³and gathered from other countries, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

⁴They wandered around the desert on a deserted road without finding an inhabited city.

⁵They were hungry and thirsty. They began to lose hope.

⁶In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He rescued them from their troubles.

⁷He led them on a road that went straight to an inhabited city.

⁸Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adams descendants.

⁹He gave plenty to drink to those who were thirsty. He filled those who were hungry with good food.

¹⁰Those who lived in the dark, in death's shadow were prisoners in misery. They were held in iron chains ¹¹because they had rebelled against Gods words and had despised the advice given by the Most High.

¹² So he humbled them with hard work. They fell down, but no one was there to help them.

¹⁴ He brought them out of the dark, out of death's shadow. He broke apart their chains.

¹⁵ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

¹⁶ He shattered bronze gates and cut iron bars in two.

¹⁷ Fools suffered because of their disobedience and because of their crimes.

¹⁸ All food was disgusting to them, and they came near death's gates.

²⁰ He sent his message and healed them. He rescued them from the grave.

²¹ Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adam's descendants.

²²Let them bring songs of thanksgiving as their sacrifice. Let them tell in joyful songs what he has done.

²³Those who sail on the sea in ships, who do business on the high seas, ²⁴have seen what the LORD can do, the miracles he performed in the depths of the sea.

²⁵He spoke, and a storm began to blow, and it made the waves rise high.

²⁶The sailors aboard ship rose toward the sky. They plunged into the depths. Their courage melted in the face of disaster.

²⁷They reeled and staggered like drunks, and all their skills as sailors became useless.

²⁸In their distress they cried out to the LORD. He led them from their troubles.

²⁹He made the storm calm down, and the waves became still.

³⁰The sailors were glad that the storm was quiet. He guided them to the harbor they had longed for.

³¹Let them give thanks to the LORD because of his mercy. He performed his miracles for Adams descendants.

³²Let them glorify him when the people are gathered for worship. Let them praise him in the company of respected leaders.

³³He changes rivers into a desert, springs into thirsty ground, ³⁴and fertile ground into a layer of salt because of the wickedness of the people living there.

³⁵He changes deserts into lakes and dry ground into springs.

³⁶There he settles those who are hungry, and they build cities to live in.

³⁷They plant in fields and vineyards that produce crops.

³⁸He blesses them, and their numbers multiply, and he does not allow a shortage of cattle.

³⁹They became few in number and were humiliated because of oppression, disaster, and sorrow.

⁴⁰He poured contempt on their influential people and made them stumble around in a pathless desert.

⁴¹But now he lifts needy people high above suffering and makes their families like flocks.

⁴²Decent people will see this and rejoice, but all the wicked people will shut their mouths.

⁴³Let those who think they are wise pay attention to these things so that they may understand the LORDS blessings.

108¹A song; a psalm by David.
My heart is confident, O God. I want to sing and make music even with my soul.

²Wake up, harp and lyre! I want to wake up at dawn.

³I want to give thanks to you among the people, O LORD. I want to make music to praise you among the nations ⁴because your mercy is higher than the heavens. Your truth reaches the skies.

⁵May you be honored above the heavens, O God. Let your glory extend over the whole earth.

⁶Save us with your powerful hand, and answer us so that those who are dear to you may be rescued.

⁷God has promised the following through his holiness: "I will triumph! I will divide Shechem. I will measure the valley of Succoth.

⁸Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim is the helmet on my head.
Judah is my scepter.

⁹Moab is my washtub. I will throw my shoe over Edom. I will shout in triumph over Philistia."

¹⁰Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

¹¹Isn't it you, O God, who rejected us? Isn't it you, O God, who refused to accompany our armies?

¹²Give us help against the enemy because human assistance is worthless.

¹³With God we will display great strength. He will trample our enemies.

109¹For the choir director; a psalm by David. O God, whom
I praise, do not turn a deaf ear to me.

²Wicked and deceitful people have opened their mouths against me. They speak against me with lying tongues.

³They surround me with hateful words.
They fight against me for no reason.

⁴In return for my love, they accuse me, but I pray for them.

⁵They reward me with evil instead of good and with hatred instead of love.

⁶I said, "Appoint the evil one to oppose him. Let Satan stand beside him.

⁷When he stands trial, let him be found guilty. Let his prayer be considered sinful.

⁸Let his days be few in number. Let someone else take his position.

⁹"Let his children become fatherless and his wife a widow.

¹¹Let a creditor take everything he owns. Let strangers steal what he has worked for.

¹²Let no one be kind to him anymore. Let no one show any pity to his fatherless children.

¹³Let his descendants be cut off and their family name be wiped out by the next generation.

¹⁴Let the LORD remember the guilt of his ancestors and not wipe out his mothers sin.

¹⁵Let their guilt and sin always remain on record in front of the LORD. Let the LORD remove every memory of him from the earth, ¹⁶because he did not remember to be kind. "He drove oppressed, needy, and brokenhearted people to their graves.

¹⁷He loved to put curses on others, so he, too, was cursed. He did not like to bless others, so he never received a blessing.

¹⁸He wore cursing as though it were clothing, so cursing entered his body like water and his bones like oil.

¹⁹Let cursing be his clothing, a belt he always wears."

²⁰This is how the LORD rewards those who accuse me, those who say evil things against me.

²¹O LORD Almighty, deal with me out of the goodness of your name. Rescue me because of your mercy.

²²I am oppressed and needy. I can feel the pain in my heart.

²³I fade away like a lengthening shadow. I have been shaken off like a grasshopper.

²⁴My knees give way because I have been fasting. My body has become lean, without any fat.

²⁵I have become the victim of my enemies insults. They look at me and shake their heads.

²⁶Help me, O LORD my God. Save me because of your mercy.

²⁷Then they will know that this is your doing, that you, O LORD, are the one who saved me.

²⁸They may curse, but you will bless. Let those who attack me be ashamed, but let me rejoice.

²⁹Let those who accuse me wear disgrace as though it were clothing. Let them be wrapped in their shame as though it were a robe.

³⁰With my mouth I will give many thanks to the LORD. I will praise him among many people, ³¹because he stands beside needy people to save them from those who would condemn them to death.

110¹A psalm by David. The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit in the highest position in heaven until I make your enemies your footstool."

²The LORD will extend your powerful scepter from Zion. Rule your enemies who surround you.

³Your people will volunteer when you call up your army. Your young people will come to you in holy splendor like dew in the early morning.

⁴The LORD has taken an oath and will not change his mind: "You are a priest forever, in the way Melchizedek was a priest."

⁵The Lord is at your right side. He will crush kings on the day of his anger.

⁶He will pass judgment on the nations and fill them with dead bodies. Throughout the earth he will crush their heads.

⁷He will drink from the brook along the road. He will hold his head high.

111 ¹Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart in the company of decent people and in the congregation.

²The LORDS deeds are spectacular. They should be studied by all who enjoy them.

³His work is glorious and majestic. His righteousness continues forever.

⁴He has made his miracles unforgettable. The LORD is merciful and compassionate.

⁵He provides food for those who fear him. He always remembers his promise.

⁶He has revealed the power of his works to his people by giving them the lands of other nations as an inheritance.

⁸They last forever and ever. They are carried out with truth and decency.

⁹He has sent salvation to his people. He has ordered that his promise should continue forever. His name is holy and terrifying.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. Good sense is shown by everyone who follows Gods guiding principles. His praise continues forever.

112¹Hallelujah! Blessed is the person who fears the LORD and is happy to obey his commands.

²His descendants will grow strong on the earth. The family of a decent person will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches will be in his home. His righteousness continues forever.

⁴Light will shine in the dark for a decent person. He is merciful, compassionate, and fair.

⁵All goes well for the person who is generous and lends willingly. He earns an honest living.

⁶He will never fail. A righteous person will always be remembered.

⁷He is not afraid of bad news. His heart remains secure, full of confidence in the LORD.

⁸His heart is steady, and he is not afraid. In the end he will look triumphantly at his enemies.

⁹He gives freely to poor people. His righteousness continues forever. His head is raised in honor.

¹⁰The wicked person sees this and becomes angry. He angrily grits his teeth and disappears. The hope that wicked people have will vanish.

113¹ Hallelujah! You servants of the LORD, praise him. Praise the name of the LORD.

²Thank the name of the LORD now and forever.

³From where the sun rises to where the sun sets, the name of the LORD should be praised.

⁶He bends down to look at heaven and earth.

⁹He makes a woman who is in a childless home a joyful mother.
Hallelujah!

114 ¹When Israel left Egypt, when Jacobs family left people who spoke a foreign language, ²Judah became his holy place and Israel became his kingdom.

³The Red Sea looked at this and ran away. The Jordan River turned back.

⁴The mountains jumped like rams. The hills jumped like lambs.

⁵Red Sea, why did you run away?
Jordan River, what made you turn back?

⁶Mountains, what made you jump like rams? Hills, what made you jump like lambs?

⁷Earth, tremble in the presence of the Lord, in the presence of the God of Jacob.

⁸He turns a rock into a pool filled with water and turns flint into a spring flowing with water.

115¹ Don't give glory to us, O LORD. Don't give glory to us. Instead, give glory to your name because of your mercy and faithfulness.

²Why should other nations say, "Where is their God?"

³Our God is in heaven. He does whatever he wants.

⁴Their idols are made of silver and gold. They were made by human hands.

⁵They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.

⁶They have ears, but they cannot hear. They have noses, but they cannot smell.

⁷They have hands, but they cannot feel. They have feet, but they cannot walk. They cannot even make a sound with their throats.

⁸Those who make idols end up like them. So does everyone who trusts them.

⁹Israel, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹⁰Descendants of Aaron, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹¹If you fear the LORD, trust the LORD. He is your helper and your shield.

¹²The LORD, who is always thinking about us, will bless us. He will bless the descendants of Israel. He will bless the descendants of Aaron.

¹³He will bless those who fear the LORD, from the least important to the most important.

¹⁴May the LORD continue to bless you and your children.

¹⁵You will be blessed by the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

¹⁶The highest heaven belongs to the LORD, but he has given the earth to the descendants of Adam.

¹⁷Those who are dead do not praise the LORD, nor do those who go into the silence of the grave.

¹⁸But we will thank the LORD now and forever. Hallelujah!

116¹ I love the LORD because he hears my voice, my pleas for mercy.

² I will call on him as long as I live because he turns his ear toward me.

³ The ropes of death became tangled around me. The horrors of the grave took hold of me. I experienced pain and agony.

⁴ But I kept calling on the name of the LORD: "Please, LORD, rescue me!"

⁵ The LORD is merciful and righteous. Our God is compassionate.

⁶ The LORD protects defenseless people. When I was weak, he saved me.

⁸ You saved me from death. You saved my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.

⁹ I will walk in the LORDS presence in this world of the living.

¹⁰ I kept my faith even when I said, "I am suffering terribly."

¹¹ I also said when I was panicstricken, "Everyone is undependable."

¹² How can I repay the LORD for all the good that he has done for me?

¹³I will take the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁴I will keep my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.

¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

¹⁶O LORD, I am indeed your servant. I am your servant, the son of your female servant. You have freed me from my chains.

¹⁷I will bring a song of thanksgiving to you as a sacrifice. I will call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁸I will keep my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, ¹⁹in the courtyards of the LORDS house, in the middle of Jerusalem.

Hallelujah!

117 ¹Praise the LORD, all you nations! Praise him, all you people of the world!

²His mercy toward us is powerful. The LORDS faithfulness endures forever.
Hallelujah!

118 ¹Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

²Israel should say, "His mercy endures forever."

³The descendants of Aaron should say, "His mercy endures forever."

⁴Those who fear the LORD should say, "His mercy endures forever."

⁵During times of trouble I called on the LORD. The LORD answered me and set me free from all of them.

⁶The LORD is on my side. I am not afraid. What can mortals do to me?

⁷The LORD is on my side as my helper. I will see the defeat of those who hate me.

⁸It is better to depend on the LORD than to trust mortals.

⁹It is better to depend on the LORD than to trust influential people.

¹⁰All the nations surrounded me, but armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹¹They surrounded me. Yes, they surrounded me, but armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹²They swarmed around me like bees, but they were extinguished like burning thornbushes. So armed with the name of the LORD, I defeated them.

¹³They pushed hard to make me fall, but the LORD helped me.

¹⁴The LORD is my strength and my song. He is my savior.

¹⁵The sound of joyful singing and victory is heard in the tents of righteous people. The right hand of the LORD displays strength.

¹⁶The right hand of the LORD is held high. The right hand of the LORD displays strength.

¹⁷I will not die, but I will live and tell what the LORD has done.

¹⁸The LORD disciplined me severely, but he did not allow me to be killed.

¹⁹Open the gates of righteousness for me. I will go through them and give thanks to the LORD.

²⁰This is the gate of the LORD through which righteous people will enter.

²¹I give thanks to you, because you have answered me. You are my savior.

²²The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

²³The LORD is responsible for this, and it is amazing for us to see.

²⁴This is the day the LORD has made.
Let's rejoice and be glad today!

²⁵We beg you, O LORD, save us! We beg you, O LORD, give us success!

²⁶Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD. We bless you from the LORDS house.

²⁷The LORD is God, and he has given us light. March in a festival procession with branches to the horns of the altar.

²⁸You are my God, and I give thanks to you. My God, I honor you highly.

²⁹Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

119¹ Blessed are those whose lives have integrity, those who follow the teachings of the LORD.

²Blessed are those who obey his written instructions. They wholeheartedly search for him.

³They do nothing wrong. They follow his directions.

⁴You have commanded that your guiding principles be carefully followed.

⁵I pray that my ways may become firmly established so that I can obey your laws.

⁶Then I will never feel ashamed when I study all your commandments.

⁷ I will give thanks to you as I learn your regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

⁸ I will obey your laws. Never abandon me.

⁹ How can a young person keep his life pure? He can do it by holding on to your word.

¹⁰ I wholeheartedly searched for you. Do not let me wander away from your commandments.

¹¹ I have treasured your promise in my heart so that I may not sin against you.

¹² Thanks be to you, O LORD. Teach me your laws.

¹³ With my lips I have repeated every regulation that comes from your mouth.

¹⁴ I find joy in the way shown by your written instructions more than I find joy in all kinds of riches.

¹⁵ I want to reflect on your guiding principles and study your ways.

¹⁶ Your laws make me happy. I never forget your word.

¹⁷ Be kind to me so that I may live and hold on to your word.

¹⁹I am a foreigner in this world. Do not hide your commandments from me.

²⁰My soul is overwhelmed with endless longing for your regulations.

²¹You threaten arrogant people, who are condemned and wander away from your commandments.

²²Remove the insults and contempt that have fallen on me because I have obeyed your written instructions.

²³Even though influential people plot against me, I reflect on your laws.

²⁴Indeed, your written instructions make me happy. They are my best friends.

²⁵I am close to death. Give me a new life as you promised.

²⁶I told you what I have done, and you answered me. Teach me your laws.

²⁷Help me understand your guiding principles so that I may reflect on your miracles.

²⁸I am drowning in tears. Strengthen me as you promised.

²⁹Turn me away from a life of lies. Graciously provide me with your teachings.

³⁰I have chosen a life of faithfulness. I have set your regulations in front of me.

³¹I have clung tightly to your written instructions. O LORD, do not let me be put to shame.

³²I will eagerly pursue your commandments because you continue to increase my understanding.

³³Teach me, O LORD, how to live by your laws, and I will obey them to the end.

³⁴Help me understand so that I can follow your teachings. I will guard them with all my heart.

³⁵Lead me on the path of your commandments, because I am happy with them.

³⁶Direct my heart toward your written instructions rather than getting rich in underhanded ways.

³⁷Turn my eyes away from worthless things. Give me a new life in your ways.

³⁸Keep your promise to me so that I can fear you.

³⁹Take away insults, which I dread, because your regulations are good.

⁴⁰I long for your guiding principles. Give me a new life in your righteousness.

⁴¹ Let your blessings reach me, O LORD.
Save me as you promised.

⁴² Then I will have an answer for the one who insults me since I trust your word.

⁴³ Do not take so much as a single word of truth from my mouth. My hope is based on your regulations.

⁴⁴ I will follow your teachings forever and ever.

⁴⁵ I will walk around freely because I sought out your guiding principles.

⁴⁶ I will speak about your written instructions in the presence of kings and not feel ashamed.

⁴⁷ Your commandments, which I love, make me happy.

⁴⁸ I lift my hands in prayer because of your commandments, which I love. I will reflect on your laws.

⁴⁹ Remember the word you gave me.
Through it you gave me hope.

⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my misery:
Your promise gave me a new life.

⁵¹ Arrogant people have mocked me with cruelty, yet I have not turned away from your teachings.

⁵²I remembered your regulations from long ago, O LORD, and I found comfort in them.

⁵³I am burning with anger because of wicked people, who abandon your teachings.

⁵⁴Your laws have become like psalms to me in this place where I am only a foreigner.

⁵⁵At night I remember your name, O LORD, and I follow your teachings.

⁵⁶This has happened to me because I have obeyed your guiding principles.

⁵⁷You are my inheritance, O LORD. I promised to hold on to your words.

⁵⁸With all my heart I want to win your favor. Be kind to me as you promised.

⁵⁹I have thought about my life, and I have directed my feet back to your written instructions.

⁶⁰Without any hesitation I hurry to obey your commandments.

⁶¹Though the ropes of wicked people are tied around me, I never forget your teachings.

⁶²At midnight I wake up to give thanks to you for the regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

⁶³I am a friend to everyone who fears you and to everyone who follows your guiding principles.

⁶⁴Your mercy, O LORD, fills the earth. Teach me your laws.

⁶⁵You have treated me well, O LORD, as you promised.

⁶⁶Teach me to use good judgment and knowledge, because I believe in your commandments.

⁶⁷Before you made me suffer, I used to wander off, but now I hold on to your word.

⁶⁸You are good, and you do good things. Teach me your laws.

⁶⁹Arrogant people have smeared me with lies, yet I obey your guiding principles with all my heart.

⁷⁰Their hearts are cold and insensitive, yet I am happy with your teachings.

⁷¹It was good that I had to suffer in order to learn your laws.

⁷²The teachings that come from your mouth are worth more to me than thousands in gold or silver.

⁷³Your hands created me and made me what I am. Help me understand so that I may learn your commandments.

⁷⁴Those who fear you will see me and rejoice, because my hope is based on your word.

⁷⁵I know that your regulations are fair, O LORD, and that you were right to make me suffer.

⁷⁶Let your mercy comfort me as you promised.

⁷⁷Let your compassion reach me so that I may live, because your teachings make me happy.

⁷⁸Let arrogant people be put to shame because they lied about me, yet I reflect on your guiding principles.

⁷⁹Let those who fear you turn to me so that they can come to know your written instructions.

⁸⁰Let my heart be filled with integrity in regard to your laws so that I will not be put to shame.

⁸¹My soul is weak from waiting for you to save me. My hope is based on your word.

⁸²My eyes have become strained from looking for your promise. I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

⁸³ Although I have become like a shriveled and dried out wineskin, I have not forgotten your laws.

⁸⁴ What is left of my life? When will you bring those who persecute me to justice?

⁸⁵ Arrogant people have dug pits to trap me in defiance of your teachings.

⁸⁶ (All your commandments are reliable.) Those people persecute me with lies. Help me!

⁸⁷ They almost wiped me off the face of the earth. But I did not abandon your guiding principles.

⁸⁸ Give me a new life through your mercy so that I may obey the written instructions, which came from your mouth.

⁸⁹ O LORD, your word is established in heaven forever.

⁹⁰ Your faithfulness endures throughout every generation. You set the earth in place, and it continues to stand.

⁹¹ All things continue to stand today because of your regulations, since they are all your servants.

⁹² If your teachings had not made me happy, then I would have died in my misery.

⁹³I will never forget your guiding principles, because you gave me a new life through them.

⁹⁴I am yours. Save me, because I have searched for your guiding principles.

⁹⁵The wicked people have waited for me in order to destroy me, yet I want to understand your written instructions.

⁹⁶I have seen a limit to everything else, but your commandments have no limit.

⁹⁷Oh, how I love your teachings! They are in my thoughts all day long.

⁹⁸Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, because your commandments are always with me.

⁹⁹I have more insight than all my teachers, because your written instructions are in my thoughts.

¹⁰⁰I have more wisdom than those with many years of experience, because I have obeyed your guiding principles.

¹⁰¹I have kept my feet from walking on any evil path in order to obey your word.

¹⁰²I have not neglected your regulations, because you have taught me.

¹⁰³How sweet the taste of your promise is! It tastes sweeter than honey.

¹⁰⁴From your guiding principles I gain understanding. That is why I hate every path that leads to lying.

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path.

¹⁰⁶I took an oath, and I will keep it. I took an oath to follow your regulations, which are based on your righteousness.

¹⁰⁷I have suffered so much. Give me a new life, O LORD, as you promised.

¹⁰⁸Please accept the praise I gladly give you, O LORD, and teach me your regulations.

¹⁰⁹I always take my life into my own hands, but I never forget your teachings.

¹¹⁰Wicked people have set a trap for me, but I have never wandered away from your guiding principles.

¹¹¹Your written instructions are mine forever. They are the joy of my heart.

¹¹²I have decided to obey your laws. They offer a reward that never ends.

¹¹³I hate twofaced people, but I love your teachings.

¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield. My hope is based on your word.

¹¹⁵Get away from me, you evildoers, so that I can obey the commandments of my God.

¹¹⁶Help me God, as you promised, so that I may live. Do not turn my hope into disappointment.

¹¹⁷Hold me, and I will be safe, and I will always respect your laws.

¹¹⁸You reject all who wander away from your laws, because their lies mislead them.

¹¹⁹You get rid of all wicked people on earth as if they were rubbish. That is why I love your written instructions.

¹²⁰My body shudders in fear of you, and I am afraid of your regulations.

¹²¹I have done what is fair and right. Do not leave me at the mercy of those who oppress me.

¹²²Guarantee my wellbeing. Do not let arrogant people oppress me.

¹²³My eyes are strained from looking for you to save me and from looking for the fulfillment of your righteous promise.

¹²⁴Treat me with kindness, and teach me your laws.

¹²⁵I am your servant. Help me understand so that I may come to know your written instructions.

¹²⁶It is time for you to act, O LORD. Even though people have abolished your teachings, ¹²⁷I love your commandments more than gold, more than pure gold.

¹²⁸I follow the straight paths of your guiding principles. I hate every pathway that leads to lying.

¹²⁹Your written instructions are miraculous. That is why I obey them.

¹³⁰Your word is a doorway that lets in light, and it helps gullible people understand.

¹³¹I open my mouth and pant because I long for your commandments.

¹³²Turn toward me, and have pity on me as you have pledged to do for those who love your name.

¹³³Make my steps secure through your promise, and do not let any sin control me.

¹³⁴Save me from human oppression so that I may obey your guiding principles.

¹³⁵Smile on me, and teach me your laws.

¹³⁶Streams of tears flow from my eyes because others do not follow your teachings.

¹³⁷You are righteous, O LORD, and your regulations are fair.

¹³⁸You have issued your written instructions. They are fair and completely dependable.

¹³⁹My devotion for your words consumes me, because my enemies have forgotten your words.

¹⁴⁰Your promise has been thoroughly tested, and I love it.

¹⁴¹I am unimportant and despised, yet I never forget your guiding principles.

¹⁴²Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your teachings are reliable.

¹⁴³Trouble and hardship have found me, but your commandments still make me happy.

¹⁴⁴Your written instructions are always right. Help me understand them so that I will live.

¹⁴⁵I have called out with all my heart. Answer me, O LORD. I want to obey your laws.

¹⁴⁶I have called out. Save me, so that I can obey your written instructions.

¹⁴⁷I got up before dawn, and I cried out for help. My hope is based on your word.

¹⁴⁸My eyes are wide open throughout the nighttime hours to reflect on your word.

¹⁴⁹In keeping with your mercy, hear my voice. O LORD, give me a new life guided by your regulations.

¹⁵⁰Those who carry out plots against me are near, yet they are far away from your teachings.

¹⁵¹You are near, O LORD, and all your commandments are reliable.

¹⁵²Long ago I learned from your written instructions that you made them to last forever.

¹⁵³Look at my misery, and rescue me, because I have never forgotten your teachings.

¹⁵⁴Plead my case for me, and save me. Give me a new life as you promised.

¹⁵⁵Wicked people are far from being saved, because they have not searched for your laws.

¹⁵⁶Your acts of compassion are many in number, O LORD. Give me a new life guided by your regulations.

¹⁵⁷I have many persecutors and opponents, yet I have not turned away from your written instructions.

¹⁵⁸I have seen traitors, and I am filled with disgust. They have not accepted your promise.

¹⁵⁹See how I have loved your guiding principles! O LORD, in keeping with your mercy, give me a new life.

¹⁶⁰There is nothing but truth in your word, and all of your righteous regulations endure forever.

¹⁶¹Influential people have persecuted me for no reason, but it is only your words that fill my heart with terror.

¹⁶²I find joy in your promise like someone who finds a priceless treasure.

¹⁶³I hate lying; I am disgusted with it. I love your teachings.

¹⁶⁴Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous regulations.

¹⁶⁵There is lasting peace for those who love your teachings. Nothing can make those people stumble.

¹⁶⁶I have waited with hope for you to save me, O LORD. I have carried out your commandments.

¹⁶⁷I have obeyed your written instructions. I have loved them very much.

¹⁶⁸I have followed your guiding principles and your written instructions, because my whole life is in front of you.

¹⁶⁹Let my cry for help come into your presence, O LORD. Help me understand as you promised.

¹⁷⁰Let my plea for mercy come into your presence. Rescue me as you promised.

¹⁷¹Let my lips pour out praise because you teach me your laws.

¹⁷²Let my tongue sing about your promise because all your commandments are fair.

¹⁷³Let your hand help me because I have chosen to follow your guiding principles.

¹⁷⁴I have longed for you to save me, O LORD, and your teachings make me happy.

¹⁷⁵Let my soul have new life so that it can praise you. Let your regulations help me.

¹⁷⁶I have wandered away like a lost lamb. Search for me, because I have never forgotten your commandments.

120¹A song for going up to worship. When I was in trouble, I cried out to the LORD, and he answered me.

²O LORD, rescue me from lying lips and from a deceitful tongue.

³You deceitful tongue, what can the LORD give you? What more can he do for you?

⁴He will give you a warriors sharpened arrows and redhot coals.

⁵How horrible it is to live as a foreigner in Meshech or to stay in the tents of Kedar.

⁶I have lived too long with those who hate peace.

⁷I am for peace, but when I talk about it, they only talk about war.

121¹A song for going up to worship. I look up toward the mountains. Where can I find help?

²My help comes from the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

³He will not let you fall. Your guardian will not fall asleep.

⁴Indeed, the Guardian of Israel never rests or sleeps.

⁵The LORD is your guardian. The LORD is the shade over your right hand.

⁶The sun will not beat down on you during the day, nor will the moon at night.

⁷The LORD guards you from every evil. He guards your life.

⁸The LORD guards you as you come and go, now and forever.

122 ¹A song by David for going up to worship. I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to the house of the LORD."

²Our feet are standing inside your gates, Jerusalem.

³Jerusalem is built to be a city where the people are united.

⁴All of the LORDS tribes go to that city because it is a law in Israel to give thanks to the name of the LORD.

⁵The court of justice sits there. It consists of princes who are Davids descendants.

⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who love you prosper.

⁷May there be peace inside your walls and prosperity in your palaces."

⁸For the sake of my relatives and friends, let me say, "May it go well for you!"

⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek what is good for you.

123¹ A song for going up to worship. I look up to you, to the one who sits enthroned in heaven.

²As servants depend on their masters, as a maid depends on her mistress, so we depend on the LORD our God until he has pity on us.

³Have pity on us, O LORD. Have pity on us because we have suffered more than our share of contempt.

⁴We have suffered more than our share of ridicule from those who are carefree. We have suffered more than our share of contempt from those who are arrogant.

124¹ A song by David for going up to worship. "If the LORD had not been on our side" (Israel should repeat this.)

²"If the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked us, ³then they would have swallowed us alive when their anger exploded against us.

⁴Then the floodwaters would have swept us away. An overflowing stream would have washed us away.

⁵Then raging water would have washed us away."

⁶Thank the LORD, who did not let them sink their teeth into us.

⁷We escaped like a bird caught in a hunters trap. The trap was broken, and we escaped.

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth.

125¹A song for going up to worship. Those who trust the LORD are like Mount Zion, which can never be shaken. It remains firm forever.

²As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people now and forever.

³A wicked ruler will not be allowed to govern the land set aside for righteous people. That is why righteous people do not use their power to do wrong.

⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, to those whose motives are decent.

⁵But when people become crooked, the LORD will lead them away with troublemakers. Let there be peace in Israel!

126¹A song for going up to worship. When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, it was as if we were dreaming.

²Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with joyful songs. Then the nations said, "The LORD has done spectacular things for them."

³The LORD has done spectacular things for us. We are overjoyed.

⁴Restore our fortunes, O LORD, as you restore streams to dry riverbeds in the Negev.

⁵Those who cry while they plant will joyfully sing while they harvest.

⁶The person who goes out weeping, carrying his bag of seed, will come home singing, carrying his bundles of grain.

127 ¹A song by Solomon for going up to worship. If the LORD does not build the house, it is useless for the builders to work on it. If the LORD does not protect a city, it is useless for the guard to stay alert.

²It is useless to work hard for the food you eat by getting up early and going to bed late. The LORD gives food to those he loves while they sleep.

³Children are an inheritance from the LORD. They are a reward from him.

⁴The children born to a man when he is young are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

⁵Blessed is the man who has filled his quiver with them. He will not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the city gate.

128 ¹A song for going up to worship. Blessed are all who fear the LORD and live his way.

²You will certainly eat what your own hands have provided. Blessings to you! May things go well for you!

³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine inside your home. Your children will be like young olive trees around your table.

⁴This is how the LORD will bless the person who fears him.

⁵May the LORD bless you from Zion so that you may see Jerusalem prospering all the days of your life.

⁶May you live to see your childrens children. Let there be peace in Israel!

129¹A song for going up to worship. "From the time I was young, people have attacked me" (Israel should repeat this.)

²"From the time I was young, people have attacked me, but they have never overpowered me.

³They have plowed my back like farmers plow fields. They made long slashes like furrows."

⁴The LORD is righteous. He has cut me loose from the ropes that wicked people tied around me.

⁵Put to shame all those who hate Zion. Force them to retreat.

⁶Make them be like grass on a roof, like grass that dries up before it produces a stalk.

⁷It will never fill the barns of those who harvest or the arms of those who gather bundles.

⁸Those who pass by will never say to them, "May you be blessed by the LORD" or "We bless you in the name of the LORD."

130¹ A song for going up to worship. O LORD, out of the depths I call to you.

²O Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be open to my pleas for mercy.

³O LORD, who would be able to stand if you kept a record of sins?

⁴But with you there is forgiveness so that you can be feared.

⁵I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and with hope I wait for his word.

⁶My soul waits for the LORD more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning.

⁷O Israel, put your hope in the LORD, because with the LORD there is mercy and with him there is unlimited forgiveness.

⁸He will rescue Israel from all its sins.

131¹ A song by David for going up to worship. O LORD, my heart is not conceited. My eyes do not look down on others. I am not involved in things too big or too difficult for me.

²Instead, I have kept my soul calm and quiet. My soul is content as a weaned child is content in its mothers arms.

³Israel, put your hope in the LORD now and forever.

132¹ A song for going up to worship. O LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured.

²Remember how he swore an oath to the LORD and made this vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³"I will not step inside my house,

⁴get into my bed, shut my eyes, or close my eyelids

⁵until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶Now, we have heard about the ark of the promise being in Ephrathah. We have found it in Jaar.

⁷Lets go to his dwelling place. Lets worship at his footstool.

⁸O LORD, arise, and come to your resting place with the ark of your power.

⁹Clothe your priests with righteousness. Let your godly ones sing with joy.

¹⁰For the sake of your servant David, do not reject your anointed one.

¹¹ The LORD swore an oath to David. This is a truth he will not take back: "I will set one of your own descendants on your throne.

¹² If your sons are faithful to my promise and my written instructions that I will teach them, then their descendants will also sit on your throne forever."

¹³ The LORD has chosen Zion. He wants it for his home.

¹⁴ "This will be my resting place forever. Here I will sit enthroned because I want Zion.

¹⁵ I will certainly bless all that Zion needs. I will satisfy its needy people with food.

¹⁶ I will clothe its priests with salvation. Then its godly ones will sing joyfully.

¹⁷ There I will make a horn sprout up for David. I will prepare a lamp for my anointed one.

¹⁸ I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown on my anointed one will shine."

133¹ A song by David for going up to worship. See how good and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters live together in harmony!

²It is like fine, scented oil on the head, running down the beard down Aarons beard running over the collar of his robes.

³It is like dew on Mount Hermon, dew which comes down on Zions mountains. That is where the LORD promised the blessing of eternal life.

134¹ A song for going up to worship. Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, all who stand in the house of the LORD night after night.

²Lift your hands toward the holy place, and praise the LORD.

³May the LORD, the maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

135¹ Hallelujah! Praise the name of the LORD. Praise him, you servants of the LORD

²who are standing in the house of the LORD, in the courtyards of the house of our God.

³Praise the LORD because he is good. Make music to praise his name because his name is beautiful.

⁴The LORD chose Jacob to be his own and chose Israel to be his own special treasure.

⁵I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is greater than all the false gods.

⁶The LORD does whatever he wants in heaven or on earth, on the seas or in all the depths of the oceans.

⁷He is the one who makes the clouds rise from the ends of the earth, who makes lightning for the thunderstorms, and who brings wind out of his storerooms.

⁸He is the one who killed every firstborn male in Egypt. He killed humans and animals alike.

⁹He sent miraculous signs and amazing things into the heart of Egypt against Pharaoh and all his officials.

¹⁰He is the one who defeated many nations and killed mighty kings:

¹¹King Sihon of the Amorites, King Og of Bashan, and all the kingdoms in Canaan.

¹²He gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to his people Israel.

¹³O LORD, your name endures forever.
O LORD, you will be remembered throughout every generation.

¹⁴The LORD will provide justice for his people and have compassion on his servants.

¹⁵The idols of the nations are made of silver and gold. They were made by human hands.

¹⁶They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.

¹⁷They have ears, but they cannot hear. They cannot breathe.

¹⁸Those who make idols end up like them. So does everyone who trusts them.

¹⁹Descendants of Israel, praise the LORD. Descendants of Aaron, praise the LORD.

²⁰Descendants of Levi, praise the LORD. You people who fear the LORD, praise the LORD.

²¹Thank the LORD in Zion. Thank the one who lives in Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

136 ¹Give thanks to the LORD because he is good, because his mercy endures forever.

²Give thanks to the God of gods
because his mercy endures forever.

³Give thanks to the Lord of lords
because his mercy endures forever.

⁴Give thanks to the only one who does miraculous things because his mercy endures forever.

⁵to the one who made the heavens by his understanding because his mercy
endures forever.

⁶to the one who spread out the earth on the water because his mercy endures forever.

⁷to the one who made the great lights because his mercy endures forever.

⁸the sun to rule the day because his mercy endures forever.

⁹the moon and stars to rule the night
because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁰Give thanks to the one who killed the firstborn males in Egypt because his mercy endures forever.

¹¹He brought Israel out from among them because his mercy endures forever.

¹²with a mighty hand and a powerful arm because his mercy endures forever.

¹³ Give thanks to the one who divided the Red Sea because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁴ He led Israel through the middle of it because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁵ He swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁶ Give thanks to the one who led his people through the desert because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁷ Give thanks to the one who defeated powerful kings because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁸ He killed mighty kings because his mercy endures forever.

¹⁹ King Sihon of the Amorites because his mercy endures forever.

²⁰ and King Og of Bashan because his mercy endures forever.

²¹ He gave their land as an inheritance because his mercy endures forever.

²² as an inheritance for his servant Israel because his mercy endures forever.

²³ He remembered us when we were humiliated because his mercy endures forever.

²⁴ He snatched us from the grasp of our enemies because his mercy endures forever.

²⁵ He gives food to every living creature because his mercy endures forever.

²⁶ Give thanks to the God of heaven because his mercy endures forever.

137 ¹ By the rivers of Babylon, we sat down and cried as we remembered Zion.

² We hung our lyres on willow trees.

³ It was there that those who had captured us demanded that we sing. Those who guarded us wanted us to entertain them. They said, "Sing a song from Zion for us!"

⁴ How could we sing the LORDS song in a foreign land?

⁵ If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget how to play the lyre.

⁶ Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you, if I don't consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

⁸You destructive people of Babylon, blessed is the one who pays you back with the same treatment you gave us.

⁹Blessed is the one who grabs your little children and smashes them against a rock.

138¹ By David. I will give thanks to you with all my heart. I will make music to praise you in front of the false gods.

²I will bow toward your holy temple. I will give thanks to your name because of your mercy and truth. You have made your name and your promise greater than everything.

³When I called, you answered me. You made me bold by strengthening my soul.

⁴All the kings of the earth will give thanks to you, O LORD, because they have heard the promises you spoke.

⁵They will sing this about the ways of the LORD: "The LORDS honor is great!"

⁶Even though the LORD is high above, he sees humble people close up, and he recognizes arrogant people from a distance.

⁷Even though I walk into the middle of trouble, you guard my life against the anger of my enemies. You stretch out your hand, and your right hand saves me.

⁸The LORD will do everything for me. O LORD, your mercy endures forever. Do not let go of what your hands have made.

139¹For the choir director; a psalm by David. O LORD, you have examined me, and you know me.

²You alone know when I sit down and when I get up. You read my thoughts from far away.

³You watch me when I travel and when I rest. You are familiar with all my ways.

⁴Even before there is a single word on my tongue, you know all about it, LORD.

⁵You are all around mein front of me and in back of me. You lay your hand on me.

⁶Such knowledge is beyond my grasp. It is so high I cannot reach it.

⁷Where can I go to get away from your Spirit? Where can I run to get away from you?

⁸If I go up to heaven, you are there. If I make my bed in hell, you are there.

⁹If I climb upward on the rays of the morning sun or land on the most distant shore of the sea where the sun sets, ¹⁰even there your hand would guide me and your right hand would hold on to me.

¹¹If I say, "Let the darkness hide me and let the light around me turn into night," ¹²even the darkness is not too dark for you. Night is as bright as day. Darkness and light are the same to you.

¹³You alone created my inner being. You knitted me together inside my mother.

¹⁴I will give thanks to you because I have been so amazingly and miraculously made. Your works are miraculous, and my soul is fully aware of this.

¹⁵My bones were not hidden from you when I was being made in secret, when I was being skillfully woven in an underground workshop.

¹⁶Your eyes saw me when I was only a fetus. Every day of my life was recorded in your book before one of them had taken place.

¹⁷How precious are your thoughts concerning me, O God! How vast in number they are!

¹⁸If I try to count them, there would be more of them than there are grains of sand. When I wake up, I am still with you.

¹⁹I wish that you would kill wicked people, O God, and that bloodthirsty people would leave me alone.

²⁰They say wicked things about you. Your enemies misuse your name.

²¹Shouldnt I hate those who hate you, O LORD? Shouldnt I be disgusted with those who attack you?

²²I hate them with all my heart. They have become my enemies.

²³Examine me, O God, and know my mind. Test me, and know my thoughts.

²⁴See whether I am on an evil path. Then lead me on the everlasting path.

140¹For the choir leader; a psalm by David. Rescue me from evil people, O LORD. Keep me safe from violent people.

²They plan evil things in their hearts. They start fights every day.

³They make their tongues as sharp as a snake's fang. Their lips hide the venom of poisonous snakes. Selah ⁴Protect me from the hands of wicked people, O LORD. Keep me safe from violent people. They try to trip me.

⁵Arrogant people have laid a trap for me. They have spread out a net with ropes. They have set traps for me along the road. Selah ⁶I said to the LORD, "You are my God." O LORD, open your ears to hear my plea for pity.

⁷O LORD Almighty, the strong one who saves me, you have covered my head in the day of battle.

⁸O LORD, do not give wicked people what they want. Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become arrogant. Selah ⁹Let the heads of those who surround me be covered with their own threats.

¹⁰Let burning coals fall on them. Let them be thrown into a pit, never to rise again.

¹¹Do not let slanderers prosper on earth. Let evil hunt down violent people with one blow after another.

¹²I know that the LORD will defend the rights of those who are oppressed and the cause of those who are needy.

¹³Indeed, righteous people will give thanks to your name. Decent people will live in your presence.

141 ¹A psalm by David. O LORD, I cry out to you, "Come quickly." Open your ears to me when I cry out to you.

²Let my prayer be accepted as sweet-smelling incense in your presence. Let the lifting up of my hands in prayer be accepted as an evening sacrifice.

³O LORD, set a guard at my mouth. Keep watch over the door of my lips.

⁴Do not let me be persuaded to do anything evil or to become involved with wickedness, with people who are troublemakers. Do not let me taste their delicacies.

⁵A righteous person may strike me or correct me out of kindness. It is like lotion for my head. My head will not refuse it, because my prayer is directed against evil deeds.

⁶When their judges are thrown off a cliff, they will listen to what I have to say. It will sound pleasant to them.

⁷As someone plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones will be planted at the mouth of the grave.

⁸My eyes look to you, LORD Almighty. I have taken refuge in you. Do not leave me defenseless.

⁹Keep me away from the trap they set for me and from the traps set by troublemakers.

¹⁰Let wicked people fall into their own nets, while I escape unharmed.

142¹A maskil by David when he was in the cave; a prayer. Loudly, I cry to the LORD. Loudly, I plead with the LORD for mercy.

²I pour out my complaints in his presence and tell him my troubles.

³When I begin to lose hope, you already know what I am experiencing. My enemies have hidden a trap for me on the path where I walk.

⁴Look to my right and see that no one notices me. Escape is impossible for me. No one cares about me.

⁵I call out to you, O LORD. I say, "You are my refuge, my own inheritance in this world of the living."

⁶Pay attention to my cry for help because I am very weak. Rescue me from those who pursue me because they are too strong for me.

⁷Release my soul from prison so that I may give thanks to your name. Righteous people will surround me because you are good to me.

143¹ A psalm by David. O LORD, listen to my prayer. Open your ears to hear my urgent requests. Answer me because you are faithful and righteous.

²Do not take me to court for judgment, because there is no one alive who is righteous in your presence.

³The enemy has pursued me. He has ground my life into the dirt. He has made me live in dark places like those who have died long ago.

⁴That is why I begin to lose hope and my heart is in a state of shock.

⁵I remember the days long ago. I reflect on all that you have done. I carefully consider what your hands have made.

⁶I stretch out my hands to you in prayer. Like parched land, my soul thirsts for you. Selah ⁷Answer me quickly, O LORD. My spirit is worn out. Do not hide your face from me, or I will be like those who go into the pit.

⁸Let me hear about your mercy in the morning, because I trust you. Let me know the way that I should go, because I long for you.

⁹Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD. I come to you for protection.

¹⁰Teach me to do your will, because you are my God. May your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

¹¹O LORD, keep me alive for the sake of your name. Because you are righteous, lead me out of trouble.

¹²In keeping with your mercy, wipe out my enemies and destroy all who torment me, because I am your servant.

144¹By David. Thank the LORD, my rock, who trained my hands to fight and my fingers to do battle, ²my merciful one, my fortress, my stronghold, and my savior, my shield, the one in whom I take refuge, and the one who brings people under my authority.

³O LORD, what are humans that you should care about them? What are mere mortals that you should think about them?

⁴Humans are like a breath of air. Their life span is like a fleeting shadow.

⁵O LORD, bend your heaven low, and come down. Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

⁶Hurl bolts of lightning, and scatter them. Shoot your arrows, and throw them into confusion.

⁷Stretch out your hands from above. Snatch me, and rescue me from raging waters and from foreigners hands.

⁸Their mouths speak lies. Their right hands take false pledges.

⁹O God, I will sing a new song to you. I will sing a psalm to you on a tenstringed harp.

¹⁰You are the one who gives victory to kings. You are the one who snatches your servant David away from a deadly sword.

¹¹ Snatch me, and rescue me from foreigners hands. Their mouths speak lies. Their right hands take false pledges.

¹² May our sons be like fullgrown, young plants. May our daughters be like stately columns that adorn the corners of a palace.

¹³ May our barns be filled with all kinds of crops. May our sheep give birth to thousands of lambs, tens of thousands in our fields.

¹⁴ May our cattle have many calves. May no one break in, and may no one be dragged out. May there be no cries of distress in our streets.

¹⁵ Blessed are the people who have these blessings! Blessed are the people whose God is the LORD!

145¹ A song of praise by David. I will highly praise you, my God, the king. I will bless your name forever and ever.

² I will bless you every day. I will praise your name forever and ever.

³ The LORD is great, and he should be highly praised. His greatness is unsearchable.

⁴One generation will praise your deeds to the next. Each generation will talk about your mighty acts.

⁵I will think about the glorious honor of your majesty and the miraculous things you have done.

⁶People will talk about the power of your terrifying deeds, and I will tell about your greatness.

⁷They will announce what they remember of your great goodness, and they will joyfully sing about your righteousness.

⁸The LORD is merciful, compassionate, patient, and always ready to forgive.

⁹The LORD is good to everyone and has compassion for everything that he has made.

¹⁰Everything that you have made will give thanks to you, O LORD, and your faithful ones will praise you.

¹¹Everyone will talk about the glory of your kingdom and will tell the descendants of Adam about your might ¹²in order to make known your mighty deeds and the glorious honor of your kingdom.

¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Your empire endures throughout every generation.

¹⁴The LORD supports everyone who falls. He straightens the backs of those who are bent over.

¹⁵The eyes of all creatures look to you, and you give them their food at the proper time.

¹⁶You open your hand, and you satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷The LORD is fair in all his ways and faithful in everything he does.

¹⁸The LORD is near to everyone who prays to him, to every faithful person who prays to him.

¹⁹He fills the needs of those who fear him. He hears their cries for help and saves them.

²⁰The LORD protects everyone who loves him, but he will destroy all wicked people.

²¹My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and all living creatures will praise his holy name forever and ever.

146¹ Hallelujah! Praise the LORD, my soul!

²I want to praise the LORD throughout my life. I want to make music to praise my God as long as I live.

³Do not trust influential people, mortals who cannot help you.

⁴When they breathe their last breath, they return to the ground. On that day their plans come to an end.

⁵Blessed are those who receive help from the God of Jacob. Their hope rests on the LORD their God, ⁶who made heaven, earth, the sea, and everything in them. The LORD remains faithful forever.

⁷He brings about justice for those who are oppressed. He gives food to those who are hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free.

⁸The LORD gives sight to blind people. The LORD straightens the backs of those who are bent over. The LORD loves righteous people.

⁹The LORD protects foreigners. The LORD gives relief to orphans and widows. But he keeps wicked people from reaching their goal.

¹⁰The LORD rules as king forever.
Zion, your God rules throughout every generation. Hallelujah!

147 ¹Hallelujah! It is good to sing psalms to our God. It is pleasant to sing his praise beautifully.

²The LORD is the builder of Jerusalem.
He is the one who gathers the outcasts of Israel together.

³He is the healer of the brokenhearted.
He is the one who bandages their wounds.

⁴He determines the number of stars.
He gives each one a name.

⁵Our Lord is great, and his power is great. There is no limit to his understanding.

⁶The LORD gives relief to those who are oppressed. He brings wicked people down to the ground.

⁷Sing to the LORD a song of thanksgiving. Make music to our God with a lyre.

⁸He covers the sky with clouds. He provides rain for the ground. He makes grass grow on the mountains.

⁹He is the one who gives food to animals and to young ravens when they call out.

¹⁰He finds no joy in strong horses, nor is he pleased by brave soldiers.

¹¹The LORD is pleased with those who fear him, with those who wait with hope for his mercy.

¹²Praise the LORD, Jerusalem! Praise your God, Zion!

¹³He makes the bars across your gates strong. He blesses the children within you.

¹⁴He is the one who brings peace to your borders and satisfies your hunger with the finest wheat.

¹⁵He is the one who sends his promise throughout the earth. His word travels with great speed.

¹⁶He is the one who sends snow like wool and scatters frost like ashes.

¹⁷He is the one who throws his hailstones like breadcrumbs. Who can withstand his chilling blast?

¹⁸He sends out his word and melts his hailstones. He makes wind blow and water flow.

¹⁹He speaks his word to Jacob, his laws and judicial decisions to Israel.

²⁰He has done nothing like this for any other nation. The other nations do not know the decisions he has handed down. Hallelujah!

148¹ Hallelujah! Praise the LORD from the heavens. Praise him in the heights above.

²Praise him, all his angels. Praise him, his entire heavenly army.

³Praise him, sun and moon. Praise him, all shining stars.

⁴Praise him, you highest heaven and the water above the sky.

⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD because they were created by his command.

⁶He set them in their places forever and ever. He made it a law that no one can break.

⁷Praise the LORD from the earth. Praise him, large sea creatures and all the ocean depths, ⁸lightning and hail, snow and fog, strong winds that obey his commands, ⁹mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedar trees,

¹⁰wild animals and all domestic animals, crawling animals and birds,

¹¹kings of the earth and all its people, officials and all judges on the earth, ¹²young men and women, old and young together.

¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD because his name is high above all others. His glory is above heaven and earth.

¹⁴He has given his people a strong leader, someone praiseworthy for his faithful ones, for the people of Israel, the people who are close to him. Hallelujah!

149¹ Hallelujah! Sing a new song to the LORD. Sing his praise in the assembly of godly people.

²Let Israel find joy in their creator. Let the people of Zion rejoice over their king.

³Let them praise his name with dancing. Let them make music to him with tambourines and lyres, ⁴because the LORD takes pleasure in his people. He crowns those who are oppressed with victory.

⁵Let godly people triumph in glory. Let them sing for joy on their beds.

⁶Let the high praises of God be in their throats and twoedged swords in their hands

⁷to take vengeance on the nations, to punish the people of the world,

⁸to put their kings in chains and their leaders in iron shackles, ⁹to carry out the judgment that is written against them. This is an honor that belongs to all his godly ones.

Hallelujah!

150¹ Hallelujah! Praise God in his holy place. Praise him in his mighty heavens.

²Praise him for his mighty acts. Praise him for his immense greatness.

⁴Praise him with tambourines and dancing. Praise him with stringed instruments and flutes.

⁵Praise him with loud cymbals. Praise him with crashing cymbals.

⁶Let everything that breathes praise the LORD! Hallelujah!

Proverbs

1 ¹ The proverbs of Solomon, Davids son who was king of Israel, given ² to grasp wisdom and discipline, to understand deep thoughts,

³ to acquire the discipline of wise behavior, righteousness and justice and fairness

⁴ to give insight to gullible people, to give knowledge and foresight to the young

⁵ a wise person will listen and continue to learn, and an understanding person will gain direction

⁶ to understand a proverb and a clever saying, the words of wise people and their riddles.

⁷ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. Stubborn fools despise wisdom and discipline.

⁸ My son, listen to your fathers discipline, and do not neglect your mothers teachings, ⁹because discipline and teachings are a graceful garland on your head and a golden chain around your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners lure you, do not go along.

¹¹If they say, "Come with us. Let's set an ambush to kill someone. Let's hide to ambush innocent people for fun.

¹²We'll swallow them alive like the grave, like those in good health who go into the pit.

¹³We'll find all kinds of valuable possessions. We'll fill our homes with stolen goods.

¹⁴Join us. We'll split the loot equally."

¹⁵My son, do not follow them in their way. Do not even set foot on their path, ¹⁶because they rush to do evil and hurry to shed blood.

¹⁷It does no good to spread a net within the sight of any bird.

¹⁸But these people set an ambush for their own murder. They go into hiding only to lose their lives.

¹⁹This is what happens to everyone who is greedy for unjust gain. Greed takes away his life.

²⁰Wisdom sings her song in the streets. In the public squares she raises her voice.

²¹At the corners of noisy streets she calls out. At the entrances to the city she speaks her words, ²²"How long will you gullible people love being so gullible? How long will you mockers find joy in your mocking? How long will you fools hate knowledge?

²³"Turn to me when I warn you. I will generously pour out my spirit for you. I will make my words known to you.

²⁴"I called, and you refused to listen. I stretched out my hands to you, and no one paid attention.

²⁵You ignored all my advice. You did not want me to warn you.

²⁶I will laugh at your calamity. I will make fun of you when panic strikes you, ²⁷when panic strikes you like a violent storm, when calamity strikes you like a wind storm, when trouble and anguish come to you.

²⁸"They will call to me at that time, but I will not answer. They will look for me, but they will not find me, ²⁹because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD.

³⁰They refused my advice. They despised my every warning.

³¹They will eat the fruit of their lifestyle. They will be stuffed with their own schemes.

³²"Gullible people kill themselves because of their turning away. Fools destroy themselves because of their indifference.

³³But whoever listens to me will live without worry and will be free from the dread of disaster."

2¹My son, if you take my words to heart and treasure my commands within you,

²if you pay close attention to wisdom, and let your mind reach for understanding,

³if indeed you call out for insight, if you ask aloud for understanding,

⁴if you search for wisdom as if it were money and hunt for it as if it were hidden treasure, ⁵then you will understand the fear of the LORD and you will find the knowledge of God.

⁶The LORD gives wisdom. From his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

⁷He has reserved priceless wisdom for decent people. He is a shield for those who walk in integrity ⁸in order to guard those on paths of justice and to watch over the way of his godly ones.

⁹Then you will understand what is right and just and fair every good course in life.

¹⁰Wisdom will come into your heart. Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

¹¹Foresight will protect you. Understanding will guard you.

¹²Wisdom will save you from the way of evil, from the person who speaks devious things, ¹³from those who abandon the paths of righteousness to walk the ways of darkness, ¹⁴from those who enjoy doing evil, from those who find joy in the deviousness of evil.

¹⁵Their paths are crooked. Their ways are devious.

¹⁶Wisdom will also save you from an adulterous woman, from a loose woman with her smooth talk, ¹⁷who leaves her husband, the closest friend of her youth, and forgets her marriage vows to her God.

¹⁸Her house sinks down to death. Her ways lead to the souls of the dead.

¹⁹None who have sex with her come back. Nor do they ever reach the paths of life.

²⁰So walk in the way of good people and stay on the paths of righteous people.

²¹Decent people will live in the land. People of integrity will remain in it.

²²But wicked people will be cut off from the land and treacherous people will be torn from it.

3¹ My son, do not forget my teachings, and keep my commands in mind, ²because they will bring you long life, good years, and peace.

³Do not let mercy and truth leave you. Fasten them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴Then you will find favor and much success in the sight of God and humanity.

⁵Trust the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding.

⁶In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths smooth.

⁷Do not consider yourself wise. Fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

⁸Then your body will be healed, and your bones will have nourishment.

⁹Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the first and best part of all your income.

¹⁰Then your barns will be full, and your vats will overflow with fresh wine.

¹¹Do not reject the discipline of the LORD, my son, and do not resent his warning, ¹²because the LORD warns the one he loves, even as a father warns a son with whom he is pleased.

¹³Blessed is the one who finds wisdom and the one who obtains understanding.

¹⁴The profit gained from wisdom is greater than the profit gained from silver. Its yield is better than fine gold.

¹⁵Wisdom is more precious than jewels, and all your desires cannot equal it.

¹⁶Long life is in wisdom's right hand. In wisdom's left hand are riches and honor.

¹⁷Wisdoms ways are pleasant ways, and all its paths lead to peace.

¹⁸Wisdom is a tree of life for those who take firm hold of it. Those who cling to it are blessed.

¹⁹By Wisdom the LORD laid the foundation of the earth. By understanding he established the heavens.

²⁰By his knowledge the deep waters were divided, and the skies dropped dew.

²¹My son, do not lose sight of these things. Use priceless wisdom and foresight.

²²Then they will mean life for you, and they will grace your neck.

²³Then you will go safely on your way, and you will not hurt your foot.

²⁴When you lie down, you will not be afraid. As you lie there, your sleep will be sweet.

²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the destruction of wicked people when it comes.

²⁶The LORD will be your confidence. He will keep your foot from getting caught.

²⁷ Do not hold back anything good from those who are entitled to it when you have the power to do so.

²⁸ When you have the good thing with you, do not tell your neighbor, "Go away! Come back tomorrow. I'll give you something then."

²⁹ Do not plan to do something wrong to your neighbor while he is sitting there with you and suspecting nothing.

³⁰ Do not quarrel with a person for no reason if he has not harmed you.

³¹ Do not envy a violent person. Do not choose any of his ways.

³² The devious person is disgusting to the LORD. The LORDS intimate advice is with decent people.

³³ The LORD curses the house of wicked people, but he blesses the home of righteous people.

³⁴ When he mocks the mockers, he is gracious to humble people.

³⁵ Wise people will inherit honor, but fools will bear disgrace.

4¹ Sons, listen to your fathers discipline, and pay attention in order to gain understanding.

²After all, I have taught you well. Do not abandon my teachings.

³When I was a boy learning from my father, when I was a tender and only child of my mother, ⁴they used to teach me and say to me, "Cling to my words wholeheartedly. Obey my commands so that you may live.

⁵Acquire wisdom. Acquire understanding. Do not forget. Do not turn away from the words that I have spoken.

⁶Do not abandon wisdom, and it will watch over you. Love wisdom, and it will protect you.

⁷The beginning of wisdom is to acquire wisdom. Acquire understanding with all that you have.

⁸Cherish wisdom. It will raise you up. It will bring you honor when you embrace it.

⁹It will give you a graceful garland for your head. It will hand you a beautiful crown."

¹⁰My son, listen and accept my words, and they will multiply the years of your life.

¹¹ I have taught you the way of wisdom.
I have guided you along decent paths.

¹² When you walk, your stride will not be hampered. Even if you run, you will not stumble.

¹³ Cling to discipline. Do not relax your grip on it. Keep it because it is your life.

¹⁴ Do not stray onto the path of wicked people. Do not walk in the way of evil people.

¹⁵ Avoid it. Do not walk near it. Turn away from it, and keep on walking.

¹⁶ Wicked people cannot sleep unless they do wrong, and they are robbed of their sleep unless they make someone stumble.

¹⁷ They eat food obtained through wrongdoing and drink wine obtained through violence.

¹⁸ But the path of righteous people is like the light of dawn that becomes brighter and brighter until it reaches midday.

¹⁹ The way of wicked people is like deep darkness. They do not know what makes them stumble.

²⁰ My son, pay attention to my words.
Open your ears to what I say.

²¹ Do not lose sight of these things.
Keep them deep within your heart

²² because they are life to those who find them and they heal the whole body.

²³ Guard your heart more than anything else, because the source of your life flows from it.

²⁴ Remove dishonesty from your mouth.
Put deceptive speech far away from your lips.

²⁵ Let your eyes look straight ahead and your sight be focused in front of you.

²⁶ Carefully walk a straight path, and all your ways will be secure.

Walk away from evil.

5¹ My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Open your ears to my understanding

² so that you may act with foresight and speak with insight.

³ The lips of an adulterous woman drip with honey. Her kiss is smoother than oil,

⁴ but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, as sharp as a twoedged sword.

⁵ Her feet descend to death. Her steps lead straight to hell.

⁶ She doesn't even think about the path of life. Her steps wander, and she doesn't realize it.

⁷ But now, sons, listen to me, and do not turn away from what I say to you.

⁸ Stay far away from her. Do not even go near her door.

⁹ Either you will surrender your reputation to others and the rest of your years to some cruel person, ¹⁰ or strangers will benefit from your strength and you will have to work hard in a pagan's house.

¹¹ Then you will groan when your end comes, when your body and flesh are consumed. You will say, ¹² "Oh, how I hated discipline! How my heart despised correction!

¹³ I didn't listen to what my teachers said to me, nor did I keep my ear open to my instructors.

¹⁴ I almost reached total ruin in the assembly and in the congregation."

¹⁵ Drink water out of your own cistern and running water from your own well.

¹⁶Why should water flow out of your spring? Why should your streams flow into the streets?

¹⁷They should be yours alone, so do not share them with strangers.

¹⁸Let your own fountain be blessed, and enjoy the girl you married when you were young,

¹⁹a loving doe and a graceful deer. Always let her breasts satisfy you. Always be intoxicated with her love.

²⁰Why should you, my son, be intoxicated with an adulterous woman and fondle a loose womans breast?

²¹Each persons ways are clearly seen by the LORD, and he surveys all his actions.

²²A wicked person will be trapped by his own wrongs, and he will be caught in the ropes of his own sin.

²³He will die for his lack of discipline and stumble around because of his great stupidity.

6¹My son, if you guarantee a loan for your neighbor or pledge yourself for a stranger with a handshake, ²you are trapped by the words of your own mouth, caught by your own promise.

³Do the following things, my son, so that you may free yourself, because you have fallen into your neighbors hands: Humble yourself, and pester your neighbor.

⁴Don't let your eyes rest or your eyelids close.

⁵Free yourself like a gazelle from the hand of a hunter and like a bird from the hand of a hunter.

⁶Consider the ant, you lazy bum. Watch its ways, and become wise.

⁷Although it has no overseer, officer, or ruler,

⁸in summertime it stores its food supply. At harvest time it gathers its food.

⁹How long will you lie there, you lazy bum? When will you get up from your sleep?

¹⁰"Just a little sleep, just a little slumber, just a little nap."

¹¹Then your poverty will come to you like a drifter, and your need will come to you like a bandit.

¹²A goodfornothing scoundrel is a person who has a dishonest mouth.

¹³He winks his eye, makes a signal with his foot, and points with his fingers.

¹⁴He devises evil all the time with a twisted mind. He spreads conflict.

¹⁵That is why disaster will come on him suddenly. In a moment he will be crushed beyond recovery.

¹⁶There are six things that the LORD hates, even seven that are disgusting to him:

¹⁷arrogant eyes, a lying tongue, hands that kill innocent people,

¹⁸a mind devising wicked plans, feet that are quick to do wrong,

¹⁹a dishonest witness spitting out lies, and a person who spreads conflict among relatives.

²⁰My son, obey the command of your father, and do not disregard the teachings of your mother.

²¹Fasten them on your heart forever. Hang them around your neck.

²²When you walk around, they will lead you. When you lie down, they will watch over you. When you wake up, they will talk to you

²³ because the command is a lamp, the teachings are a light, and the warnings from discipline are the path of life

²⁴ to keep you from an evil woman and from the smooth talk of a loose woman.

²⁵ Do not desire her beauty in your heart. Do not let her catch you with her eyes.

²⁶ A prostitutes price is only a loaf of bread, but a married woman hunts for your life itself.

²⁷ Can a man carry fire in his lap without burning his clothes?

²⁸ Can anyone walk on redhot coals without burning his feet?

²⁹ So it is with a man who has sex with his neighbors wife. None who touch her will escape punishment.

³⁰ People do not despise a thief who is hungry when he steals to satisfy his appetite, ³¹ but when he is caught, he has to repay it seven times. He must give up all the possessions in his house.

³² Whoever commits adultery with a woman has no sense. Whoever does this destroys himself.

³³ An adulterous man will find disease and dishonor, and his disgrace will not be blotted out, ³⁴ because jealousy arouses a husband's fury. The husband will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

³⁵ No amount of money will change his mind. The largest bribe will not satisfy him.

7 ¹ My son, pay attention to my words. Treasure my commands that are within you.

² Obey my commands so that you may live. Follow my teachings just as you protect the pupil of your eye.

³ Tie them on your fingers. Write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁵ in order to guard yourself from an adulterous woman, from a loose woman with her smooth talk.

⁶ From a window in my house I looked through my screen.

⁷ I was looking at gullible people when I saw a young man without much sense among youths.

⁸He was crossing a street near her corner and walking toward her house ⁹in the twilight, in the evening, in the dark hours of the night.

¹⁰A woman with an ulterior motive meets him. She is dressed as a prostitute.

¹¹She is loud and rebellious. Her feet will not stay at home.

¹²One moment she is out on the street, the next she is at the curb, on the prowl at every corner.

¹³She grabs him and kisses him and brazenly says to him, ¹⁴"I have some sacrificial meat. Today I kept my vows.

¹⁵That's why I came to meet you. Eagerly, I looked for you, and I've found you.

¹⁶I've made my bed, with colored sheets of Egyptian linen.

¹⁷I've sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

¹⁸Come, let's drink our fill of love until morning. Let's enjoy making love, ¹⁹because my husband's not home. He has gone on a long trip.

²⁰He took lots of money with him. He won't be home for a couple of weeks."

²¹With all her seductive charms, she persuades him. With her smooth lips, she makes him give in.

²²He immediately follows her like a steer on its way to be slaughtered, like a ram hobbling into captivity ²³until an arrow pierces his heart, like a bird darting into a trap. He does not realize that it will cost him his life.

²⁴Now, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words from my mouth.

²⁵Do not let your heart be turned to her ways. Do not wander onto her paths, ²⁶because she has brought down many victims, and she has killed all too many.

²⁷Her home is the way to hell and leads to the darkest vaults of death.

8¹ Does not wisdom call out? Does not understanding raise its voice?

²Wisdom takes its stand on high ground, by the wayside where the roads meet, ³near the gates to the city. At the entrance wisdom sings its song, ⁴"I am calling to all of you, and my appeal is to all people.

⁵You gullible people, learn how to be sensible. You fools, get a heart that has understanding.

⁶Listen! I am speaking about noble things, and my lips will say what is right.

⁷My mouth expresses the truth, and wickedness is disgusting to my lips.

⁸Everything I say is fair, and there is nothing twisted or crooked in it.

⁹All of it is clear to a person who has understanding and right to those who have acquired knowledge.

¹⁰Take my discipline, not silver, and my knowledge rather than fine gold, ¹¹because wisdom is better than jewels. Nothing you desire can equal it.

¹²"I, Wisdom, live with insight, and I acquire knowledge and foresight.

¹³To fear the LORD is to hate evil. I hate pride, arrogance, evil behavior, and twisted speech.

¹⁴Advice and priceless wisdom are mine. I, Understanding, have strength.

¹⁵Through me kings reign, and rulers decree fair laws.

¹⁶Through me princes rule, so do nobles and all fair judges.

¹⁷I love those who love me. Those eagerly looking for me will find me.

¹⁸I have riches and honor, lasting wealth and righteousness.

¹⁹What I produce is better than gold, pure gold. What I yield is better than fine silver.

²⁰I walk in the way of righteousness, on the paths of justice, ²¹to give an inheritance to those who love me and to fill their treasuries.

²²"The LORD already possessed me long ago, when his way began, before any of his works.

²³I was appointed from everlasting from the first, before the earth began.

²⁴I was born before there were oceans, before there were springs filled with water.

²⁵I was born before the mountains were settled in their places and before the hills, ²⁶when he had not yet made land or fields or the first dust of the world.

²⁷"When he set up the heavens, I was there. When he traced the horizon on the surface of the ocean, ²⁸when he established the skies above, when he determined the currents in the ocean,

²⁹when he set a limit for the sea so the waters would not overstep his command, when he traced the foundations of the earth,

³⁰I was beside him as a master craftsman. I made him happy day after day, I rejoiced in front of him all the time,

³¹found joy in his inhabited world, and delighted in the human race.

³²"Now, sons, listen to me. Blessed are those who follow my ways.

³³Listen to discipline, and become wise.
Do not leave my ways.

³⁴Blessed is the person who listens to me, watches at my door day after day, and waits by my doorposts.

³⁵Whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD.

³⁶Whoever sins against me harms himself. All those who hate me love death."

9¹Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars.

²She has prepared her meat. She has mixed her wine. She has set her table.

³She has sent out her servant girls. She calls from the highest places in the city,

⁴"Whoever is gullible turn in here!" She says to a person without sense, ⁵"Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have mixed.

⁶Stop being gullible and live. Start traveling the road to understanding."

⁷Whoever corrects a mocker receives abuse. Whoever warns a wicked person gets hurt.

⁸Do not warn a mocker, or he will hate you. Warn a wise person, and he will love you.

⁹Give advice to a wise person, and he will become even wiser. Teach a righteous person, and he will learn more.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

¹¹You will live longer because of me, and years will be added to your life.

¹²If you are wise, your wisdom will help you. If you mock, you alone will be held responsible.

¹³The woman Stupidity is loud, gullible, and ignorant.

¹⁴She sits at the doorway of her house. She is enthroned on the high ground of the city

¹⁵and calls to those who pass by, those minding their own business,

¹⁶"Whoever is gullible turn in here!" She says to a person without sense,

¹⁷"Stolen waters are sweet, and food eaten in secret is tasty."

¹⁸But he does not know that the souls of the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of hell.

10¹The proverbs of Solomon: A wise son makes his father happy, but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

²Treasures gained dishonestly profit no one, but righteousness rescues from death.

³The LORD will not allow a righteous person to starve, but he intentionally ignores the desires of a wicked person.

⁴Lazy hands bring poverty, but hardworking hands bring riches.

⁵Whoever gathers in the summer is a wise son. Whoever sleeps at harvest time brings shame.

⁶Blessings cover the head of a righteous person, but violence covers the mouths of wicked people.

⁷The name of a righteous person remains blessed, but the names of wicked people will rot away.

⁸The one who is truly wise accepts commands, but the one who talks foolishly will be thrown down headfirst.

⁹Whoever lives honestly will live securely, but whoever lives dishonestly will be found out.

¹⁰Whoever winks with his eye causes heartache. The one who talks foolishly will be thrown down headfirst.

¹¹The mouth of a righteous person is a fountain of life, but the mouths of wicked people conceal violence.

¹²Hate starts quarrels, but love covers every wrong.

¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of a person who has understanding, but a rod is for the back of one without sense.

¹⁴Those who are wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a stubborn fool invites ruin.

¹⁵The rich persons wealth is his strong city. Poverty ruins the poor.

¹⁶A righteous persons reward is life. A wicked persons harvest is sin.

¹⁷Whoever practices discipline is on the way to life, but whoever ignores a warning strays.

¹⁸Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips. Whoever spreads slander is a fool.

¹⁹Sin is unavoidable when there is much talk, but whoever seals his lips is wise.

²⁰The tongue of a righteous person is pure silver. The hearts of wicked people are worthless.

²¹The lips of a righteous person feed many, but stubborn fools die because they have no sense.

²²It is the LORDS blessing that makes a person rich, and hard work adds nothing to it.

²³Like the laughter of a fool when he carries out an evil plan, so is wisdom to a person who has understanding.

²⁴That which wicked people dread happens to them, but the LORD grants the desire of righteous people.

²⁵When the storm has passed, the wicked person has vanished, but the righteous person has an everlasting foundation.

²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth, like smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy person to those who send him on a mission.

²⁷The fear of the LORD lengthens the number of days, but the years of wicked people are shortened.

²⁸The hope of righteous people leads to joy, but the eager waiting of wicked people comes to nothing.

²⁹The way of the LORD is a fortress for an innocent person but a ruin to those who are troublemakers.

³⁰A righteous person will never be moved, but wicked people will not continue to live in the land.

³¹The mouth of a righteous person increases wisdom, but a devious tongue will be cut off.

³²The lips of a righteous person announce good will, but the mouths of wicked people are devious.

11 ¹Dishonest scales are disgusting to the LORD, but accurate weights are pleasing to him.

²Arrogance comes, then comes shame, but wisdom remains with humble people.

³ Integrity guides decent people, but hypocrisy leads treacherous people to ruin.

⁴ Riches are of no help on the day of fury, but righteousness saves from death.

⁵ The righteousness of innocent people makes their road smooth, but wicked people fall by their own wickedness.

⁶ Decent people are saved by their righteousness, but treacherous people are trapped by their own greed.

⁷ At the death of a wicked person, hope vanishes. Moreover, his confidence in strength vanishes.

⁸ A righteous person is rescued from trouble, and a wicked person takes his place.

⁹ With his talk a godless person can ruin his neighbor, but righteous people are rescued by knowledge.

¹⁰ When righteous people prosper, a city is glad. When wicked people die, there are songs of joy.

¹¹ With the blessing of decent people a city is raised up, but by the words of wicked people, it is torn down.

¹²A person who despises a neighbor has no sense, but a person who has understanding keeps quiet.

¹³Whoever gossips gives away secrets, but whoever is trustworthy in spirit can keep a secret.

¹⁴A nation will fall when there is no direction, but with many advisers there is victory.

¹⁵Whoever guarantees a strangers loan will get into trouble, but whoever hates the closing of a deal remains secure.

¹⁶A gracious woman wins respect, but ruthless men gain riches.

¹⁷A merciful person helps himself, but a cruel person hurts himself.

¹⁸A wicked person earns dishonest wages, but whoever spreads righteousness earns honest pay.

¹⁹As righteousness leads to life, so whoever pursues evil finds his own death.

²⁰Devious people are disgusting to the LORD, but he is delighted with those whose ways are innocent.

²¹Certainly, an evil person will not go unpunished, but the descendants of righteous people will escape.

²² Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, so is a beautiful woman who lacks good taste.

²³ The desire of righteous people ends only in good, but the hope of wicked people ends only in fury.

²⁴ One person spends freely and yet grows richer, while another holds back what he owes and yet grows poorer.

²⁵ A generous person will be made rich, and whoever satisfies others will himself be satisfied.

²⁶ People will curse the one who hoards grain, but a blessing will be upon the head of the one who sells it.

²⁷ Whoever eagerly seeks good searches for good will, but whoever looks for evil finds it.

²⁸ Whoever trusts his riches will fall, but righteous people will flourish like a green leaf.

²⁹ Whoever brings trouble upon his family inherits only wind, and that stubborn fool becomes a slave to the wise in heart.

³⁰ The fruit of a righteous person is a tree of life, and a winner of souls is wise.

³¹ If the righteous person is rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked person and the sinner!

12¹ Whoever loves discipline loves to learn, but whoever hates correction is a dumb animal.

² A good person obtains favor from the LORD, but the LORD condemns everyone who schemes.

³ A person cannot stand firm on a foundation of wickedness, and the roots of righteous people cannot be moved.

⁴ A wife with strength of character is the crown of her husband, but the wife who disgraces him is like bone cancer.

⁵ The thoughts of righteous people are fair. The advice of wicked people is treacherous.

⁶ The words of wicked people are a deadly ambush, but the words of decent people rescue.

⁷ Overthrow wicked people, and they are no more, but the families of righteous people continue to stand.

⁸ A person will be praised based on his insight, but whoever has a twisted mind will be despised.

⁹ Better to be unimportant and have a slave than to act important and have nothing to eat.

¹⁰ A righteous person cares even about the life of his animals, but the compassion of wicked people is nothing but cruelty.

¹¹ Whoever works his land will have plenty to eat, but the one who chases unrealistic dreams has no sense.

¹² A wicked person delights in setting a trap for other evil people, but the roots of righteous people produce fruit.

¹³ An evil person is trapped by his own sinful talk, but a righteous person escapes from trouble.

¹⁴ One person enjoys good things as a result of his speaking ability. Another is paid according to what his hands have accomplished.

¹⁵ A stubborn fool considers his own way the right one, but a person who listens to advice is wise.

¹⁶ When a stubborn fool is irritated, he shows it immediately, but a sensible person hides the insult.

¹⁷ A truthful witness speaks honestly, but a lying witness speaks deceitfully.

¹⁸Careless words stab like a sword, but the words of wise people bring healing.

¹⁹The word of truth lasts forever, but lies last only a moment.

²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who plan evil, but joy belongs to those who advise peace.

²¹No lasting harm comes to a righteous person, but wicked people have lots of trouble.

²²Lips that lie are disgusting to the LORD, but honest people are his delight.

²³A sensible person discreetly hides knowledge, but foolish minds preach stupidity.

²⁴Hardworking hands gain control, but lazy hands do slave labor.

²⁵A person's anxiety will weigh him down, but an encouraging word makes him joyful.

²⁶A righteous person looks out for his neighbor, but the path of wicked people leads others astray.

²⁷A lazy hunter does not catch his prey, but a hardworking person becomes wealthy.

²⁸Everlasting life is on the way of righteousness. Eternal death is not along its path.

13¹ A wise son listens to his fathers discipline, but a mocker does not listen to reprimands.

²A person eats well as a result of his speaking ability, but the appetite of treacherous people craves violence.

³Whoever controls his mouth protects his own life. Whoever has a big mouth comes to ruin.

⁴A lazy person craves food and there is none, but the appetite of hardworking people is satisfied.

⁵A righteous person hates lying, but a wicked person behaves with shame and disgrace.

⁶Righteousness protects the honest way of life, but wickedness ruins a sacrifice for sin.

⁷One person pretends to be rich but has nothing. Another pretends to be poor but has great wealth.

⁸A persons riches are the ransom for his life, but the poor person does not pay attention to threats.

⁹The light of righteous people beams brightly, but the lamp of wicked people will be snuffed out.

¹⁰Arrogance produces only quarreling, but those who take advice gain wisdom.

¹¹Wealth gained through injustice dwindles away, but whoever gathers little by little has plenty.

¹²Delayed hope makes one sick at heart, but a fulfilled longing is a tree of life.

¹³Whoever despises Gods words will pay the penalty, but the one who fears Gods commands will be rewarded.

¹⁴The teachings of a wise person are a fountain of life to turn one away from the grasp of death.

¹⁵Good sense brings favor, but the way of treacherous people is always the same.

¹⁶Any sensible person acts with knowledge, but a fool displays stupidity.

¹⁷An undependable messenger gets into trouble, but a dependable envoy brings healing.

¹⁸Poverty and shame come to a person who ignores discipline, but whoever pays attention to constructive criticism will be honored.

¹⁹A fulfilled desire is sweet to the soul, but turning from evil is disgusting to fools.

²⁰Whoever walks with wise people will be wise, but whoever associates with fools will suffer.

²¹Disaster hunts down sinners, but righteous people are rewarded with good.

²²Good people leave an inheritance to their grandchildren, but the wealth of sinners is stored away for a righteous person.

²³When poor people are able to plow, there is much food, but a person is swept away where there is no justice.

²⁴Whoever refuses to spank his son hates him, but whoever loves his son disciplines him from early on.

²⁵A righteous person eats to satisfy his appetite, but the bellies of wicked people are always empty.

14¹The wisest of women builds up her home, but a stupid one tears it down with her own hands.

²Whoever lives right fears the LORD, but a person who is devious in his ways despises him.

³Because of a stubborn fools words a whip is lifted against him, but wise people are protected by their speech.

⁴Where there are no cattle, the feeding trough is empty, but the strength of an ox produces plentiful harvests.

⁵A trustworthy witness does not lie, but a dishonest witness breathes lies.

⁶A mocker searches for wisdom without finding it, but knowledge comes easily to a person who has understanding.

⁷Stay away from a fool, because you will not receive knowledge from his lips.

⁸The wisdom of a sensible person guides his way of life, but the stupidity of fools misleads them.

⁹Stubborn fools make fun of guilt, but there is forgiveness among decent people.

¹⁰The heart knows its own bitterness, and no stranger can share its joy.

¹¹The houses of wicked people will be destroyed, but the tents of decent people will continue to expand.

¹²There is a way that seems right to a person, but eventually it ends in death.

¹³Even while laughing a heart can ache, and joy can end in grief.

¹⁴A heart that turns from God becomes bored with its own ways, but a good person is satisfied with Gods ways.

¹⁵A gullible person believes anything, but a sensible person watches his step.

¹⁶A wise person is cautious and turns away from evil, but a fool is careless and overconfident.

¹⁷A shorttempered person acts stupidly, and a person who plots evil is hated.

¹⁸Gullible people are gifted with stupidity, but sensible people are crowned with knowledge.

¹⁹Evil people will bow to good people. Wicked people will bow at the gates of a righteous person.

²⁰A poor person is hated even by his neighbor, but a rich person is loved by many.

²¹Whoever despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is the one who is kind to humble people.

²² Don't those who stray plan what is evil, while those who are merciful and faithful plan what is good?

²³ In hard work there is always something gained, but idle talk leads only to poverty.

²⁴ The crown of wise people is their wealth. The stupidity of fools is just that stupidity!

²⁵ An honest witness saves lives, but one who tells lies is dangerous.

²⁶ In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence, and his children will have a place of refuge.

²⁷ The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life to turn one away from the grasp of death.

²⁸ A large population is an honor for a king, but without people a ruler is ruined.

²⁹ A person of great understanding is patient, but a short temper is the height of stupidity.

³⁰ A tranquil heart makes for a healthy body, but jealousy is like bone cancer.

³¹ Whoever oppresses the poor insults his maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors him.

³²A wicked person is thrown down by his own wrongdoing, but even in his death a righteous person has a refuge.

³³Wisdom finds rest in the heart of an understanding person. Even fools recognize this.

³⁴Righteousness lifts up a nation, but sin is a disgrace in any society.

³⁵A king is delighted with a servant who acts wisely, but he is furious with one who acts shamefully.

15¹A gentle answer turns away rage, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

²The tongues of wise people give good expression to knowledge, but the mouths of fools pour out a flood of stupidity.

³The eyes of the LORD are everywhere. They watch evil people and good people.

⁴A soothing tongue is a tree of life, but a deceitful tongue breaks the spirit.

⁵A stubborn fool despises his fathers discipline, but whoever appreciates a warning shows good sense.

⁶Great treasure is in the house of a righteous person, but trouble comes along with the income of a wicked person.

⁷The lips of wise people spread knowledge, but a foolish attitude does not.

⁸A sacrifice brought by wicked people is disgusting to the LORD, but the prayers of decent people please him.

⁹The way of wicked people is disgusting to the LORD, but he loves those who pursue righteousness.

¹⁰Discipline is a terrible burden to anyone who leaves the right path. Anyone who hates a warning will die.

¹¹If Sheol and Abaddon lie open in front of the LORD how much more the human heart!

¹²A mocker does not appreciate a warning. He will not go to wise people.

¹³A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, but with a heartache comes depression.

¹⁴The mind of a person who has understanding searches for knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on stupidity.

¹⁵Every day is a terrible day for a miserable person, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.

¹⁶Better to have a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and turmoil.

¹⁷ Better to have a dish of vegetables where there is love than juicy steaks where there is hate.

¹⁸ A hothead stirs up a fight, but one who holds his temper calms disputes.

¹⁹ The path of lazy people is like a thorny hedge, but the road of decent people is an open highway.

²⁰ A wise son makes his father happy, but a foolish child despises its mother.

²¹ Stupidity is fun to the one without much sense, but a person who has understanding forges straight ahead.

²² Without advice plans go wrong, but with many advisers they succeed.

²³ A person is delighted to hear an answer from his own mouth, and a timely word oh, how good!

²⁴ The path of life for a wise person leads upward in order to turn him away from hell below.

²⁵ The LORD tears down the house of an arrogant person, but he protects the property of widows.

²⁶ The thoughts of evil people are disgusting to the LORD, but pleasant words are pure to him.

²⁷ Whoever is greedy for unjust gain brings trouble to his family, but whoever hates bribes will live.

²⁸ The heart of a righteous person carefully considers how to answer, but the mouths of wicked people pour out a flood of evil things.

²⁹ The LORD is far from wicked people, but he hears the prayers of righteous people.

³⁰ A twinkle in the eye delights the heart. Good news refreshes the body.

³¹ The ear that listens to a lifegiving warning will be at home among wise people.

³² Whoever ignores discipline despises himself, but the person who listens to warning gains understanding.

³³ The fear of the LORD is discipline leading to wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

16 ¹ The plans of the heart belong to humans, but an answer on the tongue comes from the LORD.

² A person thinks all his ways are pure, but the LORD weighs motives.

³ Entrust your efforts to the LORD, and your plans will succeed.

⁴The LORD has made everything for his own purpose, even wicked people for the day of trouble.

⁵Everyone with a conceited heart is disgusting to the LORD. Certainly, such a person will not go unpunished.

⁶By mercy and faithfulness, peace is made with the LORD. By the fear of the LORD, evil is avoided.

⁷When a persons ways are pleasing to the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

⁸Better a few possessions gained honestly than many gained through injustice.

⁹A person may plan his own journey, but the LORD directs his steps.

¹⁰When a divine revelation is on a kings lips, he cannot voice a wrong judgment.

¹¹Honest balances and scales belong to the LORD. He made the entire set of weights.

¹²Wrongdoing is disgusting to kings because a throne is established through righteousness.

¹³Kings are happy with honest words, and whoever speaks what is right is loved.

¹⁴ A king's anger announces death, but a wise man makes peace with him.

¹⁵ When the king is cheerful, there is life, and his favor is like a cloud bringing spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better it is to gain wisdom than gold, and the gaining of understanding should be chosen over silver.

¹⁷ The highway of decent people turns away from evil. Whoever watches his way preserves his own life.

¹⁸ Pride precedes a disaster, and an arrogant attitude precedes a fall.

¹⁹ Better to be humble with lowly people than to share stolen goods with arrogant people.

²⁰ Whoever gives attention to the LORD'S word prospers, and blessed is the person who trusts the LORD.

²¹ The person who is truly wise is called understanding, and speaking sweetly helps others learn.

²² Understanding is a fountain of life to the one who has it, but stubborn fools punish themselves with their stupidity.

²³ A wise person's heart controls his speech, and what he says helps others learn.

²⁴ Pleasant words are like honey from a honeycomb, sweet to the spirit and healthy for the body.

²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a person, but eventually it ends in death.

²⁶ A laborer's appetite works to his advantage, because his hunger drives him on.

²⁷ A worthless person plots trouble, and his speech is like a burning fire.

²⁸ A devious person spreads quarrels. A gossip separates the closest of friends.

²⁹ A violent person misleads his neighbor and leads him on a path that is not good.

³⁰ Whoever winks his eye is plotting something devious. Whoever bites his lips has finished his evil work.

³¹ Silver hair is a beautiful crown found in a righteous life.

³² Better to get angry slowly than to be a hero. Better to be even-tempered than to capture a city.

³³ The dice are thrown, but the LORD determines every outcome.

17 ¹ Better a bite of dry bread eaten in peace than a family feast filled with strife.

² A wise slave will become master over a son who acts shamefully, and he will share the inheritance with the brothers.

³ The crucible is for refining silver and the smelter for gold, but the one who purifies hearts by fire is the LORD.

⁴ An evildoer pays attention to wicked lips. A liar opens his ears to a slanderous tongue.

⁵ Whoever makes fun of a poor person insults his maker. Whoever is happy to see someones distress will not escape punishment.

⁶ Grandchildren are the crown of grandparents, and parents are the glory of their children.

⁷ Refined speech is not fitting for a godless fool. How much less does lying fit a noble person!

⁸ A bribe seems like a jewel to the one who gives it. Wherever he turns, he prospers.

⁹ Whoever forgives an offense seeks love, but whoever keeps bringing up the issue separates the closest of friends.

¹⁰A reprimand impresses a person who has understanding more than a hundred lashes impress a fool.

¹¹A rebel looks for nothing but evil. Therefore, a cruel messenger will be sent to punish him.

¹²Better to meet a bear robbed of its cubs than a fool carried away with his stupidity.

¹³Whoever pays back evil for good evil will never leave his home.

¹⁴Starting a quarrel is like opening a floodgate, so stop before the argument gets out of control.

¹⁵Whoever approves of wicked people and whoever condemns righteous people is disgusting to the LORD.

¹⁶Why should a fool have money in his hand to buy wisdom when he doesn't have a mind to grasp anything?

¹⁷A friend always loves, and a brother is born to share trouble.

¹⁸A person without good sense closes a deal with a handshake. He guarantees a loan in the presence of his friend.

¹⁹Whoever loves sin loves a quarrel. Whoever builds his city gate high invites destruction.

²⁰ A twisted mind never finds happiness, and one with a devious tongue repeatedly gets into trouble.

²¹ The parent of a fool has grief, and the father of a godless fool has no joy.

²² A joyful heart is good medicine, but depression drains one's strength.

²³ A wicked person secretly accepts a bribe to corrupt the ways of justice.

²⁴ Wisdom is directly in front of an understanding person, but the eyes of a fool are looking around all over the world.

²⁵ A foolish son is a heartache to his father and bitter grief to his mother.

²⁶ To punish an innocent person is not good. To strike down noble people is not right.

²⁷ Whoever has knowledge controls his words, and a person who has understanding is even-tempered.

²⁸ Even a stubborn fool is thought to be wise if he keeps silent. He is considered intelligent if he keeps his lips sealed.

18¹ A loner is out to get what he wants for himself. He opposes all sound reasoning.

²A fool does not find joy in understanding but only in expressing his own opinion.

³When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and insult comes along with disgrace.

⁴The words of a persons mouth are like deep waters. The fountain of wisdom is an overflowing stream.

⁵It is not good to be partial toward a wicked person, thereby depriving an innocent person of justice.

⁶By talking, a fool gets into an argument, and his mouth invites a beating.

⁷A fools mouth is his ruin. His lips are a trap to his soul.

⁸The words of a gossip are swallowed greedily, and they go down into a persons innermost being.

⁹Whoever is lazy in his work is related to a vandal.

¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower. A righteous person runs to it and is safe.

¹¹A rich persons wealth is his strong city and is like a high wall in his imagination.

¹² Before destruction a persons heart is arrogant, but humility comes before honor.

¹³ Whoever gives an answer before he listens is stupid and shameful.

¹⁴ A persons spirit can endure sickness, but who can bear a broken spirit?

¹⁵ The mind of a person who has understanding acquires knowledge. The ears of wise people seek knowledge.

¹⁶ A gift opens doors for the one who gives it and brings him into the presence of great people.

¹⁷ The first to state his case seems right until his neighbor comes to crossexamine him.

¹⁸ Flipping a coin ends quarrels and settles issues between powerful people.

¹⁹ An offended brother is more resistant than a strong city, and disputes are like the locked gate of a castle tower.

²⁰ A persons speaking ability provides for his stomach. His talking provides him a living.

²¹ The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love to talk will have to eat their own words.

²²Whoever finds a wife finds something good and has obtained favor from the LORD.

²³A poor person is timid when begging, but a rich person is blunt when replying.

²⁴Friends can destroy one another, but a loving friend can stick closer than family.

19¹ Better to be a poor person who lives innocently than to be one who talks dishonestly and is a fool.

²A person without knowledge is no good. A person in a hurry makes mistakes.

³The stupidity of a person turns his life upside down, and his heart rages against the LORD.

⁴Wealth adds many friends, but a poor person is separated from his friend.

⁵A lying witness will not go unpunished. One who tells lies will not escape.

⁶Many try to win the kindness of a generous person, and everyone is a friend to a person who gives gifts.

⁷The entire family of a poor person hates him. How much more do his friends keep their distance from him!

When he chases them with words, they are gone.

⁸A person who gains sense loves himself. One who guards understanding finds something good.

⁹A lying witness will not go unpunished. One who tells lies will die.

¹⁰Luxury does not fit a fool, much less a slave ruling princes.

¹¹A person with good sense is patient, and it is to his credit that he overlooks an offense.

¹²The rage of a king is like the roar of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³A foolish son ruins his father, and a quarreling woman is like constantly dripping water.

¹⁴Home and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a sensible wife comes from the LORD.

¹⁵Laziness throws one into a deep sleep, and an idle person will go hungry.

¹⁶Whoever obeys the law preserves his life, but whoever despises the LORDS ways will be put to death.

¹⁷ Whoever has pity on the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his good deed.

¹⁸ Discipline your son while there is still hope. Do not be the one responsible for his death.

¹⁹ A person who has a hot temper will pay for it. If you rescue him, you will have to do it over and over.

²⁰ Listen to advice and accept discipline so that you may be wise the rest of your life.

²¹ Many plans are in the human heart, but the advice of the LORD will endure.

²² Loyalty is desirable in a person, and it is better to be poor than a liar.

²³ The fear of the LORD leads to life, and such a person will rest easy without suffering harm.

²⁴ A lazy person puts his fork in his food. He doesn't even bring it back to his mouth.

²⁵ Strike a mocker, and a gullible person may learn a lesson. Warn an understanding person, and he will gain more knowledge.

²⁶A son who assaults his father and who drives away his mother brings shame and disgrace.

²⁷If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.

²⁸A worthless witness mocks justice, and the mouths of wicked people swallow up trouble.

²⁹Punishments are set for mockers and beatings for the backs of fools.

20¹Wine makes people mock, liquor makes them noisy, and everyone under their influence is unwise.

²The rage of a king is like the roar of a lion. Whoever makes him angry forfeits his life.

³Avoiding a quarrel is honorable. After all, any stubborn fool can start a fight.

⁴A lazy person does not plow in the fall. He looks for something in the harvest but finds nothing.

⁵A motive in the human heart is like deep water, and a person who has understanding draws it out.

⁶Many people declare themselves loyal, but who can find someone who is really trustworthy?

⁷ A righteous person lives on the basis of his integrity. Blessed are his children after he is gone.

⁸ A king who sits on his throne to judge sifts out every evil with his eyes.

⁹ Who can say, "I've made my heart pure. I'm cleansed from my sin"?

¹⁰ A double standard of weights and measures both are disgusting to the LORD.

¹¹ Even a child makes himself known by his actions, whether his deeds are pure or right.

¹² The ear that hears, the eye that sees the LORD made them both.

¹³ Do not love sleep or you will end up poor. Keep your eyes open, and you will have plenty to eat.

¹⁴ "Bad! Bad!" says the buyer. Then, as he goes away, he brags about his bargain.

¹⁵ There are gold and plenty of jewels, but the lips of knowledge are precious gems.

¹⁶ Hold on to the garment of one who guarantees a stranger's loan, and hold responsible the person who makes a loan on behalf of a foreigner.

¹⁷ Food gained dishonestly tastes sweet to a person, but afterwards his mouth will be filled with gravel.

¹⁸ Plans are confirmed by getting advice, and with guidance one wages war.

¹⁹ Whoever goes around as a gossip tells secrets. Do not associate with a person whose mouth is always open.

²⁰ The lamp of the person who curses his father and mother will be snuffed out in total darkness.

²¹ An inheritance quickly obtained in the beginning will never be blessed in the end.

²² Do not say, "I'll get even with you!" Wait for the LORD, and he will save you.

²³ A double standard of weights is disgusting to the LORD, and dishonest scales are no good.

²⁴ The LORD is the one who directs a person's steps. How then can anyone understand his own way?

²⁵ It is a trap for a person to say impulsively, "This is a holy offering!" and later to have second thoughts about those vows.

²⁶A wise king scatters the wicked and then runs them over.

²⁷A persons soul is the LORDS lamp. It searches his entire innermost being.

²⁸Mercy and truth protect a king, and with mercy he maintains his throne.

²⁹While the glory of young men is their strength, the splendor of older people is their silver hair.

³⁰Brutal beatings cleanse away wickedness. Such beatings cleanse the innermost being.

21 ¹The kings heart is like streams of water. Both are under the LORDS control. He turns them in any direction he chooses.

²A person thinks everything he does is right, but the LORD weighs hearts.

³Doing what is right and fair is more acceptable to the LORD than offering a sacrifice.

⁴A conceited look and an arrogant attitude, which are the lamps of wicked people, are sins.

⁵The plans of a hardworking person lead to prosperity, but everyone who is always in a hurry ends up in poverty.

⁶Those who gather wealth by lying are wasting time. They are looking for death.

⁷The violence of wicked people will drag them away since they refuse to do what is just.

⁸The way of a guilty person is crooked, but the behavior of those who are pure is moral.

⁹Better to live on a corner of a roof than to share a home with a quarreling woman.

¹⁰The mind of a wicked person desires evil and has no consideration for his neighbor.

¹¹When a mocker is punished, a gullible person becomes wise, and when a wise person is instructed, he gains knowledge.

¹²A righteous person wisely considers the house of a wicked person. He throws wicked people into disasters.

¹³Whoever shuts his ear to the cry of the poor will call and not be answered.

¹⁴A gift given in secret calms anger, and a secret bribe calms great fury.

¹⁵When justice is done, a righteous person is delighted, but troublemakers are terrified.

¹⁶A person who wanders from the way of wise behavior will rest in the assembly of the dead.

¹⁷Whoever loves pleasure will become poor. Whoever loves wine and expensive food will not become rich.

¹⁸Wicked people become a ransom for righteous people, and treacherous people will take the place of decent people.

¹⁹Better to live in a desert than with a quarreling and angry woman.

²⁰Costly treasure and wealth are in the home of a wise person, but a fool devours them.

²¹Whoever pursues righteousness and mercy will find life, righteousness, and honor.

²²A wise man attacks a city of warriors and pulls down the strong defenses in which they trust.

²³Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

²⁴An arrogant, conceited person is called a mocker. His arrogance knows no limits.

²⁵The desire of a lazy person will kill him because his hands refuse to work.

²⁶ All day long he feels greedy, but a righteous person gives and does not hold back.

²⁷ The sacrifice of wicked people is disgusting, especially if they bring it with evil intent.

²⁸ A lying witness will die, but a person who listens to advice will continue to speak.

²⁹ A wicked person puts up a bold front, but a decent person's way of life is his own security.

³⁰ No wisdom, no understanding, and no advice can stand up against the LORD.

³¹ The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.

22¹ A good name is more desirable than great wealth. Respect is better than silver or gold.

² The rich and the poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all.

³ Sensible people foresee trouble and hide from it, but gullible people go ahead and suffer the consequence.

⁴ On the heels of humility (the fear of the LORD) are riches and honor and life.

⁵ A devious person has thorns and traps ahead of him. Whoever guards himself will stay far away from them.

⁶ Train a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old he will not turn away from it.

⁷ A rich person rules poor people, and a borrower is a slave to a lender.

⁸ Whoever plants injustice will harvest trouble, and this weapon of his own fury will be destroyed.

⁹ Whoever is generous will be blessed because he has shared his food with the poor.

¹⁰ Drive out a mocker, and conflict will leave. Quarreling and abuse will stop.

¹¹ Whoever loves a pure heart and whoever speaks graciously has a king as his friend.

¹² The LORDS eyes watch over knowledge, but he overturns the words of a treacherous person.

¹³ A lazy person says, "Theres a lion outside! Ill be murdered in the streets!"

¹⁴ The mouth of an adulterous woman is a deep pit. The one who is cursed by the LORD will fall into it.

¹⁵ Foolishness is firmly attached to a child's heart. Spanking will remove it far from him.

¹⁶ Oppressing the poor for profit or giving to the rich certainly leads to poverty.

¹⁷ Open your ears, and hear the words of wise people, and set your mind on the knowledge I give you.

¹⁸ It is pleasant if you keep them in mind so that they will be on the tip of your tongue, ¹⁹ so that your trust may be in the LORD. Today I have made them known to you, especially to you.

²⁰ Didn't I write to you previously with advice and knowledge

²¹ in order to teach you the words of truth so that you can give an accurate report to those who send you?

²² Do not rob the poor because they are poor or trample on the rights of an oppressed person at the city gate, ²³because the LORD will plead their case and will take the lives of those who rob them.

²⁴Do not be a friend of one who has a bad temper, and never keep company with a hothead, ²⁵or you will learn his ways and set a trap for yourself.

²⁶Do not be found among those who make deals with a handshake, among those who guarantee other peoples loans.

²⁷If you have no money to pay back a loan, why should your bed be repossessed?

²⁸Do not move an ancient boundary marker that your ancestors set in place.

²⁹Do you see a person who is efficient in his work? He will serve kings. He will not serve unknown people.

23¹When you sit down to eat with a ruler, pay close attention to what is in front of you, ²and put a knife to your throat if you have a big appetite.

³Do not crave his delicacies, because this is food that deceives you.

⁴ Do not wear yourself out getting rich.
Be smart enough to stop.

⁵ Will you catch only a fleeting glimpse of wealth before it is gone? It makes wings for itself like an eagle flying into the sky.

⁶ Do not eat the food of one who is stingy, and do not crave his delicacies.

⁷ As he calculates the cost to himself, this is what he does: He tells you, "Eat and drink," but he doesn't really mean it.

⁸ You will vomit the little bit you have eaten and spoil your pleasant conversation.

⁹ Do not talk directly to a fool, because he will despise the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary marker or enter fields that belong to orphans,

¹¹ because the one who is responsible for them is strong. He will plead their case against you.

¹² Live a more disciplined life, and listen carefully to words of knowledge.

¹³ Do not hesitate to discipline a child.
If you spank him, he will not die.

¹⁴ Spank him yourself, and you will save his soul from hell.

¹⁵ My son, if you have a wise heart, my heart will rejoice as well.

¹⁶ My heart rejoices when you speak what is right.

¹⁷ Do not envy sinners in your heart. Instead, continue to fear the LORD.

¹⁸ There is indeed a future, and your hope will never be cut off.

¹⁹ My son, listen, be wise, and keep your mind going in the right direction.

²⁰ Do not associate with those who drink too much wine, with those who eat too much meat, ²¹ because both a drunk and a glutton will become poor. Drowsiness will dress a person in rags.

²² Listen to your father since you are his son, and do not despise your mother because she is old.

²³ Buy truth (and do not sell it), that is, buy wisdom, discipline, and understanding.

²⁴ A righteous person's father will certainly rejoice. Someone who has a wise son will enjoy him.

²⁵ May your father and your mother be glad. May she who gave birth to you rejoice.

²⁶ My son, give me your heart. Let your eyes find happiness in my ways.

²⁷ A prostitute is a deep pit. A loose woman is a narrow well.

²⁸ She is like a robber, lying in ambush. She spreads unfaithfulness throughout society.

²⁹ Who has trouble? Who has misery? Who has quarrels? Who has a complaint? Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?

³⁰ Those who drink glass after glass of wine and mix it with everything.

³¹ Do not look at wine because it is red, because it sparkles in the cup, because it goes down smoothly.

³² Later it bites like a snake and strikes like a poisonous snake.

³³ Your eyes will see strange sights, and your mouth will say embarrassing things.

³⁴ You will be like someone lying down in the middle of the sea or like someone lying down on top of a ship's mast, saying,

³⁵"They strike me, but I feel no pain. They beat me, but I'm not aware of it. Whenever I wake up, I'm going to look for another drink."

24¹ Do not envy evil people or wish you were with them, ²because their minds plot violence, and their lips talk trouble.

³With wisdom a house is built. With understanding it is established.

⁴With knowledge its rooms are filled with every kind of riches, both precious and pleasant.

⁵A strong man knows how to use his strength, but a person with knowledge is even more powerful.

⁶After all, with the right strategy you can wage war, and with many advisers there is victory.

⁷Matters of wisdom are beyond the grasp of a stubborn fool. At the city gate he does not open his mouth.

⁸Whoever plans to do evil will be known as a schemer.

⁹Foolish scheming is sinful, and a mocker is disgusting to everyone.

¹⁰If you faint in a crisis, you are weak.

¹¹ Rescue captives condemned to death, and spare those staggering toward their slaughter.

¹² When you say, "We didn't know this," won't the one who weighs hearts take note of it? Won't the one who guards your soul know it? Won't he pay back people for what they do?

¹³ Eat honey, my son, because it is good. Honey that flows from the honeycomb tastes sweet.

¹⁴ The knowledge of wisdom is like that for your soul. If you find it, then there is a future, and your hope will never be cut off.

¹⁵ You wicked one, do not lie in ambush at the home of a righteous person. Do not rob his house.

¹⁶ A righteous person may fall seven times, but he gets up again. However, in a disaster wicked people fall.

¹⁷ Do not be happy when your enemy falls, and do not feel glad when he stumbles.

¹⁸ The LORD will see it, he won't like it, and he will turn his anger away from that person.

¹⁹Do not get overly upset with evildoers. Do not envy wicked people, ²⁰because an evil person has no future, and the lamps of wicked people will be snuffed out.

²¹Fear the LORD, my son. Fear the king as well. Do not associate with those who always insist upon change, ²²because disaster will come to them suddenly. Who knows what misery both may bring?

²³These also are the sayings of wise people: Showing partiality as a judge is not good.

²⁴Whoever says to a guilty person, "You are innocent," will be cursed by people and condemned by nations.

²⁵But people will be pleased with those who convict a guilty person, and a great blessing will come to them.

²⁶Giving a straight answer is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷Prepare your work outside, and get things ready for yourself in the field. Afterwards, build your house.

²⁸Do not testify against your neighbor without a reason, and do not deceive with your lips.

²⁹Do not say, "I'll treat him as he treated me. I'll pay him back for what he has done to me."

³⁰I passed by a lazy persons field, the vineyard belonging to a person without sense.

³¹I saw that it was all overgrown with thistles. The ground was covered with weeds, and its stone fence was torn down.

³²When I observed this, I took it to heart. I saw it and learned my lesson.

³³"Just a little sleep, just a little slumber, just a little nap."

³⁴Then your poverty will come like a drifter, and your need will come like a bandit.

25¹These also are Solomons proverbs that were copied by the men of King Hezekiah of Judah.

²It is the glory of God to hide things but the glory of kings to investigate them.

³Like the high heavens and the deep earth, so the mind of kings is unsearchable.

⁴Take the impurities out of silver, and a vessel is ready for the silversmith to mold.

⁵Take a wicked person away from the presence of a king, and justice will make his throne secure.

⁶Do not brag about yourself in front of a king or stand in the spot that belongs to notable people, ⁷because it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put down in front of a prince whom your eyes have seen.

⁸Do not be in a hurry to go to court. What will you do in the end if your neighbor disgraces you?

⁹Present your argument to your neighbor, but do not reveal another person's secret.

¹⁰Otherwise, when he hears about it, he will humiliate you, and his evil report about you will never disappear.

¹¹Like golden apples in silver settings, so is a word spoken at the right time.

¹²Like a gold ring and a fine gold ornament, so is constructive criticism to the ear of one who listens.

¹³Like the coolness of snow on a harvest day, so is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him: He refreshes his masters.

¹⁴ Like a dense fog or a dust storm, so is a person who brags about a gift that he does not give.

¹⁵ With patience you can persuade a ruler, and a soft tongue can break bones.

¹⁶ When you find honey, eat only as much as you need. Otherwise, you will have too much and vomit.

¹⁷ Do not set foot in your neighbors house too often. Otherwise, he will see too much of you and hate you.

¹⁸ Like a club and a sword and a sharp arrow, so is a person who gives false testimony against his neighbor.

¹⁹ Like a broken tooth and a lame foot, so is confidence in an unfaithful person in a time of crisis.

²⁰ Like taking off a coat on a cold day or pouring vinegar on baking soda, so is singing songs to one who has an evil heart.

²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him some food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him some water to drink.

²² In this way you will make him feel guilty and ashamed, and the LORD will reward you.

²³ As the north wind brings rain, so a whispering tongue brings angry looks.

²⁴ Better to live on a corner of a roof than to share a home with a quarreling woman.

²⁵ Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from far away.

²⁶ Like a muddied spring and a polluted well, so is a righteous person who gives in to a wicked person.

²⁷ Eating too much honey is not good, and searching for honor is not honorable.

²⁸ Like a city broken into and left without a wall, so is a person who lacks selfcontrol.

26 ¹ Like snow in summertime and rain at harvest time, so honor is not right for a fool.

² Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so a hastily spoken curse does not come to rest.

³ A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey, and a rod is for the backs of fools.

⁴ Do not answer a fool with his own stupidity, or you will be like him.

⁵ Answer a fool with his own stupidity, or he will think he is wise.

⁶Whoever uses a fool to send a message cuts off his own feet and brings violence upon himself.

⁷Like a lame persons limp legs, so is a proverb in the mouths of fools.

⁸Like tying a stone to a sling, so is giving honor to a fool.

⁹Like a thorn stuck in a drunks hand, so is a proverb in the mouths of fools.

¹⁰Like many people who destroy everything, so is one who hires fools or drifters.

¹¹As a dog goes back to its vomit, so a fool repeats his stupidity.

¹²Have you met a person who thinks he is wise? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

¹³A lazy person says, "Theres a ferocious lion out on the road! Theres a lion loose in the streets!"

¹⁴As a door turns on its hinges, so the lazy person turns on his bed.

¹⁵A lazy person puts his fork in his food. He wears himself out as he brings it back to his mouth.

¹⁶A lazy person thinks he is wiser than seven people who give a sensible answer.

¹⁷ Like grabbing a dog by the ears, so is a bystander who gets involved in someone else's quarrel.

¹⁸ Like a madman who shoots flaming arrows, arrows, and death,

¹⁹ so is the person who tricks his neighbor and says, "I was only joking!"

²⁰ Without wood a fire goes out, and without gossip a quarrel dies down.

²¹ As charcoal fuels burning coals and wood fuels fire, so a quarrelsome person fuels a dispute.

²² The words of a gossip are swallowed greedily, and they go down into a person's innermost being.

²³ Like a clay pot covered with cheap silver, so is smooth talk that covers up an evil heart.

²⁴ Whoever is filled with hate disguises it with his speech, but inside he holds on to deceit.

²⁵ When he talks charmingly, do not trust him because of the seven disgusting things in his heart.

²⁶ His hatred is deceitfully hidden, but his wickedness will be revealed to the community.

²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall into it.
Whoever rolls a stone will have it roll back on him.

²⁸ A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

27 ¹ Do not brag about tomorrow, because you do not know what another day may bring.

² Praise should come from another person and not from your own mouth, from a stranger and not from your own lips.

³ A stone is heavy, and sand weighs a lot, but annoyance caused by a stubborn fool is heavier than both.

⁴ Anger is cruel, and fury is overwhelming, but who can survive jealousy?

⁵ Open criticism is better than unexpressed love.

⁶ Wounds made by a friend are intended to help, but an enemys kisses are too much to bear.

⁷ One who is full despises honey, but to one who is hungry, even bitter food tastes sweet.

⁸ Like a bird wandering from its nest, so is a husband wandering from his home.

⁹Perfume and incense make the heart glad, but the sweetness of a friend is a fragrant forest.

¹⁰Do not abandon your friend or your father's friend. Do not go to a relative's home when you are in trouble. A neighbor living nearby is better than a relative far away.

¹¹Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad so that I can answer anyone who criticizes me.

¹²Sensible people foresee trouble and hide. Gullible people go ahead and suffer.

¹³Hold on to the garment of one who guarantees a stranger's loan, and hold responsible the person who makes a loan in behalf of a foreigner.

¹⁴Whoever blesses his friend early in the morning with a loud voice his blessing is considered a curse.

¹⁵Constantly dripping water on a rainy day is like a quarreling woman.

¹⁶Whoever can control her can control the wind. He can even pick up olive oil with his right hand.

¹⁷As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens the wits of another.

¹⁸Whoever takes care of a fig tree can eat its fruit, and whoever protects his master is honored.

¹⁹As a face is reflected in water, so a person is reflected by his heart.

²⁰Hell and decay are never satisfied, and a person's eyes are never satisfied.

²¹The crucible is for refining silver and the smelter for gold, but a person is tested by the praise given to him.

²²If you crush a stubborn fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, even then his stupidity will not leave him.

²³Be fully aware of the condition of your flock, and pay close attention to your herds.

²⁴Wealth is not forever. Nor does a crown last from one generation to the next.

²⁵When grass is cut short, the tender growth appears, and vegetables are gathered on the hills.

²⁶Lambs will provide you with clothing, and the money from the male goats will buy a field.

²⁷ There will be enough goat milk to feed you, to feed your family, and to keep your servant girls alive.

28¹ A wicked person flees when no one is chasing him, but righteous people are as bold as lions.

² When a country is in revolt, it has many rulers, but only with a person who has understanding and knowledge will it last a long time.

³ A poor person who oppresses poorer people is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

⁴ Those who abandon Gods teachings praise wicked people, but those who follow Gods teachings oppose wicked people.

⁵ Evil people do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand everything.

⁶ Better to be a poor person who has integrity than to be rich and doubledealing.

⁷ Whoever follows Gods teachings is a wise son. Whoever associates with gluttons disgraces his father.

⁸Whoever becomes wealthy through unfair loans and interest collects them for the one who is kind to the poor.

⁹Surely the prayer of someone who refuses to listen to Gods teachings is disgusting.

¹⁰Whoever leads decent people into evil will fall into his own pit, but innocent people will inherit good things.

¹¹A rich person is wise in his own eyes, but a poor person with understanding sees right through him.

¹²When righteous people triumph, there is great glory, but when wicked people rise, people hide themselves.

¹³Whoever covers over his sins does not prosper. Whoever confesses and abandons them receives compassion.

¹⁴Blessed is the one who is always fearful of sin, but whoever is hardhearted falls into disaster.

¹⁵Like a roaring lion and a charging bear, so a wicked ruler is a threat to poor people.

¹⁶A leader without understanding taxes his people heavily, but those who hate unjust gain will live longer.

¹⁷ A person burdened with the guilt of murder will be a fugitive down to his grave. No one will help him.

¹⁸ Whoever lives honestly will be safe. Whoever lives dishonestly will fall all at once.

¹⁹ Whoever works his land will have plenty to eat. Whoever chases unrealistic dreams will have plenty of nothing.

²⁰ A trustworthy person has many blessings, but anyone in a hurry to get rich will not escape punishment.

²¹ Showing partiality is not good, because some people will turn on you even for a piece of bread.

²² A stingy person is in a hurry to get rich, not realizing that poverty is about to overtake him.

²³ Whoever criticizes people will be more highly regarded in the future than the one who flatters with his tongue.

²⁴ The one who robs his father or his mother and says, "It isn't wrong!" is a companion to a vandal.

²⁵ A greedy person stirs up a fight, but whoever trusts the LORD prospers.

²⁶Whoever trusts his own heart is a fool. Whoever walks in wisdom will survive.

²⁷Whoever gives to the poor lacks nothing. Whoever ignores the poor receives many curses.

²⁸When wicked people rise, people hide. When they die, righteous people increase.

29¹A person who will not bend after many warnings will suddenly be broken beyond repair.

²When righteous people increase, the people of God rejoice, but when a wicked person rules, everybody groans.

³A person who loves wisdom makes his father happy, but one who pays prostitutes wastes his wealth.

⁴By means of justice, a king builds up a country, but a person who confiscates religious contributions tears it down.

⁵A person who flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for him to step into.

⁶To an evil person sin is bait in a trap, but a righteous person runs away from it and is glad.

⁷ A righteous person knows the just cause of the poor. A wicked person does not understand this.

⁸ Mockers create an uproar in a city, but wise people turn away anger.

⁹ When a wise person goes to court with a stubborn fool, he may rant and rave, but there is no peace and quiet.

¹⁰ Bloodthirsty people hate an innocent person, but decent people seek to protect his life.

¹¹ A fool expresses all his emotions, but a wise person controls them.

¹² If a ruler pays attention to lies, all his servants become wicked.

¹³ A poor person and an oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives both of them sight.

¹⁴ When a king judges the poor with honesty, his throne will always be secure.

¹⁵ A spanking and a warning produce wisdom, but an undisciplined child disgraces his mother.

¹⁶ When wicked people increase, crime increases, but righteous people will witness their downfall.

¹⁷ Correct your son, and he will give you peace of mind. He will bring delight to your soul.

¹⁸ Without prophetic vision people run wild, but blessed are those who follow Gods teachings.

¹⁹ A slave cannot be disciplined with words. He will not respond, though he may understand.

²⁰ Have you met a person who is quick to answer? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

²¹ Pamper a slave from childhood, and later he will be ungrateful.

²² An angry person stirs up a fight, and a hothead does much wrong.

²³ A persons pride will humiliate him, but a humble spirit gains honor.

²⁴ Whoever is a thieves partner hates his own life. He will not testify under oath.

²⁵ A persons fear sets a trap for him, but one who trusts the LORD is safe.

²⁶ Many seek an audience with a ruler, but justice for humanity comes from the LORD.

²⁷ An unjust person is disgusting to righteous people. A decent person is disgusting to wicked people.

30¹ The words of Agur, son of Jakeh.
Agurs prophetic revelation. [To God] This mans declaration: "Im weary, O God. Im weary and worn out, O God.

²Im more like a dumb animal than a human being. I dont even have human understanding.

³I havent learned wisdom. I dont have knowledge of the Holy One.

⁴[To the audience] "Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in the palm of his hand? Who has wrapped water in a garment? Who has set up the earth from one end to the other? What is his name or the name of his son? Certainly, you must know!

⁵"Every word of God has proven to be true. He is a shield to those who come to him for protection.

⁶Do not add to his words, or he will reprimand you, and you will be found to be a liar.

⁷[To God] "Ive asked you for two things. Dont keep them from me before I die:

⁸Keep vanity and lies far away from me. Don't give me either poverty or riches. Feed me only the food I need, ⁹or I may feel satisfied and deny you and say, Who is the LORD? or I may become poor and steal and give the name of my God a bad reputation.

¹⁰[To the audience] "Do not slander a slave to his master. The slave will curse you, and you will be found guilty."

¹¹A certain kind of person curses his father and does not bless his mother.

¹²A certain kind of person thinks he is pure but is not washed from his own feces.

¹³A certain kind of person looks around arrogantly and is conceited.

¹⁴A certain kind of person, whose teeth are like swords and whose jaws are like knives, devours oppressed people from the earth and people from among humanity.

¹⁵The bloodsucking leech has two daughters "Give!" and "Give!" Three things are never satisfied. Four never say, "Enough!":

¹⁶the grave, a barren womb, a land that never gets enough water, a fire that does not say, "Enough!"

¹⁷The eye that makes fun of a father and hates to obey a mother will be plucked out by ravens in the valley and eaten by young vultures.

¹⁸Three things are too amazing to me, even four that I cannot understand:

¹⁹an eagle making its way through the sky, a snake making its way over a rock, a ship making its way through high seas, a man making his way with a virgin.

²⁰This is the way of a woman who commits adultery: She eats, wipes her mouth, and says, "I havent done anything wrong!"

²¹Three things cause the earth to tremble, even four it cannot bear up under:

²²a slave when he becomes king, a godless fool when he is filled with food, ²³a woman who is unloved when she gets married, a maid when she replaces her mistress.

²⁴Four things on earth are small, yet they are very wise:

²⁵Ants are not a strong species, yet they store their food in summer.

²⁶Rock badgers are not a mighty species, yet they make their home in the rocks.

²⁷Locusts have no king, yet all of them divide into swarms by instinct.

²⁸A lizard you can hold in your hands, yet it can even be found in royal palaces.

²⁹There are three things that walk with dignity, even four that march with dignity:

³⁰a lion, mightiest among animals, which turns away from nothing,

³¹a strutting rooster, a male goat, a king at the head of his army.

³²If you are such a godless fool as to honor yourself, or if you scheme, you had better put your hand over your mouth.

³³As churning milk produces butter and punching a nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces a fight.

31¹The sayings of King Lemuel, a prophetic revelation, used by his mother to discipline him.

²"What, my son? What, son to whom I gave birth? What, son of my prayers?

³Don't give your strength to women or your power to those who ruin kings.

⁴"It is not for kings, Lemuel. It is not for kings to drink wine or for rulers to crave liquor.

⁵Otherwise, they drink and forget what they have decreed and change the standard of justice for all oppressed people.

⁶Give liquor to a person who is dying and wine to one who feels resentful.

⁷Such a person drinks and forgets his poverty and does not remember his trouble anymore.

⁸"Speak out for the one who cannot speak, for the rights of those who are doomed.

⁹Speak out, judge fairly, and defend the rights of oppressed and needy people."

¹⁰"Who can find a wife with a strong character? She is worth far more than jewels.

¹¹Her husband trusts her with all his heart, and he does not lack anything good.

¹²She helps him and never harms him all the days of her life.

¹³"She seeks out wool and linen with care and works with willing hands.

¹⁴She is like merchant ships. She brings her food from far away.

¹⁵She wakes up while it is still dark and gives food to her family and portions of food to her female slaves.

¹⁶"She picks out a field and buys it. She plants a vineyard from the profits she has earned.

¹⁷She puts on strength like a belt and goes to work with energy.

¹⁸She sees that she is making a good profit. Her lamp burns late at night.

¹⁹"She puts her hands on the distaff, and her fingers hold a spindle.

²⁰She opens her hands to oppressed people and stretches them out to needy people.

²¹She does not fear for her family when it snows because her whole family has a double layer of clothing.

²²She makes quilts for herself. Her clothes are made of linen and purple cloth.

²³"Her husband is known at the city gates when he sits with the leaders of the land.

²⁴ "She makes linen garments and sells them and delivers belts to the merchants.

²⁵ She dresses with strength and nobility, and she smiles at the future.

²⁶ "She speaks with wisdom, and on her tongue there is tender instruction.

²⁷ She keeps a close eye on the conduct of her family, and she does not eat the bread of idleness.

²⁸ Her children and her husband stand up and bless her. In addition, he sings her praises, by saying, ²⁹ Many women have done noble work, but you have surpassed them all!

³⁰ "Charm is deceptive, and beauty evaporates, but a woman who has the fear of the LORD should be praised.

³¹ Reward her for what she has done, and let her achievements praise her at the city gates."

Ecclesiastes

1 ¹ The words of the spokesman, the son of David and the king in Jerusalem.

² "Absolutely pointless!" says the spokesman. "Absolutely pointless!
Everything is pointless."

³ What do people gain from all their hard work under the sun?

⁴ Generations come, and generations go, but the earth lasts forever.

⁵ The sun rises, and the sun sets, and then it rushes back to the place where it will rise again.

⁶ The wind blows toward the south and shifts toward the north. Round and round it blows. It blows in a full circle.

⁷ All streams flow into the sea, but the sea is never full. The water goes back to the place where the streams began in order to start flowing again.

⁸ All of these sayings are wornout phrases. They are more than anyone can express, comprehend, or understand.

⁹Whatever has happened before will happen again. Whatever has been done before will be done again. There is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Can you say that anything is new? It has already been here long before us.

¹¹Nothing from the past is remembered. Even in the future, nothing will be remembered by those who come after us.

¹²I, the spokesman, have been king of Israel in Jerusalem.

¹³With all my heart I used wisdom to study and explore everything done under heaven. Mortals are weighed down with a terrible burden that God has placed on them.

¹⁴I have seen everything that is done under the sun. Look at it! Its all pointless. Its like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁵No one can straighten what is bent. No one can count what is not there.

¹⁶I thought to myself, "I have grown wiser than anyone who has ruled Jerusalem before me. Ive had a lot of experience with wisdom and knowledge."

¹⁷I've used my mind to understand wisdom and knowledge as well as madness and stupidity. Now I know that this is like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸With a lot of wisdom comes a lot of heartache. The greater your knowledge, the greater your pain.

2¹I thought to myself, "Now I want to experiment with pleasure and enjoy myself." But even this was pointless.

²I thought, "Laughter doesn't make any sense. What does pleasure accomplish?"

³I explored ways to make myself feel better by drinking wine. I also explored ways to do some foolish things. During all that time, wisdom continued to control my mind. I was able to determine whether this was good for mortals to do during their brief lives under heaven.

⁴I accomplished some great things: I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself.

⁵I made gardens and parks for myself. I planted every kind of fruit tree in them.

⁶I made pools to water the forest of growing trees.

⁷I bought male and female slaves. In addition, slaves were born in my household. I owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

⁸I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I gathered the treasures of kings and provinces. I provided myself with male and female singers and the pleasures men have with one concubine after another.

⁹So I grew richer than anyone in Jerusalem before me. Yet, my wisdom remained with me.

¹⁰If something appealed to me, I did it. I allowed myself to have any pleasure I wanted, since I found pleasure in my work. This was my reward for all my hard work.

¹¹But when I turned to look at all that I had accomplished and all the hard work I had put into it, I saw that it was all pointless. It was like trying to catch the wind. I gained nothing from any of my accomplishments under the sun.

¹²Then I turned my attention to experience wisdom, madness, and foolishness. For instance, what can the man who replaces the king do? Only what has already been done.

¹³But I saw that wisdom has an advantage over foolishness as light has an advantage over darkness.

¹⁴A wise person uses the eyes in his head, but a fool walks in the dark. But I have also come to realize that the same destiny waits for both of them.

¹⁵I thought to myself, "If the destiny that waits for the fool waits for me as well, then what is the advantage in being wise?" So I thought that even this is pointless.

¹⁶Neither the wise person nor the fool will be remembered for long, since both will be forgotten in the days to come. Both the wise person and the fool will die.

¹⁷So I came to hate life because everything done under the sun seemed wrong to me. Everything was pointless. It was like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸I came to hate everything for which I had worked so hard under the sun, because I will have to leave it to the person who replaces me.

¹⁹Who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? He will still have control over everything under the sun for which I worked so hard and used my wisdom. Even this is pointless.

²⁰Then I fell into despair over everything for which I had worked so hard under the sun.

²¹Here is someone who had worked hard with wisdom, knowledge, and skill. Yet, he must turn over his estate to someone else, who didn't work for it. Even this is pointless and a terrible tragedy.

²²What do people get from all of their hard work and struggles under the sun?

²³Their entire life is filled with pain, and their work is unbearable. Even at night their minds don't rest. Even this is pointless.

²⁴There is nothing better for people to do than to eat, drink, and find satisfaction in their work. I saw that even this comes from the hand of God.

²⁵Who can eat or enjoy themselves without God?

²⁶God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy to anyone who pleases him. But to the person who continues to sin, he gives the job of gathering and collecting wealth. The sinner must turn his wealth over to the person who pleases God.

Even this is pointless. Its like trying to catch the wind.

3¹ Everything has its own time, and there is a specific time for every activity under heaven:

² a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to pull out what was planted,

³ a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build up,

⁴ a time to cry and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

⁵ a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to hug and a time to stop hugging,

⁶ a time to start looking and a time to stop looking, a time to keep and a time to throw away,

⁷ a time to tear apart and a time to sew together, a time to keep quiet and a time to speak out,

⁸ a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What do working people gain from their hard labor?

¹⁰I have seen mortals weighed down with a burden that God has placed on them.

¹¹It is beautiful how God has done everything at the right time. He has put a sense of eternity in peoples minds. Yet, mortals still cant grasp what God is doing from the beginning to the end of time.

¹²I realize that theres nothing better for them to do than to be cheerful and enjoy what is good in their lives.

¹³It is a gift from God to be able to eat and drink and experience the good that comes from every kind of hard work.

¹⁴I realize that whatever God does will last forever. Nothing can be added to it, and nothing can be taken away from it. God does this so that people will fear him.

¹⁵Whatever has happened in the past is present now. Whatever is going to happen in the future has already happened in the past. God will call the past to account.

¹⁶I saw something else under the sun: There is wickedness where justice should be found. There is wickedness where righteousness should be found.

¹⁷I thought to myself, "God will judge righteous people as well as wicked people, because there is a specific time for every activity and every work that is done."

¹⁸I thought to myself, "God is going to test humans in order to show them that they are like animals."

¹⁹Humans and animals have the same destiny. One dies just like the other. All of them have the same breath of life. Humans have no advantage over animals. All of life is pointless.

²⁰All life goes to the same place. All life comes from the ground, and all of it goes back to the ground.

²¹Who knows whether a human spirit goes upward or whether an animal spirit goes downward to the earth?

²²I saw that theres nothing better for people to do than to enjoy their work because that is their lot in life. Who will allow them to see what will happen after them?

4¹Next, I turned to look at all the acts of oppression that make people suffer under the sun. Look at the tears of those who suffer! No one can comfort them. Their oppressors have all the power. No one can comfort those who suffer.

²I congratulate the dead, who have already died, rather than the living, who still have to carry on.

³But the person who hasnt been born yet is better off than both of them. He hasnt seen the evil that is done under the sun.

⁴Then I saw that all hard work and skillful effort come from rivalry. Even this is pointless. Its like trying to catch the wind.

⁵A fool folds his hands and wastes away.

⁶One handful of peace and quiet is better than two handfuls of hard work and of trying to catch the wind.

⁷Next, I turned to look at something pointless under the sun:

⁸There are people who are all alone. They have no children or other family members. So there is no end to all the hard work they have to do. Their eyes are never satisfied with riches.

But they never ask themselves why they are working so hard and depriving themselves of good things. Even this is pointless and a terrible tragedy.

⁹Two people are better than one because together they have a good reward for their hard work.

¹⁰If one falls, the other can help his friend get up. But how tragic it is for the one who is all alone when he falls. There is no one to help him get up.

¹¹Again, if two people lie down together, they can keep warm, but how can one person keep warm?

¹²Though one person may be overpowered by another, two people can resist one opponent. A triplebraided rope is not easily broken.

¹³A young man who is poor and wise is better than an old, foolish king who won't take advice any longer.

¹⁴A young man came out of prison to rule as king, even though he had been born in poverty in that same kingdom.

¹⁵I saw all living people moving about under the sun. They sided with the second young man, the king's successor.

¹⁶There was no end to all those people, everyone whom he led. But those who will come later will not be happy with the successor. Even this is pointless. Its like trying to catch the wind.

5¹ Watch your step when you go to the house of God. It is better to go there and listen than to bring the sacrifices fools bring. Fools are unaware that they are doing something evil.

² Dont be in a hurry to talk. Dont be eager to speak in the presence of God. Since God is in heaven and you are on earth, limit the number of your words.

³ Daydreaming comes when there are too many worries. Careless speaking comes when there are too many words.

⁴ When you make a promise to God, dont be slow to keep it because God doesnt like fools. Keep your promise.

⁵ It is better not to make a promise than to make one and not keep it.

⁷In spite of many daydreams, pointless actions, and empty words, you should still fear God.

⁸Dont be surprised if you see poor people being oppressed, denied justice, or denied their rights in any district. One authority is watching over another, and they both have authorities watching over them.

⁹Yet, a king is an advantage for a country with cultivated fields.

¹⁰Whoever loves money will never be satisfied with money. Whoever loves wealth will never be satisfied with more income. Even this is pointless.

¹¹As the number of goods increase, so do the number of people who consume them. What do owners gain from all their goods except the opportunity to look at them?

¹²The sleep of working people is sweet, whether they eat a little or a lot. But the full stomachs that rich people have will not allow them to sleep.

¹³There is a painful tragedy that I have seen under the sun: Riches lead to the downfall of those who hoard them.

¹⁴ These hoarded riches were then lost in bad business deals. The owners had children, but now they have nothing to give them.

¹⁵ They came from their mothers womb naked. They will leave as naked as they came. They wont even be able to take a handful of their earnings with them from all their hard work.

¹⁶ This also is a painful tragedy: They leave exactly as they came. What advantage do they gain from working so hard for the wind?

¹⁷ They spend their entire lives in darkness, in constant frustration, sickness, and resentment.

¹⁸ At last I have seen what is good and beautiful: It is to eat and drink and to enjoy the good in all our hard work under the sun during the brief lives God gives us. That is our lot in life.

¹⁹ It is a gift from God when God gives some people wealth and possessions, the power to enjoy them, the ability to accept their lot in life, and the ability to rejoice in their own hard work.

²⁰ These people wont give much thought to their brief lives because God keeps them occupied with the joy in their hearts.

6¹ There is a tragedy that I have seen under the sun. It is a terrible one for mortals.

² God gives one person riches, wealth, and honor so that he doesn't lack anything he wants. Yet, God doesn't give him the power to enjoy any of them. Instead, a stranger enjoys them. This is pointless and is a painful tragedy.

³ Suppose a rich person wasn't satisfied with good things while he was alive and didn't even get an honorable burial after he died. Suppose he had a hundred children and lived for many years. No matter how long he would have lived, it still would have been better for him to have been born dead.

⁴ A stillborn baby arrives in a pointless birth and goes out into the darkness. The darkness then hides its name.

⁵ Though it has never seen the sun or known anything, the baby finds more rest than the rich person.

⁶ Even if the rich person lives two thousand years without experiencing anything good dont we all go to the same place?

⁷ Everything that people work so hard for goes into their mouths, but their appetite is never satisfied.

⁸ What advantage does a wise person have over a fool? What advantage does a poor person have in knowing how to face life?

⁹ It is better to look at what is in front of you than to go looking for what you want. Even this is pointless. Its like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁰ Whatever has happened in the past already has a name. Mortals are already known for what they are. Mortals cannot argue with the one who is stronger than they.

¹¹ The more words there are, the more pointless they become. What advantage do mortals gain from this?

¹² Who knows what may be good for mortals while they are alive, during the brief, pointless days they live? Mortals pass by like a shadow. Who will tell them about their future under the sun?

7¹ A good name is better than expensive perfume, and the day you die is better than the day you're born.

² It is better to go to a funeral than to a banquet because that is where everyone will end up. Everyone who is alive should take this to heart!

³ Sorrow is better than laughter because, in spite of a sad face, the heart can be joyful.

⁴ The minds of wise people think about funerals, but the minds of fools think about banquets.

⁵ It is better to listen to wise people who reprimand you than to fools who sing your praises.

⁶ The laughter of a fool is like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot. Even this is pointless.

⁷ Oppression can turn a wise person into a fool, and a bribe can corrupt the mind.

⁸ The end of something is better than its beginning. It is better to be patient than arrogant.

⁹ Don't be quick to get angry, because anger is typical of fools.

¹⁰Don't ask, "Why were things better in the old days than they are now?" It isn't wisdom that leads you to ask this!

¹¹Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. It is an advantage to everyone who sees the sun.

¹²Wisdom protects us just as money protects us, but the advantage of wisdom is that it gives life to those who have it.

¹³Consider what God has done! Who can straighten what God has bent?

¹⁴When times are good, be happy. But when times are bad, consider this: God has made the one time as well as the other so that mortals cannot predict their future.

¹⁵I have seen it all in my pointless life: Righteous people die in spite of being righteous. Wicked people go on living in spite of being wicked.

¹⁶Don't be too virtuous, and don't be too wise. Why make yourself miserable?

¹⁷Don't be too wicked, and don't be a fool. Why should you die before your time is up?

¹⁸It's good to hold on to the one and not let go of the other, because the one who fears God will be able to avoid both extremes.

¹⁹Wisdom will help a wise person more than ten rulers can help a city.

²⁰Certainly, there is no one so righteous on earth that he always does what is good and never sins.

²¹Don't take everything that people say to heart, or you may hear your own servant cursing you.

²²Your conscience knows that you have cursed others many times.

²³I used wisdom to test all of this. I said, "I want to be wise, but it is out of my reach."

²⁴Whatever wisdom may be, it is out of reach. It is deep, very deep. Who can find out what it is?

²⁵I turned my attention to study, to explore, and to seek out wisdom and the reason for things. I learned that wickedness is stupid and foolishness is madness.

²⁶I find that a woman whose thoughts are like traps and snares is more bitter than death itself. Even her hands are like chains. Whoever pleases God will escape her, but she will catch whoever continues to sin.

²⁷ The spokesman said, "This is what I've found: I added one thing to another in order to find a reason for things.

²⁸ I am still seeking a reason for things, but have not found any. I found one man out of a thousand who had it, but out of all these I didn't find one woman.

²⁹ I have found only this: God made people decent, but they looked for many ways to avoid being decent."

8¹ Who is really wise? Who knows how to explain things? Wisdom makes one's face shine, and it changes one's grim look.

² I advise you to obey the king's commands because of the oath you took in God's presence.

³ Don't be in a hurry to leave the king's service. Don't take part in something evil, because he can do whatever he pleases.

⁴ Since a king's word has such power, no one can ask him what he is doing.

⁵ Whoever obeys his commands will avoid trouble. The mind of a wise person will know the right time and the right way to act.

⁶There is a right time and a right way to act in every situation. Yet, a terrible human tragedy hangs over people.

⁷They don't know what the future will bring. So who can tell them how things will turn out?

⁸No one has the power to prevent the spirit of life from leaving. No one has control over the day of his own death. There is no way to avoid the war against death. Wickedness will not save wicked people from dying.

⁹I have seen all of this, and I have carefully considered all that is done under the sun whenever one person has authority to hurt others.

¹⁰Then I saw wicked people given an honorable burial. They used to go in and out of the holy place. They were praised in the city for doing such things. Even this is pointless.

¹¹When a sentence against a crime isn't carried out quickly, people are encouraged to commit crimes.

¹²A sinner may commit a hundred crimes and yet live a long life. Still, I know with certainty that it will go well for those who fear God, because they fear him.

¹³ But it will not go well for the wicked. They will not live any longer. Their lives are like shadows, because they don't fear God.

¹⁴ There is something being done on earth that is pointless. Righteous people suffer for what the wicked do, and wicked people get what the righteous deserve. I say that even this is pointless.

¹⁶ When I carefully considered how to study wisdom and how to look at the work that is done on earth (even going without sleep day and night),

¹⁷ then I saw everything that God has done. No one is able to grasp the work that is done under the sun. However hard a person may search for it, he will not find its meaning. Even though a wise person claims to know, he is not able to grasp it.

9¹ Now, I have carefully thought about all this, and I explain it in this way: Righteous people and wise people, along with their accomplishments, are in Gods hands. No one knows whether there will be love or hatred.

² Everything turns out the same way for everyone. All people will share the same destiny, whether they are righteous, wicked, or good, clean or unclean, whether they offer sacrifices or dont offer sacrifices. Good people are treated like sinners. People who take oaths are treated like those who are afraid to take oaths.

⁴ But all who are among the living have hope, because a living dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵ The living know that they will die, but the dead dont know anything. There is no more reward for the dead when the memory of them has faded.

⁶Their love, their hate, and their passions have already vanished. They will never again take part in anything that happens under the sun.

⁷Go, enjoy eating your food, and drink your wine cheerfully, because God has already accepted what youve done.

⁸Always wear clean clothes, and never go without lotion on your head.

⁹Enjoy life with your wife, whom you love, during all your brief, pointless life. God has given you your pointless life under the sun. This is your lot in life and what you get for the hard work that you do under the sun.

¹⁰Whatever presents itself for you to do, do it with all your might, because there is no work, planning, knowledge, or skill in the grave where youre going.

¹¹I saw something else under the sun. The race isnt won by fast runners, or the battle by heroes. Wise people dont necessarily have food. Intelligent people dont necessarily have riches, and skilled people dont necessarily receive special treatment. But time and unpredictable events overtake all of them.

¹²No one knows when his time will come. Like fish that are caught in a cruel net or birds caught in a snare, humans are trapped by a disaster when it suddenly strikes them.

¹³I also have seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it made a deep impression on me.

¹⁴There was a small town with a few soldiers in it, and a powerful king came to attack it. He surrounded it and blockaded it.

¹⁵A poor, wise person was found in that town. He saved the town using his wisdom. But no one remembered that poor person.

¹⁶So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength," even though that poor person's wisdom was despised, and no one listened to what he said.

¹⁷One should pay more attention to calm words from wise people than shouting from a ruler of fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much that is good.

10¹ Dead flies will make a bottle of perfume stink, and then it is spoiled. A little foolishness outweighs wisdom and honor.

²A wise person's heart leads the right way. The heart of a fool leads the wrong way.

³Even when a fool goes walking, he has no sense and shows everyone else that he is a fool.

⁴If a ruler becomes angry with you, don't resign your position. If you remain calm, you can make up for serious offenses.

⁵There is a tragedy that I've seen under the sun, an error often made by rulers.

⁶Foolish people are often given high positions, and rich people are left to fill lower positions.

⁷I have seen slaves sitting on horses and influential people going on foot like slaves.

⁸Whoever digs a pit may fall into it. Whoever breaks through a stone wall may be bitten by a snake.

⁹Whoever works in a stone quarry may get hurt. Whoever splits wood may be injured.

¹⁰If an ax is blunt and the edge isn't sharpened, then one has to use more strength. But wisdom prepares the way for success.

¹¹If a snake bites before it has been charmed, then there is no advantage in being a snake charmer.

¹²A wise person's words win favors, but a fool's lips are self-destructive.

¹³A fool starts out by talking foolishness and ends up saying crazy things that are dangerous.

¹⁴He never stops talking. No one knows what the future will bring, or what will happen after death. Who can say!

¹⁵Fools wear themselves out with hard work, because they don't even know the way to town.

¹⁶How horrible it will be for any country where the king used to be a servant and where the high officials throw parties in the morning.

¹⁷A country is blessed when the king is from a noble family and when the high officials eat at the right time in order to get strength and not to get drunk.

¹⁸A roof sags because of laziness. A house leaks because of idle hands.

¹⁹A meal is made for laughter, and wine makes life pleasant, but money is the answer for everything.

²⁰Don't curse the king even in your thoughts, and don't curse rich people even in your bedroom. A bird may carry your words, or some winged creature may repeat what you say.

11 ¹Throw your bread on the surface of the water, because you will find it again after many days.

²Divide what you have into seven parts, or even into eight, because you don't know what disaster may happen on earth.

³If the clouds are full of rain, they will let it pour down on the earth. If a tree falls north or south, the tree will remain where it fell.

⁴Whoever watches the wind will never plant. Whoever looks at the clouds will never harvest.

⁵Just as you don't know how the breath of life enters the limbs of a child within its mother's womb, you also don't understand how God, who made everything, works.

⁶Plant your seed in the morning, and don't let your hands rest until evening. You don't know whether this field or that field will be profitable or whether both of them will turn out equally well.

⁷Light is sweet, and it is good for one's eyes to see the sun.

⁸Even though people may live for many years, they should enjoy every one of them. But they should also remember there will be many dark days. Everything that is coming is pointless.

⁹You young people should enjoy yourselves while you're young. You should let your hearts make you happy when you're young. Follow wherever your heart leads you and whatever your eyes see. But realize that God will make you give an account for all these things when he judges everyone.

¹⁰Get rid of what troubles you or wears down your body, because childhood and youth are pointless.

12¹Remember your Creator when you are young, before the days of trouble come and the years catch up with you. They will make you say, "I have found no pleasure in them."

²Remember your Creator before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars turn dark, and the clouds come back with rain.

³Remember your Creator when those who guard the house tremble, strong men are stooped over, the women at the mill stop grinding because there are so few of them, and those who look out of the windows see a dim light.

⁴Remember your Creator when the doors to the street are closed, the sound of the mill is muffled, you are startled at the sound of a bird, and those who sing songs become quiet.

⁵Remember your Creator when someone is afraid of heights and of dangers along the road, the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper bush has no fruit. Mortals go to their eternal rest, and mourners go out in the streets.

⁶Remember your Creator before the silver cord is snapped, the golden bowl is broken, the pitcher is smashed near the spring, and the water wheel is broken at the cistern.

⁷ Then the dust of mortals goes back to the ground as it was before, and the breath of life goes back to God who gave it.

⁸ "Absolutely pointless!" says the spokesman. "Everything is pointless!"

⁹ Besides being wise, the spokesman also taught the people what he knew. He very carefully thought about it, studied it, and arranged it in many proverbs.

¹⁰ The spokesman tried to find just the right words. He wrote the words of truth very carefully.

¹¹ Words from wise people are like spurs. Their collected sayings are like nails that have been driven in firmly. They come from one shepherd.

¹² Be warned, my children, against anything more than these. People never stop writing books. Too much studying will wear out your body.

¹³ After having heard it all, this is the conclusion: Fear God, and keep his commands, because this applies to everyone.

¹⁴ God will certainly judge everything that is done. This includes every secret thing, whether it is good or bad.

The Song of Songs

1 ¹ The most beautiful song of Solomon.

² [Bride] Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth. Your expressions of love are better than wine, ³ better than the fragrance of cologne. (Cologne should be named after you.) No wonder the young women love you!

⁴ Take me with you. Lets run away. The king has brought me into his private rooms. [The chorus of young women] We will celebrate and rejoice with you. We will praise your expressions of love more than wine. How right it is that the young women love you!

⁵ [Bride] Young women of Jerusalem, I am dark and lovely like Kedars tents, like Solomons curtains.

⁶ Stop staring at me because I am so dark. The sun has tanned me. My brothers were angry with me. They made me the caretaker of the vineyards. I have not even taken care of my own vineyard.

⁷ Please tell me, you whom I love, where do you graze your flock? Where does your flock lie down at noon? Tell me, or I will be considered a prostitute wandering among the flocks of your companions.

⁸ [The chorus of young women] If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the flocks, and graze your young goats near the shepherds tents.

⁹ [Groom] My true love, I compare you to a mare among Pharaohs stallions.

¹⁰ Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with strings of pearls.

¹¹ [The chorus of young women] We will make gold ornaments with silver beads for you.

¹² [Bride] While the king is at his table, my perfume fills the air with its fragrance.

¹³ My beloved is a pouch of myrrh that lies at night between my breasts.

¹⁴ My beloved is a bouquet of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.

¹⁵ [Groom] Look at you! You are beautiful, my true love! Look at you!

You are so beautiful! Your eyes are like doves!

¹⁶[Bride] Look at you! You are handsome, my beloved, so pleasing to me! The leafscattered ground will be our couch.

¹⁷The cedars will be the walls of our house. The cypress trees will be our rafters.

2¹ I am a rose of Sharon, a lily growing in the valleys.

²[Groom] Like a lily among thorns, so is my true love among the young women.

³[Bride] Like an apple tree among the trees in the forest, so is my beloved among the young men. I want to sit in his shadow. His fruit tastes sweet to me.

⁴He leads me into a banquet room and looks at me with love.

⁵Strengthen me with raisins and refresh me with apples because I am weak from love.

⁷Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me by the gazelles or by the does in the field that you will not awaken love or arouse love before its proper time.

⁸[Bride] I hear my beloveds voice.
Look! Here he comes, sprinting over the mountains, racing over the hills.

⁹My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look! There he stands behind our wall, peeking through the window, looking through the lattice.

¹⁰My beloved said to me, "Get up, my true love, my beautiful one, and come with me.

¹¹Look! The winter is past. The rain is over and gone.

¹²Blossoms appear in the land. The time of the songbird has arrived. The cooing of the mourning dove is heard in our land.

¹³The green figs ripen. The grapevines bloom and give off a fragrance. Get up, my true love, my beautiful one, and come with me.

¹⁴My dove, in the hiding places of the rocky crevices, in the secret places of the cliffs, let me see your figure and hear your voice. Your voice is sweet, and your

¹⁵Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that ruin vineyards. Our vineyards are blooming.

¹⁶My beloved is mine, and I am his. He is the one who grazes his flock among the lilies.

¹⁷When the day brings a cooling breeze and the shadows flee, turn around, my beloved. Run like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains that separate us!

3¹ [Bride] Night after night on my bed I looked for the one I love. I looked for him but did not find him.

²I will get up now and roam around the city, in the streets, and in the squares. I will look for the one I love. I looked for him but did not find him.

³The watchmen making their rounds in the city found me. I asked, "Have you seen the one I love?"

⁴I had just left them when I found the one I love. I held on to him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mothers house, into the bedroom of the one who conceived me.

⁵Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me by the gazelles or by the does in the field, that you will not awaken love or arouse love before its proper time.

⁶[The chorus of young women] Who is this young woman coming up from the wilderness like clouds of smoke? She is perfumed with myrrh and incense made from the merchants scented powders.

⁷Look! Solomons sedan chair! Sixty soldiers from the army of Israel surround it.

⁸All of them are skilled in using swords, experienced in combat. Each one has his sword at his side and guards against the terrors of the night.

⁹King Solomon had a carriage made for himself from the wood of Lebanon.

¹⁰He had its posts made out of silver, its top out of gold, its seat out of purple fabric. Its insidewith inlaid scenes of love was made by the young women of Jerusalem.

¹¹Young women of Zion, come out and look at King Solomon! Look at his crown, the crown his mother placed on him on his wedding day, his day of joyful delight.

4¹[Groom] Look at you! You are beautiful, my true love. Look at you! You are so beautiful. Your eyes behind your veil are like doves. Your hair is like a flock of goats moving down Mount Gilead.

²Your teeth are like a flock of sheep about to be sheared, sheep that come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one has lost its young.

³Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like slices of pomegranate.

⁴Your neck is like Davids beautifullydesigned tower. A thousand round shields belonging to soldiers are hung on it.

⁵Your breasts are like two fawns, like twin gazelles grazing among the lilies.

⁶When the day brings a cool breeze and the shadows flee, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of incense.

⁷You are beautiful in every way, my true love. There is no blemish on you.

⁸You will come with me from Lebanon, from Lebanon as my bride. You will travel with me from the peak of Mount Amana, from the mountain peaks in Senir and Hermon, from the lairs of lions, from the mountains of leopards.

⁹My bride, my sister, you have charmed me. You have charmed me with a single glance from your eyes, with a single strand of your necklace.

¹⁰How beautiful are your expressions of love, my bride, my sister! How much better are your expressions of love than wine and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice.

¹¹Your lips drip honey, my bride. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The fragrance of your clothing is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

¹²My bride, my sister is a garden that is locked, a garden that is locked, a spring that is sealed.

¹³You are paradise that produces pomegranates and the best fruits, henna flowers and nard, ¹⁴nard and saffron, calamus, cinnamon, and all kinds of incense, myrrh, aloes, and all the best spices.

¹⁵You are a spring for gardens, a well of living water flowing from Lebanon.

5¹ [Groom] My bride, my sister, I will come to my garden. I will gather my myrrh with my spice. I will eat my honeycomb with my honey. I will drink my wine with my milk. Eat, my friends! Drink and become intoxicated with expressions of love!

² [Bride] I sleep, but my mind is awake. Listen! My beloved is knocking. [Groom] Open to me, my true love, my sister, my dove, my perfect one. My head is wet with dew, my hair with the dewdrops of night.

³ [Bride] I have taken off my clothes! Why should I put them on again? I have washed my feet! Why should I get them dirty again?

⁴ My beloved put his hand through the keyhole. My heart throbbed for him.

⁵ I got up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers were drenched with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had turned away. He was gone! I almost died when he left. I looked for him, but I did not find him. I called for him, but he did not answer me.

⁷ The watchmen making their rounds in the city found me. They struck me! They wounded me! Those watchmen on the walls took my robe from me!

⁸ Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me that if you find my beloved you will tell him I am hopelessly lovesick.

⁹ [The chorus of young women] Most beautiful of women, what makes your beloved better than any other beloved? What makes your beloved better than any other beloved that you make us swear this way?

¹⁰ [Bride] My beloved is dazzling yet ruddy. He stands out among 10,000 men.

¹¹ His head is the finest gold. His hair is wavy, black as a raven.

¹² His eyes are set like doves bathing in milk.

¹³ His cheeks are like a garden of spices, a garden that produces scented herbs. His lips are lilies that drip with myrrh.

¹⁴ His hands are disks of gold set with emerald. His chest is a block of ivory covered with sapphires.

¹⁵His legs are columns of marble set on bases of pure gold. His form is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

¹⁶His mouth is sweet in every way. Everything about him is desirable! This is my beloved, and this is my friend, young women of Jerusalem.

6¹ [The chorus of young women] Where did your beloved go, most beautiful of women? Where did your beloved turn? We will look for him with you.

²[Bride] My beloved went to his garden, to the beds of spices, to graze his flock in the gardens and gather lilies.

³I am my beloveds, and my beloved is mine. He is the one who grazes his flock among the lilies.

⁴[Groom] You are beautiful, my true love, like Tirzah, lovely like Jerusalem, aweinspiring like those great cities.

⁵Turn your eyes away from me. They enchant me! Your hair is like a flock of goats moving down from Gilead.

⁶Your teeth are like a flock of sheep, sheep that come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one has lost its young.

⁷Your temples behind your veil are like slices of pomegranate.

⁸There are 60 queens, 80 concubines, and countless virgins,

⁹but she is unique, my dove, my perfect one. Her mother thinks she is unique. She is pure to the one who gave birth to her. Her sisters saw her and blessed her. Queens and concubines saw her and praised her.

¹⁰[The chorus of young women] Who is this young woman? She looks like the dawn. She is beautiful like the moon, pure like the sun, aweinspiring like those heavenly bodies.

¹¹[Bride] I went to the walnut grove to look at the blossoms in the valley, to see if the grapevine had budded and if the pomegranates were in bloom.

¹²I did not know that I had become like the chariots of my noble people.

¹³[The chorus of young women] Come back! Come back, young woman from Shulam! Come back! Come back so that we may look at you! [Bride] Why do you look at me, the young woman from Shulam, as you look at the dance of Mahanaim?

7¹ [The chorus of young women]
How beautiful are your feet in their sandals, noble daughter! The curves of your thighs are like ornaments, like the work of an artists hands.

²Your navel is a round bowl. May it always be filled with spiced wine. Your waist is a bundle of wheat enclosed in lilies.

³Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like pools in Heshbon, pools by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like a Lebanese tower facing Damascus.

⁵You hold your head as high as Mount Carmel. Your dangling curls are royal beauty. Your flowing locks could hold a king captive.

⁶[Groom] How beautiful and charming you are, my love, with your elegance.

⁷Young woman, your figure is like a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.

⁸I thought, "I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit." May your breasts be like clusters on the vine. May the fragrance of your breath be like apples.

⁹May your mouth taste like the best wine[Bride]that goes down smoothly to my beloved and glides over the lips of those about to sleep.

¹⁰I am my beloveds, and he longs for me.

¹¹Come, my beloved. Lets go into the field. Lets spend the night among the henna flowers.

¹²Lets go to the vineyards early. Lets see if the vines have budded, if the grape blossoms have opened, if the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

¹³The mandrakes give off a fragrance, and at our door are all kinds of precious fruits. I have saved new and old things for you alone, my beloved.

8¹If only you were my brother, one who nursed at my mothers breasts. If I saw you on the street, I would kiss you, and no one would look down on me.

²I would lead you. I would bring you into my mothers house. (She is the one who was my teacher.) I would give you some spiced wine to drink, some juice squeezed from my pomegranates.

⁴Young women of Jerusalem, swear to me that you will not awaken love or arouse love before its proper time!

⁶Wear me as a signet ring on your heart, as a ring on your hand. Love is as overpowering as death. Devotion is as unyielding as the grave. Loves flames are flames of fire, flames that come from the LORD.

⁷Raging water cannot extinguish love, and rivers will never wash it away. If a man exchanged all his familys wealth for love, people would utterly despise him.

⁸[The brothers] We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What will we do for our sister on the day she becomes engaged?

⁹If she is a wall, we will build a silver barrier around her. If she is a door, we will barricade her with cedar boards.

¹⁰[Bride] I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. So he considers me to be one who has found peace.

¹¹Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He entrusted that vineyard to caretakers. Each one was to bring 25 pounds of silver in exchange for its fruit.

¹²My own vineyard is in front of me. That 25 pounds is yours, Solomon, and 5 pounds go to those who take care of its fruit.

¹³[Groom] Young woman living in the gardens, while your friends are listening to your voice, let me hear ¹⁴[Bride] Come away quickly, my beloved. Run like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

I saiah

1 ¹ This is the vision which I saiah, son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem at the time of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah.

² Listen, heaven, and pay attention, earth! The LORD has spoken, "I raised my children and helped them grow, but they have rebelled against me.

³ Oxen know their owners, and donkeys know where their masters feed them. But Israel doesnt know its owner. My people dont understand who feeds them.

⁴ "How horrible it will be for a nation that sins. Its people are loaded down with guilt. They are descendants of evildoers and destructive children. They have abandoned the LORD. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They have turned their backs on him.

⁵ "Why do you still want to be beaten? Why do you continue to rebel? Your whole head is infected. Your whole heart is failing.

⁶From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head there is no healthy spot left on your body only bruises, sores, and fresh wounds. They havent been cleansed, bandaged, or soothed with oil.

⁷"Your country is devastated. Your cities are burned down. Your fields are destroyed right before your eyes by foreigners. Your fields are devastated and taken over by foreigners.

⁸My people Zion are left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shack in a cucumber field, like a city under attack."

⁹If the LORD of Armies hadnt left us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah.

¹⁰Listen to the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Pay attention to the teachings from our God, you people of Gomorrah!

¹¹The LORD asks, "What do your many animal sacrifices mean to me? Ive had enough of your burnt offerings of rams and enough fat from your fattened calves. Im not pleased with the blood of bulls, lambs, or male goats.

¹²When you appear in my presence, who asked you to trample on my courtyards?

¹³Don't bring any more worthless grain offerings. Your incense is disgusting to me, so are your New Moon Festivals, your days of worship, and the assemblies you call. I can't stand your evil assemblies.

¹⁴I hate your New Moon Festivals and your appointed festivals. They've become a burden to me, and I'm tired of putting up with them.

¹⁵So when you stretch out your hands in prayer, I will turn my eyes away from you. Even though you offer many prayers, I will not listen because your hands are covered with blood.

¹⁶"Wash yourselves! Become clean! Get your evil deeds out of my sight. Stop doing evil.

¹⁷Learn to do good. Seek justice. Arrest oppressors. Defend orphans. Plead the case of widows."

¹⁸"Come on now, let's discuss this!" says the LORD. "Though your sins are bright red, they will become as white as snow. Though they are dark red, they will become as white as wool.

¹⁹If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the best from the land.

²⁰But if you refuse and rebel, you will be destroyed by swords." The LORD has spoken.

²¹How the faithful town has become a prostitute! She was full of justice, and righteousness lived in her. But now murderers live there!

²²Your silver is not pure. Your wine is watered down.

²³Your rulers are rebels, friends with thieves. They all love bribes and run after gifts. They never defend orphans. They don't notice the widows' pleas.

²⁴That's why the Lord, the LORD of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says, "How horrible it will be when I take revenge on my opponents! I will avenge myself against my enemies.

²⁵I will turn my power against you. I will remove your impurities with bleach. I will get rid of all your impurities.

²⁶I will give you judges like you had long ago, advisers like you had in the beginning. After that you will be called the Righteous City, the Faithful Town."

²⁷ Zion will be pardoned by the LORDS justice, and those who return will be pardoned by the LORDS righteousness.

²⁸ Rebels and sinners will be crushed at the same time, and those who abandon the LORD will come to an end.

²⁹ You will be ashamed of the oaks that you wanted to worship and embarrassed by the garden that you have chosen for your gods.

³⁰ You will be like an oak whose leaves wither and like a garden without water.

³¹ Strong people will become tinder for a fire, and their work will be the spark. Both of them will burn together, and there will be no one to put out the fire.

2¹ This is the message which Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem.

² In the last days the mountain of the LORDS house will be established as the highest of the mountains and raised above the hills. All the nations will stream to it.

³ Then many people will come and say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways so that we may live by them." The teachings will go out from Zion. The word of the LORD will go out from Jerusalem.

⁴Then he will judge disputes between nations and settle arguments between many people. They will hammer their swords into plowblades and their spears into pruning shears. Nations will never fight against each other, and they will never train for war again.

⁵Come, descendants of Jacob, let's live in the light of the LORD.

⁶LORD, you have abandoned your people, the descendants of Jacob, because they are filled with Eastern influences. They are fortunetellers like the Philistines, and they make deals with foreigners.

⁷Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures. Their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

⁸Their land is filled with idols, and they worship what their hands have shaped and what their fingers have molded.

⁹People will be brought down. Everyone will be humbled. Do not forgive them.

¹⁰Go in among the rocks and hide underground because of the LORDS terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty.

¹¹The eyes of arrogant people will be humbled. High and mighty people will be brought down. On that day the LORD alone will be honored.

¹²The LORD of Armies will have his day against all who are arrogant and conceited and all who are proud of themselves (they will be humbled), ¹³against all the towering and mighty cedars of Lebanon and all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴against all the high mountains and all the lofty hills,

¹⁵against every high tower and every fortified wall,

¹⁶against all the large ships of Tarshish and all the beautiful boats.

¹⁷Then arrogant people will be brought down, and high and mighty people will be humbled. On that day the LORD alone will be honored.

¹⁸Then idols will disappear completely.

¹⁹People will go into caves in the rocks and into holes in the ground because of the LORDS terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty when he rises to terrify the earth.

²⁰On that day people will throw to the moles and the bats the silver and gold idols that they made for themselves to worship.

²¹They will go into caves in the rocks and into cracks in the cliffs because of the LORDS terrifying presence and the honor of his majesty when he rises to terrify the earth.

²²Stop trusting people. Their life is in their nostrils. How can they be worth anything?

3¹See now, the Lord, the LORD of Armies, is going to take from Jerusalem and Judah every kind of support and their entire supply of food and water.

²He will take their heroes and soldiers, judges and prophets, fortunetellers and statesmen, ³military leaders and civilian leaders, counselors, skilled workers, and experts in magic.

⁴"I will make boys their leaders. Children will govern them."

⁵ People will oppress each other, and everyone will oppress his neighbor. The young will make fun of the old, and common people will make fun of their superiors.

⁶ A person will grab one of his relatives from his fathers family and say, "You have a coat. Youll be our leader. This pile of ruins will be under your control."

⁷ When that day comes the relative will cry out, "Im not a doctor! I dont have any food or a coat in my home. Dont make me a leader of our family."

⁸ Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because what they say and what they do is against the LORD. They are defiant in his honored presence.

⁹ The look on their faces will be held against them. They boast about their sins, which are like those of the people of Sodom. They dont even bother to hide them. How horrible it will be for these people, because they have brought disaster on themselves.

¹⁰ Tell the righteous that blessings will come to them. They will taste the fruit of their labor.

¹¹ How horrible it will be for the wicked! Disaster will strike them. What they have done will be done to them.

¹² "Children will oppress my people. Women will rule them. My people, your guides mislead you, and you don't know which way to go."

¹³ The LORD takes his place in the courtroom. He stands to judge his people.

¹⁴ The LORD presents his case to the respected leaders and the officials of his people: "You have burned down the vineyard! Your houses are filled with goods stolen from the poor."

¹⁵ The Almighty LORD of Armies asks, "How can you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor into the ground?"

¹⁷ The Lord will cause sores to appear on the heads of the women of Zion, and the LORD will make their foreheads bare.

¹⁸On that day the Lord will take away their fine things: jingling anklets, headbands, crescentshaped necklaces, ¹⁹pendants, bracelets, scarfs,
²⁰hats, ankle bracelets, blouses, perfume boxes, charms,
²¹signet rings, nose rings,
²²fine robes, coats, shawls, purses,
²³mirrors, underwear, headdresses, and veils.

²⁴Instead of the smell of perfume, there will be the smell of decay. They will wear ropes instead of belts. They will have bald heads instead of beautiful hair. They will wear sackcloth instead of expensive clothes. Their beauty will be scarred.

²⁵Women, your warriors will die in combat. Your mighty men will die in battle.

²⁶The gates of Zion will cry and grieve, and Zion will sit on the ground, exhausted.

4¹When that day comes, seven women will grab one man and say, "Well eat our own food and provide our own clothes. Just let us marry you for your name. Take away our disgrace."

²When that day comes, the branch of the LORD will be beautiful and wonderful. The fruit of the land will be the pride and joy of Israels survivors.

³Then whoever is left in Zion and whoever remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

⁴The Lord will wash away the filth of Zions people. He will clean bloodstains from Jerusalem with a spirit of judgment and a spirit of burning.

⁵The LORD will create a cloud of smoke during the day and a glowing flame of fire during the night over the whole area of Mount Zion and over the assembly. His glory will cover everything.

⁶It will be a shelter from the heat during the day as well as a refuge and hiding place from storms and rain.

5¹Let me sing a lovesong to my beloved about his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hill.

²He dug it up, removed its stones, planted it with the choicest vines, built a watchtower in it, and made a winepress in it. Then he waited for it to produce good grapes, but it produced only sour, wild grapes.

³Now then, you inhabitants of Jerusalem and Judah, judge between me and my vineyard!

⁴What more could have been done for my vineyard than what I have already done for it? When I waited for it to produce good grapes, why did it produce only sour, wild grapes?

⁵Now then, let me tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will tear away its hedge so that it can be devoured and tear down its wall so that it can be trampled.

⁶I will make it a wasteland. It will never be pruned or hoed. Thorns and weeds will grow in it, and I will command the clouds not to rain on it.

⁷The vineyard of the LORD of Armies is the nation of Israel, and the people of Judah are the garden of his delight. He hoped for justice but saw only slaughter, for righteousness but heard only cries of distress.

⁸How horrible it will be for you who acquire house after house and buy field after field until theres nothing left and you have to live by yourself in the land.

⁹With my own ears I heard the LORD of Armies say, "Many houses will become empty. Large, beautiful houses will be without people to live in them.

¹⁰A tenacre vineyard will produce only six gallons of wine, and two quarts of seed will produce only four quarts of grain."

¹¹How horrible it will be for those who get up early to look for a drink, who sit up late until they are drunk from wine.

¹²At their feasts there are lyres and harps, tambourines and flutes, and wine. Yet, they dont pay attention to what the LORD is doing or see what his hands have done.

¹³"My people will go into exile because they dont understand what Im doing. Honored men will starve, and common people will be parched with thirst."

¹⁴That is why the graves appetite increases. It opens its mouth very wide so that honored people and common people will go down into it. Those who are noisy and joyous will go down into it.

¹⁵ People will be brought down. Everyone will be humbled. And the eyes of arrogant people will be humbled.

¹⁶ The LORD of Armies will be honored when he judges. The holy God will show himself to be holy when he does what is right.

¹⁷ Then lambs will graze as if they were in their own pasture, and foreigners will eat among the ruins of the rich.

¹⁸ How horrible it will be for those who string people along with lies and empty promises, whose lives are sinful.

¹⁹ They say, "Let God hurry and quickly do his work so that we may see what he has in mind. Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel happen quickly so that we may understand what he is doing."

²¹ How horrible it will be for those who think they are wise and consider themselves to be clever.

²²How horrible it will be for those who are heroes at drinking wine, who are champions at mixing drinks, ²³who declare the guilty innocent for a bribe, who take away the rights of righteous people.

²⁴As flames burn up straw and dry grass shrivels in flames, so their roots will rot, and their blossoms will blow away like dust. They have rejected the teachings of the LORD of Armies and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵That's why the anger of the LORD burns hot against his people, and he is ready to use his power to strike them down. The hills tremble, and dead bodies lie like garbage in the streets. Even after all this, his anger has not disappeared, and he is still ready to use his power.

²⁶The LORD raises up a flag for the nations far away. With a whistle he signals those at the ends of the earth. Look, they are coming very quickly!

²⁷None of them grow tired or stumble. None of them slumber or sleep. The belts on their waists aren't loose or their sandal straps broken.

²⁸Their arrows are sharpened; all their bows are ready to shoot. Their horses hoofs are as hard as flint. Their chariot wheels are as quick as the wind.

²⁹They roar like a lioness. They growl like a young lion. They growl as they snatch their prey and carry it off to where no one can rescue it.

³⁰On that day they will roar over their prey as the sea roars. If they look at the land, they will see only darkness and distress. Even the light will be darkened by thick clouds.

6¹In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a high and lofty throne. The bottom of his robe filled the temple.

²Angels were standing above him. Each had six wings: With two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

³They called to each other and said, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Armies! The whole earth is filled with his glory."

⁴Their voices shook the foundations of the doorposts, and the temple filled with smoke.

⁵So I said, "Oh, no! I'm doomed. Every word that passes through my lips is sinful. I live among people with sinful lips. I have seen the king, the LORD of Armies!"

⁶Then one of the angels flew to me. In his hand was a burning coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs.

⁷He touched my mouth with it and said, "This has touched your lips. Your guilt has been taken away, and your sin has been forgiven."

⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom will I send? Who will go for us?" I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

⁹And he said, "Go and tell these people, No matter how closely you listen, you'll never understand. No matter how closely you look, you'll never see.

¹⁰Make these people closeminded. Plug their ears. Shut their eyes. Otherwise, they may see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their minds, and return and be healed."

¹¹I asked, "How long, O Lord?" And he replied, "Until the cities lie in ruins with no one living in them, the houses have no people, and the land is completely desolate.

¹²The LORD will send his people far away, and a large area in the middle of the land will be abandoned.

¹³Even if one out of ten people is left in it, the land will be burned again. When a sacred oak or an oak is cut down, a stump is left. The holy seed will be the lands stump."

7¹When Ahaz, son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah, Arams King Rezin and Israels King Pekah, son of Remaliah, went to Jerusalem to attack it, but they couldnt defeat it.

²When word reached Davids family that the Arameans had made an alliance with Ephraim, the hearts of the king and his people were shaken as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

³Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out with your son Shear Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the ditch of the Upper Pool on the road to the Laundrymans Field.

⁴Say to him, Be careful, stay calm, and dont be afraid. Dont lose heart because of the fierce anger of Rezin from Aram and Remaliahs son. These two are smoldering logs.

⁵Aram, Ephraim, and Remaliahs son have planned evil against you, saying, ⁶Lets march against Judah, tear it apart, divide it among ourselves, and set up Tabeels son as its king.

⁷This is what the Almighty LORD says: It wont take place; it wont happen.

⁸The capital of Aram is Damascus, and the leader of Damascus is Rezin. Ephraim will be shattered within 65 years so that it will no longer be a nation.

⁹The capital of Ephraim is Samaria, and the leader of Samaria is Remaliahs son. If you dont remain faithful, you wont remain standing.

¹⁰Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz,

¹¹"Ask the LORD your God for a sign. It can be anything you want."

¹²But Ahaz answered, "I wont ask; I wouldnt think of testing the LORD."

¹³"Listen now, descendants of David," Isaiah said. "Isnt it enough that you try the patience of mortals? Must you also try the patience of my God?"

¹⁴ So the Lord himself will give you this sign: A virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and she will name him Immanuel [God Is With Us].

¹⁵ He will eat cheese and honey until he knows how to reject evil and choose good.

¹⁶ Indeed, before the boy knows how to reject evil and choose good, the land of the two kings who terrify you will be deserted.

¹⁷ "The LORD will bring on you, your people, and your ancestors family a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah. He will bring the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ All of them will come and settle in the deep valleys, in the cracks in the cliffs, on all the thornbushes, and at all the water holes.

²⁰ "On that day the Lord will hire the king of Assyria from beyond the Euphrates River to be a razor to shave the hair on your head, the hair on your legs, and even your beard.

²¹ On that day a person will keep alive a young cow and two sheep.

²² That person will eat cheese, because they will produce so much milk. Everyone who is left in the land will eat cheese and honey.

²³ On that day, in every place where there were 1,000 vines (worth 1,000 pieces of silver), there will be briars and thorns.

²⁴ People will come there with bows and arrows to hunt because the whole land will be filled with briars and thorns.

²⁵ And you will no longer be able to go to all the hills which used to be cultivated because they will be filled with briars and thorns. It will be a place for turning oxen loose and letting sheep run."

8¹ The LORD said to me, "Take a large writing tablet, and write on it with a pen: Maher Shalal Hash Baz [The Looting Will Come Quickly; the Prey Will Be Easy].

² I will have these dependable witnesses testify: the priest Uriah and Zechariah (son of Jeberechiah)."

³I slept with the prophet. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. The LORD told me, "Name him Maher Shalal Hash Baz.

⁴Before the boy knows how to say Daddy or Mommy, the wealth of Damascus and the loot from Samaria will be carried away to the king of Assyria."

⁵The LORD spoke to me again. He said,

⁶"These people have rejected the gently flowing water of Shiloah and find joy in Rezin and Remaliahs son."

⁷That is why the Lord is going to bring against them the raging and powerful floodwaters of the Euphrates River the king of Assyria with all his power. It will overflow all its channels and go over all its banks.

⁸It will sweep through Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will be neckhigh. Its outspread wings will extend over your whole country, O Immanuel.

⁹Be broken, you people. Be terrified. Listen, all you distant parts of the earth. Prepare for battle, but be terrified. Prepare for battle, but be terrified.

¹⁰Make plans for battle, but they will never succeed. Give orders, but they wont be carried out, because God is with us!

¹¹ This is what the LORD said with his powerful hand on me. He warned me not to follow the ways of these people:

¹² "Dont say that everything these people call a conspiracy is a conspiracy. Dont fear what they fear. Dont let it terrify you."

¹³ Remember that the LORD of Armies is holy. He is the one you should fear and the one you should be terrified of.

¹⁴ He will be a place of safety for you. But he will be a rock that makes people trip and a stumbling block for both kingdoms of Israel. He will be a trap and a snare for those who live in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Many will stumble. They will fall and be broken. They will be trapped and caught.

¹⁶ Tie up the written instructions. Seal the teachings among my disciples.

¹⁷ I will wait for the LORD, who hides his face from the descendants of Jacob. I will hope in him.

¹⁸ I am here with the children that the LORD has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD of Armies, who lives on Mount Zion.

¹⁹People will say to you, "Ask for help from the mediums and the fortunetellers, who whisper and mutter." Shouldn't people ask their God for help instead? Why should they ask the dead to help the living?

²⁰They should go to the teachings and to the written instructions. If people don't speak these words, it is because it doesn't dawn on them.

²¹They will pass through the land when they are hardpressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will be furious. Then they will look up, cursing their king and God.

²²They will look at the earth and see only distress and gloom. They will go in anguish and be forced into darkness.

9¹ But there will be no more gloom for the land that is in distress. God humbled the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali in earlier times. But in the future he will bring glory to the road by the sea, to the land across the Jordan River, to Galilee, where foreigners live.

²The people who walk in darkness will see a bright light. The light will shine on those who live in the land of death's shadow.

³You will expand the nation and increase its happiness. It will be happy in your presence like those who celebrate the harvest or rejoice when dividing loot.

⁴You will break the yoke that burdens them, the bar that is across their shoulders, and the stick used by their oppressor, as you did in the battle against Midian.

⁵Every warrior's boot marching to the sound of battle and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel in the fire.

⁶A child will be born for us. A son will be given to us. The government will rest on his shoulders. He will be named: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷His government and peace will have unlimited growth. He will establish David's throne and kingdom. He will uphold it with justice and righteousness now and forever. The LORD of Armies is determined to do this!

⁸The LORD sent a message against Jacob. The message is against Israel.

⁹All the people of Ephraim and the people who live in Samaria will know it. With arrogant and conceited hearts they will say,

¹⁰"Bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with handcut stones. Fig trees have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."

¹¹The LORD will set Rezin's oppressors against Israel and will stir up its enemies

¹²the Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west. They will devour Israel with open mouths. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

¹³But the people have not returned to the one who struck them, nor have they sought the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴So in one day the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branches and cattails.

¹⁵Respected and honored leaders are the head. Prophets who teach lies are the tail.

¹⁶Those who guide these people lead them astray. Those who are guided by them will be destroyed.

¹⁷That is why the Lord isn't happy with their young men, nor will he show compassion for their orphans and widows. Every one of them is a godless evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolishness. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

¹⁸Surely wickedness burns like fire. It burns up briars and thorns. It sets the underbrush in the forest on fire, and it whirls upward in clouds of smoke.

¹⁹The land is scorched by the fury of the LORD of Armies, and the people are like fuel for the fire. No one shows concern for others:

²⁰On the right, one gobbles up food and is still hungry. On the left, another eats and is never full. Each person eats the flesh from his own arm.

²¹Manasseh is against Ephraim. Ephraim is against Manasseh. Together they attack Judah. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

10¹ How horrible it will be for those who make unjust laws and who make oppressive regulations.

² They deprive the poor of justice. They take away the rights of the needy among my people. They prey on widows and rob orphans.

³ What will you do on the day you are called to account for these things, when the disaster comes from far away? Where will you run for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

⁴ Nothings left but to crouch among prisoners and to fall with those who are killed. Even after all this, his anger will not disappear, and he is still ready to use his power.

⁵ "How horrible it will be for Assyria! It is the rod of my anger. My fury is the staff in the Assyrians hands.

⁶ I send them against a godless nation. In my fury I order them against the people to take their belongings, loot them, and trample on them like mud in the streets.

⁷ But thats not what they intend to do. Their minds dont work that way. Their purpose is to destroy and put an end to many nations.

⁸They ask, Arent all our commanders kings?

⁹Isnt Calno like Carchemish? Isnt Hamath like Arpad? Isnt Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰My power has reached kingdoms which have idols. They had more carved statues than Jerusalem or Samaria.

¹¹I will do to Jerusalem and its idols what Ive done to Samaria and its idols."

¹²When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will punish the king of Assyria for all his boasting and all his arrogance.

¹³The king will say, "I did this with my own two powerful hands. I did this with my wisdom, because I am so clever. Ive eliminated the boundaries of nations. Ive looted treasuries. Ive brought down people like a mighty man.

¹⁴Ive found the riches of nations as one finds a nest. Ive gathered the whole world as one gathers abandoned eggs. Not one of them flapped a wing, opened its mouth, or peeped."

¹⁶ That is why the Almighty LORD of Armies will send a degenerative disease against brave men. A flame will be turned into a raging fire under his power.

¹⁷ Israel's light will become a flame. Its Holy One will become a fire. He will burn up and devour the weeds and thornbushes in one day.

¹⁸ The majestic forest and the orchard will destroy both body and soul. They will be like a sick person wasting away.

¹⁹ The trees that remain in the forest will be so few that a child could count them.

²⁰ At that time the remaining few Israelites, the survivors of Jacob's descendants will no longer depend on the one who struck them. They will only depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹ A few, the remaining few of Jacob, will return to the mighty God.

²² Although your people Israel may be as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, only a few will return. Destruction will be complete and fair.

²³ The Almighty LORD of Armies will carry out this destruction throughout the world as he has determined.

²⁵ Very soon I will unleash my fury, and my anger will destroy them.

²⁶ Then the LORD of Armies will raise his whip against them. As he struck down Midian at the Rock of Oreb and raised his staff over the water, so he will lift it as he did in Egypt.

²⁷ At that time their burden will be removed from your shoulders. Their yoke will be removed from your neck. The yoke will be torn away because you have grown fat.

²⁸ They come to Aiath. They pass through Migron. They store their equipment at Michmash.

²⁹They go through the mountain pass and lodge at Geba for the night. The people in Ramah tremble; the people in Sauls Gibeah flee.

³⁰Cry aloud, you people in Gallim! Pay attention, you people in Laishah and miserable Anathoth!

³¹The people in Madmenah flee; those who live in Gebim take shelter.

³²This day they stopped at Nob. They shake their fist at the mountain of my people Zion, at the mountain of Jerusalem.

³³Now look! The Almighty LORD of Armies will trim the branches with terrifying power. The highest trees will be cut down. The tallest ones will be brought down.

³⁴He will cut down the underbrush of the forest with an ax. Lebanon will fall in front of the Mighty One.

11 ¹Then a shoot will come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from its roots will bear fruit.

²The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of advice and power, the Spirit of knowledge and fear of the LORD.

³He will gladly bear the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what his eyes see or decide by what his ears hear.

⁴He will judge the poor justly. He will make fair decisions for the humble people on earth. He will strike the earth with a rod from his mouth. He will kill the wicked with the breath from his lips.

⁵Justice will be the belt around his waist. Faithfulness will be the belt around his hips.

⁶Wolves will live with lambs. Leopards will lie down with goats. Calves, young lions, and yearold lambs will be together, and little children will lead them.

⁷Cows and bears will eat together. Their young will lie down together. Lions will eat straw like oxen.

⁸Infants will play near cobras holes. Toddlers will put their hands into vipers nests.

⁹They will not hurt or destroy anyone anywhere on my holy mountain. The world will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD like water covering the sea.

¹⁰At that time the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the people to gather around. The nations will come to him. His resting place will be glorious.

¹¹At that time the Lord will use his power again to recover what remains of his people in Assyria, Upper and Lower Egypt, Sudan, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.

¹²He will raise a banner for the nations to gather around. He will gather the outcasts of Israel and bring together the scattered people of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

¹³Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's opponents will come to an end. Ephraim won't be jealous of Judah, and Judah won't oppose Ephraim.

¹⁴They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia in the west. Together they will loot the people of the east. They will conquer Edom and Moab. The people of Ammon will be subject to them.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remaining few of his people left in Assyria like there was for Israel when it came out of Egypt.

12¹At that time you will say, "I will praise you, O LORD. Although you had been angry with me, you turned your anger away from me, and you comforted me.

²Look! God is my Savior. I am confident and unafraid, because the LORD is my strength and my song. He is my Savior."

³With joy you will draw water from the springs of salvation.

⁴At that time you will say, "Praise the LORD. Call on his name. Make his deeds known among the nations. Make them remember that his name is highly honored.

⁵Make music to praise the LORD. He has done wonderful things. Let this be known throughout the earth.

⁶Shout loudly, and sing with joy, people of Zion! The Holy One of Israel is great. He is among you."

13¹This is the divine revelation which Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw about Babylon.

²Raise a banner on the bare mountaintop. Call loudly to them. Signal them with your hand to enter the nobles gates.

³Ive commanded my holy ones. Ive called my mighty men to carry out my anger. They find joy in my triumphs.

⁴Listen to the noise on the mountains. It is like the sound of a large army. It is the sound of kingdoms and nations gathering together. The LORD of Armies is assembling his army for battle.

⁵His army is coming from a distant land, from the ends of heaven. The LORD is coming with the weapons of his fury to destroy the whole world.

⁶Cry loudly, for the day of the LORD is near. It will come like destruction from the Almighty.

⁷That is why every hand will hang limp, and everyones courage will fail.

⁸Theyll be terrified. Pain and anguish will seize them. Theyll writhe like a woman giving birth to a child. Theyll look at one another in astonishment. Their faces will be burning red.

⁹The day of the LORD is going to come. It will be a cruel day with fury and fierce anger. He will make the earth desolate. He will destroy its sinners.

¹⁰The stars in the sky and their constellations won't show their light anymore. The sun will be dark when it rises. The moon won't shine.

¹¹I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their wrongdoing. I will put an end to arrogant people and humble the pride of tyrants.

¹²I will make people harder to find than pure gold and human beings more rare than gold from Ophir.

¹³I will make heaven tremble, and the earth will be shaken from its place when the LORD of Armies is angry. At that time he will be very angry.

¹⁴They'll be like hunted gazelle and like sheep with no one to gather them. Everyone will return to his own people and flee to his own land.

¹⁵Whoever is found will be stabbed to death. Whoever is captured will be executed.

¹⁶Their little children will be smashed to death right before their eyes. Their houses will be looted and their wives raped.

¹⁷ I'm going to stir up the Medes against them. They don't care for silver and aren't happy with gold.

¹⁸ But their bows will smash the youth. They'll have no compassion for babies, nor will they look with pity on children.

¹⁹ Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms, the proud beauty of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God destroyed them.

²⁰ It will never be inhabited again, and no one will live in it for generations. Arabs won't pitch their tents there. Shepherds won't let their flocks rest there.

²¹ Desert animals will lie down there. Their homes will be full of owls. Ostriches will live there, and wild goats will skip about.

²² Hyenas will howl in Babylon's strongholds, and jackals will howl in its luxurious palaces. Its time has almost come. Its days will not be extended.

14¹ The LORD will have compassion for Jacob and again choose Israel. He will resettle them in their own country. Foreigners will join them and unite with the descendants of Jacob.

² People will take them and bring them to their own place. The nation of Israel will possess nations as male and female slaves in the LORDS land. They will take their captors captive and rule their oppressors.

³ When that day comes, the LORD will give you relief from your pain and suffering, from the hard slavery you were forced to do.

⁴ Then you will mock the king of Babylon with this saying, "How the tyrant has come to an end! How his attacks have come to an end!"

⁵ The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers.

⁶ They struck the people with fury, with blows that didnt stop. They ruled nations in anger, persecuting them without restraint.

⁷ The whole earth rests and is peaceful. It breaks out into shouts of joy.

⁸ Even the cypresses rejoice over you. The cedars of Lebanon say, "Since you have fallen, no lumberjack has come to attack us."

⁹ Sheol below wakes up to meet you when you come. It wakes up the ghosts of the dead, all who were leaders on earth. It raises all who were kings of the nations from their thrones.

¹⁰All of them will greet you, "You also have become weak like us! You have become like one of us!"

¹¹Your pride has been brought down to Sheol along with the music of your harps. Maggots are spread out like a bed under you, and worms cover you.

¹²How you have fallen from heaven, you morning star, son of the dawn! How you have been cut down to the ground, you conqueror of nations!

¹³You thought, "I'll go up to heaven and set up my throne above God's stars. I'll sit on the mountain far away in the north where the gods assemble.

¹⁴I'll go above the top of the clouds. I'll be like the Most High."

¹⁵But you've been brought down to Sheol, to the deepest part of the pit.

¹⁶Those who see you stare at you; they look at you closely and say, "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook the kingdoms, ¹⁷who made the world like a desert and tore down its cities, who didn't let his prisoners go home?"

¹⁸All the kings of the nations, all of them, have been buried with honor, each in his own tomb.

¹⁹But you are thrown out of your tomb like a rejected branch. You are covered with those who were killed in battle. You go down to the stones of the pit like a trampled corpse.

²⁰You won't be joined by the kings in the tomb, because you have destroyed your land and killed your people. The descendants of the wicked will never be mentioned again.

²¹Prepare a place to slaughter their sons because of their ancestors' guilt. They won't be able to rise, possess the earth, and rebuild cities all over it.

²²"I'll rise up against them," declares the LORD of Armies. "I'll cut off the name of the survivors from Babylon, its offspring and descendants," declares the LORD.

²³"It will become the possession of herons. It will become pools of water. I'll sweep it with the broom of destruction," declares the LORD of Armies.

²⁴The LORD of Armies has taken an oath: "It will happen exactly as I've intended. It will turn out exactly as I've planned.

²⁵I'll crush Assyria on my land. I'll trample it underfoot on my mountains. Then its yoke will be removed from my people, and its burden will be removed from their shoulders."

²⁶This is the plan determined for the whole earth. This is how he will use his power against all the nations.

²⁷The LORD of Armies has planned it. Who can stop it? He is ready to use his power. Who can turn it back?

²⁸This was the divine revelation in the year King Ahaz died.

²⁹All you Philistines, don't rejoice that the rod of the one who struck you is broken, because a viper will come from that snake's root, and his descendant will be a flying, fiery serpent.

³⁰The poorest of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety. But I will put your root to death with famine and kill off your survivors.

³¹ Cry loudly in the gate! Cry out in the city! Be frightened, all you Philistines! Smoke comes from the north, and there are no stragglers in its ranks.

15¹ This is the divine revelation about Moab. In a single night Ar in Moab is laid waste and destroyed! In a single night Kir in Moab is laid waste and destroyed!

² The people of Dibon go to the temple, to the worship sites, to cry. Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba. Every head is shaved bald, and every beard is cut off.

³ In their streets they wear sackcloth. On their roofs and in their city squares everyone wails and cries.

⁴ Heshbon and Elealeh also cry out. Their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz. Moabs armed men cry out. Their courage is gone.

⁵ My heart cries out for Moab. Its people flee as far as Zoar at Eglath Shelishiyah. They go up the mountain road to Luhith.

They cry loudly over the destruction on the way to Horonaim.

⁶The Nimrim Brook has run dry! The grass dries up, the vegetation withers, and nothing green is left.

⁷That is why they carry the wealth that they have earned and stored up over Willow Ravine.

⁸Cries for help echo throughout the land of Moab. Their wailing echoes as far as Eglaim. Their wailing echoes as far as Beer Elim.

⁹The water in Dimon is red with blood, yet I will bring even more on Dimon. A lion will attack the fugitives from Moab and the survivors from Adamah.

16¹ Send lambs to the ruler of the land. Send lambs from Sela through the desert to my people at Mount Zion.

²Moabs daughters are like fluttering birds, like scattered nestlings, at the shallow crossings of the Arnon River.

³Give us advice. Make a decision. At high noon make your shadow as dark as night. Hide the fugitives. Don't betray the refugees.

⁴Let the fugitives from Moab stay with you a while. Be their refuge from the destroyer. Ruthless people will come to an end. The destruction will end. The one who tramples others will be gone.

⁵Then the LORD will set up a trusted king. He will rule faithfully. He is from the tent of David. He judges and searches for justice. He is quick to do what is right.

⁶Weve heard of the arrogance of Moabs people. They are very arrogant. Weve heard of their boasting, arrogance, and conceit, but their boasts arent true.

⁷That is why Moab will wail. Everyone will wail for Moab. Mourn and grieve over the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

⁸The fields of Heshbon and the vineyards of Sibmah wither. Rulers of the nations have cut off their grapes. The grapevines once reached as far as Jazer and strayed out into the desert. Their shoots had spread out over the sea.

⁹I will cry for the grapevines of Sibmah as Jazer cries for them. I will drench you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh. The shouts of joy for your ripened fruits and your harvest will be silenced.

¹⁰Joy and delight have vanished from the orchards. No songs are sung. No shouts are raised. No one stomps on grapes in the winepresses, because I have put an end to the shouts of joy.

¹¹That is why my heart mourns for Moab like a harp. My soul mourns for Kir Hareseth.

¹²When the people of Moab appear at the worship site, they will only wear themselves out. They will come into the holy place to pray, but they won't be able to.

¹³This is the message that the LORD spoke about Moab in the past.

¹⁴But now the LORD says, "Moab's honor will be despised within three years. I will count them like workers count the years left of their contracts. In spite of their great number, the survivors will be very few and powerless."

17 ¹This is the divine revelation about Damascus. "Damascus will no longer be a city. It will become a pile of rubble.

²The cities of Aroer will be deserted. These cities will be used for sheep, which will lie down in them. There will be no one to disturb those sheep.

³Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom will disappear from Damascus. The remaining few from Aram will share Israels honor," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁴"When that day comes, the honor of Jacobs people will fade away, and they will become skin and bones.

⁵That time will be like harvesting bundles of grain by the armful. It will be like gathering grain in the Rephaim Valley.

⁶Only a few people will survive. They will be like an olive tree that has been beaten. Only two or three olives are left at the top of the highest branch, four or five olives on the rest of the branches," declares the LORD God of Israel.

⁷When that day comes, they will look to their maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

⁸They wont look to the altars made by their hands or to the Asherah poles or incense altars which their fingers molded.

⁹When that day comes, the fortified cities which other people abandoned because of the Israelites will be like abandoned woods and undergrowth. So it will become a wasteland.

¹⁰You have forgotten the God of your salvation. You havent remembered the rock, your stronghold. Instead, you have planted the best plants and have set out the imported grapevines.

¹¹On the day you plant, you will make it grow. On the morning you set out the seedling, you will make it sprout. But the harvest will become a rotting pile on a day of grief and incurable pain.

¹²How horrible it will be for many people! They will roar like the roaring sea. The noise that the people make will be like the noise from rushing water.

¹³The people will make noise like raging water. But the LORD will yell at them, and they will run far away. They will be chased away like husks on the mountains being blown by the wind, like whirling dust being blown by a storm.

¹⁴In the evening there will be sudden terror. Before morning they will be gone.

This will be the fate of those who looted us, the destiny of those who robbed us.

18¹ How horrible it will be for the land of whirring wings which lies beyond the rivers of Sudan.

² It sends messengers by sea in boats made of reeds skimming over the surface of the water. Go, swift messengers, to a tall and smoothskinned people, a people who are feared far and near, a strong and aggressive nation, whose land is divided by rivers.

³ Look when someone raises a flag on the mountains. Listen when someone blows a rams horn, all you inhabitants of the world who live on the earth.

⁵ Before the harvest, when blossoms are gone and grapes are ripening from blossoms, he will cut off the shoots with pruning shears and chop off the spreading branches.

⁶ They will be left for the birds of prey on the mountains and the wild animals.

The birds of prey will feed on them in the summer, and all the wild animals on earth will feed on them in the winter.

⁷At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of Armies from a tall and smoothskinned people, a people who are feared far and near, a strong and aggressive nation, whose land is divided by rivers. They will be brought to Mount Zion, the place where the name of the LORD of Armies is.

19¹This is the divine revelation about Egypt. The LORD is riding on a fastmoving cloud and is coming to Egypt. Egypt's idols will tremble in his presence. Egypt's courage will fail.

²"I will turn one Egyptian against another. They will fight brother against brother, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

³The Egyptians will lose courage. I will unravel their plans. They will turn to idols, ghosts, mediums, and fortunetellers.

⁴I will hand over the Egyptians to a harsh master. A strong king will rule them," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies.

⁵The water in the Nile River will be dried up, and the river will be dry and empty.

⁶The canals will stink. Egypt's streams will be emptied and dried up. The reeds and cattails will wither.

⁷The rushes by the Nile, by the edge of the Nile, and all the fields planted beside the Nile will dry up, be blown away, and disappear.

⁸Fishermen will cry. All who cast their lines into the Nile will mourn. Those who spread their nets on the water will sigh.

⁹Linenworkers and weavers will be ashamed.

¹⁰Egypt's weavers will be crushed. Those who work for money will be distressed.

¹¹The leaders of Zoan are nothing but fools. The wisest of Pharaoh's counselors gives stupid advice. How can you tell Pharaoh, "I'm a descendant of wise men, a descendant of ancient kings"?

¹²Where are your wise men now? Let them tell you. Let them explain what the LORD of Armies is planning against Egypt.

¹³The leaders of Zoan are acting foolishly. The leaders of Memphis are led astray. The leaders who are the cornerstones of its tribes mislead the Egyptians.

¹⁴The LORD mixes up their minds. So they lead the Egyptians astray like a drunk who staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵No one leaders or followers, important or unimportant can do anything for Egypt.

¹⁶At that time Egyptians will act like women. They will tremble and be terrified because the LORD of Armies will shake his fist at them.

¹⁷The land of Judah will terrify the Egyptians. Whenever they are reminded of Judah, they will be terrified of it because of what the LORD of Armies is planning against it.

¹⁸When that day comes, five cities in Egypt will have people that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of Armies. One of the cities will be called Heliopolis.

¹⁹When that day comes, an altar for the LORD will be in the middle of Egypt, and a stone marker for the LORD will be near its border.

²⁰These objects will be a sign and a witness that the LORD of Armies is in Egypt. When the people cry to the LORD because of those who oppress them, he will send a savior and defender to rescue them.

²¹So the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians. The Egyptians will know the LORD when that day comes. They will worship with sacrifices and food offerings. They will make vows to the LORD and carry them out.

²²The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague. When he strikes them, he will also heal them. Then they will come back to the LORD. And he will respond to their prayers and heal them.

²³When that day comes, a highway will run from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will come to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

²⁴When that day comes, Israel will be onethird of Gods people, along with Egypt and Assyria. They will be a blessing on the earth.

²⁵The LORD of Armies will bless them, saying, "My people Egypt, the work of my hands Assyria, and my possession Israel are blessed."

20¹In the year when King Sargon of Assyria sent his commander in chief to fight against Ashdod, he captured it.

²At that time the LORD told Isaiah, son of Amoz, "Take off the sackcloth that you are wearing, and take off your sandals!" Isaiah did this and walked around barefoot and naked.

³Then the LORD said, "My servant Isaiah has gone barefoot and naked for three years as a sign and as an omen to Egypt and Sudan.

⁴The king of Assyria will lead away both the young and the old captives from Egypt and exiles from Sudan. They will be barefoot and naked. Their buttocks will be exposed in order to disgrace Egypt.

⁵Then the people will be shattered and ashamed because Sudan was their hope and Egypt was their beauty.

⁶When that day comes, those who live on this coastland will say, Look at what has happened to our hope. We ran to Egypt for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria. How can we escape?"

21 ¹This is the divine revelation about the desert by the sea. Like a storm sweeping through the Negev, an invader will come from the desert, from a terrifying land.

²I was shown a harsh vision. The traitor betrays. The destroyer destroys. Go to war, Elam! Surround them, Media! I will put an end to all the groaning.

³That is why my body is full of trembling. Pain grips me like the pain of childbirth. I'm disturbed by what I hear. I'm terrified by what I see.

⁴I'm confused. I'm shaking with terror. The twilight hours I longed for make me tremble.

⁵Set the table. Spread the rugs by the table. Eat. Drink. Get up, you leaders! Prepare your shields for battle!

⁶This is what the Lord says to me: Post a watchman. Have him report whatever he sees.

⁷He will see chariots, pairs of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels. Let him watch carefully, very carefully.

⁸The watchman called, "Sir, I stand on the watchtower every day. Every night, I stand guard at my post.

⁹Look! Here come chariots and horsemen in pairs." Then he said, "Babylon has fallen! It has fallen! All the idols they worship lie shattered on the ground."

¹⁰You, my people, have been threshed and winnowed. I make known to you what I heard from the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel.

¹¹This is the divine revelation about Dumah. Someone is calling to me from Seir, "Watchman, how much of the night is left? Watchman, how much of the night is left?"

¹²The watchman answers, "Morning is coming, and night will come again. If you need to ask, come back and ask."

¹³This is the divine revelation about Arabia. You caravan of travelers from the people of Dedan will spend the night in the forest of Arabia.

¹⁴Bring water for the thirsty, you inhabitants of the land of Tema. Bring food to the fugitives.

¹⁵They flee from swords, from swords ready to kill, from bows ready to shoot, and from the thick of battle.

¹⁶This is what the Lord says to me: All of Kedars honor will be gone in another year. I will count it like workers count the years left on their contracts.

¹⁷The remaining number of archers, Kedars mighty archers, will be few. The LORD God of Israel has spoken.

22¹This is the divine revelation about the valley of Vision. Whats the matter with you? Why do all of you go up on the roofs?

²You are a city filled with shouting, a town filled with noise and excitement. Your people werent killed with swords. Your dead didnt die in battle.

³All your leaders fled together and were captured without their bows and arrows. All those who were found were taken prisoner before any of them could get far away.

⁴That is why I say, "Turn away from me so that I can cry bitterly. Dont try to comfort me because of the destruction brought on my people."

⁵The Almighty LORD of Armies has chosen a special day. It will be a day of confusion and trampling in the valley of Vision, a day of tearing down walls and crying for help in the mountains.

⁶Elam takes its quiver of arrows, manned chariots, and horsemen. Kir uncovers its shields.

⁷Then your fertile valleys will be filled with chariots, and horsemen will stand ready in front of the gate.

⁸On that day the LORD will remove the defenses of Judah. You will look for weapons in the House of the Forest.

⁹You will see how many places in Davids wall are broken. You will store water in the Lower Pool.

¹⁰You will count the houses in Jerusalem. You will tear down those houses in order to fortify the walls.

¹¹You will build a reservoir between the two walls to hold the water of the Old Pool. You didnt look to Jerusalems maker. You didnt see the one who formed it long ago.

¹²On that day the Almighty LORD of Armies will call for crying and for mourning, for shaving your heads and for wearing sackcloth.

¹³Instead, you will rejoice, celebrate, slaughter cattle, and butcher sheep. You will eat meat, drink wine, and say, "Let's eat and drink because tomorrow we are going to die."

¹⁴The LORD of Armies revealed this to me: "Certainly, this wrong will not be forgiven even when you die," says the Almighty LORD of Armies.

¹⁵This is what the Almighty LORD of Armies says: Go to Shebna, the man in charge of the palace, and say to him, ¹⁶"What are you doing here? What right do you have to dig a tomb for yourself? What right do you have to cut it out in a prominent place? What right do you have to carve out a resting place for yourself in the rock?

¹⁷Look, mighty man! The LORD will throw you out. He will grab you.

¹⁸He will wrap you up tightly like a turban. He will throw you far away into another land. There you will die. There your splendid chariots will remain. There you will become a disgrace to your master's household.

¹⁹"I will remove you from your office and do away with your position.

²⁰When that day comes, I will call my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah.

²¹I will dress him in your linen robe and fasten it with your belt. I will give him your authority, and he will be like a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the nation of Judah.

²²I will place the key of the house of David around his neck. What he opens no one will shut. What he shuts no one will open.

²³I will fasten him firmly in place like a peg, and he will be a source of honor for his fathers household.

²⁴They will hang on him the whole weight of his fathers household, descendants and offspring and all the little utensils, from bowls to jars of every kind."

²⁵The LORD of Armies declares, "On that day the peg which I firmly fastened in place will be removed. It will be cut off and will fall, and everything hanging on it will be destroyed." The LORD has spoken.

23¹ This is the divine revelation about Tyre. Cry loudly, you ships of Tarshish! Your port at Tyre is destroyed. Word has come to the ships from Cyprus.

² Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland, you merchants from Sidon. Your messengers have crossed the sea.

³ The grain of Shihor is on the Mediterranean. The harvest of the Nile River is brought to Tyre. Tyre became the marketplace for the nations.

⁴ Be ashamed, Sidon, because the stronghold by the sea has spoken, "I've never been in labor or given birth. I've raised no sons. I've brought up no daughters."

⁵ When the news reaches Egypt, the Egyptians will shudder over the news about Tyre.

⁶ Travel to Tarshish! Cry loudly, you inhabitants of the seacoast!

⁷ Is this your bustling city founded in the distant past? Is this the city that sent its people to settle in distant lands?

⁸ Who planned such a thing against Tyre, the city that produced kings? Its merchants are princes. Its traders are among the honored people of the world.

⁹The LORD of Armies planned this in order to dishonor all arrogant people and to humiliate all the honored people of the world.

¹⁰Travel through your country like the Nile, people of Tarshish. You no longer have a harbor.

¹¹The LORD has stretched his hand over the sea to shake kingdoms. He has commanded that Canaans fortifications be destroyed.

¹²He says, "You will no longer be joyful, my dear abused people Sidon." Get up, and travel to Cyprus. Even there you will find no rest.

¹³Look at the land of the Babylonians. These people will be gone. Assyria gave this land to the desert animals. Assyria set up battle towers, stripped palaces bare, and turned these places into ruins.

¹⁴Cry loudly, you ships of Tarshish, because your fortress will be destroyed.

¹⁵When that day comes, Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years, the lifetime of one king. At the end of the 70 years,

Tyre will be like the prostitute in this song:

¹⁶"Take your lyre. Go around in the city, you forgotten prostitute. Make sweet music. Sing many songs so that you'll be remembered."

¹⁷At the end of 70 years the LORD will come to help Tyre. Then she will go back to earning money as a prostitute. She will become a prostitute for all the world's kingdoms.

¹⁸Her profits and her earnings will be turned over to the LORD for his holy purpose. It won't be stored or hoarded. Her merchandise will belong to those who live in the presence of the LORD so that they will have plenty of food and expensive clothing.

24¹ The LORD is going to turn the earth into a desolate wasteland. He will mar the face of the earth and scatter the people living on it.

²The same will happen to people and priests, male slaves and masters, female slaves and masters, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, debtors and creditors.

³The earth will be completely laid waste and stripped because the LORD has spoken.

⁴The earth dries up and withers. The world wastes away and withers. The great leaders of the earth waste away.

⁵The earth is polluted by those who live on it because they've disobeyed the LORDS teachings, violated his laws, and rejected the everlasting promise.

⁶That is why a curse devours the earth, and its people are punished for their guilt. That is why those who live on the earth are burned up, and only a few people are left.

⁷New wine dries up, and grapevines waste away. All happy people groan.

⁸Joyful tambourine music stops. Noisy celebrations cease. Joyful harp music stops.

⁹People no longer drink wine when they sing. Liquor tastes bad to its drinkers.

¹⁰The ruined city lies desolate. The entrance to every house is barred shut.

¹¹People in the streets call for wine. All joy passes away, and the earths happiness is banished.

¹²The city is left in ruins. Its gate is battered to pieces.

¹³That is the way it will be on earth among the nations. They will be like an olive tree which has been shaken or like what's left after the grape harvest.

¹⁴They raise their voices. They shout for joy. From the sea they sing joyfully about the LORDS majesty.

¹⁵Honor the LORD in the east. Honor the name of the LORD God of Israel along the coastlands.

¹⁶From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise that honor the Righteous One. But I kept saying, "I'm wasting away! I'm wasting away! How horrible it is for me! Traitors continue to betray, and their treachery grows worse and worse."

¹⁷Disasters, pits, and traps are in store for those who live on earth.

¹⁸Whoever flees from news of a disaster will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of that pit will be caught in a trap. The floodgates in the sky will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake.

¹⁹The earth will be completely broken. The earth will shake back and forth violently. The earth will stagger.

²⁰The earth will stumble like a drunk and sway like a shack in the wind. Its disobedience weighs heavy on it. It will fall and not get up again.

²¹On that day the LORD will punish heavens armies in heaven and earths kings on earth.

²²Theyll be gathered like prisoners in a jail and locked in prison. After a long time theyll be punished.

²³The moon will be embarrassed. The sun will be ashamed, because the LORD of Armies will rule on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem. He will be glorious in the presence of his respected leaders.

25¹O LORD, you are my God. I will highly honor you; I will praise your name. You have done miraculous things. You have been completely reliable in carrying out your plans from long ago.

²You have turned cities into ruins, fortified cities into piles of rubble, and foreigners palaces into cities that will never be rebuilt.

³That is why strong people will honor you, and cities ruled by the worlds tyrants will fear you.

⁴You have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rain, and shade from the heat. (A tyrants breath is like a rainstorm against a wall, ⁵like heat in a dry land.) You calm the uproar of foreigners. The song of tyrants is silenced like heat that is reduced by the shadow of a cloud.

⁶On this mountain the LORD of Armies will prepare for all people a feast with the best foods, a banquet with aged wines, with the best foods and the finest wines.

⁷On this mountain he will remove the veil of grief covering all people and the mask covering all nations.

⁸He will swallow up death forever. The Almighty LORD will wipe away tears from every face, and he will remove the disgrace of his people from the whole earth. The LORD has spoken.

⁹On that day his people will say, "This is our God; we have waited for him, and now he will save us. This is the LORD;

we have waited for him. Let us rejoice and be glad because he will save us."

¹⁰The LORDS power will be on this mountain. Moab will be trampled beneath him like straw that is trampled in a pile of manure.

¹¹The Moabites will stretch out their hands in the manure like swimmers who stretch out their hands to swim. The LORD will humble those arrogant people despite the movements of their hands.

¹²He will bring down Moabs high fortified walls, level them, and throw them into the dust on the ground.

26 ¹On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city. Its walls and fortifications provide safety.

²Open the gates, and let the righteous nation come in, the nation that remains faithful.

³With perfect peace you will protect those whose minds cannot be changed, because they trust you.

⁴Trust the LORD always, because the LORD, the LORD alone, is an everlasting rock.

⁵He has brought down those who live high in the towering city. He levels it. He levels it to the ground and throws it into the dust.

⁶Feet trample it, the feet of the oppressed, the footsteps of the poor.

⁷The path of the righteous is level. O Upright One, you make the road of the righteous smooth.

⁸Certainly, we wait with hope for you, O LORD, as we follow the path of your guiding principles. We want to remember you and your name.

⁹With my soul I long for you at night. Yes, with my spirit I eagerly look for you. When your guiding principles are on earth, those who live in the world learn to do what is right.

¹⁰Although the wicked are shown pity, they do not learn to do what is right. They do what is wrong in the upright land and do not see the majesty of the LORD.

¹¹O LORD, your power is visible, but they do not see it. They will see how devoted your people are, and they will be put to shame. Your burning anger will destroy your enemies.

¹²O LORD, you will establish peace for us, since you have done everything for us.

¹³O LORD, our God, you are not the only master to rule us, but we acknowledge only you.

¹⁴The wicked are dead. They are no longer alive. The spirits of the dead wont rise. You have punished them, destroyed them, and wiped out all memory of them.

¹⁵You have expanded the nation, O LORD. You have expanded the nation. You are honored. You have extended all the lands boundaries.

¹⁶O LORD, the people have come to you in trouble. They were humbled by oppression, by your discipline upon them.

¹⁷O LORD, when we are with you, we are like pregnant women ready to give birth. They writhe and cry out in their labor pains.

¹⁸We were pregnant; we writhed with labor pains only to give birth to the wind. We werent able to bring salvation to the land, and no new people were born on earth.

¹⁹Your dead will live. Their corpses will rise. Those who lie dead in the dust will wake up and shout for joy, because your dew is a refreshing dew, and the earth will revive the spirits of the dead.

²⁰My people, go to your rooms, and shut the doors behind you. Hide for a little while until his fury has ended.

²¹The LORD is going to come out from his dwelling place to punish those who live on earth for their sins. The earth will uncover the blood shed on it and will no longer cover up its dead bodies.

27 ¹On that day the LORD will use his fierce and powerful sword to punish Leviathan, that slippery snake, Leviathan, that twisting snake. He will kill that monster which lives in the sea.

²On that day sing about a delightful vineyard.

³I, the LORD, watch over it. I water it continually. I watch over it day and night so that no one will harm it.

⁴I am no longer angry. If only thorns and briars would confront me! I would fight them in battle and set all of them on fire.

⁵Or else let them come to me for protection. Let them make peace with me. Yes, let them make peace with me.

⁶In times to come Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom, bud, and fill the whole world with fruit.

⁷Will the LORD hurt Israel as he hurt others who hurt them? Will he kill them as he killed others?

⁸He punished Israel by sending it away. He removed it with a fierce blast from the east winds.

⁹In this way the wrongdoings of the descendants of Jacob are covered up. This is the way they will turn from their sins when they turn all the altar stones into powdered chalk and no poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah or incense altars are left standing.

¹⁰The fortified city is isolated. The homestead is left deserted, abandoned like the desert. Calves will graze there. They will lie down. They will feed on the branches.

¹¹When the branches are dried up, they will be broken off. Women will come and build a fire with them. These people don't understand these things. That is why their maker won't have compassion on them, and their Creator won't have pity on them.

¹²On that day the LORD will begin his threshing from the flowing stream of the Euphrates River to the brook of Egypt. People of Israel, you will be gathered one by one.

¹³On that day a ram's horn will be blown loudly. Those who are dying in Assyria and those who are banished to Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28¹How horrible it will be for the arrogant drunks of Ephraim. Their glorious beauty is like a withered flower. They are at the entrance to a fertile valley where they lie drunk from wine.

²The Lord has one who is strong and powerful. He is like a hailstorm, a destructive wind. He is like a thunderstorm, an overwhelming flood. He will throw them to the ground forcefully.

³The arrogant drunks of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot.

⁴Their glorious beauty is like a withered flower. They are at the entrance to a fertile valley. They will be like figs that ripened early. As soon as someone sees them, they will be taken and eaten.

⁵When that day comes, the LORD of Armies will be like a glorious crown for his few remaining people.

⁶He will give a spirit of justice to those who judge. He will give strength to those who defend the city gates in battle.

⁷Priests and prophets stagger from wine and wobble from too much liquor. They stagger from too much liquor and become confused from too much wine. They wobble because of their liquor. They stagger when they see visions. They swerve as they judge.

⁸All the tables are covered with vomit and excrement. There isnt a clean place left.

⁹To whom will they make the message understood? To whom will they explain this message? To children just weaned from milk? To those just taken from their mothers breasts?

¹⁰They speak utter nonsense.

¹¹The LORD will speak to these people. He will mock them by speaking in a foreign language.

¹²He will say to them, "This is a place for comfort. This is a place of rest for those who are tired. This is a place for them to rest." But they weren't willing to listen.

¹³The LORD speaks utter nonsense to them. That is why they will fall backwards. That is why they will be hurt, trapped, and captured.

¹⁴So hear the word of the LORD, you foolish talkers who rule the people in Jerusalem.

¹⁵You say, "We made a treaty with death and an agreement with the grave. When the overwhelming disaster passes by, it won't matter to us, because we have taken refuge in our lies, and falsehood is our hiding place."

¹⁶This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am going to lay a rock in Zion, a rock that has been tested, a precious cornerstone, a solid foundation. Whoever believes in him will not worry.

¹⁷I will make justice a measuring line and righteousness a plumb line. Hail will sweep away your refuge of lies, and floodwaters will wash away your hiding place.

¹⁸Your treaty with death will be wiped away. Your agreement with the grave will not stand. When the overwhelming disaster passes by, you will be trampled by it.

¹⁹Each time it passes by it will take you. It will pass by morning after morning, during the day and during the night. Understanding this message brings only terror.

²⁰The bed is too short to stretch out on. The blanket is too narrow to serve as a cover.

²¹The LORD will rise as he did on Mount Perazim. He will wake up as he did in Gibeon Valley. He will do his work, his unexpected work, and perform his deeds, his mysterious deeds.

²²Now stop laughing, or your chains will be tightened, because I have heard that the Almighty LORD of Armies has finally determined to destroy the whole land.

²³Open your ears, and listen to me! Pay attention, and hear me!

²⁴Does a farmer go on plowing every day so he can plant? Does he continue to break up the soil and make furrows in the ground?

²⁵When he has smoothed its surface, doesn't he scatter black cumin seed and plant cumin? Doesn't he plant wild wheat in rows? Doesn't he put barley in its own area and winter wheat at its borders?

²⁶God will guide him in judgment, and his God will teach him.

²⁷Black cumin isn't threshed with a sledge, and wagon wheels aren't rolled over cumin. Black cumin is beaten with a rod and cumin with a stick.

²⁸Grain is ground into flour, but the grinding eventually stops. It will be threshed. The wheels of his cart will roll over it, but his horses won't crush it.

²⁹All of this has come from the LORD of Armies. His counsel is wonderful, and his wisdom is great.

29¹How horrible it will be for you Ariel, Ariel, the city where David camped. Let year after year go by. Let your annual festivals go on.

²I will torment Ariel, and the city will be filled with people grieving and mourning. The city will become like Ariel.

³I will set up war camps all around you. I will blockade you with towers. I will put up mounds of dirt around you.

⁴When you have fallen, you will speak as you lie on the ground. Your words will be muffled by the dust. Your voice will come out of the ground like that of a ghost. Your words will be whispered from the dust.

⁵Your many enemies will be like fine dust. Your many foes will be like husks blown by the wind. All of this will happen suddenly, unexpectedly.

⁶The LORD of Armies will punish you with thunder, earthquakes, and loud noises, with windstorms, rainstorms, and fire storms.

⁷The armies from all the nations will go to war against Ariel. They will go to war against it, blockade it, and torment it. All of this will be like a dream, like a vision in the night.

⁸They will be like hungry people who dream that they're eating and wake up to find they're hungry. They will be like thirsty people who dream that they're drinking and wake up to find they're lightheaded and parched with thirst. This is what will happen to the armies from all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

⁹If you confuse yourselves, you will be confused. If you blind yourselves, you will be blinded. You are drunk, but not from wine. You stagger, but not from liquor.

¹⁰The LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep. He will shut your eyes. (Your eyes are the prophets.) He will cover your heads. (Your heads are the seers.)

¹¹To you all these visions will be like words in a book that is closed and sealed. You give this book to someone who can read, saying, "Please read this." He answers, "I can't read it. It's sealed."

¹²Then you give the book to someone who can't read, saying, "Please read this." He answers, "I can't read."

¹³The Lord says, "These people worship me with their mouths and honor me with their lips. But their hearts are far from me, and their worship of me is based on rules made by humans.

¹⁴That is why I am going to do something completely amazing for these people once again. The wisdom of their wise people will disappear. The intelligence of their intelligent people will be hidden."

¹⁵How horrible it will be for those who try to hide their plans from the LORD. Their deeds are done in the dark, and they say, "No one can see us" and "No one can recognize us."

¹⁶You turn things upside down! Is the potter no better than his clay? Can something that has been made say about its maker, "He didnt make me"? Can a piece of pottery say about the potter, "He doesnt understand"?

¹⁷In a very short time Lebanon will be turned into a fertile field and the fertile field will be considered a forest.

¹⁸When that day comes, the deaf will hear the words written in the book. The blind will see out of their gloom and darkness.

¹⁹Humble people again will find joy in the LORD. The poorest of people will find joy in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰Tyrants will be gone. Mockers will be finished. All who look for ways to do wrong will come to an end:

²² This is what the LORD, who saved Abraham, says about the descendants of Jacob: Jacob will no longer be ashamed. Jacobs face will no longer turn pale.

²³ When they see all their children, the children I made with my hands, they will acknowledge my name as holy. They will treat the Holy One of Jacob as holy. They will stand in terror of the God of Israel.

²⁴ Then those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding, and those who complain will accept instruction.

30¹ The LORD declares, "How horrible it will be for those rebellious children. They carry out plans, but not mine. They make alliances against my will. They pile sin on top of sin.

² They go to Egypt without asking me. They look for shelter under Pharaohs protection and look for refuge in Egypts shadow.

³ But Pharaohs protection will be their shame, and the refuge in Egypts shadow will be their disgrace.

⁴ Although Pharaohs officials are in Zoan and his messengers have reached Hanes,

⁵ the people of Judah will be put to shame because that nation cant help them. That nation cant give aid or help to them. It can only offer shame and disgrace."

⁶ This is the divine revelation about the animals in the Negev. "My people travel through lands where they experience distress and hardship. Lions and lionesses live there. Vipers and poisonous snakes live there. They carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys and their treasures on the humps of camels to a nation that cant help them.

⁷ Egypts help is completely useless. That is why I call it, Rahab who sits still.

⁸ Now, write this on a tablet for them, and inscribe it in a book so that it will be there in the future as a permanent witness.

⁹These people are rebellious and deceitful children, children who refuse to listen to the LORDS teachings.

¹⁰They say to the seers, Dont see the future. They say to those who have visions, Dont have visions that tell us what is right. Tell us what we want to hear. See illusions.

¹¹Get out of our way! Stop blocking our path! Get the Holy One of Israel out of our sight."

¹²This is what the Holy One of Israel says: You have rejected this warning, trusted oppression and deceit, and leaned on them.

¹³That is why your sin will be like a high wall with a bulging crack, ready to fall. All of a sudden it will fall.

¹⁴It will break like pottery. It will be smashed, and nothing will be left of it. No piece will be big enough to carry live coals from a fireplace or to dip water from a reservoir.

¹⁵This is what the Almighty LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says: You can be saved by returning to me. You can have rest. You can be strong by being quiet and by trusting me. But you don't want that.

¹⁶You've said, "No, we'll flee on horses." So you flee. You've added, "We'll ride on fast horses." So those who chase you will also be fast.

¹⁷One thousand people will flee when one person threatens them, and you will flee when five threaten you. Then you will be left alone like a flagpole on top of a mountain, like a signpost on a hill.

¹⁸The LORD is waiting to be kind to you. He rises to have compassion on you. The LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him.

¹⁹You will live in Zion, in Jerusalem. You won't cry anymore. The LORD will certainly have pity on you when you cry for help. As soon as he hears you, he will answer you.

²⁰The Lord may give you troubles and hardships. But your teacher will no longer be hidden from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes.

²¹You will hear a voice behind you saying, "This is the way. Follow it, whether it turns to the right or to the left."

²²Then you will dishonor your silverplated idols and your goldcovered statues. You will throw them away like clothing ruined by stains. You will say to them, "Get out!"

²³The Lord will give you rain for the seed that you plant in the ground, and the food that the ground provides will be rich and nourishing. When that day comes, your cattle will graze in large pastures.

²⁴The oxen and the donkeys which work the soil will eat a mixture of food that has been winnowed with forks and shovels.

²⁵There will be brooks and streams on every lofty mountain and every high hill. When the day of the great slaughter comes, towers will fall.

²⁶Then the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun. The light of the sun will be seven times as strong, like the light of seven days. When that day comes, the LORD will bandage his peoples injuries and heal the wounds he inflicted.

²⁷The name of the LORD is going to come from far away. His anger is burning. His burden is heavy. His lips are filled with fury. His tongue is like a devouring flame.

²⁸His breath is like an overflowing stream. It rises neck high, sifting the nations with a sieve of destruction, placing a bit in the mouths of the people to lead them astray.

²⁹You will sing a song like the song you sing on a festival night. Your hearts will be happy like someone going out with a flute on the way to the LORDS mountain, to the rock of Israel.

³⁰The LORD will make his majestic voice heard. He will come down with all his might, with furious anger, with fire storms, windstorms, rainstorms, and hailstones.

³¹At the sound of the LORD, the people of Assyria will be shattered. He will strike them with his rod.

³²To the sound of tambourines and lyres, the LORD will pound on them. He will fight them in battle, swinging his fists.

³³Topheth was prepared long ago. It was made ready for the king. It was made deep and wide and piled high with plenty of burning logs. The LORDS breath will be like a flood of burning sulfur, setting it on fire.

31 ¹How horrible it will be for those who go to Egypt for help, who rely on horses, who depend on many chariots, who depend on very strong war horses. They dont look to the Holy One of Israel. They dont seek the LORD.

²He is wise and can bring about disaster. He doesnt take back his words. He rises against wicked people and against those who help troublemakers.

³The Egyptians are humans, not gods. Their horses are flesh and blood, not spirit. When the LORD uses his powerful hand, the one who gives help will stumble, and the one who receives help will fall. Both will die together.

⁴This is what the LORD said to me: A lion, even a young lion, growls over its prey when a crowd of shepherds is called to fight it. It isnt frightened by their voices or disturbed by the noise they make. So the LORD of Armies will come to fight for Mount Zion and its hill.

⁵The LORD of Armies will defend Jerusalem like a hovering bird. He will defend it and rescue it. He will pass over it and protect it.

⁶You people of Israel, return to the one whom you have so violently rebelled against.

⁷When that day comes, all of you will reject the silver and gold idols that your sinful hands have made.

⁸Then Assyrians will be killed with swords not made by human hands. Swords not made by human hands will destroy them. They will flee from battle, and their young men will be made to do forced labor.

⁹In terror they will run to their stronghold, and their officers will be frightened at the sight of the battle flag. The LORD declares this. His fire is in Zion and his furnace is in Jerusalem.

32¹A king will rule with fairness, and officials will rule with justice.

²Then each ruler will be like a shelter from the wind and a hiding place from the rain. They will be like streams on parched ground and the shade of a large rock in a weary land.

³Then the vision of those who can see won't be blurred, and the ears of those who can hear will pay attention.

⁴Then those who are reckless will begin to understand, and those who stutter will speak quickly and clearly.

⁵Godless fools will no longer be called nobles, nor will scoundrels be considered gentlemen.

⁶Godless fools speak foolishness, and their minds plan evil in order to do ungodly things. They speak falsely about the LORD. They let people go hungry and withhold water from thirsty people.

⁷The tricks of scoundrels are evil. They devise wicked plans in order to ruin poor people with lies, even when needy people plead for justice.

⁸But honorable people act honorably and stand firm for what is honorable.

⁹Get up, and listen to me, you pampered women. Hear what I say, you overconfident daughters.

¹⁰In a little less than a year you overconfident women will tremble, because the grape harvest will fail and no fruit will be brought in from the fields.

¹¹ Shudder, you pampered women.
Tremble, you overconfident women. Take off your clothes, walk around naked, and wear sackcloth around your waists.

¹² Beat your breasts as you mourn for the fields, for the vines bearing grapes.

¹³ Mourn for my peoples land where thorns and briars will grow. Mourn for all the happy homes in a joyful city.

¹⁴ Palaces will be deserted. Noisy cities will be abandoned. Fortresses and watchtowers will become permanent caves. They will be a delight for wild donkeys and pastures for flocks

¹⁵ until the Spirit is poured on us from on high. Then the wilderness will be turned into a fertile field, and the fertile field will be considered a forest.

¹⁶ Then justice will live in the wilderness, and righteousness will be at home in the fertile field.

¹⁷ Then an act of righteousness will bring about peace, calm, and safety forever.

¹⁸ My people will live in a peaceful place, in safe homes and quiet places of rest.

¹⁹The forest will be flattened because of hail, and the city will be completely leveled.

²⁰Blessed are those who plant beside every stream and those who let oxen and donkeys roam freely.

33¹ How horrible it will be for you, you destroyer, although you haven't been destroyed. How horrible it will be for you, you traitor, although you haven't been betrayed. When you've finished destroying, you will be destroyed. When you've finished being a traitor, you will be betrayed.

²O LORD, have pity on us. We wait with hope for you. Be our strength in the morning. Yes, be our savior in times of trouble.

³People flee from the noise of your army. Nations scatter when you attack.

⁴You nations, your loot is gathered as grasshoppers harvest a crop. Like swarming locusts, people rush for your loot.

⁵The LORD is honored because he lives on high. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶He will be the foundation of your future. The riches of salvation are wisdom and knowledge. The fear of the LORD is your treasure.

⁷Heroes cry in the streets. Messengers of peace cry bitterly.

⁸Highways are deserted. Travelers stop traveling. Agreements are broken. Witnesses are rejected. People are no longer respected.

⁹The country grieves and wastes away. Lebanon is ashamed and is decaying. Sharon has become like a wilderness. Bashan and Carmel are shaken.

¹⁰The LORD says, "Now I will arise. Now I will get up. Now I will be lifted up."

¹¹You will be pregnant with hay. You will give birth to straw. Your breath will be a fire which will burn you up.

¹²People will be cremated. They will be set on fire like dry thornbushes.

¹³Hear what I have done, you people who are far away! Acknowledge my might, you people who are near!

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are terrified. Trembling seizes the ungodly. Can any of us live through a fire that destroys? Can any of us live through a fire that burns forever?

¹⁵The person who does what is right and speaks the truth will live. He rejects getting rich by extortion and refuses to take bribes. He refuses to listen to those who are plotting murders. He doesn't look for evil things to do.

¹⁶This person will live on high. His stronghold will be a fortress made of rock. He will have plenty of food and a dependable supply of water.

¹⁷Your eyes will see how handsome the king is. You will see a land that stretches into the distance.

¹⁸Your mind will be thinking of the terrors in the past. Where are the scribes? Where are the tax collectors? Where are those who counted the towers?

¹⁹You will no longer see those savage people, those people with an unrecognizable language, with a foreign language that you can't understand.

²⁰Look at Zion, the city of our festivals. Your eyes will see Jerusalem as a peaceful place. It is a tent that can't be moved. Its tent pegs will never be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be broken.

²¹ The LORD will be our mighty defender in a place surrounded by wide rivers and streams. Ships with oars won't travel on them. Stately ships won't sail on them.

²² The LORD is our judge. The LORD is our lawgiver. The LORD is our king. The LORD is our savior.

²³ Your ropes hang loose, your mast isn't secure, and your sail isn't spread out. A large amount of loot will be distributed. Lame people will carry off your loot.

34¹ Come close, you nations, and listen. Pay attention, you people. The earth, everyone in it, the world, and everything on it will listen.

² The LORD is angry with all the nations. He is furious with all their armies. He has claimed them for destruction. He has handed them over to be slaughtered.

³ Their dead bodies will be thrown out. A stench will rise from their corpses. Mountains will be red with their blood.

⁴All the stars in the sky will rot. The heavens will be rolled up like a scroll. The stars will fall like leaves from a grapevine, like green figs from a fig tree.

⁵When my sword is covered with blood in the heavens, it will fall on Edom and on the people I've claimed for destruction.

⁶The LORDS sword is covered with blood. It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of rams kidneys. The LORD will receive a sacrifice in Bozrah, a huge slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷Wild oxen will be killed with them, young bulls along with rams. Their land will be drenched with blood. Their dust will be covered with fat.

⁸The LORD will have a day of vengeance, a year of revenge in defense of Zion.

⁹Edoms streams will be turned to tar. Its soil will be turned to burning sulfur. Its land will become blazing tar.

¹⁰They will not be extinguished day or night, and smoke will always go up from them. Edom will lie in ruins for generations. No one will ever travel through it.

¹¹ Pelicans and herons will take possession of the land. Owls and crows will live there. He will stretch the measuring line of chaos and the plumb line of destruction over it.

¹² There are no nobles to rule a kingdom. All of its princes have disappeared.

¹³ Its palaces are covered with thorns. Its fortresses have nettles and thistles. It will become a home for jackals and a place for ostriches.

¹⁴ Hyenas will meet with jackals. Male goats will call to their mates. Screech owls will rest there and find a resting place for themselves.

¹⁵ Owls will make their nests there, lay eggs, and hatch them. They will gather their young in the shadow of their wings. Vultures also will gather there, each one with its mate.

¹⁶ Search the LORDS book, and read it. Not one of these animals will be missing. Not one will lack a mate, because the LORD has commanded it, and his Spirit will gather them together.

¹⁷ He is the one who throws dice for them, and his hand divides up the land for them with a measuring line. They will possess it permanently and live there for generations.

35¹ The desert and the dry land will be glad, and the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

² Like a lily the land will blossom. It will rejoice and sing with joy. It will have the glory of Lebanon, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. Everyone will see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

³ Strengthen limp hands. Steady weak knees.

⁴ Tell those who are terrified, "Be brave; don't be afraid. Your God will come with vengeance, with divine revenge. He will come and rescue you."

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unplugged.

⁶ Then those who are lame will leap like deer, and those who cannot speak will shout for joy. Water will gush out into the desert, and streams will gush out into the wilderness.

⁷ Then the hot sand will become a pool, and dry ground will have springs. Grass will become cattails and rushes in the home of jackals.

⁸A highway will be there, a roadway. It will be called the Holy Road. Sinners wont travel on it. It will be for those who walk on it. Godless fools wont wander onto it.

⁹Lions wont be there. Wild animals wont go on it. They wont be found there. But the people reclaimed by the LORD will walk on it.

¹⁰The people ransomed by the LORD will return. They will come to Zion singing with joy. Everlasting happiness will be on their heads as a crown. They will be glad and joyful. They will have no sorrow or grief.

36¹In Hezekiahs fourteenth year as king, King Sennacherib of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

²Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. He stood at the channel for the Upper Pool on the road to Laundrymans Field.

³Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace and was the son of Hilkiah, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, who was the royal historian and the son of Asaph, went out to the field commander.

⁴He said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What makes you so confident?

⁵You give useless advice about getting ready for war. Whom, then, do you trust for support in your rebellion against me?

⁶Look! When you trust Egypt, youre trusting a broken stick for a staff. If you lean on it, it stabs your hand and goes through it. This is what Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) is like for everyone who trusts him.

⁷Suppose you tell me, "Were trusting the LORD our God." Hes the god whose places of worship and altars Hezekiah got rid of. Hezekiah told Judah and Jerusalem, "Worship at this altar."

⁸"Now, make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. Ill give you 2,000 horses if you can put riders on them.

⁹How can you defeat my masters lowestraking officers when you trust Egypt for chariots and horses?

¹⁰"Have I come to destroy this country without the LORD on my side? The LORD said to me, Attack this country, and destroy it."

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the field commander, "Speak to us in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in the Judean language as long as there are people on the wall listening."

¹² But the field commander asked, "Did my master send me to tell these things only to you and your master? Didn't he send me to the men sitting on the wall who will have to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³ Then the field commander stood and shouted loudly in the Judean language, "Listen to the great king, the king of Assyria.

¹⁴ This is what the king says: Don't let Hezekiah deceive you. He can't rescue you.

¹⁵ Don't let Hezekiah get you to trust the LORD by saying, The LORD will certainly rescue us, and this city will not be put under the control of the king of Assyria.

¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah, because this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me! Come out, and give yourselves up to me! Everyone will eat from his own grapevine and fig tree and drink from his own cistern.

¹⁷ Then I will come and take you away to a country like your own. Its a country with grain and new wine, a country with bread and vineyards.

¹⁸ Dont let Hezekiah mislead you by saying to you, The LORD will rescue us. Did any of the gods of the nations rescue their countries from the king of Assyria?

¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they rescue Samaria from my control?

²⁰ Did the gods of these countries rescue them from my control? Could the LORD then rescue Jerusalem from my control?"

²¹ They were silent and didnt say anything to him because the king commanded them not to answer him.

²² Then Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace and was son of Hilkiah, Shebna the scribe, and Joah, who was the royal historian and the son of Asaph, went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn in grief. They told him the message from the field commander.

37 ¹When King Hezekiah heard the message, he tore his clothes in grief, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORDS temple.

²Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the leaders of the priests, clothed in sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz.

³They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: Today is a day filled with misery, punishment, and disgrace. We are like a woman who is about to give birth but doesnt have the strength to do it.

⁴The LORD your God may have heard the words of the field commander. His master, the king of Assyria, sent him to defy the living God. The LORD your God may punish him because of the message that the LORD your God heard. Pray for the few people who are left."

⁵So King Hezekiahs men went to Isaiah.

⁶Isaiah answered them, "Say this to your master, This is what the LORD says: Dont be afraid of the message that you heard when the Assyrian kings assistants slandered me.

⁷Im going to put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own country. Ill have him assassinated in his own country."

⁸The field commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah. He had heard that the king left Lachish.

⁹Now, Sennacherib heard that King Tirhakah of Sudan was coming to fight him. When he heard this, he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰"Tell King Hezekiah of Judah, Dont let the god whom you trust deceive you by saying that Jerusalem will not be put under the control of the king of Assyria.

¹¹You heard what the kings of Assyria did to all countries, how they totally destroyed them. Will you be rescued?

¹²Did the gods of the nations which my ancestors destroyed rescue Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

¹³Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers, read it, and went to the LORDS temple. He spread it out in front of the LORD

¹⁵and prayed to the LORD,

¹⁶"LORD of Armies, God of Israel, you are enthroned over the angels. You alone are God of the kingdoms of the world. You made heaven and earth.

¹⁷Turn your ear toward me, LORD, and listen. Open your eyes, LORD, and see. Listen to the entire message that Sennacherib sent to defy the living God.

¹⁸It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have leveled every country.

¹⁹They have thrown the gods from these countries into fires because these gods arent real gods. Theyre only wooden and stone statues made by human hands. So the Assyrians have destroyed them.

²⁰Now, LORD our God, rescue us from Assyrias control so that all the kingdoms on earth will know that you alone are the LORD."

²¹Then Isaiah, son of Amoz, sent a message to Hezekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: You prayed to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria.

²²This is the message that the LORD speaks to him, My dear people in Zion despise you and laugh at you. My people in Jerusalem shake their heads behind your back.

²³Whom are you defying and slandering? Against whom are you shouting? Who are you looking at so arrogantly? It is the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴Through your servants you defy the Lord and say, "With my many chariots I'll ride up the high mountains, up the slopes of Lebanon. I'll cut down its tallest cedars and its finest cypresses. I'll come to its most distant heights and its most fertile forests.

²⁵I'll dig wells and drink water. I'll dry up all the streams of Egypt with the trampling of my feet."

²⁶"Havent you heard? I did this long ago. I planned it in the distant past. Now I make it happen so that you will turn fortified cities into piles of rubble.

²⁷Those who live in these cities are weak, discouraged, and ashamed. They will be like plants in the field, like fresh, green grass on the roofs, dried up by the east wind.

²⁸I know when you get up and sit down, when you go out and come in, and how you rage against me.

²⁹Since you rage against me and your boasting has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your mouth. I will make you go back the way you came.

³⁰"And this will be a sign for you, Hezekiah: You will eat what grows by itself this year, and the next year you will eat what comes up by itself. But in the third year you will plant and harvest, plant vineyards, and eat what is produced.

³¹Those few people from the nation of Judah who escape will again take root and produce crops.

³²Those few people will go out from Jerusalem, and those who escape will go out from Mount Zion. The LORD of Armies is determined to do this.

³³"This is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: He will never come into this city, shoot an arrow here, hold a shield in front of it, or put up dirt ramps to attack it.

³⁴He will go back the way he came, and he won't come into this city," declares the LORD of Armies.

³⁵"I will shield this city to rescue it for my sake and for the sake of my servant David."

³⁶The LORDS angel went out and killed 185,000 soldiers in the Assyrian camp. When the Judeans got up early in the morning, they saw all the corpses.

³⁷Then King Sennacherib of Assyria left. He went home to Nineveh and stayed there.

³⁸While he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, assassinated him and escaped to the land of Ararat. His son Esarhaddon succeeded him as king.

38¹In those days Hezekiah became sick and was about to die. The prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz, came to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Give final instructions to your household, because you're about to die. You won't get well."

²Hezekiah turned to the wall and prayed to the LORD.

³"Please, LORD, remember how I've lived faithfully and sincerely in your presence. I've done what you consider right." And he cried bitterly.

⁴Then the LORD spoke his word to Isaiah,

⁵"Go and say to Hezekiah, This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I've heard your prayer. I've seen your tears. I'm going to give you 15 more years to live.

⁶I'll rescue you and defend this city from the control of the king of Assyria." (38: 21) Then Isaiah said, "Take a fig cake, and place it over the boil so that the king will get well." (38: 22) Hezekiah asked, "What is the sign that I'll go to the LORDS temple?"

⁷Isaiah said, "This is your sign from the LORD that he will do what he promises.

⁸The sun made a shadow that went down the stairway of Ahazs upper palace. I'm going to make the shadow go back ten steps." So the sun on the stairway went back up the ten steps it had gone down.

⁹King Hezekiah of Judah wrote this after he was sick and became well again:

¹⁰I thought that in the prime of my life I would go down to the gates of Sheol and be robbed of the rest of my life.

¹¹I thought that I wouldn't see the LORD in this world. Even with all the people in the world, I thought I would never see another person.

¹²My life was over. You rolled it up like a shepherd's tent. You rolled up my life like a weaver. You cut me off from the loom. You ended my life in one day.

¹³I cried out until morning as if a lion had crushed all my bones. You ended my life in one day.

¹⁴I chirped like swallows and cranes. I cooed like doves. My eyes were tired from looking up to heaven. I've suffered miserably, O Lord! Please help me!

¹⁵What can I say now that he has spoken to me? He has done this. I will be careful the rest of my life because of my bitter experience.

¹⁶Lord, people live in spite of such things, and I have the will to live in spite of them. You give me health and keep me alive.

¹⁷ Now my bitter experience turns into peace. You have saved me and kept me from the rotting pit. You have thrown all my sins behind you.

¹⁸ Sheol doesn't thank you! Death doesn't praise you! Those who go down to the pit cannot expect you to be faithful.

¹⁹ Those who are living praise you as I do today. Fathers make your faithfulness known to their children.

²⁰ The LORD is going to rescue me, so let us play stringed instruments. We live our lives in the LORDS temple.

²² (SEE 38: 6)

39¹ At that time Baladans son, King Merodach Baladan of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah. He had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered.

² Hezekiah was so happy with them that he showed the messengers his warehouse: the silver, gold, balsam, fine olive oil, his entire armory, and everything in his treasury. Hezekiah showed them everything in his palace and every corner of his kingdom.

³Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did these men say? And where did they come from?" Hezekiah answered, "They came to me from the distant country of Babylon."

⁴Isaiah asked, "What did they see in your palace?" Hezekiah answered, "They saw everything in my palace, and I showed them everything in my treasury."

⁵Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Armies!

⁶The LORD says, The days are going to come when everything in your palace, everything your ancestors have stored up to this day, will be taken away to Babylon. Nothing will be left.

⁷Some of your own descendants will be taken away. They will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORDS word that you have spoken is good." He added, "Just let there be peace and security as long as I live."

40¹ "Comfort my people! Comfort them!" says your God.

²"Speak tenderly to Jerusalem and announce to it that its time of hard labor is over and its wrongs have been paid for. It has received from the LORD double for all its sins."

³A voice cries out in the desert: "Clear a way for the LORD. Make a straight highway in the wilderness for our God."

⁴Every valley will be raised. Every mountain and hill will be lowered. Steep places will be made level. Rough places will be made smooth.

⁵Then the LORDS glory will be revealed and all people will see it together. The LORD has spoken."

⁶A voice called, "Call out!" I asked, "What should I call out?" "Call out: All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like a flower in the field."

⁷Grass dries up, and flowers wither when the LORDS breath blows on them. Yes, people are like grass.

⁸Grass dries up, and flowers wither, but the word of our God will last forever."

⁹Go up a high mountain, Zion. Tell the good news! Call out with a loud voice, Jerusalem. Tell the good news! Raise your voice without fear. Tell the cities of Judah: "Here is your God!"

¹⁰The Almighty LORD is coming with power to rule with authority. His reward is with him, and the people he has won arrive ahead of him.

¹¹Like a shepherd he takes care of his flock. He gathers the lambs in his arms. He carries them in his arms. He gently helps the sheep and their lambs.

¹²Who has measured the water of the sea with the palm of his hand or measured the sky with the length of his hand? Who has held the dust of the earth in a bushel basket or weighed the mountains on a scale and the hills on a balance?

¹³Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD or instructed him as his adviser?

¹⁴Whom did he consult? Who gave him understanding? Who taught him the right way? Who taught him knowledge? Who informed him about the way to understanding?

¹⁵The nations are like a drop in a bucket and are considered to be like dust on a scale. The weight of the islands is like fine dust.

¹⁶All the trees in Lebanon are not enough to burn an offering. Its wild animals are not enough for a single burnt offering.

¹⁷All the nations amount to nothing in his presence. He considers them less than nothing and worthless.

¹⁸To whom, then, can you compare God? To what statue can you compare him?

¹⁹Craftsmen make idols. Goldsmiths cover them with gold. Silversmiths make silver chains for them.

²⁰The poorest people choose wood that will not rot and search out skillful craftsmen to set up idols that will not fall over.

²¹Dont you know? Havent you heard? Havent you been told from the beginning? Dont you understand the foundations of the earth?

²²God is enthroned above the earth, and those who live on it are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the sky like a canopy and spreads it out like a tent to live in.

²³He makes rulers unimportant and makes earthly judges worth nothing.

²⁴ They have hardly been planted. They have hardly been sown. They have hardly taken root in the ground. Then he blows on them and they wither, and a windstorm sweeps them away like straw.

²⁵ "To whom, then, can you compare me? Who is my equal?" asks the Holy One.

²⁶ Look at the sky and see. Who created these things? Who brings out the stars one by one? He calls them all by name. Because of the greatness of his might and the strength of his power, not one of them is missing.

²⁷ Jacob, why do you complain? Israel, why do you say, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my rights are ignored by my God"?

²⁸ Don't you know? Haven't you heard? The eternal God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't grow tired or become weary. His understanding is beyond reach.

²⁹ He gives strength to those who grow tired and increases the strength of those who are weak.

³⁰Even young people grow tired and become weary, and young men will stumble and fall.

³¹Yet, the strength of those who wait with hope in the LORD will be renewed. They will soar on wings like eagles. They will run and wont become weary. They will walk and wont grow tired.

41 ¹"Be silent and listen to me, you coastlands. Let the people gain new strength. Let them come near and speak. Let us come together for judgment.

²"Who has raised up from the east someone to whom the LORD gives victory with every step he takes? Nations are handed over to him. He defeats kings. With his sword he turns them into dust. With his bow he turns them into straw blown by the wind.

³He chases them, marching by safely on a path his feet have never traveled before.

⁴Who has accomplished this? Who has determined the course of history from the beginning? I, the LORD, was there first, and I will be there to the end. I am the one!"

⁵The coastlands have seen him and are afraid. The ends of the earth tremble. They have come near and gathered together.

⁶People help their neighbors and say to their relatives, "Be brave!"

⁷Craftsmen encourage goldsmiths. Metalsmiths encourage blacksmiths who work at their anvils. They say that their soldering is good. And they fasten things with nails so they wont move.

⁸"But you are my servant Israel, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the descendant of Abraham, my dear friend.

⁹I have taken you from the ends of the earth and called you from its most distant places. I said to you, You are my servant. Ive chosen you; I havent rejected you.

¹⁰Dont be afraid, because I am with you. Dont be intimidated; I am your God. I will strengthen you. I will help you. I will support you with my victorious right hand.

¹¹"Everyone who is angry with you will be ashamed and disgraced. Those who oppose you will be reduced to nothing and disappear.

¹²You will search for your enemies, but you will not find them. Those who are at war with you will be reduced to nothing and no longer exist.

¹³I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand and say to you, Don't be afraid; I will help you.

¹⁴Don't be afraid, Jacob, you worm. You people of Israel, I will help you," declares the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵"I am going to make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp, doubleedged teeth. You will thresh the mountains and crush them to dust. You will turn the hills into straw.

¹⁶You will winnow them. The wind will carry them away. The windstorm will scatter them. But you will find joy in the LORD and praise the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷"The poor and needy are looking for water, but there is none. Their tongues are parched with thirst. I, the LORD, will answer them. I, the God of Israel, will not abandon them.

¹⁸I will make rivers flow on bare hilltops. I will make springs flow through valleys. I will turn deserts into lakes. I will turn dry land into springs.

¹⁹I will plant cedar, acacia, myrtle, and wild olive trees in the desert. I will place cedar, fir, and cypress trees together in the wilderness.

²⁰People will see and know. Together they will consider and understand that the LORDS power has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹"Present your case," says the LORD. "Bring forward your best arguments," says Jacobs king.

²²"Bring your idols so they can tell us whats going to happen. Explain past events that your idols told you about so that we may consider them and know what their outcome will be. Tell us about future events.

²³Tell us whats going to happen so that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do something, good or evil, to intimidate us and make us afraid.

²⁴You are nothing! You cant do anything! Whoever chooses you is disgusting.

²⁵"I have raised up someone from the north, and he has come. He will call on my name from the east. He will attack rulers as if they were mud, as if he were treading on clay like a potter.

²⁶Who revealed this from the beginning so that we could know it? Who revealed this from the past so that we could say that he was right? No one revealed it. No one announced it. No one heard your words.

²⁷I was the first to tell Zion, Look, here they are. I gave Jerusalem a messenger with the good news.

²⁸When I look, there is no one. There is no one to advise them. When I ask them a question, will they give an answer?

²⁹All of them are nothing. They can't do anything. Their statues are nothing but air."

42¹Here is my servant, whom I support. Here is my chosen one, with whom I am pleased. I have put my Spirit on him. He will bring justice to the nations.

²He will not cry out or raise his voice. He will not make his voice heard in the streets.

³He will not break off a damaged cattail. He will not even put out a smoking wick. He will faithfully bring about justice.

⁴He will not be discouraged or crushed until he has set up justice on the earth. The coastlands will wait for his teachings.

⁵The LORD God created the heavens and stretched them out. He shaped the earth and all that comes from it. He gave life to the people who are on it and breath to those who walk on it. This is what the LORD God says:

⁶I, the LORD, have called you to do what is right. I will take hold of your hand. I will protect you. I will appoint you as my promise to the people, as my light to the nations.

⁷You will give sight to the blind, bring prisoners out of prisons, and bring those who live in darkness out of dungeons.

⁸I am the LORD; that is my name. I will not give my glory to anyone else or the praise I deserve to idols.

⁹What I said in the past has come true. I will reveal new things before they happen.

¹⁰Sing a new song to the LORD. Sing his praise from the ends of the earth, you people who sail on the seas and all the creatures that live in them, you coastlands and all who live on them.

¹¹Let those who live in the desert and its cities raise their voices. Let those who live in the settlements of Kedar praise him. Let those who live in Sela sing for joy. Let them shout from the tops of the mountains.

¹²Let them give glory to the LORD and announce his praise on the coastlands.

¹³The LORD marches out like a warrior. He prepares himself for battle like a soldier. He shouts, gives the battle cry, and overpowers his enemies.

¹⁴I have been silent for a long time. I kept quiet and held myself back. But like a woman in childbirth I will cry out. I will gasp and pant.

¹⁵I will lay waste to mountains and hills. I will dry up all their vegetation. I will turn rivers into islands. I will dry up ponds.

¹⁶I will lead the blind on unfamiliar roads. I will lead them on unfamiliar paths. I will turn darkness into light in front of them. I will make rough places smooth. These are the things I will do for them, and I will never abandon them.

¹⁷ Then those who trust idols and those who say to statues, "You are our gods" will be turned away and put to shame.

¹⁸ Listen, you deaf people. Look, you blind people, so that you can see.

¹⁹ Who is blind except my servant or deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one who has my trust or blind like the servant of the LORD?

²⁰ You have seen much, but you do not observe anything. Your ears are open, but you hear nothing.

²¹ The LORD is pleased because he does what is right. He praises the greatness of his teachings and makes them glorious.

²² But these people are robbed and looted. They are all trapped in pits and hidden in prisons. They have become prey with no one to rescue them. They have become loot with no one to say, "Give it back."

²³ Who among you will listen to this? Is there anyone who will pay attention and listen in the future?

²⁴ Who gave Jacob away as loot and handed Israel over to robbers? Wasnt it the LORD, against whom we have sinned? They didnt want to live his way. They didnt obey his teachings.

²⁵ So he poured out his burning anger and the horrors of war on them. It engulfed them in flames, but they did not understand. It burned them, but they did not take it to heart.

43¹ The LORD created Jacob and formed Israel. Now, this is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid, because I have reclaimed you. I have called you by name; you are mine.

² When you go through the sea, I am with you. When you go through rivers, they will not sweep you away. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned, and the flames will not harm you.

³ I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. Egypt is the ransom I exchanged for you. Sudan and Seba are the price I paid for you.

⁴ Since you are precious to me, you are honored and I love you. I will exchange others for you. Nations will be the price I pay for your life.

⁵Do not be afraid, because I am with you. I will bring your descendants from the east and gather you from the west.

⁶I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not keep them." Bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

⁷Bring everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.

⁸Bring the people who are blind but still have eyes, the people who are deaf but still have ears.

⁹All nations have gathered together, and people have assembled. Who among them could have revealed this? Who among them could have foretold this to us? They should bring their witnesses to prove that they were right. Let the people hear them. Then they will say that it is true.

¹⁰"You are my witnesses," declares the LORD. "I have chosen you as my servant so that you can know and believe in me and understand that I am the one who did this. No god was formed before me, and there will be none after me.

¹¹ I alone am the LORD, and there is no savior except me.

¹² I have revealed it to you, I have saved you, and I have announced it to you. There was no foreign god among you. You are my witnesses that I am God," declares the LORD.

¹³ "From the first day I was the one who did this. No one can rescue people from my power. When I do something, who can undo it?"

¹⁴ This is what the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel, says: For your sake I will send an army to Babylon. I will bring back all the Babylonian refugees in the ships that they take pride in.

¹⁶ The LORD makes a path through the sea and a road through the strong currents.

¹⁷ He leads chariots and horses, an army and reinforcements. (They lie down together and do not get up again. They are extinguished and snuffed out like a wick.) This is what the LORD says:

¹⁸Forget what happened in the past, and do not dwell on events from long ago.

¹⁹I am going to do something new. It is already happening. Don't you recognize it? I will clear a way in the desert. I will make rivers on dry land.

²⁰Wild animals, jackals, and ostriches will honor me. I will provide water in the desert. I will make rivers on the dry land for my chosen people to drink.

²¹I have formed these people for myself. They will praise me.

²²Jacob, you have not prayed to me. Israel, you have grown tired of me.

²³You did not bring me sheep for your burnt offerings or honor me with your sacrifices. I did not burden you by requiring grain offerings or trouble you by requiring incense offerings.

²⁴You did not buy me any sugar cane with your money or satisfy me with the best part of your sacrifices. Rather, you burdened me with your sins and troubled me with your wrongdoings.

²⁵I alone am the one who is going to wipe away your rebellious actions for my own sake. I will not remember your sins anymore.

²⁶Remind me of what happened. Let us argue our case together. State your case so that you can prove you are right.

²⁷Your first ancestor sinned, and your priests rebelled against me.

²⁸That is why I will corrupt the leaders of the holy place. I will claim Jacob for destruction. I will set up Israel for ridicule.

44¹ But now listen, my servant Jacob, Israel, whom I have chosen.

²The LORD made you, formed you in the womb, and will help you. This is what the LORD says: Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

³I will pour water on thirsty ground and rain on dry land. I will pour my Spirit on your offspring and my blessing on your descendants.

⁴They will spring up with the grass as poplars spring up by streams.

⁵One person will say, "I belong to the LORD." Another will call on the name of Jacob. Another will write on his hand,

"The LORDS," and he will adopt the name of Israel.

⁶The LORD is Israels king and defender. He is the LORD of Armies. This is what the LORD says: I am the first and the last, and there is no God except me.

⁷If there is anyone like me, let him say so. Let him tell me what happened when I established my people long ago. Then let him predict what will happen to them.

⁸Dont be terrified or afraid. Didnt I make this known to you long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God except me? There is no other rock; I know of none.

⁹All who make idols are nothing. Their precious treasures are worthless. Their own witnesses do not see or know anything, so they will be put to shame.

¹⁰Nothing comes from making gods or casting metal idols.

¹¹Everyone associated with the gods will be put to shame. The craftsmen themselves are only human. Let them all get together and take their stand. They will be frightened and ashamed together.

¹²Blacksmiths shape iron into tools. They work them over the coals and shape them with hammers, working them with their strong arms. They get hungry, and their strength fails. If they don't drink water, they will faint.

¹³ Carpenters measure blocks of wood with chalk lines. They mark them with pens. They carve them with chisels and mark them with compasses. They carve them into forms of people, beautiful people, so the idols can live in shrines.

¹⁶ Half of the wood they burn in the fire. Over this half they roast meat that they can eat until they are full. They also warm themselves and say, "Ah! We are warm. We can see the fire!"

¹⁷ But the rest of the wood they make into gods, carved statues. They bow to them and worship them. They pray to them, saying, "Rescue us, because you are our gods."

¹⁹ No one stops to think. No one has enough knowledge or understanding to say, "I burned half of the wood in the fire. I also baked bread over its coals. I roasted meat and ate it. Now I am making the rest of the wood into a disgusting thing and bowing to a block of wood."

²⁰ They eat ashes because they are deceived. Their own misguided minds lead them astray. They can't rescue themselves or ask themselves, "Isn't what I hold in my right hand a false god?"

²¹ Remember these things, Jacob: You are my servant, Israel. I formed you; you are my servant. Israel, I will not forget you.

²²I made your rebellious acts disappear like a thick cloud and your sins like the morning mist. Come back to me, because I have reclaimed you.

²³Sing with joy, you heavens, because the LORD has done this. Rejoice, you deep places of the earth. Break into shouts of joy, you mountains, you forests and every tree in them. The LORD has reclaimed Jacob. He will display his glory in Israel.

²⁴The LORD reclaimed you. He formed you in the womb. This is what the LORD says: I, the LORD, made everything. I stretched out the heavens by myself. I spread out the earth all alone.

²⁵I cause the signs of false prophets to fail and make fools of fortunetellers. I make wise men retreat and turn their knowledge into foolishness.

²⁶He confirms the word of his servant and fulfills the plan of his messengers. He says about Jerusalem, "It will be inhabited." He says about the cities of Judah, "They will be rebuilt." He says about their ruins, "I will restore them."

²⁷He says to the deep water, "Dry up." So I will dry up your rivers.

²⁸He says about Cyrus, "He is my shepherd. He will do everything I want him to do." He says about Jerusalem, "It will be rebuilt." He says about the temple, "Your foundation will be laid."

45¹This is what the LORD says about Cyrus, his anointed one: I have held him by his right hand so he could conquer the nations ahead of him, strip kings of their power, and open doors ahead of him so that the gates would not be shut.

²I will go ahead of you, Cyrus, and smooth out the rough places. I will break down the bronze doors and cut through the iron bars.

³I will give you treasures from dark places and hidden stockpiles. Then you will know that I, the LORD God of Israel, have called you by name.

⁴For the sake of my servant Jacob, Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by name. I have given you a title of honor, although you don't know me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other. There is no other God besides me. I will strengthen you, although you don't know me, ⁶so that from the east to the west people will know that there is no God except me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.

⁷I make light and create darkness. I make blessings and create disasters. I, the LORD, do all these things.

⁸Rain down from above, you heavens, and pour down righteousness, you skies. Let the earth open. Let salvation and righteousness sprout. Let them spring up. I, the LORD, have created them.

⁹How horrible it will be for the one who quarrels with his maker. He is pottery among other earthenware pots. Does the clay ask the one who shapes it, "What are you making?" Does your work say to you, "There are no handles"?

¹⁰How horrible it will be for the one who says to his father, "Why did you conceive me?" or to his mother, "Why did you go through labor pains for me?"

¹¹The LORD is the Holy One and the maker of Israel. This is what the LORD says: Ask me about what is going to happen to my children! Are you going to give me orders concerning my handiwork?

¹²I made the earth and created humans on it. I stretched out the heavens with my own hands. I commanded all the stars to shine.

¹³I prepared Cyrus for my righteous purpose. I will make all his roads straight. He will build my city and let my exiles go free without any payment or any reward, says the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴This is what the LORD says: The products from Egypt, the merchandise from Sudan, and the important Sabaeans will come to you. They will belong to you. They will follow you. They will come to you in chains. They will bow to you and pray to you, "Certainly God is with you alone, and there is no other God."

¹⁵Certainly, you are a God who has hidden himself. You are the God of Israel, the Savior!

¹⁶Those who make idols will be ashamed and disgraced. They will go away completely disgraced.

¹⁷Israel has been saved by the LORD forever. You will never again be ashamed or disgraced.

¹⁸The LORD created the heavens. God formed the earth and made it. He set it up. He did not create it to be empty but formed it to be inhabited. This is what the LORD says: I am the LORD, and there is no other.

¹⁹I havent spoken privately or in some dark corner of the world. I didnt say to Jacobs descendants, "Search for me in vain!" I, the LORD, speak what is fair and say what is right.

²⁰Come here, you refugees from the nations. Ignorant people carry wooden idols and pray to gods that cannot save anyone.

²¹Speak and present your case. Yes, let them consult one another. Who revealed this in the distant past and predicted it long ago? Wasnt it I, the LORD? There is no other God except me. There is no other righteous God and Savior besides me.

²²Turn to me and be saved, all who live at the ends of the earth, because I am God, and there is no other.

²³I have bound myself with an oath. A word has gone out from my righteous mouth that will not be recalled, "Every knee will bow to me and every tongue will swear allegiance."

²⁴It will be said of me, "Certainly, righteousness and strength are found in the LORD alone." All who are angry with him will come to him and be ashamed.

²⁵All the descendants of Israel will be declared righteous, and they will praise the LORD.

46¹The god Bel bows down; the god Nebo stoops low. Their statues are seated on animals and cattle. The gods that you carry are burdens, a load for weary people.

²These gods stoop low and bow down together. They aren't able to escape with heavy loads. They go away into captivity.

³Listen to me, descendants of Jacob, the few people left of the nation of Israel. I've carried you since your birth. I've taken care of you from the time you were born.

⁴Even when you're old, I'll take care of you. Even when your hair turns gray, I'll support you. I made you and will continue to care for you. I'll support you and save you.

⁵To whom will you compare me and make me equal? To whom will you compare me so that we can be alike?

⁶People pour gold out of their bags and weigh silver on scales. They hire a goldsmith. He makes it into a god. They bow down and worship it.

⁷They lift it on their shoulders and carry it. They set the idol in its place, and it stands there. It doesn't move from its place. If they cry to it for help, it can't answer. It can't rescue them from their distress.

⁸Remember this, and take courage. Recall your rebellious acts.

⁹Remember the first events, because I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there's no one like me.

¹⁰From the beginning I revealed the end. From long ago I told you things that had not yet happened, saying, "My plan will stand, and I'll do everything I intended to do."

¹¹I will call a bird of prey from the east. I will call someone for my plan from a faraway land. I have spoken, and I will bring it about. I have planned it, and I will do it.

¹²Listen to me, you stubborn people who are far from being righteous.

¹³ I'll bring my righteousness near; it isn't far away. My salvation will not be delayed. I'll provide salvation for Zion and bring my glory to Israel.

47 ¹ Go, sit in the dirt, virgin princess of Babylon! Sit on the ground, not on a throne, princess of the Babylonians! You will no longer be called soft and delicate.

² Take millstones and grind flour. Remove your veil. Take off your skirt. Uncover your legs, and cross the river.

³ People will see you naked. People will see your shame. I will take revenge. I won't spare anyone.

⁴ Our defender is the Holy One of Israel. His name is the LORD of Armies.

⁵ Go into the dark, and sit in silence, princess of the Babylonians! You will no longer be called the queen of kingdoms.

⁶ I was angry with my people. I dishonored those who belong to me. I put them under your control. You showed them no mercy. You placed a heavy burden on old people.

⁷ You said, "I will always be a queen." You didn't carefully consider these things or keep in mind how they would end.

⁸Now then, listen to this, you lover of pleasure. You live securely and say to yourself, "I'm the only one, and there's no one else. I won't live as a widow. I won't suffer the loss of children."

⁹In one day both of these will happen to you instantly: the loss of your children and your husband. All this will happen to you in spite of your evil magic and your many spells.

¹⁰You feel safe in your wickedness and say, "No one can see me." Your wisdom and knowledge have led you astray, so you say to yourself, "I'm the only one, and there's no one else."

¹¹But evil will happen to you. You won't know how to keep it away. Disaster will strike you. You won't be able to stop it. Destruction will overtake you suddenly. You won't expect it.

¹²Keep practicing your spells and your evil magic. You have practiced them ever since you were young. You may succeed. You may cause terror.

¹³You are worn out by your many plans. Let your astrologers and your stargazers, who foretell the future month by month, come to you, rise up, and save you.

¹⁴They are like straw. Fire burns them. They can't rescue themselves from the flames. There are no glowing coals to keep them warm and no fire for them to sit by.

¹⁵This is how it will be for those who have worked with you, for those who have been with you ever since you were young. They will go their own ways, and there will be no one to save you.

48¹Listen to this, descendants of Jacob! You are given the name of Israel. You are descended from Judah. You take oaths by the name of the LORD. You acknowledge the God of Israel, but you are not honest or sincere.

²You call yourselves citizens of the holy city. You depend on the God of Israel. His name is the LORD of Armies.

³From the beginning I revealed to you what would happen. These words came out of my mouth, and I made them known. Suddenly, I acted, and they happened.

⁴I know that you are stubborn. Like iron, you are hardheaded. Like bronze, nothing gets through your thick skull.

⁵That is why I revealed to you what would happen long ago. I told you about them before they happened. I did this so you couldn't say, "My gods have done these things. My carved idols and my metal idols have commanded them to happen."

⁶You've heard these words. Now look at all this. Won't you admit it? From now on I will reveal to you new things, hidden things that you do not know.

⁷They are created now, not in the past. You haven't heard about them before today, so you can't say that you already knew about them.

⁸You have never heard about them. You have never known about them. Your ears have never been open to hear them before. I know that you've acted very treacherously and that you have been called a rebel since you were born.

⁹For my names sake I'll be patient. For my glory's sake I'll hold my anger back from you, rather than destroy you.

¹⁰I have refined you, but not like silver. I have tested you in the furnace of suffering.

¹¹ I am doing this for myself, only for myself. Why should my name be dishonored? I will not give my glory to anyone else.

¹² Listen to me, Jacob, Israel, whom I have called. I am the one. I am the first and the last.

¹³ My hand laid the foundation of the earth. My right hand stretched out the heavens. When I call for them, they both stand.

¹⁴ Gather together, all of you, and listen. What idol has revealed such things? The LORD loves Cyrus. He will carry out the LORDS plan against Babylon. He will use his strength against the Babylonians.

¹⁵ I alone have spoken. I have called him. I will bring him here, and he will succeed.

¹⁶ Come here. Listen to this: From the beginning I have spoken nothing in private. From the time it took place, I was there. Now the Almighty LORD has sent me and his Spirit.

¹⁷ This is what the LORD, your Defender, the Holy One of Israel, says: I am the LORD your God. I teach you what is best for you. I lead you where you should go.

¹⁸If only you had listened to my commands! Your peace would be like a river that never runs dry. Your righteousness would be like waves on the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants would be like sand. Your children would be like its grains. Their names would not be cut off or wiped out in my presence.

²⁰Leave Babylon; flee from the Babylonians! Shout for joy as you tell it and announce it. Shout it out to the ends of the earth. Say that the LORD has reclaimed his servant Jacob.

²¹They werent thirsty when he led them through the deserts. He made water flow from a rock for them. He split a rock, and water gushed out.

²²"There is no peace for the wicked," says the LORD.

49¹Listen to me, you islands. Pay attention, you people far away. Before I was born, the LORD chose me. While I was in my mothers womb, he recorded my name.

²He made my tongue like a sharp sword and hid me in the palm of his hand. He made me like a sharpened arrow and hid me in his quiver.

³He said to me, "You are my servant Israel. I will display my glory through you."

⁴But I said, "I have worked hard for nothing. I have used my strength, but I didn't accomplish anything. Yet, certainly my case is in the LORDS hands, and my reward is with my God."

⁵The LORD formed me in the womb to be his servant in order to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to him. (The LORD honors me, and my God has become my strength.)

⁶Now, the Lord says, "You are not just my servant who restores the tribes of Jacob and brings back those in Israel whom I have preserved. I have also made you a light for the nations so that you would save people all over the world."

⁷The LORD is the defender of Israel, its Holy One. This is what the LORD says to the despised one, to the one scorned by the nation, to the slave of rulers: Kings will see you and stand. Princes will see you and bow. The LORD is faithful. The Holy One of Israel has chosen you.

⁸This is what the LORD says: In the time of favor I will answer you. In the day of salvation I will help you. I will protect you. I will appoint you as my promise to the people. You will restore the land. You will make them inherit the desolate inheritance.

⁹You will say to the prisoners, "Come out," and to those who are in darkness, "Show yourselves." They will graze along every path, and they will find pastures on every bare hill.

¹⁰They will never be hungry or thirsty, nor will the sun or the burning, hot wind strike them. The one who has compassion on them will lead them and guide them to springs.

¹¹I will turn all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be restored.

¹²They will come from far away. They will come from the north and from the west, and they will come from the land of Sinim.

¹³Sing with joy, you heavens! Rejoice, you earth! Break into shouts of joy, you mountains! The LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on his humble people.

¹⁴But Zion said, "The LORD has abandoned me. My Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵Can a woman forget her nursing child? Will she have no compassion on the child from her womb? Although mothers may forget, I will not forget you.

¹⁶I have engraved you on the palms of my hands. Your walls are always in my presence.

¹⁷Your children will hurry back. Those who destroyed you and laid waste to you will leave you.

¹⁸Look up, look around, and watch! All of your children are gathering together and returning to you. "I solemnly swear as I live," declares the LORD, "you will wear all of them like jewels and display them on yourself as a bride would."

¹⁹Though you are destroyed and demolished and your land is in ruins, you will be too crowded for your people now. Those who devoured you will be long gone.

²⁰The children taken from you will say to you, "This place is too crowded for me. Make room for me to live here."

²¹Then you will ask yourself, "Who has fathered these children for me? I was childless and unable to have children. I was exiled and rejected. Who raised these children for me? I was left alone. Where have they come from?"

²²This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will lift my hand to signal the nations. I will raise my flag for the people. They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

²³Then kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens will nurse you. They will bow in front of you with their faces touching the ground. They will lick the dust at your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD. Those who wait with hope for me will not be put to shame.

²⁴Can loot be taken away from mighty men or prisoners be freed from conquerors?

²⁵This is what the LORD says: Prisoners will be freed from mighty men. Loot will be taken away from tyrants. I will fight your enemies, and I will save your children.

²⁶I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they will become drunk on their own blood as though it were new wine. Then all humanity will know that I am the LORD, who saves you, the Mighty One of Jacob, who reclaims you.

50¹This is what the LORD says: Where are your mothers divorce papers? Did I give her any to get rid of her? To which of my creditors did I sell you? You were sold because of your sins. I got rid of your mother because of your rebellion.

²Why was no one here when I came? Why was no one here to answer when I called? Am I too weak to reclaim you? Don't I have the power to rescue you? I dry up the sea with my command, and I turn rivers into deserts. Their fish stink because there is no water, and people die of thirst.

³I clothe the heavens in darkness and cover them with sackcloth.

⁴The Almighty LORD will teach me what to say, so I will know how to encourage weary people. Morning after morning he will wake me to listen like a student.

⁵The Almighty LORD will open my ears. I will not rebel, nor will I turn away from him.

⁶I will offer my back to those who whip me and my cheeks to those who pluck hairs out of my beard. I will not turn my face away from those who humiliate me and spit on me.

⁷The Almighty LORD helps me. That is why I will not be ashamed. I have set my face like a flint. I know that I will not be put to shame.

⁸The one who pronounces me innocent is near. Who will bring a case against me? Let us confront each other! Who accuses me? Let him confront me!

⁹The Almighty LORD helps me. Who will find me guilty? They will all wear out like a garment. Moths will eat them.

¹⁰Who among you fears the LORD and obeys his servant? Let those who walk in darkness and have no light trust the name of the LORD and depend upon their God.

¹¹But all of you light fires and arm yourselves with flaming torches. So walk in your own light and among the torches you have lit. This is what you will receive from me: You will be tormented.

51 ¹Listen to me, you people who pursue what is right and seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were cut and to the quarry from which you were dug.

²Look to Abraham, your ancestor, and to Sarah, from whom you are descended. When I called Abraham, he was childless. I blessed him and gave him many descendants.

³So the LORD will comfort Zion. He will comfort all those who live among its ruins. He will make its desert like Eden. He will make its wilderness like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness will be found in it, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.

⁴Pay attention to me, my people. Open your ears to hear me, my nation. My teachings will go out from me. My justice will become a light for the people.

⁵My righteousness is near. My salvation is on the way. I will bring justice to people. The coastlands put their hope in me, and they wait eagerly for me.

⁶Look at the sky. Look at the earth below. The sky will vanish like smoke. The earth will wear out like clothing, and those who live there will die like flies. But my salvation will last forever, and my righteousness will never fail.

⁷Listen to me, you people who know righteousness, you people who have my teachings in your hearts. Don't be afraid of being insulted by people. Don't be discouraged by their ridicule.

⁸Moths will eat them like clothing. Worms will devour them like wool. But my righteousness will last forever, and my salvation will last throughout every generation.

⁹Wake up! Wake up! Clothe yourself with strength, O LORD! Wake up as you did in days long past, as in generations long ago. Didn't you cut Rahab into pieces and stab the serpent?

¹⁰Didn't you dry up the sea, the water of the great ocean? You made a road in the depths of the sea so that the people reclaimed by the LORD might pass through it.

¹¹The people ransomed by the LORD will return. They will come to Zion singing with joy. Everlasting happiness will be on their heads as a crown. They will be glad and joyful. They will have no sorrow or grief.

¹²I alone am the one who comforts you. Why, then, are you afraid of mortals, who must die, of humans, who are like grass?

¹³Why have you forgotten the LORD, your Creator? He stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. Why should you live in constant fear of the fury of those who oppress you, of those who are ready to destroy you? Where is the fury of those who oppress you?

¹⁴Chained prisoners will be set free. They will not die in prison. They will not go without food.

¹⁵I am the LORD your God who stirs up the sea and makes its waves roar. My name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁶I put my words in your mouth and sheltered you in the palm of my hand. I stretched out the heavens, laid the foundations of the earth, and said to Zion, "You are my people."

¹⁷Wake up! Wake up! Stand up, Jerusalem! You drank from the cup in the LORDS hand. That cup was filled with his anger. You drank from the bowl, the cup that makes people stagger, and you drained it!

¹⁸From all the children she gave birth to, there was no one to guide her. From all the children she raised, there was no one to take her by the hand.

¹⁹Twice as many disasters have happened to you. Who will feel sorry for you? Violence, destruction, famine, and war have happened to you. Who will comfort you?

²⁰Your children have fainted. They lie sleeping at every street corner. They are like an antelope caught in a net. They experience the anger of the LORD, the fury of your God.

²¹Listen to this, you humble people who are drunk but not from wine.

²²The LORD your God defends his people. This is what your master says: Im taking from your hand the cup that makes people stagger, the bowl, the cup of my fury. You will never drink from it again.

²³I will put it in the hands of those who made you suffer. They said to you, "Lie down so that we can walk over you." So you made your back like the ground and like a street for them to cross.

52¹Wake up! Wake up! Clothe yourself with strength, Zion! Put on your beautiful clothes, holy city of Jerusalem. Godless and evil people will no longer come to you.

²Shake the dust from yourselves. Get up, captive Jerusalem. Free yourself from the chains around your neck, captive people of Zion.

³This is what the LORD says: You were sold, but no price was paid. You will be bought back, but without money.

⁴This is what the Almighty LORD says: In the beginning my people went to Egypt to live there as foreigners. Later the Assyrians oppressed them for no reason.

⁵So what do I find here? asks the LORD. My people are taken away for no reason. Their rulers are screaming, declares the LORD. And my name is cursed all day long.

⁶Now my people will know my name. When that day comes, they will know that I am the one who says, "Here I am!"

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces the good news, "All is well." He brings the good news, announces salvation, and tells Zion that its God rules as king.

⁸Listen! Your watchmen raise their voices and shout together joyfully. When the LORD brings Zion back, they will see it with their own eyes.

⁹Break out into shouts of joy, ruins of Jerusalem. The LORD will comfort his people. He will reclaim Jerusalem.

¹⁰The LORD will show his holy power to all the nations. All the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

¹¹Run away! Run away! Get away from there! Do not touch anything unclean. Get away from it! Make yourselves pure, you Levites who carry the utensils for the LORDS temple.

¹²You will not go away in a hurry, nor will you go away quickly. The LORD will go ahead of you. The God of Israel will guard you from behind.

¹³My servant will be successful. He will be respected, praised, and highly honored.

¹⁴Many will be shocked by him. His appearance will be so disfigured that he won't look like any other man. His looks will be so disfigured that he will hardly look like a human.

¹⁵He will cleanse many nations with his blood. Kings will shut their mouths because of him. They will see things that they had never been told. They will understand things that they had never heard.

53¹Who has believed our message?
To whom has the LORDS power been revealed?

²He grew up in his presence like a young tree, like a root out of dry ground. He had no form or majesty that would make us look at him. He had nothing in his appearance that would make us desire him.

³He was despised and rejected by people. He was a man of sorrows, familiar with suffering. He was despised like one from whom people turn their faces, and we didnt consider him to be worth anything.

⁴He certainly has taken upon himself our suffering and carried our sorrows, but we thought that God had wounded him, beat him, and punished him.

⁵He was wounded for our rebellious acts. He was crushed for our sins. He was punished so that we could have peace, and we received healing from his wounds.

⁶We have all strayed like sheep. Each one of us has turned to go his own way, and the LORD has laid all our sins on him.

⁷He was abused and punished, but he didnt open his mouth. He was led like a lamb to the slaughter. He was like a sheep that is silent when its wool is cut off. He didnt open his mouth.

⁸He was arrested, taken away, and judged. Who would have thought that he would be removed from the world? He was killed because of my peoples rebellion.

⁹He was placed in a tomb with the wicked. He was put there with the rich when he died, although he had done nothing violent and had never spoken a lie.

¹⁰Yet, it was the LORDS will to crush him with suffering. When the LORD has made his life a sacrifice for our wrongdoings, he will see his descendants for many days. The will of the LORD will succeed through him.

¹¹He will see and be satisfied because of his suffering. My righteous servant will acquit many people because of what he has learned through suffering. He will carry their sins as a burden.

¹²So I will give him a share among the mighty, and he will divide the prize with the strong, because he poured out his life in death and he was counted with sinners. He carried the sins of many. He intercedes for those who are rebellious.

54¹Sing with joy, you childless women who never gave birth to children. Break into shouts of joy, you women who never had birth pains. "There will be more children of women who have been deserted than there are children of married women," says the LORD.

²Expand the space of your tent. Stretch out the curtains of your tent, and don't hold back. Lengthen your tent ropes, and drive in the tent pegs.

³You will spread out to the right and left. Your descendants will take over other nations, and they will resettle deserted cities.

⁴Don't be afraid, because you won't be put to shame. Don't be discouraged, because you won't be disgraced. You'll forget the shame you've had since you were young. You won't remember the disgrace of your husband's death anymore.

⁵Your husband is your maker. His name is the LORD of Armies. Your defender is the Holy One of Israel. He is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶"The LORD has called you as if you were a wife who was abandoned and in grief, a wife who married young and was rejected," says your God.

⁷"I abandoned you for one brief moment, but I will bring you back with unlimited compassion.

⁸I hid my face from you for a moment in a burst of anger, but I will have compassion on you with everlasting kindness," says the LORD your defender.

⁹"To me this is like Noah's floodwaters, when I swore an oath that Noah's floodwaters would never cover the earth again. So now I swear an oath not to be angry with you or punish you.

¹⁰The mountains may move, and the hills may shake, but my kindness will never depart from you. My promise of peace will never change," says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

¹¹"You suffering, comfortless, storm-ravaged city! I will rebuild your city with precious stones. I will reset your foundations with sapphires.

¹²I will rebuild your towers with rubies, your gates with sparkling stones, and all your walls with precious stones."

¹³All your children will be taught by the LORD, and your children will have unlimited peace.

¹⁴You will be established in righteousness. You will be far from oppression, so you will not be afraid. You will be far from destruction, so it won't come near you.

¹⁵"If anyone attacks you, it will not be my doing. Whoever attacks you will be defeated by you.

¹⁶I've created blacksmiths to fan the coals into flames and to produce useful weapons. I've also created destroyers to bring destruction.

¹⁷No weapon that has been made to be used against you will succeed. You will have an answer for anyone who accuses you. This is the inheritance of the LORDS servants. Their victory comes from me," declares the LORD.

55¹ "Listen! Whoever is thirsty, come to the water! Whoever has no money can come, buy, and eat! Come, buy wine and milk. You don't have to pay; it's free!

²Why do you spend money on what cannot nourish you and your wages on what does not satisfy you? Listen carefully to me: Eat what is good, and enjoy the best foods.

³Open your ears, and come to me! Listen so that you may live! I will make an everlasting promise to you the blessings I promised to David.

⁴I made him a witness to people, a leader and a commander for people.

⁵You will summon a nation that you don't know, and a nation that doesn't know you will run to you because of the LORD your God, because of the Holy One of Israel. He has honored you."

⁶Seek the LORD while he may be found. Call on him while he is near.

⁷Let wicked people abandon their ways. Let evil people abandon their thoughts. Let them return to the LORD, and he will show compassion to them. Let them return to our God, because he will freely forgive them.

⁸"My thoughts are not your thoughts, and my ways are not your ways," declares the LORD.

⁹"Just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways, and my thoughts are higher than your thoughts."

¹⁰"Rain and snow come down from the sky. They do not go back again until they water the earth. They make it sprout and grow so that it produces seed for farmers and food for people to eat.

¹¹ My word, which comes from my mouth, is like the rain and snow. It will not come back to me without results. It will accomplish whatever I want and achieve whatever I send it to do."

¹² You will go out with joy and be led out in peace. The mountains and the hills will break into songs of joy in your presence, and all the trees will clap their hands.

¹³ Cypress trees will grow where thornbushes grew. Myrtle trees will grow where briars grew. This will be a reminder of the LORDS name and an everlasting sign that will never be destroyed.

56 ¹ This is what the LORD says: Preserve justice, and do what is right. My salvation is about to come. My righteousness is about to be revealed.

² Blessed is the one who does these things and the person who holds on to them. Blessed is the one who keeps the day of worship from becoming unholy and his hands from doing anything wrong.

³ Foreigners who have joined the LORD should not say, "The LORD will separate us from his people." Castrated men should not say, "Were only dead trees!"

⁴This is what the LORD says: I will remember the castrated men who keep my days of worship, choose what pleases me, and faithfully observe the conditions of my promise.

⁵Inside my house and within my walls, I will give them something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a monument and a name. I will give them a permanent name that will not be forgotten.

⁶And I will remember the foreigners who have joined the LORD to worship him, to love the LORDS name, and to be his servants. All of them will keep the day of worship from becoming unholy and will faithfully observe the conditions of my promise.

⁷Then I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them happy in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, because my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.

⁸The Almighty LORD, who gathers the scattered people of Israel, declares, "I will gather still others besides those I have already gathered."

⁹All you animals in the field, all you animals in the forest, come and eat.

¹⁰Israel's watchmen are blind. None of them know anything. All of them are like dogs that are unable to bark. They lie around dreaming; they love to sleep.

¹¹These dogs have huge appetites. They are never full. They are the shepherds, but they don't understand. All of them have turned to go their own ways. Each one seeks his own gain.

¹²Each one cries, "Let me get some wine, and we'll fill ourselves with liquor. And tomorrow will be like today, only better."

57 ¹Righteous people die, and no one cares. Loyal people are taken away, and no one understands. Righteous people are spared when evil comes.

²When peace comes, everyone who has lived honestly will rest on his own bed.

³But you come here, you children of witches, you descendants of adulterers and prostitutes!

⁴ Whom are you making fun of? Whom are you making a face at? Whom are you sticking out your tongue at? Arent you rebellious children, descendants of liars?

⁵ You burn with lust under oak trees and under every large tree. You slaughter children in the valleys and under the cracks in the rocks.

⁶ Your idols are among the smooth stones in the ravine. They are your destiny. You have given them wine offerings and sacrificed grain offerings to them. Do you think I am pleased with all this?

⁷ Youve made your bed on a high and lofty mountain. Youve gone to offer sacrifices there.

⁸ Youve set up your idols beside doors and doorposts. Youve uncovered yourself to the idols. Youve distanced yourself from me. Youve made your bed with them. Youve made a deal with those you have pleasure with in bed. Youve seen them naked.

⁹ Youve journeyed to the king with perfumed oils and put on plenty of perfume. Youve sent your ambassadors far away and sent them down to Sheol.

¹⁰You've tired yourself out with many journeys. You didn't think that it was hopeless. You've found renewed strength, so you didn't faint.

¹¹Whom did you dread and fear so much that you lied to me? You haven't remembered me or cared about me. I've been silent for a long time. Is that why you don't fear me?

¹²I'll tell you about your righteous ways and what you have done, but they won't help you.

¹³When you cry for help, let your collection of idols save you. A wind will carry them all away. A breath will take them away. But whoever trusts me will possess the land and inherit my holy mountain.

¹⁴It will be said: "Build a road! Build a road! Prepare the way! Remove every obstacle in the way of my people!"

¹⁵The High and Lofty One lives forever, and his name is holy. This is what he says: I live in a high and holy place. But I am with those who are crushed and humble. I will renew the spirit of those who are humble and the courage of those who are crushed.

¹⁶I will not accuse you forever. I will not be angry with you forever. Otherwise, the spirits, the lives of those I've made, would grow faint in my presence.

¹⁷I was angry because of their sinful greed, so I punished them, hid from them, and remained angry. But they continued to be sinful.

¹⁸I've seen their sinful ways, but I'll heal them. I'll guide them and give them rest. I'll comfort them and their mourners.

¹⁹I'll create praise on their lips: "Perfect peace to those both far and near." "I'll heal them," says the LORD.

²⁰But the wicked are like the churning sea. It isn't quiet, and its water throws up mud and slime.

²¹"There is no peace for the wicked," says my God.

58¹ Cry aloud! Don't hold back! Raise your voice like a ram's horn. Tell my people about their rebellion and the descendants of Jacob about their sins.

²They look for me every day and want to know my ways. They act as if they were a nation that has done what is right and as if they haven't disregarded God's judgment on them. They ask me for just decrees. They want God to be near them.

³Why have we fasted if you are not aware of it? Why have we inflicted pain on ourselves if you don't pay attention? Don't you see that on the days you fast, you do what you want to do? You mistreat all your workers.

⁴Don't you see that when you fast, you quarrel and fight and beat your workers? The way you fast today keeps you from being heard in heaven.

⁵Is this the kind of fasting I have chosen? Should people humble themselves for only a day? Is fasting just bowing your head like a cattail and making your bed from sackcloth and ashes? Is this what you call fasting? Is this an acceptable day to the LORD?

⁶This is the kind of fasting I have chosen: Loosen the chains of wickedness, untie the straps of the yoke, let the oppressed go free, and break every yoke.

⁷Share your food with the hungry, take the poor and homeless into your house, and cover them with clothes when you see them naked. Don't refuse to help your relatives.

⁸Then your light will break through like the dawn, and you will heal quickly. Your righteousness will go ahead of you, and the glory of the LORD will guard you from behind.

⁹Then you will call, and the LORD will answer. You will cry for help, and he will say, "Here I am!" Get rid of that yoke. Don't point your finger and say wicked things.

¹⁰If you give some of your own food to feed those who are hungry and to satisfy the needs of those who are humble, then your light will rise in the dark, and your darkness will become as bright as the noonday sun.

¹¹The LORD will continually guide you and satisfy you even in sunbaked places. He will strengthen your bones. You will become like a watered garden and like a spring whose water does not stop flowing.

¹²Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the foundations of past generations. You will be called the Rebuilder of Broken Walls and the Restorer of Streets Where People Live.

¹³If you stop trampling on the day of worship and doing as you please on my holy day, if you call the day of worship a delight and the LORDS holy day honorable, if you honor it by not going your own way, by not going out when you want, and by not talking idly, ¹⁴then you will find joy in the LORD. I will make you ride on the heights of the earth. I will feed you with the inheritance of your ancestor Jacob. The LORD has spoken.

59¹ The LORD is not too weak to save or his ear too deaf to hear.

²But your wrongs have separated you from your God, and your sins have made him hide his face so that he doesnt hear you.

³Your hands are stained with blood, and your fingers are stained with sin. You speak lies, and you mutter wicked things.

⁴No one calls for justice, and no one pleads his case truthfully. People trust pointless arguments and speak lies.

They conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

⁵They hatch viper eggs and weave spiderwebs. Those who eat their eggs will die. When an egg is crushed, a poisonous snake is hatched.

⁶Their webs cant be used for clothes, nor can they cover themselves with their works. Their works are evil. Their hands have committed acts of violence.

⁷Their feet run to do evil. They hurry to shed innocent blood. Their plans are evil. Ruin and destruction are on their highways.

⁸They dont know the way of peace. Theres no justice on their highways. Theyve made their paths crooked. Whoever walks on them will never know peace.

⁹That is why justice is far from us, and righteousness doesnt reach us. We hope for light, but we walk in darkness. We hope for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

¹⁰We grope like blind men along a wall. We grope like people without eyes. We stumble at noon as if it were twilight.

We are like dead people among healthy people.

¹¹We all growl like bears. We coo like doves. We hope for justice, but there is none. We hope for salvation, but its far from us.

¹²You are aware of our many rebellious acts. Our sins testify against us. Our rebellious acts are with us. We know our wrongdoings.

¹³We have rebelled and denied the LORD. We have turned away from our God. We have spoken about oppression and revolt. We have conceived and uttered lies in our hearts.

¹⁴Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away. Truth has fallen in the street, and honesty cant come in.

¹⁵Truth is missing. Those who turn away from evil make themselves victims. The LORD sees it, and hes angry because theres no justice.

¹⁶He sees that theres no one to help. Hes astounded that theres no one to intercede. So with his own power he wins a victory. His righteousness supports him.

¹⁷ He puts on righteousness like a coat of armor and a helmet of salvation on his head. He wears clothes of vengeance. He wraps himself with fury as a coat.

¹⁸ He will pay them back according to their deeds. He will pay back his opponents with wrath and punish his enemies. He will pay back the people who live on the coastlands.

¹⁹ The people of the west will fear the name of the LORD. Those in the east will fear his glory. He will come like a rushing stream. The wind of the LORD pushes him.

²⁰ "Then a Savior will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from rebellion," declares the LORD.

²¹ "This is my promise to them," says the LORD. "My Spirit, who is on you, and my words that I put in your mouth will not leave you. They will be with your children and your grandchildren permanently," says the LORD.

60¹ Arise! Shine! Your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has dawned.

² Darkness now covers the earth, and thick darkness covers the nations. But the LORD dawns, and his glory appears over you.

³Nations will come to your light, and kings will come to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴"Look up, look around, and watch. All of your people assemble and come to you. Your sons come from far away. Your daughters are carried in their arms.

⁵Then you will see this and rejoice, and your heart will be thrilled with joy, because the riches of the sea will be brought to you. The wealth of the nations will come to you.

⁶"Many camels will cover your land, young camels from Midian and Ephah. Everyone from Sheba will come. They will bring gold and incense. They will sing the praises of the LORD.

⁷All of the flocks from Kedar will gather and come to you. The rams of Nebaioth will serve you. They will be sacrificed as acceptable offerings on my altar. So I will honor my beautiful temple.

⁸"Who are these people that fly by like clouds, like doves to their nests?

⁹Certainly, the coastlands wait with hope for me. The ships from Tarshish are the first to bring your children from far away. Their silver and their gold comes with them to honor the name of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, because he has honored you.

¹⁰"Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you. In my anger I struck you, but in my favor I have compassion on you.

¹¹Your gates will always be open. They will never be closed day or night so that people may bring you the wealth of nations, with their kings led as prisoners.

¹²Nations and kingdoms that do not serve you will be destroyed. The nations will certainly be ruined.

¹³"Lebanon's glory will come to you: Cedar, fir, and cypress trees will come to beautify my holy place, and I will honor the place where my feet rest.

¹⁴The descendants of those who oppress you will bow in front of you. All who despise you will bow at your feet. They will call you the city of the LORD, Zion, the city of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵"You have been abandoned and hated; no one has passed through you. But now I will make you a source of everlasting pride, a joy for all generations.

¹⁶You will drink milk from other nations and nurse at royal breasts. Then you will know that I am the LORD, your Savior, the Mighty One of Jacob, your Defender.

¹⁷I will bring gold instead of bronze. I will bring silver instead of iron, bronze instead of wood, and iron instead of stone. I will appoint peace as your governor and righteousness as your ruler.

¹⁸No longer will you hear about violence in your land or desolation and destruction within your borders. You will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

¹⁹The sun will no longer be your light during the day, nor will the brightness of the moon give you light, But the LORD will be your everlasting light. Your God will be your glory.

²⁰Your sun will no longer go down, nor will your moon disappear. The LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of sadness will be over.

²¹Then all your people will be righteous, and they will possess the land permanently. They will be the seedling I have planted, the honored work of my hands.

²²The smallest of them will become a family. The weakest of them will become a mighty nation. At the right time I, the LORD, will make it happen quickly."

61 ¹The Spirit of the Almighty LORD is with me because the LORD has anointed me to deliver good news to humble people. He has sent me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to announce that captives will be set free and prisoners will be released.

²He has sent me to announce the year of the LORDS good will and the day of our Gods vengeance, to comfort all those who grieve.

³He has sent me to provide for all those who grieve in Zion, to give them crowns instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of tears of grief, and clothes of praise instead of a spirit of weakness. They will be called Oaks of Righteousness, the Plantings of the LORD, so that he might display his glory.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins. They will restore the places destroyed long ago. They will renew the ruined cities, the places destroyed generations ago.

⁵Foreigners will come forward and become shepherds for your flocks, and children of foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

⁶You will be called the priests of the LORD. You will be called the servants of our God. You will consume the wealth of the nations. You will boast in their splendor.

⁷You will receive a double measure of wealth instead of your shame. You will sing about your wealth instead of being disgraced. That is why you will have a double measure of wealth in your land. You will have everlasting joy.

⁸I, the LORD, love justice. I hate robbery and wrongdoing. I will faithfully reward my peoples work. I will make an everlasting promise to them.

⁹Then their offspring will be known among the nations and their descendants among the people. Everyone who sees them will recognize that they are the descendants whom the LORD has blessed.

¹⁰I will find joy in the LORD. I will delight in my God. He has dressed me in the clothes of salvation. He has wrapped me in the robe of righteousness like a bridegroom with a priests turban, like a bride with her jewels.

¹¹Like the ground that brings forth its crops and like a garden that makes the seed in it grow, so the Almighty LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up in front of all nations.

62¹For Zions sake I will not remain silent. For Jerusalems sake I will not rest, until its righteousness shines like the dawn and its salvation burns brightly like a torch.

²The nations will see your righteousness. All kings will see your glory. You will be given a new name that the LORD will announce.

³Then you will be a beautiful crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal crown in the hand of your God.

⁴You will no longer be called Deserted, and your land will no longer be called Destroyed. But you will be named My Delight, and your land will be named Married. The LORD is delighted with you, and your land will be married.

⁵As a young man marries a woman, so your sons will marry you. As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so your God will rejoice over you.

⁶I have posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. They will never be silent day or night. Whoever calls on the LORD, do not give yourselves any rest, ⁷and do not give him any rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it an object of praise throughout the earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn with his right hand and with his mighty arm, "I will never again let your enemies eat your grain, nor will foreigners drink the new wine which you made."

⁹Those who harvest grain will eat it and praise the LORD. Those who gather grapes will drink wine in my holy courtyards.

¹⁰Go through! Go through the gates! Prepare a way for the people! Build up! Build up the highway! Clear away the stones! Raise a flag for the people!

¹¹The LORD has announced to the ends of the earth: "Tell my people Zion, Your Savior is coming. His reward is with him, and the people he has won arrive ahead of him."

¹²They will be called Holy People, Those Reclaimed by the LORD, and you will be called Sought After, a City Not Deserted.

63¹Who is this coming from Bozrah in Edom with his clothes stained bright red? Who is this dressed in splendor, going forward with great strength? "It is I, the LORD. I am coming to announce my victory. I am powerful enough to save you."

²Why are your clothes red and your garments like those who trample grapes in a winepress?

³"I have trampled alone in the winepress. No one was with me. In my anger I trampled on people. In my wrath I stomped on them. Their blood splattered my clothes so all my clothing has been stained.

⁴I planned the day of vengeance. The year for my reclaiming you has come.

⁵I looked, but there was no help. I was astounded that there was no outside support. So with my own power I won a victory. My anger supported me.

⁶In my anger I trampled on people. In my wrath I made them drunk and poured their blood on the ground."

⁷I will acknowledge the LORDS acts of mercy, and sing the praises of the LORD, because of everything that the LORD has done for us. He has done many good things for the nation of Israel because of his compassion and his unlimited mercy.

⁸He said, "They are my people, children who will not lie to me." So he became their Savior.

⁹In all their troubles he was troubled, and he was the Messenger who saved them. In his love and compassion he reclaimed them. He always held them and carried them in the past.

¹⁰But they rebelled and offended his Holy Spirit. So he turned against them as their enemy; he fought against them.

¹¹Then his people remembered Moses and the distant past. Where is the one who brought them out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? Where is the one who put his Holy Spirit in them?

¹²Where is the one who sent his powerful arm to support the right hand of Moses? Where is the one who divided the water in front of them to make an everlasting name for himself?

¹³Where is the one who led them through the deep water? Like horses in the wilderness, they didnt stumble.

¹⁴Like animals going down into a valley, they were given rest by the LORDS Spirit. In this way you guided your people to make an honored name for yourself.

¹⁵Look down and see from heaven, from your holy and beautiful dwelling. Where is your determination and might? Where is the longing of your heart and your compassion? Dont hold back.

¹⁶You are our Father. Even though Abraham doesnt know us and Israel doesnt pay attention to us, O LORD, you are our Father. Your name is our Defender From Everlasting.

¹⁷O LORD, why do you let us wander from your ways and become so stubborn that we are unable to fear you? Return for the sake of your servants. They are the tribes that belong to you.

¹⁸Your holy people possessed the land for a little while. Our enemies have trampled on your holy place.

¹⁹We have become like those whom you never ruled, like those who are not called by your name.

64¹If only you would split open the heavens and come down! The mountains would quake at your presence.

²Be like the fire that kindles brushwood and makes water boil. Come down to make your name known to your enemies. The nations will tremble in your presence.

³When you did aweinspiring things that we didnt expect, you came down and the mountains quaked in your presence.

⁴No one has ever heard, no one has paid attention, and no one has seen any god except you. You help those who wait for you.

⁵You greeted the one who gladly does right and remembers your ways. You showed your anger, because weve sinned. Weve continued to sin for a long time. Can we still be saved?

⁶Weve all become unclean, and all our righteous acts are like permanently stained rags. All of us shrivel like leaves, and our sins carry us away like the wind.

⁷ No one calls on your name or tries to hold on to you. You have hidden your face from us. You have let us be ruined by our sins.

⁸ But now, LORD, you are our Father. We are the clay, and you are our potter. We are the work of your hands.

⁹ Don't be too angry, LORD. Don't remember our sin forever. Now look, we are all your people.

¹⁰ Your holy cities have become a desert. Zion has become a desert. Jerusalem is a wasteland.

¹¹ Our holy and beautiful temple, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned to the ground. All that we valued has been ruined.

¹² Despite these things, LORD, will you hold back? Will you be silent and make us suffer more than we can bear?

65 ¹ I was ready to answer those who didn't ask. I was found by those who weren't looking for me. I said, "Here I am! Here I am!" to a nation that didn't worship me.

² I stretched out my hands all day long to stubborn people. They chose to go the wrong direction. They followed their own plans.

³These people constantly and openly provoked me. They offered sacrifices in gardens and burnt incense on brick altars.

⁴They sat among the graves and spent their nights in caves. They ate pork and in their pots made broth from unclean foods.

⁵They said, "Stay away! Dont touch me! Im holier than you are." They have become like smoke in my nose, like a smoldering fire all day long.

⁶"Look! It is written in front of me. I will not be silent, but I will repay. I will repay you in full.

⁷I will repay you for your sins and for the sins of your ancestors," says the LORD. They burnt incense on the mountains and slandered me on the hills, so I will be the first to pay them back in full.

⁸This is what the LORD says: When someone finds juice for new wine in a cluster of grapes, another person will say, "Dont destroy it, because theres a blessing in it." In the same way, I will do this for my servants: I will not destroy everything.

⁹I will bring with me Jacobs descendant, one who will inherit my mountains from Judah. My chosen ones will inherit them. My servants will live there.

¹⁰The Sharon Plain will be a pasture for flocks. The Achor Valley will be a resting place for cattle and for my people who search for me.

¹¹You have abandoned the LORD and forgotten my holy mountain. You have prepared a table for the god of good fortune and offered cups full of spiced wine to the goddess of destiny.

¹²Now I will destine you for death. All of you will bow to be slaughtered. I called, but you didnt answer. I spoke, but you didnt listen. You did what I consider evil. You chose what I dont like.

¹³This is what the LORD God says: My servants will eat, but you will be hungry. My servants will drink, but you will be thirsty. My servants will be glad, but you will be ashamed.

¹⁴My servants will sing because of the gladness in their hearts. But you will cry because of your sadness and wail because of your depression.

¹⁵Your name will be used as a curse by my chosen ones. The Almighty LORD will kill you and call his servants by another name.

¹⁶Whoever asks for a blessing in the land will be blessed by the God of Truth. Whoever swears an oath in the land will swear by the God of Truth. Past troubles are forgotten. They are hidden from my eyes.

¹⁷I will create a new heaven and a new earth. Past things will not be remembered. They will not come to mind.

¹⁸Be glad, and rejoice forever in what I'm going to create, because I'm going to create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people to be a joy.

¹⁹I will rejoice about Jerusalem and be glad about my people. Screaming and crying will no longer be heard in the city.

²⁰There will no longer be an infant who lives for only a few days or an old man who doesn't live a long life. Whoever lives to be a hundred years old will be thought of as young. Whoever dies before he is a hundred years old will be cursed as a sinner.

²¹ They will build houses and live there. They will plant vineyards and eat fruit from them.

²² They will not build homes and have others live there. They will not plant and have others eat from it. My people will live as long as trees, and my chosen ones will enjoy what theyve done.

²³ They will never again work for nothing. They will never again give birth to children who die young, because they will be offspring blessed by the LORD. The LORD will bless their descendants as well.

²⁴ Before they call, I will answer. While theyre still speaking, I will hear.

²⁵ Wolves and lambs will feed together, lions will eat straw like oxen, and dust will be food for snakes. "They will not hurt or destroy anyone anywhere on my holy mountain," says the LORD.

66 ¹ This is what the LORD says:
Heaven is my throne. The earth is my footstool. Where can you build a house or resting place for me?

²I have made all these things. "That is why all these things have come into being," declares the LORD. I will pay attention to those who are humble and sorry for their sins and who tremble at my word.

³Whoever kills a bull is like someone who kills a person. Whoever sacrifices a lamb is like someone who breaks a dogs neck. Whoever offers a grain sacrifice is like someone who offers pigs blood. Whoever burns incense is like someone who worships an idol. People have certainly chosen their own ways, and their souls delight in detestable things.

⁴So I will choose harsh treatment for them and bring on them what they fear. I called, but no one answered. I spoke, but they didnt listen. They did what I consider evil. They chose what I dont like.

⁵Listen to the word of the LORD, all who tremble at his word. Your relatives, who hate you and exclude you for my names sake, say, "Let the LORD show his glory; then we will see your joy." But they will be put to shame.

⁶Listen to the uproar from the city.
Listen to the sound from the temple. It is the sound of the LORD paying back his enemies as they deserve.

⁷Before a woman goes into labor, she gives birth. Before she has labor pains, she delivers a child.

⁸Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Can a country be born in one day? Can a nation be born in a moment? When Zion went into labor, she also gave birth to her children.

⁹"Do I bring a mother to the moment of birth and not let her deliver?" asks the LORD. "Do I cause a mother to deliver and then make her unable to have children?" asks your God.

¹⁰All who love Jerusalem, be happy and rejoice with her. All who mourn for her, be glad with her.

¹¹You will nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breasts. You will nurse to your hearts delight at her full breasts.

¹²This is what the LORD says: I will offer you peace like a river and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream. You will nurse and be carried in Jerusalem's arms and cuddled on her knees.

¹³As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you. You will be comforted in Jerusalem.

¹⁴When you see it, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like new grass. The power of the LORD will be made known to his servants, but he will condemn his enemies.

¹⁵The LORD will come with fire and with his chariots like a thunderstorm. He will pay them back with his burning anger and punish them with flames of fire.

¹⁶The LORD will judge with fire, and he will judge all people with his sword. Many people will be struck dead by the LORD.

¹⁷People make themselves holy and prepare themselves for their garden rituals. They go into the garden and devour pork, disgusting things, and mice. "They will come to an end at the same time," declares the LORD.

¹⁸Because of their actions and their thoughts, I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They will come and see my glory.

¹⁹I will set up a sign among them and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Meshech, Rosh, Tubal, Javan, and to the distant coastlands who have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will tell about my glory among the nations.

²⁰They will bring all your relatives from every nation like a grain offering to the LORD. "They will come on horses, in chariots, in wagons, on mules and camels to my holy mountain, Jerusalem," declares the LORD. They will come like the people of Israel who bring their grain offerings in clean dishes to the LORDS temple.

²¹"I will make some of them priests and Levites," declares the LORD.

²²"The new heaven and earth that I am about to make will continue in my presence," declares the LORD. "So your descendants and your name will also continue in my presence.

²³From one month to the next and from one week to the next all people will come to worship me," declares the LORD.

²⁴Then they will go out and look at the corpses of those who have rebelled against me. The worms that eat them will not die. The fire that burns them will not go out. All humanity will be disgusted by them.

Jeremiah

1 ¹ These are the words of Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah. He was one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin.

² The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Josiah, son of Amon, was in his thirteenth year as king of Judah.

³ The LORD also spoke when Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah and during the 11 years that Zedekiah, another son of Josiah, was king of Judah. The LORD continued to speak to Jeremiah until the people of Jerusalem were taken away into captivity in the fifth month of the year.

⁴ The LORD spoke his word to me,

⁵ "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I set you apart for my holy purpose. I appointed you to be a prophet to the nations."

⁶ I, Jeremiah, said, "Almighty LORD, I do not know how to speak. I am only a boy!"

⁷ But the LORD said to me, "Don't say that you are only a boy. You will go wherever I send you. You will say whatever I command you to say.

⁸ Don't be afraid of people. I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD.

⁹ Then the LORD stretched out his hand and touched my mouth. The LORD said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth.

¹⁰ Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms. You will uproot and tear down. You will destroy and overthrow. You will build and plant."

¹¹ Again the LORD spoke his word to me and asked, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I answered, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

¹² Then the LORD said to me, "Right. I am watching to make sure that my words come true."

¹³ Again the LORD spoke his word to me and asked, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a boiling pot, and its top is tilted away from the north."

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, "Disaster will be poured out from the north on all those who live in the land.

¹⁵I am going to call every family and kingdom from the north," declares the LORD. "They will come, and they will set up their thrones at the entrance of Jerusalem's gates. They will attack all the walls around the city and all the cities of Judah.

¹⁶I will pass sentence on my people because of all their wickedness. They abandoned me, burned incense to other gods, and worshiped what their hands have made.

¹⁷Brace yourself, Jeremiah! Stand up, and say to them whatever I tell you to say. Don't be terrified in their presence, or I will make you even more terrified in their presence.

¹⁸Today I have made you like a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall. You will be able to stand up to the whole land. You will be able to stand up to Judah's kings, its officials, its priests, and all the common people.

¹⁹They will fight you, but they will not defeat you. I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD.

2¹The LORD spoke his word to me,
²"Go and announce to Jerusalem,
This is what the LORD says: I remember the unfailing loyalty of your youth, the love you had for me as a bride. I remember how you followed me into the desert, into a land that couldn't be farmed.

³Israel was set apart for the LORD. It was the best part of the harvest. All who devoured it became guilty, and disaster struck them," declares the LORD.

⁴Listen to the word of the LORD, descendants of Jacob, all the families in the nation of Israel.

⁵This is what the LORD says: What did your ancestors find wrong with me that they went so far away from me? They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves.

⁶They didn't ask, "Where is the LORD, who brought us from Egypt? He led us through the desert, through a wasteland and its pits, a land of drought and the shadow of death. No one lives there or travels there."

⁷I brought them into a fertile land to eat its fruit and its produce. They came and made my land unclean. They made my property disgusting.

⁸The priests didn't ask, "Where is the LORD?" Those who deal with my teachings didn't know me. The rulers rebelled against me. The prophets prophesied in the name of Baal and followed statues that couldn't help them.

⁹"That is why I am bringing charges against you," declares the LORD, "and I am bringing charges against your grandchildren.

¹⁰Go over to the coasts of Cyprus, and see. Send someone to Kedar, and observe closely. See if there has ever been anything like this.

¹¹Has any nation ever exchanged gods? (Their gods aren't really gods.) Yet, my people have exchanged their Glory for something that doesn't help them.

¹²Be horrified over this, heaven. Be terribly afraid," declares the LORD.

¹³"My people have done two things wrong. They have abandoned me, the fountain of lifegiving water. They have also dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cant hold water.

¹⁴"Are the people of Israel slaves? Were they born into slavery? Why, then, have they become someones property?

¹⁵Young lions have roared very loudly at them. Young lions have turned the land into a wasteland. The cities have been burned down, and everyone has left.

¹⁶People from Noph and Tahpanhes have cracked your skulls, Israel.

¹⁷You have brought this on yourself by abandoning the LORD your God when he led you on his way.

¹⁸You wont gain anything by going to Egypt to drink water from the Nile River. You wont gain anything by going to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates River.

¹⁹Your own wickedness will correct you, and your unfaithful ways will punish you. You should know and see how evil and bitter it is for you if you abandon the LORD your God and do not fear me," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies.

²⁰"Long ago you broke off your yoke, tore off your chains, and said that you wouldn't be a slave. You lay down and acted like a prostitute on every high hill and under every large tree.

²¹I planted you like a choice grapevine from the very best seed. Now you have turned against me and have become a wild vine.

²²Even if you wash with detergent and use a lot of soap, I would still see the stains from your wickedness," declares the Almighty LORD.

²³"How can you say that you haven't dishonored yourselves and haven't followed other gods the Baals? Look how you've behaved in the valley. Acknowledge what you've done. You are like a young camel that swiftly runs here and there.

²⁴You are like a wild donkey that is used to the desert, sniffing the wind while in heat. All who look for you won't get tired. They will find you during your monthly period.

²⁵Don't run until your feet are bare and your throats are dry. But you say that it's useless. You love foreign gods and follow them.

²⁶"As a thief feels ashamed when hes caught, so the nation of Israel will feel ashamed. Their kings, princes, priests, and prophets will also feel ashamed.

²⁷You call wood your father. You call stone your mother. Youve turned your backs, not your faces, to me. But when youre in trouble, you ask me to come and rescue you.

²⁸Where are the gods that you made for yourselves? Let them come and rescue you when youre in trouble. You have as many gods as you have cities, Judah!

²⁹"Why do you complain about me? All of you have rebelled against me," declares the LORD.

³⁰"I have punished your children without results. They didnt respond to correction. You killed my prophets like a raging lion.

³¹"Consider the word of the LORD, people of this generation. Havent I been a desert, a land of thick darkness, for Israel? Why do my people say that they are free to wander around and no longer come to me?

³²A young woman can't forget her jewelry or a bride her veils. Yet, my people have forgotten me for countless days.

³³You carefully planned ways to look for love. You taught your ways to wicked women.

³⁴You have the blood from poor and innocent people on your clothes. You didn't kill them for breaking in to your home.

³⁵In spite of all this you say, I'm innocent. God will turn his anger from me, because I haven't sinned.

³⁶You change your mind so easily. You will be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

³⁷You will also leave this place with your hands over your head, because the LORD has rejected those you trust. You will not be helped by them."

3¹A saying: If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, her first husband shouldn't go back to her again. The land would become thoroughly polluted. "You have acted like a prostitute who has many lovers. And now you want to come back to me!" declares the LORD.

²"Look at the bare hills, and see. You have had sex with men in every place. You sat by the roadside waiting for them like a nomad in the desert. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

³So the rain has been withheld, and there have been no spring showers. Yet, you have the shameless look of a prostitute, and you refuse to blush.

⁴But now you are calling to me. You say, Father! You have been my companion ever since I was young.

⁵He won't hold a grudge forever. He won't always be angry. You have said and done all the evil things that you could."

⁶When Josiah was king, the LORD asked me, "Did you see what unfaithful Israel did? She went up every high mountain and under every large tree, and she acted like a prostitute there.

⁷I thought that after she had done all this that she would come back to me. But she didn't come back, and her treacherous sister Judah saw her.

⁸Judah saw that I sent unfaithful Israel away because of her adultery and that I gave Israel her divorce papers. But treacherous Judah, her sister, wasn't afraid. She also acted like a prostitute.

⁹Because she wasn't concerned about acting like a prostitute, she polluted the land and committed adultery with standing stones and wood pillars.

¹⁰Even after all this, Israel's treacherous sister Judah didn't wholeheartedly come back to me. She was deceitful," declares the LORD.

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, "Unfaithful Israel was less guilty than treacherous Judah.

¹²Go and proclaim these things to the north: "Come back, unfaithful Israel. It is the LORD speaking. I will no longer frown on you because I'm merciful, declares the LORD. I will no longer be angry with you.

¹³Admit that you've done wrong! You have rebelled against the LORD your God. You have given yourself to strangers under every large tree. You have not obeyed me, declares the LORD.

¹⁴"Come back, you rebellious people," declares the LORD. "I'm your husband. I will take you, one from every city and two from every family, and bring you to Zion.

¹⁵I will give you shepherds after my own heart. They will be shepherds who feed you with knowledge and insight.

¹⁶In those days you will be fertile, and your population will increase in the land," declares the LORD. "People will no longer talk about the ark of the LORDS promise. It will no longer come to mind. They won't remember it, miss it, or make another one.

¹⁷At that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD. All nations will gather in Jerusalem because the name of the LORD will be found there. They will no longer follow their own stubborn, evil ways.

¹⁸In those days the nation of Judah will live with the nation of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave their ancestors as their own property.

¹⁹"I wanted to treat you like children and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful property among the nations. I thought that you would call me Father and wouldn't turn away from me.

²⁰But like a wife who betrays her husband, so you, nation of Israel, betrayed me," declares the LORD.

²¹The sound of crying is heard on the hills. It is the crying and the pleading of the people of Israel. They have become crooked and have forgotten the LORD their God.

²²"Come back, you rebellious people, and I will forgive you for being unfaithful." Here we are! We have come to you because you are the LORD our God.

²³Truly, the noise from the hills, from the mountains, is the noise of false worship. Truly, the LORD our God will rescue us.

²⁴Ever since we were young, the shameful worship of Baal has taken everything our ancestors worked for, their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

²⁵We must lie down in our shame and be covered by our disgrace. Ever since we were young, we and our ancestors have sinned against the LORD our God.

We havent obeyed the LORD our God.

4¹The LORD declares, "If you come back, Israel, if you come back to me, if you take your disgusting idols out of my sight and you dont wander away from me, ²if you take the oath, "As the LORD lives" in an honest, fair, and right way, then the nations will be blessed, and they will be honored by me."

³This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem: Plow your unplowed fields, and dont plant among thorns.

⁴Be circumcised by the LORD, and get rid of the foreskins of your hearts, people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. If you dont, my fury will flare up like a fire. It will burn, and no one will be able to put it out, because of the evil you do.

⁵Report this message in Judah. Make it heard in Jerusalem. Say, "Blow the rams horn throughout the land." Shout loudly and say, "Gather together! Lets go into the fortified cities."

⁶Raise the flag to signal people to go to Zion. Take cover! Dont just stand there!

I'm bringing disaster and widespread destruction from the north.

⁷A lion has come out of its lair. A destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to destroy your land. Your cities will be ruined, and no one will live in them.

⁸So put on sackcloth, mourn, and cry because the LORDS burning anger hasn't turned away from us.

⁹"When that day comes," declares the LORD, "the king and the leaders will lose their courage. The priests will be stunned. The prophets will be amazed and astonished."

¹⁰I said, "Almighty LORD, you certainly have deceived these people and Jerusalem. You said that everything would go well for them, but a sword is held at their throats."

¹¹At that time it will be said to these people and to Jerusalem: "A hot wind from the heights will blow in the desert on the tracks of my people. It will not be a wind that winnows or cleanses.

¹²It will be a stronger wind than that. It will come from me. Now, I will pass sentence on them."

¹³The enemy comes up like clouds. His chariots are like a raging wind. His horses are faster than eagles. How horrible it will be for us! We will be destroyed!

¹⁴Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart so that you may be rescued. Don't continue making evil plans.

¹⁵A message is heard from Dan, and a report of disaster comes from the mountains of Ephraim.

¹⁶Warn the nations about these things. Bring them to the attention of Jerusalem. "Hostile troops are coming from a distant country. They are shouting battle cries against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷They surround them like men guarding a field, because Judah has rebelled against me," declares the LORD.

¹⁸"You brought this on yourself. This is your punishment. It is bitter. It breaks your heart."

¹⁹My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain. My heart is beating wildly! My heart is pounding! I can't keep quiet because I hear a ram's horn sounding the alarm for war.

²⁰One disaster follows another. The whole land is ruined. My tents are suddenly destroyed. Their curtains are torn in an instant.

²¹How long must I see the battle flag and hear the sound of rams horns?

²²"My people are fools. They dont know me. They are stupid people. They dont understand. They are experts in doing wrong, and they dont know how to do good."

²³I see the earth. Its formless and empty. I see the sky. Its lights are gone.

²⁴I see the mountains. They are shaking, and the hills are swaying.

²⁵I see that there are no people, and every bird has flown away.

²⁶I see that the fertile land has become a desert, and all its cities are torn down because of the LORD and his burning anger.

²⁷This is what the LORD says: The whole earth will be ruined, although I will not destroy it completely.

²⁸The earth will mourn, and the sky will grow black. I have spoken, and I have planned it. I wont change my plans, and I wont turn back.

²⁹All the people in the city will flee at the sound of riders and archers. They will go off into the thickets and climb among the rocks. The entire city will be abandoned, and no one will live in it.

³⁰You are going to be destroyed! What are you going to do? Why do you dress in red and put on gold jewelry? Why do you wear eye shadow? You are making yourself beautiful for nothing. Your lovers reject you; they want to kill you.

³¹I hear a woman in labor. I hear the woman cry with anguish as she gives birth to her first child. My people Zion are gasping for breath. They are stretching out their hands, saying, "How horrible it is for us! We're defenseless in the presence of murderers!"

5¹Walk around the streets of Jerusalem. Look around, and think about these things. Search the city squares. See if you can find anyone who does what is right and seeks the truth. Then I will forgive Jerusalem.

²People say, "As the LORD lives." Yet, they lie when they take this oath.

³LORD, your eyes look for the truth. You strike these people, but they don't feel it. You crush them, but they refuse to be corrected. They are more stubborn than rocks. They refuse to turn back.

⁴I thought, "These are poor, foolish people. They don't know the way of the LORD and the justice that God demands.

⁵Let me go to important people and speak to them. They know the way of the LORD and the justice that God demands." But they, too, had broken off their yokes and torn off their chains.

⁶That is why a lion from the forest will attack them. A wolf from the wilderness will destroy them. A leopard will lie in ambush outside their cities. All who leave the cities will be torn to pieces, because they rebel so often and they become more and more unfaithful.

⁷"Why should I forgive you? Your children abandoned me. They took godless oaths. They committed adultery, even though I satisfied their needs. They traveled in crowds to the houses of prostitutes.

⁸They are like wellfed stallions that are wild with desire. They neigh for their neighbors wives.

⁹ "I will punish them for these things," declares the LORD. "I will punish this nation.

¹⁰ "Go among Jerusalem's rows of grapevines and destroy them, but don't destroy all of them. Cut off the branches because they don't belong to the LORD.

¹¹ "The nations of Israel and Judah are unfaithful to me," declares the LORD.

¹² "They lie about the LORD and say, 'He doesn't exist! Nothing bad will happen to us. We won't experience war or famine.

¹³ "The prophets are nothing but windbags. The LORD hasn't spoken through them, so let what they say happen to them."

¹⁴ "This is what the LORD God of Armies says: Because you've talked like this, I'm going to put my words in your mouth like a fire. These people will be like wood. My words will burn them up.

¹⁵ "Nation of Israel, I'm going to bring a nation from far away to attack you," declares the LORD. "It is a nation that has lasted a long time. It is an ancient nation. You don't know the language of this nation. You can't understand what its people say."

¹⁶Their arrow quivers are like open graves. They are all mighty warriors.

¹⁷They will devour your harvest and your food. They will devour your sons and your daughters. They will devour your flocks and your cattle. They will devour your grapevines and your fig trees. With their swords they will destroy the fortified cities you trust.

¹⁸Yet, even in those days, declares the LORD, I wont destroy all of you.

¹⁹They will ask, "Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?" Answer them, "You have abandoned me and served foreign gods in your land. So you will serve foreigners in a land that isnt yours."

²⁰"Tell this to the descendants of Jacob, and make this heard in Judah:

²¹Hear this, you stupid and senseless people! You have eyes, but you cannot see. You have ears, but you cannot hear.

²²Dont you fear me?" asks the LORD. "Dont you tremble in my presence? I made the sand a boundary for the sea, a permanent barrier that it cannot cross. Although the waves toss continuously, they can't break through. Although they roar, they can't cross it.

²³ But these people are stubborn and rebellious. They have turned aside and wandered away from me.

²⁴ They don't say to themselves, We should fear the LORD our God. He sends rain at the right time, the autumn rain and the spring rain. He makes sure that we have harvest seasons.

²⁵ Your wickedness has turned these things away. Your sins have kept good things away from you.

²⁶ "Wicked people are found among my people. They lie in ambush like bird catchers. They set traps and catch people.

²⁷ Like cages filled with birds, their houses are filled with deceit. That is why they become powerful and rich.

²⁸ They grow big and fat. Their evil deeds have no limits. They have no respect for the rights of others. They have no respect for the rights of orphans. But they still prosper. They don't defend the rights of the poor.

²⁹ "I will punish them for these things," declares the LORD. "I will punish this nation.

³⁰ "Something horrible and disgusting is happening in the land:

³¹ "Prophets prophesy lies. Priests rule under the prophets' directions, and my people love this. But what will you do in the end?"

6¹ "Take cover, people of Benjamin! Run away from Jerusalem! Blow the rams' horn in Tekoa. Raise the flag over Beth Hakkerem, because disaster and widespread destruction are coming from the north.

² "My people Zion are like lovely pastures.

³ With their flocks, shepherds will come to them, pitch their tents all around them, and each of them will tend his own flock.

⁴ The shepherds say, Prepare yourselves for war against Zion. Let's attack at noon! How horrible it will be for us. The day is passing, and the shadows of evening are growing longer.

⁵ Let's attack at night and destroy its palaces."

⁶This is what the LORD of Armies says: Cut down its trees. Build up dirt mounds to attack Jerusalem. This city must be punished. There is nothing but oppression in it.

⁷As a well keeps its water fresh, so Jerusalem keeps its evil fresh. Violence and destruction can be heard in it. I see that it is sick and wounded.

⁸Pay attention to my warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you. I will make your land desolate, a land where no one will live.

⁹This is what the LORD of Armies says: Thoroughly pick through the faithful few of Israel like someone picks through a grapevine. Like someone picking grapes, pass your hand over its branches again.

¹⁰Whom can I speak to? Whom can I give a warning to? Who will listen? Their ears are plugged, and they aren't able to pay attention. When the LORD speaks his word to them, they show contempt for it and object to it.

¹¹I am filled with the anger of the LORD. I am tired of holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street and on the gangs of young men. A man and his wife will be taken away as well as very old people.

¹²Their households, their fields, and their wives will be turned over to others. I will use my power against those who live in the land," declares the LORD.

¹³"All of them, from the least important to the most important, are eager to make money dishonestly. All of them, from prophets to priests, act deceitfully.

¹⁴They treat my peoples wounds as though they were not serious, saying, Everything is alright! Everything is alright! But its not alright.

¹⁵Are they ashamed when they do disgusting things? No, theyre not ashamed. They dont even know how to blush. So they will die with those who die. They will be brought down when I punish them," says the LORD.

¹⁶This is what the LORD says: Stand at the crossroads and look. Ask which paths are the old, reliable paths. Ask which way leads to blessings. Live that way, and find a resting place for yourselves. But you said that you wouldnt live that way.

¹⁷I posted watchmen over you. Pay attention to the sound of the rams horn. But you said that you wouldnt pay attention.

¹⁸Listen, you nations, and learn, you witnesses, what will happen to them.

¹⁹Listen, earth! Im going to bring disaster on these people. It is the result of their own plots, because they wont pay attention to my words. They reject my teachings.

²⁰Incense that comes from Sheba is no good to me. Sugar cane that comes from a distant land is no good to me. I wont accept your burnt offerings. Im not pleased with your sacrifices.

²¹This is what the LORD says: Im going to lay stumbling blocks in front of these people. Parents and children will stumble over them. Neighbors and their friends will die.

²²This is what the LORD says: An army is going to come from the north. A great nation is preparing itself in the distant parts of the earth.

²³Its people take hold of bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion. They sound like the roaring sea. They ride on horses. They march like soldiers ready for battle against my people Zion.

²⁴We have heard the news about them. Our hands hang limp. We are gripped by anguish and pain like a woman giving birth to a child.

²⁵Dont go into the field or walk on the road. The enemy has a sword. Terror is all around.

²⁶Wear sackcloth, and roll around in ashes, my people. Mourn as if you have lost your only child, and cry bitterly. The destroyer will suddenly attack us.

²⁷"Jeremiah, I have put you in charge of testing and refining my people. You will know how to test their ways.

²⁸They are all vicious rebels. They go around slandering. They are all like bronze and iron. They corrupt themselves.

²⁹The bellows of the blast furnace blow fiercely to make the fire melt away the lead. It is useless to go on refining because the impurities cant be removed.

³⁰People will call them useless silver because the LORD has rejected them."

7¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²"Stand at the gate of the LORDS house, and announce from there this message: Listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who go through these gates to worship the LORD.

³This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Change the way you live and act, and I will let you live in this place.

⁴Do not trust the words of this saying, "This is the LORDS temple, the LORDS temple, the LORDS temple!" Its a lie.

⁵"Suppose you really change the way you live and act and you really treat each other fairly.

⁶Suppose you do not oppress foreigners, orphans, and widows, or kill anyone in this place. And suppose you do not follow other gods that lead you to your own destruction.

⁷Then I will let you live in this place, in the land that I gave permanently to your ancestors long ago.

⁸"You are trusting the words of a saying. Its a lie that cannot help you.

⁹You steal, murder, commit adultery, lie when you take oaths, burn incense as an offering to Baal, and run after other gods that you do not know.

¹⁰Then you stand in my presence in the house that is called by my name. You think that you're safe to do all these disgusting things.

¹¹The house that is called by my name has become a gathering place for thieves. I have seen what you are doing," declares the LORD.

¹²"But go to my place that was at Shiloh, where I first made a dwelling place for my name. See what I did to Shiloh because of the evil done by my people Israel.

¹³You have done the same things the people did at Shiloh," declares the LORD. "Although I spoke to you again and again, you did not listen. When I called you, you did not answer.

¹⁴So what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that is called by my name. This is the place I gave to you and to your ancestors, the place where you feel so safe.

¹⁵ I will force you out of my sight as I forced out all your relatives, all of Ephraim's descendants.

¹⁶ "Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. Don't cry or pray for them. Don't plead with me, because I will not listen to you.

¹⁷ Don't you see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁸ Children gather wood, fathers light fires, and women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven. They pour out wine offerings to other gods in order to make me furious.

¹⁹ They aren't really provoking me," declares the LORD. "But they are harming themselves to their own shame.

²¹ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the meat.

²²When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not tell them anything about burnt offerings and sacrifices.

²³But I did tell them this, Obey me, and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Live the way I told you to live so that things will go well for you.

²⁴But they didnt obey me or pay attention to me. They followed their own plans and their stubborn, evil ways. They went backward and not forward.

²⁵From the time that your ancestors left Egypt until now, I have sent all my servants the prophets to you again and again.

²⁶But you didnt obey me or pay attention to me. You became impossible to deal with, and you were worse than your ancestors.

²⁷"Jeremiah, you will say all these things to them, but they will not obey you. You will call to them, but they will not respond to you.

²⁸You will say to them, This is the nation that did not obey the LORD their God. They did not accept discipline. Truth has disappeared and vanished from their lips.

²⁹"Cut off your hair and throw it away. Sing a song of mourning on the bare hills, because in his anger the LORD has rejected and abandoned the people of this generation.

³⁰The people of Judah have done what I consider evil," declares the LORD." They set up their detestable idols in the house that is called by my name. They have made it unclean.

³¹They have built worship sites at Topheth in the valley of Ben Hinnom in order to burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices. I did not ask for this. It never entered my mind.

³²"That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when that place will no longer be known as Topheth or the valley of Ben Hinnom. Instead, it will be known as Slaughter Valley. They will bury people at Topheth because no other place will be left.

³³The dead bodies of these people will become food for birds and animals, and no one will be there to frighten them away.

³⁴In the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, I will banish the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms, because the land will be a wasteland."

8¹ The LORD declares, "At that time the bones of the kings and the leaders of Judah, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the others who lived in Jerusalem will be taken out of their graves.

² They will be spread out and exposed to the sun, the moon, and all the stars in the sky. These are the things that they had loved, served, gone after, sought, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered or buried, but they will become manure on the ground.

³ "Then the few who remain from these wicked people will want to die rather than live where I will scatter them," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁴ "Say to them, This is what the LORD says: When someone falls, he gets back up. When someone turns away from me, he returns.

⁵ The people of Jerusalem turned away from me without ever returning. They still cling to deceit. They refuse to return.

⁶I have paid attention and listened, but they weren't honest. They don't turn away from their wickedness and ask, "What have we done?" They go their own ways like horses charging into battle.

⁷Even storks know when it's time to return. Mourning doves, swallows, and cranes know when it's time to migrate. But my people don't know that I, the LORD, am urging them to return.

⁸"How can you say that you are wise and that you have the LORDS teachings? The scribes have used their pens to turn these teachings into lies.

⁹Wise people are put to shame, confused, and trapped. They have rejected the word of the LORD. They don't really have any wisdom.

¹⁰That is why I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. All of them, from the least important to the most important, are eager to make money dishonestly. All of them, from prophets to priests, act deceitfully.

¹¹They treat my dear people's wounds as though they were not serious, saying,

"Everything is alright! Everything is alright!" But its not alright.

¹²Are they ashamed that they do disgusting things? No, theyre not ashamed. They dont even know how to blush. So they will die with those who die. They will be brought down when I punish them," says the LORD.

¹³"I would have gathered their harvest," declares the LORD, "but there are no grapes on the vine. There are no figs on the tree, and the leaves have dried up. What I have given them will be taken away."

¹⁴Why are we just sitting here? Lets get up! Lets go into the fortified cities and die there. The LORD our God has condemned us to die. He has given us poison to drink because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵We hoped for peace, but nothing good has happened. We hoped for a time of healing, but theres only terror.

¹⁶The snorting of horses can be heard from Dan. The neighing of stallions makes the whole land tremble. They are coming to devour the land and everything in it, the city and its people.

¹⁷ "I am going to send snakes among you, vipers that can't be charmed. They will bite you," declares the LORD.

¹⁸ Sorrow has overwhelmed me. I am sick at heart!

¹⁹ The cry from my dear people comes from a distant land: "Isn't the LORD in Zion? Isn't Zion's king still there?" They make me furious with their idols, with their foreign gods.

²⁰ The harvest is past, the summer has ended, and we haven't been saved.

²¹ I am crushed because my dear people have been crushed. I mourn; terror grips me.

²² Isn't there medicine in Gilead? Aren't there doctors there? Then why hasn't the health of my dear people been restored?

9¹ "I wish that my head were filled with water and my eyes were a fountain of tears so that I could cry day and night for my dear people who have been killed.

² I wish I had a place to stay in the desert. I would abandon my people and go away from them. They are all adulterers, a mob of traitors.

³They use their tongues like bows that shoot arrows. Lies and dishonesty rule the land. They go from one evil thing to another, and they don't know me," declares the LORD.

⁴"Beware of your neighbors. Don't trust your relatives. Every relative cheats. Every neighbor goes around slandering.

⁵Everyone cheats his neighbor. No one speaks the truth. My people train their tongues to speak lies. They wear themselves out doing wrong.

⁶Oppression follows oppression. Deceit follows deceit. They refuse to acknowledge me," declares the LORD.

⁷This is what the LORD of Armies says: I will now refine them with fire and test them. What else can I do for my dear people?

⁸Their tongues are like deadly arrows. They speak deceitfully. People speak politely to their neighbors, but they think of ways to set traps for them.

⁹I will punish them for these things, declares the LORD. I will punish this nation. I still won't be satisfied.

¹⁰I will cry and weep for the mountains. I will sing a funeral song for the pastures in the wilderness. They are destroyed so that no one can travel through them. No one can hear the sound of cattle. Birds and cattle have fled. They are gone.

¹¹ I will turn Jerusalem into a pile of rubble, a home for jackals. I will destroy the cities of Judah so that no one can live there.

¹² No one is wise enough to understand this. To whom has the LORD revealed this so that they can explain it? The land dies; it has been ruined like the desert so that no one can travel through it.

¹³ The LORD answered, "They've abandoned my teachings that I placed in front of them. They didn't obey me, and they didn't follow them.

¹⁴ They followed their own stubborn ways and other gods the Baals, as their ancestors taught them."

¹⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to feed these people bitterness and give them poison to drink.

¹⁶ I will scatter them among nations that they and their ancestors haven't heard of. I will send armies after them until I've wiped them out.

¹⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Consider this: Call for the women who cry at funerals. Send for those who are the most skilled.

¹⁸ They should come quickly and cry for us. Our eyes will run with tears. Our eyelids will flow with water.

¹⁹ The sound of crying is heard from Zion. "Were ruined! Were very ashamed. We must leave our land because our homes have been torn down."

²⁰ Listen to the word of the LORD, you women, and open your ears to hear his words. Teach your daughters how to cry. Teach your neighbors funeral songs.

²¹ Death has come through our windows and entered our palaces. Death has cut down the children in the streets and the young men in the market places.

²² This is what the LORD says: Dead bodies will fall like manure on the field. They will be like grain that has been cut but not gathered.

²³ This is what the LORD says: Don't let wise people brag about their wisdom. Don't let strong people brag about their strength. Don't let rich people brag about their riches.

²⁴If they want to brag, they should brag that they understand and know me. They should brag that I, the LORD, act out of love, righteousness, and justice on the earth. This kind of bragging pleases me, declares the LORD.

²⁵"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish all who are circumcised.

²⁶I will punish Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, and Moab. I will punish all who shave the hair on their foreheads or live in the desert. Even though these nations are circumcised, all Israel has uncircumcised hearts."

10¹ Listen to the message that the LORD has spoken to you, nation of Israel.

²This is what the LORD says: Don't learn the practices of the nations. Don't be frightened by the signs in the sky because the nations are frightened by them.

³The religion of the people is worthless. Woodcutters cut down trees from the forest. The hands of craftsmen prepare them with axes.

⁴Craftsmen decorate them with silver and gold and fasten them together with hammers and nails so that they wont fall over.

⁵These trees are like scarecrows in cucumber gardens. They arent able to speak. They have to be carried, because they cant walk. Dont be afraid of them. They cant harm you. They cant do you any good either.

⁶No one is like you, O LORD. You are great. Your name is powerful.

⁷Everyone fears you, O King of the Nations. This is what you deserve. No one is like you among all the wise people in the nations or in all their kingdoms.

⁸They are complete idiots. They learn nonsense from wooden idols.

⁹Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. Craftsmen and goldsmiths shape these metals. The clothing for the idols is blue and purple, all made by skilled workers.

¹⁰But the LORD is the only God. He is the living God and eternal king. The earth trembles when he is angry. The nations cant endure his fury.

¹¹ Tell them this: These gods will disappear from the earth and from under heaven because they didn't make heaven and earth.

¹² The LORD made the earth by his power. He set up the world by his skill. He stretched out the world by his understanding.

¹³ He speaks, and the water in the sky produces a storm. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning flash with the rain. He brings wind out of his storehouses.

¹⁴ Everyone is stupid and ignorant. Metalsmiths are put to shame by their idols. Their statues are false gods. They can't breathe.

¹⁵ They are worthless jokes. When they are punished, they disappear.

¹⁶ Jacob's God isn't like them. He made everything, and Israel is the tribe that belongs to him. His name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁷ Pick up your bags. You are being blockaded.

¹⁸ This is what the LORD says: I am going to throw out those who live in the land at this time and cause trouble for them so that they will feel it.

¹⁹Oh, I'm wounded! My wound is serious. Then I thought that this is my punishment, and I will bear it.

²⁰My tent is destroyed, and all my ropes are broken. My children have left me and have disappeared. There's no one to set up my tent again or put up my tent curtains.

²¹The shepherds are foolish. They don't look to the LORD for help. That is why they won't succeed, and all their flocks will be scattered.

²²The report has arrived. A tremendous uproar is coming from the land of the north. Its army will destroy Judah's cities and make them homes for jackals.

²³O LORD, I know that the way humans act is not under their control. Humans do not direct their steps as they walk.

²⁴Correct me, O LORD, but please be fair. Don't correct me when you're angry. Otherwise, you'll reduce me to nothing.

²⁵Pour out your fury on the nations who don't know you and on people who don't worship you. They have devoured the descendants of Jacob. They have devoured them completely. They have destroyed their homes.

11 ¹This is the message that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah. He said, ²"Listen to the terms of this promise, and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem.

³Say to them, This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is anyone who doesn't listen to the terms of this promise.

⁴I made this promise to your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, which was an iron smelter. I said, "Obey me, and do everything that I have told you to do. Then you will be my people, and I will be your God.

⁵I will keep the oath I made to your ancestors and give them a land flowing with milk and honey, the land you still have today."" I answered, "Yes, LORD."

⁶The LORD said to me, "Announce all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: Listen to the terms of this promise, and keep them.

⁷I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, and the warning still applies to you today. I solemnly warned them to obey me.

⁸But they didn't obey me or pay attention to me. They followed their own stubborn, evil ways. So I punished them, because they did not keep all the terms of the promise, the terms that I commanded them to keep."

⁹The LORD said to me, "Conspiracy exists among the people of Judah and among those who live in Jerusalem.

¹⁰They've gone back to the evil ways of their ancestors and refused to obey my words. They are following other gods and worshiping them. The nations of Israel and Judah have rejected the promise that I made to their ancestors.

¹¹This is what the LORD says: I'm going to bring a disaster on them that they can't escape. Although they will cry out to me, I won't listen to them.

¹²Then the cities of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem will cry to the gods to whom they've been sacrificing. But these gods will never rescue them when they're in trouble.

¹³Judah, you have as many gods as you have cities. You have set up many altars in Jerusalem to sacrifice to Baal. You have as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

¹⁴Jeremiah, dont pray for these people. Dont cry or pray for them. I wont listen when they call to me for help in times of trouble.

¹⁶The LORD called you a large olive tree that has beautiful fruit to look at. He will set fire to you with a mighty storm, and your branches will be broken.

¹⁷The LORD of Armies planted you. He has pronounced disaster on you. This is because of the evil things that Israel and Judah have done. They have made him furious by burning incense as an offering to Baal.

¹⁸The LORD revealed their plot to me so that I would understand. He showed me what they were doing.

¹⁹I was like a trusting lamb brought to the slaughter. I didnt know that they were plotting against me. They were saying, "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit. Let's cut Jeremiah off from this world of the living so that we won't be reminded of him anymore."

²⁰O LORD of Armies, you judge fairly and test motives and thoughts. I want to see you take revenge on them, because I've brought my case to you.

²¹This is what the LORD says: The people of Anathoth want to kill you. They say, "Don't prophesy in the name of the LORD, or we'll kill you."

²²This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm going to punish them. The young men will die because of war. Their sons and daughters will die because of famine.

²³I will bring a disaster on the people of Anathoth. It will be a year of punishment. There will be no survivors.

12¹O LORD, even if I would argue my case with you, you would always be right. Yet, I want to talk to you about your justice. Why do wicked people succeed? Why do treacherous people have peace and quiet?

²You plant them, and they take root. They grow, and they produce fruit. They speak well of you with their lips, but their hearts are far from you.

³You know me, O LORD. You see me and test my devotion to you. Drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered. Prepare them for the day of slaughter.

⁴How long will the land mourn? How long will the plants in every field remain dried up? The animals and the birds are dying, because people are wicked. They think that God doesn't know what they are doing.

⁵"If you have raced against others on foot, and they have tired you out, how can you compete with horses? If you stumble in open country, how can you live in the jungle along the Jordan River?

⁶Even your relatives and members of your father's household betray you. They have also formed a mob to find you. Don't trust them when they say good things about you.

⁷"I have abandoned my nation. I have left my own people. I have handed the people I love over to their enemies.

⁸My people have turned on me like a lion in the forest. They roar at me, so I hate them.

⁹My people are like a colorful bird of prey. Other birds of prey surround it. Go, gather all the animals in the field, and bring them to devour it.

¹⁰Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They've trampled my property. They've turned my pleasant property into a wasteland.

¹¹They've left it a wasteland. Devastated, it mourns in my presence. The whole land is destroyed, but no one takes this to heart.

¹²Looters swarm all over the bare hills in the desert. The LORDS sword destroys them from one end of the land to the other. No one will be safe.

¹³My people planted wheat, but they harvested thorns. They worked until they became sick, but they gained nothing by it. They were disappointed by their harvests because of the burning anger of the LORD.

¹⁴"This is what I, the LORD, say about all my evil neighbors who take the inheritance that I gave my people Israel:

I am going to uproot those neighbors from their lands. I will also uproot the people of Judah from among them.

¹⁵After I've uprooted them, I will have compassion on them again. I will return them to their inheritance and to their lands.

¹⁶Suppose they learn carefully the ways of my people. Suppose they take an oath in my name, As the LORD lives as they taught my people to take an oath in the name of Baal. Then they will build homes among my people.

¹⁷But suppose they don't listen. Then I will uproot that nation and destroy it," declares the LORD.

13¹This is what the LORD said to me: "Buy a linen belt. Put it around your waist. Don't let it get wet."

²So I bought the belt, as the LORD had told me, and put it around my waist.

³The LORD spoke his word to me again. He said,

⁴"Take the belt that you bought, the one you're wearing. Go to the Euphrates River, and bury it there in a crack in the rocks."

⁵So I went and buried it by the Euphrates, as the LORD had told me.

⁶After many days the LORD said to me, "Go to the Euphrates, and get the belt from where I told you to bury it."

⁷So I went back to the Euphrates and dug it up. I got the belt from where I had buried it. Now the belt was ruined. It was good for nothing.

⁸Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹"This is what the LORD says: This is how I will destroy Judahs arrogance and Jerusalems extreme arrogance.

¹⁰These wicked people refuse to listen to me. They go their own stubborn ways and follow other gods in order to serve them and worship them. They are like this goodfornothing belt.

¹¹As a belt clings to a persons waist, so I have made the entire nation of Israel and the entire nation of Judah cling to me," declares the LORD. "I did this so that they would be my people and bring fame, praise, and honor to me. However, they wouldnt listen.

¹²"Give this message to them, This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Every bottle will be filled with wine. Then they will say to you, We know that every bottle will be filled with wine.

¹³Say to them, This is what the LORD says: Im going to make everyone who lives in this land drunk. The kings who sit on Davids throne, the priests, the prophets, and all those who live in Jerusalem will become drunk.

¹⁴Then I will smash them like bottles against each other. I will smash parents and children together, declares the LORD. I will have no pity, mercy, or compassion when I destroy them."

¹⁵Listen, and pay attention! Dont be arrogant. The LORD has spoken.

¹⁶Honor the LORD your God before it gets dark, before your feet stumble on the mountains in the twilight. You will look for light, but the LORD will turn it into the shadow of death and change it into deep darkness.

¹⁷If you wont listen, I will cry secretly over your arrogance. I will cry bitterly, and my eyes will flow with tears because the LORDS flock will be taken captive.

¹⁸Say to the king and his mother,
"Come down from your thrones, because your crowns have fallen off your heads."

¹⁹The cities in the Negev will be locked up, and there will be no one to reopen them. All the people of Judah will be taken away into captivity.

²⁰Look up, and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you your beautiful sheep?

²¹What will you say when God makes the people you thought were your friends your new masters? Wont pain grip you like a woman in labor?

²²If you ask yourself, "Why do these things happen to me?" its because you have so many sins. Your clothes have been torn off and your limbs are bare.

²³Can Ethiopians change the color of their skin or leopards change their spots?
Can you do good when youre taught to do wrong?

²⁴"I will scatter you like straw that is blown away by a desert wind.

²⁵This is your fate, the destiny I have planned for you," declares the LORD.

"You have forgotten me and trusted false gods.

²⁶I will also tear off your clothes, and your shame will be seen.

²⁷I have seen you commit adultery and squeal with delight. I have seen you act like a shameless prostitute on the hills and in the fields. How horrible it will be for you, Jerusalem! Will you ever be clean?"

14¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about the drought.

²Judah mourns; its gates fall apart. The people of Judah sit in mourning on the ground. Their cry goes up from Jerusalem.

³Important people send their assistants out for water. They go to the cisterns, but they don't find any water. They come back with their containers empty. They cover their heads, because they are ashamed and disgraced.

⁴The ground is cracked because there has been no rain in the land. The farmers are disappointed. They cover their heads.

⁵Even deer in the fields give birth and abandon their young because there's no grass.

⁶Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills. They sniff the air like jackals. Their eyesight fails because they have no green plants.

⁷Do something, LORD, for the sake of your name, even though our sins testify against us. We have been unfaithful and have sinned against you.

⁸You are Israel's hope, the one who saves it in times of trouble. Why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who stays only one night?

⁹Why should you be like someone taken by surprise, like a strong man who cannot help? You, O LORD, are among us. We are called by your name. Don't leave us!

¹⁰This is what the LORD says about these people: They love to wander. They don't keep their feet where they belong. So the LORD isn't happy with them. He will remember their crimes and punish their sins.

¹¹The LORD said to me, "Don't pray for the good of these people.

¹²Even if they go without food, I won't listen to their cries for help. Even if they sacrifice burnt offerings and grain offerings, I won't be pleased with them. But I will destroy these people with wars, famines, and plagues."

¹³Then I said, "Almighty LORD, prophets are saying to them, You won't see wars or famines, because I, the LORD, will give you lasting peace in this place."

¹⁴Then the LORD told me, "These are the lies that the prophets are telling in my name: They claim that I sent them, commanded them, and spoke to them. They dreamed up the visions they tell you. Their predictions are worthless. They are the products of their own imagination."

¹⁵"I didn't send these prophets. Yet, they prophesy in my name that there will be no wars or famines in this land. So this is what I, the LORD, say about them: Wars and famines will bring an end to these prophets."

¹⁶The people they prophesy to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem. They will be victims of famines and wars."

No one will bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. I will pour on them the destruction that they deserve.

¹⁷"Say this to them: My eyes flow with tears day and night without stopping because my dear people will suffer massive destruction. It will be a very serious blow."

¹⁸If I go to the field, I see those killed because of war. If I go to the city, I see those sick because of famine. Prophets and priests wander through a land they haven't heard of.

¹⁹Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you despise Zion? Why have you struck us so hard that we cannot heal? We hope for peace, but no good comes from it. We hope for a time of healing, but there's only terror.

²⁰O LORD, we realize our wickedness and the wrongs done by our ancestors. We have sinned against you.

²¹For the sake of your name, don't despise us. Don't dishonor your glorious throne. Remember your promise to us; don't break it.

²²The worthless gods of the nations can't make it rain. By themselves, the skies cant give showers. But you can,

O LORD our God. We have hope in you because you do all these things.

15¹ Then the LORD said to me,
"Even if Moses and Samuel were standing in front of me, I would not feel sorry for these people. Send them away from me, and let them go.

² When they ask you where they should go, say to them, This is what the LORD says: Those who are destined to die will die. Those who are destined to die in wars will die in wars. Those who are destined to die in famines will die in famines. Those who are destined to die in captivity will die in captivity.

³ "I will devise four ways to punish them," declares the LORD. "I will send swords to kill, dogs to drag away, and birds and animals to devour and destroy.

⁴ I will make these people a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms on the earth.
This will happen because of what Judahs
King Manasseh, son of Hezekiah, did in Jerusalem.

⁵ No one will take pity on you,
Jerusalem. No one will mourn for you.

No one will bother to ask how you are doing.

⁶"You have left me," declares the LORD. "You have turned your back on me. So I will use my power against you and destroy you. I'm tired of showing compassion to you.

⁷"I will separate them with a winnowing shovel at the city gates. I will make them childless. I will destroy my people because they will not change their ways.

⁸Their widows will be more numerous than the grains of sand on the seashore. At noontime I will send a destroyer against the mothers of young men. I will suddenly bring anguish and terror to them.

⁹A mother who gives birth to seven sons will grow faint and breathe her last. She will die, ashamed and humiliated, while it is still daylight. I will put survivors from these people to death in the presence of their enemies," declares the LORD.

¹⁰I'm so miserable! Why did my mother give birth to me? I am a man who argues and quarrels with the whole earth. I have never lent or borrowed anything. Yet, everyone curses me.

¹¹ The LORD said, "I will certainly rescue you for a good reason. I will certainly make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and in times of distress.

¹² (No one can break iron, iron from the north, or bronze.)

¹³ I will give away your wealth and treasures as loot as the price for all the sins that you have committed throughout your territory.

¹⁴ I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you havent heard of, because my anger has started a fire. It will burn you."

¹⁵ O LORD, you understand. Remember me, take care of me, and take revenge on those who persecute me. Be patient, and dont take me away. You should know that Ive been insulted because of you.

¹⁶ Your words were found, and I devoured them. Your words are my joy and my hearts delight, because I am called by your name, O LORD God of Armies.

¹⁷ I didnt keep company with those who laugh and have fun. I sat alone because your hand was on me. You filled me with outrage.

¹⁸Why is my pain unending and my wound incurable, refusing to heal? Will you disappoint me like a stream that dries up in summertime?

¹⁹This is what the LORD says: If you will return, I will take you back. If you will speak what is worthwhile and not what is worthless, you will stand in my presence. The people will return to you, but you will not return to them.

²⁰I will make you like a solid bronze wall in front of these people. They will fight you, but they will not defeat you. I am with you, and I will save you and rescue you, declares the LORD.

²¹I will rescue you from the power of wicked people and free you from the power of tyrants.

16¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Don't marry! Don't have any sons or daughters in this place!

³This is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this place and about the mothers and fathers who have children in this land:

⁴They will die horrible deaths. No one will mourn for them or bury them. They will be like manure on the ground. Wars and famines will bring them to an end. Their bodies will be food for birds and animals.

⁶"Old and young alike will die in this land. No one will mourn for them or bury them. No one will cut his own body or shave his own head for them.

⁷No one will offer food to comfort those who mourn the dead. No one will give a consoling drink to those who have lost their fathers or mothers.

⁸"Don't even go into a home where there is a banquet. Don't sit with them to eat and drink.

⁹This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to put a stop to the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms in this place. This will happen in your lifetime, while you watch.

¹⁰"When you tell the people all these things, they will ask you, Why does the LORD threaten us with all these disasters? What have we done wrong? How have we sinned against the LORD our God?

¹¹Then say to them, Its because your ancestors abandoned me, declares the LORD. They followed other gods, served them, worshiped them, and abandoned me. They didnt obey my teachings.

¹²You have done worse than your ancestors. All of you are following your own stubborn, evil ways that keep you from obeying me.

¹³So I will throw you out of this land into a land that you and your ancestors havent heard of. There you will serve other gods day and night because I will no longer have pity on you.

¹⁴"That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when people will no longer begin an oath with, The LORD brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. As the LORD lives.

¹⁵But they will say, The LORD brought the people of Israel out of the land of the north and all the lands where he had scattered them. As the LORD lives. They will say this because I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors.

¹⁶"I'm going to send for many fishermen," declares the LORD, "and they will catch the people of Israel. After that, I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt for them on every mountain and hill and even in the cracks in the rocks.

¹⁷I see everything that they do. They can't hide anything from me. Their wickedness can't be hidden; I can see it.

¹⁸First, I will have them pay twice as much for their wickedness and their sin, because they have polluted my land. They have filled my property with the lifeless statues of their detestable and disgusting idols."

¹⁹The LORD is my strength and my fortress, my refuge in times of trouble. Nations come to you from the most distant parts of the world and say, "Our ancestors have inherited lies, worthless and unprofitable gods."

²⁰"People can't make gods for themselves. They aren't really gods.

²¹That is what I will teach them. This time I will make my power and my strength known to them. Then they will know that my name is the LORD."

17 ¹The LORD says, "Judah's sin is written with an iron pen. It is engraved with a diamond point on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.

²Even their children remember their altars and their poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah beside large trees on high hills

³and on mountains in the open country. I will turn your wealth and all your treasures into loot. I will do this because of your worship sites and your sin throughout all your territory.

⁴You will lose the inheritance that I gave you. I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you haven't heard of. I will do this because you have stirred up the fire of my anger. It will burn forever.

⁵"This is what the LORD says: Cursed is the person who trusts humans, who makes flesh and blood his strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD.

⁶He will be like a bush in the wilderness. He will not see when something good comes. He will live in the dry places in the desert, in a salty land where no one can live.

⁷Blessed is the person who trusts the LORD. The LORD will be his confidence.

⁸He will be like a tree that is planted by water. It will send its roots down to a stream. It will not be afraid in the heat of summer. Its leaves will turn green. It will not be anxious during droughts. It will not stop producing fruit.

⁹"The human mind is the most deceitful of all things. It is incurable. No one can understand how deceitful it is.

¹⁰I, the LORD, search minds and test hearts. I will reward each person for what he has done. I will reward him for the results of his actions.

¹¹A person who gets rich dishonestly is like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay. During his lifetime, he will lose his wealth. In the end, he will be a godless fool."

¹²Our holy place is a glorious throne, highly honored from the beginning.

¹³O LORD, the Hope of Israel, all who abandon you will be put to shame. Those who turn away from you will be written in dust, because they abandon the LORD, the fountain of lifegiving water.

¹⁴Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed. Rescue me, and I will be rescued. You are the one I praise.

¹⁵People keep asking me, "Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come."

¹⁶I have not run away from being your shepherd, and I have not longed for the day of destruction. You know what came out of my mouth.

¹⁷Do not terrorize me. You are my refuge on the day of disaster.

¹⁸Put my persecutors to shame, but do not let me be put to shame. Terrify them, but do not let me be terrified. Bring the day of disaster on them, and destroy them completely.

¹⁹This is what the LORD said to me: Stand at Peoples Gate, where the kings of Judah go in and out. Then stand at every gate in Jerusalem.

²⁰Tell everyone: "Listen to the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, all the people of Judah, and all those who live in Jerusalem, and go through these gates.

²¹This is what the LORD says: Watch out! If you value your lives, do not carry anything on the day of worship or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.

²²Do not bring anything out of your homes on the day of worship. Do not do any work, but observe the day of worship as a holy day, as I told your ancestors.

²³Your ancestors did not obey me or pay attention to me. They were impossible to deal with and would not listen or accept discipline.

²⁴"Now," declares the LORD, "you must listen to me and not bring anything through the gates of this city on the day of worship. You must observe the day of worship as a holy day by not doing any work on it.

²⁵If you do this, then the kings and princes who sit on Davids throne will come through the gates of this city. They and their princes will ride in chariots and on horses along with the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. This city will always have people living in it.

²⁶"People will come from the cities of Judah, from all around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin, from the foothills, from the mountains, and from the Negev. They will bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, and incense. They will also bring thank offerings to the LORDS temple.

²⁷But you must listen to me and observe the day of worship as a holy day by not carrying anything through the gates of Jerusalem on the day of worship. If you dont do this, I will set its gates on fire. The fire will burn down the palaces in Jerusalem, and you wont be able to put it out."

18¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²"Go to the potters house. There I will give you my message."

³I went to the potters house, and he was working there at his wheel.

⁴Whenever a clay pot he was working on was ruined, he would rework it into a new clay pot the way he wanted to make it.

⁵The LORD spoke his word to me. The LORD asked,

⁶"Nation of Israel, cant I do with you as this potter does with clay? Nation of Israel, you are like the clay in the potters hands.

⁷"At one time I may threaten to tear up, break down, and destroy a nation or a kingdom.

⁸But suppose the nation that I threatened turns away from doing wrong. Then I will change my plans about the disaster I planned to do to it.

⁹"At another time I may promise to build and plant a nation or a kingdom.

¹⁰But suppose that nation does what I consider evil and doesnt obey me. Then I will change my plans about the good that I promised to do to it.

¹¹"Now say to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem, This is what the LORD says: Im going to prepare a disaster and make plans against you. Turn from your evil ways, change your lives, and do good.

¹²"But they will answer, Its useless!
Well live the way we want to. Well go our own stubborn, evil ways.

¹³"This is what the LORD says: Ask among the nations if anyone has ever heard anything like this. The people of Israel have done a very horrible thing.

¹⁴The rocky slopes of Lebanon are never without snow. The cool mountain streams never dry up.

¹⁵But my people have forgotten me.
They burn incense as an offering to worthless idols, and they stumble along the way, on the ancient path. They go on side roads and not on major highways.

¹⁶Their land will become desolate and something to be hissed at forever.
Everyone who will pass by it will be stunned and shake his head.

¹⁷Like the east wind I will scatter them in front of the enemy. On the day of their disaster, I will show them my back, not my face."

¹⁸Then they said, "Lets plot against Jeremiah, because the teachings of the priests, the advice of wise people, and the word of the prophets wont disappear.

Accuse him! Pay no attention to anything he says."

¹⁹Pay attention to me, O LORD, and listen to what my accusers say.

²⁰Good should not be paid back with evil. They dig a pit to take my life. Remember how I stood in your presence and pleaded for them in order to turn your anger away from them.

²¹Now, hand their children over to famine. Pour out their blood by using your sword. Then their wives will become childless widows. Their husbands will be put to death. Their young men will be struck down in battle.

²²Make them cry out from their homes when you suddenly send troops against them, because they dug a pit to catch me and hid snares for my feet.

²³But you, O LORD, know that they plan to kill me. Don't forgive their crimes. Don't wipe their sins out of your sight. Make them stumble in your presence. Deal with them when you get angry.

19¹This is what the LORD says: Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the leaders of the people and some of the leaders of the priests.

²Go to the valley of Ben Hinnom at the entrance to Potsherd Gate. Announce there the things I plan to do.

³Say, "Listen to the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring such a disaster on this place that the ears of everyone who hears about it will ring.

⁴"The people, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have abandoned me. They have made this place unrecognizable by burning incense as an offering to other gods that they hadn't heard of. They have filled this place with the blood of innocent people.

⁵They have built worship sites to burn their children as sacrifices to Baal. I didn't ask them or command them to do this. It never entered my mind.

⁶"That is why the days are coming, declares the LORD, when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben Hinnom. Instead, it will be called Slaughter Valley.

⁷ I will smash the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will cut them down with swords in front of their enemies and with the hands of those who want to kill them. I will give their bodies as food to birds and to animals.

⁸ I will devastate this city. It will become something to hiss at. Everyone who goes by it will be stunned and hiss with contempt at all the disasters that happen to it.

⁹ I will make the people eat the flesh of their sons and daughters. They will eat each others flesh during blockades and hardships that their enemies impose on them when they want to kill them."

¹⁰ The LORD says, "Then smash the jar in front of the men who went with you.

¹¹ Say to them, This is what the LORD of Armies says: I will smash these people and this city as this potters jar was smashed beyond repair. They will bury the dead in Topheth until theres no other place to bury them.

¹² Thats what I will do to this place and to those who live in it, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth.

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah left Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of the LORDS temple and said to all the people,

¹⁵ "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring on this city and on all its towns the disasters that I threatened. They've become impossible to deal with, and they refuse to obey me."

20¹ Now the priest, Immers son Pashhur, the chief officer of the LORDS temple, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.

² Pashhur struck the prophet Jeremiah and put him in prison at Upper Benjamin Gate that was in the LORDS temple.

³ The next day when Pashhur took Jeremiah out of prison, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD doesnt call you Pashhur, but he calls you Terror Everywhere.

⁴This is what the LORD says: I'm going to make you terrify yourself and all your friends. Their enemies swords will kill them, and you will see it with your own eyes. I will hand all of Judah over to the king of Babylon. He will take the people away as captives to Babylon or kill them with swords.

⁵I will hand all the riches of this city over to their enemies. This will include all its produce, all its valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. Their enemies will loot them, take them away, and bring them to Babylon.

⁶And you, Pashhur, and all those who live in your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon, and you will die there. You will be buried there together with all your friends to whom you prophesied these lies."

⁷O LORD, you have deceived me, and I was deceived. You overpowered me and won. I've been made fun of all day long. Everyone mocks me.

⁸Each time I speak, I have to cry out and shout, "Violence and destruction!" The word of the LORD has made me the object of insults and contempt all day long.

⁹I think to myself, "I can forget the LORD and no longer speak his name." But his word is inside me like a burning fire shut up in my bones. I wear myself out holding it in, but I can't do it any longer.

¹⁰I have heard many people whispering, "Terror is everywhere! Report him! Let's report him!" All my closest friends are waiting to see me stumble. They say, "Maybe he will be tricked. Then we can overpower him and take revenge on him."

¹¹But the LORD is on my side like a terrifying warrior. That is why those who persecute me will stumble. They can't win. They will be very ashamed that they can't succeed. Their eternal shame will not be forgotten.

¹²But the LORD of Armies examines the righteous. He sees their motives and thoughts. I want to see you take revenge on them, because I've brought my case to you.

¹³ Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD! He has rescued the lives of needy people from the power of wicked people.

¹⁴ Cursed is the day that I was born, the day that my mother gave birth to me. May it not be blessed.

¹⁵ Cursed is the man who made my father very happy with the news that he had just become the father of a baby boy.

¹⁶ May that man be like the cities that the LORD destroyed without pity. May he hear a cry of alarm in the morning and a battle cry at noon.

¹⁷ If only he had killed me while I was in the womb. Then my mother would have been my grave, and she would have always been pregnant.

¹⁸ Why did I come out of the womb? All I've seen is trouble and grief. I will finish my days in shame.

21 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur, son of Malchiah, and the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah. They said,

² "Consult the LORD for us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the LORD will perform miracles for us so that Nebuchadnezzar will retreat."

³Jeremiah responded to them, "This is what you should say to Zedekiah, ⁴This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Im going to take your weapons away from you. You are using these weapons to fight the king of Babylon as well as the Babylonians who are now blockading you outside the wall. I will bring the Babylonians inside this city.

⁵I will fight you in anger, fury, and rage with my powerful hand and my mighty arm.

⁶I will defeat those who live in this city, both people and animals. They will die from a terrible plague.

⁷Afterwards, declares the LORD, I will hand over Judahs King Zedekiah, his officials, the people, and everyone else in this city who survives the plague, war, and famine. They will be handed over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to their enemies who want to kill them. Nebuchadnezzar will kill them with swords. He wont spare them, show them compassion, or care for them.

⁸"Say to these people, This is what the LORD says: I am going to give you the choice of life or death.

⁹Those who live in this city will die in the war, famine, or plague. Those of you who go out and surrender to the Babylonians will live. You will escape with your lives.

¹⁰I've decided to harm this city, not to do good to it, declares the LORD. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.

¹¹"Say to the nation of the king of Judah, Listen to the word of the LORD, ¹²descendants of David. This is what the LORD says: Judge fairly every morning. Rescue those who have been robbed from those who oppress them. Otherwise, my fury will break out and burn like fire. No one will be able to put it out because of the evil things you have done.

¹³"I'm against you, Jerusalem. You are the city that is in the valley and on the rock in the plain," declares the LORD. "But you ask, "Who can attack us? Who can enter our places of refuge?"

¹⁴"I will punish you because of the evil things you have done," declares the LORD. "I will start a fire in your forests, and it will burn up everything around you."

22¹ This is what the LORD says: Go to the palace of the king of Judah, and speak this message there:

²"Listen to the word of the LORD, you officials, you people who come into these gates, and you, king of Judah, the one sitting on Davids throne.

³"This is what the LORD says: Judge fairly, and do what is right. Rescue those who have been robbed from those who oppress them. Dont mistreat foreigners, orphans, or widows, and dont oppress them. Dont kill innocent people in this place.

⁴If you do what I say, then the kings who sit on Davids throne will ride through the gates of this palace in chariots and on horses along with their officials and their people.

⁵But if you dont do what I say, I will take an oath on myself," declares the LORD, "that this palace will become a pile of rubble.

⁶"This is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah: This palace is like Gilead to me, like the top of Lebanon. I will certainly turn it into a desert, into cities that no one lives in.

⁷I will send people to destroy you. They will have their own weapons. They will cut down your finest cedar trees and throw them on a fire.

⁸"People from many nations will pass by this city and ask each other, Why has the LORD done this to this important city?

⁹The answer will be: They rejected the promise of the LORD their God. They worshiped other gods and served them."

¹⁰Dont cry for the dead. Dont shake your heads at them. Cry bitterly for those who are taken away, because they wont come back to see their homeland.

¹¹This is what the LORD says about King Josiahs son Shallum, who succeeded his father as king of Judah and left this place: He will never come back here again.

¹²He will die in the place where he was taken captive, and he will never see this land again.

¹³"How horrible it will be for the person who builds his house dishonestly and his upper rooms through injustice. He makes his neighbors work for nothing and doesn't pay them for their work.

¹⁴He says, I will build a large house for myself with big upper rooms. He cuts out windows in it, panels the rooms with cedar, and paints them red.

¹⁵Do you think you're a better king than others because you use more cedar? Your father ate and drank and did what is fair and right. Everything went well for him.

¹⁶He defended the cause of the poor and needy. Everything went well for him. Isn't this what it means to know me?" asks the LORD.

¹⁷"But your eyes and your mind are set on nothing but dishonest profits. You kill innocent people and violently oppress your people."

¹⁸This is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim, son of Judah's King Josiah: People won't mourn for him and say, "How horrible it is for my brother and sister!" They won't mourn for him and say, "How horrible it is for my master and his splendor!"

¹⁹He will receive a donkeys burial. He will be dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰"Go to Lebanon and cry! Raise your voice in Bashan! Cry out from Abarim, because all your lovers are defeated."

²¹I spoke to you when you were prosperous, but you said that you wouldnt listen. This is how youve been ever since you were young. You dont listen to me.

²²The wind will blow away all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity. Then you will be ashamed and disgraced by all your wickedness.

²³You live in Lebanon and have your nest in the cedars. But you will groan when pain strikes you, pain like a woman giving birth to a child.

²⁴"As I live," declares the LORD, "even though you, Jehoiakin, son of Judahs King Jehoiakim, are the signet ring on my right hand, I will pull you off my hand.

²⁵I will hand you over to those who want to kill you, those you fearKing

Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonians.

²⁶I will throw you and your mother into another land. You weren't born there, but you will die there.

²⁷You will want to return to this land, but you won't be allowed to come home."

²⁸This Jehoiakin is like a rejected and broken pot that no one wants. Is that why he and his descendants will be thrown out and cast into another land they've never heard of?

²⁹O land, land, land! Listen to the word of the LORD.

³⁰This is what the LORD says: Write this about Jehoiakin: He will be childless. He won't prosper in his lifetime. None of his descendants will succeed him as king. They won't sit on David's throne and rule Judah again.

23¹ "How horrible it will be for the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep in my care," declares the LORD.

²"This is what I, the LORD God of Israel, said to the shepherds who take care of my people: You have scattered my sheep and chased them away. You have not taken care of them, so now I will take care of you by punishing you for the evil you have done," declares the LORD.

³"Then I will gather the remaining part of my flock from all the countries where I chased them. I will bring them back to their pasture, and they will be fertile and increase in number.

⁴I will put shepherds over them. Those shepherds will take care of them. My sheep will no longer be afraid or terrified, and not one of them will be missing," declares the LORD.

⁵"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will grow a righteous branch for David. He will be a king who will rule wisely. He will do what is fair and right in the land.

⁶In his lifetime, Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety. This is the name that he will be given: The LORD Our Righteousness.

⁷"That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when peoples oaths will no longer be, The LORD brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. As the LORD lives.

⁸Instead, their oaths will be, The LORD brought the descendants of the nation of Israel out of the land of the north and all the lands where he had scattered them. As the LORD lives At that time they will live in their own land.

⁹"Say this about the prophets: I am deeply disturbed. All my bones tremble. I am like a drunk, like a person who has had too much wine, because of the LORD and his holy words.

¹⁰The land is filled with adulterers. The land mourns because of the curse. Pastures in the wilderness have dried up. The people are evil, and they use their strength to do the wrong things.

¹¹The prophets and priests are godless. Even in my temple I've found them doing evil," declares the LORD.

¹²"That is why their own way will become like slippery paths in the dark. They will be chased away, and they will fall down in the dark. I will bring disaster on them. It is time for them to be punished," declares the LORD.

¹³"Say this about the prophets of Samaria: I saw something disgusting.

The prophets of Samaria prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

¹⁴"Say this about the prophets of Jerusalem: I see something horrible. The prophets of Jerusalem commit adultery and live a lie. They support those who do evil so that no one turns back from his wickedness. They are all like Sodom to me, and those who live in Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."

¹⁵This is what the LORD of Armies says about the prophets: I will give them wormwood to eat and poison to drink. The prophets of Jerusalem have spread godlessness throughout the land.

¹⁶This is what the LORD of Armies says: Don't listen to what the prophets are saying to you. They fill you with false hope. They speak about visions that they dreamed up. These visions are not from the LORD.

¹⁷They keep saying to those who despise me, "The LORD says, Everything will go well for you." They tell all who live by their own stubborn ways, "Nothing bad will happen to you."

¹⁸Who is in the LORDS inner circle and sees and hears his word? Who pays attention and listens to his word?

¹⁹The storm of the LORD will come with his anger. Like a windstorm, it will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

²⁰The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has done everything he intends to do. In the last days you will understand this clearly.

²¹I didnt send these prophets, yet they ran with their message. I didnt speak to them, yet they prophesied.

²²If they had been in my inner circle, they would have announced my words to my people. They would have turned back from their evil ways and the evil they have done.

²³"I am a God who is near. I am also a God who is far away," declares the LORD.

²⁴"No one can hide so that I cant see him," declares the LORD. "I fill heaven and earth!" declares the LORD.

²⁵"Ive heard the prophets who speak lies in my name. They say, I had a dream! I had a dream!

²⁶How long will these prophets continue to lie and deceive?

²⁷They tell each other the dreams they had, because they want to make my people forget my name, as their ancestors forgot my name because of Baal.

²⁸The prophet who has a dream should tell his dream. However, the person who has my word should honestly speak my word. What does grain have to do with straw?" asks the LORD.

²⁹"Isn't my word like fire or like a hammer that shatters a rock?" asks the LORD.

³⁰"I'm against the prophets who steal my words from each other," declares the LORD.

³¹"I'm against the prophets who speak their own thoughts and say that they speak for me.

³²I'm against those who prophesy dreams they made up," declares the LORD. "They tell the dreams they made up and lead my people astray with their lies and their wild talk. I didn't send them or command them to go. They don't help these people at all," declares the LORD.

³³"When these people, the prophets, or the priests ask you, What revelation has the LORD burdened you with now? say to them, You are the burden! I will abandon you, declares the LORD.

³⁴Suppose the prophets, the priests, or these people say, This is the LORDS revelation! I will punish them and their families.

³⁵They should ask their neighbors and their relatives, What is the LORDS answer? and What did the LORD say?

³⁶They should never again say, This is the LORDS revelation, because each persons word becomes the revelation. They will twist the words of the living God, the LORD of Armies, our God.

³⁷"Jeremiah, say this to the prophets, What was the LORDS answer to you? and What did the LORD say?

³⁸Suppose they say, This is the LORDS revelation! Then say, This is what the LORD says: Because you have said, "This is the LORDS revelation!" even though I commanded you not to repeat this saying, ³⁹I will certainly forget you. I will throw you out of my presence and out of the city that I gave you and your ancestors.

⁴⁰I will bring eternal disgrace and shame on you. It will never be forgotten."

24¹ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took Jehoiakin (son of King Jehoiakim of Judah), the princes of Judah, the skilled workers, and the builders from Jerusalem into captivity and brought them to Babylon. After this, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs set in front of the LORDS temple.

²One basket had very good figs, like figs that ripen first. The other basket had very bad figs. These figs were so bad that they couldnt be eaten.

³Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I answered, "Figs. Figs that are very good. I also see figs that are very bad, so bad that they cant be eaten."

⁴The LORD spoke his word to me,

⁵"This is what the LORD God of Israel says: The captives of Judah, whom I sent away from here to Babylon, are like these good figs. I will look kindly on them.

⁶I will watch over them for their own good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.

⁷I will give them the desire to know that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, because they will wholeheartedly come back to me.

⁸"But this is what the LORD says about the bad figs that are so bad that they can't be eaten. The LORD says, Like these bad figs, I will abandon King Zedekiah of Judah, his princes, the remaining few in Jerusalem who stayed behind in this land, and those who are living in Egypt.

⁹I will make them a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms of the earth. They will be a disgrace and an example. They will become something ridiculed and cursed wherever I scatter them.

¹⁰I will send wars, famines, and plagues until they disappear from the land that I gave to them and their ancestors."

25¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah when Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was in his fourth year as king. (This was the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon.)

²The prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and to everyone who lived in Jerusalem. He said, ³"For 23 years, from the time that Josiah, son of Amon, was in his thirteenth year as king of Judah until today, the LORD continued to speak his word to me. So I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

⁴"Even though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you, you haven't listened or paid attention to them.

⁵The prophets said, Turn from your evil ways and the evil you have done, and live in the land that the LORD permanently gave to you and your ancestors.

⁶Dont follow other gods to serve and worship them. Dont make me furious about the idols your hands have shaped. Then I wont harm you.

⁷But you haven't listened to me, declares the LORD. You have made me furious about the idols your hands have shaped and have brought harm upon yourselves.

⁸"This is what the LORD of Armies says: You did not listen to my words, ⁹so I'm going to send for all the families from the north. I will also send for my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, declares the LORD. I will bring the families from the north to attack this land, its people, and all these surrounding nations. I'm going to destroy them and turn them into something terrible, something ridiculed, and something permanently ruined.

¹⁰I will take from them the sounds of joy and happiness, the sounds of brides and grooms, the sound of mills, and the light of lamps.

¹¹This whole land will be ruined and become a wasteland. These nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years.

¹²"When the 70 years are over, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation for their crimes, declares the LORD. I will turn Babylon into a permanent wasteland.

¹³I will bring on that land all the disasters I threatened to do to it, everything that Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations, everything written in this book.

¹⁴Many nations and great kings will make slaves of the people of Babylon, and I will pay them back for what they have done."

¹⁵This is what the LORD God of Israel said to me: Take from my hand this cup filled with the wine of my fury, and make all the nations to whom I'm sending you drink from it.

¹⁶When they drink from it, they will stagger and go insane because of the wars that I'm going to send them.

¹⁷So I took the cup from the LORDS hand. I made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink from it:

¹⁸Jerusalem and the cities of Judah as well as its kings and officials. When they drank from it, they became wastelands and ruins, something ridiculed and cursed, until today.

¹⁹I also made these people drink from it: Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, officials, all his people,

²⁰and all the foreign people living among them; all the kings of the land of

Uz; all the kings of Philistia, those from the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, and Ekron, and the people left in Ashdod;

²¹ Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon;

²² all the kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the kings on the seacoast;

²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who shave the hair on their foreheads;

²⁴ all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the foreign people living in the desert;

²⁵ all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

²⁶ all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another all the kingdoms of the earth. Last of all, the king of Sheshach will drink from the cup.

²⁷ The LORD said, "Say to them, This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, vomit, fall down, and don't get up because of the wars that I'm going to send you.

²⁸ But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink from it, say to them, This is what the LORD of Armies says: You must drink from it!

²⁹I am going to bring disaster on the city that is named after me. Do you think you'll go unpunished? You will not go unpunished! I'm declaring war on all those who live on earth, declares the LORD of Armies.

³⁰"That is why you will prophesy all these things to them and say, The LORD roars from above. He thunders from his holy dwelling place. He roars against his land. He shouts like those who stomp grapes. He shouts against all those who live on earth.

³¹The sound is echoing to the ends of the earth because the LORD has brought charges against the nations. He will judge all humans. He will kill the wicked, declares the LORD.

³²"This is what the LORD of Armies says: Disaster is spreading from nation to nation. A great storm is brewing from the distant corners of the earth."

³³On that day those killed by the LORD will stretch from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, taken away, or buried. They will become like manure on the ground.

³⁴Mourn, you shepherds, and cry.
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. The time has come for you to be slaughtered. The time has come for you to be scattered, and you will break like fine pottery.

³⁵There will be no place for the shepherds to flee, no escape for the leaders of the flock.

³⁶The shepherds are crying and the leaders of the flock are mourning because the LORD is stripping their pasture.

³⁷The peaceful pastures are destroyed by the LORDS burning anger.

³⁸He has left his lair like a lion. Their land has been ruined because of the heat of the oppressor, because of the fury of his anger.

26¹The LORD spoke his word when Judahs King Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, began to rule. He said,

²"This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORDS temple, and speak to all the people who come from the cities of Judah to worship in the LORDS temple. Tell them everything that I command you to tell them. Don't leave out a single word.

³Maybe they'll listen, and they'll turn from their evil ways. Then I'll change my plan about the disaster I intend to bring on them because of the evil they have done."

⁴The LORD added, "Also say to them, This is what the LORD says: Suppose you don't listen to me and don't follow my teachings that I set in front of you.

⁵Suppose you don't listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent to you again and again, even though you didn't listen.

⁶Then I will do to this temple what I did to Shiloh. I will turn this city into something that will be cursed by all the nations on earth."

⁷The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these things in the LORDS temple.

⁸But as soon as Jeremiah finished saying everything that the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets, and all the people grabbed him and said, "You must die!

⁹Why do you prophesy in the LORDS name that this temple will be like Shiloh and this city will become a pile of rubble with no one living here?" Then all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the LORDS temple.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went from the kings palace to the LORDS temple. They sat at the entrance of New Gate to the LORDS temple.

¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man is condemned to die because he prophesied against this city as you yourselves have heard."

¹²Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people, "The LORD sent me to prophesy everything that you have heard me say against this temple and against this city.

¹³Now, change your ways and what you are doing, and listen to the LORD your God. Then the LORD will change his plan about the disaster that he intends to bring on you.

¹⁴"My life is in your hands. Do with me whatever you think is good and right.

¹⁵But know for certain that if you put me to death, you, this city, and the people living in it will be guilty of killing an innocent person. The LORD has certainly sent me to speak all these things to you."

¹⁶Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, "This man should not be condemned to die. He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

¹⁷Then some of the leaders in the land got up and said to the entire crowd,

¹⁹Did Judah's King Hezekiah and all the people of Judah put Micah to death? No! Hezekiah feared the LORD and sought the LORDS favor. So the LORD changed his plan about the disaster he intended to bring on them. But we are about to bring a bigger disaster on ourselves."

²⁰There was another man prophesying in the name of the LORD. His name was Uriah, son of Shemaiah, from Kiriath Jearim. He prophesied against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.

²¹When King Jehoiakim and all his personal troops and officials heard what Uriah said, the king wanted to put him to death. But Uriah heard about it and fled in fear to Egypt.

²²King Jehoiakim sent soldiers to Egypt: Elnathan (son of Achbor) and other soldiers along with him.

²³They brought Uriah from Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim. The king executed Uriah and threw his body into the burial ground for the common people.

²⁴Ahikam, son of Shaphan, supported Jeremiah. So Jeremiah was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

27¹When Zedekiah, son of King Josiah of Judah, began to rule, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah.

²This is what the LORD said to me: Make leather straps and a wooden yoke, and strap the yoke on your neck.

³Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, with messengers who have come to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem.

⁴Give them an order for their masters: "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Say this to your masters, ⁵I used my great strength and my powerful arm to make the earth along with the people and the animals on it. I give it to anyone I please.

⁶Now I have handed all these countries over to my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I have even made wild animals serve him.

⁷All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until Babylon is defeated. Then many nations and great kings will make him their slave.

⁸"Suppose nations or kingdoms won't serve or surrender to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will punish those nations by wars, famines, and plagues, until I have put an end to them by Nebuchadnezzar's power, declares the LORD.

⁹Don't listen to prophets, mediums, interpreters of dreams, fortunetellers, or sorcerers who tell you that you'll never serve the king of Babylon.

¹⁰They are prophesying lies to you. They will cause you to be taken far from your lands. I'll scatter you, and you will die.

¹¹But suppose a nation surrenders to the king of Babylon and serves him. I will let it stay in its own land. People will farm the land and live on it," declares the LORD.

¹²I spoke the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah, "Surrender to the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and you will stay alive.

¹³Why should you and your people die in wars, famines, and plagues? The LORD has threatened the nations that don't serve the king of Babylon.

¹⁴Don't listen to the prophets who tell you that you'll never serve the king of Babylon. They are prophesying lies to you.

¹⁵I didn't send them, declares the LORD. They prophesy lies in my name.

So I will scatter you, and you and the prophets will die."

¹⁶I also spoke this message to the priests and all the people. "This is what the LORD said to me: Dont listen to the prophets who tell you that the utensils of the LORDS temple will be brought back from Babylon soon. They are prophesying lies to you.

¹⁷Dont listen to them. Instead, serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city be turned into rubble?

¹⁸If they are prophets and the LORD is speaking to them, they should beg the LORD of Armies not to allow the utensils that are left in the LORDS temple, in the royal palace of Judah, and in Jerusalem to be taken away to Babylon.

¹⁹"Babylons King Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiakin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. But he didnt take the pillars, the bronze pool, the stands, and the rest of the utensils that are left in this city.

²⁰(SEE 27: 19)

²¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about the utensils that are left in the LORDS temple, in the royal palace of Judah, and in Jerusalem:

²² They will be taken to Babylon and stay there until I come for them, declares the LORD. I will take them from there and bring them back to this place."

28¹ In that same year, early in the rule of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the fifth month of his fourth year as king, the prophet Hananiah, son of Azzur, from Gibeon, spoke to me in the LORDS temple. He said to me in front of the priests and all the people, ² "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

³ Within two years I will bring back all the utensils of the LORDS temple that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from this place and carried off to Babylon.

⁴ I will also bring back to this place Jehoiakin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, and all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon, declares the LORD.

So I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

⁵The prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in front of the priests and all the people standing in the LORDS temple.

⁶He said, "Amen! May the LORD do this! May the LORD make your prophecy come true and bring back the utensils of the LORDS temple and all the captives from Babylon to this place.

⁷But now listen to this message that I am speaking to you and to all the people:

⁸Long ago, the prophets who preceded you and me prophesied wars, disasters, and plagues against many countries and great kingdoms.

⁹But the prophet who prophesied peace was recognized as a prophet that the LORD sent only if the message of the prophet came true."

¹⁰Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.

¹¹Hananiah said in front of all the people, "This is what the LORD says: In the same way, I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years." Then the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

¹²After the prophet Hananiah broke the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ¹³"Tell Hananiah, This is what the LORD says: You have broken the wooden yoke, but I will replace it with an iron yoke.

¹⁴This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations so that they will serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. They will serve him! I will even make wild animals serve him."

¹⁵Then Jeremiah told the prophet Hananiah, "Now listen, Hananiah, the LORD hasnt sent you. You have made these people believe a lie.

¹⁶This is what the LORD says: Im going to remove you from the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have encouraged rebellion against the LORD."

¹⁷So the prophet Hananiah died in the seventh month of that year.

29¹ The prophet Jeremiah sent a letter from Jerusalem to the rest of the leaders among the captives. He also sent it to the priests, the prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar took away as captives from Jerusalem to Babylon.

² (This was after King Jehoiakin and his mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and metal workers left Jerusalem.)

³ He sent the letter with Shaphans son Elasah and Hilkiahs son Gemariah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah had sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. The letter said:

⁴ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all those who were taken captive from Jerusalem to Babylon:

⁵ Build houses, and live in them. Plant gardens, and eat what they produce.

⁶ Get married, and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons, and let your daughters get married so that they can have sons and daughters. Grow in number there; don't decrease.

⁷Work for the good of the city where I've taken you as captives, and pray to the LORD for that city. When it prospers, you will also prosper.

⁸This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Don't let the prophets or the mediums who are among you trick you. Don't even listen to your own dreams.

⁹These people are prophesying lies to you in my name. I didn't send them, declares the LORD.

¹⁰This is what the LORD says: When Babylons 70 years are over, I will come to you. I will keep my promise to you and bring you back to this place.

¹¹I know the plans that I have for you, declares the LORD. They are plans for peace and not disaster, plans to give you a future filled with hope.

¹²Then you will call to me. You will come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

¹³When you look for me, you will find me. When you wholeheartedly seek me,

¹⁴I will let you find me, declares the LORD. I will bring you back from captivity. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I've scattered you, declares the LORD. I will bring you back from the place where you are being held captive.

¹⁵You've said that the LORD has given you prophets in Babylon.

¹⁶But this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and about all the people who live in this city, the people who are your relatives and who weren't taken away as captives:

¹⁷The LORD of Armies says: I'm going to send them wars, famines, and plagues. These people are like rotten figs to me, figs that are so bad that they can't be eaten.

¹⁸I will chase them with wars, famines, and plagues. I will make them a horrifying sight to all the kingdoms on the earth. They will become something cursed, ridiculed, and hissed at, and they will be a disgrace among all the nations where I scatter them.

¹⁹They didn't listen to me, declares the LORD. I sent them my servants the prophets again and again, but they refused to listen, declares the LORD.

²⁰ So listen to the word of the LORD, all you captives who were sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about Kolaiahs son Ahab and about Maaseiahs son Zedekiah, who prophesy lies to you in my name: I'm going to hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will kill them as you watch.

²² Because of them, all the captives from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: May the LORD curse you as he cursed Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned to death.

²³ They have done shameful things in Israel. They committed adultery with their neighbors wives and spoke lies in my name. I didn't command them to do this. I know what they have done. I'm a witness, declares the LORD.

²⁴ The LORD says, "Say to Shemaiah from Nehelam,

²⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests. These letters said:

²⁶The LORD made you priest instead of Jehoiada so that there would be officials for the LORDS temple. You should put any lunatic who acts like a prophet in prison and in shackles.

²⁷Now, why havent you arrested Jeremiah from Anathoth? After all, he acts like a prophet among you.

²⁸Thats why Jeremiah sent this message to us in Babylon: You will be captives a long time. Build houses, and live in them. Plant gardens, and eat what they produce."

²⁹The priest Zephaniah read this letter to the prophet Jeremiah.

³⁰Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

³¹"Send this message to all the captives: This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah from Nehelam: Shemaiah prophesied to you, but I didnt send him. He has made you believe a lie.

³²The LORD says: I will punish Shemaiah from Nehelam. I will also punish his descendants. No one from his family will be left alive. He will not see the blessings that I'm going to send my people, declares the LORD, because he has encouraged rebellion against the LORD."

30¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²"This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Write in a book everything that I tell you.

³The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity. I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will take possession of it."

⁴This is the message that the LORD spoke about Israel and Judah:

⁵"This is what the LORD says: "We hear cries of fear, cries of panic, not cries of peace.

⁶Ask now, and see: Can a man give birth to a child? Why, then, do I see every strong man holding his stomach in pain like a woman giving birth to a child? Why has every face turned pale?

⁷How terrible that day will be! There will be no other day like it. It will be a time of calamity for the descendants of Jacob, but they will be rescued from it.

⁸"On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "I will break the yokes off your necks and tear off your ropes. Foreigners will no longer make you serve them.

⁹You will serve the LORD your God and David your king. I will establish him for you.

¹⁰"Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob," declares the LORD. Don't be terrified, Israel. I'm going to rescue you from a faraway place. I'm going to rescue your descendants from where they are captives. The descendants of Jacob will again have peace and security, and no one will frighten them.

¹¹I am with you, and I will rescue you," declares the LORD. "I will completely destroy all the nations where I scattered you, but I will not completely destroy you. I will correct you with justice. I won't let you go entirely unpunished.

¹²"This is what the LORD says: Your wound is incurable. Your injury is beyond healing.

¹³No one argues that you should be healed. No medicine will heal you.

¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you, and they don't want you anymore. I've punished you as an enemy would. I've corrected you as a cruel person would. You are very wicked, and you have many sins.

¹⁵Why do you cry about your wound, your injury that can't be cured? I've done this to you. You are very wicked, and you have many sins.

¹⁶That is why everyone who devours you will be devoured, and all your enemies will be taken away as captives. Those who looted you will be looted. Those who stole from you in war will have things stolen from them.

¹⁷"I'll restore your health and heal your wounds," declares the LORD. "People call you an outcast: Zion, no one cares for you.

¹⁸"This is what the LORD says: I'm going to bring the captives back to Jacob's tents and show compassion on their homes. Cities will be built on the ruins, and fortified palaces will be built in their rightful place.

¹⁹The people who live there will sing songs of praise, and the sound of laughter will be heard from there. I'll make them numerous, and their number won't decrease. I'll bring them honor, and they won't be considered unimportant.

²⁰ Their children will be like they were long ago. Their community will be established in my presence, and I will punish everyone who oppresses them.

²¹ Their leader will be someone from their own people. Their ruler will come from among them. I'll bring him near, and he will come close to me. Who would dare to come near me?" asks the LORD.

²² You will be my people, and I will be your God.

²³ The storm of the LORD will come with his anger. Like a driving wind, it will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

²⁴ The LORD'S burning anger will not turn back until he has done everything he intends to do. In the last days you will understand this clearly.

31 ¹ "At that time," declares the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

² This is what the LORD says: The people who survived the wars have found favor in the desert. Israel went to find its rest.

³The LORD appeared to me in a faraway place and said, "I love you with an everlasting love. So I will continue to show you my kindness.

⁴Once again I will build you up, and you will be rebuilt, my dear people Israel. Once again you will take your tambourines, and you will go dancing with happy people.

⁵Once again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria. Those who plant them will enjoy the fruit.

⁶There will be a day when watchmen on the mountains of Ephraim will call out this message: Arise! Let's go to Zion, to the LORD our God."

⁷This is what the LORD says: Sing a happy song about Jacob. Sing joyfully for the leader of the nations. Shout, sing praise, and say, "O LORD, rescue your people, the remaining few from Israel."

⁸"I will bring them from the land of the north. I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth. Blind people and lame people will return together with pregnant women and those in labor. A large crowd will return here.

⁹They will cry as they return. They will pray as I bring them back. I will lead them beside streams on a level path where they will not stumble. I will be a Father to Israel, and Ephraim will be my firstborn.

¹⁰"You nations, listen to the word of the LORD. Tell it to the distant islands. Say, The one who scattered the people of Israel will gather them and watch over them as a shepherd watches over his flock.

¹¹The LORD will free the descendants of Jacob and reclaim them from those who are stronger than they are.

¹²They will come and shout for joy on top of Mount Zion. They will stream to it to enjoy the LORDS blessings: fresh grain, new wine, and olive oil, lambs and calves. Their lives will be like wellwatered gardens, and they will never suffer again.

¹³Then young women will rejoice and dance along with young men and old men. I will turn their mourning into joy.

I will comfort them. I will give them joy in place of their sorrow.

¹⁴I will satisfy the priests with rich food. My people will be filled with my blessings," declares the LORD.

¹⁵This is what the LORD says: A sound is heard in Ramah, the sound of crying in bitter grief. Rachel is crying for her children. She refuses to be comforted, because they are dead.

¹⁶This is what the LORD says: Stop your crying, and wipe away your tears. You will be rewarded for your work, declares the LORD. You will return from the land of the enemy.

¹⁷Your future is filled with hope, declares the LORD. Your children will return to their own territory.

¹⁸"I have certainly heard Ephraim mourn and say, You disciplined me, and I was disciplined. I was like a young, untrained calf. Turn me, and I will be turned, because you are the LORD my God.

¹⁹After I was turned around, I changed the way I thought and acted. After I was taught a lesson, I hung my head in shame. I was so ashamed and humiliated, because of all the stupid things I have done ever since I was young.

²⁰Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a pleasant child? Even though I have often spoken against him, I still think fondly of him. That is why my heart longs for him, and I will certainly have compassion on him," declares the LORD.

²¹Set up landmarks! Put up road signs! Remember the highway, the road on which you traveled. Come back, my dear people Israel, come back to your cities.

²²How long will you wander around, you unfaithful people? The LORD will create something new on earth: A woman will protect a man.

²³This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: When I have brought them back from captivity, they will once again use this saying in Judah and in its cities: "The LORD will bless you, home of righteousness, holy mountain.

²⁴Judah and all its cities will live there together. Farmers and shepherds will also live there.

²⁵ I will give those who are weary all they need. I will refresh everyone who is filled with sorrow."

²⁶ At this, I woke up and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant.

²⁷ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will plant the nations of Israel and Judah with people and animals.

²⁸ Once I watched over them to uproot them, to tear them down, and to wreck, ruin, and hurt them. Now I will watch over them to build them up and to plant them," declares the LORD.

²⁹ "When those days come, people will no longer say, Fathers have eaten sour grapes, and their childrens teeth are set on edge.

³⁰ But each person will die for his own sin. Whoever eats sour grapes will have his own teeth set on edge.

³¹ "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new promise to Israel and Judah.

³² It will not be like the promise that I made to their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of Egypt. They rejected that promise, although I was a husband to them," declares the LORD.

³³"But this is the promise that I will make to Israel after those days," declares the LORD: "I will put my teachings inside them, and I will write those teachings on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

³⁴No longer will each person teach his neighbors or his relatives by saying, Know the LORD. All of them, from the least important to the most important, will know me," declares the LORD, "because I will forgive their wickedness and I will no longer hold their sins against them."

³⁵The LORD provides the sun to be a light during the day. He orders the moon and stars to be lights during the night. He stirs up the sea so that its waves roar. His name is the LORD of Armies. This is what the LORD says:

³⁶Only if these laws stop working, declares the LORD, will Israel's descendants stop being a nation in my presence.

³⁷This is what the LORD says: Only if the heavens could be measured or the foundations of the earth could be searched, would I ever reject all of Israels descendants because of everything that they have done, declares the LORD.

³⁸"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when the city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to Corner Gate.

³⁹A measuring line will stretch from there straight to the Hill of Gareb, and then it will turn to Goah.

⁴⁰The whole valley, filled with its dead bodies and ashes, and the whole area to the Kidron Valley, as far as the corner of Horse Gate in the east, will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or torn down again."

32¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah during Zedekiahs tenth year as king of Judah. (This was Nebuchadnezzars eighteenth year as king.)

²At that time the army of the king of Babylon was blockading Jerusalem. The prophet Jeremiah was locked up in the courtyard of the prison. This prison was in the palace of the king of Judah.

³When King Zedekiah of Judah locked up Jeremiah, Zedekiah asked him, "Why are you prophesying? You are saying, This is what the LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

⁴King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the Babylonians. He will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon. He will talk to Nebuchadnezzar in person and look him in the eye.

⁵Nebuchadnezzar will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and Zedekiah will stay there until I deal with him, declares the LORD. When you fight the Babylonians, you won't win."

⁶Jeremiah said, "The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁷Jeremiah, your cousin Hanamel, son of Shallum, is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth, because as the closest relative it is your responsibility to buy it."

⁸"Then, as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the prison. He said to me, Please buy my field that is in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. It is your responsibility to purchase it, because the rights of the closest relative belong to you. Buy it for yourself. Then I knew that the LORD had spoken to me.

⁹"So I bought the field in Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and gave him the money. The field cost seven ounces of silver.

¹⁰I signed the deed, sealed it, had people witness the signing of the deed, and paid out the silver.

¹¹Then I took the sealed copy of the deed, containing the terms and conditions, as well as an unsealed copy.

¹²I gave the copies of the deeds to Baruch, son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah. I did this in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and the witnesses who had signed the deed and in the presence of all the Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the prison.

¹³Then I gave Baruch these orders:

¹⁴This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Take both of these documents, both the sealed and the unsealed copies of the deed. Put them in a clay jar so that they will last a long time.

¹⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: My people will again buy houses, fields, and vineyards in this land.

¹⁶ "After I had given the copies to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD. I prayed, ¹⁷ Almighty LORD, you made heaven and earth by your great strength and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

¹⁸ You show mercy to thousands of generations. However, you punish children for the wickedness of their parents. You, God, are great and mighty. Your name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁹ You make wise plans and do mighty things. You see everything the descendants of Adam do. You reward them for the way they live and for what they do.

²⁰ You performed miraculous signs and amazing things in Egypt. To this day you are still doing them in Israel. You made a name for yourself that continues to this day.

²¹ You brought your people from Egypt with miraculous signs and amazing things, with a mighty hand and a powerful arm, and with great terror.

²²You gave them the land that you swore with an oath to give their ancestors, the land flowing with milk and honey.

²³They entered and took possession of it. However, they refused to obey you or to follow your teachings. They didn't do anything you commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them.

²⁴"See how the dirt ramps have been built up around the city to capture it! Because of wars, famines, and plagues, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you have threatened to do has happened, as you can see.

²⁵Yet you, Almighty LORD, told me to buy a field with money and get witnesses to confirm it, although the city was handed over to the Babylonians."

²⁶The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²⁷"I am the LORD God of all humanity. Nothing is too hard for me.

²⁸This is what the LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the Babylonians and King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. They will capture it.

²⁹"The Babylonians who are attacking this city will break in, set this city on fire, and burn it down. They will burn down the houses of people who made me furious by going up to the roofs to burn incense to Baal and to pour out wine offerings to other gods.

³⁰Ever since they were young, the people of Israel and Judah have done what I consider evil. The people of Israel have made me furious by what they've done," declares the LORD.

³¹"The people in this city have made me so angry and furious from the day they built it to this day. So now I must remove this city from my presence.

³²"The people of Israel and Judah have made me furious because they are evil. The people, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, and the Judeans and those who live in Jerusalem ³³have turned their backs, not their faces to me. I taught them again and again, but they refused to listen and learn.

³⁴ They set up their detestable idols in the temple that is called by my name, and they dishonored it.

³⁶ "You have said this about the city, Because of wars, famines, and plagues it will be handed over to the king of Babylon. Now this is what the LORD God of Israel says:

³⁷ I am going to gather the people from all the lands where I scattered them in my anger, fury, and terrifying wrath. I will bring them back to this place and make them live here securely.

³⁸ They will be my people, and I will be their God.

³⁹ I will give them the same attitude and the same purpose so that they will fear me as long as they live. This will be for their own good and for the good of their children.

⁴⁰ I will make an eternal promise to them that I will never stop blessing them. I will make them fear me so that they will never turn away from me.

⁴¹ I will enjoy blessing them. With all my heart and soul I will faithfully plant them in this land.

⁴² "This is what the LORD says: As I brought all these disasters on these people, so I will bring on them all these blessings that I have promised them.

⁴³ You have said that this land is a wasteland, without people or animals living in it. You have also said that it has been handed over to the Babylonians. But people will once again buy fields in this land.

⁴⁴ They will buy fields for money, sign deeds, seal them, and have people witness the signing of the deeds. This will happen in the territory of Benjamin, in the region of Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities on the mountains, in the hill country, and in the Negev because I will bring them back from their captivity," declares the LORD.

33¹ While Jeremiah was still being held in the courtyard of the prison, the LORD spoke his word to him a second time. The LORD said, ²"I made the earth, formed it, and set it in place. My name is the LORD. This is what the LORD says:

³Call to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you great and mysterious things that you do not know.

⁴The houses in this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah have been torn down to be used against the dirt ramps and weapons of the Babylonians. This is what the LORD God of Israel says about this:

⁵The people of Israel fought the Babylonians. Now their houses are filled with the bodies of their own people I killed in my anger and my fury. I will hide my face from this city because of its wickedness.

⁶"But I will heal this city and restore it to health. I will heal its people, and I will give them peace and security.

⁷I will restore Judah and Israel and rebuild them as they were before.

⁸I will cleanse them from all the sins that they have committed against me. I will forgive them for all the sins that they have committed against me and for rebelling against me.

⁹Then Jerusalem will be my source of joy, praise, and honor. All the nations on earth will hear about all the blessings that I will give to Jerusalem. They will be afraid and tremble because of all the prosperity that I will provide for it.

¹⁰"This is what the LORD says: You have said that this place is ruined and that no people or animals live in it. Its true! The cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem are deserted. No people or animals live there. But once again you will hear ¹¹the sounds of joy and happiness and the sounds of brides and grooms. You will hear those who bring thank offerings to the LORDS temple say, Give thanks to the LORD of Armies because the LORD is good, because his mercy endures forever. I will restore the fortunes of the land to what they were before," says the LORD.

¹²"This is what the LORD of Armies says: In this deserted place, where no people or animals live, and in all its cities, there will once again be pastures where shepherds can rest their flocks.

¹³In the cities on the mountains, in the foothills, in the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the area around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shepherds will once again count their sheep," says the LORD.

¹⁴"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will keep the promise that I made to Israel and Judah.

¹⁵In those days and at that time, I will cause a righteous branch to spring up for David. He will do what is fair and right in the land.

¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live securely. Jerusalem will be called The LORD Our Righteousness.

¹⁷"This is what the LORD says: David will never fail to have a descendant sitting on the throne of Israel.

¹⁸The Levitical priests will never fail to have a descendant in my presence to sacrifice burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to prepare daily sacrifices."

¹⁹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²⁰"This is what the LORD says: Suppose you could break my arrangement with day and night so that they wouldnt come at their proper time.

²¹Then my arrangement with my servant David could be broken, and he would not have a descendant to rule on his throne. The arrangement with my servants the Levitical priests could also be broken.

²²I will multiply the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who serve me like the stars of heaven that cannot be counted and the sand on the seashore that cannot be measured."

²³Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

²⁴"Havent you noticed what these people have said? They have said that the LORD has rejected the two families he has chosen. They despise my people, and they no longer consider them a nation.

²⁵"This is what the LORD says: Suppose I hadnt made an arrangement with day and night or made laws for heaven and earth.

²⁶Then I would reject the descendants of Jacob and of my servant David. I would not let any of Davids descendants rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. However, I will restore their fortunes and love them."

34¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, his entire army, and all the kingdoms and people that he ruled were attacking Jerusalem and all its cities. He said, ²"This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Go to King Zedekiah of Judah, and tell him, The LORD says: I'm going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.

³You will not escape from him. You will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will talk to you face to face. Then you will go to Babylon.

⁴"Listen to the word of the LORD, King Zedekiah of Judah. This is what the LORD says about you: You will not die in war.

⁵ You will die peacefully. People will burn funeral fires for you as they did for your ancestors, the kings who lived before you. They will say, "Oh, master," as they mourn for you. I have spoken my word, declares the LORD."

⁶ The prophet Jeremiah told all these things to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem.

⁷ He did this when the army of the king of Babylon was attacking Jerusalem and the cities of Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities of Judah that were left.

⁸ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah after King Zedekiah and all the people in Jerusalem promised to free their slaves.

⁹ Everyone was supposed to free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female. No one was supposed to keep another Jew as a slave.

¹⁰ All the officials and all the people agreed and promised to free their male and female slaves and not to keep them as slaves anymore. So they set them free.

¹¹ But afterwards, they changed their minds and took back the men and women they had freed and made them their slaves again.

¹²The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

¹³"This is what the LORD God of Israel says: I put a condition on the promise I made to your ancestors when I brought them from Egypt, where they were slaves. I said, ¹⁴Every seven years each of you must free any Hebrews who sold themselves to you. When they have served you for six years, you must set them free. But your ancestors refused to obey me or listen to me.

¹⁵Recently, you changed and did what I consider right. You agreed to free your neighbors, and you made a promise in my presence, in the temple that is called by my name.

¹⁶Now you have changed again and dishonored me. You brought back the male and female slaves that you had set free to live their own lives. You have forced them to be your male and female slaves again.

¹⁷"This is what the LORD says: You didn't obey me. You haven't freed your relatives and neighbors. Now I am going to free you," declares the LORD. "I will free you to die in wars, plagues, and famines. I will make all the kingdoms of the world horrified at the thought of you.

¹⁸I will hand over the people who have rejected my promise. They have not kept the terms of the promise which they made in my presence when they cut a calf in two and passed between its pieces.

¹⁹I will hand over the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the palace officials, the priests, and all the common people who passed between the pieces of the calf.

²⁰I will hand them over to their enemies who want to kill them, and their corpses will be food for birds and wild animals.

²¹I will hand King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials over to their enemies who want to kill them and to the army of the king of Babylon, the army that has withdrawn from you.

²²I am going to give a command," declares the LORD. "I will bring that army back to this city to attack it, capture it, and burn it down. I will destroy the cities of Judah so that no one will live there."

35¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah during the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah. He said,

² "Go to the family of Rechab and talk to them. Take them into one of the side rooms in the LORDS temple, and offer them a drink of wine."

³ I took Jaazaniah, who was the son of Jeremiah and the grandson of Habazziniah, and I took Jaazaniahs brothers and all his sonsthe whole family of Rechab.

⁴ I brought them into the LORDS temple, into the side room of the sons of Hanan. (He was Igdaliahs son, the man of God.) It was next to the room of the officials and above the side room of Maaseiah, Shallums son, the doorkeeper.

⁵ Then I set cups and pitchers filled with wine in front of the family of Rechab. I said to them, "Drink some wine."

⁶ They answered, "We dont drink wine, because our ancestor Jonadab, Rechabs son, gave us this order: You and your descendants must never drink wine."

⁷ Never build any houses or plant any fields or vineyards. You must never have any of these things. You must always live in tents so that you may live for a long time in the land where you are staying.

⁸We, along with our wives, sons, and daughters, have obeyed our ancestor Jonadab, Rechabs son, in everything he ordered us to do. We have never drunk wine, ⁹built houses to live in, or owned vineyards, pastures, or grainfields.

¹⁰We live in tents, and we have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab ordered us to do.

¹¹But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon invaded this land, we said, Let's go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian and Aramean armies. That's why we are living in Jerusalem."

¹²Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said,

¹³"This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Tell the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, Won't you ever learn your lesson and obey my words? declares the LORD.

¹⁴Jonadab, Rechabs son, ordered his descendants not to drink wine. This order has been carried out. His descendants have not drunk any wine to this day, because they have obeyed their ancestors order. I have spoken to you again and again, but you have refused to listen to me.

¹⁵I have sent all my servants the prophets to you again and again. They said, "Turn from your evil ways, do what is right, and dont follow other gods in order to serve them. Then you will live in the land that I gave you and your ancestors." However, you refused to listen to me or obey me.

¹⁶The descendants of Jonadab, Rechabs son, have carried out the orders of their ancestor, but you refuse to listen to me.

¹⁷"This is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring on Judah and on all those who live in Jerusalem all the disasters that I threatened. I have spoken to them, but they didnt listen. I called to them, but they didnt answer."

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to the family of Rechab, "This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You obeyed the order of your ancestor Jonadab, followed all his instructions, and did exactly what he told you to do.

¹⁹So this is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: A descendant of Jonadab, Rechabs son, will always serve me."

36¹In the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ²"Take a scroll, and write on it everything that I have dictated to you about Israel, Judah, and all the other nations from the time I spoke to you during the reign of Josiah until today.

³Maybe the nation of Judah will hear about all the disasters that I plan to bring on them, and they will turn from their wicked ways. Then I will forgive their wickedness and their sins."

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch, son of Neriah. Jeremiah dictated everything that the LORD had told him, and Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll.

⁵Jeremiah told Baruch, "I'm no longer allowed to go to the LORDS temple.

⁶On a day of fasting, you must read from the scroll the LORDS message that you wrote as I dictated. You must read it to the people in the LORDS temple. You must also read it to all the people of Judah when they come from their cities.

⁷ Maybe their prayers will come into the LORDS presence, and they will turn from their evil ways. The LORD has threatened these people with his terrifying anger and fury."

⁸ Baruch, son of Neriah, did as the prophet Jeremiah commanded him. In the LORDS temple he read from the scroll everything that the LORD had said.

⁹ In the ninth month of the fifth year of the reign of Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah of Judah, a time for fasting was called. It was a time for all the people in Jerusalem and for everyone who was coming from any city in Judah to Jerusalem to fast in the LORDS presence.

¹¹ Micaiah, who was the son of Gemariah and the grandson of Shaphan, heard Baruch read from the scroll everything the LORD had said.

¹² Then he went down to the scribes room in the kings palace where all the scribes were sitting. The scribe Elishama, Delaiah (son of Shemaiah), Elnathan (son of Achbor), Gemariah (son of Shaphan), Zedekiah (son of Hananiah), and all the other officials were there.

¹³ Micaiah told them everything he heard Baruch read from the scroll publicly.

¹⁴ Then all the officials sent Jehudi, who was the son of Nethaniah, the grandson of Shelemiah, and the greatgrandson of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi said to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read publicly, and come with me." Baruch, son of Neriah, took the scroll and went with him to see the officers.

¹⁵ They said to Baruch, "Please sit down, and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.

¹⁶ When they heard everything, they turned to each other in terror. They said to Baruch, "We must tell the king everything."

¹⁷Then they asked Baruch, "Please tell us how you wrote all this. Did Jeremiah dictate it to you?"

¹⁸Baruch answered, "He dictated everything to me, and I wrote it on the scroll in ink."

¹⁹The officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide. Dont let anyone know where you are."

²⁰After they put the scroll in the side room of the scribe Elishama, they went to the king in the courtyard and told him everything.

²¹Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. He took the scroll from the side room of the scribe Elishama. Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials standing by the king.

²²It was the ninth month, and the king was in his winter house sitting in front of the fire in the fireplace.

²³As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a scribes knife and throw them into the fire in the fireplace. He did this until the whole scroll was burned up.

²⁴ The king and all his attendants didn't show any fear or tear their clothes in fear when they heard everything being read.

²⁵ Even when Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he refused to listen to them.

²⁶ The king commanded Jerahmeel (the king's son), Seraiah (son of Azriel), and Shelemiah (son of Abdeel) to arrest the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. But the LORD had hidden Baruch and Jeremiah.

²⁷ After the king burned up the scroll that Baruch had written and that Jeremiah had dictated, the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah. He said, ²⁸ "Take another scroll, and write on it everything that was written on the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned.

²⁹ Say about King Jehoiakim of Judah, This is what the LORD says: You burned this scroll, and you asked Jeremiah, "Why did you write that the king of Babylon will certainly come to destroy this land and take away people and animals?"

³⁰This is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: He will have no one to sit on Davids throne, and his own corpse will be thrown out and exposed to the heat of day and the cold of night.

³¹I will punish him, his descendants, and his attendants for their wickedness. They refused to listen. So I will bring on them, on those who live in Jerusalem, and on the people of Judah all the disasters that I have threatened."

³²Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch, son of Neriah. As Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it everything that was on the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah had burned. They added many similar messages.

37¹ King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon appointed Zedekiah, son of Josiah, to be king of Judah. Zedekiah succeeded Jehoiakin, son of Jehoiakim.

²But Zedekiah, his administrators, and the common people didnt listen to what the LORD had spoken through the prophet Jeremiah.

³King Zedekiah sent Jehucal (son of Shelemiah) and the priest Zephaniah

(son of Maaseiah) to the prophet Jeremiah. They asked him, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

⁴Jeremiah was still free to come and go among the people. The people of Jerusalem hadn't put him in prison yet.

⁵Pharaoh's army had come from Egypt, and when the Babylonians who were blockading Jerusalem heard this news, they retreated from Jerusalem.

⁶The LORD spoke his word to the prophet Jeremiah. He said,

⁷"This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to get advice from me: Pharaoh's army has come out to help you. But it will go back to Egypt, its own land.

⁸Then the Babylonians will return. They will attack the city, capture it, and burn it down.

⁹"This is what the LORD says: Don't deceive yourselves by thinking that the Babylonians will leave you. They will not leave you.

¹⁰Even if you would defeat the entire Babylonian army so that they had only a few badly wounded men left in their tents, they would get up and burn down this city."

¹¹The Babylonian army had retreated from Jerusalem because Pharaoh's army was coming.

¹²So Jeremiah wanted to leave Jerusalem and go to the territory of Benjamin to take possession of his property there among the people.

¹³But when he came to Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard there, whose name was Irijah, son of Shelemiah and grandson of Hananiah, arrested the prophet Jeremiah. He said, "You're deserting to the Babylonians!"

¹⁴Jeremiah answered, "That's a lie! I'm not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah wouldn't listen to him. Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the officials.

¹⁵The officials were so angry with Jeremiah that they beat him and put him in prison in the scribe Jonathan's house, which had been turned into a prison.

¹⁶Jeremiah went into a prison cell, and he stayed there a long time.

¹⁷Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah, and the king asked him privately in the palace, "Is there any message from the LORD?" Jeremiah answered, "Yes! There is a message from the LORD. You will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

¹⁸Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you, your administrators, or these people? Why have you put me in prison?"

¹⁹Where are the prophets who told you that the king of Babylon wouldn't attack you and this land?

²⁰But now, Your Majesty, please listen, and accept my plea for mercy. Don't return me to the scribe Jonathans house, or I will die there."

²¹King Zedekiah gave the command to have Jeremiah put in the courtyard of the prison. He gave him a loaf of bread every day from the bakers street until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison.

38¹ Shephatiah (son of Mattan), Gedaliah (son of Pashhur), Jucal (son of Shelemiah), and Pashhur (son of Malchiah) heard that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people.

²They heard Jeremiah say, "This is what the LORD says: Those who stay in this city will die in wars, famines, or plagues. But those who surrender to the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives.

³"This is what the LORD says: This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, and it will capture the city."

⁴Then the officials said to the king, "Have this man put to death. He discourages the soldiers who are left in this city and all the people by telling them such things. This man is not trying to help these people; hes trying to hurt them."

⁵King Zedekiah answered, "Hes in your hands. I wont do anything to stop you."

⁶So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchiah, the kings son. It was in the courtyard of the prison. They used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

⁷But an official in the royal palace, Ebed Melech from Sudan, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. The king happened to be sitting at Benjamin Gate.

⁸Ebed Melech left the royal palace and spoke to the king at Benjamin Gate.

⁹"Your Majesty, everything that these men have done to the prophet Jeremiah is wrong. They have thrown him into the cistern, where he'll starve to death, because there's no more bread in the city."

¹⁰Then the king gave Ebed Melech from Sudan this command: "Take 30 men from here, and lift the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies."

¹¹So Ebed Melech took the men with him and went to the royal palace, to a room under the treasury. He took rags and torn clothes from there and lowered them with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

¹²Ebed Melech from Sudan said to Jeremiah, "Put these rags and torn clothes under your arms to protect you from the ropes." Jeremiah did.

¹³They used the ropes to pull Jeremiah up and lift him out of the cistern. Then Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison.

¹⁴ King Zedekiah sent for the prophet Jeremiah and brought him to the third entrance in the LORDS temple. "Im going to ask you a question," the king said to Jeremiah. "Dont hide anything from me."

¹⁵ Jeremiah answered Zedekiah, "If I answer you, youll kill me. If I give you advice, you wont listen to me."

¹⁶ So King Zedekiah secretly swore an oath to Jeremiah, "The LORD gave us life. As the LORD lives, I will not kill you or hand you over to these men who want to kill you."

¹⁷ Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your household will live.

¹⁸ But if you dont surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians. They will burn it down, and you will not escape from them."

¹⁹ King Zedekiah answered Jeremiah, "Im afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Babylonians. The Babylonians may hand me over to them, and they will torture me."

²⁰Jeremiah said, "You will not be handed over to them. Obey the LORD by doing what I'm telling you. Then everything will go well for you, and you will live.

²¹But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has shown me.

²²All the women who are left in the palace of Judah's king will be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon. These women will say: Your trusted friends have misled you and used you. Your feet are stuck in the mud, and your friends have deserted you.

²³"All your wives and children will be brought to the Babylonians. You will not escape from them. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down."

²⁴Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know about this conversation, or you will die.

²⁵The officials may find out that I've been talking with you. They may come to you and say, Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you.

Don't hide anything from us, or we'll kill you.

²⁶If they come to you, say to them, I asked the king not to send me back to Jonathans house to die there."

²⁷All the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him. He told them exactly what the king had told him to say. So they stopped questioning him, because they hadn't heard his conversation with the king.

²⁸Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison until the day Jerusalem was captured.

39¹In the tenth month of Zedekiahs ninth year as king of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Jerusalem with his entire army and blockaded it.

²On the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiahs eleventh year as king, they broke into the city.

³Then all the officers of the king of Babylon came in and sat in Middle Gate: Nergal (the quartermaster), Samgar Nebo (the chief officer), Nergal (the quartermaster and the chief fortuneteller), and all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon.

⁴When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled. They left the city at night by way of the kings garden through the gate between the two walls, and they took the road to the plain of Jericho.

⁵The Babylonian army pursued them and caught up with Zedekiah in the plain of Jericho. They arrested him and brought him to Babylons King Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. The king of Babylon passed sentence on him.

⁶The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiahs sons as Zedekiah watched at Riblah. He also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah.

⁷Then he blinded Zedekiah, put him in bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon.

⁸The Babylonians burned down the royal palace and the peoples homes, and they tore down the walls of Jerusalem.

⁹Nebuzaradan, Babylons captain of the guard, captured the few people left in the city, those who surrendered to him, and the rest of the people.

¹⁰But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, left some poor people who had nothing in the land of Judah. At that time he gave them vineyards and farms.

¹¹King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon gave Nebuzaradan an order concerning Jeremiah. He said,

¹²"Take him, and look after him. Don't harm him in any way, but do for him whatever he asks."

¹³Nebuzaradan (the captain of the guard), Nebushazban (the chief official), Nergal (the quartermaster and the chief fortuneteller), and all the other leaders of the king of Babylon sent for Jeremiah.

¹⁴They took Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the prison and handed him over to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, to take him home. So he lived among the people.

¹⁵While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the prison, the LORD spoke his word to him. The LORD said,

¹⁶"Say to Ebed Melech from Sudan, This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to carry out my threat against this city by bringing disaster on it instead of prosperity. At that time these things will happen as you watch.

¹⁷But at that time I will rescue you, declares the LORD. You will not be handed over to those you fear.

¹⁸I will certainly rescue you. You will not die in war. You will escape with your life because you trusted me, declares the LORD."

40¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, let him go at Ramah. Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah in chains along with the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken to Babylon.

²The captain of the guard took Jeremiah aside and said to him, "The LORD your God threatened to bring this disaster on this place.

³He has carried out his threat. The LORD did as he promised because you Israelites have sinned against him and refused to obey him. That is why this has happened to you.

⁴Today I'm removing the chains from your hands. If you would like to come with me to Babylon, come, and I'll look after you. But if you don't want to come with me to Babylon, don't come. The whole land is yours. Go wherever you want.

⁵"If you wish to remain, then go back to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed to govern the cities of Judah. Live among the people with him, or go anywhere you want." The captain of the guard gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go.

⁶Jeremiah went to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, at Mizpah and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷All the army commanders and their men who were in the field heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, to govern the country and some of the country's poorest men, women, and children who had not been taken away to Babylon.

⁸These are the commanders who went with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah:

Ishmael (son of Nethaniah), Johanan and Jonathan (sons of Kareah), Seraiah (son of Tanhumeth), the sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jezaniah, who was the son of a man from Maacah.

⁹Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men. He said, "Don't be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Live in this country, serve the king of Babylon, and you will prosper.

¹⁰I'm going to live in Mizpah and represent you when the Babylonians come to us. Gather grapes, summer fruit, and olive oil, and put them in storage jars. Live in the cities you have taken over."

¹¹Now, all the Jews who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and in all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few survivors in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, to govern them.

¹²So all the Jews returned from all the places where they had been scattered. They came to Judah and to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They gathered a large harvest of grapes and summer fruit.

¹³Kareahs son Johanan and all the army commanders who were still in the country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah.

¹⁴They asked him, "Do you know that King Baalis of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael, Nethaniahs son, to kill you?" However, Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, didnt believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan, Kareahs son, secretly asked Gedaliah at Mizpah, "Let me kill Ishmael, Nethaniahs son. No one will know about it. Why should he kill you? All the Jews who have gathered around you would scatter. What is left of Judah would disappear."

¹⁶Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, told Johanan, Kareahs son, "Dont do that! What you are saying about Ishmael is a lie."

41 ¹In the seventh month Ishmael (son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, a descendant of the royal family and of the kings officers) went with ten men to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate together at Mizpah, ²Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him got up, drew their swords, and killed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. So they assassinated the man whom the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the land.

³ Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah as well as the Babylonian soldiers that he found there.

⁴ The day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew about it,

⁵ 80 men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. Their beards were shaved off, their clothes were torn, and cuts were on their bodies. They brought grain offerings and incense to the LORDS temple.

⁶ Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, left Mizpah to meet them, crying as he went. When he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam."

⁷ When they came into the city, Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, and his men slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

⁸ However, ten men from the group had said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey hidden in the country." So he left them alone and didn't kill them along with the others.

⁹Now, the cistern where Ishmael threw all the bodies of the men he had killed was the same one that King Asa made as a part of his defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, filled it with the bodies.

¹⁰Then Ishmael took captive the rest of the people who were at Mizpah. He captured the king's daughters and all the other people who had been left at Mizpah. They were the people whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had put under the control of Gedaliah, son of Ahikam. Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, took them captive and left for Ammon.

¹¹When Kareah's son Johanan and all the army commanders who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, had done, ¹²they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael. They caught up with him at the large pool in Gibeon.

¹³When all the people who were with Ishmael saw Kareah's son Johanan and all the army commanders who were with him, they were glad.

¹⁴Then all the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and ran to Kareahs son Johanan.

¹⁵Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to Ammon.

¹⁶Then Kareahs son Johanan and all the army commanders who were with him brought back the rest of the people of Mizpah whom he had rescued from Ishmael, son of Nethaniah, after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, son of Ahikam. Johanan brought back men, women, children, soldiers, and commanders from Gibeon.

¹⁷When they left Gibeon, they stayed near Bethlehem at Geruth Kimham on their way to Egypt.

¹⁸They were afraid of the Babylonians because Ishmael had killed Gedaliah whom the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the land.

42¹Then all the army commanders along with Kareahs son Johanan and Hoshaihs son Jezaniah and all the people, from the least important to the most important, came to the prophet Jeremiah.

²They said to him, "Please listen to our request, and pray to the LORD your God for all of us who are left here. As you can see, there are only a few of us left.

³Let the LORD your God tell us where we should go and what we should do."

⁴The prophet Jeremiah answered them, "I have listened to your request. I will pray to the LORD your God as you have requested, and I will tell you everything the LORD says. I won't keep anything from you."

⁵They said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we don't do exactly what the LORD your God tells us to do.

⁶We will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, whether it's good or bad. Yes, we will obey the LORD our God so that everything will go well for us."

⁷After ten days the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah.

⁸So Jeremiah called Kareah's son Johanan, all the army commanders who were with him, and all the people from the least important to the most important.

⁹Jeremiah said to them, "You sent me to plead your case humbly to the LORD. This is what the LORD God of Israel says:

¹⁰Suppose you stay in this land. Then I will build you up and not tear you down. I will plant you and not uproot you. I will change my plans about the disaster I've brought on you.

¹¹Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Don't be afraid of him, declares the LORD. I'm with you. I will save you and rescue you from his power.

¹²I will have compassion on you. I will make him have compassion on you and return you to your land.

¹³"But suppose you say, We won't stay in this land, and you disobey the LORD your God.

¹⁴Then you say, We'll go to Egypt, where we won't have to see war, hear the sound of a ram's horn, or be hungry. We'll stay there.

¹⁵"Now, listen to the word of the LORD, you people who are left in Judah. This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Suppose you're determined to go to Egypt, and you go and live there.

¹⁶Then the wars you fear will catch up with you in Egypt. The famines you dread will follow you to Egypt, and you will die there.

¹⁷So all the people who decide to go and live in Egypt will die in wars, famines, and plagues. No one will survive or escape the disasters I will bring on them.

¹⁸"This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: As my anger and my fury were poured out on those who live in Jerusalem, so my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become a curse word. You will become something ridiculed, cursed, and disgraced. You won't see this place again.

¹⁹"The LORD has told you people who are left in Judah not to go to Egypt. You need to know that I am warning you today.

²⁰You only deceived yourselves when you sent me to the LORD your God and said, Pray to the LORD our God for us, and tell us everything that the LORD our God says, and we will do it.

²¹ I have told you today, but you won't obey anything the LORD your God sent me to tell you.

²² But now, you need to know that you will die in wars, famines, or plagues in the place where you want to go and live."

43 ¹ So Jeremiah finished telling all the people the message from the LORD their God. He told them everything the LORD their God sent him to tell them.

² Azariah (son of Hoshaiah), Johanan (son of Kareah), and all the arrogant people said to Jeremiah, "You're lying! The LORD our God didn't send you to tell us that we must not go to live in Egypt.

³ But Baruch, son of Neriah, has turned you against us in order to hand us over to the Babylonians. Then they will kill us or take us as captives to Babylon."

⁴ So Johanan (son of Kareah), all the army commanders, and all the people didn't obey the LORD. They didn't stay in Judah.

⁵Johanan (son of Kareah) and all the army commanders took all the people who were left in Judah to Egypt. These were all the people who had come back to Judah from the places where they had been scattered.

⁶They took men, women, children, and the kings daughters. They took every person whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah, son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, including the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch, son of Neriah.

⁷They didnt listen to the LORD, so they went to Egypt. They went as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸Then the LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes. He said,

⁹"Take some large stones, and bury them under the brick pavement at the entrance to the Pharaohs palace in Tahpanhes. Do this while the people of Judah watch you.

¹⁰Say to them, This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Im going to send for my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will set his throne over these stones that I buried, and I will spread his royal canopy above them.

¹¹He will defeat Egypt. He will bring death to those who are supposed to die. He will capture those who are supposed to be captured. He will kill in battle those who are supposed to be killed in battle.

¹²He will set fire to the temples of Egypt's gods. He will burn down the temples and take their gods captive. Nebuchadnezzar will put on Egypt as his coat as a shepherd puts on his coat. He will leave Egypt peacefully.

¹³At Beth Shemesh he will break the monuments in Egypt and burn down the temples of Egypt's gods."

44¹The LORD spoke his word to Jeremiah about all the Jews living in Egypt at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Noph, and Pathros.

²This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disasters I brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah. Today they are deserted ruins.

³It is because their people did evil, and they made me angry. They went to burn incense and serve other gods that neither you nor your ancestors heard of.

⁴I have sent my servants the prophets to you again and again to tell you not to do these detestable things that I hate.

⁵But you wouldn't listen or pay attention. You wouldn't turn from your wicked ways and wouldn't stop burning incense as an offering to other gods.

⁶That is why my fury and anger were poured out and continued to burn in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem. So they became the desolate ruin that they are today.

⁷Now, this is what the LORD God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Why do you bring this terrible disaster on yourselves? Why do you keep destroying men, women, children, and babies from Judah until none are left?

⁸Why do you make me angry by burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where you have come to live. You will destroy yourselves and be cursed and ridiculed by all the nations on earth.

⁹Have you forgotten the wicked things done by your ancestors, by the kings of Judah and their wives, and by you and your wives in Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁰You have not humbled yourselves even to this day. You haven't feared me or lived your lives by my teachings or by my decrees that I gave your ancestors.

¹¹This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I'm going to bring disaster on you and destroy all of Judah.

¹²I will take away from Judah those who are left, those who were determined to go to live in Egypt. They will die in Egypt. All of them, from the least important to the most important, will die in wars or be brought to an end by famines. They will become something cursed, ridiculed, and disgraced.

¹³I will punish those living in Egypt as I punished Jerusalem with wars, famines, and plagues.

¹⁴None of the people of Judah who went to live in Egypt will survive or return to Judah, where they long to return and live. Only a few refugees will return there.

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, all the women who were standing there, and all the people who lived at Pathros in Egypt answered Jeremiah. They said, ¹⁶"We wont listen to the message that you have spoken to us in the LORDS name.

¹⁷We will do everything we said we would do. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out wine offerings to her as our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem. We had plenty to eat then, and we lived comfortably and saw no disaster.

¹⁸But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out wine offerings to her, we have had nothing but wars and famines."

¹⁹The women added, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, poured out wine offerings to her, and made cakes for her with her image on them, do you think our husbands didnt approve?"

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, to everyone who answered him,

²¹"Doesnt the LORD remember that you burned incense in the cities of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem along with your ancestors, your kings and your officials, and the people in the land?

²²The LORD could no longer bear the wicked and detestable things you did. That is why your land has become something ruined, destroyed, and cursed. No one lives in that land today.

²³You burned incense as offerings to other gods, sinned against the LORD, and wouldn't obey him. You didn't live by his teachings, decrees, or written instructions. That is why you have met with this disaster as it is today."

²⁴Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, "Listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are in Egypt.

²⁵This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives made promises, and you have kept them. You said, We will certainly do what we vow. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out wine offerings to her. "So go ahead. Keep your vows, and do what you vow.

²⁶But listen to the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who live in Egypt.

I swear by my great name, says the LORD, that no one from Judah who lives anywhere in Egypt will ever again call on my name and take the oath, "As the Almighty LORD lives"

²⁷I am going to watch over them. I am going to watch over them to bring disasters, not blessings. In Egypt the people from Judah will die in wars and famines until everyone is gone.

²⁸Those who escape the wars will return to Judah from Egypt. Then all the people of Judah who went to live in Egypt will know whose words have come true, mine or theirs.

²⁹I will give you this sign, declares the LORD. I will punish you in this place so that you will know that my threats of disaster will happen to you.

³⁰This is what the LORD says: I'm going to hand Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies and to those who want to kill him, just as I handed over King Zedekiah of Judah to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to those who wanted to kill him."

45¹This is the message that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch, son of Neriah. Baruch wrote these things on a scroll as Jeremiah dictated them during the fourth year that Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah. Jeremiah said, ²"This is what the LORD God of Israel says to you, Baruch:

³You said, Im so miserable! The LORD has added grief to my pain. Im worn out from groaning. I cant find any rest.

⁴"Say this to Baruch, This is what the LORD says: I will tear down what I have built. I will uproot what I have planted throughout the earth.

⁵Are you looking for great things for yourself? Dont look for them, because Im going to bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD. But wherever you go I will let you escape with your life."

46¹ The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the nations.

²This is the message about Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated his army at Carchemish along the Euphrates River during the fourth year that Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah.

³"Get your large and small shields ready; advance into battle.

⁴Harness your horses. Mount up, you horsemen. Take your positions, and put on your helmets. Polish your spears. Put on your armor.

⁵"What do I see in them? They are terrified. They are retreating. Their warriors are defeated. They flee without looking back. Terror is all around them," declares the LORD.

⁶"The infantry can't flee. The warriors can't escape. They stumble and fall in the north by the Euphrates River.

⁷Who is this, rising like the Nile River, like streams that flow swiftly?

⁸Egypt is like the rising Nile River, like a river quickly overflowing its banks. Egypt says, I will rise; I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and the people in them.

⁹Go into battle, you horsemen. Drive wildly, you chariot drivers. March into battle, you warriors, you warriors from Sudan and Put who carry shields, you warriors from Lydia who use bows and arrows.

¹⁰That day belongs to the Almighty LORD of Armies. It is a day of vengeance when he will take revenge on his enemies. His sword will devour until it has had enough, and it will drink their blood until its full. The Almighty LORD of Armies will offer them as sacrifices in the north by the Euphrates River.

¹¹Go to Gilead, and get medicine, dear people of Egypt. You have used many medicines without results; you cant be cured.

¹²The nations have heard of your shame; your cry fills the earth. One warrior will stumble over another, and both will fall together."

¹³The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who will defeat Egypt.

¹⁴"Tell this in Egypt; announce this in Migdol. Make it known in Memphis and in Tahpanhes. Say, Take your positions, and get ready. Swords will kill those around you.

¹⁵Why should your soldiers be cut down? They cant stand because the LORD will push them down.

¹⁶They have repeatedly stumbled, and now they have fallen. They say to each other, Get up! Lets go back to our people, to the land where we were born, and escape our enemys sword.

¹⁷There they will cry, Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is a big windbag. He has missed his chance.

¹⁸"As I live," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies, "someone who is like Mount Tabor among the mountains will come. Someone who is like Mount Carmel by the sea will come.

¹⁹Pack your bags, inhabitants of Egypt, because you will be taken away as captives. Memphis will become a dreary wasteland, a pile of rubble where no one lives.

²⁰"Egypt is like a beautiful cow, but a horsefly from the north will attack it.

²¹Egypt's hired soldiers are like fattened calves. They will turn and run away together. They wont stand their ground. The day of destruction is coming. At that time they will be punished.

²² Egypt will hiss like a snake as it slithers away. Its enemies will come with full force. They will attack it with axes like those who chop wood.

²³ They will cut down the forest," declares the LORD, "since Egypt can't be found. They are more numerous than locusts; they can't be counted.

²⁴ The people of Egypt will be put to shame. They will be handed over to the people from the north."

²⁵ The LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "I'm going to punish Amon, who is the god of Thebes. I will also punish Pharaoh, Egypt, its gods, its kings, and whoever trusts Pharaoh.

²⁶ I'll hand them over to those who want to kill them, to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his officers. Afterward, they will live in peace as they did long ago," declares the LORD.

²⁷ "Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob. Don't be terrified, Israel. I'm going to rescue you and your descendants from a faraway land, from the land where you are captives. Then Jacob's descendants will again have undisturbed peace, and no one will make them afraid.

²⁸Don't be afraid, my servant Jacob," declares the LORD. "I am with you. I will completely destroy all the nations where I scattered you, but I will not completely destroy you. I will correct you with justice. I won't let you go entirely unpunished."

47¹The LORD spoke this message to the prophet Jeremiah about the Philistines before Pharaoh defeated Gaza.

²This is what the LORD says: Water is rising in the north. It will become an overflowing river. It will overflow the land and everything in it, the cities and those who live in them. People will cry out and everyone who lives in the land will cry loudly.

³They will hear the sound of galloping war horses, the rattling of enemy chariots, and the rumbling of their wheels. Fathers who lack courage abandon their children.

⁴The time has come to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon any Philistine who might have escaped to get help. The LORD will destroy the Philistines and anyone who is left from the island of Crete.

⁵Gaza will shave its head in mourning. Ashkelon will be destroyed. How long will you cut yourselves, you people left on the plains?

⁶You cry out, "Sword of the LORD, how long will you keep on fighting? Go back into your scabbard. Stay there and rest!"

⁷How can the sword of the LORD rest? The LORD has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coast. He has put it there.

48¹ This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says about Moab: How horrible it will be for Nebo; it will be destroyed. Kiriathaim will be put to shame; it will be captured. Its stronghold will be put to shame and torn down.

²People will no longer praise Moab. The people in Heshbon will plan Moab's destruction. "Let's destroy that nation!" You will be silenced, city of Madmen. Death will come after you.

³People will cry out from Horonaim, "Looting and great destruction!"

⁴Moab will be broken. Its little ones will cry out.

⁵People go up the pass of Luhith, crying bitterly as they go. On the road down to Horonaim they have heard the distressful cry of destruction.

⁶"Run away! Run for your lives! Run like a wild donkey in the desert."

⁷Since you trust the things you do and your treasures, you will be captured. Chemosh will go into captivity with all its priests and officials.

⁸The destroyer will come to every city, and no city will escape. The valley will be destroyed, and the plain will be laid waste as the LORD has threatened.

⁹Put salt on Moab. It will be destroyed. Its cities will become deserted ruins.

¹⁰Cursed are those who neglect doing the LORDS work. Cursed are those who keep their swords from killing.

¹¹"Moab has lived securely ever since it was young. Its people are like wine left to settle in a jar. They arent poured from one jar to another. They havent gone into captivity. That is why its flavor has remained the same, and its aroma hasnt changed.

¹²That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will send people to pour Moab out of its jars and to smash its pitchers.

¹³Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh as the nation of Israel was ashamed when it trusted Bethel.

¹⁴"How can you say, We are soldiers and warriors?

¹⁵The enemy will attack Moab and destroy its cities. Its finest young men will be slaughtered," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies.

¹⁶"Moab's destruction is coming near; disaster is coming quickly.

¹⁷Mourn over it, all of its neighbors and everyone who knows its fame. Say, Look at the strong staff, the beautiful rod, that is broken!

¹⁸"People of Dibon, come down from your place of honor and sit on the dry ground. The destroyers of Moab will attack you. They will destroy your fortresses.

¹⁹Stand by the road in Aroer, and watch. Ask those who are fleeing and those who are escaping what is happening.

²⁰ They will answer, Moab is disgraced; it is defeated. Shout loudly, and cry. Tell the news in Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

²¹ "Judgment has come to all the cities on the plain: to Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath,

²² Dibon, Nebo, Beth Diblathaim,

²³ Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, Beth Meon,

²⁴ Kerioth, Bozrah, and on all the cities of Moab, far and near.

²⁵ "Moabs horn is cut off, and its arm is broken," declares the LORD.

²⁶ "Get the people of Moab drunk; they have spoken against the LORD. They will wallow in their own vomit, and people will laugh at them.

²⁷ People of Moab, didnt you laugh at the people of Israel? Were they caught among thieves? Whenever you talk about them you shake your heads in contempt.

²⁸ People of Moab, abandon your cities. Live among the cliffs. Be like doves that make their nests at the entrance of a cave.

²⁹ "We have heard about the arrogance of Moabs people. They are very arrogant.

They are very arrogant, conceited, and boastful.

³⁰I know how arrogant they are," declares the LORD, "but it isn't right. They brag and don't do what they say.

³¹That is why I will weep for Moab and cry for all of Moab. I will moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.

³²I will cry for you as Jazer cries. I will cry for you, grapevines of Sibmah. Your branches once spread as far as the sea, and they reached as far as the sea of Jazer. The destroyer will destroy your ripened fruits and your grapes.

³³Joy and gladness have disappeared from the orchards and fields of Moab. I will stop the wine flowing from the winepresses. No one will stomp on grapes with shouts of joy. There will be shouts, but not shouts of joy.

³⁴"The cry will be heard from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz. It will be heard from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the streams of Nimrim will dry up.

³⁵I will stop those in Moab who come to worship sites, those who bring offerings to their gods," declares the LORD.

³⁶"That is why I moan for Moab like a flute. I sound like a flute for the people of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they gained has disappeared.

³⁷"Every head is shaved, and every beard is cut off. There are gashes on every hand and sackcloth on every waist.

³⁸People in Moab will mourn on every rooftop and in every street. There will be mourning everywhere, because I will break Moab like a jar that no one wants," declares the LORD.

³⁹"They will cry, Look how Moab is defeated! Moab turns away in shame! Moab has become something ridiculed and something held in contempt by everyone around it.

⁴⁰"This is what the LORD says: The enemy will swoop down like eagles and spread their wings over Moab.

⁴¹The cities will be taken, and the fortified places will be captured. On that day Moab's soldiers will be like women in childbirth.

⁴²Moab will be destroyed as a nation, because it spoke against the LORD.

⁴³Disasters, pits, and traps are in store for those who live in Moab," declares the LORD.

⁴⁴"Whoever flees from a disaster will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a trap. I will bring a year of punishment to Moab," declares the LORD.

⁴⁵"Those who flee will stand exhausted in the shadow of Heshbon. A fire will come out of Heshbon and a flame from Sihon. It will burn the foreheads of the people of Moab and the skulls of those noisy people.

⁴⁶How horrible it will be for you, Moab. You people of Chemosh will die. Your sons will be taken away into exile, and your daughters will be taken away into captivity.

⁴⁷But I will restore Moab in the last days," declares the LORD. The judgment against Moab ends here.

49¹This is what the LORD says about the people of Ammon: Doesnt Israel have any children? Doesnt it have any heirs? Why, then, has the god Milcom taken over the inheritance of Gads descendants? Why do Milcoms people live in Gads cities?

²That is why the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah, where the people of Ammon live. It will become a pile of rubble. Its villages will be burned down. Then Israel will take possession of its inheritance, says the LORD.

³Cry loudly, Heshbon, because Ai is destroyed. Cry, people of Rabbah, put on your sackcloth, and mourn. Run back and forth between the walls. Milcom will be taken away into captivity with its priests and officials.

⁴Why do you brag about your valleys, your fertile valleys, you unfaithful people? You trust your treasures. You think, "Who would attack me?"

⁵I am going to bring terror on you from all around, declares the Almighty LORD of Armies. Everyone will be scattered. No one will gather the refugees.

⁶But afterward, I will return the captives of Ammon, declares the LORD.

⁷This is what the LORD of Armies says about Edom: Is there no longer any wisdom in Teman? Has wisdom disappeared from your people? Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸Turn and run. Hide in deep caves, inhabitants of Dedan. When I punish them, I will bring disaster on the descendants of Esau.

⁹If people come to pick your grapes, wont they leave a few grapes behind? If thieves come during the night, wont they steal only until theyve had enough?

¹⁰Yet, I will strip the descendants of Esau. I will find their hiding places. They wont be able to hide. Their children and relatives will be destroyed. None of their neighbors will say,

¹¹"Abandon your orphans, and I will keep them alive. Your widows can trust me."

¹²This is what the LORD says: If those who dont deserve to drink from the cup still drink from it, why should you go unpunished? You wont go unpunished. You must drink from it.

¹³I take an oath on myself, declares the LORD, that Bozrah will become a pile of rubble. It will become something horrifying, ridiculed, ruined, and cursed. All its cities will lie in ruins permanently.

¹⁴I heard a message from the LORD. A messenger was sent among the nations to say, "Assemble, and attack Edom. Get ready for battle."

¹⁵"Edom, I will make you the smallest of nations and despised among humanity.

¹⁶You have frightened other people. Your arrogance has deceived you. You live on rocky cliffs and occupy the highest places in the hills. Even though you build your nest as high as an eagle, I will bring you down from there," declares the LORD.

¹⁷"Then Edom will become something horrible. Everyone who passes by it will be horrified and hiss at all its wounds.

¹⁸Edom will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, and their neighboring cities when they were destroyed. No one will live there. No human will stay there," says the LORD.

¹⁹"I will suddenly chase them from their places like a lion coming out of the jungle along the Jordan River into pastureland. I will appoint over Edom whomever I choose. Who is like me? Who can challenge me? Is there any leader who can stand up to me?"

²⁰ Listen to the plans that the LORD is making against Edom and the things he intends to do to those who live in Teman. He will surely drag away the little ones of the flock. He will surely destroy the pasture because of the people who live in Teman.

²¹ The earth will quake at the sound of their downfall. The sound of their crying will be heard at the Red Sea.

²² The enemy will swoop down like eagles and spread their wings over Bozrah. On that day Edom's soldiers will be like women in childbirth.

²³ This is a message about Damascus. "Hamath and Arpad are worried because they heard the bad news. They melt in fear. They are troubled like a sea that can't be calmed.

²⁴ The people of Damascus are weak. They turn to flee, but panic grips them. Anguish and pain grip them like a woman in labor.

²⁵ Why isn't that famous, happy city abandoned?

²⁶ That is why its young men will die in the streets, and its soldiers will be silenced that day," declares the LORD of Armies.

²⁷ "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus and burn down Benhadads palaces."

²⁸ This is about the tribe of Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated. This is what the LORD says: Get ready, attack Kedar, and loot the people from the east.

²⁹ Their tents and their flocks will be taken. Their tent curtains, utensils, and camels will be carried away. People will shout to them, "Terror is all around!"

³¹ Get ready! Attack the nation living peacefully and securely, declares the LORD. It is a nation with no gates or bars. Its people live alone.

³² Their camels will be taken as prizes. Their large herds will be taken as loot. I will scatter to the winds those who shave the hair on their foreheads. I will bring disaster on them from every side, declares the LORD.

³³ Hazer will be a place where only jackals live. It will become a permanent wasteland. No one will live there. No human will stay there.

³⁴ Early in the rule of King Zedekiah of Judah, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam.

³⁵ This is what the LORD of Armies says: I'm going to break the bows of Elam's archers, the most important weapon of their strength.

³⁶ I'll bring the four winds from the four corners of heaven against Elam and scatter its people in every direction. There won't be a nation where Elam's refugees won't go.

³⁸ I'll set my throne in Elam and destroy its king and officials, declares the LORD.

³⁹ But afterward, I'll return the captives of Elam, declares the LORD.

50¹ This is the message that the LORD spoke about Babylon and the land of the Babylonians through the prophet Jeremiah.

² "Announce this among the nations, and spread the news. Raise a flag, and announce it. Don't hide anything. Say, Babylon will be captured. Bel will be put to shame. Marduk will be filled with terror. Babylons statues will be put to shame. Its idols will be filled with terror.

³ A nation from the north will attack Babylon and destroy its land so that no one will live in it. People and animals will run away.

⁴ "In those days and at that time," declares the LORD, "the people of Israel and Judah will cry as they go together to seek the LORD their God.

⁵ They will ask which road goes to Zion and turn in that direction. They will go there to make a permanent agreement with the LORD. It will not be forgotten.

⁶ My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray. They wander around on the mountains. They go from mountains to hills. They have forgotten their resting place.

⁷ Everyone who finds them eats them. Their enemies say, Were not guilty. They have sinned against the LORD, their true pasture. They have sinned against the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.

⁸ "Run away from Babylon. Leave the land of the Babylonians. Be like the male goats that lead the flock.

⁹ I am going to stir up an alliance of strong nations from the north and bring it against Babylon. Those nations will take up positions against Babylon. Babylon will be captured from the north. Its enemys arrows will be like skilled soldiers who dont come back emptyhanded.

¹⁰ The Babylonians will become the prize. All who loot them will get everything they want," declares the LORD.

¹¹ "You are happy and excited. You have looted the people who belong to me. You dance around like calves on the grass and neigh like stallions.

¹² But your mother will be greatly ashamed. The woman who gave birth to you will be disgraced. Babylon, you will be the least important nation. You will become a parched desert.

¹³No one will live in Babylon because of the LORDS anger. It will be completely abandoned. Everyone who passes by Babylon will be horrified and hiss at all its wounds.

¹⁴"Take up your positions around Babylon, all you archers with bows. Shoot at it; dont save any arrows, because the people of Babylon have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵Shout a war cry against them on every side. Theyll surrender. Their towers will fall and their walls will be torn down. Since this is the LORDS vengeance, take revenge against them. Do to them what they did to others.

¹⁶Dont allow anyone in Babylon to plant or harvest. Everyone will turn to his own people and flee to his own homeland because of the enemies swords.

¹⁸"This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹I will bring the people of Israel back to their pastures. They will eat on Mount Carmel and Mount Bashan. They will eat until they are full on the mountains of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days and at that time," declares the LORD, "people will look for Israel's crimes, but they will find none. They will look for Judah's sins, but none will be found. I will forgive the faithful few whom I have spared.

²¹"Attack the land of Merathaim and the people who live in Pekod. Claim them for me by killing them with a sword," declares the LORD. "Do everything I commanded you.

²²The noise of battle and great destruction fills the land.

²³The hammer of the whole earth is broken and shattered. See how desolate Babylon is of all the nations!

²⁴I will set traps for you, Babylon. You will be caught, but you won't know it. You will be found and captured because you have opposed the LORD.

²⁵The LORD will open his armory and bring out the weapons of his fury, because the Almighty LORD of Armies has a job to do in the land of the Babylonians.

²⁶Attack them from a distance, open their storehouses, pile up their corpses like piles of grain, claim them for me by destroying them, and don't leave anyone behind.

²⁷Kill all their young bulls. Let them go to be slaughtered. How horrible it will be for them when their time has come, the time for them to be punished.

²⁸Listen! Fugitives and refugees from Babylon are coming to Zion to tell about the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance for his temple.

²⁹"Call together the archers, the soldiers with bows, against Babylon. Set up blockades around it. Don't let anyone escape. Pay the people of Babylon back for what they have done. Do to them what they did to others. They have disobeyed the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

³⁰That is why their young men will die in the streets, and all their soldiers will be silenced that day," declares the LORD.

³¹"I'm against you, you arrogant city," declares the Almighty LORD of Armies. "Your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

³²Those arrogant people will stumble and fall, and there will be no one to help them get up. I will light a fire in their cities that will burn up everything around them."

³³This is what the LORD of Armies says: All the people of Israel and Judah are oppressed. All their enemies have captured them. They refuse to let them go.

³⁴Their defender is strong. His name is the LORD of Armies. He will certainly take up their cause in order to bring rest to the land of Israel and unrest to the people who live in Babylon.

³⁶ A sword will kill the false prophets. They will become fools. A sword will kill their soldiers and defeat them.

³⁷ A sword will kill their horses, their chariots, and all the foreigners within their ranks. They will become women. A sword will destroy their treasures, and they will be looted.

³⁸ A drought will diminish their water supply, and it will dry up. Babylon is a land of idols, statues that will go crazy with fear.

³⁹ That is why desert animals will live with hyenas. Desert owls will also live there. It will no longer be inhabited or lived in for generations.

⁴⁰ Babylon will be like Sodom, Gomorrah, and their neighboring cities when I, God, destroyed them. No one will live there. No human will stay there," declares the LORD.

⁴¹ "People are going to come from the north. A great nation and many kings will rise from the ends of the earth.

⁴² They will take hold of bows and spears. They will be cruel and have no compassion. They will sound like the sea when it roars. They will ride horses. They are ready for war, ready to attack you, people of Babylon.

⁴³The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and he loses courage. Anguish will grip him as pain grips a woman in labor.

⁴⁴I will suddenly chase them from their places like a lion coming out of the jungle along the Jordan River into pastureland. I will appoint over Babylon whomever I choose. Who is like me? Who can challenge me? Is there any leader who can stand up to me?

⁴⁵Listen to the plans that the LORD is making against Babylon and the things he intends to do to the land of the Babylonians. He will surely drag away the little ones of the flock. He will surely destroy the pasture because of the Babylonians.

⁴⁶The earth will quake at the news that Babylon has been captured. Its cry will be heard among the nations."

51 ¹This is what the LORD says:
I will stir up a destructive wind against Babylon and against the people who live in Leb Kamai.

²I will send people to winnow Babylon, to winnow it and strip its land bare. They will attack it from every direction on the day of trouble.

³Have the archers bend their bows. Have them put on their armor. Dont spare Babylons young men. Completely destroy its whole army.

⁴Babylons soldiers will fall down badly wounded in their streets. They will lie dead in their own land.

⁵Israel and Judah havent been abandoned by their God, the LORD of Armies, although their land is guilty of abandoning the Holy One of Israel.

⁶Run away from Babylon! Run for your lives! You shouldnt die because of Babylons crimes. This is the time for the vengeance of the LORD. He will pay the people of Babylon back for what they have done.

⁷Babylon was a golden cup in the LORDS hand. It made the whole world drunk. The nations drank its wine. That is why the nations have gone insane.

⁸Babylon will suddenly fall and be shattered. Cry for it. Bring medicine for its pain. Maybe it can be healed.

⁹We wanted to heal Babylon, but it couldn't be healed. Let's abandon it and go to our own land. God has judged Babylon. Its judgment is complete.

¹⁰The LORD has brought about our victory. Let's announce in Zion what the LORD our God has done.

¹¹Sharpen the arrows; fill the quivers. The LORD will stir up the spirit of the kings of the Medes because his plan is to destroy Babylon. The LORD will avenge his temple.

¹²Raise your battle flag in front of the walls of Babylon. Strengthen the guards. Station watchmen. Prepare ambushes. The LORD will carry out his plans against the people who live in Babylon.

¹³Babylon, you live beside many rivers and are rich with treasures, but your end has come. The thread of your life has been cut off.

¹⁴The LORD of Armies has taken an oath on himself: "I will certainly fill you with many enemy armies. They will swarm like locusts. People will shout their victory over you."

¹⁵The LORD made the earth by his power. He set up the world by his wisdom. He stretched out heaven by his understanding.

¹⁶When he thunders, the water in the sky roars. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain. He brings wind out of his storehouses.

¹⁷Everyone is stupid and ignorant. Metalsmiths are put to shame by their idols. Their statues are false gods.

¹⁸They cant breathe. They are worthless jokes. When they are punished, they will disappear.

¹⁹Jacobs God isnt like them. He made everything, and Israel is the tribe that belongs to him. His name is the LORD of Armies.

²⁰"You are my war club and my weapon for battle. I will use you to crush nations. I will use you to destroy kingdoms.

²¹I will use you to crush horses and their riders. I will use you to crush chariots and their drivers.

²²I will use you to crush men and women. I will use you to crush the old and the young. I will use you to crush young men and women.

²³ I will use you to crush shepherds and their flocks. I will use you to crush farmers and their oxen. I will use you to crush governors and officials.

²⁴ "In your presence I will pay back Babylon and all the people who live in Babylon for all the evil things that they did in Zion," declares the LORD.

²⁵ "I am against you, Babylon, you destructive mountain. You have destroyed the whole earth," declares the LORD. "I will use my power against you, roll you off the cliffs, and make you a scorched mountain.

²⁷ Raise your battle flag throughout the world. Blow the ram's horn among the nations. Prepare nations to attack Babylon. Tell the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz to attack it. Appoint a commander to lead the attack. Bring up horses like a swarm of locusts.

²⁸ Prepare nations to attack Babylon. Prepare the king of the Medes, their governors, all their deputies, and all the countries that they rule.

²⁹The earth trembles and writhes in pain. The LORD carries out his plans against Babylon to make Babylon a wasteland so that no one will live there.

³⁰The warriors of Babylon have stopped fighting. They stay in their fortified cities. Their strength has failed. They have become women. Their buildings are set on fire. The bars across their gates are broken.

³¹Runners run to meet runners. Messengers follow messengers. They inform the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured.

³²The river crossings have been taken. The enemy has burned its marshes, and its soldiers are terrified.

³³This is what the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, says: The people of Babylon are like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled. Their harvest time will come soon.

³⁴King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has devoured us. He has thrown us into confusion. He has turned us into empty jars. He has swallowed us like a monster.

He has filled his belly with our delicacies.
Then he spit us out.

³⁵The people who live in Zion say,
"May the violence done to us be done to Babylon." Jerusalem says, "May the people of Babylon be held responsible for our deaths."

³⁶This is what the LORD says: I am going to take up your cause and get revenge for you. I will dry up Babylons sea and make its springs dry.

³⁷Babylon will become piles of rubble. It will become a dwelling place for jackals, something horrible, and an object of contempt, where no one lives.

³⁸Its people are like roaring lions and growling lion cubs.

³⁹When they are excited, I will prepare a feast for them and make them drunk so that they will shout and laugh. They will fall into a deep sleep and never wake up again, declares the LORD.

⁴⁰I will take them to be slaughtered like lambs, rams, and male goats.

⁴¹"Sheshach has been captured.
Babylon, the city that the whole world praised, has been taken captive.

⁴²What a horrifying sight Babylon will be to the nations! The sea will rise over Babylon, and its roaring waves will cover it.

⁴³Its cities will be ruined. It will become a desert, a land where no one lives and where no human travels.

⁴⁴I will punish Bel in Babylon. I will make Bel spit out everything that it has swallowed. Nations will no longer stream to Babylon, and its walls will fall.

⁴⁵"Leave it, my people! Run for your lives! Run from the burning anger of the LORD.

⁴⁶Dont lose courage or be afraid when rumors are heard in the land. One rumor comes one year; another rumor comes the next year. Rumors of violence are in the land. Rumors that one ruler will fight against another are in the land.

⁴⁷That is why the days are coming when I will punish Babylons idols. The whole country will be put to shame, and all its soldiers will lie dead.

⁴⁸Then heaven and earth and everything in them will rejoice over Babylon, because destroyers from the north will attack it," declares the LORD.

⁴⁹ Because the people of Babylon have killed many Israelites and because they have killed many people throughout the earth, Babylon must fall.

⁵⁰ You people who escaped from the sword, leave! Don't just stand there. Remember the LORD in a distant land, and think about Jerusalem.

⁵¹ We have been put to shame, and we have been disgraced. Shame covers our faces, because foreigners have gone into the holy places of the LORDS temple.

⁵² "That is why the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish their idols, and those who are wounded will moan everywhere in the land.

⁵³ The people of Babylon might go up to heaven. They might fortify their strongholds. But destroyers will still come from me against them," declares the LORD.

⁵⁴ Cries of agony are heard from Babylon. Sounds of terrible destruction are heard from the land of the Babylonians.

⁵⁵ The LORD will destroy Babylon. He will silence the loud noise coming from it. Waves of enemies will come roaring in like raging water. The noise will be heard everywhere.

⁵⁶A destroyer will attack Babylon, its soldiers will be captured, and their bows and arrows will be broken. "I, the LORD, am a God who punishes evil. I will certainly punish them.

⁵⁷I will make their officials and wise men drunk, along with their governors, officers, and soldiers. They will fall into a deep sleep and never wake up," declares the king, whose name is the LORD of Armies.

⁵⁸This is what the LORD of Armies says: The thick walls of Babylon will be leveled, and its high gates will be set on fire. People exhaust themselves for nothing. The nations wear themselves out only to have a fire.

⁵⁹This is the message that the prophet Jeremiah gave to Seraiah, son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah, when Seraiah went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah's rule. (Seraiah was the quartermaster.)

⁶⁰Jeremiah wrote on a scroll all the disasters that would happen to Babylon.

He wrote all these things that have been written about Babylon.

⁶¹Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all this.

⁶²Then say, LORD, you have threatened to destroy this place so that no person or animal will live here, and it will become a permanent ruin.

⁶³When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River.

⁶⁴Say, Babylon will sink like this scroll. It will never rise again because of the disasters that I will bring on it." The words of Jeremiah end here.

52¹Zedekiah was 21 years old when he began to rule, and he ruled for 11 years in Jerusalem. His mothers name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.

²Zedekiah did what the LORD considered evil, as Jehoiakim had done.

³The LORD became angry with Jerusalem and Judah and threw the people out of his sight. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴On the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiahs reign, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Jerusalem with his entire army. They set up camp and built dirt ramps around the city walls.

⁵The blockade of the city lasted until Zedekiahs eleventh year as king.

⁶On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city became so severe that the common people had no food.

⁷The enemy broke through the city walls, and all Judahs soldiers fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls beside the kings garden. While the Babylonians were attacking the city from all sides, they took the road to the plain of Jericho.

⁸The Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and caught up with him in the plain of Jericho. His entire army had deserted him.

⁹The Babylonians captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in Hamath, where the king of Babylon passed sentence on him.

¹⁰The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiahs sons as Zedekiah watched. He also slaughtered all the officials of Judah at Riblah.

¹¹ Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze shackles. The king of Babylon took him to Babylon and put him in a prison, where he stayed until he died.

¹² On the tenth day of the fifth month of Nebuchadnezzar's nineteenth year as king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, who was the captain of the guard and an officer of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

¹³ He burned down the LORDS temple, the royal palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem. Every important building was burned down.

¹⁴ The entire Babylonian army that was with the captain of the guard tore down the walls around Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, captured the few people left in the city, those who surrendered to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population.

¹⁶ But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, left some of the poorest people in the land to work in the vineyards and on the farms.

¹⁷ The Babylonians broke apart the bronze pillars of the LORDS temple, the stands, and the bronze pool in the LORDS temple. They shipped all the bronze to Babylon.

¹⁸ They took the pots, shovels, snuffers, bowls, dishes, and all the bronze utensils used in the temple service.

¹⁹ The captain of the guard also took pans, incense burners, bowls, pots, lamp stands, dishes, and the bowls used for wine offerings. The captain of the guard took all of the trays and bowls that were made of gold or silver.

²⁰ The bronze from the 2 pillars, the pool, and the 12 bronze bulls under the stands that King Solomon had made for the LORDS temple couldnt be weighed.

²¹ One pillar was 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference. It was three inches thick and hollow.

²² The capital that was on it was 7 feet high with a filigree and pomegranates around it. They were all made of bronze. The second pillar was the same. It also had pomegranates.

²³ There were 96 pomegranates on the sides. The total number of pomegranates on the surrounding filigree was 100.

²⁴ The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the 3 doorkeepers.

²⁶ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

²⁷ The king of Babylon executed them at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. So the people of Judah were captives as they left their land.

²⁸ These are the people Nebuchadnezzar took captive: In his seventh year as king, he took 3,023 Jews.

²⁹ In his eighteenth year, Nebuchadnezzar took 832 people from Jerusalem.

³⁰ In Nebuchadnezzars twentythird year as king, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took away 745 Jews. In all, 4,600 people were taken away.

³¹ On the twentyfifth day of the twelfth month of the thirtyseventh year of the imprisonment of King Jehoiakin of Judah, King Evil Merodach of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, freed King Jehoiakin of Judah and released him from prison.

³² He treated him well and gave him a special position higher than the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

³³ Jehoiakin no longer wore prison clothes, and he ate his meals in the kings presence as long as he lived.

³⁴ The king of Babylon gave him a daily food allowance as long as he lived.

Lamentations

1 ¹ "Look how deserted Jerusalem is! Once the city was crowded with people. Once it was important among the nations. Now it is a widow. Once it was a princess among the provinces. Now it does forced labor.

² Jerusalem cries bitterly at night with tears running down its cheeks. Out of all those who love the city, no one offers it comfort. All of Jerusalem's friends have betrayed it and become its enemies.

³ "Judah has been exiled after much suffering and harsh treatment. Its people live among the nations; they find no rest. Those who chased them caught up with them in places where there was no way out.

⁴ "The roads to Zion are deserted. No one comes to the annual festivals. No one passes through any of its gates. Its priests are groaning. Its young women are made to suffer. Zion is bitter.

⁵ Its opponents are now in control. Its enemies have no worries. The LORD made Zion suffer for its many rebellious acts. Its children go ahead of their opponents into captivity.

⁶All splendor has abandoned the people of Zion. Its influential people were like deer that couldnt find any pasture. They ran without any strength ahead of the hunters.

⁷"Now, during its suffering and oppression, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures it had from ancient times, when its people fell into the power of their enemies with no one to help them. Their opponents looked on, and they laughed at Jerusalems downfall.

⁸Jerusalem has sinned so much that it has become a filthy thing. Everyone who used to honor it now despises it. Theyve seen it naked. Jerusalem groans and turns away.

⁹Jerusalems own filth covers its clothes. It gave no thought to its future. Its downfall was shocking. No one offers it comfort. O LORD, look at my suffering, because my enemies have triumphed.

¹⁰The enemies laid their hands on all of the citys treasures. Jerusalem has seen the nations enter the holy place. O

Lord, they are the same people you have forbidden to enter your congregation.

¹¹ All the people are groaning as they beg for bread. They trade their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. O LORD, look and see how despised I am!"

¹² "Doesnt this affect all of you who pass by? Look and see if theres any pain like the pain that the LORD has caused me, like the pain that he has made me suffer on the day of his fierce anger.

¹³ He sent fire from above. He made it go deep into my bones. He spread a net for my feet. He made me turn back. He has left me devastated. He has made me sick all day long.

¹⁴ My rebellious acts are a heavy burden for me. They were tied together by Gods own hands. They were tied around my neck. He has weakened me with them. The Lord has handed me over to people I cannot oppose.

¹⁵ The Lord has treated all the warriors inside my walls with contempt. He called an army to defeat my young men. The LORD trampled the people of Judah in a winepress.

¹⁶ I'm crying because of all these things. My eyes my eyes flow with tears. No one can give me the comfort I need to keep me alive. Everyone is too far away from me. My children are devastated because my enemies have won."

¹⁷ Zion holds out its hands. No one offers it comfort. The LORD has given this order about Jacob: His own neighbors will become his opponents. Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

¹⁸ "The LORD is right in what he did, because I rebelled against his word. Please listen, all you people, and look at my pain. My young women and young men have gone into captivity.

¹⁹ I called for those who love me, but they betrayed me. My priests and leaders breathed their last breath in the city, looking for food to keep themselves alive.

²¹ "All my enemies have heard that I am groaning. No one offers me comfort.

All my enemies have heard about my disaster. They are happy that you did it. You have allowed the day to come, the one that you had announced. Let my enemies be like me now.

²²Recall all of their wickedness. Then deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my rebellious acts. I groan so much and feel so sick at heart."

2¹"Look how the Lord has covered the people of Zion with the cloud of his anger! He has thrown down Israels beauty from heaven to earth. He didnt even remember his footstool on the day of his anger.

²The Lord swallowed up all of Jacobs pastures without any pity. He tore down the fortified cities of Judah in his fury. He brought the kingdom of Judah and its leaders down to the ground in dishonor.

³In his burning anger he cut off all of Israels strength. He withdrew his right hand when they faced their enemy. He burned like a raging fire in the land of Jacob, destroying everything around him.

⁴Like an enemy he bent his bow. Like an opponent his right hand held the arrow steady. He killed all the beautiful people. He poured out his fury like fire on the tent of Zions people.

⁵The Lord became an enemy. He swallowed up Israel. He swallowed up all of its palaces. He destroyed its strongholds. He made the people of Judah mourn and moan.

⁶He stripped his own booth as if it were a garden and destroyed his own festivals. The LORD wiped out the memory of festivals and days of worship in Zion. He expelled kings and priests because of his fierce anger.

⁷The Lord rejected his altar and disowned his holy place. He handed the walls of Zions palaces over to its enemies. The enemies made noise in the LORDS temple as though it were a festival day.

⁸The LORD planned to destroy the wall of Zions people. He marked it off with a line. He didnt take his hand away until he had swallowed it up. He made the towers and walls mourn. They are completely dejected.

⁹"Zions gates have sunk into the ground. The LORD destroyed and shattered the bars across its gates. Its king and influential people are scattered among the nations. There is no longer any instruction from Moses Teachings. Its prophets can find no visions from the LORD.

¹⁰The respected leaders of Zions people sit silently on the ground. They throw dirt on their heads and put on sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes are worn out with tears. My stomach is churning. My heart is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of my people. Little children and infants faint in the city streets.

¹²Theyre asking their mothers for some bread and wine as they faint like wounded people in the city streets. Their lives dwindle away in their mothers arms.

¹³"What example can I give you? What parallel can I show you, people of Jerusalem? What comparison can I make that will comfort you, beloved people of Zion? Your wounds are as deep as the sea. Who can heal you?

¹⁴Your prophets saw misleading visions about you. They painted a good picture of you. They didnt expose your guilt in order to make things better again. They gave you false prophecies that misled you.

¹⁵Everyone who walks along the road shakes a fist at you. They hiss and shake their heads at Jerusalems people: Is this the city they used to call absolutely beautiful, the joy of the whole world?

¹⁶All your enemies gawk at you. They hiss and grit their teeth. They say, Weve swallowed it up. Yes, this is the day weve been waiting for. At last we have seen it!

¹⁷The LORD has accomplished what he had planned to do. He carried out the threat he announced long ago. He tore you down without any pity, Jerusalem. He made your enemies gloat over you. He raised the weapons of your opponents.

¹⁸The hearts of Jerusalems people cried out to the LORD, the wall of Zions people. Let your tears run down like a river day and night. Dont let them stop. Dont let your eyes rest.

¹⁹Get up! Cry out at night, every hour on the hour. Pour your heart out like water in the presence of the LORD. Lift up your hands to him in prayer for the life of your little children who faint from hunger at every street corner."

²⁰"O LORD, look and consider: Have you ever treated anyone like this? Should women eat their own children, the children they have nursed? Should priests and prophets be killed in the Lords holy place?

²¹Young and old lie on the ground in the streets. My young women and men are cut down by swords. You killed them on the day of your anger. You slaughtered them without any pity.

²²You have invited those who terrorize me on every side, as though they were invited to a festival. No one escaped or survived on the day of the LORDS anger. My enemy has murdered the children I nursed and raised."

3¹"I am the man who has experienced suffering under the rod of Gods fury.

²God has driven me away and made me walk in darkness instead of light.

³He beat me again and again all day long.

⁴He has made my flesh and my skin waste away. He has broken my bones.

⁵He has attacked me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

⁶He has made me live in darkness, like those who died a long time ago.

⁷He has blocked me so that I can't get out. He has put heavy chains on me.

⁸Even when I cry and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

⁹He has blocked my way with cut stones and made my paths crooked.

¹⁰He is like a bear waiting to ambush me, like a lion in hiding.

¹¹He has forced me off the road I was taking, torn me to pieces, and left me with nothing.

¹²He has drawn his bow and made me the target for his arrows.

¹³He has shot the arrows from his quiver into my heart.

¹⁴I have become a laughingstock to all my people. All day long they make fun of me with their songs.

¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness. He has made me drink wormwood.

¹⁶He has ground my teeth with gravel.
He has trampled me into the dust.

¹⁷"My soul has been kept from enjoying peace. I have forgotten what happiness is.

¹⁸I said, I've lost my strength to live and my hope in the LORD.

¹⁹Remember my suffering and my aimless wandering, the wormwood and poison.

²⁰My soul continues to remember these things and is so discouraged.

²¹"The reason I can still find hope is that I keep this one thing in mind:

²²the LORDS mercy. We were not completely wiped out. His compassion is never limited.

²³It is new every morning. His faithfulness is great.

²⁴My soul can say, The LORD is my lot in life. That is why I find hope in him.

²⁵The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to anyone who seeks help from him.

²⁶"It is good to continue to hope and wait silently for the LORD to save us.

²⁷It is good for people to endure burdens when they're young.

²⁸They should sit alone and remain silent because the LORD has laid these burdens on them.

²⁹They should put their mouths in the dust. Maybe a reason to hope exists.

³⁰They should turn their cheeks to the one who strikes them and take their fill of insults.

³¹"The Lord will not reject such people forever.

³²Even if he makes us suffer, he will have compassion in keeping with the richness of his mercy.

³³He does not willingly bring suffering or grief to anyone,

³⁴crush any prisoner on earth underfoot,

³⁵deny people their rights in the presence of the Most High God, ³⁶or deprive people of justice in court. The Lord isn't happy to see these things.

³⁷Who was it who spoke and it came into being? It was the Lord who gave the order.

³⁸Both good and bad come from the mouth of the Most High God.

³⁹"Why should any living mortal (any person) complain about being punished for sin?

⁴⁰Let us look closely at our ways and examine them and then return to the LORD.

⁴¹Let us raise our hearts and hands to God in heaven.

⁴²"We have been disobedient and rebellious. You haven't forgiven us.

⁴³You covered yourself with anger and pursued us. You killed without pity.

⁴⁴You covered yourself with a cloud so that no prayer could get through it.

⁴⁵You made us the scum and trash of the nations.

⁴⁶All our enemies gawk at us.

⁴⁷Panic and pitfalls have found us, so have devastation and destruction.

⁴⁸"Streams of tears run down from my eyes over the ruin of my dear people.

⁴⁹My eyes will keep flowing without stopping for a moment

⁵⁰until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

⁵¹What I see with my eyes disturbs me deeply because of all the young women in my city.

⁵² "Those who were my enemies for no reason hunted me like a bird.

⁵³ They threw me alive into a pit and threw rocks at me.

⁵⁴ Water flowed over my head. I thought I was finished.

⁵⁵ "I call your name from the deepest pit, O LORD.

⁵⁶ Listen to my cry for help. Don't close your ears when I cry out for relief.

⁵⁷ Be close at hand when I call to you. You told me not to be afraid.

⁵⁸ Plead my case for me, O LORD. Reclaim my life.

⁵⁹ Look at the wrong that has been done to me, O LORD. Give me a fair verdict.

⁶⁰ Look at all their malice, all their plots against me.

⁶¹ Listen to their insults, all their plots against me.

⁶² The words and thoughts of those who attack me are directed against me all day long.

⁶³ Look at them! Whether they are sitting or standing, they make fun of me in their songs.

⁶⁴ Pay them back, O LORD, for what they deserve, for what their own hands have done.

⁶⁵ Make them stubborn. Let your curse be on them.

⁶⁶ Pursue them in anger, and wipe them out from under the LORDS heaven."

4¹ "Look how the gold has become tarnished! The fine gold has changed! The sacred stones are scattered at every street corner.

² "Zions precious children, who are worth their weight in fine gold, are now treated like clay pots, like those made by a potters hands.

³ Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but the women of my people are as cruel as wild ostriches.

⁴ The tongues of nursing infants stick to the roofs of their mouths because of their thirst. Little children beg for bread, but no one will break off a piece for them.

⁵ Those who used to eat delicacies are now destitute in the streets. Those who used to wear expensive clothes now pick through piles of garbage.

⁶The punishment for my peoples wickedness has been more severe than the punishment for the sins of Sodom. Sodom was destroyed instantly, without one human hand touching it.

⁷Zions princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk. Their bodies were more pink than coral. Their hair was like sapphires.

⁸Their faces are now blacker than soot. No one recognizes them on the streets. Their skin has shriveled on their bones. It has become as dry as bark.

⁹Those who were killed with swords are better off than those who are dying from starvation. Those who were stabbed bled to death. The others are dying because there is nothing in the fields to eat.

¹⁰The hands of loving mothers cooked their own children. The children were used for food by my people when they were being destroyed by a blockade.

¹¹The LORDS fury has accomplished his purpose. He unleashed his burning anger. He started a fire in Zion that even burned its foundations.

¹²Neither the kings of the earth nor anyone living on earth could believe that enemies or invaders would ever get through the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³They got through because of the sins of Jerusalem's prophets and the crimes of its priests, who spilled the blood of righteous people within it.

¹⁴My people staggered blindly through the streets. They were so contaminated with bloodstains that no one would touch their clothes.

¹⁵Get away! You're unclean, people yelled at them. Get away! Get away! Don't touch anyone. When they fled and wandered around, the people of the nations said, They can't stay here any longer.

¹⁶The LORD himself has scattered them. He will no longer look favorably on them. They no longer respected the priests, nor did they honor their older leaders."

¹⁷"We are still straining our eyes, trying in vain to find help. We waited and waited for a nation that didn't save us.

¹⁸The enemy kept tracking us down, so we couldn't even go out into the streets. Our end was near. Our time was up. Our end had come.

¹⁹Those who were hunting us were faster than eagles in the sky. They chased us in the mountains and ambushed us in the wilderness.

²⁰The person the LORD anointed as king, who is the breath of our life, was caught in their pits. We had thought that we would live in our king's shadow among the nations."

²¹"Rejoice and be glad, people of Edom, inhabitants of the country of Uz. The cup of the LORD'S fury will be passed to you next. You'll get drunk and take off all your clothes.

²²People of Zion, the punishment for your wickedness will end. The LORD will not let you remain in exile. People of Edom, he will punish you for your wickedness. He will expose your sins."

5¹"Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us. Take a look at our disgrace!

²"The land we inherited has been turned over to strangers. Our homes have been turned over to foreigners.

³We are orphans without a father. Our mothers are like widows.

⁴We have to pay to drink our own water. We have to pay to chop our own wood.

⁵Our enemies are breathing down our necks. We are worn out and not permitted to rest.

⁶We had to beg Egypt and Assyria for food.

⁷Our ancestors sinned. Now they are gone, but we have to take the punishment for their wickedness.

⁸Slaves rule us. There is no one to rescue us from them.

⁹To get our food, we have to risk our lives in the heat of the desert.

¹⁰Our skin is as hot as an oven from the burning heat of starvation.

¹¹Women in Zion are raped, so are the girls in the cities of Judah.

¹²Our leaders are hung by their hands. Our older leaders are shown no respect.

¹³Our young men work at the mill, and our boys stagger under loads of wood.

¹⁴Our older leaders have stopped meeting at the city gate, and our young men no longer play their music.

¹⁵There is no joy left in our hearts. Our dancing has turned into mourning.

¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head. Because we have sinned, it has been disastrous for us.

¹⁷This is why we feel sick. This is why our eyes see less and less.

¹⁸Foxes roam around on Mount Zion, which lies in ruins.

¹⁹"But you, O LORD, sit enthroned forever, and your reign continues throughout every generation.

²⁰Why have you completely forgotten us? Why have you abandoned us for such a long time?

²¹O LORD, bring us back to you, and we'll come back. Give us back the life we had long ago, ²²unless you have completely rejected us and are very angry with us."

Ezekiel

1 ¹ On the fifth day of the fourth month in the thirtieth year, while I was living among the exiles by the Chebar River, the sky opened, and I saw visions from God.

² On the fifth day of the month, during the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiakin, ³ the LORD spoke his word to the priest Ezekiel, son of Buzi, in Babylon by the Chebar River. The power of the LORD came over Ezekiel.

⁴ As I looked, I saw a storm coming from the north. There was an immense cloud with flashing lightning surrounded by a bright light. The middle of the lightning looked like glowing metal.

⁵ In the center of the cloud I saw what looked like four living creatures. They were shaped like humans, ⁶ but each of them had four faces and four wings.

⁷ Their legs were straight, their feet were like those of calves, and they glittered like polished bronze.

⁸ They had human hands under their wings on each of their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings.

⁹ Their wings touched each other. The creatures went straight ahead, and they did not turn as they moved.

¹¹ That is what their faces looked like. Their wings were spread out, pointing upward. Each creature had two wings with which they touched each other. The other two wings covered their bodies.

¹² Each of the creatures went straight ahead. They went wherever their spirit wanted to go, and they didn't turn as they moved.

¹³ The living creatures looked like burning coals and torches. Fire moved back and forth between the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning came out of the fire.

¹⁴The living creatures ran back and forth like lightning.

¹⁵As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of them.

¹⁶This is how the wheels looked and how they were made: They looked like beryl. All four wheels looked the same. They looked like a wheel within a wheel.

¹⁷Whenever they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning as they moved.

¹⁸The rims of the wheels were large and frightening. They were covered with eyes.

¹⁹When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved with them. When the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.

²⁰Wherever their spirit wanted to go, the creatures went. The wheels rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²¹So whenever the creatures moved, the wheels moved. Whenever the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still. And whenever the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²²Something like a dome was spread over the heads of the living creatures. It looked like dazzling crystal.

²³Under the dome, each creature had two wings that were stretched out straight, touching one another. Each creature had two wings that covered its body.

²⁴When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings. The sound was like the noise of rushing water, like the thunder of the Almighty, like the commotion in an army camp. When the creatures stood still, they lowered their wings.

²⁵A voice came from above the dome over their heads as they stood still with their wings lowered.

²⁶Above the dome over their heads was something that looked like a throne made of sapphire. On the throne was a figure that looked like a human.

²⁷Then I saw what he looked like from the waist up. He looked like glowing bronze with fire all around it. From the waist down, he looked like fire. A bright light surrounded him.

²⁸The brightness all around him looked like a rainbow in the clouds. It was like the LORDS glory. When I saw it, I immediately bowed down, and I heard someone speaking.

2¹He said to me, "Son of man, stand up, and I will speak to you."

²As he spoke to me, the Spirit entered me, stood me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

³He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel. They are people from a nation that has rebelled against me. They and their ancestors have rebelled against me to this day.

⁴I am sending you to these defiant and stubborn children. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says.

⁵Whether these rebellious people listen or not, they will realize that a prophet has been among them.

⁶Son of man, dont be afraid of them or the things they say. Dont be afraid, even though thorns and thistles are around you and you live among scorpions. Don't let the things they say frighten you. Don't be terrified in their presence, even though they are rebellious people.

⁷Speak my words to them whether they listen or not, because they are rebellious.

⁸But you, son of man, listen to what I say. Don't be rebellious like those rebellious people. Open your mouth, and eat what I am giving to you."

⁹As I looked, I saw a hand stretched out toward me. In it was a scroll.

¹⁰He spread the scroll in front of me. There was writing on the front and back. There were funeral songs, songs of mourning, and horrible things written on it.

3¹The LORD said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll. Then speak to the people of Israel."

²So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

³He said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll I'm giving you, and fill your stomach with it." So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴He said to me, "Son of man, go to the people of Israel, and speak my words to them.

⁵I am not sending you to people whose language is hard to understand or difficult to speak. I am sending you to Israel.

⁶I am not sending you to nations whose language is hard to understand, difficult to speak, or whose words you cannot understand. If I send you to those nations, they will certainly listen to you.

⁷But the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you because they refuse to listen to me. All the people of Israel are very stubborn and hardheaded.

⁸Yet, I will make you as stubborn and as hardheaded as they are.

⁹I will make you as hard as a diamond, harder than stone. Don't be afraid of them. Don't be terrified in their presence, even though they are rebellious people."

¹⁰He also said to me, "Son of man, take to heart everything I have spoken to you, and listen closely.

¹¹Go to the exiles, to your people. Whether they listen or not, tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says."

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me, and behind me I heard a loud thundering voice say, "Blessed is the LORDS glory, which left this place."

¹³I also heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures touching one another and the noise of the wheels beside them as well as a loud rumbling.

¹⁴Then the Spirit lifted me and took me away. I went away feeling bitter and angry. The strong power of the LORD came over me.

¹⁵I went to Tel Abib, to the exiles who lived by the Chebar River. I sat there among them for seven days. I was stunned.

¹⁶After seven days the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman over the people of Israel. Listen to what I say, and warn them for me.

¹⁸Suppose I tell you that wicked people will surely die, but you dont warn them or speak out so that they can change their wicked ways in order to save their lives. Then these wicked people will die because of their sin, but I will hold you responsible for their deaths.

¹⁹But suppose you warn the wicked people, and they don't turn from their wicked ways. Then they will die because of their sin, but you will save yourself.

²⁰If righteous people turn from living the right way and do wrong, I will make them stumble, and they will die. If you don't warn them, they will die because of their sin, and the right things they did will not be remembered. I will hold you responsible for their deaths.

²¹But if you warn righteous people not to sin, and they don't sin, they will certainly live because they listened to the warning. You will save yourself."

²²The power of the LORD came over me. He said, "Get up, and go to the plain. I will speak to you there."

²³I got up and went to the plain. The LORDS glory was standing there like the glory I saw by the Chebar River, and I immediately bowed down.

²⁴Then the Spirit entered me and stood me on my feet. He talked to me. He said, "Go into your home, and shut yourself inside."

²⁵ People will tie you up with ropes, son of man, so that you can't go outside.

²⁶ I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you can't talk or criticize them, even though they are rebellious people.

²⁷ But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth. You will tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says. Some will listen, and some will refuse to listen. They are rebellious people."

4¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, take clay, put it in front of you, and draw a map of Jerusalem on it.

² Set up a blockade against it, build attack walls around it, put up dirt ramps around it, have troops ready to attack it, and place battering rams all around it.

³ Then take an iron pan, and set it up as a wall between you and the city. Turn your face toward the city as if you were going to attack it, and then attack it. This is a sign for the people of Israel.

⁴ "Then lie on your left side and take the punishment of the nation of Israel yourself. You will bear its punishment as many days as you lie on that side.

⁵I have assigned to you one day for each year its punishment will last. So for 390 days, you will bear the punishment for the sins of the nation of Israel.

⁶When you finish this, you will lie down again, this time on your right side. You will bear the punishment for the sins of the nation of Judah for 40 days, one day for each year I have assigned to you.

⁷Turn your face toward the blockaded Jerusalem. Shake your fist and prophesy against it.

⁸I will tie you up with ropes so that you will not be able to turn from one side to the other until you have finished attacking Jerusalem.

¹⁰The food that you eat should be weighed. Eat eight ounces of food every day at set times.

¹¹Measure out twothirds of a quart of water, and drink it at set times.

¹² Eat the bread as you would eat barley loaves. Bake the bread in front of people, using human excrement for fuel."

¹³ Then the LORD said, "In the same way, the people of Israel will eat unclean bread among the nations where I scatter them."

¹⁴ I answered, "Almighty LORD, I have never dishonored myself. From the time I was young until now, I have never eaten an animal that died by itself or was killed by other wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth."

¹⁵ He said to me, "I will let you use cow manure in place of human excrement. Bake your bread over it."

¹⁶ He also said to me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the bread supply in Jerusalem. People will anxiously eat rationed bread and fearfully drink rationed water.

¹⁷ They will be shocked at the sight of each other because of the lack of food and water. They will waste away because of their sin."

5¹ The LORD said, "Son of man, take a sharp blade, and use it as a barbers razor to shave your head and beard.

Take scales to weigh your hair and divide it into three even parts.

²When the blockade is over, burn onethird of your hair in a fire in the middle of the city. Take another third, and cut it up with a blade around the city. Then scatter the remaining third to the wind, and I will draw a sword and go after it.

³Take a few strands of hair, and wrap them in the hem of your clothes.

⁴Later, take some of them, and throw them in a fire and burn them up. From there a fire will spread throughout the whole nation of Israel.

⁵"This is what the Almighty LORD says: This is Jerusalem! I have placed it in the center of the nations with countries all around it.

⁶The people of Jerusalem have rebelled against my rules and my laws more than the surrounding nations. They have rejected my rules, and they dont live by my laws.

⁷"So this is what the Almighty LORD says: People of Jerusalem, you have caused more trouble than the nations around you. You havent lived by my laws or obeyed my rules. You haven't even lived up to the standards of the nations around you.

⁸"So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I, too, am against you, and I will punish you in front of the nations.

⁹Because of all the detestable things that you do, I will do things to you that I have never done before and will never do again.

¹⁰That is why parents will eat their children, and children will eat their parents. I will punish you and scatter whoever is left to the wind.

¹¹"As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, because you have dishonored my holy worship place with all your disgusting and detestable things, I will have you killed. I will not have compassion for you or feel sorry for you.

¹²Onethird of you will die in plagues and be devoured in famines. Another third will die in battles against those around you. I will scatter the remaining third to the wind, and I will pursue them with a sword.

¹³"I will unleash my anger. I will use my fury against you, and I will get revenge.

When my fury is unleashed against you, you will know that I, the LORD, spoke to you while I was angry.

¹⁴I will turn you into a wasteland and an object of ridicule among the nations around you and in the presence of everyone who passes by you.

¹⁵The nations that are around you will ridicule you and laugh at you. When I punish you because of my anger, fury, and fierce revenge, you will become something ridiculed and something horrible. I, the LORD, have spoken.

¹⁶When I shoot my destructive arrows of famine at you, I will shoot to kill you. I will bring more and more famines into your land, and I will cut off your food supply.

¹⁷I will send famines and wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children. I will send plagues, violence, and wars to kill you. I, the LORD, have spoken."

6¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, look toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them.

³Say this, You mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Almighty LORD! This is what the Almighty LORD says to the mountains and hills and to the ravines and valleys: I am going to attack you with a sword and destroy your worship sites.

⁴Your altars will be destroyed, and your incense burners will be smashed. I will kill people in front of your idols.

⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of your idols, and I will scatter their bones around your altars.

⁶Wherever people live, the cities will be ruined, and the worship sites will be wrecked. Your altars will be ruined and demolished. Your idols will be smashed and completely destroyed. Your incense burners will be cut down, and everything you have done will be wiped out.

⁷People will be killed, and they will fall among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸"But I will let some people live. Some people will escape the battle among the nations and be scattered throughout the countries.

⁹Then those who escape will remember me among the nations where they are taken captive. I was hurt by their adulterous hearts, which turned away from me, and by their eyes, which lusted after idols. They will hate themselves for the evil and disgusting things that they have done.

¹⁰Then you will know that I am the LORD and that the disaster I promised was not an empty threat.

¹¹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: Clap your hands, stomp your feet, and say, "Oh no!" because the people of Israel have done evil and disgusting things. So they will die in wars, famines, and plagues.

¹²Plagues will kill those who are far away. Those who are near will die in wars, and anyone who is left and has escaped will die in famines. This is how I will unleash my anger.

¹³Then you will know that I am the LORD. "Those who are killed will lie beside the idols around their altars. They will lie on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every large tree and every leafy oak. These are the places where they made offerings to their disgusting idols.

¹⁴I will use my power against them and destroy the land, from the desert to Diblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

7¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says to the people in the land of Israel: The end is coming! The end is coming to the four corners of the earth.

³Now the end is coming for you. I will send my anger against you. I will judge you for the way you have lived, and I will punish you for all the detestable things that you have done.

⁴I will not have compassion for you or feel sorry for you. I will pay you back for the way you have lived and for the detestable things you have done. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"This is what the Almighty LORD says: One disaster after another is coming.

⁶The end is coming. The end is coming. It is stirring itself up against you. It is coming!

⁷ Destruction is coming to you, inhabitants of the land. The time is coming. The day is near. There will be confusion. There will be no joy in the mountains.

⁸ Soon I will pour out my fury on you and unleash my anger on you. I will judge you for the way you have lived, and I will punish you for all the detestable things that you have done.

⁹ I will not have compassion or feel sorry. I will pay you back for the way you have lived and for the detestable things that you are still doing. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I am the one attacking you.

¹⁰ "The day is near! It is coming! Destruction is coming! Wrongdoing has blossomed. Arrogance has flourished.

¹¹ Violence has grown into a weapon for punishing wickedness. None of the people will be left. None of that crowd, none of their wealth, and nothing of value will be left.

¹² The time is coming. The day is near. Buyers will not rejoice, and sellers will not mourn, because my fury will be against the whole crowd.

¹³ Sellers will not live long enough to buy back what they have sold. The visions against that crowd will not change. Because of their sins, none of the people will live.

¹⁴ They have blown a rams horn, and everything is ready. But no one will go into battle, because my fury is against their whole crowd.

¹⁵ "Outside are swords, and inside are plagues and famines. Whoever is in a field will die in battle. Whoever is in the city will be devoured by famines and plagues.

¹⁶ Those who survive will escape to the mountains. They will moan like doves in the valleys. They will moan because of their sins.

¹⁷ Every hand will hang limp, and every knee will be as weak as water.

¹⁸ They will put on sackcloth, and horror will cover them. All their faces will be covered with shame, and every head will be shaved.

¹⁹ They will throw their silver and gold into the streets like garbage. Their silver and gold wont be able to rescue them on the day of the LORDS anger. It will no longer satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs. Their silver and gold caused them to fall into sin.

²⁰They were proud of their beautiful jewels and used them to make disgusting and detestable statues of false gods. That is why I will make their jewels disgusting.

²¹I will hand their jewels over to foreigners as loot and to the most evil people on earth as prizes. These foreigners will dishonor the people of Israel.

²²I will turn my face away from the people of Israel, and foreigners will dishonor my treasured place. Robbers will go in and dishonor it.

²³"Get the chains ready! The land is filled with murder, and the city is filled with violence.

²⁴So I will send the most evil nation, and it will take possession of peoples houses. I will stop those who are strong from feeling proud, and their holy places will be dishonored.

²⁵Anguish is coming. People will look for peace, but there will be none.

²⁶One disaster will happen after another. One rumor will follow another. People will ask for a vision from a prophet. The teachings of priests and the advice of leaders will disappear.

²⁷Kings will mourn, and princes will give up hope. The common people will lose their courage. I will give them what they deserve and judge them as they have judged others. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

8¹On the fifth day of the sixth month in the sixth year, I was sitting in my home. Judah's leaders were sitting in front of me. The power of the Almighty LORD came over me.

²As I looked, I saw something that looked like a human. From the waist down its body looked like fire, and from the waist up its body looked like glowing metal.

³It stretched out what looked like a hand and grabbed me by the hair on my head. In these visions from God, the Spirit carried me between heaven and earth. He took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance to the north gate of the inner courtyard of the temple. That was where an idol that stirs up Gods anger was located.

⁴There I saw the glory of Israels God as I did in the vision that I saw in the valley.

⁵God said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." So I looked toward the north, and there in the entrance to the north gate beside the altar, I saw the idol that stirs up Gods anger.

⁶He asked me, "Son of man, do you see what the people of Israel are doing? The people of Israel are doing very disgusting things here, things that will force me to go far away from my holy place. But you will see even more disgusting things."

⁷Then he took me to the entrance of the courtyard. As I looked, I saw a hole in the wall.

⁸He said to me, "Son of man, dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall, and I saw a door.

⁹He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked, disgusting things that the people of Israel are doing here."

¹⁰So I went in and looked. I saw that the walls were covered with drawings of every kind of crawling creature, every kind of disgusting animal, and all the idols in the nation of Israel.

¹¹ In front of these drawings stood 70 of Israel's leaders. Jaazaniah, son of Shaphan, was standing with the leaders. Each of them was holding an incense burner in his hand, and a cloud of incense went up.

¹² God asked me, "Son of man, do you see what the leaders of the nation of Israel are doing in secret? Each of them is in the room where his god is, and each one of them is thinking, The LORD doesn't see me. The LORD has abandoned this land."

¹³ Then he said to me, "You will see even more disgusting things that they are doing."

¹⁴ He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORDS temple. Women were sitting there and crying for the god Tammuz.

¹⁵ He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this? You will see even more disgusting things than these."

¹⁶ Then he brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORDS temple. There at the entrance to the LORDS temple, between the entrance and the altar, were about 25 men who had their backs turned to the LORDS temple. They were facing east and worshipping the rising sun.

¹⁷He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this? Isnt it bad enough that the people of Judah have done these disgusting things that you have seen here? Yet, they also fill the land with violence and continue to provoke me even more. Look how they insult me in the worst possible way.

¹⁸So I will take action because Im angry, and I wont have compassion for them or feel sorry for them. Even if they shout in my ears, I wont listen to them."

9¹Then I heard the LORD call out with a loud voice. He said, "Come here, those who are going to punish this city. Each of you should bring your weapon with you."

²So six men came from the upper north gate. Each one brought a deadly weapon with him. Among them was a person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen. The men came in and stood by the bronze altar.

³Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the angels, where it had been, to the temple's entrance. The LORD called to the person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen.

⁴The LORD said to that person, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of those who sigh and groan about all the disgusting things that are being done in the city."

⁵Then he said to the others as I was listening, "Follow him throughout the city and kill. Don't have any compassion, and don't feel sorry.

⁶Kill old men, young men, old women, young women, and children. But don't come near anyone who has a mark on him. Start with my holy place." So they started with the old men in front of the temple.

⁷He said to them, "Dishonor the temple! Fill its courtyards with dead people, and then leave." So they went out and killed the people in the city.

⁸As they were killing people, I was left alone. So I immediately bowed down. I cried, "Almighty LORD, will you destroy everyone who is left in Israel while you pour out your anger on Jerusalem?"

⁹He answered me, "The wickedness of the nations of Israel and Judah is terrible. The land is filled with murder, and the city is filled with wrongdoing. They think that the LORD has abandoned the land and that he doesn't see.

¹⁰But I will not have compassion or feel sorry. I will do to them what they have done to others."

¹¹Then the person dressed in linen who was carrying paper and pen reported, "I did everything you commanded."

10¹As I looked at the dome over the heads of the angels, I saw something that looked like a throne made of sapphire.

²The LORD said to the person dressed in linen, "Go between the wheels under the angels, and fill your hands with burning coals. Then scatter them over the city." So he went between the wheels as I watched.

³The angels were standing on the south side of the temple as the person went. A cloud filled the inner courtyard.

⁴The LORDS glory rose from the angels to the entrance of the temple, the cloud filled the temple, and the brightness of the LORDS glory filled the courtyard.

⁵The sound of the angels wings was heard as far as the outer courtyard. It was like the sound of the Almighty God when he speaks.

⁶After the LORD had commanded the person dressed in linen to take burning coals from between the wheels beside the angels, the person went in and stood beside one of the wheels.

⁷One of the angels reached into the fire that was between the angels and took out some coals. This angel put them in the hands of the person dressed in linen. The person took them and left.

⁸The angels appeared to have what looked like human hands under their wings.

⁹As I looked, I saw four wheels beside the angels, one wheel beside each of the angels. The wheels looked like beryl.

¹⁰All four wheels looked the same. Each was like a wheel within a wheel.

¹¹Whenever the angels moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning as they moved. They always moved in the direction they faced without turning as they moved.

¹²Their entire bodies, their backs, hands, wings, and wheels were covered with eyes. Each of the angels had a wheel.

¹³I heard that the wheels were called the whirling wheels.

¹⁴Each of the angels had four faces. The first was the face of an angel, the second was the face of a human, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

¹⁵The angels rose. These were the living creatures that I saw at the Chebar River.

¹⁶When the angels moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the angels lifted their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels didn't leave their side.

¹⁷When the angels stood still, the wheels stood still. When the angels rose, the wheels rose with them. The spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD left the temple's entrance and stood over the angels.

¹⁹The angels lifted their wings and rose from the ground. I was watching them as they left with the wheels beside them. The angels stood at the door to the east gate of the LORDS temple, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰These are the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel at the Chebar River. I realized that they were angels.

²¹Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings were what looked like human hands.

²²Their faces looked exactly like the faces that I saw by the Chebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

11¹ Then the Spirit lifted me and took me to the east gate of the LORDS temple. (Its the gate that faces east.) Twentyfive men were at the entrance of the gate. I saw among them Azzurs son Jaazaniah and Benaiahs son Pelatiah. They were leaders of the people.

²Then the LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plan evil and give bad advice in this city.

³They say, Its almost time to rebuild homes. This city is a cooking pot, and were the meat.

⁴So prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

⁵The LORDS Spirit came to me and told me to say, "This is what the LORD says: You are saying these things, nation of Israel. But I know whats going through your mind.

⁶You have killed many people in this city and have filled its streets with corpses.

⁸You are afraid of swords, so I will bring swords to attack you, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹I will force you out of the city. I will hand you over to foreigners, and I will punish you.

¹⁰You will die in battle. I will judge you at Israels borders. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹¹ The city will not be your cooking pot, and you will not be the meat in it. I will judge you at Israel's borders.

¹² Then you will know that I am the LORD. You haven't lived by my laws, and you haven't obeyed my rules. You have followed the standards set by the nations around you."

¹³ While I was prophesying, Benaiah's son Pelatiah died. I immediately bowed down and cried out, "Almighty LORD, will you completely destroy all the remaining people in Israel?"

¹⁴ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁵ "Son of man, the people who live in Jerusalem are talking about your own relatives and about the entire nation of Israel. The people who live in Jerusalem say, They are far away from the LORD. This land has been given to us as our own property.

¹⁶ "So tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, I have been their sanctuary for a little while among the countries where they've gone.

¹⁷"So tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will bring them together from the nations and gather them from the countries where I've scattered them. I will give them the land of Israel.

¹⁸They will come and remove all the disgusting and detestable things that are there.

¹⁹I will give them a single purpose and put a new spirit in them. I will remove their stubborn hearts and give them obedient hearts.

²⁰Then they will live by my laws and obey my rules. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

²¹But as for those whose minds are set on following detestable and disgusting idols, I will pay them back for what they have done, declares the Almighty LORD."

²²Then the angels raised their wings, with the wheels beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²³The LORDS glory left the middle of the city and stopped above the mountain east of the city.

²⁴In this vision from Gods Spirit, the Spirit lifted me and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia. Then the vision I saw left me.

²⁵I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

12¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, you are living among rebellious people. They have eyes, but they cant see. They have ears, but they cant hear because they are rebellious people.

³"Son of man, pack your bags as if you were going into exile. Let the people see you leave in the daylight. March like a captive from your place to another place as they watch. Maybe they will understand, even though they are rebellious people.

⁴Let them see you in the daylight. Bring out your bags as if you were going into exile. In the evening let them see you leave like a captive going into exile.

⁵Dig a hole through the wall of your house, and leave through it.

⁶Let them see you put your bags on your shoulders and carry them out in the dark. Cover your face so that you won't see the land. I've made you a sign to warn the nation of Israel."

⁷ I did what I was ordered to do. During the day I brought out bags as if I were going into exile. In the evening I dug a hole through the wall. I brought out my bags in the dark. I let the people see me as I carried my bags on my shoulders.

⁸ The next morning the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹ "Son of man, didn't the rebellious nation of Israel ask you what you were doing?"

¹⁰ "Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: This is the divine revelation about the prince from Jerusalem and about all the people of Israel who live there.

¹¹ "Tell them, I am your warning sign. What I have done will happen to you. You will go into exile and into captivity.

¹² The prince who is among you will put his bags on his shoulders in the dark and leave. People will dig holes in the wall to go through. The prince will cover his face so that he cannot see the land.

¹³I will spread my net over him, and he will be caught in my net. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Babylonians, but he will not see it. And that's where he'll die.

¹⁴I will scatter in every direction all those who are around him his staff and all his troops. I will pursue them with my sword.

¹⁵Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will scatter them among the nations and force them into other countries.

¹⁶However, I will spare a few of them from wars, famines, and plagues. Wherever they go among the nations, they will realize that everything they did was disgusting. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

¹⁷The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁸"Son of man, shake as you eat your food. Tremble and be worried as you drink your water.

¹⁹"Tell the people of this land, This is what the Almighty LORD says about the people who live in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will be worried as they eat their food and terrified as they drink their water. Their country will be stripped of everything because everyone who lives there is violent.

²⁰The cities where people live will be destroyed, and the country will become a wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

²¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²²"Son of man, what is this proverb you have in Israel: Days go by, and every vision comes to nothing?

²³"Tell the people, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will put a stop to the use of this proverb. You will no longer quote it in Israel. Instead, tell them, The time is near when every vision will come true.

²⁴There will no longer be any false visions or flattering fortunetelling to the people.

²⁵I, the LORD, will speak. Everything that I say will happen without any more delay. I will say something, and it will happen during your lifetime, you rebellious people, declares the Almighty LORD."

²⁶The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁷"Son of man, the people of Israel are saying, The vision that Ezekiel sees wont happen for a long time. What he prophecies will happen in the distant future.

²⁸"Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Everything that I say will no longer be delayed. Whatever I say will happen, declares the Almighty LORD."

13¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel. Tell those who make up their prophecies, Listen to the word of the LORD.

³"This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for the foolish prophets. They follow their own ideas, and they have seen nothing.

⁴Israel, your prophets are like foxes among the ruins of a city.

⁵They havent repaired the gaps in the wall or rebuilt the wall for the nation of Israel. So Israel will not be protected in battle on the day of the LORD.

⁶These foolish prophets see false visions, and their predictions don't come true. They say, "The LORD said this." But the LORD hasn't sent them. Then they hope that their message will come true.

⁷Prophets of Israel, haven't you seen false visions and predicted things that don't come true? Don't you say, "The LORD said this," even though I haven't said anything?

⁸"This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your predictions are false, and your visions are lies. That is why I'm against you, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹I will use my power against the prophets who see false visions and predict things that don't come true. They will not help my people make decisions or be recorded in the records of the nation of Israel. They won't even enter Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰"They have deceived my people by saying that everything is alright, but it's not alright. When someone builds a flimsy wall, the prophets cover it up with paint.

¹¹ Tell those who cover up the wall with paint that their wall will fall down. Rain will pour down, hailstones will fall on it, and stormy winds will break it to pieces.

¹² When the wall falls down, people will ask them, "Where's the paint that you used to cover the wall?"

¹³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: In my fury I'll cause a storm to break out. In my anger rain will pour down, and hailstones will destroy the wall.

¹⁴ I will tear down the wall that the prophets covered up with paint. I will level it and expose its foundation. When the wall falls, they will be destroyed by it. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁵ I will unleash my fury on the wall and on those who covered it up with paint. "Then I will say to you, "The wall is gone, and so are those who painted it.

¹⁶ The prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem are gone. Those who said that everything was alright, when it wasn't alright, are gone, declares the Almighty LORD."

¹⁷"Son of man, look at the women among your people who make up prophecies, and prophesy against them.

¹⁹You dishonor me in front of my people for a few handfuls of barley and a few pieces of bread. You kill people who shouldnt die, and you spare the lives of people who shouldnt live. You lie to my people who are willing to listen.

²⁰"This is what the Almighty LORD says: Im against the magic charms that you use to trap people like birds. I will tear them from your arms and free the people that you have trapped.

²¹I will tear off your magic veils and rescue my people from your power so that they will no longer be under your control. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

²²You have discouraged righteous people with your lies, even though

I hadn't brought them any grief. You encouraged wicked people not to turn from their wicked ways to save their lives.

²³That is why you will no longer see false visions or make predictions. I will rescue my people from your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

14¹ Some of Israel's leaders came to me and sat down in front of me.

²Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

³"Son of man, these people are devoted to their idols, and they are allowing themselves to fall into sin. Should they be allowed to ask me for help?

⁴"So speak to them. Tell them, This is what the LORD says: Suppose an Israelite is devoted to idols and allows himself to fall into sin. Suppose he goes to a prophet to ask for my help. I, the LORD, will give that Israelite an answer, the answer that his many idols deserve.

⁵I will do this to recapture the hearts of the nation of Israel. They have deserted me because of their disgusting idols.

⁶"So tell the nation of Israel, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Change the way you think and act! Turn away from your idols, and don't return to any of your disgusting things.

⁷ Suppose an Israelite or a foreigner who lives in Israel deserts me by devoting himself to idols and by allowing himself to fall into sin. If he goes to a prophet to ask for my help, I, the LORD, will give him an answer.

⁸ I will reject him, and I will make an example of him. I will exclude him from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁹ "If a prophet is tricked into giving a prophecy, it is I, the LORD, who tricked the prophet. I will use my power against you and destroy you from among my people Israel.

¹⁰ Both of you will suffer for your sins. The prophet will be as guilty as you are when you ask for his help.

¹¹ Then the people of Israel will no longer wander away from me. They will no longer dishonor me with all their sins. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Almighty LORD."

¹²The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹³"Son of man, suppose a country sins against me by being unfaithful to me. I will use my power against it, cut off its food supply, send a famine to it, and destroy its people and animals.

¹⁴Even if these three men Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that country, they would, by their righteousness, rescue only themselves," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵"Suppose I send wild animals through that country and they make it childless and turn it into such a wasteland that no one travels through it because of the animals.

¹⁶As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could rescue their own sons or daughters. They could rescue only themselves. And the country would become a wasteland.

¹⁷"Suppose I bring a war against that country by saying, I will let a war go throughout this country. Suppose I destroy the people and the animals in it.

¹⁸As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could rescue their sons or daughters. They could rescue only themselves.

¹⁹"Suppose I send a plague into that country or pour out my fury on it by killing people and destroying animals.

²⁰As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, not even Noah, Daniel, and Job could, by their righteousness, rescue their sons or daughters. They could rescue only themselves.

²¹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will surely send four terrible punishments against Jerusalem. I will send wars, famines, wild animals, and plagues. They will destroy people and animals.

²²But some people will survive. Some of your sons and daughters will be brought out. When they come out to you, you will see how they live. Then you will be comforted after the disasters that I will bring on Jerusalem, after every disaster that I will bring against it.

²³You will be comforted when you see how they live. Then you will know that everything I have done was done for a reason," declares the Almighty LORD.

15¹ The LORD spoke his word to me.
He said,

² "Son of man, what good is the wood from a vine? Is it better than the wood from a tree in the forest?

³ Do people use it to make something? Do they make a peg from it to hang things on?

⁴ No! It is only thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire burns up both its ends and chars its middle. Then can it be used to make anything?

⁵ When the vine was in perfect condition, it couldn't be made into anything. How can it be used to make anything after the fire has burned and charred it?

⁶ "So this is what the Almighty LORD says: As a vine is taken from among the trees in the forest to be used to feed the fire, so I will take the people who live in Jerusalem to punish them.

⁷ I will turn against the people of Jerusalem. Even though they have escaped one fire, another fire will burn them. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will turn against them.

⁸I will turn the country into a wasteland because they have been unfaithful," declares the Almighty LORD.

16¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, make known to the people of Jerusalem the disgusting things they have done.

³Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says to the people of Jerusalem: Your birthplace and your ancestors were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite.

⁴When you were born, your umbilical cord wasn't cut. You weren't washed with water to make you clean. You weren't rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloth.

⁵No one who saw you felt sorry enough for you to do any of these things. But you were thrown into an open field. You were rejected when you were born.

⁶"Then I went by you and saw you kicking around in your own blood. I said to you, "Live."

⁷I made you grow like a plant in the field. You grew up, matured, and became a young woman. Your breasts developed, and your hair grew. Yet, you were naked and bare.

⁸"I went by you again and looked at you. You were old enough to make love to. So I spread my robe over you, and covered your naked body. I promised to love you, and I exchanged marriage vows with you. You became mine, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹"Then I bathed you with water, and I washed off your blood. I poured olive oil over you.

¹⁰I put an embroidered dress on you and fine leather sandals on your feet. I dressed you in fine linen and covered you with silk.

¹¹I gave you jewelry. I put bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck.

¹²I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

¹³So you wore gold and silver jewelry. You were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes. Your food was flour, honey, and olive oil. You were very beautiful, and eventually you became a queen.

¹⁴You became famous in every nation because of your beauty. Your beauty was perfect because I gave you my glory, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵"But you trusted your beauty, and you used your fame to become a prostitute. You had sex with everyone who walked by.

¹⁶You took some of your clothes and made your worship sites colorful. This is where you acted like a prostitute. Such things shouldn't happen. They shouldn't occur.

¹⁷You took your beautiful gold and silver jewelry that I had given you and made male idols for yourself. Then you committed adultery with them.

¹⁸You took off your embroidered clothes and covered the idols with them. You offered my olive oil and incense in their presence.

¹⁹You also offered them sweet and fragrant sacrifices. You gave flour, olive oil, and honeyall the food that I gave you to eat. This is what happened, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁰"You took your sons and daughters, who belonged to me, and you sacrificed them as food to idols. Wasnt your prostitution enough?

²¹ You slaughtered my children and presented them as burnt offerings to idols.

²² With all the disgusting things that you did and all your acts of prostitution, you didnt remember the time when you were young. You didnt remember when you were naked and bare, kicking around in your own blood.

²³ "How horrible! How horrible it will be for you! declares the Almighty LORD. After all your wickedness, ²⁴ you built yourself platforms and illegal worship sites in every city square.

²⁵ You also built worship sites at the head of every street. You used your beauty to seduce people there. You offered your body to everyone who passed by. You increased your acts of prostitution.

²⁶ You had sex with your lustful neighbors, the Egyptians. You used your prostitution to make me angry.

²⁷ "So I used my power against you. I took away some of your land, and I handed you over to your greedy enemies, the Philistines, who were ashamed of what you had done.

²⁸"You had sex with the Assyrians because you werent satisfied. You still werent satisfied.

²⁹So you increased your acts of prostitution to include the land of the merchants, the Babylonians. Even after that, you werent satisfied.

³⁰"You have no will power! declares the Almighty LORD. You do everything a shameless prostitute does.

³¹You build your platforms at the head of every street and place your illegal worship sites in every square. Yet, you arent like other prostitutes, because you dont want to be paid.

³²You are an adulterous wife who prefers strangers to her husband.

³³All prostitutes get paid. But you give gifts to all your lovers and bribe them to come to you from all directions to have sex with you.

³⁴You are a different kind of prostitute. No one goes after you for favors. You are the opposite. You pay them, and you dont accept payment.

³⁵"Listen to the word of the LORD, you prostitute.

³⁶This is what the Almighty LORD says: You exposed yourself and uncovered your naked body when you gave yourself to your lovers and to all your disgusting idols. You also killed your children and sacrificed their blood to these idols.

³⁷That is why I will gather all your lovers with whom you found pleasure. I will have all those who love you and hate you gather around. I will uncover your body for them, and they will see you naked.

³⁸I will punish you the same way that those who are guilty of prostitution and murder are punished. I will give you the death penalty in my fury and burning anger.

³⁹I will hand you over to your lovers. They will destroy your platforms and tear down your illegal worship sites. They will tear off your clothes, take away your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

⁴⁰They will also bring a mob against you. They will stone you and cut you into pieces with their swords.

⁴¹ They will burn your houses and punish you in the presence of many women. I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay others.

⁴² Then I will rest from my fury against you, and I will stop being angry. I will be at peace. I will no longer be angry.

⁴³ "You didnt remember the time when you were young, and you made me very angry with all these things. So I will pay you back for what you have done, declares the Almighty LORD. Didnt you make wicked plans in addition to all your disgusting practices?

⁴⁴ "Everyone who uses proverbs will speak the following saying against you: Like mother, like daughter.

⁴⁵ You are your mothers daughter. She rejected her husband and her children. You are exactly like your sisters. They rejected their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite.

⁴⁶ "Your older sister was Samaria. She and her daughters lived north of you. Your younger sister is Sodom. She lives south of you with her daughters.

⁴⁸ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

⁴⁹ This is what your sister Sodom has done wrong. She and her daughters were proud that they had plenty of food and had peace and security. They didn't help the poor and the needy.

⁵⁰ They were arrogant and did disgusting things in front of me. So I did away with them when I saw this.

⁵¹ "Samaria didn't commit half the sins you did. You have done many more disgusting things than they ever did. Because of all the disgusting things that you have done, you make your sisters look innocent.

⁵² You will have to suffer disgrace because you accused your sisters. Yet, your sins are more disgusting than theirs. They look like they are innocent compared to you. Be ashamed of yourself and suffer disgrace, because you have made your sisters look like they are innocent.

⁵³"I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and Samaria and her daughters. I will also restore your fortune along with theirs.

⁵⁴You will have to suffer disgrace and be ashamed of everything you have done, including comforting them.

⁵⁵When Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters return to what they once were, you and your daughters will return to what you once were.

⁵⁶You didnt mention your sister Sodom when you were arrogant.

⁵⁷You didnt mention her before your wickedness was revealed. Now the daughters of Aram and their neighbors despise you. The daughters of the Philistines also despise you. Those around you hate you.

⁵⁸You must suffer because of all the crude and disgusting things you have done, declares the LORD.

⁵⁹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will give you what you deserve.

You despised your marriage vows and rejected my promise.

⁶⁰I will remember the promise that I made with you when you were young, and I will make it a promise that will last forever.

⁶¹Then you will remember what you have done. You will be ashamed when I return your older and younger sisters to you. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of my promise with you.

⁶²Then I will make my promise with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁶³You will remember and be ashamed. You will never again open your mouth because of your disgrace when I forgive you for everything you did, declares the Almighty LORD."

17 ¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, tell this riddle. Give this illustration to the nation of Israel.

³Say, This is what the Almighty LORD says: A large eagle came to Lebanon. It had large wings with long, colorful feathers. It took hold of the top of a cedar tree.

⁴It broke off the highest twig and carried it to a country of merchants. It planted the twig in a city of merchants.

⁵"Then it took a seedling from that country and planted the seedling in fertile soil. The eagle planted the seedling like a willow where there was plenty of water.

⁶The plant sprouted and grew into a low vine that spread over the ground. Its branches turned upward toward the eagle, but its roots grew downward. So it became a vine, producing branches and growing shoots.

⁷"There was another large eagle with large wings and many feathers. Now, the vine stretched its roots toward this eagle and sent its branches toward the eagle so that the eagle could water it. The vine turned away from the garden where it was planted.

⁸It was planted in good soil beside plenty of water so that it could grow branches, bear fruit, and become a wonderful vine.

⁹"Tell the nation of Israel, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Will this vine live and grow? Wont the first eagle uproot it and tear off its fruit? Then it will wither. All the leaves on its branches will wither. It won't take much strength or many people to pull the vine up by its roots.

¹⁰It might be planted again, but will it live and grow? It will wither completely when the east wind blows on it. It will certainly wither in the garden where it is growing."

¹¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹²"Ask these rebellious people, Don't you know what this means? Tell them, The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and captured its king and its leaders. He brought them home with him to Babylon.

¹³Then he took someone from the royal family, made a treaty with him, and made him promise to be loyal. He took away the leading citizens from Judah ¹⁴so that it would remain a humiliated country and be unable to regain its power. The country could only survive by keeping the treaty.

¹⁵But the king of Judah rebelled against the king of Babylon by sending his messengers to Egypt to get horses and many soldiers. Will the king of Judah succeed? Will anyone who does such things escape? He can't break a treaty and go unpunished.

¹⁶"As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, the king of Judah will die in Babylonia. He will die in the country of the king who appointed him king of Judah. The king of Judah broke his promise and his treaty with the king of Babylon.

¹⁷Even with a large army and many people, Pharaoh will not be able to help him in battle when the Babylonians put up dirt ramps and set up blockades to kill many people.

¹⁸The king of Judah broke the promise and the treaty that he pledged to keep. He did all these things, and he can't go unpunished.

¹⁹"So this is what the Almighty LORD says: As I live, I will certainly punish you for rejecting my promise and hating my treaty.

²⁰I will spread my net over you to catch you in my trap. I will take you to Babylon and judge you there for rebelling against me.

²¹ The best of your troops will die in battle. Anyone who remains will be scattered in every direction that the wind blows. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

²² "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I, too, will take hold of the top of a cedar tree. I will break off the highest twig and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

²³ I will plant it on a high mountain in Israel. It will grow branches and produce fruit. It will become a magnificent cedar tree. Every kind of bird will nest in it and find a home in the shelter of its branches.

²⁴ Then all the trees in the field will know that I am the LORD. I cut down tall trees, and I make small trees grow tall. I dry up green trees, and I make dry trees grow. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it."

18¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "What do you mean when you use this proverb about the land of Israel: Fathers have eaten sour grapes, and their childrens teeth are set on edge?

³As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you will no longer use this proverb in Israel.

⁴The life of every person belongs to me. Fathers and their children belong to me. The person who sins will die.

⁵"Suppose a righteous person does what is fair and right.

⁶He doesn't eat at the illegal mountain worship sites or look for help from the idols of the nation of Israel. He doesn't dishonor his neighbor's wife or have sexual intercourse with a woman while she is having her period.

⁷He doesn't oppress anyone. He returns what a borrower gives him as security for a loan. He doesn't rob anyone. He gives food to people who are hungry, and he gives clothes to those who are naked.

⁸He doesn't lend money for interest or make an excessive profit. He refuses to do evil things, and he judges everyone fairly.

⁹He lives by my rules and obeys my laws faithfully. This person is righteous. He will certainly live," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁰"But suppose this person has a son who robs and murders. The son does all the things ¹¹ that his father never did. He eats at the illegal mountain worship sites. He dishonors his neighbors wife.

¹²He oppresses the poor and needy. He robs. He doesnt return the security for a loan. He looks to idols for help. He does disgusting things.

¹³He lends money for interest and makes excessive profits. Will this person live? He will not live. He has done all these disgusting things. So he must die, and he will be responsible for his own death.

¹⁴"But suppose this person has a son. The son sees all the sins that his father does. He is afraid, so he doesnt do such things.

¹⁵He doesnt eat at the illegal mountain worship sites or look for help from the idols of the nation of Israel. He doesnt dishonor his neighbors wife.

¹⁶He doesnt oppress anyone. He doesnt keep the security for a loan. He doesnt rob anyone. He gives food to people who are hungry, and he gives clothes to those who are naked.

¹⁷ He refuses to hurt the poor. He doesn't charge interest or make excessive profits. He obeys my rules and lives by my laws. He won't die for his father's sins. He will certainly live.

¹⁸ But his father has oppressed others, robbed his relative, and done what is wrong among his people. So the father will die because of his sin.

¹⁹ "But you ask, Why isn't the son punished for his father's sin? It is because the son has done what is fair and right. He obeyed my rules and followed them. He will certainly live.

²⁰ The person who sins will die. A son will not be punished for his father's sins, and a father will not be punished for his son's sins. The righteousness of the righteous person will be his own, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be his own.

²¹ "But suppose a wicked person turns away from all the sins that he has done. He obeys all my laws and does what is fair and right. He will certainly live. He will not die.

²²All the rebellious things that he did will not be remembered. He will live because of the right things that he did.

²³"I don't want wicked people to die," declares the Almighty LORD. "I want them to turn from their evil ways and live.

²⁴"But suppose a righteous person turns away from doing right and he does evil things. He does all the disgusting things that the wicked person did. Will he live? All the right things that he has done will not be remembered because of his unfaithfulness and because of his sin. He will die because of them.

²⁵"But you say, The LORD's way is unfair. Listen, nation of Israel, isn't my way fair? Isn't it your ways that are unfair?

²⁶When a righteous person turns away from doing right and does evil things, he will die. He will die because of the evil things he has done.

²⁷When a wicked person turns away from the wicked things that he has done and does what is fair and right, he will live.

²⁸He realized what he was doing and turned away from all the rebellious things that he had done. He will certainly live. He will not die.

²⁹"But the nation of Israel says, The Lords way is unfair. Isnt my way fair, nation of Israel? Isnt it your ways that are unfair?

³⁰"That is why I will judge each of you by what you have done, people of Israel," declares the Almighty LORD. "Change the way you think and act. Turn away from all the rebellious things that you have done so that you will not fall into sin.

³¹Stop all the rebellious things that you are doing. Get yourselves new hearts and new spirits. Why do you want to die, nation of Israel?

³²I dont want anyone to die," declares the Almighty LORD. "Change the way you think and act!"

19¹ Sing a funeral song for the princes of Israel.

²Say: Your mother was like a lioness. She lay down among the lions. She fed many cubs.

³One of the cubs she raised became a young lion. He learned to tear apart the animals he hunted. He ate people.

⁴The nations heard about him, caught him in their pit, and brought him with hooks to Egypt.

⁵The lioness waited until she saw that there was no more hope. Then she took another one of her cubs and raised him into a young lion.

⁶He became a young lion, and he prowled among the lions. He learned to tear apart the animals he hunted. He ate people.

⁷He destroyed fortresses and turned cities into wastelands. The land and everyone living in it were terrified by the sound of his roar.

⁸The nations from every region came together against him. They spread their net over him and caught him in their pit.

⁹With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They put him in prison so that his roar wouldnt be heard anymore on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Your mother was like a grapevine that was planted near water. It had a lot of fruit and many branches because there was plenty of water.

¹¹ Its branches were strong. They were used to make scepters for kings. It grew to be tall with many branches around it, and everyone saw it because of its many branches.

¹² But in anger it was uprooted and thrown to the ground. The east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches broke off. They withered and were burned.

¹³ Now it is planted in the desert, in a dry and waterless land.

¹⁴ Fire has spread from the vines main branch. Fire has destroyed its fruit. It no longer has any strong branches that could be used as a kings scepter. This is a funeral song. It is to be used as a funeral song.

20¹ On the tenth day of the fifth month in the seventh year, some of the leaders of Israel came to ask for the LORDS help. They sat in front of me.

² Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

³ "Son of man, speak to the leaders of Israel. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Are you coming to ask me for help? As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you will not be allowed to ask me for help.

⁴"Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Tell them about the disgusting things their ancestors did.

⁵Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: When I chose Israel, I raised my hand and swore an oath to the descendants of Jacobs family. I made myself known to them in Egypt. I made a promise to them and said, "I am the LORD your God."

⁶At that time I promised to bring them out of Egypt to a land that I had chosen for them. This land is the most beautiful land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

⁷I said to them, "Get rid of the detestable idols that you look to for help. Dont dishonor yourselves with the disgusting idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."

⁸"But they rebelled against me and refused to listen to me. Not one of them got rid of the detestable idols that they looked to for help. They didnt abandon the disgusting idols of Egypt. So I was going to pour out my fury on them and unleash my anger on them in Egypt.

⁹But I acted so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations where they were living. While other nations were watching, I made myself known to them by bringing the Israelites out of Egypt.

¹⁰"So I brought the Israelites out of Egypt and led them into the desert.

¹¹I gave them my laws and made my rules known to them. If people obey them they will live.

¹²I also gave them certain days to worship me as a sign between us so that they would know that I, the LORD, made them holy.

¹³"But the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They didnt live by my laws, and they rejected my rules. If people obey them, they will live. They dishonored the days to worship me. So I was going to pour out my fury on them in the desert and completely wipe them out.

¹⁴But I acted so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations who had watched me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

¹⁵I also swore an oath to them in the desert. I swore that I would not bring them into the land that I had promised to give them. This land is the most beautiful land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁶They rejected my rules, and they didn't live by my laws. They dishonored the days to worship me, because their hearts chased disgusting idols.

¹⁷But I had compassion on them. I didn't destroy them or completely wipe them out in the desert.

¹⁸I said to their children in the desert, "Don't live by the laws of your ancestors. Don't obey their rules or dishonor yourselves with their disgusting idols.

¹⁹I am the LORD your God. Live by my laws. Obey my rules and follow them.

²⁰Set apart certain holy days to worship me. This will be a sign between me and you so that you will know that I am the LORD your God."

²¹"But they rebelled against me. They didn't live by my laws, and they didn't obey my rules and follow them. If people obey them, they will live. They dishonored the days to worship me. So I was going to pour out my fury on them and unleash my anger on them in the desert.

²²But I didn't use my power so that my name would not be dishonored among the nations who had watched me bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

²³I raised my hand and swore an oath to them in the desert. I promised to scatter them among the nations and force them into other countries.

²⁴They didn't follow my rules, and they rejected my laws. They dishonored the days to worship me, and they looked to their ancestors disgusting idols for help.

²⁵I also allowed them to follow laws that were no good and rules by which they could not live.

²⁶I let them dishonor themselves when they sacrificed all their firstborn sons as gifts to their false gods. I terrified them so that they would know that I am the LORD.

²⁷"Speak to the nation of Israel, son of man. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your ancestors insulted me again because they were unfaithful to me.

²⁸I brought them to the land that I promised to give them. When they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, they made sacrifices and brought offerings there to make me angry. There they offered their sacrifices and poured out their wine offerings.

²⁹Then I asked them, "What is this worship site you're going to?" (So it is still called worship site today.)

³¹You offer your children as sacrifices by burning them alive. You dishonor yourselves with all your disgusting idols to this day. Should you be allowed to ask me for help, nation of Israel? "As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, you won't be allowed to ask me for help.

³²What you have in mind will never happen. You think that you want to be like other nations, like the different people in other countries. You want to serve wood and stone.

³³"As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will rule you with a mighty hand and a powerful arm, and I will pour out my fury.

³⁴I will bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where I have scattered you with my mighty hand and powerful arm. I will pour out my fury.

³⁵I will bring you into the desert of the nations. There I will put you on trial face to face.

³⁶I will put you on trial as I put your ancestors on trial in the desert of Egypt, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁷Then I will make you suffer punishment and make you keep the terms of the promise.

³⁸I will get rid of rebels and those who do wrong against me. I will bring you out of the land where you are living. You will never enter Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹"Nation of Israel, this is what the Almighty LORD says: Serve your disgusting idols. But afterwards, you will listen to me. You will no longer dishonor my holy name with your gifts and your disgusting idols.

⁴⁰"The entire nation of Israel, everyone in the land, will worship me on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD. There I will accept you. There I will look for your offerings, your best gifts, and all your holy gifts.

⁴¹When I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, I will accept you as if you were a pleasing sacrifice. Through you I will reveal myself as holy to the nations that are watching.

⁴²Then you will know that I am the LORD, because I will bring you to the land of Israel, the land that I promised to give your ancestors.

⁴³There you will remember the way you lived and everything you did to dishonor yourselves. You will be disgusted by every wrong thing that you did.

⁴⁴Then you will know that I am the LORD, because I will deal with you for the sake of my name. I will not deal with you based on the evil and corrupt things that you have done, nation of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD."

⁴⁵The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁴⁶"Son of man, turn to the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest in the Negev.

⁴⁷Tell the forest in the Negev, Listen to the word of the LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am about to set fire to you to destroy all your green trees and all your dry trees. The blazing fire will not be put out. It will burn the whole land from the south to the north.

⁴⁸Then everyone will know that I, the LORD, started the fire. It will never be put out."

⁴⁹Then I said, "Oh no! Almighty LORD, no! The people already say that I'm only telling stories."

21 ¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, turn to Jerusalem, preach against the holy places. Prophecy against the land of Israel.

³Tell the land of Israel, This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will take my sword out of its scabbard and kill the righteous people and the wicked people among you.

⁴Im going to kill the righteous people and the wicked people among you. That is why my sword will come out of its scabbard to be used against everyone from the south to the north.

⁵Then everyone will know that I, the LORD, have taken my sword from its scabbard, and I will not put it back again.

⁶"So, son of man, groan with a breaking heart and with bitter crying while the people watch you.

⁷When they ask you why you are groaning, say, News has come that will discourage everyone. Peoples hands will hang limp, their hearts will lose courage, and their knees will become as weak as water. Its coming! It will surely take place! declares the Almighty LORD."

⁸The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹"Son of man, prophesy. Tell them, This is what the Lord says: A sword, a sword is sharpened and polished, ¹⁰Its sharpened to kill and polished to flash like lightning. How can we rejoice?

My son has refused to be disciplined or punished.

¹¹ The sword has been handed over to be polished, to be placed in the hand. The sword is being sharpened and polished to be placed in the hands of killers.

¹² "Cry and mourn, son of man, because the sword will be used against my people and against all the princes of Israel. I will throw the princes and my people on the sword. So beat your breast, and grieve.

¹³ Testing will surely come. What if you refuse to be disciplined again? Wont you be tested? declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁴ So prophesy, son of man. Clap your hands! Let the sword strike again and again. Its the sword for killing. Its the sword for killing many people. Its the sword that surrounds them.

¹⁵ I have appointed my sword to slaughter people at all their gates so that their hearts will sink and many will die. Yes! Its ready to flash like lightning. Its polished to kill.

¹⁶ Sword, cut to the right. Cut to the left or wherever your blade is turned.

¹⁷ I will also clap my hands and rest from my fury. I, the LORD, have spoken."

¹⁸ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁹ "Son of man, mark two roads that the king of Babylon and his sword can take. Both of these roads should start from the same country. Make a sign, and put it where the roads start to fork toward the cities.

²⁰ Mark the road that the king and his sword can take to the Ammonite city of Rabbah, and mark the road that leads to Judah and the fortified city of Jerusalem.

²² The omens will indicate that he should go to the right, to Jerusalem. So he will set up his battering rams there, give the order to kill, raise a battle cry, aim the battering rams against the city gates, put up ramps, and set up blockades.

²³The people won't believe this because they have made treaties with other nations. But the king of Babylon will remind them of their sins, and they will be captured.

²⁴"This is what the Almighty LORD says: You make people remember how sinful you are because you openly do wrong. You show your sins in everything you do. So you will be taken captive.

²⁵"You dishonest and wicked prince of Israel, the time for your final punishment has come.

²⁶This is what the Almighty LORD says: Take off your turban, and get rid of your crown. Things are going to change. Those who are unimportant will become important, and those who are important will become unimportant.

²⁷Ruins! Ruins! I will turn this place into ruins! It will not be restored until its rightful owner comes. Then I will give it to him.

²⁸"Son of man, prophesy. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says about the Ammonites and their insults: A sword, a sword is drawn ready to kill.

Its polished to destroy and flash like lightning.

²⁹ People see false visions about you and prophesy lies about you. The sword will be placed on the necks of dishonest, wicked people, for whom the time of final punishment has come.

³⁰ "Return your sword to its scabbard. In the place where you were created, in the land where you were born, there I will judge you.

³¹ I will pour out my fury on you and breathe on you with my fiery anger. I will hand you over to cruel people who are skilled in destruction.

³² You will be fuel for the fire. You will die in the land. You will no longer be remembered. I, the LORD, have spoken."

22¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Will you judge, son of man? Will you judge the city of murderers? Then tell it about all the disgusting things that it has done.

³ Tell it, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Jerusalem, you are the city that murders people who live in you. Your time has come. You dishonor yourself with disgusting idols.

⁴You are guilty because of the people you have killed. You are dishonored because of the disgusting idols you have made. You have brought an end to your days, and you have come to the end of your years. That is why I will make you a disgrace to the nations and a joke in every land.

⁵Those near and those far away will mock you. Your name will be dishonored, and you will be filled with confusion.

⁶"See how all the princes of Israel who live in you have used their power to murder people.

⁷People in you hate their fathers and mothers. They oppress foreigners in you. They oppress orphans and widows in you.

⁸You have despised my holy things and dishonored the day to worship me.

⁹Some of your people slander. They want to kill people. People who live in you eat food sacrificed to idols at the worship sites on the hills, and they sin sexually.

¹⁰Men have sex with their fathers wives. They have sex with women when the women are having their periods and are unclean.

¹¹Men do disgusting things with their neighbors wives. Some men sexually dishonor their daughtersinlaw. Other men who live in you have sex with their sisters, their fathers daughters.

¹²Other people take bribes to murder people. You collect interest and make excessive profits. You make profits by mistreating your neighbors. You have forgotten me, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹³"I will use my power against you because of the excessive profits you have made and the murders you have committed.

¹⁴Will you still be brave? Will you remain strong when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

¹⁵I will scatter you among the nations and force you into other countries. I will put an end to your uncleanness.

¹⁶You will be dishonored in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

¹⁷ Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁸ "Son of man, the people of Israel have become worthless to me. All of them are like copper, tin, iron, and lead in a smelting furnace. They are like the impurities left from silver.

¹⁹ This is what the Almighty LORD says: All of you have become worthless. That is why I'm going to gather you in Jerusalem.

²⁰ People gather silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin together in a smelting furnace to melt them with a fiery blast. In the same way, in my anger and fury I will gather you and put you in the city. I will melt you there.

²¹ Yes, I will gather you, breathe on you with my fiery anger, and melt you in the city.

²² You will be melted in the city like silver that is melted in a furnace. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on you."

²³ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁴ "Son of man, tell the city, You are an unclean land that has not had rain during the day of my anger. You have not been made clean.

²⁵Your princes are like roaring lions who tear their prey into pieces. They eat people and take their treasures and precious belongings. They turn many women into widows.

²⁶Your priests violate my teachings and dishonor my holy things. They don't distinguish between what is holy and what is unholy. They don't teach the difference between what is clean and what is unclean. They ignore the days to worship me. So I am dishonored among the people.

²⁷Your leaders are like wolves that tear their prey into pieces. They murder and destroy people to make excessive profits.

²⁸Your prophets cover up these things by seeing false visions and by prophesying lies. They say, "This is what the Almighty LORD says." Yet, the LORD hasn't spoken.

²⁹The common people oppress and rob others. They do wrong to humble people and to poor people. They oppress foreigners for no reason.

³⁰"I looked for someone among you who could build walls or stand in front of me by the gaps in the walls to defend the land and keep it from being destroyed. But I couldn't find anyone.

³¹So I will pour out my anger on you, and with my fiery anger I will consume you. This is because of all the things you have done," declares the Almighty LORD.

23¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, there were once two women, daughters of the same mother.

³They became prostitutes in Egypt when they were young. There men fondled and caressed their breasts.

⁴"The older girl was named Oholah, and the younger girl was named Oholibah. I married them, and they gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah represents Samaria, and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

⁵Oholah acted like a prostitute, although she was my wife. She lusted after her Assyrian lovers who lived nearby.

⁶They were governors and commanders clothed in purple. They were all handsome young men who rode on horses.

⁷She became a prostitute for all the important men in Assyria. She dishonored herself with the idols of all those with whom she fell in love.

⁸She continued the prostitution that she started in Egypt. When she was young, men went to bed with her, caressed her breasts, and treated her like a prostitute.

⁹"That is why I handed her over to her lovers, to the Assyrians whom she lusted after.

¹⁰They stripped her naked, took away her sons and daughters, and killed her with a sword. Women gossiped about how she was punished.

¹¹"Even though her younger sister Oholibah saw this, Oholibah lusted after men more than her sister did. Oholibah's prostitution became worse than her sister's prostitution.

¹²She lusted after the Assyrians who were nearby. They were governors and commanders in full dress. They were mounted horsemen, all of them desirable young men.

¹³I saw that she was dishonoring herself. Both sisters acted the same way.

¹⁴Yet, she carried her prostitution even further. She saw pictures of men carved on walls. They were figures of Babylonian men, painted in bright red.

¹⁵The men had belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads. All of them looked like Babylonian officers who were born in Babylon.

¹⁶She fell in love with them at first sight and sent messengers to them in Babylonia.

¹⁷So these men came from Babylon, went to bed with her, and dishonored her with their lust. After they had dishonored her, she turned away from them in disgust.

¹⁸"She carried out her prostitution openly, and she lay around naked. I turned away from her in disgust as I had turned away from her sister.

¹⁹She remembered how she had been a prostitute in Egypt when she was young. So she took part in even more prostitution.

²⁰She lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose semen was like that of horses.

²¹So she longed to do the sinful things she did when she was young in Egypt, when young men caressed and fondled her breasts.

²²"Oholibah, this is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to stir up your lovers against you. They are the lovers you turned away from in disgust. I will bring them against you from every side.

²³I will bring men from Babylon and from all Babylonia, men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, as well as all the Assyrians. They are desirable young men, governors and commanders, military officers and important men. All of them ride on horses.

²⁴They will attack you from the north, with chariots and wagons and with a large number of troops. They will attack you from all around with small and large shields and with helmets. I have handed you over to them for punishment. They will punish you with their own kind of punishment.

²⁵I will direct my burning anger against you so that they will deal with you in anger. They will cut off your nose and ears and kill everyone who remains. They will take your sons and your daughters and burn down whatever is left.

²⁶They will rip off your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels.

²⁷I will put a stop to your sinning and to your prostitution, which you began in Egypt. You won't desire these things anymore or remember Egypt anymore.

²⁸"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to hand you over to those you hate and to those you turned away from in disgust.

²⁹They will treat you hatefully and take away everything that you have worked for. They will leave you naked and bare. The shame of your prostitution will be revealed.

³⁰Your sinning and your prostitution have done this to you, because you lusted after the nations and dishonored yourself with their idols.

³¹ Youve acted the same way as your sister. That is why I will put her cup in your hand.

³² This is what the Almighty LORD says: You will drink from your sisters cup, a cup that is deep and wide. You will be scorned and mocked, because this cup holds so much.

³³ The cup of your sister Samaria will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow.

³⁴ You will drink from it and drain it. You will break it into pieces and tear your breasts off your body. I have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁵ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: You have forgotten me and turned your back on me. So you will be punished for your sinning and prostitution."

³⁶ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah and tell them about their disgusting practices?

³⁷ They have committed adultery. Their hands are covered with blood. They commit adultery with their idols. They have sacrificed the children they gave birth to for me as burnt offerings to idols.

³⁸They have also done this to me: They have polluted my holy places when they do these things and dishonored the days to worship me.

³⁹When they sacrificed their children to their idols, they came into my holy place and dishonored it. That is what theyve done in my temple.

⁴⁰"They even sent messengers to invite men to come from far away. When the men arrived, they washed themselves for the men, painted their eyes, and put on their jewels.

⁴¹They sat on their fine couches with tables in front of them. They put my incense and my olive oil on their tables.

⁴²"I heard the noise from a carefree crowd. A large number of people came from the desert, and they put bracelets on the womens wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads.

⁴³Then I said, She is worn out from her acts of adultery. Yet, men continued to have sex with her.

⁴⁴Men slept with her. They slept with those sinful women, Oholah and Oholibah just as they slept with a prostitute.

⁴⁵ Righteous people will punish these women for adultery and for murder, because these women have committed adultery and their hands are covered with blood.

⁴⁶ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Bring together a mob against the people of Samaria and Jerusalem. Hand them over to terror and looting.

⁴⁷ Then the mob will stone them and kill them with swords. The mob will kill their sons and daughters and burn their homes.

⁴⁸ So I will put a stop to the sinning in the land, and all the women will be warned not to sin as they do.

⁴⁹ They will be punished for their sins, and they will pay for their sin of idolatry. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

24¹ On the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ² "Son of man, write down today's date. The king of Babylon has surrounded Jerusalem this very day.

³ Tell these rebellious people a story. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Put the pot on the fire; put it on. Pour water in it.

⁴Cut the meat into pieces, all the best pieces, the thigh and shoulder. Fill the pot with the meatiest bones ⁵selected from the best sheep. Pile wood under the pot. Bring the mixture in the pot to a boil. Cook the bones that are in it well.

⁷Blood is still in that city. The blood was poured on a bare rock. It wasn't poured on the ground where dust would cover it.

⁸In order to stir up my fury so that I would pay that city back, I put the blood of its victims on a bare rock. Now that blood can't be covered.

⁹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for that city of murderers. I, too, will pile the wood high.

¹⁰Pile it high, and light the fire. Cook the meat thoroughly, stir the mixture, and let the bones burn.

¹¹Then set the empty pot on the coals so that it gets hot and its copper glows. Its impurities will melt away, and its tarnish will burn off.

¹²"I have worn myself out trying to clean this pot. Even the fire cant take away its thick tarnish.

¹³I tried to clean you of your filthy lust, but you wouldnt clean yourself from your filth. You will never be clean until I unleash my fury on you.

¹⁴I, the LORD, have spoken. It will happen, and I will do it. I will not ignore you, pity you, or change my plans. I will punish you because of the way you lived and because of everything you have done," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁶"Son of man, with one blow Im going to take away from you the person you love the most. But you must not mourn, cry, or let tears run down your face.

¹⁷Groan silently. Dont grieve for the person who dies. Tie on your turban, and put on your sandals. Dont cover your face or eat the food that mourners eat."

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I was ordered.

¹⁹The people asked me, "Tell us, what do these things that you are doing mean to us?"

²⁰I told them, "The LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²¹Tell the nation of Israel, "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Im going to dishonor my holy place. You brag that my holy place gives you strength. Its the thing you love the most. Its your hearts desire. So the sons and daughters that you left behind will die in battle.

²²Then you must do as I did. Dont cover your faces or eat the food that mourners eat.

²³Leave your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. Dont grieve or cry! You will waste away because of your guilt and groan to one another.

²⁴ Ezekiel is a sign to you. You will do everything he has done. Then you will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

²⁵ "Son of man, on that day I will take their stronghold away from them. It makes them happy and proud. It is their hearts desire and the thing they love the most. I will also take away their sons and daughters.

²⁶ On that day a refugee will come to you to tell you the news.

²⁷ On that very day your mouth will be opened, and you will talk to the refugee. You will speak and not be silent anymore. You will be a sign to them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

25 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, turn to the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

³ Tell the Ammonites, Listen to the word of the Almighty LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says: You were glad when my holy place was dishonored, when the land of Israel was ruined, and when the nation of Judah went into exile.

⁴ That is why I'm going to hand you over to the people in the east. They will possess your land. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your crops and drink your milk.

⁵I will turn Rabbah into a pasture for camels, and I will turn Ammon into a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁶"This is what the Almighty LORD says: You clapped your hands and stomped your feet. You rejoiced and felt contempt for the land of Israel.

⁷That is why I will use my power against you and hand you over to the nations as loot. I will wipe you out from among the nations, make you disappear, and destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸"This is what the Almighty LORD says: Moab and Seir said, "The nation of Judah is like all the other nations."

⁹That is why I'm going to open up the cities that protect Moab's borders. They are the beautiful cities of Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim.

¹⁰I will hand the Moabites and the Ammonites over to the people in the east. So the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations.

¹¹ I will punish Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

¹² "This is what the Almighty LORD says: Edom took revenge on the nation of Judah and became guilty because of it.

¹³ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I will use my power against Edom. I will wipe out people and animals. I will turn the land into ruins from Teman to Dedan. People will die in battle.

¹⁴ I will use my people Israel to take revenge on Edom. My people will deal with Edom based on my anger and my fury. Then the Edomites will know my revenge, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm going to use my power against the Philistines, cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the people that are left on the coast.

¹⁷I will take fierce revenge on them and punish them with fury. I will take revenge on them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

26¹ On the first day of the month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²"Son of man, Tyre said this about Jerusalem: The city that was the gateway for the nations is destroyed, and its doors are swung open to me. I'll get rich now that its ruined.

³So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Tyre. I will bring many nations against you as the waves on the sea rise.

⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down its towers. Then I will sweep up the dust and turn Tyre into a bare rock.

⁵It will become a place by the sea where people spread their fishing nets. I have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD. It will become a prize for the nations.

⁶The people in the villages and on the mainland will die in battle. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ He will destroy the villages on your mainland. He will set up blockades, put up dirt ramps, and raise his shields against you.

⁹ He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and he will cut down your towers with his axes.

¹⁰ He will have so many horses that their dust will cover you. The noise from the war horses, wagon wheels, and chariots will shake your walls when he enters your gates. He will enter as people enter a conquered city.

¹¹ With his horses hoofs he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people in battle, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

¹² His troops will loot your riches and take your goods as prizes. They will destroy your walls and tear down your delightful homes. They will throw your stones, wood, and soil into the water.

¹³"I will put a stop to your noisy songs, and the music from your harps will no longer be heard.

¹⁴I will turn you into bare rock. You will become a place to spread fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt. I, the LORD, have spoken, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵"This is what the Almighty LORD says to Tyre: The people who live on the coast will shake with fear when they hear about your defeat. They will groan when your people are wounded and slaughtered.

¹⁶Then the princes from the coast will come down from their thrones. They will remove their robes and take off their embroidered clothes. Dressed in terror, they will sit on the ground. They will tremble constantly and be shocked at you.

¹⁷Then they will sing this funeral song for you: Tyre, you famous city, you have been destroyed. You have been shattered by the sea. You and your people ruled the sea. All your people terrified those who lived by the coast.

¹⁸Your defeat will make the people who live by the coast tremble. Your end will terrify the islands in the sea.

¹⁹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will turn your city into ruins like cities that have no one living in them. I will bring the deep ocean over you, and the Mediterranean Sea will cover you.

²⁰I will bring you down with those who descend to the grave to join the people of long ago. I will make you live below the earth among the ancient ruins with those who go down to the grave. You will never return or take your place in the land of the living.

²¹I will turn you into a terror, and you will no longer exist. People will look for you, but they will never see you again," declares the Almighty LORD.

27¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, sing a funeral song about Tyre.

³Tyre is the city at the entrance to the sea. It is the merchant to the nations. Say to Tyre, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Tyre, you used to brag about your perfect beauty.

⁴Your home is the sea. "Your builders made your beauty perfect.

⁵Your builders made all your boards from pine trees on Mount Hermon. They took cedar trees from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶They made your oars from oaks in Bashan. They made your deck from pine trees on the shores of Cyprus. It had ivory set in it.

⁷Your sails were made out of fine embroidered linen from Egypt. They were like your flags. Your awnings were violet and purple. They came from the coasts of Elishah.

⁸"People from Sidon and Arvad used to row you. Your own skilled people were your sailors.

⁹Master shipbuilders from Gebal went inside you to caulk your seams. All the ships on the sea and their sailors docked alongside you to trade with you.

¹⁰People from Persia, Lud, and Put were soldiers in your army. They hung their shields and helmets inside you. Their victories made you look good.

¹¹"People from Arvad and Helech were guards all around your walls. People from Gammad guarded your towers.

They hung their shields all around your walls, making your beauty perfect.

¹²"People from Tarshish traded with you because you were so very rich. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise.

¹³People from Greece, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you. They exchanged slaves and bronze items for your goods.

¹⁴People from Beth Togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise.

¹⁵People from Dedan traded goods with you. You traded with many people on the coasts, and they brought you ivory and ebony as payment.

¹⁶"People from Syria traded with you because you had so many products. They exchanged emeralds, purple cloth, richly woven cloth, linen, coral, and rubies for your merchandise.

¹⁷Judah and Israel traded with you. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, baked goods, honey, olive oil, and balsam for your goods.

¹⁸ People from Damascus traded with you because you had so many products. They exchanged wine from Helbon and wool from Sahar.

¹⁹ "Danites and Greeks from Uzal traded for your merchandise. They exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and sugar cane for your goods.

²⁰ Dedan traded saddle blankets with you.

²¹ Arabia and all the officials of Kedar traded with you. They traded lambs, rams, and male goats.

²² The merchants from Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded the finest spices, precious stones, and gold for your merchandise.

²³ Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants from Sheba, Assyria, and Kilmad traded with you.

²⁴ In your marketplace they traded for beautiful clothes, purple robes, embroidered cloth, and many multicolored rugs with woven and twisted cords.

²⁵ "Ships from Tarshish carried your goods. You were like a ship filled with heavy cargo in the sea.

²⁶Your rowers took you out to the high seas, and an east wind wrecked you in the sea.

²⁷Your wealth, your merchandise, and the goods you sell, your mariners and your sailors, your caulkers and your merchants, your soldiers and everyone else on board sank into the sea when your ship was wrecked.

²⁸"When your sailors cried out, people on the shore trembled.

²⁹All the rowers, the sailors, and all the mariners came down from their ships and stood on the shore.

³⁰They cried loudly and bitterly over you. They put dust on their heads and covered themselves with ashes.

³¹They shaved their heads because of you and put on sackcloth. They cried over you with bitterness and with bitter mourning.

³²They sang a funeral song for you with loud crying: "Who is like Tyre, the city destroyed in the sea?"

³³Your merchandise was sent overseas. You filled many people with your great wealth and your goods. You made the kings of the earth rich.

³⁴ Now you are wrecked in the sea, at the bottom of the sea. Your goods and your whole crew sank with you.

³⁵ All those who live on the coasts are horrified because of you. Their kings are terribly afraid. Their faces show their fear.

³⁶ The merchants among the nations laugh at you. You have come to a terrible end, and you will never exist again."

28¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, tell the ruler of Tyre, This is what the Almighty LORD says: In your arrogance you say, "I'm a god. I sit on Gods throne in the sea." But youre only human and not a god, although you think you are a god.

³ You think that you are wiser than Daniel and that no secret can be hidden from you.

⁴ Because you are wise and understanding, youve made yourself rich. You saved gold and silver in your treasuries.

⁵ Because of your great skill in trading, youve made yourself very wealthy. You have become arrogant because of your wealth.

⁶"This is what the Almighty LORD says: You think you are wise like God.

⁷That is why I am going to bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless foreigners among the nations. They will draw their swords against your fine wisdom and dishonor your greatness.

⁸They will throw you into a pit, and you will die a violent death in the sea.

⁹You will no longer say that you are a god when you face those who kill you. You will be a human, not a god, in the hands of those who kill you.

¹⁰You will die at the hands of foreigners like a godless person. I have spoken," declares the LORD.

¹¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹²"Son of man, sing a funeral song for the ruler of Tyre. Tell him, This is what the Almighty LORD says: You were the perfect example, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³You were in Eden, Gods garden. You were covered with every kind of precious stone: red quartz, topaz, crystal, beryl, onyx, gray quartz, sapphire, turquoise, and emerald. Your settings and your sockets were made of gold when you were created.

¹⁴I appointed an angel to guard you. You were on Gods holy mountain. You walked among fiery stones.

¹⁵Your behavior was perfect from the time you were created, until evil was found in you.

¹⁶You traded far and wide. You learned to be violent, and you sinned. So I threw you down from Gods mountain in disgrace. The guardian angel forced you out from the fiery stones.

¹⁷You became too proud because of your beauty. You wasted your wisdom because of your greatness. So I threw you to the ground and left you in front of the kings so that they could see you.

¹⁸You dishonored your own holy places because of your many sins and dishonest trade. So I set fire to you to burn you up. I turned you into ashes on the ground in the presence of all who saw you.

¹⁹All the nations who knew you are horrified because of you. You have come to a terrible end, and you will never exist again."

²⁰The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²¹"Son of man, turn to Sidon and prophesy against it.

²²Tell it, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Sidon. I will show my greatness through you. Then people will know that I am the LORD, because I will punish you and show you how holy I am.

²³I will send a plague against you and make blood flow in your streets. Your people will fall dead. People with swords will attack you from every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

²⁴The nation of Israel will no longer be hurt by prickly thorns or sharp briars from everyone around them. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD.

²⁵"This is what the Almighty LORD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the nations where they were scattered, I will show that I am holy as the nations watch. The people of Israel will live in their own land, the land I gave to my servant Jacob.

²⁶They will live there in safety. They will build homes and plant vineyards. They will live in safety when I punish all the surrounding people who treat them with scorn. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God."

29¹ On the twelfth day of the tenth month in the tenth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²"Son of man, turn to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

³Tell him, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. You are like a monster crocodile lying in the Nile River. You say, "The Nile River is mine. I made it for myself."

⁴"I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish in the Nile River stick to your scales. I will pull you out of your river with all the fish in the Nile sticking to your scales.

⁵I will leave you in the desert, you and all the fish from the Nile. You will fall in an open field. No one will pick you up or bury you. I will feed you to wild animals and birds.

⁶Then all those living in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. Egypt, you have become like a broken walking stick to the nation of Israel.

⁷When Israel grabbed you, you splintered and tore up their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke, and they wrenched their backs.

⁸"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am going to attack you with a sword. I will kill people and animals.

⁹Egypt will become a wasteland and a pile of rubble. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You said, "The Nile River is mine. I made it."

¹⁰That is why I'm against you and the Nile River. I will turn Egypt into a pile of rubble. It will become a wasteland, from Migdol to Syene, all the way to the border of Sudan.

¹¹No human or animal will walk through it, and no one will live there for 40 years.

¹²I will make Egypt the most desolate country in the world. For 40 years Egypt's cities will lie in ruins. They will be ruined more than any other city. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries.

¹³"This is what the Almighty LORD says: After 40 years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they have been scattered.

¹⁴I will bring back the Egyptian captives and return them to Pathros, the land they came from. There they will be a weak kingdom.

¹⁵They will be the weakest kingdom, and they will never rule the nations again. I will make them so weak that they will never rule the nations again.

¹⁶The nation of Israel will never trust Egypt again. The people of Israel will remember how wrong they were whenever they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Almighty LORD."

¹⁷On the first day of the first month in the twentyseventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ¹⁸"Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made his army fight hard against Tyre. Every soldier's head was worn bald, and every soldier's shoulder was rubbed raw. Yet, he and his army got no reward for their hardfought battle against Tyre.

¹⁹This is what the Almighty LORD says: Im going to give Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth, take its prized possessions, and loot it. That will be the pay for his army.

²⁰I have given him Egypt as pay for what he has done. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked for me, declares the Almighty LORD.

²¹"On that day I will make the people of Israel strong again, and I will give you, Ezekiel, something to say among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

30¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, prophesy. Say, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Cry for that day!

³The day is near. The day of the LORD is near. It will be a gloomy day, a time of trouble for the nations.

⁴There will be war in Egypt and anguish in Ethiopia. Many Egyptians will fall dead. People will take away Egypts wealth, and its foundations will be torn down.

⁵Sudan, Put, Lud, all the Arabs, the Libyans, and people from the promised land will die in battle.

⁶"This is what the LORD says: All Egypts allies will die. Egypts strength will disappear. People will die in war from Migdol to Syene, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁷"Egypt will become the most desolate country in the world, and Egypts cities will lie in ruins. They will be ruined more than other cities.

⁸Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will set fire to Egypt and all her defenders will be killed.

⁹On that day I will send messengers in ships to terrify those who live in safety in Sudan. The people of Sudan will be in anguish when Egypt is in trouble. That day is coming!

¹⁰"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will use King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to bring an end to Egypt.

¹¹He and his troops, the most ruthless troops among the nations, will be brought to destroy the land. They will draw their swords to attack Egypt and fill the land with dead bodies.

¹²I will dry up the Nile River and sell the land to wicked people. I will have foreigners destroy the land and everything in it. I, the LORD, have spoken.

¹³"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will destroy the statues and put an end to the idols in Memphis. A prince will never rise again in Egypt. I will spread fear throughout Egypt.

¹⁴I will destroy Pathros, set fire to Zoan, and bring punishment on Thebes.

¹⁵I will pour out my fury on Sin, Egypt's fortress, and I will kill many people in Thebes.

¹⁶I will set fire to Egypt. Sin will be in much pain. Thebes will be broken into pieces, and Memphis will be in trouble every day.

¹⁷The young men from Heliopolis and Bubastis will die in battle, and people from these cities will go into exile.

¹⁸At Tahpanhes the day will turn dark when I break Egypt's power. Egypt's strong army will be defeated. Clouds will cover Egypt, and people from its villages will go into exile.

¹⁹Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will bring punishment on Egypt."

²⁰On the seventh day of the first month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²¹"Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. His arm isn't bandaged, so it can't heal and be strong enough to hold a sword.

²²"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the healthy one and the broken one. I will make the sword fall from his hand.

²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries.

²⁴I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh's arms. Pharaoh will groan like a person who is dying.

²⁵I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. He will strike Egypt with it.

²⁶I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and force them into other countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

31 ¹On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²"Son of man, say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his many people, Was there ever anyone as great as you?

³What about Assyria? It was a cedar in Lebanon with fine branches that shaded the forest. It was very tall. Its top was among the clouds.

⁴Water made the tree grow, and underground springs made it tall. Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted. Streams ran beside all the other trees around it.

⁵That is why it grew taller than all the other trees in the field. Its branches became large and long because of so much water.

⁶All the birds made their nests in its branches. All the wild animals gave birth to their young under it. All the powerful nations lived in its shade.

⁷So the tree was big and beautiful with its long branches. Its roots reached down to many sources of water.

⁸The cedar trees in Gods garden couldnt compare to it. The pine trees couldnt equal its branches. The plane trees couldnt measure up to its branches. All the trees in Gods garden couldnt match its beauty.

⁹I was the one who made it beautiful with its many branches. This tree was the envy of all the trees in Eden, in Gods garden.

¹⁰"This is what the Almighty LORD says: The tree grew very tall, and its top reached the clouds. It became arrogant because it was so tall.

¹¹So I handed it over to a mighty ruler among the nations, and he surely dealt with it. I forced it out because of its wickedness.

¹²Foreigners from the most ruthless nation cut it down and threw it away. Its branches fell on the mountains and in every valley. Its broken branches fell in every ravine in the land. All the nations in the world came out from under its shade and left.

¹³All the birds perched on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived in its branches.

¹⁴Then all the other trees growing by the water were kept from becoming arrogant because of their height, and their tops were no longer allowed to reach the clouds. So no tree, even if it is wellwatered, will ever stand that tall. Every tree is going to die and go below the earth to join those who have died and gone down to the pit.

¹⁶I made the nations tremble in fear at the sound of the trees crash. I brought the tree down to the grave to join those who had gone down to the pit. Then all the trees in Eden, the choicest and best trees of Lebanon, and all the trees that were wellwatered were comforted below the earth.

¹⁷They had gone down with the tree in the grave to join others killed in battle. All who lived in its shadow were scattered among the nations.

¹⁸"This tree is you, Pharaoh, and all your many people. No tree in Eden has ever been as honorable and as great as you. But you will be brought down below the earth with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the godless people who were killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD."

32¹ On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ²"Son of man, sing a funeral song for Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Tell him, You think you are like a lion among the nations. Instead, you are like a crocodile in the water. You splash around in the water. You stir up the water with your feet. You make the streams muddy.

³"This is what the Almighty LORD says: When many nations gather together, I will spread my net over you, and they will haul you up in a net.

⁴ I will throw you on the ground and toss you into an open field. I will make birds perch on you, and wild animals from all over the earth will feed on you.

⁵ I will scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your rotting corpse.

⁶ I will drench the earth with your flowing blood all the way to the mountains. Ravines will be filled with your dead body.

⁷ "When I put out your light, I will cover the sky and darken the stars. I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon won't shine anymore.

⁸ I will darken all the lights shining in the sky above you. I will bring darkness over your land, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁹ "I will make many people troubled when I spread the news of your destruction among the nations to countries that you haven't heard of.

¹⁰ Many people will be shocked by what I will do to you. Their kings will shudder when I swing my sword in their faces. When you die, all of them will tremble in fear for their own lives.

¹¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The sword of the king of Babylon will attack you.

¹² I will cut down your people with the swords of warriors. All of them will be the most ruthless warriors among the nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt and destroy its many people.

¹³ I will also destroy all the animals beside its many water sources. The feet of humans and the hoofs of animals won't stir up the water anymore.

¹⁴ Then I will make its water clear and make its streams flow like oil, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ I will turn Egypt into a wasteland. I will take everything in the land, and I will kill all the people who live there. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁶ "This is a funeral song. The people from the nations will sing this song. They will sing it as they mourn for Egypt and its many people," declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the LORD spoke his word to me. He said, ¹⁸"Son of man, cry for the many people of Egypt. Bring them down along with the other mighty nations. Send them down below the earth to be with those who have gone down to the pit.

¹⁹"Tell them, Are you more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and join the godless people.

²⁰"The Egyptians will lie among those who were killed in battle. A sword has been drawn. Drag Egypt and all its people away.

²¹The mightiest warriors will say to Pharaoh from the grave, You and your defenders have come down, and you now lie with the godless people who were killed in battle.

²²"Assyria is there with its whole army, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle.

²³Their graves are in the deepest parts of the pit. Assyrias army lies around its grave. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They once terrified people in the land of the living.

²⁴"Elam is there with all its soldiers, and the graves of its soldiers are all around it. All of its soldiers are dead. They have been killed in battle. They went down below the earth as godless people. They once terrified people in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit.

²⁵ A bed has been made for Elam among the dead. The graves of its soldiers are all around it. The soldiers were godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living. Now they suffer disgrace with those who have gone down to the pit. They lie among the dead.

²⁶ "Meshech and Tubal are there with all their soldiers, and the graves of their soldiers are all around them. Their soldiers were all godless people. They were killed in battle because they terrified others in the land of the living.

²⁸"You Egyptians will be crushed with the godless people, and you will lie with those who were killed in battle.

²⁹"Edom is there with its kings and its princes. They used to be powerful, but now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They lie there with the godless people and with those who have gone down to the pit.

³⁰"All the rulers from the north and all the people from Sidon are there. They, too, went down with the dead. They are disgraced because they terrified people with their power. They were godless people. Now they lie with those who were killed in battle. They suffer disgrace with those who went down to the pit.

³¹"Pharaoh and his army will see these things and be comforted over all the soldiers who have been killed in battle, declares the Almighty LORD.

³²I terrified people in the land of the living. Pharaoh and all his soldiers will be laid among the godless people who were killed in battle," declares the Almighty LORD.

33¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them, Suppose I bring war on this country, and the people of this country choose one of their men and make him their watchman.

³If he sees the enemy coming to attack the country, he will blow his horn to warn the people.

⁴If the people hear the horn and ignore the warning and the enemy comes and takes them, they will be responsible for their own deaths.

⁵They heard the sound of the horn but ignored its warning. So they are responsible for their own deaths. If they had taken the warning, they would have saved themselves.

⁶"But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't blow his horn to warn the people and the enemy comes and kills someone, that watchman must die because of his sin. I will hold him responsible for their deaths.

⁷"Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the people of Israel. Listen to what I say, and warn them for me.

⁸ Suppose I say to a wicked person, You wicked person, you will certainly die, and you say nothing to warn him to change his ways. That wicked person will die because of his sin, and I will hold you responsible for his death.

⁹ But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his ways and he doesn't turn from them, then he will die because of his sin. However, you will save yourself.

¹⁰ "Son of man, say to the people of Israel, You have said this, "Our wickedness and our sins weigh us down, and we are rotting away because of them. How can we live?"

¹¹ "Tell them, As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I don't want wicked people to die. Rather, I want them to turn from their ways and live. Change the way you think and act! Turn from your wicked ways! Do you want to die, people of Israel?

¹² "Son of man, say to your people, The right things that a righteous person has done will not save him when he rebels. The wicked things that a wicked person has done will not make him stumble when he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person will not live when he sins.

¹³I may promise the righteous person that he will certainly live. But if he trusts in the right things that he has done and he does evil, none of the right things that he has done will be remembered. He will die because of the evil things he has done.

¹⁴I may warn the wicked person that he will certainly die. But suppose he turns from his sin and does what is fair and right.

¹⁵He returns the security for a loan, pays back everything he stole, lives by the rules of life, and does nothing evil. Then he will certainly live. He will not die.

¹⁶None of the sins that he has done will be remembered. He has done what is fair and right. He will certainly live.

¹⁷"But your people say, The Lords way is unfair. Yet, their ways are unfair.

¹⁸If the righteous person turns from the right things that he has done and does evil, he will die because of it.

¹⁹If the wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is fair and right, he will live because of it.

²⁰Yet, the people of Israel say, The Lords way is unfair. I will judge each of you by your own ways, people of Israel."

²¹On the fifth day of the tenth month in the twelfth year of our captivity, a refugee from Jerusalem came to me. He said, "The city has been captured."

²²The evening before the refugee arrived, the power of the LORD came over me. On the morning the refugee arrived, the LORD made me speak. So I spoke, and I was no longer quiet.

²³The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²⁴"Son of man, those who live in the ruined cities in Israel are saying, Abraham was only one person, and he was given the land. But we are many. Certainly the land has been given to us.

²⁵So tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: You eat meat with blood in it. You look to your idols for help. You murder people. Should the land be given to you?

²⁶You rely on your swords. You do disgusting things. You dishonor your neighbors wife. Should the land be given to you?

²⁷"Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: As I live, whoever is in the ruined cities will be killed in battle. Whoever is in the open field will become food for wild animals. Whoever is in fortified places and caves will die from plagues.

²⁸I will turn the land into a barren wasteland. People will no longer brag about its power. The mountains of Israel will become so ruined that no one will travel through them.

²⁹Then people will know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a barren wasteland because of all the disgusting things that they have done.

³⁰"Son of man, your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of their homes. They are saying to each other, Lets go and hear the word that has come from the LORD.

³¹Then they come to you, as if they are still my people, and they sit down in front of you. They listen to what you say, but they don't do it. They say that they love me, but in their hearts they chase dishonest profits.

³²To them you are nothing more than a singer with a beautiful voice who sings love songs or a musician who plays an instrument. They listen to your words, but they don't do them.

³³When all your words come true and they certainly will come true these people will know that a prophet has been among them."

34¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy to these shepherds. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: How horrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who have been taking care of only themselves. Shouldn't shepherds take care of the sheep?

³You eat the best parts of the sheep, dress in the wool, and butcher the finest sheep. Yet, you don't take care of the sheep.

⁴You have not strengthened those that were weak, healed those that were sick, or bandaged those that were injured. You have not brought back those that strayed away or looked for those that were lost. You have ruled them harshly and violently.

⁵ So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. When they were scattered, they became food for every wild animal.

⁶ My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered throughout the whole earth. No one searched or looked for them.

⁷ "So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

⁸ As I live, declares the Almighty LORD, because there is no shepherd, my sheep have become prey. My sheep have become food for every wild animal. My shepherds haven't searched for my sheep. They have taken care of only themselves, not my sheep.

⁹ So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD.

¹⁰ This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against the shepherds. I will demand that they hand over my sheep.

I won't let them take care of my sheep anymore, and they will no longer take care of only themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, and my sheep will no longer be their food.

¹¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will search for my sheep myself, and I will look after them.

¹² As a shepherd looks after his flock when he is with his scattered sheep, so I will look after my sheep. I will rescue them on a cloudy and gloomy day from every place where they have been scattered.

¹³ I will bring them out from the nations, gather them from the countries, and bring them to their own land. I will take care of them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land.

¹⁴ I will feed them in good pasture, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel. They will rest on the good land where they graze, and they will feed on the best pastures in the mountains of Israel.

¹⁵I will take care of my sheep and lead them to rest, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶I will look for those that are lost, bring back those that have strayed away, bandage those that are injured, and strengthen those that are sick. I will destroy those that are fat and strong. I will take care of my sheep fairly.

¹⁷"As for you, my sheep, this is what the Almighty LORD says: I will judge disputes between one sheep and another, between rams and male goats.

¹⁸Isn't it enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? You drink clean water. Must you muddy the rest of the water with your feet?

¹⁹Must my sheep eat what your feet have trampled and drink what your feet have muddied?

²⁰"So this is what the Almighty LORD says to them: I will judge disputes between the fat sheep and the skinny sheep.

²¹You fat sheep push the skinny sheep with your sides and shoulders, and you knock down all the sick sheep with your horns. You have scattered them all over.

²² So I will rescue my sheep, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.

²³ Then I will place one shepherd over them, my servant David, and he will take care of them. He will take care of them and be their shepherd.

²⁴ I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be their prince. I, the LORD, have spoken.

²⁵ "I will promise them peace. I will remove the wild animals from the land so that my sheep can live safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

²⁶ I will bless them and the places around my hill. I will send rain at the right time. These showers will be a blessing to them.

²⁷ Then the trees in the field will produce fruit, the land will yield crops, and my sheep will live safely in their land. Then they will know that I am the LORD, because I will break off the bars on their yokes and rescue them from the people who made them slaves.

²⁸They will no longer be prey to the nations, and the wild animals will no longer eat them. They will live safely, and no one will frighten them.

²⁹I will give them a place that is known for its good crops. They will no longer experience hunger in the land, and they will no longer suffer the insults of other nations.

³⁰Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the people of Israel, are my people, declares the Almighty LORD.

³¹You, my sheep, are the sheep in my pasture. You are mortal, and I am your God, declares the Almighty LORD."

35¹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

²"Son of man, turn to Mount Seir, and prophesy against it.

³Tell it, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I'm against you, Mount Seir. I will use my power against you, and you will become a wasteland.

⁴I will turn your cities into ruins, and you will become a wasteland. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"You have always been an enemy of Israel. You deserted the people of Israel in battle when they were in trouble during their final punishment.

⁶That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will let you be murdered. Murderers will pursue you. Since you don't hate murdering people, murder will pursue you.

⁷I will turn Mount Seir into a barren wasteland, and I will destroy everyone who comes or goes from there.

⁸I will fill your mountains with those who have been killed. Those killed in battle will fall on your hills and in your valleys and ravines.

⁹I will turn you into a permanent wasteland. Your cities will not be lived in. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰"You said, "These two nations, Israel and Judah, along with their land, belong to us. We will take possession of them." But the LORD was there.

¹¹That is why, as I live, declares the Almighty LORD, I will do to you what you did to them. When you were angry and jealous, you acted hatefully toward them.

¹²Then you will know that I, the LORD, heard all the insults that you spoke about the mountains of Israel. You said, "They have been deserted and handed over to us to use up."

¹³You bragged and continually talked against me. I heard you.

¹⁴"This is what the Almighty LORD says: The whole earth will be glad when I turn you into a wasteland.

¹⁵You were happy when the land of Israel became a wasteland. I will do the same thing to you. You will become a wasteland, Mount Seir, and so will all of Edom. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

36 ¹The LORD said, "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Tell them, Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the LORD.

²This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies said this about you, "Aha! The ancient worship sites now belong to us."

³"So prophesy. Say, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Your enemies turned you into ruins and crushed you from every side. You became the possession of the rest of the nations, and people began to talk and gossip about you.

⁴"Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Almighty LORD. This is what the Almighty LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, and to the empty ruins and abandoned cities that have become prey and are mocked by the rest of the surrounding nations:

⁵In my fiery anger I have spoken against the rest of the nations and against all of Edom. The Edomites have taken possession of my land with wholehearted joy and with complete scorn. They forced out the people and took their land.

⁶"So prophesy about Israel. Tell the mountains and hills and the ravines and valleys, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am speaking in my anger and fury because you have been insulted by the nations.

⁷So this is what the Almighty LORD says: I raise my hand and swear that the nations which surround you will be insulted.

⁸"But you, mountains of Israel, will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel. My people will come home soon.

⁹I am for you. I will turn to you, and you will be plowed and planted.

¹⁰I will increase the number of people who live on you. All the people of Israel, all of them, will live on you. The cities will be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

¹¹I will increase the number of people and animals that live on you. They will grow and become many. I will let people live on you as in the past, and I will make you better off than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹²I will bring people, my people Israel, to you. They will take possession of you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer take their children away from them.

¹³"This is what the Almighty LORD says: People say that you devour your people and take the children away from your nation.

¹⁴ So you will no longer devour your people or take the children away from your nation, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁵ I will no longer let you hear the insults from the nations. You will no longer suffer the disgrace of the people. You will never again take the children away from your own nation, declares the Almighty LORD."

¹⁶ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁷ "Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they dishonored it by the way they lived and by everything they did. Their ways were as unclean as a womans menstrual period.

¹⁸ So I poured out my fury on them because they poured out blood on the land and they dishonored the land with their idols.

²⁰ But wherever they went among the nations, they dishonored my holy name. People said about them, These are the LORDS people, yet they had to leave his land.

²¹ I became concerned about my holy name because my people dishonored it among the nations wherever they went.

²² "So tell the people of Israel, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am about to do something, people of Israel. I will not do this for your sake but for the sake of my holy name, which you have dishonored among the nations wherever you have gone.

²³ I will reveal the holiness of my great name, which has been dishonored by the nations, the name that you have dishonored among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, because I will reveal my holiness among you as they watch, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁴ "I will take you from the nations and gather you from every country. I will bring you back to your own land.

²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you and make you clean instead of unclean. Then I will cleanse you from all your idols.

²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you. I will remove your stubborn hearts and give you obedient hearts.

²⁷ I will put my Spirit in you. I will enable you to live by my laws, and you will obey my rules.

²⁸ Then you will live in the land that I gave your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

²⁹ I will rescue you from all your uncleanness. I will make the grain grow so that you will never again have famines.

³⁰ I will make fruit grow on the trees and crops grow in the fields so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famines.

³¹ Then you will remember your evil ways and the bad things that you did, and you will hate yourselves for all these wicked and disgusting things.

³² I want you to know that I'm not doing this for your sake, declares the Almighty LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, people of Israel.

³³ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the day that I cleanse you from all your wickedness, I will cause your cities to be lived in again, and your ruins will be rebuilt.

³⁴The wasteland will be plowed. It will no longer remain empty for everyone passing by to see.

³⁵People will say, "This wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were empty and ruined, but now they are fortified and have people living in them."

³⁶The surrounding nations that are left will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted crops in the land that was empty. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

³⁷"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will also let the people of Israel ask me to make them as numerous as sheep.

³⁸They will be like the sheep for sacrifices, like the sheep in Jerusalem during the appointed festivals. Their ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

37¹ The power of the LORD came over me. The LORD brought me out by his Spirit and put me down in the middle of a valley. The valley was filled with bones.

²He led me all around them. I saw that there were very many bones at the bottom of the valley, and they were very dry.

³Then he asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I answered, "Only you know, Almighty LORD."

⁴Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones. Tell them, Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD.

⁵This is what the Almighty LORD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live.

⁶I will put ligaments on you, place muscles on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. While I was prophesying, suddenly there was a rattling noise, and the bones came together, one bone attaching itself to another.

⁸As I looked, I saw that ligaments were on them, muscles were on them, and skin covered them. Yet, there was no breath in them.

⁹Then the LORD said to me, "Prophecy to the breath! Prophecy, son of man. Tell the breath, This is what the Almighty LORD says: Come from the four winds, Breath, and breathe on these people who were killed so that they will live."

¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath entered them. Then they came to life and stood on their feet. There were enough of them to form a very large army.

¹¹The LORD also said to me, "Son of man, all the people of Israel are like these bones. The people say, Our bones are dry, and our hope has vanished. We are completely destroyed.

¹²So prophecy. Tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: My people, I will open your graves and take you out of them. I will bring you to Israel.

¹³Then, my people, you will know that I am the LORD, because I will open your graves and bring you out of your graves.

¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD."

¹⁵ The LORD spoke his word to me again. He said,

¹⁶ "Son of man, take a stick and write on it: For Judah and for the Israelites who are associated with it. Then take another stick and write on it, The stick of Ephraim, for Joseph and for all the people of Israel associated with it.

¹⁷ Then join both sticks together so that they will be one in your hand. Your people will say to you, ¹⁸ Tell us what you mean by this.

¹⁹ Then say to them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take Josephs stick, which is in Ephraims hand, and the tribes of Israel associated with it, and I will put them with Judahs stick. I will make them into one stick. They will be one in my hand.

²⁰ When you hold the sticks in your hand, let the people see them.

²¹ "Then tell them, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where theyve gone. I will gather them from everywhere and bring them to their own land.

²²I will form them into one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule all of them. They will no longer be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms.

²³They will no longer dishonor themselves with their idols, with their detestable things, or with their rebellious acts. I will forgive them for all the times they turned away from me and sinned. I will cleanse them so that they will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴"My servant David will be their king, and all of them will have one shepherd. They will live by my rules, and they will obey my laws.

²⁵They will live in the land that I gave my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived. They, their children, and their grandchildren will live in it permanently. My servant David will always be their prince.

²⁶I will promise them peace. This promise will last forever. I will establish them, make them increase in number, and put my holy place among them permanently.

²⁷ My dwelling place will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

²⁸ Then the nations will know that I, the LORD, have set Israel apart as holy, because my holy place will be among them permanently."

38¹ The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

² "Son of man, turn to Gog from the land of Magog. He is the chief prince of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him.

³ Tell him, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

⁴ I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws. I will lead you out with all your military forces, with horses and riders. Your soldiers will be fully armed. They will carry large and small shields and be able to use swords.

⁵ Persia, Sudan, and Put will be with you. They, too, will have shields and helmets.

⁶ Gomer will come with all its troops and with the nation of Togarmah from the far north. There will be many armies with you.

⁷"Be prepared! Be prepared, you and all the soldiers assembled around you. You will be their leader.

⁸After a long time you will be called to service. In the years to come, you will attack a land that has been rebuilt after a war. Its people have been gathered from many nations and brought to the mountains of Israel, mountains that have been ruined for a long time. These people were brought there from the nations, and all of them live there safely.

⁹You will attack like a storm and cover the land like a cloud. Your troops and the many armies will be with you.

¹⁰"This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time ideas will enter your head, and you will make wicked plans.

¹¹You will say, "I'll attack a land with unwallled villages. I will attack peaceful people who live safely. All of them live without walls, locks, or gates.

¹²I will come to rob them and loot them. I will use my power against the ruins that people are living in again. I will use it against the people who were gathered from the nations. These people have cattle and property, and they live in the world."

¹³"Sheba, Dedan, the merchants from Tarshish, and all their villages will ask you, "Did you come to rob these people of their possessions? Did you assemble all these soldiers to carry away large amounts of silver and gold and to take cattle and property?"

¹⁴"So prophesy, son of man. Tell Gog, This is what the Almighty LORD says: At that time my people Israel will live safely, and you will know it.

¹⁵You will come from your place in the far north and many armies will be with you. All of you will ride on horses. You will be a large crowd and a mighty army.

¹⁶You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the days to come, I will let you attack my land so that nations will know me. I will use you for my holy purpose as they watch.

¹⁷"This is what the Almighty LORD says: You are the one I spoke about long ago through my servants the prophets of Israel. They prophesied in those days that I would bring you to attack them.

¹⁸On the day that Gog attacks the land of Israel, I will be filled with burning anger, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁹In my fiery anger I tell you this. On that day there will be a large earthquake in the land of Israel.

²⁰Fish, birds, wild animals, everything that crawls on the ground, and every person on earth will tremble in my presence. The mountains will be torn down, the cliffs will crumble, and every wall will fall to the ground.

²¹I will declare war against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Almighty LORD. Each person will use his sword against his relative.

²²I will punish Gog with plagues and death. I will send rainstorms, large hailstones, fire, and burning sulfur on his troops and on the many armies with him.

²³I will show my greatness and my holiness. I will reveal myself to many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

39¹The LORD said, "Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Tell it, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I am against you, Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

²I will turn you around and lead you. I will bring you from the far north and have you attack the mountains of Israel.

³Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand and make you drop the arrows in your right hand.

⁴You will die on the mountains of Israel with your troops and the armies that are with you. I will let you become food for every bird of prey and for every wild animal.

⁵You will die in the open field because I said so, declares the Almighty LORD.

⁶I will send fire on Magog and on those who live safely on the coasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷I will make my holy name known among my people Israel, and I will never let them dishonor my holy name again. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

⁸"Its coming! It will happen! declares the Almighty LORD. This is the day I have spoken about.

⁹Those living in the cities of Israel will go out. They will set fire to weapons and burn them. They will burn small and large shields, bows and arrows, and war clubs and spears. They will burn them for seven years.

¹⁰They will not need to get wood from the field or cut down trees in the woods. They will make fires with the weapons. They will loot those who looted them, and they will grab things back from those who grabbed their things, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹¹"When that day comes, I will give Gog a burial place in Israel. It will be in Travelers Valley, east of the Dead Sea. It will block those who travel through the valley. Gog and his whole army will be buried there. So it will be called the valley of Gogs troops.

¹²The people of Israel will be burying them there for seven months to make the land clean.

¹³All the common people will be burying them. The people of Israel will be honored on the day of my victory, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁴"People will be chosen to go through the land and make it clean. With the help of others they will bury the dead soldiers that are still on the ground. At the end of seven months they will begin their search.

¹⁵Whenever they go through the land and see a human bone, they will set up a marker beside it until the grave diggers have buried that bone in the valley of Gogs troops.

¹⁶(A city named Hamonah will also be there.) In this way they will cleanse the land.

¹⁸You can eat the meat of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth. All of them will be killed like rams, lambs, goats, bulls and all the best animals of Bashan.

¹⁹You can eat the best meat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunk at the sacrifice that I am preparing for you.

²⁰At my table you will be filled with horses and riders, warriors, and soldiers of every kind, declares the Almighty LORD.

²¹"I will show my greatness among the nations. All the nations will see how I will turn my power against them to punish them.

²²From that day on, the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.

²³Then the nations will know that the people of Israel went into captivity because they did wrong and rebelled against me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies. They were killed in battle.

²⁴I paid them back for their uncleanness and their sins, and I hid my face from them.

²⁵"So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Now I will bring back Jacobs captives and have compassion for the whole nation of Israel. I will stand up for my holy name.

²⁶When they live safely in a land where no one will frighten them, they will forget their shame and all the unfaithful things they have done against me.

²⁷ I will bring them back from the other nations and gather them from the countries of their enemies. Many nations will see that I am holy.

²⁸ Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God. I sent them into captivity among the nations, and I brought them back again to their land. I left none of them behind.

²⁹ I will no longer hide my face from them, because I will pour out my Spirit on the nation of Israel, declares the Almighty LORD."

40¹ It was the tenth day of the month in the beginning of the twentyfifth year of our captivity and fourteen years after Jerusalem was captured. At that time the LORDS power came over me, and he brought me to Jerusalem.

² In visions, God brought me to Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On the south side of the mountain were some buildings that looked like those in a city.

³ He brought me closer. I saw a man who looked like he was covered with bronze. The man was holding a linen tape measure and a measuring stick, and he stood in a gateway.

⁴He said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and listen with your ears. Pay close attention to everything I'm going to show you. You were brought here to be shown these things. Tell the nation of Israel everything that you see."

⁵I saw a wall that surrounded the temple. The man had a measuring stick that was 10 feet long. He measured the wall. It was 10 feet thick and 10 feet high.

⁶Then the man went to the gateway that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the entrance to the gateway. It was 10 feet wide.

⁷There were also guardrooms. Each guardroom was 10 feet long and 10 feet wide. The space between the guardrooms was 9 feet thick. And the entrance to the gateway by the entrance hall of the temple was 10 feet wide.

⁸He also measured the entrance hall of the gateway.

⁹It extended 14 feet from the temple. Its recessed walls were 3 feet thick. The gateway's entrance hall faced the temple.

¹⁰Now, there were three guardrooms on each side of the eastern gateway. All three rooms on each side were the same size, and the recessed walls on each side were the same size.

¹¹Then the man measured the width of the entrance to the gateway. It was 17 feet wide, and the gateway was 23 feet long.

¹²There was a barrier about 21 inches in front of each guardroom. The guardrooms were 10 feet square.

¹³He measured the gateway from the top of one guardroom to the top of the opposite guardroom. It was 44 feet wide from one door to the opposite door.

¹⁴He also measured the entrance hall. It was 35 feet wide. In front of the entrance hall to the gateway was a courtyard on all sides.

¹⁵The total length of the gateway from the front of the outer part to the front of the inner part of the entrance hall was 87 feet.

¹⁶The guardrooms and recessed walls inside the gateway had small windows all around. The entrance hall also had windows all around on the inside.

Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls.

¹⁷ Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw rooms there and pavement all around the courtyard. There were 30 rooms along the edge of the pavement.

¹⁸ The pavement in the lower courtyard ran alongside the gateways. It was as wide as it was long.

¹⁹ The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 175 feet from east to north.

²⁰ Then the man measured the length and width of the gateway, leading to the outer courtyard. This was the gateway that faced north.

²¹ Its three guardrooms, its recessed walls, and its entrance hall were the same size as those in the east gateway. The gateway was 87 feet long and 44 feet wide.

²² Its windows, recessed walls, and palm tree pictures were the same size as those in the east gateway. Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall.

²³The inner courtyard had a gateway opposite the north gate just like the east gateway. The man measured the distance from one gate to the other gate. It was 175 feet.

²⁴Then the man led me to the south side, and I saw a gateway that faced south. He measured its recessed walls and its entrance hall. They were the same size as those of the other gateways.

²⁵The gateway and its entrance hall had windows on all sides like the windows in the other gateways. It was 87 feet long and 44 feet wide.

²⁶Seven steps went up to it and led to its entrance hall. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, one picture on each side.

²⁷The inner courtyard had a gateway facing south. The man measured the distance from the gateway on the south side to its opposite gateway. It was 175 feet.

²⁸Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard through the south gateway. He measured the south gateway. It was the same size as the others.

²⁹Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall were the same size as the other gateways. The guardrooms and the entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 87 feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁰There were entrance halls all around the inner courtyard. They were all 44 feet long and 9 feet wide.

³¹The entrance halls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to each gateway.

³²Then the man brought me to the east side of the inner courtyard. He measured the gateway. It was the same size as the others.

³³Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance halls were the same size as those of the other gateways. Its guardrooms and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 87 feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁴Its entrance hall faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

³⁵ Then the man brought me to the north gateway. He measured it. It was the same size as the others.

³⁶ Its guardrooms, recessed walls, and entrance hall had windows all around. The gateway was 87 feet long and 44 feet wide.

³⁷ Its recessed walls faced the outer courtyard. Pictures of palm trees were carved on the recessed walls, and eight steps led up to the gateway.

³⁸ There was a room with a door that opened toward the entrance hall of the gateway. This is the room where the priests washed the animals for the burnt offerings.

³⁹ In the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables on each side of the room. On these tables the animals were slaughtered for burnt offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings.

⁴⁰ On each side of the entrance to the north gateway there were two tables, and on the other side of the entrance hall of the gateway there were two tables.

⁴¹ So there were four tables on each side of the gateway, eight tables in all, on which they slaughtered animals.

⁴² There were four tables made of cut stone for burnt offerings. They were 3 feet long, 3 feet wide, and 21 inches high. On these tables the priests laid the utensils that were used to slaughter animals for burnt offerings and sacrifices.

⁴³ Doublepronged hooks, three inches long, were attached to the wall all around the room, and the tables were for the meat of the animals.

⁴⁵ The man said to me, "This room that faces south is for the priests who serve in the temple.

⁴⁶ The room that faces north is for the priests who serve at the altar. These priests are Zadoks descendants. They are the only Levites who are able to come near the LORD and serve him."

⁴⁷ The man measured the courtyard. It was a perfect square 175 feet long and 175 feet wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

⁴⁸Then the man brought me to the entrance hall of the temple and measured its recessed walls. They were 9 feet on each side. The gateway was 24 feet wide, and the walls on each side were 5 feet wide.

⁴⁹The entrance hall was 35 feet long and 21 feet wide. Steps led up to it. Pillars stood by the recessed walls, one on each side of the entrance hall.

41 ¹Then the man brought me into the holy place in the temple and measured the recessed walls. They were 10 feet wide on each side.

²The entrance was 17 feet wide, and on each side of the entrance the walls were 9 feet wide. Then he measured the length of the holy place. It was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.

³Then the man went inside and measured the passageway. It was 3 feet thick. The entrance was 10 feet high and 12 feet wide.

⁴Then he measured the room at the end of the holy place. It was 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. The man said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵Next, the man measured the temple wall. It was 10 feet wide. The width of each side room around the temple was 7 feet.

⁶The rooms were arranged on three different stories. There were 30 rooms on each story. These rooms had supports all the way around the temple wall, but these supports were not fastened to the temple wall.

⁷The side rooms grew wider all the way around as they went up, story after story. The surrounding structure went from story to story all around the temple. The structure grew wider as it went higher. A stairway went from the first story through the second story to the third story.

⁸I also saw a raised base all around the temple. This base was the foundation for the side rooms. It measured the full length of the measuring rod, 10 feet.

⁹The outer wall of the side rooms was 9 feet thick. There was an open area between the side rooms connected to the temple ¹⁰and the priests rooms. It was 35 feet wide and went all around the temple.

¹¹ The doors in the side rooms were entrances into the open area. There was one door to the north and another to the south. The base of the open area was 9 feet wide all the way around.

¹² At the far end of the open area, on the west side of the temple, was a building 122 feet wide. The wall of the building was 9 feet thick all the way around, and it was 157 feet long.

¹³ Then the man measured the temple. It was 175 feet long. This included the open area with the building and its walls. All together it was 175 feet long.

¹⁴ The eastern side of the temple, including the open area, was also 175 feet wide.

¹⁵ He also measured the length of the building facing the courtyard on the west side along with its corridors on both sides. It was 175 feet long. The holy place and the most holy place were paneled.

¹⁶ The doorposts, the small windows, and the corridors of all three stories were paneled. The walls, from the floor up to the windows, were paneled.

¹⁷In the space above the door to the most holy place and on the walls all around it,

¹⁸there were pictures of angels and palm trees. Palm trees were positioned between each of the angels, and each angel had two faces:

¹⁹the face of a man, which was turned toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a lion, which was turned toward a palm tree on the other side. These pictures were carved all around the temple.

²⁰Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the walls from the floor to the space above the door.

²¹The doorframes in the holy place were square. In front of the most holy place was something similar.

²²There was a wooden altar, 5 feet high and 3 feet wide. Its corners, its base, and its sides were made of wood. Then the man told me, "This is the table that is in the presence of the LORD."

²³The holy place and the most holy place had two doors.

²⁴Each of the doors were double doors that swung open.

²⁵ Pictures of angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the holy place as on the walls. There was a wooden roof hanging over the outer entrance hall.

²⁶ There were small windows and palm trees on both sides of the entrance hall, on the side rooms of the temple, and on the roofs.

42 ¹ Then the man led me out toward the north to the outer courtyard. He brought me to the side rooms opposite both the open area and the northern building.

² The building that faced north was 175 feet long and 87 feet wide.

³ Opposite the inner courtyard was an area that was 35 feet wide, and opposite the pavement of the outer courtyard were corridors facing corridors on all three stories.

⁴ In front of the side rooms was a walkway, 17 feet wide and 175 feet long. The doors of these side rooms faced north.

⁵ The side rooms on the third story were narrower than those on the first or second stories of the building because the corridors took space away from them.

⁶The rooms were in three stories. They didn't have pillars like the pillars in the courtyards. That is why the rooms on the third story were set farther back than those on the first and second stories.

⁷There was a wall which ran parallel to the side rooms and the outer courtyard. It ran alongside the side rooms for 87 feet.

⁸The row of rooms in the outer courtyard was 87 feet long. The rooms that faced the temple were 175 feet long.

⁹These lower side rooms had an entrance on the east side. A person was able to enter the outer courtyard through them.

¹⁰There were side rooms parallel to the wall of the courtyard on the south side. They faced the open area and the building.

¹¹There was a walkway in front of them like the one that was in front of the side rooms on the north side. These side rooms were as long and as wide as the northern rooms. They had the same exits, dimensions, and doors.

¹²The doors to the south rooms were the same as the doors to the north rooms. There was a doorway at the other end of the walkway that was parallel to the corresponding wall that ran eastward. People entered through that doorway.

¹³Then the man said to me, "The northern and southern side rooms that face the open area are holy rooms. These rooms are where the priests who come near the LORD eat the holiest offerings. Because these rooms are holy, the priests keep the holiest offerings there: the grain offerings, the offerings for sin, and the guilt offerings.

¹⁴Once the priests enter the holy place, they must not go out of the holy place into the outer courtyard until they leave behind the clothes that they wore as they served. These clothes are holy. The priests must put on other clothes. Then they can go into the area that is for the people."

¹⁵When the man had finished measuring the inner part of the temple area, he led me out through the east gate. Then he measured all the way around the outer area.

¹⁶He measured the east side with a measuring stick. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁷He measured the north side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁸He measured the south side. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

¹⁹He came around to the west side and measured it. It was 875 feet long according to the measuring stick.

²⁰So he measured all four sides. There was a wall all around it. The wall was 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. It separated what was holy from what was unholy.

43¹Then the man took me to the east gate.

²I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of rushing water, and the earth was shining because of his glory.

³This vision was like the one I saw when he came to destroy Jerusalem and like the one I saw by the Chebar River. I immediately bowed down.

⁴The LORDS glory came into the temple through the east gate.

⁵The Spirit lifted me and brought me into the inner courtyard. I saw the LORDS glory fill the temple.

⁶I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple while the man was standing beside me.

⁷The voice said to me, "Son of man, this is the place where my throne is and the place where my feet rest. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. Then the people of Israel and their kings will no longer dishonor my holy name by acting like prostitutes, nor will they dishonor it with the dead bodies of their kings.

⁸They put their doorway by my doorway and their doorposts by my doorposts. Only a wall separated me from them. They dishonored my holy name because of the disgusting things that they have done. So I destroyed them in my anger.

⁹Now they must stop acting like prostitutes and take the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

¹⁰"Son of man, describe this temple to the people of Israel. Then they will be ashamed because of their sins. Let them study the plans.

¹¹Suppose they are ashamed of everything that they have done. Then show them the design of the temple, its arrangements, its exits and entrancesits entire design. Tell them about all its rules and regulations. Then write these things down for them so that they can remember its design and follow all its rules.

¹²"This is a regulation of the temple: The whole area all the way around the top of the mountain is most holy. Yes, this is a regulation of the temple."

¹³These are the measurements of the altar, using royal measurements. (The royal measuring stick was 21 inches long.) The base of the altar was 21 inches high and 21 inches wide. All around the edge of the altar was a rim measuring 9 inches wide. This was the height of the altar:

¹⁴From the base on the ground to the lower ledge it was 3 feet high, and from the lower ledge to the upper ledge it was 7 feet high and 21 inches wide.

¹⁵The place where the sacrifices were burned was 7 feet high. There were four horns above it.

¹⁶It was square, 21 feet wide and 21 feet long.

¹⁷The upper ledge was also square. It was 24 feet long and 24 feet wide. It had a rim all the way around that was 10 inches wide. Its base was 21 inches. The steps to the altar faced east.

¹⁸Then the man said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the rules for sacrificing burnt offerings and for sprinkling blood on the altar after the altar is built.

¹⁹Give a young bull to the priests as an offering for sin. These priests are Zadoks descendants, men from the tribe of Levi, who can come near me and serve me.

²⁰Take some of the bulls blood, and put it on the altars four horns, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim all the way around the altar. When you do this, you will remove sin from the altar and make peace with the LORD.

²¹ Then take a young bull as an offering for sin, and burn it in the place appointed near the temple, outside the holy place.

²² "On the second day bring a male goat that has no defects as an offering for sin. Remove sin from the altar as you did with the young bull.

²³ When you finish removing sin, offer a young bull and a ram that have no defects.

²⁴ Offer them to the LORD. The priests must throw salt on them and offer them as burnt offerings to the LORD.

²⁵ Every day for seven days you must sacrifice a goat, a young bull, and a ram from the flock as an offering for sin. They must be animals that have no defects.

²⁶ For seven days the priests should make peace with the LORD at the altar, purify it, and consecrate it.

²⁷ When those days are over, on the eighth day, the priests must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept them, declares the Almighty LORD."

44¹ Then the man took me back to the outer east gate of the holy place, and the gate was shut.

² The LORD said to me, "This gate will stay shut and will not be opened. No one may enter through it because the LORD God of Israel entered through it. It must be kept shut.

³ Only the prince may sit there and eat food in the presence of the LORD. He will enter through the entrance hall of the gateway and leave the same way."

⁴ The man brought me through the north gate in front of the temple. When I looked, I saw the LORDS glory fill the LORDS temple. I immediately bowed down.

⁵ The LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay close attention. Look, and listen to everything I'm going to tell you. Listen to all the rules and regulations for the LORDS temple. Pay close attention to everyone who enters the temple and leaves from the holy place.

⁶ Tell the rebellious people of Israel, This is what the Almighty LORD says: I've had enough of all the disgusting things that you have done, people of Israel.

⁷ You brought godless foreigners into my holy place. You dishonored my temple when you offered fat and blood to me. You rejected my promise so that you could do all your disgusting things.

⁸ You didn't take care of my holy things. You put foreigners in charge of my temple.

⁹ So this is what the Almighty LORD says: Any godless foreigner who lives among the Israelites may not enter my holy place.

¹⁰ "Some Levites went far away from me when Israel wandered off to follow their idols. They must be punished for their sins.

¹¹ They could have served in my holy place. They could have guarded the gates of the temple. They could have served in the temple by slaughtering the animals for the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people. They could have stood in front of the people and served them.

¹² But they served the people by standing in front of their idols and by making Israel fall into sin. So I raised my hand and swore that they would be punished for their sins, declares the LORD.

¹³They must not come near me and serve me as priests. They must not come near any of my holy things or my most holy things. They must suffer disgrace because of the disgusting things that they have done.

¹⁴I will assign them all of the less important work in the temple.

¹⁵"But the priests who are Levites and descendants of Zadok took care of my holy place when the Israelites wandered away from me. They may come near me and serve me, and they may stand in my presence. They may bring fat and blood to me, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶They may enter my holy place, come near my table to serve me, and take care of everything I gave them.

¹⁷When they enter the gateways to the inner courtyard, they must wear linen clothes. They must have no wool on them while they serve in the gateways to the inner courtyard and in the temple.

¹⁸They must wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments.

They must not wear anything that makes them sweat.

¹⁹When they go out among the people in the outer courtyard, they must take off the clothes that they wore as they served. They must leave their clothes in the side rooms of the holy place and put on other clothes so that they do not transfer the holiness from their clothes to the people.

²⁰"They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long. They must keep the hair on their heads trimmed.

²¹None of the priests may drink wine when they enter the inner courtyard.

²²They must not marry widows or women who have been divorced. They may marry only virgins from the nation of Israel or widows of priests.

²³They must teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is unholy. They must show the people how to tell the difference between what is clean and what is unclean.

²⁴In all disputes the priests must act as judges and make decisions based on my laws. They must obey my rules and my regulations at all my festivals. They must observe holy days to worship me.

²⁵"A priest must not make himself unclean by going near a dead body. But a priest may become unclean if the dead person is his father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or unmarried sister.

²⁶After a priest is made clean, he must wait seven days.

²⁷When he enters the inner courtyard of the holy place to serve in the holy place, he must bring his offering for sin, declares the Almighty LORD.

²⁸"The priests will have no inheritance. I am their inheritance. Don't give them any possessions in Israel. The priests belong to me.

²⁹They will eat grain offerings, offerings for sin, and guilt offerings. Everything in Israel that is devoted to the LORD will belong to them.

³⁰The priests should have the best of all the first ripened fruits. The best of every gift from all your contributions must go to the priests. The best of your dough must go to the priests. This will cause a blessing to rest on your home.

³¹ The priests must never eat any bird or animal that has died naturally or was killed by other wild animals.

45 ¹ "Divide the land by drawing lots for the property you will inherit. Set aside an area 43,750 feet long and 35,000 feet wide for the LORD. The entire area will be holy.

² An area of 875 feet square will be for the holy place with an open area 87 feet wide.

⁴ This holy part of the land will belong to the priests who serve in the holy place, the priests who come near to serve the LORD. They will use this place for their homes, and it will be the location for the holy place.

⁵ An area 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide will belong to the Levites who serve in the temple. It will be given to them so that they have cities to live in.

⁶ "You must designate an area 8,750 feet wide and 43,750 feet long as the city's property. It will be located alongside the holy area. It will belong to all the people of Israel.

⁷"The prince will have all the land on both sides of the holy area and on both sides of the property belonging to the city. From the western boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the Mediterranean Sea. From the eastern boundary of the holy area, his land will extend to the eastern border of the country. His territory will be as large as the territory of one of the tribes.

⁸This land will belong to the prince in Israel. Then my princes will no longer oppress my people. They will give land to each tribe of the nation of Israel.

⁹"This is what the Almighty LORD says: I've had enough of you, you princes of Israel. Stop your violence and looting, and do what is fair and right. Stop evicting my people, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁰You must have honest scales and honest dry and liquid measures.

¹¹The dry and liquid measures must always be the same: The ephah and the bath should hold the same as onetenth of a homer. The homer must be the standard measure.

¹²One shekel must weigh 20 gerahs. One mina must weigh 60 shekels.

¹³"This is the contribution you must give to the LORD: seventeen percent of your wheat and seventeen percent of your barley.

¹⁴You must give one percent of your olive oil using the standard measure.

¹⁵You must take one sheep out of every 200 from the wellwatered pastures of Israel. You must sacrifice them with grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make peace with the LORD, declares the Almighty LORD.

¹⁶All the common people must give this contribution to the prince in Israel.

¹⁷Then the prince is responsible to provide burnt offerings, grain offerings, and wine offerings at the annual festivals, the New Moon Festivals, the weekly days of worship, and all the other appointed festivals of the nation of Israel. He must prepare offerings for sin, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make peace with the LORD for the nation of Israel.

¹⁸"This is what the Almighty LORD says: On the first day of the first month, take a young bull that has no defects and remove sin from the holy place.

¹⁹The priest must take some blood from the offering for sin and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gateways of the inner courtyard.

²⁰You must do the same on the seventh day of the month for everyone who unintentionally does something wrong and is unaware of it. So you must make peace with the LORD for the temple.

²¹"On the fourteenth day of the first month, you will celebrate the Passover, a festival lasting seven days when unleavened bread is eaten.

²²At that time the prince must prepare for himself and for all the common people a young bull as an offering for sin.

²³Every day during the seven days of the festival, he must prepare burnt offerings for the LORD: seven young bulls that have no defects, seven rams that have no defects, and one male goat as an offering for sin.

²⁴He must also give as a grain offering a halfbushel for each young bull and a halfbushel for each ram. He must also give one gallon of olive oil for every halfbushel of grain.

²⁵On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at the Festival of Booths, he must do the same as on those seven days. He must prepare the same offerings for sin, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and olive oil.

46¹ "This is what the Almighty LORD says: The east gate of the inner courtyard must be closed during the six working days, but it must be opened on the weekly day of worship. It must also be opened on the New Moon Festival.

²The prince must enter from the outside through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must stand by the doorposts of the gateway. Then the priests must prepare the prince's burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He must worship at the entrance of the gateway and then leave. The gate must not be closed until evening.

³The common people must worship at the door of the gateway in the presence of the LORD on the weekly days of worship and on New Moon Festivals.

⁴The prince must offer to the LORD six lambs that have no defects and one ram that has no defects as a burnt offering on the day of worship.

⁵The grain offering that is to be brought with the ram must be a halfbushel, and the grain offering that is to be brought with the lambs must be whatever the prince can bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each halfbushel of grain.

⁶On the first day of the month, the burnt offering must be one young bull, six lambs, and one ram all animals that have no defects.

⁷With each young bull and each ram the offering must include a halfbushel of grain, and with each lamb the offering must be whatever the prince wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be offered with each halfbushel of grain.

⁸When the prince enters, he must enter through the entrance hall of the gateway. He must enter and leave the same way.

⁹"The people will enter the LORDS presence at the time of the appointed festivals. Those entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate. Those entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. They must not leave through the same gate they entered. They must leave through the opposite gate.

¹⁰The prince must be among them. When they enter, he must enter. When they leave, he must leave.

¹¹"On festival days and at appointed festivals, a grain offering of a halfbushel must be brought with each young bull, and a halfbushel must be brought with each ram. But with the lambs, the prince may bring whatever he wants to bring. One gallon of olive oil must be brought with each halfbushel of grain.

¹²When the prince prepares a freewill burnt offering, either a burnt offering or a fellowship offering to the LORD, the east gate must be opened for him. He must sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings as he does on the day of worship. When he leaves, the gate must be shut after him.

¹³"Prepare a yearold lamb that has no defects every day as a burnt offering to the LORD. Do this every morning.

¹⁴Also, prepare a grain offering with it every morning: threeandathird quarts of grain and oneandathird quarts of olive oil to moisten the flour. It will be a grain offering dedicated to the LORD. These rules are to be followed always.

¹⁵Prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil every morning as a daily burnt offering.

¹⁶"This is what the Almighty LORD says: Suppose the prince offers one of his sons a gift from his property. The gift will belong to his descendants because it is their inheritance.

¹⁷But suppose the prince offers a gift from his property to one of his servants. The gift will belong to the servant only until the year of freedom. Then the gift will go back to the prince. Only his sons can inherit his property.

¹⁸The prince must not take any of the peoples property. He must not force them to give up their property. He must give his own property as an inheritance to his sons so that none of my people will be separated from their property."

¹⁹The man brought me through a passage beside the gateway to the side rooms that faced north. These rooms were reserved for the priests. He showed me a place on the west side of the rooms.

²⁰He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the meat for the guilt offering and the offering for sin. This is the place where they must bake grain offerings so that they don't have to bring the offerings into the outer courtyard. This way they won't transfer holiness to the people."

²¹Then the man led me to the outer courtyard and took me past the four corners of the courtyard. I saw that in each corner of the courtyard there was a smaller courtyard.

²²The smaller courtyards that were in each of the four corners of the courtyard were 60 feet long and 45 feet wide. All four of the smaller courtyards in the corners of the courtyard were the same size.

²³ Around each of the four courtyards were stone walls, and these walls were equipped with fireplaces.

²⁴ Then the man said to me, "These are the kitchens where the temple servants must boil the peoples sacrifices."

47 ¹ Then the man took me back to the door of the temple. I saw water flowing from under the entrance of the temple toward the east. (The temple faced east.) The water was flowing under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

² Then he led me through the north gate and around to the outer east gate. The water was flowing down the south side of the gate.

⁴ Then he measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my knees. He measured off another 1,500 feet and led me through the water. The water came up to my waist.

⁵Then he measured another 1,500 feet. But the water had risen so much that it became a river which I couldnt cross. The river was too deep to cross except by swimming.

⁶Then he asked me, "Son of man, do you see this?"

⁷Then the man led me back along the bank of the river. As I went back, I saw many trees on both sides of the river.

⁸Then the man said to me, "This water flows through the land to the east, down into the Jordan Valley, and into the Dead Sea. When the water flows into the Dead Sea, it will replace the salt water there with fresh water.

⁹Wherever the river flows, there will be many fish and animals. The river will make the water in the Dead Sea fresh. Wherever the river flows, it will bring life.

¹⁰From En Gedi to En Eglaim people will be standing on the shore of the sea with their fishing nets spread out. As many kinds of fish will be there as there are in the Mediterranean Sea.

¹¹ But the water in the swamps and marshes wont become fresh. It will remain salty.

¹² All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves wont wither, and they wont fail to produce fruit. Each month they will produce fresh fruit because this water flows from the holy place. The fruit will be good food, and the leaves will be used for healing."

¹³ This is what the Almighty LORD says: These are the borders of the land that is to be divided among the 12 tribes of Israel. Joseph gets two parts.

¹⁴ Divide the land equally. I raised my hand and swore that I would give the land to your ancestors. So this land will be your inheritance.

¹⁶ Berothah and Sibraim, which are between the borders of Damascus and Hamath. It will run to Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

¹⁷ So the border will run from the Mediterranean Sea to Hazar Enon on the border of Damascus. The border of Hamath will lie to the north. This is the north side.

¹⁹ On the south side the border will run from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh along the ravine to the Mediterranean Sea. This is the southern border.

²⁰ On the west side the Mediterranean Sea is the border up to a point opposite Hamath Pass. This is the west side.

²¹ Divide this land among yourselves for each of the tribes of Israel.

²² Divide it by drawing lots. This land will be for you. It will also be for the foreign residents who live among you and have given birth to children while they lived with you. Think of them as Israelites. They will draw lots with you for their inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

²³ Foreign residents will receive their share of the inheritance with the people of the tribe among whom they are living, declares the Almighty LORD.

48¹ These are the names of the tribes. Beginning at the northern border, Dan will have one part of the land. It will extend from the road to Hethlon to Hamath Pass and Hazar Enon, on the northern border of Damascus near Hamath, from the eastern border to the western border.

² Asher will have one part of the land and border Dan on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

³ Naphtali will have one part of the land and border Asher on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁴ Manasseh will have one part of the land and border Naphtali on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁵ Ephraim will have one part of the land and border Manasseh on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁶Reuben will have one part of the land and border Ephraim on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁷Judah will have one part of the land and border Reuben on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

⁸The land that you set aside as a special gift for the LORD will border Judah on the south. It will be 43,750 feet wide, and it will be as long as one of the sections of the tribes. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border, and the holy place will be in the middle of it.

⁹This special land that you set aside for the LORD will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

¹⁰This holy area will belong to the priests. On the north side it will be 43,750 feet long. On the west side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the east side it will be 17,500 feet wide. On the south side it will be 43,750 feet long. The LORDS holy place will be in the middle of it.

¹¹ This land that has been set apart will belong to the priests who are descendants of Zadok. They took care of my holy place. They didn't wander away with the Israelites as the Levites did.

¹² So they will have a special portion from the land. It will be the holiest part of land, next to the land belonging to the Levites.

¹³ Alongside the land belonging to the priests will be the land belonging to the Levites. It will be 43,750 feet long and 17,500 feet wide.

¹⁴ They must not sell any of it or trade any of it. They must not let others have the best part of the land, because the land is the LORDS and it is holy.

¹⁵ A strip of land, 8,750 feet wide by 43,750 feet long, will be left for cities, homes, and pastures. The city will be in the middle of it.

¹⁶ These will be the measurements for the city: On the north side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the south side it will be 7,875 feet long. On the east side it will be 7,875 feet wide. And on the west side it will be 7,875 feet wide.

¹⁷ The city's pastureland will be 4,375 feet on the north, 4,375 feet on the south, 4,375 feet on the east, and 4,375 feet on the west.

¹⁸ The rest of the land borders the holy area and runs lengthwise. This land will be 17,500 feet on its east side and 17,500 feet on its west side. It will be used to provide food for the city workers.

¹⁹ City workers from all the tribes in Israel will farm it.

²⁰ The whole area will be 43,750 feet square. You must give this land as a special gift to the LORD along with the city property.

²² So the Levites property and the citys property will be between the princes part of the land. What is between Judahs and Benjamins boundaries will belong to the prince.

²³ This is what the rest of the tribes will receive: Benjamin will have one part of the land. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁴ Simeon will have one part of the land and border Benjamin on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁵ Issachar will have one part of the land and border Simeon on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁶ Zebulun will have one part of the land and border Issachar on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁷ Gad will have one part of the land and border Zebulun on the south. It will extend from the eastern border to the western border.

²⁸ The southern border of Gad will run south from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah in Kadesh, and it will run along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea.

²⁹This is the land you will divide as your inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their areas, declares the Almighty LORD.

³⁰These will be the exits for the city: The north side will be 7,875 feet long.

³¹The gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be Reuben Gate, Judah Gate, and Levi Gate.

³²The east side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the east side will be Joseph Gate, Benjamin Gate, and Dan Gate.

³³The south side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the south side will be Simeon Gate, Issachar Gate, and Zebulun Gate.

³⁴The west side will be 7,875 feet long. The three gates on the west side will be Gad Gate, Asher Gate, and Naphtali Gate.

³⁵The city will measure about 31,500 feet all the way around. From then on the city's name will be: The LORD Is There.

Daniel

1 ¹In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and attacked it.

²The Lord handed King Jehoiakim of Judah and some utensils from Gods temple over to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar took the utensils to the temple of his god in Babylonia and put them in the temple treasury.

³The king told Ashpenaz, the chief of staff, to bring some of the Israelites, the royal family, and the nobility.

⁴They were to be young men who were healthy, good looking, knowledgeable in all subjects, well informed, intelligent, and able to serve in the kings palace. They were to be taught the language and literature of the Babylonians.

⁵The king arranged for them to get a daily allowance of the kings rich food and wine. They were to be trained for three years. After that, they were to serve the king.

⁶Among these young men were some Judeans: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

⁷The chief of staff gave them Babylonian names: To Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar. To Hananiah he gave the name Shadrach. To Mishael he gave the name Meshach. And to Azariah he gave the name Abednego.

⁸Daniel made up his mind not to harm himself by eating the king's rich food and drinking the king's wine. So he asked the chief of staff for permission not to harm himself in this way.

⁹God made the chief of staff kind and compassionate toward Daniel.

¹⁰The chief of staff told Daniel, "I'm afraid of my master, the king. The king determined what you should eat and drink. If he sees that you look worse than the other young men your age, he would have my head cut off."

¹¹The chief of staff put a supervisor in charge of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Daniel said to the supervisor, ¹²"Please test us for ten days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

¹³Then compare us to the young men who are eating the kings rich food. Decide how to treat us on the basis of how we look."

¹⁴The supervisor listened to them about this matter and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵After ten days they looked healthier and stronger than the young men who had been eating the kings rich food.

¹⁶So the supervisor took away the kings rich food and wine and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷God gave these four men knowledge, wisdom, and the ability to understand all kinds of literature. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

¹⁸At the end of the threeyear training period, the chief of staff brought all the young men to Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁹The king talked to them and found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah among all of them. So these four men served the king.

²⁰Whenever the king asked them about things that required wisdom and insight, he found that they knew ten times more than all the magicians and psychics in his whole kingdom.

²¹Daniel served the royal palace until the first year of King Cyrus of Persia.

2¹During the second year of Nebuchadnezzars reign, he had some dreams. He was troubled, but he stayed asleep.

²The king sent for the magicians, psychics, sorcerers, and astrologers so that they could tell him what he had dreamed. So they came to the king.

³The king said to them, "I had a dream, and I'm troubled by it. I want to know what the dream was."

⁴The astrologers spoke to the king in Aramaic, "Your Majesty, may you live forever! Tell us the dream, and we'll interpret it for you."

⁵The king answered the astrologers, "I meant what I said! If you don't tell me the dream and its meaning, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be turned into piles of rubble."

⁶But if you tell me the dream and its meaning, I will give you gifts, awards, and high honors. Now tell me the dream and its meaning."

⁷Once more they said, "Your Majesty, tell us the dream, and we'll tell you its meaning."

⁸The king replied, "I'm sure you're trying to buy some time because you know that I meant what I said."

⁹If you don't tell me the dream, you'll all receive the same punishment. You have agreed among yourselves to make up a phony explanation to give me, hoping that things will change. So tell me the dream. Then I'll know that you can explain its meaning to me."

¹⁰The astrologers answered the king, "No one on earth can tell the king what he asks. No other king, no matter how great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, psychic, or astrologer."

¹¹What you ask is difficult, Your Majesty. No one can tell what you dreamed except the gods, and they don't live with humans."

¹²This made the king so angry and furious that he gave an order to destroy all the wise advisers in Babylon.

¹³So a decree was issued that the wise advisers were to be killed, and some men were sent to find Daniel and his friends and kill them.

¹⁴While Arioch, the captain of the royal guard, was leaving to kill the wise advisers in Babylon, Daniel spoke to him using shrewd judgment.

¹⁵He asked Arioch, the royal official, "Why is the king's decree so harsh?" So Arioch explained everything to Daniel.

¹⁶Daniel went and asked the king to give him some time so that he could explain the dream's meaning.

¹⁷Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about this matter.

¹⁸He told them to ask the God of heaven to be merciful and to explain this secret to them so that they would not be destroyed with the rest of the wise advisers in Babylon.

¹⁹The secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision during the night. So Daniel praised the God of heaven.

²⁰He said, "Praise Gods name from everlasting to everlasting because he is wise and powerful.

²¹He changes times and periods of history. He removes kings and establishes them. He gives wisdom to those who are wise and knowledge to those who have insight.

²²He reveals deeply hidden things. He knows what is in the dark, and light lives with him.

²³God of my ancestors, I thank and praise you. You gave me wisdom and power. You told me the answer to our question. You told us what the king wants to know."

²⁴Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy Babylons wise advisers. Daniel told him, "Dont destroy Babylons wise advisers. Take me to the king, and Ill explain the dreams meaning to him."

²⁵Arioch immediately took Daniel to the king. He told the king, "Ive found one of the captives from Judah who can explain the dreams meaning to you, Your Majesty."

²⁶ The king asked Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar), "Can you tell me the dream I had and its meaning?"

²⁷ Daniel answered the king, "No wise adviser, psychic, magician, or fortuneteller can tell the king this secret.

²⁸ But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets. He will tell King Nebuchadnezzar what is going to happen in the days to come. This is your dream, the vision you had while you were asleep:

²⁹ Your Majesty, while you were lying in bed, thoughts about what would happen in the future came to you. The one who reveals secrets told you what is going to happen.

³⁰ This secret wasn't revealed to me because I'm wiser than anyone else. It was revealed so that you could be told the meaning and so that you would know your innermost thoughts.

³¹ "Your Majesty, you had a vision. You saw a large statue. This statue was very bright. It stood in front of you, and it looked terrifying.

³² The head of this statue was made of fine gold. Its chest and arms were made of silver. Its stomach and hips were made of bronze.

³³ Its legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay.

³⁴ While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by humans. It struck the statues iron and clay feet and smashed them.

³⁵ Then all at once, the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were smashed. They became like husks on a threshing floor in summer. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a large mountain which filled the whole world.

³⁶ This is the dream. Now we'll tell you its meaning.

³⁷ "Your Majesty, you are the greatest king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom. He has given you power, strength, and honor.

³⁸ He has given you control over people, wild animals, and birds, wherever they live. He has made you ruler of them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹ Another kingdom, inferior to yours, will rise to power after you. Then there will be a third kingdom, a kingdom of bronze, that will rule the whole world.

⁴⁰ There will also be a fourth kingdom. It will be as strong as iron. (Iron smashes and shatters everything.) As iron crushes things, this fourth kingdom will smash and crush all the other kingdoms.

⁴¹ You also saw the feet and toes. They were partly potters clay and partly iron. This means that there will be a divided kingdom which has some of the firmness of iron. As you saw, iron was mixed with clay.

⁴² The toes were partly iron and partly clay. Part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle.

⁴³ As you saw, iron was mixed with clay. So the two parts of the kingdom will mix by intermarrying, but they will not hold together any more than iron can mix with clay.

⁴⁴ "At the time of those kings, the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never be destroyed. No other people will be permitted to rule it. It will smash all the other kingdoms and put an end to them. But it will be established forever.

⁴⁵This is the stone that you saw cut out from a mountain, but not by humans. It smashed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told you what will happen in the future, Your Majesty. The dream is true, and you can trust that this is its meaning."

⁴⁶King Nebuchadnezzar immediately bowed down on the ground in front of Daniel. He ordered that gifts and offerings be given to Daniel.

⁴⁷The king said to Daniel, "Your God is truly the greatest of gods, the Lord over kings. He can reveal secrets because you were able to reveal this secret."

⁴⁸Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many wonderful gifts. Nebuchadnezzar made Daniel governor of the whole province of Babylon and head of all Babylons wise advisers.

⁴⁹With the kings permission, Daniel appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to govern the province of Babylon. But Daniel stayed at the kings court.

3¹ King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue 90 feet high and 9 feet wide. He set it up in a recessed area in the wall in the province of Babylon.

² King Nebuchadnezzar sent messengers to assemble the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials to dedicate the statue he had set up.

³ Then the satraps, governors, mayors, military advisers, treasurers, judges, officers, and all the other provincial officials assembled to dedicate the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood in front of the statue.

⁴ The herald called out loudly, "People of every province, nation, and language!

⁶ Whoever doesn't bow down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

⁷As soon as they heard the sound of rams horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and threestringed harps with all other kinds of instruments, all the people from every province, nation, and language bowed down and worshiped the gold statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸After that happened, some astrologers came forward and brought charges against the Jews.

⁹They addressed King Nebuchadnezzar, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

¹⁰Your Majesty, you gave an order that everyone who hears the sound of rams horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and threestringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments should bow down and worship the gold statue.

¹¹Your order said that whoever doesn't bow down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace.

¹²There are certain Jews whom you appointed to govern the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men didn't obey your order, Your Majesty. They don't honor your gods or worship the statue that you set up."

¹³Then, in a fit of rage and anger, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Immediately, they were brought to the king.

¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't honor my gods or worship the gold statue that I set up?"

¹⁵When you hear the sound of the rams horns, flutes, lyres, harps, and threestringed harps playing at the same time with all other kinds of instruments, will you bow down and worship the gold statue I made? If you don't worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. What god can save you from my power then?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered King Nebuchadnezzar, "We don't need to answer your last question.

¹⁷If our God, whom we honor, can save us from a blazing furnace and from your power, he will, Your Majesty.

¹⁸But if he doesn't, you should know, Your Majesty, we'll never honor your gods or worship the gold statue that you set up."

¹⁹ Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with anger toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face turned red. He ordered that the furnace should be heated seven times hotter than normal.

²⁰ He told some soldiers from his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego so that they could be thrown into the blazing furnace.

²¹ Then the three men were thrown into the blazing furnace. They were wearing their clothes, hats, and other clothing.

²² The king's order was so urgent and the furnace was so extremely hot that the men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were killed by the flames from the fire.

²³ So these three men—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—fell into the blazing furnace. They were still tied up.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar was startled. He sprang to his feet. He asked his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men into the fire?" "That's true, Your Majesty," they answered.

²⁵The king replied, "But look, I see four men. They're untied, walking in the middle of the fire, and unharmed. The fourth one looks like a son of the gods."

²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the door of the blazing furnace and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednegoservants of the Most High Godcome out here." Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.

²⁷The kings satraps, governors, mayors, and advisers gathered around the three men. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies. The hair on their heads wasnt singed, their clothes werent burned, and they didnt smell of smoke.

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He sent his angel and saved his servants, who trusted him. They disobeyed the king and risked their lives so that they would not have to honor or worship any god except their own God.

²⁹So I order that people from every province, nation, or language who say anything slanderous about the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb. Their houses will be turned into piles of rubble. No other god can rescue like this."

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to higher positions in the province of Babylon.

4¹From King Nebuchadnezzar. To the people of every province, nation, and language in the world. I wish you peace and prosperity.

²I am pleased to write to you about the miraculous signs and amazing things the Most High God did for me.

³His miraculous signs are impressive. He uses his power to do amazing things. His kingdom is an eternal kingdom. His power lasts from one generation to the next.

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living comfortably at home. I was prosperous while living in my palace.

⁵I had a dream that terrified me. The visions I had while I was asleep frightened me.

⁶So I ordered all the wise advisers in Babylon to be brought to me to tell me the dreams meaning.

⁷The magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers came to me. I told them the dream, but they couldnt tell me its meaning.

⁸Finally, Daniel came to me. (He had been renamed Belteshazzar after my god Bel.) The spirit of the holy gods is in him. I told him the dream:

⁹"Belteshazzar, head of the magicians, I know the spirit of the holy gods is in you. No secret is too hard for you to uncover. Tell me the meaning of the visions I had in my dream.

¹⁰These are the visions I had while I was asleep: I was looking, and I saw an oak tree in the middle of the earth. It was very tall.

¹¹The tree grew, and it became strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

¹²It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals found shade under it. Birds came to live in its branches. It fed every living creature.

¹³"I was seeing these visions as I was asleep. I saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven.

¹⁴He shouted loudly, Cut down the oak tree! Cut off its branches! Strip off its leaves! Scatter its fruit! Make the animals under it run away, and make the birds fly from its branches.

¹⁵But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. And let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the animals.

¹⁶Let its human mind be changed, and give it the mind of an animal. Let it remain like this for seven time periods.

¹⁷The guardians have announced this decision. The holy ones have announced this so that every living creature will know that the Most High has power over human kingdoms. He gives them to whomever he wishes. He can place the lowest of people in charge of them."

¹⁸I said, "This is the dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning because the wise advisers in my kingdom cant tell it to me. However, you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

¹⁹Then Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was momentarily stunned. What he was thinking frightened him. I told him, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream and its meaning frighten you." Belteshazzar answered, "Sir, I wish that the dream were about those who hate you and its meaning were about your enemies.

²⁰You saw an oak tree grow and become strong enough and tall enough to reach the sky. It could be seen everywhere on earth.

²¹It had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, enough to feed everyone. Wild animals lived under it, and birds made their homes in its branches.

²²You are that tree, Your Majesty. You grew and became strong and mighty until you reached the sky. Your power reaches the most distant part of the world.

²³You saw a guardian, a holy being, come down from heaven. He said, Cut down the oak tree! Destroy it! But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Secure it with an iron and bronze chain in the grass in the field. Let it get wet with the dew from the sky. Let it get its share of the plants on the ground with the wild animals for seven time periods.

²⁴"This is the meaning, Your Majesty. The Most High has decided to apply it to you, Your Majesty.

²⁵You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. The dew from the sky will make you wet. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes.

²⁶Since I said that the stump and the trees roots were to be left, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you realize that heaven rules.

²⁷"That is why, Your Majesty, my best advice is that you stop sinning, and do what is right. Stop committing the same errors, and have pity on the poor. Maybe you can prolong your prosperity."

²⁸All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

²⁹Twelve months later, he was walking around the royal palace in Babylon.

³⁰The king thought, "Look how great Babylon is! I built the royal palace by my own impressive power and for my glorious honor."

³¹Before the words came out of his mouth, a voice said from heaven, "King Nebuchadnezzar, listen to this: The kingdom has been taken from you."

³²You will be forced away from people and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. And seven time periods will pass until you realize that the Most High has power over human kingdoms and that he gives them to whomever he wishes."

³³Just then the prediction about Nebuchadnezzar came true. He was forced away from people and ate grass like cattle. Dew from the sky made his body wet until his hair grew as long as eagles feathers and his nails grew as long as birds claws.

³⁴At the end of the seven time periods, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my mind came back to me. I thanked the Most High, and I praised and honored the one who lives forever, because his power lasts forever and his kingdom lasts from one generation to the next.

³⁵ Everyone who lives on earth is nothing compared to him. He does whatever he wishes with the army of heaven and with those who live on earth. There is no one who can oppose him or ask him, "What are you doing?"

³⁶ Just then my mind came back to me. My royal honor and glory were also given back to me. My advisers and nobles wanted to meet with me again. I was given back my kingdom and made extraordinarily great.

5¹ King Belshazzar threw a large banquet for 1,000 nobles and drank wine with them.

² As they were tasting the wine, Belshazzar ordered that the gold and silver utensils which his grandfather Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem be brought to him.

He wanted to drink from them with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines.

³So the servants brought the gold utensils that had been taken from Gods temple in Jerusalem. The king, his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.

⁴They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, or stone.

⁵Suddenly, the fingers of a persons hand appeared and wrote on the plaster wall opposite the lamp stand of the royal palace. The king watched as the hand wrote.

⁶Then the king turned pale, and his thoughts frightened him. His hip joints became loose, and his knees knocked against each other.

⁷The king screamed for the psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers to be brought to him. He told these wise advisers of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me its meaning will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on his neck, and become the thirdhighest ruler in the kingdom."

⁸All the kings wise advisers came, but they couldnt read the writing or tell the king its meaning.

⁹King Belshazzar was terrified, and his face turned pale. His nobles didnt know what to do.

¹⁰The discussion between the king and his nobles brought the queen herself into the banquet hall. The queen said, "Your Majesty, may you live forever! Dont let your thoughts frighten you, and dont turn pale.

¹¹Theres a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your grandfather, he was found to have insight, good judgment, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him head of the magicians, psychics, astrologers, and fortunetellers.

¹²This Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar) was found to have knowledge, judgment, and an extraordinary spirit. He has the ability to interpret dreams, solve riddles, and untangle problems. Now, call Daniel, and he will tell you what it means."

¹³ So Daniel was taken to the king. The king asked him, "Are you Daniel, one of the captives that my grandfather brought from Judah?"

¹⁴ I've heard that you have the spirit of the gods and that you have insight, good judgment, and extraordinary wisdom.

¹⁵ The wise advisers and the psychics were brought to me to read this writing and tell me its meaning. But they couldn't tell me its meaning.

¹⁶ I have heard that you can interpret such things and untangle problems. If you can read the writing and tell me its meaning, you will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain on your neck, and become the third-highest ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Daniel told the king, "Keep your gifts. Give your gifts and awards to someone else. I'll still read the writing for you and tell you its meaning.

¹⁸ "Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a kingdom, might, honor, and glory.

¹⁹ People from every province, nation, and language trembled and were terrified by him, because God gave him power. Nebuchadnezzar killed whomever he wanted to kill, and he kept alive whomever he wanted to keep alive. He promoted whomever he wanted to promote, and he demoted whomever he wanted to demote.

²⁰ But when he became so arrogant and conceited that he became overconfident, he was removed from the royal throne. His honor was taken away from him.

²¹ He was chased away from people, and his mind was changed into an animals mind. He lived with wild donkeys, ate grass like cattle, and his body became wet with dew from the sky. This happened until he realized that the Most High God has power over human kingdoms. God puts whomever he wishes in charge of them.

²² "Belshazzar, you are one of Nebuchadnezzars successors. You didnt remain humble, even though you knew all this.

²³ But you made yourself greater than the Lord of heaven. You had the utensils from his temple brought to you. You, your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them. You praised your gods made of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, or stone. These gods can't see, hear, or know anything. You didn't honor God, who has power over your life and everything you do.

²⁴ So he sent the hand to write this inscription.

²⁵ This is what has been written: Numbered, Numbered, Weighed, and Divided.

²⁶ This is its meaning: Numbered God has numbered the days of your kingdom and will bring it to an end.

²⁷ Weighed you have been weighed on a scale and found to be too light.

²⁸ Divided your kingdom will be divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹ Then Belshazzar ordered that Daniel be dressed in purple and wear a gold chain on his neck. He made Daniel the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ That night King Belshazzar of Babylon was killed.

³¹ Darius the Mede took over the kingdom. He was 62 years old.

6¹ Darius decided it would be good to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom.

²Over these satraps were three officials. Daniel was one of these officials. The satraps were to report to these three officials so that the king wouldnt be cheated.

³This man, Daniel, distinguished himself among the other officials and satraps because there was an extraordinary spirit in him. The king thought about putting him in charge of the whole kingdom.

⁴So the other officials and satraps tried to find something to accuse Daniel of in his duties for the kingdom. But they couldnt find anything wrong because he was trustworthy. No error or fault could be found.

⁵These men said, "We wont find anything to accuse this man, Daniel, unless we find it in his religious practices."

⁶So these officials and satraps went to the king as a group. They said to him, "May King Darius live forever!

⁷All the officials, governors, satraps, advisers, and mayors agree that the king should make a statute and enforce a decree. The decree should state that for the next 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions den.

⁸Your Majesty, issue this decree, and sign it. According to the law of the Medes and Persians no one could change it or repeal it."

⁹So Darius signed the written decree.

¹⁰When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house. An upper room in his house had windows that opened in the direction of Jerusalem. Three times each day he got down on his knees and prayed to his God. He had always praised God this way.

¹¹One of those times the men came in as a group and found Daniel praying and pleading to his God.

¹²Then they went and spoke to the king about his decree. They asked, "Didn't you sign a decree which stated that for 30 days whoever asks for anything from any god or person except you, Your Majesty, will be thrown into a lions den?" The king answered, "That's true. According to the law of the Medes and Persians the decree cant be repealed."

¹³They replied, "Your Majesty, Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, refuses to obey your order or the decree that you signed. He prays three times each day."

¹⁴The king was very displeased when he heard this. He tried every way he could think of to save Daniel. Until sundown he did everything he could to rescue him.

¹⁵Then Daniels accusers gathered in front of the king. They said to him, "Remember, Your Majesty, the Medes and Persians have a law that no decree or statute the king makes can be changed."

¹⁶So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought to him and thrown into the lions den. The king told Daniel, "May your God, whom you always worship, save you!"

¹⁷A stone was brought and placed over the opening of the den. The king put his seal on the stone, using his ring and the rings of his nobles, so that Daniels situation could not be changed.

¹⁸Then the king went to his palace and spent the night without food or company. He couldnt get to sleep.

¹⁹At dawn, as soon as it was light, the king got up and quickly went to the lions den.

²⁰As he came near the den where Daniel was, the king called to Daniel with anguish in his voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Was God, whom you always worship, able to save you from the lions?"

²¹Daniel said to the king, "Your Majesty, may you live forever!

²²My God sent his angel and shut the lions mouths so that they couldnt hurt me. He did this because he considered me innocent. Your Majesty, I havent committed any crime."

²³The king was overjoyed and had Daniel taken out of the den. When Daniel was taken out of the den, people saw that he was completely unharmed because he trusted his God.

²⁴The king ordered those men who had brought charges against Daniel to be brought to him. They, their wives, and their children were thrown into the lions den. Before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions attacked them and crushed all their bones.

²⁵Then King Darius wrote to the people of every province, nation, and language all over the world: I wish you peace and prosperity.

²⁶I decree that in every part of my kingdom people should tremble with terror in front of Daniels God, the living God who continues forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed. His power lasts to the end of time.

²⁷He saves, rescues, and does miraculous signs and amazing things in heaven and on earth. He saved Daniel from the lions.

²⁸This man, Daniel, prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7¹In Belshazzars first year as king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. He saw a vision while he was asleep. He wrote down the main parts of the dream.

²In my visions at night I, Daniel, saw the four winds of heaven stirring up the Mediterranean Sea.

³Four large animals, each one different from the others, came out of the sea.

⁴The first animal was like a lion, but it had wings like an eagle. I watched until its wings were plucked off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human and was given a human mind.

⁵I saw a second animal. It looked like a bear. It was raised on one side and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, "Get up, and eat as much meat as you want."

⁶After this, I saw another animal. It looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings, like the wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads. It was given power to rule.

⁷After this, I saw a fourth animal in my vision during the night. It was terrifying, dreadful, extraordinarily strong, and had large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed its victims and trampled whatever was left. It acted differently from all the other animals that I had seen before. It had ten horns.

⁸While I was thinking about the horns, another horn, a little horn, came up among them. It uprooted three of the other horns. This horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things.

⁹I watched until thrones were set up and the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, sat down. His clothes were as white as snow and the hair on his head was like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire.

¹⁰A river of fire flowed. It came from him. Thousands and thousands served him. Ten thousand times ten thousand were stationed in front of him. The court convened, and the books were opened.

¹¹I continued to watch because of the impressive words that the horn was speaking. I watched until the animal was killed. Its body was destroyed and put into a raging fire.

¹²The power of the rest of the animals was taken away, but they were allowed to live for a period of time.

¹³In my visions during the night, I saw among the clouds in heaven someone like the Son of Man. He came to the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, and was presented to him.

¹⁴He was given power, honor, and a kingdom. People from every province, nation, and language were to serve him. His power is an eternal power that will not be taken away. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

¹⁵I, Daniel, was deeply troubled, and my visions frightened me.

¹⁶I went to someone who was standing there and asked him to tell me the truth about all this. So he told me what all this meant.

¹⁷He said, "These four large animals are four kingdoms that will rise to power on the earth.

¹⁸But the holy people of the Most High will take possession of the kingdom and keep it forever and ever."

¹⁹Then I wanted to know the truth about the fourth animal, which was so different from all the others. It was very terrifying and had iron teeth and bronze claws. It devoured and crushed its victims, and trampled whatever was left.

²⁰I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that had come up and made three of the horns fall out. That horn had eyes and a mouth that spoke impressive things. It appeared to be bigger than the others.

²¹I saw that horn making war against the holy people and defeating them.

²²It did this until the Ancient One, who has lived for endless years, came and judged in favor of the holy people of the Most High. The time came when the holy people took possession of the kingdom.

²³He said, "The fourth animal will be the fourth of these kingdoms on earth. It will be different from all other kingdoms. It will devour, trample, and crush the whole world.

²⁴The ten horns are ten kings that will rise to power from that kingdom. Another king will rise to power after them. He will be different from the kings who came before him, and he will humble three kings.

²⁵He will speak against the Most High God, oppress the holy people of the Most High, and plan to change the appointed times and laws. The holy people will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half of a time.

²⁶But judgment will be handed down, his power will be taken away, and he will be completely and permanently destroyed.

²⁷The kingdom, along with the power and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven, will be given to the holy people of the Most High. Their kingdom is eternal. All other powers will serve and obey them."

²⁸Here is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was terrified by my thoughts, and I turned pale. I kept this to myself.

8¹In Belshazzars third year as king, I, Daniel, saw a vision. This vision came after the one I saw earlier.

²In my vision I saw myself in the fortress of Susa in the province of Elam. In my vision I saw myself at Ulai Gate.

³I looked up and saw a single ram standing beside the gate. The ram had two long horns, one longer than the other, though the longer one had grown up later.

⁴I saw the ram charging west, north, and south. No other animal could stand in front of it, and no one could escape from its power. It did anything it pleased and continued to grow.

⁵As I was watching closely, I saw a male goat coming from the west. It crossed the whole earth without touching it. This goat had a prominent horn between its eyes.

⁶The goat was coming toward the twohorned ram that I had seen standing beside the gate. It furiously ran at the ram.

⁷I saw it come closer to the ram. The goat was extremely angry with the ram, so it attacked the ram. It broke both of the rams horns. The ram didnt have the strength to stand up against the goat. So the ram was thrown down on the ground and trampled. No one could rescue the ram from the goats power.

⁸The male goat became very important. But when the goat became powerful, his large horn broke off. In its place grew four horns. They corresponded to the four winds of heaven.

⁹Out of one of the horns came a small horn. It gained power over the south, the east, and the beautiful land.

¹⁰It continued to gain power until it reached the army of heaven. It threw some of the army of heaven, the stars, down on the ground and trampled them.

¹¹Then it attacked the commander of the army so that it took the daily burnt offering from him and wrecked his holy place.

¹²In its rebelliousness it was given an army to put a stop to the daily burnt offering. It threw truth on the ground. The horn was successful in everything it did.

¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking. Another holy one said to the one who was speaking, "How long will the things in this visionthe daily burnt offering, the destructive rebellion, the surrender of the holy place, and the trampling of the armytake place?"

¹⁴He told me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings. Then the holy place will be made acceptable to God."

¹⁵Now as I, Daniel, watched the vision and tried to understand it, I saw someone who looked like a man standing in front of me.

¹⁶I heard a man in Ulai Gate call loudly, "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

¹⁷Gabriel came up beside me, and when he came, I was terrified and immediately knelt down. He said to me, "Son of man, understand that the vision is about the end times."

¹⁸As he spoke to me, I fainted facedown on the ground, but he touched me and made me stand up.

¹⁹He said, "I will tell you what will happen in the last days, the time of Gods anger, because the end time has been determined.

²⁰"The twohorned ram that you saw represents the kingdoms of Media and Persia.

²¹The hairy male goat is the kingdom of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is its first king.

²²The horn broke off, and four horns replaced it. Four kingdoms will come out of that nation, but they wont be as strong as the first king was.

²³"In the last days of those kingdoms, when rebellions are finished, a sternlooking king who understands mysterious things will rise to power.

²⁴He will become very strong, but not by his own strength. He will cause astounding destruction and will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy those who are powerful along with some holy people.

²⁵He will cleverly use his power to deceive others successfully. He will consider himself to be great and destroy many people when they don't expect it. He will oppose the Commander of Commanders, but he will be defeated, though not by any human power.

²⁶The vision about the 2,300 evenings and mornings that was explained to you is true. Seal the vision, because it is about things that will happen in the distant future."

²⁷I, Daniel, was exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up and worked for the king. The vision horrified me because I couldn't understand it.

9¹Xerxes son Darius, who was a Mede by birth, was made ruler of the kingdom of Babylon.

³So I turned to the Lord God and looked to him for help. I prayed, pleaded, and fasted in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴I prayed to the LORD my God. I confessed and said, "Lord, you are great and deserve respect as the only God. You keep your promise and show mercy to those who love you and obey your commandments.

⁵We have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from your commandments and laws.

⁶We havent listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, leaders, ancestors, and all the common people.

⁷You, Lord, are righteous. But we the men of Judah, the citizens of Jerusalem, and all the Israelites whom you scattered in countries near and far are still ashamed because we have been unfaithful to you.

⁸We, our kings, leaders, and ancestors are ashamed because we have sinned against you, LORD.

⁹"But you, Lord our God, are compassionate and forgiving, although we have rebelled against you.

¹⁰We never listened to you or lived by the teachings you gave us through your servants the prophets.

¹¹All Israel has ignored your teachings and refused to listen to you. So you brought on us the curses you swore in an oath, the curses written in the Teachings of your servant Moses. We sinned against you.

¹²So you did what you said you would do to us and our rulers by bringing a great disaster on us. Nowhere in the world has anything ever happened like what has happened to Jerusalem.

¹³This entire disaster happened to us, exactly as it was written in Moses Teachings. LORD our God, we never tried to gain your favor by turning from our wrongs and dedicating ourselves to your truth.

¹⁴So you were prepared to bring this disaster on us. LORD our God, you are righteous in everything you do. But we never listened to you.

¹⁵"Lord our God, you brought your people out of Egypt with your strong hand and made yourself famous even today. We have sinned and done evil things.

¹⁶Lord, since you are very righteous, turn your anger and fury away from your city, Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Jerusalem and your people are insulted by everyone around us because of our sins and the wicked things our ancestors did.

¹⁷"Our God, listen to my prayer and request. For your own sake, Lord, look favorably on your holy place, which is lying in ruins.

¹⁸Open your ears and listen, my God. Open your eyes and look at our ruins and at the city called by your name. We are not requesting this from you because we are righteous, but because you are very compassionate.

¹⁹Listen to us, Lord. Forgive us, Lord. Pay attention, and act. Don't delay! Do this for your sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

²⁰I continued to pray, confessing my sins and the sins of my people Israel. I humbly placed my request about my Gods holy mountain in front of the LORD my God.

²¹While I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the first vision, came to me about the time of the evening sacrifice. He was exhausted.

²²He informed me, "Daniel, this time I have come to give you insight.

²³As soon as you began to make your request, a reply was sent. I have come to give you the reply because you are highly respected. So study the message, and understand the vision.

²⁴"Seventy sets of seven time periods have been assigned for your people and your holy city. These time periods will serve to bring an end to rebellion, to stop sin, to forgive wrongs, to usher in everlasting righteousness, to put a seal on a prophets vision, and to anoint the Most Holy One.

²⁵Learn, then, and understand that from the time the command is given to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the anointed prince comes, seven sets of seven time periods and sixtytwo sets of seven time periods will pass. Jerusalem will be restored and rebuilt with a city square and a moat during the troubles of those times.

²⁶ But after the sixtytwo sets of seven time periods, the Anointed One will be cut off and have nothing. The city and the holy place will be destroyed with the prince who is to come. His end will come with a flood until the end of the destructive war that has been determined.

²⁷ He will confirm his promise with many for one set of seven time periods. In the middle of the seven time periods, he will stop the sacrifices and food offerings. This will happen along with disgusting things that cause destruction until those time periods come to an end. It has been determined that this will happen to those who destroy the city."

10¹ In Cyrus third year as king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel (who had been renamed Belteshazzar). The message was true. It was about a great war. Daniel understood the message because he was given insight during the vision.

²During those days I, Daniel, mourned for three whole weeks.

³I didnt eat any goodtasting food. No meat or wine entered my mouth. I didnt wash myself until the entire three weeks were over.

⁴On the twentyfourth day of the first month, I was by the great Tigris River.

⁵When I looked up, I saw a man dressed in linen, and he had a belt made of gold from Uphaz around his waist.

⁶His body was like beryl. His face looked like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches. His arms and legs looked like polished bronze. When he spoke, his voice sounded like the roar of a crowd.

⁷I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me didnt see the vision. Yet, they started to tremble violently, and they quickly hid themselves.

⁸So I was left alone to see this grand vision. I had no strength left in me.

My face turned deathly pale, and I was helpless.

⁹I heard the man speak, and as I listened to his words, I fainted facedown on the ground.

¹⁰Then a hand touched me and made my hands and knees shake.

¹¹The man said to me, "Daniel, you are highly respected. Pay attention to my words. Stand up, because I've been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up, trembling.

¹²He told me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel. God has heard everything that you said ever since the first day you decided to humble yourself in front of your God so that you could learn to understand things. I have come in response to your prayer.

¹³The commander of the Persian kingdom opposed me for 21 days. But then Michael, one of the chief commanders, came to help me because I was left alone with the kings of Persia.

¹⁴I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the last days, because the vision is about times still to come."

¹⁵When he said this to me, I bowed down with my face touching the ground and was silent.

¹⁶Then someone who looked like a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and began to talk. I said to the person standing in front of me, "Sir, because of this vision, pain has overwhelmed me, and I'm helpless.

¹⁷How can I talk to you, sir? I have no strength left, and the wind has been knocked out of me."

¹⁸Again, the person who looked like a human touched me, and I became stronger.

¹⁹He said, "Don't be afraid. You are highly respected. Everything is alright! Be strong! Be strong!" As he talked to me, I became stronger. I said, "Sir, tell me what you came to say. You have strengthened me."

²⁰He asked, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight the commander of Persia. When I go, the commander of Greece will come.

²¹However, I will tell you what is inscribed in the true writings. No one will support me when I fight these commanders except your commander, Michael.

11 ¹ During Darius the Medes first year as king, I strengthened and defended Michael."

² The person who looked like a human continued, "What I am about to tell you is the truth. Three more kings will rule Persia. Then there will be a fourth, who will become much richer than all the others. As he becomes strong through his wealth, he will turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

³ "Then a warrior king will come. He will rule a vast empire and do as he pleases.

⁴ But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken into pieces and divided in the directions of the four winds of heaven. The empire will not be given to his descendants. It will no longer be like his empire, since it will be uprooted and given to others.

⁵ "The southern king will be strong, but one of his officers will become stronger than he is and rule a vast empire.

⁶ After a few years the southern and northern kings will make an alliance. The southern king's daughter will go to the northern king to make peace. She won't hold on to her power, and the alliance won't last. She, those who came with her, and the one who fathered and protected her will be given away.

⁷"At that time a shoot will grow from her roots to replace her father. He will attack the northern army, enter the stronghold of the northern king, fight against them, and be victorious.

⁸He will take the metal statues of their gods and their precious utensils of silver and gold back to Egypt. He will rule for more years than the northern king.

⁹He will invade the southern kingdom and return to his own country.

¹⁰"Then his sons will prepare for war. They will assemble a large number of forces so that they can overwhelm the enemy and pass through its land. They will return and wage war all the way to the stronghold.

¹¹The southern king will be outraged. He will go to fight the northern king, who will raise a large army that will fall into the southern king's hands.

¹²When that army is captured, the southern king will become conceited.

Although he will dominate tens of thousands of people, he will not always be strong.

¹³"The northern king will return and raise an army larger than the first one. After a few years he will invade with a large army and a lot of equipment.

¹⁴In those times many people will rebel against the southern king, and violent men from your own people will rebel in keeping with this vision, but they will be defeated.

¹⁵Then the northern king will come, build dirt attack ramps, and capture a fortified city. The southern forces will not be able to withstand him. Even their best troops will not be strong enough.

¹⁶The invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to withstand his attack. He will rise to power in the beautiful land and it will be completely under his control.

¹⁷"Then the northern king will decide to invade with the power of his entire kingdom, and some decent men will invade with him. He will give the southern king his daughter as a wife in order to destroy the southern kingdom. But this will not succeed or help him.

¹⁸Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many of them. But a commander will silence the insults that the northern king makes and even insult him.

¹⁹He will turn back toward the fortresses in his own country, but he will stumble, fall, and disappear.

²⁰"Another king will take his place. He will have a cruel official go out in royal splendor. But in a few days the king will be destroyed, although not in anger or war.

²¹"A contemptible person will take his place. He will not be given royal splendor. He will invade when people are feeling secure, and he will seize the kingdom using false promises.

²²He will overwhelm large forces and defeat them, including the prince of the promise.

²³After an alliance has been made with him, he will act deceitfully and rise to power with only a few people.

²⁴When people feel secure, he will invade the richest parts of the provinces and do something that none of his predecessors ever did. He will distribute loot and wealth to his followers. He will invent new ways of attacking fortifications. But this will last only for a little while.

²⁵"With a large army he will summon his power and courage against the southern king, who will prepare for war with a large, strong army. But the southern king won't be able to withstand him because of the schemes devised against him.

²⁶People who eat the king's rich food will ruin him. His army will be overwhelmed, and many will die in battle.

²⁷The two kings will both plan to do evil. They will sit at the same table and tell lies. But they will not succeed, because the end must wait until the appointed time.

²⁸The northern king will return to his country with a lot of wealth. He will be determined to fight against the holy promise. He will take action and return to his own country.

²⁹"At the appointed time he will again invade the south, but this time will be different from the first.

³⁰Ships will come from the west to attack him, and he will be discouraged and turn back. Angry at the holy promise, he will return, take action, and favor those who abandon the holy promise.

³¹His forces will dishonor the holy place (the fortress), take away the daily burnt offering, and set up the disgusting thing that causes destruction.

³²With flattery he will corrupt those who abandon the promise. But the people who know their God will be strong and take action.

³³"People who are wise will help many to understand. But for some time they will be defeated by swords and flames. They will be captured and looted.

³⁴As they are being defeated, they will get a little help, but many who are not sincere will join them.

³⁵Some of the wise people will be defeated in order to refine, purify, and make them white until the end times. But the appointed time is still to come.

³⁶"The king will do as he pleases. He will highly honor himself above every god. He will say amazing things against the God of gods. He will succeed until Gods anger is over, because what has been decided must be done.

³⁷He will have no interest in the gods of his ancestors or desire for women. He will have no interest in any god, because he will make himself greater than anyone else.

³⁸Instead, he will honor the god of fortresses. With gold, silver, precious stones, and other expensive things he will honor a god his ancestors never heard of.

³⁹With the help of a foreign god, he will deal with strong fortresses. He will give high honors to those who acknowledge him, make them rulers over many people, and distribute land for a price.

⁴⁰"In the end times the southern king will attack him. The northern king will rush at him like a storm with chariots, horses, and many ships. He will invade countries, overwhelm them, and pass through their land.

⁴¹ He will invade the beautiful land, and tens of thousands will be defeated. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of the Ammonites will escape from his power.

⁴² He will use his power against many countries. Even Egypt will not escape.

⁴³ He will control gold and silver treasures and all Egypt's treasures. Libya and Sudan will surrender to him.

⁴⁴ But news from the east and the north will frighten him. He will leave very angry to destroy and exterminate many.

⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at a beautiful holy mountain. When he comes to his end, there will be no one to help him."

12¹ The person who looked like a human continued, "At that time Michael, the great commander, will stand up on behalf of the descendants of your people. It will be a time of trouble unlike any that has existed from the time there have been nations until that time. But at that time your people, everyone written in the book, will be rescued.

² Many sleeping in the ground will wake up. Some will wake up to live forever, but others will wake up to be ashamed and disgraced forever.

³Those who are wise will shine like the brightness on the horizon. Those who lead many people to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

⁴"But you, Daniel, keep these words secret, and seal the book until the end times. Many will travel everywhere, and knowledge will grow."

⁵When I, Daniel, looked up, I saw two men standing there. One man stood on one side of the river, and the other one stood on the other side.

⁶One of them asked the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river, "How long will it be until these miracles are over?"

⁷I heard the man dressed in linen clothes who was above the river. He raised his right hand and left hand to heaven and swore an oath by the one who lives forever. He said, "It will be for a time, times, and half of a time. When the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, then all these things will be finished."

⁸I heard him, but I did not understand. So I asked him, "Sir, how will these things end?"

⁹He replied, "Go, Daniel. These words are to be kept secret and sealed until the end times.

¹⁰Many will be purified, made white, and refined. But wicked people will do wicked things, and none of them will understand. Only wise people will understand.

¹¹From the time the daily burnt offering is taken away and the disgusting thing that causes destruction is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

¹²Blessed are those who wait until they reach 1,335 days.

¹³But go on until the end. You will rest, and you will rise for your inheritance at the end of time."

Hosea

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Hosea, son of Beerī, when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah and when Jeroboam, son of Joash, was king of Israel.

² When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, the LORD told him, "Marry a prostitute, and have children with that prostitute. The people in this land have acted like prostitutes and abandoned the LORD."

³ So Hosea married Gomer, daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and had a son.

⁴ The LORD told Hosea, "Name him Jezreel. In a little while I will punish Jehu's family for the people they slaughtered at Jezreel. Then I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

⁵ On that day I will break Israel's bows and arrows in the valley of Jezreel."

⁶ Gomer became pregnant again and had a daughter. The LORD told Hosea, "Name her Lo Ruhamah [Unloved]. I will no longer love the nation of Israel. I will no longer forgive them.

⁷Yet, I will love the descendants of Judah. I will rescue them because I am the LORD their God. I won't use bows, swords, wars, horses, or horsemen to rescue them."

⁸After Gomer had weaned Lo Ruhamah, she became pregnant again and had a son.

⁹The LORD said, "Name him Lo Ammi [Not My People]. You are no longer my people, and I am no longer your God.,

¹⁰"Yet, the Israelites will become as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore. No one will be able to measure them or count them. Wherever they were told, You are not my people, they will be told, You are the children of the living God.

¹¹The people of Judah and Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint one leader for themselves, and they will grow in the land. The day of Jezreel will be a great day.

2¹"So call your brothers Ammi [My People], and call your sisters Ruhamah [Loved].

²"Plead with your mother; plead with her. She no longer acts like my wife. She no longer treats me like her husband. Tell her to stop acting like a prostitute. Tell her to remove the lovers from between her breasts.

³If she refuses, I will strip her. I will leave her as naked as the day she was born. I will turn her into a dry and barren land, and she will die of thirst.

⁴I wont love her children, because they are children of a prostitute.

⁵Their mother acted like a prostitute. The woman who became pregnant with them did shameful things. She said, Ill chase after my lovers. They will give me food and water, wool and linen, olive oil and wine.

⁶"That is why I will block her way with thornbushes and build a wall so that she cant get through.

⁷She will run after her lovers, but she wont catch them. She will search for them, but she wont find them. Then she will say, Ill go back to my first husband. Things were better for me than they are now.

⁸"She doesn't believe that I gave her grain, new wine, and olive oil. I gave her plenty of silver and gold, but she used it to make statues of Baal.

⁹That is why I will take back my grain when it has ripened and my new wine when it's in season. I will take away the wool and the linen that I gave her to cover her naked body.

¹⁰I will show her naked body to her lovers, and no one will rescue her from my power.

¹¹I will put an end to all her celebrations: her annual festivals, her New Moon Festivals, her weekly worship days, all her appointed festivals.

¹²I will destroy her grapevines and fig trees. She said that they were gifts from her lovers. I will turn her vineyards into a forest, and wild animals will devour them.

¹³I will punish her for all the times she burned incense as an offering to other gods, the Baals. She put on her rings and jewelry, and she chased after her lovers. She forgot me," declares the LORD.

¹⁴"That is why I'm going to win her back. I will lead her into the desert. I will speak tenderly to her.

¹⁵I will give her vineyards there. I will make the valley of Achor [Disaster] a door of hope. Then she will respond as she did when she was young, as she did when she came out of Egypt.

¹⁶"On that day she will call me her husband," declares the LORD. "She will no longer call me her master.

¹⁷I won't allow her to say the names of other gods called Baal. She will never again call out their names.

¹⁸"On that day I will make an arrangement with the wild animals, the birds, and the animals that crawl on the ground. I will destroy all the bows, swords, and weapons of war, so people can live safely.

¹⁹"Israel, I will make you my wife forever. I will be honest and faithful to you. I will show you my love and compassion.

²⁰I will be true to you, my wife. Then you will know the LORD.

²¹"On that day I will answer your prayers," declares the LORD. "I will speak to the sky, it will speak to the earth,

²²and the earth will produce grain, new wine, and olive oil. You will produce many crops, Jezreel.

²³I will plant my people in the land. Those who are not loved I will call my loved ones. Those who are not my people I will call my people. Then they will say, You are our God!"

3¹Then the LORD told me, "Love your wife again, even though she is loved by others and has committed adultery. Love her as I, the LORD, love the Israelites, even though they have turned to other gods and love to eat raisin cakes."

²So I bought her for 23 ounces of silver and 10 bushels of barley.

³Then I told her, "You must wait for me a long time. Don't be a prostitute or offer yourself to any man. I will wait for you."

⁴In the same way, the Israelites will wait a long time without kings or officials, without sacrifices or sacred stones, and without ephods or family idols.

⁵After that, the Israelites will turn and look to the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD for his blessings in the last days.

4¹ Listen to the word of the LORD, you Israelites. The LORD has brought these charges against those who live in the land: "There is no faith, no love, and no knowledge of God in the land.

² There is cursing, lying, murdering, stealing, and adultery. People break my laws, and there is one murder after another.

³ That is why the land is drying up, and everyone who lives in it is passing away. Wild animals, birds, and fish are dying.

⁴ "No one should accuse other people or bring charges against them. My case is against you priests.

⁵ During the day you stumble, and during the night the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother, the nation of Israel.

⁶ I will destroy my people because they are ignorant. You have refused to learn, so I will refuse to let you be my priests. You have forgotten the teachings of your God, so I will forget your children.

⁷ The more priests there are, the more they sin against me. So I will turn their glory into shame.

⁸ They feed on the sins of my people, and they want them to do wicked things.

⁹ So the priests will be punished like the people. I will punish them for their wicked ways and pay them back for what they have done.

¹⁰ "They will eat, but they'll never be full. They will have sex with prostitutes, but they'll never have children. They have abandoned the LORD.

¹¹ Prostitutes, old wine, and new wine have robbed them of their senses.

¹² My people ask their wooden idols for help. A piece of wood tells them what to do. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray. They commit adultery by giving themselves to other gods.

¹⁴ Yet, I will not punish your daughters when they become prostitutes or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery. The men go to prostitutes and offer sacrifices with temple prostitutes. These foolish people will be trampled.

¹⁵ "Israel, you act like a prostitute. Don't let Judah become guilty too. Don't go to Gilgal. Don't go to Beth Aven. Don't take the oath, As the LORD lives.

¹⁶ "The people of Israel are as stubborn as a bull. How can the LORD feed them like lambs in an open pasture?

¹⁷ The people of Ephraim have chosen to worship idols. Leave them alone!

¹⁸ When they're done drinking their wine, they continue to have sex with the prostitutes. Their rulers dearly love to act shamefully.

¹⁹ The wind will carry them away in its wings, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

5¹ "Listen to this, you priests! Pay attention, nation of Israel! Open your ears, royal family! This is my decision about you. You set traps at Mizpah and spread out nets on Mount Tabor.

²You are deeply involved in sin. So I will punish all of you.

³I know Ephraim, and Israel isn't a stranger to me. Now, Ephraim, you are acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

⁵The people of Israel's arrogance testifies against them. Israel and Ephraim stumble because of their sins, and Judah stumbles with them.

⁶They go with their sheep and their cattle to search for the LORD, but they can't find him. He has left them.

⁷They have been unfaithful to the LORD, because their children do not belong to him. Now their New Moon Festivals will devour them and their fields.

⁸"Blow the rams horn in Gibeah. Blow the trumpet in Ramah. Sound the alarm at Beth Aven, you descendants of Benjamin.

⁹Ephraim will become a wasteland when the time for punishment comes. I will make the truth known among the tribes of Israel.

¹⁰The leaders of Judah are like those who move boundary markers. I will pour my fury on them like water.

¹¹Ephraim is oppressedcrushed by punishment, because its people are determined to chase idols.

¹²I will destroy Ephraim as a moth destroys clothing. I will destroy the nation of Judah as rot destroys wood.

¹³"When Ephraim saw that he was sick and when Judah saw his own wounds, Ephraim went to Assyria to ask the great king for help. But the king couldnt cure them or heal their wounds.

¹⁴I will be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the nation of Judah. I will carry them off, and no one will rescue them.

¹⁵I will go back to my place until they admit that they are guilty. Then they will search for me. In their distress they will eagerly look for me."

6¹Lets return to the LORD. Even though he has torn us to pieces, he will heal us. Even though he has wounded us, he will bandage our wounds.

²After two days he will revive us. On the third day he will raise us so that we may live in his presence.

³Lets learn about the LORD. Lets get to know the LORD. He will come to us as sure as the morning comes. He will come to us like the autumn rains and the spring rains that water the ground.

⁴"What should I do with you, Ephraim? What should I do with you, Judah? Your love is like fog in the morning. It disappears as quickly as the morning dew.

⁵That is why I cut you down by sending the prophets. I killed you with the words from my mouth. My judgments shined on you like light.

⁶I want your loyalty, not your sacrifices. I want you to know me, not to give me burnt offerings.

⁷"Like Adam, you rejected the promise. You were unfaithful to me.

⁸Gilead is a city filled with troublemakers. It is stained with bloody footprints.

⁹The priests are like gangs of robbers who lie in ambush for a person. They murder on the road to Shechem.

Certainly, they have committed a crime.

¹⁰"I have seen horrible things in the nation of Israel. Ephraim is acting like a prostitute, and Israel is unclean.

¹¹"Yet, Judah, I have set a harvest time for you when I bring my people back from captivity.

7¹"Whenever I want to heal Israel, all I can see is Ephraim's sin and Samaria's wickedness. People cheat each other. They break into houses and steal. They rob people in the streets.

²They don't realize that I remember all the evil things they've done. Now their sins surround them. Their sins are in my presence.

³"They make kings happy with the wicked things they do. They make officials happy with the lies they tell.

⁴They all commit adultery. They are like a heated oven, an oven so hot that a baker doesn't have to fan its flames when he makes bread.

⁵On the day of the kings celebration, the officials become drunk from wine, and the king joins mockers.

⁶They become hot like an oven while they lie in ambush. All night long their anger smolders, but in the morning it burns like a raging fire.

⁷They are all as hot as an oven. They consume their judges like a fire. All their kings die in battle, and none of them calls to me.

⁸"Ephraim mixes with other nations. Ephraim, you are like a halfbaked loaf of bread.

⁹Foreigners are using up your strength, but you dont realize it. You have become a grayhaired, old man, but you dont realize it.

¹⁰Israel, your arrogance testifies against you, but even after all this, you dont turn to the LORD your God or look to him for help.

¹¹Ephraim, you are like a silly, senseless dove. You call for Egypt and run to Assyria for help.

¹²When you go, I will spread my net over you. I will snatch you out of the air like a bird. I will punish you for all the evil things you have done.

¹³"How horrible it will be for these people. They have run away from me. They must be destroyed because they've rebelled against me. I want to reclaim them, but they tell lies about me.

¹⁴They don't pray to me sincerely, even though they cry in their beds and make cuts on their bodies while praying for grain and new wine. They have turned against me.

¹⁵I trained them and made them strong. Yet, they plan evil against me.

¹⁶They don't return to the Most High. They are like a defective bow. Their officials will die in battle because they curse. The people in Egypt will ridicule them for this.

8¹"Sound the alarm on the ram's horn. The enemy swoops down on the LORDS temple like an eagle. The people of Israel have rejected my promise and rebelled against my teachings.

²They cry out to me, We acknowledge you as our God.

³However, they have rejected what is good. The enemy will persecute them.

⁴"They chose their own kings, kings I didn't approve. They chose their own princes, princes I didn't know. They chose to make idols with their own silver and gold. Because of this, they will be destroyed.

⁵Get rid of your calfshaped idol, Samaria. My anger burns against these people. How long will they remain unclean?

⁶Samaria's calfshaped idol was made in Israel. Skilled workers made it. It is not a god. It will be smashed to pieces.

⁷"The people of Israel plant the wind, but they harvest a storm. A field of grain that doesn't ripen will never produce any grain. Even if it did produce grain, foreigners would eat it all.

⁸Israel will be swallowed up. It has already mixed in with the other nations. It has become worthless.

⁹"The people of Israel went to Assyria. They were like wild donkeys wandering off alone. The people of Ephraim sold themselves to their lovers.

¹⁰Even though they sold themselves among the nations, I will gather them now. They will suffer for a while under the burdens of kings and princes.

¹¹"The more altars that the people of Ephraim build to make offerings to pay for their sins, the more places they have for sinning.

¹²I have written many things for them in my teachings, but they consider these things strange and foreign.

¹³They offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat of sacrifices, but I, the LORD, do not accept these sacrifices. Now I will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins. They will go back to Egypt.

¹⁴The people of Israel have built palaces, and they have forgotten their maker. The people of Judah have built many fortified cities. I will send a fire on their cities and burn down their palaces."

9¹ Israel, don't rejoice. Don't celebrate as other nations do. You have been unfaithful to your God. You have sold sex on every threshing floor.

²There won't be enough grain to feed people. There won't be enough wine to go around.

³The people of Ephraim wont stay in the LORDS land. They will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

⁴They wont pour wine offerings to the LORD, and their sacrifices wont please him. Their sacrifices will be like the food that mourners eat. All who eat this food will be unclean. Their food will only satisfy their hunger. It will not be brought as an offering to the LORDS temple.

⁵What will they do on the day of an appointed festival or on the LORDS festival days?

⁶Even if they escape without being destroyed, Egypt will capture them and Memphis will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures. Thorns will grow over their tents.

⁷The time for them to be punished will come. The time for them to pay for their sins will come. When this happens, Israel will know it. They think that prophets are fools and that spiritual people are crazy. They have sinned a lot, and they are very hostile.

⁸Prophets are Gods watchmen over Ephraim. Yet, traps are set on every prophets path, and people are hostile in the temple of their God.

⁹People have deeply corrupted themselves as they once did at Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish them because of their sins.

¹⁰The LORD said, "When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert. When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the first figs of the harvest. But they went to Baal Peor and worshiped shameful idols. They became as disgusting as the things they worshiped.

¹¹"Ephraims glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no more pregnancies, births, or babies.

¹²Even if they bring up children, I will take those children away before they grow up. Yes, how horrible it will be for them when I leave them.

¹³I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But the people of Ephraim will bring out their children to be killed."

¹⁴LORD, give them what they deserve. Make the women miscarry, or else make them unable to nurse their babies.

¹⁵"All Ephraim's wickedness began in Gilgal; I hated the people there. I will force them out of my temple because of their wickedness, and I won't love them anymore. All their officials are rebellious.

¹⁶"The people of Ephraim are like sick plants. Their roots are dried up. They have no fruit. Even if they were to have children, I would kill their dear children."

¹⁷My God will reject them because they refused to listen to him. They will wander among the nations.

10¹The people of Israel are like vines that used to produce fruit. The more fruit they produced, the more altars they built. The more their land produced, the more stone markers they set up to honor other gods.

²They are hypocrites. Now they must take their punishment. God will tear down their altars and destroy their stone markers.

³So they'll say, "We have no king because we didn't fear the LORD. Even if we had a king, he couldnt do anything for us."

⁴They say many things. They lie when they take oaths, and they make promises they dont intend to keep. Thats why lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

⁵Those who live in Samaria fear the calfshaped idol at Beth Aven. The people will mourn over it. The priests will cry loudly because its glory will be taken away into captivity.

⁶The thing itself will be carried to Assyria as a present to the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced. Israel will be ashamed because of its plans.

⁷The king of Samaria will be carried away like a piece of wood on water.

⁸The illegal worship sites of Aven will be destroyed. Israel sins there. Thorns and weeds will grow over those altars. People will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

⁹Israel, you have sinned ever since the incident at Gibeah. You never change. War will overtake the wicked people in Gibeah.

¹⁰"I will punish them when I'm ready. Armies will gather to attack them. They will be punished for their many sins.

¹¹"Ephraim is like a trained calf that loves to thresh grain. I will put a yoke on its beautiful neck. I will harness Ephraim. Judah must plow. Jacob must break up the ground.

¹²"Break new ground. Plant righteousness, and harvest the fruit that your loyalty will produce for me." It's time to seek the LORD! When he comes, he will rain righteousness on you.

¹³You have planted wickedness and harvested evil. You have eaten the fruit that your lies produced. You have trusted your own power and your many warriors.

¹⁴So your army will hear the noise of battle. All your fortresses will be destroyed like the time Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in battle. Mothers and their children were smashed to death.

¹⁵This is what will happen to you, Bethel, because you have done many wicked things. At daybreak, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

11 ¹ "When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

² The more I called them, the farther they went away. They sacrificed to other gods the Baals, and they burned incense to idols.

³ I was the one who taught the people of Ephraim to walk. I took them by the hand. But they didn't realize that I had healed them.

⁴ I led them with cords of human kindness, with ropes of love. I removed the yokes from their necks. I bent down and fed them.

⁵ "They will not return to Egypt. Instead, Assyria will rule them because they have refused to return to me.

⁶ War will sweep through their cities, demolish their city gates, and put an end to their plans.

⁷ My people are determined to turn away from me. Even if they call to the Most High, he will not pardon them.

⁸ "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboim? I have changed my mind. I am deeply moved.

⁹I will not act on my burning anger. I will not destroy Ephraim again. I am God, not a human. I am the Holy One among you, and I will not come to you in anger.

¹⁰"My people will follow me when I roar like a lion. When I roar, my children will come trembling from the west.

¹¹They will come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from Assyria. I will settle them in their own homes," declares the LORD.

¹²"Ephraim surrounds me with lies. The nation of Israel surrounds me with deceit." Judah rebels against God, against the Holy One who is faithful.

12¹The people of Ephraim try to catch the wind and try to chase the east wind all day. They are very violent and destructive. They make treaties with Assyria and take olive oil to Egypt.

²The LORD brings charges against Judah and punishes Jacob because of the way their people act. He will pay them back for what they have done.

³ Their ancestor Jacob held on to his brothers heel while the two of them were in their mothers womb. When Jacob became a man, he struggled with God.

⁴ He struggled with the Messenger and won. Jacob cried and pleaded with him. Jacob found him at Bethel, and he talked with him there.

⁵ The LORD is the God of Armies. The LORD is the name by which he is remembered.

⁶ Return to your God. Be loyal and fair, and always wait with hope for your God.

⁷ The LORD says, "The merchants use dishonest scales. They love to cheat people.

⁸ The people of Ephraim say, We're rich. We've made a fortune. With all this wealth, no one will find us guilty of any sin.

⁹ I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. I will make you live in tents again as you did during your appointed festivals.

¹⁰ I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions. I taught lessons through the prophets."

¹¹ The people of Gilead are evil. They are worthless. They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal. But their altars will become like piles of rubble beside a plowed field.

¹² Jacob fled to the country of Syria. Israel worked to get a wife; he took care of sheep to pay for her.

¹³ The LORD used a prophet to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt. He used a prophet to take care of them.

¹⁴ The people of Ephraim made the LORD bitter. He will hold them guilty of murder. The Lord will pay them back for their insults.

13¹ When the tribe of Ephraim spoke, people trembled. The people of Ephraim were important in Israel. Then they became guilty of worshiping Baal, so they must die.

² They keep on sinning more and more. They make idols from silver for themselves. These idols are skillfully made. All of them are the work of craftsmen. People say this about the Israelites: "They offer human sacrifices and kiss calfshaped idols."

³ That is why they will be like fog in the morning and like morning dew that disappears quickly. They will be like straw blown away from threshing floors. They will be like smoke rising from chimneys.

⁴"I am the LORD your God. I brought you out of Egypt. You have known no god besides me. There is no savior except me.

⁵I took care of you in the desert, in a dry land.

⁶When I fed you, you were full. When you were full, you became arrogant. That is why you forgot me.

⁷So I will be like a lion. Like a leopard I will wait by the road to ambush you.

⁸Like a bear that has lost her cubs, I will attack you. I will rip you open. Like a lion I will devour you. Like a wild animal I will tear you apart.

⁹You are destroying yourself, Israel. You are against me, your helper.

¹⁰"Where, now, is your king, the one who is supposed to save you? Where in all your cities are your judges? You said, Give us kings and officials!

¹¹I gave you a king when I was angry, and I took him away when I was furious.

¹²"Ephraim's wickedness is on record. The record of the people's sins is safely stored away.

¹³They have the opportunity to live again, but they are not smart enough to take it. They are like a baby who is about to be born but won't come out of its mother's womb.

¹⁴"I want to free them from the power of the grave. I want to reclaim them from death. Death, I want to be a plague to you. Grave, I want to destroy you. I won't even think of changing my plans."

¹⁵The people of Ephraim have become important among their relatives. However, the LORD'S scorching wind will come from the east. It will blow out of the desert. Then their springs will run dry, and their wells will dry up. The wind will destroy every precious thing in their storehouses.

¹⁶The people of Samaria are guilty as charged because they rebelled against their God. They will be killed in war, their children will be smashed to death, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

14¹ Israel, return to the LORD your God. You have stumbled because of your sins.

² Return to the LORD, and say these things to him: "Forgive all our sins, and kindly receive us. Then we will praise you with our lips.

³ Assyria cannot save us. We won't ride on horses anymore. We will never again say that the things our hands have made are our gods. You love orphans."

⁴ The LORD says, "I will cure them of their unfaithfulness. I will love them freely. I will no longer be angry with them.

⁵ I will be like dew to the people of Israel. They will blossom like flowers. They will be firmly rooted like cedars from Lebanon.

⁶ They will be like growing branches. They will be beautiful like olive trees. They will be fragrant like cedars from Lebanon.

⁷ They will live again in God's shadow. They will grow like grain. They will blossom like grapevines. They will be as famous as the wines from Lebanon.

⁸"The people of Ephraim will have nothing more to do with idols. I will answer them and take care of them. I am like a growing pine tree. Their fruit comes from me."

⁹Wise people will understand these things. A person with insight will recognize them. The LORDS ways are right. Righteous people live by them. Rebellious people stumble over them.

Joel

1 ¹ This is what the LORD said to Joel, son of Pethuel.

² Listen to this, you leaders! Open your ears, all inhabitants of this land! Nothing like this has ever happened in your lifetime or in your ancestors lifetime.

³ Tell your children about it. Have your children tell their children. Have your grandchildren tell their children.

⁴ What young locusts leave, mature locusts will eat. What mature locusts leave, adult locusts will eat. What adult locusts leave, grasshoppers will eat.

⁵ Wake up and cry, you drunks! Cry loudly, you wine drinkers! New wine has been taken away from you.

⁶ A strong nation attacked my land. It has too many soldiers to count. They have teeth like lions. They have fangs like grown lions.

⁷ They destroyed my grapevines. They ruined my fig trees. They stripped off what they could eat, threw the rest away, and left the branches bare.

⁸Cry loudly like a young woman who is dressed in sackcloth, mourning for the man she was going to marry.

⁹Grain offerings and wine offerings are no longer brought to the LORDS temple. The priests, the LORDS servants, mourn.

¹⁰Israels fields are ruined, and the ground is dried up. The grain has been destroyed. The new wine has dried up. The olive oil has run out.

¹¹Be sad, you farmers! Cry loudly, you grape growers! Mourn for the wheat and the barley. The harvest is destroyed in the field.

¹²The grapevines are dried up. The fig trees are withered. The pomegranate, palm, and apricot trees, as well as all the trees in the orchards, have died. Yes, the joy of these people has died too.

¹³Put on your sackcloth and mourn, you priests. Cry loudly, you servants of the altar. Spend the night in sackcloth, you servants of my God. Grain offerings and wine offerings are withheld from your Gods temple.

¹⁴Schedule a time to fast! Call for an assembly! Gather the leaders and everyone who lives in the land. Bring them to the temple of the LORD your God, and cry to the LORD for help.

¹⁵This will be a terrible day! The day of the LORD is near, and it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

¹⁶Food disappears right before our eyes. Happiness and rejoicing disappear from our Gods temple.

¹⁷Seeds shrivel up in their shells. Storehouses are destroyed. Barns are ruined. The grain has dried up.

¹⁸The animals groan. Herds of cattle wander around confused. Theres no pasture for them. Even flocks of sheep are suffering.

¹⁹O LORD, I cry to you for help! Fire has burned up the open pastures. Flames have burned up all the trees in the orchards.

²⁰Even wild animals long for you. Streams run dry. Fire has burned up the open pastures.

2¹ Blow the rams horn in Zion. Sound the alarm on my holy mountain. Everyone who lives in the land should tremble, because the day of the LORD is coming. Certainly, it is near.

²It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and overcast skies. A large and mighty army will spread over the mountains like the dawn. Nothing like this has ever happened. Nothing like this will ever happen again.

³In front of this army a fire burns. Behind it flames are blazing. In front of it the land is like the garden of Eden. Behind it the land is like a barren desert. Nothing escapes it!

⁴The soldiers look like horses. They run like war horses.

⁵As they leap on mountaintops, they sound like rattling chariots, like crackling fire burning up straw, and like a mighty army prepared for battle.

⁶People are terrified in their presence. Every face turns pale.

⁷They run like warriors. They climb walls like soldiers. They march straight ahead. They do not leave their places.

⁸They do not crowd one another. They keep in their own lines. Even when they break through the defenses, they do not break their ranks.

⁹They rush into the city. They run along the wall. They climb into houses. They enter through windows like thieves.

¹⁰The earth quakes in their presence, and the sky shakes. The sun and the moon turn dark, and the stars no longer shine.

¹¹The LORD shouts out orders to his army. His forces are very large. The troops that carry out his commands are mighty. The day of the LORD is extremely terrifying. Who can endure it?

¹²"But even now," declares the LORD, "return to me with all your heart with fasting, crying, and mourning."

¹³Tear your hearts, not your clothes. Return to the LORD your God. He is merciful and compassionate, patient, and always ready to forgive and to change his plans about disaster.

¹⁴Who knows? He may reconsider and change his plan and leave a blessing for you. Then you could give grain offerings and wine offerings to the LORD your God.

¹⁵Blow the rams horn in Zion. Schedule a time to fast. Call for an assembly.

¹⁶Gather the people. Prepare them for a holy meeting. Assemble the leaders. Gather the children, even the nursing infants. Grooms leave their rooms. Brides leave their chambers.

¹⁷The priests who serve the LORD cry between the altar and the entrance to the temple. They say, "Spare your people, O LORD. Don't let the people who belong to you become a disgrace. Don't let the nations ridicule them. Why should people ask, Where is their God?"

¹⁸Then the LORD became concerned about his land, and he had pity on his people.

¹⁹The LORD said to his people, "I am going to send grain, new wine, and olive oil to you. You will be satisfied with them. I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

²⁰"I will keep the northern army far from you, and I will force it into a dry and barren land. The soldiers in front will be forced into the eastern sea. The soldiers in back will be forced into the western sea. A foul odor will rise from the dead bodies. They will stink." He has done great things!

²¹ Land, do not be afraid. Be glad and rejoice. The LORD has done great things!

²² Wild animals, do not be afraid. The pastures in the wilderness have turned green. The trees have produced their fruit. There are plenty of figs and grapes.

²³ People of Zion, be glad and find joy in the LORD your God. The LORD has given you the Teacher of Righteousness. He has sent the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.

²⁴ The threshing floors will be filled with grain. The vats will overflow with new wine and olive oil.

²⁵ "Then I will repay you for the years that the mature locusts, the adult locusts, the grasshoppers, and the young locusts ate your crops. (They are the large army that I sent against you.)

²⁶ You will have plenty to eat, and you will be full. You will praise the name of the LORD your God, who has performed miracles for you. My people will never be ashamed again.

²⁷ You will know that I am in Israel. I am the LORD your God, and there is no other. My people will never be ashamed again.

²⁸"After this, I will pour my Spirit on everyone. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions.

²⁹In those days I will pour my Spirit on servants, on both men and women.

³⁰I will work miracles in the sky and on the earth: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke.

³¹The sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood before the terrifying day of the LORD comes."

³²Then whoever calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. Those who escape will be on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem. Among the survivors will be those whom the LORD calls, as the LORD has promised.

3¹"In those days and at that time, I will bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem.

²I will gather all the nations. I will bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat. I will judge them there. They scattered the Israelites, the people who belong to me, among the nations. They divided my land.

³They threw dice for my people. They traded boys for prostitutes. They sold girls so that they could buy wine to drink.

⁴"Now what do you have against me, Tyre and Sidon and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will quickly pay you back for what you have done.

⁵You took my silver and my gold. You brought my finest treasures to your temples.

⁶You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could send them far away from their land.

⁷I am going to make them leave the place where you sold them. I will pay you back for what you have done.

⁸I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. They will sell them to the people of Sheba, a nation that is far away." The LORD has spoken.

⁹Announce this among the nations: Prepare yourselves for war. Wake up the warriors. Have all the warriors come near and attack.

¹⁰ Hammer your plowblades into swords and your pruning shears into spears. Weaklings should say that they are warriors.

¹¹ Hurry from every direction, and gather there, all you nations. O LORD, bring your soldiers.

¹² Wake up, you nations. Come to the valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

¹³ Cut them down like grain. The harvest is ripe. Stomp on them as you would stomp on grapes. The winepress is full. The vats overflow. The nations are very wicked.

¹⁴ There are many, many people in the valley of decision. The day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

¹⁵ The sun and the moon will turn dark. The stars will no longer shine.

¹⁶ The LORD will roar from Zion, and his voice will thunder from Jerusalem. The sky and the earth will shake. The LORD will be a refuge for his people. He will be a stronghold for the people of Israel.

¹⁷ "You will know that I am the LORD your God. I live on my holy mountain, Zion. Jerusalem will be holy. Foreigners will never invade it again.

¹⁸On that day new wine will cover the mountains. Milk will flow on the hills. Water will flow in all the brooks of Judah. A spring will flow from the LORDS temple. It will water the valley of Shittim.

¹⁹Egypt will become a wasteland. Edom will become a barren desert. This is because the nations were cruel to Judah. They murdered innocent people in their land.

²⁰People will always live in Judah. People will live in Jerusalem from now on.

²¹I will punish those who murder." The LORD lives in Zion!

Amos

1 ¹ These are the words of Amos, one of the sheep farmers from Tekoa. He saw a vision about Israel during the reigns of Judah's King Uzziah and Israel's King Jeroboam, son of Joash. This happened two years before the earthquake.

² He said: The LORD roars from Zion, and his voice thunders from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds are turning brown, and the top of Mount Carmel is dried up.

³ This is what the LORD says: Because Damascus has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Arameans have crushed the people of Gilead with ironspiked threshing sledges.

⁴ I will send a fire on the house of Hazael and burn down the palaces of Ben Hadad.

⁵ I will break the bars on the gates of Damascus. I will cut off those living in Aven Valley and the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into captivity at Kir. The LORD has said this.

⁶This is what the LORD says: Because Gaza has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Philistines have taken all the people captive in order to hand them over to the Edomites.

⁷I will send a fire on the walls of Gaza and burn down its palaces.

⁸I will cut off those living in Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will turn my power against Ekron. The rest of the Philistines will die. The Almighty LORD has said this.

⁹This is what the LORD says: Because Tyre has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Tyrians have handed all the people over to the Edomites. The Tyrians didn't remember their treaty with their relatives.

¹⁰I will send a fire on the walls of Tyre and burn down its palaces.

¹¹This is what the LORD says: Because Edom has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Edomites pursued their relatives with swords. They refused to show any compassion to them. Their anger was unstoppable. They refused to control their fury.

¹²I will send a fire on Teman and burn down the palaces of Bozrah.

¹³This is what the LORD says: Because Ammon has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Ammonites enlarged their territory by ripping open pregnant women in Gilead.

¹⁴I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah and burn down its palaces while troops are shouting on the day of battle and winds are howling on the day of the storm.

¹⁵Their king will go into captivity along with his officials. The LORD has said this.

2¹This is what the LORD says: Because Moab has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The Moabites have cremated Edom's king.

²I will send a fire on Moab and burn down the palaces of Kerioth. Moab will die during the noise of battle while troops are shouting and rams horns are blowing.

³I will take their judges away from them. I will kill all their officials at the same time. The LORD has said this.

⁴This is what the LORD says: Because Judah has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The people of Judah have rejected the LORDS Teachings and havent kept his laws. They have been led astray by false teachings, the same ones their ancestors followed.

⁵I will send a fire on Judah and burn down the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁶This is what the LORD says: Because Israel has committed three crimes, and now a fourth crime, I will not change my plans. The people of Israel sell the righteous for money and the needy for a pair of sandals.

⁷They stomp the heads of the poor into the dust. They push the humble out of the way. Father and son sleep with the same woman. They dishonor my holy name.

⁸Beside every altar, they spread themselves out on clothes taken as security. In the temples of their gods, they drink the wine that they bought with fines.

⁹I destroyed the Amorites in front of them, although the Amorites were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks. I destroyed their fruit above the ground and their roots below it.

¹⁰I brought you out of Egypt. I led you through the desert for 40 years so that you could take possession of the land of the Amorites.

¹¹I also sent you prophets from among your children and Nazirites from among your youths. Isn't that so, people of Israel? The LORD has declared this.

¹²You made the Nazirites drink wine. You commanded the prophets to stop prophesying.

¹³I am going to crush you as an overloaded wagon crushes a person.

¹⁴Runners will not be able to escape. Strong men will find that their strength is useless. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves.

¹⁵Archers will not stand their ground. Fast runners will not be able to escape.

Horsemen will not be able to save themselves.

¹⁶ Brave soldiers will run away naked that day. The LORD has declared this.

3¹ Listen to this message which I, the LORD, have spoken against you Israelites, against your whole family that I brought out of Egypt.

² Out of all the families on earth, I have known no one else but you. That is why I am going to punish you for all your sins.

³ Do two people ever walk together without meeting first?

⁴ Does a lion roar in the forest if it has no prey? Does a young lion growl in its den unless it has caught something?

⁵ Does a bird land in a trap on the ground if there's no bait in it? Does a trap spring up from the ground unless it has caught something?

⁶ If a ram's horn sounds an alarm in a city, won't the people be alarmed? If there is a disaster in a city, hasn't the LORD done it?

⁷ Certainly, the Almighty LORD doesn't do anything unless he first reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

⁸The lion has roared. Who isn't afraid? The Almighty LORD has spoken. Who can keep from prophesying?

⁹Announce in the palaces of Ashdod and in the palaces of Egypt, "Gather together on the mountains of Samaria. See the widespread confusion and oppression in Samaria."

¹⁰Those who collect profits in their palaces through violent and destructive acts don't know how to do what is right, declares the LORD.

¹¹This is what the Almighty LORD says: An enemy will surround your land, strip you of your defenses, and loot your palaces.

¹²This is what the LORD says: As a shepherd rescues two legs or a piece of an ear out of a lion's mouth, so the Israelites living in Samaria will be rescued, having only a corner of a bed or a piece of a couch.

¹³Listen, and testify against the descendants of Jacob, declares the Almighty LORD, the God of Armies.

¹⁴On the day I punish Israel for its disobedience, I will also destroy the altars at Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and will fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will tear down winter houses as well as summer houses. Houses decorated with ivory will be destroyed. Mansions will be demolished, declares the LORD.

4¹ Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan who live on Mount Samaria. You women oppress the poor and abuse the needy. You say to your husbands, "Get some wine! Let's drink!"

²The Almighty LORD has taken an oath on his holiness: Surely, the time is going to come when you will be taken away on hooks, and the rest of you on fishhooks.

³Each of you will leave the city through breaks in the wall, one woman ahead of another. You will be thrown into a garbage dump. The LORD declares this.

⁴Go to Bethel and sin. Go to Gilgal and sin even more. Bring your sacrifices every morning. Bring a tenth of your income every three days.

⁵Burn bread as a thank offering. Brag and boast about your freewill offerings. This is what you people of Israel love to do. The Almighty LORD declares this.

⁶I left you with nothing to eat in any of your cities. I left you with no food in your entire land. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

⁷I stopped the rain from falling three months before the harvest. I sent rain on one city and not on another. One field had rain. Another field had none and dried up.

⁸So people from two or three cities staggered as they walked to another city in order to get a drink of water. But they couldn't get enough. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

⁹I struck your crops with blight and mildew. Locusts repeatedly devoured your gardens, vineyards, fig trees, and olive trees. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

¹⁰I sent plagues on you as I did to Egypt. With swords I killed your best young men along with your captured horses. I made the stench from your camps fill your noses. And you still didn't return to me, declares the LORD.

¹¹I destroyed some of you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning log snatched from a fire. And you still didnt return to me, declares the LORD.

¹²This is what I will do to you, Israel. Prepare to meet your God. This is what I will do to you, Israel!

¹³God forms the mountains and creates the wind. He reveals his thoughts to humans. He makes dawn and dusk appear. He walks on the high places of the earth. His name is the LORD God of Armies.

5¹Listen to this message, this funeral song that I sing about you, nation of Israel:

²The people of Israel have fallen, never to rise again. They lie abandoned in their own land. There is no one to help them.

³This is what the Almighty LORD says: The city that sends 1,000 troops off to war will have only 100 left. The one that sends 100 troops off to war will have only 10 left for the nation of Israel.

⁴This is what the LORD says to the nation of Israel: Search for me and live!

⁵But dont search for me at Bethel. Dont go to Gilgal. Dont travel to Beersheba. Gilgal will certainly go into exile. Bethel will come to nothing.

⁶Search for the LORD and live! If you don't, he will spread like a fire through the house of Joseph and burn it down. Bethel will have no one to put it out.

⁷You, Israel, turn justice into poison and throw righteousness on the ground.

⁸God made the constellations Pleiades and Orion. He turns deep darkness into dawn. He turns day into night. He calls for water from the sea to pour it over the face of the earth. His name is the LORD.

⁹He destroys strongholds and ruins fortresses.

¹⁰Israel, you hate anyone who speaks out against injustice. You are disgusted by anyone who speaks the truth.

¹¹You trample on the poor and take their wheat from them for taxes. That is why you build houses from handcut stones, but you will not live in them. You plant beautiful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.

¹²I know that your crimes are numerous and your sins are many. You oppress the righteous by taking bribes. You deny the needy access to the courts.

¹³That is why a wise person remains silent at such times, because those times are so evil.

¹⁴Search for good instead of evil so that you may live. Then the LORD God of Armies will be with you, as you have said.

¹⁵Hate evil and love good. Then you will be able to have justice in your courts. Maybe the LORD God of Armies will have pity on the faithful few of Joseph.

¹⁶This is what the LORD, the Almighty God of Armies, says: There will be loud crying in every city square, and people will say in every street, "Oh, no!" They will call on farmers to mourn and on professional mourners to cry loudly.

¹⁷There will be loud crying in every vineyard, because I will pass through your land with death. The LORD has said this.

¹⁸How horrible it will be for those who long for the day of the LORD! Why do you long for that day? The day of the LORD is one of darkness and not light.

¹⁹It is like a person who flees from a lion only to be attacked by a bear. It is like a person who goes home and puts his hand on the wall only to be bitten by a snake.

²⁰The day of the LORD brings darkness and not light. It is pitch black, with no light.

²¹I hate your festivals; I despise them. I'm not pleased with your religious assemblies.

²²Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I won't accept them. I won't even look at the fellowship offerings of your choicest animals.

²³Spare me the sound of your songs. I won't listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴But let justice flow like a river and righteousness like an everflowing stream.

²⁵Did you bring me sacrifices and grain offerings in the desert for 40 years, nation of Israel?

²⁶You carried along the statues of the god Sikkuth as your king and the star Kiyun, the gods you made for yourselves.

²⁷I will send you into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of Armies.

6¹ How horrible it will be for those who are at ease in Zion, for those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, and for the heads of the leading nations, to whom the nation of Israel comes.

² Go to Calneh and look. Go from there to the great city of Hamath. Then go to Gath, the city of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Is their territory larger than yours?

³ How horrible it will be for those who think that a day of disaster is far away. They bring the reign of violence closer.

⁴ How horrible it will be for those who sleep on ivory beds. They sprawl out on their couches and eat lambs from their flocks and calves from their stalls.

⁵ How horrible it will be for those who make up songs as they strum a harp. Like David, they write all kinds of songs for themselves.

⁶ How horrible it will be for those who drink wine by the jugful. They rub the finest oils all over themselves and are not sorry for the ruin of the descendants of Joseph.

⁷ That is why they will now be the first to go into exile. The celebrating of those sprawled around the banquet table will stop.

⁸The Almighty LORD has sworn an oath on himself. The LORD God of Armies declares: I am disgusted with Jacobs pride, and I hate his palaces. So I will hand over the city and everything in it.

⁹If ten people are left in one house, they will die.

¹⁰If a relative or a mortician comes to take the dead bodies out of the house and asks someone who is inside the house, "Is there anyone else with you?" that person will answer, "No." "Hush," he will add. "We shouldnt mention the name of the LORD!"

¹¹The LORD is going to give the command to level big houses and flatten little houses.

¹²Do horses run on rocks? Does a farmer plow the sea with oxen? Yet, you have turned justice into something deadly and what is righteous into poison.

¹³How horrible it will be for those who rejoice over Lo Debar and who say, "We were strong enough to capture Karnaim by ourselves."

¹⁴I am going to lead a nation to attack you, nation of Israel, declares the LORD God of the Armies of the Nations. They will oppress you from the border of Hamath to the valley of Arabah.

7¹This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts when the second crop was being harvested. It was the harvest that followed the harvest for the king.

²When the locusts had finished eating every plant in the land, I said, "Almighty LORD, please forgive us! How can the descendants of Jacob survive? There are so few of them."

³The LORD changed his plans about this. "This wont happen," the LORD said.

⁴This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: The Almighty LORD was calling for judgment by fire. The fire dried up the ocean and burned up the land.

⁵Then I said, "Almighty LORD, please stop! How can the descendants of Jacob survive? There are so few of them."

⁶The LORD changed his plans about this. "This wont happen either," the Almighty LORD said.

⁷ This is what he showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall built with the use of a plumb line, and he had a plumb line in his hand.

⁸ He asked me, "What do you see, Amos?" I answered, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "I'm going to hold a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

⁹ The worship sites of Isaac will be destroyed, and the holy places of Israel will be in ruins. I will attack Jeroboam's heirs with my sword."

¹⁰ Then Amaziah, the priest at Bethel, sent a message to King Jeroboam of Israel. It read, "Amos is plotting against you among the people of Israel. The country isn't able to endure everything he is saying.

¹¹ Amos says that Jeroboam will be killed with a sword and that Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile."

¹² Then Amaziah said to Amos, "You seer, run away to Judah! Eat there, and prophesy there!

¹³But dont ever prophesy again in Bethel, because this is the kings holy place and the kings palace."

¹⁴Amos responded, "Im not a prophet, and Im not a disciple of the prophets. I am a rancher and a grower of figs.

¹⁵But the LORD took me away from herding the flock and said to me, Prophecy to my people Israel.

¹⁶"Now listen to the word of the LORD: You said, Stop prophesying against Israel, and stop preaching against the descendants of Isaac.

¹⁷"However, this is what the LORD says: Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Your land will be surveyed and divided up, and you will die in an unclean land. Israel cannot avoid being taken from its land into exile."

8¹This is what the Almighty LORD showed me: a basket of ripe summer fruit.

²He asked, "What do you see, Amos?" "A basket of ripe summer fruit," I answered. Then the LORD said to me,

"My people Israel are now ripe. I will no longer overlook what they have done.

³On that day the songs of the temple will become loud cries," declares the Almighty LORD. "There will be dead bodies scattered everywhere. Hush!"

⁴Listen to this, those who trample on the needy and ruin those who are oppressed in the world.

⁵You say to yourselves, "When will the New Moon Festival be over so that we can sell more grain? When will the day of worship be over so that we can sell more wheat? We can shrink the size of the bushel baskets, increase the cost, and cheat with dishonest scales.

⁶We can buy the poor with money and the needy for a pair of sandals. We can sell the husks mixed in with the wheat."

⁷The LORD has sworn an oath by Jacobs pride: "I will never forget anything that they have done."

⁸The land will tremble because of this. Everyone who lives in it will mourn. The entire land will rise like the Nile, be tossed about, and then sink like Egypt's river.

⁹On that day, declares the Almighty LORD, I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

¹⁰I will turn your festivals into funerals and all your songs into funeral songs. I will put sackcloth around everyones waist and shave everyones head. I will make that day seem like a funeral for an only child, and its end will be bitter.

¹¹The days are going to come, declares the Almighty LORD, when I will send a famine throughout the land. It wont be an ordinary famine or drought. Instead, there will be a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

¹²People will wander from sea to sea and roam from the north to the east, searching for the word of the LORD. But they wont find it.

¹³On that day beautiful young women and strong young men will faint because of their thirst.

¹⁴How horrible it will be for those who swear by Ashimah, the idol of Samaria, and say, "I solemnly swear, Dan, as your god lives" "I solemnly swear as long as there is a road to Beersheba" Those who say this will fall and never get up again.

9¹ I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said: Strike the tops of the pillars so that the foundations shake. Cut off everyones head. I will kill with a sword all who are left. None of them will be able to get away. None of them will be able to escape.

² Even if they dig their way into Sheol, my hand will take them from there. Even if they go up to heaven, I will bring them down from there.

⁴ Even if they go into exile ahead of their enemies, I will command a sword to kill them. I will keep my eyes on them so that I can bring disaster on them and not help them.

⁶The one who builds stairs up to heaven and sets their foundation on the earth, the one who calls for the water in the sea and pours it over the face of the earth His name is the LORD.

⁷You people of Israel are like the people from Sudan, says the LORD. Didn't I bring Israel from Egypt? Didn't I bring the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir?

⁸I, the Almighty LORD, have my eyes on this sinful kingdom. I will wipe it off the face of the earth. But I won't totally destroy the descendants of Jacob, declares the LORD.

⁹I'm going to give the order. I will sift the nation of Israel out of all the nations as if I were using a sieve. Not one pebble will fall to the ground.

¹⁰All the sinners among my people are thinking, "Destruction will not catch up to us or run into us." In spite of this, they will be killed with swords.

¹¹On that day I will set up David's fallen tent. I will repair the holes in it. I will restore its ruined places. I will rebuild them as they were a long time ago.

¹²They will capture the few survivors of Edom and all the other nations that were under my authority, declares the LORD, who will do these things.

¹³The days are going to come, declares the LORD, when the one who plows will catch up to the one who harvests, and the one who stomps on grapes will catch up to the one who plants. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills.

¹⁴I will restore my people Israel. They will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink the wine from them. They will plant gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵I will plant the people of Israel in their land, and they won't be uprooted again from the land that I gave them, says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1 ¹ This is the vision of Obadiah. This is what the Almighty LORD says about Edom: We have heard a message from the LORD. A messenger was sent among the nations to say, "Get ready! Let's go to war against Edom."

² "Edom, I will make you the smallest of nations. Others will despise you.

³ Your arrogance has deceived you. You live on rocky cliffs. You make your home up high. You say to yourself, No one can bring me down to earth.

⁴ Even though you fly high like an eagle and build your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there," declares the LORD.

⁵ "If thieves or looters come to you during the night, won't they steal only until they've had enough? You will be ruined! If people come to pick your grapes, won't they leave a few grapes behind?

⁶But you, Esau, will lose everything. Even your hidden treasures will be looted.

⁷All your allies will force you to leave your land. The people who are at peace with you will deceive you. Those who eat food with you will set traps for you, and you won't even know about it.

⁸"On that day I will destroy the wise people in Edom and take wisdom away from Esau's mountain," declares the LORD.

⁹"Teman, your warriors will be terrified. Everyone on Esau's mountain will be slaughtered.

¹⁰"Because of the violence you did to Jacob, your relative, you will be covered with shame. You will be destroyed forever.

¹¹While you stood there doing nothing, strangers carried off Jacob's wealth. Foreigners entered his gates and threw dice for Jerusalem. You acted like one of them.

¹²Don't gloat over your relatives' misfortune or be happy when the people of Judah are destroyed. Don't brag so much when they're in distress.

¹³Don't march through the gates of my people when disaster strikes or gloat over their misery when disaster strikes. Don't take their wealth when disaster strikes.

¹⁴Don't stand at the crossroads to kill their refugees. Don't hand over their survivors when they're in distress.

¹⁵"The day of the LORD is near for all nations. Edom, you will be treated as you have treated others. You will get back what you have given.

¹⁶As you, Israel, drank on my holy mountain, so all nations will drink in turn. They will drink and guzzle down everything in it. They will be like those who have never existed.

¹⁷"But refugees will live on Mount Zion. It will be holy. The descendants of Jacob will get back their possessions.

¹⁸The descendants of Jacob will be like a fire. The descendants of Joseph will be like a flame. But the descendants of Esau will be like straw. They will be burned and destroyed. There will be no one left among the descendants of Esau." The LORD has spoken.

¹⁹"People from the Negev will take possession of Esau's mountain. People from the foothills will take possession of Philistia. They will take possession of the lands of Ephraim and Samaria, and the descendants of Benjamin will take possession of Gilead.

²⁰Exiles from Israel will take possession of Canaan. They will possess land as far as Zarephath. Exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will take possession of the cities in the Negev.

²¹Those who are victorious will come from Mount Zion to rule Esau's mountain. The kingdom will belong to the LORD."

Jonah

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Jonah, son of Amittai. He said,

² "Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people that I can no longer overlook the wicked things they have done."

³ Jonah immediately tried to run away from the LORD by going to Tarshish. He went to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid for the trip and went on board. He wanted to go to Tarshish to get away from the LORD.

⁴ The LORD sent a violent wind over the sea. The storm was so powerful that the ship was in danger of breaking up.

⁵ The sailors were afraid, and they cried to their gods for help. They began to throw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship's load. Now, Jonah had gone below deck and was lying there sound asleep.

⁶ The captain of the ship went to him and asked, "How can you sleep? Get up, and pray to your God. Maybe he will notice us, and we won't die."

⁷ Then the sailors said to each other, "Let's throw dice to find out who is responsible for bringing this disaster on us." So they threw dice, and the dice indicated that Jonah was responsible.

⁸ They asked him, "Tell us, why has this disaster happened to us? What do you do for a living? Where do you come from? What country are you from? What nationality are you?"

⁹ Jonah answered them, "I'm a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land."

¹⁰ Then the men were terrified. They knew that he was running away from the LORD, because he had told them. They asked Jonah, "Why have you done this?"

¹¹ The storm was getting worse. So they asked Jonah, "What should we do with you to calm the sea?"

¹² He told them, "Throw me overboard. Then the sea will become calm. I know that I'm responsible for this violent storm."

¹³ Instead, the men tried to row harder to get the ship back to shore, but they couldnt do it. The storm was getting worse.

¹⁴ So they cried to the LORD for help: "Please, LORD, dont let us die for taking this mans life. Dont hold us responsible for the death of an innocent man, because you, LORD, do whatever you want."

¹⁵ Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the sea became calm.

¹⁶ The men were terrified of the LORD. They offered sacrifices and made vows to the LORD.

¹⁷ The LORD sent a big fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

2¹ From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God.

² Jonah prayed: "I called to the LORD in my distress, and he answered me. From the depths of my watery grave I cried for help, and you heard my cry.

³ You threw me into the deep, into the depths of the sea, and water surrounded me. All the whitecaps on your waves have swept over me.

⁴"Then I thought, I have been banished from your sight. Will I ever see your holy temple again?

⁵"Water surrounded me, threatening my life. The deep sea covered me completely. Seaweed was wrapped around my head.

⁶I sank to the foot of the mountains. I sank to the bottom, where bars held me forever. But you brought me back from the pit, O LORD, my God.

⁷"As my life was slipping away, I remembered the LORD. My prayer came to you in your holy temple.

⁸Those who hold on to worthless idols abandon their loyalty to you.

⁹But I will sacrifice to you with songs of thanksgiving. I will keep my vow. Victory belongs to the LORD!"

¹⁰Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spit Jonah out onto the shore.

3¹ Then the LORD spoke his word to Jonah a second time. He said,

²"Leave at once for the important city, Nineveh. Announce to the people the message I have given you."

³Jonah immediately went to Nineveh as the LORD told him. Nineveh was a very large city. It took three days to walk through it.

⁴Jonah entered the city and walked for about a day. Then he said, "In forty days Nineveh will be destroyed."

⁵The people of Nineveh believed God. They decided to fast, and everyone, from the most important to the least important, dressed in sackcloth.

⁶When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

⁷Then he made this announcement and sent it throughout the city: "This is an order from the king and his nobles: No one is to eat or drink anything. This includes all people, animals, cattle, and sheep.

⁸Every person and animal must put on sackcloth. Cry loudly to God for help. Turn from your wicked ways and your acts of violence.

⁹Who knows? God may reconsider his plans and turn from his burning anger so that we won't die."

¹⁰God saw what they did. He saw that they turned from their wicked ways. So

God reconsidered his threat to destroy them, and he didn't do it.

4¹ Jonah was very upset about this, and he became angry.

² So he prayed to the LORD, "LORD, isn't this what I said would happen when I was still in my own country? That's why I tried to run to Tarshish in the first place. I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, patient, and always ready to forgive and to reconsider your threats of destruction.

³ So now, LORD, take my life. I'd rather be dead than alive."

⁴ The LORD asked, "What right do you have to be angry?"

⁵ Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made himself a shelter there. He sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city.

⁶ The LORD God made a plant grow up beside Jonah to give him shade and make him more comfortable. Jonah was very happy with the plant.

⁷ At dawn the next day, God sent a worm to attack the plant so that it withered.

⁸When the sun rose, God made a hot east wind blow. The sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he was about to faint. He wanted to die. So he said, "I'd rather be dead than alive."

¹⁰The LORD replied, "This plant grew up overnight and died overnight. You didn't plant it or make it grow. Yet, you feel sorry for this plant."

¹¹Shouldn't I feel sorry for this important city, Nineveh? It has more than 120,000 people in it as well as many animals. These people couldn't tell their right hand from their left."

Micah

1 ¹ The LORD spoke his word to Micah, who was from Moresheth, when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. This is the vision that Micah saw about Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Listen, all you people! Pay attention, earth and all who are on it. The Almighty LORD will be a witness against you. The Lord will be a witness from his holy temple.

³ The LORD is going to come from his place. He is going to come down and step on the worship places of the earth.

⁴ Mountains will melt under him like wax near a fire. Valleys will split apart like water pouring down a steep hill.

⁵ All this is because of Jacobs crime and Israels sin. What is Jacobs crime? Isnt it Samaria? What is Judahs worship place? Isnt it Jerusalem?

⁶ So I will turn Samaria into a pile of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will roll its stones down into a valley and expose its foundations.

⁷ All its idols will be smashed to pieces. All its wages for being a prostitute will be burned. All its statues will be turned into a pile of rubble. Samaria collected its wages for being a prostitute. That money will again pay for prostitutes.

⁸ I will mourn and cry because of this. I will walk around barefoot and naked. I will cry like a jackal and mourn like an ostrich.

⁹ Samarias wounds are incurable. The news about Samaria will come to Judah. It will reach the gates of my people in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Don't report it in Gath. Don't cry there. Roll in the dust of Beth Leaphrah.

¹² Wait anxiously for good, inhabitants of Maroth. From the LORD disaster will come on the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³ Harness the horses to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish. You were the first to lead the people of Zion into sin. The rebellious acts of Israel are found in you.

¹⁴That is why you will give farewell gifts to Moresheth Gath. The town of Achzib will betray the kings of Israel.

¹⁵I will again bring a conqueror against the inhabitants of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

¹⁶Shave your head in mourning for the children you love. Make yourselves as bald as vultures because your children will be taken from you into exile.

2¹How horrible it will be for those who invent trouble and work out plans for disaster while in bed. When the morning dawns, they carry out their plans because they are able to.

²They desire other peoples fields, so they seize them. They desire peoples houses, so they take them. They cheat a man and his family, a man and his inheritance.

³So this is what the LORD says: I'm planning a disaster to punish your family. You won't be able to rescue yourselves. You will no longer be able to walk proudly. This will be a time of disaster.

⁴When that day comes, people will make fun of you. They will sing this sad song about you: "We are completely ruined. The LORD gives our peoples possessions to others. He takes them from us. He divides our fields among our captors."

⁵That is why none of you in the LORDS assembly will draw lots to divide your property.

⁶Your prophets say, "Dont prophesy! Dont prophesy such things! Disgrace will never overtake us."

⁷Should the descendants of Jacob be asked: Has the Spirit of the LORD become impatient with you? Has he done these things? Are his words good for those who live honestly?

⁸Recently, my people have turned into enemies. You take coats from those who pass by without a care as they return from war.

⁹You force the women among my people out of their pleasant homes and take my glory away from their children forever.

¹⁰Get up, and go away! This is not a place to rest! It will be destroyed, completely destroyed, because it offends me.

¹¹ Liars and frauds may go around and say, "We will preach to you about wine and liquor." They would be just the type of preacher you want.

¹² I will surely gather all of you, Jacob. I will surely bring together the few people left in Israel. I will gather them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture. They will make a lot of noise because there will be so many people.

¹³ The LORD will open the way and lead them. They will break out, go through the gate, and leave. Their king will travel in front of them. The LORD will lead the people.

3¹ Then I said: Listen, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You should know justice.

² You hate good and love evil. You strip the skin off my people and the flesh off their bones.

³ You eat my peoples flesh. You strip off their skin. You break their bones to pieces. You chop them up like meat for a pot, like stew meat for a kettle.

⁴ Then you will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer you. He will hide his face from you at that time because you have done evil things.

⁵This is what the LORD says about the prophets who mislead my people: When they have something to eat, they say, "All is well!" But they declare a holy war against those who don't feed them.

⁶That is why you will have nights without visions. You will have darkness without revelations. The sun will set on the prophets, and the day will turn dark for them.

⁷Seers will be put to shame. Those who practice witchcraft will be disgraced. All of them will cover their faces, because God won't answer them.

⁸But I am filled with the power of the LORD'S Spirit, with justice, and with strength. So I will tell the descendants of Jacob about their crimes and the nation of Israel about its sins.

⁹Listen to this, you leaders of the descendants of Jacob, you rulers of the nation of Israel. You despise justice and pervert everything that is right.

¹⁰You build Zion on bloodshed and Jerusalem on wickedness.

¹¹ Your leaders exchange justice for bribes. Your priests teach for a price. Your prophets tell the future for money. But they rely on the LORD when they say, "After all, the LORD is with us. Nothing bad will happen to us."

¹² Because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a pile of rubble, and the temple mountain will become a worship site covered with trees.

4¹ In the last days the mountain of the LORDS house will be established as the highest of the mountains and raised above the hills. People will stream to it.

² Then many nations will come and say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways so that we may live by them." The teachings will go out from Zion. The word of the LORD will go out from Jerusalem.

³ Then he will judge disputes between many people and settle arguments between many nations far and wide. They will hammer their swords into plowblades and their spears into pruning shears. Nations will never fight against each other, and they will never train for war again.

⁴They will sit under their grapevines and their fig trees, and no one will make them afraid. The LORD of Armies has spoken.

⁵All the nations live by the names of their gods, but we will live by the name of the LORD our God forever.

⁶"When that day comes," declares the LORD, "I will gather those who are lame. I will bring together those who are scattered and those whom I have injured.

⁷I will change those who are lame into a faithful people. I will change those who are forced away into a strong nation." The LORD will rule them on Mount Zion now and forever.

⁸You, Jerusalem, watchtower of the flock, stronghold of the people of Zion, your former government will come back to you. The kingdom will return to the people of Jerusalem.

⁹Now why are you crying so loudly? Don't you have a king? Has your counselor died? Pain grips you like a woman in labor.

¹⁰Daughter of Zion, writhe in pain and groan like a woman in labor. Now you will leave the city, live in the open fields, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There the LORD will reclaim you from your enemies.

¹¹But now many nations gather against you. They say, "Let's dishonor Zion and gloat over it."

¹²They don't know the thoughts of the LORD or understand his plan. He will bring them together like cut grain on the threshing floor.

¹³Get up and thresh, people of Zion. I will make your horns as hard as iron and your hoofs as hard as bronze. You will smash many nations into small pieces. You will claim their loot for the LORD, their wealth for the Lord of the whole earth.

5¹Now, gather your troops, you city of troops. We are under attack. Enemies will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek with a stick.

²You, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are too small to be included among Judah's cities. Yet, from you Israel's future ruler will come for me. His origins go back to the distant past, to days long ago.

³That is why the LORD will abandon Israel until the time a mother has a child. Then the rest of the LORDS people will return to the people of Israel.

⁴The child will become the shepherd of his flock. He will lead them with the strength of the LORD, with the majestic name of the LORD his God. They will live in safety because his greatness will reach the ends of the earth.

⁵This man will be their peace. When the Assyrians invade our land and trample our palaces, we will attack them with seven shepherds and eight leaders.

⁶They will rule Assyria with their swords and the country of Nimrod with drawn swords. They will rescue us from the Assyrians when they come into our land and walk within our territory.

⁷Then the few people left from Jacob will be among many people like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass. They do not put their hope in humans or wait for mortals.

⁸The few people left from Jacob will be among the nations, among many people.

They will be like a lion among animals in the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep. When a lion hunts, it tramples its victims and tears them to pieces, and there is no one to rescue them.

⁹You will use your power against your opponents, and all your enemies will be destroyed.

¹⁰"When that day comes," declares the LORD, "I will destroy your horses and demolish your chariots.

¹¹I will destroy the cities in your land and tear down all your fortresses.

¹²I will destroy your sorcerers, and you will have no more fortunetellers.

¹³I will destroy your idols and your sacred monuments. You will no longer worship what your hands have made.

¹⁴I will pull out your poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah. I will wipe out your cities.

¹⁵I will take revenge with great anger on the nations that do not obey me."

6¹ Now listen to what the LORD is saying, "Stand up! Plead your case in front of the mountains, and let the hills listen to your request.

²Listen to the LORDS lawsuit, you mountains. Listen, you strong foundations of the earth. The LORD has filed a lawsuit against his people. He is arguing his case against Israel.

³"My people, what have I done to you?
How have I tried your patience? Answer me!

⁴I brought you out of Egypt and freed you from slavery. I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you.

⁵My people, remember what King Balak of Moab planned to do to you and how Balaam, son of Beor, responded to him.
Remember your journey from Shittim to Gilgal so that you may know the victories of the LORD."

⁶What should I bring when I come into the LORDS presence, when I bow in front of the God of heaven? Should I bring him yearold calves as burnt offerings?

⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams or with endless streams of olive oil? Should I give him my firstborn child because of my rebellious acts? Should I give him my young child for my sin?

⁸You mortals, the LORD has told you what is good. This is what the LORD requires from you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to live humbly with your God.

⁹The voice of the LORD calls out to the city. (The fear of your name is wisdom.) "Listen, you tribe assembled in the city.

¹⁰I have cursed all the wicked people who use their money for evil and use inaccurate weights and measures.

¹¹I cannot tolerate dishonest scales and bags filled with inaccurate weights.

¹²The rich people in the city are violent. Those who live in the city speak lies, and their tongues speak deceitfully.

¹³I have begun to strike you with heavy blows and to ruin you because of your sins.

¹⁴You will eat, but you wont be full. So you will always be hungry. You will put things away, but you wont save them. Anything you save I will destroy.

¹⁵You will plant, but you wont harvest. You will crush olives, but you wont rub the oil on your skin. You will make new wine, but you wont drink it.

¹⁶You have kept Omris laws and all the practices of the descendants of Ahab, and you have followed their advice. That is why I will ruin you. Your people will be ridiculed. You will bear the disgrace of my people."

7 ¹Poor me! I am like those gathering summer fruit, like those picking grapes. But there arent any grapes to eat or any ripened figs that I crave.

²Faithful people are gone from the earth, and no one is decent. All people lie in ambush to commit murder. They trap each other with nets.

³Their hands are skilled in doing evil. Officials ask for gifts. Judges accept bribes. Powerful people dictate what they want. So they scheme together.

⁴The best of them is like a briar. The most decent person is sharper than thornbushes. The day you thought you would be punished has come. Now is the time you will be confused.

⁵Dont trust your neighbors. Dont have confidence in your friends. Keep your mouth shut even when a woman is lying in your arms.

⁶A son treats his father with contempt.
A daughter rebels against her mother.
A daughter-in-law rebels against her mother-in-law. Peoples enemies are the members of their own families.

⁷I will look to the LORD. I will wait for God to save me. I will wait for my God to listen to me.

⁸Don't laugh at me, my enemies.
Although I've fallen, I will get up.
Although I sit in the dark, the LORD is my light.

⁹I have sinned against the LORD. So I will endure his fury until he takes up my cause and wins my case. He will bring me into the light, and I will see his victory.

¹⁰Then my enemies will see this, and they will be covered with shame, because they asked me, "Where is the LORD your God?" Now I look at them. They are trampled like mud in the streets.

¹¹The day for rebuilding your walls and extending your borders is coming.

¹²When that day comes, your people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the Euphrates River, from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

¹³The earth will become a wasteland for those who live on it because of what the people living there have done.

¹⁴With your shepherds staff, take care of your people, the sheep that belong to you. They live alone in the woods, in fertile pastures. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead like before.

¹⁵Let us see miracles like the time you came out of Egypt.

¹⁶Nations will see this and be ashamed in spite of all their strength. They will put their hands over their mouths. Their ears will become deaf.

¹⁷They will lick dust like snakes, like animals that crawl on the ground. They will come out of their hiding places trembling. They will turn away from your presence in fear, O LORD our God. They will be afraid of you.

¹⁸Who is a God like you? You forgive sin and overlook the rebellion of your faithful people. You will not be angry forever, because you would rather show mercy.

¹⁹You will again have compassion on us. You will overcome our wrongdoing. You will throw all our sins into the deep sea.

²⁰You will be faithful to Jacob. You will have mercy on Abraham as you swore by an oath to our ancestors long ago.

Nahum

1 ¹ This is a revelation from the LORD about Nineveh. This book contains the vision of Nahum from Elkosh.

² God does not tolerate rivals. The LORD takes revenge. The LORD takes revenge and is full of anger. The LORD takes revenge against his enemies and holds a grudge against his foes.

³ The LORD is patient and has great strength. The LORD will never let the guilty go unpunished. Raging winds and storms mark his path, and clouds are the dust from his feet.

⁴ He yells at the sea and makes it dry. He dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither. The flowers of Lebanon wither.

⁵ The mountains quake because of him. The hills melt. The earth draws back in his presence. The world and all who live in it draw back as well.

⁶ Who can stand in the presence of his rage? Who can oppose his burning anger? He pours out his rage like fire and smashes the rocky cliffs.

⁷The LORD is good. He is a fortress in the day of trouble. He knows those who seek shelter in him.

⁸He will put an end to Nineveh with a devastating flood. He will pursue his enemies with darkness.

⁹What do you think about the LORD? He is the one who will bring Nineveh to an end. This trouble will never happen again.

¹⁰The people of Nineveh will be like tangled thorns and like people drunk on their own drink. They will be completely burned up like very dry straw.

¹¹From you, Nineveh, a person who plans evil against the LORD sets out. His advice is wicked.

¹²This is what the LORD says: Though the people of Nineveh are physically fit and many in number, they will be cut down and die. Though I have humbled you, Judah, I will not humble you again.

¹³But now I will break Nineveh's yoke off of you and tear its chains from you.

¹⁴The LORD has given this command about you, Nineveh: You will no longer have descendants to carry on your name. I will remove the wooden and metal idols from the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave because you are worthless.

¹⁵There on the mountains are the feet of a messenger who announces the good news: "All is well!" Celebrate your festivals, Judah! Keep your vows! This wickedness will never pass your way again. It will be completely removed.

2¹The one who will scatter you is coming to attack you. Guard your fortress! Keep a lookout on the road! Prepare for battle! Be very courageous!

²The LORD will restore Jacobs glory like Israels glory, although enemies have looted it and have destroyed its vines.

³The shields of his warriors are painted red. His soldiers have red uniforms. The metal on his chariots flashes fiery red, so do the spears when they are waved on the day he prepares for battle.

⁴Chariots are racing madly through the streets, rushing this way and that in the city squares. They look like torches, like lightning, as they dart about.

⁵He remembers his best fighting men. They stumble over themselves as they march. They hurry to Nineveh's wall. The shield has been set up for the battering ram.

⁶The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace melts away.

⁷The LORD has determined: "It will be stripped. It will be carried away. Its young women will be mourning like doves as they beat their breasts."

⁸Nineveh was like a pool of water from its first day on. But now its people are fleeing. "Stop! Stop!" But no one turns around.

⁹Steal the silver! Steal the gold! There is no end to what is stored here everything a person could ever want.

¹⁰Nineveh is destroyed, deserted, demolished. Hearts are melting. Knees are knocking. Every stomach becomes upset. Every face turns pale.

¹¹Where is the lion's den, that feeding place for young lions? Where are the lion, the lioness, and the lion cub who moved about with no one to terrify them?

¹²The lion tore its prey to pieces to feed its cubs. It strangled the prey for its mates. It used to fill its caves with torn carcasses and its dens with torn flesh.

¹³"I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will send your chariots up in smoke, and a sword will kill your young lions. I will remove your prey from the earth, and no one will ever hear the voice of your messengers again."

3¹How horrible it will be for that city of bloody violence! It is completely full of lies and stolen goods never without victims.

²The sound of the whip! The sound of rattling wheels! Horses gallop! Chariots bounce along!

³Horses charge! Swords flash! Spears glitter! Many are killed! Dead bodies pile up! There is no end to the corpses! People trip over corpses

⁴because of Nineveh's constant prostitution, this very charming mistress of evil magic. She used to sell nations her prostitution and people her evil magic."

⁵"I am against you, Nineveh," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will lift up your dress over your face. I will show nations your naked body and kingdoms your disgrace.

⁶I will throw filth on you. I will make you look like a fool. I will make you a sight to be seen.

⁷Everyone who sees you will run from you, saying, Nineveh has been violently destroyed! Who will feel sorry for her? Where can I find anyone to comfort you?"

⁸Are you better than Noamon, which sits by the streams of the Nile with water surrounding her? The sea was her defense. The water was her wall.

⁹Sudan and Egypt were her endless strength. Put and the Lybians were her help.

¹⁰Even she went into captivity and was exiled. Even her little children were smashed to death at every street corner. Soldiers tossed dice for her important men, and all her best men were bound in chains.

¹¹Even you, Nineveh, will stagger like a drunk. You will disappear. Even you will look for a fortress to escape from the enemy.

¹²All your defenses will be like fig trees with the earliest figs. When shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.

¹³Look at your soldiers; they're women! The gates of your country are wide open to your enemies. Fire has destroyed the bars of your gates.

¹⁴Store water for the siege! Strengthen your defenses! Step into the claypits and trample the clay! Grab the brick mold!

¹⁵Fire will consume you there. A sword will cut you down. It will consume you like locusts. Multiply like locusts! Multiply like hungry locusts!

¹⁶You have produced more businessmen than there are stars in the sky. They are like locusts that attack and then fly away.

¹⁷Your officers are like locusts, and your scribes are like swarms of locusts that settle on the fences when it is cold. The sun rises, and they scatter in every direction. No one knows where they've gone.

¹⁸Your shepherds, king of Assyria, have fallen into a deep sleep. Your best fighting men are at rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

¹⁹There is no relief for your collapse. Your wound is fatal. All who hear the news about you will clap their hands. Who hasn't suffered from your endless evil?

Habakkuk

1 ¹ The divine revelation that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

² How long, O LORD, am I to cry for help, but you will not listen? I cry out to you, "Theres violence!" yet you will not come to the rescue.

³ Why do you make me see wrongdoing? And why do you watch wickedness? Destruction and violence are in front of me. Quarrels and disputes arise.

⁴ That is why your teaching is numbed, and justice is never carried out. Wicked people surround righteous people so that when justice is carried out, its perverted.

⁵ Look among the nations and watch. Be amazed and astonished. I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe even if it were reported to you.

⁶ I am going to send the Babylonians, that fierce and reckless nation. They will march throughout the earth to take possession of lands that dont belong to them.

⁷They will be terrifying and fearsome. They will carry out their own kind of justice and honor.

⁸Their horses will be faster than leopards and quicker than wolves in the evening. Their riders will gallop along proudly. Their riders will come from far away. They will fly like an eagle that swoops down for its prey.

⁹They will all come for violence. Every face will be directed forward. They will gather prisoners like sand.

¹⁰They will make fun of kings and treat rulers as a joke. They will laugh at every fortified city and build a dirt ramp to capture it.

¹¹They will move quickly and pass through like the wind. So they will be guilty, because their own strength is their god.

¹²Didn't you exist before time began, O LORD, my God, my Holy One? We will not die! O LORD, you have appointed the Babylonians to bring judgment. O Rock, you have destined them to correct us.

¹³Your eyes are too pure to look at evil. You can't watch wickedness. Why do you keep watching treacherous people?

Why are you silent when wicked people swallow those who are more righteous than they are?

¹⁴You make all people like the fish in the sea, like schools of sea life that have no ruler.

¹⁵The Babylonians pull them all up with fishhooks, drag them away in nets, and gather them in dragnets. So they rejoice and are happy.

¹⁶That is why they sacrifice to their nets and burn incense to their dragnets. They are rich and well fed because of them.

¹⁷Will they keep on emptying their nets and always kill nations without mercy?

2¹I will stand at my guard post. I will station myself on the wall. I will watch to see what he will say to me and what answer I will get to my complaint.

²Then the LORD answered me, "Write the vision. Make it clear on tablets so that anyone can read it quickly.

³The vision will still happen at the appointed time. It hurries toward its goal. It won't be a lie. If it's delayed, wait for it. It will certainly happen. It won't be late.

⁴"Look at the proud person. He is not right in himself. But the righteous person will live because of his faithfulness.

⁵Also because wine is treacherous he is arrogant and never rests. He has a large appetite like the grave. He is like death never satisfied. He gathers all the nations to himself. He collects all the people to himself.

⁶Wont all of them ridicule him, directing clever sayings and riddles at him, like: "How horrible it will be for the one who makes himself rich with what is not his own and makes himself wealthy on loans. How long will this go on?

⁷Wont your creditors suddenly rise up and those who are going to shake you wake up? Then you will become their prize.

⁸You have looted many nations. All the rest of the people will loot you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

⁹"How horrible it will be for the one who uses violence to get things for his own household in order to set his nest up high and save himself from disaster.

¹⁰You have planned disgrace for your household by cutting off many people and forfeiting your own life.

¹¹A stone in the wall will cry out. A beam in the roof will answer it.

¹²"How horrible it will be for the one who builds a city by slaughter and founds a town by crime.

¹³Isn't it from the LORD of Armies that people grow tired only to feed the flames and nations exhaust themselves for nothing?

¹⁴But the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORDS glory like the water covers the sea.

¹⁵"How horrible it will be for the one who makes his neighbor drink from the bowl of Gods rage, making him drunk in order to stare at his nakedness.

¹⁶You are filled with disgrace rather than glory. Drink! Yes you! And expose yourself as godless. The cup in the LORDS right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

¹⁷The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction done to the animals will terrify you because of the slaughter and violence done to lands, cities, and all their inhabitants.

¹⁸"What benefit is there in a carved idol when its maker has carved it? What benefit is there in a molded statue, a teacher of lies, when its maker has molded it? The one who formed it trusts himself to make worthless idols that cannot speak.

¹⁹How horrible it will be for the one who says to a piece of wood, "Wake up!" and to a stone that cannot talk, "Get up!" Can that thing teach anyone? Just look at it! Its covered with gold and silver, but theres absolutely no life in it."

²⁰The LORD is in his holy temple. All the earth should be silent in his presence.

3¹ A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk; according to shigionoth.

²LORD, I have heard the report about you. LORD, I fear your work. In the course of the years, renew it. In the course of the years, reveal it. In all this chaos, remember to be merciful.

³God comes from Teman. The Holy One comes from Mount Paran. Selah His splendor covers the heavens. His praise fills the earth.

⁴ His brightness is like the sunlight.
Rays of light stream from his hand. That is where his power is hidden.

⁵ Diseases go ahead of him. Plagues follow after him.

⁶ He stands and shakes the earth. He casts a glance and startles the nations.
The oldest mountains break apart. The ancient hills sink. The ancient paths belong to him.

⁷ I see trouble in the tents of Cushan. I see trembling in the tents of Midian.

⁸ The LORD is not angry with the rivers, is he? If you are angry with the rivers, if you are furious with the sea, why do you ride your horses, your chariots of salvation?

⁹ You get your bow ready for action, for the arrows you promised. Selah You split the land with rivers.

¹⁰ The mountains look at you. They writhe in pain. Floodwaters pass by. The deep ocean roars. Its waves rise up high.

¹¹ The sun and the moon stand still.
They scatter at the light of your arrows, at the bright lightning of your spear.

¹² You march through the earth with fury. You trample the nations in anger.

¹³You go out to save your people, to save your anointed. You crush the leader of the wicked household, stripping him bare from head to toe. Selah ¹⁴You pierce the leader of his gang with his own arrows. His soldiers come like a violent storm to scatter me. They are arrogant like those who secretly eat up the poor.

¹⁵You march with your horses into the sea, into the mighty raging waters.

¹⁶I have heard, so theres trembling within me. At the report my lips quivered. A rotten feeling has entered me. I tremble where I stand. I wait for the day of trouble to come to the people who will attack us.

¹⁷Even if the fig tree does not bloom and the vines have no grapes, even if the olive tree fails to produce and the fields yield no food, even if the sheep pen is empty and the stalls have no cattle ¹⁸even then, I will be happy with the LORD. I will truly find joy in God, who saves me.

¹⁹The LORD Almighty is my strength. He makes my feet like those of a deer. He makes me walk on the mountains.

For the choir director; on stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1 ¹ This is the word that the LORD spoke to Zephaniah, who was the son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, and the greatgrandson of Amariah, son of Hezekiah. The LORD spoke his word in the days of Judah's King Josiah, son of Amon.

² "I will gather everything on the face of the earth and put an end to it," declares the LORD.

³ "I will put an end to humans and animals. I will put an end to the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea, and the sins that make people fall, together with the sinners. I will remove all people from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.

⁴ "I will use my power against Judah and against those who live in Jerusalem. I will remove the faithful few of Baal from this place and the names of the pagan priests along with my priests.

⁵ I will remove those who worship all the stars in the sky on their rooftops and those who worship by swearing loyalty to the LORD while also swearing loyalty to the god Milcom.

⁶I will remove those who have turned away from following the LORD and those who no longer seek the LORD or ask him for help."

⁷Be silent in the presence of the Almighty LORD, because the day of the LORD is near. The LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has invited his special guests.

⁸"On the day of the LORDS sacrifice I will punish the officials, the kings sons, and all who dress in foreign clothing.

⁹On that day I will punish all who jump over the doorway and all who fill their masters house with violence and deception.

¹⁰On that day a loud cry will come from Fish Gate, a howling from the Second Part of the city, and a loud crashing sound from the hills," declares the LORD.

¹¹"Howl, inhabitants of the Mortar, because all the merchants will be destroyed and all who handle money will be killed.

¹²"At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are satisfied with their hardened lifestyle, who think that the LORD won't do anything good or bad.

¹³ Their wealth will be looted. Their homes will be demolished. They will build houses, but they won't live in them. They will plant vineyards, but they won't drink their wine."

¹⁴ The frightening day of the LORD is near. It is near and coming very quickly. Listen! Warriors will cry out bitterly on the day of the LORD.

¹⁶ a day of rams' horns and battle cries against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.

¹⁷ "I will bring such distress on humans that they will walk like they are blind, because they have sinned against the LORD." Their blood will be poured out like dust and their intestines like manure.

¹⁸ Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them on the day of the LORD'S overflowing fury. The whole earth will be consumed by his fiery anger, because he will put an end, a frightening end, to those who live on earth.

2¹ Gather yourselves together! Yes, gather together, you shameless nation, ² before the decree is carried out and the day passes like windblown husks, before the LORDS burning anger comes to you, before the day of the LORDS anger comes to you.

³ Search for the LORD, all you humble people in the land who carry out his justice. Search for what is right. Search for humility. Maybe you will find shelter on the day of the LORDS anger.

⁴ Gaza will be deserted, and Ashkelon will be destroyed. Ashdod will be driven out at noon, and Ekron will be torn out by the roots.

⁵ How horrible it will be for those who live on the seacoast, for the nation from Crete. The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines: "I will destroy you so that no one will be living there."

⁶The seacoast will become pastureland with meadows for shepherds and fencedoff places for sheep.

⁷The coast will belong to the faithful few from the nation of Judah. There they will graze their sheep. In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. The LORD their God will take care of them and will restore their fortunes.

⁸"I have heard the insults from Moab and the mockery from Ammon. They insulted my people and bragged about their territory.

⁹Therefore, I solemnly swear, as I live," declares the LORD of Armies, the God of Israel, "Moab will become like Sodom, and Ammon will become like Gomorrah: a place of weeds, salt pits, and ruins forever. The faithful few of my people will loot them, and those who are left in my nation will take possession of them."

¹⁰This is what they will get for their sinful pride, because they insulted the people who belong to the LORD of Armies and made themselves greater than them.

¹¹The LORD will terrify them, because he will make all the gods of the earth waste away. So every person from every coast and nation will bow to him.

¹²"Even you, the people from Sudan, you will also die by my sword."

¹³The LORD will use his power against the north and destroy Assyria. He will turn Nineveh into a deserted ruin, a dried up wasteland like the desert.

¹⁴Flocks will lie down in it along with animals of every kind. Even pelicans and herons will nest on top of its columns. Listen! A bird will sing in a window. The doorway will be in ruins, because the LORD will expose the cedar beams.

¹⁵Is this the arrogant city? Is this the city that used to live securely, the city that used to think to itself, "I'm the only one, and no one else exists but me"? What a wasteland it is now, a resting place for wild animals! All who pass by it will hiss and make an obscene gesture.

3¹How horrible it will be for that rebellious and corrupt place, the city of violence.

²It obeys no one. It does not accept correction. It does not trust the LORD. It does not draw close to its God.

³Its officials are like roaring lions. Its judges are like wolves in the evening. They leave nothing to gnaw on for the morning.

⁴Its prophets are reckless and unfaithful. Its priests contaminate what is holy. They violate the teachings.

⁵The righteous LORD is in that city. He does no wrong. He brings his judgment to light every morning. He does not fail. But those who are perverted are shameless.

⁶"I will cut off the nations. Their towers will be destroyed. I will demolish their streets. No one will walk through them. Their cities will be completely destroyed. Not a single person will be left. No one will be living there.

⁷I said to my people, You will fear me. You will accept correction! Then their homeland would not be wiped out even though I have punished them. Still, they continued to be corrupt in everything they did."

⁸The LORD declares, "Just wait! One day I will stand up as a witness. I have decided to gather nations, to bring kingdoms together, and to pour my rage, my burning anger, on them. The whole land will be consumed by my fiery fury.

⁹"Then I will give all people pure lips to worship the LORD and to serve him with one purpose.

¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Sudan my worshipers, my scattered people, will bring my offering.

¹¹On that day you will no longer be ashamed of all your rebellious acts against me. Then I will remove your arrogance and never again will you act proud on my holy mountain.

¹²So with you I will leave a faithful few, a humble and poor people. They will seek refuge in the name of the LORD.

¹³The faithful few in Israel will not do wrong, tell lies, or use their tongues to deceive others. They will graze their sheep and lie down, and there will be no one to terrify them."

¹⁴Sing happily, people of Zion! Shout loudly, Israel! Celebrate and rejoice with all your heart, people of Jerusalem.

¹⁵The LORD has reversed the judgments against you. He has forced out your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is with you. You will never fear disaster again.

¹⁶On that day Jerusalem will be told, "Do not be afraid, Zion! Do not lose courage!"

¹⁷The LORD your God is with you. He is a hero who saves you. He happily rejoices over you, renews you with his love, and celebrates over you with shouts of joy.

¹⁸"I will gather those among you who are troubled because of the festivals. They bear a burden of disgrace.

¹⁹At that time I will deal with all who have overpowered you. I will rescue those who are lame. I will gather those who have been scattered. I will make them praised and famous in all the world, though they had been ashamed.

²⁰At that time I will bring you home. Yes, at that time I will gather you together. I will make you famous and praised among all the people of the earth when I restore your fortunes right before your eyes," says the LORD.

Haggai

1 ¹ On the first day of the sixth month in Darius second year as king, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah) and to the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak). He said,

² "This is what the LORD of Armies says: These people say its not the right time to rebuild the house of the LORD."

³ Then the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said,

⁴ "Is it time for you to live in your paneled houses while this house lies in ruins?

⁵ Now, this is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

⁶ You planted a lot, but you harvested little. You eat, but youre never full. You drink, but youre still thirsty. You wear clothing, but you never have enough to keep you warm. You spend money as fast as you earn it.

⁷ This is what the LORD of Armies says: Carefully consider your ways!

⁸ "Go to the mountains, get lumber, and build the house. I will be pleased with it, and I will be honored," declares the LORD.

⁹ "You expected a lot, but you received a little. When you bring something home, I blow it away. Why?" declares the LORD of Armies. "Its because my house lies in ruins while each of you is busy working on your own house.

¹⁰ It is because of you that the sky has withheld its dew and the earth has withheld its produce.

¹¹ I called for a drought on the land, the hills, and on the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and whatever the ground produces, on humans and animals, and on all your hard work."

¹² Then Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon obeyed the LORD their God. They also obeyed the words of the prophet Haggai because the LORD their God had sent him and because the people feared the LORD.

¹³Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD who had received the LORDS message, said to the people, "I am with you, declares the LORD."

¹⁴The LORD inspired them to rebuild his house. So Zerubbabel (who was the son of Shealtiel and was governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who was the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon began working on the house of the LORD of Armies, their God.

¹⁵They began on the twentyfourth day of the sixth month in Darius second year as king.

2¹On the twentyfirst day of the seventh month, the LORD spoke his word through the prophet Haggai. He said, ²"Now, speak to Zerubbabel (who is the son of Shealtiel and is governor of Judah), the chief priest Joshua (who is the son of Jehozadak), and the faithful few who returned from Babylon.

³Ask them, Is there anyone among the faithful few who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn't it seem like nothing to you?

⁴"But now, Zerubbabel, be strong," declares the LORD. "Chief Priest Joshua (son of Jehozadak), be strong. Everyone in the land, be strong," declares the LORD. "Work, because I am with you," declares the LORD of Armies.

⁵"This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains with you. Don't be afraid.

⁶"This is what the LORD of Armies says: Once again, in a little while, I am going to shake the sky and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

⁷I will shake all the nations, and the one whom all the nations desire will come. Then I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of Armies.

⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of Armies.

⁹This new house will be more glorious than the former, declares the LORD of Armies. And in this place I will give them peace, declares the LORD of Armies."

¹⁰On the twentyfourth day of the ninth month in Darius second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Haggai. He said, ¹¹"This is what the LORD of Armies says: Ask the priests for a decision.

¹²Suppose a person carries meat set aside for a holy purpose and he folds it up in his clothes. If his clothes touch bread, boiled food, wine, oil, or any kind of food, does that make the food holy?" The priests answered, "No."

¹³Haggai asked, "Suppose a person becomes unclean by touching a corpse. If he touches any of these things, does that make them unclean?" The priests answered, "That makes them unclean."

¹⁴Then Haggai answered, "In the same way, I have decided that these people are unclean, and so is this nation, declares the LORD. So is everything they do. Whatever offering they bring is unclean.

¹⁵"And from now on, carefully consider this. Consider how things were before one stone was laid on another in the temple of the LORD.

¹⁶When anyone came to a pile of grain to get 20 measures, there would be only 10. And when anyone came to a wine vat to draw out 50 measures, there would be only 20 in it.

¹⁷ I infested all your work with blight and mildew and struck it with hail. But you didn't come back to me, declares the LORD.

¹⁸ Carefully consider from now on, from the twentyfourth day of the ninth month, from the day when the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. Carefully consider:

¹⁹ Is there any seed left in the barn? The vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree still haven't produced. But from now on I will bless you."

²⁰ The LORD spoke his word to Haggai a second time on the twentyfourth day of the month. He said, ²¹ "Say to Zerubbabel (governor of Judah), I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

²² I will overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of nations. I will overthrow chariots and their riders, and the horses will fall along with their riders. They will kill one another with swords.

²³On that day, declares the LORD of Armies, I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel (son of Shealtiel), declares the LORD. I will make you like a signet ring, because I have chosen you, declares the LORD of Armies."

Zechariah

1 ¹In the eighth month of Darius second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo. He said, ²"The LORD was very angry with your ancestors.

³Tell the people, This is what the LORD of Armies says: Return to me, declares the LORD of Armies, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Armies.

⁴Dont be like your ancestors, who heard the earlier prophets preach to them, This is what the LORD of Armies says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds. But they didnt listen or pay attention to me, declares the LORD.

⁵Your ancestorswhere are they now? And the prophetsare they still alive?

⁶Didnt my warnings and my laws, which Ive commanded my servants the prophets to preach, finally catch up with your ancestors? Then your ancestors turned away from their sins and said,

The LORD of Armies has done to us what he had planned to do. He has dealt with us as our ways and deeds deserve."

⁷On the twentyfourth day of the eleventh month (the month of Shebat) in Darius second year as king, the LORD spoke his word to the prophet Zechariah, who was the son of Berechiah and the grandson of Iddo.

⁸During that night I saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, chestnut, and white horses.

⁹"What do these horses mean, sir?" I asked. The angel who was speaking with me answered, "I will show you what they mean."

¹⁰The man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They're the horses the LORD has sent to patrol the earth."

¹¹Then they reported to the Messenger of the LORD standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth. The whole world is at rest and in peace."

¹²Then the Messenger of the LORD said, "LORD of Armies, how much longer until you show compassion to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? Youve been angry with them for 70 years."

¹³The LORD responded to the angel who was speaking with me, using kind and comforting words.

¹⁴The angel who was speaking with me said, "Announce: This is what the LORD of Armies says: Im very jealous about Jerusalem and Zion, ¹⁵and Im very angry with the nations who think they are at ease. I was only a little angry, but they made things worse.

¹⁶This is what the LORD of Armies says: I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion. My house will be rebuilt in it, declares the LORD of Armies. A measuring line will be used to rebuild Jerusalem.

¹⁷"Announce again: This is what the LORD of Armies says: My cities will overflow with prosperity once more. The LORD will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem."

¹⁸I looked up and saw four animal horns.

¹⁹So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these horns mean?" He said to me, "These are the horns of the nations that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

²⁰Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

²¹I asked, "What are they going to do?" He answered, "Those horns scattered Judah so widely that no one could lift up his head. But the craftsmen have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations. The nations raised their horns to scatter the land of Judah."

2¹I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

²I asked him, "Where are you going?" He answered, "I am going to measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is."

³Then the angel who was speaking with me left. Another angel came out to meet him

⁴and said to him, "Run, and say to that young man, Jerusalem will be inhabited like an unwallled village because it will have so many people and animals in it.

⁵I will be a wall of fire around it, declares the LORD. I will be the glory within it.

⁶"Hurry, hurry! Flee from the land of the north, declares the LORD. I've scattered you to the four winds of heaven.

⁷Hurry, Zion! Escape, you inhabitants of Babylon!

⁸This is what the LORD of Armies says: Afterwards, the Glory sent me to the nations who looted you. Whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye.

⁹I'm going to shake my fist at the nations, and their own slaves will loot them. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me.

¹⁰Sing for joy and rejoice, people of Zion. I'm going to come and live among you, declares the LORD.

¹¹On that day many nations will join the LORD and become my people. I will live among you. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

¹²The LORD will claim Judah as his own in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.

¹³"Everyone be silent in the presence of the LORD. He is waking up and setting out from his holy dwelling place."

3¹ Then he showed me Joshua, the chief priest, standing in front of the Messenger of the LORD. Satan the Accuser was standing at Joshuas right side to accuse him.

² The LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, silence you, Satan! I, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, silence you! Isnt this man like a burning log snatched from a fire?"

³ Joshua was wearing filthy clothes and was standing in front of the Messenger.

⁴ The Messenger said to those who were standing in front of him, "Remove Joshuas filthy clothes." Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have taken your sin away from you, and I will dress you in fine clothing."

⁵ So I said, "Put a clean turban on his head." They put a clean turban on his head and dressed him while the Messenger of the LORD was standing there.

⁶ The Messenger of the LORD advised Joshua,

⁷ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: If you live according to my ways and follow my requirements, you will govern my temple and watch over my courtyards. Then I will give you free access to walk among those standing here.

⁸"Listen, Chief Priest Joshua and your friends sitting with you. These men are a sign of things to come: I'm going to bring my servant, the Branch.

⁹"Look at the stone I have set in front of Joshua. That one stone has seven eyes. I am engraving an inscription on it," declares the LORD of Armies. "I will remove this land's sin in a single day.

¹⁰On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree."

4¹The angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me up as one might wake up someone who is sleeping.

²He asked me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a solid gold lamp stand with a bowl on top and seven lamps on it. There are seven spouts for each lamp that is on top of it.

³There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

⁴I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these things mean, sir?"

⁵Then the angel asked me, "Don't you know what they mean?" "No, sir," I answered.

⁶Then he replied, "This is the word the LORD spoke to Zerubbabel: You won't succeed by might or by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Armies.

⁷What a high mountain you are! In front of Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the topmost stone with shouts of Blessings, blessings on it!"

⁸Then the LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

⁹"Zerubbabel's hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of Armies has sent me to you.

¹⁰Who despised the day when little things began to happen? They will be delighted when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand. (These seven eyes of the LORD roam over all the earth.)"

¹¹ I asked the angel, "What do these two olive trees at the right and the left of the lamp stand mean?"

¹² Again I asked him, "What is the meaning of the two branches from the olive trees next to the two golden pipes that are pouring out gold?"

¹³ He asked me, "Don't you know what these things mean?" "No, sir," I answered.

¹⁴ So he said, "These are the two anointed ones who are standing beside the Lord of the whole earth."

5¹ I looked up again and saw a flying scroll.

² The angel asked me, "What do you see?" "I see a flying scroll," I answered. "It's 30 feet long and 15 feet wide."

³ Then he said to me, "This is a curse that will go out all over the earth. The one side of the scroll says that every thief will be forced away. The other side of the scroll says that everyone who takes an oath will be forced away.

⁴ I will send out a curse, declares the LORD of Armies, and it will enter the houses of thieves and the houses of those who take oaths in my name. It will stay in their houses and destroy the timber and stone."

⁵The angel who was speaking with me came forward. He said, "Look up, and see what's coming."

⁶"What is it?" I asked. "A basket is coming," he said. Then he added, "This is what the peoples' sins look like all over the earth."

⁷A lead cover on the basket was raised, and a woman was sitting in the basket.

⁸The angel said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and forced the lead cover down on top of it.

⁹I looked up and saw two women coming forward with wind in their wings. They had wings like those of a stork. They carried the basket into the sky.

¹⁰I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

¹¹He answered me, "They are going to build a house for it in Shinar [Babylonia]. When the house is ready, they will set the basket there on a stand."

6¹I looked up again and saw four chariots going out from between the two mountains. They were mountains of bronze.

²The first chariot had red horses. The second had black horses.

³The third had white horses. And the fourth had strong, spotted horses.

⁴I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What do these horses mean, sir?"

⁵The angel answered, "They are the four spirits of heaven. They are going out after standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶The chariot with the black horses is going toward the north, and the white horses are following them. The spotted ones are going toward the south."

⁷When these strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. He said, "Go, patrol the earth!" And they patrolled the earth.

⁸Then he called out to me, "Look! Those who went to the north have made my Spirit rest in the north."

⁹The LORD spoke his word to me. He said,

¹⁰"Take an offering from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon. This same day go to the house of Josiah, son of Zephaniah.

¹¹ Take the silver and gold, make a crown, and put it on the head of Chief Priest Joshua, son of Jehozadak.

¹² Then say to him, This is what the LORD of Armies says: Here is the man whose name is Branch. He will branch out from where he is, and he will rebuild the LORDS temple.

¹³ He will rebuild the LORDS temple and receive royal honor. He will sit and rule from his throne. He will be a priest on his throne. There will be a peaceful understanding between them.

¹⁴ The crown will be a reminder to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen (son of Zephaniah) in the LORDS temple.

¹⁵ Those who are far away will come and rebuild the LORDS temple. Then you will know the LORD of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen if you obey the LORD your God completely."

7¹ On the fourth day of the ninth month (the month of Chislev) in Darius fourth year as king, the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah.

²Now, the people from Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech with their men to ask the LORD for a blessing.

³They asked the priests from the house of the LORD of Armies as well as the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done for so many years?"

⁴Then the LORD of Armies spoke his word to me. He said,

⁵"Tell all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months these past 70 years, did you really do it for me?

⁶When you ate and drank, didnt you do it to benefit yourselves?

⁷Arent these the same words that the LORD announced through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding cities were inhabited and undisturbed and the Negev and the foothills were still inhabited?"

⁸Then the LORD spoke his word to Zechariah. He said,

⁹"This is what the LORD of Armies says: Administer real justice, and be compassionate and kind to each other.

¹⁰Don't oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and poor people. And don't even think of doing evil to each other.

¹¹"But people refused to pay attention. They shrugged their shoulders at me and shut their ears so that they couldn't hear.

¹²They made their hearts as hard as flint so that they couldn't hear the LORD'S teachings, the words that the LORD of Armies had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the LORD of Armies became very angry.

¹³"When I called, they wouldn't listen. So now when they call, I won't listen, says the LORD of Armies.

¹⁴I used a windstorm to scatter them among all the nations, nations they hadn't even heard of. They left behind a land so ruined that no one is able to travel through it. They have turned a pleasant land into a wasteland."

8¹The LORD of Armies spoke his word.
²This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am very jealous about Zion. I am fiercely possessive of it.

³This is what the LORD says: I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth.

The mountain of the LORD of Armies will be called the holy mountain.

⁴This is what the LORD of Armies says: Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem. Each will have a cane in hand because of old age.

⁵The city will be filled with boys and girls playing in the streets.

⁶This is what the LORD of Armies says: It may seem impossible to the few remaining people in those days, but will it seem impossible to me? declares the LORD of Armies.

⁷This is what the LORD of Armies says: I am going to save my people from the land where the sun rises and from the land where the sun sets.

⁸I will bring them back, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, who is faithful and just.

⁹This is what the LORD of Armies says: Be strong so that the temple might be rebuilt, you people who are presently listening to the words from the mouths of the prophets who spoke when the foundation for the house of the LORD of Armies was laid.

¹⁰Before that time there was no money to hire any person or animal. No one who traveled was safe from the enemy. I turned every person against his neighbor.

¹¹But now I won't deal with the few remaining people as I did in earlier times, declares the LORD of Armies.

¹²Seeds will thrive in peacetime. Vines will produce their grapes. The land will yield its crops. The sky will produce its dew. I will give the few remaining people all these things as an inheritance.

¹³Just as you, people of Judah and people of Israel, have been a curse among the nations, so I will now save you, and you will become a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands work hard.

¹⁴This is what the LORD of Armies says: When your ancestors made me angry, I made plans to destroy you, declares the LORD of Armies, and I didn't change my plans.

¹⁵So now I have again made plans, but this time to do good to Jerusalem and the people of Judah. Don't be afraid.

¹⁶You must do these things: Speak the truth to each other. Give correct and fair verdicts for peace in your courts.

¹⁷Dont even think of doing evil to each other. Dont enjoy false testimony. I hate all these things, declares the LORD.

¹⁸The LORD of Armies spoke his word to me again.

¹⁹This is what the LORD of Armies says: The fast in the fourth month, the fast in the fifth month, the fast in the seventh month, and the fast in the tenth month will become joyful and glad occasions as well as happy festivals for the nation of Judah. So love truth and peace.

²⁰This is what the LORD of Armies says: People and citizens from many cities are going to come.

²¹The citizens of one city will come to another city, saying, "Lets make a habit of going to ask the LORD for a blessing and to seek the LORD of Armies. Im also going."

²²Many people and powerful nations will come to seek the LORD of Armies in Jerusalem and to ask the LORD for a blessing.

²³ This is what the LORD of Armies says: In those days ten people from every language found among the nations will take hold of the clothes of a Jew. They will say, "Let us go with you because we have heard that God is with you."

¹ This is the divine revelation. The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest on Damascus

² and also Hamath, which borders on it, and Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise. (The eyes of humanity and of all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD.)

³ Tyre built itself a fortress. It piled up silver like dust and gold like mud in the streets.

⁴ The Lord will take away its possessions. He will throw its wealth into the sea and burn the city down.

⁵ Ashkelon will see this and be afraid. Gaza will also be in great pain, also Ekron, because its hope will fade. Gaza will lose its king. Ashkelon will no longer be lived in.

⁶ A mixed race will live in Ashdod, and I will cut off the Philistines arrogance.

⁷ I will remove the blood from their mouths and the disgusting things from between their teeth. Then only a few of them will be left for our God like a tribe in Judah, and Ekron will be like a Jebusite.

⁸I will camp in front of my house as a guard against those who come and go. No oppressors will pass through them, because I have seen it with my own eyes.

⁹Rejoice with all your heart, people of Zion! Shout in triumph, people of Jerusalem! Look! Your King is coming to you: He is righteous and victorious. He is humble and rides on a donkey, on a colt, a young pack animal.

¹⁰He will make sure there are no chariots in Ephraim or war horses in Jerusalem. There will be no battle bows. He will announce peace to the nations. He will rule from sea to sea and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹I will set your captives free from the waterless pit because of the blood that sealed my promise to you.

¹²Return to your fortress, you captives who have hope. Today I tell you that I will return to you double blessings.

¹³I will bend Judah as my bow and draw my bow with Ephraim as its arrow. I will stir up your people, Zion, against your people, Greece, and I will use you like a warriors sword.

¹⁴The LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will go out like lightning. The Almighty LORD will blow the rams horn and will march in the storms from the south.

¹⁵The LORD of Armies will defend them. They will destroy and trample the stones used in slings. They will drink and shout as if they were drunk. They will be filled like a sacrificial bowl used for sprinkling the corners of the altar.

¹⁶On that day the LORD their God will rescue them as the flock of his people. They will certainly sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

¹⁷They will be beautiful and lovely. Young men will prosper on grain, and young women will prosper on new wine.

10¹Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime. The LORD makes thunderstorms. He gives everyone rain showers for the plants in the field.

²The idols speak lies. The fortunetellers see false visions. They speak about false dreams. They give useless comfort. That is why people wander around like sheep. They are troubled because there is no shepherd.

³"My burning anger is directed against the shepherds. I will punish the male goats. The LORD of Armies takes care of his flock, the people of Judah. He makes them like his splendid war horse."

⁴From them will come a cornerstone, from them a tent peg, from them a battle bow, from them every leader.

⁵Together they will be like warriors who trample the enemy in the mud on the streets. They will fight because the LORD is with them. They will put to shame those who ride on horses.

⁶"I will strengthen the people of Judah. I will rescue Josephs people. I will bring them back, because I have compassion for them. It will be as though I had never rejected them, because I am the LORD their God, and I will answer them.

⁷The people of Ephraim will be like mighty warriors. Their hearts will be glad as if they had some wine to drink. Their sons will see it and be glad. Their hearts will find joy in the LORD.

⁸I will signal them with a whistle and gather them because I have reclaimed them. They will be as numerous as they have ever been.

⁹Although I have scattered them among the nations, they will remember me even in faraway places. They will live with their children and then return.

¹⁰I will bring them back from Egypt. I will gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to Gilead and to Lebanon, and there won't be enough room for them."

¹¹The LORD will pass through a sea of distress, strike the waves in the sea, and dry up all the deep places of the Nile River. The pride of Assyria will be humiliated, and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

¹²"I will strengthen them in the LORD. They will live in his name," declares the LORD.

11 ¹Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire will be able to burn down your cedars.

²Cry, cypress trees, because the cedars have fallen and the stately trees have been destroyed. Cry, oak trees of Bashan, because your dense forest has fallen down.

³Listen! The shepherds are crying, because their rich pastures are destroyed. Listen! The young lions are roaring, because the lush banks of the Jordan are destroyed.

⁴This is what the LORD my God says: Take care of the sheep that are about to be slaughtered.

⁵Those who buy them will kill them and go unpunished. Those who sell them will say, "Praise the LORD! I've become rich!" Even their own shepherds will have no pity on them.

⁶The LORD declares, "I will no longer have pity on those who live in the land. I am going to hand the people over to their neighbors and their king, who will crush the land. And I won't rescue any of them from their power."

⁷So I became the shepherd of the sheep that were to be slaughtered and also of the oppressed sheep. I took two shepherd staffs and named one Favor and the other Unity. And I took care of the sheep.

⁸I got rid of three shepherds in one month. I became impatient with the sheep, and they also became disgusted with me.

⁹So I said, "I won't be your shepherd. Let those that are dying die. Let those that are missing stay missing. And let those that are left devour each other."

¹⁰Then I took my staff called Favor and broke it in pieces, to break the promise that I had made to all the nations.

¹¹So it was broken on that day, and the oppressed among the sheep who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

¹²Then I said to them, "If it's alright with you, pay me my wages. But if it's not, don't." And they paid me my wages—30 pieces of silver.

¹³The LORD told me, "Give it to the potter." So I took the 30 pieces of silver. Such a magnificent price was set by them! I gave the pieces of silver to the potter at the house of the LORD.

¹⁴ Then I broke my second staff, called Unity, in pieces, to break off the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to me, "Use the equipment of a foolish shepherd again.

¹⁶ I'm about to place a shepherd in the land. He will not take care of those that are dying. He will not search for the young. He will not heal those that have broken their legs or support those that can still stand. But he will eat the meat of the fat animals and tear off their hoofs.

¹⁷ "How horrible it will be for the foolish shepherd who abandoned the sheep. A sword will strike his arm and his right eye. His arm will be completely withered. His right eye will be completely blind."

12¹ This is the prophetic revelation, the word of the LORD about Israel. The LORD who spread out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit in a person says, ² "I'm going to make Jerusalem like a cup of wine that makes all the surrounding people stagger. They will attack Judah along with Jerusalem.

³On that day I will make Jerusalem a stone too heavy for all the nations to lift. All who try to lift it will be severely injured. All the nations in the world will gather to fight against Jerusalem."

⁴The LORD declares, "On that day I will strike every horse with panic and every rider with madness. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will strike all the horses of the nations blind.

⁵Then the leaders of Judah will think to themselves, The people who live in Jerusalem are strong because of the LORD of Armies, their God.

⁷"The LORD will save Judahs tents first so that the honor of Davids family and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem will not be greater than the honor of Judah.

⁸On that day the LORD will defend those who live in Jerusalem so that even those who stumble will be like David, and Davids family will be like God, like the Messenger of the LORD ahead of them.

⁹"On that day I will seek to destroy all the nations who attack Jerusalem.

¹⁰"I will pour out the Spirit of blessing and mercy on Davids family and on those who live in Jerusalem. They will look at me, whom they have stabbed. Then they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son, and they will cry bitterly for him as one cries for a firstborn son.

¹¹On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as intense as the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

¹²The land will mourn, each family by itself: the family of David by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Nathan by itself, and the wives by themselves;

¹³the family of Levi by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and the wives by themselves.

¹⁴All the families that are left will mourn, each by itself, and the wives by themselves."

13¹ The LORD declares, "On that day a fountain will be opened for Davids family and for those who live in Jerusalem to wash away their sin and stain.

² "On that day," declares the LORD of Armies, "I will wipe away the names of the idols from the land. They will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the false prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

³ "If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will say, You dont deserve to live because you speak lies in the name of the LORD. Then his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will stab him when he prophesies.

⁴ "On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He wont deceive people by dressing like a prophet in a coat made of hair.

⁵ He will say, I am not a prophet. Im a farmer. Ive owned this land since I was a child.

⁶"When someone asks him, What are these scars on your chest? he will answer, I was hurt at my friends house.

⁷"Arise, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my friend," declares the LORD of Armies. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. Then I will turn my hand against the little ones."

⁸The LORD declares, "Throughout the land twothirds will be cut off and die. Yet, onethird will be left in it.

⁹I will bring this third of the people through the fire. I will refine them as silver is refined. I will test them as gold is tested. They will call on me, and I will answer them. I will say, They are my people. They will reply, The LORD is our God."

14¹ A day is going to come for the LORD when the loot you have taken will be divided among you.

²I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half of the people in the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people wont be taken from the city.

³Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as he does when he fights a battle.

⁴On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, just east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will be split in two, forming a very large valley from east to west. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and the other half will move toward the south.

⁵Then you will flee to the valley of my mountains, because this valley between the mountains will go as far as Azel. You will flee as you did from the earthquake at the time of King Uzziah of Judah. The LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones will be with him.

⁶On that day there will be neither heat nor freezing cold.

⁷There will be one day known to the LORD with no difference between day and night. It will be light even in the evening.

⁸On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it to the Dead Sea and the other half to the Mediterranean Sea. It will continue in summer and in winter.

⁹The LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be the only Lord and his name the only name.

¹⁰The whole earth will become like the plains from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will rise and remain on its site, from Benjamin Gate to the place of First Gate, Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the kings winepresses.

¹¹People will live there, and it will never be threatened with destruction. Jerusalem will live securely.

¹²This will be the plague the LORD will use to strike all the people from the nations that have gone to war against Jerusalem. Their flesh will rot while they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

¹³On that day a largescale panic from the LORD will spread among them. One person will grab the hand of another, and one will attack the other.

¹⁴Judah will also fight in Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected, a very large amount of gold, silver, and clothes.

¹⁵A similar plague will also affect horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all other animals in those camps.

¹⁶Everyone who is left from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will come every year to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

¹⁷If any of the families on the earth wont go to Jerusalem to worship the king, the LORD of Armies, then rain wont fall on them.

¹⁸If the people of Egypt wont go or enter Jerusalem, then rain wont fall on them. The plague the LORD uses to strike the nations will affect those who wont come to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

¹⁹This will be the punishment for Egypts sin and for the sin of all the nations that wont go to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

²⁰On that day "Holy to the LORD" will be written on the bells of the horses. And the cooking pots in the house of the LORD will be like the bowls in front of the altar.

²¹ Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Armies. All who come to sacrifice will take some of them and cook in them. On that day there will no longer be any Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Armies.

Malachi

1 ¹ This is a divine revelation. The LORD spoke his word to Israel through Malachi.

² "I loved you," says the LORD. "But you ask, How did you love us? "Wasnt Esau Jacobs brother?" declares the LORD. "I loved Jacob, ³ but Esau I hated. I turned his mountains into a wasteland and left his inheritance to the jackals in the desert.

⁴ "The descendants of Esau may say, We have been beaten down, but we will rebuild the ruins. "Yet, this is what the LORD of Armies says: They may rebuild, but I will tear it down. They will be called the Wicked Land and the people with whom the LORD is always angry.

⁵ You will see these things with your own eyes and say, Even outside the borders of Israel the LORD is great.

⁶ "This is what the LORD of Armies says: A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. So if I am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is my respect? You priests despise my name. "But you ask, How have we despised your name?

⁷ "You offer contaminated food on my altar. "But you ask, Then how have we contaminated you? "When you say that the LORDS table may be despised.

⁸ When you bring a blind animal to sacrifice, isnt that wrong? When you bring a lame or a sick animal, isnt that wrong? Try offering it to your governor. Would he accept it from you? Would he welcome you?" asks the LORD of Armies.

⁹ "Now try asking God to be kind to you. This is what you are doing! Will he welcome you?" asks the LORD of Armies.

¹⁰ "I wish one of you would shut the doors to my house so that you could not light fires on my altar for no reason. Im not pleased with you," says the LORD of Armies, "and I wont accept your offerings.

¹¹ "From the nations where the sun rises to the nations where the sun sets, my name will be great. Incense and pure offerings will be offered everywhere in my name, because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD of Armies.

¹²"But you dishonor it when you say that the Lords table may be contaminated and that its food may be despised.

¹³"You say, Oh what a nuisance it is, and you sniff at it in disgust," says the LORD of Armies. "You bring stolen, lame, and sick animals. When you bring such offerings, should I accept them from you?" asks the LORD.

¹⁴"Cheaters are under a curse. They have male animals in their flocks that they vow to give as a sacrifice. But they sacrifice secondrate ones to the Lord instead. I am a great king," says the LORD of Armies. "Among the nations my name is respected.

2¹"And now, you priests, this warning is for you.

²If you wont listen and if you wont consider giving honor to my name," says the LORD of Armies, "then Ill send a curse on you, and Ill curse the blessings you give. Yes, Ive already cursed them because you dont carefully consider this.

³"I'm going to punish your descendants. I'm going to spread excrement on your faces, the excrement from your festival sacrifices. You will be discarded with it.

⁴Then you will know that I sent you this warning so that my promise to Levi will continue," says the LORD of Armies.

⁵"I promised Levi life and peace. I gave them to him so that he would respect me. He respected me and stood in awe of my name.

⁶The teaching that came from his mouth was true. Nothing unjust was found on his lips. He lived with me in peace and honesty and turned many people away from sin.

⁷"A priest's lips should preserve knowledge. Then, because he is the messenger for the LORD of Armies, people will seek instruction from his mouth.

⁸"But you have turned from the correct path and caused many to stumble over my teachings. You have corrupted the promise made to Levi," says the LORD of Armies.

⁹"So I have made you disgusting, and I have humiliated you in front of all the people, because you have not followed my ways. You have been unfair when applying my teachings."

¹⁰ Dont all of us have the same father? Hasnt the same God created us? Why are we unfaithful to each other? And why do we dishonor the promise given to our ancestors?

¹¹ Judah has been unfaithful! A disgusting thing has been done in Israel and Jerusalem. Judah has dishonored the holy place that the LORD loves and has married a woman who worships a foreign god.

¹² May the LORD exclude anyone who does this, whoever he may be. May he exclude them from Jacobs tents and from bringing offerings to the LORD of Armies.

¹³ Here is another thing you do: You cover the LORDS altar with tears. You moan and groan because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them from you.

¹⁴ But you ask, "Why arent our offerings accepted?" It is because the LORD is a witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been unfaithful. Yet, she is your companion, the wife of your marriage vows.

¹⁵ Didnt God make you one? Your flesh and spirit belong to him. And what does the same God look for but godly descendants? So be careful not to be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.

¹⁶ "I hate divorce," says the LORD God of Israel. "I hate the person who covers himself with violence," says the LORD of Armies. "Be careful not to be unfaithful."

¹⁷ You have tried the patience of the LORD with your words. But you ask, "How have we tried his patience?" When you say, "Everyone who does evil is considered good by the LORD. He is pleased with them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

3¹ "Im going to send my messenger, and he will clear the way ahead of me. Then the Lord you are looking for will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the promise will come. He is the one you want," says the LORD of Armies.

² But who will be able to endure the day he comes? Who will be able to survive on the day he appears? He is like a purifying fire and like a cleansing soap.

³He will act like a refiner and a purifier of silver. He will purify Levis sons and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will bring acceptable offerings to the LORD.

⁴The offerings from Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the past, as in years long ago.

⁵"I will come to judge you. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers, lying witnesses, and those who cheat workers out of their wages and oppress widows and orphans. I will also testify against those who deprive foreigners of their rights. None of them fear me," says the LORD of Armies.

⁶"I, the LORD, never change. That is why you descendants of Jacob havent been destroyed yet.

⁷Since the time of your ancestors you have turned away from my laws and have not followed them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Armies. "But you ask, How can we return?

⁸"Can a person cheat God? Yet, you are cheating me! "But you ask, How are we cheating you? "When you dont bring a tenth of your income and other contributions.

⁹So a curse is on you because the whole nation is cheating me!

¹⁰"Bring onetenth of your income into the storehouse so that there may be food in my house. Test me in this way," says the LORD of Armies. "See if I wont open the windows of heaven for you and flood you with blessings.

¹¹Then, for your sake, I will stop insects from eating your crops. They will not destroy the produce of your land. The vines in your fields will not lose their unripened grapes," says the LORD of Armies.

¹²"All nations will call you blessed because you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of Armies.

¹³"You have used harsh words against me," says the LORD. "You ask, How have we spoken against you?

¹⁴"You have said, Its pointless to serve God. What do we gain if we meet his standards or if we walk around feeling sorry for what we've done?

¹⁵ So now we call arrogant people blessed. Not only are evildoers encouraged, they even test God and get away with it."

¹⁶ Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD paid attention and listened. A book was written in his presence to be a reminder to those who feared the LORD and respected his name.

¹⁷ "They will be mine," says the LORD of Armies. "On that day I will make them my special possession. I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.

¹⁸ Then you will again see the difference between righteous people and wicked people, between the one who serves God and the one who doesn't serve him.

4¹ "Certainly the day is coming! It will burn like a furnace. All arrogant people and all evildoers will be like straw. The day that is coming will burn them up completely," says the LORD of Armies. "It won't leave a single root or branch.

²"The Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings for you people who fear my name. You will go out and leap like calves let out of a stall.

³You will trample on wicked people, because on the day I act they will be ashes under the soles of your feet," says the LORD of Armies.

⁴"Remember the teachings of my servant Moses, the rules and regulations that I gave to him at Horeb for all Israel.

⁵"I'm going to send you the prophet Elijah before that very terrifying day of the LORD comes.

⁶He will change parents attitudes toward their children and childrens attitudes toward their parents. If not, I will come and reclaim my land by destroying you."

Matthew

1 ¹ The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

² Abraham became the father of Isaac, and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers,

³ and Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez became the father of Hezron, and Hezron became the father of Aram,

⁴ and Aram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon,

⁵ and Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed became the father of Jesse,

⁶ and Jesse became the father of David the king. And David became the father of Solomon by the [wife] of Uriah,

⁷ and Solomon became the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam became the father of Abijah, and Abijah became the father of Asa,

⁸and Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram, and Joram became the father of Uzziah, ⁹and Uzziah became the father of Jotham, and Jotham became the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah, ¹⁰and Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh became the father of Amon, and Amon became the father of Josiah, ¹¹and Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

¹²And after the deportation to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³and Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud, and Abiud became the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim became the father of Azor, ¹⁴and Azor became the father of Zadok, and Zadok became the father of Achim, and Achim became the father of Eliud, ¹⁵and Eliud became the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar became the father of Matthan, and Matthan became the father of Jacob, ¹⁶and Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary by whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

¹⁷Therefore all the generations from Abraham to David [are] fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon [are] fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Christ [are] fourteen generations.

¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ occurred in this way. His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, [but] before they came together, she was found _to be pregnant_ by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁹So Joseph her husband, being righteous and not wanting to disgrace her, intended to divorce her secretly.

²⁰But [as] he was considering these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary [as] your wife, for what has been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

²¹ And she will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.

²² Now all this happened in order that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled, saying,

²³ Behold, the virgin _will become pregnant_ and will give birth to a son, and they will call his name Emmanuel," which is translated, "God with us."

²⁴ And Joseph, [when he] woke up from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and he took his wife

²⁵ and _did not have sexual relations with_ her until she gave birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus.

2¹ Now [after] Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem,

² saying, "Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star at its rising and have come to worship him."

³And [when] King Herod heard [it], he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him, ⁴and [after] calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired from them where the Christ was to be born.

⁵So they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet, ⁶And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for from you will go out a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel."

⁷Then Herod secretly summoned the wise men [and] determined precisely from them the time [when] the star appeared.

⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem [and] said, "Go, inquire carefully concerning the child, and when you have found [him], report to me so that I also may come [and] worship him.

⁹[After] they listened to the king, they went out, and behold, the star which they had seen at its rising led them until it came [and] stood above [the place] where the child was.

¹⁰Now [when they] saw the star, they rejoiced [with] very great joy.

¹¹And [when they] came into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down [and] worshiped him. And opening their treasure boxes, they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

¹²And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their [own] country by another route.

¹³Now [after] they had gone away, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph, saying, "Get up, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. For Herod is about to seek the child to destroy him.

¹⁴So he got up [and] took the child and his mother during the night and went away to Egypt.

¹⁵And he was there until the death of Herod, in order that what was said by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son.

¹⁶Then Herod, [when he] saw that he had been deceived by the wise men, became very angry, and he sent [soldiers] [and] executed all the children in Bethlehem and in all the region [around] it from [the age of] two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined precisely from the wise men.

¹⁷ Then what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled, saying,

¹⁸ A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping [for] her children, and she did not want to be comforted, because _they exist no longer_ ."

¹⁹ Now [after] Herod had died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, "Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the life of the child are dead.

²¹ So he got up [and] took the child and his mother and _entered_ the land of Israel.

²² But [when he] heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream, he took refuge in the regions of Galilee.

²³And he came [and] lived in a town called Nazareth, in order that what was said by the prophets would be fulfilled: "He will be called a Nazarene.

3¹ Now in those days John the Baptist came preaching in the Judean wilderness ²and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near!

³For this is the one who was spoken about by the prophet Isaiah, saying, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight."

⁴Now John himself had his clothing made from camels hair and a belt made of leather around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey.

⁵Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the district around the Jordan were going out to him, ⁶and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River [as they] confessed their sins.

⁷But [when he] saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

⁸Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance!

⁹And do not think to say to yourselves, We have Abraham [as] father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

¹⁰Already now the ax is positioned at the root of the trees; therefore every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹I baptize you with water for repentance, but the one who comes after me is more powerful than I [am], whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

¹²His winnowing shovel [is] in his hand, and he will clean out his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John in order to be baptized by him.

¹⁴ But John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?"

¹⁵ But Jesus answered [and] said to him, "Permit [it] now, for in this way it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he permitted him.

¹⁶ Now [after he] was baptized, Jesus immediately went up from the water, and behold, the heavens opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him.

¹⁷ And behold, [there was] a voice from heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

4¹ Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil, ² and [after he] had fasted forty days and forty nights, then he was hungry.

³ And the tempter approached [and] said to him, "If you are the Son of God, order that these stones become bread.

⁴ But he answered [and] said, "It is written, Man will not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes out of the mouth of God."

⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the highest point of the temple

⁶and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down! For it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, and On [their] hands they will lift you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone."

⁷Jesus said to him, "On the other hand it is written, You are not to put the Lord your God to the test."

⁸Again the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory,

⁹and he said to him, "I will give to you all these things, if you will fall down [and] worship me.

¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, "Go away, Satan, for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and serve only him."

¹¹Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and began ministering to him.

¹²Now [when he] heard that John _had been arrested_, he withdrew into Galilee.

¹³ And leaving Nazareth, he went [and] lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,

¹⁴ in order that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah would be fulfilled, who said,

¹⁵ Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, _toward the sea_, on the other side of the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles

¹⁶ the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, and the ones who sit in the land and shadow of death, a light has dawned on them."

¹⁷ From that time [on], Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, because the kingdom of heaven is near.

¹⁹ And he said to them, "_Follow me_" and I will make you fishers of people.

²⁰ And immediately they left their nets [and] followed him.

²¹ And going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the [son] of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.

²²And immediately they left the boat and their father [and] followed him.

²³And he went around through all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.

²⁴And a report about him went out _throughout_ Syria, and they brought to him all those _who were sick_ with various diseases and afflicted by torments and demon-possessed and epileptics and paralytics, and he healed them.

²⁵And large crowds followed him from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from the other side of the Jordan.

5¹ Now [when he] saw the crowds, he went up the mountain and [after he] sat down, his disciples approached him.

²And opening his mouth he began to teach them, saying,

³Blessed [are] the poor in spirit, because theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴Blessed [are] the ones who mourn, because they will be comforted.

⁵Blessed [are] the meek, because they will inherit the earth.

⁶Blessed [are] the ones who hunger and thirst [for] righteousness, because they will be satisfied.

⁷Blessed [are] the merciful, because they will be shown mercy.

⁸Blessed [are] the pure in heart, because they will see God.

⁹Blessed [are] the peacemakers, because they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰Blessed [are] those who are persecuted because of righteousness, because theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute [you] and say all kinds of evil things against you, lying on account of me.

¹²Rejoice and be glad, because your reward [is] great in heaven, for in the [same] way they persecuted the prophets before you.

¹³"You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, by what will it be made salty? It is good for nothing any longer except to be thrown outside [and] trampled under foot by people.

¹⁴You are the light of the world. A city located on top of a hill cannot be hidden, ¹⁵nor do they light a lamp and place it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it shines on all those in the house.

¹⁶In the [same] way let your light shine before people, so that they can see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

¹⁷"Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets. I have not come to destroy [them] but to fulfill [them].

¹⁸For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one tiny letter or one stroke of a letter will pass away from the law until all takes place.

¹⁹Therefore whoever abolishes one of the least of these commandments and teaches people to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever keeps [them] and teaches [them], this person will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

²⁰For I say to you that unless your righteousness greatly surpasses [that] of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter into the kingdom of heaven.

²¹ "You have heard that it was said to the _people of old_, Do not commit murder, and whoever commits murder will be subject to judgment.

²² But I say to you that everyone who is angry at his brother will be subject to judgment, and whoever says to his brother, Stupid fool! will be subject to the council, and whoever says, Obstinate fool! will be subject to fiery hell.

²³ Therefore if you present your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,

²⁴ leave your gift there before the altar and first go be reconciled to your brother, and then come [and] present your gift.

²⁵ _Settle the case quickly with your accuser_ while you are with him on the way, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.

²⁶ Truly I say to you, you will never come out of there until you have paid back the last penny!

²⁷ "You have heard that it was said, Do not commit adultery.

²⁸ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

²⁹ And if your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw [it] from you! For it is better for you that one of your members be destroyed than your whole body be thrown into hell.

³⁰ And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw [it] from you! For it is better for you that one of your limbs be destroyed than your whole body go into hell.

³¹ "And it was said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.

³² But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for a matter of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

³³ "Again you have heard that it was said to the _people of old_, Do not swear falsely, but fulfill your oaths to the Lord.

³⁴ But I say to you, do not swear at all, either by heaven, because it is the throne of God, ³⁵ or by the earth, because it is the footstool of his feet, or by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great king.

³⁶ And do not swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black.

³⁷ But let your statement be Yes, yes; no, no, and anything beyond these is from the evil one.

³⁸ "You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

³⁹ But I say to you, do not resist the evildoer, but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also.

⁴⁰ And the one who wants to go to court with you and take your tunic, _let him have_ your outer garment also.

⁴¹ And whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two.

⁴² Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

⁴³ "You have heard that it was said, Love your neighbor and Hate your enemy.

⁴⁴ But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

⁴⁵ in order that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven, because he causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust.

⁴⁶For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not the tax collectors also do the same?

⁴⁷And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing that is remarkable? Do not the Gentiles also do the same?

⁴⁸Therefore you be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6¹ "And take care not to practice your righteousness before people to be seen by them; _otherwise_ you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

²Therefore whenever you practice charitable giving, do not sound a trumpet in front of you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, in order that they may be praised by people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward in full!

³But you, [when you] practice charitable giving, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴in order that your charitable giving may be in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

⁵And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, because they love to stand [and] pray in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, in order that they may be seen by people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward in full!

⁶But whenever you pray, enter into your inner room and shut your door [and] pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

⁷But [when you] pray, do not babble repetitiously like the pagans, for they think that because of their many words they will be heard.

⁸Therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows _what you need_ before you ask him.

⁹Therefore you pray in this way: "Our Father who is in heaven, may your name be treated as holy.

¹⁰May your kingdom come, may your will be done on earth as [it is] in heaven.

¹¹Give us today our daily bread,

¹²and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³And do not bring us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

¹⁴For if you forgive people their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

¹⁵But if you do not forgive people, neither will your Father forgive your sins.

¹⁶"Whenever you fast, do not be sullen like the hypocrites, for they make their faces unrecognizable in order that they may be seen fasting by people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward in full!

¹⁷But [when] you are fasting, _put olive oil on your head_ and wash your face

¹⁸so that you will not be seen by people as fasting, but to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

¹⁹"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and consuming [insect] destroy and where thieves break in and steal,

²⁰but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor consuming [insect] destroy and where thieves do not break in or steal.

²¹ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

²² The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore if your eye is sincere, your whole body will be full of light.

²³ But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be dark. Therefore if the light in you is darkness, how great [is] the darkness!

²⁴ No one is able to serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You are not able to serve God and money.

²⁵ "For this [reason] I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, and not for your body, what you will wear. Is your life not more than food and your body [more than] clothing?

²⁶ Consider the birds of the sky, that they do not sow or reap or gather [produce] into barns, and your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth more than they [are]?

²⁷ And who among you, [by] being anxious, is able to add one hour to his life span?

²⁸ And why are you anxious about clothing? Observe the lilies of the field, how they grow: they do not toil or spin, ²⁹ but I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was dressed like one of these.

³¹ Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What will we eat? or What will we drink? or What will we wear?,

³² for the pagans seek after all these [things]. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these [things].

³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these [things] will be added to you.

³⁴ Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow, because tomorrow will be anxious for itself. _Each day has enough trouble of its own._

7¹ "Do not judge, so that you will not be judged.

²For by what judgment you judge, you will be judged, and by what measure you measure out, it will be measured out to you.

³And why do you see the speck [that is] in your brothers eye, but do not notice the beam of wood in your [own] eye?

⁴Or how will you say to your brother, Allow [me] to remove the speck from your eye, and behold, the beam of wood [is] in your [own] eye?

⁵Hypocrite! First remove the beam of wood from your [own] eye and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brothers eye!

⁶Do not give what is holy to dogs, or throw your pearls in front of pigs, lest they trample them with their feet, and turn around [and] tear you to pieces.

⁷"Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened for you.

⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

⁹Or what man is [there] among you, [if] his son will ask him [for] bread, will give him a stone?

¹⁰Or also [if] he will ask for a fish, will give him a snake?

¹¹Therefore if you, [although you] are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

¹²Therefore [in] all [things], whatever you want that people should do to you, thus also you do to them. For this is the law and the prophets.

¹³"Enter through the narrow gate, because broad [is] the gate and spacious [is] the road that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it.

¹⁴How narrow [is] the gate and constricted the road that leads to life, and there are few who find it!

¹⁵"Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheeps clothing, but inside are ravenous wolves.

¹⁶You will recognize them by their fruits: they do not gather grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles, [do they]?

¹⁷In the [same] way, every good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit.

¹⁸A good tree is not able to produce bad fruit, nor a bad tree to produce good fruit.

¹⁹Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

²⁰As a result, you will recognize them by their fruits.

²¹"Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter into the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

²²On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and expel demons in your name, and perform many miracles in your name?

²³And then _I will say to them plainly_, I never knew you. Depart from me, you who practice lawlessness!

²⁴"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

²⁵And the rain came down and the rivers came and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it did not collapse, because its foundation was laid on the rock.

²⁶And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.

²⁷And the rain came down and the rivers came and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it collapsed, and its fall was great.

²⁸And it happened when Jesus finished these words the crowds were amazed at his teaching, ²⁹because he was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like their scribes.

8¹And [when] he came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him.

²And behold, a leper approached [and] worshiped him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean.

³And extending his hand he touched him, saying, "I am willing, be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

⁴And Jesus said to him, "See that you tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

⁵Now [when] he entered Capernaum, a centurion approached him, appealing to him ⁶and saying, "Lord, my slave is lying paralyzed in my house, terribly tormented!

⁷And he said to him, "I will come [and] heal him.

⁸And the centurion answered [and] said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come in under my roof. But only say the word and my slave will be healed.

⁹For I also am a man under authority who has soldiers under me, and I say to this one, Go! and he goes, and to another one, Come! and he comes, and to my slave, Do this! and he does [it] .

¹⁰Now [when] Jesus heard [this], he was astonished, and said to those who were following [him], "Truly I say to you,

I have found such great faith with no one in Israel.

¹¹ But I say to you that many will come from east and west and _be seated at the banquet_ with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

¹³ And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go, as you have believed it will be done for you." And his slave was healed at that hour.

¹⁴ And [when] Jesus came into Peters house, he saw his mother-in-law lying down and suffering with a fever.

¹⁵ And he touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

¹⁶ Now [when it] was evening, they brought to him many who were demon-possessed, and he expelled the spirits with a word. And he healed all _those who were sick_,

¹⁷ in order that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah would be fulfilled, who said, "He himself took away our sicknesses, and carried away our diseases."

¹⁸Now [when] Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave orders to depart to the other side.

¹⁹And a scribe approached [and] said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go!

²⁰And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky [have] nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.

²¹And another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.

²²But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead!

²³And [as] he got into the boat, his disciples followed him.

²⁴And behold, a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being inundated by the waves, but he himself was asleep.

²⁵And they came [and] woke him, saying, "Lord, save [us]! We are perishing!

²⁶And he said to them, "Why are you fearful, [you] of little faith?" Then he got up [and] rebuked the winds and the sea and there was a great calm.

²⁷And the men were astonished, saying, "What sort of [man] is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

²⁸And [when] he came to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from among the tombs met him, very violent, so that no one was able to pass by along that road.

²⁹And behold, they cried out, saying, "_What do you have to do with us_, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?"

³⁰Now a long way from them a large herd of pigs was feeding.

³¹So the demons implored him, saying, "If you are going to expel us, send us into the herd of pigs.

³²And he said to them, "Go!" So they departed [and] went into the pigs, and behold, the whole herd rushed headlong down the steep slope into the sea and drowned in the water.

³³ Now the herdsmen fled and went into the town [and] reported everything, including the things concerning the demon-possessed men.

³⁴ And behold, the whole town came out to meet Jesus, and [when they] saw him, they implored [him] that he would depart from their region.

9¹ And getting into a boat, he crossed over and came to his own town.

² And behold, they brought to him a paralytic lying on a stretcher, and [when] Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Have courage, child, your sins are forgiven.

³ And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming!

⁴ And perceiving their thoughts, Jesus said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?

⁵ For which is easier to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Get up and walk?

⁶ But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," then he said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your stretcher and go to your home.

⁷ And he got up [and] went to his home.

⁸But [when] the crowds saw [this], they were afraid and glorified God who had given such authority to men.

⁹And [as] Jesus was going away from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth and said to him, "Follow me!" And he stood up [and] followed him.

¹⁰And it happened [as] he _was dining_ in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners were coming [and] _dining_ with Jesus and his disciples.

¹¹And [when they] saw [it], the Pharisees began to say to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹²And [when he] heard [it], he said, "Those who are healthy do not have need of a physician, but those _who are sick_.

¹³But go [and] learn what it means, "I want mercy and not sacrifice." For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

¹⁴Then the disciples of John approached him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁵And Jesus said to them, "_The bridegrooms attendants_ are not able to mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them. But days are coming when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

¹⁶But no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for its patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear becomes worse.

¹⁷Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins. _Otherwise_ the wineskins burst and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are destroyed. But they put new wine into new wineskins and both are preserved.

¹⁸[As] he was saying these [things] to them, behold, one of the rulers came [and] knelt down before him, saying, "My daughter has just now died, but come, place your hand on her and she will live!

¹⁹And Jesus and his disciples got up [and] followed him.

²⁰And behold, a woman who had been suffering with a hemorrhage twelve years approached from behind [and] touched the edge of his cloak, ²¹ for she said to herself, "If only I touch his cloak I will be healed.

²² But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Have courage, daughter! Your faith has healed you." And the woman was healed from that hour.

²³ And [when] Jesus came into the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the disorderly crowd, ²⁴ he said, "Go away, because the girl is not dead, but is sleeping." And they ridiculed him.

²⁵ But when the crowd had been sent out, he entered [and] took her hand, and the girl got up.

²⁶ And this report went out into that whole region.

²⁷ And [as] Jesus was going away from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!

²⁸ And [when he] came into the house, the blind men approached him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord.

²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be done for you.

³⁰And their eyes were opened, and Jesus sternly warned them, saying, "See [that] no one finds out.

³¹But they went out [and] spread the report about him in that whole region.

³²Now [as] they were going away, behold, they brought to him a demon-possessed man [who was] unable to speak.

³³And [after] the demon had been expelled, the one who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were astonished, saying, "_This has never been seen before_ in Israel!

³⁴But the Pharisees were saying, "By the ruler of demons he expels the demons!

³⁵And Jesus was going around all the towns and the villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and every sickness.

³⁶And [when he] saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were weary and dejected, like sheep that did not have a shepherd.

³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest [is] plentiful, but the workers [are] few.

³⁸ Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest that he send out workers into his harvest.

10¹ And summoning his twelve disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, so that they could expel [them] and could heal every disease and every sickness.

² Now these are the names of the twelve apostles: first Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James the [son] of Zebedee, and John his brother,

³ Philip, and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector, James the [son] of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, ⁴ Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot the one who also betrayed him.

⁵ Jesus sent out these twelve, instructing them saying, "Do not go on the road to the Gentiles, and do not enter into a city of the Samaritans, ⁶ but go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

⁷And [as you] are going, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven has come near!

⁸Heal those who are sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, expel demons. Freely you have received; freely give.

⁹Do not procure gold or silver or copper for your belts.

¹⁰Do not [take] a travelers bag for the road, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff, for the worker [is] deserving of his provisions.

¹¹And into whatever town or village you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay [there] until you depart.

¹²And [when you] enter into the house, greet it.

¹³And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

¹⁴And whoever does not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet [as you] are going out of that house or [that] town.

¹⁵Truly I say to you, it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town!

¹⁶"Behold, I am sending you out like sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

¹⁷But beware of people, because they will hand you over to councils, and they will flog you in their synagogues.

¹⁸And you will be brought before both governors and kings because of me, for a witness to them and to the Gentiles.

¹⁹But whenever they hand you over, do not be anxious how [to speak] or what you should say, for what you should say will be given to you at that hour.

²⁰For you are not the ones who are speaking, but the Spirit of your Father [who is] speaking through you.

²¹And brother will hand over brother to death, and a father [his] children, and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death, ²²and you will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endures to the end this one will be saved.

²³And whenever they persecute you in this town, flee to another, for truly I say to you, you will never finish [going through] the towns of Israel until the Son of Man comes.

²⁴A disciple is not superior to his teacher, nor a slave superior to his master.

²⁵[It is] enough for the disciple that he become like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more the members of his household?

²⁶"Therefore do not be afraid of them, because nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing secret that will not become known.

²⁷What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear in your ear, proclaim on the housetops.

²⁸And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul, but instead be afraid of the one who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

²⁹Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And one of them will not fall to the ground _without the knowledge and consent_ of your Father.

³⁰ And even the hairs of your head are all numbered!

³¹ Therefore do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

³² Therefore everyone who acknowledges me before people, I also will acknowledge him before my Father [who is] in heaven.

³³ But whoever denies me before people, I also will deny him before my Father [who is] in heaven.

³⁴ "Do not think that I have come to bring peace on the earth! I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

³⁵ For I have come to turn a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

³⁶ And the enemies of a man [will be] the members of his household.

³⁷ The one who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and the one who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

³⁸ And whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

³⁹ The one who finds his life will lose it, and the one who loses his life because of me will find it.

⁴⁰ "The one who receives you receives me, and the one who receives me receives the one who sent me.

⁴¹ The one who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophets reward, and the one who receives a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive a righteous persons reward.

⁴² And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he will never lose his reward.

11 ¹ And it happened that when Jesus had finished giving orders to his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and to preach in their towns.

² Now [when] John heard in prison the deeds of Christ, he sent [word] by his disciples

³ [and] said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

⁴ And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Go [and] tell John what you hear and see:

⁵ the blind receive sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and the poor have good news announced to [them].

⁶ And whoever is not offended by me is blessed.

⁷ Now [as] these were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

⁸ But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in the houses of kings.

⁹ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and even more than a prophet!

¹⁰ It is this man about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.

¹¹ Truly I say to you, among [those] born of women there has not arisen

[one] greater than John the Baptist. But the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

¹²But from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven is treated violently, and the violent claim it.

¹³For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John,

¹⁴and if you are willing to accept [it], he is Elijah, the one who is going to come.

¹⁵The one who has ears, let him hear!

¹⁶But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to one another, ¹⁷saying, We played the flute for you and you did not dance; we sang a lament and you did not mourn.

¹⁸For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon!

¹⁹The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man [who is] a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners! But wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

²⁰Then he began to reproach the towns in which the majority of his miracles had been done, because they did not repent:

²¹Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

²²Nevertheless I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and for Sidon on the day of judgment than for you!

²³And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until today.

²⁴Nevertheless I tell you that it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you!

²⁵At that time Jesus answered [and] said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these [things] from the wise and intelligent, and have revealed them to young children.

²⁶Yes, Father, for [to do] so _was your gracious will_.

²⁷ All [things] have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and _anyone to whom_ the Son wants to reveal [him].

²⁸ Come to me, all [of you] who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

²⁹ Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

³⁰ For my yoke [is] easy to carry and my burden is light.

12¹ At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. And his disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck off heads of grain and eat [them].

² But [when] the Pharisees saw [it], they said to him, "Behold, your disciples are doing what it is not permitted to do on the Sabbath!

³ So he said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him,

⁴ how he entered into the house of God and ate the bread of the presentation, which it was not permitted for him or for those with him to eat, but only for the priests?

⁵Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple violate the sanctity of the Sabbath and are guiltless?

⁶But I tell you that [something] greater than the temple is here!

⁷And if you had known what _it means_, I want mercy and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless.

⁸For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.

⁹And going on from there he came into their synagogue.

¹⁰And behold, [there was] a man who had a withered hand, and they asked him, saying, "Is it permitted to heal on the Sabbath?" in order that they could accuse him.

¹¹But he said to them, "What man will there be among you who will have one sheep and if this one fell into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift [it] out?

¹²Then to what degree [is] a man worth more than a sheep? So then, it is permitted to do good on the Sabbath.

¹³Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand," and he stretched [it] out, and it was restored [as] healthy as the other [one].

¹⁴But the Pharisees went out _and plotted_ against him in order that they could destroy him.

¹⁵Now Jesus, [when he] learned of [it], withdrew from there, and many crowds followed him, and he healed them all.

¹⁶And he warned them that they should not _reveal his identity_,

¹⁷in order that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah would be fulfilled, who said, ¹⁸Behold my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.

¹⁹He will not quarrel or cry out, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰A crushed reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not extinguish, until he brings justice to victory.

²¹ And in his name the Gentiles will hope.

²² Then a demon-possessed man [who was] blind and mute was brought to him. And he healed him so that the [man who was] mute could speak and see.

²³ And all the crowds were amazed and began saying, "Perhaps this one is the Son of David!

²⁴ But the Pharisees, [when they] heard [it], said, "This man does not expel demons except by Beelzebul the ruler of demons!

²⁵ But knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand.

²⁶ And if Satan expels Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?

²⁷ And if I expel demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons expel [them]? For this [reason] they will be your judges!

²⁸ But if I expel demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you!

²⁹ Or how can someone enter into the house of a strong [man] and steal his property, unless he first ties up the strong [man]? And then he can thoroughly plunder his house.

³⁰ The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters.

³¹ For this [reason] I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven!

³² And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him either in this age or in the coming one!

³³ "Either make the tree good and its fruit [is] good, or make the tree bad and its fruit [is] bad, for the tree is known by its fruit.

³⁴ Offspring of vipers! How are you able to say good things [when you] are evil? For from the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.

³⁵ The good person from his good treasury brings out good [things], and the evil person from his evil treasury brings out evil [things].

³⁶ But I tell you that every worthless word that they speak, people will give an account for it on the day of judgment!

³⁷ For by your words you will be vindicated, and by your words you will be condemned.

³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you!

³⁹ But he answered [and] said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation desires a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah!

⁴⁰ For just as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.

⁴¹ The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and behold, [something] greater than Jonah [is] here!

⁴² The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, [something] greater than Solomon [is] here!

⁴³ "Now whenever an unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it travels through waterless places searching for rest, and does not find [it].

⁴⁴ Then it says, I will return to my house from which I came out. And [when it] arrives it finds [the house] unoccupied and swept and put in order.

⁴⁵ Then it goes and brings along with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and [they] go in [and] live there. And the last [state] of that person becomes worse than the first. So it will be for this evil generation also!

⁴⁶ [While] he was still speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and brothers were standing there outside, desiring to speak to him.

⁴⁷ And someone told him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers are standing there outside desiring to speak to you.

⁴⁸But he answered [and] said to the one who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

⁴⁹And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Behold my mother and my brothers!"

⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father [who is] in heaven, he is my brother and sister and mother.

13¹ On that day Jesus went out of the house [and] was sitting by the sea.

²And large crowds gathered close around him, so that he got into a boat to sit down, and all the crowd was standing on the shore.

³And he spoke many [things] to them in parables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow, ⁴and while he was sowing, _some seed_ fell on the side of the path, and the birds came [and] devoured it.

⁵And other [seed] fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up at once because it did not have [any] depth of soil.

⁶But [when] the sun rose it was scorched, and because it did not have [enough] root, it withered.

⁷And other [seed] fell among the thorn plants, and the thorn plants came up and choked it.

⁸But other [seed] fell on the good soil and produced grain, this one a hundred [times as much] and this one sixty and this one thirty.

⁹The one who has ears, let him hear!

¹⁰And the disciples came up [and] said to him, " _Why_ do you speak to them in parables?

¹¹And he answered [and] said to them, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to those [people] it has not been granted.

¹²For whoever has, to him [more] will be given, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.

¹³For this [reason] I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand, ¹⁴and with reference to them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says, "You will listen carefully and will never understand, and you will look closely and will never perceive.

¹⁵For the heart of this people has become dull, and with their ears they hear with difficulty, and they have shut their eyes, so that they would not see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them."

¹⁶But your eyes [are] blessed because they see, and your ears because they hear.

¹⁷For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous [people] longed to see what you see, and did not see [it], and to hear what you hear, and did not hear [it]!

¹⁸"You, therefore, listen to the parable of the sower:

²⁰ And what was sown on the rocky ground this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.

²¹ But he does not have a root in himself, but _lasts only a little while_, and [when] affliction or persecution happens because of the word, immediately he falls away.

²² And what was sown into the thorn plants this is the one who hears the word, and the anxiety of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word and it becomes unproductive.

²³ But what was sown on the good soil this is the one who hears the word and understands [it], who indeed bears fruit and produces, this one a hundred [times as much], and this one sixty, and this one thirty.

²⁴ He put before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.

²⁵ But while his people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed dandel in the midst of the wheat and went away.

²⁶ So when the _wheat_ sprouted and yielded grain, then the darnel appeared also.

²⁷ So the slaves of the master of the house came [and] said to him, Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have darnel?

²⁸ And he said to them, An enemy has done this! So the slaves said to him, Then do you want us to go [and] gather them?

²⁹ But he said, "No, lest [when you] gather the darnel you uproot the wheat together with it.

³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the season of the harvest I will tell the reapers, "First gather the darnel and tie it into bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my storehouse."

³¹ He put before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took [and] sowed in his field.

³² _It_ is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it is grown it is larger than the garden herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches.

³³He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took [and] put into three measures of wheat flour until the whole [batch] was leavened.

³⁴Jesus spoke all these [things] to the crowds in parables, and he was saying nothing to them without a parable,

³⁵in order that what was spoken through the prophet would be fulfilled, who said, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

³⁶Then he left the crowds [and] came into the house, and his disciples came to him saying, "Explain the parable of the darnel in the field to us.

³⁷So he answered [and] said, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, ³⁸and the field is the world. And the good seedthese are the sons of the kingdom, but the darnel are the sons of the evil one.

³⁹ And the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

⁴⁰ Thus just as the darnel is gathered and burned up with fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out his angels and they will gather out of his kingdom all the causes of sin and those who do lawless deeds, ⁴² and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

⁴³ Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears, let him hear!

⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, that a man found [and] concealed, and in his joy he goes and sells everything that he has and buys that field.

⁴⁵ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls.

⁴⁶ And [when he] found one very valuable pearl, he went [and] sold everything that he possessed and purchased it.

⁴⁷ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was thrown into the sea and gathered [fish] of every kind, ⁴⁸ which when it was filled they pulled to shore and sat down [and] collected the good [fish] into containers, but the bad they threw out.

⁴⁹ Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the evil from among the righteous ⁵⁰ and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

⁵¹ Have you understood all these [things]?" They said to him, "Yes.

⁵² And he said to them, "For this [reason] every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of the house who brings out of his storeroom new [things] and old [things].

⁵³ And it happened that when Jesus had finished these parables he went away from there.

⁵⁴ And he came to his hometown [and] began to teach them in their synagogue, so that they were amazed and said,

"From where did this man [get] this wisdom and these miracles?

⁵⁵Is not this one the son of the carpenter? Is not his mother called Mary and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

⁵⁶And are not all his sisters with us? From where then did this man [get] all these [things]?

⁵⁷And they were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his [own] hometown and in his [own] household.

⁵⁸And he did not perform many miracles in that place because of their unbelief.

14¹ At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus

²and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist! He has been raised from the dead, and for this [reason] miraculous powers are at work in him.

³For Herod, [after] arresting John, bound him and put [him] in prison on account of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, ⁴because John had been saying to him, "It is not permitted for you to have her.

⁵And [although he] wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they looked upon him as a prophet.

⁶But [when] Herods birthday celebration took place, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst [of them] and pleased Herod.

⁷Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

⁸And coached by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter!

⁹And [although] the king was distressed, because of his oaths and his _dinner guests_ he commanded [the request] to be granted.

¹⁰And he sent [orders] [and] had John beheaded in the prison, ¹¹and his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought [it] to her mother.

¹²And his disciples came [and] took away the corpse and buried it, and went [and] told Jesus.

¹³Now [when] Jesus heard [it], he withdrew from there in a boat to an isolated place by himself. And [when] the crowds heard [it], they followed him by land from the towns.

¹⁴And [as he] got out, he saw the large crowd and had compassion on them and healed their sick.

¹⁵Now [when it] was evening, the disciples came to him saying, "The place is desolate and the hour _is late_. Release the crowds so that they can go away into the villages [and] purchase food for themselves.

¹⁶But Jesus said to them, "They do not _need_ to go away. You give them [something] to eat.

¹⁷And they said to him, "We do not have [anything] here except five loaves and two fish.

¹⁸So he said, "Bring them here to me.

¹⁹And he commanded the crowds to recline for a meal on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish [and] looking up to heaven, he gave thanks. And [after] breaking [them], he gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the crowds.

²⁰And they all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

²¹ Now those who ate were about five thousand men, in addition to women and children.

²² And immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent away the crowds.

²³ And [after he] sent away the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. So [when] evening came, he was there alone.

²⁴ But the boat was already many stadia distant from the land, being beaten by the waves, because the wind was against [it].

²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea.

²⁶ But the disciples, [when they] saw him walking on the sea, were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" and they cried out in fear.

²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Have courage, I am [he]! Do not be afraid!

²⁸ And Peter answered him [and] said, "Lord, if _it is you_, command me to come to you on the water!

²⁹ So he said, "Come!" And getting out of the boat, Peter walked on the water and came toward Jesus.

³⁰ But [when he] saw the strong wind, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!

³¹ And immediately Jesus extended his hand [and] caught him and said to him, "[You] of little faith! Why did you doubt?

³² And [when] they got into the boat, the wind abated.

³³ So those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God!

³⁴ And [after they] had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

³⁵ And [when] the men of that place recognized him, they sent [word] into that whole surrounding region, and they brought to him all those _who were sick_.

³⁶ And they were imploring him that they might only touch the edge of his cloak, and all those who touched [it] were cured.

15¹ Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,

² Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat _a meal_."

³So he answered [and] said to them, "Why do you also break the commandment of God because of your tradition?

⁴For God said, Honor your father and your mother, and The one who speaks evil of father or mother _must certainly die_ .

⁵But you say, Whoever says to his father or his mother, "Whatever _benefit you would have received_ from me [is] a gift [to God], ⁶need not honor his father, and you make void the word of God for the sake of your tradition.

⁷Hypocrites! Isaiah correctly prophesied about you saying,

⁸This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far, far away from me,

⁹and they worship me in vain, teaching [as] doctrines the commandments of men."

¹⁰And summoning the crowd, he said to them, "Hear and understand:

¹¹ It is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth this defiles a person.

¹² Then the disciples came [and] said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended [when they] heard this saying?

¹³ And he answered [and] said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

¹⁴ Let them! They are blind guides of the blind. And if the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.

¹⁵ But Peter answered [and] said to him, "Explain this parable to us.

¹⁶ But he said, "Are you also still without understanding?

¹⁷ Do you not understand that everything that enters into the mouth goes into the stomach and is evacuated into the latrine?

¹⁸ But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these defile the person.

¹⁹ For from the heart come evil plans, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, abusive speech.

²⁰These are the things that defile a person. But eating with unwashed hands does not defile a person!

²¹And departing from there, Jesus went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

²²And behold, a Canaanite woman from that district came [and] cried out, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter [is] severely possessed by a demon!

²³But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came up [and] asked him, saying, "Send her away, because she is crying out after us!

²⁴But he answered [and] said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

²⁵But she came [and] knelt down before him, saying, "Lord, help me!

²⁶And he answered [and] said, "It is not right to take the childrens bread and throw [it] to the dogs!

²⁷So she said, "Yes, Lord, for even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters table.

²⁸Then Jesus answered [and] said to her, "O woman, your faith [is] great! Let it be done for you as you want." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

²⁹And departing from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and he went up on the mountain [and] was sitting there.

³⁰And large crowds came to him, having with them [the] lame, blind, crippled, mute, and many others, and they put them down at his feet, and he healed them.

³¹So then the crowd was astonished [when they] saw the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they praised the God of Israel.

³²And Jesus summoned his disciples [and] said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have remained with me three days already and do not have anything to eat, and I do not want to send them away hungry lest they give out on the way.

³³And the disciples said to him, "Where in [this] desolate place _can we get_ so much bread that such a great crowd could be satisfied?

³⁴ And Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" So they said, "Seven, and a few little fish.

³⁵ And commanding the crowd to recline for a meal on the ground,

³⁶ he took the seven loaves and the fish and [after he] had given thanks, he broke [them] and began giving [them] to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the crowds.

³⁷ And they all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full.

³⁸ Now those who ate were four thousand men, in addition to women and children.

³⁹ And [after he] sent away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

16¹ And [when] the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test [him], they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

² So he answered [and] said to them, "[When] evening comes you say, [It will be] fair weather because the sky is red,

³ and early in the morning, Today [it will be] stormy weather, because the sky is red [and] darkening. You know how to evaluate correctly the appearance of the sky, but you are not able [to evaluate] the signs of the times.

⁴An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, and a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah!" And he left them [and] went away.

⁵And [when] the disciples arrived at the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

⁶And Jesus said to them, "Watch out for and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees!

⁷So they were discussing [this] among themselves, saying, "[It is] because we did not take bread.

⁸But knowing [this], Jesus said, "Why are you discussing among yourselves that you do not have bread, [you] of little faith?

⁹Do you not yet understand or do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

¹⁰Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many baskets you took up?

¹¹ How do you not understand that I did not speak to you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees!

¹² Then they understood that he did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ Now [when] Jesus came to the region of Caesarea _Philippi_, he began asking his disciples, saying, "Who do people say [that] the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴ And they said, _Some_ [say] John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.

¹⁵ He said to them, "But who do you say [that] I am?"

¹⁶ And Simon Peter answered [and] said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God!"

¹⁷ And Jesus answered [and] said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal [this] to you, but my Father [who is] in heaven.

¹⁸ And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it!

¹⁹I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will be released in heaven.

²⁰Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was the Christ.

²¹From that time [on] Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many [things] from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised on the third day.

²²And Peter took him aside [and] began to rebuke him, saying, _God forbid_, Lord! This will never happen to you!

²³But he turned around [and] said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a cause for stumbling to me, because you are not intent on the things of God, but the things of people!

²⁴Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

²⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life on account of me will find it.

²⁶For what will a person be benefited if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? Or what will a person give in exchange for his life?

²⁷For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and at that time he will reward each one according to _what he has done_.

²⁸Truly I say to you, that there are some of those standing here who will never experience death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.

17¹ And after six days Jesus took along Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves.

²And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothing became bright as the light.

³And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him.

⁴So Peter answered [and] said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good [that] we are here! If you want, I will make here three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.

⁵[While] he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him!

⁶And [when] the disciples heard [this], they fell down on their faces and were extremely frightened.

⁷And Jesus came and touched them [and] said, "Get up and do not be afraid.

⁸And [when they] lifted up their eyes they saw no one except him Jesus alone.

⁹And [as] they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them saying, "Tell no one the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.

¹⁰And the disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?

¹¹And he answered [and] said, "Elijah indeed is coming, and will restore all [things].

¹²But I say to you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did with him whatever they wanted. In the [same] way also the Son of Man is going to suffer [at] their hands.

¹³Then the disciples understood that he had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴And [when they] came to the crowd, a man approached him, kneeling down before him

¹⁵and saying, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he has seizures and suffers severely, for often he falls into the fire and often into the water.

¹⁶And I brought him to your disciples, and they were not able to heal him.

¹⁷And Jesus answered [and] said, "O unbelieving and perverse generation! _How long_ will I be with you? _How long_ must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!

¹⁸And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him and the boy was healed from that hour.

¹⁹Then the disciples approached Jesus privately [and] said, _Why_ were we not able to expel it?

²⁰And he said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly I say to you, if you have faith like a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, Move from here [to] there, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

²¹ EMPTY

²² Now [as] they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men, ²³ and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised." And they were extremely distressed.

²⁴ Now [when] they arrived in Capernaum, the ones who collected the double drachma [tax] came up to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the double drachma [tax]?"

²⁵ He said, "Yes." And [when he] came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect tolls or taxes from their own sons, or from foreigners?"

²⁶ And [when he] said, "From foreigners," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free.

²⁷ But so that we do not give offense to them, go out to the sea, cast [a line with] a hook, and take the first fish that comes up. And [when you] open its mouth, you will find a four-drachma coin. Take that [and] give [it] to them for me and you.

18¹ At that time the disciples came up to Jesus, saying, "Who then is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

² And calling a child [to himself], he had him stand in their midst

³ and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you turn around and become like young children, you will never enter into the kingdom of heaven!

⁴ Therefore whoever humbles himself like this child, this person is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven,

⁵ and whoever welcomes one child such as this in my name welcomes me.

⁶ But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him that _a large millstone_ be hung around his neck and he be drowned in the depths of the sea.

⁷ Woe to the world because of causes for stumbling, for [it is] a necessity [that] causes for stumbling come; nevertheless, woe to the person through whom the cause for stumbling comes.

⁸And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw [it] from you! It is better for you to enter into life crippled or lame than, having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into the eternal fire!

⁹And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw [it] from you! It is better for you to enter into life one-eyed than, having two eyes, to be thrown into fiery hell!

¹⁰"See to it that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven constantly see the face of my Father [who is] in heaven.

¹¹EMPTY

¹²What do you think? If _a certain man has_ a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go [and] look for the one that wandered away?

¹³And if he happens to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not wander away.

¹⁴In the [same] way it is not the will _of_ your Father [who is] in heaven that one of these little ones perish.

¹⁵"Now if your brother sins against you, go correct him between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

¹⁶But if he does not listen, take with you in addition one or two [others], so that by _the testimony_ of two or three witnesses every matter may be established.

¹⁷And if he refuses to listen to them, tell [it] to the church. But if he refuses to listen to the church also, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

¹⁸Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will be released in heaven.

¹⁹Again, truly I say to you that if two of you agree on earth about any matter that they ask, it will be done for them from my Father [who is] in heaven.

²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there in the midst of them.

²¹Then Peter came up [and] said to him, "Lord, how many times will my brother sin against me and I will forgive him? Up to seven times?

²² Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven!

²³ For this [reason] the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves.

²⁴ And [when] he began to settle [them], someone was brought to him who owed ten thousand talents.

²⁵ And [because] he did not have [enough] to repay [it], the master ordered him to be sold, and his wife and his children and everything that he had, and to be repaid.

²⁶ Then the slave threw himself to the ground [and] began to do obeisance to him, saying, Be patient with me, and I will pay back everything to you!

²⁷ So the master of that slave, [because he] had compassion, released him and forgave him the loan.

²⁸ But that slave went out [and] found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii, and taking hold of him, he began to choke [him], saying, Pay back everything that you owe!

²⁹ Then his fellow slave threw himself to the ground [and] began to implore him, saying, Be patient with me and I will repay you!

³⁰ But he did not want to, but rather he went [and] threw him into prison until he would repay what was owed.

³¹ So [when] his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were extremely distressed, and went [and] reported to their master everything that had happened.

³² Then his master summoned him [and] said to him, Wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you implored me!

³³ Should you not also have shown mercy to your fellow slave as I also showed mercy to you?

³⁴ And [because he] was angry, his master handed him over to the merciless jailers until he would repay everything that was owed.

³⁵ So also my heavenly Father will do to you, unless each of you forgives his brother from your hearts!

19¹ And it happened that when Jesus had finished these statements, he went away from Galilee and came into the region of Judea on the other side of the Jordan.

²And large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

³And Pharisees came up to him [in order to] test him, and asked if it was permitted for a man to divorce his wife for any cause.

⁴And he answered [and] said, "Have you not read that the one who created [them] from the beginning made them male and female ⁵and said, On account of this a man will leave his father and his mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh?

⁶So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate.

⁷They said to him, "Why then did Moses command [us] to give a documenta certificate of divorce and to divorce her?

⁸He said to them, "Moses, with reference to your hardness of heart, permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not like this.

⁹Now I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except on the basis of sexual immorality, and marries another commits adultery.

¹⁰His disciples said to him, "If this is the case of a man with his wife, it would be better not to marry!

¹¹But he said to them, "Not everyone can accept this saying but [those] to whom it has been given.

¹²For there are eunuchs who were born as such from [their] mothers womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by people, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves [eunuchs] for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who is able to accept [this], let him accept [it]."

¹³Then children were brought to him so that he could lay his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴But Jesus said, "Allow the children, and do not forbid them to come to me, _for to such belongs_ the kingdom of heaven.

¹⁵And he laid his hands on them [and] traveled on from there.

¹⁶And behold, someone came up to him [and] said, "Teacher, what good [thing] must I do so that I will have eternal life?"

¹⁷And he said to him, "Why are you asking me about [what is] good? There is one [who is] good. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments!"

¹⁸He said to him, "Which [ones]?" And Jesus said, "Do not commit murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, ¹⁹honor your father and your mother, and love your neighbor as yourself.

²⁰The young man said to him, "All these I have observed. What do I still lack?"

²¹Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give [the proceeds] to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven and come, follow me.

²²But [when] the young man heard the statement, he went away sorrowful, because he was one who had many possessions.

²³And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you that with difficulty a rich person will enter into the kingdom of heaven!"

²⁴ And again I say to you, it is easier [for] a camel to go through the eye of a needle than [for] a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.

²⁵ So [when] the disciples heard [this], they were extremely amazed, saying, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁶ But Jesus looked at [them] [and] said to them, "With human beings this is impossible, but with God all [things] [are] possible.

²⁷ Then Peter answered [and] said to him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed you. What then will there be for us?"

²⁸ And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that in the renewal [of the world], when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me you also will sit on twelve thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

²⁹ And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields on account of my name will receive a hundred times as much, and will inherit eternal life.

³⁰ But many [who are] first will be last, and the last first.

20¹ "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man the master of the house who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

² And [after] coming to an agreement with the workers for a denarius per day, he sent them into his vineyard.

³ And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace.

⁴ And to those [people] he said, You also go into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is right.

⁵ So they went. And going out again about the sixth and ninth hour he did the same [thing].

⁶ And about the eleventh [hour] he went out [and] found others standing [there] and said to them, Why are you standing here the whole day unemployed?

⁷ They said to him, Because no one hired us. He said to them, You go also into the vineyard.

⁸ And [when] evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last up to the first.

⁹And [when] the ones [hired] about the eleventh hour came, they received a denarius apiece.

¹⁰And [when] the first came, they thought that they would receive more, and they also received a denarius apiece.

¹¹And [when they] received [it], they began to complain against the master of the house, ¹²saying, These last [people] worked one hour and you made them equal to us who have endured the burden of the day and the burning heat!

¹³But he answered one of them [and] said, Friend, I am not doing you wrong. Did you not come to an agreement with me for a denarius?

¹⁴Take [what is] yours and go! But I want to give to this last [person] [the same] as [I gave] to you also.

¹⁵Or is it not permitted for me to do whatever I want with [what is] mine? Or is your eye evil because I am generous?

¹⁶Thus the last will be first and the first last.

¹⁷And [as] Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples by themselves and said to them on the way,

¹⁸Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, ¹⁹and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock [him] and flog [him] and crucify [him], and on the third day he will be raised.

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came up to him with her sons, [and] kneeling down [she] asked something of him.

²¹And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Say that these two sons of mine may sit one at your right hand and one at your left in your kingdom.

²²But Jesus answered [and] said, "You do not know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able.

²³He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left this is not mine to grant, but [is] for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.

²⁴And [when] the ten heard [this], they were indignant concerning the two brothers.

²⁵But Jesus called them to himself [and] said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions exercise authority over them.

²⁶It will not be like this among you! But whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,

²⁷and whoever wants to be most prominent among you must be your slave

²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life [as] a ransom for many.

²⁹And [as] they were going out of Jericho, a large crowd followed him.

³⁰And behold, [there were] two blind men sitting beside the road. [When they] heard that Jesus was passing by, they called out, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!

³¹And the crowd rebuked them so that they would be quiet. But they called out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!

³²And Jesus stopped, called them, and said, "What do you want me to do for you?

³³They said to him, "Lord, that our eyes be opened!

³⁴And having compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately they received [their] sight and followed him.

21 ¹And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, "Go into the village before you, and right away you will find a donkey tied and a colt with her. Untie [them] [and] bring [them] to me.

³And if anyone says anything to you, you will say, The Lord _needs them_, and he will send them at once.

⁴Now this took place so that what was spoken through the prophet would be fulfilled, saying,

⁵Say to the daughter of Zion, Behold, your king is coming to you, humble and mounted on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a pack animal."

⁶So the disciples went and did just as Jesus directed them,

⁷[and] brought the donkey and the colt and put their cloaks on them, and he sat on them.

⁸And a very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading [them] on the road.

⁹And the crowds who went ahead of him and the ones who followed were shouting, saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed [is] the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!"

¹⁰And [when] he entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, saying, "Who is this?"

¹¹And the crowds were saying, "This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth of Galilee!"

¹²And Jesus entered the temple [courts] and drove out all those who were selling and buying in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those who were selling doves.

¹³And he said to them, "It is written, My house will be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a cave of robbers!

¹⁴And the blind and the lame came up to him in the temple [courts] and he healed them.

¹⁵But [when] the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful [things] that he did, and the children shouting in the temple [courts] and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant.

¹⁶And they said to him, "Do you hear what these [children] are saying?" So Jesus said to them, "Yes, have you never read, Out of the mouths of children and nursing babies you have prepared for yourself praise?"

¹⁷And leaving them, he went outside of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

¹⁸Now early in the morning, [as he] was returning to the city, he was hungry.

¹⁹And seeing a single fig tree by the road, he went to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And he said to it, "May there be no more fruit from you forever, and the fig tree withered at once.

²⁰And [when they] saw [it], the disciples were astonished, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?"

²¹And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will do not only [what was done to] the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, Be lifted up and thrown into the sea," it will happen!

²²And whatever you ask in prayer, [if you] believe, you will receive.

²³And [after] he arrived at the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him [while he] was teaching, saying, "By what authority are you doing these [things]? And who gave you this authority?"

²⁴And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "I also will ask you one question. If you tell [the answer] to me, I also will tell you by what authority I am doing these [things]."

²⁵From where was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?" And they began to discuss [this] among themselves, saying, "If we say From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him?

²⁶ But if we say, From men, we are afraid of the crowd, because they all look upon John as a prophet.

²⁷ And they answered [and] said to Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these [things].

²⁸ "Now what do you think? A man had two sons. And [he] approached the first [and] said, Son, go work in the vineyard today.

²⁹ And he answered [and] said, I do not want to! But later [he] changed his mind [and] went.

³⁰ And [he] approached the other [and] said the same [thing]. So he answered [and] said, I [will], sir, and he did not go.

³¹ Which of the two did the will of [his] father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going ahead of you into the kingdom of God!

³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did believe him. And [when] you saw [it], you did not even change your minds later [so as] to believe in him.

³³"Listen to another parable: There was a man a master of a house who planted a vineyard, and put a fence [around] it, and dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower, and leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey.

³⁴And when the season of fruit drew near, he sent his slaves to the tenant farmers to collect his fruit.

³⁵And the tenant farmers seized his slaves, [one of] whom they beat, and [one of] whom they killed, and [one of] whom they stoned.

³⁶Again, he sent other slaves, more than the first [ones], and they did the same [thing] to them.

³⁷So finally he sent his son to them, saying, They will respect my son.

³⁸But [when] the tenant farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance!

³⁹ And they seized him [and] threw [him] out of the vineyard and killed [him].

⁴⁰ Now when the master of the vineyard arrives, what will he do to those tenant farmers?

⁴¹ They said to him, "He will destroy those evil [men] completely and lease the vineyard to other tenant farmers who will give him the fruits in their season.

⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, this has become _the cornerstone_. This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?

⁴³ For this [reason], I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a people who produce its fruits.

⁴⁴ And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and [the one] on whom it falls it will crush him!

⁴⁵ And [when] the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they knew that he was speaking about them,

⁴⁶ and [although they] wanted to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds, because they looked upon him as a prophet.

22¹ And continuing, Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying,

² The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who gave a wedding celebration for his son.

³ And he sent his slaves to summon those who had been invited to the wedding celebration, and they did not want to come.

⁴ Again he sent other slaves, saying, Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened [cattle] have been slaughtered, and everything [is] ready. Come to the wedding celebration!"

⁵ But they paid no attention [and] went away; this one to his own field, that one to his business.

⁶ And the others, seizing his slaves, mistreated [them] and killed [them].

⁷ And the king was angry and sent his troops [and] destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸ Then he said to his slaves, The wedding celebration is ready, but those who had been invited were not worthy.

⁹Therefore, go out to the [places where] the roads exit the city and invite to the wedding celebration as many [people] as you find.

¹⁰And those slaves went out into the roads [and] gathered everyone whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding celebration was filled _with dinner guests_.

¹¹But [when] the king came in to see the _dinner guests_, he saw a man there not dressed [in] wedding clothes.

¹²And he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes? But _he could say nothing_.

¹³Then the king said to the servants, Tie him up _hand and foot_ [and] throw him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

¹⁴For many are called but few [are] chosen.

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went _and consulted_ so that they could entrap him with a statement.

¹⁶And they sent their disciples to him with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and _you do not care what anyone thinks_, _because you do not regard the opinion of people_.

¹⁷Therefore tell us what you think. Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar or not?

¹⁸But [because he] knew their maliciousness, Jesus said, "Hypocrites! Why are you testing me?"

¹⁹Show me the coin for the tax!" So they brought him a denarius.

²⁰And he said to them, "Whose image and inscription [is] this?"

²¹They said to him, "Caesars." Then he said to them, "Therefore give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God!"

²²And [when they] heard [this], they were astonished, and they left him [and] went away.

²³On that day Sadducees who say there is no resurrection came up to him and asked him, ²⁴saying, "Teacher, Moses said if someone dies without having children, his brother is to marry his wife and _father_ descendants for his brother.

²⁵Now there were seven brothers with us. And the first died [after] getting married, and [because he] did not have descendants, he left his wife to his brother.

²⁶ So also the second and the third, up to the seventh.

²⁷ And last of all the woman died.

²⁸ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her [as wife]."

²⁹ But Jesus answered [and] said to them, "You are mistaken, [because] you do not know the scriptures or the power of God!

³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

³¹ Now concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, who said, ³² "I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob"? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living!

³³ And [when] the crowds heard [this], they were amazed at his teaching.

³⁴ Now [when] the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they assembled at the same [place].

³⁵ And one of them, a legal expert, put a question to [him] to test him:

³⁶ Teacher, which commandment [is] greatest in the law?

³⁷ And he said to him, " You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

³⁸ This is the greatest and first commandment.

³⁹ And the second [is] like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

⁴⁰ On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets.

⁴¹ Now [while] the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them, ⁴² saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "Davids.

⁴³ He said to them, "How then does David, by the Spirit, call him Lord, saying, ⁴⁴ The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet" ?

⁴⁵ If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?

⁴⁶And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day [on] to ask him any more [questions].

23¹ Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, ²saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on the seat of Moses.

³Therefore do and observe everything that they tell you, but do not do as _they do_, for they tell [others to do something] and do not do [it themselves].

⁴And they tie up burdens [that are] heavy and hard to bear, and put [them] on peoples shoulders, but [they] themselves are not willing with their finger to move them.

⁵And they do all their deeds in order to be seen by people, for they make their phylacteries broad and make their tassels long.

⁶And they love the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues

⁷and the greetings in the marketplaces and to be called Rabbi by people.

⁸But you are not to be called Rabbi, because one is your teacher, and you are all brothers, ⁹And do not call [anyone] your father on earth, for one is your heavenly Father.

¹⁰And do not be called teachers, because one is your teacher, the Christ.

¹¹And the greatest among you will be your servant.

¹²And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

¹³But woe to you, scribes and Phariseeshypocrites!because you shut the kingdom of heaven before people! For you do not enter, nor permit those wanting to go in to enter.

¹⁴EMPTY

¹⁵Woe to you, scribes and Phariseeshypocrites!because you travel around the sea and the dry [land] to make one convert, and when he becomes [one], you make him twice as much a son of hell [as] you [are]!

¹⁶Woe to you, blind guides, who say, Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing! But whoever swears by the gold of the temple is bound [by his oath].

¹⁷ Fools and blind [people]! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold holy?

¹⁸ And, Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing! But whoever swears by the gift [that is] on it is bound [by his oath].

¹⁹ Blind [people]! For which [is] greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift holy?

²⁰ Therefore the one who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything [that is] on it.

²¹ And the one who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells [in] it.

²² And the one who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the one who sits on it.

²³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees hypocrites! because you pay a tenth of mint and dill and cumin, and neglect the more important [matters] of the law justice and mercy and faithfulness! But it was necessary to do these [things] _while not neglecting those_.

²⁴ Blind guides who filter out a gnat and swallow a camel!

²⁵Woe to you, scribes and Phariseeshypocrites!because you cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence!

²⁶Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside of it may become clean also.

²⁷Woe to you, scribes and Phariseeshypocrites!because you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and of everything unclean!

²⁸In the [same] way, on the outside you also appear righteous to people, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

²⁹Woe to you, scribes and Phariseeshypocrites!because you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous, ³⁰and you say, If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in the blood of the prophets!

³¹ Thus you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets!

³² And you fill up the measure of your fathers!

³³ Serpents! Offspring of vipers! How will you escape from the condemnation to hell?

³⁴ For this [reason], behold, I am sending to you prophets and wise men and scribes. [Some] of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will flog in your synagogues and will pursue from town to town, ³⁵ so that upon you will come all the righteous blood shed on the earth from the blood of righteous Abel up to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

³⁶ Truly I say to you, all these [things] will come upon this generation!

³⁷ "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How many times I wanted to gather your children together _the way_ a hen gathers her young together under [her] wings, and you were not willing!

³⁸Behold, your house has been left to you desolate!

³⁹For I tell you, you will never see me from now [on] until you say, Blessed [is] the one who comes in the name of the Lord!"

24¹ And [as] Jesus went out of the temple [courts] he was going along, and his disciples came up to point out to him the buildings of the temple.

² But he answered [and] said to them, "Do you not see all these [things]? Truly I say to you, not [one] stone will be left here on [another] stone that will not be thrown down!

³ And [as] he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came up to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these [things] happen, and what [will be] the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?

⁴ And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you!

⁵ For many will come in my name, saying, I am the Christ, and they will deceive many.

⁶And you are going to hear about wars and rumors of wars. See to it that you are not alarmed, for this must happen, but the end is not yet.

⁷For nation will rise up against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in [various] places.

⁸But all these [things] [are] the beginning of birth pains.

⁹"Then they will hand you over to persecution and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations because of my name.

¹⁰And then many will be led into sin and will betray one another and will hate one another,

¹¹and many false prophets will appear and will deceive many,

¹²and because lawlessness will increase, the love of many will grow cold.

¹³But the one who endures to the end this person will be saved.

¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed in the whole inhabited earth for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵"So when you see the abomination of desolation spoken about by the prophet Daniel standing in the holy place" (let the one who reads understand), ¹⁶then those in Judea must flee to the mountains!

¹⁷The one who is on his housetop must not come down to take things out of his house, ¹⁸and the one who is in the field must not turn back to pick up his cloak.

¹⁹And woe to those _who are pregnant_ and to those who are nursing [their babies] in those days!

²⁰But pray that your flight may not happen in winter or on a Sabbath.

²¹For at that time there will be great tribulation, such as has not happened from the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will happen.

²²And unless those days had been shortened, _no human being would be saved_. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened.

²³At that time if anyone should say to you, Behold, here [is] the Christ, or Here [he is], do not believe [him]!

²⁴ For false messiahs and false prophets will appear, and will produce great signs and wonders in order to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

²⁵ Behold, I have told you ahead of time!

²⁶ Therefore if they say to you, Behold, he is in the wilderness, do not go out, [or] Behold, he is in the inner rooms, do not believe [it]!

²⁷ For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so the coming of the Son of Man will be.

²⁸ Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹ "And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

³⁰ And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man arriving on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

³¹ And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect together from the four winds, from [one] end of heaven to the [other] end of it.

³²"Now learn the parable from the fig tree: Whenever its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer [is] near.

³³So also you, when you see all these [things], know that he is near, at the door.

³⁴Truly I say to you that this generation will never pass away until all these [things] take place!

³⁵Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁶"But concerning that day and hour no one knows not even the angels of heaven nor the Son except the Father alone.

³⁷For just as the days of Noah [were], so the coming of the Son of Man will be.

³⁸For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered into the ark.

³⁹And they did not know [anything] until the deluge came and swept [them] all away. So also the coming of the Son of Man will be.

⁴⁰Then there will be two men in the field; one will be taken and one left.

⁴¹Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left.

⁴²Therefore be on the alert, because you do not know what day your Lord is coming!

⁴³But understand this: that if the master of the house had known what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into.

⁴⁴For this [reason] you also must be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not think [he will come].

⁴⁵"Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom the master has put in charge of his household slaves to give them their food at the right time?

⁴⁶Blessed [is] that slave whom his master will find so doing [when he] comes back.

⁴⁷Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁸But if that evil slave should say _to himself_, My master is staying away for a long time,

⁴⁹ and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and eats and drinks with drunkards,

⁵⁰ the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know, ⁵¹ and will cut him in two and assign his place with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

25 ¹ "Then the kingdom of heaven may be compared to ten virgins who took their lamps [and] went out to meet the bridegroom.

² Now five of them were foolish and five [were] wise.

³ For [when] the foolish ones took their lamps, they did not take olive oil with them.

⁴ But the wise ones took olive oil in flasks with their lamps.

⁵ And [when] the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶ But in the middle of the night there was a shout, Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!

⁷ Then all those virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.

⁸And the foolish ones said to the wise ones, Give us [some] of your olive oil, because our lamps are going out!

⁹But the wise ones answered saying, "Certainly there will never be enough for us and for you! Go instead to those who sell [olive oil] and buy [some] for yourselves.

¹⁰But [while] they had gone away to buy [it] the bridegroom arrived, and those who were ready went inside with him to the wedding celebration, and the door was shut.

¹¹And later the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, lord, open [the door] for us!

¹²But he answered [and] said, Truly I say to you, I do not know you!

¹³Therefore be on the alert, because you do not know the day or the hour!

¹⁴For [it is] like a man going on a journey. He summoned his own slaves and handed over his property to them.

¹⁵And to one he gave five talents, and to another two, and to another one, to each one according to his own ability, and he went on a journey immediately.

¹⁶The one who had received the five talents went out [and] traded with them and gained five more.

¹⁷In the same way the one [who had] the two gained two more.

¹⁸But the one who had received the one went away [and] dug up the ground and hid his masters money.

¹⁹Now after a long time, the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.

²⁰And the one who had received the five talents came up [and] brought five more talents, saying, Master, you handed over to me five talents. See, I have gained five more talents!

²¹His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few [things]; I will put you [in charge] over many [things]. Enter into the joy of your master!

²²And the one [who had] the two talents also came up [and] said, Master, you handed over to me two talents. See, I have gained two talents more!

²³His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few [things]; I will put you [in charge] over many [things]. Enter into the joy of your master!

²⁴And the one who had received the one talent came up also [and] said, Master, [because I] knew you, that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering from where you did not scatter [seed].

²⁵And [because I] was afraid, I went away [and] hid your talent in the ground. See, you have [what is] yours!

²⁶But his master answered [and] said to him, Evil and lazy slave! You knew that I reap where I did not sow and gather from where I did not scatter [seed].

²⁷Then you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and [when I] returned I would have gotten back [what was] mine with interest!

²⁸Therefore take the talent from him and give [it] to the one who has the ten talents.

²⁹For to everyone who has, [more] will be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.

³⁰ And throw the worthless slave into the outer darkness in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!

³¹ Now when the Son of Man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne.

³² And all the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate them from one another like a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

³³ And he will place the sheep on his right and the goats on the left.

³⁴ Then the king will say to those on his right, Come, [you] who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!

³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me [something] to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me [something] to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me as a guest, ³⁶ I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you cared for me, I was in prison and you came to me.

³⁷ Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed [you], or thirsty and give [you something] to drink?

³⁸ And when did we see you a stranger and welcome [you] as a guest, or naked and clothe [you]?

³⁹ And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?

⁴⁰ And the king will answer [and] say to them, Truly I say to you, in as much as you did [it] to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did [it] to me.

⁴¹ Then he will also say to those on [his] left, Depart from me, [you] accursed ones, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels!

⁴² For I was hungry and you did not give me [anything] to eat, I was thirsty and you did not give me [anything] to drink, ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not welcome me as a guest, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not care for me.

⁴⁴ Then they will also answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and not serve you?

⁴⁵ Then he will answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, in as much as you did not do [it] to one of the least of these, you did not do [it] to me.

⁴⁶And these will depart into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.

26¹ And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples, ²You know that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of Man will be handed over in order to be crucified.

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas, ⁴and plotted in order that they could arrest Jesus by stealth and kill [him].

⁵But they were saying, "Not during the feast, so that there will not be an uproar among the people.

⁶Now [while] Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷a woman came up to him holding an alabaster flask of very expensive perfumed oil, and poured [it] out on his head [while he] was reclining at table.

⁸And [when] the disciples saw [it] they were indignant, saying, "_Why_ this waste?

⁹For this could have been sold for a large sum and given to the poor!

¹⁰But Jesus, knowing [this], said to them, "Why do you cause trouble for the woman? For she has done a good deed for me.

¹¹For the poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me.

¹²For [when] this woman poured this ointment on my body, she did [it] in order to prepare me for burial.

¹³Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.

¹⁴Then one of the twelve, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

¹⁵[and] said, "What are you willing to give me if I in turn deliver him to you?" So they set out for him thirty silver coins.

¹⁶And from that time on, he began seeking a favorable opportunity in order that he could betray him.

¹⁷Now on the first [day] of the feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came up to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

¹⁸And he said, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, The Teacher says, "My time is near. I am celebrating the Passover with you with my disciples."

¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

²⁰And [when it] was evening, he was reclining at table with the twelve.

²¹And [while] they were eating he said, "Truly I say to you, that one of you will betray me.

²²And greatly distressed, each one began to say to him, "_Surely I am not he, am I_, Lord?"

²³And he answered [and] said, "The one who dips his hand in the bowl with methis one will betray me.

²⁴The Son of Man is going just as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for him if that man had not been born.

²⁵And Judas, the one who was betraying him, answered [and] said, "_Surely I am not he, am I_, Rabbi?" He said to him, "You have said [it]."

²⁶Now [while] they were eating Jesus took bread and, [after] giving thanks, he broke [it], and giving [it] to the disciples, he said, "Take, eat, this is my body.

²⁷ And [after] taking the cup and giving thanks he gave [it] to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you, ²⁸ for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

²⁹ But I tell you, from now [on] I will never drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father.

³⁰ And [after they] had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of me during this night, for it is written, I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

³² But after I am raised, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.

³³ But Peter answered [and] said to him, "If they all fall away because of you, I will never fall away!

³⁴ Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that during this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times!

³⁵ Peter said to him, "Even if it is necessary for me to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the disciples said the same [thing].

³⁶ Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go over there [and] pray.

³⁷ And taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be distressed and troubled.

³⁸ Then he said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake with me.

³⁹ And going forward a little he fell down on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as you [will]."

⁴⁰ And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "So, were you not able to stay awake with me one hour?

⁴¹ Stay awake and pray that you will not enter into temptation. The spirit [is] willing, but the flesh [is] weak!

⁴² Again for the second time he went away [and] prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will must be done.

⁴³ And he came again [and] found them sleeping, _for they could not keep their eyes open_.

⁴⁴ And leaving them again, he went away [and] prayed for the third [time], saying the same thing again.

⁴⁵ Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

⁴⁶ Get up, let us go! Behold, the one who is betraying me is approaching!

⁴⁷ And [while] he was still speaking, behold, Judasone of the twelvearrived, and with him a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

⁴⁸ Now the one who was betraying him had given them a sign, saying, "[The one] whom I kisshe is [the one]. Arrest him!

⁴⁹ And he came up to Jesus immediately [and] said, "Greetings, Rabbi," and kissed him.

⁵⁰ And Jesus said to him, "Friend, [do that] for which you have come." Then they came up [and] laid hands on Jesus and arrested him.

⁵¹ And behold, one of those with Jesus extended his hand [and] drew his sword, and striking the slave of the high priest, cut off his ear.

⁵² Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place! For all who take up the sword will die by the sword.

⁵³ Or do you think that I cannot call upon my Father, and he would put at my disposal at once more than twelve legions of angels?

⁵⁴ How then would the scriptures be fulfilled that it must happen in this way?

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a robber, to arrest me? Every day in the temple [courts] I sat teaching, and you did not arrest me!

⁵⁶ But all this has happened in order that the scriptures of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then the disciples all abandoned him [and] fled.

⁵⁷ Now those who had arrested Jesus led [him] away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had gathered.

⁵⁸ But Peter was following him from a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest. And he went inside [and] was sitting with the officers to see the outcome.

⁵⁹ Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false testimony against Jesus in order that they could put him to death.

⁶⁰ And they did not find [it], [although] many false witnesses came forward. And finally two came forward ⁶¹ [and] said, "This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild [it] within three days.

⁶² And the high priest stood up [and] said to him, "Do you reply nothing? What are these [people] testifying against you?

⁶³ But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I put you under oath by the living God, that you tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God!

⁶⁴ Jesus said to him, "You have said [it]. But I tell you, from now [on] you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his robes, saying, "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have just now heard the blasphemy!

⁶⁶What do you think?" And they answered [and] said, "_He deserves death_!"

⁶⁷Then they spat in his face and struck him with their fists, and they slapped [him], ⁶⁸saying, "Prophecy for us, [you] Christ! Who is it who hit you?

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a female slave came up to him [and] said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean.

⁷⁰But he denied [it] in the presence of [them] all, saying, "I do not know what you mean!

⁷¹And [when he] went out to the gateway, another [female slave] saw him and said to those [who were] there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.

⁷²And again he denied [it] with an oath, "I do not know the man!

⁷³And after a little [while] those who were standing there came up [and] said to Peter, "You really are [one] of them also, because even your accent _reveals who you are_."

⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear with an oath, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed.

⁷⁵And Peter remembered the statement Jesus had said, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times," and he went outside [and] wept bitterly.

27 ¹Now [when it] was early morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus in order to put him to death.

²And [after] tying him up, they led [him] away and handed [him] over to Pilate the governor.

³Then [when] Judas, the one who had betrayed him, saw that he had been condemned, he regretted [what he had done] [and] returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders,

⁴saying, "I have sinned [by] betraying innocent blood!" But they said, "What [is that] to us? You see to [it]!"

⁵ And throwing the silver coins into the temple he departed. And he went away [and] hanged himself.

⁶ But the chief priests took the silver coins [and] said, "It is not permitted to put them into the temple treasury, because it is _blood money_."

⁷ And [after] taking counsel, they purchased _with_ them the Potters Field, for a burial place for strangers.

⁸ (For this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood until today.)

⁹ Then what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled, who said, "And they took the thirty silver coins, the price of the one who had been priced, [on] whom a price had been set by the sons of Israel,

¹⁰ and they gave them for the potters field, just as the Lord directed me."

¹¹ So Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the king of the Jews?" And Jesus said, "You say [so]."

¹² And _when he was being accused_ by the chief priests and elders he answered nothing.

¹³ Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many [things] they are testifying against you?"

¹⁴ And he did not reply to him, not even with reference to one statement, so that the governor was very astonished.

¹⁵ Now at each feast, the governor was accustomed to release one prisoner to the crowd the one whom they wanted.

¹⁶ And at that time they had a notorious prisoner named Jesus Barabbas.

¹⁷ So [after] they had assembled, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called Christ?"

¹⁸ (For he knew that they had handed him over because of envy.

¹⁹ And [while] he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent [a message] to him, saying, "_Have nothing to do with that righteous man_, for I have suffered much as a result of a dream today because of him.")

²⁰ But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Barabbas and put Jesus to death.

²¹ So the governor answered [and] said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas!

²² Pilate said to them, "What then should I do [with] Jesus, the one who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified!

²³ And he said, "Why? What wrong has he done?" But they began to shout even louder, saying, "Let him be crucified!

²⁴ So Pilate, [when he] saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but instead an uproar was developing, took water [and] washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this man. You see to [it]!"

²⁵ And all the people answered [and] said, "His blood [be] on us and on our children!

²⁶ Then he released Barabbas for them, but [after] he had Jesus flogged, he handed [him] over so that he could be crucified.

²⁷ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governors residence [and] gathered the whole cohort to him.

²⁸ And they stripped him [and] put a scarlet military cloak around him, ²⁹and weaving a crown of thorns, they put [it] on his head, and [put] a reed in his right hand. And kneeling down before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, king of the Jews!

³⁰And they spat on him [and] took the reed and repeatedly struck [him] on his head.

³¹And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the military cloak and put his [own] clothes on him, and led him away in order to crucify [him].

³²And [as they] were going out, they found a man of Cyrene _named_ Simon. They forced this man to carry his cross.

³³And [when they] came to a place called Golgotha (which _means Place of a Skull_), ³⁴they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink, and [when he] tasted [it] he did not want to drink [it].

³⁵And [when they] had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves [by] casting lots.

³⁶And they sat down [and] were watching over him there.

³⁷ And they put above his head the charge against him _in writing_: "This is Jesus, the king of the Jews.

³⁸ Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on [his] right and one on [his] left.

³⁹ And those who passed by reviled him, shaking their heads

⁴⁰ and saying, "The one who would destroy the temple and rebuild [it] in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!

⁴¹ In the same way also the chief priests, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking [him], saying, ⁴² He saved others; he is not able to save himself! He is the king of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him!

⁴³ He trusts in God; let him deliver him now if he wants to, because he said, I am the Son of God!

⁴⁴ And in the same [way] even the robbers who were crucified with him were reviling him.

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour, darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour.

⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" (that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?")

⁴⁷ And some of those who were standing there, [when they] heard [it], said, "This man is summoning Elijah!"

⁴⁸ And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and filled [it] with sour wine and put [it] on a reed [and] gave [it] to him to drink.

⁴⁹ But the others said, "Leave [him] alone! let us see if Elijah is coming to save him.

⁵⁰ And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice [and] gave up his spirit.

⁵¹ And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth shook and the rocks were split.

⁵² And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, ⁵³ and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

⁵⁴ Now the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus, [when they] saw the earthquake and the things that took place, were extremely frightened, saying, "Truly this man was Gods Son!

⁵⁵ And there were many women there, observing from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him, ⁵⁶ among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁷ Now [when it] was evening, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph came, who also was a disciple of Jesus himself.

⁵⁸ This man approached Pilate [and] asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered [it] to be given [to him].

⁵⁹ And Joseph took the body [and] wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰ and placed it in his [own] new tomb that he had cut in the rock. And he rolled a large stone to the entrance of the tomb [and] went away.

⁶¹ Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

⁶² Now [on] the next day, which is after the day of preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled before Pilate, ⁶³saying, "Sir, we remember that [while] that deceiver was still alive he said, After three days I will rise.

⁶⁴Therefore give orders that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples come [and] steal him and tell the people, He has been raised from the dead, and the last deception will be worse than the first.

⁶⁵Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers. Go, make [it] as secure as you know how.

⁶⁶So they went with the guard of soldiers [and] made the tomb secure [by] sealing the stone.

28¹ Now after the Sabbath, at the dawning on the first [day] of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to view the tomb.

² And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came up [and] rolled away the stone and sat down on it.

³ Now his appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow.

⁴ And the guards trembled from the fear of him and became like dead men.

⁵ But the angel answered [and] said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

⁶ He is not here, for he has been raised, just as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying.

⁷ And go quickly, tell his disciples, He has been raised from the dead, and behold, he is going ahead of you into Galilee. You will see him there. Behold, I have told you.

⁸ And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, [and] ran to tell his disciples.

⁹ And behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" And they came up [and] took hold of his feet and worshiped him.

¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid! Go tell my brothers that they should go to Galilee, and there they will see me.

¹¹ And [while] they were going, behold, some of the guard of soldiers went into the city [and] reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

¹²And [after they] had assembled with the elders and had taken counsel, they gave a rather large sum of money to the soldiers, ¹³telling [them], "Say His disciples came during the night [and] stole him [while] we were sleeping.

¹⁴And if this [matter] is heard before the governor, we will satisfy him and _keep you out of trouble_."

¹⁵So they took the money [and] did as they were told, and spread abroad this report among the Jews until this very day.

¹⁶So the eleven disciples proceeded to Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had designated for them.

¹⁷And [when they] saw him, they worshiped [him], but some doubted.

¹⁸And Jesus approached [and] spoke to them, saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

¹⁹Therefore, go [and] make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

²⁰teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days until the end of the age.

Mark

1 ¹ The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

² Just as it is written in the prophet Isaiah, "Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way, ³ the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths!"

⁴ John was there baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

⁵ And all the Judean region and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem went out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

⁶ And John was dressed in camels hair and a belt made of leather around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

⁷ And he was preaching, saying, "One [who is] more powerful than I is coming after me, of whom I am not worthy to bend down [and] untie the strap of his sandals.

⁸I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.

⁹And it happened that in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.

¹⁰And immediately [as he] was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being split apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him.

¹¹And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.

¹²And immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness.

¹³And he was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were ministering to him.

¹⁴Now after John _had been taken into custody_, Jesus went into Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God ¹⁵and saying, "The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the gospel!

¹⁶And [as he] was passing by along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, Simons brother, casting [a net] into the sea (for they were fishermen).

¹⁷ And Jesus said to them, "_Follow_ me and I will make you become fishers of people.

¹⁸ And immediately they left their nets [and] followed him.

¹⁹ And going on a little [farther], he saw James the [son] of Zebedee and his brother John, and they [were] in the boat mending the nets.

²⁰ And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men [and] went away after him.

²¹ And they went into Capernaum and immediately on the Sabbath he went into the synagogue [and] began to teach.

²² And they were amazed at his teaching, because he was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like the scribes.

²³ And so then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, ²⁴ saying, "_Leave us alone_, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are the Holy One of God!

²⁵ And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!

²⁶And [after] convulsing him and crying out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit came out of him.

²⁷And they were all amazed, so that [they began] to discuss with one another, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He even commands the unclean spirits and they obey him.

²⁸And the report about him then went out everywhere in the whole surrounding region of Galilee.

²⁹And so then he departed from the synagogue [and] came into the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John.

³⁰Now Simons mother-in-law was lying down, suffering with a fever, and at once they told him about her.

³¹And he came [and] raised her up [by] taking hold of her hand, and the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

³²Now [when it] was evening, when the sun had set, they began bringing to him all those _who were sick_ and those who were demon-possessed.

³³And the whole town was gathered together at the door.

³⁴And he healed many _who were sick_ with various diseases and expelled many demons. And he did not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

³⁵ And getting up early in the morning [while it was] very dark, he departed and went to a deserted place, and there he was praying.

³⁶ And Simon and those [who were] with him searched diligently for him.

³⁷ And they found him and said to him, "Everyone is looking for you!

³⁸ And he said to them, "Let us go elsewhere, into the neighboring rural towns, so that I can preach there also, because I have come out for this [very] reason.

³⁹ And he went into all Galilee preaching in their synagogues and expelling demons.

⁴⁰ And a leper came to him, entreating him and kneeling down and saying to him, "If you are willing, you are able to make me clean.

⁴¹ And having compassion, he stretched out his hand [and] touched [him] , and said to him, "I am willing; be made clean.

⁴²And immediately the leprosy went away from him and he was made clean.

⁴³And warning him sternly, he sent him away at once.

⁴⁴And he said to him, "See to it that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and bring for your cleansing [the things] which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

⁴⁵But he went out [and] began to proclaim [it] freely and to spread abroad the account, so that he was no longer able to enter publicly into a town. But he was staying outside in deserted places, and they were coming to him from all directions.

2¹And [when he] entered again into Capernaum after [some] days, it became known that he was at home.

²And many had gathered, so that [there was] no longer room, not even at the door, and he was speaking the word to them.

³And they came bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four [of them].

⁴And [when] they were not able to bring [him] to him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. And [after] digging through, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic was lying.

⁵And [when] Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven.

⁶Now some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷Why does this man speak like this? He is blaspheming! Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?

⁸And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they were reasoning like this within themselves, said to them, "Why are you considering these [things] in your hearts?

⁹Which is easier to say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven, or to say Get up and pick up your stretcher and walk?

¹⁰But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,"he said to the paralytic ¹¹I say to you, get up, pick up your stretcher, and go to your home.

¹²And he got up and immediately picked up his stretcher [and] went out in front of [them] all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen [anything] like this!

¹³And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he began to teach them.

¹⁴And [as he] was passing by, he saw Levi the [son] of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me!" And he stood up [and] followed him.

¹⁵And it happened that he _was dining_ in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners _were dining with_ Jesus and his disciples, for there were many and they were following him.

¹⁶And the scribes of the Pharisees, [when they] saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, began to say to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?

¹⁷And [when] Jesus heard [it] , he said to them, "Those who are healthy do not have need of a physician, but those _who are sick_. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

¹⁸And Johns disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and said to him, " _Why_ do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?

¹⁹And Jesus said to them, "The _bridegrooms attendants_ are not able to fast while the bridegroom is with them, [are they]? As long a time [as] they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast.

²⁰But days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

²¹No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. _Otherwise_ the patch pulls away from it the new from the old and the tear becomes worse.

²²And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. _Otherwise_ the wine will burst the wineskins and the wine is destroyed and the wineskins [too]. But new wine [is put] into new wineskins.

²³And it happened that he was going through the grain fields on the Sabbath, and his disciples began to make [their] way [while] plucking off the heads of grain.

²⁴And the Pharisees began to say to him, "Behold, why are they doing what is not permitted on the Sabbath?"

²⁵ And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he had need and he and those [who were] with him were hungry

²⁶ how he entered into the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the bread of the presentation, which it is not permitted to eat (except the priests) and also gave [it] to those who were with him?

²⁷ And he said to them, "The Sabbath was established for people, and not people for the Sabbath.

²⁸ So then, the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.

3¹ And he entered into the synagogue again, and a man who had a withered hand was there.

² And they were watching him closely [to see] if he would heal him on the Sabbath, in order that they could accuse him.

³ And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come into the middle.

⁴ And he said to them, "Is it permitted on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent.

⁵And looking around at them with anger, grieved at the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched [it] out, and his hand was restored.

⁶And the Pharisees went out immediately with the Herodians _and began to conspire_ against him with regard to how they could destroy him.

⁷And Jesus went away with his disciples to the sea, and a great crowd from Galilee followed [him]. And from Judea ⁸and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and the other side of the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon a great crowd came to him [because they] heard all that he was doing.

⁹And he told his disciples that a small boat should stand ready for him because of the crowd, so that they would not press upon him.

¹⁰For he had healed many, so that all those who _were suffering from diseases_ pressed about him in order that they could touch him.

¹¹And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, were falling down before him and crying out, saying, "You are the Son of God!

¹²And he warned them strictly that they should not make him known.

¹³And he went up on the mountain and summoned [those] whom he wanted, and they came to him.

¹⁴And he appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, so that they would be with him and so that he could send them out to preach ¹⁵and to have authority to expel demons.

¹⁶And he appointed the twelve. And to Simon he gave the name Peter,

¹⁷and James the [son] of Zebedee and John the brother of James (and he gave to them the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder"), ¹⁸and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the [son] of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

²⁰ And he went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they were not even able to eat a meal.

²¹ And [when] _his family_ heard [this], they went out to restrain him, for they were saying, "He has lost his mind!

²² And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul!" and "By the ruler of the demons he expels the demons!

²³ And he called them to himself [and] was speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan expel Satan?

²⁴ And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand.

²⁵ And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

²⁶ And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he is not able to stand, but is at an end!

²⁷ But no one is able to enter into the house of a strong [man] [and] plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong [man], and then he can thoroughly plunder his house.

²⁸ Truly I say to you that all the sins and the blasphemies will be forgiven the sons of men, however much they blaspheme.

²⁹ But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness _forever_, but is guilty of [an] eternal sin" ³⁰ because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit.

³¹ And his mother and his brothers arrived, and standing outside, they sent [word] to him to summon him.

³² And a crowd was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers and your sisters [are] outside looking for you.

³³ And he answered them [and] said, "Who are my mother and my brothers?

³⁴ And looking around at those who were sitting around him in a circle, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!

³⁵ For whoever does the will of God, this person is my brother and sister and mother.

4¹ And again he began to teach beside the sea, and a very large crowd was gathered to him, so that he got into a boat [and] sat on the sea, and the whole crowd was at the sea on the land.

²And he began to teach them many [things] in parables, and was saying to them in his teaching, ³Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow.

⁴And it happened that while [he] was sowing, _some seed_ fell on the side of the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

⁵And other [seed] fell on the rocky ground where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up at once, because it did not have [any] depth of soil.

⁶And when the sun rose it was scorched, and because it did not have [enough] root, it withered.

⁷And other [seed] fell among the thorn plants, and the thorn plants came up and choked it, and it did not produce grain.

⁸And other [seed] fell on the good soil, and produced grain, coming up and increasing, and it bore [a crop] one thirty and one sixty and one a hundred [times as much].

⁹And he said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!

¹⁰And when he was alone, those around him together with the twelve began asking him about the parables.

¹¹And he said to them, "To you has been granted the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside everything is in parables, ¹²so that _they may look closely_ and not perceive, and _they may listen carefully_ and not understand, lest they turn and it be forgiven them."

¹³And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? And how will you understand all the parables?

¹⁴The sower sows the word.

¹⁵And these are the ones beside the path where the word is sown, and whenever they hear [it], immediately Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.

¹⁶And these are the ones sown on the rocky ground, who whenever they hear the word immediately receive it with joy.

¹⁷And they have no root in themselves, but are temporary. Then [when] affliction or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away.

¹⁸And others are the ones sown among the thorn plants these are the ones who hear the word, ¹⁹and the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other [things] come in [and] choke the word and it becomes unproductive.

²⁰And those are the ones sown on the good soil, who hear the word and receive [it] and bear fruit one thirty and one sixty and one a hundred [times as much]."

²¹And he said to them, "Surely a lamp is not brought so that it may be put under a bushel basket or under a bed, [is it]? [Is it] not so that it may be put on a lampstand?

²²For nothing is secret except so that it may be revealed, nor has become hidden except so that it will come to light.

²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!

²⁴And he said to them, "Take care what you hear! With the measure by which you measure out, it will be measured out to you, and will be added to you.

²⁵For whoever has, [more] will be given to him, and whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.

²⁶And he said, "The kingdom of God is like this: like a man scatters seed on the ground.

²⁷And he sleeps and gets up, night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows—he does not know how—.

²⁸By itself the soil produces a crop: first the grass, then the head of grain, then the full grain in the head.

²⁹But when the crop permits, he sends [in] the sickle right away, because the harvest has come.

³⁰And he said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or by what parable can we present it?

³¹[It is] like a mustard seed that when sown on the ground, [although it] is the smallest of all the seeds that [are] on the ground, ³²but when it is sown it grows up and becomes the largest of all the garden herbs, and sends out large branches so that the birds of the sky are able to nest in its shade.

³³ And with many parables such as these he was speaking the word to them, as they were able to hear [it].

³⁴ And he did not speak to them without a parable, but in private he explained everything to his own disciples.

³⁵ And on that day, [when it] was evening, he said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side.

³⁶ And leaving the crowd, they took him along, as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him.

³⁷ And a great storm of wind developed, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already being filled [with water].

³⁸ And he was in the stern sleeping on the cushion, and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, is it not a concern to you that we are perishing?

³⁹ And he woke up [and] rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Be quiet! Be silent!" And the wind abated and there was a great calm.

⁴⁰ And he said to them, "Why are you fearful? Do you not yet have faith?

⁴¹ And _they were terribly frightened_ and began to say to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5¹ And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes.

² And [as] he was getting out of the boat, immediately from the tombs a man with an unclean spirit went to meet him,

³ who _lived_ among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him any longer, not even with a chain, ⁴ because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the shackles had been shattered. And no one was strong [enough] to subdue him.

⁵ And during every night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was crying out and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ And [when he] saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and knelt down before him.

⁷ And crying out with a loud voice he said, "_What have I to do with you_ , Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore you by God, do not torment me!

⁸(For he was saying to him, "Come out of the man, unclean spirit!")

⁹And he was asking him "_What is your name_" And he said to him, "My name [is] Legion, because we are many.

¹⁰And he was imploring him many [times] that he would not send them out of the region.

¹¹Now a large herd of pigs was there at the hill feeding, ¹²and they implored him, saying, "Send us to the pigs so that we may enter into them.

¹³And he permitted them. And the unclean spirits came out [and] entered into the pigs, and the herdabout two thousandrushed headlong down the steep slope into the sea and were drowned in the sea.

¹⁴And their herdsman fled and reported [it] in the town and in the countryside, and they came to see what it was that had happened.

¹⁵And they came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed man sitting [there] clothed and in his right mindthe one who had had the legionand they were afraid.

¹⁶And those who had seen [it] described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man, and about the pigs.

¹⁷And they began to urge him to depart from their region.

¹⁸And [as] he was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed began to implore him that he could go with him.

¹⁹And he did not permit him, but said to him, "Go to your home to your [people] and tell them all that the Lord has done for you, and [that] he has had mercy on you.

²⁰And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him, and they were all astonished.

²¹And [after] Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered to him, and he was beside the sea.

²²And one of the rulers of the synagogue came Jairus by name and [when he] saw him, he fell down at his feet.

²³ And he was imploring him many [times], saying, "My little daughter _is at the point of death_! Come, lay your hands on her, so that she will get well and will live.

²⁴ And he went with him, and a large crowd was following him and pressing around him.

²⁵ And [there was] a woman who was _suffering from hemorrhages_ twelve years.

²⁶ And she had endured many [things] under many physicians, and had spent _all that she had_ and had received no [help] at all, but instead _became worse_.

²⁷ [When she] heard about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind [him] [and] touched his cloak, ²⁸ for she was saying, "If I touch just his clothing, I will be healed!

²⁹ And immediately her _hemorrhage stopped_ and she realized in her body that she was healed of her suffering.

³⁰ And immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself [that] power had gone out from himself, turned around in the crowd [and] said, "Who touched my clothing?"

³¹ And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing upon you, and you say Who touched me?"

³² And he was looking around to see the one who had done this.

³³ So the woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

³⁴ But he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be well from your suffering."

³⁵ [While] he was still speaking, they came from the synagogue rulers [house] saying, "Your daughter has died. Why trouble the Teacher further?"

³⁶ But Jesus, ignoring _what was said_, told the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid only believe!"

³⁷ And he did not allow anyone to follow along with him except Peter and James and John, the brother of James.

³⁸ And they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue and saw a commotion, and [people] weeping and wailing loudly.

³⁹ And [when he] entered, he said to them, "Why are you agitated and weeping? The child is not dead, but is sleeping.

⁴⁰And they began laughing at him. But he sent [them] all out [and] took along the father and mother of the child, and those [who were] with him, and went in to where the child was.

⁴¹And taking hold of the child's hand, he said to her, "Talitha koum!" (which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!"), ⁴²and immediately the girl stood up and began walking around (for she was twelve years old). And _immediately they were utterly and completely astonished_.

⁴³And he commanded them strictly that no one should learn of this, and said to give her [something] to eat.

6¹And he went out from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.

²And [when] the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard [him] were amazed, saying, "Where did this man [get] these [things]? And what [is] this wisdom that has been granted to this man, and the miracles such as these performed through his hands?

³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they were offended by him.

⁴And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, and among his relatives, and in his [own] household.

⁵And he was not able to do any miracle in that place except to lay his hands on a few sick [people] [and] heal [them].

⁶And he was astonished because of their unbelief. @ And he was going around among the villages teaching.

⁷And he summoned the twelve and began to send them out two [by] two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

⁸And he commanded them that they take along nothing for the journey except only a staffno bread, no travelers bag, no money in their belts ⁹but to put on sandals and not to wear two tunics.

¹⁰And he said to them, "Whenever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.

¹¹And whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, [as you] go out from there, shake off the dust that is on your feet for a testimony against them.

¹²And they went out [and] proclaimed that [people] should repent.

¹³And they were expelling many demons and anointing many sick [people] with olive oil and healing [them].

¹⁴And King Herod heard [it], because his name had become known. And they were saying, "John, the one who baptizes, has been raised from the dead, and because of this these miraculous powers are at work in him.

¹⁵But others were saying, "He is Elijah," and others were saying, "[He is] a prophet like one of the prophets.

¹⁶But [when] Herod heard [it], he said, "John whom I beheaded this one has been raised!

¹⁷For Herod himself had sent [and] arrested John and bound him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of Philip his brother, because he had married her.

¹⁸For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not permitted for you to have your brothers wife.

¹⁹So Herodias held a grudge against him and was wanting to kill him, and was not able [to do so].

²⁰For Herod was afraid of John, [because he] knew him [to be] a righteous and holy man and protected him. And [when he] listened to him, he was greatly perplexed, and [yet] he listened to him gladly.

²¹And a suitable day came when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his courtiers and military tribunes and the most prominent [men] of Galilee.

²²And [when] his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and _his dinner guests_. The king said to the girl, "Ask me [for] whatever you want, and I will give [it] to you.

²³And he swore to her at length, "Anything whatever you ask me for I will give you, up to half my kingdom!

²⁴ And she went out [and] said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" And she said, "The head of John the baptizer.

²⁵ And she came in immediately with haste to the king [and] asked, saying, "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter immediately.

²⁶ And [although he] was deeply grieved, the king, because of his oaths and _dinner guests_, did not want to refuse her.

²⁷ And immediately the king sent an executioner [and] ordered [him] to bring his head. And he went [and] beheaded him in the prison.

²⁸ And he brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

²⁹ And [when] his disciples heard [this], they came and took away his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰ And the apostles regathered to Jesus and reported to him everything that they had done and that they had taught.

³¹ And he said to them, "You yourselves come privately to an isolated place and rest for a short time." For those [who were] coming and going were many, and they did not even have time to eat.

³²And they went away in the boat to an isolated place by themselves.

³³And many [people] saw them leaving and recognized [them], and ran there together by land from all the towns, and arrived ahead of them.

³⁴And getting out [of the boat] he saw the large crowd and had compassion on them, because they were like sheep _without_ a shepherd, and he began to teach them many [things].

³⁵And the hour had already become late [when] his disciples came up to him, saying, "The place is desolate and the hour [is] already late.

³⁶Send them away so that they can go into the surrounding farms and villages [and] purchase something to eat for themselves.

³⁷But he answered [and] said to them, "You give them [something] to eat." And they said to him, "Should we go [and] purchase bread for two hundred denarii and give [it] to them to eat?

³⁸And he said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go look!" And

[when they] found out, they said, "Five, and two fish.

³⁹And he ordered them all to recline in groups on the green grass.

⁴⁰And they reclined in groups, by hundreds and by fifties.

⁴¹And taking the five loaves and the two fish [and] looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves and gave [them] to his disciples so that they could set [them] before them. And he distributed the two fish to [them] all.

⁴²And they all ate and were satisfied.

⁴³And they picked up the broken pieces, twelve baskets full, and of the fish.

⁴⁴And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

⁴⁵And immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself dismissed the crowd.

⁴⁶And [after he] had said farewell to them, he went away to the mountain to pray.

⁴⁷And [when] evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and he [was] alone on the land.

⁴⁸And he saw them being beaten in their rowing because the wind was against them. Around the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he was wanting to pass by them.

⁴⁹But [when] they saw him walking on the sea, they thought that it was a ghost, and they cried out.

⁵⁰For they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke with them and said to them, "Have courage, I am [he]! Do not be afraid!

⁵¹And he went up with them into the boat, and the wind abated. And _they were extraordinarily_ astounded within themselves, ⁵²because they did not understand concerning the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

⁵³And [after they] had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and anchored [there].

⁵⁴And [as] they were getting out of the boat, [people] recognized him immediately.

⁵⁵They ran about [through] that whole region and began to carry around those who were sick on stretchers, wherever they heard that he was.

⁵⁶And wherever he would go, into villages or into towns or to farms, they would put those who were sick in the marketplaces and would implore him that if they could touch even the edge of his cloak. And all those who touched it were healed.

7¹ And the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered to him.

²And they saw that some of his disciples were eating their bread with uncleanthat is, unwashedhands.

³(For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands _ritually_, [thus] holding fast to the traditions of the elders.

⁴And [when they come] from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other [traditions] which they have received [and] hold fast to[for example,] the washing of cups and pitchers and bronze kettles and dining couches.)

⁵And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unclean hands?

⁶So he said to them, "Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far, far away from me.

⁷And they worship me in vain, teaching [as] doctrines the commandments of men.

⁸Abandoning the commandment of God, you hold fast to the tradition of men.

⁹And he said to them, "You splendidly ignore the commandment of God so that you can maintain your tradition.

¹⁰For Moses said, Honor your father and your mother, and, The one who speaks evil of father or mother _must certainly die_ .

¹¹But you say, If a man says to his father or to his mother, "Whatever _benefit you would have received_ from me [is] corban" (that is, a gift [to God]),

¹²you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother, ¹³ [thus] making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down, and you do many similar [things] such as this.

¹⁴ And summoning the crowd again, he said to them, "Listen to me, all [of you], and understand:

¹⁵ There is nothing outside of a person that is able to defile him [by] going into him. But the things that go out of a person are the things that defile a person."

¹⁶ EMPTY

¹⁷ And when he entered into the house away from the crowd, his disciples asked him about the parable.

¹⁸ And he said to them, "So are you also without understanding? Do you not understand that everything [that is] outside that goes into a person [is] not able to defile him?

¹⁹ For it does not enter into his heart but into his stomach, and goes out into the latrine" [thus] declaring all foods clean.

²⁰ And he said, "What comes out of a person, that defiles a person.

²¹ For from within, from the heart of people, come evil plans, sexual immoralities, thefts, murders, ²² adulteries, [acts of] greed, malicious [deeds], deceit, licentiousness, _envy_, abusive speech, pride, foolishness.

²³ All these evil [things] come from within and defile a person.

²⁴ And from there he set out [and] went to the region of Tyre. And [when he] entered into a house, he wanted no one to know, and [yet] he was not able to escape notice.

²⁵ But immediately a woman whose young daughter was possessed by an unclean spirit, [when she] heard about him, came [and] fell down at his feet,

²⁶ Now the woman was a Greek a Syrophoenician by nationality and she was asking him that he would expel the demon from her daughter.

²⁷ And he said to her, "Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not right to take the childrens bread and throw [it] to the dogs!

²⁸ But she answered and said to him, "Lord, even the dogs under the table eat the childrens crumbs.

²⁹And he said to her, "Because of this statement, go! The demon has gone out of your daughter.

³⁰And [when she] went to her home, she found the child lying on the bed and the demon gone.

³¹And again he went away from the region of Tyre [and] came through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, within the region of the Decapolis.

³²And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they were imploring him that he would place his hand on him.

³³And he took him away from the crowd by himself [and] put his fingers into his ears, and [after] spitting, he touched his tongue.

³⁴And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha!" (that is, "Be opened!").

³⁵And immediately his ears were opened and _his difficulty in speaking was removed_ and he began to speak normally.

³⁶And he ordered them that they should say nothing, but as much as he ordered them [not to], they proclaimed [it] even more instead.

³⁷ And they were amazed beyond all measure, saying, "He has done all [things] well! He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!

8¹ In those days there was again a large crowd, and they did not have anything they could eat. Summoning the disciples, he said to them,

² I have compassion on the crowd, because they have remained with me three days already and do not have anything to eat.

³ And if I send them away hungry to their homes they will give out on the way, and some of them have come from far away.

⁴ And his disciples answered him, "Where is anyone able to feed these [people] with bread here in the desert?

⁵ And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" So they said, "Seven.

⁶ And he commanded the crowd to recline for a meal on the ground, and taking the seven loaves, [after he] had given thanks he broke [them] and began giving [them] to his disciples so that they could set [them] before [them].

And they set [them] before the crowd.

⁷And they had a few small fish, and [after] giving thanks for them, he said to set these [before them] also.

⁸And they ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the broken pieces that were left, seven baskets [full].

⁹Now there were about four thousand. And he sent them away.

¹⁰And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples [and] went to the district of Dalmanutha.

¹¹And the Pharisees came and began to argue with him, demanding from him a sign from heaven [in order to] test him.

¹²And sighing deeply in his spirit, he said, "Why does this generation demand a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation!

¹³And he left them, got into [the boat] again, [and] went to the other side.

¹⁴And they had forgotten to take bread, and except [for] one loaf, they did not have [any] with them in the boat.

¹⁵And he ordered them, saying, "Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod!

¹⁶And they began to discuss with one another that they had no bread.

¹⁷And knowing [this], he said to them, "Why are you discussing that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Have your hearts been hardened?

¹⁸[Although you] have eyes, do you not see? And [although you] have ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember?

¹⁹When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand how many baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?" They said to him, "Twelve.

²⁰When [I broke] the seven [loaves] for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?" And they said to him, "Seven.

²¹And he said to them, "Do you not yet understand?

²²And they came to Bethsaida. And they brought to him a blind man and implored him that he would touch him.

²³And he took hold of the blind mans hand [and] led him outside the village, and [after] spitting in his eyes, he placed his hands on him [and] asked him, "Do you see anything?"

²⁴ And looking up he said, "I see people, for I see [them] like trees walking around.

²⁵ Then he placed his hands on his eyes again, and he opened his eyes and was cured, and could see everything clearly.

²⁶ And he sent him to his home, saying, "Do not even go into the village.

²⁷ And Jesus and his disciples went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, "Who do people say [that] I am?"

²⁸ And they told him, saying, "John the Baptist, and others Elijah, and others that [you are] one of the prophets.

²⁹ And he asked them, "But who do you say [that] I am?" Peter answered [and] said to him, "You are the Christ!"

³⁰ And he warned them that they should tell no one about him.

³¹ And he began to teach them that it was necessary [for] the Son of Man to suffer many [things] and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be killed, and after three days to rise.

³²And he was speaking openly [about] the subject, and Peter took him aside [and] began to rebuke him.

³³But turning around and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan, because you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of people!

³⁴And summoning the crowd together with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

³⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life on account of me and of the gospel will save it.

³⁶For what does it benefit a person to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?

³⁷For what can a person give in exchange for his life?

³⁸For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

9¹ And he said to them, "Truly I say to you, that there are some of those standing here who will never experience death until they see the kingdom of God having come with power.

² And after six days, Jesus took along Peter and James and John, and led them to a high mountain by themselves alone. And he was transfigured before them, ³ and his clothing became radiantextremely white, like no cloth refiner on earth can _make so white_.

⁴ And Elijah appeared to them together with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

⁵ And Peter answered [and] said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good [that] we are here! And let us make three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.

⁶ (For he did not know what he should answer, because they were terrified.)

⁷ And a cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!

⁸And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them but Jesus alone.

⁹And [as] they were coming down from the mountain, he ordered them that they should tell no one [the things] that they had seen, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

¹⁰And they kept the matter to themselves, discussing what this rising from the dead _meant_.

¹¹And they asked him, saying, "_Why do_ the scribes say that Elijah must come first?

¹²And he said to them, "Elijah indeed does come first [and] restores all [things]. And how is it written concerning the Son of Man that he should suffer many [things] and be treated with contempt?

¹³But I tell you that indeed Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.

¹⁴And [when they] came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and scribes arguing with them.

¹⁵And immediately the whole crowd, [when they] saw him, were amazed, and ran up to [him] [and] greeted him.

¹⁶And he asked them, "What are you arguing [about] with them?

¹⁷And one [individual] from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought to you my son who has _a spirit that makes him mute_.

¹⁸And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes paralyzed. And I told your disciples that they should expel it, and they were not able [to do so].

¹⁹And he answered them [and] said, "O unbelieving generation! _How long_ will I be with you? _How long_ must I put up with you? Bring him to me!

²⁰And they brought him to him. And [when he] saw him, the spirit immediately convulsed him, and falling on the ground, he began to roll around, foaming at the mouth.

²¹And he asked his father how long it was since this had been happening to him. And he said, "From childhood.

²² And often it has thrown him both into fire and into water, in order that it could destroy him. But if you are able [to do] anything, have compassion on us [and] help us!

²³ But Jesus said to him, "If you are able! All [things] [are] possible for the one who believes!

²⁴ Immediately the father of the child cried out [and] said, "I believe! Help my unbelief!

²⁵ Now [when] Jesus saw that a crowd was running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "Mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter into him no more!

²⁶ And it came out, screaming and convulsing [him] greatly, and he became as if [he were] dead, so that most [of them] said, "He has died!

²⁷ But Jesus took hold of his hand [and] raised him up, and he stood up.

²⁸ And [after] he had entered into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why were we not able to expel it?

²⁹ And he said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing except by prayer."

³⁰And from there they went out [and] passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know, ³¹for he was teaching his disciples and was telling them, "The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And [when he] is killed, after three days he will rise.

³²But they did not understand the statement, and they were afraid to ask him.

³³And they came to Capernaum. And [after he] was in the house, he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?

³⁴But they were silent, because they had argued with one another on the way [about] who [was] greatest.

³⁵And he sat down [and] called the twelve and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he will be last of all and servant of all.

³⁶And he took a young child [and] had him stand _among them_. And taking him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷Whoever welcomes one of the young children such as these in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me, but the one who sent me.

³⁸ John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone expelling demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he was not following us.

³⁹ But Jesus said, "Do not prevent him, because there is no one who does a miracle in my name and will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me.

⁴⁰ For whoever is not against us is for us.

⁴¹ For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in [my] name because you are Christs, truly I say to you that he will never lose his reward.

⁴² "And whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it is better for him if instead _a large millstone_ is placed around his neck and he is thrown into the sea.

⁴³ And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better [for] you to enter into life crippled than, having two hands, to go into hell into the unquenchable fire!

⁴⁴ EMPTY

⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better [for] you to enter into life lame than, having two feet, to be thrown into hell!

⁴⁶EMPTY

⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out! It is better [for] you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸where their worm does not die and the fire is not extinguished.

⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire.

⁵⁰Salt [is] good, but if the salt becomes deprived of its salt content, by what can you make it salty? Have salt among yourselves, and be at peace with one another.

10¹And from there he set out [and] came to the region of Judea and the other side of the Jordan, and again crowds came together to him. And again, as he was accustomed [to do], he began to teach them.

²And Pharisees came up [and] asked him if it was permitted for a man to divorce [his] wife, [in order to] test him.

³And he answered [and] said to them, "What did Moses command you?

⁴ So they said, "Moses permitted [a man] to write a certificate of divorce and to send [her] away.

⁵ But Jesus said to them, "He wrote this commandment for you because of your hardness of heart.

⁶ But from the beginning of creation he made them male and female.

⁷ Because of this a man will leave his father and mother and will be joined to his wife,

⁸ and the two will become one flesh, so that they are no longer two but one flesh.

⁹ Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate.

¹⁰ And in the house again the disciples began to ask him about this.

¹¹ And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her.

¹² And if she divorces her husband [and] marries another, she commits adultery.

¹³ And they were bringing young children to him so that he could touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴ But [when] Jesus saw [it], he was indignant, and said to them, "Let the young children come to me. Do not forbid them, _for to such belongs_ the kingdom of God.

¹⁵ Truly I say to you, whoever does not welcome the kingdom of God like a young child will never enter into it.

¹⁶ And [after] taking [them] into his arms, he blessed them, placing his hands on them.

¹⁷ And [as] he was setting out on [his] way, one [individual] ran up and knelt down before him [and] asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do so that I will inherit eternal life?"

¹⁸ So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one [is] good except God alone.

¹⁹ You know the commandments: Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother."

²⁰ And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.

²¹ And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "You lack one [thing]: Go, sell all that you have, and give [the proceeds] to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven and come, follow me.

²² But he looked gloomy at the statement [and] went away sorrowful, _because he had_ many possessions.

²³ And Jesus looked around [and] said to his disciples, "How _difficult it is for_ those who possess wealth to enter into the kingdom of God!

²⁴ And the disciples were astounded at his words. But Jesus answered [and] said to them again, "Children, how difficult it is to enter into the kingdom of God!

²⁵ It is easier [for] a camel to go through the eye of a needle than [for] a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.

²⁶ And they were very astounded, saying to one another, "And who can be saved?

²⁷ Jesus looked at them [and] said, "With human beings [it is] impossible, but not with God. For all [things] [are] possible with God.

²⁸ Peter began to say to him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed you.

²⁹ Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields on account of me and on account of the gospel ³⁰ _who will not_ receive a hundred times as much now in this time houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, together with persecutions and in the age to come, eternal life.

³¹ But many [who are] first will be last, and the last first.

³² Now they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going on ahead of them. And they were astounded, but those who were following [him] were afraid. And taking aside the twelve again, he began to tell them the things that were about to happen to him:

³³ Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the Gentiles.

³⁴ And they will mock him and spit on him and flog him and kill [him], and after three days he will rise.

³⁵ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to him [and] said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask you.

³⁶ And he said to them, "What do you want me _to do_ for you?

³⁷ So they said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit one at your right hand and one at [your] left in your glory.

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

³⁹ And they said to him, "We are able." So Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup that I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with,

⁴⁰ but to sit at my right hand or at [my] left is not mine to grant, but [is] for those for whom it has been prepared.

⁴¹ And [when they] heard [this], the ten began to be indignant about James and John.

⁴² And Jesus called them to himself [and] said to them, "You know that those who are considered to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their [people] in high positions exercise authority over them.

⁴³ But it is not like this among you! But whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be most prominent among you must be the slave of all.

⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life [as] a ransom for many.

⁴⁶ And they came to Jericho. And [as] he was setting out from Jericho along with his disciples and a large crowd, a blind beggar, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road.

⁴⁷ And [when he] heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!

⁴⁸ And many [people] warned him that he should be quiet. But he was crying out _even more loudly_, "Son of David, have mercy on me!

⁴⁹ And Jesus stopped [and] said, "Call him." And they called the blind man

[and] said to him, "Have courage! Get up! He is calling you.

⁵⁰ And he threw off his cloak, jumped up, [and] came to Jesus.

⁵¹ And Jesus answered him [and] said, "What do you want _me to do_ for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabboni, that I may regain [my] sight.

⁵² And Jesus said to him, "Go, your faith has healed you." And immediately he regained [his] sight and began to follow him on the road.

11 ¹ And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples ² and said to them, "Go into the village before you, and right away [as you] enter into it you will find a colt tied, on which no one [has] ever sat. Untie it and bring [it].

³ And if anyone says to you, Why are you doing this? say, The Lord has need of it, and will send it here again at once.

⁴ And they went away and found a colt tied at a door outside in the street, and they untied it.

⁵ And some of those who were standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?

⁶ So they told them, just as Jesus had said, and they allowed them [to take it].

⁷ And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, and he sat on it.

⁸ And many [people] spread their cloaks on the road, and others [spread] leafy branches [they] had cut from the fields.

⁹ And those who went ahead and those who were following were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed [is] the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

¹⁰ Blessed [is] the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest [heaven]!"

¹¹ And he went into Jerusalem to the temple, and [after] looking around at everything, [because] the hour was already evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

¹² And on the next day [as] they were departing from Bethany, he was hungry.

¹³ And [when he] saw from a distance a fig tree that had leaves, he went [to see] if perhaps he would find anything on it.

And [when he] came up to it he found nothing except leaves, because it was not the season for figs.

¹⁴And he responded [and] said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you any more _forever_!" And his disciples heard [it].

¹⁵And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered into the temple [courts] [and] began to drive out those who were selling and those who were buying in the temple [courts], and overturned the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those who were selling doves.

¹⁶And he did not permit anyone to carry objects through the temple [courts].

¹⁷And he began to teach and was saying to them, "Is it not written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations, but you have made it a cave of robbers!

¹⁸And the chief priests and the scribes heard [it], and began considering how they could destroy him. For they were afraid of him because the whole crowd was astounded by his teaching.

¹⁹And when evening came they went out of the city.

²⁰And [as they] passed by early in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots.

²¹And Peter remembered [and] said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered!

²²And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Have faith in God!

²³Truly I say to you that whoever says to this mountain, Be lifted up and thrown into the sea! and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will happen, it will be [done] for him.

²⁴For this [reason] I say to you, whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received [it], and it will be [done] for you.

²⁵And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive [him], so that your Father who [is] in heaven will also forgive you your sins."

²⁶EMPTY

²⁷And they came again to Jerusalem. And [as] he was walking in the temple [courts], the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came up to him

²⁸and said to him, "By what authority are you doing these [things], or who gave you this authority that you do these [things]?"

²⁹So Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these [things]."

³⁰The baptism of John was [it] from heaven or from men? Answer me!

³¹And they began to discuss [this] with one another, saying, "If we say From heaven, he will say, Why then did you not believe him?"

³²But if we say, From men" they were afraid of the crowd, because they all looked upon John as truly a prophet.

³³And they replied to Jesus saying, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these [things]."

12¹And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard, and put a fence [around it], and dug a trough for the winepress, and built a watchtower, and leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey.

²And he sent a slave to the tenant farmers at the proper time, so that he could collect [some] of the fruit of the vineyard from the tenant farmers.

³And they seized him [and] beat [him] and sent [him] away empty-handed.

⁴And again he sent to them another slave, and that one they struck on the head and dishonored.

⁵And he sent another, and that one they killed. And [he sent] many others, [some] of whom they beat and [some] of whom they killed.

⁶He had one more, a beloved son. Last [of all] he sent him to them, saying, They will respect my son.

⁷But those tenant farmers said to one another, This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and the inheritance will be ours!

⁸And they seized [and] killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenant farmers and give the vineyard to others.

¹⁰Have you not read this scripture: The stone which the builders rejected, this has become _the cornerstone_.

¹¹ This came about from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?"

¹² And they were seeking to arrest him, and they were afraid of the crowd, because they knew that he had told the parable with reference to them. And they left him [and] went away.

¹³ And they sent some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him so that they could catch him unawares in a statement.

¹⁴ And [when they] came, they said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and _you do not care what anyone thinks_, _because you do not regard the opinion of people_ but teach the way of God in truth. Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or should we not pay?"

¹⁵ But [because he] knew their hypocrisy, he said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a denarius so that I can look at [it]!"

¹⁶ So they brought [one]. And he said to them, "Whose image and inscription [is] this?" And they said to him, "Caesars."

¹⁷ And Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God!" And they were utterly amazed at him.

¹⁸And Sadducees who say there is no resurrection came up to him and began to ask him, saying, ¹⁹Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if someones brother dies and he leaves behind a wife and does not leave a child, that his brother should take the wife and _father_ descendants for his brother.

²⁰There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife. And [when he] died, he did not leave descendants.

²¹And the second took her, and he died without leaving descendants. And the third likewise.

²²And the seven did not leave descendants. Last of all the woman also died.

²³In the resurrection, when they rise, _whose_ wife will she be? For the seven had her [as] wife.

²⁴Jesus said to them, "Are you not deceived because of this, [because you] do not know the scriptures or the power of God?

²⁵For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

²⁶Now concerning the dead, that they are raised, have you not read in the book of Moses _in the passage about the bush_ how God spoke to him, saying, I [am] the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?

²⁷He is not God of the dead, but of the living. You are very much mistaken!

²⁸And one of the scribes came up [and] heard them debating. [When he] saw that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?

²⁹Jesus answered, "The most important is, Listen, Israel! The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

³⁰And you shall love the Lord your God from your whole heart and from your whole soul and from your whole mind and from your whole strength.

³¹The second [is] this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.

³²And the scribe said to him, "That is true, Teacher. You have said _correctly_ that he is one and there is no other except him.

³³And to love him from your whole heart and from your whole understanding and from your whole strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

³⁴And Jesus, [when he] saw that he had answered thoughtfully, said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to put a question to him any longer.

³⁵And continuing, Jesus said [while] teaching in the temple [courts], "How can the scribes say that the Christ is Davids son?

³⁶David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet."

³⁷David himself calls him Lord, and how is he his son?" And the large crowd was listening to him gladly.

³⁸And in his teaching he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like walking around in long robes and greetings in the marketplaces

³⁹and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets, ⁴⁰who devour the houses of widows and pray lengthy [prayers] for the sake of appearance. These will receive more severe condemnation!

⁴¹And he sat down opposite the contribution box [and] was observing how the crowd was putting coins into the contribution box. And many rich people were putting in many [coins].

⁴²And one poor widow came [and] put in two small copper coins (that is, a penny).

⁴³And summoning his disciples, he said to them, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow put in more than all those who put [offerings] into the contribution box.

⁴⁴For they all _contributed_ out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in everything she had, her whole means of subsistence.

13¹And [as] he was going out of the temple [courts], one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, look! What great stones and what wonderful buildings!

²And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not [one] stone will be left here on [another] stone that will not be thrown down!

³And [as] he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴Tell us, when will these [things] happen, and what [will be] the sign when all these [things] are about to be accomplished?

⁵So Jesus began to say to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you!

⁶Many will come in my name, saying, I am [he], and they will deceive many.

⁷And when you hear about wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must happen, but the end [is] not yet.

⁸For nation will rise up against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in [various] places. There will be famines. These [things] [are] the beginning of birth pains.

⁹"But you, watch out for yourselves! They will hand you over to councils and you will be beaten in the synagogues and will have to stand before governors and kings because of me, for a witness to them.

¹⁰And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all the nations.

¹¹And when they arrest you [and] hand you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you should say, but whatever is given to you at that hour, say this. For you are not the ones who are speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

¹²And brother will hand over brother to death, and a father [his] child, and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.

¹³And you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end this one will be saved.

¹⁴"But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where it should not be" (let the one who reads understand), "then those in Judea must flee to the mountains!

¹⁵The one who is on his housetop must not come down or go inside to take anything out of his house, ¹⁶and the one who is in the field must not turn back to pick up his cloak.

¹⁷ And woe to those _who are pregnant_ and to those who are nursing [their babies] in those days!

¹⁸ But pray that it will not happen in winter.

¹⁹ For [in] those days there will be tribulation of such a kind as has not happened from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, and never will happen.

²⁰ And if the Lord had not shortened the days, _no human being would be saved_. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he has shortened the days.

²¹ And at that time if anyone should say to you, "Behold, here [is] the Christ, Behold, there [he is], do not believe [him]!

²² For false messiahs and false prophets will appear, and will produce signs and wonders in order to mislead, if possible, the elect.

²³ But you, watch out! I have told you everything ahead of time!

²⁴ "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light, ²⁵and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

²⁶And then they will see the Son of Man arriving in the clouds with great power and glory.

²⁷And then he will send out the angels, and will gather his elect together from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of heaven.

²⁸"Now learn the parable from the fig tree: Whenever its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.

²⁹So also you, when you see these [things] happening, know that he is near, at the door.

³⁰Truly I say to you that this generation will never pass away until all these [things] take place!

³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³²"But concerning that day or hour no one knowsnot even the angels in heaven nor the Sonexcept the Father.

³³Watch out! Be alert, because you do not know when the time is!

³⁴It is like a man away on a journey, who left his house and gave his slaves authority to each one his work and to the doorkeeper he gave orders that he should be on the alert.

³⁵Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or early in the morning ³⁶lest he arrive suddenly [and] find you sleeping.

³⁷And what I say to you, I say to everyone: Be on the alert!

14¹Now after two days it was the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, [after] arresting him by stealth, they could kill [him].

²For they said, "Not at the feast, lest there be an uproar by the people.

³And [while] he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, [as] he was reclining for a meal, a woman came holding an alabaster flask of very costly perfumed oil of genuine nard. [After] breaking the alabaster flask, she poured [it] out on his head.

⁴But some were expressing indignation to one another: "Why has there been this waste of perfumed oil?

⁵For this perfumed oil could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor!" And they began to scold her.

⁶But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you cause trouble for her? She has done a good deed to me.

⁷For the poor you always have with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want, but you do not always have me.

⁸She has done what she could; _she has anointed my body beforehand_ for burial.

⁹And truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.

¹⁰And Judas Iscariot, who [was] one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.

¹¹And [when] they heard [this], they were delighted, and promised to give him money. And he began seeking how he could betray him conveniently.

¹²And on the first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go [and] prepare, so that you can eat the Passover?"

¹³And he sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him,

¹⁴and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"

¹⁵And he will show you a large upstairs room furnished [and] ready, and prepare for us there.

¹⁶And the disciples went out and came into the city and found [everything] just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷And [when it] was evening, he arrived with the twelve.

¹⁸And [while] they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, that one of you who is eating with me will betray me.

¹⁹They began to be distressed and to say to him one by one, "Surely not I?"

²⁰But he said to them, "[It is] one of the twelve the one who is dipping [bread] into the bowl with me.

²¹For the Son of Man is going just as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! [It would be] better for him if that man had not been born.

²²And [while] they were eating, he took bread [and], [after] giving thanks, he broke [it] and gave [it] to them and said, "Take [it], this is my body.

²³And [after] taking the cup [and] giving thanks, he gave [it] to them, and they all drank from it.

²⁴And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many.

²⁵Truly I say to you that I will never drink of the fruit of the vine any longer until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

²⁶And [after they] had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

²⁷ And Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, because it is written, I will strike the shepherd and the sheep will be scattered.

²⁸ But after I am raised, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.

²⁹ But Peter said to him, "Even if they all fall away, certainly I will not!

³⁰ And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that today this night before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times!

³¹ But he kept saying emphatically, "If it is necessary for me to die with you, I will never deny you!" And they all were saying the same [thing] also.

³² And they came to a place _named_ Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray.

³³ And he took along Peter and James and John with him, and he began to be distressed and troubled.

³⁴ And he said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake.

³⁵ And going forward a little he fell to the ground and began to pray that, if it were possible, the hour would pass from him.

³⁶And he said, "Abba, Father, all [things] [are] possible for you! Take away this cup from me! Yet not what I will, but what you [will]."

³⁷And he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to stay awake one hour?

³⁸Stay awake and pray that you will not enter into temptation. The spirit [is] willing, but the flesh [is] weak!

³⁹And again he went away [and] prayed, saying the same thing.

⁴⁰And again he came [and] found them sleeping, _for they could not keep their eyes open_, and they did not know what to reply to him.

⁴¹And he came the third [time] and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

⁴²Get up, let us go! Behold, the one who is betraying me is approaching!

⁴³And immediately, [while] he was still speaking, Judas one of the twelve arrived, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

⁴⁴ Now the one who was betraying him had given them a sign, saying, "[The one] whom I kiss he is [the one]. Arrest him and lead [him] away under guard!

⁴⁵ And [when he] arrived, he came up to him immediately [and] said, "Rabbi," and kissed him.

⁴⁶ So they laid hands on him and arrested him.

⁴⁷ But a certain one of the bystanders, drawing [his] sword, struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸ And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a robber, to arrest me?

⁴⁹ Every day I was with you in the temple [courts] teaching, and you did not arrest me! But [this has happened] in order that the scriptures would be fulfilled.

⁵⁰ And they all abandoned him [and] fled.

⁵¹ And a certain young man was following him, clothed [only] in a linen cloth on [his] naked body. And they attempted to seize him, ⁵²but he left behind the linen cloth [and] fled naked.

⁵³And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together.

⁵⁴And Peter followed him from a distance, right inside, into the courtyard of the high priest. And he was sitting with the officers and warming himself by the fire.

⁵⁵Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death, and they did not find [it].

⁵⁶For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony was not consistent.

⁵⁷And some stood up [and] began to give false testimony against him, saying, ⁵⁸We heard him saying, I will destroy this temple made by hands, and within three days I will build another not made by hands.

⁵⁹And their testimony was not even consistent about this.

⁶⁰And the high priest stood up in the midst [of them] [and] asked Jesus, saying, "Do you not reply anything? What are these [people] testifying against you?

⁶¹But he was silent and did not reply anything. Again the high priest asked him and said to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?

⁶²And Jesus said, "I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.

⁶³And the high priest tore his clothes [and] said, "What further need do we have of witnesses?

⁶⁴You have heard the blasphemy! What _do you think_?" And they all condemned him _as deserving death_.

⁶⁵And some began to spit on him and to cover his face and to strike him with their fists, and to say to him "Prophecy!" And the officers received him with slaps in the face.

⁶⁶And [while] Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the female slaves of the high priest came up ⁶⁷ And [when] she saw Peter warming himself, she looked intently at him [and] said, "You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus.

⁶⁸ But he denied [it], saying, "I neither know nor understand what you mean!" And he went out into the gateway, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ And the female slave, [when she] saw him, began to say again to the bystanders, "This man is one of them!

⁷⁰ But he denied [it] again. And after a little [while], again the bystanders began to say to Peter, "You really are [one] of them, because you also are a Galilean!

⁷¹ And he began to curse and to swear with an oath, "I do not know this man whom you are talking about!

⁷² And immediately a rooster crowed for the second time. And Peter remembered the statement, how Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times," and throwing himself down, he began to weep.

15¹ And as soon as morning [came], [after] formulating a plan, the chief priests, with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin, tied up Jesus, led [him] away, and handed [him] over to Pilate.

²And Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" And he answered him [and] said, "You say [so]."

³And the chief priests began to accuse him [of] many [things].

⁴So Pilate asked him again, saying, "Do you not answer anything? See how many [charges] they are bringing against you!"

⁵But Jesus did not answer anything further, so that Pilate was astonished.

⁶Now at each feast he customarily released for them one prisoner whom they requested.

⁷And the one named Barabbas was imprisoned with the rebels who had committed murder in the rebellion.

⁸And the crowd came up [and] began to ask him to do as he customarily did for them.

⁹So Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the king of the Jews?"

¹⁰(For he realized that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy.)

¹¹ But the chief priests incited the crowd so that he would release for them Barabbas instead.

¹² So Pilate answered [and] said to them again, "Then what do you want me to do with [the one] whom you call the king of the Jews?"

¹³ And they shouted again, "Crucify him!"

¹⁴ And Pilate said to them, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they shouted even louder, "Crucify him!"

¹⁵ So Pilate, [because he] wanted _to satisfy_ the crowd, released for them Barabbas. And [after] he had Jesus flogged, he handed [him] over so that he could be crucified.

¹⁶ So the soldiers led him away into the palace (that is, the governors residence) and called together the whole cohort.

¹⁷ And they put a purple cloak on him, and [after] weaving a crown of thorns they placed [it] on him.

¹⁸ And they began to greet him, "Hail, king of the Jews!"

¹⁹ And they repeatedly struck him on the head with a reed, and were spitting on him, and _they knelt down_ [and] did obeisance to him.

²⁰And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his [own] clothes on him, and they led him out so that they could crucify him.

²¹And they forced a certain man who was passing by, Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), who was coming from the country, to carry his cross.

²²And they brought him to the place Golgotha (which is translated "Place of a Skull").

²³And they attempted to give him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it.

²⁴And they crucified him and divided his clothes among themselves [by] casting lots for them [to see] who should take what.

²⁵Now it was the third hour when they crucified him.

²⁶And the inscription of the charge against him was written, "The king of the Jews.

³⁰ save yourself [by] coming down from the cross!

³¹ In the same way also the chief priests, along with the scribes, were mocking [him] to one another, saying, "He saved others; he is not able to save himself!

³² Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe! Even those who were crucified with him were reviling him.

³³ And [when] the sixth hour came, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.

³⁵ And some of the bystanders, [when they] heard [it], said, "Behold, he is summoning Elijah!

³⁶ And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put [it] on a reed, [and] gave [it] to him to drink, saying, "Leave [him] alone! Let us see if Elijah is coming to take him down.

³⁷ But Jesus uttered a loud cry [and] expired.

³⁸ And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

³⁹ And [when] the centurion who was standing opposite him saw that he expired like this, he said, "Truly this man was Gods Son!

⁴⁰ And there were also women observing from a distance, among whom [were] Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and Joses, and Salome, ⁴¹ who used to follow him and serve him when he was in Galilee, and many other [women] who went up with him to Jerusalem.

⁴² And [when it] was already evening, since it was the day of preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath),

⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the council who was also himself looking forward to the kingdom of God, came acting courageously [and] went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

⁴⁴ And Pilate was surprised that he was already dead, and summoning the centurion, asked him whether he had died already.

⁴⁵ And [when he] learned of [it] from the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph.

⁴⁷ Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the [mother] of Joses saw where he was placed.

16¹ And [when] the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the [mother] of James, and Salome purchased fragrant spices so that they could go [and] anoint him.

² And very early in the morning on the first [day] of the week they came to the tomb [after] the sun had risen.

³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?"

⁴And [when they] looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away (for it was very large).

⁵And [as they] were going into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

⁶But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene who was crucified. He has been raised, he is not here! See the place where they laid him!"

⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you.

⁸And they went out [and] fled from the tomb, because trembling and amazement had seized them. And they said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid. @ [[So they promptly reported all the [things] they had been commanded to those around Peter. And after these [things], Jesus himself also sent out through them from the east even as far as the west the holy and imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation. Amen.]]

⁹@ [[Now early on the first [day] of the week, [after he] rose, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had expelled seven demons.

¹⁰She went out [and] announced [it] to those who were with him [while they] were mourning and weeping.

¹¹And those, [when they] heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, refused to believe [it].

¹²And after these [things], he appeared in a different form to two of them [as they] were walking, [while they] were going out into the countryside.

¹³And these went [and] reported [it] to the others, and they did not believe them.

¹⁴And later, [while] they were reclining at table, he appeared to the eleven. And he reprimanded their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him [after he] had been raised.

¹⁵And he said to them, "Go into all the world [and] preach the gospel to all creation.

¹⁶The one who believes and is baptized will be saved, but the one who refuses to believe will be condemned.

¹⁷And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will expel demons, they will speak in new tongues, ¹⁸and they will pick up snakes with their hands. And if they drink any deadly [poison] it will never hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick and _they will get_ well.

¹⁹Then the Lord Jesus, after [he] had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

²⁰And they went out [and] proclaimed everywhere, [while] the Lord was working together with [them] and confirming the message through the accompanying signs.]]

Luke

1 ¹ Since many have attempted to compile an account concerning the events that have been fulfilled among us,

² just as those who were eyewitnesses and servants of the word from the beginning passed on to us,

³ it seemed best to me also [because I] have followed all [things] carefully from the beginning to write [them] down in orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ so that you may know the certainty concerning the things about which you were taught.

⁵ It happened that in the days of Herod, king of Judea, [there was] a certain priest, Zechariah by name, of the division of Abijah. And _he had a wife_ from the daughters of Aaron, and her name [was] Elizabeth.

⁶ And they were both righteous in the sight of God, living blamelessly in all the commandments and regulations of the Lord.

⁷And _they did not have_ a child, because Elizabeth was barren. And they were both advanced _in years_.

⁸And it happened that [while] he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division, ⁹according to the custom of the priesthood he was chosen by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense.

¹⁰And the whole crowd of the people were praying outside at the hour of the incense offering.

¹¹And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

¹²And Zechariah was terrified [when he] saw [the angel], and fear fell upon him.

¹³But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John.

¹⁴And _you will experience joy and exultation_, and many will rejoice at his birth.

¹⁵For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he must never drink wine or beer, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit [while he is] still in his mothers womb.

¹⁶And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God.

¹⁷And he will go on before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to prepare for the Lord a people made ready.

¹⁸And Zechariah said to the angel, "By what will I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced _in years_!"

¹⁹And the angel answered [and] said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to announce to you this good news.

²⁰And behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until the day these [things] take place, _because_ you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time.

²¹ And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and began to wonder [when] he was delayed in the temple.

²² And [when he] came out he was not able to speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple. And he kept making signs to them, and remained unable to speak.

²³ And it happened that when the days of his service came to an end, he went away to his home.

²⁴ Now after these days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and she kept herself in seclusion [for] five months, saying, ²⁵ Thus the Lord has done for me in the days in which he has concerned himself with [me], to take away my disgrace among people.

²⁶ Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee _named_ Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin legally promised in marriage to a man _named_ Joseph of the house of David. And the name of the virgin [was] Mary.

²⁸And he came to her [and] said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord [is] with you.

²⁹But she was greatly perplexed at the statement, and was pondering what sort of greeting this might be.

³⁰And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

³¹And behold, you will conceive in the womb and will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus.

³²This one will be great, and he will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of his father David.

³³And he will reign over the house of Jacob _forever_, and of his kingdom there will be no end.

³⁴And Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not had sexual relations with a man?

³⁵And the angel answered [and] said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the one to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.

³⁶And behold, your relative Elizabethshe also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren.

³⁷For _nothing will be impossible with God_."

³⁸So Mary said, "Behold, the Lords female slave! May it happen to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

³⁹Now in those days Mary set out [and] traveled with haste into the hill country, to a town of Judah, ⁴⁰and entered into the house of Zechariah, and greeted Elizabeth.

⁴¹And it happened that when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby in her womb leaped and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

⁴²And she cried out with a loud shout and said, "Blessed [are] you among women, and blessed [is] the fruit of your womb!

⁴³And why [is] this [granted] to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

⁴⁴For behold, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy!

⁴⁵And blessed [is] she who believed that [there] will be a fulfillment to what was spoken to her from the Lord!

⁴⁶And Mary said, "My soul exalts the Lord,

⁴⁷and my spirit has rejoiced greatly in God my Savior,

⁴⁸because he has looked upon the humble state of his female slave, for behold, from now on all generations will consider me blessed, ⁴⁹because the Mighty [One] has done great [things] for me, and holy [is] his name.

⁵⁰And his mercy [is] for generation after generation to those who fear him.

⁵¹He has done a mighty deed with his arm; he has dispersed the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

⁵²He has brought down rulers from [their] thrones, and has exalted the lowly.

⁵³He has filled those who are hungry with good [things], and those who are rich he has sent away empty-handed.

⁵⁴He has helped Israel his servant,
remembering [his] mercy,

⁵⁵just as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his descendants
forever."

⁵⁶And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her home.

⁵⁷Now the time came for Elizabeth that she should give birth, and she gave birth to a son.

⁵⁸And her neighbors and relatives heard that _the Lord had shown his great mercy to her_, and they rejoiced with her.

⁵⁹And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were wanting to name him after his father Zechariah.

⁶⁰And his mother answered [and] said,
"No, but he will be named John.

⁶¹And they said to her, "There is no one of your relatives who is called by this name.

⁶²So they made signs to his father [asking] what he wanted him to be named,

⁶³and he asked for a writing tablet [and] wrote, saying, "John is his name." And they were all astonished.

⁶⁴And his mouth and his tongue were opened immediately, and he began to speak, praising God.

⁶⁵And fear came on all those who lived near them, and in all the hill country of Judea all these events were discussed.

⁶⁶And all those who heard kept [these things] in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be? For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him!

⁶⁷And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸Blessed [be] the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited to help and _has redeemed_ his people,

⁶⁹and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,

⁷⁰just as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from earliest times

⁷¹salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those who hate us, ⁷²to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,

⁷³ the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, to grant us

⁷⁴ [that] we, being rescued from the hand of [our] enemies, could serve him without fear

⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

⁷⁶ And so you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go on before the Lord to prepare his ways,

⁷⁷ to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸ because of the merciful compassion of our God by which the dawn will visit to help us from on high,

⁷⁹ to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to direct our feet into the way of peace.

⁸⁰ And the child kept growing and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

2¹ Now it happened that in those days a decree went out from Caesar
Augustus to register all the empire.

² (This first registration took place
[when] Quirinius was governor of Syria.)

³And everyone went to be registered, each one to his own town.

⁴So Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David, ⁵to be registered together with Mary, who was legally promised in marriage to him [and] was pregnant.

⁶And it happened that while they were there, _the time came_ for her to give birth.

⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son, and wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

⁸And there were shepherds in the same region, living out of doors and keeping watch, guarding over their flock by night.

⁹And an angel of the Lord stood near them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and _they were terribly frightened_.

¹⁰And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring good news to you of great joy which will be for all the people:

¹¹ that today a Savior, who is Christ the Lord, was born for you in the city of David.

¹² And this will be the sign for you: you will find the baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.

¹³ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army, praising God and saying,

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among people _with whom he is pleased_!"

¹⁵ And it happened that when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds began to say to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has revealed to us!"

¹⁶ And they went hurrying and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby who was lying in the manger.

¹⁷ And [when they] saw [it], they made known the statement that had been told to them about this child.

¹⁸ And all who heard [it] were astonished concerning what had been said to them by the shepherds.

¹⁹But Mary treasured up all these words, pondering [them] in her heart.

²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

²¹And when eight days were completed _so that he could be circumcised_, he was named Jesus, his name [that] [he] was called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

²²And when the days of their purification were completed according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present [him] to the Lord

²³(just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male that opens the womb will be called holy to the Lord")

²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to what was stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

²⁵And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem _whose name was_ Simeon, and this man [was] righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

²⁶And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit [that he would] not see death before he would see the Lords Christ.

²⁷And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus so that they could do for him according to what was customary under the law,

²⁸he took him in [his] arms and praised God and said, ²⁹Now dismiss your slave in peace, Lord, according to your word.

³⁰For my eyes have seen your salvation

³¹that you have prepared in the presence of all the peoples, ³²a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory to your people Israel.

³³And his father and mother were astonished at what was said about him.

³⁴And Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed ³⁵and a sword will pierce your own soul also, so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed!

³⁶And there was a prophetess, Anna the daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher (she was advanced _in years_, having lived with [her] husband seven years _after her marriage_, ³⁷and herself [as] a widow up to eighty-four years) who did not depart from the temple with fastings and prayers, serving night and day.

³⁸And at [that] same hour she approached [and] began to give thanks to God, and to speak about him to all those who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

³⁹And when they had completed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

⁴⁰And the child was growing and becoming strong, filled with wisdom, and the favor of God was upon him.

⁴¹And his parents went every year to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover.

⁴²And when he was twelve years [old], they went up according to the custom of the feast.

⁴³And [after] the days were completed, while they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. And his parents did not know [it], ⁴⁴but believing him to be in the group of travelers, they went a days journey. And they began searching for him among [their] relatives and [their] acquaintances, ⁴⁵and [when they] did not find [him], they returned to Jerusalem to search for him.

⁴⁶And it happened that after three days they found him in the temple [courts], sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and asking them [questions].

⁴⁷And all who heard him were amazed at his insight and [his] answers.

⁴⁸And [when they] saw him, they were astounded and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you done this to us? Look, your father and I have been searching for you anxiously!

⁴⁹And he said to them, "_Why_ were you searching for me? Did you not know that it was necessary [for] me to be in the [house] of my Father?

⁵⁰And they did not understand the statement that he spoke to them.

⁵¹ And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was submitting to them. And his mother treasured all these things in her heart.

⁵² And Jesus was advancing in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and [with] people.

3¹ Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, [when] Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, ² in the time of the high priest Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

³ And he went into all the surrounding region of the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, ⁴ as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight!

⁵ Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be leveled, and the crooked will become straight, and the rough road [will become] smooth, ⁶and all flesh will see the salvation of God."

⁷Therefore he was saying to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

⁸Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance! And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham [as] father. For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

⁹And even now the ax is positioned at the root of the trees; therefore every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹⁰And the crowds were asking him, saying, "What then should we do?

¹¹And he answered [and] said to them, "The one who has two tunics must share with the one who does not have [one], and the one who has food must do likewise.

¹²And tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?

¹³And he said to them, "Collect no more than _what you are ordered to_."

¹⁴And those who served in the army were also asking him, saying, "What should we also do?" And he said to them, "Extort from no one, and do not blackmail [anyone], and be content with your pay.

¹⁵And [while] the people were waiting expectantly and all were pondering in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he might be the Christ, ¹⁶John answered them all, saying, "I baptize you with water, but the one who is more powerful than I [am] is coming, of whom I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

¹⁷His winnowing shovel [is] in his hand, to clean out his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

¹⁸So with many other exhortations also he proclaimed good news to the people.

¹⁹But Herod the tetrarch, who had been reproved by him concerning Herodias, his brothers wife, and concerning all the evil deeds that Herod had done, ²⁰ added this also to them all: he also locked up John in prison.

²¹ Now it happened that when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized, and [while he] was praying, heaven was opened,

²² and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.

²³ And Jesus, [when he] began [his ministry], was himself about thirty years [old], being the son (as it was believed) of Joseph the [son] of Eli,

²⁴ the [son] of Matthat, the [son] of Levi, the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Jannai, the [son] of Joseph,

²⁵ the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Amos, the [son] of Nahum, the [son] of Esli, the [son] of Naggai, ²⁶ the [son] of Maath, the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Semein, the [son] of Josech, the [son] of Joda, ²⁷ the [son] of Joanan, the [son] of Rhesa, the [son] of Zerubbabel, the [son] of Shealtiel, the [son] of Neri, ²⁸ the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Addi, the [son] of Cosam, the [son] of Elmadam, the [son] of Er,

²⁹ the [son] of Joshua, the [son] of Eliezer, the [son] of Jorim, the [son] of Matthat, the [son] of Levi,

³⁰ the [son] of Simeon, the [son] of Judah, the [son] of Joseph, the [son] of Jonam, the [son] of Eliakim,

³¹ the [son] of Melea, the [son] of Menna, the [son] of Mattatha, the [son] of Nathan, the [son] of David,

³² the [son] of Jesse, the [son] of Obed, the [son] of Boaz, the [son] of Sala, the [son] of Nahshon, ³³ the [son] of Amminadab, the [son] of Admin, the [son] of Arni, the [son] of Hezron, the [son] of Perez, the [son] of Judah, ³⁴ the [son] of Jacob, the [son] of Isaac, the [son] of Abraham, the [son] of Terah, the [son] of Nahor, ³⁵ the [son] of Serug, the [son] of Reu, the [son] of Peleg, the [son] of Eber, the [son] of Shelah, ³⁶ the [son] of Cainan, the [son] of Arphaxad, the [son] of Shem, the [son] of Noah, the [son] of Lamech, ³⁷ the [son] of Methuselah, the [son] of Enoch, the [son] of Jared, the [son] of Mahalaleel, the [son] of Cainan, ³⁸ the [son] of Enosh, the [son] of Seth, the [son] of Adam, the [son] of God.

4¹ And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness

² forty days, being tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days, and [when] they were completed, he was hungry.

³ So the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, order this stone that it become bread!

⁴ And Jesus replied to him, "It is written, Man will not live on bread alone."

⁵ And he led him up [and] showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

⁶ And the devil said to him, "I will give you all this domain and their glory, because it has been handed over to me, and I can give it to whomever I want.

⁷ So if you will worship before me, all [this] will be yours.

⁸And Jesus answered [and] said to him, "It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."

⁹And he brought him to Jerusalem, and had him stand on the highest point of the temple and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, ¹⁰for it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,

¹¹and on [their] hands they will lift you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone."

¹²And Jesus answered [and] said to him, "It is said, You are not to put to the test the Lord your God."

¹³And [when] the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until a favorable time.

¹⁴And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news about him went out throughout all the surrounding region.

¹⁵And he began to teach in their synagogues, [and] was praised by all.

¹⁶And he came to Nazareth, where _he had been brought up_, and according to _his custom_ he entered into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbath and stood up to read.

¹⁷And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him, and unrolling the scroll he found the place where it was written,

¹⁸The Spirit of the Lord [is] upon me, because of which he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to send out in freedom those who are oppressed, ¹⁹to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord."

²⁰And he rolled up the scroll [and] gave [it] back to the attendant [and] sat down. And the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were looking intently at him.

²¹And he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.

²²And they were all speaking well of him, and were astonished at the gracious words that were coming out of his mouth. And they were saying, "Is this man not the son of Joseph?"

²³And he said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable: Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard that took place in Capernaum, do here in your hometown also!

²⁴And he said, "Truly I say to you that no prophet is acceptable in his [own] hometown.

²⁵But in truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut for three years and six months while a great famine took place over all the land.

²⁶And Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to Zarephath [in the region] of Sidon, to a woman [who was] a widow.

²⁷And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was made clean except Naaman the Syrian.

²⁸And all [those] in the synagogue were filled with anger [when they] heard these [things].

²⁹And they stood up [and] forced him out of the town and brought him up to the edge of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff.

³⁰But he passed through their midst [and] went on his way.

³¹ And he came down to Capernaum, a town of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbath.

³² And they were astounded at his teaching, because he spoke with authority.

³³ And in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴ Ha! Leave us alone, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are the Holy One of God!

³⁵ And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent and come out of him!" And [after] throwing him down in their midst, the demon came out of him without hurting him at all.

³⁶ And amazement came upon [them] all, and they began to talk with one another, saying, "What word [is] this? For he commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out!"

³⁷ And news about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

³⁸ And [after he] set out from the synagogue, he went into Simons house.

And Simons mother-in-law was afflicted with a high fever, and they asked him on behalf of her.

³⁹And he stood over her [and] rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she got up [and] began to serve them.

⁴⁰Now [as] the sun was setting, all who had those who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and placing [his] hands on every one of them, he healed them.

⁴¹And demons also were coming out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Son of God!" And he rebuked [them] [and] did not permit them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

⁴²And [when it] was day, he departed [and] went to an isolated place. And the crowds were seeking him, and came to him and were trying to prevent him from departing from them.

⁴³But he said to them, "It is necessary [for] me to proclaim the good news [of] the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because I was sent for this [purpose].

⁴⁴And he was preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

5¹Now it happened that while the crowd was pressing around him and hearing the word of God, he was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, ²and he saw two boats there beside the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them [and] were washing their nets.

³And he got into one of the boats, which was Simons, [and] asked him to put out from the land a little. And he sat down [and] began to teach the crowds from the boat.

⁴And when he stopped speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.

⁵And Simon answered [and] said, "Master, [although we] worked hard through the whole night, we caught nothing. But at your word I will let down the nets.

⁶And [when they] did this, they caught a very large number of fish, and their nets began to tear.

⁷And they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come [and] help them, and they came and filled both the boats so that they began to sink.

⁸And [when he] saw [it], Simon Peter fell down at Jesus knees, saying, "Depart from me, Lord, because I am _a sinful man_!"

⁹For amazement had seized him and all those [who were] with him at the catch of fish that they had caught, ¹⁰and so also [were] James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were business partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid! From now on you will be catching people!

¹¹And [after they] brought [their] boats to the land, they left everything [and] followed him.

¹²And it happened that while he was in one of the towns, _there was_ a man _covered with leprosy_. And [when he] saw Jesus, he fell down on [his] face [and] begged him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean.

¹³And extending [his] hand he touched him, saying, "I am willing; be clean." And immediately the leprosy went away from him.

¹⁴And he ordered him, "Tell no one, but go [and] show yourself to the priest and bring [the offering] for your cleansing just as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

¹⁵But the report about him spread even more, and large crowds were gathering to hear [him] and to be healed of their illnesses.

¹⁶But he himself was withdrawing in the wilderness and praying.

¹⁷And it happened that on one of the days as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting [there] who _had come_ from every village of Galilee and Judea and [from] Jerusalem, and the power of the Lord was [there] in order [for] him to heal.

¹⁸And behold, men [came] carrying on a stretcher a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him in and place him before him.

¹⁹And [when they] did not find a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof [and] let him down through the roof tiles with the stretcher into the midst [of them], in front of Jesus.

²⁰And [when he] saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you.

²¹And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?

²²But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered [and] said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?

²³Which is easier to say, Your sins are forgiven you, or to say, Get up and walk?

²⁴But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he said to the one who was paralyzed, "I say to you, Get up and pick up your stretcher [and] go to your home.

²⁵And immediately he stood up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, [and] went away to his home, glorifying God.

²⁶And amazement seized [them] all, and they began to glorify God. And they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen wonderful things today!

²⁷And after these [things], he went out and saw a tax collector _named_ Levi sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me!

²⁸And leaving everything behind, he got up [and] began to follow him.

²⁹And Levi gave a great banquet for him in his house, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining for the meal with them.

³⁰And the Pharisees and their scribes began to complain to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?

³¹And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Those who are healthy do not have need of a physician, but those _who are sick_.

³²I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

³³And they said to him, "The disciples of John fast often and make prayerslikewise also the [disciples] of the Phariseesbut yours are eating and drinking!

³⁴So Jesus said to them, "You are not able to make the _bridegrooms attendants_ fast as long as the bridegroom is with them, [are you]?

³⁵ But days will come, and when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days.

³⁶ And he also told a parable to them: "No one tears a patch from a new garment [and] puts [it] on an old garment. Otherwise, he will have torn the new also, and the old will not match the patch [that is] from the new.

³⁷ And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled and the wineskins will be destroyed.

³⁸ But new wine must be put into new wineskins.

³⁹ And no one [after] drinking old [wine] wants new, because he says, The old is [just] fine!

6¹ Now it happened that on a Sabbath he went through the grain fields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing [them] in [their] hands.

² But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not permitted on the Sabbath?"

³ And Jesus answered [and] said to them, "Have you not read this, what

David did when he and those [who were] with him were hungry

⁴how he entered into the house of God and took the bread of the presentation, which it is not permitted to eat (except the priests alone), [and] ate [it] and gave [it] to those with him?

⁵And he said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.

⁶Now it happened that on another Sabbath he entered into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there, and his right hand was withered.

⁷So the scribes and the Pharisees were watching him closely [to see] if he would heal on the Sabbath, in order that they could find [a reason] to accuse him.

⁸But he knew their thoughts and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Get up and stand in the middle," and he got up [and] stood there.

⁹And Jesus said to them, "I ask you whether it is permitted on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy [it]?"

¹⁰And [after] looking around at them all, he said to him, "Stretch out your hand," and he did, and his hand was restored.

¹¹ But they were filled with fury, and began discussing with one another what they might do to Jesus.

¹² Now it happened that in these days he went away to the mountain to pray, and was spending the whole night in prayer to God.

¹³ And when day came, he summoned his disciples and chose from them twelve, whom he also named apostles:

¹⁴ Simon (whom he also named Peter) and his brother Andrew, and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,

¹⁵ and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the [son] of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot, ¹⁶ and Judas [the son] of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

¹⁷ And he came down with them [and] stood on a level place, and a large crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all of Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast district of Tyre and Sidon,

¹⁸ who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases, and those who were troubled by unclean spirits were cured.

¹⁹And the whole crowd was seeking to touch him, because power was going out from him and healing [them] all.

²⁰And he lifted up his eyes to his disciples [and] said, "Blessed [are] the poor, because yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹Blessed [are] those who are hungry now, because you will be satisfied. Blessed [are] those who weep now, Because you will laugh.

²²Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and revile [you] and spurn your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

²³Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward [is] great in heaven. For their fathers used to do the same [things] to the prophets.

²⁴"But woe to you who are rich, because you have received your comfort.

²⁵Woe to you who are satisfied now, because you will be hungry. Woe, you who laugh now, because you will mourn and weep.

²⁶Woe whenever all people speak well of you, for their fathers used to do the same [things] to the false prophets.

²⁷"But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

²⁹To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from the one who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic also.

³⁰Give to everyone who asks you, and from the one who takes away your things, do not ask for [them back].

³¹And just as you want people _to do_ to you, do _the same_ to them.

³²And if you love those who love you, what kind of credit is [that] to you? For even sinners love those who love them!

³³For even if you do good to those who do good to you, what kind of credit is [that] to you? Even the sinners do the same!

³⁴And if you lend [to those] from whom you expect to receive [back], what kind of credit is [that] to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, so that they may get back an equal [amount]!

³⁵ But love your enemies, and do good, and lend expecting back nothing, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked.

³⁶ Be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful!

³⁷ "And do not judge, and you will never be judged. And do not condemn, and you will never be condemned. Pardon, and you will be pardoned.

³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you, a good measure pressed down, shaken, overflowing they will pour out into your lap. For with the measure by which you measure out, it will be measured out to you in return.

³⁹ And he also told them a parable: "Surely a blind person cannot lead the blind, [can he]? Will they not both fall into a pit?

⁴⁰ A disciple is not superior to [his] teacher, but everyone, [when he] is fully trained, will be like his teacher.

⁴¹ And why do you see the speck [that is] in your brothers eye, but do not notice the beam of wood [that is] in your own eye?

⁴²How are you able to say to your brother, "Brother, allow [me] to remove the speck [that is] in your eye," [while] you yourself do not see the beam of wood in your [own] eye? Hypocrite! First remove the beam of wood from your [own] eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck [that is] in your brothers eye!

⁴³"For there is no good tree that produces bad fruit, nor on the other hand a bad tree that produces good fruit, ⁴⁴for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thorn plants, nor are grapes harvested from thorn bushes.

⁴⁵The good person out of the good treasury of [his] heart brings forth good, and the evil person out of [his] evil [treasury] brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

⁴⁶And why do you call me Lord, Lord, and do not do what I tell [you]?

⁴⁷ "Everyone who comes to me and listens to my words and does them I will show you what he is like:

⁴⁸ he is like a man building a house, who dug and went down deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And [when] a flood came, the river burst against that house and was not able to shake it, because it had been built well.

⁴⁹ But the one who hears [my words] and does not do [them] is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, which the river burst against, and immediately it collapsed and the collapse of that house was great!

7 ¹ After he had finished all his statements in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

² Now a certain centurion's slave, who was esteemed by him, _was sick_ [and] was about to die.

³ So [when he] heard about Jesus, he sent Jewish elders to him, asking him that he would come [and] cure his slave.

⁴ And [when they] came to Jesus, they began imploring him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy [that] you grant this for him, ⁵because he loves our nation and he himself built the synagogue for us.

⁶So Jesus went with them. Now by this time he was not far away from the house, [and] the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy that you should come in under my roof.

⁷For this reason neither did I consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word and my slave must be healed.

⁸For I also am a man placed under authority, who has soldiers under me, and I say to this one, Go! and he goes, and to another one, Come! and he comes, and to my slave, Do this! and he does [it]."

⁹And [when] Jesus heard these [things], he marveled at him, and turning around to the crowd that was following him, he said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith!

¹⁰And [when they] returned to the house, those who had been sent found the slave healthy.

¹¹And it happened that on the next [day] he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him.

¹²And as he approached the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, his mother's only son, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her.

¹³And [when] the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not weep!

¹⁴And he came up [and] touched the bier, and those who were carrying [it] stopped. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!

¹⁵And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and he gave him to his mother.

¹⁶And fear seized [them] all, and they began to glorify God, saying, "A great prophet has appeared among us!" and "God has visited to help his people!

¹⁷And this report about him went out in the whole of Judea and in all the surrounding region.

¹⁸And his disciples reported to John about all these [things]. And summoning a certain two of his disciples, John ¹⁹sent [them] to the Lord, saying, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

²⁰And [when] the men came to him, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to you, saying, Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

²¹In that hour he healed many [people] of diseases and suffering and evil spirits, and he granted sight to many blind [people].

²²And he answered [and] said to them, "Go [and] tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear; the dead are raised, the poor have good news announced to [them], ²³And whoever is not offended by me is blessed.

²⁴And [when] the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?"

²⁵But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are in splendid clothing and luxury are in the royal palaces.

²⁶ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and even more than a prophet!

²⁷ It is this man about whom it is written: Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.

²⁸ I tell you, there is no one greater among [those] born of women than John, but the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

²⁹ (And all the people, [when they] heard [this] even the tax collectors affirmed the righteousness of God, [because they] had been baptized [with] the baptism of John, ³⁰ but the Pharisees and the legal experts rejected the purpose of God for themselves, [because they] had not been baptized by him.)

³¹ To what then shall I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?

³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another, who say, We played the flute for you and you did not dance; we sang a lament and you did not weep.

³³For John the Baptist has come not eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon!

³⁴The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, Behold, a man [who is] a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!

³⁵And wisdom is vindicated by all her children.

³⁶Now one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he entered into the house of the Pharisee [and] reclined at the table.

³⁷And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, [when she] learned that he was dining in the Pharisees house, brought an alabaster flask of perfumed oil, ³⁸and standing behind [him] at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with [her] tears and was wiping [them] with the hair of her head and was kissing his feet and anointing [them] with the perfumed oil.

³⁹Now [when] the Pharisee who invited him saw [this], he spoke to himself, saying, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman [this is] who is touching him, that she is a sinner.

⁴⁰And Jesus answered [and] said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said, "Teacher, say [it]."

⁴¹There were two debtors [who owed] a certain creditor. One owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty.

⁴²[When] they were not able to repay [him], he forgave [the debts] of both. Now which of them will love him more?

⁴³Simon answered [and] said, "I suppose that [it is the one] to whom he forgave more." And he said to him, "You have judged correctly.

⁴⁴And turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house. You did not give me water for [my] feet, but she wet my feet with [her] tears and wiped [them] with her hair.

⁴⁵You did not give me a kiss, but from the time I entered, she has not stopped kissing my feet.

⁴⁶You did not anoint my head with olive oil, but she anointed my feet with perfumed oil.

⁴⁷ _For this reason_ I tell you, her sins[which were] many have been forgiven, for she loved much. But [the one] to whom little is forgiven loves little.

⁴⁸ And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven.

⁴⁹ And those who were reclining at the table with [him] began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?

⁵⁰ And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.

8¹ And it happened that _afterward_ also he was going about from [one] town and village [to another] preaching and proclaiming the good news concerning the kingdom of God, and the twelve [were] with him,

² and some women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (who was called Magdalene), from whom seven demons had gone out,

³ and Joanna the wife of Chuza (Herod's household manager), and Susanna, and many others who were helping to support them from their possessions.

⁴And [while] a large crowd was gathering and [they] were going to him from town [after town], he spoke by means of a parable:

⁵The sower went out to sow his seed, and while he was sowing, _some seed_ fell on the side of the path and was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.

⁶And other [seed] fell on the rock, and [when it] came up, it withered, because it did not have moisture.

⁷And other [seed] fell in the midst of the thorn plants, and the thorn plants grew up with [it] [and] choked it.

⁸And other [seed] fell on the good soil, and [when it] came up, it produced a hundred times as much grain." [As he] said these [things], he called out, "The one who has ears to hear, let him hear!

⁹And his disciples asked him what this parable meant.

¹⁰And he said, "To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest [they are] in parables, so that Seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

¹¹ Now the parable means this: the seed is the word of God,

¹² and those beside the path are the ones who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe [and] be saved.

¹⁴ And the [seed] that fell into the thorn plants these are the ones who hear and [as they] go along are choked by the worries and riches and pleasures of life, and they do not bear fruit to maturity.

¹⁵ But the [seed] on the good soil these are the ones who, [after] hearing the word, hold fast to [it] with a noble and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance.

¹⁷For nothing is secret that will not become evident, and nothing hidden that will never be known and come to light.

¹⁸Therefore consider how you listen, for whoever has, to him [more] will be given, and whoever does not have, even what he thinks [that he] has will be taken away from him.

¹⁹Now his mother and brothers came to him, and they were not able to meet with him because of the crowd.

²⁰And it was reported to him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside wanting to see you.

²¹But he answered [and] said to them, "These are my mother and my brothersthe ones who hear the word of God and do [it].

²²Now it happened that on one of the days both he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they set sail, ²³and [as] they were sailing, he fell asleep. And a storm of wind came down on the lake, and they were being swamped and were in danger.

²⁴ And they came [and] woke him up, saying, "Master, master! We are perishing!" So he got up [and] rebuked the wind and the billowing waves of water and they ceased, and it became calm.

²⁵ And he said to them, "Where [is] your faith?" But they were afraid [and] were astonished, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water and they obey him?"

²⁶ And they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

²⁷ And [as] he got out on the land, a certain man from the town met [him] who had demons and for a considerable time had not worn clothes and did not live in a house, but among the tombs.

²⁸ And [when he] saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, "_What do I have to do with you_, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me!

²⁹ For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For it had seized him many times, and he was bound with chains and shackles [and] was guarded, and breaking the bonds he would be driven by the demon into the deserted places.)

³⁰ So Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered into him.

³¹ And they began imploring him that he would not order them to depart into the abyss.

³² Now there was a large herd of pigs feeding there on the hill, and they implored him that he would permit them to enter into those [pigs]. And he permitted them.

³³ So the demons came out of the man [and] entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed headlong down the steep slope into the lake and were drowned.

³⁴ And [when] the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and reported [it] in the town and in the countryside.

³⁵ So they went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting [there] clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus, and they were afraid.

³⁶ And those who had seen [it] reported to them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been healed.

³⁷ And all the people of the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, because they had been seized with great fear. So he got into the boat [and] returned.

³⁸ And the man from who the demons had gone out was begging him to stay with him, but he sent him away, saying, ³⁹ Return to your home and tell all that God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town all that Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰ Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, because they were all waiting for him.

⁴¹ And behold, a man _who was named_ Jairus came, and this man was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at the feet of Jesus [and] began imploring him to come to his house, ⁴² because _he had_ an only daughter, about twelve years [old], and she was dying. Now as he was going, the crowds were pressing against him.

⁴⁴ came up behind [him] [and] touched the edge of his cloak, and immediately _her hemorrhaging_ stopped.

⁴⁵ And Jesus said, "Who [is] the one who touched me?" And [when they] all denied [it], Peter said, "Master, the crowds are pressing you hard and crowding [you]!"

⁴⁶ But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, because I know power has gone out from me.

⁴⁷ And [when] the woman saw that she did not escape notice, she came trembling and falling down before him. In the presence of all the people, she told for what reason she had touched him, and that she was healed immediately.

⁴⁸ And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace.

⁴⁹ [While] he was still speaking, someone came from the synagogue rulers [house], saying, "Your daughter is dead! Trouble the Teacher no longer!

⁵⁰ But Jesus, [when he] heard [this], replied to him, "Do not be afraid! Only believe, and she will be healed.

⁵¹ Now [when he] came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him except Peter and John and James and the father and mother of the child.

⁵² And they were all weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep! For she is not dead, but is sleeping.

⁵³ And they began laughing at him, [because they] knew that she was dead.

⁵⁴ But he took her hand [and] called, saying, "Child, get up.

⁵⁵ And her spirit returned, and she got up immediately, and he ordered [something] to be given to her to eat.

⁵⁶ And her parents were astonished, but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

9¹ And summoning the twelve, he gave them power and authority over all the demons and to cure diseases, ² and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

³ And he said to them, "Take along nothing for the journeyneither a staff, nor a travelers bag, nor bread, nor money, nor to have two tunics apiece.

⁴And into whatever house you enter, stay there and depart from there.

⁵And [as for] all those who do not welcome you[when you] depart from that town, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

⁶So they departed [and] went throughout the villages, proclaiming the good news and healing everywhere.

⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that John has been raised from the dead, ⁸and by some that Elijah had appeared, and others that some prophet of ancient times had risen.

⁹And Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he was wanting to see him.

¹⁰And [when they] returned, the apostles described to him all that they had done. And he took them along [and] withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.

¹¹ But [when] the crowds found out, they followed him, and welcoming them, he began to speak to them about the kingdom of God, and he cured those who had need of healing.

¹² Now the day began to be far spent, and the twelve came up [and] said to him, "Send away the crowd so that they can go into the surrounding villages and farms to obtain lodging and find provisions, because we are here in a desolate place.

¹³ But he said to them, "You give them [something] to eat!" And they said, "_We have no_ more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go [and] purchase food for all these people.

¹⁴ (For there were about five thousand men.) So he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each.

¹⁵ And they did so, and had [them] all sit down.

¹⁶ And taking the five loaves and the two fish, [and] looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them and began giving [them] to the disciples to set before the crowd.

¹⁷ And [they] all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over was picked up by them twelve baskets of broken pieces.

¹⁸ And it happened that while he was praying alone, the disciples were with him. And he asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say [that] I am?"

¹⁹ And they answered [and] said, "John the Baptist, but others, Elijah, and others, that one of the ancient prophets has risen.

²⁰ And he said to them, "But who do you say [that] I am?" And Peter answered [and] said, "The Christ of God.

²¹ But he warned [and] commanded them to tell this to no one,

²² saying, "It is necessary [for] the Son of Man to suffer many [things] and to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised on the third day.

²³ And he said to [them] all, "If anyone wants to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross every day and follow me.

²⁴ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life on account of me, this person will save it.

²⁵For what is a person benefited [if he] gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself?

²⁶For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of this person when he comes in his glory and the [glory] of the Father and of the holy angels.

²⁷But I tell you truly, there are some of those standing here who will never experience death until they see the kingdom of God.

²⁸Now it happened that about eight days after these words, he took along Peter and John and James [and] went up on the mountain to pray.

²⁹And as he was praying, the appearance of his face became different, and his clothing [became] white, gleaming like lightning.

³⁰And behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, ³¹who appeared in glory [and] were speaking [about] his departure which he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem.

³²Now Peter and those with him were _very sleepy_, but [when they] became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing with him.

³³And it happened that as they were going away from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good [for] us to be here. And let us make three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah," not knowing what he was saying.

³⁴And [while] he was saying these [things], a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.

³⁵And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, [my] Chosen One. Listen to him!

³⁶And after the voice had occurred, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.

³⁷Now it happened that on the next day, [when] they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.

³⁸And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look with concern on my son, because he is my only [son]!"

³⁹ And behold, a spirit seizes him and suddenly he screams, and it convulses him with foam and rarely withdraws from him, battering him severely.

⁴⁰ And I begged your disciples that they would expel it, and they were not able [to do so].

⁴¹ So Jesus answered [and] said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation! _How long_ will I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here!

⁴² And [while] he was still approaching, the demon threw him down and convulsed [him]. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

⁴³ And they were all astounded at the impressiveness of God. @ But [while they]' note *Here "[while]" is supplied as a component of the temporal genitive absolute participle ("marveling")' were all marveling at all [the things] that he was doing, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴ _You take these words to heart_, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men.

⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement, and it was concealed from them so that they could not understand it. And they were afraid to ask him about this statement.

⁴⁶And an argument developed among them as to who of them might be greatest.

⁴⁷But Jesus, [because he] knew the thoughts of their hearts, took hold of a child and had him stand beside him

⁴⁸and said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For the one who is least among you all this one is great.

⁴⁹And John answered [and] said, "Master, we saw someone expelling demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him, because he does not follow in company with us.

⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, "Do not prevent [him], because whoever is not against you is for you.

⁵¹Now it happened that when the days were approaching _for him to be taken up_, he set [his] face to go to Jerusalem.

⁵²And he sent messengers before _him_, and they went [and] entered into a village of the Samaritans in order to prepare for him.

⁵³And they did not welcome him because _he was determined to go_ to Jerusalem.

⁵⁴Now [when] the disciples James and John saw [it], they said, "Lord, do you want us to call fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

⁵⁵But he turned around [and] rebuked them,

⁵⁶and they proceeded to another village.

⁵⁷And [as] they were traveling on the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go!"

⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky [have] nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay [his] head."

⁵⁹And he said to another, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, first allow me to go [and] bury my father."

⁶⁰But he said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead! But you go [and] proclaim the kingdom of God."

⁶¹ And another [person] also said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say farewell to those in my house.

⁶² But Jesus said to him, "No one who puts [his] hand on the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God!

10¹ And after these [things], the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out two by two before _him_ into every town and place where he was about to go.

² And he said to them, "The harvest [is] plentiful, but the workers [are] few. Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest that he send out workers into his harvest.

³ Go! Behold, I am sending you out like lambs in the midst of wolves!

⁴ Do not carry a money bag or a travelers bag or sandals, and greet no one along the road.

⁵ And into whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace [be] to this household!

⁶ And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him. But if not, it will return to you.

⁷ And remain in the same house, eating and drinking _whatever they provide_, for the worker [is] worthy of his pay. Do not move from house to house.

⁸And into whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat _whatever is_ set before you, ⁹and heal the sick in it, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you.

¹⁰But into whatever town you enter and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets [and] say, ¹¹Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you! Nevertheless know this: that the kingdom of God has come near!"

¹²I tell you that it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town!

¹³Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes!

¹⁴But it will be more bearable for Tyre and for Sidon in the judgment than for you!

¹⁵And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No! You will be brought down to Hades!

¹⁶The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me. But the one who rejects me rejects the one who sent me.

¹⁷And the seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!

¹⁸So he said to them, "I saw Satan falling like lightning from heaven.

¹⁹Behold, I have given you the authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will ever harm you.

²⁰Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are inscribed in heaven.

²¹At [that] same time he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these [things] from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to young children. Yes, Father, for this was pleasing before you.

²²All [things] have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father and who the Father is except the Son, and [anyone] to whom the Son wants to reveal [him]."

²³And turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed [are] the eyes that see [the things] which you see!

²⁴For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see [the things] which you see, and did not see [them], and to hear [the things] which you hear, and did not hear [them]."

²⁵And behold, a certain legal expert stood up to test him, saying, "Teacher, what must I do so that I will inherit eternal life?

²⁶And he said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read [it]?"

²⁷And he answered [and] said, "You shall love the Lord your God from all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

²⁸And he said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and you will live.

²⁹ But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

³⁰ Jesus replied [and] said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who both stripped him and beat [him]. [After] inflicting blows on [him], they went away, leaving [him] half dead.

³¹ Now by coincidence a certain priest was going down on that road, and [when he] saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

³² And in the same way also a Levite who happened by the place, [when he] came up to [him] and saw [him], passed by on the opposite side.

³³ But a certain Samaritan who was traveling came up to him and, [when he] saw [him], had compassion.

³⁴ And he came up [and] bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine, and he put him on his own animal [and] brought him to an inn and took care of him.

³⁵ And on the next day, he took out [and] gave two denarii to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him, and whatever you spend in addition, I will repay to you when I return.

³⁶ Which of these three do you suppose became a neighbor of the man who fell among the robbers?

³⁷ So he said, "The one who showed mercy to him." And Jesus said to him, "You go and do likewise.

³⁸ Now as they traveled along, he entered into a certain village. And a certain woman _named_ Martha welcomed him.

³⁹ And _she had_ a sister named Mary, who also sat at the feet of the Lord [and] was listening to his teaching.

⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted with much preparation, so she approached [and] said, "Lord, is it not a concern to you that my sister has left me alone to make preparations? Then tell her that she should help me!

⁴¹ But the Lord answered [and] said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many [things]!

⁴² But one [thing] is necessary, for Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.

11 ¹ And it happened that while he was in a certain place praying, when he stopped a certain one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.

² And he said to them, "When you pray, say, "Father, may your name be treated as holy. May your kingdom come.

³ Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴ And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And do not lead us into temptation.

⁵ And he said to them, "Who of you will have a friend, and will go to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves,

⁶ because a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I do not have anything to set before him.

⁷ And that one will answer from inside [and] say, Do not cause me trouble! The door has already been shut and my children are with me in bed! I am not able to get up to give you [anything].

⁸ I tell you, even if he does not give him [anything] [after he] gets up because [he] is his friend, at any rate because of his impudence he will get up [and] give him whatever he needs.

⁹And I tell you, ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened for you.

¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

¹¹But what father from among you, [if his] son will ask for a fish, instead of a fish will give him a snake?

¹²Or also, [if] he will ask for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

¹³Therefore if you, [although you] are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father from heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?

¹⁴And he was expelling a demon, and it was mute. Now it happened that [when] the demon came out, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowds were astonished.

¹⁵But some of them said, "By Beelzebul the ruler of demons he expels demons!

¹⁶And others, [in order to] test [him], were demanding from him a sign from heaven.

¹⁷But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and _a divided household_ falls.

¹⁸So if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say [that] I expel demons by Beelzebul.

¹⁹But if I expel demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons expel [them]? For this [reason] they will be your judges!

²⁰But if I expel demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you!

²¹When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his possessions are _safe_.

²²But when a stronger man attacks him [and] conquers him, he takes away his full armor in which he trusted and distributes his plunder.

²³The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters.

²⁴ "Whenever an unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it travels through waterless places searching for rest, and does not find [it]. Then it says, I will return to my house from which I came out.

²⁵ And [when it] arrives it finds [the house] swept and put in order.

²⁶ Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and [they] go in [and] live there. And the last [state] of that person becomes worse than the first!

²⁷ Now it happened that as he said these [things], a certain woman from the crowd raised [her] voice [and] said to him, "Blessed [is] the womb that bore you, and [the] breasts [at] which you nursed!

²⁸ But he said, "On the contrary, blessed [are] those who hear the word of God and follow [it]!"

²⁹ And [as] the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation! It demands a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah!

³⁰For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation.

³¹The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, [something] greater than Solomon [is] here!

³²The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and behold, [something] greater than Jonah [is] here!

³³"No one [after] lighting a lamp puts [it] in a cellar or under a bushel basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in can see the light.

³⁴Your eye is the lamp of the body. When your eye is sincere, your whole body is full of light also. But when it is evil, your body [is] dark also.

³⁵Therefore pay careful attention [that] the light in you is not darkness!

³⁶If therefore your whole body [is] full of light, not having any part dark, it will be completely full of light, as when the lamp with [its] light gives light to you.

³⁷ And as he was speaking, a Pharisee asked him _to have a meal_ with him, and he went in [and] reclined at table.

³⁸ And the Pharisee, [when he] saw [it], was astonished that he did not first wash before the meal.

³⁹ But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but your inside is full of greediness and wickedness.

⁴⁰ Fools! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

⁴¹ But give [as] charitable giving the things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you.

⁴² But woe to you, Pharisees, because you pay a tenth of mint and rue and every garden herb, and neglect justice and love for God! But it was necessary to do these [things] without neglecting those things also.

⁴³ Woe to you, Pharisees, because you love the best seat in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces!

⁴⁴Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, and the people who walk over [them] do not know [it]!

⁴⁵And one of the legal experts answered [and] said to him, "Teacher, [when you] say these [things], you insult us also!

⁴⁶So he said, "Woe to you also, legal experts, because you load people [with] burdens hard to bear, and [you] yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers!

⁴⁷Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them!

⁴⁸As a result you are witnesses, and you approve of the deeds of your fathers, because they killed them and you build [their tombs]!

⁴⁹For this [reason] also the wisdom of God said, I will send to them prophets and apostles, and [some] of them they will kill and persecute,

⁵⁰so that the blood of all the prophets that has been shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, ⁵¹from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the temple building. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation!

⁵²Woe to you, legal experts, because you have taken away the key to knowledge! You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering!

⁵³And [when] he departed from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly hostile, and to question him closely about many [things], ⁵⁴plotting to catch him with reference to something _he might say_.

12¹ During _this time_ [when] a crowd of many thousands had gathered together, so that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, "Beware for yourselves of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

²But nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, and secret that will not be made known.

³Therefore everything that you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what _you have whispered_ in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

⁴"And I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after these [things] do not have anything more to do.

⁵But I will show you whom you should fear: fear the one who has authority, after the killing, to throw [you] into hell! Yes, I tell you, fear this one!

⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten in the sight of God.

⁷But even the hairs of your head are all numbered! Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

⁸"And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before people, the Son of Man also will acknowledge him before the angels of God, ⁹but the one who denies me before people will be denied before the angels of God.

¹⁰And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

¹¹But when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you should speak in your own defense or what you should say, ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in [that] same hour what it is necessary to say.

¹³Now someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me!

¹⁴But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?

¹⁵And he said to them, "Watch out and guard yourselves from all greediness, because not [even] when someone has an abundance _does_ his life [consist] of his possessions.

¹⁶And he told a parable to them, saying, "The land of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest.

¹⁷And he reasoned to himself, saying, What should I do? For I do not have anywhere I can gather in my crops.

¹⁸And he said, I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and I will gather in there all my grain and possessions.

¹⁹And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many possessions stored up for many years. Relax, eat, drink, celebrate!"

²⁰ But God said to him, Fool! This night your life is demanded from you, and [the things] which you have prepared whose will they be?

²¹ So [is] the one who stores up treasure for himself, and who is not rich toward God!

²² And he said to his disciples, "For this [reason] I tell you, do not be anxious for [your] life, what you will eat, or for [your] body, what you will wear.

²³ For life is more than food, and the body [more than] clothing.

²⁴ Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap; to them there is neither storeroom nor barn, and God feeds them. How much more are you worth than the birds?

²⁵ And which of you [by] being anxious is able to add an hour to his life span?

²⁶ If then you are not even able [to do] a very little thing, why are you anxious about the rest?

²⁷ Consider the lilies, how they grow: they do not toil or spin, but I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was dressed like one of these.

²⁸ But if God clothes the grass in the field in this way, [although it] is [here] today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more [will he do so for] you, you of little faith?

²⁹ And you, do not consider what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not be anxious.

³⁰ For all the nations of the world seek after these [things], and your Father knows that you need these [things].

³¹ But seek his kingdom and these [things] will be added to you.

³² Do not be afraid, little flock, because your Father is well pleased to give you the kingdom.

³³ Sell your possessions and give charitable gifts. Make for yourselves money bags that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven where thief does not approach or moth destroy.

³⁴ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵ " _You must be prepared for action_ and [your] lamps burning.

³⁶And you, [be] like people who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that [when he] comes back and knocks, they can open [the door] for him immediately.

³⁷Blessed [are] those slaves whom the master will find on the alert [when he] returns! Truly I say to you that he will dress himself for service and have them recline at the table and will come by [and] serve them.

³⁸Even if he should come back in the second or in the third watch of the night and find [them] like this, blessed are they!

³⁹But understand this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief was coming, he would not have left his house to be broken into.

⁴⁰You also must be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not think [he will come]."

⁴¹And Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us, or also for everyone?"

⁴²And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful wise manager whom the master will put in charge over his servants to give [them] [their] food allowance at the right time?

⁴³ Blessed [is] that slave whom his master will find so doing [when he] comes back.

⁴⁴ Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁵ But if that slave should say _to himself_, My master is taking a long time to return, and he begins to beat the male slaves and the female slaves and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶ the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two and assign his place with the unbelievers.

⁴⁷ And that slave who knew the will of his master and did not prepare or do according to his will _will be given a severe beating_.

⁴⁸ But the one who did not know and did [things] deserving blows _will be given a light beating_. And from everyone to whom much has been given, much will be demanded, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will ask him [for] even more.

⁴⁹"I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish that it had been kindled already!

⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am distressed until it is accomplished!

⁵¹Do you think that I have come to grant peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

⁵²For from now on there will be five in one household, divided three against two and two against three.

⁵³They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.

⁵⁴And he also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud coming up in the west, you say at once, A rainstorm is coming, and so it happens.

⁵⁵And when [you see] the south wind blowing, you say, There will be burning heat, and it happens.

⁵⁶Hypocrites! You know how to evaluate the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how [is it] you do not know how to evaluate this present time?

⁵⁷And why do you not also judge for yourselves [what is] right?

⁵⁸For as you are going with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to come to a settlement with him on the way, so that he will not drag you to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the bailiff, and the bailiff will throw you into prison.

⁵⁹I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid back even the last cent!"

13¹ Now at the same time some had come to tell him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

²And he answered [and] said to them, "Do you think that these Galileans were sinners worse than all the Galileans, because they suffered these [things]?"

³No, I tell you, but unless you repent you will all perish as well!

⁴Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them do you think that they were sinners worse than all the people who live in Jerusalem?

⁵No, I tell you, but unless you repent, you will all perish as well!

⁶And he told this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and did not find [any].

⁷So he said to the gardener, Behold, _for three years_ I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and did not find [any]. Therefore cut it down! Why should it even exhaust the soil?

⁸But he answered [and] said to him, Sir, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put manure on [it].

⁹And if indeed it produces fruit in the coming [year], [so much the better], but if not, you can cut it down.

¹⁰Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

¹¹And behold, a woman [was there] who had a spirit _that had disabled her_ [for] eighteen years, and she was bent over and not able to straighten herself up completely.

¹²And [when he] saw her, Jesus summoned [her] and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your disability!

¹³And he placed [his] hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and glorified God.

¹⁴But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, answered [and] said to the crowd, "There are six days on which it is necessary to work. Therefore come [and] be healed on them, and not on the day of the Sabbath!

¹⁵But the Lord answered and said to him, "Hypocrites! Does not each one of you untie his ox or [his] donkey from the feeding trough on the Sabbath and lead [it] away to water [it]?

¹⁶And this woman, who is a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound _eighteen_ long years is it not necessary that she be released from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?

¹⁷And [when] he said these [things], all those who opposed him were humiliated, and the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the splendid things that were being done by him.

¹⁸Therefore he said, "What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?

¹⁹It is like a mustard seed that a man took [and] sowed in his own garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.

²⁰And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

²¹It is like yeast that a woman took [and] put into three measures of wheat flour until the whole [batch] was leavened.

²²And he was going throughout towns and villages, teaching and making [his] journey toward Jerusalem.

²³And someone said to him, "Lord, _are there only_ a few who are saved?" And he said to them,

²⁴Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able to,

²⁵when once the master of the house has gotten up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock [on] the door, saying, Lord, open [the door] for us! And he will answer [and] say to you, I do not know where you are from!

²⁶Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets!

²⁷And he will reply, saying to you, I do not know where you are from! Go away from me, all [you] _evildoers_!

²⁸In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves thrown outside!

²⁹And they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.

³⁰And behold, [some] are last who will be first, and [some] are first who will be last.

³¹At [that] same hour some Pharisees came up [and] said to him, "Go out and depart from here, because Herod wants to kill you!

³²And he said to them, "Go [and] tell that fox, Behold, I am expelling demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third [day] I will complete [my work].

³⁵ Behold, your house has been left to you! And I tell you, you will never see me until [the time] will come when you say, Blessed [is] the one who comes in the name of the Lord!"

14¹ And it happened that when he came to the house of a certain one of the leaders of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat _a meal_, they were watching him closely.

² And behold, a certain man was in front of him, suffering from edema.

³ And Jesus answered [and] said to the legal experts and Pharisees, saying, "Is it permitted to heal on the Sabbath, or not?"

⁴But they remained silent. And he took hold of [him] [and] healed him, and sent [him] away.

⁵And he said to them, "Who among you, [if your] son or [your] ox falls into a well on the day of the Sabbath, will not immediately pull him out?"

⁶And they were not able to make a reply to these [things].

⁷Now he told a parable to those who had been invited [when he] noticed how they were choosing for themselves the places of honor, saying to them,

⁸When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline at the table in the place of honor, lest [someone] more distinguished than you has been invited by him,

⁹and the one who invited you _both_ will come [and] say to you, Give the place to this person, and then with shame you will begin to take the last place.

¹⁰But when you are invited, go [and] recline at the table in the last place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, Friend, move up higher. Then it will be an honor to you in the presence of all those who are reclining at the table with you.

¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

¹²And he also said to the one who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or wealthy neighbors, lest they also invite you [in return], and repayment come to you.

¹³But whenever you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they are not able to repay you. For it will be paid back to you at the resurrection of the righteous.

¹⁵Now [when] one of those reclining at the table with [him] heard these [things], he said to him, "Blessed [is] _everyone who_ will eat bread in the kingdom of God!

¹⁶But he said to him, "A certain man was giving a large banquet and invited many.

¹⁷ And he sent his slave at the hour of the banquet to say to those who have been invited, Come, because now it is ready!

¹⁸ And they all alike began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I have purchased a field, and I must go out to look at it. I ask you, consider me excused.

¹⁹ And another said, I have purchased five yoke of oxen, and I am going to examine them. I ask you, consider me excused.

²⁰ And another said, I have married a wife, and for this [reason] I am not able to come.

²¹ And the slave came [and] reported these [things] to his master. Then the master of the house became angry [and] said to his slave, Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame!

²² And the slave said, Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.

²³ And the master said to the slave, Go out into the highways and hedges and press [them] to come in, so that my house will be filled!

²⁴For I say to you that none of those persons who were invited will taste my banquet!

²⁵Now large crowds were going along with him, and he turned around [and] said to them, ²⁶If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, and furthermore, even his own life, _he cannot be_ my disciple.

²⁷Whoever does not carry his own cross and _follow_ me _cannot be_ my disciple.

²⁸For which of you, wanting to build a tower, does not first sit down [and] calculate the cost [to see] if he has [enough] _to complete it_?

²⁹_Otherwise_ [after] he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish [it], all who see [it] will begin to ridicule him, ³⁰saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish!

³¹Or what king, going out to engage another king in battle, does not sit down first [and] deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand.

³² But if not, [while] [the other] is still far away, he sends an ambassador [and] asks _for terms of_ peace.

³³ In the [same] way, therefore, every [one] of you who does not renounce all his own possessions _cannot be_ my disciple.

³⁴ Now salt [is] good, but if salt becomes tasteless, with what will it be made salty?

³⁵ It is usable neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; they throw it out. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear!

15¹ Now all the tax collectors and the sinners were drawing near to hear him.

² And both the Pharisees and the scribes were complaining, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them!"

³ So he told them this parable, saying,

⁴ What man of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the grassland and go after the one that was lost until he finds it?

⁵And [when he] has found [it], he places [it] on his shoulders, rejoicing.

⁶And [when he] returns to [his] home, he calls together [his] friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost!

⁷I tell you that in the [same] way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

⁸Or what woman who has ten drachmas, if she loses one drachma, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds [it]?

⁹And [when she] has found [it], she calls together [her] friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, because I have found the drachma that I had lost!

¹⁰In the [same] way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

¹¹And he said, "A certain man had two sons.

¹²And the younger of them said to [his] father, Father, give me the share of the property that is coming to [me]. So he divided [his] assets between them.

¹³And after not many days, the younger son gathered everything [and] went on a journey to a distant country, and there he squandered his wealth [by] living wastefully.

¹⁴And [after] he had spent everything, there was a severe famine throughout that country, and he began to be in need.

¹⁵And he went [and] hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to tend pigs.

¹⁶And he was longing to stuff himself with the carob pods that the pigs were eating, and no one was giving [anything] to him.

¹⁷But [when he] came to himself, he said, How many of my fathers hired workers have an abundance _of food_, and I am dying here from hunger!

¹⁸I will set out [and] go to my father and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and _in your sight_!

¹⁹I am no longer worthy to be called your son! Make me like one of your hired workers.

²⁰And he set out [and] came to his own father. But [while] he was still a long way away, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran _and embraced him_ and kissed him.

²¹And [his] son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and _in your sight_! I am no longer worthy to be called your son!

²²But [his] father said to his slaves, Quickly bring out the best robe and put [it] on him, and put a ring on his finger and sandals on [his] feet!

²³And bring the fattened calkill [it] and let us eat [and] celebrate, ²⁴because this son of mine was dead, and is alive again! He was lost and is found! And they began to celebrate.

²⁵Now his older son was in the field, and when he came [and] approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

²⁶And he summoned one of the slaves [and] asked what these [things] meant.

²⁷And he said to him, Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has gotten him back healthy.

²⁸ But he became angry and did not want to go in. So his father came out [and] began to implore him.

²⁹ But he answered [and] said to his father, Behold, so many years I have served you, and have never disobeyed your command! And you never gave me a young goat so that I could celebrate with my friends!

³⁰ But when this son of yours returned who has consumed your assets with prostitutes you killed the fattened calf for him!

³¹ But he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and _everything I have belongs to you_.

³² But it was necessary to celebrate and to rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead, and is alive, and was lost, and is found!

16¹ And he also said to the disciples, "A certain man was rich, who had a manager. And charges were brought to him that this person was squandering his possessions.

²And he summoned him [and] said to him, What is this I hear about you? Give the account of your management, because you can no longer manage.

³And the manager said to himself, What should I do, because my master is taking away the management from me? I am not strong enough to dig; I am ashamed to beg.

⁴I know what I should do, so that when I am removed from the management they will welcome me into their homes!

⁵And he summoned each one of his own masters debtors [and] said to the first, How much do you owe my master?

⁶And he said, A hundred measures of olive oil. So he said to him, Take your promissory note and sit down quickly [and] write fifty.

⁷Then he said to another, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He said to him, Take your promissory note and write eighty.

⁸And the master praised the dishonest manager, because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are shrewder than the sons of light with regard to their own generation.

⁹And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it runs out they will welcome you into the eternal dwellings.

¹⁰The one who [is] faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and the one who [is] dishonest in very little is also dishonest in much.

¹¹If then you have not been faithful with unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true [riches]?

¹²And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you your own?

¹³No domestic slave is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and money.

¹⁴Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these [things], and they ridiculed him.

¹⁵And he said to them, "You are the ones who justify themselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts! For [what is] [considered] exalted among men [is] an abomination in the sight of God.

¹⁶The law and the prophets [were] until John; from that time [on] the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is urgently pressed into it.

¹⁷But it is easier [for] heaven and earth to pass away than [for] one stroke of a letter of the law to become invalid.

¹⁸"Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and the one who marries a woman divorced from [her] husband commits adultery.

¹⁹"Now a certain man was rich, and dressed [in] purple cloth and fine linen, feasting sumptuously every day.

²⁰And a certain poor man _named_ Lazarus, covered with sores, lay at his gate, ²¹and was longing to be filled with what fell from the table of the rich man. But even the dogs came [and] licked his sores.

²²Now it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried away by the angels to _Abrahams side_. And the rich man also died and was buried.

²³ And in Hades he lifted up his eyes [as he] was in torment [and] saw Abraham from a distance, and Lazarus _at his side_.

²⁴ And he called out [and] said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus so that he could dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am suffering pain in this flame!

²⁵ But Abraham said, Child, remember that you received your good [things] during your life, and Lazarus likewise bad [things]. But now he is comforted here, but you are suffering pain.

²⁶ And in [addition to] all these [things], a great chasm has been established between us and you, so that those who want to cross over from here to you are not able [to do so], nor can they cross over from there to us.

²⁷ So he said, Then I ask you, father, that you send him to my fathers house, ²⁸ for I have five brothers, so that he could warn them, in order that they also should not come to this place of torment!

²⁹ But Abraham said, They have Moses and the prophets; they must listen to them.

³⁰And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent!

³¹But he said to him, If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone rises from the dead.

17 ¹And he said to his disciples, "It is impossible for causes for stumbling not to come, but woe [to him] through whom they come!

²It would be better for him if _a millstone_ is placed around his neck and he is thrown into the sea than that he causes one of these little ones to sin.

³Be concerned about yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him.

⁴And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times he returns to you saying, I repent, you must forgive him.

⁵And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!

⁶So the Lord said, "If you have faith like a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, Be uprooted and planted in the sea, and it would obey you.

⁷ And which of you who has a slave plowing or shepherding [sheep] who comes in from the field will say to him, Come here at once [and] recline at the table?

⁸ Will he not rather say to him, Prepare something that I may eat, and dress yourself to serve me while I eat and drink, and after these [things] you will eat and drink.

⁹ He will not _be grateful_ to the slave because he did what was ordered, [will he]?

¹⁰ Thus you also, when you have done all the _things you were ordered to do_, say, We are unworthy slaves; we have done what we were obligated to do.

¹¹ And it happened that while traveling toward Jerusalem, he was passing through _the region between_ Samaria and Galilee.

¹² And [as] he was entering into a certain village, ten men met him lepers, who stood at a distance.

¹³ And they raised [their] voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

¹⁴ And [when he] saw [them] he said to them, "Go [and] show yourselves to the priests." And it happened that as they were going, they were cleansed.

¹⁵ But one of them, [when he] saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.

¹⁶ And he fell on [his] face at his feet, giving thanks to him. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ So Jesus answered [and] said, "Were not ten cleansed? And where [are] the nine?

¹⁸ Was no one found to turn back [and] give praise to God except this foreigner?

¹⁹ And he said to him, "Get up [and] go your way. Your faith has saved you.

²⁰ Now [when he] was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with _things that can be observed_, ²¹ nor will they say, Behold, here [it is]! or There! For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst.

²² And he said to the disciples, "Days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see [it].

²³ And they will say to you, Behold, there! or Behold, here! Do not go out or run after [them]!

²⁴ For just as the lightning shines forth, flashing from [one place] under heaven to [another place] under heaven, so the Son of Man will be in his day.

²⁵ But first it is necessary [for] him to suffer many [things], and to be rejected by this generation.

²⁶ And just as it was in the days of Noah, so also it will be in the days of the Son of Man

²⁷ they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed [them] all.

²⁸ Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building.

²⁹ But on the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulphur from heaven and destroyed [them] all.

³⁰ It will be _just the same_ on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

³¹ On that day, whoever is on the housetop and his goods [are] in the house must not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who [is] in the field must not turn back ³² Remember Lot's wife!

³³ Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses [it] will keep it.

³⁴ I tell you that in that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken and the other will be left.

³⁵ There will be two [women] grinding at the same [place]; one will be taken and the other will be left."

³⁶ EMPTY

³⁷ And they answered [and] said to him, "Where, Lord?" So he said to them, "Where the dead body [is], there also the vultures will be gathered.

18¹ And he told them a parable to [show that] they must always pray and not be discouraged, ² saying, "There was a certain judge in a certain town who did not fear God and did not respect people.

³And there was a widow in that town, and she kept coming to him, saying, Grant me justice against my adversary!

⁴And he was not willing for a time, but after these [things] he said to himself, Even if I do not fear God or respect people, ⁵yet because this widow is causing trouble for me, I will grant her justice, so that she does not wear me down in the end [by her] coming back!

⁶And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge is saying!

⁷And will not God surely _see to it that justice is done_ to his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night, and will he delay toward them?

⁸I tell you that _he will see to it that justice is done_ for them soon! Nevertheless, [when] the Son of Man comes, then will he find faith on earth?

⁹And he also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and looked down on _everyone else_:

¹⁰Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

¹¹ The Pharisee stood [and] prayed these [things] with reference to himself: God, I give thanks to you that I am not like other peopleswindlers, unrighteous [people], adulterers, or even like this tax collector!

¹² I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all that I get.

¹³ But the tax collector, standing far away, did not want even to raise his eyes to heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner!

¹⁴ I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than that one! For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

¹⁵ Now they were bringing even [their] babies to him so that he could touch them. But [when] the disciples saw [it], they rebuked them.

¹⁶ But Jesus called them to himself, saying, "Allow the children to come to me, and do not forbid them, _for to such belongs_ the kingdom of God.

¹⁷ Truly I say to you, whoever does not welcome the kingdom of God like a young child will never enter into it.

¹⁸And a certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, [by] doing what will I inherit eternal life?

¹⁹And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one [is] good except God alone.

²⁰You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother."

²¹And he said, "All these I have observed from [my] youth.

²²And [when he] heard [this], Jesus said to him, "_You still lack one thing_: Sell all that you have, and distribute [the proceeds] to the poorand you will have treasure in heavenand come, follow me.

²³But [when he] heard these [things] he became very sad, because he was extremely wealthy.

²⁴And [when] Jesus saw him becoming very sad, he said, "How _difficult it is for_ those who possess wealth to enter into the kingdom of God!

²⁵For it is easier [for] a camel to go through the eye of a needle than [for] a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.

²⁶ So those who heard [this] said, "And who can be saved?

²⁷ But he said, "[What is] impossible with men is possible with God.

²⁸ And Peter said, "Behold, we have left _all that is ours_ [and] followed you.

²⁹ And he said to them, "Truly I say to you that there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children on account of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who will not receive many times more in this time and in the age to come, eternal life.

³¹ And taking aside the twelve, he said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written by the prophets with reference to the Son of Man will be accomplished.

³² For he will be handed over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and mistreated and spit on,

³³ and [after] flogging [him] they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise.

³⁴ And they understood none of these [things], and this saying was concealed from them, and they did not comprehend the things that were said.

³⁵ Now it happened that as he drew near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting on the side of the road begging.

³⁶ And [when he] heard a crowd going by, he inquired what this meant.

³⁷ And they told him, "Jesus the Nazarene is passing by.

³⁸ And he called out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!

³⁹ And those who were in front rebuked him, that he should be silent, but he cried out _even more loudly_, "Son of David, have mercy on me!

⁴⁰ So Jesus stopped [and] ordered him to be brought to him. And [when] he approached, he asked him, ⁴¹ What do you want me to do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may regain [my] sight.

⁴² And Jesus said to him, "Regain [your] sight! Your faith has saved you.

⁴³ And immediately he regained [his] sight and began to follow him, glorifying God. And all the people, [when they] saw [it], gave praise to God.

19¹ And he entered [and] traveled through Jericho.

²And _there was_ a man _named_ Zacchaeus, and he was a chief tax collector, and he [was] rich.

³And he was seeking to see Jesus who he was and he was not able to as a result of the crowd, because he was short in stature.

⁴And he ran on ahead [and] climbed up into a sycamore tree so that he could see him, because he was going to go through [that way].

⁵And when he came to the place,
Jesus looked up [and] said to him,
"Zacchaeus, come down quickly, because it is necessary [for] me to stay at your house today!

⁶And he came down quickly and welcomed him joyfully.

⁷And [when they] saw [it], they all began to complain, saying, "He has gone in to find lodging with a man who is a sinner!

⁸And Zacchaeus stopped [and] said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I am giving to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone, I am paying [it] back four times [as much]!"

⁹And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham.

¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save those who are lost.

¹¹Now [while] they were listening to these [things], he went on [and] told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

¹²Therefore he said, "A certain nobleman traveled to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.

¹³And summoning ten of his own slaves, he gave them ten minas and said to them, Do business _until I come back_.

¹⁴But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, We do not want this man to be king over us!

¹⁵And it happened that when he returned [after] receiving the kingdom, he ordered these slaves to whom he had given the money to be summoned to him, so that he could know what they had gained by trading.

¹⁶ So the first arrived, saying, Sir, your mina has made ten minas more!

¹⁷ And he said to him, Well done, good slave! Because you have been faithful in a very small thing, _have authority_ over ten cities.

¹⁸ And the second came, saying, Sir, your mina has made five minas.

¹⁹ So he said to this one also, And you be over five cities.

²⁰ And another came, saying, Sir, behold your mina, which I had put away for safekeeping in a piece of cloth.

²¹ For I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man; you withdraw what you did not deposit, and you reap what you did not sow!

²² He said to him, _By your own words_ I will judge you, wicked slave! You knew that I am a severe man, withdrawing what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow.

²³ And why did you not give my money to the bank, and I, [when I] returned, would have collected it with interest?

²⁴ And to the bystanders he said, Take away from him the mina and give [it] to the one who has the ten minas!

²⁵ And they said to him, Sir, he has ten minas.

²⁶ I tell you that to everyone who has, [more] will be given. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.

²⁷ But these enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them bring [them] here and slaughter them [in] my presence!

²⁸ And [after he] had said these [things], he traveled on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹ And it happened that when he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, to the hill called [the Mount] of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, ³⁰ saying, Go into the village in front of [you], in which [as you] enter you will find a colt tied, on which _no person has ever_ sat, and untie it [and] bring [it].

³¹ And if anyone asks you, Why are you untying [it]? you will say this: The Lord has need of it.

³² So those who were sent went [and] found [it] just as he had told them.

³³ And [as] they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, Why are you untying the colt?

³⁴ So they said, The Lord has need of it.

³⁵ And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their cloaks on the colt, they put Jesus [on it].

³⁶ And [as] he was going along, they were spreading out their cloaks on the road.

³⁷ Now [as] he was drawing near by this time to the descent from the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began rejoicing to praise God with a loud voice for all the miracles that they had seen, ³⁸ saying, "Blessed [is] the king, the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!

³⁹ And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!

⁴⁰ And he answered [and] said, "I tell you, if these keep silent, the stones will cry out!

⁴¹ And when he approached [and] saw the city, he wept over it, ⁴²saying, "If you had known on this day even you the things [that make] for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

⁴³For days will come upon you and your enemies will put up an embankment against you, and will surround you and press you hard from all directions.

⁴⁴And they will raze you to the ground, [you] and your children within you, and will not leave a stone upon a stone within you, _because_ you did not recognize the time of your visitation.

⁴⁵And he entered into the temple [courts] [and] began to drive out those who were selling, ⁴⁶saying to them, "It is written, And my house will be a house of prayer, but you have made it a cave of robbers!

⁴⁷And he was teaching every day in the temple [courts], and the chief priests and the scribes and the most prominent men of the people were seeking to destroy him.

⁴⁸And they did not find anything they could do, because all the people were paying close attention to [what] they were hearing from him.

20¹ And it happened that on one of the days [while] he was teaching the people in the temple [courts] and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes approached together with the elders

² and said, saying to him, "Tell us, by what authority you are doing these [things], or who is the one who gave you this authority?

³ And he answered [and] said to them, "I also will ask you a question, and you tell me:

⁴ The baptism of John was [it] from heaven or from men?

⁵ And they discussed [this] with one another, saying, "If we say From heaven, he will say, Why did you not believe him?

⁶ But if we say, From men, all the people will stone us to death, because they are convinced [that] John was a prophet.

⁷ And they replied [that they] did not know where [it was] from.

⁸ And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these [things].

⁹ And he began to tell the people this parable: "A certain man planted a vineyard, and leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time.

¹⁰And at the proper time he sent a slave to the tenant farmers, so that they would give him [some] of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenant farmers sent him away empty-handed [after] beating [him].

¹¹And he proceeded to send another slave, but they beat and dishonored that one also, [and] sent [him] away empty-handed.

¹²And he proceeded to send a third, but they wounded [and] threw out this one also.

¹³So the owner of the vineyard said, What should I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.

¹⁴But [when] the tenant farmers saw him, they began to reason with one another, saying, This is the heir. Let us kill him so that the inheritance will become ours!

¹⁵And they threw him out of the vineyard [and] killed [him]. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

¹⁶He will come and destroy those tenant farmers and give the vineyard to others." And [when they] heard [this], they said, "[May this] never happen!

¹⁷But he looked intently at them [and] said, "What then is this that is written: The stone which the builders rejected, this has become _the cornerstone_.

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and [the one] on whom it fallsit will crush him!

¹⁹And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay [their] hands on him at [that] same hour, and they were afraid of the people, for they knew that he had told this parable with reference to them.

²⁰And they watched [him] closely [and] sent spies who pretended they were upright, in order that they could catch him in a statement, so that they could hand him over to the authority and the jurisdiction of the governor.

²¹And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and do not _show partiality_, but teach the way of God in truth.

²²Is it permitted [for] us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?

²³ But seeing through their craftiness, he said to them,

²⁴ Show me a denarius! Whose image and inscription does it have?" And they said, "Caesars.

²⁵ So he said to them, "Well then, give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God!

²⁶ And they were not able to catch him in a statement in the sight of the people, and astonished at his answer, they became silent.

²⁷ Now some of the Sadducees who deny _that there is a resurrection_ came up [and] asked him, ²⁸ saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us if someones brother dies having a wife, and this man is childless, that his brother should take the wife and _father_ descendants for his brother.

²⁹ Now there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife [and] died childless,

³⁰ and the second,

³¹ and the third took her, and likewise also the seven did not leave children and died.

³² Finally the woman also died.

³³ Therefore in the resurrection, the woman whose wife will she be? For the seven had her [as] wife.

³⁴ And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage,

³⁵ but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and [to] the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage,

³⁶ for they are not even able to die any longer, because they are like the angels and are sons of God, [because they] are sons of the resurrection.

³⁷ But that the dead are raised, even Moses revealed in [the passage about] the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and [the] God of Isaac and [the] God of Jacob.

³⁸ Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him!

³⁹ And some of the scribes answered [and] said, "Teacher, you have spoken well.

⁴⁰ For they no longer dared to ask him anything.

⁴¹ But he said to them, "In what sense do they say [that] the Christ is Davids son?

⁴² For David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, ⁴³ until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

⁴⁴ David therefore calls him Lord, and how is he his son?

⁴⁵ And [while] all the people were listening, he said to his disciples,

⁴⁶ Beware of the scribes, who like walking around in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets, ⁴⁷ who devour the houses of widows and pray lengthy [prayers] for the sake of appearance. These will receive more severe condemnation!

21 ¹ And he looked up [and] saw the rich putting their gifts into the contribution box, ² and he saw a certain poor widow putting in there two small copper coins.

³And he said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow put in more than all [of them].

⁴For these all put [gifts] into the offering out of their abundance, but this [woman] out of her poverty put in all the means of subsistence that she had.

⁵And [while] some were speaking about the temple, that it was adorned with precious stones and votive offerings, he said,

⁶[As for] these [things] that you seedays will come in which not [one] stone will be left on [another] stone that will not be thrown down!

⁷And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these [things] happen, and what [will be] the sign when these [things] are about to take place?

⁸And he said, Watch out that you are not deceived! For many will come in my name, saying, I am [he], and The time is near! Do not go after them!

⁹And when you hear about wars and insurrections, do not be terrified, for these [things] must happen first, but the end [will] not [be] at once.

¹⁰Then he said to them, "nation will rise up against nation and kingdom against kingdom.

¹¹There will be great earthquakes and famines and plagues in [various] places. There will be terrible sights and great signs from heaven.

¹²"But before all these [things], they will lay their hands on you and will persecute [you], handing [you] over to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and governors because of my name.

¹³This will turn out to you for a [time of] witness.

¹⁴_Therefore make up your minds_ not to prepare in advance to speak in your own defense, ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom that all your opponents will not be able to resist or contradict.

¹⁶And you will be handed over even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put to death [some] of you.

¹⁷And you will be hated by all because of my name.

¹⁸Even a hair of your head will never perish!

¹⁹By your patient endurance you will gain your lives.

²⁰"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

²¹Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those _inside it_ must depart, and those in the fields must not enter into it, ²²because these are days of vengeance, [so that] all the things that are written can be fulfilled.

²³Woe to those _who are pregnant_ and to those who are nursing [their babies] in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people, ²⁴and they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

²⁵"And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress of nations in perplexity from the noise of the sea and [its] surging, ²⁶people fainting from fear and expectation of what is coming on the inhabited earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

²⁷And then they will see the Son of Man arriving in a cloud with power and great glory.

²⁸But [when] these [things] begin to happen, stand up straight and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near!

²⁹And he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees.

³⁰When they put out [foliage], now you see for yourselves [and] know that by this time the summer is near.

³¹So also you, when you see these [things] happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.

³²Truly I say to you that this generation will never pass away until all [things] take place!

³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁴"But take care for yourselves, lest your hearts are weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of daily life, and that day come upon you suddenly ³⁵like a trap. For it will come upon all who reside on the face of the whole earth.

³⁶But be alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these [things] [that] are going to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.

³⁷So [throughout] the days he was teaching in the temple [courts], and [throughout] the nights he was going out [and] spending the night on the hill that is called [the Mount] of Olives.

³⁸And all the people were getting up very early in the morning [to come] to him in the temple [courts] to listen to him.

22¹ Now the feast of Unleavened Bread (which is called Passover) was drawing near.

²And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they could destroy him, because they were afraid of the people.

³And Satan entered into Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve.

⁴And he went away [and] discussed with the chief priests and officers of the temple guard how he could betray him to them.

⁵And they were delighted, and came to an agreement with him to give [him] money.

⁶And he agreed, and began looking for a favorable opportunity to betray him to them apart from the crowd.

⁷And the day of the feast of Unleavened Bread came, on which it was necessary [for] the Passover lamb to be sacrificed.

⁸And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Go [and] prepare the Passover for us, so that we may eat [it]."

⁹So they said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare [it]?"

¹⁰And he said to them, "Behold, [when] you have entered into the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters.

¹¹And you will say to the master of the house, The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"

¹²And he will show you a large furnished upstairs room. Make preparations there.

¹³So they went [and] found [everything] just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴And when the hour came, he reclined at the table, and the apostles with him.

¹⁵And he said to them, "_I have earnestly desired_ to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

¹⁶For I tell you that I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

¹⁷And he took in hand a cup, [and] [after] giving thanks he said, "Take this and share [it] among yourselves.

¹⁸For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the product of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.

¹⁹And he took bread, [and] [after] giving thanks, he broke [it] and gave [it] to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

²⁰And in the same way the cup after [they] had eaten, saying, "This cup [is] the new covenant in my blood which is poured out for you.

²¹ But behold, the hand of the one who is betraying me [is] with me on the table!

²² For the Son of Man is going according to what has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!

²³ And they began to debate with one another who then of them it could be who was going to do this.

²⁴ And a dispute also occurred among them as to which of them was recognized as being greatest.

²⁵ So he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called benefactors.

²⁶ But you [are] not [to be] like this! But the one who is greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves.

²⁷ For who [is] greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? [Is it] not the one who reclines at the table? But I am in your midst as the one who serves.

²⁸And you are the ones who have remained with me in my trials,

²⁹and I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred on me, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹"Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has demanded to sift you like wheat, ³²but I have prayed for you, that your faith may not fail. And you, [when] once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.

³³But he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!

³⁴And he said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times [that you] know me!

³⁵And he said to them, "When I sent you out without a money bag and a travelers bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, [did you]?" And they said, "Nothing.

³⁶And he said to them, "But now the one who has a money bag must take [it], and likewise a travelers bag. And the one who does not have a sword must sell his cloak and buy [one].

³⁷ For I tell you that this that is written must be fulfilled in me: And he was counted with the criminals. For indeed, [what is written] about me _is being fulfilled_."

³⁸ So they said, "Lord, behold, here [are] two swords!" And he said to them, "It is adequate.

³⁹ And he went away [and] proceeded, according to [his] custom, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him.

⁴⁰ And [when] he came to the place, he said to them, "Pray that you will not enter into temptation.

⁴¹ And he withdrew from them about a stones throw and _knelt down_ [and] began to pray, ⁴² saying, "Father, if you are willing, take away this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will but yours be done.

⁴³ [[And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.

⁴⁴ And being in anguish, he began praying more fervently and his sweat became like drops of blood falling down to the ground.]]

⁴⁵ And [when he] got up from the prayer [and] came to the disciples, he found them sleeping from sorrow, ⁴⁶ and he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up [and] pray that you will not enter into temptation!

⁴⁷ [While] he was still speaking, behold, [there came] a crowd, and the one named Judas, one of the twelve, leading them. And he approached Jesus to kiss him.

⁴⁸ But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?

⁴⁹ And [when] those around him saw what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, should we strike with the sword?

⁵⁰ And a certain one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

⁵¹ But Jesus answered [and] said, "_Stop! No more of this!_" And he touched [his] ear [and] healed him.

⁵² And Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders who had come out against him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a robber?

⁵³Every day [when] I was with you in the temple [courts], you did not stretch out [your] hands against me! But this is your hour and the domain of darkness!

⁵⁴And they arrested him [and] led [him] away and brought [him] into the house of the high priest. But Peter was following at a distance.

⁵⁵And [when they] had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat down among them.

⁵⁶And a certain female slave, seeing him sitting in the light and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him!

⁵⁷But he denied [it], saying, "Woman, I do not know him!

⁵⁸And after a short time another person saw him [and] said, "You also are [one] of them!" But Peter said, "Man, I am not!

⁵⁹And [after] about one hour had passed, someone else was insisting, saying, "In truth this man also was with him, because he is also a Galilean!

⁶⁰But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about!"

And immediately, [while] he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

⁶¹ And the Lord turned around [and] looked intently at Peter. And Peter remembered the Lord's statement, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times.

⁶² And he went outside [and] wept bitterly.

⁶³ And the men who were guarding him began to mock him [while] they beat [him], ⁶⁴ and [after] blindfolding him they repeatedly asked [him], saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?

⁶⁵ And they were saying many other [things] against him, reviling [him].

⁶⁶ And when day came, the council of elders of the people gathered, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away to their Sanhedrin, ⁶⁷ saying, "If you are the Christ, tell us!" But he said to them, "If I tell you, you will never believe,

⁶⁸ and if I ask [you], you will never answer!

⁶⁹ But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.

⁷⁰ So they all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You say that I am.

⁷¹ And they said, "Why do we have need [of] further testimony? For [we] ourselves have heard [it] from his mouth!

23¹ And the whole assembly of them rose up [and] brought him before Pilate.

² And they began to accuse him, saying, "We have found this man misleading our nation and forbidding [us] to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying [he] himself is Christ, a king!

³ And Pilate asked him, saying, "Are you the king of the Jews?" And he answered him [and] said, "You say [so].

⁴ So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for an accusation against this man.

⁵ But they insisted, saying, "He incites the people, teaching throughout the whole of Judea and beginning from Galilee as far as here.

⁶Now [when] Pilate heard [this], he asked if the man was a Galilean.

⁷And [when he] found out that he was from the jurisdiction of Herod, he sent him over to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem in those days.

⁸And [when] Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see some miracle performed by him.

⁹So he questioned him _at considerable length_, but he answered nothing to him.

¹⁰And the chief priests and the scribes were standing there vehemently accusing him.

¹¹And Herod with his soldiers also treated him with contempt, and [after] mocking [him] [and] dressing [him] [in] glistening clothing, he sent him back to Pilate.

¹²And both Herod and Pilate became friends with one another on [that] same day, _for they had previously been enemies of one another_.

¹³So Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people

¹⁴ [and] said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was misleading the people, and behold, [when I] examined [him] before you, I found nothing in this man as basis for the accusation which _you are making_ against him.

¹⁵ But neither [did] Herod, because he sent him back to us. And behold, nothing deserving death _has been done_ by him.

¹⁶ Therefore I will punish him [and] release [him]."

¹⁷ EMPTY

¹⁸ But they all cried out in unison, saying, "Take this man away, and release for us Barabbas!

¹⁹ (who had been thrown in prison because of a certain insurrection that had taken place in the city, and [for] murder).

²⁰ And Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again, ²¹ but they kept crying out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!

²² So he said to them a third [time], "Why? What wrong has this man done? I found no basis for an accusation deserving death in him. Therefore I will punish him [and] release [him]."

²³ But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries [that] he be crucified. And their cries prevailed.

²⁴ And Pilate decided [that] their demand should be granted.

²⁵ And he released the one who had been thrown into prison because of insurrection and murder, whom they were asking for, but Jesus he handed over to their will.

²⁶ And as they led him away, they seized Simon, a certain [man] of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, [and] placed the cross on him, to carry [it] behind Jesus.

²⁷ And a great crowd of the people were following him, and of women who were mourning and lamenting him.

²⁸ But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children!

²⁹ For behold, days are coming in which they will say, Blessed [are] the barren, and the wombs that did not give birth, and [the] breasts that did not nurse!

³⁰Then they will begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! and to the hills, Cover us!

³¹For if they do these [things] _when the wood is green_, what will happen _when it is dry_?"

³²And two other criminals were also led away to be executed with him.

³³And when they came to the place that is called "The Skull," there they crucified him, and the criminals, the one on [his] right and the other on [his] left.

³⁴[[But Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."]] And they cast lots to divide his clothes.

³⁵And the people stood there watching, but the rulers also ridiculed [him], saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if this [man] is the Christ of God, the Chosen One!

³⁶And the soldiers also mocked him, coming up [and] offering him sour wine ³⁷and saying, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself!

³⁸And there was also an inscription over him, "This [is] the king of the Jews.

³⁹ And one of the criminals who were hanged there reviled him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

⁴⁰ But the other answered [and] rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, because you are undergoing the same condemnation?"

⁴¹ And we indeed justly, for we are receiving _what we deserve_ [for] what we have done. But this man has done nothing wrong!

⁴² And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom!"

⁴³ And he said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

⁴⁴ And by this time it was about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour

⁴⁵ [because] [the light] of the sun failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn apart [down] the middle.

⁴⁶ And Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit!" And [after he] said this, he expired.

⁴⁷ Now [when] the centurion saw what had happened, he began to praise

God, saying, "Certainly this man was righteous!

⁴⁸And all the crowds that had come together for this spectacle, [when they] saw the things that had happened, returned [home] beating [their] breasts.

⁴⁹And all his acquaintances, and the women who had followed him from Galilee who saw these [things], stood at a distance.

⁵⁰And behold, a man _named_ Joseph, who was a member of the council and a good and righteous man

⁵¹(this man was not consenting to their plan and deed), from Arimathea, _a Judean town_, who was looking forward to the kingdom of God.

⁵²This man approached Pilate [and] asked for the body of Jesus.

⁵³And he took [it] down [and] wrapped it in a linen cloth and placed him in a tomb cut into the rock where no one had ever been placed.

⁵⁴And it was the day of preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near.

⁵⁵And the women who had been accompanying him from Galilee followed

[and] saw the tomb and how his body was placed.

⁵⁶And they returned [and] prepared fragrant spices and perfumes, and on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24¹ Now on the first [day] of the week, at very early dawn, they came back to the tomb bringing the fragrant spices which they had prepared.

²And they found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb, ³but [when they] went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴And it happened that while they were perplexed about this, behold, two men in gleaming clothing stood near them.

⁵And [as] they were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them, "Why are you looking for the living among the dead?

⁶He is not here, but has been raised! Remember how he spoke to you [while he] was still in Galilee, ⁷saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of men [who are] sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise?

⁸And they remembered his words,
⁹and [when they] returned from the tomb, they reported all these [things] to the eleven and to all the rest.

¹⁰Now Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the [mother] of James and the others with them were telling these [things] to the apostles.

¹¹And these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they refused to believe them.

¹²But Peter got up [and] ran to the tomb, and bending over to look, he saw only the [strips of] linen cloth, and he went away to his home wondering what had happened.

¹³And behold, on [that] same day, two of them were traveling to a village _named_ Emmaus [that was] sixty stadia distant from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and they were conversing with one another about all these [things] that had happened.

¹⁵And it happened that while they were conversing, and discussing, Jesus himself also approached [and] began to go along with them, ¹⁶but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

¹⁷And he said to them, "What [are] these matters that you are discussing with one another [as you] are walking along?" And they stood still, looking sad.

¹⁸And one [of them], _named_ Cleopas, answered [and] said to him, "[Are] you the only one living near Jerusalem and not knowing the things that have happened in it in these days?

¹⁹And he said to them, "What [things]?" So they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, a man who was a prophet, powerful in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰and how our chief priests and rulers handed him over to a sentence of death, and crucified him.

²¹But we were hoping that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. But in addition to all these [things], this [is] the third day _since_ these [things] took place.

²²But also some women from among us astonished us, who were at the tomb early in the morning,

²³and [when they] did not find his body, they came back saying [they] had seen even a vision of angels, who said [that] he was alive!

²⁴And some of those with us went out to the tomb and found [it] like this, just as the women had also said, but him they did not see.

²⁵And he said to them, "O foolish and slow in heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!

²⁶Was it not necessary [that] the Christ suffer these [things] and enter into his glory?

²⁷And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things concerning himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he acted as though he was going farther.

²⁹And they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is [getting] toward evening, and by this time the day is far spent." And he went in to stay with them.

³⁰And it happened that when he reclined at the table with them, he took the bread [and] gave thanks, and [after] breaking [it], he gave [it] to them.

³¹ And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he became invisible to them.

³² And they said to one another, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was speaking with us on the road, while he was explaining the scriptures to us?

³³ And they got up [that] same hour [and] returned to Jerusalem and found the eleven and those with them assembled, ³⁴ saying, "The Lord has really been raised, and has appeared to Simon!

³⁵ And they began describing _what happened_ on the road, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶ And [while] they were saying these [things], he himself stood there among them and said to them, "Peace to you!

³⁷ But they were startled and became terrified, [and] thought [they] had seen a ghost.

³⁸ And he said to them, "Why are you frightened? And for what [reason] do doubts arise in your hearts?

³⁹Look at my hands and my feet, that I am I myself! Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as _you see that I have_."

⁴⁰And [when he] had said this, he showed them [his] hands and [his] feet.

⁴¹And [while] they were still disbelieving because of joy and were marveling, he said to them, "Do you have anything _to eat_ here?"

⁴²So they gave him a piece of broiled fish,

⁴³and he took [it] [and] ate [it] in front of them.

⁴⁴And he said to them, "These [are] my words that I spoke to you [while I] was still with you, that everything that is written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled.

⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures,

⁴⁶and said to them, "Thus it is written [that] the Christ would suffer and would rise from the dead on the third day,

⁴⁷and repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

⁴⁸You [are] witnesses of these [things].

⁴⁹And behold, I am sending what was promised by my Father upon you, but you stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.

⁵⁰And he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them.

⁵¹And it happened that while he was blessing them, he parted from them and was taken up into heaven.

⁵²And they worshiped him [and] returned to Jerusalem with great joy.

⁵³And they were _continually_ in the temple [courts] praising God.

John

1 ¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

²This one was in the beginning with God.

³All [things] came into being through him, and apart from him not one [thing] came into being that has come into being.

⁴In him was life, and the life was the light of humanity.

⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶A man came, sent from God, _whose name was_ John.

⁷This one came for a witness, in order that he could testify about the light, so that all would believe through him.

⁸That one was not the light, but [came] in order that he could testify about the light.

⁹The true light, who gives light to every person, was coming into the world.

¹⁰He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not recognize him.

¹¹He came to his own [things], and his own [people] did not receive him.

¹²But as many as received him to those who believe in his name he gave to them authority to become children of God, ¹³who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of a husband, but of God.

¹⁴And the Word became flesh and took up residence among us, and we saw his glory, glory as of the one and only from the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵John testified about him and cried out, saying, "This one was [he about] whom I said, The one who comes after me is ahead of me, because he existed before me.

¹⁶For from his fullness we have all received, and grace after grace.

¹⁷For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came about through Jesus Christ.

¹⁸No one has seen God at any time; the one and only, God, the one who is in the bosom of the Father that one has made [him] known.

¹⁹And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent to him priests and Levites from Jerusalem so that they could ask him, "Who are you?"

²⁰And he confessed and he did not deny, and confessed "I am not the Christ!"

²¹And they asked him, "Then who [are] you? Are you Elijah?" And he said, "I am not!" "Are you the Prophet?" And he answered, "No!"

²²Then they said to him, "Who are you, so that we can give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

²³He said, "I [am] the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, "Make straight the way of the Lord," just as Isaiah the prophet said.

²⁴(And they had been sent from the Pharisees.)

²⁵And they asked him and said to him, "Why then are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

²⁶ John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water. In your midst stands [one] whom you do not know ²⁷ the one who comes after me, of whom I am not worthy _to untie_ the strap of his sandal!

²⁸ These [things] took place in Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

²⁹ On the next day he saw Jesus coming to him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

³⁰ This one is [the one] about whom I said, After me is coming a man who is ahead of me, because he existed before me.

³¹ And I did not know him, but in order that he could be revealed to Israel, because of this I came baptizing with water.

³² And John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and remaining upon him.

³³ And I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water, that one said to me, [The one] upon whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining upon him this one is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.

³⁴ And I have seen and testify that this one is the Son of God.

³⁵ On the next day again John was standing [there], and two of his disciples, ³⁶ and looking at Jesus [as he] was walking by, he said, "Look! The Lamb of God!

³⁷ And the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus.

³⁸ And Jesus, turning around and seeing them following [him], said to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to him, "Rabbi" (which means [when] translated "Teacher"), "where are you staying?

³⁹ He said to them, "Come and you will see!" So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day (it was about the tenth hour).

⁴⁰ Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed him.

⁴¹ This one first found his own brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is translated "Christ").

⁴² He brought him to Jesus. Looking at him, Jesus said, "You are Simon the son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is interpreted "Peter").

⁴³ On the next day he wanted to depart for Galilee, and he found Philip. And Jesus said to him, "Follow me!

⁴⁴ (Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the town of Andrew and Peter.)

⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found [the one] whom Moses wrote [about] in the law, and the prophets wrote [about] Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth!

⁴⁶ And Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see!

⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said about him, "Look! _A true Israelite_ in whom is no deceit!

⁴⁸ Nathanael said to him, "From where do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, [when you] were under the fig tree, I saw you.

⁴⁹ Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the king of Israel!

⁵⁰ Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater [things] than these!

⁵¹ And he said to him, "Truly, truly I say to all of you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.

2¹ And on the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

² And both Jesus and his disciples were invited to the wedding.

³ And [when the] wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine!

⁴ And Jesus said to her, "What _does your concern have to do with me_, woman? My hour has not yet come.

⁵ His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do [it]!"

⁶ Now six stone water jars were set there, in accordance with the ceremonial cleansing of the Jews, each holding two or three measures.

⁷ Jesus said to them, "Fill the water jars with water." And they filled them to the brim.

⁸And he said to them, "Now draw [some] out and take [it] to the head steward. So they took [it].

⁹Now when the head steward tasted the water which had become wine and did not know where it was from but the servants who had drawn the water knew the head steward summoned the bridegroom

¹⁰and said to him, "_Everyone_ serves the good wine first, and whenever they are drunk, the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!

¹¹This beginning of signs Jesus performed at Cana in Galilee, and revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

¹²After this he went down to Capernaum, and his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there _a few_ days.

¹³And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

¹⁴And he found in the temple [courts] those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers seated.

¹⁵And he made a whip of cords [and] drove [them] all out of the temple [courts], both the sheep and the oxen, and he poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

¹⁶And to the ones selling the doves he said, "Take these [things] away from here! Do not make my Fathers house _a marketplace_!"

¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

¹⁸So the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign do you show to us, because you are doing these [things]?"

¹⁹Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up!"

²⁰Then the Jews said, "This temple has been under construction forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?"

²¹But he was speaking about the temple of his body.

²²So when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the saying that Jesus had spoken.

²³ Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name [because they] saw his signs which he was doing.

²⁴ But Jesus himself did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all [people], ²⁵ and because he did not _need_ anyone _to testify_ about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

3¹ Now there was a man of the Pharisees _whose name was_ Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

² This man came to him at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that [you are] a teacher who has come from God, for no one is able to perform these signs that you are performing unless God were with him.

³ Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless someone is born from above, he is not able to see the kingdom of God.

⁴ Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born [when he] is an old man? He is not able to enter into his mothers womb for the second time and be born, [can he]?"

⁵Jesus answered, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless someone is born of water and spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God.

⁶What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

⁷Do not be astonished that I said to you, It is necessary for you to be born from above.

⁸The wind blows wherever it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.

⁹Nicodemus answered and said to him, "How can these [things] be?"

¹⁰Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and you do not understand these [things]?"

¹¹Truly, truly I say to you, we speak what we know, and we testify [about] what we have seen, and you do not accept our testimony!

¹²If I tell you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

¹³And no one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven the Son of Man.

¹⁴And just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, thus it is necessary [that] the Son of Man be lifted up,

¹⁵so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life."

¹⁶For in this way God loved the world, so that he gave his one and only Son, in order that everyone who believes in him will not perish, but will have eternal life.

¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world in order that he should judge the world, but in order that the world should be saved through him.

¹⁸The one who believes in him is not judged, but the one who does not believe has already been judged, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.

¹⁹And this is the judgment: that the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds were evil.

²⁰For everyone who practices evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds be exposed.

²¹ But the one who practices the truth comes to the light, in order that his deeds may be revealed, that they are done in God.

²² After these [things] Jesus and his disciples came into Judean territory, and there he spent time with them and was baptizing.

²³ Now John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there, and they were coming and were being baptized.

²⁴ (For John had not yet been thrown into prison.)

²⁵ So a dispute occurred on the part of John's disciples with a Jew concerning purification.

²⁶ And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you on the other side of the Jordan, about whom you testified look, this one is baptizing, and all are coming to him!

²⁷ John answered and said, "A man can receive not one [thing] unless it is granted to him from heaven!

²⁸ You yourselves testify about me that I said, I am not the Christ, but I am sent before that one.

²⁹The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices _greatly_ because of the bridegrooms voice. So this joy of mine is complete.

³⁰It is necessary for that one to increase, but [for] me to decrease.

³¹The one who comes from above is over all. The one who is from the earth is from the earth and speaks from the earth; the one who comes from heaven is over all.

³²What he has seen and heard, this he testifies, and no one accepts his testimony.

³³The one who accepts his testimony has attested that God is true.

³⁴For [the one] whom God sent speaks the words of God, for he does not give the Spirit by measure.

³⁵The Father loves the Son and has given all [things] into his hand.

³⁶The one who believes in the Son has eternal life, but the one who disobeys the Son will not see lifebut the wrath of God remains on him.

4¹ Now when Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John

² (although Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples),

³ he left Judea and departed again for Galilee.

⁴ And it was necessary [for] him to go through Samaria.

⁵ Now he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

⁶ And Jacobs well was there, so Jesus, [because he] had become tired from the journey, simply sat down at the well. It was about the sixth hour.

⁷ A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me [water] to drink.

⁸ (For his disciples had gone away into the town so that they could buy food.)

⁹ So the Samaritan woman said to him, "How do you, being a Jew, ask from me [water] to drink, [since I] am a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

¹⁰ Jesus answered and said to her, "If you had known the gift of God and who it is who says to you, Give me [water] to drink, you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.

¹¹ The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket and the well is deep! From where then do you get this living water?

¹² You are not greater than our father Jacob, [are you], who gave us the well and drank from it himself, and his sons and his livestock?

¹³ Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again.

¹⁴ But whoever drinks of this water which I will give to him will never be thirsty for eternity, but the water which I will give to him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life.

¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or come here to draw [water]!"

¹⁶ He said to her, "Go, call your husband and come here.

¹⁷ The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus said to her, "You have said rightly, I do not have a husband, ¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and [the one] whom you have now is not your husband; this you have said truthfully!

¹⁹The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.

²⁰Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you [people] say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship.

²¹Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, that an hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father.

²²You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, because salvation is from the Jews.

²³But an hour is coming and now is [here] when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for indeed the Father seeks such [people] [to be] his worshipers.

²⁴God [is] spirit, and the ones who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (the one called Christ); "whenever that one comes, he will proclaim all [things] to us.

²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I, the one speaking to you, am [he].

²⁷ And at this [point] his disciples came, and they were astonished that he was speaking with a woman. However, no one said, "What do you seek?" or "Why are you speaking with her?"

²⁸ So the woman left her water jar and went away into the town and said to the people, ²⁹ Come, see a man who told me everything I have ever done! Perhaps this one is the Christ?

³⁰ They went out from the town and were coming to him.

³¹ In the meanwhile the disciples were asking him, saying, "Rabbi, eat [something]!"

³² But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about.

³³ So the disciples began to say to one another, "No one brought him [anything] to eat, [did they]?"

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "My food is that I do the will of the one who sent me and complete his work.

³⁵ Do you not say, There are yet four months and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already.

³⁶ The one who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, in order that the one who sows and the one who reaps can rejoice together.

³⁷ For in this [instance] the saying is true, It is one who sows and another who reaps.

³⁸ I sent you to reap what you did not work for; others have worked, and you have entered into their work.

³⁹ Now from that town many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything that I have done.

⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to him, they began asking him to stay with them. And he stayed there two days.

⁴¹ And many more believed because of his word,

⁴² And they were saying to the woman, "No longer because of _what you said_ do we believe, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this one is truly the Savior of the world!

⁴³ And after the two days he departed from there into Galilee.

⁴⁴ For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own homeland.

⁴⁵ So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, [because they] had seen all [the things] he had done in Jerusalem at the feast (for they themselves had also come to the feast).

⁴⁶ Now he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And [there] was at Capernaum a certain royal official whose son was sick.

⁴⁷ This man, [when he] heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, went to him and asked that he come down and heal his son, for he was about to die.

⁴⁸ So Jesus said to him, "Unless you [people] see signs and wonders, you will never believe!

⁴⁹ The royal official said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, "Go, your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he departed.

⁵¹ Now [as] he was going down, his slaves met him, saying that his child was alive.

⁵² So he inquired from them the hour at which he had gotten better. Then they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

⁵³ So the father knew that [it was] at that same hour at which Jesus said to him, "Your son will live," and he himself believed, and his whole household.

⁵⁴ Now this [is] again a second sign Jesus performed [when he] came from Judea into Galilee.

5¹ After these [things] [there] was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

² Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool called in Aramaic Bethzatha, which has five porticoes.

³ In these were lying a large number of those who were sick, blind, lame, paralyzed.

⁴ EMPTY

⁵And a certain man was there who had [been] thirty-eight years in his sickness.

⁶Jesus, [when he] saw this one lying [there] and knew that he had [been sick] a long time already, said to him, "Do you want to become well?"

⁷The one who was sick answered him, "Sir, I do not have anyone that, whenever the water is stirred up, could put me into the pool. But _while_ I am coming, another goes down before me.

⁸Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk!"

⁹And immediately the man became well and picked up his mat and began to walk. (Now it was the Sabbath on that day.)

¹⁰So the Jews were saying to the one who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath, and it is not permitted for you to pick up your mat!"

¹¹But he answered them, "The one who made me wellthat one said to me, Pick up your mat and walk!"

¹²They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, Pick up [your mat] and walk?"

¹³ But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn [while] a crowd was in the place.

¹⁴ After these [things] Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "Look, you have become well! Sin no longer, lest something worse happen to you.

¹⁵ The man went and reported to the Jews that Jesus was the one who made him well.

¹⁶ And on account of this the Jews began to persecute Jesus, because he was doing these [things] on the Sabbath.

¹⁷ But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I am working.

¹⁸ So on account of this the Jews were seeking even more to kill him, because he not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God his own Father, [thus] making himself equal with God.

¹⁹ So Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, the Son can do nothing from himself except what he sees the Father doing. For whatever that one does, these [things] also the Son does likewise.

²⁰For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything that he himself is doing. And greater works than these he will show him, so that you will be astonished.

²¹For just as the Father raises the dead and makes [them] alive, thus also the Son makes alive whomever he wishes.

²²For the Father does not judge anyone, but he has given all judgment to the Son, ²³in order that all [people] will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

²⁴Truly, truly I say to you that the one who hears my word and who believes the one who sent me has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life.

²⁵Truly, truly I say to you, that an hour is coming and now is [here] when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and the ones who hear will live.

²⁶For just as the Father has life in himself, thus also he has granted to the Son to have life in himself.

²⁷ And he has granted him authority to carry out judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

²⁸ Do not be astonished [at] this, because an hour is coming in which all those in the tombs will hear his voice

²⁹ and they will come out those who have done good [things] to a resurrection of life, but those who have practiced evil [things] to a resurrection of judgment.

³⁰ I am able to do nothing from myself. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I do not seek my [own] will, but the will of the one who sent me.

³¹ "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

³² There is another who testifies about me, and I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true.

³³ You have sent to John and he has testified to the truth.

³⁴ (And I do not receive testimony from people, but I say these [things] in order that you may be saved.)

³⁵ That one was the lamp [which was] burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice for an hour in his light.

³⁶ But I have a testimony greater than Johns, for the works which the Father has given to me that I should complete them the very works which I am doing[these] testify about me, that the Father has sent me.

³⁷ And the Father who sent me, that one has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his form.

³⁸ And you do not have his word residing in yourselves, because the one whom that one sent, in this one you do not believe.

³⁹ You search the scriptures because you think that you have eternal life in them, and it is these that testify about me.

⁴⁰ And you are not willing to come to me so that you may have life.

⁴¹ I do not accept glory from people,

⁴² but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves.

⁴³ I have come in my Fathers name, and you do not accept me. If another should come in his own name, you would accept that one!

⁴⁴How are you able to believe, [if you] accept glory from one another, and do not seek the glory [which is] from the only God?

⁴⁵Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father! The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hope!

⁴⁶For if you had believed Moses, you would believe me, for that one wrote about me.

⁴⁷But if you do not believe that ones writings, how will you believe my words?

6¹After these [things] Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee (that is, Tiberias).

²And a large crowd was following him because they were observing the signs that he was doing on those who were sick.

³So Jesus went up on the mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

⁴(Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near.)

⁵_Then Jesus, when he looked up_ and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread so that these [people] can eat?

⁶ (Now he said this to test him, because he knew what he was going to do.)

⁷ Philip replied to him, "Two hundred denarii [worth of] bread would not be enough for them, in order that each one could receive a little.

⁸ One of his disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, ⁹ Here is a boy who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these for so many [people]?

¹⁰ Jesus said, "Make the people recline." (Now [there] was a lot of grass in the place.) So the men reclined, approximately five thousand [in] number.

¹¹ Then Jesus took the bread, and [after he] had given thanks, he distributed [it] to those who were reclining likewise also of the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹² And when they were satisfied, he said to his disciples, "Gather the remaining fragments so that nothing is lost.

¹³ So they gathered [them], and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴ Now [when] the people saw the sign that he performed, they began to say, "This one is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world!

¹⁵ Then Jesus, [because he] knew that they were about to come and seize him in order to make [him] king, withdrew again up the mountain [by] himself alone.

¹⁶ Now when evening came, his disciples went down to the sea.

¹⁷ And getting into a boat, they began to go to the other side of the sea, to Capernaum. And it had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

¹⁸ And the sea began to be stirred up [because] a strong wind was blowing.

¹⁹ Then [when they] had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were afraid.

²⁰ But he said to them, "[It] is I! Do not be afraid!

²¹ So they were wanting to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

²² On the next day, the crowd that was on the other side of the sea saw that other boats were not there (except one), and that Jesus had not entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had departed alone.

²³ Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread [after] the Lord had given thanks.

²⁴ So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus.

²⁵ And [when they] found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

²⁶ Jesus replied to them and said, "Truly, truly I say to you, you seek me not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were satisfied!"

²⁷ Do not work for the food that perishes, but the food that remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has set his seal on this one.

²⁸ So they said to him, "What shall we do that we can accomplish the works of God?"

²⁹ Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God: that you believe in [the one] whom that one sent.

³⁰ So they said to him, "Then what sign will you perform, so that we can see [it] and believe you? What will you do?

³¹ Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

³² Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, Moses did not give you bread from heaven, but my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven!

³³ For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

³⁴ So they said to him, "Sir, always give us this bread!

³⁵ Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. The one who comes to me will never be hungry, and the one who believes in me will never be thirsty again.

³⁶ But I said to you that you have seen me and do not believe.

³⁷ Everyone whom the Father gives to me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will never throw out, ³⁸because I have come down from heaven not that I should do my will, but the will of the one who sent me.

³⁹Now this is the will of the one who sent me: that everyone whom he has given me, I would not lose [any] of them, but raise them up on the last day.

⁴⁰For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks at the Son and believes in him would have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

⁴¹Now the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven, ⁴²and they were saying, "Is this one not Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven?

⁴³Jesus answered and said to them, "Do not grumble _among yourselves_!

⁴⁴No one is able to come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up on the last day.

⁴⁵It is written in the prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who hears from the Father and learns comes to me.

⁴⁶ (Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God this one has seen the Father.)

⁴⁷ Truly, truly I say to you, the one who believes has eternal life.

⁴⁸ I am the bread of life.

⁴⁹ Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died.

⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes down from heaven so that someone may eat from it and not die.

⁵¹ I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread, he will live _forever_. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.

⁵² So the Jews began to quarrel _among themselves_, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

⁵³ Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves!"

⁵⁴ The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

⁵⁵ For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

⁵⁶ The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood resides in me and I in him.

⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, [so] also the one who eats me that one will live because of me.

⁵⁸ This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. The one who eats this bread will live _forever_."

⁵⁹ He said these [things] [while] teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

⁶⁰ Thus many of his disciples, [when they] heard [it], said, "This saying is hard! Who can understand it?"

⁶¹ But Jesus, [because he] knew within himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, "Does this cause you to be offended?"

⁶² Then [what] if you see the Son of Man ascending where he was before?

⁶³ The Spirit is the one who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

⁶⁴ But there are some of you who do not believe." (For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.)

⁶⁵ And he said, "Because of this I said to you that no one can come to me unless it has been granted to him by the Father.

⁶⁶ For this [reason] many of his disciples _drew back_ and were not walking with him any longer.

⁶⁷ So Jesus said to the twelve, "You do not want to go away also, [do you]?"

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.

⁶⁹ And we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God.

⁷⁰ Jesus replied to them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is the devil?

⁷¹ (Now he was speaking about Judas [son] of Simon Iscariot, because this one of the twelve was going to betray him.)

7¹ And after these [things] Jesus was going about in Galilee. For he did not want to go about in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him.

² Now the feast of the Jews the [feast of] Tabernacles was near.

³ So his brothers said to him, "Depart from here and go to Judea, so that your disciples also can see your works that you are doing.

⁴ For no one does anything in secret and [yet] he himself desires to be _publicly recognized_. If you are doing these [things], reveal yourself to the world!

⁵ (For not even his brothers believed in him.)

⁶ So Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.

⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I am testifying about it, that its deeds are evil.

⁸ You go up to the feast. I am not going up to this feast, because my time is not yet completed.

⁹ And [when he] had said these [things], he remained in Galilee.

¹⁰ But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not openly, but (as it were) in secret.

¹¹ So the Jews were looking for him at the feast, and were saying, "Where is he?"

¹² And there was a lot of grumbling concerning him among the crowds; some were saying, "He is a good [man]," but others were saying, "No, but he deceives the crowd."

¹³ However, no one was speaking openly about him for fear of the Jews.

¹⁴ _Now when the feast was already half over_, Jesus went to the temple [courts] and began to teach.

¹⁵ Then the Jews were astonished, saying, "How does this man _possess knowledge_, [because he] has not been taught?"

¹⁶ So Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not mine, but [is] from the one who sent me."

¹⁷ If anyone wants to do his will, he will know about my teaching, whether it is from God or I am speaking from myself.

¹⁸ The one who speaks from himself seeks his own glory. But the one who seeks the glory of the one who sent him this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

¹⁹Has not Moses given you the law, and none of you carries out the law? Why do you seek to kill me?

²⁰The crowd replied, "You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you?"

²¹Jesus answered and said to them, "I performed one work, and you are all astonished.

²²Because of this Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.

²³If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses would not be broken, are you angry with me because I made a whole man well on the Sabbath?

²⁴Do not judge according to outward appearance, but judge according to righteous judgment!

²⁵Then some of the inhabitants of Jerusalem began to say, "Is this not [the one] whom they are seeking to kill?"

²⁶And behold, he is speaking openly and they are saying nothing to him! Can it be that the rulers truly know that this man is the Christ?

²⁷ Yet we know where this man is from, but the Christ, whenever he comes no one knows where he is from!

²⁸ Then Jesus cried out in the temple [courts], teaching and saying, "You both know me and you know where I am from! And I have not come from myself, but the one who sent me is true, whom you do not know.

²⁹ I know him, because I am from him and he sent me.

³⁰ So they were seeking to seize him, and no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.

³¹ But from the crowd many believed in him and were saying, "Whenever the Christ comes, he will not perform more signs than this man has done, [will he]?"

³² The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these [things] about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers in order _to take him into custody_.

³³ Then Jesus said, "Yet a little time I am with you, and I am going to the one who sent me.

³⁴ You will seek me and will not find me, and where I am, you cannot come.

³⁵ So the Jews said to one another, "Where [is] this one going to go, that we will not find him? He is not going to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, [is he]?"

³⁶ What is this saying that he said, You will seek me and will not find me, and where I am, you cannot come?

³⁷ Now on the last day of the feast the great [day] Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me, and let him drink, ³⁸ the one who believes in me. Just as the scripture said, Out of his belly will flow rivers of living water."

³⁹ Now he said this concerning the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were about to receive. For the Spirit was not yet [given], because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

⁴⁰ Then, [when they] heard these words, [some] from the crowd began to say, "This man is truly the Prophet!

⁴¹ Others were saying, "This man is the Christ!" But others were saying, "No, for the Christ does not come from Galilee, [does he]?"

⁴²Has not the scripture said that the Christ comes from the descendants of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?

⁴³So there was a division in the crowd because of him.

⁴⁴And some of them were wanting to seize him, but no one laid hands on him.

⁴⁵So the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, " _Why_ did you not bring him?

⁴⁶The officers replied, "Never has a man spoken like this!

⁴⁷Then the Pharisees replied to them, "You have not also been deceived, [have you]?

⁴⁸_None_ of the rulers or of the Pharisees have believed in him, [have they]?

⁴⁹But this crowd who does not know the law is accursed!

⁵⁰Nicodemus, the one who came to him previously who was one of them said to them,

⁵¹Our law does not condemn a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he is doing, [does it]?"

⁵² They answered and said to him, "You are not also from Galilee, [are you]? Investigate and see that a prophet does not arise from Galilee!

⁵³ [[And each one went to his [own] house.

8¹ But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

² Now early in the morning he came again to the temple [courts]. And all the people were coming to him, and he sat down [and] began to teach them.

³ Now the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery. And standing her in [their] midst, ⁴ they said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery!

⁵ Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?

⁶ (Now they were saying this to test him, so that they would have [an occasion] to bring charges against him.) But Jesus, bending down, began to write with [his] finger on the ground.

⁷ And when they persisted in asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "The [one] of you without sin, let him throw the first stone at her!

⁸And bending down again, he wrote on the ground.

⁹Now [when they] heard [it], they began to depart, one by one, beginning with the older ones, and he was left alone and the woman who was in [their] midst.

¹⁰So straightening up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Does no one condemn you?

¹¹And she said, "No one, Lord." So Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on, sin no more."]] ¹²Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world! The one who follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

¹³So the Pharisees said to him, "You testify concerning yourself! Your testimony is not true.

¹⁴Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I testify concerning myself, my testimony is true, because I know where I have come from and where I am going. But you do not know where I have come from or where I am going.

¹⁵ You judge according to externals; I do not judge anyone.

¹⁶ But even if I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me.

¹⁷ And even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true.

¹⁸ I am the one who testifies concerning myself, and the Father who sent me testifies concerning me.

¹⁹ So they were saying to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus replied, "You know neither me nor my Father! If you had known me, you would have known my Father also.

²⁰ He spoke these words by the treasury [while] teaching in the temple [courts], and no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.

²¹ So he said to them again, "I am going away, and you will seek me and will die in your sin. Where I am going you cannot come!

²² Then the Jews began to say, "Perhaps he will kill himself, because he is saying, Where I am going you cannot come.

²³ And he said to them, "You are from below; I am from above. You are from this world; I am not from this world.

²⁴ Thus I said to you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am [he], you will die in your sins.

²⁵ So they began to say to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "_What_ I have been saying to you [from] the beginning.

²⁶ I have many [things] to say and to judge concerning you, but the one who sent me is true, and [the things] which I heard from him, these [things] I say to the world.

²⁷ (They did not know that he was speaking to them about the Father.)

²⁸ Then Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will recognize that I am [he], and I do nothing from myself, but just as the Father taught me, I say these [things].

²⁹ And the one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do the things that are pleasing to him.

³⁰ [While] he was saying these [things], many believed in him.

³¹ Then Jesus said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you continue in my word you are truly my disciples, ³² and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

³³ They replied to him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have not been enslaved to anyone at any time. How do you say, You will become free?

³⁴ Jesus replied to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, that everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin.

³⁵ And the slave does not remain in the household _forever_; the son remains _forever_.

³⁶ So if the son sets you free, you will be truly free.

³⁷ I know that you are descendants of Abraham. But you are seeking to kill me, because my word makes no progress among you.

³⁸ I speak [the things] that I have seen with the Father; so also you do [the things] that you have heard from the Father.

³⁹ They answered and said to him, "Abraham is our father!" Jesus said to them, "If you are children of Abraham, do the deeds of Abraham!

⁴⁰ But now you are seeking to kill me, a man who spoke to you the truth which I heard from God. This Abraham did not do.

⁴¹ You are doing the deeds of your father!" Then they said to him, "We were not born from sexual immorality! We have one father, God!

⁴² Jesus said to them, "If God were your father, you would love me, for I have come forth from God and have come. For I have not come from myself, but that one sent me.

⁴³ _Why_ do you not understand my way of speaking? Because you are not able to listen to my message.

⁴⁴ You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father! That one was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand firm in the truth, because truth is not in him. Whenever he speaks the lie, he speaks from his own [nature], because he is a liar and the father _of lies_.

⁴⁵ But because I am telling the truth, you do not believe me.

⁴⁶Who among you convicts me concerning sin? If I am telling the truth, why do you not believe me?

⁴⁷The one who is from God listens to the words of God. Because of this you do not listen because you are not of God.

⁴⁸The Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not correctly say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

⁴⁹Jesus replied, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me!

⁵⁰But I do not seek my [own] glory. There is one who seeks and judges!

⁵¹Truly, truly I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never experience death forever."

⁵²Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham and the prophets died, and you say, If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death forever."

⁵³You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, [are you]? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself [to be]?

⁵⁴Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. The one who glorifies me is my Father, [about] whom you say, He is our God.

⁵⁵ And you have not known him, but I know him. And if I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you! But I know him and I keep his word.

⁵⁶ Abraham your father rejoiced that he would see my day, and he saw [it] and was glad.

⁵⁷ So the Jews said to him, "_You are_ not yet fifty years [old], and have you seen Abraham?

⁵⁸ Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was, I am!

⁵⁹ Then they picked up stones in order to throw [them] at him. But Jesus was hidden and went out of the temple [courts].

9¹ And [as he] went away, he saw a man blind from birth.

² And his disciples asked him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?

³ Jesus replied, "Neither this man sinned nor his parents, but [it happened] so that the works of God could be revealed in him.

⁴It is necessary [for] us to do the deeds of the one who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work!

⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

⁶[When he] had said these [things], he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes.

⁷And he said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated "sent"). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

⁸Then the neighbors and those who saw him previously (because he was a beggar) began to say, "Is this man not the one who used to sit and beg?"

⁹Others were saying, "It is this man"; others were saying, "No, but he is like him." That one was saying, "I am [he]!"

¹⁰So they began to say to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"

¹¹He replied, "The man who is called Jesus made clay and smeared [it] on my eyes and said to me, Go to Siloam and wash! So I went, and I washed, [and] I received sight.

¹²And they said to him, "Where is that man?" He said, "I do not know.

¹³They brought him the one formerly blind to the Pharisees.

¹⁴(Now the day on which Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes was the Sabbath.)

¹⁵So the Pharisees also were asking him again how he received sight. And he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.

¹⁶So some of the Pharisees were saying, "This man is not from God, because he does not observe the Sabbath!" But others were saying, "How can a man [who is] a sinner perform such signs?" And there was a division among them.

¹⁷So they said to the blind man again, "What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a prophet.

¹⁸So the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind and received sight, until they summoned the parents of the one who received sight.

¹⁹And they asked them, saying, "Is this man your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?

²⁰So his parents answered and said, "We know that this man is our son, and that he was born blind.

²¹But how he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. Ask him! _He is a mature adult_; he will speak for himself!

²²(His parents said these [things] because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already decided that if anyone should confess him [to be] Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue.

²³Because of this his parents said, "_He is a mature adult_; ask him.")

²⁴So they summoned the man who had been blind for the second time and said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner!

²⁵Then that man replied, "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One [thing] I knowthat [although I] was blind, now I see!

²⁶So they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?

²⁷ He replied to them, "I told you already and you did not listen! Why do you want to hear [it] again? You do not want to become his disciples also, [do you]?"

²⁸ And they reviled him and said, "You are his disciple! But we are disciples of Moses!

²⁹ We know that God has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this man is from.

³⁰ The man answered and said to them, "For the remarkable thing is this, that you do not know where he is from, and he opened my eyes!

³¹ We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if someone is devout and does his will, he listens to this one.

³² From _time immemorial_ it has not been heard that someone opened the eyes of one born blind.

³³ If this man were not from God, he would not be able to do anything!

³⁴ They answered and said to him, "You were born completely in sin, and are you attempting to teach us?" And they threw him out.

³⁵ Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

³⁶ He answered and said, "And who is [he], sir, that I may believe in him?"

³⁷ Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and he is the one who is speaking with you.

³⁸ [[And he said, "I believe, Lord!" and he worshiped him.

³⁹ And Jesus said,]] "For judgment I have come into this world, so that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind!

⁴⁰ [Some] of the Pharisees who were with him heard these [things] and said to him, "We are not also blind, [are we]?"

⁴¹ Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now you say, We see, your sin remains.

10¹ "Truly, truly I say to you, the one who does not enter through the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbs up at some other place that one is a thief and a robber.

² But the one who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

³For this one the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

⁴Whenever he sends out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.

⁵And they will never follow a stranger, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.

⁶Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what it was that he was saying to them.

⁷Then Jesus said again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

⁸All those who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep do not listen to them.

⁹I am the door. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and will come in and will go out and will find pasture.

¹⁰The thief _comes only_ so that he can steal and kill and destroy; I have come so that they may have life, and have [it] abundantly.

¹¹ I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

¹² The hired hand, who is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf approaching and abandons the sheep and runs away and the wolf seizes them and scatters [them]

¹³ because he is a hired hand and _he is not concerned_ about the sheep.

¹⁴ I am the good shepherd, and I know my [own], and my [own] know me, ¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father, and I lay down my life for the sheep.

¹⁶ And I have other sheep which are not from this fold. I must bring these also, and they will hear my voice, and they will become one flock one shepherd.

¹⁷ Because of this the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I may take possession of it again.

¹⁸ No one takes it from me, but I lay it down _voluntarily_. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take possession of it again. This commandment I received from my Father.

¹⁹ Again there was a division among the Jews because of these words.

²⁰ And many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is out of his mind! Why do you listen to him?"

²¹ Others were saying, "These are not the words of one who is possessed by a demon! A demon is not able to open the eyes of the blind, [is it]?"

²² Then the feast of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, ²³ and Jesus was walking in the temple in the Portico of Solomon.

²⁴ So the Jews surrounded him and began to say to him, "_How long will you keep us in suspense_? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly!"

²⁵ Jesus answered them, "I told you and you do not believe! The deeds that I do in the name of my Father, these testify about me.

²⁶ But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep!

²⁷ My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

²⁸ And I give them eternal life, and they will never perish _forever_, and no one will seize them out of my hand.

²⁹ My Father, who has given [them] to me, is greater than all, and no one can seize [them] from the Father's hand.

³⁰ The Father and I are one.

³¹ The Jews picked up stones again so that they could stone him.

³² Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good deeds from the Father. For which one of them are you going to stone me?

³³ The Jews answered him, "We are not going to stone you concerning a good deed, but concerning blasphemy, and because you, [although you] are a man, make yourself [to be] God!

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, I said, "You are gods" ?

³⁵ If he called them gods to whom the word of God came and the scripture cannot be broken

³⁶ do you say about [he] whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God?

³⁷ If I do not do the deeds of my Father, do not believe me.

³⁸But if I am doing [them], even if you do not believe me, believe the deeds, so that you may know and understand that the Father [is] in me and I [am] in the Father.

³⁹So they were seeking again to seize him, and he departed out of their hand.

⁴⁰And he went away again on the other side of the Jordan, to the place where John was baptizing at an earlier time, and he stayed there.

⁴¹And many came to him and began to say, "John performed no sign, but everything John said about this man was true!

⁴²And many believed in him there.

11 ¹Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

²(Now it was Mary who anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

³So the sisters sent [word] to him, saying, "Lord, behold, [the one] whom you love is sick.

⁴And [when he] heard [it], Jesus said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, in order that the Son of God may be glorified through it.

⁵(Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.)

⁶So when he heard that he was sick, then he remained in the place _where_ he was two days.

⁷Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again.

⁸The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were seeking just now to stone you, and are you going there again?

⁹Jesus replied, Are [there] not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks around in the daylight, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

¹⁰But if anyone walks around in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.

¹¹He said these [things], and after this he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I can awaken him.

¹²So the disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will get well.

¹³(Now Jesus had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was speaking about _real sleep_.)

¹⁴ So Jesus then said to them plainly,
"Lazarus has died,

¹⁵ and I am glad _for your sake_ that I was not there, so that you may believe.
But let us go to him.

¹⁶ Then Thomas (the one who is called Didymus) said to his fellow disciples,
"Let us go also, so that we may die with him.

¹⁷ So [when he] arrived, Jesus found he had already [been] four days in the tomb.

¹⁸ (Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia.

¹⁹ So many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary in order to console them concerning their brother.)

²⁰ Now Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house.

²¹ So Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

²² But even now I know that whatever you ask God, God will grant you.

²³ Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again.

²⁴ Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me, even if he dies, will live, ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die _forever_. Do you believe this?

²⁷ She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I have believed that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who comes into the world.

²⁸ And [when she] had said this, she went and called her sister Mary privately, saying, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you.

²⁹ So that one, when she heard [it], got up quickly and went to him.

³⁰ (Now Jesus has not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha went to meet him.)

³¹ So the Jews who were with her in the house and were consoling her, [when they] saw Mary that she stood up quickly and went out followed her, [because they] thought that she was going to the tomb in order to weep there.

³²Then Mary, when she came where Jesus was [and] saw him, fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

³³Then Jesus, when he saw her weeping and the Jews who came with her weeping, was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled within himself.

³⁴And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see.

³⁵Jesus wept.

³⁶So the Jews were saying, "See how he loved him!

³⁷But some of them said, "Was not this man who opened the eyes of the blind able to do [something] so that this man also would not have died?

³⁸Then Jesus, deeply moved within himself again, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying on it.

³⁹Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the one who had died, said to him, "Lord, he is stinking already, because it has been four days.

⁴⁰Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?

⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes above and said, "Father, I give thanks to you that you hear me.

⁴² And I know that you always hear me, but for the sake of the crowd standing around I said [it], so that they may believe that you sent me.

⁴³ And [when he] had said these [things], he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!

⁴⁴ The one who had died came out, his feet and his hands bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped with a facecloth. Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go.

⁴⁵ Then many of the Jews who had come with Mary and saw [the things] which he did believed in him.

⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them [the things] which Jesus had done.

⁴⁷ So the chief priests and the Pharisees called together the Sanhedrin and said, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many signs!

⁴⁸ If we allow him [to go on] in this way, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.

⁴⁹ But a certain one of them, Caiaphas (who was high priest in that year), said to them, "You do not know anything at all!

⁵⁰ Nor do you consider that it is profitable for you that one man should die for the people, and the whole nation not perish.

⁵¹ (Now he did not say this from himself, but being high priest in that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, ⁵² and not for the nation only, but also that the children of God who are scattered would be gathered into one.)

⁵³ So from that day they resolved that they should kill him.

⁵⁴ So Jesus was no longer walking openly among the Jews, but went away from there to the region near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there he stayed with the disciples.

⁵⁵ Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the [surrounding] country before the Passover, so that they could purify themselves.

⁵⁶ So they were looking for Jesus, and were speaking with one another [while] standing in the temple [courts], "What do you think? That he will not come to the feast?"

⁵⁷ (Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, they should report [it], in order that they could arrest him.)

12¹ Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

² So they made him a dinner there, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of the ones reclining at table with him.

³ Then Mary took a pound of ointment of very valuable genuine nard [and] anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

⁴ But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was going to betray him) said, ⁵ _Why_ was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?

⁶ (Now he said this not because _he was concerned_ about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, he used to steal what was put into [it].)

⁷ So Jesus said, "Leave her alone, so that she may keep it for the day of my preparation for burial.

⁸ For you have the poor with you always, but you do not always have me.

⁹ Now the large crowd of Jews found out that he was there, and they came, not only because of Jesus, but so that they could see Lazarus also, whom he raised from the dead.

¹⁰ So the chief priests decided that they would kill Lazarus also,

¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jews were going and believing in Jesus.

¹² On the next day the large crowd who had come to the feast, [when they] heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, ¹³ took the branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, and began crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed [is] the one who comes in the name of the Lord, even the king of Israel!

¹⁴ So Jesus found a young donkey [and] sat on it, just as it is written,

¹⁵ Do not be afraid, daughter of Zion! Behold, your king is coming, seated on the foal of a donkey!"

¹⁶ (His disciples did not understand these [things] at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these [things] had been written about him and they did these [things] to him.)

¹⁷ So the crowd who was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead were continuing to testify.

¹⁸ Because of this also the crowd went to meet him, for they had heard [that] he had performed this sign.

¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing! Behold, the world has gone after him.

²⁰ Now some Greeks were among those who had gone up in order to worship at the feast.

²¹ So these approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and began asking him saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus.

²² Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

²³ And Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of Man will be glorified.

²⁴ Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth [and] dies, it remains [by] itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.

²⁵ The one who loves his life loses it, and the one who hates his life in this world preserves it for eternal life.

²⁶ If anyone serves me, he must follow me, and where I am, there my servant will be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷ "Now my soul is troubled, and what shall I say? Father, deliver me from this hour? But for this [reason] I have come to this hour!

²⁸ Father, glorify your name!" Then a voice came from heaven, "I have both glorified [it], and I will glorify [it] again.

²⁹ Now the crowd that stood [there] and heard [it] said _it had thundered_. Others were saying, "An angel has spoken to him!

³⁰ Jesus answered and said, "This voice has not happened for my sake, but [for] your sake.

³¹ Now is the judgment of this world! Now the ruler of this world will be thrown out!

³² And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all [people] to myself.

³³ (Now he said this to indicate by what sort of death he was going to die.)

³⁴ Then the crowd replied to him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains _forever_! And how do you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?

³⁵ So Jesus said to them, "Yet a little time the light is with you! Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness does not overtake you! And the one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

³⁶While you have the light, believe in the light, in order that you may become sons of light." Jesus said these [things], and [then] he went away [and] was hidden from them.

³⁷But as many signs [as] he had performed before them, they did not believe in him,

³⁸in order that the word of the prophet Isaiah would be fulfilled, who said, "Lord, who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

³⁹For this [reason] they were not able to believe, because again Isaiah said, ⁴⁰He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, lest they see with [their] eyes and understand with [their] hearts and turn, and I heal them."

⁴¹Isaiah said these [things] because he saw his glory, and he spoke about him.

⁴²Yet despite that, even many of the rulers believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess [it], so that they would not be expelled from the synagogue.

⁴³For they loved the praise of men more than praise from God.

⁴⁴ But Jesus cried out and said, "The one who believes in me does not believe in me, but in the one who sent me, ⁴⁵ and the one who sees me sees the one who sent me.

⁴⁶ I have come [as] a light into the world, in order that everyone who believes in me will not remain in the darkness.

⁴⁷ And if anyone hears my words and does not observe [them], I will not judge him. For I have not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

⁴⁸ The one who rejects me and does not accept my words has one who judges him; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

⁴⁹ For I have not spoken from myself, but the Father himself who sent me _has commanded me_ what I should say and what I should speak.

⁵⁰ And I know that his commandment is eternal life. So [the things] that I say, just as the Father said to me, thus I say.

13¹ Now before the feast of Passover, Jesus, knowing that his hour had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, [and] having loved

[his] own in the world, loved them to the end.

²And [as] a dinner was taking place, [when] the devil had already put into the heart of Judas [son] of Simon Iscariot that he should betray him,

³[because he] knew that the Father had given him all [things] into [his] hands, and that he had come forth from God and was going away to God, ⁴he got up from the dinner and took off [his] outer clothing, and taking a towel, tied [it] around himself.

⁵Then he poured water into the washbasin and began to wash the feet of the disciples, and to wipe [them] dry with the towel _which he had tied around himself_.

⁶Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?

⁷Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will understand after these [things].

⁸Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet _forever_!" Jesus replied to him,

"Unless I wash you, you do not have a share with me.

⁹Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also [my] hands and [my] head!

¹⁰Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed _only needs_ to wash [his] feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not all [of you].

¹¹(For he knew the one who would betray him; because of this he said, "Not all [of you] are clean.")

¹²So when he had washed their feet and taken his outer clothing and reclined at table again, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done for you?

¹³You call me Teacher and Lord, and you speak correctly, for I am.

¹⁴If then I [your] Lord and Teacher wash your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

¹⁵For I have given you an example, that just as I have done for you, you also do.

¹⁶Truly, truly I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

¹⁷ If you understand these [things], you are blessed if you do them.

¹⁸ I am not speaking about all of you. I know whom I have chosen, but in order that the scripture would be fulfilled, The one who eats my bread has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁹ From now [on] I am telling you before [it] happens, in order that when [it] happens you may believe that I am [he].

²⁰ Truly, truly I say to you, the one who receives anyone I send receives me, and the one who receives me receives the one who sent me.

²¹ [When he] had said these [things], Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified and said, "Truly, truly I say to you that one of you will betray me.

²² The disciples began looking at one another, uncertain about whom he was speaking.

²³ One of his disciples the one whom Jesus loved was reclining _close beside_ Jesus.

²⁴ So Simon Peter gestured for this one to inquire who it was about whom he was speaking.

²⁵ Then he leaned back accordingly against Jesus chest [and] said to him, "Lord, who is it?

²⁶ Jesus replied, "It is he to whom I dip the piece of bread and give [it] to him." Then [after] dipping the piece of bread, he took [it] and gave [it] to Judas [son] of Simon Iscariot.

²⁷ And after the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you are doing, do quickly!

²⁸ (Now no one of those reclining at table knew for what [reason] he said this to him.

²⁹ For some were thinking because Judas had the money box, Jesus was telling him, "Purchase _what we need_ for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.)

³⁰ So [after he] had taken the piece of bread, he went out immediately. And it was night.

³¹ Then, when he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him.

³² If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will glorify him immediately.

³³Children, yet a little [time] I am with you. You will seek me and just as I said to the Jews, "Where I am going you cannot come," now I say also to you.

³⁴A new commandment I give to you: that you love one another just as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples if you have love for one another.

³⁶Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus replied to him, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow later.

³⁷Peter said to him, "Lord, why am I not able to follow you now? I will lay down my life for you!

³⁸Jesus replied, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly I say to you, the rooster will not crow until you have denied me three times!

14¹ "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me.

²In my Father's house there are many dwelling places; but if not, I would have told you, because I am going away to prepare a place for you.

³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself, so that where I am, you may be also.

⁴And you know the way where I am going.

⁵Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How are we able to know the way?"

⁶Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

⁷If you have known me, you will know my Father also. And from now on you know him and have seen him.

⁸Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.

⁹Jesus said to him, "Am I with you so long a time and you have not known me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father! How can you say, Show us the Father?"

¹⁰Do you not believe that I [am] in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself, but the Father residing in me does his works.

¹¹ Believe me that I [am] in the Father and the Father [is] in me; but if not, believe because of the works themselves.

¹² Truly, truly I say to you, the one who believes in me, the works that I am doing he will do also, and he will do greater [works] than these because I am going to the Father.

¹³ And _whatever_ you ask in my name, I will do this, in order that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

¹⁴ If you ask me anything in my name, I will do [it].

¹⁵ "If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, in order that he may be with you _forever_

¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see him or know [him]. You know him, because he resides with you and will be in you.

¹⁸ I will not leave you [as] orphans; I am coming to you.

¹⁹Yet a little [time] and the world will see me no longer, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live.

²⁰On that day you will know that I [am] in my Father, and you [are] in me, and I [am] in you.

²¹The one who has my commandments and keeps them that one is the one who loves me. And the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will reveal myself to him.

²²Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, and why is it that you are going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?"

²³Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and _will take up residence with him_.

²⁴The one who does not love me does not keep my words, and the word that you hear is not mine, but the Fathers who sent me.

²⁵These [things] I have spoken to you [while] residing with you.

²⁶But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my namethat one will teach you all [things], and will remind you of everything that I said to you.

²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to younot as the world gives, I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let [them] be afraid.

²⁸You have heard that I said to you, I am going away, and I am coming to you. If you loved me, you would have rejoiced that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I [am].

²⁹And now I have told you before [it] happens, so that when it happens, you may believe.

³⁰I will no longer speak much with you, for the ruler of the world is coming, and he has _no power_ _over_ me.

³¹But so that the world may know that I love the Father, and just as the Father has commanded me, thus I am doing. Get up, let us go from here!

15¹"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.

²Every branch that does not bear fruit in me, he removes it, and every [branch] that bears fruit, he prunes it in order that it may bear more fruit.

³You are already clean because of the word that I have spoken to you.

⁴Remain in me, and I in you. Just as the branch is not able to bear fruit from itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither [can] you, unless you remain in me.

⁵I am the vine; you [are] the branches. The one who remains in me and I in him this one bears much fruit, for apart from me you are not able to do anything.

⁶If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and dries up, and they gather them and throw [them] into the fire, and they are burned.

⁷If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you want and it will be done for you.

⁸My Father is glorified by this: that you bear much fruit, and prove to be my disciples.

⁹Just as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love.

¹⁰If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Fathers commandments and remain in his love.

¹¹ I have spoken these [things] to you in order that my joy may be in you, and your joy may be made complete.

¹² This is my commandment: that you love one another just as I have loved you.

¹³ No one has greater love than this: that someone lay down his life for his friends.

¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command you.

¹⁵ No longer do I call you slaves, because the slave does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, because everything that I have heard from my Father I have revealed to you.

¹⁶ You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and your fruit should remain, in order that whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.

¹⁷ These [things] I command you: that you love one another.

¹⁸ If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before [it hated] you.

¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, for this [reason] the world hates you.

²⁰Remember the word that I said to you: A slave is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also.

²¹But they will do all these [things] to you on account of my name, because they do not know the one who sent me.

²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin. But now they do not have a valid excuse for their sin.

²³The one who hates me hates my Father also.

²⁴If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not have sin. But now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.

²⁵But [this happened] so that the word that is written in their law would be fulfilled, They hated me without a reason.

²⁶When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Fatherthe Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father that one will testify about me.

²⁷ And you also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16¹ "I have said these [things] to you so that you will not fall away.

² _They will expel you from the synagogue_, but an hour is coming that everyone who kills you will think they are offering service to God.

³ And they will do these [things] because they do not know the Father or me.

⁴ But I have said these [things] to you so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you about them. @
"And I have not said these [things] to you from the beginning, because I was with you.

⁵ But now I am going away to the one who sent me, and none of you is asking me, Where are you going?

⁶ But because I have said these [things] to you, sorrow has filled your hearts.

⁷ But I tell you the truth, it is better for you that I go away. For if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

⁸And [when he] comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and concerning righteousness and concerning judgment:

⁹concerning sin, because they do not believe in me,

¹⁰and concerning righteousness, because I am going away to the Father and you will see me no more, ¹¹and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

¹²I still have many [things] to say to you, but you are not able to bear [them] now.

¹³But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak from himself, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will proclaim to you the things to come.

¹⁴He will glorify me, because he will take from what [is] mine and will proclaim [it] to you.

¹⁵Everything that the Father has is mine. For this [reason] I said that he takes from what [is] mine and will proclaim [it] to you.

¹⁶"A little [while] and you will see me no more, and again a little [while] and you will see me.

¹⁷So some of his disciples said to one another, "What is this that he is saying to us, A little [while] and you will not see me, and again a little [while] and you will see me, and Because I am going away to the Father?

¹⁸So they kept on saying, "What is this that he is saying, A little [while]? We do not understand what he is speaking about!

¹⁹Jesus knew that they were wanting to ask him, and he said to them, "Are you deliberating with one another about thisthat I said, A little [while], and you will not see me, and again a little [while] and you will see me?

²⁰Truly, truly I say to you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will become sorrowful, but your sorrow will change to joy.

²¹A woman, when she gives birth, experiences pain because her hour has come. But when [her] child is born, she no longer remembers the affliction, on account of the joy that a human being has been born into the world.

²² So you also are experiencing sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy from you.

²³ And on that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give you.

²⁴ Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

²⁵ "I have said these [things] to you in figurative sayings. An hour is coming when I will speak to you in figurative sayings no longer, but I will tell you plainly about the Father.

²⁶ On that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf.

²⁷ For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

²⁸ I have gone out from the Father and have come into the world; again, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father.

²⁹ His disciples said, "Behold, now you are speaking _plainly_ and are telling [us] no figurative saying!

³⁰ Now we know that you know everything and do not _need for_ anyone to ask you [questions]. By this we believe that you have come from God.

³¹ Jesus replied to them, "Now do you believe?

³² Behold, an hour is coming and has come that you will be scattered each one to his own [home], and you will leave me alone. And I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

³³ I have said these [things] to you so that in me you may have peace. In the world you have affliction, but have courage! I have conquered the world.

17 ¹ Jesus said these [things], and lifting up his eyes to heaven he said, "Father, the hour has come! Glorify your Son, in order that your Son may glorify you

² just as you have given him authority over all flesh, in order that he would give eternal life to them everyone whom you have given him.

³ Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

⁴ I have glorified you on earth [by] completing the work that you have given me _to do_.

⁵ And now, Father, you glorify me _at your side_ with the glory that I had _at your side_ before the world existed.

⁶ "I have revealed your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me, and they have kept your word.

⁷ Now they understand that all [the things] that you have given me are from you,

⁸ because the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they received [them] and know truly that I have come from you, and they have believed that you have sent me.

⁹ I am asking on behalf of them. I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you have given me, because they are yours, ¹⁰and all my [things] are yours, and your [things] [are] mine, and I have been glorified in them.

¹¹And I am no longer in the world, and they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given to me, so that they may be one, just as we [are].

¹²When I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given to me, and guarded [them], and none of them has perished except the son of destruction, in order that the scripture would be fulfilled.

¹³And now I am coming to you, and I am saying these [things] in the world so that they may have my joy completed in themselves.

¹⁴I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world just as I am not of the world.

¹⁵I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you protect them from the evil one.

¹⁶They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

¹⁷ Sanctify them in the truth your word is truth.

¹⁸ Just as you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.

¹⁹ And for them I sanctify myself, so that [they] themselves also may be sanctified in the truth.

²⁰ "And I do not ask on behalf of these only, but also on behalf of those who believe in me through their word, ²¹ that they all may be one, just as you, Father, [are] in me and I [am] in you, that they also may be in us, in order that the world may believe that you sent me.

²² And the glory that you have given to me, I have given to them, in order that they may be one, just as we [are] one

²³ I in them, and you in me, in order that they may be completed in one, so that the world may know that you sent me, and you have loved them just as you have loved me.

²⁴ Father, [those] whom you have given to me I want that those also may be with me where I am, in order that they may see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

²⁵ Righteous Father, although the world does not know you, yet I have known you, and these [men] have come to know that you sent me.

²⁶ And I made known to them your name, and will make [it] known, in order that the love [with] which you loved me may be in them, and I [may be] in them.

18¹ [When] Jesus had said these [things], he went out with his disciples to the other side of the ravine of the Kidron, where [there] was a garden into which he and his disciples entered.

² (Now Judas, the one who betrayed him, also knew about the place, because Jesus often gathered there with his disciples.)

³ So Judas, taking the cohort and officers from the chief priests and from the Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

⁴ Then Jesus, [because he] knew all the things that were coming upon him, went out and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

⁵ They replied to him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He said to them, "I am [he]."

(Now Judas, the one who betrayed him, was also standing with them.)

⁶So when he said to them, "I am [he]," _they drew back_ and fell to the ground.

⁷Then he asked them again, "Who are you looking for?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene.

⁸Jesus replied, "I said to you that I am [he]! So if you are looking for me, let these [men] go,

⁹in order that the word that he had spoken would be fulfilled: "Those whom you have given to me I have not lost anyone of them."

¹⁰Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. (Now the name of the slave was Malchus.)

¹¹So Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into [its] sheath! The cup that the Father has given me shall I not drink it?

¹²Then the cohort and the military tribune and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and tied him up, ¹³and brought [him] to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

¹⁴ (Now it was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it was better [that] one man die for the people.)

¹⁵ So Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. (Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.)

¹⁶ But Peter was standing by the door outside. So the other disciple [who was] known to the high priest went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷ Then the female slave [who was] the doorkeeper said to Peter, "You are not also [one] of the disciples of this man, [are you]?" He said, "I am not!

¹⁸ (Now the slaves and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were warming themselves. And Peter was also standing there with them and warming himself.)

¹⁹ So the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

²⁰ Jesus replied to him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple [courts] where all the Jews assemble, and I have said nothing in secret.

²¹ Why are you asking me? Ask those who heard what I have said to them! Behold, these [people] know what I said.

²³ Jesus replied to him, "If I have spoken wrongly, testify about what [is] wrong! But if [I have spoken] correctly, why do you strike me?"

²⁴ Then Annas sent him, tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest.

²⁵ Now Simon Peter was standing there and warming himself. So they said to him, "You are not also [one] of his disciples, [are you]?" He denied [it] and said, "I am not!"

²⁶ One of the slaves of the high priest, who was related to the one whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

²⁷ So Peter denied [it] again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸Then they brought Jesus from Caiaphas to the governors residence. Now it was early, and they did not enter into the governors residence so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover.

²⁹So Pilate came outside to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

³⁰They answered and said to him, "If this man were not doing evil, we would not have handed him over to you!"

³¹So Pilate said to them, "You take him and judge him according to your law!" The Jews said to him, "It is not permitted for us to kill anyone, ³²in order that the word of Jesus would be fulfilled that he had spoken, indicating by what sort of death he was going to die.

³³Then Pilate entered again into the governors residence and summoned Jesus and said to him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

³⁴Jesus replied, "Do you say this from yourself, or have others said [this] to you about me?"

³⁵ Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, [am I]? Your people and the chief priests handed you over to me! What have you done?"

³⁶ Jesus replied, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would be fighting so that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here."

³⁷ Then Pilate said to him, "So then you are a king!" Jesus replied, "You say that I am a king. For this [reason] I was born, and for this reason I have come into the world: in order that I can testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice."

³⁸ Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" And [when he] had said this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, "I find no basis for an accusation against him."

³⁹ But it is your custom that I release for you one [prisoner] at the Passover. So do you want [me] to release for you the king of the Jews?

⁴⁰Then they shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" (Now Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

19¹ So then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

²And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and placed [it] on his head, and put a purple robe on him, ³and were coming up to him and saying, "Hail, king of the Jews!" and were giving him slaps in the face.

⁴And Pilate came outside again and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing him outside to you, so that you will know that I find no basis for an accusation against him.

⁵Then Jesus came outside wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, and he said to them, "Behold the man!

⁶So when they saw him, the chief priests and the officers shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them, "You take him and crucify [him]! For I do not find a basis for an accusation against him.

⁷The Jews replied to him, "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself out to be the Son of God!

⁸So when Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid, ⁹and he entered into the governors residence again and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus did not give him an answer.

¹⁰So Pilate said to him, "Will you not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you, and I have authority to crucify you?"

¹¹Jesus replied to him, "You would not have any authority over me unless it was given to you from above. For this [reason] the one who handed me over to you has greater sin.

¹²From this [point on] Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews shouted, saying, "If you release this man, you are not a friend of Caesar! Everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar!"

¹³So Pilate, [when he] heard these words, brought Jesus outside and sat down on the judgment seat, in the place called The Stone Pavement (but Gabbatha in Aramaic).

¹⁴ (Now it was the day of preparation of the Passover; it was about the sixth hour.) And he said to the Jews, "Behold your king!

¹⁵ Then those shouted, "Away [with him]! Away [with him]! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your king?" The chief priests replied, "We do not have a king except Caesar!

¹⁶ So then he handed him over to them in order that he could be crucified. @ So they took Jesus,

¹⁷ and carrying for himself the cross, he went out to the [place] called The Place of a Skull (which is called Golgotha in Aramaic), ¹⁸ where they crucified him, and with him two others, _one on each side_, and Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹ And Pilate also wrote a notice and placed [it] on the cross, and it was written: "Jesus the Nazarene, the king of the Jews.

²⁰ So many of the Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, [and] in Greek.

²¹ Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write The king of the Jews, but, He said, I am king of the Jews.

²² Pilate replied, "What I have written, I have written.

²⁴ So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it apart, but cast lots for it, [to see] whose it will be," so that the scripture would be fulfilled that says, "They divided my garments among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots." Thus the soldiers did these [things].

²⁵ Now his mother and the sister of his mother, Mary the [wife] of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene were standing near the cross of Jesus.

²⁶ So Jesus, seeing [his] mother and the disciple whom he loved standing there, said to [his] mother, "Woman, behold your son!

²⁷ Then he said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into his own [home].

²⁸ After this, Jesus, knowing that now at last everything was completed, in order that the scripture would be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty.

³⁰ Then when he had received the sour wine, Jesus said, "It is completed," and bowing [his] head, he gave up [his] spirit.

³¹ Then the Jews, because it was the day of preparation, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an important day), asked Pilate that their legs could be broken and they could be taken away.

³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him.

³³ But [when they] came to Jesus, after they saw he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and blood and water came out immediately.

³⁵ And the one who has seen [it] has testified, and his testimony is true, and that person knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

³⁶ For these [things] happened in order that the scripture would be fulfilled: "Not a bone of his will be broken."

³⁷ And again another scripture says, "They will look on [the one] whom they have pierced."

³⁸ And after these [things], Joseph [who was] from Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus (but a secret one for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate allowed [it], so he came and took away his body.

³⁹ And Nicodemus the one who had come to him formerly at night also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes [weighing] about a hundred pounds.

⁴⁰ So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in [strips of] linen cloth with the fragrant spices, as is the Jews custom to prepare for burial.

⁴¹ Now [there] was a garden at the place where he was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one was yet buried.

⁴² So there, on account of the day of preparation of the Jews, because the tomb was close by, they buried Jesus.

20¹ Now on the first [day] of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, [while it] was still dark, and saw the stone had been taken away from the tomb.

² So she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord from the tomb and we do not know where they have put him!

³ Then Peter and the other disciple went out and were going to the tomb.

⁴ And the two were running together, and the other disciple ran ahead, faster than Peter, and came to the tomb first.

⁵ And bending over to look, he saw the [strips of] linen cloth lying there, though he did not go in.

⁶Then Simon Peter also came following him, and he went into the tomb and saw the [strips of] linen cloth lying there, ⁷and the facecloth that was on his head not lying with the [strips of] linen cloth, but folded up separately in one place.

⁸So then the other disciple who had come to the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed.

⁹(For they did not yet know the scripture that it was necessary for him to rise from the dead.)

¹⁰Then the disciples went away again to their [own homes].

¹¹But Mary stood outside at the tomb, weeping. Then, while she was weeping, she bent over to look into the tomb, ¹²and she saw two angels in white, seated one at the head and one at the feet where the body of Jesus had been lying.

¹³And they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put him!

¹⁴[When she] had said these [things], she turned _around_ and saw Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵ Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She thought that it was the gardener, [and] said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him.

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned around [and] said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni" (which means "Teacher").

¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene came [and] announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and he had said these [things] to her.

¹⁹ Now [when it] was evening on that day the first [day] of the week and the doors had been shut where the disciples were because of fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace to you.

²⁰ And [when he] had said this, he showed [his] hands and [his] side to them. Then the disciples rejoiced [when they] saw the Lord.

²¹ So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you. As the Father has sent me, I also send you.

²² And [when he] had said this, he breathed on [them] and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them. If you retain [the sins] of any, they are retained.

²⁴ Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who was called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

²⁵ So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe!

²⁶ And after eight days his disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. [Although] the doors had been shut, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said, "Peace to you.

²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, "Place your finger here and see my hands, and place your hand and put [it] into my side. And do not be unbelieving, but believing!

²⁸Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!

²⁹Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, have you believed? Blessed [are] those who have not seen and have believed.

³⁰Now Jesus also performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples which are not recorded in this book, ³¹but these [things] are recorded in order that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that [by] believing you may have life in his name.

21 ¹After these [things] Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias. Now he revealed [himself] in this way:

²Simon Peter and Thomas (who was called Didymus) and Nathanael from Cana in Galilee and the [sons] of Zebedee and two others of his disciples were together.

³Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing!" They said to him, "We also are coming with you." They went out and got into the boat, and during that night they caught nothing.

⁴Now [when it] was already early morning, Jesus stood on the beach. However, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

⁵So Jesus said to them, "Children, you do not have any fish to eat, [do you]? They answered him, "No.

⁶And he said to them, "Throw the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find [some]." So they threw [it], and were no longer able to haul it in from the large number of the fish.

⁷Then that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" So Simon Peter, [when he] heard that it was the Lord, tied around himself his outer garment (for he was naked) and threw himself into the sea.

⁸But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net of fish, because they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away.

⁹So when they got out on the land, they saw a charcoal fire laid [there], and a fish lying on [it], and bread.

¹⁰ Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just now caught.

¹¹ So Simon Peter got into [the boat] and hauled the net to the land, full of large fish one hundred fifty-three and [although there] were so many, the net was not torn.

¹² Jesus said to them, "Come, eat breakfast!" But none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" [because they] knew that it was the Lord.

¹³ Jesus came and took the bread and gave [it] to them, and the fish likewise.

¹⁴ This [was] now [the] third [time] Jesus was revealed to the disciples [after he] had been raised from the dead.

¹⁵ Now when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon [son] of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs!

¹⁶ He said to him again a second time, "Simon [son] of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He said to him, "Shepherd my sheep!

¹⁷ He said to him a third [time], "Simon [son] of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed because he said to him a third [time], "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything! You know that I love you!" Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep!

¹⁸ Truly, truly I say to you, when you were young, you tied [your clothes] around yourself and walked wherever you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will tie you up and carry [you] where you do not want [to go].

¹⁹ (Now he said this to indicate by what kind of death he would glorify God.) And [after he] had said this, he said to him, "Follow me!

²⁰ Peter turned [and] saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following [them] (who also leaned back on his chest at the dinner and said, "Lord, who is the one betraying you?")

²¹ So [when he] saw this one, Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, but what about this one?"

²² Jesus said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you? You follow me!

²³ So this saying went out to the brothers that that disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but "If I want him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you?

²⁴ This is the disciple who is testifying about these [things], and who has written down these [things]. And we know that his testimony is true.

²⁵ Now there are also many other [things] that Jesus did, which if they were written down one after the other I suppose not even the world itself could contain the books that would be written.

Acts

1 ¹I produced the former account, O Theophilus, about all _that_ Jesus began to do and to teach,

²until the day he was taken up, [after he] had given orders through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen, ³to whom he also presented himself alive after he suffered, with many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking the things about the kingdom of God.

⁴And [while he] was with [them], he commanded them, "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for what was promised by the Father, which you heard about from me.

⁵For John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit _not many days from now_."

⁶So [when] they had come together, they began asking him, saying, "Lord, [is it] at this time you are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷ But he said to them, "It is not for you to know [the] times or seasons that the Father has set by his own authority.

⁸ But you will receive power [when] the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the farthest part of the earth.

⁹ And [after he] had said these [things], [while] they were watching, he was taken up, and a cloud received him from their sight.

¹⁰ And as they were staring into the sky [while] he was departing, behold, two men in white clothing stood by them

¹¹ who also said, "Men _of Galilee_, why do you stand there gazing into the sky? This Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven like this will come back in the same way you saw him departing into heaven!

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain that is called Olive Grove which is near Jerusalem, _a Sabbath days journey away_.

¹³ And when they had entered, they went up to the upstairs room where they were staying Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James [son] of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas [son] of James.

¹⁴All these were busily engaged with one mind in prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus and his brothers.

¹⁵And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers (and it was a crowd of persons of about one hundred twenty at the same [place]) [and] said,

¹⁶Men [and] brothers, it was necessary [that] the scripture be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit proclaimed beforehand through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus, ¹⁷because he was counted among us and received a share in this ministry.

¹⁸(Now this man acquired a field for the wages of [his] wickedness, and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines spilled out.

¹⁹And it became known to all who live in Jerusalem, so that that field was called in their own language "Akeldama," that is, "Field of Blood.")

²⁰For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his residence become deserted, and let there be no one to live in it, and, Let another person take his position.

²¹Therefore it is necessary for [one] of the men who have accompanied us during all the time [in] which the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us, ²²beginning from the baptism of John until the day [on] which he was taken up from us one of these [men] must become a witness of his resurrection together with us.

²³And they proposed two [men], Joseph called Barsabbas (who was called Justus) and Matthias.

²⁴And they prayed [and] said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show clearly which one of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to depart to his own place.

²⁶And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was added [to serve] with the eleven apostles.

2¹ And when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in the same [place].

² And suddenly a sound like a violent rushing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

³ And divided tongues like fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them.

⁴ And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them [ability] to speak out.

⁵ Now there were Jews residing in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven.

⁶ And [when] this sound occurred, the crowd gathered and was in confusion, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own language.

⁷ And they were astounded and astonished, saying, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

⁸ And how do we hear, each one [of us], in _our own native language_?

⁹ Parthians and Medes and Elamites and those residing [in] Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya toward Cyrene, and the Romans who were in town, ¹¹both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabswe hear them speaking in our [own] languages the great deeds of God!

¹²And all were amazed and greatly perplexed, saying _to one another_,
"_What can this mean?_"

¹³But others jeered [and] said, "They are full of sweet new wine!

¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and declared to them, "Judean men, and all those who live [in] Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words!

¹⁵For these [men] are not drunk, as you assume, because it is the third hour of the day.

¹⁶But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷And it will be in the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸And even on my male slaves and on my female slaves I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

¹⁹And I will cause wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke.

²⁰The sun will be changed to darkness and the moon to blood, before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

²¹And it will be [that] everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.

²²Israelite men, listen to these words! Jesus the Nazarene, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, just as [you] yourselves know ²³this man, delivered up by the determined plan and foreknowledge of God, you executed [by] nailing to [a cross] through the hand of lawless men.

²⁴God raised _him_ up, having brought to an end the pains of death, because it was not possible [for] him to be held by it.

²⁵For David says with reference to him, I saw the Lord before me _continually_, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken.

²⁶For this [reason] my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced greatly, furthermore also my flesh will live in hope, ²⁷because you will not abandon my soul in Hades, nor will you permit your Holy One to experience decay.

²⁸You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with gladness with your presence.

²⁹Men [and] brothers, it is possible to speak with confidence to you about the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us until this day.

³⁰Therefore, [because he] was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat _one of his descendants_ on his throne, ³¹[by] having foreseen [this], he spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned in Hades nor did his flesh experience decay.

³² This Jesus God raised up, of which we all are witnesses.

³³ Therefore, having been exalted to the right hand of God and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out this that you both see and hear.

³⁴ For David did not ascend into heaven, but he himself says, The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, ³⁵ until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

³⁶ Therefore let all the house of Israel know beyond a doubt, that God has made him both Lord and Christ this Jesus whom you crucified!

³⁷ Now [when they] heard [this], they were pierced to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "What should we do, men [and] brothers?"

³⁸ And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

³⁹ For the promise is for you and for your children, and for all those [who are] far away, as many as the Lord our God calls to himself.

⁴⁰And with many other words he solemnly urged and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this crooked generation!

⁴¹So those who accepted his message were baptized, and on that day about three thousand souls were added.

⁴²And they were devoting themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayers.

⁴³And fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were being performed by the apostles.

⁴⁴And all who believed were in the same [place], and had everything in common.

⁴⁵And they began selling [their] possessions and property, and distributing these [things] to all, to the degree that anyone had need.

⁴⁶And every day, devoting themselves [to meeting] with one purpose in the temple [courts] and breaking bread from house [to house], they were eating

[their] food with joy and simplicity of heart,

⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding every day to the total [of] those who were being saved.

3¹ Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth [hour].

²And a certain man was being carried who was lame _from birth_. _He_ was placed every day at the gate of the temple called "Beautiful," [so that he] could ask for charitable gifts from those who were going into the temple [courts].

³[When he] saw Peter and John about to go into the temple [courts], he began asking to receive alms.

⁴And Peter looked intently at him, together with John, [and] said, "Look at us!

⁵So he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them.

⁶But Peter said, "Silver and gold _I_ do not possess_, but what I have, this I give to you in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, get up and walk!

⁷And taking hold of him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong.

⁸And leaping up, he stood and began walking around and entered into the temple [courts] with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

⁹And all the people saw him walking and praising God, ¹⁰And they recognized him, that [he] himself was the one who used to sit [asking] for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with awe and astonishment at what had happened to him.

¹¹And [while] he was holding fast to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomons, utterly astonished.

¹²And [when he] saw [it], Peter replied to the people, "Men [and] Israelites, why are you astonished at this? Or why are you staring at us, as [if] by our own power or godliness we have made him walk?

¹³The God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant

Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in the presence of Pilate, [after] he had decided to release [him].

¹⁴But you denied the Holy and Righteous One and demanded [that] a mana murderer be granted to you.

¹⁵And you killed the originator of life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses!

¹⁶And on the basis of faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know, and the faith [that is] through him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

¹⁷And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your rulers did also.

¹⁸But [the things] which God foretold through the mouth of all the prophets, [that] his Christ would suffer, he has fulfilled in this way.

¹⁹Therefore repent and turn back, so that your sins may be blotted out,

²⁰so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and he may send the Christ appointed for you Jesus,

²¹ whom heaven must receive until the times of the restoration of all [things], about which God spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from earliest times.

²² Moses said, The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You will listen to him in everything that he says to you.

²³ And it will be [that] every soul who if he does not listen to that prophet will be destroyed utterly from the people.

²⁴ And indeed, all the prophets from Samuel and all those who followed [him] have spoken [about] and proclaimed these days.

²⁵ You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God ordained with your fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

²⁶ God, [after he] had raised up his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you by turning each [of you] back from your wickedness!

4¹ And [while] they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees approached them,

²greatly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

³And they laid hands on them and put [them] in custody until the next day, because it was already evening.

⁴But many of those who listened to the message believed, and the number of the men was approximately five thousand.

⁵And it happened that on the next day, their rulers and elders and scribes came together in Jerusalem, ⁶and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all those who were from the high priests family.

⁷And they made them stand in [their] midst [and] began to ask, "By what power or by what name did you do this?"

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, ⁹if we are being examined today concerning a good deed [done to] a sick man by what [means] this man was healed

¹⁰let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead by him this man stands before you healthy!

¹¹This one is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, that has become _the cornerstone_.

¹²And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven that is given among people by which we must be saved.

¹³Now [when they] saw the boldness of Peter and John, and understood that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were astonished, and recognized them, that they had been with Jesus.

¹⁴And [because they] saw the man who had been healed standing there with them, they had nothing to say in return.

¹⁵But [after they] had ordered them to go outside the Sanhedrin, they began to confer with one another, ¹⁶saying, "What should we do with these men? For that a remarkable sign has taken place through them [is] evident to all those who live [in] Jerusalem, and we are not able to deny [it]!

¹⁷ But in order that it may not spread much [further] among the people, let us warn them to speak no more in this name _to anyone at all_."

¹⁸ And they called them [back] [and] commanded [them] not to speak or to teach at all in the name of Jesus.

¹⁹ But Peter and John answered [and] said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than God, you decide!

²⁰ For we are not able to refrain from speaking about [the things] that we have seen and heard.

²¹ So [after] threatening [them] further, they released them, finding no way to punish them on account of the people, because they were all praising God for what had happened.

²² For the man on whom this sign of healing had been performed was more [than] forty years [old].

²³ And [when they] were released, they went to their own [people] and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

²⁴And [when they] heard [it], they lifted [their] voices with one mind to God and said, "Master, you [are] the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them, ²⁵the one who said by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of our father David, your servant, Why do the nations rage, and the peoples conspire in vain?

²⁶The kings of the earth stood opposed, and the rulers assembled together at the same [place], against the Lord and against his Christ.

²⁷For in truth both Herod and Pontius Pilate, together with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, assembled together in this city against your holy servant Jesus whom you anointed, ²⁸to do all that your hand and your plan had predestined to take place.

²⁹And now, Lord, concern yourself with their threats and grant your slaves to speak your message with all boldness,

³⁰[as] you extend your hand to heal and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus.

³¹ And [when] they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

³² Now the group of those who believed were one heart and soul, and no one said anything of what belonged to him was his own, but all [things] were theirs in common.

³³ And with great power the apostles were giving testimony [to] the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on them all.

³⁴ For there was not even anyone needy among them, because all those who were owners of plots of land or houses were selling [them] [and] bringing the proceeds of the things that were sold

³⁵ and placing [them] at the feet of the apostles. And it was being distributed to each as anyone had need.

³⁶ So Joseph, who was called Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated "son of encouragement"), a Levite of Cyprus by nationality, ³⁷ sold a field that belonged to him [and] brought the money and placed [it] at the feet of the apostles.

5¹ Now a certain man _named_ Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property, ² and he kept back for himself [some] of the proceeds, and [his] wife was aware of [it]. And he brought a certain part [and] placed [it] at the feet of the apostles.

³ But Peter said, "Ananias, for what [reason] has Satan filled your heart, [that] you lied to the Holy Spirit and kept back for yourself [some] of the proceeds of the piece of land?

⁴ [When it] remained to you, did it not remain [yours]? And [when it] was sold, was it at your disposal? How [is it] that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to people, but to God!

⁵ And [when] Ananias heard these words, he fell down [and] died. And great fear came on all those who heard about [it].

⁶So the young men stood up, wrapped him up, and carried [him] out [and] buried [him].

⁷And it happened that [there was] an interval of about three hours, and his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

⁸And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you [both] were paid this much [for] the piece of land." And she said, "Yes, this much.

⁹So Peter [said] to her, "How [is it] that it was agreed by you [two] to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband [are] at the door, and they will carry you out!

¹⁰And immediately she fell down at his feet and died. So [when] the young men came in, they found her dead, and carried [her] out [and] buried [her] with her husband.

¹¹And great fear came on the whole church and on all who heard about these [things].

¹²Now many signs and wonders were being performed among the people through the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomons Portico.

¹³And none of the rest dared to join them, but the people spoke highly of them.

¹⁴And even more believers in the Lord were being added, large numbers of both men and women, ¹⁵so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and put [them] on cots and mats so that [when] Peter came by, at least [his] shadow would fall on some of them.

¹⁶And the people of the towns around Jerusalem also came together, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, who were all being healed.

¹⁷Now the high priest rose up and all those [who were] with him (that is, the party of the Sadducees), [and] they were filled with jealousy.

¹⁸And they laid hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison.

¹⁹But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison and led them [out] [and] said, ²⁰Go and stand in the temple [courts] [and] proclaim to the people all the words of this life.

²¹And [when they] heard [this], they entered at daybreak into the temple [courts] and began teaching. Now [when] the high priest and those with him arrived, they summoned the Sanhedrineven the whole council of elders of the sons of Israeland sent to the prison to have them brought.

²²But the officers who came did not find them in the prison, and they returned [and] reported, ²³saying, "We found the prison locked with all security and the guards standing at the doors, but [when we] opened [them], we found no one inside!

²⁴Now when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed concerning them, [as to] what this might be.

²⁵But someone came [and] reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple [courts] and teaching the people!

²⁶Then the captain went with the officers [and] brought them, not with force (for they were afraid of the people, lest they be stoned [by them]).

²⁷And [when they] had brought them, they made [them] stand in the Sanhedrin, and the high priest put a question to them, ²⁸saying, "Did we not _strictly command_ you not to teach in this name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching! And you are intending to bring upon us the blood of this man!

²⁹But Peter and the apostles answered [and] said, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men!

³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed [by] hanging [him] on a tree.

³¹This one God has exalted to his right hand [as] Leader and Savior to grant repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

³²And we are witnesses of these things, and [so is] the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.

³³ Now [when] they heard [this], they were infuriated, and were wanting to execute them.

³⁴ But a certain man stood up in the Sanhedrin, a Pharisee _named_ Gamaliel, a teacher of the law respected by all the people, [and] gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.

³⁵ And he said to them, "Men [and] Israelites, take care for yourselves what you are about to do to these men!

³⁶ For before these days, Theudas rose up saying he was somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined _him_. _He_ was executed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

³⁷ After this man, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and _caused people to follow him in revolt_. And that one perished, and all who followed him were scattered.

³⁸ And now I tell you, keep away from these men, and leave them alone, because if this plan or this matter is from people, it will be overthrown.

³⁹ But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them, lest you even be found fighting against God." So they were persuaded by him.

⁴⁰And they summoned the apostles, beat [them], commanded [them] not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released [them].

⁴¹So they went out from the presence of the Sanhedrin rejoicing, because they had been considered worthy to be dishonored for the sake of the name.

⁴²Every day, both in the temple [courts] and from house [to house], they did not stop teaching and proclaiming the good news [that] the Christ [was] Jesus.

6¹Now in these days, [as] the disciples were increasing [in number], a complaint arose by the _Greek-speaking Jews_ against the _Hebraic Jews_ because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution [of food].

²So the twelve summoned the community of disciples [and] said, "It is not desirable [that] we neglect the word of God to serve tables.

³So, brothers, select from among you seven men _of good reputation_, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we will put in charge of this need.

⁴ But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.

⁵ And the statement pleased the whole group, and they chose Stephen (a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit), and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus (a convert from Antioch), ⁶ whom they stood before the apostles. And they prayed [and] placed [their] hands on them.

⁷ And the word of God kept spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem was increasing greatly, and a large number of priests began obeying the faith.

⁸ Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people.

⁹ But some of those from the Synagogue of the Freedmen (_as it was called_), both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia, stood up [and] disputed with Stephen.

¹⁰And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking.

¹¹Then they secretly instigated men who said, "We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God!

¹²And they incited the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came up [and] seized him and brought [him] to the Sanhedrin.

¹³And they put forward false witnesses who said, "This man does not stop speaking words against this holy place and the law!

¹⁴For we have heard him saying that this Nazarene Jesus will destroy this place and will change the customs that Moses handed down to us.

¹⁵And [as they] looked intently at him, all those who were sitting in the Sanhedrin saw his face [was] like the face of an angel.

7¹And the high priest said, "Is it so concerning these [things]?"

²So he said, "Menbrothers and fatherslisten: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham [while he] was in Mesopotamia, before he settled in Haran,

³and said to him, Go out from your land and from your relatives and come to the land that I will show you.

⁴Then he went out from the land of the Chaldeans [and] settled in Haran. And from there, after his father died, he caused him to move to this land in which you now live.

⁵And he did not give him an inheritance in it not even a footstep and he promised to give [it] to him for his possession, and to his descendants after him, _although he did not have_ a child.

⁶But God spoke like this: His descendants will be foreigners in a foreign land, and they will enslave them and mistreat [them] four hundred years, ⁷and the nation _that_ they will serve as slaves, I will judge, God said, and after these [things] they will come out and will worship me in this place.

⁸And he gave him the covenant of circumcision, and so he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac [did so with]

Jacob, and Jacob [did so with] the twelve patriarchs.

⁹And the patriarchs, [because they] were jealous of Joseph, sold [him] into Egypt. And God was with him, ¹⁰and rescued him from all his afflictions and granted him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And he appointed him ruler over Egypt and over all his household.

¹¹And a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan and great affliction, and our fathers could not find food.

¹²So [when] Jacob heard [there] was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

¹³And on the second [visit] Joseph was made known to his brothers, and the family of Joseph became known to Pharaoh.

¹⁴So Joseph sent [and] summoned his father Jacob and all [his] relatives, seventy-five persons in [all].

¹⁵And Jacob went down to Egypt and died, he and our fathers.

¹⁶And they were brought back to Shechem and buried in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

¹⁷ But as the time of the promise that God had made to Abraham was drawing near, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt

¹⁸ until another king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph.

¹⁹ This man deceitfully took advantage of our people [and] mistreated our ancestors, _causing them to abandon their infants_ so that they would not be kept alive.

²⁰ At this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful to God. _He_ was brought up [for] three months in [his] fathers house, ²¹ and [when] he was abandoned, the daughter of Pharaoh took him [up] and brought him [up] _as her own son_.

²² And Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was powerful in his words and deeds.

²³ But when _he was forty years old_, it entered in his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel.

²⁴ And [when he] saw one of them being unjustly harmed, he defended

[him] and _avenged_ the one who had been oppressed [by] striking down the Egyptian.

²⁵ And he thought his brothers would understand that God was granting deliverance to them by his hand, but they did not understand.

²⁶ And on the following day, he made an appearance to them [while they] were fighting and was attempting to reconcile them in peace, saying, Men [and] brothers, why are you doing wrong to one another?

²⁷ But the one who was doing wrong to [his] neighbor pushed him aside, saying, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us?

²⁸ You do not want to do away with me _the same way_ you did away with the Egyptian yesterday, [do you]?

²⁹ And at this statement, Moses fled and became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

³⁰ And [when] forty years had been completed, an angel appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai in the flame of a burning bush.

³¹ And [when] Moses saw [it], he was astonished at the sight, and [when] he approached to look at [it], the voice of the Lord came:

³² I [am] the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob! So Moses began trembling [and] did not dare to look at [it].

³³ And the Lord said to him, Untie the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.

³⁴ _I have certainly seen_ the mistreatment of my people [who are] in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt.

³⁵ This Moses whom they had repudiated, saying, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge? this man God sent [as] both ruler and redeemer with _the help_ of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

³⁶ This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the wilderness [for] forty years.

³⁷ This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.

³⁸This is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and who [with] our fathers received living oracles to give to us,

³⁹to whom our fathers were not willing to become obedient, but rejected [him] and turned [back] in their hearts to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, Make us gods who will go on before us! For this Moses, who led us out from the land of Egypt we do not know what has happened to him!

⁴¹And they manufactured a calf in those days, and offered up a sacrifice to the idol, and began rejoicing in the works of their hands.

⁴²But God turned away and gave them over to worship the host of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the prophets: You did not bring offerings and sacrifices to me [for] forty years in the wilderness, [did you], house of Israel?

⁴³And you took along the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Rephan, the images that you made, to worship them, and I will deport you beyond Babylon!

⁴⁴The tabernacle of the testimony _belonged_ to our fathers in the wilderness, just as the one who spoke to Moses directed [him] to make it according to the design that he had seen,

⁴⁵and which, [after] receiving [it] in turn, our fathers brought in with Joshua _when they dispossessed the_ nations that God drove out from the presence of our fathers, until the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor in the sight of God and asked to find a habitation for the house of Jacob.

⁴⁷But Solomon built a house for him.

⁴⁸But the Most High does not live in [houses] made by human hands, just as the prophet says, ⁴⁹Heaven [is] my throne and earth [is] the footstool for my feet. What kind of house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what [is the] place of my rest?

⁵⁰Did not my hand make all these [things]?

⁵¹[You] stiff-necked [people] and uncircumcised in hearts and in [your] ears! You constantly resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers [did], [so] also [do] you!

⁵² Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand about the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become,

⁵³ [you] who received the law by directions of angels and have not observed [it]!

⁵⁴ Now [when they] heard these [things], they were infuriated in their hearts and gnashed [their] teeth at him.

⁵⁵ But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked intently into heaven [and] saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

⁵⁶ And he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!

⁵⁷ But crying out with a loud voice, they stopped their ears and rushed at him with one purpose.

⁵⁸ And [after they] had driven [him] out of the city, they began to stone [him], and the witnesses laid aside their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹And they kept on stoning Stephen [as he] was calling out and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!

⁶⁰And falling to [his] knees, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them!" And [after he] said this, he fell asleep.

8¹ And Saul was agreeing with his murder. Now there happened on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

²And devout men buried Stephen and made loud lamentation over him.

³But Saul was attempting to destroy the church. Entering _house after house_, he dragged off both men and women [and] delivered [them] to prison.

⁴Now those who had been scattered went about proclaiming the good news [of] the word.

⁵And Philip came down to the city of Samaria [and] began proclaiming the Christ to them.

⁶And the crowds with one mind were paying attention to what was being said by Philip, [as] they heard [him] and saw the signs that he was performing.

⁷For many of those who had unclean spirits, they were coming out [of them], crying out with a loud voice, and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed.

⁸And there was great joy in that city.

⁹Now a certain man named Simon had been in the city practicing magic and astonishing the people of Samaria, saying he was someone great.

¹⁰They were all paying attention to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called Great.

¹¹And they were paying attention to him because for a long time he had astonished them with [his] magic.

¹²But when they believed Philip [as he] was proclaiming the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were being baptized.

¹³And Simon himself also believed, and [after he] was baptized he was keeping close company with_ Philip. And [when he] saw the signs and great miracles that were taking place, he was astonished.

¹⁴ Now [when] the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, ¹⁵ who went down [and] prayed for them so that they would receive the Holy Spirit.

¹⁶ (For he had not yet fallen on any of them, _but they had only been baptized_ in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

¹⁷ Then they placed [their] hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ Now Simon, [when he] saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles hands, offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, "Give to me also this power, so that whomever I place [my] hands on may receive the Holy Spirit!

²⁰ But Peter said to him, "May your silver _be destroyed along with you_, because you thought _you could acquire_ the gift of God by means of money!

²¹ _You have no_ part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God.

²² Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and ask the Lord if perhaps the intent of your heart may be forgiven you!

²³ For I see you are in _a state of bitter envy_ and _bound by unrighteousness_."

²⁴ But Simon answered [and] said, "You pray to the Lord for me so that nothing of what you have said will come upon me.

²⁵ So [when] they had solemnly testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they turned back toward Jerusalem, and were proclaiming the good news [to] many villages of the Samaritans.

²⁶ Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Get up and go toward the south on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert [road].)

²⁷ And he got up [and] went, and behold, [there was] a man, an Ethiopian eunuch (a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasury) who had come to worship in Jerusalem ²⁸and was returning and sitting in his chariot, and reading aloud the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, "Approach and join this chariot.

³⁰So Philip ran up to [it] [and] heard him reading aloud Isaiah the prophet and said, "So then, do you understand what you are reading?

³¹And he said, "So how could I, unless someone will guide me?" And he invited Philip to come up [and] sit with him.

³²Now the passage of scripture that he was reading aloud was this: "He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb before its shearer [is] silent, so he did not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation justice was taken from him. Who can describe his _descendants_? For his life was taken away from the earth."

³⁴And the eunuch answered [and] said to Philip, "I ask you, about whom does the prophet say this about himself or about someone else?

³⁵So Philip opened his mouth and beginning from this scripture, proclaimed the good news to him [about] Jesus.

³⁶And as they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "Look! Water! What prevents me from being baptized?"

³⁷EMPTY

³⁸And he ordered the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water Philip and the eunuch and he baptized him.

³⁹And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any longer, for he went on his way rejoicing.

⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus, and [as he] passed through, he proclaimed the good news [to] all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

9¹ But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

²[and] asked for letters from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, both men and women, he could bring [them] tied up to Jerusalem.

³Now as [he] proceeded, it happened that [when] he approached Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

⁴And falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

⁵So he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he [said], "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting!"

⁶But get up and enter into the city, and it will be told to you _what you must do_."

⁷(Now the men who were traveling together with him stood speechless, [because they] heard the voice but saw no one.)

⁸So Saul got up from the ground, but [although] his eyes were open he could see nothing. And leading him by the hand, they brought [him] into Damascus.

⁹And he was _unable to see_ [for] three days, and he did not eat or drink.

¹⁰Now there was a certain disciple in Damascus _named_ Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" And he said, "Behold, [here] I [am], Lord!"

¹¹ And the Lord [said] to him, "Get up, go to the street called Straight and in the house of Judas look for _a man named Saul from Tarsus_. For behold, he is praying, ¹² and he has seen in a vision a man _named_ Ananias coming in and placing [his] hands on him so that he may regain [his] sight.

¹³ But Ananias replied, "Lord, I have heard from many [people] about this man, how much harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and here he has authority from the chief priests to tie up all who call upon your name!

¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, "Go, because this man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel.

¹⁶ For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.

¹⁷ So Ananias departed and entered into the house, and placing [his] hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me so that you may regain [your] sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸And immediately [something] like scales fell from his eyes and he regained [his] sight and got up [and] was baptized, ¹⁹and [after] taking food, he regained his strength. And he was with the disciples in Damascus several days.

²⁰And immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues: "This one is the Son of God!

²¹And all who heard [him] were amazed, and were saying, "Is this not the one who was wreaking havoc in Jerusalem [on] those who call upon this name, and had come here for this [reason], that he could bring them tied up to the chief priests?

²²But Saul was increasing in strength even more, and was confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus [by] proving that this one is the Christ.

²³And when many days had elapsed, the Jews plotted to do away with him.

²⁴But their plot became known to Saul, and they were also watching the gates both day and night so that they could do away with him.

²⁵ But his disciples took [him] at night [and] let him down through the wall [by] lowering [him] in a basket.

²⁶ And [when he] arrived in Jerusalem, he was attempting to associate with the disciples, and they were all afraid of him, [because they] did not believe that he was a disciple.

²⁷ But Barnabas took him [and] brought [him] to the apostles and related to them how he had seen the Lord on the road and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.

²⁸ And he was going in and going out among them in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

²⁹ And he was speaking and debating with the _Greek-speaking Jews_, but they were trying to do away with him.

³⁰ And [when] the brothers found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

³¹ Then the church throughout all of Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being strengthened. And living in the fear of the Lord and the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it was increasing [in numbers].

³²Now it happened that [as] Peter was traveling through all [the places], [he] also came down to the saints who lived [in] Lydda.

³³And he found there a certain man _named_ Aeneas who was paralyzed, who had been lying on a mat for eight years.

³⁴And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up and make your bed yourself!" And immediately he got up.

³⁵And all those who lived [in] Lydda and Sharon saw him, who [all] indeed turned to the Lord.

³⁶Now in Joppa there was a certain female disciple _named_ Tabitha (which translated means "Dorcas"). She was full of good deeds and charitable giving which she was constantly doing.

³⁷Now it happened that in those days [after] becoming sick, she died. And [after] washing [her], they placed her in an upstairs room.

³⁸ And [because] Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, [when they] heard that Peter was in _Lydda_, sent two men to him, urging, "Do not delay to come to us!

³⁹ So Peter got up [and] accompanied them. [When he] arrived, they brought [him] up to the upstairs room, and all the widows came to him, weeping and showing [him] tunics and [other] clothing that Dorcas used to make [while she] was with them.

⁴⁰ But Peter sent [them] all outside, and, falling to [his] knees, he prayed. And turning toward the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" And she opened her eyes, and [when she] saw Peter, she sat up.

⁴¹ And he gave her [his] hand [and] raised her up. And he called the saints and the widows [and] presented her alive.

⁴² And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

⁴³ And it happened that [he] stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

10¹ Now [there was] a certain man in Caesarea _named_ Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Cohort, ² devout and fearing God together with all his household, doing many charitable deeds for the people and praying to God _continually_.

³ About the ninth hour of the day, he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming to him and saying to him, "Cornelius.

⁴ And he stared at him and became terrified [and] said, "What is [it], Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your charitable deeds have gone up for a memorial offering before God.

⁵ And now, send men to Joppa and summon a certain Simon, who is also called Peter.

⁶ This man is staying as a guest with a certain Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.

⁷ And when the angel who spoke to him departed, he summoned two of the household slaves and a devout soldier from those who attended him, ⁸and [after he] had explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹And the next day, [as] they were on their way and approaching the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray [at] about the sixth hour.

¹⁰And he became hungry and wanted to eat. But [while] they were preparing [the food], a trance came over him.

¹¹And he saw heaven opened and an object something like a large sheet coming down, being let down to the earth by its four corners, ¹²in which were all the four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth and birds of the sky.

¹³And a voice came to him, "Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!

¹⁴But Peter said, "Certainly not, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common and unclean!

¹⁵And the voice [came] again to him for the second time: "[The things] which God has made clean, you must not consider unclean!

¹⁶And this happened three times, and immediately the object was taken up into heaven.

¹⁷Now while Peter was greatly perplexed within himself [as to] what the vision that he had seen might be, behold, the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having found the house of Simon by asking around, stood at the gate.

¹⁸And they called out [and] asked if Simon who was also called Peter was staying there as a guest.

¹⁹And [while] Peter was reflecting about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you.

²⁰But get up, go down, and go with them not hesitating at all, because I have sent them.

²¹So Peter went down to the men [and] said, "Behold, I am [he] whom you are looking for! What [is] the reason for which you have come?

²²And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man and well spoken of by the whole nation of the Jews was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear words from you.

²³ So he invited them in [and] entertained them as guests, and on the next day he got up [and] went away with them. And some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

²⁴ And on the next day he entered into Caesarea. @ Now Cornelius was waiting for them, [and] had called together his relatives and close friends.

²⁵ So it happened that when Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell at [his] feet, [and] worshiped [him].

²⁶ But Peter helped him up, saying, "Get up! I myself am also a man!

²⁷ And [as he] conversed with him, he went in and found many [people] gathered.

²⁸ And he said to them, "You know that it is forbidden for a Jewish man to associate with or to approach a foreigner. And to me God has shown [that] I should call no man common or unclean.

²⁹ Therefore and without raising any objection I came [when I] was sent for. So I ask for what reason you sent for me.

³⁰And Cornelius said, "_Four days ago at this hour_, [the] ninth, I was praying in my house. And behold, a man in shining clothing stood before me ³¹and said, Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your charitable deeds have been remembered before God.

³²Therefore send to Joppa and summon Simon who is also called Peter. This man is staying as a guest in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.

³³Therefore I sent for you at once, and you _were kind enough to come_. So now we all are present before God to hear all the things that have been commanded to you by the Lord.

³⁴So Peter opened [his] mouth [and] said, "In truth I understand that God is not one who shows partiality, ³⁵but in every nation the one who fears him and who does what is right is acceptable to him.

³⁶[As for] the message that he sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming the good news of peace through Jesus Christthis one is Lord of all

³⁷you know the thing that happened throughout all Judea, beginning from

Galilee, after the baptism that John proclaimed:

³⁸ Jesus of Nazareth how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with him.

³⁹ And we [are] witnesses of all [the things] that he did both in the land of the Judeans and in Jerusalem, whom they also executed [by] hanging [him] on a tree.

⁴⁰ God raised this one up on the third day and granted [that] he should become visible, ⁴¹ not to all the people but to us who had been chosen beforehand by God [as] witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

⁴² And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify solemnly that this one is the one appointed by God [as] judge of the living and of the dead.

⁴³ To this one all the prophets testify, [that] through his name everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins.

⁴⁴ [While] Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to the message.

⁴⁵ And those believers from the circumcision who had accompanied Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles,

⁴⁶ for they heard them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter said, ⁴⁷ Surely no one can withhold the water for these [people] to be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as we also did!

⁴⁸ So he ordered [that] they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for several days.

11 ¹ Now the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had accepted the word of God.

² So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision took issue with him, ³ saying, "You went to men _who were uncircumcised_ and ate with them!

⁴ But Peter began [and] explained [it] to them in an orderly sequence, saying,

⁵ I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a visionan object something like a large sheet coming down, being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came to me.

⁶ [As I] looked intently into it, I was considering [it], and I saw the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild animals and the reptiles and the birds of the sky.

⁷ And I also heard a voice saying to me, Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!

⁸ But I said, Certainly not, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has ever entered into my mouth!

⁹ But the voice replied from heaven for the second time, [The things] which God has made clean, you must not consider unclean!

¹⁰ And this happened three times, and everything was pulled up into heaven again.

¹¹ And behold, at once three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea approached the house in which we were [staying].

¹²And the Spirit told me to accompany them, not hesitating [at all]. So these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the mans house.

¹³And he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, Send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is also called Peter, ¹⁴who will speak words to you by which you will be saved, you and all your household.

¹⁵And [as] I was beginning to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as also on us at the beginning.

¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷Therefore if God gave them the same gift as also to us [when we] believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I [to be] able to hinder God?

¹⁸And [when they] heard these [things], they became silent and praised God, saying, "Then God has granted the repentance [leading] to life to the Gentiles also!

¹⁹Now those who had been scattered because of the persecution that took place over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, proclaiming the message to no one except Jews alone.

²⁰But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, [when they] came to Antioch, began to speak to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus.

²¹And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a large number who believed turned to the Lord.

²²—And the report came to the attention_ of the church that was in Jerusalem about them, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch, ²³who, [when he] arrived and saw the grace of God, rejoiced and encouraged [them] all to remain true to the Lord with _devoted hearts_, ²⁴because he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a large number were added to the Lord.

²⁵So he departed for Tarsus to look for Saul.

²⁶And [when he] found [him], he brought [him] to Antioch. And it happened to them also [that they] met together [for] a whole year with the church and taught a large number [of people]. And in Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

²⁷Now in those days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

²⁸And one of them _named_ Agabus stood up [and] indicated by the Spirit [that] a great famine was about to come over the whole inhabited earth (which took place in the time of Claudius).

²⁹So from the disciples, _according to their ability to give_, each one of them determined to send [financial aid] for support to the brothers who lived in Judea, ³⁰which they also did, sending [the aid] to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12¹Now at that time, Herod the king laid hands on some of those from the church to harm [them].

²So he executed James the brother of John with a sword.

³And [when he] saw that it was pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (_Now this was during the feast_ of Unleavened Bread.)

⁴[After he] had arrested _him_, he also put [him] in prison, handing [him] over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him _out_ for public trial_ after the Passover.

⁵Thus Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer was fervently being made to God by the church for him.

⁶Now when Herod was about to bring him [out], on that [very] night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards before the door were watching the prison.

⁷And behold, an angel of the Lord stood near [him], and a light shone in the prison cell. And striking Peters side, he woke him up, saying, "Get up _quickly_!" And his chains fell off of [his] hands.

⁸And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals!" And he did so. And he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me!

⁹And he went out [and] was following [him]. And he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but was thinking [he] was seeing a vision.

¹⁰And [after they] had passed the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened for them by itself, and they went out [and] went forward [along] one narrow street, and at once the angel departed from him.

¹¹And [when] Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know truly that the Lord has sent out his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and all _that the Jewish people expected_!"

¹²And [when he] realized [this], he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John (who is also called Mark), where many [people] were gathered together and were praying.

¹³And [when] he knocked at the door of the gateway, a female slave _named_ Rhoda came up to answer.

¹⁴And recognizing Peters voice, because of [her] joy she did not open the gate, but ran in [and] announced [that] Peter was standing at the gate.

¹⁵ But they said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she kept insisting it was so. And they kept saying, "It is his angel!

¹⁶ But Peter was continuing to knock, and [when they] opened [the door] they saw him and were astonished.

¹⁷ But motioning to them with [his] hand to be silent, he related to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these [things] to James and to the brothers," and he departed [and] went to another place.

¹⁸ Now [when] day came, there was not a little commotion among the soldiers [as to] what then had become of Peter.

¹⁹ And [when] Herod had searched for him and did not find [him], he questioned the guards [and] ordered [that they] be led away to execution. And he came down from Judea to Caesarea [and] stayed [there].

²⁰ Now he was very angry with the Tyrians and Sidonians. So they came to him with one purpose, and [after] persuading Blastus, _the kings chamberlain_, they asked for peace, because their country was supported with food from the kings country.

²¹ So on an appointed day Herod, [after] putting on royal clothing and sitting down on the judgment seat, began to deliver a public address to them.

²² But the people began to call out loudly, "The voice of a god and not of a man!

²³ And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down _because_ he did not give the glory to God. And he was eaten by worms [and] died.

²⁴ But the word of God kept on increasing and multiplying.

²⁵ So Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem [when they] had completed [their] service, having taken along with [them] John (who is also called Mark).

13¹ Now there were prophets and teachers in Antioch in the church that was there: Barnabas, and Simeon (who was called Niger), and Lucius the Cyrenian, and Manaen (a close friend of Herod the tetrarch), and Saul.

² And [while] they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart now for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.

³Then, [after they] had fasted and prayed and placed [their] hands on them, they sent [them] away.

⁴Therefore, sent out by the Holy Spirit, they came down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed away to Cyprus.

⁵And [when they] came to Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John [as] assistant.

⁶And [when they] had crossed over the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a magician, a Jewish false prophet whose name [was] Bar-Jesus, ⁷who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul [and] wished to hear the word of God.

⁸But Elymas the magician (for his name is translated in this way) opposed them, attempting to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

⁹But Saul (also called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him

¹⁰[and] said, "O [you who are] full of all deceit and of all unscrupulousness,

[you] son of the devil, [you] enemy of all righteousness! Will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord!

¹¹ And now behold, the hand of the Lord [is] against you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun _for a while_. And immediately mist and darkness fell over him, and he was going around looking for [people] to lead [him] by the hand.

¹² Then [when] the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, [because he] was astounded at the teaching about the Lord.

¹³ Now _Paul and his companions_ put out to sea from Paphos [and] came to Perga in Pamphylia, but John departed from them [and] returned to Jerusalem.

¹⁴ And they went on from Perga [and] arrived at Pisidian Antioch. And they entered into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbath [and] sat down.

¹⁵ So after the reading from the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent [word] to them, saying, "Men [and] brothers, if there is any message of exhortation by you for the people, say [it]."

¹⁶So Paul stood up, and motioning with [his] hand, he said, "Israelite men, and those who fear God, listen!

¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people during [their] stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

¹⁸And for a period of time [of] about forty years, he put up with them in the wilderness.

¹⁹And [after] destroying seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave their land [to his people] as an inheritance.

²⁰[This took] about four hundred and fifty years. And after these [things], he gave [them] judges until Samuel the prophet.

²¹And then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, [for] forty years.

²²And [after] removing him, he raised up David for their king, about whom he also said, testifying, I have found David the [son] of Jesse [to be] a man in accordance with my heart, who will carry out all my will.

²³ From the descendants of this man, according to [his] promise, God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus.

²⁴ Before _his coming_ John had publicly proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

²⁵ But while John was completing [his] mission, he said, What do you suppose me to be? I am not [he]! But behold, one is coming after me of whom I am not worthy to untie the sandals of [his] feet!

²⁶ Men [and] brothers, sons of the family of Abraham and those among you who fear God to us the message of this salvation has been sent!

²⁷ For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers, [because they] did not recognize this one, and the voices of the prophets that are read on every Sabbath, fulfilled [them] [by] condemning [him].

²⁸ And [although they] found no charge [worthy] of death, they asked Pilate [that] he be executed.

²⁹ And when they had carried out all the things that were written about him, they took [him] down from the tree [and] placed [him] in a tomb.

³⁰ But God raised him from the dead,

³¹ who appeared for many days to those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem who are now his witnesses to the people.

³² And we proclaim the good news to you: that the promise that was made to the fathers, ³³ this [promise] God has fulfilled to us their children [by] raising Jesus, as it is also written in the second psalm, You are my Son; today I have fathered you.

³⁴ But that he has raised him from the dead, no more going to return to decay, he has spoken in this way: I will give you the reliable divine decrees of David.

³⁵ Therefore he also says in another [psalm], You will not permit your Holy One to experience decay.

³⁶ For David, [after] serving the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and _was buried with_ his fathers, and experienced decay.

³⁷ But he whom God raised up did not experience decay.

³⁸ Therefore let it be known to you, men [and] brothers, that through this one forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and from all [the things] from which you were not able to be justified by the law of Moses,

³⁹by this one everyone who believes is justified!

⁴⁰Watch out, therefore, lest what is stated by the prophets come upon [you]:

⁴¹Look, you scoffers, and be astonished and perish! For I am doing a work in your days, a work that you would never believe [even] if someone were to tell [it] to you."

⁴²And [as] they were going out, they began urging [that] these things be spoken about to them on the next Sabbath.

⁴³And [after] the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking to them [and] were persuading them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴And on the coming Sabbath, nearly the whole city came together to hear the word of the Lord.

⁴⁵But [when] the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and began contradicting what was being said by Paul [by] reviling [him].

⁴⁶ Both Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly [and] said, "It was necessary [that] the word of God be spoken first to you, since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life! Behold, we are turning to the Gentiles!

⁴⁷ For so the Lord has commanded us: I have appointed you _to be_ a light for the Gentiles, _that you would bring_ salvation to the end of the earth.

⁴⁸ And [when] the Gentiles heard [this], they began to rejoice and to glorify the word of the Lord. And all those who were designated for eternal life believed.

⁴⁹ So the word of the Lord was carried through the whole region.

⁵⁰ But the Jews incited the devout women of high social standing and the most prominent men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas and threw them out of their district.

⁵¹ So [after] shaking off the dust from [their] feet against them, they went to Iconium.

⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14¹ Now it happened that in Iconium they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way that a large number of both Jews and Greeks believed.

² But the Jews who were disobedient stirred up and poisoned the minds of the Gentiles against the brothers.

³ So they stayed [there] for a considerable time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who testified to the message of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be performed through their hands.

⁴ But the population of the city was divided, and some were with the Jews and some with the apostles.

⁵ So when an inclination took place [on the part] of both the Gentiles and the Jews, together with their rulers, to mistreat [them] and to stone them, ⁶ they became aware of [it] [and] fled to the Lycaonian cities Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding region.

⁷ And there they were continuing to proclaim the good news.

⁸ And in Lystra a certain man was sitting powerless in his feet, lame from birth, who had never walked.

⁹This man listened [while] Paul was speaking. _Paul_, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" And he leaped up and began walking.

¹¹And [when] the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices in the Lycaonian language, saying, "The gods have become like men [and] have come down to us!

¹²And they began calling Barnabas Zeus and Paul Hermes, because he was the _principal speaker_.

¹³And the priest of the [temple] of Zeus that was just outside the city brought bulls and garlands to the gates [and] was wanting to offer sacrifice, along with the crowds.

¹⁴But [when] the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about [it], they tore their clothing [and] rushed out into the crowd, shouting ¹⁵and saying, "Men, why are you doing these [things]? We also are men with the same nature as you, proclaiming the good news [that] you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things [that are] in them ¹⁶who in generations that are past permitted all the nations to go their [own] ways.

¹⁷And yet he did not leave himself without witness [by] doing good, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying [you] with food and your hearts with gladness.

¹⁸And [although] they said these [things], [only] with difficulty did they dissuade the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.

¹⁹But Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium, and [when they] had won over the crowds and stoned Paul, they dragged [him] outside the city, thinking he was dead.

²⁰But [after] the disciples surrounded him, he got up [and] went into the city. And on the next day he departed with Barnabas for Derbe.

²¹And [after they] had proclaimed the good news in that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, ²²strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging [them] to continue in the faith and [saying], "Through many persecutions it is necessary [for] us to enter into the kingdom of God.

²³And [when they] had appointed elders for them in every church, [after] praying with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed.

²⁴And they passed through Pisidia [and] came to Pamphylia.

²⁵And [after] they proclaimed the message in Perga, they went down to Attalia, ²⁶and from there they sailed away to Antioch where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had completed.

²⁷And [when they] arrived and called the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles.

²⁸And they stayed no little time with the disciples.

15¹And some men came down from Judea [and] began teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom [prescribed] by Moses, you cannot be saved.

²And [after] there was no little strife and debate by Paul and Barnabas against them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and some others from among them to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem concerning this issue.

³So they were sent on their way by the church, [and] passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, telling in detail the conversion of the Gentiles and bringing great joy to all the brothers.

⁴And [when they] arrived in Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and reported all that God had done with them.

⁵But some of those who had believed from the party of the Pharisees stood up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to command [them] to observe the law of Moses!

⁶Both the apostles and the elders assembled to deliberate concerning this matter.

⁷And [after] there was much debate, Peter stood up [and] said to them, "Men [and] brothers, you know that in the early days God chose among you through my mouth [that] the Gentiles should hear the message of the gospel and believe.

⁸And God, who knows the heart, testified to them [by] giving [them] the Holy Spirit, just as he also [did] to us.

⁹And he made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.

¹⁰So now why are you putting God to the test [by] placing on the neck of the disciples a yoke that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

¹¹But we believe [we] will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus in _the same_ way those also [are].

¹²And the whole group became silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul describing all the signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.

¹³And after they had stopped speaking, James answered, saying, "Men [and] brothers, listen to me!

¹⁴Simeon has described how God first concerned himself to take from among the Gentiles a people for his name.

¹⁵And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

¹⁶After these [things] I will return and build up again the tent of David that has fallen, and the [parts] of it that had been torn down I will build up again and will restore it,

¹⁷so that the rest of humanity may seek the Lord, even all the Gentiles _who are called by my name_, says the Lord, who makes these [things] ¹⁸known from of old.

¹⁹Therefore I conclude we should not cause difficulty for those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, ²⁰but we should write a letter to them to abstain from the pollution of idols and from sexual immorality and from what has been strangled and from blood.

²¹For Moses has those who proclaim him in every city from ancient generations, [because he] is read aloud in the synagogues on every Sabbath.

²²Then it seemed best to the apostles and the elders, together with the whole church, to send men chosen from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas Judas who was called Barsabbas and Silas, men [who were] leaders among the brothers ²³writing [this letter] _to be delivered by them_: The apostles and the elders, brothers. To the brothers [who are] from among the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. Greetings!

²⁴Because we have heard that some have gone out from among us to whom we gave no orders[and] have thrown you into confusion by words upsetting your _minds_,

²⁵it seemed best to us, _having reached a unanimous decision_, [and] having chosen men, to send [them] to you together with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶men who have risked their lives on behalf of the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁷ Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, and they will report the same [things] by word of mouth.

²⁸ For it seemed best to the Holy Spirit and to us to place on you no greater burden except these necessary things:

²⁹ [that you] abstain from food sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. [If you] keep yourselves from _these things_ you will do well. Farewell.

³⁰ So [when] they were sent off, they came down to Antioch, and [after] calling together the community, they delivered the letter.

³¹ And [when they] read [it] aloud, they rejoiced at the encouragement.

³² Both Judas and Silas, who were also prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brothers by a long message.

³³ And [after] spending [some] time, they were sent away in peace from the brothers to those who had sent them.

³⁴ EMPTY

³⁵ But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord with many others also.

³⁶ And after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, "Come then, [let us] return [and] visit the brothers in every town in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, [to see] how they are [doing].

³⁷ Now Barnabas wanted to take John who was called Mark along also, ³⁸ but Paul held the opinion they should not take this one along, who departed from them in Pamphylia and did not accompany them in the work.

³⁹ And a sharp disagreement took place, so that they separated from one another. And Barnabas took along Mark [and] sailed away to Cyprus, ⁴⁰ but Paul chose Silas [and] departed, [after] being commended to the grace of the Lord by the brothers.

⁴¹ And he traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16¹ And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there _named_ Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman but of a Greek father, ²who was well spoken of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium.

³Paul wanted this one to go with him, and he took [him] [and] circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for [they] all knew that his father was Greek.

⁴And as they went through the towns, they passed on to them to observe the rules that had been decided by the apostles and elders [who were] in Jerusalem.

⁵So the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were growing in number every day.

⁶And they traveled through the Phrygian and Galatian region, having been prevented by the Holy Spirit from speaking the message in Asia.

⁷And [when they] came to Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, and the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them.

⁸So going through Mysia, they went down to Troas.

⁹And a vision appeared to Paul during the night: a certain Macedonian man was standing there and imploring him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia [and] help us!

¹⁰And when he had seen the vision, we wanted at once to go away to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

¹¹So putting out to sea from Troas, we sailed a straight course to Samothrace, and on the following [day] to Neapolis, ¹²and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city [of that] district of Macedonia, a [Roman] colony. And we were staying in this city for some days.

¹³And on the day of the Sabbath, we went outside the [city] gate beside the river, where we thought there was a place of prayer, and we sat down [and] spoke to the women assembled [there].

¹⁴And a certain woman _named_ Lydia from the city of Thyatira, a merchant dealing in purple cloth who showed reverence for God, was listening. The Lord opened _her_ heart to pay attention to what was being said by Paul.

¹⁵And after she was baptized, and her household, she urged [us], saying, "If you consider me to be a believer in the Lord, come to my house [and] stay." And she prevailed upon us.

¹⁶And it happened that [as] we were going to the place of prayer, a certain female slave who had a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing a large profit to her owners [by] fortune-telling.

¹⁷She followed Paul and us [and] was crying out, saying, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!

¹⁸And she was doing this for many days. But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed and turning around, said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out _immediately_.

¹⁹But [when] her owners saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas [and] dragged [them] into the marketplace before the rulers.

²⁰And [when they] had brought them to the chief magistrates, they said, "These men are throwing our city into confusion, being Jews, ²¹ and are proclaiming customs that are not permitted for us to accept or to practice, [because we] are Romans!

²² And the crowd joined in attacking them, and the chief magistrates tore off their clothing [and] gave orders to beat [them] with rods.

²³ And [after they] had inflicted many blows on them, they threw [them] into prison, giving orders to the jailer to guard them securely.

²⁴ Having received such an order, _he_ put them in the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ Now about midnight, Paul and Silas were praying [and] singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

²⁶ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened and all the bonds were unfastened.

²⁷ And [after] the jailer was awake and saw the doors of the prison open, he drew [his] sword [and] was about to kill himself, [because he] thought the prisoners had escaped.

²⁸ But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, "Do no harm to yourself, for we are all here!

²⁹ And demanding lights, he rushed in and, _beginning to tremble_, fell down at the feet of Paul and Silas.

³⁰ And he brought them outside [and] said, "Sirs, what must I do so that I can be saved?

³¹ And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your household!

³² And they spoke the message of the Lord to him, together with all those in his house.

³³ And he took them at that [very] hour of the night [and] washed [their] wounds, and he himself was baptized at once, and all those of his [household].

³⁴ And he brought them up into [his] house [and] set a meal before [them], and rejoiced greatly that he had believed in God with his whole household.

³⁵ And [when it] was day, the chief magistrates sent the police officers, saying, "Release those men.

³⁶ And the jailer reported these words to Paul: "The chief magistrates have sent

[an order] that you should be released.
So come out now [and] go in peace!

³⁷ But Paul said to them, "They beat us in public without due processmen who are Roman citizens[and] threw [us] into prison, and now they are wanting to release us secretly? Certainly not! Rather let them come themselves [and] bring us out!

³⁸ So the police officers reported these words to the chief magistrates, and they were afraid [when they] heard that they were Roman citizens.

³⁹ And they came [and] apologized to them, and [after they] brought [them] out they asked [them] to depart from the city.

⁴⁰ And [when they] came out of the prison, they went to Lydia and [when they] saw [them], they encouraged the brothers and departed.

17 ¹ Now [after they] traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

² _And as was his custom_, Paul went in to them and on three Sabbath [days] he discussed with them from the scriptures,

³ explaining and demonstrating that it was necessary [for] the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and [saying], "This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Christ."

⁵ But the Jews were filled with jealousy and, taking along some worthless men from the rabble in the marketplace and forming a mob, threw the city into an uproar. And attacking Jason's house, they were looking for them to bring [them] out to the popular assembly.

⁶ And [when they] did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brothers before the city officials, shouting, "These [people] who have stirred up trouble [throughout] the world have come here also,

⁸And they threw the crowd into confusion, and the city officials who heard these [things].

⁹And [after] taking money as security from Jason and the rest, they released them.

¹⁰Now the brothers sent away both Paul and Silas at once, during the night, to Berea. _They_ went into the synagogue of the Jews [when they] arrived.

¹¹Now these were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica. _They_ accepted the message with all eagerness, examining the scriptures every day [to see] if these [things] were so.

¹²Therefore many of them believed, and not a few of the prominent Greek women and men.

¹³But when the Jews from Thessalonica found out that the message of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea also, they came there too, inciting and stirring up the crowds.

¹⁴So then the brothers sent Paul away at once to go to the sea, and both Silas and Timothy remained there.

¹⁵And those who conducted Paul brought [him] as far as Athens, and [after] receiving an order for Silas and Timothy that they should come to him as soon as possible, they went away.

¹⁶Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him [when he] observed the city was full of idols.

¹⁷So he was discussing in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing [Gentiles], and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there.

¹⁸And even some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him, and some were saying, "What does this babbler want to say?" But [others said], "He appears to be a proclaimer of foreign deities," because he was proclaiming the good news [about] Jesus and the resurrection.

¹⁹And they took hold of him [and] brought [him] to the Areopagus, saying, "May we learn what [is] this new teaching being proclaimed by you?"

²⁰For you are bringing some astonishing things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what _these things mean_."

²¹ (Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who stayed there used to spend [their] time in nothing else than telling something or listening to something new.)

²² So Paul stood there in the middle of the Areopagus [and] said, "Men of Athens, I see you [are] very religious _in every respect_.

²³ For [as I] was passing through and observing carefully your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which was inscribed, To an unknown God. Therefore what you worship without knowing [it], this I proclaim to you

²⁴ the God who made the world and all the things in it. This one, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by human hands, ²⁵ nor is he served by human hands [as if he] needed anything, [because] he himself gives to everyone life and breath and everything.

²⁶ And he made from one [man] every nation of humanity to live on all the face of the earth, determining [their] fixed times and the fixed boundaries of their habitation,

²⁷ to search for God, if perhaps indeed they might feel around for him and find [him]. And indeed he is not far away from each one of us, ²⁸ for in him we live and move and exist, as even some of _your own_ poets have said: For we also are _his_ offspring.

²⁹ Therefore, [because we] are offspring of God, we ought not to think the divine being is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by human skill and thought.

³⁰ Therefore [although] God has overlooked the times of ignorance, he now commands all people everywhere to repent, ³¹ because he has set a day on which he is going to judge the world in righteousness by the man who he has appointed, having provided proof to everyone [by] raising him from the dead.

³² Now [when they] heard about the resurrection of the dead, [some] scoffed, but [others] said, "We will hear you about this again also.

³³ So Paul went out from the midst of them.

³⁴ But some people joined him [and] believed, among whom also [were] Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman _named_ Damaris and others with them.

18¹ After these [things] he departed from Athens [and] went to Corinth.

² And he found a certain Jew _named_ Aquila, _a native_ of Pontus who had arrived recently from Italy _along with_ Priscilla his wife, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome, [and] he went to them.

³ And because [he] was practicing the same trade, he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade.

⁴ And he argued in the synagogue every Sabbath, attempting to persuade both Jews and Greeks.

⁵ Now when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul began to be occupied with the message, solemnly testifying to the Jews [that] the Christ was Jesus.

⁶ And [when] they resisted and reviled [him], he shook out [his] clothes [and] said to them, "Your blood [be] on your [own] heads! I [am] guiltless! From now on I will go to the Gentiles!

⁷And leaving there, he entered into the house of someone _named_ Titius Justus, a worshiper of God whose house was next door to the synagogue.

⁸And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with his whole household. And many of the Corinthians, [when they] heard about [it], believed and were baptized.

⁹And the Lord said to Paul by a vision in the night, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not keep silent, ¹⁰because I am with you and no one will attack you to harm you, because many people are mine in this city.

¹¹So he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹²Now [when] Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews rose up with one purpose against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, ¹³saying, "This man is persuading people to worship God contrary to the law!

¹⁴But [when] Paul was about to open [his] mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it was some crime or wicked villainy, O Jews, _I would have been justified in accepting_ your complaint.

¹⁵But if it is questions concerning a word and names and _your own law_, see to [it] yourselves! I do not wish to be a judge of these [things].

¹⁶And he drove them away from the judgment seat.

¹⁷So they all seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, [and] began beating [him] in front of the judgment seat. And none of these [things] was a concern to Gallio.

¹⁸So Paul, [after] remaining many days longer, said farewell to the brothers [and] sailed away to Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved [his] head at Cenchrea, because he had [taken] a vow.

¹⁹So they arrived at Ephesus, and those he left behind there, but he himself entered into the synagogue [and] discussed with the Jews.

²⁰And [when] they asked [him] to stay for a longer time, he did not give his consent, ²¹ but saying farewell and telling [them], "I will return to you again [if] God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.

²² And [when he] arrived at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, [and] went down to Antioch.

²³ And [after] spending some time [there], he departed, traveling through one [place] after another [in] the Galatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

²⁴ Now a certain Jew _named_ Apollos, _a native_ Alexandrian, arrived in Ephesus an eloquent man who was well-versed in the scriptures.

²⁵ This man had been instructed [in] the way of the Lord, and being enthusiastic in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the [things] about Jesus, [although he] knew only the baptism of John.

²⁶ And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but [when] Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God to him more accurately.

²⁷ And [when] he wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged [him] [and] wrote to the disciples to welcome him. [When he] arrived, _he_ assisted greatly those who had believed through grace.

²⁸For he was vigorously refuting the Jews in public, demonstrating through the scriptures [that] the Christ was Jesus.

19¹And it happened that [while] Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the inland regions [and] came down to Ephesus and found some disciples.

²And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit [when you] believed?" And they [said] to him, "But we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit!

³And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into the baptism of John.

⁴And Paul said, "John baptized [with] a baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the one who was to come after him that is, in Jesus.

⁵And [when they] heard [this], they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

⁶And [when] Paul placed [his] hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them and they began to speak in tongues and to prophesy.

⁷(Now the total [number] [of] men was about twelve.)

⁸So he entered into the synagogue [and] was speaking boldly for three months, discussing and attempting to convince [them] [of] the things concerning the kingdom of God.

⁹But when some became hardened and were disobedient, reviling the Way before the congregation, he departed from them [and] took away the disciples, leading discussions every day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

¹⁰And this took place for two years, so that all who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

¹¹And God was performing _extraordinary_ miracles by the hands of Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs or work aprons _that had touched his skin_ were carried away to those who were sick, and [their] diseases left them and the evil spirits came out [of them].

¹³ But some itinerant Jewish exorcists also attempted to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches!

¹⁴ (Now seven sons of a certain Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.)

¹⁵ But the evil spirit answered [and] said to them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with, but who are you?

¹⁶ And the man _who had the evil spirit_ leaped on them, subdued all of them, [and] prevailed against them, so that they ran away from that house naked and wounded.

¹⁷ And this became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was exalted.

¹⁸ And many of those who had believed came, confessing and disclosing their practices, ¹⁹ and many of those who practiced magic brought together [their] books [and] burned [them] up in the sight of everyone. And they counted up their value and found [it was] _fifty thousand silver coins_.

²⁰In this way the word of the Lord was growing in power and was prevailing.

²¹Now when these [things] were completed, Paul resolved in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, it is necessary [for] me to see Rome also.

²²So [after] sending two of those who were assisting him, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, he himself stayed [some] time in Asia.

²³Now there happened at that time no little disturbance concerning the Way.

²⁴For someone _named_ Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver replicas of the temple of Artemis, was bringing no little business to the craftsmen.

²⁵_These_ he gathered together, and the workers occupied with such things, [and] said, "Men, you know that from this business _we get our prosperity_, ²⁶and you see and hear that not only in Ephesus but in almost all of Asia this man Paul has persuaded [and] turned away a large crowd [by] saying that the [gods] made by hands are not gods.

²⁷ So not only is there a danger this line of business of ours [will] come into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis [will] be regarded as nothing and [she] is about to be brought down even from her grandeur, [she] whom the whole [of] Asia and the [entire] world worship!

²⁸ And [when they] heard [this] and became full of rage, they began to shout, saying, "Great [is] Artemis of the Ephesians!

²⁹ And the city was filled with the tumult, and with one purpose they rushed into the theater, seizing Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians [who were] traveling companions of Paul.

³⁰ But [when] Paul wanted to enter into the popular assembly, the disciples would not let him.

³¹ And even some of the Asiarchs who were his friends sent [word] to him [and] were urging [him] not to risk himself [by going] into the theater.

³² So some were shouting [one thing] [and] some another, for the assembly was in confusion, and the majority did not know _why_ they had assembled.

³³ And [some] of the crowd advised Alexander, [when] the Jews put him forward. But Alexander, motioning [with his] hand, was wanting to defend himself to the popular assembly.

³⁴ But [when they] recognized that he was a Jew, they were shouting with one voice from all [of them] for about two hours, "Great [is] Artemis of the Ephesians!

³⁵ And [when] the city secretary had quieted the crowd, he said, "Ephesian men, for who is there among men who does not know the Ephesian city is honorary temple keeper of the great Artemis and of [her] image fallen from heaven?

³⁶ Therefore [because] these [things] are undeniable, it is necessary [that] you be quiet and do nothing rash!

³⁷ For you have brought these men [here] [who are] neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

³⁸ If then Demetrius and the craftsmen [who are] with him have a complaint against anyone, the court days are observed and there are proconsuls let them bring charges against one another!

³⁹ But if you desire anything further, it will be settled in the lawful assembly.

⁴⁰ For indeed we are in danger of being accused of rioting concerning today, [since there] is no cause in relation to which we will be able to give an account concerning this disorderly gathering!

⁴¹ (19-40b) And [when he] had said these [things], he dismissed the assembly.

20¹ Now after the turmoil had ceased, Paul summoned the disciples, and [after] encouraging [them], he said farewell [and] departed to travel to Macedonia.

² And [after he] had gone through those regions and encouraged them _at length_, he came to Greece

³ and stayed three months. [Because] a plot was made against him by the Jews [as he] was about to set sail for Syria, he came to a decision to return through Macedonia.

⁴ And Sopater [son] of Pyrrhus from Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, and Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia, were accompanying him.

⁵And these had gone on ahead [and] were waiting for us in Troas.

⁶And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread and came to them at Troas within five days, where we stayed seven days.

⁷And on the first [day] of the week, [when] we had assembled to break bread, Paul began conversing with them, [because he] was going to leave on the next day, and he extended [his] message until midnight.

⁸Now there were quite a few lamps in the upstairs room where we were gathered.

⁹And a certain young man _named_ Eutychus who was sitting in the window was sinking into a deep sleep [while] Paul was conversing at length. Being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead.

¹⁰But Paul went down [and] threw himself on him, and putting his arms around [him], said, "Do not be distressed, for his life is in him.

¹¹ So he went up and broke bread, and [when he] had eaten and talked for a long [time], until dawn, then he departed.

¹² And they led the youth away alive, and _were greatly_ comforted.

¹³ But we went on ahead to the ship [and] put out to sea for Assos, intending to take Paul on board there. For having made arrangements in this way, he himself was intending to travel by land.

¹⁴ And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board [and] went to Mitylene.

¹⁵ And we sailed from there on the next [day], [and] arrived opposite Chios. And on the next [day] we approached Samos, and on the following [day] we came to Miletus.

¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he would not be [having] to spend time in Asia. For he was hurrying if it could be possible for him to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷ And from Miletus he sent [word] to Ephesus [and] summoned the elders of the church.

¹⁸And when they came to him, he said to them, "You know from the first day on which I set foot in Asia how I was the whole time with you

¹⁹serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, and with the trials that happened to me through the plots of the Jews

²⁰how I did not shrink from proclaiming to you anything that would be profitable, and [from] teaching you in public and from house [to house], ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks with respect to repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.

²²And now behold, bound by the Spirit I am traveling to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me _there_, ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in town [after town], saying that bonds and persecutions await me.

²⁴But I consider [my] life [as] worth _nothing_ to myself, in order to finish my mission and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify [to] the gospel of the grace of God.

²⁵ And now behold, I know that all [of] you, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom, will see my face no more.

²⁶ Therefore I testify to you on this very day that I am guiltless of the blood of all [of you], ²⁷ for I did not shrink from proclaiming to you the whole purpose of God.

²⁸ Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock among which the Holy Spirit has appointed you [as] overseers, to shepherd the church of God which he obtained through the blood of his own [Son].

²⁹ I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

³⁰ And from among you yourselves men will arise, speaking _perversions of the truth_ in order to draw away the disciples after them.

³¹ Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day [for] three years I did not stop warning each one [of you] with tears.

³² And now I entrust you to God and to the message of his grace, which is able to build [you] up and to give [you] the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

³³I have desired no ones silver or gold or clothing!

³⁴You yourselves know that these hands served [to meet] my needs and [the needs of] those who were with me.

³⁵I have shown you [with respect to] all [things] that [by] working hard in this way it is necessary to help those who are in need, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus that he himself said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

³⁶And [when he] had said these [things], he fell to his knees [and] prayed with them all.

³⁷And there was considerable weeping by all, and _hugging_ Paul, they kissed him, ³⁸especially distressed at the statement that he had said, that they were going to see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21¹ And it happened that after we tore ourselves away from them, we put out to sea, [and] running a straight course we came to Cos and on the next [day] to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

²And finding a ship that was crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard [and] put out to sea.

³And [after we] sighted Cyprus and left it behind _on the port side_, we sailed to Syria and arrived at Tyre, because the ship was to unload [its] cargo there.

⁴And we stayed there seven days [after we] found the disciples, who kept telling Paul through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.

⁵And it happened that when our days were over, we departed [and] went on our way, [while] all [of them] accompanied us, together with [their] wives and children, as far as outside the city. And [after] falling to our knees on the beach [and] praying, ⁶we said farewell to one another and embarked in the ship, and they returned to their own [homes].

⁷And [when] we had completed the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. And [after we] greeted the brothers, we stayed one day with them.

⁸And on the next day we departed [and] came to Caesarea, and entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was [one] of the seven, [and] stayed with him.

⁹(Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.)

¹⁰And [while we] were staying [there] many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

¹¹And he came to us and took Pauls belt. Tying up his own feet and hands, he said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: In this way the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man whose belt this is, and will deliver [him] into the hands of the Gentiles.

¹²And when we heard these [things], both we and the local residents urged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

¹³Then Paul replied, "What are you doing weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be tied up, but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus!

¹⁴And [because] he would not be persuaded, we remained silent, saying, "The will of the Lord be done.

¹⁵ So after these days we got ready [and] went up to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ And [some] of the disciples from Caesarea also traveled together with us, bringing [us] to a certain Mnason of Cyprus, a disciple of long standing, with whom we were to be entertained as guests.

¹⁷ And [when] we came to Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly.

¹⁸ And on the next [day] Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present.

¹⁹ And [after] greeting them, he began to relate _one after the other_ [the things] which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰ And [when] they heard [this], they began to glorify God. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many ten thousands there are among the Jews who have believed, and they are all zealous adherents of the law.

²¹ And they have been informed about you that you are teaching all the Jews [who are] among the Gentiles [the] abandonment of Moses, telling them not to circumcise [their] children or to live according to [our] customs.

²²What then _is to be done_? Doubtless they will all hear that you have come!

²³Therefore do this that we tell you: _we have_ four men who have [taken] a vow on themselves.

²⁴Take these [men] [and] purify yourself along with them and _pay their expenses_ so that they can shave [their] heads, and everyone will know that [the things] which they had been informed about you are nothing, but you yourself also agree with observing the law.

²⁵But concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we have written a letter [after] deciding they should avoid food sacrificed to idols and blood and [what has been] strangled and sexual immorality.

²⁶Then Paul took along the men on the next day, [and] [after he] had purified himself together with them, he entered into the temple [courts], announcing the completion of the days of purification until _the time_ the offering would be presented on behalf of each one of them.

²⁷ But when the seven days were about to be completed, the Jews from Asia who had seen him in the temple [courts] stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him, ²⁸ shouting, "Israelite men, help! This is the man who is teaching everyone everywhere against the people and the law and this place! And furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!

²⁹ (For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, whom they thought that Paul had brought into the temple.)

³⁰ And the whole city was stirred up, and the people came running together, and they seized Paul [and] dragged him outside of the temple [courts], and immediately the doors were shut.

³¹ And [as they] were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the military tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

³² _He_ immediately took along soldiers and centurions [and] ran down to them. And [when] they saw the military tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³Then the military tribune came up [and] arrested him and ordered [him] to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what it was that he had done.

³⁴But some in the crowd were shouting one thing [and] others [another], and [because] he was not able to find out the truth on account of the commotion, he gave orders to bring him into the barracks.

³⁵And when he came to the steps, it happened that he had to be carried by the soldiers on account of the violence of the crowd,

³⁶for the crowd of people was following [them], shouting, "Away with him!"

³⁷And [as he] was about to be brought into the barracks, Paul said to the military tribune, "Is it permitted for me to say something to you?" And he said, "Do you know Greek?"

³⁸Then you are not the Egyptian who before these days raised a revolt and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

³⁹ But Paul said, "I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no unimportant city. Now I ask you, allow me to speak to the people.

⁴⁰ So [when] he permitted [him], Paul, standing there on the steps, motioned with [his] hand to the people. And [when there] was a great silence, he addressed [them] in the Aramaic language, saying, 22 ¹ Men brothers and fathers listen to my defense to you now!

² And [when they] heard that he was addressing them in the Aramaic language, _they became even more silent_. And he said, ³ I am a Jewish man born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated according to the exactness of the law received from our fathers, being zealous for God, just as all [of] you are today.

⁴ _I_ persecuted this Way to the death, tying up and delivering to prison both men and women,

⁵ as indeed the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me, from whom also I received letters to the brothers in Damascus, [and] was traveling [there] to lead away those who were there also tied up to Jerusalem so that they could be punished.

⁶"And it happened that [as] I was traveling and approaching Damascus around noon, suddenly a very bright light from heaven flashed around me, ⁷and I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?

⁸And I answered, Who are you, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus the Nazarene whom you are persecuting.

⁹(Now those who were with me saw the light but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me.)

¹⁰So I said, What should I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Get up [and] proceed to Damascus, and there it will be told to you about all [the things] that have been appointed for you to do.

¹¹And as I could not see as a result of the brightness of that light, I arrived in Damascus led by the hand of those who were with me.

¹²And a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who live [there], ¹³came to me and stood by [me] [and] said to me, Brother Saul, regain [your] sight! And [at that] same time I looked up at him [and saw him].

¹⁴And he said, The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One and to hear a voice from his mouth, ¹⁵because you will be a witness for him to all people of what you have seen and heard.

¹⁶And now why are you delaying? Get up, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name!

¹⁷And it happened that [when] I returned to Jerusalem and I was praying in the temple courts, I was in a trance, ¹⁸and saw him saying to me, Hurry and depart _quickly_ from Jerusalem, because they will not accept your testimony about me.

¹⁹And I said, Lord, they themselves know that from synagogue [to synagogue] I was imprisoning and beating those who believed in you.

²⁰And when the blood of your witness Stephen was being shed, I myself also was standing near and was approving, and was guarding the cloaks of those who were killing him.

²¹ And he said to me, Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles!

²² Now they were listening to him until this word, and they raised their voices, saying, "Away with such a man from the earth! For it is not fitting [for] him to live!

²³ And [while] they were screaming and throwing off [their] cloaks and throwing dust into the air, ²⁴ the military tribune ordered him to be brought into the barracks, saying he was to be examined with a lash so that he could find out for what reason they were crying out against him in this way.

²⁵ But when they had stretched him out for the lash, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is it permitted for you to flog a man [who is] a Roman citizen and uncondemned?

²⁶ And [when] the centurion heard [this], he went to the military tribune [and] reported [it], saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen!

²⁷ So the military tribune came [and] said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes.

²⁸ And the military tribune replied, "I acquired this citizenship for a large sum of money." And Paul said, "But I indeed was born [a citizen].

²⁹ Then immediately those who were about to examine him kept away from him, and the military tribune also was afraid [when he] realized that he was a Roman citizen and that _he had tied him up_.

³⁰ But on the next day, [because he] wanted to know the true [reason] why he was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin to assemble, and he brought down Paul [and] had [him] stand before them.

23¹ And looking intently at the Sanhedrin, Paul said, "Men [and] brothers, I have lived my life in all good conscience before God to this day.

² So the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near him to strike his mouth.

³Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, [you] whitewashed wall! And are you sitting [there] judging me according to the law, and acting contrary to the law do you order me to be struck?"

⁴And those who stood nearby said, "Are you reviling the high priest of God?"

⁵And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, You must not speak evil [of] a ruler of your people."

⁶Now [when] Paul realized that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted out in the Sanhedrin, "Men [and] brothers! I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! I am being judged concerning the hope and the resurrection of the dead!"

⁷And [when] he said this, a dispute developed between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

⁸(For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angel or spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge [them] all.)

⁹And there was loud shouting, and some of the scribes from the party of the Pharisees stood up [and] contended sharply, saying, "We find nothing wrong with this man! But [what] if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?

¹⁰And [when] the dispute became severe, the military tribune, fearing lest Paul be torn apart by them, ordered the detachment to go down, take him away from their midst, and bring [him] into the barracks.

¹¹And the next night the Lord stood by him [and] said, "Have courage, for as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.

¹²And [when it] was day, the Jews made a conspiracy [and] bound themselves under a curse, saying [they would] neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

¹³Now there were more [than] forty who had made this conspiracy, ¹⁴who went to the chief priests and the elders [and] said, "We have bound ourselves under a curse to partake of nothing until we have killed Paul.

¹⁵Therefore, now you along with the Sanhedrin explain to the military tribune that he should bring him down to you, as

[if you] were going to determine more accurately the things concerning him. And we are ready to do away with him before he comes near.

¹⁶But [when] the son of Pauls sister heard about the ambush, he came and entered into the barracks [and] reported [it] to Paul.

¹⁷So Paul called one of the centurions [and] said, "Bring this young man to the military tribune, because he has something to report to him.

¹⁸So he took him [and] brought [him] to the military tribune and said, "The prisoner Paul called me [and] asked [me] to bring this young man to you [because he] has something to tell you.

¹⁹And the military tribune, taking hold of his hand and withdrawing privately, asked, "What is it that you have to report to me?

²⁰And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you that you bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as [if they] were going to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him.

²¹You therefore do not be persuaded by them, because more [than] forty men of _their number_ are lying in wait [for] him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have done away with him. And now they are ready, waiting for _you to agree_."

²² So the military tribune sent the young man away, directing [him], "Tell no one that you have revealed these [things] to me.

²³ And he summoned two of the centurions [and] said, "Make ready from the third hour of the night two hundred soldiers and seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, in order that they may proceed as far as Caesarea.

²⁴ And provide mounts so that they can put Paul on them [and] bring [him] safely to Felix the governor.

²⁵ _He wrote_ a letter that had this form:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias. To his excellency Governor Felix. Greetings!

²⁷ This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them [when I] came upon [them] with the detachment [and] rescued [him], [because I] learned that he was a Roman citizen.

²⁸And [because I] wanted to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought [him] down to their Sanhedrin.

²⁹I found _he_ was accused concerning controversial questions of their law, but having no charge deserving death or imprisonment.

³⁰And [when it] was made known to me there would be a plot against the man, I sent [him] to you immediately, also ordering [his] accusers to state _the charges_ against him before you.

³¹Therefore the soldiers, in accordance with _their orders_, took Paul [and] brought [him] to Antipatris during the night.

³²And on the next day they let the horsemen go on with him, [and] they returned to the barracks.

³³_The horsemen_, [when they] came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him.

³⁴So [after] reading [the letter] and asking what province he was from, and learning that [he was] from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, "I will give you a hearing whenever your accusers arrive also," giving orders [for] him to be guarded in the praetorium of Herod.

24¹ And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney, a certain Tertullus, all of whom brought charges against Paul to the governor.

² And [when] he had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse [him], saying, "We have experienced much peace through you, and reforms are taking place in this nation through your foresight.

³ Both in every [way] and everywhere we acknowledge [this], most excellent Felix, with all gratitude.

⁴ But so that I may not impose on you for longer, I implore you to hear us briefly with your [customary] graciousness.

⁶ who even attempted to desecrate the temple, and we arrested _him _.

⁷ EMPTY

⁸[When] you yourself examine [him] you will be able to find out from _him_ about all these [things] of which we are accusing him.

⁹And the Jews also joined in the attack, asserting these [things] were so.

¹⁰And [when] the governor gestured for him to speak, Paul replied, "[Because I] know you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I defend myself cheerfully [with respect to] the things concerning myself.

¹¹You can ascertain that _it has not been more than_ twelve days _since_ I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

¹²And neither did they find me arguing with anyone or making a crowd develop in the temple [courts] nor in the synagogues nor throughout the city.

¹³Nor can they prove [the things] to you concerning which they are now accusing me.

¹⁴But I do confess this to you, that according to the Way (which they call a sect), so I worship the God of our fathers, believing all things [that are] in accordance with the law and that are written in the prophets, ¹⁵ having a hope in God which these [men] also themselves await: [that] there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

¹⁶ _For this reason_ also [I] myself _always_ do my best to have a clear conscience toward God and people.

¹⁷ So after many years, I came to practice charitable giving and offerings to my people, ¹⁸ in which they found me purified in the temple [courts], not with a crowd or with a disturbance.

¹⁹ But [there are] some Jews from Asia who ought to be present before you and bring charges against [me], if they have anything against me,

²⁰ or these [men] themselves should say what crime they found [when] I stood before the Sanhedrin, ²¹ other than concerning this one declaration that I shouted [while] standing there before them: I am being judged before you today concerning the resurrection of the dead!

²² But Felix, [because he] understood the [facts] concerning the Way more accurately, put them off, saying, "When

Lysias the military tribune comes down,
I will decide _your case_."

²³ [He] ordered the centurion [for] him to be guarded and to have some freedom, and in no way to prevent any of his own [people] [from] serving him.

²⁴ And after some days, [when] Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and listened to him concerning faith in Christ Jesus.

²⁵ And [while] he was discussing about righteousness and self control and the judgment that is to come, Felix became afraid [and] replied, "Go away for the present, and [when I] have an opportunity, I will summon you.

²⁶ At the same time he was also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul. For this reason also he sent for him as often as possible [and] talked with him.

²⁷ And [when] two years had passed, Felix received as successor Porcius Festus. And [because he] wanted to do a favor for the Jews, Felix left Paul behind _as a prisoner_.

25 ¹ Now [when] Festus set foot in the province, after three days he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

² And the chief priests and the most prominent men of the Jews brought charges against Paul to him, and were urging him, ³ asking for a favor against him, that he summon him to Jerusalem, [because they] were preparing an ambush to do away with him along the way.

⁴ Then Festus replied [that] Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and [he] himself was about to go [there] in a short time.

⁵ So he said, "Let those among you [who are] prominent go down with [me], [and] if there is any wrong in the man, let them bring charges against him.

⁶ And [after he] had stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. On the next day he sat down on the judgment seat [and] gave orders [for] Paul to be brought.

⁷ And [when] he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges that they were not able to prove,

⁸[while] Paul said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews nor against the temple nor against Caesar have I sinned with reference to anything!"

⁹But Festus, [because he] wanted to do a favor for the Jews, answered [and] said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be tried before me there concerning these [things]?"

¹⁰But Paul said, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where it is necessary [for] me to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.

¹¹If then I am doing wrong and have done anything deserving death, I am not trying to avoid dying. But if there is nothing [true] of [the things] which these [people] are accusing me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!

¹²Then Festus, [after] discussing [this] with [his] council, replied, "You have appealed to Caesar to Caesar you will go!"

¹³Now [after] some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to welcome Festus.

¹⁴And while they were staying there many days, Festus laid out the [case] against Paul to the king, saying, "There is a certain man left behind by Felix [as] a prisoner, ¹⁵concerning whom [when] I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and the elders of the Jews presented evidence, asking for a sentence of condemnation against him.

¹⁶To _them_ I replied that it was not the custom of the Romans to give up any man before the one who had been accused met [his] accusers face to [face] and received an opportunity for a defense concerning the accusation.

¹⁷Therefore, [when] they had assembled here, [I] made no delay; on the next [day] I sat down on the judgment seat [and] gave orders [for] the man to be brought.

¹⁸[When they] stood up, [his] accusers began bringing no charge concerning _him_ of the evil deeds that I was suspecting, ¹⁹but they had some issues with him concerning their own religion, and concerning a certain Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul claimed to be alive.

²⁰And [because] I was at a loss with regard to the investigation concerning these [things], I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and to be judged there concerning these [things].

²¹But [when] Paul appealed [that] he be kept under guard for the decision of His Majesty the Emperor, I gave orders [for] him to be kept under guard until I could send him to Caesar.

²²So Agrippa [said] to Festus, "I want to hear the man myself also." "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

²³So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pageantry and entered into the audience hall, along with military tribunes and the most prominent men of the city. And [when] Festus gave the order, Paul was brought in.

²⁴And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole population of the Jews appealed to me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting [that] he must not live any longer.

²⁵ But I understood [that] he had done nothing deserving death himself, and [when] this man appealed to His Majesty the Emperor, I decided to send [him].

²⁶ I do not have anything definite to write to [my] lord about _him_. Therefore I have brought him before you [all] and especially before you, King Agrippaso that [after] this preliminary hearing has taken place, I may have something to write.

²⁷ For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not to indicate the charges against him.

26¹ So Agrippa said to Paul, "It is permitted for you to speak for yourself." Then Paul extended [his] hand [and] began to defend himself:

² Concerning all [the things] of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate [that] before you I am about to defend myself today,

⁴ Now all the Jews know my manner of life from [my] youth, that had taken place from the beginning among my [own] people and in Jerusalem, ⁵ having known me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that in accordance with the strictest party of our religion I lived [as] a Pharisee.

⁶ And now I stand here on trial on the basis of hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷ to which our twelve tribes hope to attain as [they] earnestly serve [him] night and day. Concerning this hope I am being accused by the Jews, O king!

⁸ Why is it thought incredible by you [people] that God raises the dead?

⁹ Indeed, I myself thought it was necessary to do many [things] opposed to the name of Jesus the Nazarene, ¹⁰ which I also did in Jerusalem, and not only did I lock up many of the saints in prison, having received authority from the chief priests, but also [when] they were being executed, I cast [my] vote against [them].

¹¹ And throughout all the synagogues I punished them often [and] tried to force

[them] to blaspheme, and [because I] was enraged at them beyond measure, I was pursuing [them] even as far as to foreign cities.

¹²In _this activity_ I was traveling to Damascus with the authority and full power of the chief priests.

¹³In the middle of the day along the road, O king, I saw a light from heaven, more than the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who were traveling with me.

¹⁴And [when] we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Aramaic language, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? [It is] hard for you to kick against the goads!

¹⁵So I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

¹⁶But get up and stand on your feet, because for this [reason] I have appeared to you, to appoint you a servant and witness both [to the things] in which you saw me and [to the things] in which I will appear to you,

¹⁷rescuing you from the people and from the Gentiles to whom I am sending you, ¹⁸to open their eyes [so that they] may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, [so that] they may receive forgiveness of sins and a share among those who are sanctified by faith in me.

¹⁹Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, ²⁰but to those in Damascus first, and in Jerusalem and all the region of Judea and to the Gentiles, I proclaimed [that they should] repent and turn to God, doing deeds worthy of repentance.

²¹On account of these [things] the Jews seized me [while I] was in the temple [courts] [and] were attempting to kill [me].

²²Therefore I have experienced help from God until this day, [and] I stand here testifying to both small and great, saying nothing except what both the prophets and Moses have said were going to happen,

²³that the Christ was to suffer [and] that [as] the first of the resurrection from the dead, he was going to proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

²⁴ And [as] he was saying these things in his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "You are out of your mind, Paul! [Your] great learning _is driving_ you _insane_!"

²⁵ But Paul said, "I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but am speaking words of truth and rationality.

²⁶ For the king knows about these [things], to whom also I am speaking freely, for I am not convinced [that] any of these [things] in any way has escaped his notice, because this _was_ not _done_ in a corner.

²⁷ Do you believe the prophets, King Agrippa? I know that you believe.

²⁸ But Agrippa [said] to Paul, "In a short time are you persuading me to become a Christian?"

²⁹ And Paul [replied], "I pray to God, whether in a short time or in a long time, not only you but also all those who are listening to me today may become such [people] as I also am, except for these bonds!

³⁰Both the king and the governor got up, and Bernice and those who were sitting with them.

³¹And [as they] were going out, they were talking to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything deserving death or imprisonment.

³²And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar.

27¹And when it was decided [that] we would sail away to Italy, they handed over Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion _named_ Julius of the Augustan Cohort.

²And we went aboard a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to the places along the [coast] of Asia [and] put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

³And on the next [day], we put in at Sidon. And Julius, treating Paul kindly, allowed [him] to go to [his] friends _to be cared for_.

⁴And from there we put out to sea [and] sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against [us].

⁵And [after we] had sailed across the open sea along Cilicia and Pamphylia, we put in at Myra in Lycia.

⁶And there the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy [and] put us _on board_ it.

⁷And sailing slowly, in many days and with difficulty we came to Cnidus. [Because] the wind did not permit us to go further, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone.

⁸And sailing along its coast with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the town of Lasea.

⁹And [because] considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous because even the Fast was already over, Paul strongly recommended, ¹⁰saying to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage is going _to end_ with disaster and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives!

¹¹But the centurion was convinced even more by the shipmaster and the shipowner than by what was said by Paul.

¹²And [because] the harbor was unsuitable for spending the winter in, the majority decided on a plan to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could arrive at Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing toward the southwest and toward the northwest, to spend the winter [there].

¹³And [when] a southwest wind began to blow gently, [because they] thought [they] could accomplish their purpose, they weighed anchor [and] sailed close along Crete.

¹⁴But not long afterward a wind like a hurricane, called the northeaster, rushed down from it.

¹⁵And [when] the ship was caught and [was] not able to head into the wind, we gave way [and] were driven [along].

¹⁶And running under the lee of a certain small island called Cauda, we were able with difficulty to get the ships boat under control.

¹⁷[After] hoisting _it up_, they made use of supports to undergird the ship. And [because they] were afraid lest they run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor [and] thus were driven [along].

¹⁸And [because] we were violently battered by the storm, on the next [day] _they began_ jettisoning [the cargo], ¹⁹and on the third [day] they threw overboard the gear of the ship with their own hands.

²⁰But [when] neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and [with] not a little bad weather confronting [us], finally all hope was abandoned [that] we would be saved.

²¹And [because] many were experiencing lack of appetite, at that time Paul stood up in their midst [and] said, "Men, [you] ought to have followed my [advice] not to put out to sea from Crete, and [thus] avoided this damage and loss!

²²And now I urge you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life from among you, but only of the ship.

²³For this night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve came to me, ²⁴saying, Do not be afraid, Paul! It is necessary [for] you to stand before Caesar, and behold, God has graciously granted you all who are sailing with you.

²⁵Therefore keep up your courage, men, for I believe God that it will be like this according to _the_ way it was told to me.

²⁶But it is necessary [that] we run aground on some island.

²⁷And when the fourteenth night had come, [as] we were being driven in the Adriatic Sea about the middle of the night, the sailors suspected _they were approaching some land_.

²⁸And taking soundings, they found twenty fathoms. So going on a little [further] and taking soundings again, they found fifteen fathoms.

²⁹And [because they] were afraid lest somewhere we run aground against rough places, they threw down four anchors from the stern [and] prayed for day to come.

³⁰And [when] the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship and were lowering the ship's boat into the sea, pretending as if they were going to lay out anchors from the bow, ³¹ Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these [men] remain with the ship, you cannot be saved!

³² Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship's boat and let it fall away.

³³ And until the day was about to come, Paul was urging [them] all to take [some] food, saying, "Today [is the] fourteenth day you have waited [anxiously], [and] you have continued without eating, having taken nothing.

³⁴ Therefore I urge you to take [some] food, for this is necessary for your preservation. For not a hair from your head will be lost.

³⁵ And [after he] said these [things] and took bread, he gave thanks to God in front of [them] all, and [after] breaking [it], he began to eat.

³⁶ So they all were encouraged and partook of food themselves.

³⁷ (Now we were [in] all two hundred seventy six persons on the ship.)

³⁸ And [when they] had eaten their fill of food, they lightened the ship [by] throwing the wheat into the sea.

³⁹ Now when day came, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay having a beach, onto which they decided to run the ship ashore if they could.

⁴⁰And slipping the anchors, they left [them] in the sea, at the same time loosening the ropes of the steering oars. And hoisting the foresail to the [wind] that was blowing, they held course for the beach.

⁴¹But falling into a place of crosscurrents, they ran the ship aground. And the bow stuck fast [and] stayed immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the force of the waves.

⁴²Now the plan of the soldiers was that they would kill the prisoners lest any escape [by] swimming away,

⁴³but the centurion, [because he] wanted to save Paul, prevented them _from doing what they intended_, and gave orders [that] those who were able to swim should jump in first to get to the land, ⁴⁴and [then] the rest, [some] of whom [floated] on planks and [some] of whom on anything [that was] from the ship.

And in this way all were brought safely to the land.

28¹ And [after we] were brought safely through, then we found out that the island was called Malta.

² And the local inhabitants showed _extraordinary_ kindness to us, for they lit a fire [and] welcomed us all, because of the rain that had begun and because of the cold.

³ And [when] Paul had gathered a large number of sticks and was placing [them] on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat [and] fastened itself on his hand.

⁴ And when the local people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "Doubtless this man is a murderer whom, [although he] was rescued from the sea, Justice has not permitted to live!

⁵ He, in turn, shook off the creature into the fire [and] suffered no harm.

⁶ But they were expecting [that] he was going to swell up or suddenly to fall down dead. So [after] they had waited for a long [time] and saw nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds [and] began saying [that] he was a god.

⁷Now in the [regions] around that place were fields belonging to the chief official of the island, _named_ Publius, who welcomed us [and] entertained [us] hospitably [for] three days.

⁸And it happened that the father of Publius was lying down, afflicted with fever and dysentery. Paul went to _him_ and [after] praying, he placed [his] hands on him [and] healed him.

⁹And [after] this had taken place, the rest of those on the island who had diseases were coming and being healed also.

¹⁰They also honored us with many honors, and [when we] were putting out to sea, they gave [us] the [things] _we needed_.

¹¹Now after three months we put out to sea in a ship that had wintered at the island, an Alexandrian [one] _with the twin gods Castor and Pollux as its insignia_.

¹²And putting in at Syracuse, we stayed [there] three days.

¹³From there we got underway [and] arrived at Rhegium, and after one day a south wind came up [and] on the second day we came to Puteoli, ¹⁴where we found brothers, [and] were implored to stay with them seven days. And in this way we came to Rome.

¹⁵And from there the brothers, [when they] heard the [news] about us, came to meet us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. [When he] saw them, Paul gave thanks to God [and] took courage.

¹⁶And when we entered into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who was guarding him.

¹⁷Now it happened that after three days, he called together those who were the most prominent of the Jews. And [when] they had assembled, he said to them, "Men [and] brothers, [although] I had done nothing against [our] people or the customs of our fathers, from Jerusalem I was delivered [as] a prisoner into the hands of the Romans,

¹⁸who, [when they] had examined me, were wanting to release [me], because there was no basis for an accusation [worthy] of death with me.

¹⁹But [because] the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar (not as [if I] had any [charge] to bring against my [own] people).

²⁰Therefore for this reason I have requested to see you and to speak with [you], for because of the hope of Israel I am wearing this chain!

²¹And they said to him, "We have received no letters about you from Judea, nor has any of the brothers come [and] reported or spoken anything evil about you.

²²But we would like to hear from you what you think, for concerning this sect it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere.

²³And [when they] had set a day with him, many more came to him at his lodging place, to whom he was explaining from early in the morning until evening, testifying about the kingdom of God and attempting to convince them about Jesus from both the law of Moses and the prophets.

²⁴ And [some] were convinced [by] what was said, but [others] refused to believe.

²⁵ So being in disagreement with one another, they began to leave [after] Paul made one statement: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through the prophet Isaiah to your fathers, ²⁶ saying, Go to this people and say, "_You will keep on hearing_ and will never understand, and _you will keep on seeing_ and will never perceive.

²⁷ For the heart of this people has become dull, and with [their] ears they hear with difficulty, and they have shut their eyes, lest they see with [their] eyes, and hear with [their] ears, and understand with [their] heart, and turn, and I would heal them."

²⁸ Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles. They also will listen!"

²⁹ EMPTY

³⁰ So he stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and welcomed all who came to him,

³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the [things] concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

Romans

1 ¹ Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called [to be] an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

² which he promised previously through his prophets in the holy scriptures,

³ concerning his Son, who was born _a descendant_ of David according to the flesh,

⁴ who was declared Son of God in power according to _the Holy Spirit_ by the resurrection from the dead of Jesus Christ our Lord,

⁵ through whom we have received grace and apostleship for the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles on behalf of his name, ⁶ among whom you also are [the] called of Jesus Christ.

⁷ To all those in Rome who are loved by God, called [to be] saints. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸ First, I give thanks to my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world.

⁹For God, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, is my witness, how constantly I make mention of you, ¹⁰always asking in my prayers if somehow now at last I may succeed to come to you in the will of God.

¹¹For I desire to see you, in order that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, in order to strengthen you, ¹²that is, to be encouraged together with you through _our mutual faith_ , both yours and mine.

¹³Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that often I intended to come to you, and was prevented until now, in order that I might have some fruit among you also, just as also among the rest of the Gentiles.

¹⁴I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

¹⁵Thus _I am eager_ to proclaim the gospel also to you who [are] in Rome.

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

¹⁷For the righteousness of God is revealed in it from faith to faith, just as it is written, "But the one who is righteous by faith will live."

¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all impiety and unrighteousness of people, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹because what can be known about God is evident among them, for God made [it] clear to them.

²⁰For from the creation of the world, his invisible [attributes], both his eternal power and deity, are discerned clearly, being understood in the things created, so that they are without excuse.

²¹For [although they] knew God, they did not honor [him] as God or give thanks, but they became futile in their reasoning, and their senseless hearts were darkened.

²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

²³and exchanged the glory of the immortal God with the likeness of an image of mortal human beings and birds and quadrupeds and reptiles.

²⁴Therefore God gave them over in the desires of their hearts to immorality, [that] their bodies would be dishonored among themselves, ²⁵who exchanged the truth of God with a lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed for eternity. Amen.

²⁶Because of this, God gave them over to degrading passions, for their females exchanged the natural relations for those contrary to nature, ²⁷and likewise also the males, abandoning the natural relations with the female, were inflamed in their desire toward one another, males with males committing the shameless deed, and receiving in themselves the penalty that was necessary for their error.

²⁸And just as they did not see fit _to recognize God_ , God gave them over to a debased mind, to do the things [that are] not proper,

²⁹being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greediness, malice, full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malevolence.

[They are] gossipers,

³⁰ slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boasters, contrivers of evil,
disobedient to parents,

³¹ senseless, faithless, unfeeling, unmerciful,

³² who, [although they] know the requirements of God, that those who do such things are worthy of death, not only do they do the same [things], but also they approve of those who do [them].

2¹ Therefore you are without excuse,
O man, every one [of you] who passes judgment. For in that which you pass judgment on someone else, you condemn yourself, for you who are passing judgment are doing the same [things].

² Now we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who do such things.

³ But do you think this, O man who passes judgment on those who do such things, and who does the same [things], that you will escape the judgment of God?

⁴ Or do you despise the wealth of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?

⁵ But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

⁶ who will reward each one according to his works:

⁷ to those who, by perseverance in good work, seek glory and honor and immortality, eternal life,

⁸ but to those [who act] from selfish ambition and who disobey the truth, but who obey unrighteousness, wrath and anger.

⁹ [There will be] affliction and distress for every _human being_ who does evil, of the Jew first and of the Greek,

¹⁰ but glory and honor and peace to everyone who does good, to the Jew first and to the Greek.

¹¹ For [there] is no partiality with God.

¹² For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

¹³For it is not the hearers of the law [who are] righteous in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be declared righteous.

¹⁴For whenever the Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things of the law, these, [although they] do not have the law, are a law to themselves,

¹⁵who show the work of the law written on their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts [one] after another accusing or even defending them

¹⁶on the day when God judges the secret things of people, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

¹⁷But if you call yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast in God

¹⁸and know his will and approve the things that are superior, [because you] are instructed by the law,

¹⁹and are confident [that] you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of those in darkness,

²⁰an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

²¹Therefore, the one who teaches someone else, do you not teach yourself? The one who preaches not to steal, do you steal?

²²The one who says not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? The one who abhors idols, do you rob temples?

²³Who boast in the law, by the transgression of the law you dishonor God!

²⁴For just as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

²⁵For circumcision is of value if you do the law, but if you should be a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

²⁶Therefore, if the uncircumcised person follows the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be credited for circumcision?

²⁷And the uncircumcised person by nature who carries out the law will judge you who, [though provided] with _the precise written code_ and circumcision [are] a transgressor of the law.

²⁸For the Jew is not _one outwardly_ , nor [is] circumcision _outwardly_ , in the flesh.

²⁹But the Jew _is one inwardly_ , and circumcision [is] of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter, whose praise [is] not from people but from God.

3¹Therefore, what [is] the advantage of the Jew, or what [is] the use of circumcision?

²Much in every way. For first, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.

³_What is the result_ if some refused to believe? Their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, [will it]?

⁴May it never be! But let God be true but every human being a liar, just as it is written, "In order that you may be justified in your words, and may prevail when you are judged."

⁵But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God, who inflicts wrath, [is] not unjust, [is he]? (I am speaking according to a human perspective.)

⁶May it never be! For otherwise, how will God judge the world?

⁷But if by my lying, the truth of God abounded to his glory, why am I also still condemned as a sinner?

⁸And [why] not (as we are slandered, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, in order that good may come [of it]? Their condemnation is just!

⁹What then? Do we have an advantage? Not at all. For we have already charged both Jews and Greeks are all under sin, ¹⁰just as it is written, "[There] is no one righteous, not even one;

¹¹[there] is no one who understands; [there] is no one who seeks God.

¹²All have turned aside together; they have become worthless; [There] is no one who practices kindness; [there] is not even one.

¹³Their throat [is] an opened grave; they deceive with their tongues; the venom of asps [is] under their lips, ¹⁴whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

¹⁵Their feet [are] swift to shed blood;

¹⁶destruction and distress [are] in their paths,

¹⁷ and they have not known the way of peace.

¹⁸ The fear of God is not before their eyes."

¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those under the law, in order that every mouth may be closed and the whole world may become accountable to God.

²⁰ For by the works of the law _no person will be declared righteous_ before him, for through the law [comes] knowledge of sin.

²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified about by the law and the prophets

²² that is, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. For [there] is no distinction,

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

²⁴ being justified as a gift by his grace, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus,

²⁵ whom God made publicly available as the mercy seat through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness, because of the passing over of previously committed sins,

²⁶in the forbearance of God, for the demonstration of his righteousness in the present time, so that he should be just and the one who justifies the [person] by faith in Jesus.

²⁷Therefore, where [is] boasting? It has been excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

²⁸For we consider a person to be justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

²⁹Or [is God] the God of the Jews only? [Is he] not also [the God] of the Gentiles? Yes, also of the Gentiles, ³⁰since God [is] one, who will justify _those who are circumcised_ by faith and _those who are uncircumcised_ through faith.

³¹Therefore, do we nullify the law through faith? May it never be! But we uphold the law.

4¹What then shall we say [that] Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh, has found?

²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

³For what does the scripture say?
"And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness."

⁴Now to the one who works, his pay is not credited according to grace, but according to his due.

⁵But to the one who does not work, but who believes in the one who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited for righteousness,

⁶just as David also speaks about the blessing of the person to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷Blessed [are they] whose lawless deeds have been forgiven, and whose sins are covered over.

⁸Blessed [is] the person against whom the Lord will never count sin."

⁹Therefore, [is] this blessing for _those who are circumcised_ , or also for _those who are uncircumcised_ ? For we say, "Faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness."

¹⁰How then was it credited? [While he] was _circumcised_ or _uncircumcised_

? Not _while circumcised_ but _while uncircumcised_ !

¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision [as] a seal of the righteousness by faith which [he had] _while uncircumcised_ , so that he could be the father of all who believe _although they are uncircumcised_ , so that righteousness could be credited to them also,

¹² and the father _of those who are circumcised_ to those who are not only from the circumcision, but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham _which he had while uncircumcised_ .

¹³ For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants, [that] he would be heir of the world, [was] not through the law, but through the righteousness by faith.

¹⁴ For if those of the law [are] heirs, faith is rendered void and the promise is nullified.

¹⁵ For the law produces wrath, but where [there] is no law, neither [is there] transgression.

¹⁶ Because of this, [it is] by faith, in order that [it may be] according to grace, so that the promise may be secure to all the descendants, not only to those of the law, but also to those of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all

¹⁷ (just as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") before God, in whom he believed, the one who makes the dead alive and who calls the things that are not as [though] they are,

¹⁸ who against hope believed in hope, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was said, "so will your descendants be."

¹⁹ And not being weak in faith, he considered his own body already as good as dead, [because he] was approximately a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah's womb.

²⁰ And he did not waver in unbelief at the promise of God, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God ²¹ and being fully convinced that what he had promised, he was also able to do.

²² Therefore, indeed, it was credited to him for righteousness.

²³ But it was not written for the sake of him alone that it was credited to him,

²⁴ but also for the sake of us to whom it is going to be credited, to those who believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵ who was handed over on account of our trespasses, and was raised up in the interest of our justification.

5¹ Therefore, [because we] have been declared righteous by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom also we have [obtained] access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast in the hope of the glory of God.

³ And not only [this], but we also boast in our afflictions, [because we] know that affliction produces patient endurance,

⁴ and patient endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope,

⁵ and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

⁶ For [while] we were still helpless, yet at the proper time Christ died for the ungodly.

⁷For only rarely will someone die on behalf of a righteous person (for on behalf of a good person possibly someone might even dare to die), ⁸but God demonstrates his own love for us, [in] that [while] we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹Therefore, by much more, [because we] have been declared righteous now by his blood, we will be saved through him from the wrath.

¹⁰For if, [while we] were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, by much more, having been reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

¹¹And not only [this], but also [we are] boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

¹²Because of this, just as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death spread to all people because all sinned.

¹³For until the law, sin was in the world, but sin is not charged to ones account [when there] is no law.

¹⁴ But death reigned from Adam until Moses even over those who did not sin in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who is to come.

¹⁵ _But the gift is not like the trespass_, for if by the trespass of the one, the many died, by much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, multiply to the many.

¹⁶ And the gift [is] not as through the one who sinned, for on the one hand, judgment from the one [sin] [led] to condemnation, but the gift, from many trespasses, [led] to justification.

¹⁷ For if by the trespass of the one [man], death reigned through the one [man], much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Consequently therefore, as through one trespass [came] condemnation to all people, so also through one righteous deed [came] justification of life to all people.

¹⁹For just as through the disobedience of the one man, the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

²⁰Now the law came in as a side issue, in order that the trespass could increase, but where sin increased, grace was present in greater abundance, ²¹so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace would reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6¹What therefore shall we say? Shall we continue in sin, in order that grace may increase?

²May it never be! How can we who died to sin still live in it?

³Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

⁴Therefore we have been buried with him through baptism into death, in order that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so also we may live _a new way of life_ .

⁵For if we have become identified with [him] in the likeness of his death, certainly also we will be [identified with him in the likeness] of [his] resurrection, ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified together with [him], in order that the body of sin may be done away with, [that] we may no longer be enslaved to sin.

⁷For the one who has died has been freed from sin.

⁸Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him, ⁹knowing that Christ, [because he] has been raised from the dead, is going to die no more, death no longer being master over him.

¹⁰For that [death] he died, he died to sin once and never again, but that [life] he lives, he lives to God.

¹¹So also you, consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

¹²Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, so that [you] obey its desires,

¹³and do not present your members to sin [as] instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead, and your members to God [as] instruments of righteousness.

¹⁴For sin will not be master over you, because you are not under law, but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be!

¹⁶Do you not know that to whomever you present yourselves [as] slaves for obedience, you are slaves to whomever you obey, whether sin, [leading] to death, or obedience, [leading] to righteousness?

¹⁷But thanks [be] to God that you were slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart the pattern of teaching to which you were entrusted,

¹⁸and having been set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

¹⁹(I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh.) For just as you presented your members [as] slaves to immorality and lawlessness, [leading] to lawlessness, so now present your members [as] slaves to righteousness, [leading] to sanctification.

²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with respect to righteousness.

²¹Therefore what sort of fruit did you have then, about which you are now ashamed? For the end of those [things] [is] death.

²²But now, having been set free from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit [leading] to sanctification, and its end [is] eternal life.

²³For the compensation due sin [is] death, but the gift of God [is] eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7¹Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law is master of a person for as long a time [as] he lives?

²For the married woman is bound by law to [her] husband while he lives, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of the husband.

³Therefore as a result, if she belongs to another man [while] her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress [if she] belongs to another man.

⁴So then, my brothers, you also were brought to death with respect to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to the one who was raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God.

⁵For when we were in the flesh, sinful desires were working through the law in our members, to bear fruit for death.

⁶But now we have been released from the law, [because we] have died [to that] by which we were bound, so that we may serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter [of the law].

⁷What then shall we say? [Is] the law sin? May it never be! But I would not have known sin except through the law, for I would not have known covetousness if the law had not said, "Do not covet."

⁸But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all [kinds of] covetousness. For apart from the law, sin [is] dead.

⁹And I was alive once, apart from the law, but [when] the commandment came, sin sprang to life ¹⁰and I died, and this commandment which [was] to [lead to] life was found with respect to me to [lead to] death.

¹¹For sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed [me].

¹²So then, the law [is] holy, and the commandment [is] holy and righteous and good.

¹³Therefore, [did that which is] good become death to me? May it never be! Rather [it was] sin, in order that it might be recognized [as] sin, producing death through [what is] good for me, in order that sin might become sinful to an extraordinary degree through the commandment.

¹⁴For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, _sold into slavery to sin_.

¹⁵For what I am doing I do not understand, because what I want [to do], this I do not practice, but what I hate, this I do.

¹⁶But if what I do not want [to do], this I do, I agree with the law that [it is] good.

¹⁷ But now I am no longer the one doing it, but sin that lives in me.

¹⁸ For I know that good does not live in me, that is, in my flesh. For the willing is present in me, but the doing [of] the good [is] not.

¹⁹ For the good that I want [to do], I do not do, but the evil that I do not want [to do], this I do.

²⁰ But if what I do not want [to do], this I am doing, I am no longer the one doing it, but sin that lives in me.

²¹ Consequently, I find the principle with me, the one who wants to do good, that evil is present with me.

²² For I joyfully agree with the law of God in my inner person, ²³ but I observe another law in my members, at war with the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that exists in my members.

²⁴ Wretched man [that] I [am]! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

²⁵ But thanks [be] to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself with my mind am enslaved to the law of God, but with my flesh [I am enslaved] to the law of sin.

8¹ Consequently, [there is] now no condemnation for those [who are] in Christ Jesus.

² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death.

³ For what [was] impossible for the law, in that it was weak through the flesh, God [did]. [By] sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and concerning sin, he condemned sin in the flesh,

⁴ in order that the requirement of the law would be fulfilled in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

⁵ For those who are [living] according to the flesh are intent on the things of the flesh, but those [who are living] according to the Spirit [are intent on] the things of the Spirit.

⁶ For the mindset of the flesh [is] death, but the mindset of the Spirit [is] life and peace,

⁷ because the mindset of the flesh [is] enmity toward God, for [it is] not subjected to the law of God, for [it is] not able [to do so],

⁸and those who are in the flesh are not able to please God.

⁹But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this person _does not belong to him_ .

¹⁰But if Christ [is] in you, the body [is] dead because of sin, but the Spirit [is] life because of righteousness.

¹¹And if the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will also make alive your mortal bodies through his Spirit who lives in you.

¹²So then, brothers, we are obligated not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.

¹³For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

¹⁴For all those who are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.

¹⁵For you have not received a spirit of slavery [leading] to fear again, but you have received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry out, "Abba! Father!

¹⁶The Spirit himself confirms to our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷and if children, also heirsheirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer together [with him] so that we may also be glorified together [with him].

¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy [to be compared] with the glory that is about to be revealed to us.

¹⁹For the eagerly expecting creation awaits eagerly the revelation of the sons of God.

²⁰For the creation has been subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of the one who subjected [it], in hope ²¹that the creation itself also will be set free from its servility to decay, into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

²²For we know that the whole creation groans together and suffers agony together until now.

²³Not only [this], but we ourselves also, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves [while we] await eagerly [our] adoption, the redemption of our body.

²⁴For in hope we were saved, but hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what he sees?

²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we await [it] eagerly with patient endurance.

²⁶And likewise also, the Spirit helps [us] in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as one ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes [for us] [with] unexpressed groanings.

²⁷And the one who searches our hearts knows what the mindset of the Spirit [is], because he intercedes on behalf of the saints according to [the will of] God.

²⁸And we know that all [things] work together for good for those who love God, for those who are called according to [his] purpose, ²⁹because [those] whom he foreknew, he also predestined [to be] conformed to the image of his Son, so that he should be the firstborn among many brothers.

³⁰And [those] whom he predestined, these [he] also called, and [those] whom he called, these [he] also justified, and [those] whom he justified, these [he] also glorified.

³¹ What then shall we say about these [things]? If God [is] for us, who [can be] against us?

³² Indeed, [he] who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all, how will he not also, together with him, freely give us all [things]?

³³ Who will bring charges against Gods elect? God [is] the one who justifies.

³⁴ Who [is] the one who condemns? Christ Jesus [is] the one who died, and more than that, who was raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

³⁵ Who will separate us from the love of Christ? [Will] affliction or distress or persecution or hunger or lack of sufficient clothing or danger or the sword?

³⁶ Just as it is written, "On account of you we are being put to death the whole day [long]; we are considered as sheep for slaughter."

³⁷ [No], but in all these [things] we prevail completely through the one who loved us.

³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come,

nor powers,

³⁹ nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9¹ I am telling the truth in Christ[I am] not lying; my conscience bears witness to me in the Holy Spirit

² that my grief is great and [there is] constant distress in my heart.

³ For I could wish myself to be accursed from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my fellow countrymen according to the flesh,

⁴ who are Israelites, [to] whom [belong] the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the [temple] service, and the promises,

⁵ [to] whom [belong] the patriarchs, and from whom [is] the Christ according to human descent, who is God over all, blessed _forever_ ! Amen.

⁶ But [it is] not as if the word of God had failed. For not all those [who are descended] from Israel [are truly] Israel,

⁷ nor [are they] all children because they are descendants of Abraham, but

"In Isaac will your descendants be named."

⁸That is, [it is] not the children _by human descent_ [who are] children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as descendants.

⁹For the statement of the promise [is] this: "At this time I will return and _Sarah will have_ a son."

¹⁰And not only [this], but also [when] Rebecca conceived children by one [man], Isaac our father

¹¹for [although they] had not yet been born, or done anything good or evil, in order that the purpose of God according to election might remain,

¹²not by works but by the one who callsit was said to her, "The older will serve the younger,"

¹³just as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

¹⁴What then shall we say? [There is] no injustice with God, [is there]? May it never be!

¹⁵For to Moses he says, "I will have mercy on whomever I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion."

¹⁶Consequently therefore, _it does not depend on the_ one who wills or on the one who runs, but on God who shows mercy.

¹⁷For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very [reason] I have raised you up, so that I may demonstrate my power in you, and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

¹⁸Consequently therefore, he has mercy on whomever he wishes, and he hardens whomever he wishes.

¹⁹Therefore you will say to me, "Why then does he still find fault? For who has resisted his will?"

²⁰On the contrary, O man, who are you who answers back to God? Will what is molded say to the one who molded [it], "Why did you make me like this"?

²¹Or does the potter not have authority over the clay, to make from the same lump a vessel that [is] for _honorable use_ and [one] that [is] for _ordinary use_ ?

²²And [what] if God, wanting to demonstrate his wrath and to make known his power, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

²³ And [he did so] in order that he could make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy that he prepared beforehand for glory, ²⁴ us whom he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?

²⁵ As he also says in Hosea, "I will call those [who were] not my people, My people, and those [who were] not loved, Loved.

²⁶ And it will be in the place where it was said to them, You [are] not my people, there they will be called sons of the living God."

²⁷ And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "[Even] if the number of the sons of Israel is like the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved, ²⁸ _for the Lord will execute his sentence thoroughly and decisively_ upon the earth."

²⁹ And just as Isaiah foretold, "If the Lord of hosts had not left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom and would have resembled Gomorrah."

³⁰What then shall we say?
That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness even the righteousness [that is] by faith.

³¹But Israel, pursuing the law of righteousness, did not attain to the law.

³²Why that? Because [they did] not [pursue it] by faith, but as [if] by works.
They stumbled over the _stone that causes people to stumble_ ,

³³just as it is written, "Behold, I am laying in Zion _a stone that causes people to stumble_ , and _a rock that causes them to fall_ , and the one who believes in him will not be put to shame."

10¹Brothers, the desire of my heart and my prayer to God on behalf of them [is] for [their] salvation.

²For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

³For ignoring the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

⁴For Christ [is the] end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness [that is] from the law: "The person who does these [things] will live by them."

⁶But the righteousness from faith speaks like this: "Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven?" (that is, to bring Christ down), ⁷or "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

⁸But what does it say? "The word is near to you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim), ⁹that if you confess with your mouth "Jesus [is] Lord" and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

¹⁰For with the heart one believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses, resulting in salvation.

¹¹For the scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame."

¹²For [there] is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same [Lord] [is]

Lord of all, who is rich to all who call upon him.

¹³For "everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved."

¹⁴How then will they call upon [him] in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe [in him] about whom they have not heard? And how will they hear about [him] without one who preaches [to them]?

¹⁵And how will they preach, unless they are sent? Just as it is written, "How timely [are] the feet of those who bring good news of good things."

¹⁶But not all have obeyed the good news, for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"

¹⁷Consequently, faith [comes] by hearing, and hearing through the word about Christ.

¹⁸But I say, they have not heard, have they? On the contrary, "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited world."

¹⁹But I say, Israel did not know, did they? First, Moses says, "I will provoke you [to jealousy] by [those who are] not a nation; by a senseless nation I will provoke you [to anger]."

²⁰And Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those who did not seek me; I became known to those who did not ask for me."

²¹But about Israel he says, "The whole day [long] I held out my hands to a disobedient and resistant people."

11 ¹Therefore I say, God has not rejected his people, has he? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, from the descendants of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

²God has not rejected his people, whom he foreknew! Or do you not know, in [the passage about] Elijah, what the scripture sayshow he appeals to God against Israel?

³Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have torn down your altars, and I alone am left, and they are seeking my life!"

⁴But what does the divine response say to him? "I have left for myself seven thousand people who have not bent the knee to Baal."

⁵So in this way also at the present time, there is a remnant _selected by grace_ .

⁶But if by grace, [it is] no longer by works, for otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

⁷What then? What Israel was searching for, this it did not obtain. But the elect obtained [it], and the rest were hardened, ⁸just as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear, until this very day."

⁹And David says, "Let their table become a snare and a trap, and a cause for stumbling and a retribution to them;

¹⁰let their eyes be darkened so that they do not see, and cause their backs to bend _continually_ ."

¹¹I say then, they did not stumble so that they fell, [did they]? May it never be! But by their trespass, salvation [has come] to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them [to jealousy].

¹²And if their trespass [means] riches for the world and their loss [means] riches for the Gentiles, how much more [will] their fullness [mean]?

¹³Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Therefore, inasmuch as I am apostle to the Gentiles, I promote my ministry, ¹⁴if somehow I may provoke my people to jealousy and save some of them.

¹⁵For if their rejection [means] the reconciliation of the world, what [will] their acceptance [mean] except life from the dead?

¹⁶Now if the first fruits [are] holy, [so] also [is] the [whole] batch of dough, and if the root [is] holy, [so] also [are] the branches.

¹⁷Now if some of the branches were broken off, and you, [although you] were a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them and became a sharer of the root of the olive trees richness, ¹⁸do not boast against the branches. But if you boast against [them], you do not support the root, but the root [supports] you.

¹⁹Then you will say, "Branches were broken off in order that I could be grafted in.

²⁰Well said! They were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand firm because of faith. Do not think arrogant [thoughts], but be afraid.

²¹For if God did not spare the _natural_ branches, perhaps he will not spare you either.

²²See, then, the kindness and severity of God: severity upon those who have fallen, but upon you the kindness of God if you continue in his kindness, for otherwise you also will be cut off.

²³And those also, if they do not persist in unbelief, will be grafted in, because God is able to graft them in again.

²⁴For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these who are _natural branches_ be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you will not be wise in your own sight, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in, ²⁶and so all Israel will be saved, just as it is written, "The deliverer will come out of Zion; he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

²⁷And this [is] the covenant from me with them when I take away their sins."

²⁸With respect to the gospel, [they are] enemies for your sake, but with respect to election, [they are] dearly loved for the sake of the fathers.

²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God [are] irrevocable.

³⁰For just as you formerly were disobedient to God, but now have been shown mercy because of the disobedience of these,

³¹so also these have now been disobedient for your mercy, in order that they also may now be shown mercy.

³²For God confined them all in disobedience, in order that he could have mercy on them all.

³³Oh, the depth of the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable [are] his judgments and [how] incomprehensible [are] his ways!

³⁴For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?

³⁵Or who has given in advance to him, and it will be paid back to him?"

³⁶For from him and through him and to him [are] all [things]. To him [be] glory for eternity! Amen.

12¹Therefore I exhort you, brothers, through the mercies of God, to present your bodies [as] a living sacrifice, holy [and] pleasing to God, [which is] your reasonable service.

²And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, so that you may approve what [is] the good and well-pleasing and perfect will of God.

³For by the grace given to me I say to everyone who is among you not to think more highly of yourself than what one ought to think, but to think sensibly, as God has apportioned a measure of faith to each one.

⁴For just as in one body we have many members, but all the members do not have the same function,

⁵in the same way we who are many are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another,

⁶but having different gifts according to the grace given to us: if [it is] prophecy, according to the proportion of [his] faith;

⁷if [it is] service, by service; if [it is] one who teaches, by teaching;

⁸if [it is] one who exhorts, by exhortation; one who gives, with sincerity; one who leads, with diligence; one who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

⁹Love must be without hypocrisy. Abhor what [is] evil; be attached to what [is] good,

¹⁰being devoted to one another in brotherly love, esteeming one another [more highly] in honor,

¹¹not lagging in diligence, being enthusiastic in spirit, serving the Lord,

¹²rejoicing in hope, enduring in affliction, being devoted to prayer, ¹³contributing to the needs of the saints, pursuing hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you, bless and do not curse [them].

¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep.

¹⁶Think the same [thing] toward one another; _do not think arrogantly_ , but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise _in your own sight_ .

¹⁷ Pay back no one evil for evil. Take thought for [what is] good in the sight of all people.

¹⁸ If [it is] possible on your [part], be at peace with all people.

¹⁹ Do not take revenge yourselves, dear friends, but give place to [Gods] wrath, for it is written, "Vengeance [is] mine, I will repay," says the Lord.

²⁰ But "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him [something] to drink; for [by] doing this, you will heap up coals of fire upon his head."

²¹ Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13¹ Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for [there] is no authority except by God, and those that exist are put in place by God.

² So then, the one who resists authority resists the ordinance [which is] from God, and those who resist will receive condemnation on themselves.

³ For rulers are not a [cause of] terror for a good deed, but for bad [conduct].

So do you want not to be afraid of authority? Do what [is] good, and you will have praise from it, ⁴for it is Gods servant to you for what [is] good. But if you do what [is] bad, be afraid, because it does not bear the sword to no purpose. For it is Gods servant, the one who avenges for punishment on the one who does [what is] bad.

⁵Therefore [it is] necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience.

⁶For because of this you also pay taxes, for [the authorities] are servants of God, busily engaged in this very [thing].

⁷Pay to everyone [what is] owed: [pay] taxes to whom taxes [are due]; [pay] customs duties to whom customs duties [are due]; [pay] respect to whom respect [is due]; [pay] honor to whom honor [is due].

⁸Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another, for the one who loves someone else has fulfilled the law.

⁹For the [commandments], "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not commit murder, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," and if [there is] any other commandment, are summed up in this statement: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

¹⁰Love does not commit evil against a neighbor. Therefore love [is the] fulfillment of the law.

¹¹And [do] this [because you] know the time, that [it is] already the hour for you to wake up from sleep. For our salvation [is] nearer now than when we believed.

¹²The night is far gone, and the day has drawn near. Therefore let us lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the weapons of light.

¹³Let us live decently, as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and licentiousness, not in strife and jealousy.

¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and do not make provision for the desires of the flesh.

14¹ Now receive the one who is weak in faith, [but] not for quarrels about opinions.

²One believes [he may] eat all [things], but the one who is weak eats [only] vegetables.

³The one who eats must not despise the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat must not judge the one who eats, because God has accepted him.

⁴Who are you, who passes judgment on the domestic slave belonging to someone else? To his own master he stands or falls, and he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵For one person prefers [one] day over [another] day, and another person regards every day [alike]. Each one must be fully convinced in his own mind.

⁶The one who is intent on the day is intent on [it] for the Lord, and the one who eats eats for the Lord, because he is thankful to God, and the one who does not eat does not eat for the Lord, and he is thankful to God.

⁷For none of us lives for himself and none dies for himself.

⁸For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore whether we live [or] whether we die, we are the Lords.

⁹For Christ died and became alive again for this [reason], in order that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

¹⁰But why do you judge your brother? Or also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.

¹¹For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to me, and every tongue will praise God."

¹²So then, each one of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

¹³Therefore, let us no longer pass judgment on one another, but rather decide this: not to place a cause for stumbling or a temptation before a brother.

¹⁴I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing [is] unclean of itself, except to the one who considers something to be unclean; to that person [it is] unclean.

¹⁵For if because of food, your brother is grieved, you are no longer living according to love. Do not destroy by your food that person for whom Christ died.

¹⁶Therefore do not let your good be slandered.

¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸For the one who serves Christ in this [way] [is] well-pleasing to God and approved by people.

¹⁹So then, let us pursue _what promotes peace_ and _what edifies one another_ .

²⁰Do not destroy the work of God on account of food. All [things] [are] clean, but [it is] wrong for the person _who eats and stumbles in the process_ .

²¹[It is] good not to eat meat or to drink wine or [to do anything] by which your brother stumbles.

²²The faith that you have, have with respect to yourself before God. Blessed [is] the one who does not pass judgment on himself by what he approves.

²³But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not [do so] from faith, and everything that [is] not from faith is sin.

15¹ But we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

²Let each one of us please his neighbor for his good, for the purpose of edification.

³For even Christ did not please himself, but just as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

⁴For whatever was written beforehand was written for our instruction, in order that through patient endurance and through the encouragement of the scriptures we may have hope.

⁵Now may the God of patient endurance and of encouragement grant you _to be in agreement_ with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, ⁶so that with one mind you may glorify with one mouth the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷Therefore accept one another, just as Christ also has accepted you, to the glory of God.

⁸For I say, Christ has become a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God, in order to confirm the promises to the fathers, ⁹and that the Gentiles may glorify God for [his] mercy, just as it is written, "Because of this, I will praise you among the Gentiles, and I will sing praise to your name."

¹⁰And again it says, "Rejoice, Gentiles, with his people."

¹¹And again, "Praise the Lord, all the Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him."

¹²And again Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse will come, even the one who rises to rule over the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles will put their hope."

¹³Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴Now I myself also am convinced about you, my brothers, that [you] yourselves also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to instruct one another.

¹⁵But I have written to you more boldly on [some] points, so as to remind you [again] because of the grace that has been given to me by God,

¹⁶with the result that I am a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving the gospel of God as a priest, in order that the offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷Therefore I have a reason for boasting in Christ Jesus regarding the things concerning God.

¹⁸For I will not dare to speak about anything except [that] which Christ has accomplished through me, resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed, ¹⁹by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and [traveling] around as far as Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

²⁰And so, having as my ambition to proclaim the gospel where Christ has not been named, in order that I will not build on the foundation belonging to someone else,

²¹but just as it is written, "[Those] to whom [it was] not announced concerning him will see, and [those] who have not heard will understand."

²²For this reason also I was hindered many [times] from coming to you,

²³and now, no longer having a place in these regions, but having a desire for many years to come to you ²⁴whenever I travel to Spain. For I hope [while I] am passing through to see you and to be sent on my way by you, whenever I have first enjoyed your [company] for a while.

²⁵But now I am traveling to Jerusalem, serving the saints.

²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

²⁷For they were pleased [to do so], and they are obligated to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual [things], they ought also to serve them in material [things].

²⁸Therefore, [after I] have accomplished this and sealed this fruit [for delivery] to them, I will depart by way of you for Spain, ²⁹and I know that [when I] come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

³⁰Now I exhort you, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to contend along with me in your prayers on my behalf to God, ³¹ that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and my ministry in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ³² so that, coming to you with joy by the will of God, I may rest with you.

³³ Now [may] the God of peace [be] with all of you. Amen.

16¹ Now I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is also a servant of the church in Cenchrea, ² in order that you may welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and help her in whatever task she may have need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, even me myself.

³ Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,

⁴ who risked their own necks for my life, for which not only I am thankful, but also all the churches of the Gentiles;

⁵ also [greet] the church in their house. Greet Epenetus my dear [friend], who is _the first convert_ of Asia for Christ.

⁶Greet Mary, who _has worked hard_ for you.

⁷Greet Andronicus and Junia, my compatriots and my fellow prisoners, who are well known to the apostles, who were also in Christ before me.

⁸Greet Ampliatus, my dear [friend] in the Lord.

⁹Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my dear [friend] Stachys.

¹⁰Greet Apelles, who [is] approved in Christ. Greet those of the [household] of Aristobulus.

¹¹Greet Herodion my compatriot. Greet those of the [household] of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

¹²Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, the laborers in the Lord. Greet Persis, the dear [friend] who _has worked hard_ in the Lord.

¹³Greet Rufus, the chosen one in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

¹⁴Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers with them.

¹⁵Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints [who are] with them.

¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷Now I exhort you, brothers, to look out for those who cause dissensions and temptations contrary to the teaching which you learned, and stay away from them.

¹⁸For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own stomach, and by smooth speech and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

¹⁹For [the report of] your obedience has reached to all; therefore I am rejoicing over you, and I want you to be wise toward what [is] good, but innocent toward what [is] evil.

²⁰And in a short time the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus [be] with you.

²¹Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my compatriots.

²²I, Tertius, the one who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord.

²³Gaius, my host and [the host] of the whole church, greets you. Erastus the city treasurer greets you, and Quartus the brother.

²⁴ EMPTY

²⁵ Now to the one who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that had been kept secret for eternal ages, ²⁶ but now has been revealed, and through the prophetic scriptures has been made known according to the command of the eternal God, resulting in obedience of faith to all the Gentiles, ²⁷ to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom [be] the glory for eternity. Amen.

1 Corinthians

- 1 ¹ Paul, called [to be] an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
- ² to the church of God that is in Corinth, sanctified in Christ Jesus, called [to be] saints, together with all those who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their [Lord] and ours.
- ³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- ⁴ I give thanks to my God always concerning you, because of the grace of God which was given to you in Christ Jesus,
- ⁵ that in everything you were made rich in him, in all speech and all knowledge,
- ⁶ just as the testimony about Christ has been confirmed in you,
- ⁷ so that you do not lack in any spiritual gift [as you] eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- ⁸ who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹God [is] faithful, by whom you were called to fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰Now I exhort you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all say the same [thing] and there not be divisions among you, and that you be made complete in the same mind and with the same purpose.

¹¹For it has been made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by _Chloes people_ , that there are quarrels among you.

¹²But I say this, that each of you is saying, "I am with Paul," and "I [am] with Apollos," and "I [am] with Cephas," and "I [am] with Christ.

¹³Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

¹⁴I give thanks to God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵lest anyone should say that you were baptized in my name.

¹⁶(Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that I do not know if I baptized anyone else.)

¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to proclaim the gospel, not with _clever speech_ , lest the cross of Christ be emptied.

¹⁸ For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

¹⁹ For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the intelligence of the intelligent I will confound."

²⁰ Where [is] the wise person? Where [is] the scribe? Where [is] the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.

²² For indeed, Jews ask for sign miracles and Greeks seek wisdom,

²³ but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a cause for stumbling, but to the Gentiles foolishness, ²⁴ but to those [who are] called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [is] the power of God and the wisdom of God.

²⁵For the foolishness of God is wiser than human [wisdom], and the weakness of God [is] stronger than human [strength].

²⁶For consider your calling, brothers, that not many [were] wise according to human standards, not many [were] powerful, not many [were] well born.

²⁷But the foolish [things] of the world God chose in order that he might put to shame the wise, and the weak [things] of the world God chose in order that he might put to shame the strong,

²⁸and the insignificant of the world, and the despised, God chose, the things that are not, in order that he might abolish the things that are,

²⁹so that all flesh may not boast before God.

³⁰But from him you are in Christ Jesus, who became wisdom to us from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

³¹so that, just as it is written, "The one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."

2¹And I, [when I] came to you, brothers, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God.

²For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

³And I came to you in weakness and in fear and with much trembling,

⁴and my speech and my preaching [were] not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and power,

⁵in order that your faith would not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

⁶Now we do speak wisdom among the mature, but wisdom not of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are perishing,

⁷but we speak the hidden wisdom of God in a mystery, which God predestined before the ages for our glory,

⁸which none of the rulers of this age knew. For if they had known [it], they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

⁹But just as it is written, "[Things] which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, and have not entered into the heart of man, [are the things] which God has prepared for those who love him."

¹⁰But to us God has revealed [them] through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all [things], even the depths of God.

¹¹For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man that [is] in him? Thus also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

¹²Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who [is] from God, in order that we may know the things freely given to us by God, ¹³[things] which we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in [words] taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual [things] to spiritual [people].

¹⁴But the natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand [them], because they are spiritually discerned.

¹⁵Now the spiritual [person] discerns all [things], but he himself is judged by no one.

¹⁶For who has known the mind of the Lord; who has advised him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

3¹And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual [people], but as to fleshly [people], as to infants in Christ.

²I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, for you were not yet able [to eat it]. But now you are still not able, ³for you are still fleshly. For where [there is] jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and do you not live like [unregenerate] people?

⁴For whenever anyone says, "I am with Paul," and another, "I [am] with Apollos," are you not [merely] human?

⁵Therefore, what is Apollos and what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, and to each as the Lord gave.

⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing [it] to grow.

⁷So then, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who is causing [it] to grow.

⁸Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one, but each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

⁹For we are Gods fellow workers; you are Gods field, Gods building.

¹⁰According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building upon [it]. But each one must direct his attention to how he is building upon [it].

¹¹For no one is able to lay another foundation than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

¹²Now if anyone builds upon the foundation [with] gold, silver, precious stones, wood, grass, straw, ¹³the work of each one will become evident. For the day will reveal [it], because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the work of each one, of what sort it is.

¹⁴If anyones work that he has built upon [it] remains, he will receive a reward.

¹⁵If anyones work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but so as through fire.

¹⁶Do you not know that you are Gods temple and the Spirit of God dwells in you?

¹⁷If anyone destroys Gods temple, God will destroy this one. For Gods temple is holy, which you are.

¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks [himself] to be wise among you in this age, let him become a fool, in order that he may become wise.

¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, for it is written, "The one who catches the wise in their craftiness," ²⁰and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."

²¹So then, let no one boast in people. For all [things] are yours,

²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come, all [things] [are] yours, ²³and you [are] Christs, and Christ [is] Gods.

4¹Thus let a person consider us as servants of Christ and stewards of Gods mysteries.

²In this case, moreover, it is sought in stewards that one be found faithful.

³But to me it is a very little matter that I be judged by you or by a human court, but I do not [even] judge myself.

⁴For I am conscious of nothing against myself, but not by this am I vindicated. But the one who judges me is the Lord.

⁵Therefore do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord should come, who will both enlighten the hidden things of darkness and will reveal the counsels of hearts, and then praise will come to each one from God.

⁶Now I have applied these things, brothers, to myself and Apollos for your sake, in order that in us you may learn not [to go] beyond what is written, lest someone be inflated with pride on behalf of one [person] against the other.

⁷For who concedes you [superiority]? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if indeed you received [it], why do you boast as [if you] did not receive [it]?

⁸Already you are satiated! Already you are rich! Apart from us you reign as kings! And would that indeed you reigned as kings, in order that we also might reign as kings with you!

⁹For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as condemned to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world and to angels and to people.

¹⁰We [are] fools for the sake of Christ, but you [are] prudent in Christ! We [are] weak, but you [are] strong! You [are] honored, but we [are] dishonored!

¹¹Until the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and poorly clothed and roughly treated and homeless,

¹²and we toil, working with our own hands. [When we are] reviled, we bless; [when we are] persecuted, we endure;

¹³[when we are] slandered, we encourage. We have become like the refuse of the world, the offscouring of all [things], until now.

¹⁴I am not writing these [things] to shame you, but admonishing [you] as my dear children.

¹⁵For if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, yet [you do] not [have] many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I fathered you through the gospel.

¹⁶Therefore I exhort you, become imitators of me.

¹⁷Because of this, I have sent to you Timothy, who is my dear and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church.

¹⁸But some have become arrogant, as [if] I were not coming to you.

¹⁹But I am coming to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will know not the talk of the ones who have become arrogant, but the power.

²⁰For the kingdom of God [is] not with talk, but with power.

²¹What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

5¹It is reported everywhere [that there] is sexual immorality among you, and sexual immorality of such a kind which [does] not [even exist] among the Gentiles, so that someone has the wife of [his] father.

²And you are inflated with pride, and should you not rather have mourned, so that the one who has done this deed would be removed from your midst?

³For [although I] am absent in body but present in spirit, I have already passed judgment on the one who has done this in this way, as [if I] were present.

⁴In the name of our Lord Jesus, [when] you are assembled, and my spirit, together with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵[I have decided] to hand over such a person to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, in order that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

⁶Your boasting [is] not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole batch of dough?

⁷Clean out the old leaven in order that you may be a new batch of dough, just as you are unleavened. For Christ our Passover has been sacrificed.

⁸So then, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old leaven or with the leaven of wickedness and sinfulness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in the letter not to associate with sexually immoral people.

¹⁰By no means [did I mean] the sexually immoral people of this world or the greedy people and swindlers or idolaters, since then you would have to depart out of the world.

¹¹ But now I have written to you not to associate with any so-called brother, if he is a sexually immoral person or a greedy person or an idolater or an abusive person or a drunkard or a swindler with such a person not even to eat.

¹² For what [is it] to me to judge those outside? Should you not judge those inside?

¹³ But those outside God will judge. Remove the evil person _from among yourselves_ .

6¹ Does anyone among you, [if he] has a matter against someone else, dare to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?

² Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if by you the world is judged, are you unworthy of the most insignificant courts?

³ Do you not know that we will judge angels, not to mention ordinary matters?

⁴ Therefore, if you have courts with regard to ordinary matters, do you seat these despised [people] in the church?

⁵I say [this] to your shame. So is there not anyone wise among you who will be able to render a decision between his brothers?

⁶But brother goes to court with brother, and this before unbelievers!

⁷Therefore it is already completely a loss for you that you have lawsuits with one another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

⁸But you wrong and defraud, and [do] this [to] brothers!

⁹Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived! Neither sexually immoral people, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor passive homosexual partners, nor dominant homosexual partners, ¹⁰nor thieves, nor greedy persons, not drunkards, not abusive persons, not swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

¹¹And some of you were these [things], but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

¹²All [things] are permitted for me, but not all [things] are profitable. All [things] are permitted for me, but I will not be controlled by anything.

¹³Food [is] for the stomach, and the stomach for food, but God will abolish _both of them_. Now the body [is] not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

¹⁴And God both raised up the Lord and will raise us up by his power.

¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, shall I take away the members of Christ [and] make [them] members of a prostitute? May it never be!

¹⁶Or do you not know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body [with her]? For it says, "The two will become one flesh."

¹⁷But the one who joins himself to the Lord is one spirit [with him].

¹⁸Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a person commits is outside his body, but the one who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit [who is] in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

²⁰For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God with your body.

7 ¹Now concerning [the things] about which you wrote: "[It is] good for a man not to touch a woman.

²But because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife and let each woman have her own husband.

³The husband must fulfill his obligation to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

⁴The wife does not have authority over her own body, but her husband [does]. And likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but his wife [does].

⁵Do not defraud one another, except perhaps by agreement, for a time, in order that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and [then] you should be _together_ again, lest Satan tempt you because of your lack of self control.

⁶But I say this as a concession, not as a command.

⁷ I wish all people could be like myself, but each one has his own gift from God, one in this way and another in that way.

⁸ Now I say to the unmarried and to the widows: [It is] good for them if they remain as I [am].

⁹ But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry, for it is better to marry than to burn [with sexual desire].

¹⁰ To the married I command not I, but the Lord a wife must not separate from [her] husband.

¹¹ But if indeed she does separate, she must remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce [his] wife.

¹² Now to the rest I say not the Lord if any brother has an unbelieving wife and she consents to live with him, he must not divorce her.

¹³ And if any wife has an unbelieving husband and he consents to live with her, she must not divorce her husband.

¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the brother, since otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

¹⁵ But if the unbeliever leaves, let him leave. The brother or the sister is not bound in such [cases]. But God has called you in peace.

¹⁶ For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

¹⁷ But to each one as the Lord has apportioned. As God has called each one, thus let him live and thus I order in all the churches.

¹⁸ Was anyone called [after] being circumcised? He must not undo his circumcision. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? He must not become circumcised.

¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

²⁰ Each one in the calling in which he was called in this he should remain.

²¹ Were you called [while] a slave? Do not let it be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, rather make use of [it].

²² For the one who is called in the Lord [while] a slave is the Lord's freedperson.

Likewise the one who is called [while] free is a slave of Christ.

²³You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men.

²⁴Each one in [the situation] in which he was called, brothers in this he should remain with God.

²⁵Now concerning virgins I do not have a command from the Lord, but I am giving an opinion as one shown mercy by the Lord to be trustworthy.

²⁶Therefore, I consider this to be good because of the impending distress, that [it is] good for a man to be thus.

²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek release. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

²⁸But if you marry, you have not sinned, and if the virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such people will have affliction in the flesh, and I would spare you.

²⁹But I say this, brothers: the time is shortened, that from now on even those who have wives should be as [if they] do not have [wives],

³⁰and those who weep as [if they] do not weep, and those who rejoice as [if they] do not rejoice, and those who buy as [if they] do not possess, ³¹ and those who make use of the world as [if they] do not make full use of [it]. For the present form of this world is passing away.

³² But I want you to be free from care. The unmarried person cares for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

³³ But the one who is married cares for the things of the world, how he may please his wife, ³⁴ and he is divided. And the unmarried woman or the virgin cares for the things of the Lord, in order that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the married woman cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

³⁵ Now I am saying this for your own benefit, not that I may put a restriction on you, but to promote appropriate and devoted service to the Lord without distraction.

³⁶ But if anyone thinks he is behaving dishonorably concerning his virgin, if she is past her prime and it ought to be thus, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin. Let them marry.

³⁷ But he who stands firm in his heart, not having necessity, but has authority concerning his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own virgin, he will do well.

³⁸ So then, the one who marries his own virgin does well, and the one who does not marry [her] will do better.

³⁹ A wife is bound for as long a time [as] her husband lives. But if her husband dies , she is free to marry whomever she wishes, only in the Lord.

⁴⁰ But she is happier if she remains thus, according to my opinion and I think I have the Spirit of God.

8¹ Now concerning food sacrificed to idols, we know that "we all have knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

² If anyone thinks he knows anything, he has not yet known as it is necessary to know.

³ But if anyone loves God, this one is known by him.

⁴ Therefore, concerning the eating of food sacrificed to idols, we know that "an idol [is] nothing in the world" and that "[there is] no God except one."

⁵For even if after all [there] are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as [there] are many gods and many lords,

⁶yet to us [there is] one God, the Father, from whom [are] all [things], and we [are] for him, and [there is] one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom [are] all [things], and we [are] through him.

⁷But this knowledge [is] not in everyone. But some, being accustomed until now to the idol, eat [this food] as food sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, [because it] is weak, is defiled.

⁸But food does not bring us close to God. Neither if we do not eat do we lack, nor if we do eat do we have more.

⁹But watch out lest somehow this right of yours becomes a cause for stumbling to the weak.

¹⁰For if someone should see you who has knowledge reclining for a meal in an idols temple, will not his conscience, [because it] is weak, be strengthened so that [he] eats the food sacrificed to idols?

¹¹ For the one who is weak the brother for whom Christ died is destroyed by your knowledge.

¹² Now [if you] sin in this way against the brothers and wound their conscience, which is weak, you sin against Christ.

¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother to sin, I will never eat meat _forever_ , in order that I may not cause my brother to sin.

9¹ Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

² If to others I am not an apostle, yet indeed I am to you, for you are my seal of apostleship in the Lord.

³ My defense to those who examine me is this:

⁴ Do we not have the right to eat and drink?

⁵ Do we not have the right to take along a sister [as] wife, like the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?

⁶ Or do only I and Barnabas not have the right _to refrain from working_ ?

⁷ Who ever serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat the fruit of it? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink from the milk of the flock?

⁸ I am not saying these [things] according to a human perspective. Or does the law not also say these [things]?

⁹ For in the law of Moses it is written, "You must not muzzle an ox [while it] is threshing." It is not about oxen God is concerned, is it?

¹⁰ Or doubtless does he speak _for our sake_ ? For it is written _for our sake_ , because the one who plows ought to plow in hope and the one who threshes [ought to do so] in hope of a share.

¹¹ If we have sown spiritual [things] among you, [is it too] great [a thing] if we reap material [things] from you?

¹² If others share this right over you, do we not [do so] even more? Yet we have not made use of this right, but we endure all [things], in order that we may not cause any hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

¹³ Do you not know that those performing the holy services eat the things from the temple, [and] those attending to the altar have a share with the altar?

¹⁴In the [same] way also the Lord ordered those who proclaim the gospel to live from the gospel.

¹⁵But I have not made use of any of these [rights]. And I am not writing these [things] in order that it may be thus with me. For [it would be] better to me rather to die than [for] anyone to deprive me of my reason for boasting.

¹⁶For if I proclaim the gospel, it is not to me a reason for boasting, for necessity is imposed on me. For woe is to me if I do not proclaim the gospel.

¹⁷For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward, but if [I do so] unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

¹⁸What then is my reward? That [when I] proclaim the gospel, I may offer the gospel free of charge, in order not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

¹⁹For [although I] am free from all [people], I have enslaved myself to all, in order that I may gain more.

²⁰I have become like a Jew to the Jews, in order that I may gain the Jews. To those under the law [I became] as under the law ([although I] myself am not under the law) in order that I may gain those under the law.

²¹ To those outside the law [I became] as outside the law ([although I] am not outside the law of God, but subject to the law of Christ) in order that I may gain those outside the law.

²² To the weak I became weak, in order that I may gain the weak. I have become all [things] to all [people], in order that by all means I may save some.

²³ I do all [this] for the sake of the gospel, in order that I may become a participant with it.

²⁴ Do you not know that those who run in the stadium all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win.

²⁵ And everyone who competes exercises self-control in all [things]. Thus those [do so] in order that they may receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable [one].

²⁶ Therefore I run in this way, not as [running] aimlessly; I box in this way, not as beating the air.

²⁷ But I discipline my body and subjugate [it], lest somehow [after] preaching to others, [I] myself should become disqualified.

10¹ For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all went through the sea,

² and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

³ and all ate the same spiritual food,

⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed [them], and the rock was Christ.

⁵ But God was not pleased with the majority of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

⁶ Now these [things] happened [as] examples for us, so that we should not be desirers of evil [things], just as those also desired [them],

⁷ and not become idolaters, as some of them [did], just as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and stood up to play,"

⁸ nor commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed sexual immorality, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day,

⁹nor put Christ to the test, as some of them tested [him], and were destroyed by snakes, ¹⁰nor grumble, just as some of them grumbled, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

¹¹Now these [things] happened to those [people] as an example, but are written for our instruction, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

¹²Therefore, the one who thinks that he stands must watch out lest he fall.

¹³Temptation has not come upon you except [what is] common to humanity. But God [is] faithful, who will not permit you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but will also make a way out together with the temptation, [so that you] may be able to endure [it].

¹⁴Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry.

¹⁵I am speaking as to sensible [people]; you judge what I am saying.

¹⁶The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?

¹⁷ Because [there is] one bread, [we] who [are] many are one body, for [we] all share from the one bread.

¹⁸ Consider Israel according to the flesh: are not the ones who eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar?

¹⁹ Therefore, what am I saying? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?

²⁰ [No], but that [the things] which they sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to become sharers with demons.

²¹ You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to share the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

²² Or are we attempting to provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than he [is, are we]?

²³ All [things] are permitted, but not all [things] are profitable. All [things] are permitted, but not all [things] build up.

²⁴ Let no one seek _his own good_ but the [good] of the other.

²⁵ Eat everything that is sold in the meat market, _asking no questions_ for the sake of the conscience,

²⁶ for "the earth [is] the Lords, and its fullness."

²⁷ If any of the unbelievers invites you, and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you, _asking no questions_ for the sake of the conscience.

²⁸ But if someone says to you, "This is offered to idols," do not eat [it], for the sake of that one who informed [you] and the conscience.

²⁹ Now I am not speaking about your own conscience, but the [conscience] of the other [person]. For why [is] my freedom judged by anothers conscience?

³⁰ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I slandered concerning that for which I give thanks?

³¹ Therefore, whether you eat or you drink or whatever you do, do all [things] for the glory of God.

³² _Give no offense_ both to Jews and to Greeks and to the church of God,

³³ just as I also please all [people] in all [things], not seeking my own benefit, but the [benefit] of the many, in order that they may be saved.

11 ¹ Become imitators of me, just as I also [am] of Christ.

² Now I praise you that you remember me [in] all [things], and just as I handed over to you the traditions, you hold fast to [them].

³ But I want you to know that Christ is the head of every man, and the man [is the] head of the woman, and [the] head of Christ [is] God.

⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies [while] having [something] on [his] head dishonors his head, ⁵ but every woman who prays or prophesies with uncovered head dishonors her head, for she is one and the same with the one whose [head] is shaved.

⁶ For if a woman does not cover herself, let her [hair] be shorn off. But if [it is] shameful for a woman to [have her head] shorn or shaved, let her cover her [head].

⁷ For indeed a man ought not to cover his head, [because he] is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man.

⁸For man is not from woman, but woman from man.

⁹For indeed man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.

¹⁰Because of this, the woman ought to have [a symbol of] authority on her head, on account of the angels.

¹¹Nevertheless, neither [is] woman [anything] apart from man, nor [is] man [anything] apart from woman in the Lord.

¹²For just as the woman [is] from the man, thus also the man [is] through the woman. But all [things] [are] from God.

¹³You judge _for yourselves_ : is it fitting for a woman to pray to God [with her head] uncovered?

¹⁴And does not nature itself teach you that a man, if he wears long hair, it is a dishonor to him?

¹⁵But a woman, if she wears long hair, it is her glory, because her hair is given to her for a covering.

¹⁶But if anyone is disposed to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

¹⁷But in giving this instruction I do not praise [you], because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

¹⁸For in the first place, [when you] come together as a church, I hear there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

¹⁹For indeed it is necessary that there be factions among you, in order that those who are approved may become evident among you.

²⁰Therefore, [when] you come together in the same [place], it is not to eat the Lords supper.

²¹For [when you] eat [it], each one of you goes ahead to take his own supper, and one is hungry and another is drunk.

²²For do you not have houses for eating and drinking? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who do not have [anything]? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I will not praise [you]!

²³For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread, ²⁴ and [after he] had given thanks, he broke [it] and said, "This is my body which [is] for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

²⁵ Likewise also the cup, after they had eaten, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink [it], in remembrance of me.

²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lords death until he comes.

²⁷ So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

²⁸ But let a person examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread and let him drink from the cup.

²⁹ For the one who eats and drinks, [if he] does not recognize the body, eats and drinks judgment against himself.

³⁰ Because of this, many [are] weak and sick among you, and quite a few _have died_ .

³¹ But if we were evaluating ourselves, we would not be judged.

³² But [if we] are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined, in order that we will not be condemned with the world.

³³ So then, my brothers, [when you] come together in order to eat [the Lords supper], wait for one another.

³⁴ If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And I will give directions about the remaining [matters] whenever I come.

12¹ Now concerning spiritual [gifts], brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.

² You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to the speechless idols, however you were led.

³ Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus [is] accursed," and no one is able to say "Jesus [is] Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit,

⁵ and there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord, ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but the same God, who works all [things] in all [people].

⁷But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for what is beneficial [to all].

⁸For to one is given a word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another a word of knowledge by the same Spirit,

⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰and to another _miraculous powers_ , and to another prophecy, and to another distinguishing of spirits, to another kinds of tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues.

¹¹But in all these [things] one and the same Spirit is at work, distributing to each one individually just as he wishes.

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, [although they] are many, are one body, thus also Christ.

¹³For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free [persons], and all were made to drink one Spirit.

¹⁴For the body is not one member, but many.

¹⁵If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not [a part] of the body," not because of this is it not [a part] of the body.

¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not [a part] of the body, not because of this is it not [a part] of the body.

¹⁷If the whole body [were] an eye, where [would] the hearing [be]? If the whole [were] hearing, where [would] the sense of smell [be]?

¹⁸But now God has placed the members, each one of them, in the body just as he wanted.

¹⁹And if they all were one member, where [would] the body [be]?

²⁰But now [there are] many members, but one body.

²¹Now the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I do not have need of you," or again, the head to the feet, "I do not have need of you.

²²But by much more the members of the body which are thought to be weaker are necessary,

²³ and [the parts] of the body which we think to be less honorable, these we clothe with more abundant honor, and our unpresentable [parts] come to have more abundant presentability,

²⁴ but our presentable [parts] do not have need [of this]. Yet God composed the body by giving more abundant honor to the part which lacked [it], ²⁵ in order that there not be a division in the body, but the members would have the same concern for one another.

²⁶ And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with [it].

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and members _of it individually_ , ²⁸ and whom God has appointed in the church: first, apostles, second, prophets, third, teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administrations, kinds of tongues.

²⁹ Not all [are] apostles, [are they]? Not all [are] prophets, [are they]? Not all [are] teachers, [are they]? Not all [are workers of] miracles, [are they]?

³⁰Not all have gifts of healing, [do they]? Not all speak with tongues, [do they]? Not all interpret, [do they]?

³¹But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

13¹If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a ringing brass gong or a clashing cymbal.

²And if I have [the gift of] prophecy and I know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so that [I can] remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

³And if I parcel out all my possessions, and if I hand over my body in order that I may boast, but do not have love, it benefits [me] nothing.

⁴Love is patient, love is kind, love is not jealous, [it] does not boast, [it] does not become conceited,

⁵[it] does not behave dishonorably, [it] _is not selfish_, [it] does not become angry, [it] does not keep a record of wrongs,

⁶[it] does not rejoice at unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth,

⁷bears all [things], believes all [things], hopes all [things], endures all [things].

⁸Love never ends. But if [there are] prophecies, they will pass away. If [there are] tongues, they will cease. If [there is] knowledge, it will pass away.

⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part,

¹⁰but whenever the perfect comes, the partial will pass away.

¹¹When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I set aside the things of a child.

¹²For now we see through a mirror _indirectly_, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know completely, just as I have also been completely known.

¹³And now these three [things] remain: faith, hope, [and] love. But the greatest of these [is] love.

14¹Pursue love, and strive for spiritual [gifts], but especially that you may prophesy.

²For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God, because no one understands, but by the Spirit he speaks mysteries.

³But the one who prophesies speaks to people edification and encouragement and consolation.

⁴The one who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but the one who prophesies edifies the church.

⁵Now I want you all to speak with tongues, but even more that you may prophesy. The one who prophesies [is] greater than the one who speaks with tongues, unless he interprets, in order that the church may receive edification.

⁶But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with tongues, how do I benefit you, unless I speak to you either with a revelation or with knowledge or with a prophecy or with a teaching?

⁷Likewise, the inanimate things which produce a sound, whether flute or lyre, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the lyre?

⁸For indeed, if the trumpet produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare for battle?

⁹And so you through the tongue, unless you produce a clear message, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air.

¹⁰There are probably so many kinds of languages in the world, and none without meaning.

¹¹Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a barbarian to the one who is speaking, and the one who is speaking [will be] a barbarian in my [judgment].

¹²In this way also you, since you are zealous of spiritual [gifts], seek for the edification of the church, in order that you may abound.

¹³Therefore the one who speaks in a tongue must pray that he may interpret.

¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unproductive.

¹⁵_Therefore what should I do_ ? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will also sing praise with my mind.

¹⁶For otherwise, if you praise in [your] spirit, how will the one who fills the place of the outsider say the "amen" at your thanksgiving, because he does not know what you are saying?

¹⁷For indeed you are giving thanks well, but the other person is not edified.

¹⁸I give thanks to God [that] I speak with tongues more than all of you, ¹⁹but in the church I prefer to speak five words with my mind, in order that I may instruct other [people], than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers, do not become children in [your] understanding, but with respect to wickedness be as a child, and in [your] understanding be mature.

²¹In the law it is written: "By those who speak a foreign language and by the lips of others I will speak to this people, and not even in this way will they obey me," says the Lord.

²²So then, tongues are for a sign not to those who believe, but to unbelievers, but prophecy [is] not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

²³Therefore, if the whole church comes together at the same [time] and all speak with tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your minds?

²⁴ But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all,

²⁵ the secret things of his heart become evident, and so, falling on [his] face, he will worship God, proclaiming, "God is truly among you!

²⁶ _Therefore what should you do_ , brothers? Whenever you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. All [things] must be [done] for edification.

²⁷ If anyone speaks in a tongue, [it must be] on one occasion two or at most three, and _one after the other_ , and one must interpret.

²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, he must be silent in the church, but let him speak to himself and to God.

²⁹ Let two or three prophets speak, and the others evaluate.

³⁰ And if [something] is revealed to another who is seated, the first must be silent.

³¹ For you are all able to prophesy _in turn_ , in order that all may learn and all may be encouraged, ³² and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.

³³ For God is not [a God of] disorder but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴ the women must be silent in the churches, for it is not permitted for them to speak, but they must be in submission, just as the law also says.

³⁵ But if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

³⁶ Or has the word of God gone out from you, or has it come to you only?

³⁷ If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, he should recognize that [the things] which I am writing to you are a command of the Lord.

³⁸ But if anyone ignores [this], he is ignored.

³⁹ So then, my brothers, desire to prophesy, and do not prevent speaking with tongues.

⁴⁰ But let all [things] be [done] decently and according to proper procedure.

15¹ Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel which I proclaimed to you, which you have also received, in which you also stand, ²by which you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the message I proclaimed to you, unless you believed to no purpose.

³For I passed on to you _as of first importance_ what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures,

⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised up on the third day according to the scriptures,

⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve,

⁶then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, the majority of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep.

⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸and last of all, as it were to one born at the wrong time, he appeared also to me.

⁹For I am the least of the apostles, not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been in vain, but I labored even more than all of them, and not I, but the grace of God with me.

¹¹Therefore whether I or those, in this way we preached, and in this way you believed.

¹²Now if Christ is preached as raised up from the dead, how do some among you say that [there] is no resurrection of the dead?

¹³But if [there] is no resurrection of the dead, Christ has not been raised [either].

¹⁴But if Christ has not been raised, then both our preaching [is] in vain, and your faith [is] in vain.

¹⁵And also we are found [to be] false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if after all, then, the dead are not raised.

¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised [either].

¹⁷But if Christ has not been raised, your faith [is] empty; you are still in your sins.

¹⁸And as a further result, those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

¹⁹If _we have put our hope_ in Christ in this life only, we are of all people most pitiable.

²⁰But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

²¹For since through a man [came] death, also through a man [came] the resurrection of the dead.

²²For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

²³But each in his own group: Christ the first fruits, then those [who are] Christs at his coming, ²⁴then the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power.

²⁵For it is necessary for him to reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

²⁶The last enemy to be abolished [is] death.

²⁷For "he subjected all [things] under his feet." But when it says "all [things]" are subjected, [it is] clear that the one who subjected all [things] to him [is] not included.

²⁸ But whenever all [things] are subjected to him, then the Son himself also will be subjected to the one who subjected all [things] to him, in order that God may be all in all.

²⁹ Otherwise, why do they do [it], those who are being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why indeed are they being baptized on behalf of them?

³⁰ And why are we in danger every hour?

³¹ I die every dayyes indeed, by my boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord!

³² If according to a human perspective I fought wild beasts at Ephesus, what benefit [is it] to me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.

³³ Do not be deceived! "Bad company corrupts good morals."

³⁴ Sober up correctly and _stop sinning_, for some have no knowledge of God! say [this] to your shame.

³⁵ But someone will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what sort of body do they come?

³⁶ Foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

³⁷ And what you sow [is] not the body which it will become, but you sow the bare seed, whether perhaps of wheat or of some of the rest.

³⁸ But God gives to it a body just as he wishes, and to each one of the seeds its own body.

³⁹ Not all flesh [is] the same, but [there is] one flesh of human beings, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish,

⁴⁰ and heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly [bodies] [is] of one kind, and the [glory] of the earthly [bodies] [is] of another kind.

⁴¹ [There is] one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars, for star differs from star in glory.

⁴² Thus also [is] the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruptibility.

⁴³ It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

⁴⁴ It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If [there] is a natural body, [there] is also a spiritual [body].

⁴⁵ Thus also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul"; the last Adam [became] a life-giving spirit.

⁴⁶ But the spiritual [is] not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.

⁴⁷ The first man [is] from the earth, made of earth; the second man [is] from heaven.

⁴⁸ As the one [who is] made of earth, so also [are] those [who are] made of earth, and as the heavenly, so also [are] those [who are] heavenly.

⁴⁹ And just as we have borne the image of the [one who is] made of earth, we will also bear the image of the heavenly.

⁵⁰ But I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood is not able to inherit the kingdom of God, nor can corruption inherit incorruptibility.

⁵¹ Behold, I tell you a mystery: we will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed, ⁵²in a moment, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

⁵³For it is necessary [for] this perishable [body] to put on incorruptibility, and this mortal [body] to put on immortality.

⁵⁴But whenever this perishable [body] puts on incorruptibility and this mortal [body] puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will take place: "Death is swallowed up in victory.

⁵⁵Where, O death, [is] your victory? Where, O death, [is] your sting?

⁵⁶Now the sting of death [is] sin, and the power of sin [is] the law.

⁵⁷But thanks [be] to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

⁵⁸So then, my dear brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, [because you] know that your labor is not [in] vain in the Lord.

16¹ Now concerning the collection for the saints: just as I gave directions about [it] to the churches of Galatia, so you do also.

²On the first [day] of the week, each one of you _put aside_ [something], saving up _to whatever extent he has prospered_ , in order that whenever I come, at that time collections do not take place.

³And whenever I arrive, whomever you approve by letters, I will send these to take your gift to Jerusalem.

⁴And if it is worthwhile for me to go also, they will travel with me.

⁵But I will come to you whenever I go through Macedonia (for I am going through Macedonia), ⁶and perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may send me on my way wherever I may go.

⁷For I do not want to see you now in passing, for I hope to remain some time with you, if the Lord allows [it].

⁸But I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹for a great and effective door has opened for me, and [there are] many opponents.

¹⁰But if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without cause to fear, for he is carrying out the Lords work, as I also [am].

¹¹ Therefore do not let anyone disdain him, but send him [on his way] in peace in order that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.

¹² Now concerning Apollos our brother, I urged him many [times] that he should come to you with the brothers, and he was not at all willing that he should come now, but he will come whenever he has [an] opportunity.

¹³ Be on the alert, stand firm in the faith, act courageously, be strong.

¹⁴ All your [actions] must be done in love.

¹⁵ Now I urge you, brothers you know about the household of Stephanas, that they are the first fruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the ministry for the saints

¹⁶ that you also be subject to such people, and to all those who work together and labor.

¹⁷ Now I rejoice over the arrival of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because these make up for your absence, ¹⁸for they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore recognize such people.

¹⁹The churches of [the province of] Asia greet you. Aquila and Prisca greet you in the Lord many [times], together with the church in their house.

²⁰All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹The greeting [is] by my handPauls.

²²If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. O Lord, come!

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus [be] with you.

²⁴My love [be] with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, together with all the saints who are in all Achaia.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, ⁴ who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those [who are] in all affliction with the comfort with which [we] ourselves are comforted by God.

⁵ For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, thus through Christ our comfort overflows also.

⁶ But if we are afflicted, [it is] for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, [it is] for your comfort that is at work in the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer.

⁷And our hope for you [is] firm, [because we] know that as you are sharers in the sufferings, so also [you will be sharers] in the comfort.

⁸For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning our affliction that happened in the [province of] Asia, that we were burdened to an extraordinary degree, beyond [our] strength, so that we were in despair even of living.

⁹But [we] ourselves had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we would not be putting confidence in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead,

¹⁰who delivered us from so great [a risk] of death, and will deliver [us], in whom we have put our hope that he will also deliver [us] again,

¹¹[while] you also join in helping _on our behalf_ by prayer, so that thanks may be given _on our behalf_ by many persons for this gracious gift [given] to us through [the help] of many.

¹²For our reason for boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that we conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you, in sincerity and purity of motive from God and not in merely human wisdom, but by the grace of God.

¹³For we are not writing [anything] else to you except what you can read or also understand. But I hope that you will understand _completely_ , ¹⁴just as you have also understood us in part, that we are your reason for boasting, just as you [are] also ours in the day of our Lord Jesus.

¹⁵And with this confidence, I was wanting to come to you previously, in order that you may have a second proof of my goodwill, ¹⁶and through you to go to Macedonia, and to come to you again from Macedonia, and to be sent on my way by you to Judea.

¹⁷Therefore, [when I] was wanting [to do] this, perhaps then was I making use of vacillation? Or was I deciding what I was deciding according to the flesh, in order that with me my "yes" may be "yes" and my "no" [may be] "no" [at the same time]?

¹⁸But God [is] faithful, so that our word to you is not "yes" and "no."

¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one who was proclaimed among you by us, by me and Silvanus and Timothy, did not become "yes" and "no," but has become "yes" in him.

²⁰For as many as [are the] promises of God, in him [they are] "yes"; therefore also through him [is] the "amen" to the glory of God through us.

²¹Now the one who establishes us together with you in Christ and who anoints us [is] God, ²²[who] also sealed us and gave the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³But I call upon God [as] witness against my life, that [in order to] spare you, I did not come again to Corinth.

²⁴Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, because by faith you stand firm.

2¹For I have decided this for myself, not to come to you again in sorrow.

²For if I [cause] you sorrow, then who will make me glad except the one who is caused to be sad by me?

³And I wrote this very [thing] in order that [when I] came, I would not experience sorrow from those who ought to have made me glad, [because I] have confidence about you all, that my joy _belongs to all of you_ .

⁴For out of great distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not so that you may be caused to be sad, but so that you may know the love that I have especially for you.

⁵But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has not caused me sorrow, but _to some degree_ _in order not to say too much_ [to] all [of] you.

⁶This punishment by the majority [is] sufficient for such a person.

⁷So then, you should rather forgive and comfort him, lest somehow this person should be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

⁸Therefore I urge you to confirm [your] love for him.

⁹Because for this [reason] also I wrote, in order that I could know your proven character, whether you are obedient in everything.

¹⁰Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also [do]; for indeed, whatever I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, [it is] _for your sake_ in the presence of Christ,

¹¹ in order that we may not be exploited by Satan (for we are not ignorant of his schemes).

¹² Now [when I] arrived in Troas for the gospel of Christ and a door was opened for me by the Lord,

¹³ I did not experience rest in my spirit,
[because] I did not find Titus my brother, but saying farewell to them, I departed for Macedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks [be] to God, who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ, and who reveals the fragrance of the knowledge of him through us in every place.

¹⁵ For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing,

¹⁶ to those on the one hand an odor from death to death, [and] to those on the other hand a fragrance from life to life. And who [is] qualified for these [things]?

¹⁷ For we are not like the majority who peddle the word of God, but as from pure motives but as from God we speak before God in Christ.

3¹ Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or [do we], like some, need letters of recommendation to you or from you?

² You are our letter, inscribed on our hearts, known and read by all people,

³ revealing that you are a letter of Christ, delivered by us, inscribed not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on stone tablets but on tablets of human hearts.

⁴ Now we possess such confidence through Christ toward God.

⁵ Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves, but our adequacy [is] from God,

⁶ who also makes us adequate [as] servants of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit, for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷ But if the ministry of death in letters carved on stone came with glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look intently into the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was transitory, ⁸how will the ministry of the Spirit not be even more with glory?

⁹For if [there was] glory in the ministry of condemnation, by much more will the ministry of righteousness overflow with glory.

¹⁰For indeed what had been glorified has not been glorified in this case, on account of the glory that surpasses [it].

¹¹For if what was transitory [came] with glory, by much more what remains [is] with glory.

¹²Therefore, [because we] have such a hope, we use much boldness,

¹³and not as Moses used to place a veil over his face, in order that the sons of Israel would not stare at the end of what was transitory.

¹⁴But their minds were hardened. For until this very day, the same veil remains upon the reading of the old covenant, not being uncovered, because it is done away with in Christ.

¹⁵But until today, whenever Moses is read aloud, a veil lies upon their heart, ¹⁶but whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed.

¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord [is, there is] freedom.

¹⁸ And we all, with unveiled face, reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory into glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4¹ Because of this, [since we] have this ministry, just as we have been shown mercy, we do not lose heart,

² but we have renounced shameful hidden things, not behaving with craftiness or adulterating the word of God, but with the open proclamation of the truth commending ourselves to every persons conscience before God.

³ But if indeed our gospel is veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing, ⁴ among whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that they would not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Jesus Christ [as] Lord, and ourselves [as] your slaves for the sake of Jesus.

⁶For God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," [is the one] who has shined in our hearts for the enlightenment of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in earthenware jars, in order that the extraordinary degree of the power may be from God and not from us.

⁸We are afflicted in every [way], but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;

⁹persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed;

¹⁰always carrying around the death of Jesus in our body, in order that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

¹¹For we who are alive [are] continually being handed over to death because of Jesus, in order that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal flesh.

¹²So then, death is at work in us, but life in you.

¹³But [because we] have the same spirit of faith in accordance with [what is] written, "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, therefore we also speak,

¹⁴[because we] know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us together with Jesus and present [us] together with you.

¹⁵For all [these things] _are for your sake_ , in order that the grace that is increasing through the many may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

¹⁶Therefore we do not lose heart, but even if our outer person is being destroyed, yet our inner [person] is being renewed day after day.

¹⁷For our momentary light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory _beyond all measure and proportion_ , ¹⁸[because] we are not looking at what is seen, but what is not seen. For what is seen [is] temporary, but what is not seen [is] eternal.

5¹For we know that if our earthly house, the tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made by hands, eternal in the heavens.

²For indeed, in this [house] we groan, [because we] desire to put on our dwelling from heaven, ³if indeed, even [after we] have taken [it] off, we will not be found naked.

⁴For indeed we who are in this tent groan, being burdened _for this reason, that_ we do not want to be unclothed, but to be clothed, in order that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

⁵Now the one who has prepared us for this very [thing] [is] God, who has given us the down payment, the Spirit.

⁶Therefore, [although we are] always confident and know that [while we] are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord

⁷for we live by faith, not by sight

⁸so we are confident and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

⁹Therefore indeed we have as our ambition, whether at home [in the body] or absent [from the body], to be acceptable to him.

¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, in order that each one may receive back the [things] through the body according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

¹¹Therefore, [because we] know the fear of the Lord, we are attempting to persuade people, but we are revealed to God, and I hope to be revealed in your consciences.

¹²We are not commending ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to boast about us, in order that you may have [an answer] for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.

¹³For if we are out of our senses, [it is] for God; if we are of sound mind, [it is] for you.

¹⁴For the love of Christ controls us, [because we] have concluded this: that one died for all; as a result all died.

¹⁵And he died for all, in order that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶So then, from now on we know no one _from a human point of view_ , if indeed we have known Christ _from a human point of view_ , but now we know [him this way] no longer.

¹⁷Therefore if anyone [is] in Christ, [he is] a new creation; the old [things] have passed away; behold, new [things] have come.

¹⁸And all these [things] [are] from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ, and who has given us the ministry of reconciliation, ¹⁹namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

²⁰Therefore we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as [if] God were imploring [you] through us. We beg [you] on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

²¹He made the one who did not know sin [to be] sin on our behalf, in order that we could become the righteousness of God in him.

6¹ Now [because we] are fellow workers, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

²For he says, "At the acceptable time I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now [is] the acceptable time; behold, now [is] the day of salvation!

³[We are] giving no one an occasion for taking offense in anything, in order that our ministry will not have fault found [with it],

⁴but commending ourselves as servants of God in every [way], in much endurance, in afflictions, in distresses, in difficulties,

⁵in beatings, in prisons, in disturbances, in troubles, in sleepless nights, in going hungry,

⁶in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in love without hypocrisy, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God, with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and left hand,

⁸through glory and dishonor, through slander and good repute, [regarded] as deceivers and [yet] truthful,

⁹as unknown and [yet] known completely, as dying, and behold, we go on living, as disciplined, and [yet] not put to death, ¹⁰as grieving, but always rejoicing, as poor, but making many rich, as having nothing, and possessing everything.

¹¹_We have spoken freely and openly_ to you, Corinthians; our heart is open wide.

¹²You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your affections.

¹³Now the same [way] [in] exchange (I am speaking as to children), you open wide [your hearts] also.

¹⁴Do not become unevenly yoked with unbelievers, for what participation [is there between] righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship [does] light [have] with darkness?

¹⁵And what agreement [does] Christ [have] with Beliar? Or what share [does] a believer [have] with an unbeliever?

¹⁶And what agreement [does the] temple of God [have] with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said, "I will live in them and will walk about [among them], and I will be their God and they will be my people."

¹⁷Therefore "come out from their midst and be separate," says the Lord, "and do not touch what is unclean, and I will welcome you, ¹⁸and I will be a father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to me," says the all-powerful Lord.

7¹Therefore [since we] have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of body and spirit, accomplishing holiness in the fear of God.

² _Make room for us in your hearts_ . We have wronged no one, we have ruined no one, we have defrauded no one.

³ I do not say [this] _to condemn you_ , because I have already said that you are in our hearts, so that we die together and we live together.

⁴ Great [is] my confidence toward you; great [is] my boasting on your behalf; I am filled with encouragement; I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.

⁵ For even [when] we arrived in Macedonia, our body had no rest, but we were afflicted in every [way] quarrels outside, fears within.

⁶ But God, who comforts the humble, comforted us by the coming of Titus, ⁷ and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort [with] which he was comforted among you, [because he] reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

⁸For if indeed I grieved you by my letter, I do not regret [it] (even if I did regret [it]), for I see that that letter grieved you, even though for _a short time_ .

⁹Now I do not rejoice that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to repentance. For you were grieved according to [the will of] God, so that you suffered loss in no way through us.

¹⁰For grief according to [the will of] God brings about a repentance [leading] to salvation, not to be regretted, but worldly grief brings about death.

¹¹For behold how much diligence this very [thing], being grieved according to [the will of] God, has brought about in you: what defense [of yourselves], what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! In everything you have demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in this matter.

¹²Consequently, even if I wrote to you, it was not because of the one who did wrong or because of the one who had been wronged, but in order that your diligence _on our behalf_ might be revealed to you before God.

¹³Because of this we have been encouraged, and in addition to our encouragement, we rejoiced much more over the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you.

¹⁴For if I have boasted anything to him about you, I have not been put to shame, but as I have spoken everything to you in truth, thus also our boasting to Titus _has proven to be true_ .

¹⁵And his affection for you is all the more [when he] remembers the obedience of all of you as you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

¹⁶I rejoice, because in everything I am completely confident in you.

8¹Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, ²that with a great ordeal of affliction, the abundance of their joy and the extreme depth of their poverty have overflowed to the wealth of their generosity.

³I testify that [they gave] according to [their] ability, and beyond [their] ability, by their own choice, ⁴requesting of us with much exhortation the favor and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints,

⁵and not just as we had hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and [then] to us, by the will of God.

⁶So we urged Titus that, just as he had previously begun [it], thus he would also complete for you this [act of] grace.

⁷But just as you excel in everything in faith and in speaking and in knowledge and with all diligence and in the love from us [that is] in you so may you excel in this grace also.

⁸I am not saying [this] as a command, but proving the genuineness of your love by means of the diligence of others.

⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that [although he] was rich, for your sake he became poor, in order that you, by his poverty, may become rich.

¹⁰And I am giving an opinion in this [matter], because this is profitable for you who not only began previously, a year ago, to do [something], but also to want [to do it].

¹¹ So now also complete the doing [of it], in order that just as [you have] the eagerness to want [to do it], thus also [you may] complete [it] from [what you] have.

¹² For if the eagerness is present _according to what one has_ , [it is] acceptable not _according to what one does not have_ .

¹³ For [this is] not that for others [there may be] relief, [and] for you difficult circumstances, but [as a matter] of equality.

¹⁴ At the present time your abundance [will be] for their need, in order that their abundance may also be for your need, so that there may be equality,

¹⁵ just as it is written, "The [one] who [gathered] much did not have too much, and the [one] who [gathered] little did not have too little."

¹⁶ But thanks [be] to God, who has put in the heart of Titus the same devotion _on your behalf_ , ¹⁷ because he not only welcomed our request, but being very earnest, by his own choice he went out to you.

¹⁸And we have sent at the same time with him the brother whose praise in the gospel [has become known] throughout all the churches.

¹⁹And not only [this], but he was also chosen by the churches [as] our traveling companion together with this gift that is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord himself and [to show] our readiness [to help].

²⁰[We are] trying to avoid this, lest anyone should find fault with us in this abundant gift that is being administered by us.

²¹For we are taking into consideration what is honorable not only before the Lord, but also before people.

²²And we are sending with them our brother whom we have tested many times in many [things] that he is diligent, but now much more diligent [because of his] great confidence in you.

²³If [there is a question] concerning Titus, [he is] my partner and fellow worker for you. If [there is a question concerning] our brothers, [they are] messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

²⁴Therefore show to them the proof of your love and our boasting about you _openly before_ the churches.

9¹For it is unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the ministry to the saints, ²because I know your readiness [to help], [concerning] which I keep on boasting to the Macedonians about you, that Achaia has been ready [to help] since last year, and your zeal has stirred up the majority [of them].

³But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you would not prove to be empty in this case, so that you may be prepared just as I was saying,

⁴lest somehow if Macedonians should come with me and find you unprepared, we_not to speak of you_ would be humiliated in connection with this project.

⁵Therefore I considered [it] necessary to urge the brothers that they should go on ahead to you and make arrangements in advance for your generous gift that was promised previously, so this would be prepared as a generous gift and not as grudgingly granted.

⁶Now [the point is] this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

⁷Each one [should give] as he has decided in his heart, not _reluctantly_ or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

⁸And God is able to cause all grace to abound to you, so that in everything at all times, [because you] have enough of everything, you may overflow in every good work.

⁹Just as it is written, "He scattered widely, he gave to the poor; his righteousness remains _forever_."

¹⁰Now the one who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your seed, and will cause the harvest of your righteousness to grow,

¹¹being made rich in every [way] for all generosity, which is producing through us thanksgiving to God,

¹²because the service of this ministry is not only supplying the needs of the saints, but also is overflowing through many [expressions of] thanksgiving to God.

¹³Through the proven character of this service [they will] glorify God because of the submission of your confession to the gospel of Christ and the generosity of [your] participation toward them and toward everyone, ¹⁴and [they are] longing for you in their prayers for you, because of the surpassing grace of God to you.

¹⁵Thanks [be] to God for his indescribable gift!

10¹Now I, Paul, appeal to you myself by the humility and gentleness of Christ, who _when I am present in person_ [am] humble among you, but [when I] am absent am bold toward you ²now I ask [when I] am present [that I will] not [need] to be bold with the confidence [with] which I propose to show boldness toward some who consider us as behaving according to the flesh.

³For [although we] are living in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh,

⁴for the weapons of our warfare [are] not merely human, but powerful to God for the tearing down of fortresses, tearing down arguments

⁵and all pride that is raised up against the knowledge of God, and taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

⁶And _we are ready_ to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is completed.

⁷You are looking at things according to appearance. If anyone is convinced he himself is Christ's, he should consider this concerning himself again: that just as Christ himself [is], so also [are] we.

⁸For even if I boast somewhat more about our authority that the Lord gave [us] _for building you up and not for tearing you down_ , I will not be put to shame,

⁹so that I do not want to appear as if I were terrifying you by my letters, ¹⁰because it is said, "His letters [are] severe and powerful, but his bodily presence [is] weak and his speech is of no account.

¹¹ Let such a person consider this: that what we are in word by letters [when we] are absent, [we will] also [be] in _actions_ [when we] are present.

¹² For we do not dare to classify or to compare ourselves with some who commend themselves, but [they] themselves, [when they] measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, do not understand.

¹³ But we will not boast _beyond limits_, but according to the measure of the assignment that God has assigned to us as a measure to reach even as far as you.

¹⁴ For we are not overextending ourselves, as [if we] had not reached you, because we have reached even as far as you with the gospel of Christ,

¹⁵ not boasting _beyond limits_ in the labors of others, but having hope [that as] your faith is growing to be enlarged greatly by you according to our assignment,

¹⁶ so that we may proclaim the gospel in the regions that lie beyond you, [and] not boast in the things accomplished in the [area] assigned to someone else.

¹⁷ But "the one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."

¹⁸ For it is not the one commending himself who is approved, but [the one] whom the Lord commends.

11 ¹ I wish that you would put up with me _in something a little foolish_ but indeed you are putting up with me.

² For I am jealous [for] you with a godly jealousy, because I promised you [in marriage] to one husband, to present [you] [as] a pure virgin to Christ.

³ But I am afraid lest somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds may be led astray from the sincerity and the purity of [devotion] to Christ.

⁴ For if the one who comes proclaims another Jesus whom we have not proclaimed, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive, or a different gospel which you did not accept, you put up with [it] well [enough]!

⁵ For I consider myself in no way to be inferior to the preeminent apostles.

⁶But even if [I am] unskilled in speech, yet [I am] not in knowledge; certainly in everything [we] have made this clear to you in every [way].

⁷Or did I commit a sin [by] humbling myself in order that you may be exalted, because I proclaimed the gospel of God to you without payment?

⁸I robbed other churches [by] accepting support [from them] for the ministry to you.

⁹And [when I] was present with you and was in need, I did not burden anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and will keep [myself from being a burden].

¹⁰[As the] truth of Christ is in me, this boasting _of mine_ will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.

¹¹_Why_ ? Because I do not love you? God knows [I do]!

¹²But what I am doing, I will also do, in order that I may remove the opportunity of those who want an opportunity, that they may be found just as also we [are] in what they are boasting about.

¹³For such people [are] false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

¹⁴And no wonder, for Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light.

¹⁵Therefore [it is] not a great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their deeds.

¹⁶Again I say, do not let anyone think I am foolish. But indeed, if [you do], accept me even as foolish, in order that I also may boast a little.

¹⁷What I am saying in this project of boasting, I am not saying as the Lord [would say], but as in foolishness.

¹⁸Since many are boasting according to human standards, I also will boast.

¹⁹For [because you] are wise, you put up with foolish people gladly!

²⁰For you put up with [it] if someone enslaves you, if someone devours [you], if someone takes advantage of [you], if someone is presumptuous [toward you], if someone strikes you in the face.

²¹I say [this] to [my] shame, namely, that we have been weak. But in whatever anyone dares to [boast] I am speaking in foolishness I also dare to [boast].

²²Are they Hebrews? I [am] also! Are they Israelites? I [am] also! Are they descendants of Abraham? I [am] also!

²³Are they servants of Christ? I am speaking as though I were beside myself I [am] more so, with far greater labors, with far more imprisonments, with beatings to a much greater degree, in [danger of] death many times.

²⁴Five times I received at the hands of the Jews forty [lashes] less one.

²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I received a stoning. Three times I was shipwrecked. A day and a night I have spent in the deep water.

²⁶[I have been] on journeys many times, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from robbers, in dangers from [my own] people, in dangers from the Gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers because of false brothers, ²⁷with toil and hardship, often in sleepless nights, with hunger and thirst, often going hungry, in cold and poorly clothed.

²⁸ Apart from these external things, [there is] the pressure on me every day of the anxiety about all the churches.

²⁹ Who is weak, and [I am] not weak? Who is caused to sin, and I do not burn [with indignation]?

³⁰ If it is necessary to boast, I will boast [about] _the things related to my weakness_ .

³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed _forever_ , knows that I am not lying.

³² In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to take me into custody, ³³ and I was lowered through a window through the wall in a rope-basket, and I escaped his hands.

12¹ It is necessary to boast; [it is] not profitable, but I will proceed to visions and revelations of the Lord.

² I know a man in Christ fourteen years ago whether in the body I do not know, or outside the body I do not know, God knowssuch a man was caught up to the third heaven,

³and I know this man whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows ⁴that he was caught up to paradise and heard words not to be spoken, which [it is] not permitted for a person to speak.

⁵On behalf of such a person I will boast, but on behalf of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.

⁶For if I want to boast, I will not be foolish, because I will be telling the truth, but I am refraining, so that no one can credit to me more than what he sees [in] me or hears anything from me, ⁷even because of the extraordinary degree of the revelations. Therefore, so that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan, in order that it would torment me so that I would not exalt myself.

⁸Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would depart from me.

⁹And he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, because the power is perfected in weakness." Therefore rather I will boast most gladly in my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may reside in me.

¹⁰Therefore I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in calamities, in persecutions and difficulties for the sake of Christ, for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹I have become a fool! You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for [I am] in no way inferior to the preeminent apostles, even if I am nothing.

¹²Indeed, the signs of an apostle have been done among you with all patient endurance, both signs and wonders and deeds of power.

¹³_For in what respect are you made worse off_ more than the rest of the churches, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴Behold, this third [time] I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden [to you]. For I am not seeking your possessions, but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

¹⁵But I will spend and be expended most gladly for your lives. If I love you much more, am I to be loved less?

¹⁶But let [it] be. I have not been a burden to you, but [because I] was crafty, I took you by cunning.

¹⁷I have not taken advantage of you _through anyone whom I sent to you_ , [have I]?

¹⁸I urged Titus [to go], and I sent the brother [with him]. Titus did not take advantage of you, [did he]? Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same footsteps?

¹⁹Have you been thinking all this time that we are defending ourselves to you? We are speaking in Christ before God, and all [these things], dear friends, [are] for your edification.

²⁰For I am afraid lest somehow [when I] arrive, I will not find you as I want, and I may be found by you as you do not want. [I am afraid] lest somehow [there will be] strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, pride, disorder.

²¹[I am afraid] lest [when I] come again my God will humiliate me _in your presence_ , and I will grieve over many of those who sinned previously and have not repented because of their impurity and sexual immorality and licentiousness that they have practiced.

13¹ This [is] the third [time] I am coming to you. _By the testimony_ of two or three witnesses every word will be established.

² I have already said when [I] was present the second time, and [although I] am absent now [I] also say in advance to those who sinned previously and to all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare [anyone],

³ since you are demanding proof that Christ, who [is] not weak toward you, but is powerful among you, is speaking in me.

⁴ For indeed, he was crucified because of weakness, but he lives because of the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live together with him because of the power of God toward you.

⁵ Test yourselves [to see] if you are in the faith. Examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize regarding yourselves that Jesus Christ [is] in you, unless you are unqualified?

⁶ And I hope that you will recognize that we are not unqualified!

⁷ Now we pray to God that you not do wrong in any way, not that we are seen as approved, but that you do what is good, even [though] we are [seen] as though unqualified.

⁸ For we are not able [to do] anything against the truth, but rather [only] for the truth.

⁹ For we rejoice whenever we are weak, but you are strong, and we pray for this: your maturity.

¹⁰ Because of this, I am writing these [things] [although I] am absent, in order that [when I] am present I may not have to act severely according to the authority that the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹ Finally, brothers, rejoice, be restored, be encouraged, _be in agreement_ , be at peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³ (13-12b) All the saints greet you.

¹⁴ (13-13) The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit [be] with all of you.

Galatians

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle not from men nor by men but through Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead, ² and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia.

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

⁴ who gave himself for our sins in order to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,

⁵ to whom [be] the glory forever and ever. Amen.

⁶ I am astonished that you are turning away so quickly from the one who called you by the grace of Christ to a different gospel,

⁷ not that [there] is a different [gospel], except there are some who are disturbing you and wanting to distort the gospel of Christ.

⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven should proclaim a gospel to you contrary to what we proclaimed to you, let him be accursed!

⁹As we said before, and now I say again, if anyone is proclaiming a gospel [to] you contrary to what you have received, let him be accursed!

¹⁰For am I now making an appeal to people or [to] God? Or am I seeking to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a slave of Christ.

¹¹For I make known to you, brothers, the gospel that has been proclaimed by me, that it is not _of human origin_ .

¹²For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], but [I received it] through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹³For you have heard about my former way of life in Judaism, that to an extraordinary degree I was persecuting the church of God, and trying to destroy it, ¹⁴and was progressing in Judaism beyond many contemporaries in my nation, [because] I was a far more zealous adherent of the traditions handed down by my forefathers.

¹⁵ But when God, who set me apart from my mothers womb and called [me] by his grace, was pleased

¹⁶ to reveal his Son in me, in order that I would proclaim the gospel [about] him among the Gentiles, immediately I did not consult with flesh and blood, ¹⁷ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those [who were] apostles before me, but I went away to Arabia and I returned again to Damascus.

¹⁸ Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days, ¹⁹ but I did not see [any] others of the apostles except James, the brother of the Lord.

²⁰ (Now [the things] which I am writing to you, behold, [I assure you] before God that I am not lying.)

²¹ Then I came to the regions of Syria and of Cilicia,

²² but I was unknown _in person_ to the churches of Judea [that are] in Christ,

²³ and they were only hearing, "The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith that formerly he was attempting to destroy,

²⁴and they were glorifying God because of me.

2¹ Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking along Titus also.

² Now I went up [there] because of a revelation and laid out to them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles, but in private to the influential people, lest somehow I was running, or had run, in vain.

³ But not even Titus [who was] with me, [although] he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

⁴ Now [this was] because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, in order that they might enslave us, ⁵ to whom not even for an hour did we yield in subjection, in order that the truth of the gospel might remain continually with you.

⁶ But from those _who were influential_ (whatever they were, [it makes] no difference to me, _God does not show partiality_) for those who were influential added nothing to me.

⁷ But these, [when they] saw that I had been entrusted [with] the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision

⁸ (for the one who was at work through Peter for [his] apostleship to the circumcision was at work also through me for the Gentiles),

⁹ and [when] James and Cephas and John those thought to be pillars acknowledged the grace given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right [hand] of fellowship, in order that we [should go] to the Gentiles and they to the circumcision.

¹⁰ [They asked] only that we should remember the poor, the very thing I was also eager to do.

¹¹ But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed [him] to his face, because he was condemned.

¹² For before certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles, but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, [because he] was afraid of those [who were] of the circumcision,

¹³and the rest of the Jews also joined in [this] hypocrisy with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with them in [their] hypocrisy.

¹⁴But when I saw that they were not being straightforward with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in the presence of [them] all, "If you, [although you] are a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you try to compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?

¹⁵We [are] Jews by nature and not sinners from among the Gentiles, ¹⁶but knowing that a person is not justified by the works of the law, if not by faith in Jesus Christ, and we have believed in Christ Jesus so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law _no human being will be justified_ .

¹⁷But if [while] seeking to be justified by Christ, [we] ourselves also have been found [to be] sinners, then [is] Christ an agent of sin? May it never be!

¹⁸For if I build up again these [things] which I destroyed, I show myself [to be] a transgressor.

¹⁹For through the law I died to the law, in order that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ, ²⁰and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me, and that [life] I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

²¹I do not declare invalid the grace of God, for if righteousness [is] through the law, then Christ died to no purpose.

3¹O foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed [as] having been crucified?

²I want only to learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

³Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now trying to be made complete by the flesh?

⁴Have you suffered so many [things] for nothing if indeed also [it was] for nothing?

⁵Therefore does the one who gives you the Spirit and who works miracles among you [do so] by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

⁶Just as Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness, ⁷then understand that the ones _who have faith_, these are sons of Abraham.

⁸And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the good news in advance to Abraham: "In you all the nations will be blessed."

⁹So then, the ones [who have] faith are blessed together with Abraham who believed.

¹⁰For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse, for it is written, "Cursed [is] everyone who does not abide by all [the things] that are written in the book of the law to do them."

¹¹Now [it is] clear that no one is justified in the sight of God by the law, because "the one who is righteous will live by faith."

¹²But the law is not from faith, but "the one who does these [things] will live by them."

¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law [by] becoming a curse for us, because it is written, "Cursed [is] everyone who hangs on a tree,"

¹⁴ in order that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵ Brothers, I am speaking according to a human perspective. Nevertheless, [when] the covenant of a man has been ratified, no one declares [it] invalid or adds additional provisions [to it].

¹⁶ Now to Abraham and to his descendant the promises were spoken. It does not say, "and to descendants," as concerning many, but as concerning one, "and to your descendant," who is Christ.

¹⁸ For if the inheritance [is] from the law, [it is] no longer from the promise, but God graciously gave [it] to Abraham through the promise.

¹⁹Why then the law? It was added on account of transgressions, until the descendant should come to whom it had been promised, having been ordered through angels by the hand of a mediator.

²⁰Now the mediator is not for one, but God is one.

²¹Therefore [is] the law opposed to the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given that was able to give life, certainly righteousness would have been from the law.

²²But the scripture imprisoned all under sin, in order that the promise could be given by faith in Jesus Christ to those who believe.

²³But before faith came, we were detained under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith was revealed.

²⁴So then, the law became our guardian until Christ, in order that we could be justified by faith.

²⁵But [after] faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

²⁶For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, ²⁷ for as many [of you] as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

²⁹ And if you [are] Christs, then you are descendants of Abraham, heirs according to the promise.

4¹ Now I say, for as long a time [as] the heir is a child, [he is] no different from a slave, [although he] is master of everything, ² but he is under guardians and managers until the time set by [his] father.

³ So also we, when we were children, we were enslaved under the elemental spirits of the world.

⁴ But when the fullness of time came, God sent out his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, ⁵ in order that he might redeem those under the law, in order that we might receive the adoption.

⁶ And because you are sons, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba! (Father!), ⁷so that you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.

⁸But at that time [when you] did not know God, you were enslaved to the things which by nature are not gods.

⁹But now, [because you] have come to know God, or rather have come to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental spirits? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again?

¹⁰You carefully observe days and months and seasons and years.

¹¹I am afraid [for] you, lest perhaps I have labored for you in vain!

¹²I ask you, brothers, become like me, because I also [have become] like you. You have done me no [wrong]!

¹³But you know that because of an illness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you the first time.

¹⁴And you did not despise or disdain [what was] a trial for you in my flesh, but you welcomed me like an angel of God, like Christ Jesus.

¹⁵So where [is] your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have torn out your eyes [and] given [them] to me!

¹⁶So then, have I become your enemy [by] being truthful to you?

¹⁷They zealously seek you, not commendably, but they want to exclude you, in order that you may seek them [zealously].

¹⁸But [it is] good to be sought zealously in good at all times, and not only when I am present with you.

¹⁹My children, for whom I am having birth pains again, until Christ is formed in you!

²⁰But I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone because I am perplexed about you.

²¹Tell me, [you] who are wanting to be under the law, do you not understand the law?

²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the female slave and one by the free woman.

²³But the one by the female slave was born according to human descent, and the one by the free woman through the promise,

²⁴ which [things] are spoken allegorically, for these [women] are two covenants, one from Mount Sinai, bearing [children] for slavery, who is Hagar.

²⁵ Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is a slave with her children.

²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother.

²⁷ For it is written, "Rejoice, O barren woman, who does not give birth to [children]; burst out and shout, [you] who do not have birth pains, because many [are] the children of the desolate [woman], even more than [those of] the one who has a husband."

²⁸ But you, brothers, are children of the promise, just as Isaac.

²⁹ But just as at that time the [child] born according to human descent persecuted the [child born] according to the Spirit, so also now.

³⁰ But what does the scripture say? "Drive out the female slave and her son, for the son of the female slave will never inherit with the son" of the free woman.

³¹ Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the female slave but of the free woman.

5¹ For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.

² Look! I, Paul, tell you that if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing!

³ And again I testify to every man who becomes circumcised, that he is under obligation to keep the whole law.

⁴ You are estranged from Christ, [you] who are attempting to be justified by the law; you have fallen from grace.

⁵ For through the Spirit by faith we eagerly await the hope of righteousness.

⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.

⁷ You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth?

⁸ This persuasion [is] not from the one who calls you!

⁹ A little leaven leavens the whole batch of dough.

¹⁰ I have confidence in you in the Lord that you will think nothing different, but the one who is confusing you _will pay the penalty_ , whoever he may be.

¹¹ Now, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been abolished.

¹² I wish that the ones who are disturbing you would also _castrate themselves_ !

¹³ For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not let your freedom [become] an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

¹⁴ For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

¹⁵ But if you bite and devour one another, watch out [that] you are not consumed by one another.

¹⁶ But I say, live by the Spirit, and you will never carry out the desire of the flesh.

¹⁷ For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh, for these are in opposition to one another, so that whatever you want, you may not do these [things].

¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

¹⁹ Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are sexual immorality, impurity, licentiousness,

²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, factions,

²¹ envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, [things] which I am telling you [in advance], just as I said before, that the ones who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, self control. Against such things [there] is no law.

²⁴ Now those _who belong to Christ Jesus_ have crucified the flesh together with its feelings and its desires.

²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, we must also follow the Spirit.

²⁶ We must not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

6¹ Brothers, even if a person is caught in some trespass, you [who are] spiritual restore such a person in a spirit of humility, looking out for yourself, lest you also be tempted.

² Carry the burdens of one another, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

³ For if anyone thinks he is something [although he] is nothing, he is deceiving himself.

⁴ But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have a reason for boasting in himself alone, and not in someone else.

⁵ For each one will carry his own burden.

⁶ Now the one who is taught the word must share in all good [things] with the one who teaches.

⁷ Do not be deceived: God is not to be mocked, for whatever a person sows, this he will also reap, ⁸ because the one who sows to his own flesh will reap corruption from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

⁹ And let us not grow weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, [if we] do not give up.

¹⁰ So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all [people], and especially to those who belong to the household of faith.

¹¹ See with what large letters I am writing to you with my [own] hand.

¹² As many as are wanting to make a good showing in the flesh, these are attempting to compel you to be circumcised, only so that they will not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

¹³ For not even those who are circumcised observe the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised in order that they may boast in your flesh.

¹⁴ But [as] for me, may it never be [that I] boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

¹⁵ For neither is circumcision anything nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

¹⁶ And all those who follow this rule, peace and mercy [be] on them and on the Israel of God.

¹⁷ Finally, let no one cause me trouble, for I carry on my body the marks of Jesus.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ
[be] with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints who are in Ephesus and faithful in Christ Jesus:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly [places] in Christ,

⁴ just as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, [that] we should be holy and blameless before him in love,

⁵ having predestined us to adoption through Jesus Christ to himself according to the good pleasure of his will,

⁶ to the praise of the glory of his grace that he bestowed on us in the beloved,

⁷ in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace,

⁸ that he caused to abound to us in all wisdom and insight,

⁹making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he purposed in him,

¹⁰for the administration of the fullness of times, to bring together all things in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, in him

¹¹in whom also we were chosen, having been predestined according to the purpose of the One who works all [things] according to the counsel of his will,

¹²[that] we who hoped beforehand in Christ should be for the praise of his glory,

¹³in whom also you, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, in whom also when you believed you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴who is the down payment of our inheritance, until the redemption of the possession, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵Because of this I also, hearing of _your faith_ in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,

¹⁶do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention in my prayers,

¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, _the glorious Father_ , may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him

¹⁸ (the eyes of your hearts having been enlightened), so that you may know what is the hope of his calling, what [are] the riches of the glory of his inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹ and what [is] the surpassing greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty strength

²⁰ which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating [him] at his right hand in the heavenly [places],

²¹ above all rule and authority and power and lordship and every name named, not only in this age but also in the coming one,

²² and he subjected all [things] under his feet and gave him [as] head over all [things] to the church, ²³ which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all [things] in every [way].

2¹ And you, _although you were dead_ in your trespasses and sins,

²in which you formerly walked according to the course of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, the spirit now working in the sons of disobedience, ³among whom also we all formerly lived in the desires of our flesh, doing the will of the flesh and of the mind, and we were children of wrath by nature, as also the rest of [them] were.

⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of his great love [with] which he loved us,

⁵and we being dead in trespasses, he made [us] alive together with Christ (by grace you are saved),

⁶and raised [us] together and seated [us] together in the heavenly [places] in Christ Jesus, ⁷in order that he might show in the coming ages the surpassing riches of his grace in kindness upon us in Christ Jesus.

⁸For by grace you are saved through faith, and this [is] not from yourselves, [it is] the gift of God;

⁹[it is] not from works, so that no one can boast.

¹⁰For we are his creation, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, so that we may walk in them.

¹¹Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in [the] flesh, the so-called uncircumcision by the so-called circumcision in [the] flesh, made by hands, ¹²that you were at that time apart from Christ, alienated from the citizenship of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, not having hope, and without God in the world.

¹³But now in Christ Jesus you, the ones who once were far away, have become near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴For he himself is our peace, who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of the partition, the enmity, in his flesh, ¹⁵invalidating the law of commandments in ordinances, in order that he might create the two in himself into one new man, [thus] making peace, ¹⁶and might reconcile both in one body to God through the cross, killing the enmity in himself.

¹⁷And coming, he proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and peace to the ones who were near,

¹⁸because through him [we] both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

¹⁹Consequently, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens of the saints and members of the household of God,

²⁰built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone,

²¹in whom the whole building, joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, ²²in whom you also are built up together into a dwelling place of God in [the] Spirit.

3¹On account of this I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles

²if indeed you have heard [about] the stewardship of Gods grace given to me for you,

³ that according to revelation the mystery was made known to me, just as I wrote beforehand in brief,

⁴ so that you may be able when you read to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ

⁵ (which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit):

⁶ [that] the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow sharers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, ⁷ of which I became a servant, according to the gift of Gods grace given to me, according to the working of his power.

⁸ To me, the least of all the saints, was given this grace: to proclaim the good news of the fathomless riches of Christ to the Gentiles,

⁹ and to enlighten everyone [as to] what [is] the administration of the mystery hidden from the ages by God, who created all [things],

¹⁰ in order that the many-sided wisdom of God might be made known now to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly [places] through the church,

¹¹ according to the purpose of the ages which he carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹² in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through faith in him.

¹³ Therefore I ask [you] not to be discouraged at my afflictions on behalf of you, which are your glory.

¹⁴ On account of this, I bend my knees before the Father,

¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,

¹⁶ that he may grant you according to the riches of his glory to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner person,

¹⁷ [that] Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith (you having been firmly rooted and established in love),

¹⁸ in order that you may be strong enough to grasp together with all the saints what [is] the breadth, and length, and height, and depth,

¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God.

²⁰Now to the one who is able to do beyond all measure more than all that we ask or think, according to the power that is at work in us,

²¹to him [be] the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4¹Therefore I, the prisoner in the Lord, exhort you to live in a manner worthy of the calling with which you were called:

²with all humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, ³being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace;

⁴one body and one Spirit (just as also you were called with one hope of your calling),

⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

⁶one God and Father of all, who [is] over all, and through all, and in all.

⁷Now to each one of us was given this grace, according to the measure of Christs gift.

⁸Therefore it says, "Ascending on high he led captivity captive; he gave gifts to men."

⁹Now "he ascended," what is [it], except that he also descended to the lower regions of the earth?

¹⁰The one who descended himself is also the one who ascended above all the heavens, in order that he might fill all [things].

¹¹And he himself gave some [as] apostles and some [as] prophets and some [as] evangelists and some [as] pastors and teachers

¹²for the equipping of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for building up the body of Christ,

¹³until we all reach the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to a measure of the maturity of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be infants, tossed about by waves and carried about by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of people, by craftiness with reference to the scheming of deceit.

¹⁵ But speaking the truth in love, we are to grow into him [with reference to] all [things], who is the head, Christ,

¹⁷ This therefore I say and testify in the Lord, [that] you no longer walk as the Gentiles walk: in the futility of their mind,

¹⁸ being darkened in understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance [that] is in them, because of the hardness of their heart,

¹⁹ who, becoming callous, gave themselves over to licentiousness, for the pursuit of all uncleanness in greediness.

²⁰ But you did not learn Christ in this way,

²¹ if indeed you have heard [about] him, and you were taught by him (just as truth is in Jesus),

²² [that] you take off, according to your former way of life, the old man, who is being destroyed according to deceitful desires,

²³ be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

²⁴ and put on the new man (in accordance with God), who is created in righteousness and holiness from the truth.

²⁵ Therefore, putting aside the lie, speak truth each one of you with his neighbor, because we are members of one another.

²⁶ Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun set on your anger, ²⁷ nor give place to the devil.

²⁸ The one who steals must steal no longer, but instead must labor, working with his own hands [what is] good, so that he may have [something] to share with the one who has need.

²⁹ _No rotten word must proceed_ from your mouth, but only something good for the building up of the need, in order that it may give grace to those who hear, ³⁰ and do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

³¹ All bitterness, and rage, and wrath, and clamor, and abusive speech, must be removed from you, together with all wickedness.

³² But become kind toward one another, compassionate, forgiving one another, just as also God in Christ has forgiven you.

5¹ Therefore become imitators of God, as beloved children,

² and live in love, just as also Christ loved us, and gave himself for us an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant smell.

³ But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or greediness, must not even be named among you (as is fitting for saints), ⁴ and obscenity, and foolish talk, or coarse jesting (which [are] not proper), but rather thanksgiving.

⁵ For this you know _for certain_ , that every sexually immoral [person], or unclean [person], or greedy [person] (who is an idolater), does not have an inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these [things] the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience.

⁷Therefore do not be sharers with them,

⁸for you were formerly darkness, but now [you are] light in the Lord. Live like children of light

⁹(for the fruit of the light [is] in all goodness and righteousness and truth), ¹⁰trying to learn what is well-pleasing to the Lord.

¹¹And do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even expose [them].

¹²For it is shameful even to speak [about] the things being [done] by them in secret,

¹³but all [things] exposed by the light are made visible, ¹⁴for everything made visible is light. Therefore it says, Wake up, sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.

¹⁵Therefore, consider carefully how you live, not as unwise but as wise, ¹⁶making the most of the time because the days are evil.

¹⁷ Because of this do not become foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord [is].

¹⁸ And do not be drunk with wine (in which is dissipation), but be filled by the Spirit,

¹⁹ speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and singing praise in your heart to the Lord,

²⁰ giving thanks always for all [things] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to the God and Father,

²¹ being subject to one another _out of reverence for_ Christ

²² wives to their own husbands as to the Lord,

²³ because [the] husband is [the] head of the wife, as also Christ [is the] head of the church (he himself [being the] Savior of the body).

²⁴ But as the church is subject to Christ, thus also wives [should be subject] to their husbands in everything.

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for her;

²⁶in order that he might sanctify her by cleansing [her] with the washing of water by the word;

²⁷in order that he might present to himself the church glorious, not having a spot or wrinkle or any such [thing], but that she may be holy and blameless.

²⁸Thus also husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. The one who loves his own wife loves himself.

²⁹For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as also Christ [does] the church, ³⁰because we are members of his body.

³¹For this [reason] a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."

³²(This mystery is great, but I am speaking with reference to Christ and the church.)

³³Only you also, each one [of you], must thus love his own wife as himself, and the wife _must respect_ her husband.

6¹ Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

²Honor your father and mother"
(which is the first commandment with a promise),

³in order that it may be well with you, and you may _live a long time_ on the earth."

⁴And fathers, do not make your children angry, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

⁵Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart, as to Christ,

⁶not _while being watched_ , as people pleasers, but as slaves of Christ doing the will of God from the heart,

⁷serving with goodwill as to the Lord and not to people,

⁸knowing that each one of you, if he should do anything good, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free.

⁹And masters, do the same [things] to them, giving up threats, knowing that both their Lord and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

¹⁰Finally, become strong in the Lord and in the might of his strength.

¹¹ Put on the full armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the stratagems of the devil, ¹² because our struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual [forces] of wickedness in the heavenly [places].

¹³ Because of this, take up the full armor of God, in order that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand.

¹⁴ Stand therefore, girding your waist with truth, and putting on the breastplate of righteousness,

¹⁵ and binding [shoes] under your feet with the preparation of the good news of peace,

¹⁶ in everything taking up the shield of faith, with which you are able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one,

¹⁷ and receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God,

¹⁸ with all prayer and supplication praying at all times in the Spirit, and to this [end] being alert with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints,

¹⁹and for me, that a word may be given to me at the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,

²⁰for the sake of which I am an ambassador in chains, that _in them_ I may speak freely, as it is necessary for me to speak.

²¹Now, so that you also may know _my circumstances_ , what I am doing, Tychicus, my dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all [things], ²²whom I have sent to you for this very [reason], that you may know _our circumstances_ , and he may encourage your hearts.

²³Peace to the brothers and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴Grace [be] with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruptibility.

Philippians

1 ¹ Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ I give thanks to my God upon my every remembrance of you,

⁴ always in my every prayer for all of you, making the prayer with joy,

⁵ because of your participation in the gospel from the first day until now,

⁶ convinced of this same [thing], that the one who began a good work in you will finish [it] until the day of Christ Jesus,

⁷ just as it is right for me to think this about all of you, because I have you in my heart, [since] both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel all of you are sharers of grace with me.

⁸For God [is] my witness, that I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

⁹And this I pray: that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment,

¹⁰so that you may approve what is superior, in order that you may be sincere and blameless in the day of Christ, ¹¹having been filled [with the] fruit of righteousness which [comes] through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

¹²Now I want you to know, brothers, that _my circumstances_ have happened instead for the progress of the gospel,

¹³so that my imprisonment in Christ has become known in the whole praetorium and to all the rest, ¹⁴and most of the brothers, trusting in the Lord because of my imprisonment, dare [even] more to speak the word without fear.

¹⁵Some even because of envy and strife preach Christ, but some also because of good will.

¹⁶The latter [do so] from love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.

¹⁷The former proclaim Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction in my imprisonment.

¹⁸_What is the result?_ Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. But also I will rejoice, ¹⁹for I know that this will turn out to me for deliverance through your prayer and the support of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰according to my eager expectation and hope, that I will be put to shame in nothing, but with all boldness, even now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether through life or through death.

²¹For to me to live [is] Christ and to die [is] gain.

²²But if [it is] to live in the flesh, this [is] fruitful work for me, and which I will prefer [I do] not know.

²³But I am hard pressed _between the two options_ , having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, _for this is very much better_ .

²⁴ But to stay on in the flesh [is] more necessary for your sake.

²⁵ And because I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶ so that [what] you can be proud of may increase in Christ Jesus because of me through my return again to you.

²⁷ Only lead your lives in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent I hear _your circumstances_ , that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one soul contending side by side for the faith of the gospel,

²⁸ and not letting yourselves be intimidated in anything by your opponents, which is a sign of destruction to them, but of your salvation, and this from God,

²⁹ because to you has been graciously granted on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on behalf of him, ³⁰having the same struggle which you saw in me and now hear about in me.

2¹Therefore, if [there is] any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, ²complete my joy, so that _you are in agreement_ , having the same love, united in spirit, _having one purpose_ .

³[Do] nothing according to selfish ambition or according to empty conceit, but in humility considering one another better than yourselves, ⁴each one of you not looking out for _his own interests_ , but also each of you [looking out for] _the interests_ of others.

⁵Think this in yourselves which [was] also in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God something to be grasped,

⁷but emptied himself [by] taking the form of a slave, [by] becoming in the likeness of people. And being found in appearance like a man, ⁸he humbled himself [by] becoming obedient to the point of death, that is, death on a cross.

⁹Therefore also God exalted him and graciously granted him the name above every name,

¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of [those] in heaven and of [those] on earth and of [those] under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ [is] Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²Therefore my dear friends, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

¹³For the one at work in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure, is God.

¹⁴Do all [things] without grumbling and disputing,

¹⁵in order that you may become blameless and innocent, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as stars in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, for a source of pride to me in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

¹⁷But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice with all of you.

¹⁸And [in] the same [way] also you rejoice and rejoice with me.

¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I also may be encouraged [when I] know _your circumstances_ .

²⁰For I have no one like-minded who [will] sincerely be concerned about _your circumstances_ .

²¹For they all seek _their own interests_ , not those of Jesus Christ.

²²But you know his proven character, that like a child with a father he served with me for the gospel.

²³Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see _my circumstances_ .

²⁴And I am convinced in the Lord that I myself will arrive shortly also.

²⁵But I considered [it] necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, but your messenger and servant of my need, ²⁶because he was longing for all of you and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

²⁷For indeed he was sick, coming near to death, but God had mercy on him and not [on] him only, but also [on] me, so that I would not have grief upon grief.

²⁸Therefore I am sending him with special urgency, in order that [when] you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less anxious.

²⁹Therefore welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and consider such [people] highly honored, ³⁰because on account of the work of Christ he came near to the point of death, risking his life in order that _he might make up for your inability to serve me_.

3¹Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same [things] to you [is] not troublesome to me, but [is] a safeguard for you.

²Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation.

³For we are the circumcision, the ones who worship by the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and do not [put] confidence in the flesh,

⁴although I [could] have confidence even in the flesh. @ If anyone else thinks to put confidence in the flesh, I [can do so] more:

⁵_circumcised on the eighth day_
, from the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew [born] from Hebrews, according to the law a Pharisee, ⁶according to zeal persecuting the church, according to the righteousness in the law being blameless.

⁷But whatever [things] were gain to me, these [things] I have considered loss because of Christ.

⁸_More than that_ , [I] even consider all [things] to be loss because of the surpassing greatness of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for the sake of whom I have suffered the loss of all [things], and consider [them] dung, in order that I may gain Christ

⁹and may be found in him, not having my righteousness [which is] from the law, but [which is] through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God on the basis of faith, ¹⁰so that I may know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, ¹¹if somehow I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

¹²Not that I have already received [this], or [have] already been made perfect, but I press on if indeed I may lay hold of [that] for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus.

¹³Brothers, I do not consider myself to have laid hold of [it]. But [I do] one [thing], forgetting the things behind and straining toward the things ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵Therefore as many as [are] perfect, _let us hold this opinion_ , and if you think anything differently, God will reveal this also to you.

¹⁶Only to what we have attained, to the same hold on.

¹⁷ Become fellow imitators of me, brothers, and observe those who walk in this way, just as you have us [as] an example.

¹⁸ For many live, of whom I spoke about to you many times, but now speak about even weeping, [as] the enemies of the cross of Christ, ¹⁹ whose end [is] destruction, whose God [is] the stomach, and [whose] glory [is] in their shame, the ones who think on earthly things.

²⁰ For our commonwealth exists in heaven, from which also we eagerly await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who will transform our humble body [to be] conformed to his glorious body, in accordance with the power that enables him even to subject all [things] to himself.

4¹ So then, my beloved and greatly desired brothers, my joy and crown, thus stand firm in the Lord, dear friends.

² I appeal to Euodia and I appeal to Syntyche _to be in agreement_ in the Lord.

³ Yes, I ask also you, true yokefellow, help them, who struggled along with me in the gospel with both Clement and the rest of my fellow workers whose names [are] in the book of life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.

⁵Let your gentleness be made known to all people. The Lord [is] near.

⁶Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

⁷And the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever [things] are true, whatever [things are] honorable, whatever [things are] right, whatever [things are] pure, whatever [things are] pleasing, whatever [things are] commendable, if [there is] any excellence of character and if anything praiseworthy, think about these [things].

⁹And [the things] which you have learned and received and heard about and seen in me, practice these [things], and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last _you have renewed your concern for me_ , for whom also you were thinking, but you had no opportunity [to express it].

¹¹Not that I speak from need, for I have learned to be content in whatever [circumstances] I am.

¹²I know [how] both _to make do with little_ and I know [how] _to have an abundance_. In everything and in all [things] I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both _to have an abundance_ and to go without.

¹³I am able [to do] all [things] by the one who strengthens me.

¹⁴Nevertheless you have done well by sharing with me in my affliction.

¹⁵Now you also know, Philippians, that at the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone, ¹⁶because even in Thessalonica _on more than one occasion_ you sent for my need.

¹⁷Not that I seek the gift, but I seek for the profit that increases to your account.

¹⁸But I have received everything [in full] and have an abundance; _I am well supplied_ [because] I received from Epaphroditus _what you had sent_ , a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.

¹⁹And my God will fulfill your every need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

²⁰Now to our God and Father [be] the glory _forever and ever_ . Amen.

²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me greet you.

²²All the saints greet you, and especially those of Caesars household.

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit.

Colossians

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ² to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colossae. Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

³ We give thanks always to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ [when we] pray for you,

⁴ [since we] heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints,

⁵ because of the hope reserved for you in heaven, which you have heard about beforehand in the word of truth, the gospel,

⁶ that has come to you, just as also in all the world it is bearing fruit and increasing, just as also among you from the day you heard about and understood the grace of God in truth,

⁷ just as you learned [it] from Epaphras, our dear fellow slave who is a faithful minister of Christ [on] your behalf,

⁸[who] also made clear to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹Because of this also we, from the day we heard about [it], did not cease praying for you, and asking that you may be filled [with] the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual insight,

¹⁰so that you may live in a manner worthy of the Lord, _to please [him] in all respects_ , bearing fruit in every good deed and increasing in the knowledge of God,

¹¹enabled with all power, according to his glorious might, for all steadfastness and patience with joy,

¹²giving thanks to the Father who has qualified you for a share of the inheritance of the saints in light,

¹³who has rescued us from the domain of darkness and transferred [us] to the kingdom of the Son _he loves_ ,

¹⁴in whom we have the redemption, the forgiveness of sins,

¹⁵who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation, ¹⁶because all [things] in the heavens and on the earth were created by him, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers, all [things] were created through him and for him, ¹⁷and he himself is before all [things], and in him all [things] are held together,

¹⁸and he himself is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he himself may become first in everything,

¹⁹because he was well pleased [for] all the fullness to dwell in him, ²⁰and through him to reconcile all [things] to himself, [by] making peace through the blood of his cross, through him, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

²¹And _although you were formerly alienated_ and enemies in attitude, because of your evil deeds,

²²but now he has reconciled [you] by _his physical body_ through death, to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him,

²³if indeed you remain in the faith, established and steadfast and not shifted away from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings on behalf of you, and I fill up in my flesh what is lacking of the afflictions of Christ, on behalf of his body which is the church,

²⁵ of which I became a minister, according to Gods stewardship which was given to me for you, to complete the word of God,

²⁶ the mystery [which] has been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but has now been revealed to his saints,

²⁷ to whom God wanted to make known what [is] the glorious wealth of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory,

²⁸ whom we proclaim, [by] admonishing every person and teaching every person with all wisdom, in order that we may present every person mature in Christ,

²⁹ for which [purpose] also I labor, striving according to his working which is at work powerfully in me.

2¹ For I want you to know how great a struggle I have on behalf of you, and those in Laodicea, and all those who have not seen my face _in person_ ,

²so that their hearts may be encouraged, united in love and into all the wealth of the full assurance of insight into the knowledge of the mystery of God, Christ, ³in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

⁴I say this in order that no one will deceive you with persuasive speech, ⁵for even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your good order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

⁶Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, live in him, ⁷firmly rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding with thankfulness.

⁸Beware lest _anyone take you captive_ through philosophy and empty deceit, according to _human tradition_ , according to the elemental spirits of the world and not according to Christ,

⁹because in him all the fullness of deity dwells bodily,

¹⁰and you are filled in him, who is the head over every ruler and authority,

¹¹ in whom also you were circumcised with a circumcision not made by hands, by the removal of the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,

¹² having been buried with him in baptism, in which also you were raised together with [him] through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

¹³ And _although you were dead_ in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, ¹⁴ having destroyed the certificate of indebtedness in ordinances against us, which was hostile to us, and removed it out of the way [by] nailing it to the cross.

¹⁵ [When he] had disarmed the rulers and the authorities, he made a display of [them] in public, triumphing over them by it.

¹⁶ Therefore do not let anyone judge you with reference to eating and drinking or participation in a feast or a new moon or a sabbath,

¹⁷ which are a shadow of what is to come, but the reality [is] Christ.

¹⁸ Let no one condemn you, taking pleasure in humility and the worship of angels, going into detail [about] [the things] which he has seen, inflated without cause by his fleshly mind,

¹⁹ and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by the ligaments and sinews, grows with the growth of God.

²⁰ If you have died with Christ to the elemental spirits of the world, why do you submit [to them] as [if] living in the world?

²¹ Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch,

²² which [things] are all [meant] for destruction by consuming according to human commandments and teachings, ²³ which [things] _although they have_, to be sure, an appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and humility and unsparing treatment of the body, _do not have any value_ against the indulgence of the flesh.

3¹ Therefore, if you have been raised together with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

²Set your mind on the things above, not [on] the things on earth.

³For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

⁴When Christ, [who is] your life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

⁵Therefore put to death _what is earthly in you_ : sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustful passion, evil desire, and greediness, which is idolatry,

⁶because of which the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, ⁷in which also you once lived, when you used to live in them.

⁸But now you also lay aside all [these] things: anger, rage, wickedness, slander, abusive language from your mouth.

⁹Do not lie to one another, [because you] have taken off the old man together with his deeds,

¹⁰and have put on the new [man] that is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the one who created him,

¹¹ where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, [or] free, but Christ [is] all, and in all.

¹² Therefore, as [the] chosen of God, holy and [dearly] loved, put on affection, compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, ¹³ putting up with one another and forgiving one another. If anyone should have a complaint against anyone, just as also the Lord forgave you, thus also you [do the same].

¹⁴ And to all these [things] [add] love, which is [the] bond of perfection.

¹⁵ And the peace of Christ must rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and be thankful.

¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another with all wisdom, with psalms, hymns, [and] spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God, ¹⁷ and everything _whatever_ you do in word or in deed, giving thanks [for] all [things] in the name of the Lord Jesus to God the Father through him.

¹⁸Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

¹⁹Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing in the Lord.

²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they will not become discouraged.

²²Slaves, obey your _human_ masters in everything, not _while being watched_ , as people pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

²³Whatever you do, accomplish [it] from the soul, as to the Lord, and not to people, ²⁴[because you] know that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. Serve the Lord Christ.

²⁵For the one who does wrong will receive back whatever wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.

4¹Masters, grant your slaves justice and fairness, knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

²Be devoted to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving,

³praying at the same time for us also, that God may open for us a door of the message, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which also _I am a prisoner_ , ⁴so that I may reveal it, as it is necessary for me to speak.

⁵Live with wisdom toward those outside, making the most of the time.

⁶Let your speech always [be] with grace, seasoned with salt, so that [you] may know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

⁷Tychicus, my dear brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord, will make known to you all _my circumstances_ ,

⁸whom I have sent to you for this very [reason], in order that you may know _our circumstances_ and he may encourage your hearts, ⁹together with Onesimus, my faithful and dear brother, who is [one] of you. They will make known to you all _the circumstances_ here.

¹⁰Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions if he should come to you, welcome him),

¹¹ and Jesus who is called Justus. These [are] the only ones who are fellow workers for the kingdom of God from the circumcision, who have been a comfort to me.

¹² Epaphras, who is [one] of you, greets you, a slave of Christ Jesus always struggling on behalf of you in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.

¹³ For I testify to him that _he is working hard_ on behalf of you and those in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis.

¹⁴ Luke the physician, our dear friend, greets you, [as does] Demas.

¹⁵ Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nympha and the church in her house.

¹⁶ And whenever this letter is read among you, _see to it_ that it is read also among the Laodicean church, and that you also read the [letter] from Laodicea.

¹⁷ And tell Archippus, "Direct your attention to the ministry that you received in the Lord, in order that you may complete it."

¹⁸The greeting [is] by my hand, Pauls.
Remember my _imprisonment_ . Grace
[be] with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 ¹ Paul and Silvanus and Timothy,
to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace.

² We give thanks to God always concerning all of you, making mention constantly in our prayers,

³ [because we] remember your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father,

⁴ knowing, brothers [dearly] loved by God, _that he has chosen you_ ,

⁵ because our gospel did not come to you with word only, but also with power and with the Holy Spirit and with much certainty, just as you know what sort of [people] we became among you for your sake.

⁶ And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit,

⁷so that you became an example to all those who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia, ⁸for from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything.

⁹For [they] themselves report about us, what sort of welcome we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve [the] living and true God, ¹⁰and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, the one who delivers us from the coming wrath.

2¹For [you] yourselves know, brothers, our reception with you, that it was not in vain, ²but [after we] had already suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, just as you know, we had the courage in our God to speak to you the gospel of God amid much opposition.

³For our exhortation [is] not from error or from impurity or with deceit, ⁴but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, thus we speak, not as pleasing people but God, who examines our hearts.

⁵ _For never_ did we come with a word of flattery, just as you know, nor with a pretext of greediness (God [is] witness),

⁶ nor seeking glory from people, neither from you nor from others.

⁷ _Although we could have insisted on our own importance_ as apostles of Christ, yet we became infants in your midst, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

⁸ Longing for you in this way, we determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own souls, because you had become dear to us.

⁹ For you remember, brothers, our labor and hardship: working by night and day in order not to be a burden to any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

¹⁰ You [are] witnesses, and [so is] God, how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we became to you who believe,

¹¹ just as you know how [we treated] each one of you, like a father his own children, ¹²exhorting and consoling you and insisting that you live in a manner worthy of God, who calls you to his own kingdom and glory.

¹³And because of this we also give thanks to God constantly, that [when you] received Gods word _that you heard_ from us, you accepted [it] not [as the] word of men, but as [it] truly is, [the] word of God, which also is at work in you who believe.

¹⁴For you became imitators, brothers, of the churches of God [which] are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because you also suffered the same [things] at the hands of your own people, just as [they] themselves [did] also at the hands of the Jews,

¹⁵who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and who persecuted us, and [who are] not pleasing to God and [are] opposed to all people, ¹⁶hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles in order that they may be saved, so that [they] always fill up their sins. But wrath has come upon them to the end.

¹⁷ But [when] we were made orphans by separation from you, brothers, for _a short time_ (in face, not in heart), [we were] even more eager with great desire to see your face, ¹⁸ because we wanted to come to you, Paul, _on more than one occasion_ and Satan hindered us.

¹⁹ For who [is] our hope or joy or crown of boasting? [Is it] not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at his coming?

²⁰ For you are our glory and joy.

3¹ Therefore [when we] could bear [it] no longer, we determined to be left behind in Athens alone,

² and we sent Timothy, our brother and fellow worker for God in the gospel of Christ, in order to strengthen and to encourage you about your faith,

³ [so that] no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For [you] yourselves know that we are appointed for this,

⁴ for indeed when we were with you we told you beforehand that we were about to be afflicted, just as indeed it happened, and you know.

⁵Because of this, I also, [when I] could endure [it] no longer, sent in order to know your faith, lest somehow the tempter tempted you and our labor should be in vain.

⁶But now, [because] Timothy has come to us from you and has brought good news to us of your faith and love, and that _you always think kindly of us_ , desiring to see us just as also we [desire to see] you,

⁷because of this, brothers, we have been comforted because of you in all our distress and affliction through your faith, ⁸because now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord.

⁹For what thanks can we repay to God concerning you, because of all the joy [with] which we rejoice because of you before our God, ¹⁰night and day praying beyond all measure that [we] may see your face and complete what is lacking in your faith?

¹¹Now [may] our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you,

¹²and [may] the Lord [cause] you to increase and to abound in love for one another and for all, just as also we [do] for you, ¹³so that your hearts may be established blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen.

4¹ Finally therefore, brothers, we ask you and appeal to [you] in the Lord Jesus that, just as you have received from us how it is necessary for you to live and to please God, just as indeed you are living, that you progress even more.

²For you know what commands we gave to you through the Lord Jesus.

³For this is the will of God, your sanctification: [that] you abstain from sexual immorality;

⁴[that] each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

⁵not in lustful passion, just as also the Gentiles who do not know God;

⁶not to transgress and to exploit his brother in the matter, because the Lord [is] the one who avenges concerning all these [things], just as also we told you beforehand and testified solemnly.

⁷For God did not call us to impurity, but in holiness.

⁸Therefore the one who rejects [this] [is] not rejecting man, but God, [who] also gives his Holy Spirit to you.

⁹But concerning brotherly love, I do not have need to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another,

¹⁰for indeed you are practicing it toward all the brothers in all of Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers, to progress even more,

¹¹and to aspire to live a quiet life, and to attend to _your own business_, and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you,

¹²so that you may live decently toward those outside, and may have need of nothing.

¹³Now we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you will not grieve as also the rest, who have no hope.

¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose [again], thus also God will bring those who have fallen asleep through Jesus together with him.

¹⁵For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who remain until the Lords coming, will not possibly precede those who have fallen asleep.

¹⁶For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

¹⁷Then we who are alive, who remain, will be snatched away at the same time together with them in the clouds for a meeting with the Lord in the air, and thus we will be together with the Lord always.

¹⁸Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5¹Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need [of anything] to be written to you,

²for [you] yourselves well know that the day of the Lord is coming in the [same] way as a thief in the night.

³Whenever they say "Peace and security," then sudden destruction will overtake them like the birth pains of _a pregnant woman_ , and they will not possibly escape.

⁴But you, brothers, are not in the darkness, so that the day should catch you like a thief, ⁵for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.

⁶So then, we must not sleep like the rest, but must be on the alert and be self-controlled.

⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night.

⁸But [because] we are of the day, we must be sober, [by] putting on the breastplate of faith and love and [as] a helmet the hope of salvation,

⁹because God did not appoint us for wrath, but for the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we will live at the same time with him.

¹¹ Therefore encourage one another and build up each other , just as indeed you are doing.

¹² Now we ask you, brothers, to respect those who labor among you and rule over you in the Lord and admonish you, ¹³ and to esteem them beyond all measure in love, because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

¹⁴ And we urge you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, console the discouraged, help the sick, be patient toward all [people].

¹⁵ See to it that no one pays back evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue good, both toward one another and toward all [people].

¹⁶ Rejoice always,

¹⁷ pray constantly,

¹⁸ give thanks in everything; for this [is] the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

¹⁹ Do not quench the Spirit.

²⁰ Do not despise prophecies,

²¹ but examine all [things]; hold fast to [what is] good.

²² Abstain from every form of evil.

²³ Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your spirit and soul and body be kept complete, blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴ The one who calls you [is] faithful, who also will do [this].

²⁵ Brothers, pray for us also.

²⁶ Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

²⁷ I adjure you by the Lord, have this letter read aloud to all the brothers.

²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you.

2 Thessalonians

1 ¹ Paul and Silvanus and Timothy,
to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ We ought to give thanks to God always concerning you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is flourishing and the love of each one of you all toward one another is increasing

⁴ so that we ourselves boast in you in the churches of God about your patient endurance and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring,

⁵ a proof of the righteous judgment of God, so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, on behalf of which also you are suffering,

⁶ since [it is] righteous in the sight of God to pay back those who are afflicting
you with affliction,

⁷ and to you who are being afflicted, rest with us at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his powerful angels,

⁸ with flaming fire giving punishment to those who do not know God and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus,

⁹ who will pay the penalty [of] eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his strength,

¹⁰ whenever he should come to be glorified on that day by his saints and to be marveled at by all who believe, because our testimony was believed among you,

¹¹ for which [purpose] we also pray always for you, that you may be considered worthy of the calling of our God, and he might fulfill every desire for goodness and work of faith with power,

¹² in order that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2¹ Now we ask you, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling to him,

² that you not be easily shaken from your composure, nor be troubled either by a spirit or by a message or by a letter _alleged to be from us_ , to the effect that the day of the Lord has arrived.

³ Do not let anyone deceive you in any way, for [that day will not come] unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction,

⁴ who opposes and who exalts himself over every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits down in the temple of God, proclaiming that he himself is God.

⁵ Do you not remember that [while] we were still with you, we were saying these [things] to you?

⁶ And you know that which restrains [him] now, so that he will be revealed in his own time.

⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is at work already; only the one who now restrains [will do so] until he is out of the way,

⁸ and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will slay with the breath of his mouth, and wipe out by the appearance of his coming,

⁹whose coming is in accordance with the working of Satan, with all power and signs and lying wonders, ¹⁰and with every unrighteous deception against those who are perishing, in place of which they did not accept the love of the truth, so that they would be saved.

¹¹And because of this, God sends them _a powerful delusion_ so that they will believe the lie, ¹²in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth, but delighted in unrighteousness.

¹³But we ought to give thanks to God always concerning you, brothers [dearly] loved by the Lord, because God has chosen you [as] first fruits for salvation by the sanctification of the Spirit and faith in the truth, ¹⁴for which [purpose] also he called you through our gospel for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵So then, brothers, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions which you were taught, whether by [spoken] word or by letter from us.

¹⁶Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given [us] eternal encouragement and good hope by grace, ¹⁷encourage your hearts and strengthen [you] in every good work and word.

3¹ Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may progress and be honored, just as also [it was] with you, ²and that we may be delivered from evil and wicked people, _for not all have the faith_ .

³But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen you and guard [you] from the evil one.

⁴And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are both doing and you will do [the things] that we are commanding.

⁵Now may the Lord direct your hearts toward the love of God and toward the patient endurance of Christ.

⁶But we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [that] you keep away from every brother who lives irresponsibly and not according to the tradition that they received from us.

⁷For you yourselves know how it is necessary to imitate us, that we did not behave irresponsibly among you,

⁸nor did we eat bread from anyone without paying, but with toil and labor, [we were] working night and day in order not to be a burden to any of you,

⁹not that we do not have the right, but so that we may give ourselves [as] an example to you, so that [you] may imitate us.

¹⁰For even when we were with you, we used to command this to you: that if anyone does not want to work, neither should he eat.

¹¹For we hear [that] some among you are living irresponsibly, working [at] nothing, but being busybodies.

¹²Now we command and we exhort such people in the Lord Jesus Christ that, working with quietness, they eat their own bread.

¹³But [as for] you, brothers, do not be discouraged [while] doing what is right.

¹⁴But if anyone does not obey our message through this letter, take note not to associate with him, in order that he may be put to shame.

¹⁵And do not consider [him] as an enemy, but admonish [him] as a brother.

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself grant you peace through everything in every way. [May] the Lord [be] with all of you.

¹⁷The greeting [is] by my hand, Pauls, which is _a sign of genuineness_ in every letter: _this is how I write_ .

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with all of you.

1 Timothy

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope, ² to Timothy, [my] true child in the faith. Grace, mercy, [and] peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³ Just as I urged you [when I] traveled to Macedonia, remain in Ephesus, so that you may instruct certain people not to teach other doctrine, ⁴ and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause useless speculations rather than Gods plan [that is] by faith.

⁵ But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a faith without hypocrisy,

⁶ from which some have deviated, [and] have turned away into fruitless discussion,

⁷ wanting to be teachers of the law, [although they] do not understand either [the things] which they are saying or

[the things] concerning which they are speaking confidently.

⁸But we know that the law [is] good, if anyone makes use of it lawfully,

⁹knowing this, that the law [is] not given for a righteous [person] but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and totally worldly, for the one who kills his father and the one who kills his mother, for murderers,

¹⁰sexually immoral people, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and _whatever_ else is opposed to sound teaching, ¹¹according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God that I was entrusted with.

¹²_I give thanks_ to the one who strengthens me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me faithful, placing [me] into ministry,

¹³[although I] was formerly a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, but I was shown mercy because I acted ignorantly in unbelief, ¹⁴and the grace of our Lord abounded with the faith and love [that are] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵The saying [is] trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost.

¹⁶But because of this I was shown mercy, in order that in me foremost, Christ Jesus might demonstrate his total patience, for an example for those who are going to believe in him for eternal life.

¹⁷Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, to the only God, [be] honor and glory _forever and ever_ . Amen.

¹⁸I am setting before you this instruction, Timothy [my] child, in accordance with the prophecies spoken long ago about you, in order that by them you may fight the good fight,

¹⁹having faith and a good conscience, which some, [because they] have rejected [these], have suffered shipwreck concerning their faith,

²⁰among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, in order that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

2¹ Therefore, I urge first of all [that] petitions, prayers, requests, [and] thanksgiving be made on behalf of all people,

² on behalf of kings and all those who are in authority, in order that we may live a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

³ This [is] good and acceptable before God our Savior,

⁴ who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.

⁵ For [there is] one God and one mediator between God and human beings, the man Christ Jesus,

⁶ who gave himself a ransom for all, the testimony at the proper time,

⁷ for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle I am speaking the truth, [I am] not lying a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸ Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and dispute.

⁹ Likewise also the women should adorn themselves in appropriate clothing, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold jewelry or pearls or expensive clothing, ¹⁰but with good deeds which are fitting for women who profess godliness.

¹¹A woman must learn in quietness with all submission.

¹²But I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but _to remain quiet_ .

¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve,

¹⁴and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, [because she] was deceived, came into transgression.

¹⁵But she will be saved through the bearing of children, if she continues in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

3¹The saying [is] trustworthy: if anyone aspires to supervision, he desires a good work.

²Therefore the overseer must be irreproachable, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, skillful in teaching,

³not addicted to wine, not a violent person, but gentle, peaceable, not loving money,

⁴ managing his own household well, having children in submission with all dignity

⁵ (but if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?),

⁶ not newly converted, lest he become conceited [and] fall into the condemnation of the devil.

⁷ But [he] must also have a good testimony from those outside, in order that he may not fall into disgrace and the trap of the devil.

⁸ Deacons likewise [must be] dignified, not insincere, not devoted to much wine,
not fond of dishonest gain,

⁹ holding the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience,

¹⁰ and these also must be tested first;
then let them serve [if they] are above reproach.

¹¹ The wives likewise [must be] dignified, not slanderous, temperate, faithful in all [things].

¹² Deacons must be husbands of one wife, managing [their] children and their own households well.

¹³For those who have served well acquire a good standing for themselves, and great boldness in the faith [that is] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴I am writing these [things] to you, hoping to come to you in a short time.

¹⁵But if I am delayed, [I am writing] in order that you may know how one must conduct oneself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and mainstay of the truth.

¹⁶And most certainly, great is the mystery of godliness: Who was revealed in the flesh, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among the Gentiles , was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

4¹ Now the Spirit explicitly says that in the last times some will depart from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons,

²by the hypocrisy of liars, who are seared in their own conscience,

³who forbid marrying [and insist on] abstaining from foods that God created for sharing in with thankfulness by those who believe and who know the truth,

⁴because everything created by God [is] good and nothing [is to be] rejected [if it is] received with thankfulness, ⁵for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer.

⁶[By] teaching these [things] to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, trained in the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed faithfully.

⁷But reject those _worthless myths told by elderly women_, and train yourself for godliness.

⁸For the training of the body is _somewhat_ profitable, but godliness is profitable for everything, [because it] holds promise for the present life and for the [life] to come.

⁹The statement [is] trustworthy and deserving of complete acceptance.

¹⁰For to this [end] we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in [the] living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of believers.

¹¹Command these [things] and teach [them].

¹²Let no one look down on your youth, but be an example for the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.

¹³Until I come, pay attention to the [public] reading, to exhortation, to teaching.

¹⁴Do not neglect the gift [that is] in you, that was granted to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.

¹⁵Practice these [things]. Be [diligent] in these [things], in order that your progress may be evident to everyone.

¹⁶Fix [your] attention on yourself and on your teaching. Continue in them, for [by] doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5¹Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to [him] as a father, younger men as brothers, ²older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

³Honor widows [who are] truly widows.

⁴But if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must learn to show profound respect for their own household first, and to pay back recompense to their parents, for this is pleasing in the sight of God.

⁵ But the widow [who is one] truly, and is left alone, has put her hope in God and continues in her petitions and prayers night and day.

⁶ But the one who lives for sensual pleasure is dead [even though she] lives.

⁷ And command these [things], in order that they may be irreproachable.

⁸ But if someone does not provide for his own [relatives], and especially the members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ Let a widow be put on the list [if she] is not less than sixty years [old], the wife of one husband, ¹⁰ being well-attested by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has helped those who are oppressed, if she has devoted herself to every good work.

¹¹ But refuse younger widows, for whenever their physical desires lead them away from Christ, they want to marry, ¹²[thus] incurring condemnation because they have broken their former pledge.

¹³And at the same time also, going around from house to house, they learn [to be] idle, and not only idle, but also gossipy and busybodies, saying the things [that are] not necessary.

¹⁴Therefore I want younger [widows] to marry, to bear children, to manage a household, to give the adversary no opportunity for reproach.

¹⁵For already some have turned away [and followed] after Satan.

¹⁶If any believing woman has widows, she must help them, and the church must not be burdened, in order that it may help those [who are] truly widows.

¹⁷The elders who lead well must be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor by speaking and teaching.

¹⁸For the scripture says, "You must not muzzle an ox [while it] is threshing," and "The worker [is] worthy of his wages."

¹⁹Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.

²⁰Reprove those who sin in the presence of all, in order that the rest also may experience fear.

²¹I testify solemnly before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels that you observe these [things] without prejudice, doing nothing according to partiality.

²²Lay hands on no one hastily, and do not participate in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

²³(No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach and your frequent illnesses.)

²⁴The sins of some people are evident, preceding [them] to judgment, but for some also they follow after [them].

²⁵Likewise also good works [are] evident, and those considered otherwise are not able to be hidden.

6¹ All those who are under the yoke as slaves must regard their own masters as worthy of all honor, lest the name of God and the teaching be slandered.

²And those who have believing masters must not look down on [them] because they are brothers, but rather they must serve, because those who benefit by their service are believers and dearly loved. @ Teach and encourage these [things].

³If anyone teaches other doctrine and does not devote himself to the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching [that is] in accordance with godliness,

⁴he is conceited, understanding nothing, but having a morbid interest concerning controversies and disputes about words, from which come envy, strife, slanders, evil suspicions, ⁵constant wrangling by people of depraved mind and deprived of the truth, who consider godliness to be a means of gain.

⁶But godliness with contentment is a great means of gain.

⁷For we have brought nothing into the world, so that neither can we bring anything out.

⁸But [if we] have food and clothing, with these [things] we will be content.

⁹But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires, which plunge those people into ruin and destruction.

¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all evil, by which some, [because they] desire [it], have gone astray from the faith and have pierced themselves with many pains.

¹¹But you, O man of God, flee from these [things], and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patient endurance, gentleness.

¹²Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

¹³I command you, in the sight of God who gives life to all [things] and Christ Jesus who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,

¹⁴[that] you observe the commandment without fault, irreproachable until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁵which he will make known in his own time, the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of those who reign as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords, ¹⁶the [one who] alone possesses immortality, who lives [in] unapproachable light, whom no human being has seen nor is able to see, to whom [be] honor and eternal power. Amen.

¹⁷Command those [who are] rich in this present age not to be proud and not to put their hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in God, who provides us all [things] richly for enjoyment,

¹⁸to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, sharing freely, ¹⁹storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, in order that they may take hold of [what is] truly life.

²⁰O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted [to you]. Turn away from pointless empty talk and contradictions of [what is] falsely called knowledge, ²¹which some, [by] professing [it], have deviated concerning the faith. Grace [be] with you [all].

2 Timothy

1 ¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life which [is] in Christ Jesus, ² to Timothy, [my] dear child. Grace, mercy, [and] peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³ _I am thankful_ to God, whom I have served with a clear conscience _as my ancestors did_ , when _I remember you constantly_ in my prayers night and day,

⁴ longing to see you [as I] remember your tears, so that I may be filled with joy,

⁵ _remembering the_ sincere faith in you, which lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced that [is] in you also,

⁶ for which reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands.

⁷For God has not given us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and love and self-discipline.

⁸Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor me his prisoner, but suffer along with [me] for the gospel, according to the power of God,

⁹who saved us and called [us] with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace that was given to us in Christ Jesus _before time began_ ,

¹⁰but has now been disclosed by the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who has abolished death and brought to light life and immortality through the gospel,

¹¹for which I was appointed a proclaimer and an apostle and a teacher, ¹²for which reason also I suffer these [things]. But [I am] not ashamed, because I know in whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard [what] I have entrusted until that day.

¹³ Hold fast to the pattern of sound words which you heard from me, in the faith and love [that are] in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

¹⁵ You know this, that all those in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶ May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he refreshed me many times, and was not ashamed of my imprisonment, ¹⁷ but [when he] was in Rome, he diligently sought me and found [me].

¹⁸ May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord in that day! And how much he served [me] in Ephesus you know very well.

2¹ You, therefore, my child, be strong in the grace [that is] in Christ Jesus, ² and [the things] which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these [things] to faithful people who will be competent to teach others also.

³ Suffer together with [me] as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

⁴No one who serves as a soldier is entangled in the activities of [everyday] life, so that he may please the one who enlisted [him].

⁵And also if anyone competes he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

⁶The farmer who works hard must [be] the first to receive a share of the crops.

⁷Consider what I am saying, for the Lord will grant you understanding in all [these things].

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David according to my gospel, ⁹in connection with which I suffer misfortune to the point of _imprisonment_ as a criminal, but the word of God is not bound.

¹⁰Because of this, I endure all [things] for the sake of the chosen, in order that they also may obtain salvation [which is] in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

¹¹The saying [is] trustworthy: For if we died with [him], we will also live with [him];

¹²if we endure, we will also reign with [him]; if we deny [him], he also will deny us;

¹³if we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, _because he cannot deny himself_ .

¹⁴Remind [people] of these [things], solemnly urging [them] before God not to dispute about words. [This is] in no way beneficial [and leads to] the ruin of the hearers.

¹⁵Make every effort to present yourself approved to God, a worker having no need to be ashamed, guiding the word of truth along a straight path.

¹⁶But avoid pointless chatter, for it will progress to greater ungodliness,

¹⁷and their message _will spread_ like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸who have deviated concerning the truth [by] saying the resurrection has already taken place, and they are upsetting the faith of some.

¹⁹However, the solid foundation of God stands firm, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his," and "Everyone who names the name of the Lord must abstain from unrighteousness.

²⁰Now in a great house [there] are not only gold and silver vessels, but also wooden and earthenware [ones], some of which [are] for honorable use, and some of which [are] for ordinary use.

²¹Therefore, if someone cleanses himself from these [things], he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²²But flee from youthful desires, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, [and] peace, in company with those who call upon the Lord from a pure heart.

²³But avoid foolish and uninformed controversies, [because you] know that they produce quarrels.

²⁴And the slave of the Lord must not quarrel, but be kind toward everyone, skillful in teaching, tolerant,

²⁵correcting those who are opposed with gentleness, [seeing] whether perhaps God may grant them repentance to a knowledge of the truth,

²⁶and they will come to their senses again [and escape] from the trap of the devil, being held captive by him to [do] his will.

3¹ But know this, that in the last days difficult times will come,

² for people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, arrogant, slanderers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

³ hardhearted, irreconcilable, slanderous, without self-control, savage, with no interest for what is good,

⁴ traitors, reckless, conceited, loving pleasure rather than loving God,

⁵ maintaining a form of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid these [people].

⁶ For from these are those who slip into houses and captivate foolish women loaded down with sins, led by various kinds of desires,

⁷ always learning and never able to come to a knowledge of the truth.

⁸ And _just as_ Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, people corrupted in mind, disqualified concerning the faith.

⁹ But they will not progress to a greater extent, for their folly will be quite evident to everyone, as also the [folly] of those [two] was.

¹⁰But you have faithfully followed my teaching, way of life, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, ¹¹persecutions, [and] sufferings that happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, [and] in Lystra, what sort of persecutions I endured, and the Lord delivered me from all [of them].

¹²And indeed, all those who want to live in a godly manner in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

¹³But evil people and imposters will progress to the worse, deceiving and being deceived.

¹⁴But you continue in [the things] which you have learned and are convinced [of], [because you] know from whom you learned [them], ¹⁵and that from childhood you have known the holy writings that are able [to make] you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

¹⁶All scripture [is] inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness, ¹⁷in order that the person of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

4¹I solemnly charge [you] before God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom, ²preach the word, be ready in season [and] out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and instruction.

³For there will be a time when they will not put up with sound teaching, but in accordance with their own desires, they will accumulate for themselves teachers, _because they have an insatiable curiosity_ ,

⁴and they will turn away from the hearing of the truth, but will turn to myths.

⁵But you, be self-controlled in all [things], bear hardship patiently, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

⁶For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is imminent.

⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have completed the race, I have kept the faith.

⁸ Finally, the crown of righteousness is reserved for me, that the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all who have loved his appearing.

⁹ Make haste to come to me quickly.

¹⁰ For Demas deserted me, [because he] loved the present age, and went to Thessalonica. Crescens [went] to Galatia; Titus [went] to Dalmatia.

¹¹ Luke alone is with me. Take along Mark [and] bring [him] with you, because he is useful to me for ministry.

¹² But I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

¹³ [When you] come, bring the cloak that I left behind in Troas with Carpus, and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

¹⁴ Alexander the metalworker did me much harm; may the Lord pay back to him according to his deeds, ¹⁵ against whom you also be on guard, because he vehemently opposed our words.

¹⁶At my first defense, no one came to my [aid], but [they] all deserted me; may it not be counted against them.

¹⁷But the Lord helped me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fulfilled and all the Gentiles might hear, and he rescued [me] from the lions mouth.

¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed, and will save [me] for his heavenly kingdom, to whom [be] the glory _forever and ever_ . Amen.

¹⁹Greet Prisca and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus.

²⁰Erastus remained in Corinth, but Trophimus I left behind in Miletus [because he] was sick.

²¹Make haste to come before winter. Eubulus and Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers greet you.

²²The Lord [be] with your spirit. Grace [be] with you.

Titus

1 ¹ Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of the chosen of God and the knowledge of the truth that [is] according to godliness,

² in the hope of eternal life which God, who does not lie, promised before eternal ages,

³ but at the proper time has disclosed his message in the proclamation [with] which I was entrusted according to the command of God our Savior,

⁴ to Titus, [my] true child according to a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

⁵ On account of this, I left you behind in Crete, in order that what remains may be set in order and you may appoint elders in every town, as I ordered you.

⁶ If anyone is blameless, [the] husband of one wife, having faithful children, not _accused of dissipation_ or rebellious.

⁷ For it is necessary [for] the overseer to be blameless as Gods steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain, ⁸but hospitable, loving what is good, prudent, just, devout, self-controlled, ⁹holding fast to the faithful message according to the teaching, in order that he may be able both to exhort with sound instruction and to reprove those who speak against [it].

¹⁰For there are many rebellious [people], idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, ¹¹whom it is necessary to silence, whoever are ruining whole families [by] teaching [things] which must not be [taught] for the sake of dishonest gain.

¹²A certain one of them, [one of] their own prophets, has said, "Cretans [are] always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.

¹³This testimony is true, for which reason reprove them severely, in order that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of people who turn away from the truth.

¹⁵To the pure all [things] [are] pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing [is] pure, but both their mind and conscience are defiled.

¹⁶They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny [him], [because they] are detestable and disobedient, and unfit for every good deed.

2¹ But you, speak [the things] which are fitting for sound instruction.

²Older men are to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, [and] in endurance.

³Older women likewise [are to be] reverent in [their] behavior, not slanderous, not enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good,

⁴in order that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands [and to] love their children,

⁵[to be] self-controlled, pure, busy at home, good, being subject to their own husbands, in order that the word of God may not be slandered.

⁶Likewise, exhort the young men to be self-controlled,

⁷concerning everything showing yourself [to be] an example of good deeds, in your teaching [demonstrating] soundness, dignity,

⁸[a] sound message beyond reproach, in order that _an opponent_ may be put to shame, [because he] has nothing bad to say concerning us.

⁹Slaves must be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not to talk back, ¹⁰not stealing, but demonstrating all good faith, in order that they may do credit to the teaching of God our Savior in everything.

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people, ¹²training us in order that, denying impiety and worldly desires, we may live self-controlled and righteously and godly in the present age,

¹³looking forward to the blessed hope and the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, ¹⁴who gave himself for us, in order that he might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good deeds.

¹⁵Speak these [things] and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

3¹ Remind them to be subject to the rulers [and] to the authorities, to obey, to be prepared for every good work,

² to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all courtesy to all people.

³ For we also were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, enslaved to various desires and pleasures, spending our lives in wickedness and envy, despicable, hating one another.

⁴ But when the kindness and love for mankind of God our Savior appeared,

⁵ he saved us, not by deeds of righteousness that we have done, but because of his mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit,

⁶ whom he poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we may become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

⁸ The saying [is] trustworthy, and I want you to insist concerning these [things], so that those who have believed in God may be careful to engage in good deeds.

These things are good and beneficial for people.

⁹But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and contentions and quarrels about the law, for they are useless and fruitless.

¹⁰Reject a divisive person after a first and second admonition, ¹¹knowing that such a person is perverted and is sinning, being self-condemned.

¹²When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, make haste to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

¹³Diligently send on their way Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, so that _they may lack nothing_ .

¹⁴But also our [people] must learn to engage in good deeds for necessary needs, so that they will not be unfruitful.

¹⁵All those with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace [be] with all of you.

Philemon

1 ¹ Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our dear friend and fellow worker, ² and to Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house.

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ I thank my God, always making mention of you in my prayers,

⁵ [because I] hear about your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and for all the saints.

⁶ [I pray] that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge [of] every good [thing] that [is] in us for Christ.

⁷ For I have great joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

⁸ Therefore, [although I] have great confidence in Christ to order you [to do what] is proper, ⁹instead I appeal to [you] because of love, [since I] am such a one as Paul, now an old man and also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

¹⁰I am appealing to you concerning my child whom I became the father of during my imprisonment, Onesimus.

¹¹Once he [was] useless to you, but now [he is] useful both to you and to me,

¹²whom I have sent back to you himself, that is, my heart, ¹³whom I wanted to keep with me, in order that he might serve me on behalf of you during my imprisonment for the gospel.

¹⁴But apart from your consent, I wanted to do nothing, in order that your good [deed] might be not as according to necessity, but according to [your own] free will.

¹⁵For perhaps because of this, he was separated [from you] for a time, in order that you might have him back forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷If therefore you consider me a partner, receive him as [you would] me.

¹⁸But if in anything he has caused you loss or owes [you anything], _charge this to my account_ .

¹⁹I, Paul, write [this] with my [own] hand: I will pay it back, lest I mention to you that _you owe me even your very self besides_ .

²⁰Yes, brother, I ought to have some benefit of you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

²¹Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you [because I] know that you will do even beyond what I say.

²²At the same time also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴[and so do] Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, [and] Luke, my fellow workers.

²⁵The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [be] with your spirit.

Hebrews

1 ¹ [Although] God spoke long ago in many parts and in many ways to the fathers by the prophets,

² in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all [things], through whom also he made the world,

³ who is the radiance of his glory and the representation of his essence, sustaining all [things] by the word of his power. [When he] had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

⁴ having become by so much better than the angels, by as much as he has inherited a more excellent name than theirs.

⁵ For to which of the angels did he ever say, "You are my son, today I have fathered you," and again, "I will be _his father_ , and he will be _my son_ "?

⁶ And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, "And let all [the] angels of God worship him."

⁷And concerning the angels he says, "The one who makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire,"

⁸but concerning the Son, "Your throne, O God, [is] _forever and ever_ , and the scepter of righteous [is the] scepter of your kingdom.

⁹You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; because of this God, your God, has anointed you with the olive oil of joy more than your companions.

¹⁰And, "You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the works of your hands;

¹¹they will perish, but you continue, and they will all become old like a garment,

¹²and like a robe you will roll them up, and like a garment they will be changed; but you are the same, and your years will not run out."

¹³But to which of the angels has he ever said, "Sit down at my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

¹⁴Are they not all spirits engaged in special service, sent on assignment for the sake of those who are going to inherit salvation?

2¹ Because of this, [it is] all the more necessary [that] we pay attention to the [things] we have heard, lest we drift away.

² For if the word spoken through angels was binding and every transgression and act of disobedience received a just penalty,

³ how will we escape [if we] neglect so great a salvation which had [its] beginning [when it] was spoken through the Lord [and] was confirmed to us by those who heard,

⁴ [while] God was testifying at the same time by signs and wonders and various miracles and distributions of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

⁵ For he did not subject to angels the world to come, about which we are speaking.

⁶ But someone testified somewhere, saying, "What is man, that you remember him, or the son of man, that you care for him?"

⁷ You made him for a short [time] lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor;

⁸ you subjected all [things] under his feet. For in subjecting all [things] to him, he left nothing [that was] not subject to him. But now we do not yet see all [things] subjected to him, ⁹ but we see Jesus, for a short [time] made lower than the angels, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God he might taste death on behalf of everyone.

¹⁰ For it was fitting for him for whom [are] all [things] and through whom [are] all [things] in bringing many sons to glory to perfect the originator of their salvation through sufferings.

¹¹ For both the one who sanctifies and the ones who are sanctified [are] all from one, for which reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers,

¹² saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers; in the midst of the assembly I will sing in praise of you."

¹³And again, "I will trust in him." And again, "Behold, I and the children God has given me."

¹⁴Therefore, since the children share in blood and flesh, he also in like manner shared in these [same things], in order that through death he could destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵and could set free these who through fear of death were subject to slavery throughout all their lives.

¹⁶For surely he is not concerned with angels, but he is concerned with the descendants of Abraham.

¹⁷Therefore he was obligated to be made like his brothers in all [respects], in order that he could become a merciful and faithful high priest in the things relating to God, in order to make atonement for the sins of the people.

¹⁸For in that which he himself suffered [when he] was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3¹Therefore, holy brothers, sharers in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ²who was faithful to the one who appointed him, as Moses also [was] in all his household.

³For this one is considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, inasmuch as the one who builds it has greater honor than the house.

⁴For every house is built by someone, but the one who built all [things] [is] God.

⁵And Moses [was] faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony to the things that would be spoken, ⁶but Christ [was faithful] as a son over his house, whose house we are, if indeed we hold fast to our confidence and the hope we can be proud of.

⁷Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you hear his voice, ⁸do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of testing in the wilderness,

⁹where your fathers tested [me] by trial and saw my works

¹⁰[for] forty years. Therefore I was angry with this generation, and I said, They always go astray in their heart, and they do not know my ways.

¹¹ As I swore in my anger, _They will never enter_ into my rest."

¹² Watch out, brothers, lest there be in some of you an evil, unbelieving heart, [with the result that you] fall away from the living God.

¹³ But encourage one another _day by day_ , as long as it is called "today," so that _none of you become hardened_ by the deception of sin.

¹⁴ For we have become partners of Christ, if indeed we hold fast the beginning of [our] commitment steadfast until the end,

¹⁵ _while it is said_ , "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

¹⁶ For who, [when they] heard [it], were disobedient? Surely [it was] not all who went out from Egypt through Moses?

¹⁷ And with whom was he angry [for] forty years? [Was it] not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

¹⁸ And to whom did he swear [they would] not enter into his rest, except those who were disobedient?

¹⁹And [so] we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.

4¹Therefore let us fear, [while there] remains a promise of entering into his rest, that none of you appear to fall short of [it].

²_For we also have had the good news proclaimed to us_ , just as those also [did], but the message _they heard_ did not benefit them, [because they] were not united with those who heard [it] in faith.

³For we who have believed enter into that rest, just as he has said, "As I swore in my anger, _They will never enter_ into my rest." And yet these works have been accomplished from the foundation of the world.

⁴For he has spoken somewhere about the seventh [day] in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works,"

⁵and in this [passage] again, _They will never enter_ into my rest."

⁶Since therefore it remains [for] some to enter into it, and the ones to whom the good news was proclaimed previously did not enter because of disobedience,

⁷ again he ordains a certain day, today, speaking by David after so long a time, just as had been said before, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

⁸ For if Joshua had caused them to rest, he would not have spoken about another day after these [things].

⁹ Consequently a sabbath rest remains for the people of God.

¹⁰ For the one who has entered into his rest has also himself rested from his works, just as God [did] from his own [works].

¹¹ Therefore, let us make every effort to enter into that rest, in order that no one may fall in the same pattern of disobedience.

¹² For the word of God [is] living and active and sharper than any double-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, both joints and marrow, and able to judge the reflections and thoughts of the heart.

¹³ And no creature is hidden in the sight of him, but all [things are] naked and laid bare to the eyes of him to whom _we must give our account_ .

¹⁴Therefore, [because we] have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.

¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but who has been tempted in all [things] in the same way, without sin.

¹⁶Therefore let us approach with confidence to the throne of grace, in order that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

5¹For every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of people in the things relating to God, in order that he can offer both gifts and sacrifices on behalf of sins, ²being able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and led astray, since he himself also is surrounded by weakness, ³and because of it he is obligated to offer [sacrifices] for sins _for himself also, as well as for the people_ .

⁴And someone does not take for himself the honor, but is called by God, just as Aaron also [was].

⁵ Thus also Christ did not glorify himself to become high priest, but the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have fathered you,"

⁶ just as also in another [place] he says, "You [are] a priest _forever_ according to the order of Melchizedek,"

⁷ who in the days of his flesh offered up both prayers and supplications, with loud crying and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard as a result of his reverence.

⁸ Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered,

⁹ and being perfected, he became the source of eternal salvation to all those who obey him,

¹⁰ being designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹¹ Concerning this _we have much to say and it is difficult to explain_ , since you have become sluggish in hearing.

¹² For indeed, [although you] ought to be teachers _by this time_ , you have need of someone to teach you again the beginning elements of the oracles of God, and _you have need of_ milk and not solid food.

¹³For everyone who partakes of milk [is] unacquainted with the message of righteousness, because he is an infant.

¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have trained their faculties for the distinguishing of both good and evil.

6¹Therefore, leaving behind the elementary message about Christ, let us move on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and faith in God, ²teaching about baptisms and laying on of hands, and resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.

³And this we will do, if God permits.

⁴For [it is] impossible [concerning] those who have once been enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and become sharers of the Holy Spirit,

⁵and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the coming age, ⁶and having fallen away, to renew [them] again to repentance, [because they] have crucified again for themselves the Son of God and held him up to contempt.

⁷For ground that drinks the rain that comes often upon it, and brings forth vegetation usable to those [people] _for whose sake_ [it is] also cultivated, shares a blessing from God.

⁸But [if it] produces thorns and thistles, [it is] worthless and near to a curse, whose end [is] for burning.

⁹But even if we are speaking in this way, dear friends, we are convinced of better [things] concerning you, and belonging to salvation.

¹⁰For God [is] not unjust, [so as] to forget your work and the love which you demonstrated for his name [by] having served the saints, and continuing to serve [them].

¹¹And we desire each one of you to demonstrate the same diligence for the full assurance of [your] hope until the end, ¹²in order that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who inherit the promises through faith and patience.

¹³For [when] God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater to swear by, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, "Surely _I will greatly bless_ you, and _I will greatly multiply_ you.

¹⁵And so, [by] persevering, he obtained the promise.

¹⁶For people swear by what is greater [than themselves], and the oath for confirmation [is the] end of all dispute for them.

¹⁷In the same way God, [because he] wanted to show even more to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of his resolve, guaranteed [it] with an oath,

¹⁸in order that through two unchangeable things, in which [it is] impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge may have powerful encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before [us],

¹⁹which we have like an anchor of the soul, both firm and steadfast, and entering into the inside of the curtain, ²⁰where Jesus, the forerunner for us, entered, [because he] became a high priest _forever_ according to the order of Melchizedek.

7¹ For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met

Abraham [as he] was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

²to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth of everything in the first place, [his name] is translated "king of righteousness," and then also "king of Salem," that is, "king of peace";

³without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he remains a priest for all time.

⁴But see how great this man [was], to whom even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth from the spoils!

⁵And indeed those of the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a commandment to collect a tenth from the people according to the law, that is, from their brothers, although _they are descended from Abraham_ .

⁶But the one who did not trace [his] descent from them collected tithes from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.

⁷Now without any dispute the inferior is blessed by the more prominent.

⁸And in this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case it is testified that he lives.

⁹And, _so to speak_ , even Levi, the one who receives tithes, has paid tithes through Abraham.

¹⁰For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹Thus if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood, for on the basis of it the people received the law, what further need [is there] for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek and not said to be according to the order of Aaron?

¹²For [when] the priesthood changes, of necessity there is a change of the law also.

¹³For the one about whom these [things] are spoken belongs to another tribe from which no one has officiated at the altar.

¹⁴For [it is] evident that our Lord is a descendant of Judah, a tribe [with reference] to which Moses said nothing concerning priests.

¹⁵And it is still more clear, if another priest according to the likeness of Melchizedek arises, ¹⁶who has become [a priest] not according to a law of physical requirement, but according to the power of an indestructible life.

¹⁷For it is testified, "You [are] a priest _forever_ according to the order of Melchizedek."

¹⁸For on the one hand a preceding commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness

¹⁹(for the law [made] nothing perfect), but on the other hand [there is] the introduction of a better hope through which we draw near to God.

²⁰And by as much as [this was] not without an oath (for these on the one hand _have become priests_ without an oath, ²¹but he with an oath by the one who said to him, "The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, You [are] a priest _forever_ "), ²²by so much more also Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³ And indeed many _have become_ priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing [in office], ²⁴ but he, because he continues _forever_ , holds the priesthood permanently.

²⁵ Therefore also he is able to save completely those who draw near to God through him, [because he] always lives in order to intercede on their behalf.

²⁶ For a high priest such as this indeed is fitting for us, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and having become exalted [above] the heavens,

²⁷ who does not _need every day_ like the former high priests to offer up sacrifices for his own sins [and] then for the [sins] of the people, because he did this once for all [when he] offered up himself.

²⁸ For the law appoints men [as] high priests who have weakness, but the statement of the oath, after the law, [appoints] a Son, who is made perfect _forever_ .

8¹ Now [this is] the main point in what has been said: we have a high priest such as this, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,

²a minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle which the Lord set up, not man.

³For every high priest is appointed in order to offer both gifts and sacrifices; therefore [it was] necessary [for] this one also to have something that he offers.

⁴Now if he were on earth, he would not even be a priest, [because there] are those who offer the gifts according to the law,

⁵who serve a sketch and shadow of the heavenly [things], just as Moses was warned [when he] was about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern which was shown to you on the mountain."

⁶But now he has attained a more excellent ministry, by as much as he is also mediator of a better covenant which has been enacted upon better promises.

⁷For if that first [covenant] had been faultless, occasion would not have been sought for a second.

⁸For in finding fault with them he says, "Behold, days are coming, says the Lord, when I will complete a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, ⁹not like the covenant which I made with their fathers on the day I took hold of them by my hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant and I disregarded them, says the Lord.

¹⁰For this [is] the covenant that I will decree with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I am putting my laws in their minds and I will write them on their hearts, and I will be _their_ God and they will be _my_ people.

¹¹And they will not teach each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

¹²For I will be merciful toward their wrongdoings, and I will not remember their sins [any] longer.

¹³In calling [it] new, he has declared the former [to be old]. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old [is] near to disappearing.

9¹ Now even the first [covenant] had regulations for worship and the earthly sanctuary.

² For a tent was prepared, the first [one], in which [were] the lampstand and the table and the presentation of the loaves, which is called the holy place.

³ And after the second curtain [was] a tent called the holy of holies,

⁴ containing the golden incense altar and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which [were] a golden jar containing the manna and the rod of Aaron that budded and the tablets of the covenant.

⁵ And above it [were] the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, about which it is not now [possible] to speak in detail.

⁶ Now these things having been prepared in this way, the priests enter into the first tent _continually_ [as they] accomplish their service,

⁷ but only the high priest [enters] into the second [tent] once a year, not without blood, which he offers on behalf of himself and the [sins] of the people committed in ignorance.

⁸The Holy Spirit [was] making this clear, [that] the way [into] the holy place [was] not yet revealed, [while] the first tent was still in existence,

⁹which [was] a symbol for the present time, in which both the gifts and sacrifices which were offered were not able to perfect the worshiper with respect to the conscience,

¹⁰concerning [instead] only food and drink and different washings, regulations of outward things imposed until the time of setting [things] right.

¹¹But Christ has arrived [as] a high priest of the good [things] to come. Through the greater and more perfect tent not made by hands, that is, not of this creation, ¹²and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered once for all into the [most] holy place, obtaining eternal redemption.

¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow sprinkled on those who are defiled sanctify [them] for the ritual purity of the flesh,

¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to serve [the] living God?

¹⁵ And because of this, he is the mediator of a new covenant, in order that, [because] a death has taken place for the redemption of transgressions [committed] during the first covenant, those who are the called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

¹⁶ For where [there is] a will, [it is] a necessity [for] the death of the one who made the will to be established.

¹⁷ For a will [is] in force concerning those who are dead, since [it is] never in force when the one who made the will is alive.

¹⁸ Therefore not even the first [covenant] was ratified without blood.

¹⁹ For [when] every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, [he] took the blood of calves and goats with water and scarlet wool and hyssop [and] sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people,

²⁰saying, "This [is] the blood of the covenant that God has commanded for you."

²¹And likewise he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the utensils of service with the blood.

²²Indeed, nearly everything is purified with blood according to the law, and apart from the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

²³Therefore [it was] necessary [for] the sketches of the [things] in heaven to be purified with these [sacrifices], but the heavenly [things] themselves [to be purified] with better sacrifices than these.

²⁴For Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a [mere] copy of the true [one], but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf,

²⁵and not in order that he can offer himself many times, as the high priest enters into the sanctuary _year by year_ with blood not his own,

²⁶since it would have been necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world, but now he has appeared once at the end of the ages for the removal of sin by the sacrifice of himself.

²⁷ And _just as_ it is destined for people to die once, and after this, judgment, ²⁸ thus also Christ, having been offered once in order to bear the sins of many, will appear for the second time without reference to sin to those who eagerly await him for salvation.

10¹ For the law, possessing a shadow of the good [things] that are about to come, not the form of things itself, [is] never able _year by year_ by means of the same sacrifices which they offer without interruption to make perfect those who draw near.

² For otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the ones who worship, having been purified once and for all, would no longer have any consciousness of sins?

³ But in them [there is] a reminder of sins _year by year_ .

⁴ For [it is] impossible [for] the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ Therefore, [when he] came into the world, he said, "Sacrifice and offering you did not want, but a body you prepared for me;

⁶you did not delight in whole burnt offerings and [offerings] for sins.

⁷Then I said, Behold, I have come in the roll of the book it is written about me to do your will, O God.

⁸[When he] says above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and [offerings] for sin you did not want, nor did you delight in," which are offered according to the law, ⁹then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first in order to establish the second, ¹⁰by which will we are made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

¹¹And every priest stands every day serving and offering the same sacrifices many times, which are never able to take away sins.

¹²But this one, [after he] had offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³from now on waiting until his enemies are made a footstool for his feet.

¹⁴For by one offering he has perfected for all time those who are made holy.

¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

¹⁶This [is] the covenant that I will decree for them after those days, says the Lord: I am putting my laws on their hearts, and I will write them on their minds."

¹⁷[He] also [says], "Their sins and their lawless deeds I will never remember again."

¹⁸Now where [there is] forgiveness of these, [there is] no longer an offering for sin.

¹⁹Therefore, brothers, [since we] have confidence for the entrance into the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

²⁰[by the] new and living way which he inaugurated for us through the curtain, that is, his flesh,

²¹and [since we have] a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us approach with a true heart in the full assurance of faith, our hearts sprinkled [clean] from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

²³ Let us hold fast to the confession of [our] hope without wavering, for the one who promised [is] faithful.

²⁴ And let us think about _how to stir one another up to love_ and good works, ²⁵ not abandoning _our meeting together_ , as [is] the habit of some, but encouraging [each other], and by so much more as you see the day drawing near.

²⁶ For [if] we keep on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and a fury of fire that is about to consume the adversaries.

²⁸ Anyone who rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy on [the testimony of] two or three witnesses.

²⁹ How much worse punishment do you think the person will be considered worthy of who treats with disdain the Son of God and who considers ordinary the blood of the covenant by which he was made holy and who insults the Spirit of grace?

³⁰For we know the one who said, "Vengeance [is] mine, I will repay," and again, "The Lord will judge his people."

³¹[It is] a terrifying [thing] to fall into the hands of the living God.

³²But remember the former days in which, [after you] were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings, ³³sometimes being publicly exposed both to insults and to afflictions, and sometimes becoming sharers with those who were treated in this way.

³⁴For you both sympathized with the prisoners and put up with the seizure of your belongings with joy [because you] knew that you yourselves had a better and permanent possession.

³⁵Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has great reward.

³⁶For you have need of endurance, in order that [after you] have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

³⁷For yet "a very, very little [while], [and] the one who is coming will come and will not delay.

³⁸But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul is not well pleased with him."

³⁹But we are not among those who shrink back to destruction, but among those who have faith to the preservation of [our] souls.

11 ¹Now faith is the realization of what is hoped for, the proof of things not seen.

²For by this the people of old were approved.

³By faith we understand the worlds were created by the word of God, in order that what is seen did not come into existence from what is visible.

⁴By faith Abel offered to God a greater sacrifice than Cain, by which he was approved that he was righteous, [because] God approved [him] for his gifts, and through it he still speaks, [although he] is dead.

⁵By faith Enoch was taken up, so that he did not experience death, and he was not found, because God took him up. For before his removal, he had been approved _as having been pleasing_ to God.

⁶Now without faith [it is] impossible to please [him], for the one who approaches God must believe that he exists and is a rewarder of those who seek him.

⁷By faith Noah, having been warned about things not yet seen, out of reverence constructed an ark for the deliverance of his family, by which he pronounced sentence on the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

⁸By faith Abraham, [when he] was called, obeyed to go out to a place that he was going to receive for an inheritance, and he went out, not knowing where he was going.

⁹By faith he lived in the land of promise as a stranger, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise.

¹⁰For he was expecting the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder [is] God.

¹¹By faith, even [though] Sarah herself [was] barren, he received _the ability to procreate_ even _past the normal age_

, because he regarded the one who had promised [to be] faithful.

¹²And therefore these were fathered from one man, and [he] being as good as dead, as the stars of heaven in number and like the innumerable sand by the shore of the sea.

¹³These all died in faith without receiving the promises, but seeing them from a distance and welcoming [them], and admitting that they were strangers and temporary residents on the earth.

¹⁴For those who say such [things] make clear that they are seeking a homeland.

¹⁵And if they had been remembering that [land] from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return.

¹⁶But now they aspire to a better [land], that is, a heavenly [one]. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

¹⁷By faith Abraham, [when he] was tested, offered Isaac, and the one who received the promises was ready to offer his one and only [son],

¹⁸with reference to whom it was said, "In Isaac your descendants will be named,"

¹⁹having reasoned that God [was] able even to raise [him] from the dead, from which he received him back also as a symbol.

²⁰By faith also Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things that were going to happen.

²¹By faith Jacob, [as he] was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped, [leaning] on the top of his staff.

²²By faith Joseph, [as he] was dying, mentioned about the exodus of the sons of Israel and gave instructions about his bones.

²³By faith Moses, [when he] was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw the child [was] handsome, and they were not afraid of the edict of the king.

²⁴By faith Moses, [when he] was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter, ²⁵choosing instead to be mistreated with the people of God [rather] than to experience the transitory enjoyment of sin,

²⁶ considering _reproach endured for the sake of Christ_ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward.

²⁷ By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the anger of the king, for he persevered as [if he] saw the invisible one.

²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, in order that the one who destroyed the firstborn would not touch them.

²⁹ By faith they crossed the Red Sea as if on dry land; the Egyptians, _when they made the attempt_ , were drowned.

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down [after they] had been marched around for seven days.

³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, [because she] welcomed the spies in peace.

³² And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, and Samuel and the prophets, ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, accomplished justice, obtained what was promised, shut the mouths of lions,

³⁴extinguished the effectiveness of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong from weakness, became mighty in battle, put to flight enemy battle lines.

³⁵Women received back their dead by resurrection. But others were tortured, not accepting release, in order that they might gain a better resurrection.

³⁶And others _experienced mocking and flogging_ , and in addition bonds and imprisonment.

³⁷They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they died by murder with a sword, they wandered about in sheepskins, in goatskins, impoverished, afflicted, mistreated, ³⁸of whom the world was not worthy, wandering about on deserts and mountains and in caves and in holes in the ground.

³⁹And all these, [although they] were approved through their faith, did not receive what was promised,

⁴⁰[because] God had provided something better for us, so that they would not be made perfect without us.

12¹Therefore, [since] we also have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, putting aside every weight and _the sin that so easily ensnares us_, let us run with patient endurance the race that has been set before us, ²fixing our eyes on Jesus, the originator and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

³For consider the one who endured such hostility against himself by sinners, so that you will not grow weary in your souls [and] give up.

⁴You have not yet resisted to the point of [shedding your] blood [as you] struggle against sin.

⁵And have you completely forgotten the exhortation which instructs you as sons? "My son, do not make light of the Lords discipline, or give up [when you] are corrected by him.

⁶For the Lord disciplines the one whom he loves, and punishes every son whom he accepts."

⁷Endure [it] for discipline. God is dealing with you as sons. For what son [is there] whom a father does not discipline?

⁸But if you are without discipline, in which all [legitimate sons] have become participants, then you are illegitimate and not sons.

⁹Furthermore, we have had _our earthly fathers_ who disciplined [us], and we respected [them]. Will we not much rather subject ourselves to the Father of spirits and live?

¹⁰For they disciplined [us] for a few days according to what seemed [appropriate] to them, but he [does so] for our benefit, in order that [we] can have a share in his holiness.

¹¹Now all discipline seems for the moment not to be joyful but painful, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who are trained by it.

¹²Therefore strengthen your slackened hands and your weakened knees, ¹³and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame will not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

¹⁴Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord.

¹⁵Take care [that] no one falls short of the grace of God; [that] no one growing up [like] a root of bitterness causes trouble, and by it many become defiled;

¹⁶[that] no one [be] a sexually immoral or totally worldly [person] like Esau, who for one meal traded his own birthright.

¹⁷For you know that also afterwards, [when he] wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, because he did not find an occasion for repentance, although he sought it with tears.

¹⁸For you have not come to something that can be touched, and to a burning fire, and to darkness, and to gloom, and to a whirlwind, ¹⁹and to the noise of a trumpet, and to the sound of words which those who heard begged [that] not [another] word be spoken to them.

²⁰For they could not endure what was commanded: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned."

²¹And the spectacle was so terrifying [that] Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."

²²But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem, and to tens of thousands of angels, to the festal gathering

²³and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous [people] made perfect, ²⁴and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and _to the sprinkled blood_ that speaks better than Abels [does].

²⁵Watch out that you do not refuse the one who is speaking! For if those did not escape [when they] refused the one who warned [them] on earth, much less [will] we [escape], [if we] reject the [one who warns] from heaven,

²⁶whose voice shook the earth at that time, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once [more] I will shake not only the earth but also heaven."

²⁷ Now the [phrase] "yet once [more]" indicates the removal of what is shaken, namely, things that have been created, in order that the things that are not shaken may remain.

²⁸ Therefore, [since we] are receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us be thankful, through which let us serve God acceptably, with awe and reverence.

²⁹ For indeed our God [is] a consuming fire.

13 ¹ Brotherly love must continue.

² Do not neglect hospitality, because through this some have received angels as guests without knowing [it].

³ Remember the prisoners, as [though you were] fellow-prisoners; [remember] the mistreated, as [though] [you] yourselves also are being [mistreated] in the body.

⁴ Marriage [must be] held in honor by all, and the marriage bed [be] undefiled, because God will judge sexually immoral people and adulterers.

⁵ Your lifestyle [must be] free from the love of money, being content with what you have. For he himself has said, "I will never desert you, and I will never abandon you."

⁶So then, we can say with confidence, "The Lord [is] my helper, and I will not be afraid. What will man do to me?"

⁷Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you; _considering the outcome of their way of life_ , imitate their faith.

⁸Jesus Christ [is] the same yesterday and today and _forever_ .

⁹Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings, for [it is] good [for] the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods by which those who participate have not benefited.

¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve in the tabernacle do not have the right to eat.

¹¹For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sins are burned up outside the camp.

¹²Therefore Jesus also suffered outside the gate, in order that he might sanctify the people by his own blood.

¹³So we must go out to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach.

¹⁴For here we do not have a permanent city, but we seek the [city] that is to come.

¹⁵Therefore through him let us offer up a sacrifice of praise _continually_ to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name.

¹⁶And do not neglect doing good and generosity, for God is pleased with such sacrifices.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit [to them], for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account, so that they can do this with joy and not [with] groaning, for this [would be] unprofitable for you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are convinced that we have a good conscience, [and] want to conduct ourselves commendably in every [way].

¹⁹And I especially urge [you] to do this, so that I may be restored to you more quickly.

²⁰Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, ²¹ equip you with every good [thing] to do his will, carrying out in us [what is] pleasing before him through Jesus Christ, to whom [be] the glory _forever and ever_ . Amen.

²² Now I urge you, brothers, bear with my word of exhortation, for indeed I have written to you _briefly_ .

²³ Know [that] our brother Timothy has been released, with whom I will see you, if he comes quickly [enough].

²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

²⁵ Grace [be] with all of you.

James

1 ¹ James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes in the dispersion. Greetings!

² Consider [it] all joy, my brothers, whenever you encounter various trials,

³ [because you] know that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

⁴ And let endurance have [its] perfect effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking in nothing.

⁵ Now if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask for [it] from God, who gives to all without reservation and not reproaching, and it will be given to him.

⁶ But let him ask for [it] in faith, without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed about.

⁷ For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord;

⁸ [he is] a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

⁹ Now let the brother of humble circumstances boast in his high position, ¹⁰but the rich person in his humiliation, because he will pass away like a flower of the grass.

¹¹For the sun rises with its burning heat and dries up the grass, and its flower falls off, and the beauty of its appearance is lost. So also the rich person in his pursuits will wither away.

¹²Blessed [is] the person who endures testing, because [when he] is approved he will receive the crown of life that he has promised to those who love him.

¹³No one who is being tempted should say, "I am being tempted by God," for God _cannot be tempted_ by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

¹⁴But each one is tempted [when he] is dragged away and enticed by his own desires.

¹⁵Then desire, [after it] has conceived, gives birth to sin, and sin, [when it] is brought to completion, gives birth to death.

¹⁶Do not be deceived, my dear brothers.

¹⁷Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of change.

¹⁸[By his] will he gave birth to us through the message of truth, so that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

¹⁹Understand [this], my dear brothers: every person must be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger, ²⁰for human anger does not accomplish the righteousness of God.

²¹Therefore, putting aside all moral uncleanness and wicked excess, welcome with humility the implanted message which is able to save your souls.

²²But be doers of the message and not only hearers, deceiving yourselves, ²³because if anyone is a hearer of the message and not a doer, this one is like someone staring at _his own face_ in a mirror, ²⁴for he looks at himself and goes away and immediately forgets what sort of [person] he was.

²⁵But the one who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues [to do it], not being a forgetful hearer but a doer who acts, this one will be blessed _in what he does_ .

²⁶If anyone thinks he is religious, [although he] does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this persons religion [is] worthless.

²⁷Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their affliction, [and] to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2¹ My brothers, do not hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with partiality.

²For if someone enters into your assembly in fine clothing with a gold ring on his finger, and a poor person in filthy clothing also enters,

³and you look favorably on the one wearing the fine clothing and you say, "Be seated here in a good place," and to the poor person you say, "You stand there or be seated by my footstool, ⁴have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵Listen, my dear brothers! Did not God choose the poor of the world [to be] rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him?

⁶But you have dishonored the poor! Are not the rich exploiting you and they themselves dragging you into the courts?

⁷Do they themselves not blaspheme the good name _of the one to whom you belong_ ?

⁸However, if you carry out the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well.

⁹But if you show partiality, you commit sin, [and thus] are convicted by the law as transgressors.

¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law but stumbles in one [point only] has become guilty of all [of it].

¹¹For the one who said "Do not commit adultery" also said "Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

¹²Thus speak and thus act as those who are going to be judged by the law of liberty.

¹³For judgment [is] merciless to the one who has not practiced mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

¹⁴What [is] the benefit, my brothers, if someone says [that he] has faith but does not have works? That faith [is] not able to save him, [is it]?

¹⁵If a brother or a sister is poorly clothed and lacking food for the day, ¹⁶and one of you should say to them, "Go in peace, keep warm and _eat well_ ," but does not give them what is necessary for the body, what [is] the benefit?

¹⁷Thus also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

¹⁹You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe, and shudder!

²⁰But do you want to know, O foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless?

²¹ Was not Abraham our father justified by works [when he] offered up his son Isaac on the altar?

²² You see that faith was working together with his works, and by the works the faith was perfected.

²³ And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness," and he was called Gods friend.

²⁴ You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

²⁵ And likewise was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works [when she] welcomed the messengers and sent [them] out by a different route?

²⁶ For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

3¹ Not many should become teachers, my brothers, [because you] know that we will receive a greater judgment.

² For we all stumble [in] many [ways]. If anyone does not stumble in what he says, he [is] a perfect individual, able to hold in check his whole body also.

³And if we put bits in the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we also guide their whole bodies.

⁴Behold also ships: [although they] are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the inclination of the pilot wishes.

⁵So also the tongue is a small member [of the body] and boasts great [things]. Behold how small a fire sets ablaze how great a forest!

⁶And the tongue [is] a fire! The world of unrighteousness, the tongue, is set among our members, defiling the whole body and setting on fire _the course of human existence_, being set on fire by hell.

⁷For every species of animals and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, is being tamed and has been tamed by the human species, ⁸but no human being is able to tame the tongue. [It is] a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

⁹With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God.

¹⁰From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these [things] ought not to be so!

¹¹A spring does not pour forth from the same opening fresh and bitter [water, does it]?

¹²A fig tree is not able, my brothers, to produce olives, or a grapevine figs. Neither can a saltwater spring produce fresh water.

¹³Who [is] wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good behavior his works, with the humility of wisdom.

¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and tell lies against the truth.

¹⁵This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but [is] earthly, unspiritual, demonic.

¹⁶For where [there is] jealousy and selfish ambition, there [is] disorder and every evil practice.

¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, obedient, full of mercy and good fruits, nonjudgmental, without hypocrisy, ¹⁸And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace among those who make peace.

4¹From where [are] conflicts and from where [are] quarrels among you? [Is it] not from this, from your pleasures that wage war among your members?

²You desire and do not have; you murder and are filled with envy, and are not able to obtain; you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

³You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, in order that you may spend [it] on your pleasures.

⁴Adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes [himself] an enemy of God.

⁵Or do you think that in vain the scripture says, "The spirit which he caused to dwell in us desires jealousy"?

⁶But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

⁷Therefore subject yourselves to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

⁸Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse [your] hands, [you] sinners, and purify [your] hearts, [you] double-minded!

⁹Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloominess.

¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

¹¹Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. The one who speaks evil of a brother or judges his brother speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge [of the law].

¹²There is one lawgiver and judge who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

¹³Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to such and such a city and spend a year there, and carry on business and make a profit, ¹⁴you who do not know _what will happen tomorrow_ , _what your life will be like_ . For you are a smoky vapor that appears for a short time and then disappears.

¹⁵ Instead you should say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that.

¹⁶ But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

¹⁷ Therefore, to the one who knows to do good and does not do [it], to him it is sin.

5¹ Come now, you rich people, weep [and] cry aloud over the miseries that are coming upon you!

² Your wealth has rotted, and your clothing has become moth-eaten.

³ Your gold and silver have become corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you, and it will consume your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days.

⁴ Behold, the wages that were held back by you from the workers who reap your fields cry out, and the cries of the reapers have come to the ears of the Lord of hosts.

⁵ You have lived self-indulgently on the earth and have lived luxuriously. You have fattened your hearts in the day of slaughter.

⁶You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous [person]; he does not resist you.

⁷Therefore be patient, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the soil, being patient concerning it until it receives the early and late rains.

⁸You also be patient. Strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord is near.

⁹Brothers, do not complain against one another, in order that you may not be judged. Behold, the judge stands before the doors!

¹⁰Brothers, take [as an] example of perseverance and endurance the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

¹¹Behold, we consider blessed those who have endured. You have heard about the patient endurance of Job, and you saw the outcome from the Lord, that the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹²Now above all, my brothers, do not swear either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your yes be yes and your no, no, in order that you may not fall under judgment.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering misfortune? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praise.

¹⁴Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the elders of the church and they should pray over him, anointing him with olive oil in the name of the Lord.

¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins _he will be forgiven_ .

¹⁶Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous person accomplishes much.

¹⁷Elijah was a human being with the same nature as us, and _he prayed fervently_ for [it] not to rain, and it did not rain on the land [for] three years and six months.

¹⁸And he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers, if anyone among you should wander away from the truth and someone turns him back, ²⁰he should know that the one who turns a sinner back from the error of his way will save that persons soul from death, and will cover over a great number of sins.

1 Peter

1 ¹ Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen who are residing temporarily in the dispersion in Pontus,
Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and [for] sprinkling with the blood of Jesus Christ. May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

³ Blessed [be] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

⁴ into an inheritance imperishable and undefiled and unfading, reserved in heaven for you

⁵ who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time,

⁶ in which you rejoice greatly, [although] now for a short time, if it is necessary, you are distressed by various trials,

⁷so that the genuineness of your faith, more valuable than gold that is passing away, but is tested by fire, may be found to [result in] praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

⁸whom, [although you] have not seen, you love; in whom now you believe, [although you] do not see [him], and you rejoice greatly with joy inexpressible and full of glory, ⁹obtaining the goal of your faith, the salvation of [your] souls.

¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace meant for you sought and made careful inquiry,

¹¹investigating for what [person] or which time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating [when he] testified beforehand to the sufferings with reference to Christ and the glories after these [things],

¹²to whom it was revealed that they were serving not themselves but you with reference to the same [things] which now have been announced to you through those who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, _things into which_ angels desire to look.

¹³Therefore, _when you have prepared your minds for action_ [by] being self-controlled, put your hope completely in the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹⁴As obedient children, do not be conformed to the former desires [you used to conform to] in your ignorance,

¹⁵but as the one who called you [is] holy, [you] yourselves be holy in all [your] conduct,

¹⁶for it is written, "You will be holy, because I am holy."

¹⁷And if you call on [him] [as] Father who judges impartially according to each ones work, conduct yourselves with fear during the time of your temporary residence,

¹⁸[because you] know that you were redeemed from your futile way of life inherited from your ancestors not with perishable things like silver or gold,

¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, like [that of] an unblemished and spotless lamb

²⁰who was foreknown before the foundation of the world, but has been revealed in these last times for you

²¹who through him [are] believing in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

²²Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love, love one another fervently from a pure heart,

²³[because you] have been born again, not from perishable seed but imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

²⁴For "all flesh [is] like grass, and all its glory like the flower of the grass. The grass withers and the flower falls off, ²⁵but the word of the Lord endures _forever_ ." And this is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

2¹Therefore, ridding yourselves of all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander, ²like newborn infants long for the unadulterated spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up to salvation,

³if you have tasted that the Lord [is] kind,

⁴to whom you are drawing near, a living stone rejected by men but chosen [and] precious in the sight of God.

⁵And [you] yourselves, as living stones, are being built up [as] a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

⁶For it stands in scripture, "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a chosen [and] precious cornerstone, and the one who believes in him will never be put to shame."

⁷Therefore the honor [is] for you who believe, but for those who refuse to believe, "The stone that the builders rejected, this one has become _the cornerstone_ ,

⁸and "A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense," who stumble [because they] disobey the word to which also they were consigned.

⁹But you [are] a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for [Gods] possession, so that you may proclaim the virtues of the one who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light,

¹⁰who once [were] not a people, but now [are] the people of God, the ones [who were] not shown mercy, but now are shown mercy.

¹¹Dear friends, I urge [you] as foreigners and temporary residents to abstain from fleshly desires which wage war against your soul, ¹²maintaining your good conduct among the Gentiles, so that in [the things] in which they slander you as evildoers, by seeing your good deeds they may glorify God on the day of visitation.

¹³Subject yourselves to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, whether to a king as having supreme authority, ¹⁴or to governors as those sent out by him for the punishment of those who do evil and the praise of those who do good.

¹⁵For the will of God is as follows: [by] doing good to silence the ignorance of foolish people.

¹⁶[Live] as free [persons], and not using your freedom as a covering for evil, but as slaves of God.

¹⁷Honor all [people], love the community of believers, fear God, honor the king.

¹⁸Domestic slaves, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to those [who are] good and gentle, but also to those [who are] unjust.

¹⁹For this [finds] favor, if because of consciousness of God someone endures sorrows [while] suffering unjustly.

²⁰For what credit [is it] if, [when you] sin and are beaten [for it], you endure? But if you endure [when you] do good and suffer [for it], this [finds] favor with God.

²¹For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his footsteps,

²²who did not commit sin, nor was deceit found in his mouth,

²³who [when he] was reviled, did not revile in return; [when] suffering, he did not threaten, but entrusted [himself] to the one who judges justly, ²⁴who himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that [we] may die to sins [and] live to righteousness, by whose wounds you were healed.

²⁵For you were going astray like sheep, but you have turned back now to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

3¹In the same way, wives, be subject to your own husbands, so that even if some are disobedient to the word, they may be won over without a word by the conduct of their wives,

²[when they] see your respectful, pure conduct.

³Let your adornment not be the external [kind], braiding hair and putting on gold jewelry or putting on [fine] clothing,

⁴but the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable [quality] of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is highly valuable in the sight of God.

⁵For in the [same] way formerly the holy women also, who hoped in God, used to adorn themselves [by] being subject to their own husbands,

⁶like Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you have become [when you] do good and are not frightened with respect to any terror.

⁷Husbands, in the same way live with [your wives] _knowledgeably_ , as with the weaker female vessel, showing [them] honor as fellow heirs also of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

⁸And finally, all [of you be] harmonious, sympathetic, showing mutual affection, compassionate, humble, ⁹not repaying evil for evil or insult for insult, but on the other hand blessing [others], because for this [reason] you were called, so that you could inherit a blessing.

¹⁰For "The one who wants to love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and [his] lips must not speak deceit.

¹¹And he must turn away from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it.

¹²For the eyes of the Lord [are] on the righteous, and his ears [are open to] their prayer. But the face of the Lord [is] against those who do evil.

¹³And who [is] the one who will harm you if you are a zealous adherent for what is good?

¹⁴But even if you might suffer for the sake of righteousness, [you are] blessed. And do not be afraid of their intimidation or be disturbed, ¹⁵but set Christ apart [as] Lord in your hearts, always ready to [make] a defense to anyone who asks you [for] an accounting concerning the hope [that is] in you.

¹⁶But [do so] with courtesy and respect, having a good conscience, so that in [the things] in which you are slandered, the ones who malign your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame.

¹⁷For [it is] better to suffer for doing good, _if God wills it_ , than for doing evil.

¹⁸For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, in order that he could bring you to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit,

¹⁹in which also he went [and] proclaimed to the spirits in prison,

²⁰who were formerly disobedient, when the patience of God waited in the days of Noah, [while] an ark was being constructed, in which a fewthat is, eight soulswere rescued through water.

²¹And also, corresponding to [this], baptism now saves you, not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to him.

4¹Therefore, [because] Christ suffered in the flesh, you also equip yourselves with the same way of thinking, because the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

²in order to live the remaining time in the flesh no longer for human desires, but for the will of God.

³For the time that has passed [was] sufficient _to do what the Gentiles desire to do_ , having lived in licentiousness, [evil] desires, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and wanton idolatries, ⁴with respect to which they are surprised [when] you do not run with [them] into the same flood of dissipation, [and so they] revile [you].

⁵They will give an account to the one who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

⁶Because for this reason also the gospel was preached to those who are dead, so that they were judged _by human standards_ in the flesh, but they may live in the spirit _by Gods standards_ .

⁷Now the end of all [things] draws near. Therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for [your] prayers.

⁸Above all, keep your love for one another constant, because love covers a large number of sins.

⁹[Be] hospitable to one another without complaining.

¹⁰Just as each one has received a gift, [use] it for serving one another, as good stewards of the varied grace of God.

¹¹If anyone speaks, [let it be] as the oracles of God; if anyone serves, [let it be] as by the strength that God provides, so that in all [things] God will be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the power _forever and ever_

. Amen.

¹²Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, [when it] takes place to test you, as [if] [something] strange were happening to you.

¹³But to the degree that you share in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also at the revelation of his glory you may rejoice [and] be glad.

¹⁴If you are reviled on account of the name of Christ, [you are] blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

¹⁵By all means do not let anyone of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler.

¹⁶But if [someone suffers] as a Christian, he must not be ashamed, but must glorify God with this name.

¹⁷For [it is] the time for the judgment to begin out from the household of God. But if [it begins] out from us first, what will be the outcome for those who are disobedient to the gospel of God?

¹⁸And if the righteous are saved with difficulty, _what will become of the ungodly and the sinner_ ?

¹⁹So then also those who suffer according to the will of God must entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing good.

5¹Therefore [I, your] fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, [and] also a sharer of the glory that is going to be revealed, exhort the elders among you:

²shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not by compulsion but willingly, in accordance with God, and not greedily but eagerly, ³and not as lording it over _those under your care_ , but being examples for the flock.

⁴And [when] the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

⁵In the same way, younger men, be subject to the elders, and all [of you] clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

⁶Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you at the [right] time, ⁷casting all your cares on him, because _he cares_ for you.

⁸Be sober; be on the alert. Your adversary the devil walks around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.

⁹_Resist him_ , steadfast in your faith, [because you] know the same [kinds] of sufferings are being accomplished by your community of believers in the world.

¹⁰And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, [after you] have suffered for a short time, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, [and] establish [you].

¹¹To him [be] the power _forever_ . Amen.

¹²Through Silvanus, the faithful brother (as I consider [him]), I have written to you _briefly_ to encourage [you] and to attest that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.

¹³She [who is] in Babylon, chosen the same as [you], greets you, and [so does] my son Mark.

¹⁴Greet one another with a loving kiss. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1 ¹ Simeon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a faith equal in value to ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

² May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,

³ because his divine power has bestowed on us all [things] [that are] necessary for life and godliness, through the knowledge of the one who called us by his own glory and excellence of character,

⁴ through which things he has bestowed on us his precious and very great promises, so that through these you may become sharers of the divine nature [after] escaping from the corruption [that is] in the world because of evil desire,

⁵ and [for] this same [reason], and [by] applying all diligence, supply with your faith excellence of character, and with excellence of character, knowledge, ⁶and with knowledge, self-control, and with self-control, patient endurance, and with patient endurance, godliness, ⁷and with godliness, brotherly love, and with brotherly love, love.

⁸For [if] these [things] are yours and are increasing, this does not make [you] useless or unproductive in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁹For [the one] for whom these [things] [are] not present is blind, being nearsighted, _having forgotten the cleansing_ of his former sins.

¹⁰Therefore, brothers, be zealous even more to make your calling and election secure, because [if you] do these [things], you will never ever stumble.

¹¹For in this way entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplied for you.

¹²Therefore I intend to remind you continually concerning these [things], although [you] know [them] and are established in the truth that you have.

¹³ But I consider [it] right, for as long as I am in this habitation, to stir you up by a reminder, ¹⁴ [because I] know that the removal of my habitation is imminent, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.

¹⁵ And I will also make every effort [that] you are able at any time, after my departure, _to recall these things to mind_ .

¹⁶ For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [by] following ingeniously concocted myths, but [by] being eyewitnesses of that ones majesty.

¹⁷ For [he] received honor and glory from God the Father [when] a voice such as this was brought to him by the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

¹⁸ And [we] ourselves heard this voice brought from heaven [when we] were with him on the holy mountain,

¹⁹ and we possess [as] more reliable the prophetic word, to which you do well [if you] pay attention to [it] as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts,

²⁰recognizing this above all, that every prophecy of scripture does not come about from ones own interpretation, ²¹for no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2¹ But there were also false prophets among the people, as there will be false teachers among you also, who will bring in _destructive heresies_ , even denying the Master who bought them, [thus] bringing on themselves swift destruction.

²And many will follow their licentious ways, because of whom the way of truth will be reviled.

³And in greediness they will exploit you with false words, whose condemnation [from] long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

⁴For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but held [them] captive in Tartarus with chains of darkness [and] handed [them] over to be kept for judgment,

⁵and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a proclaimer of righteousness, _and seven others_ [when he] brought a flood on the world of the ungodly,

⁶and condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction, reducing them to ashes, having appointed [them] [as] an example for those who are going to be ungodly,

⁷and rescued righteous Lot, worn down by the way of life of lawless persons in licentiousness

⁸(for that righteous man, [as he] lived among them day after day, was tormenting [his] righteous soul by the lawless deeds [he was] seeing and hearing),

⁹[then] the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to reserve the unrighteous to be punished at the day of judgment,

¹⁰and especially those who go after the flesh in defiling lust and who despise authority. Bold [and] arrogant, they do not tremble in awe [as they] blaspheme majestic beings, ¹¹ whereas angels, who are greater in strength and power, do not bring against them a demeaning judgment from the Lord.

¹² But these persons, like irrational animals born [only with] natural [instincts] for capture and killing, blaspheming _about things_ they do not understand, in their destruction will also be destroyed,

¹³ being harmed [as the] wages of unrighteousness. Considering reveling in the daytime a pleasure, [they are] stains and blemishes, carousing in their deceitful pleasures [when they] feast together with you, ¹⁴ having eyes full of [desire for] an adulteress and unceasing from sin, enticing unstable persons, [and] having hearts trained for greediness. Accursed children!

¹⁵ [By] leaving the straight path, they have gone astray, [because they] followed the way of Balaam the [son of] Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness,

¹⁶ but received a rebuke for his own lawlessness: a speechless donkey, speaking with a human voice, restrained the prophets madness .

¹⁷These [people] are waterless springs and mists driven by a hurricane, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved.

¹⁸_For by speaking high-sounding but empty words_ , they entice with desires of the flesh [and] with licentiousness those who are scarcely escaping from those who live in error,

¹⁹promising them freedom [although they] themselves are slaves of depravity.
For to whatever someone succumbs, by this he is enslaved.

²⁰For if, [after they] have escaped from the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and they are again entangled in these [things] [and] succumb to [them], the last [state] has become worse for them than the first.

²¹For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than having known [it], to turn back from the holy commandment that had been delivered to them.

²²The [statement] of the true proverb has happened to them, "A dog returns to its own vomit," and "A sow, [after] washing herself, [returns] to wallowing in the mud."

3¹ Dear friends, this [is] already the second letter I am writing to you, in [both of] which I am attempting to stir up your sincere mind by a reminder,

²to remember the words proclaimed beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles,

³above all knowing this, that in the last days scoffers will come with scoffing, following according to their own desires

⁴and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For _ever since_ the fathers fell asleep, all [things] have continued just as they have been from the beginning of creation.

⁵For [when] they maintain this, it escapes [their] notice that the heavens existed long ago and the earth held together out of water and through water by the word of God, ⁶by means of which things the world that existed at that time was destroyed [by] being inundated with water.

⁷But by the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people.

⁸Now, dear friends, do not let this one thing escape your [notice], that one day with the Lord [is] like a thousand years, and a thousand years [is] like one day.

⁹The Lord is not delaying the promise, as some consider slowness, but is being patient toward you, [because he] does not want any to perish, but all to come to repentance.

¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will disappear with a rushing noise, and the celestial bodies will be destroyed [by] being burned up, and the earth and the deeds [done] on it will be disclosed.

¹¹[Because] all these things are being destroyed in this way, what sort of [people] must you be in holy behavior and godliness,

¹²[while] waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed [by] being burned up and the celestial bodies will melt [as they] are consumed by heat!

¹³ But according to his promise, we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness resides.

¹⁴ Therefore, dear friends, [because you] are waiting for these [things], make every effort to be found at peace, spotless and unblemished in him.

¹⁵ And regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as also our dear brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom that was given to him, ¹⁶ as [he does] also in all [his] letters, speaking in them about these [things], in which there are some [things] hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable distort to their own destruction, as [they] also [do] the rest of the scriptures.

¹⁷ Therefore, dear friends, [because you] know [this] beforehand, guard yourselves so that you do not lose your own safe position [because you] have been led away by the error of lawless persons.

¹⁸But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him [be] the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 John

1 ¹What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and our hands have touched, concerning the word of life

²and the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and announce to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was revealed to us

³what we have seen and heard, we announce to you also, in order that you also may have fellowship with us, and indeed our fellowship [is] with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

⁴And these [things] we write, in order that our joy may be complete.

⁵And this is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light and there [is] no darkness in him at all.

⁶If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

⁷ But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

⁸ If we say that we do not have sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, so that he will forgive us [our] sins and will cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

¹⁰ If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2¹ My little children, I am writing these [things] to you in order that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous [one],

² and he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for [the sins of] the whole world.

³ And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.

⁴ The one who says "I have come to know him," and does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this person.

⁵But whoever keeps his word, truly in this person the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in him.

⁶The one who says [that he] resides in him ought also to walk in this way: just as that one walked.

⁷Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the message which you have heard.

⁸Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light already is shining.

⁹The one who says [he] is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness until now.

¹⁰The one who loves his brother resides in the light, and [there] is no cause for stumbling in him.

¹¹But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

¹²I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you on account of his name.

¹³I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known the [One who is] from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have conquered the evil one.

¹⁴I have written to you, children, because you have known the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you have known the [One who is] from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God resides in you, and you have conquered the evil one.

¹⁵Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, ¹⁶because everything [that is] in the worldthe desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the arrogance of material possessionsis not from the Father, but is from the world.

¹⁷ And the world is passing away, and its desire, but the one who does the will of God remains _forever_ .

¹⁸ Children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen, by which we know that it is the last hour.

¹⁹ They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us. But [they went out] , in order that it might be shown that all of them are not of us.

²⁰ And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.

²¹ I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because every lie is not of the truth.

²² Who is the liar except the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This person is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

²³ Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father [either]; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.

²⁴ [As for] you, what you have heard from the beginning must remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.

²⁵ And this is the promise which he himself promised us: eternal life.

²⁶ These [things] I have written to you concerning the ones who are trying to deceive you.

²⁷ And [as for] you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not have need that anyone teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all [things], and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you reside in him.

²⁸ And now, little children, remain in him, so that whenever he is revealed we may have confidence and not be put to shame before him at his coming.

²⁹ If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone also who practices righteousness has been fathered by him.

3¹ See what sort of love the Father has given to us: that we should be called children of God, and we are! Because of this the world does not know us: because it did not know him.

²Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever he is revealed we will be like him, because we will see him just as he is.

³And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as that one is pure.

⁴Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness.

⁵And you know that that one was revealed in order that he might take away sins, and in him [there] is no sin.

⁶Everyone who resides in him does not sin. Everyone who sins has neither seen him nor known him.

⁷Little children, let no one deceive you: the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous.

⁸The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this [reason] the Son of God was revealed: in order to destroy the works of the devil.

⁹Everyone who is fathered by God does not practice sin, because his seed resides in him, and [he is] not able to sin, because he has been fathered by God.

¹⁰By this the children of God and the children of the devil are evident: everyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, namely, the one who does not love his brother.

¹¹For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning: that we should love one another, ¹²not as Cain, who was of the evil one and violently murdered his brother. And _for what reason_ did he violently murder him? Because his deeds were evil and the [deeds] of his brother [were] righteous.

¹³And do not marvel, brothers, if the world hates you.

¹⁴We know that we have passed over from death to life because we love the brothers. The one who does not love remains in death.

¹⁵Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have eternal life residing in him.

¹⁶We have come to know love by this: that _he_ laid down his life on behalf of us, and we ought to lay down our lives on behalf of the brothers.

¹⁷But whoever has the worlds material possessions and observes his brother _in need_ and shuts his heart against him, how does the love of God reside in him?

¹⁸Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and truth.

¹⁹And by this we know that we are of the truth and will convince our heart before him, ²⁰that if our heart condemns us, that God is greater than our heart and knows all [things].

²¹Dear friends, if our heart does not condemn [us], we have confidence before God, ²²and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do [what is] pleasing _in his sight_ .

²³And this is his commandment: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as _he commanded us_ .

²⁴And the one who keeps his commandments resides in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he resides in us: by the Spirit whom he has given to us.

4¹ Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits [to determine] if they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God, and this is the [spirit] of the antichrist, [of] which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world.

⁴You are from God, little children, and have conquered them, because the one [who is] in you is greater than the one [who is] in the world.

⁵They are from the world; _therefore_ they speak from the world and the world listens to them.

⁶We are from God. The one who knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of deceit.

⁷Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been fathered by God and knows God.

⁸The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

⁹By this the love of God is revealed in us: that God sent his one and only Son into the world in order that we may live through him.

¹⁰In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son [to be the] propitiation for our sins.

¹¹Dear friends, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another.

¹²No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God resides in us and his love is perfected in us.

¹³By this we know that we reside in him and he in us: that he has given us of his Spirit.

¹⁴And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son [to be the] Savior of the world.

¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God resides in him and he in God.

¹⁶And we have come to know and have believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one who resides in love resides in God, and God resides in him.

¹⁷By this love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as that one is, [so] also are we in this world.

¹⁸[There] is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear includes punishment, and the one who is afraid has not been perfected in love.

¹⁹We love, because he first loved us.

²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar, for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen is not able to love God whom he has not seen.

²¹And this [is] the commandment we have from him: that the one who loves God should love his brother also.

5¹ Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been fathered by God, and everyone who loves _the father_ also loves the [child] fathered by him.

²By this we know that we love the children of God: whenever we love God and keep his commandments.

³For this is the love of God: that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, ⁴because everyone who is fathered by God conquers the world. @ And this is the victory which has conquered the world: our faith.

⁵Now who is the one who conquers the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

⁶This is the one who came by water and blood Jesus Christ, not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

⁷For [there] are three that testify,

⁸the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are _in agreement_ .

⁹If we receive the testimony of people, the testimony of God is greater, because this is the testimony of God that he has testified concerning his Son.

¹⁰(The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. The one who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified concerning his Son.)

¹¹And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

¹²The one who has the Son has the life; the one who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

¹³These [things] I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, in order that you may know that you have eternal life.

¹⁴And this is the confidence that we have before him: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

¹⁵And if we know that he hears us [in] whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked from him.

¹⁶If anyone should see his brother sinning a sin not [leading] to death, he should ask, and he will grant life to him, to those who sin not [leading] to death. ([There] is a sin [leading] to death; I do not say that he should ask about that.

¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and [there] is a sin not [leading] to death.)

¹⁸We know that everyone who is fathered by God does not sin, but the one fathered by God, he protects him, and the evil one does not touch him.

¹⁹We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in [the power of] the evil one.

²⁰And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, in order that we may know the one who is true, and we are in the one who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This one is the true God and eternal life.

²¹Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

2 John

1 ¹ The elder, to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth and not I alone, but also all those who know the truth

² because of the truth that resides in us and will be with us _forever_ .

³ Grace, mercy, peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Son of the Father in truth and love.

⁴ _I was very glad_ because I found [some] of your children walking in [the] truth, just as _the Father commanded us_ .

⁵ And now I ask you, lady (not as [if I were] writing a new commandment to you, but [one] that we have had from the beginning), that we should love one another.

⁶ And this is love: that we walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in [the] flesh. This person is the deceiver and the antichrist!

⁸Watch yourselves that you do not lose what we have worked for, but receive a full reward.

⁹Everyone who goes too far and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one who remains in the teaching this person has both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into [your] house and do not speak a greeting to him, ¹¹because the one who speaks a greeting to him shares in his evil deeds.

¹²[Although] I have many [things] to write to you, I do not want [to do so] by means of paper and ink, but I hope to be with you and to speak _face to face_, so that our joy may be complete.

¹³The children of your elect sister greet you.

3 John

1 ¹ The elder, to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in [the] truth.

² Dear friend, I pray you may prosper concerning everything and be healthy, just as your soul prospers.

³ For I rejoiced exceedingly [when the] brothers came and testified [to] your truth, just as you are walking in [the] truth.

⁴ I have no greater joy than this: that I hear my children are walking in the truth.

⁵ Dear friend, you act faithfully [in] whatever you do for the brothers, _even though they are strangers_ .

⁶ They have testified [to] your love before the church; you will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

⁷ For they have gone out on behalf of the name, accepting nothing from the pagans.

⁸Therefore we ought to support such [people], so that we become fellow workers with [the] truth.

⁹I wrote something to the church, but Diotrefes, who wants to be first [among] them, does not acknowledge us.

¹⁰Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to _the deeds he is doing_ , disparaging us with evil words. And not being content with these, he does not receive the brothers himself, and he hinders those wanting [to do so] and throws [them] out of the church.

¹¹Dear friend, do not imitate [what is] evil, but [what is] good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

¹²Demetrius has been testified to by all, even by the truth itself. And we also testify [to him], and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³I have many things to write to you, but I do not want to write to you by means of ink and pen.

¹⁴But I hope to see you right away, and to speak _face to face_ .(1-15) Peace

[be] to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

1 ¹ From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James. To those who have been called, who are loved by God the Father, and who are kept safe for Jesus Christ.

² May mercy, peace, and love fill your lives!

³ Dear friends, I had intended to write to you about the salvation we share. But something has come up. It demands that I write to you and encourage you to continue your fight for the Christian faith that was entrusted to Gods holy people once for all time.

⁴ Some people have slipped in among you unnoticed. Not long ago they were condemned in writing for the following reason: They are people to whom God means nothing. They use Gods kindness as an excuse for sexual freedom and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁵ I want to remind you about what you already know: The Lord once saved his people from Egypt. But on another occasion he destroyed those who didn't believe.

⁶He held angels for judgment on the great day. They were held in darkness, bound by eternal chains. These are the angels who didn't keep their position of authority but abandoned their assigned place.

⁷What happened to Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities near them is an example for us of the punishment of eternal fire. The people of these cities suffered the same fate that God's people and the angels did, because they committed sexual sins and engaged in homosexual activities.

⁸Yet, in a similar way, the people who slipped in among you are dreamers. They contaminate their bodies with sin, reject the Lord's authority, and insult his glory.

⁹When the archangel Michael argued with the devil, they were arguing over the body of Moses. But Michael didn't dare to hand down a judgment against the devil. Instead, Michael said, "May the Lord reprimand you!"

¹⁰Whatever these people don't understand, they insult. Like animals, which are creatures of instinct, they use whatever they know to destroy themselves.

¹¹How horrible it will be for them! They have followed the path of Cain. They have rushed into Balaam's error to make a profit. They have rebelled like Korah and destroyed themselves.

¹²These people are a disgrace at the special meals you share with other believers. They eat with you and don't feel ashamed. They are shepherds who care only for themselves. They are dry clouds blown around by the winds. They are withered, uprooted trees without any fruit. As a result, they have died twice.

¹³Their shame is like the foam on the wild waves of the sea. They are wandering stars for whom gloomy darkness is kept forever.

¹⁴Furthermore, Enoch, from the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about them. He said, "The Lord has come with countless thousands of his holy angels.

¹⁵He has come to judge all these people. He has come to convict all these ungodly sinners for all the ungodly things they have done and all the harsh things they have said about him."

¹⁶These people complain, find fault, follow their own desires, say arrogant things, and flatter people in order to take advantage of them.

¹⁷Dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ told you to expect:

¹⁸"In the last times people who ridicule God will appear. They will follow their own ungodly desires."

¹⁹These are the people who cause divisions. They are concerned about physical things, not spiritual things.

²⁰Dear friends, use your most holy faith to grow. Pray with the Holy Spirits help.

²¹Remain in Gods love as you look for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you eternal life.

²²Show mercy to those who have doubts.

²³Save others by snatching them from the fire of hell. Show mercy to others, even though you are afraid that you might be stained by their sinful lives.

²⁴ God can guard you so that you don't fall and so that you can be full of joy as you stand in his glorious presence without fault.

²⁵ Before time began, now, and for eternity glory, majesty, power, and authority belong to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Revelation

1 ¹ The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his slaves [the things] which must take place in a short time, and communicated [it] [by] sending [it] through his angel to his slave John,

² who testified about the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, all that he saw.

³ Blessed [is] the one who reads aloud and [blessed are] those who hear the words of the prophecy and observe the things written in it, because the time [is] near!

⁴ John, to the seven churches in Asia: grace to you and peace from the one who is and the one who was and the one who is coming, and from the seven spirits who [are] before his throne,

⁵ and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To the one who loves us and released us from our sins by his blood ⁶and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father to him [be] the glory and the power _forever and ever_. Amen.

⁷Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even every one who pierced him, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Yes, amen.

⁸I am the Alpha and the Omega, says the Lord God, the one who is and the one who was and the one who is coming, the All-Powerful.

⁹I, John, your brother and co-sharer in the affliction and kingdom and steadfastness in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony about Jesus.

¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lords day, and I heard behind me a great sound like a trumpet ¹¹saying, "What you see, write in a book and send [it] to the seven churches: to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.

¹²And I turned to see the voice which was speaking with me, and [when I] turned, I saw seven gold lampstands, ¹³and in the midst of the lampstands [one] like a son of man, dressed in [a robe] reaching to the feet and girded around his chest [with] a golden belt,

¹⁴and his head and hair [were] white like wool, white as snow, and his eyes [were] like a fiery flame,

¹⁵and his feet [were] like fine bronze when it has been fired in a furnace, and his voice [was] like the sound of many waters,

¹⁶and [he] had in his right hand seven stars, and a sharp double-edged sword coming out of his mouth, and his face [was] like the sun shining in its strength.

¹⁷And when I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead person, and he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid! I am the first and the last, ¹⁸and the one who lives, and I was dead, and behold, I am living _forever and ever_, and I hold the keys of death and of Hades.

¹⁹Therefore, write [the things] which you saw, and [the things] which are,

and [the things] which are about to take place after these [things].

²⁰[As for] the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lampstands the seven stars are [the] angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are [the] seven churches.

2¹"To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: "This is what the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand says, the one who walks in the midst of the seven gold lampstands:

²I know your works, and your labor and patient endurance, and that you are not able to tolerate evil, and you put to the test those who call themselves apostles and are not, and you found them [to be] false.

³And you have patient endurance, and have endured [many things] because of my name, and have not become weary.

⁴But I have [this] against you: that you have left your first love.

⁵Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do _the works you did at first_. But if you do not, I am coming to you, and I will remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

⁶But you do have this: that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, [things] which I also hate.

⁷The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will grant to him to eat from the tree of life which is in the paradise of God.

⁸"And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: "This is what the first and the last says, who was dead and came to life:

⁹I know your affliction and poverty (but you are rich), and the slander of those _who call themselves Jews_ and are not, but [are] a synagogue of Satan.

¹⁰Do not be afraid of [the things] which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw [some] of you into prison so that you may be tested, and you will experience affliction ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will never be harmed by the second death.

¹²"And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: "This is what the one who has the sharp double-edged sword says:

¹³I know where you live, where the throne of Satan [is]. And you hold fast to my name and did not deny your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan lives.

¹⁴But I have a few [things] against you: that you have there those who hold fast to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.

¹⁵So likewise you also have those who hold fast to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

¹⁶Therefore repent! But if you do not, I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war with them with the sword from my mouth.

¹⁷The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give to him

[some] of the hidden manna, and I will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, that no one knows except the one who receives [it].

¹⁸"And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: "This is what the Son of God says, the one who has his eyes like a fiery flame and his feet like fine bronze:

¹⁹I know your works, and your love, and faith, and service, and patient endurance and your last works [are] greater than the first.

²⁰But I have against you that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, the one who calls herself a prophetess, and teaches and deceives my slaves to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

²¹And I have given her time in order to repent, and she did not want to repent from her sexual immorality.

²²Behold, I am throwing her into a sickbed and those who committed adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent from her deeds.

²³And I will kill her children with deadly disease, and all the churches will know that I am the one who searches minds and hearts, and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

²⁴ But I say to you, to the rest [who are] in Thyatira, all those who do not hold this teaching, who have not known the deep [things] of Satan, as they say, I do not put upon you any other burden.

²⁵ Nevertheless, hold fast to what you have until I come.

²⁶ And the one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, I will give him authority over the nations,

²⁷ and "he will shepherd them with an iron rod; he will break [them] in pieces like jars made of clay,"

²⁸ as I also have received from my Father, and I will give him the morning star.

²⁹ The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

3¹ "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: "This is what the one who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says: I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, and you are dead.

²Be on the alert and strengthen the remaining [things] that are about to die, for I have not found your works completed before my God.

³Therefore remember how you have received and heard, and observe [it], and repent. If therefore you are not on the alert, I will come like a thief, and you will never know [at] what hour I will come against you.

⁴But you have a few _people_ in Sardis who have not defiled their clothing, and they will walk with me in white, because they are worthy.

⁵The one who conquers in this way will be dressed in white clothing, and I will never erase his name from the book of life, and I will declare his name before my Father and before his angels.

⁶The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

⁷"And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: "This is what the holy one, the true one, the one who has the key of David, the one who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one can open, says:

⁸I know your works (behold, I have put before you an opened door that no one is able to shut) that you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and did not deny my name.

⁹Behold, I am causing [those] of the synagogue of Satan, the ones who call themselves Jews and are not, but are lying behold, I will make them _come_ and kneel down before your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you.

¹⁰Because you have kept the word of my patient endurance, I also will keep you from the hour of testing that is about to come upon the whole inhabited world, to put to the test those who live on the earth.

¹¹I am coming quickly! Hold fast to what you have, so that no one may take away your crown.

¹²The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never go outside again, and I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem that comes down from heaven from my God, and my new name.

¹³The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

¹⁴"And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: "This is what the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the originator of Gods creation, says:

¹⁵I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were cold or hot!

¹⁶Thus, because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth!

¹⁷Because you are saying, "I am rich, and have become rich, and I have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and pitiable and poor and blind and naked, ¹⁸I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire, in order that you may become rich, and white clothing, in order that you may be clothed and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed, and eye salve to smear on your eyes, in order that you may see.

¹⁹As many as I love, I reprove and discipline. Be zealous, therefore, and repent!

²⁰ Behold, I stand at the door and knock! If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, indeed I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with me.

²¹ The one who conquers, I will grant to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also have conquered and have sat down with my Father on his throne.

²² The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

4¹ After these [things] I looked, and behold, an open door in heaven, and the former voice that I had heard like a trumpet speaking with me was saying, "Come up here and I will show you [the things] which must take place after these [things]."

² Immediately I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one was seated on the throne.

³ And the one seated [was] similar in appearance to jasper and carnelian stone, and a rainbow [was] around the throne similar in appearance to emerald.

⁴ And around the throne [were] twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones [were] twenty-four elders dressed in white clothing, and on their heads [were] gold crowns.

⁵And from the throne came out lightnings and sounds and thunders, and seven torches of fire [were] burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

⁶And before the throne [was something] like a sea of glass, like crystal, and in the midst of the throne and around the throne [were] four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back.

⁷And the first living creature [was] similar to a lion, and the second living creature [was] similar to an ox, and the third living creature had a face like a mans, and the fourth living creature [was] similar to an eagle flying.

⁸And the four living creatures, _each one_ of them, had six wings apiece, full of eyes around and inside, and they do not have rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy [is] the Lord God All-Powerful, the one who was and the one who is and the one who is coming!

⁹And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, the one who lives _forever and ever_ ,

¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives _forever and ever_ , and put down their crowns before the throne, saying,

¹¹You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, because you have created all [things], and because of your will they existed and were created.

5¹ And I saw in the right hand of the one who is seated on the throne a scroll, written inside and on the back, sealed up with seven seals.

² And I saw a powerful angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who [is] worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?"

³ And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it.

⁴ And I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

⁵ And one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! Behold, the lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its seven seals.

⁶And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the elders a Lamb standing as though slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the earth.

⁷And he came and took [the scroll] from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne.

⁸And when he took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one of whom had a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

⁹And they were singing a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered, and bought [people] for God by your blood from every tribe and language and people and nation, ¹⁰and made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.

¹¹ And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and of the living creatures and of the elders, and their number was ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands times thousands,

¹² saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!

¹³ And I heard every creature that [is] in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and in the sea and everything in them saying, "To the one who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb [be] praise and honor and glory and power _forever and ever_ .

¹⁴ And the four living creatures were saying, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.

6¹ And I watched when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying like the sound of thunder, "Come!

² And I looked, and behold, a white horse, and the one seated on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and in order that he might conquer.

³And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!

⁴And another horse came out, fiery red, and it was granted to the one seated on it to take peace from the earth, and that they would slaughter one another, and a large sword was given to him.

⁵And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a black horse, and the one seated on it had a balance scale in his hand.

⁶And I heard [something] like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not damage the olive oil and the wine!

⁷And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice from the fourth living creature saying, "Come!

⁸And I looked, and behold, a pale green horse, and the one seated on it _was named_ Death, and Hades followed after him. And authority was granted to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill by the sword and by famine and by pestilence and by the wild beasts of the earth.

⁹And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the word of God and because of the testimony which they had,

¹⁰and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "_How long_ , holy and true Lord, will you not judge and avenge our blood from those who live on the earth?

¹¹And to each one of them a white robe was given, and it was said to them that they should rest yet a short time, until [the number of] their fellow slaves and their brothers who were about to be killed as they [had been] were completed also.

¹²And I watched when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake took place, and the sun became black like sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood, ¹³and the stars of heaven fell to the earth like a fig tree throws down its unripe figs [when] shaken by a great wind.

¹⁴And the sky was split apart like a scroll that is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved from their place.

¹⁵And the kings of the earth, and the most important people, and the military leaders, and the rich, and the powerful, and every slave and free person hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

¹⁶And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷because the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?

7¹After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind could blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

²And I saw another angel ascending _from the east_, holding the seal of the living God, and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels _who were given permission_ to damage the earth and the sea, ³saying, "Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the slaves of our God on their foreheads.

⁴And I heard the number of the ones who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

⁵from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand sealed, from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand,

⁶from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand,

⁷from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand, ⁸from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

⁹After these [things] I looked, and behold, a great crowd that no one was able to number, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed [in] white robes and [with] palm branches in their hands.

¹⁰And they were crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!

¹¹And all the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, "Amen! Praise and glory, and wisdom and thanksgiving, and honor and power and strength [be] to our God _forever and ever_ . Amen!

¹³And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are dressed [in] the white robes who are [they], and from where have they come?

¹⁴And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵Because of this, they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne _will shelter_ them.

¹⁶They will not be hungry [any] longer or be thirsty [any] longer, nor will the sun ever beat down on them, nor any heat,

¹⁷because the Lamb [who is] in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and will lead them to springs of living waters, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8¹ And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven [for] about half an hour.

²And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³And another angel who had a golden censer came and stood at the altar, and a large amount of incense was given to him, in order that he could offer the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that [is] before the throne.

⁴And the smoke of the incense went up before God with the prayers of the saints from the hand of the angel.

⁵And the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire from the altar and threw [it] to the earth, and there were thunders and sounds and lightnings and an earthquake.

⁶And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves in order to blow them.

⁷And the first blew the trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown to the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸And the second angel blew the trumpet, and [something] like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood, ⁹and a third of the creatures in the sea the ones which had lived died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰And the third angel blew the trumpet, and a great star burning like a torch fell from heaven, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

¹¹And the name of the star was called Wormwood, and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters because they were made bitter.

¹²And the fourth angel blew the trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened, and the day did not shine [with respect to] a third of it, and the night likewise.

¹³And I looked, and I heard one eagle flying _directly overhead_ , saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who live on the earth, from the remaining sounds of the trumpets of the three angels who are about to blow the trumpet!

9¹And the fifth angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth, and the key of the shaft of the abyss was given to him.

²And he opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke went up from the shaft like smoke from a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the shaft.

³And out of the smoke locusts came to the earth, and power was given to them like the scorpions of the earth have power.

⁴And it was told to them that they should not damage the grass of the earth or any green [plant] or any tree, except those people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

⁵And it was granted to them that they should not kill them, but that they would be tormented five months, and their torment [is] like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a person.

⁶And in those days people will seek death and will never find it, and they will long to die, and death will flee from them.

⁷And the appearance of the locusts [was] like horses prepared for battle, and on their heads [were something] like crowns similar in appearance to gold, and their faces [were] like mens faces,

⁸and they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like [the teeth] of lions,

⁹and they had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings [was] like the sound of many horse-drawn chariots running into battle.

¹⁰And they have tails similar in appearance to scorpions, and stings, and their power to injure people [for] five months [is] in their tails.

¹¹They have [as] king over them the angel of the abyss, _whose name_ in Hebrew [is] Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

¹²The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still coming after these [things].

¹³And the sixth angel blew the trumpet, and I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar [that is] before God ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel, the one who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who have been bound at the great river Euphrates!

¹⁵And the four angels who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year were released, in order that they should kill a third of humanity.

¹⁶And the number of the troops of the cavalry [was] _two hundred million_ ; I heard the number of them.

¹⁸ By these three plagues a third of humanity was killed by the fire and the smoke and the sulphur that came out of their mouths.

¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails [are] similar in appearance to snakes, having heads, and with them they cause injury.

²⁰ And the rest of humanity who were not killed by these plagues did not repent of the works of their hands, _in order not to worship_ the demons and the gold and silver and bronze and stone and wooden idols, which are able neither to see nor to hear nor to walk, ²¹ and they did not repent of their murders or of their magic spells or of their sexual immorality or of their thefts.

10¹ And I saw another powerful angel descending from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, and a rainbow over his head, and his face [was] like the sun, and his feet [were] like pillars of fire,

² and holding in his hand a little scroll that was opened. And he put his right foot on the sea and his left on the land.

³ And he cried out with a loud voice like a lion roars, and when he cried out, the seven thunders sounded their own voices.

⁴ And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write, and I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up [the things] which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them!

⁵ And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven

⁶ and swore by the one who lives _forever and ever_, who created heaven and the [things] in it, and the earth and the [things] in it, and the sea and the [things] in it, "There will be no more delay!

⁷ But in the days of the sound of the seventh angel, whenever he is about to blow the trumpet, then the mystery of God is completed, as he announced to his own slaves the prophets.

⁸And the voice that I had heard from heaven [was] speaking with me again and saying, "Go, take the opened scroll in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.

⁹And I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll, and he said to me, "Take and eat it up, and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.

¹⁰And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it up, and it was sweet as honey in my mouth, and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

¹¹And they said to me, "It is necessary for you to prophesy again about many peoples and nations and languages and kings.

11 ¹And a measuring rod similar in appearance to a staff was given to me, saying, "Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship in it.

²And leave out the courtyard outside of the temple, and do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city [for] forty two months.

³And I will grant [authority] to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy [for one] thousand two hundred sixty days, dressed in sackcloth.

⁴These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

⁵And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and consumes their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, in this way he must be killed.

⁶These have the authority to shut the sky, so that _it does not rain_ during the days of their prophecy. And they have authority over the waters, to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they wish.

⁷And when they have completed their testimony, the beast that comes up from the abyss will make war with them and will conquer them and will kill them.

⁸And their dead bodies [will lie] in the street of the great city which is called symbolically Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

⁹And [those] from peoples and tribes and languages and nations will see their dead bodies three and a half days, and they will not allow their dead bodies to be placed in a tomb.

¹⁰And those who live on the earth will rejoice over them, and will celebrate and will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth.

¹¹And after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

¹²And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here," and they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.

¹³And at that hour a great earthquake took place, and a tenth of the city collapsed, and seven thousand _people_ were killed by the earthquake, and the rest became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly!

¹⁵And the seventh angel blew the trumpet, and there was a loud voice in heaven saying, "The kingdom of the world has become [the kingdom] of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign _forever and ever_ .

¹⁶And the twenty-four elders [who are] seated on their thrones before God fell down on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying, "We give thanks to you, Lord God All-Powerful, the one who is and the one who was, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.

¹⁸And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and to give their reward to your slaves the prophets and to the saints and to the ones who fear your name, the small and the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth.

¹⁹And the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant appeared in his temple, and there were lightnings and sounds and thunders and an earthquake and large hail.

12¹ And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun and [with] the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars,

² and _who was pregnant_ and was crying out [because she] was having birth pains, and was in torment to give birth.

³ And another sign appeared in heaven, and behold, a great fiery red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads [were] seven royal headbands.

⁴ And his tail swept away a third of the stars from heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, in order that whenever she gave birth to her child he could devour [it].

⁵ And she gave birth to a son, a male [child], who is going to shepherd all the nations with an iron rod, and her child was snatched away to God and to his throne.

⁶ And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared there by God, so that they could feed her there [for one] thousand two hundred sixty days.

⁷ And there was war in heaven; Michael and his angels _fought against_ the dragon, and the dragon and his angels _fought back_ .

⁸ And they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them [any] longer in heaven.

⁹ And the great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

¹⁰ And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, because the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, the one who accuses them before our God day and night.

¹¹ And they conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives until death.

¹² Because of this, rejoice, you heavens, and those who live in them! Woe [to] the earth and [to] the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great anger, [because he] knows that he has little time!

¹³And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male [child].

¹⁴And the two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman, in order that she could fly into the wilderness, to her place where she is fed there [for] a time, and times, and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.

¹⁵And from his mouth the serpent spouted water like a river after the woman, in order that he could make her swept away by a river.

¹⁶And the earth came to the aid of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon had spouted out of his mouth.

¹⁷And the dragon was angry at the woman, and went away to _fight against_ the rest of her children, those who keep the commandments of God and who hold to the testimony about Jesus.

13¹ (12-18) And he stood on the sand of the sea. (13-1) And I saw coming up out of the sea a beast that had ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns ten royal headbands, and on its heads a blasphemous name.

²And the beast that I saw was similar to a leopard, and its feet [were] like a bears, and its mouth [was] like the mouth of a lion, and the dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority.

³And one of its heads [appeared] as though slaughtered to death, and its _fatal wound_ had been healed. And the whole earth was astonished [and followed] after the beast.

⁴And they worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who [is] like the beast, and who is able to make war with him?"

⁵And a mouth was given to him speaking great [things] and blasphemies, and authority to act was given to him [for] forty-two months.

⁶And he opened his mouth for blasphemies toward God, to blaspheme his name and his dwelling, those who live in heaven.

⁷ And it was given to him to make war with the saints and to conquer them. And authority was given to him over every tribe and people and language and nation.

⁸ And all those who live on the earth will worship him, _everyone whose name is not written_ from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who was slaughtered.

⁹ If anyone has an ear, let him hear!

¹⁰ If anyone [is going] into captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone [is] to be killed by the sword, by the sword he [is] to be killed. Here is the patient endurance and the faith of the saints.

¹¹ And I saw another beast coming up from the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he was speaking like a dragon.

¹² And he exercises all the authority of the first beast on behalf of him, and he causes the earth and those who live in it to worship the first beast _whose fatal wound had been healed_ .

¹³And he performs great signs, so that he even causes fire from heaven to come down to the earth before people.

¹⁴And he deceives those who live on the earth because of the signs that it has been granted to him to perform on behalf of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast who has the wound of the sword and [yet] lived.

¹⁵And it was given to him to put breath into the image of the beast, in order that the image of the beast both spoke and caused that all those, unless they worshiped the image of the beast, should be killed.

¹⁶And he causes all [people], the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, that they give them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, ¹⁷and that no one was able to buy or to sell except the one who had the mark the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸Here is wisdom: the one who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is mans number, and his number [is] six hundred sixty-six.

14¹ And I looked, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him one hundred forty-four thousand who had his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads.

² And I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the sound that I heard [was] like harpists playing on their harps.

³ And they were singing [something] like a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who had been bought from the earth.

⁴ These are those who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. These [are] the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were bought from humanity [as] first fruits to God and to the Lamb,

⁵ and in their mouth a lie was not found; they are blameless.

⁶And I saw another angel flying directly overhead , having an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who reside on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and language and people,

⁷saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and the springs of water!

⁸And another second angel followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen [is] Babylon the great, who caused all the nations to drink from the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality.

⁹And another third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,

¹⁰he himself also will drink of the wine of the anger of God that has been mixed full strength in the cup of his wrath, and will be tortured with fire and sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

¹¹And the smoke of their torture went up _forever and ever_ , and those who worshiped the beast and his image did not have rest day and night, _along with anyone who received_ the mark of his name.

¹²Here is the patient endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith in Jesus.

¹³And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write: Blessed [are] the dead who die in the Lord from now on!" "Yes," says the Spirit, "in order that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow after them."

¹⁴And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud was seated [one] like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

¹⁵And another angel came out of the temple, crying out with a loud voice to the one seated on the cloud, "Send out your sickle and reap, because the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe!"

¹⁶And the one seated on the cloud swung his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷ And another angel came out of the temple [that is] in heaven; he also had a sharp sickle.

¹⁸ And another angel who had authority over the fire went out from the altar, and he called out with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send out your sharp sickle and harvest the clusters of grapes from the vine of the earth, because its grapes are at their prime!

¹⁹ And the angel swung his sickle into the earth and harvested the vine of the earth, and threw [the grapes] into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

²⁰ And the winepress was stomped outside the city, and blood went out from the winepress up to the bridles of the horses, about one thousand six hundred stadia.

15¹ And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having seven plagues [that are] the last [ones], because with them the wrath of God is completed.

² And I saw [something] like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and his image and the number of his name were standing by the glassy sea, holding harps from God.

³And they were singing the song of Moses, the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvelous [are] your works, Lord God All-Powerful; righteous and true [are] your ways, King of the nations!

⁴Who would never fear, Lord, and glorify your name? For only you [are] holy, because all the nations will come and worship before you, because your righteous deeds have been revealed.

⁵And after these [things] I looked, and the temple, the tent of the testimony in heaven, was opened, ⁶and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out from the temple, dressed [in] clean, bright linen garments, and girded with golden belts around their chests.

⁷And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives _forever and ever_ ,

⁸and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16¹ And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God.

² And the first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and there was an evil and painful sore on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.

³ And the second poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood, like [that] of a dead person, and every living thing [that was] in the sea died.

⁴ And the third poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.

⁵ And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, the one who is and the one who was, the Holy One, because you have judged these [things], ⁶ because they have poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink; they are deserving!

⁷And I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God All-Powerful, true and righteous [are] your judgments.

⁸And the fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was granted to it to burn up people with fire.

⁹And people were burned up [by the] great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has the authority over these plagues, and they did not repent to give him glory.

¹⁰And the fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened, and they began chewing their tongues because of the pain.

¹¹And they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and because of their sores, and they did not repent of their deeds.

¹²And the sixth poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, in order that the way would be prepared for the kings from _the east_ .

¹³And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet three unclean spirits like frogs.

¹⁴For they are the spirits of demons performing signs that go out to the kings of the whole inhabited world, to gather them for the battle of the great day of God the All-Powerful.

¹⁵(Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed [is] the one who is on the alert and who keeps his clothing, so that he does not walk around naked and they see his shamefulness!)

¹⁶And he gathered them to the place called in Hebrew Armageddon.

¹⁷And the seventh poured out his bowl on the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!

¹⁸And there were lightnings and sounds and thunders, and there was a great earthquake, as has not happened from the [time] humanity has been on the earth so great in this way [was] the earthquake.

¹⁹And the great city was [split] into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of his furious wrath.

²⁰And every island fled, and mountains were not found.

²¹And large hailstones, weighing about a hundred pounds, came down from the sky upon people, and the people blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, because the plague of it was very great.

17¹And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who live on the earth became drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality.

³And he carried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman seated on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.

⁴And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, holding a golden cup in her hand full of detestable things and the unclean things of her sexual immorality.

⁵And on her forehead a name [was] written, a mystery: "Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes and of the detestable things of the earth.

⁶And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. And _I was greatly astonished when I saw her_ .

⁷And the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that has the seven heads and the ten horns that carries her.

⁸The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is going to come up from the abyss, and he is going to destruction. And those who live on the earth, whose names are not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will be astonished [when they] see the beast that was, and is not, and will be present.

⁹Here [is] the mind that has wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains _on which the woman sits_ and they are seven kings.

¹⁰Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and whenever he comes it is necessary [for] him to remain a short time.

¹¹And the beast that was, and is not, is also himself an eighth, and is of the seven, and he is going to destruction.

¹²And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings [for] one hour with the beast.

¹³These have one opinion, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.

¹⁴These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him [are] called and chosen and faithful.

¹⁵And he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and crowds and nations and languages.

¹⁶And the ten horns that you saw and the beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her desolate and naked, and they will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire.

¹⁷For God put into their hearts to carry out his purpose and to make _a unanimous decision_ and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.

¹⁸And the woman that you saw is the great city that has sovereignty over the kings of the earth.

18¹After these [things] I saw another angel descending from heaven, who had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor.

²And he cried out with a powerful voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen [is] Babylon the great, and it has become a dwelling place of demons and a haunt of every unclean spirit and a haunt of every unclean bird and a haunt of every unclean and detested animal.

³For all the nations have drunk from the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her sensuality.

⁴And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out from her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins, and so that you will not receive her plagues, ⁵because her sins have reached up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶Pay back to her as she herself also paid out, and _pay back double_ according to her deeds; in the cup that she mixed, mix double for her.

⁷As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give to her so much torment and mourning, because in her heart she said, I sit as a queen, and am not a widow, and I will never see mourning!

⁸Because of this her plagues will come in one day death and mourning and famine and she will be burned up with fire, because the Lord God who passes judgment on her [is] powerful!

⁹And the kings of the earth will weep and mourn over her, those who committed sexual immorality and lived sensually with her, when they see the smoke of her burning, ¹⁰standing _far off_ because of the fear of her torment, saying, "Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon the powerful city, because in one hour your judgment has come!

¹¹ And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any more

¹² cargo of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple cloth and silk and scarlet cloth and all kinds of scented wood and all kinds of ivory goods and all kinds of goods of precious wood and bronze and iron and marble

¹³ and cinnamon and amomum and incense and ointment and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine wheat flour and wheat and domesticated animals and sheep and horses and carriages and _slaves_ and human lives.

¹⁴ And _the fruit your soul desires_ has departed from you, and all the luxury and the splendor has perished from you, and they will never find them any more.

¹⁵ The merchants of these [things], who became rich from them, will stand _far off_ , weeping and mourning because of the fear of her torment, ¹⁶saying, "Woe, woe, the great city, dressed in fine linen and purple cloth and scarlet cloth, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, ¹⁷because in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!" And every shipmaster and _every seafarer_ and sailors and all those who labor on the sea stood _far off_ ¹⁸and began to cry out [when they] saw the smoke of her burning, saying, "Who [is] like the great city?

¹⁹And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, "Woe, woe, the great city, in which all those who had ships on the sea became rich from her prosperity, because in one hour she has been laid waste!

²⁰Rejoice over her, heaven and the saints and the apostles and the prophets, because God has pronounced your judgment on her!

²¹And one powerful angel picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw [it] into the sea, saying, "In this way Babylon the great city will be thrown down with violence, and will never be found again!

²²And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute players and trumpeters will never be heard in you again! And every craftsman of every trade will never be found in you again! And the sound of a mill will never be heard in you again!

²³And the light of a lamp will never shine in you again! And the sound of a bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again! For your merchants were the most important people of the earth, because with your sorcery they deceived all the nations.

²⁴And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints and all those who had been slaughtered on the earth.

19¹After these [things] I heard [something] like the loud sound of a great crowd in heaven saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God,

²because his judgments [are] true and righteous, because he has passed judgment on the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and has avenged the blood of his slaves _shed by_ her hand!

³And a second time they said, "Hallelujah!" And her smoke goes up _forever and ever_ .

⁴And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!

⁵And a voice came out from the throne, saying, "Praise our God all his slaves, and those who fear him, the small and the great!

⁶And I heard [something] like the sound of a great crowd and [something] like the sound of many waters and [something] like the sound of powerful thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the All-Powerful reigns!

⁷Let us rejoice and be glad and give him the glory, because the wedding celebration of the Lamb has come, and his bride has prepared herself.

⁸And it has been granted to her that she be dressed in bright, clean fine linen (for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints).

⁹And he said to me, "Write: Blessed [are] those who are invited to the banquet of the wedding celebration of the Lamb!" And he said to me, "These are the true words of God.

¹⁰And I fell down before his feet to worship him, and he said to me, "_Do not do that!_ I am a fellow slave of you and of your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

¹¹And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and the one seated on it was called "Faithful" and "True," and with justice he judges and makes war.

¹²Now his eyes [were] like a flame of fire, and on his head [were] many royal headbands having a name written that no one except he himself knows.

¹³And [he was] dressed in an outer garment dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of God.

¹⁴And the armies [that are] in heaven, dressed in clean, white fine linen, were following him on white horses.

¹⁵And out of his mouth came a sharp sword, so that with it he could strike the nations. And he will shepherd them with an iron rod, and he stomps the winepress of the wine of the furious wrath of God, the All-Powerful.

¹⁶And he has a name written on his outer garment and on his thigh: "King of kings and Lord of lords.

¹⁷And I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly _directly overhead_ , "Come! Assemble for the great banquet of God, ¹⁸in order that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of military tribunes, and the flesh of the powerful, and the flesh of horses and those seated on them, and the flesh of all [people], both free and slave, and small and great!

¹⁹And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies assembled to make war with the one who is seated on the horse and with his army.

²⁰And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs before him, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who had worshiped his image. The two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulphur.

²¹ And the rest were killed by the sword of the one who is seated on the horse the [sword] that comes out of his mouth and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

20¹ And I saw an angel descending from heaven, holding the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

² And he seized the dragon the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan and bound him [for] a thousand years,

³ and threw him into the abyss, and shut [it] and sealed [it] above him, in order that he could not deceive the nations again until the thousand years are completed. After these [things] it is necessary [for] him to be released [for] a short time.

⁴ And I saw thrones, and they sat down on them, and authority to judge was granted to them. And [I saw] the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand, and they came to life and reigned with Christ [for] a thousand years.

⁵(The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed.) This [is] the first resurrection.

⁶Blessed and holy [is] the one who has a part in the first resurrection. Over this person the second death has no authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him [for] the thousand years.

⁷And when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison

⁸and he will go out to deceive the nations [that are] at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to assemble them for battle, _whose number_ [is] like the sand of the sea.

⁹And they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the fortified camp of the saints and the beloved city, and fire came down from heaven and consumed them.

¹⁰And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur, where the beast and the false prophet also [are], and they will be tormented day and night _forever and ever_ .

¹¹And I saw a great white throne and the one who was seated on it, _from whose presence_ earth and heaven fled, and a place was not found for them.

¹²And I saw the deadthe great and the smallstanding before the throne, and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the [book] of life, and the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to their deeds.

¹³And the sea gave up the dead [who were] in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead [who were] in them, and each one was judged according to their deeds.

¹⁴And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second deaththe lake of fire.

¹⁵And if anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

21 ¹ And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea did not exist [any] longer.

² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God [is] with humanity, and he will take up residence with them, and they will be his people and God himself will be with them [as] their God.

⁴ And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not exist [any] longer, and mourning or wailing or pain will not exist [any] longer, because the former [things] have passed away.

⁵ And the one seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all [things] new!" And he said, "Write, because these words are faithful and true.

⁶ And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the one who is thirsty I will give [water] from the spring of the water of life freely.

⁷The one who conquers will inherit these [things], and I will be _his God_ and he will be _my son_ .

⁸But [as] for the cowards and unbelievers and detestable persons and murderers and sexually immoral people and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their share [is] in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death.

⁹And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.

¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and lofty mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹ that has the glory of God. Its radiance [is] like a precious stone, [something] like a jasper stone, shining like crystal.

¹²It has a great and high wall that has twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on [the gates] which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel ¹³on the east, three gates, and on the north, three gates, and on the south, three gates, and on the west, three gates.

¹⁴And the wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them [are] twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵And the one who spoke with me was holding a golden measuring rod in order that he could measure the city and its gates and its wall.

¹⁶And the city is laid out as a square, and its length is the same as [its] width. And he measured the city with the measuring rod at twelve thousand stadia; the length and the width and the height of it are equal.

¹⁷And he measured its wall, one hundred forty-four cubits _according to human measure_, which is the angels.

¹⁸And the material of its wall [is] jasper, and the city [is] pure gold, similar in appearance to pure glass.

¹⁹The foundations of the wall of the city are adorned with every kind of precious stone: the first foundation jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

²⁰ the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

²¹ And the twelve gates [are] twelve pearls, each one of the gates was from a single pearl. And the street of the city [is] pure gold, like transparent glass.

²² And I did not see a temple in it, for the Lord God All-Powerful is its temple, and the Lamb.

²³ And the city has no need of the sun or of the moon, that they shine on it, for the glory of God illuminates it, and its lamp [is] the Lamb.

²⁴ And the nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

²⁵ And its gates will never be shut by day (for there will be no night there), ²⁶ and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.

²⁷ And every unclean person and the one who practices detestable things and falsehood will never enter into it, except those who are written in the book of life of the Lamb.

22¹ And he showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming out from the throne of God and of the Lamb

² in the middle of its street, and _on both sides of the river_ [is] the tree of life, producing twelve fruitsyielding its fruit according to every monthand the leaves of the tree [are] for the healing of the nations.

³ And there will not be any curse [any] longer, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his slaves will serve him,

⁴ and they will see his face, and his name [will be] on their foreheads.

⁵ And night will not exist [any] longer, and they will not have need of the light of a lamp and of the light of the sun, because the Lord God will give light to them. And they will reign _forever and ever_ .

⁶ And he said to me, "These words [are] faithful and true, and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his slaves [the things] which must take place in a short time.

⁷And behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed [is] the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.

⁸And I, John, [am] the one who heard and who saw these [things]. And when I heard and saw [them], I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed these [things] to me.

⁹And he said to me, "_Do not do that!_ I am your fellow slave, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!

¹⁰And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near!

¹¹The one who does evil, let him do evil still, and the defiled, let him be defiled still, and the righteous, let him practice righteousness still, and the holy, let him be holy still.

¹²Behold, I am coming quickly, and my reward [is] with me, to repay each one according to [what] his deeds are!

¹³I [am] the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.

¹⁴Blessed [are] the ones who wash their robes, so that their authority will be over the tree of life and they may enter into the city through the gates.

¹⁵Outside [are] the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral people and the murderers and the idolaters and everyone who loves and who practices falsehood.

¹⁶I, Jesus, sent my angel to testify to you about these [things] for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.

¹⁷And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And the one who hears, let him say, "Come!" And the one who is thirsty, let him come. The one who wants, let him take the water of life freely.

¹⁸I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues written in this book.

¹⁹And if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share of the tree of life and from the holy city that are written in this book.

²⁰The one who testifies about these [things] says, "Yes, I am coming quickly!" Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹The grace of the Lord Jesus [be] with all.
