch out my hands to you in prayer. Like parched land, my soul thirsts for you. Selah

⁷ Answer me quickly, O LORD. My spirit is worn out. Do not hide your face from me, or I will be like those who go into the pit.

⁸ Let me hear about your mercy in the morning, because I trust you. Let me know the way that I should go, because I long for you.

⁹ Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD. I come to you for protection.

¹⁰ Teach me to do your will, because you are my God. May your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

¹¹ O LORD, keep me alive for the sake of your name. Because you are righteous, lead me out of trouble.

¹² In keeping with your mercy, wipe out my enemies and destroy all who torment me, because I am your servant.

144 ¹ By David. Thank the LORD, my rock, who trained my hands to fight and my fingers to do battle,

² my merciful one, my fortress, my stronghold, and my savior, my shield, the one in whom I take refuge, and the one who brings people under my authority.

³ O LORD, what are humans that you should care about them? What are mere mortals that you should think about them?

⁴ Humans are like a breath of air. Their life span is like a fleeting shadow.

⁵ O LORD, bend your heaven low, and come down. Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

⁶ Hurl bolts of lightning, and scatter them. Shoot your arrows, and throw them into confusion.

⁷ Stretch out your hands from above. Snatch me, and rescue me from raging waters and from foreigners' hands.

⁸ Their mouths speak lies. Their right hands take false pledges.

⁹ O God, I will sing a new song to you. I will sing a psalm to you on a ten-stringed harp.

¹⁰ You are the one who gives victory to kings. You are the one who snatches your servant David away from a deadly sword.

¹¹ Snatch me, and rescue me from foreigners' hands. Their mouths speak lies. Their right hands take false pledges.

¹² May our sons be like full-grown, young plants. May our daughters be like stately columns that adorn the corners of a palace.

¹³ May our barns be filled with all kinds of crops. May our sheep give birth to thousands of lambs, tens of thousands in our fields.

¹⁴ May our cattle have many calves. May no one break in, and may no one be dragged out. May there be no cries of distress in our streets.

¹⁵ Blessed are the people who have these blessings! Blessed are the people whose God is the LORD!

145 ¹ A song of praise by David. I will highly praise you, my God, the king. I will bless your name forever and ever.

² I will bless you every day. I will praise your name forever and ever.

³ The LORD is great, and he should be highly praised. His greatness is unsearchable.

⁴ One generation will praise your deeds to the next. Each generation will talk about your mighty acts.

⁵ I will think about the glorious honor of your majesty and the miraculous things you have done.

⁶ People will talk about the power of your terrifying deeds, and I will tell about your greatness.

⁷ They will announce what they remember of your great goodness, and they will joyfully sing about your righteousness.

⁸ The LORD is merciful, compassionate, patient, and always ready to forgive.

⁹ The LORD is good to everyone and has compassion for everything that he has made.

¹⁰ Everything that you have made will give thanks to you, O LORD, and your faithful ones will praise you.

¹¹ Everyone will talk about the glory of your kingdom and will tell the descendants of Adam about your might ¹² in order to make known your mighty deeds and the glorious honor of your kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Your empire endures throughout every generation.

¹⁴ The LORD supports everyone who falls. He straightens the backs of those who are bent over.

¹⁵ The eyes of all creatures look to you, and you give them their food at the proper time.

¹⁶ You open your hand, and you satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷ The LORD is fair in all his ways and faithful in everything he does.

¹⁸ The LORD is near to everyone who prays to him, to every faithful person who prays to him.

¹⁹ He fills the needs of those who fear him. He hears their cries for help and saves them.

²⁰ The LORD protects everyone who loves him, but he will destroy all wicked people.

²¹ My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and all living creatures will praise his holy name forever and ever.

146 ¹ Hallelujah! Praise the LORD, my soul!

² I want to praise the LORD throughout my life. I want to make music to praise my God as long as I live.

³ Do not trust influential people, mortals who cannot help you.

⁴ When they breathe their last breath, they return to the ground. On that day their plans come to an end.

⁵ Blessed are those who receive help from the God of Jacob. Their hope rests on the LORD their God, ⁶ who made heaven, earth, the sea, and everything in them. The LORD remains faithful forever.

⁷ He brings about justice for those who are oppressed. He gives food to those who are hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free.

⁸ The LORD gives sight to blind people. The LORD straightens the backs of those who are bent over. The LORD loves righteous people.

⁹ The LORD protects foreigners. The LORD gives relief to orphans and widows. But he keeps wicked people from reaching their goal.

¹⁰ The LORD rules as king forever. Zion, your God rules throughout every generation. Hallelujah!

147 ¹ Hallelujah! It is good to sing psalms to our God. It is pleasant to sing his praise beautifully.

² The LORD is the builder of Jerusalem. He is the one who gathers the outcasts of Israel together.

³ He is the healer of the brokenhearted. He is the one who bandages their wounds.

⁴ He determines the number of stars. He gives each one a name.

⁵ Our Lord is great, and his power is great. There is no limit to his understanding.

⁶ The LORD gives relief to those who are oppressed. He brings wicked people down to the ground.

⁷ Sing to the LORD a song of thanksgiving. Make music to our God with a lyre.

⁸ He covers the sky with clouds. He provides rain for the ground. He makes grass grow on the mountains.

¹⁰ He finds no joy in strong horses, nor is he pleased by brave soldiers.

¹¹ The LORD is pleased with those who fear him, with those who wait with hope for his mercy.

¹² Praise the LORD, Jerusalem! Praise your God, Zion!

¹³ He makes the bars across your gates strong. He blesses the children within you.

¹⁵ He is the one who sends his promise throughout the earth. His word travels with great speed.

¹⁶ He is the one who sends snow like wool and scatters frost like ashes.

¹⁷ He is the one who throws his hailstones like breadcrumbs. Who can withstand his chilling blast?

¹⁸ He sends out his word and melts his hailstones. He makes wind blow and water flow.

¹⁹ He speaks his word to Jacob, his laws and judicial decisions to Israel.

³ Praise him, sun and moon. Praise him, all shining stars.

⁴ Praise him, you highest heaven and the water above the sky.

⁵ Let them praise the name of the LORD because they were created by his command.

⁶ He set them in their places forever and ever. He made it a law that no one can break.

⁷ Praise the LORD from the earth. Praise him, large sea creatures and all the ocean depths,

⁸ lightning and hail, snow and fog, strong winds that obey his commands,

⁹ mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedar trees,

¹⁰ wild animals and all domestic animals, crawling animals and birds,

¹¹ kings of the earth and all its people, officials and all judges on the earth,

¹² young men and women, old and young together.

¹³ Let them praise the name of the LORD because his name is high above all others. His glory is above heaven and earth.

¹⁴ He has given his people a strong leader, someone praiseworthy for his faithful ones, for the people of Israel, the people who are close to him. Hallelujah!

149 ¹ Hallelujah! Sing a new song to the LORD. Sing his praise in the assembly of godly people.

² Let Israel find joy in their creator. Let the people of Zion rejoice over their king.

³ Let them praise his name with dancing. Let them make music to him with tambourines and lyres, ⁴ because the LORD takes pleasure in his people. He crowns those who are oppressed with victory.

⁵ Let godly people triumph in glory. Let them sing for joy on their beds.

⁶ Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands

⁷ to take vengeance on the nations, to punish the people of the world,

⁸ to put their kings in chains and their leaders in iron shackles,

⁹ to carry out the judgment that is written against them. This is an honor that belongs to all his godly ones.

Hallelujah!

150 ¹ Hallelujah! Praise God in his holy place. Praise him in his mighty heavens.

² Praise him for his mighty acts. Praise him for his immense greatness.

⁴ Praise him with tambourines and dancing. Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes.

⁵ Praise him with loud cymbals. Praise him with crashing cymbals.

⁶ Let everything that breathes praise the LORD! Hallelujah!

Proverbs

1 ¹ The proverbs of Solomon, David's son who was king of Israel, given

² to grasp wisdom and discipline, to understand deep thoughts,

³ to acquire the discipline of wise behavior—righteousness and justice and fairness—

⁴ to give insight to gullible people, to give knowledge and foresight to the young—

⁵ a wise person will listen and continue to learn, and an understanding person will gain direction—

⁶ to understand a proverb and a clever saying, the words of wise people and their riddles.

⁷ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. Stubborn fools despise wisdom and discipline.

⁸ My son, listen to your father's discipline, and do not neglect your mother's teachings,

⁹ because discipline and teachings are a graceful garland on your head and a golden chain around your neck.

¹⁰ My son, if sinners lure you, do not go along.

¹¹ If they say, "Come with us. Let's set an ambush to kill someone. Let's hide to ambush innocent people for fun.

¹² We'll swallow them alive like the grave, like those in good health who go into the pit.

¹³ We'll find all kinds of valuable possessions. We'll fill our homes with stolen goods.

¹⁴ Join us. We'll split the loot equally."

¹⁵ My son, do not follow them in their way. Do not even set foot on their path, ¹⁶ because they rush to do evil and hurry to shed blood.

¹⁷ It does no good to spread a net within the sight of any bird.

¹⁸ But these people set an ambush for their own murder. They go into hiding only to lose their lives.

¹⁹ This is what happens to everyone who is greedy for unjust gain. Greed takes away his life.

²⁰ Wisdom sings her song in the streets. In the public squares she raises her voice.

²¹ At the corners of noisy streets she calls out. At the entrances to the city she speaks her words, ²² "How long will you gullible people love being so gullible? How long will you mockers find joy in your mocking? How long will you fools hate knowledge?

²³ "Turn to me when I warn you. I will generously pour out my spirit for you. I will make my words known to you.

²⁴ "I called, and you refused to listen. I stretched out my hands to you, and no one paid attention.

²⁵ You ignored all my advice. You did not want me to warn you.

²⁶ I will laugh at your calamity. I will make fun of you when panic strikes you, ²⁷ when panic strikes you like a violent storm, when calamity strikes you like a wind storm, when trouble and anguish come to you.

²⁸ "They will call to me at that time, but I will not answer. They will look for me, but they will not find me, ²⁹ because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD.

³⁰ They refused my advice. They despised my every warning.

³¹ They will eat the fruit of their lifestyle. They will be stuffed with their own schemes.

³² "Gullible people kill themselves because of their turning away. Fools destroy themselves because of their indifference.

³³ But whoever listens to me will live without worry and will be free from the dread of disaster."

2 ¹ My son, if you take my words to heart and treasure my commands within you,

² if you pay close attention to wisdom, and let your mind reach for understanding,

³ if indeed you call out for insight, if you ask aloud for understanding,

⁴ if you search for wisdom as if it were money and hunt for it as if it were hidden treasure,

⁵ then you will understand the fear of the LORD and you will find the knowledge of God.

⁶ The LORD gives wisdom. From his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

⁷ He has reserved priceless wisdom for decent people. He is a shield for those who walk in integrity

⁸ in order to guard those on paths of justice and to watch over the way of his godly ones.

⁹ Then you will understand what is right and just and fair— every good course in life.

¹⁰ Wisdom will come into your heart. Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

¹¹ Foresight will protect you. Understanding will guard you.

¹² Wisdom will save you from the way of evil, from the person who speaks devious things,

¹³ from those who abandon the paths of righteousness to walk the ways of darkness,

¹⁴ from those who enjoy doing evil, from those who find joy in the deviousness of evil.

¹⁵ Their paths are crooked. Their ways are devious.

¹⁶ Wisdom will also save you from an adulterous woman, from a loose woman with her smooth talk,

¹⁷ who leaves her husband, the closest friend of her youth, and forgets her marriage vows to her God.

¹⁸ Her house sinks down to death. Her ways lead to the souls of the dead.

¹⁹ None who have sex with her come back. Nor do they ever reach the paths of life.

²⁰ So walk in the way of good people and stay on the paths of righteous people.

²¹ Decent people will live in the land.
People of integrity will remain in it.

²² But wicked people will be cut off from the land and treacherous people will be torn from it.

3 ¹ My son, do not forget my teachings, and keep my commands in mind,
² because they will bring you long life, good years, and peace.

³ Do not let mercy and truth leave you.
Fasten them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴ Then you will find favor and much success in the sight of God and humanity.

⁵ Trust the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding.

⁶ In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths smooth.

⁷ Do not consider yourself wise. Fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

⁸ Then your body will be healed, and your bones will have nourishment.

⁹ Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the first and best part of all your income.

¹⁰ Then your barns will be full, and your vats will overflow with fresh wine.

¹¹ Do not reject the discipline of the LORD, my son, and do not resent his warning, ¹² because the LORD warns the one he loves, even as a father warns a son with whom he is pleased.

¹³ Blessed is the one who finds wisdom and the one who obtains understanding.

¹⁴ The profit gained from wisdom is greater than the profit gained from silver. Its yield is better than fine gold.

¹⁵ Wisdom is more precious than jewels, and all your desires cannot equal it.

¹⁶ Long life is in wisdom's right hand. In wisdom's left hand are riches and honor.

¹⁷ Wisdom's ways are pleasant ways, and all its paths lead to peace.

¹⁸ Wisdom is a tree of life for those who take firm hold of it. Those who cling to it are blessed.

¹⁹ By Wisdom the LORD laid the foundation of the earth. By understanding he established the heavens.

²⁰ By his knowledge the deep waters were divided, and the skies dropped dew.

²¹ My son, do not lose sight of these things. Use priceless wisdom and foresight.

²² Then they will mean life for you, and they will grace your neck.

²³ Then you will go safely on your way, and you will not hurt your foot.

²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid. As you lie there, your sleep will be sweet.

²⁵ Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the destruction of wicked people when it comes.

²⁶ The LORD will be your confidence. He will keep your foot from getting caught.

²⁷ Do not hold back anything good from those who are entitled to it when you have the power to do so.

²⁸ When you have the good thing with you, do not tell your neighbor, "Go away! Come back tomorrow. I'll give you something then."

²⁹ Do not plan to do something wrong to your neighbor while he is sitting there with you and suspecting nothing.

³⁰ Do not quarrel with a person for no reason if he has not harmed you.

³¹ Do not envy a violent person. Do not choose any of his ways.

³² The devious person is disgusting to the LORD. The LORD'S intimate advice is with decent people.

³³ The LORD curses the house of wicked people, but he blesses the home of righteous people.

³⁴ When he mocks the mockers, he is gracious to humble people.

³⁵ Wise people will inherit honor, but fools will bear disgrace.

4 ¹ Sons, listen to your father's discipline, and pay attention in order to gain understanding.

² After all, I have taught you well. Do not abandon my teachings.

³ When I was a boy learning from my father, when I was a tender and only child of my mother, ⁴ they used to teach me and say to me, "Cling to my words wholeheartedly. Obey my commands so that you may live.

⁵ Acquire wisdom. Acquire understanding. Do not forget. Do not turn away from the words that I have spoken.

⁶ Do not abandon wisdom, and it will watch over you. Love wisdom, and it will protect you.

⁷ The beginning of wisdom is to acquire wisdom. Acquire understanding with all that you have.

⁸ Cherish wisdom. It will raise you up. It will bring you honor when you embrace it.

⁹ It will give you a graceful garland for your head. It will hand you a beautiful crown."

¹⁰ My son, listen and accept my words, and they will multiply the years of your life.

¹¹ I have taught you the way of wisdom. I have guided you along decent paths.

¹² When you walk, your stride will not be hampered. Even if you run, you will not stumble.

¹³ Cling to discipline. Do not relax your grip on it. Keep it because it is your life.

¹⁴ Do not stray onto the path of wicked people. Do not walk in the way of evil people.

¹⁵ Avoid it. Do not walk near it. Turn away from it, and keep on walking.

¹⁶ Wicked people cannot sleep unless they do wrong, and they are robbed of their sleep unless they make someone stumble.

¹⁷ They eat food obtained through wrongdoing and drink wine obtained through violence.

¹⁸ But the path of righteous people is like the light of dawn that becomes brighter and brighter until it reaches midday.

¹⁹ The way of wicked people is like deep darkness. They do not know what makes them stumble.

²⁰ My son, pay attention to my words.
Open your ears to what I say.

²¹ Do not lose sight of these things.
Keep them deep within your heart

²² because they are life to those who find them and they heal the whole body.

²³ Guard your heart more than anything else, because the source of your life flows from it.

²⁴ Remove dishonesty from your mouth. Put deceptive speech far away from your lips.

²⁵ Let your eyes look straight ahead and your sight be focused in front of you.

²⁶ Carefully walk a straight path, and all your ways will be secure.

Walk away from evil.

5 ¹ My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Open your ears to my understanding

² so that you may act with foresight and speak with insight.

³ The lips of an adulterous woman drip with honey. Her kiss is smoother than oil, ⁴ but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, as sharp as a two-edged sword.

⁵ Her feet descend to death. Her steps lead straight to hell.

⁶ She doesn't even think about the path of life. Her steps wander, and she doesn't realize it.

⁷ But now, sons, listen to me, and do not turn away from what I say to you.

⁸ Stay far away from her. Do not even go near her door.

⁹ Either you will surrender your reputation to others and the rest of your years to some cruel person,

¹⁰ or strangers will benefit from your strength and you will have to work hard in a pagan's house.

¹¹ Then you will groan when your end comes, when your body and flesh are consumed. You will say, ¹² "Oh, how I hated discipline! How my heart despised correction!

¹³ I didn't listen to what my teachers said to me, nor did I keep my ear open to my instructors.

¹⁴ I almost reached total ruin in the assembly and in the congregation."

¹⁵ Drink water out of your own cistern and running water from your own well.

¹⁶ Why should water flow out of your spring? Why should your streams flow into the streets?

¹⁷ They should be yours alone, so do not share them with strangers.

¹⁸ Let your own fountain be blessed, and enjoy the girl you married when you were young,

¹⁹ a loving doe and a graceful deer.
Always let her breasts satisfy you. Always be intoxicated with her love.

²⁰ Why should you, my son, be intoxicated with an adulterous woman and fondle a loose woman's breast?

²¹ Each person's ways are clearly seen by the LORD, and he surveys all his actions.

²² A wicked person will be trapped by his own wrongs, and he will be caught in the ropes of his own sin.

²³ He will die for his lack of discipline and stumble around because of his great stupidity.

6 ¹ My son, if you guarantee a loan for your neighbor or pledge yourself for a stranger with a handshake,

² you are trapped by the words of your own mouth, caught by your own promise.

³ Do the following things, my son, so that you may free yourself, because you have fallen into your neighbor's hands: Humble yourself, and pester your neighbor.

⁴ Don't let your eyes rest or your eyelids close.

⁵ Free yourself like a gazelle from the hand of a hunter and like a bird from the hand of a hunter.

⁶ Consider the ant, you lazy bum. Watch its ways, and become wise.

⁷ Although it has no overseer, officer, or ruler,

⁸ in summertime it stores its food supply. At harvest time it gathers its food.

⁹ How long will you lie there, you lazy bum? When will you get up from your sleep?

¹⁰ "Just a little sleep, just a little slumber, just a little nap."

¹¹ Then your poverty will come to you like a drifter, and your need will come to you like a bandit.

¹² A good-for-nothing scoundrel is a person who has a dishonest mouth.

¹³ He winks his eye, makes a signal with his foot, and points with his fingers.

¹⁴ He devises evil all the time with a twisted mind. He spreads conflict.

¹⁵ That is why disaster will come on him suddenly. In a moment he will be crushed beyond recovery.

¹⁶ There are six things that the LORD hates, even seven that are disgusting to him:

¹⁷ arrogant eyes, a lying tongue, hands that kill innocent people,

¹⁸ a mind devising wicked plans, feet that are quick to do wrong,

²⁰ My son, obey the command of your father, and do not disregard the teachings of your mother.

²¹ Fasten them on your heart forever. Hang them around your neck.

²² When you walk around, they will lead you. When you lie down, they will watch over you. When you wake up, they will talk to you

²³ because the command is a lamp, the teachings are a light, and the warnings from discipline are the path of life

²⁴ to keep you from an evil woman and from the smooth talk of a loose woman.

²⁵ Do not desire her beauty in your heart. Do not let her catch you with her eyes.

²⁶ A prostitute's price is only a loaf of bread, but a married woman hunts for your life itself.

²⁷ Can a man carry fire in his lap without burning his clothes?

²⁸ Can anyone walk on red-hot coals without burning his feet?

²⁹ So it is with a man who has sex with his neighbor's wife. None who touch her will escape punishment.

³⁰ People do not despise a thief who is hungry when he steals to satisfy his appetite, ³¹ but when he is caught, he has to repay it seven times. He must give up all the possessions in his house.

³² Whoever commits adultery with a woman has no sense. Whoever does this destroys himself.

³³ An adulterous man will find disease and dishonor, and his disgrace will not be blotted out, ³⁴ because jealousy arouses a husband's fury. The husband will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

³⁵ No amount of money will change his mind. The largest bribe will not satisfy him.

7 ¹ My son, pay attention to my words.
Treasure my commands that are within you.

² Obey my commands so that you may live. Follow my teachings just as you protect the pupil of your eye.

³ Tie them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister."
Give the name "my relative" to understanding

⁵ in order to guard yourself from an adulterous woman, from a loose woman with her smooth talk.

⁶ From a window in my house I looked through my screen.

⁷ I was looking at gullible people when I saw a young man without much sense among youths.

⁸ He was crossing a street near her corner and walking toward her house

⁹ in the twilight, in the evening, in the dark hours of the night.

¹⁰ A woman with an ulterior motive meets him. She is dressed as a prostitute.

¹¹ She is loud and rebellious. Her feet will not stay at home.

¹² One moment she is out on the street, the next she is at the curb, on the prowl at every corner.

¹³ She grabs him and kisses him and brazenly says to him, ¹⁴ "I have some sacrificial meat. Today I kept my vows.

¹⁵ That's why I came to meet you. Eagerly, I looked for you, and I've found you.

¹⁶ I've made my bed, with colored sheets of Egyptian linen.

¹⁷ I've sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

¹⁸ Come, let's drink our fill of love until morning. Let's enjoy making love, ¹⁹ because my husband's not home. He has gone on a long trip.

²⁰ He took lots of money with him. He won't be home for a couple of weeks."

²¹ With all her seductive charms, she persuades him. With her smooth lips, she makes him give in.

²² He immediately follows her like a steer on its way to be slaughtered, like a ram hobbling into captivity

²³ until an arrow pierces his heart, like a bird darting into a trap. He does not realize that it will cost him his life.

²⁴ Now, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words from my mouth.

²⁵ Do not let your heart be turned to her ways. Do not wander onto her paths, ²⁶ because she has brought down many victims, and she has killed all too many.

²⁷ Her home is the way to hell and leads to the darkest vaults of death.

8 ¹ Does not wisdom call out? Does not understanding raise its voice?

² Wisdom takes its stand on high ground, by the wayside where the roads meet,

³ near the gates to the city. At the entrance wisdom sings its song, ⁴ "I am calling to all of you, and my appeal is to all people.

⁵ You gullible people, learn how to be sensible. You fools, get a heart that has understanding.

⁶ Listen! I am speaking about noble things, and my lips will say what is right.

⁷ My mouth expresses the truth, and wickedness is disgusting to my lips.

⁸ Everything I say is fair, and there is nothing twisted or crooked in it.

⁹ All of it is clear to a person who has understanding and right to those who have acquired knowledge.

¹⁰ Take my discipline, not silver, and my knowledge rather than fine gold, ¹¹ because wisdom is better than jewels. Nothing you desire can equal it.

¹² "I, Wisdom, live with insight, and I acquire knowledge and foresight.

¹³ To fear the LORD is to hate evil. I hate pride, arrogance, evil behavior, and twisted speech.

¹⁴ Advice and priceless wisdom are mine. I, Understanding, have strength.

¹⁵ Through me kings reign, and rulers decree fair laws.

¹⁶ Through me princes rule, so do nobles and all fair judges.

¹⁷ I love those who love me. Those eagerly looking for me will find me.

¹⁸ I have riches and honor, lasting wealth and righteousness.

¹⁹ What I produce is better than gold, pure gold. What I yield is better than fine silver.

²⁰ I walk in the way of righteousness, on the paths of justice, ²¹ to give an inheritance to those who love me and to fill their treasuries.

²² "The LORD already possessed me long ago, when his way began, before any of his works.

²³ I was appointed from everlasting from the first, before the earth began.

²⁴ I was born before there were oceans, before there were springs filled with water.

²⁵ I was born before the mountains were settled in their places and before the hills, ²⁶ when he had not yet made land or fields or the first dust of the world.

²⁷ "When he set up the heavens, I was there. When he traced the horizon on the surface of the ocean,

²⁸ when he established the skies above, when he determined the currents in the ocean,

²⁹ when he set a limit for the sea so the waters would not overstep his command, when he traced the foundations of the earth,

³⁰ I was beside him as a master craftsman. I made him happy day after day, I rejoiced in front of him all the time, ³¹ found joy in his inhabited world, and delighted in the human race.

³² "Now, sons, listen to me. Blessed are those who follow my ways.

³³ Listen to discipline, and become wise. Do not leave my ways.

³⁴ Blessed is the person who listens to me, watches at my door day after day, and waits by my doorposts.

³⁵ Whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD.

³⁶ Whoever sins against me harms himself. All those who hate me love death."

9 ¹ Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars.

² She has prepared her meat. She has mixed her wine. She has set her table.

³ She has sent out her servant girls. She calls from the highest places in the city,

⁴ "Whoever is gullible turn in here!" She says to a person without sense, ⁵ "Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have mixed.

⁶ Stop being gullible and live. Start traveling the road to understanding."

⁷ Whoever corrects a mocker receives abuse. Whoever warns a wicked person gets hurt.

⁸ Do not warn a mocker, or he will hate you. Warn a wise person, and he will love you.

⁹ Give advice to a wise person, and he will become even wiser. Teach a righteous person, and he will learn more.

¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

¹¹ You will live longer because of me, and years will be added to your life.

¹² If you are wise, your wisdom will help you. If you mock, you alone will be held responsible.

¹³ The woman Stupidity is loud, gullible, and ignorant.

¹⁴ She sits at the doorway of her house. She is enthroned on the high ground of the city

¹⁵ and calls to those who pass by, those minding their own business,

¹⁶ "Whoever is gullible turn in here!"
She says to a person without sense,

¹⁷ "Stolen waters are sweet, and food eaten in secret is tasty."

¹⁸ But he does not know that the souls of the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of hell.

10 ¹ The proverbs of Solomon: A wise son makes his father happy, but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

² Treasures gained dishonestly profit no one, but righteousness rescues from death.

³ The LORD will not allow a righteous person to starve, but he intentionally ignores the desires of a wicked person.

⁴ Lazy hands bring poverty, but hard-working hands bring riches.

⁵ Whoever gathers in the summer is a wise son. Whoever sleeps at harvest time brings shame.

⁶ Blessings cover the head of a righteous person, but violence covers the mouths of wicked people.

⁷ The name of a righteous person remains blessed, but the names of wicked people will rot away.

⁸ The one who is truly wise accepts commands, but the one who talks foolishly will be thrown down headfirst.

⁹ Whoever lives honestly will live securely, but whoever lives dishonestly will be found out.

¹⁰ Whoever winks with his eye causes heartache. The one who talks foolishly will be thrown down headfirst.

¹¹ The mouth of a righteous person is a fountain of life, but the mouths of wicked people conceal violence.

¹² Hate starts quarrels, but love covers every wrong.

¹³ Wisdom is found on the lips of a person who has understanding, but a rod is for the back of one without sense.

¹⁴ Those who are wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a stubborn fool invites ruin.

¹⁵ The rich person's wealth is his strong city. Poverty ruins the poor.

¹⁶ A righteous person's reward is life. A wicked person's harvest is sin.

¹⁷ Whoever practices discipline is on the way to life, but whoever ignores a warning strays.

¹⁸ Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips. Whoever spreads slander is a fool.

¹⁹ Sin is unavoidable when there is much talk, but whoever seals his lips is wise.

²⁰ The tongue of a righteous person is pure silver. The hearts of wicked people are worthless.

²¹ The lips of a righteous person feed many, but stubborn fools die because they have no sense.

²² It is the LORD'S blessing that makes a person rich, and hard work adds nothing to it.

²³ Like the laughter of a fool when he carries out an evil plan, so is wisdom to a person who has understanding.

²⁴ That which wicked people dread happens to them, but the LORD grants the desire of righteous people.

²⁵ When the storm has passed, the wicked person has vanished, but the righteous person has an everlasting foundation.

²⁶ Like vinegar to the teeth, like smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy person to those who send him on a mission.

²⁷ The fear of the LORD lengthens the number of days, but the years of wicked people are shortened.

²⁸ The hope of righteous people leads to joy, but the eager waiting of wicked people comes to nothing.

²⁹ The way of the LORD is a fortress for an innocent person but a ruin to those who are troublemakers.

³⁰ A righteous person will never be moved, but wicked people will not continue to live in the land.

³¹ The mouth of a righteous person increases wisdom, but a devious tongue will be cut off.

³² The lips of a righteous person announce good will, but the mouths of wicked people are devious.

11 ¹ Dishonest scales are disgusting to the LORD, but accurate weights are pleasing to him.

² Arrogance comes, then comes shame, but wisdom remains with humble people.

³ Integrity guides decent people, but hypocrisy leads treacherous people to ruin.

⁴ Riches are of no help on the day of fury, but righteousness saves from death.

⁵ The righteousness of innocent people makes their road smooth, but wicked people fall by their own wickedness.

⁶ Decent people are saved by their righteousness, but treacherous people are trapped by their own greed.

⁷ At the death of a wicked person, hope vanishes. Moreover, his confidence in strength vanishes.

⁸ A righteous person is rescued from trouble, and a wicked person takes his place.

⁹ With his talk a godless person can ruin his neighbor, but righteous people are rescued by knowledge.

¹⁰ When righteous people prosper, a city is glad. When wicked people die, there are songs of joy.

¹¹ With the blessing of decent people a city is raised up, but by the words of wicked people, it is torn down.

¹² A person who despises a neighbor has no sense, but a person who has understanding keeps quiet.

¹³ Whoever gossips gives away secrets, but whoever is trustworthy in spirit can keep a secret.

¹⁴ A nation will fall when there is no direction, but with many advisers there is victory.

¹⁵ Whoever guarantees a stranger's loan will get into trouble, but whoever hates the closing of a deal remains secure.

¹⁶ A gracious woman wins respect, but ruthless men gain riches.

¹⁷ A merciful person helps himself, but a cruel person hurts himself.

¹⁸ A wicked person earns dishonest wages, but whoever spreads righteousness earns honest pay.

¹⁹ As righteousness leads to life, so whoever pursues evil finds his own death.

²⁰ Devious people are disgusting to the LORD, but he is delighted with those whose ways are innocent.

²¹ Certainly, an evil person will not go unpunished, but the descendants of righteous people will escape.

²² Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, so is a beautiful woman who lacks good taste.

²³ The desire of righteous people ends only in good, but the hope of wicked people ends only in fury.

²⁴ One person spends freely and yet grows richer, while another holds back what he owes and yet grows poorer.

²⁵ A generous person will be made rich, and whoever satisfies others will himself be satisfied.

²⁶ People will curse the one who hoards grain, but a blessing will be upon the head of the one who sells it.

²⁷ Whoever eagerly seeks good searches for good will, but whoever looks for evil finds it.

²⁸ Whoever trusts his riches will fall, but righteous people will flourish like a green leaf.

²⁹ Whoever brings trouble upon his family inherits only wind, and that stubborn fool becomes a slave to the wise in heart.

³⁰ The fruit of a righteous person is a tree of life, and a winner of souls is wise.

³¹ If the righteous person is rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked person and the sinner!

12 ¹ Whoever loves discipline loves to learn, but whoever hates correction is a dumb animal.

² A good person obtains favor from the LORD, but the LORD condemns everyone who schemes.

³ A person cannot stand firm on a foundation of wickedness, and the roots of righteous people cannot be moved.

⁴ A wife with strength of character is the crown of her husband, but the wife who disgraces him is like bone cancer.

⁵ The thoughts of righteous people are fair. The advice of wicked people is treacherous.

⁶ The words of wicked people are a deadly ambush, but the words of decent people rescue.

⁷ Overthrow wicked people, and they are no more, but the families of righteous people continue to stand.

⁸ A person will be praised based on his insight, but whoever has a twisted mind will be despised.

⁹ Better to be unimportant and have a slave than to act important and have nothing to eat.

¹⁰ A righteous person cares even about the life of his animals, but the compassion of wicked people is nothing but cruelty.

¹¹ Whoever works his land will have plenty to eat, but the one who chases unrealistic dreams has no sense.

¹² A wicked person delights in setting a trap for other evil people, but the roots of righteous people produce fruit.

¹³ An evil person is trapped by his own sinful talk, but a righteous person escapes from trouble.

¹⁴ One person enjoys good things as a result of his speaking ability. Another is paid according to what his hands have accomplished.

¹⁵ A stubborn fool considers his own way the right one, but a person who listens to advice is wise.

¹⁶ When a stubborn fool is irritated, he shows it immediately, but a sensible person hides the insult.

¹⁷ A truthful witness speaks honestly, but a lying witness speaks deceitfully.

¹⁸ Careless words stab like a sword, but the words of wise people bring healing.

¹⁹ The word of truth lasts forever, but lies last only a moment.

²⁰ Deceit is in the heart of those who plan evil, but joy belongs to those who advise peace.

²¹ No lasting harm comes to a righteous person, but wicked people have lots of trouble.

²² Lips that lie are disgusting to the LORD, but honest people are his delight.

²³ A sensible person discreetly hides knowledge, but foolish minds preach stupidity.

²⁴ Hard-working hands gain control, but lazy hands do slave labor.

²⁵ A person's anxiety will weigh him down, but an encouraging word makes him joyful.

²⁶ A righteous person looks out for his neighbor, but the path of wicked people leads others astray.

²⁷ A lazy hunter does not catch his prey, but a hard-working person becomes wealthy.

²⁸ Everlasting life is on the way of righteousness. Eternal death is not along its path.

13 ¹ A wise son listens to his father's discipline, but a mocker does not listen to reprimands.

² A person eats well as a result of his speaking ability, but the appetite of treacherous people craves violence.

³ Whoever controls his mouth protects his own life. Whoever has a big mouth comes to ruin.

⁴ A lazy person craves food and there is none, but the appetite of hard-working people is satisfied.

⁵ A righteous person hates lying, but a wicked person behaves with shame and disgrace.

⁶ Righteousness protects the honest way of life, but wickedness ruins a sacrifice for sin.

⁷ One person pretends to be rich but has nothing. Another pretends to be poor but has great wealth.

⁸ A person's riches are the ransom for his life, but the poor person does not pay attention to threats.

⁹ The light of righteous people beams brightly, but the lamp of wicked people will be snuffed out.

¹⁰ Arrogance produces only quarreling, but those who take advice gain wisdom.

¹¹ Wealth gained through injustice dwindles away, but whoever gathers little by little has plenty.

¹² Delayed hope makes one sick at heart, but a fulfilled longing is a tree of life.

¹³ Whoever despises God's words will pay the penalty, but the one who fears God's commands will be rewarded.

¹⁴ The teachings of a wise person are a fountain of life to turn one away from the grasp of death.

¹⁵ Good sense brings favor, but the way of treacherous people is always the same.

¹⁶ Any sensible person acts with knowledge, but a fool displays stupidity.

¹⁷ An undependable messenger gets into trouble, but a dependable envoy brings healing.

¹⁸ Poverty and shame come to a person who ignores discipline, but whoever pays attention to constructive criticism will be honored.

¹⁹ A fulfilled desire is sweet to the soul, but turning from evil is disgusting to fools.

²⁰ Whoever walks with wise people will be wise, but whoever associates with fools will suffer.

²¹ Disaster hunts down sinners, but righteous people are rewarded with good.

²² Good people leave an inheritance to their grandchildren, but the wealth of sinners is stored away for a righteous person.

²³ When poor people are able to plow, there is much food, but a person is swept away where there is no justice.

²⁴ Whoever refuses to spank his son hates him, but whoever loves his son disciplines him from early on.

²⁵ A righteous person eats to satisfy his appetite, but the bellies of wicked people are always empty.

14 ¹ The wisest of women builds up her home, but a stupid one tears it down with her own hands.

² Whoever lives right fears the LORD, but a person who is devious in his ways despises him.

³ Because of a stubborn fool's words a whip is lifted against him, but wise people are protected by their speech.

⁴ Where there are no cattle, the feeding trough is empty, but the strength of an ox produces plentiful harvests.

⁵ A trustworthy witness does not lie, but a dishonest witness breathes lies.

⁶ A mocker searches for wisdom without finding it, but knowledge comes easily to a person who has understanding.

⁷ Stay away from a fool, because you will not receive knowledge from his lips.

⁸ The wisdom of a sensible person guides his way of life, but the stupidity of fools misleads them.

⁹ Stubborn fools make fun of guilt, but there is forgiveness among decent people.

¹⁰ The heart knows its own bitterness, and no stranger can share its joy.

¹¹ The houses of wicked people will be destroyed, but the tents of decent people will continue to expand.

¹² There is a way that seems right to a person, but eventually it ends in death.

¹³ Even while laughing a heart can ache, and joy can end in grief.

¹⁴ A heart that turns from God becomes bored with its own ways, but a good person is satisfied with God's ways.

¹⁵ A gullible person believes anything, but a sensible person watches his step.

¹⁶ A wise person is cautious and turns away from evil, but a fool is careless and overconfident.

¹⁷ A short-tempered person acts stupidly, and a person who plots evil is hated.

¹⁸ Gullible people are gifted with stupidity, but sensible people are crowned with knowledge.

¹⁹ Evil people will bow to good people. Wicked people will bow at the gates of a righteous person.

²⁰ A poor person is hated even by his neighbor, but a rich person is loved by many.

²¹ Whoever despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is the one who is kind to humble people.

²² Don't those who stray plan what is evil, while those who are merciful and faithful plan what is good?

²³ In hard work there is always something gained, but idle talk leads only to poverty.

²⁴ The crown of wise people is their wealth. The stupidity of fools is just that—stupidity!

²⁵ An honest witness saves lives, but one who tells lies is dangerous.

²⁶ In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence, and his children will have a place of refuge.

²⁷ The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life to turn one away from the grasp of death.

²⁸ A large population is an honor for a king, but without people a ruler is ruined.

²⁹ A person of great understanding is patient, but a short temper is the height of stupidity.

³⁰ A tranquil heart makes for a healthy body, but jealousy is like bone cancer.

³¹ Whoever oppresses the poor insults his maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors him.

³² A wicked person is thrown down by his own wrongdoing, but even in his death a righteous person has a refuge.

³³ Wisdom finds rest in the heart of an understanding person. Even fools recognize this.

³⁴ Righteousness lifts up a nation, but sin is a disgrace in any society.

³⁵ A king is delighted with a servant who acts wisely, but he is furious with one who acts shamefully.

15 ¹ A gentle answer turns away rage, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

² The tongues of wise people give good expression to knowledge, but the mouths of fools pour out a flood of stupidity.

³ The eyes of the LORD are everywhere. They watch evil people and good people.

⁴ A soothing tongue is a tree of life, but a deceitful tongue breaks the spirit.

⁵ A stubborn fool despises his father's discipline, but whoever appreciates a warning shows good sense.

⁶ Great treasure is in the house of a righteous person, but trouble comes along with the income of a wicked person.

⁷ The lips of wise people spread knowledge, but a foolish attitude does not.

⁸ A sacrifice brought by wicked people is disgusting to the LORD, but the prayers of decent people please him.

⁹ The way of wicked people is disgusting to the LORD, but he loves those who pursue righteousness.

¹⁰ Discipline is a terrible burden to anyone who leaves the right path. Anyone who hates a warning will die.

¹¹ If Sheol and Abaddon lie open in front of the LORD how much more the human heart!

¹² A mocker does not appreciate a warning. He will not go to wise people.

¹³ A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, but with a heartache comes depression.

¹⁴ The mind of a person who has understanding searches for knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on stupidity.

¹⁵ Every day is a terrible day for a miserable person, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.

¹⁶ Better to have a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and turmoil.

¹⁷ Better to have a dish of vegetables where there is love than juicy steaks where there is hate.

¹⁸ A hothead stirs up a fight, but one who holds his temper calms disputes.

¹⁹ The path of lazy people is like a thorny hedge, but the road of decent people is an open highway.

²⁰ A wise son makes his father happy, but a foolish child despises its mother.

²¹ Stupidity is fun to the one without much sense, but a person who has understanding forges straight ahead.

²² Without advice plans go wrong, but with many advisers they succeed.

²³ A person is delighted to hear an answer from his own mouth, and a timely word—oh, how good!

²⁴ The path of life for a wise person leads upward in order to turn him away from hell below.

²⁵ The LORD tears down the house of an arrogant person, but he protects the property of widows.

²⁶ The thoughts of evil people are disgusting to the LORD, but pleasant words are pure to him.

²⁷ Whoever is greedy for unjust gain brings trouble to his family, but whoever hates bribes will live.

²⁸ The heart of a righteous person carefully considers how to answer, but the mouths of wicked people pour out a flood of evil things.

²⁹ The LORD is far from wicked people, but he hears the prayers of righteous people.

³⁰ A twinkle in the eye delights the heart. Good news refreshes the body.

³¹ The ear that listens to a life-giving warning will be at home among wise people.

³² Whoever ignores discipline despises himself, but the person who listens to warning gains understanding.

³³ The fear of the LORD is discipline leading to wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

16 ¹ The plans of the heart belong to humans, but an answer on the tongue comes from the LORD.

² A person thinks all his ways are pure, but the LORD weighs motives.

³ Entrust your efforts to the LORD, and your plans will succeed.

⁴ The LORD has made everything for his own purpose, even wicked people for the day of trouble.

⁵ Everyone with a conceited heart is disgusting to the LORD. Certainly, such a person will not go unpunished.

⁶ By mercy and faithfulness, peace is made with the LORD. By the fear of the LORD, evil is avoided.

⁷ When a person's ways are pleasing to the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

⁸ Better a few possessions gained honestly than many gained through injustice.

⁹ A person may plan his own journey, but the LORD directs his steps.

¹⁰ When a divine revelation is on a king's lips, he cannot voice a wrong judgment.

¹¹ Honest balances and scales belong to the LORD. He made the entire set of weights.

¹² Wrongdoing is disgusting to kings because a throne is established through righteousness.

¹³ Kings are happy with honest words, and whoever speaks what is right is loved.

¹⁴ A king's anger announces death, but a wise man makes peace with him.

¹⁵ When the king is cheerful, there is life, and his favor is like a cloud bringing spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better it is to gain wisdom than gold, and the gaining of understanding should be chosen over silver.

¹⁷ The highway of decent people turns away from evil. Whoever watches his way preserves his own life.

¹⁸ Pride precedes a disaster, and an arrogant attitude precedes a fall.

¹⁹ Better to be humble with lowly people than to share stolen goods with arrogant people.

²⁰ Whoever gives attention to the LORD'S word prospers, and blessed is the person who trusts the LORD.

²¹ The person who is truly wise is called understanding, and speaking sweetly helps others learn.

²² Understanding is a fountain of life to the one who has it, but stubborn fools punish themselves with their stupidity.

²³ A wise person's heart controls his speech, and what he says helps others learn.

²⁴ Pleasant words are like honey from a honeycomb— sweet to the spirit and healthy for the body.

²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a person, but eventually it ends in death.

²⁶ A laborer's appetite works to his advantage, because his hunger drives him on.

²⁷ A worthless person plots trouble, and his speech is like a burning fire.

²⁸ A devious person spreads quarrels. A gossip separates the closest of friends.

²⁹ A violent person misleads his neighbor and leads him on a path that is not good.

³⁰ Whoever winks his eye is plotting something devious. Whoever bites his lips has finished his evil work.

³¹ Silver hair is a beautiful crown found in a righteous life.

³² Better to get angry slowly than to be a hero. Better to be even-tempered than to capture a city.

³³ The dice are thrown, but the LORD determines every outcome.

17 ¹ Better a bite of dry bread eaten in peace than a family feast filled with strife.

² A wise slave will become master over a son who acts shamefully, and he will share the inheritance with the brothers.

³ The crucible is for refining silver and the smelter for gold, but the one who purifies hearts by fire is the LORD.

⁴ An evildoer pays attention to wicked lips. A liar opens his ears to a slanderous tongue.

⁵ Whoever makes fun of a poor person insults his maker. Whoever is happy to see someone's distress will not escape punishment.

⁶ Grandchildren are the crown of grandparents, and parents are the glory of their children.

⁷ Refined speech is not fitting for a godless fool. How much less does lying fit a noble person!

⁸ A bribe seems like a jewel to the one who gives it. Wherever he turns, he prospers.

⁹ Whoever forgives an offense seeks love, but whoever keeps bringing up the issue separates the closest of friends.

¹⁰ A reprimand impresses a person who has understanding more than a hundred lashes impress a fool.

¹¹ A rebel looks for nothing but evil. Therefore, a cruel messenger will be sent to punish him.

¹² Better to meet a bear robbed of its cubs than a fool carried away with his stupidity.

¹³ Whoever pays back evil for good—evil will never leave his home.

¹⁴ Starting a quarrel is like opening a floodgate, so stop before the argument gets out of control.

¹⁵ Whoever approves of wicked people and whoever condemns righteous people is disgusting to the LORD.

¹⁶ Why should a fool have money in his hand to buy wisdom when he doesn't have a mind to grasp anything?

¹⁷ A friend always loves, and a brother is born to share trouble.

¹⁸ A person without good sense closes a deal with a handshake. He guarantees a loan in the presence of his friend.

¹⁹ Whoever loves sin loves a quarrel. Whoever builds his city gate high invites destruction.

²⁰ A twisted mind never finds happiness, and one with a devious tongue repeatedly gets into trouble.

²¹ The parent of a fool has grief, and the father of a godless fool has no joy.

²² A joyful heart is good medicine, but depression drains one's strength.

²³ A wicked person secretly accepts a bribe to corrupt the ways of justice.

²⁴ Wisdom is directly in front of an understanding person, but the eyes of a fool are looking around all over the world.

²⁵ A foolish son is a heartache to his father and bitter grief to his mother.

²⁶ To punish an innocent person is not good. To strike down noble people is not right.

²⁷ Whoever has knowledge controls his words, and a person who has understanding is even-tempered.

²⁸ Even a stubborn fool is thought to be wise if he keeps silent. He is considered intelligent if he keeps his lips sealed.

18 ¹ A loner is out to get what he wants for himself. He opposes all sound reasoning.

² A fool does not find joy in understanding but only in expressing his own opinion.

³ When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and insult comes along with disgrace.

⁴ The words of a person's mouth are like deep waters. The fountain of wisdom is an overflowing stream.

⁵ It is not good to be partial toward a wicked person, thereby depriving an innocent person of justice.

⁶ By talking, a fool gets into an argument, and his mouth invites a beating.

⁷ A fool's mouth is his ruin. His lips are a trap to his soul.

⁸ The words of a gossip are swallowed greedily, and they go down into a person's innermost being.

⁹ Whoever is lazy in his work is related to a vandal.

¹⁰ The name of the LORD is a strong tower. A righteous person runs to it and is safe.

¹¹ A rich person's wealth is his strong city and is like a high wall in his imagination.

¹² Before destruction a person's heart is arrogant, but humility comes before honor.

¹³ Whoever gives an answer before he listens is stupid and shameful.

¹⁴ A person's spirit can endure sickness, but who can bear a broken spirit?

¹⁵ The mind of a person who has understanding acquires knowledge. The ears of wise people seek knowledge.

¹⁶ A gift opens doors for the one who gives it and brings him into the presence of great people.

¹⁷ The first to state his case seems right until his neighbor comes to cross-examine him.

¹⁸ Flipping a coin ends quarrels and settles issues between powerful people.

¹⁹ An offended brother is more resistant than a strong city, and disputes are like the locked gate of a castle tower.

²⁰ A person's speaking ability provides for his stomach. His talking provides him a living.

²¹ The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love to talk will have to eat their own words.

²² Whoever finds a wife finds something good and has obtained favor from the LORD.

²³ A poor person is timid when begging, but a rich person is blunt when replying.

²⁴ Friends can destroy one another, but a loving friend can stick closer than family.

19 ¹ Better to be a poor person who lives innocently than to be one who talks dishonestly and is a fool.

² A person without knowledge is no good. A person in a hurry makes mistakes.

³ The stupidity of a person turns his life upside down, and his heart rages against the LORD.

⁴ Wealth adds many friends, but a poor person is separated from his friend.

⁵ A lying witness will not go unpunished.
One who tells lies will not escape.

⁶ Many try to win the kindness of a generous person, and everyone is a friend to a person who gives gifts.

⁷ The entire family of a poor person hates him. How much more do his friends keep their distance from him! When he chases them with words, they are gone.

⁸ A person who gains sense loves himself. One who guards understanding finds something good.

⁹ A lying witness will not go unpunished.
One who tells lies will die.

¹⁰ Luxury does not fit a fool, much less a slave ruling princes.

¹¹ A person with good sense is patient, and it is to his credit that he overlooks an offense.

¹² The rage of a king is like the roar of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³ A foolish son ruins his father, and a quarreling woman is like constantly dripping water.

¹⁴ Home and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a sensible wife comes from the LORD.

¹⁵ Laziness throws one into a deep sleep, and an idle person will go hungry.

¹⁶ Whoever obeys the law preserves his life, but whoever despises the LORD'S ways will be put to death.

¹⁷ Whoever has pity on the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his good deed.

¹⁸ Discipline your son while there is still hope. Do not be the one responsible for his death.

¹⁹ A person who has a hot temper will pay for it. If you rescue him, you will have to do it over and over.

²⁰ Listen to advice and accept discipline so that you may be wise the rest of your life.

²¹ Many plans are in the human heart, but the advice of the LORD will endure.

²² Loyalty is desirable in a person, and it is better to be poor than a liar.

²³ The fear of the LORD leads to life, and such a person will rest easy without suffering harm.

²⁴ A lazy person puts his fork in his food. He doesn't even bring it back to his mouth.

²⁵ Strike a mocker, and a gullible person may learn a lesson. Warn an understanding person, and he will gain more knowledge.

²⁶ A son who assaults his father and who drives away his mother brings shame and disgrace.

²⁷ If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.

²⁸ A worthless witness mocks justice, and the mouths of wicked people swallow up trouble.

²⁹ Punishments are set for mockers and beatings for the backs of fools.

20 ¹ Wine makes people mock, liquor makes them noisy, and everyone under their influence is unwise.

² The rage of a king is like the roar of a lion. Whoever makes him angry forfeits his life.

³ Avoiding a quarrel is honorable. After all, any stubborn fool can start a fight.

⁴ A lazy person does not plow in the fall. He looks for something in the harvest but finds nothing.

⁵ A motive in the human heart is like deep water, and a person who has understanding draws it out.

⁶ Many people declare themselves loyal, but who can find someone who is really trustworthy?

⁷ A righteous person lives on the basis of his integrity. Blessed are his children after he is gone.

⁸ A king who sits on his throne to judge sifts out every evil with his eyes.

⁹ Who can say, "I've made my heart pure. I'm cleansed from my sin"?

¹⁰ A double standard of weights and measures— both are disgusting to the LORD.

¹¹ Even a child makes himself known by his actions, whether his deeds are pure or right.

¹² The ear that hears, the eye that sees— the LORD made them both.

¹³ Do not love sleep or you will end up poor. Keep your eyes open, and you will have plenty to eat.

¹⁴ "Bad! Bad!" says the buyer. Then, as he goes away, he brags about his bargain.

¹⁵ There are gold and plenty of jewels, but the lips of knowledge are precious gems.

¹⁶ Hold on to the garment of one who guarantees a stranger's loan, and hold responsible the person who makes a loan on behalf of a foreigner.

¹⁷ Food gained dishonestly tastes sweet to a person, but afterwards his mouth will be filled with gravel.

¹⁸ Plans are confirmed by getting advice, and with guidance one wages war.

¹⁹ Whoever goes around as a gossip tells secrets. Do not associate with a person whose mouth is always open.

²⁰ The lamp of the person who curses his father and mother will be snuffed out in total darkness.

²¹ An inheritance quickly obtained in the beginning will never be blessed in the end.

²² Do not say, "I'll get even with you!" Wait for the LORD, and he will save you.

²³ A double standard of weights is disgusting to the LORD, and dishonest scales are no good.

²⁴ The LORD is the one who directs a person's steps. How then can anyone understand his own way?

²⁵ It is a trap for a person to say impulsively, "This is a holy offering!" and later to have second thoughts about those vows.

²⁶ A wise king scatters the wicked and then runs them over.

²⁷ A person's soul is the LORD'S lamp. It searches his entire innermost being.

²⁸ Mercy and truth protect a king, and with mercy he maintains his throne.

²⁹ While the glory of young men is their strength, the splendor of older people is their silver hair.

³⁰ Brutal beatings cleanse away wickedness. Such beatings cleanse the innermost being.

21 ¹ The king's heart is like streams of water. Both are under the LORD'S control. He turns them in any direction he chooses.

² A person thinks everything he does is right, but the LORD weighs hearts.

³ Doing what is right and fair is more acceptable to the LORD than offering a sacrifice.

⁴ A conceited look and an arrogant attitude, which are the lamps of wicked people, are sins.

⁵ The plans of a hard-working person lead to prosperity, but everyone who is always in a hurry ends up in poverty.

⁶ Those who gather wealth by lying are wasting time. They are looking for death.

⁷ The violence of wicked people will drag them away since they refuse to do what is just.

⁸ The way of a guilty person is crooked, but the behavior of those who are pure is moral.

⁹ Better to live on a corner of a roof than to share a home with a quarreling woman.

¹⁰ The mind of a wicked person desires evil and has no consideration for his neighbor.

¹¹ When a mocker is punished, a gullible person becomes wise, and when a wise person is instructed, he gains knowledge.

¹² A righteous person wisely considers the house of a wicked person. He throws wicked people into disasters.

¹³ Whoever shuts his ear to the cry of the poor will call and not be answered.

¹⁴ A gift given in secret calms anger, and a secret bribe calms great fury.

¹⁵ When justice is done, a righteous person is delighted, but troublemakers are terrified.

¹⁶ A person who wanders from the way of wise behavior will rest in the assembly of the dead.

¹⁷ Whoever loves pleasure will become poor. Whoever loves wine and expensive food will not become rich.

¹⁸ Wicked people become a ransom for righteous people, and treacherous people will take the place of decent people.

¹⁹ Better to live in a desert than with a quarreling and angry woman.

²⁰ Costly treasure and wealth are in the home of a wise person, but a fool devours them.

²¹ Whoever pursues righteousness and mercy will find life, righteousness, and honor.

²² A wise man attacks a city of warriors and pulls down the strong defenses in which they trust.

²³ Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

²⁴ An arrogant, conceited person is called a mocker. His arrogance knows no limits.

²⁵ The desire of a lazy person will kill him because his hands refuse to work.

²⁶ All day long he feels greedy, but a righteous person gives and does not hold back.

²⁷ The sacrifice of wicked people is disgusting, especially if they bring it with evil intent.

²⁸ A lying witness will die, but a person who listens to advice will continue to speak.

²⁹ A wicked person puts up a bold front, but a decent person's way of life is his own security.

³⁰ No wisdom, no understanding, and no advice can stand up against the LORD.

³¹ The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.

22 ¹ A good name is more desirable than great wealth. Respect is better than silver or gold.

² The rich and the poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all.

³ Sensible people foresee trouble and hide from it, but gullible people go ahead and suffer the consequence.

⁴ On the heels of humility (the fear of the LORD) are riches and honor and life.

⁵ A devious person has thorns and traps ahead of him. Whoever guards himself will stay far away from them.

⁶ Train a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old he will not turn away from it.

⁷ A rich person rules poor people, and a borrower is a slave to a lender.

⁸ Whoever plants injustice will harvest trouble, and this weapon of his own fury will be destroyed.

⁹ Whoever is generous will be blessed because he has shared his food with the poor.

¹⁰ Drive out a mocker, and conflict will leave. Quarreling and abuse will stop.

¹¹ Whoever loves a pure heart and whoever speaks graciously has a king as his friend.

¹² The LORD'S eyes watch over knowledge, but he overturns the words of a treacherous person.

¹³ A lazy person says, "There's a lion outside! I'll be murdered in the streets!"

¹⁴ The mouth of an adulterous woman is a deep pit. The one who is cursed by the LORD will fall into it.

¹⁵ Foolishness is firmly attached to a child's heart. Spanking will remove it far from him.

¹⁶ Oppressing the poor for profit or giving to the rich certainly leads to poverty.

¹⁷ Open your ears, and hear the words of wise people, and set your mind on the knowledge I give you.

¹⁸ It is pleasant if you keep them in mind so that they will be on the tip of your tongue, ¹⁹ so that your trust may be in the LORD. Today I have made them known to you, especially to you.

²⁰ Didn't I write to you previously with advice and knowledge

²¹ in order to teach you the words of truth so that you can give an accurate report to those who send you?

²² Do not rob the poor because they are poor or trample on the rights of an oppressed person at the city gate, ²³ because the LORD will plead their case and will take the lives of those who rob them.

²⁴ Do not be a friend of one who has a bad temper, and never keep company with a hothead,

²⁶ Do not be found among those who make deals with a handshake, among those who guarantee other people's loans.

²⁷ If you have no money to pay back a loan, why should your bed be repossessed?

²⁸ Do not move an ancient boundary marker that your ancestors set in place.

²⁹ Do you see a person who is efficient in his work? He will serve kings. He will not serve unknown people.

23 ¹ When you sit down to eat with a ruler, pay close attention to what is in front of you,

² and put a knife to your throat if you have a big appetite.

³ Do not crave his delicacies, because this is food that deceives you.

⁴ Do not wear yourself out getting rich. Be smart enough to stop.

⁵ Will you catch only a fleeting glimpse of wealth before it is gone? It makes wings for itself like an eagle flying into the sky.

⁶ Do not eat the food of one who is stingy, and do not crave his delicacies.

⁷ As he calculates the cost to himself, this is what he does: He tells you, "Eat and drink," but he doesn't really mean it.

⁸ You will vomit the little bit you have eaten and spoil your pleasant conversation.

⁹ Do not talk directly to a fool, because he will despise the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary marker or enter fields that belong to orphans, ¹¹ because the one who is responsible for them is strong. He will plead their case against you.

¹² Live a more disciplined life, and listen carefully to words of knowledge.

¹³ Do not hesitate to discipline a child. If you spank him, he will not die.

¹⁴ Spank him yourself, and you will save his soul from hell.

¹⁵ My son, if you have a wise heart, my heart will rejoice as well.

¹⁶ My heart rejoices when you speak what is right.

¹⁷ Do not envy sinners in your heart. Instead, continue to fear the LORD.

¹⁸ There is indeed a future, and your hope will never be cut off.

¹⁹ My son, listen, be wise, and keep your mind going in the right direction.

²⁰ Do not associate with those who drink too much wine, with those who eat too much meat, ²¹ because both a drunk and a glutton will become poor. Drowsiness will dress a person in rags.

²² Listen to your father since you are his son, and do not despise your mother because she is old.

²³ Buy truth (and do not sell it), that is, buy wisdom, discipline, and understanding.

²⁴ A righteous person's father will certainly rejoice. Someone who has a wise son will enjoy him.

²⁵ May your father and your mother be glad. May she who gave birth to you rejoice.

²⁶ My son, give me your heart. Let your eyes find happiness in my ways.

²⁷ A prostitute is a deep pit. A loose woman is a narrow well.

²⁸ She is like a robber, lying in ambush. She spreads unfaithfulness throughout society.

²⁹ Who has trouble? Who has misery? Who has quarrels? Who has a complaint? Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?

³⁰ Those who drink glass after glass of wine and mix it with everything.

³¹ Do not look at wine because it is red, because it sparkles in the cup, because it goes down smoothly.

³² Later it bites like a snake and strikes like a poisonous snake.

³³ Your eyes will see strange sights, and your mouth will say embarrassing things.

³⁴ You will be like someone lying down in the middle of the sea or like someone lying down on top of a ship's mast, saying,

³⁵ "They strike me, but I feel no pain. They beat me, but I'm not aware of it. Whenever I wake up, I'm going to look for another drink."

24 ¹ Do not envy evil people or wish you were with them,

² because their minds plot violence, and their lips talk trouble.

³ With wisdom a house is built. With understanding it is established.

⁴ With knowledge its rooms are filled with every kind of riches, both precious and pleasant.

⁵ A strong man knows how to use his strength, but a person with knowledge is even more powerful.

⁶ After all, with the right strategy you can wage war, and with many advisers there is victory.

⁷ Matters of wisdom are beyond the grasp of a stubborn fool. At the city gate he does not open his mouth.

⁸ Whoever plans to do evil will be known as a schemer.

⁹ Foolish scheming is sinful, and a mocker is disgusting to everyone.

¹⁰ If you faint in a crisis, you are weak.

¹¹ Rescue captives condemned to death, and spare those staggering toward their slaughter.

¹² When you say, "We didn't know this," won't the one who weighs hearts take note of it? Won't the one who guards your soul know it? Won't he pay back people for what they do?

¹³ Eat honey, my son, because it is good. Honey that flows from the honeycomb tastes sweet.

¹⁴ The knowledge of wisdom is like that for your soul. If you find it, then there is a future, and your hope will never be cut off.

¹⁵ You wicked one, do not lie in ambush at the home of a righteous person. Do not rob his house.

¹⁶ A righteous person may fall seven times, but he gets up again. However, in a disaster wicked people fall.

¹⁷ Do not be happy when your enemy falls, and do not feel glad when he stumbles.

¹⁸ The LORD will see it, he won't like it, and he will turn his anger away from that person.

¹⁹ Do not get overly upset with evildoers. Do not envy wicked people, ²⁰ because an evil person has no future, and the lamps of wicked people will be snuffed out.

²¹ Fear the LORD, my son. Fear the king as well. Do not associate with those who always insist upon change, ²² because disaster will come to them suddenly. Who knows what misery both may bring?

²³ These also are the sayings of wise people: Showing partiality as a judge is not good.

²⁴ Whoever says to a guilty person, "You are innocent," will be cursed by people and condemned by nations.

²⁵ But people will be pleased with those who convict a guilty person, and a great blessing will come to them.

²⁶ Giving a straight answer is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷ Prepare your work outside, and get things ready for yourself in the field. Afterwards, build your house.

²⁸ Do not testify against your neighbor without a reason, and do not deceive with your lips.

²⁹ Do not say, "I'll treat him as he treated me. I'll pay him back for what he has done to me."

³⁰ I passed by a lazy person's field, the vineyard belonging to a person without sense.

³¹ I saw that it was all overgrown with thistles. The ground was covered with weeds, and its stone fence was torn down.

³² When I observed this, I took it to heart. I saw it and learned my lesson.

³³ "Just a little sleep, just a little slumber, just a little nap."

³⁴ Then your poverty will come like a drifter, and your need will come like a bandit.

25 ¹ These also are Solomon's proverbs that were copied by the men of King Hezekiah of Judah.

² It is the glory of God to hide things but the glory of kings to investigate them.

³ Like the high heavens and the deep earth, so the mind of kings is unsearchable.

⁴ Take the impurities out of silver, and a vessel is ready for the silversmith to mold.

⁵ Take a wicked person away from the presence of a king, and justice will make his throne secure.

⁶ Do not brag about yourself in front of a king or stand in the spot that belongs to notable people,

⁷ because it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put down in front of a prince whom your eyes have seen.

⁸ Do not be in a hurry to go to court. What will you do in the end if your neighbor disgraces you?

⁹ Present your argument to your neighbor, but do not reveal another person's secret.

¹⁰ Otherwise, when he hears about it, he will humiliate you, and his evil report about you will never disappear.

¹¹ Like golden apples in silver settings, so is a word spoken at the right time.

¹² Like a gold ring and a fine gold ornament, so is constructive criticism to the ear of one who listens.

¹³ Like the coolness of snow on a harvest day, so is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him: He refreshes his masters.

¹⁴ Like a dense fog or a dust storm, so is a person who brags about a gift that he does not give.

¹⁵ With patience you can persuade a ruler, and a soft tongue can break bones.

¹⁶ When you find honey, eat only as much as you need. Otherwise, you will have too much and vomit.

¹⁷ Do not set foot in your neighbor's house too often. Otherwise, he will see too much of you and hate you.

¹⁸ Like a club and a sword and a sharp arrow, so is a person who gives false testimony against his neighbor.

¹⁹ Like a broken tooth and a lame foot, so is confidence in an unfaithful person in a time of crisis.

²⁰ Like taking off a coat on a cold day or pouring vinegar on baking soda, so is singing songs to one who has an evil heart.

²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him some food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him some water to drink.

²² In this way you will make him feel guilty and ashamed, and the LORD will reward you.

²³ As the north wind brings rain, so a whispering tongue brings angry looks.

²⁴ Better to live on a corner of a roof than to share a home with a quarreling woman.

²⁵ Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from far away.

²⁶ Like a muddied spring and a polluted well, so is a righteous person who gives in to a wicked person.

²⁷ Eating too much honey is not good, and searching for honor is not honorable.

²⁸ Like a city broken into and left without a wall, so is a person who lacks self-control.

26 ¹ Like snow in summertime and rain at harvest time, so honor is not right for a fool.

² Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so a hastily spoken curse does not come to rest.

³ A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey, and a rod is for the backs of fools.

⁴ Do not answer a fool with his own stupidity, or you will be like him.

⁵ Answer a fool with his own stupidity, or he will think he is wise.

⁶ Whoever uses a fool to send a message cuts off his own feet and brings violence upon himself.

⁷ Like a lame person's limp legs, so is a proverb in the mouths of fools.

⁸ Like tying a stone to a sling, so is giving honor to a fool.

⁹ Like a thorn stuck in a drunk's hand, so is a proverb in the mouths of fools.

¹⁰ Like many people who destroy everything, so is one who hires fools or drifters.

¹¹ As a dog goes back to its vomit, so a fool repeats his stupidity.

¹² Have you met a person who thinks he is wise? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

¹³ A lazy person says, "There's a ferocious lion out on the road! There's a lion loose in the streets!"

¹⁴ As a door turns on its hinges, so the lazy person turns on his bed.

¹⁵ A lazy person puts his fork in his food. He wears himself out as he brings it back to his mouth.

¹⁶ A lazy person thinks he is wiser than seven people who give a sensible answer.

¹⁷ Like grabbing a dog by the ears, so is a bystander who gets involved in someone else's quarrel.

¹⁸ Like a madman who shoots flaming arrows, arrows, and death,

¹⁹ so is the person who tricks his neighbor and says, "I was only joking!"

²⁰ Without wood a fire goes out, and without gossip a quarrel dies down.

²¹ As charcoal fuels burning coals and wood fuels fire, so a quarrelsome person fuels a dispute.

²² The words of a gossip are swallowed greedily, and they go down into a person's innermost being.

²³ Like a clay pot covered with cheap silver, so is smooth talk that covers up an evil heart.

²⁴ Whoever is filled with hate disguises it with his speech, but inside he holds on to deceit.

²⁵ When he talks charmingly, do not trust him because of the seven disgusting things in his heart.

²⁶ His hatred is deceitfully hidden, but his wickedness will be revealed to the community.

²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall into it. Whoever rolls a stone will have it roll back on him.

²⁸ A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

27 ¹ Do not brag about tomorrow, because you do not know what another day may bring.

² Praise should come from another person and not from your own mouth, from a stranger and not from your own lips.

³ A stone is heavy, and sand weighs a lot, but annoyance caused by a stubborn fool is heavier than both.

⁴ Anger is cruel, and fury is overwhelming, but who can survive jealousy?

⁵ Open criticism is better than unexpressed love.

⁶ Wounds made by a friend are intended to help, but an enemy's kisses are too much to bear.

⁷ One who is full despises honey, but to one who is hungry, even bitter food tastes sweet.

⁸ Like a bird wandering from its nest, so is a husband wandering from his home.

⁹ Perfume and incense make the heart glad, but the sweetness of a friend is a fragrant forest.

¹⁰ Do not abandon your friend or your father's friend. Do not go to a relative's home when you are in trouble. A neighbor living nearby is better than a relative far away.

¹¹ Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad so that I can answer anyone who criticizes me.

¹² Sensible people foresee trouble and hide. Gullible people go ahead and suffer.

¹³ Hold on to the garment of one who guarantees a stranger's loan, and hold responsible the person who makes a loan in behalf of a foreigner.

¹⁴ Whoever blesses his friend early in the morning with a loud voice— his blessing is considered a curse.

¹⁵ Constantly dripping water on a rainy day is like a quarreling woman.

¹⁶ Whoever can control her can control the wind. He can even pick up olive oil with his right hand.

¹⁷ As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens the wits of another.

¹⁸ Whoever takes care of a fig tree can eat its fruit, and whoever protects his master is honored.

¹⁹ As a face is reflected in water, so a person is reflected by his heart.

²⁰ Hell and decay are never satisfied, and a person's eyes are never satisfied.

²¹ The crucible is for refining silver and the smelter for gold, but a person is tested by the praise given to him.

²² If you crush a stubborn fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, even then his stupidity will not leave him.

²³ Be fully aware of the condition of your flock, and pay close attention to your herds.

²⁴ Wealth is not forever. Nor does a crown last from one generation to the next.

²⁵ When grass is cut short, the tender growth appears, and vegetables are gathered on the hills.

²⁶ Lambs will provide you with clothing, and the money from the male goats will buy a field.

²⁷ There will be enough goat milk to feed you, to feed your family, and to keep your servant girls alive.

28 ¹ A wicked person flees when no one is chasing him, but righteous people are as bold as lions.

² When a country is in revolt, it has many rulers, but only with a person who has understanding and knowledge will it last a long time.

³ A poor person who oppresses poorer people is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

⁴ Those who abandon God's teachings praise wicked people, but those who follow God's teachings oppose wicked people.

⁵ Evil people do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand everything.

⁶ Better to be a poor person who has integrity than to be rich and double-dealing.

⁷ Whoever follows God's teachings is a wise son. Whoever associates with gluttons disgraces his father.

⁸ Whoever becomes wealthy through unfair loans and interest collects them for the one who is kind to the poor.

⁹ Surely the prayer of someone who refuses to listen to God's teachings is disgusting.

¹⁰ Whoever leads decent people into evil will fall into his own pit, but innocent people will inherit good things.

¹¹ A rich person is wise in his own eyes, but a poor person with understanding sees right through him.

¹² When righteous people triumph, there is great glory, but when wicked people rise, people hide themselves.

¹³ Whoever covers over his sins does not prosper. Whoever confesses and abandons them receives compassion.

¹⁴ Blessed is the one who is always fearful of sin, but whoever is hard-hearted falls into disaster.

¹⁵ Like a roaring lion and a charging bear, so a wicked ruler is a threat to poor people.

¹⁶ A leader without understanding taxes his people heavily, but those who hate unjust gain will live longer.

¹⁷ A person burdened with the guilt of murder will be a fugitive down to his grave. No one will help him.

¹⁸ Whoever lives honestly will be safe. Whoever lives dishonestly will fall all at once.

¹⁹ Whoever works his land will have plenty to eat. Whoever chases unrealistic dreams will have plenty of nothing.

²⁰ A trustworthy person has many blessings, but anyone in a hurry to get rich will not escape punishment.

²¹ Showing partiality is not good, because some people will turn on you even for a piece of bread.

²² A stingy person is in a hurry to get rich, not realizing that poverty is about to overtake him.

²³ Whoever criticizes people will be more highly regarded in the future than the one who flatters with his tongue.

²⁴ The one who robs his father or his mother and says, "It isn't wrong!" is a companion to a vandal.

²⁵ A greedy person stirs up a fight, but whoever trusts the LORD prospers.

²⁶ Whoever trusts his own heart is a fool. Whoever walks in wisdom will survive.

²⁷ Whoever gives to the poor lacks nothing. Whoever ignores the poor receives many curses.

²⁸ When wicked people rise, people hide. When they die, righteous people increase.

29 ¹ A person who will not bend after many warnings will suddenly be broken beyond repair.

² When righteous people increase, the people of God rejoice, but when a wicked person rules, everybody groans.

³ A person who loves wisdom makes his father happy, but one who pays prostitutes wastes his wealth.

⁴ By means of justice, a king builds up a country, but a person who confiscates religious contributions tears it down.

⁵ A person who flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for him to step into.

⁶ To an evil person sin is bait in a trap, but a righteous person runs away from it and is glad.

⁷ A righteous person knows the just cause of the poor. A wicked person does not understand this.

⁸ Mockers create an uproar in a city, but wise people turn away anger.

⁹ When a wise person goes to court with a stubborn fool, he may rant and rave, but there is no peace and quiet.

¹⁰ Bloodthirsty people hate an innocent person, but decent people seek to protect his life.

¹¹ A fool expresses all his emotions, but a wise person controls them.

¹² If a ruler pays attention to lies, all his servants become wicked.

¹³ A poor person and an oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives both of them sight.

¹⁴ When a king judges the poor with honesty, his throne will always be secure.

¹⁵ A spanking and a warning produce wisdom, but an undisciplined child disgraces his mother.

¹⁶ When wicked people increase, crime increases, but righteous people will witness their downfall.

¹⁷ Correct your son, and he will give you peace of mind. He will bring delight to your soul.

¹⁸ Without prophetic vision people run wild, but blessed are those who follow God's teachings.

¹⁹ A slave cannot be disciplined with words. He will not respond, though he may understand.

²⁰ Have you met a person who is quick to answer? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

²¹ Pamper a slave from childhood, and later he will be ungrateful.

²² An angry person stirs up a fight, and a hothead does much wrong.

²³ A person's pride will humiliate him, but a humble spirit gains honor.

²⁴ Whoever is a thief's partner hates his own life. He will not testify under oath.

²⁵ A person's fear sets a trap for him, but one who trusts the LORD is safe.

²⁶ Many seek an audience with a ruler, but justice for humanity comes from the LORD.

²⁷ An unjust person is disgusting to righteous people. A decent person is disgusting to wicked people.

30 ¹ The words of Agur, son of Jakeh. Agur's prophetic revelation. [To God] This man's declaration: "I'm weary, O God. I'm weary and worn out, O God.

² I'm more like a dumb animal than a human being. I don't even have human understanding.

³ I haven't learned wisdom. I don't have knowledge of the Holy One.

⁴ [To the audience] "Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in the palm of his hand? Who has wrapped water in a garment? Who has set up the earth from one end to the other? What is his name or the name of his son? Certainly, you must know!

⁵ "Every word of God has proven to be true. He is a shield to those who come to him for protection.

⁶ Do not add to his words, or he will reprimand you, and you will be found to be a liar.

⁷ [To God] "I've asked you for two things. Don't keep them from me before I die:

⁸ Keep vanity and lies far away from me. Don't give me either poverty or riches. Feed me only the food I need,

⁹ or I may feel satisfied and deny you and say, 'Who is the LORD?' or I may become poor and steal and give the name of my God a bad reputation.

¹⁰ [To the audience] "Do not slander a slave to his master. The slave will curse you, and you will be found guilty."

¹¹ A certain kind of person curses his father and does not bless his mother.

¹² A certain kind of person thinks he is pure but is not washed from his own feces.

¹³ A certain kind of person looks around arrogantly and is conceited.

¹⁵ The bloodsucking leech has two daughters—"Give!" and "Give!" Three things are never satisfied. Four never say, "Enough!":

¹⁶ the grave, a barren womb, a land that never gets enough water, a fire that does not say, "Enough!"

¹⁷ The eye that makes fun of a father and hates to obey a mother will be plucked out by ravens in the valley and eaten by young vultures.

¹⁸ Three things are too amazing to me, even four that I cannot understand:

¹⁹ an eagle making its way through the sky, a snake making its way over a rock, a ship making its way through high seas, a man making his way with a virgin.

²⁰ This is the way of a woman who commits adultery: She eats, wipes her mouth, and says, "I haven't done anything wrong!"

²¹ Three things cause the earth to tremble, even four it cannot bear up under:

²² a slave when he becomes king, a godless fool when he is filled with food, ²³ a woman who is unloved when she gets married, a maid when she replaces her mistress.

²⁴ Four things on earth are small, yet they are very wise:

²⁵ Ants are not a strong species, yet they store their food in summer.

²⁶ Rock badgers are not a mighty species, yet they make their home in the rocks.

²⁷ Locusts have no king, yet all of them divide into swarms by instinct.

²⁸ A lizard you can hold in your hands, yet it can even be found in royal palaces.

²⁹ There are three things that walk with dignity, even four that march with dignity:

³⁰ a lion, mightiest among animals, which turns away from nothing,

³¹ a strutting rooster, a male goat, a king at the head of his army.

³² If you are such a godless fool as to honor yourself, or if you scheme, you had better put your hand over your mouth.

³³ As churning milk produces butter and punching a nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces a fight.

31 ¹ The sayings of King Lemuel, a prophetic revelation, used by his mother to discipline him.

² "What, my son? What, son to whom I gave birth? What, son of my prayers?

³ Don't give your strength to women or your power to those who ruin kings.

⁴ "It is not for kings, Lemuel. It is not for kings to drink wine or for rulers to crave liquor.

⁵ Otherwise, they drink and forget what they have decreed and change the standard of justice for all oppressed people.

⁶ Give liquor to a person who is dying and wine to one who feels resentful.

⁷ Such a person drinks and forgets his poverty and does not remember his trouble anymore.

⁸ "Speak out for the one who cannot speak, for the rights of those who are doomed.

⁹ Speak out, judge fairly, and defend the rights of oppressed and needy people."

¹⁰ "Who can find a wife with a strong character? She is worth far more than jewels.

¹¹ Her husband trusts her with all his heart, and he does not lack anything good.

¹² She helps him and never harms him all the days of her life.

¹³ "She seeks out wool and linen with care and works with willing hands.

¹⁴ She is like merchant ships. She brings her food from far away.

¹⁵ She wakes up while it is still dark and gives food to her family and portions of food to her female slaves.

¹⁶ "She picks out a field and buys it. She plants a vineyard from the profits she has earned.

¹⁷ She puts on strength like a belt and goes to work with energy.

¹⁸ She sees that she is making a good profit. Her lamp burns late at night.

¹⁹ "She puts her hands on the distaff, and her fingers hold a spindle.

²⁰ She opens her hands to oppressed people and stretches them out to needy people.

²¹ She does not fear for her family when it snows because her whole family has a double layer of clothing.

²² She makes quilts for herself. Her clothes are made of linen and purple cloth.

²³ "Her husband is known at the city gates when he sits with the leaders of the land.

²⁴ "She makes linen garments and sells them and delivers belts to the merchants.

²⁵ She dresses with strength and nobility, and she smiles at the future.

²⁶ "She speaks with wisdom, and on her tongue there is tender instruction.

²⁷ She keeps a close eye on the conduct of her family, and she does not eat the bread of idleness.

²⁸ Her children and her husband stand up and bless her. In addition, he sings her praises, by saying,

²⁹ 'Many women have done noble work, but you have surpassed them all!'

³⁰ "Charm is deceptive, and beauty evaporates, but a woman who has the fear of the LORD should be praised.

³¹ Reward her for what she has done, and let her achievements praise her at the city gates."

Ecclesiastes

1 ¹ The words of the spokesman, the son of David and the king in Jerusalem.

² "Absolutely pointless!" says the spokesman. "Absolutely pointless!
Everything is pointless."

³ What do people gain from all their hard work under the sun?

⁴ Generations come, and generations go, but the earth lasts forever.

⁵ The sun rises, and the sun sets, and then it rushes back to the place where it will rise again.

⁶ The wind blows toward the south and shifts toward the north. Round and round it blows. It blows in a full circle.

⁷ All streams flow into the sea, but the sea is never full. The water goes back to the place where the streams began in order to start flowing again.

⁸ All of these sayings are worn-out phrases. They are more than anyone can express, comprehend, or understand.

⁹ Whatever has happened before will happen again. Whatever has been done before will be done again. There is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰ Can you say that anything is new? It has already been here long before us.

¹¹ Nothing from the past is remembered. Even in the future, nothing will be remembered by those who come after us.

¹² I, the spokesman, have been king of Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³ With all my heart I used wisdom to study and explore everything done under heaven. Mortals are weighed down with a terrible burden that God has placed on them.

¹⁴ I have seen everything that is done under the sun. Look at it! It's all pointless. It's like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁵ No one can straighten what is bent. No one can count what is not there.

¹⁶ I thought to myself, "I have grown wiser than anyone who has ruled Jerusalem before me. I've had a lot of experience with wisdom and knowledge."

¹⁷ I've used my mind to understand wisdom and knowledge as well as madness and stupidity. Now I know that this is like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸ With a lot of wisdom comes a lot of heartache. The greater your knowledge, the greater your pain.

2 ¹ I thought to myself, "Now I want to experiment with pleasure and enjoy myself." But even this was pointless.

² I thought, "Laughter doesn't make any sense. What does pleasure accomplish?"

⁴ I accomplished some great things: I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself.

⁵ I made gardens and parks for myself. I planted every kind of fruit tree in them.

⁶ I made pools to water the forest of growing trees.

⁷ I bought male and female slaves. In addition, slaves were born in my household. I owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

⁸ I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I gathered the treasures of kings and provinces. I provided myself with male and female singers and the pleasures men have with one concubine after another.

⁹ So I grew richer than anyone in Jerusalem before me. Yet, my wisdom remained with me.

¹⁰ If something appealed to me, I did it. I allowed myself to have any pleasure I wanted, since I found pleasure in my work. This was my reward for all my hard work.

¹¹ But when I turned to look at all that I had accomplished and all the hard work I had put into it, I saw that it was all pointless. It was like trying to catch the wind. I gained nothing from any of my accomplishments under the sun.

¹² Then I turned my attention to experience wisdom, madness, and foolishness. For instance, what can the man who replaces the king do? Only what has already been done.

¹³ But I saw that wisdom has an advantage over foolishness as light has an advantage over darkness.

¹⁴ A wise person uses the eyes in his head, but a fool walks in the dark. But I have also come to realize that the same destiny waits for both of them.

¹⁵ I thought to myself, "If the destiny that waits for the fool waits for me as well, then what is the advantage in being wise?" So I thought that even this is pointless.

¹⁶ Neither the wise person nor the fool will be remembered for long, since both will be forgotten in the days to come. Both the wise person and the fool will die.

¹⁷ So I came to hate life because everything done under the sun seemed wrong to me. Everything was pointless. It was like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸ I came to hate everything for which I had worked so hard under the sun, because I will have to leave it to the person who replaces me.

¹⁹ Who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? He will still have control over everything under the sun for which I worked so hard and used my wisdom. Even this is pointless.

²⁰ Then I fell into despair over everything for which I had worked so hard under the sun.

²² What do people get from all of their hard work and struggles under the sun?

²³ Their entire life is filled with pain, and their work is unbearable. Even at night their minds don't rest. Even this is pointless.

²⁴ There is nothing better for people to do than to eat, drink, and find satisfaction in their work. I saw that even this comes from the hand of God.

²⁵ Who can eat or enjoy themselves without God?

²⁶ God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy to anyone who pleases him. But to the person who continues to sin, he gives the job of gathering and collecting wealth. The sinner must turn his wealth over to the person who pleases God. Even this is pointless. It's like trying to catch the wind.

3 ¹ Everything has its own time, and there is a specific time for every activity under heaven:

² a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to pull out what was planted,

³ a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build up,

⁴ a time to cry and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

⁵ a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to hug and a time to stop hugging,

⁶ a time to start looking and a time to stop looking, a time to keep and a time to throw away,

⁷ a time to tear apart and a time to sew together, a time to keep quiet and a time to speak out,

⁸ a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What do working people gain from their hard labor?

¹⁰ I have seen mortals weighed down with a burden that God has placed on them.

¹² I realize that there's nothing better for them to do than to be cheerful and enjoy what is good in their lives.

¹³ It is a gift from God to be able to eat and drink and experience the good that comes from every kind of hard work.

¹⁴ I realize that whatever God does will last forever. Nothing can be added to it, and nothing can be taken away from it. God does this so that people will fear him.

¹⁵ Whatever has happened in the past is present now. Whatever is going to happen in the future has already happened in the past. God will call the past to account.

¹⁶ I saw something else under the sun: There is wickedness where justice should be found. There is wickedness where righteousness should be found.

¹⁷ I thought to myself, "God will judge righteous people as well as wicked people, because there is a specific time for every activity and every work that is done."

¹⁸ I thought to myself, "God is going to test humans in order to show them that they are like animals."

¹⁹ Humans and animals have the same destiny. One dies just like the other. All of them have the same breath of life. Humans have no advantage over animals. All of life is pointless.

²⁰ All life goes to the same place. All life comes from the ground, and all of it goes back to the ground.

²¹ Who knows whether a human spirit goes upward or whether an animal spirit goes downward to the earth?

²² I saw that there's nothing better for people to do than to enjoy their work because that is their lot in life. Who will allow them to see what will happen after them?

4 ¹ Next, I turned to look at all the acts of oppression that make people suffer under the sun. Look at the tears of those who suffer! No one can comfort them. Their oppressors have all the power. No one can comfort those who suffer.

² I congratulate the dead, who have already died, rather than the living, who still have to carry on.

³ But the person who hasn't been born yet is better off than both of them. He hasn't seen the evil that is done under the sun.

⁴ Then I saw that all hard work and skillful effort come from rivalry. Even this is pointless. It's like trying to catch the wind.

⁵ A fool folds his hands and wastes away.

⁶ One handful of peace and quiet is better than two handfuls of hard work and of trying to catch the wind.

⁷ Next, I turned to look at something pointless under the sun:

⁸ There are people who are all alone. They have no children or other family members. So there is no end to all the hard work they have to do. Their eyes are never satisfied with riches. But they never ask themselves why they are working so hard and depriving themselves of good things. Even this is pointless and a terrible tragedy.

⁹ Two people are better than one because together they have a good reward for their hard work.

¹¹ Again, if two people lie down together, they can keep warm, but how can one person keep warm?

¹² Though one person may be overpowered by another, two people can resist one opponent. A triple-braided rope is not easily broken.

¹³ A young man who is poor and wise is better than an old, foolish king who won't take advice any longer.

¹⁴ A young man came out of prison to rule as king, even though he had been born in poverty in that same kingdom.

¹⁵ I saw all living people moving about under the sun. They sided with the second young man, the king's successor.

¹⁶ There was no end to all those people, everyone whom he led. But those who will come later will not be happy with the successor. Even this is pointless. It's like trying to catch the wind.

5 ¹ Watch your step when you go to the house of God. It is better to go there and listen than to bring the sacrifices fools bring. Fools are unaware that they are doing something evil.

² Don't be in a hurry to talk. Don't be eager to speak in the presence of God. Since God is in heaven and you are on earth, limit the number of your words.

³ Daydreaming comes when there are too many worries. Careless speaking comes when there are too many words.

⁴ When you make a promise to God, don't be slow to keep it because God doesn't like fools. Keep your promise.

⁵ It is better not to make a promise than to make one and not keep it.

⁷ In spite of many daydreams, pointless actions, and empty words, you should still fear God.

⁸ Don't be surprised if you see poor people being oppressed, denied justice, or denied their rights in any district. One authority is watching over another, and they both have authorities watching over them.

⁹ Yet, a king is an advantage for a country with cultivated fields.

¹⁰ Whoever loves money will never be satisfied with money. Whoever loves wealth will never be satisfied with more income. Even this is pointless.

¹¹ As the number of goods increase, so do the number of people who consume them. What do owners gain from all their goods except the opportunity to look at them?

¹² The sleep of working people is sweet, whether they eat a little or a lot. But the full stomachs that rich people have will not allow them to sleep.

¹³ There is a painful tragedy that I have seen under the sun: Riches lead to the downfall of those who hoard them.

¹⁴ These hoarded riches were then lost in bad business deals. The owners had children, but now they have nothing to give them.

¹⁵ They came from their mother's womb naked. They will leave as naked as they came. They won't even be able to take a handful of their earnings with them from all their hard work.

¹⁶ This also is a painful tragedy: They leave exactly as they came. What advantage do they gain from working so hard for the wind?

¹⁷ They spend their entire lives in darkness, in constant frustration, sickness, and resentment.

¹⁸ At last I have seen what is good and beautiful: It is to eat and drink and to enjoy the good in all our hard work under the sun during the brief lives God gives us. That is our lot in life.

¹⁹ It is a gift from God when God gives some people wealth and possessions, the power to enjoy them, the ability to accept their lot in life, and the ability to rejoice in their own hard work.

²⁰ These people won't give much thought to their brief lives because God keeps them occupied with the joy in their hearts.

6¹ There is a tragedy that I have seen under the sun. It is a terrible one for mortals.

² God gives one person riches, wealth, and honor so that he doesn't lack anything he wants. Yet, God doesn't give him the power to enjoy any of them. Instead, a stranger enjoys them. This is pointless and is a painful tragedy.

³ Suppose a rich person wasn't satisfied with good things while he was alive and didn't even get an honorable burial after he died. Suppose he had a hundred children and lived for many years. No matter how long he would have lived, it still would have been better for him to have been born dead.

⁴ A stillborn baby arrives in a pointless birth and goes out into the darkness. The darkness then hides its name.

⁵ Though it has never seen the sun or known anything, the baby finds more rest than the rich person.

⁶ Even if the rich person lives two thousand years without experiencing anything good—don't we all go to the same place?

⁷ Everything that people work so hard for goes into their mouths, but their appetite is never satisfied.

⁸ What advantage does a wise person have over a fool? What advantage does a poor person have in knowing how to face life?

⁹ It is better to look at what is in front of you than to go looking for what you want. Even this is pointless. It's like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁰ Whatever has happened in the past already has a name. Mortals are already known for what they are. Mortals cannot argue with the one who is stronger than they.

¹¹ The more words there are, the more pointless they become. What advantage do mortals gain from this?

¹² Who knows what may be good for mortals while they are alive, during the brief, pointless days they live? Mortals pass by like a shadow. Who will tell them about their future under the sun?

7 ¹ A good name is better than expensive perfume, and the day you die is better than the day you're born.

² It is better to go to a funeral than to a banquet because that is where everyone will end up. Everyone who is alive should take this to heart!

³ Sorrow is better than laughter because, in spite of a sad face, the heart can be joyful.

⁴ The minds of wise people think about funerals, but the minds of fools think about banquets.

⁵ It is better to listen to wise people who reprimand you than to fools who sing your praises.

⁶ The laughter of a fool is like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot. Even this is pointless.

⁷ Oppression can turn a wise person into a fool, and a bribe can corrupt the mind.

⁸ The end of something is better than its beginning. It is better to be patient than arrogant.

⁹ Don't be quick to get angry, because anger is typical of fools.

¹⁰ Don't ask, "Why were things better in the old days than they are now?" It isn't wisdom that leads you to ask this!

¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. It is an advantage to everyone who sees the sun.

¹² Wisdom protects us just as money protects us, but the advantage of wisdom is that it gives life to those who have it.

¹³ Consider what God has done! Who can straighten what God has bent?

¹⁴ When times are good, be happy. But when times are bad, consider this: God has made the one time as well as the other so that mortals cannot predict their future.

¹⁶ Don't be too virtuous, and don't be too wise. Why make yourself miserable?

¹⁷ Don't be too wicked, and don't be a fool. Why should you die before your time is up?

¹⁸ It's good to hold on to the one and not let go of the other, because the one who fears God will be able to avoid both extremes.

¹⁹ Wisdom will help a wise person more than ten rulers can help a city.

²⁰ Certainly, there is no one so righteous on earth that he always does what is good and never sins.

²¹ Don't take everything that people say to heart, or you may hear your own servant cursing you.

²² Your conscience knows that you have cursed others many times.

²³ I used wisdom to test all of this. I said, "I want to be wise, but it is out of my reach."

²⁴ Whatever wisdom may be, it is out of reach. It is deep, very deep. Who can find out what it is?

²⁵ I turned my attention to study, to explore, and to seek out wisdom and the reason for things. I learned that wickedness is stupid and foolishness is madness.

²⁷ The spokesman said, "This is what I've found: I added one thing to another in order to find a reason for things.

²⁸ I am still seeking a reason for things, but have not found any. I found one man out of a thousand who had it, but out of all these I didn't find one woman.

²⁹ I have found only this: God made people decent, but they looked for many ways to avoid being decent."

8 ¹ Who is really wise? Who knows how to explain things? Wisdom makes one's face shine, and it changes one's grim look.

² I advise you to obey the king's commands because of the oath you took in God's presence.

³ Don't be in a hurry to leave the king's service. Don't take part in something evil, because he can do whatever he pleases.

⁴ Since a king's word has such power, no one can ask him what he is doing.

⁵ Whoever obeys his commands will avoid trouble. The mind of a wise person will know the right time and the right way to act.

⁶ There is a right time and a right way to act in every situation. Yet, a terrible human tragedy hangs over people.

⁷ They don't know what the future will bring. So who can tell them how things will turn out?

⁹ I have seen all of this, and I have carefully considered all that is done under the sun whenever one person has authority to hurt others.

¹⁰ Then I saw wicked people given an honorable burial. They used to go in and out of the holy place. They were praised in the city for doing such things. Even this is pointless.

¹¹ When a sentence against a crime isn't carried out quickly, people are encouraged to commit crimes.

¹² A sinner may commit a hundred crimes and yet live a long life. Still, I know with certainty that it will go well for those who fear God, because they fear him.

¹³ But it will not go well for the wicked. They will not live any longer. Their lives are like shadows, because they don't fear God.

¹⁴ There is something being done on earth that is pointless. Righteous people suffer for what the wicked do, and wicked people get what the righteous deserve. I say that even this is pointless.

¹⁵ So I recommend the enjoyment of life. People have nothing better to do under the sun than to eat, drink, and enjoy themselves. This joy will stay with them while they work hard during their brief lives which God has given them under the sun.

¹⁶ When I carefully considered how to study wisdom and how to look at the work that is done on earth (even going without sleep day and night),

¹⁷ then I saw everything that God has done. No one is able to grasp the work that is done under the sun. However hard a person may search for it, he will not find its meaning. Even though a wise person claims to know, he is not able to grasp it.

9 ¹ Now, I have carefully thought about all this, and I explain it in this way: Righteous people and wise people, along with their accomplishments, are in God's hands. No one knows whether there will be love or hatred.

² Everything turns out the same way for everyone. All people will share the same destiny, whether they are righteous, wicked, or good, clean or unclean, whether they offer sacrifices or don't offer sacrifices. Good people are treated like sinners. People who take oaths are treated like those who are afraid to take oaths.

³ This is the tragedy of everything that happens under the sun: Everyone shares the same destiny. Moreover, the hearts of mortals are full of evil. Madness is in their hearts while they are still alive. After that, they join the dead.

⁴ But all who are among the living have hope, because a living dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵ The living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. There is no more reward for the dead when the memory of them has faded.

⁶ Their love, their hate, and their passions have already vanished. They will never again take part in anything that happens under the sun.

⁷ Go, enjoy eating your food, and drink your wine cheerfully, because God has already accepted what you've done.

⁸ Always wear clean clothes, and never go without lotion on your head.

¹⁰ Whatever presents itself for you to do, do it with all your might, because there is no work, planning, knowledge, or skill in the grave where you're going.

¹¹ I saw something else under the sun. The race isn't won by fast runners, or the battle by heroes. Wise people don't necessarily have food. Intelligent people don't necessarily have riches, and skilled people don't necessarily receive special treatment. But time and unpredictable events overtake all of them.

¹² No one knows when his time will come. Like fish that are caught in a cruel net or birds caught in a snare, humans are trapped by a disaster when it suddenly strikes them.

¹³ I also have seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it made a deep impression on me.

¹⁴ There was a small town with a few soldiers in it, and a powerful king came to attack it. He surrounded it and blockaded it.

¹⁵ A poor, wise person was found in that town. He saved the town using his wisdom. But no one remembered that poor person.

¹⁶ So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength," even though that poor person's wisdom was despised, and no one listened to what he said.

¹⁷ One should pay more attention to calm words from wise people than shouting from a ruler of fools.

¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much that is good.

10 ¹ Dead flies will make a bottle of perfume stink, and then it is spoiled. A little foolishness outweighs wisdom and honor.

² A wise person's heart leads the right way. The heart of a fool leads the wrong way.

³ Even when a fool goes walking, he has no sense and shows everyone else that he's a fool.

⁴ If a ruler becomes angry with you, don't resign your position. If you remain calm, you can make up for serious offenses.

⁵ There is a tragedy that I've seen under the sun, an error often made by rulers.

⁶ Foolish people are often given high positions, and rich people are left to fill lower positions.

⁷ I have seen slaves sitting on horses and influential people going on foot like slaves.

⁸ Whoever digs a pit may fall into it. Whoever breaks through a stone wall may be bitten by a snake.

⁹ Whoever works in a stone quarry may get hurt. Whoever splits wood may be injured.

¹⁰ If an ax is blunt and the edge isn't sharpened, then one has to use more strength. But wisdom prepares the way for success.

¹¹ If a snake bites before it has been charmed, then there is no advantage in being a snake charmer.

¹² A wise person's words win favors, but a fool's lips are self-destructive.

¹³ A fool starts out by talking foolishness and ends up saying crazy things that are dangerous.

¹⁴ He never stops talking. No one knows what the future will bring, or what will happen after death. Who can say!

¹⁵ Fools wear themselves out with hard work, because they don't even know the way to town.

¹⁶ How horrible it will be for any country where the king used to be a servant and where the high officials throw parties in the morning.

¹⁷ A country is blessed when the king is from a noble family and when the high officials eat at the right time in order to get strength and not to get drunk.

¹⁸ A roof sags because of laziness. A house leaks because of idle hands.

¹⁹ A meal is made for laughter, and wine makes life pleasant, but money is the answer for everything.

²⁰ Don't curse the king even in your thoughts, and don't curse rich people even in your bedroom. A bird may carry your words, or some winged creature may repeat what you say.

11 ¹ Throw your bread on the surface of the water, because you will find it again after many days.

² Divide what you have into seven parts, or even into eight, because you don't know what disaster may happen on earth.

³ If the clouds are full of rain, they will let it pour down on the earth. If a tree falls north or south, the tree will remain where it fell.

⁴ Whoever watches the wind will never plant. Whoever looks at the clouds will never harvest.

⁵ Just as you don't know how the breath of life enters the limbs of a child within its mother's womb, you also don't understand how God, who made everything, works.

⁶ Plant your seed in the morning, and don't let your hands rest until evening. You don't know whether this field or that field will be profitable or whether both of them will turn out equally well.

⁷ Light is sweet, and it is good for one's eyes to see the sun.

⁸ Even though people may live for many years, they should enjoy every one of them. But they should also remember there will be many dark days. Everything that is coming is pointless.

⁹ You young people should enjoy yourselves while you're young. You should let your hearts make you happy when you're young. Follow wherever your heart leads you and whatever your eyes see. But realize that God will make you give an account for all these things when he judges everyone.

¹⁰ Get rid of what troubles you or wears down your body, because childhood and youth are pointless.

12 ¹ Remember your Creator when you are young, before the days of trouble come and the years catch up with you. They will make you say, "I have found no pleasure in them."

² Remember your Creator before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars turn dark, and the clouds come back with rain.

⁶ Remember your Creator before the silver cord is snapped, the golden bowl is broken, the pitcher is smashed near the spring, and the water wheel is broken at the cistern.

⁷ Then the dust of mortals goes back to the ground as it was before, and the breath of life goes back to God who gave it.

⁸ "Absolutely pointless!" says the spokesman. "Everything is pointless!"

⁹ Besides being wise, the spokesman also taught the people what he knew. He very carefully thought about it, studied it, and arranged it in many proverbs.

¹⁰ The spokesman tried to find just the right words. He wrote the words of truth very carefully.

¹¹ Words from wise people are like spurs. Their collected sayings are like nails that have been driven in firmly. They come from one shepherd.

¹² Be warned, my children, against anything more than these. People never stop writing books. Too much studying will wear out your body.

¹³ After having heard it all, this is the conclusion: Fear God, and keep his commands, because this applies to everyone.

¹⁴ God will certainly judge everything that is done. This includes every secret thing, whether it is good or bad.

Song of Solomon

1 ¹ The most beautiful song of Solomon.

² [Bride] Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth. Your expressions of love are better than wine, ³ better than the fragrance of cologne. (Cologne should be named after you.) No wonder the young women love you!

⁴ Take me with you. Let's run away. The king has brought me into his private rooms. [The chorus of young women] We will celebrate and rejoice with you. We will praise your expressions of love more than wine. How right it is that the young women love you!

⁵ [Bride] Young women of Jerusalem, I am dark and lovely like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains.

⁶ Stop staring at me because I am so dark. The sun has tanned me. My brothers were angry with me. They made me the caretaker of the vineyards. I have not even taken care of my own vineyard.

⁷ Please tell me, you whom I love, where do you graze your flock? Where does your flock lie down at noon? Tell me, or I will be considered a prostitute wandering among the flocks of your companions.

⁸ [The chorus of young women] If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the flocks, and graze your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

⁹ [Groom] My true love, I compare you to a mare among Pharaoh's stallions.

¹⁰ Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with strings of pearls.

¹¹ [The chorus of young women] We will make gold ornaments with silver beads for you.

¹² [Bride] While the king is at his table, my perfume fills the air with its fragrance.

¹³ My beloved is a pouch of myrrh that lies at night between my breasts.

¹⁴ My beloved is a bouquet of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.

¹⁵ [Groom] Look at you! You are beautiful, my true love! Look at you! You are so beautiful! Your eyes are like doves!

¹⁶ [Bride] Look at you! You are handsome, my beloved, so pleasing to me! The leaf-scattered ground will be our couch.

¹⁷ The cedars will be the walls of our house. The cypress trees will be our rafters.

2¹ I am a rose of Sharon, a lily growing in the valleys.

² [Groom] Like a lily among thorns, so is my true love among the young women.

³ [Bride] Like an apple tree among the trees in the forest, so is my beloved among the young men. I want to sit in his shadow. His fruit tastes sweet to me.

⁴ He leads me into a banquet room and looks at me with love.

⁵ Strengthen me with raisins and refresh me with apples because I am weak from love.

⁸ [Bride] I hear my beloved's voice. Look! Here he comes, sprinting over the mountains, racing over the hills.

⁹ My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look! There he stands behind our wall, peeking through the window, looking through the lattice.

¹⁰ My beloved said to me, "Get up, my true love, my beautiful one, and come with me.

¹¹ Look! The winter is past. The rain is over and gone.

¹² Blossoms appear in the land. The time of the songbird has arrived. The cooing of the mourning dove is heard in our land.

¹³ The green figs ripen. The grapevines bloom and give off a fragrance. Get up, my true love, my beautiful one, and come with me.

¹⁴ My dove, in the hiding places of the rocky crevices, in the secret places of the cliffs, let me see your figure and hear your voice. Your voice is sweet, and your figure is lovely."

¹⁵ Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that ruin vineyards. Our vineyards are blooming.

¹⁶ My beloved is mine, and I am his. He is the one who grazes his flock among the lilies.

3¹ [Bride] Night after night on my bed I looked for the one I love. I looked for him but did not find him.

² I will get up now and roam around the city, in the streets, and in the squares. I will look for the one I love. I looked for him but did not find him.

³ The watchmen making their rounds in the city found me. I asked, "Have you seen the one I love?"

⁴ I had just left them when I found the one I love. I held on to him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the bedroom of the one who conceived me.

⁵ Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me by the gazelles or by the does in the field, that you will not awaken love or arouse love before its proper time.

⁶ [The chorus of young women] Who is this young woman coming up from the wilderness like clouds of smoke? She is perfumed with myrrh and incense made from the merchants' scented powders.

⁷ Look! Solomon's sedan chair! Sixty soldiers from the army of Israel surround it.

⁸ All of them are skilled in using swords, experienced in combat. Each one has his sword at his side and guards against the terrors of the night.

⁹ King Solomon had a carriage made for himself from the wood of Lebanon.

4 ¹ [Groom] Look at you! You are beautiful, my true love. Look at you! You are so beautiful. Your eyes behind your veil are like doves. Your hair is like a flock of goats moving down Mount Gilead.

² Your teeth are like a flock of sheep about to be sheared, sheep that come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one has lost its young.

³ Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like slices of pomegranate.

⁴ Your neck is like David's beautifully-designed tower. A thousand round shields belonging to soldiers are hung on it.

⁵ Your breasts are like two fawns, like twin gazelles grazing among the lilies.

⁶ When the day brings a cool breeze and the shadows flee, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of incense.

⁷ You are beautiful in every way, my true love. There is no blemish on you.

⁹ My bride, my sister, you have charmed me. You have charmed me with a single glance from your eyes, with a single strand of your necklace.

¹¹ Your lips drip honey, my bride. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The fragrance of your clothing is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

¹² My bride, my sister is a garden that is locked, a garden that is locked, a spring that is sealed.

¹³ You are paradise that produces pomegranates and the best fruits, henna flowers and nard, ¹⁴ nard and saffron, calamus, cinnamon, and all kinds of incense, myrrh, aloes, and all the best spices.

¹⁵ You are a spring for gardens, a well of living water flowing from Lebanon.

¹⁶ [Bride] Awake, north wind! Come, south wind! Blow on my garden! Let its spices flow from it. Let my beloved come to his garden, and let him eat his own precious fruit.

5 ¹ [Groom] My bride, my sister, I will come to my garden. I will gather my myrrh with my spice. I will eat my honeycomb with my honey. I will drink my wine with my milk. Eat, my friends! Drink and become intoxicated with expressions of love!

² [Bride] I sleep, but my mind is awake. Listen! My beloved is knocking. [Groom] Open to me, my true love, my sister, my dove, my perfect one. My head is wet with dew, my hair with the dewdrops of night.

³ [Bride] I have taken off my clothes! Why should I put them on again? I have washed my feet! Why should I get them dirty again?

⁴ My beloved put his hand through the keyhole. My heart throbbed for him.

⁵ I got up to open for my beloved.
My hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers were drenched with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had turned away. He was gone!
I almost died when he left. I looked for him, but I did not find him. I called for him, but he did not answer me.

⁷ The watchmen making their rounds in the city found me. They struck me! They wounded me! Those watchmen on the walls took my robe from me!

⁸ Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me that if you find my beloved you will tell him I am hopelessly lovesick.

⁹ [The chorus of young women] Most beautiful of women, what makes your beloved better than any other beloved?
What makes your beloved better than any other beloved that you make us swear this way?

¹⁰ [Bride] My beloved is dazzling yet ruddy. He stands out among 10,000 men.

¹¹ His head is the finest gold. His hair is wavy, black as a raven.

¹² His eyes are set like doves bathing in milk.

¹³ His cheeks are like a garden of spices, a garden that produces scented herbs. His lips are lilies that drip with myrrh.

¹⁴ His hands are disks of gold set with emerald. His chest is a block of ivory covered with sapphires.

¹⁵ His legs are columns of marble set on bases of pure gold. His form is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

¹⁶ His mouth is sweet in every way. Everything about him is desirable! This is my beloved, and this is my friend, young women of Jerusalem.

6 ¹ [The chorus of young women]
Where did your beloved go, most beautiful of women? Where did your beloved turn? We will look for him with you.

² [Bride] My beloved went to his garden, to the beds of spices, to graze his flock in the gardens and gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He is the one who grazes his flock among the lilies.

⁴ [Groom] You are beautiful, my true love, like Tirzah, lovely like Jerusalem, awe-inspiring like those great cities.

⁵ Turn your eyes away from me. They enchant me! Your hair is like a flock of goats moving down from Gilead.

⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of sheep, sheep that come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one has lost its young.

⁷ Your temples behind your veil are like slices of pomegranate.

⁸ There are 60 queens, 80 concubines,
and countless virgins,

⁹ but she is unique, my dove, my perfect
one. Her mother thinks she is unique.
She is pure to the one who gave birth to her. Her sisters saw her and blessed her.
Queens and concubines saw her and praised her.

¹⁰ [The chorus of young women] Who is this young woman? She looks like the dawn. She is beautiful like the moon, pure like the sun, awe-inspiring like those heavenly bodies.

¹¹ [Bride] I went to the walnut grove to look at the blossoms in the valley, to see if the grapevine had budded and if the pomegranates were in bloom.

¹² I did not know that I had become like the chariots of my noble people.

¹³ [The chorus of young women] Come back! Come back, young woman from Shulam! Come back! Come back so that we may look at you! [Bride] Why do you look at me, the young woman from Shulam, as you look at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 ¹ [The chorus of young women]
How beautiful are your feet in their sandals, noble daughter! The curves of your thighs are like ornaments, like the work of an artist's hands.

² Your navel is a round bowl. May it always be filled with spiced wine. Your waist is a bundle of wheat enclosed in lilies.

³ Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like pools in Heshbon, pools by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like a Lebanese tower facing Damascus.

⁵ You hold your head as high as Mount Carmel. Your dangling curls are royal beauty. Your flowing locks could hold a king captive.

⁶ [Groom] How beautiful and charming you are, my love, with your elegance.

⁷ Young woman, your figure is like a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.

⁸ I thought, "I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit." May your breasts be like clusters on the vine. May the fragrance of your breath be like apples.

⁹ May your mouth taste like the best wine...[Bride]...that goes down smoothly to my beloved and glides over the lips of those about to sleep.

¹⁰ I am my beloved's, and he longs for me.

¹¹ Come, my beloved. Let's go into the field. Let's spend the night among the henna flowers.

¹² Let's go to the vineyards early. Let's see if the vines have budded, if the grape blossoms have opened, if the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

¹³ The mandrakes give off a fragrance, and at our door are all kinds of precious fruits. I have saved new and old things for you alone, my beloved.

8 ¹ If only you were my brother, one who nursed at my mother's breasts. If I saw you on the street, I would kiss you, and no one would look down on me.

² I would lead you. I would bring you into my mother's house. (She is the one who was my teacher.) I would give you some spiced wine to drink, some juice squeezed from my pomegranates.

⁷ Raging water cannot extinguish love, and rivers will never wash it away. If a man exchanged all his family's wealth for love, people would utterly despise him.

⁸ [The brothers] We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What will we do for our sister on the day she becomes engaged?

⁹ If she is a wall, we will build a silver barrier around her. If she is a door, we will barricade her with cedar boards.

¹⁰ [Bride] I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. So he considers me to be one who has found peace.

¹² My own vineyard is in front of me. That 25 pounds is yours, Solomon, and 5 pounds go to those who take care of its fruit.

¹³ [Groom] Young woman living in the gardens, while your friends are listening to your voice, let me hear...

¹⁴ [Bride] Come away quickly, my beloved. Run like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

1 ¹ This is the vision which Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem at the time of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah.

² Listen, heaven, and pay attention, earth! The LORD has spoken, "I raised my children and helped them grow, but they have rebelled against me.

³ Oxen know their owners, and donkeys know where their masters feed them. But Israel doesn't know its owner. My people don't understand who feeds them.

⁴ "How horrible it will be for a nation that sins. Its people are loaded down with guilt. They are descendants of evildoers and destructive children. They have abandoned the LORD. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They have turned their backs on him.

⁵ "Why do you still want to be beaten? Why do you continue to rebel? Your whole head is infected. Your whole heart is failing.

⁶ From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head there is no healthy spot left on your body— only bruises, sores, and fresh wounds. They haven't been cleansed, bandaged, or soothed with oil.

⁷ "Your country is devastated. Your cities are burned down. Your fields are destroyed right before your eyes by foreigners. Your fields are devastated and taken over by foreigners.

⁸ My people Zion are left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shack in a cucumber field, like a city under attack."

⁹ If the LORD of Armies hadn't left us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah.

¹⁰ Listen to the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Pay attention to the teachings from our God, you people of Gomorrah!

¹² When you appear in my presence, who asked you to trample on my courtyards?

¹³ Don't bring any more worthless grain offerings. Your incense is disgusting to me, so are your New Moon Festivals, your days of worship, and the assemblies you call. I can't stand your evil assemblies.

¹⁴ I hate your New Moon Festivals and your appointed festivals. They've become a burden to me, and I'm tired of putting up with them.

¹⁵ So when you stretch out your hands in prayer, I will turn my eyes away from you. Even though you offer many prayers, I will not listen because your hands are covered with blood.

¹⁶ "Wash yourselves! Become clean! Get your evil deeds out of my sight. Stop doing evil.

¹⁷ Learn to do good. Seek justice. Arrest oppressors. Defend orphans. Plead the case of widows."

¹⁸ "Come on now, let's discuss this!" says the LORD. "Though your sins are bright red, they will become as white as snow. Though they are dark red, they will become as white as wool.

¹⁹ If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the best from the land.

²⁰ But if you refuse and rebel, you will be destroyed by swords." The LORD has spoken.

²¹ How the faithful town has become a prostitute! She was full of justice, and righteousness lived in her. But now murderers live there!

²² Your silver is not pure. Your wine is watered down.

²³ Your rulers are rebels, friends with thieves. They all love bribes and run after gifts. They never defend orphans. They don't notice the widows' pleas.

²⁴ That's why the Lord, the LORD of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says, "How horrible it will be when I take revenge on my opponents! I will avenge myself against my enemies.

²⁵ I will turn my power against you. I will remove your impurities with bleach. I will get rid of all your impurities.

²⁶ I will give you judges like you had long ago, advisers like you had in the beginning. After that you will be called the Righteous City, the Faithful Town."

²⁷ Zion will be pardoned by the LORD'S justice, and those who return will be pardoned by the LORD'S righteousness.

²⁸ Rebels and sinners will be crushed at the same time, and those who abandon the LORD will come to an end.

²⁹ You will be ashamed of the oaks that you wanted to worship and embarrassed by the garden that you have chosen for your gods.

³⁰ You will be like an oak whose leaves wither and like a garden without water.

³¹ Strong people will become tinder for a fire, and their work will be the spark. Both of them will burn together, and there will be no one to put out the fire.

2¹ This is the message which Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem.

² In the last days the mountain of the LORD'S house will be established as the highest of the mountains and raised above the hills. All the nations will stream to it.

³ Then many people will come and say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways so that we may live by them." The teachings will go out from Zion. The word of the LORD will go out from Jerusalem.

⁴ Then he will judge disputes between nations and settle arguments between many people. They will hammer their swords into plowblades and their spears into pruning shears. Nations will never fight against each other, and they will never train for war again.

⁵ Come, descendants of Jacob, let's live in the light of the LORD.

⁶ LORD, you have abandoned your people, the descendants of Jacob, because they are filled with Eastern influences. They are fortunetellers like the Philistines, and they make deals with foreigners.

⁷ Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures. Their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

⁸ Their land is filled with idols, and they worship what their hands have shaped and what their fingers have molded.

⁹ People will be brought down. Everyone will be humbled. Do not forgive them.

¹⁰ Go in among the rocks and hide underground because of the LORD'S terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty.

¹¹ The eyes of arrogant people will be humbled. High and mighty people will be brought down. On that day the LORD alone will be honored.

¹² The LORD of Armies will have his day against all who are arrogant and conceited and all who are proud of themselves (they will be humbled),

¹³ against all the towering and mighty cedars of Lebanon and all the oaks of Bashan,

¹⁴ against all the high mountains and all the lofty hills,

¹⁵ against every high tower and every fortified wall,

¹⁶ against all the large ships of Tarshish and all the beautiful boats.

¹⁷ Then arrogant people will be brought down, and high and mighty people will be humbled. On that day the LORD alone will be honored.

¹⁸ Then idols will disappear completely.

¹⁹ People will go into caves in the rocks and into holes in the ground because of the LORD'S terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty when he rises to terrify the earth.

²⁰ On that day people will throw to the moles and the bats the silver and gold idols that they made for themselves to worship.

²¹ They will go into caves in the rocks and into cracks in the cliffs because of the LORD'S terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty when he rises to terrify the earth.

²² Stop trusting people. Their life is in their nostrils. How can they be worth anything?

3¹ See now, the Lord, the LORD of Armies, is going to take from Jerusalem and Judah every kind of support and their entire supply of food and water.

² He will take their heroes and soldiers, judges and prophets, fortunetellers and statesmen, ³ military leaders and civilian leaders, counselors, skilled workers, and experts in magic.

⁴ "I will make boys their leaders. Children will govern them."

⁵ People will oppress each other, and everyone will oppress his neighbor. The young will make fun of the old, and common people will make fun of their superiors.

⁶ A person will grab one of his relatives from his father's family and say, "You have a coat. You'll be our leader. This pile of ruins will be under your control."

⁷ When that day comes the relative will cry out, "I'm not a doctor! I don't have any food or a coat in my home. Don't make me a leader of our family."

⁸ Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because what they say and what they do is against the LORD. They are defiant in his honored presence.

⁹ The look on their faces will be held against them. They boast about their sins, which are like those of the people of Sodom. They don't even bother to hide them. How horrible it will be for these people, because they have brought disaster on themselves.

¹⁰ Tell the righteous that blessings will come to them. They will taste the fruit of their labor.

¹¹ How horrible it will be for the wicked! Disaster will strike them. What they have done will be done to them.

¹² "Children will oppress my people. Women will rule them. My people, your guides mislead you, and you don't know which way to go."

¹³ The LORD takes his place in the courtroom. He stands to judge his people.

¹⁴ The LORD presents his case to the respected leaders and the officials of his people: "You have burned down the vineyard! Your houses are filled with goods stolen from the poor."

¹⁵ The Almighty LORD of Armies asks, "How can you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor into the ground?"

¹⁷ The Lord will cause sores to appear on the heads of the women of Zion, and the LORD will make their foreheads bare.

¹⁸ On that day the Lord will take away their fine things: jingling anklets, headbands, crescent-shaped necklaces,

¹⁹ pendants, bracelets, scarfs,
²⁰ hats, ankle bracelets, blouses, perfume boxes, charms,
²¹ signet rings, nose rings,
²² fine robes, coats, shawls, purses,
²³ mirrors, underwear, headdresses, and veils.

²⁴ Instead of the smell of perfume, there will be the smell of decay. They will wear ropes instead of belts. They will have bald heads instead of beautiful hair. They will wear sackcloth instead of expensive clothes. Their beauty will be scarred.

²⁵ Women, your warriors will die in combat. Your mighty men will die in battle.

²⁶ The gates of Zion will cry and grieve, and Zion will sit on the ground, exhausted.

4 ¹ When that day comes, seven women will grab one man and say,

"We'll eat our own food and provide our own clothes. Just let us marry you for your name. Take away our disgrace."

² When that day comes, the branch of the LORD will be beautiful and wonderful. The fruit of the land will be the pride and joy of Israel's survivors.

³ Then whoever is left in Zion and whoever remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

⁴ The Lord will wash away the filth of Zion's people. He will clean bloodstains from Jerusalem with a spirit of judgment and a spirit of burning.

⁵ The LORD will create a cloud of smoke during the day and a glowing flame of fire during the night over the whole area of Mount Zion and over the assembly. His glory will cover everything.

⁶ It will be a shelter from the heat during the day as well as a refuge and hiding place from storms and rain.

5 ¹ Let me sing a lovesong to my beloved about his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hill.

² He dug it up, removed its stones, planted it with the choicest vines, built a watchtower in it, and made a winepress in it. Then he waited for it to produce good grapes, but it produced only sour, wild grapes.

³ Now then, you inhabitants of Jerusalem and Judah, judge between me and my vineyard!

⁴ What more could have been done for my vineyard than what I have already done for it? When I waited for it to produce good grapes, why did it produce only sour, wild grapes?

⁵ Now then, let me tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will tear away its hedge so that it can be devoured and tear down its wall so that it can be trampled.

⁶ I will make it a wasteland. It will never be pruned or hoed. Thorns and weeds will grow in it, and I will command the clouds not to rain on it.

⁸ How horrible it will be for you who acquire house after house and buy field after field until there's nothing left and you have to live by yourself in the land.

⁹ With my own ears I heard the LORD of Armies say, "Many houses will become empty. Large, beautiful houses will be without people to live in them.

¹⁰ A ten-acre vineyard will produce only six gallons of wine, and two quarts of seed will produce only four quarts of grain."

¹¹ How horrible it will be for those who get up early to look for a drink, who sit up late until they are drunk from wine.

¹³ "My people will go into exile because they don't understand what I'm doing. Honored men will starve, and common people will be parched with thirst."

¹⁴ That is why the grave's appetite increases. It opens its mouth very wide so that honored people and common people will go down into it. Those who are noisy and joyous will go down into it.

¹⁵ People will be brought down. Everyone will be humbled. And the eyes of arrogant people will be humbled.

¹⁶ The LORD of Armies will be honored when he judges. The holy God will show himself to be holy when he does what is right.

¹⁷ Then lambs will graze as if they were in their own pasture, and foreigners will eat among the ruins of the rich.

¹⁸ How horrible it will be for those who string people along with lies and empty promises, whose lives are sinful.

¹⁹ They say, "Let God hurry and quickly do his work so that we may see what he has in mind. Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel happen quickly so that we may understand what he is doing."

²⁰ How horrible it will be for those who call evil good and good evil, who turn darkness into light and light into darkness, who turn what is bitter into something sweet and what is sweet into something bitter.

²¹ How horrible it will be for those who think they are wise and consider themselves to be clever.

²² How horrible it will be for those who are heroes at drinking wine, who are champions at mixing drinks, ²³ who declare the guilty innocent for a bribe, who take away the rights of righteous people.

²⁴ As flames burn up straw and dry grass shrivels in flames, so their roots will rot, and their blossoms will blow away like dust. They have rejected the teachings of the LORD of Armies and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵ That's why the anger of the LORD burns hot against his people, and he is ready to use his power to strike them down. The hills tremble, and dead bodies lie like garbage in the streets. Even after all this, his anger has not disappeared, and he is still ready to use his power.

²⁶ The LORD raises up a flag for the nations far away. With a whistle he signals those at the ends of the earth. Look, they are coming very quickly!

²⁷ None of them grow tired or stumble. None of them slumber or sleep. The belts on their waists aren't loose or their sandal straps broken.

²⁸ Their arrows are sharpened; all their bows are ready to shoot. Their horses' hoofs are as hard as flint. Their chariot wheels are as quick as the wind.

²⁹ They roar like a lioness. They growl like a young lion. They growl as they snatch their prey and carry it off to where no one can rescue it.

³⁰ On that day they will roar over their prey as the sea roars. If they look at the land, they will see only darkness and distress. Even the light will be darkened by thick clouds.

6¹ In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a high and lofty throne. The bottom of his robe filled the temple.

² Angels were standing above him. Each had six wings: With two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

³ They called to each other and said, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Armies! The whole earth is filled with his glory."

⁴ Their voices shook the foundations of the doorposts, and the temple filled with smoke.

⁵ So I said, "Oh, no! I'm doomed. Every word that passes through my lips is sinful. I live among people with sinful lips. I have seen the king, the LORD of Armies!"

⁶ Then one of the angels flew to me. In his hand was a burning coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs.

⁷ He touched my mouth with it and said, "This has touched your lips. Your guilt has been taken away, and your sin has been forgiven."

⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom will I send? Who will go for us?" I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

⁹ And he said, "Go and tell these people, 'No matter how closely you listen, you'll never understand. No matter how closely you look, you'll never see.'

¹⁰ Make these people close-minded. Plug their ears. Shut their eyes.

Otherwise, they may see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their minds, and return and be healed."

¹¹ I asked, "How long, O Lord?" And he replied, "Until the cities lie in ruins with no one living in them, the houses have no people, and the land is completely desolate.

¹² The LORD will send his people far away, and a large area in the middle of the land will be abandoned.

7 ¹ When Ahaz, son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah, Aram's King Rezin and Israel's King Pekah, son of Remaliah, went to Jerusalem to attack it, but they couldn't defeat it.

² When word reached David's family that the Arameans had made an alliance with Ephraim, the hearts of the king and his people were shaken as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

³ Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out with your son Shear Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the ditch of the Upper Pool on the road to the Laundryman's Field.

⁴ Say to him, 'Be careful, stay calm, and don't be afraid. Don't lose heart because of the fierce anger of Rezin from Aram and Remaliah's son. These two are smoldering logs.'

⁵ Aram, Ephraim, and Remaliah's son have planned evil against you, saying,

⁶ 'Let's march against Judah, tear it apart, divide it among ourselves, and set up Tabeel's son as its king.'

⁷ This is what the Almighty LORD says: It won't take place; it won't happen.

⁸ The capital of Aram is Damascus, and the leader of Damascus is Rezin. Ephraim will be shattered within 65 years so that it will no longer be a nation.

⁹ The capital of Ephraim is Samaria, and the leader of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

If you don't remain faithful, you won't remain standing.

¹⁰ Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz,

¹¹ "Ask the LORD your God for a sign. It can be anything you want."

¹² But Ahaz answered, "I won't ask; I wouldn't think of testing the LORD."

¹³ "Listen now, descendants of David," Isaiah said. "Isn't it enough that you try the patience of mortals? Must you also try the patience of my God?"

¹⁴ So the Lord himself will give you this sign: A virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and she will name him Immanuel [God Is With Us].

¹⁵ He will eat cheese and honey until he knows how to reject evil and choose good.

¹⁶ Indeed, before the boy knows how to reject evil and choose good, the land of the two kings who terrify you will be deserted.

¹⁷ "The LORD will bring on you, your people, and your ancestor's family a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah. He will bring the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ All of them will come and settle in the deep valleys, in the cracks in the cliffs, on all the thornbushes, and at all the water holes.

²⁰ "On that day the Lord will hire the king of Assyria from beyond the Euphrates River to be a razor to shave the hair on your head, the hair on your legs, and even your beard.

²¹ On that day a person will keep alive a young cow and two sheep.

²² That person will eat cheese, because they will produce so much milk.

Everyone who is left in the land will eat cheese and honey.

²³ On that day, in every place where there were 1,000 vines (worth 1,000 pieces of silver), there will be briars and thorns.

²⁴ People will come there with bows and arrows to hunt because the whole land will be filled with briars and thorns.

²⁵ And you will no longer be able to go to all the hills which used to be cultivated because they will be filled with briars and thorns. It will be a place for turning oxen loose and letting sheep run."

8 ¹ The LORD said to me, "Take a large writing tablet, and write on it with a pen: 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz' [The Looting Will Come Quickly; the Prey Will Be Easy].

² I will have these dependable witnesses testify: the priest Uriah and Zechariah (son of Jeberechiah)."

³ I slept with the prophet. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. The LORD told me, "Name him Maher Shalal Hash Baz.

⁴ Before the boy knows how to say 'Daddy' or 'Mommy,' the wealth of Damascus and the loot from Samaria will be carried away to the king of Assyria."

⁵ The LORD spoke to me again. He said,

⁶ "These people have rejected the gently flowing water of Shiloah and find joy in Rezin and Remaliah's son."

⁷ That is why the Lord is going to bring against them the raging and powerful floodwaters of the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria with all his power. It will overflow all its channels and go over all its banks.

⁸ It will sweep through Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will be neck-high. Its outspread wings will extend over your whole country, O Immanuel.

⁹ Be broken, you people. Be terrified. Listen, all you distant parts of the earth. Prepare for battle, but be terrified. Prepare for battle, but be terrified.

¹⁰ Make plans for battle, but they will never succeed. Give orders, but they won't be carried out, because God is with us!

¹¹ This is what the LORD said with his powerful hand on me. He warned me not to follow the ways of these people:

¹² "Don't say that everything these people call a conspiracy is a conspiracy. Don't fear what they fear. Don't let it terrify you."

¹³ Remember that the LORD of Armies is holy. He is the one you should fear and the one you should be terrified of.

¹⁴ He will be a place of safety for you. But he will be a rock that makes people trip and a stumbling block for both kingdoms of Israel. He will be a trap and a snare for those who live in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Many will stumble. They will fall and be broken. They will be trapped and caught.

¹⁶ Tie up the written instructions. Seal the teachings among my disciples.

¹⁷ I will wait for the LORD, who hides his face from the descendants of Jacob. I will hope in him.

¹⁸ I am here with the children that the LORD has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD of Armies, who lives on Mount Zion.

¹⁹ People will say to you, "Ask for help from the mediums and the fortunetellers, who whisper and mutter." Shouldn't people ask their God for help instead? Why should they ask the dead to help the living?

²⁰ They should go to the teachings and to the written instructions. If people don't speak these words, it is because it doesn't dawn on them.

²¹ They will pass through the land when they are hard-pressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will be furious. Then they will look up, cursing their king and God.

²² They will look at the earth and see only distress and gloom. They will go in anguish and be forced into darkness.

9¹ But there will be no more gloom for the land that is in distress. God humbled the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali in earlier times. But in the future he will bring glory to the road by the sea, to the land across the Jordan River, to Galilee, where foreigners live.

² The people who walk in darkness will see a bright light. The light will shine on those who live in the land of death's shadow.

³ You will expand the nation and increase its happiness. It will be happy in your presence like those who celebrate the harvest or rejoice when dividing loot.

⁵ Every warrior's boot marching to the sound of battle and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel in the fire.

⁶ A child will be born for us. A son will be given to us. The government will rest on his shoulders. He will be named: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷ His government and peace will have unlimited growth. He will establish David's throne and kingdom. He will uphold it with justice and righteousness now and forever. The LORD of Armies is determined to do this!

⁸ The LORD sent a message against Jacob. The message is against Israel.

⁹ All the people of Ephraim and the people who live in Samaria will know it. With arrogant and conceited hearts they will say,

¹⁰ "Bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with hand-cut stones. Fig trees have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."

¹¹ The LORD will set Rezin's oppressors against Israel and will stir up its enemies—

¹² the Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west. They will devour Israel with open mouths. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

¹³ But the people have not returned to the one who struck them, nor have they sought the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴ So in one day the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branches and cattails.

¹⁵ Respected and honored leaders are the head. Prophets who teach lies are the tail.

¹⁶ Those who guide these people lead them astray. Those who are guided by them will be destroyed.

¹⁷ That is why the Lord isn't happy with their young men, nor will he show compassion for their orphans and widows. Every one of them is a godless evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolishness. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

¹⁸ Surely wickedness burns like fire. It burns up briars and thorns. It sets the underbrush in the forest on fire, and it whirls upward in clouds of smoke.

¹⁹ The land is scorched by the fury of the LORD of Armies, and the people are like fuel for the fire. No one shows concern for others:

²⁰ On the right, one gobbles up food and is still hungry. On the left, another eats and is never full. Each person eats the flesh from his own arm.

²¹ Manasseh is against Ephraim. Ephraim is against Manasseh. Together they attack Judah. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

10 ¹ How horrible it will be for those who make unjust laws and who make oppressive regulations.

² They deprive the poor of justice. They take away the rights of the needy among my people. They prey on widows and rob orphans.

³ What will you do on the day you are called to account for these things, when the disaster comes from far away? Where will you run for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

⁴ Nothing's left but to crouch among prisoners and to fall with those who are killed. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

⁵ "How horrible it will be for Assyria! It is the rod of my anger. My fury is the staff in the Assyrians' hands.

⁶ I send them against a godless nation. In my fury I order them against the people to take their belongings, loot them, and trample on them like mud in the streets.

⁷ But that's not what they intend to do. Their minds don't work that way. Their purpose is to destroy and put an end to many nations.

⁸ They ask, 'Aren't all our commanders kings?

⁹ Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?'

¹⁰ My power has reached kingdoms which have idols. They had more carved statues than Jerusalem or Samaria.

¹¹ I will do to Jerusalem and its idols what I've done to Samaria and its idols."

¹² When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will punish the king of Assyria for all his boasting and all his arrogance.

¹³ The king will say, "I did this with my own two powerful hands. I did this with my wisdom, because I am so clever. I've eliminated the boundaries of nations. I've looted treasuries. I've brought down people like a mighty man.

¹⁴ I've found the riches of nations as one finds a nest. I've gathered the whole world as one gathers abandoned eggs. Not one of them flapped a wing, opened its mouth, or peeped."

¹⁵ Can an ax attack the person who cuts with it? Can a saw make itself greater than the person who saws with it? A rod cannot move the person who lifts it. A wooden stick cannot pick up a person.

¹⁶ That is why the Almighty LORD of Armies will send a degenerative disease against brave men. A flame will be turned into a raging fire under his power.

¹⁷ Israel's light will become a flame. Its Holy One will become a fire. He will burn up and devour the weeds and thornbushes in one day.

¹⁸ The majestic forest and the orchard will destroy both body and soul. They will be like a sick person wasting away.

¹⁹ The trees that remain in the forest will be so few that a child could count them.

²⁰ At that time the remaining few Israelites, the survivors of Jacob's descendants will no longer depend on the one who struck them. They will only depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹ A few, the remaining few of Jacob, will return to the mighty God.

²² Although your people Israel may be as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, only a few will return. Destruction will be complete and fair.

²³ The Almighty LORD of Armies will carry out this destruction throughout the world as he has determined.

²⁵ Very soon I will unleash my fury, and my anger will destroy them.

²⁶ Then the LORD of Armies will raise his whip against them. As he struck down Midian at the Rock of Oreb and raised his staff over the water, so he will lift it as he did in Egypt.

²⁷ At that time their burden will be removed from your shoulders. Their yoke will be removed from your neck. The yoke will be torn away because you have grown fat.

²⁸ They come to Aiath. They pass through Migron. They store their equipment at Michmash.

²⁹ They go through the mountain pass and lodge at Geba for the night. The people in Ramah tremble; the people in Saul's Gibeah flee.

³⁰ Cry aloud, you people in Gallim! Pay attention, you people in Laishah and miserable Anathoth!

³¹ The people in Madmenah flee; those who live in Gebim take shelter.

³² This day they stopped at Nob. They shake their fist at the mountain of my people Zion, at the mountain of Jerusalem.

³³ Now look! The Almighty LORD of Armies will trim the branches with terrifying power. The highest trees will be cut down. The tallest ones will be brought down.

³⁴ He will cut down the underbrush of the forest with an ax. Lebanon will fall in front of the Mighty One.

11 ¹ Then a shoot will come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from its roots will bear fruit.

² The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of advice and power, the Spirit of knowledge and fear of the LORD.

³ He will gladly bear the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear.

⁴ He will judge the poor justly. He will make fair decisions for the humble people on earth. He will strike the earth with a rod from his mouth. He will kill the wicked with the breath from his lips.

⁵ Justice will be the belt around his waist. Faithfulness will be the belt around his hips.

⁶ Wolves will live with lambs. Leopards will lie down with goats. Calves, young lions, and year-old lambs will be together, and little children will lead them.

⁷ Cows and bears will eat together. Their young will lie down together. Lions will eat straw like oxen.

⁸ Infants will play near cobras' holes. Toddlers will put their hands into vipers' nests.

¹² He will raise a banner for the nations to gather around. He will gather the outcasts of Israel and bring together the scattered people of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

¹³ Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's opponents will come to an end. Ephraim won't be jealous of Judah, and Judah won't oppose Ephraim.

¹⁴ They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia in the west. Together they will loot the people of the east. They will conquer Edom and Moab. The people of Ammon will be subject to them.

¹⁶ There will be a highway for the remaining few of his people left in Assyria like there was for Israel when it came out of Egypt.

12 ¹ At that time you will say, "I will praise you, O LORD. Although you had been angry with me, you turned your anger away from me, and you comforted me.

² Look! God is my Savior. I am confident and unafraid, because the LORD is my strength and my song. He is my Savior."

³ With joy you will draw water from the springs of salvation.

⁴ At that time you will say, "Praise the LORD. Call on his name. Make his deeds known among the nations. Make them remember that his name is highly honored.

⁵ Make music to praise the LORD. He has done wonderful things. Let this be known throughout the earth.

⁶ Shout loudly, and sing with joy, people of Zion! The Holy One of Israel is great. He is among you."

13 ¹ This is the divine revelation which Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw about Babylon.

² Raise a banner on the bare mountaintop. Call loudly to them. Signal them with your hand to enter the nobles' gates.

³ I've commanded my holy ones. I've called my mighty men to carry out my anger. They find joy in my triumphs.

⁴ Listen to the noise on the mountains. It is like the sound of a large army. It is the sound of kingdoms and nations gathering together. The LORD of Armies is assembling his army for battle.

⁵ His army is coming from a distant land, from the ends of heaven. The LORD is coming with the weapons of his fury to destroy the whole world.

⁶ Cry loudly, for the day of the LORD is near. It will come like destruction from the Almighty.

⁷ That is why every hand will hang limp, and everyone's courage will fail.

⁸ They'll be terrified. Pain and anguish will seize them. They'll writhe like a woman giving birth to a child. They'll look at one another in astonishment.

Their faces will be burning red.

⁹ The day of the LORD is going to come.
It will be a cruel day with fury and fierce anger. He will make the earth desolate.
He will destroy its sinners.

¹⁰ The stars in the sky and their constellations won't show their light anymore. The sun will be dark when it rises. The moon won't shine.

¹¹ I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their wrongdoing. I will put an end to arrogant people and humble the pride of tyrants.

¹² I will make people harder to find than pure gold and human beings more rare than gold from Ophir.

¹³ I will make heaven tremble, and the earth will be shaken from its place when the LORD of Armies is angry. At that time he will be very angry.

¹⁴ They'll be like hunted gazelle and like sheep with no one to gather them. Everyone will return to his own people and flee to his own land.

¹⁵ Whoever is found will be stabbed to death. Whoever is captured will be executed.

¹⁶ Their little children will be smashed to death right before their eyes. Their houses will be looted and their wives raped.

¹⁷ I'm going to stir up the Medes against them. They don't care for silver and aren't happy with gold.

¹⁸ But their bows will smash the youth. They'll have no compassion for babies, nor will they look with pity on children.

¹⁹ Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms, the proud beauty of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God destroyed them.

²⁰ It will never be inhabited again, and no one will live in it for generations. Arabs won't pitch their tents there. Shepherds won't let their flocks rest there.

²¹ Desert animals will lie down there. Their homes will be full of owls. Ostriches will live there, and wild goats will skip about.

²² Hyenas will howl in Babylon's strongholds, and jackals will howl in its luxurious palaces. Its time has almost come. Its days will not be extended.

14 ¹ The LORD will have compassion for Jacob and again choose Israel. He will resettle them in their own country. Foreigners will join them and unite with the descendants of Jacob.

² People will take them and bring them to their own place. The nation of Israel will possess nations as male and female slaves in the LORD'S land. They will take their captors captive and rule their oppressors.

³ When that day comes, the LORD will give you relief from your pain and suffering, from the hard slavery you were forced to do.

⁴ Then you will mock the king of Babylon with this saying, "How the tyrant has come to an end! How his attacks have come to an end!"

⁵ The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers.

⁶ They struck the people with fury, with blows that didn't stop. They ruled nations in anger, persecuting them without restraint.

⁷ The whole earth rests and is peaceful. It breaks out into shouts of joy.

⁸ Even the cypresses rejoice over you. The cedars of Lebanon say, "Since you have fallen, no lumberjack has come to attack us."

⁹ Sheol below wakes up to meet you when you come. It wakes up the ghosts of the dead, all who were leaders on earth. It raises all who were kings of the nations from their thrones.

¹⁰ All of them will greet you, "You also have become weak like us! You have become like one of us!"

¹¹ Your pride has been brought down to Sheol along with the music of your harps. Maggots are spread out like a bed under you, and worms cover you.

¹² How you have fallen from heaven, you morning star, son of the dawn! How you have been cut down to the ground, you conqueror of nations!

¹³ You thought, "I'll go up to heaven and set up my throne above God's stars. I'll sit on the mountain far away in the north where the gods assemble.

¹⁴ I'll go above the top of the clouds. I'll be like the Most High."

¹⁵ But you've been brought down to Sheol, to the deepest part of the pit.

¹⁶ Those who see you stare at you; they look at you closely and say, "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook the kingdoms, ¹⁷ who made the world like a desert and tore down its cities, who didn't let his prisoners go home?"

¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, all of them, have been buried with honor, each in his own tomb.

²⁰ You won't be joined by the kings in the tomb, because you have destroyed your land and killed your people. The descendants of the wicked will never be mentioned again.

²¹ Prepare a place to slaughter their sons because of their ancestors' guilt. They won't be able to rise, possess the earth, and rebuild cities all over it.

²² "I'll rise up against them," declares the LORD of Armies. "I'll cut off the name of the survivors from Babylon, its offspring and descendants," declares the LORD.

²⁴ The LORD of Armies has taken an oath: "It will happen exactly as I've intended. It will turn out exactly as I've planned.

²⁵ I'll crush Assyria on my land. I'll trample it underfoot on my mountains. Then its yoke will be removed from my people, and its burden will be removed from their shoulders."

²⁶ This is the plan determined for the whole earth. This is how he will use his power against all the nations.

²⁷ The LORD of Armies has planned it. Who can stop it? He is ready to use his power. Who can turn it back?

²⁸ This was the divine revelation in the year King Ahaz died.

²⁹ All you Philistines, don't rejoice that the rod of the one who struck you is broken, because a viper will come from that snake's root, and his descendant will be a flying, fiery serpent.

³⁰ The poorest of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety. But I will put your root to death with famine and kill off your survivors.

³¹ Cry loudly in the gate! Cry out in the city! Be frightened, all you Philistines! Smoke comes from the north, and there are no stragglers in its ranks.

15 ¹ This is the divine revelation about Moab. In a single night Ar in Moab is laid waste and destroyed! In a single night Kir in Moab is laid waste and destroyed!

² The people of Dibon go to the temple, to the worship sites, to cry. Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba. Every head is shaved bald, and every beard is cut off.

³ In their streets they wear sackcloth. On their roofs and in their city squares everyone wails and cries.

⁴ Heshbon and Elealeh also cry out. Their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz. Moab's armed men cry out. Their courage is gone.

⁵ My heart cries out for Moab. Its people flee as far as Zoar at Eglath Shelishiyah. They go up the mountain road to Luhith. They cry loudly over the destruction on the way to Horonaim.

⁶ The Nimrim Brook has run dry! The grass dries up, the vegetation withers, and nothing green is left.

⁷ That is why they carry the wealth that they have earned and stored up over Willow Ravine.

⁸ Cries for help echo throughout the land of Moab. Their wailing echoes as far as Eglaim. Their wailing echoes as far as Beer Elim.

⁹ The water in Dimon is red with blood, yet I will bring even more on Dimon. A lion will attack the fugitives from Moab and the survivors from Adamah.

16 ¹ Send lambs to the ruler of the land. Send lambs from Sela through the desert to my people at Mount Zion.

² Moab's daughters are like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings, at the shallow crossings of the Arnon River.

³ Give us advice. Make a decision. At high noon make your shadow as dark as night. Hide the fugitives. Don't betray the refugees.

⁴ Let the fugitives from Moab stay with you a while. Be their refuge from the destroyer. Ruthless people will come to an end. The destruction will end. The one who tramples others will be gone.

⁶ We've heard of the arrogance of Moab's people. They are very arrogant. We've heard of their boasting, arrogance, and conceit, but their boasts aren't true.

⁷ That is why Moab will wail. Everyone will wail for Moab. Mourn and grieve over the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

⁸ The fields of Heshbon and the vineyards of Sibmah wither. Rulers of the nations have cut off their grapes. The grapevines once reached as far as Jazer and strayed out into the desert. Their shoots had spread out over the sea.

⁹ I will cry for the grapevines of Sibmah as Jazer cries for them. I will drench you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh. The shouts of joy for your ripened fruits and your harvest will be silenced.

¹⁰ Joy and delight have vanished from the orchards. No songs are sung. No shouts are raised. No one stomps on grapes in the winepresses, because I have put an end to the shouts of joy.

¹¹ That is why my heart mourns for Moab like a harp. My soul mourns for Kir Hareseth.

¹³ This is the message that the LORD spoke about Moab in the past.

¹⁴ But now the LORD says, "Moab's honor will be despised within three years. I will count them like workers count the years left of their contracts. In spite of their great number, the survivors will be very few and powerless."

17 ¹ This is the divine revelation about Damascus. "Damascus will no longer be a city. It will become a pile of rubble.

² The cities of Aroer will be deserted. These cities will be used for sheep, which will lie down in them. There will be no one to disturb those sheep.

³ Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom will disappear from Damascus. The remaining few from Aram will share Israel's honor," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁴ "When that day comes, the honor of Jacob's people will fade away, and they will become skin and bones.

⁵ That time will be like harvesting bundles of grain by the armful. It will be like gathering grain in the Rephaim Valley.

⁶ Only a few people will survive. They will be like an olive tree that has been beaten. Only two or three olives are left at the top of the highest branch, four or five olives on the rest of the branches," declares the LORD God of Israel.

⁷ When that day comes, they will look to their maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

⁸ They won't look to the altars made by their hands or to the Asherah poles or incense altars which their fingers molded.

⁹ When that day comes, the fortified cities which other people abandoned because of the Israelites will be like abandoned woods and undergrowth. So it will become a wasteland.

¹⁰ You have forgotten the God of your salvation. You haven't remembered the rock, your stronghold. Instead, you have planted the best plants and have set out the imported grapevines.

¹¹ On the day you plant, you will make it grow. On the morning you set out the seedling, you will make it sprout. But the harvest will become a rotting pile on a day of grief and incurable pain.

¹² How horrible it will be for many people! They will roar like the roaring sea. The noise that the people make will be like the noise from rushing water.

¹³ The people will make noise like raging water. But the LORD will yell at them, and they will run far away. They will be chased away like husks on the mountains being blown by the wind, like whirling dust being blown by a storm.

¹⁴ In the evening there will be sudden terror. Before morning they will be gone. This will be the fate of those who looted us, the destiny of those who robbed us.

18 ¹ How horrible it will be for the land of whirring wings which lies beyond the rivers of Sudan.

² It sends messengers by sea in boats made of reeds skimming over the surface of the water. Go, swift messengers, to a tall and smooth-skinned people, a people who are feared far and near, a strong and aggressive nation, whose land is divided by rivers.

³ Look when someone raises a flag on the mountains. Listen when someone blows a ram's horn, all you inhabitants of the world who live on the earth.

⁵ Before the harvest, when blossoms are gone and grapes are ripening from blossoms, he will cut off the shoots with pruning shears and chop off the spreading branches.

⁷ At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of Armies from a tall and smooth-skinned people, a people who are feared far and near, a strong and aggressive nation, whose land is divided by rivers. They will be brought to Mount Zion, the place where the name of the LORD of Armies is.

19 ¹ This is the divine revelation about Egypt. The LORD is riding on a fast-moving cloud and is coming to Egypt. Egypt's idols will tremble in his presence. Egypt's courage will fail.

² "I will turn one Egyptian against another. They will fight— brother against brother, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

³ The Egyptians will lose courage. I will unravel their plans. They will turn to idols, ghosts, mediums, and fortunetellers.

⁴ I will hand over the Egyptians to a harsh master. A strong king will rule them," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies.

⁵ The water in the Nile River will be dried up, and the river will be dry and empty.

⁶ The canals will stink. Egypt's streams will be emptied and dried up. The reeds and cattails will wither.

⁷ The rushes by the Nile, by the edge of the Nile, and all the fields planted beside the Nile will dry up, be blown away, and disappear.

⁸ Fishermen will cry. All who cast their lines into the Nile will mourn. Those who spread their nets on the water will sigh.

⁹ Linenworkers and weavers will be ashamed.

¹⁰ Egypt's weavers will be crushed. Those who work for money will be distressed.

¹¹ The leaders of Zoan are nothing but fools. The wisest of Pharaoh's counselors gives stupid advice. How can you tell Pharaoh, "I'm a descendant of wise men, a descendant of ancient kings"?

¹² Where are your wise men now? Let them tell you. Let them explain what the LORD of Armies is planning against Egypt.

¹⁴ The LORD mixes up their minds. So they lead the Egyptians astray like a drunk who staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵ No one—leaders or followers, important or unimportant— can do anything for Egypt.

¹⁶ At that time Egyptians will act like women. They will tremble and be terrified because the LORD of Armies will shake his fist at them.

¹⁷ The land of Judah will terrify the Egyptians. Whenever they are reminded of Judah, they will be terrified of it because of what the LORD of Armies is planning against it.

¹⁸ When that day comes, five cities in Egypt will have people that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of Armies. One of the cities will be called Heliopolis.

¹⁹ When that day comes, an altar for the LORD will be in the middle of Egypt, and a stone marker for the LORD will be near its border.

²⁰ These objects will be a sign and a witness that the LORD of Armies is in Egypt. When the people cry to the LORD because of those who oppress them, he will send a savior and defender to rescue them.

²¹ So the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians. The Egyptians will know the LORD when that day comes. They will worship with sacrifices and food offerings. They will make vows to the LORD and carry them out.

²² The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague. When he strikes them, he will also heal them. Then they will come back to the LORD. And he will respond to their prayers and heal them.

²³ When that day comes, a highway will run from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will come to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

²⁴ When that day comes, Israel will be one-third of God's people, along with Egypt and Assyria. They will be a blessing on the earth.

²⁵ The LORD of Armies will bless them, saying, "My people Egypt, the work of my hands Assyria, and my possession Israel are blessed."

20 ¹ In the year when King Sargon of Assyria sent his commander-in-chief to fight against Ashdod, he captured it.

² At that time the LORD told Isaiah, son of Amoz, "Take off the sackcloth that you are wearing, and take off your sandals!" Isaiah did this and walked around barefoot and naked.

³ Then the LORD said, "My servant Isaiah has gone barefoot and naked for three years as a sign and as an omen to Egypt and Sudan.

⁴ The king of Assyria will lead away both the young and the old—captives from Egypt and exiles from Sudan. They will be barefoot and naked. Their buttocks will be exposed in order to disgrace Egypt.

⁶ When that day comes, those who live on this coastland will say, ‘Look at what has happened to our hope. We ran to Egypt for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria. How can we escape?’”

21 ¹ This is the divine revelation about the desert by the sea. Like a storm sweeping through the Negev, an invader will come from the desert, from a terrifying land.

² I was shown a harsh vision. The traitor betrays. The destroyer destroys. Go to war, Elam! Surround them, Media! I will put an end to all the groaning.

³ That is why my body is full of trembling. Pain grips me like the pain of childbirth. I’m disturbed by what I hear. I’m terrified by what I see.

⁴ I'm confused. I'm shaking with terror.
The twilight hours I longed for make me tremble.

⁵ Set the table. Spread the rugs by the table. Eat. Drink. Get up, you leaders!
Prepare your shields for battle!

⁶ This is what the Lord says to me: Post a watchman. Have him report whatever he sees.

⁷ He will see chariots, pairs of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels. Let him watch carefully, very carefully.

⁸ The watchman called, "Sir, I stand on the watchtower every day. Every night, I stand guard at my post.

⁹ Look! Here come chariots and horsemen in pairs." Then he said, "Babylon has fallen! It has fallen! All the idols they worship lie shattered on the ground."

¹⁰ You, my people, have been threshed and winnowed. I make known to you what I heard from the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel.

¹¹ This is the divine revelation about Dumah. Someone is calling to me from Seir, "Watchman, how much of the night is left? Watchman, how much of the night is left?"

¹² The watchman answers, "Morning is coming, and night will come again. If you need to ask, come back and ask."

¹³ This is the divine revelation about Arabia. You caravan of travelers from the people of Dedan will spend the night in the forest of Arabia.

¹⁴ Bring water for the thirsty, you inhabitants of the land of Tema. Bring food to the fugitives.

¹⁵ They flee from swords, from swords ready to kill, from bows ready to shoot, and from the thick of battle.

¹⁶ This is what the Lord says to me: All of Kedar's honor will be gone in another year. I will count it like workers count the years left on their contracts.

¹⁷ The remaining number of archers, Kedar's mighty archers, will be few. The LORD God of Israel has spoken.

22 ¹ This is the divine revelation about the valley of Vision. What's the matter with you? Why do all of you go up on the roofs?

² You are a city filled with shouting, a town filled with noise and excitement. Your people weren't killed with swords. Your dead didn't die in battle.

³ All your leaders fled together and were captured without their bows and arrows. All those who were found were taken prisoner before any of them could get far away.

⁴ That is why I say, "Turn away from me so that I can cry bitterly. Don't try to comfort me because of the destruction brought on my people."

⁵ The Almighty LORD of Armies has chosen a special day. It will be a day of confusion and trampling in the valley of Vision, a day of tearing down walls and crying for help in the mountains.

⁶ Elam takes its quiver of arrows, manned chariots, and horsemen. Kir uncovers its shields.

⁷ Then your fertile valleys will be filled with chariots, and horsemen will stand ready in front of the gate.

⁸ On that day the LORD will remove the defenses of Judah. You will look for weapons in the House of the Forest.

⁹ You will see how many places in David's wall are broken. You will store water in the Lower Pool.

¹⁰ You will count the houses in Jerusalem. You will tear down those houses in order to fortify the walls.

¹¹ You will build a reservoir between the two walls to hold the water of the Old Pool. You didn't look to Jerusalem's maker. You didn't see the one who formed it long ago.

¹² On that day the Almighty LORD of Armies will call for crying and for mourning, for shaving your heads and for wearing sackcloth.

¹³ Instead, you will rejoice, celebrate, slaughter cattle, and butcher sheep. You will eat meat, drink wine, and say, "Let's eat and drink because tomorrow we're going to die."

¹⁴ The LORD of Armies revealed this to me: "Certainly, this wrong will not be forgiven even when you die," says the Almighty LORD of Armies.

¹⁵ This is what the Almighty LORD of Armies says: Go to Shebna, the man in charge of the palace, and say to him, ¹⁶ "What are you doing here? What right do you have to dig a tomb for yourself? What right do you have to cut it out in a prominent place? What right do you have to carve out a resting place for yourself in the rock?

¹⁷ Look, mighty man! The LORD will throw you out. He will grab you.

¹⁸ He will wrap you up tightly like a turban. He will throw you far away into another land. There you will die. There your splendid chariots will remain. There you will become a disgrace to your master's household.

¹⁹ "I will remove you from your office and do away with your position.

²⁰ When that day comes, I will call my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah.

²¹ I will dress him in your linen robe and fasten it with your belt. I will give him your authority, and he will be like a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the nation of Judah.

²² I will place the key of the house of David around his neck. What he opens no one will shut. What he shuts no one will open.

²³ I will fasten him firmly in place like a peg, and he will be a source of honor for his father's household.

²⁴ They will hang on him the whole weight of his father's household, descendants and offspring and all the little utensils, from bowls to jars of every kind."

²⁵ The LORD of Armies declares, "On that day the peg which I firmly fastened in place will be removed. It will be cut off and will fall, and everything hanging on it will be destroyed." The LORD has spoken.

23 ¹ This is the divine revelation about Tyre. Cry loudly, you ships of Tarshish! Your port at Tyre is destroyed. Word has come to the ships from Cyprus.

² Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland, you merchants from Sidon. Your messengers have crossed the sea.

³ The grain of Shihor is on the Mediterranean. The harvest of the Nile River is brought to Tyre. Tyre became the marketplace for the nations.

⁴ Be ashamed, Sidon, because the stronghold by the sea has spoken, "I've never been in labor or given birth. I've raised no sons. I've brought up no daughters."

⁵ When the news reaches Egypt, the Egyptians will shudder over the news about Tyre.

⁶ Travel to Tarshish! Cry loudly, you inhabitants of the seacoast!

⁷ Is this your bustling city founded in the distant past? Is this the city that sent its people to settle in distant lands?

⁸ Who planned such a thing against Tyre, the city that produced kings? Its merchants are princes. Its traders are among the honored people of the world.

⁹ The LORD of Armies planned this in order to dishonor all arrogant people and to humiliate all the honored people of the world.

¹⁰ Travel through your country like the Nile, people of Tarshish. You no longer have a harbor.

¹¹ The LORD has stretched his hand over the sea to shake kingdoms. He has commanded that Canaan's fortifications be destroyed.

¹² He says, "You will no longer be joyful, my dear abused people Sidon." Get up, and travel to Cyprus. Even there you will find no rest.

¹⁴ Cry loudly, you ships of Tarshish, because your fortress will be destroyed.

¹⁵ When that day comes, Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years, the lifetime of one king. At the end of the 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute in this song:

¹⁶ "Take your lyre. Go around in the city, you forgotten prostitute. Make sweet music. Sing many songs so that you'll be remembered."

¹⁸ Her profits and her earnings will be turned over to the LORD for his holy purpose. It won't be stored or hoarded. Her merchandise will belong to those who live in the presence of the LORD so that they will have plenty of food and expensive clothing.

24 ¹ The LORD is going to turn the earth into a desolate wasteland. He will mar the face of the earth and scatter the people living on it.

² The same will happen to people and priests, male slaves and masters, female slaves and masters, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, debtors and creditors.

³ The earth will be completely laid waste and stripped because the LORD has spoken.

⁴ The earth dries up and withers. The world wastes away and withers. The great leaders of the earth waste away.

⁵ The earth is polluted by those who live on it because they've disobeyed the LORD'S teachings, violated his laws, and rejected the everlasting promise.

⁶ That is why a curse devours the earth, and its people are punished for their guilt. That is why those who live on the earth are burned up, and only a few people are left.

⁷ New wine dries up, and grapevines waste away. All happy people groan.

⁸ Joyful tambourine music stops. Noisy celebrations cease. Joyful harp music stops.

⁹ People no longer drink wine when they sing. Liquor tastes bad to its drinkers.

¹⁰ The ruined city lies desolate. The entrance to every house is barred shut.

¹¹ People in the streets call for wine. All joy passes away, and the earth's happiness is banished.

¹² The city is left in ruins. Its gate is battered to pieces.

¹³ That is the way it will be on earth among the nations. They will be like an olive tree which has been shaken or like what's left after the grape harvest.

¹⁴ They raise their voices. They shout for joy. From the sea they sing joyfully about the LORD'S majesty.

¹⁵ Honor the LORD in the east. Honor the name of the LORD God of Israel along the coastlands.

¹⁶ From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise that honor the Righteous One. But I kept saying, "I'm wasting away! I'm wasting away! How horrible it is for me! Traitors continue to betray, and their treachery grows worse and worse."

¹⁷ Disasters, pits, and traps are in store for those who live on earth.

¹⁸ Whoever flees from news of a disaster will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of that pit will be caught in a trap. The floodgates in the sky will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake.

¹⁹ The earth will be completely broken. The earth will shake back and forth violently. The earth will stagger.

²⁰ The earth will stumble like a drunk and sway like a shack in the wind. Its disobedience weighs heavy on it. It will fall and not get up again.

²¹ On that day the LORD will punish heaven's armies in heaven and earth's kings on earth.

²² They'll be gathered like prisoners in a jail and locked in prison. After a long time they'll be punished.

²³ The moon will be embarrassed. The sun will be ashamed, because the LORD of Armies will rule on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem. He will be glorious in the presence of his respected leaders.

25 ¹ O LORD, you are my God. I will highly honor you; I will praise your name. You have done miraculous things. You have been completely reliable in carrying out your plans from long ago.

² You have turned cities into ruins, fortified cities into piles of rubble, and foreigners' palaces into cities that will never be rebuilt.

³ That is why strong people will honor you, and cities ruled by the world's tyrants will fear you.

⁴ You have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rain, and shade from the heat. (A tyrant's breath is like a rainstorm against a wall, ⁵ like heat in a dry land.) You calm the uproar of foreigners. The song of tyrants is silenced like heat that is reduced by the shadow of a cloud.

⁶ On this mountain the LORD of Armies will prepare for all people a feast with the best foods, a banquet with aged wines, with the best foods and the finest wines.

⁷ On this mountain he will remove the veil of grief covering all people and the mask covering all nations.

⁸ He will swallow up death forever. The Almighty LORD will wipe away tears from every face, and he will remove the disgrace of his people from the whole earth. The LORD has spoken.

⁹ On that day his people will say, "This is our God; we have waited for him, and now he will save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him. Let us rejoice and be glad because he will save us."

¹⁰ The LORD'S power will be on this mountain. Moab will be trampled beneath him like straw that is trampled in a pile of manure.

¹¹ The Moabites will stretch out their hands in the manure like swimmers who stretch out their hands to swim. The LORD will humble those arrogant people despite the movements of their hands.

¹² He will bring down Moab's high fortified walls, level them, and throw them into the dust on the ground.

26 ¹ On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city. Its walls and fortifications provide safety.

² Open the gates, and let the righteous nation come in, the nation that remains faithful.

³ With perfect peace you will protect those whose minds cannot be changed, because they trust you.

⁴ Trust the LORD always, because the LORD, the LORD alone, is an everlasting rock.

⁵ He has brought down those who live high in the towering city. He levels it. He levels it to the ground and throws it into the dust.

⁶ Feet trample it, the feet of the oppressed, the footsteps of the poor.

⁷ The path of the righteous is level. O Upright One, you make the road of the righteous smooth.

⁸ Certainly, we wait with hope for you, O LORD, as we follow the path of your guiding principles. We want to remember you and your name.

⁹ With my soul I long for you at night. Yes, with my spirit I eagerly look for you. When your guiding principles are on earth, those who live in the world learn to do what is right.

¹⁰ Although the wicked are shown pity, they do not learn to do what is right. They do what is wrong in the upright land and do not see the majesty of the LORD.

¹¹ O LORD, your power is visible, but they do not see it. They will see how devoted your people are, and they will be put to shame. Your burning anger will destroy your enemies.

¹³ O LORD, our God, you are not the only master to rule us, but we acknowledge only you.

¹⁴ The wicked are dead. They are no longer alive. The spirits of the dead won't rise. You have punished them, destroyed them, and wiped out all memory of them.

¹⁵ You have expanded the nation, O LORD. You have expanded the nation. You are honored. You have extended all the land's boundaries.

¹⁶ O LORD, the people have come to you in trouble. They were humbled by oppression, by your discipline upon them.

¹⁷ O LORD, when we are with you, we are like pregnant women ready to give birth. They writhe and cry out in their labor pains.

¹⁸ We were pregnant; we writhed with labor pains only to give birth to the wind. We weren't able to bring salvation to the land, and no new people were born on earth.

¹⁹ Your dead will live. Their corpses will rise. Those who lie dead in the dust will wake up and shout for joy, because your dew is a refreshing dew, and the earth will revive the spirits of the dead.

²⁰ My people, go to your rooms, and shut the doors behind you. Hide for a little while until his fury has ended.

²¹ The LORD is going to come out from his dwelling place to punish those who live on earth for their sins. The earth will uncover the blood shed on it and will no longer cover up its dead bodies.

27 ¹ On that day the LORD will use his fierce and powerful sword to punish Leviathan, that slippery snake, Leviathan, that twisting snake. He will kill that monster which lives in the sea.

² On that day sing about a delightful vineyard.

³ I, the LORD, watch over it. I water it continually. I watch over it day and night so that no one will harm it.

⁴ I am no longer angry. If only thorns and briars would confront me! I would fight them in battle and set all of them on fire.

⁵ Or else let them come to me for protection. Let them make peace with me. Yes, let them make peace with me.

⁶ In times to come Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom, bud, and fill the whole world with fruit.

⁷ Will the LORD hurt Israel as he hurt others who hurt them? Will he kill them as he killed others?

⁸ He punished Israel by sending it away. He removed it with a fierce blast from the east winds.

⁹ In this way the wrongdoings of the descendants of Jacob are covered up. This is the way they will turn from their sins— when they turn all the altar stones into powdered chalk and no poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah or incense altars are left standing.

¹⁰ The fortified city is isolated. The homestead is left deserted, abandoned like the desert. Calves will graze there. They will lie down. They will feed on the branches.

¹² On that day the LORD will begin his threshing from the flowing stream of the Euphrates River to the brook of Egypt. People of Israel, you will be gathered one by one.

¹³ On that day a ram's horn will be blown loudly. Those who are dying in Assyria and those who are banished to Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28 ¹ How horrible it will be for the arrogant drunks of Ephraim. Their glorious beauty is like a withered flower. They are at the entrance to a fertile valley where they lie drunk from wine.

² The Lord has one who is strong and powerful. He is like a hailstorm, a destructive wind. He is like a thunderstorm, an overwhelming flood. He will throw them to the ground forcefully.

³ The arrogant drunks of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot.

⁵ When that day comes, the LORD of Armies will be like a glorious crown for his few remaining people.

⁶ He will give a spirit of justice to those who judge. He will give strength to those who defend the city gates in battle.

⁷ Priests and prophets stagger from wine and wobble from too much liquor. They stagger from too much liquor and become confused from too much wine.

They wobble because of their liquor.
They stagger when they see visions.
They swerve as they judge.

⁸ All the tables are covered with vomit and excrement. There isn't a clean place left.

⁹ To whom will they make the message understood? To whom will they explain this message? To children just weaned from milk? To those just taken from their mother's breasts?

¹⁰ They speak utter nonsense.

¹¹ The LORD will speak to these people.
He will mock them by speaking in a foreign language.

¹² He will say to them, "This is a place for comfort. This is a place of rest for those who are tired. This is a place for them to rest." But they weren't willing to listen.

¹³ The LORD speaks utter nonsense to them. That is why they will fall backwards. That is why they will be hurt, trapped, and captured.

¹⁴ So hear the word of the LORD, you foolish talkers who rule the people in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ You say, "We made a treaty with death and an agreement with the grave. When the overwhelming disaster passes by, it won't matter to us, because we have taken refuge in our lies, and falsehood is our hiding place."

¹⁶ This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am going to lay a rock in Zion, a rock that has been tested, a precious cornerstone, a solid foundation. Whoever believes in him will not worry.

¹⁷ I will make justice a measuring line and righteousness a plumb line. Hail will sweep away your refuge of lies, and floodwaters will wash away your hiding place.

¹⁸ Your treaty with death will be wiped away. Your agreement with the grave will not stand. When the overwhelming disaster passes by, you will be trampled by it.

¹⁹ Each time it passes by it will take you. It will pass by morning after morning, during the day and during the night. Understanding this message brings only terror.

²⁰ The bed is too short to stretch out on. The blanket is too narrow to serve as a cover.

²¹ The LORD will rise as he did on Mount Perazim. He will wake up as he did in Gibeon Valley. He will do his work, his unexpected work, and perform his deeds, his mysterious deeds.

²² Now stop laughing, or your chains will be tightened, because I have heard that the Almighty LORD of Armies has finally determined to destroy the whole land.

²³ Open your ears, and listen to me! Pay attention, and hear me!

²⁴ Does a farmer go on plowing every day so he can plant? Does he continue to break up the soil and make furrows in the ground?

²⁵ When he has smoothed its surface, doesn't he scatter black cumin seed and plant cumin? Doesn't he plant wild wheat in rows? Doesn't he put barley in its own area and winter wheat at its borders?

²⁶ God will guide him in judgment, and his God will teach him.

²⁷ Black cumin isn't threshed with a sledge, and wagon wheels aren't rolled over cumin. Black cumin is beaten with a rod and cumin with a stick.

²⁸ Grain is ground into flour, but the grinding eventually stops. It will be threshed. The wheels of his cart will roll over it, but his horses won't crush it.

²⁹ All of this has come from the LORD of Armies. His counsel is wonderful, and his wisdom is great.

29 ¹ How horrible it will be for you Ariel, Ariel, the city where David camped. Let year after year go by. Let your annual festivals go on.

² I will torment Ariel, and the city will be filled with people grieving and mourning. The city will become like Ariel.

³ I will set up war camps all around you. I will blockade you with towers. I will put up mounds of dirt around you.

⁴ When you have fallen, you will speak as you lie on the ground. Your words will be muffled by the dust. Your voice will come out of the ground like that of a ghost. Your words will be whispered from the dust.

⁵ Your many enemies will be like fine dust. Your many foes will be like husks blown by the wind. All of this will happen suddenly, unexpectedly.

⁶ The LORD of Armies will punish you with thunder, earthquakes, and loud noises, with windstorms, rainstorms, and fire storms.

⁷ The armies from all the nations will go to war against Ariel. They will go to war against it, blockade it, and torment it. All of this will be like a dream, like a vision in the night.

⁸ They will be like hungry people who dream that they're eating and wake up to find they're hungry. They will be like thirsty people who dream that they're drinking and wake up to find they're lightheaded and parched with thirst. This is what will happen to the armies from all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

⁹ If you confuse yourselves, you will be confused. If you blind yourselves, you will be blinded. You are drunk, but not from wine. You stagger, but not from liquor.

¹⁰ The LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep. He will shut your eyes. (Your eyes are the prophets.) He will cover your heads. (Your heads are the seers.)

¹¹ To you all these visions will be like words in a book that is closed and sealed. You give this book to someone who can read, saying, "Please read this." He answers, "I can't read it. It's sealed."

¹² Then you give the book to someone who can't read, saying, "Please read this." He answers, "I can't read."

¹³ The Lord says, "These people worship me with their mouths and honor me with their lips. But their hearts are far from me, and their worship of me is based on rules made by humans.

¹⁴ That is why I am going to do something completely amazing for these people once again. The wisdom of their wise people will disappear. The intelligence of their intelligent people will be hidden."

¹⁵ How horrible it will be for those who try to hide their plans from the LORD. Their deeds are done in the dark, and they say, "No one can see us" and "No one can recognize us."

¹⁶ You turn things upside down! Is the potter no better than his clay? Can something that has been made say about its maker, "He didn't make me"? Can a piece of pottery say about the potter, "He doesn't understand"?

¹⁷ In a very short time Lebanon will be turned into a fertile field and the fertile field will be considered a forest.

¹⁸ When that day comes, the deaf will hear the words written in the book. The blind will see out of their gloom and darkness.

¹⁹ Humble people again will find joy in the LORD. The poorest of people will find joy in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰ Tyrants will be gone. Mockers will be finished. All who look for ways to do wrong will come to an end:

²² This is what the LORD, who saved Abraham, says about the descendants of Jacob: Jacob will no longer be ashamed. Jacob's face will no longer turn pale.

²³ When they see all their children, the children I made with my hands, they will acknowledge my name as holy. They will treat the Holy One of Jacob as holy. They will stand in terror of the God of Israel.

²⁴ Then those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding, and those who complain will accept instruction.

30 ¹ The LORD declares, "How horrible it will be for those rebellious children. They carry out plans, but not mine. They make alliances against my will. They pile sin on top of sin.

² They go to Egypt without asking me. They look for shelter under Pharaoh's protection and look for refuge in Egypt's shadow.

³ But Pharaoh's protection will be their shame, and the refuge in Egypt's shadow will be their disgrace.

⁴ Although Pharaoh's officials are in Zoan and his messengers have reached Hanes,

⁵ the people of Judah will be put to shame because that nation can't help them. That nation can't give aid or help to them. It can only offer shame and disgrace."

⁶ This is the divine revelation about the animals in the Negev. "My people travel through lands where they experience distress and hardship. Lions and lionesses live there. Vipers and poisonous snakes live there. They carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys and their treasures on the humps of camels to a nation that can't help them.

⁷ Egypt's help is completely useless. That is why I call it, 'Rahab who sits still.'

⁸ Now, write this on a tablet for them, and inscribe it in a book so that it will be there in the future as a permanent witness.

⁹ These people are rebellious and deceitful children, children who refuse to listen to the LORD'S teachings.

¹⁰ They say to the seers, 'Don't see the future.' They say to those who have visions, 'Don't have visions that tell us what is right. Tell us what we want to hear. See illusions.

¹¹ Get out of our way! Stop blocking our path! Get the Holy One of Israel out of our sight.'"

¹² This is what the Holy One of Israel says: You have rejected this warning, trusted oppression and deceit, and leaned on them.

¹³ That is why your sin will be like a high wall with a bulging crack, ready to fall. All of a sudden it will fall.

¹⁴ It will break like pottery. It will be smashed, and nothing will be left of it.

No piece will be big enough to carry live coals from a fireplace or to dip water from a reservoir.

¹⁵ This is what the Almighty LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says: You can be saved by returning to me. You can have rest. You can be strong by being quiet and by trusting me. But you don't want that.

¹⁶ You've said, "No, we'll flee on horses." So you flee. You've added, "We'll ride on fast horses." So those who chase you will also be fast.

¹⁸ The LORD is waiting to be kind to you. He rises to have compassion on you. The LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him.

¹⁹ You will live in Zion, in Jerusalem. You won't cry anymore. The LORD will certainly have pity on you when you cry for help. As soon as he hears you, he will answer you.

²⁰ The Lord may give you troubles and hardships. But your teacher will no longer be hidden from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes.

²¹ You will hear a voice behind you saying, "This is the way. Follow it, whether it turns to the right or to the left."

²² Then you will dishonor your silver-plated idols and your gold-covered statues. You will throw them away like clothing ruined by stains. You will say to them, "Get out!"

²³ The Lord will give you rain for the seed that you plant in the ground, and the food that the ground provides will be rich and nourishing. When that day comes, your cattle will graze in large pastures.

²⁴ The oxen and the donkeys which work the soil will eat a mixture of food that has been winnowed with forks and shovels.

²⁵ There will be brooks and streams on every lofty mountain and every high hill. When the day of the great slaughter comes, towers will fall.

²⁶ Then the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun. The light of the sun will be seven times as strong, like the light of seven days. When that day comes, the LORD will bandage his people's injuries and heal the wounds he inflicted.

²⁷ The name of the LORD is going to come from far away. His anger is burning. His burden is heavy. His lips are filled with fury. His tongue is like a devouring flame.

²⁸ His breath is like an overflowing stream. It rises neck high, sifting the nations with a sieve of destruction, placing a bit in the mouths of the people to lead them astray.

³⁰ The LORD will make his majestic voice heard. He will come down with all his might, with furious anger, with fire storms, windstorms, rainstorms, and hailstones.

³¹ At the sound of the LORD, the people of Assyria will be shattered. He will strike them with his rod.

³² To the sound of tambourines and lyres, the LORD will pound on them. He will fight them in battle, swinging his fists.

³³ Topheth was prepared long ago. It was made ready for the king. It was made deep and wide and piled high with plenty of burning logs. The LORD'S breath will be like a flood of burning sulfur, setting it on fire.

31 ¹ How horrible it will be for those who go to Egypt for help, who rely on horses, who depend on many chariots, who depend on very strong war horses. They don't look to the Holy One of Israel. They don't seek the LORD.

² He is wise and can bring about disaster. He doesn't take back his words. He rises against wicked people and against those who help troublemakers.

³ The Egyptians are humans, not gods. Their horses are flesh and blood, not spirit. When the LORD uses his powerful hand, the one who gives help will stumble, and the one who receives help will fall. Both will die together.

⁴ This is what the LORD said to me:
A lion, even a young lion, growls over its prey when a crowd of shepherds is called to fight it. It isn't frightened by their voices or disturbed by the noise they make. So the LORD of Armies will come to fight for Mount Zion and its hill.

⁵ The LORD of Armies will defend Jerusalem like a hovering bird. He will defend it and rescue it. He will pass over it and protect it.

⁶ You people of Israel, return to the one whom you have so violently rebelled against.

⁷ When that day comes, all of you will reject the silver and gold idols that your sinful hands have made.

⁸ Then Assyrians will be killed with swords not made by human hands.
Swords not made by human hands will destroy them. They will flee from battle, and their young men will be made to do forced labor.

⁹ In terror they will run to their stronghold, and their officers will be frightened at the sight of the battle flag. The LORD declares this. His fire is in Zion and his furnace is in Jerusalem.

32 ¹ A king will rule with fairness, and officials will rule with justice.

² Then each ruler will be like a shelter from the wind and a hiding place from the rain. They will be like streams on parched ground and the shade of a large rock in a weary land.

³ Then the vision of those who can see won't be blurred, and the ears of those who can hear will pay attention.

⁴ Then those who are reckless will begin to understand, and those who stutter will speak quickly and clearly.

⁵ Godless fools will no longer be called nobles, nor will scoundrels be considered gentlemen.

⁶ Godless fools speak foolishness, and their minds plan evil in order to do ungodly things. They speak falsely about the LORD. They let people go hungry and withhold water from thirsty people.

⁷ The tricks of scoundrels are evil. They devise wicked plans in order to ruin poor people with lies, even when needy people plead for justice.

⁸ But honorable people act honorably and stand firm for what is honorable.

⁹ Get up, and listen to me, you pampered women. Hear what I say, you overconfident daughters.

¹⁰ In a little less than a year you overconfident women will tremble, because the grape harvest will fail and no fruit will be brought in from the fields.

¹¹ Shudder, you pampered women.
Tremble, you overconfident women.
Take off your clothes, walk around naked, and wear sackcloth around your waists.

¹² Beat your breasts as you mourn for the fields, for the vines bearing grapes.

¹³ Mourn for my people's land where thorns and briars will grow. Mourn for all the happy homes in a joyful city.

¹⁴ Palaces will be deserted. Noisy cities will be abandoned. Fortresses and watchtowers will become permanent caves. They will be a delight for wild donkeys and pastures for flocks

¹⁵ until the Spirit is poured on us from on high. Then the wilderness will be turned into a fertile field, and the fertile field will be considered a forest.

¹⁶ Then justice will live in the wilderness, and righteousness will be at home in the fertile field.

¹⁷ Then an act of righteousness will bring about peace, calm, and safety forever.

¹⁸ My people will live in a peaceful place, in safe homes and quiet places of rest.

¹⁹ The forest will be flattened because of hail, and the city will be completely leveled.

²⁰ Blessed are those who plant beside every stream and those who let oxen and donkeys roam freely.

33 ¹ How horrible it will be for you, you destroyer, although you haven't been destroyed. How horrible it will be for you, you traitor, although you haven't been betrayed. When you've finished destroying, you will be destroyed. When you've finished being a traitor, you will be betrayed.

² O LORD, have pity on us. We wait with hope for you. Be our strength in the morning. Yes, be our savior in times of trouble.

³ People flee from the noise of your army. Nations scatter when you attack.

⁴ You nations, your loot is gathered as grasshoppers harvest a crop. Like swarming locusts, people rush for your loot.

⁵ The LORD is honored because he lives on high. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶ He will be the foundation of your future. The riches of salvation are wisdom and knowledge. The fear of the LORD is your treasure.

⁷ Heroes cry in the streets. Messengers of peace cry bitterly.

⁸ Highways are deserted. Travelers stop traveling. Agreements are broken. Witnesses are rejected. People are no longer respected.

⁹ The country grieves and wastes away.
Lebanon is ashamed and is decaying.
Sharon has become like a wilderness.
Bashan and Carmel are shaken.

¹⁰ The LORD says, "Now I will arise. Now I will get up. Now I will be lifted up."

¹¹ You will be pregnant with hay. You will give birth to straw. Your breath will be a fire which will burn you up.

¹² People will be cremated. They will be set on fire like dry thornbushes.

¹³ Hear what I have done, you people who are far away! Acknowledge my might, you people who are near!

¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are terrified.
Trembling seizes the ungodly. Can any of us live through a fire that destroys? Can any of us live through a fire that burns forever?

¹⁵ The person who does what is right and speaks the truth will live. He rejects getting rich by extortion and refuses to take bribes. He refuses to listen to those who are plotting murders. He doesn't look for evil things to do.

¹⁶ This person will live on high. His stronghold will be a fortress made of rock. He will have plenty of food and a dependable supply of water.

¹⁷ Your eyes will see how handsome the king is. You will see a land that stretches into the distance.

¹⁸ Your mind will be thinking of the terrors in the past. Where are the scribes? Where are the tax collectors? Where are those who counted the towers?

¹⁹ You will no longer see those savage people, those people with an unrecognizable language, with a foreign language that you can't understand.

²⁰ Look at Zion, the city of our festivals. Your eyes will see Jerusalem as a peaceful place. It is a tent that can't be moved. Its tent pegs will never be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be broken.

²¹ The LORD will be our mighty defender in a place surrounded by wide rivers and streams. Ships with oars won't travel on them. Stately ships won't sail on them.

²² The LORD is our judge. The LORD is our lawgiver. The LORD is our king. The LORD is our savior.

²³ Your ropes hang loose, your mast isn't secure, and your sail isn't spread out. A large amount of loot will be distributed. Lame people will carry off your loot.

34¹ Come close, you nations, and listen. Pay attention, you people. The earth, everyone in it, the world, and everything on it will listen.

² The LORD is angry with all the nations. He is furious with all their armies. He has claimed them for destruction. He has handed them over to be slaughtered.

³ Their dead bodies will be thrown out. A stench will rise from their corpses. Mountains will be red with their blood.

⁴ All the stars in the sky will rot. The heavens will be rolled up like a scroll. The stars will fall like leaves from a grapevine, like green figs from a fig tree.

⁵ When my sword is covered with blood in the heavens, it will fall on Edom and on the people I've claimed for destruction.

⁶ The LORD'S sword is covered with blood. It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of rams' kidneys. The LORD will receive a sacrifice in Bozrah, a huge slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷ Wild oxen will be killed with them, young bulls along with rams. Their land will be drenched with blood. Their dust will be covered with fat.

⁸ The LORD will have a day of vengeance, a year of revenge in defense of Zion.

⁹ Edom's streams will be turned to tar. Its soil will be turned to burning sulfur. Its land will become blazing tar.

¹⁰ They will not be extinguished day or night, and smoke will always go up from them. Edom will lie in ruins for generations. No one will ever travel through it.

¹¹ Pelicans and herons will take possession of the land. Owls and crows will live there. He will stretch the measuring line of chaos and the plumb line of destruction over it.

¹² There are no nobles to rule a kingdom. All of its princes have disappeared.

¹³ Its palaces are covered with thorns. Its fortresses have nettles and thistles. It will become a home for jackals and a place for ostriches.

¹⁴ Hyenas will meet with jackals. Male goats will call to their mates. Screech owls will rest there and find a resting place for themselves.

¹⁵ Owls will make their nests there, lay eggs, and hatch them. They will gather their young in the shadow of their wings. Vultures also will gather there, each one with its mate.

¹⁶ Search the LORD'S book, and read it. Not one of these animals will be missing. Not one will lack a mate, because the LORD has commanded it, and his Spirit will gather them together.

¹⁷ He is the one who throws dice for them, and his hand divides up the land for them with a measuring line. They will possess it permanently and live there for generations.

35 ¹ The desert and the dry land will be glad, and the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

² Like a lily the land will blossom. It will rejoice and sing with joy. It will have the glory of Lebanon, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. Everyone will see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

³ Strengthen limp hands. Steady weak knees.

⁴ Tell those who are terrified, "Be brave; don't be afraid. Your God will come with vengeance, with divine revenge. He will come and rescue you."

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unplugged.

⁶ Then those who are lame will leap like deer, and those who cannot speak will shout for joy. Water will gush out into the desert, and streams will gush out into the wilderness.

⁷ Then the hot sand will become a pool, and dry ground will have springs. Grass will become cattails and rushes in the home of jackals.

⁸ A highway will be there, a roadway. It will be called the Holy Road. Sinners won't travel on it. It will be for those who walk on it. Godless fools won't wander onto it.

⁹ Lions won't be there. Wild animals won't go on it. They won't be found there. But the people reclaimed by the LORD will walk on it.

¹⁰ The people ransomed by the LORD will return. They will come to Zion singing with joy. Everlasting happiness will be on their heads as a crown. They will be glad and joyful. They will have no sorrow or grief.

36 ¹ In Hezekiah's fourteenth year as king, King Sennacherib of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

² Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. He stood at the channel for the Upper Pool on the road to Laundryman's Field.

³ Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace and was the son of Hilkiah, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, who was the royal historian and the son of Asaph, went out to the field commander.

⁴ He said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What makes you so confident?

⁵ You give useless advice about getting ready for war. Whom, then, do you trust for support in your rebellion against me?

⁶ Look! When you trust Egypt, you're trusting a broken stick for a staff. If you lean on it, it stabs your hand and goes through it. This is what Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) is like for everyone who trusts him.

⁷ Suppose you tell me, "We're trusting the LORD our God." He's the god whose places of worship and altars Hezekiah got rid of. Hezekiah told Judah and Jerusalem, "Worship at this altar."

⁸ "Now, make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I'll give you 2,000 horses if you can put riders on them.

⁹ How can you defeat my master's lowest-ranking officers when you trust Egypt for chariots and horses?

¹⁰ "Have I come to destroy this country without the LORD on my side? The LORD said to me, 'Attack this country, and destroy it.'"

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the field commander, "Speak to us in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in the Judean language as long as there are people on the wall listening."

¹² But the field commander asked, "Did my master send me to tell these things only to you and your master? Didn't he send me to the men sitting on the wall who will have to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³ Then the field commander stood and shouted loudly in the Judean language, "Listen to the great king, the king of Assyria.

¹⁴ This is what the king says: Don't let Hezekiah deceive you. He can't rescue you.

¹⁵ Don't let Hezekiah get you to trust the LORD by saying, 'The LORD will certainly rescue us, and this city will not be put under the control of the king of Assyria.'

¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah, because this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me! Come out, and give yourselves up to me! Everyone will eat from his own grapevine and fig tree and drink from his own cistern.

¹⁷ Then I will come and take you away to a country like your own. It's a country with grain and new wine, a country with bread and vineyards.

¹⁸ Don't let Hezekiah mislead you by saying to you, 'The LORD will rescue us.' Did any of the gods of the nations rescue their countries from the king of Assyria?

¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they rescue Samaria from my control?

²⁰ Did the gods of these countries rescue them from my control? Could the LORD then rescue Jerusalem from my control?"

²¹ They were silent and didn't say anything to him because the king commanded them not to answer him.

²² Then Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace and was son of Hilkiah, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, who was the royal historian and the son of Asaph, went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn in grief. They told him the message from the field commander.

37 ¹ When King Hezekiah heard the message, he tore his clothes in grief, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORD'S temple.

² Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the leaders of the priests, clothed in sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz.

³ They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: Today is a day filled with misery, punishment, and disgrace. We are like a woman who is about to give birth but doesn't have the strength to do it.

⁴ The LORD your God may have heard the words of the field commander. His master, the king of Assyria, sent him to defy the living God. The LORD your God may punish him because of the message that the LORD your God heard. Pray for the few people who are left."

⁵ So King Hezekiah's men went to Isaiah.

⁶ Isaiah answered them, "Say this to your master, 'This is what the LORD says: Don't be afraid of the message that you heard when the Assyrian king's assistants slandered me.

⁷ I'm going to put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own country. I'll have him assassinated in his own country."

⁸ The field commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah. He had heard that the king left Lachish.

⁹ Now, Sennacherib heard that King Tirhakah of Sudan was coming to fight him. When he heard this, he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ "Tell King Hezekiah of Judah, 'Don't let the god whom you trust deceive you by saying that Jerusalem will not be put under the control of the king of Assyria.

¹¹ You heard what the kings of Assyria did to all countries, how they totally destroyed them. Will you be rescued?

¹² Did the gods of the nations which my ancestors destroyed rescue Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴ Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers, read it, and went to the LORD'S temple. He spread it out in front of the LORD

¹⁵ and prayed to the LORD,

¹⁶ "LORD of Armies, God of Israel, you are enthroned over the angels. You alone are God of the kingdoms of the world. You made heaven and earth.

¹⁷ Turn your ear toward me, LORD, and listen. Open your eyes, LORD, and see. Listen to the entire message that Sennacherib sent to defy the living God.

¹⁸ It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have leveled every country.

¹⁹ They have thrown the gods from these countries into fires because these gods aren't real gods. They're only wooden and stone statues made by human hands. So the Assyrians have destroyed them.

²⁰ Now, LORD our God, rescue us from Assyria's control so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you alone are the LORD."

²¹ Then Isaiah, son of Amoz, sent a message to Hezekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: You prayed to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria.

²² This is the message that the LORD speaks to him, 'My dear people in Zion despise you and laugh at you. My people in Jerusalem shake their heads behind your back.

²³ Whom are you defying and slandering? Against whom are you shouting? Who are you looking at so arrogantly? It is the Holy One of Israel!

²⁵ I'll dig wells and drink water. I'll dry up all the streams of Egypt with the trampling of my feet."

²⁶ "'Haven't you heard? I did this long ago. I planned it in the distant past. Now I make it happen so that you will turn fortified cities into piles of rubble.

²⁸ I know when you get up and sit down, when you go out and come in, and how you rage against me.

²⁹ Since you rage against me and your boasting has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your mouth. I will make you go back the way you came.

³⁰ "And this will be a sign for you, Hezekiah: You will eat what grows by itself this year, and the next year you will eat what comes up by itself. But in the third year you will plant and harvest, plant vineyards, and eat what is produced.

³¹ Those few people from the nation of Judah who escape will again take root and produce crops.

³² Those few people will go out from Jerusalem, and those who escape will go out from Mount Zion. The LORD of Armies is determined to do this.'

³³ "This is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: He will never come into this city, shoot an arrow here, hold a shield in front of it, or put up dirt ramps to attack it.

³⁴ He will go back the way he came, and he won't come into this city," declares the LORD of Armies.

³⁵ "I will shield this city to rescue it for my sake and for the sake of my servant David."

³⁷ Then King Sennacherib of Assyria left. He went home to Nineveh and stayed there.

38 ¹ In those days Hezekiah became sick and was about to die. The prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz, came to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Give final instructions to your household, because you're about to die. You won't get well."

² Hezekiah turned to the wall and prayed to the LORD.

³ "Please, LORD, remember how I've lived faithfully and sincerely in your presence. I've done what you consider right." And he cried bitterly.

⁴ Then the LORD spoke his word to Isaiah,

⁵ "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I've heard your prayer. I've seen your tears. I'm going to give you 15 more years to live.

⁶ I'll rescue you and defend this city from the control of the king of Assyria.'" (38:21) Then Isaiah said, "Take a fig cake, and place it over the boil so that the king will get well." (38:22) Hezekiah asked, "What is the sign that I'll go to the LORD'S temple?"

⁷ Isaiah said, "This is your sign from the LORD that he will do what he promises.

⁸ The sun made a shadow that went down the stairway of Ahaz's upper palace. I'm going to make the shadow go back ten steps." So the sun on the stairway went back up the ten steps it had gone down.

⁹ King Hezekiah of Judah wrote this after he was sick and became well again:

¹⁰ I thought that in the prime of my life I would go down to the gates of Sheol and be robbed of the rest of my life.

¹¹ I thought that I wouldn't see the LORD in this world. Even with all the people in the world, I thought I would never see another person.

¹² My life was over. You rolled it up like a shepherd's tent. You rolled up my life like a weaver. You cut me off from the loom. You ended my life in one day.

¹³ I cried out until morning as if a lion had crushed all my bones. You ended my life in one day.

¹⁴ I chirped like swallows and cranes. I cooed like doves. My eyes were tired from looking up to heaven. I've suffered miserably, O Lord! Please help me!

¹⁵ What can I say now that he has spoken to me? He has done this. I will be careful the rest of my life because of my bitter experience.

¹⁶ Lord, people live in spite of such things, and I have the will to live in spite of them. You give me health and keep me alive.

¹⁷ Now my bitter experience turns into peace. You have saved me and kept me from the rotting pit. You have thrown all my sins behind you.

¹⁸ Sheol doesn't thank you! Death doesn't praise you! Those who go down to the pit cannot expect you to be faithful.

¹⁹ Those who are living praise you as I do today. Fathers make your faithfulness known to their children.

²⁰ The LORD is going to rescue me, so let us play stringed instruments. We live our lives in the LORD'S temple.

²² (SEE 38:6)

39 ¹ At that time Baladan's son, King Merodach Baladan of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah. He had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered.

² Hezekiah was so happy with them that he showed the messengers his warehouse: the silver, gold, balsam, fine olive oil, his entire armory, and everything in his treasury. Hezekiah showed them everything in his palace and every corner of his kingdom.

³ Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did these men say? And where did they come from?" Hezekiah answered, "They came to me from the distant country of Babylon."

⁴ Isaiah asked, "What did they see in your palace?" Hezekiah answered, "They saw everything in my palace, and I showed them everything in my treasury."

⁵ Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Armies!

⁶ The LORD says, 'The days are going to come when everything in your palace, everything your ancestors have stored up to this day, will be taken away to Babylon. Nothing will be left.

⁷ Some of your own descendants will be taken away. They will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”

⁸ Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORD’S word that you have spoken is good." He added, "Just let there be peace and security as long as I live."

40 ¹ "Comfort my people! Comfort them!" says your God.

² "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem and announce to it that its time of hard labor is over and its wrongs have been paid for. It has received from the LORD double for all its sins."

³ A voice cries out in the desert: "Clear a way for the LORD. Make a straight highway in the wilderness for our God.

⁴ Every valley will be raised. Every mountain and hill will be lowered. Steep places will be made level. Rough places will be made smooth.

⁵ Then the LORD'S glory will be revealed and all people will see it together. The LORD has spoken."

⁶ A voice called, "Call out!" I asked, "What should I call out?" "Call out: All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like a flower in the field.

⁷ Grass dries up, and flowers wither when the LORD'S breath blows on them. Yes, people are like grass.

⁸ Grass dries up, and flowers wither, but the word of our God will last forever."

⁹ Go up a high mountain, Zion. Tell the good news! Call out with a loud voice, Jerusalem. Tell the good news! Raise your voice without fear. Tell the cities of Judah: "Here is your God!"

¹⁰ The Almighty LORD is coming with power to rule with authority. His reward is with him, and the people he has won arrive ahead of him.

¹¹ Like a shepherd he takes care of his flock. He gathers the lambs in his arms. He carries them in his arms. He gently helps the sheep and their lambs.

¹² Who has measured the water of the sea with the palm of his hand or measured the sky with the length of his hand? Who has held the dust of the earth in a bushel basket or weighed the mountains on a scale and the hills on a balance?

¹³ Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD or instructed him as his adviser?

¹⁴ Whom did he consult? Who gave him understanding? Who taught him the right way? Who taught him knowledge? Who informed him about the way to understanding?

¹⁵ The nations are like a drop in a bucket and are considered to be like dust on a scale. The weight of the islands is like fine dust.

¹⁶ All the trees in Lebanon are not enough to burn an offering. Its wild animals are not enough for a single burnt offering.

¹⁷ All the nations amount to nothing in his presence. He considers them less than nothing and worthless.

¹⁸ To whom, then, can you compare God? To what statue can you compare him?

¹⁹ Craftsmen make idols. Goldsmiths cover them with gold. Silversmiths make silver chains for them.

²⁰ The poorest people choose wood that will not rot and search out skillful craftsmen to set up idols that will not fall over.

²¹ Don't you know? Haven't you heard? Haven't you been told from the beginning? Don't you understand the foundations of the earth?

²² God is enthroned above the earth, and those who live on it are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the sky like a canopy and spreads it out like a tent to live in.

²³ He makes rulers unimportant and makes earthly judges worth nothing.

²⁴ They have hardly been planted. They have hardly been sown. They have hardly taken root in the ground. Then he blows on them and they wither, and a windstorm sweeps them away like straw.

²⁵ "To whom, then, can you compare me? Who is my equal?" asks the Holy One.

²⁶ Look at the sky and see. Who created these things? Who brings out the stars one by one? He calls them all by name. Because of the greatness of his might and the strength of his power, not one of them is missing.

²⁷ Jacob, why do you complain? Israel, why do you say, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my rights are ignored by my God"?

²⁸ Don't you know? Haven't you heard? The eternal God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't grow tired or become weary. His understanding is beyond reach.

²⁹ He gives strength to those who grow tired and increases the strength of those who are weak.

³⁰ Even young people grow tired and become weary, and young men will stumble and fall.

³¹ Yet, the strength of those who wait with hope in the LORD will be renewed. They will soar on wings like eagles. They will run and won't become weary. They will walk and won't grow tired.

41 ¹ "Be silent and listen to me, you coastlands. Let the people gain new strength. Let them come near and speak. Let us come together for judgment.

² "Who has raised up from the east someone to whom the LORD gives victory with every step he takes? Nations are handed over to him. He defeats kings. With his sword he turns them into dust. With his bow he turns them into straw blown by the wind.

³ He chases them, marching by safely on a path his feet have never traveled before.

⁴ Who has accomplished this? Who has determined the course of history from the beginning? I, the LORD, was there first, and I will be there to the end. I am the one!"

⁵ The coastlands have seen him and are afraid. The ends of the earth tremble. They have come near and gathered together.

⁶ People help their neighbors and say to their relatives, "Be brave!"

⁷ Craftsmen encourage goldsmiths. Metalsmiths encourage blacksmiths who work at their anvils. They say that their soldering is good. And they fasten things with nails so they won't move.

⁸ "But you are my servant Israel, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the descendant of Abraham, my dear friend.

⁹ I have taken you from the ends of the earth and called you from its most distant places. I said to you, 'You are my servant. I've chosen you; I haven't rejected you.'

¹⁰ Don't be afraid, because I am with you. Don't be intimidated; I am your God. I will strengthen you. I will help you. I will support you with my victorious right hand.

¹¹ "Everyone who is angry with you will be ashamed and disgraced. Those who oppose you will be reduced to nothing and disappear.

¹² You will search for your enemies, but you will not find them. Those who are at war with you will be reduced to nothing and no longer exist.

¹³ I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand and say to you, 'Don't be afraid; I will help you.'

¹⁴ Don't be afraid, Jacob, you worm. You people of Israel, I will help you," declares the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ "I am going to make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp, double-edged teeth. You will thresh the mountains and crush them to dust. You will turn the hills into straw.

¹⁶ You will winnow them. The wind will carry them away. The windstorm will scatter them. But you will find joy in the LORD and praise the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷ "The poor and needy are looking for water, but there is none. Their tongues are parched with thirst. I, the LORD, will answer them. I, the God of Israel, will not abandon them.

¹⁸ I will make rivers flow on bare hilltops. I will make springs flow through valleys. I will turn deserts into lakes. I will turn dry land into springs.

¹⁹ I will plant cedar, acacia, myrtle, and wild olive trees in the desert. I will place cedar, fir, and cypress trees together in the wilderness.

²⁰ People will see and know. Together they will consider and understand that the LORD'S power has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹ "Present your case," says the LORD. "Bring forward your best arguments," says Jacob's king.

²² "Bring your idols so they can tell us what's going to happen. Explain past events that your idols told you about so that we may consider them and know what their outcome will be. Tell us about future events.

²³ Tell us what's going to happen so that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do something, good or evil, to intimidate us and make us afraid.

²⁴ You are nothing! You can't do anything! Whoever chooses you is disgusting.

²⁵ "I have raised up someone from the north, and he has come. He will call on my name from the east. He will attack rulers as if they were mud, as if he were treading on clay like a potter.

²⁶ Who revealed this from the beginning so that we could know it? Who revealed this from the past so that we could say that he was right? No one revealed it. No one announced it. No one heard your words.

²⁷ I was the first to tell Zion, ‘Look, here they are.’ I gave Jerusalem a messenger with the good news.

²⁸ When I look, there is no one. There is no one to advise them. When I ask them a question, will they give an answer?

²⁹ All of them are nothing. They can’t do anything. Their statues are nothing but air."

42 ¹ Here is my servant, whom I support. Here is my chosen one, with whom I am pleased. I have put my Spirit on him. He will bring justice to the nations.

² He will not cry out or raise his voice. He will not make his voice heard in the streets.

³ He will not break off a damaged cattail. He will not even put out a smoking wick. He will faithfully bring about justice.

⁴ He will not be discouraged or crushed until he has set up justice on the earth. The coastlands will wait for his teachings.

⁵ The LORD God created the heavens and stretched them out. He shaped the earth and all that comes from it. He gave life to the people who are on it and breath to those who walk on it. This is what the LORD God says:

⁶ I, the LORD, have called you to do what is right. I will take hold of your hand. I will protect you. I will appoint you as my promise to the people, as my light to the nations.

⁷ You will give sight to the blind, bring prisoners out of prisons, and bring those who live in darkness out of dungeons.

⁸ I am the LORD; that is my name. I will not give my glory to anyone else or the praise I deserve to idols.

⁹ What I said in the past has come true. I will reveal new things before they happen.

¹⁰ Sing a new song to the LORD. Sing his praise from the ends of the earth, you people who sail on the seas and all the creatures that live in them, you coastlands and all who live on them.

¹¹ Let those who live in the desert and its cities raise their voices. Let those who live in the settlements of Kedar praise him. Let those who live in Sela sing for joy. Let them shout from the tops of the mountains.

¹² Let them give glory to the LORD and announce his praise on the coastlands.

¹³ The LORD marches out like a warrior. He prepares himself for battle like a soldier. He shouts, gives the battle cry, and overpowers his enemies.

¹⁴ I have been silent for a long time. I kept quiet and held myself back. But like a woman in childbirth I will cry out. I will gasp and pant.

¹⁵ I will lay waste to mountains and hills. I will dry up all their vegetation. I will turn rivers into islands. I will dry up ponds.

¹⁶ I will lead the blind on unfamiliar roads. I will lead them on unfamiliar paths. I will turn darkness into light in front of them. I will make rough places smooth. These are the things I will do for them, and I will never abandon them.

¹⁷ Then those who trust idols and those who say to statues, "You are our gods" will be turned away and put to shame.

¹⁸ Listen, you deaf people. Look, you blind people, so that you can see.

¹⁹ Who is blind except my servant or deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one who has my trust or blind like the servant of the LORD?

²⁰ You have seen much, but you do not observe anything. Your ears are open, but you hear nothing.

²¹ The LORD is pleased because he does what is right. He praises the greatness of his teachings and makes them glorious.

²² But these people are robbed and looted. They are all trapped in pits and hidden in prisons. They have become prey with no one to rescue them. They have become loot with no one to say, "Give it back."

²³ Who among you will listen to this? Is there anyone who will pay attention and listen in the future?

²⁴ Who gave Jacob away as loot and handed Israel over to robbers? Wasn't it the LORD, against whom we have sinned? They didn't want to live his way. They didn't obey his teachings.

²⁵ So he poured out his burning anger and the horrors of war on them. It engulfed them in flames, but they did not understand. It burned them, but they did not take it to heart.

43 ¹ The LORD created Jacob and formed Israel. Now, this is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid, because I have reclaimed you. I have called you by name; you are mine.

² When you go through the sea, I am with you. When you go through rivers, they will not sweep you away. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned, and the flames will not harm you.

³ I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. Egypt is the ransom I exchanged for you. Sudan and Seba are the price I paid for you.

⁴ Since you are precious to me, you are honored and I love you. I will exchange others for you. Nations will be the price I pay for your life.

⁵ Do not be afraid, because I am with you. I will bring your descendants from the east and gather you from the west.

⁶ I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not keep them." Bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

⁷ Bring everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.

⁸ Bring the people who are blind but still have eyes, the people who are deaf but still have ears.

⁹ All nations have gathered together, and people have assembled. Who among them could have revealed this? Who among them could have foretold this to us? They should bring their witnesses to prove that they were right. Let the people hear them. Then they will say that it is true.

¹⁰ "You are my witnesses," declares the LORD. "I have chosen you as my servant so that you can know and believe in me and understand that I am the one who did this. No god was formed before me, and there will be none after me.

¹¹ I alone am the LORD, and there is no savior except me.

¹² I have revealed it to you, I have saved you, and I have announced it to you. There was no foreign god among you. You are my witnesses that I am God," declares the LORD.

¹³ "From the first day I was the one who did this. No one can rescue people from my power. When I do something, who can undo it?"

¹⁴ This is what the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel, says: For your sake I will send an army to Babylon. I will bring back all the Babylonian refugees in the ships that they take pride in.

¹⁵ I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

¹⁶ The LORD makes a path through the sea and a road through the strong currents.

¹⁷ He leads chariots and horses, an army and reinforcements. (They lie down together and do not get up again. They are extinguished and snuffed out like a wick.) This is what the LORD says:

¹⁸ Forget what happened in the past, and do not dwell on events from long ago.

¹⁹ I am going to do something new. It is already happening. Don't you recognize it? I will clear a way in the desert. I will make rivers on dry land.

²⁰ Wild animals, jackals, and ostriches will honor me. I will provide water in the desert. I will make rivers on the dry land for my chosen people to drink.

²¹ I have formed these people for myself. They will praise me.

²² Jacob, you have not prayed to me. Israel, you have grown tired of me.

²³ You did not bring me sheep for your burnt offerings or honor me with your sacrifices. I did not burden you by requiring grain offerings or trouble you by requiring incense offerings.

²⁴ You did not buy me any sugar cane with your money or satisfy me with the best part of your sacrifices. Rather, you burdened me with your sins and troubled me with your wrongdoings.

²⁵ I alone am the one who is going to wipe away your rebellious actions for my own sake. I will not remember your sins anymore.

²⁶ Remind me of what happened. Let us argue our case together. State your case so that you can prove you are right.

²⁷ Your first ancestor sinned, and your priests rebelled against me.

²⁸ That is why I will corrupt the leaders of the holy place. I will claim Jacob for destruction. I will set up Israel for ridicule.

44 ¹ But now listen, my servant Jacob, Israel, whom I have chosen.

² The LORD made you, formed you in the womb, and will help you. This is what the LORD says: Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

³ I will pour water on thirsty ground and rain on dry land. I will pour my Spirit on your offspring and my blessing on your descendants.

⁴ They will spring up with the grass as poplars spring up by streams.

⁵ One person will say, "I belong to the LORD." Another will call on the name of Jacob. Another will write on his hand, "The LORD'S," and he will adopt the name of Israel.

⁶ The LORD is Israel's king and defender. He is the LORD of Armies. This is what the LORD says: I am the first and the last, and there is no God except me.

⁷ If there is anyone like me, let him say so. Let him tell me what happened when I established my people long ago. Then let him predict what will happen to them.

⁸ Don't be terrified or afraid. Didn't I make this known to you long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God except me? There is no other rock; I know of none.

¹⁰ Nothing comes from making gods or casting metal idols.

¹¹ Everyone associated with the gods will be put to shame. The craftsmen themselves are only human. Let them all get together and take their stand. They will be frightened and ashamed together.

¹² Blacksmiths shape iron into tools. They work them over the coals and shape them with hammers, working them with their strong arms. They get hungry, and their strength fails. If they don't drink water, they will faint.

¹³ Carpenters measure blocks of wood with chalk lines. They mark them with pens. They carve them with chisels and mark them with compasses. They carve them into forms of people, beautiful people, so the idols can live in shrines.

¹⁴ They cut down cedars for themselves. Then they choose fir trees or oaks. They let them grow strong among the trees in the forest. Then they plant cedars, and the rain makes them grow.

¹⁵ These trees become fuel for people to burn. So they take some of them and warm themselves with them. They start fires and bake bread. They also make gods from these trees and worship them. They make them into carved statues and bow in front of them.

¹⁶ Half of the wood they burn in the fire. Over this half they roast meat that they can eat until they are full. They also warm themselves and say, "Ah! We are warm. We can see the fire!"

¹⁷ But the rest of the wood they make into gods, carved statues. They bow to them and worship them. They pray to them, saying, "Rescue us, because you are our gods."

¹⁸ They don't know or understand anything. Their eyes are plastered shut, so they can't see. And their minds are closed, so they can't understand.

¹⁹ No one stops to think. No one has enough knowledge or understanding to say, "I burned half of the wood in the fire. I also baked bread over its coals. I roasted meat and ate it. Now I am making the rest of the wood into a disgusting thing and bowing to a block of wood."

²⁰ They eat ashes because they are deceived. Their own misguided minds lead them astray. They can't rescue themselves or ask themselves, "Isn't what I hold in my right hand a false god?"

²¹ Remember these things, Jacob: You are my servant, Israel. I formed you; you are my servant. Israel, I will not forget you.

²² I made your rebellious acts disappear like a thick cloud and your sins like the morning mist. Come back to me, because I have reclaimed you.

²³ Sing with joy, you heavens, because the LORD has done this. Rejoice, you deep places of the earth. Break into shouts of joy, you mountains, you forests and every tree in them. The LORD has reclaimed Jacob. He will display his glory in Israel.

²⁴ The LORD reclaimed you. He formed you in the womb. This is what the LORD says: I, the LORD, made everything. I stretched out the heavens by myself. I spread out the earth all alone.

²⁵ I cause the signs of false prophets to fail and make fools of fortunetellers. I make wise men retreat and turn their knowledge into foolishness.

²⁶ He confirms the word of his servant and fulfills the plan of his messengers. He says about Jerusalem, "It will be inhabited." He says about the cities of Judah, "They will be rebuilt." He says about their ruins, "I will restore them."

²⁷ He says to the deep water, "Dry up." So I will dry up your rivers.

²⁸ He says about Cyrus, "He is my shepherd. He will do everything I want him to do." He says about Jerusalem, "It will be rebuilt." He says about the temple, "Your foundation will be laid."

45 ¹ This is what the LORD says about Cyrus, his anointed one: I have held him by his right hand so he could conquer the nations ahead of him, strip kings of their power, and open doors ahead of him so that the gates would not be shut.

² I will go ahead of you, Cyrus, and smooth out the rough places. I will break down the bronze doors and cut through the iron bars.

³ I will give you treasures from dark places and hidden stockpiles. Then you will know that I, the LORD God of Israel, have called you by name.

⁴ For the sake of my servant Jacob, Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by name. I have given you a title of honor, although you don't know me.

⁵ I am the LORD, and there is no other. There is no other God besides me. I will strengthen you, although you don't know me, ⁶ so that from the east to the west people will know that there is no God except me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.

⁷ I make light and create darkness. I make blessings and create disasters. I, the LORD, do all these things.

⁸ Rain down from above, you heavens, and pour down righteousness, you skies. Let the earth open. Let salvation and righteousness sprout. Let them spring up. I, the LORD, have created them.

⁹ How horrible it will be for the one who quarrels with his maker. He is pottery among other earthenware pots. Does the clay ask the one who shapes it, "What are you making?" Does your work say to you, "There are no handles"?

¹⁰ How horrible it will be for the one who says to his father, "Why did you conceive me?" or to his mother, "Why did you go through labor pains for me?"

¹¹ The LORD is the Holy One and the maker of Israel. This is what the LORD says: Ask me about what is going to happen to my children! Are you going to give me orders concerning my handiwork?

¹² I made the earth and created humans on it. I stretched out the heavens with my own hands. I commanded all the stars to shine.

¹³ I prepared Cyrus for my righteous purpose. I will make all his roads straight.

He will build my city and let my exiles go free without any payment or any reward, says the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴ This is what the LORD says: The products from Egypt, the merchandise from Sudan, and the important Sabaeans will come to you. They will belong to you. They will follow you. They will come to you in chains. They will bow to you and pray to you, "Certainly God is with you alone, and there is no other God."

¹⁵ Certainly, you are a God who has hidden himself. You are the God of Israel, the Savior!

¹⁶ Those who make idols will be ashamed and disgraced. They will go away completely disgraced.

¹⁷ Israel has been saved by the LORD forever. You will never again be ashamed or disgraced.

¹⁸ The LORD created the heavens. God formed the earth and made it. He set it up. He did not create it to be empty but formed it to be inhabited. This is what the LORD says: I am the LORD, and there is no other.

¹⁹ I haven't spoken privately or in some dark corner of the world. I didn't say to Jacob's descendants, "Search for me in vain!" I, the LORD, speak what is fair and say what is right.

²⁰ Come here, you refugees from the nations. Ignorant people carry wooden idols and pray to gods that cannot save anyone.

²¹ Speak and present your case. Yes, let them consult one another. Who revealed this in the distant past and predicted it long ago? Wasn't it I, the LORD? There is no other God except me. There is no other righteous God and Savior besides me.

²² Turn to me and be saved, all who live at the ends of the earth, because I am God, and there is no other.

²³ I have bound myself with an oath. A word has gone out from my righteous mouth that will not be recalled, "Every knee will bow to me and every tongue will swear allegiance."

²⁴ It will be said of me, "Certainly, righteousness and strength are found in the LORD alone." All who are angry with him will come to him and be ashamed.

²⁵ All the descendants of Israel will be declared righteous, and they will praise the LORD.

46 ¹ The god Bel bows down; the god Nebo stoops low. Their statues are seated on animals and cattle. The gods that you carry are burdens, a load for weary people.

² These gods stoop low and bow down together. They aren't able to escape with heavy loads. They go away into captivity.

³ Listen to me, descendants of Jacob, the few people left of the nation of Israel. I've carried you since your birth. I've taken care of you from the time you were born.

⁴ Even when you're old, I'll take care of you. Even when your hair turns gray, I'll support you. I made you and will continue to care for you. I'll support you and save you.

⁵ To whom will you compare me and make me equal? To whom will you compare me so that we can be alike?

⁶ People pour gold out of their bags and weigh silver on scales. They hire a goldsmith. He makes it into a god. They bow down and worship it.

⁷ They lift it on their shoulders and carry it. They set the idol in its place, and it stands there. It doesn't move from its place. If they cry to it for help, it can't answer. It can't rescue them from their distress.

⁸ Remember this, and take courage. Recall your rebellious acts.

⁹ Remember the first events, because I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there's no one like me.

¹⁰ From the beginning I revealed the end. From long ago I told you things that had not yet happened, saying, "My plan will stand, and I'll do everything I intended to do."

¹¹ I will call a bird of prey from the east. I will call someone for my plan from a faraway land. I have spoken, and I will bring it about. I have planned it, and I will do it.

¹² Listen to me, you stubborn people who are far from being righteous.

¹³ I'll bring my righteousness near; it isn't far away. My salvation will not be delayed. I'll provide salvation for Zion and bring my glory to Israel.

47 ¹ Go, sit in the dirt, virgin princess of Babylon! Sit on the ground, not on a throne, princess of the Babylonians! You will no longer be called soft and delicate.

² Take millstones and grind flour. Remove your veil. Take off your skirt. Uncover your legs, and cross the river.

³ People will see you naked. People will see your shame. I will take revenge. I won't spare anyone.

⁴ Our defender is the Holy One of Israel. His name is the LORD of Armies.

⁵ Go into the dark, and sit in silence, princess of the Babylonians! You will no longer be called the queen of kingdoms.

⁶ I was angry with my people. I dishonored those who belong to me.

I put them under your control. You showed them no mercy. You placed a heavy burden on old people.

⁷ You said, "I will always be a queen." You didn't carefully consider these things or keep in mind how they would end.

⁸ Now then, listen to this, you lover of pleasure. You live securely and say to yourself, "I'm the only one, and there's no one else. I won't live as a widow. I won't suffer the loss of children."

⁹ In one day both of these will happen to you instantly: the loss of your children and your husband. All this will happen to you in spite of your evil magic and your many spells.

¹⁰ You feel safe in your wickedness and say, "No one can see me." Your wisdom and knowledge have led you astray, so you say to yourself, "I'm the only one, and there's no one else."

¹¹ But evil will happen to you. You won't know how to keep it away. Disaster will strike you. You won't be able to stop it. Destruction will overtake you suddenly. You won't expect it.

¹² Keep practicing your spells and your evil magic. You have practiced them ever since you were young. You may succeed. You may cause terror.

¹³ You are worn out by your many plans. Let your astrologers and your stargazers, who foretell the future month by month, come to you, rise up, and save you.

¹⁴ They are like straw. Fire burns them. They can't rescue themselves from the flames. There are no glowing coals to keep them warm and no fire for them to sit by.

¹⁵ This is how it will be for those who have worked with you, for those who have been with you ever since you were young. They will go their own ways, and there will be no one to save you.

48 ¹ Listen to this, descendants of Jacob! You are given the name of Israel. You are descended from Judah. You take oaths by the name of the LORD. You acknowledge the God of Israel, but you are not honest or sincere.

² You call yourselves citizens of the holy city. You depend on the God of Israel. His name is the LORD of Armies.

³ From the beginning I revealed to you what would happen. These words came out of my mouth, and I made them known. Suddenly, I acted, and they happened.

⁴ I know that you are stubborn. Like iron, you are hardheaded. Like bronze, nothing gets through your thick skull.

⁵ That is why I revealed to you what would happen long ago. I told you about them before they happened. I did this so you couldn't say, "My gods have done these things. My carved idols and my metal idols have commanded them to happen."

⁶ You've heard these words. Now look at all this. Won't you admit it? From now on I will reveal to you new things, hidden things that you do not know.

⁷ They are created now, not in the past. You haven't heard about them before today, so you can't say that you already knew about them.

⁸ You have never heard about them. You have never known about them. Your ears have never been open to hear them before. I know that you've acted very treacherously and that you have been called a rebel since you were born.

⁹ For my name's sake I'll be patient. For my glory's sake I'll hold my anger back from you, rather than destroy you.

¹⁰ I have refined you, but not like silver. I have tested you in the furnace of suffering.

¹¹ I am doing this for myself, only for myself. Why should my name be dishonored? I will not give my glory to anyone else.

¹² Listen to me, Jacob, Israel, whom I have called. I am the one. I am the first and the last.

¹³ My hand laid the foundation of the earth. My right hand stretched out the heavens. When I call for them, they both stand.

¹⁴ Gather together, all of you, and listen. What idol has revealed such things? The LORD loves Cyrus. He will carry out the LORD'S plan against Babylon. He will use his strength against the Babylonians.

¹⁵ I alone have spoken. I have called him. I will bring him here, and he will succeed.

¹⁶ Come here. Listen to this: From the beginning I have spoken nothing in private. From the time it took place, I was there. Now the Almighty LORD has sent me and his Spirit.

¹⁷ This is what the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel, says: I am the LORD your God. I teach you what is best for you. I lead you where you should go.

¹⁸ If only you had listened to my commands! Your peace would be like a river that never runs dry. Your righteousness would be like waves on the sea.

¹⁹ Your descendants would be like sand. Your children would be like its grains. Their names would not be cut off or wiped out in my presence.

²⁰ Leave Babylon; flee from the Babylonians! Shout for joy as you tell it and announce it. Shout it out to the ends of the earth. Say that the LORD has reclaimed his servant Jacob.

²¹ They weren't thirsty when he led them through the deserts. He made water flow from a rock for them. He split a rock, and water gushed out.

²² "There is no peace for the wicked," says the LORD.

49 ¹ Listen to me, you islands. Pay attention, you people far away. Before I was born, the LORD chose me. While I was in my mother's womb, he recorded my name.

² He made my tongue like a sharp sword and hid me in the palm of his hand. He made me like a sharpened arrow and hid me in his quiver.

³ He said to me, "You are my servant Israel. I will display my glory through you."

⁴ But I said, "I have worked hard for nothing. I have used my strength, but I didn't accomplish anything. Yet, certainly my case is in the LORD'S hands, and my reward is with my God."

⁵ The LORD formed me in the womb to be his servant in order to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to him. (The LORD honors me, and my God has become my strength.)

⁶ Now, the Lord says, "You are not just my servant who restores the tribes of Jacob and brings back those in Israel whom I have preserved. I have also made you a light for the nations so that you would save people all over the world."

⁷ The LORD is the defender of Israel, its Holy One. This is what the LORD says to the despised one, to the one scorned by the nation, to the slave of rulers: Kings will see you and stand. Princes will see you and bow. The LORD is faithful. The Holy One of Israel has chosen you.

⁸ This is what the LORD says: In the time of favor I will answer you. In the day of salvation I will help you. I will protect you. I will appoint you as my promise to the people. You will restore the land. You will make them inherit the desolate inheritance.

⁹ You will say to the prisoners, "Come out," and to those who are in darkness, "Show yourselves." They will graze along every path, and they will find pastures on every bare hill.

¹⁰ They will never be hungry or thirsty, nor will the sun or the burning, hot wind strike them. The one who has compassion on them will lead them and guide them to springs.

¹¹ I will turn all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be restored.

¹² They will come from far away. They will come from the north and from the west, and they will come from the land of Sinim.

¹³ Sing with joy, you heavens! Rejoice, you earth! Break into shouts of joy, you mountains! The LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on his humble people.

¹⁴ But Zion said, "The LORD has abandoned me. My Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵ Can a woman forget her nursing child? Will she have no compassion on the child from her womb? Although mothers may forget, I will not forget you.

¹⁶ I have engraved you on the palms of my hands. Your walls are always in my presence.

¹⁷ Your children will hurry back. Those who destroyed you and laid waste to you will leave you.

¹⁸ Look up, look around, and watch! All of your children are gathering together and returning to you. "I solemnly swear as I live," declares the LORD, "you will wear all of them like jewels and display them on yourself as a bride would."

¹⁹ Though you are destroyed and demolished and your land is in ruins, you will be too crowded for your people now. Those who devoured you will be long gone.

²⁰ The children taken from you will say to you, "This place is too crowded for me. Make room for me to live here."

²¹ Then you will ask yourself, "Who has fathered these children for me? I was childless and unable to have children. I was exiled and rejected. Who raised these children for me? I was left alone. Where have they come from?"

²² This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will lift my hand to signal the nations. I will raise my flag for the people. They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

²³ Then kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens will nurse you. They will bow in front of you with their faces touching the ground. They will lick the dust at your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD. Those who wait with hope for me will not be put to shame.

²⁴ Can loot be taken away from mighty men or prisoners be freed from conquerors?

²⁵ This is what the LORD says: Prisoners will be freed from mighty men. Loot will be taken away from tyrants. I will fight your enemies, and I will save your children.

²⁶ I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they will become drunk on their own blood as though it were new wine. Then all humanity will know that I am the LORD, who saves you, the Mighty One of Jacob, who reclaims you.

50 ¹ This is what the LORD says:
Where are your mother's divorce papers? Did I give her any to get rid of her? To which of my creditors did I sell you? You were sold because of your sins. I got rid of your mother because of your rebellion.

² Why was no one here when I came? Why was no one here to answer when I called? Am I too weak to reclaim you? Don't I have the power to rescue you? I dry up the sea with my command, and I turn rivers into deserts. Their fish stink because there is no water, and people die of thirst.

³ I clothe the heavens in darkness and cover them with sackcloth.

⁴ The Almighty LORD will teach me what to say, so I will know how to encourage weary people. Morning after morning he will wake me to listen like a student.

⁵ The Almighty LORD will open my ears. I will not rebel, nor will I turn away from him.

⁶ I will offer my back to those who whip me and my cheeks to those who pluck hairs out of my beard. I will not turn my face away from those who humiliate me and spit on me.

⁷ The Almighty LORD helps me. That is why I will not be ashamed. I have set my face like a flint. I know that I will not be put to shame.

⁸ The one who pronounces me innocent is near. Who will bring a case against me? Let us confront each other! Who accuses me? Let him confront me!

⁹ The Almighty LORD helps me. Who will find me guilty? They will all wear out like a garment. Moths will eat them.

¹⁰ Who among you fears the LORD and obeys his servant? Let those who walk in darkness and have no light trust the name of the LORD and depend upon their God.

¹¹ But all of you light fires and arm yourselves with flaming torches. So walk in your own light and among the torches you have lit. This is what you will receive from me: You will be tormented.

51 ¹ Listen to me, you people who pursue what is right and seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were cut and to the quarry from which you were dug.

² Look to Abraham, your ancestor, and to Sarah, from whom you are descended. When I called Abraham, he was childless. I blessed him and gave him many descendants.

³ So the LORD will comfort Zion. He will comfort all those who live among its ruins. He will make its desert like Eden. He will make its wilderness like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness will be found in it, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.

⁴ Pay attention to me, my people. Open your ears to hear me, my nation. My teachings will go out from me. My justice will become a light for the people.

⁵ My righteousness is near. My salvation is on the way. I will bring justice to people. The coastlands put their hope in me, and they wait eagerly for me.

⁶ Look at the sky. Look at the earth below. The sky will vanish like smoke. The earth will wear out like clothing, and those who live there will die like flies. But my salvation will last forever, and my righteousness will never fail.

⁷ Listen to me, you people who know righteousness, you people who have my teachings in your hearts. Don't be afraid of being insulted by people. Don't be discouraged by their ridicule.

⁸ Moths will eat them like clothing. Worms will devour them like wool. But my righteousness will last forever, and my salvation will last throughout every generation.

⁹ Wake up! Wake up! Clothe yourself with strength, O LORD! Wake up as you did in days long past, as in generations long ago. Didn't you cut Rahab into pieces and stab the serpent?

¹⁰ Didn't you dry up the sea, the water of the great ocean? You made a road in the depths of the sea so that the people reclaimed by the LORD might pass through it.

¹¹ The people ransomed by the LORD will return. They will come to Zion singing with joy. Everlasting happiness will be on their heads as a crown. They will be glad and joyful. They will have no sorrow or grief.

¹² I alone am the one who comforts you. Why, then, are you afraid of mortals, who must die, of humans, who are like grass?

¹³ Why have you forgotten the LORD, your Creator? He stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. Why should you live in constant fear of the fury of those who oppress you, of those who are ready to destroy you? Where is the fury of those who oppress you?

¹⁴ Chained prisoners will be set free. They will not die in prison. They will not go without food.

¹⁵ I am the LORD your God who stirs up the sea and makes its waves roar. My name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁶ I put my words in your mouth and sheltered you in the palm of my hand.

I stretched out the heavens, laid the foundations of the earth, and said to Zion, "You are my people."

¹⁷ Wake up! Wake up! Stand up, Jerusalem! You drank from the cup in the LORD'S hand. That cup was filled with his anger. You drank from the bowl, the cup that makes people stagger, and you drained it!

¹⁸ From all the children she gave birth to, there was no one to guide her. From all the children she raised, there was no one to take her by the hand.

¹⁹ Twice as many disasters have happened to you. Who will feel sorry for you? Violence, destruction, famine, and war have happened to you. Who will comfort you?

²⁰ Your children have fainted. They lie sleeping at every street corner. They are like an antelope caught in a net. They experience the anger of the LORD, the fury of your God.

²¹ Listen to this, you humble people who are drunk but not from wine.

²² The LORD your God defends his people. This is what your master says: I'm taking from your hand the cup that makes people stagger, the bowl, the cup of my fury. You will never drink from it again.

²³ I will put it in the hands of those who made you suffer. They said to you, "Lie down so that we can walk over you." So you made your back like the ground and like a street for them to cross.

52 ¹ Wake up! Wake up! Clothe yourself with strength, Zion! Put on your beautiful clothes, holy city of Jerusalem. Godless and evil people will no longer come to you.

² Shake the dust from yourselves. Get up, captive Jerusalem. Free yourself from the chains around your neck, captive people of Zion.

³ This is what the LORD says: You were sold, but no price was paid. You will be bought back, but without money.

⁴ This is what the Almighty LORD says: In the beginning my people went to Egypt to live there as foreigners. Later the Assyrians oppressed them for no reason.

⁵ So what do I find here? asks the LORD. My people are taken away for no reason. Their rulers are screaming, declares the LORD. And my name is cursed all day long.

⁶ Now my people will know my name. When that day comes, they will know that I am the one who says, "Here I am!"

⁷ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces the good news, "All is well." He brings the good news, announces salvation, and tells Zion that its God rules as king.

⁸ Listen! Your watchmen raise their voices and shout together joyfully. When the LORD brings Zion back, they will see it with their own eyes.

⁹ Break out into shouts of joy, ruins of Jerusalem. The LORD will comfort his people. He will reclaim Jerusalem.

¹⁰ The LORD will show his holy power to all the nations. All the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

¹¹ Run away! Run away! Get away from there! Do not touch anything unclean. Get away from it! Make yourselves pure, you Levites who carry the utensils for the LORD'S temple.

¹² You will not go away in a hurry, nor will you go away quickly. The LORD will go ahead of you. The God of Israel will guard you from behind.

¹³ My servant will be successful. He will be respected, praised, and highly honored.

¹⁴ Many will be shocked by him. His appearance will be so disfigured that he won't look like any other man. His looks will be so disfigured that he will hardly look like a human.

¹⁵ He will cleanse many nations with his blood. Kings will shut their mouths because of him. They will see things that they had never been told. They will understand things that they had never heard.

53 ¹ Who has believed our message?
To whom has the LORD'S power been revealed?

² He grew up in his presence like a young tree, like a root out of dry ground. He had no form or majesty that would make us look at him. He had nothing in his appearance that would make us desire him.

³ He was despised and rejected by people. He was a man of sorrows, familiar with suffering. He was despised like one from whom people turn their faces, and we didn't consider him to be worth anything.

⁴ He certainly has taken upon himself our suffering and carried our sorrows, but we thought that God had wounded him, beat him, and punished him.

⁵ He was wounded for our rebellious acts. He was crushed for our sins. He was punished so that we could have peace, and we received healing from his wounds.

⁶ We have all strayed like sheep. Each one of us has turned to go his own way, and the LORD has laid all our sins on him.

⁷ He was abused and punished, but he didn't open his mouth. He was led like a lamb to the slaughter. He was like a sheep that is silent when its wool is cut off. He didn't open his mouth.

⁸ He was arrested, taken away, and judged. Who would have thought that he would be removed from the world? He was killed because of my people's rebellion.

⁹ He was placed in a tomb with the wicked. He was put there with the rich when he died, although he had done nothing violent and had never spoken a lie.

¹⁰ Yet, it was the LORD'S will to crush him with suffering. When the LORD has made his life a sacrifice for our wrongdoings, he will see his descendants for many days. The will of the LORD will succeed through him.

¹¹ He will see and be satisfied because of his suffering. My righteous servant will acquit many people because of what he has learned through suffering. He will carry their sins as a burden.

¹² So I will give him a share among the mighty, and he will divide the prize with the strong, because he poured out his life in death and he was counted with sinners. He carried the sins of many. He intercedes for those who are rebellious.

54 ¹ Sing with joy, you childless women who never gave birth to children. Break into shouts of joy, you women who never had birth pains. "There will be more children of women who have been deserted than there are children of married women," says the LORD.

² Expand the space of your tent. Stretch out the curtains of your tent, and don't hold back. Lengthen your tent ropes, and drive in the tent pegs.

³ You will spread out to the right and left. Your descendants will take over other nations, and they will resettle deserted cities.

⁴ Don't be afraid, because you won't be put to shame. Don't be discouraged, because you won't be disgraced. You'll forget the shame you've had since you were young. You won't remember the disgrace of your husband's death anymore.

⁵ Your husband is your maker. His name is the LORD of Armies. Your defender is the Holy One of Israel. He is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶ "The LORD has called you as if you were a wife who was abandoned and in grief, a wife who married young and was rejected," says your God.

⁷ "I abandoned you for one brief moment, but I will bring you back with unlimited compassion.

⁸ I hid my face from you for a moment in a burst of anger, but I will have compassion on you with everlasting kindness," says the LORD your defender.

⁹ "To me this is like Noah's floodwaters, when I swore an oath that Noah's floodwaters would never cover the earth again. So now I swear an oath not to be angry with you or punish you.

¹⁰ The mountains may move, and the hills may shake, but my kindness will never depart from you. My promise of peace will never change," says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

¹¹ "You suffering, comfortless, storm-ravaged city! I will rebuild your city with precious stones. I will reset your foundations with sapphires.

¹² I will rebuild your towers with rubies, your gates with sparkling stones, and all your walls with precious stones."

¹³ All your children will be taught by the LORD, and your children will have unlimited peace.

¹⁴ You will be established in righteousness. You will be far from oppression, so you will not be afraid. You will be far from destruction, so it won't come near you.

¹⁵ "If anyone attacks you, it will not be my doing. Whoever attacks you will be defeated by you.

¹⁶ I've created blacksmiths to fan the coals into flames and to produce useful weapons. I've also created destroyers to bring destruction.

¹⁷ No weapon that has been made to be used against you will succeed. You will have an answer for anyone who accuses you. This is the inheritance of the LORD'S servants. Their victory comes from me," declares the LORD.

55 ¹ "Listen! Whoever is thirsty, come to the water! Whoever has no money can come, buy, and eat!

Come, buy wine and milk. You don't have to pay; it's free!

² Why do you spend money on what cannot nourish you and your wages on what does not satisfy you? Listen carefully to me: Eat what is good, and enjoy the best foods.

³ Open your ears, and come to me! Listen so that you may live! I will make an everlasting promise to you—the blessings I promised to David.

⁴ I made him a witness to people, a leader and a commander for people.

⁵ You will summon a nation that you don't know, and a nation that doesn't know you will run to you because of the LORD your God, because of the Holy One of Israel. He has honored you."

⁶ Seek the LORD while he may be found. Call on him while he is near.

⁷ Let wicked people abandon their ways. Let evil people abandon their thoughts. Let them return to the LORD, and he will show compassion to them. Let them return to our God, because he will freely forgive them.

⁸ "My thoughts are not your thoughts, and my ways are not your ways," declares the LORD.

⁹ "Just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways, and my thoughts are higher than your thoughts."

¹⁰ "Rain and snow come down from the sky. They do not go back again until they water the earth. They make it sprout and grow so that it produces seed for farmers and food for people to eat.

¹¹ My word, which comes from my mouth, is like the rain and snow. It will not come back to me without results. It will accomplish whatever I want and achieve whatever I send it to do."

¹² You will go out with joy and be led out in peace. The mountains and the hills will break into songs of joy in your presence, and all the trees will clap their hands.

¹³ Cypress trees will grow where thornbushes grew. Myrtle trees will grow where briars grew. This will be a reminder of the LORD'S name and an everlasting sign that will never be destroyed.

56 ¹ This is what the LORD says: Preserve justice, and do what is right. My salvation is about to come. My righteousness is about to be revealed.

² Blessed is the one who does these things and the person who holds on to them. Blessed is the one who keeps the day of worship from becoming unholy and his hands from doing anything wrong.

³ Foreigners who have joined the LORD should not say, "The LORD will separate us from his people." Castrated men should not say, "We're only dead trees!"

⁴ This is what the LORD says: I will remember the castrated men who keep my days of worship, choose what pleases me, and faithfully observe the conditions of my promise.

⁵ Inside my house and within my walls, I will give them something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a monument and a name. I will give them a permanent name that will not be forgotten.

⁶ And I will remember the foreigners who have joined the LORD to worship him, to love the LORD'S name, and to be his servants. All of them will keep the day of worship from becoming unholy and will faithfully observe the conditions of my promise.

⁷ Then I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them happy in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, because my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.

⁸ The Almighty LORD, who gathers the scattered people of Israel, declares, "I will gather still others besides those I have already gathered."

⁹ All you animals in the field, all you animals in the forest, come and eat.

¹⁰ Israel's watchmen are blind. None of them know anything. All of them are like dogs that are unable to bark. They lie around dreaming; they love to sleep.

¹¹ These dogs have huge appetites. They are never full. They are the shepherds, but they don't understand. All of them have turned to go their own ways. Each one seeks his own gain.

¹² Each one cries, "Let me get some wine, and we'll fill ourselves with liquor. And tomorrow will be like today, only better."

57 ¹ Righteous people die, and no one cares. Loyal people are taken away, and no one understands. Righteous people are spared when evil comes.

² When peace comes, everyone who has lived honestly will rest on his own bed.

³ But you—come here, you children of witches, you descendants of adulterers and prostitutes!

⁴ Whom are you making fun of? Whom are you making a face at? Whom are you sticking out your tongue at? Aren't you rebellious children, descendants of liars?

⁵ You burn with lust under oak trees and under every large tree. You slaughter children in the valleys and under the cracks in the rocks.

⁶ Your idols are among the smooth stones in the ravine. They are your destiny. You have given them wine offerings and sacrificed grain offerings to them. Do you think I am pleased with all this?

⁷ You've made your bed on a high and lofty mountain. You've gone to offer sacrifices there.

⁸ You've set up your idols beside doors and doorposts. You've uncovered yourself to the idols. You've distanced yourself from me. You've made your bed with them. You've made a deal with those you have pleasure with in bed. You've seen them naked.

⁹ You've journeyed to the king with perfumed oils and put on plenty of perfume. You've sent your ambassadors far away and sent them down to Sheol.

¹⁰ You've tired yourself out with many journeys. You didn't think that it was hopeless. You've found renewed strength, so you didn't faint.

¹¹ Whom did you dread and fear so much that you lied to me? You haven't remembered me or cared about me. I've been silent for a long time. Is that why you don't fear me?

¹² I'll tell you about your righteous ways and what you have done, but they won't help you.

¹³ When you cry for help, let your collection of idols save you. A wind will carry them all away. A breath will take them away. But whoever trusts me will possess the land and inherit my holy mountain.

¹⁴ It will be said: "Build a road! Build a road! Prepare the way! Remove every obstacle in the way of my people!"

¹⁵ The High and Lofty One lives forever, and his name is holy. This is what he says: I live in a high and holy place. But I am with those who are crushed and humble. I will renew the spirit of those who are humble and the courage of those who are crushed.

¹⁶ I will not accuse you forever. I will not be angry with you forever. Otherwise, the spirits, the lives of those I've made, would grow faint in my presence.

¹⁷ I was angry because of their sinful greed, so I punished them, hid from them, and remained angry. But they continued to be sinful.

¹⁸ I've seen their sinful ways, but I'll heal them. I'll guide them and give them rest. I'll comfort them and their mourners.

¹⁹ I'll create praise on their lips: "Perfect peace to those both far and near." "I'll heal them," says the LORD.

²⁰ But the wicked are like the churning sea. It isn't quiet, and its water throws up mud and slime.

²¹ "There is no peace for the wicked," says my God.

58 ¹ Cry aloud! Don't hold back! Raise your voice like a ram's horn. Tell my people about their rebellion and the descendants of Jacob about their sins.

² They look for me every day and want to know my ways. They act as if they were a nation that has done what is right and as if they haven't disregarded God's judgment on them. They ask me for just decrees. They want God to be near them.

³ Why have we fasted if you are not aware of it? Why have we inflicted pain on ourselves if you don't pay attention? Don't you see that on the days you fast, you do what you want to do? You mistreat all your workers.

⁴ Don't you see that when you fast, you quarrel and fight and beat your workers? The way you fast today keeps you from being heard in heaven.

⁶ This is the kind of fasting I have chosen: Loosen the chains of wickedness, untie the straps of the yoke, let the oppressed go free, and break every yoke.

⁷ Share your food with the hungry, take the poor and homeless into your house, and cover them with clothes when you see them naked. Don't refuse to help your relatives.

⁸ Then your light will break through like the dawn, and you will heal quickly. Your righteousness will go ahead of you, and the glory of the LORD will guard you from behind.

⁹ Then you will call, and the LORD will answer. You will cry for help, and he will say, "Here I am!" Get rid of that yoke. Don't point your finger and say wicked things.

¹⁰ If you give some of your own food to feed those who are hungry and to satisfy the needs of those who are humble, then your light will rise in the dark, and your darkness will become as bright as the noonday sun.

¹¹ The LORD will continually guide you and satisfy you even in sun-baked places. He will strengthen your bones. You will become like a watered garden and like a spring whose water does not stop flowing.

¹² Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the foundations of past generations. You will be called the Rebuilder of Broken Walls and the Restorer of Streets Where People Live.

¹³ If you stop trampling on the day of worship and doing as you please on my holy day, if you call the day of worship a delight and the LORD'S holy day honorable, if you honor it by not going your own way, by not going out when you want, and by not talking idly, ¹⁴ then you will find joy in the LORD. I will make you ride on the heights of the earth. I will feed you with the inheritance of your ancestor Jacob. The LORD has spoken.

59 ¹ The LORD is not too weak to save or his ear too deaf to hear.

² But your wrongs have separated you from your God, and your sins have made him hide his face so that he doesn't hear you.

³ Your hands are stained with blood, and your fingers are stained with sin. You speak lies, and you mutter wicked things.

⁴ No one calls for justice, and no one pleads his case truthfully. People trust pointless arguments and speak lies. They conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

⁵ They hatch viper eggs and weave spiderwebs. Those who eat their eggs will die. When an egg is crushed, a poisonous snake is hatched.

⁶ Their webs can't be used for clothes, nor can they cover themselves with their works. Their works are evil. Their hands have committed acts of violence.

⁷ Their feet run to do evil. They hurry to shed innocent blood. Their plans are evil. Ruin and destruction are on their highways.

⁸ They don't know the way of peace.
There's no justice on their highways.
They've made their paths crooked.
Whoever walks on them will never know peace.

⁹ That is why justice is far from us, and righteousness doesn't reach us. We hope for light, but we walk in darkness.
We hope for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

¹⁰ We grope like blind men along a wall.
We grope like people without eyes. We stumble at noon as if it were twilight.
We are like dead people among healthy people.

¹¹ We all growl like bears. We coo like doves. We hope for justice, but there is none. We hope for salvation, but it's far from us.

¹² You are aware of our many rebellious acts. Our sins testify against us. Our rebellious acts are with us. We know our wrongdoings.

¹³ We have rebelled and denied the LORD. We have turned away from our God. We have spoken about oppression and revolt. We have conceived and uttered lies in our hearts.

¹⁴ Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away. Truth has fallen in the street, and honesty can't come in.

¹⁵ Truth is missing. Those who turn away from evil make themselves victims. The LORD sees it, and he's angry because there's no justice.

¹⁶ He sees that there's no one to help. He's astounded that there's no one to intercede. So with his own power he wins a victory. His righteousness supports him.

¹⁷ He puts on righteousness like a coat of armor and a helmet of salvation on his head. He wears clothes of vengeance.

He wraps himself with fury as a coat.

¹⁸ He will pay them back according to their deeds. He will pay back his opponents with wrath and punish his enemies. He will pay back the people who live on the coastlands.

¹⁹ The people of the west will fear the name of the LORD. Those in the east will fear his glory. He will come like a rushing stream. The wind of the LORD pushes him.

²⁰ "Then a Savior will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from rebellion," declares the LORD.

²¹ "This is my promise to them," says the LORD. "My Spirit, who is on you, and my words that I put in your mouth will not leave you. They will be with your children and your grandchildren permanently," says the LORD.

60 ¹ Arise! Shine! Your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has dawned.

² Darkness now covers the earth, and thick darkness covers the nations. But the LORD dawns, and his glory appears over you.

³ Nations will come to your light, and kings will come to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴ "Look up, look around, and watch. All of your people assemble and come to you. Your sons come from far away. Your daughters are carried in their arms.

⁵ Then you will see this and rejoice, and your heart will be thrilled with joy, because the riches of the sea will be brought to you. The wealth of the nations will come to you.

⁶ "Many camels will cover your land, young camels from Midian and Ephah. Everyone from Sheba will come. They will bring gold and incense. They will sing the praises of the LORD.

⁷ All of the flocks from Kedar will gather and come to you. The rams of Nebaioth will serve you. They will be sacrificed as acceptable offerings on my altar. So I will honor my beautiful temple.

⁸ "Who are these people that fly by like clouds, like doves to their nests?

⁹ Certainly, the coastlands wait with hope for me. The ships from Tarshish are the first to bring your children from far away. Their silver and their gold comes with them to honor the name of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, because he has honored you.

¹⁰ "Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you. In my anger I struck you, but in my favor I have compassion on you.

¹¹ Your gates will always be open. They will never be closed day or night so that people may bring you the wealth of nations, with their kings led as prisoners.

¹² Nations and kingdoms that do not serve you will be destroyed. The nations will certainly be ruined.

¹³ "Lebanon's glory will come to you: Cedar, fir, and cypress trees will come to beautify my holy place, and I will honor the place where my feet rest.

¹⁴ The descendants of those who oppress you will bow in front of you. All who despise you will bow at your feet. They will call you the city of the LORD, Zion, the city of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ "You have been abandoned and hated; no one has passed through you. But now I will make you a source of everlasting pride, a joy for all generations.

¹⁶ You will drink milk from other nations and nurse at royal breasts. Then you will know that I am the LORD, your Savior, the Mighty One of Jacob, your Defender.

¹⁷ I will bring gold instead of bronze. I will bring silver instead of iron, bronze instead of wood, and iron instead of stone. I will appoint peace as your governor and righteousness as your ruler.

¹⁸ No longer will you hear about violence in your land or desolation and destruction within your borders. You will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

¹⁹ The sun will no longer be your light during the day, nor will the brightness of the moon give you light, But the LORD will be your everlasting light. Your God will be your glory.

²⁰ Your sun will no longer go down, nor will your moon disappear. The LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of sadness will be over.

²¹ Then all your people will be righteous, and they will possess the land permanently. They will be the seedling I have planted, the honored work of my hands.

²² The smallest of them will become a family. The weakest of them will become a mighty nation. At the right time I, the LORD, will make it happen quickly."

61 ¹ The Spirit of the Almighty LORD is with me because the LORD has anointed me to deliver good news to humble people. He has sent me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to announce that captives will be set free and prisoners will be released.

² He has sent me to announce the year of the LORD'S good will and the day of our God's vengeance, to comfort all those who grieve.

³ He has sent me to provide for all those who grieve in Zion, to give them crowns instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of tears of grief, and clothes of praise instead of a spirit of weakness. They will be called Oaks of Righteousness, the Plantings of the LORD, so that he might display his glory.

⁴ They will rebuild the ancient ruins. They will restore the places destroyed long ago. They will renew the ruined cities, the places destroyed generations ago.

⁵ Foreigners will come forward and become shepherds for your flocks, and children of foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

⁶ You will be called the priests of the LORD. You will be called the servants of our God. You will consume the wealth of the nations. You will boast in their splendor.

⁷ You will receive a double measure of wealth instead of your shame. You will sing about your wealth instead of being disgraced. That is why you will have a double measure of wealth in your land. You will have everlasting joy.

⁸ I, the LORD, love justice. I hate robbery and wrongdoing. I will faithfully reward my people's work. I will make an everlasting promise to them.

⁹ Then their offspring will be known among the nations and their descendants among the people. Everyone who sees them will recognize that they are the descendants whom the LORD has blessed.

¹⁰ I will find joy in the LORD. I will delight in my God. He has dressed me in the clothes of salvation. He has wrapped me in the robe of righteousness like a bridegroom with a priest's turban, like a bride with her jewels.

¹¹ Like the ground that brings forth its crops and like a garden that makes the seed in it grow, so the Almighty LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up in front of all nations.

62 ¹ For Zion's sake I will not remain silent. For Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until its righteousness shines like the dawn and its salvation burns brightly like a torch.

² The nations will see your righteousness. All kings will see your glory. You will be given a new name that the LORD will announce.

³ Then you will be a beautiful crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal crown in the hand of your God.

⁴ You will no longer be called Deserted, and your land will no longer be called Destroyed. But you will be named My Delight, and your land will be named Married. The LORD is delighted with you, and your land will be married.

⁵ As a young man marries a woman, so your sons will marry you. As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so your God will rejoice over you.

⁶ I have posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. They will never be silent day or night. Whoever calls on the LORD, do not give yourselves any rest, ⁷ and do not give him any rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it an object of praise throughout the earth.

⁸ The LORD has sworn with his right hand and with his mighty arm, "I will never again let your enemies eat your grain, nor will foreigners drink the new wine which you made."

⁹ Those who harvest grain will eat it and praise the LORD. Those who gather grapes will drink wine in my holy courtyards.

¹⁰ Go through! Go through the gates! Prepare a way for the people! Build up!

Build up the highway! Clear away the stones! Raise a flag for the people!

¹¹ The LORD has announced to the ends of the earth: "Tell my people Zion, 'Your Savior is coming. His reward is with him, and the people he has won arrive ahead of him.'"

¹² They will be called Holy People, Those Reclaimed by the LORD, and you will be called Sought After, a City Not Deserted.

63 ¹ Who is this coming from Bozrah in Edom with his clothes stained bright red? Who is this dressed in splendor, going forward with great strength? "It is I, the LORD. I am coming to announce my victory. I am powerful enough to save you."

² Why are your clothes red and your garments like those who trample grapes in a winepress?

³ "I have trampled alone in the winepress. No one was with me. In my anger I trampled on people. In my wrath I stomped on them. Their blood splattered my clothes so all my clothing has been stained.

⁴ I planned the day of vengeance. The year for my reclaiming you has come.

⁵ I looked, but there was no help. I was astounded that there was no outside support. So with my own power I won a victory. My anger supported me.

⁶ In my anger I trampled on people. In my wrath I made them drunk and poured their blood on the ground."

⁷ I will acknowledge the LORD'S acts of mercy, and sing the praises of the LORD, because of everything that the LORD has done for us. He has done many good things for the nation of Israel because of his compassion and his unlimited mercy.

⁸ He said, "They are my people, children who will not lie to me." So he became their Savior.

⁹ In all their troubles he was troubled, and he was the Messenger who saved them. In his love and compassion he reclaimed them. He always held them and carried them in the past.

¹⁰ But they rebelled and offended his Holy Spirit. So he turned against them as their enemy; he fought against them.

¹¹ Then his people remembered Moses and the distant past. Where is the one who brought them out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the one who put his Holy Spirit in them?

¹³ Where is the one who led them through the deep water? Like horses in the wilderness, they didn't stumble.

¹⁵ Look down and see from heaven, from your holy and beautiful dwelling. Where is your determination and might? Where is the longing of your heart and your compassion? Don't hold back.

¹⁶ You are our Father. Even though Abraham doesn't know us and Israel doesn't pay attention to us, O LORD, you are our Father. Your name is our Defender From Everlasting.

¹⁷ O LORD, why do you let us wander from your ways and become so stubborn that we are unable to fear you? Return for the sake of your servants. They are the tribes that belong to you.

¹⁸ Your holy people possessed the land for a little while. Our enemies have trampled on your holy place.

¹⁹ We have become like those whom you never ruled, like those who are not called by your name.

64 ¹ If only you would split open the heavens and come down! The mountains would quake at your presence.

² Be like the fire that kindles brushwood and makes water boil. Come down to make your name known to your enemies. The nations will tremble in your presence.

³ When you did awe–inspiring things that we didn’t expect, you came down and the mountains quaked in your presence.

⁴ No one has ever heard, no one has paid attention, and no one has seen any god except you. You help those who wait for you.

⁵ You greeted the one who gladly does right and remembers your ways. You showed your anger, because we've sinned. We've continued to sin for a long time. Can we still be saved?

⁶ We've all become unclean, and all our righteous acts are like permanently stained rags. All of us shrivel like leaves, and our sins carry us away like the wind.

⁷ No one calls on your name or tries to hold on to you. You have hidden your face from us. You have let us be ruined by our sins.

⁸ But now, LORD, you are our Father. We are the clay, and you are our potter. We are the work of your hands.

⁹ Don't be too angry, LORD. Don't remember our sin forever. Now look, we are all your people.

¹⁰ Your holy cities have become a desert. Zion has become a desert. Jerusalem is a wasteland.

¹¹ Our holy and beautiful temple, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned to the ground. All that we valued has been ruined.

¹² Despite these things, LORD, will you hold back? Will you be silent and make us suffer more than we can bear?

65 ¹ I was ready to answer those who didn't ask. I was found by those who weren't looking for me. I said, "Here I am! Here I am!" to a nation that didn't worship me.

² I stretched out my hands all day long to stubborn people. They chose to go the wrong direction. They followed their own plans.

³ These people constantly and openly provoked me. They offered sacrifices in gardens and burnt incense on brick altars.

⁴ They sat among the graves and spent their nights in caves. They ate pork and in their pots made broth from unclean foods.

⁵ They said, "Stay away! Don't touch me! I'm holier than you are." They have become like smoke in my nose, like a smoldering fire all day long.

⁶ "Look! It is written in front of me. I will not be silent, but I will repay. I will repay you in full.

⁷ I will repay you for your sins and for the sins of your ancestors," says the LORD. They burnt incense on the mountains and slandered me on the hills, so I will be the first to pay them back in full.

⁸ This is what the LORD says: When someone finds juice for new wine in a cluster of grapes, another person will say, "Don't destroy it, because there's a blessing in it." In the same way, I will do this for my servants: I will not destroy everything.

⁹ I will bring with me Jacob's descendant, one who will inherit my mountains from Judah. My chosen ones will inherit them. My servants will live there.

¹⁰ The Sharon Plain will be a pasture for flocks. The Achor Valley will be a resting place for cattle and for my people who search for me.

¹¹ You have abandoned the LORD and forgotten my holy mountain. You have prepared a table for the god of good fortune and offered cups full of spiced wine to the goddess of destiny.

¹² Now I will destine you for death. All of you will bow to be slaughtered. I called, but you didn't answer. I spoke, but you didn't listen. You did what I consider evil. You chose what I don't like.

¹³ This is what the LORD God says: My servants will eat, but you will be hungry. My servants will drink, but you will be thirsty. My servants will be glad, but you will be ashamed.

¹⁴ My servants will sing because of the gladness in their hearts. But you will cry because of your sadness and wail because of your depression.

¹⁵ Your name will be used as a curse by my chosen ones. The Almighty LORD will kill you and call his servants by another name.

¹⁶ Whoever asks for a blessing in the land will be blessed by the God of Truth. Whoever swears an oath in the land will swear by the God of Truth. Past troubles are forgotten. They are hidden from my eyes.

¹⁷ I will create a new heaven and a new earth. Past things will not be remembered. They will not come to mind.

¹⁸ Be glad, and rejoice forever in what I'm going to create, because I'm going to create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people to be a joy.

¹⁹ I will rejoice about Jerusalem and be glad about my people. Screaming and crying will no longer be heard in the city.

²⁰ There will no longer be an infant who lives for only a few days or an old man who doesn't live a long life. Whoever lives to be a hundred years old will be thought of as young. Whoever dies before he is a hundred years old will be cursed as a sinner.

²¹ They will build houses and live there. They will plant vineyards and eat fruit from them.

²² They will not build homes and have others live there. They will not plant and have others eat from it. My people will live as long as trees, and my chosen ones will enjoy what they've done.

²³ They will never again work for nothing. They will never again give birth to children who die young, because they will be offspring blessed by the LORD. The LORD will bless their descendants as well.

²⁴ Before they call, I will answer. While they're still speaking, I will hear.

²⁵ Wolves and lambs will feed together, lions will eat straw like oxen, and dust will be food for snakes. "They will not hurt or destroy anyone anywhere on my holy mountain," says the LORD.

66 ¹ This is what the LORD says:
Heaven is my throne. The earth is my footstool. Where can you build a house or resting place for me?

² I have made all these things. "That is why all these things have come into being," declares the LORD. I will pay attention to those who are humble and sorry for their sins and who tremble at my word.

³ Whoever kills a bull is like someone who kills a person. Whoever sacrifices a lamb is like someone who breaks a dog's neck. Whoever offers a grain sacrifice is like someone who offers pig's blood. Whoever burns incense is like someone who worships an idol. People have certainly chosen their own ways, and their souls delight in detestable things.

⁴ So I will choose harsh treatment for them and bring on them what they fear. I called, but no one answered. I spoke, but they didn't listen. They did what I consider evil. They chose what I don't like.

⁵ Listen to the word of the LORD, all who tremble at his word. Your relatives, who hate you and exclude you for my name's sake, say, "Let the LORD show his glory; then we will see your joy." But they will be put to shame.

⁶ Listen to the uproar from the city. Listen to the sound from the temple. It is the sound of the LORD paying back his enemies as they deserve.

⁷ Before a woman goes into labor, she gives birth. Before she has labor pains, she delivers a child.

⁸ Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Can a country be born in one day? Can a nation be born in a moment? When Zion went into labor, she also gave birth to her children.

⁹ "Do I bring a mother to the moment of birth and not let her deliver?" asks the LORD. "Do I cause a mother to deliver and then make her unable to have children?" asks your God.

¹⁰ All who love Jerusalem, be happy and rejoice with her. All who mourn for her, be glad with her.

¹¹ You will nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breasts. You will nurse to your heart's delight at her full breasts.

¹³ As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you. You will be comforted in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ When you see it, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like new grass. The power of the LORD will be made known to his servants, but he will condemn his enemies.

¹⁵ The LORD will come with fire and with his chariots like a thunderstorm. He will pay them back with his burning anger and punish them with flames of fire.

¹⁶ The LORD will judge with fire, and he will judge all people with his sword. Many people will be struck dead by the LORD.

¹⁷ People make themselves holy and prepare themselves for their garden rituals. They go into the garden and devour pork, disgusting things, and mice. "They will come to an end at the same time," declares the LORD.

¹⁸ Because of their actions and their thoughts, I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They will come and see my glory.

¹⁹ I will set up a sign among them and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Meshech, Rosh, Tubal, Javan, and to the distant coastlands who have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will tell about my glory among the nations.

²⁰ They will bring all your relatives from every nation like a grain offering to the LORD. "They will come on horses, in chariots, in wagons, on mules and camels to my holy mountain, Jerusalem," declares the LORD. They will come like the people of Israel who bring their grain offerings in clean dishes to the LORD'S temple.

²¹ "I will make some of them priests and Levites," declares the LORD.

²² "The new heaven and earth that I am about to make will continue in my presence," declares the LORD. "So your descendants and your name will also continue in my presence.

²³ From one month to the next and from one week to the next all people will come to worship me," declares the LORD.

²⁴ Then they will go out and look at the corpses of those who have rebelled against me. The worms that eat them will not die. The fire that burns them will not go out. All humanity will be disgusted by them.

Jeremiah

1 ¹ These are the words of Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah. He was one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin.

² The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Josiah, son of Amon, was in his thirteenth year as king of Judah.

³ The LORD also spoke when Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah and during the 11 years that Zedekiah, another son of Josiah, was king of Judah. The LORD continued to speak to Jeremiah until the people of Jerusalem were taken away into captivity in the fifth month of the year.

⁴ The LORD spoke his word to me,

⁵ "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I set you apart for my holy purpose. I appointed you to be a prophet to the nations."

⁶ I, Jeremiah, said, "Almighty LORD, I do not know how to speak. I am only a boy!"

⁷ But the LORD said to me, "Don't say that you are only a boy. You will go wherever I send you. You will say whatever I command you to say.

⁸ Don't be afraid of people. I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD.

⁹ Then the LORD stretched out his hand and touched my mouth. The LORD said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth.

¹⁰ Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms. You will uproot and tear down. You will destroy and overthrow. You will build and plant."

¹¹ Again the LORD spoke his word to me and asked, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I answered, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

¹² Then the LORD said to me, "Right. I am watching to make sure that my words come true."

¹³ Again the LORD spoke his word to me and asked, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a boiling pot, and its top is tilted away from the north."

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to me, "Disaster will be poured out from the north on all those who live in the land."

¹⁵ I am going to call every family and kingdom from the north," declares the LORD. "They will come, and they will set up their thrones at the entrance of Jerusalem's gates. They will attack all the walls around the city and all the cities of Judah."

¹⁶ I will pass sentence on my people because of all their wickedness. They abandoned me, burned incense to other gods, and worshiped what their hands have made.

¹⁷ Brace yourself, Jeremiah! Stand up, and say to them whatever I tell you to say. Don't be terrified in their presence, or I will make you even more terrified in their presence.

¹⁸ Today I have made you like a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall. You will be able to stand up to the whole land. You will be able to stand up to Judah's kings, its officials, its priests, and all the common people.

¹⁹ They will fight you, but they will not defeat you. I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD.

2 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me,
² "Go and announce to Jerusalem,
'This is what the LORD says: I remember the unfailing loyalty of your youth, the love you had for me as a bride. I remember how you followed me into the desert, into a land that couldn't be farmed.

³ Israel was set apart for the LORD. It was the best part of the harvest. All who devoured it became guilty, and disaster struck them,'" declares the LORD.

⁴ Listen to the word of the LORD, descendants of Jacob, all the families in the nation of Israel.

⁵ This is what the LORD says: What did your ancestors find wrong with me that they went so far away from me? They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves.

⁶ They didn't ask, "Where is the LORD, who brought us from Egypt? He led us through the desert, through a wasteland and its pits, a land of drought and the shadow of death. No one lives there or travels there."

⁷ I brought them into a fertile land to eat its fruit and its produce. They came and made my land unclean. They made my property disgusting.

⁹ "That is why I am bringing charges against you," declares the LORD, "and I am bringing charges against your grandchildren.

¹⁰ Go over to the coasts of Cyprus, and see. Send someone to Kedar, and observe closely. See if there has ever been anything like this.

¹² Be horrified over this, heaven. Be terribly afraid," declares the LORD.

¹³ "My people have done two things wrong. They have abandoned me, the fountain of life-giving water. They have also dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that can't hold water.

¹⁴ "Are the people of Israel slaves? Were they born into slavery? Why, then, have they become someone's property?

¹⁵ Young lions have roared very loudly at them. Young lions have turned the land into a wasteland. The cities have been burned down, and everyone has left.

¹⁶ People from Noph and Tahpanhes have cracked your skulls, Israel.

¹⁷ You have brought this on yourself by abandoning the LORD your God when he led you on his way.

¹⁸ You won't gain anything by going to Egypt to drink water from the Nile River. You won't gain anything by going to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates River.

¹⁹ Your own wickedness will correct you, and your unfaithful ways will punish you. You should know and see how evil and bitter it is for you if you abandon the LORD your God and do not fear me," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies.

²⁰ "Long ago you broke off your yoke, tore off your chains, and said that you wouldn't be a slave. You lay down and acted like a prostitute on every high hill and under every large tree.

²¹ I planted you like a choice grapevine from the very best seed. Now you have turned against me and have become a wild vine.

²² Even if you wash with detergent and use a lot of soap, I would still see the stains from your wickedness," declares the Almighty LORD.

²³ "How can you say that you haven't dishonored yourselves and haven't followed other gods—the Baals? Look how you've behaved in the valley. Acknowledge what you've done. You are like a young camel that swiftly runs here and there.

²⁴ You are like a wild donkey that is used to the desert, sniffing the wind while in heat. All who look for you won't get tired. They will find you during your monthly period.

²⁵ Don't run until your feet are bare and your throats are dry. But you say that it's useless. You love foreign gods and follow them.

²⁶ "As a thief feels ashamed when he's caught, so the nation of Israel will feel ashamed. Their kings, princes, priests, and prophets will also feel ashamed.

²⁷ You call wood your father. You call stone your mother. You've turned your backs, not your faces, to me. But when you're in trouble, you ask me to come and rescue you.

²⁸ Where are the gods that you made for yourselves? Let them come and rescue you when you're in trouble. You have as many gods as you have cities, Judah!

²⁹ "Why do you complain about me? All of you have rebelled against me," declares the LORD.

³⁰ "I have punished your children without results. They didn't respond to correction. You killed my prophets like a raging lion.

³¹ "Consider the word of the LORD, people of this generation. Haven't I been a desert, a land of thick darkness, for Israel? Why do my people say that they are free to wander around and no longer come to me?

³² A young woman can't forget her jewelry or a bride her veils. Yet, my people have forgotten me for countless days.

³³ You carefully planned ways to look for love. You taught your ways to wicked women.

³⁴ You have the blood from poor and innocent people on your clothes. You didn't kill them for breaking in to your home.

³⁵ In spite of all this you say, 'I'm innocent. God will turn his anger from me, because I haven't sinned.'

³⁶ You change your mind so easily. You will be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

³⁷ You will also leave this place with your hands over your head, because the LORD has rejected those you trust. You will not be helped by them."

3 ¹ A saying: If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, her first husband shouldn't go back to her again. The land would become thoroughly polluted. "You have acted like a prostitute who has many lovers. And now you want to come back to me!" declares the LORD.

² "Look at the bare hills, and see. You have had sex with men in every place. You sat by the roadside waiting for them like a nomad in the desert. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

³ So the rain has been withheld, and there have been no spring showers. Yet, you have the shameless look of a prostitute, and you refuse to blush.

⁴ But now you are calling to me. You say, 'Father! You have been my companion ever since I was young.

⁵ He won't hold a grudge forever. He won't always be angry.' You have said and done all the evil things that you could."

⁶ When Josiah was king, the LORD asked me, "Did you see what unfaithful Israel did? She went up every high mountain and under every large tree, and she acted like a prostitute there.

⁷ I thought that after she had done all this that she would come back to me. But she didn't come back, and her treacherous sister Judah saw her.

⁸ Judah saw that I sent unfaithful Israel away because of her adultery and that I gave Israel her divorce papers. But treacherous Judah, her sister, wasn't afraid. She also acted like a prostitute.

⁹ Because she wasn't concerned about acting like a prostitute, she polluted the land and committed adultery with standing stones and wood pillars.

¹⁰ Even after all this, Israel's treacherous sister Judah didn't wholeheartedly come back to me. She was deceitful," declares the LORD.

¹¹ Then the LORD said to me, "Unfaithful Israel was less guilty than treacherous Judah.

¹² Go and proclaim these things to the north: "'Come back, unfaithful Israel. It is the LORD speaking. I will no longer frown on you because I'm merciful,' declares the LORD. 'I will no longer be angry with you.

¹³ Admit that you've done wrong! You have rebelled against the LORD your God. You have given yourself to strangers under every large tree. You have not obeyed me,' declares the LORD.

¹⁴ "Come back, you rebellious people," declares the LORD. "I'm your husband. I will take you, one from every city and two from every family, and bring you to Zion.

¹⁵ I will give you shepherds after my own heart. They will be shepherds who feed you with knowledge and insight.

¹⁶ In those days you will be fertile, and your population will increase in the land," declares the LORD. "People will no longer talk about the ark of the LORD'S promise. It will no longer come to mind. They won't remember it, miss it, or make another one.

¹⁷ At that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD. All nations will gather in Jerusalem because the name of the LORD will be found there. They will no longer follow their own stubborn, evil ways.

¹⁸ In those days the nation of Judah will live with the nation of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave their ancestors as their own property.

¹⁹ "I wanted to treat you like children and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful property among the nations. I thought that you would call me Father and wouldn't turn away from me.

²⁰ But like a wife who betrays her husband, so you, nation of Israel, betrayed me," declares the LORD.

²¹ The sound of crying is heard on the hills. It is the crying and the pleading of the people of Israel. They have become crooked and have forgotten the LORD their God.

²² "Come back, you rebellious people, and I will forgive you for being unfaithful." Here we are! We have come to you because you are the LORD our God.

²³ Truly, the noise from the hills, from the mountains, is the noise of false worship. Truly, the LORD our God will rescue us.

²⁴ Ever since we were young, the shameful worship of Baal has taken everything our ancestors worked for, their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

²⁵ We must lie down in our shame and be covered by our disgrace. Ever since we were young, we and our ancestors have sinned against the LORD our God. We haven't obeyed the LORD our God.

4 ¹ The LORD declares, "If you come back, Israel, if you come back to me, if you take your disgusting idols out of my sight and you don't wander away from me,

² if you take the oath, "As the LORD lives..." in an honest, fair, and right way, then the nations will be blessed, and they will be honored by me."

³ This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem: Plow your unplowed fields, and don't plant among thorns.

⁴ Be circumcised by the LORD, and get rid of the foreskins of your hearts, people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. If you don't, my fury will flare up like a fire. It will burn, and no one will be able to put it out, because of the evil you do.

⁵ Report this message in Judah. Make it heard in Jerusalem. Say, "Blow the ram's horn throughout the land." Shout loudly and say, "Gather together! Let's go into the fortified cities."

⁶ Raise the flag to signal people to go to Zion. Take cover! Don't just stand there!

I'm bringing disaster and widespread destruction from the north.

⁷ A lion has come out of its lair. A destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to destroy your land. Your cities will be ruined, and no one will live in them.

⁸ So put on sackcloth, mourn, and cry because the LORD'S burning anger hasn't turned away from us.

⁹ "When that day comes," declares the LORD, "the king and the leaders will lose their courage. The priests will be stunned. The prophets will be amazed and astonished."

¹⁰ I said, "Almighty LORD, you certainly have deceived these people and Jerusalem. You said that everything would go well for them, but a sword is held at their throats."

¹¹ At that time it will be said to these people and to Jerusalem: "A hot wind from the heights will blow in the desert on the tracks of my people. It will not be a wind that winnows or cleanses.

¹² It will be a stronger wind than that. It will come from me. Now, I will pass sentence on them."

¹³ The enemy comes up like clouds. His chariots are like a raging wind. His horses are faster than eagles. How horrible it will be for us! We will be destroyed!

¹⁴ Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart so that you may be rescued. Don't continue making evil plans.

¹⁵ A message is heard from Dan, and a report of disaster comes from the mountains of Ephraim.

¹⁶ Warn the nations about these things. Bring them to the attention of Jerusalem. "Hostile troops are coming from a distant country. They are shouting battle cries against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷ They surround them like men guarding a field, because Judah has rebelled against me," declares the LORD.

¹⁸ "You brought this on yourself. This is your punishment. It is bitter. It breaks your heart."

¹⁹ My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain. My heart is beating wildly! My heart is pounding! I can't keep quiet because I hear a ram's horn sounding the alarm for war.

²⁰ One disaster follows another. The whole land is ruined. My tents are suddenly destroyed. Their curtains are torn in an instant.

²¹ How long must I see the battle flag and hear the sound of rams' horns?

²² "My people are fools. They don't know me. They are stupid people. They don't understand. They are experts in doing wrong, and they don't know how to do good."

²³ I see the earth. It's formless and empty. I see the sky. Its lights are gone.

²⁴ I see the mountains. They are shaking, and the hills are swaying.

²⁵ I see that there are no people, and every bird has flown away.

²⁶ I see that the fertile land has become a desert, and all its cities are torn down because of the LORD and his burning anger.

²⁷ This is what the LORD says: The whole earth will be ruined, although I will not destroy it completely.

²⁸ The earth will mourn, and the sky will grow black. I have spoken, and I have planned it. I won't change my plans, and I won't turn back.

²⁹ All the people in the city will flee at the sound of riders and archers. They will go off into the thickets and climb among the rocks. The entire city will be abandoned, and no one will live in it.

³⁰ You are going to be destroyed! What are you going to do? Why do you dress in red and put on gold jewelry? Why do you wear eye shadow? You are making yourself beautiful for nothing. Your lovers reject you; they want to kill you.

³¹ I hear a woman in labor. I hear the woman cry with anguish as she gives birth to her first child. My people Zion are gasping for breath. They are stretching out their hands, saying, "How horrible it is for us! We're defenseless in the presence of murderers!"

5 ¹ Walk around the streets of Jerusalem. Look around, and think about these things. Search the city squares. See if you can find anyone who does what is right and seeks the truth. Then I will forgive Jerusalem.

² People say, "As the LORD lives...." Yet, they lie when they take this oath.

³ LORD, your eyes look for the truth. You strike these people, but they don't feel it. You crush them, but they refuse to be corrected. They are more stubborn than rocks. They refuse to turn back.

⁴ I thought, "These are poor, foolish people. They don't know the way of the LORD and the justice that God demands.

⁵ Let me go to important people and speak to them. They know the way of the LORD and the justice that God demands." But they, too, had broken off their yokes and torn off their chains.

⁶ That is why a lion from the forest will attack them. A wolf from the wilderness will destroy them. A leopard will lie in ambush outside their cities. All who leave the cities will be torn to pieces, because they rebel so often and they become more and more unfaithful.

⁷ "Why should I forgive you? Your children abandoned me. They took godless oaths. They committed adultery, even though I satisfied their needs. They traveled in crowds to the houses of prostitutes.

⁸ They are like well-fed stallions that are wild with desire. They neigh for their neighbors' wives.

⁹ I will punish them for these things," declares the LORD. "I will punish this nation.

¹⁰ "Go among Jerusalem's rows of grapevines and destroy them, but don't destroy all of them. Cut off the branches because they don't belong to the LORD.

¹¹ The nations of Israel and Judah are unfaithful to me," declares the LORD.

¹² They lie about the LORD and say, "He doesn't exist! Nothing bad will happen to us. We won't experience war or famine.

¹³ The prophets are nothing but windbags. The LORD hasn't spoken through them, so let what they say happen to them."

¹⁴ This is what the LORD God of Armies says: Because you've talked like this, I'm going to put my words in your mouth like a fire. These people will be like wood. My words will burn them up.

¹⁵ Nation of Israel, I'm going to bring a nation from far away to attack you, declares the LORD. It is a nation that has lasted a long time. It is an ancient nation. You don't know the language of this nation. You can't understand what its people say.

¹⁶ Their arrow quivers are like open graves. They are all mighty warriors.

¹⁷ They will devour your harvest and your food. They will devour your sons and your daughters. They will devour your flocks and your cattle. They will devour your grapevines and your fig trees. With their swords they will destroy the fortified cities you trust.

¹⁸ Yet, even in those days, declares the LORD, I won't destroy all of you.

¹⁹ They will ask, "Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?" Answer them, "You have abandoned me and served foreign gods in your land. So you will serve foreigners in a land that isn't yours."

²⁰ "Tell this to the descendants of Jacob, and make this heard in Judah:

²¹ Hear this, you stupid and senseless people! You have eyes, but you cannot see. You have ears, but you cannot hear.

²² Don't you fear me?" asks the LORD. "Don't you tremble in my presence? I made the sand a boundary for the sea, a permanent barrier that it cannot cross. Although the waves toss continuously, they can't break through. Although they roar, they can't cross it.

²³ But these people are stubborn and rebellious. They have turned aside and wandered away from me.

²⁴ They don't say to themselves, 'We should fear the LORD our God. He sends rain at the right time, the autumn rain and the spring rain. He makes sure that we have harvest seasons.'

²⁵ Your wickedness has turned these things away. Your sins have kept good things away from you.

²⁶ "Wicked people are found among my people. They lie in ambush like bird catchers. They set traps and catch people.

²⁷ Like cages filled with birds, their houses are filled with deceit. That is why they become powerful and rich.

²⁸ They grow big and fat. Their evil deeds have no limits. They have no respect for the rights of others. They have no respect for the rights of orphans.

But they still prosper. They don't defend the rights of the poor.

²⁹ I will punish them for these things," declares the LORD. "I will punish this nation.

³⁰ "Something horrible and disgusting is happening in the land:

³¹ Prophets prophesy lies. Priests rule under the prophets' directions, and my people love this. But what will you do in the end?"

6 ¹ "Take cover, people of Benjamin! Run away from Jerusalem! Blow the ram's horn in Tekoa. Raise the flag over Beth Hakkerem, because disaster and widespread destruction are coming from the north.

² "My people Zion are like lovely pastures.

³ With their flocks, shepherds will come to them, pitch their tents all around them, and each of them will tend his own flock.

⁴ The shepherds say, 'Prepare yourselves for war against Zion. Let's attack at noon! How horrible it will be for us. The day is passing, and the shadows of evening are growing longer.

⁵ Let's attack at night and destroy its palaces.'"

⁶ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Cut down its trees. Build up dirt mounds to attack Jerusalem. This city must be punished. There is nothing but oppression in it.

⁷ As a well keeps its water fresh, so Jerusalem keeps its evil fresh. Violence and destruction can be heard in it. I see that it is sick and wounded.

⁸ Pay attention to my warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you. I will make your land desolate, a land where no one will live.

⁹ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Thoroughly pick through the faithful few of Israel like someone picks through a grapevine. Like someone picking grapes, pass your hand over its branches again.

¹¹ I am filled with the anger of the LORD. I am tired of holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street and on the gangs of young men. A man and his wife will be taken away as well as very old people.

¹² Their households, their fields, and their wives will be turned over to others. I will use my power against those who live in the land," declares the LORD.

¹³ "All of them, from the least important to the most important, are eager to make money dishonestly. All of them, from prophets to priests, act deceitfully.

¹⁴ They treat my people's wounds as though they were not serious, saying, 'Everything is alright! Everything is alright!' But it's not alright.

¹⁵ Are they ashamed when they do disgusting things? No, they're not ashamed. They don't even know how to blush. So they will die with those who die. They will be brought down when I punish them," says the LORD.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD says: Stand at the crossroads and look. Ask which paths are the old, reliable paths. Ask which way leads to blessings. Live that way, and find a resting place for yourselves. But you said that you wouldn't live that way.

¹⁷ I posted watchmen over you. Pay attention to the sound of the ram's horn. But you said that you wouldn't pay attention.

¹⁸ Listen, you nations, and learn, you witnesses, what will happen to them.

¹⁹ Listen, earth! I'm going to bring disaster on these people. It is the result of their own plots, because they won't pay attention to my words. They reject my teachings.

²⁰ Incense that comes from Sheba is no good to me. Sugar cane that comes from a distant land is no good to me. I won't accept your burnt offerings. I'm not pleased with your sacrifices.

²¹ This is what the LORD says: I'm going to lay stumbling blocks in front of these people. Parents and children will stumble over them. Neighbors and their friends will die.

²² This is what the LORD says: An army is going to come from the north. A great nation is preparing itself in the distant parts of the earth.

²³ Its people take hold of bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion. They sound like the roaring sea. They ride on horses. They march like soldiers ready for battle against my people Zion.

²⁴ We have heard the news about them. Our hands hang limp. We are gripped by anguish and pain like a woman giving birth to a child.

²⁵ Don't go into the field or walk on the road. The enemy has a sword. Terror is all around.

²⁶ Wear sackcloth, and roll around in ashes, my people. Mourn as if you have lost your only child, and cry bitterly. The destroyer will suddenly attack us.

²⁷ "Jeremiah, I have put you in charge of testing and refining my people. You will know how to test their ways.

²⁸ They are all vicious rebels. They go around slandering. They are all like bronze and iron. They corrupt themselves.

²⁹ The bellows of the blast furnace blow fiercely to make the fire melt away the lead. It is useless to go on refining because the impurities can't be removed.

³⁰ People will call them useless silver because the LORD has rejected them."

7 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

² "Stand at the gate of the LORD'S house, and announce from there this message: 'Listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who go through these gates to worship the LORD.

³ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Change the way you live and act, and I will let you live in this place.

⁴ Do not trust the words of this saying, "This is the LORD'S temple, the LORD'S temple, the LORD'S temple!" It's a lie.

⁵ "'Suppose you really change the way you live and act and you really treat each other fairly.

⁶ Suppose you do not oppress foreigners, orphans, and widows, or kill anyone in this place. And suppose you do not follow other gods that lead you to your own destruction.

⁷ Then I will let you live in this place, in the land that I gave permanently to your ancestors long ago.

⁸ "'You are trusting the words of a saying. It's a lie that cannot help you.

⁹ You steal, murder, commit adultery, lie when you take oaths, burn incense as an offering to Baal, and run after other gods that you do not know.

¹⁰ Then you stand in my presence in the house that is called by my name. You think that you're safe to do all these disgusting things.

¹¹ The house that is called by my name has become a gathering place for thieves. I have seen what you are doing,'" declares the LORD.

¹² "'But go to my place that was at Shiloh, where I first made a dwelling place for my name. See what I did to Shiloh because of the evil done by my people Israel.

¹³ You have done the same things the people did at Shiloh,'" declares the LORD. "'Although I spoke to you again and again, you did not listen. When I called you, you did not answer.

¹⁴ So what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that is called by my name. This is the place I gave to you and to your ancestors, the place where you feel so safe.

¹⁵ I will force you out of my sight as I forced out all your relatives, all of Ephraim's descendants.'

¹⁶ "Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. Don't cry or pray for them. Don't plead with me, because I will not listen to you.

¹⁷ Don't you see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁸ Children gather wood, fathers light fires, and women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven. They pour out wine offerings to other gods in order to make me furious.

¹⁹ They aren't really provoking me," declares the LORD. "But they are harming themselves to their own shame.

²⁰ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: My anger and fury will be poured out on this place, on humans and animals, and on trees and crops. My anger and fury will burn and not be put out.

²¹ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the meat.

²² When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not tell them anything about burnt offerings and sacrifices.

²³ But I did tell them this, 'Obey me, and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Live the way I told you to live so that things will go well for you.'

²⁴ But they didn't obey me or pay attention to me. They followed their own plans and their stubborn, evil ways. They went backward and not forward.

²⁵ From the time that your ancestors left Egypt until now, I have sent all my servants the prophets to you again and again.

²⁶ But you didn't obey me or pay attention to me. You became impossible to deal with, and you were worse than your ancestors.

²⁷ "Jeremiah, you will say all these things to them, but they will not obey you. You will call to them, but they will not respond to you.

²⁸ You will say to them, 'This is the nation that did not obey the LORD their God. They did not accept discipline. Truth has disappeared and vanished from their lips.'

²⁹ "Cut off your hair and throw it away. Sing a song of mourning on the bare hills, because in his anger the LORD has rejected and abandoned the people of this generation.

³⁰ The people of Judah have done what I consider evil," declares the LORD." They set up their detestable idols in the house that is called by my name. They have made it unclean.

³¹ They have built worship sites at Topheth in the valley of Ben Hinnom in order to burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices. I did not ask for this. It never entered my mind.

³² "That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when that place will no longer be known as Topheth or the valley of Ben Hinnom. Instead, it will be known as Slaughter Valley. They will bury people at Topheth because no other place will be left.

³³ The dead bodies of these people will become food for birds and animals, and no one will be there to frighten them away.

³⁴ In the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, I will banish the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms, because the land will be a wasteland."

8 ¹ The LORD declares, "At that time the bones of the kings and the leaders of Judah, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the others who lived in Jerusalem will be taken out of their graves.

² They will be spread out and exposed to the sun, the moon, and all the stars in the sky. These are the things that they had loved, served, gone after, sought, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered or buried, but they will become manure on the ground.

³ "Then the few who remain from these wicked people will want to die rather than live where I will scatter them," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁴ "Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: When someone falls, he gets back up. When someone turns away from me, he returns.

⁵ The people of Jerusalem turned away from me without ever returning. They still cling to deceit. They refuse to return.

⁶ I have paid attention and listened, but they weren't honest. They don't turn away from their wickedness and ask, "What have we done?" They go their own ways like horses charging into battle.

⁷ Even storks know when it's time to return. Mourning doves, swallows, and cranes know when it's time to migrate. But my people don't know that I, the LORD, am urging them to return.

⁸ "'How can you say that you are wise and that you have the LORD'S teachings? The scribes have used their pens to turn these teachings into lies.

⁹ Wise people are put to shame, confused, and trapped. They have rejected the word of the LORD. They don't really have any wisdom.

¹⁰ That is why I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. All of them, from the least important to the most important, are eager to make money dishonestly. All of them, from prophets to priests, act deceitfully.

¹¹ They treat my dear people's wounds as though they were not serious, saying, "Everything is alright! Everything is alright!" But it's not alright.

¹² Are they ashamed that they do disgusting things? No, they're not ashamed. They don't even know how to blush. So they will die with those who die. They will be brought down when I punish them," says the LORD.

¹³ "I would have gathered their harvest," declares the LORD, "but there are no grapes on the vine. There are no figs on the tree, and the leaves have dried up. What I have given them will be taken away.'"

¹⁴ Why are we just sitting here? Let's get up! Let's go into the fortified cities and die there. The LORD our God has condemned us to die. He has given us poison to drink because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵ We hoped for peace, but nothing good has happened. We hoped for a time of healing, but there's only terror.

¹⁶ The snorting of horses can be heard from Dan. The neighing of stallions makes the whole land tremble. They are coming to devour the land and everything in it, the city and its people.

¹⁷ "I am going to send snakes among you, vipers that can't be charmed. They will bite you," declares the LORD.

¹⁸ Sorrow has overwhelmed me. I am sick at heart!

¹⁹ The cry from my dear people comes from a distant land: "Isn't the LORD in Zion? Isn't Zion's king still there?" They make me furious with their idols, with their foreign gods.

²⁰ The harvest is past, the summer has ended, and we haven't been saved.

²¹ I am crushed because my dear people have been crushed. I mourn; terror grips me.

²² Isn't there medicine in Gilead? Aren't there doctors there? Then why hasn't the health of my dear people been restored?

9¹ "I wish that my head were filled with water and my eyes were a fountain of tears so that I could cry day and night for my dear people who have been killed.

² I wish I had a place to stay in the desert. I would abandon my people and go away from them. They are all adulterers, a mob of traitors.

³ They use their tongues like bows that shoot arrows. Lies and dishonesty rule the land. They go from one evil thing to another, and they don't know me," declares the LORD.

⁴ "Beware of your neighbors. Don't trust your relatives. Every relative cheats. Every neighbor goes around slandering.

⁵ Everyone cheats his neighbor. No one speaks the truth. My people train their tongues to speak lies. They wear themselves out doing wrong.

⁶ Oppression follows oppression. Deceit follows deceit. They refuse to acknowledge me," declares the LORD.

⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: I will now refine them with fire and test them. What else can I do for my dear people?

⁸ Their tongues are like deadly arrows. They speak deceitfully. People speak politely to their neighbors, but they think of ways to set traps for them.

⁹ I will punish them for these things, declares the LORD. I will punish this nation. I still won't be satisfied.

¹⁰ I will cry and weep for the mountains. I will sing a funeral song for the pastures in the wilderness. They are destroyed so that no one can travel through them. No one can hear the sound of cattle. Birds and cattle have fled. They are gone.

¹¹ I will turn Jerusalem into a pile of rubble, a home for jackals. I will destroy the cities of Judah so that no one can live there.

¹² No one is wise enough to understand this. To whom has the LORD revealed this so that they can explain it? The land dies; it has been ruined like the desert so that no one can travel through it.

¹³ The LORD answered, "They've abandoned my teachings that I placed in front of them. They didn't obey me, and they didn't follow them.

¹⁴ They followed their own stubborn ways and other gods—the Baals, as their ancestors taught them."

¹⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to feed these people bitterness and give them poison to drink.

¹⁶ I will scatter them among nations that they and their ancestors haven't heard of. I will send armies after them until I've wiped them out.

¹⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Consider this: Call for the women who cry at funerals. Send for those who are the most skilled.

¹⁸ They should come quickly and cry for us. Our eyes will run with tears. Our eyelids will flow with water.

¹⁹ The sound of crying is heard from Zion. "We're ruined! We're very ashamed. We must leave our land because our homes have been torn down."

²⁰ Listen to the word of the LORD, you women, and open your ears to hear his words. Teach your daughters how to cry. Teach your neighbors funeral songs.

²¹ Death has come through our windows and entered our palaces. Death has cut down the children in the streets and the young men in the market places.

²² This is what the LORD says: Dead bodies will fall like manure on the field. They will be like grain that has been cut but not gathered.

²³ This is what the LORD says: Don't let wise people brag about their wisdom. Don't let strong people brag about their strength. Don't let rich people brag about their riches.

²⁴ If they want to brag, they should brag that they understand and know me. They should brag that I, the LORD, act out of love, righteousness, and justice on the earth. This kind of bragging pleases me, declares the LORD.

²⁵ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish all who are circumcised.

²⁶ I will punish Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, and Moab. I will punish all who shave the hair on their foreheads or live in the desert. Even though these nations are circumcised, all Israel has uncircumcised hearts."

10 ¹ Listen to the message that the LORD has spoken to you, nation of Israel.

² This is what the LORD says: Don't learn the practices of the nations. Don't be frightened by the signs in the sky because the nations are frightened by them.

³ The religion of the people is worthless. Woodcutters cut down trees from the forest. The hands of craftsmen prepare them with axes.

⁴ Craftsmen decorate them with silver and gold and fasten them together with hammers and nails so that they won't fall over.

⁵ These trees are like scarecrows in cucumber gardens. They aren't able to speak. They have to be carried, because they can't walk. Don't be afraid of them. They can't harm you. They can't do you any good either.

⁶ No one is like you, O LORD. You are great. Your name is powerful.

⁷ Everyone fears you, O King of the Nations. This is what you deserve. No one is like you among all the wise people in the nations or in all their kingdoms.

⁸ They are complete idiots. They learn nonsense from wooden idols.

⁹ Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. Craftsmen and goldsmiths shape these metals. The clothing for the idols is blue and purple, all made by skilled workers.

¹⁰ But the LORD is the only God. He is the living God and eternal king. The earth trembles when he is angry. The nations can't endure his fury.

¹¹ Tell them this: These gods will disappear from the earth and from under heaven because they didn't make heaven and earth.

¹² The LORD made the earth by his power. He set up the world by his skill. He stretched out the world by his understanding.

¹³ He speaks, and the water in the sky produces a storm. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning flash with the rain. He brings wind out of his storehouses.

¹⁴ Everyone is stupid and ignorant. Metalsmiths are put to shame by their idols. Their statues are false gods. They can't breathe.

¹⁵ They are worthless jokes. When they are punished, they disappear.

¹⁶ Jacob's God isn't like them. He made everything, and Israel is the tribe that belongs to him. His name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁷ Pick up your bags. You are being blockaded.

¹⁸ This is what the LORD says: I am going to throw out those who live in the land at this time and cause trouble for them so that they will feel it.

¹⁹ Oh, I'm wounded! My wound is serious. Then I thought that this is my punishment, and I will bear it.

²⁰ My tent is destroyed, and all my ropes are broken. My children have left me and have disappeared. There's no one to set up my tent again or put up my tent curtains.

²¹ The shepherds are foolish. They don't look to the LORD for help. That is why they won't succeed, and all their flocks will be scattered.

²² The report has arrived. A tremendous uproar is coming from the land of the north. Its army will destroy Judah's cities and make them homes for jackals.

²³ O LORD, I know that the way humans act is not under their control. Humans do not direct their steps as they walk.

²⁴ Correct me, O LORD, but please be fair. Don't correct me when you're angry. Otherwise, you'll reduce me to nothing.

²⁵ Pour out your fury on the nations who don't know you and on people who don't worship you. They have devoured the descendants of Jacob. They have devoured them completely. They have destroyed their homes.

11 ¹ This is the message that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah. He said, ² "Listen to the terms of this promise, and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem.

³ Say to them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is anyone who doesn't listen to the terms of this promise.

⁴ I made this promise to your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, which was an iron smelter. I said, "Obey me, and do everything that I have told you to do. Then you will be my people, and I will be your God.

⁵ I will keep the oath I made to your ancestors and give them a land flowing with milk and honey, the land you still have today.'" I answered, "Yes, LORD."

⁶ The LORD said to me, "Announce all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: Listen to the terms of this promise, and keep them.

⁷ I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, and the warning still applies to you today. I solemnly warned them to obey me.

⁸ But they didn't obey me or pay attention to me. They followed their own stubborn, evil ways. So I punished them, because they did not keep all the terms of the promise, the terms that I commanded them to keep."

⁹ The LORD said to me, "Conspiracy exists among the people of Judah and among those who live in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ They've gone back to the evil ways of their ancestors and refused to obey my words. They are following other gods and worshiping them. The nations of Israel and Judah have rejected the promise that I made to their ancestors.

¹¹ This is what the LORD says: I'm going to bring a disaster on them that they can't escape. Although they will cry out to me, I won't listen to them.

¹² Then the cities of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem will cry to the gods to whom they've been sacrificing. But these gods will never rescue them when they're in trouble.

¹³ Judah, you have as many gods as you have cities. You have set up many altars in Jerusalem to sacrifice to Baal. You have as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. Don't cry or pray for them. I won't listen when they call to me for help in times of trouble.

¹⁵ "What right do these people I love have to be in my house when they do so many devious things? Can the meat from their sacrifices turn disaster away from them? They rejoice when they do evil."

¹⁶ The LORD called you a large olive tree that has beautiful fruit to look at. He will set fire to you with a mighty storm, and your branches will be broken.

¹⁷ The LORD of Armies planted you. He has pronounced disaster on you. This is because of the evil things that Israel and Judah have done. They have made him furious by burning incense as an offering to Baal.

¹⁸ The LORD revealed their plot to me so that I would understand. He showed me what they were doing.

¹⁹ I was like a trusting lamb brought to the slaughter. I didn't know that they were plotting against me. They were saying, "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit. Let's cut Jeremiah off from this world of the living so that we won't be reminded of him anymore."

²⁰ O LORD of Armies, you judge fairly and test motives and thoughts. I want to see you take revenge on them, because I've brought my case to you.

²¹ This is what the LORD says: The people of Anathoth want to kill you. They say, "Don't prophesy in the name of the LORD, or we'll kill you."

²² This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm going to punish them. The young men will die because of war. Their sons and daughters will die because of famine.

²³ I will bring a disaster on the people of Anathoth. It will be a year of punishment. There will be no survivors.

12 ¹ O LORD, even if I would argue my case with you, you would always be right. Yet, I want to talk to you about your justice. Why do wicked people succeed? Why do treacherous people have peace and quiet?

² You plant them, and they take root. They grow, and they produce fruit. They speak well of you with their lips, but their hearts are far from you.

³ You know me, O LORD. You see me and test my devotion to you. Drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered. Prepare them for the day of slaughter.

⁴ How long will the land mourn? How long will the plants in every field remain dried up? The animals and the birds are dying, because people are wicked. They think that God doesn't know what they are doing.

⁵ "If you have raced against others on foot, and they have tired you out, how can you compete with horses? If you stumble in open country, how can you live in the jungle along the Jordan River?

⁶ Even your relatives and members of your father's household betray you. They have also formed a mob to find you. Don't trust them when they say good things about you.

⁷ "I have abandoned my nation. I have left my own people. I have handed the people I love over to their enemies.

⁸ My people have turned on me like a lion in the forest. They roar at me, so I hate them.

⁹ My people are like a colorful bird of prey. Other birds of prey surround it. Go, gather all the animals in the field, and bring them to devour it.

¹⁰ Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They've trampled my property. They've turned my pleasant property into a wasteland.

¹¹ They've left it a wasteland. Devastated, it mourns in my presence.

The whole land is destroyed, but no one takes this to heart.

¹² Looters swarm all over the bare hills in the desert. The LORD'S sword destroys them from one end of the land to the other. No one will be safe.

¹³ My people planted wheat, but they harvested thorns. They worked until they became sick, but they gained nothing by it. They were disappointed by their harvests because of the burning anger of the LORD.

¹⁴ "This is what I, the LORD, say about all my evil neighbors who take the inheritance that I gave my people Israel: I am going to uproot those neighbors from their lands. I will also uproot the people of Judah from among them.

¹⁵ After I've uprooted them, I will have compassion on them again. I will return them to their inheritance and to their lands.

¹⁶ Suppose they learn carefully the ways of my people. Suppose they take an oath in my name, 'As the LORD lives...' as they taught my people to take an oath in the name of Baal. Then they will build homes among my people.

¹⁷ But suppose they don't listen. Then I will uproot that nation and destroy it," declares the LORD.

13 ¹ This is what the LORD said to me: "Buy a linen belt. Put it around your waist. Don't let it get wet."

² So I bought the belt, as the LORD had told me, and put it around my waist.

³ The LORD spoke his word to me again. He said,

⁴ "Take the belt that you bought, the one you're wearing. Go to the Euphrates River, and bury it there in a crack in the rocks."

⁵ So I went and buried it by the Euphrates, as the LORD had told me.

⁶ After many days the LORD said to me, "Go to the Euphrates, and get the belt from where I told you to bury it."

⁷ So I went back to the Euphrates and dug it up. I got the belt from where I had buried it. Now the belt was ruined. It was good for nothing.

⁹ "This is what the LORD says: This is how I will destroy Judah's arrogance and Jerusalem's extreme arrogance.

¹⁰ These wicked people refuse to listen to me. They go their own stubborn ways and follow other gods in order to serve them and worship them. They are like this good-for-nothing belt.

¹¹ As a belt clings to a person's waist, so I have made the entire nation of Israel and the entire nation of Judah cling to me," declares the LORD. "I did this so that they would be my people and bring fame, praise, and honor to me. However, they wouldn't listen.

¹² "Give this message to them, 'This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Every bottle will be filled with wine.' Then they will say to you, 'We know that every bottle will be filled with wine.'

¹³ Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: I'm going to make everyone who lives in this land drunk. The kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all those who live in Jerusalem will become drunk.

¹⁴ Then I will smash them like bottles against each other. I will smash parents and children together, declares the LORD. I will have no pity, mercy, or compassion when I destroy them.'"

¹⁵ Listen, and pay attention! Don't be arrogant. The LORD has spoken.

¹⁶ Honor the LORD your God before it gets dark, before your feet stumble on the mountains in the twilight. You will look for light, but the LORD will turn it into the shadow of death and change it into deep darkness.

¹⁷ If you won't listen, I will cry secretly over your arrogance. I will cry bitterly, and my eyes will flow with tears because the LORD'S flock will be taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and his mother, "Come down from your thrones, because your crowns have fallen off your heads."

¹⁹ The cities in the Negev will be locked up, and there will be no one to reopen them. All the people of Judah will be taken away into captivity.

²⁰ Look up, and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you—your beautiful sheep?

²¹ What will you say when God makes the people you thought were your friends your new masters? Won't pain grip you like a woman in labor?

²² If you ask yourself, "Why do these things happen to me?" it's because you have so many sins. Your clothes have been torn off and your limbs are bare.

²³ Can Ethiopians change the color of their skin or leopards change their spots? Can you do good when you're taught to do wrong?

²⁴ "I will scatter you like straw that is blown away by a desert wind.

²⁵ This is your fate, the destiny I have planned for you," declares the LORD. "You have forgotten me and trusted false gods.

²⁶ I will also tear off your clothes, and your shame will be seen.

²⁷ I have seen you commit adultery and squeal with delight. I have seen you act like a shameless prostitute on the hills and in the fields. How horrible it will be for you, Jerusalem! Will you ever be clean?"

14 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about the drought.

² Judah mourns; its gates fall apart. The people of Judah sit in mourning on the ground. Their cry goes up from Jerusalem.

³ Important people send their assistants out for water. They go to the cisterns, but they don't find any water. They come back with their containers empty. They cover their heads, because they are ashamed and disgraced.

⁴ The ground is cracked because there has been no rain in the land. The farmers are disappointed. They cover their heads.

⁵ Even deer in the fields give birth and abandon their young because there's no grass.

⁶ Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills. They sniff the air like jackals. Their eyesight fails because they have no green plants.

⁷ Do something, LORD, for the sake of your name, even though our sins testify against us. We have been unfaithful and have sinned against you.

⁸ You are Israel's hope, the one who saves it in times of trouble. Why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who stays only one night?

⁹ Why should you be like someone taken by surprise, like a strong man who cannot help? You, O LORD, are among us. We are called by your name. Don't leave us!

¹⁰ This is what the LORD says about these people: They love to wander. They don't keep their feet where they belong. So the LORD isn't happy with them. He will remember their crimes and punish their sins.

¹¹ The LORD said to me, "Don't pray for the good of these people.

¹² Even if they go without food, I won't listen to their cries for help. Even if they sacrifice burnt offerings and grain offerings, I won't be pleased with them. But I will destroy these people with wars, famines, and plagues."

¹³ Then I said, "Almighty LORD, prophets are saying to them, 'You won't see wars or famines, because I, the LORD, will give you lasting peace in this place.'"

¹⁴ Then the LORD told me, "These are the lies that the prophets are telling in my name: They claim that I sent them, commanded them, and spoke to them. They dreamed up the visions they tell you. Their predictions are worthless.

They are the products of their own imagination.

¹⁵ "I didn't send these prophets. Yet, they prophesy in my name that there will be no wars or famines in this land. So this is what I, the LORD, say about them: Wars and famines will bring an end to these prophets.

¹⁶ The people they prophesy to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem. They will be victims of famines and wars. No one will bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. I will pour on them the destruction that they deserve.

¹⁷ "Say this to them: 'My eyes flow with tears day and night without stopping because my dear people will suffer massive destruction. It will be a very serious blow.'

¹⁸ If I go to the field, I see those killed because of war. If I go to the city, I see those sick because of famine. Prophets and priests wander through a land they haven't heard of.

¹⁹ Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you despise Zion? Why have you struck us so hard that we cannot heal? We hope for peace, but no good comes from it. We hope for a time of healing, but there's only terror.

²⁰ O LORD, we realize our wickedness and the wrongs done by our ancestors. We have sinned against you.

²¹ For the sake of your name, don't despise us. Don't dishonor your glorious throne. Remember your promise to us; don't break it.

²² The worthless gods of the nations can't make it rain. By themselves, the skies can't give showers. But you can, O LORD our God. We have hope in you because you do all these things.

15 ¹ Then the LORD said to me,
"Even if Moses and Samuel were standing in front of me, I would not feel sorry for these people. Send them away from me, and let them go.

² When they ask you where they should go, say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: Those who are destined to die will die. Those who are destined to die in wars will die in wars. Those who are destined to die in famines will die in famines. Those who are destined to die in captivity will die in captivity.'

³ "I will devise four ways to punish them," declares the LORD. "I will send swords to kill, dogs to drag away, and birds and animals to devour and destroy.

⁴ I will make these people a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms on the earth. This will happen because of what Judah's King Manasseh, son of Hezekiah, did in Jerusalem.

⁵ No one will take pity on you, Jerusalem. No one will mourn for you.

No one will bother to ask how you are doing.

⁶ "You have left me," declares the LORD. "You have turned your back on me. So I will use my power against you and destroy you. I'm tired of showing compassion to you.

⁷ "I will separate them with a winnowing shovel at the city gates. I will make them childless. I will destroy my people because they will not change their ways.

⁸ Their widows will be more numerous than the grains of sand on the seashore. At noontime I will send a destroyer against the mothers of young men. I will suddenly bring anguish and terror to them.

⁹ A mother who gives birth to seven sons will grow faint and breathe her last. She will die, ashamed and humiliated, while it is still daylight. I will put survivors from these people to death in the presence of their enemies," declares the LORD.

¹⁰ I'm so miserable! Why did my mother give birth to me? I am a man who argues and quarrels with the whole earth. I have never lent or borrowed anything. Yet, everyone curses me.

¹¹ The LORD said, "I will certainly rescue you for a good reason. I will certainly make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and in times of distress.

¹² (No one can break iron, iron from the north, or bronze.)

¹³ I will give away your wealth and treasures as loot as the price for all the sins that you have committed throughout your territory.

¹⁴ I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you haven't heard of, because my anger has started a fire. It will burn you."

¹⁵ O LORD, you understand. Remember me, take care of me, and take revenge on those who persecute me. Be patient, and don't take me away. You should know that I've been insulted because of you.

¹⁶ Your words were found, and I devoured them. Your words are my joy and my heart's delight, because I am called by your name, O LORD God of Armies.

¹⁷ I didn't keep company with those who laugh and have fun. I sat alone because your hand was on me. You filled me with outrage.

¹⁸ Why is my pain unending and my wound incurable, refusing to heal? Will you disappoint me like a stream that dries up in summertime?

¹⁹ This is what the LORD says: If you will return, I will take you back. If you will speak what is worthwhile and not what is worthless, you will stand in my presence. The people will return to you, but you will not return to them.

²⁰ I will make you like a solid bronze wall in front of these people. They will fight you, but they will not defeat you. I am with you, and I will save you and rescue you, declares the LORD.

²¹ I will rescue you from the power of wicked people and free you from the power of tyrants.

16 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Don't marry! Don't have any sons or daughters in this place!

³ This is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this place and about the mothers and fathers who have children in this land:

⁴ They will die horrible deaths. No one will mourn for them or bury them. They will be like manure on the ground. Wars and famines will bring them to an end. Their bodies will be food for birds and animals.

⁵ "This is what the LORD says: Don't go into a house where people are grieving. Don't go to mourn or to grieve for them. I'm taking my peace, love, and compassion away from these people," declares the LORD.

⁶ "Old and young alike will die in this land. No one will mourn for them or bury them. No one will cut his own body or shave his own head for them.

⁷ No one will offer food to comfort those who mourn the dead. No one will give a consoling drink to those who have lost their fathers or mothers.

⁸ "Don't even go into a home where there is a banquet. Don't sit with them to eat and drink.

⁹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to put a stop to the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms in this place. This will happen in your lifetime, while you watch.

¹⁰ "When you tell the people all these things, they will ask you, 'Why does the LORD threaten us with all these disasters? What have we done wrong? How have we sinned against the LORD our God?'

¹¹ Then say to them, 'It's because your ancestors abandoned me, declares the LORD. They followed other gods, served them, worshiped them, and abandoned me. They didn't obey my teachings.

¹² You have done worse than your ancestors. All of you are following your own stubborn, evil ways that keep you from obeying me.

¹³ So I will throw you out of this land into a land that you and your ancestors haven't heard of. There you will serve other gods day and night because I will no longer have pity on you.'

¹⁴ "That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when people will no longer begin an oath with, 'The LORD brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. As the LORD lives....'

¹⁵ But they will say, 'The LORD brought the people of Israel out of the land of the north and all the lands where he had scattered them. As the LORD lives....' They will say this because I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors.

¹⁶ "I'm going to send for many fishermen," declares the LORD, "and they will catch the people of Israel. After that, I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt for them on every mountain and hill and even in the cracks in the rocks.

¹⁷ I see everything that they do. They can't hide anything from me. Their wickedness can't be hidden; I can see it.

¹⁸ First, I will have them pay twice as much for their wickedness and their sin, because they have polluted my land. They have filled my property with the lifeless statues of their detestable and disgusting idols."

¹⁹ The LORD is my strength and my fortress, my refuge in times of trouble. Nations come to you from the most distant parts of the world and say, "Our ancestors have inherited lies, worthless and unprofitable gods."

²⁰ "People can't make gods for themselves. They aren't really gods.

²¹ That is what I will teach them. This time I will make my power and my strength known to them. Then they will know that my name is the LORD."

17 ¹ The LORD says, "Judah's sin is written with an iron pen. It is engraved with a diamond point on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.

² Even their children remember their altars and their poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah beside large trees on high hills

³ and on mountains in the open country. I will turn your wealth and all your treasures into loot. I will do this because of your worship sites and your sin throughout all your territory.

⁴ You will lose the inheritance that I gave you. I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you haven't heard of. I will do this because you have stirred up the fire of my anger. It will burn forever.

⁵ "This is what the LORD says: Cursed is the person who trusts humans, who makes flesh and blood his strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD.

⁶ He will be like a bush in the wilderness. He will not see when something good comes. He will live in the dry places in the desert, in a salty land where no one can live.

⁷ Blessed is the person who trusts the LORD. The LORD will be his confidence.

⁸ He will be like a tree that is planted by water. It will send its roots down to a stream. It will not be afraid in the heat of summer. Its leaves will turn green. It will not be anxious during droughts. It will not stop producing fruit.

⁹ "The human mind is the most deceitful of all things. It is incurable. No one can understand how deceitful it is.

¹⁰ I, the LORD, search minds and test hearts. I will reward each person for what he has done. I will reward him for the results of his actions.

¹¹ A person who gets rich dishonestly is like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay. During his lifetime, he will lose his wealth. In the end, he will be a godless fool."

¹² Our holy place is a glorious throne, highly honored from the beginning.

¹³ O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all who abandon you will be put to shame. Those who turn away from you will be written in dust, because they abandon the LORD, the fountain of life—giving water.

¹⁴ Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed. Rescue me, and I will be rescued. You are the one I praise.

¹⁵ People keep asking me, "Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come."

¹⁶ I have not run away from being your shepherd, and I have not longed for the day of destruction. You know what came out of my mouth.

¹⁷ Do not terrorize me. You are my refuge on the day of disaster.

¹⁸ Put my persecutors to shame, but do not let me be put to shame. Terrify them, but do not let me be terrified. Bring the day of disaster on them, and destroy them completely.

¹⁹ This is what the LORD said to me: Stand at People's Gate, where the kings of Judah go in and out. Then stand at every gate in Jerusalem.

²⁰ Tell everyone: "Listen to the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, all the people of Judah, and all those who live in Jerusalem, and go through these gates.

²¹ This is what the LORD says: Watch out! If you value your lives, do not carry anything on the day of worship or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.

²² Do not bring anything out of your homes on the day of worship. Do not do any work, but observe the day of worship as a holy day, as I told your ancestors.

²³ Your ancestors did not obey me or pay attention to me. They were impossible to deal with and would not listen or accept discipline.

²⁴ "Now," declares the LORD, "you must listen to me and not bring anything through the gates of this city on the day of worship. You must observe the day of worship as a holy day by not doing any work on it.

²⁵ If you do this, then the kings and princes who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this city. They and their princes will ride in chariots and on horses along with the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. This city will always have people living in it.

²⁶ "People will come from the cities of Judah, from all around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin, from the foothills, from the mountains, and from the Negev. They will bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, and incense. They will also bring thank offerings to the LORD'S temple.

²⁷ But you must listen to me and observe the day of worship as a holy day by not carrying anything through the gates of Jerusalem on the day of worship. If you don't do this, I will set its gates on fire. The fire will burn down the palaces in Jerusalem, and you won't be able to put it out."

18 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

² "Go to the potter's house. There I will give you my message."

³ I went to the potter's house, and he was working there at his wheel.

⁴ Whenever a clay pot he was working on was ruined, he would rework it into a new clay pot the way he wanted to make it.

⁵ The LORD spoke his word to me. The LORD asked,

⁶ "Nation of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter does with clay? Nation of Israel, you are like the clay in the potter's hands.

⁷ "At one time I may threaten to tear up, break down, and destroy a nation or a kingdom.

⁸ But suppose the nation that I threatened turns away from doing wrong. Then I will change my plans about the disaster I planned to do to it.

⁹ "At another time I may promise to build and plant a nation or a kingdom.

¹⁰ But suppose that nation does what I consider evil and doesn't obey me. Then I will change my plans about the good that I promised to do to it.

¹¹ "Now say to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: I'm going to prepare a disaster and make plans against you. Turn from your evil ways, change your lives, and do good.'

¹² "But they will answer, 'It's useless! We'll live the way we want to. We'll go our own stubborn, evil ways.'

¹³ "This is what the LORD says: Ask among the nations if anyone has ever heard anything like this. The people of Israel have done a very horrible thing.

¹⁴ The rocky slopes of Lebanon are never without snow. The cool mountain streams never dry up.

¹⁵ But my people have forgotten me. They burn incense as an offering to worthless idols, and they stumble along the way, on the ancient path. They go on side roads and not on major highways.

¹⁶ Their land will become desolate and something to be hissed at forever. Everyone who will pass by it will be stunned and shake his head.

¹⁷ Like the east wind I will scatter them in front of the enemy. On the day of their disaster, I will show them my back, not my face."

¹⁸ Then they said, "Let's plot against Jeremiah, because the teachings of the priests, the advice of wise people, and the word of the prophets won't disappear. Accuse him! Pay no attention to anything he says."

¹⁹ Pay attention to me, O LORD, and listen to what my accusers say.

²⁰ Good should not be paid back with evil. They dig a pit to take my life. Remember how I stood in your presence and pleaded for them in order to turn your anger away from them.

²¹ Now, hand their children over to famine. Pour out their blood by using your sword. Then their wives will become childless widows. Their husbands will be put to death. Their young men will be struck down in battle.

²² Make them cry out from their homes when you suddenly send troops against them, because they dug a pit to catch me and hid snares for my feet.

²³ But you, O LORD, know that they plan to kill me. Don't forgive their crimes. Don't wipe their sins out of your sight. Make them stumble in your presence. Deal with them when you get angry.

19 ¹ This is what the LORD says: Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the leaders of the people and some of the leaders of the priests.

² Go to the valley of Ben Hinnom at the entrance to Potsherd Gate. Announce there the things I plan to do.

³ Say, "Listen to the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring such a disaster on this place that the ears of everyone who hears about it will ring.

⁴ "The people, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have abandoned me. They have made this place unrecognizable by burning incense as an offering to other gods that they hadn't heard of. They have filled this place with the blood of innocent people.

⁵ They have built worship sites to burn their children as sacrifices to Baal. I didn't ask them or command them to do this. It never entered my mind.

⁶ "That is why the days are coming, declares the LORD, when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben Hinnom. Instead, it will be called Slaughter Valley.

⁷ I will smash the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will cut them down with swords in front of their enemies and with the hands of those who want to kill them. I will give their bodies as food to birds and to animals.

⁸ I will devastate this city. It will become something to hiss at. Everyone who goes by it will be stunned and hiss with contempt at all the disasters that happen to it.

⁹ I will make the people eat the flesh of their sons and daughters. They will eat each other's flesh during blockades and hardships that their enemies impose on them when they want to kill them."

¹⁰ The LORD says, "Then smash the jar in front of the men who went with you.

¹¹ Say to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: I will smash these people and this city as this potter's jar was smashed beyond repair. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there's no other place to bury them.

¹² That's what I will do to this place and to those who live in it, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth.

¹³ The houses in Jerusalem, the houses of the kings of Judah, and all the rooftops of the houses will be unclean like this city Topheth. This is because people burned incense to the entire army of heaven and poured out wine offerings to other gods.'"

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah left Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of the LORD'S temple and said to all the people,

¹⁵ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring on this city and on all its towns the disasters that I threatened. They've become impossible to deal with, and they refuse to obey me."

20 ¹ Now the priest, Immer's son Pashhur, the chief officer of the LORD'S temple, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

² Pashhur struck the prophet Jeremiah and put him in prison at Upper Benjamin Gate that was in the LORD'S temple.

³ The next day when Pashhur took Jeremiah out of prison, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD doesn't call you Pashhur, but he calls you Terror Everywhere.

⁴ This is what the LORD says: I'm going to make you terrify yourself and all your friends. Their enemies' swords will kill them, and you will see it with your own eyes. I will hand all of Judah over to the king of Babylon. He will take the people away as captives to Babylon or kill them with swords.

⁵ I will hand all the riches of this city over to their enemies. This will include all its produce, all its valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. Their enemies will loot them, take them away, and bring them to Babylon.

⁶ And you, Pashhur, and all those who live in your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon, and you will die there. You will be buried there together with all your friends to whom you prophesied these lies."

⁷ O LORD, you have deceived me, and I was deceived. You overpowered me and won. I've been made fun of all day long. Everyone mocks me.

⁸ Each time I speak, I have to cry out and shout, "Violence and destruction!" The word of the LORD has made me the object of insults and contempt all day long.

⁹ I think to myself, "I can forget the LORD and no longer speak his name." But his word is inside me like a burning fire shut up in my bones. I wear myself out holding it in, but I can't do it any longer.

¹⁰ I have heard many people whispering, "Terror is everywhere! Report him! Let's report him!" All my closest friends are waiting to see me stumble. They say, "Maybe he will be tricked. Then we can overpower him and take revenge on him."

¹¹ But the LORD is on my side like a terrifying warrior. That is why those who persecute me will stumble. They can't win. They will be very ashamed that they can't succeed. Their eternal shame will not be forgotten.

¹² But the LORD of Armies examines the righteous. He sees their motives and thoughts. I want to see you take revenge on them, because I've brought my case to you.

¹³ Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD! He has rescued the lives of needy people from the power of wicked people.

¹⁴ Cursed is the day that I was born, the day that my mother gave birth to me. May it not be blessed.

¹⁵ Cursed is the man who made my father very happy with the news that he had just become the father of a baby boy.

¹⁶ May that man be like the cities that the LORD destroyed without pity. May he hear a cry of alarm in the morning and a battle cry at noon.

¹⁷ If only he had killed me while I was in the womb. Then my mother would have been my grave, and she would have always been pregnant.

¹⁸ Why did I come out of the womb? All I've seen is trouble and grief. I will finish my days in shame.

21 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur, son of Malchiah, and the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah. They said,

² "Consult the LORD for us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the LORD will perform miracles for us so that Nebuchadnezzar will retreat."

³ Jeremiah responded to them, "This is what you should say to Zedekiah,

⁴ 'This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I'm going to take your weapons away from you. You are using these weapons to fight the king of Babylon as well as the Babylonians who are now blockading you outside the wall. I will bring the Babylonians inside this city.

⁵ I will fight you in anger, fury, and rage with my powerful hand and my mighty arm.

⁶ I will defeat those who live in this city, both people and animals. They will die from a terrible plague.

⁷ Afterwards, declares the LORD, I will hand over Judah's King Zedekiah, his officials, the people, and everyone else in this city who survives the plague, war, and famine. They will be handed over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to their enemies who want to kill them. Nebuchadnezzar will kill them with swords. He won't spare them, show them compassion, or care for them.'

⁸ "Say to these people, 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to give you the choice of life or death.

⁹ Those who live in this city will die in the war, famine, or plague. Those of you who go out and surrender to the Babylonians will live. You will escape with your lives.

¹⁰ I've decided to harm this city, not to do good to it, declares the LORD. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.'

¹¹ "Say to the nation of the king of Judah, 'Listen to the word of the LORD,

¹³ "'I'm against you, Jerusalem. You are the city that is in the valley and on the rock in the plain,'" declares the LORD.

"But you ask, "Who can attack us? Who can enter our places of refuge?"

¹⁴ "'I will punish you because of the evil things you have done,'" declares the LORD. "'I will start a fire in your forests, and it will burn up everything around you.'"

22 ¹ This is what the LORD says: Go to the palace of the king of Judah, and speak this message there:

² "Listen to the word of the LORD, you officials, you people who come into these gates, and you, king of Judah, the one sitting on David's throne.

³ "This is what the LORD says: Judge fairly, and do what is right. Rescue those who have been robbed from those who oppress them. Don't mistreat foreigners, orphans, or widows, and don't oppress them. Don't kill innocent people in this place.

⁴ If you do what I say, then the kings who sit on David's throne will ride through the gates of this palace in chariots and on horses along with their officials and their people.

⁵ But if you don't do what I say, I will take an oath on myself," declares the LORD, "that this palace will become a pile of rubble.

⁶ "This is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah: This palace is like Gilead to me, like the top of Lebanon. I will certainly turn it into a desert, into cities that no one lives in.

⁷ I will send people to destroy you. They will have their own weapons. They will cut down your finest cedar trees and throw them on a fire.

⁸ "People from many nations will pass by this city and ask each other, 'Why has the LORD done this to this important city?'

⁹ The answer will be: 'They rejected the promise of the LORD their God. They worshiped other gods and served them.'

¹⁰ Don't cry for the dead. Don't shake your heads at them. Cry bitterly for those who are taken away, because they won't come back to see their homeland.

¹¹ This is what the LORD says about King Josiah's son Shallum, who succeeded his father as king of Judah and left this place: He will never come back here again.

¹² He will die in the place where he was taken captive, and he will never see this land again.

¹³ "How horrible it will be for the person who builds his house dishonestly and his upper rooms through injustice. He makes his neighbors work for nothing and doesn't pay them for their work.

¹⁴ He says, 'I will build a large house for myself with big upper rooms.' He cuts out windows in it, panels the rooms with cedar, and paints them red.

¹⁵ Do you think you're a better king than others because you use more cedar? Your father ate and drank and did what is fair and right. Everything went well for him.

¹⁶ He defended the cause of the poor and needy. Everything went well for him. Isn't this what it means to know me?" asks the LORD.

¹⁷ "But your eyes and your mind are set on nothing but dishonest profits. You kill innocent people and violently oppress your people."

¹⁸ This is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim, son of Judah's King Josiah: People won't mourn for him and say, "How horrible it is for my brother and sister!" They won't mourn for him and say, "How horrible it is for my master and his splendor!"

¹⁹ He will receive a donkey's burial. He will be dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰ "Go to Lebanon and cry! Raise your voice in Bashan! Cry out from Abarim, because all your lovers are defeated."

²¹ I spoke to you when you were prosperous, but you said that you wouldn't listen. This is how you've been ever since you were young. You don't listen to me.

²² The wind will blow away all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity. Then you will be ashamed and disgraced by all your wickedness.

²³ You live in Lebanon and have your nest in the cedars. But you will groan when pain strikes you, pain like a woman giving birth to a child.

²⁴ "As I live," declares the LORD, "even though you, Jehoiakin, son of Judah's King Jehoiakim, are the signet ring on my right hand, I will pull you off my hand.

²⁵ I will hand you over to those who want to kill you, those you fear—King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonians.

²⁶ I will throw you and your mother into another land. You weren't born there, but you will die there.

²⁷ You will want to return to this land, but you won't be allowed to come home."

²⁸ This Jehoiakin is like a rejected and broken pot that no one wants. Is that why he and his descendants will be thrown out and cast into another land they've never heard of?

²⁹ O land, land, land! Listen to the word of the LORD.

³⁰ This is what the LORD says: Write this about Jehoiakin: He will be childless. He won't prosper in his lifetime. None of his descendants will succeed him as king. They won't sit on David's throne and rule Judah again.

23 ¹ "How horrible it will be for the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep in my care," declares the LORD.

² "This is what I, the LORD God of Israel, said to the shepherds who take care of my people: You have scattered my sheep and chased them away. You have not taken care of them, so now I will take care of you by punishing you for the evil you have done," declares the LORD.

³ "Then I will gather the remaining part of my flock from all the countries where I chased them. I will bring them back to their pasture, and they will be fertile and increase in number.

⁴ I will put shepherds over them. Those shepherds will take care of them. My sheep will no longer be afraid or terrified, and not one of them will be missing," declares the LORD.

⁵ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will grow a righteous branch for David. He will be a king who will rule wisely. He will do what is fair and right in the land.

⁶ In his lifetime, Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety. This is the name that he will be given: The LORD Our Righteousness.

⁷ "That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when people's oaths will no longer be, 'The LORD brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. As the LORD lives....'

⁸ Instead, their oaths will be, 'The LORD brought the descendants of the nation of Israel out of the land of the north and all the lands where he had scattered them. As the LORD lives...' At that time they will live in their own land.

⁹ "Say this about the prophets: I am deeply disturbed. All my bones tremble. I am like a drunk, like a person who has had too much wine, because of the LORD and his holy words.

¹⁰ The land is filled with adulterers. The land mourns because of the curse. Pastures in the wilderness have dried up. The people are evil, and they use their strength to do the wrong things.

¹¹ The prophets and priests are godless. Even in my temple I've found them doing evil," declares the LORD.

¹² "That is why their own way will become like slippery paths in the dark. They will be chased away, and they will fall down in the dark. I will bring disaster on them. It is time for them to be punished," declares the LORD.

¹⁴ "Say this about the prophets of Jerusalem: I see something horrible. The prophets of Jerusalem commit adultery and live a lie. They support those who do evil so that no one turns back from his wickedness. They are all like Sodom to me, and those who live in Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."

¹⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies says about the prophets: I will give them wormwood to eat and poison to drink. The prophets of Jerusalem have spread godlessness throughout the land.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Don't listen to what the prophets are saying to you. They fill you with false hope. They speak about visions that they dreamed up. These visions are not from the LORD.

¹⁷ They keep saying to those who despise me, "The LORD says, 'Everything will go well for you.'" They tell all who live by their own stubborn ways, "Nothing bad will happen to you."

¹⁸ Who is in the LORD'S inner circle and sees and hears his word? Who pays attention and listens to his word?

¹⁹ The storm of the LORD will come with his anger. Like a windstorm, it will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

²⁰ The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has done everything he intends to do. In the last days you will understand this clearly.

²¹ I didn't send these prophets, yet they ran with their message. I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied.

²² If they had been in my inner circle, they would have announced my words to my people. They would have turned back from their evil ways and the evil they have done.

²³ "I am a God who is near. I am also a God who is far away," declares the LORD.

²⁴ "No one can hide so that I can't see him," declares the LORD. "I fill heaven and earth!" declares the LORD.

²⁵ "I've heard the prophets who speak lies in my name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'

²⁶ How long will these prophets continue to lie and deceive?

²⁷ They tell each other the dreams they had, because they want to make my people forget my name, as their ancestors forgot my name because of Baal.

²⁸ The prophet who has a dream should tell his dream. However, the person who has my word should honestly speak my word. What does grain have to do with straw?" asks the LORD.

²⁹ "Isn't my word like fire or like a hammer that shatters a rock?" asks the LORD.

³⁰ "I'm against the prophets who steal my words from each other," declares the LORD.

³¹ "I'm against the prophets who speak their own thoughts and say that they speak for me.

³² I'm against those who prophesy dreams they made up," declares the LORD. "They tell the dreams they made up and lead my people astray with their lies and their wild talk. I didn't send them or command them to go. They don't help these people at all," declares the LORD.

³³ "When these people, the prophets, or the priests ask you, 'What revelation has the LORD burdened you with now?'

say to them, 'You are the burden! I will abandon you, declares the LORD.'

³⁴ Suppose the prophets, the priests, or these people say, 'This is the LORD'S revelation!' I will punish them and their families.

³⁵ They should ask their neighbors and their relatives, 'What is the LORD'S answer?' and 'What did the LORD say?'

³⁶ They should never again say, 'This is the LORD'S revelation,' because each person's word becomes the revelation. They will twist the words of the living God, the LORD of Armies, our God.

³⁷ "Jeremiah, say this to the prophets, 'What was the LORD'S answer to you?' and 'What did the LORD say?'

³⁸ Suppose they say, 'This is the LORD'S revelation!' Then say, 'This is what the LORD says: Because you have said, "This is the LORD'S revelation!" even though

I commanded you not to repeat this saying,

³⁹ I will certainly forget you. I will throw you out of my presence and out of the city that I gave you and your ancestors.

⁴⁰ I will bring eternal disgrace and shame on you. It will never be forgotten.'"

24 ¹ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took Jehoiakin (son of King Jehoiakim of Judah), the princes of Judah, the skilled workers, and the builders from Jerusalem into captivity and brought them to Babylon. After this, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs set in front of the LORD'S temple.

² One basket had very good figs, like figs that ripen first. The other basket had very bad figs. These figs were so bad that they couldn't be eaten.

³ Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I answered, "Figs.

Figs that are very good. I also see figs that are very bad, so bad that they can't be eaten."

⁴ The LORD spoke his word to me,

⁵ "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: The captives of Judah, whom I sent away from here to Babylon, are like these good figs. I will look kindly on them.

⁶ I will watch over them for their own good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.

⁷ I will give them the desire to know that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, because they will wholeheartedly come back to me.

⁸ "But this is what the LORD says about the bad figs that are so bad that they can't be eaten. The LORD says, 'Like these bad figs, I will abandon King Zedekiah of Judah, his princes, the remaining few in Jerusalem who stayed behind in this land, and those who are living in Egypt.

⁹ I will make them a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms of the earth. They will be a disgrace and an example. They will become something ridiculed and cursed wherever I scatter them.

¹⁰ I will send wars, famines, and plagues until they disappear from the land that I gave to them and their ancestors.'"

25 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah when Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was in his fourth year as king. (This was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon.)

² The prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and to everyone who lived in Jerusalem. He said, ³ "For 23 years, from the time that Josiah, son of Amon, was in his thirteenth year as king of Judah until today, the LORD continued to speak his word to me. So I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

⁴ "Even though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you, you haven't listened or paid attention to them.

⁵ The prophets said, 'Turn from your evil ways and the evil you have done, and live in the land that the LORD permanently gave to you and your ancestors.

⁶ Don't follow other gods to serve and worship them. Don't make me furious about the idols your hands have shaped. Then I won't harm you.

⁷ But you haven't listened to me, declares the LORD. You have made me furious about the idols your hands have shaped and have brought harm upon yourselves.'

⁸ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: You did not listen to my words,

⁹ so I'm going to send for all the families from the north. I will also send for my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, declares the LORD. I will bring the families from the north to attack this land, its people, and all these surrounding nations. I'm going to destroy them and turn them into something terrible, something ridiculed, and something permanently ruined.

¹⁰ I will take from them the sounds of joy and happiness, the sounds of brides and grooms, the sound of mills, and the light of lamps.

¹¹ This whole land will be ruined and become a wasteland. These nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years.

¹² "When the 70 years are over, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation for their crimes, declares the LORD. I will turn Babylon into a permanent wasteland.

¹⁴ Many nations and great kings will make slaves of the people of Babylon, and I will pay them back for what they have done."

¹⁵ This is what the LORD God of Israel said to me: Take from my hand this cup filled with the wine of my fury, and make all the nations to whom I'm sending you drink from it.

¹⁶ When they drink from it, they will stagger and go insane because of the wars that I'm going to send them.

¹⁷ So I took the cup from the LORD'S hand. I made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink from it:

¹⁸ Jerusalem and the cities of Judah as well as its kings and officials. When they drank from it, they became wastelands and ruins, something ridiculed and cursed, until today.

¹⁹ I also made these people drink from it: Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, officials, all his people,

²⁰ and all the foreign people living among them; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of Philistia, those from the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, and Ekron, and the people left in Ashdod;

²¹ Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon;

²² all the kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the kings on the seacoast;

²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who shave the hair on their foreheads;

²⁴ all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the foreign people living in the desert;

²⁵ all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

²⁶ all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another—all the kingdoms of the earth. Last of all, the king of Sheshach will drink from the cup.

²⁷ The LORD said, "Say to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, vomit, fall down, and don't get up because of the wars that I'm going to send you.'

²⁸ But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink from it, say to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: You must drink from it!

²⁹ I am going to bring disaster on the city that is named after me. Do you think you'll go unpunished? You will not go unpunished! I'm declaring war on all those who live on earth, declares the LORD of Armies.'

³⁰ "That is why you will prophesy all these things to them and say, 'The LORD roars from above. He thunders from his holy dwelling place. He roars against his land. He shouts like those who stomp grapes. He shouts against all those who live on earth.

³¹ The sound is echoing to the ends of the earth because the LORD has brought charges against the nations. He will judge all humans. He will kill the wicked, declares the LORD.'

³² "This is what the LORD of Armies says: Disaster is spreading from nation to nation. A great storm is brewing from the distant corners of the earth."

³³ On that day those killed by the LORD will stretch from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, taken away, or buried. They will become like manure on the ground.

³⁴ Mourn, you shepherds, and cry. Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. The time has come for you to be slaughtered. The time has come for you to be scattered, and you will break like fine pottery.

³⁵ There will be no place for the shepherds to flee, no escape for the leaders of the flock.

³⁶ The shepherds are crying and the leaders of the flock are mourning because the LORD is stripping their pasture.

³⁷ The peaceful pastures are destroyed by the LORD'S burning anger.

³⁸ He has left his lair like a lion. Their land has been ruined because of the heat of the oppressor, because of the fury of his anger.

26 ¹ The LORD spoke his word when Judah's King Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, began to rule. He said, ² "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD'S temple, and speak to all the people who come from the cities of Judah to worship in the LORD'S temple. Tell them everything that I command you to tell them. Don't leave out a single word.

³ Maybe they'll listen, and they'll turn from their evil ways. Then I'll change my plan about the disaster I intend to bring on them because of the evil they have done."

⁴ The LORD added, "Also say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: Suppose you don't listen to me and don't follow my teachings that I set in front of you.

⁵ Suppose you don't listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent to you again and again, even though you didn't listen.

⁶ Then I will do to this temple what I did to Shiloh. I will turn this city into something that will be cursed by all the nations on earth.'"

⁷ The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these things in the LORD'S temple.

⁸ But as soon as Jeremiah finished saying everything that the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets, and all the people grabbed him and said, "You must die!

⁹ Why do you prophesy in the LORD'S name that this temple will be like Shiloh and this city will become a pile of rubble with no one living here?" Then all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the LORD'S temple.

¹⁰ When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went from the king's palace to the LORD'S temple. They sat at the entrance of New Gate to the LORD'S temple.

¹¹ Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man is condemned to die because he prophesied against this city as you yourselves have heard."

¹² Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people, "The LORD sent me to prophesy everything that you have heard me say against this temple and against this city.

¹³ Now, change your ways and what you are doing, and listen to the LORD your God. Then the LORD will change his plan about the disaster that he intends to bring on you.

¹⁴ "My life is in your hands. Do with me whatever you think is good and right.

¹⁵ But know for certain that if you put me to death, you, this city, and the people living in it will be guilty of killing an innocent person. The LORD has certainly sent me to speak all these things to you."

¹⁶ Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, "This man should not be condemned to die. He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

¹⁷ Then some of the leaders in the land got up and said to the entire crowd,

¹⁸ "Micah from Moresheth prophesied at the time of Judah's King Hezekiah and said to all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of rubble, and the temple mountain will become a worship site covered with trees.'

¹⁹ Did Judah's King Hezekiah and all the people of Judah put Micah to death? No! Hezekiah feared the LORD and sought the LORD'S favor. So the LORD changed his plan about the disaster he intended to bring on them. But we are about to bring a bigger disaster on ourselves."

²⁰ There was another man prophesying in the name of the LORD. His name was Uriah, son of Shemaiah, from Kiriath Jearim. He prophesied against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.

²¹ When King Jehoiakim and all his personal troops and officials heard what Uriah said, the king wanted to put him to death. But Uriah heard about it and fled in fear to Egypt.

²² King Jehoiakim sent soldiers to Egypt: Elnathan (son of Achbor) and other soldiers along with him.

²³ They brought Uriah from Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim. The king executed Uriah and threw his body into the burial ground for the common people.

²⁴ Ahikam, son of Shaphan, supported Jeremiah. So Jeremiah was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

27 ¹ When Zedekiah, son of King Josiah of Judah, began to rule, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah.

² This is what the LORD said to me: Make leather straps and a wooden yoke, and strap the yoke on your neck.

³ Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, with messengers who have come to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem.

⁴ Give them an order for their masters: "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Say this to your masters, ⁵ 'I used my great strength and my powerful arm to make the earth along with the people and the animals on it. I give it to anyone I please.

⁶ Now I have handed all these countries over to my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I have even made wild animals serve him.

⁷ All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until Babylon is defeated. Then many nations and great kings will make him their slave.

⁸ "Suppose nations or kingdoms won't serve or surrender to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will punish those nations by wars, famines, and plagues, until I have put an end to them by Nebuchadnezzar's power, declares the LORD.

⁹ Don't listen to prophets, mediums, interpreters of dreams, fortunetellers, or sorcerers who tell you that you'll never serve the king of Babylon.

¹⁰ They are prophesying lies to you. They will cause you to be taken far from your lands. I'll scatter you, and you will die.

¹¹ But suppose a nation surrenders to the king of Babylon and serves him. I will let it stay in its own land. People will farm the land and live on it," declares the LORD.

¹² I spoke the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah, "Surrender to the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and you will stay alive.

¹³ Why should you and your people die in wars, famines, and plagues? The LORD has threatened the nations that don't serve the king of Babylon.

¹⁴ Don't listen to the prophets who tell you that you'll never serve the king of Babylon. They are prophesying lies to you.

¹⁵ I didn't send them, declares the LORD. They prophesy lies in my name.

So I will scatter you, and you and the prophets will die."

¹⁶ I also spoke this message to the priests and all the people. "This is what the LORD said to me: Don't listen to the prophets who tell you that the utensils of the LORD'S temple will be brought back from Babylon soon. They are prophesying lies to you.

¹⁷ Don't listen to them. Instead, serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city be turned into rubble?

¹⁸ If they are prophets and the LORD is speaking to them, they should beg the LORD of Armies not to allow the utensils that are left in the LORD'S temple, in the royal palace of Judah, and in Jerusalem to be taken away to Babylon.

¹⁹ "Babylon's King Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiakin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. But he didn't take the pillars, the bronze pool, the stands, and the rest of the utensils that are left in this city.

²⁰ (SEE 27:19)

²¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about the utensils that are left in the LORD'S temple, in the royal palace of Judah, and in Jerusalem:

²² They will be taken to Babylon and stay there until I come for them, declares the LORD. I will take them from there and bring them back to this place."

28 ¹ In that same year, early in the rule of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of his fourth year as king, the prophet Hananiah, son of Azzur, from Gibeon, spoke to me in the LORD'S temple. He said to me in front of the priests and all the people, ² "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

³ Within two years I will bring back all the utensils of the LORD'S temple that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from this place and carried off to Babylon.

⁴ I will also bring back to this place Jehoiakin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon, declares the LORD. So I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

⁵ The prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in front of the priests and all the people standing in the LORD'S temple.

⁶ He said, "Amen! May the LORD do this! May the LORD make your prophecy come true and bring back the utensils of the LORD'S temple and all the captives from Babylon to this place.

⁷ But now listen to this message that I am speaking to you and to all the people:

⁸ Long ago, the prophets who preceded you and me prophesied wars, disasters, and plagues against many countries and great kingdoms.

⁹ But the prophet who prophesied peace was recognized as a prophet that the LORD sent only if the message of the prophet came true."

¹⁰ Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.

¹² After the prophet Hananiah broke the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ¹³ "Tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken the wooden yoke, but I will replace it with an iron yoke.

¹⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations so that they will serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. They will serve him! I will even make wild animals serve him.'"

¹⁵ Then Jeremiah told the prophet Hananiah, "Now listen, Hananiah, the LORD hasn't sent you. You have made these people believe a lie.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD says: I'm going to remove you from the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have encouraged rebellion against the LORD."

¹⁷ So the prophet Hananiah died in the seventh month of that year.

29 ¹ The prophet Jeremiah sent a letter from Jerusalem to the rest of the leaders among the captives. He also sent it to the priests, the prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar took away as captives from Jerusalem to Babylon.

² (This was after King Jehoiakin and his mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and metal workers left Jerusalem.)

³ He sent the letter with Shaphan's son Elasah and Hilkiah's son Gemariah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah had sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. The letter said:

⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all those who were taken captive from Jerusalem to Babylon:

⁵ Build houses, and live in them. Plant gardens, and eat what they produce.

⁶ Get married, and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons, and let your daughters get married so that they can have sons and daughters. Grow in number there; don't decrease.

⁷ Work for the good of the city where I've taken you as captives, and pray to the LORD for that city. When it prospers, you will also prosper.

⁸ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Don't let the prophets or the mediums who are among you trick you. Don't even listen to your own dreams.

⁹ These people are prophesying lies to you in my name. I didn't send them, declares the LORD.

¹⁰ This is what the LORD says: When Babylon's 70 years are over, I will come to you. I will keep my promise to you and bring you back to this place.

¹¹ I know the plans that I have for you, declares the LORD. They are plans for peace and not disaster, plans to give you a future filled with hope.

¹² Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

¹³ When you look for me, you will find me. When you wholeheartedly seek me, ¹⁴ I will let you find me, declares the LORD. I will bring you back from captivity. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I've scattered you, declares the LORD. I will bring you back from the place where you are being held captive.

¹⁵ You've said that the LORD has given you prophets in Babylon.

¹⁶ But this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and about all the people who live in this city, the people who are your relatives and who weren't taken away as captives:

¹⁷ The LORD of Armies says: I'm going to send them wars, famines, and plagues. These people are like rotten figs to me, figs that are so bad that they can't be eaten.

¹⁸ I will chase them with wars, famines, and plagues. I will make them a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms on the earth. They will become something cursed, ridiculed, and hissed at, and they will be a disgrace among all the nations where I scatter them.

¹⁹ They didn't listen to me, declares the LORD. I sent them my servants the prophets again and again, but they refused to listen, declares the LORD.

²⁰ So listen to the word of the LORD, all you captives who were sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about Kolaiah's son Ahab and about Maaseiah's son Zedekiah, who prophesy lies to you in my name: I'm going to hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will kill them as you watch.

²² Because of them, all the captives from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: May the LORD curse you as he cursed Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned to death.

²³ They have done shameful things in Israel. They committed adultery with their neighbors' wives and spoke lies in my name. I didn't command them to do this. I know what they have done. I'm a witness, declares the LORD.

²⁴ The LORD says, "Say to Shemaiah from Nehelam,

²⁵ 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests. These letters said:

²⁶ The LORD made you priest instead of Jehoiada so that there would be officials for the LORD'S temple. You should put any lunatic who acts like a prophet in prison and in shackles.

²⁷ Now, why haven't you arrested Jeremiah from Anathoth? After all, he acts like a prophet among you.

²⁸ That's why Jeremiah sent this message to us in Babylon: You will be captives a long time. Build houses, and live in them. Plant gardens, and eat what they produce.'"

²⁹ The priest Zephaniah read this letter to the prophet Jeremiah.

³⁰ Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

³¹ "Send this message to all the captives: 'This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah from Nehelam: Shemaiah prophesied to you, but I didn't send him. He has made you believe a lie.

³² The LORD says: I will punish Shemaiah from Nehelam. I will also punish his descendants. No one from his family will be left alive. He will not see the blessings that I'm going to send my people, declares the LORD, because he has encouraged rebellion against the LORD.'"

30 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

² "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Write in a book everything that I tell you.

³ The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity. I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will take possession of it."

⁴ This is the message that the LORD spoke about Israel and Judah:

⁵ "This is what the LORD says: "We hear cries of fear, cries of panic, not cries of peace.

⁶ Ask now, and see: Can a man give birth to a child? Why, then, do I see every strong man holding his stomach in pain like a woman giving birth to a child? Why has every face turned pale?

⁷ How terrible that day will be! There will be no other day like it. It will be a time of calamity for the descendants of Jacob, but they will be rescued from it.

⁸ "On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "I will break the yokes off your necks and tear off your ropes. Foreigners will no longer make you serve them.

⁹ You will serve the LORD your God and David your king. I will establish him for you.

¹⁰ "Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob," declares the LORD. Don't be terrified, Israel. I'm going to rescue you from a faraway place. I'm going to rescue your descendants from where they are captives. The descendants of Jacob will again have peace and security, and no one will frighten them.

¹¹ I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD. "I will completely destroy all the nations where I scattered you, but I will not completely destroy you. I will correct you with justice. I won't let you go entirely unpunished.

¹² "This is what the LORD says: Your wound is incurable. Your injury is beyond healing.

¹³ No one argues that you should be healed. No medicine will heal you.

¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you, and they don't want you anymore. I've punished you as an enemy would. I've corrected you as a cruel person would. You are very wicked, and you have many sins.

¹⁵ Why do you cry about your wound, your injury that can't be cured? I've done this to you. You are very wicked, and you have many sins.

¹⁶ That is why everyone who devours you will be devoured, and all your enemies will be taken away as captives. Those who looted you will be looted. Those who stole from you in war will have things stolen from them.

¹⁷ I'll restore your health and heal your wounds," declares the LORD. "People call you an outcast: Zion, no one cares for you.

¹⁸ "This is what the LORD says: I'm going to bring the captives back to Jacob's tents and show compassion on their homes. Cities will be built on the ruins, and fortified palaces will be built in their rightful place.

¹⁹ The people who live there will sing songs of praise, and the sound of laughter will be heard from there. I'll make them numerous, and their number won't decrease. I'll bring them honor, and they won't be considered unimportant.

²⁰ Their children will be like they were long ago. Their community will be established in my presence, and I will punish everyone who oppresses them.

²¹ Their leader will be someone from their own people. Their ruler will come from among them. I'll bring him near, and he will come close to me. Who would dare to come near me?" asks the LORD.

²² You will be my people, and I will be your God.

²³ The storm of the LORD will come with his anger. Like a driving wind, it will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

²⁴ The LORD'S burning anger will not turn back until he has done everything he intends to do. In the last days you will understand this clearly.

31 ¹ "At that time," declares the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

² This is what the LORD says: The people who survived the wars have found favor in the desert. Israel went to find its rest.

³ The LORD appeared to me in a faraway place and said, "I love you with an everlasting love. So I will continue to show you my kindness.

⁴ Once again I will build you up, and you will be rebuilt, my dear people Israel. Once again you will take your tambourines, and you will go dancing with happy people.

⁵ Once again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria. Those who plant them will enjoy the fruit.

⁶ There will be a day when watchmen on the mountains of Ephraim will call out this message: 'Arise! Let's go to Zion, to the LORD our God.'"

⁷ This is what the LORD says: Sing a happy song about Jacob. Sing joyfully for the leader of the nations. Shout, sing praise, and say, "O LORD, rescue your people, the remaining few from Israel."

⁸ "I will bring them from the land of the north. I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth. Blind people and lame people will return together with pregnant women and those in labor. A large crowd will return here.

⁹ They will cry as they return. They will pray as I bring them back. I will lead them beside streams on a level path where they will not stumble. I will be a Father to Israel, and Ephraim will be my firstborn.

¹⁰ "You nations, listen to the word of the LORD. Tell it to the distant islands. Say, 'The one who scattered the people of Israel will gather them and watch over them as a shepherd watches over his flock.'

¹¹ The LORD will free the descendants of Jacob and reclaim them from those who are stronger than they are.

¹² They will come and shout for joy on top of Mount Zion. They will stream to it to enjoy the LORD'S blessings: fresh grain, new wine, and olive oil, lambs and calves. Their lives will be like well-watered gardens, and they will never suffer again.

¹³ Then young women will rejoice and dance along with young men and old men. I will turn their mourning into joy. I will comfort them. I will give them joy in place of their sorrow.

¹⁴ I will satisfy the priests with rich food. My people will be filled with my blessings," declares the LORD.

¹⁵ This is what the LORD says: A sound is heard in Ramah, the sound of crying in bitter grief. Rachel is crying for her children. She refuses to be comforted, because they are dead.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD says: Stop your crying, and wipe away your tears. You will be rewarded for your work, declares the LORD. You will return from the land of the enemy.

¹⁷ Your future is filled with hope, declares the LORD. Your children will return to their own territory.

¹⁸ "I have certainly heard Ephraim mourn and say, 'You disciplined me, and I was disciplined. I was like a young, untrained calf. Turn me, and I will be turned, because you are the LORD my God.

¹⁹ After I was turned around, I changed the way I thought and acted. After I was taught a lesson, I hung my head in shame. I was so ashamed and humiliated, because of all the stupid things I have done ever since I was young.'

²⁰ Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a pleasant child? Even though I have often spoken against him, I still think fondly of him. That is why my heart longs for him, and I will certainly have compassion on him," declares the LORD.

²¹ Set up landmarks! Put up road signs! Remember the highway, the road on which you traveled. Come back, my dear people Israel, come back to your cities.

²² How long will you wander around, you unfaithful people? The LORD will create something new on earth: A woman will protect a man.

²³ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: When I have brought them back from captivity, they will once again use this saying in Judah and in its cities: "The LORD will bless you, home of righteousness, holy mountain.

²⁴ Judah and all its cities will live there together. Farmers and shepherds will also live there.

²⁵ I will give those who are weary all they need. I will refresh everyone who is filled with sorrow."

²⁶ At this, I woke up and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant.

²⁷ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will plant the nations of Israel and Judah with people and animals.

²⁸ Once I watched over them to uproot them, to tear them down, and to wreck, ruin, and hurt them. Now I will watch over them to build them up and to plant them," declares the LORD.

²⁹ "When those days come, people will no longer say, 'Fathers have eaten sour grapes, and their children's teeth are set on edge.'

³⁰ But each person will die for his own sin. Whoever eats sour grapes will have his own teeth set on edge.

³¹ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new promise to Israel and Judah.

³² It will not be like the promise that I made to their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. They rejected that promise, although I was a husband to them," declares the LORD.

³³ "But this is the promise that I will make to Israel after those days," declares the LORD: "I will put my teachings inside them, and I will write those teachings on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

³⁴ No longer will each person teach his neighbors or his relatives by saying, 'Know the LORD.' All of them, from the least important to the most important, will know me," declares the LORD, "because I will forgive their wickedness and I will no longer hold their sins against them."

³⁵ The LORD provides the sun to be a light during the day. He orders the moon and stars to be lights during the night. He stirs up the sea so that its waves roar.

His name is the LORD of Armies. This is what the LORD says:

³⁶ Only if these laws stop working, declares the LORD, will Israel's descendants stop being a nation in my presence.

³⁷ This is what the LORD says: Only if the heavens could be measured or the foundations of the earth could be searched, would I ever reject all of Israel's descendants because of everything that they have done, declares the LORD.

³⁸ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when the city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to Corner Gate.

³⁹ A measuring line will stretch from there straight to the Hill of Gareb, and then it will turn to Goah.

⁴⁰ The whole valley, filled with its dead bodies and ashes, and the whole area to the Kidron Valley, as far as the corner of Horse Gate in the east, will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or torn down again."

32 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah during Zedekiah's tenth year as king of Judah. (This was Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year as king.)

² At that time the army of the king of Babylon was blockading Jerusalem. The prophet Jeremiah was locked up in the courtyard of the prison. This prison was in the palace of the king of Judah.

³ When King Zedekiah of Judah locked up Jeremiah, Zedekiah asked him, "Why are you prophesying? You are saying, 'This is what the LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

⁴ King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the Babylonians. He will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon. He will talk to Nebuchadnezzar in person and look him in the eye.

⁵ Nebuchadnezzar will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and Zedekiah will stay there until I deal with him, declares the LORD. When you fight the Babylonians, you won't win."

⁶ Jeremiah said, "The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁷ 'Jeremiah, your cousin Hanamel, son of Shallum, is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth, because as the closest relative it is your responsibility to buy it."

⁸ "Then, as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the prison. He said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. It is your responsibility to purchase it, because the rights of the closest relative belong to you. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that the LORD had spoken to me.

⁹ "So I bought the field in Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and gave him the money. The field cost seven ounces of silver.

¹⁰ I signed the deed, sealed it, had people witness the signing of the deed, and paid out the silver.

¹¹ Then I took the sealed copy of the deed, containing the terms and conditions, as well as an unsealed copy.

¹² I gave the copies of the deeds to Baruch, son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah. I did this in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and the witnesses who had signed the deed and in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the prison.

¹³ Then I gave Baruch these orders:

¹⁴ 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Take both of these documents, both the sealed and the unsealed copies of the deed. Put them in a clay jar so that they will last a long time.

¹⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: My people will again buy houses, fields, and vineyards in this land.'

¹⁶ "After I had given the copies to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD. I prayed, ¹⁷ 'Almighty LORD, you made heaven and earth by your great strength and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

¹⁸ You show mercy to thousands of generations. However, you punish children for the wickedness of their parents. You, God, are great and mighty. Your name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁹ You make wise plans and do mighty things. You see everything the descendants of Adam do. You reward them for the way they live and for what they do.

²⁰ You performed miraculous signs and amazing things in Egypt. To this day you are still doing them in Israel. You made a name for yourself that continues to this day.

²¹ You brought your people from Egypt with miraculous signs and amazing things, with a mighty hand and a powerful arm, and with great terror.

²² You gave them the land that you swore with an oath to give their ancestors, the land flowing with milk and honey.

²³ They entered and took possession of it. However, they refused to obey you or to follow your teachings. They didn't do anything you commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them.

24 "'See how the dirt ramps have been built up around the city to capture it! Because of wars, famines, and plagues, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you have threatened to do has happened, as you can see.

25 Yet you, Almighty LORD, told me to buy a field with money and get witnesses to confirm it, although the city was handed over to the Babylonians.'"

26 The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

27 "I am the LORD God of all humanity. Nothing is too hard for me.

28 This is what the LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the Babylonians and King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. They will capture it.

29 "The Babylonians who are attacking this city will break in, set this city on fire, and burn it down. They will burn down the houses of people who made me furious by going up to the roofs to burn incense to Baal and to pour out wine offerings to other gods.

³⁰ Ever since they were young, the people of Israel and Judah have done what I consider evil. The people of Israel have made me furious by what they've done," declares the LORD.

³¹ "The people in this city have made me so angry and furious from the day they built it to this day. So now I must remove this city from my presence.

³² "The people of Israel and Judah have made me furious because they are evil. The people, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, and the Judeans and those who live in Jerusalem ³³ have turned their backs, not their faces to me. I taught them again and again, but they refused to listen and learn.

³⁴ They set up their detestable idols in the temple that is called by my name, and they dishonored it.

³⁶ "You have said this about the city, 'Because of wars, famines, and plagues it will be handed over to the king of Babylon.' Now this is what the LORD God of Israel says:

³⁷ I am going to gather the people from all the lands where I scattered them in my anger, fury, and terrifying wrath. I will bring them back to this place and make them live here securely.

³⁸ They will be my people, and I will be their God.

³⁹ I will give them the same attitude and the same purpose so that they will fear me as long as they live. This will be for their own good and for the good of their children.

⁴⁰ I will make an eternal promise to them that I will never stop blessing them. I will make them fear me so that they will never turn away from me.

⁴¹ I will enjoy blessing them. With all my heart and soul I will faithfully plant them in this land.

⁴² "This is what the LORD says: As I brought all these disasters on these people, so I will bring on them all these blessings that I have promised them.

⁴³ You have said that this land is a wasteland, without people or animals living in it. You have also said that it has been handed over to the Babylonians. But people will once again buy fields in this land.

⁴⁴ They will buy fields for money, sign deeds, seal them, and have people witness the signing of the deeds. This will happen in the territory of Benjamin, in the region of Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities on the mountains, in the hill country, and in the Negev because I will bring them back from their captivity," declares the LORD.

33 ¹ While Jeremiah was still being held in the courtyard of the prison, the LORD spoke his word to him a second time. The LORD said, ² "I made the earth, formed it, and set it in place. My name is the LORD. This is what the LORD says:

³ Call to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you great and mysterious things that you do not know.

⁴ The houses in this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah have been torn down to be used against the dirt ramps and weapons of the Babylonians. This is what the LORD God of Israel says about this:

⁵ The people of Israel fought the Babylonians. Now their houses are filled with the bodies of their own people I killed in my anger and my fury. I will hide my face from this city because of its wickedness.

⁶ "But I will heal this city and restore it to health. I will heal its people, and I will give them peace and security.

⁷ I will restore Judah and Israel and rebuild them as they were before.

⁸ I will cleanse them from all the sins that they have committed against me. I will forgive them for all the sins that they have committed against me and for rebelling against me.

⁹ Then Jerusalem will be my source of joy, praise, and honor. All the nations on earth will hear about all the blessings that I will give to Jerusalem. They will be afraid and tremble because of all the prosperity that I will provide for it.

¹⁰ "This is what the LORD says: You have said that this place is ruined and that no people or animals live in it. It's true! The cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem are deserted. No people or animals live there. But once again you will hear ¹¹ the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms. You will hear those who bring thank offerings to the LORD'S temple say, 'Give thanks to the LORD of Armies because the LORD is good, because his mercy endures forever.' I will restore the fortunes of the land to what they were before," says the LORD.

¹² "This is what the LORD of Armies says: In this deserted place, where no people or animals live, and in all its cities, there will once again be pastures where shepherds can rest their flocks.

¹³ In the cities on the mountains, in the foothills, in the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the area around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shepherds will once again count their sheep," says the LORD.

¹⁴ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will keep the promise that I made to Israel and Judah.

¹⁵ In those days and at that time, I will cause a righteous branch to spring up for David. He will do what is fair and right in the land.

¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live securely. Jerusalem will be called The LORD Our Righteousness.

¹⁷ "This is what the LORD says: David will never fail to have a descendant sitting on the throne of Israel.

¹⁸ The Levitical priests will never fail to have a descendant in my presence to sacrifice burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to prepare daily sacrifices."

¹⁹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²⁰ "This is what the LORD says: Suppose you could break my arrangement with day and night so that they wouldn't come at their proper time.

²¹ Then my arrangement with my servant David could be broken, and he would not have a descendant to rule on his throne. The arrangement with my servants the Levitical priests could also be broken.

²² I will multiply the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who serve me like the stars of heaven that cannot be counted and the sand on the seashore that cannot be measured."

²³ Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²⁴ "Haven't you noticed what these people have said? They have said that the LORD has rejected the two families he has chosen. They despise my people, and they no longer consider them a nation.

²⁵ "This is what the LORD says: Suppose I hadn't made an arrangement with day and night or made laws for heaven and earth.

²⁶ Then I would reject the descendants of Jacob and of my servant David. I would not let any of David's descendants rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. However, I will restore their fortunes and love them."

34 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, his entire army, and all the kingdoms and people that he ruled were attacking Jerusalem and all its cities. He said, ² "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Go to King Zedekiah of Judah, and tell him, 'The LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.

³ You will not escape from him. You will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will talk to you face to face. Then you will go to Babylon.

⁴ "'Listen to the word of the LORD, King Zedekiah of Judah. This is what the LORD says about you: You will not die in war.

⁵ You will die peacefully. People will burn funeral fires for you as they did for your ancestors, the kings who lived before you. They will say, "Oh, master," as they mourn for you. I have spoken my word, declares the LORD.'"

⁶ The prophet Jeremiah told all these things to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem.

⁷ He did this when the army of the king of Babylon was attacking Jerusalem and the cities of Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities of Judah that were left.

⁸ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah after King Zedekiah and all the people in Jerusalem promised to free their slaves.

⁹ Everyone was supposed to free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female. No one was supposed to keep another Jew as a slave.

¹⁰ All the officials and all the people agreed and promised to free their male and female slaves and not to keep them as slaves anymore. So they set them free.

¹¹ But afterwards, they changed their minds and took back the men and women they had freed and made them their slaves again.

¹² The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

¹³ "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I put a condition on the promise I made to your ancestors when I brought them from Egypt, where they were slaves. I said, ¹⁴ 'Every seven years each of you must free any Hebrews who sold themselves to you. When they have served you for six years, you must set them free.' But your ancestors refused to obey me or listen to me.

¹⁵ Recently, you changed and did what I consider right. You agreed to free your neighbors, and you made a promise in my presence, in the temple that is called by my name.

¹⁶ Now you have changed again and dishonored me. You brought back the male and female slaves that you had set free to live their own lives. You have forced them to be your male and female slaves again.

¹⁷ "This is what the LORD says: You didn't obey me. You haven't freed your relatives and neighbors. Now I am going to free you," declares the LORD. "I will free you to die in wars, plagues, and famines. I will make all the kingdoms of the world horrified at the thought of you.

¹⁸ I will hand over the people who have rejected my promise. They have not kept the terms of the promise which they made in my presence when they cut a calf in two and passed between its pieces.

¹⁹ I will hand over the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the palace officials, the priests, and all the common people who passed between the pieces of the calf.

²⁰ I will hand them over to their enemies who want to kill them, and their corpses will be food for birds and wild animals.

²¹ I will hand King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials over to their enemies who want to kill them and to the army of the king of Babylon, the army that has withdrawn from you.

²² I am going to give a command," declares the LORD. "I will bring that army back to this city to attack it, capture it, and burn it down. I will destroy the cities of Judah so that no one will live there."

35 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah during the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah. He said,

² "Go to the family of Rechab and talk to them. Take them into one of the side rooms in the LORD'S temple, and offer them a drink of wine."

³ I took Jaazaniah, who was the son of Jeremiah and the grandson of Habazziniah, and I took Jaazaniah's brothers and all his sons—the whole family of Rechab.

⁴ I brought them into the LORD'S temple, into the side room of the sons of Hanan. (He was Igdaliah's son, the man of God.) It was next to the room of the officials and above the side room of Maaseiah, Shallum's son, the doorkeeper.

⁵ Then I set cups and pitchers filled with wine in front of the family of Rechab. I said to them, "Drink some wine."

⁶ They answered, "We don't drink wine, because our ancestor Jonadab, Rechab's son, gave us this order: 'You and your descendants must never drink wine.'

⁷ Never build any houses or plant any fields or vineyards. You must never have any of these things. You must always live in tents so that you may live for a long time in the land where you are staying.'

⁸ We, along with our wives, sons, and daughters, have obeyed our ancestor Jonadab, Rechab's son, in everything he ordered us to do. We have never drunk wine, ⁹ built houses to live in, or owned vineyards, pastures, or grainfields.

¹⁰ We live in tents, and we have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab ordered us to do.

¹¹ But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon invaded this land, we said, 'Let's go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian and Aramean armies.' That's why we are living in Jerusalem."

¹² Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

¹³ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Tell the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, ‘Won’t you ever learn your lesson and obey my words? declares the LORD.

¹⁴ Jonadab, Rechab’s son, ordered his descendants not to drink wine. This order has been carried out. His descendants have not drunk any wine to this day, because they have obeyed their ancestor’s order. I have spoken to you again and again, but you have refused to listen to me.

¹⁵ I have sent all my servants the prophets to you again and again. They said, "Turn from your evil ways, do what is right, and don’t follow other gods in order to serve them. Then you will live in the land that I gave you and your ancestors." However, you refused to listen to me or obey me.

¹⁶ The descendants of Jonadab, Rechab’s son, have carried out the orders of their ancestor, but you refuse to listen to me.

¹⁷ "This is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring on Judah and on all those who live in Jerusalem all the disasters that I threatened. I have spoken to them, but they didn't listen. I called to them, but they didn't answer."

¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to the family of Rechab, "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You obeyed the order of your ancestor Jonadab, followed all his instructions, and did exactly what he told you to do.

¹⁹ So this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: A descendant of Jonadab, Rechab's son, will always serve me."

36 ¹ In the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ² "Take a scroll, and write on it everything that I have dictated to you about Israel, Judah, and all the other nations from the time I spoke to you during the reign of Josiah until today.

³ Maybe the nation of Judah will hear about all the disasters that I plan to bring on them, and they will turn from their wicked ways. Then I will forgive their wickedness and their sins."

⁴ Then Jeremiah called Baruch, son of Neriah. Jeremiah dictated everything that the LORD had told him, and Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll.

⁵ Jeremiah told Baruch, "I'm no longer allowed to go to the LORD'S temple.

⁶ On a day of fasting, you must read from the scroll the LORD'S message that you wrote as I dictated. You must read it to the people in the LORD'S temple. You must also read it to all the people of Judah when they come from their cities.

⁷ Maybe their prayers will come into the LORD'S presence, and they will turn from their evil ways. The LORD has threatened these people with his terrifying anger and fury."

⁸ Baruch, son of Neriah, did as the prophet Jeremiah commanded him. In the LORD'S temple he read from the scroll everything that the LORD had said.

⁹ In the ninth month of the fifth year of the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah, a time for fasting was called. It was a time for all the people in Jerusalem and for everyone who was coming from any city in Judah to Jerusalem to fast in the LORD'S presence.

¹⁰ Then Baruch read the scroll containing the words of Jeremiah. Baruch read it to all the people in the LORD'S temple in the room of the scribe Gemariah, son of Shaphan, in the upper courtyard at the entrance of New Gate of the LORD'S temple.

¹¹ Micaiah, who was the son of Gemariah and the grandson of Shaphan, heard Baruch read from the scroll everything the LORD had said.

¹² Then he went down to the scribe's room in the king's palace where all the scribes were sitting. The scribe Elishama, Delaiah (son of Shemaiah), Elnathan (son of Achbor), Gemariah (son of Shaphan), Zedekiah (son of Hananiah), and all the other officials were there.

¹³ Micaiah told them everything he heard Baruch read from the scroll publicly.

¹⁴ Then all the officials sent Jehudi, who was the son of Nethaniah, the grandson of Shelemiah, and the great-grandson of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi said to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read publicly, and come with me." Baruch, son of Neriah, took the scroll and went with him to see the officers.

¹⁵ They said to Baruch, "Please sit down, and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

¹⁶ When they heard everything, they turned to each other in terror. They said to Baruch, "We must tell the king everything."

¹⁷ Then they asked Baruch, "Please tell us how you wrote all this. Did Jeremiah dictate it to you?"

¹⁸ Baruch answered, "He dictated everything to me, and I wrote it on the scroll in ink."

¹⁹ The officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide. Don't let anyone know where you are."

²⁰ After they put the scroll in the side room of the scribe Elishama, they went to the king in the courtyard and told him everything.

²¹ Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. He took the scroll from the side room of the scribe Elishama. Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials standing by the king.

²² It was the ninth month, and the king was in his winter house sitting in front of the fire in the fireplace.

²³ As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a scribe's knife and throw them into the fire in the fireplace. He did this until the whole scroll was burned up.

²⁴ The king and all his attendants didn't show any fear or tear their clothes in fear when they heard everything being read.

²⁵ Even when Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he refused to listen to them.

²⁶ The king commanded Jerahmeel (the king's son), Seraiah (son of Azriel), and Shelemiah (son of Abdeel) to arrest the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. But the LORD had hidden Baruch and Jeremiah.

²⁷ After the king burned up the scroll that Baruch had written and that Jeremiah had dictated, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ²⁸ "Take another scroll, and write on it everything that was written on the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned.

²⁹ Say about King Jehoiakim of Judah, 'This is what the LORD says: You burned this scroll, and you asked Jeremiah, "Why did you write that the king of Babylon will certainly come to destroy this land and take away people and animals?"

³⁰ This is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne, and his own corpse will be thrown out and exposed to the heat of day and the cold of night.

³¹ I will punish him, his descendants, and his attendants for their wickedness. They refused to listen. So I will bring on them, on those who live in Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah all the disasters that I have threatened.’”

³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch, son of Neriah. As Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it everything that was on the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah had burned. They added many similar messages.

37 ¹ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon appointed Zedekiah, son of Josiah, to be king of Judah. Zedekiah succeeded Jehoiakin, son of Jehoiakim.

² But Zedekiah, his administrators, and the common people didn’t listen to what the LORD had spoken through the prophet Jeremiah.

³ King Zedekiah sent Jehucal (son of Shelemiah) and the priest Zephaniah (son of Maaseiah) to the prophet Jeremiah. They asked him, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

⁴ Jeremiah was still free to come and go among the people. The people of Jerusalem hadn't put him in prison yet.

⁵ Pharaoh's army had come from Egypt, and when the Babylonians who were blockading Jerusalem heard this news, they retreated from Jerusalem.

⁶ The LORD spoke his word to the prophet Jeremiah. He said,

⁷ "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to get advice from me: 'Pharaoh's army has come out to help you. But it will go back to Egypt, its own land.

⁸ Then the Babylonians will return. They will attack the city, capture it, and burn it down.

⁹ "This is what the LORD says: Don't deceive yourselves by thinking that the Babylonians will leave you. They will not leave you.

¹⁰ Even if you would defeat the entire Babylonian army so that they had only a few badly wounded men left in their tents, they would get up and burn down this city."

¹¹ The Babylonian army had retreated from Jerusalem because Pharaoh's army was coming.

¹² So Jeremiah wanted to leave Jerusalem and go to the territory of Benjamin to take possession of his property there among the people.

¹³ But when he came to Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard there, whose name was Irijah, son of Shelemiah and grandson of Hananiah, arrested the prophet Jeremiah. He said, "You're deserting to the Babylonians!"

¹⁴ Jeremiah answered, "That's a lie! I'm not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah wouldn't listen to him. Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the officials.

¹⁵ The officials were so angry with Jeremiah that they beat him and put him in prison in the scribe Jonathan's house, which had been turned into a prison.

¹⁶ Jeremiah went into a prison cell, and he stayed there a long time.

¹⁷ Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah, and the king asked him privately in the palace, "Is there any message from the LORD?" Jeremiah answered, "Yes! There is a message from the LORD. You will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

¹⁸ Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you, your administrators, or these people? Why have you put me in prison?

¹⁹ Where are the prophets who told you that the king of Babylon wouldn't attack you and this land?

²⁰ But now, Your Majesty, please listen, and accept my plea for mercy. Don't return me to the scribe Jonathan's house, or I will die there."

²¹ King Zedekiah gave the command to have Jeremiah put in the courtyard of the prison. He gave him a loaf of bread every day from the bakers' street until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison.

38 ¹ Shephatiah (son of Mattan), Gedaliah (son of Pashhur), Jucal (son of Shelemiah), and Pashhur (son of Malchiah) heard that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people.

² They heard Jeremiah say, "This is what the LORD says: Those who stay in this city will die in wars, famines, or plagues. But those who surrender to the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives.

³ "This is what the LORD says: This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, and it will capture the city."

⁴ Then the officials said to the king, "Have this man put to death. He discourages the soldiers who are left in this city and all the people by telling them such things. This man is not trying to help these people; he's trying to hurt them."

⁵ King Zedekiah answered, "He's in your hands. I won't do anything to stop you."

⁶ So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son. It was in the courtyard of the prison.

They used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

⁷ But an official in the royal palace, Ebed Melech from Sudan, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. The king happened to be sitting at Benjamin Gate.

⁸ Ebed Melech left the royal palace and spoke to the king at Benjamin Gate.

⁹ "Your Majesty, everything that these men have done to the prophet Jeremiah is wrong. They have thrown him into the cistern, where he'll starve to death, because there's no more bread in the city."

¹⁰ Then the king gave Ebed Melech from Sudan this command: "Take 30 men from here, and lift the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies."

¹¹ So Ebed Melech took the men with him and went to the royal palace, to a room under the treasury. He took rags and torn clothes from there and lowered them with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

¹² Ebed Melech from Sudan said to Jeremiah, "Put these rags and torn clothes under your arms to protect you from the ropes." Jeremiah did.

¹³ They used the ropes to pull Jeremiah up and lift him out of the cistern. Then Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison.

¹⁴ King Zedekiah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and brought him to the third entrance in the LORD'S temple. "I'm going to ask you a question," the king said to Jeremiah. "Don't hide anything from me."

¹⁵ Jeremiah answered Zedekiah, "If I answer you, you'll kill me. If I give you advice, you won't listen to me."

¹⁶ So King Zedekiah secretly swore an oath to Jeremiah, "The LORD gave us life. As the LORD lives, I will not kill you or hand you over to these men who want to kill you."

¹⁷ Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your household will live.

¹⁸ But if you don't surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians. They will burn it down, and you will not escape from them."

¹⁹ King Zedekiah answered Jeremiah, "I'm afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Babylonians. The Babylonians may hand me over to them, and they will torture me."

²⁰ Jeremiah said, "You will not be handed over to them. Obey the LORD by doing what I'm telling you. Then everything will go well for you, and you will live.

²¹ But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has shown me.

²² All the women who are left in the palace of Judah's king will be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon. These women will say: 'Your trusted friends have misled you and used you. Your feet are stuck in the mud, and your friends have deserted you.'

²³ "All your wives and children will be brought to the Babylonians. You will not escape from them. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down."

²⁴ Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know about this conversation, or you will die.

²⁵ The officials may find out that I've been talking with you. They may come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you. Don't hide anything from us, or we'll kill you.'

²⁶ If they come to you, say to them, 'I asked the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

²⁷ All the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him. He told them exactly what the king had told him to say. So they stopped questioning him, because they hadn't heard his conversation with the king.

²⁸ Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison until the day Jerusalem was captured.

39 ¹ In the tenth month of Zedekiah's ninth year as king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Jerusalem with his entire army and blockaded it.

² On the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year as king, they broke into the city.

³ Then all the officers of the king of Babylon came in and sat in Middle Gate: Nergal (the quartermaster), Samgar Nebo (the chief officer), Nergal (the quartermaster and the chief fortuneteller), and all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon.

⁴ When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled. They left the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls, and they took the road to the plain of Jericho.

⁵ The Babylonian army pursued them and caught up with Zedekiah in the plain of Jericho. They arrested him and brought him to Babylon's King Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. The king of Babylon passed sentence on him.

⁶ The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons as Zedekiah watched at Riblah. He also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah.

⁷ Then he blinded Zedekiah, put him in bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon.

⁸ The Babylonians burned down the royal palace and the people's homes, and they tore down the walls of Jerusalem.

⁹ Nebuzaradan, Babylon's captain of the guard, captured the few people left in the city, those who surrendered to him, and the rest of the people.

¹⁰ But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, left some poor people who had nothing in the land of Judah. At that time he gave them vineyards and farms.

¹¹ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon gave Nebuzaradan an order concerning Jeremiah. He said,

¹² "Take him, and look after him. Don't harm him in any way, but do for him whatever he asks."

¹³ Nebuzaradan (the captain of the guard), Nebushazban (the chief official), Nergal (the quartermaster and the chief fortuneteller), and all the other leaders of the king of Babylon sent for Jeremiah.

¹⁴ They took Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the prison and handed him over to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, to take him home. So he lived among the people.

¹⁵ While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the prison, the LORD spoke his word to him. The LORD said, ¹⁶ "Say to Ebed Melech from Sudan, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to carry out my threat against this city by bringing disaster on it instead of prosperity. At that time these things will happen as you watch.

¹⁷ But at that time I will rescue you, declares the LORD. You will not be handed over to those you fear.

¹⁸ I will certainly rescue you. You will not die in war. You will escape with your life because you trusted me, declares the LORD.'"

40 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, let him go at Ramah. Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah in chains along with the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken to Babylon.

² The captain of the guard took Jeremiah aside and said to him, "The LORD your God threatened to bring this disaster on this place.

³ He has carried out his threat. The LORD did as he promised because you Israelites have sinned against him and refused to obey him. That is why this has happened to you.

⁴ Today I'm removing the chains from your hands. If you would like to come with me to Babylon, come, and I'll look after you. But if you don't want to come with me to Babylon, don't come. The whole land is yours. Go wherever you want.

⁵ "If you wish to remain, then go back to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed to govern the cities of Judah.

Live among the people with him, or go anywhere you want." The captain of the guard gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go.

⁶ Jeremiah went to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, at Mizpah and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷ All the army commanders and their men who were in the field heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, to govern the country and some of the country's poorest men, women, and children who had not been taken away to Babylon.

⁹ Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men. He said, "Don't be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Live in this country, serve the king of Babylon, and you will prosper.

¹⁰ I'm going to live in Mizpah and represent you when the Babylonians come to us. Gather grapes, summer fruit, and olive oil, and put them in storage jars. Live in the cities you have taken over."

¹¹ Now, all the Jews who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and in all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few survivors in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, to govern them.

¹² So all the Jews returned from all the places where they had been scattered. They came to Judah and to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They gathered a large harvest of grapes and summer fruit.

¹³ Kareah's son Johanan and all the army commanders who were still in the country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah.

¹⁴ They asked him, "Do you know that King Baalis of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael, Nethaniah's son, to kill you?" However, Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, didn't believe them.

¹⁵ Then Johanan, Kareah's son, secretly asked Gedaliah at Mizpah, "Let me kill Ishmael, Nethaniah's son. No one will know about it. Why should he kill you? All the Jews who have gathered around you would scatter. What is left of Judah would disappear."

¹⁶ Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, told Johanan, Kareah's son, "Don't do that! What you are saying about Ishmael is a lie."

41 ¹ In the seventh month Ishmael (son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, a descendant of the royal family and of the king's officers) went with ten men to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate together at Mizpah, ² Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him got up, drew their swords, and killed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. So they assassinated the man whom the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the land.

³ Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah as well as the Babylonian soldiers that he found there.

⁴ The day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew about it,

⁵ 80 men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. Their beards were shaved off, their clothes were torn, and cuts were on their bodies. They brought grain offerings and incense to the LORD'S temple.

⁶ Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, left Mizpah to meet them, crying as he went. When he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam."

⁷ When they came into the city, Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, and his men slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

⁸ However, ten men from the group had said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey hidden in the country." So he left them alone and didn't kill them along with the others.

⁹ Now, the cistern where Ishmael threw all the bodies of the men he had killed was the same one that King Asa made as a part of his defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, filled it with the bodies.

¹⁰ Then Ishmael took captive the rest of the people who were at Mizpah. He captured the king's daughters and all the other people who had been left at Mizpah. They were the people whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had put under the control of Gedaliah, son of Ahikam. Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, took them captive and left for Ammon.

¹¹ When Kareah's son Johanan and all the army commanders who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, had done, ¹² they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael. They caught up with him at the large pool in Gibeon.

¹³ When all the people who were with Ishmael saw Kareah's son Johanan and all the army commanders who were with him, they were glad.

¹⁴ Then all the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and ran to Kareah's son Johanan.

¹⁵ Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to Ammon.

¹⁷ When they left Gibeon, they stayed near Bethlehem at Geruth Kimham on their way to Egypt.

¹⁸ They were afraid of the Babylonians because Ishmael had killed Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the land.

42 ¹ Then all the army commanders along with Kareah's son Johanan and Hoshai's son Jezaniah and all the people, from the least important to the most important, came to the prophet Jeremiah.

² They said to him, "Please listen to our request, and pray to the LORD your God for all of us who are left here. As you can see, there are only a few of us left.

³ Let the LORD your God tell us where we should go and what we should do."

⁴ The prophet Jeremiah answered them, "I have listened to your request. I will pray to the LORD your God as you have requested, and I will tell you everything the LORD says. I won't keep anything from you."

⁵ They said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we don't do exactly what the LORD your God tells us to do.

⁶ We will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, whether it's good or bad. Yes, we will obey the LORD our God so that everything will go well for us."

⁷ After ten days the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah.

⁸ So Jeremiah called Kareah's son Johanan, all the army commanders who were with him, and all the people from the least important to the most important.

⁹ Jeremiah said to them, "You sent me to plead your case humbly to the LORD. This is what the LORD God of Israel says:

¹⁰ Suppose you stay in this land. Then I will build you up and not tear you down. I will plant you and not uproot you. I will change my plans about the disaster I've brought on you.

¹¹ Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Don't be afraid of him, declares the LORD. I'm with you. I will save you and rescue you from his power.

¹² I will have compassion on you. I will make him have compassion on you and return you to your land.

¹³ "But suppose you say, 'We won't stay in this land,' and you disobey the LORD your God.

¹⁴ Then you say, 'We'll go to Egypt, where we won't have to see war, hear the sound of a ram's horn, or be hungry. We'll stay there.'

¹⁵ "Now, listen to the word of the LORD, you people who are left in Judah. This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Suppose you're determined to go to Egypt, and you go and live there.

¹⁶ Then the wars you fear will catch up with you in Egypt. The famines you dread will follow you to Egypt, and you will die there.

¹⁷ So all the people who decide to go and live in Egypt will die in wars, famines, and plagues. No one will survive or escape the disasters I will bring on them.

¹⁸ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: As my anger and my fury were poured out on those who live in Jerusalem, so my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become a curse word. You will become something ridiculed, cursed, and disgraced. You won't see this place again.

¹⁹ "The LORD has told you people who are left in Judah not to go to Egypt. You need to know that I am warning you today.

²⁰ You only deceived yourselves when you sent me to the LORD your God and said, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us, and tell us everything that the LORD our God says, and we'll do it.'

²¹ I have told you today, but you won't obey anything the LORD your God sent me to tell you.

²² But now, you need to know that you will die in wars, famines, or plagues in the place where you want to go and live."

43 ¹ So Jeremiah finished telling all the people the message from the LORD their God. He told them everything the LORD their God sent him to tell them.

² Azariah (son of Hoshai), Johanan (son of Kareah), and all the arrogant people said to Jeremiah, "You're lying! The LORD our God didn't send you to tell us that we must not go to live in Egypt.

³ But Baruch, son of Neriah, has turned you against us in order to hand us over to the Babylonians. Then they will kill us or take us as captives to Babylon."

⁴ So Johanan (son of Kareah), all the army commanders, and all the people didn't obey the LORD. They didn't stay in Judah.

⁶ They took men, women, children, and the king's daughters. They took every person whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, including the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch, son of Neriah.

⁸ Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes. He said,

⁹ "Take some large stones, and bury them under the brick pavement at the entrance to the Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes. Do this while the people of Judah watch you.

¹⁰ Say to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to send for my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will set his throne over these stones that I buried, and I will spread his royal canopy above them.

¹¹ He will defeat Egypt. He will bring death to those who are supposed to die. He will capture those who are supposed to be captured. He will kill in battle those who are supposed to be killed in battle.

¹² He will set fire to the temples of Egypt's gods. He will burn down the temples and take their gods captive.

Nebuchadnezzar will put on Egypt as his coat as a shepherd puts on his coat. He will leave Egypt peacefully.

¹³ At Beth Shemesh he will break the monuments in Egypt and burn down the temples of Egypt's gods."

44 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about all the Jews living in Egypt at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Noph, and Pathros.

² This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disasters I brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah. Today they are deserted ruins.

³ It is because their people did evil, and they made me angry. They went to burn incense and serve other gods that neither you nor your ancestors heard of.

⁴ I have sent my servants the prophets to you again and again to tell you not to do these detestable things that I hate.

⁵ But you wouldn't listen or pay attention. You wouldn't turn from your wicked ways and wouldn't stop burning incense as an offering to other gods.

⁶ That is why my fury and anger were poured out and continued to burn in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem. So they became the desolate ruin that they are today.

⁷ Now, this is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Why do you bring this terrible disaster on yourselves? Why do you keep destroying men, women, children, and babies from Judah until none are left?

⁸ Why do you make me angry by burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where you have come to live. You will destroy yourselves and be cursed and ridiculed by all the nations on earth.

⁹ Have you forgotten the wicked things done by your ancestors, by the kings of Judah and their wives, and by you and your wives in Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁰ You have not humbled yourselves even to this day. You haven't feared me or lived your lives by my teachings or by my decrees that I gave your ancestors.

¹¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring disaster on you and destroy all of Judah.

¹² I will take away from Judah those who are left, those who were determined to go to live in Egypt. They will die in Egypt. All of them, from the least important to the most important, will die in wars or be brought to an end by famines. They will become something cursed, ridiculed, and disgraced.

¹³ I will punish those living in Egypt as I punished Jerusalem with wars, famines, and plagues.

¹⁴ None of the people of Judah who went to live in Egypt will survive or return to Judah, where they long to return and live. Only a few refugees will return there.

¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, all the women who were standing there, and all the people who lived at Pathros in Egypt answered Jeremiah. They said, ¹⁶ "We won't listen to the message that you have spoken to us in the LORD'S name.

¹⁷ We will do everything we said we would do. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out wine offerings to her as our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem. We had plenty to eat then, and we lived comfortably and saw no disaster.

¹⁸ But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out wine offerings to her, we have had nothing but wars and famines."

¹⁹ The women added, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, poured out wine offerings to her, and made cakes for her with her image on them, do you think our husbands didn't approve?"

²⁰ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, to everyone who answered him,

²¹ "Doesn't the LORD remember that you burned incense in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem along with your ancestors, your kings and your officials, and the people in the land?"

²² The LORD could no longer bear the wicked and detestable things you did. That is why your land has become something ruined, destroyed, and cursed. No one lives in that land today.

²³ You burned incense as offerings to other gods, sinned against the LORD, and wouldn't obey him. You didn't live by his teachings, decrees, or written instructions. That is why you have met with this disaster as it is today."

²⁴ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, "Listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are in Egypt.

²⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives made promises, and you have kept them. You said, 'We will certainly do what we vow. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out wine offerings to her.' "So go ahead. Keep your vows, and do what you vow.

²⁶ But listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who live in Egypt.

‘I swear by my great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that no one from Judah who lives anywhere in Egypt will ever again call on my name and take the oath, "As the Almighty LORD lives..."’

²⁷ I am going to watch over them. I am going to watch over them to bring disasters, not blessings. In Egypt the people from Judah will die in wars and famines until everyone is gone.

²⁸ Those who escape the wars will return to Judah from Egypt. Then all the people of Judah who went to live in Egypt will know whose words have come true, mine or theirs.

²⁹ I will give you this sign,’ declares the LORD. ‘I will punish you in this place so that you will know that my threats of disaster will happen to you.

³⁰ This is what the LORD says: I’m going to hand Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies and to those who want to kill him, just as I handed over King Zedekiah of Judah to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to those who wanted to kill him.'"

45 ¹ This is the message that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch, son of Neriah. Baruch wrote these things on a scroll as Jeremiah dictated them during the fourth year that Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah. Jeremiah said,

² "This is what the LORD God of Israel says to you, Baruch:

³ You said, 'I'm so miserable! The LORD has added grief to my pain. I'm worn out from groaning. I can't find any rest.'

⁴ "Say this to Baruch, 'This is what the LORD says: I will tear down what I have built. I will uproot what I have planted throughout the earth.

⁵ Are you looking for great things for yourself? Don't look for them, because I'm going to bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD. But wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.'"

46 ¹ The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the nations.

² This is the message about Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated his army at Carchemish along the Euphrates River during the fourth year that Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah.

³ "Get your large and small shields ready; advance into battle.

⁴ Harness your horses. Mount up, you horsemen. Take your positions, and put on your helmets. Polish your spears. Put on your armor.

⁵ "What do I see in them? They are terrified. They are retreating. Their warriors are defeated. They flee without looking back. Terror is all around them," declares the LORD.

⁶ "The infantry can't flee. The warriors can't escape. They stumble and fall in the north by the Euphrates River.

⁷ Who is this, rising like the Nile River, like streams that flow swiftly?

⁸ Egypt is like the rising Nile River, like a river quickly overflowing its banks. Egypt says, 'I will rise; I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and the people in them.'

⁹ Go into battle, you horsemen. Drive wildly, you chariot drivers. March into battle, you warriors, you warriors from Sudan and Put who carry shields, you warriors from Lydia who use bows and arrows.

¹⁰ That day belongs to the Almighty LORD of Armies. It is a day of vengeance when he will take revenge on his enemies. His sword will devour until it has had enough, and it will drink their blood until it's full. The Almighty LORD of Armies will offer them as sacrifices in the north by the Euphrates River.

¹¹ Go to Gilead, and get medicine, dear people of Egypt. You have used many medicines without results; you can't be cured.

¹² The nations have heard of your shame; your cry fills the earth. One warrior will stumble over another, and both will fall together."

¹³ The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who will defeat Egypt.

¹⁴ "Tell this in Egypt; announce this in Migdol. Make it known in Memphis and in Tahpanhes. Say, 'Take your positions, and get ready. Swords will kill those around you.'

¹⁵ Why should your soldiers be cut down? They can't stand because the LORD will push them down.

¹⁶ They have repeatedly stumbled, and now they have fallen. They say to each other, 'Get up! Let's go back to our people, to the land where we were born, and escape our enemy's sword.'

¹⁷ There they will cry, 'Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is a big windbag. He has missed his chance.'

¹⁸ "As I live," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies, "someone who is like Mount Tabor among the mountains will come. Someone who is like Mount Carmel by the sea will come.

¹⁹ Pack your bags, inhabitants of Egypt, because you will be taken away as captives. Memphis will become a dreary wasteland, a pile of rubble where no one lives.

²⁰ "Egypt is like a beautiful cow, but a horsefly from the north will attack it.

²¹ Egypt's hired soldiers are like fattened calves. They will turn and run away together. They won't stand their ground. The day of destruction is coming. At that time they will be punished.

²² Egypt will hiss like a snake as it slithers away. Its enemies will come with full force. They will attack it with axes like those who chop wood.

²³ They will cut down the forest," declares the LORD, "since Egypt can't be found. They are more numerous than locusts; they can't be counted.

²⁴ The people of Egypt will be put to shame. They will be handed over to the people from the north."

²⁵ The LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "I'm going to punish Amon, who is the god of Thebes. I will also punish Pharaoh, Egypt, its gods, its kings, and whoever trusts Pharaoh.

²⁶ I'll hand them over to those who want to kill them, to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his officers. Afterward, they will live in peace as they did long ago," declares the LORD.

²⁷ "Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob. Don't be terrified, Israel. I'm going to rescue you and your descendants from a faraway land, from the land where you are captives. Then Jacob's descendants will again have undisturbed peace, and no one will make them afraid.

²⁸ Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob," declares the LORD. "I am with you. I will completely destroy all the nations where I scattered you, but I will not completely destroy you. I will correct you with justice. I won't let you go entirely unpunished."

47 ¹ The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the Philistines before Pharaoh defeated Gaza.

² This is what the LORD says: Water is rising in the north. It will become an overflowing river. It will overflow the land and everything in it, the cities and those who live in them. People will cry out and everyone who lives in the land will cry loudly.

³ They will hear the sound of galloping war horses, the rattling of enemy chariots, and the rumbling of their wheels. Fathers who lack courage abandon their children.

⁴ The time has come to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon any Philistine who might have escaped to get help. The LORD will destroy the Philistines and anyone who is left from the island of Crete.

⁵ Gaza will shave its head in mourning. Ashkelon will be destroyed. How long will you cut yourselves, you people left on the plains?

⁶ You cry out, "Sword of the LORD, how long will you keep on fighting? Go back into your scabbard. Stay there and rest!"

⁷ How can the sword of the LORD rest? The LORD has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coast. He has put it there.

48 ¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about Moab: How horrible it will be for Nebo; it will be destroyed. Kiriathaim will be put to shame; it will be captured. Its stronghold will be put to shame and torn down.

² People will no longer praise Moab. The people in Heshbon will plan Moab's destruction. "Let's destroy that nation!"

You will be silenced, city of Madmen.
Death will come after you.

³ People will cry out from Horonaim,
"Looting and great destruction!"

⁴ Moab will be broken. Its little ones will cry out.

⁵ People go up the pass of Luhith, crying bitterly as they go. On the road down to Horonaim they have heard the distressful cry of destruction.

⁶ "Run away! Run for your lives! Run like a wild donkey in the desert."

⁷ Since you trust the things you do and your treasures, you will be captured.
Chemosh will go into captivity with all its priests and officials.

⁸ The destroyer will come to every city, and no city will escape. The valley will be destroyed, and the plain will be laid waste as the LORD has threatened.

⁹ Put salt on Moab. It will be destroyed.
Its cities will become deserted ruins.

¹⁰ Cursed are those who neglect doing the LORD'S work. Cursed are those who keep their swords from killing.

¹¹ "Moab has lived securely ever since it was young. Its people are like wine left to settle in a jar. They aren't poured from one jar to another. They haven't gone into captivity. That is why its flavor has remained the same, and its aroma hasn't changed.

¹² That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will send people to pour Moab out of its jars and to smash its pitchers.

¹³ Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh as the nation of Israel was ashamed when it trusted Bethel.

¹⁴ "How can you say, 'We are soldiers and warriors'?

¹⁵ The enemy will attack Moab and destroy its cities. Its finest young men will be slaughtered," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁶ "Moab's destruction is coming near; disaster is coming quickly.

¹⁷ Mourn over it, all of its neighbors and everyone who knows its fame. Say, 'Look at the strong staff, the beautiful rod, that is broken!'

¹⁸ "People of Dibon, come down from your place of honor and sit on the dry ground. The destroyers of Moab will attack you. They will destroy your fortresses.

¹⁹ Stand by the road in Aroer, and watch. Ask those who are fleeing and those who are escaping what is happening.

²⁰ They will answer, 'Moab is disgraced; it is defeated. Shout loudly, and cry. Tell the news in Arnon that Moab is destroyed.'

²¹ "Judgment has come to all the cities on the plain: to Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath,

²² Dibon, Nebo, Beth Diblathaim,

²³ Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, Beth Meon,

²⁴ Kerioth, Bozrah, and on all the cities of Moab, far and near.

²⁵ "Moab's horn is cut off, and its arm is broken," declares the LORD.

²⁶ "Get the people of Moab drunk; they have spoken against the LORD. They will wallow in their own vomit, and people will laugh at them.

²⁷ People of Moab, didn't you laugh at the people of Israel? Were they caught among thieves? Whenever you talk about them you shake your heads in contempt.

²⁸ People of Moab, abandon your cities. Live among the cliffs. Be like doves that make their nests at the entrance of a cave.

²⁹ "We have heard about the arrogance of Moab's people. They are very arrogant. They are very arrogant, conceited, and boastful.

³⁰ I know how arrogant they are," declares the LORD, "but it isn't right. They brag and don't do what they say.

³¹ That is why I will weep for Moab and cry for all of Moab. I will moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.

³² I will cry for you as Jazer cries. I will cry for you, grapevines of Sibmah. Your branches once spread as far as the sea, and they reached as far as the sea of Jazer. The destroyer will destroy your ripened fruits and your grapes.

³³ Joy and gladness have disappeared from the orchards and fields of Moab. I will stop the wine flowing from the winepresses. No one will stomp on grapes with shouts of joy. There will be shouts, but not shouts of joy.

³⁴ "The cry will be heard from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz. It will be heard from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the streams of Nimrim will dry up.

³⁵ I will stop those in Moab who come to worship sites, those who bring offerings to their gods," declares the LORD.

³⁶ "That is why I moan for Moab like a flute. I sound like a flute for the people of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they gained has disappeared.

³⁷ "Every head is shaved, and every beard is cut off. There are gashes on every hand and sackcloth on every waist.

³⁸ People in Moab will mourn on every rooftop and in every street. There will be mourning everywhere, because I will break Moab like a jar that no one wants," declares the LORD.

³⁹ "They will cry, 'Look how Moab is defeated! Moab turns away in shame!' Moab has become something ridiculed and something held in contempt by everyone around it.

⁴⁰ "This is what the LORD says: The enemy will swoop down like eagles and spread their wings over Moab.

⁴¹ The cities will be taken, and the fortified places will be captured. On that day Moab's soldiers will be like women in childbirth.

⁴² Moab will be destroyed as a nation, because it spoke against the LORD.

⁴³ Disasters, pits, and traps are in store for those who live in Moab," declares the LORD.

⁴⁴ "Whoever flees from a disaster will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a trap. I will bring a year of punishment to Moab," declares the LORD.

⁴⁵ "Those who flee will stand exhausted in the shadow of Heshbon. A fire will come out of Heshbon and a flame from Sihon. It will burn the foreheads of the people of Moab and the skulls of those noisy people.

⁴⁶ How horrible it will be for you, Moab. You people of Chemosh will die. Your sons will be taken away into exile, and your daughters will be taken away into captivity.

⁴⁷ But I will restore Moab in the last days," declares the LORD. The judgment against Moab ends here.

49 ¹ This is what the LORD says about the people of Ammon: Doesn't Israel have any children? Doesn't it have any heirs? Why, then, has the god Milcom taken over the inheritance of Gad's descendants? Why do Milcom's people live in Gad's cities?

² That is why the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah, where the people of Ammon live. It will become a pile of rubble. Its villages will be burned down. Then Israel will take possession of its inheritance, says the LORD.

³ Cry loudly, Heshbon, because Ai is destroyed. Cry, people of Rabbah, put on your sackcloth, and mourn. Run back and forth between the walls. Milcom will be taken away into captivity with its priests and officials.

⁴ Why do you brag about your valleys, your fertile valleys, you unfaithful people? You trust your treasures. You think, "Who would attack me?"

⁵ I am going to bring terror on you from all around, declares the Almighty LORD of Armies. Everyone will be scattered. No one will gather the refugees.

⁶ But afterward, I will return the captives of Ammon, declares the LORD.

⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says about Edom: Is there no longer any wisdom in Teman? Has wisdom disappeared from your people? Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸ Turn and run. Hide in deep caves, inhabitants of Dedan. When I punish them, I will bring disaster on the descendants of Esau.

⁹ If people come to pick your grapes, won't they leave a few grapes behind? If thieves come during the night, won't they steal only until they've had enough?

¹⁰ Yet, I will strip the descendants of Esau. I will find their hiding places. They won't be able to hide. Their children and relatives will be destroyed. None of their neighbors will say,

¹¹ "Abandon your orphans, and I will keep them alive. Your widows can trust me."

¹² This is what the LORD says: If those who don't deserve to drink from the cup still drink from it, why should you go unpunished? You won't go unpunished. You must drink from it.

¹³ I take an oath on myself, declares the LORD, that Bozrah will become a pile of rubble. It will become something horrifying, ridiculed, ruined, and cursed. All its cities will lie in ruins permanently.

¹⁴ I heard a message from the LORD. A messenger was sent among the nations to say, "Assemble, and attack Edom. Get ready for battle."

¹⁵ "Edom, I will make you the smallest of nations and despised among humanity.

¹⁶ You have frightened other people. Your arrogance has deceived you. You live on rocky cliffs and occupy the highest places in the hills. Even though you build your nest as high as an eagle, I will bring you down from there," declares the LORD.

¹⁷ "Then Edom will become something horrible. Everyone who passes by it will be horrified and hiss at all its wounds.

¹⁸ Edom will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, and their neighboring cities when they were destroyed. No one will live there. No human will stay there," says the LORD.

¹⁹ "I will suddenly chase them from their places like a lion coming out of the jungle along the Jordan River into pastureland. I will appoint over Edom whomever I choose. Who is like me? Who can challenge me? Is there any leader who can stand up to me?"

²⁰ Listen to the plans that the LORD is making against Edom and the things he intends to do to those who live in Teman. He will surely drag away the little ones of the flock. He will surely destroy the pasture because of the people who live in Teman.

²¹ The earth will quake at the sound of their downfall. The sound of their crying will be heard at the Red Sea.

²² The enemy will swoop down like eagles and spread their wings over Bozrah. On that day Edom's soldiers will be like women in childbirth.

²³ This is a message about Damascus. "Hamath and Arpad are worried because they heard the bad news. They melt in fear. They are troubled like a sea that can't be calmed.

²⁴ The people of Damascus are weak. They turn to flee, but panic grips them. Anguish and pain grip them like a woman in labor.

²⁵ Why isn't that famous, happy city abandoned?

²⁶ That is why its young men will die in the streets, and its soldiers will be silenced that day," declares the LORD of Armies.

²⁷ "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus and burn down Benhadad's palaces."

²⁸ This is about the tribe of Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated. This is what the LORD says: Get ready, attack Kedar, and loot the people from the east.

²⁹ Their tents and their flocks will be taken. Their tent curtains, utensils, and camels will be carried away. People will shout to them, "Terror is all around!"

³⁰ Run far away! Find a place to hide, inhabitants of Hazor, declares the LORD. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has made plans against you and intends to attack you.

³¹ Get ready! Attack the nation living peacefully and securely, declares the LORD. It is a nation with no gates or bars. Its people live alone.

³² Their camels will be taken as prizes. Their large herds will be taken as loot. I will scatter to the winds those who shave the hair on their foreheads. I will bring disaster on them from every side, declares the LORD.

³³ Hazer will be a place where only jackals live. It will become a permanent wasteland. No one will live there. No human will stay there.

³⁴ Early in the rule of King Zedekiah of Judah, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam.

³⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm going to break the bows of Elam's archers, the most important weapon of their strength.

³⁶ I'll bring the four winds from the four corners of heaven against Elam and scatter its people in every direction. There won't be a nation where Elam's refugees won't go.

³⁸ I'll set my throne in Elam and destroy its king and officials, declares the LORD.

³⁹ But afterward, I'll return the captives of Elam, declares the LORD.

50 ¹ This is the message that the LORD spoke about Babylon and the land of the Babylonians through the prophet Jeremiah.

² "Announce this among the nations, and spread the news. Raise a flag, and announce it. Don't hide anything. Say, ‘Babylon will be captured. Bel will be put to shame. Marduk will be filled with terror. Babylon’s statues will be put to shame. Its idols will be filled with terror.’

³ A nation from the north will attack Babylon and destroy its land so that no one will live in it. People and animals will run away.

⁴ "In those days and at that time," declares the LORD, "the people of Israel and Judah will cry as they go together to seek the LORD their God.

⁵ They will ask which road goes to Zion and turn in that direction. They will go there to make a permanent agreement with the LORD. It will not be forgotten.

⁶ My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray. They wander around on the mountains. They go from mountains to hills. They have forgotten their resting place.

⁷ Everyone who finds them eats them. Their enemies say, 'We're not guilty. They have sinned against the LORD, their true pasture. They have sinned against the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.'

⁸ "Run away from Babylon. Leave the land of the Babylonians. Be like the male goats that lead the flock.

⁹ I am going to stir up an alliance of strong nations from the north and bring it against Babylon. Those nations will take up positions against Babylon. Babylon will be captured from the north. Its enemy's arrows will be like skilled soldiers who don't come back empty-handed.

¹⁰ The Babylonians will become the prize. All who loot them will get everything they want," declares the LORD.

¹¹ "You are happy and excited. You have looted the people who belong to me.

You dance around like calves on the grass and neigh like stallions.

¹² But your mother will be greatly ashamed. The woman who gave birth to you will be disgraced. Babylon, you will be the least important nation. You will become a parched desert.

¹³ No one will live in Babylon because of the LORD'S anger. It will be completely abandoned. Everyone who passes by Babylon will be horrified and hiss at all its wounds.

¹⁴ "Take up your positions around Babylon, all you archers with bows. Shoot at it; don't save any arrows, because the people of Babylon have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵ Shout a war cry against them on every side. They'll surrender. Their towers will fall and their walls will be torn down. Since this is the LORD'S vengeance, take revenge against them.

Do to them what they did to others.

¹⁶ Don't allow anyone in Babylon to plant or harvest. Everyone will turn to his own people and flee to his own homeland because of the enemies' swords.

¹⁷ "The people of Israel are like scattered sheep that lions have chased. The first to devour them was the king of Assyria. The last to gnaw at their bones was King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

¹⁸ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ I will bring the people of Israel back to their pastures. They will eat on Mount Carmel and Mount Bashan. They will eat until they are full on the mountains of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰ In those days and at that time," declares the LORD, "people will look for Israel's crimes, but they will find none. They will look for Judah's sins, but none will be found. I will forgive the faithful few whom I have spared.

²¹ "Attack the land of Merathaim and the people who live in Pekod. Claim them for me by killing them with a sword," declares the LORD. "Do everything I commanded you.

²² The noise of battle and great destruction fills the land.

²³ The hammer of the whole earth is broken and shattered. See how desolate Babylon is of all the nations!

²⁴ I will set traps for you, Babylon. You will be caught, but you won't know it. You will be found and captured because you have opposed the LORD.

²⁵ The LORD will open his armory and bring out the weapons of his fury, because the Almighty LORD of Armies has a job to do in the land of the Babylonians.

²⁶ Attack them from a distance, open their storehouses, pile up their corpses like piles of grain, claim them for me by destroying them, and don't leave anyone behind.

²⁷ Kill all their young bulls. Let them go to be slaughtered. How horrible it will be for them when their time has come, the time for them to be punished.

²⁸ Listen! Fugitives and refugees from Babylon are coming to Zion to tell about the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance for his temple.

²⁹ "Call together the archers, the soldiers with bows, against Babylon. Set up blockades around it. Don't let anyone escape. Pay the people of Babylon back for what they have done. Do to them what they did to others. They have disobeyed the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

³⁰ That is why their young men will die in the streets, and all their soldiers will be silenced that day," declares the LORD.

³¹ "I'm against you, you arrogant city," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies. "Your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

³² Those arrogant people will stumble and fall, and there will be no one to help them get up. I will light a fire in their cities that will burn up everything around them."

³³ This is what the LORD of Armies says: All the people of Israel and Judah are oppressed. All their enemies have captured them. They refuse to let them go.

³⁴ Their defender is strong. His name is the LORD of Armies. He will certainly take up their cause in order to bring rest to the land of Israel and unrest to the people who live in Babylon.

³⁵ "A sword will kill the Babylonians and everyone who lives in Babylon," declares the LORD. "A sword will kill their officials and their wise men.

³⁶ A sword will kill the false prophets. They will become fools. A sword will kill their soldiers and defeat them.

³⁷ A sword will kill their horses, their chariots, and all the foreigners within their ranks. They will become women. A sword will destroy their treasures, and they will be looted.

³⁸ A drought will diminish their water supply, and it will dry up. Babylon is a land of idols, statues that will go crazy with fear.

³⁹ That is why desert animals will live with hyenas. Desert owls will also live there. It will no longer be inhabited or lived in for generations.

⁴⁰ Babylon will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, and their neighboring cities when I, God, destroyed them. No one will live there. No human will stay there," declares the LORD.

⁴¹ "People are going to come from the north. A great nation and many kings will rise from the ends of the earth.

⁴² They will take hold of bows and spears. They will be cruel and have no compassion. They will sound like the sea when it roars. They will ride horses. They are ready for war, ready to attack you, people of Babylon.

⁴³ The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and he loses courage. Anguish will grip him as pain grips a woman in labor.

⁴⁴ I will suddenly chase them from their places like a lion coming out of the jungle along the Jordan River into pastureland. I will appoint over Babylon whomever I choose. Who is like me?

Who can challenge me? Is there any leader who can stand up to me?

⁴⁵ Listen to the plans that the LORD is making against Babylon and the things he intends to do to the land of the Babylonians. He will surely drag away the little ones of the flock. He will surely destroy the pasture because of the Babylonians.

⁴⁶ The earth will quake at the news that Babylon has been captured. Its cry will be heard among the nations."

51 ¹ This is what the LORD says: I will stir up a destructive wind against Babylon and against the people who live in Leb Kamai.

² I will send people to winnow Babylon, to winnow it and strip its land bare. They will attack it from every direction on the day of trouble.

³ Have the archers bend their bows. Have them put on their armor. Don't spare Babylon's young men. Completely destroy its whole army.

⁴ Babylon's soldiers will fall down badly wounded in their streets. They will lie dead in their own land.

⁵ Israel and Judah haven't been abandoned by their God, the LORD of Armies, although their land is guilty of abandoning the Holy One of Israel.

⁶ Run away from Babylon! Run for your lives! You shouldn't die because of Babylon's crimes. This is the time for the vengeance of the LORD. He will pay the people of Babylon back for what they have done.

⁷ Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD'S hand. It made the whole world drunk. The nations drank its wine. That is why the nations have gone insane.

⁸ Babylon will suddenly fall and be shattered. Cry for it. Bring medicine for its pain. Maybe it can be healed.

⁹ We wanted to heal Babylon, but it couldn't be healed. Let's abandon it and go to our own land. God has judged Babylon. Its judgment is complete.

¹⁰ The LORD has brought about our victory. Let's announce in Zion what the LORD our God has done.

¹¹ Sharpen the arrows; fill the quivers. The LORD will stir up the spirit of the kings of the Medes because his plan is to destroy Babylon. The LORD will avenge his temple.

¹² Raise your battle flag in front of the walls of Babylon. Strengthen the guards. Station watchmen. Prepare ambushes. The LORD will carry out his plans against the people who live in Babylon.

¹³ Babylon, you live beside many rivers and are rich with treasures, but your end has come. The thread of your life has been cut off.

¹⁴ The LORD of Armies has taken an oath on himself: "I will certainly fill you with many enemy armies. They will swarm like locusts. People will shout their victory over you."

¹⁵ The LORD made the earth by his power. He set up the world by his wisdom. He stretched out heaven by his understanding.

¹⁶ When he thunders, the water in the sky roars. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain. He brings wind out of his storehouses.

¹⁷ Everyone is stupid and ignorant. Metalsmiths are put to shame by their idols. Their statues are false gods.

¹⁸ They can't breathe. They are worthless jokes. When they are punished, they will disappear.

¹⁹ Jacob's God isn't like them. He made everything, and Israel is the tribe that belongs to him. His name is the LORD of Armies.

²⁰ "You are my war club and my weapon for battle. I will use you to crush nations. I will use you to destroy kingdoms.

²¹ I will use you to crush horses and their riders. I will use you to crush chariots and their drivers.

²² I will use you to crush men and women. I will use you to crush the old and the young. I will use you to crush young men and women.

²³ I will use you to crush shepherds and their flocks. I will use you to crush farmers and their oxen. I will use you to crush governors and officials.

²⁴ "In your presence I will pay back Babylon and all the people who live in Babylon for all the evil things that they did in Zion," declares the LORD.

²⁵ "I am against you, Babylon, you destructive mountain. You have destroyed the whole earth," declares the LORD. "I will use my power against you, roll you off the cliffs, and make you a scorched mountain.

²⁶ People won't find any stones in you to use as a cornerstone. They won't find any stones in you to use for a foundation. You will become permanent ruins," declares the LORD.

²⁷ Raise your battle flag throughout the world. Blow the ram's horn among the nations. Prepare nations to attack Babylon. Tell the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz to attack it. Appoint a commander to lead the attack. Bring up horses like a swarm of locusts.

²⁸ Prepare nations to attack Babylon. Prepare the king of the Medes, their governors, all their deputies, and all the countries that they rule.

²⁹ The earth trembles and writhes in pain. The LORD carries out his plans against Babylon to make Babylon a wasteland so that no one will live there.

³⁰ The warriors of Babylon have stopped fighting. They stay in their fortified cities. Their strength has failed. They have become women. Their buildings are set on fire. The bars across their gates are broken.

³¹ Runners run to meet runners. Messengers follow messengers. They inform the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured.

³² The river crossings have been taken. The enemy has burned its marshes, and its soldiers are terrified.

³³ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: The people of Babylon are like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled. Their harvest time will come soon.

³⁴ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has devoured us. He has thrown us into confusion. He has turned us into empty jars. He has swallowed us like a monster. He has filled his belly with our delicacies. Then he spit us out.

³⁵ The people who live in Zion say, "May the violence done to us be done to Babylon." Jerusalem says, "May the people of Babylon be held responsible for our deaths."

³⁶ This is what the LORD says: I am going to take up your cause and get revenge for you. I will dry up Babylon's sea and make its springs dry.

³⁷ Babylon will become piles of rubble. It will become a dwelling place for jackals, something horrible, and an object of contempt, where no one lives.

³⁸ Its people are like roaring lions and growling lion cubs.

³⁹ When they are excited, I will prepare a feast for them and make them drunk so that they will shout and laugh. They will fall into a deep sleep and never wake up again, declares the LORD.

⁴⁰ I will take them to be slaughtered like lambs, rams, and male goats.

⁴¹ "Sheshach has been captured. Babylon, the city that the whole world praised, has been taken captive.

⁴² What a horrifying sight Babylon will be to the nations! The sea will rise over Babylon, and its roaring waves will cover it.

⁴³ Its cities will be ruined. It will become a desert, a land where no one lives and where no human travels.

⁴⁴ I will punish Bel in Babylon. I will make Bel spit out everything that it has swallowed. Nations will no longer stream to Babylon, and its walls will fall.

⁴⁵ "Leave it, my people! Run for your lives! Run from the burning anger of the LORD.

⁴⁶ Don't lose courage or be afraid when rumors are heard in the land. One rumor comes one year; another rumor comes the next year. Rumors of violence are in the land. Rumors that one ruler will fight against another are in the land.

⁴⁷ That is why the days are coming when I will punish Babylon's idols. The whole country will be put to shame, and all its soldiers will lie dead.

⁴⁸ Then heaven and earth and everything in them will rejoice over Babylon, because destroyers from the north will attack it," declares the LORD.

⁴⁹ Because the people of Babylon have killed many Israelites and because they have killed many people throughout the earth, Babylon must fall.

⁵⁰ You people who escaped from the sword, leave! Don't just stand there. Remember the LORD in a distant land, and think about Jerusalem.

⁵¹ We have been put to shame, and we have been disgraced. Shame covers our faces, because foreigners have gone into the holy places of the LORD'S temple.

⁵² "That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish their idols, and those who are wounded will moan everywhere in the land.

⁵⁴ Cries of agony are heard from Babylon. Sounds of terrible destruction are heard from the land of the Babylonians.

⁵⁵ The LORD will destroy Babylon. He will silence the loud noise coming from it. Waves of enemies will come roaring in like raging water. The noise will be heard everywhere.

⁵⁶ A destroyer will attack Babylon, its soldiers will be captured, and their bows and arrows will be broken. "I, the LORD, am a God who punishes evil. I will certainly punish them.

⁵⁷ I will make their officials and wise men drunk, along with their governors, officers, and soldiers. They will fall into a deep sleep and never wake up," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies.

⁵⁸ This is what the LORD of Armies says: The thick walls of Babylon will be leveled, and its high gates will be set on fire. People exhaust themselves for nothing. The nations wear themselves out only to have a fire.

⁶⁰ Jeremiah wrote on a scroll all the disasters that would happen to Babylon. He wrote all these things that have been written about Babylon.

⁶¹ Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all this.

⁶² Then say, 'LORD, you have threatened to destroy this place so that no person or animal will live here, and it will become a permanent ruin.'

⁶³ When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River.

⁶⁴ Say, ‘Babylon will sink like this scroll. It will never rise again because of the disasters that I will bring on it.’” The words of Jeremiah end here.

52 ¹ Zedekiah was 21 years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.

² Zedekiah did what the LORD considered evil, as Jehoiakim had done.

³ The LORD became angry with Jerusalem and Judah and threw the people out of his sight. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴ On the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah’s reign, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Jerusalem with his entire army. They set up camp and built dirt ramps around the city walls.

⁵ The blockade of the city lasted until Zedekiah's eleventh year as king.

⁶ On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city became so severe that the common people had no food.

⁷ The enemy broke through the city walls, and all Judah's soldiers fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls beside the king's garden. While the Babylonians were attacking the city from all sides, they took the road to the plain of Jericho.

⁸ The Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and caught up with him in the plain of Jericho. His entire army had deserted him.

⁹ The Babylonians captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in Hamath, where the king of Babylon passed sentence on him.

¹⁰ The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons as Zedekiah watched. He also slaughtered all the officials of Judah at Riblah.

¹¹ Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze shackles. The king of Babylon took him to Babylon and put him in a prison, where he stayed until he died.

¹² On the tenth day of the fifth month of Nebuchadnezzar's nineteenth year as king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, who was the captain of the guard and an officer of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

¹³ He burned down the LORD'S temple, the royal palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem. Every important building was burned down.

¹⁴ The entire Babylonian army that was with the captain of the guard tore down the walls around Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, captured the few people left in the city, those who surrendered to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population.

¹⁶ But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, left some of the poorest people in the land to work in the vineyards and on the farms.

¹⁷ The Babylonians broke apart the bronze pillars of the LORD'S temple, the stands, and the bronze pool in the LORD'S temple. They shipped all the bronze to Babylon.

¹⁸ They took the pots, shovels, snuffers, bowls, dishes, and all the bronze utensils used in the temple service.

¹⁹ The captain of the guard also took pans, incense burners, bowls, pots, lamp stands, dishes, and the bowls used for wine offerings. The captain of the guard took all of the trays and bowls that were made of gold or silver.

²⁰ The bronze from the 2 pillars, the pool, and the 12 bronze bulls under the stands that King Solomon had made for the LORD'S temple couldn't be weighed.

²¹ One pillar was 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference. It was three inches thick and hollow.

²² The capital that was on it was 7½ feet high with a filigree and pomegranates around it. They were all made of bronze. The second pillar was the same. It also had pomegranates.

²³ There were 96 pomegranates on the sides. The total number of pomegranates on the surrounding filigree was 100.

²⁴ The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the 3 doorkeepers.

²⁶ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

²⁷ The king of Babylon executed them at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. So the people of Judah were captives as they left their land.

²⁸ These are the people Nebuchadnezzar took captive: In his seventh year as king, he took 3,023 Jews.

²⁹ In his eighteenth year, Nebuchadnezzar took 832 people from Jerusalem.

³⁰ In Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year as king, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took away 745 Jews. In all, 4,600 people were taken away.

³¹ On the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the imprisonment of King Jehoiakin of Judah, King Evil Merodach of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, freed King Jehoiakin of Judah and released him from prison.

³² He treated him well and gave him a special position higher than the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

³³ Jehoiakin no longer wore prison clothes, and he ate his meals in the king's presence as long as he lived.

³⁴ The king of Babylon gave him a daily food allowance as long as he lived.

Lamentations

1 ¹ "Look how deserted Jerusalem is! Once the city was crowded with people. Once it was important among the nations. Now it is a widow. Once it was a princess among the provinces. Now it does forced labor.

² Jerusalem cries bitterly at night with tears running down its cheeks. Out of all those who love the city, no one offers it comfort. All of Jerusalem's friends have betrayed it and become its enemies.

³ "Judah has been exiled after much suffering and harsh treatment. Its people live among the nations; they find no rest. Those who chased them caught up with them in places where there was no way out.

⁴ "The roads to Zion are deserted. No one comes to the annual festivals. No one passes through any of its gates. Its priests are groaning. Its young women are made to suffer. Zion is bitter.

⁵ Its opponents are now in control. Its enemies have no worries. The LORD made Zion suffer for its many rebellious acts. Its children go ahead of their opponents into captivity.

⁷ "Now, during its suffering and oppression, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures it had from ancient times, when its people fell into the power of their enemies with no one to help them. Their opponents looked on, and they laughed at Jerusalem's downfall.

⁸ Jerusalem has sinned so much that it has become a filthy thing. Everyone who used to honor it now despises it. They've seen it naked. Jerusalem groans and turns away.

⁹ Jerusalem's own filth covers its clothes. It gave no thought to its future. Its downfall was shocking. No one offers it comfort. 'O LORD, look at my suffering, because my enemies have triumphed.'

¹⁰ The enemies laid their hands on all of the city's treasures. Jerusalem has seen the nations enter the holy place. 'O Lord, they are the same people you have forbidden to enter your congregation.'

¹¹ All the people are groaning as they beg for bread. They trade their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. 'O LORD, look and see how despised I am!'"

¹² "Doesn't this affect all of you who pass by? Look and see if there's any pain like the pain that the LORD has caused me, like the pain that he has made me suffer on the day of his fierce anger.

¹³ He sent fire from above. He made it go deep into my bones. He spread a net for my feet. He made me turn back. He has left me devastated. He has made me sick all day long.

¹⁴ My rebellious acts are a heavy burden for me. They were tied together by God's own hands. They were tied around my neck. He has weakened me with them. The Lord has handed me over to people I cannot oppose.

¹⁵ The Lord has treated all the warriors inside my walls with contempt. He called an army to defeat my young men. The LORD trampled the people of Judah in a winepress.

¹⁶ I'm crying because of all these things. My eyes—my eyes flow with tears. No one can give me the comfort I need to keep me alive. Everyone is too far away from me. My children are devastated because my enemies have won."

¹⁷ Zion holds out its hands. No one offers it comfort. The LORD has given this order about Jacob: His own neighbors will become his opponents. Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

¹⁸ "The LORD is right in what he did, because I rebelled against his word. Please listen, all you people, and look at my pain. My young women and young men have gone into captivity.

¹⁹ I called for those who love me, but they betrayed me. My priests and leaders breathed their last breath in the city, looking for food to keep themselves alive.

²⁰ "O LORD, see the distress I'm in! My stomach is churning. My heart is pounding because I've been very bitter. In the streets swords kill my children. Inside the houses it's like death.

²¹ "All my enemies have heard that I am groaning. No one offers me comfort. All my enemies have heard about my disaster. They are happy that you did it. You have allowed the day to come, the one that you had announced. Let my enemies be like me now.

²² Recall all of their wickedness. Then deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my rebellious acts. I groan so much and feel so sick at heart."

2¹ "Look how the Lord has covered the people of Zion with the cloud of his anger! He has thrown down Israel's beauty from heaven to earth. He didn't even remember his footstool on the day of his anger.

² The Lord swallowed up all of Jacob's pastures without any pity. He tore down the fortified cities of Judah in his fury. He brought the kingdom of Judah and its leaders down to the ground in dishonor.

³ In his burning anger he cut off all of Israel's strength. He withdrew his right hand when they faced their enemy. He burned like a raging fire in the land of Jacob, destroying everything around him.

⁴ Like an enemy he bent his bow. Like an opponent his right hand held the arrow steady. He killed all the beautiful people. He poured out his fury like fire on the tent of Zion's people.

⁵ The Lord became an enemy. He swallowed up Israel. He swallowed up all of its palaces. He destroyed its strongholds. He made the people of Judah mourn and moan.

⁷ The Lord rejected his altar and disowned his holy place. He handed the walls of Zion's palaces over to its enemies. The enemies made noise in the LORD'S temple as though it were a festival day.

⁹ "Zion's gates have sunk into the ground. The LORD destroyed and shattered the bars across its gates. Its king and influential people are scattered among the nations. There is no longer any instruction from Moses' Teachings. Its prophets can find no visions from the LORD.

¹⁰ The respected leaders of Zion's people sit silently on the ground.

They throw dirt on their heads and put on sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground.

¹¹ My eyes are worn out with tears. My stomach is churning. My heart is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of my people. Little children and infants faint in the city streets.

¹² They're asking their mothers for some bread and wine as they faint like wounded people in the city streets. Their lives dwindle away in their mothers' arms.

¹³ "What example can I give you? What parallel can I show you, people of Jerusalem? What comparison can I make that will comfort you, beloved people of Zion? Your wounds are as deep as the sea. Who can heal you?

¹⁴ Your prophets saw misleading visions about you. They painted a good picture of you. They didn't expose your guilt in order to make things better again. They gave you false prophecies that misled you.

¹⁵ Everyone who walks along the road shakes a fist at you. They hiss and shake their heads at Jerusalem's people: 'Is this the city they used to call absolutely beautiful, the joy of the whole world?'

¹⁶ All your enemies gawk at you. They hiss and grit their teeth. They say, 'We've swallowed it up. Yes, this is the day we've been waiting for. At last we have seen it!'

¹⁷ The LORD has accomplished what he had planned to do. He carried out the threat he announced long ago. He tore you down without any pity, Jerusalem. He made your enemies gloat over you. He raised the weapons of your opponents.

¹⁸ The hearts of Jerusalem's people cried out to the LORD, the wall of Zion's people. Let your tears run down like a river day and night. Don't let them stop. Don't let your eyes rest.

¹⁹ Get up! Cry out at night, every hour on the hour. Pour your heart out like water in the presence of the LORD. Lift up your hands to him in prayer for the life of your little children who faint from hunger at every street corner."

²⁰ "O LORD, look and consider: Have you ever treated anyone like this? Should women eat their own children, the children they have nursed? Should priests and prophets be killed in the Lord's holy place?

²¹ Young and old lie on the ground in the streets. My young women and men are cut down by swords. You killed them on the day of your anger. You slaughtered them without any pity.

²² You have invited those who terrorize me on every side, as though they were invited to a festival. No one escaped or survived on the day of the LORD'S anger. My enemy has murdered the children I nursed and raised."

3 ¹ "I am the man who has experienced suffering under the rod of God's fury.

² God has driven me away and made me walk in darkness instead of light.

³ He beat me again and again all day long.

⁴ He has made my flesh and my skin waste away. He has broken my bones.

⁵ He has attacked me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

⁶ He has made me live in darkness, like those who died a long time ago.

⁷ He has blocked me so that I can't get out. He has put heavy chains on me.

⁸ Even when I cry and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

⁹ He has blocked my way with cut stones and made my paths crooked.

¹⁰ He is like a bear waiting to ambush me, like a lion in hiding.

¹¹ He has forced me off the road I was taking, torn me to pieces, and left me with nothing.

¹² He has drawn his bow and made me the target for his arrows.

¹³ He has shot the arrows from his quiver into my heart.

¹⁴ I have become a laughingstock to all my people. All day long they make fun of me with their songs.

¹⁵ He has filled me with bitterness. He has made me drink wormwood.

¹⁶ He has ground my teeth with gravel. He has trampled me into the dust.

¹⁷ "My soul has been kept from enjoying peace. I have forgotten what happiness is.

¹⁸ I said, 'I've lost my strength to live and my hope in the LORD.'

¹⁹ Remember my suffering and my aimless wandering, the wormwood and poison.

²⁰ My soul continues to remember these things and is so discouraged.

²¹ "The reason I can still find hope is that I keep this one thing in mind:

²² the LORD'S mercy. We were not completely wiped out. His compassion is never limited.

²³ It is new every morning. His faithfulness is great.

²⁴ My soul can say, 'The LORD is my lot in life. That is why I find hope in him.'

²⁵ The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to anyone who seeks help from him.

²⁶ "It is good to continue to hope and wait silently for the LORD to save us.

²⁷ It is good for people to endure burdens when they're young.

²⁸ They should sit alone and remain silent because the LORD has laid these burdens on them.

²⁹ They should put their mouths in the dust. Maybe a reason to hope exists.

³⁰ They should turn their cheeks to the one who strikes them and take their fill of insults.

³¹ "The Lord will not reject such people forever.

³² Even if he makes us suffer, he will have compassion in keeping with the richness of his mercy.

³³ He does not willingly bring suffering or grief to anyone,

³⁴ crush any prisoner on earth underfoot,

³⁵ deny people their rights in the presence of the Most High God,

³⁶ or deprive people of justice in court.
The Lord isn't happy to see these things.

³⁷ Who was it who spoke and it came into being? It was the Lord who gave the order.

³⁸ Both good and bad come from the mouth of the Most High God.

³⁹ "Why should any living mortal (any person) complain about being punished for sin?

⁴⁰ Let us look closely at our ways and examine them and then return to the LORD.

⁴¹ Let us raise our hearts and hands to God in heaven.

⁴² "We have been disobedient and rebellious. You haven't forgiven us.

⁴³ You covered yourself with anger and pursued us. You killed without pity.

⁴⁴ You covered yourself with a cloud so that no prayer could get through it.

⁴⁵ You made us the scum and trash of the nations.

⁴⁶ All our enemies gawk at us.

⁴⁷ Panic and pitfalls have found us, so have devastation and destruction.

⁴⁸ "Streams of tears run down from my eyes over the ruin of my dear people.

⁴⁹ My eyes will keep flowing without stopping for a moment

⁵⁰ until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

⁵¹ What I see with my eyes disturbs me deeply because of all the young women in my city.

⁵² "Those who were my enemies for no reason hunted me like a bird.

⁵³ They threw me alive into a pit and threw rocks at me.

⁵⁴ Water flowed over my head. I thought I was finished.

⁵⁵ "I call your name from the deepest pit, O LORD.

⁵⁶ Listen to my cry for help. Don't close your ears when I cry out for relief.

⁵⁷ Be close at hand when I call to you. You told me not to be afraid.

⁵⁸ Plead my case for me, O LORD. Reclaim my life.

⁵⁹ Look at the wrong that has been done to me, O LORD. Give me a fair verdict.

⁶⁰ Look at all their malice, all their plots against me.

⁶¹ Listen to their insults, all their plots against me.

⁶² The words and thoughts of those who attack me are directed against me all day long.

⁶³ Look at them! Whether they are sitting or standing, they make fun of me in their songs.

⁶⁴ Pay them back, O LORD, for what they deserve, for what their own hands have done.

⁶⁵ Make them stubborn. Let your curse be on them.

⁶⁶ Pursue them in anger, and wipe them out from under the LORD'S heaven."

4 ¹ "Look how the gold has become tarnished! The fine gold has changed! The sacred stones are scattered at every street corner.

² "Zion's precious children, who are worth their weight in fine gold, are now treated like clay pots, like those made by a potter's hands.

³ Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but the women of my people are as cruel as wild ostriches.

⁴ The tongues of nursing infants stick to the roofs of their mouths because of their thirst. Little children beg for bread, but no one will break off a piece for them.

⁵ Those who used to eat delicacies are now destitute in the streets. Those who used to wear expensive clothes now pick through piles of garbage.

⁶ The punishment for my people's wickedness has been more severe than the punishment for the sins of Sodom. Sodom was destroyed instantly, without one human hand touching it.

⁷ Zion's princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk. Their bodies were more pink than coral. Their hair was like sapphires.

⁸ Their faces are now blacker than soot. No one recognizes them on the streets. Their skin has shriveled on their bones. It has become as dry as bark.

⁹ Those who were killed with swords are better off than those who are dying from starvation. Those who were stabbed bled to death. The others are dying because there is nothing in the fields to eat.

¹⁰ The hands of loving mothers cooked their own children. The children were used for food by my people when they were being destroyed by a blockade.

¹¹ The LORD'S fury has accomplished his purpose. He unleashed his burning anger. He started a fire in Zion that even burned its foundations.

¹² Neither the kings of the earth nor anyone living on earth could believe that enemies or invaders would ever get through the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³ They got through because of the sins of Jerusalem's prophets and the crimes of its priests, who spilled the blood of righteous people within it.

¹⁴ My people staggered blindly through the streets. They were so contaminated with bloodstains that no one would touch their clothes.

¹⁵ 'Get away! You're unclean,' people yelled at them. 'Get away! Get away!

Don't touch anyone.' When they fled and wandered around, the people of the nations said, 'They can't stay here any longer.'

¹⁶ The LORD himself has scattered them. He will no longer look favorably on them. They no longer respected the priests, nor did they honor their older leaders."

¹⁷ "We are still straining our eyes, trying in vain to find help. We waited and waited for a nation that didn't save us.

¹⁸ The enemy kept tracking us down, so we couldn't even go out into the streets. Our end was near. Our time was up. Our end had come.

¹⁹ Those who were hunting us were faster than eagles in the sky. They chased us in the mountains and ambushed us in the wilderness.

²⁰ The person the LORD anointed as king, who is the breath of our life, was caught in their pits. We had thought that we would live in our king's shadow among the nations."

²¹ "Rejoice and be glad, people of Edom, inhabitants of the country of Uz. The cup of the LORD'S fury will be passed to you next. You'll get drunk and take off all your clothes.

²² People of Zion, the punishment for your wickedness will end. The LORD will not let you remain in exile. People of Edom, he will punish you for your wickedness. He will expose your sins."

5 ¹ "Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us. Take a look at our disgrace!

² "The land we inherited has been turned over to strangers. Our homes have been turned over to foreigners.

³ We are orphans without a father. Our mothers are like widows.

⁴ We have to pay to drink our own water. We have to pay to chop our own wood.

⁵ Our enemies are breathing down our necks. We are worn out and not permitted to rest.

⁶ We had to beg Egypt and Assyria for food.

⁷ Our ancestors sinned. Now they are gone, but we have to take the punishment for their wickedness.

⁸ Slaves rule us. There is no one to rescue us from them.

⁹ To get our food, we have to risk our lives in the heat of the desert.

¹⁰ Our skin is as hot as an oven from the burning heat of starvation.

¹¹ Women in Zion are raped, so are the girls in the cities of Judah.

¹² Our leaders are hung by their hands. Our older leaders are shown no respect.

¹³ Our young men work at the mill, and our boys stagger under loads of wood.

¹⁴ Our older leaders have stopped meeting at the city gate, and our young men no longer play their music.

¹⁵ There is no joy left in our hearts. Our dancing has turned into mourning.

¹⁶ The crown has fallen from our head. Because we have sinned, it has been disastrous for us.

¹⁷ This is why we feel sick. This is why our eyes see less and less.

¹⁸ Foxes roam around on Mount Zion, which lies in ruins.

¹⁹ "But you, O LORD, sit enthroned forever, and your reign continues throughout every generation.

²⁰ Why have you completely forgotten us? Why have you abandoned us for such a long time?

²¹ O LORD, bring us back to you, and we'll come back. Give us back the life we had long ago, ²² unless you have completely rejected us and are very angry with us."

Ezekiel

1 ¹ On the fifth day of the fourth month in the thirtieth year, while I was living among the exiles by the Chebar River, the sky opened, and I saw visions from God.

² On the fifth day of the month, during the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiakin, ³ the LORD spoke his word to the priest Ezekiel, son of Buzi, in Babylon by the Chebar River. The power of the LORD came over Ezekiel.

⁴ As I looked, I saw a storm coming from the north. There was an immense cloud with flashing lightning surrounded by a bright light. The middle of the lightning looked like glowing metal.

⁵ In the center of the cloud I saw what looked like four living creatures. They were shaped like humans, ⁶ but each of them had four faces and four wings.

⁷ Their legs were straight, their feet were like those of calves, and they glittered like polished bronze.

⁸ They had human hands under their wings on each of their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings.

⁹ Their wings touched each other. The creatures went straight ahead, and they did not turn as they moved.

¹¹ That is what their faces looked like. Their wings were spread out, pointing upward. Each creature had two wings with which they touched each other. The other two wings covered their bodies.

¹² Each of the creatures went straight ahead. They went wherever their spirit wanted to go, and they didn't turn as they moved.

¹³ The living creatures looked like burning coals and torches. Fire moved back and forth between the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning came out of the fire.

¹⁴ The living creatures ran back and forth like lightning.

¹⁵ As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of them.

¹⁶ This is how the wheels looked and how they were made: They looked like beryl. All four wheels looked the same. They looked like a wheel within a wheel.

¹⁷ Whenever they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning as they moved.

¹⁸ The rims of the wheels were large and frightening. They were covered with eyes.

¹⁹ When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved with them. When the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.

²⁰ Wherever their spirit wanted to go, the creatures went. The wheels rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²¹ So whenever the creatures moved, the wheels moved. Whenever the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still. And whenever the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²² Something like a dome was spread over the heads of the living creatures. It looked like dazzling crystal.

²³ Under the dome, each creature had two wings that were stretched out straight, touching one another. Each creature had two wings that covered its body.

²⁵ A voice came from above the dome over their heads as they stood still with their wings lowered.

²⁶ Above the dome over their heads was something that looked like a throne made of sapphire. On the throne was a figure that looked like a human.

²⁸ The brightness all around him looked like a rainbow in the clouds. It was like the LORD'S glory. When I saw it, I immediately bowed down, and I heard someone speaking.

2 ¹ He said to me, "Son of man, stand up, and I will speak to you."

² As he spoke to me, the Spirit entered me, stood me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

³ He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel. They are people from a nation that has rebelled against me. They and their ancestors have rebelled against me to this day.

⁴ I am sending you to these defiant and stubborn children. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says.'

⁵ Whether these rebellious people listen or not, they will realize that a prophet has been among them.

⁶ Son of man, don't be afraid of them or the things they say. Don't be afraid, even though thorns and thistles are around you and you live among scorpions. Don't let the things they say frighten you. Don't be terrified in their presence, even though they are rebellious people.

⁷ Speak my words to them whether they listen or not, because they are rebellious.

⁸ But you, son of man, listen to what I say. Don't be rebellious like those rebellious people. Open your mouth, and eat what I am giving to you."

⁹ As I looked, I saw a hand stretched out toward me. In it was a scroll.

¹⁰ He spread the scroll in front of me. There was writing on the front and back. There were funeral songs, songs of mourning, and horrible things written on it.

3 ¹ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll. Then speak to the people of Israel."

² So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

³ He said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll I'm giving you, and fill your stomach with it." So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴ He said to me, "Son of man, go to the people of Israel, and speak my words to them.

⁵ I am not sending you to people whose language is hard to understand or difficult to speak. I am sending you to Israel.

⁶ I am not sending you to nations whose language is hard to understand, difficult to speak, or whose words you cannot understand. If I send you to those nations, they will certainly listen to you.

⁷ But the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you because they refuse to listen to me. All the people of Israel are very stubborn and hardheaded.

⁸ Yet, I will make you as stubborn and as hardheaded as they are.

⁹ I will make you as hard as a diamond, harder than stone. Don't be afraid of them. Don't be terrified in their presence, even though they are rebellious people."

¹⁰ He also said to me, "Son of man, take to heart everything I have spoken to you, and listen closely.

¹¹ Go to the exiles, to your people. Whether they listen or not, tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says.'"

¹² Then the Spirit lifted me, and behind me I heard a loud thundering voice say, "Blessed is the LORD'S glory, which left this place."

¹³ I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures touching one another and the noise of the wheels beside them as well as a loud rumbling.

¹⁴ Then the Spirit lifted me and took me away. I went away feeling bitter and angry. The strong power of the LORD came over me.

¹⁵ I went to Tel Abib, to the exiles who lived by the Chebar River. I sat there among them for seven days. I was stunned.

¹⁶ After seven days the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ¹⁷ "Son of man, I have made you a watchman over the people of Israel. Listen to what I say, and warn them for me.

¹⁸ Suppose I tell you that wicked people will surely die, but you don't warn them or speak out so that they can change their wicked ways in order to save their lives. Then these wicked people will die because of their sin, but I will hold you responsible for their deaths.

¹⁹ But suppose you warn the wicked people, and they don't turn from their wicked ways. Then they will die because of their sin, but you will save yourself.

²⁰ If righteous people turn from living the right way and do wrong, I will make them stumble, and they will die. If you don't warn them, they will die because of their sin, and the right things they did will not be remembered. I will hold you responsible for their deaths.

²¹ But if you warn righteous people not to sin, and they don't sin, they will certainly live because they listened to the warning. You will save yourself."

²² The power of the LORD came over me. He said, "Get up, and go to the plain. I will speak to you there."

²³ I got up and went to the plain. The LORD'S glory was standing there like the glory I saw by the Chebar River, and I immediately bowed down.

²⁴ Then the Spirit entered me and stood me on my feet. He talked to me. He said, "Go into your home, and shut yourself inside."

²⁵ People will tie you up with ropes, son of man, so that you can't go outside.

²⁶ I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you can't talk or criticize them, even though they are rebellious people.

²⁷ But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth. You will tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says.' Some will listen, and some will refuse to listen. They are rebellious people."

4 ¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, take clay, put it in front of you, and draw a map of Jerusalem on it.

² Set up a blockade against it, build attack walls around it, put up dirt ramps around it, have troops ready to attack it, and place battering rams all around it.

³ Then take an iron pan, and set it up as a wall between you and the city. Turn your face toward the city as if you were going to attack it, and then attack it. This is a sign for the people of Israel.

⁴ "Then lie on your left side and take the punishment of the nation of Israel yourself. You will bear its punishment as many days as you lie on that side.

⁵ I have assigned to you one day for each year its punishment will last. So for 390 days, you will bear the punishment for the sins of the nation of Israel.

⁶ When you finish this, you will lie down again, this time on your right side. You will bear the punishment for the sins of the nation of Judah for 40 days, one day for each year I have assigned to you.

⁷ Turn your face toward the blockaded Jerusalem. Shake your fist and prophesy against it.

⁸ I will tie you up with ropes so that you will not be able to turn from one side to the other until you have finished attacking Jerusalem.

¹⁰ The food that you eat should be weighed. Eat eight ounces of food every day at set times.

¹¹ Measure out two-thirds of a quart of water, and drink it at set times.

¹² Eat the bread as you would eat barley loaves. Bake the bread in front of people, using human excrement for fuel."

¹³ Then the LORD said, "In the same way, the people of Israel will eat unclean bread among the nations where I scatter them."

¹⁴ I answered, "Almighty LORD, I have never dishonored myself. From the time I was young until now, I have never eaten an animal that died by itself or was killed by other wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth."

¹⁵ He said to me, "I will let you use cow manure in place of human excrement. Bake your bread over it."

¹⁶ He also said to me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the bread supply in Jerusalem. People will anxiously eat rationed bread and fearfully drink rationed water.

¹⁷ They will be shocked at the sight of each other because of the lack of food and water. They will waste away because of their sin."

5 ¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, take a sharp blade, and use it as a barber's razor to shave your head and beard. Take scales to weigh your hair and divide it into three even parts.

² When the blockade is over, burn one-third of your hair in a fire in the middle of the city. Take another third, and cut it up with a blade around the city. Then scatter the remaining third to the wind, and I will draw a sword and go after it.

³ Take a few strands of hair, and wrap them in the hem of your clothes.

⁴ Later, take some of them, and throw them in a fire and burn them up. From there a fire will spread throughout the whole nation of Israel.

⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: This is Jerusalem! I have placed it in the center of the nations with countries all around it.

⁶ The people of Jerusalem have rebelled against my rules and my laws more than the surrounding nations. They have rejected my rules, and they don't live by my laws.

⁷ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: People of Jerusalem, you have caused more trouble than the nations around you. You haven't lived by my laws or obeyed my rules. You haven't even lived up to the standards of the nations around you.

⁸ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I, too, am against you, and I will punish you in front of the nations.

⁹ Because of all the detestable things that you do, I will do things to you that I have never done before and will never do again.

¹⁰ That is why parents will eat their children, and children will eat their parents. I will punish you and scatter whoever is left to the wind.

¹¹ "As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, because you have dishonored my holy worship place with all your disgusting and detestable things, I will have you killed. I will not have compassion for you or feel sorry for you.

¹² One-third of you will die in plagues and be devoured in famines. Another third will die in battles against those around you. I will scatter the remaining third to the wind, and I will pursue them with a sword.

¹³ "I will unleash my anger. I will use my fury against you, and I will get revenge. When my fury is unleashed against you, you will know that I, the LORD, spoke to you while I was angry.

¹⁴ I will turn you into a wasteland and an object of ridicule among the nations around you and in the presence of everyone who passes by you.

¹⁵ The nations that are around you will ridicule you and laugh at you. When I punish you because of my anger, fury, and fierce revenge, you will become something ridiculed and something horrible. I, the LORD, have spoken.

¹⁶ When I shoot my destructive arrows of famine at you, I will shoot to kill you. I will bring more and more famines into your land, and I will cut off your food supply.

¹⁷ I will send famines and wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children. I will send plagues, violence, and wars to kill you. I, the LORD, have spoken."

6 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, look toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them.

³ Say this, 'You mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Almighty LORD! This is what the Almighty LORD says to the mountains and hills and to the ravines and valleys: I am going to attack you with a sword and destroy your worship sites.

⁴ Your altars will be destroyed, and your incense burners will be smashed. I will kill people in front of your idols.

⁵ I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of your idols, and I will scatter their bones around your altars.

⁶ Wherever people live, the cities will be ruined, and the worship sites will be wrecked. Your altars will be ruined and demolished. Your idols will be smashed and completely destroyed. Your incense burners will be cut down, and everything you have done will be wiped out.

⁷ People will be killed, and they will fall among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ "But I will let some people live. Some people will escape the battle among the nations and be scattered throughout the countries.

⁹ Then those who escape will remember me among the nations where they are taken captive. I was hurt by their adulterous hearts, which turned away from me, and by their eyes, which lusted after idols. They will hate themselves for the evil and disgusting things that they have done.

¹⁰ Then you will know that I am the LORD and that the disaster I promised was not an empty threat.

¹¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Clap your hands, stomp your feet, and say, "Oh no!" because the people of Israel have done evil and disgusting things. So they will die in wars, famines, and plagues.

¹² Plagues will kill those who are far away. Those who are near will die in wars, and anyone who is left and has escaped will die in famines. This is how I will unleash my anger.

¹³ Then you will know that I am the LORD. "Those who are killed will lie beside the idols around their altars. They will lie on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every large tree and every leafy oak. These are the places where they made offerings to their disgusting idols.

¹⁴ I will use my power against them and destroy the land, from the desert to Diblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

7 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says to the people in the land of Israel: The end is coming! The end is coming to the four corners of the earth.

³ Now the end is coming for you. I will send my anger against you. I will judge you for the way you have lived, and I will punish you for all the detestable things that you have done.

⁴ I will not have compassion for you or feel sorry for you. I will pay you back for the way you have lived and for the detestable things you have done. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: One disaster after another is coming.

⁶ The end is coming. The end is coming. It is stirring itself up against you. It is coming!

⁷ Destruction is coming to you, inhabitants of the land. The time is coming. The day is near. There will be confusion. There will be no joy in the mountains.

⁸ Soon I will pour out my fury on you and unleash my anger on you. I will judge you for the way you have lived, and I will punish you for all the detestable things that you have done.

⁹ I will not have compassion or feel sorry. I will pay you back for the way you have lived and for the detestable things that you are still doing. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I am the one attacking you.

¹⁰ "The day is near! It is coming! Destruction is coming! Wrongdoing has blossomed. Arrogance has flourished.

¹¹ Violence has grown into a weapon for punishing wickedness. None of the people will be left. None of that crowd, none of their wealth, and nothing of value will be left.

¹² The time is coming. The day is near. Buyers will not rejoice, and sellers will not mourn, because my fury will be against the whole crowd.

¹³ Sellers will not live long enough to buy back what they have sold. The visions against that crowd will not change. Because of their sins, none of the people will live.

¹⁴ They have blown a ram's horn, and everything is ready. But no one will go into battle, because my fury is against their whole crowd.

¹⁵ "Outside are swords, and inside are plagues and famines. Whoever is in a field will die in battle. Whoever is in the city will be devoured by famines and plagues.

¹⁶ Those who survive will escape to the mountains. They will moan like doves in the valleys. They will moan because of their sins.

¹⁷ Every hand will hang limp, and every knee will be as weak as water.

¹⁸ They will put on sackcloth, and horror will cover them. All their faces will be covered with shame, and every head will be shaved.

²⁰ They were proud of their beautiful jewels and used them to make disgusting and detestable statues of false gods.

That is why I will make their jewels disgusting.

²¹ I will hand their jewels over to foreigners as loot and to the most evil people on earth as prizes. These foreigners will dishonor the people of Israel.

²² I will turn my face away from the people of Israel, and foreigners will dishonor my treasured place. Robbers will go in and dishonor it.

²³ "Get the chains ready! The land is filled with murder, and the city is filled with violence.

²⁴ So I will send the most evil nation, and it will take possession of people's houses. I will stop those who are strong from feeling proud, and their holy places will be dishonored.

²⁵ Anguish is coming. People will look for peace, but there will be none.

²⁶ One disaster will happen after another. One rumor will follow another. People will ask for a vision from a prophet. The teachings of priests and the advice of leaders will disappear.

²⁷ Kings will mourn, and princes will give up hope. The common people will lose their courage. I will give them what they deserve and judge them as they have judged others. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

8 ¹ On the fifth day of the sixth month in the sixth year, I was sitting in my home. Judah's leaders were sitting in front of me. The power of the Almighty LORD came over me.

² As I looked, I saw something that looked like a human. From the waist down its body looked like fire, and from the waist up its body looked like glowing metal.

³ It stretched out what looked like a hand and grabbed me by the hair on my head. In these visions from God, the Spirit carried me between heaven and earth. He took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance to the north gate of the inner courtyard of the temple. That was where an idol that stirs up God's anger was located.

⁴ There I saw the glory of Israel's God as I did in the vision that I saw in the valley.

⁵ God said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." So I looked toward the north, and there in the entrance to the north gate beside the altar, I saw the idol that stirs up God's anger.

⁶ He asked me, "Son of man, do you see what the people of Israel are doing? The people of Israel are doing very disgusting things here, things that will force me to go far away from my holy place. But you will see even more disgusting things."

⁷ Then he took me to the entrance of the courtyard. As I looked, I saw a hole in the wall.

⁸ He said to me, "Son of man, dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall, and I saw a door.

⁹ He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked, disgusting things that the people of Israel are doing here."

¹⁰ So I went in and looked. I saw that the walls were covered with drawings of every kind of crawling creature, every kind of disgusting animal, and all the idols in the nation of Israel.

¹¹ In front of these drawings stood 70 of Israel's leaders. Jaazaniah, son of Shaphan, was standing with the leaders. Each of them was holding an incense burner in his hand, and a cloud of incense went up.

¹² God asked me, "Son of man, do you see what the leaders of the nation of Israel are doing in secret? Each of them is in the room where his god is, and each one of them is thinking, 'The LORD doesn't see me. The LORD has abandoned this land.'"

¹³ Then he said to me, "You will see even more disgusting things that they are doing."

¹⁴ He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD'S temple. Women were sitting there and crying for the god Tammuz.

¹⁵ He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this? You will see even more disgusting things than these."

¹⁶ Then he brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORD'S temple. There at the entrance to the LORD'S temple, between the entrance and the altar, were about 25 men who had their backs turned to the LORD'S temple. They were facing east and worshiping the rising sun.

¹⁷ He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this? Isn't it bad enough that the people of Judah have done these disgusting things that you have seen here? Yet, they also fill the land with violence and continue to provoke me even more. Look how they insult me in the worst possible way.

¹⁸ So I will take action because I'm angry, and I won't have compassion for them or feel sorry for them. Even if they shout in my ears, I won't listen to them."

9¹ Then I heard the LORD call out with a loud voice. He said, "Come here, those who are going to punish this city. Each of you should bring your weapon with you."

² So six men came from the upper north gate. Each one brought a deadly weapon with him. Among them was a person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen. The men came in and stood by the bronze altar.

³ Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the angels, where it had been, to the temple's entrance. The LORD called to the person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen.

⁴ The LORD said to that person, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of those who sigh and groan about all the disgusting things that are being done in the city."

⁵ Then he said to the others as I was listening, "Follow him throughout the city and kill. Don't have any compassion, and don't feel sorry.

⁶ Kill old men, young men, old women, young women, and children. But don't come near anyone who has a mark on him. Start with my holy place." So they started with the old men in front of the temple.

⁷ He said to them, "Dishonor the temple! Fill its courtyards with dead people, and then leave." So they went out and killed the people in the city.

⁸ As they were killing people, I was left alone. So I immediately bowed down. I cried, "Almighty LORD, will you destroy everyone who is left in Israel while you pour out your anger on Jerusalem?"

⁹ He answered me, "The wickedness of the nations of Israel and Judah is terrible. The land is filled with murder, and the city is filled with wrongdoing. They think that the LORD has abandoned the land and that he doesn't see.

¹⁰ But I will not have compassion or feel sorry. I will do to them what they have done to others."

¹¹ Then the person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen reported, "I did everything you commanded."

10 ¹ As I looked at the dome over the heads of the angels, I saw something that looked like a throne made of sapphire.

² The LORD said to the person dressed in linen, "Go between the wheels under the angels, and fill your hands with burning coals. Then scatter them over the city." So he went between the wheels as I watched.

³ The angels were standing on the south side of the temple as the person went. A cloud filled the inner courtyard.

⁴ The LORD'S glory rose from the angels to the entrance of the temple, the cloud filled the temple, and the brightness of the LORD'S glory filled the courtyard.

⁵ The sound of the angels' wings was heard as far as the outer courtyard. It was like the sound of the Almighty God when he speaks.

⁶ After the LORD had commanded the person dressed in linen to take burning coals from between the wheels beside the angels, the person went in and stood beside one of the wheels.

⁷ One of the angels reached into the fire that was between the angels and took out some coals. This angel put them in the hands of the person dressed in linen. The person took them and left.

⁸ The angels appeared to have what looked like human hands under their wings.

⁹ As I looked, I saw four wheels beside the angels, one wheel beside each of the angels. The wheels looked like beryl.

¹⁰ All four wheels looked the same. Each was like a wheel within a wheel.

¹¹ Whenever the angels moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning as they moved. They always moved in the direction they faced without turning as they moved.

¹² Their entire bodies, their backs, hands, wings, and wheels were covered with eyes. Each of the angels had a wheel.

¹³ I heard that the wheels were called the whirling wheels.

¹⁴ Each of the angels had four faces. The first was the face of an angel, the second was the face of a human, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

¹⁵ The angels rose. These were the living creatures that I saw at the Chebar River.

¹⁶ When the angels moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the angels lifted their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels didn't leave their side.

¹⁷ When the angels stood still, the wheels stood still. When the angels rose, the wheels rose with them. The spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

¹⁸ Then the glory of the LORD left the temple's entrance and stood over the angels.

¹⁹ The angels lifted their wings and rose from the ground. I was watching them as they left with the wheels beside them. The angels stood at the door to the east gate of the LORD'S temple, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰ These are the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel at the Chebar River. I realized that they were angels.

²¹ Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings were what looked like human hands.

²² Their faces looked exactly like the faces that I saw by the Chebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

11 ¹ Then the Spirit lifted me and took me to the east gate of the LORD'S temple. (It's the gate that faces east.) Twenty-five men were at the entrance of the gate. I saw among them Azzur's son Jaazaniah and Benaiah's son Pelatiah. They were leaders of the people.

² Then the LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plan evil and give bad advice in this city.

³ They say, 'It's almost time to rebuild homes. This city is a cooking pot, and we're the meat.'

⁴ So prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

⁵ The LORD'S Spirit came to me and told me to say, "This is what the LORD says: You are saying these things, nation of Israel. But I know what's going through your mind.

⁶ You have killed many people in this city and have filled its streets with corpses.

⁸ You are afraid of swords, so I will bring swords to attack you, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹ I will force you out of the city. I will hand you over to foreigners, and I will punish you.

¹⁰ You will die in battle. I will judge you at Israel's borders. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹¹ The city will not be your cooking pot, and you will not be the meat in it. I will judge you at Israel's borders.

¹² Then you will know that I am the LORD. You haven't lived by my laws, and you haven't obeyed my rules. You have followed the standards set by the nations around you."

¹³ While I was prophesying, Benaiah's son Pelatiah died. I immediately bowed down and cried out, "Almighty LORD, will you completely destroy all the remaining people in Israel?"

¹⁴ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁵ "Son of man, the people who live in Jerusalem are talking about your own relatives and about the entire nation of Israel. The people who live in Jerusalem say, 'They are far away from the LORD. This land has been given to us as our own property.'

¹⁶ "So tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, I have been their sanctuary for a little while among the countries where they've gone.'

¹⁷ "So tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will bring them together from the nations and gather them from the countries where I've scattered them. I will give them the land of Israel.

¹⁸ They will come and remove all the disgusting and detestable things that are there.

¹⁹ I will give them a single purpose and put a new spirit in them. I will remove their stubborn hearts and give them obedient hearts.

²⁰ Then they will live by my laws and obey my rules. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

²¹ But as for those whose minds are set on following detestable and disgusting idols, I will pay them back for what they have done, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

²² Then the angels raised their wings, with the wheels beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²³ The LORD'S glory left the middle of the city and stopped above the mountain east of the city.

²⁴ In this vision from God's Spirit, the Spirit lifted me and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia. Then the vision I saw left me.

²⁵ I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

12 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, you are living among rebellious people. They have eyes, but they can't see. They have ears, but they can't hear because they are rebellious people.

³ "Son of man, pack your bags as if you were going into exile. Let the people see you leave in the daylight. March like a captive from your place to another place as they watch. Maybe they will understand, even though they are rebellious people.

⁴ Let them see you in the daylight. Bring out your bags as if you were going into exile. In the evening let them see you leave like a captive going into exile.

⁵ Dig a hole through the wall of your house, and leave through it.

⁶ Let them see you put your bags on your shoulders and carry them out in the dark. Cover your face so that you won't see the land. I've made you a sign to warn the nation of Israel."

⁷ I did what I was ordered to do. During the day I brought out bags as if I were going into exile. In the evening I dug a hole through the wall. I brought out my bags in the dark. I let the people see me as I carried my bags on my shoulders.

⁸ The next morning the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹ "Son of man, didn't the rebellious nation of Israel ask you what you were doing?

¹⁰ "Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: This is the divine revelation about the prince from Jerusalem and about all the people of Israel who live there.'

¹¹ "Tell them, 'I am your warning sign. What I have done will happen to you. You will go into exile and into captivity.

¹² The prince who is among you will put his bags on his shoulders in the dark and leave. People will dig holes in the wall to go through. The prince will cover his face so that he cannot see the land.

¹³ I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my net. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Babylonians, but he will not see it. And that's where he'll die.

¹⁴ I will scatter in every direction all those who are around him—his staff and all his troops. I will pursue them with my sword.

¹⁵ Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will scatter them among the nations and force them into other countries.

¹⁶ However, I will spare a few of them from wars, famines, and plagues. Wherever they go among the nations, they will realize that everything they did was disgusting. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

¹⁷ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁸ "Son of man, shake as you eat your food. Tremble and be worried as you drink your water.

¹⁹ "Tell the people of this land, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says about the people who live in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will be worried as they eat their food and terrified as they drink their water. Their country will be stripped of everything because everyone who lives there is violent.

²⁰ The cities where people live will be destroyed, and the country will become a wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

²¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²² "Son of man, what is this proverb you have in Israel: 'Days go by, and every vision comes to nothing'?

²³ "Tell the people, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will put a stop to the use of this proverb. You will no longer quote it in Israel.' Instead, tell them, 'The time is near when every vision will come true.

²⁴ There will no longer be any false visions or flattering fortunetelling to the people.

²⁵ I, the LORD, will speak. Everything that I say will happen without any more delay. I will say something, and it will happen during your lifetime, you rebellious people, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

²⁶ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁷ "Son of man, the people of Israel are saying, 'The vision that Ezekiel sees won't happen for a long time. What he prophesies will happen in the distant future.'

²⁸ "Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Everything that I say will no longer be delayed. Whatever I say will happen, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

13 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me.
He said,

² "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel. Tell those who make up their prophecies, 'Listen to the word of the LORD.

³ "'This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for the foolish prophets. They follow their own ideas, and they have seen nothing.

⁴ Israel, your prophets are like foxes among the ruins of a city.

⁵ They haven't repaired the gaps in the wall or rebuilt the wall for the nation of Israel. So Israel will not be protected in battle on the day of the LORD.

⁶ These foolish prophets see false visions, and their predictions don't come true. They say, "The LORD said this." But the LORD hasn't sent them. Then they hope that their message will come true.

⁷ Prophets of Israel, haven't you seen false visions and predicted things that don't come true? Don't you say, "The LORD said this," even though I haven't said anything?

⁸ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your predictions are false, and your visions are lies. That is why I'm against you, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹ I will use my power against the prophets who see false visions and predict things that don't come true. They will not help my people make decisions or be recorded in the records of the nation of Israel. They won't even enter Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰ "They have deceived my people by saying that everything is alright, but it's not alright. When someone builds a flimsy wall, the prophets cover it up with paint.

¹¹ Tell those who cover up the wall with paint that their wall will fall down. Rain will pour down, hailstones will fall on it, and stormy winds will break it to pieces.

¹² When the wall falls down, people will ask them, "Where's the paint that you used to cover the wall?"

¹³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: In my fury I'll cause a storm to break out. In my anger rain will pour down, and hailstones will destroy the wall.

¹⁴ I will tear down the wall that the prophets covered up with paint. I will level it and expose its foundation. When the wall falls, they will be destroyed by it. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁵ I will unleash my fury on the wall and on those who covered it up with paint. "Then I will say to you, "The wall is gone, and so are those who painted it.

¹⁶ The prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem are gone. Those who said that everything was alright, when it wasn't alright, are gone, declares the Almighty LORD."

¹⁷ "Son of man, look at the women among your people who make up prophecies, and prophecy against them.

¹⁸ "Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for women who sew magic charms for people's wrists and make magic veils of every size for people's heads. You want to trap people. You want to control the lives of my people for your own profit.

¹⁹ You dishonor me in front of my people for a few handfuls of barley and a few pieces of bread. You kill people who shouldn't die, and you spare the lives of people who shouldn't live. You lie to my people who are willing to listen.

²⁰ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against the magic charms that you use to trap people like birds. I will tear them from your arms and free the people that you have trapped.

²¹ I will tear off your magic veils and rescue my people from your power so that they will no longer be under your control. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

²² You have discouraged righteous people with your lies, even though I hadn't brought them any grief. You encouraged wicked people not to turn from their wicked ways to save their lives.

²³ That is why you will no longer see false visions or make predictions. I will rescue my people from your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

14 ¹ Some of Israel's leaders came to me and sat down in front of me.

² Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

³ "Son of man, these people are devoted to their idols, and they are allowing themselves to fall into sin. Should they be allowed to ask me for help?

⁴ "So speak to them. Tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: Suppose an Israelite is devoted to idols and allows himself to fall into sin. Suppose he goes to a prophet to ask for my help. I, the LORD, will give that Israelite an answer, the answer that his many idols deserve.

⁵ I will do this to recapture the hearts of the nation of Israel. They have deserted me because of their disgusting idols.'

⁶ "So tell the nation of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Change the way you think and act! Turn away from your idols, and don't return to any of your disgusting things.

⁷ Suppose an Israelite or a foreigner who lives in Israel deserts me by devoting himself to idols and by allowing himself to fall into sin. If he goes to a prophet to ask for my help, I, the LORD, will give him an answer.

⁸ I will reject him, and I will make an example of him. I will exclude him from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁹ "If a prophet is tricked into giving a prophecy, it is I, the LORD, who tricked the prophet. I will use my power against you and destroy you from among my people Israel.

¹⁰ Both of you will suffer for your sins. The prophet will be as guilty as you are when you ask for his help.

¹¹ Then the people of Israel will no longer wander away from me. They will no longer dishonor me with all their sins. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

¹² The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹³ "Son of man, suppose a country sins against me by being unfaithful to me. I will use my power against it, cut off its food supply, send a famine to it, and destroy its people and animals.

¹⁴ Even if these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in that country, they would, by their righteousness, rescue only themselves," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ "Suppose I send wild animals through that country and they make it childless and turn it into such a wasteland that no one travels through it because of the animals.

¹⁶ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could rescue their own sons or daughters.

They could rescue only themselves. And the country would become a wasteland.

¹⁷ "Suppose I bring a war against that country by saying, 'I will let a war go throughout this country.' Suppose I destroy the people and the animals in it.

¹⁸ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could rescue their sons or daughters. They could rescue only themselves.

¹⁹ "Suppose I send a plague into that country or pour out my fury on it by killing people and destroying animals.

²⁰ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could, by their righteousness, rescue their sons or daughters. They could rescue only themselves.

²¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will surely send four terrible punishments against Jerusalem. I will send wars, famines, wild animals, and plagues. They will destroy people and animals.

²² But some people will survive. Some of your sons and daughters will be brought out. When they come out to you, you will see how they live. Then you will be comforted after the disasters that I will bring on Jerusalem, after every disaster that I will bring against it.

²³ You will be comforted when you see how they live. Then you will know that everything I have done was done for a reason," declares the Almighty LORD.

15 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, what good is the wood from a vine? Is it better than the wood from a tree in the forest?

³ Do people use it to make something? Do they make a peg from it to hang things on?

⁴ No! It is only thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire burns up both its ends and chars its middle. Then can it be used to make anything?

⁵ When the vine was in perfect condition, it couldn't be made into anything. How can it be used to make anything after the fire has burned and charred it?

⁶ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: As a vine is taken from among the trees in the forest to be used to feed the fire, so I will take the people who live in Jerusalem to punish them.

⁷ I will turn against the people of Jerusalem. Even though they have escaped one fire, another fire will burn them. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will turn against them.

⁸ I will turn the country into a wasteland because they have been unfaithful," declares the Almighty LORD.

16 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me.
He said,

² "Son of man, make known to the people of Jerusalem the disgusting things they have done.

³ Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says to the people of Jerusalem: Your birthplace and your ancestors were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

⁴ When you were born, your umbilical cord wasn't cut. You weren't washed with water to make you clean. You weren't rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloth.

⁵ No one who saw you felt sorry enough for you to do any of these things. But you were thrown into an open field. You were rejected when you were born.

⁶ "'Then I went by you and saw you kicking around in your own blood. I said to you, "Live."

⁷ I made you grow like a plant in the field. You grew up, matured, and became a young woman. Your breasts developed, and your hair grew. Yet, you were naked and bare.

⁸ "'I went by you again and looked at you. You were old enough to make love to. So I spread my robe over you, and covered your naked body. I promised to love you, and I exchanged marriage vows with you. You became mine, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹ "'Then I bathed you with water, and I washed off your blood. I poured olive oil over you.

¹⁰ I put an embroidered dress on you and fine leather sandals on your feet. I dressed you in fine linen and covered you with silk.

¹¹ I gave you jewelry. I put bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck.

¹² I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

¹³ So you wore gold and silver jewelry. You were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes. Your food was flour, honey, and olive oil. You were very beautiful, and eventually you became a queen.

¹⁴ You became famous in every nation because of your beauty. Your beauty was perfect because I gave you my glory, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ "But you trusted your beauty, and you used your fame to become a prostitute. You had sex with everyone who walked by.

¹⁶ You took some of your clothes and made your worship sites colorful. This is where you acted like a prostitute. Such things shouldn't happen. They shouldn't occur.

¹⁷ You took your beautiful gold and silver jewelry that I had given you and made male idols for yourself. Then you committed adultery with them.

¹⁸ You took off your embroidered clothes and covered the idols with them. You offered my olive oil and incense in their presence.

¹⁹ You also offered them sweet and fragrant sacrifices. You gave flour, olive oil, and honey—all the food that I gave you to eat. This is what happened, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁰ "You took your sons and daughters, who belonged to me, and you sacrificed them as food to idols. Wasn't your prostitution enough?

²¹ You slaughtered my children and presented them as burnt offerings to idols.

²² With all the disgusting things that you did and all your acts of prostitution, you didn't remember the time when you were young. You didn't remember when you were naked and bare, kicking around in your own blood.

²³ "How horrible! How horrible it will be for you! declares the Almighty LORD. After all your wickedness, ²⁴ you built yourself platforms and illegal worship sites in every city square.

²⁵ You also built worship sites at the head of every street. You used your beauty to seduce people there. You offered your body to everyone who passed by. You increased your acts of prostitution.

²⁶ You had sex with your lustful neighbors, the Egyptians. You used your prostitution to make me angry.

²⁷ "So I used my power against you. I took away some of your land, and I handed you over to your greedy enemies, the Philistines, who were ashamed of what you had done.

²⁸ "You had sex with the Assyrians because you weren't satisfied. You still weren't satisfied.

²⁹ So you increased your acts of prostitution to include the land of the merchants, the Babylonians. Even after that, you weren't satisfied.

³⁰ "You have no will power! declares the Almighty LORD. You do everything a shameless prostitute does.

³¹ You build your platforms at the head of every street and place your illegal worship sites in every square. Yet, you aren't like other prostitutes, because you don't want to be paid.

³² You are an adulterous wife who prefers strangers to her husband.

³³ All prostitutes get paid. But you give gifts to all your lovers and bribe them to come to you from all directions to have sex with you.

³⁴ You are a different kind of prostitute. No one goes after you for favors. You are the opposite. You pay them, and you don't accept payment.

³⁵ "Listen to the word of the LORD, you prostitute.

³⁶ This is what the Almighty LORD says: You exposed yourself and uncovered your naked body when you gave yourself to your lovers and to all your disgusting idols. You also killed your children and sacrificed their blood to these idols.

³⁷ That is why I will gather all your lovers with whom you found pleasure.

I will have all those who love you and hate you gather around. I will uncover your body for them, and they will see you naked.

³⁸ I will punish you the same way that those who are guilty of prostitution and murder are punished. I will give you the death penalty in my fury and burning anger.

³⁹ I will hand you over to your lovers. They will destroy your platforms and tear down your illegal worship sites. They will tear off your clothes, take away your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

⁴⁰ They will also bring a mob against you. They will stone you and cut you into pieces with their swords.

⁴¹ They will burn your houses and punish you in the presence of many women. I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay others.

⁴² Then I will rest from my fury against you, and I will stop being angry. I will be at peace. I will no longer be angry.

⁴³ "'You didn't remember the time when you were young, and you made me very angry with all these things. So I will pay you back for what you have done, declares the Almighty LORD. Didn't you make wicked plans in addition to all your disgusting practices?

⁴⁴ "'Everyone who uses proverbs will speak the following saying against you: Like mother, like daughter.

⁴⁵ You are your mother's daughter. She rejected her husband and her children. You are exactly like your sisters. They rejected their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite.

⁴⁶ "Your older sister was Samaria. She and her daughters lived north of you. Your younger sister is Sodom. She lives south of you with her daughters.

⁴⁸ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

⁴⁹ This is what your sister Sodom has done wrong. She and her daughters were proud that they had plenty of food and had peace and security. They didn't help the poor and the needy.

⁵⁰ They were arrogant and did disgusting things in front of me. So I did away with them when I saw this.

⁵¹ "Samaria didn't commit half the sins you did. You have done many more disgusting things than they ever did. Because of all the disgusting things that you have done, you make your sisters look innocent.

⁵² You will have to suffer disgrace because you accused your sisters. Yet, your sins are more disgusting than theirs. They look like they are innocent compared to you. Be ashamed of yourself and suffer disgrace, because you have made your sisters look like they are innocent.

⁵³ "I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and Samaria and her daughters. I will also restore your fortune along with theirs.

⁵⁴ You will have to suffer disgrace and be ashamed of everything you have done, including comforting them.

⁵⁵ When Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters return to what they once were, you and your daughters will return to what you once were.

⁵⁶ You didn't mention your sister Sodom when you were arrogant.

⁵⁷ You didn't mention her before your wickedness was revealed. Now the daughters of Aram and their neighbors despise you. The daughters of the Philistines also despise you. Those around you hate you.

⁵⁸ You must suffer because of all the crude and disgusting things you have done, declares the LORD.

⁵⁹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will give you what you deserve. You despised your marriage vows and rejected my promise.

⁶⁰ I will remember the promise that I made with you when you were young, and I will make it a promise that will last forever.

⁶¹ Then you will remember what you have done. You will be ashamed when I return your older and younger sisters to you. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of my promise with you.

⁶² Then I will make my promise with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁶³ You will remember and be ashamed. You will never again open your mouth because of your disgrace when I forgive you for everything you did, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

17 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, tell this riddle. Give this illustration to the nation of Israel.

³ Say, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: A large eagle came to Lebanon. It had large wings with long, colorful feathers. It took hold of the top of a cedar tree.

⁴ It broke off the highest twig and carried it to a country of merchants. It planted the twig in a city of merchants.

⁵ "Then it took a seedling from that country and planted the seedling in fertile soil. The eagle planted the seedling like a willow where there was plenty of water.

⁶ The plant sprouted and grew into a low vine that spread over the ground. Its branches turned upward toward the eagle, but its roots grew downward. So it became a vine, producing branches and growing shoots.

⁷ "There was another large eagle with large wings and many feathers. Now, the vine stretched its roots toward this eagle and sent its branches toward the eagle so that the eagle could water it. The vine turned away from the garden where it was planted.

⁸ It was planted in good soil beside plenty of water so that it could grow branches, bear fruit, and become a wonderful vine.'

⁹ "Tell the nation of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Will this vine live and grow? Won't the first eagle uproot it and tear off its fruit? Then it will wither. All the leaves on its branches will wither. It won't take much strength or many people to pull the vine up by its roots.

¹⁰ It might be planted again, but will it live and grow? It will wither completely when the east wind blows on it. It will certainly wither in the garden where it is growing.'"

¹¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹² "Ask these rebellious people, 'Don't you know what this means?' Tell them, 'The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and captured its king and its leaders. He brought them home with him to Babylon.

¹³ Then he took someone from the royal family, made a treaty with him, and made him promise to be loyal. He took away the leading citizens from Judah ¹⁴ so that it would remain a humiliated country and be unable to regain its power. The country could only survive by keeping the treaty.

¹⁵ But the king of Judah rebelled against the king of Babylon by sending his messengers to Egypt to get horses and many soldiers. Will the king of Judah succeed? Will anyone who does such things escape? He can't break a treaty and go unpunished.

¹⁶ "As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, the king of Judah will die in Babylonia. He will die in the country of the king who appointed him king of Judah. The king of Judah broke his promise and his treaty with the king of Babylon.

¹⁷ Even with a large army and many people, Pharaoh will not be able to help him in battle when the Babylonians put up dirt ramps and set up blockades to kill many people.

¹⁸ The king of Judah broke the promise and the treaty that he pledged to keep. He did all these things, and he can't go unpunished.

¹⁹ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: As I live, I will certainly punish you for rejecting my promise and hating my treaty.

²⁰ I will spread my net over you to catch you in my trap. I will take you to Babylon and judge you there for rebelling against me.

²¹ The best of your troops will die in battle. Anyone who remains will be scattered in every direction that the wind blows. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

²² "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I, too, will take hold of the top of a cedar tree. I will break off the highest twig and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

²³ I will plant it on a high mountain in Israel. It will grow branches and produce fruit. It will become a magnificent cedar tree. Every kind of bird will nest in it and find a home in the shelter of its branches.

²⁴ Then all the trees in the field will know that I am the LORD. I cut down tall trees, and I make small trees grow tall. I dry up green trees, and I make dry trees grow. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it."

18 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "What do you mean when you use this proverb about the land of Israel: 'Fathers have eaten sour grapes, and their children's teeth are set on edge'?

³ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you will no longer use this proverb in Israel.

⁴ The life of every person belongs to me. Fathers and their children belong to me. The person who sins will die.

⁵ "Suppose a righteous person does what is fair and right.

⁶ He doesn't eat at the illegal mountain worship sites or look for help from the idols of the nation of Israel. He doesn't dishonor his neighbor's wife or have sexual intercourse with a woman while she is having her period.

⁷ He doesn't oppress anyone. He returns what a borrower gives him as security for a loan. He doesn't rob anyone. He gives food to people who are hungry, and he gives clothes to those who are naked.

⁸ He doesn't lend money for interest or make an excessive profit. He refuses to do evil things, and he judges everyone fairly.

⁹ He lives by my rules and obeys my laws faithfully. This person is righteous. He will certainly live," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁰ "But suppose this person has a son who robs and murders. The son does all the things ¹¹ that his father never did. He eats at the illegal mountain worship sites. He dishonors his neighbor's wife.

¹² He oppresses the poor and needy. He robs. He doesn't return the security for a loan. He looks to idols for help. He does disgusting things.

¹³ He lends money for interest and makes excessive profits. Will this person live? He will not live. He has done all these disgusting things. So he must die, and he will be responsible for his own death.

¹⁴ "But suppose this person has a son. The son sees all the sins that his father does. He is afraid, so he doesn't do such things.

¹⁵ He doesn't eat at the illegal mountain worship sites or look for help from the idols of the nation of Israel. He doesn't dishonor his neighbor's wife.

¹⁶ He doesn't oppress anyone. He doesn't keep the security for a loan. He doesn't rob anyone. He gives food to people who are hungry, and he gives clothes to those who are naked.

¹⁷ He refuses to hurt the poor. He doesn't charge interest or make excessive profits. He obeys my rules and lives by my laws. He won't die for his father's sins. He will certainly live.

¹⁸ But his father has oppressed others, robbed his relative, and done what is wrong among his people. So the father will die because of his sin.

¹⁹ "But you ask, 'Why isn't the son punished for his father's sin?' It is because the son has done what is fair and right. He obeyed my rules and followed them. He will certainly live.

²⁰ The person who sins will die. A son will not be punished for his father's sins, and a father will not be punished for his son's sins. The righteousness of the righteous person will be his own, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be his own.

²¹ "But suppose a wicked person turns away from all the sins that he has done. He obeys all my laws and does what is fair and right. He will certainly live. He will not die.

²² All the rebellious things that he did will not be remembered. He will live because of the right things that he did.

²³ I don't want wicked people to die." declares the Almighty LORD. "I want them to turn from their evil ways and live.

²⁴ "But suppose a righteous person turns away from doing right and he does evil things. He does all the disgusting things that the wicked person did. Will he live? All the right things that he has done will not be remembered because of his unfaithfulness and because of his sin. He will die because of them.

²⁵ "But you say, 'The Lord's way is unfair.' Listen, nation of Israel, isn't my way fair? Isn't it your ways that are unfair?

²⁶ When a righteous person turns away from doing right and does evil things, he will die. He will die because of the evil things he has done.

²⁷ When a wicked person turns away from the wicked things that he has done and does what is fair and right, he will live.

²⁸ He realized what he was doing and turned away from all the rebellious things that he had done. He will certainly live. He will not die.

²⁹ "But the nation of Israel says, 'The Lord's way is unfair.' Isn't my way fair, nation of Israel? Isn't it your ways that are unfair?

³⁰ "That is why I will judge each of you by what you have done, people of Israel," declares the Almighty LORD. "Change the way you think and act. Turn away from all the rebellious things that you have done so that you will not fall into sin.

³¹ Stop all the rebellious things that you are doing. Get yourselves new hearts and new spirits. Why do you want to die, nation of Israel?

³² I don't want anyone to die," declares the Almighty LORD. "Change the way you think and act!"

19 ¹ Sing a funeral song for the princes of Israel.

² Say: Your mother was like a lioness. She lay down among the lions. She fed many cubs.

³ One of the cubs she raised became a young lion. He learned to tear apart the animals he hunted. He ate people.

⁴ The nations heard about him, caught him in their pit, and brought him with hooks to Egypt.

⁵ The lioness waited until she saw that there was no more hope. Then she took another one of her cubs and raised him into a young lion.

⁶ He became a young lion, and he prowled among the lions. He learned to tear apart the animals he hunted. He ate people.

⁷ He destroyed fortresses and turned cities into wastelands. The land and everyone living in it were terrified by the sound of his roar.

⁸ The nations from every region came together against him. They spread their net over him and caught him in their pit.

⁹ With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They put him in prison so that his roar wouldn't be heard anymore on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ Your mother was like a grapevine that was planted near water. It had a lot of fruit and many branches because there was plenty of water.

¹¹ Its branches were strong. They were used to make scepters for kings. It grew to be tall with many branches around it, and everyone saw it because of its many branches.

¹² But in anger it was uprooted and thrown to the ground. The east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches broke off. They withered and were burned.

¹³ Now it is planted in the desert, in a dry and waterless land.

¹⁴ Fire has spread from the vine's main branch. Fire has destroyed its fruit. It no longer has any strong branches that could be used as a king's scepter. This is a funeral song. It is to be used as a funeral song.

20 ¹ On the tenth day of the fifth month in the seventh year, some of the leaders of Israel came to ask for the LORD'S help. They sat in front of me.

² Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

³ "Son of man, speak to the leaders of Israel. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Are you coming to ask me for help? As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you will not be allowed to ask me for help.'

⁴ "Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Tell them about the disgusting things their ancestors did.

⁵ Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: When I chose Israel, I raised my hand and swore an oath to the descendants of Jacob's family. I made myself known to them in Egypt. I made a promise to them and said, "I am the LORD your God."

⁶ At that time I promised to bring them out of Egypt to a land that I had chosen for them. This land is the most beautiful land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

⁷ I said to them, "Get rid of the detestable idols that you look to for help. Don't dishonor yourselves with the disgusting idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."

⁸ "But they rebelled against me and refused to listen to me. Not one of them got rid of the detestable idols that they looked to for help. They didn't abandon the disgusting idols of Egypt. So I was going to pour out my fury on them and unleash my anger on them in Egypt.

⁹ But I acted so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations where they were living. While other nations were watching, I made myself known to them by bringing the Israelites out of Egypt.

¹⁰ "So I brought the Israelites out of Egypt and led them into the desert.

¹¹ I gave them my laws and made my rules known to them. If people obey them they will live.

¹² I also gave them certain days to worship me as a sign between us so that they would know that I, the LORD, made them holy.

¹³ "But the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They didn't live by my laws, and they rejected my rules. If people obey them, they will live. They dishonored the days to worship me. So I was going to pour out my fury on them in the desert and completely wipe them out.

¹⁴ But I acted so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations who had watched me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

¹⁵ I also swore an oath to them in the desert. I swore that I would not bring them into the land that I had promised to give them. This land is the most beautiful land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁶ They rejected my rules, and they didn't live by my laws. They dishonored the days to worship me, because their hearts chased disgusting idols.

¹⁷ But I had compassion on them. I didn't destroy them or completely wipe them out in the desert.

¹⁸ I said to their children in the desert, "Don't live by the laws of your ancestors. Don't obey their rules or dishonor yourselves with their disgusting idols.

¹⁹ I am the LORD your God. Live by my laws. Obey my rules and follow them.

²⁰ Set apart certain holy days to worship me. This will be a sign between me and you so that you will know that I am the LORD your God."

²¹ "But they rebelled against me. They didn't live by my laws, and they didn't obey my rules and follow them. If people obey them, they will live. They dishonored the days to worship me. So I was going to pour out my fury on them and unleash my anger on them in the desert.

²² But I didn't use my power so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations who had watched me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

²³ I raised my hand and swore an oath to them in the desert. I promised to scatter them among the nations and force them into other countries.

²⁴ They didn't follow my rules, and they rejected my laws. They dishonored the days to worship me, and they looked to their ancestors' disgusting idols for help.

²⁵ I also allowed them to follow laws that were no good and rules by which they could not live.

²⁶ I let them dishonor themselves when they sacrificed all their firstborn sons as gifts to their false gods. I terrified them so that they would know that I am the LORD.'

²⁷ "Speak to the nation of Israel, son of man. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your ancestors insulted me again because they were unfaithful to me.

²⁸ I brought them to the land that I promised to give them. When they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, they made sacrifices and brought offerings there to make me angry. There they offered their sacrifices and poured out their wine offerings.

²⁹ Then I asked them, "What is this worship site you're going to?" (So it is still called 'worship site' today.)

³⁰ "Tell the nation of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Will you dishonor yourselves the way your ancestors did? Will you chase their detestable idols like a prostitute?

³¹ You offer your children as sacrifices by burning them alive. You dishonor yourselves with all your disgusting idols to this day. Should you be allowed to ask me for help, nation of Israel? "As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you won't be allowed to ask me for help.

³² What you have in mind will never happen. You think that you want to be like other nations, like the different people in other countries. You want to serve wood and stone.

³³ "As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will rule you with a mighty hand and a powerful arm, and I will pour out my fury.

³⁴ I will bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where I have scattered you with my mighty hand and powerful arm. I will pour out my fury.

³⁵ I will bring you into the desert of the nations. There I will put you on trial face to face.

³⁶ I will put you on trial as I put your ancestors on trial in the desert of Egypt, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁷ Then I will make you suffer punishment and make you keep the terms of the promise.

³⁸ I will get rid of rebels and those who do wrong against me. I will bring you out of the land where you are living. You will never enter Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹ "Nation of Israel, this is what the Almighty LORD says: Serve your disgusting idols. But afterwards, you will listen to me. You will no longer dishonor my holy name with your gifts and your disgusting idols.

⁴⁰ "The entire nation of Israel, everyone in the land, will worship me on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD. There I will accept you. There I will look for your offerings, your best gifts, and all your holy gifts.

⁴¹ When I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, I will accept you as if you were a pleasing sacrifice. Through you I will reveal myself as holy to the nations that are watching.

⁴² Then you will know that I am the LORD, because I will bring you to the land of Israel, the land that I promised to give your ancestors.

⁴³ There you will remember the way you lived and everything you did to dishonor yourselves. You will be disgusted by every wrong thing that you did.

⁴⁴ Then you will know that I am the LORD, because I will deal with you for the sake of my name. I will not deal with you based on the evil and corrupt things that you have done, nation of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

⁴⁵ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁴⁶ "Son of man, turn to the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest in the Negev.

⁴⁷ Tell the forest in the Negev, 'Listen to the word of the LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am about to set fire to you to destroy all your green trees and all your dry trees. The blazing fire will not be put out. It will burn the whole land from the south to the north.

⁴⁸ Then everyone will know that I, the LORD, started the fire. It will never be put out.'"

⁴⁹ Then I said, "Oh no! Almighty LORD, no! The people already say that I'm only telling stories."

21 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me.
He said,

² "Son of man, turn to Jerusalem, preach against the holy places. Prophecy against the land of Israel.

³ Tell the land of Israel, 'This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will take my sword out of its scabbard and kill the righteous people and the wicked people among you.

⁴ I'm going to kill the righteous people and the wicked people among you. That is why my sword will come out of its scabbard to be used against everyone from the south to the north.

⁵ Then everyone will know that I, the LORD, have taken my sword from its scabbard, and I will not put it back again.'

⁶ "So, son of man, groan with a breaking heart and with bitter crying while the people watch you.

⁷ When they ask you why you are groaning, say, 'News has come that will discourage everyone. People's hands will hang limp, their hearts will lose courage, and their knees will become as weak as water. It's coming! It will surely take place!' declares the Almighty LORD."

⁸ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹ "Son of man, prophesy. Tell them, 'This is what the Lord says: A sword, a sword is sharpened and polished, ¹⁰ It's sharpened to kill and polished to flash like lightning. How can we rejoice? My son has refused to be disciplined or punished.

¹¹ The sword has been handed over to be polished, to be placed in the hand. The sword is being sharpened and polished to be placed in the hands of killers.

¹² "Cry and mourn, son of man, because the sword will be used against my people and against all the princes of Israel. I will throw the princes and my people on the sword. So beat your breast, and grieve.

¹³ Testing will surely come. What if you refuse to be disciplined again? Won't you be tested? declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁴ So prophesy, son of man. Clap your hands! Let the sword strike again and again. It's the sword for killing. It's the sword for killing many people. It's the sword that surrounds them.

¹⁵ I have appointed my sword to slaughter people at all their gates so that their hearts will sink and many will die. Yes! It's ready to flash like lightning. It's polished to kill.

¹⁶ Sword, cut to the right. Cut to the left or wherever your blade is turned.

¹⁷ I will also clap my hands and rest from my fury. I, the LORD, have spoken.'"

¹⁸ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁹ "Son of man, mark two roads that the king of Babylon and his sword can take. Both of these roads should start from the same country. Make a sign, and put it where the roads start to fork toward the cities.

²⁰ Mark the road that the king and his sword can take to the Ammonite city of Rabbah, and mark the road that leads to Judah and the fortified city of Jerusalem.

²¹ The king of Babylon will stop where the roads branch off, where there is a fork in the road. Then he will look for omens. He will shake some arrows, ask his household gods for help, and examine animal livers.

²² The omens will indicate that he should go to the right, to Jerusalem.

So he will set up his battering rams there, give the order to kill, raise a battle cry, aim the battering rams against the city gates, put up ramps, and set up blockades.

²³ The people won't believe this because they have made treaties with other nations. But the king of Babylon will remind them of their sins, and they will be captured.

²⁴ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You make people remember how sinful you are because you openly do wrong. You show your sins in everything you do. So you will be taken captive.

²⁵ "You dishonest and wicked prince of Israel, the time for your final punishment has come.

²⁶ This is what the Almighty LORD says: Take off your turban, and get rid of your crown. Things are going to change. Those who are unimportant will become important, and those who are important will become unimportant.

²⁷ Ruins! Ruins! I will turn this place into ruins! It will not be restored until its rightful owner comes. Then I will give it to him.

²⁸ "Son of man, prophesy. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says about the Ammonites and their insults: A sword, a sword is drawn ready to kill. It's polished to destroy and flash like lightning.

²⁹ People see false visions about you and prophesy lies about you. The sword will be placed on the necks of dishonest, wicked people, for whom the time of final punishment has come.

³⁰ "'Return your sword to its scabbard. In the place where you were created, in the land where you were born, there I will judge you.

³¹ I will pour out my fury on you and breathe on you with my fiery anger. I will hand you over to cruel people who are skilled in destruction.

³² You will be fuel for the fire. You will die in the land. You will no longer be remembered. I, the LORD, have spoken."

22 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Will you judge, son of man? Will you judge the city of murderers? Then tell it about all the disgusting things that it has done.

³ Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Jerusalem, you are the city that murders people who live in you. Your time has come. You dishonor yourself with disgusting idols.

⁴ You are guilty because of the people you have killed. You are dishonored because of the disgusting idols you have made. You have brought an end to your days, and you have come to the end of your years. That is why I will make you a disgrace to the nations and a joke in every land.

⁵ Those near and those far away will mock you. Your name will be dishonored, and you will be filled with confusion.

⁶ "See how all the princes of Israel who live in you have used their power to murder people.

⁷ People in you hate their fathers and mothers. They oppress foreigners in you. They oppress orphans and widows in you.

⁸ You have despised my holy things and dishonored the day to worship me.

⁹ Some of your people slander. They want to kill people. People who live in you eat food sacrificed to idols at the worship sites on the hills, and they sin sexually.

¹⁰ Men have sex with their father's wives. They have sex with women when the women are having their periods and are unclean.

¹¹ Men do disgusting things with their neighbors' wives. Some men sexually dishonor their daughters-in-law. Other men who live in you have sex with their sisters, their father's daughters.

¹² Other people take bribes to murder people. You collect interest and make excessive profits. You make profits by mistreating your neighbors. You have forgotten me, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹³ "I will use my power against you because of the excessive profits you have made and the murders you have committed.

¹⁴ Will you still be brave? Will you remain strong when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations and force you into other countries. I will put an end to your uncleanness.

¹⁶ You will be dishonored in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

¹⁷ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁸ "Son of man, the people of Israel have become worthless to me. All of them are like copper, tin, iron, and lead in a smelting furnace. They are like the impurities left from silver.

¹⁹ This is what the Almighty LORD says: All of you have become worthless. That is why I'm going to gather you in Jerusalem.

²⁰ People gather silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin together in a smelting furnace to melt them with a fiery blast. In the same way, in my anger and fury I will gather you and put you in the city. I will melt you there.

²¹ Yes, I will gather you, breathe on you with my fiery anger, and melt you in the city.

²² You will be melted in the city like silver that is melted in a furnace. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on you."

²³ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁴ "Son of man, tell the city, 'You are an unclean land that has not had rain during the day of my anger. You have not been made clean.

²⁵ Your princes are like roaring lions who tear their prey into pieces. They eat people and take their treasures and precious belongings. They turn many women into widows.

²⁶ Your priests violate my teachings and dishonor my holy things. They don't distinguish between what is holy and what is unholy. They don't teach the difference between what is clean and what is unclean. They ignore the days to worship me. So I am dishonored among the people.

²⁷ Your leaders are like wolves that tear their prey into pieces. They murder and destroy people to make excessive profits.

²⁸ Your prophets cover up these things by seeing false visions and by prophesying lies. They say, "This is what the Almighty LORD says." Yet, the LORD hasn't spoken.

²⁹ The common people oppress and rob others. They do wrong to humble people and to poor people. They oppress foreigners for no reason.

³⁰ "I looked for someone among you who could build walls or stand in front of me by the gaps in the walls to defend the land and keep it from being destroyed. But I couldn't find anyone.

³¹ So I will pour out my anger on you, and with my fiery anger I will consume you. This is because of all the things you have done,'" declares the Almighty LORD.

23 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, there were once two women, daughters of the same mother.

³ They became prostitutes in Egypt when they were young. There men fondled and caressed their breasts.

⁴ "The older girl was named Oholah, and the younger girl was named Oholibah. I married them, and they gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah represents Samaria, and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

⁵ Oholah acted like a prostitute, although she was my wife. She lusted after her Assyrian lovers who lived nearby.

⁶ They were governors and commanders clothed in purple. They were all handsome young men who rode on horses.

⁷ She became a prostitute for all the important men in Assyria. She dishonored herself with the idols of all those with whom she fell in love.

⁸ She continued the prostitution that she started in Egypt. When she was young, men went to bed with her, caressed her breasts, and treated her like a prostitute.

⁹ "That is why I handed her over to her lovers, to the Assyrians whom she lusted after.

¹⁰ They stripped her naked, took away her sons and daughters, and killed her with a sword. Women gossiped about how she was punished.

¹¹ "Even though her younger sister Oholibah saw this, Oholibah lusted after men more than her sister did. Oholibah's prostitution became worse than her sister's prostitution.

¹² She lusted after the Assyrians who were nearby. They were governors and commanders in full dress. They were mounted horsemen, all of them desirable young men.

¹³ I saw that she was dishonoring herself. Both sisters acted the same way.

¹⁴ Yet, she carried her prostitution even further. She saw pictures of men carved on walls. They were figures of Babylonian men, painted in bright red.

¹⁵ The men had belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads. All of them looked like Babylonian officers who were born in Babylon.

¹⁶ She fell in love with them at first sight and sent messengers to them in Babylonia.

¹⁷ So these men came from Babylon, went to bed with her, and dishonored her with their lust. After they had dishonored her, she turned away from them in disgust.

¹⁸ "She carried out her prostitution openly, and she lay around naked. I turned away from her in disgust as I had turned away from her sister.

¹⁹ She remembered how she had been a prostitute in Egypt when she was young. So she took part in even more prostitution.

²⁰ She lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose semen was like that of horses.

²¹ So she longed to do the sinful things she did when she was young in Egypt, when young men caressed and fondled her breasts.

²² "Oholibah, this is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to stir up your lovers against you. They are the lovers you turned away from in disgust. I will bring them against you from every side.

²³ I will bring men from Babylon and from all Babylonia, men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, as well as all the Assyrians. They are desirable young men, governors and commanders, military officers and important men. All of them ride on horses.

²⁴ They will attack you from the north, with chariots and wagons and with a large number of troops. They will attack you from all around with small and large shields and with helmets. I have handed you over to them for punishment. They will punish you with their own kind of punishment.

²⁵ I will direct my burning anger against you so that they will deal with you in anger. They will cut off your nose and ears and kill everyone who remains. They will take your sons and your daughters and burn down whatever is left.

²⁶ They will rip off your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels.

²⁷ I will put a stop to your sinning and to your prostitution, which you began in Egypt. You won't desire these things anymore or remember Egypt anymore.

²⁸ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to hand you over to those you hate and to those you turned away from in disgust.

²⁹ They will treat you hatefully and take away everything that you have worked for. They will leave you naked and bare. The shame of your prostitution will be revealed.

³⁰ Your sinning and your prostitution have done this to you, because you lusted after the nations and dishonored yourself with their idols.

³¹ You've acted the same way as your sister. That is why I will put her cup in your hand.

³² This is what the Almighty LORD says: You will drink from your sister's cup, a cup that is deep and wide. You will be scorned and mocked, because this cup holds so much.

³³ The cup of your sister Samaria will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow.

³⁴ You will drink from it and drain it. You will break it into pieces and tear your breasts off your body. I have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You have forgotten me and turned your back on me. So you will be punished for your sinning and prostitution."

³⁶ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah and tell them about their disgusting practices?

³⁷ They have committed adultery. Their hands are covered with blood. They commit adultery with their idols. They have sacrificed the children they gave birth to for me as burnt offerings to idols.

³⁸ They have also done this to me: They have polluted my holy places when they do these things and dishonored the days to worship me.

³⁹ When they sacrificed their children to their idols, they came into my holy place and dishonored it. That is what they've done in my temple.

⁴⁰ "They even sent messengers to invite men to come from far away. When the men arrived, they washed themselves for the men, painted their eyes, and put on their jewels.

⁴¹ They sat on their fine couches with tables in front of them. They put my incense and my olive oil on their tables.

⁴² "I heard the noise from a carefree crowd. A large number of people came from the desert, and they put bracelets on the women's wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads.

⁴³ Then I said, 'She is worn out from her acts of adultery.' Yet, men continued to have sex with her.

⁴⁴ Men slept with her. They slept with those sinful women, Oholah and Oholibah just as they slept with a prostitute.

⁴⁵ Righteous people will punish these women for adultery and for murder, because these women have committed adultery and their hands are covered with blood.

⁴⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Bring together a mob against the people of Samaria and Jerusalem. Hand them over to terror and looting.

⁴⁷ Then the mob will stone them and kill them with swords. The mob will kill their sons and daughters and burn their homes.

⁴⁸ So I will put a stop to the sinning in the land, and all the women will be warned not to sin as they do.

⁴⁹ They will be punished for their sins, and they will pay for their sin of idolatry. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

24 ¹ On the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ² "Son of man, write down today's date. The king of Babylon has surrounded Jerusalem this very day.

³ Tell these rebellious people a story. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Put the pot on the fire; put it on. Pour water in it.

⁴ Cut the meat into pieces, all the best pieces, the thigh and shoulder. Fill the pot with the meatiest bones

⁵ selected from the best sheep. Pile wood under the pot. Bring the mixture in the pot to a boil. Cook the bones that are in it well.

⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for that city of murderers, for that tarnished pot. Its tarnish will not come off. Empty the meat out of it piece by piece without choosing any particular piece.

⁷ Blood is still in that city. The blood was poured on a bare rock. It wasn't poured on the ground where dust would cover it.

⁸ In order to stir up my fury so that I would pay that city back, I put the blood of its victims on a bare rock. Now that blood can't be covered.

⁹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for that city of murderers. I, too, will pile the wood high.

¹⁰ Pile it high, and light the fire. Cook the meat thoroughly, stir the mixture, and let the bones burn.

¹¹ Then set the empty pot on the coals so that it gets hot and its copper glows. Its impurities will melt away, and its tarnish will burn off.

¹² "I have worn myself out trying to clean this pot. Even the fire can't take away its thick tarnish.

¹³ I tried to clean you of your filthy lust, but you wouldn't clean yourself from your filth. You will never be clean until I unleash my fury on you.

¹⁴ I, the LORD, have spoken. It will happen, and I will do it. I will not ignore you, pity you, or change my plans. I will punish you because of the way you lived and because of everything you have done,'" declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁶ "Son of man, with one blow I'm going to take away from you the person you love the most. But you must not mourn, cry, or let tears run down your face.

¹⁷ Groan silently. Don't grieve for the person who dies. Tie on your turban, and put on your sandals. Don't cover your face or eat the food that mourners eat."

¹⁸ So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I was ordered.

¹⁹ The people asked me, "Tell us, what do these things that you are doing mean to us?"

²⁰ I told them, "The LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²¹ 'Tell the nation of Israel, "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to dishonor my holy place. You brag that my holy place gives you strength. It's the thing you love the most. It's your hearts' desire. So the sons and daughters that you left behind will die in battle.

²² Then you must do as I did. Don't cover your faces or eat the food that mourners eat.

²³ Leave your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. Don't grieve or cry! You will waste away because of your guilt and groan to one another.

²⁴ Ezekiel is a sign to you. You will do everything he has done. Then you will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

²⁵ "Son of man, on that day I will take their stronghold away from them. It makes them happy and proud. It is their hearts' desire and the thing they love the most. I will also take away their sons and daughters.

²⁶ On that day a refugee will come to you to tell you the news.

²⁷ On that very day your mouth will be opened, and you will talk to the refugee. You will speak and not be silent anymore. You will be a sign to them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

25 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, turn to the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

³ Tell the Ammonites, 'Listen to the word of the Almighty LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says: You were glad when my holy place was dishonored, when the land of Israel was ruined, and when the nation of Judah went into exile.

⁴ That is why I'm going to hand you over to the people in the east. They will possess your land. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your crops and drink your milk.

⁵ I will turn Rabbah into a pasture for camels, and I will turn Ammon into a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You clapped your hands and stomped your feet. You rejoiced and felt contempt for the land of Israel.

⁷ That is why I will use my power against you and hand you over to the nations as loot. I will wipe you out from among the nations, make you disappear, and destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Moab and Seir said, "The nation of Judah is like all the other nations."

⁹ That is why I'm going to open up the cities that protect Moab's borders. They are the beautiful cities of Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim.

¹⁰ I will hand the Moabites and the Ammonites over to the people in the east. So the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations.

¹¹ I will punish Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

¹² "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Edom took revenge on the nation of Judah and became guilty because of it.

¹³ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I will use my power against Edom. I will wipe out people and animals. I will turn the land into ruins from Teman to Dedan. People will die in battle.

¹⁴ I will use my people Israel to take revenge on Edom. My people will deal with Edom based on my anger and my fury. Then the Edomites will know my revenge, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The Philistines have taken revenge with spiteful hearts. They have tried to destroy their long-time enemies.

¹⁶ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to use my power against the Philistines, cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the people that are left on the coast.

¹⁷ I will take fierce revenge on them and punish them with fury. I will take revenge on them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

26 ¹ On the first day of the month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, Tyre said this about Jerusalem: 'The city that was the gateway for the nations is destroyed, and its doors are swung open to me. I'll get rich now that it's ruined.'

³ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Tyre. I will bring many nations against you as the waves on the sea rise.

⁴ They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down its towers. Then I will sweep up the dust and turn Tyre into a bare rock.

⁵ It will become a place by the sea where people spread their fishing nets. I have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD. It will become a prize for the nations.

⁶ The people in the villages and on the mainland will die in battle. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ He will destroy the villages on your mainland. He will set up blockades, put up dirt ramps, and raise his shields against you.

⁹ He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and he will cut down your towers with his axes.

¹⁰ He will have so many horses that their dust will cover you. The noise from the war horses, wagon wheels, and chariots will shake your walls when he enters your gates. He will enter as people enter a conquered city.

¹¹ With his horses' hoofs he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people in battle, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

¹² His troops will loot your riches and take your goods as prizes. They will destroy your walls and tear down your delightful homes. They will throw your stones, wood, and soil into the water.

¹³ "I will put a stop to your noisy songs, and the music from your harps will no longer be heard.

¹⁴ I will turn you into bare rock. You will become a place to spread fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt. I, the LORD, have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says to Tyre: The people who live on the coast will shake with fear when they hear about your defeat. They will groan when your people are wounded and slaughtered.

¹⁶ Then the princes from the coast will come down from their thrones. They will remove their robes and take off their embroidered clothes. Dressed in terror, they will sit on the ground. They will tremble constantly and be shocked at you.

¹⁷ Then they will sing this funeral song for you: Tyre, you famous city, you have been destroyed. You have been shattered by the sea. You and your people ruled the sea. All your people terrified those who lived by the coast.

¹⁸ Your defeat will make the people who live by the coast tremble. Your end will terrify the islands in the sea.

¹⁹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will turn your city into ruins like cities that have no one living in them. I will bring the deep ocean over you, and the Mediterranean Sea will cover you.

²⁰ I will bring you down with those who descend to the grave to join the people of long ago. I will make you live below the earth among the ancient ruins with those who go down to the grave. You will never return or take your place in the land of the living.

²¹ I will turn you into a terror, and you will no longer exist. People will look for you, but they will never see you again," declares the Almighty LORD.

27 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, sing a funeral song about Tyre.

³ Tyre is the city at the entrance to the sea. It is the merchant to the nations. Say to Tyre, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Tyre, you used to brag about your perfect beauty.

⁴ Your home is the sea. "Your builders made your beauty perfect.

⁵ Your builders made all your boards from pine trees on Mount Hermon. They took cedar trees from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶ They made your oars from oaks in Bashan. They made your deck from pine trees on the shores of Cyprus. It had ivory set in it.

⁷ Your sails were made out of fine embroidered linen from Egypt. They were like your flags. Your awnings were violet and purple. They came from the coasts of Elishah.

⁸ "People from Sidon and Arvad used to row you. Your own skilled people were your sailors.

⁹ Master shipbuilders from Gebal went inside you to caulk your seams. All the ships on the sea and their sailors docked alongside you to trade with you.

¹⁰ People from Persia, Lud, and Put were soldiers in your army. They hung their shields and helmets inside you. Their victories made you look good.

¹¹ "People from Arvad and Helech were guards all around your walls. People from Gammad guarded your towers. They hung their shields all around your walls, making your beauty perfect.

¹² "People from Tarshish traded with you because you were so very rich. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise.

¹³ People from Greece, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you. They exchanged slaves and bronze items for your goods.

¹⁴ People from Beth Togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise.

¹⁵ People from Dedan traded goods with you. You traded with many people on the coasts, and they brought you ivory and ebony as payment.

¹⁶ "People from Syria traded with you because you had so many products. They exchanged emeralds, purple cloth, richly woven cloth, linen, coral, and rubies for your merchandise.

¹⁷ Judah and Israel traded with you. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, baked goods, honey, olive oil, and balsam for your goods.

¹⁸ People from Damascus traded with you because you had so many products. They exchanged wine from Helbon and wool from Sahar.

¹⁹ "Danites and Greeks from Uzal traded for your merchandise. They exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and sugar cane for your goods.

²⁰ Dedan traded saddle blankets with you.

²¹ Arabia and all the officials of Kedar traded with you. They traded lambs, rams, and male goats.

²² The merchants from Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded the finest spices, precious stones, and gold for your merchandise.

²³ Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants from Sheba, Assyria, and Kilmad traded with you.

²⁴ In your marketplace they traded for beautiful clothes, purple robes, embroidered cloth, and many multicolored rugs with woven and twisted cords.

²⁵ "Ships from Tarshish carried your goods. You were like a ship filled with heavy cargo in the sea.

²⁶ Your rowers took you out to the high seas, and an east wind wrecked you in the sea.

²⁷ Your wealth, your merchandise, and the goods you sell, your mariners and your sailors, your caulkers and your merchants, your soldiers and everyone else on board sank into the sea when your ship was wrecked.

²⁸ "When your sailors cried out, people on the shore trembled.

²⁹ All the rowers, the sailors, and all the mariners came down from their ships and stood on the shore.

³⁰ They cried loudly and bitterly over you. They put dust on their heads and covered themselves with ashes.

³¹ They shaved their heads because of you and put on sackcloth. They cried over you with bitterness and with bitter mourning.

³² They sang a funeral song for you with loud crying: "Who is like Tyre, the city destroyed in the sea?"

³³ Your merchandise was sent overseas. You filled many people with your great wealth and your goods. You made the kings of the earth rich.

³⁴ Now you are wrecked in the sea, at the bottom of the sea. Your goods and your whole crew sank with you.

³⁵ All those who live on the coasts are horrified because of you. Their kings are terribly afraid. Their faces show their fear.

³⁶ The merchants among the nations laugh at you. You have come to a terrible end, and you will never exist again.'"

28 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, tell the ruler of Tyre, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: In your arrogance you say, "I'm a god. I sit on God's throne in the sea." But you're only human and not a god, although you think you are a god.

³ You think that you are wiser than Daniel and that no secret can be hidden from you.

⁴ Because you are wise and understanding, you've made yourself rich. You saved gold and silver in your treasuries.

⁵ Because of your great skill in trading, you've made yourself very wealthy. You have become arrogant because of your wealth.

⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You think you are wise like God.

⁷ That is why I am going to bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless foreigners among the nations. They will draw their swords against your fine wisdom and dishonor your greatness.

⁸ They will throw you into a pit, and you will die a violent death in the sea.

⁹ You will no longer say that you are a god when you face those who kill you.

You will be a human, not a god, in the hands of those who kill you.

¹⁰ You will die at the hands of foreigners like a godless person. I have spoken," declares the LORD.

¹¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹² "Son of man, sing a funeral song for the ruler of Tyre. Tell him, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: You were the perfect example, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³ You were in Eden, God's garden. You were covered with every kind of precious stone: red quartz, topaz, crystal, beryl, onyx, gray quartz, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald. Your settings and your sockets were made of gold when you were created.

¹⁴ I appointed an angel to guard you. You were on God's holy mountain. You walked among fiery stones.

¹⁵ Your behavior was perfect from the time you were created, until evil was found in you.

¹⁶ You traded far and wide. You learned to be violent, and you sinned. So I threw you down from God's mountain in disgrace. The guardian angel forced you out from the fiery stones.

¹⁷ You became too proud because of your beauty. You wasted your wisdom because of your greatness. So I threw you to the ground and left you in front of the kings so that they could see you.

¹⁸ You dishonored your own holy places because of your many sins and dishonest trade. So I set fire to you to burn you up. I turned you into ashes on the ground in the presence of all who saw you.

¹⁹ All the nations who knew you are horrified because of you. You have come to a terrible end, and you will never exist again.'"

²⁰ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²¹ "Son of man, turn to Sidon and prophesy against it.

²² Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Sidon. I will show my greatness through you. Then people will know that I am the LORD, because I will punish you and show you how holy I am.

²³ I will send a plague against you and make blood flow in your streets. Your people will fall dead. People with swords will attack you from every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

²⁴ The nation of Israel will no longer be hurt by prickly thorns or sharp briars from everyone around them. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD.

²⁵ "'This is what the Almighty LORD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the nations where they were scattered, I will show that I am holy as the nations watch. The people of Israel will live in their own land, the land I gave to my servant Jacob.

²⁶ They will live there in safety. They will build homes and plant vineyards. They will live in safety when I punish all the surrounding people who treat them with scorn. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.’”

29 ¹ On the twelfth day of the tenth month in the tenth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ² “Son of man, turn to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

³ Tell him, ‘This is what the Almighty LORD says: I’m against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. You are like a monster crocodile lying in the Nile River. You say, “The Nile River is mine. I made it for myself.”’

⁴ "I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish in the Nile River stick to your scales. I will pull you out of your river with all the fish in the Nile sticking to your scales.

⁵ I will leave you in the desert, you and all the fish from the Nile. You will fall in an open field. No one will pick you up or bury you. I will feed you to wild animals and birds.

⁶ Then all those living in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. Egypt, you have become like a broken walking stick to the nation of Israel.

⁷ When Israel grabbed you, you splintered and tore up their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke, and they wrenched their backs.

⁸ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am going to attack you with a sword. I will kill people and animals.

⁹ Egypt will become a wasteland and a pile of rubble. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You said, "The Nile River is mine. I made it."

¹⁰ That is why I'm against you and the Nile River. I will turn Egypt into a pile of rubble. It will become a wasteland, from Migdol to Syene, all the way to the border of Sudan.

¹¹ No human or animal will walk through it, and no one will live there for 40 years.

¹² I will make Egypt the most desolate country in the world. For 40 years Egypt's cities will lie in ruins. They will be ruined more than any other city. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries.

¹³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: After 40 years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they have been scattered.

¹⁴ I will bring back the Egyptian captives and return them to Pathros, the land they came from. There they will be a weak kingdom.

¹⁵ They will be the weakest kingdom, and they will never rule the nations again. I will make them so weak that they will never rule the nations again.

¹⁶ The nation of Israel will never trust Egypt again. The people of Israel will remember how wrong they were whenever they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

¹⁷ On the first day of the first month in the twenty-seventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁸ "Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made his army fight hard against Tyre. Every soldier's head was worn bald, and every soldier's shoulder was rubbed raw. Yet, he and his army got no reward for their hard-fought battle against Tyre.

¹⁹ This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to give Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth, take its prized possessions, and loot it. That will be the pay for his army.

²⁰ I have given him Egypt as pay for what he has done. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked for me, declares the Almighty LORD.

²¹ "On that day I will make the people of Israel strong again, and I will give you, Ezekiel, something to say among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

30 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, prophesy. Say, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Cry for that day!'

³ The day is near. The day of the LORD is near. It will be a gloomy day, a time of trouble for the nations.

⁴ There will be war in Egypt and anguish in Ethiopia. Many Egyptians will fall dead. People will take away Egypt's wealth, and its foundations will be torn down.

⁵ Sudan, Put, Lud, all the Arabs, the Libyans, and people from the promised land will die in battle.

⁶ "This is what the LORD says: All Egypt's allies will die. Egypt's strength will disappear. People will die in war from Migdol to Syene, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁷ "Egypt will become the most desolate country in the world, and Egypt's cities will lie in ruins. They will be ruined more than other cities.

⁸ Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will set fire to Egypt and all her defenders will be killed.

⁹ On that day I will send messengers in ships to terrify those who live in safety in Sudan. The people of Sudan will be in anguish when Egypt is in trouble. That day is coming!

¹⁰ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will use King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to bring an end to Egypt.

¹¹ He and his troops, the most ruthless troops among the nations, will be brought to destroy the land. They will draw their swords to attack Egypt and fill the land with dead bodies.

¹² I will dry up the Nile River and sell the land to wicked people. I will have foreigners destroy the land and everything in it. I, the LORD, have spoken.

¹³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will destroy the statues and put an end to the idols in Memphis. A prince will never rise again in Egypt. I will spread fear throughout Egypt.

¹⁴ I will destroy Pathros, set fire to Zoan, and bring punishment on Thebes.

¹⁵ I will pour out my fury on Sin, Egypt's fortress, and I will kill many people in Thebes.

¹⁶ I will set fire to Egypt. Sin will be in much pain. Thebes will be broken into pieces, and Memphis will be in trouble every day.

¹⁷ The young men from Heliopolis and Bubastis will die in battle, and people from these cities will go into exile.

¹⁸ At Tahpanhes the day will turn dark when I break Egypt's power. Egypt's strong army will be defeated. Clouds will cover Egypt, and people from its villages will go into exile.

¹⁹ Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will bring punishment on Egypt.'"

²⁰ On the seventh day of the first month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²¹ "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. His arm isn't bandaged, so it can't heal and be strong enough to hold a sword.

²² "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the healthy one and the broken one. I will make the sword fall from his hand.

²³ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries.

²⁴ I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh's arms.

Pharaoh will groan like a person who is dying.

²⁵ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. He will strike Egypt with it.

²⁶ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

31 ¹ On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ² "Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his many people, 'Was there ever anyone as great as you?

³ What about Assyria? It was a cedar in Lebanon with fine branches that shaded the forest. It was very tall. Its top was among the clouds.

⁴ Water made the tree grow, and underground springs made it tall. Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted. Streams ran beside all the other trees around it.

⁵ That is why it grew taller than all the other trees in the field. Its branches became large and long because of so much water.

⁶ All the birds made their nests in its branches. All the wild animals gave birth to their young under it. All the powerful nations lived in its shade.

⁷ So the tree was big and beautiful with its long branches. Its roots reached down to many sources of water.

⁸ The cedar trees in God's garden couldn't compare to it. The pine trees couldn't equal its branches. The plane trees couldn't measure up to its branches. All the trees in God's garden couldn't match its beauty.

⁹ I was the one who made it beautiful with its many branches. This tree was the envy of all the trees in Eden, in God's garden.

¹⁰ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The tree grew very tall, and its top reached the clouds. It became arrogant because it was so tall.

¹¹ So I handed it over to a mighty ruler among the nations, and he surely dealt with it. I forced it out because of its wickedness.

¹³ All the birds perched on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived in its branches.

¹⁴ Then all the other trees growing by the water were kept from becoming arrogant because of their height, and their tops were no longer allowed to reach the clouds. So no tree, even if it is well-watered, will ever stand that tall. Every tree is going to die and go below the earth to join those who have died and gone down to the pit.

¹⁶ I made the nations tremble in fear at the sound of the tree's crash. I brought the tree down to the grave to join those who had gone down to the pit. Then all the trees in Eden, the choicest and best trees of Lebanon, and all the trees that were well-watered were comforted below the earth.

¹⁷ They had gone down with the tree in the grave to join others killed in battle. All who lived in its shadow were scattered among the nations.

¹⁸ "This tree is you, Pharaoh, and all your many people. No tree in Eden has ever been as honorable and as great as you. But you will be brought down below the earth with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the godless people who were killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD."

32 ¹ On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, sing a funeral song for Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Tell him, 'You think you are like a lion among the nations. Instead, you are like a crocodile in the water. You splash around in the water. You stir up the water with your feet. You make the streams muddy.

³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: When many nations gather together, I will spread my net over you, and they will haul you up in a net.

⁴ I will throw you on the ground and toss you into an open field. I will make birds perch on you, and wild animals from all over the earth will feed on you.

⁵ I will scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your rotting corpse.

⁶ I will drench the earth with your flowing blood all the way to the mountains. Ravines will be filled with your dead body.

⁷ "When I put out your light, I will cover the sky and darken the stars. I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon won't shine anymore.

⁸ I will darken all the lights shining in the sky above you. I will bring darkness over your land, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹ "I will make many people troubled when I spread the news of your destruction among the nations to countries that you haven't heard of.

¹⁰ Many people will be shocked by what I will do to you. Their kings will shudder when I swing my sword in their faces. When you die, all of them will tremble in fear for their own lives.

¹¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The sword of the king of Babylon will attack you.

¹² I will cut down your people with the swords of warriors. All of them will be the most ruthless warriors among the nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt and destroy its many people.

¹³ I will also destroy all the animals beside its many water sources. The feet of humans and the hoofs of animals won't stir up the water anymore.

¹⁴ Then I will make its water clear and make its streams flow like oil, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ I will turn Egypt into a wasteland. I will take everything in the land, and I will kill all the people who live there. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'

¹⁶ "This is a funeral song. The people from the nations will sing this song. They will sing it as they mourn for Egypt and its many people," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ¹⁸ "Son of man, cry for the many people of Egypt. Bring them down along with the other mighty nations. Send them down below the earth to be with those who have gone down to the pit.

¹⁹ "Tell them, 'Are you more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and join the godless people.'

²⁰ "The Egyptians will lie among those who were killed in battle. A sword has been drawn. Drag Egypt and all its people away.

²¹ The mightiest warriors will say to Pharaoh from the grave, 'You and your defenders have come down, and you now lie with the godless people who were killed in battle.'

²² "Assyria is there with its whole army, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle.

²³ Their graves are in the deepest parts of the pit. Assyria's army lies around its grave. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They once terrified people in the land of the living.

²⁴ "Elam is there with all its soldiers, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They went down below the earth as godless people. They once terrified people in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit.

²⁵ A bed has been made for Elam among the dead. The graves of its soldiers are all around it. The soldiers were godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit. They lie among the dead.

²⁶ "Meshech and Tubal are there with all their soldiers, and the graves of their soldiers are all around them. Their soldiers were all godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living.

²⁷ They don't lie with the godless warriors who died and went down to the grave with their weapons of war. Their swords were placed under their heads. Their shields were placed on their bones because they terrified others in the land of the living.

²⁸ "You Egyptians will be crushed with the godless people, and you will lie with those who were killed in battle.

²⁹ "Edom is there with its kings and its princes. They used to be powerful, but now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They lie there with the godless people and with those who have gone down to the pit.

³⁰ "All the rulers from the north and all the people from Sidon are there. They, too, went down with the dead. They are disgraced because they terrified people with their power. They were godless people. Now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They suffer disgrace with those who went down to the pit.

³¹ "Pharaoh and his army will see these things and be comforted over all the soldiers who have been killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD.

³² I terrified people in the land of the living. Pharaoh and all his soldiers will be laid among the godless people who were killed in battle," declares the Almighty LORD.

33 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them, 'Suppose I bring war on this country, and the people of this country choose one of their men and make him their watchman.

³ If he sees the enemy coming to attack the country, he will blow his horn to warn the people.

⁴ If the people hear the horn and ignore the warning and the enemy comes and takes them, they will be responsible for their own deaths.

⁵ They heard the sound of the horn but ignored its warning. So they are responsible for their own deaths. If they had taken the warning, they would have saved themselves.

⁶ "'But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't blow his horn to warn the people and the enemy comes and kills someone, that watchman must die because of his sin. I will hold him responsible for their deaths.'

⁷ "Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the people of Israel. Listen to what I say, and warn them for me.

⁸ Suppose I say to a wicked person, 'You wicked person, you will certainly die,' and you say nothing to warn him to change his ways. That wicked person will die because of his sin, and I will hold you responsible for his death.

⁹ But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his ways and he doesn't turn from them, then he will die because of his sin. However, you will save yourself.

¹⁰ "Son of man, say to the people of Israel, 'You have said this, "Our wickedness and our sins weigh us down, and we are rotting away because of them. How can we live?"'

¹¹ "Tell them, 'As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I don't want wicked people to die. Rather, I want them to turn from their ways and live. Change the way you think and act! Turn from your wicked ways! Do you want to die, people of Israel?'

¹² "Son of man, say to your people, 'The right things that a righteous person has done will not save him when he rebels. The wicked things that a wicked person has done will not make him stumble when he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person will not live when he sins.'

¹³ I may promise the righteous person that he will certainly live. But if he trusts in the right things that he has done and he does evil, none of the right things that he has done will be remembered. He will die because of the evil things he has done.

¹⁴ I may warn the wicked person that he will certainly die. But suppose he turns from his sin and does what is fair and right.

¹⁵ He returns the security for a loan, pays back everything he stole, lives by the rules of life, and does nothing evil.

Then he will certainly live. He will not die.

¹⁶ None of the sins that he has done will be remembered. He has done what is fair and right. He will certainly live.

¹⁷ "But your people say, 'The Lord's way is unfair.' Yet, their ways are unfair.

¹⁸ If the righteous person turns from the right things that he has done and does evil, he will die because of it.

¹⁹ If the wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is fair and right, he will live because of it.

²⁰ Yet, the people of Israel say, 'The Lord's way is unfair.' I will judge each of you by your own ways, people of Israel."

²¹ On the fifth day of the tenth month in the twelfth year of our captivity, a refugee from Jerusalem came to me. He said, "The city has been captured."

²² The evening before the refugee arrived, the power of the LORD came over me. On the morning the refugee arrived, the LORD made me speak. So I spoke, and I was no longer quiet.

²³ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁴ "Son of man, those who live in the ruined cities in Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one person, and he was given the land. But we are many. Certainly the land has been given to us.'

²⁵ So tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: You eat meat with blood in it. You look to your idols for help. You murder people. Should the land be given to you?

²⁶ You rely on your swords. You do disgusting things. You dishonor your neighbor's wife. Should the land be given to you?'

²⁷ "Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: As I live, whoever is in the ruined cities will be killed in battle.

Whoever is in the open field will become food for wild animals. Whoever is in fortified places and caves will die from plagues.

²⁸ I will turn the land into a barren wasteland. People will no longer brag about its power. The mountains of Israel will become so ruined that no one will travel through them.

²⁹ Then people will know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a barren wasteland because of all the disgusting things that they have done.'

³⁰ "Son of man, your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of their homes. They are saying to each other, 'Let's go and hear the word that has come from the LORD.'

³¹ Then they come to you, as if they are still my people, and they sit down in front of you. They listen to what you say, but they don't do it. They say that they love me, but in their hearts they chase dishonest profits.

³² To them you are nothing more than a singer with a beautiful voice who sings love songs or a musician who plays an instrument. They listen to your words, but they don't do them.

³³ When all your words come true—and they certainly will come true—these people will know that a prophet has been among them."

34 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy to these shepherds. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who have been taking care of only themselves. Shouldn't shepherds take care of the sheep?

³ You eat the best parts of the sheep, dress in the wool, and butcher the finest sheep. Yet, you don't take care of the sheep.

⁴ You have not strengthened those that were weak, healed those that were sick, or bandaged those that were injured. You have not brought back those that strayed away or looked for those that were lost. You have ruled them harshly and violently.

⁵ So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. When they were scattered, they became food for every wild animal.

⁶ My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered throughout the whole earth. No one searched or looked for them.

⁷ "So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

⁸ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, because there is no shepherd, my sheep have become prey. My sheep have become food for every wild animal. My shepherds haven't searched for my sheep. They have taken care of only themselves, not my sheep.

⁹ So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

¹⁰ This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against the shepherds. I will demand that they hand over my sheep. I won't let them take care of my sheep anymore, and they will no longer take care of only themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, and my sheep will no longer be their food.

¹¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will search for my sheep myself, and I will look after them.

¹² As a shepherd looks after his flock when he is with his scattered sheep, so

I will look after my sheep. I will rescue them on a cloudy and gloomy day from every place where they have been scattered.

¹³ I will bring them out from the nations, gather them from the countries, and bring them to their own land. I will take care of them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

¹⁴ I will feed them in good pasture, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel. They will rest on the good land where they graze, and they will feed on the best pastures in the mountains of Israel.

¹⁵ I will take care of my sheep and lead them to rest, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶ I will look for those that are lost, bring back those that have strayed away, bandage those that are injured, and strengthen those that are sick. I will destroy those that are fat and strong. I will take care of my sheep fairly.

¹⁷ "As for you, my sheep, this is what the Almighty LORD says: I will judge disputes between one sheep and another, between rams and male goats.

¹⁹ Must my sheep eat what your feet have trampled and drink what your feet have muddied?

²⁰ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says to them: I will judge disputes between the fat sheep and the skinny sheep.

²¹ You fat sheep push the skinny sheep with your sides and shoulders, and you knock down all the sick sheep with your horns. You have scattered them all over.

²² So I will rescue my sheep, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.

²³ Then I will place one shepherd over them, my servant David, and he will take care of them. He will take care of them and be their shepherd.

²⁴ I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be their prince. I, the LORD, have spoken.

²⁵ "I will promise them peace. I will remove the wild animals from the land so that my sheep can live safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

²⁶ I will bless them and the places around my hill. I will send rain at the right time. These showers will be a blessing to them.

²⁷ Then the trees in the field will produce fruit, the land will yield crops, and my sheep will live safely in their land. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will break off the bars on their yokes and rescue them from the people who made them slaves.

²⁸ They will no longer be prey to the nations, and the wild animals will no longer eat them. They will live safely, and no one will frighten them.

²⁹ I will give them a place that is known for its good crops. They will no longer experience hunger in the land, and they will no longer suffer the insults of other nations.

³⁰ Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the people of Israel, are my people, declares the Almighty LORD.

³¹ You, my sheep, are the sheep in my pasture. You are mortal, and I am your God, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

35 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me.
He said,

² "Son of man, turn to Mount Seir, and prophesy against it.

³ Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Mount Seir. I will use my power against you, and you will become a wasteland.

⁴ I will turn your cities into ruins, and you will become a wasteland. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵ "'You have always been an enemy of Israel. You deserted the people of Israel in battle when they were in trouble during their final punishment.

⁶ That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will let you be murdered. Murderers will pursue you. Since you don't hate murdering people, murder will pursue you.

⁷ I will turn Mount Seir into a barren wasteland, and I will destroy everyone who comes or goes from there.

⁸ I will fill your mountains with those who have been killed. Those killed in battle will fall on your hills and in your valleys and ravines.

⁹ I will turn you into a permanent wasteland. Your cities will not be lived in. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰ "'You said, "These two nations, Israel and Judah, along with their land, belong to us. We will take possession of them." But the LORD was there.

¹¹ That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will do to you what you did to them. When you were angry and jealous, you acted hatefully toward them.

¹² Then you will know that I, the LORD, heard all the insults that you spoke about the mountains of Israel. You said,

"They have been deserted and handed over to us to use up."

¹³ You bragged and continually talked against me. I heard you.

¹⁴ "'This is what the Almighty LORD says: The whole earth will be glad when I turn you into a wasteland.

¹⁵ You were happy when the land of Israel became a wasteland. I will do the same thing to you. You will become a wasteland, Mount Seir, and so will all of Edom. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

36 ¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Tell them, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the LORD.

² This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies said this about you, "Aha! The ancient worship sites now belong to us.'"

³ "So prophesy. Say, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies turned you into ruins and crushed you from every side. You became the possession of the rest of the nations, and people began to talk and gossip about you.

⁵ In my fiery anger I have spoken against the rest of the nations and against all of Edom. The Edomites have taken possession of my land with wholehearted joy and with complete scorn. They forced out the people and took their land.'

⁶ "So prophesy about Israel. Tell the mountains and hills and the ravines and valleys, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am speaking in my anger and fury because you have been insulted by the nations.

⁷ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I raise my hand and swear that the nations which surround you will be insulted.

⁸ "But you, mountains of Israel, will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel. My people will come home soon.

⁹ I am for you. I will turn to you, and you will be plowed and planted.

¹⁰ I will increase the number of people who live on you. All the people of Israel, all of them, will live on you. The cities will be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

¹¹ I will increase the number of people and animals that live on you. They will grow and become many. I will let people live on you as in the past, and I will make you better off than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹² I will bring people, my people Israel, to you. They will take possession of you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer take their children away from them.

¹³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: People say that you devour your people and take the children away from your nation.

¹⁴ So you will no longer devour your people or take the children away from your nation, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ I will no longer let you hear the insults from the nations. You will no longer suffer the disgrace of the people. You will never again take the children away from your own nation, declares the Almighty LORD.'"

¹⁶ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁷ "Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they dishonored it by the way they lived and by everything they did. Their ways were as unclean as a woman's menstrual period.

¹⁸ So I poured out my fury on them because they poured out blood on the land and they dishonored the land with their idols.

²⁰ But wherever they went among the nations, they dishonored my holy name. People said about them, 'These are the LORD'S people, yet they had to leave his land.'

²¹ I became concerned about my holy name because my people dishonored it among the nations wherever they went.

²² "So tell the people of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am about to do something, people of Israel. I will not do this for your sake but for the sake of my holy name, which you have dishonored among the nations wherever you have gone.

²³ I will reveal the holiness of my great name, which has been dishonored by the nations, the name that you have dishonored among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, because I will reveal my holiness among you as they watch, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁴ "I will take you from the nations and gather you from every country. I will bring you back to your own land.

²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you and make you clean instead of unclean. Then I will cleanse you from all your idols.

²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you. I will remove your stubborn hearts and give you obedient hearts.

²⁷ I will put my Spirit in you. I will enable you to live by my laws, and you will obey my rules.

²⁸ Then you will live in the land that I gave your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

²⁹ I will rescue you from all your uncleanness. I will make the grain grow so that you will never again have famines.

³⁰ I will make fruit grow on the trees and crops grow in the fields so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famines.

³¹ Then you will remember your evil ways and the bad things that you did, and you will hate yourselves for all these wicked and disgusting things.

³² I want you to know that I'm not doing this for your sake, declares the Almighty LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, people of Israel.

³³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the day that I cleanse you from all your wickedness, I will cause your cities to be lived in again, and your ruins will be rebuilt.

³⁴ The wasteland will be plowed. It will no longer remain empty for everyone passing by to see.

³⁵ People will say, "This wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were empty and ruined, but now they are fortified and have people living in them."

³⁶ The surrounding nations that are left will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted crops in the land that was empty. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.'

³⁷ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will also let the people of Israel ask me to make them as numerous as sheep.

³⁸ They will be like the sheep for sacrifices, like the sheep in Jerusalem during the appointed festivals. Their ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

37 ¹ The power of the LORD came over me. The LORD brought me out by his Spirit and put me down in the middle of a valley. The valley was filled with bones.

² He led me all around them. I saw that there were very many bones at the bottom of the valley, and they were very dry.

³ Then he asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Only you know, Almighty LORD."

⁴ Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones. Tell them, 'Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD.

⁵ This is what the Almighty LORD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live.

⁶ I will put ligaments on you, place muscles on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

⁷ So I prophesied as I was commanded. While I was prophesying, suddenly there was a rattling noise, and the bones came together, one bone attaching itself to another.

⁸ As I looked, I saw that ligaments were on them, muscles were on them, and skin covered them. Yet, there was no breath in them.

⁹ Then the LORD said to me, "Prophecy to the breath! Prophecy, son of man. Tell the breath, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: Come from the four winds, Breath, and breathe on these people who were killed so that they will live.'"

¹⁰ So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath entered them. Then they came to life and stood on their feet. There were enough of them to form a very large army.

¹¹ The LORD also said to me, "Son of man, all the people of Israel are like these bones. The people say, 'Our bones are dry, and our hope has vanished. We are completely destroyed.'"

¹² So prophesy. Tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: My people, I will open your graves and take you out of them. I will bring you to Israel.

¹³ Then, my people, you will know that I am the LORD, because I will open your graves and bring you out of your graves.

¹⁴ I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.'"

¹⁵ The LORD spoke his word to me again. He said,

¹⁶ "Son of man, take a stick and write on it: 'For Judah and for the Israelites who are associated with it.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'The stick of Ephraim, for Joseph and for all the people of Israel associated with it.'

¹⁷ Then join both sticks together so that they will be one in your hand. Your people will say to you,

¹⁸ 'Tell us what you mean by this.'

¹⁹ Then say to them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take Joseph's stick, which is in Ephraim's hand, and the tribes of Israel associated with it, and I will put them with Judah's stick. I will make them into one stick. They will be one in my hand.'

²⁰ When you hold the sticks in your hand, let the people see them.

²¹ "Then tell them, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they've gone. I will gather them from everywhere and bring them to their own land.

²² I will form them into one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule all of them. They will no longer be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms.

²³ They will no longer dishonor themselves with their idols, with their detestable things, or with their rebellious acts. I will forgive them for all the times they turned away from me and sinned. I will cleanse them so that they will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴ "My servant David will be their king, and all of them will have one shepherd. They will live by my rules, and they will obey my laws.

²⁵ They will live in the land that I gave my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived. They, their children, and their grandchildren will live in it permanently. My servant David will always be their prince.

²⁶ I will promise them peace. This promise will last forever. I will establish them, make them increase in number, and put my holy place among them permanently.

²⁷ My dwelling place will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

²⁸ Then the nations will know that I, the LORD, have set Israel apart as holy, because my holy place will be among them permanently.'"

38 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, turn to Gog from the land of Magog. He is the chief prince of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him.

³ Tell him, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

⁴ I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws. I will lead you out with all your military forces, with horses and riders. Your soldiers will be fully armed. They will carry large and small shields and be able to use swords.

⁵ Persia, Sudan, and Put will be with you. They, too, will have shields and helmets.

⁶ Gomer will come with all its troops and with the nation of Togarmah from the far north. There will be many armies with you.

⁷ "Be prepared! Be prepared, you and all the soldiers assembled around you. You will be their leader.

⁸ After a long time you will be called to service. In the years to come, you will attack a land that has been rebuilt after a war. Its people have been gathered from many nations and brought to the mountains of Israel, mountains that have been ruined for a long time. These people were brought there from the nations, and all of them live there safely.

⁹ You will attack like a storm and cover the land like a cloud. Your troops and the many armies will be with you.

¹⁰ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time ideas will enter your head, and you will make wicked plans.

¹¹ You will say, "I'll attack a land with unwallled villages. I will attack peaceful people who live safely. All of them live without walls, locks, or gates.

¹² I will come to rob them and loot them. I will use my power against the ruins that people are living in again. I will use it against the people who were gathered from the nations. These people have cattle and property, and they live in the world."

¹³ "Sheba, Dedan, the merchants from Tarshish, and all their villages will ask you, "Did you come to rob these people of their possessions? Did you assemble all these soldiers to carry away large amounts of silver and gold and to take cattle and property?"

¹⁴ "So prophesy, son of man. Tell Gog, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time my people Israel will live safely, and you will know it.

¹⁵ You will come from your place in the far north and many armies will be with you. All of you will ride on horses. You will be a large crowd and a mighty army.

¹⁶ You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the days to come, I will let you attack my land so that nations will know me. I will use you for my holy purpose as they watch.

¹⁷ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You are the one I spoke about long ago through my servants the prophets of Israel. They prophesied in those days that I would bring you to attack them.

¹⁸ On the day that Gog attacks the land of Israel, I will be filled with burning anger, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁹ In my fiery anger I tell you this. On that day there will be a large earthquake in the land of Israel.

²⁰ Fish, birds, wild animals, everything that crawls on the ground, and every person on earth will tremble in my presence. The mountains will be torn down, the cliffs will crumble, and every wall will fall to the ground.

²¹ I will declare war against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Almighty LORD. Each person will use his sword against his relative.

²³ I will show my greatness and my holiness. I will reveal myself to many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

39 ¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Tell it, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

² I will turn you around and lead you. I will bring you from the far north and have you attack the mountains of Israel.

³ Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand and make you drop the arrows in your right hand.

⁴ You will die on the mountains of Israel with your troops and the armies that are with you. I will let you become food for every bird of prey and for every wild animal.

⁵ You will die in the open field because I said so, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁶ I will send fire on Magog and on those who live safely on the coasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷ I will make my holy name known among my people Israel, and I will never let them dishonor my holy name again. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

⁸ "'It's coming! It will happen! declares the Almighty LORD. This is the day I have spoken about.

⁹ Those living in the cities of Israel will go out. They will set fire to weapons and burn them. They will burn small and large shields, bows and arrows, and war clubs and spears. They will burn them for seven years.

¹⁰ They will not need to get wood from the field or cut down trees in the woods. They will make fires with the weapons. They will loot those who looted them, and they will grab things back from those who grabbed their things, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹¹ "When that day comes, I will give Gog a burial place in Israel. It will be in Travelers Valley, east of the Dead Sea. It will block those who travel through the valley. Gog and his whole army will be buried there. So it will be called the valley of Gog's troops.

¹² The people of Israel will be burying them there for seven months to make the land clean.

¹³ All the common people will be burying them. The people of Israel will be honored on the day of my victory, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁴ "People will be chosen to go through the land and make it clean. With the help of others they will bury the dead soldiers that are still on the ground. At the end of seven months they will begin their search.

¹⁵ Whenever they go through the land and see a human bone, they will set up a marker beside it until the grave diggers have buried that bone in the valley of Gog's troops.

¹⁶ (A city named Hamonah will also be there.) In this way they will cleanse the land.'

¹⁸ You can eat the meat of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth. All of them will be killed like rams, lambs, goats, bulls and all the best animals of Bashan.

¹⁹ You can eat the best meat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunk at the sacrifice that I am preparing for you.

²⁰ At my table you will be filled with horses and riders, warriors, and soldiers of every kind, declares the Almighty LORD.'

²¹ "I will show my greatness among the nations. All the nations will see how I will turn my power against them to punish them.

²² From that day on, the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.

²³ Then the nations will know that the people of Israel went into captivity because they did wrong and rebelled against me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies. They were killed in battle.

²⁴ I paid them back for their uncleanness and their sins, and I hid my face from them.

²⁵ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Now I will bring back Jacob's captives and have compassion for the whole nation of Israel. I will stand up for my holy name.

²⁶ When they live safely in a land where no one will frighten them, they will forget their shame and all the unfaithful things they have done against me.

²⁷ I will bring them back from the other nations and gather them from the countries of their enemies. Many nations will see that I am holy.

²⁸ Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God. I sent them into captivity among the nations, and I brought them back again to their land. I left none of them behind.

²⁹ I will no longer hide my face from them, because I will pour out my Spirit on the nation of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD."

40¹ It was the tenth day of the month in the beginning of the twenty–fifth year of our captivity and fourteen years after Jerusalem was captured. At that time the LORD’S power came over me, and he brought me to Jerusalem.

² In visions, God brought me to Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On the south side of the mountain were some buildings that looked like those in a city.

³ He brought me closer. I saw a man who looked like he was covered with bronze. The man was holding a linen tape measure and a measuring stick, and he stood in a gateway.

⁴ He said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and listen with your ears. Pay close attention to everything I’m going to show you. You were brought here to be shown these things. Tell the nation of Israel everything that you see."

⁵ I saw a wall that surrounded the temple. The man had a measuring stick that was $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet long. He measured the wall. It was $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet thick and $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet high.

⁶ Then the man went to the gateway that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the entrance to the gateway. It was $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide.

⁷ There were also guardrooms. Each guardroom was $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide. The space between the guardrooms was 9 feet thick. And the entrance to the gateway by the entrance hall of the temple was $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide.

⁸ He also measured the entrance hall of the gateway.

⁹ It extended 14 feet from the temple. Its recessed walls were $3\frac{1}{2}$ feet thick.

The gateway's entrance hall faced the temple.

¹⁰ Now, there were three guardrooms on each side of the eastern gateway. All three rooms on each side were the same size, and the recessed walls on each side were the same size.

¹¹ Then the man measured the width of the entrance to the gateway. It was $17\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide, and the gateway was 23 feet long.

¹² There was a barrier about 21 inches in front of each guardroom. The guardrooms were $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet square.

¹³ He measured the gateway from the top of one guardroom to the top of the opposite guardroom. It was 44 feet wide from one door to the opposite door.

¹⁴ He also measured the entrance hall. It was 35 feet wide. In front of the entrance hall to the gateway was a courtyard on all sides.

¹⁵ The total length of the gateway from the front of the outer part to the front of the inner part of the entrance hall was 87½ feet.

¹⁶ The guardrooms and recessed walls inside the gateway had small windows all around. The entrance hall also had windows all around on the inside. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls.

¹⁷ Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw rooms there and pavement all around the courtyard. There were 30 rooms along the edge of the pavement.

¹⁸ The pavement in the lower courtyard ran alongside the gateways. It was as wide as it was long.

¹⁹ The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 175 feet from east to north.

²⁰ Then the man measured the length and width of the gateway, leading to the outer courtyard. This was the gateway that faced north.

²¹ Its three guardrooms, its recessed walls, and its entrance hall were the same size as those in the east gateway. The gateway was $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and 44 feet wide.

²² Its windows, recessed walls, and palm tree pictures were the same size as those in the east gateway. Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall.

²³ The inner courtyard had a gateway opposite the north gate just like the east gateway. The man measured the distance from one gate to the other gate. It was 175 feet.

²⁴ Then the man led me to the south side, and I saw a gateway that faced south. He measured its recessed walls and its entrance hall. They were the same size as those of the other gateways.

²⁵ The gateway and its entrance hall had windows on all sides like the windows in the other gateways. It was $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and 44 feet wide.

²⁶ Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, one picture on each side.

²⁷ The inner courtyard had a gateway facing south. The man measured the distance from the gateway on the south side to its opposite gateway. It was 175 feet.

²⁸ Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard through the south gateway. He measured the south gateway. It was the same size as the others.

²⁹ Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall were the same size as the other gateways. The guardrooms and the entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁰ There were entrance halls all around the inner courtyard. They were all 44 feet long and 9 feet wide.

³¹ The entrance halls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to each gateway.

³² Then the man brought me to the east side of the inner courtyard. He measured the gateway. It was the same size as the others.

³³ Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance halls were the same size as those of the other gateways. Its guardrooms and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁴ Its entrance hall faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

³⁵ Then the man brought me to the north gateway. He measured it. It was the same size as the others.

³⁶ Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 87½ feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁷ Its recessed walls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

³⁸ There was a room with a door that opened toward the entrance hall of the gateway. This is the room where the priests washed the animals for the burnt offerings.

³⁹ In the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables on each side of the room. On these tables the animals were slaughtered for burnt offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings.

⁴⁰ On each side of the entrance to the north gateway there were two tables, and on the other side of the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables.

⁴¹ So there were four tables on each side of the gateway, eight tables in all, on which they slaughtered animals.

⁴² There were four tables made of cut stone for burnt offerings. They were 3 feet long, 3 feet wide, and 21 inches high. On these tables the priests laid the utensils that were used to slaughter animals for burnt offerings and sacrifices.

⁴³ Double-pronged hooks, three inches long, were attached to the wall all around the room, and the tables were for the meat of the animals.

⁴⁵ The man said to me, "This room that faces south is for the priests who serve in the temple.

⁴⁶ The room that faces north is for the priests who serve at the altar. These priests are Zadok's descendants. They are the only Levites who are able to come near the LORD and serve him."

⁴⁷ The man measured the courtyard. It was a perfect square—175 feet long and 175 feet wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

⁴⁸ Then the man brought me to the entrance hall of the temple and measured its recessed walls. They were 9 feet on each side. The gateway was 24½ feet wide, and the walls on each side were 5 feet wide.

⁴⁹ The entrance hall was 35 feet long and 21 feet wide. Steps led up to it. Pillars stood by the recessed walls, one on each side of the entrance hall.

41 ¹ Then the man brought me into the holy place in the temple and measured the recessed walls. They were 10½ feet wide on each side.

² The entrance was 17½ feet wide, and on each side of the entrance the walls were 9 feet wide. Then he measured the length of the holy place. It was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.

³ Then the man went inside and measured the passageway. It was 3½ feet thick. The entrance was 10½ feet high and 12 feet wide.

⁴ Then he measured the room at the end of the holy place. It was 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. The man said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵ Next, the man measured the temple wall. It was 10½ feet wide. The width of each side room around the temple was 7 feet.

⁶ The rooms were arranged on three different stories. There were 30 rooms on each story. These rooms had supports all the way around the temple wall, but these supports were not fastened to the temple wall.

⁷ The side rooms grew wider all the way around as they went up, story after story. The surrounding structure went from story to story all around the temple. The structure grew wider as it went higher. A stairway went from the first story through the second story to the third story.

⁸ I also saw a raised base all around the temple. This base was the foundation for the side rooms. It measured the full length of the measuring rod, 10½ feet.

⁹ The outer wall of the side rooms was 9 feet thick. There was an open area between the side rooms connected to the temple

¹⁰ and the priests' rooms. It was 35 feet wide and went all around the temple.

¹¹ The doors in the side rooms were entrances into the open area. There was one door to the north and another to the south. The base of the open area was 9 feet wide all the way around.

¹³ Then the man measured the temple. It was 175 feet long. This included the open area with the building and its walls. All together it was 175 feet long.

¹⁴ The eastern side of the temple, including the open area, was also 175 feet wide.

¹⁵ He also measured the length of the building facing the courtyard on the west side along with its corridors on both sides. It was 175 feet long. The holy place and the most holy place were paneled.

¹⁶ The doorposts, the small windows, and the corridors of all three stories were paneled. The walls, from the floor up to the windows, were paneled.

¹⁷ In the space above the door to the most holy place and on the walls all around it,

¹⁸ there were pictures of angels and palm trees. Palm trees were positioned between each of the angels, and each angel had two faces:

¹⁹ the face of a man, which was turned toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a lion, which was turned toward a palm tree on the other side. These pictures were carved all around the temple.

²⁰ Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the walls from the floor to the space above the door.

²¹ The doorframes in the holy place were square. In front of the most holy place was something similar.

²² There was a wooden altar, 5 feet high and 3½ feet wide. Its corners, its base, and its sides were made of wood. Then the man told me, "This is the table that is in the presence of the LORD."

²³ The holy place and the most holy place had two doors.

²⁴ Each of the doors were double doors that swung open.

²⁵ Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the holy place as on the walls. There was a wooden roof hanging over the outer entrance hall.

²⁶ There were small windows and palm trees on both sides of the entrance hall, on the side rooms of the temple, and on the roofs.

42 ¹ Then the man led me out toward the north to the outer courtyard. He brought me to the side rooms opposite both the open area and the northern building.

² The building that faced north was 175 feet long and 87½ feet wide.

⁴ In front of the side rooms was a walkway, 17½ feet wide and 175 feet long. The doors of these side rooms faced north.

⁵ The side rooms on the third story were narrower than those on the first or second stories of the building because the corridors took space away from them.

⁶ The rooms were in three stories. They didn't have pillars like the pillars in the courtyards. That is why the rooms on the third story were set farther back than those on the first and second stories.

⁷ There was a wall which ran parallel to the side rooms and the outer courtyard. It ran alongside the side rooms for $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet.

⁸ The row of rooms in the outer courtyard was $87\frac{1}{2}$ feet long. The rooms that faced the temple were 175 feet long.

⁹ These lower side rooms had an entrance on the east side. A person was able to enter the outer courtyard through them.

¹⁰ There were side rooms parallel to the wall of the courtyard on the south side. They faced the open area and the building.

¹¹ There was a walkway in front of them like the one that was in front of the side rooms on the north side. These side rooms were as long and as wide as the northern rooms. They had the same exits, dimensions, and doors.

¹² The doors to the south rooms were the same as the doors to the north rooms. There was a doorway at the other end of the walkway that was parallel to the corresponding wall that ran eastward. People entered through that doorway.

¹³ Then the man said to me, "The northern and southern side rooms that face the open area are holy rooms. These rooms are where the priests who come near the LORD eat the holiest offerings. Because these rooms are holy, the priests keep the holiest offerings there: the grain offerings, the offerings for sin, and the guilt offerings.

¹⁴ Once the priests enter the holy place, they must not go out of the holy place into the outer courtyard until they leave behind the clothes that they wore as they served. These clothes are holy. The priests must put on other clothes. Then they can go into the area that is for the people."

¹⁵ When the man had finished measuring the inner part of the temple area, he led me out through the east gate. Then he measured all the way around the outer area.

¹⁶ He measured the east side with a measuring stick. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁷ He measured the north side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁸ He measured the south side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁹ He came around to the west side and measured it. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

²⁰ So he measured all four sides. There was a wall all around it. The wall was 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. It separated what was holy from what was unholy.

43 ¹ Then the man took me to the east gate.

² I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of rushing water, and the earth was shining because of his glory.

³ This vision was like the one I saw when he came to destroy Jerusalem and like the one I saw by the Chebar River. I immediately bowed down.

⁴ The LORD'S glory came into the temple through the east gate.

⁵ The Spirit lifted me and brought me into the inner courtyard. I saw the LORD'S glory fill the temple.

⁶ I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple while the man was standing beside me.

⁷ The voice said to me, "Son of man, this is the place where my throne is and the place where my feet rest. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. Then the people of Israel and their kings will no longer dishonor my holy name by acting like prostitutes, nor will they dishonor it with the dead bodies of their kings.

⁸ They put their doorway by my doorway and their doorposts by my doorposts. Only a wall separated me from them. They dishonored my holy name because of the disgusting things that they have done. So I destroyed them in my anger.

⁹ Now they must stop acting like prostitutes and take the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

¹⁰ "Son of man, describe this temple to the people of Israel. Then they will be ashamed because of their sins. Let them study the plans.

¹¹ Suppose they are ashamed of everything that they have done. Then show them the design of the temple, its arrangements, its exits and entrances—its entire design. Tell them about all its rules and regulations. Then write these things down for them so that they can remember its design and follow all its rules.

¹² "This is a regulation of the temple: The whole area all the way around the top of the mountain is most holy. Yes, this is a regulation of the temple."

¹³ These are the measurements of the altar, using royal measurements. (The royal measuring stick was 21 inches long.) The base of the altar was 21 inches high and 21 inches wide. All around the edge of the altar was a rim measuring 9 inches wide. This was the height of the altar:

¹⁴ From the base on the ground to the lower ledge it was 3½ feet high, and from the lower ledge to the upper ledge it was 7 feet high and 21 inches wide.

¹⁵ The place where the sacrifices were burned was 7 feet high. There were four horns above it.

¹⁶ It was square, 21 feet wide and 21 feet long.

¹⁷ The upper ledge was also square. It was 24½ feet long and 24½ feet wide. It had a rim all the way around that was 10½ inches wide. Its base was 21 inches. The steps to the altar faced east.

¹⁸ Then the man said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the rules for sacrificing burnt offerings and for sprinkling blood on the altar after the altar is built.

¹⁹ Give a young bull to the priests as an offering for sin. These priests are Zadok's descendants, men from the tribe of Levi, who can come near me and serve me.

²¹ Then take a young bull as an offering for sin, and burn it in the place appointed near the temple, outside the holy place.

²² "On the second day bring a male goat that has no defects as an offering for sin. Remove sin from the altar as you did with the young bull.

²³ When you finish removing sin, offer a young bull and a ram that have no defects.

²⁴ Offer them to the LORD. The priests must throw salt on them and offer them as burnt offerings to the LORD.

²⁵ Every day for seven days you must sacrifice a goat, a young bull, and a ram from the flock as an offering for sin. They must be animals that have no defects.

²⁶ For seven days the priests should make peace with the LORD at the altar, purify it, and consecrate it.

²⁷ When those days are over, on the eighth day, the priests must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept them, declares the Almighty LORD."

44 ¹ Then the man took me back to the outer east gate of the holy place, and the gate was shut.

² The LORD said to me, "This gate will stay shut and will not be opened. No one may enter through it because the LORD God of Israel entered through it. It must be kept shut.

³ Only the prince may sit there and eat food in the presence of the LORD. He will enter through the entrance hall of the gateway and leave the same way."

⁴ The man brought me through the north gate in front of the temple. When I looked, I saw the LORD'S glory fill the LORD'S temple. I immediately bowed down.

⁵ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay close attention. Look, and listen to everything I'm going to tell you. Listen to all the rules and regulations for the LORD'S temple. Pay close attention to everyone who enters the temple and leaves from the holy place.

⁶ Tell the rebellious people of Israel, 'This is what the Almighty LORD says: I've had enough of all the disgusting things that you have done, people of Israel.

⁷ You brought godless foreigners into my holy place. You dishonored my temple when you offered fat and blood to me. You rejected my promise so that you could do all your disgusting things.

⁸ You didn't take care of my holy things. You put foreigners in charge of my temple.

⁹ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Any godless foreigner who lives among the Israelites may not enter my holy place.

¹⁰ "Some Levites went far away from me when Israel wandered off to follow their idols. They must be punished for their sins.

¹¹ They could have served in my holy place. They could have guarded the gates of the temple. They could have served in the temple by slaughtering the animals for the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people. They could have stood in front of the people and served them.

¹² But they served the people by standing in front of their idols and by making Israel fall into sin. So I raised my hand and swore that they would be punished for their sins, declares the LORD.

¹³ They must not come near me and serve me as priests. They must not come near any of my holy things or my most holy things. They must suffer disgrace because of the disgusting things that they have done.

¹⁴ I will assign them all of the less important work in the temple.

¹⁵ "But the priests who are Levites and descendants of Zadok took care of my holy place when the Israelites wandered away from me. They may come near me and serve me, and they may stand in my presence. They may bring fat and blood to me, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶ They may enter my holy place, come near my table to serve me, and take care of everything I gave them.

¹⁷ When they enter the gateways to the inner courtyard, they must wear linen clothes. They must have no wool on them while they serve in the gateways to the inner courtyard and in the temple.

¹⁸ They must wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments.

They must not wear anything that makes them sweat.

¹⁹ When they go out among the people in the outer courtyard, they must take off the clothes that they wore as they served. They must leave their clothes in the side rooms of the holy place and put on other clothes so that they do not transfer the holiness from their clothes to the people.

²⁰ "They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long. They must keep the hair on their heads trimmed.

²¹ None of the priests may drink wine when they enter the inner courtyard.

²² They must not marry widows or women who have been divorced. They may marry only virgins from the nation of Israel or widows of priests.

²³ They must teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is unholy. They must show the people how to tell the difference between what is clean and what is unclean.

²⁴ In all disputes the priests must act as judges and make decisions based on my laws. They must obey my rules and my regulations at all my festivals. They must observe holy days to worship me.

²⁵ "A priest must not make himself unclean by going near a dead body. But a priest may become unclean if the dead person is his father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or unmarried sister.

²⁶ After a priest is made clean, he must wait seven days.

²⁷ When he enters the inner courtyard of the holy place to serve in the holy place, he must bring his offering for sin, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁸ "The priests will have no inheritance. I am their inheritance. Don't give them any possessions in Israel. The priests belong to me.

²⁹ They will eat grain offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings. Everything in Israel that is devoted to the LORD will belong to them.

³⁰ The priests should have the best of all the first ripened fruits. The best of every gift from all your contributions must go to the priests. The best of your dough must go to the priests. This will cause a blessing to rest on your home.

³¹ The priests must never eat any bird or animal that has died naturally or was killed by other wild animals.

45 ¹ "Divide the land by drawing lots for the property you will inherit. Set aside an area 43,750 feet long and 35,000 feet wide for the LORD. The entire area will be holy.

² An area of 875 feet square will be for the holy place with an open area 87½ feet wide.

⁴ This holy part of the land will belong to the priests who serve in the holy place, the priests who come near to serve the LORD. They will use this place for their homes, and it will be the location for the holy place.

⁵ An area 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide will belong to the Levites who serve in the temple. It will be given to them so that they have cities to live in.

⁶ "You must designate an area 8,750 feet wide and 43,750 feet long as the city's property. It will be located alongside the holy area. It will belong to all the people of Israel.

⁷ "The prince will have all the land on both sides of the holy area and on both sides of the property belonging to the city. From the western boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the Mediterranean Sea. From the eastern boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the eastern border of the country. His territory will be as large as the territory of one of the tribes.

⁸ This land will belong to the prince in Israel. Then my princes will no longer oppress my people. They will give land to each tribe of the nation of Israel.

¹⁰ You must have honest scales and honest dry and liquid measures.

¹¹ The dry and liquid measures must always be the same: The ephah and the bath should hold the same as one-tenth of a homer. The homer must be the standard measure.

¹² One shekel must weigh 20 gerahs. One mina must weigh 60 shekels.

¹³ "This is the contribution you must give to the LORD: seventeen percent of your wheat and seventeen percent of your barley.

¹⁴ You must give one percent of your olive oil using the standard measure.

¹⁵ You must take one sheep out of every 200 from the well-watered pastures of Israel. You must sacrifice them with grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make peace with the LORD, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶ All the common people must give this contribution to the prince in Israel.

¹⁸ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the first day of the first month, take a young bull that has no defects and remove sin from the holy place.

¹⁹ The priest must take some blood from the offering for sin and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gateways of the inner courtyard.

²⁰ You must do the same on the seventh day of the month for everyone who unintentionally does something wrong and is unaware of it. So you must make peace with the LORD for the temple.

²¹ "On the fourteenth day of the first month, you will celebrate the Passover, a festival lasting seven days when unleavened bread is eaten.

²² At that time the prince must prepare for himself and for all the common people a young bull as an offering for sin.

²³ Every day during the seven days of the festival, he must prepare burnt offerings for the LORD: seven young bulls that have no defects, seven rams that have no defects, and one male goat as an offering for sin.

²⁴ He must also give as a grain offering a half-bushel for each young bull and a half-bushel for each ram. He must also give one gallon of olive oil for every half-bushel of grain.

²⁵ On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at the Festival of Booths, he must do the same as on those seven days. He must prepare the same offerings for sin, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and olive oil.

46 ¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The east gate of the inner courtyard must be closed during the six working days, but it must be opened on the weekly day of worship. It must also be opened on the New Moon Festival.

² The prince must enter from the outside through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must stand by the doorposts of the gateway. Then the priests must prepare the prince's burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He must worship at the entrance of the gateway and then leave. The gate must not be closed until evening.

³ The common people must worship at the door of the gateway in the presence of the LORD on the weekly days of worship and on New Moon Festivals.

⁴ The prince must offer to the LORD six lambs that have no defects and one ram that has no defects as a burnt offering on the day of worship.

⁵ The grain offering that is to be brought with the ram must be a half-bushel, and the grain offering that is to be brought with the lambs must be whatever the prince can bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each half-bushel of grain.

⁶ On the first day of the month, the burnt offering must be one young bull, six lambs, and one ram—all animals that have no defects.

⁷ With each young bull and each ram the offering must include a half-bushel of grain, and with each lamb the offering must be whatever the prince wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be offered with each half-bushel of grain.

⁸ When the prince enters, he must enter through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must enter and leave the same way.

⁹ "The people will enter the LORD'S presence at the time of the appointed festivals. Those entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate. Those entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. They must not leave through the same gate they entered. They must leave through the opposite gate.

¹⁰ The prince must be among them. When they enter, he must enter. When they leave, he must leave.

¹¹ "On festival days and at appointed festivals, a grain offering of a half-bushel must be brought with each young bull, and a half-bushel must be brought with each ram. But with the lambs, the prince may bring whatever he wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each half-bushel of grain.

¹² When the prince prepares a freewill burnt offering, either a burnt offering or a fellowship offering to the LORD, the east gate must be opened for him. He must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings as he does on the day of worship. When he leaves, the gate must be shut after him.

¹³ "Prepare a year-old lamb that has no defects every day as a burnt offering to the LORD. Do this every morning.

¹⁴ Also, prepare a grain offering with it every morning: three-and-a-third quarts of grain and one-and-a-third quarts of olive oil to moisten the flour. It will be a grain offering dedicated to the LORD. These rules are to be followed always.

¹⁵ Prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil every morning as a daily burnt offering.

¹⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Suppose the prince offers one of his sons a gift from his property. The gift will belong to his descendants because it is their inheritance.

¹⁸ The prince must not take any of the people's property. He must not force them to give up their property. He must give his own property as an inheritance to his sons so that none of my people will be separated from their property."

¹⁹ The man brought me through a passage beside the gateway to the side rooms that faced north. These rooms were reserved for the priests. He showed me a place on the west side of the rooms.

²⁰ He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the meat for the guilt offering and the offering for sin. This is the place where they must bake grain offerings so that they don't have to bring the offerings into the outer courtyard. This way they won't transfer holiness to the people."

²¹ Then the man led me to the outer courtyard and took me past the four corners of the courtyard. I saw that in each corner of the courtyard there was a smaller courtyard.

²² The smaller courtyards that were in each of the four corners of the courtyard were 60 feet long and 45 feet wide. All four of the smaller courtyards in the corners of the courtyard were the same size.

²³ Around each of the four courtyards were stone walls, and these walls were equipped with fireplaces.

²⁴ Then the man said to me, "These are the kitchens where the temple servants must boil the people's sacrifices."

47 ¹ Then the man took me back to the door of the temple. I saw water flowing from under the entrance of the temple toward the east. (The temple faced east.) The water was flowing under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

² Then he led me through the north gate and around to the outer east gate. The water was flowing down the south side of the gate.

³ With a measuring line in his hand, the man went eastward. He measured off 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my ankles.

⁴ Then he measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my knees. He measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my waist.

⁵ Then he measured another 1,500 feet. But the water had risen so much that it became a river which I couldn't cross. The river was too deep to cross except by swimming.

⁶ Then he asked me, "Son of man, do you see this?"

⁷ Then the man led me back along the bank of the river. As I went back, I saw many trees on both sides of the river.

⁸ Then the man said to me, "This water flows through the land to the east, down into the Jordan Valley, and into the Dead Sea. When the water flows into the Dead Sea, it will replace the salt water there with fresh water.

⁹ Wherever the river flows, there will be many fish and animals. The river will make the water in the Dead Sea fresh. Wherever the river flows, it will bring life.

¹⁰ From En Gedi to En Eglaim people will be standing on the shore of the sea with their fishing nets spread out. As many kinds of fish will be there as there are in the Mediterranean Sea.

¹¹ But the water in the swamps and marshes won't become fresh. It will remain salty.

¹² All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves won't wither, and they won't fail to produce fruit. Each month they will produce fresh fruit because this water flows from the holy place. The fruit will be good food, and the leaves will be used for healing."

¹³ This is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the borders of the land that is to be divided among the 12 tribes of Israel. Joseph gets two parts.

¹⁴ Divide the land equally. I raised my hand and swore that I would give the land to your ancestors. So this land will be your inheritance.

¹⁵ This is the northern border for the land: On the north side the border will run from the Mediterranean Sea all the way to Hethlon and Hamath Pass. It will run through the city of Zedad and through ¹⁶ Berothah and Sibraim, which are between the borders of Damascus and Hamath. It will run to Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

¹⁷ So the border will run from the Mediterranean Sea to Hazar Enon on the border of Damascus. The border of Hamath will lie to the north. This is the north side.

¹⁸ On the east side the border will run between Hauran and Damascus. The Jordan River will serve as the border between Gilead and the land of Israel. The border will continue from the Dead Sea down to Tamar. This is the east side.

¹⁹ On the south side the border will run from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh along the ravine to the Mediterranean Sea. This is the southern border.

²⁰ On the west side the Mediterranean Sea is the border up to a point opposite Hamath Pass. This is the west side.

²¹ Divide this land among yourselves for each of the tribes of Israel.

²² Divide it by drawing lots. This land will be for you. It will also be for the foreign residents who live among you and have given birth to children while they lived with you. Think of them as Israelites. They will draw lots with you for their inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

²³ Foreign residents will receive their share of the inheritance with the people of the tribe among whom they are living, declares the Almighty LORD.

48 ¹ These are the names of the tribes. Beginning at the northern border, Dan will have one part of the land. It will extend from the road to Hethlon to Hamath Pass and Hazar Enon, on the northern border of Damascus near Hamath, from the eastern border to the western border.

² Asher will have one part of the land and border Dan on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

³ Naphtali will have one part of the land and border Asher on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁴ Manasseh will have one part of the land and border Naphtali on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁵ Ephraim will have one part of the land and border Manasseh on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁶ Reuben will have one part of the land and border Ephraim on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁷ Judah will have one part of the land and border Reuben on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁸ The land that you set aside as a special gift for the LORD will border Judah on the south. It will be 43,750 feet wide, and it will be as long as one of the sections of the tribes. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border, and the holy place will be in the middle of it.

⁹ This special land that you set aside for the LORD will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

¹⁰ This holy area will belong to the priests. On the north side it will be 43,750 feet long. On the west side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the east side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the south side it will be 43,750 feet long. The LORD'S holy place will be in the middle of it.

¹¹ This land that has been set apart will belong to the priests who are descendants of Zadok. They took care of my holy place. They didn't wander away with the Israelites as the Levites did.

¹² So they will have a special portion from the land. It will be the holiest part of land, next to the land belonging to the Levites.

¹³ Alongside the land belonging to the priests will be the land belonging to the Levites. It will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

¹⁴ They must not sell any of it or trade any of it. They must not let others have the best part of the land, because the land is the LORD'S and it is holy.

¹⁵ A strip of land, 8,750 feet wide by 43,750 feet long, will be left for cities, homes, and pastures. The city will be in the middle of it.

¹⁶ These will be the measurements for the city: On the north side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the south side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the east side it will be 7,875 feet wide. And on the west side it will be 7,875 feet wide.

¹⁷ The city's pastureland will be 4,375 feet on the north, 4,375 feet on the south, 4,375 feet on the east, and 4,375 feet on the west.

¹⁸ The rest of the land borders the holy area and runs lengthwise. This land will be 17,500 feet on its east side and 17,500 feet on its west side. It will be used to provide food for the city workers.

¹⁹ City workers from all the tribes in Israel will farm it.

²⁰ The whole area will be 43,750 feet square. You must give this land as a special gift to the LORD along with the city property.

²¹ Whatever is left on the east side and west side of the holy area and the city property will belong to the prince. This land will extend eastward from the holy area to the eastern border, and it will extend westward to the western border. Both of these areas are as long as one of the sections of the tribes. These areas belong to the prince, and the holy area with the holy place of the temple will be between them.

²² So the Levites' property and the city's property will be between the prince's part of the land. What is between Judah's and Benjamin's boundaries will belong to the prince.

²³ This is what the rest of the tribes will receive: Benjamin will have one part of the land. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁴ Simeon will have one part of the land and border Benjamin on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁵ Issachar will have one part of the land and border Simeon on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁶ Zebulun will have one part of the land and border Issachar on the south.

It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁷ Gad will have one part of the land and border Zebulun on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁸ The southern border of Gad will run south from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh, and it will run along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea.

²⁹ This is the land you will divide as your inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their areas, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁰ These will be the exits for the city: The north side will be 7,875 feet long.

³¹ The gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be Reuben Gate, Judah Gate, and Levi Gate.

³² The east side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the east side will be Joseph Gate, Benjamin Gate, and Dan Gate.

³³ The south side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the south side will be Simeon Gate, Issachar Gate, and Zebulun Gate.

³⁴ The west side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the west side will be Gad Gate, Asher Gate, and Naphtali Gate.

³⁵ The city will measure about 31,500 feet all the way around. From then on the city's name will be: The LORD Is There.

Daniel

1 ¹ In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and attacked it.

² The Lord handed King Jehoiakim of Judah and some utensils from God's temple over to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar took the utensils to the temple of his god in Babylonia and put them in the temple treasury.

³ The king told Ashpenaz, the chief-of-staff, to bring some of the Israelites, the royal family, and the nobility.

⁴ They were to be young men who were healthy, good-looking, knowledgeable in all subjects, well-informed, intelligent, and able to serve in the king's palace.

They were to be taught the language and literature of the Babylonians.

⁵ The king arranged for them to get a daily allowance of the king's rich food and wine. They were to be trained for three years. After that, they were to serve the king.

⁶ Among these young men were some Judeans: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

⁷ The chief-of-staff gave them Babylonian names: To Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar. To Hananiah he gave the name Shadrach. To Mishael he gave the name Meshach. And to Azariah he gave the name Abednego.

⁸ Daniel made up his mind not to harm himself by eating the king's rich food and drinking the king's wine. So he asked the chief-of-staff for permission not to harm himself in this way.

⁹ God made the chief-of-staff kind and compassionate toward Daniel.

¹⁰ The chief-of-staff told Daniel, "I'm afraid of my master, the king. The king determined what you should eat and drink. If he sees that you look worse than the other young men your age, he would have my head cut off."

¹¹ The chief-of-staff put a supervisor in charge of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Daniel said to the supervisor, ¹² "Please test us for ten days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

¹³ Then compare us to the young men who are eating the king's rich food. Decide how to treat us on the basis of how we look."

¹⁴ The supervisor listened to them about this matter and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵ After ten days they looked healthier and stronger than the young men who had been eating the king's rich food.

¹⁶ So the supervisor took away the king's rich food and wine and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷ God gave these four men knowledge, wisdom, and the ability to understand all kinds of literature. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

¹⁸ At the end of the three-year training period, the chief-of-staff brought all the young men to Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁹ The king talked to them and found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah among all of them. So these four men served the king.

²⁰ Whenever the king asked them about things that required wisdom and insight, he found that they knew ten times more than all the magicians and psychics in his whole kingdom.

²¹ Daniel served the royal palace until the first year of King Cyrus of Persia.

2 ¹ During the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, he had some dreams. He was troubled, but he stayed asleep.

² The king sent for the magicians, psychics, sorcerers, and astrologers so that they could tell him what he had dreamed. So they came to the king.

³ The king said to them, "I had a dream, and I'm troubled by it. I want to know what the dream was."

⁴ The astrologers spoke to the king in Aramaic, "Your Majesty, may you live forever! Tell us the dream, and we'll interpret it for you."

⁵ The king answered the astrologers, "I meant what I said! If you don't tell me the dream and its meaning, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be turned into piles of rubble.

⁶ But if you tell me the dream and its meaning, I will give you gifts, awards, and high honors. Now tell me the dream and its meaning."

⁷ Once more they said, "Your Majesty, tell us the dream, and we'll tell you its meaning."

⁸ The king replied, "I'm sure you're trying to buy some time because you know that I meant what I said.

⁹ If you don't tell me the dream, you'll all receive the same punishment. You have agreed among yourselves to make up a phony explanation to give me, hoping that things will change. So tell me the dream. Then I'll know that you can explain its meaning to me."

¹⁰ The astrologers answered the king, "No one on earth can tell the king what he asks. No other king, no matter how great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, psychic, or astrologer.

¹¹ What you ask is difficult, Your Majesty. No one can tell what you dreamed except the gods, and they don't live with humans."

¹² This made the king so angry and furious that he gave an order to destroy all the wise advisers in Babylon.

¹³ So a decree was issued that the wise advisers were to be killed, and some men were sent to find Daniel and his friends and kill them.

¹⁴ While Arioch, the captain of the royal guard, was leaving to kill the wise advisers in Babylon, Daniel spoke to him using shrewd judgment.

¹⁵ He asked Arioch, the royal official, "Why is the king's decree so harsh?" So Arioch explained everything to Daniel.

¹⁶ Daniel went and asked the king to give him some time so that he could explain the dream's meaning.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah about this matter.

¹⁸ He told them to ask the God of heaven to be merciful and to explain this secret to them so that they would not be destroyed with the rest of the wise advisers in Babylon.

¹⁹ The secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision during the night. So Daniel praised the God of heaven.

²⁰ He said, "Praise God's name from everlasting to everlasting because he is wise and powerful.

²¹ He changes times and periods of history. He removes kings and establishes them. He gives wisdom to those who are wise and knowledge to those who have insight.

²² He reveals deeply hidden things. He knows what is in the dark, and light lives with him.

²³ God of my ancestors, I thank and praise you. You gave me wisdom and power. You told me the answer to our question. You told us what the king wants to know."

²⁴ Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy Babylon's wise advisers. Daniel told him, "Don't destroy Babylon's wise advisers. Take me to the king, and I'll explain the dream's meaning to him."

²⁵ Arioch immediately took Daniel to the king. He told the king, "I've found one of the captives from Judah who can explain the dream's meaning to you, Your Majesty."

²⁶ The king asked Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar), "Can you tell me the dream I had and its meaning?"

²⁷ Daniel answered the king, "No wise adviser, psychic, magician, or fortuneteller can tell the king this secret.

²⁸ But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets. He will tell King Nebuchadnezzar what is going to happen in the days to come. This is your dream, the vision you had while you were asleep:

²⁹ Your Majesty, while you were lying in bed, thoughts about what would happen in the future came to you. The one who reveals secrets told you what is going to happen.

³⁰ This secret wasn't revealed to me because I'm wiser than anyone else. It was revealed so that you could be told the meaning and so that you would know your innermost thoughts.

³¹ "Your Majesty, you had a vision. You saw a large statue. This statue was very bright. It stood in front of you, and it looked terrifying.

³² The head of this statue was made of fine gold. Its chest and arms were made of silver. Its stomach and hips were made of bronze.

³³ Its legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay.

³⁴ While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by humans. It struck the statue's iron-and-clay feet and smashed them.

³⁵ Then all at once, the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were smashed. They became like husks on a threshing floor in summer. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a large mountain which filled the whole world.

³⁶ This is the dream. Now we'll tell you its meaning.

³⁷ "Your Majesty, you are the greatest king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom. He has given you power, strength, and honor.

³⁸ He has given you control over people, wild animals, and birds, wherever they live. He has made you ruler of them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹ Another kingdom, inferior to yours, will rise to power after you. Then there will be a third kingdom, a kingdom of bronze, that will rule the whole world.

⁴⁰ There will also be a fourth kingdom. It will be as strong as iron. (Iron smashes and shatters everything.) As iron crushes things, this fourth kingdom will smash and crush all the other kingdoms.

⁴¹ You also saw the feet and toes. They were partly potters' clay and partly iron. This means that there will be a divided kingdom which has some of the firmness of iron. As you saw, iron was mixed with clay.

⁴² The toes were partly iron and partly clay. Part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle.

⁴³ As you saw, iron was mixed with clay. So the two parts of the kingdom will mix by intermarrying, but they will not hold together any more than iron can mix with clay.

⁴⁴ "At the time of those kings, the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never be destroyed. No other people will be permitted to rule it. It will smash all the other kingdoms and put an end to them. But it will be established forever.

⁴⁵ This is the stone that you saw cut out from a mountain, but not by humans. It smashed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told you what will happen in the future, Your Majesty. The dream is true, and you can trust that this is its meaning."

⁴⁶ King Nebuchadnezzar immediately bowed down on the ground in front of Daniel. He ordered that gifts and offerings be given to Daniel.

⁴⁷ The king said to Daniel, "Your God is truly the greatest of gods, the Lord over kings. He can reveal secrets because you were able to reveal this secret."

⁴⁹ With the king's permission, Daniel appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to govern the province of Babylon. But Daniel stayed at the king's court.

3 ¹ King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue 90 feet high and 9 feet wide.

He set it up in a recessed area in the wall in the province of Babylon.

² King Nebuchadnezzar sent messengers to assemble the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials to dedicate the statue he had set up.

³ Then the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials assembled to dedicate the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood in front of the statue.

⁴ The herald called out loudly, "People of every province, nation, and language!

⁶ Whoever doesn't bow down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

⁸ After that happened, some astrologers came forward and brought charges against the Jews.

⁹ They addressed King Nebuchadnezzar, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

¹⁰ Your Majesty, you gave an order that everyone who hears the sound of rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments should bow down and worship the gold statue.

¹¹ Your order said that whoever doesn't bow down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace.

¹² There are certain Jews whom you appointed to govern the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men didn't obey your order, Your Majesty. They don't honor your gods or worship the statue that you set up."

¹³ Then, in a fit of rage and anger, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Immediately, they were brought to the king.

¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't honor my gods or worship the gold statue that I set up?

¹⁵ When you hear the sound of the rams' horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and three-stringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments, will you bow down and worship the gold statue I made? If you don't worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. What god can save you from my power then?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered King Nebuchadnezzar, "We don't need to answer your last question.

¹⁷ If our God, whom we honor, can save us from a blazing furnace and from your power, he will, Your Majesty.

¹⁸ But if he doesn't, you should know, Your Majesty, we'll never honor your gods or worship the gold statue that you set up."

¹⁹ Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with anger toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face turned red. He ordered that the furnace should be heated seven times hotter than normal.

²⁰ He told some soldiers from his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego so that they could be thrown into the blazing furnace.

²¹ Then the three men were thrown into the blazing furnace. They were wearing their clothes, hats, and other clothing.

²² The king's order was so urgent and the furnace was so extremely hot that the men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were killed by the flames from the fire.

²³ So these three men—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—fell into the blazing furnace. They were still tied up.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar was startled. He sprang to his feet. He asked his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men into the fire?" "That's true, Your Majesty," they answered.

²⁵ The king replied, "But look, I see four men. They're untied, walking in the middle of the fire, and unharmed. The fourth one looks like a son of the gods."

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the door of the blazing furnace and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—servants of the Most High God—come out here." Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.

²⁷ The king's satraps, governors, mayors, and advisers gathered around the three men. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies. The hair on their heads wasn't singed, their clothes weren't burned, and they didn't smell of smoke.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He sent his angel and saved his servants, who trusted him. They disobeyed the king and risked their lives so that they would not have to honor or worship any god except their own God.

²⁹ So I order that people from every province, nation, or language who say anything slanderous about the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb. Their houses will be turned into piles of rubble. No other god can rescue like this."

³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to higher positions in the province of Babylon.

4 ¹ From King Nebuchadnezzar. To the people of every province, nation, and language in the world. I wish you peace and prosperity.

² I am pleased to write to you about the miraculous signs and amazing things the Most High God did for me.

³ His miraculous signs are impressive. He uses his power to do amazing things. His kingdom is an eternal kingdom. His power lasts from one generation to the next.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living comfortably at home. I was prosperous while living in my palace.

⁵ I had a dream that terrified me. The visions I had while I was asleep frightened me.

⁶ So I ordered all the wise advisers in Babylon to be brought to me to tell me the dream's meaning.

⁷ The magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers came to me. I told them the dream, but they couldn't tell me its meaning.

⁸ Finally, Daniel came to me. (He had been renamed Belteshazzar after my god Bel.) The spirit of the holy gods is in him. I told him the dream:

⁹ "Belteshazzar, head of the magicians, I know the spirit of the holy gods is in you. No secret is too hard for you to uncover. Tell me the meaning of the visions I had in my dream.

¹⁰ These are the visions I had while I was asleep: I was looking, and I saw an oak tree in the middle of the earth. It was very tall.

¹¹ The tree grew, and it became strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

¹² It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals found shade under it. Birds came to live in its branches. It fed every living creature.

¹³ "I was seeing these visions as I was asleep. I saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven.

¹⁴ He shouted loudly, 'Cut down the oak tree! Cut off its branches! Strip off its leaves! Scatter its fruit! Make the animals under it run away, and make the birds fly from its branches.

¹⁵ But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. And let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the animals.

¹⁶ Let its human mind be changed, and give it the mind of an animal. Let it remain like this for seven time periods.

¹⁷ The guardians have announced this decision. The holy ones have announced this so that every living creature will know that the Most High has power over human kingdoms. He gives them to whomever he wishes. He can place the lowest of people in charge of them.'"

¹⁸ I said, "This is the dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning because the wise advisers in my kingdom can't tell it to me. However, you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

¹⁹ Then Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was momentarily stunned. What he was thinking frightened him. I told him, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream and its meaning frighten you." Belteshazzar answered, "Sir, I wish that the dream were about those who hate you and its meaning were about your enemies.

²⁰ You saw an oak tree grow and become strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

²¹ It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals lived under it, and birds made their homes in its branches.

²² You are that tree, Your Majesty. You grew and became strong and mighty until you reached the sky. Your power reaches the most distant part of the world.

²³ You saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven. He said, 'Cut down the oak tree! Destroy it! But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. Let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the wild animals for seven time periods.'

²⁴ "This is the meaning, Your Majesty. The Most High has decided to apply it to you, Your Majesty.

²⁵ You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. The dew from the sky will make you wet. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes.

²⁶ Since I said that the stump and the tree's roots were to be left, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you realize that heaven rules.

²⁷ "That is why, Your Majesty, my best advice is that you stop sinning, and do what is right. Stop committing the same errors, and have pity on the poor. Maybe you can prolong your prosperity."

²⁸ All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

²⁹ Twelve months later, he was walking around the royal palace in Babylon.

³⁰ The king thought, "Look how great Babylon is! I built the royal palace by my own impressive power and for my glorious honor."

³¹ Before the words came out of his mouth, a voice said from heaven, "King Nebuchadnezzar, listen to this: The kingdom has been taken from you.

³² You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes."

³³ Just then the prediction about Nebuchadnezzar came true. He was forced away from people and ate grass like cattle. Dew from the sky made his body wet until his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers and his nails grew as long as birds' claws.

³⁴ At the end of the seven time periods, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my mind came back to me. I thanked the Most High, and I praised and honored the one who lives forever, because his power lasts forever and his kingdom lasts from one generation to the next.

³⁵ Everyone who lives on earth is nothing compared to him. He does whatever he wishes with the army of heaven and with those who live on earth. There is no one who can oppose him or ask him, "What are you doing?"

³⁶ Just then my mind came back to me. My royal honor and glory were also given back to me. My advisers and nobles wanted to meet with me again. I was given back my kingdom and made extraordinarily great.

³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, will praise, honor, and give glory to the King of Heaven. Everything he does is true, his ways are right, and he can humiliate those who act arrogantly.

5 ¹ King Belshazzar threw a large banquet for 1,000 nobles and drank wine with them.

² As they were tasting the wine, Belshazzar ordered that the gold and silver utensils which his grandfather Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem be brought to him.

He wanted to drink from them with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines.

³ So the servants brought the gold utensils that had been taken from God's temple in Jerusalem. The king, his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.

⁴ They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, or stone.

⁵ Suddenly, the fingers of a person's hand appeared and wrote on the plaster wall opposite the lamp stand of the royal palace. The king watched as the hand wrote.

⁶ Then the king turned pale, and his thoughts frightened him. His hip joints became loose, and his knees knocked against each other.

⁷ The king screamed for the psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers to be brought to him. He told these wise advisers of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me its meaning will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on his neck, and become the third-highest ruler in the kingdom."

⁸ All the king's wise advisers came, but they couldn't read the writing or tell the king its meaning.

⁹ King Belshazzar was terrified, and his face turned pale. His nobles didn't know what to do.

¹¹ There's a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your grandfather, he was found to have insight, good judgment, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods.

Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him head of the magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers.

¹² This Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was found to have knowledge, judgment, and an extraordinary spirit. He has the ability to interpret dreams, solve riddles, and untangle problems. Now, call Daniel, and he will tell you what it means."

¹³ So Daniel was taken to the king. The king asked him, "Are you Daniel, one of the captives that my grandfather brought from Judah?"

¹⁴ I've heard that you have the spirit of the gods and that you have insight, good judgment, and extraordinary wisdom.

¹⁵ The wise advisers and the psychics were brought to me to read this writing and tell me its meaning. But they couldn't tell me its meaning.

¹⁶ I have heard that you can interpret such things and untangle problems. If you can read the writing and tell me its meaning, you will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on your neck, and become the third-highest ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Daniel told the king, "Keep your gifts. Give your gifts and awards to someone else. I'll still read the writing for you and tell you its meaning.

¹⁸ "Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a kingdom, might, honor, and glory.

¹⁹ People from every province, nation, and language trembled and were terrified by him, because God gave him power. Nebuchadnezzar killed whomever he wanted to kill, and he kept alive whomever he wanted to keep alive. He promoted whomever he wanted to promote, and he demoted whomever he wanted to demote.

²⁰ But when he became so arrogant and conceited that he became overconfident, he was removed from the royal throne. His honor was taken away from him.

²¹ He was chased away from people, and his mind was changed into an animal's mind. He lived with wild donkeys, ate grass like cattle, and his body became wet with dew from the sky. This happened until he realized that the Most High God has power over human kingdoms. God puts whomever he wishes in charge of them.

²² "Belshazzar, you are one of Nebuchadnezzar's successors. You didn't remain humble, even though you knew all this.

²³ But you made yourself greater than the Lord of heaven. You had the utensils from his temple brought to you. You, your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them. You praised your gods made of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, or stone. These gods can't see, hear, or know anything. You didn't honor God, who has power over your life and everything you do.

²⁴ So he sent the hand to write this inscription.

²⁵ This is what has been written:
Numbered, Numbered, Weighed, and Divided.

²⁶ This is its meaning: Numbered—God has numbered the days of your kingdom and will bring it to an end.

²⁷ Weighed—you have been weighed on a scale and found to be too light.

²⁸ Divided—your kingdom will be divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹ Then Belshazzar ordered that Daniel be dressed in purple and wear a gold chain on his neck. He made Daniel the third–highest ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ That night King Belshazzar of Babylon was killed.

³¹ Darius the Mede took over the kingdom. He was 62 years old.

6 ¹ Darius decided it would be good to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom.

² Over these satraps were three officials. Daniel was one of these officials. The satraps were to report to these three officials so that the king wouldn't be cheated.

³ This man, Daniel, distinguished himself among the other officials and satraps because there was an extraordinary spirit in him. The king thought about putting him in charge of the whole kingdom.

⁴ So the other officials and satraps tried to find something to accuse Daniel of in his duties for the kingdom. But they couldn't find anything wrong because he was trustworthy. No error or fault could be found.

⁵ These men said, "We won't find anything to accuse this man, Daniel, unless we find it in his religious practices."

⁶ So these officials and satraps went to the king as a group. They said to him, "May King Darius live forever!

⁷ All the officials, governors, satraps, advisers, and mayors agree that the king should make a statute and enforce a decree. The decree should state that for the next 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions' den.

⁸ Your Majesty, issue this decree, and sign it. According to the law of the Medes and Persians no one could change it or repeal it."

⁹ So Darius signed the written decree.

¹⁰ When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house. An upper room in his house had windows that opened in the direction of Jerusalem. Three times each day he got down on his knees and prayed to his God. He had always praised God this way.

¹¹ One of those times the men came in as a group and found Daniel praying and pleading to his God.

¹² Then they went and spoke to the king about his decree. They asked, "Didn't you sign a decree which stated that for 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions' den?" The king answered, "That's true.

According to the law of the Medes and Persians the decree can't be repealed."

¹³ They replied, "Your Majesty, Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, refuses to obey your order or the decree that you signed. He prays three times each day."

¹⁴ The king was very displeased when he heard this. He tried every way he could think of to save Daniel. Until sundown he did everything he could to rescue him.

¹⁵ Then Daniel's accusers gathered in front of the king. They said to him, "Remember, Your Majesty, the Medes and Persians have a law that no decree or statute the king makes can be changed."

¹⁶ So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought to him and thrown into the lions' den. The king told Daniel, "May your God, whom you always worship, save you!"

¹⁸ Then the king went to his palace and spent the night without food or company. He couldn't get to sleep.

¹⁹ At dawn, as soon as it was light, the king got up and quickly went to the lions' den.

²⁰ As he came near the den where Daniel was, the king called to Daniel with anguish in his voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was God, whom you always worship, able to save you from the lions?"

²¹ Daniel said to the king, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

²² My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths so that they couldn't hurt me. He did this because he considered me innocent. Your Majesty, I haven't committed any crime."

²³ The king was overjoyed and had Daniel taken out of the den. When Daniel was taken out of the den, people saw that he was completely unharmed because he trusted his God.

²⁴ The king ordered those men who had brought charges against Daniel to be brought to him. They, their wives, and their children were thrown into the lions' den. Before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions attacked them and crushed all their bones.

²⁵ Then King Darius wrote to the people of every province, nation, and language all over the world: I wish you peace and prosperity.

²⁶ I decree that in every part of my kingdom people should tremble with terror in front of Daniel's God, the living God who continues forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed. His power lasts to the end of time.

²⁷ He saves, rescues, and does miraculous signs and amazing things in heaven and on earth. He saved Daniel from the lions.

²⁸ This man, Daniel, prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 ¹ In Belshazzar's first year as king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. He saw a vision while he was asleep. He wrote down the main parts of the dream.

² In my visions at night I, Daniel, saw the four winds of heaven stirring up the Mediterranean Sea.

³ Four large animals, each one different from the others, came out of the sea.

⁴ The first animal was like a lion, but it had wings like an eagle. I watched until its wings were plucked off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human and was given a human mind.

⁵ I saw a second animal. It looked like a bear. It was raised on one side and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, "Get up, and eat as much meat as you want."

⁶ After this, I saw another animal. It looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings, like the wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads. It was given power to rule.

⁷ After this, I saw a fourth animal in my vision during the night. It was terrifying, dreadful, extraordinarily strong, and had large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed its victims and trampled whatever was left. It acted differently from all the other animals that I had seen before. It had ten horns.

⁸ While I was thinking about the horns, another horn, a little horn, came up among them. It uprooted three of the other horns. This horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things.

⁹ I watched until thrones were set up and the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, sat down. His clothes were as white as snow and the hair on his head was like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

¹⁰ A river of fire flowed. It came from him. Thousands and thousands served him. Ten thousand times ten thousand were stationed in front of him. The court convened, and the books were opened.

¹¹ I continued to watch because of the impressive words that the horn was speaking. I watched until the animal was killed. Its body was destroyed and put into a raging fire.

¹² The power of the rest of the animals was taken away, but they were allowed to live for a period of time.

¹³ In my visions during the night, I saw among the clouds in heaven someone like the Son of Man. He came to the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, and was presented to him.

¹⁴ He was given power, honor, and a kingdom. People from every province, nation, and language were to serve him. His power is an eternal power that will not be taken away. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

¹⁵ I, Daniel, was deeply troubled, and my visions frightened me.

¹⁶ I went to someone who was standing there and asked him to tell me the truth about all this. So he told me what all this meant.

¹⁷ He said, "These four large animals are four kingdoms that will rise to power on the earth.

¹⁸ But the holy people of the Most High will take possession of the kingdom and keep it forever and ever."

¹⁹ Then I wanted to know the truth about the fourth animal, which was so different from all the others. It was very terrifying and had iron teeth and bronze claws. It devoured and crushed its victims, and trampled whatever was left.

²⁰ I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that had come up and made three of the horns fall out. That horn had eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things. It appeared to be bigger than the others.

²¹ I saw that horn making war against the holy people and defeating them.

²² It did this until the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, came and judged in favor of the holy people of the Most High. The time came when the holy people took possession of the kingdom.

²³ He said, "The fourth animal will be the fourth of these kingdoms on earth. It will be different from all other kingdoms. It will devour, trample, and crush the whole world.

²⁴ The ten horns are ten kings that will rise to power from that kingdom. Another king will rise to power after them. He will be different from the kings who came before him, and he will humble three kings.

²⁵ He will speak against the Most High God, oppress the holy people of the Most High, and plan to change the appointed times and laws. The holy people will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half of a time.

²⁶ But judgment will be handed down, his power will be taken away, and he will be completely and permanently destroyed.

²⁷ The kingdom, along with the power and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven, will be given to the holy people of the Most High. Their kingdom is eternal. All other powers will serve and obey them."

²⁸ Here is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was terrified by my thoughts, and I turned pale. I kept this to myself.

8 ¹ In Belshazzar's third year as king, I, Daniel, saw a vision. This vision came after the one I saw earlier.

² In my vision I saw myself in the fortress of Susa in the province of Elam. In my vision I saw myself at Ulai Gate.

³ I looked up and saw a single ram standing beside the gate. The ram had two long horns, one longer than the other, though the longer one had grown up later.

⁴ I saw the ram charging west, north, and south. No other animal could stand in front of it, and no one could escape from its power. It did anything it pleased and continued to grow.

⁵ As I was watching closely, I saw a male goat coming from the west. It crossed the whole earth without touching it. This goat had a prominent horn between its eyes.

⁶ The goat was coming toward the two-horned ram that I had seen standing beside the gate. It furiously ran at the ram.

⁷ I saw it come closer to the ram. The goat was extremely angry with the ram, so it attacked the ram. It broke both of the ram's horns. The ram didn't have the strength to stand up against the goat. So the ram was thrown down on the ground and trampled. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

⁸ The male goat became very important. But when the goat became powerful, his large horn broke off. In its place grew four horns. They corresponded to the four winds of heaven.

⁹ Out of one of the horns came a small horn. It gained power over the south, the east, and the beautiful land.

¹⁰ It continued to gain power until it reached the army of heaven. It threw some of the army of heaven, the stars, down on the ground and trampled them.

¹¹ Then it attacked the commander of the army so that it took the daily burnt offering from him and wrecked his holy place.

¹² In its rebelliousness it was given an army to put a stop to the daily burnt offering. It threw truth on the ground.

The horn was successful in everything it did.

¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking. Another holy one said to the one who was speaking, "How long will the things in this vision—the daily burnt offering, the destructive rebellion, the surrender of the holy place, and the trampling of the army—take place?"

¹⁴ He told me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings. Then the holy place will be made acceptable to God."

¹⁵ Now as I, Daniel, watched the vision and tried to understand it, I saw someone who looked like a man standing in front of me.

¹⁶ I heard a man in Ulai Gate call loudly, "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

¹⁷ Gabriel came up beside me, and when he came, I was terrified and immediately knelt down. He said to me,

"Son of man, understand that the vision is about the end times."

¹⁸ As he spoke to me, I fainted facedown on the ground, but he touched me and made me stand up.

¹⁹ He said, "I will tell you what will happen in the last days, the time of God's anger, because the end time has been determined.

²⁰ "The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kingdoms of Media and Persia.

²¹ The hairy male goat is the kingdom of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is its first king.

²² The horn broke off, and four horns replaced it. Four kingdoms will come out of that nation, but they won't be as strong as the first king was.

²³ "In the last days of those kingdoms, when rebellions are finished, a stern-looking king who understands mysterious things will rise to power.

²⁴ He will become very strong, but not by his own strength. He will cause astounding destruction and will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy those who are powerful along with some holy people.

²⁵ He will cleverly use his power to deceive others successfully. He will consider himself to be great and destroy many people when they don't expect it. He will oppose the Commander of Commanders, but he will be defeated, though not by any human power.

²⁶ The vision about the 2,300 evenings and mornings that was explained to you is true. Seal the vision, because it is about things that will happen in the distant future."

²⁷ I, Daniel, was exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up and worked for the king. The vision horrified me because I couldn't understand it.

9¹ Xerxes' son Darius, who was a Mede by birth, was made ruler of the kingdom of Babylon.

² In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, learned from the Scriptures the number of years that Jerusalem would remain in ruins. The LORD had told the prophet Jeremiah that Jerusalem would remain in ruins for 70 years.

³ So I turned to the Lord God and looked to him for help. I prayed, pleaded, and fasted in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ I prayed to the LORD my God. I confessed and said, "Lord, you are great and deserve respect as the only God. You keep your promise and show mercy to those who love you and obey your commandments.

⁵ We have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from your commandments and laws.

⁶ We haven't listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, leaders, ancestors, and all the common people.

⁷ You, Lord, are righteous. But we—the men of Judah, the citizens of Jerusalem, and all the Israelites whom you scattered in countries near and far—are still ashamed because we have been unfaithful to you.

⁸ We, our kings, leaders, and ancestors are ashamed because we have sinned against you, LORD.

⁹ "But you, Lord our God, are compassionate and forgiving, although we have rebelled against you.

¹⁰ We never listened to you or lived by the teachings you gave us through your servants the prophets.

¹¹ All Israel has ignored your teachings and refused to listen to you. So you brought on us the curses you swore in an oath, the curses written in the Teachings of your servant Moses. We sinned against you.

¹² So you did what you said you would do to us and our rulers by bringing a great disaster on us. Nowhere in the world has anything ever happened like what has happened to Jerusalem.

¹³ This entire disaster happened to us, exactly as it was written in Moses' Teachings. LORD our God, we never tried to gain your favor by turning from our wrongs and dedicating ourselves to your truth.

¹⁴ So you were prepared to bring this disaster on us. LORD our God, you are righteous in everything you do. But we never listened to you.

¹⁵ "Lord our God, you brought your people out of Egypt with your strong hand and made yourself famous even today. We have sinned and done evil things.

¹⁶ Lord, since you are very righteous, turn your anger and fury away from your city, Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Jerusalem and your people are insulted by everyone around us because of our sins and the wicked things our ancestors did.

¹⁷ "Our God, listen to my prayer and request. For your own sake, Lord, look favorably on your holy place, which is lying in ruins.

¹⁸ Open your ears and listen, my God. Open your eyes and look at our ruins and at the city called by your name. We are not requesting this from you because we are righteous, but because you are very compassionate.

¹⁹ Listen to us, Lord. Forgive us, Lord. Pay attention, and act. Don't delay! Do this for your sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

²⁰ I continued to pray, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel. I humbly placed my request about my God's holy mountain in front of the LORD my God.

²¹ While I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the first vision, came to me about the time of the evening sacrifice. He was exhausted.

²² He informed me, "Daniel, this time I have come to give you insight.

²³ As soon as you began to make your request, a reply was sent. I have come to give you the reply because you are highly respected. So study the message, and understand the vision.

²⁴ "Seventy sets of seven time periods have been assigned for your people and your holy city. These time periods will serve to bring an end to rebellion, to stop sin, to forgive wrongs, to usher in everlasting righteousness, to put a seal on a prophet's vision, and to anoint the Most Holy One.

²⁵ Learn, then, and understand that from the time the command is given to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the anointed prince comes, seven sets of seven time periods and sixty-two sets of seven time periods will pass. Jerusalem will be restored and rebuilt with a city square and a moat during the troubles of those times.

²⁶ But after the sixty-two sets of seven time periods, the Anointed One will be cut off and have nothing. The city and the holy place will be destroyed with the prince who is to come. His end will come with a flood until the end of the destructive war that has been determined.

²⁷ He will confirm his promise with many for one set of seven time periods. In the middle of the seven time periods, he will stop the sacrifices and food offerings. This will happen along with disgusting things that cause destruction until those time periods come to an end. It has been determined that this will happen to those who destroy the city."

10 ¹ In Cyrus' third year as king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar). The message was true. It was about a great war. Daniel understood the message because he was given insight during the vision.

² During those days I, Daniel, mourned for three whole weeks.

³ I didn't eat any good-tasting food. No meat or wine entered my mouth. I didn't wash myself until the entire three weeks were over.

⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was by the great Tigris River.

⁵ When I looked up, I saw a man dressed in linen, and he had a belt made of gold from Uphaz around his waist.

⁶ His body was like beryl. His face looked like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches. His arms and legs looked like polished bronze. When he spoke, his voice sounded like the roar of a crowd.

⁷ I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me didn't see the vision. Yet, they started to tremble violently, and they quickly hid themselves.

⁸ So I was left alone to see this grand vision. I had no strength left in me. My face turned deathly pale, and I was helpless.

⁹ I heard the man speak, and as I listened to his words, I fainted facedown on the ground.

¹⁰ Then a hand touched me and made my hands and knees shake.

¹¹ The man said to me, "Daniel, you are highly respected. Pay attention to my words. Stand up, because I've been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up, trembling.

¹² He told me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel. God has heard everything that you said ever since the first day you decided to humble yourself in front of your God so that you could learn to understand things. I have come in response to your prayer.

¹³ The commander of the Persian kingdom opposed me for 21 days. But then Michael, one of the chief commanders, came to help me because I was left alone with the kings of Persia.

¹⁴ I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the last days, because the vision is about times still to come."

¹⁵ When he said this to me, I bowed down with my face touching the ground and was silent.

¹⁶ Then someone who looked like a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and began to talk. I said to the person standing in front of me, "Sir, because of this vision, pain has overwhelmed me, and I'm helpless.

¹⁷ How can I talk to you, sir? I have no strength left, and the wind has been knocked out of me."

¹⁸ Again, the person who looked like a human touched me, and I became stronger.

¹⁹ He said, "Don't be afraid. You are highly respected. Everything is alright! Be strong! Be strong!" As he talked to me, I became stronger. I said, "Sir, tell me what you came to say. You have strengthened me."

²⁰ He asked, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight the commander of Persia. When I go, the commander of Greece will come.

²¹ However, I will tell you what is inscribed in the true writings. No one will support me when I fight these commanders except your commander, Michael.

11 ¹ During Darius the Mede's first year as king, I strengthened and defended Michael."

² The person who looked like a human continued, "What I am about to tell you is the truth. Three more kings will rule Persia. Then there will be a fourth, who will become much richer than all the others. As he becomes strong through his wealth, he will turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

³ "Then a warrior-king will come. He will rule a vast empire and do as he pleases.

⁴ But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken into pieces and divided in the directions of the four winds of heaven. The empire will not be given to his descendants. It will no longer be like his empire, since it will be uprooted and given to others.

⁵ "The southern king will be strong, but one of his officers will become stronger than he is and rule a vast empire.

⁶ After a few years the southern and northern kings will make an alliance. The southern king's daughter will go to the northern king to make peace. She won't hold on to her power, and the alliance won't last. She, those who came with her, and the one who fathered and protected her will be given away.

⁷ "At that time a shoot will grow from her roots to replace her father. He will attack the northern army, enter the stronghold of the northern king, fight against them, and be victorious.

⁸ He will take the metal statues of their gods and their precious utensils of silver and gold back to Egypt. He will rule for more years than the northern king.

⁹ He will invade the southern kingdom and return to his own country.

¹⁰ "Then his sons will prepare for war. They will assemble a large number of forces so that they can overwhelm the enemy and pass through its land. They will return and wage war all the way to the stronghold.

¹¹ The southern king will be outraged. He will go to fight the northern king, who will raise a large army that will fall into the southern king's hands.

¹² When that army is captured, the southern king will become conceited. Although he will dominate tens of thousands of people, he will not always be strong.

¹³ "The northern king will return and raise an army larger than the first one. After a few years he will invade with a large army and a lot of equipment.

¹⁴ In those times many people will rebel against the southern king, and violent men from your own people will rebel in keeping with this vision, but they will be defeated.

¹⁵ Then the northern king will come, build dirt attack ramps, and capture a fortified city. The southern forces will not be able to withstand him. Even their best troops will not be strong enough.

¹⁶ The invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand his attack. He will rise to power in the beautiful land and it will be completely under his control.

¹⁷ "Then the northern king will decide to invade with the power of his entire kingdom, and some decent men will invade with him. He will give the southern king his daughter as a wife in order to destroy the southern kingdom. But this will not succeed or help him.

¹⁸ Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many of them. But a commander will silence the insults that the northern king makes and even insult him.

¹⁹ He will turn back toward the fortresses in his own country, but he will stumble, fall, and disappear.

²⁰ "Another king will take his place. He will have a cruel official go out in royal splendor. But in a few days the king will be destroyed, although not in anger or war.

²¹ "A contemptible person will take his place. He will not be given royal splendor. He will invade when people are feeling secure, and he will seize the kingdom using false promises.

²² He will overwhelm large forces and defeat them, including the prince of the promise.

²³ After an alliance has been made with him, he will act deceitfully and rise to power with only a few people.

²⁴ When people feel secure, he will invade the richest parts of the provinces and do something that none of his predecessors ever did. He will distribute loot and wealth to his followers. He will invent new ways of attacking fortifications. But this will last only for a little while.

²⁶ People who eat the king's rich food will ruin him. His army will be overwhelmed, and many will die in battle.

²⁷ The two kings will both plan to do evil. They will sit at the same table and tell lies. But they will not succeed, because the end must wait until the appointed time.

²⁸ The northern king will return to his country with a lot of wealth. He will be determined to fight against the holy promise. He will take action and return to his own country.

²⁹ "At the appointed time he will again invade the south, but this time will be different from the first.

³⁰ Ships will come from the west to attack him, and he will be discouraged and turn back. Angry at the holy promise, he will return, take action, and favor those who abandon the holy promise.

³¹ His forces will dishonor the holy place (the fortress), take away the daily burnt offering, and set up the disgusting thing that causes destruction.

³² With flattery he will corrupt those who abandon the promise. But the people who know their God will be strong and take action.

³³ "People who are wise will help many to understand. But for some time they will be defeated by swords and flames. They will be captured and looted.

³⁴ As they are being defeated, they will get a little help, but many who are not sincere will join them.

³⁵ Some of the wise people will be defeated in order to refine, purify, and make them white until the end times. But the appointed time is still to come.

³⁶ "The king will do as he pleases. He will highly honor himself above every god. He will say amazing things against the God of gods. He will succeed until God's anger is over, because what has been decided must be done.

³⁷ He will have no interest in the gods of his ancestors or desire for women. He will have no interest in any god, because he will make himself greater than anyone else.

³⁸ Instead, he will honor the god of fortresses. With gold, silver, precious stones, and other expensive things he will honor a god his ancestors never heard of.

³⁹ With the help of a foreign god, he will deal with strong fortresses. He will give high honors to those who acknowledge him, make them rulers over many people, and distribute land for a price.

⁴⁰ "In the end times the southern king will attack him. The northern king will rush at him like a storm with chariots, horses, and many ships. He will invade countries, overwhelm them, and pass through their land.

⁴¹ He will invade the beautiful land, and tens of thousands will be defeated. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of the Ammonites will escape from his power.

⁴² He will use his power against many countries. Even Egypt will not escape.

⁴³ He will control gold and silver treasures and all Egypt's treasuries. Libya and Sudan will surrender to him.

⁴⁴ But news from the east and the north will frighten him. He will leave very angry to destroy and exterminate many.

⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at a beautiful holy mountain. When he comes to his end, there will be no one to help him."

12 ¹ The person who looked like a human continued, "At that time Michael, the great commander, will stand up on behalf of the descendants of your people. It will be a time of trouble unlike any that has existed from the time there have been nations until that time. But at that time your people, everyone written in the book, will be rescued.

² Many sleeping in the ground will wake up. Some will wake up to live forever, but others will wake up to be ashamed and disgraced forever.

³ Those who are wise will shine like the brightness on the horizon. Those who lead many people to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

⁴ "But you, Daniel, keep these words secret, and seal the book until the end times. Many will travel everywhere, and knowledge will grow."

⁵ When I, Daniel, looked up, I saw two men standing there. One man stood on one side of the river, and the other one stood on the other side.

⁶ One of them asked the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river, "How long will it be until these miracles are over?"

⁷ I heard the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river. He raised his right hand and left hand to heaven and swore an oath by the one who lives forever. He said, "It will be for a time, times, and half of a time. When the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, then all these things will be finished."

⁸ I heard him, but I did not understand. So I asked him, "Sir, how will these things end?"

⁹ He replied, "Go, Daniel. These words are to be kept secret and sealed until the end times.

¹⁰ Many will be purified, made white, and refined. But wicked people will do wicked things, and none of them will understand. Only wise people will understand.

¹¹ From the time the daily burnt offering is taken away and the disgusting thing that causes destruction is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

¹² Blessed are those who wait until they reach 1,335 days.

¹³ But go on until the end. You will rest, and you will rise for your inheritance at the end of time."

Hosea

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Hosea, son of Beerī, when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah and when Jeroboam, son of Joash, was king of Israel.

² When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, the LORD told him, "Marry a prostitute, and have children with that prostitute. The people in this land have acted like prostitutes and abandoned the LORD."

³ So Hosea married Gomer, daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and had a son.

⁴ The LORD told Hosea, "Name him Jezreel. In a little while I will punish Jehu's family for the people they slaughtered at Jezreel. Then I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel."

⁵ On that day I will break Israel's bows and arrows in the valley of Jezreel."

⁶ Gomer became pregnant again and had a daughter. The LORD told Hosea, "Name her Lo Ruhamah [Unloved]. I will no longer love the nation of Israel. I will no longer forgive them.

⁷ Yet, I will love the descendants of Judah. I will rescue them because I am the LORD their God. I won't use bows, swords, wars, horses, or horsemen to rescue them."

⁸ After Gomer had weaned Lo Ruhamah, she became pregnant again and had a son.

⁹ The LORD said, "Name him Lo Ammi [Not My People]. You are no longer my people, and I am no longer your God.,

¹⁰ "Yet, the Israelites will become as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore. No one will be able to measure them or count them. Wherever they were told, 'You are not my people,' they will be told, 'You are the children of the living God.'

¹¹ The people of Judah and Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint one leader for themselves, and they will grow in the land. The day of Jezreel will be a great day.

2 ¹ "So call your brothers Ammi [My People], and call your sisters Ruhamah [Loved].

² "Plead with your mother; plead with her. She no longer acts like my wife. She no longer treats me like her husband. Tell her to stop acting like a prostitute. Tell her to remove the lovers from between her breasts.

³ If she refuses, I will strip her. I will leave her as naked as the day she was born. I will turn her into a dry and barren land, and she will die of thirst.

⁴ I won't love her children, because they are children of a prostitute.

⁵ Their mother acted like a prostitute. The woman who became pregnant with them did shameful things. She said, 'I'll chase after my lovers. They will give me food and water, wool and linen, olive oil and wine.'

⁶ "That is why I will block her way with thornbushes and build a wall so that she can't get through.

⁷ She will run after her lovers, but she won't catch them. She will search for them, but she won't find them. Then she will say, 'I'll go back to my first husband. Things were better for me than they are now.'

⁸ "She doesn't believe that I gave her grain, new wine, and olive oil. I gave her plenty of silver and gold, but she used it to make statues of Baal.

⁹ That is why I will take back my grain when it has ripened and my new wine when it's in season. I will take away the wool and the linen that I gave her to cover her naked body.

¹⁰ I will show her naked body to her lovers, and no one will rescue her from my power.

¹¹ I will put an end to all her celebrations: her annual festivals, her New Moon Festivals, her weekly worship days—all her appointed festivals.

¹² I will destroy her grapevines and fig trees. She said that they were gifts from her lovers. I will turn her vineyards into a forest, and wild animals will devour them.

¹³ I will punish her for all the times she burned incense as an offering to other gods—the Baals. She put on her rings and jewelry, and she chased after her lovers. She forgot me," declares the LORD.

¹⁴ "That is why I'm going to win her back. I will lead her into the desert. I will speak tenderly to her.

¹⁵ I will give her vineyards there. I will make the valley of Achor [Disaster] a door of hope. Then she will respond as she did when she was young, as she did when she came out of Egypt.

¹⁶ "On that day she will call me her husband," declares the LORD. "She will no longer call me her master.

¹⁷ I won't allow her to say the names of other gods called Baal. She will never again call out their names.

¹⁸ "On that day I will make an arrangement with the wild animals, the birds, and the animals that crawl on the ground. I will destroy all the bows, swords, and weapons of war, so people can live safely.

¹⁹ "Israel, I will make you my wife forever. I will be honest and faithful to you. I will show you my love and compassion.

²⁰ I will be true to you, my wife. Then you will know the LORD.

²¹ "On that day I will answer your prayers," declares the LORD. "I will speak to the sky, it will speak to the earth, ²² and the earth will produce grain, new wine, and olive oil. You will produce many crops, Jezreel.

²³ I will plant my people in the land. Those who are not loved I will call my loved ones. Those who are not my people I will call my people. Then they will say, 'You are our God!'"

3 ¹ Then the LORD told me, "Love your wife again, even though she is loved by others and has committed adultery. Love her as I, the LORD, love the Israelites, even though they have turned to other gods and love to eat raisin cakes."

² So I bought her for 23 ounces of silver and 10 bushels of barley.

³ Then I told her, "You must wait for me a long time. Don't be a prostitute or offer yourself to any man. I will wait for you."

⁴ In the same way, the Israelites will wait a long time without kings or officials, without sacrifices or sacred stones, and without ephods or family idols.

⁵ After that, the Israelites will turn and look to the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD for his blessings in the last days.

4¹ Listen to the word of the LORD, you Israelites. The LORD has brought these charges against those who live in the land: "There is no faith, no love, and no knowledge of God in the land.

² There is cursing, lying, murdering, stealing, and adultery. People break my laws, and there is one murder after another.

³ That is why the land is drying up, and everyone who lives in it is passing away. Wild animals, birds, and fish are dying.

⁴ "No one should accuse other people or bring charges against them. My case is against you priests.

⁵ During the day you stumble, and during the night the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother, the nation of Israel.

⁶ I will destroy my people because they are ignorant. You have refused to learn, so I will refuse to let you be my priests. You have forgotten the teachings of your God, so I will forget your children.

⁷ The more priests there are, the more they sin against me. So I will turn their glory into shame.

⁸ They feed on the sins of my people, and they want them to do wicked things.

⁹ So the priests will be punished like the people. I will punish them for their wicked ways and pay them back for what they have done.

¹⁰ "They will eat, but they'll never be full. They will have sex with prostitutes, but they'll never have children. They have abandoned the LORD.

¹¹ Prostitutes, old wine, and new wine have robbed them of their senses.

¹² My people ask their wooden idols for help. A piece of wood tells them what to do. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray. They commit adultery by giving themselves to other gods.

¹³ They offer sacrifices on mountaintops, and they burn incense on the hills under oaks, poplars, and other trees. They think that these trees provide good shade. "That is why your daughters become prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

¹⁴ Yet, I will not punish your daughters when they become prostitutes or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery. The men go to prostitutes and offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes. These foolish people will be trampled.

¹⁵ "Israel, you act like a prostitute. Don't let Judah become guilty too. Don't go to Gilgal. Don't go to Beth Aven. Don't take the oath, 'As the LORD lives....'

¹⁶ "The people of Israel are as stubborn as a bull. How can the LORD feed them like lambs in an open pasture?

¹⁷ The people of Ephraim have chosen to worship idols. Leave them alone!

¹⁸ When they're done drinking their wine, they continue to have sex with the prostitutes. Their rulers dearly love to act shamefully.

¹⁹ The wind will carry them away in its wings, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

5 ¹ "Listen to this, you priests! Pay attention, nation of Israel! Open your ears, royal family! This is my decision about you. You set traps at Mizpah and spread out nets on Mount Tabor.

² You are deeply involved in sin. So I will punish all of you.

³ I know Ephraim, and Israel isn't a stranger to me. Now, Ephraim, you are acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

⁵ The people of Israel's arrogance testifies against them. Israel and Ephraim stumble because of their sins, and Judah stumbles with them.

⁶ They go with their sheep and their cattle to search for the LORD, but they can't find him. He has left them.

⁷ They have been unfaithful to the LORD, because their children do not belong to him. Now their New Moon Festivals will devour them and their fields.

⁸ "Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah.
Blow the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Beth Aven, you descendants of Benjamin.

⁹ Ephraim will become a wasteland when the time for punishment comes. I will make the truth known among the tribes of Israel.

¹⁰ The leaders of Judah are like those who move boundary markers. I will pour my fury on them like water.

¹¹ Ephraim is oppressed—crushed by punishment, because its people are determined to chase idols.

¹² I will destroy Ephraim as a moth destroys clothing. I will destroy the nation of Judah as rot destroys wood.

¹³ "When Ephraim saw that he was sick and when Judah saw his own wounds, Ephraim went to Assyria to ask the great king for help. But the king couldn't cure them or heal their wounds.

¹⁴ I will be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the nation of Judah. I will carry them off, and no one will rescue them.

¹⁵ I will go back to my place until they admit that they are guilty. Then they will search for me. In their distress they will eagerly look for me."

6 ¹ Let's return to the LORD. Even though he has torn us to pieces, he will heal us. Even though he has wounded us, he will bandage our wounds.

² After two days he will revive us. On the third day he will raise us so that we may live in his presence.

³ Let's learn about the LORD. Let's get to know the LORD. He will come to us as sure as the morning comes. He will come to us like the autumn rains and the spring rains that water the ground.

⁴ "What should I do with you, Ephraim? What should I do with you, Judah? Your love is like fog in the morning. It disappears as quickly as the morning dew.

⁵ That is why I cut you down by sending the prophets. I killed you with the words from my mouth. My judgments shined on you like light.

⁶ I want your loyalty, not your sacrifices. I want you to know me, not to give me burnt offerings.

⁷ "Like Adam, you rejected the promise. You were unfaithful to me.

⁸ Gilead is a city filled with troublemakers. It is stained with bloody footprints.

⁹ The priests are like gangs of robbers who lie in ambush for a person. They murder on the road to Shechem. Certainly, they have committed a crime.

¹⁰ "I have seen horrible things in the nation of Israel. Ephraim is acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

¹¹ "Yet, Judah, I have set a harvest time for you when I bring my people back from captivity.

7¹ "Whenever I want to heal Israel, all I can see is Ephraim's sin and Samaria's wickedness. People cheat each other. They break into houses and steal. They rob people in the streets.

² They don't realize that I remember all the evil things they've done. Now their sins surround them. Their sins are in my presence.

³ "They make kings happy with the wicked things they do. They make officials happy with the lies they tell.

⁴ They all commit adultery. They are like a heated oven, an oven so hot that a baker doesn't have to fan its flames when he makes bread.

⁵ On the day of the king's celebration, the officials become drunk from wine, and the king joins mockers.

⁶ They become hot like an oven while they lie in ambush. All night long their anger smolders, but in the morning it burns like a raging fire.

⁷ They are all as hot as an oven. They consume their judges like a fire. All their kings die in battle, and none of them calls to me.

⁸ "Ephraim mixes with other nations. Ephraim, you are like a half-baked loaf of bread.

⁹ Foreigners are using up your strength, but you don't realize it. You have become a gray-haired, old man, but you don't realize it.

¹⁰ Israel, your arrogance testifies against you, but even after all this, you don't turn to the LORD your God or look to him for help.

¹¹ Ephraim, you are like a silly, senseless dove. You call for Egypt and run to Assyria for help.

¹² When you go, I will spread my net over you. I will snatch you out of the air like a bird. I will punish you for all the evil things you have done.

¹³ "How horrible it will be for these people. They have run away from me. They must be destroyed because they've rebelled against me. I want to reclaim them, but they tell lies about me.

¹⁴ They don't pray to me sincerely, even though they cry in their beds and make cuts on their bodies while praying for grain and new wine. They have turned against me.

¹⁵ I trained them and made them strong. Yet, they plan evil against me.

¹⁶ They don't return to the Most High. They are like a defective bow. Their officials will die in battle because they curse. The people in Egypt will ridicule them for this.

8¹ "Sound the alarm on the ram's horn. The enemy swoops down on the LORD'S temple like an eagle. The people of Israel have rejected my promise and rebelled against my teachings.

² They cry out to me, 'We acknowledge you as our God.'

³ However, they have rejected what is good. The enemy will persecute them.

⁴ "They chose their own kings, kings I didn't approve. They chose their own princes, princes I didn't know. They chose to make idols with their own silver and gold. Because of this, they will be destroyed.

⁵ Get rid of your calf-shaped idol, Samaria. My anger burns against these people. How long will they remain unclean?

⁶ Samaria's calf-shaped idol was made in Israel. Skilled workers made it. It is not a god. It will be smashed to pieces.

⁷ "The people of Israel plant the wind, but they harvest a storm. A field of grain that doesn't ripen will never produce any grain. Even if it did produce grain, foreigners would eat it all.

⁸ Israel will be swallowed up. It has already mixed in with the other nations. It has become worthless.

⁹ "The people of Israel went to Assyria. They were like wild donkeys wandering off alone. The people of Ephraim sold themselves to their lovers.

¹⁰ Even though they sold themselves among the nations, I will gather them now. They will suffer for a while under the burdens of kings and princes.

¹¹ "The more altars that the people of Ephraim build to make offerings to pay for their sins, the more places they have for sinning.

¹² I have written many things for them in my teachings, but they consider these things strange and foreign.

¹³ They offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat of sacrifices, but I, the LORD, do not accept these sacrifices. Now I will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins. They will go back to Egypt.

¹⁴ The people of Israel have built palaces, and they have forgotten their maker. The people of Judah have built many fortified cities. I will send a fire on their cities and burn down their palaces."

9 ¹ Israel, don't rejoice. Don't celebrate as other nations do. You have been unfaithful to your God. You have sold sex on every threshing floor.

² There won't be enough grain to feed people. There won't be enough wine to go around.

³ The people of Ephraim won't stay in the LORD'S land. They will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

⁴ They won't pour wine offerings to the LORD, and their sacrifices won't please him. Their sacrifices will be like the food that mourners eat. All who eat this food will be unclean. Their food will only satisfy their hunger. It will not be brought as an offering to the LORD'S temple.

⁵ What will they do on the day of an appointed festival or on the LORD'S festival days?

⁶ Even if they escape without being destroyed, Egypt will capture them and Memphis will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures. Thorns will grow over their tents.

⁷ The time for them to be punished will come. The time for them to pay for their sins will come. When this happens, Israel will know it. They think that prophets are fools and that spiritual people are crazy. They have sinned a lot, and they are very hostile.

⁸ Prophets are God's watchmen over Ephraim. Yet, traps are set on every prophet's path, and people are hostile in the temple of their God.

⁹ People have deeply corrupted themselves as they once did at Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins.

¹⁰ The LORD said, "When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert. When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the first figs of the harvest. But they went to Baal Peor and worshiped shameful idols. They became as disgusting as the things they worshiped.

¹¹ "Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no more pregnancies, births, or babies.

¹² Even if they bring up children, I will take those children away before they grow up. Yes, how horrible it will be for them when I leave them.

¹³ I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But the people of Ephraim will bring out their children to be killed."

¹⁴ LORD, give them what they deserve. Make the women miscarry, or else make them unable to nurse their babies.

¹⁵ "All Ephraim's wickedness began in Gilgal; I hated the people there. I will force them out of my temple because of their wickedness, and I won't love them anymore. All their officials are rebellious.

¹⁶ "The people of Ephraim are like sick plants. Their roots are dried up. They have no fruit. Even if they were to have children, I would kill their dear children."

¹⁷ My God will reject them because they refused to listen to him. They will wander among the nations.

10 ¹ The people of Israel are like vines that used to produce fruit. The more fruit they produced, the more altars they built. The more their land produced, the more stone markers they set up to honor other gods.

² They are hypocrites. Now they must take their punishment. God will tear down their altars and destroy their stone markers.

³ So they'll say, "We have no king because we didn't fear the LORD. Even if we had a king, he couldn't do anything for us."

⁴ They say many things. They lie when they take oaths, and they make promises they don't intend to keep. That's why lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

⁵ Those who live in Samaria fear the calf-shaped idol at Beth Aven. The people will mourn over it. The priests will cry loudly because its glory will be taken away into captivity.

⁶ The thing itself will be carried to Assyria as a present to the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced. Israel will be ashamed because of its plans.

⁷ The king of Samaria will be carried away like a piece of wood on water.

⁸ The illegal worship sites of Aven will be destroyed. Israel sins there. Thorns and weeds will grow over those altars. People will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

⁹ Israel, you have sinned ever since the incident at Gibeah. You never change. War will overtake the wicked people in Gibeah.

¹⁰ "I will punish them when I'm ready. Armies will gather to attack them. They will be punished for their many sins.

¹¹ "Ephraim is like a trained calf that loves to thresh grain. I will put a yoke on its beautiful neck. I will harness Ephraim.

Judah must plow. Jacob must break up the ground.

¹² "Break new ground. Plant righteousness, and harvest the fruit that your loyalty will produce for me." It's time to seek the LORD! When he comes, he will rain righteousness on you.

¹³ You have planted wickedness and harvested evil. You have eaten the fruit that your lies produced. You have trusted your own power and your many warriors.

¹⁴ So your army will hear the noise of battle. All your fortresses will be destroyed like the time Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in battle. Mothers and their children were smashed to death.

¹⁵ This is what will happen to you, Bethel, because you have done many wicked things. At daybreak, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

11 ¹ "When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

² The more I called them, the farther they went away. They sacrificed to other gods—the Baals, and they burned incense to idols.

³ I was the one who taught the people of Ephraim to walk. I took them by the hand. But they didn't realize that I had healed them.

⁴ I led them with cords of human kindness, with ropes of love. I removed the yokes from their necks. I bent down and fed them.

⁵ "They will not return to Egypt. Instead, Assyria will rule them because they have refused to return to me.

⁶ War will sweep through their cities, demolish their city gates, and put an end to their plans.

⁷ My people are determined to turn away from me. Even if they call to the Most High, he will not pardon them.

⁸ "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboim? I have changed my mind. I am deeply moved.

⁹ I will not act on my burning anger. I will not destroy Ephraim again. I am God, not a human. I am the Holy One among you, and I will not come to you in anger.

¹⁰ "My people will follow me when I roar like a lion. When I roar, my children will come trembling from the west.

¹¹ They will come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from Assyria. I will settle them in their own homes," declares the LORD.

¹² "Ephraim surrounds me with lies. The nation of Israel surrounds me with deceit." Judah rebels against God, against the Holy One who is faithful.

12 ¹ The people of Ephraim try to catch the wind and try to chase the east wind all day. They are very violent and destructive. They make treaties with Assyria and take olive oil to Egypt.

² The LORD brings charges against Judah and punishes Jacob because of the way their people act. He will pay them back for what they have done.

³ Their ancestor Jacob held on to his brother's heel while the two of them were in their mother's womb. When Jacob became a man, he struggled with God.

⁴ He struggled with the Messenger and won. Jacob cried and pleaded with him.

Jacob found him at Bethel, and he talked with him there.

⁵ The LORD is the God of Armies.
The LORD is the name by which he is remembered.

⁶ Return to your God. Be loyal and fair, and always wait with hope for your God.

⁷ The LORD says, "The merchants use dishonest scales. They love to cheat people.

⁸ The people of Ephraim say, 'We're rich. We've made a fortune. With all this wealth, no one will find us guilty of any sin.'

⁹ I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. I will make you live in tents again as you did during your appointed festivals.

¹⁰ I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions. I taught lessons through the prophets."

¹¹ The people of Gilead are evil. They are worthless. They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal. But their altars will become like piles of rubble beside a plowed field.

¹² Jacob fled to the country of Syria. Israel worked to get a wife; he took care of sheep to pay for her.

¹³ The LORD used a prophet to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt. He used a prophet to take care of them.

¹⁴ The people of Ephraim made the LORD bitter. He will hold them guilty of murder. The Lord will pay them back for their insults.

13 ¹ When the tribe of Ephraim spoke, people trembled. The people of Ephraim were important in Israel. Then they became guilty of worshiping Baal, so they must die.

² They keep on sinning more and more. They make idols from silver for themselves. These idols are skillfully made. All of them are the work of craftsmen. People say this about the Israelites: "They offer human sacrifices and kiss calf-shaped idols."

³ That is why they will be like fog in the morning and like morning dew that disappears quickly. They will be like straw blown away from threshing floors. They will be like smoke rising from chimneys.

⁴ "I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. You have known no god besides me. There is no savior except me.

⁵ I took care of you in the desert, in a dry land.

⁶ When I fed you, you were full. When you were full, you became arrogant. That is why you forgot me.

⁷ So I will be like a lion. Like a leopard I will wait by the road to ambush you.

⁸ Like a bear that has lost her cubs, I will attack you. I will rip you open. Like a lion I will devour you. Like a wild animal I will tear you apart.

⁹ You are destroying yourself, Israel. You are against me, your helper.

¹⁰ "Where, now, is your king, the one who is supposed to save you? Where in all your cities are your judges? You said, 'Give us kings and officials!'

¹¹ I gave you a king when I was angry, and I took him away when I was furious.

¹² "Ephraim's wickedness is on record. The record of the people's sins is safely stored away.

¹³ They have the opportunity to live again, but they are not smart enough to take it. They are like a baby who is about to be born but won't come out of its mother's womb.

¹⁴ "I want to free them from the power of the grave. I want to reclaim them from death. Death, I want to be a plague to you. Grave, I want to destroy you. I won't even think of changing my plans."

¹⁵ The people of Ephraim have become important among their relatives.

However, the LORD'S scorching wind will come from the east. It will blow out of the desert. Then their springs will run dry, and their wells will dry up. The wind will destroy every precious thing in their storehouses.

¹⁶ The people of Samaria are guilty as charged because they rebelled against their God. They will be killed in war, their children will be smashed to death, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

14 ¹ Israel, return to the LORD your God. You have stumbled because of your sins.

² Return to the LORD, and say these things to him: "Forgive all our sins, and kindly receive us. Then we'll praise you with our lips.

³ Assyria cannot save us. We won't ride on horses anymore. We will never again say that the things our hands have made are our gods. You love orphans."

⁴ The LORD says, "I will cure them of their unfaithfulness. I will love them freely. I will no longer be angry with them.

⁵ I will be like dew to the people of Israel. They will blossom like flowers. They will be firmly rooted like cedars from Lebanon.

⁶ They will be like growing branches. They will be beautiful like olive trees. They will be fragrant like cedars from Lebanon.

⁷ They will live again in God's shadow. They will grow like grain. They will blossom like grapevines. They will be as famous as the wines from Lebanon.

⁸ "The people of Ephraim will have nothing more to do with idols. I will answer them and take care of them. I am like a growing pine tree. Their fruit comes from me."

⁹ Wise people will understand these things. A person with insight will recognize them. The LORD'S ways are right. Righteous people live by them. Rebellious people stumble over them.

Joel

1 ¹ This is what the LORD said to Joel, son of Pethuel.

² Listen to this, you leaders! Open your ears, all inhabitants of this land! Nothing like this has ever happened in your lifetime or in your ancestors' lifetime.

³ Tell your children about it. Have your children tell their children. Have your grandchildren tell their children.

⁴ What young locusts leave, mature locusts will eat. What mature locusts leave, adult locusts will eat. What adult locusts leave, grasshoppers will eat.

⁵ Wake up and cry, you drunks! Cry loudly, you wine drinkers! New wine has been taken away from you.

⁶ A strong nation attacked my land. It has too many soldiers to count. They have teeth like lions. They have fangs like grown lions.

⁷ They destroyed my grapevines. They ruined my fig trees. They stripped off what they could eat, threw the rest away, and left the branches bare.

⁸ Cry loudly like a young woman who is dressed in sackcloth, mourning for the man she was going to marry.

⁹ Grain offerings and wine offerings are no longer brought to the LORD'S temple. The priests, the LORD'S servants, mourn.

¹⁰ Israel's fields are ruined, and the ground is dried up. The grain has been destroyed. The new wine has dried up. The olive oil has run out.

¹¹ Be sad, you farmers! Cry loudly, you grape growers! Mourn for the wheat and the barley. The harvest is destroyed in the field.

¹² The grapevines are dried up. The fig trees are withered. The pomegranate, palm, and apricot trees, as well as all the trees in the orchards, have died. Yes, the joy of these people has died too.

¹³ Put on your sackcloth and mourn, you priests. Cry loudly, you servants of the altar. Spend the night in sackcloth, you servants of my God. Grain offerings and wine offerings are withheld from your God's temple.

¹⁴ Schedule a time to fast! Call for an assembly! Gather the leaders and everyone who lives in the land. Bring them to the temple of the LORD your God, and cry to the LORD for help.

¹⁵ This will be a terrible day! The day of the LORD is near, and it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

¹⁶ Food disappears right before our eyes. Happiness and rejoicing disappear from our God's temple.

¹⁷ Seeds shrivel up in their shells.
Storehouses are destroyed. Barns are ruined. The grain has dried up.

¹⁸ The animals groan. Herds of cattle wander around confused. There's no pasture for them. Even flocks of sheep are suffering.

¹⁹ O LORD, I cry to you for help! Fire has burned up the open pastures. Flames have burned up all the trees in the orchards.

²⁰ Even wild animals long for you.
Streams run dry. Fire has burned up the open pastures.

2 ¹ Blow the ram's horn in Zion. Sound the alarm on my holy mountain.
Everyone who lives in the land should tremble, because the day of the LORD is coming. Certainly, it is near.

² It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and overcast skies. A large and mighty army will spread over the mountains like the dawn. Nothing like this has ever happened. Nothing like this will ever happen again.

³ In front of this army a fire burns. Behind it flames are blazing. In front of it the land is like the garden of Eden. Behind it the land is like a barren desert. Nothing escapes it!

⁴ The soldiers look like horses. They run like war horses.

⁵ As they leap on mountaintops, they sound like rattling chariots, like crackling fire burning up straw, and like a mighty army prepared for battle.

⁶ People are terrified in their presence. Every face turns pale.

⁷ They run like warriors. They climb walls like soldiers. They march straight ahead. They do not leave their places.

⁸ They do not crowd one another. They keep in their own lines. Even when they break through the defenses, they do not break their ranks.

⁹ They rush into the city. They run along the wall. They climb into houses. They enter through windows like thieves.

¹⁰ The earth quakes in their presence, and the sky shakes. The sun and the moon turn dark, and the stars no longer shine.

¹¹ The LORD shouts out orders to his army. His forces are very large. The troops that carry out his commands are mighty. The day of the LORD is extremely terrifying. Who can endure it?

¹² "But even now," declares the LORD, "return to me with all your heart—with fasting, crying, and mourning."

¹³ Tear your hearts, not your clothes. Return to the LORD your God. He is merciful and compassionate, patient, and always ready to forgive and to change his plans about disaster.

¹⁴ Who knows? He may reconsider and change his plan and leave a blessing for you. Then you could give grain offerings and wine offerings to the LORD your God.

¹⁵ Blow the ram's horn in Zion. Schedule a time to fast. Call for an assembly.

¹⁶ Gather the people. Prepare them for a holy meeting. Assemble the leaders. Gather the children, even the nursing infants. Grooms leave their rooms. Brides leave their chambers.

¹⁷ The priests who serve the LORD cry between the altar and the entrance to the temple. They say, "Spare your people, O LORD. Don't let the people who belong to you become a disgrace. Don't let the nations ridicule them. Why should people ask, 'Where is their God?'"

¹⁸ Then the LORD became concerned about his land, and he had pity on his people.

¹⁹ The LORD said to his people, "I am going to send grain, new wine, and olive oil to you. You will be satisfied with them. I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

²⁰ "I will keep the northern army far from you, and I will force it into a dry and barren land. The soldiers in front will be forced into the eastern sea. The soldiers in back will be forced into the western sea. A foul odor will rise from the dead bodies. They will stink." He has done great things!

²¹ Land, do not be afraid. Be glad and rejoice. The LORD has done great things!

²² Wild animals, do not be afraid. The pastures in the wilderness have turned green. The trees have produced their fruit. There are plenty of figs and grapes.

²³ People of Zion, be glad and find joy in the LORD your God. The LORD has given you the Teacher of Righteousness. He has sent the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.

²⁴ The threshing floors will be filled with grain. The vats will overflow with new wine and olive oil.

²⁵ "Then I will repay you for the years that the mature locusts, the adult locusts, the grasshoppers, and the young locusts ate your crops. (They are the large army that I sent against you.)

²⁶ You will have plenty to eat, and you will be full. You will praise the name of the LORD your God, who has performed miracles for you. My people will never be ashamed again.

²⁷ You will know that I am in Israel. I am the LORD your God, and there is no other. My people will never be ashamed again.

²⁸ "After this, I will pour my Spirit on everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.

²⁹ In those days I will pour my Spirit on servants, on both men and women.

³⁰ I will work miracles in the sky and on the earth: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke.

³¹ The sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood before the terrifying day of the LORD comes."

³² Then whoever calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. Those who escape will be on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem. Among the survivors will be those whom the LORD calls, as the LORD has promised.

3¹ "In those days and at that time, I will bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem.

² I will gather all the nations. I will bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. I will judge them there. They scattered the Israelites, the people who belong to me, among the nations. They divided my land.

³ They threw dice for my people. They traded boys for prostitutes. They sold girls so that they could buy wine to drink.

⁴ "Now what do you have against me, Tyre and Sidon and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will quickly pay you back for what you have done.

⁵ You took my silver and my gold. You brought my finest treasures to your temples.

⁶ You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could send them far away from their land.

⁷ I am going to make them leave the place where you sold them. I will pay you back for what you have done.

⁸ I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. They will sell them to the people of Sheba, a nation that is far away." The LORD has spoken.

⁹ Announce this among the nations: Prepare yourselves for war. Wake up the warriors. Have all the warriors come near and attack.

¹⁰ Hammer your plowblades into swords and your pruning shears into spears. Weaklings should say that they are warriors.

¹¹ Hurry from every direction, and gather there, all you nations. O LORD, bring your soldiers.

¹² Wake up, you nations. Come to the valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

¹³ Cut them down like grain. The harvest is ripe. Stomp on them as you would stomp on grapes. The winepress is full. The vats overflow. The nations are very wicked.

¹⁴ There are many, many people in the valley of decision. The day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

¹⁵ The sun and the moon will turn dark. The stars will no longer shine.

¹⁶ The LORD will roar from Zion, and his voice will thunder from Jerusalem. The sky and the earth will shake. The LORD will be a refuge for his people. He will be a stronghold for the people of Israel.

¹⁷ "You will know that I am the LORD your God. I live on my holy mountain, Zion. Jerusalem will be holy. Foreigners will never invade it again.

¹⁸ On that day new wine will cover the mountains. Milk will flow on the hills. Water will flow in all the brooks of Judah. A spring will flow from the LORD'S temple. It will water the valley of Shittim.

¹⁹ Egypt will become a wasteland. Edom will become a barren desert. This is because the nations were cruel to Judah. They murdered innocent people in their land.

²⁰ People will always live in Judah. People will live in Jerusalem from now on.

²¹ I will punish those who murder." The LORD lives in Zion!

Amos

1 ¹ These are the words of Amos, one of the sheep farmers from Tekoa. He saw a vision about Israel during the reigns of Judah's King Uzziah and Israel's King Jeroboam, son of Joash. This happened two years before the earthquake.

² He said: The LORD roars from Zion, and his voice thunders from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds are turning brown, and the top of Mount Carmel is dried up.

³ This is what the LORD says: Because Damascus has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Arameans have crushed the people of Gilead with iron-spiked threshing sledges.

⁴ I will send a fire on the house of Hazael and burn down the palaces of Ben Hadad.

⁵ I will break the bars on the gates of Damascus. I will cut off those living in Aven Valley and the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into captivity at Kir. The LORD has said this.

⁶ This is what the LORD says: Because Gaza has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Philistines have taken all the people captive in order to hand them over to the Edomites.

⁷ I will send a fire on the walls of Gaza and burn down its palaces.

⁸ I will cut off those living in Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will turn my power against Ekron. The rest of the Philistines will die. The Almighty LORD has said this.

⁹ This is what the LORD says: Because Tyre has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Tyrians have handed all the people over to the Edomites. The Tyrians didn't remember their treaty with their relatives.

¹⁰ I will send a fire on the walls of Tyre and burn down its palaces.

¹¹ This is what the LORD says: Because Edom has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Edomites pursued their relatives with swords. They refused to show any compassion to them. Their anger was unstoppable. They refused to control their fury.

¹² I will send a fire on Teman and burn down the palaces of Bozrah.

¹³ This is what the LORD says: Because Ammon has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Ammonites enlarged their territory by ripping open pregnant women in Gilead.

¹⁴ I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah and burn down its palaces while troops are shouting on the day of battle and winds are howling on the day of the storm.

¹⁵ Their king will go into captivity along with his officials. The LORD has said this.

2 ¹ This is what the LORD says: Because Moab has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Moabites have cremated Edom's king.

² I will send a fire on Moab and burn down the palaces of Kerioth. Moab will die during the noise of battle while troops are shouting and rams' horns are blowing.

³ I will take their judges away from them. I will kill all their officials at the same time. The LORD has said this.

⁴ This is what the LORD says: Because Judah has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The people of Judah have rejected the LORD'S Teachings and haven't kept his laws. They have been led astray by false teachings, the same ones their ancestors followed.

⁵ I will send a fire on Judah and burn down the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁷ They stomp the heads of the poor into the dust. They push the humble out of the way. Father and son sleep with the same woman. They dishonor my holy name.

⁸ Beside every altar, they spread themselves out on clothes taken as security. In the temples of their gods, they drink the wine that they bought with fines.

⁹ I destroyed the Amorites in front of them, although the Amorites were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks. I destroyed their fruit above the ground and their roots below it.

¹⁰ I brought you out of Egypt. I led you through the desert for 40 years so that you could take possession of the land of the Amorites.

¹¹ I also sent you prophets from among your children and Nazirites from among your youths. Isn't that so, people of Israel? The LORD has declared this.

¹² You made the Nazirites drink wine. You commanded the prophets to stop prophesying.

¹³ I am going to crush you as an overloaded wagon crushes a person.

¹⁴ Runners will not be able to escape. Strong men will find that their strength is useless. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves.

¹⁵ Archers will not stand their ground. Fast runners will not be able to escape. Horsemen will not be able to save themselves.

¹⁶ Brave soldiers will run away naked that day. The LORD has declared this.

3 ¹ Listen to this message which I, the LORD, have spoken against you Israelites, against your whole family that I brought out of Egypt.

² Out of all the families on earth, I have known no one else but you. That is why I am going to punish you for all your sins.

³ Do two people ever walk together without meeting first?

⁴ Does a lion roar in the forest if it has no prey? Does a young lion growl in its den unless it has caught something?

⁵ Does a bird land in a trap on the ground if there's no bait in it? Does a trap spring up from the ground unless it has caught something?

⁶ If a ram's horn sounds an alarm in a city, won't the people be alarmed? If there is a disaster in a city, hasn't the LORD done it?

⁷ Certainly, the Almighty LORD doesn't do anything unless he first reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

⁸ The lion has roared. Who isn't afraid? The Almighty LORD has spoken. Who can keep from prophesying?

⁹ Announce in the palaces of Ashdod and in the palaces of Egypt, "Gather together on the mountains of Samaria.

See the widespread confusion and oppression in Samaria."

¹⁰ Those who collect profits in their palaces through violent and destructive acts don't know how to do what is right, declares the LORD.

¹¹ This is what the Almighty LORD says: An enemy will surround your land, strip you of your defenses, and loot your palaces.

¹² This is what the LORD says: As a shepherd rescues two legs or a piece of an ear out of a lion's mouth, so the Israelites living in Samaria will be rescued, having only a corner of a bed or a piece of a couch.

¹³ Listen, and testify against the descendants of Jacob, declares the Almighty LORD, the God of Armies.

¹⁴ On the day I punish Israel for its disobedience, I will also destroy the altars at Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and will fall to the ground.

¹⁵ I will tear down winter houses as well as summer houses. Houses decorated with ivory will be destroyed. Mansions will be demolished, declares the LORD.

4 ¹ Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan who live on Mount Samaria. You women oppress the poor and abuse the needy. You say to your husbands, "Get some wine! Let's drink!"

² The Almighty LORD has taken an oath on his holiness: Surely, the time is going to come when you will be taken away on hooks, and the rest of you on fishhooks.

³ Each of you will leave the city through breaks in the wall, one woman ahead of another. You will be thrown into a garbage dump. The LORD declares this.

⁴ Go to Bethel and sin. Go to Gilgal and sin even more. Bring your sacrifices every morning. Bring a tenth of your income every three days.

⁵ Burn bread as a thank offering. Brag and boast about your freewill offerings. This is what you people of Israel love to do. The Almighty LORD declares this.

⁶ I left you with nothing to eat in any of your cities. I left you with no food in your entire land. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

⁷ I stopped the rain from falling three months before the harvest. I sent rain on one city and not on another. One field had rain. Another field had none and dried up.

⁸ So people from two or three cities staggered as they walked to another city in order to get a drink of water. But they couldn't get enough. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

⁹ I struck your crops with blight and mildew. Locusts repeatedly devoured your gardens, vineyards, fig trees, and olive trees. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

¹⁰ I sent plagues on you as I did to Egypt. With swords I killed your best young men along with your captured horses. I made the stench from your camps fill your noses. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

¹¹ I destroyed some of you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning log snatched from a fire. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

¹² This is what I will do to you, Israel. Prepare to meet your God. This is what I will do to you, Israel!

¹³ God forms the mountains and creates the wind. He reveals his thoughts to humans. He makes dawn and dusk appear. He walks on the high places of the earth. His name is the LORD God of Armies.

5 ¹ Listen to this message, this funeral song that I sing about you, nation of Israel:

² The people of Israel have fallen, never to rise again. They lie abandoned in their own land. There is no one to help them.

³ This is what the Almighty LORD says: The city that sends 1,000 troops off to war will have only 100 left. The one that sends 100 troops off to war will have only 10 left for the nation of Israel.

⁴ This is what the LORD says to the nation of Israel: Search for me and live!

⁵ But don't search for me at Bethel. Don't go to Gilgal. Don't travel to Beersheba. Gilgal will certainly go into exile. Bethel will come to nothing.

⁶ Search for the LORD and live! If you don't, he will spread like a fire through the house of Joseph and burn it down.

Bethel will have no one to put it out.

⁷ You, Israel, turn justice into poison and throw righteousness on the ground.

⁸ God made the constellations Pleiades and Orion. He turns deep darkness into dawn. He turns day into night. He calls for water from the sea to pour it over the face of the earth. His name is the LORD.

⁹ He destroys strongholds and ruins fortresses.

¹⁰ Israel, you hate anyone who speaks out against injustice. You are disgusted by anyone who speaks the truth.

¹¹ You trample on the poor and take their wheat from them for taxes. That is why you build houses from hand-cut stones, but you will not live in them. You plant beautiful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.

¹² I know that your crimes are numerous and your sins are many. You oppress the righteous by taking bribes. You deny the needy access to the courts.

¹³ That is why a wise person remains silent at such times, because those times are so evil.

¹⁴ Search for good instead of evil so that you may live. Then the LORD God of Armies will be with you, as you have said.

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good. Then you will be able to have justice in your courts. Maybe the LORD God of Armies will have pity on the faithful few of Joseph.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD, the Almighty God of Armies, says: There will be loud crying in every city square, and people will say in every street, "Oh, no!" They will call on farmers to mourn and on professional mourners to cry loudly.

¹⁷ There will be loud crying in every vineyard, because I will pass through your land with death. The LORD has said this.

¹⁸ How horrible it will be for those who long for the day of the LORD! Why do you long for that day? The day of the LORD is one of darkness and not light.

¹⁹ It is like a person who flees from a lion only to be attacked by a bear. It is like a person who goes home and puts his hand on the wall only to be bitten by a snake.

²⁰ The day of the LORD brings darkness and not light. It is pitch black, with no light.

²¹ I hate your festivals; I despise them. I'm not pleased with your religious assemblies.

²² Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I won't accept them. I won't even look at the fellowship offerings of your choicest animals.

²³ Spare me the sound of your songs. I won't listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴ But let justice flow like a river and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

²⁵ Did you bring me sacrifices and grain offerings in the desert for 40 years, nation of Israel?

²⁶ You carried along the statues of the god Sikkuth as your king and the star Kiyun, the gods you made for yourselves.

²⁷ I will send you into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of Armies.

6 ¹ How horrible it will be for those who are at ease in Zion, for those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, and for the heads of the leading nations, to whom the nation of Israel comes.

² Go to Calneh and look. Go from there to the great city of Hamath. Then go to Gath, the city of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Is their territory larger than yours?

³ How horrible it will be for those who think that a day of disaster is far away. They bring the reign of violence closer.

⁴ How horrible it will be for those who sleep on ivory beds. They sprawl out on their couches and eat lambs from their flocks and calves from their stalls.

⁵ How horrible it will be for those who make up songs as they strum a harp. Like David, they write all kinds of songs for themselves.

⁶ How horrible it will be for those who drink wine by the jugful. They rub the finest oils all over themselves and are not sorry for the ruin of the descendants of Joseph.

⁷ That is why they will now be the first to go into exile. The celebrating of those sprawled around the banquet table will stop.

⁸ The Almighty LORD has sworn an oath on himself. The LORD God of Armies declares: I am disgusted with Jacob's pride, and I hate his palaces. So I will hand over the city and everything in it.

⁹ If ten people are left in one house, they will die.

¹⁰ If a relative or a mortician comes to take the dead bodies out of the house and asks someone who is inside the house, "Is there anyone else with you?" that person will answer, "No." "Hush," he will add. "We shouldn't mention the name of the LORD!"

¹¹ The LORD is going to give the command to level big houses and flatten little houses.

¹² Do horses run on rocks? Does a farmer plow the sea with oxen? Yet, you have turned justice into something deadly and what is righteous into poison.

¹³ How horrible it will be for those who rejoice over Lo Debar and who say, "We were strong enough to capture Karnaim by ourselves."

¹⁴ I am going to lead a nation to attack you, nation of Israel, declares the LORD God of the Armies of the Nations. They will oppress you from the border of Hamath to the valley of Arabah.

7 ¹ This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts when the second crop was being harvested. It was the harvest that followed the harvest for the king.

² When the locusts had finished eating every plant in the land, I said, "Almighty LORD, please forgive us! How can the descendants of Jacob survive? There are so few of them."

³ The LORD changed his plans about this. "This won't happen," the LORD said.

⁴ This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: The Almighty LORD was calling for judgment by fire. The fire dried up the ocean and burned up the land.

⁵ Then I said, "Almighty LORD, please stop! How can the descendants of Jacob survive? There are so few of them."

⁶ The LORD changed his plans about this. "This won't happen either," the Almighty LORD said.

⁷ This is what he showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall built with the use of a plumb line, and he had a plumb line in his hand.

⁸ He asked me, "What do you see, Amos?" I answered, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "I'm going to hold a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

⁹ The worship sites of Isaac will be destroyed, and the holy places of Israel will be in ruins. I will attack Jeroboam's heirs with my sword."

¹⁰ Then Amaziah, the priest at Bethel, sent a message to King Jeroboam of Israel. It read, "Amos is plotting against you among the people of Israel. The country isn't able to endure everything he is saying.

¹¹ Amos says that Jeroboam will be killed with a sword and that Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile."

¹² Then Amaziah said to Amos, "You seer, run away to Judah! Eat there, and prophesy there!

¹³ But don't ever prophesy again in Bethel, because this is the king's holy place and the king's palace."

¹⁴ Amos responded, "I'm not a prophet, and I'm not a disciple of the prophets. I am a rancher and a grower of figs.

¹⁵ But the LORD took me away from herding the flock and said to me, 'Prophesy to my people Israel.'

¹⁶ "Now listen to the word of the LORD: You said, 'Stop prophesying against Israel, and stop preaching against the descendants of Isaac.'

¹⁷ "However, this is what the LORD says: Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Your land will be surveyed and divided up, and you will die in an unclean land. Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile."

8¹ This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: a basket of ripe summer fruit.

² He asked, "What do you see, Amos?" "A basket of ripe summer fruit," I answered. Then the LORD said to me, "My people Israel are now ripe. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

³ On that day the songs of the temple will become loud cries," declares the Almighty LORD. "There will be dead bodies scattered everywhere. Hush!"

⁴ Listen to this, those who trample on the needy and ruin those who are oppressed in the world.

⁵ You say to yourselves, "When will the New Moon Festival be over so that we can sell more grain? When will the day of worship be over so that we can sell more wheat? We can shrink the size of the bushel baskets, increase the cost, and cheat with dishonest scales.

⁶ We can buy the poor with money and the needy for a pair of sandals. We can sell the husks mixed in with the wheat."

⁷ The LORD has sworn an oath by Jacob's pride: "I will never forget anything that they have done."

⁸ The land will tremble because of this. Everyone who lives in it will mourn. The entire land will rise like the Nile, be tossed about, and then sink like Egypt's river.

⁹ On that day, declares the Almighty LORD, I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

¹⁰ I will turn your festivals into funerals and all your songs into funeral songs. I will put sackcloth around everyone's waist and shave everyone's head. I will make that day seem like a funeral for an only child, and its end will be bitter.

¹¹ The days are going to come, declares the Almighty LORD, when I will send a famine throughout the land. It won't be an ordinary famine or drought. Instead, there will be a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

¹² People will wander from sea to sea and roam from the north to the east, searching for the word of the LORD. But they won't find it.

¹³ On that day beautiful young women and strong young men will faint because of their thirst.

¹⁴ How horrible it will be for those who swear by Ashimah, the idol of Samaria, and say, "I solemnly swear, Dan, as your god lives..." "I solemnly swear as long as there is a road to Beersheba..." Those who say this will fall and never get up again.

9 ¹ I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said: Strike the tops of the pillars so that the foundations shake. Cut off everyone's head. I will kill with a sword all who are left. None of them will be able to get away. None of them will be able to escape.

² Even if they dig their way into Sheol, my hand will take them from there. Even if they go up to heaven, I will bring them down from there.

⁴ Even if they go into exile ahead of their enemies, I will command a sword to kill them. I will keep my eyes on them so that I can bring disaster on them and not help them.

⁷ You people of Israel are like the people from Sudan, says the LORD. Didn't I bring Israel from Egypt? Didn't I bring the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir?

⁹ I'm going to give the order. I will sift the nation of Israel out of all the nations as if I were using a sieve. Not one pebble will fall to the ground.

¹⁰ All the sinners among my people are thinking, "Destruction will not catch up to us or run into us." In spite of this, they will be killed with swords.

¹¹ On that day I will set up David's fallen tent. I will repair the holes in it. I will restore its ruined places. I will rebuild them as they were a long time ago.

¹² They will capture the few survivors of Edom and all the other nations that were under my authority, declares the LORD, who will do these things.

¹³ The days are going to come, declares the LORD, when the one who plows will catch up to the one who harvests, and the one who stomps on grapes will catch up to the one who plants. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills.

¹⁴ I will restore my people Israel. They will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink the wine from them. They will plant gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵ I will plant the people of Israel in their land, and they won't be uprooted again from the land that I gave them, says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1 ¹ This is the vision of Obadiah. This is what the Almighty LORD says about Edom: We have heard a message from the LORD. A messenger was sent among the nations to say, "Get ready! Let's go to war against Edom."

² "Edom, I will make you the smallest of nations. Others will despise you.

³ Your arrogance has deceived you. You live on rocky cliffs. You make your home up high. You say to yourself, 'No one can bring me down to earth.'

⁴ Even though you fly high like an eagle and build your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there," declares the LORD.

⁵ "If thieves or looters come to you during the night, won't they steal only until they've had enough? You will be ruined! If people come to pick your grapes, won't they leave a few grapes behind?

⁶ But you, Esau, will lose everything. Even your hidden treasures will be looted.

⁷ All your allies will force you to leave your land. The people who are at peace with you will deceive you. Those who eat food with you will set traps for you, and you won't even know about it.

⁸ "On that day I will destroy the wise people in Edom and take wisdom away from Esau's mountain," declares the LORD.

⁹ "Teman, your warriors will be terrified. Everyone on Esau's mountain will be slaughtered.

¹⁰ "Because of the violence you did to Jacob, your relative, you will be covered with shame. You will be destroyed forever.

¹¹ While you stood there doing nothing, strangers carried off Jacob's wealth. Foreigners entered his gates and threw dice for Jerusalem. You acted like one of them.

¹² Don't gloat over your relative's misfortune or be happy when the people of Judah are destroyed. Don't brag so much when they're in distress.

¹³ Don't march through the gates of my people when disaster strikes or gloat over their misery when disaster strikes. Don't take their wealth when disaster strikes.

¹⁴ Don't stand at the crossroads to kill their refugees. Don't hand over their survivors when they're in distress.

¹⁵ "The day of the LORD is near for all nations. Edom, you will be treated as you have treated others. You will get back what you have given.

¹⁶ As you, Israel, drank on my holy mountain, so all nations will drink in turn. They will drink and guzzle down everything in it. They will be like those who have never existed.

¹⁷ "But refugees will live on Mount Zion. It will be holy. The descendants of Jacob will get back their possessions.

¹⁸ The descendants of Jacob will be like a fire. The descendants of Joseph will be like a flame. But the descendants of Esau will be like straw. They will be burned and destroyed. There will be no one left among the descendants of Esau." The LORD has spoken.

¹⁹ "People from the Negev will take possession of Esau's mountain. People from the foothills will take possession of Philistia. They will take possession of the lands of Ephraim and Samaria, and the descendants of Benjamin will take possession of Gilead.

²⁰ Exiles from Israel will take possession of Canaan. They will possess land as far as Zarephath. Exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will take possession of the cities in the Negev.

²¹ Those who are victorious will come from Mount Zion to rule Esau's mountain. The kingdom will belong to the LORD."

Jonah

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jonah, son of Amittai. He said,

² "Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people that I can no longer overlook the wicked things they have done."

³ Jonah immediately tried to run away from the LORD by going to Tarshish. He went to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid for the trip and went on board. He wanted to go to Tarshish to get away from the LORD.

⁴ The LORD sent a violent wind over the sea. The storm was so powerful that the ship was in danger of breaking up.

⁵ The sailors were afraid, and they cried to their gods for help. They began to throw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship's load. Now, Jonah had gone below deck and was lying there sound asleep.

⁶ The captain of the ship went to him and asked, "How can you sleep? Get up, and pray to your God. Maybe he will notice us, and we won't die."

⁷ Then the sailors said to each other, "Let's throw dice to find out who is responsible for bringing this disaster on us." So they threw dice, and the dice indicated that Jonah was responsible.

⁸ They asked him, "Tell us, why has this disaster happened to us? What do you do for a living? Where do you come from? What country are you from? What nationality are you?"

⁹ Jonah answered them, "I'm a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land."

¹⁰ Then the men were terrified. They knew that he was running away from the LORD, because he had told them. They asked Jonah, "Why have you done this?"

¹¹ The storm was getting worse. So they asked Jonah, "What should we do with you to calm the sea?"

¹² He told them, "Throw me overboard. Then the sea will become calm. I know that I'm responsible for this violent storm."

¹³ Instead, the men tried to row harder to get the ship back to shore, but they couldn't do it. The storm was getting worse.

¹⁴ So they cried to the LORD for help: "Please, LORD, don't let us die for taking this man's life. Don't hold us responsible for the death of an innocent man, because you, LORD, do whatever you want."

¹⁵ Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the sea became calm.

¹⁶ The men were terrified of the LORD. They offered sacrifices and made vows to the LORD.

¹⁷ The LORD sent a big fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

2 ¹ From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God.

² Jonah prayed: "I called to the LORD in my distress, and he answered me. From the depths of my watery grave I cried for help, and you heard my cry.

³ You threw me into the deep, into the depths of the sea, and water surrounded me. All the whitecaps on your waves have swept over me.

⁴ "Then I thought, 'I have been banished from your sight. Will I ever see your holy temple again?'

⁵ "Water surrounded me, threatening my life. The deep sea covered me completely. Seaweed was wrapped around my head.

⁶ I sank to the foot of the mountains. I sank to the bottom, where bars held me forever. But you brought me back from the pit, O LORD, my God.

⁷ "As my life was slipping away, I remembered the LORD. My prayer came to you in your holy temple.

⁸ Those who hold on to worthless idols abandon their loyalty to you.

⁹ But I will sacrifice to you with songs of thanksgiving. I will keep my vow. Victory belongs to the LORD!"

¹⁰ Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spit Jonah out onto the shore.

3 ¹ Then the LORD spoke his word to Jonah a second time. He said,

² "Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people the message I have given you."

³ Jonah immediately went to Nineveh as the LORD told him. Nineveh was a very large city. It took three days to walk through it.

⁴ Jonah entered the city and walked for about a day. Then he said, "In forty days Nineveh will be destroyed."

⁵ The people of Nineveh believed God. They decided to fast, and everyone, from the most important to the least important, dressed in sackcloth.

⁶ When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

⁸ Every person and animal must put on sackcloth. Cry loudly to God for help. Turn from your wicked ways and your acts of violence.

⁹ Who knows? God may reconsider his plans and turn from his burning anger so that we won't die."

¹⁰ God saw what they did. He saw that they turned from their wicked ways. So God reconsidered his threat to destroy them, and he didn't do it.

4 ¹ Jonah was very upset about this, and he became angry.

² So he prayed to the LORD, "LORD, isn't this what I said would happen when I was still in my own country? That's why I tried to run to Tarshish in the first place. I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, patient, and always ready to forgive and to reconsider your threats of destruction.

³ So now, LORD, take my life. I'd rather be dead than alive."

⁴ The LORD asked, "What right do you have to be angry?"

⁵ Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made himself a shelter there. He sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city.

⁶ The LORD God made a plant grow up beside Jonah to give him shade and make him more comfortable. Jonah was very happy with the plant.

⁷ At dawn the next day, God sent a worm to attack the plant so that it withered.

⁸ When the sun rose, God made a hot east wind blow. The sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he was about to faint. He wanted to die. So he said, "I'd rather be dead than alive."

⁹ Then God asked Jonah, "What right do you have to be angry over this plant?"

Jonah answered, "I have every right to be angry—so angry that I want to die."

¹⁰ The LORD replied, "This plant grew up overnight and died overnight. You didn't plant it or make it grow. Yet, you feel sorry for this plant.

¹¹ Shouldn't I feel sorry for this important city, Nineveh? It has more than 120,000 people in it as well as many animals. These people couldn't tell their right hand from their left."

Micah

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Micah, who was from Moresheth, when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. This is the vision that Micah saw about Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Listen, all you people! Pay attention, earth and all who are on it. The Almighty LORD will be a witness against you. The Lord will be a witness from his holy temple.

³ The LORD is going to come from his place. He is going to come down and step on the worship places of the earth.

⁴ Mountains will melt under him like wax near a fire. Valleys will split apart like water pouring down a steep hill.

⁵ All this is because of Jacob's crime and Israel's sin. What is Jacob's crime? Isn't it Samaria? What is Judah's worship place? Isn't it Jerusalem?

⁶ So I will turn Samaria into a pile of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will roll its stones down into a valley and expose its foundations.

⁷ All its idols will be smashed to pieces. All its wages for being a prostitute will be burned. All its statues will be turned into a pile of rubble. Samaria collected its wages for being a prostitute. That money will again pay for prostitutes.

⁸ I will mourn and cry because of this. I will walk around barefoot and naked. I will cry like a jackal and mourn like an ostrich.

⁹ Samaria's wounds are incurable. The news about Samaria will come to Judah. It will reach the gates of my people in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Don't report it in Gath. Don't cry there. Roll in the dust of Beth Leaphrah.

¹² Wait anxiously for good, inhabitants of Maroth. From the LORD disaster will come on the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³ Harness the horses to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish. You were the first to lead the people of Zion into sin. The rebellious acts of Israel are found in you.

¹⁴ That is why you will give farewell gifts to Moresheth Gath. The town of Achzib will betray the kings of Israel.

¹⁵ I will again bring a conqueror against the inhabitants of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

¹⁶ Shave your head in mourning for the children you love. Make yourselves as bald as vultures because your children will be taken from you into exile.

2¹ How horrible it will be for those who invent trouble and work out plans for disaster while in bed. When the morning dawns, they carry out their plans because they are able to.

² They desire other people's fields, so they seize them. They desire people's houses, so they take them. They cheat a man and his family, a man and his inheritance.

³ So this is what the LORD says: I'm planning a disaster to punish your family. You won't be able to rescue yourselves. You will no longer be able to walk proudly. This will be a time of disaster.

⁴ When that day comes, people will make fun of you. They will sing this sad song about you: "We are completely ruined. The LORD gives our people's possessions to others. He takes them from us. He divides our fields among our captors."

⁵ That is why none of you in the LORD'S assembly will draw lots to divide your property.

⁶ Your prophets say, "Don't prophesy! Don't prophesy such things! Disgrace will never overtake us."

⁷ Should the descendants of Jacob be asked: Has the Spirit of the LORD become impatient with you? Has he done these things? Are his words good for those who live honestly?

⁸ Recently, my people have turned into enemies. You take coats from those who pass by without a care as they return from war.

⁹ You force the women among my people out of their pleasant homes and take my glory away from their children forever.

¹⁰ Get up, and go away! This is not a place to rest! It will be destroyed, completely destroyed, because it offends me.

¹¹ Liars and frauds may go around and say, "We will preach to you about wine and liquor." They would be just the type of preacher you want.

¹² I will surely gather all of you, Jacob. I will surely bring together the few people left in Israel. I will gather them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture. They will make a lot of noise because there will be so many people.

¹³ The LORD will open the way and lead them. They will break out, go through the gate, and leave. Their king will travel in front of them. The LORD will lead the people.

3 ¹ Then I said: Listen, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You should know justice.

² You hate good and love evil. You strip the skin off my people and the flesh off their bones.

³ You eat my people's flesh. You strip off their skin. You break their bones to pieces. You chop them up like meat for a pot, like stew meat for a kettle.

⁴ Then you will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer you. He will hide his face from you at that time because you have done evil things.

⁵ This is what the LORD says about the prophets who mislead my people: When they have something to eat, they say, "All is well!" But they declare a holy war against those who don't feed them.

⁶ That is why you will have nights without visions. You will have darkness without revelations. The sun will set on the prophets, and the day will turn dark for them.

⁷ Seers will be put to shame. Those who practice witchcraft will be disgraced. All of them will cover their faces, because God won't answer them.

⁸ But I am filled with the power of the LORD'S Spirit, with justice, and with strength. So I will tell the descendants of Jacob about their crimes and the nation of Israel about its sins.

⁹ Listen to this, you leaders of the descendants of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You despise justice and pervert everything that is right.

¹⁰ You build Zion on bloodshed and Jerusalem on wickedness.

¹² Because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of rubble, and the temple mountain will become a worship site covered with trees.

4 ¹ In the last days the mountain of the LORD'S house will be established as the highest of the mountains and raised above the hills. People will stream to it.

² Then many nations will come and say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways so that we may live by them." The teachings will go out from Zion. The word of the LORD will go out from Jerusalem.

³ Then he will judge disputes between many people and settle arguments between many nations far and wide. They will hammer their swords into plowblades and their spears into pruning shears. Nations will never fight against each other, and they will never train for war again.

⁴ They will sit under their grapevines and their fig trees, and no one will make them afraid. The LORD of Armies has spoken.

⁵ All the nations live by the names of their gods, but we will live by the name of the LORD our God forever.

⁶ "When that day comes," declares the LORD, "I will gather those who are lame. I will bring together those who are scattered and those whom I have injured.

⁷ I will change those who are lame into a faithful people. I will change those who are forced away into a strong nation." The LORD will rule them on Mount Zion now and forever.

⁸ You, Jerusalem, watchtower of the flock, stronghold of the people of Zion, your former government will come back to you. The kingdom will return to the people of Jerusalem.

⁹ Now why are you crying so loudly? Don't you have a king? Has your counselor died? Pain grips you like a woman in labor.

¹⁰ Daughter of Zion, writhe in pain and groan like a woman in labor. Now you will leave the city, live in the open fields, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There the LORD will reclaim you from your enemies.

¹¹ But now many nations gather against you. They say, "Let's dishonor Zion and gloat over it."

¹² They don't know the thoughts of the LORD or understand his plan. He will bring them together like cut grain on the threshing floor.

¹³ Get up and thresh, people of Zion. I will make your horns as hard as iron and your hoofs as hard as bronze. You will smash many nations into small pieces. You will claim their loot for the LORD, their wealth for the Lord of the whole earth.

5 ¹ Now, gather your troops, you city of troops. We are under attack. Enemies will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek with a stick.

² You, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are too small to be included among Judah's cities. Yet, from you Israel's future ruler will come for me. His origins go back to the distant past, to days long ago.

³ That is why the LORD will abandon Israel until the time a mother has a child. Then the rest of the LORD'S people will return to the people of Israel.

⁴ The child will become the shepherd of his flock. He will lead them with the strength of the LORD, with the majestic name of the LORD his God. They will live in safety because his greatness will reach the ends of the earth.

⁵ This man will be their peace. When the Assyrians invade our land and trample our palaces, we will attack them with seven shepherds and eight leaders.

⁶ They will rule Assyria with their swords and the country of Nimrod with drawn swords. They will rescue us from the Assyrians when they come into our land and walk within our territory.

⁷ Then the few people left from Jacob will be among many people like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass. They do not put their hope in humans or wait for mortals.

⁸ The few people left from Jacob will be among the nations, among many people. They will be like a lion among animals in the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep. When a lion hunts, it tramples its victims and tears them to pieces, and there is no one to rescue them.

⁹ You will use your power against your opponents, and all your enemies will be destroyed.

¹⁰ "When that day comes," declares the LORD, "I will destroy your horses and demolish your chariots.

¹¹ I will destroy the cities in your land and tear down all your fortresses.

¹² I will destroy your sorcerers, and you will have no more fortunetellers.

¹³ I will destroy your idols and your sacred monuments. You will no longer worship what your hands have made.

¹⁴ I will pull out your poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah. I will wipe out your cities.

¹⁵ I will take revenge with great anger on the nations that do not obey me."

6 ¹ Now listen to what the LORD is saying, "Stand up! Plead your case in front of the mountains, and let the hills listen to your request.

² Listen to the LORD'S lawsuit, you mountains. Listen, you strong foundations of the earth. The LORD has filed a lawsuit against his people. He is arguing his case against Israel.

³ "My people, what have I done to you? How have I tried your patience? Answer me!

⁴ I brought you out of Egypt and freed you from slavery. I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you.

⁵ My people, remember what King Balak of Moab planned to do to you and how Balaam, son of Beor, responded to him. Remember your journey from Shittim to Gilgal so that you may know the victories of the LORD."

⁶ What should I bring when I come into the LORD'S presence, when I bow in front of the God of heaven? Should

I bring him year-old calves as burnt offerings?

⁷ Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams or with endless streams of olive oil? Should I give him my firstborn child because of my rebellious acts? Should I give him my young child for my sin?

⁸ You mortals, the LORD has told you what is good. This is what the LORD requires from you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to live humbly with your God.

⁹ The voice of the LORD calls out to the city. (The fear of your name is wisdom.) "Listen, you tribe assembled in the city.

¹⁰ I have cursed all the wicked people who use their money for evil and use inaccurate weights and measures.

¹¹ I cannot tolerate dishonest scales and bags filled with inaccurate weights.

¹² The rich people in the city are violent. Those who live in the city speak lies, and their tongues speak deceitfully.

¹³ I have begun to strike you with heavy blows and to ruin you because of your sins.

¹⁴ You will eat, but you won't be full. So you will always be hungry. You will put things away, but you won't save them. Anything you save I will destroy.

¹⁵ You will plant, but you won't harvest. You will crush olives, but you won't rub the oil on your skin. You will make new wine, but you won't drink it.

¹⁶ You have kept Omri's laws and all the practices of the descendants of Ahab, and you have followed their advice. That is why I will ruin you. Your people will be ridiculed. You will bear the disgrace of my people."

7 ¹ Poor me! I am like those gathering summer fruit, like those picking grapes. But there aren't any grapes to eat or any ripened figs that I crave.

² Faithful people are gone from the earth, and no one is decent. All people lie in ambush to commit murder. They trap each other with nets.

³ Their hands are skilled in doing evil. Officials ask for gifts. Judges accept bribes. Powerful people dictate what they want. So they scheme together.

⁴ The best of them is like a briar. The most decent person is sharper than thornbushes. The day you thought you would be punished has come. Now is the time you will be confused.

⁵ Don't trust your neighbors. Don't have confidence in your friends. Keep your mouth shut even when a woman is lying in your arms.

⁶ A son treats his father with contempt. A daughter rebels against her mother. A daughter-in-law rebels against her mother-in-law. People's enemies are the members of their own families.

⁷ I will look to the LORD. I will wait for God to save me. I will wait for my God to listen to me.

⁸ Don't laugh at me, my enemies. Although I've fallen, I will get up. Although I sit in the dark, the LORD is my light.

⁹ I have sinned against the LORD. So I will endure his fury until he takes up my cause and wins my case. He will bring me into the light, and I will see his victory.

¹⁰ Then my enemies will see this, and they will be covered with shame, because they asked me, "Where is the LORD your God?" Now I look at them. They are trampled like mud in the streets.

¹¹ The day for rebuilding your walls and extending your borders is coming.

¹² When that day comes, your people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the Euphrates River, from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

¹³ The earth will become a wasteland for those who live on it because of what the people living there have done.

¹⁴ With your shepherd's staff, take care of your people, the sheep that belong to you. They live alone in the woods, in fertile pastures. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead like before.

¹⁵ Let us see miracles like the time you came out of Egypt.

¹⁶ Nations will see this and be ashamed in spite of all their strength. They will put their hands over their mouths. Their ears will become deaf.

¹⁷ They will lick dust like snakes, like animals that crawl on the ground. They will come out of their hiding places trembling. They will turn away from your presence in fear, O LORD our God. They will be afraid of you.

¹⁸ Who is a God like you? You forgive sin and overlook the rebellion of your faithful people. You will not be angry forever, because you would rather show mercy.

¹⁹ You will again have compassion on us. You will overcome our wrongdoing. You will throw all our sins into the deep sea.

²⁰ You will be faithful to Jacob. You will have mercy on Abraham as you swore by an oath to our ancestors long ago.

Nahum

1 ¹ This is a revelation from the LORD about Nineveh. This book contains the vision of Nahum from Elkosh.

² God does not tolerate rivals. The LORD takes revenge. The LORD takes revenge and is full of anger. The LORD takes revenge against his enemies and holds a grudge against his foes.

³ The LORD is patient and has great strength. The LORD will never let the guilty go unpunished. Raging winds and storms mark his path, and clouds are the dust from his feet.

⁴ He yells at the sea and makes it dry. He dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither. The flowers of Lebanon wither.

⁵ The mountains quake because of him. The hills melt. The earth draws back in his presence. The world and all who live in it draw back as well.

⁶ Who can stand in the presence of his rage? Who can oppose his burning anger? He pours out his rage like fire and smashes the rocky cliffs.

⁷ The LORD is good. He is a fortress in the day of trouble. He knows those who seek shelter in him.

⁸ He will put an end to Nineveh with a devastating flood. He will pursue his enemies with darkness.

⁹ What do you think about the LORD? He is the one who will bring Nineveh to an end. This trouble will never happen again.

¹⁰ The people of Nineveh will be like tangled thorns and like people drunk on their own drink. They will be completely burned up like very dry straw.

¹¹ From you, Nineveh, a person who plans evil against the LORD sets out. His advice is wicked.

¹² This is what the LORD says: Though the people of Nineveh are physically fit and many in number, they will be cut down and die. Though I have humbled you, Judah, I will not humble you again.

¹³ But now I will break Nineveh's yoke off of you and tear its chains from you.

¹⁴ The LORD has given this command about you, Nineveh: You will no longer have descendants to carry on your name. I will remove the wooden and metal idols from the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave because you are worthless.

¹⁵ There on the mountains are the feet of a messenger who announces the good news: "All is well!" Celebrate your festivals, Judah! Keep your vows! This wickedness will never pass your way again. It will be completely removed.

2¹ The one who will scatter you is coming to attack you. Guard your fortress! Keep a lookout on the road! Prepare for battle! Be very courageous!

² The LORD will restore Jacob's glory like Israel's glory, although enemies have looted it and have destroyed its vines.

³ The shields of his warriors are painted red. His soldiers have red uniforms. The metal on his chariots flashes fiery red, so do the spears when they are waved on the day he prepares for battle.

⁴ Chariots are racing madly through the streets, rushing this way and that in the city squares. They look like torches, like lightning, as they dart about.

⁵ He remembers his best fighting men. They stumble over themselves as they march. They hurry to Nineveh's wall. The shield has been set up for the battering ram.

⁶ The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace melts away.

⁷ The LORD has determined: "It will be stripped. It will be carried away. Its young women will be mourning like doves as they beat their breasts."

⁸ Nineveh was like a pool of water from its first day on. But now its people are fleeing. "Stop! Stop!" But no one turns around.

⁹ Steal the silver! Steal the gold! There is no end to what is stored here—everything a person could ever want.

¹⁰ Nineveh is destroyed, deserted, demolished. Hearts are melting. Knees are knocking. Every stomach becomes upset. Every face turns pale.

¹¹ Where is the lions' den, that feeding place for young lions? Where are the lion, the lioness, and the lion cub who moved about with no one to terrify them?

¹² The lion tore its prey to pieces to feed its cubs. It strangled the prey for its mates. It used to fill its caves with torn carcasses and its dens with torn flesh.

¹³ "I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will send your chariots up in smoke, and a sword will kill your young lions. I will remove your prey from the earth, and no one will ever hear the voice of your messengers again."

3 ¹ How horrible it will be for that city of bloody violence! It is completely full of lies and stolen goods—never without victims.

² The sound of the whip! The sound of rattling wheels! Horses gallop! Chariots bounce along!

³ Horses charge! Swords flash! Spears glitter! Many are killed! Dead bodies pile up! There is no end to the corpses!

People trip over corpses

⁴ because of Nineveh's constant prostitution, this very charming mistress of evil magic. She used to sell nations her prostitution and people her evil magic."

⁵ "I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will lift up your dress over your face. I will show nations your naked body and kingdoms your disgrace.

⁶ I will throw filth on you. I will make you look like a fool. I will make you a sight to be seen.

⁷ Everyone who sees you will run from you, saying, 'Nineveh has been violently destroyed! Who will feel sorry for her?' Where can I find anyone to comfort you?"

⁸ Are you better than No-amon, which sits by the streams of the Nile with water surrounding her? The sea was her defense. The water was her wall.

⁹ Sudan and Egypt were her endless strength. Put and the Lybians were her help.

¹⁰ Even she went into captivity and was exiled. Even her little children were smashed to death at every street corner. Soldiers tossed dice for her important men, and all her best men were bound in chains.

¹¹ Even you, Nineveh, will stagger like a drunk. You will disappear. Even you will look for a fortress to escape from the enemy.

¹² All your defenses will be like fig trees with the earliest figs. When shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.

¹³ Look at your soldiers; they're women! The gates of your country are wide open to your enemies. Fire has destroyed the bars of your gates.

¹⁴ Store water for the siege! Strengthen your defenses! Step into the claypits and trample the clay! Grab the brick mold!

¹⁵ Fire will consume you there. A sword will cut you down. It will consume you like locusts. Multiply like locusts! Multiply like hungry locusts!

¹⁶ You have produced more businessmen than there are stars in the sky. They are like locusts that attack and then fly away.

¹⁸ Your shepherds, king of Assyria, have fallen into a deep sleep. Your best fighting men are at rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

¹⁹ There is no relief for your collapse.
Your wound is fatal. All who hear the news about you will clap their hands.
Who hasn't suffered from your endless evil?

Habakkuk

1 ¹ The divine revelation that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

² How long, O LORD, am I to cry for help, but you will not listen? I cry out to you, "There's violence!" yet you will not come to the rescue.

³ Why do you make me see wrongdoing? And why do you watch wickedness? Destruction and violence are in front of me. Quarrels and disputes arise.

⁴ That is why your teaching is numbed, and justice is never carried out. Wicked people surround righteous people so that when justice is carried out, it's perverted.

⁵ Look among the nations and watch. Be amazed and astonished. I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe even if it were reported to you.

⁶ I am going to send the Babylonians, that fierce and reckless nation. They will march throughout the earth to take possession of lands that don't belong to them.

⁷ They will be terrifying and fearsome. They will carry out their own kind of justice and honor.

⁸ Their horses will be faster than leopards and quicker than wolves in the evening. Their riders will gallop along proudly. Their riders will come from far away. They will fly like an eagle that swoops down for its prey.

⁹ They will all come for violence. Every face will be directed forward. They will gather prisoners like sand.

¹⁰ They will make fun of kings and treat rulers as a joke. They will laugh at every fortified city and build a dirt ramp to capture it.

¹¹ They will move quickly and pass through like the wind. So they will be guilty, because their own strength is their god.

¹² Didn't you exist before time began, O LORD, my God, my Holy One? We will not die! O LORD, you have appointed the Babylonians to bring judgment. O Rock, you have destined them to correct us.

¹³ Your eyes are too pure to look at evil. You can't watch wickedness. Why do you keep watching treacherous people? Why are you silent when wicked people swallow those who are more righteous than they are?

¹⁴ You make all people like the fish in the sea, like schools of sea life that have no ruler.

¹⁵ The Babylonians pull them all up with fishhooks, drag them away in nets, and gather them in dragnets. So they rejoice and are happy.

¹⁶ That is why they sacrifice to their nets and burn incense to their dragnets. They are rich and well fed because of them.

¹⁷ Will they keep on emptying their nets and always kill nations without mercy?

2 ¹ I will stand at my guard post. I will station myself on the wall. I will watch to see what he will say to me and what answer I will get to my complaint.

² Then the LORD answered me, "Write the vision. Make it clear on tablets so that anyone can read it quickly.

³ The vision will still happen at the appointed time. It hurries toward its goal. It won't be a lie. If it's delayed, wait for it. It will certainly happen. It won't be late.

⁴ "Look at the proud person. He is not right in himself. But the righteous person will live because of his faithfulness.

⁵ Also because wine is treacherous he is arrogant and never rests. He has a large appetite like the grave. He is like death—never satisfied. He gathers all the nations to himself. He collects all the people to himself.

⁶ Won't all of them ridicule him, directing clever sayings and riddles at him, like: "'How horrible it will be for the one who makes himself rich with what is not his own and makes himself wealthy on loans. How long will this go on?'

⁷ Won't your creditors suddenly rise up and those who are going to shake you wake up? Then you will become their prize.

⁸ You have looted many nations. All the rest of the people will loot you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

⁹ "'How horrible it will be for the one who uses violence to get things for his own household in order to set his nest up high and save himself from disaster.'

¹⁰ You have planned disgrace for your household by cutting off many people and forfeiting your own life.

¹¹ A stone in the wall will cry out. A beam in the roof will answer it.

¹² "'How horrible it will be for the one who builds a city by slaughter and founds a town by crime.'

¹³ Isn't it from the LORD of Armies that people grow tired only to feed the flames and nations exhaust themselves for nothing?

¹⁴ But the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD'S glory like the water covers the sea.

¹⁵ "How horrible it will be for the one who makes his neighbor drink from the bowl of God's rage, making him drunk in order to stare at his nakedness.'

¹⁶ You are filled with disgrace rather than glory. Drink! Yes you! And expose yourself as godless. The cup in the LORD'S right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

¹⁷ The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction done to the animals will terrify you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

¹⁸ "What benefit is there in a carved idol when its maker has carved it? What benefit is there in a molded statue, a teacher of lies, when its maker has molded it? The one who formed it trusts himself to make worthless idols that cannot speak.

¹⁹ How horrible it will be for the one who says to a piece of wood, "Wake up!" and to a stone that cannot talk, "Get up!" Can that thing teach anyone? Just look at it! It's covered with gold and silver, but there's absolutely no life in it."

²⁰ The LORD is in his holy temple. All the earth should be silent in his presence.

3 ¹ A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk; according to shigionoth.

² LORD, I have heard the report about you. LORD, I fear your work. In the course of the years, renew it. In the course of the years, reveal it. In all this chaos, remember to be merciful.

³ God comes from Teman. The Holy One comes from Mount Paran. Selah His splendor covers the heavens. His praise fills the earth.

⁴ His brightness is like the sunlight. Rays of light stream from his hand. That is where his power is hidden.

⁵ Diseases go ahead of him. Plagues follow after him.

⁶ He stands and shakes the earth. He casts a glance and startles the nations. The oldest mountains break apart. The ancient hills sink. The ancient paths belong to him.

⁷ I see trouble in the tents of Cushan. I see trembling in the tents of Midian.

⁹ You get your bow ready for action, for the arrows you promised. Selah You split the land with rivers.

¹⁰ The mountains look at you. They writhe in pain. Floodwaters pass by. The deep ocean roars. Its waves rise up high.

¹¹ The sun and the moon stand still.
They scatter at the light of your arrows, at the bright lightning of your spear.

¹² You march through the earth with fury. You trample the nations in anger.

¹³ You go out to save your people, to save your anointed. You crush the leader of the wicked household, stripping him bare from head to toe. Selah

¹⁴ You pierce the leader of his gang with his own arrows. His soldiers come like a violent storm to scatter me. They are arrogant like those who secretly eat up the poor.

¹⁵ You march with your horses into the sea, into the mighty raging waters.

¹⁶ I have heard, so there's trembling within me. At the report my lips quivered. A rotten feeling has entered me. I tremble where I stand. I wait for the day of trouble to come to the people who will attack us.

¹⁷ Even if the fig tree does not bloom and the vines have no grapes, even if the olive tree fails to produce and the fields yield no food, even if the sheep pen is empty and the stalls have no cattle—

¹⁸ even then, I will be happy with the LORD. I will truly find joy in God, who saves me.

¹⁹ The LORD Almighty is my strength. He makes my feet like those of a deer. He makes me walk on the mountains. For the choir director; on stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1 ¹ This is the word that the LORD spoke to Zephaniah, who was the son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, and the great-grandson of Amariah, son of Hezekiah. The LORD spoke his word in the days of Judah's King Josiah, son of Amon.

² "I will gather everything on the face of the earth and put an end to it," declares the LORD.

³ "I will put an end to humans and animals. I will put an end to the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea, and the sins that make people fall, together with the sinners. I will remove all people from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.

⁴ "I will use my power against Judah and against those who live in Jerusalem. I will remove the faithful few of Baal from this place and the names of the pagan priests along with my priests.

⁵ I will remove those who worship all the stars in the sky on their rooftops and those who worship by swearing loyalty to the LORD while also swearing loyalty to the god Milcom.

⁶ I will remove those who have turned away from following the LORD and those who no longer seek the LORD or ask him for help."

⁷ Be silent in the presence of the Almighty LORD, because the day of the LORD is near. The LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has invited his special guests.

⁸ "On the day of the LORD'S sacrifice I will punish the officials, the king's sons, and all who dress in foreign clothing.

⁹ On that day I will punish all who jump over the doorway and all who fill their master's house with violence and deception.

¹⁰ On that day a loud cry will come from Fish Gate, a howling from the Second Part of the city, and a loud crashing sound from the hills," declares the LORD.

¹¹ "Howl, inhabitants of the Mortar, because all the merchants will be destroyed and all who handle money will be killed.

¹² "At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are satisfied with their hardened lifestyle, who think that the LORD won't do anything—good or bad.

¹³ Their wealth will be looted. Their homes will be demolished. They will build houses, but they won't live in them. They will plant vineyards, but they won't drink their wine."

¹⁴ The frightening day of the LORD is near. It is near and coming very quickly.

Listen! Warriors will cry out bitterly on the day of the LORD.

¹⁵ That day will be a day of overflowing fury, a day of trouble and distress, a day of devastation and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and overcast skies,

¹⁶ a day of rams' horns and battle cries against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.

¹⁷ "I will bring such distress on humans that they will walk like they are blind, because they have sinned against the LORD." Their blood will be poured out like dust and their intestines like manure.

¹⁸ Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them on the day of the LORD'S overflowing fury. The whole earth will be consumed by his fiery anger, because he will put an end, a frightening end, to those who live on earth.

2 ¹ Gather yourselves together! Yes, gather together, you shameless nation, ² before the decree is carried out and the day passes like windblown husks, before the LORD'S burning anger comes to you, before the day of the LORD'S anger comes to you.

³ Search for the LORD, all you humble people in the land who carry out his justice. Search for what is right. Search for humility. Maybe you will find shelter on the day of the LORD'S anger.

⁴ Gaza will be deserted, and Ashkelon will be destroyed. Ashdod will be driven out at noon, and Ekron will be torn out by the roots.

⁵ How horrible it will be for those who live on the seacoast, for the nation from Crete. The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines:

"I will destroy you so that no one will be living there."

⁶ The seacoast will become pastureland with meadows for shepherds and fenced-off places for sheep.

⁷ The coast will belong to the faithful few from the nation of Judah. There they will graze their sheep. In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. The LORD their God will take care of them and will restore their fortunes.

⁸ "I have heard the insults from Moab and the mockery from Ammon. They insulted my people and bragged about their territory.

⁹ Therefore, I solemnly swear, as I live," declares the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, "Moab will become like Sodom, and Ammon will become like Gomorrah: a place of weeds, salt pits, and ruins forever. The faithful few of my people will loot them, and those who are left in my nation will take possession of them."

¹⁰ This is what they will get for their sinful pride, because they insulted the people who belong to the LORD of Armies and made themselves greater than them.

¹¹ The LORD will terrify them, because he will make all the gods of the earth waste away. So every person from every coast and nation will bow to him.

¹² "Even you, the people from Sudan, you will also die by my sword."

¹³ The LORD will use his power against the north and destroy Assyria. He will turn Nineveh into a deserted ruin, a dried up wasteland like the desert.

¹⁴ Flocks will lie down in it along with animals of every kind. Even pelicans and herons will nest on top of its columns. Listen! A bird will sing in a window. The doorway will be in ruins, because the LORD will expose the cedar beams.

¹⁵ Is this the arrogant city? Is this the city that used to live securely, the city that used to think to itself, "I'm the only one, and no one else exists but me"? What a wasteland it is now, a resting place for wild animals! All who pass by it will hiss and make an obscene gesture.

3 ¹ How horrible it will be for that rebellious and corrupt place, the city of violence.

² It obeys no one. It does not accept correction. It does not trust the LORD. It does not draw close to its God.

³ Its officials are like roaring lions. Its judges are like wolves in the evening. They leave nothing to gnaw on for the morning.

⁴ Its prophets are reckless and unfaithful. Its priests contaminate what is holy. They violate the teachings.

⁵ The righteous LORD is in that city. He does no wrong. He brings his judgment to light every morning. He does not fail. But those who are perverted are shameless.

⁶ "I will cut off the nations. Their towers will be destroyed. I will demolish their streets. No one will walk through them. Their cities will be completely destroyed. Not a single person will be left. No one will be living there.

⁷ I said to my people, 'You will fear me. You will accept correction!' Then their homeland would not be wiped out even though I have punished them. Still, they continued to be corrupt in everything they did."

⁸ The LORD declares, "Just wait! One day I will stand up as a witness. I have decided to gather nations, to bring kingdoms together, and to pour my rage, my burning anger, on them. The whole land will be consumed by my fiery fury.

⁹ "Then I will give all people pure lips to worship the LORD and to serve him with one purpose.

¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Sudan my worshipers, my scattered people, will bring my offering.

¹¹ On that day you will no longer be ashamed of all your rebellious acts against me. Then I will remove your arrogance and never again will you act proud on my holy mountain.

¹² So with you I will leave a faithful few, a humble and poor people. They will seek refuge in the name of the LORD.

¹³ The faithful few in Israel will not do wrong, tell lies, or use their tongues to deceive others. They will graze their sheep and lie down, and there will be no one to terrify them."

¹⁴ Sing happily, people of Zion! Shout loudly, Israel! Celebrate and rejoice with all your heart, people of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ The LORD has reversed the judgments against you. He has forced out your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is with you. You will never fear disaster again.

¹⁶ On that day Jerusalem will be told, "Do not be afraid, Zion! Do not lose courage!"

¹⁷ The LORD your God is with you. He is a hero who saves you. He happily rejoices over you, renews you with his love, and celebrates over you with shouts of joy.

¹⁸ "I will gather those among you who are troubled because of the festivals. They bear a burden of disgrace.

¹⁹ At that time I will deal with all who have overpowered you. I will rescue those who are lame. I will gather those who have been scattered. I will make them praised and famous in all the world, though they had been ashamed.

²⁰ At that time I will bring you home. Yes, at that time I will gather you together. I will make you famous and praised among all the people of the earth when I restore your fortunes right before your eyes," says the LORD.

Haggai

1 ¹ On the first day of the sixth month in Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah) and to the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak). He said,

² "This is what the LORD of Armies says: These people say it's not the right time to rebuild the house of the LORD."

³ Then the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said,

⁴ "Is it time for you to live in your paneled houses while this house lies in ruins?

⁵ Now, this is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

⁶ You planted a lot, but you harvested little. You eat, but you're never full. You drink, but you're still thirsty. You wear clothing, but you never have enough to keep you warm. You spend money as fast as you earn it.

⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

⁸ "Go to the mountains, get lumber, and build the house. I will be pleased with it, and I will be honored," declares the LORD.

⁹ "You expected a lot, but you received a little. When you bring something home, I blow it away. Why?" declares the LORD of Armies. "It's because my house lies in ruins while each of you is busy working on your own house.

¹⁰ It is because of you that the sky has withheld its dew and the earth has withheld its produce.

¹¹ I called for a drought on the land, the hills, and on the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and whatever the ground produces, on humans and animals, and on all your hard work."

¹² Then Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon obeyed the LORD their God. They also obeyed the words of the prophet Haggai because the LORD their God had sent him and because the people feared the LORD.

¹³ Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD who had received the LORD'S message, said to the people, "I am with you, declares the LORD."

¹⁴ The LORD inspired them to rebuild his house. So Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon began working on the house of the LORD of Armies, their God.

¹⁵ They began on the twenty–fourth day of the sixth month in Darius’ second year as king.

2 ¹ On the twenty–first day of the seventh month, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said, ² "Now, speak to Zerubbabel (who is the son of Shealtiel and is governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who is the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon.

³ Ask them, ‘Is there anyone among the faithful few who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn’t it seem like nothing to you?’

⁴ "But now, Zerubbabel, be strong," declares the LORD. "Chief Priest Joshua (son of Jehozadak), be strong. Everyone in the land, be strong," declares the LORD. "Work, because I am with you," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁵ "This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains with you. Don't be afraid.

⁶ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: Once again, in a little while, I am going to shake the sky and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

⁷ I will shake all the nations, and the one whom all the nations desire will come. Then I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of Armies.

⁸ The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of Armies.

⁹ This new house will be more glorious than the former, declares the LORD of Armies. And in this place I will give them peace, declares the LORD of Armies."

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month in Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Haggai. He said, ¹¹ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: Ask the priests for a decision.

¹² Suppose a person carries meat set aside for a holy purpose and he folds it up in his clothes. If his clothes touch bread, boiled food, wine, oil, or any kind of food, does that make the food holy?" The priests answered, "No."

¹³ Haggai asked, "Suppose a person becomes unclean by touching a corpse. If he touches any of these things, does that make them unclean?" The priests answered, "That makes them unclean."

¹⁴ Then Haggai answered, "In the same way, I have decided that these people are unclean, and so is this nation, declares the LORD. So is everything they do. Whatever offering they bring is unclean.

¹⁵ "And from now on, carefully consider this. Consider how things were before one stone was laid on another in the temple of the LORD.

¹⁶ When anyone came to a pile of grain to get 20 measures, there would be only 10. And when anyone came to a wine vat to draw out 50 measures, there would be only 20 in it.

¹⁷ I infested all your work with blight and mildew and struck it with hail. But you didn't come back to me, declares the LORD.

¹⁸ Carefully consider from now on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day when the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. Carefully consider:

¹⁹ Is there any seed left in the barn? The vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still haven't produced. But from now on I will bless you."

²⁰ The LORD spoke his word to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month. He said, ²¹ "Say to Zerubbabel (governor of Judah), 'I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

²² I will overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of nations. I will overthrow chariots and their riders, and the horses will fall along with their riders. They will kill one another with swords.

²³ On that day, declares the LORD of Armies, I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel (son of Shealtiel), declares the LORD. I will make you like a signet ring, because I have chosen you, declares the LORD of Armies.'"

Zechariah

1 ¹ In the eighth month of Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo. He said, ² "The LORD was very angry with your ancestors.

³ Tell the people, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Return to me, declares the LORD of Armies, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Armies.'

⁴ Don't be like your ancestors, who heard the earlier prophets preach to them, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds.' But they didn't listen or pay attention to me, declares the LORD.

⁵ Your ancestors—where are they now?
And the prophets—are they still alive?

⁶ Didn't my warnings and my laws, which I've commanded my servants the prophets to preach, finally catch up with your ancestors? Then your ancestors turned away from their sins and said,
'The LORD of Armies has done to us what he had planned to do. He has dealt with us as our ways and deeds deserve.'"

⁷ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat) in Darius' second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo.

⁸ During that night I saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, chestnut, and white horses.

⁹ "What do these horses mean, sir?" I asked. The angel who was speaking with me answered, "I will show you what they mean."

¹⁰ The man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They're the horses the LORD has sent to patrol the earth."

¹¹ Then they reported to the Messenger of the LORD standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth. The whole world is at rest and in peace."

¹² Then the Messenger of the LORD said, "LORD of Armies, how much longer until you show compassion to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You've been angry with them for 70 years."

¹³ The LORD responded to the angel who was speaking with me, using kind and comforting words.

¹⁴ The angel who was speaking with me said, "Announce: This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm very jealous about Jerusalem and Zion, ¹⁵ and I'm very angry with the nations who think they are at ease. I was only a little angry, but they made things worse.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD of Armies says: I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion. My house will be rebuilt in it, declares the LORD of Armies. A measuring line will be used to rebuild Jerusalem.

¹⁷ "Announce again: This is what the LORD of Armies says: My cities will overflow with prosperity once more. The LORD will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem."

¹⁸ I looked up and saw four animal horns.

¹⁹ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these horns mean?" He said to me, "These are the horns of the nations that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

²⁰ Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

²¹ I asked, "What are they going to do?" He answered, "Those horns scattered Judah so widely that no one could lift up his head. But the craftsmen have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations. The nations raised their horns to scatter the land of Judah."

2 ¹ I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

² I asked him, "Where are you going?" He answered, "I am going to measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is."

³ Then the angel who was speaking with me left. Another angel came out to meet him

⁴ and said to him, "Run, and say to that young man, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited like an unwallled village because it will have so many people and animals in it.

⁵ I will be a wall of fire around it, declares the LORD. I will be the glory within it.'

⁶ "Hurry, hurry! Flee from the land of the north, declares the LORD. I've scattered you to the four winds of heaven.

⁷ Hurry, Zion! Escape, you inhabitants of Babylon!

⁸ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Afterwards, the Glory sent me to the nations who looted you. Whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye.

⁹ I'm going to shake my fist at the nations, and their own slaves will loot them. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me.

¹⁰ Sing for joy and rejoice, people of Zion. I'm going to come and live among you, declares the LORD.

¹¹ On that day many nations will join the LORD and become my people. I will live among you. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

¹² The LORD will claim Judah as his own in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.

¹³ "Everyone be silent in the presence of the LORD. He is waking up and setting out from his holy dwelling place."

3¹ Then he showed me Joshua, the chief priest, standing in front of the Messenger of the LORD. Satan the Accuser was standing at Joshua's right side to accuse him.

² The LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, silence you, Satan! I, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, silence you! Isn't this man like a burning log snatched from a fire?"

³ Joshua was wearing filthy clothes and was standing in front of the Messenger.

⁴ The Messenger said to those who were standing in front of him, "Remove Joshua's filthy clothes." Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have taken your sin away from you, and I will dress you in fine clothing."

⁵ So I said, "Put a clean turban on his head." They put a clean turban on his head and dressed him while the Messenger of the LORD was standing there.

⁶ The Messenger of the LORD advised Joshua,

⁷ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: If you live according to my ways and follow my requirements, you will govern my temple and watch over my courtyards. Then I will give you free access to walk among those standing here.

⁸ "Listen, Chief Priest Joshua and your friends sitting with you. These men are a sign of things to come: I'm going to bring my servant, the Branch.

⁹ "Look at the stone I have set in front of Joshua. That one stone has seven eyes. I am engraving an inscription on it," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will remove this land's sin in a single day.

¹⁰ On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree."

4 ¹ The angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me up as one might wake up someone who is sleeping.

² He asked me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a solid gold lamp stand with a bowl on top and seven lamps on it. There are seven spouts for each lamp that is on top of it.

³ There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

⁴ I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these things mean, sir?"

⁵ Then the angel asked me, "Don't you know what they mean?" "No, sir," I answered.

⁶ Then he replied, "This is the word the LORD spoke to Zerubbabel: You won't succeed by might or by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Armies.

⁷ What a high mountain you are! In front of Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the topmost stone with shouts of 'Blessings, blessings on it!'"

⁸ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹ "Zerubbabel's hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

¹⁰ Who despised the day when little things began to happen? They will be delighted when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand. (These seven eyes of the LORD roam over all the earth.)"

¹¹ I asked the angel, "What do these two olive trees at the right and the left of the lamp stand mean?"

¹² Again I asked him, "What is the meaning of the two branches from the olive trees next to the two golden pipes that are pouring out gold?"

¹³ He asked me, "Don't you know what these things mean?" "No, sir," I answered.

¹⁴ So he said, "These are the two anointed ones who are standing beside the Lord of the whole earth."

5 ¹ I looked up again and saw a flying scroll.

² The angel asked me, "What do you see?" "I see a flying scroll," I answered. "It's 30 feet long and 15 feet wide."

³ Then he said to me, "This is a curse that will go out all over the earth. The one side of the scroll says that every thief will be forced away. The other side of the scroll says that everyone who takes an oath will be forced away."

⁴ I will send out a curse, declares the LORD of Armies, and it will enter the houses of thieves and the houses of those who take oaths in my name. It will stay in their houses and destroy the timber and stone."

⁵ The angel who was speaking with me came forward. He said, "Look up, and see what's coming."

⁶ "What is it?" I asked. "A basket is coming," he said. Then he added, "This is what the people's sins look like all over the earth."

⁷ A lead cover on the basket was raised, and a woman was sitting in the basket.

⁸ The angel said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and forced the lead cover down on top of it.

⁹ I looked up and saw two women coming forward with wind in their wings. They had wings like those of a stork. They carried the basket into the sky.

¹⁰ I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

¹¹ He answered me, "They are going to build a house for it in Shinar [Babylonia]. When the house is ready, they will set the basket there on a stand."

6 ¹ I looked up again and saw four chariots going out from between the two mountains. They were mountains of bronze.

² The first chariot had red horses. The second had black horses.

³ The third had white horses. And the fourth had strong, spotted horses.

⁴ I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these horses mean, sir?"

⁵ The angel answered, "They are the four spirits of heaven. They are going out after standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶ The chariot with the black horses is going toward the north, and the white horses are following them. The spotted ones are going toward the south."

⁷ When these strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. He said, "Go, patrol the earth!" And they patrolled the earth.

⁸ Then he called out to me, "Look! Those who went to the north have made my Spirit rest in the north."

⁹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁰ "Take an offering from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon. This same day go to the house of Josiah, son of Zephaniah.

¹¹ Take the silver and gold, make a crown, and put it on the head of Chief Priest Joshua, son of Jehozadak.

¹² Then say to him, 'This is what the LORD of Armies says: Here is the man whose name is Branch. He will branch out from where he is, and he will rebuild the LORD'S temple.

¹³ He will rebuild the LORD'S temple and receive royal honor. He will sit and rule from his throne. He will be a priest on his throne. There will be a peaceful understanding between them.

¹⁴ The crown will be a reminder to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen (son of Zephaniah) in the LORD'S temple.

¹⁵ Those who are far away will come and rebuild the LORD'S temple. Then you will know the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen if you obey the LORD your God completely."

7 ¹ On the fourth day of the ninth month (the month of Chislev) in Darius' fourth year as king, the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah.

² Now, the people from Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech with their men to ask the LORD for a blessing.

³ They asked the priests from the house of the LORD of Armies as well as the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done for so many years?"

⁴ Then the LORD of Armies spoke his word to me. He said,

⁵ "Tell all the people of the land and the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these past 70 years, did you really do it for me?

⁶ When you ate and drank, didn't you do it to benefit yourselves?

⁷ Aren't these the same words that the LORD announced through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding cities were inhabited and undisturbed and the Negev and the foothills were still inhabited?"

⁸ Then the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah. He said,

⁹ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: Administer real justice, and be compassionate and kind to each other.

¹⁰ Don't oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and poor people. And don't even think of doing evil to each other.

¹¹ "But people refused to pay attention. They shrugged their shoulders at me and shut their ears so that they couldn't hear.

¹² They made their hearts as hard as flint so that they couldn't hear the LORD'S teachings, the words that the LORD of Armies had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the LORD of Armies became very angry.

¹³ "When I called, they wouldn't listen. So now when they call, I won't listen, says the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴ I used a windstorm to scatter them among all the nations, nations they hadn't even heard of. They left behind a land so ruined that no one is able to travel through it. They have turned a pleasant land into a wasteland."

8 ¹ The LORD of Armies spoke his word.

² This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am very jealous about Zion. I am fiercely possessive of it.

³ This is what the LORD says: I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem.

Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth. The mountain of the LORD of Armies will be called the holy mountain.

⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem. Each will have a cane in hand because of old age.

⁵ The city will be filled with boys and girls playing in the streets.

⁶ This is what the LORD of Armies says: It may seem impossible to the few remaining people in those days, but will it seem impossible to me? declares the LORD of Armies.

⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am going to save my people from the land where the sun rises and from the land where the sun sets.

⁸ I will bring them back, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, who is faithful and just.

⁹ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Be strong so that the temple might be rebuilt, you people who are presently listening to the words from the mouths of the prophets who spoke when the foundation for the house of the LORD of Armies was laid.

¹⁰ Before that time there was no money to hire any person or animal. No one who traveled was safe from the enemy. I turned every person against his neighbor.

¹¹ But now I won't deal with the few remaining people as I did in earlier times, declares the LORD of Armies.

¹² Seeds will thrive in peacetime. Vines will produce their grapes. The land will yield its crops. The sky will produce its dew. I will give the few remaining people all these things as an inheritance.

¹³ Just as you, people of Judah and people of Israel, have been a curse among the nations, so I will now save you, and you will become a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands work hard.

¹⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies says: When your ancestors made me angry, I made plans to destroy you, declares the LORD of Armies, and I didn't change my plans.

¹⁵ So now I have again made plans, but this time to do good to Jerusalem and the people of Judah. Don't be afraid.

¹⁶ You must do these things: Speak the truth to each other. Give correct and fair verdicts for peace in your courts.

¹⁷ Don't even think of doing evil to each other. Don't enjoy false testimony. I hate all these things, declares the LORD.

¹⁸ The LORD of Armies spoke his word to me again.

¹⁹ This is what the LORD of Armies says: The fast in the fourth month, the fast in the fifth month, the fast in the seventh month, and the fast in the tenth month will become joyful and glad occasions as well as happy festivals for the nation of Judah. So love truth and peace.

²⁰ This is what the LORD of Armies says: People and citizens from many cities are going to come.

²¹ The citizens of one city will come to another city, saying, "Let's make a habit of going to ask the LORD for a blessing and to seek the LORD of Armies. I'm also going."

²² Many people and powerful nations will come to seek the LORD of Armies in Jerusalem and to ask the LORD for a blessing.

²³ This is what the LORD of Armies says: In those days ten people from every language found among the nations will take hold of the clothes of a Jew. They will say, "Let us go with you because we have heard that God is with you."

9¹ This is the divine revelation. The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest on Damascus

² and also Hamath, which borders on it, and Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise. (The eyes of humanity and of all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD.)

³ Tyre built itself a fortress. It piled up silver like dust and gold like mud in the streets.

⁴ The Lord will take away its possessions. He will throw its wealth into the sea and burn the city down.

⁵ Ashkelon will see this and be afraid. Gaza will also be in great pain, also Ekron, because its hope will fade. Gaza will lose its king. Ashkelon will no longer be lived in.

⁶ A mixed race will live in Ashdod, and I will cut off the Philistines' arrogance.

⁸ I will camp in front of my house as a guard against those who come and go. No oppressors will pass through them, because I have seen it with my own eyes.

⁹ Rejoice with all your heart, people of Zion! Shout in triumph, people of Jerusalem! Look! Your King is coming to you: He is righteous and victorious. He is humble and rides on a donkey, on a colt, a young pack animal.

¹⁰ He will make sure there are no chariots in Ephraim or war horses in Jerusalem. There will be no battle bows. He will announce peace to the nations. He will rule from sea to sea and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ I will set your captives free from the waterless pit because of the blood that sealed my promise to you.

¹² Return to your fortress, you captives who have hope. Today I tell you that I will return to you double blessings.

¹³ I will bend Judah as my bow and draw my bow with Ephraim as its arrow. I will stir up your people, Zion, against your people, Greece, and I will use you like a warrior's sword.

¹⁴ The LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will go out like lightning. The Almighty LORD will blow the ram's horn and will march in the storms from the south.

¹⁵ The LORD of Armies will defend them. They will destroy and trample the stones used in slings. They will drink and shout as if they were drunk. They will be filled like a sacrificial bowl used for sprinkling the corners of the altar.

¹⁶ On that day the LORD their God will rescue them as the flock of his people. They will certainly sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

¹⁷ They will be beautiful and lovely. Young men will prosper on grain, and young women will prosper on new wine.

10 ¹ Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime. The LORD makes thunderstorms. He gives everyone rain showers for the plants in the field.

² The idols speak lies. The fortunetellers see false visions. They speak about false dreams. They give useless comfort. That is why people wander around like sheep. They are troubled because there is no shepherd.

³ "My burning anger is directed against the shepherds. I will punish the male goats. The LORD of Armies takes care of his flock, the people of Judah. He makes them like his splendid war horse."

⁴ From them will come a cornerstone, from them a tent peg, from them a battle bow, from them every leader.

⁵ Together they will be like warriors who trample the enemy in the mud on the streets. They will fight because the LORD is with them. They will put to shame those who ride on horses.

⁶ "I will strengthen the people of Judah. I will rescue Joseph's people. I will bring them back, because I have compassion for them. It will be as though I had never rejected them, because I am the LORD their God, and I will answer them.

⁷ The people of Ephraim will be like mighty warriors. Their hearts will be glad as if they had some wine to drink. Their sons will see it and be glad. Their hearts will find joy in the LORD.

⁸ I will signal them with a whistle and gather them because I have reclaimed them. They will be as numerous as they have ever been.

⁹ Although I have scattered them among the nations, they will remember me even in faraway places. They will live with their children and then return.

¹⁰ I will bring them back from Egypt. I will gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to Gilead and to Lebanon, and there won't be enough room for them."

¹¹ The LORD will pass through a sea of distress, strike the waves in the sea, and dry up all the deep places of the Nile River. The pride of Assyria will be humiliated, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

¹² "I will strengthen them in the LORD. They will live in his name," declares the LORD.

11 ¹ Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire will be able to burn down your cedars.

² Cry, cypress trees, because the cedars have fallen and the stately trees have been destroyed. Cry, oak trees of Bashan, because your dense forest has fallen down.

³ Listen! The shepherds are crying, because their rich pastures are destroyed. Listen! The young lions are roaring, because the lush banks of the Jordan are destroyed.

⁴ This is what the LORD my God says: Take care of the sheep that are about to be slaughtered.

⁵ Those who buy them will kill them and go unpunished. Those who sell them will say, "Praise the LORD! I've become rich!" Even their own shepherds will have no pity on them.

⁶ The LORD declares, "I will no longer have pity on those who live in the land. I am going to hand the people over to their neighbors and their king, who will crush the land. And I won't rescue any of them from their power."

⁷ So I became the shepherd of the sheep that were to be slaughtered and also of the oppressed sheep. I took two shepherd staffs and named one Favor and the other Unity. And I took care of the sheep.

⁸ I got rid of three shepherds in one month. I became impatient with the sheep, and they also became disgusted with me.

⁹ So I said, "I won't be your shepherd. Let those that are dying die. Let those that are missing stay missing. And let those that are left devour each other."

¹⁰ Then I took my staff called Favor and broke it in pieces, to break the promise that I had made to all the nations.

¹¹ So it was broken on that day, and the oppressed among the sheep who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

¹² Then I said to them, "If it's alright with you, pay me my wages. But if it's not, don't." And they paid me my wages—30 pieces of silver.

¹³ The LORD told me, "Give it to the potter." So I took the 30 pieces of silver. Such a magnificent price was set by them! I gave the pieces of silver to the potter at the house of the LORD.

¹⁴ Then I broke my second staff, called Unity, in pieces, to break off the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to me, "Use the equipment of a foolish shepherd again.

¹⁶ I'm about to place a shepherd in the land. He will not take care of those that are dying. He will not search for the young. He will not heal those that have broken their legs or support those that can still stand. But he will eat the meat of the fat animals and tear off their hoofs.

¹⁷ "How horrible it will be for the foolish shepherd who abandoned the sheep. A sword will strike his arm and his right eye. His arm will be completely withered. His right eye will be completely blind."

12 ¹ This is the prophetic revelation, the word of the LORD about Israel. The LORD—who spread out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit in a person—says, ² "I'm going to make Jerusalem like a cup of wine that makes all the surrounding people stagger. They will attack Judah along with Jerusalem.

³ On that day I will make Jerusalem a stone too heavy for all the nations to lift. All who try to lift it will be severely injured. All the nations in the world will gather to fight against Jerusalem."

⁴ The LORD declares, "On that day I will strike every horse with panic and every rider with madness. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will strike all the horses of the nations blind.

⁵ Then the leaders of Judah will think to themselves, 'The people who live in Jerusalem are strong because of the LORD of Armies, their God.'

⁷ "The LORD will save Judah's tents first so that the honor of David's family and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem will not be greater than the honor of Judah.

⁸ On that day the LORD will defend those who live in Jerusalem so that even those who stumble will be like David, and David's family will be like God, like the Messenger of the LORD ahead of them.

⁹ "On that day I will seek to destroy all the nations who attack Jerusalem.

¹⁰ "I will pour out the Spirit of blessing and mercy on David's family and on those who live in Jerusalem. They will look at me, whom they have stabbed. Then they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son, and they will cry bitterly for him as one cries for a firstborn son.

¹¹ On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as intense as the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

¹² The land will mourn, each family by itself: the family of David by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Nathan by itself, and the wives by themselves;

¹³ the family of Levi by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and the wives by themselves.

¹⁴ All the families that are left will mourn, each by itself, and the wives by themselves."

13 ¹ The LORD declares, "On that day a fountain will be opened for David's family and for those who live in Jerusalem to wash away their sin and stain.

² "On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "I will wipe away the names of the idols from the land. They will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the false prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

³ "If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will say, 'You don't deserve to live because you speak lies in the name of the LORD.' Then his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will stab him when he prophesies.

⁴ "On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He won't deceive people by dressing like a prophet in a coat made of hair.

⁵ He will say, 'I am not a prophet. I'm a farmer. I've owned this land since I was a child.'

⁶ "When someone asks him, 'What are these scars on your chest?' he will answer, 'I was hurt at my friend's house.'

⁷ "Arise, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my friend," declares the LORD of Armies. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. Then I will turn my hand against the little ones."

⁸ The LORD declares, "Throughout the land two-thirds will be cut off and die. Yet, one-third will be left in it.

⁹ I will bring this third of the people through the fire. I will refine them as silver is refined. I will test them as gold is tested. They will call on me, and I will answer them. I will say, 'They are my people.' They will reply, 'The LORD is our God.'"

14 ¹ A day is going to come for the LORD when the loot you have taken will be divided among you.

² I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half of the people in the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people won't be taken from the city.

³ Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as he does when he fights a battle.

⁴ On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, just east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will be split in two, forming a very large valley from east to west. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and the other half will move toward the south.

⁵ Then you will flee to the valley of my mountains, because this valley between the mountains will go as far as Azel. You will flee as you did from the earthquake at the time of King Uzziah of Judah. The LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones will be with him.

⁶ On that day there will be neither heat nor freezing cold.

⁷ There will be one day—a day known to the LORD—with no difference between day and night. It will be light even in the evening.

⁸ On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it to the Dead Sea and the other half to the Mediterranean Sea. It will continue in summer and in winter.

⁹ The LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be the only Lord and his name the only name.

¹⁰ The whole earth will become like the plains from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will rise and remain on its site, from Benjamin Gate to the place of First Gate, Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

¹¹ People will live there, and it will never be threatened with destruction. Jerusalem will live securely.

¹² This will be the plague the LORD will use to strike all the people from the nations that have gone to war against Jerusalem. Their flesh will rot while they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

¹³ On that day a large-scale panic from the LORD will spread among them. One person will grab the hand of another, and one will attack the other.

¹⁴ Judah will also fight in Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected, a very large amount of gold, silver, and clothes.

¹⁵ A similar plague will also affect horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all other animals in those camps.

¹⁶ Everyone who is left from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will come every year to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

¹⁷ If any of the families on the earth won't go to Jerusalem to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, then rain won't fall on them.

¹⁸ If the people of Egypt won't go or enter Jerusalem, then rain won't fall on them. The plague the LORD uses to strike the nations will affect those who won't come to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

¹⁹ This will be the punishment for Egypt's sin and for the sin of all the nations that won't go to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

²⁰ On that day "Holy to the LORD" will be written on the bells of the horses. And the cooking pots in the house of the LORD will be like the bowls in front of the altar.

²¹ Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Armies. All who come to sacrifice will take some of them and cook in them. On that day there will no longer be any Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Armies.

Malachi

1 ¹ This is a divine revelation. The LORD spoke his word to Israel through Malachi.

² "I loved you," says the LORD. "But you ask, 'How did you love us?' "Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "I loved Jacob, ³ but Esau I hated. I turned his mountains into a wasteland and left his inheritance to the jackals in the desert.

⁴ "The descendants of Esau may say, 'We have been beaten down, but we will rebuild the ruins.' "Yet, this is what the LORD of Armies says: They may rebuild, but I will tear it down. They will be called 'the Wicked Land' and 'the people with whom the LORD is always angry.'

⁵ You will see these things with your own eyes and say, 'Even outside the borders of Israel the LORD is great.'

⁶ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. So if I am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is my respect? You priests despise my name. "But you ask, 'How have we despised your name?'

⁷ "You offer contaminated food on my altar. "But you ask, 'Then how have we contaminated you?' "When you say that the LORD'S table may be despised.

⁸ When you bring a blind animal to sacrifice, isn't that wrong? When you bring a lame or a sick animal, isn't that wrong? Try offering it to your governor. Would he accept it from you? Would he welcome you?" asks the LORD of Armies.

⁹ "Now try asking God to be kind to you. This is what you are doing! Will he welcome you?" asks the LORD of Armies.

¹⁰ "I wish one of you would shut the doors to my house so that you could not light fires on my altar for no reason. I'm not pleased with you," says the LORD of Armies, "and I won't accept your offerings.

¹¹ "From the nations where the sun rises to the nations where the sun sets, my name will be great. Incense and pure offerings will be offered everywhere in my name, because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD of Armies.

¹² "But you dishonor it when you say that the Lord's table may be contaminated and that its food may be despised.

¹³ "You say, 'Oh what a nuisance it is,' and you sniff at it in disgust," says the LORD of Armies. "You bring stolen, lame, and sick animals. When you bring such offerings, should I accept them from you?" asks the LORD.

¹⁴ "Cheaters are under a curse. They have male animals in their flocks that they vow to give as a sacrifice. But they sacrifice second-rate ones to the Lord instead. I am a great king," says the LORD of Armies. "Among the nations my name is respected.

2 ¹ "And now, you priests, this warning is for you.

² If you won't listen and if you won't consider giving honor to my name," says the LORD of Armies, "then I'll send a curse on you, and I'll curse the blessings you give. Yes, I've already cursed them because you don't carefully consider this.

³ "I'm going to punish your descendants. I'm going to spread excrement on your faces, the excrement from your festival sacrifices. You will be discarded with it.

⁴ Then you will know that I sent you this warning so that my promise to Levi will continue," says the LORD of Armies.

⁵ "I promised Levi life and peace. I gave them to him so that he would respect me. He respected me and stood in awe of my name.

⁶ The teaching that came from his mouth was true. Nothing unjust was found on his lips. He lived with me in peace and honesty and turned many people away from sin.

⁷ "A priest's lips should preserve knowledge. Then, because he is the messenger for the LORD of Armies, people will seek instruction from his mouth.

⁸ "But you have turned from the correct path and caused many to stumble over my teachings. You have corrupted the promise made to Levi," says the LORD of Armies.

⁹ "So I have made you disgusting, and I have humiliated you in front of all the people, because you have not followed my ways. You have been unfair when applying my teachings."

¹⁰ Don't all of us have the same father? Hasn't the same God created us? Why are we unfaithful to each other? And why do we dishonor the promise given to our ancestors?

¹¹ Judah has been unfaithful! A disgusting thing has been done in Israel and Jerusalem. Judah has dishonored the holy place that the LORD loves and has married a woman who worships a foreign god.

¹² May the LORD exclude anyone who does this, whoever he may be. May he exclude them from Jacob's tents and from bringing offerings to the LORD of Armies.

¹³ Here is another thing you do: You cover the LORD'S altar with tears. You moan and groan because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them from you.

¹⁴ But you ask, "Why aren't our offerings accepted?" It is because the LORD is a witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been unfaithful. Yet, she is your companion, the wife of your marriage vows.

¹⁵ Didn't God make you one? Your flesh and spirit belong to him. And what does the same God look for but godly descendants? So be careful not to be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.

¹⁶ "I hate divorce," says the LORD God of Israel. "I hate the person who covers himself with violence," says the LORD of Armies. "Be careful not to be unfaithful."

¹⁷ You have tried the patience of the LORD with your words. But you ask, "How have we tried his patience?" When you say, "Everyone who does evil is considered good by the LORD. He is pleased with them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

3 ¹ "I'm going to send my messenger, and he will clear the way ahead of me. Then the Lord you are looking for will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the promise will come. He is the one you want," says the LORD of Armies.

² But who will be able to endure the day he comes? Who will be able to survive on the day he appears? He is like a purifying fire and like a cleansing soap.

³ He will act like a refiner and a purifier of silver. He will purify Levi's sons and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will bring acceptable offerings to the LORD.

⁴ The offerings from Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the past, as in years long ago.

⁵ "I will come to judge you. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers, lying witnesses, and those who cheat workers out of their wages and oppress widows and orphans. I will also testify against those who deprive foreigners of their rights. None of them fear me," says the LORD of Armies.

⁶ "I, the LORD, never change. That is why you descendants of Jacob haven't been destroyed yet.

⁷ Since the time of your ancestors you have turned away from my laws and have not followed them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Armies. "But you ask, 'How can we return?'

⁸ "Can a person cheat God? Yet, you are cheating me! "But you ask, 'How are we cheating you?' "When you don't bring a tenth of your income and other contributions.

⁹ So a curse is on you because the whole nation is cheating me!

¹⁰ "Bring one-tenth of your income into the storehouse so that there may be food in my house. Test me in this way," says the LORD of Armies. "See if I won't open the windows of heaven for you and flood you with blessings.

¹¹ Then, for your sake, I will stop insects from eating your crops. They will not destroy the produce of your land. The vines in your fields will not lose their unripened grapes," says the LORD of Armies.

¹² "All nations will call you blessed because you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of Armies.

¹³ "You have used harsh words against me," says the LORD. "You ask, 'How have we spoken against you?'

¹⁴ "You have said, 'It's pointless to serve God. What do we gain if we meet his standards or if we walk around feeling sorry for what we've done?

¹⁵ So now we call arrogant people blessed. Not only are evildoers encouraged, they even test God and get away with it.'"

¹⁶ Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD paid attention and listened. A book was written in his presence to be a reminder to those who feared the LORD and respected his name.

¹⁷ "They will be mine," says the LORD of Armies. "On that day I will make them my special possession. I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.

¹⁸ Then you will again see the difference between righteous people and wicked people, between the one who serves God and the one who doesn't serve him.

4 ¹ "Certainly the day is coming! It will burn like a furnace. All arrogant people and all evildoers will be like straw. The day that is coming will burn them up completely," says the LORD of Armies. "It won't leave a single root or branch.

² "The Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings for you people who fear my name. You will go out and leap like calves let out of a stall.

³ You will trample on wicked people, because on the day I act they will be ashes under the soles of your feet," says the LORD of Armies.

⁴ "Remember the teachings of my servant Moses, the rules and regulations that I gave to him at Horeb for all Israel.

⁵ "I'm going to send you the prophet Elijah before that very terrifying day of the LORD comes.

⁶ He will change parents' attitudes toward their children and children's attitudes toward their parents. If not, I will come and reclaim my land by destroying you."

Matthew

1 ¹ This is the list of ancestors of Jesus Christ, descendant of David and Abraham.

² Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers.

³ Judah and Tamar were the father and mother of Perez and Zerah. Perez was the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, ⁴ Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon.

⁵ Salmon and Rahab were the father and mother of Boaz. Boaz and Ruth were the father and mother of Obed. Obed was the father of Jesse,

⁶ Jesse the father of King David. David and Uriah's wife Bathsheba were the father and mother of Solomon.

⁷ Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,

⁸ Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, Joram the father of Uzziah,

⁹ Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, ¹⁰ Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah.

¹¹ Josiah was the father of Jechoniah and his brothers. They lived at the time when the people were exiled to Babylon.

¹² After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel,

¹³ Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor,

¹⁴ Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, Achim the father of Eliud,

¹⁵ Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob.

¹⁶ Jacob was the father of Joseph, who was the husband of Mary. Mary was the mother of Jesus, who is called Christ.

¹⁷ So there were 14 generations from Abraham to David, 14 generations from David until the exile to Babylon, 14 generations from the exile until the Messiah.

¹⁸ The birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. His mother Mary had been promised to Joseph in marriage. But before they were married, Mary realized that she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁹ Her husband Joseph was an honorable man and did not want to disgrace her publicly. So he decided to break the marriage agreement with her secretly.

²⁰ Joseph had this in mind when an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. The angel said to him, "Joseph, descendant of David, don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife. She is pregnant by the Holy Spirit.

²¹ She will give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus [He Saves], because he will save his people from their sins."

²² All this happened so that what the Lord had spoken through the prophet came true:

²³ "The virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and they will name him Immanuel," which means "God is with us."

²⁴ When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him to do. He took Mary to be his wife.

²⁵ He did not have marital relations with her before she gave birth to a son. Joseph named the child Jesus.

2 ¹ Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea when Herod was king. After Jesus' birth wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem.

² They asked, "Where is the one who was born to be the king of the Jews? We saw his star rising and have come to worship him."

³ When King Herod and all Jerusalem heard about this, they became disturbed.

⁴ He called together all the chief priests and scribes and tried to find out from them where the Messiah was supposed to be born.

⁵ They told him, "In Bethlehem in Judea. The prophet wrote about this:

⁶ Bethlehem in the land of Judah, you are by no means least among the leaders of Judah. A leader will come from you. He will shepherd my people Israel."

⁷ Then Herod secretly called the wise men and found out from them exactly when the star had appeared.

⁸ As he sent them to Bethlehem, he said, "Go and search carefully for the child. When you have found him, report to me so that I may go and worship him too."

⁹ After they had heard the king, they started out. The star they had seen rising led them until it stopped over the place where the child was.

¹⁰ They were overwhelmed with joy to see the star.

¹¹ When they entered the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary. So they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure chests and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

¹² God warned them in a dream not to go back to Herod. So they left for their country by another road.

¹³ After they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. The angel said to him, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, because Herod intends to search for the child and kill him."

¹⁴ Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and left for Egypt that night.

¹⁵ He stayed there until Herod died. What the Lord had spoken through the prophet came true: "I have called my son out of Egypt."

¹⁶ When Herod saw that the wise men had tricked him, he became furious. He sent soldiers to kill all the boys two years old and younger in or near Bethlehem.

This matched the exact time he had learned from the wise men.

¹⁷ Then the words spoken through the prophet Jeremiah came true:

¹⁸ "A sound was heard in Ramah, the sound of crying in bitter grief. Rachel was crying for her children. She refused to be comforted because they were dead."

¹⁹ After Herod was dead, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt.

²⁰ The angel said to him, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to Israel. Those who tried to kill the child are dead."

²¹ Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to Israel.

²² But when he heard that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as king of Judea, Joseph was afraid to go there. Warned in a dream, he left for Galilee

²³ and made his home in a city called Nazareth. So what the prophets had said came true: "He will be called a Nazarene."

3 ¹ Later, John the Baptizer appeared in the desert of Judea. His message was,

² "Turn to God and change the way you think and act, because the kingdom of heaven is near."

³ Isaiah the prophet spoke about this man when he said, "A voice cries out in the desert: 'Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!'"

⁴ John wore clothes made from camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His diet consisted of locusts and wild honey.

⁵ Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole Jordan Valley went to him.

⁶ As they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

⁷ But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to be baptized, he said to them, "You poisonous snakes! Who showed you how to flee from God's coming anger?"

⁸ Do those things that prove you have turned to God and have changed the way you think and act.

⁹ Don't think you can say, 'Abraham is our ancestor.' I can guarantee that God can raise up descendants for Abraham from these stones.

¹⁰ The ax is now ready to cut the roots of the trees. Any tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into a fire.

¹¹ I baptize you with water so that you will change the way you think and act. But the one who comes after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to remove his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

¹² His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will clean up his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into a barn, but he will burn the husks in a fire that can never be put out."

¹³ Then Jesus appeared. He came from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John.

¹⁴ But John tried to stop him and said, "I need to be baptized by you. Why are you coming to me?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered him, "This is the way it has to be now. This is the proper way to do everything that God requires of us." Then John gave in to him.

¹⁶ After Jesus was baptized, he immediately came up from the water. Suddenly, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down as a dove to him.

¹⁷ Then a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love—my Son with whom I am pleased."

4 ¹ Then the Spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

² Jesus did not eat anything for 40 days and 40 nights. At the end of that time, he was hungry.

³ The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread."

⁴ Jesus answered, "Scripture says, 'A person cannot live on bread alone but on every word that God speaks.'"

⁵ Then the devil took him into the holy city and had him stand on the highest part of the temple.

⁶ He said to Jesus, "If you are the Son of God, jump! Scripture says, 'He will put his angels in charge of you. They will carry you in their hands so that you never hit your foot against a rock.'"

⁷ Jesus said to him, "Again, Scripture says, 'Never tempt the Lord your God.'"

⁸ Once more the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms in the world and their glory.

⁹ The devil said to him, "I will give you all this if you will bow down and worship me."

¹⁰ Jesus said to him, "Go away, Satan! Scripture says, 'Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.'"

¹¹ Then the devil left him, and angels came to take care of him.

¹² When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he went back to Galilee.

¹³ He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. This was in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali.

¹⁴ So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true:

¹⁵ "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, on the way to the sea, across the Jordan River, Galilee, where foreigners live!

¹⁶ The people who lived in darkness have seen a bright light. A light has risen for those who live in a land overshadowed by death."

¹⁷ From then on, Jesus began to tell people, "Turn to God and change the way you think and act, because the kingdom of heaven is near!"

¹⁸ As he was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Andrew. They were throwing a net into the sea because they were fishermen.

¹⁹ Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me! I will teach you how to catch people instead of fish."

²⁰ They immediately left their nets and followed him.

²¹ As Jesus went on, he saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee preparing their nets to go fishing. He called them, ²² and they immediately left the boat and their father and followed Jesus.

²³ Jesus went all over Galilee. He taught in the synagogues and spread the Good News of the kingdom. He also cured every disease and sickness among the people.

²⁴ The news about Jesus spread throughout Syria. People brought him everyone who was sick, those who suffered from any kind of disease or pain. They also brought epileptics, those who were paralyzed, and people possessed by demons, and he cured them all.

²⁵ Large crowds followed him. They came from Galilee, the Ten Cities, Jerusalem, Judea, and from across the Jordan River.

5 ¹ When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up a mountain and sat down. His disciples came to him,

² and he began to teach them:

³ "Blessed are those who recognize they are spiritually helpless. The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn. They will be comforted.

⁵ Blessed are those who are gentle. They will inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for God's approval. They will be satisfied.

⁷ Blessed are those who show mercy. They will be treated mercifully.

⁸ Blessed are those whose thoughts are pure. They will see God.

⁹ Blessed are those who make peace.
They will be called God's children.

¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted for doing what God approves of. The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

¹¹ "Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, lie, and say all kinds of evil things about you because of me.

¹² Rejoice and be glad because you have a great reward in heaven! The prophets who lived before you were persecuted in these ways.

¹³ "You are salt for the earth. But if salt loses its taste, how will it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled on by people.

¹⁴ "You are light for the world. A city cannot be hidden when it is located on a hill.

¹⁵ No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand. Then its light shines on everyone in the house.

¹⁶ In the same way let your light shine in front of people. Then they will see the good that you do and praise your Father in heaven.

¹⁷ "Don't ever think that I came to set aside Moses' Teachings or the Prophets. I didn't come to set them aside but to make them come true.

¹⁸ I can guarantee this truth: Until the earth and the heavens disappear, neither a period nor a comma will disappear from Moses' Teachings before everything has come true.

¹⁹ So whoever sets aside any command that seems unimportant and teaches others to do the same will be unimportant in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever does and teaches what the commands say will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

²⁰ I can guarantee that unless you live a life that has God's approval and do it more faithfully than the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

²¹ "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'Never murder. Whoever murders will answer for it in court.'

²² But I can guarantee that whoever is angry with another believer will answer for it in court. Whoever calls another believer an insulting name will answer for it in the highest court. Whoever calls another believer a fool will answer for it in hellfire.

²³ "So if you are offering your gift at the altar and remember there that another believer has something against you, ²⁴ leave your gift at the altar. First go away and make peace with that person. Then come back and offer your gift.

²⁵ "Make peace quickly with your opponent while you are on the way to court with him. Otherwise, he will hand you over to the judge. Then the judge will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison.

²⁶ I can guarantee this truth: You will never get out until you pay every penny of your fine.

²⁷ "You have heard that it was said, 'Never commit adultery.'

²⁸ But I can guarantee that whoever looks with lust at a woman has already committed adultery in his heart.

³⁰ And if your right hand leads you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose a part of your body than to have all of it go into hell.

³¹ "It has also been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife must give her a written notice.'

³² But I can guarantee that any man who divorces his wife for any reason other than unfaithfulness makes her look as though she has committed adultery. Whoever marries a woman divorced in this way makes himself look as though he has committed adultery.

³³ "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'Never break your oath, but give to the Lord what you swore in an oath to give him.'

³⁴ But I tell you don't swear an oath at all. Don't swear an oath by heaven, which is God's throne, ³⁵ or by the earth, which is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, which is the city of the great King.

³⁶ And don't swear an oath by your head. After all, you cannot make one hair black or white.

³⁷ Simply say yes or no. Anything more than that comes from the evil one.

³⁸ "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'

³⁹ But I tell you not to oppose an evil person. If someone slaps you on your right cheek, turn your other cheek to him as well.

⁴⁰ If someone wants to sue you in order to take your shirt, let him have your coat too.

⁴¹ If someone forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him.

⁴² Give to everyone who asks you for something. Don't turn anyone away who wants to borrow something from you.

⁴³ "You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.'

⁴⁴ But I tell you this: Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.

⁴⁵ In this way you show that you are children of your Father in heaven. He makes his sun rise on people whether they are good or evil. He lets rain fall on them whether they are just or unjust.

⁴⁶ If you love those who love you, do you deserve a reward? Even the tax collectors do that!

⁴⁷ Are you doing anything remarkable if you welcome only your friends? Everyone does that!

⁴⁸ That is why you must be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect.

6 ¹ "Be careful not to do your good works in public in order to attract attention. If you do, your Father in heaven will not reward you.

² So when you give to the poor, don't announce it with trumpet fanfare. This is what hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets in order to be praised by people. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

³ When you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.

⁴ Give your contributions privately. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

⁵ "When you pray, don't be like hypocrites. They like to stand in synagogues and on street corners to pray so that everyone can see them. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

⁶ When you pray, go to your room and close the door. Pray privately to your Father who is with you. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

⁷ "When you pray, don't ramble like heathens who think they'll be heard if they talk a lot.

⁸ Don't be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

⁹ "This is how you should pray: Our Father in heaven, let your name be kept holy.

¹⁰ Let your kingdom come. Let your will be done on earth as it is done in heaven.

¹¹ Give us our daily bread today.

¹² Forgive us as we forgive others.

¹³ Don't allow us to be tempted. Instead, rescue us from the evil one.

¹⁴ "If you forgive the failures of others, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

¹⁵ But if you don't forgive others, your Father will not forgive your failures.

¹⁶ "When you fast, stop looking sad like hypocrites. They put on sad faces to make it obvious that they're fasting. I can guarantee this truth: That will be their only reward.

¹⁷ When you fast, wash your face and comb your hair.

¹⁸ Then your fasting won't be obvious. Instead, it will be obvious to your Father who is with you in private. Your Father sees what you do in private. He will reward you.

¹⁹ "Stop storing up treasures for yourselves on earth, where moths and rust destroy and thieves break in and steal.

²⁰ Instead, store up treasures for yourselves in heaven, where moths and rust don't destroy and thieves don't break in and steal.

²¹ Your heart will be where your treasure is.

²² "The eye is the lamp of the body. So if your eye is unclouded, your whole body will be full of light.

²³ But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If the light in you is darkness, how dark it will be!

²⁴ "No one can serve two masters. He will hate the first master and love the second, or he will be devoted to the first and despise the second. You cannot serve God and wealth.

²⁵ "So I tell you to stop worrying about what you will eat, drink, or wear. Isn't life more than food and the body more than clothes?

²⁶ "Look at the birds. They don't plant, harvest, or gather the harvest into barns. Yet, your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you worth more than they?

²⁷ "Can any of you add a single hour to your life by worrying?

²⁸ "And why worry about clothes? Notice how the flowers grow in the field. They never work or spin yarn for clothes.

²⁹ But I say that not even Solomon in all his majesty was dressed like one of these flowers.

³⁰ That's the way God clothes the grass in the field. Today it's alive, and tomorrow it's thrown into an incinerator. So how much more will he clothe you people who have so little faith?

³¹ "Don't ever worry and say, 'What are we going to eat?' or 'What are we going to drink?' or 'What are we going to wear?'

³² Everyone is concerned about these things, and your heavenly Father certainly knows you need all of them.

³³ But first, be concerned about his kingdom and what has his approval. Then all these things will be provided for you.

³⁴ "So don't ever worry about tomorrow. After all, tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

7 ¹ "Stop judging so that you will not be judged.

² Otherwise, you will be judged by the same standard you use to judge others. The standards you use for others will be applied to you.

³ So why do you see the piece of sawdust in another believer's eye and not notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

⁴ How can you say to another believer, 'Let me take the piece of sawdust out of your eye,' when you have a beam in your own eye?

⁵ You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye. Then you will see clearly to remove the piece of sawdust from another believer's eye.

⁶ "Don't give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls to pigs. Otherwise, they will trample them and then tear you to pieces.

⁷ "Ask, and you will receive. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened for you.

⁸ Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find, and for the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

⁹ "If your child asks you for bread, would any of you give him a stone?

¹⁰ Or if your child asks for a fish, would you give him a snake?

¹¹ Even though you're evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. So how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

¹² "Always do for other people everything you want them to do for you.

That is the meaning of Moses' Teachings and the Prophets.

¹³ "Enter through the narrow gate because the gate and road that lead to destruction are wide. Many enter through the wide gate.

¹⁴ But the narrow gate and the road that lead to life are full of trouble. Only a few people find the narrow gate.

¹⁵ "Beware of false prophets. They come to you disguised as sheep, but in their hearts they are vicious wolves.

¹⁶ You will know them by what they produce. "People don't pick grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles, do they?

¹⁷ In the same way every good tree produces good fruit, but a rotten tree produces bad fruit.

¹⁸ A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, and a rotten tree cannot produce good fruit.

¹⁹ Any tree that fails to produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into a fire.

²⁰ So you will know them by what they produce.

²¹ "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord!' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the person who does what my Father in heaven wants.

²² Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name? Didn't we force out demons and do many miracles by the power and authority of your name?'

²³ Then I will tell them publicly, 'I've never known you. Get away from me, you evil people.'

²⁴ "Therefore, everyone who hears what I say and obeys it will be like a wise person who built a house on rock.

²⁵ Rain poured, and floods came. Winds blew and beat against that house. But it did not collapse, because its foundation was on rock.

²⁶ "Everyone who hears what I say but doesn't obey it will be like a foolish person who built a house on sand.

²⁷ Rain poured, and floods came. Winds blew and struck that house. It collapsed, and the result was a total disaster."

²⁸ When Jesus finished this speech, the crowds were amazed at his teachings.

²⁹ Unlike their scribes, he taught them with authority.

8 ¹ When Jesus came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him.

² A man with a serious skin disease came and bowed down in front of him. The man said to Jesus, "Sir, if you're willing, you can make me clean."

³ Jesus reached out, touched him, and said, "I'm willing. So be clean!"

Immediately, his skin disease went away, and he was clean.

⁴ Jesus said to him, "Don't tell anyone about this! Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifice Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean."

⁵ When Jesus went to Capernaum, a Roman army officer came to beg him for help.

⁶ The officer said, "Sir, my servant is lying at home paralyzed and in terrible pain."

⁷ Jesus said to him, "I'll come to heal him."

⁸ The officer responded, "Sir, I don't deserve to have you come into my house. But just give a command, and my servant will be healed.

⁹ As you know, I'm in a chain of command and have soldiers at my command. I tell one of them, 'Go!' and he goes, and another, 'Come!' and he comes. I tell my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."

¹⁰ Jesus was amazed when he heard this. He said to those who were following him, "I can guarantee this truth: I haven't found faith as great as this in anyone in Israel.

¹¹ I can guarantee that many will come from all over the world. They will eat with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

¹² The citizens of that kingdom will be thrown outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

¹³ Jesus told the officer, "Go! What you believed will be done for you." And at that moment the servant was healed.

¹⁴ When Jesus went to Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law in bed with a fever.

¹⁵ Jesus touched her hand, and the fever went away. So she got up and prepared a meal for him.

¹⁶ In the evening the people brought him many who were possessed by demons. He forced the evil spirits out of people with a command and cured everyone who was sick.

¹⁷ So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true: "He took away our weaknesses and removed our diseases."

¹⁸ Now, when Jesus saw a crowd around him, he ordered his disciples to cross to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

¹⁹ A scribe came to him and said, "Teacher, I'll follow you wherever you go."

²⁰ Jesus told him, "Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to sleep."

²¹ Another disciple said to him, "Sir, first let me go to bury my father."

²² But Jesus told him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

²³ Jesus' disciples went with him as he left in a boat.

²⁴ Suddenly, a severe storm came across the sea. The waves were covering the boat. Yet, Jesus was sleeping.

²⁵ So they woke him up, saying, "Lord! Save us! We're going to die!"

²⁶ Jesus said to them, "Why do you cowards have so little faith?" Then he got up, gave an order to the wind and the sea, and the sea became very calm.

²⁷ The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!"

²⁸ When he arrived in the territory of the Gadarenes on the other side of the Sea of Galilee, two men met him. They were possessed by demons and had come out of the tombs. No one could travel along that road because the men were so dangerous.

²⁹ They shouted, "Why are you bothering us now, Son of God? Did you come here to torture us before it is time?"

³⁰ A large herd of pigs was feeding in the distance.

³¹ The demons begged Jesus, "If you're going to force us out, send us into that herd of pigs."

³² Jesus said to them, "Go!" The demons came out and went into the pigs. Suddenly, the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and died in the water.

³³ Those who took care of the pigs ran into the city. There they reported everything, especially about the men possessed by demons.

³⁴ Everyone from the city went to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their territory.

9 ¹ Jesus got into a boat, crossed the sea, and came to his own city.

² Some people brought him a paralyzed man on a stretcher. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, "Cheer up, friend! Your sins are forgiven."

³ Then some of the scribes thought, "He's dishonoring God."

⁴ Jesus knew what they were thinking. He asked them, "Why are you thinking evil things?"

⁵ Is it easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?

⁶ I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man, "Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home."

⁷ So the man got up and went home.

⁸ When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe and praised God for giving such authority to humans.

⁹ When Jesus was leaving that place, he saw a man sitting in a tax office. The man's name was Matthew. Jesus said to him, "Follow me!" So Matthew got up and followed him.

¹⁰ Later Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house. Many tax collectors and sinners came to eat with Jesus and his disciples.

¹¹ The Pharisees saw this and asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹² When Jesus heard that, he said, "Healthy people don't need a doctor; those who are sick do.

¹³ Learn what this means: 'I want mercy, not sacrifices.' I've come to call sinners, not people who think they have God's approval."

¹⁴ Then John's disciples came to Jesus. They said, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often but your disciples never do?"

¹⁵ Jesus replied, "Can wedding guests be sad while the groom is still with them? The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast.

¹⁶ "No one patches an old coat with a new piece of cloth that will shrink. When the patch shrinks, it will rip away from the coat, and the tear will become worse.

¹⁷ Nor do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins burst, the wine runs out, and the skins are ruined. Rather, people pour new wine into fresh skins, and both are saved."

¹⁸ A synagogue leader came to Jesus while he was talking to John's disciples. He bowed down in front of Jesus and said, "My daughter just died. Come, lay your hand on her, and she will live."

¹⁹ Jesus and his disciples got up and followed the man.

²⁰ Then a woman came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his clothes. She had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years.

²¹ She thought, "If I only touch his clothes, I'll get well."

²² When Jesus turned and saw her he said, "Cheer up, daughter! Your faith has made you well." At that very moment the woman became well.

²³ Jesus came to the synagogue leader's house. He saw flute players and a noisy crowd.

²⁴ He said to them, "Leave! The girl is not dead. She's sleeping." But they laughed at him.

²⁵ When the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went in, took her hand, and the girl came back to life.

²⁶ The news about this spread throughout that region.

²⁷ When Jesus left that place, two blind men followed him. They shouted, "Have mercy on us, Son of David."

²⁸ Jesus went into a house, and the blind men followed him. He said to them, "Do you believe that I can do this?" "Yes, Lord," they answered.

²⁹ He touched their eyes and said, "What you have believed will be done for you!"

³⁰ Then they could see. He warned them, "Don't let anyone know about this!"

³¹ But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that region.

³² As they were leaving, some people brought a man to Jesus. The man was unable to talk because he was possessed by a demon.

³³ But as soon as the demon was forced out, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, "We have never seen anything like this in Israel!"

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, "He forces demons out of people with the help of the ruler of demons."

³⁵ Jesus went to all the towns and villages. He taught in the synagogues and spread the Good News of the kingdom. He also cured every disease and sickness.

³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he felt sorry for them. They were troubled and helpless like sheep without a shepherd.

³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is large, but the workers are few.

³⁸ So ask the Lord who gives this harvest to send workers to harvest his crops."

10 ¹ Jesus called his twelve disciples and gave them authority to force evil spirits out of people and to cure every disease and sickness.

² These are the names of the twelve apostles: first and foremost, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee;

³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James (son of Alphaeus), and Thaddaeus;

⁴ Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

⁵ Jesus sent these twelve out with the following instructions: "Don't go among people who are not Jewish or into any Samaritan city.

⁶ Instead, go to the lost sheep of the nation of Israel.

⁷ As you go, spread this message: 'The kingdom of heaven is near.'

⁸ Cure the sick, bring the dead back to life, cleanse those with skin diseases, and force demons out of people. Give these things without charging, since you received them without paying.

⁹ "Don't take any gold, silver, or even copper coins in your pockets.

¹⁰ Don't take a traveling bag for the trip, a change of clothes, sandals, or a walking stick. After all, the worker deserves to have his needs met.

¹¹ "When you go into a city or village, look for people who will listen to you there. Stay with them until you leave that place.

¹² When you go into a house, greet the family.

¹³ If it is a family that listens to you, allow your greeting to stand. But if it is not receptive, take back your greeting.

¹⁴ If anyone doesn't welcome you or listen to what you say, leave that house or city, and shake its dust off your feet.

¹⁵ I can guarantee this truth: Judgment day will be better for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that city.

¹⁶ "I'm sending you out like sheep among wolves. So be as cunning as snakes but as innocent as doves.

¹⁷ Watch out for people who will hand you over to the Jewish courts and whip you in their synagogues.

¹⁸ Because of me you will even be brought in front of governors and kings to testify to them and to everyone in the world.

¹⁹ When they hand you over to the authorities, don't worry about what to say or how to say it. When the time comes, you will be given what to say.

²⁰ Indeed, you're not the ones who will be speaking. The Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

²¹ "Brother will hand over brother to death; a father will hand over his child. Children will rebel against their parents and kill them.

²² Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me. But the person who patiently endures to the end will be saved.

²³ So when they persecute you in one city, flee to another. I can guarantee this truth: Before you have gone through every city in Israel, the Son of Man will come.

²⁴ "A student is not better than his teacher. Nor is a slave better than his owner.

²⁵ It is enough for a student to become like his teacher and a slave like his owner. If they have called the owner of the house Beelzebul, they will certainly call the family members the same name.

²⁶ So don't be afraid of them. Nothing has been covered that will not be exposed. Whatever is secret will be made known.

²⁷ Tell in the daylight what I say to you in the dark. Shout from the housetops what you hear whispered.

²⁸ Don't be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the one who can destroy both body and soul in hell.

²⁹ "Aren't two sparrows sold for a penny? Not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's permission.

³⁰ Every hair on your head has been counted.

³¹ Don't be afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows.

³² "So I will acknowledge in front of my Father in heaven that person who acknowledges me in front of others.

³³ But I will tell my Father in heaven that I don't know the person who tells others that he doesn't know me.

³⁴ "Don't think that I came to bring peace to earth. I didn't come to bring peace but conflict.

³⁵ I came to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

³⁶ A person's enemies will be the members of his own family.

³⁷ "The person who loves his father or mother more than me does not deserve to be my disciple. The person who loves a son or daughter more than me does not deserve to be my disciple.

³⁸ Whoever doesn't take up his cross and follow me doesn't deserve to be my disciple.

³⁹ The person who tries to preserve his life will lose it, but the person who loses his life for me will preserve it.

⁴⁰ "The person who welcomes you welcomes me, and the person who welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

⁴¹ The person who welcomes a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. The person who welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

⁴² I can guarantee this truth: Whoever gives any of my humble followers a cup of cold water because that person is my disciple will certainly never lose his reward."

11 ¹ After Jesus finished giving his twelve disciples these instructions, he moved on from there to teach his message in their cities.

² When John was in prison, he heard about the things Christ had done. So he sent his disciples

³ to ask Jesus, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?"

⁴ Jesus answered John's disciples, "Go back, and tell John what you hear and see:

⁵ Blind people see again, lame people are walking, those with skin diseases are made clean, deaf people hear again, dead people are brought back to life, and poor people hear the Good News.

⁶ Whoever doesn't lose his faith in me is indeed blessed."

⁷ As they were leaving, Jesus spoke to the crowds about John. "What did you go into the desert to see? Tall grass swaying in the wind?

⁸ Really, what did you go to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear fine clothes are in royal palaces.

⁹ "Really, what did you go to see? A prophet? Let me tell you that he is far more than a prophet.

¹⁰ John is the one about whom Scripture says, 'I'm sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way in front of you.'

¹¹ "I can guarantee this truth: Of all the people ever born, no one is greater than John the Baptizer. Yet, the least important person in the kingdom of heaven is greater than John.

¹² From the time of John the Baptizer until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful people have been seizing it.

¹³ All the Prophets and Moses' Teachings prophesied up to the time of John.

¹⁴ If you are willing to accept their message, John is the Elijah who was to come.

¹⁵ Let the person who has ears listen!

¹⁶ "How can I describe the people who are living now? They are like children who sit in the marketplaces and shout to other children, ¹⁷ 'We played music for you, but you didn't dance. We sang a funeral song, but you didn't show any sadness.'

¹⁸ "John came neither eating nor drinking, and people say, 'There's a demon in him!'

¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and people say, 'Look at him! He's a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' "Yet, wisdom is proved right by its actions."

²⁰ Then Jesus denounced the cities where he had worked most of his miracles because they had not changed the way they thought and acted.

²¹ "How horrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How horrible it will be for you, Bethsaida! If the miracles worked in you had been worked in Tyre and Sidon, they would have changed the way they thought and acted long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

²² I can guarantee that judgment day will be better for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

²³ And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to heaven? No, you will go down to hell! If the miracles that had been worked in you had been worked in Sodom, it would still be there today.

²⁴ I can guarantee that judgment day will be better for Sodom than for you."

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from wise and intelligent people and revealing them to little children.

²⁶ Yes, Father, this is what pleased you.

²⁷ "My Father has turned everything over to me. Only the Father knows the Son. And no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.

²⁸ "Come to me, all who are tired from carrying heavy loads, and I will give you rest.

²⁹ Place my yoke over your shoulders, and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble. Then you will find rest for yourselves ³⁰ because my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

12 ¹ Then on a day of worship Jesus walked through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain to eat.

² When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, "Look! Your disciples are doing something that is not right to do on the day of worship."

³ Jesus asked them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his men were hungry?

⁴ Haven't you read how he went into the house of God and ate the bread of the presence? He and his men had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right.

⁵ Or haven't you read in Moses' Teachings that on the day of worship the priests in the temple do things they shouldn't on the day of worship yet remain innocent?

⁶ I can guarantee that something greater than the temple is here.

⁷ If you had known what 'I want mercy, not sacrifices' means, you would not have condemned innocent people.

⁸ "The Son of Man has authority over the day of worship."

⁹ Jesus moved on from there and went into a synagogue.

¹⁰ A man with a paralyzed hand was there. The people asked Jesus whether it was right to heal on a day of worship so that they could accuse him of doing something wrong.

¹¹ Jesus said to them, "Suppose one of you has a sheep. If it falls into a pit on a day of worship, wouldn't you take hold of it and lift it out?"

¹² Certainly, a human is more valuable than a sheep! So it is right to do good on the day of worship."

¹³ Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." The man held it out, and it became normal again, as healthy as the other.

¹⁴ The Pharisees left and plotted to kill Jesus.

¹⁵ He knew about this, so he left that place. Many people followed him, and he cured all of them.

¹⁶ He also ordered them not to tell people who he was.

¹⁷ So what the prophet Isaiah had said came true:

¹⁸ "Here is my servant whom I have chosen, whom I love, and in whom I delight. I will put my Spirit on him, and he will announce justice to the nations.

¹⁹ He will not quarrel or shout, and no one will hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰ He will not break off a damaged cattail. He will not even put out a smoking wick until he has made justice victorious.

²¹ The nations will have hope because of him."

²² Then some people brought Jesus a man possessed by a demon. The demon made the man blind and unable to talk.

Jesus cured him so that he could talk and see.

²³ The crowds were all amazed and said, "Can this man be the Son of David?"

²⁴ When the Pharisees heard this, they said, "This man can force demons out of people only with the help of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons."

²⁵ Since Jesus knew what they were thinking, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is ruined. And every city or household divided against itself will not last.

²⁶ If Satan forces Satan out, he is divided against himself. How, then, can his kingdom last?

²⁷ If I force demons out of people with the help of Beelzebul, who helps your followers force them out? That's why they will be your judges.

²⁸ But if I force demons out with the help of God's Spirit, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

²⁹ How can anyone go into a strong man's house and steal his property? First he must tie up the strong man. Then he can go through his house and steal his property.

³⁰ "Whoever isn't with me is against me. Whoever doesn't gather with me scatters.

³¹ So I can guarantee that people will be forgiven for any sin or cursing. However, cursing the Spirit will not be forgiven.

³² Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven in this world or the next.

³³ "Make a tree good, and then its fruit will be good. Or make a tree rotten, and then its fruit will be rotten. A person can recognize a tree by its fruit.

³⁴ You poisonous snakes! How can you evil people say anything good? Your mouth says what comes from inside you.

³⁵ Good people do the good things that are in them. But evil people do the evil things that are in them.

³⁶ "I can guarantee that on judgment day people will have to give an account of every careless word they say.

³⁷ By your words you will be declared innocent, or by your words you will be declared guilty."

³⁸ Then some scribes and Pharisees said, "Teacher, we want you to show us a miraculous sign."

³⁹ He responded, "The people of an evil and unfaithful era look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will get is the sign of the prophet Jonah.

⁴⁰ Just as Jonah was in the belly of a huge fish for three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up with you at the time of judgment and will condemn you, because they turned to God and changed the way they thought and acted when Jonah spoke his message. But look, someone greater than Jonah is here!

⁴² The queen from the south will stand up at the time of judgment with you. She will condemn you, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon's wisdom. But look, someone greater than Solomon is here!

⁴³ "When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it goes through dry places looking for a place to rest. But it doesn't find any.

⁴⁴ Then it says, 'I'll go back to the home I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean, and in order.

⁴⁵ Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself. They enter and take up permanent residence there. In the end the condition of that person is worse than it was before. That is what will happen to the evil people of this day."

⁴⁶ While Jesus was still talking to the crowds, his mother and brothers were standing outside. They wanted to talk to him.

⁴⁷ Someone told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to talk to you."

⁴⁸ He replied to the man speaking to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

⁴⁹ Pointing with his hand at his disciples, he said, "Look, here are my mother and my brothers.

⁵⁰ Whoever does what my Father in heaven wants is my brother and sister and mother."

13 ¹ That same day Jesus left the house and sat down by the Sea of Galilee.

² The crowd that gathered around him was so large that he got into a boat. He sat in the boat while the entire crowd stood on the shore.

³ Then he used stories as illustrations to tell them many things. He said, "Listen! A farmer went to plant seed.

⁴ Some seeds were planted along the road, and birds came and devoured them.

⁵ Other seeds were planted on rocky ground, where there was little soil. The plants sprouted quickly because the soil wasn't deep.

⁶ But when the sun came up, they were scorched. They withered because their roots weren't deep enough.

⁷ Other seeds were planted among thornbushes, and the thornbushes grew up and choked them.

⁸ But other seeds were planted on good ground and produced grain. They produced one hundred, sixty, or thirty times as much as was planted.

⁹ Let the person who has ears listen!"

¹⁰ The disciples asked him, "Why do you use stories as illustrations when you speak to people?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "Knowledge about the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you. But it has not been given to the crowd.

¹² Those who understand these mysteries will be given more knowledge, and they will excel in understanding them. However, some people don't understand these mysteries. Even what they understand will be taken away from them.

¹³ This is why I speak to them this way. They see, but they're blind. They hear, but they don't listen. They don't even try to understand.

¹⁴ So they make Isaiah's prophecy come true: 'You will hear clearly but never understand. You will see clearly but never comprehend.'

¹⁵ These people have become close-minded and hard of hearing. They have shut their eyes so that their eyes never see. Their ears never hear. Their minds never understand. And they never return to me for healing!'

¹⁶ "Blessed are your eyes because they see and your ears because they hear.

¹⁷ I can guarantee this truth: Many prophets and many of God's people longed to see what you see but didn't see it, to hear what you hear but didn't hear it.

¹⁸ "Listen to what the story about the farmer means.

¹⁹ Someone hears the word about the kingdom but doesn't understand it. The evil one comes at once and snatches away what was planted in him. This is what the seed planted along the road illustrates.

²⁰ The seed planted on rocky ground is the person who hears the word and accepts it at once with joy.

²¹ Since he doesn't have any root, he lasts only a little while. When suffering or persecution comes along because of the word, he immediately falls from faith.

²² The seed planted among thornbushes is another person who hears the word. But the worries of life and the deceitful pleasures of riches choke the word so that it can't produce anything.

²³ But the seed planted on good ground is the person who hears and understands the word. This type produces crops. They produce one hundred, sixty, or thirty times as much as was planted."

²⁴ Jesus used another illustration. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who planted good seed in his field.

²⁵ But while people were asleep, his enemy planted weeds in the wheat field and went away.

²⁶ When the wheat came up and formed kernels, weeds appeared.

²⁷ "The owner's workers came to him and asked, 'Sir, didn't you plant good seed in your field? Where did the weeds come from?'

²⁸ "He told them, 'An enemy did this.' "His workers asked him, 'Do you want us to pull out the weeds?'

²⁹ "He replied, 'No. If you pull out the weeds, you may pull out the wheat with them.

³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest. When the grain is cut, I will tell the workers to gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to be burned. But I'll have them bring the wheat into my barn.'" ³¹ Jesus used another illustration. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone planted in a field.

³² It's one of the smallest seeds. However, when it has grown, it is taller than the garden plants. It becomes a tree that is large enough for birds to nest in its branches."

³³ He used another illustration. "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman mixed into a large amount of flour until the yeast worked its way through all the dough."

³⁴ Jesus used illustrations to tell the crowds all these things. He did not tell them anything without illustrating it with a story.

³⁵ So what the prophet had said came true: "I will open my mouth to illustrate points. I will tell what has been hidden since the world was made."

³⁶ When Jesus had sent the people away, he went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, "Explain what the illustration of the weeds in the field means."

³⁷ He answered, "The one who plants the good seeds is the Son of Man.

³⁸ The field is the world. The good seeds are those who belong to the kingdom. The weeds are those who belong to the evil one.

³⁹ The enemy who planted them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world. The workers are angels.

⁴⁰ Just as weeds are gathered and burned, so it will be at the end of time.

⁴¹ The Son of Man will send his angels. They will gather everything in his kingdom that causes people to sin and everyone who does evil.

⁴² The angels will throw them into a blazing furnace. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

⁴³ Then the people who have God's approval will shine like the sun in their Father's kingdom. Let the person who has ears listen!

⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field. When a man discovered it, he buried it again. He was so delighted with it that he went away, sold everything he had, and bought that field.

⁴⁵ "Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant who was searching for fine pearls.

⁴⁶ When he found a valuable pearl, he went away, sold everything he had, and bought it.

⁴⁷ "Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea. It gathered all kinds of fish.

⁴⁸ When it was full, they pulled it to the shore. Then they sat down, gathered the good fish into containers, and threw the bad ones away.

⁴⁹ The same thing will happen at the end of time. The angels will go out and separate the evil people from people who have God's approval.

⁵⁰ Then the angels will throw the evil people into a blazing furnace. They will cry and be in extreme pain there.

⁵¹ "Have you understood all of this?"
"Yes," they answered.

⁵² So Jesus said to them, "That is why every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a home owner. He brings new and old things out of his treasure chest."

⁵³ When Jesus had finished these illustrations, he left that place.

⁵⁴ Jesus went to his hometown and taught the people in the synagogue in a way that amazed them. People were asking, "Where did this man get this wisdom and the power to do these miracles?"

⁵⁵ Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother's name Mary? Aren't his brothers' names James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas?

⁵⁶ And aren't all his sisters here with us? Where, then, did this man get all this?"

⁵⁷ So they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, "The only place a prophet isn't honored is in his hometown and in his own house."

⁵⁸ He didn't work many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

14 ¹ At that time Herod, ruler of Galilee, heard the news about Jesus.

² He said to his officials, "This is John the Baptizer! He has come back to life. That's why he has the power to perform these miracles."

³ Herod had arrested John, tied him up, and put him in prison. Herod did this for Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip.

⁴ John had been telling Herod, "It's not right for you to be married to her."

⁵ So Herod wanted to kill John. However, he was afraid of the people because they thought John was a prophet.

⁶ When Herod celebrated his birthday, Herodias' daughter danced for his guests. Herod was so delighted with her that ⁷ he swore he would give her anything she wanted.

⁸ Urged by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptizer on a platter."

⁹ The king regretted his promise. But because of his oath and his guests, he ordered that her wish be granted.

¹⁰ He had John's head cut off in prison.

¹¹ So the head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who took it to her mother.

¹² John's disciples came for the body and buried it. Then they went to tell Jesus.

¹³ When Jesus heard about John, he left in a boat and went to a place where he could be alone. The crowds heard about this and followed him on foot from the cities.

¹⁴ When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd. He felt sorry for them and cured their sick people.

¹⁵ In the evening the disciples came to him. They said, "No one lives around here, and it's already late. Send the crowds to the villages to buy food for themselves."

¹⁶ Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

¹⁷ They told him, "All we have here are five loaves of bread and two fish."

¹⁸ Jesus said, "Bring them to me."

¹⁹ Then he ordered the people to sit down on the grass. After he took the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart, gave them to the disciples, and they gave them to the people.

²⁰ All of them ate as much as they wanted. When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets.

²¹ About five thousand men had eaten. (This number does not include the women and children who had eaten.)

²² Jesus quickly made his disciples get into a boat and cross to the other side ahead of him while he sent the people away.

²³ After sending the people away, he went up a mountain to pray by himself. When evening came, he was there alone.

²⁴ The boat, now hundreds of yards from shore, was being thrown around by the waves because it was going against the wind.

²⁵ Between three and six o'clock in the morning, he came to them. He was walking on the sea.

²⁶ When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified. They said, "It's a ghost!" and began to scream because they were afraid.

²⁷ Immediately, Jesus said, "Calm down! It's me. Don't be afraid!"

²⁸ Peter answered, "Lord, if it is you, order me to come to you on the water."

²⁹ Jesus said, "Come!" So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus.

³⁰ But when he noticed how strong the wind was, he became afraid and started to sink. He shouted, "Lord, save me!"

³¹ Immediately, Jesus reached out, caught hold of him, and said, "You have so little faith! Why did you doubt?"

³² When they got into the boat, the wind stopped blowing.

³³ The men in the boat bowed down in front of Jesus and said, "You are truly the Son of God."

³⁴ They crossed the sea and landed at Gennesaret.

³⁵ The men there recognized Jesus and sent messengers all around the countryside. The people brought him everyone who was sick.

³⁶ They begged him to let them touch just the edge of his clothes. Everyone who touched his clothes was made well.

15 ¹ Then some Pharisees and scribes came from Jerusalem to Jesus. They asked,

² "Why do your disciples break the traditions of our ancestors? They do not wash their hands before they eat."

³ He answered them, "Why do you break the commandment of God because of your traditions?"

⁴ For example, God said, 'Honor your father and your mother' and 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

⁵ But you say that whoever tells his father or mother, 'I have given to God whatever support you might have received from me,'

⁶ does not have to honor his father. Because of your traditions you have destroyed the authority of God's word.

⁷ You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

⁸ 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

⁹ Their worship of me is pointless, because their teachings are rules made by humans.'"

¹⁰ Then he called the crowd and said to them, "Listen and try to understand!

¹¹ What goes into a person's mouth doesn't make him unclean. It's what comes out of the mouth that makes a person unclean."

¹² Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you realize that when the Pharisees heard your statement they were offended?"

¹³ He answered, "Any plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

¹⁴ Leave them alone! They are blind leaders. When one blind person leads another, both will fall into the same pit."

¹⁵ Peter said to him, "Explain this illustration to us."

¹⁶ Jesus said, "Don't you understand yet?

¹⁷ Don't you know that whatever goes into the mouth goes into the stomach and then into a toilet?

¹⁸ But whatever goes out of the mouth comes from within, and that's what makes a person unclean.

¹⁹ Evil thoughts, murder, adultery, other sexual sins, stealing, lying, and cursing come from within.

²⁰ These are the things that make a person unclean. But eating without washing one's hands doesn't make a person unclean."

²¹ Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

²² A Canaanite woman from that territory came to him and began to shout, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon."

²³ But he did not answer her at all. Then his disciples came to him and urged him, "Send her away. She keeps shouting behind us."

²⁴ Jesus responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the nation of Israel."

²⁵ She came to him, bowed down, and said, "Lord, help me!"

²⁶ Jesus replied, "It's not right to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."

²⁷ She said, "You're right, Lord. But even the dogs eat scraps that fall from their masters' tables."

²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, you have strong faith! What you wanted will be done for you." At that moment her daughter was cured.

²⁹ Jesus moved on from there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a mountain and sat there.

³⁰ A large crowd came to him, bringing with them the lame, blind, disabled, those unable to talk, and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he cured them.

³¹ The crowd was amazed to see mute people talking, the disabled cured, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. So they praised the God of Israel.

³² Jesus called his disciples and said, "I feel sorry for the people. They have been with me three days now and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, or they may become exhausted on their way home."

³³ His disciples asked him, "Where could we get enough bread to feed such a crowd in this place where no one lives?"

³⁴ Jesus asked them, "How many loaves of bread do you have?" They answered, "Seven, and a few small fish."

³⁵ He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground.

³⁶ He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks to God. Then he broke the bread and gave it to the disciples, and they gave the bread and fish to the people.

³⁷ All of them ate as much as they wanted. The disciples picked up the leftover pieces and filled seven large baskets.

³⁸ Four thousand men had eaten. (This number does not include the women and children who had eaten.)

³⁹ After he sent the people on their way, Jesus stepped into the boat and came to the territory of Magadan.

16 ¹ The Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus. So they asked him to show them a miraculous sign from heaven.

² He responded to them, "In the evening you say that the weather will be fine because the sky is red.

³ And in the morning you say that there will be a storm today because the sky is red and overcast. You can forecast the weather by judging the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

⁴ "Evil and unfaithful people look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will be given is that of Jonah." Then he left them standing there and went away.

⁵ The disciples had forgotten to take any bread along when they went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

⁶ Jesus said to them, "Be careful! Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

⁷ The disciples had been discussing among themselves that they had not taken any bread along.

⁸ Jesus knew about their conversation and asked, "Why are you discussing among yourselves that you don't have any bread? You have so little faith!

⁹ Don't you understand yet? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many baskets you filled?

¹⁰ Don't you remember the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many large baskets you filled?

¹¹ Why don't you understand that I wasn't talking to you about bread? Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

¹² Then they understood that he didn't say to watch out for the yeast in bread, but to watch out for the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴ They answered, "Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

¹⁵ He asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God!"

¹⁷ Jesus replied, "Simon, son of Jonah, you are blessed! No human revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven revealed it to you.

¹⁸ You are Peter, and I can guarantee that on this rock I will build my church. And the gates of hell will not overpower it.

¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you imprison, God will imprison. And whatever you set free, God will set free."

²⁰ Then he strictly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

²¹ From that time on Jesus began to inform his disciples that he had to go to Jerusalem. There he would have to suffer a lot because of the leaders, chief priests, and scribes. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be brought back to life.

²² Peter took him aside and objected to this. He said, "Heaven forbid, Lord! This must never happen to you!"

²³ But Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get out of my way, Satan! You are tempting me to sin. You aren't thinking the way God thinks but the way humans think."

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Those who want to come with me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses, and follow me.

²⁵ Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me will find them.

²⁶ What good will it do for people to win the whole world and lose their lives? Or what will a person give in exchange for life?

²⁷ The Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory. Then he will pay back each person based on what that person has done.

²⁸ I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

17 ¹ After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John (the brother of James) and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone.

² Jesus' appearance changed in front of them. His face became as bright as the sun and his clothes as white as light.

³ Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them and were talking with Jesus.

⁴ Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it's good that we're here. If you want, I'll put up three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

⁵ He was still speaking when a bright cloud overshadowed them. Then a voice came out of the cloud and said, "This is my Son, whom I love and with whom I am pleased. Listen to him!"

⁶ The disciples were terrified when they heard this and fell facedown on the ground.

⁷ But Jesus touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid!"

⁸ As they raised their heads, they saw no one but Jesus.

⁹ On their way down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen. Wait until the Son of Man has been brought back to life."

¹⁰ So the disciples asked him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "Elijah is coming and will put everything in order again.

¹² Actually, I can guarantee that Elijah has already come. Yet, people treated him as they pleased because they didn't recognize him. In the same way they're going to make the Son of Man suffer."

¹³ Then the disciples understood that he was talking about John the Baptizer.

¹⁴ When they came to a crowd, a man came up to Jesus, knelt in front of him, ¹⁵ and said, "Sir, have mercy on my son. He suffers from seizures. Often he falls into fire or water.

¹⁶ I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn't cure him."

¹⁷ Jesus replied, "You unbelieving and corrupt generation! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!"

¹⁸ Jesus ordered the demon to come out of the boy. At that moment the boy was cured.

¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, "Why couldn't we force the demon out of the boy?"

²⁰ He told them, "Because you have so little faith. I can guarantee this truth: If your faith is the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

²¹ (OMITTED TEXT)

²² While they were traveling together in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people.

²³ They will kill him, but on the third day he will be brought back to life." Then the disciples became very sad.

²⁴ When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter. They asked him, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"

²⁵ "Certainly," he answered. Peter went into the house. Before he could speak, Jesus asked him, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the world collect fees or taxes? Is it from their family members or from other people?"

²⁶ "From other people," Peter answered. Jesus said to him, "Then the family members are exempt."

²⁷ However, so that we don't create a scandal, go to the sea and throw in a hook. Take the first fish that you catch. Open its mouth, and you will find a coin. Give that coin to them for you and me."

18 ¹ At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

² He called a little child and had him stand among them.

³ Then he said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

⁴ Whoever becomes like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵ And whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me.

⁶ "These little ones believe in me. It would be best for the person who causes one of them to lose faith to be drowned in the sea with a large stone hung around his neck.

⁷ How horrible it will be for the world because it causes people to lose their faith. Situations that cause people to lose their faith will arise. How horrible it will be for the person who causes someone to lose his faith!

⁸ "If your hand or your foot causes you to lose your faith, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life disabled or injured than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into everlasting fire.

⁹ If your eye causes you to lose your faith, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hellfire.

¹⁰ "Be careful not to despise these little ones. I can guarantee that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father, who is in heaven.

¹¹ (OMITTED TEXT)

¹² "What do you think? Suppose a man has 100 sheep and one of them strays. Won't he leave the 99 sheep in the hills to look for the one that has strayed?

¹³ I can guarantee this truth: If he finds it, he is happier about it than about the 99 that have not strayed.

¹⁴ In the same way, your Father in heaven does not want one of these little ones to be lost.

¹⁵ "If a believer does something wrong, go, confront him when the two of you are alone. If he listens to you, you have won back that believer.

¹⁶ But if he does not listen, take one or two others with you so that every accusation may be verified by two or three witnesses.

¹⁷ If he ignores these witnesses, tell it to the community of believers. If he also ignores the community, deal with him as you would a heathen or a tax collector.

¹⁸ I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you imprison, God will imprison. And whatever you set free, God will set free.

¹⁹ "I can guarantee again that if two of you agree on anything here on earth, my Father in heaven will accept it.

²⁰ Where two or three have come together in my name, I am there among them."

²¹ Then Peter came to Jesus and asked him, "Lord, how often do I have to forgive a believer who wrongs me? Seven times?"

²² Jesus answered him, "I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy times seven.

²³ "That is why the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

²⁴ When he began to do this, a servant who owed him millions of dollars was brought to him.

²⁵ Because he could not pay off the debt, the master ordered him, his wife, his children, and all that he had to be sold to pay off the account.

²⁶ Then the servant fell at his master's feet and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will repay everything!'

²⁷ "The master felt sorry for his servant, freed him, and canceled his debt.

²⁸ But when that servant went away, he found a servant who owed him hundreds of dollars. He grabbed the servant he found and began to choke him. 'Pay what you owe!' he said.

29 "Then that other servant fell at his feet and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will repay you.'

30 But he refused. Instead, he turned away and had that servant put into prison until he would repay what he owed.

31 "The other servants who worked with him saw what had happened and felt very sad. They told their master the whole story.

32 "Then his master sent for him and said to him, 'You evil servant! I canceled your entire debt, because you begged me.

33 Shouldn't you have treated the other servant as mercifully as I treated you?'

34 "His master was so angry that he handed him over to the torturers until he would repay everything that he owed.

³⁵ That is what my Father in heaven will do to you if each of you does not sincerely forgive other believers."

19 ¹ When Jesus finished speaking, he left Galilee and traveled along the other side of the Jordan River to the territory of Judea.

² Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

³ Some Pharisees came to test him. They asked, "Can a man divorce his wife for any reason?"

⁴ Jesus answered, "Haven't you read that the Creator made them male and female in the beginning

⁵ and that he said, 'That's why a man will leave his father and mother and will remain united with his wife, and the two will be one'?

⁶ So they are no longer two but one. Therefore, don't let anyone separate what God has joined together."

⁷ The Pharisees asked him, "Why, then, did Moses order a man to give his wife a written notice to divorce her?"

⁸ Jesus answered them, "Moses allowed you to divorce your wives because you're heartless. It was never this way in the beginning.

⁹ I can guarantee that whoever divorces his wife for any reason other than her unfaithfulness is committing adultery if he marries another woman."

¹⁰ The disciples said to him, "If that is the only reason a man can use to divorce his wife, it's better not to get married."

¹¹ He answered them, "Not everyone can do what you suggest. Only those who have that gift can.

¹² For example, some men are celibate because they were born that way. Others are celibate because they were castrated. Still others have decided to be celibate because of the kingdom of heaven. If anyone can do what you've suggested, then he should do it."

¹³ Then some people brought little children to Jesus to have him bless them and pray for them. But the disciples told the people not to do that.

¹⁴ Jesus said, "Don't stop children from coming to me! Children like these are part of the kingdom of God."

¹⁵ After Jesus blessed them, he went away from there.

¹⁶ Then a man came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, what good deed should I do to gain eternal life?"

¹⁷ Jesus said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you want to enter into life, obey the commandments."

¹⁸ "Which commandments?" the man asked. Jesus said, "Never murder. Never commit adultery. Never steal. Never give false testimony.

¹⁹ Honor your father and mother. Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

²⁰ The young man replied, "I have obeyed all these commandments. What else do I need to do?"

²¹ Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, sell what you own. Give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!"

²² When the young man heard this, he went away sad because he owned a lot of property.

²³ Jesus said to his disciples, "I can guarantee this truth: It will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

²⁴ I can guarantee again that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁵ He amazed his disciples more than ever when they heard this. "Then who can be saved?" they asked.

²⁶ Jesus looked at them and said, "It is impossible for people to save themselves, but everything is possible for God."

²⁷ Then Peter replied to him, "Look, we've given up everything to follow you. What will we get out of it?"

²⁸ Jesus said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: When the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne in the world to come, you, my followers, will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

²⁹ And everyone who gave up homes, brothers or sisters, father, mother, children, or fields because of my name will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life.

³⁰ However, many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

20 ¹ "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard.

² After agreeing to pay the workers the usual day's wages, he sent them to work in his vineyard.

³ About 9 a.m. he saw others standing in the marketplace without work.

⁴ He said to them, 'Work in my vineyard, and I'll give you whatever is right.' So they went.

⁵ "He went out again about noon and 3 p.m. and did the same thing.

⁶ About 5 p.m. he went out and found some others standing around. He said to them, 'Why are you standing here all day long without work?'

⁷ "'No one has hired us,' they answered him. "He said to them, 'Work in my vineyard.'

⁸ "When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told the supervisor, 'Call the workers, and give them their wages. Start with the last, and end with the first.'

⁹ "Those who started working about 5 p.m. came, and each received a day's wages.

¹⁰ When those who had been hired first came, they expected to receive more. But each of them received a day's wages.

¹¹ Although they took it, they began to protest to the owner.

¹² They said, 'These last workers have worked only one hour. Yet, you've treated us all the same, even though we worked hard all day under a blazing sun.'

¹³ "The owner said to one of them, 'Friend, I'm not treating you unfairly.

Didn't you agree with me on a day's wages?

¹⁴ Take your money and go! I want to give this last worker as much as I gave you.

¹⁵ Can't I do what I want with my own money? Or do you resent my generosity towards others?'

¹⁶ "In this way the last will be first, and the first will be last."

¹⁷ When Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he took the twelve apostles aside and said to them privately, ¹⁸ "We're going to Jerusalem. There the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn him to death

¹⁹ and hand him over to foreigners. They will make fun of him, whip him, and crucify him. But on the third day he will be brought back to life."

²⁰ Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her two sons. She bowed down in front of him to ask him for a favor.

²¹ "What do you want?" he asked her. She said to him, "Promise that one of my sons will sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom."

²² Jesus replied, "You don't realize what you're asking. Can you drink the cup that I'm going to drink?" "We can," they told him.

²³ Jesus said to them, "You will drink my cup. But I don't have the authority to grant you a seat at my right or left. My Father has already prepared these positions for certain people."

²⁴ When the other ten apostles heard about this, they were irritated with the two brothers.

²⁵ Jesus called the apostles and said, "You know that the rulers of nations have absolute power over people and their officials have absolute authority over people.

²⁶ But that's not the way it's going to be among you. Whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant.

²⁷ Whoever wants to be most important among you will be your slave.

²⁸ It's the same way with the Son of Man. He didn't come so that others could serve him. He came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many people."

²⁹ As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Jesus.

³⁰ Two blind men were sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

³¹ The crowd told them to be quiet. But they shouted even louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

³² Jesus stopped and called them.

"What do you want me to do for you?"
he asked.

³³ They told him, "Lord, we want you to give us our eyesight back."

³⁴ Jesus felt sorry for them, so he touched their eyes. Their sight was restored at once, and they followed him.

21 ¹ When they came near Jerusalem and had reached Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples ahead of him.

² He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you. You will find a donkey tied there and a colt with it. Untie them, and bring them to me.

³ If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them. That person will send them at once."

⁴ This happened so that what the prophet had said came true:

⁵ "Tell the people of Zion, 'Your king is coming to you. He's gentle, riding on a donkey, on a colt, a young pack animal.'"

⁶ The disciples did as Jesus had directed them.

⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and put their coats on them for Jesus to sit on.

⁸ Most of the people spread their coats on the road. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

⁹ The crowd that went ahead of him and that followed him was shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

¹⁰ When Jesus came into Jerusalem, the whole city was in an uproar. People were asking, "Who is this?"

¹¹ The crowd answered, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

¹² Jesus went into the temple courtyard and threw out everyone who was buying and selling there. He overturned the moneychangers' tables and the chairs of those who sold pigeons.

¹³ He told them, "Scripture says, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you're turning it into a gathering place for thieves!"

¹⁴ Blind and lame people came to him in the temple courtyard, and he healed them.

¹⁵ When the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing miracles he performed and the children shouting in the temple courtyard, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were irritated.

¹⁶ They said to him, "Do you hear what these children are saying?" Jesus replied, "Yes, I do. Have you never read, 'From the mouths of little children and infants, you have created praise'?"

¹⁷ He left them and went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

¹⁸ In the morning, as Jesus returned to the city, he became hungry.

¹⁹ When he saw a fig tree by the road, he went up to the tree and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to the tree, "May fruit never grow on you again!" At once the fig tree dried up.

²⁰ The disciples were surprised to see this. They asked, "How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?"

²¹ Jesus answered them, "I can guarantee this truth: If you have faith and do not doubt, you will be able to do what I did to the fig tree. You could also say to this mountain, 'Be uprooted and thrown into the sea,' and it will happen.

²² Have faith that you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

²³ Then Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to teach. The chief priests and the leaders of the people came to him. They asked, "What gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?"

²⁴ Jesus answered them, "I, too, have a question for you. If you answer it for me, I'll tell you why I have the right to do these things.

²⁵ Did John's right to baptize come from heaven or from humans?" They discussed this among themselves. They said, "If we say, 'from heaven,' he will ask us, 'Then why didn't you believe him?'

²⁶ But if we say, 'from humans,' we're afraid of what the crowd might do. All those people think of John as a prophet."

²⁷ So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus told them, "Then I won't tell you why I have the right to do these things.

²⁸ "What do you think about this? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go to work in the vineyard today.'

²⁹ "His son replied, 'I don't want to!' But later he changed his mind and went.

³⁰ "The father went to the other son and told him the same thing. He replied, 'I will, sir,' but he didn't go.

³¹ "Which of the two sons did what the father wanted?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Tax collectors and prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

³² John came to you and showed you the way that God wants you to live, but you didn't believe him. The tax collectors and prostitutes believed him. But even after you had seen that, you didn't change your minds and believe him.

³³ "Listen to another illustration. A landowner planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, made a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to vineyard workers and went on a trip.

³⁴ "When the grapes were getting ripe, he sent his servants to the workers to collect his share of the produce.

³⁵ The workers took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned a third to death.

³⁶ So the landowner sent more servants. But the workers treated them the same way.

³⁷ "Finally, he sent his son to them. He thought, 'They will respect my son.'

³⁸ "When the workers saw his son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Let's kill him and get his inheritance.'

³⁹ So they grabbed him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

⁴⁰ "Now, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those workers?"

⁴¹ They answered, "He will destroy those evil people. Then he will lease the vineyard to other workers who will give him his share of the produce when it is ready."

⁴² Jesus asked them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord is responsible for this, and it is amazing for us to see'?"

⁴³ That is why I can guarantee that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce what God wants.

⁴⁴ Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken. If the stone falls on anyone, it will crush that person."

⁴⁵ When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his illustrations, they knew that he was talking about them.

⁴⁶ They wanted to arrest him but were afraid of the crowds, who thought he was a prophet.

22 ¹ Again Jesus used stories as illustrations when he spoke to them. He said, ² "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who planned a wedding for his son.

³ He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the wedding, but they refused to come.

⁴ He sent other servants to tell the people who had been invited, 'I've prepared dinner. My bulls and fattened calves have been butchered. Everything is ready. Come to the wedding!'

⁵ "But they paid no attention and went away. Some went to work in their own fields, and others went to their businesses.

⁶ The rest grabbed the king's servants, mistreated them, and then killed them.

⁷ "The king became angry. He sent his soldiers, killed those murderers, and burned their city.

⁸ "Then the king said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited don't deserve the honor.

⁹ Go where the roads leave the city. Invite everyone you find to the wedding.'

¹⁰ The servants went into the streets and brought in all the good people and all the evil people they found. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ "When the king came to see the guests, he saw a person who was not dressed in the wedding clothes provided for the guests.

¹² He said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without proper wedding clothes?' "The man had nothing to say.

¹³ Then the king told his servants, 'Tie his hands and feet, and throw him outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.'

¹⁴ "Therefore, many are invited, but few of those are chosen to stay."

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went away and planned to trap Jesus into saying the wrong thing.

¹⁶ They sent their disciples to him along with Herod's followers. They said to him, "Teacher, we know that you tell the truth and that you teach the truth about the way of God. You don't favor individuals because of who they are.

¹⁷ So tell us what you think. Is it right to pay taxes to the emperor or not?"

¹⁸ Jesus recognized their evil plan, so he asked, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?

¹⁹ Show me a coin used to pay taxes." They brought him a coin.

²⁰ He said to them, "Whose face and name is this?"

²¹ They replied, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Very well, give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God."

²² They were surprised to hear this. Then they left him alone and went away.

²³ On that day some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

²⁴ "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies childless, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.'

²⁵ There were seven brothers among us. The first married and died. Since he had no children, he left his widow to his brother.

²⁶ The second brother also died, as well as the third, and the rest of the seven brothers.

²⁷ At last the woman died.

²⁸ Now, when the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? All seven brothers had been married to her."

²⁹ Jesus answered, "You're mistaken because you don't know the Scriptures or God's power.

³⁰ When people come back to life, they don't marry. Rather, they are like the angels in heaven.

³¹ Haven't you read what God told you about the dead coming back to life? He said,

³² 'I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' He's not the God of the dead but of the living."

³³ He amazed the crowds who heard his teaching.

³⁴ When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.

³⁵ One of them, an expert in Moses' Teachings, tested Jesus by asking,

³⁶ "Teacher, which commandment is the greatest in Moses' Teachings?"

³⁷ Jesus answered him, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'

³⁸ This is the greatest and most important commandment.

³⁹ The second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'

⁴⁰ All of Moses' Teachings and the Prophets depend on these two commandments."

⁴¹ While the Pharisees were still gathered, Jesus asked them,

⁴² "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They answered him, "David's."

⁴³ He said to them, "Then how can David, guided by the Spirit, call him Lord? David says,

⁴⁴ 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Take the highest position in heaven until I put your enemies under your control."

⁴⁵ If David calls him Lord, how can he be his son?"

⁴⁶ No one could answer him, and from that time on no one dared to ask him another question.

23 ¹ Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, ² "The scribes and the Pharisees teach with Moses' authority.

³ So be careful to do everything they tell you. But don't follow their example, because they don't practice what they preach.

⁴ They make loads that are hard to carry and lay them on the shoulders of the people. However, they are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

⁵ "They do everything to attract people's attention. They make their headbands large and the tassels on their shawls long.

⁶ They love the place of honor at dinners and the front seats in synagogues.

⁷ They love to be greeted in the marketplaces and to have people call them Rabbi.

⁸ But don't make others call you Rabbi, because you have only one teacher, and you are all followers.

⁹ And don't call anyone on earth your father, because you have only one Father, and he is in heaven.

¹⁰ Don't make others call you a leader, because you have only one leader, the Messiah.

¹² Whoever honors himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be honored.

¹³ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. You don't enter it yourselves, and you don't permit others to enter when they try.

¹⁴ (OMITTED TEXT)

¹⁵ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You cross land and sea to recruit a single follower, and when you do, you make that person twice as fit for hell as you are.

¹⁶ "How horrible it will be for you, you blind guides! You say, 'To swear an oath by the temple doesn't mean a thing. But to swear an oath by the gold in the temple means a person must keep his oath.'

¹⁷ You blind fools! What is more important, the gold or the temple that made the gold holy?

¹⁸ Again you say, 'To swear an oath by the altar doesn't mean a thing. But to swear an oath by the gift on the altar means a person must keep his oath.'

¹⁹ You blind men! What is more important, the gift or the altar that makes the gift holy?

²⁰ To swear an oath by the altar is to swear by it and by everything on it.

²¹ To swear an oath by the temple is to swear by it and by the one who lives there.

²² And to swear an oath by heaven is to swear by God's throne and the one who sits on it.

²³ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You give God one-tenth of your mint, dill, and cumin. But you have neglected justice, mercy, and faithfulness. These are the most important things in Moses'

Teachings. You should have done these things without neglecting the others.

²⁴ You blind guides! You strain gnats out of your wine, but you swallow camels.

²⁵ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You clean the outside of cups and dishes. But inside they are full of greed and uncontrolled desires.

²⁶ You blind Pharisees! First clean the inside of the cups and dishes so that the outside may also be clean.

²⁷ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You are like whitewashed graves that look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of dead people's bones and every kind of impurity.

²⁸ So on the outside you look as though you have God's approval, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

²⁹ "How horrible it will be for you, scribes and Pharisees! You hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of those who had God's approval.

³⁰ Then you say, 'If we had lived at the time of our ancestors, we would not have helped to murder the prophets.'

³¹ So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

³² Go ahead, finish what your ancestors started!

³³ "You snakes! You poisonous snakes! How can you escape being condemned to hell?

³⁴ I'm sending you prophets, wise men, and teachers of the Scriptures. You will kill and crucify some of them. Others you will whip in your synagogues and persecute from city to city.

³⁵ As a result, you will be held accountable for all the innocent blood of those murdered on earth, from the murder of righteous Abel to that of Zechariah, son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

³⁶ I can guarantee this truth: The people living now will be held accountable for all these things.

³⁷ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you kill the prophets and stone to death those sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings! But you were not willing!

³⁸ Your house will be abandoned, deserted.

³⁹ I can guarantee that you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

24 ¹ As Jesus left the temple courtyard and was walking away, his disciples came to him. They proudly pointed out to him the temple buildings.

² Jesus said to them, "You see all these buildings, don't you? I can guarantee this truth: Not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down."

³ As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came to him privately and said, "Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign that you are coming again, and when will the world come to an end?"

⁴ Jesus answered them, "Be careful not to let anyone deceive you.

⁵ Many will come using my name. They will say, 'I am the Messiah,' and they will deceive many people.

⁶ "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. Don't be alarmed! These things must happen, but they don't mean that the end has come.

⁷ Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

⁸ All of these are only the beginning pains of the end.

⁹ "Then they will hand you over to those who will torture and kill you. All nations will hate you because you are committed to me.

¹⁰ Then many will lose faith. They will betray and hate each other.

¹¹ Many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.

¹² And because there will be more and more lawlessness, most people's love will grow cold.

¹³ But the person who endures to the end will be saved.

¹⁴ "This Good News about the kingdom will be spread throughout the world as a testimony to all nations. Then the end will come.

¹⁵ "The prophet Daniel said that the disgusting thing that will cause destruction will stand in the holy place. When you see this (let the reader take note), ¹⁶ those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains.

¹⁷ Those who are on the roof should not come down to get anything out of their houses.

¹⁸ Those who are in the field should not turn back to get their coats.

¹⁹ "How horrible it will be for the women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days.

²⁰ Pray that it will not be winter or a day of worship when you flee.

²¹ There will be a lot of misery at that time, a kind of misery that has not happened from the beginning of the world until now and will certainly never happen again.

²² If God does not reduce the number of those days, no one will be saved. But those days will be reduced because of those whom God has chosen.

²³ "At that time don't believe anyone who tells you, 'Here is the Messiah!' or 'There he is!'

²⁴ False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will work spectacular, miraculous signs and do wonderful things to deceive, if possible, even those whom God has chosen.

²⁵ Listen! I've told you this before it happens.

²⁶ So if someone tells you, 'He's in the desert!' don't go out looking for him.

And don't believe anyone who says,
'He's in a secret place!'

²⁷ The Son of Man will come again just as lightning flashes from east to west.

²⁸ Vultures will gather wherever there is a dead body.

²⁹ "Immediately after the misery of those days, the sun will turn dark, the moon will not give light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the universe will be shaken.

³⁰ "Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. All the people on earth will cry in agony when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds in the sky with power and great glory.

³¹ He will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and from every direction under the sky, they will gather those whom God has chosen.

³² "Learn from the story of the fig tree.
When its branch becomes tender and it sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near.

³³ In the same way, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the door.

³⁴ "I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all these things take place.

³⁵ The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

³⁶ "No one knows when that day or hour will come. Even the angels in heaven and the Son don't know. Only the Father knows.

³⁷ "When the Son of Man comes again, it will be exactly like the days of Noah.

³⁸ In the days before the flood, people were eating, drinking, and getting married until the day that Noah went into the ship.

³⁹ They were not aware of what was happening until the flood came and swept all of them away. That is how it will be when the Son of Man comes again.

⁴⁰ "At that time two men will be working in the field. One will be taken, and the other one will be left.

⁴¹ Two women will be working at a mill. One will be taken, and the other one will be left.

⁴² "Therefore, be alert, because you don't know on what day your Lord will return.

⁴³ You realize that if a homeowner had known at what time of the night a thief was coming, he would have stayed awake. He would not have let the thief break into his house.

⁴⁴ Therefore, you, too, must be ready because the Son of Man will return when you least expect him.

⁴⁵ "Who, then, is the faithful and wise servant? The master will put that person in charge of giving the other servants their food at the right time.

⁴⁶ That servant will be blessed if his master finds him doing this job when he comes.

⁴⁷ I can guarantee this truth: He will put that servant in charge of all his property.

⁴⁸ On the other hand, that servant, if he is wicked, may think that it will be a long time before his master comes.

⁴⁹ The servant may begin to beat the other servants and eat and drink with the drunks.

⁵⁰ His master will return unexpectedly.

⁵¹ Then his master will severely punish him and assign him a place with the hypocrites. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.

25 ¹ "When the end comes, the kingdom of heaven will be like ten bridesmaids. They took their oil lamps and went to meet the groom.

² Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

³ The foolish bridesmaids took their lamps, but they didn't take any extra oil.

⁴ The wise bridesmaids, however, took along extra oil for their lamps.

⁵ Since the groom was late, all the bridesmaids became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶ "At midnight someone shouted, 'The groom is here! Come to meet him!'

⁷ Then all the bridesmaids woke up and got their lamps ready.

⁸ "The foolish ones said to the wise ones, 'Give us some of your oil. Our lamps are going out.'

⁹ "But the wise bridesmaids replied, 'We can't do that. There won't be enough for both of us. Go! Find someone to sell you some oil.'

¹⁰ "While they were buying oil, the groom arrived. The bridesmaids who were ready went with him into the wedding hall, and the door was shut.

¹¹ "Later the other bridesmaids arrived and said, 'Sir, sir, open the door for us!'

¹² "But he answered them, 'I don't even know who you are!'

¹³ "So stay awake, because you don't know the day or the hour.

¹⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like a man going on a trip. He called his servants and entrusted some money to them.

¹⁵ He gave one man ten thousand dollars, another four thousand dollars, and another two thousand dollars. Each was given money based on his ability. Then the man went on his trip.

¹⁶ "The one who received ten thousand dollars invested the money at once and doubled his money.

¹⁷ The one who had four thousand dollars did the same and also doubled his money.

¹⁸ But the one who received two thousand dollars went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

¹⁹ "After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.

²⁰ The one who received ten thousand dollars brought the additional ten thousand. He said, 'Sir, you gave me ten thousand dollars. I've doubled the amount.'

²¹ "His master replied, 'Good job! You're a good and faithful servant! You proved that you could be trusted with a small amount. I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and share your master's happiness.'

²² "The one who received four thousand dollars came and said, 'Sir, you gave me four thousand dollars. I've doubled the amount.'

²³ "His master replied, 'Good job! You're a good and faithful servant! You proved that you could be trusted with a small amount. I will put you in charge of a large amount. Come and share your master's happiness.'

²⁴ "Then the one who received two thousand dollars came and said, 'Sir, I knew that you are a hard person to please. You harvest where you haven't planted and gather where you haven't scattered any seeds.

²⁵ I was afraid. So I hid your two thousand dollars in the ground. Here's your money!'

²⁶ "His master responded, 'You evil and lazy servant! If you knew that I harvest where I haven't planted and gather where I haven't scattered, ²⁷ then you should have invested my money with the bankers. When I returned, I would have received my money back with interest.

²⁸ Take the two thousand dollars away from him! Give it to the one who has the ten thousand!

²⁹ To all who have, more will be given, and they will have more than enough. But everything will be taken away from those who don't have much.

³⁰ Throw this useless servant outside into the darkness. People will cry and be in extreme pain there.'

³¹ "When the Son of Man comes in his glory and all his angels are with him, he will sit on his glorious throne.

³² The people of every nation will be gathered in front of him. He will separate them as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

³⁴ "Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, my Father has blessed you! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world.

³⁵ I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you took me into your home.

³⁶ I needed clothes, and you gave me something to wear. I was sick, and you took care of me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

³⁷ "Then the people who have God's approval will reply to him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you or see you thirsty and give you something to drink?

³⁸ When did we see you as a stranger and take you into our homes or see you in need of clothes and give you something to wear?

³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?’

⁴⁰ "The king will answer them, 'I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you did for one of my brothers or sisters, no matter how unimportant they seemed, you did for me.'

⁴¹ "Then the king will say to those on his left, 'Get away from me! God has cursed you! Go into everlasting fire that was prepared for the devil and his angels!

⁴² I was hungry, and you gave me nothing to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me nothing to drink.

⁴³ I was a stranger, and you didn't take me into your homes. I needed clothes, and you didn't give me anything to wear. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't take care of me.'

⁴⁴ "They, too, will ask, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or as a stranger or in need of clothes or sick or in prison and didn't help you?'

⁴⁵ "He will answer them, 'I can guarantee this truth: Whatever you failed to do for one of my brothers or sisters, no matter how unimportant they seemed, you failed to do for me.'

⁴⁶ "These people will go away into eternal punishment, but those with God's approval will go into eternal life."

26 ¹ When Jesus finished saying all these things, he told his disciples,

² "You know that the Passover will take place in two days. At that time the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

³ Then the chief priests and the leaders of the people gathered in the palace of the chief priest Caiaphas.

⁴ They made plans to arrest Jesus in an underhanded way and to kill him.

⁵ But they said, "We shouldn't arrest him during the festival, or else there may be a riot among the people."

⁶ Jesus was in Bethany in the home of Simon, a man who had suffered from a skin disease.

⁷ While Jesus was sitting there, a woman went to him with a bottle of very expensive perfume and poured it on his head.

⁸ The disciples were irritated when they saw this. They asked, "Why did she waste it like this?"

⁹ It could have been sold for a high price, and the money could have been given to the poor."

¹⁰ Since Jesus knew what was going on, he said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

¹¹ You will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me with you.

¹² She poured this perfume on my body before it is placed in a tomb.

¹³ I can guarantee this truth: Wherever this Good News is spoken in the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁴ Then one of the twelve apostles, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests.

¹⁵ He asked, "What will you pay me if I hand him over to you?" They offered him 30 silver coins.

¹⁶ From then on, he looked for a chance to betray Jesus.

¹⁷ On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples went to Jesus. They asked, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

¹⁸ He said, "Go to a certain man in the city, and tell him that the teacher says, 'My time is near. I will celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'"

¹⁹ The disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

²⁰ When evening came, Jesus was at the table with the twelve apostles.

²¹ While they were eating, he said, "I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me."

²² Feeling deeply hurt, they asked him one by one, "You don't mean me, do you, Lord?"

²³ Jesus answered, "Someone who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

²⁴ The Son of Man is going to die as the Scriptures say he will. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays the Son of Man. It would have been better for that person if he had never been born."

²⁵ Then Judas, who betrayed him, asked, "You don't mean me, do you, Rabbi?" "Yes, I do," Jesus replied.

²⁶ While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take this, and eat it. This is my body."

²⁷ Then he took a cup and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He gave it to them and said, "Drink from it, all of you.

²⁸ This is my blood, the blood of the promise. It is poured out for many people so that sins are forgiven.

²⁹ "I can guarantee that I won't drink this wine again until that day when I drink new wine with you in my Father's kingdom."

³⁰ After they sang a hymn, they went to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will abandon me tonight. Scripture says, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep in the flock will be scattered.'

³² "But after I am brought back to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you."

³³ Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else abandons you, I never will."

³⁴ Jesus replied to Peter, "I can guarantee this truth: Before a rooster crows tonight, you will say three times that you don't know me."

³⁵ Peter told him, "Even if I have to die with you, I'll never say that I don't know you!" All the other disciples said the same thing.

³⁶ Then Jesus went with the disciples to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, "Stay here while I go over there and pray."

³⁷ He took Peter and Zebedee's two sons with him. He was beginning to feel deep anguish.

³⁸ Then he said to them, "My anguish is so great that I feel as if I'm dying. Wait here, and stay awake with me."

³⁹ After walking a little farther, he quickly bowed with his face to the ground and prayed, "Father, if it's possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. But let your will be done rather than mine."

⁴⁰ When he went back to the disciples, he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "Couldn't you stay awake with me for one hour?"

⁴¹ Stay awake, and pray that you won't be tempted. You want to do what's right, but you're weak."

⁴² Then he went away a second time and prayed, "Father, if this cup cannot be taken away unless I drink it, let your will be done."

⁴³ He found them asleep again because they couldn't keep their eyes open.

⁴⁴ After leaving them again, he went away and prayed the same prayer a third time.

⁴⁵ Then he came back to the disciples and said to them, "You might as well sleep now. The time is near for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

⁴⁶ Get up! Let's go! The one who is betraying me is near."

⁴⁷ Just then, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles, arrived. A large crowd carrying swords and clubs was with him. They were from the chief priests and leaders of the people.

⁴⁸ Now, the traitor had given them a signal. He said, "The one I kiss is the man you want. Arrest him!"

⁴⁹ Then Judas quickly stepped up to Jesus and said, "Hello, Rabbi!" and kissed him.

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then some men came forward, took hold of Jesus, and arrested him.

⁵¹ Suddenly, one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and cut off the ear of the chief priest's servant.

⁵² Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword away! All who use a sword will be killed by a sword.

⁵³ Don't you think that I could call on my Father to send more than twelve legions of angels to help me now?

⁵⁴ How, then, are the Scriptures to be fulfilled that say this must happen?"

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as if I were a criminal? I used to sit teaching in the temple courtyard every day. But you didn't arrest me then.

⁵⁶ All of this has happened so that what the prophets have written would come true." Then all the disciples abandoned him and ran away.

⁵⁷ Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the chief priest, where the scribes and the leaders had gathered together.

⁵⁸ Peter followed at a distance until he came to the chief priest's courtyard. He went inside and sat with the guards to see how this would turn out.

⁵⁹ The chief priests and the whole council were searching for false testimony to use against Jesus in order to execute him.

⁶⁰ But they did not find any, although many came forward with false testimony. At last two men came forward.

⁶¹ They stated, "This man said, 'I can tear down God's temple and rebuild it in three days.'"

⁶² The chief priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Don't you have any answer to what these men testify against you?"

⁶³ But Jesus was silent. Then the chief priest said to him, "Swear an oath in front of the living God and tell us, are you the Messiah, the Son of God?"

⁶⁴ Jesus answered him, "Yes, I am. But I can guarantee that from now on you will see the Son of Man in the highest position in heaven. He will be coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶⁵ Then the chief priest tore his robes in horror and said, "He has dishonored God! Why do we need any more witnesses? You've just heard him dishonor God!"

⁶⁶ What's your verdict?" They answered, "He deserves the death penalty!"

⁶⁷ Then they spit in his face, hit him with their fists, and some of them slapped him.

⁶⁸ They said, "You Christ, if you're a prophet, tell us who hit you."

⁶⁹ Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A female servant came to him and said, "You, too, were with Jesus the Galilean."

⁷⁰ But Peter denied it in front of them all by saying, "I don't know what you're talking about."

⁷¹ As he went to the entrance, another female servant saw him. She told those who were there, "This man was with Jesus from Nazareth."

⁷² Again Peter denied it and swore with an oath, "I don't know the man!"

⁷³ After a little while the men standing there approached Peter and said, "It's obvious you're also one of them. Your accent gives you away!"

⁷⁴ Then Peter began to curse and swear with an oath, "I don't know the man!" Just then a rooster crowed.

⁷⁵ Peter remembered what Jesus had said: "Before a rooster crows, you will say three times that you don't know me." Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

27 ¹ Early in the morning all the chief priests and the leaders of the people decided to execute Jesus.

² They tied him up, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

³ Then Judas, who had betrayed Jesus, regretted what had happened when he saw that Jesus was condemned. He brought the 30 silver coins back to the chief priests and leaders.

⁴ He said, "I've sinned by betraying an innocent man." They replied, "What do we care? That's your problem."

⁵ So he threw the money into the temple, went away, and hanged himself.

⁶ The chief priests took the money and said, "It's not right to put it into the temple treasury, because it's blood money."

⁷ So they decided to use it to buy a potter's field for the burial of strangers.

⁸ That's why that field has been called the Field of Blood ever since.

⁹ Then what the prophet Jeremiah had said came true, "They took the 30 silver coins, the price the people of Israel had placed on him, ¹⁰ and used the coins to buy a potter's field, as the Lord had directed me."

¹¹ Jesus stood in front of the governor, Pilate. The governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Yes, I am," Jesus answered.

¹² While the chief priests and leaders were accusing him, he said nothing.

¹³ Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear how many charges they're bringing against you?"

¹⁴ But Jesus said absolutely nothing to him in reply, so the governor was very surprised.

¹⁵ At every Passover festival the governor would free one prisoner whom the crowd wanted.

¹⁶ At that time there was a well-known prisoner by the name of Barabbas.

¹⁷ So when the people gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which man do you want me to free for you? Do you want me to free Barabbas or Jesus, who is called Christ?"

¹⁸ Pilate knew that they had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous.

¹⁹ While Pilate was judging the case, his wife sent him a message. It said, "Leave that innocent man alone. I've been very upset today because of a dream I had about him."

²⁰ But the chief priests and leaders persuaded the crowd to ask for the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus.

²¹ The governor asked them, "Which of the two do you want me to free for you?" They said, "Barabbas."

²² Pilate asked them, "Then what should I do with Jesus, who is called Christ?" "He should be crucified!" they all said.

²³ Pilate asked, "Why? What has he done wrong?" But they began to shout loudly, "He should be crucified!"

²⁴ Pilate saw that he was not getting anywhere. Instead, a riot was breaking out. So Pilate took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. He said, "I won't be guilty of killing this man. Do what you want!"

²⁵ All the people answered, "The responsibility for killing him will rest on us and our children."

²⁶ Then Pilate freed Barabbas for the people. But he had Jesus whipped and handed over to be crucified.

²⁷ Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the palace and gathered the whole troop around him.

²⁸ They took off his clothes and put a bright red cape on him.

²⁹ They twisted some thorns into a crown, placed it on his head, and put a stick in his right hand. They knelt in front of him and made fun of him by saying, "Long live the king of the Jews!"

³⁰ After they had spit on him, they took the stick and kept hitting him on the head with it.

³¹ After the soldiers finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the cape and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

³² On the way they found a man named Simon. He was from the city of Cyrene. The soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross.

³³ They came to a place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull").

³⁴ They gave him a drink of wine mixed with a drug called gall. When he tasted it, he refused to drink it.

³⁵ After they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice.

³⁶ Then they sat there and kept watch over him.

³⁷ They placed a written accusation above his head. It read, "This is Jesus, the king of the Jews."

³⁸ At that time they crucified two criminals with him, one on his right and the other on his left.

³⁹ Those who passed by insulted him. They shook their heads

⁴⁰ and said, "You were going to tear down God's temple and build it again in three days. Save yourself! If you're the Son of God, come down from the cross."

⁴¹ The chief priests together with the scribes and the leaders made fun of him in the same way. They said, ⁴² "He saved others, but he can't save himself. So he's Israel's king! Let him come down from the cross now, and we'll believe him.

⁴³ He trusted God. Let God rescue him now if he wants. After all, this man said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

⁴⁴ Even the criminals crucified with him were insulting him the same way.

⁴⁵ At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

⁴⁶ About three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

⁴⁷ When some of the people standing there heard him say that, they said, "He's calling Elijah."

⁴⁸ One of the men ran at once, took a sponge, and soaked it in some vinegar. Then he put it on a stick and offered Jesus a drink.

⁴⁹ The others said, "Leave him alone! Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."

⁵⁰ Then Jesus loudly cried out once again and gave up his life.

⁵¹ Suddenly, the curtain in the temple was split in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split open.

⁵² The tombs were opened, and the bodies of many holy people who had died came back to life.

⁵³ They came out of the tombs after he had come back to life, and they went into the holy city where they appeared to many people.

⁵⁴ An army officer and those watching Jesus with him saw the earthquake and the other things happening. They were terrified and said, "Certainly, this was the Son of God!"

⁵⁵ Many women were there watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee and had always supported him.

⁵⁶ Among them were Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of James and Joseph), and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

⁵⁷ In the evening a rich man named Joseph arrived. He was from the city of Arimathea and had become a disciple of Jesus.

⁵⁸ He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

⁵⁹ Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

⁶⁰ Then he laid it in his own new tomb, which had been cut in a rock. After rolling a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away.

⁶¹ Mary from Magdala and the other Mary were sitting there, facing the tomb.

⁶² The next day, which was the day of worship, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together and went to Pilate.

⁶³ They said, "Sir, we remember how that deceiver said while he was still alive, 'After three days I will be brought back to life.'

⁶⁴ Therefore, give the order to make the tomb secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may steal him and say to the people, 'He has been brought back to life.' Then the last deception will be worse than the first."

⁶⁵ Pilate told them, "You have the soldiers you want for guard duty. Go and make the tomb as secure as you know how."

⁶⁶ So they went to secure the tomb. They placed a seal on the stone and posted the soldiers on guard duty.

28 ¹ After the day of worship, as the sun rose Sunday morning, Mary from Magdala and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

² Suddenly, there was a powerful earthquake. An angel of the Lord had come down from heaven, rolled the stone away, and was sitting on it.

³ He was as bright as lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

⁴ The guards were so deathly afraid of him that they shook.

⁵ The angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid! I know you're looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

⁶ He's not here. He has been brought back to life as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying.

⁷ Then go quickly, and tell his disciples that he has been brought back to life. He's going ahead of them into Galilee. There they will see him. Take note that I have told you."

⁸ They hurried away from the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples.

⁹ Suddenly, Jesus met them and greeted them. They went up to him, bowed down to worship him, and took hold of his feet.

¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid! Go, tell my followers to go to Galilee. There they will see me."

¹¹ While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city. They told the chief priests everything that had happened.

¹² The chief priests gathered together with the leaders and agreed on a plan. They gave the soldiers a large amount of money

¹³ and told them to say that Jesus' disciples had come at night and had stolen his body while they were sleeping.

¹⁴ They added, "If the governor hears about it, we'll take care of it, and you'll have nothing to worry about."

¹⁵ The soldiers took the money and did as they were told. Their story has been spread among the Jewish people to this day.

¹⁶ The eleven disciples went to the mountain in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go.

¹⁷ When they saw him, they bowed down in worship, though some had doubts.

¹⁸ When Jesus came near, he spoke to them. He said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

¹⁹ So wherever you go, make disciples of all nations: Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

²⁰ Teach them to do everything I have commanded you. "And remember that I am always with you until the end of time."

Mark

1 ¹ This is the beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

² The prophet Isaiah wrote, "I am sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way for you."

³ "A voice cries out in the desert: 'Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!'"

⁴ John the Baptizer was in the desert telling people about a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

⁵ All Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went to him. As they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

⁶ John was dressed in clothes made from camel's hair. He wore a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey.

⁷ He announced, "The one who comes after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to bend down and untie his sandal straps.

⁸ I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

⁹ At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan River.

¹⁰ As Jesus came out of the water, he saw heaven split open and the Spirit coming down to him as a dove.

¹¹ A voice from heaven said, "You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you."

¹² At once the Spirit brought him into the desert,

¹³ where he was tempted by Satan for 40 days. He was there with the wild animals, and the angels took care of him.

¹⁴ After John had been put in prison, Jesus went to Galilee and told people the Good News of God.

¹⁵ He said, "The time has come, and the kingdom of God is near. Change the way you think and act, and believe the Good News."

¹⁶ As he was going along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were throwing a net into the sea because they were fishermen.

¹⁷ Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me! I will teach you how to catch people instead of fish."

¹⁸ They immediately left their nets and followed him.

¹⁹ As Jesus went on a little farther, he saw James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat preparing their nets to go fishing.

²⁰ He immediately called them, and they left their father Zebedee and the hired men in the boat and followed Jesus.

²¹ Then they went to Capernaum. On the next day of worship, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

²² The people were amazed at his teachings. Unlike their scribes, he taught them with authority.

²³ At that time there was a man in the synagogue who was controlled by an evil spirit. He shouted, ²⁴ "What do you want with us, Jesus from Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

²⁵ Jesus ordered the spirit, "Keep quiet, and come out of him!"

²⁶ The evil spirit threw the man into convulsions and came out of him with a loud shriek.

²⁷ Everyone was stunned. They said to each other, "What is this? This is a new teaching that has authority behind it! He gives orders to evil spirits, and they obey him."

²⁸ The news about him spread quickly throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

²⁹ After they left the synagogue, they went directly to the house of Simon and Andrew. James and John went with them.

³⁰ Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever. The first thing they did was to tell Jesus about her.

³¹ Jesus went to her, took her hand, and helped her get up. The fever went away, and she prepared a meal for them.

³² In the evening, when the sun had set, people brought to him everyone who was sick and those possessed by demons.

³³ The whole city had gathered at his door.

³⁴ He cured many who were sick with various diseases and forced many demons out of people. However, he would not allow the demons to speak. After all, they knew who he was.

³⁵ In the morning, long before sunrise, Jesus went to a place where he could be alone to pray.

³⁶ Simon and his friends searched for him.

³⁷ When they found him, they told him, "Everyone is looking for you."

³⁸ Jesus said to them, "Let's go somewhere else, to the small towns that are nearby. I have to spread the Good News in them also. This is why I have come."

³⁹ So he went to spread the Good News in the synagogues all over Galilee, and he forced demons out of people.

⁴⁰ Then a man with a serious skin disease came to him. The man fell to his knees and begged Jesus, "If you're willing, you can make me clean."

⁴¹ Jesus felt sorry for him, reached out, touched him, and said, "I'm willing. So be clean!"

⁴² Immediately, his skin disease went away, and he was clean.

⁴³ Jesus sent him away at once and warned him,

⁴⁴ "Don't tell anyone about this! Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifices which Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean."

⁴⁵ When the man left, he began to talk freely. He spread his story so widely that Jesus could no longer enter any city openly. Instead, he stayed in places where he could be alone. But people still kept coming to him from everywhere.

2¹ Several days later Jesus came back to Capernaum. The report went out that he was home.

² Many people had gathered. There was no room left, even in front of the door. Jesus was speaking God's word to them.

³ Four men came to him carrying a paralyzed man.

⁴ Since they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof over the place where Jesus was. Then they lowered the cot on which the paralyzed man was lying.

⁵ When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."

⁶ Some scribes were sitting there. They thought,

⁷ "Why does he talk this way? He's dishonoring God. Who besides God can forgive sins?"

⁸ At once, Jesus knew inwardly what they were thinking. He asked them, "Why do you have these thoughts?"

⁹ Is it easier to say to this paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, pick up your cot, and walk'?

¹⁰ I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man,

¹¹ "I'm telling you to get up, pick up your cot, and go home!"

¹² The man got up, immediately picked up his cot, and walked away while everyone watched. Everyone was amazed and praised God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this."

¹³ Jesus went to the seashore again. Large crowds came to him, and he taught them.

¹⁴ When Jesus was leaving, he saw Levi, son of Alphaeus, sitting in a tax office.

Jesus said to him, "Follow me!" So Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵ Later Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house. Many tax collectors and sinners who were followers of Jesus were eating with him and his disciples.

¹⁶ When the scribes who were Pharisees saw him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹⁷ When Jesus heard that, he said to them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor; those who are sick do. I've come to call sinners, not people who think they have God's approval."

¹⁸ John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came to Jesus and said to him, "Why do John's disciples and the Pharisees' disciples fast, but your disciples don't?"

¹⁹ Jesus replied, "Can wedding guests fast while the groom is still with them? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast.

²⁰ But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast.

²¹ "No one patches an old coat with a new piece of cloth that will shrink. Otherwise, the new patch will shrink and rip away some of the old cloth, and the tear will become worse.

²² People don't pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the wine will make the skins burst, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined. Rather, new wine is to be poured into fresh skins."

²³ Once on a day of worship Jesus was going through the grainfields. As the disciples walked along, they began to pick the heads of grain.

²⁴ The Pharisees asked him, "Look! Why are your disciples doing something that is not permitted on the day of worship?"

²⁵ Jesus asked them, "Haven't you ever read what David did when he and his men were in need and were hungry?"

²⁶ Haven't you ever read how he went into the house of God when Abiathar was chief priest and ate the bread of the presence? He had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right. Haven't you ever read how he also gave some of it to his men?"

²⁷ Then he added, "The day of worship was made for people, not people for the day of worship.

²⁸ For this reason the Son of Man has authority over the day of worship."

3¹ Jesus went into a synagogue again. A man who had a paralyzed hand was there.

² The people were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to see whether he would heal the man on the day of worship so that they could accuse him of doing something wrong.

³ So he told the man with the paralyzed hand, "Stand in the center of the synagogue."

⁴ Then he asked them, "Is it right to do good or to do evil on the day of worship, to give a person back his health or to let him die?" But they were silent.

⁵ Jesus was angry as he looked around at them. He was deeply hurt because their minds were closed. Then he told the man, "Hold out your hand." The man held it out, and his hand became normal again.

⁸ Jerusalem, Idumea, and from across the Jordan River, and from around Tyre and Sidon followed him. They came to him because they had heard about everything he was doing.

⁹ Jesus told his disciples to have a boat ready so that the crowd would not crush him.

¹⁰ He had cured so many that everyone with a disease rushed up to him in order to touch him.

¹¹ Whenever people with evil spirits saw him, they would fall down in front of him and shout, "You are the Son of God!"

¹² He gave them orders not to tell people who he was.

¹³ Jesus went up a mountain, called those whom he wanted, and they came to him.

¹⁴ He appointed twelve whom he called apostles. They were to accompany him and to be sent out by him to spread the Good News.

¹⁵ They also had the authority to force demons out of people.

¹⁶ He appointed these twelve: Simon (whom Jesus named Peter),

¹⁷ James and his brother John (Zebedee's sons whom Jesus named Boanerges, which means "Thunderbolts"), ¹⁸ Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James (son of Alphaeus), Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed Jesus).

²⁰ Then Jesus went home. Another crowd gathered so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat.

²¹ When his family heard about it, they went to get him. They said, "He's out of his mind!"

²² The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "Beelzebul is in him," and "He forces demons out of people with the help of the ruler of demons."

²³ Jesus called them together and used this illustration: "How can Satan force out Satan?"

²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last.

²⁵ And if a household is divided against itself, that household will not last.

²⁶ So if Satan rebels against himself and is divided, he cannot last. That will be the end of him.

²⁷ "No one can go into a strong man's house and steal his property. First he must tie up the strong man. Then he can go through the strong man's house and steal his property.

²⁸ "I can guarantee this truth: People will be forgiven for any sin or curse.

²⁹ But whoever curses the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. He is guilty of an everlasting sin."

³⁰ Jesus said this because the scribes had said that he had an evil spirit.

³¹ Then his mother and his brothers arrived. They stood outside and sent someone to ask him to come out.

³² The crowd sitting around Jesus told him, "Your mother and your brothers are outside looking for you."

³³ He replied to them, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

³⁴ Then looking at those who sat in a circle around him, he said, "Look, here are my mother and my brothers.

³⁵ Whoever does what God wants is my brother and sister and mother."

4 ¹ Jesus began to teach again by the Sea of Galilee. A very large crowd gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat in it. The boat was in the water while the entire crowd lined the shore.

² He used stories as illustrations to teach them many things. While he was teaching them, he said, ³ "Listen! A farmer went to plant seed.

⁴ Some seeds were planted along the road, and birds came and devoured them.

⁵ Other seeds were planted on rocky ground, where there wasn't much soil. The plants sprouted quickly because the soil wasn't deep.

⁶ When the sun came up, they were scorched. They didn't have any roots, so they withered.

⁷ Other seeds were planted among thornbushes. The thornbushes grew up and choked them, and they didn't produce anything.

⁸ But other seeds were planted on good ground, sprouted, and produced thirty, sixty, or one hundred times as much as was planted."

⁹ He added, "Let the person who has ears listen!"

¹⁰ When he was alone with his followers and the twelve apostles, they asked him about the stories.

¹¹ Jesus replied to them, "The mystery about the kingdom of God has been given directly to you. To those on the outside, it is given in stories:

¹² 'They see clearly but don't perceive. They hear clearly but don't understand. They never return to me and are never forgiven.'"

¹³ Jesus asked them, "Don't you understand this story? How, then, will you understand any of the stories I use as illustrations?"

¹⁴ "The farmer plants the word.

¹⁶ Other people are like seeds that were planted on rocky ground. Whenever they hear the word, they accept it at once with joy.

¹⁸ Other people are like seeds planted among thornbushes. They hear the word, ¹⁹ but the worries of life, the deceitful pleasures of riches, and the desires for other things take over. They choke the word so that it can't produce anything.

²⁰ Others are like seeds planted on good ground. They hear the word, accept it, and produce crops—thirty, sixty, or one hundred times as much as was planted."

²¹ Jesus said to them, "Does anyone bring a lamp into a room to put it under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a lamp stand?

²² There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed. There is nothing kept secret that will not come to light.

²³ Let the person who has ears listen!"

²⁴ He went on to say, "Pay attention to what you're listening to! Knowledge will be measured out to you by the measure of attention you give. This is the way knowledge increases.

²⁵ Those who understand these mysteries will be given more knowledge. However, some people don't understand these mysteries. Even what they understand will be taken away from them."

²⁶ Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seeds on the ground.

²⁷ He sleeps at night and is awake during the day. The seeds sprout and grow, although the man doesn't know how.

²⁸ The ground produces grain by itself. First the green blade appears, then the head, then the head full of grain.

²⁹ As soon as the grain is ready, he cuts it with a sickle, because harvest time has come."

³⁰ Jesus asked, "How can we show what the kingdom of God is like? To what can we compare it?

³¹ It's like a mustard seed planted in the ground. The mustard seed is one of the smallest seeds on earth.

³² However, when planted, it comes up and becomes taller than all the garden plants. It grows such large branches that birds can nest in its shade."

³³ Jesus spoke God's word to them using many illustrations like these. In this way people could understand what he taught.

³⁴ He did not speak to them without using an illustration. But when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

³⁵ That evening, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side."

³⁶ Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus along in a boat just as he was. Other boats were with him.

³⁷ A violent windstorm came up. The waves were breaking into the boat so that it was quickly filling up.

³⁸ But he was sleeping on a cushion in the back of the boat. So they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care that we're going to die?"

³⁹ Then he got up, ordered the wind to stop, and said to the sea, "Be still, absolutely still!" The wind stopped blowing, and the sea became very calm.

⁴⁰ He asked them, "Why are you such cowards? Don't you have any faith yet?"

⁴¹ They were overcome with fear and asked each other, "Who is this man? Even the wind and the sea obey him!"

5 ¹ They arrived in the territory of the Gerasenes on the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

² As Jesus stepped out of the boat, a man came out of the tombs and met him. The man was controlled by an evil spirit

³ and lived among the tombs. No one could restrain him any longer, not even with a chain.

⁴ He had often been chained hand and foot. However, he snapped the chains off his hands and broke the chains from his feet. No one could control him.

⁵ Night and day he was among the tombs and on the mountainsides screaming and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ The man saw Jesus at a distance. So he ran to Jesus, bowed down in front of him,

⁷ and shouted, "Why are you bothering me now, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Swear to God that you won't torture me."

⁸ He shouted this because Jesus said, "You evil spirit, come out of the man."

⁹ Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He told Jesus, "My name is Legion [Six Thousand], because there are many of us."

¹⁰ He begged Jesus not to send them out of the territory.

¹¹ A large herd of pigs was feeding on a mountainside nearby.

¹² The demons begged him, "Send us into the pigs! Let us enter them!"

¹³ Jesus let them do this. The evil spirits came out of the man and went into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned.

¹⁴ Those who took care of the pigs ran away. In the city and countryside they reported everything that had happened. So the people came to see what had happened.

¹⁵ They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. The man was sitting there dressed and in his right mind. The people were frightened.

¹⁶ Those who saw this told what had happened to the demon-possessed man and the pigs.

¹⁷ Then the people began to beg Jesus to leave their territory.

¹⁸ As Jesus stepped into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged him, "Let me stay with you."

¹⁹ But Jesus would not allow it. Instead, he told the man, "Go home to your family, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been to you."

²⁰ So the man left. He began to tell how much Jesus had done for him in the Ten Cities. Everyone was amazed.

²¹ Jesus again crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee in a boat. A large crowd gathered around him by the seashore.

²² A synagogue leader named Jairus also arrived. When he saw Jesus, he quickly bowed down in front of him.

²³ He begged Jesus, "My little daughter is dying. Come, lay your hands on her so that she may get well and live."

²⁴ Jesus went with the man. A huge crowd followed Jesus and pressed him on every side.

²⁵ In the crowd was a woman who had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years.

²⁶ Although she had been under the care of many doctors and had spent all her money, she had not been helped at all. Actually, she had become worse.

²⁷ Since she had heard about Jesus, she came from behind in the crowd and touched his clothes.

²⁸ She said, "If I can just touch his clothes, I'll get well."

²⁹ Her bleeding stopped immediately. She felt cured from her illness.

³⁰ At that moment Jesus felt power had gone out of him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

³¹ His disciples said to him, "How can you ask, 'Who touched me,' when you see the crowd pressing you on all sides?"

³² But he kept looking around to see the woman who had done this.

³³ The woman trembled with fear. She knew what had happened to her. So she quickly bowed in front of him and told him the whole truth.

³⁴ Jesus told her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace! Be cured from your illness."

³⁵ While Jesus was still speaking to her, some people came from the synagogue leader's home. They told the synagogue leader, "Your daughter has died. Why bother the teacher anymore?"

³⁶ When Jesus overheard what they said, he told the synagogue leader, "Don't be afraid! Just believe."

³⁷ Jesus allowed no one to go with him except Peter and the two brothers James and John.

³⁸ When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a noisy crowd there. People were crying and sobbing loudly.

³⁹ When he came into the house, he asked them, "Why are you making so much noise and crying? The child isn't dead. She's just sleeping."

⁴⁰ They laughed at him. So he made all of them go outside. Then he took the child's father, mother, and his three disciples and went to the child.

⁴¹ Jesus took the child's hand and said to her, "Talitha, koum!" which means, "Little girl, I'm telling you to get up!"

⁴² The girl got up at once and started to walk. (She was twelve years old.) They were astonished.

⁴³ Jesus ordered them not to let anyone know about this. He also told them to give the little girl something to eat.

6¹ Jesus left that place and went to his hometown. His disciples followed him.

² When the day of worship came, he began to teach in the synagogue. He amazed many who heard him. They asked, "Where did this man get these ideas? Who gave him this kind of wisdom and the ability to do such great miracles?"

³ Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" So they took offense at him.

⁴ But Jesus told them, "The only place a prophet isn't honored is in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own house."

⁵ He couldn't work any miracles there except to lay his hands on a few sick people and cure them.

⁶ Their unbelief amazed him. Then Jesus went around to the villages and taught.

⁷ He called the twelve apostles, sent them out two by two, and gave them authority over evil spirits.

⁸ He instructed them to take nothing along on the trip except a walking stick. They were not to take any food, a traveling bag, or money in their pockets.

⁹ They could wear sandals but could not take along a change of clothes.

¹⁰ He told them, "Whenever you go into a home, stay there until you're ready to leave that place.

¹¹ Wherever people don't welcome you or listen to you, leave and shake the dust from your feet as a warning to them."

¹² So the apostles went and told people that they should turn to God and change the way they think and act.

¹³ They also forced many demons out of people and poured oil on many who were sick to cure them.

¹⁴ King Herod heard about Jesus, because Jesus' name had become well-known. Some people were saying, "John the Baptizer has come back to life. That's why he has the power to perform these miracles."

¹⁵ Others said, "He is Elijah." Still others said, "He is a prophet like one of the other prophets."

¹⁶ But when Herod heard about it, he said, "I had John's head cut off, and he has come back to life!"

¹⁸ John had been telling Herod, "It's not right for you to be married to your brother's wife."

¹⁹ So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she wasn't allowed to do it ²⁰ because Herod was afraid of John. Herod knew that John was a fair and holy man, so he protected him. When he listened to John, he would become very disturbed, and yet he liked to listen to him.

²¹ An opportunity finally came on Herod's birthday. Herod gave a dinner for his top officials, army officers, and the most important people of Galilee.

²² His daughter, that is, Herodias' daughter, came in and danced. Herod and his guests were delighted with her. The king told the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I'll give it to you."

²³ He swore an oath to her: "I'll give you anything you ask for, up to half of my kingdom."

²⁴ So she went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask for?" Her mother said, "Ask for the head of John the Baptizer."

²⁵ So the girl hurried back to the king with her request. She said, "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptizer on a platter at once."

²⁶ The king deeply regretted his promise. But because of his oath and his guests, he didn't want to refuse her.

²⁷ Immediately, the king sent a guard and ordered him to bring John's head. The guard cut off John's head in prison.

²⁸ Then he brought the head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

²⁹ When John's disciples heard about this, they came for his body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰ The apostles gathered around Jesus. They reported to him everything they had done and taught.

³¹ So he said to them, "Let's go to a place where we can be alone to rest for a while." Many people were coming and going, and Jesus and the apostles didn't even have a chance to eat.

³² So they went away in a boat to a place where they could be alone.

³³ But many people saw them leave and recognized them. The people ran from all the cities and arrived ahead of them.

³⁴ When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd and felt sorry for them. They were like sheep without a shepherd. So he spent a lot of time teaching them.

³⁵ When it was late, his disciples came to him. They said, "No one lives around here, and it's already late.

³⁶ Send the people to the closest farms and villages to buy themselves something to eat."

³⁷ Jesus replied, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "Should we go and spend about a year's wages on bread to feed them?"

³⁸ He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." When they found out, they told him, "Five loaves of bread and two fish."

³⁹ Then he ordered all of them to sit down in groups on the green grass.

⁴⁰ They sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

⁴¹ After he took the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart and kept giving them to the disciples to give to the people. He also gave pieces of the two fish to everyone.

⁴² All of them ate as much as they wanted.

⁴³ When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets with bread and fish.

⁴⁴ There were 5,000 men who had eaten the bread.

⁴⁵ Jesus quickly made his disciples get into a boat and cross to Bethsaida ahead of him while he sent the people away.

⁴⁶ After saying goodbye to them, he went up a mountain to pray.

⁴⁷ When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land.

⁴⁸ Jesus saw that they were in a lot of trouble as they rowed, because they were going against the wind. Between three and six o'clock in the morning, he came to them. He was walking on the sea. He wanted to pass by them.

⁴⁹ When they saw him walking on the sea, they thought, "It's a ghost!" and they began to scream.

⁵⁰ All of them saw him and were terrified. Immediately, he said, "Calm down! It's me. Don't be afraid!"

⁵¹ He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped blowing. The disciples were astounded.

⁵² (They didn't understand what had happened with the loaves of bread. Instead, their minds were closed.)

⁵³ They crossed the sea, came to shore at Gennesaret, and anchored there.

⁵⁴ As soon as they stepped out of the boat, the people recognized Jesus.

⁵⁵ They ran all over the countryside and began to carry the sick on cots to any place where they heard he was.

⁵⁶ Whenever he would go into villages, cities, or farms, people would put their sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch the edge of his clothes. Everyone who touched his clothes was made well.

7 ¹ The Pharisees and some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus.

² They saw that some of his disciples were unclean because they ate without washing their hands.

³ (The Pharisees, like all other Jewish people, don't eat unless they have properly washed their hands. They follow the traditions of their ancestors.

⁴ When they come from the marketplace, they don't eat unless they have washed first. They have been taught to follow many other rules. For example, they must also wash their cups, jars, brass pots, and dinner tables.)

⁵ The Pharisees and the scribes asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples follow the traditions taught by our ancestors? They are unclean because they don't wash their hands before they eat!"

⁶ Jesus told them, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites in Scripture: 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

⁷ Their worship of me is pointless, because their teachings are rules made by humans.'

⁸ "You abandon the commandments of God to follow human traditions."

⁹ He added, "You have no trouble rejecting the commandments of God in order to keep your own traditions!

¹⁰ For example, Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother' and 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

¹¹ But you say, 'If a person tells his father or mother that whatever he might have used to help them is corban (that is, an offering to God),

¹² he no longer has to do anything for his father or mother.'

¹³ Because of your traditions you have destroyed the authority of God's word. And you do many other things like that."

¹⁴ Then he called the crowd again and said to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and try to understand!

¹⁵ Nothing that goes into a person from the outside can make him unclean. It's what comes out of a person that makes him unclean.

¹⁶ Let the person who has ears listen!"

¹⁷ When he had left the people and gone home, his disciples asked him about this illustration.

¹⁸ Jesus said to them, "Don't you understand? Don't you know that whatever goes into a person from the outside can't make him unclean?

¹⁹ It doesn't go into his thoughts but into his stomach and then into a toilet." (By saying this, Jesus declared all foods acceptable.)

²⁰ He continued, "It's what comes out of a person that makes him unclean.

²¹ Evil thoughts, sexual sins, stealing, murder,

²² adultery, greed, wickedness, cheating, shameless lust, envy, cursing, arrogance, and foolishness come from within a person.

²³ All these evils come from within and make a person unclean."

²⁴ Jesus left that place and went to the territory of Tyre. He didn't want anyone to know that he was staying in a house there. However, it couldn't be kept a secret.

²⁵ A woman whose little daughter had an evil spirit heard about Jesus. She went to him and bowed down.

²⁶ The woman happened to be Greek, born in Phoenicia in Syria. She asked him to force the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷ Jesus said to her, "First, let the children eat all they want. It's not right to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."

²⁸ She answered him, "Lord, even the dogs under the table eat some of the children's scraps."

²⁹ Jesus said to her, "Because you have said this, go! The demon has left your daughter."

³⁰ The woman went home and found the little child lying on her bed, and the demon was gone.

³¹ Jesus then left the neighborhood of Tyre. He went through Sidon and the territory of the Ten Cities to the Sea of Galilee.

³² Some people brought to him a man who was deaf and who also had a speech defect. They begged Jesus to lay his hand on him.

³³ Jesus took him away from the crowd to be alone with him. He put his fingers into the man's ears, and after spitting, he touched the man's tongue.

³⁴ Then he looked up to heaven, sighed, and said to the man, "Ephphatha!" which means, "Be opened!"

³⁵ At once the man could hear and talk normally.

³⁶ Jesus ordered the people not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them, the more they spread the news.

³⁷ Jesus completely amazed the people. They said, "He has done everything well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute talk."

8 ¹ About that time there was once again a large crowd with nothing to eat. Jesus called his disciples and said to them, ² "I feel sorry for the people. They have been with me three days now and have nothing to eat.

³ If I send them home before they've eaten, they will become exhausted on the road. Some of them have come a long distance."

⁴ His disciples asked him, "Where could anyone get enough bread to feed these people in this place where no one lives?"

⁵ Jesus asked them, "How many loaves of bread do you have?" They answered, "Seven."

⁶ He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. He took the seven loaves and gave thanks to God. Then he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples to serve to the people.

⁷ They also had a few small fish. He blessed them and said that the fish should also be served to the people.

⁸ The people ate as much as they wanted. The disciples picked up the leftover pieces and filled seven large baskets.

⁹ About four thousand people were there. Then he sent the people on their way.

¹⁰ After that, Jesus and his disciples got into a boat and went into the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹ The Pharisees went to Jesus and began to argue with him. They tested him by demanding that he perform a miraculous sign from heaven.

¹² With a deep sigh he asked, "Why do these people demand a sign? I can guarantee this truth: If these people are given a sign, it will be far different than what they want!"

¹³ Then he left them there. He got into a boat again and crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

¹⁴ The disciples had forgotten to take any bread along and had only one loaf with them in the boat.

¹⁵ Jesus warned them, "Be careful! Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!"

¹⁶ They had been discussing with one another that they didn't have any bread.

¹⁷ Jesus knew what they were saying and asked them, "Why are you discussing the fact that you don't have any bread? Don't you understand yet? Don't you catch on? Are your minds closed?"

¹⁸ Are you blind and deaf? Don't you remember?

¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets did you fill with leftover pieces?" They told him, "Twelve."

²⁰ "When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many large baskets did you fill with leftover pieces?" They answered him, "Seven."

²¹ He asked them, "Don't you catch on yet?"

²² As they came to Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus. They begged Jesus to touch him.

²³ Jesus took the blind man's hand and led him out of the village. He spit into the man's eyes and placed his hands on him. Jesus asked him, "Can you see anything?"

²⁴ The man looked up and said, "I see people. They look like trees walking around."

²⁵ Then Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes a second time, and the man saw clearly. His sight was normal again. He could see everything clearly even at a distance.

²⁶ Jesus told him when he sent him home, "Don't go into the village."

²⁷ Then Jesus and his disciples went to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say I am?"

²⁸ They answered him, "Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets."

²⁹ He asked them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah!"

³⁰ He ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

³¹ Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man would have to suffer a lot. He taught them that he would be rejected by the leaders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, but after three days he would come back to life.

³² He told them very clearly what he meant. Peter took him aside and objected to this.

³³ Jesus turned, looked at his disciples, and objected to what Peter said. Jesus said, "Get out of my way, Satan! You aren't thinking the way God thinks but the way humans think."

³⁴ Then Jesus called the crowd to himself along with his disciples. He said to them, "Those who want to follow me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses, and follow me.

³⁵ Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me and for the Good News will save them.

³⁶ What good does it do for people to win the whole world yet lose their lives?

³⁷ Or what should a person give in exchange for life?

³⁸ If people are ashamed of me and what I say in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of those people when he comes with the holy angels in his Father's glory."

9¹ He said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the kingdom of God arrive with power."

² After six days Jesus took only Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. Jesus' appearance changed in front of them.

³ His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone on earth could bleach them.

⁴ Then Elijah and Moses appeared to them and were talking with Jesus.

⁵ Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it's good that we're here. Let's put up three tents—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

⁶ (Peter didn't know how to respond. He and the others were terrified.)

⁷ Then a cloud overshadowed them. A voice came out of the cloud and said, "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

⁸ Suddenly, as they looked around, they saw no one with them but Jesus.

⁹ On their way down the mountain, Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen. They were to wait until the Son of Man had come back to life.

¹⁰ They kept in mind what he said but argued among themselves what he meant by "come back to life."

¹¹ So they asked him, "Don't the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹² Jesus said to them, "Elijah is coming first and will put everything in order again. But in what sense was it written that the Son of Man must suffer a lot and be treated shamefully?"

¹³ Indeed, I can guarantee that Elijah has come. Yet, people treated him as they pleased, as Scripture says about him."

¹⁴ When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them. Some scribes were arguing with them.

¹⁵ All the people were very surprised to see Jesus and ran to welcome him.

¹⁶ Jesus asked the scribes, "What are you arguing about with them?"

¹⁷ A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought you my son. He is possessed by a spirit that won't let him talk.

¹⁸ Whenever the spirit brings on a seizure, it throws him to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes exhausted. I asked your disciples to force the spirit out, but they didn't have the power to do it."

¹⁹ Jesus said to them, "You unbelieving generation! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me!"

²⁰ They brought the boy to him. As soon as the spirit saw Jesus, it threw the boy into convulsions. He fell on the ground, rolled around, and foamed at the mouth.

²¹ Jesus asked his father, "How long has he been like this?" The father replied, "He has been this way since he was a child.

²² The demon has often thrown him into fire or into water to destroy him. If it's possible for you, put yourself in our place, and help us!"

²³ Jesus said to him, "As far as possibilities go, everything is possible for the person who believes."

²⁴ The child's father cried out at once, "I believe! Help my lack of faith."

²⁵ When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he gave an order to the evil spirit. He said, "You spirit that won't let him talk, I command you to come out of him and never enter him again."

²⁶ The evil spirit screamed, shook the child violently, and came out. The boy looked as if he were dead, and everyone said, "He's dead!"

²⁷ Jesus took his hand and helped him to stand up.

²⁸ When Jesus went into a house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we force the spirit out of the boy?"

²⁹ He told them, "This kind of spirit can be forced out only by prayer."

³⁰ They left that place and were passing through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where he was ³¹ because he was teaching his disciples. He taught them, "The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people. They will kill him, but on the third day he will come back to life."

³² The disciples didn't understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him.

³³ Then they came to Capernaum.

While Jesus was at home, he asked the disciples, "What were you arguing about on the road?"

³⁴ They were silent. On the road they had argued about who was the greatest.

³⁵ He sat down and called the twelve apostles. He told them, "Whoever wants to be the most important person must take the last place and be a servant to everyone else."

³⁶ Then he took a little child and had him stand among them. He put his arms around the child and said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me. Whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

³⁸ John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone forcing demons out of a person by using the power and authority of your name. We tried to stop him because he was not one of us."

³⁹ Jesus said, "Don't stop him! No one who works a miracle in my name can turn around and speak evil of me.

⁴⁰ Whoever isn't against us is for us.

⁴¹ I can guarantee this truth: Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose his reward."

⁴² "These little ones believe in me. It would be best for the person who causes one of them to lose faith to be thrown into the sea with a large stone hung around his neck.

⁴³ "So if your hand causes you to lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life disabled than to have two hands and go to hell, to the fire that cannot be put out.

⁴⁴ (OMITTED TEXT)

⁴⁵ If your foot causes you to lose your faith, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

⁴⁶ (OMITTED TEXT)

⁴⁷ If your eye causes you to lose your faith, tear it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell.

⁴⁸ In hell worms that eat the body never die, and the fire is never put out.

⁴⁹ Everyone will be salted with fire.

⁵⁰ Salt is good. But if salt loses its taste, how will you restore its flavor? Have salt within you, and live in peace with one another."

10 ¹ Jesus left there and went into the territory of Judea along the other side of the Jordan River. Crowds gathered around him again, and he taught them as he usually did.

² Some Pharisees came to test him. They asked, "Can a husband divorce his wife?"

³ Jesus answered them, "What command did Moses give you?"

⁴ They said, "Moses allowed a man to give his wife a written notice to divorce her."

⁵ Jesus said to them, "He wrote this command for you because you're heartless.

⁶ But God made them male and female in the beginning, at creation.

⁷ That's why a man will leave his father and mother and will remain united with his wife,

⁸ and the two will be one. So they are no longer two but one.

⁹ Therefore, don't let anyone separate what God has joined together."

¹⁰ When they were in a house, the disciples asked him about this.

¹¹ He answered them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery.

¹² If a wife divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery."

¹³ Some people brought little children to Jesus to have him hold them. But the disciples told the people not to do that.

¹⁴ When Jesus saw this, he became irritated. He told them, "Don't stop the children from coming to me. Children like these are part of the kingdom of God.

¹⁵ I can guarantee this truth: Whoever doesn't receive the kingdom of God as a little child receives it will never enter it."

¹⁶ Jesus put his arms around the children and blessed them by placing his hands on them.

¹⁷ As Jesus was coming out to the road, a man came running to him and knelt in front of him. He asked Jesus, "Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁸ Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.

¹⁹ You know the commandments: Never murder. Never commit adultery. Never steal. Never give false testimony. Never cheat. Honor your father and mother."

²⁰ The man replied, "Teacher, I've obeyed all these commandments since I was a boy."

²¹ Jesus looked at him and loved him. He told him, "You're still missing one thing. Sell everything you have. Give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!"

²² When the man heard that, he looked unhappy and went away sad, because he owned a lot of property.

²³ Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for rich people to enter the kingdom of God!"

²⁴ The disciples were stunned by his words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ This amazed his disciples more than ever. They asked each other, "Who, then, can be saved?"

²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, "It's impossible for people to save themselves, but it's not impossible for God to save them. Everything is possible for God."

²⁸ Then Peter spoke up, "We've given up everything to follow you."

²⁹ Jesus said, "I can guarantee this truth: Anyone who gave up his home, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, or fields because of me and the Good News

³⁰ will certainly receive a hundred times as much here in this life. They will certainly receive homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields, along with persecutions. But in the world to come they will receive eternal life.

³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

³² Jesus and his disciples were on their way to Jerusalem. Jesus was walking ahead of them. His disciples were shocked that he was going to Jerusalem. The others who followed were afraid. Once again he took the twelve apostles aside. He began to tell them what was going to happen to him.

³³ "We're going to Jerusalem. There the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death and hand him over to foreigners.

³⁴ They will make fun of him, spit on him, whip him, and kill him. But after three days he will come back to life."

³⁵ James and John, sons of Zebedee, went to Jesus. They said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do us a favor."

³⁶ "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked them.

³⁷ They said to him, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory."

³⁸ Jesus said, "You don't realize what you're asking. Can you drink the cup that I'm going to drink? Can you be baptized with the baptism that I'm going to receive?"

³⁹ "We can," they told him. Jesus told them, "You will drink the cup that I'm going to drink. You will be baptized with the baptism that I'm going to receive.

⁴⁰ But I don't have the authority to grant you a seat at my right or left. Those positions have already been prepared for certain people."

⁴¹ When the other ten apostles heard about it, they were irritated with James and John.

⁴² Jesus called the apostles and said, "You know that the acknowledged rulers of nations have absolute power over people and their officials have absolute authority over people.

⁴³ But that's not the way it's going to be among you. Whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant.

⁴⁴ Whoever wants to be most important among you will be a slave for everyone.

⁴⁵ It's the same way with the Son of Man. He didn't come so that others could serve him. He came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many people."

⁴⁶ Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus, his disciples, and many people were leaving Jericho, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road.

⁴⁷ When he heard that Jesus from Nazareth was passing by, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁸ The people told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁹ Jesus stopped and said, "Call him!" They called the blind man and told him, "Cheer up! Get up! He's calling you."

⁵⁰ The blind man threw off his coat, jumped up, and went to Jesus.

⁵¹ Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said, "Teacher, I want to see again."

⁵² Jesus told him, "Go, your faith has made you well." At once he could see again, and he followed Jesus on the road.

11 ¹ When they came near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples ahead of him.

² He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there. No one has ever sat on it. Untie it, and bring it.

³ If anyone asks you what you are doing, say that the Lord needs it. That person will send it here at once."

⁴ The disciples found the young donkey in the street. It was tied to the door of a house. As they were untying it,

⁵ some men standing there asked them, "Why are you untying that donkey?"

⁶ The disciples answered them as Jesus had told them. So the men let them go.

⁷ They brought the donkey to Jesus, put their coats on it, and he sat on it.

⁸ Many spread their coats on the road. Others cut leafy branches in the fields and spread them on the road.

⁹ Those who went ahead and those who followed him were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

¹⁰ Blessed is our ancestor David's kingdom that is coming! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

¹¹ Jesus came into Jerusalem and went into the temple courtyard, where he looked around at everything. Since it was already late, he went out with the twelve apostles to Bethany.

¹² The next day, when they left Bethany, Jesus became hungry.

¹³ In the distance he saw a fig tree with leaves. He went to see if he could find any figs on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves because it wasn't the season for figs.

¹⁴ Then he said to the tree, "No one will ever eat fruit from you again!" His disciples heard this.

¹⁵ When they came to Jerusalem, Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to throw out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the moneychangers' tables and the chairs of those who sold pigeons.

¹⁶ He would not let anyone carry anything across the temple courtyard.

¹⁷ Then he taught them by saying, "Scripture says, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,' but you have turned it into a gathering place for thieves."

¹⁸ When the chief priests and scribes heard him, they looked for a way to kill him. They were afraid of him because he amazed all the crowds with his teaching.

¹⁹ (Every evening Jesus and his disciples would leave the city.)

²⁰ While Jesus and his disciples were walking early in the morning, they saw that the fig tree had dried up.

²¹ Peter remembered what Jesus had said, so he said to Jesus, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has dried up."

²² Jesus said to them, "Have faith in God!

²³ I can guarantee this truth: This is what will be done for someone who doesn't doubt but believes what he says will happen: He can say to this mountain, 'Be uprooted and thrown into the sea,' and it will be done for him.

²⁴ That's why I tell you to have faith that you have already received whatever you pray for, and it will be yours.

²⁵ Whenever you pray, forgive anything you have against anyone. Then your Father in heaven will forgive your failures."

²⁶ (OMITTED TEXT)

²⁷ Jesus and his disciples returned to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple courtyard, the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders came to him.

²⁸ They asked him, "What gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?"

²⁹ Jesus said to them, "I'll ask you a question. Answer me, and then I'll tell you why I have the right to do these things.

³⁰ Did John's right to baptize come from heaven or from humans? Answer me!"

³¹ They discussed this among themselves. They said, "If we say, 'from heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?'

³² But if we say, 'from humans,' then what will happen?" They were afraid of the people. All the people thought of John as a true prophet.

³³ So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus told them, "Then I won't tell you why I have the right to do these things."

12 ¹ Then, using this illustration, Jesus spoke to them. He said, "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, made a vat for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to vineyard workers and went on a trip.

² "At the right time he sent a servant to the workers to collect from them a share of the grapes from the vineyard.

³ The workers took the servant, beat him, and sent him back with nothing.

⁴ So the man sent another servant to them. They hit the servant on the head and treated him shamefully.

⁵ The man sent another, and they killed that servant. Then he sent many other servants. Some of these they beat, and others they killed.

⁶ "He had one more person to send. That person was his son, whom he loved. Finally, he sent his son to them. He thought, 'They will respect my son.'

⁷ "But those workers said to one another, 'This is the heir. Let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'

⁸ So they took him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹ "What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the workers and give the vineyard to others.

¹⁰ Have you never read the Scripture passage: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

¹¹ The Lord has done this, and it is amazing for us to see'?"

¹² They wanted to arrest him but were afraid of the crowd. They knew that he had directed this illustration at them. So they left him alone and went away.

¹³ The leaders sent some of the Pharisees and some of Herod's followers to Jesus. They wanted to trap him into saying the wrong thing.

¹⁴ When they came to him, they said, "Teacher, we know that you tell the truth. You don't favor individuals because of who they are. Rather, you teach the way of God truthfully. Is it right to pay taxes to the emperor or not? Should we pay taxes or not?"

¹⁵ Jesus recognized their hypocrisy, so he asked them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a coin so that I can look at it."

¹⁶ They brought a coin. He said to them, "Whose face and name is this?" They told him, "The emperor's."

¹⁷ Jesus said to them, "Give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God." They were surprised at his reply.

¹⁸ Some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

¹⁹ "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, 'If a man dies and leaves a wife but no child, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.'

²⁰ There were seven brothers. The first got married and died without having children.

²¹ The second married her and died without having children. So did the third.

²² None of the seven brothers had any children. Last of all, the woman died.

²³ When the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? The seven brothers had married her."

²⁴ Jesus said to them, "Aren't you mistaken because you don't know the Scriptures or God's power?

²⁵ When the dead come back to life, they don't marry. Rather, they are like the angels in heaven.

²⁶ Haven't you read in the book of Moses that the dead come back to life? It's in the passage about the bush, where God said, 'I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.'

²⁷ He's not the God of the dead but of the living. You're badly mistaken!"

²⁸ One of the scribes went to Jesus during the argument with the Sadducees. He saw how well Jesus answered them, so he asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of them all?"

²⁹ Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

³⁰ So love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

³¹ The second most important commandment is this: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.' No other commandment is greater than these."

³² The scribe said to Jesus, "Teacher, that was well said! You've told the truth that there is only one God and no other besides him!

³³ To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as you love yourself is more important than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴ When Jesus heard how wisely the man answered, he told the man, "You're not too far from the kingdom of God." After that, no one dared to ask him another question.

³⁵ While Jesus was teaching in the temple courtyard, he asked, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is David's son?

³⁶ David, guided by the Holy Spirit, said, 'The Lord said to my Lord: "Take the highest position in heaven until I put your enemies under your control."' " ³⁷ David calls him Lord. So how can he be his son?" The large crowd enjoyed listening to him.

³⁸ As he taught, he said, "Watch out for the scribes! They like to walk around in long robes, to be greeted in the marketplaces, ³⁹ and to have the front seats in synagogues and the places of honor at dinners.

⁴⁰ They rob widows by taking their houses and then say long prayers to make themselves look good. The scribes will receive the most severe punishment."

⁴¹ As Jesus sat facing the temple offering box, he watched how much money people put into it. Many rich people put in large amounts.

⁴² A poor widow dropped in two small coins, worth less than a cent.

⁴³ He called his disciples and said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: This poor widow has given more than all the others.

⁴⁴ All of them have given what they could spare. But she, in her poverty, has given everything she had to live on."

13 ¹ As Jesus was going out of the temple courtyard, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, look at these huge stones and these beautiful buildings!"

² Jesus said to him, "Do you see these large buildings? Not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down."

³ As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives facing the temple buildings, Peter,

James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

⁴ "Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign when all this will come to an end?"

⁵ Jesus answered them, "Be careful not to let anyone deceive you.

⁶ Many will come using my name. They will say, 'I am he,' and they will deceive many people.

⁷ "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be alarmed! These things must happen, but they don't mean that the end has come.

⁸ Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes and famines in various places. These are only the beginning pains of the end.

⁹ "Be on your guard! People will hand you over to the Jewish courts and whip you in their synagogues. You will stand in front of governors and kings to testify to them because of me.

¹⁰ But first, the Good News must be spread to all nations.

¹¹ When they take you away to hand you over to the authorities, don't worry ahead of time about what you will say. Instead, say whatever is given to you to say when the time comes. Indeed, you are not the one who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit will.

¹² "Brother will hand over brother to death; a father will hand over his child. Children will rebel against their parents and kill them.

¹³ Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me. But the person who endures to the end will be saved.

¹⁴ "When you see the disgusting thing that will cause destruction standing where it should not (let the reader take note), those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains.

¹⁵ Those who are on the roof should not come down to get anything out of their houses.

¹⁶ Those who are in the field should not turn back to get their coats.

¹⁷ "How horrible it will be for the women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days.

¹⁸ Pray that it will not be in winter.

¹⁹ It will be a time of misery that has not happened from the beginning of God's creation until now, and will certainly never happen again.

²⁰ If the Lord does not reduce that time, no one will be saved. But those days will be reduced because of those whom God has chosen.

²¹ "At that time don't believe anyone who tells you, 'Here is the Messiah!' or 'There he is!'

²² False messiahs and false prophets will appear. They will work miraculous signs and do wonderful things to deceive, if possible, those whom God has chosen.

²³ Be on your guard! I have told you everything before it happens.

²⁴ "Now, after the misery of those days, the sun will turn dark, the moon will not give light, ²⁵ the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the universe will be shaken.

²⁶ "Then people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

²⁷ He will send out his angels, and from every direction under the sky, they will gather those whom God has chosen.

²⁸ "Learn from the story of the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and it sprouts leaves, you know summer is near.

²⁹ In the same way, when you see these things happen, you know that he is near, at the door.

³⁰ "I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all these things take place.

³¹ The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

³² "No one knows when that day or hour will come. Even the angels in heaven and the Son don't know. Only the Father knows.

³³ Be careful! Watch! You don't know the exact time.

³⁴ It is like a man who went on a trip. As he left home, he put his servants in charge. He assigned work to each one and ordered the guard to be alert.

³⁵ Therefore, be alert, because you don't know when the owner of the house will return. It could be in the evening or at midnight or at dawn or in the morning.

³⁶ Make sure he doesn't come suddenly and find you asleep.

³⁷ I'm telling everyone what I'm telling you: 'Be alert!'"

14 ¹ It was two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for some underhanded way to arrest Jesus and to kill him.

² However, they said, "We shouldn't arrest him during the festival, or else there will be a riot among the people."

³ Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had suffered from a skin disease. While Jesus was sitting there, a woman went to him. She had a bottle of very expensive perfume made from pure nard. She opened the bottle and poured the perfume on his head.

⁴ Some who were there were irritated and said to one another, "Why was the perfume wasted like this?"

⁵ This perfume could have been sold for a high price, and the money could have been given to the poor." So they said some very unkind things to her.

⁶ Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing for me.

⁷ You will always have the poor with you and can help them whenever you want. But you will not always have me with you.

⁸ She did what she could. She came to pour perfume on my body before it is placed in a tomb.

⁹ I can guarantee this truth: Wherever the Good News is spoken in the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁰ Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus.

¹¹ They were pleased to hear what Judas had to say and promised to give him money. So he kept looking for a chance to betray Jesus.

¹² Killing the Passover lamb was customary on the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The disciples asked Jesus, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

¹³ He sent two of his disciples and told them, "Go into the city. You will meet a man carrying a jug of water. Follow him.

¹⁴ When he goes into a house, tell the owner that the teacher asks, 'Where is my room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'

¹⁵ He will take you upstairs and show you a large room. The room will be completely furnished. Get everything ready for us there."

¹⁶ The disciples left. They went into the city and found everything as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷ When evening came, Jesus arrived with the twelve apostles.

¹⁸ While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me, one who is eating with me!"

¹⁹ Feeling hurt, they asked him one by one, "You don't mean me, do you?"

²⁰ He said to them, "It's one of you twelve, someone dipping his hand into the bowl with me.

²¹ The Son of Man is going to die as the Scriptures say he will. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays the Son of Man! It would have been better for that person if he had never been born."

²² While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take this. This is my body."

²³ Then he took a cup, spoke a prayer of thanksgiving, and gave the cup to them. They all drank from it.

²⁴ He said to them, "This is my blood, the blood of the promise. It is poured out for many people."

²⁵ "I can guarantee this truth: I won't drink this wine again until that day when I drink new wine in the kingdom of God."

²⁶ After they sang a hymn, they went to the Mount of Olives.

²⁷ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will abandon me. Scripture says, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'

28 "But after I am brought back to life, I will go to Galilee ahead of you."

29 Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else abandons you, I won't."

30 Jesus said to Peter, "I can guarantee this truth: Tonight, before a rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me."

31 But Peter said very strongly, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never say that I don't know you." All the other disciples said the same thing.

32 Then they came to a place called Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Stay here while I pray."

33 He took Peter, James, and John with him and began to feel distressed and anguished.

34 He said to them, "My anguish is so great that I feel as if I'm dying. Wait here, and stay awake."

³⁵ After walking a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if it were possible he might not have to suffer what was ahead of him.

³⁶ He said, "Abba! Father! You can do anything. Take this cup of suffering away from me. But let your will be done rather than mine."

³⁷ He went back and found them asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you stay awake for one hour?"

³⁸ Stay awake, and pray that you won't be tempted. You want to do what's right, but you're weak."

³⁹ He went away again and prayed the same prayer as before.

⁴⁰ He found them asleep because they couldn't keep their eyes open. They didn't even know what they should say to him.

⁴¹ He came back a third time and said to them, "You might as well sleep now. It's all over. The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to sinners.

⁴² Get up! Let's go! The one who is betraying me is near."

⁴³ Just then, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles, arrived. A crowd carrying swords and clubs was with him. They were from the chief priests, scribes, and leaders of the people.

⁴⁴ Now, the traitor had given them a signal. He said, "The one I kiss is the man you want. Arrest him, and guard him closely as you take him away."

⁴⁵ Then Judas quickly stepped up to Jesus and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him.

⁴⁶ Some men took hold of Jesus and arrested him.

⁴⁷ One of those standing there pulled out his sword and cut off the ear of the chief priest's servant.

⁴⁸ Jesus asked them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as if I were a criminal?"

⁴⁹ I used to teach in the temple courtyard every day. But you didn't arrest me then. But what the Scriptures say must come true."

⁵⁰ Then all the disciples abandoned him and ran away.

⁵¹ A certain young man was following Jesus. He had nothing on but a linen sheet. They tried to arrest him, ⁵² but he left the linen sheet behind and ran away naked.

⁵³ The men took Jesus to the chief priest. All the chief priests, leaders, and scribes had gathered together.

⁵⁴ Peter followed him at a distance and went into the chief priest's courtyard. He sat with the guards and warmed himself facing the glow of a fire.

⁵⁵ The chief priests and the whole Jewish council were searching for some testimony against Jesus in order to execute him. But they couldn't find any.

⁵⁶ Many gave false testimony against him, but their statements did not agree.

⁵⁷ Then some men stood up and gave false testimony against him. They said,

⁵⁸ "We heard him say, 'I'll tear down this temple made by humans, and in three days I'll build another temple, one not made by human hands.'"

⁵⁹ But their testimony did not agree even on this point.

⁶⁰ So the chief priest stood up in the center and asked Jesus, "Don't you have any answer to what these men testify against you?"

⁶¹ But he was silent. The chief priest asked him again, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

⁶² Jesus answered, "Yes, I am, and you will see the Son of Man in the highest position in heaven. He will be coming with the clouds of heaven."

⁶³ The chief priest tore his clothes in horror and said, "Why do we need any more witnesses?"

⁶⁴ You've heard him dishonor God! What's your verdict?" All of them condemned him with the death sentence.

⁶⁵ Some of them began to spit on him. They covered his face and hit him with their fists. They said to him, "Prophecy!" Even the guards took him and slapped him.

⁶⁶ Peter was in the courtyard. One of the chief priest's female servants

⁶⁷ saw Peter warming himself. She looked at him and said, "You, too, were with Jesus from Nazareth!"

⁶⁸ But Peter denied it by saying, "I don't know him, and I don't understand what you're talking about." He went to the entrance. Then a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ The servant saw him. Once again she said to those who were standing around, "This man is one of them!"

⁷⁰ Peter again denied it. After a little while the men standing there said to Peter again, "It's obvious you're one of them. You're a Galilean!"

⁷¹ Then Peter began to curse and swear with an oath, "I don't know this man you're talking about!"

⁷² Just then a rooster crowed a second time. Peter remembered that Jesus said to him, "Before a rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me." Then Peter began to cry very hard.

15 ¹ Early in the morning the chief priests immediately came to a decision with the leaders and the scribes. The whole Jewish council decided to tie Jesus up, lead him away, and hand him over to Pilate.

² Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Yes, I am," Jesus answered him.

³ The chief priests were accusing him of many things.

⁴ So Pilate asked him again, "Don't you have any answer? Look how many accusations they're bringing against you!"

⁵ But Jesus no longer answered anything, so Pilate was surprised.

⁶ At every Passover festival, Pilate would free one prisoner whom the people asked for.

⁷ There was a man named Barabbas in prison. He was with some rebels who had committed murder during a riot.

⁸ The crowd asked Pilate to do for them what he always did.

⁹ Pilate answered them, "Do you want me to free the king of the Jews for you?"

¹⁰ Pilate knew that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous.

¹¹ The chief priests stirred up the crowd so that Pilate would free Barabbas for them instead.

¹² So Pilate again asked them, "Then what should I do with the king of the Jews?"

¹³ "Crucify him!" they shouted back.

¹⁴ Pilate said to them, "Why? What has he done wrong?" But they shouted even louder, "Crucify him!"

¹⁵ Pilate wanted to satisfy the people, so he freed Barabbas for them. But he had Jesus whipped and handed over to be crucified.

¹⁶ The soldiers led Jesus into the courtyard of the palace and called together the whole troop.

¹⁷ They dressed him in purple, twisted some thorns into a crown, and placed it on his head.

¹⁸ Then they began to greet him, "Long live the king of the Jews!"

¹⁹ They kept hitting him on the head with a stick, spitting on him, and kneeling in front of him with false humility.

²⁰ After the soldiers finished making fun of Jesus, they took off the purple cape and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

²¹ A man named Simon from the city of Cyrene was coming into Jerusalem from his home in the country. He was the father of Alexander and Rufus. As he was about to pass by, the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross.

²² They took Jesus to Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull").

²³ They tried to give him wine mixed with a drug called myrrh, but he wouldn't take it.

²⁴ Next they crucified him. Then they divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice to see what each one would get.

²⁵ It was nine in the morning when they crucified him.

²⁶ There was a written notice of the accusation against him. It read, "The king of the Jews."

²⁷ They crucified two criminals with him, one on his right and the other on his left.

²⁸ (OMITTED TEXT)

²⁹ Those who passed by insulted him. They shook their heads and said, "What a joke! You were going to tear down God's temple and build it again in three days.

³⁰ Come down from the cross, and save yourself!"

³¹ The chief priests and the scribes made fun of him among themselves in the same way. They said, "He saved others, but he can't save himself.

³² Let the Messiah, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now so that we may see and believe." Even those who were crucified with him were insulting him.

³³ At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

³⁴ At three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

³⁵ When some of the people standing there heard him say that, they said, "Listen! He's calling Elijah."

³⁶ Someone ran and soaked a sponge in vinegar. Then he put it on a stick and offered Jesus a drink. The man said, "Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down."

³⁷ Then Jesus cried out in a loud voice and died.

³⁸ The curtain in the temple was split in two from top to bottom.

³⁹ When the officer who stood facing Jesus saw how he gave up his spirit, he said, "Certainly, this man was the Son of God!"

⁴⁰ Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of young James and Joseph), and Salome.

⁴¹ They had followed him and supported him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come to Jerusalem with him were there too.

⁴² It was Friday evening, before the day of worship,

⁴³ when Joseph arrived. He was from the city of Arimathea and was an important member of the Jewish council. He, too, was waiting for the kingdom of God. Joseph boldly went to Pilate's quarters to ask for the body of Jesus.

⁴⁴ Pilate wondered if Jesus had already died. So he summoned the officer to ask him if Jesus was, in fact, dead.

⁴⁵ When the officer had assured him that Jesus was dead, Pilate let Joseph have the corpse.

⁴⁶ Joseph had purchased some linen cloth. He took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in the cloth. Then he laid the body in a tomb, which had been cut out of rock, and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

⁴⁷ Mary from Magdala and Mary (the mother of Joses) watched where Jesus was laid.

16 ¹ When the day of worship was over, Mary from Magdala, Mary (the mother of James), and Salome bought spices to go and anoint Jesus.

² On Sunday they were going to the tomb very early when the sun had just come up.

³ They said to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

⁴ When they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. It was a very large stone.

⁵ As they went into the tomb, they saw a young man. He was dressed in a white robe and sat on the right side. They were panic-stricken.

⁷ Go and tell his disciples and Peter that he's going ahead of them to Galilee. There they will see him, just as he told them."

⁸ They went out of the tomb and ran away. Shock and trembling had overwhelmed them. They didn't say a thing to anyone, because they were afraid.

⁹ After Jesus came back to life early on Sunday, he appeared first to Mary from Magdala, from whom he had forced out seven demons.

¹⁰ She went and told his friends, who were grieving and crying.

¹¹ They didn't believe her when they heard that he was alive and that she had seen him.

¹² Later Jesus appeared to two disciples as they were walking to their home in the country. He did not look as he usually did.

¹³ They went back and told the others, who did not believe them either.

¹⁴ Still later Jesus appeared to the eleven apostles while they were eating. He put them to shame for their unbelief and because they were too stubborn to believe those who had seen him alive.

¹⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "So wherever you go in the world, tell everyone the Good News.

¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

¹⁷ "These are the miraculous signs that will accompany believers: They will use the power and authority of my name to force demons out of people. They will speak new languages.

¹⁸ They will pick up snakes, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them. They will place their hands on the sick and cure them."

¹⁹ After talking with the apostles, the Lord was taken to heaven, where God gave him the highest position.

²⁰ The disciples spread the Good News everywhere. The Lord worked with them. He confirmed his word by the miraculous signs that accompanied it.

Luke

1 ¹ Many have attempted to write about what had taken place among us.

² They received their information from those who had been eyewitnesses and servants of God's word from the beginning, and they passed it on to us.

³ I, too, have followed everything closely from the beginning. So I thought it would be a good idea to write an orderly account for Your Excellency, Theophilus.

⁴ In this way you will know that what you've been told is true.

⁵ When Herod was king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the division of priests named after Abijah. Zechariah's wife Elizabeth was a descendant of Aaron.

⁶ Zechariah and Elizabeth had God's approval. They followed all the Lord's commands and regulations perfectly.

⁷ Yet, they never had any children because Elizabeth couldn't become pregnant. Both of them were too old to have children.

⁸ Zechariah was on duty with his division of priests. As he served in God's presence, ⁹ he was chosen by priestly custom to go into the Lord's temple to burn incense.

¹⁰ All the people were praying outside while he was burning incense.

¹¹ Then, to the right of the incense altar, an angel of the Lord appeared to him.

¹² Zechariah was troubled and overcome with fear.

¹³ The angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife Elizabeth will have a son, and you will name him John.

¹⁴ He will be your pride and joy, and many people will be glad that he was born.

¹⁵ As far as the Lord is concerned, he will be a great man. He will never drink wine or any other liquor. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit even before he is born.

¹⁶ He will bring many people in Israel back to the Lord their God.

¹⁷ He will go ahead of the Lord with the spirit and power that Elijah had. He will change parents' attitudes toward their children. He will change disobedient people so that they will accept the wisdom of those who have God's approval. In this way he will prepare the people for their Lord."

¹⁸ Zechariah said to the angel, "What proof is there for this? I'm an old man, and my wife is beyond her childbearing years."

¹⁹ The angel answered him, "I'm Gabriel! I stand in God's presence. God sent me to tell you this good news.

²⁰ But because you didn't believe what I said, you will be unable to talk until the day this happens. Everything will come true at the right time."

²¹ Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah. They were amazed that he was staying in the temple so long.

²² When he did come out, he was unable to speak to them. So they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple. He motioned to them but remained unable to talk.

²³ When the days of his service were over, he went home.

²⁴ Later, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and didn't go out in public for five months. She said,

²⁵ "The Lord has done this for me now. He has removed my public disgrace."

²⁶ Six months after Elizabeth had become pregnant, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a city in Galilee.

²⁷ The angel went to a virgin promised in marriage to a descendant of David named Joseph. The virgin's name was Mary.

²⁸ When the angel entered her home, he greeted her and said, "You are favored by the Lord! The Lord is with you."

²⁹ She was startled by what the angel said and tried to figure out what this greeting meant.

³⁰ The angel told her, "Don't be afraid, Mary. You have found favor with God.

³¹ You will become pregnant, give birth to a son, and name him Jesus.

³² He will be a great man and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David.

³³ Your son will be king of Jacob's people forever, and his kingdom will never end."

³⁴ Mary asked the angel, "How can this be? I've never had sexual intercourse."

³⁵ The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come to you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy child developing inside you will be called the Son of God.

³⁶ "Elizabeth, your relative, is six months pregnant with a son in her old age. People said she couldn't have a child.

³⁷ But nothing is impossible for God."

³⁸ Mary answered, "I am the Lord's servant. Let everything you've said happen to me." Then the angel left her.

³⁹ Soon afterward, Mary hurried to a city in the mountain region of Judah.

⁴⁰ She entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth.

⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard the greeting, she felt the baby kick. Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

⁴² She said in a loud voice, "You are the most blessed of all women, and blessed is the child that you will have.

⁴³ I feel blessed that the mother of my Lord is visiting me.

⁴⁴ As soon as I heard your greeting, I felt the baby jump for joy.

⁴⁵ You are blessed for believing that the Lord would keep his promise to you."

⁴⁶ Mary said, "My soul praises the Lord's greatness!

⁴⁷ My spirit finds its joy in God, my Savior,

⁴⁸ because he has looked favorably on me, his humble servant. "From now on, all people will call me blessed ⁴⁹ because the Almighty has done great things to me. His name is holy.

⁵⁰ For those who fear him, his mercy lasts throughout every generation.

⁵¹ "He displayed his mighty power. He scattered those who think too highly of themselves.

⁵² He pulled strong rulers from their thrones. He honored humble people.

⁵³ He fed hungry people with good food. He sent rich people away with nothing.

⁵⁴ "He remembered to help his servant Israel forever.

⁵⁵ This is the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and his descendants."

⁵⁶ Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back home.

⁵⁷ When the time came for Elizabeth to have her child, she gave birth to a son.

⁵⁸ Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very kind to her, and they shared her joy.

⁵⁹ When the child was eight days old, they went to the temple to circumcise him. They were going to name him Zechariah after his father.

⁶⁰ But his mother spoke up, "Absolutely not! His name will be John."

⁶¹ Their friends said to her, "But you don't have any relatives with that name."

⁶² So they motioned to the baby's father to see what he wanted to name the child.

⁶³ Zechariah asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." Everyone was amazed.

⁶⁴ Suddenly, Zechariah was able to speak, and he began to praise God.

⁶⁵ All their neighbors were filled with awe. Throughout the mountain region of Judea, people talked about everything that had happened.

⁶⁶ Everyone who heard about it seriously thought it over and asked, "What does the future hold for this child?" It was clear that the Lord was with him.

⁶⁷ His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, ⁶⁸ "Praise the Lord God of Israel! He has come to take care of his people and to set them free.

⁶⁹ He has raised up a mighty Savior for us in the family of his servant David.

⁷⁰ He made this promise through his holy prophets long ago.

⁷¹ He promised to save us from our enemies and from the power of all who hate us.

⁷² He has shown his mercy to our ancestors and remembered his holy promise, ⁷³ the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham.

⁷⁴ He promised to rescue us from our enemies' power so that we could serve him without fear

⁷⁵ by being holy and honorable as long as we live.

⁷⁶ "You, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High. You will go ahead of the Lord to prepare his way.

⁷⁷ You will make his people know that they can be saved through the forgiveness of their sins.

⁷⁸ A new day will dawn on us from above because our God is loving and merciful.

⁷⁹ He will give light to those who live in the dark and in death's shadow. He will guide us into the way of peace."

⁸⁰ The child John grew and became spiritually strong. He lived in the desert until the day he appeared to the people of Israel.

2 ¹ At that time the Emperor Augustus ordered a census of the Roman Empire.

² This was the first census taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.

³ All the people went to register in the cities where their ancestors had lived.

⁴ So Joseph went from Nazareth, a city in Galilee, to a Judean city called Bethlehem. Joseph, a descendant of King David, went to Bethlehem because David had been born there.

⁵ Joseph went there to register with Mary. She had been promised to him in marriage and was pregnant.

⁶ While they were in Bethlehem, the time came for Mary to have her child.

⁷ She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger because there wasn't any room for them in the inn.

⁸ Shepherds were in the fields near Bethlehem. They were taking turns watching their flock during the night.

⁹ An angel from the Lord suddenly appeared to them. The glory of the Lord filled the area with light, and they were terrified.

¹⁰ The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid! I have good news for you, a message that will fill everyone with joy.

¹¹ Today your Savior, Christ the Lord, was born in David's city.

¹² This is how you will recognize him: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger."

¹³ Suddenly, a large army of angels appeared with the angel. They were praising God by saying,

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those who have his good will!"

¹⁵ The angels left them and went back to heaven. The shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see what the Lord has told us about."

¹⁶ They went quickly and found Mary and Joseph with the baby, who was lying in a manger.

¹⁷ When they saw the child, they repeated what they had been told about him.

¹⁸ Everyone who heard the shepherds' story was amazed.

¹⁹ Mary treasured all these things in her heart and always thought about them.

²⁰ As the shepherds returned to their flock, they glorified and praised God for everything they had seen and heard. Everything happened the way the angel had told them.

²¹ Eight days after his birth, the child was circumcised and named Jesus. This was the name the angel had given him before his mother became pregnant.

²² After the days required by Moses' Teachings to make a mother clean had passed, Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem. They took Jesus to present him to the Lord.

²³ They did exactly what was written in the Lord's Teachings: "Every firstborn boy is to be set apart as holy to the Lord."

²⁴ They also offered a sacrifice as required by the Lord's Teachings: "a pair of mourning doves or two young pigeons."

²⁵ A man named Simeon was in Jerusalem. He lived an honorable and devout life. He was waiting for the one who would comfort Israel. The Holy Spirit was with Simeon ²⁶ and had told him that he wouldn't die until he had seen the Messiah, whom the Lord would send.

²⁷ Moved by the Spirit, Simeon went into the temple courtyard. Mary and Joseph were bringing the child Jesus into the courtyard at the same time. They brought him so that they could do for him what Moses' Teachings required.

²⁸ Then Simeon took the child in his arms and praised God by saying, ²⁹ "Now, Lord, you are allowing your servant to leave in peace as you promised.

³⁰ My eyes have seen your salvation,

³¹ which you have prepared for all people to see.

³² He is a light that will reveal salvation to the nations and bring glory to your people Israel."

³³ Jesus' father and mother were amazed at what was said about him.

³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is the reason that many people in Israel will be condemned and many others will be saved. He will be a sign that will expose ³⁵ the thoughts of those who reject him. And a sword will pierce your heart."

³⁶ Anna, a prophet, was also there. She was a descendant of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She was now very old. Her husband had died seven years after they were married, ³⁷ and she had been a widow for 84 years. Anna never left the temple courtyard but worshiped day and night by fasting and praying.

³⁸ At that moment she came up to Mary and Joseph and began to thank God. She spoke about Jesus to all who were waiting for Jerusalem to be set free.

³⁹ After doing everything the Lord's Teachings required, Joseph and Mary returned to their hometown of Nazareth in Galilee.

⁴⁰ The child grew and became strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God's favor was with him.

⁴¹ Every year Jesus' parents would go to Jerusalem for the Passover festival.

⁴² When he was 12 years old, they went as usual.

⁴³ When the festival was over, they left for home. The boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents didn't know it.

⁴⁴ They thought that he was with the others who were traveling with them. After traveling for a day, they started to look for him among their relatives and friends.

⁴⁵ When they didn't find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him.

⁴⁶ Three days later, they found him in the temple courtyard. He was sitting among the teachers, listening to them, and asking them questions.

⁴⁷ His understanding and his answers stunned everyone who heard him.

⁴⁸ When his parents saw him, they were shocked. His mother asked him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been worried sick looking for you!"

⁴⁹ Jesus said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you realize that I had to be in my Father's house?"

⁵⁰ But they didn't understand what he meant.

⁵¹ Then he returned with them to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

⁵² Jesus grew in wisdom and maturity. He gained favor from God and people.

3 ¹ It was the fifteenth year in the reign of the Emperor Tiberius. Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea. Herod ruled Galilee, and his brother Philip ruled Iturea and Trachonitis. Lysanias was the ruler of Abilene.

² It was at the time when Annas and Caiaphas were chief priests that God spoke to John, son of Zechariah, in the desert.

³ John traveled throughout the region around the Jordan River. He told people about a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

⁴ As the prophet Isaiah wrote in his book, "A voice cries out in the desert: 'Prepare the way for the Lord! Make his paths straight!

⁵ Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be leveled. The crooked ways will be made straight. The rough roads will be made smooth.

⁶ All people will see the salvation that God gives.'"

⁷ Crowds of people were coming to be baptized by John. He would say to them, "You poisonous snakes! Who showed you how to flee from God's coming anger?"

⁸ Do those things that prove that you have turned to God and have changed the way you think and act. Don't say, 'Abraham is our ancestor.' I guarantee that God can raise up descendants for Abraham from these stones.

⁹ The ax is now ready to cut the roots of the trees. Any tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into a fire."

¹⁰ The crowds asked him, "What should we do?"

¹¹ He answered them, "Whoever has two shirts should share with the person who doesn't have any. Whoever has food should share it too."

¹² Some tax collectors came to be baptized. They asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

¹³ He told them, "Don't collect more money than you are ordered to collect."

¹⁴ Some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?" He told them, "Be satisfied with your pay, and never use threats or blackmail to get money from anyone."

¹⁵ People's hopes were rising as they all wondered whether John was the Messiah.

¹⁶ John replied to all of them, "I baptize you with water. But the one who is more powerful than I is coming. I am not worthy to untie his sandal straps. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

¹⁷ His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clean up his threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn the husks in a fire that can never be put out."

¹⁸ With many other encouraging words, he told the Good News to the people.

¹⁹ John spoke out against the ruler Herod because Herod had married his own sister-in-law, Herodias. He also spoke out against Herod for all the evil things he had done.

²⁰ So Herod added one more evil to all the others; he locked John in prison.

²¹ When all the people were baptized, Jesus, too, was baptized. While he was praying, heaven opened,

²² and the Holy Spirit came down to him in the form of a dove. A voice from heaven said, "You are my Son, whom I love. I am pleased with you."

²³ Jesus was about 30 years old when he began his ministry. Jesus, so people thought, was the son of Joseph, son of Eli,

²⁴ son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, son of Joseph,
²⁵ son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai, ²⁶ son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda, ²⁷ son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri, ²⁸ son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,
²⁹ son of Joshua, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi,
³⁰ son of Simeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,
³¹ son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,
³² son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Salmon, son of Nahshon, ³³ son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

³⁴ son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor, ³⁵ son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah, ³⁶ son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech, ³⁷ son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan, ³⁸ son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

4 ¹ Jesus was filled with the Holy Spirit as he left the Jordan River. The Spirit led him while he was in the desert, ² where he was tempted by the devil for 40 days. During those days Jesus ate nothing, so when they were over, he was hungry.

³ The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread."

⁴ Jesus answered him, "Scripture says, 'A person cannot live on bread alone.'"

⁵ The devil took him to a high place and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant.

⁶ The devil said to him, "I will give you all the power and glory of these kingdoms. All of it has been given to me, and I give it to anyone I please.

⁷ So if you will worship me, all this will be yours."

⁸ Jesus answered him, "Scripture says, 'Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.'"

⁹ Then the devil took him into Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest part of the temple. He said to Jesus, "If you are the Son of God, jump from here!

¹⁰ Scripture says, 'He will put his angels in charge of you to watch over you carefully.

¹¹ They will carry you in their hands so that you never hit your foot against a rock.'"

¹² Jesus answered him, "It has been said, 'Never tempt the Lord your God.'"

¹³ After the devil had finished tempting Jesus in every possible way, the devil left him until another time.

¹⁴ Jesus returned to Galilee. The power of the Spirit was with him, and the news about him spread throughout the surrounding country.

¹⁵ He taught in the synagogues, and everyone praised him.

¹⁶ Then Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. As usual he went into the synagogue on the day of worship. He stood up to read the lesson.

¹⁷ The attendant gave him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened it and found the place where it read:

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is with me. He has anointed me to tell the Good News to the poor. He has sent me to announce forgiveness to the prisoners of sin and the restoring of sight to the blind, to forgive those who have been shattered by sin, ¹⁹ to announce the year of the Lord's favor."

²⁰ Jesus closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. Everyone in the synagogue watched him closely.

²¹ Then he said to them, "This passage came true today when you heard me read it."

²² All the people spoke well of him. They were amazed to hear the gracious words flowing from his lips. They said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

²³ So he said to them, "You'll probably quote this proverb to me, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' and then say to me, 'Do all the things in your hometown that we've heard you've done in Capernaum.'" ²⁴ Then Jesus added, "I can guarantee this truth: A prophet isn't accepted in his hometown.

²⁵ "I can guarantee this truth: There were many widows in Israel in Elijah's time. It had not rained for three-and-a-half years, and the famine was severe everywhere in the country.

²⁶ But God didn't send Elijah to anyone except a widow at Zarephath in the territory of Sidon.

²⁷ There were also many people with skin diseases in Israel in the prophet Elisha's time. But God cured no one except Naaman from Syria."

²⁸ Everyone in the synagogue became furious when they heard this.

²⁹ Their city was built on a hill with a cliff. So they got up, forced Jesus out of the city, and led him to the cliff. They intended to throw him off of it.

³⁰ But Jesus walked right by them and went away.

³¹ Jesus went to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and taught them on a day of worship.

³² The people were amazed at his teachings because he spoke with authority.

³³ In the synagogue was a man possessed by a spirit, an evil demon. He shouted very loudly, ³⁴ "Oh, no! What do you want with us, Jesus from Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

³⁵ Jesus ordered the spirit, "Keep quiet, and come out of him!" The demon threw the man down in the middle of the synagogue and came out without hurting him.

³⁶ Everyone was stunned. They said to one another, "What kind of command is this? With authority and power he gives orders to evil spirits, and they come out."

³⁷ So news about him spread to every place throughout the surrounding region.

³⁸ Jesus left the synagogue and went to Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a high fever. They asked Jesus to help her.

³⁹ He bent over her, ordered the fever to leave, and it went away. She got up immediately and prepared a meal for them.

⁴⁰ When the sun was setting, everyone who had friends suffering from various diseases brought them to him. He placed his hands on each of them and cured them.

⁴¹ Demons came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But Jesus ordered them not to speak. After all, they knew he was the Messiah.

⁴² In the morning he went to a place where he could be alone. The crowds searched for him. When they came to him, they tried to keep him from leaving.

⁴³ But he said to them, "I have to tell the Good News about the kingdom of God in other cities also. That's what I was sent to do."

⁴⁴ So he spread his message in the synagogues of Judea.

5 ¹ One day Jesus was standing by the Sea of Galilee. The people crowded around him as they listened to God's word.

² Jesus saw two boats on the shore. The fishermen had stepped out of them and were washing their nets.

³ So Jesus got into the boat that belonged to Simon and asked him to push off a little from the shore. Then Jesus sat down and taught the crowd from the boat.

⁴ When he finished speaking, he told Simon, "Take the boat into deep water, and lower your nets to catch some fish."

⁵ Simon answered, "Teacher, we worked hard all night and caught nothing. But if you say so, I'll lower the nets."

⁶ After the men had done this, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to tear.

⁷ So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. Their partners came and filled both boats until the boats nearly sank.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he knelt in front of Jesus and said, "Leave me, Lord! I'm a sinful person!"

⁹ Simon and everyone who was with him was amazed to see the large number of fish they had caught.

¹⁰ James and John, who were Zebedee's sons and Simon's partners, were also amazed. Jesus told Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will catch people instead of fish."

¹¹ Simon and his partners brought the boats to shore, left everything, and followed Jesus.

¹² One day Jesus was in a city where there was a man covered with a serious skin disease. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground. He begged Jesus, "Sir, if you want to, you can make me clean."

¹³ Jesus reached out, touched him, and said, "I want to. So be clean!" Immediately, his skin disease went away.

¹⁴ Jesus ordered him, "Don't tell anyone. Instead, show yourself to the priest. Then offer the sacrifice as Moses commanded as proof to people that you are clean."

¹⁵ The news about Jesus spread even more. Large crowds gathered to hear him and have their diseases cured.

¹⁶ But he would go away to places where he could be alone for prayer.

¹⁷ One day when Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and experts in Moses' Teachings were present. They had come from every village in Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. Jesus had the power of the Lord to heal.

¹⁸ Some men brought a paralyzed man on a stretcher. They tried to take him into the house and put him in front of Jesus.

¹⁹ But they could not find a way to get him into the house because of the crowd. So they went up on the roof. They made an opening in the tiles and let the man down on his stretcher among the people. (They lowered him in front of Jesus.)

²⁰ When Jesus saw their faith, he said, "Sir, your sins are forgiven."

²¹ The scribes and the Pharisees thought, "Who is this man? He's dishonoring God! Who besides God can forgive sins?"

²² Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, "What are you thinking?"

²³ Is it easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?

²⁴ I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man, "Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home."

²⁵ The man immediately stood up in front of them and picked up the stretcher he had been lying on. Praising God, he went home.

²⁶ Everyone was amazed and praised God. They were filled with awe and said, "We've seen things today we can hardly believe!"

²⁷ After that, Jesus left. He saw a tax collector named Levi sitting in a tax office. Jesus said to him, "Follow me!"

²⁸ So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

²⁹ Levi held a large reception at his home for Jesus. A huge crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

³⁰ The Pharisees and their scribes complained to Jesus' disciples. They asked, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹ Jesus answered them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor; those who are sick do."

³² I've come to call sinners to change the way they think and act, not to call people who think they have God's approval."

³³ They said to him, "John's disciples frequently fast and say prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. But your disciples eat and drink."

³⁴ Jesus asked them, "Can you force wedding guests to fast while the groom is still with them?"

³⁵ The time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. At that time they will fast."

³⁶ He also used these illustrations: "No one tears a piece of cloth from a new coat to patch an old coat. Otherwise, the new cloth will tear the old. Besides, the patch from the new will not match the old.

³⁷ People don't pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the new wine will make the skins burst. The wine will run out, and the skins will be ruined.

³⁸ Rather, new wine is to be poured into fresh skins.

³⁹ "No one who has been drinking old wine wants new wine. He says, 'The old wine is better!'"

6 ¹ Once, on a day of worship, Jesus was walking through some grainfields. His disciples were picking the heads of grain, removing the husks, and eating the grain.

² Some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are your disciples doing something that is not right to do on the day of worship?"

³ Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his men were hungry?"

⁴ Haven't you read how he went into the house of God, ate the bread of the presence, and gave some of it to the men who were with him? He had no right to eat those loaves. Only the priests have that right."

⁵ Then he added, "The Son of Man has authority over the day of worship."

⁶ On another day of worship, Jesus went into a synagogue to teach. A man whose right hand was paralyzed was there.

⁷ The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to see whether he would heal the man on the day of worship so that they could find a way to accuse him of doing something wrong.

⁸ But Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he told the man with the paralyzed hand, "Get up, and stand in the center of the synagogue!" The man got up and stood there.

⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you—what is the right thing to do on a day of worship: to do good or evil, to give a person his health or to destroy it?"

¹⁰ He looked around at all of them and then said to the man, "Hold out your hand." The man did so, and his hand became normal again.

¹¹ The scribes and Pharisees were furious and began to discuss with each other what they could do to Jesus.

¹² At that time Jesus went to a mountain to pray. He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

¹³ When it was day, he called his disciples. He chose twelve of them and called them apostles.

¹⁴ They were Simon (whom Jesus named Peter) and Simon's brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, ¹⁵ Matthew, Thomas, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (who was called the Zealot), ¹⁶ Judas (son of James), and Judas Iscariot (who became a traitor).

¹⁷ Jesus came down from the mountain with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples and many other people were there. They had come from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon.

¹⁸ They wanted to hear him and be cured of their diseases. Those who were tormented by evil spirits were cured.

¹⁹ The entire crowd was trying to touch him because power was coming from him and curing all of them.

²⁰ Jesus looked at his disciples and said, "Blessed are those who are poor. The kingdom of God is theirs.

²¹ Blessed are those who are hungry. They will be satisfied. Blessed are those who are crying. They will laugh.

²² Blessed are you when people hate you, avoid you, insult you, and slander you because you are committed to the Son of Man.

²³ Rejoice then, and be very happy! You have a great reward in heaven. That's the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

²⁴ "But how horrible it will be for those who are rich. They have had their comfort.

²⁵ How horrible it will be for those who are well-fed. They will be hungry. How horrible it will be for those who are laughing. They will mourn and cry.

²⁶ How horrible it will be for you when everyone says nice things about you. That's the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.

²⁷ "But I tell everyone who is listening: Love your enemies. Be kind to those who hate you.

²⁸ Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who insult you.

²⁹ If someone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other cheek as well. If someone takes your coat, don't stop him from taking your shirt.

³⁰ Give to everyone who asks you for something. If someone takes what is yours, don't insist on getting it back.

³¹ "Do for other people everything you want them to do for you.

³² "If you love those who love you, do you deserve any thanks for that? Even sinners love those who love them.

³³ If you help those who help you, do you deserve any thanks for that? Sinners do that too.

³⁴ If you lend anything to those from whom you expect to get something back, do you deserve any thanks for that? Sinners also lend to sinners to get back what they lend.

³⁵ Rather, love your enemies, help them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then you will have a great reward. You will be the children of the Most High God. After all, he is kind to unthankful and evil people.

³⁶ Be merciful as your Father is merciful.

³⁷ "Stop judging, and you will never be judged. Stop condemning, and you will never be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

³⁸ Give, and you will receive. A large quantity, pressed together, shaken down, and running over will be put into your pocket. The standards you use for others will be applied to you."

³⁹ Jesus also gave them this illustration: "Can one blind person lead another? Won't both fall into the same pit?

⁴⁰ A student is no better than his teacher. But everyone who is well-trained will be like his teacher.

⁴¹ "Why do you see the piece of sawdust in another believer's eye and not notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

⁴² How can you say to another believer, 'Friend, let me take the piece of sawdust out of your eye,' when you don't see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye. Then you will see clearly to remove the piece of sawdust from another believer's eye.

⁴³ "A good tree doesn't produce rotten fruit, and a rotten tree doesn't produce good fruit.

⁴⁴ Each tree is known by its fruit. You don't pick figs from thorny plants or grapes from a thornbush.

⁴⁵ Good people do the good that is in them. But evil people do the evil that is in them. The things people say come from inside them.

⁴⁶ "Why do you call me Lord but don't do what I tell you?

⁴⁷ "I will show you what everyone who comes to me, hears what I say, and obeys it is like.

⁴⁸ He is like a person who dug down to bedrock to lay the foundation of his home. When a flood came, the floodwaters pushed against that house. But the house couldn't be washed away because it had a good foundation.

⁴⁹ The person who hears what I say but doesn't obey it is like someone who built a house on the ground without any foundation. The floodwaters pushed against it, and that house quickly collapsed and was destroyed."

7 ¹ When Jesus had finished everything he wanted to say to the people, he went to Capernaum.

² There a Roman army officer's valuable slave was sick and near death.

³ The officer had heard about Jesus and sent some Jewish leaders to him. They were to ask Jesus to come and save the servant's life.

⁴ They came to Jesus and begged, "He deserves your help.

⁵ He loves our people and built our synagogue at his own expense."

⁶ Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the officer sent friends to tell Jesus, "Sir, don't bother. I don't deserve to have you come into my house.

⁷ That's why I didn't come to you. But just give a command, and let my servant be cured.

⁸ As you know, I'm in a chain of command and have soldiers at my command. I tell one of them, 'Go!' and he goes, and another, 'Come!' and he comes. I tell my servant, 'Do this!' and he does it."

⁹ Jesus was amazed at the officer when he heard these words. He turned to the crowd following him and said, "I can guarantee that I haven't found faith as great as this in Israel."

¹⁰ When the men who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant healthy again.

¹¹ Soon afterward, Jesus went to a city called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went with him.

¹² As he came near the entrance to the city, he met a funeral procession. The dead man was a widow's only child. A large crowd from the city was with her.

¹³ When the Lord saw her, he felt sorry for her. He said to her, "Don't cry."

¹⁴ He went up to the open coffin, took hold of it, and the men who were carrying it stopped. He said, "Young man, I'm telling you to come back to life!"

¹⁵ The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶ Everyone was struck with fear and praised God. They said, "A great prophet has appeared among us," and "God has taken care of his people."

¹⁷ This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding region.

¹⁸ John's disciples told him about all these things. Then John called two of his disciples

¹⁹ and sent them to ask the Lord, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?"

²⁰ The men came to Jesus and said, "John the Baptizer sent us to ask you, 'Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?'"

²¹ At that time Jesus was curing many people who had diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits. Also, he was giving back sight to many who were blind.

²² Jesus answered John's disciples, "Go back, and tell John what you have seen and heard: Blind people see again, lame people are walking, those with skin diseases are made clean, deaf people hear again, dead people are brought back to life, and poor people hear the Good News.

²³ Whoever doesn't lose his faith in me is indeed blessed."

²⁴ When John's messengers had left, Jesus spoke to the crowds about John. "What did you go into the desert to see? Tall grass swaying in the wind?

²⁵ Really, what did you go to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear splendid clothes and live in luxury are in royal palaces.

²⁶ Really, what did you go to see? A prophet? Let me tell you that he is far more than a prophet.

²⁷ John is the one about whom Scripture says, 'I am sending my messenger ahead of you to prepare the way in front of you.'

²⁸ I can guarantee that of all the people ever born, no one is greater than John. Yet, the least important person in the kingdom of God is greater than John.

²⁹ "All the people, including tax collectors, heard John. They admitted that God was right by letting John baptize them.

³⁰ But the Pharisees and the experts in Moses' Teachings rejected God's plan for them. They refused to be baptized.

³¹ "How can I describe the people who are living now? What are they like?

³² They are like children who sit in the marketplace and shout to each other, 'We played music for you, but you didn't dance. We sang a funeral song, but you didn't cry.'

³³ John the Baptizer has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'There's a demon in him!'

³⁴ The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at him! He's a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

³⁵ "Yet, wisdom is proved right by all its results."

³⁶ One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him. Jesus went to the Pharisee's house and was eating at the table.

³⁷ A woman who lived a sinful life in that city found out that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house. So she took a bottle of perfume ³⁸ and knelt at his feet. She was crying and washed his feet with her tears. Then she dried his feet with her hair, kissed them over and over again, and poured the perfume on them.

³⁹ The Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this and thought, "If this man really were a prophet, he would know what sort of woman is touching him. She's a sinner."

⁴⁰ Jesus spoke up, "Simon, I have something to say to you." Simon replied, "Teacher, you're free to speak."

⁴¹ So Jesus said, "Two men owed a moneylender some money. One owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other owed him fifty.

⁴² When they couldn't pay it back, he was kind enough to cancel their debts. Now, who do you think will love him the most?"

⁴³ Simon answered, "I suppose the one who had the largest debt canceled." Jesus said to him, "You're right!"

⁴⁴ Then, turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "You see this woman, don't you? I came into your house. You didn't wash my feet. But she has washed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

⁴⁵ You didn't give me a kiss. But ever since I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet.

⁴⁶ You didn't put any olive oil on my head. But she has poured perfume on my feet.

⁴⁷ That's why I'm telling you that her many sins have been forgiven. Her great love proves that. But whoever receives little forgiveness loves very little."

⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."

⁴⁹ The other guests thought, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

⁵⁰ Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace!"

8 ¹ After this, Jesus traveled from one city and village to another. He spread the Good News about God's kingdom. The twelve apostles were with him.

² Also, some women were with him. They had been cured from evil spirits and various illnesses. These women were Mary, also called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;

³ Joanna, whose husband Chusa was Herod's administrator; Susanna; and many other women. They provided financial support for Jesus and his disciples.

⁴ When a large crowd had gathered and people had come to Jesus from every city, he used this story as an illustration:

⁵ "A farmer went to plant his seeds. Some seeds were planted along the road, were trampled, and were devoured by birds.

⁶ Others were planted on rocky soil. When the plants came up, they withered because they had no moisture.

⁷ Others were planted among thornbushes. The thornbushes grew up with them and choked them.

⁸ Others were planted on good ground. When they came up, they produced a hundred times as much as was planted." After he had said this, he called out, "Let the person who has ears listen!"

⁹ His disciples asked him what this story meant.

¹⁰ Jesus answered, "Knowledge about the mysteries of the kingdom of God has been given directly to you. But it is given to others in stories. When they look, they don't see, and when they hear, they don't understand.

¹¹ "This is what the story illustrates: The seed is God's word.

¹² Some people are like seeds that were planted along the road. They hear the word, but then the devil comes. He takes the word away from them so that they don't believe and become saved.

¹³ Some people are like seeds on rocky soil. They welcome the word with joy whenever they hear it, but they don't develop any roots. They believe for a while, but when their faith is tested, they abandon it.

¹⁵ The seeds that were planted on good ground are people who also hear the word. But they keep it in their good and honest hearts and produce what is good despite what life may bring.

¹⁶ "No one lights a lamp and hides it under a bowl or puts it under a bed. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand so that those who come in will see the light.

¹⁷ There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed. There is nothing kept secret that will not come to light.

¹⁸ "So pay attention to how you listen! Those who understand these mysteries will be given more knowledge. However, some people don't understand these mysteries. Even what they think they understand will be taken away from them."

¹⁹ His mother and his brothers came to see him. But they couldn't meet with him because of the crowd.

²⁰ Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to see you."

²¹ He answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear and do what God's word says."

²² One day Jesus and his disciples got into a boat. He said to them, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they started out.

²³ As they were sailing along, Jesus fell asleep. A violent storm came across the lake. The boat was taking on water, and they were in danger.

²⁴ They went to him, woke him up, and said, "Master! Master! We're going to die!" Then he got up and ordered the wind and the waves to stop. The wind stopped, and the sea became calm.

²⁵ He asked them, "Where is your faith?" Frightened and amazed, they asked each other, "Who is this man? He gives orders to the wind and the water, and they obey him!"

²⁶ They landed in the region of the Gerasenes across from Galilee.

²⁷ When Jesus stepped out on the shore, a certain man from the city met him. The man was possessed by demons and had not worn clothes for a long time. He would not stay in a house but lived in the tombs.

²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he shouted, fell in front of him, and said in a loud voice, "Why are you bothering me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you not to torture me!"

²⁹ Jesus ordered the evil spirit to come out of the man. (The evil spirit had controlled the man for a long time. People had kept him under guard. He was chained hand and foot. But he would break the chains. Then the demon would force him to go into the desert.)

³⁰ Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He answered, "Legion [Six Thousand]." (Many demons had entered him.)

³¹ The demons begged Jesus not to order them to go into the bottomless pit.

³² A large herd of pigs was feeding on a mountainside. The demons begged Jesus to let them enter those pigs. So he let them do this.

³³ The demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. Then the herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and drowned.

³⁴ When those who had taken care of the pigs saw what had happened, they ran away. They reported everything in the city and countryside.

³⁵ The people went to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out. Dressed and in his right mind, he was sitting at Jesus' feet. The people were frightened.

³⁶ Those who had seen this told the people how Jesus had restored the demon-possessed man to health.

³⁷ Then all the people from the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave because they were terrified. Jesus got into a boat and started back.

³⁸ The man from whom the demons had gone out begged him, "Let me go with you." But Jesus sent the man away and told him, ³⁹ "Go home to your family, and tell them how much God has done for you." So the man left. He went through the whole city and told people how much Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰ When Jesus came back, a crowd welcomed him. Everyone was expecting him.

⁴¹ A man named Jairus, a synagogue leader, arrived and quickly bowed down in front of Jesus. He begged Jesus to come to his home.

⁴² His only daughter, who was about twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus went, the people were crowding around him.

⁴³ A woman who had been suffering from chronic bleeding for twelve years was in the crowd. No one could cure her.

⁴⁴ She came up behind Jesus, touched the edge of his clothes, and her bleeding stopped at once.

⁴⁵ Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" After everyone denied touching him, Peter said, "Teacher, the people are crowding you and pressing against you."

⁴⁶ Jesus said, "Someone touched me. I know power has gone out of me."

⁴⁷ The woman saw that she couldn't hide. Trembling, she quickly bowed in front of him. There, in front of all the people, she told why she touched him and how she was cured at once.

⁴⁸ Jesus told her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace!"

⁴⁹ While Jesus was still speaking to her, someone came from the synagogue leader's home. He said, "Your daughter is dead. Don't bother the teacher anymore."

⁵⁰ When Jesus heard this, he told the synagogue leader, "Don't be afraid! Just believe, and she will get well."

⁵¹ Jesus went into the house. He allowed no one to go with him except Peter, John, James, and the child's parents.

⁵² Everyone was crying and showing how sad they were. Jesus said, "Don't cry! She's not dead. She's just sleeping."

⁵³ They laughed at him because they knew she was dead.

⁵⁴ But Jesus took her hand and called out, "Child, get up!"

⁵⁵ She came back to life and got up at once. He ordered her parents to give her something to eat.

⁵⁶ They were amazed. Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

9¹ Jesus called the twelve apostles together and gave them power and authority over every demon and power and authority to cure diseases.

² He sent them to spread the message about the kingdom of God and to cure the sick.

³ He told them, "Don't take anything along on the trip. Don't take a walking stick, traveling bag, any food, money, or a change of clothes.

⁴ When you go into a home, stay there until you're ready to leave.

⁵ If people don't welcome you, leave that city, and shake its dust off your feet as a warning to them."

⁶ The apostles went from village to village, told the Good News, and cured the sick everywhere.

⁷ Herod the ruler heard about everything that was happening. He didn't know what to make of it. Some people were saying that John had come back to life.

⁸ Others said that Elijah had appeared, and still others said that one of the prophets from long ago had come back to life.

⁹ Herod said, "I had John's head cut off. Who is this person I'm hearing so much about?" So Herod wanted to see Jesus.

¹⁰ The apostles came back and told Jesus everything they had done. He took them with him to a city called Bethsaida so that they could be alone.

¹¹ But the crowds found out about this and followed him. He welcomed them, talked to them about the kingdom of God, and cured those who were sick.

¹² Toward the end of the day, the twelve apostles came to him. They said to him, "Send the crowd to the closest villages and farms so that they can find some food and a place to stay. No one lives around here."

¹³ Jesus replied, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have five loaves of bread and two fish. Unless we go to buy food for all these people, that's all we have."

¹⁴ (There were about five thousand men.) Then he told his disciples, "Have them sit in groups of about fifty."

¹⁵ So they did this.

¹⁶ Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, and blessed the food. He broke the loaves apart and kept giving them to the disciples to give to the crowd.

¹⁷ All of them ate as much as they wanted. When they picked up the leftover pieces, they filled twelve baskets.

¹⁸ Once when Jesus was praying privately and his disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

¹⁹ They answered, "Some say you are John the Baptizer, others Elijah, and still others say that one of the prophets from long ago has come back to life."

²⁰ He asked them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, whom God has sent."

²¹ He ordered them not to tell this to anyone.

²² Jesus said that the Son of Man would have to suffer a lot. He would be rejected by the leaders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, but on the third day he would come back to life.

²³ He said to all of them, "Those who want to come with me must say no to the things they want, pick up their crosses every day, and follow me.

²⁴ Those who want to save their lives will lose them. But those who lose their lives for me will save them.

²⁵ What good does it do for people to win the whole world but lose their lives by destroying them?

²⁶ If people are ashamed of me and what I say, the Son of Man will be ashamed of those people when he comes in the glory that he shares with the Father and the holy angels.

²⁷ "I can guarantee this truth: Some people who are standing here will not die until they see the kingdom of God."

²⁸ About eight days after he had said this, Jesus took Peter, John, and James with him and went up a mountain to pray.

²⁹ While Jesus was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white.

³⁰ Suddenly, both Moses and Elijah were talking with him.

³¹ They appeared in heavenly glory and were discussing Jesus' approaching death and what he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem.

³² Peter and the men with him were sleeping soundly. When they woke up, they saw Jesus' glory and the two men standing with him.

³³ As Moses and Elijah were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Teacher, it's good that we're here. Let's put up three tents—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." Peter didn't know what he was saying.

³⁴ While he was saying this, a cloud overshadowed them. They were frightened as they went into the cloud.

³⁵ A voice came out of the cloud and said, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to him!"

³⁶ After the voice had spoken, they saw that Jesus was alone. The disciples said nothing, and for some time they told no one about what they had seen.

³⁷ The next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus.

³⁸ A man in the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son. He's my only child.

³⁹ Whenever a spirit takes control of him, he shrieks, goes into convulsions, and foams at the mouth. After a struggle, the spirit goes away, leaving the child worn out.

⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to force the spirit out of him, but they couldn't do it."

⁴¹ Jesus answered, "You unbelieving and corrupt generation! How long must I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here!"

⁴² While he was coming to Jesus, the demon knocked the boy to the ground and threw him into convulsions. Jesus ordered the evil spirit to leave. He cured the boy and gave him back to his father.

⁴³ Everyone was amazed to see God's wonderful power. Everyone was amazed at all the things that Jesus was doing. So he said to his disciples,

⁴⁴ "Listen carefully to what I say. The Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over to people."

⁴⁵ They didn't know what he meant. The meaning was hidden from them so that they didn't understand it. Besides, they were afraid to ask him about what he had said.

⁴⁶ A discussion started among them about who would be the greatest.

⁴⁷ Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he took a little child and had him stand beside him.

⁴⁸ Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me. Whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. The one who is least among all of you is the one who is greatest."

⁴⁹ John replied, "Master, we saw someone forcing demons out of a person by using the power and authority of your name. We tried to stop him because he was not one of us."

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, "Don't stop him! Whoever isn't against you is for you."

⁵¹ The time was coming closer for Jesus to be taken to heaven. So he was determined to go to Jerusalem.

⁵² He sent messengers ahead of him. They went into a Samaritan village to arrange a place for him to stay.

⁵³ But the people didn't welcome him, because he was on his way to Jerusalem.

⁵⁴ James and John, his disciples, saw this. They asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?"

⁵⁵ But he turned and corrected them.

⁵⁶ So they went to another village.

⁵⁷ As they were walking along the road, a man said to Jesus, "I'll follow you wherever you go."

⁵⁸ Jesus told him, "Foxes have holes, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to sleep."

⁵⁹ He told another man, "Follow me!" But the man said, "Sir, first let me go to bury my father."

⁶⁰ But Jesus told him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. You must go everywhere and tell about the kingdom of God."

⁶¹ Another said, "I'll follow you, sir, but first let me tell my family goodbye."

⁶² Jesus said to him, "Whoever starts to plow and looks back is not fit for the kingdom of God."

10 ¹ After this, the Lord appointed 70 other disciples to go ahead of him to every city and place that he intended to go. They were to travel in pairs.

² He told them, "The harvest is large, but the workers are few. So ask the Lord who gives this harvest to send workers to harvest his crops.

³ Go! I'm sending you out like lambs among wolves.

⁴ Don't carry a wallet, a traveling bag, or sandals, and don't stop to greet anyone on the way.

⁵ Whenever you go into a house, greet the family right away with the words, 'May there be peace in this house.'

⁶ If a peaceful person lives there, your greeting will be accepted. But if that's not the case, your greeting will be rejected.

⁷ Stay with the family that accepts you. Eat and drink whatever they offer you. After all, the worker deserves his pay. Do not move around from one house to another.

⁸ Whenever you go into a city and the people welcome you, eat whatever they serve you.

⁹ Heal the sick that are there, and tell the people, 'The kingdom of God is near you!'

¹⁰ "But whenever you go into a city and people don't welcome you, leave. Announce in its streets,

¹¹ 'We are wiping your city's dust from our feet in protest against you! But realize that the kingdom of God is near you!'

¹² I can guarantee that judgment day will be easier for Sodom than for that city.

¹³ "How horrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How horrible it will be for you, Bethsaida! If the miracles worked in your cities had been worked in Tyre and Sidon, they would have changed the way they thought and acted. Long ago they would have worn sackcloth and sat in ashes.

¹⁴ Judgment day will be better for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to heaven? No, you will go to hell!

¹⁶ "The person who hears you hears me, and the person who rejects you rejects me. The person who rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

¹⁷ The 70 disciples came back very happy. They said, "Lord, even demons obey us when we use the power and authority of your name!"

¹⁸ Jesus said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning.

¹⁹ I have given you the authority to trample snakes and scorpions and to destroy the enemy's power. Nothing will hurt you.

²⁰ However, don't be happy that evil spirits obey you. Be happy that your names are written in heaven."

²¹ In that hour the Holy Spirit filled Jesus with joy. Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from wise and intelligent people and revealing them to little children. Yes, Father, this is what pleased you.

²² "My Father has turned everything over to me. Only the Father knows who the Son is. And no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son is willing to reveal him."

²³ He turned to his disciples in private and said to them, "How blessed you are to see what you've seen."

²⁴ I can guarantee that many prophets and kings wanted to see and hear what you've seen and heard, but they didn't."

²⁵ Then an expert in Moses' Teachings stood up to test Jesus. He asked, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶ Jesus answered him, "What is written in Moses' Teachings? What do you read there?"

²⁷ He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind.' And 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'"

²⁸ Jesus told him, "You're right! Do this, and life will be yours."

²⁹ But the man wanted to justify his question. So he asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?"

³⁰ Jesus replied, "A man went from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way robbers stripped him, beat him, and left him for dead.

³¹ "By chance, a priest was traveling along that road. When he saw the man, he went around him and continued on his way.

³² Then a Levite came to that place. When he saw the man, he, too, went around him and continued on his way.

³³ "But a Samaritan, as he was traveling along, came across the man. When the Samaritan saw him, he felt sorry for the man, ³⁴ went to him, and cleaned and bandaged his wounds. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

³⁵ The next day the Samaritan took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. He told the innkeeper, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than that, I'll pay you on my return trip.'

³⁶ "Of these three men, who do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by robbers?"

³⁷ The expert said, "The one who was kind enough to help him." Jesus told him, "Go and imitate his example!"

³⁸ As they were traveling along, Jesus went into a village. A woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

³⁹ She had a sister named Mary. Mary sat at the Lord's feet and listened to him talk.

⁴⁰ But Martha was upset about all the work she had to do. So she asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work all by myself? Tell her to help me."

⁴¹ The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha! You worry and fuss about a lot of things.

⁴² There's only one thing you need. Mary has made the right choice, and that one thing will not be taken away from her."

11 ¹ Once Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he stopped praying, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray as John taught his disciples."

² Jesus told them, "When you pray, say this: Father, let your name be kept holy. Let your kingdom come.

³ Give us our bread day by day.

⁴ Forgive us as we forgive everyone else. Don't allow us to be tempted."

⁵ Jesus said to his disciples, "Suppose one of you has a friend. Suppose you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, let me borrow three loaves of bread.

⁶ A friend of mine on a trip has dropped in on me, and I don't have anything to serve him.'

⁷ Your friend might answer you from inside his house, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked, and my children are in bed. I can't get up to give you anything.'

⁸ I can guarantee that although he doesn't want to get up to give you anything, he will get up and give you whatever you need because he is your friend and because you were so bold.

⁹ "So I tell you to ask, and you will receive. Search, and you will find. Knock, and the door will be opened for you.

¹⁰ Everyone who asks will receive. The one who searches will find, and for the person who knocks, the door will be opened.

¹¹ "If your child asks you, his father, for a fish, would you give him a snake instead?

¹² Or if your child asks you for an egg, would you give him a scorpion?

¹³ Even though you're evil, you know how to give good gifts to your children. So how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

¹⁴ Jesus was forcing a demon out of a man. The demon had made the man unable to talk. When the demon had gone out, the man began to talk. The people were amazed.

¹⁵ But some of them said, "He can force demons out of people only with the help of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons."

¹⁶ Others wanted to test Jesus and demanded that he show them some miraculous sign from heaven.

¹⁷ Since Jesus knew what they were thinking, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is ruined. A house divided against itself falls.

¹⁸ Now, if Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom last? I say this because you say Beelzebul helps me force demons out of people.

¹⁹ If I force demons out with the help of Beelzebul, who helps your followers force them out? That's why they will be your judges.

²⁰ But if I force out demons with the help of God's power, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

²¹ "When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own mansion, his property is safe.

²² But a stronger man than he may attack him and defeat him. Then the stronger man will take away all the weapons in which the strong man trusted and will divide the loot.

²³ "Whoever isn't with me is against me. Whoever doesn't gather with me scatters.

²⁴ "When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it goes through dry places looking for a place to rest. But it doesn't find any. Then it says, 'I'll go back to the home I left.'

²⁵ When it comes, it finds the house swept clean and in order.

²⁶ Then the spirit goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself. They enter and take up permanent residence there. In the end the condition of that person is worse than it was before."

²⁷ While Jesus was speaking, a woman in the crowd shouted, "How blessed is the mother who gave birth to you and the breasts that nursed you."

²⁸ Jesus replied, "Rather, how blessed are those who hear and obey God's word."

²⁹ As the people were gathering around him, Jesus said, "The people living today are evil. They look for a miraculous sign. But the only sign they will get is the sign of Jonah."

³⁰ Just as Jonah became a miraculous sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be a miraculous sign to the people living today.

³¹ The queen from the south will stand up at the time of judgment with the men who live today. She will condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon's wisdom. But look, someone greater than Solomon is here!

³² The men of Nineveh will stand up at the time of judgment with the people living today. Since the men of Nineveh turned to God and changed the way they thought and acted when Jonah spoke his message, they will condemn the people living today. But look, someone greater than Jonah is here!

³³ "No one lights a lamp and hides it or puts it under a basket. Instead, everyone who lights a lamp puts it on a lamp stand so that those who come in will see its light.

³⁴ "Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is unclouded, your whole body is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body is full of darkness.

³⁵ So be careful that the light in you isn't darkness.

³⁶ If your whole body is full of light and not darkness, it will be as bright as a lamp shining on you."

³⁷ After Jesus spoke, a Pharisee invited him to have lunch at his house. So Jesus accepted the invitation.

³⁸ The Pharisee was surprised to see that Jesus didn't wash before the meal.

³⁹ The Lord said to him, "You Pharisees clean the outside of cups and dishes. But inside you are full of greed and evil.

⁴⁰ You fools! Didn't the one who made the outside make the inside too?

⁴¹ Give what is inside as a gift to the poor, and then everything will be clean for you.

⁴² "How horrible it will be for you Pharisees! You give God one-tenth of your mint, spices, and every garden herb. But you have ignored justice and the love of God. You should have done these things without ignoring the others.

⁴³ "How horrible it will be for you Pharisees! You love to sit in the front seats in the synagogues and to be greeted in the marketplaces.

⁴⁴ How horrible it will be for you! You are like unmarked graves. People walk on them without knowing what they are."

⁴⁵ One of the experts in Moses' Teachings said to him, "Teacher, when you talk this way, you insult us too."

⁴⁶ Jesus said, "How horrible it will be for you experts in Moses' Teachings! You burden people with loads that are hard to carry. But you won't lift a finger to carry any of these loads.

⁴⁷ "How horrible it will be for you! You build the monuments for the prophets. But it was your ancestors who murdered them.

⁴⁸ So you are witnesses and approve of what your ancestors did. They murdered the prophets for whom you build monuments.

⁴⁹ That's why the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles. They will murder some of those prophets and apostles and persecute others.'

⁵⁰ So the people living now will be charged with the murder of every prophet since the world was made.

⁵¹ This includes the murders from Abel to Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the temple. Yes, I can guarantee this truth: The people living today will be held responsible for this.

⁵² "How horrible it will be for you experts in Moses' Teachings! You have taken away the key that unlocks knowledge. You haven't gained entrance into knowledge yourselves, and you've kept out those who wanted to enter."

⁵³ When Jesus left, the scribes and the Pharisees held a terrible grudge against him. They questioned him about many things

⁵⁴ and watched him closely to trap him in something he might say.

12 ¹ Meanwhile, thousands of people had gathered. They were so crowded that they stepped on each other. Jesus spoke to his disciples and said, "Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees. I'm talking about their hypocrisy.

² Nothing has been covered that will not be exposed. Whatever is secret will be made known.

³ Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight. Whatever you have whispered in private rooms will be shouted from the housetops.

⁴ "My friends, I can guarantee that you don't need to be afraid of those who kill the body. After that they can't do anything more.

⁵ I'll show you the one you should be afraid of. Be afraid of the one who has the power to throw you into hell after killing you. I'm warning you to be afraid of him.

⁶ "Aren't five sparrows sold for two cents? God doesn't forget any of them.

⁷ Even every hair on your head has been counted. Don't be afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows.

⁸ I can guarantee that the Son of Man will acknowledge in front of God's angels every person who acknowledges him in front of others.

⁹ But God's angels will be told that I don't know those people who tell others that they don't know me.

¹⁰ Everyone who says something against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But the person who dishonors the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

¹¹ "When you are put on trial in synagogues or in front of rulers and authorities, don't worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say.

¹² At that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you must say."

¹³ Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to give me my share of the inheritance that our father left us."

¹⁴ Jesus said to him, "Who appointed me to be your judge or to divide your inheritance?"

¹⁵ He told the people, "Be careful to guard yourselves from every kind of greed. Life is not about having a lot of material possessions."

¹⁶ Then he used this illustration. He said, "A rich man had land that produced good crops.

¹⁷ He thought, 'What should I do? I don't have enough room to store my crops.'

¹⁸ He said, 'I know what I'll do. I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones so that I can store all my grain and goods in them.'

¹⁹ Then I'll say to myself, "You've stored up a lot of good things for years to come. Take life easy, eat, drink, and enjoy yourself."

²⁰ "But God said to him, 'You fool! I will demand your life from you tonight! Now who will get what you've accumulated?'

²¹ That's how it is when a person has material riches but is not rich in his relationship with God."

²² Then Jesus said to his disciples, "So I tell you to stop worrying about what you will eat or wear.

²³ Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothes.

²⁴ Consider the crows. They don't plant or harvest. They don't even have a storeroom or a barn. Yet, God feeds them. You are worth much more than birds.

²⁵ "Can any of you add an hour to your life by worrying?

²⁶ If you can't do a small thing like that, why worry about other things?

²⁷ Consider how the flowers grow. They never work or spin yarn for clothes. But I say that not even Solomon in all his majesty was dressed like one of these flowers.

²⁸ That's the way God clothes the grass in the field. Today it's alive, and tomorrow it's thrown into an incinerator. So how much more will he clothe you people who have so little faith?

²⁹ "Don't concern yourself about what you will eat or drink, and quit worrying about these things.

³⁰ Everyone in the world is concerned about these things, but your Father knows you need them.

³¹ Rather, be concerned about his kingdom. Then these things will be provided for you.

³² Don't be afraid, little flock. Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.

³³ "Sell your material possessions, and give the money to the poor. Make yourselves wallets that don't wear out! Make a treasure for yourselves in heaven that never loses its value! In heaven thieves and moths can't get close enough to destroy your treasure.

³⁴ Your heart will be where your treasure is.

³⁵ "Be ready for action, and have your lamps burning.

³⁶ Be like servants waiting to open the door at their master's knock when he returns from a wedding.

³⁷ Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I can guarantee this truth: He will change his clothes, make them sit down at the table, and serve them.

³⁸ They will be blessed if he comes in the middle of the night or toward morning and finds them awake.

³⁹ "Of course, you realize that if the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let him break into his house.

⁴⁰ Be ready, because the Son of Man will return when you least expect him."

⁴¹ Peter asked, "Lord, did you use this illustration just for us or for everyone?"

⁴² The Lord asked, "Who, then, is the faithful, skilled manager that the master will put in charge of giving the other servants their share of food at the right time?

⁴³ That servant will be blessed if his master finds him doing this job when he comes.

⁴⁴ I can guarantee this truth: He will put that servant in charge of all his property.

⁴⁵ On the other hand, that servant may think that his master is taking a long time to come home. The servant may begin to beat the other servants and to eat, drink, and get drunk.

⁴⁶ His master will return at an unexpected time. Then his master will punish him severely and assign him a place with unfaithful people.

⁴⁷ "The servant who knew what his master wanted but didn't get ready to do it will receive a hard beating.

⁴⁸ But the servant who didn't know what his master wanted and did things for which he deserved punishment will receive a light beating. A lot will be expected from everyone who has been given a lot. More will be demanded from everyone who has been entrusted with a lot.

⁴⁹ "I have come to throw fire on the earth. I wish that it had already started!

⁵⁰ I have a baptism to go through, and I will suffer until it is over.

⁵¹ "Do you think I came to bring peace to earth? No! I can guarantee that I came to bring nothing but division.

⁵² From now on a family of five will be divided. Three will be divided against two and two against three.

⁵³ A father will be against his son and a son against his father. A mother will be against her daughter and a daughter against her mother. A mother-in-law will be against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

⁵⁴ Jesus said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud coming up in the west, you immediately say, 'There's going to be a rainstorm,' and it happens.

⁵⁵ When you see a south wind blowing, you say, 'It's going to be hot,' and that's what happens.

⁵⁶ You hypocrites! You can forecast the weather by judging the appearance of earth and sky. But for some reason you don't know how to judge the time in which you're living.

⁵⁷ So why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?

⁵⁸ For instance, when an opponent brings you to court in front of a ruler, do your best to settle with him before you get there. Otherwise, he will drag you in front of a judge. The judge will hand you over to an officer who will throw you into prison.

⁵⁹ I can guarantee that you won't get out until you pay every penny of your fine."

13 ¹ At that time some people reported to Jesus about some Galileans whom Pilate had executed while they were sacrificing animals.

² Jesus replied to them, "Do you think that this happened to them because they were more sinful than other people from Galilee?

³ No! I can guarantee that they weren't. But if you don't turn to God and change the way you think and act, then you, too, will all die.

⁴ What about those 18 people who died when the tower at Siloam fell on them? Do you think that they were more sinful than other people living in Jerusalem?

⁵ No! I can guarantee that they weren't. But if you don't turn to God and change the way you think and act, then you, too, will all die."

⁶ Then Jesus used this illustration:

"A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard. He went to look for fruit on the tree but didn't find any.

⁷ He said to the gardener, 'For the last three years I've come to look for figs on this fig tree but haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up good soil?'

⁸ "The gardener replied, 'Sir, let it stand for one more year. I'll dig around it and fertilize it.

⁹ Maybe next year it'll have figs. But if not, then cut it down.'"

¹⁰ Jesus was teaching in a synagogue on the day of worship.

¹¹ A woman who was possessed by a spirit was there. The spirit had disabled her for 18 years. She was hunched over and couldn't stand up straight.

¹² When Jesus saw her, he called her to come to him and said, "Woman, you are free from your disability."

¹³ He placed his hands on her, and she immediately stood up straight and praised God.

¹⁴ The synagogue leader was irritated with Jesus for healing on the day of worship. The leader told the crowd, "There are six days when work can be done. So come on one of those days to be healed. Don't come on the day of worship."

¹⁵ The Lord said, "You hypocrites! Don't each of you free your ox or donkey on the day of worship? Don't you then take it out of its stall to give it some water to drink?"

¹⁶ Now, here is a descendant of Abraham. Satan has kept her in this condition for 18 years. Isn't it right to free her on the day of worship?"

¹⁷ As he said this, everyone who opposed him felt ashamed. But the entire crowd was happy about the miraculous things he was doing.

¹⁸ Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? What can I compare it to?"

¹⁹ It's like a mustard seed that someone planted in a garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds nested in its branches."

²⁰ He asked again, "What can I compare the kingdom of God to?"

²¹ It's like yeast that a woman mixed into a large amount of flour until the yeast worked its way through all the dough."

²² Then Jesus traveled and taught in one city and village after another on his way to Jerusalem.

²³ Someone asked him, "Sir, are only a few people going to be saved?" He answered, ²⁴ "Try hard to enter through the narrow door. I can guarantee that many will try to enter, but they won't succeed.

²⁵ After the homeowner gets up and closes the door, it's too late. You can stand outside, knock at the door, and say, 'Sir, open the door for us!' But he will answer you, 'I don't know who you are.'

²⁶ Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'

²⁷ But he will tell you, 'I don't know who you are. Get away from me, all you evil people.'

²⁸ Then you will cry and be in extreme pain. That's what you'll do when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets. They'll be in the kingdom of God, but you'll be thrown out.

²⁹ People will come from all over the world and will eat in the kingdom of God.

³⁰ Some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last."

³¹ At that time some Pharisees told Jesus, "Get out of here, and go somewhere else! Herod wants to kill you."

³² Jesus said to them, "Tell that fox that I will force demons out of people and heal people today and tomorrow. I will finish my work on the third day.

³³ But I must be on my way today, tomorrow, and the next day. It's not possible for a prophet to die outside Jerusalem.

³⁴ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you kill the prophets and stone to death those sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings! But you were not willing!

³⁵ Your house will be abandoned. I can guarantee that you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

14 ¹ On a day of worship Jesus went to eat at the home of a prominent Pharisee. The guests were watching Jesus very closely.

² A man whose body was swollen with fluid was there.

³ Jesus reacted by asking the Pharisees and the experts in Moses' Teachings, "Is it right to heal on the day of worship or not?"

⁴ But they didn't say a thing. So Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away.

⁵ Jesus asked them, "If your son or your ox falls into a well on a day of worship, wouldn't you pull him out immediately?"

⁶ They couldn't argue with him about this.

⁷ Then Jesus noticed how the guests always chose the places of honor. So he used this illustration when he spoke to them:

⁸ "When someone invites you to a wedding, don't take the place of honor. Maybe someone more important than you was invited.

⁹ Then your host would say to you, 'Give this person your place.' Embarrassed, you would have to take the place of least honor.

¹⁰ So when you're invited, take the place of least honor. Then, when your host comes, he will tell you, 'Friend, move to a more honorable place.' Then all the other guests will see how you are honored.

¹¹ Those who honor themselves will be humbled, but people who humble themselves will be honored."

¹² Then he told the man who had invited him, "When you invite people for lunch or dinner, don't invite only your friends, family, other relatives, or rich neighbors. Otherwise, they will return the favor.

¹³ Instead, when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the handicapped, the lame, and the blind.

¹⁴ Then you will be blessed because they don't have any way to pay you back. You will be paid back when those who have God's approval come back to life."

¹⁵ One of those eating with him heard this. So he said to Jesus, "The person who will be at the banquet in the kingdom of God is blessed."

¹⁶ Jesus said to him, "A man gave a large banquet and invited many people.

¹⁷ When it was time for the banquet, he sent his servant to tell those who were invited, 'Come! Everything is ready now.'

¹⁸ "Everyone asked to be excused. The first said to him, 'I bought a field, and I need to see it. Please excuse me.'

¹⁹ Another said, 'I bought five pairs of oxen, and I'm on my way to see how well they plow. Please excuse me.'

²⁰ Still another said, 'I recently got married, and that's why I can't come.'

²¹ "The servant went back to report this to his master. Then the master of the house became angry. He told his servant, 'Run to every street and alley in the city! Bring back the poor, the handicapped, the blind, and the lame.'

²² "The servant said, 'Sir, what you've ordered has been done. But there is still room for more people.'

²³ "Then the master told his servant, 'Go to the roads and paths! Urge the people to come to my house. I want it to be full.

²⁴ I can guarantee that none of those invited earlier will taste any food at my banquet.'"

²⁵ Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned to them and said, ²⁶ "If people come to me and are not ready to abandon their fathers, mothers, wives, children, brothers, and sisters, as well as their own lives, they cannot be my disciples.

²⁷ So those who do not carry their crosses and follow me cannot be my disciples.

²⁸ "Suppose you want to build a tower. You would first sit down and figure out what it costs. Then you would see if you have enough money to finish it.

²⁹ Otherwise, if you lay a foundation and can't finish the building, everyone who watches will make fun of you.

³⁰ They'll say, 'This person started to build but couldn't finish the job.'

³¹ "Or suppose a king is going to war against another king. He would first sit down and think things through. Can he and his 10,000 soldiers fight against a king with 20,000 soldiers?

³² If he can't, he'll send ambassadors to ask for terms of peace while the other king is still far away.

³³ In the same way, none of you can be my disciples unless you give up everything.

³⁴ "Salt is good. But if salt loses its taste, how will you restore its flavor?

³⁵ It's not any good for the ground or for the manure pile. People throw it away. "Let the person who has ears listen!"

15 ¹ All the tax collectors and sinners came to listen to Jesus.

² But the Pharisees and the scribes complained, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

³ Jesus spoke to them using this illustration:

⁴ "Suppose a man has 100 sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the 99 sheep grazing in the pasture and look for the lost sheep until he finds it?

⁵ When he finds it, he's happy. He puts that sheep on his shoulders and

⁶ goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says to them, 'Let's celebrate! I've found my lost sheep!'

⁷ I can guarantee that there will be more happiness in heaven over one person who turns to God and changes the way he thinks and acts than over 99 people who already have turned to God and have his approval."

⁸ "Suppose a woman has ten coins and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house, and look for the coin carefully until she finds it?

⁹ When she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Let's celebrate! I've found the coin that I lost.'

¹⁰ So I can guarantee that God's angels are happy about one person who turns to God and changes the way he thinks and acts."

¹¹ Then Jesus said, "A man had two sons.

¹² The younger son said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the property.' So the father divided his property between his two sons.

¹³ "After a few days, the younger son gathered his possessions and left for a country far away from home. There he wasted everything he had on a wild lifestyle.

¹⁴ He had nothing left when a severe famine spread throughout that country. He had nothing to live on.

¹⁵ So he got a job from someone in that country and was sent to feed pigs in the fields.

¹⁶ No one in the country would give him any food, and he was so hungry that he would have eaten what the pigs were eating.

¹⁷ "Finally, he came to his senses. He said, 'How many of my father's hired men have more food than they can eat, while I'm starving to death here?

¹⁸ I'll go at once to my father, and I'll say to him, "Father, I've sinned against heaven and you.

¹⁹ I don't deserve to be called your son anymore. Make me one of your hired men."

²⁰ "So he went at once to his father. While he was still at a distance, his father saw him and felt sorry for him. He ran to his son, put his arms around him, and kissed him.

²¹ Then his son said to him, 'Father, I've sinned against heaven and you. I don't deserve to be called your son anymore.'

²² "The father said to his servants, 'Hurry! Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

²³ Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let's celebrate with a feast.

²⁴ My son was dead and has come back to life. He was lost but has been found.' Then they began to celebrate.

²⁵ "His older son was in the field. As he was coming back to the house, he heard music and dancing.

²⁶ He called to one of the servants and asked what was happening.

²⁷ "The servant told him, 'Your brother has come home. So your father has killed the fattened calf to celebrate your brother's safe return.'

²⁸ "Then the older son became angry and wouldn't go into the house. His father came out and begged him to come in.

²⁹ But he answered his father, ‘All these years I’ve worked like a slave for you. I’ve never disobeyed one of your commands. Yet, you’ve never given me so much as a little goat for a celebration with my friends.

³⁰ But this son of yours spent your money on prostitutes, and when he came home, you killed the fattened calf for him.’

³¹ "His father said to him, ‘My child, you’re always with me. Everything I have is yours.

³² But we have something to celebrate, something to be happy about. This brother of yours was dead but has come back to life. He was lost but has been found.’"

16 ¹ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a business manager. The manager was accused of wasting the rich man’s property.

² So the rich man called for his manager and said to him, 'What's this I hear about you? Let me examine your books. It's obvious that you can't manage my property any longer.'

³ "The manager thought, 'What should I do? My master is taking my job away from me. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg.'

⁴ I know what I'll do so that people will welcome me into their homes when I've lost my job.'

⁵ "So the manager called for each one of his master's debtors. He said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

⁶ "The debtor replied, 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil.' "The manager told him, 'Take my master's ledger. Quick! Sit down, and write "four hundred!"'

⁷ "Then he asked another debtor, 'How much do you owe?' "The debtor replied, 'A thousand bushels of wheat.' "The manager told him, 'Take the ledger, and write "eight hundred!"'

⁸ "The master praised the dishonest manager for being so clever. Worldly people are more clever than spiritually-minded people when it comes to dealing with others."

⁹ Jesus continued, "I'm telling you that although wealth is often used in dishonest ways, you should use it to make friends for yourselves. When life is over, you will be welcomed into an eternal home.

¹⁰ Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with a lot. Whoever is dishonest with very little is dishonest with a lot.

¹¹ Therefore, if you can't be trusted with wealth that is often used dishonestly, who will trust you with wealth that is real?

¹² If you can't be trusted with someone else's wealth, who will give you your own?

¹³ "A servant cannot serve two masters. He will hate the first master and love the second, or he will be devoted to the first and despise the second. You cannot serve God and wealth."

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who love money, heard all this and were making sarcastic remarks about him.

¹⁵ So Jesus said to them, "You try to justify your actions in front of people. But God knows what's in your hearts. What is important to humans is disgusting to God."

¹⁶ "Moses' Teachings and the Prophets were in force until the time of John. Since that time, people have been telling the Good News about the kingdom of God, and everyone is trying to force their way into it."

¹⁷ It is easier for the earth and the heavens to disappear than to drop a comma from Moses' Teachings.

¹⁸ "Any man who divorces his wife to marry another woman is committing adultery. The man who marries a woman divorced in this way is committing adultery.

¹⁹ "There was a rich man who wore expensive clothes. Every day was like a party to him.

²⁰ There was also a beggar named Lazarus who was regularly brought to the gate of the rich man's house.

²¹ Lazarus would have eaten any scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Lazarus was covered with sores, and dogs would lick them.

²² "One day the beggar died, and the angels carried him to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

²³ He went to hell, where he was constantly tortured. As he looked up, in the distance he saw Abraham and Lazarus.

²⁴ He yelled, 'Father Abraham! Have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water to cool off my tongue. I am suffering in this fire.'

²⁵ "Abraham replied, 'Remember, my child, that you had a life filled with good times, while Lazarus' life was filled with misery. Now he has peace here, while you suffer.

²⁶ Besides, a wide area separates us. People couldn't cross it in either direction even if they wanted to.'

²⁷ "The rich man responded, 'Then I ask you, Father, to send Lazarus back to my father's home.

²⁸ I have five brothers. He can warn them so that they won't end up in this place of torture.'

²⁹ "Abraham replied, 'They have Moses' Teachings and the Prophets. Your brothers should listen to them!'

³⁰ "The rich man replied, 'No, Father Abraham! If someone comes back to them from the dead, they will turn to God and change the way they think and act.'

³¹ "Abraham answered him, 'If they won't listen to Moses' Teachings and the Prophets, they won't be persuaded even if someone comes back to life.'"

17 ¹ Jesus told his disciples,
"Situations that cause people to lose their faith are certain to arise. But how horrible it will be for the person who causes someone to lose his faith!

² It would be best for that person to be thrown into the sea with a large stone hung around his neck than for him to cause one of these little ones to lose his faith.

³ So watch yourselves! "If a believer sins, correct him. If he changes the way he thinks and acts, forgive him.

⁴ Even if he wrongs you seven times in one day and comes back to you seven times and says that he is sorry, forgive him."

⁵ Then the apostles said to the Lord, "Give us more faith."

⁶ The Lord said, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Pull yourself up by the roots, and plant yourself in the sea!' and it would obey you.

⁷ "Suppose someone has a servant who is plowing fields or watching sheep. Does he tell his servant when he comes from the field, 'Have something to eat'?

⁸ No. Instead, he tells his servant, 'Get dinner ready for me! After you serve me my dinner, you can eat yours.'

⁹ He doesn't thank the servant for following orders.

¹⁰ That's the way it is with you. When you've done everything you're ordered to do, say, 'We're worthless servants. We've only done our duty.'

¹¹ Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee on his way to Jerusalem.

¹² As he went into a village, ten men with a skin disease met him. They stood at a distance

¹³ and shouted, "Jesus, Teacher, have mercy on us!"

¹⁴ When he saw them, he told them, "Show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were made clean.

¹⁵ When one of them saw that he was healed, he turned back and praised God in a loud voice.

¹⁶ He quickly bowed at Jesus' feet and thanked him. (The man was a Samaritan.)

¹⁷ Jesus asked, "Weren't ten men made clean? Where are the other nine?"

¹⁸ Only this foreigner came back to praise God."

¹⁹ Jesus told the man, "Get up, and go home! Your faith has made you well."

²⁰ The Pharisees asked Jesus when the kingdom of God would come. He answered them, "People can't observe the coming of the kingdom of God.

²¹ They can't say, 'Here it is!' or 'There it is!' You see, the kingdom of God is within you."

²² Jesus said to his disciples, "The time will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

²³ People will say, 'There he is!' or 'Here he is!' Don't run after those people.

²⁴ The day of the Son of Man will be like lightning that flashes from one end of the sky to the other.

²⁵ But first he must suffer a lot and be rejected by the people of his day.

²⁶ "When the Son of Man comes again, the situation will be like the time of Noah.

²⁷ People were eating, drinking, and getting married until the day that Noah went into the ship. Then the flood destroyed all of them.

²⁸ "The situation will also be like the time of Lot. People were eating, drinking, buying and selling, planting and building.

²⁹ But on the day that Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from the sky and destroyed all of them.

³⁰ The day when the Son of Man is revealed will be like that.

³¹ "On that day those who are on the roof shouldn't come down to get their belongings out of their houses. Those who are in the field shouldn't turn back.

³² Remember Lot's wife!

³³ Those who try to save their lives will lose them, and those who lose their lives will save them.

³⁴ "I can guarantee that on that night if two people are in one bed, one will be taken and the other one will be left.

³⁵ Two women will be grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other one will be left."

³⁶ (OMITTED TEXT)

³⁷ They asked him, "Where, Lord?" Jesus told them, "Vultures will gather wherever there is a dead body."

18 ¹ Jesus used this illustration with his disciples to show them that they need to pray all the time and never give up.

² He said, "In a city there was a judge who didn't fear God or respect people.

³ In that city there was also a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Give me justice.'

⁴ "For a while the judge refused to do anything. But then he thought, 'This widow really annoys me. Although I don't fear God or respect people,

⁵ I'll have to give her justice. Otherwise, she'll keep coming to me until she wears me out.'"

⁶ The Lord added, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge thought.

⁷ Won't God give his chosen people justice when they cry out to him for help day and night? Is he slow to help them?

⁸ I can guarantee that he will give them justice quickly. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

⁹ Jesus also used this illustration with some who were sure that God approved of them while they looked down on everyone else.

¹⁰ He said, "Two men went into the temple courtyard to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.

¹¹ The Pharisee stood up and prayed, 'God, I thank you that I'm not like other people! I'm not a robber or a dishonest person. I haven't committed adultery. I'm not even like this tax collector.

¹² I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my entire income.'

¹³ "But the tax collector was standing at a distance. He wouldn't even look up to heaven. Instead, he became very upset, and he said, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

¹⁴ "I can guarantee that this tax collector went home with God's approval, but the Pharisee didn't. Everyone who honors himself will be humbled, but the person who humbles himself will be honored."

¹⁵ Some people brought infants to Jesus to have him hold them. When the disciples saw this, they told the people not to do that.

¹⁶ But Jesus called the infants to him and said, "Don't stop the children from coming to me! Children like these are part of the kingdom of God.

¹⁷ I can guarantee this truth: Whoever doesn't receive the kingdom of God as a little child receives it will never enter it."

¹⁸ An official asked Jesus, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹ Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God.

²⁰ You know the commandments: Never commit adultery. Never murder. Never steal. Never give false testimony. Honor your father and your mother."

²¹ The official replied, "I've obeyed all these commandments since I was a boy."

²² When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still need one thing. Sell everything you have. Distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me!"

²³ When the official heard this, he became sad, because he was very rich.

²⁴ Jesus watched him and said, "How hard it is for rich people to enter the kingdom of God!"

²⁵ Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ Those who heard him asked, "Who, then, can be saved?"

²⁷ Jesus said, "The things that are impossible for people to do are possible for God to do."

²⁸ Then Peter said, "We've left everything to follow you."

²⁹ Jesus said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Anyone who gave up his home, wife, brothers, parents, or children because of the kingdom of God ³⁰ will certainly receive many times as much in this life and will receive eternal life in the world to come."

³¹ Jesus took the twelve apostles aside and said to them, "We're going to Jerusalem. Everything that the prophets wrote about the Son of Man will come true.

³² He will be handed over to foreigners. They will make fun of him, insult him, spit on him, ³³ whip him, and kill him. But on the third day he will come back to life."

³⁴ But they didn't understand any of this. What he said was a mystery to them, and they didn't know what he meant.

³⁵ As Jesus came near Jericho, a blind man was sitting and begging by the road.

³⁶ When he heard the crowd going by, he tried to find out what was happening.

³⁷ The people told him that Jesus from Nazareth was passing by.

³⁸ Then the blind man shouted, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

³⁹ The people at the front of the crowd told the blind man to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁰ Jesus stopped and ordered them to bring the man to him. When the man came near, Jesus asked him,

⁴¹ "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said, "Lord, I want to see again."

⁴² Jesus told him, "Receive your sight! Your faith has made you well."

⁴³ Immediately, he could see again. He followed Jesus and praised God. All the people saw this, and they, too, praised God.

19 ¹ Jesus was passing through Jericho.

² A man named Zacchaeus was there. He was the director of tax collectors, and he was rich.

³ He tried to see who Jesus was. But Zacchaeus was a small man, and he couldn't see Jesus because of the crowd.

⁴ So Zacchaeus ran ahead and climbed a fig tree to see Jesus, who was coming that way.

⁵ When Jesus came to the tree, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down! I must stay at your house today."

⁶ Zacchaeus came down and was glad to welcome Jesus into his home.

⁷ But the people who saw this began to express disapproval. They said, "He went to be the guest of a sinner."

⁸ Later, at dinner, Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Lord, I'll give half of my property to the poor. I'll pay four times as much as I owe to those I have cheated in any way."

⁹ Then Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "You and your family have been saved today. You've shown that you, too, are one of Abraham's descendants."

¹⁰ Indeed, the Son of Man has come to seek and to save people who are lost."

¹¹ Jesus was getting closer to Jerusalem, and the people thought that the kingdom of God would appear suddenly. While Jesus had the people's attention, he used this illustration.

¹² He said, "A prince went to a distant country to be appointed king, and then he returned.

¹³ Before he left, he called ten of his servants and gave them ten coins. He said to his servants, 'Invest this money until I come back.'

¹⁴ "The citizens of his own country hated him. They sent representatives to follow him and say to the person who was going to appoint him, 'We don't want this man to be our king.'

¹⁵ "After he was appointed king, he came back. Then he said, 'Call those servants to whom I gave money. I want to know how much each one has made by investing.'

¹⁶ "The first servant said, 'Sir, the coin you gave me has earned ten times as much.'

¹⁷ "The king said to him, 'Good job! You're a good servant. You proved that you could be trusted with a little money. Take charge of ten cities.'

¹⁸ "The second servant said, 'The coin you gave me, sir, has made five times as much.'

¹⁹ "The king said to this servant, 'You take charge of five cities.'

²⁰ "Then the other servant said, 'Sir, look! Here's your coin. I've kept it in a cloth for safekeeping because

²¹ I was afraid of you. You're a tough person to get along with. You take what isn't yours and harvest grain you haven't planted.'

²² "The king said to him, 'I'll judge you by what you've said, you evil servant! You knew that I was a tough person to get along with. You knew that I take what isn't mine and harvest grain I haven't planted.

²³ Then why didn't you put my money in the bank? When I came back, I could have collected it with interest.'

²⁴ The king told his men, 'Take his coin away, and give it to the man who has ten.'

²⁵ "They replied, 'Sir, he already has ten coins.'

²⁶ "'I can guarantee that everyone who has something will be given more. But everything will be taken away from those who don't have much.

²⁷ Bring my enemies, who didn't want me to be their king. Kill them in front of me.'"

²⁸ After Jesus had given this illustration, he continued on his way to Jerusalem.

²⁹ When he came near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives (as it was called), Jesus sent two of his disciples ahead of him.

³⁰ He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter, you will find a young donkey tied there. No one has ever sat on it. Untie it, and bring it.

³¹ If anyone asks you why you are untying it, say that the Lord needs it."

³² The men Jesus sent found it as he had told them.

³³ While they were untying the young donkey, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the donkey?"

³⁴ The disciples answered, "The Lord needs it."

³⁵ They brought the donkey to Jesus, put their coats on it, and helped Jesus onto it.

³⁶ As he was riding along, people spread their coats on the road.

³⁷ By this time he was coming near the place where the road went down the Mount of Olives. Then the whole crowd of disciples began to praise God for all the miracles they had seen.

³⁸ They shouted joyfully, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven."

³⁹ Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell your disciples to be quiet."

⁴⁰ Jesus replied, "I can guarantee that if they are quiet, the stones will cry out."

⁴¹ When he came closer and saw the city, he began to cry.

⁴² He said, "If you had only known today what would bring you peace! But now it is hidden, so you cannot see it.

⁴³ The time will come when enemy armies will build a wall to surround you and close you in on every side.

⁴⁴ They will level you to the ground and kill your people. One stone will not be left on top of another, because you didn't recognize the time when God came to help you."

⁴⁵ Jesus went into the temple courtyard and began to throw out those who were selling things there.

⁴⁶ He said to them, "Scripture says, 'My house will be a house of prayer,' but you have turned it into a gathering place for thieves."

⁴⁷ Jesus taught in the temple courtyard every day. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people looked for a way to kill him.

⁴⁸ But they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were eager to hear him.

20¹ One day Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courtyard and telling them the Good News. The chief priests, scribes, and leaders came up to him.

² They asked him, "Tell us, what gives you the right to do these things? Who told you that you could do this?"

³ Jesus answered them, "I, too, have a question for you. Tell me, ⁴ did John's right to baptize come from heaven or from humans?"

⁵ They talked about this among themselves. They said, "If we say, 'from heaven,' he will ask, 'Why didn't you believe him?'"

⁶ But if we say, 'from humans,' everyone will stone us to death. They're convinced that John was a prophet."

⁷ So they answered that they didn't know who gave John the right to baptize.

⁸ Jesus told them, "Then I won't tell you why I have the right to do these things."

⁹ Then, using this illustration, Jesus spoke to the people: "A man planted a vineyard, leased it to vineyard workers, and went on a long trip.

¹⁰ "At the right time he sent a servant to the workers to obtain from them a share of the grapes from the vineyard. But the workers beat the servant and sent him back with nothing.

¹¹ So he sent a different servant. The workers beat him, treated him shamefully, and sent him back with nothing.

¹² Then he sent a third servant. But they injured this one and threw him out of the vineyard.

¹³ "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I'll send my son, whom I love. They'll probably respect him.'

¹⁴ "When the workers saw him, they talked it over among themselves. They said, 'This is the heir. Let's kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.'

¹⁵ So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. "What will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

¹⁶ He will destroy these workers and give the vineyard to others." Those who heard him said, "That's unthinkable!"

¹⁷ Then Jesus looked straight at them and asked, "What, then, does this Scripture verse mean: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone'?"

¹⁸ Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken. If that stone falls on anyone, it will crush that person."

¹⁹ The scribes and the chief priests wanted to arrest him right there, but they were afraid of the people. They knew that he had directed this illustration at them.

²⁰ So they watched for an opportunity to send out some spies. The spies were to act like sincere religious people. They wanted to catch him saying the wrong thing so that they could hand him over to the governor.

²¹ They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you're right in what you say and teach. Besides, you don't play favorites.

Rather, you teach the way of God truthfully.

²² Is it right for us to pay taxes to the emperor or not?"

²³ He saw through their scheme, so he said to them,

²⁴ "Show me a coin. Whose face and name is this?" They answered, "The emperor's."

²⁵ He said to them, "Well, then give the emperor what belongs to the emperor, and give God what belongs to God."

²⁶ They couldn't make him say anything wrong in front of the people. His answer surprised them, so they said no more.

²⁷ Some Sadducees, who say that people will never come back to life, came to Jesus. They asked him,

²⁸ "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, 'If a married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry his widow and have children for his brother.'

²⁹ There were seven brothers. The first got married and died without having children.

³⁰ Then the second brother married the widow,

³¹ and so did the third. In the same way all seven brothers married the widow, died, and left no children.

³² Finally, the woman died.

³³ Now, when the dead come back to life, whose wife will she be? The seven brothers had married her."

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "In this world people get married.

³⁵ But people who are considered worthy to come back to life and live in the next world will neither marry

³⁶ nor die anymore. They are the same as the angels. They are God's children who have come back to life.

³⁷ "Even Moses showed in the passage about the bush that the dead come back to life. He says that the Lord is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

³⁸ He's not the God of the dead but of the living. In God's sight all people are living."

³⁹ Some scribes responded, "Teacher, that was well said."

⁴⁰ From that time on, no one dared to ask him another question.

⁴¹ Jesus said to them, "How can people say that the Messiah is David's son?

⁴² David says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Take the highest position in heaven

⁴³ until I make your enemies your footstool.'"

⁴⁴ David calls him Lord. So how can he be his son?"

⁴⁵ While all the people were listening, Jesus said to the disciples, ⁴⁶ "Beware of the scribes! They like to walk around in long robes and love to be greeted in the marketplaces, to have the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at dinners.

⁴⁷ They rob widows by taking their houses and then say long prayers to make themselves look good. The scribes will receive the most severe punishment."

21 ¹ Looking up, Jesus saw people, especially the rich, dropping their gifts into the temple offering box.

² He noticed a poor widow drop in two small coins.

³ He said, "I can guarantee this truth: This poor widow has given more than all the others.

⁴ All of these people have given what they could spare. But she, in her poverty, has given everything she had to live on."

⁵ Some of the disciples were talking about the temple complex. They noted that it was built with fine stones and decorated with beautiful gifts. So Jesus said,

⁶ "About these buildings that you see—the time will come when not one of these stones will be left on top of another. Each one will be torn down."

⁷ The disciples asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? What will be the sign when all this will occur?"

⁸ Jesus said, "Be careful that you are not deceived. Many will come using my name. They will say, 'I am he!' and 'The time is near.' Don't follow them!

⁹ "When you hear of wars and revolutions, don't be terrified! These things must happen first, but the end will not come immediately."

¹⁰ Then Jesus continued, "Nation will fight against nation and kingdom against kingdom.

¹¹ There will be terrible earthquakes, famines, and dreadful diseases in various places. Terrifying sights and miraculous signs will come from the sky.

¹² "Before all these things happen, people will arrest and persecute you. They will hand you over to their synagogues and put you into their prisons. They will drag you in front of kings and governors because of my name.

¹³ It will be your opportunity to testify to them.

¹⁴ So make up your minds not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.

¹⁵ I will give you words and wisdom that none of your enemies will be able to oppose or prove wrong.

¹⁶ "Even parents, brothers, relatives, and friends will betray you and kill some of you.

¹⁷ Everyone will hate you because you are committed to me.

¹⁸ But not a hair on your head will be lost.

¹⁹ By your endurance you will save your life.

²⁰ "When you see armies camped around Jerusalem, realize that the time is near for it to be destroyed.

²¹ Then those of you in Judea should flee to the mountains. Those of you in Jerusalem should leave it. Those of you in the fields shouldn't go back into them.

²² This will be a time of vengeance. Everything that is written about it will come true.

²³ "How horrible it will be for women who are pregnant or who are nursing babies in those days. Indeed, the land will suffer very hard times, and its people will be punished.

²⁴ Swords will cut them down, and they will be carried off into all nations as prisoners. Nations will trample

Jerusalem until the times allowed for the nations to do this are over.

²⁵ "Miraculous signs will occur in the sun, moon, and stars. The nations of the earth will be deeply troubled and confused because of the roaring and tossing of the sea.

²⁶ People will faint as they fearfully wait for what will happen to the world. Indeed, the powers of the universe will be shaken.

²⁷ "Then people will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

²⁸ "When these things begin to happen, stand with confidence! The time when you will be set free is near."

²⁹ Then Jesus used this story as an illustration. "Look at the fig tree or any other tree.

³⁰ As soon as leaves grow on them, you know without being told that summer is near.

³¹ In the same way, when you see these things happen, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

³² "I can guarantee this truth: This generation will not disappear until all this takes place.

³³ The earth and the heavens will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

³⁴ "Make sure that you don't become drunk, hung over, and worried about life. Then that day could suddenly catch you by surprise ³⁵ like a trap that catches a bird. That day will surprise all people who live on the earth.

³⁶ Be alert at all times. Pray so that you have the power to escape everything that is about to happen and to stand in front of the Son of Man."

³⁷ During the day Jesus would teach in the temple courtyard. But at night he would go to the Mount of Olives (as it was called) and spend the night there.

³⁸ All of the people would get up early to hear him speak in the temple courtyard.

22 ¹ The Festival of Unleavened Bread, called Passover, was near.

² The chief priests and the scribes were looking for some way to kill Jesus. However, they were afraid of the people.

³ Then Satan entered Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles.

⁴ Judas went to the chief priests and the temple guards and discussed with them how he could betray Jesus.

⁵ They were pleased and agreed to give him some money.

⁶ So Judas promised to do it. He kept looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus to them when there was no crowd.

⁷ The day came during the Festival of Unleavened Bread when the Passover lamb had to be killed.

⁸ Jesus sent Peter and John and told them, "Go, prepare the Passover lamb for us to eat."

⁹ They asked him, "Where do you want us to prepare it?"

¹⁰ He told them, "Go into the city, and you will meet a man carrying a jug of water. Follow him into the house he enters.

¹¹ Tell the owner of the house that the teacher asks, 'Where is the room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'

¹² He will take you upstairs and show you a large furnished room. Get things ready there."

¹³ The disciples left. They found everything as Jesus had told them and prepared the Passover.

¹⁴ When it was time to eat the Passover meal, Jesus and the apostles were at the table.

¹⁵ Jesus said to them, "I've had a deep desire to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

¹⁶ I can guarantee that I won't eat it again until it finds its fulfillment in the kingdom of God."

¹⁷ Then he took a cup and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He said, "Take this, and share it.

¹⁸ I can guarantee that from now on I won't drink this wine until the kingdom of God comes."

¹⁹ Then Jesus took bread and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "This is my body, which is given up for you. Do this to remember me."

²⁰ When supper was over, he did the same with the cup. He said, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new promise made with my blood."

²¹ "The hand of the one who will betray me is with me on the table.

²² The Son of Man is going to die the way it has been planned for him. But how horrible it will be for that person who betrays him."

²³ So they began to discuss with each other who could do such a thing.

²⁴ Then a quarrel broke out among the disciples. They argued about who should be considered the greatest.

²⁵ Jesus said to them, "The kings of nations have power over their people, and those in authority call themselves friends of the people.

²⁶ But you're not going to be that way! Rather, the greatest among you must be like the youngest, and your leader must be like a servant.

²⁷ Who's the greatest, the person who sits at the table or the servant? Isn't it really the person who sits at the table? But I'm among you as a servant.

²⁸ "You have stood by me in the troubles that have tested me.

²⁹ So as my Father has given me a kingdom, I'm giving it to you.

³⁰ You will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will also sit on thrones and judge the twelve tribes of Israel."

³¹ Then the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to have you apostles for himself. He wants to separate you from me as a farmer separates wheat from husks.

³² But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. So when you recover, strengthen the other disciples."

³³ But Peter said to him, "Lord, I'm ready to go to prison with you and to die with you."

³⁴ Jesus replied, "Peter, I can guarantee that the rooster won't crow tonight until you say three times that you don't know me."

³⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "When I sent you out without a wallet, traveling bag, or sandals, you didn't lack anything, did you?" "Not a thing!" they answered.

³⁶ Then he said to them, "But now, the person who has a wallet and a traveling bag should take them along. The person who doesn't have a sword should sell his coat and buy one.

³⁷ I can guarantee that the Scripture passage which says, 'He was counted with criminals,' must find its fulfillment in me. Indeed, whatever is written about me will come true."

³⁸ The disciples said, "Lord, look! Here are two swords!" Then Jesus said to them, "That's enough!"

³⁹ Jesus went out of the city to the Mount of Olives as he usually did. His disciples followed him.

⁴⁰ When he arrived, he said to them, "Pray that you won't be tempted."

⁴¹ Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and prayed,

⁴² "Father, if it is your will, take this cup of suffering away from me. However, your will must be done, not mine."

⁴³ Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

⁴⁴ So he prayed very hard in anguish. His sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground.

⁴⁵ When Jesus ended his prayer, he got up and went to the disciples. He found them asleep and overcome with sadness.

⁴⁶ He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up, and pray that you won't be tempted."

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking to the disciples, a crowd arrived. The man called Judas, one of the twelve apostles, was leading them. He came close to Jesus to kiss him.

⁴⁸ Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you intend to betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

⁴⁹ The men who were with Jesus saw what was going to happen. So they asked him, "Lord, should we use our swords to fight?"

⁵⁰ One of the disciples cut off the right ear of the chief priest's servant.

⁵¹ But Jesus said, "Stop! That's enough of this." Then he touched the servant's ear and healed him.

⁵² Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple guards, and leaders who had come for him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal?"

⁵³ I was with you in the temple courtyard every day and you didn't try to arrest me. But this is your time, when darkness rules."

⁵⁴ So they arrested Jesus and led him away to the chief priest's house. Peter followed at a distance.

⁵⁵ Some men had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard. As they sat together, Peter sat among them.

⁵⁶ A female servant saw him as he sat facing the glow of the fire. She stared at him and said, "This man was with Jesus."

⁵⁷ But Peter denied it by saying, "I don't know him, woman."

⁵⁸ A little later someone else saw Peter and said, "You are one of them." But Peter said, "Not me!"

⁵⁹ About an hour later another person insisted, "It's obvious that this man was with him. He's a Galilean!"

⁶⁰ But Peter said, "I don't know what you're talking about!" Just then, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

⁶¹ Then the Lord turned and looked directly at Peter. Peter remembered what the Lord had said: "Before a rooster crows today, you will say three times that you don't know me."

⁶² Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

⁶³ The men who were guarding Jesus made fun of him as they beat him.

⁶⁴ They blindfolded him and said to him, "Tell us who hit you."

⁶⁵ They also insulted him in many other ways.

⁶⁶ In the morning the council of the people's leaders, the chief priests and the scribes, gathered together. They brought Jesus in front of their highest court and asked him, ⁶⁷ "Tell us, are you the Messiah?" Jesus said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe me.

⁶⁸ And if I ask you, you won't answer.

⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man will be in the highest position in heaven."

⁷⁰ Then all of them said, "So you're the Son of God?" Jesus answered them, "You're right to say that I am."

⁷¹ Then they said, "Why do we need any more testimony? We've heard him say it ourselves."

23 ¹ Then the entire assembly stood up and took him to Pilate.

² They began to accuse Jesus by saying, "We found that he stirs up trouble among our people: He keeps them from paying taxes to the emperor, and he says that he is Christ, a king."

³ Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Yes, I am," Jesus answered.

⁴ Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I can't find this man guilty of any crime."

⁵ The priests and the crowd became more forceful. They said, "He stirs up the people throughout Judea with his teachings. He started in Galilee and has come here."

⁶ When Pilate heard that, he asked if the man was from Galilee.

⁷ When Pilate found out that he was, he sent Jesus to Herod. Herod ruled Galilee and was in Jerusalem at that time.

⁸ Herod was very pleased to see Jesus. For a long time he had wanted to see him. He had heard about Jesus and hoped to see him perform some kind of miracle.

⁹ Herod asked Jesus many questions, but Jesus wouldn't answer him.

¹⁰ Meanwhile, the chief priests and the scribes stood there and shouted their accusations against Jesus.

¹¹ Herod and his soldiers treated Jesus with contempt and made fun of him. They put a colorful robe on him and sent him back to Pilate.

¹² So Herod and Pilate became friends that day. They had been enemies before this.

¹³ Then Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people.

¹⁴ He told them, "You brought me this man as someone who turns the people against the government. I've questioned him in front of you and haven't found this man guilty of the crimes of which you accuse him.

¹⁵ Neither could Herod. So he sent this man back to us. This man hasn't done anything to deserve the death penalty.

¹⁶ So I'm going to have him whipped and set free."

¹⁷ (OMITTED TEXT)

¹⁸ The whole crowd then shouted, "Take him away! Free Barabbas for us."

¹⁹ (Barabbas had been thrown into prison for his involvement in a riot that had taken place in the city and for murder.)

²⁰ But because Pilate wanted to free Jesus, he spoke to the people again.

²¹ They began yelling, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

²² A third time Pilate spoke to them. He asked, "Why? What has he done wrong? I haven't found this man deserving of the death penalty. So I'm going to have him whipped and set free."

²³ But the crowd pressured Pilate. They shouted that Jesus had to be crucified, and they finally won.

²⁴ Pilate decided to give in to their demand.

²⁵ He freed Barabbas, who had been put in prison for rioting and murdering, because that's what they wanted. But he let them do what they wanted to Jesus.

²⁶ As the soldiers led Jesus away, they grabbed a man named Simon, who was from the city of Cyrene. Simon was coming into Jerusalem. They laid the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

²⁷ A large crowd followed Jesus. The women in the crowd cried and sang funeral songs for him.

²⁸ Jesus turned to them and said, "You women of Jerusalem, don't cry for me! Rather, cry for yourselves and your children!

²⁹ The time is coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the women who couldn't get pregnant, who couldn't give birth, and who couldn't nurse a child.'

³⁰ Then people will say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'

³¹ If people do this to a green tree, what will happen to a dry one?"

³² Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be executed with him.

³³ When they came to the place called The Skull, they crucified him. The criminals were also crucified, one on his right and the other on his left.

³⁴ Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them. They don't know what they're doing." Meanwhile, the soldiers divided his clothes among themselves by throwing dice.

³⁵ The people stood there watching. But the rulers were making sarcastic remarks. They said, "He saved others. If he's the Messiah that God has chosen, let him save himself!"

³⁶ The soldiers also made fun of him. They would go up to him, offer him some vinegar, ³⁷ and say, "If you're the king of the Jews, save yourself!"

³⁸ A written notice was placed above him. It said, "This is the king of the Jews."

³⁹ One of the criminals hanging there insulted Jesus by saying, "So you're really the Messiah, are you? Well, save yourself and us!"

⁴⁰ But the other criminal scolded him: "Don't you fear God at all? Can't you see that you're condemned in the same way that he is?"

⁴¹ Our punishment is fair. We're getting what we deserve. But this man hasn't done anything wrong."

⁴² Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you enter your kingdom."

⁴³ Jesus said to him, "I can guarantee this truth: Today you will be with me in paradise."

⁴⁴ Around noon darkness came over the entire land and lasted until three in the afternoon.

⁴⁵ The sun had stopped shining. The curtain in the temple was split in two.

⁴⁶ Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit." After he said this, he died.

⁴⁷ When an army officer saw what had happened, he praised God and said, "Certainly, this man was innocent!"

⁴⁸ Crowds had gathered to see the sight. But when all of them saw what had happened, they cried and returned to the city.

⁴⁹ All his friends, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance and watched everything.

⁵⁰ There was a good man who had God's approval. His name was Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish council, ⁵¹ but he had not agreed with what they had done. He was from the Jewish city of Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God.

⁵² He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁵³ After he took it down from the cross, he wrapped it in linen. Then he laid the body in a tomb cut in rock, a tomb in which no one had ever been buried.

⁵⁴ It was Friday, and the day of worship was just beginning.

⁵⁵ The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed closely behind Joseph. They observed the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

⁵⁶ Then they went back to the city and prepared spices and perfumes. But on the day of worship they rested according to the commandment.

24 ¹ Very early on Sunday morning the women went to the tomb.

They were carrying the spices that they had prepared.

² They found that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb.

³ When they went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴ While they were puzzled about this, two men in clothes that were as bright as lightning suddenly stood beside them.

⁵ The women were terrified and bowed to the ground. The men asked the women, "Why are you looking among the dead for the living one?"

⁶ He's not here. He has been brought back to life! Remember what he told you while he was still in Galilee.

⁷ He said, 'The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful people, be crucified, and come back to life on the third day.'"

⁸ Then the women remembered what Jesus had told them.

⁹ The women left the tomb and went back to the city. They told everything to the eleven apostles and all the others.

¹⁰ The women were Mary from Magdala, Joanna, and Mary (the mother of James). There were also other women with them. They told the apostles everything.

¹¹ The apostles thought that the women's story didn't make any sense, and they didn't believe them.

¹² But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent down to look inside and saw only the strips of linen. Then he went away, wondering what had happened.

¹³ On the same day, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus. It was about seven miles from Jerusalem.

¹⁴ They were talking to each other about everything that had happened.

¹⁵ While they were talking, Jesus approached them and began walking with them.

¹⁶ Although they saw him, they didn't recognize him.

¹⁷ He asked them, "What are you discussing?" They stopped and looked very sad.

¹⁸ One of them, Cleopas, replied, "Are you the only one in Jerusalem who doesn't know what has happened recently?"

¹⁹ "What happened?" he asked. They said to him, "We were discussing what happened to Jesus from Nazareth. He was a powerful prophet in what he did and said in the sight of God and all the people.

²⁰ Our chief priests and rulers had him condemned to death and crucified.

²¹ We were hoping that he was the one who would free Israel. What's more, this is now the third day since everything happened.

²² Some of the women from our group startled us. They went to the tomb early this morning

²³ and didn't find his body. They told us that they had seen angels who said that he's alive.

²⁴ Some of our men went to the tomb and found it empty, as the women had said, but they didn't see him."

²⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "How foolish you are! You're so slow to believe everything the prophets said!

²⁶ Didn't the Messiah have to suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

²⁷ Then he began with Moses' Teachings and the Prophets to explain to them what was said about him throughout the Scriptures.

²⁸ When they came near the village where they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther.

²⁹ They urged him, "Stay with us! It's getting late, and the day is almost over." So he went to stay with them.

³⁰ While he was at the table with them, he took bread and blessed it. He broke the bread and gave it to them.

³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. But he vanished from their sight.

³² They said to each other, "Weren't we excited when he talked with us on the road and opened up the meaning of the Scriptures for us?"

³³ That same hour they went back to Jerusalem. They found the eleven apostles and those who were with them gathered together.

³⁴ They were saying, "The Lord has really come back to life and has appeared to Simon."

³⁵ Then the two disciples told what had happened on the road and how they had recognized Jesus when he broke the bread.

³⁶ While they were talking about what had happened, Jesus stood among them. He said to them, "Peace be with you!"

³⁷ They were terrified, and thought they were seeing a ghost.

³⁸ He asked them, "Why are you afraid? Why do you have doubts?"

³⁹ Look at my hands and feet, and see that it's really me. Touch me, and see for yourselves. Ghosts don't have flesh and bones, but you can see that I do."

⁴⁰ As he said this, he showed them his hands and feet.

⁴¹ The disciples were overcome with joy and amazement because this seemed too good to be true. Then Jesus asked them, "Do you have anything to eat?"

⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish.

⁴³ He took it and ate it while they watched him.

⁴⁴ Then he said to them, "These are the words I spoke to you while I was still with you. I told you that everything written about me in Moses' Teachings, the Prophets, and the Psalms had to come true."

⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

⁴⁶ He said to them, "Scripture says that the Messiah would suffer and that he would come back to life on the third day.

⁴⁷ Scripture also says that by the authority of Jesus people would be told to turn to God and change the way they think and act so that their sins will be forgiven. This would be told to people from all nations, beginning in the city of Jerusalem.

⁴⁸ You are witnesses to these things.

⁴⁹ "I'm sending you what my Father promised. Wait here in the city until you receive power from heaven."

⁵⁰ Then Jesus took them to a place near Bethany. There he raised his hands and blessed them.

⁵¹ While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken to heaven.

⁵² The disciples worshiped him and were overjoyed as they went back to Jerusalem.

⁵³ They were always in the temple, where they praised God.

John

1 ¹ In the beginning the Word already existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

² He was already with God in the beginning.

³ Everything came into existence through him. Not one thing that exists was made without him.

⁴ He was the source of life, and that life was the light for humanity.

⁵ The light shines in the dark, and the dark has never extinguished it.

⁶ God sent a man named John to be his messenger.

⁷ John came to declare the truth about the light so that everyone would become believers through his message.

⁸ John was not the light, but he came to declare the truth about the light.

⁹ The real light, which shines on everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world came into existence through him. Yet, the world didn't recognize him.

¹¹ He went to his own people, and his own people didn't accept him.

¹² However, he gave the right to become God's children to everyone who believed in him.

¹³ These people didn't become God's children in a physical way—from a human impulse or from a husband's desire to have a child. They were born from God.

¹⁴ The Word became human and lived among us. We saw his glory. It was the glory that the Father shares with his only Son, a glory full of kindness and truth.

¹⁵ (John declared the truth about him when he said loudly, "This is the person about whom I said, 'The one who comes after me was before me because he existed before I did.'")

¹⁶ Each of us has received one gift after another because of all that the Word is.

¹⁷ The Teachings were given through Moses, but kindness and truth came into existence through Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ No one has ever seen God. God's only Son, the one who is closest to the Father's heart, has made him known.

¹⁹ This was John's answer when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

²⁰ John didn't refuse to answer. He told them clearly, "I'm not the Messiah."

²¹ They asked him, "Well, are you Elijah?" John answered, "No, I'm not." Then they asked, "Are you the prophet?" John replied, "No."

²² So they asked him, "Who are you? Tell us so that we can take an answer back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³ John said, "I'm a voice crying out in the desert, 'Make the way for the Lord straight,' as the prophet Isaiah said."

²⁴ Some of those who had been sent were Pharisees.

²⁵ They asked John, "Why do you baptize if you're not the Messiah or Elijah or the prophet?"

²⁶ John answered them, "I baptize with water. Someone you don't know is standing among you.

²⁷ He's the one who comes after me. I am not worthy to untie his sandal strap."

²⁸ This happened in Bethany on the east side of the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

²⁹ John saw Jesus coming toward him the next day and said, "Look! This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

³⁰ He is the one I spoke about when I said, 'A man who comes after me was before me because he existed before I did.'

³¹ I didn't know who he was. However, I came to baptize with water to show him to the people of Israel."

³² John said, "I saw the Spirit come down as a dove from heaven and stay on him.

³³ I didn't know who he was. But God, who sent me to baptize with water, had told me, 'When you see the Spirit come down and stay on someone, you'll know that person is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

³⁴ I have seen this and have declared that this is the Son of God."

³⁵ The next day John was standing with two of his disciples.

³⁶ John saw Jesus walk by. John said, "Look! This is the Lamb of God."

³⁷ When the two disciples heard John say this, they followed Jesus.

³⁸ Jesus turned around and saw them following him. He asked them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which means "teacher"), "where are you staying?"

³⁹ Jesus told them, "Come, and you will see." So they went to see where he was staying and spent the rest of that day with him. It was about ten o'clock in the morning.

⁴⁰ Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two disciples who heard John and followed Jesus.

⁴¹ Andrew at once found his brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means "Christ").

⁴² Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at Simon and said, "You are Simon, son of John. Your name will be Cephas" (which means "Peter").

⁴³ The next day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee. He found Philip and told him, "Follow me!"

⁴⁴ (Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter.)

⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the man whom Moses wrote about in his teachings and whom the prophets wrote about. He is Jesus, son of Joseph, from the city of Nazareth."

⁴⁶ Nathanael said to Philip, "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" Philip told him, "Come and see!"

⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and remarked, "Here is a true Israelite who is sincere."

⁴⁸ Nathanael asked Jesus, "How do you know anything about me?" Jesus answered him, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you."

⁴⁹ Nathanael said to Jesus, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the king of Israel!"

⁵⁰ Jesus replied, "You believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that."

⁵¹ Jesus said to Nathanael, "I can guarantee this truth: You will see the sky open and God's angels going up and coming down to the Son of Man."

2¹ Three days later a wedding took place in the city of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there.

² Jesus and his disciples had been invited too.

³ When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They're out of wine."

⁴ Jesus said to her, "Why did you come to me? My time has not yet come."

⁵ His mother told the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

⁶ Six stone water jars were there. They were used for Jewish purification rituals. Each jar held 18 to 27 gallons.

⁷ Jesus told the servers, "Fill the jars with water." The servers filled the jars to the brim.

⁸ Jesus said to them, "Pour some, and take it to the person in charge." The servers did as they were told.

⁹ The person in charge tasted the water that had become wine. He didn't know where it had come from, although the servers who had poured the water knew. The person in charge called the groom

¹⁰ and said to him, "Everyone serves the best wine first. When people are drunk, the host serves cheap wine. But you have saved the best wine for now."

¹¹ Cana in Galilee was the place where Jesus began to perform miracles. He made his glory public there, and his disciples believed in him.

¹² After this, Jesus, his mother, brothers, and disciples went to the city of Capernaum and stayed there for a few days.

¹³ The Jewish Passover was near, so Jesus went to Jerusalem.

¹⁴ He found those who were selling cattle, sheep, and pigeons in the temple courtyard. He also found moneychangers sitting there.

¹⁵ He made a whip from small ropes and threw everyone with their sheep and cattle out of the temple courtyard. He dumped the moneychangers' coins and knocked over their tables.

¹⁶ He told those who sold pigeons, "Pick up this stuff, and get it out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!"

¹⁷ His disciples remembered that Scripture said, "Devotion for your house will consume me."

¹⁸ The Jews reacted by asking Jesus, "What miracle can you show us to justify what you're doing?"

¹⁹ Jesus replied, "Tear down this temple, and I'll rebuild it in three days."

²⁰ The Jews said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple. Do you really think you're going to rebuild it in three days?"

²¹ But the temple Jesus spoke about was his own body.

²² After he came back to life, his disciples remembered that he had said this. So they believed the Scripture and this statement that Jesus had made.

²³ While Jesus was in Jerusalem at the Passover festival, many people believed in him because they saw the miracles that he performed.

²⁴ Jesus, however, was wary of these believers. He understood people ²⁵ and didn't need anyone to tell him about human nature. He knew what people were really like.

3 ¹ Nicodemus was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish council.

² He came to Jesus one night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that God has sent you as a teacher. No one can perform the miracles you perform unless God is with him."

³ Jesus replied to Nicodemus, "I can guarantee this truth: No one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above."

⁴ Nicodemus asked him, "How can anyone be born when he's an old man? He can't go back inside his mother a second time to be born, can he?"

⁵ Jesus answered Nicodemus, "I can guarantee this truth: No one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.

⁶ Flesh and blood give birth to flesh and blood, but the Spirit gives birth to things that are spiritual.

⁷ Don't be surprised when I tell you that all of you must be born from above.

⁸ The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you don't know where the wind comes from or where it's going. That's the way it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

⁹ Nicodemus replied, "How can that be?"

¹⁰ Jesus told Nicodemus, "You're a well-known teacher of Israel. Can't you understand this?

¹¹ I can guarantee this truth: We know what we're talking about, and we confirm what we've seen. Yet, you don't accept our message.

¹² If you don't believe me when I tell you about things on earth, how will you believe me when I tell you about things in heaven?

¹³ No one has gone to heaven except the Son of Man, who came from heaven.

¹⁴ "As Moses lifted up the snake on a pole in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up.

¹⁵ Then everyone who believes in him will have eternal life."

¹⁶ God loved the world this way: He gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life.

¹⁷ God sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but to save the world.

¹⁸ Those who believe in him won't be condemned. But those who don't believe are already condemned because they don't believe in God's only Son.

¹⁹ This is why people are condemned: The light came into the world. Yet, people loved the dark rather than the light because their actions were evil.

²⁰ People who do what is wrong hate the light and don't come to the light. They don't want their actions to be exposed.

²¹ But people who do what is true come to the light so that the things they do for God may be clearly seen.

²² Later, Jesus and his disciples went to the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them and baptized people.

²³ John was baptizing in Aenon, near Salim. Water was plentiful there. (People came to John to be baptized, ²⁴ since John had not yet been put in prison.)

²⁵ Some of John's disciples had an argument with a Jew about purification ceremonies.

²⁶ So they went to John and asked him, "Rabbi, do you remember the man you spoke so favorably about when he was with you on the other side of the Jordan River? Well, he's baptizing, and everyone is going to him!"

²⁷ John answered, "People can't receive anything unless it has been given to them from heaven.

²⁸ You are witnesses that I said, 'I'm not the Messiah, but I've been sent ahead of him.'

²⁹ "The groom is the person to whom the bride belongs. The best man, who stands and listens to him, is overjoyed when the groom speaks. This is the joy that I feel.

³⁰ He must increase in importance, while I must decrease in importance.

³¹ "The person who comes from above is superior to everyone. I, a person from the earth, know nothing but what is on earth, and that's all I can talk about. The person who comes from heaven is superior to everyone ³² and tells what he has seen and heard. Yet, no one accepts what he says.

³³ I have accepted what that person said, and I have affirmed that God is truthful.

³⁴ The man whom God has sent speaks God's message. After all, God gives him the Spirit without limit.

³⁵ The Father loves his Son and has put everything in his power.

³⁶ Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life. Instead, he will see God's constant anger."

4 ¹ Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was making and baptizing more disciples than John.

² (Actually, Jesus was not baptizing people. His disciples were.)

³ So he left the Judean countryside and went back to Galilee.

⁴ Jesus had to go through Samaria.

⁵ He arrived at a city in Samaria called Sychar. Sychar was near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

⁶ Jacob's Well was there. Jesus sat down by the well because he was tired from traveling. The time was about six o'clock in the evening.

⁷ A Samaritan woman went to get some water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink of water."

⁸ (His disciples had gone into the city to buy some food.)

⁹ The Samaritan woman asked him, "How can a Jewish man like you ask a Samaritan woman like me for a drink of water?" (Jews, of course, don't associate with Samaritans.)

¹⁰ Jesus replied to her, "If you only knew what God's gift is and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him for a drink. He would have given you living water."

¹¹ The woman said to him, "Sir, you don't have anything to use to get water, and the well is deep. So where are you going to get this living water?"

¹² You're not more important than our ancestor Jacob, are you? He gave us this well. He and his sons and his animals drank water from it."

¹³ Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks this water will become thirsty again.

¹⁴ But those who drink the water that I will give them will never become thirsty again. In fact, the water I will give them will become in them a spring that gushes up to eternal life."

¹⁵ The woman told Jesus, "Sir, give me this water! Then I won't get thirsty or have to come here to get water."

¹⁶ Jesus told her, "Go to your husband, and bring him here."

¹⁷ The woman replied, "I don't have a husband." Jesus told her, "You're right when you say that you don't have a husband."

¹⁸ You've had five husbands, and the man you have now isn't your husband. You've told the truth."

¹⁹ The woman said to Jesus, "I see that you're a prophet!"

²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain. But you Jews say that people must worship in Jerusalem."

²¹ Jesus told her, "Believe me. A time is coming when you Samaritans won't be worshiping the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem.

²² You don't know what you're worshiping. We Jews know what we're worshiping, because salvation comes from the Jews.

²³ Indeed, the time is coming, and it is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. The Father is looking for people like that to worship him.

²⁴ God is a spirit. Those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming. When he comes, he will tell us everything." (Messiah is the one called Christ.)

²⁶ Jesus told her, "I am he, and I am speaking to you now."

²⁷ At that time his disciples returned. They were surprised that he was talking to a woman. But none of them asked him, "What do you want from her?" or "Why are you talking to her?"

²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar and went back into the city. She told the people,

²⁹ "Come with me, and meet a man who told me everything I've ever done. Could he be the Messiah?"

³⁰ The people left the city and went to meet Jesus.

³¹ Meanwhile, the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, have something to eat."

³² Jesus told them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

³³ The disciples asked each other, "Did someone bring him something to eat?"

³⁴ Jesus told them, "My food is to do what the one who sent me wants me to do and to finish the work he has given me.

³⁵ "Don't you say, 'In four more months the harvest will be here'? I'm telling you to look and see that the fields are ready to be harvested.

³⁶ The person who harvests the crop is already getting paid. He is gathering grain for eternal life. So the person who plants the grain and the person who harvests it are happy together.

³⁷ In this respect the saying is true: 'One person plants, and another person harvests.'

³⁸ I have sent you to harvest a crop you have not worked for. Other people have done the hard work, and you have followed them in their work."

³⁹ Many Samaritans in that city believed in Jesus because of the woman who said, "He told me everything I've ever done."

⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans went to Jesus, they asked him to stay with them. He stayed in Samaria for two days.

⁴¹ Many more Samaritans believed because of what Jesus said.

⁴² They told the woman, "Our faith is no longer based on what you've said. We have heard him ourselves, and we know that he really is the savior of the world."

⁴³ After spending two days in Samaria, Jesus left for Galilee.

⁴⁴ Jesus had said that a prophet is not honored in his own country.

⁴⁵ But when Jesus arrived in Galilee, the people of Galilee welcomed him. They had seen everything he had done at the festival in Jerusalem, since they, too, had attended the festival.

⁴⁶ Jesus returned to the city of Cana in Galilee, where he had changed water into wine. A government official was in Cana. His son was sick in Capernaum.

⁴⁷ The official heard that Jesus had returned from Judea to Galilee. So he went to Jesus and asked him to go to Capernaum with him to heal his son who was about to die.

⁴⁸ Jesus told the official, "If people don't see miracles and amazing things, they won't believe."

⁴⁹ The official said to him, "Sir, come with me before my little boy dies."

⁵⁰ Jesus told him, "Go home. Your son will live." The man believed what Jesus told him and left.

⁵¹ While the official was on his way to Capernaum, his servants met him and told him that his boy was alive.

⁵² The official asked them at what time his son got better. His servants told him, "The fever left him yesterday evening at seven o'clock."

⁵³ Then the boy's father realized that it was the same time that Jesus had told him, "Your son will live." So the official and his entire family became believers.

⁵⁴ This was the second miracle that Jesus performed after he had come back from Judea to Galilee.

5 ¹ Later, Jesus went to Jerusalem for a Jewish festival.

² Near Sheep Gate in Jerusalem was a pool called Bethesda in Hebrew. It had five porches.

³ Under these porches a large number of sick people—people who were blind, lame, or paralyzed—used to lie.

⁴ (OMITTED TEXT)

⁵ One man, who had been sick for 38 years, was lying there.

⁶ Jesus saw the man lying there and knew that he had been sick for a long time. So Jesus asked the man, "Would you like to get well?"

⁷ The sick man answered Jesus, "Sir, I don't have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I'm trying to get there, someone else steps into the pool ahead of me."

⁸ Jesus told the man, "Get up, pick up your cot, and walk."

⁹ The man immediately became well, picked up his cot, and walked. That happened on a day of worship.

¹⁰ So the Jews told the man who had been healed, "This is a day of worship. You're not allowed to carry your cot today."

¹¹ The man replied, "The man who made me well told me to pick up my cot and walk."

¹² The Jews asked him, "Who is the man who told you to pick it up and walk?"

¹³ But the man who had been healed didn't know who Jesus was. (Jesus had withdrawn from the crowd.)

¹⁴ Later, Jesus met the man in the temple courtyard and told him, "You're well now. Stop sinning so that something worse doesn't happen to you."

¹⁵ The man went back to the Jews and told them that Jesus was the man who had made him well.

¹⁶ The Jews began to persecute Jesus because he kept healing people on the day of worship.

¹⁷ Jesus replied to them, "My Father is working right now, and so am I."

¹⁸ His reply made the Jews more intent on killing him. Not only did he break the laws about the day of worship, but also he made himself equal to God when he said repeatedly that God was his Father.

¹⁹ Jesus said to the Jews, "I can guarantee this truth: The Son cannot do anything on his own. He can do only what he sees the Father doing. Indeed, the Son does exactly what the Father does.

²⁰ The Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. The Father will show him even greater things to do than these things so that you will be amazed.

²¹ In the same way that the Father brings back the dead and gives them life, the Son gives life to anyone he chooses.

²² "The Father doesn't judge anyone. He has entrusted judgment entirely to the Son ²³ so that everyone will honor the Son as they honor the Father. Whoever doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.

²⁴ I can guarantee this truth: Those who listen to what I say and believe in the one who sent me will have eternal life. They won't be judged because they have already passed from death to life.

²⁵ "I can guarantee this truth: A time is coming (and is now here) when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who respond to it will live.

²⁶ The Father is the source of life, and he has enabled the Son to be the source of life too.

²⁷ "He has also given the Son authority to pass judgment because he is the Son of Man.

²⁸ Don't be surprised at what I've just said. A time is coming when all the dead will hear his voice, ²⁹ and they will come out of their tombs. Those who have done good will come back to life and live. But those who have done evil will come back to life and will be judged.

³⁰ I can't do anything on my own. As I listen to the Father, I make my judgments. My judgments are right because I don't try to do what I want but what the one who sent me wants.

³¹ "If I testify on my own behalf, what I say isn't true.

³² Someone else testifies on my behalf, and I know that what he says about me is true.

³³ You sent people to John the Baptizer, and he testified to the truth.

³⁴ But I don't depend on human testimony. I'm telling you this to save you.

³⁵ John was a lamp that gave off brilliant light. For a time you enjoyed the pleasure of his light.

³⁶ But I have something that testifies more favorably on my behalf than John's testimony. The tasks that the Father gave me to carry out, these tasks which I perform, testify on my behalf. They prove that the Father has sent me.

³⁷ The Father who sent me testifies on my behalf. You have never heard his voice, and you have never seen his form.

³⁸ So you don't have the Father's message within you, because you don't believe in the person he has sent.

³⁹ You study the Scriptures in detail because you think you have the source of eternal life in them. These Scriptures testify on my behalf.

⁴⁰ Yet, you don't want to come to me to get eternal life.

⁴¹ "I don't accept praise from humans.

⁴² But I know what kind of people you are. You don't have any love for God.

⁴³ I have come with the authority my Father has given me, but you don't accept me. If someone else comes with his own authority, you will accept him.

⁴⁴ How can you believe when you accept each other's praise and don't look for the praise that comes from the only God?

⁴⁵ "Don't think that I will accuse you in the presence of the Father. Moses, the one you trust, is already accusing you.

⁴⁶ If you really believed Moses, you would believe me. Moses wrote about me.

⁴⁷ If you don't believe what Moses wrote, how will you ever believe what I say?"

6 ¹ Jesus later crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (or the Sea of Tiberias).

² A large crowd followed him because they saw the miracles that he performed for the sick.

³ Jesus went up a mountain and sat with his disciples.

⁴ The time for the Jewish Passover festival was near.

⁵ As Jesus saw a large crowd coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?"

⁶ Jesus asked this question to test him. He already knew what he was going to do.

⁷ Philip answered, "We would need about a year's wages to buy enough bread for each of them to have a piece."

⁸ One of Jesus' disciples, Andrew, who was Simon Peter's brother, told him,

⁹ "A boy who has five loaves of barley bread and two small fish is here. But they won't go very far for so many people."

¹⁰ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." The people had plenty of grass to sit on. (There were about 5,000 men in the crowd.)

¹¹ Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to the people who were sitting there. He did the same thing with the fish. All the people ate as much as they wanted.

¹² When the people were full, Jesus told his disciples, "Gather the leftover pieces so that nothing will be wasted."

¹³ The disciples gathered the leftover pieces of bread and filled twelve baskets.

¹⁴ When the people saw the miracle Jesus performed, they said, "This man is certainly the prophet who is to come into the world."

¹⁵ Jesus realized that the people intended to take him by force and make him king. So he returned to the mountain by himself.

¹⁶ When evening came, his disciples went to the sea.

¹⁷ They got into a boat and started to cross the sea to the city of Capernaum. By this time it was dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

¹⁸ A strong wind started to blow and stir up the sea.

¹⁹ After they had rowed three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea. He was coming near the boat, and they became terrified.

²⁰ Jesus told them, "It's me. Don't be afraid!"

²¹ So they were willing to help Jesus into the boat. Immediately, the boat reached the shore where they were going.

²² On the next day the people were still on the other side of the sea. They noticed that only one boat was there and that Jesus had not stepped into that boat with his disciples. The disciples had gone away without him.

²³ Other boats from Tiberias arrived near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks.

²⁴ When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into these boats and went to the city of Capernaum to look for Jesus.

²⁵ When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

²⁶ Jesus replied to them, "I can guarantee this truth: You're not looking for me because you saw miracles. You are looking for me because you ate as much of those loaves as you wanted.

²⁷ Don't work for food that spoils.

Instead, work for the food that lasts into eternal life. This is the food the Son of Man will give you. After all, the Father has placed his seal of approval on him."

²⁸ The people asked Jesus, "What does God want us to do?"

²⁹ Jesus replied to them, "God wants to do something for you so that you believe in the one whom he has sent."

³⁰ The people asked him, "What miracle are you going to perform so that we can see it and believe in you? What are you going to do?"

³¹ Our ancestors ate the manna in the desert. Scripture says, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

³² Jesus said to them, "I can guarantee this truth: Moses didn't give you bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven.

³³ God's bread is the man who comes from heaven and gives life to the world."

³⁴ They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread all the time."

³⁵ Jesus told them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never become hungry, and whoever believes in me will never become thirsty.

³⁶ I've told you that you have seen me. However, you don't believe in me.

³⁷ Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me. I will never turn away anyone who comes to me.

³⁸ I haven't come from heaven to do what I want to do. I've come to do what the one who sent me wants me to do.

³⁹ The one who sent me doesn't want me to lose any of those he gave me. He wants me to bring them back to life on the last day.

⁴⁰ My Father wants all those who see the Son and believe in him to have eternal life. He wants me to bring them back to life on the last day."

⁴¹ The Jews began to criticize Jesus for saying, "I am the bread that came from heaven."

⁴² They asked, "Isn't this man Jesus, Joseph's son? Don't we know his father and mother? How can he say now, 'I came from heaven'?"

⁴³ Jesus responded, "Stop criticizing me!

⁴⁴ People cannot come to me unless the Father who sent me brings them to me. I will bring these people back to life on the last day.

⁴⁵ The prophets wrote, 'God will teach everyone.' Those who do what they have learned from the Father come to me.

⁴⁶ I'm saying that no one has seen the Father. Only the one who is from God has seen the Father.

⁴⁷ I can guarantee this truth: Every believer has eternal life.

⁴⁸ "I am the bread of life.

⁴⁹ Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert and died.

⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes from heaven so that whoever eats it won't die.

⁵¹ I am the living bread that came from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. The bread I will give to bring life to the world is my flesh."

⁵² The Jews began to quarrel with each other. They said, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

⁵³ Jesus told them, "I can guarantee this truth: If you don't eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have the source of life in you.

⁵⁴ Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will bring them back to life on the last day.

⁵⁵ My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

⁵⁶ Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me, and I live in them.

⁵⁷ The Father who has life sent me, and I live because of the Father. So those who feed on me will live because of me.

⁵⁸ This is the bread that came from heaven. It is not like the bread your ancestors ate. They eventually died. Those who eat this bread will live forever."

⁵⁹ Jesus said this while he was teaching in a synagogue in Capernaum.

⁶⁰ When many of Jesus' disciples heard him, they said, "What he says is hard to accept. Who wants to listen to him anymore?"

⁶¹ Jesus was aware that his disciples were criticizing his message. So Jesus asked them, "Did what I say make you lose faith?"

⁶² What if you see the Son of Man go where he was before?

⁶³ Life is spiritual. Your physical existence doesn't contribute to that life. The words that I have spoken to you are spiritual. They are life.

⁶⁴ But some of you don't believe." Jesus knew from the beginning those who wouldn't believe and the one who would betray him.

⁶⁵ So he added, "That is why I told you that people cannot come to me unless the Father provides the way."

⁶⁶ Jesus' speech made many of his disciples go back to the lives they had led before they followed Jesus.

⁶⁷ So Jesus asked the twelve apostles, "Do you want to leave me too?"

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered Jesus, "Lord, to what person could we go? Your words give eternal life.

⁶⁹ Besides, we believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

⁷⁰ Jesus replied, "I chose all twelve of you. Yet, one of you is a devil."

⁷¹ Jesus meant Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. Judas, who was one of the twelve apostles, would later betray Jesus.

7 ¹ Jesus later traveled throughout Galilee. He didn't want to travel in Judea because Jews there wanted to kill him.

² The time for the Jewish Festival of Booths was near.

³ So Jesus' brothers told him, "Leave this place, and go to Judea so that your disciples can see the things that you're doing.

⁴ No one does things secretly when he wants to be known publicly. If you do these things, you should let the world see you."

⁵ Even his brothers didn't believe in him.

⁶ Jesus told them, "Now is not the right time for me to go. Any time is right for you.

⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I say that what everyone does is evil.

⁸ Go to the festival. I'm not going to this festival right now. Now is not the right time for me to go."

⁹ After saying this, Jesus stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰ But after his brothers had gone to the festival, Jesus went. He didn't go publicly but secretly.

¹¹ The Jews were looking for Jesus in the crowd at the festival. They kept asking, "Where is that man?"

¹² The crowds argued about Jesus. Some people said, "He's a good man," while others said, "No he isn't. He deceives the people."

¹³ Yet, no one would talk openly about him because they were afraid of the Jews.

¹⁴ When the festival was half over, Jesus went to the temple courtyard and began to teach.

¹⁵ The Jews were surprised and asked, "How can this man be so educated when he hasn't gone to school?"

¹⁶ Jesus responded to them, "What I teach doesn't come from me but from the one who sent me.

¹⁷ Those who want to follow the will of God will know if what I teach is from God or if I teach my own thoughts.

¹⁸ Those who speak their own thoughts are looking for their own glory. But the man who wants to bring glory to the one who sent him is a true teacher and doesn't have dishonest motives.

¹⁹ Didn't Moses give you his teachings? Yet, none of you does what Moses taught you. So why do you want to kill me?"

²⁰ The crowd answered, "You're possessed by a demon! Who wants to kill you?"

²¹ Jesus answered them, "I performed one miracle, and all of you are surprised by it.

²² Moses gave you the teaching about circumcision (although it didn't come from Moses but from our ancestors). So you circumcise a male on a day of worship.

²³ If you circumcise a male on the day of worship to follow Moses' Teachings, why are you angry with me because I made a man entirely well on the day of worship?

²⁴ Stop judging by outward appearance! Instead, judge correctly."

²⁵ Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem said, "Isn't this the man they want to kill?

²⁶ But look at this! He's speaking in public, and no one is saying anything to him! Can it be that the rulers really know that this man is the Messiah?

²⁷ However, we know where this man comes from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from."

²⁸ Then, while Jesus was teaching in the temple courtyard, he said loudly, "You know me, and you know where I come from. I didn't decide to come on my own. The one who sent me is true. He's the one you don't know.

²⁹ I know him because I am from him and he sent me."

³⁰ The Jews tried to arrest him but couldn't because his time had not yet come.

³¹ However, many people in the crowd believed in him. They asked, "When the Messiah comes, will he perform more miracles than this man has?"

³² The Pharisees heard the crowd saying things like this about him. So the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest Jesus.

³³ Jesus said, "I will still be with you for a little while. Then I'll go to the one who sent me.

³⁴ You will look for me, but you won't find me. You can't go where I'm going."

³⁵ The Jews said among themselves, "Where does this man intend to go so that we won't find him? Does he mean that he'll live with the Jews who are scattered among the Greeks and that he'll teach the Greeks?"

³⁶ What does he mean when he says, 'You will look for me, but you won't find me,' and 'You can't go where I'm going'?"

³⁷ On the last and most important day of the festival, Jesus was standing in the temple courtyard. He said loudly, "Whoever is thirsty must come to me to drink.

³⁸ As Scripture says, 'Streams of living water will flow from deep within the person who believes in me.'"

³⁹ Jesus said this about the Spirit, whom his believers would receive. The Spirit was not yet evident, as it would be after Jesus had been glorified.

⁴⁰ After some of the crowd heard Jesus say these words, they said, "This man is certainly the prophet."

⁴¹ Other people said, "This man is the Messiah." Still other people asked, "How can the Messiah come from Galilee?"

⁴² Doesn't Scripture say that the Messiah will come from the descendants of David and from the village of Bethlehem, where David lived?"

⁴³ So the people were divided because of Jesus.

⁴⁴ Some of them wanted to arrest him, but they couldn't.

⁴⁵ When the temple guards returned, the chief priests and Pharisees asked them, "Why didn't you bring Jesus?"

⁴⁶ The temple guards answered, "No human has ever spoken like this man."

⁴⁷ The Pharisees asked the temple guards, "Have you been deceived too?"

⁴⁸ Has any ruler or any Pharisee believed in him?

⁴⁹ This crowd is cursed because it doesn't know Moses' Teachings."

⁵⁰ One of those Pharisees was Nicodemus, who had previously visited Jesus. Nicodemus asked them,

⁵¹ "Do Moses' Teachings enable us to judge a person without first hearing that person's side of the story? We can't judge a person without finding out what that person has done."

⁵² They asked Nicodemus, "Are you saying this because you're from Galilee? Study the Scriptures, and you'll see that no prophet comes from Galilee."

⁵³ Then each of them went home.

8 ¹ Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

² Early the next morning he returned to the temple courtyard. All the people went to him, so he sat down and began to teach them.

³ The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught committing adultery. They made her stand in front of everyone ⁴ and asked Jesus, "Teacher, we caught this woman in the act of adultery.

⁵ In his teachings, Moses ordered us to stone women like this to death. What do you say?"

⁶ They asked this to test him. They wanted to find a reason to bring charges against him. Jesus bent down and used his finger to write on the ground.

⁷ When they persisted in asking him questions, he straightened up and said, "The person who is sinless should be the first to throw a stone at her."

⁸ Then he bent down again and continued writing on the ground.

⁹ One by one, beginning with the older men, the scribes and Pharisees left. Jesus was left alone with the woman.

¹⁰ Then Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Where did they go? Has anyone condemned you?"

¹¹ The woman answered, "No one, sir." Jesus said, "I don't condemn you either. Go! From now on don't sin."

¹² Jesus spoke to the Pharisees again. He said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will have a life filled with light and will never live in the dark."

¹³ The Pharisees said to him, "You testify on your own behalf, so your testimony isn't true."

¹⁴ Jesus replied to them, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is true because I know where I came from and where I'm going. However, you don't know where I came from or where I'm going."

¹⁵ You judge the way humans do. I don't judge anyone.

¹⁶ Even if I do judge, my judgment is valid because I don't make it on my own. I make my judgment with the Father who sent me.

¹⁷ Your own teachings say that the testimony of two people is true.

¹⁸ I testify on my own behalf, and so does the Father who sent me."

¹⁹ The Pharisees asked him, "Where is your father?" Jesus replied, "You don't know me or my Father. If you knew me, you would also know my Father."

²⁰ Jesus spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury area of the temple courtyard. No one arrested him, because his time had not yet come.

²¹ Jesus spoke to the Pharisees again. He said, "I'm going away, and you'll look for me. But you will die because of your sin. You can't go where I'm going."

²² Then the Jews asked, "Is he going to kill himself? Is that what he means when he says, 'You can't go where I'm going'?"

²³ Jesus said to them, "You're from below. I'm from above. You're from this world. I'm not from this world.

²⁴ For this reason I told you that you'll die because of your sins. If you don't believe that I am the one, you'll die because of your sins."

²⁵ The Jews asked him, "Who did you say you are?" Jesus told them, "I am who I said I was from the beginning.

²⁶ I have a lot I could say about you and a lot I could condemn you for. But the one who sent me is true. So I tell the world exactly what he has told me."

²⁷ (The Jews didn't know that he was talking to them about the Father.)

²⁸ So Jesus told them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you'll know that I am the one and that I can't do anything on my own. Instead, I speak as the Father taught me.

²⁹ Besides, the one who sent me is with me. He hasn't left me by myself. I always do what pleases him."

³⁰ As Jesus was saying this, many people believed in him.

³¹ So Jesus said to those Jews who believed in him, "If you live by what I say, you are truly my disciples.

³² You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

³³ They replied to Jesus, "We are Abraham's descendants, and we've never been anyone's slaves. So how can you say that we will be set free?"

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "I can guarantee this truth: Whoever lives a sinful life is a slave to sin.

³⁵ A slave doesn't live in the home forever, but a son does.

³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you will be absolutely free.

³⁷ I know that you're Abraham's descendants. However, you want to kill me because you don't like what I'm saying.

³⁸ What I'm saying is what I have seen in my Father's presence. But you do what you've heard from your father."

³⁹ The Jews replied to Jesus, "Abraham is our father." Jesus told them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did.

⁴⁰ I am a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. But now you want to kill me. Abraham wouldn't have done that.

⁴¹ You're doing what your father does." The Jews said to Jesus, "We're not illegitimate children. God is our only Father."

⁴² Jesus told them, "If God were your Father, you would love me. After all, I'm here, and I came from God. I didn't come on my own. Instead, God sent me.

⁴³ Why don't you understand the language I use? Is it because you can't understand the words I use?

⁴⁴ You come from your father, the devil, and you desire to do what your father wants you to do. The devil was a murderer from the beginning. He has never been truthful. He doesn't know what the truth is. Whenever he tells a lie, he's doing what comes naturally to him. He's a liar and the father of lies.

⁴⁵ So you don't believe me because I tell the truth.

⁴⁶ Can any of you convict me of committing a sin? If I'm telling the truth, why don't you believe me?

⁴⁷ The person who belongs to God understands what God says. You don't understand because you don't belong to God."

⁴⁸ The Jews replied to Jesus, "Aren't we right when we say that you're a Samaritan and that you're possessed by a demon?"

⁴⁹ Jesus answered, "I'm not possessed. I honor my Father, but you dishonor me.

⁵⁰ I don't want my own glory. But there is someone who wants it, and he is the judge.

⁵¹ I can guarantee this truth: Whoever obeys what I say will never see death."

⁵² The Jews told Jesus, "Now we know that you're possessed by a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets, but you say, 'Whoever does what I say will never taste death.'

⁵³ Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets have also died. Who do you think you are?"

⁵⁴ Jesus said, "If I bring glory to myself, my glory is nothing. My Father is the one who gives me glory, and you say that he is your God.

⁵⁵ Yet, you haven't known him. However, I know him. If I would say that I didn't know him, I would be a liar like all of you. But I do know him, and I do what he says.

⁵⁶ Your father Abraham was pleased to see that my day was coming. He saw it and was happy."

⁵⁷ The Jews said to Jesus, "You're not even fifty years old. How could you have seen Abraham?"

⁵⁸ Jesus told them, "I can guarantee this truth: Before Abraham was ever born, I am."

⁵⁹ Then some of the Jews picked up stones to throw at Jesus. However, Jesus was concealed, and he left the temple courtyard.

9¹ As Jesus walked along, he saw a man who had been born blind.

² His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, why was this man born blind? Did he or his parents sin?"

³ Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned. Instead, he was born blind so that God could show what he can do for him.

⁴ We must do what the one who sent me wants us to do while it is day. The night when no one can do anything is coming.

⁵ As long as I'm in the world, I'm light for the world."

⁶ After Jesus said this, he spit on the ground and mixed the spit with dirt. Then he smeared it on the man's eyes

⁷ and told him, "Wash it off in the pool of Siloam." (Siloam means "sent.") The blind man washed it off and returned. He was able to see.

⁸ His neighbors and those who had previously seen him begging asked, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"

⁹ Some of them said, "He's the one." Others said, "No, he isn't, but he looks like him." But the man himself said, "I am the one."

¹⁰ So they asked him, "How did you receive your sight?"

¹¹ He replied, "The man people call Jesus mixed some spit with dirt, smeared it on my eyes, and told me, 'Go to Siloam, and wash it off.' So I went there, washed it off, and received my sight."

¹² They asked him, "Where is that man?" The man answered, "I don't know."

¹³ Some people brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees.

¹⁴ The day when Jesus mixed the spit and dirt and gave the man sight was a day of worship.

¹⁵ So the Pharisees asked the man again how he received his sight. The man told the Pharisees, "He put a mixture of spit and dirt on my eyes. I washed it off, and now I can see."

¹⁷ They asked the man who had been born blind another question: "What do you say about the man who gave you sight?" The man answered, "He's a prophet."

¹⁸ Until they talked to the man's parents, the Jews didn't believe that the man had been blind and had been given sight.

¹⁹ They asked his parents, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? Why can he see now?"

²⁰ His parents replied, "We know that he's our son and that he was born blind.

²¹ But we don't know how he got his sight or who gave it to him. You'll have to ask him. He's old enough to answer for himself."

²² (His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. The Jews had already agreed to put anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Christ out of the synagogue.

²³ That's why his parents said, "You'll have to ask him. He's old enough.")

²⁴ So once again the Jews called the man who had been blind. They told him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man who gave you sight is a sinner."

²⁵ The man responded, "I don't know if he's a sinner or not. But I do know one thing. I used to be blind, but now I can see."

²⁶ The Jews asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he give you sight?"

²⁷ The man replied, "I've already told you, but you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear the story again? Do you want to become his disciples too?"

²⁸ The Jews yelled at him, "You're his disciple, but we're Moses' disciples.

²⁹ We know that God spoke to Moses, but we don't know where this man came from."

³⁰ The man replied to them, "That's amazing! You don't know where he's from. Yet, he gave me sight.

³¹ We know that God doesn't listen to sinners. Instead, he listens to people who are devout and who do what he wants.

³² Since the beginning of time, no one has ever heard of anyone giving sight to a person born blind.

³³ If this man were not from God, he couldn't do anything like that."

³⁴ The Jews answered him, "You were born full of sin. Do you think you can teach us?" Then they threw him out of the synagogue.

³⁵ Jesus heard that the Jews had thrown the man out of the synagogue. So when Jesus found the man, he asked him, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

³⁶ The man replied, "Sir, tell me who he is so that I can believe in him."

³⁷ Jesus told him, "You've seen him. He is the person who is now talking with you."

³⁸ The man bowed in front of Jesus and said, "I believe, Lord."

³⁹ Then Jesus said, "I have come into this world to judge: Blind people will be given sight, and those who can see will become blind."

⁴⁰ Some Pharisees who were with Jesus heard this. So they asked him, "Do you think we're blind?"

⁴¹ Jesus told them, "If you were blind, you wouldn't be sinners. But now you say, 'We see,' so you continue to be sinners.

10 ¹ "I can guarantee this truth: The person who doesn't enter the sheep pen through the gate but climbs in somewhere else is a thief or a robber.

² But the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd.

³ The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep respond to his voice. He calls his sheep by name and leads them out of the pen.

⁴ After he has brought out all his sheep, he walks ahead of them. The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

⁵ They won't follow a stranger. Instead, they will run away from a stranger because they don't recognize his voice."

⁶ Jesus used this illustration as he talked to the people, but they didn't understand what he meant.

⁷ Jesus emphasized, "I can guarantee this truth: I am the gate for the sheep.

⁸ All who came before I did were thieves or robbers. However, the sheep didn't respond to them.

⁹ I am the gate. Those who enter the sheep pen through me will be saved. They will go in and out of the sheep pen and find food.

¹⁰ A thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy. But I came so that my sheep will have life and so that they will have everything they need.

¹¹ "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep.

¹² A hired hand isn't a shepherd and doesn't own the sheep. When he sees a wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and quickly runs away. So the wolf drags the sheep away and scatters the flock.

¹³ The hired hand is concerned about what he's going to get paid and not about the sheep.

¹⁴ "I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep as the Father knows me. My sheep know me as I know the Father.

¹⁵ So I give my life for my sheep.

¹⁶ I also have other sheep that are not from this pen. I must lead them. They, too, will respond to my voice. So they will be one flock with one shepherd.

¹⁷ The Father loves me because I give my life in order to take it back again.

¹⁸ No one takes my life from me. I give my life of my own free will. I have the authority to give my life, and I have the authority to take my life back again. This is what my Father ordered me to do."

¹⁹ The Jews were divided because of what Jesus said.

²⁰ Many of them said, "He's possessed by a demon! He's crazy! Why do you listen to him?"

²¹ Others said, "No one talks like this if he's possessed by a demon. Can a demon give sight to the blind?"

²² The Festival of the Dedication of the Temple took place in Jerusalem during the winter.

²³ Jesus was walking on Solomon's porch in the temple courtyard.

²⁴ The Jews surrounded him. They asked him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

²⁵ Jesus answered them, "I've told you, but you don't believe me. The things that I do in my Father's name testify on my behalf.

²⁶ However, you don't believe because you're not my sheep.

²⁷ My sheep respond to my voice, and I know who they are. They follow me, ²⁸ and I give them eternal life. They will never be lost, and no one will tear them away from me.

²⁹ My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than everyone else, and no one can tear them away from my Father.

³⁰ The Father and I are one."

³¹ The Jews had again brought some rocks to stone Jesus to death.

³² Jesus replied to them, "I've shown you many good things that come from the Father. For which of these good things do you want to stone me to death?"

³³ The Jews answered Jesus, "We're going to stone you to death, not for any good things you've done, but for dishonoring God. You claim to be God, although you're only a man."

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "Don't your Scriptures say, 'I said, "You are gods"'?"

³⁵ The Scriptures cannot be discredited. So if God calls people gods (and they are the people to whom he gave the Scriptures), ³⁶ why do you say that I'm dishonoring God because I said, 'I'm the Son of God'? God set me apart for this holy purpose and has sent me into the world.

³⁷ If I'm not doing the things my Father does, don't believe me.

³⁸ But if I'm doing those things and you refuse to believe me, then at least believe the things that I'm doing. Then you will know and recognize that the Father is in me and that I am in the Father."

³⁹ The Jews tried to arrest Jesus again, but he got away from them.

⁴⁰ He went back across the Jordan River and stayed in the place where John first baptized people.

⁴¹ Many people went to Jesus. They said, "John didn't perform any miracles, but everything John said about this man is true."

⁴² Many people there believed in Jesus.

11 ¹ Lazarus, who lived in Bethany, the village where Mary and her sister Martha lived, was sick.

² (Mary was the woman who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. Her brother Lazarus was the one who was sick.)

³ So the sisters sent a messenger to tell Jesus, "Lord, your close friend is sick."

⁴ When Jesus heard the message, he said, "His sickness won't result in death. Instead, this sickness will bring glory to God so that the Son of God will receive glory through it."

⁵ Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.

⁶ Yet, when Jesus heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was for two more days.

⁷ Then, after the two days, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's go back to Judea."

⁸ The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, not long ago the Jews wanted to stone you to death. Do you really want to go back there?"

⁹ Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day don't stumble, because they see the light of this world.

¹⁰ However, those who walk at night stumble because they have no light in themselves."

¹¹ After Jesus said this, he told his disciples, "Our friend Lazarus is sleeping, and I'm going to Bethany to wake him."

¹² His disciples said to him, "Lord, if he's sleeping, he'll get well."

¹³ Jesus meant that Lazarus was dead, but the disciples thought Jesus meant that Lazarus was only sleeping.

¹⁴ Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died, ¹⁵ but I'm glad that I wasn't there so that you can grow in faith. Let's go to Lazarus."

¹⁶ Thomas, who was called Didymus, said to the rest of the disciples, "Let's go so that we, too, can die with Jesus."

¹⁷ When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days.

¹⁸ (Bethany was near Jerusalem, not quite two miles away.)

¹⁹ Many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother.

²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. Mary stayed at home.

²¹ Martha told Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

²² But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask him."

²³ Jesus told Martha, "Your brother will come back to life."

²⁴ Martha answered Jesus, "I know that he'll come back to life on the last day, when everyone will come back to life."

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the one who brings people back to life, and I am life itself. Those who believe in me will live even if they die.

²⁶ Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe that?"

²⁷ Martha said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who was expected to come into the world."

²⁸ After Martha had said this, she went back home and whispered to her sister Mary, "The teacher is here, and he is calling for you."

²⁹ When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Jesus.

³⁰ (Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still where Martha had met him.)

³¹ The Jews who were comforting Mary in the house saw her get up quickly and leave. So they followed her. They thought that she was going to the tomb to cry.

³² When Mary arrived where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

³³ When Jesus saw her crying, and the Jews who were crying with her, he was deeply moved and troubled.

³⁴ So Jesus asked, "Where did you put Lazarus?" They answered him, "Lord, come and see."

³⁵ Jesus cried.

³⁶ The Jews said, "See how much Jesus loved him."

³⁷ But some of the Jews asked, "Couldn't this man who gave a blind man sight keep Lazarus from dying?"

³⁸ Deeply moved again, Jesus went to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone covering the entrance.

³⁹ Jesus said, "Take the stone away." Martha, the dead man's sister, told Jesus, "Lord, there must already be a stench. He's been dead for four days."

⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believe, you would see God's glory?"

⁴¹ So the stone was moved away from the entrance of the tomb. Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me.

⁴² I've known that you always hear me. However, I've said this so that the crowd standing around me will believe that you sent me."

⁴³ After Jesus had said this, he shouted as loudly as he could, "Lazarus, come out!"

⁴⁴ The dead man came out. Strips of cloth were wound around his feet and hands, and his face was wrapped with a handkerchief. Jesus told them, "Free Lazarus, and let him go."

⁴⁵ Many Jews who had visited Mary and had seen what Jesus had done believed in him.

⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

⁴⁷ So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council. They asked, "What are we doing? This man is performing a lot of miracles.

⁴⁸ If we let him continue what he's doing, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will take away our position and our nation."

⁴⁹ One of them, Caiaphas, who was chief priest that year, told them, "You people don't know anything.

⁵⁰ You haven't even considered this: It is better for one man to die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed."

⁵¹ Caiaphas didn't say this on his own. As chief priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation.

⁵² He prophesied that Jesus wouldn't die merely for this nation, but that Jesus would die to bring God's scattered children together and make them one.

⁵³ From that day on, the Jewish council planned to kill Jesus.

⁵⁴ So Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews. Instead, he left Bethany and went to the countryside near the desert, to a city called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

⁵⁵ The Jewish Passover was near. Many people came from the countryside to Jerusalem to purify themselves before the Passover.

⁵⁶ As they stood in the temple courtyard, they looked for Jesus and asked each other, "Do you think that he'll avoid coming to the festival?"

⁵⁷ (The chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that whoever knew where Jesus was should tell them so that they could arrest him.)

12 ¹ Six days before Passover, Jesus arrived in Bethany. Lazarus, whom Jesus had brought back to life, lived there.

² Dinner was prepared for Jesus in Bethany. Martha served the dinner, and Lazarus was one of the people eating with Jesus.

³ Mary took a bottle of very expensive perfume made from pure nard and poured it on Jesus' feet. Then she dried his feet with her hair. The fragrance of the perfume filled the house.

⁴ One of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was going to betray him, asked,

⁵ "Why wasn't this perfume sold for a high price and the money given to the poor?"

⁶ (Judas didn't say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of the moneybag and carried the contributions.)

⁷ Jesus said to Judas, "Leave her alone! She has done this to prepare me for the day I will be placed in a tomb.

⁸ You will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me with you."

⁹ A large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was in Bethany. So they went there not only to see Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom Jesus had brought back to life.

¹⁰ The chief priests planned to kill Lazarus too.

¹¹ Lazarus was the reason why many people were leaving the Jews and believing in Jesus.

¹² On the next day the large crowd that had come to the Passover festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

¹³ So they took palm branches and went to meet him. They were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel!"

¹⁴ Jesus obtained a donkey and sat on it, as Scripture says:

¹⁵ "Don't be afraid, people of Zion! Your king is coming. He is riding on a donkey's colt."

¹⁶ At first Jesus' disciples didn't know what these prophecies meant. However, when Jesus was glorified, the disciples remembered that these prophecies had been written about him. The disciples remembered that they had taken part in fulfilling the prophecies.

¹⁷ The people who had been with Jesus when he called Lazarus from the tomb and brought him back to life reported what they had seen.

¹⁸ Because the crowd heard that Jesus had performed this miracle, they came to meet him.

¹⁹ The Pharisees said to each other, "This is getting us nowhere. Look! The whole world is following him!"

²⁰ Some Greeks were among those who came to worship during the Passover festival.

²¹ They went to Philip (who was from Bethsaida in Galilee) and told him, "Sir, we would like to meet Jesus."

²² Philip told Andrew, and they told Jesus.

²³ Jesus replied to them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

²⁴ I can guarantee this truth: A single grain of wheat doesn't produce anything unless it is planted in the ground and dies. If it dies, it will produce a lot of grain.

²⁵ Those who love their lives will destroy them, and those who hate their lives in this world will guard them for everlasting life.

²⁶ Those who serve me must follow me. My servants will be with me wherever I will be. If people serve me, the Father will honor them.

²⁷ "I am too deeply troubled now to know how to express my feelings. Should I say, 'Father, save me from this time of suffering'? No! I came for this time of suffering.

²⁸ Father, give glory to your name." A voice from heaven said, "I have given it glory, and I will give it glory again."

²⁹ The crowd standing there heard the voice and said that it had thundered. Others in the crowd said that an angel had talked to him.

³⁰ Jesus replied, "That voice wasn't for my benefit but for yours.

³¹ "This world is being judged now. The ruler of this world will be thrown out now.

³² When I have been lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people toward me."

³³ By saying this, he indicated how he was going to die.

³⁴ The crowd responded to him, "We have heard from the Scriptures that the Messiah will remain here forever. So how can you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up from the earth'? Who is this 'Son of Man'?"

³⁵ Jesus answered the crowd, "The light will still be with you for a little while. Walk while you have light so that darkness won't defeat you. Those who walk in the dark don't know where they're going.

³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light so that you will become people whose lives show the light." After Jesus had said this, he was concealed as he left.

³⁷ Although they had seen Jesus perform so many miracles, they wouldn't believe in him.

³⁸ In this way the words of the prophet Isaiah came true: "Lord, who has believed our message? To whom has the Lord's power been revealed?"

³⁹ So the people couldn't believe because, as Isaiah also said,

⁴⁰ "God blinded them and made them close-minded so that their eyes don't see and their minds don't understand. And they never turn to me for healing!"

⁴¹ Isaiah said this because he had seen Jesus' glory and had spoken about him.

⁴² Many rulers believed in Jesus. However, they wouldn't admit it publicly because the Pharisees would have thrown them out of the synagogue.

⁴³ They were more concerned about what people thought of them than about what God thought of them.

⁴⁴ Then Jesus said loudly, "Whoever believes in me believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me.

⁴⁵ Whoever sees me sees the one who sent me.

⁴⁶ I am the light that has come into the world so that everyone who believes in me will not live in the dark.

⁴⁷ If anyone hears my words and doesn't follow them, I don't condemn them. I didn't come to condemn the world but to save the world.

⁴⁸ Those who reject me by not accepting what I say have a judge appointed for them. The words that I have spoken will judge them on the last day.

⁴⁹ I have not spoken on my own. Instead, the Father who sent me told me what I should say and how I should say it.

⁵⁰ I know that what he commands is eternal life. Whatever I say is what the Father told me to say."

13 ¹ Before the Passover festival, Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go back to the Father. Jesus loved his own who were in the world, and he loved them to the end.

² While supper was taking place, the devil had already put the idea of betraying Jesus into the mind of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

³ The Father had put everything in Jesus' control. Jesus knew that. He also knew that he had come from God and was going back to God.

⁴ So he got up from the table, removed his outer clothes, took a towel, and tied it around his waist.

⁵ Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel that he had tied around his waist.

⁶ When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter asked him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

⁷ Jesus answered Peter, "You don't know now what I'm doing. You will understand later."

⁸ Peter told Jesus, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus replied to Peter, "If I don't wash you, you don't belong to me."

⁹ Simon Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, don't wash only my feet. Wash my hands and my head too!"

¹⁰ Jesus told Peter, "People who have washed are completely clean. They need to have only their feet washed. All of you, except for one, are clean."

¹¹ (Jesus knew who was going to betray him. That's why he said, "All of you, except for one, are clean.")

¹² After Jesus had washed their feet and put on his outer clothes, he took his place at the table again. Then he asked his disciples, "Do you understand what I've done for you?"

¹³ You call me teacher and Lord, and you're right because that's what I am.

¹⁴ So if I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you must wash each other's feet.

¹⁵ I've given you an example that you should follow.

¹⁶ I can guarantee this truth: Slaves are not superior to their owners, and messengers are not superior to the people who send them.

¹⁷ If you understand all of this, you are blessed whenever you follow my example.

¹⁸ "I'm not talking about all of you. I know the people I've chosen to be apostles. However, I've made my choice so that Scripture will come true. It says, 'The one who eats my bread has turned against me.'

¹⁹ I'm telling you now before it happens. Then, when it happens, you will believe that I am the one.

²⁰ "I can guarantee this truth: Whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."

²¹ After saying this, Jesus was deeply troubled. He declared, "I can guarantee this truth: One of you is going to betray me!"

²² The disciples began looking at each other and wondering which one of them Jesus meant.

²³ One disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, was near him at the table.

²⁴ Simon Peter motioned to that disciple and said, "Ask Jesus whom he's talking about!"

²⁵ Leaning close to Jesus, that disciple asked, "Lord, who is it?"

²⁶ Jesus answered, "He's the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I've dipped it in the sauce." So Jesus dipped the bread and gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot.

²⁷ Then, after Judas took the piece of bread, Satan entered him. So Jesus told him, "Hurry! Do what you have to do."

²⁸ No one at the table knew why Jesus said this to him.

²⁹ Judas had the moneybag. So some thought that Jesus was telling him to buy what they needed for the festival or to give something to the poor.

³⁰ Judas took the piece of bread and immediately went outside. It was night.

³¹ When Judas was gone, Jesus said, "The Son of Man is now glorified, and because of him God is glorified."

³² If God is glorified because of the Son of Man, God will glorify the Son of Man because of himself, and he will glorify the Son of Man at once."

³³ Jesus said, "Dear children, I will still be with you for a little while. I'm telling you what I told the Jews. You will look for me, but you can't go where I'm going.

³⁴ "I'm giving you a new commandment: Love each other in the same way that I have loved you.

³⁵ Everyone will know that you are my disciples because of your love for each other."

³⁶ Simon Peter asked him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "You can't follow me now to the place where I'm going. However, you will follow me later."

³⁷ Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I'll give my life for you."

³⁸ Jesus replied, "Will you give your life for me? I can guarantee this truth: No rooster will crow until you say three times that you don't know me.

14 ¹ "Don't be troubled. Believe in God, and believe in me.

² My Father's house has many rooms. If that were not true, would I have told you that I'm going to prepare a place for you?

³ If I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again. Then I will bring you into my presence so that you will be where I am.

⁴ You know the way to the place where I am going."

⁵ Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you're going. So how can we know the way?"

⁶ Jesus answered him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one goes to the Father except through me.

⁷ If you have known me, you will also know my Father. From now on you know him through me and have seen him in me."

⁸ Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will satisfy us."

⁹ Jesus replied, "I have been with all of you for a long time. Don't you know me yet, Philip? The person who has seen me has seen the Father. So how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

¹⁰ Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? What I'm telling you doesn't come from me. The Father, who lives in me, does what he wants.

¹¹ Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and that the Father is in me. Otherwise, believe me because of the things I do.

¹² "I can guarantee this truth: Those who believe in me will do the things that I am doing. They will do even greater things because I am going to the Father.

¹³ I will do anything you ask the Father in my name so that the Father will be given glory because of the Son.

¹⁴ If you ask me to do something, I will do it.

¹⁵ "If you love me, you will obey my commandments.

¹⁶ I will ask the Father, and he will give you another helper who will be with you forever.

¹⁷ That helper is the Spirit of Truth. The world cannot accept him, because it doesn't see or know him. You know him, because he lives with you and will be in you.

¹⁸ "I will not leave you all alone. I will come back to you.

¹⁹ In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. You will live because I live.

²⁰ On that day you will know that I am in my Father and that you are in me and that I am in you.

²¹ Whoever knows and obeys my commandments is the person who loves me. Those who love me will have my Father's love, and I, too, will love them and show myself to them."

²² Judas (not Iscariot) asked Jesus, "Lord, what has happened that you are going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?"

²³ Jesus answered him, "Those who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will go to them and make our home with them.

²⁴ A person who doesn't love me doesn't do what I say. I don't make up what you hear me say. What I say comes from the Father who sent me.

²⁵ "I have told you this while I'm still with you.

²⁶ However, the helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. He will remind you of everything that I have ever told you.

²⁷ "I'm leaving you peace. I'm giving you my peace. I don't give you the kind of peace that the world gives. So don't be troubled or cowardly.

²⁸ You heard me tell you, 'I'm going away, but I'm coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I'm going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am.

²⁹ "I'm telling you this now before it happens. When it does happen, you will believe.

³⁰ The ruler of this world has no power over me. But he's coming, so I won't talk with you much longer.

³¹ However, I want the world to know that I love the Father and that I am doing exactly what the Father has commanded me to do. Get up! We have to leave."

15 ¹ Then Jesus said, "I am the true vine, and my Father takes care of the vineyard.

² He removes every one of my branches that doesn't produce fruit. He also prunes every branch that does produce fruit to make it produce more fruit.

³ "You are already clean because of what I have told you.

⁴ Live in me, and I will live in you. A branch cannot produce any fruit by itself. It has to stay attached to the vine. In the same way, you cannot produce fruit unless you live in me.

⁵ "I am the vine. You are the branches. Those who live in me while I live in them will produce a lot of fruit. But you can't produce anything without me.

⁶ Whoever doesn't live in me is thrown away like a branch and dries up.

Branches like this are gathered, thrown into a fire, and burned.

⁷ If you live in me and what I say lives in you, then ask for anything you want, and it will be yours.

⁸ You give glory to my Father when you produce a lot of fruit and therefore show that you are my disciples.

⁹ "I have loved you the same way the Father has loved me. So live in my love.

¹⁰ If you obey my commandments, you will live in my love. I have obeyed my Father's commandments, and in that way I live in his love.

¹¹ I have told you this so that you will be as joyful as I am, and your joy will be complete.

¹² Love each other as I have loved you. This is what I'm commanding you to do.

¹³ The greatest love you can show is to give your life for your friends.

¹⁴ You are my friends if you obey my commandments.

¹⁵ I don't call you servants anymore, because a servant doesn't know what his master is doing. But I've called you friends because I've made known to you everything that I've heard from my Father.

¹⁶ You didn't choose me, but I chose you. I have appointed you to go, to produce fruit that will last, and to ask the Father in my name to give you whatever you ask for.

¹⁷ Love each other. This is what I'm commanding you to do.

¹⁸ "If the world hates you, realize that it hated me before it hated you.

¹⁹ If you had anything in common with the world, the world would love you as one of its own. But you don't have anything in common with the world. I chose you from the world, and that's why the world hates you.

²⁰ Remember what I told you: 'A servant isn't greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they did what I said, they will also do what you say.

²¹ Indeed, they will do all this to you because you are committed to me, since they don't know the one who sent me.

²² If I hadn't come and spoken to them, they wouldn't have any sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

²³ The person who hates me also hates my Father.

²⁴ If I hadn't done among them what no one else has done, they wouldn't have any sin. But now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.

²⁵ In this way what is written in their Scriptures has come true: 'They hate me for no reason.'

²⁶ "The helper whom I will send to you from the Father will come. This helper, the Spirit of Truth who comes from the Father, will declare the truth about me.

²⁷ You will declare the truth, too, because you have been with me from the beginning."

16 ¹ Jesus continued, "I have said these things to you so that you won't lose your faith.

² You will be thrown out of synagogues. Certainly, the time is coming when people who murder you will think that they are serving God.

³ They will do these things to you because they haven't known the Father or me.

⁴ But I've told you this so that when it happens you'll remember what I've told you. I didn't tell you this at first, because I was with you.

⁵ "Now I'm going to the one who sent me. Yet, none of you asks me where I'm going.

⁶ But because I've told you this, you're filled with sadness.

⁷ However, I am telling you the truth: It's good for you that I'm going away. If I don't go away, the helper won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.

⁸ He will come to convict the world of sin, to show the world what has God's approval, and to convince the world that God judges it.

⁹ He will convict the world of sin, because people don't believe in me.

¹⁰ He will show the world what has God's approval, because I'm going to the Father and you won't see me anymore.

¹¹ He will convince the world that God judges it, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² "I have a lot more to tell you, but that would be too much for you now.

¹³ When the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into the full truth. He won't speak on his own. He will speak what he hears and will tell you about things to come.

¹⁴ He will give me glory, because he will tell you what I say.

¹⁵ Everything the Father says is also what I say. That is why I said, 'He will take what I say and tell it to you.'

¹⁶ "In a little while you won't see me anymore. Then in a little while you will see me again."

¹⁷ Some of his disciples said to each other, "What does he mean? He tells us that in a little while we won't see him. Then he tells us that in a little while we will see him again and that he's going to the Father."

¹⁸ So they were asking each other, "What does he mean when he says, 'In a little while'? We don't understand what he's talking about."

¹⁹ Jesus knew they wanted to ask him something. So he said to them, "Are you trying to figure out among yourselves what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you won't see me, and in a little while you will see me again'?"

²⁰ I can guarantee this truth: You will cry because you are sad, but the world will be happy. You will feel pain, but your pain will turn to happiness.

²¹ A woman has pain when her time to give birth comes. But after the child is born, she doesn't remember the pain anymore because she's happy that a child has been brought into the world.

²² "Now you're in a painful situation. But I will see you again. Then you will be happy, and no one will take that happiness away from you.

²³ When that day comes, you won't ask me any more questions. I can guarantee this truth: If you ask the Father for anything in my name, he will give it to you.

²⁴ So far you haven't asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive so that you can be completely happy.

²⁵ "I have used examples to illustrate these things. The time is coming when I won't use examples to speak to you. Rather, I will speak to you about the Father in plain words.

²⁶ When that day comes, you will ask for what you want in my name. I'm telling you that I won't have to ask the Father for you.

²⁷ The Father loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

²⁸ I left the Father and came into the world. Again, as I've said, I'm going to leave the world and go back to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples said, "Now you're talking in plain words and not using examples.

³⁰ Now we know that you know everything. You don't need to wait for questions to be asked. Because of this, we believe that you have come from God."

³¹ Jesus replied to them, "Now you believe.

³² The time is coming, and is already here, when all of you will be scattered. Each of you will go your own way and leave me all alone. Yet, I'm not all alone, because the Father is with me.

³³ I've told you this so that my peace will be with you. In the world you'll have trouble. But cheer up! I have overcome the world."

17 ¹ After saying this, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the time is here. Give your Son glory so that your Son can give you glory.

² After all, you've given him authority over all humanity so that he can give eternal life to all those you gave to him.

³ This is eternal life: to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you sent.

⁴ On earth I have given you glory by finishing the work you gave me to do.

⁵ Now, Father, give me glory in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world existed.

⁶ "I made your name known to the people you gave me. They are from this world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They did what you told them.

⁷ Now they know that everything you gave me comes from you,

⁸ because I gave them the message that you gave me. They have accepted this message, and they know for sure that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me.

⁹ "I pray for them. I'm not praying for the world but for those you gave me, because they are yours.

¹⁰ Everything I have is yours, and everything you have is mine. I have been given glory by the people you have given me.

¹¹ I won't be in the world much longer, but they are in the world, and I'm coming back to you. Holy Father, keep them safe by the power of your name, the name that you gave me, so that their unity may be like ours.

¹² While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power of your name, the name that you gave me. I watched over them, and none of them, except one person, became lost. So Scripture came true.

¹³ "But now, Father, I'm coming back to you. I say these things while I'm still in the world so that they will have the same joy that I have.

¹⁴ I have given them your message. But the world has hated them because they don't belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

¹⁵ I'm not asking you to take them out of the world but to protect them from the evil one.

¹⁶ They don't belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

¹⁷ "Use the truth to make them holy. Your words are truth.

¹⁸ I have sent them into the world the same way you sent me into the world.

¹⁹ I'm dedicating myself to this holy work I'm doing for them so that they, too, will use the truth to be holy.

²⁰ "I'm not praying only for them. I'm also praying for those who will believe in me through their message.

²¹ I pray that all of these people continue to have unity in the way that you, Father, are in me and I am in you. I pray that they may be united with us so that the world will believe that you have sent me.

²² I have given them the glory that you gave me. I did this so that they are united in the same way we are.

²³ I am in them, and you are in me. So they are completely united. In this way the world knows that you have sent me and that you have loved them in the same way you have loved me.

²⁴ "Father, I want those you have given to me to be with me, to be where I am. I want them to see my glory, which you gave me because you loved me before the world was made.

²⁵ Righteous Father, the world didn't know you. Yet, I knew you, and these disciples have known that you sent me.

²⁶ I have made your name known to them, and I will make it known so that the love you have for me will be in them and I will be in them."

18 ¹ After Jesus finished his prayer, he went with his disciples to the other side of the Kidron Valley. They entered the garden that was there.

² Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place because Jesus and his disciples often gathered there.

³ So Judas took a troop of soldiers and the guards from the chief priests and Pharisees and went to the garden. They were carrying lanterns, torches, and weapons.

⁴ Jesus knew everything that was going to happen to him. So he went to meet them and asked, "Who are you looking for?"

⁵ They answered him, "Jesus from Nazareth." Jesus told them, "I am he." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with the crowd.

⁶ When Jesus told them, "I am he," the crowd backed away and fell to the ground.

⁷ Jesus asked them again, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus from Nazareth."

⁸ Jesus replied, "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these other men go."

⁹ In this way what Jesus had said came true: "I lost none of those you gave me."

¹⁰ Simon Peter had a sword. He drew it, attacked the chief priest's servant, and cut off the servant's right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.)

¹¹ Jesus told Peter, "Put your sword away. Shouldn't I drink the cup of suffering that my Father has given me?"

¹² Then the army officer and the Jewish guards arrested Jesus. They tied Jesus up

¹³ and took him first to Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas. Caiaphas, the chief priest that year, ¹⁴ was the person who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one man die for the people.

¹⁵ Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. The other disciple was well-known to the chief priest. So that disciple went with Jesus into the chief priest's courtyard.

¹⁶ Peter, however, was standing outside the gate. The other disciple talked to the woman who was the gatekeeper and brought Peter into the courtyard.

¹⁷ The gatekeeper asked Peter, "Aren't you one of this man's disciples too?" Peter answered, "No, I'm not!"

¹⁸ The servants and the guards were standing around a fire they had built and were warming themselves because it was cold. Peter was standing there, too, and warming himself with the others.

¹⁹ The chief priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teachings.

²⁰ Jesus answered him, "I have spoken publicly for everyone to hear. I have always taught in synagogues or in the temple courtyard, where all the Jews gather. I haven't said anything in secret.

²¹ Why do you question me? Question those who heard what I said to them. They know what I've said."

²² When Jesus said this, one of the guards standing near Jesus slapped his face and said, "Is that how you answer the chief priest?"

²³ Jesus replied to him, "If I've said anything wrong, tell me what it was. But if I've told the truth, why do you hit me?"

²⁴ Annas sent Jesus to Caiaphas, the chief priest. Jesus was still tied up.

²⁵ Simon Peter continued to stand and warm himself by the fire. Some men asked him, "Aren't you, too, one of his disciples?" Peter denied it by saying, "No, I'm not!"

²⁶ One of the chief priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked him, "Didn't I see you with Jesus in the garden?"

²⁷ Peter again denied it, and just then a rooster crowed.

²⁸ Early in the morning, Jesus was taken from Caiaphas' house to the governor's palace. The Jews wouldn't go into the palace. They didn't want to become unclean, since they wanted to eat the Passover.

²⁹ So Pilate came out to them and asked, "What accusation are you making against this man?"

³⁰ The Jews answered Pilate, "If he weren't a criminal, we wouldn't have handed him over to you."

³¹ Pilate told the Jews, "Take him, and try him by your law." The Jews answered him, "We're not allowed to execute anyone."

³² In this way what Jesus had predicted about how he would die came true.

³³ Pilate went back into the palace, called for Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus replied, "Did you think of that yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

³⁵ Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

³⁶ Jesus answered, "My kingdom doesn't belong to this world. If my kingdom belonged to this world, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. My kingdom doesn't have its origin on earth."

³⁷ Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus replied, "You're correct in saying that I'm a king. I have been born and have come into the world for this reason: to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to me."

³⁸ Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" After Pilate said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, "I don't find this man guilty of anything."

³⁹ You have a custom that I should free one person for you at Passover. Would you like me to free the king of the Jews for you?"

⁴⁰ The Jews shouted again, "Don't free this man! Free Barabbas!" (Barabbas was a political revolutionary.)

19 ¹ Then Pilate had Jesus taken away and whipped.

² The soldiers twisted some thorny branches into a crown, placed it on his head, and put a purple cape on him.

³ They went up to him, said, "Long live the king of the Jews!" and slapped his face.

⁴ Pilate went outside again and told the Jews, "I'm bringing him out to you to let you know that I don't find this man guilty of anything."

⁵ Jesus went outside. He was wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cape. Pilate said to the Jews, "Look, here's the man!"

⁶ When the chief priests and the guards saw Jesus, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate told them, "You take him and crucify him. I don't find this man guilty of anything."

⁷ The Jews answered Pilate, "We have a law, and by that law he must die because he claimed to be the Son of God."

⁸ When Pilate heard them say that, he became more afraid than ever.

⁹ He went into the palace again and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus didn't answer him.

¹⁰ So Pilate said to Jesus, "Aren't you going to answer me? Don't you know that I have the authority to free you or to crucify you?"

¹¹ Jesus answered Pilate, "You wouldn't have any authority over me if it hadn't been given to you from above. That's why the man who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

¹² When Pilate heard what Jesus said, he wanted to free him. But the Jews shouted, "If you free this man, you're not a friend of the emperor. Anyone who claims to be a king is defying the emperor."

¹³ When Pilate heard what they said, he took Jesus outside and sat on the judge's seat in a place called Stone Pavement. (In Hebrew it is called Gabbatha.)

¹⁴ The time was about six o'clock in the morning on the Friday of the Passover festival. Pilate said to the Jews, "Look, here's your king!"

¹⁵ Then the Jews shouted, "Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked them, "Should I crucify your king?" The chief priests responded, "The emperor is the only king we have!"

¹⁶ Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified. So the soldiers took Jesus.

¹⁷ He carried his own cross and went out of the city to a location called The Skull. (In Hebrew this place is called Golgotha.)

¹⁸ The soldiers crucified Jesus and two other men there. Jesus was in the middle.

¹⁹ Pilate wrote a notice and put it on the cross. The notice read, "Jesus from Nazareth, the king of the Jews."

²⁰ Many Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. The notice was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

²¹ The chief priests of the Jewish people told Pilate, "Don't write, 'The king of the Jews!' Instead, write, 'He said that he is the king of the Jews.'"

²² Pilate replied, "I have written what I've written."

²³ When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them four ways so that each soldier could have a share. His robe was left over. It didn't have a seam because it had been woven in one piece from top to bottom.

²⁴ The soldiers said to each other, "Let's not rip it apart. Let's throw dice to see who will get it." In this way the Scripture came true: "They divided my clothes among themselves. They threw dice for my clothing." So that's what the soldiers did.

²⁵ Jesus' mother, her sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary from Magdala were standing beside Jesus' cross.

²⁶ Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing there. He said to his mother, "Look, here's your son!"

²⁷ Then he said to the disciple, "Look, here's your mother!" From that time on she lived with that disciple in his home.

²⁸ After this, when Jesus knew that everything had now been finished, he said, "I'm thirsty." He said this so that Scripture could finally be concluded.

²⁹ A jar filled with vinegar was there. So the soldiers put a sponge soaked in the vinegar on a hyssop stick and held it to his mouth.

³⁰ After Jesus had taken the vinegar, he said, "It is finished!" Then he bowed his head and died.

³¹ Since it was Friday and the next day was an especially important day of worship, the Jews didn't want the bodies to stay on the crosses. So they asked Pilate to have the men's legs broken and their bodies removed.

³² The soldiers broke the legs of the first man and then of the other man who had been crucified with Jesus.

³³ When the soldiers came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs.

³⁴ However, one of the soldiers stabbed Jesus' side with his spear, and blood and water immediately came out.

³⁵ The one who saw this is an eyewitness. What he says is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth so that you, too, will believe.

³⁶ This happened so that the Scripture would come true: "None of his bones will be broken."

³⁷ Another Scripture passage says, "They will look at the person whom they have stabbed."

³⁸ Later Joseph from the city of Arimathea asked Pilate to let him remove Jesus' body. (Joseph was a disciple of Jesus but secretly because he was afraid of the Jews). Pilate gave him permission to remove Jesus' body. So Joseph removed it.

³⁹ Nicodemus, the one who had first come to Jesus at night, went with Joseph and brought 75 pounds of a myrrh and aloe mixture.

⁴⁰ These two men took the body of Jesus and bound it with strips of linen. They laced the strips with spices. This was the Jewish custom for burial.

⁴¹ A garden was located in the place where Jesus was crucified. In that garden was a new tomb in which no one had yet been placed.

⁴² Joseph and Nicodemus put Jesus in that tomb, since that day was the Jewish day of preparation and since the tomb was nearby.

20 ¹ Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary from Magdala went to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb's entrance.

² So she ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple, whom Jesus loved. She told them, "They have removed the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they've put him."

³ So Peter and the other disciple headed for the tomb.

⁴ The two were running side by side, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and came to the tomb first.

⁵ He bent over and looked inside the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there but didn't go inside.

⁶ Simon Peter arrived after him and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there.

⁷ He also saw the cloth that had been on Jesus' head. It wasn't lying with the strips of linen but was rolled up separately.

⁸ Then the other disciple, who arrived at the tomb first, went inside. He saw and believed.

⁹ They didn't know yet what Scripture meant when it said that Jesus had to come back to life.

¹⁰ So the disciples went back home.

¹¹ Mary, however, stood there and cried as she looked at the tomb. As she cried, she bent over and looked inside.

¹² She saw two angels in white clothes. They were sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying. One angel was where Jesus' head had been, and the other was where his feet had been.

¹³ The angels asked her why she was crying. Mary told them, "They have removed my Lord, and I don't know where they've put him."

¹⁴ After she said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. However, she didn't know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵ Jesus asked her, "Why are you crying? Who are you looking for?" Mary thought it was the gardener speaking to her. So she said to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I'll remove him."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary!" Mary turned around and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (This word means "teacher.")

¹⁷ Jesus told her, "Don't hold on to me. I have not yet gone to the Father. But go to my brothers and sisters and tell them, 'I am going to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

¹⁸ Mary from Magdala went to the disciples and told them, "I have seen the Lord." She also told them what he had said to her.

¹⁹ That Sunday evening, the disciples were together behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jews. Jesus stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you!"

²⁰ When he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were glad to see the Lord.

²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you."

²² After he had said this, he breathed on the disciples and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

²³ Whenever you forgive sins, they are forgiven. Whenever you don't forgive them, they are not forgiven."

²⁴ Thomas, one of the twelve apostles, who was called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came.

²⁵ The other disciples told him, "We've seen the Lord." Thomas told them, "I refuse to believe this unless I see the nail marks in his hands, put my fingers into them, and put my hand into his side."

²⁶ A week later Jesus' disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!"

²⁷ Then Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Take your hand, and put it into my side. Stop doubting, and believe."

²⁸ Thomas responded to Jesus, "My Lord and my God!"

²⁹ Jesus said to Thomas, "You believe because you've seen me. Blessed are those who haven't seen me but believe."

³⁰ Jesus performed many other miracles that his disciples saw. Those miracles are not written in this book.

³¹ But these miracles have been written so that you will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and so that you will have life by believing in him.

21 ¹ Later, by the Sea of Tiberias, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. This is what happened.

² Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two other disciples of Jesus were together.

³ Simon Peter said to the others, "I'm going fishing." They told him, "We're going with you." They went out in a boat but didn't catch a thing that night.

⁴ As the sun was rising, Jesus stood on the shore. The disciples didn't realize that it was Jesus.

⁵ Jesus asked them, "Friends, haven't you caught any fish?" They answered him, "No, we haven't."

⁷ The disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put back on the clothes that he had taken off and jumped into the sea.

⁸ The other disciples came with the boat and dragged the net full of fish. They weren't far from the shore, only about 100 yards.

⁹ When they went ashore, they saw a fire with a fish lying on the coals, and they saw a loaf of bread.

¹⁰ Jesus told them, "Bring some of the fish you've just caught."

¹¹ Simon Peter got into the boat and pulled the net ashore. Though the net was filled with 153 large fish, it was not torn.

¹² Jesus told them, "Come, have breakfast." None of the disciples dared to ask him who he was. They knew he was the Lord.

¹³ Jesus took the bread, gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

¹⁴ This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after he had come back to life.

¹⁵ After they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than the other disciples do?" Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Feed my lambs."

¹⁶ Jesus asked him again, a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Take care of my sheep."

¹⁷ Jesus asked him a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt sad because Jesus had asked him a third time, "Do you love me?" So Peter said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Feed my sheep."

¹⁸ I can guarantee this truth: When you were young, you would get ready to go where you wanted. But when you're old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will get you ready to take you where you don't want to go."

¹⁹ Jesus said this to show by what kind of death Peter would bring glory to God. After saying this, Jesus told Peter, "Follow me!"

²⁰ Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved. That disciple was following them. He was the one who leaned against Jesus' chest at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray you?"

²¹ When Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"

²² Jesus said to Peter, "If I want him to live until I come again, how does that concern you? Follow me!"

²³ So a rumor that that disciple wouldn't die spread among Jesus' followers. But Jesus didn't say that he wouldn't die. What Jesus said was, "If I want him to live until I come again, how does that concern you?"

²⁴ This disciple was an eyewitness of these things and wrote them down. We know that what he says is true.

²⁵ Jesus also did many other things. If every one of them were written down, I suppose the world wouldn't have enough room for the books that would be written.

Acts of the Apostles

1 ¹ In my first book, Theophilus, I wrote about what Jesus began to do and teach. This included everything from the beginning of his life

² until the day he was taken to heaven. Before he was taken to heaven, he gave instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles, whom he had chosen.

³ After his death Jesus showed the apostles a lot of convincing evidence that he was alive. For 40 days he appeared to them and talked with them about the kingdom of God.

⁴ Once, while he was meeting with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem but to wait there for what the Father had promised. Jesus said to them, "I've told you what the Father promises:

⁵ John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

⁶ So when the apostles came together, they asked him, "Lord, is this the time when you're going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷ Jesus told them, "You don't need to know about times or periods that the Father has determined by his own authority.

⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes to you. Then you will be my witnesses to testify about me in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

⁹ After he had said this, he was taken to heaven. A cloud hid him so that they could no longer see him.

¹⁰ They were staring into the sky as he departed. Suddenly, two men in white clothes stood near them.

¹¹ They asked, "Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking at the sky? Jesus, who was taken from you to heaven, will come back in the same way that you saw him go to heaven."

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called the Mount of Olives. It is near Jerusalem, about half a mile away.

¹³ When they came into the city, Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon the Zealot, and Judas (son of James) went to the second-story room where they were staying.

¹⁴ The apostles had a single purpose as they devoted themselves to prayer. They were joined by some women, including Mary (the mother of Jesus), and they were joined by his brothers.

¹⁵ At a time when about 120 disciples had gathered together, Peter got up and spoke to them. He said, ¹⁶ "Brothers, what the Holy Spirit predicted through David in Scripture about Judas had to come true. Judas led the men to arrest Jesus.

¹⁷ He had been one of us and had been given an active role in this ministry.

¹⁸ With the money he received from the wrong he had done, he bought a piece of land where he fell headfirst to his death. His body split open, and all his internal organs came out.

¹⁹ Everyone living in Jerusalem knows about this. They even call that piece of land Akeldama, which means 'Field of Blood' in their dialect.

²⁰ You've read in Psalms, 'Let his home be deserted, and let no one live there,' and 'Let someone else take his position.'" "Therefore, someone must be added to our number to serve with us as a witness that Jesus came back to life.

²¹ He must be one of the men who accompanied Jesus with us the entire time that the Lord Jesus was among us.

²² This person must have been with us from the time that John was baptizing people to the day that Jesus was taken from us."

²³ The disciples determined that two men were qualified. These men were Joseph (who was called Barsabbas and was also known as Justus) and Matthias.

²⁴ Then they prayed, "Lord, you know everyone's thoughts. Show us which of these two you have chosen.

²⁵ Show us who is to take the place of Judas as an apostle, since Judas abandoned his position to go to the place where he belongs."

²⁶ They drew names to choose an apostle. Matthias was chosen and joined the eleven apostles.

2 ¹ When Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Passover, came, all the believers were together in one place.

² Suddenly, a sound like a violently blowing wind came from the sky and filled the whole house where they were staying.

³ Tongues that looked like fire appeared to them. The tongues arranged themselves so that one came to rest on each believer.

⁴ All the believers were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.

⁵ Devout Jewish men from every nation were living in Jerusalem.

⁶ They gathered when they heard the wind. Each person was startled to recognize his own dialect when the disciples spoke.

⁷ Stunned and amazed, the people in the crowd said, "All of these men who are speaking are Galileans.

⁸ Why do we hear them speaking in our native dialects?

⁹ We're Parthians, Medes, and Elamites. We're people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, the province of Asia,

¹⁰ Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, and the country near Cyrene in Libya. We're Jewish people, converts to Judaism, and visitors from Rome,

¹¹ Crete, and Arabia. We hear these men in our own languages as they tell about the miracles that God has done."

¹² All of these devout men were stunned and puzzled. They asked each other, "What can this mean?"

¹³ Others said jokingly, "They're drunk on sweet wine."

¹⁴ Then Peter stood up with the eleven apostles. In a loud voice he said to them, "Men of Judea and everyone living in Jerusalem! You must understand this, so pay attention to what I say.

¹⁵ These men are not drunk as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning.

¹⁶ Rather, this is what the prophet Joel spoke about:

¹⁷ 'In the last days, God says, I will pour my Spirit on everyone. Your sons and daughters will speak what God has revealed. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸ In those days I will pour my Spirit on my servants, on both men and women. They will speak what God has revealed.

¹⁹ I will work miracles in the sky and give signs on the earth: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke.

²⁰ The sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood before the terrifying day of the Lord comes.

²¹ Then whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

²² "Men of Israel, listen to what I say: Jesus from Nazareth was a man whom God brought to your attention. You know that through this man God worked miracles, did amazing things, and gave signs.

²³ By using men who don't acknowledge Moses' Teachings, you crucified Jesus, who was given over to death by a plan that God had determined in advance.

²⁴ But God raised him from death to life and destroyed the pains of death, because death had no power to hold him.

²⁵ This is what David meant when he said about Jesus: 'I always see the Lord in front of me. I cannot be moved because he is by my side.

²⁶ That is why my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices. My body also rests securely ²⁷ because you do not abandon my soul to the grave or allow your holy one to decay.

²⁸ You make the path of life known to me. In your presence there is complete joy.'

²⁹ "Brothers, I can tell you confidently that our ancestor David died and was buried and that his tomb is here to this day.

³⁰ David was a prophet and knew that God had promised with an oath that he would place one of David's descendants on his throne.

³¹ David knew that the Messiah would come back to life, and he spoke about that before it ever happened. He said that the Messiah wouldn't be left in the grave and that his body wouldn't decay.

³² "God brought this man Jesus back to life. We are all witnesses to that.

³³ God used his power to give Jesus the highest position. Jesus has also received and has poured out the Holy Spirit as the Father had promised, and this is what you're seeing and hearing.

³⁴ David didn't go up to heaven, but he said, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Take my highest position of power ³⁵ until I put your enemies under your control.'"

³⁶ "All the people of Israel should know beyond a doubt that God made Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

³⁷ When the people heard this, they were deeply upset. They asked Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

³⁸ Peter answered them, "All of you must turn to God and change the way you think and act, and each of you must be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins will be forgiven. Then you will receive the Holy Spirit as a gift.

³⁹ This promise belongs to you and to your children and to everyone who is far away. It belongs to everyone who worships the Lord our God."

⁴⁰ Peter said much more to warn them. He urged, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."

⁴¹ Those who accepted what Peter said were baptized. That day about 3,000 people were added to the group.

⁴² The disciples were devoted to the teachings of the apostles, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer.

⁴³ A feeling of fear came over everyone as many amazing things and miraculous signs happened through the apostles.

⁴⁴ All the believers kept meeting together, and they shared everything with each other.

⁴⁵ From time to time, they sold their property and other possessions and distributed the money to anyone who needed it.

⁴⁶ The believers had a single purpose and went to the temple every day. They were joyful and humble as they ate at each other's homes and shared their food.

⁴⁷ At the same time, they praised God and had the good will of all the people. Every day the Lord saved people, and they were added to the group.

3 ¹ Peter and John were going to the temple courtyard for the three o'clock prayer.

² At the same time, a man who had been lame from birth was being carried by some men. Every day these men would put the lame man at a gate in the temple courtyard. The gate was called Beautiful Gate. There he would beg for handouts from people going into the courtyard.

³ When the man saw that Peter and John were about to go into the courtyard, he asked them for a handout.

⁴ Peter and John stared at him. "Look at us!" Peter said.

⁵ So the man watched them closely. He expected to receive something from them.

⁶ However, Peter said to him, "I don't have any money, but I'll give you what I do have. Through the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth, walk!"

⁷ Peter took hold of the man's right hand and began to help him up. Immediately, the man's feet and ankles became strong.

⁸ Springing to his feet, he stood up and started to walk. He went with Peter and John into the temple courtyard. The man was walking, jumping, and praising God.

⁹ All the people saw him walking and praising God.

¹⁰ They knew that he was the man who used to sit and beg at the temple's Beautiful Gate. The people were amazed and stunned to see what had happened to him.

¹¹ They were excited, and everyone ran to see them at the place called Solomon's Porch. The man wouldn't let go of Peter and John.

¹² When Peter saw this, he said to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed about this man? Why are you staring at us as though we have made him walk by our own power or godly life?"

¹³ The God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed Jesus over to Pilate. You rejected him in Pilate's presence, even though Pilate had decided to let him go free.

¹⁴ You rejected the man who was holy and innocent. You asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵ and you killed the source of life. But God brought him back to life, and we are witnesses to that.

¹⁶ We believe in the one named Jesus. Through his power alone this man, whom you know, was healed, as all of you saw.

¹⁷ "And now, brothers, I know that like your rulers you didn't know what you were doing.

¹⁸ But in this way God made the sufferings of his Messiah come true. God had predicted these sufferings through all the prophets.

¹⁹ So change the way you think and act, and turn to God to have your sins removed.

²⁰ Then times will come when the Lord will refresh you. He will send you Jesus, whom he has appointed to be the Christ.

²¹ Heaven must receive Jesus until the time when everything will be restored as God promised through his holy prophets long ago.

²² "Moses said, 'The Lord your God will send you a prophet, an Israelite like me. Listen to everything he tells you.

²³ Those who won't listen to that prophet will be excluded from the people.'

²⁴ Samuel and all the prophets who followed him spoke about these days.

²⁵ You are the descendants of the prophets and the heirs of the promise that God made to our ancestors when he said to Abraham, ‘Through your descendant all people on earth will be blessed.’

²⁶ God has brought his servant back to life and has sent him to you first. God did this to bless you by turning every one of you from your evil ways."

4 ¹ Some priests, the officer in charge of the temple guards, and some Sadducees approached Peter and John while they were speaking to the people.

² These religious authorities were greatly annoyed. Peter and John were teaching the people and spreading the message that the dead will come back to life through Jesus.

³ So the temple guards arrested them. Since it was already evening, they put Peter and John in jail until the next day.

⁴ But many of those who had heard the message became believers, so the number of men who believed grew to about 5,000.

⁵ The next day the Jewish rulers, leaders, and scribes met in Jerusalem.

⁶ The chief priest Annas, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and the rest of the chief priest's family were present.

⁷ They made Peter and John stand in front of them and then asked, "By what power or in whose name did you do this?"

⁸ Then Peter, because he was filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers and leaders of the people, ⁹ today you are cross-examining us about the good we did for a crippled man. You want to know how he was made well.

¹⁰ You and all the people of Israel must understand that this man stands in your presence with a healthy body because of the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth.

You crucified Jesus Christ, but God has brought him back to life.

¹¹ He is the stone that the builders rejected, the stone that has become the cornerstone.

¹² No one else can save us. Indeed, we can be saved only by the power of the one named Jesus and not by any other person."

¹³ After they found out that Peter and John had no education or special training, they were surprised to see how boldly they spoke. They realized that these men had been with Jesus.

¹⁴ When they saw the man who was healed standing with Peter and John, they couldn't say anything against the two apostles.

¹⁵ So they ordered Peter and John to leave the council room and began to discuss the matter among themselves.

¹⁶ They said, "What should we do to these men? Clearly, they've performed a miracle that everyone in Jerusalem knows about. We can't deny that.

¹⁷ So let's threaten them. Let's tell them that they must never speak to anyone about the one named Jesus. Then the news about the miracle that they have performed will not spread any further among the people."

¹⁸ They called Peter and John and ordered them never to teach about Jesus or even mention his name.

¹⁹ Peter and John answered them, "Decide for yourselves whether God wants people to listen to you rather than to him.

²⁰ We cannot stop talking about what we've seen and heard."

²¹ The authorities threatened them even more and then let them go. Since all the people were praising God for what had happened, the authorities couldn't find any way to punish Peter and John.

²² (The man who was healed by this miracle was over 40 years old.)

²³ When Peter and John were released, they went to the other apostles and told them everything the chief priests and leaders had said.

²⁴ When the apostles heard this, they were united and loudly prayed to God, "Master, you made the sky, the land, the sea, and everything in them.

²⁵ You said through the Holy Spirit, who spoke through your servant David (our ancestor), 'Why do the nations act arrogantly? Why do their people devise useless plots?

²⁶ Kings take their stand. Rulers make plans together against the Lord and against his Messiah.'

²⁷ "In this city Herod and Pontius Pilate made plans together with non-Jewish people and the people of Israel. They made their plans against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed.

²⁸ Through your will and power, they did everything that you had already decided should be done.

²⁹ "Lord, pay attention to their threats now, and allow us to speak your word boldly.

³⁰ Show your power by healing, performing miracles, and doing amazing things through the power and the name of your holy servant Jesus."

³¹ When the apostles had finished praying, their meeting place shook. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God boldly.

³² The whole group of believers lived in harmony. No one called any of his possessions his own. Instead, they shared everything.

³³ With great power the apostles continued to testify that the Lord Jesus had come back to life. God's abundant good will was with all of them.

³⁴ None of them needed anything. From time to time, people sold land or houses and brought the money ³⁵ to the apostles. Then the money was distributed to anyone who needed it.

³⁶ Joseph, a descendant of Levi, had been born on the island of Cyprus. The apostles called him Barnabas, which means "a person who encourages."

³⁷ He had some land. He sold it and turned the money over to the apostles.

5 ¹ A man named Ananias and his wife Sapphira sold some property.

² They agreed to hold back some of the money they had pledged and turned only part of it over to the apostles.

³ Peter asked, "Ananias, why did you let Satan fill you with the idea that you could deceive the Holy Spirit? You've held back some of the money you received for the land.

⁴ While you had the land, it was your own. After it was sold, you could have done as you pleased with the money. So how could you do a thing like this? You didn't lie to people but to God!"

⁵ When Ananias heard Peter say this, he dropped dead. Everyone who heard about his death was terrified.

⁶ Some young men got up, wrapped his body in a sheet, carried him outside, and buried him.

⁷ About three hours later Ananias' wife arrived. She didn't know what had happened.

⁸ So Peter asked her, "Tell me, did you sell the land for that price?" She answered, "Yes, that was the price."

⁹ Then Peter said to her, "How could you and your husband agree to test the Lord's Spirit? Those who buried your husband are standing at the door, and they will carry you outside for burial."

¹⁰ Immediately, she dropped dead in front of Peter. When the young men came back, they found Sapphira dead. So they carried her outside and buried her next to her husband.

¹¹ The whole church and everyone else who heard about what had happened were terrified.

¹² The people saw the apostles perform many miracles and do amazing things. The believers had a common faith in Jesus as they met on Solomon's Porch.

¹³ None of the other people dared to join them, although everyone spoke highly of them.

¹⁴ More men and women than ever began to believe in the Lord.

¹⁵ As a result, people carried their sick into the streets. They placed them on stretchers and cots so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some sick people as he went by.

¹⁶ Crowds from the cities around Jerusalem would gather. They would bring their sick and those who were troubled by evil spirits, and each person was cured.

¹⁷ The chief priest and the whole party of the Sadducees who were with him were extremely jealous. So they took action ¹⁸ by arresting the apostles and putting them in the city jail.

¹⁹ But at night an angel from the Lord opened the doors to their cell and led them out of the prison.

²⁰ The angel told them, "Stand in the temple courtyard, and tell the people everything about life in Christ."

²¹ Early in the morning, after they had listened to the angel, the apostles went into the temple courtyard and began to teach. The chief priest and those who were with him called together the Jewish council, that is, all the leaders of Israel. They also sent men to the prison to get the apostles.

²² When the temple guards arrived at the prison, they didn't find the apostles. The guards came back and reported,

²³ "We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors. However, when we opened the doors, we found no one inside."

²⁴ When the officer of the temple guards and the chief priests heard this, they were puzzled about what could have happened.

²⁵ Then someone told them, "The men you put in prison are standing in the temple courtyard. They're teaching the people."

²⁶ Then the officer of the temple guards went with some of his men to bring back the apostles without using force. After all, the officer and his guards were afraid that the people would stone them to death for using force.

²⁷ When they brought back the apostles, they made them stand in front of the council. The chief priest questioned them.

²⁸ He said, "We gave you strict orders not to mention Jesus' name when you teach. Yet, you've filled Jerusalem with your teachings. You want to take revenge on us for putting that man to death."

²⁹ Peter and the other apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than people.

³⁰ You murdered Jesus by hanging him on a cross. But the God of our ancestors brought him back to life.

³¹ God used his power to give Jesus the highest position as leader and savior. He did this to lead the people of Israel to him, to change the way they think and act, and to forgive their sins.

³² We are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

³³ When the men on the council heard this, they became furious and wanted to execute the apostles.

³⁵ Then he said to the council, "Men of Israel, consider carefully what you do with these men.

³⁶ Some time ago Theudas appeared. He claimed that he was important, and about four hundred men joined him. He was killed, and all his followers were scattered. The whole movement was a failure.

³⁷ "After that man, at the time of the census, Judas from Galilee appeared and led people in a revolt. He, too, died, and all his followers were scattered.

³⁸ "We should keep away from these men for now. We should leave them alone. I can guarantee that if the plan they put into action is of human origin, it will fail.

³⁹ However, if it's from God, you won't be able to stop them. You may even discover that you're fighting against God."

⁴⁰ The council took his advice. They called the apostles, beat them, ordered them not to speak about the one named Jesus, and let them go.

⁴¹ The apostles left the council room. They were happy to have been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for speaking about Jesus.

⁴² Every day in the temple courtyard and from house to house, they refused to stop teaching and telling the Good News that Jesus is the Messiah.

6 ¹ At that time, as the number of disciples grew, Greek-speaking Jews complained about the Hebrew-speaking Jews. The Greek-speaking Jews claimed that the widows among them were neglected every day when food and other assistance was distributed.

² The twelve apostles called all the disciples together and told them, "It's not right for us to give up God's word in order to distribute food.

³ So, brothers and sisters, choose seven men whom the people know are spiritually wise. We will put them in charge of this problem.

⁴ However, we will devote ourselves to praying and to serving in ways that are related to the word."

⁵ The suggestion pleased the whole group. So they chose Stephen, who was a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and they chose Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, who had converted to Judaism in the city of Antioch.

⁶ The disciples had these men stand in front of the apostles, who prayed and placed their hands on these seven men.

⁷ The word of God continued to spread, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem grew very large. A large number of priests accepted the faith.

⁸ Stephen was a man filled with God's favor and power. He did amazing things and performed miracles.

⁹ One day some men from the cities of Cyrene and Alexandria and the provinces of Cilicia and Asia started an argument with Stephen. They belonged to a synagogue called Freedmen's Synagogue.

¹⁰ They couldn't argue with Stephen because he spoke with the wisdom that the Spirit had given him.

¹¹ Then they bribed some men to lie. These men said, "We heard him slander Moses and God."

¹² The liars stirred up trouble among the people, the leaders, and the scribes. So they went to Stephen, took him by force, and brought him in front of the Jewish council.

¹³ Some witnesses stood up and lied about Stephen. They said, "This man never stops saying bad things about the holy place and Moses' Teachings.

¹⁴ We heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy the temple and change the customs that Moses gave us."

¹⁵ Everyone who sat in the council stared at him and saw that his face looked like an angel's face.

7 ¹ Then the chief priest asked Stephen, "Is this true?"

² Stephen answered, "Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God who reveals his glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia. This happened before Abraham lived in Haran.

³ God told him, 'Leave your land and your relatives. Go to the land that I will show you.'

⁴ "Then Abraham left the country of Chaldea and lived in the city of Haran.

After his father died, God made him move from there to this land where we now live.

⁵ "Yet, God didn't give Abraham anything in this land to call his own, not even a place to rest his feet. But God promised to give this land to him and to his descendants, even though Abraham didn't have a child.

⁶ God told Abraham that his descendants would be foreigners living in another country and that the people there would make them slaves and mistreat them for 400 years.

⁷ God also told him, 'I will punish the people whom they will serve. After that, they will leave that country and worship me here.'

⁸ "God gave Abraham circumcision to confirm his promise. So when Abraham's son Isaac was born, Abraham circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac did the same to his son Jacob, and Jacob did the same to his twelve sons (the ancestors of our tribes).

⁹ "Jacob's sons were jealous of their brother Joseph. They sold him into slavery, and he was taken to Egypt. But God was with Joseph

¹¹ Then a famine throughout Egypt and Canaan brought a lot of suffering. Our ancestors couldn't find any food.

¹² When Jacob heard that Egypt had food, he sent our ancestors there. That was their first trip.

¹³ On the second trip, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family.

¹⁴ Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his relatives, 75 people in all.

¹⁵ So Jacob went to Egypt, and he and our ancestors died there.

¹⁶ They were taken to Shechem for burial in the tomb that Abraham purchased in Shechem from Hamor's sons.

¹⁷ "When the time that God had promised to Abraham had almost come, the number of our people in Egypt had grown very large.

¹⁸ Then a different king, who knew nothing about Joseph, began to rule in Egypt.

¹⁹ This king was shrewd in the way he took advantage of our people. He mistreated our ancestors. He made them abandon their newborn babies outdoors, where they would die.

²⁰ "At that time Moses was born, and he was a very beautiful child. His parents took care of him for three months.

²¹ When Moses was abandoned outdoors, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and raised him as her son.

²² So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became a great man in what he said and did.

²³ When he was 40 years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites.

²⁴ When he saw an Israelite man being treated unfairly by an Egyptian, he defended the Israelite. He took revenge by killing the Egyptian.

²⁵ Moses thought his own people would understand that God was going to use him to give them freedom. But they didn't understand.

²⁶ The next day Moses saw two Israelites fighting, and he tried to make peace between them. He said to them, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you treating each other unfairly?'

²⁷ "But one of the men pushed Moses aside. He asked Moses, 'Who made you our ruler and judge?'

²⁸ Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'

²⁹ After he said that, Moses quickly left Egypt and lived in Midian as a foreigner. In Midian he fathered two sons.

³⁰ "Forty years later, a messenger appeared to him in the flames of a burning bush in the desert of Mount Sinai.

³¹ Moses was surprised when he saw this. As he went closer to look at the bush, the voice of the Lord said to him, ³² 'I am the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses began to tremble and didn't dare to look at the bush.

³³ The Lord told him, 'Take off your sandals. The place where you're standing is holy ground.

³⁴ I've seen how my people are mistreated in Egypt. I've heard their groaning and have come to rescue them. So now I'm sending you to Egypt.'

³⁵ "This is the Moses whom the Israelites rejected by saying, 'Who made you our ruler and judge?' This is the one God sent to free them and to rule them with the help of the messenger who appeared to him in the bush.

³⁶ This is the man who led our ancestors out of Egypt. He is the person who did amazing things and worked miracles in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the desert for 40 years.

³⁷ This is the same Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will send you a prophet, an Israelite like me.'

³⁸ This is the Moses who was in the assembly in the desert. Our ancestors and the messenger who spoke to him on Mount Sinai were there with him. Moses received life-giving messages to give to us, ³⁹ but our ancestors were not willing to obey him. Instead, they pushed him aside, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt.

⁴⁰ They told Aaron, 'We don't know what has happened to this Moses, who led us out of Egypt. So make gods who will lead us.'

⁴¹ That was the time they made a calf. They offered a sacrifice to that false god and delighted in what they had made.

⁴² "So God turned away from them and let them worship the sun, moon, and stars. This is written in the book of the prophets: 'Did you bring me sacrifices and grain offerings in the desert for 40 years, nation of Israel?

⁴³ You carried along the shrine of Moloch, the star of the god Rephan, and the statues you made for yourselves to worship. I will send you into exile beyond the city of Babylon.'

⁴⁴ "In the desert our ancestors had the tent of God's promise. Moses built this tent exactly as God had told him. He used the model he had seen.

⁴⁵ After our ancestors received the tent, they brought it into this land. They did this with Joshua's help when they took possession of the land from the nations that God forced out of our ancestors' way. This tent remained here until the time of David, ⁴⁶ who won God's favor. David asked that he might provide a permanent place for the family of Jacob.

⁴⁷ But Solomon was the one who built a house for God.

⁴⁸ "However, the Most High doesn't live in a house built by humans, as the prophet says:

⁴⁹ 'The Lord says, "Heaven is my throne. The earth is my footstool. What kind of house are you going to build for me? Where will I rest?

⁵⁰ Didn't I make all these things?"'

⁵¹ "How stubborn can you be? How can you be so heartless and disobedient? You're just like your ancestors. They always opposed the Holy Spirit, and so do you!

⁵² Was there ever a prophet your ancestors didn't persecute? They killed those who predicted that a man with God's approval would come. You have now become the people who betrayed and murdered that man.

⁵³ You are the people who received Moses' Teachings, which were put into effect by angels. But you haven't obeyed those teachings."

⁵⁴ As council members listened to Stephen, they became noticeably furious.

⁵⁵ But Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit. He looked into heaven, saw God's glory, and Jesus in the position of authority that God gives.

⁵⁶ So Stephen said, "Look, I see heaven opened and the Son of Man in the position of authority that God has given him!"

⁵⁷ But the council members shouted and refused to listen. Then they rushed at Stephen with one purpose in mind, ⁵⁸ and after they had thrown him out of the city, they began to stone him to death. The witnesses left their coats with a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹ While council members were executing Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, welcome my spirit."

⁶⁰ Then he knelt down and shouted, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them." After he had said this, he died.

8 ¹ Saul approved of putting Stephen to death. On that day widespread persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem. Most believers, except the apostles, were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

² Devout men buried Stephen as they mourned loudly for him.

³ Saul tried to destroy the church. He dragged men and women out of one home after another and threw them into prison.

⁴ The believers who were scattered went from place to place, where they spread the word.

⁵ Philip went to the city of Samaria and told people about the Messiah.

⁶ The crowds paid close attention to what Philip said. They listened to him and saw the miracles that he performed.

⁷ Evil spirits screamed as they came out of the many people they had possessed. Many paralyzed and lame people were cured.

⁸ As a result, that city was extremely happy.

⁹ A man named Simon lived in that city. He amazed the people of Samaria with his practice of magic. He claimed that he was great.

¹⁰ Everyone from children to adults paid attention to him. They said, "This man is the power of God, and that power is called great."

¹¹ They paid attention to Simon because he had amazed them for a long time with his practice of magic.

¹² However, when Philip spread the Good News about the kingdom of God and the one named Jesus Christ, men and women believed him and were baptized.

¹³ Even Simon believed, and after he was baptized, he became devoted to Philip. Simon was amazed to see the miracles and impressive things that were happening.

¹⁴ When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the Samaritans had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

¹⁵ Peter and John went to Samaria and prayed that the Samaritans would receive the Holy Spirit.

¹⁶ (Before this the Holy Spirit had not come to any of the Samaritans. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

¹⁷ Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and the Samaritans received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ Simon saw that the Spirit was given to the Samaritans when the apostles placed their hands on them. So he offered Peter and John money

¹⁹ and said, "Give me this power so that anyone I place my hands on will receive the Holy Spirit."

²⁰ Peter told Simon, "May your money be destroyed with you because you thought you could buy God's gift.

²¹ You won't have any share in this because God can see how twisted your thinking is.

²² So change your wicked thoughts, and ask the Lord if he will forgive you for thinking like this.

²³ I can see that you are bitter with jealousy and wrapped up in your evil ways."

²⁴ Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me that none of the things you said will happen to me."

²⁵ After they had boldly spoken about the message of the Lord, they spread the Good News in many Samaritan villages on their way back to Jerusalem.

²⁶ An angel from the Lord said to Philip, "Get up, and take the desert road that goes south from Jerusalem to Gaza."

²⁷ So Philip went. An Ethiopian man who had come to Jerusalem to worship was on his way home. The man was a eunuch, a high-ranking official in charge of all the treasures of Queen Candace of Ethiopia.

²⁸ As the official rode along in his carriage, he was reading the prophet Isaiah out loud.

²⁹ The Spirit said to Philip, "Go to that carriage, and stay close to it."

³⁰ Philip ran to the carriage and could hear the official reading the prophet Isaiah out loud. Philip asked him, "Do you understand what you're reading?"

³¹ The official answered, "How can I understand unless someone guides me?" So he invited Philip to sit with him in his carriage.

³³ When he humbled himself, he was not judged fairly. Who from his generation will talk about his life on earth being cut short?"

³⁴ The official said to Philip, "I would like to know who the prophet is talking about. Is he talking about himself or someone else?"

³⁵ Then Philip spoke. Starting with that passage, Philip told the official the Good News about Jesus.

³⁶ As they were going along the road, they came to some water. The official said to Philip, "Look, there's some water. What can keep me from being baptized?"

³⁷ (OMITTED TEXT)

³⁸ The official ordered the carriage to stop. He and Philip stepped into the water, and Philip baptized him.

³⁹ When they had stepped out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away. The official joyfully continued on his way and didn't see Philip again.

⁴⁰ Philip found himself in the city of Azotus. He traveled through all the cities and spread the Good News until he came to the city of Caesarea.

9¹ Saul kept threatening to murder the Lord's disciples. He went to the chief priest

² and asked him to write letters of authorization to the synagogue leaders in the city of Damascus. Saul wanted to arrest any man or woman who followed the way of Christ and imprison them in Jerusalem.

³ As Saul was coming near the city of Damascus, a light from heaven suddenly flashed around him.

⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?"

⁵ Saul asked, "Who are you, sir?" The person replied, "I'm Jesus, the one you're persecuting.

⁶ Get up! Go into the city, and you'll be told what you should do."

⁷ Meanwhile, the men traveling with him were speechless. They heard the voice but didn't see anyone.

⁸ Saul was helped up from the ground. When he opened his eyes, he was blind. So his companions led him into Damascus.

⁹ For three days he couldn't see and didn't eat or drink.

¹⁰ A disciple named Ananias lived in the city of Damascus. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" Ananias answered, "Yes, Lord."

¹¹ The Lord told him, "Get up! Go to Judas' house on Straight Street, and ask for a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. He's praying.

¹² In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias place his hands on him to restore his sight."

¹³ Ananias replied, "Lord, I've heard a lot of people tell about the many evil things this man has done to your people in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ Saul has come here to Damascus with authority from the chief priests to put anyone who calls on your name in prison."

¹⁵ The Lord told Ananias, "Go! I've chosen this man to bring my name to nations, to kings, and to the people of Israel.

¹⁶ I'll show him how much he has to suffer for the sake of my name."

¹⁷ Ananias left and entered Judas' house. After he placed his hands on Saul, Ananias said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way to Damascus, sent me to you. He wants you to see again and to be filled with the Holy Spirit."

¹⁸ Immediately, something like fish scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. Then Saul stood up and was baptized.

¹⁹ After he had something to eat, his strength came back to him. Saul was with the disciples in the city of Damascus for several days.

²⁰ He immediately began to spread the word in their synagogues that Jesus was the Son of God.

²¹ Everyone who heard him was amazed. They asked, "Isn't this the man who destroyed those who worshiped the one named Jesus in Jerusalem? Didn't he come here to take these worshipers as prisoners to the chief priests in Jerusalem?"

²² Saul grew more powerful, and he confused the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

²³ Later the Jews planned to murder Saul,

²⁴ but Saul was told about their plot. They were watching the city gates day and night in order to murder him.

²⁵ However, Saul's disciples lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the wall one night.

²⁶ After Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples. But everyone was afraid of him. They wouldn't believe that he was a disciple.

²⁷ Then Barnabas took an interest in Saul and brought him to the apostles. Barnabas told the apostles how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and that the Lord had spoken to him. Barnabas also told them how boldly Saul had spoken about the one named Jesus in the city of Damascus.

²⁸ Then Saul went throughout Jerusalem with the disciples. He spoke boldly with the power and authority of the Lord.

²⁹ He talked and argued with Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him.

³⁰ As soon as the disciples found out about this, they took Saul to Caesarea and sent him to Tarsus.

³¹ Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace. The number of people increased as people lived in the fear of the Lord and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

³² When Peter was going around to all of God's people, he came to those who lived in the city of Lydda.

³³ In Lydda Peter found a man named Aeneas who was paralyzed and confined to a cot for eight years.

³⁴ Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you well. Get up, and pick up your cot." Aeneas immediately got up.

³⁵ Everyone who lived in the city of Lydda and the coastal region of Sharon saw what had happened to Aeneas and turned to the Lord in faith.

³⁶ A disciple named Tabitha lived in the city of Joppa. Her Greek name was Dorcas. She always helped people and gave things to the poor.

³⁷ She became sick and died. Her body was prepared for burial and was laid in an upstairs room.

³⁸ Lydda is near the city of Joppa. When the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him. They begged Peter, "Hurry to Joppa! We need your help!"

³⁹ So Peter went with them. When he arrived, he was taken upstairs. All the widows stood around him. They were crying and showing Peter the articles of clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

⁴⁰ Peter made everyone leave the room. He knelt and prayed. Then he turned toward the body and said, "Tabitha, get up!" Tabitha opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up.

⁴¹ Peter took her hand and helped her stand up. After he called the believers, especially the widows, he presented Tabitha to them. She was alive.

⁴² The news about this spread throughout the city of Joppa, and as a result, many people believed in the Lord.

⁴³ Peter stayed in Joppa for a number of days with Simon, a leatherworker.

10¹ A man named Cornelius lived in the city of Caesarea. He was a Roman army officer in the Italian Regiment.

² He and everyone in his home were devout and respected God. Cornelius gave many gifts to poor Jewish people and always prayed to God.

³ One day, about three in the afternoon, he had a vision. He clearly saw an angel from God come to him and say, "Cornelius!"

⁴ He stared at the angel and was terrified. Cornelius asked the angel, "What do you want, sir?" The angel answered him, "God is aware of your prayers and your gifts to the poor, and he has remembered you."

⁵ Send messengers now to the city of Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter.

⁶ He is a guest of Simon, a leatherworker, whose house is by the sea."

⁷ After saying this, the angel left. Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of those who served him regularly.

⁸ Cornelius explained everything to them and sent them to Joppa.

⁹ Around noon the next day, while Cornelius' men were on their way and coming close to Joppa, Peter went on the roof to pray.

¹⁰ He became hungry and wanted to eat. While the food was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

¹¹ He saw the sky open and something like a large linen sheet being lowered by its four corners to the ground.

¹² In the sheet were all kinds of four-footed animals, reptiles, and birds.

¹³ A voice told him, "Get up, Peter! Kill these animals, and eat them."

¹⁴ Peter answered, "I can't do that, Lord! I've never eaten anything that is impure or unclean."

¹⁵ A voice spoke to him a second time, "Don't say that the things which God has made clean are impure."

¹⁶ This happened three times. Then the sheet was quickly taken into the sky.

¹⁷ While Peter was puzzled by the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house and went to the gate.

¹⁸ They asked if Simon Peter was staying there.

¹⁹ Peter was still thinking about the vision when the Spirit said to him, "Three men are looking for you.

²⁰ Get up, and go downstairs. Don't hesitate to go with these men. I have sent them."

²¹ So Peter went to the men. He said, "I'm the man you're looking for. Why are you here?"

²² The men replied, "Cornelius, a Roman army officer, sent us. He's a man who has God's approval and who respects God. Also, the Jewish people respect him. A holy angel told him to summon you to his home to hear what you have to say."

²³ Peter asked the men to come into the house and had them stay overnight. The next day Peter left with them. Some disciples from Joppa went along.

²⁴ The following day they arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called his relatives and close friends together.

²⁵ When Peter was about to enter Cornelius' house, Cornelius met him, bowed down, and worshiped Peter.

²⁶ But Peter made him get up. He told him, "Stand up! I'm only a man."

²⁷ As Peter talked, he entered Cornelius' house and found that many people had gathered.

²⁸ He said to them, "You understand how wrong it is for a Jewish man to associate or visit with anyone of another race. But God has shown me that I should no longer call anyone impure or unclean.

²⁹ That is why I didn't object to coming here when you sent for me. I want to know why you sent for me."

³⁰ Cornelius answered, "Four days ago I was praying at home. It was at this same time, three o'clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man dressed in radiant clothes stood in front of me.

³¹ He said to me, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and has remembered your gifts to the poor.

³² So send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter. He's a guest in the home of Simon, a leatherworker who lives by the sea.'

³³ So I sent for you immediately. Thank you for coming. All of us are here now in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has ordered you to say."

³⁴ Then Peter said, "Now I understand that God doesn't play favorites.

³⁵ Rather, whoever respects God and does what is right is acceptable to him in any nation.

³⁶ God sent his word to the people of Israel and brought them the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ. This Jesus Christ is everyone's Lord.

³⁷ You know what happened throughout Judea. Everything began in Galilee after John spread the news about baptism.

³⁸ You know that God anointed Jesus from Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Jesus went everywhere and did good things, such as healing everyone who was under the devil's power. Jesus did these things because God was with him.

³⁹ We can testify to everything Jesus did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. People hung him on a cross and killed him,

⁴⁰ but God brought him back to life on the third day. God didn't show him

⁴¹ to all the people. He showed Jesus to witnesses, apostles he had already chosen. We apostles are those men who ate and drank with Jesus after he came back to life.

⁴² He ordered us to warn the people, 'God has appointed Jesus to judge the living and the dead.'

⁴³ In addition, all the prophets testify that people who believe in the one named Jesus receive forgiveness for their sins through him."

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came to everyone who heard his message.

⁴⁵ All the believers who were circumcised and who had come with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured on people who were not Jewish.

⁴⁶ They heard these non-Jewish people speaking in other languages and praising God. Then Peter said, ⁴⁷ "No one can refuse to baptize these people with water. They have received the Holy Spirit in the same way that we did."

⁴⁸ So Peter ordered that they should be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for several days.

11 ¹ The apostles and the believers throughout Judea heard that people who were not Jewish had accepted God's word.

² However, when Peter went to Jerusalem, the believers who insisted on circumcision began to argue with him.

³ They said, "You went to visit men who were uncircumcised, and you even ate with them."

⁴ Then Peter began to explain to them point by point what had happened. He said, ⁵ "I was praying in the city of Joppa when I fell into a trance. I saw something like a large linen sheet being lowered by its four corners from the sky. The sheet came near me.

⁶ I looked into the sheet very closely and saw tame animals, wild animals, reptiles, and birds.

⁷ I also heard a voice telling me, 'Get up, Peter! Kill these animals, and eat them.'

⁸ "But I answered, 'I can't do that, Lord! I've never put anything impure or unclean into my mouth.'

⁹ "A voice spoke from heaven a second time, 'Don't say that the things which God has made clean are impure.'

¹⁰ This happened three times. Then everything was pulled back into the sky again.

¹¹ "At that moment three men arrived at the house where we were staying. They had been sent from Caesarea to find me.

¹² The Spirit told me to go with them without any hesitation. Six believers from Joppa went with me, and we visited Cornelius' home.

¹³ "He told us that he had seen an angel standing in his home. The angel told him, 'Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man whose name is Simon Peter.

¹⁴ He will give you a message that will save you and everyone in your home.'

¹⁵ "When I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came to these people. This was the same thing that happened to us in the beginning.

¹⁶ I remembered that the Lord had said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized by the Holy Spirit.'

¹⁷ When they believed, God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So who was I to interfere with God?"

¹⁸ When the others heard this, they had no further objections. They praised God by saying, "Then God has also led people who are not Jewish to turn to him so that they can change the way they think and act and have eternal life."

¹⁹ Some of the believers who were scattered by the trouble that broke out following Stephen's death went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and the city of Antioch. They spoke God's word only to Jewish people.

²⁰ But other believers, who were from Cyprus and Cyrene, arrived in Antioch. They started to spread the Good News about the Lord Jesus to Greeks.

²¹ The Lord's power was with his followers, and a large number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

²² After the news about Antioch reached the church in Jerusalem, Barnabas was sent to Antioch.

²³ When he arrived there, he was pleased to see what God had done for them out of kindness. So he encouraged all the people to remain solidly committed to the Lord.

²⁴ Barnabas was a dependable man, and he was full of the Holy Spirit and faith. A large crowd believed in the Lord.

²⁵ Then Barnabas left Antioch to go to the city of Tarsus to look for Saul.

²⁶ After finding Saul, Barnabas brought him back to Antioch. Barnabas and Saul met with the church in Antioch for a whole year and taught a large group of people. The disciples were called Christians for the first time in the city of Antioch.

²⁷ At that time some prophets came from Jerusalem to the city of Antioch.

²⁸ One of them was named Agabus. Through the Spirit Agabus predicted that a severe famine would affect the entire world. This happened while Claudius was emperor.

²⁹ All the disciples in Antioch decided to contribute whatever they could afford to help the believers living in Judea.

³⁰ The disciples did this and sent their contribution with Barnabas and Saul to the leaders in Jerusalem.

12 ¹ About that time King Herod devoted his attention to mistreating certain members of the church.

² He had James, the brother of John, executed.

³ When he saw how this pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter too. This happened during the days of Unleavened Bread.

⁴ After capturing Peter, Herod had him thrown into prison with sixteen soldiers in squads of four to guard him. Herod wanted to bring Peter to trial in front of the people after Passover.

⁵ So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was praying very hard to God for him.

⁶ The night before Herod was going to bring Peter to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers. His hands were bound with two chains, and guards were in front of the door. They were watching the prison.

⁷ Suddenly, an angel from the Lord stood near Peter, and his cell was filled with light. The angel nudged Peter's side, woke him up, and said, "Hurry! Get up!" At that moment the chains fell from Peter's hands.

⁸ The angel told him, "Put your shoes on, and get ready to go!" Peter did this. Then the angel told him, "Put your coat on, and follow me."

⁹ Peter followed the angel out of the cell. He didn't realize that what the angel was doing was actually happening. He thought he was seeing a vision.

¹⁰ They passed the first and second guardposts and came to the iron gate that led into the city. This gate opened by itself for them, so they went outside and up the street. The angel suddenly left Peter.

¹¹ When Peter came to his senses, he said, "Now I'm sure that the Lord sent his angel to rescue me from Herod and from everything the Jewish people are expecting to happen to me."

¹³ Peter knocked on the door of the entryway, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.

¹⁴ When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so happy that instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and reported, "Peter is standing at the door!"

¹⁵ The people told her, "You're crazy!" But she insisted that Peter was at the door. They said, "It has to be his angel."

¹⁶ But Peter kept knocking. When they opened the door, they were shocked to see him.

¹⁷ Peter motioned with his hand to quiet them down and told them how the Lord had taken him out of prison.

He added, "Tell James and the other believers about this." Then he left and went somewhere else.

¹⁸ In the morning the soldiers were in an uproar over what had happened to Peter.

¹⁹ Herod searched for Peter but couldn't find him. So he questioned the guards and gave orders to have them executed. Then Herod left Judea and went to Caesarea, where he stayed for a while.

²⁰ Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They were going to meet with Herod. They had agreed on what they wanted to do: They enlisted the help of Blastus to ask Herod for terms of peace. This was because their cities depended on Herod for their food supply. (Blastus was in charge of the king's living quarters.)

²¹ The appointed day came. Herod, wearing his royal clothes, sat on his throne and began making a speech to them.

²² The people started shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"

²³ Immediately, an angel from the Lord killed Herod for not giving glory to God. Herod was eaten by maggots, and he died.

²⁴ But God's word continued to spread and win many followers.

²⁵ After Barnabas and Saul delivered the contribution to the leaders in Jerusalem, they returned to Antioch from Jerusalem. They brought John Mark with them.

13 ¹ Barnabas, Simeon (called the Black), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (a close friend of Herod since childhood), and Saul were prophets and teachers in the church in Antioch.

² While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for me. I want them to do the work for which I called them."

³ After fasting and praying, Simeon, Lucius, and Manaen placed their hands on Barnabas and Saul, and released them from their work in Antioch.

⁴ After Barnabas and Saul were sent by the Holy Spirit, they went to the city of Seleucia and from there sailed to the island of Cyprus.

⁵ Arriving in the city of Salamis, they began to spread God's word in the synagogues. John Mark had gone along to help them.

⁶ They went through the whole island as far as the city of Paphos. In Paphos they met a Jewish man named Barjesus. He was an astrologer who claimed to be a prophet.

⁷ He was associated with an intelligent man, Sergius Paulus, who was the governor of the island. The governor sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God.

⁸ Elymas, whose name means astrologer, opposed them and tried to distort the meaning of the faith so that the governor wouldn't believe.

⁹ But Saul, also known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit. He stared at Elymas

¹⁰ and said, "You are full of dirty tricks and schemes, you son of the devil! You hate everything that has God's approval. Quit trying to distort the truth about the way the Lord wants people to live.

¹¹ The Lord is against you now. For a while you will be blind, unable to see the light of day." Suddenly, Elymas couldn't see a thing. He tried to find people to lead him.

¹² When the governor saw what had happened, he believed. The Lord's teachings amazed him.

¹³ Paul and his men took a ship from Paphos and arrived in Perga, a city in Pamphylia. John Mark deserted them there and went back to Jerusalem.

¹⁴ Paul and Barnabas left Perga and arrived in Antioch, a city near Pisidia. On the day of worship they went into the synagogue and sat down.

¹⁵ After reading from Moses' Teachings and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent a message to Paul and Barnabas. The message said, "Brothers, if you have any words of encouragement for the people, feel free to speak."

¹⁶ Then Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and said, "Men of Israel and converts to Judaism, listen to me.

¹⁷ The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors and made them a strong nation while they lived as foreigners in Egypt. He used his powerful arm to bring them out of Egypt, ¹⁸ and he put up with them for about forty years in the desert.

¹⁹ Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to his people as an inheritance.

²⁰ He did all this in about four hundred and fifty years. "After that he gave his people judges until the time of the prophet Samuel.

²¹ "Then the people demanded a king, so God gave them Saul, son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin. After forty years

²² God removed Saul and made David their king. God spoke favorably about David. He said, 'I have found that David, son of Jesse, is a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.'

²³ "God had the Savior, Jesus, come to Israel from David's descendants, as he had promised.

²⁴ Before Jesus began his ministry, John the Baptizer told everyone in Israel about the baptism of repentance.

²⁵ When John was finishing his work, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I'm not the person you're looking for. He will come later. I'm not even good enough to untie his sandals.'

²⁶ "Brothers—descendants of Abraham and converts to Judaism—the message that God saves people was sent to us.

²⁷ The people who live in Jerusalem and their rulers didn't know who Jesus was. They didn't understand the prophets' messages, which are read every day of worship. So they condemned Jesus and fulfilled what the prophets had said.

²⁸ Although they couldn't find any good reason to kill him, they asked Pilate to have him executed.

²⁹ When they had finished doing everything that was written about him, they took him down from the cross and placed him in a tomb.

³⁰ But God brought him back to life,

³¹ and for many days he appeared to those who had come with him to Jerusalem from Galilee. These people are now witnesses and are testifying to the Jewish people about him.

³² We are telling you the Good News: What God promised our ancestors has happened.

³³ God has fulfilled the promise for us, their descendants, by bringing Jesus back to life. This is what Scripture says in the second psalm: 'You are my Son. Today I have become your Father.'

³⁴ "God stated that he brought Jesus back to life and that Jesus' body never decayed. He said, 'I will give you the enduring love promised to David.'

³⁵ Another psalm says, 'You will not allow your holy one to decay.'

³⁶ After doing God's will by serving the people of his time, David died. He was laid to rest with his ancestors, but his body decayed.

³⁷ However, the man God brought back to life had a body that didn't decay.

³⁸ "So, brothers, I'm telling you that through Jesus your sins can be forgiven. Sins kept you from receiving God's approval through Moses' Teachings.

³⁹ However, everyone who believes in Jesus receives God's approval.

⁴⁰ "Be careful, or what the prophets said may happen to you.

⁴¹ 'Look, you mockers! Be amazed and die! I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe even if it were reported to you!"

⁴² As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak on the same subject the next day of worship.

⁴³ When the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas. Paul and Barnabas talked with them and were persuading them to continue trusting God's good will.

⁴⁴ On the next day of worship, almost the whole city gathered to hear the Lord's word.

⁴⁵ When the Jews saw the crowds, they became very jealous. They used insulting language to contradict whatever Paul said.

⁴⁶ Paul and Barnabas told them boldly, "We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject the word and consider yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, we are now going to turn to people of other nations.

⁴⁷ The Lord gave us the following order: 'I have made you a light for the nations so that you would save people all over the world.'

⁴⁸ The people who were not Jews were pleased with what they heard and praised the Lord's word. Everyone who had been prepared for everlasting life believed.

⁴⁹ The word of the Lord spread throughout the whole region.

⁵⁰ But Jews stirred up devout women of high social standing and the officials of the city. These people started to persecute Paul and Barnabas and threw them out of their territory.

⁵¹ In protest against these people, Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet and went to the city of Iconium.

⁵² Meanwhile, the disciples in Antioch continued to be full of joy and the Holy Spirit.

14 ¹ The same thing happened in the city of Iconium. Paul and Barnabas went into the synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large crowd of Jews and Greeks believed.

² But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up some people who were not Jewish and poisoned their minds against the believers.

³ Paul and Barnabas stayed in the city of Iconium for a long time. They spoke boldly about the Lord, who confirmed their message about his good will by having them perform miracles and do amazing things.

⁴ But the people of Iconium were divided. Some were for the Jews, while others were for the apostles.

⁵ In the meantime, Paul and Barnabas found out that the non-Jewish people and the Jewish people with their rulers planned to attack them and stone them to death.

⁶ So they escaped to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding territory.

⁷ They spread the Good News there.

⁸ A man who was born lame was in Lystra. He was always sitting because he had never been able to walk.

⁹ He listened to what Paul was saying. Paul observed him closely and saw that the man believed he could be made well.

¹⁰ So Paul said in a loud voice, "Stand up." The man jumped up and began to walk.

¹¹ The crowds who saw what Paul had done shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come to us, and they look human."

¹² They addressed Barnabas as Zeus and Paul as Hermes because Paul did most of the talking.

¹⁴ When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they were very upset. They rushed into the crowd

¹⁵ and said, "Men, what are you doing? We're human beings like you. We're spreading the Good News to you to turn you away from these worthless gods to the living God. The living God made the sky, the land, the sea, and everything in them.

¹⁶ In the past God allowed all people to live as they pleased.

¹⁷ Yet, by doing good, he has given evidence of his existence. He gives you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons. He fills you with food and your lives with happiness."

¹⁸ Although Paul and Barnabas said these things, they hardly kept the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ However, Jews from the cities of Antioch and Iconium arrived in Lystra and won the people over. They tried to stone Paul to death and dragged him out of the city when they thought that he was dead.

²⁰ But when the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day Paul and Barnabas left for the city of Derbe.

²² They strengthened the disciples in these cities and encouraged the disciples to remain faithful. Paul and Barnabas told them, "We must suffer a lot to enter the kingdom of God."

²³ They had the disciples in each church choose spiritual leaders, and with prayer and fasting they entrusted the leaders to the Lord in whom they believed.

²⁴ After they had gone through Pisidia, they went to Pamphylia.

²⁵ They spoke the message in the city of Perga and went to the city of Attalia.

²⁶ From Attalia they took a boat and headed home to the city of Antioch in Syria. (In Antioch they had been entrusted to God's care for the work they had now finished.)

²⁷ When they arrived, they called the members of the church together. They reported everything God had done through them, especially that he had given people who were not Jewish the opportunity to believe.

²⁸ They stayed for a long time with these disciples.

15 ¹ Some men came from Judea and started to teach believers that people can't be saved unless they are circumcised as Moses' Teachings require.

² Paul and Barnabas had a fierce dispute with these men. So Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were sent to Jerusalem to see the apostles and spiritual leaders about this claim.

³ The church sent Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem. As they were going through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told the whole story of how non-Jewish people were turning to God. This story brought great joy to all the believers.

⁴ The church in Jerusalem, the apostles, and the spiritual leaders welcomed Paul and Barnabas when they arrived. Paul and Barnabas reported everything that God had done through them.

⁵ But some believers from the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, "People who are not Jewish must be circumcised and ordered to follow Moses' Teachings."

⁶ The apostles and spiritual leaders met to consider this statement.

⁷ After a lot of debating, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know what happened some time ago. God chose me so that people who aren't Jewish could hear the Good News and believe.

⁸ God, who knows everyone's thoughts, showed that he approved of people who aren't Jewish by giving them the Holy Spirit as he gave the Holy Spirit to us.

⁹ God doesn't discriminate between Jewish and non-Jewish people. He has cleansed non-Jewish people through faith as he has cleansed us Jews.

¹⁰ So why are you testing God? You're putting a burden on the disciples, a burden neither our ancestors nor we can carry.

¹¹ We certainly believe that the Lord Jesus saves us the same way that he saves them—through his kindness."

¹² The whole crowd was silent. They listened to Barnabas and Paul tell about all the miracles and amazing things that God had done through them among non-Jewish people.

¹³ After they finished speaking, James responded, "Brothers, listen to me.

¹⁴ Simon has explained how God first showed his concern by taking from non-Jewish people those who would honor his name.

¹⁵ This agrees with what the prophets said. Scripture says,

¹⁶ 'Afterwards, I will return. I will set up David's fallen tent again. I will restore its ruined places again. I will set it up again

¹⁷ so that the survivors and all the people who aren't Jewish over whom my name is spoken, may search for the Lord, declares the Lord.

¹⁸ He is the one who will do these things that have always been known!'

¹⁹ "So I've decided that we shouldn't trouble non-Jewish people who are turning to God.

²⁰ Instead, we should write a letter telling them to keep away from things polluted by false gods, from sexual sins, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from eating bloody meat.

²¹ After all, Moses' words have been spread to every city for generations. His teachings are read in synagogues on every day of worship."

²² Then the apostles, the spiritual leaders, and the whole church decided to choose some of their men to send with Paul and Barnabas to the city of Antioch. They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas, who were leaders among the believers.

²³ They wrote this letter for them to deliver: From the apostles and the spiritual leaders, your brothers. To their non-Jewish brothers and sisters in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Dear brothers and sisters, ²⁴ We have heard that some individuals who came from us have confused you with statements that disturb you. We did not authorize these men to speak.

²⁵ So we have come to a unanimous decision that we should choose men and send them to you with our dear Barnabas and Paul.

²⁶ Barnabas and Paul have dedicated their lives to our Lord, the one named Jesus Christ.

²⁷ We have sent Judas and Silas to report to you on our decision.

²⁸ The Holy Spirit and we have agreed not to place any additional burdens on you. Do only what is necessary

²⁹ by keeping away from food sacrificed to false gods, from eating bloody meat, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual sins. If you avoid these things, you will be doing what's right. Farewell!

³⁰ So the men were sent on their way and arrived in the city of Antioch. They gathered the congregation together and delivered the letter.

³¹ When the people read the letter, they were pleased with the encouragement it brought them.

³² Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, spoke a long time to encourage and strengthen the believers.

³³ After Judas and Silas had stayed in Antioch for some time, the congregation sent them back to Jerusalem with friendly greetings to those who had sent them.

³⁴ (OMITTED TEXT)

³⁵ Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught people about the Lord's word and spread the Good News.

³⁶ After a while Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back to every city where we spread the Lord's word. We'll visit the believers to see how they're doing."

³⁷ Barnabas wanted to take John Mark along.

³⁸ However, Paul didn't think it was right to take a person like him along. John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to work.

³⁹ Paul and Barnabas disagreed so sharply that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed to the island of Cyprus.

⁴⁰ Paul chose Silas and left after the believers entrusted him to the Lord's care.

⁴¹ Paul went through the provinces of Syria and Cilicia and strengthened the churches.

16 ¹ Paul arrived in the city of Derbe and then went to Lystra, where a disciple named Timothy lived. Timothy's mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was Greek.

² The believers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of Timothy.

³ Paul wanted Timothy to go with him. So he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in those places and because he knew that Timothy's father was Greek.

⁴ As they went through the cities, they told people about the decisions that the apostles and spiritual leaders in Jerusalem had made for the people.

⁵ So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew in numbers every day.

⁶ Paul and Silas went through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia because the Holy Spirit kept them from speaking the word in the province of Asia.

⁷ They went to the province of Mysia and tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus wouldn't allow this.

⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went to the city of Troas.

⁹ During the night Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia. The man urged Paul, "Come to Macedonia to help us."

¹⁰ As soon as Paul had seen the vision, we immediately looked for a way to go to Macedonia. We concluded that God had called us to tell the people of Macedonia about the Good News.

¹¹ So we took a ship from Troas and sailed straight to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to the city of Neapolis,

¹³ On the day of worship we went out of the city to a place along the river where we thought Jewish people gathered for prayer. We sat down and began talking to the women who had gathered there.

¹⁴ A woman named Lydia was present. She was a convert to Judaism from the city of Thyatira and sold purple dye for a living. She was listening because the Lord made her willing to pay attention to what Paul said.

¹⁵ When Lydia and her family were baptized, she invited us to stay at her home. She said, "If you're convinced that I believe in the Lord, then stay at my home." She insisted. So we did.

¹⁶ One day when we were going to the place of prayer, a female servant met us. She was possessed by an evil spirit that told fortunes. She made a lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes.

¹⁷ She used to follow Paul and shout, "These men are servants of the Most High God. They're telling you how you can be saved."

¹⁸ She kept doing this for many days. Paul became annoyed, turned to the evil spirit, and said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" As Paul said this, the evil spirit left her.

¹⁹ When her owners realized that their hope of making money was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them to the authorities in the public square.

²⁰ In front of the Roman officials, they said, "These men are stirring up a lot of trouble in our city. They're Jews, ²¹ and they're advocating customs that we can't accept or practice as Roman citizens."

²² The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas. Then the officials tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered the guards to beat them with sticks.

²³ After they had hit Paul and Silas many times, they threw them in jail and ordered the jailer to keep them under tight security.

²⁴ So the jailer followed these orders and put Paul and Silas into solitary confinement with their feet in leg irons.

²⁵ Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God. The other prisoners were listening to them.

²⁶ Suddenly, a violent earthquake shook the foundations of the jail. All the doors immediately flew open, and all the prisoners' chains came loose.

²⁷ The jailer woke up and saw the prison doors open. Thinking the prisoners had escaped, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself.

²⁸ But Paul shouted as loudly as he could, "Don't hurt yourself! We're all here!"

²⁹ The jailer asked for torches and rushed into the jail. He was trembling as he knelt in front of Paul and Silas.

³⁰ Then he took Paul and Silas outside and asked, "Sirs, what do I have to do to be saved?"

³¹ They answered, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you and your family will be saved."

³² They spoke the Lord's word to the jailer and everyone in his home.

³³ At that hour of the night, the jailer washed Paul and Silas' wounds. The jailer and his entire family were baptized immediately.

³⁴ He took Paul and Silas upstairs into his home and gave them something to eat. He and his family were thrilled to be believers in God.

³⁵ In the morning the Roman officials sent guards who told the jailer, "You can release those men now."

³⁶ The jailer reported this order to Paul by saying, "The officials have sent word to release you. So you can leave peacefully now."

³⁷ But Paul told the guards, "Roman officials have had us beaten publicly without a trial and have thrown us in jail, even though we're Roman citizens. Now are they going to throw us out secretly? There's no way they're going to get away with that! Have them escort us out!"

³⁸ The guards reported to the officials what Paul had said. When the Roman officials heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid.

³⁹ So the officials went to the jail and apologized to Paul and Silas. As the officials escorted Paul and Silas out of the jail, they asked them to leave the city.

⁴⁰ After Paul and Silas left the jail, they went to Lydia's house. They met with the believers, encouraged them, and then left.

17 ¹ Paul and Silas traveled through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to the city of Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue.

² As usual, Paul went into the synagogue. On three consecutive days of worship, he had discussions about Scripture with the synagogue members.

³ He explained and showed them that the Messiah had to suffer, die, and come back to life, and that Jesus, the person he talked about, was this Messiah.

⁴ Some of the Jews were persuaded to join Paul and Silas, especially a large group of Greeks who had converted to Judaism and the wives of many prominent men.

⁵ Then the Jews became jealous. They took some low-class characters who hung around the public square, formed a mob, and started a riot in the city. They attacked Jason's home and searched it for Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.

⁶ When they didn't find Paul and Silas, they dragged Jason and some other believers in front of the city officials. They shouted, "Those men who have made trouble all over the world are now here in Thessalonica, ⁷ and Jason has welcomed them as his guests. All of them oppose the emperor's decrees by saying that there is another king, whose name is Jesus."

⁸ The crowd and the officials were upset when they heard this.

⁹ But after they had made Jason and the others post bond, they let them go.

¹⁰ Immediately when night came, the believers sent Paul and Silas to the city of Berea. When Paul and Silas arrived in the city of Berea, they entered the synagogue.

¹¹ The people of Berea were more open-minded than the people of Thessalonica. They were very willing to receive God's message, and every day they carefully examined the Scriptures to see if what Paul said was true.

¹² Many of them became believers, and quite a number of them were prominent Greek men and women.

¹³ But when the Jews in Thessalonica found out that Paul was also spreading God's word in Berea, they went there to upset and confuse the people.

¹⁴ The believers immediately sent Paul to the seacoast, but Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea.

¹⁵ The men who escorted Paul took him all the way to the city of Athens. When the men left Athens, they took instructions back to Silas and Timothy to join Paul as soon as possible.

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens, he saw that the city had statues of false gods everywhere. This upset him.

¹⁷ He held discussions in the synagogue with Jews and converts to Judaism. He also held discussions every day in the public square with anyone who happened to be there.

¹⁸ Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers had discussions with him. Some asked, "What is this babbling fool trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be speaking about foreign gods." The philosophers said these things because Paul was telling the Good News about Jesus and saying that people would come back to life.

¹⁹ Then they brought Paul to the city court, the Areopagus, and asked, "Could you tell us these new ideas that you're teaching?"

²⁰ Some of the things you say sound strange to us. So we would like to know what they mean."

²¹ Everyone who lived in Athens looked for opportunities to tell or hear something new and unusual.

²² Paul stood in the middle of the court and said, "Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious.

²³ As I was going through your city and looking closely at the objects you worship, I noticed an altar with this written on it: 'To an unknown god.' I'm telling you about the unknown god you worship.

²⁴ The God who made the universe and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth. He doesn't live in shrines made by humans, ²⁵ and he isn't served by humans as if he needed anything. He gives everyone life, breath, and everything they have.

²⁶ From one man he has made every nation of humanity to live all over the earth. He has given them the seasons of the year and the boundaries within which to live.

²⁷ He has done this so that they would look for God, somehow reach for him, and find him. In fact, he is never far from any one of us.

²⁸ Certainly, we live, move, and exist because of him. As some of your poets have said, 'We are God's children.'

²⁹ So if we are God's children, we shouldn't think that the divine being is like an image made from gold, silver, or stone, an image that is the product of human imagination and skill.

³⁰ "God overlooked the times when people didn't know any better. But now he commands everyone everywhere to turn to him and change the way they think and act.

³¹ He has set a day when he is going to judge the world with justice, and he will use a man he has appointed to do this. God has given proof to everyone that he will do this by bringing that man back to life."

³² When the people of the court heard that a person had come back to life, some began joking about it, while others said, "We'll hear you talk about this some other time."

³⁴ Some men joined him and became believers. With them were Dionysius, who was a member of the court, and a woman named Damaris, and some other people.

18 ¹ After this, Paul left Athens and went to the city of Corinth.

² In Corinth he met a Jewish man named Aquila and his wife Priscilla.

Aquila had been born in Pontus, and they had recently come from Italy because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them,
³ and because they made tents for a living as he did, he stayed with them and they worked together.

⁴ On every day of worship, Paul would discuss Scripture in the synagogue. He tried to win over Jews and Greeks who had converted to Judaism.

⁵ But when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted all his time to teaching the word of God. He assured the Jews that Jesus is the Messiah.

⁶ But they opposed him and insulted him. So Paul shook the dust from his clothes and told them, "You're responsible for your own death. I'm innocent. From now on I'm going to people who are not Jewish."

⁷ Then he left the synagogue and went to the home of a man named Titius Justus, who was a convert to Judaism. His house was next door to the synagogue.

⁸ The synagogue leader Crispus and his whole family believed in the Lord. Many Corinthians who heard Paul believed and were baptized.

⁹ One night the Lord said to Paul in a vision, "Don't be afraid to speak out! Don't be silent!

¹⁰ I'm with you. No one will attack you or harm you. I have many people in this city."

¹¹ Paul lived in Corinth for a year and a half and taught the word of God to them.

¹² While Gallio was governor of Greece, the Jews had one thought in mind. They attacked Paul and brought him to court.

¹³ They said, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are against Moses' Teachings."

¹⁴ Paul was about to answer when Gallio said to the Jews, "If there were some kind of misdemeanor or crime involved, reason would demand that I put up with you Jews.

¹⁵ But since you're disputing words, names, and your own teachings, you'll have to take care of that yourselves. I don't want to be a judge who gets involved in those things."

¹⁶ So Gallio had them forced out of his court.

¹⁷ Then all the governor's officers took Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio couldn't have cared less.

¹⁸ After staying in Corinth quite a while longer, Paul left for Ephesus. Priscilla and Aquila went with him. In the city of Cenchrea, Aquila had his hair cut, since he had taken a vow. From Cenchrea they took a boat headed for Syria ¹⁹ and arrived in the city of Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. Paul went into the synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.

²⁰ The Jews asked him to stay longer, but he refused.

²¹ As he left, he told them, "I'll come back to visit you if God wants me to." Paul took a boat from Ephesus ²² and arrived in the city of Caesarea. He went to Jerusalem, greeted the church, and went back to the city of Antioch.

²³ After spending some time in Antioch, Paul went through the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, where he strengthened the faith of all the disciples.

²⁴ A Jew named Apollos, who had been born in Alexandria, arrived in the city of Ephesus. He was an eloquent speaker and knew how to use the Scriptures in a powerful way.

²⁵ He had been instructed in the Lord's way and spoke enthusiastically. He accurately taught about Jesus but knew only about the baptism John performed.

²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him home with them and explained God's way to him more accurately.

²⁷ When Apollos wanted to travel to Greece, the believers in Ephesus encouraged him. They wrote to the disciples in Greece to tell them to welcome him. When he arrived in Greece, God's kindness enabled him to help the believers a great deal.

²⁸ In public Apollos helped them by clearly showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah and that the Jews were wrong.

19 ¹ While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior provinces to get to the city of Ephesus.

He met some disciples in Ephesus

² and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They answered him, "No, we've never even heard of the Holy Spirit."

³ Paul asked them, "What kind of baptism did you have?" They answered, "John's baptism."

⁴ Paul said, "John's baptism was a baptism of repentance. John told people to believe in Jesus, who was coming later."

⁵ After they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

⁶ When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came to them, and they began to talk in other languages and to speak what God had revealed.

⁷ About twelve men were in the group.

⁸ For three months Paul would go into the synagogue and speak boldly. He had discussions with people to convince them about the kingdom of God.

⁹ But when some people became stubborn, refused to believe, and had nothing good to say in front of the crowd about the way of Christ, he left them. He took his disciples and held daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

¹⁰ This continued for two years so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord.

¹¹ God worked unusual miracles through Paul.

¹² People would take handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched Paul's skin to those who were sick. Their sicknesses would be cured, and evil spirits would leave them.

¹³ Some Jews used to travel from place to place and force evil spirits out of people. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to force evil spirits out of those who were possessed. These Jews would say, "I order you to come out in the name of Jesus, whom Paul talks about."

¹⁴ Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

¹⁵ But the evil spirit answered them, "I know Jesus, and I'm acquainted with Paul, but who are you?"

¹⁶ Then the man possessed by the evil spirit attacked them. He beat them up so badly that they ran out of that house naked and wounded.

¹⁷ All the Jews and Greeks living in the city of Ephesus heard about this. All of them were filled with awe for the name of the Lord Jesus and began to speak very highly about it.

¹⁸ Many believers openly admitted their involvement with magical spells and told all the details.

¹⁹ Many of those who were involved in the occult gathered their books and burned them in front of everyone. They added up the cost of these books and found that they were worth 50,000 silver coins.

²⁰ In this powerful way the word of the Lord was spreading and gaining strength.

²¹ After all these things had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem by traveling through Macedonia and Greece. He said, "After I have been there, I must see Rome."

²² So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed longer in the province of Asia.

²³ During that time a serious disturbance concerning the way of Christ broke out in the city of Ephesus.

²⁴ Demetrius, a silversmith, was in the business of making silver models of the temple of Artemis. His business brought a huge profit for the men who worked for him.

²⁵ He called a meeting of his workers and others who did similar work. Demetrius said, "Men, you know that we're earning a good income from this business, ²⁶ and you see and hear what this man Paul has done. He has won over a large crowd that follows him not only in Ephesus but also throughout the province of Asia. He tells people that gods made by humans are not gods.

²⁷ There's a danger that people will discredit our line of work, and there's a danger that people will think that the temple of the great goddess Artemis is nothing. Then she whom all Asia and the rest of the world worship will be robbed of her glory."

²⁸ When Demetrius' workers and the others heard this, they became furious and began shouting, "Artemis of the Ephesians is great!"

²⁹ The confusion spread throughout the city, and the people had one thought in mind as they rushed into the theater. They grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus, the Macedonians who traveled with Paul, and they dragged the two men into the theater with them.

³⁰ Paul wanted to go into the crowd, but his disciples wouldn't let him.

³¹ Even some officials who were from the province of Asia and who were Paul's friends sent messengers to urge him not to risk going into the theater.

³² Some people shouted one thing while others shouted something else. The crowd was confused. Most of the people didn't even know why they had come together.

³³ Some people concluded that Alexander was the cause, so the Jews pushed him to the front. Alexander motioned with his hand to quiet the people because he wanted to defend himself in front of them.

³⁴ But when they recognized that Alexander was a Jew, everyone started to shout in unison, "Artemis of the Ephesians is great!" They kept doing this for about two hours.

³⁵ The city clerk finally quieted the crowd. Then he said, "Citizens of Ephesus, everyone knows that this city of the Ephesians is the keeper of the temple of the great Artemis. Everyone knows that Ephesus is the keeper of the statue that fell down from Zeus.

³⁶ No one can deny this. So you have to be quiet and not do anything foolish.

³⁷ The men you brought here don't rob temples or insult our goddess.

³⁸ If Demetrius and the men who work for him have a legal complaint against anyone, we have special days and officials to hold court. That's where they should bring charges against each other.

³⁹ If you want anything else, you must settle the matter in a legal assembly.

⁴⁰ At this moment we run the risk of being accused of rioting today for no reason. We won't be able to explain this mob."

⁴¹ After saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

20 ¹ When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the disciples, encouraged them, said goodbye, and left for Macedonia.

² He went through that region and spoke many words of encouragement to the people. Then he went to Greece

³ and stayed there for three months. When Paul was going to board a ship for Syria, he found out that the Jews were plotting to kill him. So he decided to go back through Macedonia.

⁴ Sopater (son of Pyrrhus) from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia accompanied Paul.

⁵ All these men went ahead and were waiting for us in Troas.

⁶ After the Festival of Unleavened Bread, we boarded a ship at Philippi. Five days later we joined them in Troas and stayed there for seven days.

⁷ On Sunday we met to break bread. Paul was discussing Scripture with the people. Since he intended to leave the next day, he kept talking until midnight.

⁸ (Many lamps were lit in the upstairs room where we were meeting.)

⁹ A young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window. As Paul was talking on and on, Eutychus was gradually falling asleep. Finally, overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was dead when they picked him up.

¹⁰ Paul went to him, took him into his arms, and said, "Don't worry! He's alive!"

¹¹ Then Eutychus went upstairs again, broke the bread, and ate. Paul talked with the people for a long time, until sunrise, and then left.

¹² The people took the boy home. They were greatly relieved that he was alive.

¹³ We went ahead to the ship and sailed for the city of Assos. At Assos, we were going to pick up Paul. He had made these arrangements, since he had planned to walk overland to Assos.

¹⁴ When Paul met us in Assos, we took him on board and went to the city of Mitylene.

¹⁷ From Miletus Paul sent messengers to the city of Ephesus and called the spiritual leaders of the church to meet with him in Miletus.

¹⁸ When they were with him, he said to them, "You know how I spent all my time with you from the first day I arrived in the province of Asia.

¹⁹ I humbly served the Lord, often with tears in my eyes. I served the Lord during the difficult times I went through when the Jews plotted against me.

²⁰ I didn't avoid telling you anything that would help you, and I didn't avoid teaching you publicly and from house to house.

²¹ I warned Jews and Greeks to change the way they think and act and to believe in our Lord Jesus.

²² "I am determined to go to Jerusalem now. I don't know what will happen to me there.

²³ However, the Holy Spirit warns me in every city that imprisonment and suffering are waiting for me.

²⁴ But I don't place any value on my own life. I want to finish the race I'm running. I want to carry out the mission I received from the Lord Jesus—the mission of testifying to the Good News of God's kindness.

²⁵ "Now I know that none of you whom I told about the kingdom of God will see me again.

²⁶ Therefore, I declare to you today that I am not responsible for the spiritual death of any of you.

²⁷ I didn't avoid telling you the whole plan of God.

²⁸ Pay attention to yourselves and to the entire flock in which the Holy Spirit has placed you as bishops to be shepherds for God's church which he acquired with his own blood.

²⁹ I know that fierce wolves will come to you after I leave, and they won't spare the flock.

³⁰ Some of your own men will come forward and say things that distort the truth. They will do this to lure disciples into following them.

³¹ So be alert! Remember that I instructed each of you for three years, day and night, at times with tears in my eyes.

³² "I am now entrusting you to God and to his message that tells how kind he is. That message can help you grow and can give you the inheritance that is shared by all of God's holy people.

³³ "I never wanted anyone's silver, gold, or clothes.

³⁴ You know that I worked to support myself and those who were with me.

³⁵ I have given you an example that by working hard like this we should help the weak. We should remember the words that the Lord Jesus said, 'Giving gifts is more satisfying than receiving them.'"

³⁶ When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down and prayed with all of them.

³⁷ Everyone cried a lot as they put their arms around Paul and kissed him.

³⁸ The thought of not seeing Paul again hurt them most of all. Then they took Paul to the ship.

21 ¹ When we finally left them, we sailed straight to the island of Cos. The next day we sailed to the island of Rhodes and from there to the city of Patara.

² In Patara, we found a ship that was going to Phoenicia, so we went aboard and sailed away.

³ We could see the island of Cyprus as we passed it on our left and sailed to Syria. We landed at the city of Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

⁴ In Tyre we searched for the disciples. After we found them, we stayed there for seven days. The Spirit had the disciples tell Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

⁵ When our time was up, we started on our way. All of them with their wives and children accompanied us out of the city. We knelt on the beach, prayed, ⁶ and said goodbye to each other. Then we went aboard the ship, and the disciples went back home.

⁷ Our sea travel ended when we sailed from Tyre to the city of Ptolemais. We greeted the believers in Ptolemais and spent the day with them.

⁸ The next day we went to Philip's home in Caesarea and stayed with him. He was a missionary and one of the seven men who helped the apostles.

⁹ Philip had four unmarried daughters who had the ability to speak what God had revealed.

¹⁰ After we had been there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus arrived from Judea.

¹¹ During his visit he took Paul's belt and tied his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man who owns this belt. Then they will hand him over to people who are not Jewish.'"

¹² When we heard this, we and the believers who lived there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

¹³ Then Paul replied, "Why are you crying like this and breaking my heart? I'm ready not only to be tied up in Jerusalem but also to die there for the sake of the Lord, the one named Jesus."

¹⁴ When Paul could not be persuaded, we dropped the issue and said, "May the Lord's will be done."

¹⁵ After that, we got ready to go to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us. They took us to Mnason's home, where we would be staying. Mnason was from the island of Cyprus and was one of the first disciples.

¹⁷ When we arrived in Jerusalem, the believers welcomed us warmly.

¹⁸ The next day Paul went with us to visit James. All the spiritual leaders were present.

¹⁹ After greeting them, Paul related everything God had done through his work with non-Jewish people.

²⁰ When the spiritual leaders heard about everything, they praised God. They said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews are now believers, and all of them are deeply committed to Moses' Teachings.

²¹ But they have been told that you teach all the Jews living among non-Jewish people to abandon Moses. They claim that you tell them not to circumcise their children or follow Jewish customs.

²² What should we do about this? They will certainly hear that you're in town.

²³ So follow our advice. We have four men who have made a vow to God.

²⁴ Take these men, go through the purification ceremony with them, and pay the expenses to shave their heads. Then everyone will know that what they've been told about you isn't true. Instead, they'll see that you carefully follow Moses' Teachings.

²⁵ "To clarify this matter, we have written non-Jewish believers a letter with our decision. We told them that they should not eat food sacrificed to false gods, bloody meat, or the meat of strangled animals. They also should not commit sexual sins."

²⁶ The next day, Paul took the men and went through the purification ceremony with them. Then he went into the temple courtyard to announce the time when the purification would be over and the sacrifice would be offered for each of them.

²⁷ When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the temple courtyard. They stirred up the whole crowd and grabbed Paul.

²⁸ Then they began shouting, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere to turn against the Jewish people, Moses' Teachings, and this temple. He has even brought Greeks into the temple courtyard and has made this holy place unclean."

²⁹ They had seen Trophimus from Ephesus with him in the city earlier and thought Paul had taken him into the temple courtyard.

³¹ As the people were trying to kill Paul, the officer in charge of the Roman soldiers received a report that all Jerusalem was rioting.

³² Immediately, he took some soldiers and officers and charged the crowd. When the crowd saw the officer and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³ Then the officer went to Paul, grabbed him, and ordered him to be tied up with two chains. The officer asked who Paul was and what he had done.

³⁴ Some of the crowd shouted one thing, while others shouted something else. The officer couldn't get any facts because of the noise and confusion, so he ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks.

³⁵ When Paul came to the stairs of the barracks, the crowd was so violent that the soldiers had to carry him.

³⁶ The mob was behind them shouting, "Kill him!"

³⁷ As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the officer, "May I say something to you?" The officer replied to Paul, "Can you speak Greek?"

³⁸ Aren't you the Egyptian who started a revolution not long ago and led four thousand terrorists into the desert?"

³⁹ Paul answered, "I'm a Jew, a citizen from the well-known city of Tarsus in Cilicia. I'm asking you to let me talk to the people."

⁴⁰ The officer gave Paul permission to speak. So Paul stood on the stairs of the barracks and motioned with his hand for the people to be quiet. When the mob was silent, Paul spoke to them in the Hebrew language.

22 ¹ "Brothers and fathers, listen as I now present my case to you."

² When the mob heard him speak to them in Hebrew, they became even more quiet. Then Paul continued, ³ "I'm a Jew. I was born and raised in the city of Tarsus in Cilicia and received my education from Gamaliel here in Jerusalem. My education was in the strict rules handed down by our ancestors. I was as devoted to God as all of you are today.

⁴ I persecuted people who followed the way of Christ: I tied up men and women and put them into prison until they were executed.

⁵ The chief priest and the entire council of our leaders can prove that I did this. In fact, they even gave me letters to take to the Jewish community in the city of Damascus. I was going there to tie up believers and bring them back to Jerusalem to punish them.

⁶ "But as I was on my way and approaching the city of Damascus about noon, a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.

⁷ I fell to the ground and heard a voice asking me, 'Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?'

⁸ "I answered, 'Who are you, sir?'
"The person told me, 'I'm Jesus from Nazareth, the one you're persecuting.'

⁹ "The men who were with me saw the light but didn't understand what the person who was speaking to me said.

¹⁰ "Then I asked, 'What do you want me to do, Lord?' "The Lord told me, 'Get up! Go into the city of Damascus, and you'll be told everything I've arranged for you to do.'

¹¹ "I was blind because the light had been so bright. So the men who were with me led me into the city of Damascus.

¹² "A man named Ananias lived in Damascus. He was a devout person who followed Moses' Teachings. All the Jews living in Damascus spoke highly of him.

¹³ He came to me, stood beside me, and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' At that moment my sight came back and I could see Ananias.

¹⁴ "Ananias said, 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see the one who has God's approval, and to hear him speak to you.'

¹⁵ You will be his witness and will tell everyone what you have seen and heard.

¹⁶ What are you waiting for now? Get up! Be baptized, and have your sins washed away as you call on his name.'

¹⁷ "After that, I returned to Jerusalem. While I was praying in the temple courtyard, I fell into a trance

¹⁸ and saw the Lord. He told me, 'Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem immediately. The people here won't accept your testimony about me.'

¹⁹ "I said, 'Lord, people here know that I went from synagogue to synagogue to imprison and whip those who believe in you.

²⁰ When Stephen, who witnessed about you, was being killed, I was standing there. I approved of his death and guarded the coats of those who were murdering him.'

²¹ "But the Lord told me, 'Go! I'll send you on a mission. You'll go far away to people who aren't Jewish.'"

²² Up to that point the mob listened. Then they began to shout, "Kill him! The world doesn't need a man like this. He shouldn't have been allowed to live this long!"

²³ The mob was yelling, taking off their coats, and throwing dirt into the air.

²⁴ So the officer ordered the soldiers to take Paul into the barracks and told them to question Paul as they whipped him. The officer wanted to find out why the people were yelling at Paul like this.

²⁵ But when the soldiers had Paul stretch out to tie him to the whipping post with the straps, Paul asked the sergeant who was standing there, "Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn't had a trial?"

²⁶ When the sergeant heard this, he reported it to his commanding officer. The sergeant asked him, "What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen."

²⁷ The officer went to Paul and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" Paul answered, "Yes."

²⁸ The officer replied, "I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen." Paul replied, "But I was born a Roman citizen."

²⁹ Immediately, the soldiers who were going to question Paul stepped away from him. The officer was afraid when he found out that he had tied up a Roman citizen.

³⁰ The officer wanted to find out exactly what accusation the Jews had against Paul. So the officer released Paul the next day and ordered the chief priests and the entire Jewish council to meet.

Then the officer brought Paul and had him stand in front of them.

23 ¹ Paul stared at the Jewish council and said, "Brothers, my relationship with God has always given me a perfectly clear conscience."

² The chief priest Ananias ordered the men standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

³ Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you hypocrite! You sit there and judge me by Moses' Teachings and yet you break those teachings by ordering these men to strike me!"

⁴ The men standing near Paul said to him, "You're insulting God's chief priest!"

⁵ Paul answered, "Brothers, I didn't know that he is the chief priest. After all, Scripture says, 'Don't speak evil about a ruler of your people.'"

⁶ When Paul saw that some of them were Sadducees and others were Pharisees, he shouted in the council, "Brothers, I'm a Pharisee and a descendant of Pharisees. I'm on trial because I expect that the dead will come back to life."

⁷ After Paul said that, the Pharisees and Sadducees began to quarrel, and the men in the meeting were divided.

⁸ (The Sadducees say that the dead won't come back to life and that angels and spirits don't exist. The Pharisees believe in all these things.)

⁹ The shouting became very loud. Some of the scribes were Pharisees who argued their position forcefully. They said, "We don't find anything wrong with this man. Maybe a spirit or an angel actually spoke to him!"

¹⁰ The quarrel was becoming violent, and the officer was afraid that they would tear Paul to pieces. So the officer ordered his soldiers to drag Paul back to the barracks.

¹¹ The Lord stood near Paul the next night and said to him, "Don't lose your courage! You've told the truth about me in Jerusalem. Now you must tell the truth about me in Rome."

¹² In the morning the Jews formed a conspiracy. They asked God to curse them if they ate or drank anything before they had killed Paul.

¹³ More than forty men took part in this plot.

¹⁴ They went to the chief priests and leaders of the people and said, "We've asked God to curse us if we taste any food before we've killed Paul.

¹⁵ Here's our plan: You and the council must go to the Roman officer on the pretext that you need more information from Paul. You have to make it look as though you want to get more accurate information about him. We'll be ready to kill him before he gets to you."

¹⁶ But Paul's nephew heard about the ambush. He entered the barracks and told Paul.

¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the sergeants and told him, "Take this young man to the officer. He has something to tell him."

¹⁸ The sergeant took the young man to the officer and said, "The prisoner Paul called me. He asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you."

¹⁹ The officer took the young man by the arm, went where they could be alone, and asked him, "What do you have to tell me?"

²⁰ The young man answered, "The Jews have planned to ask you to bring Paul to the Jewish council tomorrow. They're going to make it look as though they want more accurate information about him.

²¹ Don't let them persuade you to do this. More than forty of them are planning to ambush him. They have asked God to curse them if they eat or drink anything before they have murdered him. They are ready now and are expecting you to promise that you will bring Paul."

²² The officer dismissed the young man and ordered him not to tell this information to anyone else.

²³ Then the officer summoned two of his sergeants and told them, "I want 200 infantrymen, 70 soldiers on horseback, and 200 soldiers with spears. Have them ready to go to Caesarea at nine o'clock tonight.

²⁴ Provide an animal for Paul to ride, and take him safely to Governor Felix."

²⁵ The officer wrote a letter to the governor with the following message:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias sends greetings to Your Excellency, Governor Felix:

²⁷ The Jews had seized this man and were going to murder him. When I found out that he was a Roman citizen, I went with my soldiers to rescue him.

²⁸ I wanted to know what they had against him. So I took him to their Jewish council

²⁹ and found their accusations had to do with disputes about Jewish teachings. He wasn't accused of anything for which he deserved to die or to be put into prison.

³⁰ Since I was informed that there was a plot against this man, I immediately sent him to you. I have also ordered his accusers to state their case against him in front of you.

³¹ So the infantrymen did as they had been ordered. They took Paul to the city of Antipatris during the night.

³² They returned to their barracks the next day and let the soldiers on horseback travel with Paul.

³³ When the soldiers arrived in the city of Caesarea with Paul, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

³⁴ After the governor had read the letter, he asked Paul which province he was from. When he found out that Paul was from the province of Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, "I'll hear your case when your accusers arrive." Then the governor gave orders to keep Paul under guard in Herod's palace.

24 ¹ Five days later the chief priest Ananias went to the city of Caesarea with some leaders of the people and an attorney named Tertullus.

They reported to the governor their charges against Paul.

² When Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him. He said to Felix, "Your Excellency, through your wise leadership we have lasting peace and reforms that benefit the people.

³ We appreciate what you've done in every way and in every place, and we want to thank you very much.

⁴ I don't want to keep you too long. Please listen to us. We will be brief.

⁵ We have found this man to be a troublemaker. He starts quarrels among all Jews throughout the world. He's a ringleader of the Nazarene sect.

⁶ He also entered the temple courtyard in a way that violates our tradition. So we arrested him.

⁷ (OMITTED TEXT)

⁸ When you cross-examine him, you'll be able to find out from him that our accusations are true."

⁹ The Jews supported Tertullus' accusations and asserted that everything Tertullus said was true.

¹⁰ The governor motioned for Paul to speak. Paul responded, "I know that you have been a judge over this nation for many years. So I'm pleased to present my case to you.

¹¹ You can verify for yourself that I went to Jerusalem to worship no more than twelve days ago.

¹² No one found me having a discussion with anyone in the temple courtyard or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues throughout the city.

¹³ These people cannot even prove their accusations to you.

¹⁴ But I'll admit to you that I'm a follower of the way of Christ, which they call a sect. This means that I serve our ancestors' God and believe everything written in Moses' Teachings and the Prophets.

¹⁵ I hope for the same thing my accusers do, that people with God's approval and those without it will come back to life.

¹⁶ With this belief I always do my best to have a clear conscience in the sight of God and people.

¹⁷ After many years I have come back to my people and brought gifts for the poor and offerings for God.

¹⁸ My accusers found me in the temple courtyard doing these things after I had gone through the purification ceremony. No crowd or noisy mob was present.

¹⁹ But some Jews from the province of Asia were there. They should be here in front of you to accuse me if they have anything against me.

²⁰ Otherwise, these men who are accusing me should tell what I was charged with when I stood in front of their council.

²¹ They could accuse me of only one thing. As I stood among them, I shouted, 'I'm being tried in front of you because I believe that the dead will come back to life.'

²² Felix knew the way of Christ rather well, so he adjourned the trial. He told them, "When the officer Lysias arrives, I'll decide your case."

²³ Felix ordered the sergeant to guard Paul but to let him have some freedom and to let his friends take care of his needs.

²⁴ Some days later Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him talk about faith in Christ Jesus.

²⁵ As Paul discussed the subjects of God's approval, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, "That's enough for now. You can go. When I find time, I'll send for you again."

²⁶ At the same time, Felix was hoping that Paul would give him some money. For that reason, Felix would send for Paul rather often to have friendly conversations with him.

²⁷ Two years passed. Then Porcius Festus took Felix's place. (Since Felix wanted to do the Jews a favor, he left Paul in prison.)

25 ¹ Three days after Festus took over his duties in the province of Judea, he went from the city of Caesarea to Jerusalem.

² The chief priests and the other important Jewish leaders informed Festus about their charges against Paul. They were urging ³ Festus to do them the favor of having Paul brought to Jerusalem. The Jews had a plan to ambush and kill Paul as he traveled to Jerusalem.

⁴ Festus replied that he would be returning to Caesarea soon and would keep Paul there.

⁵ He told them, "Have your authorities come to Caesarea with me and accuse him there if the man has done something wrong."

⁶ Festus stayed in Jerusalem for eight or ten days at the most and then returned to Caesarea. The next day Festus took his place in court and summoned Paul.

⁷ When Paul entered the room, the Jews who had come from Jerusalem surrounded him. They made a lot of serious accusations that they couldn't prove.

⁸ Paul defended himself by saying, "I haven't broken any Jewish law or done anything against the temple or the emperor."

⁹ But Festus wanted to do the Jews a favor. So he asked Paul, "Are you willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there on these charges with me as your judge?"

¹⁰ Paul said, "I am standing in the emperor's court where I must be tried. I haven't done anything wrong to the Jews, as you know very well.

¹¹ If I am guilty and have done something wrong for which I deserve the death penalty, I don't reject the idea of dying. But if their accusations are untrue, no one can hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal my case to the emperor!"

¹² Festus discussed the appeal with his advisers and then replied to Paul, "You have appealed your case to the emperor, so you'll go to the emperor!"

¹³ Later King Agrippa and Bernice came to the city of Caesarea to welcome Festus.

¹⁴ Since they were staying there for a number of days, Festus told the king about Paul's case. Festus said, "Felix left a man here in prison.

¹⁵ When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish leaders brought me some information about him and asked me to condemn him.

¹⁶ "I replied to them, 'That's not the Roman way of doing things. A person can't be sentenced as a favor. Before he is sentenced, he must face his accusers and have a chance to defend himself against their accusation.'

¹⁷ "So the Jewish leaders came to Caesarea with me. The next day I immediately convened court and summoned the man.

¹⁸ When his accusers stood up, they didn't accuse him of the crimes I was expecting.

¹⁹ They were disputing with him about their own religion and about some man named Jesus who had died. But Paul claimed that Jesus is alive.

²⁰ Their debate about these things left me puzzled. So I asked Paul if he would like to go to Jerusalem to have his case heard there.

²¹ But Paul appealed his case. He asked to be held in prison and to have His Majesty the Emperor decide his case. So I ordered him to be held in prison until I could send him to the emperor."

²² Agrippa told Festus, "I would like to hear the man." Festus replied, "You'll hear him tomorrow."

²⁴ Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and everyone who is present with us! All the Jews in Jerusalem and Caesarea have talked to me about this man you see in front of you. They shout that he must not be allowed to live any longer.

²⁵ However, I don't think that he has done anything to deserve the death penalty. But since he made an appeal to His Majesty the Emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

²⁶ But I don't have anything reliable to write our emperor about him. So I have brought him to all of you, and especially to you, King Agrippa. Then I'll have something to write after he is cross-examined.

²⁷ I find it ridiculous to send a prisoner to Rome when I can't specify any charges against him."

26 ¹ Agrippa said to Paul, "You're free to speak for yourself." Paul acknowledged King Agrippa and then began his defense.

² "King Agrippa, I think I'm fortunate today to stand in front of you and defend myself against every charge that the Jews brought against me.

³ I say this since you are especially familiar with every custom and controversy in Judaism. So I ask you to listen patiently to me.

⁴ "All the Jews know how I lived the earliest days of my youth with my own people and in Jerusalem.

⁵ They've known me for a long time and can testify, if they're willing, that I followed the strictest party of our religion. They know that I lived my life as a Pharisee.

⁶ "I'm on trial now because I expect God to keep the promise that he made to our ancestors.

⁷ Our twelve tribes expect this promise to be kept as they worship with intense devotion day and night. Your Majesty, the Jews are making accusations against me because I expect God to keep his promise.

⁸ Why do all of you refuse to believe that God can bring dead people back to life?

⁹ "I used to think that I had to do a lot of things to oppose the one named Jesus of Nazareth.

¹⁰ That is what I did in Jerusalem. By the authority I received from the chief priests, I locked many Christians in prison. I voted to have them killed every time a vote was taken.

¹¹ I even went to each synagogue, punished believers, and forced them to curse the name of Jesus. In my furious rage against them, I hunted them down in cities outside Jerusalem.

¹² "I was carrying out these activities when I went to the city of Damascus. I had the power and authority of the chief priests.

¹³ Your Majesty, at noon, while I was traveling, I saw a light that was brighter than the sun. The light came from the sky and shined around me and those who were with me.

¹⁴ All of us fell to the ground, and I heard a voice asking me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul! Why are you persecuting me? It's hard for a mortal like you to resist God.'

¹⁵ "I asked, 'Who are you, sir?' "The Lord answered, 'I am Jesus, the one you're persecuting.

¹⁶ Stand up! I have appeared to you for a reason. I'm appointing you to be a servant and witness of what you have seen and of what I will show you.

¹⁷ I will rescue you from the Jewish people and from the non-Jewish people to whom I am sending you.

¹⁸ You will open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light and from Satan's control to God's. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and a share among God's people who are made holy by believing in me.'

¹⁹ "At that point I did not disobey the vision I saw from heaven, King Agrippa.

²⁰ Instead, I spread the message that I first told to the Jewish people in Damascus and Jerusalem and throughout the whole country of Judea. I spread the same message to non-Jewish people. Both groups were expected to change the way they thought and acted and to turn to God. I told them to do things that prove they had changed their lives.

²¹ For this reason the Jews took me prisoner in the temple courtyard and tried to murder me.

²² "God has been helping me to this day so that I can stand and testify to important and unimportant people. I tell them only what the prophets and Moses said would happen.

²³ They said that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to come back to life and would spread light to Jewish and non-Jewish people."

²⁴ As Paul was defending himself in this way, Festus shouted, "Paul, you're crazy! Too much education is driving you crazy!"

²⁵ Paul replied, "I'm not crazy, Your Excellency Festus. What I'm saying is true and sane.

²⁶ I can easily speak to a king who knows about these things. I'm sure that none of these things has escaped his attention. None of this was done secretly.

²⁷ King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe them!"

²⁸ Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think you can quickly persuade me to become a Christian?"

²⁹ Paul replied, "I wish to God that you and everyone listening to me today would quickly and completely become as I am (except for being a prisoner)."

³⁰ The king, the governor, Bernice, and the people who were sitting with them got up.

³¹ As they were leaving, they said to each other, "This man isn't doing anything for which he deserves to die or be put in prison."

³² Agrippa told Festus, "This man could have been set free if he hadn't appealed his case to the emperor."

27 ¹ When it was decided that we should sail to Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were turned over to an army officer. His name was Julius, and he belonged to the emperor's division.

² We set sail on a ship from the city of Adramyttium. The ship was going to stop at ports on the coast of the province of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from the city of Thessalonica, went with us.

³ The next day we arrived at the city of Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to visit his friends and receive any care he needed.

⁴ Leaving Sidon, we sailed on the northern side of the island of Cyprus because we were traveling against the wind.

⁵ We sailed along the coast of the provinces of Cilicia and Pamphylia and arrived at the city of Myra in the province of Lycia.

⁶ In Myra the officer found a ship from Alexandria that was on its way to Italy and put us on it.

⁷ We were sailing slowly for a number of days. Our difficulties began along the coast of the city of Cnidus because the wind would not let us go further. So at Cape Salmone, we started to sail for the south side of the island of Crete.

⁸ We had difficulty sailing along the shore of Crete. We finally came to a port called Fair Harbors. The port was near the city of Lasea.

⁹ We had lost so much time that the day of fasting had already past. Sailing was now dangerous, so Paul advised them,

¹⁰ "Men, we're going to face a disaster and heavy losses on this voyage. This disaster will cause damage to the cargo and the ship, and it will affect our lives."

¹¹ However, the officer was persuaded by what the pilot and the owner of the ship said and not by what Paul said.

¹² Since the harbor was not a good place to spend the winter, most of the men decided to sail from there. They hoped to reach the city of Phoenix somehow and spend the winter there. (Phoenix is a harbor that faces the southwest and northwest winds and is located on the island of Crete.)

¹³ When a gentle breeze began to blow from the south, the men thought their plan would work. They raised the anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete.

¹⁴ Soon a powerful wind (called a northeaster) blew from the island.

¹⁵ The wind carried the ship away, and we couldn't sail against the wind. We couldn't do anything, so we were carried along by the wind.

¹⁶ As we drifted to the sheltered side of a small island called Cauda, we barely got control of the ship's lifeboat.

¹⁷ The men pulled it up on deck. Then they passed ropes under the ship to reinforce it. Fearing that they would hit the large sandbank off the shores of Libya, they lowered the sail and were carried along by the wind.

¹⁸ We continued to be tossed so violently by the storm that the next day the men began to throw the cargo overboard.

¹⁹ On the third day they threw the ship's equipment overboard.

²⁰ For a number of days we couldn't see the sun or the stars. The storm wouldn't let up. It was so severe that we finally began to lose any hope of coming out of it alive.

²¹ Since hardly anyone wanted to eat, Paul stood among them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete. You would have avoided this disaster and loss.

²² Now I advise you to have courage. No one will lose his life. Only the ship will be destroyed.

²³ I know this because an angel from the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood by me last night.

²⁴ The angel told me, 'Don't be afraid, Paul! You must present your case to the emperor. God has granted safety to everyone who is sailing with you.'

²⁵ So have courage, men! I trust God that everything will turn out as he told me.

²⁶ However, we will run aground on some island."

²⁷ On the fourteenth night we were still drifting through the Mediterranean Sea. About midnight the sailors suspected that we were approaching land.

²⁸ So they threw a line with a weight on it into the water. It sank 120 feet. They waited a little while and did the same thing again. This time the line sank 90 feet.

²⁹ Fearing we might hit rocks, they dropped four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for morning to come.

³⁰ The sailors tried to escape from the ship. They let the lifeboat down into the sea and pretended they were going to lay out the anchors from the front of the ship.

³¹ Paul told the officer and the soldiers, "If these sailors don't stay on the ship, you have no hope of staying alive."

³² Then the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it drift away.

³³ Just before daybreak Paul was encouraging everyone to have something to eat. "This is the fourteenth day you have waited and have had nothing to eat.

³⁴ So I'm encouraging you to eat something. Eating will help you survive, since not a hair from anyone's head will be lost."

³⁵ After Paul said this, he took some bread, thanked God in front of everyone, broke it, and began to eat.

³⁶ Everyone was encouraged and had something to eat.

³⁷ (There were 276 of us on the ship.)

³⁸ After the people had eaten all they wanted, they lightened the ship by dumping the wheat into the sea.

³⁹ In the morning they couldn't recognize the land, but they could see a bay with a beach. So they decided to try to run the ship ashore.

⁴⁰ They cut the anchors free and left them in the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that held the steering oars. Then they raised the top sail to catch the wind and steered the ship to the shore.

⁴¹ They struck a sandbar in the water and ran the ship aground. The front of the ship stuck and couldn't be moved, while the back of the ship was broken to pieces by the force of the waves.

⁴² The soldiers had a plan to kill the prisoners to keep them from swimming away and escaping.

⁴³ However, the officer wanted to save Paul, so he stopped the soldiers from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and swim ashore.

⁴⁴ Then he ordered the rest to follow on planks or some other pieces of wood from the ship. In this way everyone got to shore safely.

28 ¹ When we were safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta.

² The people who lived on the island were unusually kind to us. They made a fire and welcomed all of us around it because of the rain and the cold.

³ Paul gathered a bundle of brushwood and put it on the fire. The heat forced a poisonous snake out of the brushwood. The snake bit Paul's hand and wouldn't let go.

⁴ When the people who lived on the island saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer! He may have escaped from the sea, but justice won't let him live."

⁵ Paul shook the snake into the fire and wasn't harmed.

⁶ The people were waiting for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after they had waited a long time and saw nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

⁷ A man named Publius, who was the governor of the island, had property around the area. He welcomed us and treated us kindly, and for three days we were his guests.

⁸ His father happened to be sick in bed. He was suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went to him, prayed, placed his hands on him, and made him well.

⁹ After that had happened, other sick people on the island went to Paul and were made well.

¹⁰ They showed respect for us in many ways, and when we were going to set sail, they put whatever we needed on board.

¹¹ After three months we sailed on an Alexandrian ship that had spent the winter at the island. The ship had the gods Castor and Pollux carved on its front.

¹² We stopped at the city of Syracuse and stayed there for three days.

¹³ We sailed from Syracuse and arrived at the city of Rhegium. The next day a south wind began to blow, and two days later we arrived at the city of Puteoli.

¹⁴ In Puteoli we discovered some believers who begged us to spend a week with them.

¹⁵ Believers in Rome heard that we were coming, so they came as far as the cities of Appius' Market and Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and felt encouraged. So we finally arrived in the city of Rome.

¹⁶ After our arrival, Paul was allowed to live by himself, but he had a soldier who guarded him.

¹⁷ After three days Paul invited the most influential Jews in Rome to meet with him. When they assembled, he said to them, "Brothers, I haven't done anything against the Jewish people or violated the customs handed down by our ancestors. Yet, I'm a prisoner from Jerusalem, and I've been handed over to the Roman authorities.

¹⁸ The Roman authorities cross-examined me and wanted to let me go because I was accused of nothing for which I deserved to die.

¹⁹ But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal my case to the emperor. That doesn't mean I have any charges to bring against my own people.

²⁰ That's why I asked to see you and speak with you. I'm wearing these chains because of what Israel hopes for."

²¹ The Jewish leaders told Paul, "We haven't received any letters from Judea about you, and no Jewish person who has come to Rome has reported or mentioned anything bad about you.

²² However, we would like to hear what you think. We know that everywhere people are talking against this sect."

²³ On a designated day a larger number of influential Jews than expected went to the place where Paul was staying. From morning until evening, Paul was explaining the kingdom of God to them. He was trying to convince them about Jesus from Moses' Teachings and the Prophets.

²⁴ Some of them were convinced by what he said, but others continued to disbelieve.

²⁵ The Jews, unable to agree among themselves, left after Paul had quoted this particular passage to them: "How well the Holy Spirit spoke to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah!

²⁶ The Spirit said: 'Go to these people and say, "You will hear clearly but never understand. You will see clearly but never comprehend.

²⁷ These people have become close-minded and hard of hearing. They have shut their eyes so that their eyes never see. Their ears never hear. Their minds never understand. And they never turn to me for healing."

²⁸ "You need to know that God has sent his salvation to people who are not Jews. They will listen."

²⁹ (OMITTED TEXT)

³⁰ Paul rented a place to live for two full years and welcomed everyone who came to him.

³¹ He spread the message about God's kingdom and taught very boldly about the Lord Jesus Christ. No one stopped him.

Romans

1 ¹ From Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle and appointed to spread the Good News of God.

² (God had already promised this Good News through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures.

³ This Good News is about his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. In his human nature he was a descendant of David.

⁴ In his spiritual, holy nature he was declared the Son of God. This was shown in a powerful way when he came back to life.

⁵ Through him we have received God's kindness and the privilege of being apostles who bring people from every nation to the obedience that is associated with faith. This is for the honor of his name.

⁶ You are among those who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ.)

⁷ To everyone in Rome whom God loves and has called to be his holy people. Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for every one of you because the news of your faith is spreading throughout the whole world.

⁹ I serve God by spreading the Good News about his Son. God is my witness that I always mention you ¹⁰ every time I pray. I ask that somehow God will now at last make it possible for me to visit you.

¹¹ I long to see you to share a spiritual blessing with you so that you will be strengthened.

¹² What I mean is that we may be encouraged by each other's faith.

¹³ I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that I often planned to visit you. However, until now I have been kept from doing so. What I want is to enjoy some of the results of working among you as I have also enjoyed the results of working among the rest of the nations.

¹⁴ I have an obligation to those who are civilized and those who aren't, to those who are wise and those who aren't.

¹⁵ That's why I'm eager to tell you who live in Rome the Good News also.

¹⁶ I'm not ashamed of the Good News. It is God's power to save everyone who believes, Jews first and Greeks as well.

¹⁷ God's approval is revealed in this Good News. This approval begins and ends with faith as Scripture says, "The person who has God's approval will live by faith."

¹⁸ God's anger is revealed from heaven against every ungodly and immoral thing people do as they try to suppress the truth by their immoral living.

¹⁹ What can be known about God is clear to them because he has made it clear to them.

²⁰ From the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly observed in what he made. As a result, people have no excuse.

²¹ They knew God but did not praise and thank him for being God. Instead, their thoughts were pointless, and their misguided minds were plunged into darkness.

²² While claiming to be wise, they became fools.

²³ They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for statues that looked like mortal humans, birds, animals, and snakes.

²⁴ For this reason God allowed their lusts to control them. As a result, they dishonor their bodies by sexual perversion with each other.

²⁵ These people have exchanged God's truth for a lie. So they have become ungodly and serve what is created rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen!

²⁶ For this reason God allowed their shameful passions to control them. Their women have exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones.

²⁷ Likewise, their men have given up natural sexual relations with women and burn with lust for each other. Men commit indecent acts with men, so they experience among themselves the punishment they deserve for their perversion.

²⁸ And because they thought it was worthless to acknowledge God, God allowed their own immoral minds to control them. So they do these indecent things.

²⁹ Their lives are filled with all kinds of sexual sins, wickedness, and greed. They are mean. They are filled with envy, murder, quarreling, deceit, and viciousness. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, haters of God, haughty, arrogant, and boastful. They think up new ways to be cruel. They don't obey their parents, ³¹ don't have any sense, don't keep promises, and don't show love to their own families or mercy to others.

³² Although they know God's judgment that those who do such things deserve to die, they not only do these things but also approve of others who do them.

2 ¹ No matter who you are, if you judge anyone, you have no excuse. When you judge another person, you condemn yourself, since you, the judge, do the same things.

² We know that God's judgment is right when he condemns people for doing these things.

³ When you judge people for doing these things but then do them yourself, do you think you will escape God's judgment?

⁴ Do you have contempt for God, who is very kind to you, puts up with you, and deals patiently with you? Don't you realize that it is God's kindness that is trying to lead you to him and change the way you think and act?

⁵ Since you are stubborn and don't want to change the way you think and act, you are adding to the anger that God will have against you on that day when God vents his anger. At that time God will reveal that his decisions are fair.

⁶ He will pay all people back for what they have done.

⁷ He will give everlasting life to those who search for glory, honor, and immortality by persisting in doing what is good. But he will bring ⁸ anger and fury on those who, in selfish pride, refuse to believe the truth and who follow what is wrong.

⁹ There will be suffering and distress for every person who does evil, for Jews first and Greeks as well.

¹⁰ But there will be glory, honor, and peace for every person who does what is good, for Jews first and Greeks as well.

¹¹ God does not play favorites.

¹² Here's the reason: Whoever sins without having laws from God will still be condemned to destruction. And whoever has laws from God and sins will still be judged by them.

¹³ People who merely listen to laws from God don't have God's approval. Rather, people who do what those laws demand will have God's approval.

¹⁴ For example, whenever non-Jews who don't have laws from God do by nature the things that Moses' Teachings contain, they are a law to themselves even though they don't have any laws from God.

¹⁵ They show that some requirements found in Moses' Teachings are written in their hearts. Their consciences speak to them. Their thoughts accuse them on one occasion and defend them on another.

¹⁶ This happens as they face the day when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge people's secret thoughts. He will use the Good News that I am spreading to make that judgment.

¹⁷ You call yourself a Jew, rely on the laws in Moses' Teachings, brag about your God, ¹⁸ know what he wants, and distinguish right from wrong because you have been taught Moses' Teachings.

¹⁹ You are confident that you are a guide for the blind, a light to those in the dark, ²⁰ an instructor of ignorant people, and a teacher of children because you have the full content of knowledge and truth in Moses' Teachings.

²¹ As you teach others, are you failing to teach yourself? As you preach against stealing, are you stealing?

²² As you tell others not to commit adultery, are you committing adultery? As you treat idols with disgust, are you robbing temples?

²³ As you brag about the laws in Moses' Teachings, are you dishonoring God by ignoring Moses' Teachings?

²⁴ As Scripture says, "God's name is cursed among the nations because of you."

²⁵ For example, circumcision is valuable if you follow Moses' laws. If you don't follow those laws, your circumcision amounts to uncircumcision.

²⁶ So if a man does what Moses' Teachings demand, won't he be considered circumcised even if he is uncircumcised?

²⁷ The uncircumcised man who carries out what Moses' Teachings say will condemn you for not following them. He will condemn you in spite of the fact that you are circumcised and have Moses' Teachings in writing.

²⁸ A person is not a Jew because of his appearance, nor is circumcision a matter of how the body looks.

²⁹ Rather, a person is a Jew inwardly, and circumcision is something that happens in a person's heart. Circumcision is spiritual, not just a written rule. That person's praise will come from God, not from people.

3 ¹ Is there any advantage, then, in being a Jew? Or is there any value in being circumcised?

² There are all kinds of advantages. First of all, God entrusted them with his word.

³ What if some of them were unfaithful? Can their unfaithfulness cancel God's faithfulness?

⁴ That would be unthinkable! God is honest, and everyone else is a liar, as Scripture says, "So you hand down justice when you speak, and you win your case in court."

⁵ But if what we do wrong shows that God is fair, what should we say? Is God unfair when he vents his anger on us? (I'm arguing the way humans would.)

⁶ That's unthinkable! Otherwise, how would God be able to judge the world?

⁷ If my lie increases the glory that God receives by showing that God is truthful, why am I still judged as a sinner?

⁸ Or can we say, "Let's do evil so that good will come from it"? Some slander us and claim that this is what we say. They are condemned, and that's what they deserve.

⁹ What, then, is the situation? Do we have any advantage? Not at all. We have already accused everyone (both Jews and Greeks) of being under the power of sin,

¹⁰ as Scripture says, "Not one person has God's approval."

¹¹ No one understands. No one searches for God.

¹² Everyone has turned away. Together they have become rotten to the core. No one does anything good, not even one person.

¹³ Their throats are open graves. Their tongues practice deception. Their lips hide the venom of poisonous snakes.

¹⁴ Their mouths are full of curses and bitter resentment.

¹⁵ They run quickly to murder people.

¹⁶ There is ruin and suffering wherever they go.

¹⁷ They have not learned to live in peace.

¹⁸ They are not terrified of God."

¹⁹ We know that whatever is in Moses' Teachings applies to everyone under their influence, and no one can say a thing. The whole world is brought under the judgment of God.

²⁰ Not one person can have God's approval by following Moses' Teachings. Moses' Teachings show what sin is.

²¹ Now, the way to receive God's approval has been made plain in a way other than Moses' Teachings. Moses' Teachings and the Prophets tell us this.

²² Everyone who believes has God's approval through faith in Jesus Christ. There is no difference between people.

²³ Because all people have sinned, they have fallen short of God's glory.

²⁴ They receive God's approval freely by an act of his kindness through the price Christ Jesus paid to set us free from sin.

²⁵ God showed that Christ is the throne of mercy where God's approval is given through faith in Christ's blood. In his patience God waited to deal with sins committed in the past.

²⁶ He waited so that he could display his approval at the present time. This shows that he is a God of justice, a God who approves of people who believe in Jesus.

²⁷ So, do we have anything to brag about? Bragging has been eliminated. On what basis was it eliminated? On the basis of our own efforts? No, indeed! Rather, it is eliminated on the basis of faith.

²⁸ We conclude that a person has God's approval by faith, not by his own efforts.

²⁹ Is God only the God of the Jews? Isn't he also the God of people who are not Jewish? Certainly, he is,

³⁰ since it is the same God who approves circumcised people by faith and uncircumcised people through this same faith.

³¹ Are we abolishing Moses' Teachings by this faith? That's unthinkable! Rather, we are supporting Moses' Teachings.

4 ¹ What can we say that we have discovered about our ancestor Abraham?

² If Abraham had God's approval because of something he did, he would have had a reason to brag. But he could not brag to God about it.

³ What does Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham."

⁴ When people work, their pay is not regarded as a gift but something they have earned.

⁵ However, when people don't work but believe God, the one who approves ungodly people, their faith is regarded as God's approval.

⁶ David says the same thing about those who are blessed: God approves of people without their earning it. David said, ⁷ "Blessed are those whose disobedience is forgiven and whose sins are pardoned.

⁸ Blessed is the person whom the Lord no longer considers sinful."

⁹ Are only the circumcised people blessed, or are uncircumcised people blessed as well? We say, "Abraham's faith was regarded as God's approval of him."

¹⁰ How was his faith regarded as God's approval? Was he circumcised or was he uncircumcised at that time? He had not been circumcised.

¹¹ Abraham's faith was regarded as God's approval while he was still uncircumcised. The mark of circumcision is the seal of that approval. Therefore, he is the father of every believer who is not circumcised, and their faith, too, is regarded as God's approval of them.

¹² He is also the father of those who not only are circumcised but also are following in the footsteps of his faith. Our father Abraham had that faith before he was circumcised.

¹³ So it was not by obeying Moses' Teachings that Abraham or his descendants received the promise that he would inherit the world. Rather, it was through God's approval of his faith.

¹⁴ If those who obey Moses' Teachings are the heirs, then faith is useless and the promise is worthless.

¹⁵ The laws in Moses' Teachings bring about anger. But where laws don't exist, they can't be broken.

¹⁶ Therefore, the promise is based on faith so that it can be a gift. Consequently, the promise is guaranteed for every descendant, not only for those who are descendants by obeying Moses' Teachings but also for those who are descendants by believing as Abraham did. He is the father of all of us, ¹⁷ as Scripture says: "I have made you a father of many nations." Abraham believed when he stood in the presence of the God who gives life to dead people and calls into existence things that don't even exist.

¹⁸ When there was nothing left to hope for, Abraham still hoped and believed. As a result, he became a father of many nations, as he had been told: "That is how many descendants you will have."

¹⁹ Abraham didn't weaken. Through faith he regarded the facts: His body was already as good as dead now that he was about a hundred years old, and Sarah was unable to have children.

²⁰ He didn't doubt God's promise out of a lack of faith. Instead, giving honor to God for the promise, he became strong because of faith

²¹ and was absolutely confident that God would do what he promised.

²² That is why his faith was regarded as God's approval of him.

²³ But the words "his faith was regarded as God's approval of him" were written not only for him

²⁴ but also for us. Our faith will be regarded as God's approval of us who believe in the one who brought Jesus, our Lord, back to life.

²⁵ Jesus, our Lord, was handed over to death because of our failures and was brought back to life so that we could receive God's approval.

5 ¹ Now that we have God's approval by faith, we have peace with God because of what our Lord Jesus Christ has done.

² Through Christ we can approach God and stand in his favor. So we brag because of our confidence that we will receive glory from God.

³ But that's not all. We also brag when we are suffering. We know that suffering creates endurance,

⁴ endurance creates character, and character creates confidence.

⁵ We're not ashamed to have this confidence, because God's love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

⁶ Look at it this way: At the right time, while we were still helpless, Christ died for ungodly people.

⁷ Finding someone who would die for a godly person is rare. Maybe someone would have the courage to die for a good person.

⁸ Christ died for us while we were still sinners. This demonstrates God's love for us.

⁹ Since Christ's blood has now given us God's approval, we are even more certain that Christ will save us from God's anger.

¹⁰ If the death of his Son restored our relationship with God while we were still his enemies, we are even more certain that, because of this restored relationship, the life of his Son will save us.

¹¹ In addition, our Lord Jesus Christ lets us continue to brag about God. After all, it is through Christ that we now have this restored relationship with God.

¹² Sin came into the world through one person, and death came through sin. So death spread to everyone, because everyone sinned.

¹³ Sin was in the world before there were any laws. But no record of sin can be kept when there are no laws.

¹⁴ Yet, death ruled from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin in the same way Adam did when he disobeyed. Adam is an image of the one who would come.

¹⁵ There is no comparison between God's gift and Adam's failure. If humanity died as the result of one person's failure, it is certainly true that God's kindness and the gift given through the kindness of one person, Jesus Christ, have been showered on humanity.

¹⁶ There is also no comparison between God's gift and the one who sinned. The verdict which followed one person's failure condemned everyone. But, even after many failures, the gift brought God's approval.

¹⁷ It is certain that death ruled because of one person's failure. It's even more certain that those who receive God's overflowing kindness and the gift of his approval will rule in life because of one person, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Therefore, everyone was condemned through one failure, and everyone received God's life-giving approval through one verdict.

¹⁹ Clearly, through one person's disobedience humanity became sinful, and through one person's obedience humanity will receive God's approval.

²⁰ Laws were added to increase the failure. But where sin increased, God's kindness increased even more.

²¹ As sin ruled by bringing death, God's kindness would rule by bringing us his approval. This results in our living forever because of Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 ¹ What should we say then? Should we continue to sin so that God's kindness will increase?

² That's unthinkable! As far as sin is concerned, we have died. So how can we still live under sin's influence?

³ Don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

⁴ When we were baptized into his death, we were placed into the tomb with him. As Christ was brought back from death to life by the glorious power of the Father, so we, too, should live a new kind of life.

⁵ If we've become united with him in a death like his, certainly we will also be united with him when we come back to life as he did.

⁶ We know that the person we used to be was crucified with him to put an end to sin in our bodies. Because of this we are no longer slaves to sin.

⁷ The person who has died has been freed from sin.

⁸ If we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

⁹ We know that Christ, who was brought back to life, will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him.

¹⁰ When he died, he died once and for all to sin's power. But now he lives, and he lives for God.

¹¹ So consider yourselves dead to sin's power but living for God in the power Christ Jesus gives you.

¹² Therefore, never let sin rule your physical body so that you obey its desires.

¹³ Never offer any part of your body to sin's power. No part of your body should ever be used to do any ungodly thing. Instead, offer yourselves to God as people who have come back from death and are now alive. Offer all the parts of your body to God. Use them to do everything that God approves of.

¹⁴ Certainly, sin shouldn't have power over you because you're not controlled by laws, but by God's favor.

¹⁵ Then what is the implication? Should we sin because we are not controlled by laws but by God's favor? That's unthinkable!

¹⁶ Don't you know that if you offer to be someone's slave, you must obey that master? Either your master is sin, or your master is obedience. Letting sin be your master leads to death. Letting obedience be your master leads to God's approval.

¹⁷ You were slaves to sin. But I thank God that you have become wholeheartedly obedient to the teachings which you were given.

¹⁸ Freed from sin, you were made slaves who do what God approves of.

¹⁹ I'm speaking in a human way because of the weakness of your corrupt nature. Clearly, you once offered all the parts of your body as slaves to sexual perversion and disobedience. This led you to live disobedient lives. Now, in the same way, offer all the parts of your body as slaves that do what God approves of. This leads you to live holy lives.

²⁰ When you were slaves to sin, you were free from doing what God approves of.

²¹ What did you gain by doing those things? You're ashamed of what you used to do because it ended in death.

²² Now you have been freed from sin and have become God's slaves. This results in a holy life and, finally, in everlasting life.

²³ The payment for sin is death, but the gift that God freely gives is everlasting life found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 ¹ Don't you realize, brothers and sisters, that laws have power over people only as long as they are alive?

(I'm speaking to people who are familiar with Moses' Teachings.)

² For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he is alive. But if her husband dies, that marriage law is no longer in effect for her.

³ So if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she will be called an adulterer. But if her husband dies, she is free from this law, so she is not committing adultery if she marries another man.

⁴ In the same way, brothers and sisters, you have died to the laws in Moses' Teachings through Christ's body. You belong to someone else, the one who was brought back to life. As a result, we can do what God wants.

⁵ While we were living under the influence of our corrupt nature, sinful passions were at work throughout our bodies. Stirred up by Moses' laws, our sinful passions did things that result in death.

⁶ But now we have died to those laws that bound us. God has broken their effect on us so that we are serving in a new spiritual way, not in an old way dictated by written words.

⁷ What should we say, then? Are Moses' laws sinful? That's unthinkable! In fact, I wouldn't have recognized sin if those laws hadn't shown it to me. For example, I wouldn't have known that some desires are sinful if Moses' Teachings hadn't said, "Never have wrong desires."

⁸ But sin took the opportunity provided by this commandment and made me have all kinds of wrong desires. Clearly, without laws sin is dead.

⁹ At one time I was alive without any laws. But when this commandment came, sin became alive

¹⁰ and I died. I found that the commandment which was intended to bring me life actually brought me death.

¹¹ Sin, taking the opportunity provided by this commandment, deceived me and then killed me.

¹² So Moses' Teachings are holy, and the commandment is holy, right, and good.

¹³ Now, did something good cause my death? That's unthinkable! Rather, my death was caused by sin so that sin would be recognized for what it is. Through a commandment sin became more sinful than ever.

¹⁴ I know that God's standards are spiritual, but I have a corrupt nature, sold as a slave to sin.

¹⁵ I don't realize what I'm doing. I don't do what I want to do. Instead, I do what I hate.

¹⁶ I don't do what I want to do, but I agree that God's standards are good.

¹⁷ So I am no longer the one who is doing the things I hate, but sin that lives in me is doing them.

¹⁸ I know that nothing good lives in me; that is, nothing good lives in my corrupt nature. Although I have the desire to do what is right, I don't do it.

¹⁹ I don't do the good I want to do. Instead, I do the evil that I don't want to do.

²⁰ Now, when I do what I don't want to do, I am no longer the one who is doing it. Sin that lives in me is doing it.

²¹ So I've discovered this truth: Evil is present with me even when I want to do what God's standards say is good.

²² I take pleasure in God's standards in my inner being.

²³ However, I see a different standard at work throughout my body. It is at war with the standards my mind sets and tries to take me captive to sin's standards which still exist throughout my body.

²⁴ What a miserable person I am! Who will rescue me from my dying body?

²⁵ I thank God that our Lord Jesus Christ rescues me! So I am obedient to God's standards with my mind, but I am obedient to sin's standards with my corrupt nature.

8 ¹ So those who are believers in Christ Jesus can no longer be condemned.

² The standards of the Spirit, who gives life through Christ Jesus, have set you free from the standards of sin and death.

³ It is impossible to do what God's standards demand because of the weakness our human nature has. But God sent his Son to have a human nature as sinners have and to pay for sin. That way God condemned sin in our corrupt nature.

⁴ Therefore, we, who do not live by our corrupt nature but by our spiritual nature, are able to meet God's standards.

⁵ Those who live by the corrupt nature have the corrupt nature's attitude. But those who live by the spiritual nature have the spiritual nature's attitude.

⁶ The corrupt nature's attitude leads to death. But the spiritual nature's attitude leads to life and peace.

⁷ This is so because the corrupt nature has a hostile attitude toward God. It refuses to place itself under the authority of God's standards because it can't.

⁸ Those who are under the control of the corrupt nature can't please God.

⁹ But if God's Spirit lives in you, you are under the control of your spiritual nature, not your corrupt nature. Whoever doesn't have the Spirit of Christ doesn't belong to him.

¹⁰ However, if Christ lives in you, your bodies are dead because of sin, but your spirits are alive because you have God's approval.

¹¹ Does the Spirit of the one who brought Jesus back to life live in you? Then the one who brought Christ back to life will also make your mortal bodies alive by his Spirit who lives in you.

¹² So, brothers and sisters, we have no obligation to live the way our corrupt nature wants us to live.

¹³ If you live by your corrupt nature, you are going to die. But if you use your spiritual nature to put to death the evil activities of the body, you will live.

¹⁴ Certainly, all who are guided by God's Spirit are God's children.

¹⁵ You haven't received the spirit of slaves that leads you into fear again. Instead, you have received the spirit of God's adopted children by which we call out, "Abba! Father!"

¹⁶ The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

¹⁷ If we are his children, we are also God's heirs. If we share in Christ's suffering in order to share his glory, we are heirs together with him.

¹⁸ I consider our present sufferings insignificant compared to the glory that will soon be revealed to us.

¹⁹ All creation is eagerly waiting for God to reveal who his children are.

²⁰ Creation was subjected to frustration but not by its own choice. The one who subjected it to frustration did so in the hope ²¹ that it would also be set free from slavery to decay in order to share the glorious freedom that the children of God will have.

²² We know that all creation has been groaning with the pains of childbirth up to the present time.

²³ However, not only creation groans. We, who have the Spirit as the first of God's gifts, also groan inwardly. We groan as we eagerly wait for our adoption, the freeing of our bodies from sin.

²⁴ We were saved with this hope in mind. If we hope for something we already see, it's not really hope. Who hopes for what can be seen?

²⁵ But if we hope for what we don't see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

²⁶ At the same time the Spirit also helps us in our weakness, because we don't know how to pray for what we need. But the Spirit intercedes along with our groans that cannot be expressed in words.

²⁷ The one who searches our hearts knows what the Spirit has in mind. The Spirit intercedes for God's people the way God wants him to.

²⁸ We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God—those whom he has called according to his plan.

²⁹ This is true because he already knew his people and had already appointed them to have the same form as the image of his Son. Therefore, his Son is the firstborn among many children.

³⁰ He also called those whom he had already appointed. He approved of those whom he had called, and he gave glory to those whom he had approved of.

³¹ What can we say about all of this? If God is for us, who can be against us?

³² God didn't spare his own Son but handed him over to death for all of us.

So he will also give us everything along with him.

³³ Who will accuse those whom God has chosen? God has approved of them.

³⁴ Who will condemn them? Christ has died, and more importantly, he was brought back to life. Christ has the highest position in heaven. Christ also intercedes for us.

³⁵ What will separate us from the love Christ has for us? Can trouble, distress, persecution, hunger, nakedness, danger, or violent death separate us from his love?

³⁶ As Scripture says: "We are being killed all day long because of you. We are thought of as sheep to be slaughtered."

³⁷ The one who loves us gives us an overwhelming victory in all these difficulties.

³⁸ I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love which Christ

Jesus our Lord shows us. We can't be separated by death or life, by angels or rulers, by anything in the present or anything in the future, by forces ³⁹ or powers in the world above or in the world below, or by anything else in creation.

9 ¹ As a Christian, I'm telling you the truth. I'm not lying. The Holy Spirit, along with my own thoughts, supports me in this.

² I have deep sorrow and endless heartache.

³ I wish I could be condemned and cut off from Christ for the sake of others who, like me, are Jewish by birth.

⁴ They are Israelites, God's adopted children. They have the Lord's glory, the pledges, Moses' Teachings, the true worship, and the promises.

⁵ The Messiah is descended from their ancestors according to his human nature.

The Messiah is God over everything, forever blessed. Amen.

⁶ Now it is not as though God's word has failed. Clearly, not everyone descended from Israel is part of Israel

⁷ or a descendant of Abraham.

However, as Scripture says, "Through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name."

⁸ This means that children born by natural descent from Abraham are not necessarily God's children. Instead, children born by the promise are considered Abraham's descendants.

⁹ For example, this is what the promise said, "I will come back at the right time, and Sarah will have a son."

¹⁰ The same thing happened to Rebekah. Rebekah became pregnant by our ancestor Isaac.

¹¹ Before the children had been born or had done anything good or bad,

Rebekah was told that the older child would serve the younger one. This was said to Rebekah so that God's plan would remain a matter of his choice, ¹² a choice based on God's call and not on anything people do.

¹³ The Scriptures say, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau."

¹⁴ What can we say—that God is unfair? That's unthinkable!

¹⁵ For example, God said to Moses, "I will be kind to anyone I want to. I will be merciful to anyone I want to."

¹⁶ Therefore, God's choice does not depend on a person's desire or effort, but on God's mercy.

¹⁷ For example, Scripture says to Pharaoh, "I put you here for this reason: to demonstrate my power through you and to spread my name throughout the earth."

¹⁸ Therefore, if God wants to be kind to anyone, he will be. If he wants to make someone stubborn, he will.

¹⁹ You may ask me, "Why does God still find fault with anyone? Who can resist whatever God wants to do?"

²⁰ Who do you think you are to talk back to God like that? Can an object that was made say to its maker, "Why did you make me like this?"

²¹ A potter has the right to do whatever he wants with his clay. He can make something for a special occasion or something for everyday use from the same lump of clay.

²² If God wants to demonstrate his anger and reveal his power, he can do it. But can't he be extremely patient with people who are objects of his anger because they are headed for destruction?

²³ Can't God also reveal the riches of his glory to people who are objects of his mercy and who he had already prepared for glory?

²⁴ This is what God did for us whom he called—whether we are Jews or not.

²⁵ As God says in Hosea: "Those who are not my people I will call my people. Those who are not loved I will call my loved ones.

²⁶ Wherever they were told, 'You are not my people,' they will be called children of the living God."

²⁷ Isaiah also says about Israel: "Although the descendants of Israel are as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, only a few will be saved.

²⁸ The Lord will carry out his sentence on the land, completely and decisively."

²⁹ This is what Isaiah predicted: "If the Lord of Armies hadn't left us some descendants, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah."

³⁰ So what can we say? We can say that non-Jewish people who were not trying to gain God's approval won his approval, an approval based on faith.

³¹ The people of Israel tried to gain God's approval by obeying Moses' Teachings, but they did not reach their goal.

³² Why? They didn't rely on faith to gain God's approval, but they relied on their own efforts. They stumbled over the rock that trips people.

³³ As Scripture says, "I am placing a rock in Zion that people trip over, a large rock that people find offensive. Whoever believes in him will not be ashamed."

10 ¹ Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God on behalf of the Jewish people is that they would be saved.

² I can assure you that they are deeply devoted to God, but they are misguided.

³ They don't understand how to receive God's approval. So they try to set up their own way to get it, and they have not accepted God's way for receiving his approval.

⁴ Christ is the fulfillment of Moses' Teachings so that everyone who has faith may receive God's approval.

⁵ Moses writes about receiving God's approval by following his laws. He says, "The person who obeys laws will live because of the laws he obeys."

⁶ However, Scripture says about God's approval which is based on faith, "Don't ask yourself who will go up to heaven," (that is, to bring Christ down).

⁷ "Don't ask who will go down into the depths," (that is, to bring Christ back from the dead).

⁸ However, what else does it say? "This message is near you. It's in your mouth and in your heart." This is the message of faith that we spread.

⁹ If you declare that Jesus is Lord, and believe that God brought him back to life, you will be saved.

¹⁰ By believing you receive God's approval, and by declaring your faith you are saved.

¹¹ Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be ashamed."

¹² There is no difference between Jews and Greeks. They all have the same Lord, who gives his riches to everyone who calls on him.

¹³ So then, "Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

¹⁴ But how can people call on him if they have not believed in him? How can they believe in him if they have not heard his message? How can they hear if no one tells the Good News?

¹⁵ How can people tell the Good News if no one sends them? As Scripture says, "How beautiful are the feet of the messengers who announce the Good News."

¹⁶ But not everyone has believed the Good News. Isaiah asks, "Lord, who has believed our message?"

¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing the message, and the message that is heard is what Christ spoke.

¹⁸ But I ask, "Didn't they hear that message?" Certainly they did! "The voice of the messengers has gone out into the whole world and their words to the ends of the earth."

¹⁹ Again I ask, "Didn't Israel understand that message?" Moses was the first to say, "I will make you jealous of people who are not a nation. I will make you angry about a nation that doesn't understand."

²⁰ Isaiah said very boldly, "I was found by those who weren't looking for me. I was revealed to those who weren't asking for me."

²¹ Then Isaiah said about Israel, "All day long I have stretched out my hands to disobedient and rebellious people."

11 ¹ So I ask, "Has God rejected his people Israel?" That's unthinkable! Consider this. I'm an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham from the tribe of Benjamin.

² God has not rejected his people whom he knew long ago. Don't you know what Elijah says in the Scripture passage when he complains to God about Israel? He says,

³ "Lord, they've killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I'm the only one left, and they're trying to take my life."

⁴ But what was God's reply? God said, "I've kept 7,000 people for myself who have not knelt to worship Baal."

⁵ So, as there were then, there are now a few left that God has chosen by his kindness.

⁶ If they were chosen by God's kindness, they weren't chosen because of anything they did. Otherwise, God's kindness wouldn't be kindness.

⁷ So what does all this mean? It means that Israel has never achieved what it has been striving for. However, those whom God has chosen have achieved it. The minds of the rest of Israel were closed,

⁸ as Scripture says, "To this day God has given them a spirit of deep sleep. Their eyes don't see, and their ears don't hear!"

⁹ And David says, "Let the table set for them become a trap and a net, a snare and a punishment for them.

¹⁰ Let their vision become clouded so that they cannot see. Let them carry back-breaking burdens forever."

¹¹ So I ask, "Has Israel stumbled so badly that it can't get up again?" That's unthinkable! By Israel's failure, salvation has come to people who are not Jewish to make the Jewish people jealous.

¹² The fall of the Jewish people made the world spiritually rich. Their failure made people who are not Jewish spiritually rich. So the inclusion of Jewish people will make the world even richer.

¹³ Now, I speak to you who are not Jewish. As long as I am an apostle sent to people who are not Jewish, I bring honor to my ministry.

¹⁴ Perhaps I can make my people jealous and save some of them.

¹⁵ If Israel's rejection means that the world has been brought back to God, what does Israel's acceptance mean? It means that Israel has come back to life.

¹⁶ If the first handful of dough is holy, the whole batch of dough is holy. If the root is holy, the branches are holy.

¹⁷ But some of the olive branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive branch, have been grafted in their place. You get your nourishment from the roots of the olive tree.

¹⁸ So don't brag about being better than the other branches. If you brag, remember that you don't support the root, the root supports you.

¹⁹ "Well," you say, "Branches were cut off so that I could be grafted onto the tree."

²⁰ That's right! They were broken off because they didn't believe, but you remain on the tree because you do believe. Don't feel arrogant, but be afraid.

²¹ If God didn't spare the natural branches, he won't spare you, either.

²² Look at how kind and how severe God can be. He is severe to those who fell, but kind to you if you continue to hold on to his kindness. Otherwise, you, too, will be cut off from the tree.

²³ If Jewish people do not continue in their unbelief, they will be grafted onto the tree again, because God is able to do that.

²⁴ In spite of the fact that you have been cut from a wild olive tree, you have been grafted onto a cultivated one. So wouldn't it be easier for these natural branches to be grafted onto the olive tree they belong to?

²⁵ Brothers and sisters, I want you to understand this mystery so that you won't become arrogant. The minds of some Israelites have become closed until all of God's non-Jewish people are included.

²⁶ In this way Israel as a whole will be saved, as Scripture says, "The Savior will come from Zion. He will remove godlessness from Jacob.

²⁷ My promise to them will be fulfilled when I take away their sins."

²⁸ The Good News made the Jewish people enemies because of you. But by God's choice they are loved because of their ancestors.

²⁹ God never changes his mind when he gives gifts or when he calls someone.

³⁰ In the past, you disobeyed God. But now God has been merciful to you because of the disobedience of the Jewish people.

³¹ In the same way, the Jewish people have also disobeyed so that God may be merciful to them as he was to you.

³² God has placed all people into the prison of their own disobedience so that he could be merciful to all people.

³³ God's riches, wisdom, and knowledge are so deep that it is impossible to explain his decisions or to understand his ways.

³⁴ "Who knows how the Lord thinks? Who can become his adviser?"

³⁵ Who gave the Lord something which the Lord must pay back?

³⁶ Everything is from him and by him and for him. Glory belongs to him forever! Amen!

12 ¹ Brothers and sisters, in view of all we have just shared about God's compassion, I encourage you to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, dedicated to God and pleasing to him. This kind of worship is appropriate for you.

² Don't become like the people of this world. Instead, change the way you think. Then you will always be able to determine what God really wants—what is good, pleasing, and perfect.

³ Because of the kindness that God has shown me, I ask you not to think of yourselves more highly than you should. Instead, your thoughts should lead you to use good judgment based on what God has given each of you as believers.

⁴ Our bodies have many parts, but these parts don't all do the same thing.

⁵ In the same way, even though we are many individuals, Christ makes us one body and individuals who are connected to each other.

⁶ God in his kindness gave each of us different gifts. If your gift is speaking God's word, make sure what you say agrees with the Christian faith.

⁷ If your gift is serving, then devote yourself to serving. If it is teaching, devote yourself to teaching.

⁸ If it is encouraging others, devote yourself to giving encouragement. If it is sharing, be generous. If it is leadership, lead enthusiastically. If it is helping people in need, help them cheerfully.

⁹ Love sincerely. Hate evil. Hold on to what is good.

¹⁰ Be devoted to each other like a loving family. Excel in showing respect for each other.

¹¹ Don't be lazy in showing your devotion. Use your energy to serve the Lord.

¹² Be happy in your confidence, be patient in trouble, and pray continually.

¹³ Share what you have with God's people who are in need. Be hospitable.

¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you. Bless them, and don't curse them.

¹⁵ Be happy with those who are happy.
Be sad with those who are sad.

¹⁶ Live in harmony with each other.
Don't be arrogant, but be friendly to humble people. Don't think that you are smarter than you really are.

¹⁷ Don't pay people back with evil for the evil they do to you. Focus your thoughts on those things that are considered noble.

¹⁸ As much as it is possible, live in peace with everyone.

¹⁹ Don't take revenge, dear friends.
Instead, let God's anger take care of it.
After all, Scripture says, "I alone have the right to take revenge. I will pay back, says the Lord."

²⁰ But, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink. If you do this, you will make him feel guilty and ashamed."

²¹ Don't let evil conquer you, but conquer evil with good.

13 ¹ Every person should obey the government in power. No government would exist if it hadn't been established by God. The governments which exist have been put in place by God.

² Therefore, whoever resists the government opposes what God has established. Those who resist will bring punishment on themselves.

³ People who do what is right don't have to be afraid of the government. But people who do what is wrong should be afraid of it. Would you like to live without being afraid of the government? Do what is right, and it will praise you.

⁴ The government is God's servant working for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid. The government has the right to carry out the death sentence. It is God's servant, an avenger to execute God's anger on anyone who does what is wrong.

⁵ Therefore, it is necessary for you to obey, not only because you're afraid of God's anger but also because of your own conscience.

⁶ That is also why you pay your taxes. People in the government are God's servants while they do the work he has given them.

⁷ Pay everyone whatever you owe them. If you owe taxes, pay them. If you owe tolls, pay them. If you owe someone respect, respect that person. If you owe someone honor, honor that person.

⁸ Pay your debts as they come due. However, one debt you can never finish paying is the debt of love that you owe each other. The one who loves another person has fulfilled Moses' Teachings.

⁹ The commandments, "Never commit adultery; never murder; never steal; never have wrong desires," and every other commandment are summed up in this statement: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

¹⁰ Love never does anything that is harmful to a neighbor. Therefore, love fulfills Moses' Teachings.

¹¹ You know the times in which we are living. It's time for you to wake up. Our salvation is nearer now than when we first became believers.

¹² The night is almost over, and the day is near. So we should get rid of the things that belong to the dark and take up the weapons that belong to the light.

¹³ We should live decently, as people who live in the light of day. Wild parties, drunkenness, sexual immorality, promiscuity, rivalry, and jealousy cannot be part of our lives.

¹⁴ Instead, live like the Lord Jesus Christ did, and forget about satisfying the desires of your sinful nature.

14 ¹ Welcome people who are weak in faith, but don't get into an argument over differences of opinion.

² Some people believe that they can eat all kinds of food. Other people with weak faith believe that they can eat only vegetables.

³ People who eat all foods should not despise people who eat only vegetables. In the same way, the vegetarians should not criticize people who eat all foods, because God has accepted those people.

⁴ Who are you to criticize someone else's servant? The Lord will determine whether his servant has been successful. The servant will be successful because the Lord makes him successful.

⁵ One person decides that one day is holier than another. Another person decides that all days are the same. Every person must make his own decision.

⁶ When people observe a special day, they observe it to honor the Lord. When people eat all kinds of foods, they honor the Lord as they eat, since they give thanks to God. Vegetarians also honor the Lord when they eat, and they, too, give thanks to God.

⁷ It's clear that we don't live to honor ourselves, and we don't die to honor ourselves.

⁸ If we live, we honor the Lord, and if we die, we honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

⁹ For this reason Christ died and came back to life so that he would be the Lord of both the living and the dead.

¹⁰ Why do you criticize or despise other Christians? Everyone will stand in front of God to be judged.

¹¹ Scripture says, "As certainly as I live, says the Lord, everyone will worship me, and everyone will praise God."

¹² All of us will have to give an account of ourselves to God.

¹³ So let's stop criticizing each other. Instead, you should decide never to do anything that would make other Christians have doubts or lose their faith.

¹⁴ The Lord Jesus has given me the knowledge and conviction that no food is unacceptable in and of itself. But it is unacceptable to a person who thinks it is.

¹⁶ Don't allow anyone to say that what you consider good is evil.

¹⁷ God's kingdom does not consist of what a person eats or drinks. Rather,

God's kingdom consists of God's approval and peace, as well as the joy that the Holy Spirit gives.

¹⁸ The person who serves Christ with this in mind is pleasing to God and respected by people.

¹⁹ So let's pursue those things which bring peace and which are good for each other.

²⁰ Don't ruin God's work because of what you eat. All food is acceptable, but it's wrong for a person to eat something if it causes someone else to have doubts.

²¹ The right thing to do is to avoid eating meat, drinking wine, or doing anything else that causes another Christian to have doubts.

²² So whatever you believe about these things, keep it between yourself and God. The person who does what he knows is right shouldn't feel guilty. He is blessed.

²³ But if a person has doubts and still eats, he is condemned because he didn't act in faith. Anything that is not done in faith is sin.

15 ¹ So those of us who have a strong faith must be patient with the weaknesses of those whose faith is not so strong. We must not think only of ourselves.

² We should all be concerned about our neighbor and the good things that will build his faith.

³ Christ did not think only of himself. Rather, as Scripture says, "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

⁴ Everything written long ago was written to teach us so that we would have confidence through the endurance and encouragement which the Scriptures give us.

⁵ May God, who gives you this endurance and encouragement, allow you to live in harmony with each other by following the example of Christ Jesus.

⁶ Then, having the same goal, you will praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷ Therefore, accept each other in the same way that Christ accepted you. He did this to bring glory to God.

⁸ Let me explain. Christ became a servant for the Jewish people to reveal God's truth. As a result, he fulfilled God's promise to the ancestors of the Jewish people.

⁹ People who are not Jewish praise God for his mercy as well. This is what the Scriptures say, "That is why I will give thanks to you among the nations and I will sing praises to your name."

¹⁰ And Scripture says again, "You nations, be happy together with his people!"

¹¹ And again, "Praise the Lord, all you nations! Praise him, all you people of the world!"

¹² Again, Isaiah says, "There will be a root from Jesse. He will rise to rule the nations, and he will give the nations hope."

¹³ May God, the source of hope, fill you with joy and peace through your faith in him. Then you will overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴ I'm convinced, brothers and sisters, that you, too, are filled with goodness. I'm also convinced that you have all the knowledge you need and that you are able to instruct each other.

¹⁵ However, I've written you a letter, parts of which are rather bold, as a reminder to you. I'm doing this because God gave me the gift

¹⁶ to be a servant of Christ Jesus to people who are not Jewish. I serve as a priest by spreading the Good News of God. I do this in order that I might bring the nations to God as an acceptable offering, made holy by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷ So Christ Jesus gives me the right to brag about what I'm doing for God.

¹⁸ I'm bold enough to tell you only what Christ has done through me to bring people who are not Jewish to obedience. By what I have said and done, ¹⁹ by the power of miraculous and amazing signs, and by the power of God's Spirit, I have finished spreading the Good News about Christ from Jerusalem to Illyricum.

²⁰ My goal was to spread the Good News where the name of Christ was not known. I didn't want to build on a foundation which others had laid.

²¹ As Scripture says, "Those who were never told about him will see, and those who never heard will understand."

²² This is what has so often kept me from visiting you.

²³ But now I have no new opportunities for work in this region. For many years I have wanted to visit you.

²⁴ Now I am on my way to Spain, so I hope to see you when I come your way. After I have enjoyed your company for a while, I hope that you will support my trip to Spain.

²⁵ Right now I'm going to Jerusalem to bring help to the Christians there.

²⁶ Because the believers in Macedonia and Greece owe a debt to the Christians in Jerusalem, they have decided to take up a collection for the poor among the Christians in Jerusalem.

²⁷ These Macedonians and Greeks have shared the spiritual wealth of the Christians in Jerusalem. So they are obligated to use their earthly wealth to help them.

²⁸ When the collection is completed and I have officially turned the money over to the Christians in Jerusalem, I will visit you on my way to Spain.

²⁹ I know that when I come to you I will bring the full blessing of Christ.

³⁰ Brothers and sisters, I encourage you through our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love that the Spirit creates, to join me in my struggle. Pray to God for me ³¹ that I will be rescued from those people in Judea who refuse to believe. Pray that God's people in Jerusalem will accept the help I bring.

³² Also pray that by the will of God I may come to you with joy and be refreshed when I am with you.

³³ May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 ¹ With this letter I'm introducing Phoebe to you. She is our sister in the Christian faith and a deacon of the church in the city of Cenchrea.

² Give her a Christian welcome that shows you are God's holy people. Provide her with anything she may need, because she has provided help to many people, including me.

³ Greet Prisca and Aquila, my coworkers in the service of Christ Jesus.

⁴ They risked their lives to save me. I'm thankful to them and so are all the churches among the nations.

⁵ Also greet the church that meets in their house. Greet my dear friend Epaphroditus. He was the first person in the province of Asia to become a believer in Christ.

⁶ Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.

⁷ Greet Andronicus and Junia, who are Jewish by birth like me. They are prisoners like me and are prominent among the apostles. They also were Christians before I was.

⁸ Greet Ampliatus my dear friend in the service of the Lord.

⁹ Greet Urbanus our coworker in the service of Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

¹⁰ Greet Apelles, a true Christian. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

¹¹ Greet Herodion, who is Jewish by birth like me. Greet those Christians who belong to the family of Narcissus.

¹² Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard for the Lord. Greet dear Persis, who has worked very hard for the Lord.

¹³ Greet Rufus, that outstanding Christian, and his mother, who has been a mother to me too.

¹⁴ Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters who are with them.

¹⁵ Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all God's people who are with them.

¹⁶ Greet each other with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, I urge you to watch out for those people who create divisions and who make others fall away from the Christian faith by teaching doctrine that is not the same as you have learned. Stay away from them.

¹⁸ People like these are not serving Christ our Lord. They are serving their own desires. By their smooth talk and flattering words they deceive unsuspecting people.

¹⁹ Everyone has heard about your obedience and this makes me happy for you. I want you to do what is good and to avoid what is evil.

²⁰ The God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. May the good will of our Lord Jesus be with you!

²¹ Timothy my coworker greets you; so do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, who are Jewish by birth like me.

²² I, Tertius, who wrote this letter, send you Christian greetings.

²³ Gaius greets you. He is host to me and the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, greets you. Quartus, our brother in the Christian faith, greets you.

²⁴ (OMITTED TEXT)

²⁵ God can strengthen you by the Good News and the message I tell about Jesus Christ. He can strengthen you by revealing the mystery that was kept in silence for a very long time

²⁶ but now is publicly known. The everlasting God ordered that what the prophets wrote must be shown to the people of every nation to bring them to the obedience that is associated with faith.

²⁷ God alone is wise. Glory belongs to him through Jesus Christ forever! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 ¹ From Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and from Sosthenes, our brother in the Christian faith.

² To God's church that was made holy by Christ Jesus and called to be God's holy people in the city of Corinth and to people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

³ Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

⁴ I always thank God for you because Christ Jesus has shown you God's good will.

⁵ Through Christ Jesus you have become rich in every way—in speech and knowledge of every kind.

⁶ Our message about Christ has been verified among you.

⁷ Therefore, you don't lack any gift as you wait eagerly for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed.

⁸ He will continue to give you strength until the end so that no one can accuse you of anything on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹ God faithfully keeps his promises. He called you to be partners with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰ Brothers and sisters, I encourage all of you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to agree with each other and not to split into opposing groups. I want you to be united in your understanding and opinions.

¹¹ Brothers and sisters, some people from Chloe's family have made it clear to me that you are quarreling among yourselves.

¹² This is what I mean: Each of you is saying, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ."

¹³ Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in Paul's name?

¹⁴ I thank God that I didn't baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius

¹⁶ I also baptized Stephanas and his family. Beyond that, I'm not sure whether I baptized anyone else.

¹⁷ Christ didn't send me to baptize. Instead, he sent me to spread the Good News. I didn't use intellectual arguments. That would have made the cross of Christ lose its meaning.

¹⁸ The message about the cross is nonsense to those who are being destroyed, but it is God's power to us who are being saved.

¹⁹ Scripture says, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise. I will reject the intelligence of intelligent people."

²⁰ Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the persuasive speaker of our time? Hasn't God turned the wisdom of the world into nonsense?

²¹ The world with its wisdom was unable to recognize God in terms of his own wisdom. So God decided to use the nonsense of the Good News we speak to save those who believe.

²² Jews ask for miraculous signs, and Greeks look for wisdom, ²³ but our message is that Christ was crucified. This offends Jewish people and makes no sense to people who are not Jewish.

²⁴ But to those Jews and Greeks who are called, he is Christ, God's power and God's wisdom.

²⁵ God's nonsense is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

²⁶ Brothers and sisters, consider what you were when God called you to be Christians. Not many of you were wise from a human point of view. You were not in powerful positions or in the upper social classes.

²⁷ But God chose what the world considers nonsense to put wise people to shame. God chose what the world considers weak to put what is strong to shame.

²⁸ God chose what the world considers ordinary and what it despises—what it considers to be nothing—in order to destroy what it considers to be something.

²⁹ As a result, no one can brag in God's presence.

³⁰ You are partners with Christ Jesus because of God. Jesus has become our wisdom sent from God, our righteousness, our holiness, and our ransom from sin.

³¹ As Scripture says, "Whoever brags must brag about what the Lord has done."

2 ¹ Brothers and sisters, when I came to you, I didn't speak about God's mystery as if it were some kind of brilliant message or wisdom.

² While I was with you, I decided to deal with only one subject—Jesus Christ, who was crucified.

³ When I came to you, I was weak. I was afraid and very nervous.

⁴ I didn't speak my message with persuasive intellectual arguments. I spoke my message with a show of spiritual power

⁵ so that your faith would not be based on human wisdom but on God's power.

⁶ However, we do use wisdom to speak to those who are mature. It is a wisdom that doesn't belong to this world or to the rulers of this world who are in power today and gone tomorrow.

⁷ We speak about the mystery of God's wisdom. It is a wisdom that has been hidden, which God had planned for our glory before the world began.

⁸ Not one of the rulers of this world has known it. If they had, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory.

⁹ But as Scripture says: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined the things that God has prepared for those who love him."

¹⁰ God has revealed those things to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches everything, especially the deep things of God.

¹¹ After all, who knows everything about a person except that person's own spirit? In the same way, no one has known everything about God except God's Spirit.

¹² Now, we didn't receive the spirit that belongs to the world. Instead, we received the Spirit who comes from God so that we could know the things which God has freely given us.

¹³ We don't speak about these things using teachings that are based on intellectual arguments like people do. Instead, we use the Spirit's teachings. We explain spiritual things to those who have the Spirit.

¹⁴ A person who isn't spiritual doesn't accept the teachings of God's Spirit. He thinks they're nonsense. He can't understand them because a person must be spiritual to evaluate them.

¹⁵ Spiritual people evaluate everything but are subject to no one's evaluation.

¹⁶ "Who has known the mind of the Lord so that he can teach him?" However, we have the mind of Christ.

3 ¹ Brothers and sisters, I couldn't talk to you as spiritual people but as people still influenced by your corrupt nature. You were infants in your faith in Christ.

² I gave you milk to drink. I didn't give you solid food because you weren't ready for it. Even now you aren't ready for it

³ because you're still influenced by your corrupt nature. When you are jealous and quarrel among yourselves, aren't you influenced by your corrupt nature and living by human standards?

⁴ When some of you say, "I follow Paul" and others say, "I follow Apollos," aren't you acting like sinful humans?

⁵ Who is Apollos? Who is Paul? They are servants who helped you come to faith. Each did what the Lord gave him to do.

⁶ I planted, and Apollos watered, but God made it grow.

⁷ So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is important because only God makes it grow.

⁸ The one who plants and the one who waters have the same goal, and each will receive a reward for his own work.

⁹ We are God's coworkers. You are God's field. You are God's building.

¹⁰ As a skilled and experienced builder, I used the gift that God gave me to lay the foundation for that building. However, someone else is building on it. Each person must be careful how he builds on it.

¹¹ After all, no one can lay any other foundation than the one that is already laid, and that foundation is Jesus Christ.

¹² People may build on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw.

¹³ The day will make what each one does clearly visible because fire will reveal it. That fire will determine what kind of work each person has done.

¹⁴ If what a person has built survives, he will receive a reward.

¹⁵ If his work is burned up, he will suffer the loss. However, he will be saved, though it will be like going through a fire.

¹⁶ Don't you know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him because God's temple is holy. You are that holy temple!

¹⁸ Don't deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise in the ways of this world, you should give up that wisdom in order to become really wise.

¹⁹ The wisdom of this world is nonsense in God's sight. That's why Scripture says, "God catches the wise in their cleverness."

²⁰ Again Scripture says, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are pointless."

²¹ So don't brag about people. Everything belongs to you.

²² Whether it is Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life or death, present or future things, everything belongs to you.

²³ You belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4 ¹ People should think of us as servants of Christ and managers who are entrusted with God's mysteries.

² Managers are required to be trustworthy.

³ It means very little to me that you or any human court should cross-examine me. I don't even ask myself questions.

⁴ I have a clear conscience, but that doesn't mean I have God's approval. It is the Lord who cross-examines me.

⁵ Therefore, don't judge anything before the appointed time. Wait until the Lord comes. He will also bring to light what is hidden in the dark and reveal people's motives. Then each person will receive praise from God.

⁶ Brothers and sisters, I have applied this to Apollos and myself for your sake. You should learn from us not to go beyond what is written in Scripture. Then you won't arrogantly place one of us in opposition to the other.

⁷ Who says that you are any better than other people? What do you have that wasn't given to you? If you were given what you have, why are you bragging as if it weren't a gift?

⁸ You already have what you want! You've already become rich! You've become kings without us! I wish you really were kings so that we could be kings with you.

⁹ As I see it, God has placed us apostles last in line, like people condemned to die. We have become a spectacle for people and angels to look at.

¹⁰ We have given up our wisdom for Christ, but you have insight because of Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we are dishonored.

¹¹ To this moment, we are hungry, thirsty, poorly dressed, roughly treated, and homeless.

¹² We wear ourselves out doing physical labor. When people verbally abuse us, we bless them. When people persecute us, we endure it.

¹³ When our reputations are attacked, we remain courteous. Right now we have become garbage in the eyes of the world and trash in the sight of all people.

¹⁴ I'm not writing this to make you feel ashamed but to instruct you as my dear children.

¹⁵ You may have countless Christian guardians, but you don't have many spiritual fathers. I became your father in the Christian life by telling you the Good News about Christ Jesus.

¹⁶ So I encourage you to imitate me.

¹⁷ That's why I've sent Timothy to you to help you remember my Christian way of life as I teach it everywhere in every church. Timothy is my dear child, and he faithfully does the Lord's work.

¹⁸ Some of you have become arrogant because you think I won't pay you a visit.

¹⁹ If it's the Lord's will, I'll visit you soon. Then I'll know what these arrogant people are saying and what power they have.

²⁰ God's kingdom is not just talk, it is power.

²¹ When I come to visit you, would you prefer that I punish you or show you love and a gentle spirit?

5 ¹ Your own members are aware that there is sexual sin going on among them. This kind of sin is not even heard of among unbelievers—a man is actually married to his father's wife.

² You're being arrogant when you should have been more upset about this. If you had been upset, the man who did this would have been removed from among you.

³ Although I'm not physically present with you, I am with you in spirit. I have already judged the man who did this as though I were present with you.

⁴ When you have gathered together, I am with you in spirit. Then, in the name of our Lord Jesus, and with his power, ⁵ hand such a person over to Satan to destroy his corrupt nature so that his spiritual nature may be saved on the day of the Lord.

⁶ It's not good for you to brag. Don't you know that a little yeast spreads through the whole batch of dough?

⁷ Remove the old yeast of sin so that you may be a new batch of dough, since you don't actually have the yeast of sin. Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

⁸ So we must not celebrate our festival with the old yeast of sin or with the yeast of vice and wickedness. Instead, we must celebrate it with the bread of purity and truth that has no yeast.

⁹ In my letter to you I told you not to associate with people who continue to commit sexual sins.

¹⁰ I didn't tell you that you could not have any contact with unbelievers who commit sexual sins, are greedy, are dishonest, or worship false gods. If that were the case, you would have to leave this world.

¹¹ Now, what I meant was that you should not associate with people who call themselves brothers or sisters in the Christian faith but live in sexual sin, are greedy, worship false gods, use abusive language, get drunk, or are dishonest. Don't eat with such people.

¹² After all, do I have any business judging those who are outside the Christian faith? Isn't it your business to judge those who are inside?

¹³ God will judge those who are outside. Remove that wicked man from among you.

6 ¹ When one of you has a complaint against another, how dare you go to court to settle the matter in front of wicked people. Why don't you settle it in front of God's holy people?

² Don't you know that God's people will judge the world? So if you're going to judge the world, aren't you capable of judging insignificant cases?

³ Don't you know that we will judge angels, not to mention things in this life?

⁴ When you have cases dealing with this life, why do you allow people whom the church has a low opinion of to be your judges?

⁵ You should be ashamed of yourselves! Don't you have at least one wise person who is able to settle disagreements between believers?

⁶ Instead, one believer goes to court against another believer, and this happens in front of unbelievers.

⁷ You are already totally defeated because you have lawsuits against each other. Why don't you accept the fact that you have been wronged? Why don't you accept that you have been cheated?

⁸ Instead, you do wrong and cheat, and you do this to other believers.

⁹ Don't you know that wicked people won't inherit the kingdom of God? Stop deceiving yourselves! People who continue to commit sexual sins, who worship false gods, those who commit adultery, homosexuals, ¹⁰ or thieves, those who are greedy or drunk, who use abusive language, or who rob people will not inherit the kingdom of God.

¹¹ That's what some of you were! But you have been washed and made holy, and you have received God's approval in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

¹² Someone may say, "I'm allowed to do anything," but not everything is helpful. I'm allowed to do anything, but I won't allow anything to gain control over my life.

¹³ Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food, but God will put an end to both of them. However, the body is not for sexual sin but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body.

¹⁴ God raised the Lord, and by his power God will also raise us.

¹⁵ Don't you realize that your bodies are parts of Christ's body? Should I take the parts of Christ's body and make them parts of a prostitute's body? That's unthinkable!

¹⁶ Don't you realize that the person who unites himself with a prostitute becomes one body with her? God says, "The two will be one."

¹⁷ However, the person who unites himself with the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

¹⁸ Stay away from sexual sins. Other sins that people commit don't affect their bodies the same way sexual sins do. People who sin sexually sin against their own bodies.

¹⁹ Don't you know that your body is a temple that belongs to the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit, whom you received from God, lives in you. You don't belong to yourselves.

²⁰ You were bought for a price. So bring glory to God in the way you use your body.

7¹ Now, concerning the things that you wrote about: It's good for men not to get married.

² But in order to avoid sexual sins, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

³ Husbands and wives should satisfy each other's sexual needs.

⁴ A wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but her husband does. In the same way, a husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but his wife does.

⁵ Don't withhold yourselves from each other unless you agree to do so for a set time to devote yourselves to prayer. Then you should get back together so that Satan doesn't use your lack of self-control to tempt you.

⁶ What I have just said is not meant as a command but as a suggestion.

⁷ I would like everyone to be like me. However, each person has a special gift from God, and these gifts vary from person to person.

⁸ I say to those who are not married, especially to widows: It is good for you to stay single like me.

⁹ However, if you cannot control your desires, you should get married. It is better for you to marry than to burn with sexual desire.

¹⁰ I pass this command along (not really I, but the Lord): A wife shouldn't leave her husband.

¹¹ If she does, she should stay single or make up with her husband. Likewise, a husband should not divorce his wife.

¹² I (not the Lord) say to the rest of you: If any Christian man is married to a woman who is an unbeliever, and she is willing to live with him, he should not divorce her.

¹³ If any Christian woman is married to a man who is an unbeliever, and he is willing to live with her, she should not divorce her husband.

¹⁴ Actually, the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and an unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise, their children would be unacceptable to God, but now they are acceptable to him.

¹⁵ But if the unbelieving partners leave, let them go. Under these circumstances a Christian man or Christian woman is not bound by a marriage vow. God has called you to live in peace.

¹⁶ How do you as a wife know whether you will save your husband? How do you as a husband know whether you will save your wife?

¹⁷ Everyone should live the life that the Lord gave him when God called him. This is the guideline I use in every church.

¹⁸ Any man who was already circumcised when he was called to be a Christian shouldn't undo his circumcision. Any man who was uncircumcised when he was called to be a Christian shouldn't get circumcised.

¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing, and the lack of it is nothing. But keeping what God commands is everything.

²⁰ All people should stay as they were when they were called.

²¹ Were you a slave when you were called? That shouldn't bother you. However, if you have a chance to become free, take it.

²² If the Lord called you when you were a slave, you are the Lord's free person. In the same way, if you were free when you were called, you are Christ's slave.

²³ You were bought for a price. Don't become anyone's slaves.

²⁴ Brothers and sisters, you should remain in whatever circumstances you were in when God called you. God is with you in those circumstances.

²⁵ Concerning virgins: Even though I don't have any command from the Lord, I'll give you my opinion. I'm a person to whom the Lord has shown mercy, so I can be trusted.

²⁶ Because of the present crisis I believe it is good for people to remain as they are.

²⁷ Do you have a wife? Don't seek a divorce. Are you divorced from your wife? Don't look for another one.

²⁸ But if you do get married, you have not sinned. If a virgin gets married, she has not sinned. However, these people will have trouble, and I would like to spare them from that.

²⁹ This is what I mean, brothers and sisters: The time has been shortened. While it lasts, those who are married should live as though they were not.

³⁰ Those who have eyes filled with tears should live as though they have no sorrow. Those who are happy should live as though there was nothing to be happy about. Those who buy something should live as though they didn't own it.

³¹ Those who use the things in this world should do so but not depend on them. It is clear that this world in its present form is passing away.

³² So I don't want you to have any concerns. An unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, that is, about how he can please the Lord.

³³ But the married man is concerned about earthly things, that is, about how he can please his wife.

³⁴ His attention is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is concerned about the Lord's things so that she may be holy in body and in spirit. But the married woman is concerned about earthly things, that is, about how she can please her husband.

³⁵ I'm saying this for your benefit, not to restrict you. I'm showing you how to live a noble life of devotion to the Lord without being distracted by other things.

³⁶ No father would want to do the wrong thing when his virgin daughter is old enough to get married. If she wants to get married, he isn't sinning by letting her get married.

³⁷ However, a father may have come to a decision about his daughter. If his decision is to keep her at home because she doesn't want to get married, that's fine.

³⁸ So it's fine for a father to give his daughter in marriage, but the father who doesn't give his daughter in marriage does even better.

³⁹ A married woman must remain with her husband as long as he lives. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only if the man is a Christian.

⁴⁰ However, she will be more blessed if she stays as she is. That is my opinion, and I think that I, too, have God's Spirit.

8 ¹ Now, concerning food offered to false gods: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes people arrogant, but love builds them up.

² Those who think they know something still have a lot to learn.

³ But if they love God, they are known by God.

⁴ Now about eating food that was offered to false gods: We know that the false gods in this world don't really exist and that no god exists except the one God.

⁵ People may say that there are gods in heaven and on earth—many gods and many lords, as they would call them.

⁶ But for us, "There is only one God, the Father. Everything came from him, and we live for him. There is only one Lord, Jesus Christ. Everything came into being through him, and we live because of him."

⁷ But not everyone knows this. Some people are so used to worshiping false gods that they believe they are eating food offered to a false god. So they feel guilty because their conscience is weak.

⁸ Food will not affect our relationship with God. We are no worse off if we eat that food and no better off if we don't.

⁹ But be careful that by using your freedom you don't somehow make a believer who is weak in faith fall into sin.

¹⁰ For example, suppose someone with a weak conscience sees you, who have this knowledge, eating in the temple of a false god. Won't you be encouraging that person to eat food offered to a false god?

¹¹ In that case, your knowledge is ruining a believer whose faith is weak, a believer for whom Christ died.

¹² When you sin against other believers in this way and harm their weak consciences, you are sinning against Christ.

¹³ Therefore, if eating food offered to false gods causes other believers to lose their faith, I will never eat that kind of food so that I won't make other believers lose their faith.

9¹ Don't you agree that I'm a free man? Don't you agree that I'm an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord? Aren't you the result of my work for the Lord?

² If I'm not an apostle to other people, at least I'm an apostle to you. You are the seal which proves that I am the Lord's apostle.

³ This is how I defend myself to those who cross-examine me.

⁴ Don't we have the right to eat and drink?

⁵ Don't we have the right to take our wives along with us like the other apostles, the Lord's brothers, and Cephas do?

⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who don't have any rights, except to find work to support ourselves?

⁷ Does a soldier ever serve in the army at his own expense? Does anyone plant a vineyard and not eat the grapes? Does anyone take care of a flock and not drink milk from the sheep?

⁸ Am I merely stating some human rule? Don't Moses' Teachings say the same thing?

⁹ Moses' Teachings say, "Never muzzle an ox when it is threshing grain." God's concern isn't for oxen.

¹⁰ Isn't he speaking entirely for our benefit? This was written for our benefit so that the person who plows or threshes should expect to receive a share of the crop.

¹¹ If we have planted the spiritual seed that has been of benefit to you, is it too much if we receive part of the harvest from your earthly goods?

¹² If others have the right to expect this from you, don't we deserve even more? But we haven't used our rights. Instead, we would put up with anything in order not to hinder the Good News of Christ in any way.

¹³ Don't you realize that those who work at the temple get their food from the temple? Don't those who help at the altar get a share of what is on the altar?

¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who spread the Good News should earn their living from the Good News.

¹⁵ I haven't used any of these rights, and I haven't written this in order to use them now. I would rather die than have anyone turn my bragging into meaningless words.

¹⁶ If I spread the Good News, I have nothing to brag about because I have an obligation to do this. How horrible it will be for me if I don't spread the Good News!

¹⁷ If I spread the Good News willingly, I'll have a reward. But if I spread the Good News unwillingly, I'm only doing what I've been entrusted to do.

¹⁸ So what is my reward? It is to spread the Good News free of charge. In that way I won't use the rights that belong to those who spread the Good News.

¹⁹ Although I'm free from all people, I have made myself a slave for all people to win more of them.

²⁰ I became Jewish for Jewish people. I became subject to Moses' Teachings for those who are subject to those laws. I did this to win them even though I'm not subject to Moses' Teachings.

²¹ I became like a person who does not have Moses' Teachings for those who don't have those teachings. I did this to win them even though I have God's teachings. I'm really subject to Christ's teachings.

²² I became like a person weak in faith to win those who are weak in faith. I have become everything to everyone in order to save at least some of them.

²³ I do all this for the sake of the Good News in order to share what it offers.

²⁴ Don't you realize that everyone who runs in a race runs to win, but only one runner gets the prize? Run like them, so that you can win.

²⁵ Everyone who enters an athletic contest goes into strict training. They do it to win a temporary crown, but we do it to win one that will be permanent.

²⁶ So I run—but not without a clear goal ahead of me. So I box—but not as if I were just shadow boxing.

²⁷ Rather, I toughen my body with punches and make it my slave so that I will not be disqualified after I have spread the Good News to others.

10 ¹ I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that all our ancestors who left Egypt were under the cloud, and they all went through the sea.

² They were all united with Moses by baptism in the cloud and in the sea.

³ All of them ate the same spiritual food,

⁴ and all of them drank the same spiritual drink. They drank from the spiritual rock that went with them, and that rock was Christ.

⁵ Yet, God was not pleased with most of them, so their dead bodies were scattered over the desert.

⁶ These things have become examples for us so that we won't desire what is evil, as they did.

⁷ So don't worship false gods as some of them did, as Scripture says, "The people sat down to a feast which turned into an orgy."

⁸ We shouldn't sin sexually as some of them did. Twenty-three thousand of them died on one day.

⁹ We shouldn't put the Lord to the test as some of them did. They were killed by snakes.

¹⁰ Don't complain as some of them did. The angel of death destroyed them.

¹¹ These things happened to make them an example for others. These things were written down as a warning for us who are living in the closing days of history.

¹² So, people who think they are standing firmly should be careful that they don't fall.

¹³ There isn't any temptation that you have experienced which is unusual for humans. God, who faithfully keeps his promises, will not allow you to be tempted beyond your power to resist. But when you are tempted, he will also give you the ability to endure the temptation as your way of escape.

¹⁴ Therefore, my dear friends, get as far away from the worship of false gods as you can.

¹⁵ I'm talking to intelligent people. Judge for yourselves what I'm saying.

¹⁶ When we bless the cup of blessing aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? When we break the bread aren't we sharing in the body of Christ?

¹⁷ Because there is one loaf, we are one body, although we are many individuals. All of us share one loaf.

¹⁸ Look at the people of Israel from a human point of view. Don't those who eat the sacrifices share what is on the altar?

¹⁹ Do I mean that an offering made to a false god is anything, or that a false god itself is anything?

²⁰ Hardly! What I am saying is that these sacrifices which people make are made to demons and not to God. I don't want you to be partners with demons.

²¹ You cannot drink the Lord's cup and the cup of demons. You cannot participate at the table of the Lord and at the table of demons.

²² Are we trying to make the Lord jealous? Are we stronger than he is?

²³ Someone may say, "I'm allowed to do anything," but not everything is helpful. I'm allowed to do anything, but not everything encourages growth.

²⁴ People should be concerned about others and not just about themselves.

²⁵ Eat anything that is sold in the market without letting your conscience trouble you.

²⁶ Certainly, "The earth is the Lord's and everything it contains is his."

²⁷ If an unbeliever invites you to his house for dinner, and you wish to go, eat anything he serves you without letting your conscience trouble you.

²⁸ However, if someone says to you, "This was sacrificed to a god," don't eat it because of the one who informed you and because of conscience.

²⁹ I'm not talking about your conscience but the other person's conscience.

Why should my freedom be judged by someone else's conscience?

³⁰ If I give thanks to God for the food I eat, why am I condemned for that?

³¹ So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything to the glory of God.

³² Don't cause others to stumble, whether they are Jewish, Greek, or members of God's church.

³³ I try to please everyone in every way. I don't think about what would be good for me but about what would be good for many people so that they might be saved.

11 ¹ Imitate me as I imitate Christ.
² I praise you for always thinking about me and for carefully following the traditions that I handed down to you.

³ However, I want you to realize that Christ has authority over every man, a husband has authority over his wife, and God has authority over Christ.

⁴ Every man who covers his head when he prays or speaks what God has revealed dishonors the one who has authority over him.

⁵ Every woman who prays or speaks what God has revealed and has her head uncovered while she speaks dishonors the one who has authority over her. She is like the woman who has her head shaved.

⁶ So if a woman doesn't cover her head, she should cut off her hair. If it's a disgrace for a woman to cut off her hair or shave her head, she should cover her head.

⁷ A man should not cover his head. He is God's image and glory. The woman, however, is man's glory.

⁸ Clearly, man wasn't made from woman but woman from man.

⁹ Man wasn't created for woman but woman for man.

¹⁰ Therefore, a woman should wear something on her head to show she is under someone's authority, out of respect for the angels.

¹¹ Yet, as believers in the Lord, women couldn't exist without men and men couldn't exist without women.

¹² As a woman came into existence from a man, so men come into existence by women, but everything comes from God.

¹³ Judge your own situation. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

¹⁴ Doesn't nature itself teach you that it is disgraceful for a man to have long hair?

¹⁵ Doesn't it teach you that it is a woman's pride to wear her hair long? Her hair is given to her in place of a covering.

¹⁶ If anyone wants to argue about this they can't, because we don't have any custom like this—nor do any of the churches of God.

¹⁷ I have no praise for you as I instruct you in the following matter: When you gather, it results in more harm than good.

¹⁸ In the first place, I hear that when you gather as a church you split up into opposing groups. I believe some of what I hear.

¹⁹ Factions have to exist in order to make it clear who the genuine believers among you are.

²⁰ When you gather in the same place, you can't possibly be eating the Lord's Supper.

²¹ Each of you eats his own supper without waiting for each other. So one person goes hungry and another gets drunk.

²² Don't you have homes in which to eat and drink? Do you despise God's church and embarrass people who don't have anything to eat? What can I say to you? Should I praise you? I won't praise you for this.

²³ After all, I passed on to you what I had received from the Lord. On the night he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread

²⁴ and spoke a prayer of thanksgiving. He broke the bread and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

²⁵ When supper was over, he did the same with the cup. He said, "This cup is the new promise made with my blood.

Every time you drink from it, do it to remember me."

²⁶ Every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup, you tell about the Lord's death until he comes.

²⁷ Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks from the Lord's cup in an improper way will be held responsible for the Lord's body and blood.

²⁸ With this in mind, individuals must determine whether what they are doing is proper when they eat the bread and drink from the cup.

²⁹ Anyone who eats and drinks is eating and drinking a judgment against himself when he doesn't recognize the Lord's body.

³⁰ This is the reason why many of you are weak and sick and quite a number of you have died.

³¹ If we were judging ourselves correctly, we would not be judged.

³² But when the Lord judges us, he disciplines us so that we won't be condemned along with the rest of the world.

³³ Therefore, brothers and sisters, when you gather to eat, wait for each other.

³⁴ Whoever is hungry should eat at home so that you don't have a gathering that brings judgment on you. I will give directions concerning the other matters when I come.

12 ¹ Brothers and sisters, I don't want there to be any misunderstanding concerning spiritual gifts.

² You know that when you were unbelievers, every time you were led to worship false gods you were worshiping gods who couldn't even speak.

³ So I want you to know that no one speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is cursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ There are different spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit gives them.

⁵ There are different ways of serving, and yet the same Lord is served.

⁶ There are different types of work to do, but the same God produces every gift in every person.

⁷ The evidence of the Spirit's presence is given to each person for the common good of everyone.

⁸ The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak with wisdom. The same Spirit gives another person the ability to speak with knowledge.

⁹ To another person the same Spirit gives courageous faith. To another person the same Spirit gives the ability to heal.

¹⁰ Another can work miracles. Another can speak what God has revealed. Another can tell the difference between spirits. Another can speak in different kinds of languages. Another can interpret languages.

¹¹ There is only one Spirit who does all these things by giving what God wants to give to each person.

¹² For example, the body is one unit and yet has many parts. As all the parts form one body, so it is with Christ.

¹³ By one Spirit we were all baptized into one body. Whether we are Jewish or Greek, slave or free, God gave all of us one Spirit to drink.

¹⁴ As you know, the human body is not made up of only one part, but of many parts.

¹⁵ Suppose a foot says, "I'm not a hand, so I'm not part of the body!" Would that mean it's no longer part of the body?

¹⁶ Or suppose an ear says, "I'm not an eye, so I'm not a part of the body!" Would that mean it's no longer part of the body?

¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, how could it hear? If the whole body were an ear, how could it smell?

¹⁸ So God put each and every part of the body together as he wanted it.

¹⁹ How could it be a body if it only had one part?

²⁰ So there are many parts but one body.

²¹ An eye can't say to a hand, "I don't need you!" Or again, the head can't say to the feet, "I don't need you!"

²² The opposite is true. The parts of the body that we think are weaker are the ones we really need.

²³ The parts of the body that we think are less honorable are the ones we give special honor. So our unpresentable parts are made more presentable.

²⁴ However, our presentable parts don't need this kind of treatment. God has put the body together and given special honor to the part that doesn't have it.

²⁵ God's purpose was that the body should not be divided but rather that all of its parts should feel the same concern for each other.

²⁶ If one part of the body suffers, all the other parts share its suffering. If one part is praised, all the others share in its happiness.

²⁷ You are Christ's body and each of you is an individual part of it.

²⁸ In the church God has appointed first apostles, next prophets, third teachers, then those who perform miracles, then those who have the gift of healing, then those who help others, those who are managers, and those who can speak in a number of languages.

²⁹ Not all believers are apostles, are they? Are all of them prophets? Do all of them teach? Do all of them perform miracles

³⁰ or have gifts of healing? Can all of them speak in other languages or interpret languages?

³¹ You only want the better gifts, but I will show you the best thing to do.

13 ¹ I may speak in the languages of humans and of angels. But if I don't have love, I am a loud gong or a clashing cymbal.

² I may have the gift to speak what God has revealed, and I may understand all mysteries and have all knowledge. I may even have enough faith to move mountains. But if I don't have love, I am nothing.

³ I may even give away all that I have and give up my body to be burned. But if I don't have love, none of these things will help me.

⁴ Love is patient. Love is kind. Love isn't jealous. It doesn't sing its own praises. It isn't arrogant.

⁵ It isn't rude. It doesn't think about itself. It isn't irritable. It doesn't keep track of wrongs.

⁶ It isn't happy when injustice is done, but it is happy with the truth.

⁷ Love never stops being patient, never stops believing, never stops hoping, never gives up.

⁹ Our knowledge is incomplete and our ability to speak what God has revealed is incomplete.

¹⁰ But when what is complete comes, then what is incomplete will no longer be used.

¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, thought like a child, and reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I no longer used childish ways.

¹² Now we see a blurred image in a mirror. Then we will see very clearly. Now my knowledge is incomplete. Then I will have complete knowledge as God has complete knowledge of me.

¹³ So these three things remain: faith, hope, and love. But the best one of these is love.

14 ¹ Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially the gift of speaking what God has revealed.

² When a person speaks in another language, he doesn't speak to people but to God. No one understands him. His spirit is speaking mysteries.

³ But when a person speaks what God has revealed, he speaks to people to help them grow, to encourage them, and to comfort them.

⁴ When a person speaks in another language, he helps himself grow. But when a person speaks what God has revealed, he helps the church grow.

⁵ I wish that all of you could speak in other languages, but especially that you could speak what God has revealed. The person who speaks what God has revealed is more important than the person who speaks in other languages. This is true unless he can interpret what he says to help the church grow.

⁶ Brothers and sisters, it wouldn't do you any good if I came to you speaking in other languages, unless I explained revelation, knowledge, prophecy, or doctrine to you.

⁷ Musical instruments like the flute or harp produce sounds. If there is no difference in the notes, how can a person tell what tune is being played?

⁸ For example, if the trumpet doesn't sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?

⁹ In the same way, if you don't speak in a way that can be understood, how will anyone know what you're saying? You will be talking into thin air.

¹⁰ No matter how many different languages there are in the world, not one of them is without meaning.

¹¹ If I don't know what a language means, I will be a foreigner to the person who speaks it and that person will be a foreigner to me.

¹² In the same way, since you're eager to have spiritual gifts, try to excel in them so that you help the church grow.

¹³ So the person who speaks in another language should pray for an interpretation of what he says.

¹⁴ If I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my mind is not productive.

¹⁵ So what does this mean? It means that I will pray with my spirit, and I will pray with my mind. I will sing psalms with my spirit, and I will sing psalms with my mind.

¹⁶ Otherwise, if you praise God only with your spirit, how can outsiders say "Amen!" to your prayer of thanksgiving? They don't know what you're saying.

¹⁷ Your prayer of thanksgiving may be very good, but it doesn't help other people grow.

¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in other languages more than any of you.

¹⁹ Yet, in order to teach others in church, I would rather say five words that can be understood than ten thousand words in another language.

²⁰ Brothers and sisters, don't think like children. When it comes to evil, be like babies, but think like mature people.

²¹ God's word says, "Through people who speak foreign languages and through the mouths of foreigners I will speak to these people, but even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord."

²² So the gift of speaking in other languages is a sign for unbelievers, not for believers. The gift of speaking what God had revealed is a sign for believers, not for unbelievers.

²³ Suppose the whole congregation gathers in the same place and you speak in other languages. When outsiders or unbelievers come in, won't they say that you're out of your mind?

²⁴ Now suppose you speak what God has revealed. When unbelievers or outsiders come in you will show them where they are wrong and convince them that they are sinners.

²⁵ The secrets in their hearts will become known, and in this way they will quickly bow with their faces touching the ground, worship God, and confess that God is truly among you.

²⁶ So what does this mean, brothers and sisters? When you gather, each person has a psalm, doctrine, revelation, another language, or an interpretation. Everything must be done to help each other grow.

²⁷ If people speak in other languages, only two or three at the most should speak. They should do it one at a time, and someone must interpret what each person says.

²⁸ But if an interpreter isn't present, those people should remain silent in church. They should only speak to themselves and to God.

²⁹ Two or three people should speak what God has revealed. Everyone else should decide whether what each person said is right or wrong.

³⁰ If God reveals something to another person who is seated, the first speaker should be silent.

³¹ All of you can take your turns speaking what God has revealed. In that way, everyone will learn and be encouraged.

³² People who speak what God has revealed must control themselves.

³³ God is not a God of disorder but a God of peace. As in all the churches of God's holy people, ³⁴ the women must keep silent. They don't have the right to speak. They must take their place as Moses' Teachings say.

³⁵ If they want to know anything they should ask their husbands at home. It's shameful for a woman to speak in church.

³⁶ Did God's word originate with you? Are you the only ones it has reached?

³⁷ Whoever thinks that he speaks for God or that he is spiritually gifted must acknowledge that what I write to you is what the Lord commands.

³⁸ But whoever ignores what I write should be ignored.

³⁹ So, brothers and sisters, desire to speak what God has revealed, and don't keep anyone from speaking in other languages.

⁴⁰ Everything must be done in a proper and orderly way.

15 ¹ Brothers and sisters, I'm making known to you the Good News which I already told you, which you received, and on which your faith is based.

² In addition, you are saved by this Good News if you hold on to the doctrine I taught you, unless you believed it without thinking it over.

³ I passed on to you the most important points of doctrine that I had received: Christ died to take away our sins as the Scriptures predicted.

⁴ He was placed in a tomb. He was brought back to life on the third day as the Scriptures predicted.

⁵ He appeared to Cephas. Next he appeared to the twelve apostles.

⁶ Then he appeared to more than 500 believers at one time. (Most of these people are still living, but some have died.)

⁷ Next he appeared to James. Then he appeared to all the apostles.

⁸ Last of all, he also appeared to me. I'm like an aborted fetus who was given life.

⁹ I'm the least of the apostles. I'm not even fit to be called an apostle because I persecuted God's church.

¹⁰ But God's kindness made me what I am, and that kindness was not wasted on me. Instead, I worked harder than all the others. It was not I who did it, but God's kindness was with me.

¹¹ So, whether it was I or someone else, this is the message we brought you, and this is what you believed.

¹² If we have told you that Christ has been brought back to life, how can some of you say that coming back from the dead is impossible?

¹³ If the dead can't be brought back to life, then Christ hasn't come back to life.

¹⁴ If Christ hasn't come back to life, our message has no meaning and your faith also has no meaning.

¹⁵ In addition, we are obviously witnesses who lied about God because we testified that he brought Christ back to life. But if it's true that the dead don't come back to life, then God didn't bring Christ back to life.

¹⁶ Certainly, if the dead don't come back to life, then Christ hasn't come back to life either.

¹⁷ If Christ hasn't come back to life, your faith is worthless and sin still has you in its power.

¹⁸ Then those who have died as believers in Christ no longer exist.

¹⁹ If Christ is our hope in this life only, we deserve more pity than any other people.

²⁰ But now Christ has come back from the dead. He is the very first person of those who have died to come back to life.

²¹ Since a man brought death, a man also brought life back from death.

²² As everyone dies because of Adam, so also everyone will be made alive because of Christ.

²³ This will happen to each person in his own turn. Christ is the first, then at his coming, those who belong to him will be made alive.

²⁴ Then the end will come. Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father as he destroys every ruler, authority, and power.

²⁵ Christ must rule until God has put every enemy under his control.

²⁶ The last enemy he will destroy is death.

²⁷ Clearly, God has put everything under Christ's authority. When God says that everything has been put under Christ's authority, this clearly excludes God, since God has put everything under Christ's authority.

²⁸ But when God puts everything under Christ's authority, the Son will put himself under God's authority, since God had put everything under the Son's authority. Then God will be in control of everything.

²⁹ However, people are baptized because the dead will come back to life. What will they do? If the dead can't come back to life, why do people get baptized as if they can come back to life?

³⁰ Why are we constantly putting ourselves in danger?

³¹ Brothers and sisters, I swear to you on my pride in you which Christ Jesus our Lord has given me: I face death every day.

³² If I have fought with wild animals in Ephesus, what have I gained according to the way people look at things? If the dead are not raised, "Let's eat and drink because tomorrow we're going to die!"

³³ Don't let anyone deceive you.

Associating with bad people will ruin decent people.

³⁴ Come back to the right point of view, and stop sinning. Some people don't know anything about God. You should be ashamed of yourselves.

³⁵ But someone will ask, "How do the dead come back to life? With what kind of body will they come back?"

³⁶ You fool! The seed you plant doesn't come to life unless it dies first.

³⁷ What you plant, whether it's wheat or something else, is only a seed. It doesn't have the form that the plant will have.

³⁸ God gives the plant the form he wants it to have. Each kind of seed grows into its own form.

³⁹ Not all flesh is the same. Humans have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds have another, and fish have still another.

⁴⁰ There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. Heavenly bodies don't all have the same splendor, neither do earthly bodies.

⁴¹ The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon has another kind of splendor, and the stars have still another kind of splendor. Even one star differs in splendor from another star.

⁴² That is how it will be when the dead come back to life. When the body is planted, it decays. When it comes back to life, it cannot decay.

⁴³ When the body is planted, it doesn't have any splendor and is weak. When it comes back to life, it has splendor and is strong.

⁴⁴ It is planted as a physical body. It comes back to life as a spiritual body. As there is a physical body, so there is also a spiritual body.

⁴⁵ This is what Scripture says: "The first man, Adam, became a living being." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

⁴⁶ The spiritual does not come first, but the physical and then the spiritual.

⁴⁷ The first man was made from the dust of the earth. He came from the earth. The second man came from heaven.

⁴⁸ The people on earth are like the man who was made from the dust of the earth. The people in heaven are like the man who came from heaven.

⁴⁹ As we have worn the likeness of the man who was made from the dust of the earth, we will also wear the likeness of the man who came from heaven.

⁵⁰ Brothers and sisters, this is what I mean: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. What decays cannot inherit what doesn't decay.

⁵¹ I'm telling you a mystery. Not all of us will die, but we will all be changed.

⁵² It will happen in an instant, in a split second at the sound of the last trumpet. Indeed, that trumpet will sound, and then the dead will come back to life. They will be changed so that they can live forever.

⁵³ This body that decays must be changed into a body that cannot decay. This mortal body must be changed into a body that will live forever.

⁵⁴ When this body that decays is changed into a body that cannot decay, and this mortal body is changed into a body that will live forever, then the teaching of Scripture will come true: "Death is turned into victory!

⁵⁵ Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"

⁵⁶ Sin gives death its sting, and God's standards give sin its power.

⁵⁷ Thank God that he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵⁸ So, then, brothers and sisters, don't let anyone move you off the foundation of your faith. Always excel in the work you do for the Lord. You know that the hard work you do for the Lord is not pointless.

16 ¹ Now, concerning the money to be collected for God's people in Jerusalem: I want you to do as I directed the churches in Galatia.

² Every Sunday each of you should set aside some of your money and save it. Then money won't have to be collected when I come.

³ When I come, I will give letters of introduction to the people whom you choose. You can send your gift to Jerusalem with them.

⁴ If I think it's worthwhile for me to go, they can go with me.

⁵ After I go through the province of Macedonia, I'll visit you. (I will be going through Macedonia.)

⁶ I'll probably stay with you. I might even spend the winter. Then you can give me your support as I travel, wherever I decide to go.

⁷ Right now all I could do is visit you briefly, but if the Lord lets me, I hope to spend some time with you.

⁸ I will be staying here in Ephesus until Pentecost.

⁹ I have a great opportunity to do effective work here, although there are many people who oppose me.

¹⁰ If Timothy comes, make sure that he doesn't have anything to be afraid of while he is with you. He's doing the Lord's work as I am,

¹¹ so no one should treat him with contempt. Without quarreling, give him your support for his trip so that he may come to me. I'm expecting him to arrive with the other Christians.

¹² Concerning Apollos, our brother in the Christian faith: I tried hard to get him to visit you with the other Christians. He didn't want to at this time. However, he will visit you when he has an opportunity.

¹³ Be alert. Be firm in the Christian faith. Be courageous and strong.

¹⁴ Do everything with love.

¹⁵ You know that the family of Stephanas was the first family to be won for Christ in Greece. This family has devoted itself to serving God's people. So I encourage you, brothers and sisters, ¹⁶ to follow the example of people like these and anyone else who shares their labor and hard work.

¹⁷ I am glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus came here. They have made up for your absence.

¹⁸ They have comforted me, and they have comforted you. Therefore, show people like these your appreciation.

¹⁹ The churches in the province of Asia greet you. Aquila and Prisca and the church that meets in their house send their warmest Christian greetings.

²⁰ All the brothers and sisters here greet you. Greet each other with a holy kiss.

²¹ I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand.

²² If anyone doesn't love the Lord, let him be cursed! Our Lord, come!

²³ May the good will of the Lord Jesus be with you.

²⁴ Through Christ Jesus my love is with all of you.

2 Corinthians

1 ¹ From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and from Timothy our brother. To God's church in the city of Corinth and to all God's holy people everywhere in Greece.

² Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

³ Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! He is the Father who is compassionate and the God who gives comfort.

⁴ He comforts us whenever we suffer. That is why whenever other people suffer, we are able to comfort them by using the same comfort we have received from God.

⁵ Because Christ suffered so much for us, we can receive so much comfort from him.

⁶ Besides, if we suffer, it brings you comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, we can effectively comfort you when you endure the same sufferings that we endure.

⁷ We have confidence in you. We know that as you share our sufferings, you also share our comfort.

⁸ Brothers and sisters, we don't want you to be ignorant about the suffering we experienced in the province of Asia. It was so extreme that it was beyond our ability to endure. We even wondered if we could go on living.

⁹ In fact, we still feel as if we're under a death sentence. But we suffered so that we would stop trusting ourselves and learn to trust God, who brings the dead back to life.

¹⁰ He has rescued us from a terrible death, and he will rescue us in the future. We are confident that he will continue to rescue us, ¹¹ since you are also joining to help us when you pray for us. Then many people will thank God for the favor he will show us because many people prayed for us.

¹² We are proud that our conscience is clear. We are proud of the way that we have lived in this world. We have lived with a God-given holiness and sincerity, especially toward you. It was not by human wisdom that we have lived but by God's kindness.

¹³ We are only writing you what you already knew before you read this. I hope you will understand this as long as you live,

¹⁴ even though you now understand it only partially. We are your reason to be proud, as you will be our reason to be proud on the day of our Lord Jesus.

¹⁵ Confident of this, I had previously wanted to visit you so that you could benefit twice.

¹⁶ My plans had been to go from the city of Corinth to the province of Macedonia. Then from Macedonia I had planned to return to you again in Corinth and have you support my trip to Judea.

¹⁷ You don't think that I made these plans lightly, do you? Do you think that when I make plans, I make them in a sinful way? Why would I say that something is true when it isn't?

¹⁸ You can depend on God. Our message to you isn't false; it's true.

¹⁹ God's Son, Jesus Christ, whom I, Silvanus, and Timothy told you about, was true not false. Because of him our message was always true.

²⁰ Certainly, Christ made God's many promises come true. For that reason, because of our message, people also honor God by saying, "Amen!"

²¹ God establishes us, together with you, in a relationship with Christ. He has also anointed us.

²² In addition, he has put his seal of ownership on us and has given us the Spirit as his guarantee.

²³ I appeal to God as a witness on my behalf, that I stayed away from Corinth because I wanted to spare you.

²⁴ It isn't that we want to have control over your Christian faith. Rather, we want to work with you so that you will be happy. Certainly, you are firmly established in the Christian faith.

2 ¹ I decided not to visit you again while I was distressed.

² After all, if I had made you uncomfortable, how could you have cheered me up when you were uncomfortable?

³ This is the very reason I wrote to you. I didn't want to visit you and be distressed by those who should make me happy. I'm confident about all of you that whatever makes me happy also makes you happy.

⁴ I was deeply troubled and anguished. In fact, I had tears in my eyes when I wrote to you. I didn't write to make you uncomfortable but to let you know how much I love you.

⁵ If someone caused distress, I'm not the one really affected. To some extent—although I don't want to emphasize this too much—it has affected all of you.

⁶ The majority of you have imposed a severe enough punishment on that person.

⁷ So now forgive and comfort him. Such distress could overwhelm someone like that if he's not forgiven and comforted.

⁸ That is why I urge you to assure him that you love him.

⁹ I had also written to you to test you. I wanted to see if you would be obedient in every way.

¹⁰ If you forgive someone, so do I. Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did in the presence of Christ for your benefit.

¹¹ I don't want Satan to outwit us. After all, we are not ignorant about Satan's scheming.

¹² When I went to the city of Troas, the Lord gave me an opportunity to spread the Good News about Christ.

¹³ But I didn't have any peace of mind, because I couldn't find Titus, our brother, there. So I said goodbye to the people in Troas and went to the province of Macedonia.

¹⁴ But I thank God, who always leads us in victory because of Christ. Wherever we go, God uses us to make clear what it means to know Christ. It's like a fragrance that fills the air.

¹⁵ To God we are the aroma of Christ among those who are saved and among those who are dying.

¹⁶ To some people we are a deadly fragrance, while to others we are a life-giving fragrance. Who is qualified to tell about Christ?

¹⁷ At least we don't go around selling an impure word of God like many others. The opposite is true. As Christ's spokesmen and in God's presence, we speak the pure message that comes from God.

3 ¹ Do we have to show you our qualifications again? Do we, like some people, need letters that recommend us to you or letters from you that recommend us to others?

² You're our letter of recommendation written in our hearts that everyone knows and reads.

³ It's clear that you are Christ's letter, written as a result of our ministry. You are a letter written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, a letter written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

⁴ Christ gives us confidence about you in God's presence.

⁵ By ourselves we are not qualified in any way to claim that we can do anything. Rather, God makes us qualified.

⁶ He has also qualified us to be ministers of a new promise, a spiritual promise, not a written one. Clearly, what was written brings death, but the Spirit brings life.

⁷ The ministry that brought death was inscribed on stone. Yet, it came with such glory that the people of Israel couldn't look at Moses' face. His face was shining with glory, even though that glory was fading.

⁸ Won't the ministry that brings the Spirit have even more glory?

⁹ If the ministry that brings punishment has glory, then the ministry that brings God's approval has an overwhelming glory.

¹⁰ In fact, the ministry that brings punishment lost its glory because of the superior glory of the other ministry.

¹¹ If that former ministry faded away despite its glory, how much more does that ministry which remains continue to be glorious?

¹² Since we have confidence in the new promise, we speak very boldly.

¹³ We are not like Moses. He kept covering his face with a veil. He didn't want the people of Israel to see the glory fading away.

¹⁴ However, their minds became closed. In fact, to this day the same veil is still there when they read the Old Testament. It isn't removed, because only Christ can remove it.

¹⁵ Yet, even today, when they read the books of Moses, a veil covers their minds.

¹⁶ But whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

¹⁷ This Lord is the Spirit. Wherever the Lord's Spirit is, there is freedom.

¹⁸ As all of us reflect the Lord's glory with faces that are not covered with veils, we are being changed into his image with ever-increasing glory. This comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

4¹ We don't become discouraged, since God has given us this ministry through his mercy.

² Instead, we have refused to use secret and shameful ways. We don't use tricks, and we don't distort God's word. As God watches, we clearly reveal the truth to everyone. This is our letter of recommendation.

³ So if the Good News that we tell others is covered with a veil, it is hidden from those who are dying.

⁴ The god of this world has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. As a result, they don't see the light of the Good News about Christ's glory. It is Christ who is God's image.

⁵ Our message is not about ourselves. It is about Jesus Christ as the Lord. We are your servants for his sake.

⁶ We are his servants because the same God who said that light should shine out of darkness has given us light. For that reason we bring to light the knowledge about God's glory which shines from Christ's face.

⁷ Our bodies are made of clay, yet we have the treasure of the Good News in them. This shows that the superior power of this treasure belongs to God and doesn't come from us.

⁸ In every way we're troubled, but we aren't crushed by our troubles. We're frustrated, but we don't give up.

⁹ We're persecuted, but we're not abandoned. We're captured, but we're not killed.

¹⁰ We always carry around the death of Jesus in our bodies so that the life of Jesus is also shown in our bodies.

¹¹ While we are alive, we are constantly handed over to death for Jesus' sake so that the life of Jesus is also shown in our mortal nature.

¹² Death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

¹³ The following is written, "I believed; therefore, I spoke." We have that same spirit of faith. We also believe; therefore, we also speak.

¹⁴ We know that the one who brought the Lord Jesus back to life will also bring us back to life through Jesus. He will present us to God together with you.

¹⁵ All this is for your sake so that, as God's kindness overflows in the lives of many people, it will produce even more thanksgiving to the glory of God.

¹⁶ That is why we are not discouraged. Though outwardly we are wearing out, inwardly we are renewed day by day.

¹⁷ Our suffering is light and temporary and is producing for us an eternal glory that is greater than anything we can imagine.

¹⁸ We don't look for things that can be seen but for things that can't be seen. Things that can be seen are only temporary. But things that can't be seen last forever.

5 ¹ We know that if the life we live here on earth is ever taken down like a tent, we still have a building from God. It is an eternal house in heaven that isn't made by human hands.

² In our present tent-like existence we sigh, since we long to put on the house we will have in heaven.

³ After we have put it on, we won't be naked.

⁴ While we are in this tent, we sigh. We feel distressed because we don't want to take off the tent, but we do want to put on the eternal house. Then eternal life will put an end to our mortal existence.

⁵ God has prepared us for this and has given us his Spirit to guarantee it.

⁶ So we are always confident. We know that as long as we are living in these bodies, we are living away from the Lord.

⁷ Indeed, our lives are guided by faith, not by sight.

⁸ We are confident and prefer to live away from this body and to live with the Lord.

⁹ Whether we live in the body or move out of it, our goal is to be pleasing to him.

¹⁰ All of us must appear in front of Christ's judgment seat. Then all people will receive what they deserve for the good or evil they have done while living in their bodies.

¹¹ As people who know what it means to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. God already knows what we are, and I hope that you also know what we are.

¹² We are not trying to show you our qualifications again, but we are giving you an opportunity to be proud of us. Then you can answer those who are proud of their appearance rather than their character.

¹³ So if we were crazy, it was for God. If we are sane, it is for you.

¹⁴ Clearly, Christ's love guides us. We are convinced of the fact that one man has died for all people. Therefore, all people have died.

¹⁵ He died for all people so that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for the man who died and was brought back to life for them.

¹⁶ So from now on we don't think of anyone from a human point of view. If we did think of Christ from a human point of view, we don't anymore.

¹⁷ Whoever is a believer in Christ is a new creation. The old way of living has disappeared. A new way of living has come into existence.

¹⁸ God has done all this. He has restored our relationship with him through Christ, and has given us this ministry of restoring relationships.

¹⁹ In other words, God was using Christ to restore his relationship with humanity. He didn't hold people's faults against them, and he has given us this message of restored relationships to tell others.

²⁰ Therefore, we are Christ's representatives, and through us God is calling you. We beg you on behalf of Christ to become reunited with God.

²¹ God had Christ, who was sinless, take our sin so that we might receive God's approval through him.

6 ¹ Since we are God's coworkers, we urge you not to let God's kindness be wasted on you.

² God says, "At the right time I heard you. On the day of salvation I helped you." Listen, now is God's acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation!

³ We don't give people any opportunity to find fault with how we serve.

⁴ Instead, our lives demonstrate that we are God's servants. We have endured many things: suffering, distress, anxiety, ⁵ beatings, imprisonments, riots, hard work, sleepless nights, and lack of food.

⁶ People can see our purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives, our sincere love,

⁷ truthfulness, and the presence of God's power. We demonstrate that we are God's servants

⁸ as we are praised and dishonored, as we are slandered and honored, and as we use what is right to attack what is wrong and to defend the truth. We are treated as dishonest although we are honest, ⁹ as unknown although we are well-known, as dying although, as you see, we go on living. We are punished, but we are not killed.

¹⁰ People think we are sad although we're always glad, that we're beggars although we make many people spiritually rich, that we have nothing although we possess everything.

¹¹ We have been very open in speaking to you Corinthians. We have a place for you in our hearts.

¹² We haven't cut you off. Your own emotions have cut you off from us.

¹³ I'm talking to you as I would talk to children. Treat us the same way we've treated you. Make a place for us in your hearts too.

¹⁴ Stop forming inappropriate relationships with unbelievers. Can right and wrong be partners? Can light have anything in common with darkness?

¹⁵ Can Christ agree with the devil? Can a believer share life with an unbeliever?

¹⁶ Can God's temple contain false gods? Clearly, we are the temple of the living God. As God said, "I will live and walk among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people."

¹⁷ The Lord says, "Get away from unbelievers. Separate yourselves from them. Have nothing to do with anything unclean. Then I will welcome you."

¹⁸ The Lord Almighty says, "I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters."

7 ¹ Since we have these promises, dear friends, we need to cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit and live a holy life in the fear of God.

² Open your hearts to us. We haven't treated anyone unjustly, ruined anyone, or cheated anyone.

³ I'm not saying this to condemn you. I've already told you that you are in our hearts so that we will live and die together.

⁴ I have great confidence in you, and I have a lot of reasons to be proud of you. Even as we suffer, I'm encouraged and feel very happy.

⁵ Ever since we arrived in the province of Macedonia, we've had no rest. Instead, we suffer in a number of ways. Outwardly we have conflicts, and inwardly we have fears.

⁶ Yet God, who comforts those who are dejected, comforted us when Titus arrived.

⁷ We were comforted not only by his arrival but also by learning about the comfort he had received while he was with you. He told us how you wanted to see me, how sorry you are for what you've done, and how concerned you are about me. This made me even happier.

⁸ If my letter made you uncomfortable, I'm not sorry. But since my letter did make you uncomfortable for a while, I was sorry.

⁹ But I'm happy now, not because I made you uncomfortable, but because the distress I caused you has led you to change the way you think and act. You were distressed in a godly way, so we haven't done you any harm.

¹⁰ In fact, to be distressed in a godly way causes people to change the way they think and act and leads them to be saved. No one can regret that. But the distress that the world causes brings only death.

¹¹ When you became distressed in a godly way, look at how much devotion it caused you to have. You were ready to clear yourselves of the charges against you. You were disgusted with the wrong that had been done. You were afraid. You wanted to see us. You wanted to show your concern for us. You were ready to punish the wrong that had been done. In every way you have demonstrated that you are people who are innocent in this matter.

¹² So, when I wrote to you, I didn't write because of the man who did the wrong or the man who was hurt by it. Rather, I wrote because I wanted you to show your devotion to us in God's sight.

¹³ This is what has comforted us. In addition to being comforted, we were especially pleased to see how happy Titus was. All of you had put his mind at ease.

¹⁴ I didn't have to be ashamed of anything I had said to him when I bragged about you. Since everything we told you was true, our bragging to Titus has also proved to be true.

¹⁵ His deepest feelings go out to you even more as he remembers how obedient all of you were, and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

¹⁶ I'm pleased that I can be confident about you in every way.

8¹ Brothers and sisters, we want you to know how God showed his kindness to the churches in the province of Macedonia.

² While they were being severely tested by suffering, their overflowing joy, along with their extreme poverty, has made them even more generous.

³ I assure you that by their own free will they have given all they could, even more than they could afford.

⁴ They made an appeal to us, begging us to let them participate in the ministry of God's kindness to his holy people in Jerusalem.

⁵ They did more than we had expected. First, they gave themselves to the Lord and to us, since this was God's will.

⁶ This led us to urge Titus to finish his work of God's kindness among you in the same way as he had already started it.

⁷ Indeed, the more your faith, your ability to speak, your knowledge, your dedication, and your love for us increase, the more we want you to participate in this work of God's kindness.

⁸ I'm not commanding you, but I'm testing how genuine your love is by pointing out the dedication of others.

⁹ You know about the kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ. He was rich, yet for your sake he became poor in order to make you rich through his poverty.

¹⁰ I'm giving you my opinion because it will be helpful to you. Last year you were not only willing to take a collection but had already started to do it.

¹¹ So finish what you began to do. Then your willingness will be matched by what you accomplish ¹² with whatever contributions you have. Since you are willing to do this, remember that people are accepted if they give what they are able to give. God doesn't ask for what they don't have.

¹³ I don't mean that others should have relief while you have hardship. Rather, it's a matter of striking a balance.

¹⁴ At the present time, your surplus fills their need so that their surplus may fill your need. In this way things balance out.

¹⁵ This is what Scripture says: "Those who had gathered a lot didn't have too much, and those who gathered a little didn't have too little."

¹⁶ I thank God for making Titus as dedicated to you as I am.

¹⁷ He accepted my request and eagerly went to visit you by his own free will.

¹⁸ With him we have sent our Christian brother whom all the churches praise for the way he tells the Good News.

¹⁹ More than that, the churches elected him to travel with us and bring this gift of God's kindness. We are administering it in a way that brings glory to the Lord and shows that we are doing it willingly.

²⁰ We don't want anyone to find fault with the way we are administering this generous gift.

²¹ We intend to do what is right, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of people.

²² We have also sent with them our Christian brother whom we have often tested in many ways and found to be a dedicated worker. We find that he is much more dedicated now than ever because he has so much confidence in you.

²³ If any questions are raised, remember that Titus is my partner and coworker to help you. The other men are representatives of the churches and bring glory to Christ.

²⁴ So give these men a demonstration of your love. Show their congregations that we were right to be proud of you.

9 ¹ I don't need to write anything further to you about helping the Christians in Jerusalem.

² I know how willing you are to help, and I brag about you to the believers in the province of Macedonia. I tell them, "The people of Greece have been ready to send their collection since last year," and your enthusiasm has moved most of them to act.

³ I've sent my coworkers so that when we brag that you're ready, we can back it up.

⁴ Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me, they might find out that you're not ready after all. This would embarrass us for feeling so confident as much as it would embarrass you.

⁵ So I thought that I should encourage our coworkers to visit you before I do and make arrangements for this gift that you had already promised to give. Then it will be the blessing it was intended to be, and it won't be something you're forced to do.

⁶ Remember this: The farmer who plants a few seeds will have a very small harvest. But the farmer who plants because he has received God's blessings will receive a harvest of God's blessings in return.

⁷ Each of you should give whatever you have decided. You shouldn't be sorry that you gave or feel forced to give, since God loves a cheerful giver.

⁸ Besides, God will give you his constantly overflowing kindness. Then, when you always have everything you need, you can do more and more good things.

⁹ Scripture says, "The righteous person gives freely to the poor. His righteousness continues forever."

¹⁰ God gives seed to the farmer and food to those who need to eat. God will also give you seed and multiply it. In your lives he will increase the things you do that have his approval.

¹¹ God will make you rich enough so that you can always be generous. Your generosity will produce thanksgiving to God because of us.

¹² What you do to serve others not only provides for the needs of God's people, but also produces more and more prayers of thanksgiving to God.

¹³ You will honor God through this genuine act of service because of your commitment to spread the Good News of Christ and because of your generosity in sharing with them and everyone else.

¹⁴ With deep affection they will pray for you because of the extreme kindness that God has shown you.

¹⁵ I thank God for his gift that words cannot describe.

10 ¹ I, Paul, make my appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ. I'm the one who is humble when I'm with you but forceful toward you when I'm not with you.

² I beg you that when I am with you I won't have to deal forcefully with you. I expect I will have to because some people think that we are only guided by human motives.

³ Of course we are human, but we don't fight like humans.

⁴ The weapons we use in our fight are not made by humans. Rather, they are powerful weapons from God. With them we destroy people's defenses, that is, their arguments

⁵ and all their intellectual arrogance that oppose the knowledge of God. We take every thought captive so that it is obedient to Christ.

⁶ We are ready to punish every act of disobedience when you have become completely obedient.

⁷ Look at the plain facts! If anyone is confident he belongs to Christ, he should take note that we also belong to Christ.

⁸ So, if I brag a little too much about the authority which the Lord gave us, I'm not ashamed. The Lord gave us this authority to help you, not to hurt you.

⁹ I don't want you to think that I'm trying to frighten you with my letters.

¹⁰ I know that someone is saying that my letters are powerful and strong, but that I'm a weakling and a terrible speaker.

¹¹ The person who is saying those things should take note of this fact: When we are with you we will do the things that we wrote about in our letters when we weren't with you.

¹² We wouldn't put ourselves in the same class with or compare ourselves to those who are bold enough to make their own recommendations. Certainly, when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves to themselves, they show how foolish they are.

¹³ How can we brag about things that no one can evaluate? Instead, we will only brag about what God has given us to do—coming to the city of Corinth where you live.

¹⁴ It's not as though we hadn't already been to Corinth. We're not overstating the facts. The fact is that we were the first to arrive in Corinth with the Good News about Christ.

¹⁵ How can we brag about things done by others that can't be evaluated? We have confidence that as your faith grows, you will think enough of us to give us the help we need to carry out our assignment—

¹⁶ spreading the Good News in the regions far beyond you. We won't brag about things already accomplished by someone else.

¹⁷ "Whoever brags should brag about what the Lord has done."

¹⁸ It isn't the person who makes his own recommendation who receives approval, but the person whom the Lord recommends.

11 ¹ I want you to put up with a little foolishness from me. I'm sure that you will.

² I'm as protective of you as God is. After all, you're a virgin whom I promised in marriage to one man—Christ.

³ However, I'm afraid that as the snake deceived Eve by its tricks, so your minds may somehow be lured away from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

⁴ When someone comes to you telling about another Jesus whom we didn't tell you about, you're willing to put up with it. When you receive a spirit that is different from the Spirit you received earlier, you're also willing to put up with that. When someone tells you good news that is different from the Good News you already accepted, you're willing to put up with that too.

⁵ I don't think I'm inferior in any way to your super-apostles.

⁶ Even though I'm not good with words, I know what I'm talking about. Timothy and I have made this clear to you in every possible way.

⁷ Did I commit a sin when I humbled myself by telling you the Good News of God free of charge so that you could become important?

⁸ I robbed other churches by taking pay from them to serve you.

⁹ When I was with you and needed something, I didn't bother any of you for help. My friends from the province of Macedonia supplied everything I needed. I kept myself from being a financial burden to you in any way, and I will continue to do that.

¹⁰ As surely as I have Christ's truth, my bragging will not be silenced anywhere in Greece.

¹¹ Why? Because I don't love you? God knows that I do love you.

¹² But I'll go on doing what I'm doing. This will take away the opportunity of those people who want to brag because they think they're like us.

¹³ People who brag like this are false apostles. They are dishonest workers, since they disguise themselves as Christ's apostles.

¹⁴ And no wonder, even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

¹⁵ So it's not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants who have God's approval. In the end they will get what they deserve.

¹⁶ Again I say that no one should think that I'm a fool. But if you do, then take me for a fool so that I can also brag a little.

¹⁷ What I say as I start bragging is foolishness. It's not something I would say if I were speaking for the Lord.

¹⁸ Since it's common for people to brag, I'll do it too.

¹⁹ You're wise, so you'll gladly put up with fools.

²⁰ When someone makes you slaves, consumes your wealth, seizes your property, orders you around, or slaps your faces, you put up with it.

²¹ I'm ashamed to admit it, but Timothy and I don't have the strength to do those things to you. Whatever other people dare to brag about, I, like a fool, can also brag about.

²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abraham's descendants? So am I.

²³ Are they Christ's servants? It's insane to say it, but I'm a far better one. I've done much more work, been in prison many more times, been beaten more severely, and have faced death more often.

²⁴ Five times the Jewish leaders had me beaten with 39 lashes;

²⁵ three times Roman officials had me beaten with clubs. Once people tried to stone me to death; three times I was shipwrecked, and I drifted on the sea for a night and a day.

²⁶ Because I've traveled a lot, I've faced dangers from raging rivers, from robbers, from my own people, and from other people. I've faced dangers in the city, in the open country, on the sea, and from believers who turned out to be false friends.

²⁷ Because I've had to work so hard, I've often gone without sleep, been hungry and thirsty, and gone without food and without proper clothes during cold weather.

²⁸ Besides these external matters, I have the daily pressure of my anxiety about all the churches.

²⁹ When anyone is weak, I'm weak too. When anyone is caught in a trap, I'm also harmed.

³⁰ If I must brag, I will brag about the things that show how weak I am.

³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is praised forever, knows that I'm not lying.

³² The governor under King Aretas put guards around the city of Damascus to catch me.

³³ So I was let down in a basket through an opening in the wall and escaped from him.

12 ¹ I must brag, although it doesn't do any good. I'll go on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

² I know a follower of Christ who was snatched away to the third heaven fourteen years ago. I don't know whether this happened to him physically or spiritually. Only God knows.

³ I know that this person

⁴ was snatched away to paradise where he heard things that can't be expressed in words, things that humans cannot put into words. I don't know whether this happened to him physically or spiritually. Only God knows.

⁵ I'll brag about this person, but I won't brag about myself unless it's about my weaknesses.

⁶ If I ever wanted to brag, I wouldn't be a fool. Instead, I would be telling the truth. But I'm going to spare you so that no one may think more of me than what he sees or hears about me,

⁷ especially because of the excessive number of revelations that I've had. Therefore, to keep me from becoming conceited, I am forced to deal with a recurring problem. That problem, Satan's messenger, torments me to keep me from being conceited.

⁸ I begged the Lord three times to take it away from me.

⁹ But he told me: "My kindness is all you need. My power is strongest when you are weak." So I will brag even more about my weaknesses in order that Christ's power will live in me.

¹⁰ Therefore, I accept weakness, mistreatment, hardship, persecution, and difficulties suffered for Christ. It's clear that when I'm weak, I'm strong.

¹¹ I have become a fool. You forced me to be one. You should have recommended me to others. Even if I'm nothing, I wasn't inferior in any way to your super-apostles.

¹² While I was among you I patiently did the signs, wonders, and miracles which prove that I'm an apostle.

¹³ How were you treated worse than the other churches, except that I didn't bother you for help? Forgive me for this wrong!

¹⁴ I'm ready to visit you for a third time, and I won't bother you for help. I don't want your possessions. Instead, I want you. Children shouldn't have to provide for their parents, but parents should provide for their children.

¹⁵ I will be very glad to spend whatever I have. I'll even give myself for you. Do you love me less because I love you so much?

¹⁶ You agree, then, that I haven't been a burden to you. Was I a clever person who trapped you by some trick?

¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you through any of the men I sent you?

¹⁸ I encouraged Titus to visit you, and I sent my friend with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Didn't we have the same motives and do things the same way?

¹⁹ Have you been thinking all along that we're trying to defend ourselves to you? We speak as Christ's people in God's sight. Everything we do, dear friends, is for your benefit.

²⁰ I'm afraid that I may come and find you different from what I want you to be, and that you may find me different from what you want me to be. I'm afraid that there may be rivalry, jealousy, hot tempers, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly conduct.

²¹ I'm afraid that when I come to you again, my God may humble me. I may have to grieve over many who formerly led sinful lives and have not changed the way they think and act about the perversion, sexual sins, and promiscuity in which they have been involved.

13 ¹ This is the third time that I'll be visiting you. Every accusation must be verified by two or three witnesses.

² I already warned you when I was with you the second time, and even though I'm not there now, I'm warning you again. When I visit you again, I won't spare you. That goes for all those who formerly led sinful lives as well as for all the others.

³ Since you want proof that Christ is speaking through me, that's what you'll get. Christ isn't weak in dealing with you. Instead, he makes his power felt among you.

⁴ He was weak when he was crucified, but by God's power he lives. We are weak with him, but by God's power we will live for you with his help.

⁵ Examine yourselves to see whether you are still in the Christian faith. Test yourselves! Don't you recognize that you are people in whom Jesus Christ lives? Could it be that you're failing the test?

⁶ I hope that you will realize that we haven't failed the test.

⁷ We pray to God that you won't do anything wrong. It's not that we want to prove that we've passed the test. Rather, we want you to do whatever is right, even if we seem to have failed.

⁸ We can't do anything against the truth but only to help the truth.

⁹ We're glad when we are weak and you are strong. We are also praying for your improvement.

¹⁰ That's why I'm writing this letter while I'm not with you. When I am with you I don't want to be harsh by using the authority that the Lord gave me. The Lord gave us this authority to help you, not to hurt you.

¹¹ With that, brothers and sisters, I must say goodbye. Make sure that you improve. Accept my encouragement. Share the same attitude and live in peace. The God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³ All of God's holy people greet you.

¹⁴ May the Lord Jesus Christ's good will, God's love, and the Holy Spirit's presence be with all of you!

Galatians

1 ¹ From Paul—an apostle chosen not by any group or individual but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who brought him back to life—

² and all the believers who are with me. To the churches in Galatia.

³ Good will and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

⁴ In order to free us from this present evil world, Christ took the punishment for our sins, because that was what our God and Father wanted.

⁵ Glory belongs to our God and Father forever! Amen.

⁶ I'm surprised that you're so quickly deserting Christ, who called you in his kindness, to follow a different kind of good news.

⁷ But what some people are calling good news is not really good news at all. They are confusing you. They want to distort the Good News about Christ.

⁸ Whoever tells you good news that is different from the Good News we gave you should be condemned to hell, even if he is one of us or an angel from heaven.

⁹ I'm now telling you again what we've told you in the past: If anyone tells you good news that is different from the Good News you received, that person should be condemned to hell.

¹⁰ Am I saying this now to win the approval of people or God? Am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be Christ's servant.

¹¹ I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the Good News I have spread is not a human message.

¹² I didn't receive it from any person. I wasn't taught it, but Jesus Christ revealed it to me.

¹³ You heard about the way I once lived when I followed the Jewish religion. You heard how I violently persecuted God's church and tried to destroy it.

¹⁴ You also heard how I was far ahead of other Jews in my age group in following the Jewish religion. I had become that fanatical for the traditions of my ancestors.

¹⁵ But God, who appointed me before I was born and who called me by his kindness, was pleased ¹⁶ to show me his Son. He did this so that I would tell people who are not Jewish that his Son is the Good News.

When this happened, I didn't talk it over with any other person.

¹⁷ I didn't even go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went to Arabia and then came back to Damascus.

¹⁸ Then, three years later I went to Jerusalem to become personally acquainted with Cephas. I stayed with him for fifteen days.

¹⁹ I didn't see any other apostle. I only saw James, the Lord's brother.

²⁰ (God is my witness that what I'm writing is not a lie.)

²¹ Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

²² The churches of Christ in Judea didn't know me personally.

²³ The only thing they had heard was this: "The man who persecuted us is now spreading the faith that he once tried to destroy."

²⁴ So they praised God for what had happened to me.

2 ¹ Then 14 years later I went to Jerusalem again with Barnabas. I also took Titus along.

² I went in response to a revelation from God. I showed them the way I spread the Good News among people who are not Jewish. I did this in a private meeting with those recognized as important people to see whether all my efforts had been wasted.

³ Titus was with me, and although he is Greek, no one forced him to be circumcised.

⁴ False Christians were brought in. They slipped in as spies to learn about the freedom Christ Jesus gives us. They hoped to find a way to control us.

⁵ But we did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the Good News would always be yours.

⁶ Those who were recognized as important people didn't add a single thing to my message. (What sort of people they were makes no difference to me, since God doesn't play favorites.)

⁸ The one who made Peter an apostle to Jewish people also made me an apostle to people who are not Jewish.

⁹ James, Cephas, and John (who were recognized as the most important people) acknowledged that God had given me this special gift. So they shook hands with Barnabas and me, agreeing to be our partners. It was understood that we would work among the people who are not Jewish and they would work among Jewish people.

¹⁰ The only thing they asked us to do was to remember the poor, the very thing which I was eager to do.

¹¹ When Cephas came to Antioch, I had to openly oppose him because he was completely wrong.

¹² He ate with people who were not Jewish until some men James had sent from Jerusalem arrived. Then Cephas drew back and would not associate with people who were not Jewish. He was afraid of those who insisted that circumcision was necessary.

¹³ The other Jewish Christians also joined him in this hypocrisy. Even Barnabas was swept along with them.

¹⁴ But I saw that they were not properly following the truth of the Good News. So I told Cephas in front of everyone, "You're Jewish, but you live like a person who is not Jewish. So how can you insist that people who are not Jewish must live like Jews?"

¹⁵ We are Jewish by birth, not sinners from other nations.

¹⁶ Yet, we know that people don't receive God's approval because of their own efforts to live according to a set of standards, but only by believing in Jesus Christ. So we also believed in Jesus Christ in order to receive God's approval by faith in Christ and not because of our own efforts. People won't receive God's approval because of their own efforts to live according to a set of standards.

¹⁷ If we, the same people who are searching for God's approval in Christ, are still sinners, does that mean that Christ encourages us to sin? That's unthinkable!

¹⁸ If I rebuild something that I've torn down, I admit that I was wrong to tear it down.

¹⁹ When I tried to obey the law's standards, those laws killed me. As a result, I live in a relationship with God. I have been crucified with Christ.

²⁰ I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live I live by believing in God's Son, who loved me and took the punishment for my sins.

²¹ I don't reject God's kindness. If we receive God's approval by obeying laws, then Christ's death was pointless.

3¹ You stupid people of Galatia! Who put you under an evil spell? Wasn't Christ Jesus' crucifixion clearly described to you?

² I want to learn only one thing from you. Did you receive the Spirit by your own efforts to live according to a set of standards or by believing what you heard?

³ Are you that stupid? Did you begin in a spiritual way only to end up doing things in a human way?

⁴ Did you suffer so much for nothing? I doubt that it was for nothing!

⁵ Does God supply you with the Spirit and work miracles among you through your own efforts or through believing what you heard?

⁶ Abraham serves as an example. He believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham.

⁷ You must understand that people who have faith are Abraham's descendants.

⁸ Scripture saw ahead of time that God would give his approval to non-Jewish people who have faith. So Scripture announced the Good News to Abraham ahead of time when it said, "Through you all the people of the world will be blessed."

⁹ So people who believe are blessed together with Abraham, the man of faith.

¹⁰ Certainly, there is a curse on all who rely on their own efforts to live according to a set of standards because Scripture says, "Whoever doesn't obey everything that is written in Moses' Teachings is cursed."

¹¹ No one receives God's approval by obeying the law's standards since, "The person who has God's approval will live by faith."

¹² Laws have nothing to do with faith, but, "Whoever obeys laws will live because of the laws he obeys."

¹³ Christ paid the price to free us from the curse that God's laws bring by becoming cursed instead of us. Scripture says, "Everyone who is hung on a tree is cursed."

¹⁴ Christ paid the price so that the blessing promised to Abraham would come to all the people of the world through Jesus Christ and we would receive the promised Spirit through faith.

¹⁶ The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his descendant. Scripture doesn't say, "descendants," referring to many, but "your descendant," referring to one. That descendant is Christ.

¹⁸ If we have to gain the inheritance by following those laws, then it no longer comes to us because of the promise. However, God freely gave the inheritance to Abraham through a promise.

¹⁹ What, then, is the purpose of the laws given to Moses? They were added to identify what wrongdoing is. Moses' laws did this until the descendant to whom the promise was given came. It was put into effect through angels, using a mediator.

²⁰ A mediator is not used when there is only one person involved, and God has acted on his own.

²¹ Does this mean, then, that the laws given to Moses contradict God's promises? That's unthinkable! If those laws could give us life, then certainly we would receive God's approval because we obeyed them.

²² But Scripture states that the whole world is controlled by the power of sin.

Therefore, a promise based on faith in Jesus Christ could be given to those who believe.

²³ We were kept under control by Moses' laws until this faith came. We were under their control until this faith which was about to come would be revealed.

²⁴ Before Christ came, Moses' laws served as our guardian. Christ came so that we could receive God's approval by faith.

²⁵ But now that this faith has come, we are no longer under the control of a guardian.

²⁶ You are all God's children by believing in Christ Jesus.

²⁷ Clearly, all of you who were baptized in Christ's name have clothed yourselves with Christ.

²⁸ There are neither Jews nor Greeks, slaves nor free people, males nor females. You are all the same in Christ Jesus.

²⁹ If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants and heirs, as God promised.

4 ¹ Let me explain further. As long as an heir is a child, he is no better off than a slave, even though he owns everything.

² He is placed under the control of guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

³ It was the same way with us. When we were children, we were slaves to the principles of this world.

⁴ But when the right time came, God sent his Son into the world. A woman gave birth to him, and he came under the control of God's laws.

⁵ God sent him to pay for the freedom of those who were controlled by these laws so that we would be adopted as his children.

⁶ Because you are God's children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into us to call out, "Abba! Father!"

⁷ So you are no longer slaves but God's children. Since you are God's children, God has also made you heirs.

⁸ When you didn't know God, you were slaves to things which are really not gods at all.

⁹ But now you know God, or rather, God knows you. So how can you turn back again to the powerless and bankrupt principles of this world? Why do you want to become their slaves all over again?

¹⁰ You religiously observe days, months, seasons, and years!

¹¹ I'm afraid for you. Maybe the hard work I spent on you has been wasted.

¹² Brothers and sisters, I beg you to become like me. After all, I became like you were. You didn't do anything wrong to me.

¹³ You know that the first time I brought you the Good News I was ill.

¹⁴ Even though my illness was difficult for you, you didn't despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were God's messenger or Christ Jesus himself.

¹⁵ What happened to your positive attitude? It's a fact that if it had been possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me.

¹⁶ Can it be that I have become your enemy for telling you the truth?

¹⁷ These people who distort the Good News are devoted to you, but not in a good way. They don't want you to associate with me so that you will be devoted only to them.

¹⁸ (Devotion to a good cause is always good, even when I'm not with you.)

¹⁹ My children, I am suffering birth pains for you again until Christ is formed in you.

²⁰ I wish I were with you right now so that I could change the tone of my voice. I'm completely puzzled by what you've done!

²¹ Those who want to be controlled by Moses' laws should tell me something. Are you really listening to what Moses' Teachings say?

²² Scripture says that Abraham had two sons, one by a woman who was a slave and the other by a free woman.

²³ Now, the son of the slave woman was conceived in a natural way, but the son of the free woman was conceived through a promise made to Abraham.

²⁴ I'm going to use these historical events as an illustration. The women illustrate two arrangements. The one woman, Hagar, is the arrangement made on Mount Sinai. Her children are born into slavery.

²⁵ Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia. She is like Jerusalem today because she and her children are slaves.

²⁶ But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

²⁷ Scripture says: "Rejoice, women who cannot get pregnant, who cannot give birth to any children! Break into shouting, those who feel no pains of childbirth! Because the deserted woman will have more children than the woman who has a husband."

²⁸ Now you, brothers and sisters, are children of the promise like Isaac.

²⁹ Furthermore, at that time the son who was conceived in a natural way persecuted the son conceived in a spiritual way. That's exactly what's happening now.

³⁰ But what does Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, because the son of the slave woman must never share the inheritance with the son of the free woman."

³¹ Brothers and sisters, we are not children of a slave woman but of the free woman.

5 ¹ Christ has freed us so that we may enjoy the benefits of freedom. Therefore, be firm in this freedom, and don't become slaves again.

² I, Paul, can guarantee that if you allow yourselves to be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

³ Again, I insist that everyone who allows himself to be circumcised must realize that he obligates himself to do everything Moses' Teachings demand.

⁴ Those of you who try to earn God's approval by obeying his laws have been cut off from Christ. You have fallen out of God's favor.

⁵ However, in our spiritual nature, faith causes us to wait eagerly for the confidence that comes with God's approval.

⁶ As far as our relationship to Christ Jesus is concerned, it doesn't matter whether we are circumcised or not. But what matters is a faith that expresses itself through love.

⁷ You were doing so well. Who stopped you from being influenced by the truth?

⁸ The arguments of the person who is influencing you do not come from the one who is calling you.

⁹ A little yeast spreads through the whole batch of dough.

¹⁰ The Lord gives me confidence that you will not disagree with this. However, the one who is confusing you will suffer God's judgment regardless of who he is.

¹¹ Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching that circumcision is necessary, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the cross wouldn't be offensive anymore.

¹² I wish those troublemakers would castrate themselves.

¹³ You were indeed called to be free, brothers and sisters. Don't turn this freedom into an excuse for your corrupt nature to express itself. Rather, serve each other through love.

¹⁴ All of Moses' Teachings are summarized in a single statement, "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

¹⁵ But if you criticize and attack each other, be careful that you don't destroy each other.

¹⁶ Let me explain further. Live your life as your spiritual nature directs you. Then you will never follow through on what your corrupt nature wants.

¹⁷ What your corrupt nature wants is contrary to what your spiritual nature wants, and what your spiritual nature wants is contrary to what your corrupt nature wants. They are opposed to each other. As a result, you don't always do what you intend to do.

¹⁸ If your spiritual nature is your guide, you are not subject to Moses' laws.

¹⁹ Now, the effects of the corrupt nature are obvious: illicit sex, perversion, promiscuity, ²⁰ idolatry, drug use, hatred, rivalry, jealousy, angry outbursts, selfish ambition, conflict, factions,

²¹ envy, drunkenness, wild partying, and similar things. I've told you in the past and I'm telling you again that people who do these kinds of things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²² But the spiritual nature produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, and self-control. There are no laws against things like that.

²⁴ Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their corrupt nature along with its passions and desires.

²⁵ If we live by our spiritual nature, then our lives need to conform to our spiritual nature.

²⁶ We can't allow ourselves to act arrogantly and to provoke or envy each other.

6 ¹ Brothers and sisters, if a person gets trapped by wrongdoing, those of you who are spiritual should help that person turn away from doing wrong. Do it in a gentle way. At the same time watch yourself so that you also are not tempted.

² Help carry each other's burdens. In this way you will follow Christ's teachings.

³ So if any one of you thinks you're important when you're really not, you're only fooling yourself.

⁴ Each of you must examine your own actions. Then you can be proud of your own accomplishments without comparing yourself to others.

⁵ Assume your own responsibility.

⁶ The person who is taught God's word should share all good things with his teacher.

⁷ Make no mistake about this: You can never make a fool out of God. Whatever you plant is what you'll harvest.

⁸ If you plant in the soil of your corrupt nature, you will harvest destruction. But if you plant in the soil of your spiritual nature, you will harvest everlasting life.

⁹ We can't allow ourselves to get tired of living the right way. Certainly, each of us will receive everlasting life at the proper time, if we don't give up.

¹⁰ Whenever we have the opportunity, we have to do what is good for everyone, especially for the family of believers.

¹¹ Look at how large the letters in these words are because I'm writing this myself.

¹² These people who want to make a big deal out of a physical thing are trying to force you to be circumcised. Their only aim is to avoid persecution because of the cross of Christ.

¹³ It's clear that not even those who had themselves circumcised did this to follow Jewish laws. Yet, they want you to be circumcised so that they can brag about what was done to your body.

¹⁴ But it's unthinkable that I could ever brag about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. By his cross my relationship to the world and its relationship to me have been crucified.

¹⁵ Certainly, it doesn't matter whether a person is circumcised or not. Rather, what matters is being a new creation.

¹⁶ Peace and mercy will come to rest on all those who conform to this principle. They are the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on, don't make any trouble for me! After all, I carry the scars of Jesus on my body.

¹⁸ May the good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters! Amen.

Ephesians

1 ¹ From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will. To God's holy and faithful people who are united with Christ in the city of Ephesus.

² Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

³ Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! Through Christ, God has blessed us with every spiritual blessing that heaven has to offer.

⁴ Before the creation of the world, he chose us through Christ to be holy and perfect in his presence.

⁵ Because of his love he had already decided to adopt us through Jesus Christ. He freely chose to do this

⁶ so that the kindness he had given us in his dear Son would be praised and given glory.

⁷ Through the blood of his Son, we are set free from our sins. God forgives our failures because of his overflowing kindness.

⁸ He poured out his kindness by giving us every kind of wisdom and insight

⁹ when he revealed the mystery of his plan to us. He had decided to do this through Christ.

¹⁰ He planned to bring all of history to its goal in Christ. Then Christ would be the head of everything in heaven and on earth.

¹¹ God also decided ahead of time to choose us through Christ according to his plan, which makes everything work the way he intends.

¹² He planned all of this so that we who had already focused our hope on Christ would praise him and give him glory.

¹³ You heard and believed the message of truth, the Good News that he has saved you. In him you were sealed with the Holy Spirit whom he promised.

¹⁴ This Holy Spirit is the guarantee that we will receive our inheritance. We have this guarantee until we are set free to belong to him. God receives praise and glory for this.

¹⁵ I, too, have heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. For this reason ¹⁶ I never stop thanking God for you. I always remember you in my prayers.

¹⁷ I pray that the glorious Father, the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, would give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know Christ better.

¹⁸ Then you will have deeper insight. You will know the confidence that he calls you to have and the glorious wealth that God's people will inherit.

¹⁹ You will also know the unlimited greatness of his power as it works with might and strength for us, the believers.

²⁰ He worked with that same power in Christ when he brought him back to life and gave him the highest position in heaven.

²¹ He is far above all rulers, authorities, powers, lords, and all other names that can be named, not only in this present world but also in the world to come.

²² God has put everything under the control of Christ. He has made Christ the head of everything for the good of the church.

²³ The church is Christ's body and completes him as he fills everything in every way.

2 ¹ You were once dead because of your failures and sins.

² You followed the ways of this present world and its spiritual ruler. This ruler continues to work in people who refuse to obey God.

³ All of us once lived among these people, and followed the desires of our corrupt nature. We did what our corrupt desires and thoughts wanted us to do. So, because of our nature, we deserved God's anger just like everyone else.

⁴ But God is rich in mercy because of his great love for us.

⁵ We were dead because of our failures, but he made us alive together with Christ. (It is God's kindness that saved you.)

⁶ God has brought us back to life together with Christ Jesus and has given us a position in heaven with him.

⁷ He did this through Christ Jesus out of his generosity to us in order to show his extremely rich kindness in the world to come.

⁸ God saved you through faith as an act of kindness. You had nothing to do with it. Being saved is a gift from God.

⁹ It's not the result of anything you've done, so no one can brag about it.

¹⁰ God has made us what we are. He has created us in Christ Jesus to live lives filled with good works that he has prepared for us to do.

¹¹ Remember that once you were not Jewish physically. Those who called themselves "the circumcised" because of what they had done to their bodies called you "the uncircumcised."

¹² Also, at that time you were without Christ. You were excluded from citizenship in Israel, and the pledges God made in his promise were foreign to you.

You had no hope and were in the world without God.

¹³ But now through Christ Jesus you, who were once far away, have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ So he is our peace. In his body he has made Jewish and non-Jewish people one by breaking down the wall of hostility that kept them apart.

¹⁵ He brought an end to the commandments and demands found in Moses' Teachings so that he could take Jewish and non-Jewish people and create one new humanity in himself. So he made peace.

¹⁶ He also brought them back to God in one body by his cross, on which he killed the hostility.

¹⁷ He came with the Good News of peace for you who were far away and for those who were near.

¹⁸ So Jewish and non-Jewish people can go to the Father in one Spirit.

¹⁹ That is why you are no longer foreigners and outsiders but citizens together with God's people and members of God's family.

²⁰ You are built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets. Christ Jesus himself is the cornerstone.

²¹ In him all the parts of the building fit together and grow into a holy temple in the Lord.

²² Through him you, also, are being built in the Spirit together with others into a place where God lives.

3¹ This is the reason I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus for those of you who are not Jewish.

² Certainly, you have heard how God gave me the responsibility of bringing his kindness to you.

³ You have heard that he let me know this mystery through a revelation. I've already written to you about this briefly.

⁴ When you read this, you'll see that I understand the mystery about Christ.

⁵ In the past, this mystery was not known by people as it is now. The Spirit has now revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

⁶ This mystery is the Good News that people who are not Jewish have the same inheritance as Jewish people do. They belong to the same body and share the same promise that God made in Christ Jesus.

⁷ I became a servant of this Good News through God's kindness freely given to me when his power worked in me.

⁸ I am the least of all God's people. Yet, God showed me his kindness by allowing me to spread the Good News of the immeasurable wealth of Christ to people who are not Jewish.

⁹ He allowed me to explain the way this mystery works. God, who created all things, kept it hidden in the past.

¹⁰ He did this so that now, through the church, he could let the rulers and authorities in heaven know his infinite wisdom.

¹¹ This was God's plan for all of history which he carried out through Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹² We can go to God with bold confidence through faith in Christ.

¹³ So then, I ask you not to become discouraged by the troubles I suffer for you. In fact, my troubles bring you glory.

¹⁴ This is the reason I kneel in the presence of the Father

¹⁵ from whom all the family in heaven and on earth receives its name.

¹⁶ I'm asking God to give you a gift from the wealth of his glory. I pray that he would give you inner strength and power through his Spirit.

¹⁷ Then Christ will live in you through faith. I also pray that love may be the ground into which you sink your roots and on which you have your foundation.

¹⁸ This way, with all of God's people you will be able to understand how wide, long, high, and deep his love is.

¹⁹ You will know Christ's love, which goes far beyond any knowledge. I am praying this so that you may be completely filled with God.

²⁰ Glory belongs to God, whose power is at work in us. By this power he can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

²¹ Glory belongs to God in the church and in Christ Jesus for all time and eternity! Amen.

4 ¹ I, a prisoner in the Lord, encourage you to live the kind of life which proves that God has called you.

² Be humble and gentle in every way. Be patient with each other and lovingly accept each other.

³ Through the peace that ties you together, do your best to maintain the unity that the Spirit gives.

⁴ There is one body and one Spirit. In the same way you were called to share one hope.

⁵ There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

⁶ one God and Father of all, who is over everything, through everything, and in everything.

⁷ God's favor has been given to each of us. It was measured out to us by Christ who gave it.

⁸ That's why the Scriptures say: "When he went to the highest place, he took captive those who had captured us and gave gifts to people."

⁹ Now what does it mean that he went up except that he also had gone down to the lowest parts of the earth?

¹⁰ The one who had gone down also went up above all the heavens so that he fills everything.

¹¹ He also gave apostles, prophets, missionaries, as well as pastors and teachers as gifts to his church.

¹² Their purpose is to prepare God's people, to serve, and to build up the body of Christ.

¹³ This is to continue until all of us are united in our faith and in our knowledge about God's Son, until we become mature, until we measure up to Christ, who is the standard.

¹⁴ Then we will no longer be little children, tossed and carried about by all kinds of teachings that change like the wind. We will no longer be influenced by people who use cunning and clever strategies to lead us astray.

¹⁵ Instead, as we lovingly speak the truth, we will grow up completely in our relationship to Christ, who is the head.

¹⁶ He makes the whole body fit together and unites it through the support of every joint. As each and every part does its job, he makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

¹⁷ So I tell you and encourage you in the Lord's name not to live any longer like other people in the world. Their minds are set on worthless things.

¹⁸ They can't understand because they are in the dark. They are excluded from the life that God approves of because of their ignorance and stubbornness.

¹⁹ Since they no longer have any sense of shame, they have become promiscuous. They practice every kind of sexual perversion with a constant desire for more.

²⁰ But that is not what you learned from Christ's teachings.

²¹ You have certainly heard his message and have been taught his ways. The truth is in Jesus.

²² You were taught to change the way you were living. The person you used to be will ruin you through desires that deceive you.

²³ However, you were taught to have a new attitude.

²⁴ You were also taught to become a new person created to be like God, truly righteous and holy.

²⁵ So then, get rid of lies. Speak the truth to each other, because we are all members of the same body.

²⁶ Be angry without sinning. Don't go to bed angry.

²⁷ Don't give the devil any opportunity to work.

²⁸ Thieves must quit stealing and, instead, they must work hard. They should do something good with their hands so that they'll have something to share with those in need.

²⁹ Don't say anything that would hurt another person. Instead, speak only what is good so that you can give help wherever it is needed. That way, what you say will help those who hear you.

³⁰ Don't give God's Holy Spirit any reason to be upset with you. He has put his seal on you for the day you will be set free from the world of sin.

³¹ Get rid of your bitterness, hot tempers, anger, loud quarreling, cursing, and hatred.

³² Be kind to each other, sympathetic, forgiving each other as God has forgiven you through Christ.

5 ¹ Imitate God, since you are the children he loves.

² Live in love as Christ also loved us. He gave his life for us as an offering and sacrifice, a soothing aroma to God.

³ Don't let sexual sin, perversion of any kind, or greed even be mentioned among you. This is not appropriate behavior for God's holy people.

⁴ It's not right that dirty stories, foolish talk, or obscene jokes should be mentioned among you either. Instead, give thanks to God.

⁵ You know very well that no person who is involved in sexual sin, perversion, or greed (which means worshiping wealth) can have any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

⁶ Don't let anyone deceive you with meaningless words. It is because of sins like these that God's anger comes to those who refuse to obey him.

⁷ Don't be partners with them.

⁸ Once you lived in the dark, but now the Lord has filled you with light. Live as children who have light.

⁹ Light produces everything that is good, that has God's approval, and that is true.

¹⁰ Determine which things please the Lord.

¹¹ Have nothing to do with the useless works that darkness produces. Instead, expose them for what they are.

¹² It is shameful to talk about what some people do in secret.

¹³ Light exposes the true character of everything

¹⁴ because light makes everything easy to see. That's why it says: "Wake up, sleeper! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

¹⁵ So then, be very careful how you live. Don't live like foolish people but like wise people.

¹⁶ Make the most of your opportunities because these are evil days.

¹⁷ So don't be foolish, but understand what the Lord wants.

¹⁸ Don't get drunk on wine, which leads to wild living. Instead, be filled with the Spirit

¹⁹ by reciting psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs for your own good. Sing and make music to the Lord with your hearts.

²⁰ Always thank God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²¹ Place yourselves under each other's authority out of respect for Christ.

²² Wives, place yourselves under your husbands' authority as you have placed yourselves under the Lord's authority.

²³ The husband is the head of his wife as Christ is the head of the church. It is his body, and he is its Savior.

²⁴ As the church is under Christ's authority, so wives are under their husbands' authority in everything.

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it.

²⁶ He did this to make the church holy by cleansing it, washing it using water along with spoken words.

²⁷ Then he could present it to himself as a glorious church, without any kind of stain or wrinkle—holy and without faults.

²⁸ So husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies. A man who loves his wife loves himself.

²⁹ No one ever hated his own body. Instead, he feeds and takes care of it, as Christ takes care of the church.

³⁰ We are parts of his body.

³¹ That's why a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two will be one.

³² This is a great mystery. (I'm talking about Christ's relationship to the church.)

³³ But every husband must love his wife as he loves himself, and wives should respect their husbands.

6 ¹ Children, obey your parents because you are Christians. This is the right thing to do.

² "Honor your father and mother

³ that everything may go well for you, and you may have a long life on earth." This is an important commandment with a promise.

⁴ Fathers, don't make your children bitter about life. Instead, bring them up in Christian discipline and instruction.

⁵ Slaves, obey your earthly masters with proper respect. Be as sincere as you are when you obey Christ.

⁶ Don't obey them only while you're being watched, as if you merely wanted to please people. But obey like slaves who belong to Christ, who have a deep desire to do what God wants them to do.

⁷ Serve eagerly as if you were serving your heavenly master and not merely serving human masters.

⁸ You know that your heavenly master will reward all of us for whatever good we do, whether we're slaves or free people.

⁹ Masters, treat your slaves with respect. Don't threaten a slave. You know that there is one master in heaven who has authority over both of you, and he doesn't play favorites.

¹⁰ Finally, receive your power from the Lord and from his mighty strength.

¹¹ Put on all the armor that God supplies. In this way you can take a stand against the devil's strategies.

¹² This is not a wrestling match against a human opponent. We are wrestling with rulers, authorities, the powers who govern this world of darkness, and spiritual forces that control evil in the heavenly world.

¹³ For this reason, take up all the armor that God supplies. Then you will be able to take a stand during these evil days. Once you have overcome all obstacles, you will be able to stand your ground.

¹⁴ So then, take your stand! Fasten truth around your waist like a belt. Put on God's approval as your breastplate.

¹⁵ Put on your shoes so that you are ready to spread the Good News that gives peace.

¹⁶ In addition to all these, take the Christian faith as your shield. With it you can put out all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

¹⁷ Also take salvation as your helmet and the word of God as the sword that the Spirit supplies.

¹⁸ Pray in the Spirit in every situation. Use every kind of prayer and request there is. For the same reason be alert. Use every kind of effort and make every kind of request for all of God's people.

¹⁹ Also pray that God will give me the right words to say. Then I will speak boldly when I reveal the mystery of the Good News.

²⁰ Because I have already been doing this as Christ's representative, I am in prison. So pray that I speak about this Good News as boldly as I have to.

²¹ I'm sending Tychicus to you. He is our dear brother and a faithful deacon in the Lord's work. He will tell you everything that is happening to me so that you will know how I'm getting along.

²² That's why I'm sending him to you so that you may know how we're doing and that he may encourage you.

²³ May God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give our brothers and sisters peace and love along with faith.

²⁴ His favor is with everyone who has an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians

1 ¹ From Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus. To God's people in the city of Philippi and their bishops and deacons—to everyone who is united with Christ Jesus.

² Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

³ I thank my God for all the memories I have of you.

⁴ Every time I pray for all of you, I do it with joy.

⁵ I can do this because of the partnership we've had with you in the Good News from the first day you believed until now.

⁶ I'm convinced that God, who began this good work in you, will carry it through to completion on the day of Christ Jesus.

⁷ You have a special place in my heart. So it's right for me to think this way about all of you. All of you are my partners. Together we share God's favor, whether I'm in prison or defending and confirming the truth of the Good News.

⁸ God is my witness that, with all the compassion of Christ Jesus, I long to see every one of you.

⁹ I pray that your love will keep on growing because of your knowledge and insight.

¹⁰ That way you will be able to determine what is best and be pure and blameless until the day of Christ.

¹¹ Jesus Christ will fill your lives with everything that God's approval produces. Your lives will then bring glory and praise to God.

¹² I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what happened to me has helped to spread the Good News.

¹³ As a result, it has become clear to all the soldiers who guard the emperor and to everyone else that I am in prison because of Christ.

¹⁴ So through my being in prison, the Lord has given most of our brothers and sisters confidence to speak God's word more boldly and fearlessly than ever.

¹⁵ Some people tell the message about Christ because of their jealousy and envy. Others tell the message about him because of their good will.

¹⁶ Those who tell the message about Christ out of love know that God has put me here to defend the Good News.

¹⁷ But the others are insincere. They tell the message about Christ out of selfish ambition in order to stir up trouble for me while I'm in prison.

¹⁸ But what does it matter? Nothing matters except that, in one way or another, people are told the message about Christ, whether with honest or dishonest motives, and I'm happy about that. Yes, I will continue to be happy ¹⁹ for another reason. I know that I will be set free through your prayers and through the help that comes from the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

²⁰ I eagerly expect and hope that I will have nothing to be ashamed of. I will speak very boldly and honor Christ in my body, now as always, whether I live or die.

²¹ Christ means everything to me in this life, and when I die I'll have even more.

²² If I continue to live in this life, my work will produce more results. I don't know which I would prefer.

²³ I find it hard to choose between the two. I would like to leave this life and be with Christ. That's by far the better choice.

²⁴ But for your sake it's better that I remain in this life.

²⁵ Since I'm convinced of this, I know that I will continue to live and be with all of you. This will help you to grow and be joyful in your faith.

²⁶ So by coming to you again, I want to give you even more reason to have pride in Christ Jesus with me.

²⁷ Live as citizens who reflect the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come to see you or whether I stay away, I'll hear all about you. I'll hear that you are firmly united in spirit, united in fighting for the faith that the Good News brings.

²⁸ So don't let your opponents intimidate you in any way. This is God's way of showing them that they will be destroyed and that you will be saved.

²⁹ God has given you the privilege not only to believe in Christ but also to suffer for him.

³⁰ You are involved in the same struggle that you saw me having. Now you hear that I'm still involved in it.

2 ¹ So then, as Christians, do you have any encouragement? Do you have any comfort from love? Do you have any spiritual relationships? Do you have any sympathy and compassion?

² Then fill me with joy by having the same attitude and the same love, living in harmony, and keeping one purpose in mind.

³ Don't act out of selfish ambition or be conceited. Instead, humbly think of others as being better than yourselves.

⁴ Don't be concerned only about your own interests, but also be concerned about the interests of others.

⁵ Have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

⁶ Although he was in the form of God and equal with God, he did not take advantage of this equality.

⁷ Instead, he emptied himself by taking on the form of a servant, by becoming like other humans, by having a human appearance.

⁸ He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, death on a cross.

⁹ This is why God has given him an exceptional honor—the name honored above all other names—

¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven, on earth, and in the world below will kneel

¹¹ and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

¹² My dear friends, you have always obeyed, not only when I was with you but even more now that I'm absent. In the same way continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

¹³ It is God who produces in you the desires and actions that please him.

¹⁴ Do everything without complaining or arguing.

¹⁵ Then you will be blameless and innocent. You will be God's children without any faults among people who are crooked and corrupt. You will shine like stars among them in the world

¹⁶ as you hold firmly to the word of life. Then I can brag on the day of Christ that my effort was not wasted and that my work produced results.

¹⁷ My life is being poured out as a part of the sacrifice and service I offer to God for your faith. Yet, I am filled with joy, and I share that joy with all of you.

¹⁸ For this same reason you also should be filled with joy and share that joy with me.

¹⁹ I hope that the Lord Jesus will allow me to send Timothy to you soon so that I can receive some encouraging news about you.

²⁰ I don't have anyone else like Timothy. He takes a genuine interest in your welfare.

²¹ Everyone else looks after his own interests, not after those of Jesus Christ.

²² But you know what kind of person Timothy proved to be. Like a father and son we worked hard together to spread the Good News.

²³ I hope to send him as soon as I see how things are going to turn out for me.

²⁴ But the Lord gives me confidence that I will come to visit you soon.

²⁵ I feel that I must send Epaphroditus—my brother, coworker, and fellow soldier—back to you. You sent him as your personal representative to help me in my need.

²⁶ He has been longing to see all of you and is troubled because you heard that he was sick.

²⁷ Indeed, he was so sick that he almost died. But God had mercy not only on him but also on me and kept me from having one sorrow on top of another.

²⁸ So I'm especially eager to send him to you. In this way you will have the joy of seeing him again and I will feel relieved.

²⁹ Give him a joyful Christian welcome. Make sure you honor people like Epaphroditus highly.

³⁰ He risked his life and almost died for the work of Christ in order to make up for the help you couldn't give me.

3¹ Now then, brothers and sisters, be joyful in the Lord. It's no trouble for me to write the same things to you, and it's for your safety.

² Beware of dogs! Beware of those who do evil things. Beware of those who insist on circumcision.

³ We are the true circumcised people of God because we serve God's Spirit and take pride in Christ Jesus. We don't place any confidence in physical things, ⁴ although I could have confidence in my physical qualifications. If anyone else thinks that he can trust in something physical, I can claim even more.

⁵ I was circumcised on the eighth day. I'm a descendant of Israel. I'm from the tribe of Benjamin. I'm a pure-blooded Hebrew. When it comes to living up to standards, I was a Pharisee.

⁶ When it comes to being enthusiastic, I was a persecutor of the church. When it comes to winning God's approval by keeping Jewish laws, I was perfect.

⁷ These things that I once considered valuable, I now consider worthless for Christ.

⁸ It's far more than that! I consider everything else worthless because I'm much better off knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. It's because of him that I think of everything as worthless. I threw it all away in order to gain Christ

⁹ and to have a relationship with him. This means that I didn't receive God's approval by obeying his laws. The opposite is true! I have God's approval through faith in Christ. This is the approval that comes from God and is based on faith

¹⁰ that knows Christ. Faith knows the power that his coming back to life gives and what it means to share his suffering. In this way I'm becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ with the confidence that I'll come back to life from the dead.

¹² It's not that I've already reached the goal or have already completed the course. But I run to win that which Jesus Christ has already won for me.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, I can't consider myself a winner yet. This is what I do: I don't look back, I lengthen my stride, and ¹⁴ I run straight toward the goal to win the prize that God's heavenly call offers in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ Whoever has a mature faith should think this way. And if you think differently, God will show you how to think.

¹⁶ However, we should be guided by what we have learned so far.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, imitate me, and pay attention to those who live by the example we have given you.

¹⁸ I have often told you, and now tell you with tears in my eyes, that many live as the enemies of the cross of Christ.

¹⁹ In the end they will be destroyed. Their own emotions are their god, and they take pride in the shameful things they do. Their minds are set on worldly things.

²⁰ We, however, are citizens of heaven. We look forward to the Lord Jesus Christ coming from heaven as our Savior.

²¹ Through his power to bring everything under his authority, he will change our humble bodies and make them like his glorified body.

4 ¹ So, brothers and sisters, I love you and miss you. You are my joy and my crown. Therefore, dear friends, keep your relationship with the Lord firm!

² I encourage both Euodia and Syntyche to have the attitude the Lord wants them to have.

³ Yes, I also ask you, Syzugus, my true partner, to help these women. They fought beside me to spread the Good News along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

⁴ Always be joyful in the Lord! I'll say it again: Be joyful!

⁵ Let everyone know how considerate you are. The Lord is near.

⁶ Never worry about anything. But in every situation let God know what you need in prayers and requests while giving thanks.

⁷ Then God's peace, which goes beyond anything we can imagine, will guard your thoughts and emotions through Christ Jesus.

⁸ Finally, brothers and sisters, keep your thoughts on whatever is right or deserves praise: things that are true, honorable, fair, pure, acceptable, or commendable.

⁹ Practice what you've learned and received from me, what you heard and saw me do. Then the God who gives this peace will be with you.

¹⁰ The Lord has filled me with joy because you again showed interest in me. You were interested but did not have an opportunity to show it.

¹¹ I'm not saying this because I'm in any need. I've learned to be content in whatever situation I'm in.

¹² I know how to live in poverty or prosperity. No matter what the situation, I've learned the secret of how to live when I'm full or when I'm hungry, when I have too much or when I have too little.

¹³ I can do everything through Christ who strengthens me.

¹⁴ Nevertheless, it was kind of you to share my troubles.

¹⁵ You Philippians also know that in the early days, when I left the province of Macedonia to spread the Good News, you were the only church to share your money with me. You gave me what I needed, and you received what I gave you.

¹⁶ Even while I was in Thessalonica, you provided for my needs twice.

¹⁷ It's not that I'm looking for a gift. The opposite is true. I'm looking for your resources to increase.

¹⁸ You have paid me in full, and I have more than enough. Now that Epaphroditus has brought me your gifts, you have filled my needs. Your gifts are a soothing aroma, a sacrifice that God accepts and with which he is pleased.

¹⁹ My God will richly fill your every need in a glorious way through Christ Jesus.

²⁰ Glory belongs to our God and Father forever! Amen.

²¹ Greet everyone who believes in Christ Jesus. The brothers and sisters who are with me send greetings to you.

²² All God's people here, especially those in the emperor's palace, greet you.

²³ May the good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Colossians

1 ¹ From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and from our brother Timothy.

² To God's holy and faithful people, our brothers and sisters who are united with Christ in the city of Colossae. Good will and peace from God our Father are yours!

³ We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, in our prayers for you.

⁴ We thank God because we have heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of God's people.

⁵ You have these because of the hope which is kept safe for you in heaven. Some time ago you heard about this hope in the Good News which is the message of truth.

⁶ This Good News is present with you now. It is producing results and spreading all over the world as it did among you from the first day you heard it. At that time you came to know what God's kindness truly means.

⁷ You learned about this Good News from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant. He is taking your place here as a trustworthy deacon for Christ

⁸ and has told us about the love that the Spirit has given you.

⁹ For this reason we have not stopped praying for you since the day we heard about you. We ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through every kind of spiritual wisdom and insight.

¹⁰ We ask this so that you will live the kind of lives that prove you belong to the Lord. Then you will want to please him in every way as you grow in producing every kind of good work by this knowledge about God.

¹¹ We ask him to strengthen you by his glorious might with all the power you need to patiently endure everything with joy.

¹² You will also thank the Father, who has made you able to share the light, which is what God's people inherit.

¹³ God has rescued us from the power of darkness and has brought us into the kingdom of his Son, whom he loves.

¹⁴ His Son paid the price to free us, which means that our sins are forgiven.

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

¹⁶ He created all things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible. Whether they are kings or lords, rulers or powers— everything has been created through him and for him.

¹⁷ He existed before everything and holds everything together.

¹⁸ He is also the head of the church, which is his body. He is the beginning, the first to come back to life so that he would have first place in everything.

¹⁹ God was pleased to have all of himself live in Christ.

²⁰ God was also pleased to bring everything on earth and in heaven back to himself through Christ. He did this by making peace through Christ's blood sacrificed on the cross.

²¹ Once you were separated from God. The evil things you did showed your hostile attitude.

²² But now Christ has brought you back to God by dying in his physical body. He did this so that you could come into God's presence without sin, fault, or blame.

²³ This is on the condition that you continue in faith without being moved from the solid foundation of the hope that the Good News contains. You've heard this Good News of which I, Paul, became a servant. It has been spread throughout all creation under heaven.

²⁴ I am happy to suffer for you now. In my body I am completing whatever remains of Christ's sufferings. I am doing this on behalf of his body, the church.

²⁵ I became a servant of the church when God gave me the work of telling you his entire message.

²⁶ In the past God hid this mystery, but now he has revealed it to his people.

²⁷ God wanted his people throughout the world to know the glorious riches of this mystery—which is Christ living in you, giving you the hope of glory.

²⁸ We spread the message about Christ as we instruct and teach everyone with all the wisdom there is. We want to present everyone as mature Christian people.

²⁹ I work hard and struggle to do this while his mighty power works in me.

2 ¹ I want you to know how hard I work for you, for the people of Laodicea, and for people I have never met.

² Because they are united in love, I work so that they may be encouraged by all the riches that come from a complete understanding of Christ. He is the mystery of God.

³ God has hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge in Christ.

⁴ I say this so that no one will mislead you with arguments that merely sound good.

⁵ Although I'm absent from you physically, I'm with you in spirit. I'm happy to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is.

⁶ You received Christ Jesus the Lord, so continue to live as Christ's people.

⁷ Sink your roots in him and build on him. Be strengthened by the faith that you were taught, and overflow with thanksgiving.

⁸ Be careful not to let anyone rob you of this faith through a shallow and misleading philosophy. Such a person follows human traditions and the world's way of doing things rather than following Christ.

⁹ All of God lives in Christ's body,

¹⁰ and God has made you complete in Christ. Christ is in charge of every ruler and authority.

¹¹ In him you were also circumcised. It was not a circumcision performed by human hands. But it was a removal of the corrupt nature in the circumcision performed by Christ.

¹² This happened when you were placed in the tomb with Christ through baptism. In baptism you were also brought back to life with Christ through faith in the power of God, who brought him back to life.

¹³ You were once dead because of your failures and your uncircumcised corrupt nature. But God made you alive with Christ when he forgave all our failures.

¹⁴ He did this by erasing the charges that were brought against us by the written laws God had established. He took the charges away by nailing them to the cross.

¹⁵ He stripped the rulers and authorities of their power and made a public spectacle of them as he celebrated his victory in Christ.

¹⁶ Therefore, let no one judge you because of what you eat or drink or about the observance of annual holy days, New Moon Festivals, or weekly worship days.

¹⁷ These are a shadow of the things to come, but the body that casts the shadow belongs to Christ.

¹⁹ He doesn't hold on to Christ, the head. Christ makes the whole body grow as God wants it to, through support and unity given by the joints and ligaments.

²⁰ If you have died with Christ to the world's way of doing things, why do you let others tell you how to live? It's as though you were still under the world's influence.

²¹ People will tell you, "Don't handle this! Don't taste or touch that!"

²² All of these things deal with objects that are only used up anyway.

²³ These things look like wisdom with their self-imposed worship, false humility, and harsh treatment of the body. But they have no value for holding back the constant desires of your corrupt nature.

3 ¹ Since you were brought back to life with Christ, focus on the things that are above—where Christ holds the highest position.

² Keep your mind on things above, not on worldly things.

³ You have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

⁴ Christ is your life. When he appears, then you, too, will appear with him in glory.

⁵ Therefore, put to death whatever is worldly in you: your sexual sin, perversion, passion, lust, and greed (which is the same thing as worshipping wealth).

⁶ It is because of these sins that God's anger comes on those who refuse to obey him.

⁷ You used to live that kind of sinful life.

⁸ Also get rid of your anger, hot tempers, hatred, cursing, obscene language, and all similar sins.

⁹ Don't lie to each other. You've gotten rid of the person you used to be and the life you used to live, ¹⁰ and you've become a new person. This new person is continually renewed in knowledge to be like its Creator.

¹¹ Where this happens, there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, uncivilized person, slave, or free person. Instead, Christ is everything and in everything.

¹² As holy people whom God has chosen and loved, be sympathetic, kind, humble, gentle, and patient.

¹³ Put up with each other, and forgive each other if anyone has a complaint. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

¹⁴ Above all, be loving. This ties everything together perfectly.

¹⁵ Also, let Christ's peace control you. God has called you into this peace by bringing you into one body. Be thankful.

¹⁶ Let Christ's word with all its wisdom and richness live in you. Use psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to teach and instruct yourselves about God's kindness. Sing to God in your hearts.

¹⁷ Everything you say or do should be done in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

¹⁸ Wives, place yourselves under your husbands' authority. This is appropriate behavior for the Lord's people.

¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives, and don't be harsh with them.

²⁰ Children, always obey your parents. This is pleasing to the Lord.

²¹ Fathers, don't make your children resentful, or they will become discouraged.

²² Slaves, always obey your earthly masters. Don't obey them only while you're being watched, as if you merely wanted to please people. Be sincere in your motives out of respect for your real master.

²³ Whatever you do, do it wholeheartedly as though you were working for your real master and not merely for humans.

²⁴ You know that your real master will give you an inheritance as your reward.

It is Christ, your real master, whom you are serving.

²⁵ The person who does wrong will be paid back for the wrong he has done. God does not play favorites.

4 ¹ Masters, be just and fair to your slaves because you know that you also have a master in heaven.

² Keep praying. Pay attention when you offer prayers of thanksgiving.

³ At the same time also pray for us. Pray that God will give us an opportunity to speak the word so that we may tell the mystery about Christ. It is because of this mystery that I am a prisoner.

⁴ Pray that I may make this mystery as clear as possible. This is what I have to do.

⁵ Be wise in the way you act toward those who are outside the Christian faith. Make the most of your opportunities.

⁶ Everything you say should be kind and well thought out so that you know how to answer everyone.

⁷ I'm sending Tychicus to you. He is our dear brother, trustworthy deacon, and partner in the Lord's work. He will tell you everything that is happening to me.

⁸ I'm sending him to you so that you may know how we are doing and so that he may encourage you.

⁹ I'm sending Onesimus with him. Onesimus is from your city and is our faithful and dear brother. They will tell you about everything that's happening here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus, who is a prisoner like me, sends greetings. So does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have received instructions about Mark. If he comes to you, welcome him.

¹¹ Jesus, called Justus, also greets you. They are the only converts from the Jewish religion who are working with me for God's kingdom. They have provided me with comfort.

¹² Epaphras, a servant of Christ Jesus from your city, greets you. He always prays intensely for you. He prays that you will continue to be mature and completely convinced of everything that God wants.

¹³ I assure you that he works hard for you and the people in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

¹⁴ My dear friend Luke, the physician, and Demas greet you.

¹⁵ Greet our brothers and sisters in Laodicea, especially Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

¹⁶ After you have read this letter, read it in the church at Laodicea. Make sure that you also read the letter from Laodicea.

¹⁷ Tell Archippus to complete all the work that he started as the Lord's servant.

¹⁸ I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. Remember that I'm a prisoner. God's good will be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 ¹ From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church at Thessalonica united with God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Good will and peace are yours!

² We always thank God for all of you as we remember you in our prayers.

³ In the presence of our God and Father, we never forget that your faith is active, your love is working hard, and your confidence in our Lord Jesus Christ is enduring.

⁴ Brothers and sisters, we never forget this because we know that God loves you and has chosen you.

⁵ We know this because the Good News we brought came to you not only with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit, and with complete certainty.

In the same way you know what kind of people we were while we were with you and the good things we did for you.

⁶ You imitated us and the Lord. In spite of a lot of suffering, you welcomed God's word with the kind of joy that the Holy Spirit gives.

⁷ This way, you became a model for all the believers in the province of Macedonia and Greece.

⁸ From you the Lord's word has spread out not only through the province of Macedonia and Greece but also to people everywhere who have heard about your faith in God. We don't need to say a thing about it.

⁹ They talk about how you welcomed us when we arrived. They even report how you turned away from false gods to serve the real, living God

¹⁰ and to wait for his Son to come from heaven. His Son is Jesus, whom he brought back to life. Jesus is the one who rescues us from God's coming anger.

2¹ You know, brothers and sisters, that our time with you was not wasted.

² As you know, we suffered rough and insulting treatment in Philippi. But our God gave us the courage to tell you his Good News in spite of strong opposition.

³ When we encouraged you, we didn't use unethical schemes, corrupt practices, or deception.

⁴ Rather, we are always spreading the Good News. God trusts us to do this because we passed his test. We don't try to please people but God, who tests our motives.

⁵ As you know, we never used flattery or schemes to make money. God is our witness!

⁶ We didn't seek praise from people, from you or from anyone else,

⁷ although as apostles of Christ we had the right to do this. Instead, we were gentle when we were with you, like a mother taking care of her children.

⁸ We felt so strongly about you that we were determined to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our lives. That's how dear you were to us!

⁹ You remember, brothers and sisters, our work and what we did to earn a living. We worked night and day so that we could bring you the Good News of God without being a burden to any of you.

¹⁰ You and God are witnesses of how pure, honest, and blameless we were in our dealings with you believers.

¹¹ You know very well that we treated each of you the way a father treats his children. We comforted you and encouraged you. Yet, we insisted that ¹² you should live in a way that proves you belong to the God who calls you into his kingdom and glory.

¹³ Here is another reason why we never stop thanking God: When you received God's word from us, you realized it wasn't the word of humans. Instead, you accepted it for what it really is—the word of God. This word is at work in you believers.

¹⁴ You, brothers and sisters, were like the churches of God in Judea that are united with Christ Jesus. You suffered the same persecutions from the people of your own country as those churches did from the Jews

¹⁵ who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and who have persecuted us severely. They are displeasing to God. They are enemies of the whole human race

¹⁶ because they try to keep us from telling people who are not Jewish how they can be saved. The result is that those Jews always commit as many sins as possible. So at last they are receiving God's anger.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, we have been separated from you for a little while. Although we may not be able to see you, you're always in our thoughts. We have made every possible effort to fulfill our desire to see you.

¹⁸ We wanted to visit you. I, Paul, wanted to visit you twice already, but Satan made that impossible.

¹⁹ Who is our hope, joy, or prize that we can brag about in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Isn't it you?

²⁰ You are our glory and joy!

3 ¹ We thought it best to remain in Athens by ourselves. But, because we couldn't wait any longer for news about you,

² we sent our brother Timothy to you. He serves God by spreading the Good News about Christ. His mission was to strengthen and encourage you in your faith

³ so that these troubles don't disturb any of you. You know that we're destined to suffer persecution.

⁴ In fact, when we were with you, we told you ahead of time that we were going to suffer persecution. And as you know, that's what happened.

⁵ But when I couldn't wait any longer, I sent Timothy to find out about your faith. I wanted to see whether the tempter had in some way tempted you, making our work meaningless.

⁶ But Timothy has just now come back to us from you and has told us the good news about your faith and love. He also told us that you always have fond memories of us and want to see us, as we want to see you.

⁷ So brothers and sisters, your faith has encouraged us in all our distress and trouble.

⁸ Now we can go on living as long as you keep your relationship with the Lord firm.

⁹ We can never thank God enough for all the joy you give us as we rejoice in God's presence.

¹⁰ We pray very hard night and day that we may see you again so that we can supply whatever you still need for your faith.

¹¹ We pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus will guide us to you.

¹² We also pray that the Lord will greatly increase your love for each other and for everyone else, just as we love you.

¹³ Then he will strengthen you to be holy. Then you will be blameless in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all God's holy people.

4 ¹ Now then, brothers and sisters, because of the Lord Jesus we ask and encourage you to excel in living a God-pleasing life even more than you already do. Do this the way we taught you.

² You know what orders we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

³ It is God's will that you keep away from sexual sin as a mark of your devotion to him.

⁴ Each of you should know that finding a husband or wife for yourself is to be done in a holy and honorable way,

⁵ not in the passionate, lustful way of people who don't know God.

⁶ No one should take advantage of or exploit other believers that way. The Lord is the one who punishes people for all these things. We've already told you and warned you about this.

⁷ God didn't call us to be sexually immoral but to be holy.

⁸ Therefore, whoever rejects this order is not rejecting human authority but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

⁹ You don't need anyone to write to you about the way Christians should love each other. God has taught you to love each other.

¹⁰ In fact, you are showing love to all the Christians throughout the province of Macedonia. We encourage you as believers to excel in love even more.

¹¹ Also, make it your goal to live quietly, do your work, and earn your own living, as we ordered you.

¹² Then your way of life will win respect from those outside the church, and you won't have to depend on anyone else for what you need.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, we don't want you to be ignorant about those who have died. We don't want you to grieve like other people who have no hope.

¹⁴ We believe that Jesus died and came back to life. We also believe that, through Jesus, God will bring back those who have died. They will come back with Jesus.

¹⁵ We are telling you what the Lord taught. We who are still alive when the Lord comes will not go into his kingdom ahead of those who have already died.

¹⁶ The Lord will come from heaven with a command, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the dead who believed in Christ will come back to life.

¹⁷ Then, together with them, we who are still alive will be taken in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. In this way we will always be with the Lord.

¹⁸ So then, comfort each other with these words!

5 ¹ Brothers and sisters, you don't need anyone to write to you about times and dates.

² You know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

³ When people say, "Everything is safe and sound!" destruction will suddenly strike them. It will be as sudden as labor pains come to a pregnant woman. They won't be able to escape.

⁴ But, brothers and sisters, you don't live in the dark. That day won't take you by surprise as a thief would.

⁵ You belong to the day and the light not to the night and the dark.

⁶ Therefore, we must not fall asleep like other people, but we must stay awake and be sober.

⁷ People who sleep, sleep at night; people who get drunk, get drunk at night.

⁸ Since we belong to the day, we must be sober. We must put on faith and love as a breastplate and the hope of salvation as a helmet.

⁹ It was not God's intention that we experience his anger but that we obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁰ He died for us so that, whether we are awake in this life or asleep in death, we will live together with him.

¹¹ Therefore, encourage each other and strengthen one another as you are doing.

¹² Brothers and sisters, we ask you to show your appreciation for those leaders who work among you and instruct you.

¹³ We ask you to love them and think very highly of them because of the work they are doing. Live in peace with each other.

¹⁴ We encourage you, brothers and sisters, to instruct those who are not living right, cheer up those who are discouraged, help the weak, and be patient with everyone.

¹⁵ Make sure that no one ever pays back one wrong with another wrong. Instead, always try to do what is good for each other and everyone else.

¹⁶ Always be joyful.

¹⁷ Never stop praying.

¹⁸ Whatever happens, give thanks, because it is God's will in Christ Jesus that you do this.

¹⁹ Don't put out the Spirit's fire.

²⁰ Don't despise what God has revealed.

²¹ Instead, test everything. Hold on to what is good.

²² Keep away from every kind of evil.

²³ May the God who gives peace make you holy in every way. May he keep your whole being—spirit, soul, and body—blameless when our Lord Jesus Christ comes.

²⁴ The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

²⁵ Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

²⁶ Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.

²⁷ In the Lord's name, I order you to read this letter to all the brothers and sisters.

²⁸ The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1 ¹ From Paul, Silas, and Timothy. To the church at Thessalonica united with God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

² Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

⁴ That's why we brag in God's churches about your endurance and faith in all the persecutions and suffering you are experiencing.

⁵ Your suffering proves that God's judgment is right and that you are considered worthy of his kingdom.

⁶ Certainly, it is right for God to give suffering to those who cause you to suffer.

⁷ It is also right for God to give all of us relief from our suffering. He will do this when the Lord Jesus is revealed, coming from heaven with his mighty angels in a blazing fire.

⁸ He will take revenge on those who refuse to acknowledge God and on those who refuse to respond to the Good News about our Lord Jesus.

⁹ They will pay the penalty by being destroyed forever, by being separated from the Lord's presence and from his glorious power.

¹⁰ This will happen on that day when he comes to be honored among all his holy people and admired by all who have believed in him. This includes you because you believed the testimony we gave you.

¹¹ With this in mind, we always pray that our God will make you worthy of his call. We also pray that through his power he will help you accomplish every good desire and help you do everything your faith produces.

¹² That way the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored among you. Then, because of the good will of Jesus Christ, our God and Lord, you will be honored by him.

2¹ Brothers and sisters, we have this request to make of you about our Lord Jesus Christ's coming and our gathering to meet him.

² Don't get upset right away or alarmed when someone claims that we said through some spirit, conversation, or letter that the day of the Lord has already come.

³ Don't let anyone deceive you about this in any way. That day cannot come unless a revolt takes place first, and the man of sin, the man of destruction, is revealed.

⁴ He opposes every so-called god or anything that is worshiped and places himself above them, sitting in God's temple and claiming to be God.

⁵ Don't you remember that I told you about these things when I was still with you?

⁶ You know what it is that now holds him back, so that he will be revealed when his time comes.

⁷ The mystery of this sin is already at work. But it cannot work effectively until the person now holding it back gets out of the way.

⁸ Then the man of sin will be revealed and the Lord Jesus will destroy him by what he says. When the Lord Jesus comes, his appearance will put an end to this man.

⁹ The man of sin will come with the power of Satan. He will use every kind of power, including miraculous and wonderful signs. But they will be lies.

¹⁰ He will use everything that God disapproves of to deceive those who are dying, those who refused to love the truth that would save them.

¹¹ That's why God will send them a powerful delusion so that they will believe a lie.

¹² Then everyone who did not believe the truth, but was delighted with what God disapproves of, will be condemned.

¹³ We always have to thank God for you, brothers and sisters. You are loved by the Lord and we thank God that in the beginning he chose you to be saved through a life of spiritual devotion and faith in the truth.

¹⁴ With this in mind he called you by the Good News which we told you so that you would obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵ Then, brothers and sisters, firmly hold on to the traditions we taught you either when we spoke to you or in our letter.

¹⁶ God our Father loved us and by his kindness gave us everlasting encouragement and good hope.

Together with our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁷ may he encourage and strengthen you to do and say everything that is good.

3¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, pray that we spread the Lord's word rapidly and that it will be honored the way it was among you.

² Also pray that we may be rescued from worthless and evil people, since not everyone shares our faith.

³ But the Lord is faithful and will strengthen you and protect you against the evil one.

⁴ The Lord gives us confidence that you are doing and will continue to do what we ordered you to do.

⁵ May the Lord direct your lives as you show God's love and Christ's endurance.

⁶ Brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ we order you not to associate with any believer who doesn't live a disciplined life and doesn't follow the tradition you received from us.

⁷ You know what you must do to imitate us. We lived a disciplined life among you.

⁸ We didn't eat anyone's food without paying for it. Instead, we worked hard and struggled night and day in order not to be a burden to any of you.

⁹ It's not as though we didn't have a right to receive support. Rather, we wanted to set an example for you to follow.

¹⁰ While we were with you, we gave you the order: "Whoever doesn't want to work shouldn't be allowed to eat."

¹¹ We hear that some of you are not living disciplined lives. You're not working, so you go around interfering in other people's lives.

¹² We order and encourage such people by the Lord Jesus Christ to pay attention to their own work so they can support themselves.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, we can't allow ourselves to get tired of doing what is right.

¹⁴ It may be that some people will not listen to what we say in this letter. Take note of them and don't associate with them so that they will feel ashamed.

¹⁵ Yet, don't treat them like enemies, but instruct them like brothers and sisters.

¹⁶ May the Lord of peace give you his peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

¹⁷ I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. In every letter that I send, this is proof that I wrote it.

¹⁸ The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1 Timothy

1 ¹ From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our confidence.

² To Timothy, a genuine child in faith. Good will, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord are yours!

³ When I was going to the province of Macedonia, I encouraged you to stay in the city of Ephesus. That way you could order certain people to stop teaching false doctrine

⁴ and occupying themselves with myths and endless genealogies. These myths and genealogies raise a lot of questions rather than promoting God's plan, which centers in faith.

⁵ My goal in giving you this order is for love to flow from a pure heart, from a clear conscience, and from a sincere faith.

⁶ Some people have left these qualities behind and have turned to useless discussions.

⁷ They want to be experts in Moses' Teachings. However, they don't understand what they're talking about or the things about which they speak so confidently.

⁸ We know that Moses' Teachings are good if they are used as they were intended to be used.

⁹ For example, a person must realize that laws are not intended for people who have God's approval. Laws are intended for lawbreakers and rebels, for ungodly people and sinners, for those who think nothing is holy or sacred, for those who kill their fathers, their mothers, or other people.

¹⁰ Laws are intended for people involved in sexual sins, for homosexuals, for kidnappers, for liars, for those who lie when they take an oath, and for whatever else is against accurate teachings.

¹¹ Moses' Teachings were intended to be used in agreement with the Good News that contains the glory of the blessed God. I was entrusted with that Good News.

¹² I thank Christ Jesus our Lord that he has trusted me and has appointed me to do his work with the strength he has given me.

¹³ In the past I cursed him, persecuted him, and acted arrogantly toward him. However, I was treated with mercy because I acted ignorantly in my unbelief.

¹⁴ Our Lord was very kind to me. Through his kindness he brought me to faith and gave me the love that Christ Jesus shows people.

¹⁵ This is a statement that can be trusted and deserves complete acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, and I am the foremost sinner.

¹⁶ However, I was treated with mercy so that Christ Jesus could use me, the foremost sinner, to demonstrate his patience. This patience serves as an example for those who would believe in him and live forever.

¹⁷ Worship and glory belong forever to the eternal king, the immortal, invisible, and only God. Amen.

¹⁹ Some have refused to let their faith guide their conscience and their faith has been destroyed like a wrecked ship.

²⁰ Among these people are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan in order to teach them not to dishonor God.

2 ¹ First of all, I encourage you to make petitions, prayers, intercessions, and prayers of thanks for all people,

² for rulers, and for everyone who has authority over us. Pray for these people so that we can have a quiet and peaceful life always lived in a godly and reverent way.

³ This is good and pleases God our Savior.

⁴ He wants all people to be saved and to learn the truth.

⁵ There is one God. There is also one mediator between God and humans—a human, Christ Jesus.

⁶ He sacrificed himself for all people to free them from their sins. This message is valid for every era.

⁷ I was appointed to spread this Good News and to be an apostle to teach people who are not Jewish about faith and truth. I'm telling you the truth. I'm not lying.

⁸ I want men to offer prayers everywhere. They should raise their hands in prayer after putting aside their anger and any quarrels they have with anyone.

⁹ I want women to show their beauty by dressing in appropriate clothes that are modest and respectable. Their beauty will be shown by what they do, not by their hair styles or the gold jewelry, pearls, or expensive clothes they wear.

¹⁰ This is what is proper for women who claim to have reverence for God.

¹¹ A woman must learn in silence, in keeping with her position.

¹² I don't allow a woman to teach or to have authority over a man. Instead, she should be quiet.

¹³ After all, Adam was formed first, then Eve.

¹⁴ Besides that, Adam was not deceived. It was the woman who was deceived and sinned.

¹⁵ However, she and all women will be saved through the birth of the child, if they lead respectable lives in faith, love, and holiness.

3¹ This is a statement that can be trusted: If anyone sets his heart on being a bishop, he desires something excellent.

² A bishop must have a good reputation. He must have only one wife, be sober, use good judgment, be respectable, be hospitable, and be able to teach.

³ He must not drink excessively or be a violent person, but he must be gentle. He must not be quarrelsome or love money.

⁴ He must manage his own family well. His children should respectfully obey him.

⁵ (If a man doesn't know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God's church?)

⁶ He must not be a new Christian, or he might become arrogant like the devil and be condemned.

⁷ People who are not Christians must speak well of him, or he might become the victim of disgraceful insults that the devil sets as traps for him.

⁸ Deacons must also be of good character. They must not be two-faced or addicted to alcohol. They must not use shameful ways to make money.

⁹ They must have clear consciences about possessing the mystery of the Christian faith.

¹⁰ First, a person must be evaluated. Then, if he has a good reputation, he may become a deacon.

¹¹ Their wives must also be of good character. They must not be gossips, but they must control their tempers and be trustworthy in every way.

¹² A deacon must have only one wife. Deacons must manage their children and their families well.

¹³ Those deacons who serve well gain an excellent reputation and will have confidence as a result of their faith in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ I hope to visit you soon. However, I'm writing this to you

¹⁵ in case I'm delayed. I want you to know how people who are members of God's family must live. God's family is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

¹⁶ The mystery that gives us our reverence for God is acknowledged to be great: He appeared in his human nature, was approved by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was announced throughout the nations, was believed in the world, and was taken to heaven in glory.

4 ¹ The Spirit says clearly that in later times some believers will desert the Christian faith. They will follow spirits that deceive, and they will believe the teachings of demons.

² These people will speak lies disguised as truth. Their consciences have been scarred as if branded by a red-hot iron.

³ They will try to stop others from getting married and from eating certain foods. God created food to be received with prayers of thanks by those who believe and know the truth.

⁴ Everything God created is good. Nothing should be rejected if it is received with prayers of thanks.

⁵ The word of God and prayer set it apart as holy.

⁶ You are a good servant of Christ Jesus when you point these things out to our brothers and sisters. Then you will be nourished by the words of the Christian faith and the excellent teachings which you have followed closely.

⁷ Don't have anything to do with godless myths that old women like to tell. Rather, train yourself to live a godly life.

⁸ Training the body helps a little, but godly living helps in every way. Godly living has the promise of life now and in the world to come.

⁹ This is a statement that can be trusted and deserves complete acceptance.

¹⁰ Certainly, we work hard and struggle to live a godly life, because we place our confidence in the living God. He is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

¹¹ Insist on these things and teach them.

¹² Don't let anyone look down on you for being young. Instead, make your speech, behavior, love, faith, and purity an example for other believers.

¹³ Until I get there, concentrate on reading Scripture in worship, giving encouraging messages, and teaching people.

¹⁴ Don't neglect the gift which you received through prophecy when the spiritual leaders placed their hands on you to ordain you.

¹⁵ Practice these things. Devote your life to them so that everyone can see your progress.

¹⁶ Focus on your life and your teaching. Continue to do what I've told you. If you do this, you will save yourself and those who hear you.

5 ¹ Never use harsh words when you correct an older man, but talk to him as if he were your father. Talk to younger men as if they were your brothers,

² older women as if they were your mothers, and younger women as if they were your sisters, while keeping yourself morally pure.

³ Honor widows who have no families.

⁴ The children or grandchildren of a widow must first learn to respect their own family by repaying their parents. This is pleasing in God's sight.

⁵ A widow who has no family has placed her confidence in God by praying and asking for his help night and day.

⁶ But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead although she is still alive.

⁷ Insist on these things so that widows will have good reputations.

⁸ If anyone doesn't take care of his own relatives, especially his immediate family, he has denied the Christian faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ Any widow who had only one husband and is at least 60 years old should be put on your list of widows.

¹⁰ People should tell about the good things she has done: raising children, being hospitable, taking care of believers' needs, helping the suffering, or always doing good things.

¹¹ Don't include younger widows on your list. Whenever their natural desires become stronger than their devotion to Christ, they'll want to marry.

¹² They condemn themselves by rejecting the Christian faith, the faith they first accepted.

¹³ At the same time, they learn to go around from house to house since they have nothing else to do. Not only this, but they also gossip and get involved in other people's business, saying things they shouldn't say.

¹⁴ So I want younger widows to marry, have children, manage their homes, and not give the enemy any chance to ridicule them.

¹⁵ Some of them have already turned away to follow Satan.

¹⁶ If any woman is a believer and has relatives who are widows, she should help them. In this way the church is not burdened and can help widows who have no families.

¹⁷ Give double honor to spiritual leaders who handle their duties well. This is especially true if they work hard at teaching the word of God.

¹⁸ After all, Scripture says, "Never muzzle an ox when it is threshing grain," and "The worker deserves his pay."

¹⁹ Don't pay attention to an accusation against a spiritual leader unless it is supported by two or three witnesses.

²⁰ Reprimand those leaders who sin. Do it in front of everyone so that the other leaders will also be afraid.

²¹ I solemnly call on you in the sight of God, Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels to be impartial when you follow what I've told you. Never play favorites.

²² Don't be in a hurry to place your hands on anyone to ordain him. Don't participate in the sins of others. Keep yourself morally pure.

²³ Stop drinking only water. Instead, drink a little wine for your stomach because you are frequently sick.

²⁴ The sins of some people are obvious, going ahead of them to judgment. The sins of others follow them there.

²⁵ In the same way, the good things that people do are obvious, and those that aren't obvious can't remain hidden.

6 ¹ All slaves who believe must give complete respect to their own masters. In this way no one will speak evil of God's name and what we teach.

² Slaves whose masters also believe should respect their masters even though their masters are also believers. As a result, believers who are slaves should serve their masters even better because those who receive the benefit of their work are believers whom they love. Teach and encourage people to do these things.

³ Whoever teaches false doctrine and doesn't agree with the accurate words of our Lord Jesus Christ and godly teachings

⁴ is a conceited person. He shows that he doesn't understand anything. Rather, he has an unhealthy desire to argue and quarrel about words. This produces jealousy, rivalry, cursing, suspicion, ⁵ and conflict between people whose corrupt minds have been robbed of the truth. They think that a godly life is a way to make a profit.

⁶ A godly life brings huge profits to people who are content with what they have.

⁷ We didn't bring anything into the world, and we can't take anything out of it.

⁸ As long as we have food and clothes, we should be satisfied.

⁹ But people who want to get rich keep falling into temptation. They are trapped by many stupid and harmful desires which drown them in destruction and ruin.

¹¹ But you, man of God, must avoid these things. Pursue what God approves of: a godly life, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness.

¹² Fight the good fight for the Christian faith. Take hold of everlasting life to which you were called and about which you made a good testimony in front of many witnesses.

¹³ In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and in the sight of Christ Jesus, who gave a good testimony in front of Pontius Pilate,

¹⁴ I insist that, until our Lord Jesus Christ appears, you obey this command completely. Then you cannot be blamed for doing anything wrong.

¹⁵ At the right time God will make this known. God is the blessed and only ruler. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

¹⁶ He is the only one who cannot die. He lives in light that no one can come near. No one has seen him, nor can they see him. Honor and power belong to him forever! Amen.

¹⁷ Tell those who have the riches of this world not to be arrogant and not to place their confidence in anything as uncertain as riches. Instead, they should place their confidence in God who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

¹⁸ Tell them to do good, to do a lot of good things, to be generous, and to share.

¹⁹ By doing this they store up a treasure for themselves which is a good foundation for the future. In this way they take hold of what life really is.

²¹ Although some claim to have knowledge, they have abandoned the faith. God's good will be with all of you.

2 Timothy

1 ¹ From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will—a will that contains Christ Jesus' promise of life.

² To Timothy, my dear child. Good will, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

³ I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day when I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my ancestors did.

⁴ I remember your tears and want to see you so that I can be filled with happiness.

⁵ I'm reminded of how sincere your faith is. That faith first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice. I'm convinced that it also lives in you.

⁶ You received a gift from God when I placed my hands on you to ordain you. Now I'm reminding you to fan that gift into flames.

⁷ God didn't give us a cowardly spirit but a spirit of power, love, and good judgment.

⁸ So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord or be ashamed of me, his prisoner. Instead, by God's power, join me in suffering for the sake of the Good News.

⁹ God saved us and called us to be holy, not because of what we had done, but because of his own plan and kindness. Before the world began, God planned that Christ Jesus would show us God's kindness.

¹⁰ Now with the coming of our Savior Christ Jesus, he has revealed it. Christ has destroyed death, and through the Good News he has brought eternal life into full view.

¹¹ I was appointed to be a messenger of this Good News, an apostle, and a teacher.

¹² For this reason I suffer as I do. However, I'm not ashamed. I know whom I trust. I'm convinced that he is able to protect what he had entrusted to me until that day.

¹³ With faith and love for Christ Jesus, consider what you heard me say to be the pattern of accurate teachings.

¹⁴ With the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us, protect the Good News that has been entrusted to you.

¹⁵ You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶ May the Lord be merciful to the family of Onesiphorus. He often took care of my needs and wasn't ashamed that I was a prisoner.

¹⁷ When he arrived in Rome, he searched hard for me and found me.

¹⁸ May the Lord grant that Onesiphorus finds mercy when that day comes. You know very well that he did everything possible to help me in Ephesus.

2 ¹ My child, find your source of strength in the kindness of Christ Jesus.

² You've heard my message, and it's been confirmed by many witnesses. Entrust this message to faithful individuals who will be competent to teach others.

³ Join me in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

⁴ Whoever serves in the military doesn't get mixed up in non-military activities. This pleases his commanding officer.

⁵ Whoever enters an athletic competition wins the prize only when playing by the rules.

⁶ A hard-working farmer should have the first share of the crops.

⁷ Understand what I'm saying. The Lord will help you understand all these things.

⁸ Always think about Jesus Christ. He was brought back to life and is a descendant of David. This is the Good News that I tell others.

⁹ I'm suffering disgrace for spreading this Good News. I have even been put into prison like a criminal. However, God's word is not imprisoned.

¹⁰ For that reason, I endure everything for the sake of those who have been chosen so that they, too, may receive salvation from Christ Jesus with glory that lasts forever.

¹¹ This is a statement that can be trusted: If we have died with him, we will live with him.

¹² If we endure, we will rule with him. If we disown him, he will disown us.

¹³ If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful because he cannot be untrue to himself.

¹⁴ Remind believers about these things, and warn them in the sight of God not to quarrel over words. Quarreling doesn't do any good but only destroys those who are listening.

¹⁵ Do your best to present yourself to God as a tried—and—true worker who isn't ashamed to teach the word of truth correctly.

¹⁶ Avoid pointless discussions. People who pay attention to these pointless discussions will become more ungodly, ¹⁷ and what they say will spread like cancer. Hymenaeus and Philetus are like that.

¹⁸ They have abandoned the truth. They are destroying the faith of others by saying that people who have died have already come back to life.

¹⁹ In spite of all that, God's people have a solid foundation. These words are engraved on it: "The Lord knows those who belong to him," and "Whoever worships the Lord must give up doing wrong."

²⁰ In a large house there are not only objects made of gold and silver, but also those made of wood and clay. Some objects are honored when they are used; others aren't.

²¹ Those who stop associating with dishonorable people will be honored. They will be set apart for the master's use, prepared to do good things.

²² Stay away from lusts which tempt young people. Pursue what has God's approval. Pursue faith, love, and peace together with those who worship the Lord with a pure heart.

²³ Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments. You know they cause quarrels.

²⁴ A servant of the Lord must not quarrel. Instead, he must be kind to everyone. He must be a good teacher. He must be willing to suffer wrong.

²⁵ He must be gentle in correcting those who oppose the Good News. Maybe God will allow them to change the way they think and act and lead them to know the truth.

²⁶ Then they might come back to their senses and God will free them from the devil's snare so that they can do his will.

3 ¹ You must understand this: In the last days there will be violent periods of time.

² People will be selfish and love money. They will brag, be arrogant, and use abusive language. They will curse their parents, show no gratitude, have no respect for what is holy,

³ and lack normal affection for their families. They will refuse to make peace with anyone. They will be slanderous, lack self-control, be brutal, and have no love for what is good.

⁴ They will be traitors. They will be reckless and conceited. They will love pleasure rather than God.

⁵ They will appear to have a godly life, but they will not let its power change them. Stay away from such people.

⁶ Some of these men go into homes and mislead weak-minded women who are burdened with sins and led by all kinds of desires.

⁷ These women are always studying but are never able to recognize the truth.

⁸ As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men oppose the truth. Their minds are corrupt, and the faith they teach is counterfeit.

⁹ Certainly, they won't get very far. Like the stupidity of Jannes and Jambres, their stupidity will be plain to everyone.

¹⁰ But you know all about my teachings, my way of life, my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance.

¹¹ You also know about the kind of persecutions and sufferings which happened to me in the cities of Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions, and the Lord rescued me from all of them.

¹² Those who try to live a godly life because they believe in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

¹³ But evil people and phony preachers will go from bad to worse as they mislead people and are themselves misled.

¹⁴ However, continue in what you have learned and found to be true. You know who your teachers were.

¹⁵ From infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures. They have the power to give you wisdom so that you can be saved through faith in Christ Jesus.

¹⁶ Every Scripture passage is inspired by God. All of them are useful for teaching, pointing out errors, correcting people, and training them for a life that has God's approval.

¹⁷ They equip God's servants so that they are completely prepared to do good things.

4 ¹ I solemnly call on you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge those who are living and those who are dead. I do this because Christ Jesus will come to rule the world.

² Be ready to spread the word whether or not the time is right. Point out errors, warn people, and encourage them. Be very patient when you teach.

⁴ People will refuse to listen to the truth and turn to myths.

⁵ But you must keep a clear head in everything. Endure suffering. Do the work of a missionary. Devote yourself completely to your work.

⁶ My life is coming to an end, and it is now time for me to be poured out as a sacrifice to God.

⁷ I have fought the good fight. I have completed the race. I have kept the faith.

⁸ The prize that shows I have God's approval is now waiting for me. The Lord, who is a fair judge, will give me that prize on that day. He will give it not only to me but also to everyone who is eagerly waiting for him to come again.

⁹ Hurry to visit me soon.

¹⁰ Demas has abandoned me. He fell in love with this present world and went to the city of Thessalonica. Crescens went to the province of Galatia, and Titus went to the province of Dalmatia.

¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you. He is useful to me in my work.

¹² I'm sending Tychicus to the city of Ephesus as my representative.

¹³ When you come, bring the warm coat I left with Carpus in the city of Troas. Also bring the scrolls and especially the parchments.

¹⁴ Alexander the metalworker did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will pay him back for what he did.

¹⁵ Watch out for him. He violently opposed what we said.

¹⁶ At my first hearing no one stood up in my defense. Everyone abandoned me. I pray that it won't be held against them.

¹⁷ However, the Lord stood by me and gave me strength so that I could finish spreading the Good News for all the nations to hear. I was snatched out of a lion's mouth.

¹⁸ The Lord will rescue me from all harm and will take me safely to his heavenly kingdom. Glory belongs to him forever! Amen.

¹⁹ Give my greetings to Prisca and Aquila and the family of Onesiphorus.

²⁰ Erastus stayed in the city of Corinth and I left Trophimus in the city of Miletus because he was sick.

²¹ Hurry to visit me before winter comes. Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers and sisters send you greetings.

²² The Lord be with you. His good will be with all of you.

Titus

1 ¹ From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I was sent to lead God's chosen people to faith and to the knowledge of the truth that leads to a godly life.

² My message is based on the confidence of eternal life. God, who never lies, promised this eternal life before the world began.

³ God has revealed this in every era by spreading his word. I was entrusted with this word by the command of God our Savior.

⁴ To Titus, a genuine child in the faith we share. Good will and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Savior are yours!

⁵ I left you in Crete to do what still needed to be done—appointing spiritual leaders in every city as I directed you.

⁶ A spiritual leader must have a good reputation. He must have only one wife and have children who are believers. His children shouldn't be known for having wild lifestyles or being rebellious.

⁷ Because a bishop is a supervisor appointed by God, he must have a good reputation. He must not be a stubborn or irritable person. He must not drink too much or be a violent person. He must not use shameful ways to make money.

⁸ Instead, he must be hospitable, love what is good, use good judgment, be fair and moral, and have self-control.

⁹ He must be devoted to the trustworthy message we teach. Then he can use these accurate teachings to encourage people and correct those who oppose the word.

¹⁰ There are many believers, especially converts from Judaism, who are rebellious. They speak nonsense and deceive people.

¹¹ They must be silenced because they are ruining whole families by teaching what they shouldn't teach. This is the shameful way they make money.

¹² Even one of their own prophets said, "Cretans are always liars, savage animals, and lazy gluttons."

¹³ That statement is true. For this reason, sharply correct believers so that they continue to have faith that is alive and well.

¹⁴ They shouldn't pay attention to Jewish myths or commands given by people who are always rejecting the truth.

¹⁵ Everything is clean to those who are clean. But nothing is clean to corrupt unbelievers. Indeed, their minds and their consciences are corrupted.

¹⁶ They claim to know God, but they deny him by what they do. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit to do anything good.

2 ¹ Tell believers to live the kind of life that goes along with accurate teachings.

² Tell older men to be sober. Tell them to be men of good character, to use good judgment, and to be well-grounded in faith, love, and endurance.

³ Tell older women to live their lives in a way that shows they are dedicated to God. Tell them not to be gossips or addicted to alcohol, but to be examples of virtue.

⁴ In this way they will teach young women to show love to their husbands and children,

⁵ to use good judgment, and to be morally pure. Also, tell them to teach young women to be homemakers, to be kind, and to place themselves under their husbands' authority. Then no one can speak evil of God's word.

⁶ Encourage young men to use good judgment.

⁷ Always set an example by doing good things. When you teach, be an example of moral purity and dignity.

⁸ Speak an accurate message that cannot be condemned. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed because they cannot say anything bad about us.

⁹ Tell slaves who are believers to place themselves under their masters' authority in everything they do. Tell them to please their masters, not to argue with them

¹⁰ or steal from them. Instead, tell slaves to show their masters how good and completely loyal they can be. Then they will show the beauty of the teachings about God our Savior in everything they do.

¹¹ After all, God's saving kindness has appeared for the benefit of all people.

¹² It trains us to avoid ungodly lives filled with worldly desires so that we can live self-controlled, moral, and godly lives in this present world.

¹³ At the same time we can expect what we hope for—the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

¹⁴ He gave himself for us to set us free from every sin and to cleanse us so that we can be his special people who are enthusiastic about doing good things.

¹⁵ Tell these things to the believers. Encourage and correct them, using your full authority. Don't let anyone ignore you.

3 ¹ Remind believers to willingly place themselves under the authority of government officials. Believers should obey them and be ready to help them with every good thing they do.

² Believers shouldn't curse anyone or be quarrelsome, but they should be gentle and show courtesy to everyone.

³ Indeed, we, too, were once stupid, disobedient, and misled. We were slaves to many kinds of lusts and pleasures. We were mean and jealous. We were hated, and we hated each other.

⁴ However, when God our Savior made his kindness and love for humanity appear,

⁵ he saved us, but not because of anything we had done to gain his approval. Instead, because of his mercy he saved us through the washing in which the Holy Spirit gives us new birth and renewal.

⁶ God poured a generous amount of the Spirit on us through Jesus Christ our Savior.

⁷ As a result, God in his kindness has given us his approval and we have become heirs who have the confidence that we have everlasting life.

⁸ This is a statement that can be trusted. I want you to insist on these things so that those who believe in God can concentrate on setting an example by doing good things. This is good and helps other people.

⁹ Avoid foolish controversies, arguments about genealogies, quarrels, and fights about Moses' Teachings. This is useless and worthless.

¹⁰ Have nothing to do with people who continue to teach false doctrine after you have warned them once or twice.

¹¹ You know that people like this are corrupt. They are sinners condemned by their own actions.

¹² When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to visit me in the city of Nicopolis. I have decided to spend the winter there.

¹³ Give Zenas the lawyer and Apollos your best support for their trip so that they will have everything they need.

¹⁴ Our people should also learn how to set an example by doing good things when urgent needs arise so that they can live productive lives.

¹⁵ Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet our faithful friends. God's good will be with all of you.

Philemon

1 ¹ From Paul, who is a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and our brother Timothy. To our dear coworker Philemon, ² our sister Apphia, our fellow soldier Archippus, and the church that meets in your house.

³ Good will and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ are yours!

⁴ Philemon, I always thank my God when I mention you in my prayers because ⁵ I hear about your faithfulness to the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people.

⁶ As you share the faith you have in common with others, I pray that you may come to have a complete knowledge of every blessing we have in Christ.

⁷ Your love for God's people gives me a lot of joy and encouragement. You, brother, have comforted God's people.

⁸ Christ makes me bold enough to order you to do the right thing.

⁹ However, I would prefer to make an appeal on the basis of love. I, Paul, as an old man and now a prisoner for Christ Jesus, ¹⁰ appeal to you for my child Onesimus [Useful]. I became his spiritual father here in prison.

¹¹ Once he was useless to you, but now he is very useful to both of us.

¹² I am sending him back to you. This is like sending you a part of myself.

¹³ I wanted to keep him here with me. Then he could have served me in your place while I am in prison for spreading the Good News.

¹⁴ Yet, I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I want you to do this favor for me out of your own free will without feeling forced to do it.

¹⁵ Maybe Onesimus was gone for a while so that you could have him back forever—

¹⁶ no longer as a slave but better than a slave—as a dear brother. He is especially dear to me, but even more so to you, both as a person and as a Christian.

¹⁷ If you think of me as your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

¹⁸ If he wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me.

¹⁹ I, Paul, promise to pay it back. I'm writing this with my own hand. I won't even mention that you owe me your life.

²⁰ So, because we're brothers in the Lord, do something for me. Give me some comfort because of Christ.

²¹ I am confident as I write to you that you will do this. And I know that you will do even more than I ask.

²² One more thing—have a guest room ready for me. I hope that, because of your prayers, God will give me back to you.

²³ Epaphras, who is a prisoner because of Christ Jesus like I am,

²⁴ and my coworkers Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke send you greetings.

²⁵ The good will of our Lord Jesus Christ be yours.

Hebrews

1 ¹ In the past God spoke to our ancestors at many different times and in many different ways through the prophets.

² In these last days he has spoken to us through his Son. God made his Son responsible for everything. His Son is the one through whom God made the universe.

³ His Son is the reflection of God's glory and the exact likeness of God's being. He holds everything together through his powerful words. After he had cleansed people from their sins, he received the highest position, the one next to the Father in heaven.

⁴ The Son has become greater than the angels since he has been given a name that is superior to theirs.

⁵ God never said to any of his angels, "You are my Son. Today I have become your Father." And God never said to any of his angels, "I will be his Father, and he will be my Son."

⁶ When God was about to send his firstborn Son into the world, he said, "All of God's angels must worship him."

⁷ God said about the angels, "He makes his messengers winds. He makes his servants flames of fire."

⁸ But God said about his Son, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter in your kingdom is a scepter for justice.

⁹ You have loved what is right and hated what is wrong. That is why God, your God, anointed you, rather than your companions, with the oil of joy."

¹⁰ God also said, "Lord, in the beginning you laid the foundation of the earth. With your own hands you made the heavens.

¹¹ They will come to an end, but you will live forever. They will all wear out like clothes.

¹² They will be taken off like a coat. You will change them like clothes. But you remain the same, and your life will never end.

¹³ But God never said to any of the angels, "Sit in the highest position in heaven until I make your enemies your footstool."

¹⁴ What are all the angels? They are spirits sent to serve those who are going to receive salvation.

2 ¹ For this reason we must pay closer attention to what we have heard. Then we won't drift away from the truth.

² After all, the message that the angels brought was reliable, and every violation and act of disobedience was properly punished.

³ So how will we escape punishment if we reject the important message, the message that God saved us? First, the Lord told this saving message. Then those who heard him confirmed that message.

⁴ God verified what they said through miraculous signs, amazing things, other powerful acts, and with other gifts from the Holy Spirit as he wanted.

⁵ He didn't put the world that will come (about which we are talking) under the angels' control.

⁶ Instead, someone has declared this somewhere in Scripture: "What is a mortal that you should remember him, or the Son of Man that you take care of him?"

⁷ You made him a little lower than the angels. You crowned him with glory and honor.

⁸ You put everything under his control." When God put everything under his Son's control, nothing was left out. However, at the present time we still don't see everything under his Son's control.

⁹ Jesus was made a little lower than the angels, but we see him crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death. Through God's kindness he died on behalf of everyone.

¹⁰ God is the one for whom and through whom everything exists. Therefore, while God was bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was the right time to bring Jesus, the source of their salvation, to the end of his work through suffering.

¹¹ Jesus, who makes people holy, and all those who are made holy have the same Father. That is why Jesus isn't ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.

¹² He says, "I will tell my people about your name. I will praise you within the congregation."

¹³ In addition, Jesus says, "I will trust him." And Jesus says, "I am here with the sons and daughters God has given me."

¹⁴ Since all of these sons and daughters have flesh and blood, Jesus took on flesh and blood to be like them. He did this so that by dying he would destroy the one who had power over death (that is, the devil).

¹⁵ In this way he would free those who were slaves all their lives because they were afraid of dying.

¹⁶ So Jesus helps Abraham's descendants rather than helping angels.

¹⁷ Therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters so that he could be merciful. He became like them so that he could serve as a faithful chief priest in God's presence and make peace with God for their sins.

¹⁸ Because Jesus experienced temptation when he suffered, he is able to help others when they are tempted.

3 ¹ Brothers and sisters, you are holy partners in a heavenly calling. So look carefully at Jesus, the apostle and chief priest about whom we make our declaration of faith.

² Jesus is faithful to God, who appointed him, in the same way that Moses was faithful when he served in God's house.

³ Jesus deserves more praise than Moses in the same way that the builder of a house is praised more than the house.

⁴ After all, every house has a builder, but the builder of everything is God.

⁵ Moses was a faithful servant in God's household. He told the people what God would say in the future.

⁶ But Christ is a faithful son in charge of God's household. We are his household if we continue to have courage and to be proud of the confidence we have.

⁷ As the Holy Spirit says, "If you hear God speak today, don't be stubborn.

⁸ Don't be stubborn like those who rebelled and tested me in the desert.

⁹ That is where your ancestors tested me,

¹⁰ although they had seen what I had done for 40 years. That is why I was angry with those people. So I said, 'Their hearts continue to stray, and they have not learned my ways.'

¹¹ So I angrily took a solemn oath that they would never enter my place of rest."

¹² Be careful, brothers and sisters, that none of you ever develop a wicked, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

¹³ Encourage each other every day while you have the opportunity. If you do this, none of you will be deceived by sin and become stubborn.

¹⁴ After all, we will remain Christ's partners only if we continue to hold on to our original confidence until the end.

¹⁵ Scripture says, "If you hear God speak today, don't be stubborn. Don't be stubborn like those who rebelled."

¹⁶ Who heard God and rebelled? All those whom Moses led out of Egypt rebelled.

¹⁷ With whom was God angry for 40 years? He was angry with those who sinned and died in the desert.

¹⁸ Who did God swear would never enter his place of rest? He was talking about those who didn't obey him.

¹⁹ So we see that they couldn't enter his place of rest because they didn't believe.

4 ¹ God's promise that we may enter his place of rest still stands. We are afraid that some of you think you won't enter his place of rest.

² We have heard the same Good News that your ancestors heard. But the message didn't help those who heard it in the past because they didn't believe.

³ We who believe are entering that place of rest. As God said, "So I angrily took a solemn oath that they would never enter my place of rest." God said this even though he had finished his work when he created the world.

⁴ Somewhere in Scripture God has said this about the seventh day: "On the seventh day God rested from all his work."

⁵ God also said in the same passage, "They will never enter my place of rest."

⁶ However, some people enter that place of rest. Those who heard the Good News in the past did not enter God's place of rest because they did not obey God.

⁷ So God set another day. That day is today. Many years after your ancestors failed to enter that place of rest God spoke about it through David in the passage already quoted: "If you hear God speak today, don't be stubborn."

⁸ If Joshua had given the people rest, God would not have spoken about another day.

⁹ Therefore, a time of rest and worship exists for God's people.

¹⁰ Those who entered his place of rest also rested from their work as God did from his.

¹¹ So we must make every effort to enter that place of rest. Then no one will be lost by following the example of those who refused to obey.

¹² God's word is living and active. It is sharper than any two-edged sword and cuts as deep as the place where soul and spirit meet, the place where joints and marrow meet. God's word judges a person's thoughts and intentions.

¹³ No creature can hide from God. Everything is uncovered and exposed for him to see. We must answer to him.

¹⁴ We need to hold on to our declaration of faith: We have a superior chief priest who has gone through the heavens. That person is Jesus, the Son of God.

¹⁵ We have a chief priest who is able to sympathize with our weaknesses. He was tempted in every way that we are, but he didn't sin.

¹⁶ So we can go confidently to the throne of God's kindness to receive mercy and find kindness, which will help us at the right time.

5 ¹ Every chief priest is chosen from humans to represent them in front of God, that is, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sin.

² The chief priest can be gentle with people who are ignorant and easily deceived, because he also has weaknesses.

³ Because he has weaknesses, he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins in the same way that he does for the sins of his people.

⁴ No one takes this honor for himself. Instead, God calls him as he called Aaron.

⁵ So Christ did not take the glory of being a chief priest for himself. Instead, the glory was given to him by God, who said, "You are my Son. Today I have become your Father."

⁶ In another place in Scripture, God said, "You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest."

⁷ During his life on earth, Jesus prayed to God, who could save him from death. He prayed and pleaded with loud crying and tears, and he was heard because of his devotion to God.

⁸ Although Jesus was the Son of God, he learned to be obedient through his sufferings.

⁹ After he had finished his work, he became the source of eternal salvation for everyone who obeys him.

¹⁰ God appointed him chief priest in the way Melchizedek was a priest.

¹¹ We have a lot to explain about this. But since you have become too lazy to pay attention, explaining it to you is hard.

¹² By now you should be teachers. Instead, you still need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word. You need milk, not solid food.

¹³ All those who live on milk lack the experience to talk about what is right. They are still babies.

¹⁴ However, solid food is for mature people, whose minds are trained by practice to know the difference between good and evil.

6¹ With this in mind, we should stop going over the elementary truths about Christ and move on to topics for more mature people. We shouldn't repeat the basics about turning away from the useless things we did and the basics about faith in God.

² We shouldn't repeat the basic teachings about such things as baptisms, setting people apart for holy tasks, dead people coming back to life, and eternal judgment.

³ If God permits, we will do this.

⁴ Some people once had God's light. They experienced the heavenly gift and shared in the Holy Spirit.

⁵ They experienced the goodness of God's word and the powers of the world to come.

⁶ Yet, they have deserted Christ. They are crucifying the Son of God again and publicly disgracing him. Therefore, they cannot be led a second time to God.

⁷ God blesses the earth. So rain often falls on it, and it produces useful crops for farmers.

⁸ However, if the earth produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

⁹ Dear friends, even though we say these things, we are still convinced that better things are in store for you and that they will save you.

¹⁰ God is fair. He won't forget what you've done or the love you've shown for him. You helped his holy people, and you continue to help them.

¹¹ We want each of you to prove that you're working hard so that you will remain confident until the end.

¹² Then, instead of being lazy, you will imitate those who are receiving the promises through faith and patience.

¹³ God made a promise to Abraham. Since he had no one greater on whom to base his oath, he based it on himself.

¹⁴ He said, "I will certainly bless you and give you many descendants."

¹⁵ So Abraham received what God promised because he waited patiently for it.

¹⁶ When people take oaths, they base their oaths on someone greater than themselves. Their oaths guarantee what they say and end all arguments.

¹⁷ God wouldn't change his plan. He wanted to make this perfectly clear to those who would receive his promise, so he took an oath.

¹⁸ God did this so that we would be encouraged. God cannot lie when he takes an oath or makes a promise. These two things can never be changed. Those of us who have taken refuge in him hold on to the confidence we have been given.

¹⁹ We have this confidence as a sure and strong anchor for our lives. This confidence goes into the holy place behind the curtain ²⁰ where Jesus went before us on our behalf. He has become the chief priest forever in the way Melchizedek was a priest.

7 ¹ Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of the Most High God. He met Abraham and blessed him when Abraham was returning from defeating the kings.

² Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he had captured. In the first place, Melchizedek's name means king of righteousness. He is also called king of Salem (which means king of peace).

³ No one knows anything about Melchizedek's father, mother, or ancestors. No one knows when he was born or when he died. Like the Son of God, Melchizedek continues to be a priest forever.

⁴ You can see how important Melchizedek was. Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had captured, even though Abraham was the father of the chosen people.

⁵ Moses' Teachings say that members of the tribe of Levi who become priests must receive a tenth of everything from the people. The priests collect it from their own people, Abraham's descendants.

⁶ Although Melchizedek was not from the tribe of Levi, he received a tenth of everything from Abraham. Then Melchizedek blessed Abraham, who had God's promises.

⁷ No one can deny that the more important person blesses the less important person.

⁸ Priests receive a tenth of everything, but they die. Melchizedek received a tenth of everything, but we are told that he lives.

⁹ We could even say that when Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything, Levi was giving a tenth of everything. Levi gave, although later his descendants would receive a tenth of everything.

¹⁰ Even though Levi had not yet been born, he was in the body of Abraham when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹ The people established the Levitical priesthood based on instructions they received. If the work of the Levitical priests had been perfect, we wouldn't need to speak about another kind of priest. However, we speak about another kind of priest, a priest like Melchizedek, not a Levitical priest like Aaron.

¹² When a different kind of priesthood is established, the regulations for those priests are different.

¹³ The priest whom we are talking about was a member of a different tribe.

No one from that tribe ever served as a priest at the altar.

¹⁴ Everyone knows that our Lord came from the tribe of Judah. Moses never said anything about priests coming from that tribe.

¹⁵ The regulations were different. This became clear when a different priest who is like Melchizedek appeared.

¹⁶ That person is a priest, not because he met human requirements, but because he has power that comes from a life that cannot be destroyed.

¹⁷ The Scriptures say the following about him: "You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest."

¹⁸ The former requirements are rejected because they are weak and useless.

¹⁹ Moses' Teachings couldn't accomplish everything that God required. But we have something else that gives us greater confidence and allows us to approach God.

²⁰ None of this happened without an oath. The men from the tribe of Levi may have become priests without an oath, ²¹ but Jesus became a priest when God took an oath. God said about him, "The Lord has taken an oath and will not change his mind. You are a priest forever."

²² In this way Jesus has become the guarantee of a better promise.

²³ There was a long succession of priests because when a priest died he could no longer serve.

²⁴ But Jesus lives forever, so he serves as a priest forever.

²⁵ That is why he is always able to save those who come to God through him. He can do this because he always lives and intercedes for them.

²⁶ We need a chief priest who is holy, innocent, pure, set apart from sinners, and who has the highest position in heaven.

²⁷ We need a priest who doesn't have to bring daily sacrifices as those chief priests did. First they brought sacrifices for their own sins, and then they brought sacrifices for the sins of the people. Jesus brought the sacrifice for the sins of the people once and for all when he sacrificed himself.

²⁸ Moses' Teachings designated mortals as chief priests even though they had weaknesses. But God's promise, which came after Moses' Teachings, designated the Son who forever accomplished everything that God required.

8 ¹ The main point we want to make is this: We do have this kind of chief priest. This chief priest has received the highest position, the throne of majesty in heaven.

² He serves as priest of the holy place and of the true tent set up by the Lord and not by any human.

³ Every chief priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore, this chief priest had to offer something.

⁴ If he were on earth, he would not even be a priest. On earth other priests offer gifts by following the instructions that Moses gave.

⁵ They serve at a place that is a pattern, a shadow, of what is in heaven. When Moses was about to make the tent, God warned him, "Be sure to make everything based on the plan I showed you on the mountain."

⁶ Jesus has been given a priestly work that is superior to the Levitical priests' work. He also brings a better promise from God that is based on better guarantees.

⁷ If nothing had been wrong with the first promise, no one would look for another one.

⁸ But God found something wrong with his people and said to them, "The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new promise to Israel and Judah.

⁹ It will not be like the promise that I made to their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. They rejected that promise, so I ignored them, says the Lord.

¹⁰ But this is the promise that I will make to Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my teachings inside them, and I will write those teachings on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

¹¹ No longer will each person teach his neighbors or his relatives by saying,

‘Know the Lord.’ All of them from the least important to the most important will all know me

¹² because I will forgive their wickedness and I will no longer hold their sins against them."

¹³ God made this new promise and showed that the first promise was outdated. What is outdated and aging will soon disappear.

9¹ The first promise had rules for the priests' service. It also had a holy place on earth.

² A tent was set up. The first part of this tent was called the holy place. The lamp stand, the table, and the bread of the presence were in this part of the tent.

³ Behind the second curtain was the part of the tent called the most holy place.

⁴ It contained the gold incense burner and the ark of the Lord's promise.

The ark was completely covered with gold. In the ark were the gold jar filled with manna, Aaron's staff that had blossomed, and the tablets on which the promise was written.

⁵ Above the ark were the angels of glory with their wings overshadowing the throne of mercy. (Discussing these things in detail isn't possible now.)

⁶ That is how these two parts of the tent were set up. The priests always went into the first part of the tent to perform their duties.

⁷ But only the chief priest went into the second part of the tent. Once a year he entered and brought blood that he offered for himself and for the things that the people did wrong unintentionally.

⁸ The Holy Spirit used this to show that the way into the most holy place was not open while the tent was still in use.

⁹ The first part of the tent is an example for the present time. The gifts and sacrifices that were brought there could not give the worshiper a clear conscience.

¹⁰ These gifts and sacrifices were meant to be food, drink, and items used in various purification ceremonies. These ceremonies were required for the body until God would establish a new way of doing things.

¹¹ But Christ came as a chief priest of the good things that are now here. Christ went through a better, more perfect tent that was not made by human hands and that is not part of this created world.

¹² He used his own blood, not the blood of goats and bulls, for the sacrifice. He went into the most holy place and offered this sacrifice once and for all to free us forever.

¹³ The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of cows sprinkled on unclean people made their bodies holy and clean.

¹⁴ The blood of Christ, who had no defect, does even more. Through the eternal Spirit he offered himself to God and cleansed our consciences from the useless things we had done. Now we can serve the living God.

¹⁵ Because Christ offered himself to God, he is able to bring a new promise from God. Through his death he paid the price to set people free from the sins they committed under the first promise. He did this so that those who are called can be guaranteed an inheritance that will last forever.

¹⁶ In order for a will to take effect, it must be shown that the one who made it has died.

¹⁷ A will is used only after a person is dead because it goes into effect only when a person dies.

¹⁸ That is why even the first promise was made with blood.

¹⁹ As Moses' Teachings tell us, Moses told all the people every commandment. Then he took the blood of calves and goats together with some water, red yarn, and hyssop and sprinkled the scroll and all the people.

²⁰ He said, "Here is the blood that seals the promise God has made to you."

²¹ In the same way, Moses sprinkled blood on the tent and on everything used in worship.

²² As Moses' Teachings tell us, blood was used to cleanse almost everything, because if no blood is shed, no sins can be forgiven.

²³ The copies of the things in heaven had to be cleansed by these sacrifices.

But the heavenly things themselves had to be cleansed by better sacrifices.

²⁴ Christ didn't go into a holy place made by human hands. He didn't go into a model of the real thing. Instead, he went into heaven to appear in God's presence on our behalf.

²⁵ Every year the chief priest went into the holy place to make a sacrifice with blood that isn't his own. However, Christ didn't go into heaven to sacrifice himself again and again.

²⁶ Otherwise, he would have had to suffer many times since the world was created. But now, at the end of the ages, he has appeared once to remove sin by his sacrifice.

²⁷ People die once, and after that they are judged.

²⁸ Likewise, Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of humanity, and after that he will appear a second time.

This time he will not deal with sin, but he will save those who eagerly wait for him.

10¹ Moses' Teachings with their yearly cycle of sacrifices are only a shadow of the good things in the future. They aren't an exact likeness of those things. They can never make those who worship perfect.

² If these sacrifices could have made the worshipers perfect, the sacrifices would have stopped long ago. Those who worship would have been cleansed once and for all. Their consciences would have been free from sin.

³ Instead, this yearly cycle of sacrifices reminded people of their sins.

⁴ (The blood of bulls and goats cannot take away sins.)

⁵ For this reason, when Christ came into the world, he said, "'You did not want sacrifices and offerings, but you prepared a body for me.

⁶ You did not approve of burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.'

⁷ Then I said, 'I have come! (It is written about me in the scroll of the book.) I have come to do what you want, my God.'"

⁸ In this passage Christ first said, "You did not want sacrifices, offerings, burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sin. You did not approve of them." (These are the sacrifices that Moses' Teachings require people to offer.)

⁹ Then Christ says, "I have come to do what you want." He did away with sacrifices in order to establish the obedience that God wants.

¹⁰ We have been set apart as holy because Jesus Christ did what God wanted him to do by sacrificing his body once and for all.

¹¹ Every day each priest performed his religious duty. He offered the same type of sacrifice again and again. Yet, these sacrifices could never take away sins.

¹² However, this chief priest made one sacrifice for sins, and this sacrifice lasts forever. Then he received the highest position in heaven.

¹³ Since that time, he has been waiting for his enemies to be made his footstool.

¹⁴ With one sacrifice he accomplished the work of setting them apart for God forever.

¹⁵ The Holy Spirit tells us the same thing:

¹⁶ "This is the promise that I will make to them after those days, says the Lord: 'I will put my teachings in their hearts and write them in their minds.'"

¹⁷ Then he adds, "I will no longer hold their sins and their disobedience against them."

¹⁸ When sins are forgiven, there is no longer any need to sacrifice for sins.

¹⁹ Brothers and sisters, because of the blood of Jesus we can now confidently go into the holy place.

²⁰ Jesus has opened a new and living way for us to go through the curtain. (The curtain is his own body.)

²¹ We have a superior priest in charge of God's house.

²² We have been sprinkled with his blood to free us from a guilty conscience, and our bodies have been washed with clean water. So we must continue to come to him with a sincere heart and strong faith.

²³ We must continue to hold firmly to our declaration of faith. The one who made the promise is faithful.

²⁴ We must also consider how to encourage each other to show love and to do good things.

²⁵ We should not stop gathering together with other believers, as some of you are doing. Instead, we must continue to encourage each other even more as we see the day of the Lord coming.

²⁶ If we go on sinning after we have learned the truth, no sacrifice can take away our sins.

²⁷ All that is left is a terrifying wait for judgment and a raging fire that will consume God's enemies.

²⁸ If two or three witnesses accused someone of rejecting Moses' Teachings, that person was shown no mercy as he was executed.

²⁹ What do you think a person who shows no respect for the Son of God deserves? That person looks at the blood of the promise (the blood that made him holy) as no different from other people's blood, and he insults the Spirit that God gave us out of his kindness. He deserves a much worse punishment.

³⁰ We know the God who said, "I alone have the right to take revenge. I will pay back." God also said, "The Lord will judge his people."

³¹ Falling into the hands of the living God is a terrifying thing.

³² Remember the past, when you first learned the truth. You endured a lot of hardship and pain.

³³ At times you were publicly insulted and mistreated. At times you associated with people who were treated this way.

³⁴ You suffered with prisoners. You were cheerful even though your possessions were stolen, since you know that you have a better and more permanent possession.

³⁵ So don't lose your confidence. It will bring you a great reward.

³⁶ You need endurance so that after you have done what God wants you to do, you can receive what he has promised.

³⁷ "Yet, the one who is coming will come soon. He will not delay.

³⁸ The person who has God's approval will live by faith. But if he turns back, I will not be pleased with him."

³⁹ We don't belong with those who turn back and are destroyed. Instead, we belong with those who have faith and are saved.

11 ¹ Faith assures us of things we expect and convinces us of the existence of things we cannot see.

² God accepted our ancestors because of their faith.

³ Faith convinces us that God created the world through his word. This means what can be seen was made by something that could not be seen.

⁴ Faith led Abel to offer God a better sacrifice than Cain's sacrifice. Through his faith Abel received God's approval, since God accepted his sacrifices.

Through his faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.

⁵ Faith enabled Enoch to be taken instead of dying. No one could find him, because God had taken him. Scripture states that before Enoch was taken, God was pleased with him.

⁶ No one can please God without faith. Whoever goes to God must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

⁷ Faith led Noah to listen when God warned him about the things in the future that he could not see. He obeyed God and built a ship to save his family. Through faith Noah condemned the world and received God's approval that comes through faith.

⁸ Faith led Abraham to obey when God called him to go to a place that he would receive as an inheritance. Abraham left his own country without knowing where he was going.

⁹ Faith led Abraham to live as a foreigner in the country that God had promised him. He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who received the same promise from God.

¹⁰ Abraham was waiting for the city that God had designed and built, the city with permanent foundations.

¹¹ Faith enabled Abraham to become a father, even though he was old and Sarah had never been able to have children. Abraham trusted that God would keep his promise.

¹² Abraham was as good as dead. Yet, from this man came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the grains of sand on the seashore.

¹³ All these people died having faith. They didn't receive the things that God had promised them, but they saw these things coming in the distant future and rejoiced. They acknowledged that they were living as strangers with no permanent home on earth.

¹⁴ Those who say such things make it clear that they are looking for their own country.

¹⁵ If they had been thinking about the country that they had left, they could have found a way to go back.

¹⁶ Instead, these men were longing for a better country—a heavenly country. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God. He has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ When God tested Abraham, faith led him to offer his son Isaac. Abraham, the one who received the promises from God, was willing to offer his only son as a sacrifice.

¹⁸ God had said to him, "Through Isaac your descendants will carry on your name."

¹⁹ Abraham believed that God could bring Isaac back from the dead. Abraham did receive Isaac back from the dead in a figurative sense.

²⁰ Faith led Isaac to bless Jacob and Esau.

²¹ While Jacob was dying, faith led him to bless each of Joseph's sons. He leaned on the top of his staff and worshiped God.

²² While Joseph was dying, faith led him to speak about the Israelites leaving Egypt and give them instructions about burying his bones.

²³ Faith led Moses' parents to hide him for three months after he was born. They did this because they saw that Moses was a beautiful baby and they were not afraid to disobey the king's order.

²⁴ When Moses grew up, faith led him to refuse to be known as a son of Pharaoh's daughter.

²⁵ He chose to suffer with God's people rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a little while.

²⁶ He thought that being insulted for Christ would be better than having the treasures of Egypt. He was looking ahead to his reward.

²⁷ Faith led Moses to leave Egypt without being afraid of the king's anger. Moses didn't give up but continued as if he could actually see the invisible God.

²⁸ Faith led Moses to establish the Passover and spread the blood on the doorposts so that the destroying angel would not kill the firstborn sons.

²⁹ Faith caused the people to go through the Red Sea as if it were dry land. The Egyptians also tried this, but they drowned.

³⁰ Faith caused the walls of Jericho to fall after the Israelites marched around them for seven days.

³¹ Faith led the prostitute Rahab to welcome the spies as friends. She was not killed with those who refused to obey God.

³² What more should I say? I don't have enough time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets.

³³ Through faith they conquered kingdoms, did what God approved, and received what God had promised. They shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴ put out raging fires, and escaped death. They found strength when they were weak. They were powerful in battle and defeated other armies.

³⁵ Women received their loved ones back from the dead. Other believers were brutally tortured but refused to be released so that they might gain eternal life.

³⁶ Some were made fun of and whipped, and some were chained and put in prison.

³⁷ Some were stoned to death, sawed in half, and killed with swords. Some wore the skins of sheep and goats. Some were poor, abused, and mistreated.

³⁸ The world didn't deserve these good people. Some wandered around in deserts and mountains and lived in caves and holes in the ground.

³⁹ All these people were known for their faith, but none of them received what God had promised.

⁴⁰ God planned to give us something very special so that we would gain eternal life with them.

12 ¹ Since we are surrounded by so many examples of faith, we must get rid of everything that slows us down, especially sin that distracts us. We must run the race that lies ahead of us and never give up.

² We must focus on Jesus, the source and goal of our faith. He saw the joy ahead of him, so he endured death on the cross and ignored the disgrace it brought him. Then he received the highest position in heaven, the one next to the throne of God.

³ Think about Jesus, who endured opposition from sinners, so that you don't become tired and give up.

⁴ You struggle against sin, but your struggles haven't killed you.

⁵ You have forgotten the encouraging words that God speaks to you as his children: "My child, pay attention when the Lord disciplines you. Don't give up when he corrects you.

⁶ The Lord disciplines everyone he loves. He severely disciplines everyone he accepts as his child."

⁷ Endure your discipline. God corrects you as a father corrects his children. All children are disciplined by their fathers.

⁸ If you aren't disciplined like the other children, you aren't part of the family.

⁹ On earth we have fathers who disciplined us, and we respect them. Shouldn't we place ourselves under the authority of God, the father of spirits, so that we will live?

¹⁰ For a short time our fathers disciplined us as they thought best. Yet, God disciplines us for our own good so that we can become holy like him.

¹¹ We don't enjoy being disciplined. It always seems to cause more pain than joy. But later on, those who learn from that discipline have peace that comes from doing what is right.

¹² Strengthen your tired arms and weak knees.

¹³ Keep walking along straight paths so that your injured leg won't get worse. Instead, let it heal.

¹⁴ Try to live peacefully with everyone, and try to live holy lives, because if you don't, you will not see the Lord.

¹⁵ Make sure that everyone has kindness from God so that bitterness doesn't take root and grow up to cause trouble that corrupts many of you.

¹⁶ Make sure that no one commits sexual sin or is as concerned about earthly things as Esau was. He sold his rights as the firstborn son for a single meal.

¹⁷ You know that afterwards, when he wanted to receive the blessing that the firstborn son was to receive, he was rejected. Even though he begged and cried for the blessing, he couldn't do anything to change what had happened.

¹⁸ You have not come to something that you can feel, to a blazing fire, to darkness, to gloom, to a storm, ¹⁹ to a trumpet's blast, and to a voice. When your ancestors heard that voice, they begged not to hear it say another word.

²⁰ They couldn't obey the command that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death."

²¹ The sight was so terrifying that even Moses said he was trembling and afraid.

²² Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to tens of thousands of angels joyfully gathered together

²³ and to the assembly of God's firstborn children (whose names are written in heaven). You have come to a judge (the God of all people) and to the spirits of people who have God's approval and have gained eternal life.

²⁴ You have come to Jesus, who brings the new promise from God, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better message than Abel's.

²⁵ Be careful that you do not refuse to listen when God speaks. Your ancestors didn't escape when they refused to listen to God, who warned them on earth. We certainly won't escape if we turn away from God, who warns us from heaven.

²⁶ When God spoke to your ancestors, his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the sky."

²⁷ The words once more show clearly that God will change what he has made. These are the things that can be shaken.

Then only the things that cannot be shaken will remain.

²⁸ Therefore, we must be thankful that we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. Because we are thankful, we must serve God with fear and awe in a way that pleases him.

²⁹ After all, our God is a destructive fire.

13 ¹ Continue to love each other.
² Don't forget to show hospitality to believers you don't know. By doing this some believers have shown hospitality to angels without being aware of it.

³ Remember those in prison as if you were in prison with them. Remember those who are mistreated as if you were being mistreated.

⁴ Marriage is honorable in every way, so husbands and wives should be faithful to each other. God will judge those who commit sexual sins, especially those who commit adultery.

⁵ Don't love money. Be happy with what you have because God has said, "I will never abandon you or leave you."

⁶ So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper. I will not be afraid. What can mortals do to me?"

⁷ Remember your leaders who have spoken God's word to you. Think about how their lives turned out, and imitate their faith.

⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

⁹ Don't get carried away by all kinds of unfamiliar teachings. Gaining inner strength from God's kindness is good for us. This strength does not come from following rules about food, rules that don't help those who follow them.

¹⁰ Those who serve at the tent have no right to eat what is sacrificed at our altar.

¹¹ The chief priest brings the blood of animals into the holy place as an offering for sin. But the bodies of those animals were burned outside the Israelite camp.

¹² That is why Jesus suffered outside the gates of Jerusalem. He suffered to make the people holy with his own blood.

¹³ So we must go to him outside the camp and endure the insults he endured.

¹⁴ We don't have a permanent city here on earth, but we are looking for the city that we will have in the future.

¹⁵ Through Jesus we should always bring God a sacrifice of praise, that is, words that acknowledge him.

¹⁶ Don't forget to do good things for others and to share what you have with them. These are the kinds of sacrifices that please God.

¹⁷ Obey your leaders, and accept their authority. They take care of you because they are responsible for you. Obey them so that they may do this work joyfully and not complain about you. (Causing them to complain would not be to your advantage.)

¹⁸ Pray for us. We are sure that our consciences are clear because we want to live honorably in every way.

¹⁹ I especially ask for your prayers so that I may come back to you soon.

²⁰ The God of peace brought the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, back to life through the blood of an eternal promise.

²¹ May this God of peace prepare you to do every good thing he wants. May he work in us through Jesus Christ to do what is pleasing to him. Glory belongs to Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

²² I urge you, brothers and sisters, to listen patiently to my encouraging words. I have written you a short letter.

²³ You know that Timothy, our brother, has been freed. If he comes here soon, both of us will visit you.

²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all God's holy people. Those who are with us from Italy greet you.

²⁵ May God's good will be with all of you!

James

1 ¹ From James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. To God's faithful people who have been scattered. Greetings.

² My brothers and sisters, be very happy when you are tested in different ways.

³ You know that such testing of your faith produces endurance.

⁴ Endure until your testing is over. Then you will be mature and complete, and you won't need anything.

⁵ If any of you needs wisdom to know what you should do, you should ask God, and he will give it to you. God is generous to everyone and doesn't find fault with them.

⁶ When you ask for something, don't have any doubts. A person who has doubts is like a wave that is blown by the wind and tossed by the sea.

⁷ A person who has doubts shouldn't expect to receive anything from the Lord.

⁸ A person who has doubts is thinking about two different things at the same time and can't make up his mind about anything.

⁹ Humble believers should be proud because being humble makes them important.

¹⁰ Rich believers should be proud because being rich should make them humble. Rich people will wither like flowers.

¹¹ The sun rises with its scorching heat and dries up plants. The flowers drop off, and the beauty is gone. The same thing will happen to rich people. While they are busy, they will die.

¹² Blessed are those who endure when they are tested. When they pass the test, they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

¹³ When someone is tempted, he shouldn't say that God is tempting him. God can't be tempted by evil, and God doesn't tempt anyone.

¹⁴ Everyone is tempted by his own desires as they lure him away and trap him.

¹⁵ Then desire becomes pregnant and gives birth to sin. When sin grows up, it gives birth to death.

¹⁶ My dear brothers and sisters, don't be fooled.

¹⁷ Every good present and every perfect gift comes from above, from the Father who made the sun, moon, and stars. The Father doesn't change like the shifting shadows produced by the sun and the moon.

¹⁸ God decided to give us life through the word of truth to make us his most important creatures.

¹⁹ Remember this, my dear brothers and sisters: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and should not get angry easily.

²⁰ An angry person doesn't do what God approves of.

²¹ So get rid of all immoral behavior and all the wicked things you do. Humbly accept the word that God has placed in you. This word can save you.

²² Do what God's word says. Don't merely listen to it, or you will fool yourselves.

²³ If someone listens to God's word but doesn't do what it says, he is like a person who looks at his face in a mirror, ²⁴ studies his features, goes away, and immediately forgets what he looks like.

²⁵ However, the person who continues to study God's perfect teachings that make people free and who remains committed to them will be blessed. People like that don't merely listen and forget; they actually do what God's teachings say.

²⁶ If a person thinks that he is religious but can't control his tongue, he is fooling himself. That person's religion is worthless.

²⁷ Pure, unstained religion, according to God our Father, is to take care of orphans and widows when they suffer and to remain uncorrupted by this world.

2¹ My brothers and sisters, practice your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ by not favoring one person over another.

² For example, two men come to your worship service. One man is wearing gold rings and fine clothes; the other man, who is poor, is wearing shabby clothes.

⁴ Aren't you discriminating against people and using a corrupt standard to make judgments?

⁵ Listen, my dear brothers and sisters! Didn't God choose poor people in the world to become rich in faith and to receive the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

⁶ Yet, you show no respect to poor people. Don't rich people oppress you and drag you into court?

⁷ Don't they curse the good name of Jesus, the name that was used to bless you?

⁸ You are doing right if you obey this law from the highest authority: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."

⁹ If you favor one person over another, you're sinning, and this law convicts you of being disobedient.

¹⁰ If someone obeys all of God's laws except one, that person is guilty of breaking all of them.

¹¹ After all, the one who said, "Never commit adultery," is the same one who said, "Never murder." If you do not commit adultery but you murder, you become a person who disobeys God's laws.

¹² Talk and act as people who are going to be judged by laws that bring freedom.

¹³ No mercy will be shown to those who show no mercy to others. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

¹⁴ My brothers and sisters, what good does it do if someone claims to have faith but doesn't do any good things? Can this kind of faith save him?

¹⁵ Suppose a believer, whether a man or a woman, needs clothes or food

¹⁶ and one of you tells that person, "God be with you! Stay warm, and make sure you eat enough." If you don't provide for that person's physical needs, what good does it do?

¹⁷ In the same way, faith by itself is dead if it doesn't cause you to do any good things.

¹⁸ Another person might say, "You have faith, but I do good things." Show me your faith apart from the good things you do. I will show you my faith by the good things I do.

¹⁹ You believe that there is one God. That's fine! The demons also believe that, and they tremble with fear.

²⁰ You fool! Do you have to be shown that faith which does nothing is useless?

²¹ Didn't our ancestor Abraham receive God's approval as a result of what he did when he offered his son Isaac as a sacrifice on the altar?

²² You see that Abraham's faith and what he did worked together. His faith was shown to be genuine by what he did.

²³ The Scripture passage came true. It says, "Abraham believed God, and that faith was regarded by God to be his approval of Abraham." So Abraham was called God's friend.

²⁴ You see that a person receives God's approval because of what he does, not only because of what he believes.

²⁵ The same is true of the prostitute Rahab who welcomed the spies and sent them away on another road. She received God's approval because of what she did.

²⁶ A body that doesn't breathe is dead. In the same way faith that does nothing is dead.

3 ¹ Brothers and sisters, not many of you should become teachers. You know that we who teach will be judged more severely.

² All of us make a lot of mistakes. If someone doesn't make any mistakes when he speaks, he would be perfect. He would be able to control everything he does.

³ We put bits in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we have control over everything they do.

⁴ The same thing is true for ships. They are very big and are driven by strong winds. Yet, by using small rudders, pilots steer ships wherever they want them to go.

⁵ In the same way the tongue is a small part of the body, but it can brag about doing important things. A large forest can be set on fire by a little flame.

⁶ The tongue is that kind of flame. It is a world of evil among the parts of our bodies, and it completely contaminates our bodies. The tongue sets our lives on fire, and is itself set on fire from hell.

⁷ People have tamed all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures.

⁸ Yet, no one can tame the tongue. It is an uncontrollable evil filled with deadly poison.

⁹ With our tongues we praise our Lord and Father. Yet, with the same tongues we curse people, who were created in God's likeness.

¹⁰ Praise and curses come from the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, this should not happen!

¹¹ Do clean and polluted water flow out of the same spring?

¹² My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives? Can a grapevine produce figs? In the same way, a pool of salt water can't produce fresh water.

¹³ Do any of you have wisdom and insight? Show this by living the right way with the humility that comes from wisdom.

¹⁴ But if you are bitterly jealous and filled with self-centered ambition, don't brag. Don't say that you are wise when it isn't true.

¹⁵ That kind of wisdom doesn't come from above. It belongs to this world. It is self-centered and demonic.

¹⁶ Wherever there is jealousy and rivalry, there is disorder and every kind of evil.

¹⁷ However, the wisdom that comes from above is first of all pure. Then it is peaceful, gentle, obedient, filled with mercy and good deeds, impartial, and sincere.

¹⁸ A harvest that has God's approval comes from the peace planted by peacemakers.

4 ¹ What causes fights and quarrels among you? Aren't they caused by the selfish desires that fight to control you?

² You want what you don't have, so you commit murder. You're determined to have things, but you can't get what you want. You quarrel and fight. You don't have the things you want, because you don't pray for them.

³ When you pray for things, you don't get them because you want them for the wrong reason—for your own pleasure.

⁴ You unfaithful people! Don't you know that love for this evil world is hatred toward God? Whoever wants to be a friend of this world is an enemy of God.

⁵ Do you think this passage means nothing? It says, "The Spirit that lives in us wants us to be his own."

⁶ But God shows us even more kindness. Scripture says, "God opposes arrogant people, but he is kind to humble people."

⁷ So place yourselves under God's authority. Resist the devil, and he will run away from you.

⁸ Come close to God, and he will come close to you. Clean up your lives, you sinners, and clear your minds, you doubters.

⁹ Be miserable, mourn, and cry. Turn your laughter into mourning and your joy into gloom.

¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the Lord's presence. Then he will give you a high position.

¹¹ Brothers and sisters, stop slandering each other. Those who slander and judge other believers slander and judge God's teachings. If you judge God's teachings, you are no longer following them. Instead, you are judging them.

¹² There is only one teacher and judge. He is able to save or destroy you. So who are you to judge your neighbor?

¹³ Pay attention to this! You're saying, "Today or tomorrow we will go into some city, stay there a year, conduct business, and make money."

¹⁴ You don't know what will happen tomorrow. What is life? You are a mist that is seen for a moment and then disappears.

¹⁵ Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wants us to, we will live and carry out our plans."

¹⁶ However, you brag because you're arrogant. All such bragging is evil.

¹⁷ Whoever knows what is right but doesn't do it is sinning.

5 ¹ Pay attention to this if you're rich. Cry and moan about the misery that is coming to you.

² Your riches have decayed, and your clothes have been eaten by moths.

³ Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be used as evidence against you. Like fire, it will destroy your body. You have stored up riches in these last days.

⁴ The wages you refused to pay the people who harvested your fields shout to God against you. The Lord of Armies has heard the cries of those who gather the crops.

⁵ You have lived in luxury and pleasure here on earth. You have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter.

⁶ You have condemned and murdered people who have God's approval, even though they didn't resist you.

⁷ Brothers and sisters, be patient until the Lord comes again. See how farmers wait for their precious crops to grow. They wait patiently for fall and spring rains.

⁸ You, too, must be patient. Don't give up hope. The Lord will soon be here.

⁹ Brothers and sisters, stop complaining about each other, or you will be condemned. Realize that the judge is standing at the door.

¹⁰ Brothers and sisters, follow the example of the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. They were patient when they suffered unjustly.

¹¹ We consider those who endure to be blessed. You have heard about Job's endurance. You saw that the Lord ended Job's suffering because the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹² Above all things, my brothers and sisters, do not take an oath on anything in heaven or on earth. Do not take any oath. If you mean yes, say yes. If you mean no, say no. Do this so that you won't be condemned.

¹³ If any of you are having trouble, pray. If you are happy, sing psalms.

¹⁴ If you are sick, call for the church leaders. Have them pray for you and anoint you with olive oil in the name of the Lord.

¹⁵ (Prayers offered in faith will save those who are sick, and the Lord will cure them.) If you have sinned, you will be forgiven.

¹⁶ So admit your sins to each other, and pray for each other so that you will be healed. Prayers offered by those who have God's approval are effective.

¹⁷ Elijah was human like us. Yet, when he prayed that it wouldn't rain, no rain fell on the ground for three-and-a-half years.

¹⁸ Then he prayed again. It rained, and the ground produced crops.

¹⁹ My brothers and sisters, if one of you wanders from the truth, someone can bring that person back.

²⁰ Realize that whoever brings a sinner back from the error of his ways will save him from death, and many sins will be forgiven.

1 Peter

1 ¹ From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ. To God's chosen people who are temporary residents in the world and are scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.

² God the Father knew you long ago and chose you to live holy lives with the Spirit's help so that you are obedient to Jesus Christ and are sprinkled with his blood. May good will and peace fill your lives!

³ Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! God has given us a new birth because of his great mercy. We have been born into a new life that has a confidence which is alive because Jesus Christ has come back to life.

⁴ We have been born into a new life which has an inheritance that can't be destroyed or corrupted and can't fade away. That inheritance is kept in heaven for you, ⁵ since you are guarded by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed at the end of time.

⁶ You are extremely happy about these things, even though you have to suffer different kinds of trouble for a little while now.

⁷ The purpose of these troubles is to test your faith as fire tests how genuine gold is. Your faith is more precious than gold, and by passing the test, it gives praise, glory, and honor to God. This will happen when Jesus Christ appears again.

⁸ Although you have never seen Christ, you love him. You don't see him now, but you believe in him. You are extremely happy with joy and praise that can hardly be expressed in words

⁹ as you obtain the salvation that is the goal of your faith.

¹⁰ The prophets carefully researched and investigated this salvation. Long ago they spoke about God's kindness that would come to you.

¹¹ So they tried to find out what time or situation the Spirit of Christ kept referring to whenever he predicted Christ's sufferings and the glory that would follow.

¹² God revealed to the prophets that the things they had spoken were not for their own benefit but for yours. What the prophets had spoken, the Holy Spirit, who was sent from heaven, has now made known to you by those who spread the Good News among you. These are things that even the angels want to look into.

¹³ Therefore, your minds must be clear and ready for action. Place your confidence completely in what God's kindness will bring you when Jesus Christ appears again.

¹⁴ Because you are children who obey God, don't live the kind of lives you once lived. Once you lived to satisfy your desires because you didn't know any better.

¹⁵ But because the God who called you is holy you must be holy in every aspect of your life.

¹⁶ Scripture says, "Be holy, because I am holy."

¹⁷ So if you call God your Father, live your time as temporary residents on earth in fear. He is the God who judges all people by what they have done, and he doesn't play favorites.

¹⁸ Realize that you weren't set free from the worthless life handed down to you from your ancestors by a payment of silver or gold which can be destroyed.

¹⁹ Rather, the payment that freed you was the precious blood of Christ, the lamb with no defects or imperfections.

²⁰ He is the lamb who was known long ago before the world existed, but for your good he became publicly known in the last period of time.

²¹ Through him you believe in God who brought Christ back to life and gave him glory. So your faith and confidence are in God.

²² Love each other with a warm love that comes from the heart. After all, you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth. As a result you have a sincere love for each other.

²³ You have been born again, not from a seed that can be destroyed, but through God's everlasting word that can't be destroyed. That's why Scripture says, ²⁴ "All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like a flower of the field. The grass dries up and the flower drops off, ²⁵ but the word of the Lord lasts forever." This word is the Good News that was told to you.

2 ¹ So get rid of every kind of evil, every kind of deception, hypocrisy, jealousy, and every kind of slander.

² Desire God's pure word as newborn babies desire milk. Then you will grow in your salvation.

³ Certainly you have tasted that the Lord is good!

⁴ You are coming to Christ, the living stone who was rejected by humans but was chosen as precious by God.

⁵ You come to him as living stones, a spiritual house that is being built into a holy priesthood. So offer spiritual sacrifices that God accepts through Jesus Christ.

⁶ That is why Scripture says, "I am laying a chosen and precious cornerstone in Zion, and the person who believes in him will never be ashamed."

⁷ This honor belongs to those who believe. But to those who don't believe: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,

⁸ a stone that people trip over, a large rock that people find offensive." The people tripped over the word because they refused to believe it. Therefore, this is how they ended up.

⁹ However, you are chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, people who belong to God. You were chosen to tell about the excellent qualities of God, who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

¹⁰ Once you were not God's people, but now you are. Once you were not shown mercy, but now you have been shown mercy.

¹¹ Dear friends, since you are foreigners and temporary residents in the world, I'm encouraging you to keep away from the desires of your corrupt nature. These desires constantly attack you.

¹² Live decent lives among unbelievers. Then, although they ridicule you as if you were doing wrong while they are watching you do good things, they will praise God on the day he comes to help you.

¹³ Place yourselves under the authority of human governments to please the Lord. Obey the emperor. He holds the highest position of authority.

¹⁴ Also obey governors. They are people the emperor has sent to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right.

¹⁵ God wants you to silence the ignorance of foolish people by doing what is right.

¹⁶ Live as free people, but don't hide behind your freedom when you do evil. Instead, use your freedom to serve God.

¹⁷ Honor everyone. Love your brothers and sisters in the faith. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

¹⁸ Slaves, place yourselves under the authority of your owners and show them complete respect. Obey not only those owners who are good and kind, but also those who are unfair.

¹⁹ God is pleased if a person is aware of him while enduring the pains of unjust suffering.

²⁰ What credit do you deserve if you endure a beating for doing something wrong? But if you endure suffering for doing something good, God is pleased with you.

²¹ God called you to endure suffering because Christ suffered for you. He left you an example so that you could follow in his footsteps.

²² Christ never committed any sin. He never spoke deceitfully.

²³ Christ never verbally abused those who verbally abused him. When he suffered, he didn't make any threats but left everything to the one who judges fairly.

²⁴ Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross so that freed from our sins, we could live a life that has God's approval. His wounds have healed you.

²⁵ You were like lost sheep. Now you have come back to the shepherd and bishop of your lives.

3 ¹ Wives, in a similar way, place yourselves under your husbands' authority. Some husbands may not obey God's word. Their wives could win these men for Christ by the way they live without saying anything.

² Their husbands would see how pure and reverent their lives are.

³ Wives must not let their beauty be something external. Beauty doesn't come from hairstyles, gold jewelry, or clothes.

⁴ Rather, beauty is something internal that can't be destroyed. Beauty expresses itself in a gentle and quiet attitude which God considers precious.

⁵ After all, this is how holy women who had confidence in God expressed their beauty in the past. They placed themselves under their husbands' authority

⁶ as Sarah did. Sarah obeyed Abraham and spoke to him respectfully. You became Sarah's daughters by not letting anything make you afraid to do good.

⁷ Husbands, in a similar way, live with your wives with understanding since they are weaker than you are. Honor your wives as those who share God's life-giving kindness so that nothing will interfere with your prayers.

⁸ Finally, everyone must live in harmony, be sympathetic, love each other, have compassion, and be humble.

⁹ Don't pay people back with evil for the evil they do to you, or ridicule those who ridicule you. Instead, bless them, because you were called to inherit a blessing.

¹⁰ "People who want to live a full life and enjoy good days must keep their tongues from saying evil things, and their lips from speaking deceitful things.

¹¹ They must turn away from evil and do good. They must seek peace and pursue it.

¹² The Lord's eyes are on those who do what he approves. His ears hear their prayer. The Lord confronts those who do evil."

¹³ Who will harm you if you are devoted to doing what is good?

¹⁴ But even if you suffer for doing what God approves, you are blessed. Don't be afraid of those who want to harm you. Don't get upset.

¹⁵ But dedicate your lives to Christ as Lord. Always be ready to defend your confidence in God when anyone asks you to explain it. However, make your defense with gentleness and respect.

¹⁶ Keep your conscience clear. Then those who treat the good Christian life you live with contempt will feel ashamed that they have ridiculed you.

¹⁷ After all, if it is God's will, it's better to suffer for doing good than for doing wrong.

¹⁸ This is true because Christ suffered for our sins once. He was an innocent person, but he suffered for guilty people so that he could bring you to God. His body was put to death, but he was brought to life through his spirit.

¹⁹ In it he also went to proclaim his victory to the spirits kept in prison.

²⁰ They are like those who disobeyed long ago in the days of Noah when God waited patiently while Noah built the ship. In this ship a few people—eight in all—were saved by water.

²¹ Baptism, which is like that water, now saves you. Baptism doesn't save by removing dirt from the body. Rather, baptism is a request to God for a clear conscience. It saves you through Jesus Christ, who came back from death to life.

²² Christ has gone to heaven where he has the highest position that God gives.

Angels, rulers, and powers have been placed under his authority.

4 ¹ Since Christ has suffered physically, take the same attitude that he had. (A person who has suffered physically no longer sins.)

² That way you won't be guided by sinful human desires as you live the rest of your lives on earth. Instead, you will be guided by what God wants you to do.

³ You spent enough time in the past doing what unbelievers like to do. You were promiscuous, had sinful desires, got drunk, went to wild parties, and took part in the forbidden worship of false gods.

⁴ Unbelievers insult you now because they are surprised that you no longer join them in the same excesses of wild living.

⁵ They will give an account to the one who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

⁶ After all, the Good News was told to people like that, although they are now dead. It was told to them so that they could be judged like humans in their earthly lives and live like God in their spiritual lives.

⁷ The end of everything is near. Therefore, practice self-control, and keep your minds clear so that you can pray.

⁸ Above all, love each other warmly, because love covers many sins.

⁹ Welcome each other as guests without complaining.

¹⁰ Each of you as a good manager must use the gift that God has given you to serve others.

¹¹ Whoever speaks must speak God's words. Whoever serves must serve with the strength God supplies so that in every way God receives glory through Jesus Christ. Glory and power belong to Jesus Christ forever and ever! Amen.

¹² Dear friends, don't be surprised by the fiery troubles that are coming in order to test you. Don't feel as though something strange is happening to you, ¹³ but be happy as you share Christ's sufferings. Then you will also be full of joy when he appears again in his glory.

¹⁴ If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed because the Spirit of glory—the Spirit of God—is resting on you.

¹⁵ If you suffer, you shouldn't suffer for being a murderer, thief, criminal, or troublemaker.

¹⁶ If you suffer for being a Christian, don't feel ashamed, but praise God for being called that name.

¹⁷ The time has come for the judgment to begin, and it will begin with God's family. If it starts with us, what will be the end for those who refuse to obey the Good News of God?

¹⁸ If it's hard for the person who has God's approval to be saved, what will happen to the godless sinner?

¹⁹ Those who suffer because that is God's will for them must entrust themselves to a faithful creator and continue to do what is good.

5 ¹ I appeal to your spiritual leaders. I make this appeal as a spiritual leader who also witnessed Christ's sufferings and will share in the glory that will be revealed.

² Be shepherds over the flock God has entrusted to you. Watch over it as God does: Don't do this because you have to, but because you want to. Don't do it out of greed, but out of a desire to serve.

³ Don't be rulers over the people entrusted to you, but be examples for the flock to follow.

⁴ Then, when the chief shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

⁵ Young people, in a similar way, place yourselves under the authority of spiritual leaders. Furthermore, all of you must serve each other with humility, because God opposes the arrogant but favors the humble.

⁶ Be humbled by God's power so that when the right time comes he will honor you.

⁷ Turn all your anxiety over to God because he cares for you.

⁸ Keep your mind clear, and be alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion as he looks for someone to devour.

⁹ Be firm in the faith and resist him, knowing that other believers throughout the world are going through the same kind of suffering.

¹⁰ God, who shows you his kindness and who has called you through Christ Jesus to his eternal glory, will restore you, strengthen you, make you strong, and support you as you suffer for a little while.

¹¹ Power belongs to him forever. Amen.

¹² I've written this short letter to you and I'm sending it by Silvanus, whom I regard as a faithful brother. I've written to encourage you and to testify that this is God's genuine good will. Remain firmly established in it!

¹³ Your sister church in Babylon, chosen by God, and my son Mark send you greetings.

¹⁴ Greet each other with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1 ¹ From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. To those who have obtained a faith that is as valuable as ours, a faith based on the approval that comes from our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

² May good will and peace fill your lives through your knowledge about Jesus, our God and Lord!

³ God's divine power has given us everything we need for life and for godliness. This power was given to us through knowledge of the one who called us by his own glory and integrity.

⁴ Through his glory and integrity he has given us his promises that are of the highest value. Through these promises you will share in the divine nature because you have escaped the corruption that sinful desires cause in the world.

⁵ Because of this, make every effort to add integrity to your faith; and to integrity add knowledge;

⁶ to knowledge add self-control; to self-control add endurance; to endurance add godliness;

⁷ to godliness add Christian affection; and to Christian affection add love.

⁸ If you have these qualities and they are increasing, it demonstrates that your knowledge about our Lord Jesus Christ is living and productive.

⁹ If these qualities aren't present in your life, you're shortsighted and have forgotten that you were cleansed from your past sins.

¹⁰ Therefore, brothers and sisters, use more effort to make God's calling and choosing of you secure. If you keep doing this, you will never fall away.

¹¹ Then you will also be given the wealth of entering into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

¹² Therefore, I will always remind you about these qualities, although you already know about them and are well-grounded in the truth that you now have.

¹³ As long as I'm still alive, I think it's right to refresh your memory.

¹⁴ I know that I will die soon. Our Lord Jesus Christ has made that clear to me.

¹⁵ So I will make every effort to see that you remember these things after I die.

¹⁶ When we apostles told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, we didn't base our message on clever myths that we made up. Rather, we witnessed his majesty with our own eyes.

¹⁷ For example, we were eyewitnesses when he received honor and glory from God the Father and when the voice of our majestic God spoke these words to him: "This is my Son, whom I love and in whom I delight."

¹⁸ We heard that voice speak to him from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹ So we regard the words of the prophets as confirmed beyond all doubt. You're doing well by paying attention to their words. Continue to pay attention as you would to a light that shines in a dark place as you wait for day to come and the morning star to rise in your hearts.

²⁰ First, you must understand this: No prophecy in Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation.

²¹ No prophecy ever originated from humans. Instead, it was given by the Holy Spirit as humans spoke under God's direction.

2 ¹ False prophets were among God's people in the past, as false teachers will be among you. They will secretly bring in their own destructive teachings. They will deny the Lord, who has bought them, and they will bring themselves swift destruction.

² Many people will follow them in their sexual freedom and will cause others to dishonor the way of truth.

³ In their greed they will use good-sounding arguments to exploit you. The verdict against them from long ago is still in force, and their destruction is not asleep.

⁴ God didn't spare angels who sinned. He threw them into hell, where he has secured them with chains of darkness and is holding them for judgment.

⁵ God didn't spare the ancient world either. He brought the flood on the world of ungodly people, but he protected Noah and seven other people. Noah was his messenger who told people about the kind of life that has God's approval.

⁶ God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and destroyed them by burning them to ashes. He made those cities an example to ungodly people of what is going to happen to them.

⁷ Yet, God rescued Lot, a man who had his approval. Lot was distressed by the lifestyle of people who had no principles and lived in sexual freedom.

⁸ Although he was a man who had God's approval, he lived among the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. Each day was like torture to him as he saw and heard the immoral things that people did.

⁹ Since the Lord did all this, he knows how to rescue godly people when they are tested. He also knows how to hold immoral people for punishment on the day of judgment.

¹¹ Angels, who have more strength and power than these teachers, don't bring an insulting judgment against them from the Lord.

¹² These false teachers insult what they don't understand. They are like animals, which are creatures of instinct that are born to be caught and killed. So they will be destroyed like animals

¹³ and lose what their wrongdoing earned them. These false teachers are stains and blemishes. They take pleasure in holding wild parties in broad daylight. They especially enjoy deceiving you while they eat with you.

¹⁴ They're always looking for an adulterous woman. They can't stop looking for sin as they seduce people who aren't sure of what they believe. Their minds are focused on their greed. They are cursed.

¹⁵ These false teachers have left the straight path and wandered off to follow the path of Balaam, son of Beor. Balaam loved what his wrongdoing earned him.

¹⁶ But he was convicted for his evil. A donkey, which normally can't talk, spoke with a human voice and wouldn't allow the prophet to continue his insanity.

¹⁷ These false teachers are dried-up springs. They are a mist blown around by a storm. Gloomy darkness has been kept for them.

¹⁸ They arrogantly use nonsense to seduce people by appealing to their sexual desires, especially to sexual freedom. They seduce people who have just escaped from those who live in error.

¹⁹ They promise these people freedom, but they themselves are slaves to corruption. A person is a slave to whatever he gives in to.

²¹ It would have been better for them never to have known the way of life that God approves of than to know it and turn their backs on the holy life God told them to live.

²² These proverbs have come true for them: "A dog goes back to its vomit," and "A sow that has been washed goes back to roll around in the mud."

3¹ Dear friends, this is the second letter I'm writing to you. In both letters I'm trying to refresh your memory.

² I want you to remember the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and what the Lord and Savior commanded you through your apostles.

³ First, you must understand this: In the last days people who follow their own desires will appear. These disrespectful people will ridicule God's promise

⁴ by saying, "What's happened to his promise to return? Ever since our ancestors died, everything continues as it did from the beginning of the world."

⁵ They are deliberately ignoring one fact: Because of God's word, heaven and earth existed a long time ago. The earth appeared out of water and was kept alive by water.

⁶ Water also flooded and destroyed that world.

⁷ By God's word, the present heaven and earth are designated to be burned. They are being kept until the day ungodly people will be judged and destroyed.

⁸ Dear friends, don't ignore this fact: One day with the Lord is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

⁹ The Lord isn't slow to do what he promised, as some people think. Rather, he is patient for your sake. He doesn't want to destroy anyone but wants all people to have an opportunity to turn to him and change the way they think and act.

¹⁰ The day of the Lord will come like a thief. On that day heaven will pass away with a roaring sound. Everything that makes up the universe will burn and be destroyed. The earth and everything that people have done on it will be exposed.

¹¹ All these things will be destroyed in this way. So think of the kind of holy and godly lives you must live ¹² as you look forward to the day of God and eagerly wait for it to come. When that day comes, heaven will be on fire and will be destroyed. Everything that makes up the universe will burn and melt.

¹³ But we look forward to what God has promised—a new heaven and a new earth—a place where everything that has God's approval lives.

¹⁴ Therefore, dear friends, with this to look forward to, make every effort to have him find you at peace, without spiritual stains or blemishes.

¹⁵ Think of our Lord's patience as an opportunity for us to be saved. This is what our dear brother Paul wrote to you about, using the wisdom God gave him.

¹⁶ He talks about this subject in all his letters. Some things in his letters are hard to understand. Ignorant people and people who aren't sure of what they believe distort what Paul says in his letters the same way they distort the rest of the Scriptures. These people will be destroyed.

¹⁷ Dear friends, you already know these things. So be on your guard not to be carried away by the deception of people who have no principles. Then you won't fall from your firm position.

¹⁸ But grow in the good will and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Glory belongs to him now and for that eternal day! Amen.

1 John

1 ¹ The Word of life existed from the beginning. We have heard it. We have seen it. We observed and touched it.

² This life was revealed to us. We have seen it, and we testify about it. We are reporting to you about this eternal life that was in the presence of the Father and was revealed to us.

³ This is the life we have seen and heard. We are reporting about it to you also so that you, too, can have a relationship with us. Our relationship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

⁴ We are writing this so that we can be completely filled with joy.

⁵ This is the message we heard from Christ and are reporting to you: God is light, and there isn't any darkness in him.

⁶ If we say, "We have a relationship with God" and yet live in the dark, we're lying. We aren't being truthful.

⁷ But if we live in the light in the same way that God is in the light, we have a relationship with each other. And the blood of his Son Jesus cleanses us from every sin.

⁸ If we say, "We aren't sinful" we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

⁹ God is faithful and reliable. If we confess our sins, he forgives them and cleanses us from everything we've done wrong.

¹⁰ If we say, "We have never sinned," we turn God into a liar and his Word is not in us.

2¹ My dear children, I'm writing this to you so that you will not sin. Yet, if anyone does sin, we have Jesus Christ, who has God's full approval. He speaks on our behalf when we come into the presence of the Father.

² He is the payment for our sins, and not only for our sins, but also for the sins of the whole world.

³ We are sure that we know Christ if we obey his commandments.

⁴ The person who says, "I know him," but doesn't obey his commandments is a liar. The truth isn't in that person.

⁵ But whoever obeys what Christ says is the kind of person in whom God's love is perfected. That's how we know we are in Christ.

⁶ Those who say that they live in him must live the same way he lived.

⁷ Dear friends, it's not as though I'm writing to give you a new commandment. Rather, I'm giving you an old commandment that you've had from the beginning. It's the old commandment you've already heard.

⁸ On the other hand, I'm writing to give you a new commandment. It's a truth that exists in Christ and in you: The darkness is fading, and the true light is already shining.

⁹ Those who say that they are in the light but hate other believers are still in the dark.

¹⁰ Those who love other believers live in the light. Nothing will destroy the faith of those who live in the light.

¹¹ Those who hate other believers are in the dark and live in the dark. They don't know where they're going, because they can't see in the dark.

¹² I'm writing to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through Christ.

¹³ I'm writing to you, fathers, because you know Christ who has existed from the beginning. I'm writing to you, young people, because you have won the victory over the evil one.

¹⁴ I've written to you, children, because you know the Father. I've written to you, fathers, because you know Christ, who has existed from the beginning. I've written to you, young people, because you are strong and God's word lives in you. You have won the victory over the evil one.

¹⁵ Don't love the world and what it offers. Those who love the world don't have the Father's love in them.

¹⁶ Not everything that the world offers—physical gratification, greed, and extravagant lifestyles—comes from the Father. It comes from the world, and ¹⁷ the world and its evil desires are passing away. But the person who does what God wants lives forever.

¹⁸ Children, it's the end of time. You've heard that an antichrist is coming. Certainly, many antichrists are already here. That's how we know it's the end of time.

¹⁹ They left us. However, they were never really part of us. If they had been, they would have stayed with us. But by leaving they made it clear that none of them were part of us.

²⁰ The Holy One has anointed you, so all of you have knowledge.

²¹ I'm writing to you because you know the truth, not because you don't know the truth. You know that no lie ever comes from the truth.

²² Who is a liar? Who else but the person who rejects Jesus as the Messiah? The person who rejects the Father and the Son is an antichrist.

²³ Everyone who rejects the Son doesn't have the Father either. The person who acknowledges the Son also has the Father.

²⁴ Make sure that the message you heard from the beginning lives in you. If that message lives in you, you will also live in the Son and in the Father.

²⁵ Christ has given us the promise of eternal life.

²⁶ I'm writing to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

²⁷ The anointing you received from Christ lives in you. You don't need anyone to teach you something else. Instead, Christ's anointing teaches you about everything. His anointing is true and contains no lie. So live in Christ as he taught you to do.

²⁸ Now, dear children, live in Christ. Then, when he appears we will have confidence, and when he comes we won't turn from him in shame.

²⁹ If you know that Christ has God's approval, you also know that everyone who does what God approves of has been born from God.

3 ¹ Consider this: The Father has given us his love. He loves us so much that we are actually called God's dear children. And that's what we are. For this reason the world doesn't recognize us, and it didn't recognize him either.

² Dear friends, now we are God's children. What we will be isn't completely clear yet. We do know that when Christ appears we will be like him because we will see him as he is.

³ So all people who have this confidence in Christ keep themselves pure, as Christ is pure.

⁴ Those who live sinful lives are disobeying God. Sin is disobedience.

⁵ You know that Christ appeared in order to take away our sins. He isn't sinful.

⁶ Those who live in Christ don't go on sinning. Those who go on sinning haven't seen or known Christ.

⁷ Dear children, don't let anyone deceive you. Whoever does what God approves of has God's approval as Christ has God's approval.

⁸ The person who lives a sinful life belongs to the devil, because the devil has been committing sin since the beginning. The reason that the Son of God appeared was to destroy what the devil does.

⁹ Those who have been born from God don't live sinful lives. What God has said lives in them, and they can't live sinful lives. They have been born from God.

¹⁰ This is the way God's children are distinguished from the devil's children. Everyone who doesn't do what is right or love other believers isn't God's child.

¹¹ The message that you have heard from the beginning is to love each other.

¹² Don't be like Cain. He was a child of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did Cain murder his brother? Because the things Cain did were evil and the things his brother did had God's approval.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, don't be surprised if the world hates you.

¹⁴ We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love other believers. The person who doesn't grow in love remains in death.

¹⁵ Everyone who hates another believer is a murderer, and you know that a murderer doesn't have eternal life.

¹⁶ We understand what love is when we realize that Christ gave his life for us. That means we must give our lives for other believers.

¹⁷ Now, suppose a person has enough to live on and notices another believer in need. How can God's love be in that person if he doesn't bother to help the other believer?

¹⁸ Dear children, we must show love through actions that are sincere, not through empty words.

¹⁹ This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and how we will be reassured in his presence.

²⁰ Whenever our conscience condemns us, we will be reassured that God is greater than our conscience and knows everything.

²¹ Dear friends, if our conscience doesn't condemn us, we can boldly look to God

²² and receive from him anything we ask. We receive it because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

²³ This is his commandment: to believe in his Son, the one named Jesus Christ, and to love each other as he commanded us.

²⁴ Those who obey Christ's commandments live in God, and God lives in them. We know that he lives in us because he has given us the Spirit.

4 ¹ Dear friends, don't believe all people who say that they have the Spirit. Instead, test them. See whether the spirit they have is from God, because there are many false prophets in the world.

² This is how you can recognize God's Spirit: Every person who declares that Jesus Christ has come as a human has the Spirit that is from God.

³ But every person who doesn't declare that Jesus Christ has come as a human has a spirit that isn't from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist that you have heard is coming. That spirit is already in the world.

⁴ Dear children, you belong to God. So you have won the victory over these people, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

⁵ These people belong to the world. That's why they speak the thoughts of the world, and the world listens to them.

⁶ We belong to God. The person who knows God listens to us. Whoever doesn't belong to God doesn't listen to us. That's how we can tell the Spirit of truth from the spirit of lies.

⁷ Dear friends, we must love each other because love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born from God and knows God.

⁸ The person who doesn't love doesn't know God, because God is love.

⁹ God has shown us his love by sending his only Son into the world so that we could have life through him.

¹⁰ This is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the payment for our sins.

¹¹ Dear friends, if this is the way God loved us, we must also love each other.

¹² No one has ever seen God. If we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

¹³ We know that we live in him and he lives in us because he has given us his Spirit.

¹⁴ We have seen and testify to the fact that the Father sent his Son as the Savior of the world.

¹⁵ God lives in those who declare that Jesus is the Son of God, and they live in God.

¹⁶ We have known and believed that God loves us. God is love. Those who live in God's love live in God, and God lives in them.

¹⁷ God's love has reached its goal in us. So we look ahead with confidence to the day of judgment. While we are in this world, we are exactly like him with regard to love.

¹⁸ No fear exists where his love is. Rather, perfect love gets rid of fear, because fear involves punishment. The person who lives in fear doesn't have perfect love.

¹⁹ We love because God loved us first.

²⁰ Whoever says, "I love God," but hates another believer is a liar. People who don't love other believers, whom they have seen, can't love God, whom they have not seen.

²¹ Christ has given us this commandment: The person who loves God must also love other believers.

5 ¹ Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Messiah has been born from God. Everyone who loves the Father also loves his children.

² We know that we love God's children when we love God by obeying his commandments.

³ To love God means that we obey his commandments. Obeying his commandments isn't difficult

⁴ because everyone who has been born from God has won the victory over the world. Our faith is what wins the victory over the world.

⁵ Who wins the victory over the world? Isn't it the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

⁶ This Son of God is Jesus Christ, who came by water and blood. He didn't come with water only, but with water and with blood. The Spirit is the one who verifies this, because the Spirit is the truth.

⁷ There are three witnesses:

⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood. These three witnesses agree.

⁹ We accept human testimony. God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony that he has given about his Son.

¹⁰ Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony of God in them. Those who don't believe God have made God a liar. They haven't believed the testimony that God has given about his Son.

¹¹ This is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is found in his Son.

¹² The person who has the Son has this life. The person who doesn't have the Son of God doesn't have this life.

¹³ I've written this to those who believe in the Son of God so that they will know that they have eternal life.

¹⁴ We are confident that God listens to us if we ask for anything that has his approval.

¹⁵ We know that he listens to our requests. So we know that we already have what we ask him for.

¹⁶ If you see another believer committing a sin that doesn't lead to death, you should pray that God would give that person life. This is true for those who commit sins that don't lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I'm not telling you to pray about that.

¹⁷ Every kind of wrongdoing is sin, yet there are sins that don't lead to death.

¹⁸ We know that those who have been born from God don't go on sinning. Rather, the Son of God protects them, and the evil one can't harm them.

¹⁹ We know that we are from God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

²⁰ We know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we know the real God. We are in the one who is real, his Son Jesus Christ. This Jesus Christ is the real God and eternal life.

²¹ Dear children, guard yourselves from false gods.

2 John

1 ¹ From the church leader. To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love because we share the truth. I'm not the only one who loves you. Everyone who knows the truth also loves you.

² We love you because of the truth which lives in us and will be with us forever.

³ Good will, mercy, and peace will be with us! They come from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, who in truth and love is the Father's Son.

⁴ I was very happy to find some of your children living in the truth as the Father has commanded us.

⁵ Dear lady, I'm now requesting that we continue to love each other. It's not as though I'm writing to give you a new commandment. Rather, from the beginning we were commanded to love each other.

⁶ Love means that we live by doing what he commands. We were commanded to live in love, and you have heard this from the beginning.

⁷ Many people who deceive others have gone into the world. They refuse to declare that Jesus Christ came in flesh and blood. This is the mark of a deceiver and an antichrist.

⁸ Be careful that you don't destroy what we've worked for, but that you receive your full reward.

⁹ Everyone who doesn't continue to teach what Christ taught doesn't have God. The person who continues to teach what Christ taught has both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and doesn't bring these teachings, don't take him into your home or even greet him.

¹¹ Whoever greets him shares the evil things he's doing.

¹² I have a lot to write to you. I would prefer not to write a letter. Instead, I hope to visit and talk things over with you personally. Then we will be completely filled with joy.

¹³ The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

1 ¹ From the church leader. To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love because we share the truth.

² Dear friend, I know that you are spiritually well. I pray that you're doing well in every other way and that you're healthy.

³ I was very happy when some believers came and told us that you are living according to the truth.

⁴ Nothing makes me happier than to hear that my children are living according to the truth.

⁵ Dear friend, you are showing your faith in whatever you do for other believers, especially when they're your guests.

⁶ These believers have told the congregation about your love. You will do well to support them on their trip in a way that proves you belong to God.

⁷ After all, they went on their trip to serve the one named Christ, and they didn't accept any help from the people to whom they went.

⁸ We must support believers who go on trips like this so that we can work together with them in spreading the truth.

⁹ I wrote a letter to the congregation. But Diotrephes, who loves to be in charge, won't accept us.

¹⁰ For this reason, when I come I will bring up what he's doing. He's not satisfied with saying malicious things about us. He also refuses to accept the believers we send as guests. He even tries to stop others who want to accept them and attempts to throw those people out of the congregation.

¹¹ Dear friend, never imitate evil, but imitate good. The person who does good is from God. The person who does evil has never seen God.

¹² Everyone, including the truth itself, says good things about Demetrius. We also say good things about him, and you know that what we say is true.

¹³ I have a lot to write to you. However, I would rather not write.

¹⁴ I hope to visit you very soon. Then we can talk things over personally. Peace be with you! Your friends here send you their greetings. Greet each of our friends by name.

Jude

1 ¹ From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James. To those who have been called, who are loved by God the Father, and who are kept safe for Jesus Christ.

² May mercy, peace, and love fill your lives!

³ Dear friends, I had intended to write to you about the salvation we share. But something has come up. It demands that I write to you and encourage you to continue your fight for the Christian faith that was entrusted to God's holy people once for all time.

⁴ Some people have slipped in among you unnoticed. Not long ago they were condemned in writing for the following reason: They are people to whom God means nothing. They use God's kindness as an excuse for sexual freedom and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁵ I want to remind you about what you already know: The Lord once saved his people from Egypt. But on another occasion he destroyed those who didn't believe.

⁶ He held angels for judgment on the great day. They were held in darkness, bound by eternal chains. These are the angels who didn't keep their position of authority but abandoned their assigned place.

⁷ What happened to Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities near them is an example for us of the punishment of eternal fire. The people of these cities suffered the same fate that God's people and the angels did, because they committed sexual sins and engaged in homosexual activities.

⁸ Yet, in a similar way, the people who slipped in among you are dreamers. They contaminate their bodies with sin, reject the Lord's authority, and insult his glory.

⁹ When the archangel Michael argued with the devil, they were arguing over the body of Moses. But Michael didn't dare to hand down a judgment against the devil. Instead, Michael said, "May the Lord reprimand you!"

¹⁰ Whatever these people don't understand, they insult. Like animals, which are creatures of instinct, they use whatever they know to destroy themselves.

¹¹ How horrible it will be for them! They have followed the path of Cain. They have rushed into Balaam's error to make a profit. They have rebelled like Korah and destroyed themselves.

¹² These people are a disgrace at the special meals you share with other believers. They eat with you and don't feel ashamed. They are shepherds who care only for themselves. They are dry clouds blown around by the winds. They are withered, uprooted trees without any fruit. As a result, they have died twice.

¹³ Their shame is like the foam on the wild waves of the sea. They are wandering stars for whom gloomy darkness is kept forever.

¹⁴ Furthermore, Enoch, from the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about them. He said, "The Lord has come with countless thousands of his holy angels.

¹⁵ He has come to judge all these people. He has come to convict all these ungodly sinners for all the ungodly things they have done and all the harsh things they have said about him."

¹⁶ These people complain, find fault, follow their own desires, say arrogant things, and flatter people in order to take advantage of them.

¹⁷ Dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ told you to expect:

¹⁸ "In the last times people who ridicule God will appear. They will follow their own ungodly desires."

¹⁹ These are the people who cause divisions. They are concerned about physical things, not spiritual things.

²⁰ Dear friends, use your most holy faith to grow. Pray with the Holy Spirit's help.

²¹ Remain in God's love as you look for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you eternal life.

²² Show mercy to those who have doubts.

²³ Save others by snatching them from the fire of hell. Show mercy to others, even though you are afraid that you might be stained by their sinful lives.

²⁴ God can guard you so that you don't fall and so that you can be full of joy as you stand in his glorious presence without fault.

²⁵ Before time began, now, and for eternity glory, majesty, power, and authority belong to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Revelation

1 ¹ This is the revelation of Jesus Christ. God gave it to him to show his servants the things that must happen soon. He sent this revelation through his angel to his servant John.

² John testified about what he saw: God's word and the testimony about Jesus Christ.

³ Blessed is the one who reads, as well as those who hear the words of this prophecy and pay attention to what is written in it because the time is near.

⁴ From John to the seven churches in the province of Asia. Good will and peace to you from the one who is, the one who was, and the one who is coming, from the seven spirits who are in front of his throne,

⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the witness, the trustworthy one, the first to come back to life, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. Glory and power forever and ever belong to the one who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood

⁶ and has made us a kingdom, priests for God his Father. Amen.

⁷ Look! He is coming in the clouds. Every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. Every tribe on earth will mourn because of him. This is true. Amen.

⁸ "I am the A and the Z," says the Lord God, the one who is, the one who was, and the one who is coming, the Almighty.

⁹ I am John, your brother. I share your suffering, ruling, and endurance because of Jesus. I was exiled on the island of Patmos because of God's word and the testimony about Jesus.

¹⁰ I came under the Spirit's power on the Lord's day. I heard a loud voice behind me like a trumpet,

¹¹ saying, "Write on a scroll what you see, and send it to the seven churches: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

¹² I turned toward the voice which was talking to me, and when I turned, I saw seven gold lamp stands.

¹³ There was someone like the Son of Man among the lamp stands. He was wearing a robe that reached his feet. He wore a gold belt around his waist.

¹⁴ His head and his hair were white like wool—like snow. His eyes were like flames of fire.

¹⁵ His feet were like glowing bronze refined in a furnace. His voice was like the sound of raging waters.

¹⁶ In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp, two-edged sword. His face was like the sun when it shines in all its brightness.

¹⁷ When I saw him, I fell down at his feet like a dead man. Then he laid his right hand on me and said, "Don't be afraid! I am the first and the last,

¹⁸ the living one. I was dead, but now I am alive forever. I have the keys of death and hell.

¹⁹ Therefore, write down what you have seen, what is, and what is going to happen after these things.

²⁰ The hidden meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lamp stands is this: The seven stars are the messengers of the seven churches, and the seven lamp stands are the seven churches.

2¹ "To the messenger of the church in Ephesus, write: The one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, the one who walks among the seven gold lamp stands, says:

² I know what you have done—how hard you have worked and how you have endured. I also know that you cannot tolerate wicked people. You have tested those who call themselves apostles but are not apostles. You have discovered that they are liars.

³ You have endured, suffered trouble because of my name, and have not grown weary.

⁴ However, I have this against you: The love you had at first is gone.

⁵ Remember how far you have fallen. Return to me and change the way you think and act, and do what you did at first. I will come to you and take your lamp stand from its place if you don't change.

⁶ But you have this in your favor—you hate what the Nicolaitans are doing. I also hate what they're doing.

⁷ "Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will give the privilege of eating from the tree of life, which stands in the paradise of God, to everyone who wins the victory.

⁸ "To the messenger of the church in Smyrna, write: The first and the last, who was dead and became alive, says:

⁹ I know how you are suffering, how poor you are—but you are rich. I also know that those who claim to be Jews slander you. They are the synagogue of Satan.

¹⁰ Don't be afraid of what you are going to suffer. The devil is going to throw some of you into prison so that you may be tested. Your suffering will go on for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹ Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. Everyone who wins the victory will never be hurt by the second death.

¹² "To the messenger of the church in Pergamum, write: The one who holds the sharp two-edged sword says:

¹³ I know where you live. Satan's throne is there. You hold on to my name and have not denied your belief in me, even in the days of Antipas. He was my faithful witness who was killed in your presence, where Satan lives.

¹⁴ But I have a few things against you: You have among you those who follow what Balaam taught Balak. Balak trapped the people of Israel by encouraging them to eat food sacrificed to idols and to sin sexually.

¹⁵ You also have some who follow what the Nicolaitans teach.

¹⁶ So return to me and change the way you think and act, or I will come to you quickly and wage war against them with the sword from my mouth.

¹⁷ Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will give some of the hidden manna to everyone who wins the victory. I will also give each person a white stone with a new name written on it, a name that is known only to the person who receives it.

¹⁸ "To the messenger of the church in Thyatira, write: The Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire and whose feet are like glowing bronze, says:

¹⁹ I know what you do. I know your love, faith, service, and endurance. I also know that what you are doing now is greater than what you did at first.

²⁰ But I have something against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophet. She teaches and misleads my servants to sin sexually and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

²¹ I gave her time to turn to me and change the way she thinks and acts, but she refuses to turn away from her sexual sins.

²² Watch me! I'm going to throw her into a sickbed. Those who commit sexual sins with her will also suffer a lot, unless they turn away from what she is doing.

²³ I will kill her children. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches hearts and minds. I will reward each of you for what you have done.

²⁴ But the rest of you in Thyatira—all who don't hold on to Jezebel's teaching, who haven't learned what are called the deep things of Satan—I won't burden you with anything else.

²⁵ Just hold on to what you have until I come.

²⁶ I have received authority from my Father. I will give authority over the nations to everyone who wins the victory and continues to do what I want until the end.

²⁷ Those people will rule the nations with iron scepters and shatter them like pottery.

²⁸ I will also give them the morning star.

²⁹ Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

3¹ "To the messenger of the church in Sardis, write: The one who has God's seven spirits and the seven stars says: I know what you have done. You are known for being alive, but you are dead.

² Be alert, and strengthen the things that are left which are about to die. I have found that what you are doing has not been completed in the sight of my God.

³ So remember what you received and heard. Obey, and change the way you think and act. If you're not alert, I'll come like a thief. You don't know when I will come.

⁴ But you have a few people in Sardis who have kept their clothes clean. They will walk with me in white clothes because they deserve it.

⁵ Everyone who wins the victory this way will wear white clothes. I will never erase their names from the Book of Life. I will acknowledge them in the presence of my Father and his angels.

⁶ Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

⁷ "To the messenger of the church in Philadelphia, write: The one who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens a door that no one can shut, and who shuts a door that no one can open, says:

⁸ I know what you have done. See, I have opened a door in front of you that no one can shut. You only have a little strength, but you have paid attention to my word and have not denied my name.

⁹ I will make those who are in Satan's synagogue come and bow at your feet and realize that I have loved you. They claim that they are Jewish, but they are lying.

¹⁰ Because you have obeyed my command to endure, I will keep you safe during the time of testing which is coming to the whole world to test those living on earth.

¹¹ I am coming soon! Hold on to what you have so that no one takes your crown.

¹² I will make everyone who wins the victory a pillar in the temple of my God. They will never leave it again. I will write on them the name of my God, the name of the city of my God (the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from my God), and my new name.

¹³ Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹⁴ "To the messenger of the church in Laodicea, write: The amen, the witness who is faithful and true, the source of God's creation, says:

¹⁵ I know what you have done, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot.

¹⁶ But since you are lukewarm and not hot or cold, I'm going to spit you out of my mouth.

¹⁷ You say, 'I'm rich. I'm wealthy. I don't need anything.' Yet, you do not realize that you are miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked.

¹⁸ I advise you: Buy gold purified in fire from me so that you may be rich. Buy white clothes from me. Wear them so that you may keep your shameful, naked body from showing. Buy ointment to put on your eyes so that you may see.

¹⁹ I correct and discipline everyone I love. Take this seriously, and change the way you think and act.

²⁰ Look, I'm standing at the door and knocking. If anyone listens to my voice and opens the door, I'll come in and we'll eat together.

²¹ I will allow everyone who wins the victory to sit with me on my throne, as I have won the victory and have sat down with my Father on his throne.

²² Let the person who has ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches."

4¹ After these things I saw a door standing open in heaven. I heard the first voice like a trumpet speaking to me. It said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this."

² Instantly, I came under the Spirit's power. I saw a throne in heaven, and someone was sitting on it.

³ The one sitting there looked like gray quartz and red quartz. There was a rainbow around the throne which looked like an emerald.

⁴ Around that throne were 24 other thrones, and on these thrones sat 24 leaders wearing white clothes. They had gold crowns on their heads.

⁵ Lightning, noise, and thunder came from the throne. Seven flaming torches were burning in front of the throne. These are the seven spirits of God.

⁶ In front of the throne, there was something like a sea of glass as clear as crystal. In the center near the throne and around the throne were four living creatures covered with eyes in front and in back.

⁷ The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like a young bull, the third had a face like a human, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.

⁸ Each of the four living creatures had six wings and were covered with eyes, inside and out. Without stopping day or night they were singing, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, who is, and who is coming."

⁹ Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, to the one who lives forever and ever,

¹⁰ the 24 leaders bow in front of the one who sits on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever. They place their crowns in front of the throne and say,

¹¹ "Our Lord and God, you deserve to receive glory, honor, and power because you created everything. Everything came into existence and was created because of your will."

5 ¹ I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one who sits on the throne. It had writing both on the inside and on the outside. It was sealed with seven seals.

² I saw a powerful angel calling out in a loud voice, "Who deserves to open the scroll and break the seals on it?"

³ No one in heaven, on earth, or under the earth could open the scroll or look inside it.

⁴ I cried bitterly because no one was found who deserved to open the scroll or look inside it.

⁵ Then one of the leaders said to me, "Stop crying! The Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has won the victory. He can open the scroll and the seven seals on it."

⁶ I saw a lamb standing in the center near the throne with the four living creatures and the leaders. The lamb looked like he had been slaughtered. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent all over the world.

⁷ He took the scroll from the right hand of the one who sits on the throne.

⁸ When the lamb had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 leaders bowed in front of him. Each held a harp and a gold bowl full of incense, the prayers of God's holy people.

⁹ Then they sang a new song, "You deserve to take the scroll and open the seals on it, because you were slaughtered. You bought people with your blood to be God's own. They are from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

¹⁰ You made them a kingdom and priests for our God. They will rule as kings on the earth."

¹¹ Then I heard the voices of many angels, the four living creatures, and the leaders surrounding the throne. They numbered ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands times thousands.

¹² In a loud voice they were singing, "The lamb who was slain deserves to receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and praise."

¹³ I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, and on the sea. Every creature in those places was singing, "To the one who sits on the throne and to the lamb be praise, honor, glory, and power forever and ever."

¹⁴ The four living creatures said, "Amen!" Then the leaders bowed and worshiped.

6 ¹ I watched as the lamb opened the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Go!"

² Then I looked, and there was a white horse, and its rider had a bow. He was given a crown and rode off as a warrior to win battles.

³ When the lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Go!"

⁵ When the lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Go!" I looked, and there was a black horse, and its rider held a scale.

⁶ I heard what sounded like a voice from among the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's pay or three quarts of barley for a day's pay. But do not damage the olive oil and the wine."

⁷ When the lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Go!"

⁸ I looked, and there was a pale horse, and its rider's name was Death. Hell followed him. They were given power over one-fourth of the earth to kill people using wars, famines, plagues, and the wild animals on the earth.

⁹ When the lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of God's word and the testimony they had given about him.

¹⁰ They cried out in a loud voice, "Holy and true Master, how long before you judge and take revenge on those living on earth who shed our blood?"

¹¹ Each of the souls was given a white robe. They were told to rest a little longer until all their coworkers, the other Christians, would be killed as they had been killed.

¹² I watched as the lamb opened the sixth seal. A powerful earthquake struck. The sun turned as black as sackcloth made of hair. The full moon turned as red as blood.

¹³ The stars fell from the sky to the earth like figs dropping from a fig tree when it is shaken by a strong wind.

¹⁴ The sky vanished like a scroll being rolled up. Every mountain and island was moved from its place.

¹⁵ Then the kings of the earth, the important people, the generals, the rich, the powerful, and all the slaves and free people hid themselves in caves and among the rocks in the mountains.

¹⁶ They said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne and from the anger of the lamb, ¹⁷ because the frightening day of their anger has come, and who is able to endure it?"

7 ¹ After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth. They were holding back the four winds of the earth to keep them from blowing on the land, the sea, or any tree.

² I saw another angel coming from the east with the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been allowed to harm the land and sea,

³ "Don't harm the land, the sea, or the trees until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

⁴ I heard how many were sealed:
144,000. Those who were sealed were from every tribe of the people of Israel:

⁵ 12,000 from the tribe of Judah were sealed, 12,000 from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000 from the tribe of Gad,

⁶ 12,000 from the tribe of Asher, 12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh,

⁷ 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon, 12,000 from the tribe of Levi, 12,000 from the tribe of Issachar, ⁸ 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000 from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed.

⁹ After these things I saw a large crowd from every nation, tribe, people, and language. No one was able to count how many people there were. They were standing in front of the throne and the lamb. They were wearing white robes, holding palm branches in their hands,

¹⁰ and crying out in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the lamb!"

¹¹ All the angels stood around the throne with the leaders and the four living creatures. They bowed in front of the throne with their faces touching the ground, worshiped God,

¹² and said, "Amen! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honor, power, and strength be to our God forever and ever! Amen!"

¹³ One of the leaders asked me, "Who are these people wearing white robes, and where did they come from?"

¹⁴ I answered him, "Sir, you know." Then he told me, "These are the people who are coming out of the terrible suffering.

They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb.

¹⁵ That is why they are in front of the throne of God. They serve him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

¹⁶ They will never be hungry or thirsty again. Neither the sun nor any burning heat will ever overcome them.

¹⁷ The lamb in the center near the throne will be their shepherd. He will lead them to springs filled with the water of life, and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

8 ¹ When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

² Then I saw the seven angels who stand in God's presence, and they were given seven trumpets.

⁴ The smoke from the incense went up from the angel's hand to God along with the prayers of God's people.

⁵ The angel took the incense burner, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it on the earth. Then there was thunder, noise, lightning, and an earthquake.

⁶ The seven angels who had the seven trumpets got ready to blow them.

⁷ When the first angel blew his trumpet, hail and fire were mixed with blood, and were thrown on the earth. One-third of the earth was burned up, one-third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸ When the second angel blew his trumpet, something like a huge mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹ one-third of the creatures that were living in the sea died, and one-third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ When the third angel blew his trumpet, a huge star flaming like a torch fell from the sky. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs.

¹¹ That star was named Wormwood. One-third of the water turned into wormwood, and many people died from this water because it had turned bitter.

¹² When the fourth angel blew his trumpet, one-third of the sun, one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars were struck so that one-third of them turned dark. There was no light for one-third of the day and one-third of the night.

¹³ I saw an eagle flying overhead, and I heard it say in a loud voice, "Catastrophe, catastrophe, catastrophe for those living on earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts which the three angels are about to blow."

9¹ When the fifth angel blew his trumpet, I saw a star that had fallen to earth from the sky. The star was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.

² It opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke came out of the shaft like the smoke from a large furnace. The smoke darkened the sun and the air.

³ Locusts came out of the smoke onto the earth, and they were given power like the power of earthly scorpions.

⁴ They were told not to harm any grass, green plant, or tree on the earth. They could harm only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

⁵ They were not allowed to kill them. They were only allowed to torture them for five months. Their torture was like the pain of a scorpion's sting.

⁶ At that time people will look for death and never find it. They will long to die, but death will escape them.

⁷ The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. They seemed to have crowns that looked like gold on their heads. Their faces were like human faces.

⁸ They had hair like women's hair and teeth like lions' teeth.

⁹ They had breastplates like iron. The noise from their wings was like the roar of chariots with many horses rushing into battle.

¹⁰ They had tails and stingers like scorpions. They had the power to hurt people with their tails for five months.

¹¹ The king who ruled them was the angel from the bottomless pit. In Hebrew he is called Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

¹² The first catastrophe is over. After these things there are two more catastrophes yet to come.

¹³ When the sixth angel blew his trumpet, I heard a voice from the four horns of the gold altar in front of God.

¹⁴ The voice said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are held at the great Euphrates River."

¹⁵ The four angels who were ready for that hour, day, month, and year were released to kill one-third of humanity.

¹⁶ The soldiers on horses numbered 20,000 times 10,000. I heard how many there were.

¹⁷ In the vision that I had, the horses and their riders looked like this: The riders had breastplates that were fiery red, pale blue, and yellow. The horses had heads like lions. Fire, smoke, and sulfur came out of their mouths.

¹⁸ These three plagues—the fire, smoke, and sulfur which came out of their mouths—killed one—third of humanity.

¹⁹ The power of these horses is in their mouths and their tails. (Their tails have heads like snakes which they use to hurt people.)

²⁰ The people who survived these plagues still did not turn to me and change the way they were thinking and acting. If they had, they would have stopped worshiping demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which cannot see, hear, or walk.

²¹ They did not turn away from committing murder, practicing witchcraft, sinning sexually, or stealing.

10 ¹ I saw another powerful angel come down from heaven. He was dressed in a cloud, and there was a rainbow over his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet were like columns of fire.

² He held a small, opened scroll in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea and his left on the land.

³ Then he shouted in a loud voice as a lion roars. When he shouted, the seven thunders spoke with voices of their own.

⁴ When the seven thunders spoke, I was going to write it down. I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and don't write it down."

⁵ The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.

⁶ He swore an oath by the one who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and everything in it, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it. He said, "There will be no more delay.

⁷ In the days when the seventh angel is ready to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God will be completed, as he had made this Good News known to his servants, the prophets."

⁸ The voice which I had heard from heaven spoke to me again. It said, "Take the opened scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹ I went to the angel and asked him to give me the small scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it. It will be bitter in your stomach, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."

¹⁰ I took the small scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, it was bitter in my stomach.

¹¹ The seven thunders told me, "Again you must speak what God has revealed in front of many people, nations, languages, and kings."

11 ¹ Then I was given a stick like a measuring stick. I was told, "Stand up and measure the temple of God and the altar. Count those who worship there.

² But do not measure the temple courtyard. Leave that out, because it is given to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months.

³ I will allow my two witnesses who wear sackcloth to speak what God has revealed. They will speak for 1,260 days."

⁴ These witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands standing in the presence of the Lord of the earth.

⁵ If anyone wants to hurt them, fire comes out of the witnesses' mouths and burns up their enemies. If anyone wants to hurt them, he must be killed the same way.

⁶ These witnesses have authority to shut the sky in order to keep rain from falling during the time they speak what God has revealed. They have authority to turn water into blood and to strike the earth with any plague as often as they want.

⁷ When the witnesses finish their testimony, the beast which comes from the bottomless pit will fight them, conquer them, and kill them.

⁸ Their dead bodies will lie on the street of the important city where their Lord was crucified. The spiritual names of that city are Sodom and Egypt.

⁹ For 3½ days some members of the people, tribes, languages, and nations will look at the witnesses' dead bodies and will not allow anyone to bury them.

¹⁰ Those living on earth will gloat over the witnesses' death. They will celebrate and send gifts to each other because these two prophets had tormented those living on earth.

¹¹ After 3½ days the breath of life from God entered the two witnesses, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who watched them.

¹² The witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven calling to them, "Come up here." They went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.

¹³ At that moment a powerful earthquake struck. One-tenth of the city collapsed, 7,000 people were killed by the earthquake, and the rest were terrified. They gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second catastrophe is over. The third catastrophe will soon be here.

¹⁵ When the seventh angel blew his trumpet, there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah, and he will rule as king forever and ever."

¹⁶ Then the 24 leaders, who were sitting on their thrones in God's presence, immediately bowed, worshiped God, ¹⁷ and said, "We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun ruling as king.

¹⁸ The nations were angry, but your anger has come. The time has come for the dead to be judged: to reward your servants, the prophets, your holy people, and those who fear your name, no matter if they are important or unimportant, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

¹⁹ God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his promise was seen inside his temple. There was lightning, noise, thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

12 ¹ A spectacular sign appeared in the sky: There was a woman who was dressed in the sun, who had the moon under her feet and a crown of 12 stars on her head.

² She was pregnant. She cried out from labor pains and the agony of giving birth.

³ Another sign appeared in the sky: a huge fiery red serpent with seven heads, ten horns, and seven crowns on its heads.

⁴ Its tail swept away one-third of the stars in the sky and threw them down to earth. The serpent stood in front of the woman who was going to give birth so that it could devour her child when it was born.

⁵ She gave birth to a son, a boy, who is to rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne.

⁶ Then the woman fled into the wilderness where God had prepared a place for her so that she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

⁷ Then a war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels had to fight a war with the serpent. The serpent and its angels fought.

⁸ But it was not strong enough, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven.

⁹ The huge serpent was thrown down. That ancient snake, named Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world, was thrown down to earth. Its angels were thrown down with it.

¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, power, kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah have come. The one accusing our brothers and sisters, the one accusing them day and night in the presence of our God, has been thrown out.

¹¹ They won the victory over him because of the blood of the lamb and the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life so much that they refused to give it up.

¹² Be glad for this reason, heavens and those who live in them. How horrible it is for the earth and the sea because the Devil has come down to them with fierce anger, knowing that he has little time left."

¹³ When the serpent saw that it had been thrown down to earth, it persecuted the woman who had given birth to the boy.

¹⁴ The woman was given the two wings of the large eagle in order to fly away from the snake to her place in the wilderness, where she could be taken care of for a time, times, and half a time.

¹⁵ The snake's mouth poured out a river of water behind the woman in order to sweep her away.

¹⁶ The earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river which had poured out of the serpent's mouth.

¹⁷ The serpent became angry with the woman. So it went away to fight with her other children, the ones who keep God's commands and hold on to the testimony of Jesus.

13 ¹ [12:18] The serpent stood on the sandy shore of the sea. I saw a beast coming out of the sea. It had ten horns, seven heads, and ten crowns on its horns. There were insulting names on its heads.

² The beast that I saw was like a leopard. Its feet were like bear's feet. Its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The serpent gave its power, kingdom, and far-reaching authority to the beast.

³ One of the beast's heads looked like it had a fatal wound, but its fatal wound was healed. All the people of the world were amazed and followed the beast.

⁴ They worshiped the serpent because it had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast and said, "Who is like the beast? Who can fight a war with it?"

⁵ The beast was allowed to speak arrogant and insulting things. It was given authority to act for 42 months.

⁶ It opened its mouth to insult God, to insult his name and his tent—those who are living in heaven.

⁷ It was allowed to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. It was also given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation.

⁸ Everyone living on earth will worship it, everyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life. That book belongs to the lamb who was slaughtered before the creation of the world.

⁹ If anyone has ears, let him listen:

¹⁰ If anyone is taken prisoner, he must go to prison. If anyone is killed with a sword, with a sword he must be killed.

In this situation God's holy people need endurance and confidence.

¹¹ I saw another beast come from the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb. It talked like a serpent.

¹² The second beast uses all the authority of the first beast in its presence. The second beast makes the earth and those living on it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

¹³ The second beast performs spectacular signs. It even makes fire come down from heaven to earth in front of people.

¹⁴ It deceives those living on earth with the signs that it is allowed to do in front of the first beast. It tells those living on earth to make a statue for the beast who was wounded by a sword and yet lived.

¹⁵ The second beast was allowed to put breath into the statue of the first beast.

Then the statue of the first beast could talk and put to death whoever would not worship it.

¹⁶ The second beast forces all people—important and unimportant people, rich and poor people, free people and slaves—to be branded on their right hands or on their foreheads.

¹⁷ It does this so that no one may buy or sell unless he has the brand, which is the beast's name or the number of its name.

¹⁸ In this situation wisdom is needed. Let the person who has insight figure out the number of the beast, because it is a human number. The beast's number is 666.

14 ¹ I looked, and the lamb was standing on Mount Zion. There were 144,000 people with him who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

² Then I heard a sound from heaven like the noise of raging water and the noise of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like the music played by harpists.

⁴ These 144,000 virgins are pure. They follow the lamb wherever he goes. They were bought from among humanity as the first ones offered to God and to the lamb.

⁵ They've never told a lie. They are blameless.

⁶ I saw another angel flying overhead with the everlasting Good News to spread to those who live on earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people.

⁷ The angel said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the time has come for him to judge. Worship the one who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs."

⁸ Another angel, a second one, followed him, and said, "Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen! She has made all the nations drink the wine of her passionate sexual sins."

⁹ Another angel, a third one, followed them, and said in a loud voice, "Whoever worships the beast or its statue, whoever is branded on his forehead or his hand,

¹⁰ will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured unmixed into the cup of God's anger. Then he will be tortured by fiery sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and the lamb.

¹¹ The smoke from their torture will go up forever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast or its statue, or for anyone branded with its name."

¹² In this situation God's holy people, who obey his commands and keep their faith in Jesus, need endurance.

¹³ I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: From now on those who die believing in the Lord are blessed." "Yes," says the Spirit. "Let them rest from their hard work. What they have done goes with them."

¹⁴ Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and on the cloud sat someone who was like the Son of Man. He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

¹⁵ Another angel came out of the temple. He cried out in a loud voice to the one who sat on the cloud, "Swing your sickle, and gather the harvest. The time has come to gather it, because the harvest on the earth is overripe."

¹⁶ The one who sat on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the harvesting of the earth was completed.

¹⁷ Another angel came out of the temple in heaven. He, too, had a sharp sickle.

¹⁸ Yet another angel came from the altar with authority over fire. This angel called out in a loud voice to the angel with the sharp sickle, "Swing your sickle, and gather the bunches of grapes from the vine of the earth, because those grapes are ripe."

¹⁹ The angel swung his sickle on the earth and gathered the grapes from the vine of the earth. He threw them into the winepress of God's anger.

²⁰ The grapes were trampled in the winepress outside the city. Blood flowed out of the winepress as high as a horse's bridle for 1,600 stadia.

15 ¹ I saw another sign in heaven. It was spectacular and amazing. There were seven angels with the last seven plagues which are the final expression of God's anger.

² Then I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire. Those who had won the victory over the beast, its statue, and the number of its name were standing on the glassy sea. They were holding God's harps

³ and singing the song of God's servant Moses and the song of the lamb. They sang, "The things you do are spectacular and amazing, Lord God Almighty. The way you do them is fair and true, King of the Nations.

⁴ Lord, who won't fear and praise your name? You are the only holy one, and all the nations will come to worship you because they know about your fair judgments."

⁵ After these things I looked, and I saw that the temple of the tent containing the words of God's promise was open in heaven.

⁶ The seven angels with the seven plagues came out of the temple wearing clean, shining linen with gold belts around their waists.

⁷ One of the four living creatures gave seven gold bowls full of the anger of God, who lives forever and ever, to the seven angels.

⁸ The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and his power. No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels came to an end.

16 ¹ I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Pour the seven bowls of God's anger over the earth."

² The first angel poured his bowl over the earth. Horrible, painful sores appeared on the people who had the brand of the beast and worshiped its statue.

³ The second angel poured his bowl over the sea. The sea turned into blood like the blood of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died.

⁴ The third angel poured his bowl over the rivers and the springs. They turned into blood.

⁵ Then I heard the angel of the water say, "You are fair. You are the one who is and the one who was, the holy one, because you have judged these things.

⁶ You have given them blood to drink because they have poured out the blood of God's people and prophets. This is what they deserve."

⁷ Then I heard the altar answer, "Yes, Lord God Almighty, your judgments are true and fair."

⁸ The fourth angel poured his bowl on the sun. The sun was allowed to burn people with fire.

⁹ They were severely burned. They cursed the name of God, who has the authority over these plagues. They would not change the way they think and act and give him glory.

¹⁰ The fifth angel poured his bowl on the throne of the beast. Its kingdom turned dark. People gnawed on their tongues in anguish ¹¹ and cursed the God of heaven for their pains and their sores. However, they would not stop what they were doing.

¹² The sixth angel poured his bowl on the great Euphrates River. The water in the river dried up to make a road for the kings from the east.

¹³ Then I saw three evil spirits like frogs come out of the mouths of the serpent, the beast, and the false prophet.

¹⁴ They are spirits of demons that do miracles. These spirits go to the kings of the whole world and gather them for the war on the frightening day of God Almighty.

¹⁵ "See, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who remains alert and doesn't lose his clothes. He will not have to go naked and let others see his shame."

¹⁶ The spirits gathered the kings at the place which is called Armageddon in Hebrew.

¹⁷ The seventh angel poured his bowl into the air. A loud voice came from the throne in the temple, and said, "It has happened!"

¹⁸ There was lightning, noise, thunder, and a powerful earthquake. There has never been such a powerful earthquake since humans have been on earth.

¹⁹ The important city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. God remembered to give Babylon the Great the cup of wine from his fierce anger.

²⁰ Every island vanished, and the mountains could no longer be seen.

²¹ Large, heavy hailstones fell from the sky on people. The people cursed God because the plague of hail was such a terrible plague.

17 ¹ One of the seven angels who held the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of that notorious prostitute who sits on raging waters.

² The kings of the earth had sex with her, and those living on earth became drunk on the wine of her sexual sins."

³ Then the angel carried me by his power into the wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a bright red beast covered with insulting names. It had seven heads and ten horns.

⁴ The woman wore purple clothes, bright red clothes, gold jewelry, gems, and pearls. In her hand she was holding a gold cup filled with detestable and evil things from her sexual sins.

⁵ A name was written on her forehead. The name was Mystery: Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and Detestable Things of the Earth.

⁶ I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God's holy people and of those who testify about Jesus. I was very surprised when I saw her.

⁷ The angel asked me, "Why are you surprised? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and the beast with the seven heads and the ten horns that carries her.

⁸ "You saw the beast which once was, is no longer, and will come from the bottomless pit and go to its destruction. Those living on earth, whose names were not written in the Book of Life when the world was created, will be surprised when they see the beast because it was, is no longer, and will come again.

⁹ "In this situation a wise mind is needed. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is sitting.

¹⁰ They are also seven kings. Five of them have fallen, one is ruling now, and the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must remain for a little while.

¹¹ The beast that was and is no longer is the eighth king. It belongs with the seven kings and goes to its destruction.

¹² "The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet started to rule. They will receive authority to rule as kings with the beast for one hour.

¹³ They have one purpose—to give their power and authority to the beast.

¹⁴ They will go to war against the lamb. The lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those who are called, chosen, and faithful are with him."

¹⁵ The angel also said to me, "The waters you saw, on which the prostitute is sitting, are people, crowds, nations, and languages.

¹⁶ The ten horns and the beast you saw will hate the prostitute. They will leave her abandoned and naked. They will eat her flesh and burn her up in a fire.

¹⁷ God has made them do what he wants them to do. So they will give their kingdom to the beast until God's words are carried out.

¹⁸ The woman you saw is the important city which dominates the kings of the earth."

18 ¹ After these things I saw another angel come from heaven. He had tremendous power, and his glory lit up the earth.

² He cried out in a powerful voice, "Fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen! She has become a home for demons. She is a prison for every evil spirit, every unclean bird, and every unclean and hated beast.

³ All the nations fell because of the wine of her sexual sins. The kings of the earth had sex with her. Her luxurious wealth has made the merchants of the earth rich."

⁴ I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of Babylon, my people, so that you do not participate in her sins and suffer from any of her plagues.

⁵ Her sins are piled as high as heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶ Do to her what she has done. Give her twice as much as she gave. Serve her a drink in her own cup twice as large as the drink she served others.

⁷ She gave herself glory and luxury. Now give her just as much torture and misery. She says to herself, 'I'm a queen on a throne, not a widow. I'll never be miserable.'

⁸ For this reason her plagues of death, misery, and starvation will come in a single day. She will be burned up in a fire, because the Lord God, who judges her, is powerful.

⁹ "The kings of the earth who had sex with her and lived in luxury with her will cry and mourn over her when they see the smoke rise from her raging fire.

¹⁰ Frightened by her torture, they will stand far away and say, 'How horrible, how horrible it is for that important city, the powerful city Babylon! In one moment judgment has come to it!'

¹¹ "The merchants of the earth cry and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo anymore.

¹² No one buys their cargo of gold, silver, gems, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, bright red cloth, all kinds of citron wood, articles made of ivory and very costly wood, bronze, iron, marble,

¹³ cinnamon, spices, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, wagons, slaves (that is, humans).

¹⁴ 'The fruit you craved is gone. All your luxuries and your splendor have disappeared. No one will ever find them again.'

¹⁵ "Frightened by her torture, the merchants who had become rich by selling these things will stand far away. They will cry and mourn, ¹⁶ saying, 'How horrible, how horrible for that important city which was wearing fine linen, purple clothes, bright red clothes, gold jewelry, gems, and pearls.

¹⁷ In one moment all this wealth has been destroyed!' Every ship's captain, everyone who traveled by ship, sailors, and everyone who made their living from the sea stood far away.

¹⁸ When they saw the smoke rise from her raging fire, they repeatedly cried out, 'Was there ever a city as important as this?'

¹⁹ Then they threw dust on their heads and shouted while crying and mourning, 'How horrible, how horrible for that important city. Everyone who had a ship at sea grew rich because of that city's high prices. In one moment it has been destroyed!'

²⁰ "Gloat over it, heaven, God's people, apostles, and prophets. God has condemned it for you."

²¹ Then a powerful angel picked up a stone that was like a large millstone. He threw it into the sea and said, "The important city Babylon will be thrown down with the same force. It will never be found again."

²² The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters will never be heard in it again. Skilled craftsman will never be found in it again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in it again.

²³ Light from lamps will never shine in it again. Voices of brides and grooms will never be heard in it again. Its merchants were the important people of the world, because all the nations were deceived by its witchcraft.

²⁴ "The blood of prophets, God's people, and everyone who had been murdered on earth was found in it."

19 ¹ After these things I heard what sounded like the loud noise from a large crowd in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God.

² His judgments are true and fair. He has condemned the notorious prostitute who corrupted the world with her sexual sins. He has taken revenge on her for the blood of his servants."

³ A second time they said, "Hallelujah! The smoke goes up from her forever and ever."

⁴ The 24 leaders and the 4 living creatures bowed and worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They said, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

⁵ A voice came from the throne. It said, "Praise our God, all who serve and fear him, no matter who you are."

⁶ I heard what sounded like the noise from a large crowd, like the noise of raging waters, like the noise of loud thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! The Lord our God, the Almighty, has become king."

⁷ Let us rejoice, be happy, and give him glory because it's time for the marriage of the lamb. His bride has made herself ready.

⁸ She has been given the privilege of wearing dazzling, pure linen." This fine linen represents the things that God's holy people do that have his approval.

⁹ Then the angel said to me, "Write this: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the lamb's wedding banquet.'" He also told me, "These are the true words of God."

¹⁰ I bowed at his feet to worship him. But he told me, "Don't do that! I am your coworker and a coworker of the Christians who hold on to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, because the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy!"

¹¹ I saw heaven standing open. There was a white horse, and its rider is named Faithful and True. With integrity he judges and wages war.

¹² His eyes are flames of fire. On his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him, but only he knows what it is.

¹³ He wears clothes dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God.

¹⁴ The armies of heaven, wearing pure, white linen, follow him on white horses.

¹⁵ A sharp sword comes out of his mouth to defeat the nations. He will rule them with an iron scepter and tread the winepress of the fierce anger of God Almighty.

¹⁶ On his clothes and his thigh he has a name written: King of kings and Lord of lords.

¹⁷ I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying overhead, "Come! Gather for the great banquet of God.

¹⁸ Eat the flesh of kings, generals, warriors, horses and their riders, and all free people and slaves, both important or insignificant people."

¹⁹ I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered to wage war against the rider on the horse and his army.

²⁰ The beast and the false prophet who had done miracles for the beast were captured. By these miracles the false prophet had deceived those who had the brand of the beast and worshiped its statue. Both of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

²¹ The rider on the horse killed the rest with the sword that came out of his mouth. All the birds gorged themselves on the flesh of those who had been killed.

20 ¹ I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding the key to the bottomless pit and a large chain in his hand.

² He overpowered the serpent, that ancient snake, named Devil and Satan. The angel chained up the serpent for 1,000 years.

³ He threw it into the bottomless pit. The angel shut and sealed the pit over the serpent to keep it from deceiving the nations anymore until the 1,000 years were over. After that it must be set free for a little while.

⁴ I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were allowed to judge. Then I saw the souls of those whose heads had been cut off because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its statue and were not branded on their foreheads or hands. They lived and ruled with Christ for 1,000 years.

⁵ The rest of the dead did not live until the 1,000 years ended. This is the first time that people come back to life.

⁶ Blessed and holy are those who are included the first time that people come back to life. The second death has no power over them. They will continue to be priests of God and Christ. They will rule with him for 1,000 years.

⁷ When 1,000 years are over, Satan will be freed from his prison.

⁸ He will go out to deceive Gog and Magog, the nations in the four corners of the earth, and gather them for war. They will be as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore.

⁹ I saw that they spread over the broad expanse of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's holy people and the beloved city. Fire came from heaven and burned them up.

¹⁰ The devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the fiery lake of sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were also thrown. They will be tortured day and night forever and ever.

¹¹ I saw a large, white throne and the one who was sitting on it. The earth and the sky fled from his presence, but no place was found for them.

¹² I saw the dead, both important and unimportant people, standing in front of the throne. Books were opened, including the Book of Life. The dead were judged on the basis of what they had done, as recorded in the books.

¹³ The sea gave up its dead. Death and hell gave up their dead. People were judged based on what they had done.

¹⁴ Death and hell were thrown into the fiery lake. (The fiery lake is the second death.)

¹⁵ Those whose names were not found in the Book of Life were thrown into the fiery lake.

21 ¹ I saw a new heaven and a new earth, because the first heaven and earth had disappeared, and the sea was gone.

² Then I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, dressed like a bride ready for her husband.

³ I heard a loud voice from the throne say, "God lives with humans! God will make his home with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them and be their God.

⁴ He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There won't be any more death. There won't be any grief, crying, or pain, because the first things have disappeared."

⁵ The one sitting on the throne said, "I am making everything new." He said, "Write this: 'These words are faithful and true.'"

⁶ He said to me, "It has happened! I am the A and the Z, the beginning and the end. I will give a drink from the fountain filled with the water of life to anyone who is thirsty. It won't cost anything.

⁷ Everyone who wins the victory will inherit these things. I will be their God, and they will be my children.

⁸ But cowardly, unfaithful, and detestable people, murderers, sexual sinners, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars will find themselves in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."

⁹ One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the last seven plagues came to me and said, "Come! I will show you the bride, the wife of the lamb."

¹⁰ He carried me by his power away to a large, high mountain. He showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven.

¹¹ It had the glory of God. Its light was like a valuable gem, like gray quartz, as clear as crystal.

¹² It had a large, high wall with 12 gates. Twelve angels were at the gates. The names of the 12 tribes of Israel were written on the gates.

¹³ There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

¹⁴ The wall of the city had 12 foundations. The 12 names of the 12 apostles of the lamb were written on them.

¹⁵ The angel who was talking to me had a gold measuring stick to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

¹⁶ The city was square. It was as wide as it was long. He measured the city with the stick. It was 12,000 stadia long. Its length, width, and height were the same.

¹⁷ He measured its wall. According to human measurement, which the angel was using, it was 144 cubits.

¹⁸ Its wall was made of gray quartz. The city was made of pure gold, as clear as glass.

¹⁹ The foundations of the city wall were beautifully decorated with all kinds of gems: The first foundation was gray quartz, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, ²⁰ the fifth onyx, the sixth red quartz, the seventh yellow quartz, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth green quartz, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

²¹ The 12 gates were 12 pearls. Each gate was made of one pearl. The street of the city was made of pure gold, as clear as glass.

²² I did not see any temple in it, because the Lord God Almighty and the lamb are its temple.

²³ The city doesn't need any sun or moon to give it light because the glory of God gave it light. The lamb was its lamp.

²⁴ The nations will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

²⁵ Its gates will be open all day. They will never close because there won't be any night there.

²⁶ They will bring the glory and wealth of the nations into the holy city.

²⁷ Nothing unclean, no one who does anything detestable, and no liars will ever enter it. Only those whose names are written in the lamb's Book of Life will enter it.

22 ¹ The angel showed me a river filled with the water of life, as clear as crystal. It was flowing from the throne of God and the lamb.

² Between the street of the city and the river there was a tree of life visible from both sides. It produced 12 kinds of fruit. Each month had its own fruit. The leaves of the tree will heal the nations.

³ There will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and the lamb will be in the city. His servants will worship him

⁴ and see his face. His name will be on their foreheads.

⁵ There will be no more night, and they will not need any light from lamps or the sun because the Lord God will shine on them. They will rule as kings forever and ever.

⁶ He said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets has sent his angel to show his servants the things that must happen soon.

⁷ I'm coming soon! Blessed is the one who follows the words of the prophecy in this book."

⁸ I, John, heard and saw these things. When I had heard and seen them, I bowed to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing me these things.

⁹ He told me, "Don't do that! I am your coworker. I work with other Christians, the prophets, and those who follow the words in this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰ Then the angel said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy in this book because the time is near.

¹¹ Let those who don't have God's approval go without it, and let filthy people continue to be filthy. Let those who have God's approval continue to have it, and let holy people continue to be holy."

¹² "I'm coming soon! I will bring my reward with me to pay all people based on what they have done.

¹³ I am the A and the Z, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

¹⁴ "Blessed are those who wash their robes so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city.

¹⁵ Outside are dogs, sorcerers, sexual sinners, murderers, idolaters, and all who lie in what they say and what they do.

¹⁶ "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give this testimony to you for the churches. I am the root and descendant of David. I am the bright morning star."

¹⁷ The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" Let those who hear this say, "Come!" Let those who are thirsty come! Let those who want the water of life take it as a gift.

¹⁸ I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy in this book: If anyone adds anything to this, God will strike him with the plagues that are written in this book.

¹⁹ If anyone takes away any words from this book of prophecy, God will take away his portion of the tree of life and the holy city that are described in this book.

²⁰ The one who is testifying to these things says, "Yes, I'm coming soon!"
Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹ The good will of the Lord Jesus be with all of you. Amen!
