From the wicked who stalk us with lies,
<sup>8</sup> From the wicked who collect honors
For their wonderful lies.

ignored me long enough. I've looked at the back of your head long enough.

trouble, lived with a stomach full of pain.
Long enough my arrogant enemies have looked down their noses at me.

<sup>3</sup> Take a good look at me, GOD, my God;
I want to look life in the eye,

or laugh when I fall on my face.

arms--I'm celebrating your rescue.

so full of answered prayers.

14 <sup>1</sup> Bilious and bloated, they gas, "God is gone." Their words are poison gas, fouling the air; they poison Rivers and skies; thistles are their cash crop.

<sup>7</sup> Is there anyone around to save Israel? Yes. God is around; GOD turns life around. Turned-around Jacob skips rope, turned-around Israel sings laughter.

15 <sup>1</sup> GOD, who gets invited to dinner at your place? How do we get on your guest list?

16 <sup>1</sup> Keep me safe, O God, I've run for dear life to you.

around--what splendid friends they make!

are not for sale. I swear I'll never treat god-names like brand-names.

<sup>5</sup> My choice is you, GOD, first and only.
And now I find I'm [your] choice!

And then you made me your heir!

I'm awake is confirmed by my sleeping heart.

<sup>8</sup> Day and night I'll stick with GOD; I've got a good thing going and I'm not letting go.

<sup>9</sup> I'm happy from the inside out, and from the outside in, I'm firmly formed.

not my destination!

path, all radiant from the shining of your face. Ever since you took my hand, I'm on the right way.

17 <sup>1</sup> Listen while I build my case, GOD, the most honest prayer you'll ever hear.

<sup>3</sup> Go ahead, examine me from inside out, surprise me in the middle of the night--You'll find I'm just what I say I am. My words don't run loose.

<sup>6</sup> I call to you, God, because I'm sure of an answer. So--answer! bend your ear! listen sharp!

running from the neighborhood bullies straight to you.

<sup>8</sup> Keep your eye on me; hide me under your cool wing feathers

me, from mortal enemies closing in.

mouths blast hot air.

determined to bring me down,

By your sword, free me from their clutches;

<sup>14</sup> Barehanded, GOD, break these mortals, these flat-earth people who can't think beyond today. I'd like to see their bellies swollen with famine food,
The weeds they've sown harvested and baked into famine bread, With second helpings for their children and crusts for their babies to chew on.

<sup>15</sup> And me? I plan on looking you full in the face. When I get up, I'll see your full stature and live heaven on earth.

18 <sup>1</sup> I love you, GOD--you make me strong.

<sup>2</sup> GOD is bedrock under my feet, the castle in which I live, my rescuing knight. My God--the high crag where I run for dear life, hiding behind the boulders, safe in the granite hideout.

<sup>6</sup> A hostile world! I call to GOD, I cry to God to help me. From his palace he hears my call; my cry brings me right into his presence--a private audience!

pandemonium! He hurls his lightnings--a rout!

<sup>16</sup> But me he caught--reached all the way from sky to sea; he pulled me out Of that ocean of hate,

<sup>18</sup> They hit me when I was down, but GOD stuck by me.

<sup>37</sup> When I chased my enemies I caught them; I didn't let go till they were dead men.

<sup>38</sup> I nailed them; they were down for good; then I walked all over them.

<sup>12</sup> Otherwise how will we find our way? Or know when we play the fool?

<sup>13</sup> Clean the slate, God, so we can start the day fresh! Keep me from stupid sins, from thinking I can take over your work; Then I can start this day sun-washed, scrubbed clean of the grime of sin.

<sup>14</sup> These are the words in my mouth; these are what I chew on and pray. Accept them when I place them on the morning altar, O God, my Altar-Rock, God, Priest-of-My-Altar.

20 <sup>1</sup> GOD answer you on the day you crash, The name God-of-Jacob put you out of harm's reach,

Accomplish your plans.

<sup>5</sup> When you win, we plan to raise the roof and lead the parade with our banners. May all your wishes come true!

<sup>6</sup> That clinches it--help's coming, an answer's on the way, everything's going to work out.

<sup>7</sup> See those people polishing their chariots, and those others grooming their horses? But we're making garlands for GOD our God.

<sup>8</sup> The chariots will rust, those horses pull up lame--and we'll be on our feet, standing tall.

<sup>9</sup> Make the king a winner, GOD; the day
we call, give us your answer.

21 <sup>1</sup> Your strength, GOD, is the king's strength. Helped, he's hollering Hosannas.

<sup>2</sup> You gave him exactly what he wanted;

<sup>4</sup> He wanted a good life; you gave it to him, and then made it a [long] life as a bonus.

22 <sup>1</sup> God, God...my God! Why did you dump me miles from nowhere?

<sup>14</sup> I'm a bucket kicked over and spilled, every joint in my body has been pulled apart. My heart is a blob of melted wax in my gut.

<sup>15</sup> I'm dry as a bone, my tongue black and swollen. They have laid me out for burial in the dirt.

<sup>16</sup> Now packs of wild dogs come at me; thugs gang up on me. They pin me down hand and foot, <sup>17</sup> and lock me in a cage--a bag Of bones in a cage, stared at by every passerby.

<sup>18</sup> They take my wallet and the shirt off my back, and then throw dice for my clothes.

<sup>24</sup> He has never let you down, never looked the other way when you were being kicked around. He has never wandered off to do his own thing; he has been right there, listening.

walk at my side. Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.

<sup>6</sup> Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life. I'm back home in the house of GOD for the rest of my life.

24 <sup>1</sup> GOD claims Earth and everything in it, God claims World and all who live on it.

<sup>3</sup> I've thrown in my lot with you; You won't embarrass me, will you? Or let my enemies get the best of me? Don't embarrass any of us Who went out on a limb for you. It's the traitors who should be humiliated.

<sup>10</sup> From now on every road you travel Will take you to GOD. Follow the Covenant signs; Read the charted directions.

Forgive my bad life; It's been a very bad life.

<sup>12</sup> My question: What are Godworshippers like? Your answer: Arrows aimed at God's bull's-eye.

<sup>13</sup> They settle down in a promising place; Their kids inherit a prosperous farm.

<sup>14</sup> God-friendship is for God-worshippers;
They are the ones he confides in.

<sup>15</sup> If I keep my eyes on GOD, I won't trip over my own feet.

and in big trouble.

each other; Call a truce to this civil war.

labor, Then lift this ton of sin.

in for me? How viciously they hate me?

<sup>20</sup> Keep watch over me and keep me out of trouble; Don't let me down when I run to you.

26 <sup>1</sup> Clear my name, GOD; I've kept an honest shop. I've thrown in my lot with you, GOD, and I'm not budging.

great circle, dancing around your altar,
GOD,

<sup>7</sup> Singing God-songs at the top of my lungs, telling God-stories.

<sup>8</sup> GOD, I love living with you; your house glows with your glory.

<sup>9</sup> When it's time for spring cleaning, don't sweep me out with the quacks and crooks,

with purses stuffed with bribe-money.

you; now be aboveboard with me.

<sup>12</sup> I'm on the level with you, GOD; I bless you every chance I get.

27 <sup>1</sup> Light, space, zest--that's GOD!
So, with him on my side I'm fearless, afraid of no one and nothing.

to eat me alive, Those bullies and toughs fall flat on their faces.

When all hell breaks loose, I'm collected and cool.

<sup>4</sup> I'm asking GOD for one thing, only one thing: To live with him in his house my whole life long. I'll contemplate his beauty; I'll study at his feet.

a noisy world, The perfect getaway, far from the buzz of traffic.

<sup>6</sup> God holds me head and shoulders above all who try to pull me down. I'm headed for his place to offer anthems that will raise the roof! Already I'm singing God-songs; I'm making music to GOD.

my lungs: "Be good to me! Answer me!"

<sup>8</sup> When my heart whispered, "Seek God," my whole being replied, "I'm seeking him!"

28 <sup>1</sup> Don't turn a deaf ear when I call you, GOD. If all I get from you is deafening silence, I'd be better off in the Black Hole.

calling out for help And lifting my arms toward your inner sanctum.

<sup>3</sup> Don't shove me into the same jail cell with those crooks, With those who are full-time employees of evil.

<sup>4</sup> They talk a good line of "peace," then moonlight for the Devil. Pay them back for what they've done, for how bad they've been. Pay them back for their long hours in the Devil's workshop; Then cap it with a huge bonus.

<sup>5</sup> Because they have no idea how God works or what he is up to, God will smash them to smithereens and walk away from the ruins.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed be GOD--he heard me praying.

<sup>7</sup> He proved he's on my side; I've thrown my lot in with him. Now I'm jumping for joy, and shouting and singing my thanks to him.

ample refuge for his chosen leader;

<sup>9</sup> Save your people and bless your heritage. Care for them; carry them like a good shepherd.

29 <sup>1</sup> Bravo, GOD, bravo! Gods and all angels shout, "Encore!"

God's visible power. Stand at attention!
Dress your best to honor him!

Brilliant, his voice and his face, streaming brightness--GOD, across the flood

thunder symphonic.

<sup>5</sup> GOD's thunder smashes cedars, GOD
topples the northern cedars.

colts, The high ridges jump like wild kid

He makes the desert of Kadesh shake.

dancing A wild dance, whirling; the pelting rain strips their branches. We fall to our knees--we call out, "Glory!"

throne from which his power flows, from which he rules the world.

<sup>11</sup> GOD makes his people strong. GOD gives his people peace.

30 <sup>1</sup> I give you all the credit, GOD-- you got me out of that mess, you didn't let my foes gloat.

<sup>2</sup> GOD, my God, I yelled for help and you put me together.

<sup>3</sup> GOD, you pulled me out of the grave, gave me another chance at life when I was down-and-out.

GOD! Thank him to his face!

<sup>7</sup> I'm GOD's favorite. He made me king of the mountain." Then you looked the other way and I fell to pieces.

<sup>8</sup> I called out to you, GOD; I laid my case before you:

<sup>9</sup> "Can you sell me for a profit when I'm dead? auction me off at a cemetery yard sale? When I'm 'dust to dust' my songs and stories of you won't sell.

<sup>12</sup> I'm about to burst with song; I can't keep quiet about you. GOD, my God, I can't thank you enough.

31 <sup>1</sup> I run to you, GOD; I run for dear life. Don't let me down! Take me seriously this time!

<sup>7</sup> I'm leaping and singing in the circle of your love; you saw my pain, you disarmed my tormentors,

<sup>9</sup> Be kind to me, GOD--I'm in deep, deep trouble again. I've cried my eyes out; I feel hollow inside.

<sup>10</sup> My life leaks away, groan by groan; my years fade out in sighs. My troubles have worn me out, turned my bones to powder.

<sup>19</sup> What a stack of blessing you have piled up for those who worship you, Ready and waiting for all who run to you to escape an unkind world.

<sup>22</sup> I panicked. "Out of sight, out of mind," I said. But you heard me say it, you heard and listened.

<sup>23</sup> Love GOD, all you saints; GOD takes care of all who stay close to him, But he pays back in full those arrogant enough to go it alone.

<sup>5</sup> Then I let it all out; I said, "I'll make a clean breast of my failures to GOD."

Suddenly the pressure was gone--my guilt dissolved, my sin disappeared.

Hallelujahs! Play his praise on a grand

give him a trumpet fanfare.

<sup>4</sup> For GOD's Word is solid to the core; everything he makes is sound inside and out.

<sup>5</sup> He loves it when everything fits,
when his world is in plumb-line true.
Earth is drenched in GOD's affectionate satisfaction.

<sup>6</sup> The skies were made by GOD's command; he breathed the word and the stars popped out.

Ocean in his keg.

<sup>8</sup> Earth-creatures, bow before GOD;
world-dwellers--down on your knees!

<sup>9</sup> Here's why: he spoke and there it was, in place the moment he said so.

javelin, at the people who are out to get me. Reassure me; let me hear you say,
"I'll save you."

<sup>4</sup> When those thugs try to knife me in the back, make them look foolish.
Frustrate all those who are plotting my downfall.

with GOD's angel working the bellows.

mud-slick, with GOD's angel on their

trap to catch me; for no good reason they dug a ditch to stop me.

catch them in the very trap they set, the disaster they planned for me.

<sup>9</sup> But let me run loose and free, celebrating GOD's great work,

<sup>10</sup> Every bone in my body laughing, singing, "GOD, there's no one like you.
You put the down-and-out on their feet and protect the unprotected from bullies!"

nowhere, they stand up and badger me.

<sup>12</sup> They pay me back misery for mercy, leaving my soul empty.

<sup>13</sup> When they were sick, I dressed in black; instead of eating, I prayed.

<sup>14</sup> My prayers were like lead in my gut, like I'd lost my best friend, my brother. I paced, distraught as a motherless child, hunched and heavyhearted.

<sup>15</sup> But when I was down they threw a party! All the nameless riffraff of the town came chanting insults about me.

they destroyed my reputation.

<sup>18</sup> I will give you full credit when everyone gathers for worship; When the people turn out in force I will say my Hallelujahs.

by with it, are you? Not going to walk off without [doing] something, are you?

<sup>25</sup> Don't let them say to themselves, "Ha-ha, we got what we wanted." Don't let them say, "We've chewed him up and spit him out."

<sup>26</sup> Let those who are being hilarious at my expense Be made to look ridiculous. Make them wear donkey's ears; Pin them with the donkey's tail, who made themselves so high and mighty!

36 <sup>1</sup> The God-rebel tunes in to sedition--all ears, eager to sin. He has no regard for God, he stands insolent before him.

high; when the shelves are bare, they'll be full.

<sup>20</sup> God-despisers have had it; GOD's enemies are finished--Stripped bare like vineyards at harvest time, vanished like smoke in thin air.

Righteous gives and gives.

path blazed by GOD, he's happy.

long; GOD has a grip on his hand.

graybeard--not once have I seen an abandoned believer, or his kids out roaming the streets.

his children making him proud.

good and don't quit.

<sup>28</sup> GOD loves this kind of thing, never turns away from his friends. Live this way and you've got it made, but bad eggs will be tossed out.

and put down healthy roots.

dog on a bone, rolls virtue around on his

blood through his veins; his feet are as sure as a cat's.

he's out for the kill.

<sup>33</sup> GOD, alert, is also on watch--Wicked won't hurt a hair of his head.

leave the path. He'll give you your place

38 <sup>1</sup> Take a deep breath, GOD; calm down--don't be so hasty with your punishing rod.

My cousins never visit, my neighbors stab me in the back.

devoutly they pray for my ruin.

shut, mouth shut.

speak a word in response.

for my Lord, my God--you [will] answer!

<sup>16</sup> I wait and pray so they won't laugh me off, won't smugly strut off when I stumble.

in my gut keeps burning.

I'm no longer smug in my sin.

God-haters who can't stand a God-lover.

39 <sup>1</sup> I'm determined to watch steps and tongue so they won't land me in trouble. I decided to hold my tongue as long as Wicked is in the room.

<sup>2</sup> "Mum's the word," I said, and kept quiet. But the longer I kept silence The worse it got-- <sup>3</sup> my insides got hotter and hotter. My thoughts boiled over; I spilled my guts.

<sup>4</sup> "Tell me, what's going on, GOD? How long do I have to live? Give me the bad news!

<sup>6</sup> Oh! we're all puffs of air. Oh! we're all shadows in a campfire. Oh! we're just spit in the wind. We make our pile, and then we leave it.

<sup>11</sup> to purge us from our sin, our dearest idols go up in smoke. Are we also nothing but smoke?

<sup>12</sup> "Ah, GOD, listen to my prayer, my cry--open your ears. Don't be callous; just look at these tears of mine. I'm a stranger here. I don't know my way--a migrant like my whole family.

40 <sup>1</sup> I waited and waited and waited for GOD. At last he looked; finally he listened.

<sup>2</sup> He lifted me out of the ditch, pulled me from deep mud. He stood me up on a solid rock to make sure I wouldn't slip.

<sup>3</sup> He taught me how to sing the latest God-song, a praise-song to our God. More and more people are seeing this: they enter the mystery, abandoning themselves to GOD.

<sup>5</sup> The world's a huge stockpile of GOD-wonders and God-thoughts. Nothing and no one comes close to you! I start talking about you, telling what I know, and quickly run out of words. Neither numbers nor words account for you.

<sup>6</sup> Doing something for you, bringing something to you--that's not what you're after. Being religious, acting pious--that's not what you're asking for. You've opened my ears so I can listen.

<sup>7</sup> So I answered, "I'm coming. I read in your letter what you wrote about me, <sup>8</sup> And I'm coming to the party you're throwing for me." That's when God's Word entered my life, became part of my very being.

<sup>10</sup> I didn't keep the news of your ways a secret, didn't keep it to myself. I told it all, how dependable you are, how thorough. I didn't hold back pieces of love and truth For myself alone. I told it all, let the congregation know the whole story.

<sup>11</sup> Now GOD, don't hold out on me, don't hold back your passion. Your love and truth are all that keeps me together.

<sup>12</sup> When troubles ganged up on me, a mob of sins past counting, I was so swamped by guilt I couldn't see my way clear. More guilt in my heart than hair on my head, so heavy the guilt that my heart gave out.

<sup>14</sup> So those who are trying to kidnap my soul will be embarrassed and lose face, So anyone who gets a kick out of making me miserable will be heckled and disgraced, <sup>15</sup> So those who pray for my ruin will be booed and jeered without mercy.

<sup>16</sup> But all who are hunting for you--oh, let them sing and be happy. Let those who know what you're all about tell the world you're great and not quitting.

me. You can do it; you've got what it takes--but God, don't put it off.

41 <sup>1</sup> Dignify those who are down on their luck; you'll feel good--[that's] what GOD does.

<sup>9</sup> Even my best friend, the one I always told everything--he ate meals at my house all the time!--has bitten my hand.

<sup>12</sup> You know me inside and out, you hold me together, you never fail to stand me tall in your presence so I can look you in the eye.

42 <sup>1</sup> A white-tailed deer drinks from the creek; I want to drink God, deep draughts of God.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you down in the dumps, dear soul? Why are you crying the blues? Fix my eyes on God--soon I'll be praising again. He puts a smile on my face. He's my God.

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD promises to love me all day, sing songs all through the night! My life is God's prayer.

<sup>9</sup> Sometimes I ask God, my rock-solid God, "Why did you let me down? Why am I walking around in tears, harassed by enemies?"

43 <sup>1</sup> Clear my name, God; stick up for me against these loveless, immoral people. Get me out of here, away from these lying degenerates.

<sup>2</sup> I counted on you, God. Why did you walk out on me? Why am I pacing the floor, wringing my hands over these outrageous people?

<sup>3</sup> Give me your lantern and compass, give me a map, So I can find my way to the sacred mountain, to the place of your presence, <sup>4</sup> To enter the place of worship, meet my exuberant God, Sing my thanks with a harp, magnificent God, my God.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you down in the dumps, dear soul? Why are you crying the blues? Fix my eyes on God--soon I'll be praising again. He puts a smile on my face. He's my God.

44 <sup>1</sup> We've been hearing about this, God, all our lives. Our fathers told us the stories their fathers told them,

<sup>3</sup> We didn't fight for this land; we didn't work for it--it was a gift! You gave it, smiling as you gave it, delighting as you gave it.

<sup>7</sup> But it's you, you who saved us from the enemy; you made those who hate us lose face.

45 <sup>1</sup> My heart bursts its banks, spilling beauty and goodness. I pour it out in a poem to the king, shaping the river into words:

<sup>7</sup> You love the right and hate the wrong. And that is why God, your very own God, poured fragrant oil on your head, Marking you out as king from among your dear companions.

<sup>16</sup> "Set your mind now on sons--don't dote on father and grandfather. You'll set your sons up as princes all over the earth.

Jacob-wrestling God fights for us, GOD
of angel armies protects us.

God's city, this sacred haunt of the Most High.

God at your service from crack of dawn.

and kingdoms threaten, but Earth does anything he says.

<sup>7</sup> Jacob-wrestling God fights for us, GOD
of angel armies protects us.

GOD! He plants flowers and trees all over the earth,

the weapons across his knee.

loving look at me, your High God, above

GOD of angel armies protects us.

48 <sup>1</sup> GOD majestic, praise abounds in our God-city! His sacred

<sup>2</sup> breathtaking in its heights--earth's joy.
Zion Mountain looms in the North, city of the world-King.

with a storm out of the East.

<sup>8</sup> We heard about it, then we saw it with our eyes--In GOD's city of angel armies, in the city our God Set on firm foundations, firm forever.

<sup>9</sup> We pondered your love-in-action,
God, waiting in your temple:

my heart-seasoned understandings of life.

<sup>4</sup> I fine-tuned my ear to the sayings of the wise, I solve life's riddle with the help of a harp.

<sup>5</sup> So why should I fear in bad times,
hemmed in by enemy malice,

by the arrogant rich?

self-rescue, pulling yourself up by your bootstraps.

means, and even then it doesn't guarantee

Black Hole.

<sup>10</sup> Anyone can see that the brightest and best die, wiped out right along with fools and dunces.

move into their new home, The Coffin,
The cemetery their permanent address.
And to think they named counties after themselves!

<sup>12</sup> We aren't immortal. We don't last long. Like our dogs, we age and weaken.
And die.

<sup>13</sup> This is what happens to those who live for the moment, who only look out for themselves:

<sup>14</sup> Death herds them like sheep straight to hell; they disappear down the gullet of the grave; They waste away to nothing--nothing left but a marker in a cemetery.

<sup>15</sup> But me? God snatches me from the clutch of death, he reaches down and grabs me.

<sup>16</sup> So don't be impressed with those who get rich and pile up fame and

<sup>7</sup> "Are you listening, dear people? I'm getting ready to speak; Israel, I'm about ready to bring you to trial. This is God, your God, speaking to you.

51 <sup>1</sup> Generous in love--God, give grace! Huge in mercy--wipe out my bad record.

you; whatever you decide about me is fair.

<sup>5</sup> I've been out of step with you for a long time, in the wrong since before I was born.

name my hope, in company with your faithful friends.

54 <sup>1</sup> God, for your sake, help me!
Use your influence to clear me.

<sup>5</sup> Evil is looping back on my enemies.
Don't let up! Finish them off!

55 <sup>1</sup> Open your ears, God, to my prayer; don't pretend you don't hear me knocking.

assassins and traitors in half. And I trust in you.

<sup>13</sup> You pulled me from the brink of death, my feet from the cliff-edge of doom. Now I stroll at leisure with God in the sunlit fields of life.

57 <sup>1</sup> Be good to me, God--and now! I've run to you for dear life. I'm hiding out under your wings until the hurricane blows over.

Is there an honest politician in the house?

you've been a safe place for me, a good place to hide.

61 <sup>1</sup> God, listen to me shout, bend an ear to my prayer.

62 <sup>1</sup> God, the one and only--I'll wait as long as he says. Everything I need comes from him, so why not?

<sup>2</sup> He's solid rock under my feet,
breathing room for my soul, An impregnable castle: I'm set for life.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you gang up on me? How long will you run with the bullies? There's nothing to you, any of you--rotten floorboards, worm-eaten rafters,

<sup>4</sup> Anthills plotting to bring down mountains, far gone in make-believe.
You talk a good line, but every "blessing" breathes a curse.

<sup>5</sup> God, the one and only--I'll wait as long as he says. Everything I hope for comes from him, so why not?

<sup>6</sup> He's solid rock under my feet,
breathing room for my soul, An impregnable castle: I'm set for life.

<sup>7</sup> My help and glory are in God--granite-strength and safe-harbor-God--

<sup>11</sup> God said this once and for all; how many times Have I heard it repeated? "Strength comes Straight from God."

63 <sup>1</sup> God--you're my God! I can't get enough of you! I've worked up such hunger and thirst for God, traveling across dry and weary deserts.

the grinning crowd.

talk of the town.

<sup>10</sup> Be glad, good people! Fly to GOD!
Good-hearted people, make praise your habit.

65 <sup>1</sup> Silence is praise to you, Zion-dwelling God, And also obedience.

<sup>2</sup> You hear the prayer in it all. We all arrive at your doorstep sooner or later, loaded with guilt,

<sup>3</sup> Our sins too much for us--but you get rid of them once and for all.

guest at home in your place! We expect our fill of good things in your house, your heavenly manse.

<sup>5</sup> All your salvation wonders are on display in your trophy room.

Earth-Tamer, Ocean-Pourer,

<sup>8</sup> Far and wide they'll come to a stop, they'll stare in awe, in wonder. Dawn and dusk take turns calling, "Come and worship."

<sup>9</sup> Oh, visit the earth, ask her to join the dance! Deck her out in spring showers, fill the God-River with living water. Paint the wheat fields golden. Creation was made for this!

<sup>10</sup> Drench the plowed fields, soak the dirt clods With rainfall as harrow and rake bring her to blossom and fruit.

scatter rose petals down your paths,

<sup>12</sup> All through the wild meadows, rose petals. Set the hills to dancing,

Rebels don't dare raise a finger against him.

<sup>12</sup> Road-tested us inside and out, took us to hell and back; Finally he brought us to this well-watered place.

<sup>13</sup> I'm bringing my prizes and presents to your house. I'm doing what I said I'd do,

let me tell you what God did for me.

<sup>17</sup> I called out to him with my mouth, my tongue shaped the sounds of music.

<sup>18</sup> If I had been cozy with evil, the Lord would never have listened.

<sup>19</sup> But he most surely [did] listen, he came on the double when he heard my prayer.

ear, he stayed with me, loyal in his love.

67 <sup>1</sup> God, mark us with grace and blessing! Smile!

<sup>2</sup> The whole country will see how you work, all the godless nations see how you save.

<sup>3</sup> God! Let people thank and enjoy you.
Let all people thank and enjoy you.

<sup>4</sup> Let all far-flung people become happy and shout their happiness because You judge them fair and square, you tend the far-flung peoples.

<sup>5</sup> God! Let people thank and enjoy you.
Let all people thank and enjoy you.

mark us with blessing, O God, our God.

Earth's four corners--honor him!

68 <sup>1</sup> Up with God! Down with his enemies! Adversaries, run for the hills!

<sup>2</sup> Gone like a puff of smoke, like a blob of wax in the fire--one look at God and the wicked vanish.

<sup>3</sup> When the righteous see God in action they'll laugh, they'll sing, they'll laugh and sing for joy.

out; clear the way for the coming of Cloud-Rider. Enjoy GOD, cheer when you see him!

widows, is God in his holy house.

<sup>6</sup> God makes homes for the homeless, leads prisoners to freedom, but leaves rebels to rot in hell.

<sup>7</sup> God, when you took the lead with your people, when you marched out into the wild,

<sup>8</sup> Earth shook, sky broke out in a sweat;
God was on the march. Even Sinai trembled at the sight of God on the move, at the sight of Israel's God.

thorn and cactus become an oasis

<sup>10</sup> For your people to camp in and enjoy.
You set them up in business; they went from rags to riches.

called out the good news:

<sup>12</sup> "Kings of the armies are on the run, on the run!"

back home, divide up the plunder, the plunder of Canaanite silver and gold.

<sup>17</sup> The chariots of God, twice ten thousand, and thousands more besides, The Lord in the lead, riding down Sinai--straight to the Holy Place!

<sup>18</sup> You climbed to the High Place, captives in tow, your arms full of booty from rebels, And now you sit there in state, GOD, sovereign GOD!

<sup>20</sup> He's our Savior, our God, oh yes! He's God-for-us, he's God-who-saves-us. Lord GOD knows all death's ins and outs.

God! He gives power and might to his people! O you, his people--bless God!

69 <sup>1</sup> God, God, save me! I'm in over my head,

<sup>4</sup> I've got more enemies than hairs on my head; Sneaks and liars are out to knife me in the back. What I never stole Must I now give back?

<sup>6</sup> Don't let those who look to you in hope Be discouraged by what happens to me, Dear Lord! GOD of the armies! Don't let those out looking for you Come to a dead end by following me--Please, dear God of Israel!

walk around ashamed to show my face.

<sup>8</sup> My brothers shun me like a bum off the street; My family treats me like an unwanted guest.

<sup>9</sup> I love you more than I can say. Because I'm madly in love with you, They blame me for everything they dislike about you.

<sup>10</sup> When I poured myself out in prayer and fasting, All it got me was more contempt.

treated me like a clown.

<sup>12</sup> Now drunks and gluttons Make up drinking songs about me.

<sup>13</sup> And me? I pray. GOD, it's time for a break! God, answer in love! Answer with your sure salvation!

let me go under for good, Pull me out of the clutch of the enemy; This whirlpool is sucking me down.

70 <sup>1</sup> God! Please hurry to my rescue!
God, come quickly to my side!

71 <sup>1</sup> I run for dear life to GOD, I'll never live to regret it.

<sup>3</sup> Be a guest room where I can retreat; you said your door was always open!

You're my salvation--my vast, granite fortress.

<sup>17</sup> You got me when I was an unformed youth, God, and taught me everything I know. Now I'm telling the world your wonders;

<sup>18</sup> I'll keep at it until I'm old and gray. God, don't walk off and leave me until

I get out the news Of your strong right arm to this world, news of your power to the world yet to come,

God. God, you've done it all! Who is quite like you?

<sup>20</sup> You, who made me stare trouble in the face, Turn me around; Now let me look life in the face. I've been to the bottom; Bring me up,

<sup>21</sup> streaming with honors; turn to me,
be tender to me,

<sup>22</sup> And I'll take up the lute and thank you to the tune of your faithfulness,
God. I'll make music for you on a harp,
Holy One of Israel.

out lungful of praise, my rescued life a song.

<sup>24</sup> All day long I'm chanting about you and your righteous ways, While those who tried to do me in slink off looking ashamed.

72 <sup>1</sup> Give the gift of wise rule to the king, O God, the gift of just rule to the crown prince.

<sup>15</sup> And live! Oh, let him live! Deck him out in Sheba gold. Offer prayers unceasing to him, bless him from morning to night.

exuberance, Cornucopias of praise, praises springing from the city like grass from the earth.

not a care in the whole wide world.

the latest fashions in violence,

silk bows of silliness.

bully their way with words.

disturbing the peace.

<sup>10</sup> People actually listen to them--can you believe it? Like thirsty puppies, they lap up their words.

lunch? Nobody's tending the store.

they have it made, piling up riches

what has it gotten me?

slap in the face every time I walk out the door.

<sup>15</sup> If I'd have given in and talked like this, I would have betrayed your dear children.

<sup>28</sup> But I'm in the very presence of God--oh, how refreshing it is! I've made Lord GOD my home. God, I'm telling the world what you do!

75 <sup>1</sup> We thank you, God, we thank you--your Name is our favorite word; your mighty works are all we talk about.

<sup>8</sup> GOD has a cup in his hand, a bowl of wine, full to the brim. He draws from it and pours; it's drained to the dregs. Earth's wicked ones drink it all, drink it down to the last bitter drop!

<sup>11</sup> Do for GOD what you said you'd do--he is, after all, your God. Let everyone in town bring offerings to the One Who Watches our every move.

77 <sup>1</sup> I yell out to my God, I yell with all my might, I yell at the top of my lungs. He listens.

<sup>2</sup> I found myself in trouble and went looking for my Lord; my life was an open wound that wouldn't heal. When friends said, "Everything will turn out all right," I didn't believe a word they said.

<sup>3</sup> I remember God--and shake my head. I bow my head--then wring my hands.

78 <sup>1</sup> Listen, dear friends, to God's truth, bend your ears to what I tell you.

gave them all they could drink from underground springs;

<sup>16</sup> He made creeks flow out from sheer rock, and water pour out like a river.

<sup>17</sup> All they did was sin even more, rebel in the desert against the High God.

God, clamored for favors, for special attention.

"Why can't God give us a decent meal in this desert?"

<sup>20</sup> Sure, he struck the rock and the water flowed, creeks cascaded from the rock. But how about some fresh-baked bread? How about a nice cut of meat?"

<sup>21</sup> When GOD heard that, he was furious--his anger flared against Jacob, he lost his temper with Israel.

had no intention of trusting in his help.

<sup>32</sup> And--can you believe it?--they kept right on sinning; all those wonders and they still wouldn't believe!

<sup>39</sup> He knew what they were made of; he knew there wasn't much to them,

<sup>5</sup> How long do we have to put up with this, GOD? Do you have it in for us for good? Will your smoldering rage never cool down?

<sup>6</sup> If you're going to be angry, be angry with the pagans who care nothing about you, or your rival kingdoms who ignore you.

Pull us out of this mess, forgive us our sins--do what you're famous for doing!

<sup>13</sup> Then we, your people, the ones you love and care for, will thank you over and over and over. We'll tell everyone we meet how wonderful you are, how praiseworthy you are!

sheep together. Throw beams of light from your dazzling throne

brambles and briars and planted your very own vineyard?

<sup>18</sup> We will never turn our back on you; breathe life into our lungs so we can shout your name!

<sup>5</sup> He commanded Joseph to keep this day so we'd never forget what he did in Egypt. I hear this most gentle whisper from One I never guessed would speak to me:

<sup>7</sup> You called to me in your pain; I got you out of a bad place. I answered you from where the thunder hides, I proved you at Meribah Fountain.

<sup>10</sup> I'm GOD, your God, the very God who rescued you from doom in Egypt, Then fed you all you could eat, filled your hungry stomachs.

going on. And now everything's falling apart, the world's coming unglued.

84 <sup>1</sup> What a beautiful home, GOD of the Angel Armies! I've always longed to live in a place like this,

85 <sup>1</sup> GOD, you smiled on your good earth! You brought good times back to Jacob!

<sup>7</sup> Show us how much you love us, GOD!
Give us the salvation we need!

<sup>8</sup> I can't wait to hear what he'll say.
GOD's about to pronounce his people well, The holy people he loves so much, so they'll never again live like fools.

<sup>9</sup> See how close his salvation is to those who fear him? Our country is home base for Glory!

<sup>10</sup> Love and Truth meet in the street, Right Living and Whole Living embrace

Right Living pours down from the skies!

Beauty; our land responds with Bounty and Blessing.

and clears a path for his passage.

86 <sup>1</sup> Bend an ear, GOD; answer me.
I'm one miserable wretch!

<sup>3</sup> You're my God; have mercy on me. I count on you from morning to night.

<sup>14</sup> God, these bullies have reared their heads! A gang of thugs is after me--and they don't care a thing about you.

<sup>15</sup> But you, O God, are both tender and kind, not easily angered, immense in love, and you never, never quit.

<sup>16</sup> So look me in the eye and show kindness, give your servant the strength to go on, save your dear, dear child!

<sup>17</sup> Make a show of how much you love me so the bullies who hate me will stand there slack-jawed, As you, GOD, gently and powerfully put me back on my feet.

87 <sup>1</sup> He founded Zion on the Holy Mountain--

88 <sup>1</sup> GOD, you're my last chance of the day. I spend the night on my knees before you.

made me horrible to them. I'm caught in a maze and can't find my way out,

<sup>9</sup> blinded by tears of pain and frustration. I call to you, GOD; all day I call. I wring my hands, I plead for help.

<sup>10</sup> Are the dead a live audience for your miracles? Do ghosts ever join the choirs that praise you?

<sup>11</sup> Does your love make any difference in a graveyard? Is your faithful presence noticed in the corridors of hell?

<sup>12</sup> Are your marvelous wonders ever seen in the dark, your righteous ways noticed in the Land of No Memory?

<sup>13</sup> I'm standing my ground, GOD, shouting for help, at my prayers every morning, on my knees each daybreak.

<sup>14</sup> Why, GOD, do you turn a deaf ear?
Why do you make yourself scarce?

89 <sup>1</sup> Your love, GOD, is my song, and I'll sing it! I'm forever telling everyone how faithful you are.

<sup>2</sup> I'll never quit telling the story of your love--how you built the cosmos and guaranteed everything in it. Your love has always been our lives' foundation, your fidelity has been the roof over our world.

<sup>18</sup> All we are and have we owe to GOD, Holy God of Israel, our King!

<sup>19</sup> A long time ago you spoke in a vision, you spoke to your faithful beloved: "I've crowned a hero, I chose the best I could find;

in the other;

God, my Rock of Salvation!'

<sup>27</sup> Yes, I'm setting him apart as the First of the royal line, High King over all of earth's kings.

<sup>28</sup> I'll preserve him eternally in my love, I'll faithfully do all I so solemnly promised.

underwrite his rule.

them, if they refuse to walk in the way I show them,

<sup>31</sup> If they spit on the directions I give them and tear up the rules I post for them

rebellion and make them face the music.

abandon or disown them.

<sup>34</sup> Do you think I'd withdraw my holy promise? or take back words I'd already spoken?

<sup>35</sup> I've given my word, my whole and holy word; do you think I would lie to David?

dear Lord; I'm the butt of the jokes of all nations,

<sup>51</sup> The taunting jokes of your enemies, GOD, as they dog the steps of your dear anointed.

<sup>52</sup> Blessed be GOD forever and always!
Yes. Oh, yes.

90 <sup>1</sup> God, it seems you've been our home forever;

<sup>2</sup> long before the mountains were born,
Long before you brought earth itself to birth, from "once upon a time" to "kingdom come"--you are God.

<sup>3</sup> So don't return us to mud, saying,
"Back to where you came from!"

world--whether a thousand years or a day, it's all the same to you.

<sup>5</sup> Are we no more to you than a wispy dream, no more than a blade of grass

<sup>7</sup> Your anger is far and away too much for us; we're at the end of our rope.

<sup>8</sup> You keep track of all our sins; every misdeed since we were children is entered in your books.

<sup>9</sup> All we can remember is that frown on your face. Is that all we're ever going to get?

<sup>10</sup> We live for seventy years or so (with luck we might make it to eighty), And what do we have to show for it? Trouble. Toil and trouble and a marker in the graveyard.

<sup>12</sup> Oh! Teach us to live well! Teach us to live wisely and well!

<sup>13</sup> Come back, GOD--how long do we have to wait?--and treat your servants with kindness for a change.

<sup>17</sup> And let the loveliness of our Lord, our God, rest on us, confirming the work that we do. Oh, yes. Affirm the work that we do!

<sup>14</sup> "If you'll hold on to me for dear life," says GOD, "I'll get you out of any trouble. I'll give you the best of care if you'll only get to know and trust me.

the full-bodied music of strings.

<sup>4</sup> You made me so happy, GOD. I saw your work and I shouted for joy.

<sup>5</sup> How magnificent your work, GOD!
How profound your thoughts!

fools never do get it.

<sup>7</sup> When the wicked popped up like weeds and all the evil men and women took over, You mowed them down, finished them off once and for all.

<sup>9</sup> Look at your enemies, GOD! Look at your enemies--ruined! Scattered to the winds, all those hirelings of evil!

<sup>10</sup> But you've made me strong as a charging bison, you've honored me with a festive parade.

is still fresh, the rout of my malicious detractors. My ears are filled with the sounds of promise:

GOD is robed and surging with strength. And yes, the world is firm, immovable,

"Beauty" and "Holy" mark your palace rule, GOD, to the very end of time.

94 <sup>1</sup> GOD, put an end to evil;
avenging God, show your colors!

throw the book at the arrogant.

murder--how long will you let this go on?

<sup>4</sup> They brag and boast and crow about their crimes!

<sup>5</sup> They walk all over your people, GOD, exploit and abuse your precious people.

their way; if they can't use them, they kill them.

<sup>7</sup> They think, "GOD isn't looking, Jacob's God is out to lunch."

<sup>8</sup> Well, think again, you idiots, fools--how long before you get smart?

Eye-Shaper doesn't see?

<sup>18</sup> The minute I said, "I'm slipping, I'm falling," your love, GOD, took hold and held me fast.

<sup>7</sup> Oh yes, he's our God, and we're the people he pastures, the flock he feeds. Drop everything and listen, listen as he speaks:

<sup>9</sup> when your ancestors turned and put me to the test.

<sup>10</sup> For forty years they watched me at work among them, as over and over they tried my patience. And I was provoked--oh, was I provoked! 'Can't they keep their minds on God for five minutes? Do they simply refuse to walk down my road?'

Earth and everyone in it, sing!

News of his wonders to one and all!

<sup>7</sup> All who serve handcrafted gods will be sorry--And they were so proud of their ragamuffin gods! On your knees, all you gods--worship him!

GOD has done it all, has set everything right.

<sup>9</sup> You, GOD, are High God of the cosmos, Far, far higher than any of the gods.

<sup>12</sup> So, God's people, shout praise to GOD, Give thanks to our Holy God!

The whole earth comes to attention.
Look--God's work of salvation!

Let loose and sing! Strike up the band!

GOD, Add on a hundred-voice choir.

Fill the air with praises to King GOD.

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea and its fish give a round of applause, With everything living on earth joining in.

<sup>8</sup> Let ocean breakers call out, "Encore!"
And mountains harmonize the finale--

<sup>9</sup> A tribute to GOD when he comes,
When he comes to set the earth right.
He'll straighten out the whole world,
He'll put the world right, and everyone in it.

99 <sup>1</sup> GOD rules. On your toes, everybody! He rules from his angel throne--take notice!

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were his priests, Samuel among those who prayed to him. They prayed to GOD and he answered them;

<sup>7</sup> He spoke from the pillar of cloud. And they did what he said; they kept the law he gave them.

<sup>8</sup> And then GOD, our God, answered them (But you were never soft on their sins).

<sup>3</sup> Know this: GOD is God, and God, GOD. He made us; we didn't make him. We're his people, his well-tended sheep.

101 <sup>1</sup> My theme song is God's love and justice, and I'm singing it right to you, GOD.

can, and I'm doing it at home, where it counts.

<sup>6</sup> But I have my eye on salt-of-the-earth people--they're the ones I want working with me; Men and women on the straight and narrow--these are the ones I want at my side.

102 <sup>1</sup> GOD, listen! Listen to my prayer, listen to the pain in my cries.

<sup>24</sup> "Oh, don't," I prayed, "please don't let me die. You have more years than you know what to do with!

103 <sup>1</sup> O my soul, bless GOD. From head to toe, I'll bless his holy name!

<sup>11</sup> As high as heaven is over the earth, so strong is his love to those who fear him.

<sup>22</sup> Bless GOD, all creatures, wherever you are--everything and everyone made by GOD. And you, O my soul, bless GOD!

104 <sup>1</sup> O my soul, bless GOD! GOD, my God, how great you are!

beautifully, gloriously robed,

cliffs; badgers burrow among the rocks.

the sun is in charge of each day.

all the forest creatures come out.

clamoring to God for their supper.

<sup>22</sup> When the sun comes up, they vanish,

to work, busy at their jobs until evening.

<sup>24</sup> What a wildly wonderful world, GOD!
You made it all, with Wisdom at your side, made earth overflow with your wonderful creations.

<sup>25</sup> Oh, look--the deep, wide sea, brimming with fish past counting, sardines and sharks and salmon.

<sup>33</sup> Oh, let me sing to GOD all my life long, sing hymns to my God as long as I live!

<sup>34</sup> Oh, let my song please him; I'm so pleased to be singing to GOD.

<sup>35</sup> But clear the ground of sinners--no more godless men and women! O my soul, bless GOD!

105 <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! Thank GOD! Pray to him by name! Tell everyone you meet what he has done!

<sup>5</sup> I want to see your chosen succeed, celebrate with your celebrating nation, join the Hallelujahs of your pride and joy!

<sup>6</sup> We've sinned a lot, both we and our parents; We've fallen short, hurt a lot of people.

your wonders for granted, forgot your great and wonderful love. They were barely beyond the Red Sea when they defied the High God

<sup>8</sup> --the very place he saved them!--the place he revealed his amazing power!

<sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea so that it dried up on the spot--he paraded them right through!--no one so much as got wet feet!

<sup>10</sup> He saved them from a life of oppression, pried them loose from the grip of the enemy.

<sup>13</sup> But it wasn't long before they forgot the whole thing, wouldn't wait to be told what to do.

<sup>47</sup> Save us, GOD, our God! Gather us back out of exile So we can give thanks to your holy name and join in the glory when you are praised!

<sup>2</sup> All of you set free by GOD, tell the world! Tell how he freed you from oppression,

<sup>4</sup> Some of you wandered for years in the desert, looking but not finding a good place to live,

<sup>24</sup> Out at sea you saw GOD in action, saw his breathtaking ways with the ocean:

<sup>25</sup> With a word he called up the wind--an ocean storm, towering waves!

<sup>26</sup> You shot high in the sky, then the bottom dropped out; your hearts were stuck in your throats.

<sup>27</sup> You were spun like a top, you reeled like a drunk, you didn't know which end was up.

<sup>28</sup> Then you called out to GOD in your desperate condition; he got you out in the nick of time.

<sup>29</sup> He quieted the wind down to a whisper, put a muzzle on all the big waves.

<sup>30</sup> And you were so glad when the storm died down, and he led you safely back to harbor.

<sup>6</sup> And for the sake of the one you love so much, reach down and help me--answer me!

<sup>17</sup> Since he loved cursing so much, let curses rain down; Since he had no taste for blessing, let blessings flee far from him.

for me, your servant. Dress my accusers in clothes dirty with shame, discarded and humiliating old ragbag clothes.

110 <sup>1</sup> The word of GOD to my Lord: "Sit alongside me here on my throne until I make your enemies a stool for your feet."

He remembered to keep his ancient promise.

<sup>6</sup> He proved to his people that he could do what he said: Hand them the nations on a platter--a gift!

<sup>7</sup> He manufactures truth and justice; All his products are guaranteed to last--

<sup>8</sup> Never out-of-date, never obsolete, rust-proof. All that he makes and does is honest and true:

<sup>9</sup> He paid the ransom for his people,
He ordered his Covenant kept forever.
He's so personal and holy, worthy of our respect.

<sup>10</sup> The good life begins in the fear of GOD--Do that and you'll know the blessing of GOD. His Hallelujah lasts forever!

blessed woman, who fear

GOD, Who cherish and relish his commandments,

<sup>2</sup> Their children robust on the earth,
And the homes of the upright--how blessed!

generosity that never runs dry.

<sup>4</sup> Sunrise breaks through the darkness for good people--God's grace and mercy and justice!

<sup>5</sup> The good person is generous and lends lavishly;

<sup>6</sup> No shuffling or stumbling around for this one, But a sterling and solid and lasting reputation.

<sup>7</sup> Unfazed by rumor and gossip, Heart ready, trusting in GOD,

<sup>8</sup> Spirit firm, unperturbed, Ever blessed,
relaxed among enemies,

generosity that goes on, and on, and on.
An honored life! A beautiful life!

113 <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! You who serve GOD, praise GOD! Just to speak his name is praise!

115 <sup>1</sup> Not for our sake, GOD, no, not for our sake, but for your name's sake, show your glory. Do it on account of your merciful love, do it on account of your faithful ways.

<sup>9</sup> But you, Israel: put your trust in GOD!--trust your Helper! trust your Ruler!

<sup>11</sup> You who fear GOD, trust in GOD!--trust your Helper! trust your Ruler!

<sup>12</sup> O GOD, remember us and bless us, bless the families of Israel and Aaron.

<sup>13</sup> And let GOD bless all who fear GOD--bless the small, bless the great.

<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by GOD, by GOD, who made heaven and earth.

<sup>18</sup> But we bless GOD, oh yes--we bless him now, we bless him always! Hallelujah!

116 <sup>1</sup> I love GOD because he listened to me, listened as I begged for mercy.

<sup>4</sup> then I called out to GOD for help: "Please, GOD!" I cried out. "Save my life!"

<sup>13</sup> I'll lift high the cup of salvation--a toast to GOD! I'll pray in the name of GOD;

<sup>19</sup> In the place of worship, in GOD's house, in Jerusalem, GOD's city.

Hallelujah!

Applaud GOD, all people!

<sup>2</sup> His love has taken over our lives;
GOD's faithful ways are eternal.
Hallelujah!

118 <sup>1</sup> Thank GOD because he's good, because his love never quits.

"His love never quits."

<sup>4</sup> And you who fear GOD, join in, "His love never quits."

<sup>5</sup> Pushed to the wall, I called to GOD; from the wide open spaces, he answered.

<sup>6</sup> GOD's now at my side and I'm not afraid; who would dare lay a hand on me?

<sup>7</sup> GOD's my strong champion; I flick off my enemies like flies.

<sup>8</sup> Far better to take refuge in GOD than trust in people;

<sup>15</sup> Hear the shouts, hear the triumph songs in the camp of the saved? "The hand of GOD has turned the tide!

<sup>16</sup> The hand of GOD is raised in victory! The hand of GOD has turned the tide!"

<sup>17</sup> I didn't die. I [lived]! And now I'm telling the world what GOD did.

18 GOD tested me, he pushed me hard, but he didn't hand me over to Death.

19 Swing wide the city gates--the [righteous] gates! I'll walk right through and thank GOD!

20 This Temple Gate belongs to GOD, so the victors can enter and praise.

21 Thank you for responding to me;
you've truly become my salvation!

22 The stone the masons discarded as flawed is now the capstone!

23 This is GOD's work. We rub our eyes--we can hardly believe it!

24 This is the very day GOD acted--let's celebrate and be festive!

25 Salvation now, GOD. Salvation now!
Oh yes, GOD--a free and full life!

26 Blessed are you who enter in GOD's name--from GOD's house we bless you!

27 GOD is God, he has bathed us in light.
Festoon the shrine with garlands, hang colored banners above the altar!

<sup>28</sup> You're my God, and I thank you. O my God, I lift high your praise.

<sup>7</sup> I thank you for speaking straight from your heart; I learn the pattern of your righteous ways.

<sup>8</sup> I'm going to do what you tell me to do; don't ever walk off and leave me.

<sup>17</sup> Be generous with me and I'll live a full life; not for a minute will I take my eyes off your road.

<sup>45</sup> And I'll stride freely through wide open spaces as I look for your truth and your wisdom;

your servant--I hang on to these words for dear life!

<sup>50</sup> These words hold me up in bad times; yes, your promises rejuvenate me.

<sup>51</sup> The insolent ridicule me without mercy, but I don't budge from your revelation.

<sup>52</sup> I watch for your ancient landmark words, and know I'm on the right track.

<sup>53</sup> But when I see the wicked ignore your directions, I'm beside myself with anger.

<sup>54</sup> I set your instructions to music and sing them as I walk this pilgrim way.

<sup>55</sup> I meditate on your name all night,
GOD, treasuring your revelation, O GOD.

<sup>56</sup> Still, I walk through a rain of derision because I live by your Word and counsel.

<sup>57</sup> Because you have satisfied me, GOD,
I promise to do everything you say.

<sup>58</sup> I beg you from the bottom of my heart: smile, be gracious to me just as you promised.

<sup>59</sup> When I took a long, careful look at your ways, I got my feet back on the trail you blazed.

<sup>60</sup> I was up at once, didn't drag my feet, was quick to follow your orders.

<sup>61</sup> The wicked hemmed me in--there was no way out--but not for a minute did I forget your plan for me.

<sup>63</sup> I'm a friend and companion of all who fear you, of those committed to living by your rules.

I'm thoroughly committed to living your way.

<sup>67</sup> Before I learned to answer you, I wandered all over the place, but now I'm in step with your Word.

<sup>68</sup> You are good, and the source of good; train me in your goodness.

<sup>69</sup> The godless spread lies about me, but I focus my attention on what you are saying;

<sup>70</sup> They're bland as a bucket of lard, while I dance to the tune of your revelation.

<sup>71</sup> My troubles turned out all for the best--they forced me to learn from your textbook.

to me than striking it rich in a gold mine.

<sup>73</sup> With your very own hands you formed me; now breathe your wisdom over me so I can understand you.

<sup>74</sup> When they see me waiting, expecting your Word, those who fear you will take heart and be glad.

<sup>75</sup> I can see now, GOD, that your decisions are right; your testing has taught me what's true and right.

<sup>78</sup> Let the fast-talking tricksters be exposed as frauds; they tried to sell me a bill of goods, but I kept my mind fixed on your counsel.

<sup>80</sup> And let me live whole and holy, soul and body, so I can always walk with my head held high.

<sup>90</sup> Your truth never goes out of fashion; it's as up-to-date as the earth when the sun comes up.

<sup>91</sup> Your Word and truth are dependable as ever; that's what you ordered--you set the earth going.

<sup>92</sup> If your revelation hadn't delighted me so, I would have given up when the hard times came.

<sup>93</sup> But I'll never forget the advice you gave me; you saved my life with those wise words.

<sup>94</sup> Save me! I'm all yours. I look high and low for your words of wisdom.

<sup>112</sup> I concentrate on doing exactly what you say--I always have and always will.

113 I hate the two-faced, but I love your clear-cut revelation.

114 You're my place of quiet retreat; I wait for your Word to renew me.

115 Get out of my life, evildoers, so I can keep my God's commands.

116 Take my side as you promised; I'll live then for sure. Don't disappoint all my grand hopes.

117 Stick with me and I'll be all right; I'll give total allegiance to your definitions of life.

118 Expose all who drift away from your sayings; their casual idolatry is lethal.

119 You reject earth's wicked as so much rubbish; therefore I lovingly embrace everything you say.

120 I shiver in awe before you; your decisions leave me speechless with reverence.

121 I stood up for justice and the right;
don't leave me to the mercy of my oppressors.

122 Take the side of your servant, good God; don't let the godless take advantage of me.

123 I can't keep my eyes open any longer, waiting for you to keep your promise to set everything right.

124 Let your love dictate how you deal with me; teach me from your textbook on life.

125 I'm your servant--help me understand what that means, the inner meaning of your instructions.

126 It's time to act, GOD; they've made a shambles of your revelation!

127 Yea-Saying God, I love what you command, I love it better than gold and gemstones;

128 Yea-Saying God, I honor everything you tell me, I despise every deceitful detour.

129 Every word you give me is a miracle word--how could I help but obey?

130 Break open your words, let the light shine out, let ordinary people see the meaning.

131 Mouth open and panting, I wanted your commands more than anything.

132 Turn my way, look kindly on me, as you always do to those who personally love you.

133 Steady my steps with your Word of promise so nothing malign gets the better of me.

134 Rescue me from the grip of bad men and women so I can live life your way.

135 Smile on me, your servant; teach me the right way to live.

136 I cry rivers of tears because nobody's living by your book!

GOD; your decisions are right on target.

<sup>138</sup> You rightly instruct us in how to live ever faithful to you.

<sup>139</sup> My rivals nearly did me in, they persistently ignored your commandments.

<sup>140</sup> Your promise has been tested through and through, and I, your servant, love it dearly.

<sup>141</sup> I'm too young to be important, but I don't forget what you tell me.

your revelation is the only truth.

<sup>143</sup> Even though troubles came down on me hard, your commands always gave me delight.

<sup>144</sup> The way you tell me to live is always right; help me understand it so I can live to the fullest.

"GOD! Answer! I'll do whatever you say."

146 I called to you, "Save me so I can carry out all your instructions."

147 I was up before sunrise, crying for help, hoping for a word from you.

148 I stayed awake all night, prayerfully pondering your promise.

149 In your love, listen to me; in your justice, GOD, keep me alive.

150 As those out to get me come closer and closer, they go farther and farther from the truth you reveal;

151 But you're the closest of all to me, GOD, and all your judgments true.

152 I've known all along from the evidence of your words that you meant them to last forever.

153 Take a good look at my trouble, and help me--I haven't forgotten your revelation.

154 Take my side and get me out of this; give me back my life, just as you promised.

162 I'm ecstatic over what you say, like one who strikes it rich.

163 I hate lies--can't stand them!--but I love what you have revealed.

164 Seven times each day I stop and shout praises for the way you keep everything running right.

165 For those who love what you reveal, everything fits--no stumbling around in the dark for them.

166 I wait expectantly for your salvation; GOD, I do what you tell me.

167 My soul guards and keeps all your instructions--oh, how much I love them!

168 I follow your directions, abide by your counsel; my life's an open book before you.

169 Let my cry come right into your presence, GOD; provide me with the insight that comes only from your Word.

<sup>175</sup> Invigorate my soul so I can praise you well, use your decrees to put iron in my soul.

120 <sup>1</sup> I'm in trouble. I cry to GOD, desperate for an answer:

121 <sup>1</sup> I look up to the mountains; does my strength come from mountains?

<sup>8</sup> He guards you when you leave and when you return, he guards you now, he guards you always.

122 <sup>1</sup> When they said, "Let's go to the house of GOD," my heart leaped for joy.

<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of our God, GOD, I'll do my very best for you.

123 <sup>1</sup> I look to you, heaven-dwelling God, look up to you for help.

<sup>8</sup> GOD's strong name is our help, the same GOD who made heaven and earth.

126 <sup>1</sup> It seemed like a dream, too good to be true, when GOD returned Zion's exiles.

<sup>2</sup> We laughed, we sang, we couldn't believe our good fortune. We were the talk of the nations--"GOD was wonderful to them!"

127 <sup>1</sup> If GOD doesn't build the house, the builders only build shacks. If GOD doesn't guard the city, the night watchman might as well nap.

130 <sup>1</sup> Help, GOD--the bottom has fallen out of my life! Master, hear my cry for help!

131 <sup>1</sup> GOD, I'm not trying to rule the roost, I don't want to be king of the mountain. I haven't meddled where I have no business or fantasized grandiose plans.

<sup>12</sup> If your sons stay true to my Covenant and learn to live the way I teach them, Their sons will continue the line--always a son to sit on your throne.

<sup>13</sup> Yes--I, GOD, chose Zion, the place I wanted for my shrine;

134 <sup>1</sup> Come, bless GOD, all you servants of GOD! You priests of GOD, posted to the nightwatch in GOD's shrine,

<sup>13</sup> GOD, your name is eternal, GOD, you'll never be out-of-date.

<sup>14</sup> GOD stands up for his people, GOD holds the hands of his people.

<sup>15</sup> The gods of the godless nations are mere trinkets, made for quick sale in the markets:

painted eyes that can't see,

<sup>17</sup> Carved ears that can't hear--dead wood! cold metal!

<sup>18</sup> Those who make and trust them become like them.

Aaron, bless GOD!

<sup>20</sup> Family of Levi, bless GOD! You who fear GOD, bless GOD!

<sup>21</sup> Oh, blessed be GOD of Zion, First Citizen of Jerusalem! Hallelujah!

136 <sup>1</sup> Thank GOD! He deserves your thanks. [His love never

<sup>6</sup> Let my tongue swell and turn black if I fail to remember you, If I fail, O dear Jerusalem, to honor you as my greatest.

<sup>8</sup> And you, Babylonians--ravagers! A reward to whoever gets back at you for all you've done to us;

<sup>9</sup> Yes, a reward to the one who grabs your babies and smashes their heads on the rocks!

138 <sup>1</sup> Thank you! Everything in me says "Thank you!" Angels listen as I sing my thanks.

<sup>2</sup> I kneel in worship facing your holy temple and say it again: "Thank you!" Thank you for your love, thank you for your faithfulness; Most holy is your name, most holy is your Word.

<sup>7</sup> When I walk into the thick of trouble, keep me alive in the angry turmoil. With one hand strike my foes, With your other hand save me.

<sup>5</sup> I look behind me and you're there, then up ahead and you're there, too--your reassuring presence, coming and going.

<sup>8</sup> If I climb to the sky, you're there! If I go underground, you're there!

<sup>11</sup> Then I said to myself, "Oh, he even sees me in the dark! At night I'm immersed in the light!"

<sup>13</sup> Oh yes, you shaped me first inside, then out; you formed me in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup> I thank you, High God--you're breathtaking! Body and soul, I am marvelously made! I worship in adoration--what a creation!

<sup>15</sup> You know me inside and out, you know every bone in my body; You know exactly how I was made, bit by bit, how I was sculpted from nothing into something.

<sup>16</sup> Like an open book, you watched me grow from conception to birth; all the stages of my life were spread out before you, The days of my life all prepared before I'd even lived one day.

<sup>18</sup> I couldn't even begin to count them--any more than I could count the sand of the sea. Oh, let me rise in the morning and live always with you!

140 <sup>1</sup> GOD, get me out of here, away from this evil; protect me from these vicious people.

<sup>5</sup> Stuffed with self-importance, they plot ways to trip me up, determined to bring me down. These crooks invent traps to catch me and do their best to incriminate me.

<sup>12</sup> I know that you, GOD, are on the side of victims, that you care for the rights of the poor.

<sup>13</sup> And I know that the righteous personally thank you, that good people are secure in your presence.

141 <sup>1</sup> GOD, come close. Come quickly! Open your ears--it's my voice you're hearing!

<sup>8</sup> But GOD, dear Lord, I only have eyes for you. Since I've run for dear life to you, take good care of me.

142 <sup>1</sup> I cry out loudly to GOD, loudly I plead with GOD for mercy.

<sup>3</sup> "As I sink in despair, my spirit ebbing away, you know how I'm feeling, Know the danger I'm in, the traps hidden in my path.

<sup>7</sup> Get me out of this dungeon so I can thank you in public. Your people will form a circle around me and you'll bring me showers of blessing!"

143 <sup>1</sup> Listen to this prayer of mine, GOD; pay attention to what I'm asking. Answer me--you're famous for your answers! Do what's right for me.

<sup>2</sup> But don't, please don't, haul me into court; not a person alive would be acquitted there.

<sup>3</sup> The enemy hunted me down; he kicked me and stomped me within an inch of my life. He put me in a black hole, buried me like a corpse in that dungeon.

<sup>4</sup> I sat there in despair, my spirit draining away, my heart heavy, like lead.

<sup>7</sup> Hurry with your answer, GOD! I'm nearly at the end of my rope. Don't turn away; don't ignore me! That would be certain death.

<sup>8</sup> If you wake me each morning with the sound of your loving voice, I'll go to sleep each night trusting in you. Point out the road I must travel; I'm all ears, all eyes before you.

<sup>10</sup> Teach me how to live to please you, because you're my God. Lead me by your blessed Spirit into cleared and level pastureland.

<sup>11</sup> Keep up your reputation, God--give me life! In your justice, get me out of this trouble!

144 <sup>1</sup> Blessed be GOD, my mountain, who trains me to fight fair and well.

<sup>2</sup> He's the bedrock on which I stand, the castle in which I live, my rescuing knight, The high crag where I run for dear life, while he lays my enemies low.

<sup>7</sup> Reach all the way from sky to sea: pull me out of the ocean of hate, out of the grip of those barbarians

<sup>15</sup> How blessed the people who have all this! How blessed the people who have GOD for God!

145 <sup>1</sup> I lift you high in praise, my God, O my King! and I'll bless your name into eternity.

<sup>11</sup> your holy people bless you. They talk about the glories of your rule, they exclaim over your splendor,

<sup>2</sup> All my life long I'll praise GOD, singing songs to my God as long as I live.

<sup>9</sup> protects strangers, takes the side of orphans and widows, but makes short work of the wicked.

speaks words that work to Israel.

<sup>20</sup> He never did this to the other nations; they never heard such commands. Hallelujah!

148 <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah! Praise GOD from heaven, praise him from the mountaintops;

<sup>2</sup> Praise him, all you his angels, praise him, all you his warriors,

<sup>3</sup> Praise him, sun and moon, praise him,
you morning stars;

<sup>4</sup> Praise him, high heaven, praise him,
heavenly rain clouds;

GOD--he spoke the word, and there they were!

<sup>6</sup> He set them in place from all time to eternity; He gave his orders, and that's it!

<sup>7</sup> Praise GOD from earth, you sea
dragons, you fathomless ocean deeps;

Proverbs

<sup>7</sup> Start with GOD--the first step in learning is bowing down to GOD; only fools thumb their noses at such wisdom and learning.

<sup>22</sup> "Simpletons! How long will you wallow in ignorance? Cynics! How long will you feed your cynicism? Idiots! How long will you refuse to learn?"

<sup>24</sup> As it is, I've called, but you've turned a deaf ear; I've reached out to you, but you've ignored me.

<sup>27</sup> What if the roof falls in, and your whole life goes to pieces? What if catastrophe strikes and there's nothing to show for your life but rubble and ashes?

<sup>28</sup> You'll need me then. You'll call for me, but don't expect an answer. No matter how hard you look, you won't find me.

<sup>30</sup> Because you wouldn't take my advice and brushed aside all my offers to train you,

<sup>31</sup> Well, you've made your bed--now lie in it; you wanted your own way--now, how do you like it?

<sup>33</sup> First pay attention to me, and then relax. Now you can take it easy--you're in good hands."

2 <sup>1</sup> Good friend, take to heart what I'm telling you; collect my counsels and guard them with your life.

panning for gold, like an adventurer on a treasure hunt,

<sup>5</sup> Believe me, before you know it Fear-of-GOD will be yours; you'll have come upon the Knowledge of God.

<sup>6</sup> And here's why: GOD gives out Wisdom free, is plainspoken in Knowledge and Understanding.

<sup>7</sup> He's a rich mine of Common Sense for those who live well, a personal bodyguard to the candid and sincere.

<sup>8</sup> He keeps his eye on all who live honestly, and pays special attention to his loyally committed ones.

<sup>9</sup> So now you can pick out what's true and fair, find all the good trails!

<sup>10</sup> Lady Wisdom will be your close friend, and Brother Knowledge your pleasant companion.

3 <sup>1</sup> Good friend, don't forget all I've taught you; take to heart my commands.

<sup>7</sup> Don't assume that you know it all. Run to GOD! Run from evil!

4 <sup>1</sup> Listen, friends, to some fatherly advice; sit up and take notice so you'll know how to live.

<sup>2</sup> I'm giving you good counsel; don't let it go in one ear and out the other.

<sup>4</sup> He would sit me down and drill me: "Take this to heart. Do what I tell you--live!

5 <sup>1</sup> Dear friend, pay close attention to this, my wisdom; listen very closely to the way I see it.

<sup>2</sup> Then you'll acquire a taste for good sense; what I tell you will keep you out of trouble.

<sup>10</sup> Why should you allow strangers to take advantage of you? Why be exploited by those who care nothing for you?

<sup>11</sup> You don't want to end your life full of regrets, nothing but sin and bones,

<sup>16</sup> It's true. Otherwise, you may one day come home and find your barrel empty and your well polluted.

7 <sup>1</sup> Dear friend, do what I tell you; treasure my careful instructions.

<sup>2</sup> Do what I say and you'll live well. My teaching is as precious as your eyesight--guard it!

<sup>14</sup> "I've got all the makings for a feast--today I made my offerings, my vows are all paid,

You blockheads--shape up!

<sup>6</sup> Don't miss a word of this--I'm telling you how to live well, I'm telling you how to live at your best.

<sup>12</sup> "I am Lady Wisdom, and I live next to Sanity; Knowledge and Discretion live just down the street.

<sup>14</sup> Good counsel and common sense are my characteristics; I am both Insight and the Virtue to live it out.

<sup>27</sup> And set Sky firmly in place, I was there. When he mapped and gave borders to wild Ocean,

posted a sign that said, NO TRESPASSING,
And then staked out Earth's foundations,

<sup>30</sup> I was right there with him, making sure everything fit. Day after day I was there, with my joyful applause, always enjoying his company,

<sup>31</sup> Delighted with the world of things and creatures, happily celebrating the human family.

<sup>32</sup> "So, my dear friends, listen carefully; those who embrace these my ways are most blessed.

<sup>33</sup> Mark a life of discipline and live wisely; don't squander your precious life.

<sup>34</sup> Blessed the man, blessed the woman, who listens to me, awake and ready for me each morning, alert and responsive as I start my day's work.

<sup>36</sup> But if you wrong me, you damage your very soul; when you reject me, you're flirting with death."

9<sup>1</sup> Lady Wisdom has built and furnished her home; it's supported by seven hewn timbers.

<sup>4</sup> "Are you confused about life, don't know what's going on? Come with me, oh come, have dinner with me!

<sup>8</sup> So don't waste your time on a scoffer; all you'll get for your pains is abuse. But if you correct those who care about life, that's different--they'll love you for it!

<sup>10</sup> Skilled living gets its start in the Fear-of-GOD, insight into life from knowing a Holy God.

<sup>12</sup> Live wisely and wisdom will permeate your life; mock life and life will mock you.

<sup>13</sup> Then there's this other woman, Madame Whore--brazen, empty-headed, frivolous.

<sup>14</sup> She sits on the front porch of her house on Main Street,

<sup>15</sup> And as people walk by minding their own business, calls out,

<sup>16</sup> "Are you confused about life, don't know what's going on?"

<sup>17</sup> Steal off with me, I'll show you a good time! No one will ever know--I'll give you the time of your life."

<sup>18</sup> But they don't know about all the skeletons in her closet, that all her guests end up in hell.

10 <sup>1</sup> Wise son, glad father; stupid son, sad mother.

<sup>2</sup> Ill-gotten gain gets you nowhere; an honest life is immortal.

<sup>3</sup> GOD won't starve an honest soul, but he frustrates the appetites of the wicked.

11 <sup>1</sup> GOD hates cheating in the marketplace; he loves it when business is aboveboard.

<sup>30</sup> A twinkle in the eye means joy in the heart, and good news makes you feel fit as a fiddle.

<sup>33</sup> Fear-of-GOD is a school in skilled living--first you learn humility, then you experience glory.

16 <sup>1</sup> Mortals make elaborate plans, but GOD has the last word.

<sup>9</sup> We plan the way we want to live, but only GOD makes us able to live it.

17 <sup>1</sup> A meal of bread and water in contented peace is better than a banquet spiced with quarrels.

<sup>7</sup> When you're down on your luck, even your family avoids you--yes, even your best friends wish you'd get lost. If they see you coming, they look the other way--out of sight, out of mind.

Wait for GOD; he'll settle the score.

22 <sup>1</sup> A sterling reputation is better than striking it rich; a gracious spirit is better than money in the bank.

<sup>20</sup> I'm giving you thirty sterling principles--tested guidelines to live by.

<sup>21</sup> Believe me--these are truths that work, and will keep you accountable to those who sent you.

<sup>8</sup> His miserly serving will turn your stomach when you realize the meal's a sham.

beat up for no reason at all? Whose eyes are bleary and bloodshot?

<sup>30</sup> It's those who spend the night with a bottle, for whom drinking is serious business.

<sup>35</sup> "They hit me," you'll say, "but it didn't hurt; they beat on me, but I didn't feel a thing. When I'm sober enough to manage it, bring me another drink!"

24 <sup>1</sup> Don't envy bad people; don't even want to be around them.

<sup>12</sup> If you say, "Hey, that's none of my business," will that get you off the hook? Someone is watching you closely, you know--Someone not impressed with weak excuses.

<sup>13</sup> Eat honey, dear child--it's good for you--and delicacies that melt in your mouth.

<sup>14</sup> Likewise knowledge, and wisdom for your soul--Get that and your future's secured, your hope is on solid rock.

<sup>22</sup> Without warning your life can turn upside-down, and who knows how or when it might happen?

<sup>29</sup> Don't say to anyone, "I'll get back at you for what you did to me. I'll make you pay for what you did!"

<sup>30</sup> One day I walked by the field of an old lazybones, and then passed the vineyard of a lout;

<sup>6</sup> Don't work yourself into the spotlight; don't push your way into the place of prominence.

<sup>8</sup> Don't jump to conclusions--there may be a perfectly good explanation for what you just saw.

<sup>28</sup> A person without self-control is like a house with its doors and windows knocked out.

26 <sup>1</sup> We no more give honors to fools than pray for snow in summer or rain during harvest.

<sup>14</sup> Just as a door turns on its hinges, so a lazybones turns back over in bed.

<sup>8</sup> People who won't settle down, wandering hither and yon, are like restless birds, flitting to and fro.

<sup>11</sup> Become wise, dear child, and make me happy; then nothing the world throws my way will upset me.

<sup>13</sup> Hold tight to collateral on any loan to a stranger; be wary of accepting what a transient has pawned.

will sound to him more like a curse than a blessing.

<sup>19</sup> Just as water mirrors your face, so your face mirrors your heart.

<sup>25</sup> And then, when the crops are in and the harvest is stored in the barns,

<sup>27</sup> There will be plenty of milk and meat to last your family through the winter.

28 <sup>1</sup> The wicked are edgy with guilt, ready to run off even when no one's after them; Honest people are relaxed and confident, bold as lions.

<sup>9</sup> God has no use for the prayers of the people who won't listen to him.

<sup>25</sup> A grasping person stirs up trouble, but trust in GOD brings a sense of well-being.

<sup>26</sup> If you think you know it all, you're a fool for sure; real survivors learn wisdom from others.

<sup>18</sup> If people can't see what God is doing, they stumble all over themselves; But when they attend to what he reveals, they are most blessed.

<sup>19</sup> It takes more than talk to keep workers in line; mere words go in one ear and out the other.

30 <sup>1</sup> The skeptic swore, "There is no God! No God!--I can do anything I want!"

so-called human intelligence escapes
me.

<sup>3</sup> "I flunked 'wisdom.' I see no evidence of a holy God.

<sup>4</sup> Has anyone ever seen Anyone climb into Heaven and take charge? grab the winds and control them? gather the rains in his bucket? stake out the ends of the earth? Just tell me his name, tell me the names of his sons. Come on now--tell me!"

<sup>5</sup> The believer replied, "Every promise of God proves true; he protects everyone who runs to him for help.

<sup>6</sup> So don't second-guess him; he might take you to task and show up your lies."

<sup>7</sup> And then he prayed, "God, I'm asking for two things before I die; don't refuse
me--

<sup>8</sup> Banish lies from my lips and liars from my presence. Give me enough food to live on, neither too much nor too little.

<sup>9</sup> If I'm too full, I might get independent, saying, 'God? Who needs him?' If I'm poor, I might steal and dishonor the name of my God."

<sup>10</sup> Don't blow the whistle on your fellow workers behind their backs; They'll accuse you of being underhanded, and then [you'll] be the guilty one!

<sup>11</sup> Don't curse your father or fail to bless your mother.

<sup>14</sup> Don't be greedy, merciless and cruel as wolves, Tearing into the poor and feasting on them, shredding the needy to pieces only to discard them.

<sup>15</sup> A leech has twin daughters named "Gimme" and "Gimme more." Three things are never satisfied, no, there are four that never say, "That's enough, thank you!"--

31 <sup>1</sup> The words of King Lemuel, the strong advice his mother gave him:

<sup>2</sup> "Oh, son of mine, what can you be thinking of! Child whom I bore! The son I dedicated to God!

<sup>30</sup> Charm can mislead and beauty soon fades. The woman to be admired and praised is the woman who lives in the Fear-of-GOD.

Festoon her life with praises!

Ecclesiastes

1 <sup>1</sup> These are the words of the Quester, David's son and king in Jerusalem:

<sup>4</sup> One generation goes its way, the next one arrives, but nothing changes--it's business as usual for old planet earth.

<sup>5</sup> The sun comes up and the sun goes down, then does it again, and again--the same old round.

<sup>6</sup> The wind blows south, the wind blows north. Around and around and around it blows, blowing this way, then that--the whirling, erratic wind.

<sup>7</sup> All the rivers flow into the sea, but the sea never fills up. The rivers keep flowing to the same old place, and then start all over and do it again.

<sup>8</sup> Everything's boring, utterly boring--no one can find any meaning in it. Boring to the eye, boring to the ear.

<sup>9</sup> What was will be again, what happened will happen again. There's nothing new on this earth. Year after year it's the same old thing.

<sup>13</sup> I looked most carefully into everything, searched out all that is done on this earth. And let me tell you, there's not much to write home about. God hasn't made it easy for us.

<sup>14</sup> I've seen it all and it's nothing but smoke--smoke, and spitting into the wind.

<sup>18</sup> Much learning earns you much trouble. The more you know, the more you hurt.

2<sup>1</sup> I said to myself, "Let's go for it--experiment with pleasure, have a good time!" But there was nothing to it, nothing but smoke.

<sup>3</sup> With the help of a bottle of wine and all the wisdom I could muster, I tried my level best to penetrate the absurdity of life. I wanted to get a handle on anything useful we mortals might do during the years we spend on this earth.

<sup>7</sup> I bought slaves, male and female, who had children, giving me even more slaves; then I acquired large herds and flocks, larger than any before me in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> I piled up silver and gold, loot from kings and kingdoms. I gathered a chorus of singers to entertain me with song, and--most exquisite of all pleasures--voluptuous maidens for my bed.

<sup>10</sup> Everything I wanted I took--I never said no to myself. I gave in to every impulse, held back nothing. I sucked the marrow of pleasure out of every task--my reward to myself for a hard day's work!

<sup>11</sup> Then I took a good look at everything I'd done, looked at all the sweat and hard work. But when I looked, I saw nothing but smoke. Smoke and spitting into the wind. There was nothing to any of it. Nothing.

<sup>13</sup> But I did see that it's better to be smart than stupid, just as light is better than darkness.

<sup>14</sup> Even so, though the smart ones see where they're going and the stupid ones grope in the dark, they're all the same in the end. One fate for all--and that's it.

<sup>15</sup> When I realized that my fate's the same as the fool's, I had to ask myself, "So why bother being wise?" It's all smoke, nothing but smoke.

<sup>16</sup> The smart and the stupid both disappear out of sight. In a day or two they're both forgotten. Yes, both the smart and the stupid die, and that's it.

<sup>17</sup> I hate life. As far as I can see, what happens on earth is a bad business. It's smoke--and spitting into the wind.

<sup>18</sup> And I hated everything I'd accomplished and accumulated on this earth. I can't take it with me--no, I have to leave it to whoever comes after me.

<sup>19</sup> Whether they're worthy or worthless--and who's to tell?--they'll take over the earthly results of my intense thinking and hard work. Smoke.

<sup>20</sup> That's when I called it quits, gave up on anything that could be hoped for on this earth.

<sup>21</sup> What's the point of working your fingers to the bone if you hand over what you worked for to someone who never lifted a finger for it? Smoke, that's what it is. A bad business from start to finish.

<sup>25</sup> Whether we feast or fast, it's up to God.

<sup>26</sup> God may give wisdom and knowledge and joy to his favorites, but sinners are assigned a life of hard labor, and end up turning their wages over to God's favorites. Nothing but smoke--and spitting into the wind.

3 <sup>1</sup> There's an opportune time to do things, a right time for everything on the earth:

<sup>8</sup> A right time to love and another to hate, A right time to wage war and another to make peace.

<sup>9</sup> But in the end, does it really make a difference what anyone does?

<sup>10</sup> I've had a good look at what God has given us to do--busywork, mostly.

<sup>11</sup> True, God made everything beautiful in itself and in its time--but he's left us in the dark, so we can never know what God is up to, whether he's coming or going.

<sup>12</sup> I've decided that there's nothing better to do than go ahead and have a good time and get the most we can out of life.

<sup>13</sup> That's it--eat, drink, and make the most of your job. It's God's gift.

<sup>14</sup> I've also concluded that whatever God does, that's the way it's going to be, always. No addition, no subtraction. God's done it and that's it. That's so we'll quit asking questions and simply worship in holy fear.

<sup>15</sup> Whatever was, is. Whatever will be, is. That's how it always is with God.

<sup>17</sup> The place of righteousness--corrupt! I said to myself, "God will judge righteous and wicked." There's a right time for every thing, every deed--and there's no getting around it.

<sup>18</sup> I said to myself regarding the human race, "God's testing the lot of us, showing us up as nothing but animals."

<sup>20</sup> We all end up in the same place--we all came from dust, we all end up as dust.

<sup>21</sup> Nobody knows for sure that the human spirit rises to heaven or that the animal spirit sinks into the earth.

<sup>22</sup> So I made up my mind that there's nothing better for us men and women than to have a good time in whatever we do--that's our lot. Who knows if there's anything else to life?

4 <sup>1</sup> Next I turned my attention to all the outrageous violence that takes place on this planet--the tears of the victims, no one to comfort them; the iron grip of oppressors, no one to rescue the victims from them.

<sup>2</sup> So I congratulated the dead who are already dead instead of the living who are still alive.

<sup>3</sup> But luckier than the dead or the living is the person who has never even been, who has never seen the bad business that takes place on this earth.

Is better than two fistfuls of worried work--More spitting into the wind.

<sup>7</sup> I turned my head and saw yet another wisp of smoke on its way to nothingness:

<sup>8</sup> a solitary person, completely alone--no children, no family, no friends--yet working obsessively late into the night, compulsively greedy for more and more, never bothering to ask, "Why am I working like a dog, never having any fun? And who cares?" More smoke. A bad business.

<sup>9</sup> It's better to have a partner than go it alone. Share the work, share the wealth.

<sup>11</sup> Two in a bed warm each other. Alone, you shiver all night.

<sup>13</sup> A poor youngster with some wisdom is better off than an old but foolish king who doesn't know which end is up.

<sup>16</sup> Even so, the excitement died quickly, the throngs of people soon lost interest. Can't you see it's only smoke? And spitting into the wind?

5 <sup>1</sup> Watch your step when you enter God's house. Enter to learn. That's far better than mindlessly offering a sacrifice, Doing more harm than good.

<sup>2</sup> Don't shoot off your mouth, or speak before you think. Don't be too quick to tell God what you think he wants to hear. God's in charge, not you--the less you speak, the better.

<sup>5</sup> Far better not to vow in the first place than to vow and not pay up.

<sup>6</sup> Don't let your mouth make a total sinner of you. When called to account, you won't get by with "Sorry, I didn't mean it." Why risk provoking God to angry retaliation?

<sup>7</sup> But against all illusion and fantasy and empty talk There's always this rock foundation: Fear God!

<sup>8</sup> Don't be too upset when you see the poor kicked around, and justice and right violated all over the place. Exploitation filters down from one petty official to another. There's no end to it, and nothing can be done about it.

<sup>9</sup> But the good earth doesn't cheat anyone--even a bad king is honestly served by a field.

<sup>10</sup> The one who loves money is never satisfied with money, Nor the one who loves wealth with big profits. More smoke.

<sup>11</sup> The more loot you get, the more looters show up. And what fun is that--to be robbed in broad daylight?

<sup>12</sup> Hard and honest work earns a good night's sleep, Whether supper is beans or steak. But a rich man's belly gives him insomnia.

<sup>18</sup> After looking at the way things are on this earth, here's what I've decided is the best way to live: Take care of yourself, have a good time, and make the most of whatever job you have for as long as God gives you life. And that's about it. That's the human lot.

<sup>19</sup> Yes, we should make the most of what God gives, both the bounty and the capacity to enjoy it, accepting what's given and delighting in the work. It's God's gift!

<sup>20</sup> God deals out joy in the present, the now. It's useless to brood over how long we might live.

6 <sup>1</sup> I looked long and hard at what goes on around here, and let me tell you, things are bad. And people feel it.

<sup>2</sup> There are people, for instance, on whom God showers everything--money, property, reputation--all they ever wanted or dreamed of. And then God doesn't let them enjoy it. Some stranger comes along and has all the fun. It's more of what I'm calling [smoke]. A bad business.

<sup>8</sup> So what advantage has a sage over a fool, or over some poor wretch who barely gets by?

<sup>9</sup> Just grab whatever you can while you can; don't assume something better might turn up by and by. All it amounts to anyway is smoke. And spitting into the wind.

<sup>12</sup> And who knows what's best for us as we live out our meager smoke-and-shadow lives? And who can tell any of us the next chapter of our lives?

7 <sup>1</sup> A good reputation is better than a fat bank account. Your death date tells more than your birth date.

<sup>3</sup> Crying is better than laughing. It blotches the face but it scours the heart.

<sup>14</sup> On a good day, enjoy yourself; On a bad day, examine your conscience. God arranges for both kinds of days So that we won't take anything for granted.

<sup>15</sup> I've seen it all in my brief and pointless life--here a good person cut down in the middle of doing good, there a bad person living a long life of sheer evil.

<sup>17</sup> But don't press your luck by being bad, either. And don't be reckless. Why die needlessly?

<sup>22</sup> You've done that a few times, haven't you--said things Behind someone's back you wouldn't say to his face?

<sup>23</sup> I tested everything in my search for wisdom. I set out to be wise, but it was beyond me, <sup>24</sup> far beyond me, and deep--oh so deep! Does anyone ever find it?

<sup>25</sup> I concentrated with all my might, studying and exploring and seeking wisdom--the meaning of life. I also wanted to identify evil and stupidity, foolishness and craziness.

<sup>29</sup> Yet I did spot one ray of light in this murk: God made men and women true and upright; [we're] the ones who've made a mess of things.

8 <sup>1</sup> There's nothing better than being wise, Knowing how to interpret the meaning of life. Wisdom puts light in the eyes, And gives gentleness to words and manners.

<sup>6</sup> Yes, there's a right time and way for everything, even though, unfortunately, we miss it for the most part.

<sup>7</sup> It's true that no one knows what's going to happen, or when. Who's around to tell us?

<sup>8</sup> No one can control the wind or lock it in a box. No one has any say-so regarding the day of death. No one can stop a battle in its tracks. No one who does evil can be saved by evil.

<sup>9</sup> All this I observed as I tried my best to understand all that's going on in this world. As long as men and women have the power to hurt each other, this is the way it is.

<sup>10</sup> One time I saw wicked men given a solemn burial in holy ground. When the people returned to the city, they delivered flowery eulogies--and in the very place where wicked acts were done by those very men! More smoke. Indeed.

<sup>11</sup> Because the sentence against evil deeds is so long in coming, people in general think they can get by with murder.

<sup>12</sup> Even though a person sins and gets by with it hundreds of times throughout a long life, I'm still convinced that the good life is reserved for the person who fears God, who lives reverently in his presence, <sup>13</sup> and that the evil person will not experience a "good" life. No matter how many days he lives, they'll all be as flat and colorless as a shadow--because he doesn't fear God.

<sup>14</sup> Here's something that happens all the time and makes no sense at all: Good people get what's coming to the wicked, and bad people get what's coming to the good. I tell you, this makes no sense. It's smoke.

<sup>15</sup> So, I'm all for just going ahead and having a good time--the best possible. The only earthly good men and women can look forward to is to eat and drink well and have a good time--compensation for the struggle for survival these few years God gives us on earth.

<sup>16</sup> When I determined to load up on wisdom and examine everything taking place on earth, I realized that if you keep your eyes open day and night without even blinking, <sup>17</sup> you'll still never figure out the meaning of what God is doing on this earth. Search as hard as you like, you're not going to make sense of it. No matter how smart you are, you won't get to the bottom of it.

9 <sup>1</sup> Well, I took all this in and thought it through, inside and out. Here's what I understood: The good, the wise, and all that they do are in God's hands--but, day by day, whether it's love or hate they're dealing with, they don't know. Anything's possible.

the nice and the nasty, worshipers and non-worshipers, committed and uncommitted.

<sup>9</sup> Relish life with the spouse you love Each and every day of your precarious life. Each day is God's gift. It's all you get in exchange For the hard work of staying alive. Make the most of each one!

<sup>11</sup> I took another walk around the neighborhood and realized that on this earth as it is--The race is not always to the swift, Nor the battle to the strong, Nor satisfaction to the wise, Nor riches to the smart, Nor grace to the learned.

Sooner or later bad luck hits us all.

<sup>12</sup> No one can predict misfortune. Like fish caught in a cruel net or birds in a trap, So men and women are caught By accidents evil and sudden.

<sup>13</sup> One day as I was observing how wisdom fares on this earth, I saw something that made me sit up and take notice.

<sup>14</sup> There was a small town with only a few people in it. A strong king came and mounted an attack, building trenches and attack posts around it.

<sup>15</sup> There was a poor but wise man in that town whose wisdom saved the town, but he was promptly forgotten. (He was only a poor man, after all.)

While experienced veterans are put out to pasture.

<sup>8</sup> Caution: The trap you set might catch you.
Warning: Your accomplice in crime might double-cross you.

Be alert: Felling trees is hazardous.

<sup>10</sup> Remember: The duller the ax the harder the work;
Use your head: The more brains, the less muscle.

<sup>11</sup> If the snake bites before it's been charmed,
What's the point in then sending for the charmer?

<sup>12</sup> The words of a wise person are gracious.
The talk of a fool self-destructs-

<sup>13</sup> He starts out talking nonsense
And ends up spouting insanity and evil.

<sup>14</sup> Fools talk way too much,
Chattering stuff they know nothing about.

<sup>15</sup> A decent day's work so fatigues fools
That they can't find their way back to town.

<sup>16</sup> Unlucky the land whose king is a young pup, And whose princes party all night.

<sup>17</sup> Lucky the land whose king is mature,
Where the princes behave themselves
And don't drink themselves silly.

<sup>18</sup> A shiftless man lives in a tumbledown shack; A lazy woman ends up with a leaky roof.

<sup>19</sup> Laughter and bread go together, And wine gives sparkle to life--But it's money that makes the world go around.

<sup>20</sup> Don't bad-mouth your leaders, not even under your breath, And don't abuse your betters, even in the privacy of your home. Loose talk has a way of getting picked up and spread around. Little birds drop the crumbs of your gossip far and wide.

11 <sup>1</sup> Be generous: Invest in acts of charity. Charity yields high returns.

<sup>2</sup> Don't hoard your goods; spread them around. Be a blessing to others. This could be your last night.

<sup>3</sup> When the clouds are full of water, it rains. When the wind blows down a tree, it lies where it falls.

<sup>5</sup> Just as you'll never understand the mystery of life forming in a pregnant woman, So you'll never understand the mystery at work in all that God does.

<sup>6</sup> Go to work in the morning and stick to it until evening without watching the clock. You never know from moment to moment how your work will turn out in the end.

how wonderful to live in the sunshine!

<sup>8</sup> Even if you live a long time, don't take a single day for granted. Take delight in each light-filled hour, Remembering that there will also be many dark days And that most of what comes your way is smoke.

<sup>9</sup> You who are young, make the most of your youth. Relish your youthful vigor.
Follow the impulses of your heart. If something looks good to you, pursue it. But know also that not just anything goes; You have to answer to God for every last bit of it.

<sup>10</sup> Live footloose and fancy free--You won't be young forever. Youth lasts about as long as smoke.

12 <sup>1</sup> Honor and enjoy your Creator while you're still young, Before the years take their toll and your vigor waned,

<sup>2</sup> Before your vision dims and the world blurs
And the winter years keep you close to the fire.

<sup>3</sup> In old age, your body no longer serves you so well.
Muscles slacken, grip weakens, joints stiffen.
The shades are pulled down on the world.

<sup>4</sup> You can't come and go at will. Things grind to a halt.
The hum of the household fades away.
You are wakened now by bird-song.

<sup>5</sup> Hikes to the mountains are a thing of the past.
Even a stroll down the road has its terrors.
Your hair turns apple-blossom white,
Adorning a fragile and impotent matchstick body.
Yes, you're well on your way to eternal rest,
While your friends make plans for your funeral.

<sup>6</sup> Life, lovely while it lasts, is soon over.
Life as we know it, precious and beautiful, ends.

<sup>7</sup> The body is put back in the same ground it came from. The spirit returns to God, who first breathed it.

<sup>14</sup> And that's it. Eventually God will bring everything that we do out into the open and judge it according to its hidden intent, whether it's good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1 <sup>1</sup> The Song--best of all songs-- Solomon's song!

<sup>2</sup> Kiss me--full on the mouth! Yes! For your love is better than wine,

<sup>3</sup> headier than your aromatic oils. The syllables of your name murmur like a meadow brook. No wonder everyone loves to say your name!

<sup>4</sup> Take me away with you! Let's run off together! An elopement with my King-Lover! We'll celebrate, we'll sing, we'll make great music. Yes! For your love is better than vintage wine. Everyone loves you--of course! And why not?

<sup>5</sup> I am weathered but still elegant, oh, dear sisters in Jerusalem, Weather-darkened like Kedar desert tents, time-softened like Solomon's Temple hangings.

<sup>6</sup> Don't look down on me because I'm dark, darkened by the sun's harsh rays. My brothers ridiculed me and sent me to work in the fields. They made me care for the face of the earth, but I had no time to care for my own face.

<sup>7</sup> Tell me where you're working--I love you so much--Tell me where you're tending your flocks, where you let them rest at noontime. Why should I be the one left out, outside the orbit of your tender care?

<sup>16</sup> And you, my dear lover--you're so handsome! And the bed we share is like a forest glen.

2 <sup>1</sup> I'm just a wildflower picked from the plains of Sharon, a lotus blossom from the valley pools.

<sup>2</sup> A lotus blossoming in a swamp of weeds--that's my dear friend among the girls in the village.

<sup>4</sup> He took me home with him for a festive meal, but his eyes feasted on [me]!

<sup>9</sup> My lover is like a gazelle, graceful; like a young stag, virile. Look at him there, on tiptoe at the gate, all ears, all eyes--ready!

<sup>10</sup> My lover has arrived and he's speaking to me! Get up, my dear friend, fair and beautiful lover--come to me!

Spring warblers are filling the forest with sweet arpeggios.

<sup>13</sup> Lilacs are exuberantly purple and perfumed, and cherry trees fragrant with blossoms. Oh, get up, dear friend, my fair and beautiful lover--come to me!

<sup>14</sup> Come, my shy and modest dove--leave your seclusion, come out in the open. Let me see your face, let me hear your voice. For your voice is soothing and your face is ravishing.

<sup>16</sup> My lover is mine, and I am his. Nightly he strolls in our garden, Delighting in the flowers

3<sup>1</sup> Restless in bed and sleepless through the night, I longed for my lover. I wanted him desperately. His absence was painful.

<sup>2</sup> So I got up, went out and roved the city, hunting through streets and down alleys. I wanted my lover in the worst way! I looked high and low, and didn't find him.

<sup>3</sup> And then the night watchmen found me as they patrolled the darkened city. "Have you seen my dear lost love?" I asked.

<sup>4</sup> No sooner had I left them than I found him, found my dear lost love. I threw my arms around him and held him tight, wouldn't let him go until I had him home again, safe at home beside the fire.

<sup>5</sup> Oh, let me warn you, sisters in Jerusalem, by the gazelles, yes, by all the wild deer: Don't excite love, don't stir it up, until the time is ripe--and you're ready.

<sup>6</sup> What's this I see, approaching from the desert, raising clouds of dust, Filling the air with sweet smells and pungent aromatics?

<sup>11</sup> Come and look, sisters in Jerusalem. Oh, sisters of Zion, don't miss this! My King-Lover, dressed and garlanded for his wedding, his heart full, bursting with joy!

4 <sup>1</sup> You're so beautiful, my darling, so beautiful, and your dove eyes are veiled By your hair as it flows and shimmers, like a flock of goats in the distance streaming down a hillside in the sunshine.

<sup>6</sup> The sweet, fragrant curves of your body, the soft, spiced contours of your flesh Invite me, and I come. I stay until dawn breathes its light and night slips away.

<sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride. Leave Lebanon behind, and come. Leave your high mountain hideaway. Abandon your wilderness seclusion, Where you keep company with lions and panthers guard your safety.

<sup>9</sup> You've captured my heart, dear friend. You looked at me, and I fell in love. One look my way and I was hopelessly in love!

<sup>10</sup> How beautiful your love, dear, dear friend--far more pleasing than a fine, rare wine, your fragrance more exotic than select spices.

<sup>11</sup> The kisses of your lips are honey, my love, every syllable you speak a delicacy to savor. Your clothes smell like the wild outdoors, the ozone scent of high mountains.

<sup>13</sup> Body and soul, you are paradise, a whole orchard of succulent fruits--Ripe apricots and peaches, oranges and pears; Nut trees and cinnamon, and all scented woods;

<sup>16</sup> Wake up, North Wind, get moving, South Wind! Breathe on my garden, fill the air with spice fragrance. Oh, let my lover enter his garden! Yes, let him eat the fine, ripe fruits.

5 <sup>1</sup> I went to my garden, dear friend, best lover! breathed the sweet fragrance. I ate the fruit and honey, I drank the nectar and wine. Celebrate with me, friends! Raise your glasses--"To life! To love!"

<sup>2</sup> I was sound asleep, but in my dreams I was wide awake. Oh, listen! It's the sound of my lover knocking, calling! "Let me in, dear companion, dearest friend, my dove, consummate lover! I'm soaked with the dampness of the night, drenched with dew, shivering and cold."

<sup>3</sup> "But I'm in my nightgown--do you expect me to get dressed? I'm bathed and in bed--do you want me to get dirty?"

<sup>4</sup> But my lover wouldn't take no for an answer, and the longer he knocked, the more excited I became.

<sup>5</sup> I got up to open the door to my lover, sweetly ready to receive him, Desiring and expectant as I turned the door handle.

<sup>6</sup> But when I opened the door he was gone. My loved one had tired of waiting and left. And I died inside--oh, I felt so bad! I ran out looking for him But he was nowhere to be found. I called into the darkness--but no answer.

<sup>7</sup> The night watchmen found me as they patrolled the streets of the city. They slapped and beat and bruised me, ripping off my clothes, These watchmen, who were supposed to be guarding the city.

<sup>8</sup> I beg you, sisters in Jerusalem--if you find my lover, Please tell him I want him, that I'm heartsick with love for him.

<sup>9</sup> What's so great about your lover, fair lady? What's so special about him that you beg for our help?

<sup>16</sup> His words are kisses, his kisses words. Everything about him delights me, thrills me through and through! That's my lover, that's my man, dear Jerusalem sisters.

6 <sup>1</sup> So where has this love of yours gone, fair one? Where on earth can he be? Can we help you look for him?

<sup>2</sup> Never mind. My lover is already on his way to his garden, to browse among the flowers, touching the colors and forms.

<sup>3</sup> I am my lover's and my lover is mine. He caresses the sweet-smelling flowers.

<sup>4</sup> Dear, dear friend and lover, you're as beautiful as Tirzah, city of delights, Lovely as Jerusalem, city of dreams, the ravishing visions of my ecstasy.

<sup>5</sup> Your beauty is too much for me--I'm in over my head. I'm not used to this! I can't take it in. Your hair flows and shimmers like a flock of goats in the distance streaming down a hillside in the sunshine.

<sup>9</sup> She's a woman beyond compare. My dove is perfection, Pure and innocent as the day she was born, and cradled in joy by her mother. Everyone who came by to see her exclaimed and admired her--All the fathers and mothers, the neighbors and friends, blessed and praised her:

<sup>10</sup> "Has anyone ever seen anything like this--dawn-fresh, moon-lovely, sun-radiant, ravishing as the night sky with its galaxies of stars?"

<sup>12</sup> Before I knew it my heart was raptured, carried away by lofty thoughts!

<sup>13</sup> Dance, dance, dear Shulammite, Angel-Princess! Dance, and we'll feast our eyes on your grace! Everyone wants to see the Shulammite dance her victory dances of love and peace.

7<sup>1</sup> Shapely and graceful your sandaled feet, and queenly your movement--Your limbs are lithe and elegant, the work of a master artist.

<sup>8</sup> I say, "I'm going to climb that palm tree! I'm going to caress its fruit!" Oh yes! Your breasts will be clusters of sweet fruit to me, Your breath clean and cool like fresh mint, <sup>9</sup> your tongue and lips like the best wine. Yes, and yours are, too--my love's kisses flow from his lips to mine.

<sup>10</sup> I am my lover's. I'm all he wants. I'm all the world to him!

<sup>12</sup> Let's sleep at some wayside inn, then rise early and listen to bird-song. Let's look for wildflowers in bloom, blackberry bushes blossoming white, Fruit trees festooned with cascading flowers. And there I'll give myself to you, my love to your love!

<sup>13</sup> Love-apples drench us with fragrance, fertility surrounds, suffuses us, Fruits fresh and preserved that I've kept and saved just for you, my love.

8 <sup>1</sup> I wish you'd been my twin brother, sharing with me the breasts of my mother, Playing outside in the street, kissing in plain view of everyone, and no one thinking anything of it.

<sup>4</sup> Oh, let me warn you, sisters in Jerusalem: Don't excite love, don't stir it up, until the time is ripe--and you're ready.

<sup>5</sup> Who is this I see coming up from the country, arm in arm with her lover? I found you under the apricot tree, and woke you up to love. Your mother went into labor under that tree, and under that very tree she bore you.

<sup>8</sup> My brothers used to worry about me: "Our little sister has no breasts. What shall we do with our little sister when men come asking for her?"

<sup>10</sup> Dear brothers, I'm a walled-in virgin still, but my breasts are full--And when my lover sees me, he knows he'll soon be satisfied.

<sup>11</sup> King Solomon may have vast vineyards in lush, fertile country, Where he hires others to work the ground. People pay anything to get in on that bounty.

<sup>12</sup> But [my] vineyard is all mine, and I'm keeping it to myself. You can have your vast vineyards, Solomon, you and your greedy guests!

<sup>13</sup> Oh, lady of the gardens, my friends are with me listening. Let me hear your voice!

<sup>14</sup> Run to me, dear lover. Come like a gazelle. Leap like a wild stag on the spice mountains.

Isaiah

1 <sup>1</sup> The vision that Isaiah son of Amoz saw regarding Judah and Jerusalem during the times of the kings of Judah: Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah.

<sup>2</sup> Heaven and earth, you're the jury. Listen to GOD's case: "I had children and raised them well, and they turned on me.

<sup>3</sup> The ox knows who's boss, the mule knows the hand that feeds him, But not Israel. My people don't know up from down.

<sup>4</sup> Shame! Misguided GOD-dropouts, staggering under their guilt-baggage, Gang of miscreants, band of vandals--My people have walked out on me, their GOD, turned their backs on The Holy of Israel, walked off and never looked back.

<sup>5</sup> "Why bother even trying to do anything with you when you just keep to your bullheaded ways? You keep beating your heads against brick walls. Everything within you protests against you.

desolate as Sodom, doomed just like Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup> "Listen to my Message, you Sodom-schooled leaders. Receive God's revelation, you Gomorrah-schooled people.

<sup>11</sup> "Why this frenzy of sacrifices?" GOD's asking. "Don't you think I've had my fill of burnt sacrifices, rams and plump grain-fed calves? Don't you think I've had my fill of blood from bulls, lambs, and goats?"

<sup>12</sup> When you come before me, who ever gave you the idea of acting like this, Running here and there, doing this and that--all this sheer commotion in the place provided for worship?

<sup>14</sup> Meetings for this, meetings for that. I hate them! You've worn me out! I'm sick of your religion, religion, religion, while you go right on sinning.

<sup>15</sup> When you put on your next prayer-performance, I'll be looking the other way. No matter how long or loud or often you pray, I'll not be listening. And do you know why? Because you've been tearing people to pieces, and your hands are bloody.

<sup>16</sup> Go home and wash up. Clean up your act. Sweep your lives clean of your evildoings so I don't have to look at them any longer. Say no to wrong.

<sup>18</sup> "Come. Sit down. Let's argue this out." This is GOD's Message: "If your sins are blood-red, they'll be snow-white. If they're red like crimson, they'll be like wool.

One of Israel: "This is it! I'll get my oppressors off my back. I'll get back at my enemies.

<sup>25</sup> I'll give you the back of my hand, purge the junk from your life, clean you up.

<sup>29</sup> "Your dalliances in those oak grove shrines will leave you looking mighty foolish, All that fooling around in god and goddess gardens that you thought was the latest thing.

<sup>31</sup> 'The Big Man' will turn out to be dead bark and twigs, and his 'work,' the spark that starts the fire That exposes man and work both as nothing but cinders and smoke."

2 <sup>1</sup> The Message Isaiah got regarding Judah and Jerusalem:

<sup>2</sup> There's a day coming when the mountain of GOD's House Will be The Mountain--solid, towering over all mountains. All nations will river toward it, people from all over set out for it.

<sup>3</sup> They'll say, "Come, let's climb GOD's Mountain, go to the House of the God of Jacob. He'll show us the way he works so we can live the way we're made." Zion's the source of the revelation. GOD's Message comes from Jerusalem.

From the terror of GOD, from his dazzling presence.

<sup>11</sup> People with a big head are headed for a fall, pretentious egos brought down a peg. It's GOD alone at front-and-center on the Day we're talking about,

<sup>12</sup> The Day that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is matched against all big-talking rivals, against all swaggering big names;

<sup>13</sup> Against all giant sequoias hugely towering, and against the expansive chestnut;

<sup>14</sup> Against Kilimanjaro and Annapurna, against the ranges of Alps and Andes;

<sup>15</sup> Against every soaring skyscraper, against all proud obelisks and statues;

<sup>16</sup> Against ocean-going luxury liners, against elegant three-masted schooners.

<sup>17</sup> The swelled big heads will be punctured bladders, the pretentious egos brought down to earth, Leaving

GOD alone at front-and-center on the Day we're talking about.

<sup>18</sup> And all those sticks and stones dressed up to look like gods will be gone for good.

<sup>19</sup> Clamber into caves in the cliffs, duck into any hole you can find. Hide from the terror of GOD, from his dazzling presence, When he assumes his full stature on earth, towering and terrifying.

<sup>20</sup> On that Day men and women will take the sticks and stones They've decked out in gold and silver to look like gods and then worshiped, And they will dump them in any ditch or gully, <sup>21</sup> Then run for rock caves and cliff hideouts To hide from the terror of GOD, from his dazzling presence, When he assumes his full stature on earth, towering and terrifying.

<sup>22</sup> Quit scraping and fawning over mere humans, so full of themselves, so full of hot air! Can't you see there's nothing to them?

3 <sup>1</sup> The Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, is emptying Jerusalem and Judah Of all the basic necessities, plain bread and water to begin with.

<sup>3</sup> captains and generals, doctors and nurses, and, yes, even the repairmen and jacks-of-all-trades.

<sup>4</sup> He says, "I'll put little kids in charge of the city. Schoolboys and schoolgirls will order everyone around.

<sup>6</sup> One brother will grab another and say, 'You look like you've got a head on your shoulders. Do something! Get us out of this mess.'

<sup>7</sup> And he'll say, 'Me? Not me! I don't have a clue. Don't put me in charge of anything.'

<sup>11</sup> But doom to the wicked! Disaster! Everything they did will be done to them.

<sup>15</sup> What is this anyway? Stomping on my people, grinding the faces of the poor into the dirt?" That's what the Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, says.

<sup>18</sup> The time is coming when the Master will strip them of their fancy baubles--

4 <sup>1</sup> That will be the day when seven women will gang up on one man, saying, "We'll take care of ourselves, get our own food and clothes. Just give us a child. Make us pregnant so we'll have something to live for!"

<sup>2</sup> And that's when GOD's Branch will sprout green and lush. The produce of the country will give Israel's survivors something to be proud of again. Oh, they'll hold their heads high!

<sup>3</sup> Everyone left behind in Zion, all the discards and rejects in Jerusalem, will be reclassified as "holy"--alive and therefore precious.

of its violence and brutality, purge the place with a firestorm of judgment.

<sup>5</sup> Then GOD will bring back the ancient pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night and mark Mount Zion and everyone in it with his glorious presence, his immense, protective presence,

5 <sup>1</sup> I'll sing a ballad to the one I love, a love ballad about his vineyard: The one I love had a vineyard, a fine, well-placed vineyard.

<sup>2</sup> He hoed the soil and pulled the weeds, and planted the very best vines. He built a lookout, built a winepress, a vineyard to be proud of. He looked for a vintage yield of grapes, but for all his pains he got junk grapes.

<sup>3</sup> "Now listen to what I'm telling you, you who live in Jerusalem and Judah.

What do you think is going on between me and my vineyard?

<sup>4</sup> Can you think of anything I could have done to my vineyard that I didn't do? When I expected good grapes, why did I get bitter grapes?

<sup>5</sup> "Well now, let me tell you what I'll do to my vineyard: I'll tear down its fence and let it go to ruin. I'll knock down the gate and let it be trampled.

<sup>6</sup> I'll turn it into a patch of weeds, untended, uncared for--thistles and thorns will take over. I'll give orders to the clouds: 'Don't rain on that vineyard, ever!'"

<sup>7</sup> Do you get it? The vineyard of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is the country of Israel. All the men and women of Judah are the garden he was so proud of. He looked for a crop of justice and saw them murdering each other. He looked for a harvest of righteousness and heard only the moans of victims.

<sup>8</sup> Doom to you who buy up all the houses and grab all the land for yourselves--Evicting the old owners, posting NO TRESPASSING signs, Taking over the country, leaving everyone homeless and landless.

<sup>9</sup> I overheard GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies say: "Those mighty houses will end up empty. Those extravagant estates will be deserted.

<sup>10</sup> A ten-acre vineyard will produce a pint of wine, a fifty-pound sack of seed, a quart of grain."

<sup>12</sup> They make sure their banquets are well-furnished with harps and flutes and plenty of wine, But they'll have nothing to do with the work of GOD, pay no mind to what he is doing.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore my people will end up in exile because they don't know the score. Their "big men" will starve to death and the common people die of thirst.

<sup>15</sup> The down-and-out on a par with the high-and-mighty, Windbag boasters crumpled, flaccid as a punctured bladder.

<sup>16</sup> But by working justice, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will be a mountain. By working righteousness, Holy God will show what "holy" is.

<sup>18</sup> Doom to you who use lies to sell evil, who haul sin to market by the truckload,

<sup>19</sup> Who say, "What's God waiting for? Let him get a move on so we can see it. Whatever The Holy of Israel has cooked up, we'd like to check it out."

<sup>24</sup> But they won't get by with it. As fire eats stubble and dry grass goes up in smoke, Their souls will atrophy, their achievements crumble into dust,

Because they said no to the revelation of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Would have nothing to do with The Holy of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> That's why GOD flamed out in anger against his people, reached out and knocked them down. The mountains trembled as their dead bodies piled up in the streets. But even after that, he was still angry, his fist still raised, ready to hit them again.

<sup>30</sup> They'll roar and roar and roar on that Day, like the roar of ocean billows. Look as long and hard as you like at that land, you'll see nothing but darkness and trouble. Every light in the sky will be blacked out by the clouds.

6 <sup>1</sup> In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Master sitting on a throne--high, exalted!--and the train of his robes filled the Temple.

<sup>3</sup> And they called back and forth one to the other, Holy, Holy, Holy is GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. His bright glory fills the whole earth.

<sup>4</sup> The foundations trembled at the sound of the angel voices, and then the whole house filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup> I said, "Doom! It's Doomsday! I'm as good as dead! Every word I've ever spoken is tainted--blasphemous even! And the people I live with talk the same way, using words that corrupt and desecrate. And here I've looked God in the face! The King! GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies!"

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the angel-seraphs flew to me. He held a live coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

<sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with the coal and said, "Look. This coal has touched your lips. Gone your guilt, your sins wiped out."

<sup>8</sup> And then I heard the voice of the Master: "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" I spoke up, "I'll go. Send me!"

<sup>9</sup> He said, "Go and tell this people:
"Listen hard, but you aren't going to get it; look hard, but you won't catch on.'

<sup>10</sup> Make these people blockheads, with fingers in their ears and blindfolds on their eyes, So they won't see a thing, won't hear a word, So they won't have a clue about what's going on and, yes, so they won't turn around and be made whole."

<sup>11</sup> Astonished, I said, "And Master, how long is this to go on?" He said, "Until the cities are emptied out, not a soul left in the cities--Houses empty of people, countryside empty of people.

<sup>12</sup> Until I, GOD, get rid of everyone, sending them off, the land totally empty.

<sup>13</sup> And even if some should survive, say a tenth, the devastation will start up again. The country will look like pine and oak forest with every tree cut down--Every tree a stump, a huge field of stumps. But there's a holy seed in those stumps."

7<sup>1</sup> During the time that Ahaz son of Jothan, son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel attacked Jerusalem, but the attack sputtered out.

<sup>2</sup> When the Davidic government learned that Aram had joined forces with Ephraim (that is, Israel), Ahaz and his people were badly shaken. They shook like trees in the wind.

<sup>3</sup> Then GOD told Isaiah, "Go and meet Ahaz. Take your son Shear-jashub (A-Remnant-Will-Return) with you. Meet him south of the city at the end of the aqueduct where it empties into the upper pool on the road to the public laundry.

<sup>4</sup> Tell him, Listen, calm down. Don't be afraid. And don't panic over these two burnt-out cases, Rezin of Aram and the son of Remaliah. They talk big but there's nothing to them.

<sup>5</sup> Aram, along with Ephraim's son of Remaliah, have plotted to do you harm. They've conspired against you, saying,

<sup>6</sup> 'Let's go to war against Judah, dismember it, take it for ourselves, and set the son of Tabeel up as a puppet king over it.'

<sup>7</sup> But GOD, the Master, says, "It won't happen. Nothing will come of it

<sup>10</sup> GOD spoke again to Ahaz. This time he said,

<sup>11</sup> "Ask for a sign from your GOD. Ask anything. Be extravagant. Ask for the moon!"

<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said, "I'd never do that. I'd never make demands like that on GOD!"

<sup>13</sup> So Isaiah told him, "Then listen to this, government of David! It's bad enough that you make people tired with your pious, timid hypocrisies, but now you're making God tired.

<sup>14</sup> So the Master is going to give you a sign anyway. Watch for this: A girl who is presently a virgin will get pregnant. She'll bear a son and name him Immanuel (God-With-Us).

<sup>15</sup> By the time the child is twelve years old, able to make moral decisions, <sup>16</sup> the threat of war will be over. Relax, those two kings that have you so worried will be out of the picture.

<sup>17</sup> But also be warned: GOD will bring on you and your people and your government a judgment worse than anything since the time the kingdom split, when Ephraim left Judah. The king of Assyria is coming!"

<sup>19</sup> They'll come and infest every nook and cranny of this country. There'll be no getting away from them.

<sup>20</sup> And that's when the Master will take the razor rented from across the Euphrates--the king of Assyria no less!--and shave the hair off your heads and genitals, leaving you shamed, exposed, and denuded. He'll shave off your beards while he's at it.

<sup>21</sup> It will be a time when survivors will count themselves lucky to have a cow and a couple of sheep.

<sup>22</sup> At least they'll have plenty of milk! Whoever's left in the land will learn to make do with the simplest foods--curds, say, and honey.

<sup>23</sup> But that's not the end of it. This country that used to be covered with fine vineyards--thousands of them, worth millions!--will revert to a weed patch.

<sup>25</sup> Cattle and sheep will forage as best they can in the fields of weeds--but there won't be a trace of all those fertile and well-tended gardens and fields.

8 <sup>1</sup> Then GOD told me, "Get a big sheet of paper and write in indelible ink, 'This belongs to Maher-shalal-hash-baz (Spoil-Speeds-Plunder-Hurries).'"

<sup>2</sup> I got two honest men, Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah, to witness the document.

<sup>3</sup> Then I went home to my wife, the prophetess. She conceived and gave birth to a son. GOD told me, "Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

<sup>5</sup> GOD spoke to me again, saying:

<sup>6</sup> "Because this people has turned its back on the gently flowing stream of Shiloah And gotten all excited over Rezin and the son of Remaliah,

<sup>8</sup> Pouring into Judah, sweeping everything before it, water up to your necks, A huge wingspan of a raging river, O Immanuel, spreading across your land."

<sup>9</sup> But face the facts, all you oppressors, and then wring your hands. Listen, all of you, far and near. Prepare for the worst and wring your hands. Yes, prepare for the worst and wring your hands!

<sup>10</sup> Plan and plot all you want--nothing will come of it. All your talk is mere talk, empty words, Because when all is said and done, the last word is Immanuel--God-With-Us.

<sup>11</sup> GOD spoke strongly to me, grabbed me with both hands and warned me not to go along with this people. He said:

<sup>12</sup> "Don't be like this people, always afraid somebody is plotting against them. Don't fear what they fear. Don't take on their worries.

The Holy. Fear GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>14</sup> The Holy can be either a Hiding Place or a Boulder blocking your way, The Rock standing in the willful way of both houses of Israel, A barbed-wire Fence preventing trespass to the citizens of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Many of them are going to run into that Rock and get their bones broken, Get tangled up in that barbed wire and not get free of it."

<sup>17</sup> While I wait for GOD as long as he remains in hiding, while I wait and hope for him.

<sup>18</sup> I stand my ground and hope, I and the children GOD gave me as signs to Israel, Warning signs and hope signs from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, who makes his home in Mount Zion.

Why not tap into the spirit-world, get in touch with the dead?"

<sup>21</sup> Frustrated and famished, they try one thing after another. When nothing works out they get angry, cursing first this god and then that one, Looking this way and that,

9<sup>1</sup> But there'll be no darkness for those who were in trouble. Earlier he did bring the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali into disrepute, but the time is coming when he'll make that whole area glorious--the road along the Sea, the country past the Jordan, international Galilee.

<sup>2</sup> The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. For those who lived in a land of deep shadows--light! sunbursts of light!

<sup>3</sup> You repopulated the nation, you expanded its joy. Oh, they're so glad in your presence! Festival joy! The joy of a great celebration, sharing rich gifts and warm greetings.

<sup>5</sup> The boots of all those invading troops, along with their shirts soaked with innocent blood, Will be piled in a heap and burned, a fire that will burn for days!

<sup>6</sup> For a child has been born--for us! the gift of a son--for us! He'll take over the running of the world. His names will be:

Amazing Counselor, Strong God, Eternal Father, Prince of Wholeness.

<sup>9</sup> All the people soon heard the message, Ephraim and the citizens of Samaria. But they were a proud and arrogant bunch. They dismissed the message, saying,

<sup>10</sup> "Things aren't that bad. We can handle anything that comes. If our buildings are knocked down, we'll rebuild them bigger and finer. If our forests are cut down, we'll replant them with finer trees."

<sup>12</sup> From the east, Arameans; from the west, Philistines. They made hash of Israel. But even after that, he was still angry, his fist still raised, ready to hit them again.

<sup>13</sup> But the people paid no mind to him who hit them, didn't seek GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>14</sup> So GOD hacked off Israel's head and tail, palm branch and reed, both on the same day.

<sup>15</sup> The big-head elders were the head, the lying prophets were the tail.

<sup>16</sup> Those who were supposed to lead this people led them down blind alleys,

And those who followed the leaders ended up lost and confused.

<sup>17</sup> That's why the Master lost interest in the young men, had no feeling for their orphans and widows. All of them were godless and evil, talking filth and folly. And even after that, he was still angry, his fist still raised, ready to hit them again.

Not even their children were safe from their rapacious hunger.

<sup>21</sup> Manasseh ate Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh, and then the two ganged up against Judah. And after that, he was still angry, his fist still raised, ready to hit them again.

10 <sup>1</sup> Doom to you who legislate evil, who make laws that make victims--

<sup>3</sup> What will you have to say on Judgment Day, when Doomsday arrives out of the blue? Who will you get to help you? What good will your money do you?

<sup>4</sup> A sorry sight you'll be then, huddled with the prisoners, or just some corpses stacked in the street. Even after all this,

God is still angry, his fist still raised, ready to hit them again.

<sup>6</sup> I send him against a godless nation, against the people I'm angry with. I command him to strip them clean, rob them blind, and then push their faces in the mud and leave them.

<sup>7</sup> But Assyria has another agenda; he has something else in mind. He's out to destroy utterly, to stamp out as many nations as he can.

<sup>9</sup> Didn't I destroy Calno as well as Carchemish? Hamath as well as Arpad? Level Samaria as I did Damascus?

<sup>11</sup> So what's to keep me from destroying Jerusalem in the same way I destroyed Samaria and all her god-idols?"

<sup>13</sup> the way he goes around saying, "'I've done all this by myself. I know more than anyone. I've wiped out the boundaries of whole countries. I've walked in and taken anything I wanted. I charged in like a bull and toppled their kings from their thrones.

<sup>14</sup> I reached out my hand and took all that they treasured as easily as a boy taking a bird's eggs from a nest. Like a farmer gathering eggs from the henhouse, I gathered the world in my basket, And no one so much as fluttered a wing or squawked or even chirped.'" "

<sup>15</sup> Does an ax take over from the one who swings it? Does a saw act more important than the sawyer? As if a shovel did its shoveling by using a ditch digger! As if a hammer used the carpenter to pound nails!

<sup>17</sup> Israel's Light will burst into a conflagration. The Holy will explode into a firestorm, And in one day burn to cinders every last Assyrian thornbush.

<sup>18</sup> GOD will destroy the splendid trees and lush gardens. The Assyrian body and soul will waste away to nothing like a disease-ridden invalid.

<sup>20</sup> And on that Day also, what's left of Israel, the ragtag survivors of Jacob, will no longer be fascinated by abusive, battering Assyria. They'll lean on GOD, The Holy--yes, truly.

<sup>23</sup> For the Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, will finish here what he started all over the globe.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, says: "My dear, dear people who live in Zion, don't be terrorized by the Assyrians when they beat you with clubs and threaten you with rods like the Egyptians once did.

<sup>25</sup> In just a short time my anger against you will be spent and I'll turn my destroying anger on them.

<sup>26</sup> I, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, will go after them with a cat-o'-nine-tails and finish them off decisively--as Gideon downed Midian at the rock Oreb, as Moses turned the tables on Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> On that day, Assyria will be pulled off your back, and the yoke of slavery lifted from your neck." Assyria's on the move: up from Rimmon,

<sup>34</sup> His ax will make toothpicks of that forest, that Lebanon-like army reduced to kindling.

<sup>2</sup> The life-giving Spirit of GOD will hover over him, the Spirit that brings wisdom and understanding, The Spirit that gives direction and builds strength, the Spirit that instills knowledge and Fear-of-GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Fear-of-GOD will be all his joy and delight. He won't judge by appearances, won't decide on the basis of hearsay.

<sup>8</sup> The nursing child will crawl over rattlesnake dens, the toddler stick his hand down the hole of a serpent.

<sup>9</sup> Neither animal nor human will hurt or kill on my holy mountain. The whole earth will be brimming with knowing God-Alive, a living knowledge of God ocean-deep, ocean-wide.

<sup>10</sup> On that day, Jesse's Root will be raised high, posted as a rallying banner for the peoples. The nations will all come to him. His headquarters will be glorious.

<sup>11</sup> Also on that day, the Master for the second time will reach out to bring back what's left of his scattered people. He'll bring them back from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Ethiopia, Elam, Sinar, Hamath, and the ocean islands.

<sup>12</sup> And he'll raise that rallying banner high, visible to all nations, gather in all the scattered exiles of Israel, Pull in all the dispersed refugees of Judah from the four winds and the seven seas.

<sup>14</sup> Blood brothers united, they'll pounce on the Philistines in the west, join forces to plunder the people in the east. They'll attack Edom and Moab. The Ammonites will fall into line.

<sup>15</sup> GOD will once again dry up Egypt's Red Sea, making for an easy crossing. He'll send a blistering wind down on the great River Euphrates, Reduce it to seven mere trickles. None even need get their feet wet!

<sup>16</sup> In the end there'll be a highway all the way from Assyria, easy traveling for what's left of God's people--A highway just like the one Israel had when he marched up out of Egypt.

12 <sup>1</sup> And you will say in that day, "I thank you, GOD. You were angry but your anger wasn't forever. You withdrew your anger and moved in and comforted me.

<sup>2</sup> "Yes, indeed--God is my salvation. I trust, I won't be afraid. GOD--yes GOD!--is my strength and song, best of all, my salvation!"

<sup>5</sup> "Sing praise-songs to GOD. He's done it all! Let the whole earth know what he's done!

<sup>5</sup> They come from far-off countries, they pour in across the horizon. It's GOD on the move with the weapons of his wrath, ready to destroy the whole country.

<sup>6</sup> Wail! GOD's Day of Judgment is near--an avalanche crashing down from the Strong God!

<sup>7</sup> Everyone paralyzed in the panic, hysterical

<sup>8</sup> and unstrung, Doubled up in pain like a woman giving birth to a baby.
Horrified--everyone they see is like a face out of a nightmare.

<sup>9</sup> "Watch now. GOD's Judgment Day comes. Cruel it is, a day of wrath and anger, A day to waste the earth and clean out all the sinners.

<sup>10</sup> The stars in the sky, the great parade of constellations, will be nothing but black holes. The sun will come up as a black disk, and the moon a blank nothing.

<sup>11</sup> I'll put a full stop to the evil on earth, terminate the dark acts of the wicked.

I'll gag all braggarts and boasters--not a peep anymore from them--and trip strutting tyrants, leave them flat on their faces.

<sup>12</sup> Proud humanity will disappear from the earth. I'll make mortals rarer than hens' teeth.

<sup>13</sup> And yes, I'll even make the sky shake, and the earth quake to its roots Under the wrath of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the Judgment Day of his raging anger.

<sup>19</sup> And Babylon, most glorious of all kingdoms, the pride and joy of Chaldeans, Will end up smoking and stinking like Sodom, and, yes, like Gomorrah, when God had finished with them.

<sup>20</sup> No one will live there anymore, generation after generation a ghost town. Not even Bedouins will pitch tents there. Shepherds will give it a wide berth.

<sup>21</sup> But strange and wild animals will like it just fine, filling the vacant houses with eerie night sounds. Skunks will make it their home, and unspeakable night hags will haunt it.

<sup>22</sup> Hyenas will curdle your blood with their laughing, and the howling of coyotes will give you the shivers. "Babylon is doomed. It won't be long now."

14 <sup>1</sup> But not so with Jacob. GOD will have compassion on Jacob. Once again he'll choose Israel. He'll establish them in their own country. Outsiders will be attracted and throw their lot in with Jacob.

<sup>2</sup> The nations among whom they lived will actually escort them back home, and then Israel will pay them back by making slaves of them, men and women alike, possessing them as slaves in GOD's country, capturing those who had captured them, ruling over those who had abused them.

<sup>3</sup> When GOD has given you time to recover from the abuse and trouble and harsh servitude that you had to endure,

<sup>5</sup> GOD has broken the rule of the wicked, the power of the bully-rulers

<sup>9</sup> And the underworld dead are all excited, preparing to welcome you when you come. Getting ready to greet you are the ghostly dead, all the famous names of earth. All the buried kings of the nations will stand up on their thrones

<sup>10</sup> With well-prepared speeches, royal invitations to death: "Now you are as nothing as we are! Make yourselves at home with us dead folks!"

<sup>12</sup> What a comedown this, O Babylon! Daystar! Son of Dawn! Flat on your face in the underworld mud, you, famous for flattening nations!

<sup>13</sup> You said to yourself, "I'll climb to heaven. I'll set my throne over the stars of God. I'll run the assembly of angels that meets on sacred Mount Zaphon.

<sup>14</sup> I'll climb to the top of the clouds. I'll take over as King of the Universe!"

<sup>15</sup> But you didn't make it, did you?
Instead of climbing up, you came down--Down with the underground dead, down to the abyss of the Pit.

<sup>16</sup> People will stare and muse: "Can this be the one Who terrorized earth and its kingdoms,

<sup>17</sup> turned earth to a moonscape, Wasted its cities, shut up his prisoners to a living death?"

<sup>18</sup> Other kings get a decent burial, honored with eulogies and placed in a tomb.

<sup>19</sup> But you're dumped in a ditch unburied, like a stray dog or cat, Covered with rotting bodies, murdered and indigent corpses. Your dead body desecrated, mutilated--

<sup>20</sup> no state funeral for you! You've left your land in ruins, left a legacy of massacre. The progeny of your evil life will never be named. Oblivion!

<sup>21</sup> Get a place ready to slaughter the sons of the wicked and wipe out their father's line. Unthinkable that they should own a square foot of land or desecrate the face of the world with their cities!

<sup>24</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies speaks: "Exactly as I planned, it will happen. Following my blueprints, it will take shape.

<sup>25</sup> I will shatter the Assyrian who trespasses my land and stomp him into the dirt on my mountains. I will ban his taking and making of slaves and lift the weight of oppression from all shoulders."

<sup>26</sup> This is the plan, planned for the whole earth, And this is the hand that will do it, reaching into every nation.

<sup>27</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has planned it. Who could ever cancel such plans? His is the hand that's reached out. Who could brush it aside?

<sup>29</sup> Hold it, Philistines! It's too soon to celebrate the defeat of your cruel oppressor. From the death throes of that snake a worse snake will come, and from that, one even worse.

<sup>30</sup> The poor won't have to worry. The needy will escape the terror. But you Philistines will be plunged into famine, and those who don't starve, God will kill.

<sup>32</sup> What does one say to outsiders who ask questions? Tell them, "GOD has established Zion. Those in need and in trouble find refuge in her."

<sup>3</sup> They pour into the streets wearing black, go up on the roofs, take to the town square, Everyone in tears, everyone in grief.

<sup>4</sup> Towns Heshbon and Elealeh cry long and loud. The sound carries as far as Jahaz. Moab sobs, shaking in grief. The soul of Moab trembles.

<sup>5</sup> Oh, how I grieve for Moab! Refugees stream to Zoar and then on to Eglathshelishiyah. Up the slopes of Luhith they weep; on the road to Horonaim they cry their loss.

<sup>6</sup> The springs of Nimrim are dried up--grass brown, buds stunted, nothing grows.

<sup>7</sup> They leave, carrying all their possessions on their backs, everything they own, Making their way as best they can across Willow Creek to safety.

<sup>8</sup> Poignant cries reverberate all through Moab, Gut-wrenching sobs as far as Eglaim, heart-racking sobs all the way to Beer-elim.

16 <sup>1</sup> "Dispatch a gift of lambs," says Moab, "to the leaders in Jerusalem--Lambs from Sela sent across the desert to buy the goodwill of Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Give the refugees from Moab sanctuary with you. Be a safe place for those on the run from the killing fields.'" "When this is all over," Judah answers,

"the tyrant toppled, The killing at an end,
all signs of these cruelties long gone,

<sup>5</sup> A new government of love will be established in the venerable David tradition. A Ruler you can depend upon will head this government, A Ruler passionate for justice, a Ruler quick to set things right."

<sup>6</sup> We've heard--everyone's heard!--of Moab's pride, world-famous for pride--
-Arrogant, self-important, insufferable, full of hot air.

<sup>7</sup> So now let Moab lament for a change, with antiphonal mock-laments from the neighbors! What a shame! How terrible!
No more fine fruitcakes and Kir-hareseth candies!

<sup>8</sup> All those lush Heshbon fields dried up, the rich Sibmah vineyards withered!
Foreign thugs have crushed and torn out the famous grapevines That once reached all the way to Jazer, right to the edge of the desert, Ripped out the crops in every direction as far as the eye can see.

<sup>9</sup> I'll join the weeping. I'll weep right along with Jazer, weep for the Sibmah vineyards. And yes, Heshbon and Elealeh, I'll mingle my tears with your tears! The joyful shouting at harvest is gone. Instead of song and celebration, dead silence.

<sup>10</sup> No more boisterous laughter in the orchards, no more hearty work songs in the vineyards. Instead of the bustle and sound of good work in the fields, silence--deathly and deadening silence.

<sup>12</sup> When Moab trudges to the shrine to pray, he wastes both time and energy. Going to the sanctuary and praying for relief is useless. Nothing ever happens.

<sup>14</sup> GOD's updated Message is, "In three years, no longer than the term of an enlisted soldier, Moab's impressive presence will be gone, that splendid hot-air balloon will be punctured, and instead of a vigorous population, just a few shuffling bums cadging handouts."

17 <sup>1</sup> A Message concerning Damascus: "Watch this: Damascus undone as a city, a pile of dust and rubble!

<sup>6</sup> Or like the couple of ripe olives overlooked in the top of the olive tree, Or the four or five apples that the pickers couldn't reach in the orchard." Decree of the GOD of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> Yes, the Day is coming when people will notice The One Who Made Them, take a long hard look at The Holy of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They'll lose interest in all the stuff they've made--altars and monuments and rituals, their homemade, handmade religion--however impressive it is.

<sup>9</sup> And yes, the Day is coming when their fortress cities will be abandoned--the very same cities that the Hivites and Amorites abandoned when Israel invaded! And the country will be empty, desolate.

<sup>10</sup> And why? Because you have forgotten God-Your-Salvation, not remembered your Rock-of-Refuge. And so, even though you are very religious, planting all sorts of bushes and herbs and trees to honor and influence your fertility gods, <sup>11</sup> And even though you make them grow so well, bursting with buds and sprouts and blossoms, Nothing will come of them. Instead of a harvest you'll get nothing but grief and pain, pain, pain.

<sup>13</sup> Roaring like a deafening Niagara! But God will silence them with a word, And then he'll blow them away like dead leaves off a tree, like down from a thistle.

<sup>14</sup> At bedtime, terror fills the air. By morning it's gone--not a sign of it anywhere! This is what happens to those who would ruin us, this is the fate of those out to get us.

18 <sup>1</sup> Doom to the land of flies and mosquitoes beyond the Ethiopian rivers, <sup>2</sup> Shipping emissaries all over the world, down rivers and across seas. Go, swift messengers, go to this people tall and handsome, This people held in respect everywhere, this people mighty and merciless, from the land crisscrossed with rivers.

<sup>3</sup> Everybody everywhere, all earth-dwellers: When you see a flag flying on the mountain, look! When you hear the trumpet blown, listen!

<sup>4</sup> For here's what GOD told me: "I'm not going to say anything, but simply look on from where I live, Quiet as warmth that comes from the sun, silent as dew during harvest."

<sup>6</sup> He'll leave them piled on the ground for birds and animals to feed on--Fodder for the summering birds, fodder for the wintering animals.

<sup>7</sup> Then tribute will be brought to GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, brought from this people tall and handsome, This people once held in respect everywhere, this people once mighty and merciless,

From the land crisscrossed with rivers, to Mount Zion, GOD's place.

19 <sup>1</sup> A Message concerning Egypt: Watch this! GOD riding on a fast-moving cloud, moving in on Egypt!
The god-idols of Egypt shudder and shake, Egyptians paralyzed by panic.

<sup>2</sup> God says, "I'll make Egyptian fight Egyptian, brother fight brother, neighbor fight neighbor, City fight city, kingdom fight kingdom--anarchy and chaos and killing!

<sup>3</sup> I'll knock the wind out of the Egyptians. They won't know coming from going. They'll go to their god-idols for answers; they'll conjure ghosts and hold séances, desperate for answers.

<sup>4</sup> But I'll turn the Egyptians over to a tyrant most cruel. I'll put them under the rule of a mean, merciless king." Decree of the Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>9</sup> Textile workers will be out of work, all weavers and workers in linen and cotton and wool

<sup>11</sup> The princes of Zoan are fools, the advisors of Pharaoh stupid. How could any of you dare tell Pharaoh, "Trust me: I'm wise. I know what's going on. Why, I'm descended from the old wisdom of Egypt"?

<sup>12</sup> There's not a wise man or woman left in the country. If there were, one of them would tell you what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has in mind for Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> As it is, the princes of Zoan are all fools and the princes of Memphis, dunces. The honored pillars of your society have led Egypt into detours and dead ends.

<sup>17</sup> Little Judah will strike terror in Egyptians! Say "Judah" to an Egyptian and see panic. The word triggers fear of the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies' plan against Egypt.

<sup>18</sup> On that Day, more than one city in Egypt will learn to speak the language of faith and promise to follow GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. One of these cities will be honored with the title "City of the Sun."

<sup>19</sup> On that Day, there will be a place of worship to GOD in the center of Egypt and a monument to GOD at its border.

<sup>20</sup> It will show how the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has helped the Egyptians. When they cry out in prayer to GOD because of oppressors, he'll send them help, a savior who will keep them safe and take care of them.

<sup>21</sup> GOD will openly show himself to the Egyptians and they'll get to know him on that Day. They'll worship him seriously with sacrifices and burnt offerings. They'll make vows and keep them.

<sup>22</sup> GOD will wound Egypt, first hit and then heal. Egypt will come back to GOD, and GOD will listen to their prayers and heal them, heal them from head to toe.

<sup>23</sup> On that Day, there will be a highway all the way from Egypt to Assyria: Assyrians will have free range in Egypt and Egyptians in Assyria. No longer rivals, they'll worship together, Egyptians and Assyrians!

<sup>24</sup> On that Day, Israel will take its place alongside Egypt and Assyria, sharing the blessing from the center.

<sup>25</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, who blessed Israel, will generously bless them all: "Blessed be Egypt, my people! ...Blessed be Assyria, work of my hands! ...Blessed be Israel, my heritage!"

20<sup>1</sup> In the year the field commander, sent by King Sargon of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought and took it, <sup>2</sup> GOD told Isaiah son of Amoz, "Go, take off your clothes and sandals," and Isaiah did it, going about naked and barefooted.

<sup>3</sup> Then GOD said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked around town naked and barefooted for three years as a warning sign to Egypt and Ethiopia, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria is going to come and take the Egyptians as captives and the Ethiopians as exiles. He'll take young and old alike and march them out of there naked and barefooted, exposed to mockery and jeers--the bared buttocks of Egypt on parade!

<sup>5</sup> Everyone who has put hope in Ethiopia and expected help from Egypt will be thrown into confusion.

<sup>6</sup> Everyone who lives along this coast will say, 'Look at them! Naked and barefooted, shuffling off to exile! And we thought they were our best hope, that they'd rescue us from the king of Assyria. Now what's going to happen to us? How are we going to get out of this?"

<sup>4</sup> Absolutely stunned, horror-stricken, I had hoped for a relaxed evening, but it has turned into a nightmare.

<sup>5</sup> The banquet is spread, the guests reclining in luxurious ease, Eating and drinking, having a good time, and then,

"To arms, princes! The fight is on!"

<sup>6</sup> The Master told me, "Go, post a lookout. Have him report whatever he spots.

<sup>7</sup> When he sees horses and wagons in battle formation, lines of donkeys and columns of camels, Tell him to keep his ear to the ground, note every whisper, every rumor."

<sup>8</sup> Just then, the lookout shouted, "I'm at my post, Master, Sticking to my post day after day and all through the night!

<sup>9</sup> I watched them come, the horses and wagons in battle formation. I heard them call out the war news in headlines: 'Babylon fallen! Fallen! And all its precious god-idols smashed to pieces on the ground.'"

Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, I now pass on to you.

<sup>11</sup> A Message concerning Edom: A voice calls to me from the Seir mountains in Edom, "Night watchman! How long till daybreak? How long will this night last?"

<sup>12</sup> The night watchman calls back, "Morning's coming, But for now it's still night. If you ask me again, I'll give the same answer."

<sup>14</sup> Haul water to the thirsty, greet fugitives with bread. Show your desert hospitality, you who live in Tema.

<sup>3</sup> You have no brave soldiers to honor, no combat heroes to be proud of. Your leaders were all cowards, captured without even lifting a sword, A country of cowards captured escaping the battle.

<sup>4</sup> In the midst of the shouting, I said, "Let me alone. Let me grieve by myself. Don't tell me it's going to be all right. These people are doomed. It's not all right."

and hollering to the mountains, "Attack! Attack!"

<sup>9</sup> You found the weak places in the city walls that needed repair. You secured the water supply at the Lower Pool.

<sup>10</sup> You took an inventory of the houses in Jerusalem and tore down some to get bricks to fortify the city wall.

<sup>11</sup> You built a large cistern to ensure plenty of water. You looked and looked and looked, but you never looked to him who gave you this city, never once consulted the One who has long had plans for this city.

<sup>13</sup> But what do you do? You throw a party! Eating and drinking and dancing in the streets! You barbecue bulls and sheep, and throw a huge feast--slabs of meat, kegs of beer. "Seize the day! Eat and drink! Tomorrow we die!"

<sup>14</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies whispered to me his verdict on this frivolity: "You'll pay for this outrage until the day you die." The Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, says so.

<sup>15</sup> The Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, spoke: "Come. Go to this steward, Shebna, who is in charge of all the king's affairs, and tell him:

<sup>17</sup> GOD is about to sack you, to throw you to the dogs. He'll grab you by the hair, <sup>18</sup> swing you round and round dizzyingly, and then let you go, sailing through the air like a ball, until you're out of sight. Where you'll land, nobody knows. And there you'll die, and all the stuff you've collected heaped on your grave. You've disgraced your master's house!

<sup>21</sup> I'll dress him in your robe. I'll put your belt on him. I'll give him your authority.

He'll be a father-leader to Jerusalem and the government of Judah.

<sup>22</sup> I'll give him the key of the Davidic heritage. He'll have the run of the place--open any door and keep it open, lock any door and keep it locked.

<sup>24</sup> Everything will hang on him--not only the fate of Davidic descendants but also the detailed daily operations of the house, including cups and cutlery.

<sup>25</sup> "And then the Day will come," says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, "when that nail will come loose and fall out, break loose from that solid wall--and everything hanging on it will go with it." That's what will happen. GOD says so.

23 <sup>1</sup> Wail, ships of Tarshish, your strong seaports all in ruins! When the ships returned from Cyprus, they saw the destruction.

<sup>4</sup> Hang your head in shame, Sidon. The Sea speaks up, the powerhouse of the ocean says, "I've never had labor pains, never had a baby, never reared children to adulthood, Never gave life, never worked with life. It was all numbers, dead numbers, profit and loss."

<sup>7</sup> Is this the city you remember as energetic and alive, bustling with activity, this historic old city, Expanding throughout the globe, buying and selling all over the world?

<sup>8</sup> And who is behind the collapse of Tyre, the Tyre that controlled the world markets? Tyre's merchants were the business tycoons. Tyre's traders called all the shots.

in Cyprus? Don't count on it. Nothing there will work out for you either."

<sup>15</sup> For the next seventy years, a king's lifetime, Tyre will be forgotten. At the end of the seventy years, Tyre will stage a comeback, but it will be the comeback of a worn-out whore, as in the song:

<sup>17</sup> At the end of the seventy years, GOD will look in on Tyre. She'll go back to her old whoring trade, selling herself to the highest bidder, doing anything with anyone--promiscuous with all the kingdoms of earth--for a fee.

<sup>18</sup> But everything she gets, all the money she takes in, will be turned over to GOD. It will not be put in banks. Her profits will be put to the use of GOD-Aware, GOD-Serving-People, providing plenty of food and the best of clothing.

24 <sup>1</sup> Danger ahead! GOD's about to ravish the earth and leave it in ruins, Rip everything out by the roots and send everyone scurrying:

<sup>2</sup> priests and laypeople alike, owners and workers alike, celebrities and nobodies alike, buyers and sellers alike, bankers and beggars alike, the haves and have-nots alike.

<sup>3</sup> The landscape will be a moonscape, totally wasted. And why? Because GOD says so. He's issued the orders.

<sup>4</sup> The earth turns gaunt and gray, the world silent and sad, sky and land lifeless, colorless.

<sup>13</sup> That's the way it will be on this earth. This is the fate of all nations: An olive tree shaken clean of its olives, a grapevine picked clean of its grapes.

<sup>14</sup> But there are some who will break into glad song. Out of the west they'll shout of GOD's majesty.

<sup>15</sup> Yes, from the east GOD's glory will ascend. Every island of the sea Will broadcast GOD's fame, the fame of the God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> From the four winds and the seven seas we hear the singing: "All praise to the Righteous One!" But I said, "That's all well and good for somebody, but all I can see is doom, doom, and more doom." All of them at one another's throats, yes, all of them at one another's throats.

<sup>19</sup> Earth is smashed to pieces, earth is ripped to shreds, earth is wobbling out of control,

<sup>21</sup> That's when GOD will call on the carpet rebel powers in the skies and Rebel kings on earth.

<sup>22</sup> They'll be rounded up like prisoners in a jail, Corralled and locked up in a jail, and then sentenced and put to hard labor.

<sup>23</sup> Shamefaced moon will cower, humiliated, red-faced sun will skulk, disgraced, Because GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will take over, ruling from Mount Zion and Jerusalem, Splendid and glorious before all his leaders.

25 <sup>1</sup> GOD, you are my God. I celebrate you. I praise you. You've done your share of miracle-wonders, well-thought-out plans, solid and sure.

<sup>4</sup> They'll see that you take care of the poor, that you take care of poor people in trouble, Provide a warm, dry place in bad weather, provide a cool place when it's hot. Brutal oppressors are like a winter blizzard

<sup>5</sup> and vicious foreigners like high noon in the desert. But you, shelter from the storm and shade from the sun, shut the mouths of the big-mouthed bullies.

<sup>6</sup> But here on this mountain, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will throw a feast for all the people of the world, A feast of the finest foods, a feast with vintage wines, a feast of seven courses, a feast lavish with gourmet desserts.

<sup>7</sup> And here on this mountain, GOD will banish the pall of doom hanging over all peoples, The shadow of doom darkening all nations.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, he'll banish death forever. And GOD will wipe the tears from every face.

He'll remove every sign of disgrace From his people, wherever they are. Yes! GOD says so!

<sup>9</sup> Also at that time, people will say, "Look at what's happened! This is our God! We waited for him and he showed up and saved us! This GOD, the one we waited for! Let's celebrate, sing the joys of his salvation.

<sup>10</sup> GOD's hand rests on this mountain!" As for the Moabites, they'll be treated like refuse, waste shoveled into a cesspool.

26 <sup>1</sup> At that time, this song will be sung in the country of Judah: We have a strong city, Salvation City, built and fortified with salvation.

<sup>4</sup> Depend on GOD and keep at it because in the LORD GOD you have a sure thing.

your decisions. Who you are and what you've done are all we'll ever want.

<sup>9</sup> Through the night my soul longs for you. Deep from within me my spirit reaches out to you. When your decisions are on public display, everyone learns how to live right.

<sup>10</sup> If the wicked are shown grace, they don't seem to get it. In the land of right living, they persist in wrong living, blind to the splendor of GOD.

<sup>11</sup> You hold your hand up high, GOD, but they don't see it. Open their eyes to what you do, to see your zealous love for your people. Shame them. Light a fire under them. Get the attention of these enemies of yours.

<sup>12</sup> GOD, order a peaceful and whole life for us because everything we've done, you've done for us.

<sup>13</sup> O GOD, our God, we've had other masters rule us, but you're the only Master we've ever known.

<sup>15</sup> But the living you make larger than life. The more life you give, the more glory you display, and stretch the borders to accommodate more living!

<sup>16</sup> O GOD, they begged you for help when they were in trouble, when your discipline was so heavy they could barely whisper a prayer.

<sup>17</sup> Like a woman having a baby, writhing in distress, screaming her pain as the baby is being born, That's how we were because of you, O GOD.

<sup>18</sup> We were pregnant full-term. We writhed in labor but bore no baby. We gave birth to wind. Nothing came of our labor. We produced nothing living. We couldn't save the world.

<sup>19</sup> But friends, your dead will live, your corpses will get to their feet. All you dead and buried, wake up! Sing! Your dew is morning dew catching the first rays of sun, The earth bursting with life, giving birth to the dead.

<sup>20</sup> Come, my people, go home and shut yourselves in. Go into seclusion for a while until the punishing wrath is past, <sup>21</sup> Because GOD is sure to come from his place to punish the wrong of the people on earth. Earth itself will point out the bloodstains; it will show where the murdered have been hidden away.

27 <sup>1</sup> At that time GOD will unsheathe his sword, his merciless, massive, mighty sword. He'll punish the serpent Leviathan as it flees, the serpent Leviathan thrashing in flight. He'll kill that old dragon that lives in the sea.

<sup>3</sup> I, GOD, tend it. I keep it well-watered. I keep careful watch over it so that no one can damage it.

<sup>4</sup> I'm not angry. I care. Even if it gives me thistles and thornbushes, I'll just pull them out and burn them up.

<sup>5</sup> Let that vine cling to me for safety, let it find a good and whole life with me, let it hold on for a good and whole life."

<sup>7</sup> Has GOD knocked them to the ground as he knocked down those who hit them? Oh, no. Were they killed as their killers were killed? Again, no.

<sup>8</sup> He was hard on them all right. The exile was a harsh sentence. He blew them away on a fierce blast of wind.

<sup>9</sup> But the good news is that through this experience Jacob's guilt was taken away. The evidence that his sin is removed will be this: He will tear down the alien altars, take them apart stone by stone, And then crush the stones into gravel and clean out all the sex-and-religion shrines.

<sup>10</sup> For there's nothing left of that pretentious grandeur. Nobody lives there anymore. It's unlivable. But animals do just fine, browsing and bedding down.

<sup>11</sup> And it's not a bad place to get firewood. Dry twigs and dead branches are plentiful. It's the leavings of a people with no sense of God. So, the God who made them Will have nothing to do with them. He who formed them will turn his back on them.

<sup>12</sup> At that time GOD will thresh from the River Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt, And you, people of Israel, will be selected grain by grain.

<sup>13</sup> At that same time a great trumpet will be blown, calling home the exiles from Assyria, Welcoming home the refugees from Egypt to come and worship GOD on the holy mountain, Jerusalem.

28 <sup>1</sup> Doom to the pretentious drunks of Ephraim, shabby and washed out and seedy--Topsy, sloppy-fat, beer-bellied parodies of a proud and handsome past.

<sup>9</sup> "Is that so? And who do you think you are to teach us? Who are you to lord it over us? We're not babies in diapers to be talked down to by such as you--

<sup>11</sup> But that's exactly how you will be addressed. God will speak to this people In baby talk, one syllable at a time--

<sup>12</sup> and he'll do it through foreign oppressors. He said before, "This is the time and place to rest, to give rest to the weary. This is the place to lay down your burden." But they won't listen.

<sup>13</sup> So GOD will start over with the simple basics and address them in baby talk, one syllable at a time--"Da, da, da, da, blah, blah, blah, blah. That's a good little girl, that's a good little boy." And like toddlers, they will get up and fall down, get bruised and confused and lost.

<sup>14</sup> Now listen to GOD's Message, you scoffers, you who rule this people in Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> But the Master, GOD, has something to say to this: "Watch closely. I'm laying a foundation in Zion, a solid granite foundation, squared and true. And this is the meaning of the stone: A TRUSTING LIFE WON'T TOPPLE.

<sup>18</sup> "Then you'll see that your precious life insurance policy wasn't worth the paper it was written on. Your careful precautions against death were a pack of illusions and lies. When the disaster happens, you'll be crushed by it.

<sup>19</sup> Every time disaster comes, you'll be in on it--disaster in the morning, disaster at night." Every report of disaster will send you cowering in terror.

<sup>20</sup> There will be no place where you can rest, nothing to hide under.

<sup>21</sup> GOD will rise to full stature, raging as he did long ago on Mount Perazim And in the valley of Gibeon against the Philistines. But this time it's against you. Hard to believe, but true. Not what you'd expect, but it's coming.

<sup>26</sup> They know exactly what to do and when to do it. Their God is their teacher.

<sup>28</sup> On the other hand, wheat is threshed and milled, but still not endlessly. The farmer knows how to treat each kind of grain.

<sup>29</sup> He's learned it all from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, who knows everything about when and how and where.

29 <sup>1</sup> Doom, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David set camp! Let the years add up, let the festivals run their cycles,

<sup>2</sup> But I'm not letting up on Jerusalem. The moaning and groaning will continue. Jerusalem to me is an Ariel.

<sup>3</sup> Like David, I'll set up camp against you. I'll set siege, build towers, bring in siege engines, build siege ramps.

<sup>4</sup> Driven into the ground, you'll speak, you'll mumble words from the dirt--Your voice from the ground, like the muttering of a ghost. Your speech will whisper from the dust.

<sup>5</sup> But it will be your enemies who are beaten to dust, the mob of tyrants who will be blown away like chaff. Because, surprise, as if out of nowhere,

<sup>7</sup> And the mob of enemies at war with Ariel, all who trouble and hassle and torment her, will turn out to be a bad dream, a nightmare.

<sup>8</sup> Like a hungry man dreaming he's eating steak and wakes up hungry as ever, Like a thirsty woman dreaming she's drinking iced tea and wakes up thirsty as ever, So that mob of nations at war against Mount Zion will wake up and find they haven't shot an arrow, haven't killed a single soul.

<sup>9</sup> Drug yourselves so you feel nothing. Blind yourselves so you see nothing. Get drunk, but not on wine. Black out, but not from whiskey.

<sup>10</sup> For GOD has rocked you into a deep, deep sleep, put the discerning prophets to sleep, put the farsighted seers to sleep.

envelope. If you give it to someone who can read and tell her, "Read this," she'll say, "I can't. The envelope is sealed."

<sup>12</sup> And if you give it to someone who can't read and tell him, "Read this," he'll say, "I can't read."

<sup>13</sup> The Master said: "These people make a big show of saying the right thing, but their hearts aren't in it. Because they act like they're worshiping me but don't mean it, <sup>14</sup> I'm going to step in and shock them awake, astonish them, stand them on their ears. The wise ones who had it all figured out will be exposed as fools. The smart people who thought they knew everything will turn out to know nothing."

<sup>15</sup> Doom to you! You pretend to have the inside track. You shut GOD out and work behind the scenes, Plotting the future as if you knew everything, acting mysterious, never showing your hand.

<sup>16</sup> You have everything backwards! You treat the potter as a lump of clay. Does a book say to its author, "He didn't write a word of me"? Does a meal say to the woman who cooked it, "She had nothing to do with this"?

<sup>17</sup> And then before you know it, and without you having anything to do with it, Wasted Lebanon will be transformed into lush gardens, and Mount Carmel reforested.

<sup>18</sup> At that time the deaf will hear word-for-word what's been written. After a lifetime in the dark, the blind will see.

<sup>19</sup> The castoffs of society will be laughing and dancing in GOD, the down-and-outs shouting praise to The Holy of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> For there'll be no more gangs on the street. Cynical scoffers will be an extinct species. Those who never missed a chance to hurt or demean will never be heard of again:

<sup>21</sup> Gone the people who corrupted the courts, gone the people who cheated the poor, gone the people who victimized the innocent.

<sup>22</sup> And finally this, GOD's Message for the family of Jacob, the same GOD who redeemed Abraham: "No longer will Jacob hang his head in shame, no longer grow gaunt and pale with waiting.

<sup>23</sup> For he's going to see his children, my personal gift to him--lots of children. And these children will honor me by living holy lives. In holy worship they'll honor the Holy One of Jacob and stand in holy awe of the God of Israel.

30 <sup>1</sup> "Doom, rebel children!" GOD's Decree. "You make plans, but not mine. You make deals, but not in my Spirit. You pile sin on sin, one sin on top of another,

<sup>4</sup> They look big and important, true, with officials strategically established in Zoan in the north and Hanes in the south,

<sup>5</sup> but there's nothing to them. Anyone stupid enough to trust them will end up looking stupid--All show, no substance, an embarrassing farce."

<sup>6</sup> And this note on the animals of the Negev encountered on the road to Egypt: A most dangerous, treacherous route, menaced by lions and deadly snakes. And you're going to lug all your stuff down there, your donkeys and camels loaded down with bribes, Thinking you can buy protection from that hollow farce of a nation?

<sup>8</sup> So, go now and write all this down. Put it in a book So that the record will be there to instruct the coming generations, <sup>9</sup> Because this is a rebel generation, a people who lie, A people unwilling to listen to anything GOD tells them.

<sup>10</sup> They tell their spiritual leaders, "Don't bother us with irrelevancies." They tell their preachers, "Don't waste our time on impracticalities. Tell us what makes us feel better.

<sup>11</sup> Don't bore us with obsolete religion. That stuff means nothing to us. Quit hounding us with The Holy of Israel."

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, The Holy of Israel says this: "Because you scorn this Message, Preferring to live by injustice and shape your lives on lies,

<sup>13</sup> This perverse way of life will be like a towering, badly built wall That slowly, slowly tilts and shifts, and then one day, without warning, collapses--

<sup>14</sup> Smashed to bits like a piece of pottery, smashed beyond recognition or repair, Useless, a pile of debris to be swept up and thrown in the trash."

<sup>15</sup> GOD, the Master, The Holy of Israel, has this solemn counsel: "Your salvation requires you to turn back to me and stop your silly efforts to save yourselves. Your strength will come from settling down in complete dependence on me--The very thing you've been unwilling to do.

<sup>18</sup> But GOD's not finished. He's waiting around to be gracious to you. He's gathering strength to show mercy to you. GOD takes the time to do everything right--everything. Those who wait around for him are the lucky ones.

<sup>19</sup> Oh yes, people of Zion, citizens of Jerusalem, your time of tears is over. Cry for help and you'll find it's grace and more grace. The moment he hears, he'll answer.

<sup>20</sup> Just as the Master kept you alive during the hard times, he'll keep your teacher alive and present among you. Your teacher will be right there, local and on the job,

<sup>23</sup> God will provide rain for the seeds you sow. The grain that grows will be abundant. Your cattle will range far and wide.

<sup>24</sup> Oblivious to war and earthquake, the oxen and donkeys you use for hauling and plowing will be fed well

<sup>26</sup> Better yet, on the Day GOD heals his people of the wounds and bruises from the time of punishment, moonlight will flare into sunlight, and sunlight, like a whole week of sunshine at once, will flood the land.

<sup>28</sup> A torrent of words, a flash flood of words sweeping everyone into the vortex of his words. He'll shake down the nations in a sieve of destruction, herd them into a dead end.

<sup>29</sup> But you will sing, sing through an all-night holy feast! Your hearts will burst with song, make music like the sound of flutes on parade, En route to the mountain of GOD, on the way to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> GOD will sound out in grandiose thunder, display his hammering arm, Furiously angry, showering sparks--cloudburst, storm, hail!

31 <sup>1</sup> Doom to those who go off to Egypt thinking that horses can help them, Impressed by military mathematics, awed by sheer numbers of chariots and riders--And to The Holy of Israel, not even a glance, not so much as a prayer to GOD.

<sup>2</sup> Still, he must be reckoned with, a most wise God who knows what he's doing. He can call down catastrophe. He's a God who does what he says. He intervenes in the work of those who do wrong, stands up against interfering evildoers.

<sup>3</sup> Egyptians are mortal, not God, and their horses are flesh, not Spirit. When GOD gives the signal, helpers and helped alike will fall in a heap and share the same dirt grave.

<sup>4</sup> This is what GOD told me: "Like a lion, king of the beasts, that gnaws and chews and worries its prey, Not fazed in the least by a bunch of shepherds who arrive to chase it off, So GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies comes down to fight on Mount Zion, to make war from its heights.

<sup>7</sup> On the day you return, you'll throw away--every last one of you--the no-gods your sinful hands made from metal and wood.

<sup>8</sup> "Assyrians will fall dead, killed by a sword-thrust but not by a soldier, laid low by a sword not swung by a mortal. Assyrians will run from that sword, run for their lives, and their prize young men made slaves.

32 <sup>1</sup> But look! A king will rule in the right way, and his leaders will carry out justice.

<sup>2</sup> Each one will stand as a shelter from high winds, provide safe cover in stormy weather. Each will be cool running water in parched land, a huge granite outcrop giving shade in the desert.

<sup>6</sup> For fools are fools and that's that, thinking up new ways to do mischief. They leave a wake of wrecked lives and lies about GOD, Turning their backs on the homeless hungry, ignoring those dying of thirst in the streets.

<sup>8</sup> But those who are noble make noble plans, and stand for what is noble.

<sup>9</sup> Take your stand, indolent women! Listen to me! Indulgent, indolent women, listen closely to what I have to say.

thornbushes. Cry tears, real tears, for the happy homes no longer happy, the merry city no longer merry.

<sup>19</sup> The forest of your pride will be clear-cut, the city showing off your power leveled.

<sup>20</sup> But you will enjoy a blessed life, planting well-watered fields and gardens, with your farm animals grazing freely.

33 <sup>1</sup> Doom to you, Destroyer, not yet destroyed; And doom to you, Betrayer, not yet betrayed. When you finish destroying, your turn will come--destroyed! When you quit betraying, your turn will come--betrayed!

<sup>2</sup> GOD, treat us kindly. You're our only hope. First thing in the morning, be there for us! When things go bad, help us out!

<sup>10</sup> "Now I'm stepping in," GOD says. "From now on, I'm taking over. The gloves come off. Now see how mighty I am.

<sup>11</sup> There's nothing to you. Pregnant with chaff, you produce straw babies; full of hot air, you self-destruct.

<sup>12</sup> You're good for nothing but fertilizer and fuel. Earth to earth--and the sooner the better.

<sup>13</sup> "If you're far away, get the reports on what I've done, And if you're in the neighborhood, pay attention to my record.

<sup>18</sup> In your mind you'll go over the old terrors: "What happened to that Assyrian inspector who condemned and confiscated? And the one who gouged us of taxes? And that cheating moneychanger?"

<sup>20</sup> Just take a look at Zion, will you? Centering our worship in festival feasts! Feast your eyes on Jerusalem, a quiet and permanent place to live. No more pulling up stakes and moving on, no more patched-together lean-tos.

<sup>21</sup> Instead, GOD! GOD majestic, God himself the place in a country of broad rivers and streams, But rivers blocked to invading ships, off-limits to predatory pirates.

<sup>22</sup> For GOD makes all the decisions here. GOD is our king. GOD runs this place and he'll keep us safe.

<sup>24</sup> No one in Zion will say, "I'm sick." Best of all, they'll all live guilt-free.

34 <sup>1</sup> Draw in close now, nations. Listen carefully, you people. Pay attention! Earth, you too, and everything in you. World, and all that comes from you.

<sup>3</sup> The corpses, thrown in a heap, will stink like the town dump in midsummer, Their blood flowing off the mountains like creeks in spring runoff.

<sup>4</sup> Stars will fall out of the sky like overripe, rotting fruit in the orchard, And the sky itself will be folded up like a blanket and put away in a closet. All that army of stars, shriveled to nothing, like leaves and fruit in autumn, dropping and rotting!

<sup>6</sup> GOD has a sword, thirsty for blood and more blood, a sword hungry for well-fed flesh, Lamb and goat blood, the suet-rich kidneys of rams. Yes, GOD has scheduled a sacrifice in Bozrah, the capital, the whole country of Edom a slaughterhouse.

<sup>10</sup> The fires burning day and night, the skies black with endless smoke. Generation after generation of wasteland--no more travelers through this country!

<sup>11</sup> Vultures and skunks will police the streets; owls and crows will feel at home there. God will reverse creation. Chaos! He will cancel fertility. Emptiness!

<sup>13</sup> Thistles will take over, covering the castles, fortresses conquered by weeds and thornbushes. Wild dogs will prowl the ruins, ostriches have the run of the place.

<sup>14</sup> Wildcats and hyenas will hunt together, demons and devils dance through the night. The night-demon Lilith, evil and rapacious, will establish permanent quarters.

brooding evil. GOD has personally commanded it all. His Spirit set it in motion.

<sup>17</sup> GOD has assigned them their place, decreed their fate in detail. This is permanent--generation after generation, the same old thing.

35 <sup>1</sup> Wilderness and desert will sing joyously, the badlands will celebrate and flower--Like the crocus in spring,

way to put things right And redress all wrongs. He's on his way! He'll save you!"

<sup>5</sup> Blind eyes will be opened, deaf ears unstopped,

<sup>6</sup> Lame men and women will leap like deer, the voiceless break into song. Springs of water will burst out in the wilderness, streams flow in the desert.

<sup>7</sup> Hot sands will become a cool oasis, thirsty ground a splashing fountain. Even lowly jackals will have water to drink, and barren grasslands flourish richly.

<sup>8</sup> There will be a highway called the Holy Road. No one rude or rebellious is permitted on this road. It's for GOD's people exclusively--impossible to get lost on this road. Not even fools can get lost on it.

<sup>9</sup> No lions on this road, no dangerous wild animals--Nothing and no one dangerous or threatening. Only the redeemed will walk on it.

<sup>10</sup> The people GOD has ransomed will come back on this road. They'll sing as they make their way home to Zion, unfading halos of joy encircling their heads, Welcomed home with gifts of joy and gladness as all sorrows and sighs scurry into the night.

<sup>3</sup> Three men went out to meet him: Eliakim son of Hilkiah, in charge of the palace; Shebna the secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the official historian.

<sup>4</sup> The Rabshekah said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that the Great King, the king of Assyria, says this: 'What kind of backing do you think you have against me?

<sup>5</sup> You're bluffing and I'm calling your bluff. Your words are no match for my weapons. What kind of backup do you have now that you've rebelled against me?

<sup>6</sup> Egypt? Don't make me laugh. Egypt is a rubber crutch. Lean on Egypt and you'll end up flat on your face. That's all Pharaoh king of Egypt is to anyone who leans on him.

<sup>7</sup> And if you try to tell me, "We're leaning on our GOD," isn't it a bit late? Hasn't Hezekiah just gotten rid of all the places of worship, telling you, "You've got to worship at this altar"?

<sup>8</sup> "Be reasonable. Face the facts: My master the king of Assyria will give you two thousand horses if you can put riders on them.

<sup>9</sup> You can't do it, can you? So how do you think, depending on flimsy Egypt's chariots and riders, you can stand up against even the lowest-ranking captain in my master's army?

<sup>10</sup> "And besides, do you think I came all this way to destroy this land without first getting GOD's blessing? It was your GOD who told me, Make war on this land. Destroy it."

<sup>11</sup> Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah answered the Rabshekah, "Please talk to us in Aramaic. We understand Aramaic. Don't talk to us in Hebrew within earshot of all the people gathered around."

<sup>12</sup> But the Rabshekah replied, "Do you think my master has sent me to give this message to your master and you but not also to the people clustered here? It's their fate that's at stake. They're the ones who are going to end up eating their own excrement and drinking their own urine."

<sup>15</sup> And don't pay any attention to Hezekiah's pious sermons telling you to lean on GOD, telling you 'GOD will save us, depend on it. GOD won't let this city fall to the king of Assyria.'

<sup>16</sup> "Don't listen to Hezekiah. Listen to the king of Assyria's offer: 'Make peace with me. Come and join me. Everyone will end up with a good life, with plenty of land and water, <sup>17</sup> and eventually something far better. I'll turn you loose in wide open spaces, with more than enough fertile and productive land for everyone.'

<sup>18</sup> Don't let Hezekiah mislead you with his lies, 'GOD will save us.' Has that ever happened? Has any god in history ever gotten the best of the king of Assyria?

<sup>19</sup> Look around you. Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? The gods of Sepharvaim? Did the gods do anything for Samaria?

<sup>20</sup> Name one god that has ever saved its countries from me. So what makes you think that GOD could save Jerusalem from me?'"

<sup>21</sup> The three men were silent. They said nothing, for the king had already commanded, "Don't answer him."

<sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the court historian, tearing their clothes in defeat and despair, went back and reported what the Rabshekah had said to Hezekiah.

37 <sup>1</sup> When King Hezekiah heard the report, he also tore his clothes and dressed in rough, penitential burlap gunnysacks, and went into the sanctuary of GOD.

<sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, all of them also dressed in penitential burlap, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup> They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'This is a black day. We're in crisis. We're like pregnant women without even the strength to have a baby!'

<sup>4</sup> Do you think your GOD heard what the Rabshekah said, sent by his master the king of Assyria to mock the living God? And do you think your GOD will do anything about it? Pray for us, Isaiah.

Pray for those of us left here holding the fort!"

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah said, "Tell your master this: 'GOD's Message: Don't be upset by what you've heard, all those words the servants of the Assyrian king have used to mock me.

<sup>7</sup> I personally will take care of him. I'll arrange it so that he'll get a rumor of bad news back home and rush home to take care of it. And he'll die there. Killed--a violent death."

sent messengers to Hezekiah with instructions to deliver this message:

<sup>10</sup> "Don't let your GOD, on whom you so naively lean, deceive you, promising that Jerusalem won't fall to the king of Assyria.

<sup>12</sup> Have any of the gods of any of these countries ever stepped in and saved them, even one of these nations my predecessors destroyed--Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who lived in Telassar?

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the hands of the messengers and read it. Then he went into the sanctuary of GOD and spread the letter out before GOD.

<sup>15</sup> Then Hezekiah prayed to GOD:

<sup>16</sup> "GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, enthroned over the cherubim-angels, you are God, the only God there is, God of all kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth.

<sup>17</sup> Listen, O GOD, and hear. Look, O GOD, and see. Mark all these words of Sennacherib that he sent to mock the living God.

<sup>18</sup> It's quite true, O GOD, that the kings of Assyria have devastated all the nations and their lands.

<sup>19</sup> They've thrown their gods into the trash and burned them--no great achievement since they were no-gods anyway, gods made in workshops, carved from wood and chiseled from rock. An end to the no-gods!

<sup>20</sup> But now step in, O GOD, our God. Save us from him. Let all the kingdoms of earth know that you and you alone are GOD."

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this word to Hezekiah: "GOD's Message, the God of Israel: Because you brought King Sennacherib of Assyria to me in prayer, <sup>22</sup> here is my answer, GOD's answer: ""She has no use for you, Sennacherib, nothing but contempt, this virgin daughter Zion. She spits at you and turns on her heel, this daughter Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> ""Who do you think you've been mocking and reviling all these years? Who do you think you've been jeering and treating with such utter contempt All these years? The Holy of Israel!

fleet of chariots I've gone to the highest mountain ranges, penetrated the far reaches of Lebanon, Chopped down its giant cedars, its finest cypresses. I conquered its highest peak, explored its deepest forest.

<sup>25</sup> I dug wells and drank my fill. I emptied the famous rivers of Egypt with one kick of my foot.

<sup>26</sup> "'Haven't you gotten the news that I've been behind this all along? This is a longstanding plan of mine and I'm just now making it happen, using you to devastate strong cities, turning them into piles of rubble goings, and, yes, the tantrums you throw against me.

<sup>29</sup> Because of all your wild raging against me, your unbridled arrogance that I keep hearing of, I'll put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth. I'll show you who's boss. I'll turn you around and take you back to where you came from.

<sup>30</sup> "And this, Hezekiah, will be your confirming sign: This year's crops will be slim pickings, and next year it won't be much better. But in three years, farming will be back to normal, with regular sowing and reaping, planting and harvesting.

GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will do all this.'

<sup>34</sup> He'll go back the same way he came. He won't set a foot in this city. GOD's Decree.

<sup>35</sup> I've got my hand on this city to save it, Save it for my very own sake, but also for the sake of my David dynasty.'"

<sup>36</sup> Then the Angel of GOD arrived and struck the Assyrian camp--185,000 Assyrians died. By the time the sun came up, they were all dead--an army of corpses!

<sup>38</sup> As he was worshiping in the sanctuary of his god Nisroch, he was murdered by his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer. They escaped to the land of Ararat. His son Esar-haddon became the next king.

38 <sup>1</sup> At that time, Hezekiah got sick. He was about to die. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz visited him and said, "GOD says, 'Prepare your affairs and your family. This is it: You're going to die. You're not going to get well.'"

<sup>3</sup> "GOD, please, I beg you: Remember how I've lived my life. I've lived faithfully in your presence, lived out of a heart that was totally yours. You've seen how I've lived, the good that I have done." And Hezekiah wept as he prayed--painful tears.

<sup>4</sup> Then GOD told Isaiah,

<sup>5</sup> "Go and speak with Hezekiah. Give him this Message from me, GOD, the God of your ancestor David: 'I've heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Here's what I'll do: I'll add fifteen years to your life.

<sup>6</sup> And I'll save both you and this city from the king of Assyria. I have my hand on this city.

<sup>7</sup> "'And this is your confirming sign, confirming that I, GOD, will do exactly what I have promised.

<sup>8</sup> Watch for this: As the sun goes down and the shadow lengthens on the sundial of Ahaz, I'm going to reverse the shadow ten notches on the dial.'" And that's what happened: The declining sun's shadow reversed ten notches on the dial.

<sup>11</sup> No more glimpses of GOD in the land of the living, No more meetings with my neighbors, no more rubbing shoulders with friends.

<sup>12</sup> This body I inhabit is taken down and packed away like a camper's tent. Like a weaver, I've rolled up the carpet of my life as God cuts me free of the loom And at day's end sweeps up the scraps and pieces.

<sup>13</sup> I cry for help until morning. Like a lion, God pummels and pounds me, relentlessly finishing me off.

<sup>14</sup> I squawk like a doomed hen, moan like a dove. My eyes ache from looking up for help: "Master, I'm in trouble! Get me out of this!"

<sup>15</sup> But what's the use? God himself gave me the word. He's done it to me. I can't sleep--I'm that upset, that troubled.

<sup>16</sup> O Master, these are the conditions in which people live, and yes, in these very conditions my spirit is still alive--fully recovered with a fresh infusion of life!

<sup>17</sup> It seems it was good for me to go through all those troubles. Throughout them all you held tight to my lifeline. You never let me tumble over the edge into nothing. But my sins you let go of, threw them over your shoulder--good riddance!

<sup>18</sup> The dead don't thank you, and choirs don't sing praises from the morgue. Those buried six feet under don't witness to your faithful ways.

<sup>19</sup> It's the living--live men, live women--who thank you, just as I'm doing right now. Parents give their children full reports on your faithful ways.

<sup>20</sup> GOD saves and will save me. As fiddles and mandolins strike up the tunes, We'll sing, oh we'll sing, sing, for the rest of our lives in the Sanctuary of GOD.

<sup>21</sup> Isaiah had said, "Prepare a poultice of figs and put it on the boil so he may recover."

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah had said, "What is my cue that it's all right to enter again the Sanctuary of GOD?"

39 <sup>1</sup> Sometime later, King Merodach-baladan son of Baladan of Babylon sent messengers with greetings and a gift to Hezekiah. He had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and was now well.

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah received the messengers warmly. He took them on a tour of his royal precincts, proudly showing them all his treasures: silver, gold, spices, expensive oils, all his weapons-

-everything out on display. There was nothing in his house or kingdom that Hezekiah didn't show them.

<sup>3</sup> Later the prophet Isaiah showed up. He asked Hezekiah, "What were these men up to? What did they say? And where did they come from?" Hezekiah said, "They came from a long way off, from Babylon."

<sup>4</sup> "And what did they see in your palace?" "Everything," said Hezekiah. "I showed them the works, opened all the doors and impressed them with it all."

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Now listen to this Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies:

<sup>6</sup> I have to warn you, the time is coming when everything in this palace, along with everything your ancestors accumulated before you, will be hauled off to Babylon. GOD says that there will be nothing left. Nothing.

<sup>7</sup> And not only your things but your sons. Some of your sons will be taken into exile, ending up as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, "Good. If GOD says so, it's good." Within himself he was thinking, "But surely nothing bad will happen in my lifetime. I'll enjoy peace and stability as long as I live."

40 <sup>1</sup> "Comfort, oh comfort my people," says your God.

<sup>2</sup> "Speak softly and tenderly to Jerusalem, but also make it very clear That she has served her sentence, that her sin is taken care of--forgiven! She's been punished enough and more than enough, and now it's over and done with."

Smooth out the ruts, clear out the rocks.

<sup>5</sup> Then GOD's bright glory will shine and everyone will see it. Yes. Just as GOD has said."

<sup>6</sup> A voice says, "Shout!" I said, "What shall I shout?" "These people are nothing but grass, their love fragile as wildflowers.

<sup>7</sup> The grass withers, the wildflowers fade, if GOD so much as puffs on them. Aren't these people just so much grass?

<sup>8</sup> True, the grass withers and the wildflowers fade, but our God's Word stands firm and forever."

<sup>9</sup> Climb a high mountain, Zion. You're the preacher of good news. Raise your voice. Make it good and loud, Jerusalem. You're the preacher of good news. Speak loud and clear. Don't be timid! Tell the cities of Judah, "Look! Your God!"

<sup>10</sup> Look at him! GOD, the Master, comes in power, ready to go into action. He is going to pay back his enemies and reward those who have loved him.

<sup>12</sup> Who has scooped up the ocean in his two hands, or measured the sky between his thumb and little finger, Who has put all the earth's dirt in one of his baskets, weighed each mountain and hill?

<sup>13</sup> Who could ever have told GOD what to do or taught him his business?

<sup>14</sup> What expert would he have gone to for advice, what school would he attend to learn justice? What god do you suppose might have taught him what he knows, showed him how things work?

<sup>18</sup> So who even comes close to being like God? To whom or what can you compare him?

<sup>19</sup> Some no-god idol? Ridiculous! It's made in a workshop, cast in bronze, Given a thin veneer of gold, and draped with silver filigree.

<sup>20</sup> Or, perhaps someone will select a fine wood--olive wood, say--that won't rot, Then hire a woodcarver to make a no-god, giving special care to its base so it won't tip over!

<sup>21</sup> Have you not been paying attention? Have you not been listening? Haven't you heard these stories all your life? Don't you understand the foundation of all things?

<sup>23</sup> He ignores what all the princes say and do. The rulers of the earth count for nothing.

<sup>25</sup> "So--who is like me? Who holds a candle to me?" says The Holy.

<sup>26</sup> Look at the night skies: Who do you think made all this? Who marches this army of stars out each night, counts them off, calls each by name--so magnificent! so powerful!--and never overlooks a single one?

<sup>27</sup> Why would you ever complain, O Jacob, or, whine, Israel, saying, "GOD has lost track of me. He doesn't care what happens to me"?

<sup>28</sup> Don't you know anything? Haven't you been listening? GOD doesn't come and go. God lasts. He's Creator of all you can see or imagine. He doesn't get tired out, doesn't pause to catch his breath. And he knows everything, inside and out.

41 <sup>1</sup> "Quiet down, far-flung ocean islands. Listen! Sit down and rest, everyone. Recover your strength. Gather around me. Say what's on your heart. Together let's decide what's right.

<sup>2</sup> "Who got things rolling here, got this champion from the east on the move? Who recruited him for this job, then rounded up and corralled the nations so he could run roughshod over kings? He's off and running, pulverizing nations into dust, leaving only stubble and chaff in his wake.

GOD. I'm first on the scene. I'm also the last to leave.

<sup>8</sup> "But you, Israel, are my servant. You're Jacob, my first choice, descendants of my good friend Abraham.

<sup>9</sup> I pulled you in from all over the world, called you in from every dark corner of the earth, Telling you, 'You're my servant, serving on my side. I've picked you. I haven't dropped you.'

<sup>10</sup> Don't panic. I'm with you. There's no need to fear for I'm your God. I'll give you strength. I'll help you. I'll hold you steady, keep a firm grip on you.

<sup>11</sup> "Count on it: Everyone who had it in for you will end up out in the cold--real losers. Those who worked against you will end up empty-handed--nothing to show for their lives.

<sup>12</sup> When you go out looking for your old adversaries you won't find them--Not a trace of your old enemies, not even a memory.

<sup>14</sup> "Do you feel like a lowly worm, Jacob? Don't be afraid. Feel like a fragile insect, Israel? I'll help you. I, GOD, want to reassure you. The God who buys you back, The Holy of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> You'll open the rough ground to the weather, to the blasts of sun and wind and rain. But you'll be confident and exuberant, expansive in The Holy of Israel!

<sup>17</sup> "The poor and homeless are desperate for water, their tongues parched and no water to be found. But I'm there to be found, I'm there for them, and I, God of Israel, will not leave them thirsty.

<sup>19</sup> I'll plant the red cedar in that treeless wasteland, also acacia, myrtle, and olive. I'll place the cypress in the desert, with plenty of oaks and pines.

<sup>20</sup> Everyone will see this. No one can miss it--unavoidable, indisputable evidence That I, GOD, personally did this. It's created and signed by The Holy of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> "Set out your case for your gods," says GOD. "Bring your evidence," says the King of Jacob.

<sup>22</sup> "Take the stand on behalf of your idols, offer arguments, assemble reasons. Spread out the facts before us so that we can assess them ourselves. Ask them, 'If you are gods, explain what the past means--

<sup>23</sup> or, failing that, tell us what will happen in the future. Can't do that? How about doing something--anything!

Good or bad--whatever. Can you hurt us or help us? Do we need to be afraid?'

<sup>25</sup> "I, God, started someone out from the north and he's come. He was called out of the east by name. He'll stomp the rulers into the mud the way a potter works the clay.

<sup>26</sup> Let me ask you, Did anyone guess that this might happen? Did anyone tell us earlier so we might confirm it with 'Yes, he's right!'? No one mentioned it, no one announced it, no one heard a peep out of you.

42 <sup>1</sup> "Take a good look at my servant. I'm backing him to the hilt. He's the one I chose, and I couldn't be more pleased with him. I've bathed him with my Spirit, my life. He'll set everything right among the nations.

<sup>2</sup> He won't call attention to what he does with loud speeches or gaudy parades.

<sup>3</sup> He won't brush aside the bruised and the hurt and he won't disregard the small and insignificant, but he'll steadily and firmly set things right.

out the earth and all that grows from it,
Who breathes life into earth's people, makes them alive with his own life:

<sup>6</sup> "I am GOD. I have called you to live right and well. I have taken responsibility for you, kept you safe. I have set you among my people to bind them to me, and provided you as a lighthouse to the nations, <sup>7</sup> To make a start at bringing people into the open, into light: opening blind eyes, releasing prisoners from dungeons, emptying the dark prisons.

<sup>8</sup> I am GOD. That's my name. I don't franchise my glory, don't endorse the no-god idols.

<sup>16</sup> But I'll take the hand of those who don't know the way, who can't see where they're going. I'll be a personal guide to them, directing them through unknown country. I'll be right there to show them what roads to take, make sure they don't fall into the ditch. These are the things I'll be doing for them--sticking with them, not leaving them for a minute."

<sup>17</sup> But those who invested in the no-gods are bankrupt--dead broke.

<sup>19</sup> You're my servant, and you're not looking! You're my messenger, and you're not listening! The very people I depended upon, servants of GOD, blind as a bat--willfully blind!

<sup>22</sup> But this is a people battered and cowed, shut up in attics and closets, Victims licking their wounds, feeling ignored, abandoned.

<sup>24</sup> Who do you think turned Jacob over to the thugs, let loose the robbers on Israel? Wasn't it GOD himself, this God against whom we've sinned--not doing what he commanded, not listening to what he said?

<sup>25</sup> Isn't it God's anger that's behind all this, God's punishing power? Their whole world collapsed but they still didn't get it; their life is in ruins but they don't take it to heart.

43 <sup>1</sup> But now, GOD's Message, the God who made you in the first place, Jacob, the One who got you started, Israel: "Don't be afraid, I've redeemed you. I've called your name. You're mine.

<sup>2</sup> When you're in over your head, I'll be there with you. When you're in rough waters, you will not go down. When you're between a rock and a hard place, it won't be a dead end--

<sup>3</sup> Because I am GOD, your personal God, The Holy of Israel, your Savior. I paid a huge price for you: all of Egypt, with rich Cush and Seba thrown in!

<sup>4</sup> That's how much you mean to me! That's how much I love you! I'd sell off the whole world to get you back, trade the creation just for you.

<sup>5</sup> "So don't be afraid: I'm with you. I'll round up all your scattered children, pull them in from east and west.

<sup>6</sup> I'll send orders north and south: 'Send them back. Return my sons from distant lands, my daughters from faraway places.

<sup>7</sup> I want them back, every last one who bears my name, every man, woman, and child Whom I created for my glory, yes, personally formed and made each one.'"

<sup>9</sup> Then get the other nations out here and ready. Let's see what they have to say about this, how they account for what's happened. Let them present their expert witnesses and make their case; let them try to convince us what they say is true.

<sup>10</sup> "But you are my witnesses." GOD's Decree. "You're my handpicked servant So that you'll come to know and trust me, understand both that I am and who I am. Previous to me there was no such thing as a god, nor will there be after me.

<sup>11</sup> I, yes I, am GOD. I'm the only Savior there is.

<sup>12</sup> I spoke, I saved, I told you what existed long before these upstart gods appeared on the scene. And you know it, you're my witnesses, you're the evidence." GOD's Decree. "Yes, I am God.

<sup>13</sup> I've always been God and I always will be God. No one can take anything from me. I make; who can unmake it?"

<sup>14</sup> GOD, your Redeemer, The Holy of Israel, says: "Just for you, I will march on Babylon. I'll turn the tables on the Babylonians. Instead of whooping it up, they'll be wailing.

<sup>15</sup> I am GOD, your Holy One, Creator of Israel, your King."

<sup>17</sup> The God who summons horses and chariots and armies--they lie down and then can't get up; they're snuffed out like so many candles:

<sup>19</sup> Be alert, be present. I'm about to do something brand-new. It's bursting out! Don't you see it? There it is! I'm making a road through the desert, rivers in the badlands.

<sup>20</sup> Wild animals will say 'Thank you!'--the coyotes and the buzzards--Because I provided water in the desert, rivers through the sun-baked earth, Drinking water for the people I chose, <sup>21</sup> the people I made especially for myself, a people custom-made to praise me.

<sup>22</sup> "But you didn't pay a bit of attention to me, Jacob. You so quickly tired of me, Israel.

<sup>23</sup> You wouldn't even bring sheep for offerings in worship. You couldn't be bothered with sacrifices. It wasn't that I asked that much from you. I didn't expect expensive presents.

<sup>24</sup> But you didn't even do the minimum--so stingy with me, so closefisted. Yet you haven't been stingy with your sins. You've been plenty generous with them--and I'm fed up.

<sup>25</sup> "But I, yes I, am the one who takes care of your sins--that's what I do. I don't keep a list of your sins.

<sup>26</sup> "So, make your case against me. Let's have this out. Make your arguments. Prove you're in the right.

<sup>27</sup> Your original ancestor started the sinning, and everyone since has joined in.

<sup>28</sup> That's why I had to disqualify the Temple leaders, repudiate Jacob and discredit Israel.

44 <sup>1</sup> "But for now, dear servant Jacob, listen--yes, you, Israel, my personal choice.

<sup>2</sup> GOD who made you has something to say to you; the God who formed you in the womb wants to help you. Don't be afraid, dear servant Jacob, Jeshurun, the one I chose.

<sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty ground and send streams coursing through the parched earth. I will pour my Spirit into your descendants and my blessing on your children.

<sup>5</sup> This one will say, 'I am GOD's,' and another will go by the name Jacob; That one will write on his hand 'GOD's property'--and be proud to be called Israel."

<sup>6</sup> GOD, King of Israel, your Redeemer, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, says: "I'm first, I'm last, and everything in between. I'm the only God there is.

<sup>7</sup> Who compares with me? Speak up. See if you measure up. From the beginning, who else has always announced what's coming? So what is coming next? Anybody want to venture a try?

<sup>8</sup> Don't be afraid, and don't worry: Haven't I always kept you informed, told you what was going on? You're my eyewitnesses: Have you ever come across a God, a real God, other than me? There's no Rock like me that I know of."

<sup>13</sup> The woodworker draws up plans for his no-god, traces it on a block of wood. He shapes it with chisels and planes into human shape--a beautiful woman, a handsome man, ready to be placed in a chapel.

<sup>14</sup> He first cuts down a cedar, or maybe picks out a pine or oak, and lets it grow strong in the forest, nourished by the rain.

<sup>15</sup> Then it can serve a double purpose: Part he uses as firewood for keeping warm and baking bread; from the other part he makes a god that he worships--carves it into a god shape and prays before it.

<sup>17</sup> And he still has half left for a god, made to his personal design--a handy, convenient no-god to worship whenever so inclined. Whenever the need strikes him he prays to it, "Save me. You're my god."

<sup>18</sup> Pretty stupid, wouldn't you say? Don't they have eyes in their heads? Are their brains working at all?

<sup>19</sup> Doesn't it occur to them to say, "Half of this tree I used for firewood: I baked bread, roasted meat, and enjoyed a good meal. And now I've used the rest to make an abominable no-god. Here I am praying to a stick of wood!"

<sup>20</sup> This lover of emptiness, of nothing, is so out of touch with reality, so far gone, that he can't even look at what he's doing, can't even look at the no-god stick of wood in his hand and say, "This is crazy."

<sup>21</sup> "Remember these things, O Jacob. Take it seriously, Israel, that you're my servant. I made you, shaped you: You're my servant. O Israel, I'll never forget you.

<sup>22</sup> I've wiped the slate of all your wrongdoings. There's nothing left of your sins. Come back to me, come back. I've redeemed you."

<sup>23</sup> High heavens, sing! GOD has done it. Deep earth, shout! And you mountains, sing! A forest choir of oaks and pines and cedars! GOD has redeemed Jacob. GOD's glory is on display in Israel.

<sup>24</sup> GOD, your Redeemer, who shaped your life in your mother's womb, says: "I am GOD. I made all that is. With no help from you I spread out the skies and laid out the earth."

<sup>26</sup> But he backs the word of his servant and confirms the counsel of his messengers. He says to Jerusalem, "Be inhabited," and to the cities of Judah,

"Be rebuilt," and to the ruins, "I raise you up."

<sup>27</sup> He says to Ocean, "Dry up. I'm drying up your rivers."

<sup>28</sup> He says to Cyrus, "My shepherd--everything I want, you'll do it." He says to Jerusalem, "Be built," and to the Temple, "Be established."

45 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he took by the hand To give the task of taming the nations, of terrifying their kings--He gave him free rein, no restrictions:

<sup>3</sup> I'll lead you to buried treasures, secret caches of valuables--Confirmations that it is, in fact, I, GOD, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name.

<sup>4</sup> It's because of my dear servant Jacob, Israel my chosen, That I've singled you out, called you by name, and given you this privileged work. And you don't even know me!

<sup>5</sup> I am GOD, the only God there is. Besides me there are no real gods. I'm the one who armed you for this work, though you don't even know me, <sup>6</sup> So that everyone, from east to west, will know that I have no god-rivals. I am GOD, the only God there is.

<sup>7</sup> I form light and create darkness, I make harmonies and create discords. I, GOD, do all these things.

<sup>9</sup> But doom to you who fight your Maker--you're a pot at odds with the potter! Does clay talk back to the potter: 'What are you doing? What clumsy fingers!'

<sup>10</sup> Would a sperm say to a father, 'Who gave you permission to use me to make a baby?' Or a fetus to a mother, 'Why have you cooped me up in this belly?'"

<sup>11</sup> Thus GOD, The Holy of Israel, Israel's Maker, says: "Do you question who or what I'm making? Are you telling me what I can or cannot do?"

<sup>12</sup> I made earth, and I created man and woman to live on it. I handcrafted the skies and direct all the constellations in their turnings.

<sup>13</sup> And now I've got Cyrus on the move. I've rolled out the red carpet before him. He will build my city. He will bring home my exiles. I didn't hire him to do this. I told him. I, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies."

<sup>14</sup> GOD says: "The workers of Egypt, the merchants of Ethiopia, and those statuesque Sabeans Will all come over to you--all yours. Docile in chains, they'll follow you, Hands folded in reverence, praying before you: 'Amazing! God is with you! There is no other God--none.'"

<sup>15</sup> Clearly, you are a God who works behind the scenes, God of Israel, Savior God.

<sup>16</sup> Humiliated, all those others will be ashamed to show their faces in public. Out of work and at loose ends, the makers of no-god idols won't know what to do with themselves.

<sup>17</sup> The people of Israel, though, are saved by you, GOD, saved with an eternal salvation. They won't be ashamed, they won't be at loose ends, ever.

<sup>18</sup> GOD, Creator of the heavens--he is, remember, God. Maker of earth--he put it on its foundations, built it from scratch. He didn't go to all that trouble to just leave it empty, nothing in it. He made it to be lived in. This GOD says: "I am GOD, the one and only.

<sup>19</sup> I don't just talk to myself or mumble under my breath. I never told Jacob, 'Seek me in emptiness, in dark nothingness.' I am GOD. I work out in the open, saying what's right, setting things right.

<sup>20</sup> So gather around, come on in, all you refugees and castoffs. They don't seem to know much, do they--those who carry around their no-god blocks of wood, praying for help to a dead stick?

<sup>21</sup> So tell me what you think. Look at the evidence. Put your heads together. Make your case. Who told you, and a long time ago, what's going on here? Who made sense of things for you? Wasn't I the one? GOD? It had to be me. I'm the only God there is--The only God who does things right and knows how to help.

<sup>22</sup> So turn to me and be helped--saved!--everyone, whoever and wherever you are. I am GOD, the only God there is, the one and only.

<sup>23</sup> I promise in my own name: Every word out of my mouth does what it says. I never take back what I say. Everyone is going to end up kneeling before me. Everyone is going to end up saying of me, <sup>24</sup> 'Yes! Salvation and strength are in GOD!'" All who have raged against him will be brought before him, disgraced by their unbelief.

<sup>25</sup> And all who are connected with Israel will have a robust, praising, good life in GOD!

46 <sup>1</sup> The god Bel falls down, god Nebo slumps. The no-god hunks of wood are loaded on mules And have to be hauled off, wearing out the poor mules--

<sup>3</sup> "Listen to me, family of Jacob, everyone that's left of the family of Israel. I've been carrying you on my back from the day you were born, <sup>4</sup> And I'll keep on carrying you when you're old. I'll be there, bearing you when you're old and gray. I've done it and will keep on doing it, carrying you on my back, saving you.

<sup>5</sup> "So to whom will you compare me, the Incomparable? Can you picture me without reducing me?

<sup>6</sup> People with a lot of money hire craftsmen to make them gods. The artisan delivers the god, and they kneel and worship it!

<sup>7</sup> They carry it around in holy parades, then take it home and put it on a shelf. And there it sits, day in and day out, a dependable god, always right where you put it. Say anything you want to it, it never talks back. Of course, it never does anything either!

<sup>8</sup> "Think about this. Wrap your minds around it. This is serious business, rebels. Take it to heart.

<sup>9</sup> Remember your history, your long and rich history. I am GOD, the only God you've had or ever will have--incomparable, irreplaceable--

<sup>10</sup> From the very beginning telling you what the ending will be, All along letting you in on what is going to happen, Assuring you, 'I'm in this for the long haul, I'll do exactly what I set out to do,'

<sup>11</sup> Calling that eagle, Cyrus, out of the east, from a far country the man I chose to help me. I've said it, and I'll most certainly do it. I've planned it, so it's as good as done.

47 <sup>1</sup> "Get off your high horse and sit in the dirt, virgin daughter of Babylon. No more throne for you--sit on the ground, daughter of the Chaldeans. Nobody will be calling you 'charming' and 'alluring' anymore. Get used to it.

<sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer speaks, named GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, The Holy of Israel:

<sup>6</sup> I was fed up with my people, thoroughly disgusted with my progeny. I turned them over to you, but you had no compassion. You put old men and women to cruel, hard labor.

<sup>7</sup> You said, 'I'm the First Lady. I'll always be the pampered darling.' You took nothing seriously, took nothing to heart, never gave tomorrow a thought.

<sup>8</sup> Well, start thinking, playgirl. You're acting like the center of the universe, Smugly saying to yourself, 'I'm Number One. There's nobody but me. I'll never be a widow, I'll never lose my children.'

<sup>9</sup> Those two things are going to hit you both at once, suddenly, on the same day: Spouse and children gone, a total loss, despite your many enchantments and charms.

<sup>10</sup> You were so confident and comfortable in your evil life, saying, 'No one sees me.' You thought you knew so much, had everything figured out. What delusion! Smugly telling yourself, 'I'm Number One. There's nobody but me.'

<sup>12</sup> But don't give up. From your great repertoire of enchantments there must be one you haven't yet tried. You've been at this a long time. Surely [something] will work.

<sup>14</sup> "Fat chance. You'd be grasping at straws that are already in the fire, A fire that is even now raging. Your 'experts' are in it and won't get out. It's not a fire for cooking venison stew, not a fire to warm you on a winter night!

<sup>15</sup> That's the fate of your friends in sorcery, your magician buddies you've been in cahoots with all your life. They reel, confused, bumping into one another. None of them bother to help you.

48 <sup>1</sup> "And now listen to this, family of Jacob, you who are called by the name Israel: Who got you started in the loins of Judah, you who use GOD's name to back up your promises and pray to the God of Israel? But do you mean it? Do you live like it?

<sup>2</sup> You claim to be citizens of the Holy City; you act as though you lean on the God of Israel, named GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>3</sup> For a long time now, I've let you in on the way I work: I told you what I was going to do beforehand, then I did it and it was done, and that's that.

<sup>5</sup> So I got a running start and began telling you what was going on before it even happened. That is why you can't say, 'My god-idol did this.' 'My favorite god-carving commanded this.'

<sup>6</sup> You have all this evidence confirmed by your own eyes and ears. Shouldn't you be talking about it? And that was just the beginning. I have a lot more to tell you, things you never knew existed.

<sup>7</sup> This isn't a variation on the same old thing. This is new, brand-new, something you'd never guess or dream up. When you hear this you won't be able to say, 'I knew that all along.'

<sup>8</sup> You've never been good listeners to me. You have a history of ignoring me, A sorry track record of fickle attachments--rebels from the womb.

<sup>9</sup> But out of the sheer goodness of my heart, because of who I am, I keep a tight rein on my anger and hold my temper. I don't wash my hands of you.

<sup>10</sup> Do you see what I've done? I've refined you, but not without fire. I've tested you like silver in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup> Out of myself, simply because of who I am, I do what I do. I have my reputation to keep up. I'm not playing second fiddle to either gods or people.

<sup>12</sup> "Listen, Jacob. Listen, Israel--I'm the One who named you! I'm the One. I got things started and, yes, I'll wrap them up.

<sup>13</sup> Earth is my work, handmade. And the skies--I made them too, horizon to horizon. When I speak, they're on their feet, at attention.

<sup>14</sup> "Come everybody, gather around, listen: Who among the gods has delivered the news? I, GOD, love this man Cyrus, and I'm using him to do what I want with Babylon.

<sup>15</sup> I, yes I, have spoken. I've called him. I've brought him here. He'll be successful.

<sup>16</sup> Come close, listen carefully: I've never kept secrets from you. I've always been present with you." Your Progeny, Like Grains of Sand And now, the Master, GOD, sends me and his Spirit <sup>17</sup> with this Message from GOD, your Redeemer, The Holy of Israel: "I am GOD, your God, who teaches you how to live right and well. I show you what to do, where to go.

<sup>18</sup> If you had listened all along to what I told you, your life would have flowed full like a river, blessings rolling in like waves from the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Children and grandchildren are like sand, your progeny like grains of sand. There would be no end of them, no danger of losing touch with me."

<sup>21</sup> They weren't thirsty when he led them through the deserts. He made water pour out of the rock; he split the rock and the water gushed.

49 <sup>1</sup> Listen, far-flung islands, pay attention, faraway people: GOD put me to work from the day I was born.

The moment I entered the world he named me.

<sup>2</sup> He gave me speech that would cut and penetrate. He kept his hand on me to protect me. He made me his straight arrow and hid me in his quiver.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, "You're my dear servant, Israel, through whom I'll shine."

<sup>4</sup> But I said, "I've worked for nothing. I've nothing to show for a life of hard work. Nevertheless, I'll let GOD have the last word. I'll let him pronounce his verdict."

<sup>5</sup> "And now," GOD says, this God who took me in hand from the moment of birth to be his servant, To bring Jacob back home to him, to set a reunion for Israel--What an honor for me in GOD's eyes! That God should be my strength!

<sup>6</sup> He says, "But that's not a big enough job for my servant--just to recover the tribes of Jacob, merely to round up the strays of Israel. I'm setting you up as a light for the nations so that my salvation becomes global!"

<sup>7</sup> GOD, Redeemer of Israel, The Holy of Israel, says to the despised one, kicked around by the nations, slave labor to the ruling class: "Kings will see, get to their feet--the princes, too--and then fall on their faces in homage Because of GOD, who has faithfully kept his word, The Holy of Israel, who has chosen you."

<sup>8</sup> GOD also says: "When the time's ripe, I answer you. When victory's due, I help you. I form you and use you to reconnect the people with me, To put the land in order, to resettle families on the ruined properties.

<sup>9</sup> I tell prisoners, 'Come on out. You're free!' and those huddled in fear, 'It's all right. It's safe now.' There'll be foodstands along all the roads, picnics on all the hills--

<sup>10</sup> Nobody hungry, nobody thirsty, shade from the sun, shelter from the wind, For the Compassionate One guides them, takes them to the best springs.

<sup>11</sup> I'll make all my mountains into roads, turn them into a superhighway.

countries, and those, out of the north,
These streaming in from the west, and those from all the way down the Nile!"

<sup>13</sup> Heavens, raise the roof! Earth, wake the dead! Mountains, send up cheers!
GOD has comforted his people. He has tenderly nursed his beaten-up, beaten-down people.

<sup>14</sup> But Zion said, "I don't get it. GOD has left me. My Master has forgotten I even exist."

<sup>15</sup> "Can a mother forget the infant at her breast, walk away from the baby she bore? But even if mothers forget, I'd never forget you--never.

<sup>16</sup> Look, I've written your names on the backs of my hands. The walls you're rebuilding are never out of my sight.

<sup>18</sup> Look up, look around, look well! See them all gathering, coming to you? As sure as I am the living God"--GOD's Decree--"you're going to put them on like so much jewelry, you're going to use them to dress up like a bride.

<sup>19</sup> "And your ruined land? Your devastated, decimated land? Filled with more people than you know what to do with! And your barbarian enemies, a fading memory.

<sup>20</sup> The children born in your exile will be saying, 'It's getting too crowded here. I need more room.'

<sup>21</sup> And you'll say to yourself, 'Where on earth did these children come from? I lost everything, had nothing, was exiled and penniless. So who reared these children? How did these children get here?"

<sup>23</sup> Kings will be your babysitters, princesses will be your nursemaids. They'll offer to do all your drudge work--scrub your floors, do your laundry. You'll know then that I am GOD. No one who hopes in me ever regrets it."

<sup>25</sup> But GOD says, "Even if a giant grips the plunder and a tyrant holds my people prisoner, I'm the one who's on your side, defending your cause, rescuing your children.

<sup>26</sup> And your enemies, crazed and desperate, will turn on themselves, killing each other in a frenzy of self-destruction. Then everyone will know that I, GOD, have saved you--I, the Mighty One of Jacob."

50 <sup>1</sup> GOD says: "Can you produce your mother's divorce papers proving I got rid of her? Can you produce a receipt proving I sold you? Of course you can't. It's your sins that put you here, your wrongs that got you shipped out.

<sup>2</sup> So why didn't anyone come when I knocked? Why didn't anyone answer when I called? Do you think I've forgotten how to help? Am I so decrepit that I can't deliver? I'm as powerful as ever, and can reverse what I once did: I can dry up the sea with a word, turn river water into desert sand, And leave the fish stinking in the sun, stranded on dry land...

<sup>3</sup> Turn all the lights out in the sky and pull down the curtain."

<sup>4</sup> The Master, GOD, has given me a well-taught tongue, So I know how to encourage tired people. He wakes me up in the morning, Wakes me up, opens my ears to listen as one ready to take orders.

<sup>5</sup> The Master, GOD, opened my ears, and I didn't go back to sleep, didn't pull the covers back over my head.

<sup>6</sup> I followed orders, stood there and took it while they beat me, held steady while they pulled out my beard, Didn't dodge their insults, faced them as they spit in my face.

<sup>7</sup> And the Master, GOD, stays right there and helps me, so I'm not disgraced.
Therefore I set my face like flint, confident that I'll never regret this.

<sup>10</sup> Who out there fears GOD, actually listens to the voice of his servant? For anyone out there who doesn't know where you're going, anyone groping in the dark, Here's what: Trust in GOD. [Lean] on your God!

<sup>11</sup> But if all you're after is making trouble, playing with fire, Go ahead and see where it gets you. Set your fires, stir people up, blow on the flames, But don't expect me to just stand there and watch. I'll hold your feet to those flames.

51 <sup>1</sup> "Listen to me, all you who are serious about right living and committed to seeking GOD. Ponder the rock from which you were cut, the quarry from which you were dug.

<sup>2</sup> Yes, ponder Abraham, your father, and Sarah, who bore you. Think of it! One solitary man when I called him, but once I blessed him, he multiplied.

<sup>4</sup> "Pay attention, my people. Listen to me, nations. Revelation flows from me. My decisions light up the world.

<sup>5</sup> My deliverance arrives on the run, my salvation right on time. I'll bring justice to the peoples. Even faraway islands will look to me and take hope in my saving power.

<sup>6</sup> Look up at the skies, ponder the earth under your feet. The skies will fade out like smoke, the earth will wear out like work pants, and the people will die off like flies. But my salvation will last forever, my setting-things-right will never be obsolete.

<sup>7</sup> "Listen now, you who know right from wrong, you who hold my teaching inside you: Pay no attention to insults, and when mocked don't let it get you down.

<sup>10</sup> And didn't you once dry up the sea, the powerful waters of the deep, And then made the bottom of the ocean a road for the redeemed to walk across?

<sup>11</sup> In the same way GOD's ransomed will come back, come back to Zion cheering, shouting, Joy eternal wreathing their heads, exuberant ecstasies transporting them--and not a sign of moans or groans.

<sup>12</sup> "I, I'm the One comforting you. What are you afraid of--or who? Some man or woman who'll soon be dead? Some poor wretch destined for dust?

<sup>13</sup> You've forgotten me, GOD, who made you, who unfurled the skies, who founded the earth. And here you are, quaking like an aspen before the tantrums of a tyrant who thinks he can kick down the world. But what will come of the tantrums?

<sup>14</sup> The victims will be released before you know it. They're not going to die. They're not even going to go hungry.

<sup>15</sup> For I am GOD, your very own God, who stirs up the sea and whips up the waves, named GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>16</sup> I teach you how to talk, word by word, and personally watch over you, Even while I'm unfurling the skies, setting earth on solid foundations, and greeting Zion: 'Welcome, my people!'"

<sup>17</sup> So wake up! Rub the sleep from your eyes! Up on your feet, Jerusalem! You've drunk the cup GOD handed you, the strong drink of his anger. You drank it down to the last drop, staggered and collapsed, dead-drunk.

<sup>19</sup> You've been hit with a double dose of trouble--does anyone care? Assault and battery, hunger and death--will anyone comfort?

<sup>21</sup> Therefore listen, please, you with your splitting headaches, You who are nursing the hangovers that didn't come from drinking wine.

<sup>22</sup> Your Master, your GOD, has something to say, your God has taken up his people's case: "Look, I've taken back the drink that sent you reeling. No more drinking from that jug of my anger!

<sup>23</sup> I've passed it over to your abusers to drink, those who ordered you, 'Down on the ground so we can walk all over you!' And you had to do it. Flat on the ground, you were the dirt under their feet."

52 <sup>1</sup> Wake up, wake up! Pull on your boots, Zion! Dress up in your Sunday best, Jerusalem, holy city! Those who want no part of God have been culled out. They won't be coming along.

<sup>4</sup> Again, the Master, GOD, says, "Early on, my people went to Egypt and lived, strangers in the land. At the other end, Assyria oppressed them.

<sup>5</sup> And now, what have I here?" GOD's Decree. "My people are hauled off again for no reason at all. Tyrants on the warpath, whooping it up, and day after day, incessantly, my reputation blackened.

<sup>6</sup> Now it's time that my people know who I am, what I'm made of--yes, that I have something to say. Here I am!"

contaminate yourselves with plunder. Just leave, but leave clean. Purify yourselves in the process of worship, carrying the holy vessels of GOD.

<sup>12</sup> But you don't have to be in a hurry. You're not running from anybody! GOD is leading you out of here, and the God of Israel is also your rear guard.

<sup>15</sup> Nations all over the world will be in awe, taken aback, kings shocked into silence when they see him. For what was unheard of they'll see with their own eyes,

53 <sup>1</sup> Who believes what we've heard and seen? Who would have thought GOD's saving power would look like this?

<sup>2</sup> The servant grew up before God--a scrawny seedling, a scrubby plant in a parched field. There was nothing attractive about him, nothing to cause us to take a second look.

<sup>3</sup> He was looked down on and passed over, a man who suffered, who knew pain firsthand. One look at him and people turned away. We looked down on him, thought he was scum.

<sup>4</sup> But the fact is, it was our pains he carried--[our] disfigurements, all the things wrong with us. We thought he brought it on himself, that God was punishing him for his own failures.

<sup>5</sup> But it was our sins that did that to him, that ripped and tore and crushed him--our sins! He took the punishment, and that made us whole. Through his bruises we get healed.

<sup>6</sup> We're all like sheep who've wandered off and gotten lost. We've all done our own thing, gone our own way. And GOD has piled all our sins, everything we've done wrong, on him, on him.

<sup>7</sup> He was beaten, he was tortured, but he didn't say a word. Like a lamb taken to be slaughtered and like a sheep being sheared, he took it all in silence.

<sup>8</sup> Justice miscarried, and he was led off--and did anyone really know what was happening? He died without a thought for his own welfare, beaten bloody for the sins of my people.

<sup>9</sup> They buried him with the wicked, threw him in a grave with a rich man, Even though he'd never hurt a soul or said one word that wasn't true.

<sup>10</sup> Still, it's what GOD had in mind all along, to crush him with pain. The plan was that he give himself as an offering for sin so that he'd see life come from it--life, life, and more life. And GOD's plan will deeply prosper through him.

<sup>11</sup> Out of that terrible travail of soul, he'll see that it's worth it and be glad he did it. Through what he experienced, my righteous one, my servant, will make many "righteous ones," as he himself carries the burden of their sins.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I'll reward him extravagantly--the best of everything, the highest honors--Because he looked death in the face and didn't flinch, because he embraced the company of the lowest. He took on his own shoulders the sin of the many, he took up the cause of all the black sheep.

54 <sup>1</sup> "Sing, barren woman, who has never had a baby. Fill the air with song, you who've never experienced childbirth! You're ending up with far more children than all those childbearing women." GOD says so!

<sup>2</sup> "Clear lots of ground for your tents! Make your tents large. Spread out! Think big! Use plenty of rope, drive the tent pegs deep.

<sup>3</sup> You're going to need lots of elbow room for your growing family. You're going to take over whole nations; you're going to resettle abandoned cities.

<sup>4</sup> Don't be afraid--you're not going to be embarrassed. Don't hold back--you're not going to come up short. You'll forget all about the humiliations of your youth, and the indignities of being a widow will fade from memory.

<sup>5</sup> For your Maker is your bridegroom, his name, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies! Your Redeemer is The Holy of Israel, known as God of the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup> You were like an abandoned wife, devastated with grief, and GOD welcomed you back, Like a woman married young and then left," says your God.

<sup>8</sup> In an outburst of anger I turned my back on you--but only for a moment. It's with lasting love that I'm tenderly caring for you.

<sup>9</sup> "This exile is just like the days of Noah for me: I promised then that the waters of Noah would never again flood the earth. I'm promising now no more anger, no more dressing you down.

<sup>10</sup> For even if the mountains walk away and the hills fall to pieces, My love won't walk away from you, my covenant commitment of peace won't fall apart." The GOD who has compassion on you says so.

unpitied: I'm about to rebuild you with stones of turquoise, Lay your foundations with sapphires,

<sup>12</sup> construct your towers with rubies,
Your gates with jewels, and all your walls with precious stones.

<sup>13</sup> All your children will have GOD for their teacher--what a mentor for your children!

<sup>14</sup> You'll be built solid, grounded in righteousness, far from any trouble-- nothing to fear! far from terror--it won't even come close!

<sup>15</sup> If anyone attacks you, don't for a moment suppose that I sent them, And if any should attack, nothing will come of it.

<sup>16</sup> I create the blacksmith who fires up his forge and makes a weapon designed to kill. I also create the destroyer--

<sup>17</sup> but no weapon that can hurt you has ever been forged. Any accuser who takes you to court will be dismissed as a liar. This is what GOD's servants can expect. I'll see to it that everything works out for the best." GOD's Decree.

55 <sup>1</sup> "Hey there! All who are thirsty, come to the water! Are you penniless? Come anyway--buy and eat! Come, buy your drinks, buy wine and milk. Buy without money--everything's free!

<sup>3</sup> Pay attention, come close now, listen carefully to my life-giving, life-nourishing words. I'm making a lasting covenant commitment with you, the same that I made with David: sure, solid, enduring love.

<sup>4</sup> I set him up as a witness to the nations, made him a prince and leader of the nations,

<sup>5</sup> And now I'm doing it to you: You'll summon nations you've never heard of, and nations who've never heard of you will come running to you Because of me, your GOD, because The Holy of Israel has honored you."

<sup>7</sup> Let the wicked abandon their way of life and the evil their way of thinking. Let them come back to GOD, who is merciful, come back to our God, who is lavish with forgiveness.

<sup>8</sup> "I don't think the way you think. The way you work isn't the way I work." GOD's Decree.

<sup>9</sup> "For as the sky soars high above earth, so the way I work surpasses the way you work, and the way I think is beyond the way you think.

<sup>10</sup> Just as rain and snow descend from the skies and don't go back until they've watered the earth, Doing their work of making things grow and blossom, producing seed for farmers and food for the hungry, <sup>11</sup> So will the words that come out of my mouth not come back empty-handed. They'll do the work I sent them to do, they'll complete the assignment I gave them.

<sup>12</sup> "So you'll go out in joy, you'll be led into a whole and complete life. The mountains and hills will lead the parade, bursting with song. All the trees of the forest will join the procession, exuberant with applause.

<sup>2</sup> How blessed are you who enter into these things, you men and women who embrace them, Who keep Sabbath and don't defile it, who watch your step and don't do anything evil!

<sup>3</sup> Make sure no outsider who now follows GOD ever has occasion to say, 'GOD put me in second-class. I don't really belong.' And make sure no physically mutilated person is ever made to think, 'I'm damaged goods. I don't really belong.'"

<sup>4</sup> For GOD says: "To the mutilated who keep my Sabbaths and choose what delights me and keep a firm grip on my covenant, <sup>5</sup> I'll provide them an honored place in my family and within my city, even more honored than that of sons and daughters. I'll confer permanent honors on them that will never be revoked.

<sup>6</sup> "And as for the outsiders who now follow me, working for me, loving my name, and wanting to be my servants-- All who keep Sabbath and don't defile it, holding fast to my covenant--

<sup>7</sup> I'll bring them to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer. They'll be welcome to worship the same as the 'insiders,' to bring burnt offerings and sacrifices to my altar. Oh yes, my house of worship will be known as a house of prayer for all people."

<sup>10</sup> For Israel's watchmen are blind, the whole lot of them. They have no idea what's going on. They're dogs without sense enough to bark, lazy dogs, dreaming in the sun--

<sup>12</sup> "Come," they say, "let's have a party. Let's go out and get drunk!" And tomorrow, more of the same: "Let's live it up!"

<sup>5</sup> You satisfy your lust any place you find some shade and fornicate at whim. You kill your children at any convenient spot--any cave or crevasse will do.

<sup>6</sup> You take stones from the creek and set up your sex-and-religion shrines.

You've chosen your fate. Your worship will be your doom.

<sup>8</sup> Behind closed doors you assemble your precious gods and goddesses. Deserting me, you've gone all out, stripped down and made your bed your place of worship. You've climbed into bed with the 'sacred' whores and loved every minute of it, adoring every curve of their naked bodies.

<sup>10</sup> You wear yourselves out trying the new and the different, and never see what a waste it all is. You've always found strength for the latest fad, never got tired of trying new religions.

<sup>11</sup> "Who talked you into the pursuit of this nonsense, leaving me high and dry, forgetting you ever knew me? Because I don't yell and make a scene do you think I don't exist?"

<sup>12</sup> I'll go over, detail by detail, all your 'righteous' attempts at religion, and expose the absurdity of it all.

<sup>13</sup> Go ahead, cry for help to your collection of no-gods: A good wind will blow them away. They're smoke, nothing but smoke. "But anyone who runs to me for help will inherit the land, will end up owning my holy mountain!"

<sup>15</sup> A Message from the high and towering God, who lives in Eternity, whose name is Holy: "I live in the high and holy places, but also with the low-spirited, the spirit-crushed, And what I do is put new spirit in them, get them up and on their feet again.

<sup>16</sup> For I'm not going to haul people into court endlessly, I'm not going to be angry forever. Otherwise, people would lose heart. These souls I created would tire out and give up.

<sup>17</sup> I was angry, good and angry, because of Israel's sins. I struck him hard and turned away in anger, while he kept at his stubborn, willful ways.

<sup>18</sup> When I looked again and saw what he was doing, I decided to heal him, lead him, and comfort him, creating a new language of praise for the mourners.

<sup>19</sup> Peace to the far-off, peace to the near-at-hand," says GOD--"and yes, I will heal them.

58 <sup>1</sup> "Shout! A full-throated shout! Hold nothing back--a trumpet-blast shout! Tell my people what's wrong with their lives, face my family Jacob with their sins!

<sup>2</sup> They're busy, busy, busy at worship, and love studying all about me. To all appearances they're a nation of right-living people--law-abiding, God-honoring. They ask me, 'What's the right thing to do?' and love having me on their side.

<sup>3</sup> But they also complain, 'Why do we fast and you don't look our way? Why do we humble ourselves and you don't even notice?' "Well, here's why: "The bottom line on your 'fast days' is profit. You drive your employees much too hard.

<sup>4</sup> You fast, but at the same time you bicker and fight. You fast, but you swing a mean fist. The kind of fasting you do won't get your prayers off the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Do you think this is the kind of fast day I'm after: a day to show off humility? To put on a pious long face and parade around solemnly in black? Do you call that fasting, a fast day that I, GOD, would like?

<sup>6</sup> "This is the kind of fast day I'm after: to break the chains of injustice, get rid of exploitation in the workplace, free the oppressed, cancel debts.

<sup>7</sup> What I'm interested in seeing you do is: sharing your food with the hungry, inviting the homeless poor into your homes, putting clothes on the shivering ill-clad, being available to your own families.

<sup>8</sup> Do this and the lights will turn on, and your lives will turn around at once. Your righteousness will pave your way. The GOD of glory will secure your passage.

<sup>9</sup> Then when you pray, GOD will answer. You'll call out for help and I'll say, 'Here I am.' "If you get rid of unfair practices, quit blaming victims, quit gossiping about other people's sins, <sup>10</sup> If you are generous with the hungry and start giving yourselves to the down-and-out, Your lives will begin to glow in the darkness, your shadowed lives will be bathed in sunlight.

<sup>12</sup> You'll use the old rubble of past lives to build anew, rebuild the foundations from out of your past. You'll be known as those who can fix anything, restore old ruins, rebuild and renovate, make the community livable again.

<sup>13</sup> "If you watch your step on the Sabbath and don't use my holy day for personal advantage, If you treat the Sabbath as a day of joy, GOD's holy day as a celebration, If you honor it by refusing 'business as usual,' making money, running here and there--

<sup>14</sup> Then you'll be free to enjoy GOD! Oh, I'll make you ride high and soar above it all. I'll make you feast on the inheritance of your ancestor Jacob." Yes! GOD says so!

59 <sup>1</sup> Look! Listen! GOD's arm is not amputated--he can still save. GOD's ears are not stopped up--he can still hear.

<sup>2</sup> There's nothing wrong with God; the wrong is in you. Your wrongheaded lives caused the split between you and God. Your sins got between you so that he doesn't hear.

<sup>7</sup> They compete in the race to do evil and run to be the first to murder. They plan and plot evil, think and breathe evil, and leave a trail of wrecked lives behind them.

make tortuously twisted roads. No peace for the wretch who walks down those roads!

<sup>9</sup> Which means that we're a far cry from fair dealing, and we're not even close to right living. We long for light but sink into darkness, long for brightness but stumble through the night.

<sup>10</sup> Like the blind, we inch along a wall, groping eyeless in the dark. We shuffle our way in broad daylight, like the dead, but somehow walking.

<sup>12</sup> Our wrongdoings pile up before you, God, our sins stand up and accuse us. Our wrongdoings stare us down; we know in detail what we've done:

<sup>13</sup> Mocking and denying GOD, not following our God, Spreading false rumors, inciting sedition, pregnant with lies, muttering malice.

<sup>14</sup> Justice is beaten back, Righteousness is banished to the sidelines, Truth staggers down the street, Honesty is nowhere to be found, <sup>15</sup> Good is missing in action. Anyone renouncing evil is beaten and robbed. GOD looked and saw evil looming on the horizon--so much evil and no sign of Justice.

<sup>16</sup> He couldn't believe what he saw: not a soul around to correct this awful situation. So he did it himself, took on the work of Salvation, fueled by his own Righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> In the west they'll fear the name of GOD, in the east they'll fear the glory of GOD, For he'll arrive like a river in flood stage, whipped to a torrent by the wind of GOD.

<sup>20</sup> "I'll arrive in Zion as Redeemer, to those in Jacob who leave their sins." GOD's Decree.

<sup>21</sup> "As for me," GOD says, "this is my covenant with them: My Spirit that I've placed upon you and the words that I've given you to speak, they're not going to leave your mouths nor the mouths of your children nor the mouths of your grandchildren. You will keep repeating these words and won't ever stop." GOD's orders.

Wake up. Put your face in the sunlight. GOD's bright glory has risen for you.

<sup>2</sup> The whole earth is wrapped in darkness, all people sunk in deep darkness, But GOD rises on you, his sunrise glory breaks over you.

<sup>3</sup> Nations will come to your light, kings to your sunburst brightness.

<sup>4</sup> Look up! Look around! Watch as they gather, watch as they approach you:
Your sons coming from great distances, your daughters carried by their nannies.

<sup>5</sup> When you see them coming you'll smile--big smiles! Your heart will swell and, yes, burst! All those people returning by sea for the reunion, a rich harvest of exiles gathered in from the nations!

<sup>6</sup> And then streams of camel caravans as far as the eye can see, young camels of nomads in Midian and Ephah, Pouring in from the south from Sheba, loaded with gold and frankincense, preaching the praises of GOD.

<sup>7</sup> And yes, a great roundup of flocks from the nomads in Kedar and Nebaioth, Welcome gifts for worship at my altar as I bathe my glorious Temple in splendor.

<sup>8</sup> "What's that we see in the distance, a cloud on the horizon, like doves darkening the sky?

<sup>9</sup> It's ships from the distant islands, the famous Tarshish ships Returning your children from faraway places, loaded with riches, with silver and gold,
And backed by the name of your GOD,
The Holy of Israel, showering you with splendor.

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings assist you in the conduct of worship. When I was angry I hit you hard. It's my desire now to be tender.

<sup>11</sup> Your Jerusalem gates will always be open--open house day and night!--Receiving deliveries of wealth from all nations, and their kings, the delivery boys!

<sup>12</sup> Any nation or kingdom that doesn't deliver will perish; those nations will be totally wasted.

<sup>13</sup> The rich woods of Lebanon will be delivered--all that cypress and oak and pine--To give a splendid elegance to my Sanctuary, as I make my footstool glorious.

<sup>14</sup> The descendants of your oppressor will come bowing and scraping to you. All who looked down at you in contempt will lick your boots. They'll confer a title on you: City of GOD, Zion of The Holy of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Not long ago you were despised refuse--out-of-the-way, unvisited, ignored. But now I've put you on your feet, towering and grand forever, a joy to look at!

<sup>16</sup> When you suck the milk of nations and the breasts of royalty, You'll know that I, GOD, am your Savior, your Redeemer, Champion of Jacob.

<sup>17</sup> I'll give you only the best--no more hand-me-downs! Gold instead of bronze, silver instead of iron, bronze instead of wood, iron instead of stones. I'll install Peace to run your country, make Righteousness your boss.

<sup>19</sup> You'll have no more need of the sun by day nor the brightness of the moon at night. GOD will be your eternal light, your God will bathe you in splendor.

<sup>20</sup> Your sun will never go down, your moon will never fade. I will be your eternal light. Your days of grieving are over.

<sup>21</sup> All your people will live right and well, in permanent possession of the land. They're the green shoot that I planted, planted with my own hands to display my glory.

<sup>22</sup> The runt will become a great tribe, the weakling become a strong nation. I am GOD. At the right time I'll make it happen."

61 <sup>1</sup> The Spirit of GOD, the Master, is on me because GOD anointed me. He sent me to preach good news to the poor, heal the heartbroken, Announce freedom to all captives, pardon all prisoners.

<sup>2</sup> GOD sent me to announce the year of his grace--a celebration of God's destruction of our enemies--and to comfort all who mourn, <sup>3</sup> To care for the needs of all who mourn in Zion, give them bouquets of roses instead of ashes, Messages of joy instead of news of doom, a praising heart instead of a languid spirit. Rename them "Oaks of Righteousness" planted by GOD to display his glory.

<sup>6</sup> But you'll have the title "Priests of GOD," honored as ministers of our God. You'll feast on the bounty of nations, you'll bask in their glory.

<sup>7</sup> Because you got a double dose of trouble and more than your share of contempt, Your inheritance in the land will be doubled and your joy go on forever.

<sup>8</sup> "Because I, GOD, love fair dealing and hate thievery and crime, I'll pay your wages on time and in full, and establish my eternal covenant with you.

<sup>9</sup> Your descendants will become well-known all over. Your children in foreign countries Will be recognized at once as the people I have blessed."

<sup>10</sup> I will sing for joy in GOD, explode in praise from deep in my soul! He dressed me up in a suit of salvation, he outfitted me in a robe of righteousness, As a bridegroom who puts on a tuxedo and a bride a jeweled tiara.

<sup>2</sup> Foreign countries will see your righteousness, and world leaders your glory. You'll get a brand-new name straight from the mouth of GOD.

<sup>3</sup> You'll be a stunning crown in the palm of GOD's hand, a jeweled gold cup held high in the hand of your God.

<sup>4</sup> No more will anyone call you Rejected, and your country will no more be called Ruined. You'll be called Hephzibah (My Delight), and your land Beulah (Married), Because GOD delights in you and your land will be like a wedding celebration.

<sup>5</sup> For as a young man marries his virgin bride, so your builder marries you, And as a bridegroom is happy in his bride, so your God is happy with you.

<sup>6</sup> I've posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. Day and night they keep at it, praying, calling out, reminding GOD to remember.

<sup>7</sup> They are to give him no peace until he does what he said, until he makes Jerusalem famous as the City of Praise.

<sup>8</sup> GOD has taken a solemn oath, an oath he means to keep: "Never again will I open your grain-filled barns to your enemies to loot and eat. Never again will foreigners drink the wine that you worked so hard to produce.

<sup>9</sup> No. The farmers who grow the food will eat the food and praise GOD for it. And those who make the wine will drink the wine in my holy courtyards."

<sup>11</sup> Yes! GOD has broadcast to all the world: "Tell daughter Zion, 'Look! Your Savior comes, Ready to do what he said he'd do, prepared to complete what he promised.'"

<sup>12</sup> Zion will be called new names: Holy People, GOD-Redeemed, Sought-Out, City-Not-Forsaken.

63 <sup>1</sup> The watchmen call out, "Who goes there, marching out of Edom, out of Bozrah in clothes dyed red? Name yourself, so splendidly dressed, advancing, bristling with power!" "It is I: I speak what is right, I, mighty to save!"

<sup>2</sup> "And why are your robes so red, your clothes dyed red like those who tread grapes?"

<sup>3</sup> "I've been treading the winepress alone. No one was there to help me. Angrily, I stomped the grapes; raging, I trampled the people. Their blood spurred all over me--all my clothes were soaked with blood.

<sup>4</sup> I was set on vengeance. The time for redemption had arrived.

<sup>5</sup> I looked around for someone to help--no one. I couldn't believe it--not one volunteer. So I went ahead and did it myself, fed and fueled by my rage.

<sup>7</sup> I'll make a list of GOD's gracious dealings, all the things GOD has done that need praising, All the generous bounties of GOD, his great goodness to the family of Israel--Compassion lavished, love extravagant.

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Without question these are my people, children who would never betray me." So he became their Savior.

<sup>9</sup> In all their troubles, he was troubled, too. He didn't send someone else to help them. He did it himself, in person. Out of his own love and pity he redeemed them. He rescued them and carried them along for a long, long time.

<sup>10</sup> But they turned on him; they grieved his Holy Spirit. So he turned on them, became their enemy and fought them.

<sup>11</sup> Then they remembered the old days, the days of Moses, God's servant: "Where is he who brought the shepherds of his flock up and out of the sea? And what happened to the One who set his Holy Spirit within them?"

<sup>13</sup> and led them through the muddy abyss as surefooted as horses on hard, level ground?

<sup>14</sup> Like a herd of cattle led to pasture, the Spirit of GOD gave them rest."

[That's] how you led your people!
[That's] how you became so famous!

<sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven, look at us! Look out the window of your holy and magnificent house! Whatever happened to your passion, your famous mighty acts, Your heartfelt pity, your compassion? Why are you holding back?

<sup>16</sup> You are our Father. Abraham and Israel are long dead. They wouldn't know us from Adam. But you're our [living] Father, our Redeemer, famous from eternity!

<sup>17</sup> Why, GOD, did you make us wander from your ways? Why did you make us cold and stubborn so that we no longer worshiped you in awe? Turn back for the sake of your servants. You own us! We belong to you!

<sup>18</sup> For a while your holy people had it good, but now our enemies have wrecked your holy place.

<sup>19</sup> For a long time now, you've paid no attention to us. It's like you never knew us.

64 <sup>1</sup> Oh, that you would rip open the heavens and descend, make the mountains shudder at your presence--

<sup>3</sup> To shock your enemies into facing you, make the nations shake in their boots! You did terrible things we never expected, descended and made the mountains shudder at your presence.

<sup>4</sup> Since before time began no one has ever imagined, No ear heard, no eye seen, a God like you who works for those who wait for him.

<sup>5</sup> You meet those who happily do what is right, who keep a good memory of the way you work. But how angry you've been with us! We've sinned and kept at it so long! Is there any hope for us? Can we be saved?

<sup>7</sup> No one prays to you or makes the effort to reach out to you Because you've turned away from us, left us to stew in our sins.

<sup>8</sup> Still, GOD, you are our Father. We're the clay and you're our potter: All of us are what you made us.

<sup>9</sup> Don't be too angry with us, O GOD. Don't keep a permanent account of wrongdoing. Keep in mind, please, we are your people--all of us.

<sup>10</sup> Your holy cities are all ghost towns: Zion's a ghost town, Jerusalem's a field of weeds.

our ancestors filled with your praises, Was burned down by fire, all our lovely parks and gardens in ruins.

<sup>12</sup> In the face of all this, are you going to sit there unmoved, GOD? Aren't you going to say something? Haven't you made us miserable long enough?

65 <sup>1</sup> "I've made myself available to those who haven't bothered to ask. I'm here, ready to be found by those who haven't bothered to look. I kept saying 'I'm here, I'm right here' to a nation that ignored me.

<sup>2</sup> I reached out day after day to a people who turned their backs on me, People who make wrong turns, who insist on doing things their own way.

<sup>3</sup> They get on my nerves, are rude to my face day after day, Make up their own kitchen religion, a potluck religious stew.

<sup>4</sup> They spend the night in tombs to get messages from the dead, Eat forbidden foods and drink a witch's brew of potions and charms.

<sup>6</sup> Look at this! Their sins are all written out--I have the list before me. I'm not putting up with this any longer. I'll pay them the wages

<sup>7</sup> They have coming for their sins. And for the sins of their parents lumped in, a bonus." GOD says so. "Because they've practiced their blasphemous worship, mocking me at their hillside shrines, I'll let loose the consequences and pay them in full for their actions."

<sup>8</sup> GOD's Message: "But just as one bad apple doesn't ruin the whole bushel, there are still plenty of good apples left.

So I'll preserve those in Israel who obey me. I won't destroy the whole nation.

<sup>9</sup> I'll bring out my true children from Jacob and the heirs of my mountains from Judah. My chosen will inherit the land, my servants will move in.

<sup>10</sup> The lush valley of Sharon in the west will be a pasture for flocks, And in the east, the valley of Achor, a place for herds to graze. These will be for the people who bothered to reach out to me, who wanted me in their lives, who actually bothered to look for me.

<sup>11</sup> "But you who abandon me, your GOD, who forget the holy mountains, Who hold dinners for Lady Luck and throw cocktail parties for Sir Fate, <sup>12</sup> Well, you asked for it. Fate it will be: your destiny, Death. For when I invited you, you ignored me; when I spoke to you, you brushed me off. You did the very things I exposed as evil; you chose what I hate."

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, this is the Message from the Master, GOD: "My servants will eat, and you'll go hungry; My servants will drink, and you'll go thirsty; My servants will rejoice, and you'll hang your heads.

<sup>14</sup> My servants will laugh from full hearts, and you'll cry out heartbroken, yes, wail from crushed spirits.

<sup>15</sup> Your legacy to my chosen will be your name reduced to a cussword. I, GOD, will put you to death and give a new name to my servants.

<sup>16</sup> Then whoever prays a blessing in the land will use my faithful name for the blessing, And whoever takes an oath in the land will use my faithful name for the oath, Because the earlier troubles are gone and forgotten, banished far from my sight.

my people will be as long-lived as trees, my chosen ones will have satisfaction in their work.

<sup>25</sup> Wolf and lamb will graze the same meadow, lion and ox eat straw from the same trough, but snakes--they'll get a diet of dirt! Neither animal nor human will hurt or kill anywhere on my Holy Mountain," says GOD.

66 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message: "Heaven's my throne, earth is my footstool. What sort of house could you build for me? What holiday spot reserve for me?"

<sup>2</sup> "I made all this! I own all this!" [GOD's] Decree. "But there is something I'm looking for: a person simple and plain, reverently responsive to what I say.

<sup>3</sup> "Your acts of worship are acts of sin: Your sacrificial slaughter of the ox is no different from murdering the neighbor; Your offerings for worship, no different from dumping pig's blood on the altar; Your presentation of memorial gifts, no different from honoring a no-god idol. You choose self-serving worship, you delight in self-centered worship--disgusting!

<sup>4</sup> Well, I choose to expose your nonsense and let you realize your worst fears, Because when I invited you, you ignored me; when I spoke to you, you brushed me off. You did the very things I exposed as evil, you chose what I hate."

<sup>5</sup> But listen to what GOD has to say to you who reverently respond to his Word:

"Your own families hate you and turn you out because of me. They taunt you, 'Let us see GOD's glory! If God's so great, why aren't you happy?' But they're the ones who are going to end up shamed."

<sup>7</sup> "Before she went into labor, she had the baby. Before the birth pangs hit, she delivered a son.

<sup>8</sup> Has anyone ever heard of such a thing? Has anyone seen anything like this? A country born in a day? A nation born in a flash? But Zion was barely in labor when she had her babies!

<sup>9</sup> Do I open the womb and not deliver the baby? Do I, the One who delivers babies, shut the womb?

<sup>10</sup> "Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her, celebrate! And all you who have shed tears over her, join in the happy singing.

<sup>15</sup> For GOD arrives like wildfire and his chariots like a tornado, A furious outburst of anger, a rebuke fierce and fiery.

<sup>16</sup> For it's by fire that GOD brings judgment, a death sentence on the human race. Many, oh so many, are under GOD's sentence of death:

<sup>17</sup> "All who enter the sacred groves for initiation in those unholy rituals that climaxed in that foul and obscene meal of pigs and mice will eat together and then die together." GOD's Decree.

<sup>18</sup> "I know everything they've ever done or thought. I'm going to come and then gather everyone--all nations, all languages. They'll come and see my glory.

<sup>19</sup> I'll set up a station at the center. I'll send the survivors of judgment all over the world: Spain and Africa, Turkey and Greece, and the far-off islands that have never heard of me, who know nothing of what I've done nor who I am. I'll send them out as missionaries to preach my glory among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> They'll return with all your long-lost brothers and sisters from all over the world. They'll bring them back and offer them in living worship to GOD. They'll bring them on horses and wagons and carts, on mules and camels, straight to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says GOD. "They'll present them just as Israelites present their offerings in a ceremonial vessel in the Temple of GOD.

<sup>22</sup> "For just as the new heavens and new earth that I am making will stand firm before me"--GOD's Decree--"So will your children and your reputation stand firm.

<sup>23</sup> Month after month and week by week, everyone will come to worship me," GOD says.

<sup>24</sup> "And then they'll go out and look at what happened to those who rebelled against me. Corpses! Maggots endlessly eating away on them, an endless supply of fuel for fires. Everyone who sees what's happened and smells the stench retches."

Jeremiah

<sup>2</sup> GOD's Message began to come to him during the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amos reigned over Judah.

<sup>3</sup> It continued to come to him during the time Jehoiakim son of Josiah reigned over Judah. And it continued to come to him clear down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah over Judah, the year that Jerusalem was taken into exile.

<sup>5</sup> "Before I shaped you in the womb, I knew all about you. Before you saw the light of day, I had holy plans for you: A prophet to the nations--that's what I had in mind for you."

<sup>6</sup> But I said, "Hold it, Master GOD! Look at me. I don't know anything. I'm only a boy!"

<sup>7</sup> GOD told me, "Don't say, 'I'm only a boy.' I'll tell you where to go and you'll go there. I'll tell you what to say and you'll say it.

<sup>8</sup> Don't be afraid of a soul. I'll be right there, looking after you." GOD's Decree.

<sup>9</sup> GOD reached out, touched my mouth, and said, "Look! I've just put my words in your mouth--hand-delivered!

<sup>10</sup> See what I've done? I've given you a job to do among nations and governments--a red-letter day! Your job is to pull up and tear down, take apart and demolish, And then start over, building and planting."

<sup>11</sup> GOD's Message came to me: "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "A walking stick--that's all."

<sup>12</sup> And GOD said, "Good eyes! I'm sticking with you. I'll make every word I give you come true."

<sup>13</sup> GOD's Message came again: "So what do you see now?" I said, "I see a boiling pot, tipped down toward us."

<sup>14</sup> Then GOD told me, "Disaster will pour out of the north on everyone living in this land.

<sup>15</sup> Watch for this: I'm calling all the kings out of the north." GOD's Decree. "They'll come and set up headquarters facing Jerusalem's gates, Facing all the city walls, facing all the villages of Judah.

<sup>16</sup> I'll pronounce my judgment on the people of Judah for walking out on me--what a terrible thing to do!--And courting other gods with their offerings, worshiping as gods sticks they'd carved, stones they'd painted.

<sup>17</sup> "But you--up on your feet and get dressed for work! Stand up and say your piece. Say exactly what I tell you to say. Don't pull your punches or I'll pull you out of the lineup.

<sup>19</sup> They'll fight you, but they won't even scratch you. I'll back you up every inch of the way." GOD's Decree.

2 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me. It went like this:

your youthful loyalty, our love as newlyweds. You stayed with me through the wilderness years, stuck with me through all the hard places.

<sup>3</sup> Israel was GOD's holy choice, the pick of the crop. Anyone who laid a hand on her would soon wish he hadn't!" GOD's Decree.

<sup>4</sup> Hear GOD's Message, House of Jacob! Yes, you--House of Israel!

<sup>5</sup> GOD's Message: "What did your ancestors find fault with in me that they drifted so far from me, Took up with Sir Windbag and turned into windbags themselves?

<sup>6</sup> It never occurred to them to say, 'Where's GOD, the God who got us out of Egypt, Who took care of us through thick and thin, those rough-and-tumble wilderness years of parched deserts and death valleys, A land that no one who enters comes out of, a cruel, inhospitable land?'

<sup>7</sup> "I brought you to a garden land where you could eat lush fruit. But you barged in and polluted my land, trashed and defiled my dear land.

<sup>8</sup> The priests never thought to ask, 'Where's GOD?' The religion experts knew nothing of me. The rulers defied me. The prophets preached god Baal And chased empty god-dreams and silly god-schemes.

<sup>9</sup> "Because of all this, I'm bringing charges against you"--GOD's Decree--"charging you and your children and your grandchildren.

<sup>11</sup> That a nation has traded in its gods for gods that aren't even close to gods? But my people have traded my Glory for empty god-dreams and silly god-schemes.

<sup>13</sup> "My people have committed a compound sin: they've walked out on me, the fountain Of fresh flowing waters, and then dug cisterns--cisterns that leak, cisterns that are no better than sieves.

<sup>14</sup> "Isn't Israel a valued servant, born into a family with place and position? So how did she end up a piece of meat

<sup>17</sup> And why do you think all this has happened? Isn't it because you walked out on your God just as he was beginning to lead you in the right way?

<sup>18</sup> "And now, what do you think you'll get by going off to Egypt? Maybe a cool drink of Nile River water? Or what do you think you'll get by going off to Assyria? Maybe a long drink of Euphrates River water?

<sup>19</sup> Your evil ways will get you a sound thrashing, that's what you'll get. You'll pay dearly for your disloyal ways. Take a long, hard look at what you've done and its bitter results. Was it worth it to have walked out on your God?" GOD's Decree, Master GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>20</sup> "A long time ago you broke out of the harness. You shook off all restraints. You said, 'I will not serve!' and off you went, Visiting every sex-and-religion shrine on the way, like a common whore.

<sup>25</sup> "Slow down. Take a deep breath. What's the hurry? Why wear yourself out? Just what are you after anyway? But you say, 'I can't help it. I'm addicted to alien gods. I can't quit.'

<sup>26</sup> "Just as a thief is chagrined, but only when caught, so the people of Israel are chagrined, Caught along with their kings and princes, their priests and prophets.

<sup>27</sup> They walk up to a tree and say, 'My father!' They pick up a stone and say, 'My mother! You bore me!' All I ever see of them is their backsides. They never look me in the face. But when things go badly, they don't hesitate to come running, calling out, 'Get a move on! Save us!'

<sup>29</sup> "What do you have against me, running off to assert your 'independence'?" GOD's Decree.

<sup>30</sup> "I've wasted my time trying to train your children. They've paid no attention to me, ignored my discipline. And you've gotten rid of your God-messengers, treating them like dirt and sweeping them away.

<sup>31</sup> "What a generation you turned out to be! Didn't I tell you? Didn't I warn you? Have I let you down, Israel? Am I nothing but a dead-end street? Why do my people say, 'Good riddance! From now on we're on our own'?

<sup>33</sup> "What an impressive start you made to get the most out of life. You founded schools of sin, taught graduate courses in evil!

<sup>34</sup> And now you're sending out graduates, resplendent in cap and gown--except the gowns are stained with the blood of your victims! All that blood convicts you. You cut and hurt a lot of people to get where you are.

<sup>35</sup> And yet you have the gall to say, 'I've done nothing wrong. God doesn't mind. He hasn't punished me, has he?' Don't look now, but judgment's on the way, aimed at you who say, 'I've done nothing wrong.'

<sup>36</sup> "You think it's just a small thing, don't you, to try out another sin-project when the first one fails? But Egypt will leave you in the lurch the same way that Assyria did.

<sup>37</sup> You're going to walk away from there wringing your hands. I, GOD, have blacklisted those you trusted. You'll get not a lick of help from them."

3<sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me as follows: "If a man's wife walks out on him And marries another man, can he take her back as if nothing had happened? Wouldn't that raise a huge stink in the land? And isn't that what you've done--'whored' your way with god after god? And now you want to come back as if nothing had happened." GOD's Decree.

<sup>3</sup> And so the rain has stopped. No more rain from the skies! But it doesn't even faze you. Brazen as whores, you carry on as if you've done nothing wrong.

<sup>4</sup> Then you have the nerve to call out, 'My father! You took care of me when I was a child. Why not now?'

<sup>5</sup> Are you going to keep up your anger nonstop?' That's your line. Meanwhile you keep sinning nonstop."

<sup>6</sup> GOD spoke to me during the reign of King Josiah: "You have noticed, haven't you, how fickle Israel has visited every hill and grove of trees as a whore at large?"

<sup>7</sup> I assumed that after she had gotten it out of her system, she'd come back, but she didn't. Her flighty sister, Judah, saw what she did.

<sup>8</sup> She also saw that because of fickle Israel's loose morals I threw her out, gave her her walking papers. But that didn't faze flighty sister Judah. She went out, big as you please, and took up a whore's life also.

<sup>9</sup> She took up cheap sex-and-religion as a sideline diversion, an indulgent recreation, and used anything and anyone, flouting sanity and sanctity alike, stinking up the country.

<sup>10</sup> And not once in all this did flighty sister Judah even give me a nod, although she made a show of it from time to time." GOD's Decree.

<sup>11</sup> Then GOD told me, "Fickle Israel was a good sight better than flighty Judah.

<sup>12</sup> Go and preach this message. Face north toward Israel and say: "'Turn back, fickle Israel. I'm not just hanging back to punish you. I'm committed in love to you. My anger doesn't seethe nonstop.

GOD's Decree. "I, yes I, am your true husband. I'll pick you out one by one--This one from the city, these two from the country--and bring you to Zion.

<sup>15</sup> I'll give you good shepherd-rulers who rule my way, who rule you with intelligence and wisdom.

<sup>16</sup> "And this is what will happen: You will increase and prosper in the land. The time will come"--GOD's Decree!--"when no one will say any longer, 'Oh, for the good old days! Remember the Ark of the Covenant?' It won't even occur to anyone to say it--'the good old days.' The so-called good old days of the Ark are gone for good.

<sup>17</sup> "Jerusalem will be the new Ark-- 'GOD's Throne.' All the godless nations, no longer stuck in the ruts of their evil ways, will gather there to honor GOD.

<sup>18</sup> "At that time, the House of Judah will join up with the House of Israel. Holding hands, they'll leave the north country and come to the land I willed to your ancestors.

<sup>19</sup> "I planned what I'd say if you returned to me: 'Good! I'll bring you back into the family. I'll give you choice land, land that the godless nations would die for.' And I imagined that you would say, 'Dear father!' and would never again go off and leave me.

<sup>20</sup> But no luck. Like a false-hearted woman walking out on her husband, you, the whole family of Israel, have proven false to me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>23</sup> All that popular religion was a cheap lie, duped crowds buying up the latest in gods. We're back! Back to our true GOD, the salvation of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> The Fraud picked us clean, swindled us of what our ancestors bequeathed us, Gypped us out of our inheritance-God-blessed flocks and God-given children.

<sup>25</sup> We made our bed and now lie in it, all tangled up in the dirty sheets of dishonor. All because we sinned against our GOD, we and our fathers and mothers. From the time we took our first steps, said our first words, we've been rebels, disobeying the voice of our GOD."

4<sup>1</sup> "If you want to come back, O Israel, you must really come back to me. You must get rid of your stinking sin paraphernalia and not wander away from me anymore.

<sup>2</sup> Then you can say words like, 'As GOD lives...'and have them mean something true and just and right. And the godless nations will get caught up in the blessing and find something in Israel to write home about."

<sup>3</sup> Here's another Message from GOD to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: "Plow your unplowed fields, but then don't plant weeds in the soil!

<sup>4</sup> Yes, circumcise your [lives] for God's sake. Plow your unplowed hearts, all you people of Judah and Jerusalem. Prevent fire--the fire of my anger--for once it starts it can't be put out. Your wicked ways are fuel for the fire.

<sup>5</sup> "Sound the alarm in Judah, broadcast the news in Jerusalem. Say, 'Blow the ram's horn trumpet through the land!' Shout out--a bullhorn bellow!--'Close ranks! Run for your lives to the shelters!'

<sup>8</sup> Dress in funereal black. Weep and wail, For GOD's sledgehammer anger has slammed into us head-on.

<sup>9</sup> "When this happens"--GOD's Decree-- "King and princes will lose heart; priests will be baffled and prophets stand dumbfounded."

<sup>10</sup> Then I said, "Alas, Master GOD! You've fed lies to this people, this Jerusalem. You assured them, 'All is well, don't worry,' at the very moment when the sword was at their throats."

<sup>11</sup> At that time, this people, yes, this very Jerusalem, will be told in plain words: "The northern hordes are sweeping in from the desert steppes--A wind that's up to no good,

<sup>12</sup> a gale-force wind. I ordered this wind. I'm pronouncing my hurricane judgment on my people."

<sup>14</sup> Jerusalem! Scrub the evil from your lives so you'll be fit for salvation. How much longer will you harbor devious and malignant designs within you?

Bad news from Ephraim's hills!

<sup>16</sup> Make the report public. Broadcast the news to Jerusalem: "Invaders from far off are raising war cries against Judah's towns.

<sup>18</sup> "It's the way you've lived that's brought all this on you. The bitter taste is from your evil life. That's what's piercing your heart."

<sup>19</sup> I'm doubled up with cramps in my belly--a poker burns in my gut. My insides are tearing me up, never a moment's peace. The ram's horn trumpet blast rings in my ears, the signal for all-out war.

<sup>20</sup> Disaster hard on the heels of disaster, the whole country in ruins! In one stroke my home is destroyed, the walls flattened in the blink of an eye.

<sup>25</sup> I looked--what's this! Not a man or woman in sight, and not a bird to be seen in the skies.

<sup>26</sup> I looked--this can't be! Every garden and orchard shriveled up. All the towns were ghost towns. And all this because of GOD, because of the blazing anger of GOD.

<sup>27</sup> Yes, this is GOD's Word on the matter: "The whole country will be laid waste--still it won't be the end of the world.

<sup>28</sup> The earth will mourn and the skies lament Because I've given my word and won't take it back. I've decided and won't change my mind."

<sup>30</sup> And you, what do you think you're up to? Dressing up in party clothes, Decking yourselves out in jewelry, putting on lipstick and rouge and mascara! Your primping goes for nothing. You're not going to seduce anyone. They're out to kill you!

<sup>31</sup> And what's that I hear? The cry of a woman in labor, the screams of a mother giving birth to her firstborn. It's the cry of Daughter Zion, gasping for breath, reaching out for help: "Help, oh help me! I'm dying! The killers are on me!"

5 <sup>1</sup> "Patrol Jerusalem's streets. Look around. Take note. Search the market squares. See if you can find one man, one woman, A single soul who does what is right and tries to live a true life. I want to forgive that person." GOD's Decree.

<sup>2</sup> "But if all they do is say, 'As sure as GOD lives...'they're nothing but a bunch of liars."

<sup>3</sup> But you, GOD, you have an eye for truth, don't you? You hit them hard, but it didn't faze them. You disciplined them, but they refused correction. Hardheaded, harder than rock, they wouldn't change.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said to myself, "Well, these are just poor people. They don't know any better. They were never taught anything about GOD. They never went to prayer meetings. I'll find some people from the best families.

<sup>7</sup> "Why should I even bother with you any longer? Your children wander off, leaving me, Taking up with gods that aren't even gods. I satisfied their deepest needs, and then they went off with the 'sacred' whores, left me for orgies in sex shrines!

<sup>10</sup> "Go down the rows of vineyards and rip out the vines, but not all of them. Leave a few. Prune back those vines! [That] growth didn't come from GOD!

<sup>11</sup> They've betrayed me over and over again, Judah and Israel both." GOD's Decree.

<sup>12</sup> "They've spread lies about GOD. They've said, 'There's nothing to him. Nothing bad will happen to us, neither famine nor war will come our way.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, this is what GOD said to me, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "Because they have talked this way, they are going to eat those words. Watch now! I'm putting my words as fire in your mouth. And the people are a pile of kindling ready to go up in flames.

<sup>17</sup> They'll clean you out of house and home, rob you of crops and children alike. They'll feast on your sheep and cattle, strip your vines and fig trees. And the fortresses that made you feel so safe--leveled with a stroke of the sword!

<sup>18</sup> "Even then, as bad as it will be"-- GOD's Decree!--"it will not be the end of the world for you.

<sup>19</sup> And when people ask, 'Why did our GOD do all this to us?' you must say to them, 'It's tit for tat. Just as you left me and served foreign gods in your own country, so now you must serve foreigners in their own country.'

<sup>20</sup> "Tell the house of Jacob this, put out this bulletin in Judah:

<sup>21</sup> Listen to this, you scatterbrains, airheads, With eyes that see but don't really look, and ears that hear but don't really listen.

<sup>22</sup> Why don't you honor me? Why aren't you in awe before me? Yes, [me], who made the shorelines to contain the ocean waters. I drew a line in the sand that cannot be crossed. Waves roll in but cannot get through; breakers crash but that's the end of them.

<sup>23</sup> But this people--what a people!
Uncontrollable, untameable runaways.

<sup>24</sup> It never occurs to them to say, 'How can we honor our GOD with our lives, The God who gives rain in both spring and autumn and maintains the rhythm of the seasons, Who sets aside time each year for harvest and keeps everything running smoothly for us?'

<sup>25</sup> Of course you don't! Your bad behavior blinds you to all this. Your sins keep my blessings at a distance.

and wrong mean nothing to them. They stand for nothing, stand up for no one, throw orphans to the wolves, exploit the poor.

<sup>31</sup> Prophets preach lies and priests hire on as their assistants. And my people love it. They eat it up! But what will you do when it's time to pick up the pieces?

6 <sup>1</sup> "Run for your lives, children of Benjamin! Get out of Jerusalem, and now! Give a blast on the ram's horn in Blastville. Send up smoke signals from Smoketown. Doom pours out of the north--massive terror!

<sup>4</sup> And then, 'Prepare to attack! The fight is on! To arms! We'll strike at noon! Oh, it's too late? Day is dying? Evening shadows are upon us?

<sup>10</sup> "I've got something to say. Is anybody listening? I've a warning to post. Will anyone notice? It's hopeless! Their ears are stuffed with wax--deaf as a post, blind as a bat. It's hopeless! They've tuned out GOD. They don't want to hear from me.

<sup>11</sup> But I'm bursting with the wrath of GOD. I can't hold it in much longer. "So dump it on the children in the streets. Let it loose on the gangs of youth. For no one's exempt: Husbands and wives will be taken, the old and those ready to die; <sup>12</sup> Their homes will be given away--all they own, even their loved ones--When I give the signal against all who live in this country." GOD's Decree.

<sup>13</sup> "Everyone's after the dishonest dollar, little people and big people alike. Prophets and priests and everyone in between twist words and doctor truth.

<sup>14</sup> My people are broken--shattered!--and they put on band-aids, Saying, 'It's not so bad. You'll be just fine.' But things are not 'just fine'!

<sup>15</sup> Do you suppose they are embarrassed over this outrage? No, they have no shame. They don't even know how to blush. There's no hope for them. They've hit bottom and there's no getting up. As far as I'm concerned, they're finished." GOD has spoken.

for directions to the old road, The tried and true road. Then take it. Discover the right route for your souls. But they said, 'Nothing doing. We aren't going that way.'

<sup>17</sup> I even provided watchmen for them to warn them, to set off the alarm. But the people said, 'It's a false alarm. It doesn't concern us.'

<sup>18</sup> And so I'm calling in the nations as witnesses: 'Watch, witnesses, what happens to them!'

<sup>19</sup> And, 'Pay attention, earth! Don't miss these bulletins.' I'm visiting catastrophe on this people, the end result of the games they've been playing with me. They've ignored everything I've said, had nothing but contempt for my teaching.

<sup>20</sup> What would I want with incense brought in from Sheba, rare spices from exotic places? Your burnt sacrifices in worship give me no pleasure. Your religious rituals mean nothing to me."

<sup>21</sup> So listen to this. Here's GOD's verdict on your way of life: "Watch out! I'm putting roadblocks and barriers on the road you're taking. They'll send you sprawling, parents and children, neighbors and friends--and that will be the end of the lot of you."

<sup>22</sup> And listen to this verdict from GOD: "Look out! An invasion from the north, a mighty power on the move from a faraway place:

<sup>26</sup> "Dear Daughter Zion: Dress in black. Blacken your face with ashes. Weep most bitterly, as for an only child. The countdown has begun...six, five, four, three...The Terror is on us!"

<sup>27</sup> GOD gave me this task: "I have made you the examiner of my people, to examine and weigh their lives.

<sup>30</sup> Men will give up and call them 'slag,' thrown on the slag heap by me, their GOD."

7 <sup>1</sup> The Message from GOD to Jeremiah:

<sup>2</sup> "Stand in the gate of GOD's Temple and preach this Message. "Say, 'Listen, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship GOD.

<sup>3</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's God, has this to say to you: "'Clean up your act--the way you live, the things you do--so I can make my home with you in this place.

<sup>4</sup> Don't for a minute believe the lies being spoken here--"This is GOD's Temple, GOD's Temple, GOD's Temple!"

<sup>5</sup> Total nonsense! Only if you clean up your act (the way you live, the things you do), only if you do a total spring cleaning on the way you live and treat your neighbors,

<sup>6</sup> only if you quit exploiting the street people and orphans and widows, no longer taking advantage of innocent people on this very site and no longer destroying your souls by using this Temple as a front for other gods--

<sup>7</sup> only then will I move into your neighborhood. Only then will this country I gave your ancestors be my permanent home, my Temple.

<sup>8</sup> "Get smart! Your leaders are handing you a pack of lies, and you're swallowing them!

<sup>9</sup> Use your heads! Do you think you can rob and murder, have sex with the neighborhood wives, tell lies nonstop, worship the local gods, and buy every novel religious commodity on the market

<sup>10</sup> --and then march into this Temple, set apart for my worship, and say, "We're safe!" thinking that the place itself gives you a license to go on with all this outrageous sacrilege?

<sup>11</sup> A cave full of criminals! Do you think you can turn this Temple, set apart for my worship, into something like that? Well, think again. I've got eyes in my head. I can see what's going on.'" GOD's Decree!

<sup>12</sup> "'Take a trip down to the place that was once in Shiloh, where I met my people in the early days. Take a look at those ruins, what I did to it because of the evil ways of my people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> "'So now, because of the way you have lived and failed to listen, even though time and again I took you aside and talked seriously with you, and because you refused to change when I called you to repent, <sup>14</sup> I'm going to do to this Temple, set aside for my worship, this place you think is going to keep you safe no matter what, this place I gave as a gift to your ancestors and you, the same as I did to Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup> And as for you, I'm going to get rid of you, the same as I got rid of those old relatives of yours around Shiloh, your fellow Israelites in that former kingdom to the north.'

<sup>16</sup> "And you, Jeremiah, don't waste your time praying for this people. Don't offer to make petitions or intercessions. Don't bother me with them. I'm not listening.

<sup>17</sup> Can't you see what they're doing in all the villages of Judah and in the Jerusalem streets?

<sup>18</sup> Why, they've got the children gathering wood while the fathers build fires and the mothers make bread to be offered to 'the Queen of Heaven'! And as if that weren't bad enough, they go around pouring out libations to any other gods they come across, just to hurt me.

<sup>19</sup> "But is it me they're hurting?"
GOD's Decree! "Aren't they just hurting themselves? Exposing themselves shamefully? Making themselves ridiculous?

<sup>20</sup> "Here's what the Master GOD has to say: 'My white-hot anger is about to descend on this country and everything in it--people and animals, trees in the field and vegetables in the garden--a raging wildfire that no one can put out.'

<sup>21</sup> "The Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's God: 'Go ahead! Put your burnt offerings with all your other sacrificial offerings and make a good meal for yourselves. I sure don't want them!

<sup>22</sup> When I delivered your ancestors out of Egypt, I never said anything to them about wanting burnt offerings and sacrifices as such.

<sup>23</sup> But I did say this, [commanded] this: "Obey me. Do what I say and I will be your God and you will be my people. Live the way I tell you. Do what I command so that your lives will go well."

<sup>24</sup> "'But do you think they listened? Not a word of it. They did just what they wanted to do, indulged any and every evil whim and got worse day by day.

<sup>26</sup> but do you think the people listened? Not once. Stubborn as mules and worse than their ancestors!'

<sup>27</sup> "Tell them all this, but don't expect them to listen. Call out to them, but don't expect an answer.

<sup>28</sup> Tell them, 'You are the nation that wouldn't obey GOD, that refused all discipline. Truth has disappeared. There's not a trace of it left in your mouths.

29 "'So shave your heads. Go bald to the hills and lament, For GOD has rejected and left this generation that has made him so angry.'

30 "The people of Judah have lived evil lives while I've stood by and watched." GOD's Decree. "In deliberate insult to me, they've set up their obscene god-images in the very Temple that was built to honor me.

31 They've constructed Topheth altars for burning babies in prominent places all through the valley of Ben-hinnom, altars for burning their sons and daughters alive in the fire--a shocking perversion of all that I am and all I command.

32 "But soon, very soon"--GOD's Decree!--"the names Topheth and Ben-hinnom will no longer be used. They'll call the place what it is: Murder Meadow. Corpses will be stacked up in

<sup>33</sup> Corpses abandoned in the open air, fed on by crows and coyotes, who have the run of the place.

<sup>34</sup> And I'll empty both smiles and laughter from the villages of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. No wedding songs, no holiday sounds. [Dead] silence.

8 <sup>1</sup> "And when the time comes"--God's Decree!--"I'll see to it that they dig up the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of the princes and priests and prophets, and yes, even the bones of the common people.

<sup>2</sup> They'll dig them up and spread them out like a congregation at worship before sun, moon, and stars, all those sky gods they've been so infatuated with all these years, following their 'lucky stars' in doglike devotion. The bones will be left scattered and exposed, to reenter the soil as fertilizer, like manure.

<sup>3</sup> "Everyone left--all from this evil generation unlucky enough to still be alive in whatever godforsaken place I will have driven them to--will wish they were dead." Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>4</sup> "Tell them this, GOD's Message: "Do people fall down and not get up? Or take the wrong road and then just keep going?"

<sup>6</sup> I listened carefully but heard not so much as a whisper. No one expressed one word of regret. Not a single "I'm sorry" did I hear. They just kept at it, blindly and stupidly banging their heads against a brick wall.

<sup>7</sup> Cranes know when it's time to move south for winter. And robins, warblers, and bluebirds know when it's time to come back again. But my people? My people know nothing, not the first thing of GOD and his rule.

<sup>8</sup> "How can you say, "We know the score. We're the proud owners of GOD's revelation"? Look where it's gotten you--stuck in illusion. Your religion experts have taken you for a ride!

<sup>9</sup> Your know-it-alls will be unmasked, caught and shown up for what they are. Look at them! They know everything but GOD's Word. Do you call that "knowing"?

<sup>10</sup> "So here's what will happen to the know-it-alls: I'll make them wifeless and homeless. Everyone's after the dishonest dollar, little people and big people alike. Prophets and priests and everyone in-between twist words and doctor truth.

<sup>11</sup> My dear Daughter--my people-- broken, shattered, and yet they put on band-aids, Saying, "It's not so bad. You'll be just fine." But things are not "just fine"!

<sup>12</sup> Do you suppose they are embarrassed over this outrage? Not really. They have no shame. They don't even know how to blush. There's no hope for them. They've hit bottom and there's no getting up. As far as I'm concerned, they're finished.'" GOD has spoken.

<sup>13</sup> "'I went out to see if I could salvage anything'"--GOD's Decree--"'but found nothing: Not a grape, not a fig, just a few withered leaves. I'm taking back everything I gave them.'"

<sup>14</sup> So why are we sitting here, doing nothing? Let's get organized. Let's go to the big city and at least die fighting. We've gotten GOD's ultimatum: We're damned if we do and damned if we don't--damned because of our sin against him.

<sup>15</sup> We hoped things would turn out for the best, but it didn't happen that way. We were waiting around for healing--and terror showed up!

<sup>16</sup> From Dan at the northern borders we hear the hooves of horses, Horses galloping, horses neighing. The ground shudders and quakes. They're going to swallow up the whole country. Towns and people alike--fodder for war.

<sup>17</sup> "'What's more, I'm dispatching poisonous snakes among you, Snakes that can't be charmed, snakes that will bite you and kill you.'" GOD's Decree!

<sup>19</sup> Oh, listen! Please listen! It's the cry of my dear people reverberating through the country. Is GOD no longer in Zion? Has the King gone away? Can you tell me why they flaunt their plaything-gods, their silly, imported no-gods before me?

<sup>20</sup> The crops are in, the summer is over, but for us nothing's changed. We're still waiting to be rescued.

<sup>21</sup> For my dear broken people, I'm heartbroken. I weep, seized by grief.

<sup>22</sup> Are there no healing ointments in Gilead? Isn't there a doctor in the house? So why can't something be done to heal and save my dear, dear people?

9 <sup>1</sup> I wish my head were a well of water and my eyes fountains of tears So I could weep day and night for casualties among my dear, dear people.

of liars, the sworn enemies of truth. They advance from one evil to the next, ignorant of me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>5</sup> Neighbors gyp neighbors, never telling the truth. They've trained their tongues to tell lies, and now they can't tell the truth.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says: "Watch this! I'll melt them down and see what they're made of. What else can I do with a people this wicked?

'Good morning! How're things?' while scheming to do away with him.

<sup>11</sup> I'm going to make Jerusalem a pile of rubble, fit for nothing but stray cats and dogs. I'm going to reduce Judah's towns to piles of ruins where no one lives!"

<sup>12</sup> I asked, "Is there anyone around bright enough to tell us what's going on here? Anyone who has the inside story from GOD and can let us in on it? "Why is the country wasted? "Why no travelers in this desert?"

<sup>13</sup> GOD's answer: "Because they abandoned my plain teaching. They wouldn't listen to anything I said, refused to live the way I told them to.

<sup>17</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "Look over the trouble we're in and call for help. Send for some singers who can help us mourn our loss.

<sup>18</sup> Tell them to hurry--to help us express our loss and lament, Help us get our tears flowing, make tearful music of our crying.

<sup>19</sup> Listen to it! Listen to that torrent of tears out of Zion: 'We're a ruined people, we're a shamed people! We've been driven from our homes and must leave our land!'"

<sup>23</sup> GOD's Message: "Don't let the wise brag of their wisdom. Don't let heroes brag of their exploits. Don't let the rich brag of their riches.

<sup>24</sup> If you brag, brag of this and this only: That you understand and know me. I'm GOD, and I act in loyal love. I do what's right and set things right and fair, and delight in those who do the same things. These are my trademarks." GOD's Decree.

<sup>25</sup> "Stay alert! It won't be long now"-- GOD's Decree!--"when I will personally deal with everyone whose life is all outside but no inside: religion--including Israel, who is no better."

10<sup>1</sup> Listen to the Message that GOD is sending your way, House of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> The religion of these peoples is nothing but smoke. An idol is nothing but a tree chopped down, then shaped by a woodsman's ax.

<sup>7</sup> Who can fail to be impressed by you, King of the nations? It's your very nature to be worshiped! Look far and wide among the elite of the nations. The best they can come up with is nothing compared to you.

<sup>10</sup> But GOD is the real thing--the living God, the eternal King. When he's angry, Earth shakes. Yes, and the godless nations quake.

<sup>11</sup> "Tell them this: 'The stick gods who made nothing, neither sky nor earth, Will come to nothing on the earth and under the sky.'"

<sup>12</sup> But it is God whose power made the earth, whose wisdom gave shape to the world, who crafted the cosmos.

<sup>14</sup> Stick-god worshipers looking mighty foolish, god-makers embarrassed by their handmade gods! Their gods are frauds--dead sticks, <sup>15</sup> deadwood gods, tasteless jokes. When the fires of judgment come, they'll be ashes.

<sup>23</sup> I know, GOD, that mere mortals can't run their own lives, That men and women don't have what it takes to take charge of life.

<sup>24</sup> So correct us, GOD, as you see best.
Don't lose your temper. That would be the end of us.

<sup>25</sup> Vent your anger on the godless nations, who refuse to acknowledge you, And on the people who won't pray to you--The very ones who've made hash out of Jacob, yes, made hash
And devoured him whole, people and pastures alike.

11 <sup>1</sup> The Message that came to Jeremiah from GOD:

<sup>2</sup> "Preach to the people of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Tell them this: 'This is GOD's Message, the Message of Israel's God to you.
Anyone who does not keep the terms of this covenant is cursed.

<sup>4</sup> The terms are clear. I made them plain to your ancestors when I delivered them from Egypt, out of the iron furnace of suffering. "Obey what I tell you. Do exactly what I command you. Your obedience will close the deal. You'll be mine and I'll be yours.

<sup>5</sup> This will provide the conditions in which I will be able to do what I promised your ancestors: to give them a fertile and lush land. And, as you know, that's what I did.'" "Yes, GOD," I replied. "That's true."

<sup>6</sup> GOD continued: "Preach all this in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. Say, 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and carry them out!

<sup>7</sup> I warned your ancestors when I delivered them from Egypt and I've kept up the warnings. I haven't quit warning them for a moment. I warned them from morning to night: "Obey me or else!"

<sup>8</sup> But they didn't obey. They paid no attention to me. They did whatever they wanted to do, whenever they wanted to do it, until finally I stepped in and ordered the punishments set out in the covenant, which, despite all my warnings, they had ignored."

<sup>9</sup> Then GOD said, "There's a conspiracy among the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> They've plotted to reenact the sins of their ancestors--the ones who disobeyed me and decided to go after other gods and worship them. Israel and Judah are in this together, mindlessly breaking the covenant I made with their ancestors."

<sup>11</sup> "Well, your God has something to say about this: Watch out! I'm about to visit doom on you, and no one will get out of it. You're going to cry for help but I won't listen.

<sup>12</sup> Then all the people in Judah and Jerusalem will start praying to the gods you've been sacrificing to all these years, but it won't do a bit of good.

<sup>13</sup> You've got as many gods as you have villages, Judah! And you've got enough altars for sacrifices to that impotent sex god Baal to put one on every street corner in Jerusalem!"

<sup>14</sup> "And as for you, Jeremiah, I don't want you praying for this people. Nothing! Not a word of petition. Indeed, I'm not going to listen to a single syllable of their crisis-prayers."

<sup>15</sup> "What business do the ones I love have figuring out how to get off the hook? And right in the house of worship! Do you think making promises and devising pious programs will save you from doom? Do you think you can get out of this by becoming more religious?"

<sup>16</sup> A mighty oak tree, majestic and glorious--that's how I once described you. But it will only take a clap of thunder and a bolt of lightning to leave you a shattered wreck.

<sup>17</sup> "I, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, who planted you--yes, I have pronounced doom on you. Why? Because of the disastrous life you've lived, Israel and Judah alike, goading me to anger with your continuous worship and offerings to that sorry god Baal."

<sup>18</sup> God told me what was going on. That's how I knew. You, GOD, opened my eyes to their evil scheming.

<sup>19</sup> I had no idea what was going on--naive as a lamb being led to slaughter! I didn't know they had it in for me, didn't know of their behind-the-scenes plots: "Let's get rid of the preacher. [That] will stop the sermons! Let's get rid of him for good. He won't be remembered for long."

<sup>20</sup> Then I said, "GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, you're a fair judge. You examine and cross-examine human actions and motives. I want to see these people shown up and put down! I'm an open book before you. Clear my name."

<sup>21</sup> That sent a signal to GOD, who spoke up: "Here's what I'll do to the men of Anathoth who are trying to murder you, the men who say, 'Don't preach to us in GOD's name or we'll kill you.'"

<sup>22</sup> Yes, it's GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies speaking. Indeed! I'll call them to account: Their young people will die in battle, their children will die of starvation, <sup>23</sup> and there will be no one left at all, none. I'm visiting the men of Anathoth with doom. Doomsday!"

12 <sup>1</sup> You are right, O GOD, and you set things right. I can't argue with that. But I do have some questions: Why do bad people have it so good? Why do con artists make it big?

<sup>2</sup> You planted them and they put down roots. They flourished and produced fruit. They talk as if they're old friends with you, but they couldn't care less about you.

<sup>3</sup> Meanwhile, you know [me] inside and out. You don't let me get by with a thing! Make them pay for the way they live, pay with their lives, like sheep marked for slaughter.

<sup>4</sup> How long do we have to put up with this--the country depressed, the farms in ruin--And all because of wickedness, these wicked lives? Even animals and birds are dying off Because they'll have nothing to do with God and think God has nothing to do with them.

<sup>6</sup> Those closest to you, your own brothers and cousins, are working against you. They're out to get you. They'll stop at nothing. Don't trust them, especially when they're smiling.

<sup>7</sup> "I will abandon the House of Israel, walk away from my beloved people. I will turn over those I most love to those who are her enemies.

<sup>9</sup> Has this one I hold dear become a preening peacock? But isn't she under attack by vultures? Then invite all the hungry animals at large, invite them in for a free meal!

<sup>10</sup> Foreign, scavenging shepherds will loot and trample my fields, Turn my beautiful, well-cared-for fields into vacant lots of tin cans and thistles.

<sup>11</sup> They leave them littered with junk--a ruined land, a land in lament. The whole countryside is a wasteland, and no one will really care.

<sup>12</sup> "The barbarians will invade, swarm over hills and plains. The judgment sword of GOD will take its toll from one end of the land to the other. Nothing living will be safe.

<sup>13</sup> They will plant wheat and reap weeds. Nothing they do will work out. They will look at their meager crops and wring their hands. All this the result of GOD's fierce anger!"

<sup>14</sup> GOD's Message: "Regarding all the bad neighbors who abused the land I gave to Israel as their inheritance: I'm going to pluck them out of their lands, and then pluck Judah out from among them.

<sup>15</sup> Once I've pulled the bad neighbors out, I will relent and take them tenderly to my heart and put them back where they belong, put each of them back in their home country, on their family farms.

<sup>16</sup> Then if they will get serious about living my way and pray to me as well as they taught my people to pray to that god Baal, everything will go well for them.

13 <sup>1</sup> GOD told me, "Go and buy yourself some linen shorts. Put them on and keep them on. Don't even take them off to wash them."

<sup>3</sup> Then GOD told me,

<sup>4</sup> "Take the shorts that you bought and go straight to Perath and hide them there in a crack in the rock."

<sup>5</sup> So I did what GOD told me and hid them at Perath.

<sup>6</sup> Next, after quite a long time, GOD told me, "Go back to Perath and get the linen shorts I told you to hide there."

<sup>7</sup> So I went back to Perath and dug them out of the place where I had hidden them. The shorts by then had rotted and were worthless.

<sup>9</sup> "This is the way I am going to ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem--

<sup>10</sup> a wicked bunch of people who won't obey me, who do only what they want to do, who chase after all kinds of no-gods and worship them. They're going to turn out as rotten as these old shorts.

<sup>11</sup> Just as shorts clothe and protect, so I kept the whole family of Israel under my care"--GOD's Decree--"so that everyone could see they were my people, a people I could show off to the world and be proud of. But they refused to do a thing I said.

<sup>12</sup> "And then tell them this: 'GOD's Message, personal from the God of Israel: Every wine jug should be full of wine.' "And they'll say, 'Of course. We know that. Every wine jug should be full of wine!'

<sup>13</sup> "Then you'll say, 'This is what GOD says: Watch closely. I'm going to fill every person who lives in this country--the kings who rule from David's throne, the priests, the prophets, the citizens of Jerusalem--with wine that will make them drunk.

<sup>14</sup> And then I'll smash them, smash the wine-filled jugs--old and young alike. Nothing will stop me. Not an ounce of pity or mercy or compassion will slow me down. Every last drunken jug of them will be smashed!"

<sup>15</sup> Then I said, Listen. Listen carefully: Don't stay stuck in your ways! It's GOD's Message we're dealing with here.

<sup>16</sup> Let your lives glow bright before GOD before he turns out the lights, Before you trip and fall on the dark mountain paths. The light you always took for granted will go out and the world will turn black.

<sup>17</sup> If you people won't listen, I'll go off by myself and weep over you, Weep because of your stubborn arrogance, bitter, bitter tears, Rivers of tears from my eyes, because GOD's sheep will end up in exile.

<sup>18</sup> Tell the king and the queen-mother, "Come down off your high horses. Your dazzling crowns will tumble off your heads."

<sup>20</sup> Look, look, Jerusalem! Look at the enemies coming out of the north! What will become of your flocks of people, the beautiful flocks in your care?

<sup>21</sup> How are you going to feel when the people you've played up to, looked up to all these years Now look down on you?

You didn't expect this? Surprise! The pain of a woman having a baby!

<sup>22</sup> Do I hear you saying, "What's going on here? Why me?" The answer's simple: You're guilty, hugely guilty. Your guilt has your life endangered, your guilt has you writhing in pain.

<sup>23</sup> Can an African change skin? Can a leopard get rid of its spots? So what are the odds on you doing good, you who are so long-practiced in evil?

<sup>25</sup> You have it coming to you. I've measured it out precisely." GOD's Decree. "It's because you forgot me and embraced the Big Lie, that so-called god Baal.

<sup>26</sup> I'm the one who will rip off your clothes, expose and shame you before the watching world.

<sup>27</sup> Your obsessions with gods, gods, and more gods, your goddess affairs, your god-adulteries. Gods on the hills, gods in the fields--every time I look you're off with another god. O Jerusalem, what a sordid life! Is there any hope for you!"

14 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message that came to Jeremiah regarding the drought:

<sup>7</sup> We know we're guilty. We've lived bad lives--but do something, GOD. Do it for [your] sake! Time and time again we've betrayed you. No doubt about it--we've sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup> Hope of Israel! Our only hope! Israel's last chance in this trouble! Why are you acting like a tourist, taking in the sights, here today and gone tomorrow?

<sup>9</sup> Why do you just stand there and stare, like someone who doesn't know what to do in a crisis? But GOD, you are, in fact, [here], here [with us]! You know who we are--you named us! Don't leave us in the lurch.

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD said of these people: "Since they loved to wander this way and that, never giving a thought to where they were going, I will now have nothing more to do with them--except to note their guilt and punish their sins."

<sup>11</sup> GOD said to me, "Don't pray that everything will turn out all right for this people.

<sup>12</sup> When they skip their meals in order to pray, I won't listen to a thing they say. When they redouble their prayers, bringing all kinds of offerings from their herds and crops, I'll not accept them. I'm finishing them off with war and famine and disease."

<sup>13</sup> I said, "But Master, GOD! Their preachers have been telling them that everything is going to be all right--no war and no famine--that there's nothing to worry about."

<sup>14</sup> Then GOD said, "These preachers are liars, and they use my name to cover their lies. I never sent them, I never commanded them, and I don't talk with them. The sermons they've been handing out are sheer illusion, tissues of lies, whistlings in the dark.

<sup>15</sup> "So this is my verdict on them: All the preachers who preach using my name as their text, preachers I never sent in the first place, preachers who say, 'War and famine will never come here'--these preachers will die in war and by starvation.

<sup>16</sup> And the people to whom they've been preaching will end up as corpses, victims of war and starvation, thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem unburied--no funerals for them or their wives or their children! I'll make sure they get the full brunt of all their evil.

<sup>17</sup> "And you, Jeremiah, will say this to them: "'My eyes pour out tears. Day and night, the tears never quit. My dear, dear people are battered and bruised, hopelessly and cruelly wounded.

<sup>18</sup> I walk out into the fields, shocked by the killing fields strewn with corpses. I walk into the city, shocked by the sight of starving bodies. And I watch the preachers and priests going about their business as if nothing's happened!"

<sup>19</sup> God, have you said your final No to Judah? Can you simply not stand Zion any longer? If not, why have you treated us like this, beaten us nearly to death? We hoped for peace--nothing good came from it; We looked for healing--and got kicked in the stomach.

<sup>20</sup> We admit, O GOD, how bad we've lived, and our ancestors, how bad they were. We've sinned, they've sinned, we've all sinned against you!

<sup>22</sup> Can the no-gods of the godless nations cause rain? Can the sky water the earth by itself? You're the one, O GOD, who does this. So you're the one for whom we wait. You made it all, you do it all.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then GOD said to me: "Jeremiah, even if Moses and Samuel stood here and made their case, I wouldn't feel a thing for this people. Get them out of here. Tell them to get lost!

<sup>2</sup> And if they ask you, 'So where do we go?' tell them GOD says, "'If you're assigned to die, go and die; if assigned to war, go and get killed; If assigned to starve, go starve; if assigned to exile, off to exile you go!'

<sup>3</sup> "I've arranged for four kinds of punishment: death in battle, the corpses dropped off by killer dogs, the rest picked clean by vultures, the bones gnawed by hyenas.

<sup>4</sup> They'll be a sight to see, a sight to shock the whole world--and all because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah and all he did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> "Who do you think will feel sorry for you, Jerusalem? Who do you think will waste tears on you? Who will bother to take the time to ask, 'So, how are things going?'

<sup>6</sup> "[You] left [me], remember?" GOD's Decree. "You turned your back and walked out. So I will grab you and hit you hard. I'm tired of letting you off the hook.

<sup>7</sup> I threw you to the four winds and let the winds scatter you like leaves. I made sure you'll lose everything, since nothing makes you change.

<sup>8</sup> I created more widows among you than grains of sand on the ocean beaches. At noon mothers will get the news of their sons killed in action. Sudden anguish for the mothers--all those terrible deaths.

<sup>9</sup> A mother of seven falls to the ground, gasping for breath, Robbed of her children in their prime. Her sun sets at high noon! Then I'll round up any of you that are left alive and see that you're killed by your enemies." GOD's Decree.

<sup>10</sup> Unlucky mother--that you had me as a son, given the unhappy job of indicting the whole country! I've never hurt or harmed a soul, and yet everyone is out to get me.

<sup>14</sup> I'll make you slaves to your enemies in a strange and far-off land. My anger is blazing and fierce, burning in hot judgment against you."

<sup>16</sup> When your words showed up, I ate them--swallowed them whole. What a feast! What delight I took in being yours, O GOD, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies!

<sup>17</sup> I never joined the party crowd in their laughter and their fun. Led by you,

I went off by myself. You'd filled me with indignation. Their sin had me seething.

<sup>18</sup> But why, why this chronic pain, this ever worsening wound and no healing in sight? You're nothing, GOD, but a mirage, a lovely oasis in the distance--and then nothing!

<sup>19</sup> This is how GOD answered me: "Take back those words, and I'll take you back. Then you'll stand tall before me. Use words truly and well. Don't stoop to cheap whining. Then, but only then, you'll speak for me. Let your words change [them]. Don't change your words to suit them.

<sup>4</sup> an epidemic of death. Death unlamented, the dead unburied, dead bodies decomposing and stinking like dung, all the killed and starved corpses served up as meals for carrion crows and mongrel dogs!"

<sup>6</sup> The famous and obscure will die alike here, unlamented and unburied. No funerals will be conducted, no one will give them a second thought, <sup>7</sup> no one will care, no one will say, 'I'm sorry,' no one will so much as offer a cup of tea, not even for the mother or father.

<sup>8</sup> "And if there happens to be a feast celebrated, don't go there either to enjoy the festivities."

<sup>9</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Watch this! I'm about to banish smiles and laughter from this place. No more brides and bridegrooms celebrating. And I'm doing it in your lifetime, before your very eyes.

<sup>10</sup> "When you tell this to the people and they ask, 'Why is GOD talking this way, threatening us with all these calamities? We're not criminals, after all. What have we done to our GOD to be treated like this?'

<sup>12</sup> And [you're] even [worse]! Take a good look in the mirror--each of you doing whatever you want, whenever you want, refusing to pay attention to me.

<sup>13</sup> And for this I'm getting rid of you, throwing you out in the cold, into a far and strange country. You can worship your precious no-gods there to your heart's content. Rest assured, I won't bother you anymore.'

<sup>14</sup> "On the other hand, don't miss this: The time is coming when no one will say any longer, 'As sure as GOD lives, the God who delivered Israel from Egypt.'

<sup>15</sup> What they'll say is, 'As sure as GOD lives, the God who brought Israel back from the land of the north, brought them back from all the places where he'd scattered them.' That's right, I'm going to bring them back to the land I first gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup> "Now, watch for what comes next: I'm going to assemble a bunch of fishermen." GOD's Decree! "They'll go fishing for my people and pull them in for judgment. Then I'll send out a party of hunters, and they'll hunt them out in all the mountains, hills, and caves.

<sup>21</sup> "Watch closely now. I'm going to teach these wrongheaded people. Starting right now, I'm going to teach them Who I am and what I do, teach them the meaning of my name, GOD--'I AM.'

<sup>3</sup> "I'll use your mountains as roadside stands for giving away everything you have. All your 'things' will serve as reparations for your sins all over the country.

<sup>4</sup> You'll lose your gift of land, The inheritance I gave you. I'll make you slaves of your enemies in a far-off and strange land. My anger is hot and blazing and fierce, and no one will put it out."

<sup>5</sup> GOD's Message: "Cursed is the strong one who depends on mere humans, Who thinks he can make it on muscle alone and sets GOD aside as dead weight.

<sup>6</sup> He's like a tumbleweed on the prairie, out of touch with the good earth. He lives rootless and aimless in a land where nothing grows.

<sup>7</sup> "But blessed is the man who trusts me, GOD, the woman who sticks with GOD.

<sup>10</sup> But I, GOD, search the heart and examine the mind. I get to the heart of the human. I get to the root of things. I treat them as they really are, not as they pretend to be."

<sup>12</sup> From early on your Sanctuary was set high, a throne of glory, exalted!

<sup>13</sup> O GOD, you're the hope of Israel. All who leave you end up as fools, Deserters with nothing to show for their lives, who walk off from GOD, fountain of living waters--and wind up dead!

<sup>14</sup> GOD, pick up the pieces. Put me back together again. You are my praise!

<sup>15</sup> Listen to how they talk about me: "So where's this 'Word of GOD'? We'd like to see something happen!"

<sup>16</sup> But it wasn't my idea to call for Doomsday. I never wanted trouble. You know what I've said. It's all out in the open before you.

<sup>18</sup> Let those who harass me be harassed, not me. Let [them] be disgraced, not me. Bring down upon them the day of doom. Lower the boom. [Boom]!

<sup>19</sup> GOD's Message to me: "Go stand in the People's Gate, the one used by Judah's kings as they come and go, and then proceed in turn to all the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> Tell them: 'Listen, you kings of Judah, listen to GOD's Message--and all you people who go in and out of these gates, you listen!

<sup>21</sup> "'This is GOD's Message. Be careful, if you care about your lives, not to desecrate the Sabbath by turning it into just another workday, lugging stuff here and there.

<sup>22</sup> Don't use the Sabbath to do business as usual. Keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors.

<sup>23</sup> They never did it, as you know. They paid no attention to what I said and went about their own business, refusing to be guided or instructed by me.

<sup>24</sup> "'But now, take seriously what I tell you. Quit desecrating the Sabbath by busily going about your own work, and keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing business as usual.

<sup>25</sup> Then kings from the time of David and their officials will continue to ride through these gates on horses or in chariots. The people of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem will continue to pass through them, too. Jerusalem will always be filled with people.

<sup>26</sup> People will stream in from all over Judah, from the province of Benjamin, from the Jerusalem suburbs, from foothills and mountains and deserts. They'll come to worship, bringing all kinds of offerings--animals, grains, incense, expressions of thanks--into the Sanctuary of GOD.

<sup>27</sup> "But if you won't listen to me, won't keep the Sabbath holy, won't quit using the Sabbath for doing your own work, busily going in and out of the city gates on your self-important business, then I'll burn the gates down. In fact, I'll burn the whole city down, palaces and all, with a fire nobody will be able to put out!"

18 <sup>1</sup> GOD told Jeremiah,
<sup>2</sup> "Up on your feet! Go to the potter's house. When you get there, I'll tell you what I have to say."

<sup>3</sup> So I went to the potter's house, and sure enough, the potter was there, working away at his wheel.

<sup>4</sup> Whenever the pot the potter was working on turned out badly, as sometimes happens when you are working with clay, the potter would simply start over and use the same clay to make another pot.

<sup>5</sup> Then GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>6</sup> "Can't I do just as this potter does, people of Israel?" GOD's Decree! "Watch this potter. In the same way that this potter works his clay, I work on you, people of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> At any moment I may decide to pull up a people or a country by the roots and get rid of them.

<sup>8</sup> But if they repent of their wicked lives, I will think twice and start over with them.

<sup>9</sup> At another time I might decide to plant a people or country, <sup>10</sup> but if they don't cooperate and won't listen to me, I will think again and give up on the plans I had for them.

<sup>11</sup> "So, tell the people of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem my Message: 'Danger! I'm shaping doom against you, laying plans against you. Turn back from your doomed way of life. Straighten out your lives.'

<sup>13</sup> GOD's Message: "Ask around. Survey the godless nations. Has anyone heard the likes of this? Virgin Israel has become a slut!

<sup>16</sup> Their land's going to end up a mess--a fool's memorial to be spit on. Travelers passing through will shake their heads in disbelief.

<sup>17</sup> I'll scatter my people before their enemies, like autumn leaves in a high wind. On their day of doom, they'll stare at my back as I walk away, catching not so much as a glimpse of my face."

<sup>18</sup> Some of the people said, "Come on, let's cook up a plot against Jeremiah. We'll still have the priests to teach us the law, wise counselors to give us advice, and prophets to tell us what God has to say. Come on, let's discredit him so we don't have to put up with him any longer."

<sup>19</sup> And I said to GOD: "GOD, listen to me! Just listen to what my enemies are saying.

<sup>20</sup> Should I get paid evil for good? That's what they're doing. They've made plans to kill me! Remember all the times I stood up for them before you, speaking up for them, trying to soften your anger?

<sup>22</sup> Let cries of panic sound from their homes as you surprise them with war parties! They're all set to lynch me. The noose is practically around my neck!

<sup>23</sup> But you know all this, GOD. You know they're determined to kill me. Don't whitewash their crimes, don't overlook a single sin! Round the bunch of them up before you. Strike while the iron of your anger is hot!"

19 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to me, "Go, buy a clay pot. Then get a few leaders from the people and a few of the leading priests <sup>2</sup> and go out to the Valley of Ben-hinnom, just outside the Potsherd Gate, and preach there what I tell you.

<sup>3</sup> "Say, 'Listen to GOD's Word, you kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem! This is the Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel. I'm about to bring doom crashing down on this place. Oh, and will ears ever ring!

heard of by them, their parents, or the old kings of Judah. Doom--because they have massacred innocent people.

<sup>5</sup> Doom--because they've built altars to that no-god Baal, and burned their own children alive in the fire as offerings to Baal, an atrocity I never ordered, never so much as hinted at!

<sup>6</sup> "'And so it's pay day, and soon'--GOD's Decree!--'this place will no longer be known as Topheth or Valley of Ben-hinnom, but Massacre Meadows.

<sup>7</sup> I'm canceling all the plans Judah and Jerusalem had for this place, and I'll have them killed by their enemies. I'll stack their dead bodies to be eaten by carrion crows and wild dogs.

<sup>10</sup> "Say all this, and then smash the pot in front of the men who have come with you.

<sup>12</sup> And the whole city will become a Topheth.

<sup>13</sup> The city will be turned by people and kings alike into a center for worshipping the star gods and goddesses, turned into an open grave, the whole city an open grave, stinking like a sewer, like Topheth.'" "

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah left Topheth, where GOD had sent him to preach the sermon, and took his stand in the court of GOD's Temple and said to the people,

<sup>15</sup> "This is the Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies to you: 'Warning! Danger! I'm bringing down on this city and all the surrounding towns the doom that I have pronounced. They're set in their ways and won't budge. They refuse to do a thing I say.'" "

20 <sup>1</sup> The priest Pashur son of Immer was the senior priest in GOD's Temple. He heard Jeremiah preach this sermon.

<sup>3</sup> The next day Pashur came and let him go. Jeremiah told him, "GOD has a new name for you: not Pashur but Danger-Everywhere, <sup>4</sup> because GOD says, 'You're a danger to yourself and everyone around you. All your friends are going to get killed in battle while you stand there and watch. What's more, I'm turning all of Judah over to the king of Babylon to do whatever he likes with them--haul them off into exile, kill them at whim.

<sup>5</sup> Everything worth anything in this city, property and possessions along with everything in the royal treasury--I'm handing it all over to the enemy. They'll rummage through it and take what they want back to Babylon.

<sup>6</sup> "'And you, Pashur, you and everyone in your family will be taken prisoner into exile--that's right, exile in Babylon. You'll die and be buried there, you and all your cronies to whom you preached your lies.'"

<sup>7</sup> You pushed me into this, GOD, and I let you do it. You were too much for me. And now I'm a public joke. They all poke fun at me.

<sup>8</sup> Every time I open my mouth I'm shouting, "Murder!" or "Rape!" And all I get for my GOD-warnings are insults and contempt.

<sup>9</sup> But if I say, "Forget it! No more GOD-Messages from me!" The words are fire in my belly, a burning in my bones. I'm worn out trying to hold it in. I can't do it any longer!

<sup>10</sup> Then I hear whispering behind my back: "There goes old 'Danger-Everywhere.' Shut him up! Report him!" Old friends watch, hoping I'll fall flat on my face: "One misstep and we'll have him. We'll get rid of him for good!"

<sup>11</sup> But GOD, a most fierce warrior, is at my side. Those who are after me will be sent sprawling--Slapstick buffoons falling all over themselves, a spectacle of humiliation no one will ever forget.

<sup>12</sup> Oh, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, no one fools you. You see through everyone, everything. I want to see you pay them back for what they've done. I rest my case with you.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to GOD! All praise to GOD! He saves the weak from the grip of the wicked.

<sup>14</sup> Curse the day I was born! The day my mother bore me--a curse on it, I say!

<sup>15</sup> And curse the man who delivered the news to my father: "You've got a new baby--a boy baby!" (How happy it made him.)

<sup>16</sup> Let that birth notice be blacked out, deleted from the records, And the man who brought it haunted to his death with the bad news he brought.

<sup>17</sup> He should have killed me before I was born, with that womb as my tomb,

My mother pregnant for the rest of her life with a baby dead in her womb.

<sup>18</sup> Why, oh why, did I ever leave that womb? Life's been nothing but trouble and tears, and what's coming is more of the same.

21 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashur son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to him with this request:

<sup>2</sup> "Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, has waged war against us. Pray to GOD for us. Ask him for help. Maybe GOD will intervene with one of his famous miracles and make him leave."

<sup>3</sup> But Jeremiah said, "Tell Zedekiah:

<sup>4</sup> 'This is the GOD of Israel's Message to you: You can say good-bye to your army, watch morale and weapons flushed down the drain. I'm going to personally lead the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans, against whom you're fighting so hard, right into the city itself.

<sup>5</sup> I'm joining [their] side and fighting against [you], fighting all-out, holding nothing back. And in fierce anger.

<sup>6</sup> I'm prepared to wipe out the population of this city, people and animals alike, in a raging epidemic.

<sup>7</sup> And then I will personally deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his princes, and any survivors left in the city who haven't died from disease, been killed, or starved. I'll deliver them to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon--yes, hand them over to their enemies, who have come to kill them. He'll kill them ruthlessly, showing no mercy.'

<sup>8</sup> "And then tell the people at large, 'GOD's Message to you is this: Listen carefully. I'm giving you a choice: life or death.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever stays in this city will die--either in battle or by starvation or disease. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who have surrounded the city will live. You'll lose everything--but not your life.

<sup>10</sup> I'm determined to see this city destroyed. I'm that angry with this place! GOD's Decree. I'm going to give it to the king of Babylon, and he's going to burn it to the ground.'

<sup>13</sup> Don't you realize that I'm against you, yes, [against] you. You think you've got it made, all snug and secure. You say, "Who can possibly get to us? Who can crash our party?"

22 <sup>1</sup> GOD's orders: "Go to the royal palace and deliver this Message.

<sup>2</sup> Say, 'Listen to what GOD says, O King of Judah, you who sit on David's throne--you and your officials and all the people who go in and out of these palace gates.

<sup>4</sup> "If you obey these commands, then kings who follow in the line of David will continue to go in and out of these palace gates mounted on horses and riding in chariots--they and their officials and the citizens of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> But if you don't obey these commands, then I swear--GOD's Decree!--this palace will end up a heap of rubble."

<sup>6</sup> This is GOD's verdict on Judah's royal palace: "I number you among my favorite places--like the lovely hills of Gilead, like the soaring peaks of Lebanon. Yet I swear I'll turn you into a wasteland, as empty as a ghost town.

<sup>7</sup> I'll hire a demolition crew, well-equipped with sledgehammers and wrecking bars, Pound the country to a pulp and burn it all up.

<sup>14</sup> Who says, 'I'll build me an elaborate mansion with spacious rooms and fancy windows. I'll bring in rare and expensive woods and the latest in interior decor.'

<sup>15</sup> So, that makes you a king--living in a fancy palace? Your father got along just fine, didn't he? He did what was right and treated people fairly, And things went well with him.

<sup>16</sup> He stuck up for the down-and-out, And things went well for Judah. Isn't this what it means to know me?" GOD's Decree!

<sup>19</sup> They'll give him a donkey's funeral, drag him out of the city and dump him.

<sup>21</sup> I spoke to you when everything was going your way. You said, 'I'm not interested.' You've been that way as long as I've known you, never listened to a thing I said.

<sup>22</sup> All your leaders will be blown away, all your friends end up in exile, And you'll find yourself in the gutter, disgraced by your evil life.

<sup>23</sup> You big-city people thought you were so important, thought you were 'king of the mountain'! You're soon going to be doubled up in pain, pain worse than the pangs of childbirth.

<sup>24</sup> "As sure as I am the living God"-- GOD's Decree--"even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were the signet ring on my right hand, I'd pull you off

<sup>25</sup> and give you to those who are out to kill you, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans, <sup>26</sup> and then throw you, both you and your mother, into a foreign country, far from your place of birth. There you'll both die.

<sup>29</sup> O land, land, land, listen to GOD's Message!

<sup>30</sup> This is GOD's verdict: "Write this man off as if he were childless, a man who will never amount to anything. Nothing will ever come of his life. He's the end of the line, the last of the kings.

23<sup>1</sup> "Doom to the shepherd-leaders who butcher and scatter my sheep!" GOD's Decree.

<sup>2</sup> "So here is what I, GOD, Israel's God, say to the shepherd-leaders who misled my people: 'You've scattered my sheep. You've driven them off. You haven't kept your eye on them. Well, let me tell you, I'm keeping my eye on [you], keeping track of your criminal behavior.

<sup>4</sup> I'll set shepherd-leaders over them who will take good care of them. They won't live in fear or panic anymore. All the lost sheep rounded up!' GOD's Decree."

<sup>5</sup> "Time's coming"--GOD's Decree--
"when I'll establish a truly righteous David-Branch, A ruler who knows how to rule justly. He'll make sure of justice and keep people united.

<sup>6</sup> In his time Judah will be secure again and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name they'll give him:
'GOD-Who-Puts-Everything-Right.'

<sup>7</sup> "So watch for this. The time's coming"--GOD's Decree--"when no one will say, 'As sure as GOD lives, the God who brought the Israelites out of Egypt,'

<sup>8</sup> but, 'As sure as GOD lives, the God who brought the descendants of Israel back from the north country and from the other countries where he'd driven them, so that they can live on their own good earth.'"

<sup>9</sup> My head is reeling, my limbs are limp, I'm staggering like a drunk, seeing double from too much wine--And all because of GOD, because of his holy words.

<sup>10</sup> Now for what GOD says regarding the lying prophets: "Can you believe it? A country teeming with adulterers! faithless, promiscuous idolater-adulterers! They're a curse on the land. The land's a wasteland. Their unfaithfulness is turning the country into a cesspool, <sup>11</sup> Prophets and priests devoted to desecration. They have nothing to do with me as their God. My very own Temple, mind you--mud-spattered with their crimes." GOD's Decree.

<sup>12</sup> "But they won't get by with it. They'll find themselves on a slippery slope, Careening into the darkness, somersaulting into the pitch-black dark. I'll make them pay for their crimes. It will be the Year of Doom." GOD's Decree.

<sup>13</sup> "Over in Samaria I saw prophets acting like silly fools--shocking! They preached using that no-god Baal for a text, messing with the minds of my people.

<sup>15</sup> So here's the Message to the prophets from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "I'll cook them a supper of maggoty meat with after-dinner drinks of strychnine. The Jerusalem prophets are behind all this. They're the cause of the godlessness polluting this country."

and more lies. They make it all up. Not a word they speak comes from me.

<sup>17</sup> They preach their 'Everything Will Turn Out Fine' sermon to congregations with no taste for God, Their 'Nothing Bad Will Ever Happen to You' sermon to people who are set in their own ways.

<sup>18</sup> "Have any of these prophets bothered to meet with me, the true GOD? bothered to take in what [I] have to say? listened to and then [lived out] my Word?

<sup>19</sup> Look out! GOD's hurricane will be let loose--my hurricane blast, Spinning the heads of the wicked like tops!

<sup>20</sup> God's raging anger won't let up Until I've made a clean sweep, completing the job I began. When the job's done, you'll see that it's been well done.

<sup>21</sup> "I never sent these prophets, but they ran anyway. I never spoke to them, but they preached away.

<sup>22</sup> If they'd have bothered to sit down and meet with me, they'd have preached my Message to my people. They'd have gotten them back on the right track, gotten them out of their evil ruts.

<sup>23</sup> "Am I not a God near at hand"--GOD's Decree--"and not a God far off?"

<sup>25</sup> "I know what they're saying, all these prophets who preach lies using me as their text, saying 'I had this dream! I had this dream!'

<sup>26</sup> How long do I have to put up with this? Do these prophets give two cents about me as they preach their lies and spew out their grandiose delusions?

<sup>27</sup> They swap dreams with one another, feed on each other's delusive dreams, trying to distract my people from me just as their ancestors were distracted by the no-god Baal.

<sup>28</sup> "You prophets who do nothing but dream--go ahead and tell your silly dreams. But you prophets who have a message from me--tell it truly and faithfully. What does straw have in common with wheat? Nothing else is like GOD's Decree.

<sup>30</sup> "I've had it with the 'prophets' who get all their sermons secondhand from each other.

<sup>31</sup> Yes, I've had it with them. They make up stuff and then pretend it's a real sermon.

<sup>32</sup> "Oh yes, I've had it with the prophets who preach the lies they dream up, spreading them all over the country, ruining the lives of my people with their cheap and reckless lies. "I never sent these prophets, never authorized a single one of them. They do nothing for this people--[nothing]!" GOD's Decree.

<sup>33</sup> "And anyone, including prophets and priests, who asks, 'What's GOD got to say about all this, what's troubling him?' tell him, 'You, you're the trouble, and I'm getting rid of you.'" GOD's Decree.

<sup>34</sup> "And if anyone, including prophets and priests, goes around saying glibly 'GOD's Message! GOD's Message!' I'll punish him and his family.

<sup>35</sup> "Instead of claiming to know what GOD says, ask questions of one another, such as 'How do we understand GOD in this?'

<sup>36</sup> But don't go around pretending to know it all, saying 'God told me this...God told me that....' I don't want to hear it anymore. Only the person I authorize speaks for me. Otherwise, my Message gets twisted, the Message of the living GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>37</sup> "You can ask the prophets, 'How did GOD answer you? What did he tell you?'

<sup>38</sup> But don't pretend that you know all the answers yourselves and talk like you know it all. I'm telling you: Quit the 'God told me this...God told me that...' kind of talk.

<sup>39</sup> "Are you paying attention? You'd better, because I'm about to take you in hand and throw you to the ground, you and this entire city that I gave to your ancestors. I've had it with the lot of you.

<sup>40</sup> You're never going to live this down. You're going down in history as a disgrace."

24 <sup>1</sup> GOD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the Temple of GOD. This was after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem into exile in Babylon, along with the leaders of Judah, the craftsmen, and the skilled laborers.

<sup>2</sup> In one basket the figs were of the finest quality, ripe and ready to eat. In the other basket the figs were rotten, so rotten they couldn't be eaten.

<sup>3</sup> GOD said to me, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" "Figs," I said. "Excellent figs of the finest quality, and also rotten figs, so rotten they can't be eaten."

<sup>4</sup> Then GOD told me,

<sup>6</sup> I'll keep my eye on them so that their lives are good, and I'll bring them back to this land. I'll build them up, not tear them down; I'll plant them, not uproot them.

<sup>7</sup> "And I'll give them a heart to know me, GOD. They'll be my people and I'll be their God, for they'll have returned to me with all their hearts.

<sup>8</sup> "But like the rotten figs, so rotten they can't be eaten, is Zedekiah king of Judah. Rotten figs--that's how I'll treat him and his leaders, along with the survivors here and those down in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> I'll make them something that the whole world will look on as disgusting--repugnant outcasts, their names used as curse words wherever in the world I drive them.

<sup>10</sup> And I'll make sure they die like flies--from war, starvation, disease, whatever--until the land I once gave to them and their ancestors is completely rid of them."

25 <sup>1</sup> This is the Message given to Jeremiah for all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah. It was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> Jeremiah the prophet delivered the Message to all the people of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem:

<sup>3</sup> From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah right up to the present day--twenty-three years it's been!--GOD's Word has come to me, and from early each morning to late every night I've passed it on to you. And you haven't listened to a word of it!

<sup>4</sup> Not only that, but God also sent a steady stream of prophets to you who were just as persistent as me, and you never listened.

<sup>5</sup> They told you, "Turn back--right now, each one of you!--from your evil way of life and bad behavior, and live in the land GOD gave you and your ancestors, the land he intended to give you forever.

<sup>6</sup> Don't follow the god-fads of the day, taking up and worshiping these no-gods. Don't make me angry with your god-businesses, making and selling gods--a dangerous business!

<sup>7</sup> "You refused to listen to any of this, and now I am really angry. These god-making businesses of yours are your doom."

<sup>8</sup> The verdict of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies on all this: "Because you have refused to listen to what I've said, <sup>9</sup> I'm stepping in. I'm sending for the armies out of the north headed by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, my servant in this, and I'm setting them on this land and people and even the surrounding countries. I'm devoting the whole works to total destruction--a horror to top all the horrors in history.

<sup>11</sup> The whole landscape will be one vast wasteland. These countries will be in subjection to the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup> "Once the seventy years is up, I'll punish the king of Babylon and the whole nation of Babylon for their sin. Then [they'll] be the wasteland.

<sup>13</sup> Everything that I said I'd do to that country, I'll do--everything that's written in this book, everything Jeremiah preached against all the godless nations.

<sup>15</sup> This is a Message that the GOD of Israel gave me: "Take this cup filled with the wine of my wrath that I'm handing to you. Make all the nations where I send you drink it down.

<sup>16</sup> They'll drink it and get drunk, staggering in delirium because of the killing that I'm going to unleash among them."

<sup>17</sup> I took the cup from GOD's hand and made them drink it, all the nations to which he sent me:

<sup>18</sup> Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, along with their kings and leaders, turning them into a vast wasteland, a horror to look at, a cussword--which, in fact, they now are;

<sup>26</sup> All the kings from the north countries near and far, one by one; All the kingdoms on planet Earth... And the king of Sheshak (that is, Babylon) will be the last to drink.

<sup>28</sup> "If any of them refuse to take the cup from you and drink it, say to them,

'GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has ordered you to drink. So drink!

<sup>29</sup> "'Prepare for the worst! I'm starting off the catastrophe in the city that I claim as my own, so don't think you are going to get out of it. No, you're not getting out of anything. It's the sword and nothing but the sword against everyone everywhere!'" The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies' Decree.

is clear-cut: death by the sword.'" GOD's Decree.

<sup>32</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "Prepare for the worst! Doomsday! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation. A huge storm is about to rage all across planet Earth."

<sup>33</sup> Laid end to end, those killed in GOD's judgment that day will stretch from one end of the earth to the other. No tears will be shed and no burials conducted. The bodies will be left where they fall, like so much horse dung fertilizing the fields.

<sup>38</sup> God will come out into the open like a lion leaping from its cover, And the country will be torn to pieces, ripped and ravaged by his anger.

26 <sup>1</sup> At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this Message came from GOD to Jeremiah:

<sup>2</sup> "GOD's Message: Stand in the court of GOD's Temple and preach to the people who come from all over Judah to worship in GOD's Temple. Say everything I tell you to say to them. Don't hold anything back.

the disaster that I'm planning to bring on them because of their evil behavior.

<sup>4</sup> "Say to them, 'This is GOD's Message: If you refuse to listen to me and live by my teaching that I've revealed so plainly to you, <sup>5</sup> and if you continue to refuse to listen to my servants the prophets that I tirelessly keep on sending to you--but you've never listened! Why would you start now?

<sup>6</sup> --then I'll make this Temple a pile of ruins like Shiloh, and I'll make this city nothing but a bad joke worldwide."

<sup>7</sup> Everybody there--priests, prophets, and people--heard Jeremiah preaching this Message in the Temple of GOD.

<sup>8</sup> When Jeremiah had finished his sermon, saying everything God had commanded him to say, the priests and prophets and people all grabbed him, yelling, "Death! You're going to die for this!

<sup>9</sup> How dare you preach--and using GOD's name!--saying that this Temple will become a heap of rubble like Shiloh and this city be wiped out without a soul left in it!" All the people mobbed Jeremiah right in the Temple itself.

<sup>10</sup> Officials from the royal court of Judah were told of this. They left the palace immediately and came to GOD's Temple to investigate. They held court on the spot, at the New Gate entrance to GOD's Temple.

<sup>11</sup> The prophets and priests spoke first, addressing the officials, but also the people: "Death to this man! He deserves nothing less than death! He has preached against this city--you've heard the evidence with your own ears."

crowd: "GOD sent me to preach against both this Temple and city everything that's been reported to you.

<sup>13</sup> So do something about it! Change the way you're living, change your behavior. Listen obediently to the Message of your GOD. Maybe GOD will reconsider the disaster he has threatened.

<sup>15</sup> But take warning: If you kill me, you're killing an innocent man, and you and the city and the people in it will be liable. I didn't say any of this on my own. GOD sent me and told me what to say. You've been listening to [GOD] speak, not Jeremiah."

<sup>16</sup> The court officials, backed by the people, then handed down their ruling to the priests and prophets: "Acquittal. No death sentence for this man. He has spoken to us with the authority of our GOD."

<sup>17</sup> Then some of the respected leaders stood up and addressed the crowd:

<sup>18</sup> "In the reign of Hezekiah king of Judah, Micah of Moresheth preached to the people of Judah this sermon: This is GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies' Message for you: "Because of people like you, Zion will be turned back into farmland, Jerusalem end up as a pile of rubble, and instead of the Temple on the mountain, a few scraggly scrub pines.'

<sup>19</sup> "Did King Hezekiah or anyone else in Judah kill Micah of Moresheth because of that sermon? Didn't Hezekiah honor him and pray for mercy from GOD? And then didn't GOD call off the disaster he had threatened? "Friends, we're at the brink of bringing a terrible calamity upon ourselves."

<sup>20</sup> (At another time there had been a man, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim, who had preached similarly in the name of GOD. He preached against this same city and country just as Jeremiah did.

27 <sup>1</sup> Early in the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, Jeremiah received this Message from GOD:

<sup>4</sup> Give them this charge to take back to their masters: 'This is a Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel. Tell your masters:

<sup>5</sup> "'I'm the one who made the earth, man and woman, and all the animals in the world. I did it on my own without asking anyone's help and I hand it out to whomever I will.

<sup>6</sup> Here and now I give all these lands over to my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I have made even the wild animals subject to him.

<sup>7</sup> All nations will be under him, then his son, and then his grandson. Then his country's time will be up and the tables will be turned: [Babylon] will be the underdog servant.

<sup>8</sup> But until then, any nation or kingdom that won't submit to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon must take the yoke of the king of Babylon and harness up. I'll punish that nation with war and starvation and disease until I've got them where I want them.

<sup>9</sup> "So don't for a minute listen to all your prophets and spiritualists and fortunetellers, who claim to know the future and who tell you not to give in to the king of Babylon.

<sup>10</sup> They're handing you a line of lies, barefaced lies, that will end up putting you in exile far from home. I myself will drive you out of your lands, and that'll be the end of you.

<sup>12</sup> Then I gave this same message to Zedekiah king of Judah: "Harness yourself up to the yoke of the king of Babylon. Serve him and his people. Live a long life!

<sup>13</sup> Why choose to get killed or starve to death or get sick and die, which is what GOD has threatened to any nation that won't throw its lot in with Babylon?

<sup>14</sup> Don't listen to the prophets who are telling you not to submit to the king of Babylon. They're telling you lies, preaching lies.

<sup>15</sup> GOD's Word on this is, 'I didn't send those prophets, but they keep preaching lies, claiming I sent them. If you listen to them, I'll end up driving you out of here and that will be the end of you, both you and the lying prophets."

<sup>16</sup> And finally I spoke to the priests and the people at large: "This is GOD's Message: Don't listen to the preaching of the prophets who keep telling you, 'Trust us: The furnishings, plundered from GOD's Temple, are going to be returned from Babylon any day now.' That's a lie.

<sup>17</sup> Don't listen to them. Submit to the king of Babylon and live a long life. Why do something that will destroy this city and leave it a heap of rubble?

<sup>18</sup> If they are real prophets and have a Message from GOD, let them come to GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies in prayer so that the furnishings that are still left in GOD's Temple, the king's palace, and Jerusalem aren't also lost to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> That's because GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has already spoken about the Temple furnishings that remain--the pillars, the great bronze basin, the stands, and all the other bowls and chalices

<sup>20</sup> that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take when he took Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim off to Babylonian exile along with all the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> He said that the furnishings left behind in the Temple of GOD and in the royal palace and in Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup> will be taken off to Babylon and stay there until, in GOD's words, 'I take the matter up again and bring them back where they belong.'"

28 <sup>1</sup> Later that same year (it was in the fifth month of King Zedekiah's fourth year) Hananiah son of Azzur, a prophet from Gibeon, confronted Jeremiah in the Temple of GOD in front of the priests and all the people who were there.

<sup>2</sup> Hananiah said: "This Message is straight from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: 'I will most certainly break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> I'll also bring back Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the exiles who were taken off to Babylon.' GOD's Decree. 'Yes, I will break the king of Babylon's yoke. You'll no longer be in harness to him.'"

<sup>5</sup> Prophet Jeremiah stood up to Prophet Hananiah in front of the priests and all the people who were in GOD's Temple that day.

<sup>6</sup> Prophet Jeremiah said, "Wonderful! Would that it were true--that GOD would validate your preaching by bringing the Temple furnishings and all the exiles back from Babylon.

<sup>7</sup> But listen to me, listen closely. Listen to what I tell both you and all the people here today:

<sup>8</sup> The old prophets, the ones before our time, preached judgment against many countries and kingdoms, warning of war and disaster and plague.

<sup>9</sup> So any prophet who preaches that everything is just fine and there's nothing to worry about stands out like a sore thumb. We'll wait and see. If it happens, it happens--and then we'll know that GOD sent him."

<sup>11</sup> And then he addressed the people: "This is GOD's Message: In just this way I will smash the yoke of the king of Babylon and get him off the neck of all the nations--and within two years."

Jeremiah walked out.

<sup>12</sup> Later, sometime after Hananiah had smashed the yoke from off his shoulders, Jeremiah received this Message from GOD:

<sup>13</sup> "Go back to Hananiah and tell him, 'This is GOD's Message: You smashed the wooden yoke-bars; now you've got iron yoke-bars.

<sup>14</sup> This is a Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's own God: I've put an iron yoke on all these nations. They're harnessed to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. They'll do just what he tells them. Why, I'm even putting him in charge of the wild animals.'"

<sup>16</sup> And so GOD says, 'You claim to be sent? I'll send you all right--right off the face of the earth! Before the year is out, you'll be dead because you fomented sedition against GOD.'

<sup>17</sup> Prophet Hananiah died that very year, in the seventh month.

29 <sup>1</sup> This is the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to what was left of the elders among the exiles, to the priests and prophets and all the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken to Babylon from Jerusalem,

<sup>3</sup> The letter was carried by Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah had sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. The letter said:

<sup>5</sup> "Build houses and make yourselves at home. "Put in gardens and eat what grows in that country.

<sup>6</sup> "Marry and have children. Encourage your children to marry and have children so that you'll thrive in that country and not waste away.

<sup>7</sup> "Make yourselves at home there and work for the country's welfare. "Pray for Babylon's well-being. If things go well for Babylon, things will go well for you."

<sup>8</sup> Yes. Believe it or not, this is the Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's God: "Don't let all those so-called preachers and know-it-alls who are all over the place there take you in with their lies. Don't pay any attention to the fantasies they keep coming up with to please you.

<sup>9</sup> They're a bunch of liars preaching lies--and claiming I sent them! I never sent them, believe me." GOD's Decree!

<sup>10</sup> This is GOD's Word on the subject: "As soon as Babylon's seventy years are up and not a day before, I'll show up and take care of you as I promised and bring you back home.

<sup>11</sup> I know what I'm doing. I have it all planned out--plans to take care of you, not abandon you, plans to give you the future you hope for.

<sup>12</sup> "When you call on me, when you come and pray to me, I'll listen.

<sup>13</sup> "When you come looking for me, you'll find me. "Yes, when you get serious about finding me and want it more than anything else, things around for you. I'll bring you back from all the countries into which I drove you"--GOD's Decree--"bring you home to the place from which I sent you off into exile. You can count on it.

<sup>18</sup> I'll rid the country of them through war and hunger and disease. The whole world is going to hold its nose at the smell, shut its eyes at the horrible sight.

They'll end up in slum ghettos

<sup>19</sup> because they wouldn't listen to a thing I said when I sent my servant-prophets preaching tirelessly and urgently. No, they wouldn't listen to a word I said.'" GOD's Decree.

<sup>20</sup> "And you--you exiles whom I sent out of Jerusalem to Babylon--listen to GOD's Message to you.

<sup>21</sup> As far as Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah are concerned, the 'Babylonian specialists' who are preaching lies in my name, I will turn them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will kill them while you watch.

<sup>22</sup> The exiles from Judah will take what they see at the execution and use it as a curse: 'GOD fry you to a crisp like the king of Babylon fried Zedekiah and Ahab in the fire!'

<sup>23</sup> Those two men, sex predators and prophet-impostors, got what they deserved. They pulled every woman they got their hands on into bed--their neighbors' wives, no less--and preached lies claiming it was my Message. I never sent those men. I've never had anything to do with them." GOD's Decree.

"They won't get away with a thing. I've witnessed it all."

<sup>25</sup> "GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says: You took it on yourself to send letters to all the people in Jerusalem and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah and the company of priests. In your letter you told Zephaniah that

<sup>26</sup> GOD set you up as priest replacing priest Jehoiadah. He's put you in charge of GOD's Temple and made you responsible for locking up any crazy fellow off the street who takes it into his head to be a prophet.

<sup>27</sup> "So why haven't you done anything about muzzling Jeremiah of Anathoth, who's going around posing as a prophet?

<sup>28</sup> He's gone so far as to write to us in Babylon, 'It's going to be a long exile, so build houses and make yourselves at home. Plant gardens and prepare Babylonian recipes.'"

<sup>30</sup> Then GOD told Jeremiah,

<sup>31</sup> "Send this Message to the exiles. Tell them what GOD says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Shemaiah is preaching lies to you. I didn't send him. He is seducing you into believing lies.

<sup>32</sup> So this is GOD's verdict: I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his whole family. He's going to end up with nothing and no one. No one from his family will be around to see any of the good that I am going to do for my people because he has preached rebellion against me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>2</sup> "GOD's Message, the God of Israel: 'Write everything I tell you in a book.

<sup>3</sup> "'Look. The time is coming when I will turn everything around for my people, both Israel and Judah. I, GOD, say so. I'll bring them back to the land I gave their ancestors, and they'll take up ownership again.'"

<sup>4</sup> This is the way GOD put it to Israel and Judah:

<sup>5</sup> "GOD's Message: "'Cries of panic are being heard. The peace has been shattered.

<sup>6</sup> Ask around! Look around! Can men bear babies? So why do I see all these he-men holding their bellies like women in labor, Faces contorted, pale as death?

<sup>7</sup> The blackest of days, no day like it ever! A time of deep trouble for Jacob--but he'll come out of it alive.

<sup>10</sup> "So fear no more, Jacob, dear servant. Don't despair, Israel. Look up! I'll save you out of faraway places, I'll bring your children back from exile. Jacob will come back and find life good, safe and secure.

<sup>14</sup> All your fair-weather friends have skipped town without giving you a second thought. But I delivered the knockout blow, a punishment you will never forget, Because of the enormity of your guilt, the endless list of your sins.

<sup>15</sup> So why all this self-pity, licking your wounds? You deserve all this, and more. Because of the enormity of your guilt, the endless list of your sins, I've done all this to you.

<sup>16</sup> "'Everyone who hurt you will be hurt; your enemies will end up as slaves. Your plunderers will be plundered; your looters will become loot.

<sup>17</sup> As for you, I'll come with healing, curing the incurable, Because they all gave up on you and dismissed you as hopeless--that good-for-nothing Zion.'

<sup>18</sup> "Again, GOD's Message: "'I'll turn things around for Jacob. I'll compassionately come in and rebuild homes. The town will be rebuilt on its old foundations; the mansions will be splendid again.

<sup>19</sup> Thanksgivings will pour out of the windows; laughter will spill through the doors. Things will get better and better. Depression days are over. They'll thrive, they'll flourish. The days of contempt will be over.

<sup>21</sup> and their prince will come from their own ranks. One of their own people shall be their leader. Their ruler will come from their own ranks. I'll grant him free and easy access to me. Would anyone dare to do that on his own, to enter my presence uninvited?' GOD's Decree.

<sup>24</sup> God's raging anger won't let up Until he's made a clean sweep completing the job he began. When the job's done you'll see it's been well done.

31 <sup>1</sup> "And when that happens"-- GOD's Decree--"it will be plain as the sun at high noon: I'll be the God of every man, woman, and child in Israel and they shall be my very own people."

<sup>2</sup> This is the way GOD put it: "They found grace out in the desert, these people who survived the killing. Israel, out looking for a place to rest, <sup>3</sup> met God out looking for them!" GOD told them, "I've never quit loving you and never will. Expect love, love, and more love!

<sup>4</sup> And so now I'll start over with you and build you up again, dear virgin Israel. You'll resume your singing, grabbing tambourines and joining the dance.

<sup>6</sup> The time's coming when watchmen will call out from the hilltops of Ephraim: 'On your feet! Let's go to Zion, go to meet our GOD!'"

<sup>7</sup> Oh yes, GOD says so: "Shout for joy at the top of your lungs for Jacob! Announce the good news to the number-one nation! Raise cheers! Sing praises. Say, 'GOD has saved his people, saved the core of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> "Watch what comes next: "I'll bring my people back from the north country And gather them up from the ends of the earth, gather those who've gone blind And those who are lame and limping, gather pregnant women, Even the mothers whose birth pangs have started, bring them all back, a huge crowd!

<sup>9</sup> "Watch them come! They'll come weeping for joy as I take their hands and lead them, Lead them to fresh flowing brooks, lead them along smooth, uncluttered paths. Yes, it's because I'm Israel's Father and Ephraim's my firstborn son!

<sup>10</sup> "Hear this, nations! GOD's Message! Broadcast this all over the world! Tell them, 'The One who scattered Israel will gather them together again. From now on he'll keep a careful eye on them, like a shepherd with his flock.'

GOD's Decree.

<sup>18</sup> "I've heard the contrition of Ephraim. Yes, I've heard it clearly, saying, 'You trained me well. You broke me, a wild yearling horse, to the saddle. Now put me, trained and obedient, to use. You are my GOD.

<sup>19</sup> After those years of running loose, I repented. After you trained me to obedience, I was ashamed of my past, my wild, unruly past. Humiliated, I beat on my chest. Will I ever live this down?'

<sup>20</sup> "Oh! Ephraim is my dear, dear son, my child in whom I take pleasure! Every time I mention his name, my heart bursts with longing for him! Everything in me cries out for him. Softly and tenderly I wait for him." GOD's Decree.

<sup>22</sup> How long will you flit here and there, indecisive? How long before you make up your fickle mind? GOD will create a new thing in this land: A transformed woman will embrace the transforming GOD!"

<sup>23</sup> A Message from Israel's GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "When I've turned everything around and brought my people back, the old expressions will be heard on the streets: 'GOD bless you!' ...'O True Home!' ...'O Holy Mountain!'

<sup>27</sup> "Be ready. The time's coming"--GOD's Decree--"when I will plant people and animals in Israel and Judah, just as a farmer plants seed.

<sup>28</sup> And in the same way that earlier I relentlessly pulled up and tore down, took apart and demolished, so now I am sticking with them as they start over, building and planting.

<sup>29</sup> "When that time comes you won't hear the old proverb anymore, Parents ate the green apples, their children got the stomachache.

<sup>30</sup> "No, each person will pay for his own sin. You eat green apples, you're the one who gets sick.

<sup>31</sup> "That's right. The time is coming when I will make a brand-new covenant with Israel and Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It won't be a repeat of the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant even though I did my part as their Master." GOD's Decree.

<sup>33</sup> "This is the brand-new covenant that I will make with Israel when the time comes. I will put my law within them--write it on their hearts!--and be their God. And they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup> They will no longer go around setting up schools to teach each other about GOD. They'll know me firsthand, the dull and the bright, the smart and the slow. I'll wipe the slate clean for each of them. I'll forget they ever sinned!"

GOD's Decree.

<sup>35</sup> GOD's Message, from the God who lights up the day with sun and brightens the night with moon and stars, Who whips the ocean into a billowy froth, whose name is GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies:

<sup>36</sup> "If this ordered cosmos ever fell to pieces, fell into chaos before me"--GOD's Decree--"Then and only then might Israel fall apart and disappear as a nation before me."

<sup>37</sup> GOD's Message: "If the skies could be measured with a yardstick and the earth explored to its core, Then and only then would I turn my back on Israel, disgusted with all they've done." GOD's Decree.

<sup>38</sup> "The time is coming"--it's GOD's Decree--"when GOD's city will be rebuilt, rebuilt all the way from the Citadel of Hanamel to the Corner Gate.

<sup>39</sup> The master plan will extend west to Gareb Hill and then around to Goath.

<sup>40</sup> The whole valley to the south where incinerated corpses are dumped--a death valley if there ever was one!--and all the terraced fields out to the Brook Kidron on the east as far north as the Horse Gate will be consecrated to me as a holy place. "This city will never again be torn down or destroyed."

<sup>2</sup> At that time the army of the king of Babylon was holding Jerusalem under siege. Jeremiah was shut up in jail in the royal palace.

preach, saying, 'GOD says, I'm warning you: I will hand this city over to the king of Babylon and he will take it over.

<sup>4</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah will be handed over to the Chaldeans right along with the city. He will be handed over to the king of Babylon and forced to face the music.

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah said, "GOD's Message came to me like this:

<sup>8</sup> "And sure enough, just as GOD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me while I was in jail and said, 'Buy my field in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin, for you have the legal right to keep it in the family. Buy it. Take it over.' "That did it. I knew it was GOD's Message.

<sup>9</sup> "So I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I paid him seventeen silver shekels.

<sup>10</sup> I followed all the proper procedures: In the presence of witnesses I wrote out the bill of sale, sealed it, and weighed out the money on the scales.

<sup>11</sup> Then I took the deed of purchase--the sealed copy that contained the contract and its conditions and also the open copy--

<sup>12</sup> and gave them to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah. All this took place in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and the witnesses who had signed the deed, as the Jews who were at the jail that day looked on.

<sup>14</sup> 'These are orders from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: Take these documents--both the sealed and the open deeds--and put them for safekeeping in a pottery jar.

<sup>15</sup> For GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Life is going to return to normal. Homes and fields and vineyards are again going to be bought in this country."

<sup>16</sup> "And then, having handed over the legal documents to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to GOD, <sup>17</sup> 'Dear GOD, my Master, you created earth and sky by your great power--by merely stretching out your arm! There is nothing you can't do.

<sup>18</sup> You're loyal in your steadfast love to thousands upon thousands--but you also make children live with the fallout from their parents' sins. Great and powerful God, named GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, <sup>19</sup> determined in purpose and relentless in following through, you see everything that men and women do and respond appropriately to the way they live, to the things they do.

<sup>20</sup> "You performed signs and wonders in the country of Egypt and continue to do so right into the present, right here in Israel and everywhere else, too. You've made a reputation for yourself that doesn't diminish.

<sup>22</sup> You gave them this land and solemnly promised to their ancestors a bountiful and fertile land.

<sup>23</sup> But when they entered the land and took it over, they didn't listen to you.

They didn't do what you commanded. They wouldn't listen to a thing you told them. And so you brought this disaster on them.

<sup>24</sup> "Oh, look at the siege ramps already set in place to take the city. Killing and starvation and disease are on our doorstep. The Babylonians are attacking! The Word you spoke is coming to pass--it's daily news!

<sup>25</sup> And yet you, GOD, the Master, even though it is certain that the city will be turned over to the Babylonians, also told me, Buy the field. Pay for it in cash. And make sure there are witnesses."

<sup>26</sup> Then GOD's Message came again to Jeremiah:

<sup>27</sup> "Stay alert! I am GOD, the God of everything living. Is there anything I can't do?

<sup>28</sup> So listen to GOD's Message: No doubt about it, I'm handing this city over to the Babylonians and Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He'll take it.

<sup>29</sup> The attacking Chaldeans will break through and burn the city down: All those houses whose roofs were used as altars for offerings to Baal and the worship of who knows how many other gods provoked me.

<sup>30</sup> It isn't as if this were the first time they had provoked me. The people of Israel and Judah have been doing this for a long time--doing what I hate, making me angry by the way they live." GOD'S Decree.

<sup>31</sup> "This city has made me angry from the day they built it, and now I've had my fill. I'm destroying it. I can't stand to look any longer leaders and priests and preachers, in the country and in the city.

<sup>32</sup> at the wicked lives of the people of Israel and Judah, deliberately making me angry, the whole lot of them--kings and

<sup>33</sup> They've turned their backs on me--won't even look me in the face!--even though I took great pains to teach them how to live. They refused to listen, refused to be taught.

<sup>34</sup> Why, they even set up obscene god and goddess statues in the Temple built in my honor--an outrageous desecration!

<sup>35</sup> And then they went out and built shrines to the god Baal in the valley of Hinnom, where they burned their children in sacrifice to the god Molech--I can hardly conceive of such evil!--turning the whole country into one huge act of sin.

<sup>36</sup> "But there is also this Message from me, the GOD of Israel, to this city of which you have said, 'In killing and starvation and disease this city will be delivered up to the king of Babylon':

<sup>37</sup> "Watch for this! I will collect them from all the countries to which I will have driven them in my anger and rage and indignation. Yes, I'll bring them all back to this place and let them live here in peace.

<sup>38</sup> They will be my people, I will be their God.

<sup>39</sup> I'll make them of one mind and heart, always honoring me, so that they can live good and whole lives, they and their children after them.

<sup>40</sup> What's more, I'll make a covenant with them that will last forever, a covenant to stick with them no matter what, and work for their good. I'll fill their hearts with a deep respect for me so they'll not even [think] of turning away from me.

Heart and soul, I'll plant them in this country and keep them here!

<sup>42</sup> "Yes, this is GOD's Message: 'I will certainly bring this huge catastrophe on this people, but I will also usher in a wonderful life of prosperity. I promise.

<sup>43</sup> Fields are going to be bought here again, yes, in this very country that you assume is going to end up desolate--gone to the dogs, unlivable, wrecked by the Babylonians.

<sup>44</sup> Yes, people will buy farms again, and legally, with deeds of purchase, sealed documents, proper witnesses--and right here in the territory of Benjamin, and in the area around Jerusalem, around the villages of Judah and the hill country, the Shephelah and the Negev. I will restore everything that was lost.' GOD's Decree."

33 <sup>1</sup> While Jeremiah was still locked up in jail, a second Message from GOD was given to him:

<sup>2</sup> "This is GOD's Message, the God who made earth, made it livable and lasting, known everywhere as [GOD]:

<sup>3</sup> 'Call to me and I will answer you. I'll tell you marvelous and wondrous things that you could never figure out on your own.'

<sup>4</sup> "This is what GOD, the God of Israel, has to say about what's going on in this city, about the homes of both people and kings that have been demolished, about all the ravages of war

<sup>5</sup> and the killing by the Chaldeans, and about the streets littered with the dead bodies of those killed because of my raging anger--about all that's happened because the evil actions in this city have turned my stomach in disgust.

<sup>7</sup> I'll restore everything that was lost to Judah and Jerusalem. I'll build everything back as good as new.

<sup>8</sup> I'll scrub them clean from the dirt they've done against me. I'll forgive everything they've done wrong, forgive all their rebellions.

<sup>9</sup> And Jerusalem will be a center of joy and praise and glory for all the countries on earth. They'll get reports on all the good I'm doing for her. They'll be in awe of the blessings I am pouring on her.

<sup>10</sup> "Yes, GOD's Message: 'You're going to look at this place, these empty and desolate towns of Judah and streets of Jerusalem, and say, "A wasteland.

Unlivable. Not even a dog could live here."

<sup>11</sup> But the time is coming when you're going to hear laughter and celebration, marriage festivities, people exclaiming, "Thank GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. He's so good! His love never quits," as they bring thank offerings into GOD's Temple. I'll restore everything that was lost in this land. I'll make everything as good as new.' I, GOD, say so.

<sup>12</sup> "GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says: 'This coming desolation, unfit for even a stray dog, is once again going to become a pasture for shepherds who care for their flocks.

<sup>13</sup> You'll see flocks everywhere--in the mountains around the towns of the Shephelah and Negev, all over the territory of Benjamin, around Jerusalem and the towns of Judah--flocks under the care of shepherds who keep track of each sheep.' GOD says so.

<sup>14</sup> "'Watch for this: The time is coming'- -GOD's Decree--'when I will keep the promise I made to the families of Israel and Judah.

<sup>15</sup> When that time comes, I will make a fresh and true shoot sprout from the David-Tree. He will run this country honestly and fairly. He will set things right.

<sup>16</sup> That's when Judah will be secure and Jerusalem live in safety. The motto for the city will be, "GOD Has Set Things Right for Us."

<sup>17</sup> GOD has made it clear that there will always be a descendant of David ruling the people of Israel

<sup>18</sup> and that there will always be Levitical priests on hand to offer burnt offerings, present grain offerings, and carry on the sacrificial worship in my honor.'"

<sup>19</sup> GOD's Message to Jeremiah:

<sup>20</sup> "GOD says, 'If my covenant with day and my covenant with night ever fell apart so that day and night became haphazard and you never knew which was coming and when,

<sup>21</sup> then and only then would my covenant with my servant David fall apart and his descendants no longer rule. The same goes for the Levitical priests who serve me.

<sup>22</sup> Just as you can't number the stars in the sky nor measure the sand on the seashore, neither will you be able to account for the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who serve me.'"

<sup>24</sup> "Have you heard the saying that's making the rounds: 'The two families GOD chose, Israel and Judah, he disowned'? And have you noticed that my people are treated with contempt, with rumors afoot that there's nothing to them anymore?

<sup>25</sup> "Well, here's GOD's response: 'If my covenant with day and night wasn't in working order, if sky and earth weren't functioning the way I set them going,

<sup>26</sup> then, but only then, you might think I had disowned the descendants of Jacob and of my servant David, and that I wouldn't set up any of David's descendants over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But as it is, I will give them back everything they've lost. The last word is, I will have mercy on them.'"

34 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to Jeremiah at the time King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon mounted an all-out attack on Jerusalem and all the towns around it with his armies and allies and everyone he could muster:

<sup>2</sup> "I, GOD, the God of Israel, direct you to go and tell Zedekiah king of Judah: 'This is GOD's Message. Listen to me. I am going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he is going to burn it to the ground.

<sup>3</sup> And don't think you'll get away. You'll be captured and be his prisoner. You will have a personal confrontation with the king of Babylon and be taken off with him, captive, to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> "But listen, O Zedekiah king of Judah, to the rest of the Message of GOD. You won't be killed.

<sup>5</sup> You'll die a peaceful death. They will honor you with funeral rites as they honored your ancestors, the kings who preceded you. They will properly mourn your death, weeping, "Master, master!" This is a solemn promise. GOD's Decree."

<sup>7</sup> It was at the very time that the king of Babylon was mounting his all-out attack on Jerusalem and whatever cities in Judah that were still standing--only Lachish and Azekah, as it turned out (they were the only fortified cities left in Judah).

<sup>10</sup> All the leaders and people who had signed the covenant set free the slaves, men and women alike.

<sup>11</sup> But a little while later, they reneged on the covenant, broke their promise and forced their former slaves to become slaves again.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah received this Message from GOD:

<sup>13</sup> "GOD, the God of Israel, says, 'I made a covenant with your ancestors when I delivered them out of their slavery in Egypt. At the time I made it clear:

<sup>14</sup> "At the end of seven years, each of you must free any fellow Hebrew who has had to sell himself to you. After he has served six years, set him free." But your ancestors totally ignored me.

<sup>15</sup> "'And now, [you]--what have you done? First you turned back to the right way and did the right thing, decreeing freedom for your brothers and sisters--and you made it official in a solemn covenant in my Temple.

<sup>16</sup> And then you turned right around and broke your word, making a mockery of both me and the covenant, and made them all slaves again, these men and women you'd just set free. You forced them back into slavery.

<sup>17</sup> "So here is what I, GOD, have to say: You have not obeyed me and set your brothers and sisters free. Here is what I'm going to do: I'm going to set [you] free--GOD's Decree--free to get killed in war or by disease or by starvation. I'll make you a spectacle of horror. People all over the world will take one look at you and shudder.

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who violated my covenant, who didn't do what was solemnly promised in the covenant ceremony when they split the young bull into two halves and walked between them,

<sup>19</sup> all those people that day who walked between the two halves of the bull--leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, palace officials, priests, and all the rest of the people--

<sup>20</sup> I'm handing the lot of them over to their enemies who are out to kill them. Their dead bodies will be carrion food for vultures and stray dogs.

<sup>21</sup> "As for Zedekiah king of Judah and his palace staff, I'll also hand them over to their enemies, who are out to kill them. The army of the king of Babylon has pulled back for a time, <sup>22</sup> but not for long, for I'm going to issue orders that will bring them back to this city. They'll attack and take it and burn it to the ground. The surrounding cities of Judah will fare no better. I'll turn them into ghost towns, unlivable and unlived in." GOD's Decree.

35 <sup>1</sup> The Message that Jeremiah received from GOD ten years earlier, during the time of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> "Go visit the Recabite community. Invite them to meet with you in one of the rooms in GOD's Temple. And serve them wine."

<sup>3</sup> So I went and got Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, along with all his brothers and sons--the whole community of the Recabites as it turned out--

<sup>4</sup> and brought them to GOD's Temple and to the meeting room of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God. It was next to the meeting room of the Temple officials and just over the apartment of Maaseiah son of Shallum, who was in charge of Temple affairs.

<sup>5</sup> Then I set out chalices and pitchers of wine for the Recabites and said, "A toast! Drink up!"

<sup>6</sup> But they wouldn't do it. "We don't drink wine," they said. "Our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab commanded us, 'You are not to drink wine, you or your children, ever.

<sup>7</sup> Neither shall you build houses or settle down, planting fields and gardens and vineyards. Don't own property. Live in tents as nomads so that you will live well and prosper in a wandering life.'

<sup>8</sup> "And we've done it, done everything Jonadab son of Recab commanded. We and our wives, our sons and daughters, drink no wine at all.

<sup>9</sup> We don't build houses. We don't have vineyards or fields or gardens.

<sup>10</sup> We live in tents as nomads. We've listened to our ancestor Jonadab and we've done everything he commanded us.

<sup>11</sup> "But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded our land, we said, 'Let's go to Jerusalem and get out of the path of the Chaldean and Aramean armies, find ourselves a safe place.' That's why we're living in Jerusalem right now."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah received this Message from GOD:

<sup>13</sup> "GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, wants you to go tell the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem that I say, 'Why won't you learn your lesson and do what I tell you?' GOD's Decree.

<sup>14</sup> 'The commands of Jonadab son of Recab to his sons have been carried out to the letter. He told them not to drink wine, and they haven't touched a drop to this very day. They honored and obeyed their ancestor's command. But look at you! I have gone to a lot of trouble to get your attention, and you've ignored me.

<sup>15</sup> I sent prophet after prophet to you, all of them my servants, to tell you from early morning to late at night to change your life, make a clean break with your evil past and do what is right, to not take up with every Tom, Dick, and Harry of a god that comes down the pike, but settle down and be faithful in this country I gave your ancestors. "And what do I get from you? Deaf ears.

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of Jonadab son of Recab carried out to the letter what their ancestor commanded them, but this people ignores me.'

<sup>17</sup> "So here's what is going to happen. GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says, 'I will bring calamity down on the heads of the people of Judah and Jerusalem--the very calamity I warned you was coming--because you turned a deaf ear when I spoke, turned your backs when I called.'"

<sup>18</sup> Then, turning to the Recabite community, Jeremiah said, "And this is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says to you: Because you have done what Jonadab your ancestor told you, obeyed his commands and followed through on his instructions, <sup>19</sup> receive this Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab at my service! Always!"

36 <sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, Jeremiah received this Message from GOD:

<sup>2</sup> "Get a scroll and write down everything I've told you regarding Israel and Judah and all the other nations from the time I first started speaking to you in Josiah's reign right up to the present day.

<sup>3</sup> "Maybe the community of Judah will finally get it, finally understand the catastrophe that I'm planning for them, turn back from their bad lives, and let me forgive their perversity and sin."

<sup>4</sup> So Jeremiah called in Baruch son of Neriah. Jeremiah dictated and Baruch wrote down on a scroll everything that GOD had said to him.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I'm blacklisted. I can't go into GOD's Temple, <sup>6</sup> so you'll have to go in my place. Go into the Temple and read everything you've written at my dictation. Wait for a day of fasting when everyone is there to hear you. And make sure that all the people who come from the Judean villages hear you.

<sup>7</sup> "Maybe, just maybe, they'll start praying and GOD will hear their prayers. Maybe they'll turn back from their bad lives. This is no light matter. GOD has certainly let them know how angry he is!"

<sup>8</sup> Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. In the Temple of GOD he read the Message of GOD from the scroll.

<sup>9</sup> It came about in December of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah that all the people of Jerusalem, along with all the people from the Judean villages, were there in Jerusalem to observe a fast to GOD.

<sup>10</sup> Baruch took the scroll to the Temple and read out publicly the words of Jeremiah. He read from the meeting room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary of state, which was in the upper court right next to the New Gate of GOD's Temple. Everyone could hear him.

<sup>11</sup> The moment Micaiah the son of Gemariah heard what was being read from the scroll--GOD's Message!--

<sup>12</sup> he went straight to the palace and to the chambers of the secretary of state where all the government officials were holding a meeting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other government officials.

<sup>13</sup> Micaiah reported everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll as the officials listened.

<sup>14</sup> Immediately they dispatched Jehudi son of Nethaniah, son of Semaiah, son of Cush, to Baruch, ordering him, "Take the scroll that you have read to the people and bring it here." So Baruch went and retrieved the scroll.

<sup>15</sup> The officials told him, "Sit down. Read it to us, please." Baruch read it.

<sup>17</sup> They asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Was it at Jeremiah's dictation?"

<sup>20</sup> The officials went to the court of the palace to report to the king, having put the scroll for safekeeping in the office of Elishama the secretary of state.

<sup>21</sup> The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. He brought it from the office of Elishama the secretary. Jehudi then read it to the king and the officials who were in the king's service.

<sup>26</sup> He just plowed ahead and ordered Prince Jerahmeel, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Jeremiah the prophet and his secretary Baruch. But GOD had hidden them away.

<sup>28</sup> "Get another blank scroll and do it all over again. Write out everything that was in that first scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up.

<sup>29</sup> "And send this personal message to Jehoiakim king of Judah: 'GOD says, You had the gall to burn this scroll and then the nerve to say, "What kind of nonsense is this written here--that the king of Babylon will come and destroy this land and kill everything in it?"

<sup>30</sup> "Well, do you want to know what GOD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah? This: No descendant of his will ever rule from David's throne. His corpse will be thrown in the street and left unburied, exposed to the hot sun and the freezing night.

<sup>31</sup> I will punish him and his children and the officials in his government for their blatant sin. I'll let loose on them and everyone in Jerusalem the doomsday disaster of which I warned them but they spit at."

<sup>32</sup> So Jeremiah went and got another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, his secretary. At Jeremiah's dictation he again wrote down everything that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. There were also generous additions, but of the same kind of thing.

37 <sup>1</sup> King Zedekiah son of Josiah, a puppet king set on the throne by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the land of Judah, was now king in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim.

<sup>2</sup> But neither he nor his officials nor the people themselves paid a bit of attention to the Message GOD gave by Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup> However, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the priest, son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Pray for us--pray hard!--to the Master, our GOD."

<sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah the prophet received this Message from GOD:

<sup>7</sup> "I, the GOD of Israel, want you to give this Message to the king of Judah, who has just sent you to me to find out what he should do. Tell him, 'Get this: Pharaoh's army, which is on its way to help you, isn't going to stick it out. No sooner will they get here than they'll leave and go home to Egypt.'

<sup>8</sup> And then the Babylonians will come back and resume their attack, capture this city and burn it to the ground.

<sup>9</sup> I, GOD, am telling you: Don't kid yourselves, reassuring one another, "The Babylonians will leave in a few days." I tell you, they aren't leaving.

<sup>13</sup> When he got to the Benjamin Gate, the officer on guard there, Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, grabbed Jeremiah the prophet, accusing him, "You're deserting to the Chaldeans!"

<sup>14</sup> "That's a lie," protested Jeremiah. "I wouldn't think of deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah wouldn't listen to him. He arrested him and took him to the police.

<sup>15</sup> The police were furious with Jeremiah. They beat him up and threw him into jail in the house of Jonathan the secretary of state. (They were using the house for a prison cell.)

<sup>16</sup> So Jeremiah entered an underground cell in a cistern turned into a dungeon. He stayed there a long time.

<sup>17</sup> Later King Zedekiah had Jeremiah brought to him. The king questioned him privately, "Is there a Message from GOD?" "There certainly is," said Jeremiah. "You're going to be turned over to the king of Babylon."

<sup>18</sup> Jeremiah continued speaking to King Zedekiah: "Can you tell me why you threw me into prison? What crime did I commit against you or your officials or this people?

<sup>19</sup> And tell me, whatever has become of your prophets who preached all those sermons saying that the king of Babylon would never attack you or this land?

<sup>20</sup> Listen to me, please, my master--my king! Please don't send me back to that dungeon in the house of Jonathan the secretary. I'll die there!"

<sup>21</sup> So King Zedekiah ordered that Jeremiah be assigned to the courtyard of the palace guards. He was given a loaf of bread from Bakers' Alley every day until all the bread in the city was gone. And that's where Jeremiah remained--in the courtyard of the palace guards.

38 <sup>1</sup> Shaphatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling the people, namely:

<sup>2</sup> "This is GOD's Message: 'Whoever stays in this town will die--will be killed or starve to death or get sick and die. But those who go over to the Babylonians will save their necks and live.'

<sup>6</sup> So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malkijah the king's son that was in the courtyard of the palace guard. They lowered him down with ropes. There wasn't any water in the cistern, only mud. Jeremiah sank into the mud.

<sup>7</sup> Ebed-melek the Ethiopian, a court official assigned to the royal palace, heard that they had thrown Jeremiah into the cistern. While the king was holding court in the Benjamin Gate,

<sup>8</sup> Ebed-melek went immediately from the palace to the king and said,

<sup>9</sup> "My master, O king--these men are committing a great crime in what they're doing, throwing Jeremiah the prophet into the cistern and leaving him there to starve. He's as good as dead. There isn't a scrap of bread left in the city."

<sup>11</sup> Ebed-melek got three men and went to the palace wardrobe and got some scraps of old clothing, which they tied together and lowered down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

<sup>12</sup> Ebed-melek the Ethiopian called down to Jeremiah, "Put these scraps of old clothing under your armpits and around the ropes." Jeremiah did what he said.

<sup>13</sup> And so they pulled Jeremiah up out of the cistern by the ropes. But he was still confined in the courtyard of the palace guard.

<sup>14</sup> Later, King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance of the Temple of GOD. The king said to Jeremiah, "I'm going to ask you something. Don't hold anything back from me."

<sup>15</sup> Jeremiah said, "If I told you the whole truth, you'd kill me. And no matter what I said, you wouldn't pay any attention anyway."

<sup>16</sup> Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah right there, but in secret, "As sure as GOD lives, who gives us life, I won't kill you, nor will I turn you over to the men who are trying to kill you."

<sup>17</sup> So Jeremiah told Zedekiah, "This is the Message from GOD, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: 'If you will turn yourself over to the generals of the king of Babylon, you will live, this city won't be burned down, and your family will live.

<sup>18</sup> But if you don't turn yourself over to the generals of the king of Babylon, this city will go into the hands of the Chaldeans and they'll burn it down. And don't for a minute think there's any escape for you.'"

<sup>19</sup> King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "But I'm afraid of the Judeans who have already deserted to the Chaldeans. If they get hold of me, they'll rough me up good."

<sup>20</sup> Jeremiah assured him, "They won't get hold of you. Listen, please. Listen to GOD's voice. I'm telling you this for your own good so that you'll live.

<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to turn yourself over, this is what GOD has shown me will happen:

<sup>23</sup> "They'll take all your wives and children and give them to the Chaldeans. And you, don't think you'll get out of this--the king of Babylon will seize you and then burn this city to the ground."

<sup>24</sup> Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Don't let anyone know of this conversation, if you know what's good for you.

<sup>25</sup> If the government officials get wind that I've been talking with you, they may come and say, 'Tell us what went on between you and the king, what you said and what he said. Hold nothing back and we won't kill you.'

<sup>26</sup> If this happens, tell them, 'I presented my case to the king so that he wouldn't send me back to the dungeon of Jonathan to die there.'"

<sup>27</sup> And sure enough, all the officials came to Jeremiah and asked him. He responded as the king had instructed. So they quit asking. No one had overheard the conversation

<sup>3</sup> All the officers of the king of Babylon came and set themselves up as a ruling council from the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezer of Simmagar, Nebushazban the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, along with all the other officials of the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> When Zedekiah king of Judah and his remaining soldiers saw this, they ran for their lives. They slipped out at night on a path in the king's garden through the gate between two walls and headed for the wilderness, toward the Jordan Valley.

<sup>8</sup> Meanwhile, the Babylonians burned down the royal palace, the Temple, and all the homes of the people. They leveled the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> sent for Jeremiah, taking him from the courtyard of the royal guards and putting him under the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be taken home. And so he was able to live with the people.

<sup>15</sup> Earlier, while Jeremiah was still in custody in the courtyard of the royal guards, GOD's Message came to him:

<sup>16</sup> "Go and speak with Ebed-melek the Ethiopian. Tell him, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says, Listen carefully: I will do exactly what I said I would do to this city--bad news, not good news. When it happens, you will be there to see it.

<sup>17</sup> But I'll deliver you on that doomsday. You won't be handed over to those men whom you have good reason to fear.

<sup>18</sup> Yes, I'll most certainly save you. You won't be killed. You'll walk out of there safe and sound because you trusted me." GOD's Decree.

40 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan captain of the bodyguard set him free at Ramah. When Nebuzaradan came upon him, he was in chains, along with all the other captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being herded off to exile in Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> The captain of the bodyguard singled out Jeremiah and said to him, "Your GOD pronounced doom on this place.

<sup>3</sup> GOD came and did what he had warned he'd do because you all sinned against GOD and wouldn't do what he told you. So now you're all suffering the consequences.

<sup>4</sup> "But today, Jeremiah, I'm setting you free, taking the chains off your hands. If you'd like to come to Babylon with me, come along. I'll take good care of you. But if you don't want to come to Babylon with me, that's just fine, too. Look, the whole land stretches out before you. Do what you like. Go and live wherever you wish.

<sup>5</sup> If you want to stay home, go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon made him governor of the cities of Judah. Stay with him and your people. Or go wherever you'd like. It's up to you." The captain of the bodyguard gave him food for the journey and a parting gift, and sent him off.

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and made his home with him and the people who were left behind in the land.

<sup>7</sup> When the army leaders and their men, who had been hiding out in the fields, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor of the land, putting him in charge of the men, women, and children of the poorest of the poor who hadn't been taken off to exile in Babylon, <sup>8</sup> they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, accompanied by their men.

<sup>9</sup> Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, promised them and their men, "You have nothing to fear from the Chaldean officials. Stay here on the land. Be subject to the king of Babylon. You'll get along just fine.

<sup>10</sup> "My job is to stay here in Mizpah and be your advocate before the Chaldeans when they show up. Your job is to take care of the land: Make wine, harvest the summer fruits, press olive oil. Store it all in pottery jugs and settle into the towns that you have taken over."

<sup>11</sup> The Judeans who had escaped to Moab, Ammon, Edom, and other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few survivors in Judah and made Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, governor over them.

<sup>12</sup> They all started coming back to Judah from all the places where they'd been scattered. They came to Judah and to Gedaliah at Mizpah and went to work gathering in a huge supply of wine and summer fruits.

<sup>13</sup> One day Johanan son of Kareah and all the officers of the army who had been hiding out in the backcountry came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

<sup>14</sup> and told him, "You know, don't you, that Baaliss king of Ammon has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

<sup>15</sup> Then Johanan son of Kareah took Gedaliah aside privately in Mizpah: "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one needs to know about it. Why should we let him kill you and plunge the land into anarchy? Why let everyone you've taken care of be scattered and what's left of Judah destroyed?"

<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah son of Ahikam told Johanan son of Kareah, "Don't do it. I forbid it. You're spreading a false rumor about Ishmael."

41 <sup>1</sup> But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, came. He had royal blood in his veins and had been one of the king's high-ranking officers. He paid a visit to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah with ten of his men. As they were eating together, and killed him, killed the man the king of Babylon had appointed governor of the land.

<sup>3</sup> Ishmael also killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah in Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were stationed there.

<sup>4</sup> On the second day after the murder of Gedaliah--no one yet knew of it--

<sup>6</sup> Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to welcome them, weeping ostentatiously. When he greeted them he invited them in: "Come and meet Gedaliah son of Ahikam."

<sup>7</sup> But as soon as they were inside the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and his henchmen slaughtered the pilgrims and dumped the bodies in a cistern.

<sup>8</sup> Ten of the men talked their way out of the massacre. They bargained with Ishmael, "Don't kill us. We have a hidden store of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey out in the fields." So he held back and didn't kill them with their fellow pilgrims.

<sup>9</sup> Ishmael's reason for dumping the bodies into a cistern was to cover up the earlier murder of Gedaliah. The cistern had been built by king Asa as a defense against Baasha king of Israel. This was the cistern that Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled with the slaughtered men.

<sup>10</sup> Ishmael then took everyone else in Mizpah, including the king's daughters entrusted to the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam by Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, as prisoners. Rounding up the prisoners, Ishmael son of Nethaniah proceeded to take them over into the country of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him heard about the atrocities committed by Ishmael son of Nethaniah.

<sup>13</sup> When all the prisoners from Mizpah who had been taken by Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers with him, they couldn't believe their eyes. They were so happy!

<sup>17</sup> They set out at once for Egypt to get away from the Chaldeans, stopping on the way at Geruth-kimham near Bethlehem.

42 <sup>1</sup> All the army officers, led by Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshai, accompanied by all the people, small and great, <sup>2</sup> came to Jeremiah the prophet and said, "We have a request. Please listen. Pray to your GOD for us, what's left of us. You can see for yourself how few we are!

<sup>3</sup> Pray that your GOD will tell us the way we should go and what we should do."

<sup>4</sup> Jeremiah the prophet said, "I hear your request. And I will pray to your GOD as you have asked. Whatever GOD says, I'll pass on to you. I'll tell you everything, holding nothing back."

<sup>5</sup> They said to Jeremiah, "Let GOD be our witness, a true and faithful witness against us, if we don't do everything that your GOD directs you to tell us.

<sup>8</sup> He called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him, including all the people, regardless of how much clout they had.

<sup>9</sup> He then spoke: "This is the Message from GOD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your prayer.

<sup>10</sup> He says, 'If you are ready to stick it out in this land, I will build you up and not drag you down, I will plant you and not pull you up like a weed. I feel deep compassion on account of the doom I have visited on you.

<sup>11</sup> You don't have to fear the king of Babylon. Your fears are for nothing. I'm on your side, ready to save and deliver you from anything he might do.

<sup>12</sup> I'll pour mercy on you. What's more, [he] will show you mercy! He'll let you come back to your very own land.'

<sup>13</sup> "But do not say, 'We're not staying around this place,' refusing to obey the command of your GOD

<sup>14</sup> and saying instead, 'No! We're off to Egypt, where things are peaceful--no wars, no attacking armies, plenty of food. We're going to live there.' If

<sup>15</sup> what's left of Judah is headed down that road, then listen to GOD's Message. This is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says: 'If you have determined to go to Egypt and make that your home, <sup>16</sup> then the very wars you fear will catch up with you in Egypt and the starvation you dread will track you down in Egypt. You'll die there!

<sup>17</sup> Every last one of you who is determined to go to Egypt and make it your home will either be killed, starve, or get sick and die. No survivors, not one! No one will escape the doom that I'll bring upon you.'

<sup>18</sup> "This is the Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: 'In the same way that I swept the citizens of Jerusalem away with my anger and wrath, I'll do the same thing all over again in Egypt. You'll end up being cursed, reviled, ridiculed, and mocked. And you'll never see your homeland again.

<sup>19</sup> "'GOD has plainly told you, you leftovers from Judah, 'Don't go to Egypt.' Could anything be plainer? I warn you this day <sup>20</sup> that you are living out a fantasy. You're making a fatal mistake. "Didn't you just now send me to your GOD, saying, 'Pray for us to our GOD. Tell us everything that GOD says and we'll do it all'?

<sup>21</sup> "Well, now I've told you, told you everything he said, and you haven't obeyed a word of it, not a single word of what your GOD sent me to tell you.

<sup>22</sup> So now let me tell you what will happen next: You'll be killed, you'll starve to death, you'll get sick and die in the wonderful country where you've determined to go and live."

43 <sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah finished telling all the people the whole Message that their GOD had sent him to give them--all these words--

<sup>2</sup> Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah, backed by all the self-important men, said to Jeremiah, "Liar! Our GOD never sent you with this message telling us not to go to Egypt and live there.

<sup>3</sup> Baruch son of Neriah is behind this. He has turned you against us. He's playing into the hands of the Babylonians so we'll either end up being killed or taken off to exile in Babylon."

<sup>4</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers, and the people along with them, wouldn't listen to GOD's Message that they stay in the land of Judah and live there.

<sup>7</sup> They entered the land of Egypt in total disobedience of GOD's Message and arrived at the city of Tahpanhes.

<sup>8</sup> While in Tahpanhes, GOD's Word came to Jeremiah:

<sup>9</sup> "Pick up some large stones and cover them with mortar in the vicinity of the pavement that leads up to the building set aside for Pharaoh's use in Tahpanhes. Make sure some of the men of Judah are watching.

<sup>10</sup> "Then address them: 'This is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says: Be on the lookout! I'm sending for and bringing Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon--my servant, mind you!--and he'll set up his throne on these very stones that I've had buried here and he'll spread out his canopy over them.

<sup>12</sup> He'll burn down the temples of Egypt's gods. He'll either burn up the gods or haul them off as booty. Like a shepherd who picks lice from his robes, he'll pick Egypt clean. And then he'll walk away without a hand being laid on him.

<sup>13</sup> He'll shatter the sacred obelisks at Egypt's House of the Sun and make a huge bonfire of the temples of Egypt's gods."

44 <sup>1</sup> The Message that Jeremiah received for all the Judeans who lived in the land of Egypt, who had their homes in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Noph, and the land of Pathros:

<sup>2</sup> "This is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You saw with your own eyes the terrible doom that I brought down on Jerusalem and the Judean cities. Look at what's left: ghost towns of rubble and smoking ruins,

<sup>3</sup> and all because they took up with evil ways, making me angry by going off to offer sacrifices and worship the latest in gods--no-gods that neither they nor you nor your ancestors knew the first thing about.

<sup>4</sup> Morning after morning and long into the night I kept after you, sending you all those prophets, my servants, begging you, "Please, please--don't do this, don't fool around in this loathsome gutter of gods that I hate with a passion."

<sup>5</sup> But do you think anyone paid the least bit of attention or repented of evil or quit offering sacrifices to the no-gods? Not one.

<sup>6</sup> So I let loose with my anger, a firestorm of wrath in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, and left them in ruins and wasted. And they're [still] in ruins and wasted.'

<sup>7</sup> "This is the Message of GOD, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: 'So why are you ruining your lives by amputating yourselves--man, woman, child, and baby--from the life of Judah, leaving yourselves isolated, unconnected?

<sup>8</sup> And why do you deliberately make me angry by what you do, offering sacrifices to these no-gods in the land of Egypt where you've come to live? You'll only destroy yourselves and make yourselves an example used in curses and an object of ridicule among all the nations of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> "Have you so soon forgotten the evil lives of your ancestors, the evil lives of the kings of Judah and their wives, to say nothing of your own evil lives, you and your wives, the evil you flaunted in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>10</sup> And to this day, there's not a trace of remorse, not a sign of reverence, nobody caring about living by what I tell them or following my instructions that I've set out so plainly before you and your parents!

<sup>11</sup> So this is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies decrees: "'Watch out! I've decided to bring doom on you and get rid of everyone connected with Judah.

<sup>12</sup> I'm going to take what's left of Judah, those who have decided to go to Egypt and live there, and finish them off. In Egypt they will either be killed or starve to death. The same fate will fall upon both the obscure and the important. Regardless of their status, they will either be killed or starve. You'll end up cursed, reviled, ridiculed, and mocked.

<sup>13</sup> I'll give those who are in Egypt the same medicine I gave those in Jerusalem: massacre, starvation, and disease.

<sup>14</sup> None of those who managed to get out of Judah alive and get away to Egypt are going to make it back to the Judah for which they're so homesick. None will make it back, except maybe a few fugitives."

<sup>18</sup> But the moment we quit sacrificing to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out offerings to her, everything fell apart. We've had nothing but massacres and starvation ever since."

<sup>19</sup> And then the women chimed in: "Yes! Absolutely! We're going to keep at it, offering sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out offerings to her. Aren't our husbands behind us? They like it that we make goddess cookies and pour out our offerings to her."

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke up, confronting the men and the women, all the people who had answered so insolently. He said, <sup>21</sup> "The sacrifices that you and your parents, your kings, your government officials, and the common people of the land offered up in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem--don't you think GOD noticed? He noticed, all right.

<sup>22</sup> And he got fed up. Finally, he couldn't take your evil behavior and your disgusting acts any longer. Your land became a wasteland, a death valley, a horror story, a ghost town. And it continues to be just that.

<sup>23</sup> This doom has come upon you because you kept offering all those sacrifices, and you sinned against GOD! You refused to listen to him, wouldn't live the way he directed, ignored the covenant conditions."

<sup>24</sup> Jeremiah kept going, but now zeroed in on the women: "Listen, all you who are from Judah and living in Egypt--please, listen to GOD's Word.

<sup>25</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You women! You said it and then you did it. You said, "We're going to keep the vows we made to sacrifice to the Queen of Heaven and pour out offerings to her, and nobody's going to stop us!"' "Well, go ahead. Keep your vows. Do it up big.

<sup>26</sup> But also listen to what GOD has to say about it, all you who are from Judah but live in Egypt: 'I swear by my great name, backed by everything I am--this is GOD speaking!--that never again shall my name be used in vows, such as "As sure as the Master, GOD, lives!" by anyone in the whole country of Egypt.

<sup>28</sup> The few who get out of Egypt alive and back to Judah will be [very] few, hardly worth counting. Then that ragtag bunch that left Judah to live in Egypt will know who had the last word.

<sup>29</sup> "And this will be the evidence: I will bring punishment right here, and by this you'll know that the decrees of doom against you are the real thing.

<sup>30</sup> Watch for this sign of doom: I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies, those who are out to kill him, exactly as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah to his enemy Nebuchadnezzar, who was after him.

45 <sup>1</sup> This is what Jeremiah told Baruch one day in the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign as he was taking dictation from the prophet:

<sup>2</sup> "These are the words of GOD, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch.

<sup>4</sup> "But GOD says, 'Look around. What I've built I'm about to wreck, and what I've planted I'm about to rip up.

<sup>5</sup> And I'm doing it everywhere--all over the whole earth! So forget about making any big plans for yourself. Things are going to get worse before they get better. But don't worry. I'll keep you alive through the whole business."

46 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Messages through the prophet Jeremiah regarding the godless nations.

<sup>10</sup> "But it's not your day. It's the Master's, me, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies--the day when I have it out with my enemies, The day when Sword puts an end to my enemies, when Sword exacts vengeance. I, the Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, will pile them on an altar--a huge sacrifice!--In the great north country, along the mighty Euphrates.

<sup>12</sup> The whole world will hear your anguished cries. Your wails fill the earth, As soldier falls against soldier and they all go down in a heap."

<sup>15</sup> "Why will your bull-god Apis run off? Because GOD will drive him off.

<sup>16</sup> Your ragtag army will fall to pieces.
The word is passing through the ranks,
'Let's get out of here while we still can.
Let's head for home and save our skins.'

<sup>17</sup> When they get home they'll nickname Pharaoh 'Big-Talk-Bad-Luck.'

<sup>18</sup> As sure as I am the living God"--the King's Decree, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is his name--"A conqueror is coming: like Tabor, singular among mountains; like
Carmel, jutting up from the sea!

<sup>19</sup> So pack your bags for exile, you coddled daughters of Egypt, For Memphis will soon be nothing, a vacant lot grown over with weeds.

heifer attacked by a horsefly from the north!

<sup>21</sup> All her hired soldiers are stationed to defend her--like well-fed calves they are. But when their lives are on the line, they'll run off, cowards every one. When the going gets tough, they'll take the easy way out.

<sup>22</sup> "Egypt will slither and hiss like a snake as the enemy army comes in force. They will rush in, swinging axes like lumberjacks cutting down trees.

<sup>23</sup> They'll level the country"--GOD's Decree--"nothing and no one standing for as far as you can see. The invaders will be a swarm of locusts, innumerable, past counting.

<sup>25</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Watch out when I visit doom on the god Amon of Thebes, Egypt and its gods and kings, Pharaoh and those who trust in him.

<sup>26</sup> I'll turn them over to those who are out to kill them, to Nebuchadnezzar and his military. Egypt will be set back a thousand years. Eventually people will live there again." GOD's Decree.

<sup>27</sup> "But you, dear Jacob my servant, you have nothing to fear. Israel, there's no need to worry. Look up! I'll save you from that far country, I'll get your children out of the land of exile. Things are going to be normal again for Jacob, safe and secure, smooth sailing.

<sup>28</sup> Yes, dear Jacob my servant, you have nothing to fear. Depend on it, I'm on your side. I'll finish off all the godless nations among which I've scattered you, But I won't finish you off. I have more work left to do on you. I'll punish you, but fairly. No, I'm not finished with you yet."

swelling like a river in flood. The torrent will flood the land, washing away city and citizen. Men and women will scream in terror, wails from every door and window,

<sup>3</sup> As the thunder from the hooves of the horses will be heard, the clatter of chariots, the banging of wheels. Fathers, paralyzed by fear, won't even grab up their babies

<sup>5</sup> Gaza will be shaved bald as an egg, Ashkelon struck dumb as a post. You're on your last legs. How long will you keep flailing?

<sup>6</sup> "Oh, Sword of GOD, how long will you keep this up? Return to your scabbard.

Haven't you had enough? Can't you call it quits?

48 <sup>1</sup> The Message on Moab from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel: "Doom to Nebo! Leveled to the ground! Kiriathaim demeaned and defeated, The mighty fortress reduced to a molehill,

<sup>6</sup> Oh, run for your lives! Get out while you can! Survive by your wits in the wild!

<sup>7</sup> You trusted in thick walls and big money, yes? But it won't help you now. Your big god Chemosh will be hauled off, his priests and managers with him.

<sup>8</sup> A wrecker will wreck every city. Not a city will survive. The valley fields will be ruined, the plateau pastures destroyed, just as I told you.

<sup>10</sup> Sloppy work in GOD's name is cursed, and cursed all halfhearted use of the sword.

<sup>11</sup> "Moab has always taken it easy--lazy as a dog in the sun, Never had to work for a living, never faced any trouble, Never had to grow up, never once worked up a sweat.

<sup>12</sup> But those days are a thing of the past.
I'll put him to work at hard labor. That will wake him up to the world of hard knocks. That will smash his illusions.

<sup>13</sup> Moab will be as ashamed of god Chemosh as Israel was ashamed of her Bethel calf-gods, the calf-gods she thought were so great.

<sup>14</sup> For how long do you think you'll be saying, 'We're tough. We can beat anyone anywhere'?

<sup>15</sup> The destruction of Moab has already begun. Her choice young soldiers are lying dead right now."
The King's Decree--his full name,
GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>16</sup> "Yes. Moab's doom is on countdown, disaster targeted and launched.

<sup>19</sup> Stand on the roadside, pampered women of Aroer. Interview the refugees who are running away. Ask them, 'What's happened? And why?'

<sup>26</sup> "Turn Moab into a drunken sot, drunk on the wine of my wrath, a dung-faced drunk, filling the country with vomit--Moab a falling-down drunk, a joke in bad taste.

<sup>27</sup> Wasn't it you, Moab, who made crude jokes over Israel? And when they were caught in bad company, didn't you cluck and gossip and snicker?

<sup>29</sup> "We've all heard of Moab's pride, that legendary pride, The strutting, bullying, puffed-up pride, the insufferable arrogance.

<sup>31</sup> But I will weep for Moab, yes, I will mourn for the people of Moab. I will even mourn for the people of Kir-heres.

<sup>32</sup> I'll weep for the grapevines of Sibmah and join Jazer in her weeping--Grapevines that once reached the Dead Sea with tendrils as far as Jazer. Your summer fruit and your bursting grapes will be looted by brutal plunderers,

<sup>34</sup> "Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out, and the people in Jahaz will hear the cries. They will hear them all the way from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglathshelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim will be dried up.

<sup>35</sup> "I will put a stop in Moab"--GOD's Decree--"to all hiking to the high places to offer burnt sacrifices to the gods.

<sup>44</sup> "A man running in terror will fall into a trap. A man climbing out of a pit will be caught in a trap. This is my agenda for Moab on doomsday." GOD's Decree.

<sup>45</sup> "On the outskirts of Heshbon, refugees will pull up short, worn out. Fire will flame high from Heshbon, a firestorm raging from the capital of Sihon's kingdom. It will burn off Moab's eyebrows, will scorch the skull of the braggarts.

<sup>46</sup> That's all for you, Moab! You worshipers of Chemosh will be finished off! Your sons will be trucked off to prison camps; your daughters will be herded into exile.

49 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message on the Ammonites: "Doesn't Israel have any children, no one to step into her inheritance? So why is the god Milcom taking over Gad's land, his followers moving into its towns?"

<sup>2</sup> But not for long! The time's coming"--GOD's Decree--"When I'll fill the ears of Rabbah, Ammon's big city, with battle cries. She'll end up a pile of rubble, all her towns burned to the ground. Then Israel will kick out the invaders. I, GOD, say so, and it will [be] so.

<sup>3</sup> Wail Heshbon, Ai is in ruins. Villages of Rabbah, wring your hands! Dress in mourning, weep buckets of tears. Go into hysterics, run around in circles! Your god Milcom will be hauled off to exile, and all his priests and managers right with him.

<sup>4</sup> Why do you brag of your once-famous strength? You're a broken-down has-been, a castoff Who fondles his trophies and dreams of glory days and vainly thinks, 'No one can lay a hand on me.'

<sup>6</sup> Still, the time will come when I will make things right with Ammon." GOD's Decree.

<sup>8</sup> Run for your lives! Get out while you can! Find a good place to hide, you who live in Dedan! I'm bringing doom to Esau. It's time to settle accounts.

<sup>11</sup> "I'll take care of your orphans. Your widows can depend on me."

<sup>12</sup> Indeed. GOD says, "I tell you, if there are people who have to drink the cup of God's wrath even though they don't deserve it, why would you think you'd get off? You won't get off. You'll drink it. Oh yes, you'll drink every drop.

<sup>13</sup> And as for Bozrah, your capital, I swear by all that I am"--GOD's Decree--"that that city will end up a pile of charred ruins, a stinking garbage dump, an obscenity--and all her daughter-cities with her."

<sup>16</sup> You think you're so great--strutting across the stage of history, Living high in the impregnable rocks, acting like king of the mountain. You think you're above it all, don't you, like an eagle in its aerie? Well, you're headed for a fall. I'll bring you crashing to the ground." GOD's Decree.

<sup>18</sup> She'll join Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors in the sewers of history." GOD says so. "No one will live there, no mortal soul move in there.

<sup>19</sup> "Watch this: Like a lion coming up from the thick jungle of the Jordan Looking for prey in the mountain pastures, I will come upon Edom and pounce. I'll take my pick of the flock--and who's to stop me? The shepherds of Edom are helpless before me."

<sup>20</sup> So, listen to this plan that GOD has worked out against Edom, the blueprint of what he's prepared for those who live in Teman: "Believe it or not, the young, the vulnerable--mere lambs and kids--will be dragged off. Believe it or not, the flock in shock, helpless to help, will watch it happen.

<sup>21</sup> The very earth will shudder because of their cries, cries of anguish heard at the distant Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup> The Message on Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad will be in shock when they hear the bad news. Their hearts will melt in fear as they pace back and forth in worry.

<sup>28</sup> The Message on Kedar and the sheikdoms of Hazor who were attacked by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. This is GOD's Message: "On your feet! Attack Kedar! Plunder the Bedouin nomads from the east.

them, shouting, 'Terror! Death! Doom! Danger everywhere!'

<sup>30</sup> Oh, run for your lives, You nomads from Hazor." GOD's Decree. "Find a safe place to hide. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plans to wipe you out, to go after you with a vengeance:

<sup>31</sup> 'After them,' he says. 'Go after these relaxed nomads who live free and easy in the desert, Who live in the open with no doors to lock, who live off by themselves.'

<sup>32</sup> Their camels are there for the taking, their herds and flocks, easy picking. I'll scatter them to the four winds, these defenseless nomads on the fringes of the desert. I'll bring terror from every direction. They won't know what hit them." GOD's Decree.

<sup>33</sup> "Jackals will take over the camps of Hazor, camps abandoned to wind and sand. No one will live there, no mortal soul move in there."

<sup>36</sup> Then I'll let four winds loose on Elam, winds from the four corners of earth. I'll blow them away in all directions, landing homeless Elamites in every country on earth.

<sup>38</sup> And then I'll set up my throne in Elam, having thrown out the king and his henchmen.

<sup>39</sup> But the time will come when I make everything right for Elam again." GOD's Decree.

50 <sup>1</sup> The Message of GOD through the prophet Jeremiah on Babylon, land of the Chaldeans:

<sup>3</sup> For a nation will come out of the north to attack her, reduce her cities to rubble. Empty of life--no animals, no people--not a sound, not a movement, not a breath.

<sup>4</sup> "In those days, at that time"--GOD's Decree--"the people of Israel will come, And the people of Judah with them.

Walking and weeping, they'll seek me, their GOD.

<sup>5</sup> They'll ask directions to Zion and set their faces toward Zion. They'll come and hold tight to GOD, bound in a covenant eternal they'll never forget.

<sup>6</sup> "My people were lost sheep. Their shepherds led them astray. They abandoned them in the mountains where they wandered aimless through the hills. They lost track of home, couldn't remember where they came from.

<sup>7</sup> Everyone who met them took advantage of them. Their enemies had no qualms: 'Fair game' they said. 'They walked out on GOD. They abandoned the True Pasture, the hope of their parents.'

<sup>8</sup> "But now, get out of Babylon as fast as you can. Be rid of that Babylonian country. On your way. Good sheepdogs lead, but don't you be led. Lead the way home!

<sup>9</sup> Do you see what I'm doing? I'm rallying a host of nations against Babylon. They'll come out of the north, attack and take her. Oh, they know how to fight, these armies. They never come home empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> "You Babylonians had a good time while it lasted, didn't you? You lived it up, exploiting and using my people, Frisky calves romping in lush pastures, wild stallions out having a good time!

<sup>12</sup> Well, your mother would hardly be proud of you. The woman who bore you wouldn't be pleased. Look at what's come of you! A nothing nation! Rubble and garbage and weeds!

<sup>15</sup> Shout battle cries from every direction. All the fight has gone out of her. Her defenses have been flattened, her walls smashed. 'Operation GOD's Vengeance.' Pile on the vengeance! Do to her as she has done. Give her a good dose of her own medicine!

<sup>18</sup> And now this is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel, has to say: "Just watch! I'm bringing doom on the king of Babylon and his land, the same doom I brought on the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> But Israel I'll bring home to good pastures. He'll graze on the hills of Carmel and Bashan, On the slopes of Ephraim and Gilead. He will eat to his heart's content.

I've saved will start out with a clean slate.

<sup>21</sup> "Attack Merathaim, land of rebels! Go after Pekod, country of doom! Hunt them down. Make a clean sweep." GOD's Decree. "These are my orders. Do what I tell you.

<sup>24</sup> I set out a trap and you were caught in it. O Babylon, you never knew what hit you, Caught and held in the steel grip of that trap! That's what you get for taking on GOD.

<sup>25</sup> "I, GOD, opened my arsenal. I brought out my weapons of wrath. The Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, has a job to do in Babylon.

<sup>29</sup> "Call in the troops against Babylon, anyone who can shoot straight! Tighten the noose! Leave no loopholes! Give her back as good as she gave, a dose of her own medicine! Her brazen insolence is an outrage against GOD, The Holy of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> And now she pays: her young strewn dead in the streets, her soldiers dead, silent forever." GOD's Decree.

<sup>32</sup> Mister Pride will fall flat on his face. No one will offer him a hand. I'll set his towns on fire. The fire will spread wild through the country."

<sup>33</sup> And here's more from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "The people of Israel are beaten down, the people of Judah along with them. Their oppressors have them in a grip of steel. They won't let go.

<sup>37</sup> War to the death on her hired killers, gutless wonders! War to the death on her banks--looted!

<sup>38</sup> War to the death on her water supply--drained dry! A land of make-believe gods gone crazy--hobgoblins!

<sup>39</sup> The place will be haunted with jackals and scorpions, night-owls and vampire bats. No one will ever live there again. The land will reek with the stench of death.

<sup>40</sup> It will join Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors, the cities I did away with." GOD's Decree. "No one will live there again. No one will again draw breath in that land, ever.

<sup>41</sup> "And now, watch this! People pouring out of the north, hordes of people, A mob of kings stirred up from far-off places.

<sup>42</sup> Flourishing deadly weapons, barbarians they are, cruel and pitiless. Roaring and relentless, like ocean breakers, they come riding fierce stallions, In battle formation, ready to fight [you], Daughter Babylon!

<sup>43</sup> Babylon's king hears them coming. He goes white as a ghost, limp as a dishrag. Terror-stricken, he doubles up in pain, helpless to fight, like a woman giving birth to a baby.

<sup>44</sup> "And now watch this: Like a lion coming up from the thick jungle of the Jordan, Looking for prey in the mountain pastures, I'll take over and pounce. I'll take my pick of the flock--and who's to stop me? All the so-called shepherds are helpless before me."

<sup>45</sup> So, listen to this plan that GOD has worked out against Babylon, the blueprint of what he's prepared for dealing with Chaldea: Believe it or not, the young, the vulnerable--mere lambs and kids--will be dragged off. Believe it or not, the flock in shock, helpless to help, watches it happen.

<sup>46</sup> When the shout goes up, "Babylon's down!" the very earth will shudder at the sound. The news will be heard all over the world.

51 <sup>1</sup> There's more. GOD says more: "Watch this: I'm whipping up A death-dealing hurricane against Babylon--'Hurricane Persia'--against all who live in that perverse land.

<sup>5</sup> It turns out that Israel and Judah are not widowed after all. As their God, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, I am still alive and well, committed to them even though They filled their land with sin against Israel's most Holy God.

<sup>6</sup> "Get out of Babylon as fast as you can. Run for your lives! Save your necks! Don't linger and lose your lives to my vengeance on her as I pay her back for her sins.

<sup>7</sup> Babylon was a fancy gold chalice held in my hand, Filled with the wine of my anger to make the whole world drunk. The nations drank the wine and they've all gone crazy.

<sup>8</sup> Babylon herself will stagger and crash, senseless in a drunken stupor--tragic! Get anointing balm for her wound. Maybe she can be cured."

<sup>9</sup> "We did our best, but she can't be helped. Babylon is past fixing. Give her up to her fate. Go home. The judgment on her will be vast, a skyscraper-memorial of vengeance.

<sup>10</sup> "GOD has set everything right for us. Come! Let's tell the good news Back home in Zion. Let's tell what our GOD did to set things right.

<sup>12</sup> Give the signal to attack Babylon's walls. Station guards around the clock. Bring in reinforcements. Set men in ambush. GOD will do what he planned, what he said he'd do to the people of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> You have more water than you need, you have more money than you need--But your life is over, your lifeline cut."

<sup>15</sup> By his power he made earth. His wisdom gave shape to the world. He crafted the cosmos.

When the smoke clears, they're gone.

<sup>19</sup> But the Portion-of-Jacob is the real thing; he put the whole universe together, With special attention to Israel.
His name? GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies!

<sup>20</sup> God says, "You, Babylon, are my hammer, my weapon of war. I'll use you to smash godless nations, use you to knock kingdoms to bits.

<sup>21</sup> I'll use you to smash horse and rider, use you to smash chariot and driver.

<sup>22</sup> I'll use you to smash man and woman, use you to smash the old man and the boy. I'll use you to smash the young man and young woman,

<sup>23</sup> use you to smash shepherd and sheep. I'll use you to smash farmer and yoked oxen, use you to smash governors and senators.

<sup>24</sup> "Judeans, you'll see it with your own eyes. I'll pay Babylon and all the Chaldeans back for all the evil they did in Zion." GOD's Decree.

<sup>25</sup> "I'm your enemy, Babylon, Mount Destroyer, you ravager of the whole earth. I'll reach out, I'll take you in my hand, and I'll crush you till there's no mountain left. I'll turn you into a gravel pit--

<sup>29</sup> "The very land trembles in terror, writhes in pain, terrorized by my plans against Babylon, Plans to turn the country of Babylon into a lifeless moonscape--a wasteland.

<sup>33</sup> I, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, said it would happen: 'Daughter Babylon is a threshing floor at threshing time. Soon, oh very soon, her harvest will come and then the chaff will fly!'

<sup>35</sup> Lady Zion says, 'The brutality done to me be done to Babylon!' And Jerusalem says, 'The blood spilled from me be charged to the Chaldeans!'

<sup>40</sup> "I'll haul these 'lions' off to the slaughterhouse like the lambs, rams, and goats, never to be heard of again.

<sup>44</sup> I'll bring doom on the glutton god-Bel in Babylon. I'll make him vomit up all he gulped down. No more visitors stream into this place, admiring and gawking at the wonders of Babylon. The wonders of Babylon are no more.

<sup>45</sup> Run for your lives, my dear people! Run, and don't look back! Get out of this place while you can, this place torched by GOD's raging anger.

<sup>46</sup> Don't lose hope. Don't ever give up when the rumors pour in hot and heavy. One year it's this, the next year it's that--rumors of violence, rumors of war.

<sup>47</sup> Trust me, the time is coming when I'll put the no-gods of Babylon in their place. I'll show up the whole country as a sickening fraud, with dead bodies strewn all over the place.

<sup>48</sup> Heaven and earth, angels and people, will throw a victory party over Babylon

When the avenging armies from the north descend on her." GOD's Decree!

<sup>49</sup> "Babylon must fall--compensation for the war dead in Israel. Babylonians will be killed because of all that Babylonian killing.

<sup>50</sup> But you exiles who have escaped a Babylonian death, get out! And fast! Remember GOD in your long and distant exile. Keep Jerusalem alive in your memory."

<sup>51</sup> How we've been humiliated, taunted and abused, kicked around for so long that we hardly know who we are! And we hardly know what to think--our old Sanctuary, GOD's house, desecrated by strangers.

<sup>52</sup> "I know, but trust me: The time is coming"--GOD's Decree--"When I will bring doom on her no-god idols, and all over this land her wounded will groan.

<sup>53</sup> Even if Babylon climbed a ladder to the moon and pulled up the ladder so that no one could get to her, That wouldn't stop me. I'd make sure my avengers would reach her." GOD's Decree.

<sup>57</sup> "I'll get them drunk, the whole lot of them--princes, sages, governors, soldiers. Dead drunk, they'll sleep--and sleep and sleep...and never wake up." The King's Decree. His name? GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies!

<sup>58</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies speaks: "The city walls of Babylon--those massive walls!--will be flattened. And those city gates--huge gates!--will be set on fire. The harder you work at this empty life, the less you are. Nothing comes of ambition like this but ashes."

<sup>59</sup> Jeremiah the prophet gave a job to Seraiah son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when Seraiah went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon. It was in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign. Seraiah was in charge of travel arrangements.

<sup>60</sup> Jeremiah had written down in a little booklet all the bad things that would come down on Babylon.

<sup>62</sup> Read, 'You, O GOD, said that you would destroy this place so that nothing could live here, neither human nor animal--a wasteland to top all wastelands, an eternal nothing.'

<sup>63</sup> "When you've finished reading the page, tie a stone to it, throw it into the River Euphrates, and watch it sink.

<sup>64</sup> Then say, 'That's how Babylon will sink to the bottom and stay there after the disaster I'm going to bring upon her.'"

52 <sup>1</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he started out as king. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah. Her hometown was Libnah.

<sup>2</sup> As far as GOD was concerned, Zedekiah was just one more evil king, a carbon copy of Jehoiakim.

<sup>4</sup> Nebuchadnezzar set out for Jerusalem with a full army. He set up camp and sealed off the city by building siege mounds around it.

<sup>5</sup> He arrived on the ninth year and tenth month of Zedekiah's reign. The city was under siege for nineteen months (until the eleventh year of Zedekiah).

<sup>6</sup> By the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, on the ninth day of the month, the famine was so bad that there wasn't so much as a crumb of bread for anyone.

<sup>7</sup> Then the Babylonians broke through the city walls. Under cover of the night darkness, the entire Judean army fled through an opening in the wall (it was the gate between the two walls above the King's Garden). They slipped through the lines of the Babylonians who surrounded the city and headed for the Jordan into the Arabah Valley, <sup>8</sup> but the Babylonians were in full pursuit. They caught up with them in the Plains of Jericho. But by then Zedekiah's army had deserted and was scattered.

<sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon then killed Zedekiah's sons right before his eyes. The summary murder of his sons was the last thing Zedekiah saw, for they then blinded him. The king of Babylon followed that up by killing all the officials of Judah.

Babylon threw him in prison, where he stayed until the day he died.

<sup>12</sup> In the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon on the seventh day of the fifth month, Nebuzaradan, the king of Babylon's chief deputy, arrived in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> He burned the Temple of GOD to the ground, went on to the royal palace, and then finished off the city. He burned the whole place down.

<sup>14</sup> He put the Babylonian troops he had with him to work knocking down the city walls.

<sup>17</sup> The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the bronze washstands, and the huge bronze basin (the Sea) that were in the Temple of GOD, and hauled the bronze off to Babylon.

<sup>18</sup> They also took the various bronze-crafted liturgical accessories, as well as the gold and silver censers and sprinkling bowls, used in the services of Temple worship.

<sup>20</sup> The amount of bronze they got from the two pillars, the Sea, the twelve bronze bulls that supported the Sea, and the ten washstands that Solomon had made for the Temple of GOD was enormous. They couldn't weigh it all!

feet. The pillars were hollow, the bronze a little less than an inch thick.

<sup>22</sup> Each pillar was topped with an ornate capital of bronze pomegranates and filigree, which added another seven and a half feet to its height.

<sup>23</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranates evenly spaced--in all, a hundred pomegranates worked into the filigree.

<sup>31</sup> When Jehoiachin king of Judah had been in exile for thirty-seven years, Evil-Merodach became king in Babylon and let Jehoiachin out of prison. This release took place on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month.

treatment beyond anything experienced by the political prisoners held in Babylon.

<sup>33</sup> Jehoiachin took off his prison garb and from then on ate his meals in company with the king.

Lamentations

<sup>6</sup> All beauty has drained from Daughter Zion's face. Her princes are like deer famished for food, chased to exhaustion by hunters.

<sup>7</sup> Jerusalem remembers the day she lost everything, when her people fell into enemy hands, and not a soul there to help. Enemies looked on and laughed, laughed at her helpless silence.

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem, who outsinned the whole world, is an outcast. All who admired her despise her now that they see beneath the surface. Miserable, she groans and turns away in shame.

<sup>9</sup> She played fast and loose with life, she never considered tomorrow, and now she's crashed royally, with no one to hold her hand: "Look at my pain, O GOD!

And how the enemy cruelly struts."

<sup>11</sup> All the people groaned, so desperate for food, so desperate to stay alive that they bartered their favorite things for a bit of breakfast: "O GOD, look at me! Worthless, cheap, abject!

<sup>12</sup> "And you passersby, look at me! Have you ever seen anything like this? Ever seen pain like my pain, seen what he did to me, what [GOD] did to me in his rage?

14 "He wove my sins into a rope and harnessed me to captivity's yoke. I'm goaded by cruel taskmasters.

15 "The Master piled up my best soldiers in a heap, then called in thugs to break their fine young necks. The Master crushed the life out of fair virgin Judah.

16 "For all this I weep, weep buckets of tears, and not a soul within miles around cares for my soul. My children are wasted, my enemy got his way."

17 Zion reached out for help, but no one helped. GOD ordered Jacob's enemies to surround him, and now no one wants anything to do with Jerusalem.

18 "GOD has right on his side. I'm the one who did wrong. Listen everybody! Look at what I'm going through! My fair young women, my fine young men, all herded into exile!

19 "I called to my friends; they betrayed me. My priests and my leaders only looked after themselves, trying but failing to save their own skins.

<sup>20</sup> "O GOD, look at the trouble I'm in! My stomach in knots, my heart wrecked by a life of rebellion. Massacres in the streets, starvation in the houses.

<sup>21</sup> "Oh, listen to my groans. No one listens, no one cares. When my enemies heard of the trouble you gave me, they cheered. Bring on Judgment Day! Let them get what I got!

<sup>22</sup> "Take a good look at their evil ways and give it to them! Give them what you gave me for my sins. Groaning in pain, body and soul, I've had all I can take."

he smashed Judah's defenses, made hash of her king and princes.

the fortifications over to the enemy. As they cheered in GOD's Temple, you'd have thought it was a feast day!

<sup>8</sup> GOD drew up plans to tear down the walls of Daughter Zion. He assembled his crew, set to work and went at it. Total demolition! The stones wept!

<sup>11</sup> My eyes are blind with tears, my stomach in a knot. My insides have turned to jelly over my people's fate.

Babies and children are fainting all over the place,

<sup>12</sup> Calling to their mothers, "I'm hungry! I'm thirsty!" then fainting like dying soldiers in the streets, breathing their last in their mothers' laps.

<sup>13</sup> How can I understand your plight, dear Jerusalem? What can I say to give you comfort, dear Zion? Who can put you together again? This bust-up is past understanding.

<sup>14</sup> Your prophets courted you with sweet talk. They didn't face you with your sin so that you could repent. Their sermons were all wishful thinking, deceptive illusions.

<sup>16</sup> But now your enemies gape, slack-jawed. Then they rub their hands in glee: "We've got them! We've been waiting for this! Here it is!"

<sup>17</sup> GOD did carry out, item by item, exactly what he said he'd do. He always said he'd do this. Now he's done it--torn the place down. He's let your enemies walk all over you, declared them world champions!

<sup>18</sup> Give out heart-cries to the Master, dear repentant Zion. Let the tears roll like a river, day and night, and keep at it--no time-outs. Keep those tears flowing!

<sup>19</sup> As each night watch begins, get up and cry out in prayer. Pour your heart out face to face with the Master. Lift high your hands. Beg for the lives of your children who are starving to death out on the streets.

<sup>21</sup> "Boys and old men lie in the gutters of the streets, my young men and women killed in their prime. Angry, you killed them in cold blood, cut them down without mercy.

3 <sup>1</sup> I'm the man who has seen trouble, trouble coming from the lash of GOD's anger.

<sup>4</sup> He turned me into a scarecrow of skin and bones, then broke the bones.

<sup>5</sup> He hemmed me in, ganged up on me, poured on the trouble and hard times.

<sup>8</sup> Even when I cry out and plead for help, he locks up my prayers and throws away the key.

<sup>16</sup> He ground my face into the gravel. He pounded me into the mud.

<sup>41</sup> Let's lift our hearts and hands at one and the same time, praying to God in heaven:

<sup>43</sup> "You lost your temper with us, holding nothing back. You chased us and cut us down without mercy.

<sup>51</sup> When I see what's happened to the young women in the city, the pain breaks my heart.

<sup>54</sup> Then the rains came and filled the pit. The water rose over my head. I said, 'It's all over.'

4 <sup>1</sup> Oh, oh, oh...How gold is treated like dirt, the finest gold thrown out with the garbage, Priceless jewels scattered all over, jewels loose in the gutters.

<sup>5</sup> People used to the finest cuisine forage for food in the streets. People used to the latest in fashions pick through the trash for something to wear.

<sup>6</sup> The evil guilt of my dear people was worse than the sin of Sodom--The city was destroyed in a flash, and no one around to help.

<sup>7</sup> The splendid and sacred nobles once glowed with health. Their bodies were robust and ruddy, their beards like carved stone.

<sup>10</sup> Nice and kindly women boiled their own children for supper. This was the only food in town when my dear people were broken.

<sup>16</sup> GOD himself scattered them. No longer does he look out for them. He has nothing to do with the priests; he cares nothing for the elders.

<sup>17</sup> We watched and watched, wore our eyes out looking for help. And nothing. We mounted our lookouts and looked for the help that never showed up.

<sup>18</sup> They tracked us down, those hunters. It wasn't safe to go out in the street. Our end was near, our days numbered. We were doomed.

<sup>19</sup> They came after us faster than eagles in flight, pressed us hard in the mountains, ambushed us in the desert.

<sup>20</sup> Our king, our life's breath, the anointed of GOD, was caught in their traps--Our king under whose protection we always said we'd live.

<sup>21</sup> Celebrate while you can, O Edom! Live it up in Uz! For it won't be long before you drink this cup, too. You'll find out what it's like to drink God's wrath, Get drunk on God's wrath and wake up with nothing, stripped naked.

<sup>22</sup> And that's it for you, Zion. The punishment's complete. You won't have to go through this exile again. But Edom, your time is coming: He'll punish your evil life, put all your sins on display.

5 <sup>1</sup> "Remember, GOD, all we've been through. Study our plight, the black mark we've made in history.

<sup>2</sup> Our precious land has been given to outsiders, our homes to strangers.

<sup>3</sup> Orphans we are, not a father in sight, and our mothers no better than widows.

<sup>4</sup> We have to pay to drink our own water. Even our firewood comes at a price.

<sup>5</sup> We're nothing but slaves, bullied and bowed, worn out and without any rest.

<sup>6</sup> We sold ourselves to Assyria and Egypt just to get something to eat.

<sup>7</sup> Our parents sinned and are no more,
and now we're paying for the wrongs they did.

<sup>8</sup> Slaves rule over us; there's no escape from their grip.

<sup>9</sup> We risk our lives to gather food in the bandit-infested desert.

<sup>10</sup> Our skin has turned black as an oven, dried out like old leather from the famine.

<sup>11</sup> Our wives were raped in the streets in Zion, and our virgins in the cities of Judah.

<sup>12</sup> They hanged our princes by their hands, dishonored our elders.

women's work, mere boys forced to do men's work.

<sup>14</sup> The city gate is empty of wise elders.
Music from the young is heard no more.

<sup>15</sup> All the joy is gone from our hearts.
Our dances have turned into dirges.

<sup>22</sup> As it is, you've cruelly disowned us. You've been so very angry with us."

Ezekiel

1 <sup>1</sup> When I was thirty years of age, I was living with the exiles on the Kebar River. On the fifth day of the fourth month, the sky opened up and I saw visions of God.

<sup>2</sup> (It was the fifth day of the month in the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin <sup>3</sup> that GOD's Word came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, on the banks of the Kebar River in the country of Babylon. GOD's hand came upon him that day.)

<sup>5</sup> Within the fire were what looked like four creatures vibrant with life. Each had the form of a human being, <sup>6</sup> but each also had four faces and four wings.

<sup>7</sup> Their legs were as sturdy and straight as columns, but their feet were hooved like those of a calf and sparkled from the fire like burnished bronze.

<sup>8</sup> On all four sides under their wings they had human hands. All four had both faces and wings, <sup>9</sup> with the wings touching one another. They turned neither one way nor the other; they went straight forward.

touching the creature on either side; the other pair of wings covered its body.

<sup>12</sup> Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit went, they went. They didn't turn as they went.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit went, they went, the wheels sticking right with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>21</sup> When the creatures went, the wheels went; when the creatures stopped, the wheels stopped; when the creatures lifted off, the wheels lifted off, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup> Over the heads of the living creatures was something like a dome, shimmering like a sky full of cut glass, vaulted over their heads.

<sup>28</sup> The way a rainbow springs out of the sky on a rainy day--that's what it was like.

It turned out to be the Glory of GOD!
When I saw all this, I fell to my knees, my face to the ground. Then I heard a voice.

2 <sup>1</sup> It said, "Son of man, stand up. I have something to say to you."

<sup>2</sup> The moment I heard the voice, the Spirit entered me and put me on my feet. As he spoke to me, I listened.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "Son of man, I'm sending you to the family of Israel, a rebellious nation if there ever was one. They and their ancestors have fomented rebellion right up to the present.

<sup>6</sup> But don't be afraid of them, son of man, and don't be afraid of anything they say. Don't be afraid when living among them is like stepping on thorns or finding scorpions in your bed. Don't be afraid of their mean words or their hard looks. They're a bunch of rebels.

<sup>7</sup> Your job is to speak to them. Whether they listen is not your concern. They're hardened rebels.

<sup>9</sup> When I looked he had his hand stretched out to me, and in the hand a book, a scroll.

<sup>10</sup> He unrolled the scroll. On both sides, front and back, were written lamentations and mourning and doom.

3<sup>1</sup> He told me, "Son of man, eat what you see. Eat this book. Then go and speak to the family of Israel."

<sup>2</sup> As I opened my mouth, he gave me the scroll to eat, <sup>3</sup> saying, "Son of man, eat this book that I am giving you. Make a full meal of it!" So I ate it. It tasted so good--just like honey.

<sup>4</sup> Then he told me, "Son of man, go to the family of Israel and speak my Message.

<sup>5</sup> Look, I'm not sending you to a people who speak a hard-to-learn language with words you can hardly pronounce.

<sup>6</sup> If I had sent you to such people, their ears would have perked up and they would have listened immediately.

<sup>7</sup> "But it won't work that way with the family of Israel. They won't listen to you because they won't listen to me. They are, as I said, a hard case, hardened in their sin.

<sup>8</sup> But I'll make you as hard in your way as they are in theirs.

<sup>9</sup> I'll make your face as hard as rock, harder than granite. Don't let them intimidate you. Don't be afraid of them, even though they're a bunch of rebels."

<sup>10</sup> Then he said, "Son of man, get all these words that I'm giving you inside you. Listen to them obediently. Make them your own.

<sup>11</sup> And now go. Go to the exiles, your people, and speak. Tell them, 'This is the Message of GOD, the Master.' Speak your piece, whether they listen or not."

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit picked me up. Behind me I heard a great commotion--"Blessed be the Glory of GOD in his Sanctuary!"

<sup>13</sup> --the wings of the living creatures beating against each other, the whirling wheels, the rumble of a great earthquake.

<sup>14</sup> The Spirit lifted me and took me away. I went bitterly and angrily. I didn't want to go. But GOD had me in his grip.

<sup>15</sup> I arrived among the exiles who lived near the Kebar River at Tel Aviv. I came to where they were living and sat there for seven days, appalled.

<sup>16</sup> At the end of the seven days, I received this Message from GOD:

<sup>17</sup> "Son of man, I've made you a watchman for the family of Israel. Whenever you hear me say something, warn them for me.

<sup>18</sup> If I say to the wicked, 'You are going to die,' and you don't sound the alarm warning them that it's a matter of life or death, they will die and it will be your fault. I'll hold you responsible.

<sup>19</sup> But if you warn the wicked and they keep right on sinning anyway, they'll most certainly die for their sin, but [you] won't die. You'll have saved your life.

<sup>20</sup> "And if the righteous turn back from living righteously and take up with evil when I step in and put them in a hard place, they'll die. If you haven't warned them, they'll die because of their sins, and none of the right things they've done will count for anything--and I'll hold you responsible.

<sup>21</sup> But if you warn these righteous people not to sin and they listen to you, they'll live because they took the warning--and again, you'll have saved your life."

<sup>22</sup> GOD grabbed me by the shoulder and said, "Get up. Go out on the plain. I want to talk with you."

<sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out on the plain. I couldn't believe my eyes: the Glory of GOD! Right there! It was like the Glory I had seen at the Kebar River. I fell to the ground, prostrate.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit entered me and put me on my feet. He said, "Go home and shut the door behind you."

<sup>25</sup> And then something odd: "Son of man: They'll tie you hand and foot with ropes so you can't leave the house.

<sup>26</sup> I'll make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so you won't be able to talk and tell the people what they're doing wrong, even though they are a bunch of rebels.

<sup>27</sup> "But then when the time is ripe, I'll free your tongue and you'll say, 'This is what GOD, the Master, says: ...' From then on it's up to them. They can listen or not listen, whichever they like. They are a bunch of rebels!

4 <sup>1</sup> "Now, son of man, take a brick and place it before you. Draw a picture of the city Jerusalem on it.

<sup>2</sup> Then make a model of a military siege against the brick: Build siege walls, construct a ramp, set up army camps, lay in battering rams around it.

<sup>3</sup> Then get an iron skillet and place it upright between you and the city--an iron wall. Face the model: The city shall be under siege and you shall be the besieger. This is a sign to the family of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> "Next lie on your left side and place the sin of the family of Israel on yourself. You will bear their sin for as many days as you lie on your side.

<sup>5</sup> The number of days you bear their sin will match the number of years of their sin, namely, 390. For 390 days you will bear the sin of the family of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> "Then, after you have done this, turn over and lie down on your right side and bear the sin of the family of Judah. Your assignment this time is to lie there for forty days, a day for each year of their sin.

<sup>8</sup> "I will tie you up with ropes, tie you so you can't move or turn over until you have finished the days of the siege.

<sup>9</sup> "Next I want you to take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, dried millet and spelt, and mix them in a bowl to make a flat bread. This is your food ration for the 390 days you lie on your side.

<sup>10</sup> Measure out about half a pound for each day and eat it on schedule.

<sup>11</sup> Also measure out your daily ration of about a pint of water and drink it on schedule.

<sup>12</sup> Eat the bread as you would a muffin. Bake the muffins out in the open where everyone can see you, using dried human dung for fuel."

<sup>13</sup> GOD said, "This is what the people of Israel are going to do: Among the pagan nations where I will drive them, they will eat foods that are strictly taboo to a holy people."

<sup>14</sup> I said, "GOD, my Master! Never! I've never contaminated myself with food like that. Since my youth I've never eaten anything forbidden by law, nothing found dead or violated by wild animals. I've never taken a single bite of forbidden food."

<sup>15</sup> "All right," he said. "I'll let you bake your bread over cow dung instead of human dung."

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to me, "Son of man, I'm going to cut off all food from Jerusalem. The people will live on starvation rations, worrying where the next meal's coming from, scrounging for the next drink of water.

<sup>17</sup> Famine conditions. People will look at one another, see nothing but skin and bones, and shake their heads. This is what sin does."

5 <sup>1</sup> "Now, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a straight razor, shaving your head and your beard. Then, using a set of balancing scales, divide the hair into thirds.

<sup>2</sup> When the days of the siege are over, take one-third of the hair and burn it inside the city. Take another third, chop it into bits with the sword and sprinkle it around the city. The final third you'll throw to the wind. Then I'll go after them with a sword.

<sup>6</sup> But she rebelled against my laws and ordinances, rebelled far worse than the nations ranged around her--sheer wickedness!--refused my guidance, ignored my directions.

<sup>7</sup> "Therefore this is what GOD, the Master, says: You've been more headstrong and willful than any of the nations around you, refusing my guidance, ignoring my directions. You've sunk to the gutter level of those around you.

<sup>8</sup> "Therefore this is what GOD, the Master, says: I'm setting myself against you--yes, against you, Jerusalem. I'm going to punish you in full sight of the nations.

<sup>9</sup> Because of your disgusting no-god idols, I'm going to do something to you that I've never done before and will never do again:

<sup>11</sup> "Therefore, as sure as I am the living God--Decree of GOD, the Master-

-because you've polluted my Sanctuary with your obscenities and disgusting no-god idols, I'm pulling out. Not an ounce of pity will I show you.

<sup>12</sup> A third of your people will die of either disease or hunger inside the city, a third will be killed outside the city, and a third will be thrown to the winds and chased by killers.

<sup>13</sup> "Only then will I calm down and let my anger cool. Then you'll know that I was serious about this all along, that I'm a jealous God and not to be trifled with.

<sup>14</sup> "When I get done with you, you'll be a pile of rubble. Nations who walk by will make coarse jokes.

<sup>15</sup> When I finish my angry punishment and searing rebukes, you'll be reduced to an object of ridicule and mockery, turned into a horror story circulating among the surrounding nations. I, GOD, have spoken.

<sup>16</sup> "When I shoot my lethal famine arrows at you, I'll shoot to kill. Then I'll step up the famine and cut off food supplies.

<sup>17</sup> Famine and more famine--and then I'll send in the wild animals to finish off your children. Epidemic disease, unrestrained murder, death--and I will have sent it! I, GOD, have spoken."

6 <sup>1</sup> Then the Word of GOD came to me:

<sup>3</sup> 'O Mountains of Israel, listen to the Message of GOD, the Master. GOD, the Master, speaks to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I'm about to destroy your sacred god and goddess shrines.

<sup>4</sup> I'll level your altars, bust up your sun-god pillars, and kill your people as they bow down to your no-god idols.

<sup>5</sup> I'll stack the dead bodies of Israelites in front of your idols and then scatter your bones around your shrines.

<sup>6</sup> Every place where you've lived, the towns will be torn down and the pagan shrines demolished--altars busted up, idols smashed, all your custom-made sun-god pillars in ruins.

<sup>7</sup> Corpses everywhere you look! Then you'll know that I am GOD.

<sup>8</sup> "But I'll let a few escape the killing as you are scattered through other lands and nations.

<sup>10</sup> They'll know that I am GOD. They'll know that my judgment against them was no empty threat.

<sup>11</sup> "This is what GOD, the Master, says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, yell out, "No, no, no!" because of all the evil obscenities rife in Israel. They're going to be killed, dying of hunger, dying of disease--

<sup>13</sup> They'll realize that I am GOD when they see their people's corpses strewn over and around all their ruined sex-and-religion shrines on the bare hills and in the lush fertility groves, in all the places where they indulged their sensual rites.

<sup>14</sup> I'll bring my hand down hard on them, demolish the country wherever they live, turn it into wasteland from one end to the other, from the wilderness to Riblah. Then they'll know that I am GOD!"

7 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Word came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "You, son of man--GOD, the Master, has this Message for the land of Israel: "Endtime. The end of business as usual for everyone.

<sup>3</sup> It's all over. The end is upon you. I've launched my anger against you. I've issued my verdict on the way you live. I'll make you pay for your disgusting obscenities.

<sup>8</sup> Soon now I'll pour my wrath on you, pay out my anger against you, Render my verdict on the way you've lived, make you pay for your disgusting obscenities.

<sup>9</sup> I won't look the other way, I won't feel sorry for you. I'll make you pay for the way you've lived. Your disgusting obscenities will boomerang on you. Then you'll realize that it is I, GOD, who has hit you.

<sup>12</sup> Time's up. Countdown: five, four, three, two...Buyer, don't crow; seller, don't worry: Judgment wrath has turned the world topsy-turvy.

<sup>13</sup> The bottom has dropped out of buying and selling. It will never be the same again. But don't fantasize an upturn in the market. The country is bankrupt because of its sins, and it's not going to get any better.

<sup>15</sup> On the open roads you're killed, or else you go home and die of hunger and disease. Either get murdered out in the country or die of sickness or hunger in town.

17 "Every hand hangs limp, every knee turns to rubber.

18 They dress in rough burlap--sorry scarecrows, Shifty and shamefaced, with their heads shaved bald.

19 "They throw their money into the gutters. Their hard-earned cash stinks like garbage. They find that it won't buy a thing they either want or need on Judgment Day. They tripped on money and fell into sin.

20 Proud and pretentious with their jewels, they deck out their vile and vulgar no-gods in finery. I'll make those god-obscenities a stench in their nostrils.

21 I'll give away their religious junk--strangers will pick it up for free, the godless spit on it and make jokes.

22 I'll turn my face so I won't have to look as my treasured place and people are violated, As violent strangers walk in and desecrate place and people--

<sup>27</sup> The king holds his head in despair; the prince is devastated. The common people are paralyzed. Gripped by fear, they can't move. I'll deal with them where they are, judge them on their terms. They'll know that I am GOD.'" "

8 <sup>1</sup> In the sixth year, in the sixth month and the fifth day, while I was sitting at home meeting with the leaders of Judah, it happened that the hand of my Master, GOD, gripped me.

<sup>2</sup> When I looked, I was astonished. What I saw looked like a man--from the waist down like fire and from the waist up like highly burnished bronze.

<sup>3</sup> He reached out what looked like a hand and grabbed me by the hair. The Spirit swept me high in the air and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the Temple's inside court where the image of the sex goddess that makes God so angry had been set up.

<sup>4</sup> Right before me was the Glory of the God of Israel, exactly like the vision I had seen out on the plain.

<sup>5</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, look north." I looked north and saw it: Just north of the entrance loomed the altar of the sex goddess, Asherah, that makes God so angry.

<sup>7</sup> He brought me to the door of the Temple court. I looked and saw a gaping hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Son of man, dig through the wall." I dug through the wall and came upon a door.

<sup>9</sup> He said, "Now walk through the door and take a look at the obscenities they're engaging in."

<sup>10</sup> I entered and looked. I couldn't believe my eyes: Painted all over the walls were pictures of reptiles and animals and monsters--the whole pantheon of Egyptian gods and goddesses--being worshiped by Israel.

<sup>11</sup> In the middle of the room were seventy of the leaders of Israel, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing in the middle. Each held his censer with the incense rising in a fragrant cloud.

<sup>12</sup> He said, "Son of man, do you see what the elders are doing here in the dark, each one before his favorite god-picture? They tell themselves, 'GOD doesn't see us. GOD has forsaken the country.'"

<sup>14</sup> He took me to the entrance at the north gate of the Temple of GOD. I saw women sitting there, weeping for Tammuz, the Babylonian fertility god.

<sup>15</sup> He said, "Have you gotten an eyeful, son of man? You're going to see worse yet."

<sup>16</sup> Finally, he took me to the inside court of the Temple of GOD. There between the porch and the altar were about twenty-five men. Their backs were to GOD's Temple. They were facing east, bowing in worship to the sun.

<sup>17</sup> He said, "Have you seen enough, son of man? Isn't it bad enough that Judah engages in these outrageous obscenities? They fill the country with violence and now provoke me even further with their obscene gestures.

<sup>18</sup> That's it. They have an angry God on their hands! From now on, no mercy. They can shout all they want, but I'm not listening."

9 <sup>1</sup> Then I heard him call out loudly, "Executioners, come! And bring your deadly weapons with you."

<sup>3</sup> The Glory of the God of Israel ascended from his usual place above the cherubim-angels, moved to the threshold of the Temple, and called to the man with the writing case who was dressed in linen:

<sup>5</sup> I listened as he went on to address the executioners: "Follow him through the city and kill. Feel sorry for no one. Show no compassion."

<sup>7</sup> He told the executioners, "Desecrate the Temple. Fill it with corpses. Then go out and continue the killing."

<sup>8</sup> So they went out and struck the city. While the massacre went forward, I was left alone. I fell on my face in prayer: "Oh, oh, GOD, my Master! Are you going to kill everyone left in Israel in this pouring out of your anger on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup> He said, "The guilt of Israel and Judah is enormous. The land is swollen with murder. The city is bloated with injustice. They all say, 'GOD has forsaken the country. He doesn't see anything we do.'

<sup>10</sup> Well, I do see, and I'm not feeling sorry for any of them. They're going to pay for what they've done."

10 <sup>1</sup> When I next looked, oh! Above the dome over the heads of the cherubim-angels was what looked like a throne, sky-blue, like a sapphire!

<sup>2</sup> GOD said to the man dressed in linen, "Enter the place of the wheels under the cherubim-angels. Fill your hands with burning coals from beneath the cherubim and scatter them over the city." I watched as he entered.

<sup>3</sup> The cherubim were standing on the south side of the Temple when the man entered. A cloud filled the inside courtyard.

<sup>4</sup> Then the Glory of GOD ascended from the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the Temple. The cloud filled the Temple. Court and Temple were both filled with the blazing presence of the Glory of GOD.

<sup>5</sup> And the sound! The wings of the cherubim were audible all the way to the outer court--the sound of the voice was like The Strong God in thunder.

<sup>11</sup> When they moved, they went in any of the four directions but in a perfectly straight line. Where the cherubim went, the wheels went straight ahead.

<sup>12</sup> The cherubim were full of eyes in their backs, hands, and wings. The wheels likewise were full of eyes.

<sup>13</sup> I heard the wheels called "wheels within wheels."

<sup>15</sup> Then the cherubim ascended. They were the same living creatures I had seen at the Kebar River.

<sup>16</sup> When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved. When the cherubim spread their wings to take off from the ground, the wheels stayed right with them.

<sup>17</sup> When the cherubim stopped, the wheels stopped. When the cherubim rose, the wheels rose, because the spirit of the living creatures was also in the wheels.

<sup>21</sup> Each had four faces and four wings. Under their wings was what looked like human hands.

11 <sup>1</sup> Then the Spirit picked me up and took me to the gate of the Temple that faces east. There were twenty-five men standing at the gate. I recognized the leaders, Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit of GOD came upon me and told me what to say: "This is what GOD says: 'That's a fine public speech, Israel, but I know what you are thinking.

<sup>8</sup> You fear war, but war is what you're going to get. I'm bringing war against you.

<sup>9</sup> I'm throwing you out of this city, giving you over to foreigners, and punishing you good.

<sup>10</sup> You'll be killed in battle. I'll carry out judgment on you at the borders of Israel. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>11</sup> This city will not be your soup pot and you won't be the choice pieces of meat in it either. Hardly. I will carry out judgment on you at the borders of Israel

<sup>12</sup> and you'll realize that I am GOD, for you haven't followed my statutes and ordinances. Instead of following my ways, you've sunk to the level of the laws of the nations around you."

<sup>13</sup> Even while I was preaching, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. I fell down, face to the ground, and prayed loudly, "O Master, GOD! Will you completely wipe out what's left of Israel?"

<sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers--I mean the whole people of Israel who are in exile with you--are the people of whom the citizens of Jerusalem are saying, 'They're in the far country, far from GOD. This land has been given to us to own.'

<sup>16</sup> "Well, tell them this: 'This is your Message from GOD, the Master. True, I sent you to the far country and scattered you through other lands. All the same, I've provided you a temporary sanctuary in the countries where you've gone.

<sup>18</sup> You'll come back and clean house, throw out all the rotten images and obscene idols.

<sup>19</sup> I'll give you a new heart. I'll put a new spirit in you. I'll cut out your stone heart and replace it with a red-blooded, firm-muscled heart.

<sup>20</sup> Then you'll obey my statutes and be careful to obey my commands. You'll be my people! I'll be your God!

<sup>21</sup> "But not those who are self-willed and addicted to their rotten images and obscene idols! I'll see that they're paid in full for what they've done.' Decree of GOD, the Master."

<sup>22</sup> Then the cherubim spread their wings, with the wheels beside them and the Glory of the God of Israel hovering over them.

<sup>23</sup> The Glory of GOD ascended from within the city and rested on the mountain to the east of the city.

<sup>24</sup> Then, still in the vision given me by the Spirit of God, the Spirit took me and carried me back to the exiles in Babylon. And then the vision left me.

12 <sup>1</sup> God's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, you're living with a bunch of rebellious people. They have eyes but don't see a thing, they have ears but don't hear a thing. They're rebels all.

<sup>3</sup> So, son of man, pack up your exile duffel bags. Leave in broad daylight with everyone watching and go off, as if into exile. Maybe then they'll understand what's going on, rebels though they are.

<sup>6</sup> In full sight of the people, put the bundle on your shoulder and walk out into the night. Cover your face so you won't have to look at what you'll never see again. I'm using you as a sign for the family of Israel."

<sup>7</sup> I did exactly as he commanded me. I got my stuff together and brought it out in the street where everyone could see me, bundled it up the way someone being taken off into exile would, and then, as the sun went down, made a hole in the wall of the house with my hands. As it grew dark and as they watched, I left, throwing my bundle across my shoulders.

<sup>8</sup> The next morning GOD spoke to me:

<sup>9</sup> "Son of man, when anyone in Israel, that bunch of rebels, asks you, 'What are you doing?'

<sup>10</sup> Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says that this Message especially concerns the prince in Jerusalem--Zedekiah--but includes all the people of Israel.'

<sup>11</sup> "Also tell them, 'I am drawing a picture for you. As I am now doing, it will be done to all the people of Israel. They will go into exile as captives.'

<sup>12</sup> "The prince will put his bundle on his shoulders in the dark and leave. He'll dig through the wall of the house, covering his face so he won't have to look at the land he'll never see again.

<sup>14</sup> I'll scatter to the four winds those who helped him escape, along with his troops, and many will die in battle.

<sup>15</sup> They'll realize that I am GOD when I scatter them among foreign countries.

<sup>16</sup> "I'll permit a few of them to escape the killing, starvation, and deadly sickness so that they can confess among the foreign countries all the disgusting obscenities they've been involved in. They will realize that I am GOD."

<sup>17</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>18</sup> "Son of man, eat your meals shaking in your boots, drink your water trembling with fear.

Message: 'You'll eat your meals shaking in your boots and drink your water in terror because your land is going to be stripped bare as punishment for the brutality rampant in it.

<sup>20</sup> All the cities and villages will be emptied out and the fields destroyed. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.'"

<sup>21</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>22</sup> "Son of man, what's this proverb making the rounds in the land of Israel that says, 'Everything goes on the same as ever; all the prophetic warnings are false alarms'?

<sup>23</sup> "Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says, This proverb's going to have a short life!' "Tell them, 'Time's about up. Every warning is about to come true.

<sup>25</sup> I, GOD, am doing the speaking. What I say happens. None of what I say is on hold. What I say, I'll do--and soon, you rebels!' Decree of God the Master."

<sup>26</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>27</sup> "Son of man, do you hear what Israel is saying: that the alarm the prophet raises is for a long time off, that he's preaching about the far-off future?"

<sup>28</sup> Well, tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says, "Nothing of what I say is on hold. What I say happens.'" Decree of GOD, the Master."

13 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, preach against the prophets of Israel who are making things up out of their own heads and calling it 'prophesying.' "Preach to them the real thing. Tell them, 'Listen to GOD's Message!'

<sup>6</sup> All they do is fantasize comforting illusions and preach lying sermons. They say 'GOD says...'when GOD hasn't so much as breathed in their direction. And yet they stand around thinking that something they said is going to happen.

<sup>7</sup> "Haven't you fantasized sheer nonsense? Aren't your sermons tissues of lies, saying 'GOD says...'when I've done nothing of the kind?

<sup>8</sup> Therefore--and this is the Message of GOD, the Master, remember--I'm dead set against prophets who substitute illusions for visions and use sermons to tell lies.

<sup>9</sup> I'm going to ban them from the council of my people, remove them from membership in Israel, and outlaw them from the land of Israel. Then you'll realize that I am GOD, the Master.

<sup>10</sup> "The fact is that they've lied to my people. They've said, 'No problem; everything's just fine,' when things are not at all fine. When people build a wall, they're right behind them slapping on whitewash.

<sup>11</sup> Tell those who are slapping on the whitewash, 'When a torrent of rain comes and the hailstones crash down and the hurricane sweeps in

<sup>12</sup> and the wall collapses, what's the good of the whitewash that you slapped on so liberally, making it look so good?'

<sup>13</sup> "And that's exactly what will happen. I, GOD, the Master, say so: 'I'll let the hurricane of my wrath loose, a torrent of my hailstone-anger.'

<sup>14</sup> I'll make that wall you've slapped with whitewash collapse. I'll level it to the ground so that only the foundation stones will be left. And in the ruin you'll all die. You'll realize then that I am GOD.

<sup>15</sup> "I'll dump my wrath on that wall, all of it, and on those who plastered it with whitewash. I will say to them, There is no wall, and those who did such a good job of whitewashing it wasted their time,

<sup>16</sup> those prophets of Israel who preached to Jerusalem and announced all their visions telling us things were just fine when they weren't at all fine. Decree of GOD, the Master.'

<sup>18</sup> Say 'Doom' to the women who sew magic bracelets and head scarves to suit every taste, devices to trap souls. Say,

'Will you kill the souls of my people, use living souls to make yourselves rich and popular?

<sup>19</sup> You have profaned me among my people just to get ahead yourselves, used me to make yourselves look good--killing souls who should never have died and coddling souls who shouldn't live. You've lied to people who love listening to lies.'

<sup>20</sup> "Therefore GOD says, 'I am against all the devices and techniques you use to hunt down souls. I'll rip them out of your hands. I'll free the souls you're trying to catch.

<sup>21</sup> I'll rip your magic bracelets and scarves to shreds and deliver my people from your influence so they'll no longer be victimized by you. That's how you'll come to realize that I am GOD.

<sup>22</sup> "'Because you've confounded and confused good people, unsuspecting and innocent people, with your lies, and because you've made it easy for others to persist in evil so that it wouldn't even dawn on them to turn to me so I could save them, <sup>23</sup> as of now you're finished. No more delusion-mongering from you, no more sermonic lies. I'm going to rescue my people from your clutches. And you'll realize that I am GOD."

14 <sup>1</sup> Some of the leaders of Israel approached me and sat down with me.

<sup>3</sup> "Son of Man, these people have installed idols in their hearts. They have embraced the wickedness that will ruin them. Why should I even bother with their prayers?

<sup>4</sup> Therefore tell them, 'The Message of GOD, the Master: All in Israel who install idols in their hearts and embrace the wickedness that will ruin them and still have the gall to come to a prophet, be on notice: I, GOD, will step in and personally answer them as they come dragging along their mob of idols.

<sup>5</sup> I am ready to go to work on the hearts of the house of Israel, all of whom have left me for their idols.'

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore, say to the house of Israel: 'GOD, the Master, says, Repent! Turn your backs on your no-god idols. Turn your backs on all your outrageous obscenities.

<sup>7</sup> To every last person from the house of Israel, including any of the resident aliens who live in Israel--all who turn their backs on me and embrace idols, who install the wickedness that will ruin them at the center of their lives and then have the gall to go to the prophet to ask me questions--I, GOD, will step in and give the answer myself.

<sup>8</sup> I'll oppose those people to their faces, make an example of them--a warning lesson--and get rid of them so you will realize that I am GOD.

<sup>9</sup> "If a prophet is deceived and tells these idolaters the lies they want to hear, I, GOD, get blamed for those lies. He won't get by with it. I'll grab him by the scruff of the neck and get him out of there.

<sup>10</sup> They'll be equally guilty, the prophet and the one who goes to the prophet,

<sup>11</sup> so that the house of Israel will never again wander off my paths and make themselves filthy in their rebellions, but will rather be my people, just as I am their God. Decree of GOD, the Master."

<sup>12</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>13</sup> "Son of man, when a country sins against me by living faithlessly and I reach out and destroy its food supply by bringing on a famine, wiping out humans and animals alike, <sup>14</sup> even if Noah, Daniel, and Job--the Big Three--were alive at the time, it wouldn't do the population any good. Their righteousness would only save their own lives." Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>15</sup> "Or, if I make wild animals go through the country so that everyone has to leave and the country becomes wilderness and no one dares enter it anymore because of the wild animals, <sup>16</sup> even if these three men were living there, as sure as I am the living God, neither their sons nor daughters would be rescued, but only those three, and the country would revert to wilderness.

<sup>17</sup> "Or, if I bring war on that country and give the order, 'Let the killing begin!' leaving both people and animals dead, <sup>18</sup> even if those three men were alive at the time, as sure as I am the living God, neither sons nor daughters would be rescued, but only these three.

<sup>19</sup> "Or, if I visit a deadly disease on that country, pouring out my lethal anger, killing both people and animals, <sup>20</sup> and Noah, Daniel, and Job happened to be alive at the time, as sure as I am the living God, not a son, not a daughter, would be rescued. Only these three would be delivered because of their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> "Now then, that's the picture," says GOD, the Master, "once I've sent my four catastrophic judgments on Jerusalem--war, famine, wild animals, disease--to kill off people and animals alike. But look!

<sup>22</sup> Believe it or not, there'll be survivors. Some of their sons and daughters will be brought out. When they come out to you and their salvation is right in your face, you'll see for yourself the life they've been saved from. You'll know that this severe judgment I brought on Jerusalem was worth it, that it had to be.

<sup>23</sup> Yes, when you see in detail the kind of lives they've been living, you'll feel much better. You'll see the reason behind all that I've done in Jerusalem." Decree of GOD, the Master.

15 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, how would you compare the wood of a vine with the branches of any tree you'd find in the forest?

<sup>3</sup> Is vine wood ever used to make anything? Is it used to make pegs to hang things from?

ends burned off and the middle charred. Now is it good for anything?

<sup>5</sup> "Hardly. When it was whole it wasn't good for anything. Half-burned is no improvement. What's it good for?

<sup>6</sup> "So here's the Message of GOD, the Master: Like the wood of the vine I selected from among the trees of the forest and used as fuel for the fire, just so I'll treat those who live in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> I am dead set against them. Even though at one time they got out of the fire charred, the fire's going to burn them up. When I take my stand against them, you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Say this: 'The Message of GOD, the Master, to Jerusalem: You were born and bred among Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup> "'On the day you were born your umbilical cord was not cut, you weren't bathed and cleaned up, you weren't rubbed with salt, you weren't wrapped in a baby blanket.

<sup>5</sup> No one cared a fig for you. No one did one thing to care for you tenderly in these ways. You were thrown out into a vacant lot and left there, dirty and unwashed--a newborn nobody wanted.

<sup>6</sup> "'And then I came by. I saw you all miserable and bloody. Yes, I said to you, lying there helpless and filthy, "Live!

<sup>7</sup> Grow up like a plant in the field!" And you did. You grew up. You grew tall and matured as a woman, full-breasted, with flowing hair. But you were naked and vulnerable, fragile and exposed.

<sup>8</sup> "I came by again and saw you, saw that you were ready for love and a lover. I took care of you, dressed you and protected you. I promised you my love and entered the covenant of marriage with you. I, GOD, the Master, gave my word. You became mine.

<sup>9</sup> I gave you a good bath, washing off all that old blood, and anointed you with aromatic oils.

with honey and oil. You were absolutely stunning. You were a queen!

<sup>15</sup> "But your beauty went to your head and you became a common whore, grabbing anyone coming down the street and taking him into your bed.

<sup>16</sup> You took your fine dresses and made "tents" of them, using them as brothels in which you practiced your trade. This kind of thing should never happen, never.

<sup>17</sup> "And then you took all that fine jewelry I gave you, my gold and my silver, and made pornographic images of them for your brothels.

<sup>18</sup> You decorated your beds with fashionable silks and cottons, and perfumed them with my aromatic oils and incense.

<sup>19</sup> And then you set out the wonderful foods I provided--the fresh breads and fruits, with fine herbs and spices, which were my gifts to you--and you served them as delicacies in your whorehouses. That's what happened, says GOD, the Master.

<sup>20</sup> "And then you took your sons and your daughters, whom you had given birth to as my children, and you killed them, sacrificing them to idols. Wasn't it bad enough that you had become a whore?

<sup>21</sup> And now you're a murderer, killing my children and sacrificing them to idols.

<sup>23</sup> "And then to top off all your evil acts, you built your bold brothels in every town square. Doom! Doom to you, says GOD, the Master!

<sup>24</sup> At every major intersection you built your bold brothels and exposed your sluttish sex, spreading your legs for everyone who passed by.

<sup>25</sup> "And then you went international with your whoring.

<sup>26</sup> You fornicated with the Egyptians, seeking them out in their sex orgies. The more promiscuous you became, the angrier I got.

<sup>27</sup> Finally, I intervened, reduced your borders and turned you over to the rapacity of your enemies. Even the Philistine women--can you believe it?--were shocked at your sluttish life.

<sup>29</sup> You took on the Babylonians, a country of businessmen, and still you weren't satisfied.

<sup>31</sup> You built your bold brothels at every major intersection, opened up your whorehouses in every neighborhood, but you were different from regular whores in that you wouldn't accept a fee.

<sup>33</sup> And men commonly pay their whores. But you pay your lovers! You bribe men from all over to come to bed with you!

<sup>36</sup> I, GOD, the Master, say, Because you've been unrestrained in your promiscuity, stripped down for every lover, flaunting your sex, and because of your pornographic idols and all the slaughtered children you offered to them, <sup>37</sup> therefore, because of all this, I'm going to get all your lovers together, all those you've used for your own pleasure, the ones you loved and the ones you loathed. I'll assemble them as a courtroom of spectators around you. In broad daylight I'll strip you naked before them--they'll see what you [really] look like.

<sup>38</sup> Then I'll sentence you to the punishment for an adulterous woman and a murderous woman. I'll give you a taste of my wrath!

<sup>39</sup> "'I'll gather all your lovers around you and turn you over to them. They'll tear down your bold brothels and sex shrines. They'll rip off your clothes, take your jewels, and leave you naked and exposed. Then <sup>40</sup> they'll call for a mass meeting. The mob will stone you and hack you to pieces with their swords.

<sup>42</sup> By then my anger will be played out. My jealousy will subside.

<sup>43</sup> "'Because you didn't remember what happened when you were young but made me angry with all this behavior, I'll make you pay for your waywardness. Didn't you just exponentially compound your outrageous obscenities with all your sluttish ways?

<sup>44</sup> "Everyone who likes to use proverbs will use this one: "Like mother, like daughter."

<sup>47</sup> Haven't you lived just like they did? Haven't you engaged in outrageous obscenities just like they did? In fact, it didn't take you long to catch up and pass them!

<sup>48</sup> As sure as I am the living God!--Decree of GOD, the Master--your sister Sodom and her daughters never even came close to what you and your daughters have done.

<sup>50</sup> They put on airs and lived obscene lives. And you know what happened: I did away with them.

<sup>51</sup> ""And Samaria. Samaria didn't sin half as much as you. You've committed far more obscenities than she ever did. Why, you make your two sisters look good in comparison with what you've done!

actually made them look righteous. Aren't you ashamed? But you're going to have to live with it. What a reputation to carry into history: outsinning your two sisters!

<sup>53</sup> "But I'm going to reverse their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters. And--get this--[your] fortunes right along with them!

<sup>54</sup> Still, you're going to have to live with your shame. And by facing and accepting your shame, you're going to provide some comfort to your two sisters.

<sup>56</sup> Remember the days when you were putting on airs, acting so high and mighty, looking down on sister Sodom?

<sup>57</sup> That was before your evil ways were exposed. And now you're the butt of contempt, despised by the Edomite women, the Philistine women, and everybody else around.

<sup>58</sup> But you have to face it, to accept the shame of your obscene and vile life. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>59</sup> "GOD, the Master, says, I'll do to you just as you have already done, you who have treated my oath with contempt and broken the covenant.

<sup>60</sup> All the same, I'll remember the covenant I made with you when you were young and I'll make a new covenant with you that will last forever.

<sup>61</sup> You'll remember your sorry past and be properly contrite when you receive back your sisters, both the older and the younger. I'll give them to you as daughters, but not as participants in your covenant.

<sup>62</sup> I'll firmly establish my covenant with you and you'll know that I am GOD.

<sup>63</sup> You'll remember your past life and face the shame of it, but when I make atonement for you, make everything right after all you've done, it will leave you speechless." Decree of GOD, the Master.

17 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, make a riddle for the house of Israel. Tell them a story.

<sup>4</sup> broke off the top branch, Took it to a land of traders, and set it down in a city of shopkeepers.

<sup>5</sup> Then he took a cutting from the land and planted it in good, well-watered soil, like a willow on a riverbank.

<sup>6</sup> It sprouted into a flourishing vine, low to the ground. Its branches grew toward the eagle and the roots became established--A vine putting out shoots, developing branches.

<sup>7</sup> "There was another great eagle with a huge wingspan and thickly feathered. This vine sent out its roots toward him from the place where it was planted. Its branches reached out to him so he could water it from a long distance.

<sup>8</sup> It had been planted in good, well-watered soil, And it put out branches and bore fruit, and became a noble vine.

<sup>9</sup> "GOD, the Master, says, Will it thrive? Won't he just pull it up by the roots and leave the grapes to rot And the branches to shrivel up, a withered, dead vine? It won't take much strength or many hands to pull it up.

<sup>10</sup> Even if it's transplanted, will it thrive? When the hot east wind strikes it, won't it shrivel up? Won't it dry up and blow away from the place where it was planted?"

<sup>11</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>12</sup> "Tell this house of rebels, 'Do you get it? Do you know what this means?'
"Tell them, 'The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took its king and its leaders back to Babylon.

<sup>14</sup> to make sure that this kingdom stayed weak--didn't get any big ideas of itself--and kept the covenant with him so that it would have a future.

<sup>15</sup> ""But he rebelled and sent emissaries to Egypt to recruit horses and a big army. Do you think that's going to work? Are they going to get by with this? Does anyone break a covenant and get off scot-free?

<sup>16</sup> "As sure as I am the living God, this king who broke his pledge of loyalty and his covenant will die in that country, in Babylon.

<sup>17</sup> Pharaoh with his big army--all those soldiers!--won't lift a finger to fight for him when Babylon sets siege to the city and kills everyone inside.

<sup>18</sup> Because he broke his word and broke the covenant, even though he gave his solemn promise, because he went ahead and did all these things anyway, he won't escape.

<sup>19</sup> "Therefore, GOD, the Master, says, As sure as I am the living God, because the king despised my oath and broke my covenant, I'll bring the consequences crashing down on his head.

<sup>20</sup> I'll send out a search party and catch him. I'll take him to Babylon and have him brought to trial because of his total disregard for me.

<sup>21</sup> All his elite soldiers, along with the rest of the army, will be killed in battle, and whoever is left will be scattered to the four winds. Then you'll realize that I, GOD, have spoken.

<sup>22</sup> "GOD, the Master, says, I personally will take a shoot from the top of the towering cedar, a cutting from the crown of the tree, and plant it on a high and towering mountain, <sup>23</sup> on the high mountain of Israel. It will grow, putting out branches and fruit--a majestic cedar. Birds of every sort and kind will live under it. They'll build nests in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup> All the trees of the field will recognize that I, GOD, made the great tree small and the small tree great, made the green tree turn dry and the dry tree sprout green branches. I, GOD, said it--and I did it."

18 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to me:
<sup>2</sup> "What do you people mean by going around the country repeating the saying, The parents ate green apples, The children got stomachache?

<sup>3</sup> "As sure as I'm the living God, you're not going to repeat this saying in Israel any longer.

<sup>4</sup> Every soul--man, woman, child--belongs to me, parent and child alike. You die for your own sin, not another's.

<sup>7</sup> doesn't bully anyone, doesn't pile up bad debts, doesn't steal, doesn't refuse food to the hungry, doesn't refuse clothing to the ill-clad,

<sup>8</sup> doesn't exploit the poor, doesn't live by impulse and greed, doesn't treat one person better than another,

<sup>9</sup> But lives by my statutes and faithfully honors and obeys my laws. This person who lives upright and well shall live a full and true life. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>10</sup> "But if this person has a child who turns violent and murders and goes off and does any of these things,

<sup>11</sup> even though the parent has done none of them--eats at the pagan shrines, seduces his neighbor's spouse,

he'll die. And his death will be his own fault.

<sup>14</sup> "Now look: Suppose that this child has a child who sees all the sins done by his parent. The child sees them, but doesn't follow in the parent's footsteps--

<sup>15</sup> doesn't eat at the pagan shrines, doesn't worship the popular idols of Israel, doesn't seduce his neighbor's spouse,

<sup>16</sup> doesn't bully anyone, doesn't refuse to loan money, doesn't steal, doesn't refuse food to the hungry, doesn't refuse to give clothes to the ill-clad,

<sup>17</sup> doesn't live by impulse and greed, doesn't exploit the poor. He does what I say; he performs my laws and lives by my statutes. "This person will not die for the sins of the parent; he will live truly and well.

<sup>18</sup> But the parent will die for what the parent did, for the sins of--oppressing the weak, robbing brothers and sisters, doing what is dead wrong in the community.

<sup>19</sup> "Do you need to ask, 'So why does the child not share the guilt of the parent?' 'Isn't it plain? It's because the child did what is fair and right. Since the child was careful to do what is lawful and right, the child will live truly and well.

<sup>20</sup> The soul that sins is the soul that dies. The child does not share the guilt of the parent, nor the parent the guilt of the child. If you live upright and well, you get the credit; if you live a wicked life, you're guilty as charged.

<sup>21</sup> "But a wicked person who turns his back on that life of sin and keeps all my statutes, living a just and righteous life, he'll live, really live. He won't die.

<sup>22</sup> I won't keep a list of all the things he did wrong. He will live.

<sup>23</sup> Do you think I take any pleasure in the death of wicked men and women? Isn't it my pleasure that they turn around, no longer living wrong but living right--really living?

<sup>24</sup> "The same thing goes for a good person who turns his back on an upright life and starts sinning, plunging into the same vile obscenities that the wicked person practices. Will this person live? I don't keep a list of all the things this person did right, like money in the bank he can draw on. Because of his defection, because he accumulates sin, he'll die.

<sup>26</sup> If a good person turns away from his good life and takes up sinning, he'll die for it. He'll die for his own sin.

<sup>27</sup> Likewise, if a bad person turns away from his bad life and starts living a good life, a fair life, he will save his life.

<sup>28</sup> Because he faces up to all the wrongs he's committed and puts them behind him, he will live, really live. He won't die.

<sup>29</sup> "And yet Israel keeps on whining, 'That's not fair! God's not fair.' "I'm not fair, Israel? You're the ones who aren't fair.

<sup>30</sup> "The upshot is this, Israel: I'll judge each of you according to the way you live. So turn around! Turn your backs on your rebellious living so that sin won't drag you down.

<sup>31</sup> Clean house. No more rebellions, please. Get a new heart! Get a new spirit! Why would you choose to die, Israel?

<sup>4</sup> Nations sounded the alarm. He was caught in a trap. They took him with hooks and dragged him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> When the lioness saw she was luckless, that her hope for that cub was gone, She took her other cub and made him a strong young lion.

<sup>9</sup> They put a wooden collar on him and took him to the king of Babylon. No more would that voice be heard disturbing the peace in the mountains of Israel!

<sup>10</sup> Here's another way to put it: Your mother was like a vine in a vineyard, transplanted alongside streams of water, Luxurious in branches and grapes because of the ample water.

<sup>11</sup> It grew sturdy branches fit to be carved into a royal scepter. It grew high, reaching into the clouds. Its branches filled the horizon, and everyone could see it.

<sup>12</sup> Then it was ripped up in a rage and thrown to the ground. The hot east wind shriveled it up and stripped its fruit. The sturdy branches dried out, fit for nothing but kindling.

<sup>13</sup> Now it's a stick stuck out in the desert, a bare stick in a desert of death,

20 <sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, some of the leaders of Israel came to ask for guidance from GOD. They sat down before me.

<sup>2</sup> Then GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>3</sup> "Son of man, talk with the leaders of Israel. Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says, "Have you come to ask me questions? As sure as I am the living God, I'll not put up with questions from you. Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>4</sup> "Son of man, why don't [you] do it? Yes, go ahead. Hold them accountable.

Confront them with the outrageous obscenities of their parents.

<sup>5</sup> Tell them that GOD, the Master, says: "On the day I chose Israel, I revealed myself to them in the country of Egypt, raising my hand in a solemn oath to the people of Jacob, in which I said, "I am GOD, your personal God."

<sup>6</sup> On the same day that I raised my hand in the solemn oath, I promised them that I would take them out of the country of Egypt and bring them into a country that I had searched out just for them, a country flowing with milk and honey, a jewel of a country.

<sup>7</sup> "At that time I told them, "Get rid of all the vile things that you've become addicted to. Don't make yourselves filthy with the Egyptian no-god idols. I [alone] am GOD, your God."

<sup>8</sup> "But they rebelled against me, wouldn't listen to a word I said. None got rid of the vile things they were addicted to. They held on to the no-gods of Egypt as if for dear life. I seriously considered inflicting my anger on them in force right there in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> Then I thought better of it. I acted out of who I was, not by how I felt. And I acted in a way that would evoke honor, not blasphemy, from the nations around them, nations who had seen me reveal myself by promising to lead my people out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> And then I did it: I led them out of Egypt into the desert.

<sup>11</sup> "I gave them laws for living, showed them how to live well and obediently before me.

<sup>12</sup> I also gave them my weekly holy rest days, my "Sabbaths," a kind of signpost erected between me and them to show them that I, GOD, am in the business of making them holy.

<sup>13</sup> "But Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They didn't follow my statutes. They despised my laws for living well and obediently in the ways I had set out. And they totally desecrated my holy Sabbaths. I seriously considered unleashing my anger on them right there in the desert.

<sup>14</sup> But I thought better of it and acted out of who I was, not by what I felt, so that I might be honored and not blasphemed by the nations who had seen me bring them out.

<sup>15</sup> But I did lift my hand in a solemn oath there in the desert and promise them that I would not bring them into the country flowing with milk and honey that I had chosen for them, that jewel among all lands.

<sup>16</sup> I canceled my promise because they despised my laws for living obediently, wouldn't follow my statutes, and went ahead and desecrated my holy Sabbaths. They preferred living by their no-god idols.

<sup>18</sup> "Then I addressed myself to their children in the desert: "Don't do what your parents did. Don't take up their practices. Don't make yourselves filthy with their no-god idols.

<sup>19</sup> I myself am GOD, your God: Keep my statutes and live by my laws.

<sup>20</sup> Keep my Sabbaths as holy rest days, signposts between me and you, signaling that I am GOD, your God."

<sup>21</sup> "But the children also rebelled against me. They neither followed my statutes nor kept my laws for living upright and well. And they desecrated my Sabbaths. I seriously considered dumping my anger on them, right there in the desert.

<sup>22</sup> But I thought better of it and acted out of who I was, not by what I felt, so that I might be honored and not blasphemed by the nations who had seen me bring them out.

<sup>23</sup> "But I did lift my hand in solemn oath there in the desert, and swore that I would scatter them all over the world, disperse them every which way

<sup>24</sup> because they didn't keep my laws nor live by my statutes. They desecrated my Sabbaths and remained addicted to the no-god idols of their parents.

<sup>25</sup> Since they were determined to live bad lives, I myself gave them statutes that could not produce goodness and laws that did not produce life.

<sup>26</sup> I abandoned them. Filthy in the gutter, they perversely sacrificed their firstborn children in the fire. The very horror should have shocked them into recognizing that I am GOD.'

<sup>27</sup> "Therefore, speak to Israel, son of man. Tell them that GOD says, 'As if that wasn't enough, your parents further insulted me by betraying me.

<sup>28</sup> When I brought them into that land that I had solemnly promised with my upraised hand to give them, every time they saw a hill with a sex-and-religion shrine on it or a grove of trees where the sacred whores practiced, they were there, buying into the whole pagan system.

<sup>29</sup> I said to them, "What hill do you go to?" (It's still called "Whore Hills.")

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore, say to Israel, 'The Message of GOD, the Master: You're making your lives filthy by copying the ways of your parents. In repeating their vile practices, you've become whores yourselves.

<sup>31</sup> In burning your children as sacrifices, you've become as filthy as your no-god idols--as recently as today! "Am I going to put up with questions from people like you, Israel? As sure as I am the living God, I, GOD, the Master, refuse to be called into question by you!

<sup>32</sup> "What you're secretly thinking is never going to happen. You're thinking, "We're going to be like everybody else, just like the other nations. We're going to worship gods we can make and control."

<sup>33</sup> "As sure as I am the living God, says GOD, the Master, think again! With a mighty show of strength and a terrifying rush of anger, I will be King over you!

<sup>35</sup> I'll bring you to the desert of nations and haul you into court, where you'll be face to face with judgment.

<sup>36</sup> "As I faced your parents with judgment in the desert of Egypt, so I'll face you with judgment.

<sup>37</sup> I'll scrutinize and search every person as you arrive, and I'll bring you under the bond of the covenant.

<sup>38</sup> I'll cull out the rebels and traitors. I'll lead them out of their exile, but I won't bring them back to Israel. "Then you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>39</sup> "But you, people of Israel, this is the Message of GOD, the Master, to you: Go ahead, serve your no-god idols! But later, you'll think better of it and quit throwing filth and mud on me with your pagan offerings and no-god idols.

<sup>40</sup> For on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, I, GOD, the Master, tell you that the entire people of Israel will worship me. I'll receive them there with open arms. I'll demand your best gifts and offerings, all your holy sacrifices.

<sup>41</sup> What's more, I'll receive you as the best kind of offerings when I bring you back from all the lands and countries in which you've been scattered. I'll demonstrate in the eyes of the world that I am The Holy.

<sup>42</sup> When I return you to the land of Israel, the land that I solemnly promised with upraised arm to give to your parents, you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>43</sup> Then and there you'll remember all that you've done, the way you've lived that has made you so filthy--and you'll loathe yourselves.

<sup>44</sup> ""But, dear Israel, you'll also realize that I am GOD when I respond to you out of who I am, not by what I feel about the evil lives you've lived, the corrupt history you've compiled. Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>45</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>46</sup> "Son of man, face south. Let the Message roll out against the south. Prophecy against the wilderness forest of the south.

<sup>47</sup> "Tell the forest of the south, 'Listen to the Message of GOD! GOD, the Master, says, I'll set a fire in you that will burn up every tree, dead trees and live trees alike. Nobody will put out the fire. The whole country from south to north will be blackened by it.

<sup>48</sup> Everyone is going to see that I, GOD, started the fire and that it's not going to be put out.'"

<sup>49</sup> And I said, "O GOD, everyone is saying of me, 'He just makes up stories.'"

21 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, now face Jerusalem and let the Message roll out against the Sanctuary. Prophecy against the land of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> "When they ask you, 'Why all this groaning, this carrying on?' say, 'Because of the news that's coming. It'll knock the breath out of everyone. Hearts will stop cold, knees turn to rubber. Yes, it's coming. No stopping it. Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>8</sup> GOD's Message to me:

<sup>9</sup> "Son of man, prophesy. Tell them, 'The Master says: "'A sword! A sword! razor-sharp and polished, <sup>10</sup> Sharpened to kill, polished to flash like lightning! "'My child, you've despised the scepter of Judah by worshiping every tree-idol.

<sup>11</sup> "'The sword is made to glisten, to be held and brandished. It's sharpened and polished, ready to be brandished by the killer.'

<sup>12</sup> "Yell out and wail, son of man. The sword is against my people! The princes of Israel and my people--abandoned to the sword! Wring your hands! Tear out your hair!

<sup>13</sup> "'Testing comes. Why have you despised discipline? You can't get around it. Decree of GOD, the Master.'

<sup>14</sup> "So, prophesy, son of man! Clap your hands. Get their attention. Tell them that the sword's coming down once, twice, three times. It's a sword to kill, a sword for a massacre, A sword relentless, a sword inescapable--

<sup>18</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>23</sup> "To the Judah leaders, who themselves have sworn oaths, it will seem like a false divination, but he will remind them of their guilt, and so they'll be captured.

<sup>26</sup> GOD says, Take your royal crown off your head. No more "business as usual." The underdog will be promoted and the top dog will be demoted.

<sup>27</sup> Ruins, ruins, ruins! I'll turn the whole place into ruins. And ruins it will remain until the one comes who has a right to it. Then I'll give it to him.'

<sup>28</sup> "But, son of man, your job is to prophesy. Tell them, 'This is the Message from GOD, the Master, against the Ammonites and against their cruel taunts: "'A sword! A sword! Bared to kill, Sharp as a razor, flashing like lightning.

<sup>29</sup> Despite false sword propaganda circulated in Ammon, The sword will sever Ammonite necks, for whom it's punishment payday.

<sup>30</sup> Return the sword to the sheath! I'll judge you in your home country, in the land where you grew up.

<sup>31</sup> I'll empty out my wrath on you, breathe hot anger down your neck. I'll give you to vicious men skilled in torture.

<sup>32</sup> You'll end up as stove-wood. Corpses will litter your land. Not so much as a memory will be left of you. I, GOD, have said so."

22 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, are you going to judge this bloody city or not? Come now, are you going to judge her? Do it! Face her with all her outrageous obscenities.

<sup>4</sup> In all your killing, you've piled up guilt. In all your idol-making, you've become filthy. You've forced a premature end to your existence. I'll put you on exhibit as the scarecrow of the nations, the world's worst joke.

<sup>5</sup> From far and near they'll deride you as infamous in filth, notorious for chaos.

forgotten [me]. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>13</sup> "'Now look! I've clapped my hands, calling everyone's attention to your rapacious greed and your bloody brutalities.

<sup>14</sup> Can you stick with it? Will you be able to keep at this once I start dealing with you? "'I, GOD, have spoken. I'll put an end to this.

<sup>15</sup> I'll throw you to the four winds. I'll scatter you all over the world. I'll put a full stop to your filthy living.

<sup>16</sup> You will be defiled, spattered with your own mud in the eyes of the nations. And you'll recognize that I am GOD.'"

<sup>17</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>18</sup> "Son of man, the people of Israel are slag to me, the useless byproduct of refined copper, tin, iron, and lead left at the smelter--a worthless slag heap.

<sup>19</sup> So tell them, 'GOD, the Master, has spoken: Because you've all become worthless slag, you're on notice: I'll assemble you in Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> As men gather silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into a furnace and blow fire on it to melt it down, so in my wrath I'll gather you and melt you down.

<sup>21</sup> I'll blow on you with the fire of my wrath to melt you down in the furnace.

<sup>22</sup> As silver is melted down, you'll be melted down. That should get through to you. Then you'll recognize that I, GOD, have let my wrath loose on you.'"

<sup>23</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>24</sup> "Son of man, tell her, 'You're a land that during the time I was angry with you got no rain, not so much as a spring shower.

<sup>25</sup> The leaders among you became desperate, like roaring, ravaging lions killing indiscriminately. They grabbed and looted, leaving widows in their wake.

<sup>26</sup> "Your priests violated my law and desecrated my holy things. They can't tell the difference between sacred and secular. They tell people there's no difference between right and wrong. They're contemptuous of my holy Sabbaths, profaning me by trying to pull me down to their level.

<sup>28</sup> Your preachers cover up for the politicians by pretending to have received visions and special revelations. They say, "This is what GOD, the Master, says..." when GOD hasn't said so much as one word.

<sup>29</sup> Extortion is rife, robbery is epidemic, the poor and needy are abused, outsiders are kicked around at will, with no access to justice.'

<sup>30</sup> "I looked for someone to stand up for me against all this, to repair the defenses of the city, to take a stand for me and stand in the gap to protect this land so I wouldn't have to destroy it. I couldn't find anyone. Not one.

23 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.

<sup>3</sup> They became whores in Egypt, whores from a young age. Their breasts were fondled, their young bosoms caressed.

<sup>4</sup> The older sister was named Oholah, the younger was Oholibah. They were my daughters, and they gave birth to sons and daughters. "Oholah is Samaria and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> Her lust was unrestrained. She was a whore to the Assyrian elite. She compounded her filth with the idols of those to whom she gave herself in lust.

indignity, killed her. Among women her name became Shame--history's judgment on her.

<sup>11</sup> "Her sister Oholibah saw all this, but she became even worse than her sister in lust and whoring, if you can believe it.

<sup>12</sup> She also went crazy with lust for Assyrians: ambassadors and governors, military men smartly dressed and mounted on fine horses--the Assyrian elite.

<sup>13</sup> And I saw that she also had become incredibly filthy. Both women followed the same path.

<sup>18</sup> Then she went public with her fornication. She exhibited her sex to the world. "I turned my back on her just as I had on her sister.

<sup>19</sup> But that didn't slow her down. She went at her whoring harder than ever. She remembered when she was young, just starting out as a whore in Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> "Therefore, Oholibah, this is the Message from GOD, the Master: I will incite your old lovers against you, lovers you got tired of and left in disgust. I'll bring them against you from every direction, <sup>23</sup> Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all Assyrians--good-looking young men, ambassadors and governors, elite officers and celebrities--all of them mounted on fine, spirited horses.

<sup>24</sup> They'll come down on you out of the north, armed to the teeth, bringing chariots and troops from all sides. I'll turn over the task of judgment to them. They'll punish you according to their rules.

enslave your children--and anybody left over will be burned.

<sup>27</sup> I'll put a stop to your sluttish sex, the whoring life you began in Egypt. You won't look on whoring with fondness anymore. You won't think back on Egypt with stars in your eyes.

<sup>29</sup> They'll treat you hatefully, leave you publicly naked, your whore's body exposed in the cruel glare of the sun. Your sluttish lust

<sup>30</sup> will be exposed. Your lust has brought you to this condition because you whored with pagan nations and made yourself filthy with their no-god idols.

31 ""You copied the life of your sister. Now I'll let you drink the cup she drank.

32 ""This is the Message of GOD, the Master: ""You'll drink your sister's cup, a cup canyon-deep and ocean-wide. You'll be shunned and taunted as you drink from that cup, full to the brim.

33 You'll be falling-down-drunk and the tears will flow as you drink from that cup titanic with terror: It's the cup of your sister Samaria.

34 You'll drink it dry, then smash it to bits and eat the pieces, and end up tearing at your breasts. I've given the word--Decree of GOD, the Master.

35 ""Therefore GOD, the Master, says, Because you've forgotten all about me, pushing me into the background, you now must pay for what you've done--pay for your sluttish sex and whoring life.""

36 Then GOD said to me, "Son of man, will you confront Oholah and Oholibah with what they've done? Make them face their outrageous obscenities,

<sup>39</sup> The same day that they sacrificed their children to their idols, they walked into my Sanctuary and defiled it. That's what they did--in [my] house!

<sup>43</sup> "I said, 'She's burned out on sex!' but that didn't stop them. They kept banging on her doors night and day

<sup>48</sup> "'I'll put an end to sluttish sex in this country so that all women will be well warned and not copy you.

<sup>49</sup> You'll pay the price for all your obsessive sex. You'll pay in full for your promiscuous affairs with idols. And you'll realize that I am GOD, the Master."

24 <sup>1</sup> The Message of GOD came to me in the ninth year, the tenth month, and the tenth day of the month:

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, write down this date. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

<sup>6</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: "Doom to the city of murder, to the pot thick with scum, thick with a filth that can't be scoured. Empty the pot piece by piece; don't bother who gets what.

<sup>7</sup> "The blood from murders has stained the whole city; Blood runs bold on the street stones, with no one bothering to wash it off--

<sup>8</sup> Blood out in the open to public view to provoke my wrath, to trigger my vengeance.

<sup>9</sup> "Therefore, this is what GOD, the Master, says: "Doom to the city of murder! I, too, will pile on the wood.

<sup>10</sup> Stack the wood high, light the match, Cook the meat, spice it well, pour out the broth, and then burn the bones.

<sup>11</sup> Then I'll set the empty pot on the coals and heat it red-hot so the bronze glows, So the germs are killed and the corruption is burned off.

<sup>13</sup> "Your encrusted filth is your filthy sex. I wanted to clean you up, but you wouldn't let me. I'll make no more attempts at cleaning you up until my anger quiets down.

<sup>14</sup> I, GOD, have said it, and I'll do it. I'm not holding back. I've run out of compassion. I'm not changing my mind. You're getting exactly what's coming to you. Decree of GOD, the Master."

<sup>15</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>16</sup> "Son of man, I'm about to take from you the delight of your life--a real blow, I know. But, please, no tears.

<sup>17</sup> Keep your grief to yourself. No public mourning. Get dressed as usual and go about your work--none of the usual funeral rituals."

<sup>18</sup> I preached to the people in the morning. That evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I'd been told.

<sup>19</sup> The people came to me, saying, "Tell us why you're acting like this. What does it mean, anyway?"

<sup>20</sup> So I told them, "GOD's Word came to me, saying,

<sup>22</sup> "'Then you'll do exactly as I've done. You'll perform none of the usual funeral rituals.

<sup>23</sup> You'll get dressed as usual and go about your work. No tears. But your sins will eat away at you from within and you'll groan among yourselves.

<sup>24</sup> Ezekiel will be your example. The way he did it is the way you'll do it. "'When this happens you'll recognize that I am GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>26</sup> --on that very day a survivor will arrive and tell you what happened to the city.

<sup>27</sup> You'll break your silence and start talking again, talking to the survivor. Again, you'll be an example for them. And they'll recognize that I am GOD."

25 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>3</sup> Listen to the Message of GOD, the Master. This is what GOD has to say: Because you cheered when my Sanctuary was desecrated and the land of Judah was devastated and the people of Israel were taken into exile, <sup>4</sup> I'm giving you over to the people of the east. They'll move in and make themselves at home, eating the food right off your tables and drinking your milk.

<sup>5</sup> I'll turn your capital, Rabbah, into pasture for camels and all your villages into corrals for flocks. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>6</sup> "GOD, the Master, says, Because you clapped and cheered, venting all your malicious contempt against the land of Israel,

<sup>12</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: Because Edom reacted against the people of Judah in spiteful revenge and was so criminally vengeful against them, <sup>13</sup> therefore I, GOD, the Master, will oppose Edom and kill the lot of them, people and animals both. I'll waste it--corpses stretched from Teman to Dedan.

<sup>14</sup> I'll use my people Israel to bring my vengeance down on Edom. My wrath will fuel their action. And they'll realize it's my vengeance. Decree of GOD the Master."

<sup>15</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: Because the Philistines were so spitefully vengeful--all those centuries of stored-up malice!--and did their best to destroy Judah, <sup>16</sup> therefore I, GOD, the Master, will oppose the Philistines and cut down the Cretans and anybody else left along the seacoast.

26 <sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, God's Message came to me:

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, Tyre cheered when they got the news of Jerusalem, exclaiming, "'Good! The gateway city is smashed! Now all her business comes my way. She's in ruins and I'm in clover.'

<sup>3</sup> "Therefore, GOD, the Master, has this to say: "'I'm against you, Tyre, and I'll bring many nations surging against you, as the waves of the sea surging against the shore.

<sup>6</sup> Her surrounding villages will be butchered. Then they'll realize that I am GOD.'

<sup>11</sup> Horses will stampede through the streets. Your people will be slaughtered and your huge pillars strewn like matchsticks.

<sup>12</sup> The invaders will steal and loot--all that wealth, all that stuff! They'll knock down your fine houses and dump the stone and timber rubble into the sea.

<sup>13</sup> And your parties, your famous good-time parties, will be no more. No more songs, no more lutes.

<sup>14</sup> I'll reduce you to an island of bare rock, good for nothing but drying fishnets. You'll never be rebuilt. I, GOD, have said so. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>16</sup> "All up and down the coast, the princes will come down from their thrones, take off their royal robes and fancy clothes, and wrap themselves in sheer terror. They'll sit on the ground, shaken to the core, horrified at you.

<sup>17</sup> Then they'll begin chanting a funeral song over you: "Sunk! Sunk to the bottom of the sea, famous city on the sea! Power of the seas, you and your people, Intimidating everyone who lived in your shadows.

<sup>18</sup> But now the islands are shaking at the sound of your crash, Ocean islands in tremors from the impact of your fall.'

<sup>19</sup> "The Message of GOD, the Master: 'When I turn you into a wasted city, a city empty of people, a ghost town, and when I bring up the great ocean deeps and cover you, <sup>20</sup> then I'll push you down among those who go to the grave, the long, long dead. I'll make you live there, in the grave in old ruins, with the buried dead. You'll never see the land of the living again.

<sup>21</sup> I'll introduce you to the terrors of death and that'll be the end of you. They'll send out search parties for you, but you'll never be found. Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

27 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>12</sup> "Tarshish carried on business with you because of your great wealth. They worked for you, trading in silver, iron, tin, and lead for your products.

<sup>13</sup> "Greece, Tubal, and Meshech did business with you, trading slaves and bronze for your products.

14 ""Beth-togarmah traded work horses, war horses, and mules for your products.

15 ""The people of Rhodes did business with you. Many far-off islands traded with you in ivory and ebony.

16 ""Edom did business with you because of all your goods. They traded for your products with agate, purple textiles, embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

17 ""Judah and Israel did business with you. They traded for your products with premium wheat, millet, honey, oil, and balm.

18 ""Damascus, attracted by your vast array of products and well-stocked warehouses, carried on business with you, trading in wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.

19 ""Danites and Greeks from Uzal traded with you, using wrought iron, cinnamon, and spices.

20 ""Dedan traded with you for saddle blankets.

21 ""Arabia and all the Bedouin sheiks of Kedar traded lambs, rams, and goats with you.

22 ""Traders from Sheba and Raamah in South Arabia carried on business with you in premium spices, precious stones, and gold.

23 ""Haran, Canneh, and Eden from the east in Assyria and Media traded with you, 24 bringing elegant clothes, dyed textiles, and elaborate carpets to your bazaars.

25 ""The great Tarshish ships were your freighters, importing and exporting. Oh, it was big business for you, trafficking the seaways!

26 ""Your sailors row mightily, taking you into the high seas. Then a storm out of the east shatters your ship in the ocean deep.

<sup>35</sup> Everyone on shore looks on in terror. The hair of kings stands on end, their faces drawn and haggard!

<sup>36</sup> The buyers and sellers of the world throw up their hands: This horror can't happen! Oh, this [has] happened!"

28 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me,
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, 'This is what GOD, the Master, says: "'Your heart is proud, going around saying, "I'm a god. I sit on God's divine throne, ruling the sea"--You, a mere mortal, not even close to being a god, A mere mortal trying to be a god.

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore, GOD, the Master, says: "Because you're acting like a god, pretending to [be] a god, <sup>7</sup> I'm giving fair warning: I'm bringing strangers down on you, the most vicious of all nations. They'll pull their swords and make hash of your reputation for knowing it all. They'll puncture the balloon of your god-pretensions.

<sup>8</sup> They'll bring you down from your self-made pedestal and bury you in the deep blue sea.

<sup>9</sup> Will you protest to your assassins, "You can't do that! I'm a god"? To them you're a mere mortal. They're killing a man, not a god.

<sup>11</sup> Because I said so. Decree of GOD, the Master.'" GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>12</sup> "Son of man, raise a funeral song over the king of Tyre. Tell him, A Message from GOD, the Master: "You had everything going for you.

<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, God's garden. You were dressed in splendor, your robe studded with jewels: Carnelian, peridot, and moonstone, beryl, onyx, and jasper, Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald, all in settings of engraved gold. A robe was prepared for you the same day you were created.

<sup>14</sup> You were the anointed cherub. I placed you on the mountain of God. You strolled in magnificence among the stones of fire.

<sup>15</sup> From the day of your creation you were sheer perfection... and then imperfection--evil!--was detected in you.

<sup>16</sup> In much buying and selling you turned violent, you sinned! I threw you, disgraced, off the mountain of God. I threw you out--you, the anointed angel-cherub. No more strolling among the gems of fire for you!

<sup>17</sup> Your beauty went to your head. You corrupted wisdom by using it to get worldly fame. I threw you to the ground, sent you sprawling before an audience of kings and let them gloat over your demise.

<sup>18</sup> By sin after sin after sin, by your corrupt ways of doing business, you defiled your holy places of worship. So I set a fire around and within you. It burned you up. I reduced you to ashes. All anyone sees now when they look for you is ashes, a pitiful mound of ashes.

<sup>22</sup> Say, 'Message from GOD, the Master: "'Look! I'm against you, Sidon. I intend to be known for who I truly am among you.' They'll know that I am GOD when I set things right and reveal my holy presence.

<sup>23</sup> I'll order an epidemic of disease there, along with murder and mayhem in the streets. People will drop dead right and left, as war presses in from every side. Then they'll realize that I mean business, that I am GOD.

<sup>24</sup> "No longer will Israel have to put up with their thistle-and-thorn neighbors Who have treated them so contemptuously. And they also will realize that I am GOD."

<sup>25</sup> GOD, the Master, says, "When I gather Israel from the peoples among whom they've been scattered and put my holiness on display among them with all the nations looking on, then they'll live in their own land that I gave to my servant Jacob.

<sup>26</sup> They'll live there in safety. They'll build houses. They'll plant vineyards, living in safety. Meanwhile, I'll bring judgment on all the neighbors who have treated them with such contempt. And they'll realize that I am GOD."

29 <sup>1</sup> In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>3</sup> Tell him, 'GOD, the Master, says:

"Watch yourself, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I'm dead set against you, You lumbering old dragon, lolling and flaccid in the Nile, Saying, "It's my Nile. I made it. It's mine."

<sup>4</sup> I'll set hooks in your jaw; I'll make the fish of the Nile stick to your scales. I'll pull you out of the Nile, with all the fish stuck to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> Then I'll drag you out into the desert, you and all the Nile fish sticking to your scales. You'll lie there in the open, rotting in the sun, meat to the wild animals and carrion birds.

<sup>6</sup> Everybody living in Egypt will realize that I am GOD. "Because you've been a flimsy reed crutch to Israel

<sup>7</sup> so that when they gripped you, you splintered and cut their hand, and when they leaned on you, you broke and sent them sprawling

<sup>8</sup> --Message of GOD, the Master--I'll bring war against you, do away with people and animals alike, <sup>9</sup> and turn the country into an empty desert so they'll realize that I am GOD.

"Because you said, "It's my Nile. I made it. It's all mine," <sup>10</sup> therefore I am against you and your rivers. I'll reduce Egypt to an empty, desolate wasteland all the way from Migdol in the north to Syene and the border of Ethiopia in the south.

<sup>11</sup> Not a human will be seen in it, nor will an animal move through it. It'll be just empty desert, empty for forty years.

<sup>15</sup> She'll take her place at the bottom of the ladder and there she'll stay, never to climb that ladder again, never to be a world power again.

<sup>16</sup> Never again will Israel be tempted to rely on Egypt. All she'll be to Israel is a reminder of old sin. Then Egypt will realize that I am GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>17</sup> In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>18</sup> "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, has worn out his army against Tyre. They've worked their fingers to the bone and have nothing to show for it.

<sup>20</sup> He's been working for me all these years without pay. This is his pay: Egypt. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>21</sup> "'And then I'll stir up fresh hope in Israel--the dawn of deliverance!--and I'll give you, Ezekiel, bold and confident words to speak. And they'll realize that I am GOD.'"

30 <sup>1</sup> GOD, the Master, spoke to me:

<sup>11</sup> He and his army, the most brutal of nations, shall be used to destroy the country. They'll brandish their swords and fill Egypt with corpses.

<sup>12</sup> I'll dry up the Nile and sell off the land to a bunch of crooks. I'll hire outsiders to come in and waste the country, strip it clean. I, GOD, have said so.

<sup>13</sup> "And now this is what GOD, the Master, says: "I'll smash all the no-god idols; I'll topple all those huge statues in Memphis. The prince of Egypt will be gone for good, and in his place I'll put [fear]--fear throughout Egypt!

<sup>17</sup> The young warriors of On and Pi-beseth will be killed and the cities exiled.

<sup>19</sup> That's how I'll punish Egypt, and that's how she'll realize that I am GOD."

<sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>21</sup> "Son of man, I've broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And look! It hasn't been set. No splint has been put on it so the bones can knit and heal, so he can use a sword again.

<sup>22</sup> "Therefore, GOD, the Master, says, I am dead set against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will go ahead and break his other arm--both arms broken! There's no way he'll ever swing a sword again.

<sup>25</sup> I'll make the arms of the king of Babylon strong, but the arms of Pharaoh shall go limp. The Egyptians will realize that I am GOD when I place my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. He'll wield it against Egypt

<sup>26</sup> and I'll scatter Egyptians all over the world. Then they'll realize that I am GOD."

31 <sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>5</sup> It was immense, dwarfing all the trees in the forest--Thick boughs, long limbs, roots delving deep into earth's waters.

<sup>7</sup> It was stunning in its majesty--the reach of its branches! the depth of its water-seeking roots!

<sup>8</sup> Not a cedar in God's garden came close to it. No pine tree was anything like it. Mighty oaks looked like bushes growing alongside it. Not a tree in God's garden was in the same class of beauty.

<sup>11</sup> I turned it over to a world-famous leader to call its evil to account. I'd had enough.

<sup>14</sup> ""That marks the end of the "big tree" nations. No more trees nourished from the great deep, no more cloud-piercing trees, no more earth-born trees taking over. They're all slated for death--back to earth, right along with men and women, for whom it's "dust to dust."

<sup>15</sup> ""The Message of GOD, the Master: On the day of the funeral of the Big Tree, I threw the great deep into mourning. I stopped the flow of its rivers, held back great seas, and wrapped the Lebanon mountains in black. All the trees of the forest fainted and fell.

<sup>16</sup> I made the whole world quake when it crashed, and threw it into the underworld to take its place with all else that gets buried. All the trees of Eden and the finest and best trees of Lebanon, well-watered, were relieved <sup>17</sup> --they had descended to the underworld with it--along with everyone who had lived in its shade and all who had been killed.

<sup>18</sup> "'Which of the trees of Eden came anywhere close to you in splendor and size? But you're slated to be cut down to take your place in the underworld with the trees of Eden, to be a dead log stacked with all the other dead logs, among the other uncircumcised who are dead and buried. "'This means Pharaoh, the pompous old goat. "'Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

32 <sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year, on the first day of the twelfth month, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>3</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: "I'm going to throw my net over you--many nations will get in on this operation--and haul you out with my dragnet.

<sup>4</sup> I'll dump you on the ground out in an open field And bring in all the crows and vultures for a sumptuous carrion lunch. I'll invite wild animals from all over the world to gorge on your guts.

<sup>8</sup> I'll turn out every light in the sky above you and put your land in the dark. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>9</sup> I'll shake up everyone worldwide when I take you off captive to strange and far-off countries.

<sup>10</sup> I'll shock people with you. Kings will take one look and shudder. I'll shake my sword and they'll shake in their boots. On the day you crash, they'll tremble, thinking, "That could be me!"

<sup>13</sup> I'll destroy all their livestock that graze along the river. Neither human foot nor animal hoof will muddy those waters anymore.

<sup>14</sup> I'll clear their springs and streams, make their rivers flow clean and smooth. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>15</sup> When I turn Egypt back to the wild and strip her clean of all her abundant produce, When I strike dead all who live there, then they'll realize that I am GOD.'

<sup>17</sup> In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the first month, GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>21</sup> All the big men and their helpers down among the dead and buried will greet them: 'Welcome to the grave of the heathen! Join the ranks of the victims of war!'

<sup>22</sup> "Assyria is there and its congregation, the whole nation a cemetery.

<sup>23</sup> Their graves are in the deepest part of the underworld, a congregation of graves, all killed in battle, these people who terrorized the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup> "Elam is there in all her pride, a cemetery--all killed in battle, dumped in her heathen grave with the dead and buried, these people who terrorized the land of the living. They carry their shame with them, along with the others in the grave.

<sup>26</sup> "Meshech-tubal is there in all her pride, a cemetery in uncircumcised ground, dumped in with those slaughtered in battle--just deserts for terrorizing the land of the living. Now they carry their shame down with the others in deep earth. They're in the section set aside for the slain.

<sup>28</sup> "And you, Egypt, will be dumped in a heathen grave, along with all the rest, in the section set aside for the slain.

Sidonians who carry their shame to their graves--all that terror they spread with their brute power!--dumped in unhallowed ground with those killed in battle, carrying their shame with the others headed for deep earth.

<sup>31</sup> "Pharaoh will see them all and, pompous old goat that he is, take comfort in the company he'll keep--Pharaoh and his slaughtered army. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>32</sup> "I used him to spread terror in the land of the living and now I'm dumping him in heathen ground with those killed by the sword--Pharaoh and all his pomp. Decree of GOD, the Master."

33 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, speak to your people. Tell them: 'If I bring war on this land and the people take one of their citizens and make him their watchman,

<sup>3</sup> and if the watchman sees war coming and blows the trumpet, warning the people,

<sup>4</sup> then if anyone hears the sound of the trumpet and ignores it and war comes and takes him off, it's his own fault.

<sup>5</sup> He heard the alarm, he ignored it--it's his own fault. If he had listened, he would have saved his life.

<sup>6</sup> "'But if the watchman sees war coming and doesn't blow the trumpet, warning the people, and war comes and takes anyone off, I'll hold the watchman responsible for the bloodshed of any unwarned sinner.'

<sup>7</sup> "You, son of man, are the watchman. I've made you a watchman for Israel. The minute you hear a message from me, warn them.

<sup>8</sup> If I say to the wicked, 'Wicked man, wicked woman, you're on the fast track to death!' and you don't speak up and warn the wicked to change their ways, the wicked will die unwarned in their sins and I'll hold you responsible for their bloodshed.

<sup>9</sup> But if you warn the wicked to change their ways and they don't do it, they'll die in their sins well-warned and at least you will have saved your own life.

<sup>10</sup> "Son of man, speak to Israel. Tell them: 'You've said, "Our rebellions and sins are weighing us down. We're wasting away. How can we go on living?"'

<sup>11</sup> "Tell them, 'As sure as I am the living God, I take no pleasure from the death of the wicked. I want the wicked to change their ways and live. Turn your life around! Reverse your evil ways! Why die, Israel?'

<sup>12</sup> "There's more, son of man. Tell your people: 'A good person's good life won't save him when he decides to rebel, and a bad person's bad life won't prevent him from repenting of his rebellion. A good person who sins can't expect to live when he chooses to sin.

<sup>13</sup> It's true that I tell good people, "Live! Be alive!" But if they trust in their good deeds and turn to evil, that good life won't amount to a hill of beans. They'll die for their evil life.

<sup>14</sup> "On the other hand, if I tell a wicked person, "You'll die for your wicked life," and he repents of his sin and starts living a righteous and just life

<sup>15</sup> --being generous to the down-and-out, restoring what he had stolen, cultivating life-nourishing ways that don't hurt others--he'll live. He won't die.

<sup>16</sup> None of his sins will be kept on the books. He's doing what's right, living a good life. He'll live.

17 "'Your people say, "The Master's way isn't fair." But it's the way they're living that isn't fair.

18 When good people turn back from living good lives and plunge into sin, they'll die for it.

19 And when a wicked person turns away from his wicked life and starts living a just and righteous life, he'll come alive.

20 "'Still, you keep on saying, "The Master's way isn't fair." We'll see, Israel. I'll decide on each of you exactly according to how you live.'"

21 In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city's fallen."

22 The evening before the survivor arrived, the hand of GOD had been on me and restored my speech. By the time he arrived in the morning I was able to speak. I could talk again.

<sup>23</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>24</sup> "Son of man, those who are living in the ruins back in Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man and he owned the whole country. But there are lots of us. Our ownership is even more certain.'

<sup>25</sup> "So tell them, 'GOD the Master says, You eat flesh that contains blood, you worship no-god idols, you murder at will--and you expect to own this land?

<sup>26</sup> You rely on the sword, you engage in obscenities, you indulge in sex at random--anyone, anytime. And you still expect to own this land?'

<sup>27</sup> "Tell them this, Ezekiel: 'The Message of GOD, the Master. As sure as I am the living God, those who are still alive in the ruins will be killed. Anyone out in the field I'll give to wild animals for food.'

Anyone hiding out in mountain forts and caves will die of disease.

<sup>28</sup> I'll make this country an empty wasteland--no more arrogant bullying! Israel's mountains will become dangerously desolate. No one will dare pass through them.'

<sup>29</sup> "They'll realize that I am GOD when I devastate the country because of all the obscenities they've practiced.

<sup>30</sup> "As for you, son of man, you've become quite the talk of the town. Your people meet on street corners and in front of their houses and say, 'Let's go hear the latest news from GOD.'

<sup>31</sup> They show up, as people tend to do, and sit in your company. They listen to you speak, but don't do a thing you say. They flatter you with compliments, but all they care about is making money and getting ahead.

<sup>32</sup> To them you're merely entertainment--a country singer of sad love songs, playing a guitar. They love to hear you talk, but nothing comes of it.

<sup>33</sup> "But when all this happens--and it is going to happen!--they'll realize that a prophet was among them."

34 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherd-leaders of Israel. Yes, prophesy! Tell those shepherds, 'GOD, the Master, says: Doom to you shepherds of Israel, feeding your own mouths! Aren't shepherds supposed to feed sheep?

<sup>3</sup> You drink the milk, you make clothes from the wool, you roast the lambs, but you don't feed the sheep.

<sup>4</sup> You don't build up the weak ones, don't heal the sick, don't doctor the injured, don't go after the strays, don't look for the lost. You bully and badger them.

<sup>6</sup> Scattered--[my] sheep!--exposed and vulnerable across mountains and hills. My sheep scattered all over the world, and no one out looking for them!

<sup>7</sup> "Therefore, shepherds, listen to the Message of GOD:

<sup>8</sup> As sure as I am the living God--Decree of GOD, the Master--because my sheep have been turned into mere prey, into easy meals for wolves because you shepherds ignored them and only fed yourselves,

<sup>9</sup> listen to what GOD has to say:

<sup>10</sup> "Watch out! I'm coming down on the shepherds and taking my sheep back. They're fired as shepherds of my sheep. No more shepherds who just feed themselves! I'll rescue my sheep from their greed. They're not going to feed off my sheep any longer!

<sup>11</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: From now on, I [myself] am the shepherd. I'm going looking for them.

<sup>14</sup> I'll lead them into lush pasture so they can roam the mountain pastures of Israel, graze at leisure, feed in the rich pastures on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> And I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep. I myself will make sure they get plenty of rest.

<sup>17</sup> "And as for you, my dear flock, I'm stepping in and judging between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

<sup>19</sup> Why do the rest of my sheep have to make do with grass that's trampled down and water that's been muddied?

<sup>20</sup> "Therefore, GOD, the Master, says: I myself am stepping in and making things right between the plump sheep and the skinny sheep.

<sup>21</sup> Because you forced your way with shoulder and rump and butted at all the weaker animals with your horns till you scattered them all over the hills, <sup>22</sup> I'll come in and save my dear flock, no longer let them be pushed around. I'll step in and set things right between one sheep and another.

<sup>24</sup> And I, GOD, will be their God. My servant David will be their prince. I, GOD, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup> "I'll make a covenant of peace with them. I'll banish fierce animals from the country so the sheep can live safely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest.

<sup>26</sup> I'll make them and everything around my hill a blessing. I'll send down plenty of rain in season--showers of blessing!

<sup>27</sup> The trees in the orchards will bear fruit, the ground will produce, they'll feel content and safe on their land, and they'll realize that I am GOD when I break them out of their slavery and rescue them from their slave masters.

<sup>29</sup> I'll give them rich gardens, lavish in vegetables--no more living half-starved, no longer taunted by outsiders.

<sup>30</sup> "They'll know, beyond doubting, that I, GOD, am their God, that I'm with them and that they, the people Israel, are my people. Decree of GOD, the Master:

<sup>31</sup> You are my dear flock, the flock of my pasture, my human flock, And I am your God. Decree of GOD, the Master."

35 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, confront Mount Seir. Prophecy against it!

<sup>3</sup> Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says:
"'I'm coming down hard on you, Mount Seir. I'm stepping in and turning you to a pile of rubble.

<sup>4</sup> I'll reduce your towns to piles of rocks. There'll be nothing left of you. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>5</sup> "'I'm doing this because you've kept this age-old grudge going against Israel: You viciously attacked them when they were already down, looking their final punishment in the face.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, as sure as I am the living God, I'm lining you up for a real bloodbath. Since you loved blood so much, you'll be chased by rivers of blood.

<sup>7</sup> I'll reduce Mount Seir to a heap of rubble. No one will either come or go from that place!

<sup>8</sup> I'll blanket your mountains with corpses. Massacred bodies will cover your hills and fill up your valleys and ditches.

<sup>9</sup> I'll reduce you to ruins and all your towns will be ghost towns--population zero. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>10</sup> "Because you said, "These two nations, these two countries, are mine. I'm taking over" (even though GOD is right there watching, right there listening), <sup>11</sup> I'll turn your hate-bloated anger and rage right back on you. You'll know I mean business when I bring judgment on you.

<sup>12</sup> You'll realize then that I, GOD, have overheard all the vile abuse you've poured out against the mountains of Israel, saying, "They're roadkill and we're going to eat them up."

<sup>14</sup> "This is the verdict of GOD, the Master: With the whole earth applauding, I'll demolish you.

<sup>15</sup> Since you danced in the streets, thinking it was so wonderful when Israel's inheritance was demolished, I'll give you the same treatment: demolition. Mount Seir demolished--yes, every square inch of Edom. Then they'll realize that I am GOD!

36 <sup>1</sup> "And now, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel. Say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to GOD's Message.

<sup>2</sup> GOD, the Master, says, Because the enemy crowed over you, "Good! Those old hills are now ours!"

<sup>3</sup> now here is a prophecy in the name of GOD, the Master: Because nations came at you from all sides, ripping and plundering, hauling pieces of you off every which way, and you've become the butt of cheap gossip and jokes,

<sup>4</sup> therefore, Mountains of Israel, listen to the Message of GOD, the Master. My Message to mountains and hills, to ditches and valleys, to the heaps of rubble and the emptied towns that are looted for plunder and turned into jokes by all the surrounding nations:

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, says GOD, the Master, now I'm speaking in a fiery rage against the rest of the nations, but especially against Edom, who in an orgy of violence and shameless insolence robbed me of my land, grabbed it for themselves.'

<sup>6</sup> "Therefore prophesy over the land of Israel, preach to the mountains and hills, to every ditch and valley: 'The Message of GOD, the Master: Look! Listen! I'm angry--and I care. I'm speaking to you because you've been humiliated among the nations.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore I, GOD, the Master, am telling you that I've solemnly sworn that the nations around you are next. It's their turn to be humiliated.

<sup>8</sup> "But you, Mountains of Israel, will burst with new growth, putting out branches and bearing fruit for my people Israel. My people are coming home!

<sup>9</sup> Do you see? I'm back again. I'm on your side. You'll be plowed and planted as before!

<sup>10</sup> I'll see to it that your population grows all over Israel, that the towns fill up with people, that the ruins are rebuilt.

<sup>11</sup> I'll make this place teem with life--human and animal. The country will burst into life, life, and more life, your towns and villages full of people just as in the old days. I'll treat you better than I ever have. And you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>12</sup> I'll put people over you--my own people Israel! They'll take care of you and you'll be their inheritance. Never again will you be a harsh and unforgiving land to them.

<sup>13</sup> "GOD, the Master, says: Because you have a reputation of being a land that eats people alive and makes women barren, <sup>14</sup> I'm now telling you that you'll never eat people alive again nor make women barren. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>15</sup> And I'll never again let the taunts of outsiders be heard over you nor permit nations to look down on you. You'll no longer be a land that makes women barren. Decree of GOD, the Master.'"

<sup>16</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>17</sup> "Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they polluted it by the way they lived. I poured out my anger on them because of the polluted blood they poured out on the ground.

<sup>18</sup> And so I got thoroughly angry with them polluting the country with their wanton murders and dirty gods.

<sup>19</sup> I kicked them out, exiled them to other countries. I sentenced them according to how they had lived.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever they went, they gave me a bad name. People said, 'These are GOD's people, but they got kicked off his land.'

<sup>22</sup> "Therefore, tell Israel, 'Message of GOD, the Master: I'm not doing this for you, Israel. I'm doing it for me, to save my character, my holy name, which you've blackened in every country where you've gone.

<sup>23</sup> I'm going to put my great and holy name on display, the name that has been ruined in so many countries, the name that you blackened wherever you went. Then the nations will realize who I really am, that I am GOD, when I show my holiness through you so that they can see it with their own eyes.

<sup>24</sup> "For here's what I'm going to do: I'm going to take you out of these countries, gather you from all over, and bring you back to your own land.

<sup>26</sup> I'll give you a new heart, put a new spirit in you. I'll remove the stone heart from your body and replace it with a heart that's God-willed, not self-willed.

<sup>27</sup> I'll put my Spirit in you and make it possible for you to do what I tell you and live by my commands.

<sup>28</sup> You'll once again live in the land I gave your ancestors. You'll be my people! I'll be your God!

<sup>29</sup> "I'll pull you out of that stinking pollution. I'll give personal orders to the wheat fields, telling them to grow bumper crops. I'll send no more famines.

<sup>30</sup> I'll make sure your fruit trees and field crops flourish. Other nations won't be able to hold you in contempt again because of famine.

<sup>31</sup> "And then you'll think back over your terrible lives--the evil, the shame--and be thoroughly disgusted with yourselves, realizing how badly you've lived--all those obscenities you've carried out.

<sup>32</sup> "I'm not doing this for you. Get this through your thick heads! Shame on

you. What a mess you made of things, Israel!

<sup>33</sup> "Message of GOD, the Master: On the day I scrub you clean from all your filthy living, I'll also make your cities livable. The ruins will be rebuilt.

<sup>34</sup> The neglected land will be worked again, no longer overgrown with weeds and thistles, worthless in the eyes of passersby.

<sup>35</sup> People will exclaim, "Why, this weed patch has been turned into a Garden of Eden! And the ruined cities, smashed into oblivion, are now thriving!"

<sup>36</sup> The nations around you that are still in existence will realize that I, GOD, rebuild ruins and replant empty waste places. I, GOD, said so, and I'll do it.

<sup>37</sup> "Message of GOD, the Master: Yet again I'm going to do what Israel asks. I'll increase their population as with a flock of sheep.

<sup>38</sup> Like the milling flocks of sheep brought for sacrifices in Jerusalem during the appointed feasts, the ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. And they'll realize that I am GOD."

37 <sup>1</sup> GOD grabbed me. GOD's Spirit took me up and sat me down in the middle of an open plain strewn with bones.

<sup>2</sup> He led me around and among them--a lot of bones! There were bones all over the plain--dry bones, bleached by the sun.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I said, "Master GOD, only you know that."

<sup>4</sup> He said to me, "Prophecy over these bones: 'Dry bones, listen to the Message of GOD!'"

<sup>5</sup> GOD, the Master, told the dry bones, "Watch this: I'm bringing the breath of life to you and you'll come to life.

<sup>6</sup> I'll attach sinews to you, put meat on your bones, cover you with skin, and breathe life into you. You'll come alive and you'll realize that I am GOD!"

<sup>7</sup> I prophesied just as I'd been commanded. As I prophesied, there was a sound and, oh, rustling! The bones moved and came together, bone to bone.

<sup>8</sup> I kept watching. Sinews formed, then muscles on the bones, then skin stretched over them. But they had no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath. Prophecy, son of man. Tell the breath, 'GOD, the Master, says, Come from the four winds. Come, breath. Breathe on these slain bodies. Breathe life!'"

<sup>10</sup> So I prophesied, just as he commanded me. The breath entered them and they came alive! They stood up on their feet, a huge army.

<sup>11</sup> Then God said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Listen to what they're saying: 'Our bones are dried up, our hope is gone, there's nothing left of us.'

<sup>12</sup> "Therefore, prophesy. Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says: I'll dig up your graves and bring you out alive--O my people! Then I'll take you straight to the land of Israel.'

<sup>13</sup> When I dig up graves and bring you out as my people, you'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>14</sup> I'll breathe my life into you and you'll live. Then I'll lead you straight back to your land and you'll realize that I am GOD. I've said it and I'll do it. GOD's Decree.'"

<sup>15</sup> GOD's Message came to me:

<sup>16</sup> "You, son of man: Take a stick and write on it, 'For Judah, with his Israelite companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph--Ephraim's stick, together with all his Israelite companions.'

<sup>17</sup> Then tie the two sticks together so that you're holding one stick.

<sup>18</sup> "When your people ask you, 'Are you going to tell us what you're doing?'

<sup>19</sup> tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says, Watch me! I'll take the Joseph stick that is in Ephraim's hand, with the tribes of Israel connected with him, and lay the Judah stick on it. I'll make them into one stick. I'm holding one stick.'

<sup>20</sup> "Then take the sticks you've inscribed and hold them up so the people can see them.

<sup>21</sup> Tell them, 'GOD, the Master, says, Watch me! I'm taking the Israelites out of the nations in which they've been exiled.'

I'll gather them in from all directions and bring them back home.

<sup>22</sup> I'll make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and give them one king--one king over all of them. Never again will they be divided into two nations, two kingdoms.

<sup>23</sup> Never again will they pollute their lives with their no-god idols and all those vile obscenities and rebellions. I'll save them out of all their old sinful haunts. I'll clean them up. They'll be my people! I'll be their God!

<sup>24</sup> My servant David will be king over them. They'll all be under one shepherd. "They'll follow my laws and keep my statutes.

<sup>25</sup> They'll live in the same land I gave my servant Jacob, the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their grandchildren will live there forever, and my servant David will be their prince forever.

38 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message came to me:
<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, confront Gog from the country of Magog, head of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him.

<sup>3</sup> Say, 'GOD, the Master, says: Be warned, Gog. I am against you, head of Meshech and Tubal.

<sup>4</sup> I'm going to turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and drag you off with your whole army, your horses and riders in full armor--all those shields and bucklers and swords--fighting men armed to the teeth!

<sup>5</sup> Persia and Cush and Put will be in the ranks, also well-armed, as will <sup>6</sup> Gomer and its army and Beth-togarmah out of the north with its army. Many nations will be with you!

<sup>7</sup> "Get ready to fight, you and the whole company that's been called out. Take charge and wait for orders.

<sup>8</sup> After a long time, you'll be given your orders. In the distant future you'll arrive at a country that has recovered from a devastating war. People from many nations will be gathered there on the mountains of Israel, for a long time now a wasteland. These people have been brought back from many countries and now live safe and secure.

<sup>10</sup> "'Message of GOD, the Master: At that time you'll start thinking things over and cook up an evil plot.

for plunder! You've brought in your troops to get rich quick!"

<sup>14</sup> "Therefore, son of man, prophesy! Tell Gog, 'A Message from GOD, the Master: When my people Israel are established securely, will you make your move?

<sup>15</sup> Will you come down out of the far north, you and that mob of armies, charging out on your horses like a tidal wave across the land,

<sup>16</sup> and invade my people Israel, covering the country like a cloud? When the time's ripe, I'll unleash you against my land in such a way that the nations will recognize me, realize that through you, Gog, in full view of the nations, I am putting my holiness on display.

<sup>17</sup> "'A Message of GOD, the Master: Years ago when I spoke through my servants, the prophets of Israel, wasn't it you I was talking about? Year after year they prophesied that I would bring you against them.

<sup>18</sup> And when the day comes, Gog, you will attack that land of Israel. Decree of GOD, the Master. My raging anger will erupt.

<sup>19</sup> Fueled by blazing jealousy, I tell you that then there will be an earthquake that rocks the land of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> Fish and birds and wild animals--even ants and beetles!--and every human being will tremble and shake before me. Mountains will disintegrate, terraces will crumble.

<sup>21</sup> I'll order all-out war against you, Gog--Decree of GOD, the Master--Gog killing Gog on all the mountains of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> I'll deluge Gog with judgment: disease and massacre, torrential rain and hail, volcanic lava pouring down on you and your mobs of troops and people.

<sup>23</sup> "'I'll show you how great I am, how holy I am. I'll make myself known all over the world. Then you'll realize that I am GOD.'

<sup>4</sup> On the mountains of Israel you'll be slaughtered, you and all your troops and the people with you. I'll serve you up as a meal to carrion birds and scavenging animals.

<sup>6</sup> "I'll set fire to Magog and the far-off islands, where people are so seemingly secure. And they'll realize that I am GOD.

<sup>7</sup> "I'll reveal my holy name among my people Israel. Never again will I let my holy name be dragged in the mud. Then the nations will realize that I, GOD, am The Holy in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> "It's coming! Yes, it will happen! This is the day I've been telling you about.

<sup>9</sup> "People will come out of the cities of Israel and make a huge bonfire of the weapons of war, piling on shields large and small, bows and arrows, clubs and spears, a fire they'll keep going for seven years.

<sup>10</sup> They won't need to go into the woods to get fuel for the fire. There'll be plenty of weapons to keep it going. They'll strip those who stripped them. They'll rob those who robbed them. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>11</sup> "At that time I'll set aside a burial ground for Gog in Israel at Traveler's Rest, just east of the sea. It will obstruct the route of travelers, blocking their way, the mass grave of Gog and his mob of an army. They'll call the place Gog's Mob.

<sup>12</sup> "Israel will bury the corpses in order to clean up the land. It will take them seven months.

<sup>13</sup> All the people will turn out to help with the burials. It will be a big day for the people when it's all done and I'm given my due.

<sup>14</sup> Men will be hired full-time for the cleanup burial operation and will go through the country looking for defiling, decomposing corpses. At the end of seven months, there'll be an all-out final search.

<sup>15</sup> Anyone who sees a bone will mark the place with a stick so the buriers can get it and bury it in the mass burial site, Gog's Mob.

<sup>18</sup> You'll eat off the bodies of great heroes and drink the blood of famous princes as if they were so many rams and lambs, goats and bulls, the choicest grain-fed animals of Bashan.

heroes and fighters of every kind.'
Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>21</sup> "I'll put my glory on display among the nations and they'll all see the judgment I execute, see me at work handing out judgment.

<sup>22</sup> From that day on, Israel will realize that I am their GOD.

<sup>23</sup> And the nations will get the message that it was because of their sins that Israel went into exile. They were disloyal to me and I turned away from them. I turned them over to their enemies and they were all killed.

<sup>24</sup> I treated them as their polluted and sin-sated lives deserved. I turned away from them, refused to look at them.

<sup>25</sup> "But now I will return Jacob back from exile, I'll be compassionate with all the people of Israel, and I'll be zealous for my holy name.

<sup>28</sup> Then they'll realize for sure that I am their GOD, for even though I sent them off into exile, I will gather them back to their own land, leaving not one soul behind.

<sup>29</sup> After I've poured my Spirit on Israel, filled them with my life, I'll no longer turn away. I'll look them full in the face. Decree of GOD, the Master."

40 <sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year on the tenth of the month--it was the fourteenth year after the city fell--GOD touched me and brought me here.

<sup>2</sup> He brought me in divine vision to the land of Israel and set me down on a high mountain. To the south there were buildings that looked like a city.

<sup>3</sup> He took me there and I met a man deeply tanned, like bronze. He stood at the entrance holding a linen cord and a measuring stick.

<sup>4</sup> The man said to me, "Son of man, look and listen carefully. Pay close attention to everything I'm going to show you. That's why you've been brought here. And then tell Israel everything you see."

<sup>5</sup> First I saw a wall around the outside of the Temple complex. The measuring stick in the man's hand was about ten feet long. He measured the thickness of the wall: about ten feet. The height was also about ten feet.

<sup>6</sup> He went into the gate complex that faced the east and went up the seven steps.

<sup>7</sup> He measured the depth of the outside threshold of the gate complex: ten feet. There were alcoves flanking the gate corridor, each ten feet square, each separated by a wall seven and a half feet thick. The inside threshold of the gate complex that led to the porch facing into the Temple courtyard was ten feet deep.

<sup>10</sup> Inside this east gate complex were three alcoves on each side. Each room was the same size and the separating walls were identical.

<sup>11</sup> He measured the outside entrance to the gate complex: fifteen feet wide and nineteen and a half feet deep.

<sup>12</sup> In front of each alcove was a low wall eighteen inches high. The alcoves were ten feet square.

<sup>14</sup> He measured the inside walls of the gate complex: ninety feet to the porch leading into the courtyard.

faced inward. The doorjambs between the alcoves were decorated with palm trees.

<sup>17</sup> The man then led me to the outside courtyard and all its rooms. A paved walkway had been built connecting the courtyard gates. Thirty rooms lined the courtyard.

<sup>20</sup> Here was another gate complex facing north, exiting the outside courtyard. He measured its length and width.

<sup>21</sup> It had three alcoves on each side. Its gateposts and porch were the same as in the first gate: eighty-seven and a half feet by forty-three and three-quarters feet.

<sup>22</sup> The windows and palm trees were identical to the east gateway. Seven steps led up to it, and its porch faced inward.

<sup>23</sup> Opposite this gate complex was a gate complex to the inside courtyard, on the north as on the east. The distance between the two was one hundred seventy-five feet.

<sup>24</sup> Then he took me to the south side, to the south gate complex. He measured its gateposts and its porch. It was the same size as the others.

<sup>26</sup> It also had seven steps up to it. Its porch opened onto the outside courtyard, with palm trees decorating its gateposts on both sides.

<sup>28</sup> He led me into the inside courtyard through the south gate complex. He measured it and found it the same as the outside ones.

<sup>29</sup> Its alcoves, connecting walls, and vestibule were the same. The gate complex and porch, windowed all around, measured eighty-seven and a half by forty-three and three-quarters feet.

<sup>30</sup> The vestibule of each of the gate complexes leading to the inside courtyard was forty-three and three-quarters by eight and three-quarters feet.

<sup>31</sup> Each vestibule faced the outside courtyard. Palm trees were carved on its doorposts. Eight steps led up to it.

<sup>32</sup> He then took me to the inside courtyard on the east and measured the gate complex. It was identical to the others--

<sup>33</sup> alcoves, connecting walls, and vestibule all the same. The gate complex and vestibule had windows all around. It measured eighty-seven and a half by forty-three and three-quarters feet.

<sup>35</sup> He brought me to the gate complex to the north and measured it: same measurements.

seven and a half by forty-three and three-quarters feet.

<sup>37</sup> Its porch faced the outside courtyard. There were palm trees on its doorposts on both sides. And it had eight steps.

<sup>38</sup> There was a room with a door at the vestibule of the gate complex where the burnt offerings were cleaned.

<sup>39</sup> Two tables were placed within the vestibule, one on either side, on which the animals for burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings were slaughtered.

<sup>40</sup> Two tables were also placed against both outside walls of the vestibule <sup>41</sup> --four tables inside and four tables outside, eight tables in all for slaughtering the sacrificial animals.

<sup>42</sup> The four tables used for the burnt offerings were thirty-one and a half inches square and twenty-one inches high. The tools for slaughtering the sacrificial animals and other sacrifices were kept there.

<sup>43</sup> Meat hooks, three inches long, were fastened to the walls. The tables were for the sacrificial animals.

<sup>45</sup> The man told me, "The room facing south is for the priests who are in charge of the Temple.

<sup>46</sup> And the room facing north is for the priests who are in charge of the altar. These priests are the sons of Zadok, the only sons of Levi permitted to come near to GOD to serve him."

<sup>47</sup> He measured the inside courtyard: a hundred seventy-five feet square. The altar was in front of the Temple.

<sup>48</sup> He led me to the porch of the Temple and measured the gateposts of the porch: eight and three-quarters feet high on both sides.

<sup>49</sup> The entrance to the gate complex was twenty-one feet wide and its connecting walls were four and a half feet thick. The vestibule itself was thirty-five feet wide and twenty-one feet deep. Ten steps led up to the porch. Columns flanked the gateposts.

41 <sup>1</sup> He brought me into the Temple itself and measured the doorposts on each side. Each was ten and a half feet thick.

<sup>2</sup> The entrance was seventeen and a half feet wide. The walls on each side were eight and three-quarters feet thick. He also measured the Temple Sanctuary: seventy feet by thirty-five feet.

three and a half feet thick. The entrance itself was ten and a half feet wide, and the entrance walls were twelve and a quarter feet thick.

<sup>4</sup> He measured the inside Sanctuary, thirty-five feet square, set at the end of the main Sanctuary. He told me, "This is The Holy of Holies."

<sup>5</sup> He measured the wall of the Temple. It was ten and a half feet thick. The side rooms around the Temple were seven feet wide.

<sup>6</sup> There were three floors of these side rooms, thirty rooms on each of the three floors. There were supporting beams around the Temple wall to hold up the side rooms, but they were freestanding, not attached to the wall itself.

<sup>7</sup> The side rooms around the Temple became wider from first floor to second floor to third floor. A staircase went from the bottom floor, through the middle, and then to the top floor.

<sup>8</sup> I observed that the Temple had a ten-and-a-half-foot-thick raised base around it, which provided a foundation for the side rooms.

<sup>9</sup> The outside walls of the side rooms were eight and three-quarters feet thick. The open area between the side rooms of the Temple

<sup>10</sup> and the priests' rooms was a thirty-five-foot-wide strip all around the Temple.

<sup>11</sup> There were two entrances to the side rooms from the open area, one placed on the north side, the other on the south. There were eight and three-quarters feet of open space all around.

<sup>12</sup> The house that faced the Temple courtyard to the west was one hundred twenty-two and a half feet wide, with eight-and-three-quarters-foot-thick walls. The length of the wall and building was one hundred fifty-seven and a half feet.

<sup>13</sup> He measured the Temple: one hundred seventy-five feet long. The Temple courtyard and the house, including its walls, measured a hundred seventy-five feet.

<sup>14</sup> The breadth of the front of the Temple and the open area to the east was a hundred seventy-five feet.

<sup>15</sup> He measured the length of the house facing the courtyard at the back of the Temple, including the shelters on each side: one hundred seventy-five feet. The main Sanctuary, the inner Sanctuary, and the vestibule facing the courtyard

<sup>17</sup> Above the outside entrance to the inner Sanctuary and on the walls at regular intervals all around the inner Sanctuary and the main Sanctuary,

<sup>21</sup> The main Sanctuary had a rectangular doorframe. In front of the Holy Place was something that looked like

<sup>22</sup> an altar of wood, five and a quarter feet high and three and a half feet square. Its corners, base, and sides were of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that stands before GOD."

<sup>24</sup> Each door had two leaves: two hinged leaves for each door, one set swinging inward and the other set outward.

<sup>26</sup> There were narrow windows alternating with carved palm trees on both sides of the porch.

42 <sup>1</sup> The man led me north into the outside courtyard and brought me to the rooms that are in front of the open space and the house facing north.

the paved walkway at the edge of the outside courtyard, the rooms rose level by level for three stories.

<sup>5</sup> The upper rooms themselves were narrower, their galleries being wider than on the first and second floors of the building.

<sup>6</sup> The rooms on the third floor had no pillars like the pillars in the outside courtyard and were smaller than the rooms on the first and second floors.

<sup>7</sup> There was an outside wall parallel to the rooms and the outside courtyard. It fronted the rooms for eighty-seven and a half feet.

nearest the Sanctuary was one hundred seventy-five feet long.

<sup>12</sup> The design on the south was a mirror image of that on the north.

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to me, "The north and south rooms adjacent to the open area are holy rooms where the priests who come before GOD eat the holy offerings. There they place the holy offerings--grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. These are set-apart rooms, holy space.

<sup>14</sup> After the priests have entered the Sanctuary, they must not return to the outside courtyard and mingle among the people until they change the sacred garments in which they minister and put on their regular clothes."

<sup>16</sup> Using his measuring stick, he measured the east side: eight hundred seventy-five feet.

43 <sup>1</sup> The man brought me to the east gate.

<sup>2</sup> Oh! The bright Glory of the God of Israel rivered out of the east sounding like the roar of floodwaters, and the earth itself glowed with the bright Glory.

<sup>3</sup> It looked just like what I had seen when he came to destroy the city, exactly like what I had seen earlier at the Kebar River. And again I fell, face to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> The Spirit put me on my feet and led me to the inside courtyard and--oh! the bright Glory of GOD filled the Temple!

<sup>6</sup> I heard someone speaking to me from inside the Temple while the man stood beside me.

<sup>7</sup> He said, "Son of man, this is the place for my throne, the place I'll plant my feet. This is the place where I'll live with the Israelites forever. Neither the people of Israel nor their kings will ever again drag my holy name through the mud with their whoring and the no-god idols their kings set up at all the wayside shrines.

<sup>9</sup> So let them get rid of their whoring ways and the stinking no-god idols introduced by their kings and I'll move in and live with them forever.

<sup>10</sup> "Son of man, tell the people of Israel all about the Temple so they'll be dismayed by their wayward lives. Get them to go over the layout.

<sup>11</sup> That will bring them up short. Show them the whole plan of the Temple, its ins and outs, the proportions, the regulations, and the laws. Draw a picture so they can see the design and meaning and live by its design and intent.

<sup>12</sup> "This is the law of the Temple: As it radiates from the top of the mountain, everything around it becomes holy ground. Yes, this is law, the meaning, of the Temple.

<sup>14</sup> deep and twenty-one inches wide, with a four-inch lip around its edge. "The height of the altar is three and a half feet from the base to the first ledge and twenty inches wide. From the first ledge to the second ledge it is seven feet high and twenty-one inches wide.

<sup>18</sup> Then the man said to me, "Son of man, GOD, the Master, says: 'These are the ordinances for conduct at the altar when it is built, for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood on it.

<sup>19</sup> "'For a sin offering, give a bull to the priests, the Levitical priests who are from the family of Zadok who come into my presence to serve me.

<sup>20</sup> Take some of its blood and smear it on the four horns of the altar that project from the four corners of the top ledge and all around the lip. That's to purify the altar and make it fit for the sacrifice.

<sup>21</sup> Then take the bull for the sin offerings and burn it in the place set aside for this in the courtyard outside the Sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup> Then, when you have purified it, offer a bull without blemish and a ram without blemish from the flock.

<sup>24</sup> Present them before GOD. Sprinkle salt on them and offer them as a burnt offering to GOD.

<sup>25</sup> "For seven days, prepare a goat for a sin offering daily, and also a bull and a ram from the flock, animals without blemish.

<sup>26</sup> For seven days the priests are to get the altar ready for its work, purifying it. This is how you dedicate it.

44 <sup>1</sup> Then the man brought me back to the outside gate complex of the Sanctuary that faces east. But it was shut.

<sup>2</sup> GOD spoke to me: "This gate is shut and it's to stay shut. No one is to go through it because GOD, the God of Israel, has gone through it. It stays shut.

<sup>3</sup> Only the prince, because he's the prince, may sit there to eat in the presence of GOD. He is to enter the gate complex through the porch and leave by the same way."

<sup>4</sup> The man led me through the north gate to the front of the Temple. I looked, and--oh!--the bright Glory of GOD filling the Temple of GOD! I fell on my face in worship.

<sup>5</sup> GOD said to me, "Son of man, get a grip on yourself. Use your eyes, use your ears, pay careful attention to everything I tell you about the ordinances of this Temple of GOD, the way all the laws work, instructions regarding it and all the entrances and exits of the Sanctuary.

flesh, into my Sanctuary, feeding them the sacrificial offerings as if it were the food for a neighborhood picnic. With all your vile obscenities, you've broken trust with me, the solemn covenant I made with you.

<sup>8</sup> You haven't taken care of my holy things. You've hired out the work to foreigners who care nothing for this place, my Sanctuary.

<sup>9</sup> No irreverent and unrepentant aliens, uncircumcised in heart or flesh, not even the ones who live among Israelites, are to enter my Sanctuary.'

<sup>10</sup> "The Levites who walked off and left me, along with everyone else--all Israel--who took up with all the no-god idols, will pay for everything they did wrong.

<sup>11</sup> From now on they'll do only the menial work in the Sanctuary: guard the gates and help out with the Temple chores--and also kill the sacrificial animals for the people and serve them.

<sup>12</sup> Because they acted as priests to the no-god idols and made my people Israel stumble and fall, I've taken an oath to punish them. Decree of GOD, the Master. Yes, they'll pay for what they've done.

<sup>13</sup> They're fired from the priesthood. No longer will they come into my presence and take care of my holy things. No more access to The Holy Place! They'll have to live with what they've done, carry the shame of their vile and obscene lives.

<sup>14</sup> From now on, their job is to sweep up and run errands. That's it.

<sup>15</sup> "But the Levitical priests who descend from Zadok, who faithfully took care of my Sanctuary when everyone else went off and left me, are going to come into my presence and serve me. They are going to carry out the priestly work of offering the solemn sacrifices of worship. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>16</sup> They're the only ones permitted to enter my Sanctuary. They're the only ones to approach my table and serve me, accompanying me in my work.

<sup>17</sup> "When they enter the gate complex of the inside courtyard, they are to dress in linen. No woolens are to be worn while serving at the gate complex of the inside courtyard or inside the Temple itself.

<sup>19</sup> When they go out into the outside courtyard where the people gather, they must first change out of the clothes they have been serving in, leaving them in the sacred rooms where they change to their everyday clothes, so that they don't trivialize their holy work by the way they dress.

<sup>20</sup> "They are to neither shave their heads nor let their hair become unkempt, but must keep their hair trimmed and neat.

<sup>23</sup> "Their job is to teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, to show them how to discern between unclean and clean.

<sup>24</sup> "When there's a difference of opinion, the priests will arbitrate. They'll decide on the basis of my judgments, laws, and statutes. They are in charge of making sure the appointed feasts are honored and my Sabbaths kept holy in the ways I've commanded.

<sup>25</sup> "A priest must not contaminate himself by going near a corpse. But when the dead person is his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, he can approach the dead.

<sup>26</sup> But after he has been purified, he must wait another seven days.

<sup>27</sup> Then, when he returns to the inside courtyard of the Sanctuary to do his priestly work in the Sanctuary, he must first offer a sin offering for himself.
Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>28</sup> "As to priests owning land, I am their inheritance. Don't give any land in Israel to them. I am their 'land,' their inheritance.

<sup>29</sup> They'll take their meals from the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Everything in Israel offered to GOD in worship is theirs.

<sup>30</sup> The best of everything grown, plus all special gifts, comes to the priests. All that is given in worship to GOD goes to them. Serve them first. Serve from your best and your home will be blessed.

<sup>31</sup> "Priests are not to eat any meat from bird or animal unfit for ordinary human consumption, such as carcasses found dead on the road or in the field.

45 <sup>1</sup> "When you divide up the inheritance of the land, you must set aside part of the land as sacred space for GOD: approximately seven miles long by six miles wide, all of it holy ground.

<sup>4</sup> This is where the priests will live, those who lead worship in the Sanctuary and serve GOD there. Their houses will be there along with The Holy Place.

<sup>5</sup> "To the north of the sacred reserve, an area roughly seven miles long and two and a quarter miles wide will be set aside as land for the villages of the Levites who administer the affairs of worship in the Sanctuary.

<sup>6</sup> "To the south of the sacred reserve, measure off a section seven miles long and about a mile and a half wide for the city itself, an area held in common by the whole family of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> This is the prince's possession in Israel. My princes will no longer bully my people, running roughshod over them.

They'll respect the land as it has been allotted to the tribes.

will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings for making the atonement sacrifices for the people. Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>16</sup> "Everyone in the land must contribute to these special offerings that the prince in Israel will administer.

<sup>17</sup> It's the prince's job to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the Holy Festivals, the New Moons, and the Sabbaths--all the commanded feasts among the people of Israel. Sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings for making atonement for the people of Israel are his responsibility.

<sup>19</sup> The priest is to take blood from the sin offerings and rub it on the doorposts of the Temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gate entrance to the inside courtyard.

<sup>20</sup> Repeat this ritual on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins without knowing it. In this way you make atonement for the Temple.

<sup>21</sup> "On the fourteenth day of the first month, you will observe the Passover, a feast of seven days. During the feast you will eat bread made without yeast.

<sup>22</sup> "On Passover, the prince supplies a bull as a sin offering for himself and all the people of the country.

<sup>23</sup> Each day for each of the seven days of the feast, he will supply seven bulls and seven rams unblemished as a burnt offering to GOD, and also each day a male goat.

<sup>24</sup> "He will supply about five and a half gallons of grain offering and a gallon of oil for each bull and each ram.

<sup>25</sup> "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, and on each of the seven days of the feast, he is to supply the same materials for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.

46 <sup>1</sup> "Message from GOD, the Master: The gate of the inside courtyard on the east is to be shut on the six working days, but open on the Sabbath. It is also to be open on the New Moon.

<sup>2</sup> The prince will enter through the entrance area of the gate complex and stand at the gateposts as the priests present his burnt offerings and peace offerings while he worships there on the porch. He will then leave, but the gate won't be shut until evening.

<sup>4</sup> "The prince supplies for GOD the burnt offering for the Sabbath--six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram.

<sup>7</sup> He will also supply five and a half gallons of grain offering and a gallon of oil for both ram and bull, and a handful of grain offering for each lamb.

<sup>8</sup> "When the prince enters, he will go through the entrance vestibule of the gate complex and leave the same way.

<sup>9</sup> "But when the people of the land come to worship GOD at the commanded feasts, those who enter through the north gate will exit from the south gate, and those who enter though the south gate will exit from the north gate. You don't exit the gate through which you enter, but through the opposite gate.

<sup>10</sup> The prince is to be there, mingling with them, going in and out with them.

<sup>11</sup> "At the festivals and the commanded feasts, the appropriate grain offering is five and a half gallons, with a gallon of oil for the bull and ram and a handful of grain for each lamb.

<sup>12</sup> "When the prince brings a freewill offering to GOD, whether a burnt offering or a peace offering, the east gate is to be opened for him. He offers his burnt or peace offering the same as he does on the Sabbath. Then he leaves, and after he is out, the gate is shut.

<sup>13</sup> "Every morning you are to bring a yearling lamb unblemished for a burnt offering to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> Also, every morning bring a grain offering of about a gallon of grain with a quart or so of oil to moisten it. Presenting this grain offering to GOD is standard procedure.

<sup>15</sup> The lamb, the grain offering, and the oil for the burnt offering are a regular daily ritual.

<sup>17</sup> But if he deeds a gift from his inheritance to a servant, the servant keeps it only until the year of liberation (the Jubilee year). After that, it comes back to the prince. His inheritance is only for his sons. It stays in the family.

<sup>18</sup> The prince must not take the inheritance from any of the people, dispossessing them of their land. He can give his sons only what he himself owns.

None of my people are to be run off their land.'"

<sup>19</sup> Then the man brought me through the north gate into the holy chambers assigned to the priests and showed me a back room to the west.

<sup>20</sup> He said, "This is the kitchen where the priests will cook the guilt offering and sin offering and bake the grain offering so that they won't have to do it in the outside courtyard and endanger the unprepared people out there with The Holy."

<sup>21</sup> He proceeded to take me to the outside courtyard and around to each of its four corners. In each corner I observed another court.

<sup>22</sup> In each of the four corners of the outside courtyard were smaller courts sixty by forty-five feet, each the same size.

<sup>23</sup> On the inside walls of the courts was a stone shelf, and beneath the shelves, hearths for cooking.

<sup>24</sup> He said, "These are the kitchens where those who serve in the Temple will cook the sacrifices of the people."

47 <sup>1</sup> Now he brought me back to the entrance to the Temple. I saw water pouring out from under the Temple porch to the east (the Temple faced east). The water poured from the south side of the Temple, south of the altar.

<sup>2</sup> He then took me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the gate complex on the east. The water was gushing from under the south front of the Temple.

<sup>3</sup> He walked to the east with a measuring tape and measured off fifteen hundred feet, leading me through water that was ankle-deep.

<sup>4</sup> He measured off another fifteen hundred feet, leading me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another fifteen hundred feet, leading me through water waist-deep.

<sup>5</sup> He measured off another fifteen hundred feet. By now it was a river over my head, water to swim in, water no one could possibly walk through.

<sup>6</sup> He said, "Son of man, have you had a good look?" Then he took me back to the riverbank.

<sup>7</sup> While sitting on the bank, I noticed a lot of trees on both sides of the river.

<sup>8</sup> He told me, "This water flows east, descends to the Arabah and then into the sea, the sea of stagnant waters. When it empties into those waters, the sea will become fresh.

<sup>9</sup> Wherever the river flows, life will flourish--great schools of fish--because the river is turning the salt sea into fresh water. Where the river flows, life abounds.

<sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand shoulder to shoulder along the shore from En-gedi all the way north to En-eglaim, casting their nets. The sea will teem with fish of all kinds, like the fish of the Great Mediterranean.

<sup>12</sup> "But the river itself, on both banks, will grow fruit trees of all kinds. Their leaves won't wither, the fruit won't fail. Every month they'll bear fresh fruit because the river from the Sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing."

<sup>14</sup> It is to be divided up equally. I swore in a solemn oath to give it to your ancestors, swore that this land would be your inheritance.

<sup>17</sup> The boundary runs from the Sea to Hazor-enon, with the territories of Damascus and Hamath to the north. That is the northern boundary.

<sup>18</sup> "The eastern boundary runs between Damascus and Hauran, down along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel to the Eastern Sea as far as Tamar. This is the eastern boundary.

<sup>22</sup> Divide it up as your inheritance, and include in it the resident aliens who have made themselves at home among you and now have children. Treat them as if they were born there, just like yourselves. They also get an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Decree of GOD, the Master.

48 <sup>1</sup> "These are the tribes: "Dan: one portion, along the northern boundary, following the Hethlon road that turns off to the entrance of Hamath as far as Hazor-enon so that the territory of Damascus lies to the north alongside Hamath, the northern border stretching from east to west.

aside as holy: a square approximately seven by seven miles, with the Sanctuary set at the center.

<sup>9</sup> The consecrated area reserved for GOD is to be seven miles long and a little less than three miles wide.

<sup>10</sup> "This is how it will be parceled out. The priest will get the area measuring seven miles on the north and south boundaries, with a width of a little more than three miles at the east and west boundaries. The Sanctuary of GOD will be at the center.

<sup>14</sup> They are not permitted to sell or trade any of it. It's the choice part of the land, to say nothing of being holy to GOD.

<sup>16</sup> The north, south, east, and west sides of the city are each about a mile and a half in length.

<sup>17</sup> A strip of pasture, one hundred twenty-five yards wide, will border the city on all sides.

<sup>18</sup> The remainder of this portion, three miles of countryside to the east and to the west of the sacred precinct, is for farming. It will supply food for the city.

<sup>19</sup> Workers from all the tribes of Israel will serve as field hands to farm the land.

<sup>20</sup> "This dedicated area, set apart for holy purposes, will be a square, seven miles by seven miles, a 'holy square,' which includes the part set aside for the city.

<sup>21</sup> "The rest of this land, the country stretching east to the Jordan and west to the Mediterranean from the seven-mile sides of the 'holy square,' belongs to the prince. His land is sandwiched between the tribal portions north and south, and goes out both east and west from the 'sacred square' with its Temple at the center.

<sup>22</sup> The land set aside for the Levites on one side and the city on the other is in the middle of the territory assigned to the prince. The 'sacred square' is flanked east and west by the prince's land and bordered on the north and south by the territories of Judah and Benjamin respectively.

<sup>23</sup> "And then the rest of the tribes:
"Benjamin: one portion, stretching from the eastern to the western boundary.

<sup>29</sup> "This is the land that you are to divide up among the tribes of Israel as their inheritance. These are their portions."
Decree of GOD, the Master.

<sup>30</sup> "These are the gates of the city. On the north side, which is 2,250 yards long

<sup>35</sup> "The four sides of the city measure to a total of nearly six miles. "From now on the name of the city will be YAHWEH-SHAMMAH: "GOD-IS-THERE."

Daniel

1 <sup>1</sup> It was the third year of King Jehoiakim's reign in Judah when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon declared war on Jerusalem and besieged the city.

<sup>2</sup> The Master handed King Jehoiakim of Judah over to him, along with some of the furnishings from the Temple of God. Nebuchadnezzar took king and furnishings to the country of Babylon, the ancient Shinar. He put the furnishings in the sacred treasury.

<sup>4</sup> --young men who were healthy and handsome, intelligent and well-educated, good prospects for leadership positions in the government, perfect

specimens!--and indoctrinate them in the Babylonian language and the lore of magic and fortunetelling.

<sup>5</sup> The king then ordered that they be served from the same menu as the royal table--the best food, the finest wine. After three years of training they would be given positions in the king's court.

<sup>7</sup> The head of the palace staff gave them Babylonian names: Daniel was named Belteshazzar, Hananiah was named Shadrach, Mishael was named Meshach, Azariah was named Abednego.

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel determined that he would not defile himself by eating the king's food or drinking his wine, so he asked the head of the palace staff to exempt him from the royal diet.

<sup>10</sup> but he warned him, "I'm afraid of what my master the king will do. He is the one who assigned this diet and if he sees that you are not as healthy as the rest, he'll have my head!"

the others who had been eating from the royal menu.

<sup>16</sup> So the steward continued to exempt them from the royal menu of food and drink and served them only vegetables.

<sup>17</sup> God gave these four young men knowledge and skill in both books and life. In addition, Daniel was gifted in understanding all sorts of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup> At the end of the time set by the king for their training, the head of the royal staff brought them in to Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>19</sup> When the king interviewed them, he found them far superior to all the other young men. None were a match for Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. And so they took their place in the king's service.

<sup>20</sup> Whenever the king consulted them on anything, on books or on life, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his kingdom put together.

2<sup>1</sup> In the second year of his reign, King Nebuchadnezzar started having dreams that disturbed him deeply. He couldn't sleep.

<sup>2</sup> He called in all the Babylonian magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and fortunetellers to interpret his dreams for him. When they came and lined up before the king,

<sup>3</sup> he said to them, "I had a dream that I can't get out of my mind. I can't sleep until I know what it means."

<sup>4</sup> The fortunetellers, speaking in the Aramaic language, said, "Long live the king! Tell us the dream and we will interpret it."

<sup>5</sup> The king answered the fortunetellers, "This is my decree: If you can't tell me both the dream itself and its interpretation, I'll have you ripped to pieces, limb from limb, and your homes torn down.

<sup>6</sup> But if you tell me both the dream and its interpretation, I'll lavish you with gifts and honors. So go to it: Tell me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>7</sup> They answered, "If it please your majesty, tell us the dream. We'll give the interpretation."

<sup>8</sup> But the king said, "I know what you're up to--you're just playing for time. You know you're up a tree.

<sup>9</sup> You know that if you can't tell me my dream, you're doomed. I see right through you--you're going to cook up some fancy stories and confuse the issue until I change my mind. Nothing doing! First tell me the dream, then I'll know that you're on the up and up with the interpretation and not just blowing smoke in my eyes."

<sup>10</sup> The fortunetellers said, "Nobody anywhere can do what you ask. And no king, great or small, has ever demanded anything like this from any magician, enchanter, or fortuneteller.

<sup>13</sup> When the death warrant was issued, Daniel and his companions were included. They also were marked for execution.

<sup>14</sup> When Arioch, chief of the royal guards, was making arrangements for the execution, Daniel wisely took him aside

<sup>15</sup> and quietly asked what was going on: "Why this all of a sudden?" After Arioch filled in the background, <sup>16</sup> Daniel went to the king and asked for a little time so that he could interpret the dream.

<sup>18</sup> He asked them to pray to the God of heaven for mercy in solving this mystery so that the four of them wouldn't be killed along with the whole company of Babylonian wise men.

<sup>19</sup> That night the answer to the mystery was given to Daniel in a vision. Daniel blessed the God of heaven, <sup>20</sup> saying, "Blessed be the name of God, forever and ever. He knows all, does all:

<sup>21</sup> He changes the seasons and guides history, He raises up kings and also brings them down, he provides both intelligence and discernment,

<sup>23</sup> God of all my ancestors, all thanks! all praise! You made me wise and strong. And now you've shown us what we asked for. You've solved the king's mystery."

<sup>24</sup> So Daniel went back to Arioch, who had been put in charge of the execution. He said, "Call off the execution! Take me to the king and I'll interpret his dream."

<sup>25</sup> Arioch didn't lose a minute. He ran to the king, bringing Daniel with him, and said, "I've found a man from the exiles of Judah who can interpret the king's dream!"

you can do this--tell me the dream I had and interpret it for me?"

<sup>27</sup> Daniel answered the king, "No mere human can solve the king's mystery, I don't care who it is--no wise man, enchanter, magician, diviner.

<sup>28</sup> But there is a God in heaven who solves mysteries, and he has solved this one. He is letting King Nebuchadnezzar in on what is going to happen in the days ahead. This is the dream you had when you were lying on your bed, the vision that filled your mind:

<sup>29</sup> "While you were stretched out on your bed, O king, thoughts came to you regarding what is coming in the days ahead. The Revealer of Mysteries showed you what will happen.

<sup>30</sup> But the interpretation is given through me, not because I'm any smarter than anyone else in the country, but so that you will know what it means, so that you will understand what you dreamed.

<sup>31</sup> "What you saw, O king, was a huge statue standing before you, striking in appearance. And terrifying.

<sup>32</sup> The head of the statue was pure gold, the chest and arms were silver, the belly and hips were bronze, <sup>33</sup> the legs were iron, and the feet were an iron-ceramic mixture.

<sup>34</sup> While you were looking at this statue, a stone cut out of a mountain by an invisible hand hit the statue, smashing its iron-ceramic feet.

<sup>35</sup> Then the whole thing fell to pieces--iron, tile, bronze, silver, and gold, smashed to bits. It was like scraps of old newspapers in a vacant lot in a hot dry summer, blown every which way by the wind, scattered to oblivion. But the stone that hit the statue became a huge mountain, dominating the horizon.

<sup>37</sup> You, O king, are the most powerful king on earth. The God of heaven has given you the works: rule, power, strength, and glory.

<sup>38</sup> He has put you in charge of men and women, wild animals and birds, all over the world--you're the head ruler, you are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup> But your rule will be taken over by another kingdom, inferior to yours, and that one by a third, a bronze kingdom, but still ruling the whole land, <sup>40</sup> and after that by a fourth kingdom, iron-like in strength. Just as iron smashes things to bits, breaking and pulverizing, it will bust up the previous kingdoms.

<sup>41</sup> "But then the feet and toes that ended up as a mixture of ceramic and iron will deteriorate into a mongrel kingdom with some remains of iron in it. Just as the toes of the feet were part ceramic and part iron, <sup>42</sup> it will end up a mixed bag of the breakable and unbreakable.

<sup>44</sup> "But throughout the history of these kingdoms, the God of heaven will be building a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will this kingdom ever fall under the domination of another. In the end it will crush the other kingdoms and finish them off and come through it all standing strong and eternal.

<sup>45</sup> It will be like the stone cut from the mountain by the invisible hand that crushed the iron, the bronze, the ceramic, the silver, and the gold. "The great God has let the king know what will happen in the years to come. This is an accurate telling of the dream, and the interpretation is also accurate."

<sup>47</sup> He said to Daniel, "Your God is beyond question the God of all gods, the Master of all kings. And he solves all mysteries, I know, because you've solved this mystery."

<sup>48</sup> Then the king promoted Daniel to a high position in the kingdom, lavished him with gifts, and made him governor over the entire province of Babylon and the chief in charge of all the Babylonian wise men.

throughout Babylon, while Daniel governed from the royal headquarters.

3<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar built a gold statue, ninety feet high and nine feet thick. He set it up on the Dura plain in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> He then ordered all the important leaders in the province, everybody who was anybody, to the dedication ceremony of the statue.

<sup>5</sup> When you hear the band strike up--all the trumpets and trombones, the tubas and baritones, the drums and cymbals--fall to your knees and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

<sup>6</sup> Anyone who does not kneel and worship shall be thrown immediately into a roaring furnace."

<sup>10</sup> You gave strict orders, O king, that when the big band started playing, everyone had to fall to their knees and worship the gold statue, <sup>11</sup> and whoever did not go to their knees and worship it had to be pitched into a roaring furnace.

<sup>12</sup> Well, there are some Jews here-- Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego-- whom you have placed in high positions in the province of Babylon. These men are ignoring you, O king. They don't respect your gods and they won't worship the gold statue you set up."

<sup>13</sup> Furious, King Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought in. When the men were brought in,

<sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar asked, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't respect my gods and refuse to worship the gold statue that I have set up?"

<sup>15</sup> I'm giving you a second chance--but from now on, when the big band strikes up you must go to your knees and worship the statue I have made. If you don't worship it, you will be pitched into a roaring furnace, no questions asked. Who is the god who can rescue you from my power?"

<sup>17</sup> If you throw us in the fire, the God we serve can rescue us from your roaring furnace and anything else you might cook up, O king.

<sup>18</sup> But even if he doesn't, it wouldn't make a bit of difference, O king. We still wouldn't serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up."

<sup>20</sup> He ordered some strong men from the army to tie them up, hands and feet, and throw them into the roaring furnace.

<sup>21</sup> Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, bound hand and foot, fully dressed from head to toe, were pitched into the roaring fire.

<sup>22</sup> Because the king was in such a hurry and the furnace was so hot, flames from the furnace killed the men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to it,

<sup>25</sup> "But look!" he said. "I see four men, walking around freely in the fire, completely unharmed! And the fourth man looks like a son of the gods!"

<sup>27</sup> All the important people, the government leaders and king's counselors, gathered around to examine them and discovered that the fire hadn't so much as touched the three men--not a hair singed, not a scorch mark on their clothes, not even the smell of fire on them!

<sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel and rescued his servants who trusted in him! They ignored the king's orders and laid their bodies on the line rather than serve or worship any god but their own.

<sup>29</sup> "Therefore I issue this decree: Anyone anywhere, of any race, color, or creed, who says anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be ripped to pieces, limb from limb, and their houses torn down. There has never been a god who can pull off a rescue like this."

<sup>2</sup> It is my privilege to report to you the gracious miracles that the High God has done for me.

<sup>5</sup> But as I was stretched out on my bed I had a dream that scared me--a nightmare that shook me.

<sup>6</sup> I sent for all the wise men of Babylon so that they could interpret the dream for me.

<sup>7</sup> When they were all assembled--magicians, enchanters, fortunetellers, witches--I told them the dream. None could tell me what it meant.

<sup>8</sup> "And then Daniel came in. His Babylonian name is Belteshazzar, named after my god, a man full of the divine Holy Spirit. I told him my dream.

<sup>9</sup> "'Belteshazzar,' I said, 'chief of the magicians, I know that you are a man full of the divine Holy Spirit and that there is no mystery that you can't solve. Listen to this dream that I had and interpret it for me.

<sup>12</sup> Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant--enough food for everyone! Wild animals found shelter under it, birds nested in its branches, everything living was fed and sheltered by it.

<sup>13</sup> "And this also is what I saw as I was stretched out on my bed. I saw a holy watchman descend from heaven,

<sup>15</sup> But leave the stump and roots in the ground, belted with a strap of iron and bronze in the grassy meadow. Let him be soaked in heaven's dew and take his meals with the animals that graze.

<sup>16</sup> Let him lose his mind and get an animal's mind in exchange, And let this go on for seven seasons.

<sup>17</sup> The angels announce this decree, the holy watchmen bring this sentence, So that everyone living will know that the High God rules human kingdoms. He arranges kingdom affairs however he wishes, and makes leaders out of losers.

<sup>18</sup> "This is what I, King Nebuchadnezzar, dreamed. It's your turn, Belteshazzar--interpret it for me. None of the wise men of Babylon could make heads or tails of it, but I'm sure you can do it. You're full of the divine Holy Spirit."

was upset. The thoughts that came swarming into his mind terrified him. "Belteshazzar," the king said, "stay calm. Don't let the dream and its interpretation scare you." "My master," said Belteshazzar, "I wish this dream were about your enemies and its interpretation for your foes.

<sup>20</sup> "The tree you saw that grew so large and sturdy with its top touching the sky, visible from the four corners of the world;

<sup>21</sup> the tree with the luxuriant foliage and abundant fruit, enough for everyone; the tree under which animals took cover and in which birds built nests

<sup>22</sup> --you, O king, are that tree. "You have grown great and strong. Your royal majesty reaches sky-high, and your sovereign rule stretches to the four corners of the world.

<sup>23</sup> "But the part about the holy angel descending from heaven and proclaiming, 'Chop down the tree, destroy it, but leave stump and roots in the ground belted with a strap of iron and bronze in the grassy meadow; let him be soaked with heaven's dew and take his meals with the grazing animals for seven seasons'

<sup>24</sup> --this, O king, also refers to you. It means that the High God has sentenced my master the king:

<sup>25</sup> You will be driven away from human company and live with the wild animals. You will graze on grass like an ox. You will be soaked in heaven's dew. This will go on for seven seasons, and you will learn that the High God rules over human kingdoms and that he arranges all kingdom affairs.

kingdom will still be there for you after you learn that it is heaven that runs things.

<sup>27</sup> "So, king, take my advice: Make a clean break with your sins and start living for others. Quit your wicked life and look after the needs of the down-and-out. Then you will continue to have a good life."

<sup>30</sup> and boasted, "Look at this, Babylon the great! And I built it all by myself, a royal palace adequate to display my honor and glory!"

Nebuchadnezzar: Your kingdom is taken from you.

<sup>32</sup> You will be driven out of human company and live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like an ox. The sentence is for seven seasons, enough time to learn that the High God rules human kingdoms and puts whomever he wishes in charge."

Nebuchadnezzar was driven out of human company, ate grass like an ox, and was soaked in heaven's dew. His hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a hawk.

<sup>34</sup> "At the end of the seven years, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked to heaven. I was given my mind back and I blessed the High God, thanking and glorifying God, who lives forever. "His sovereign rule lasts and lasts, his kingdom never declines and falls.

<sup>35</sup> Life on this earth doesn't add up to much, but God's heavenly army keeps everything going. No one can interrupt his work, no one can call his rule into question.

<sup>36</sup> "At the same time that I was given back my mind, I was also given back my majesty and splendor, making my kingdom shine. All the leaders and important people came looking for me. I was reestablished as king in my kingdom and became greater than ever.

<sup>3</sup> When the gold and silver chalices were brought in, the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines, drank wine from them.

<sup>4</sup> They drank the wine and drunkenly praised their gods made of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

<sup>7</sup> He yelled out for the enchanters, the fortunetellers, and the diviners to come. He told these Babylonian magi, "Anyone who can read this writing on the wall and tell me what it means will be famous and rich--purple robe, the great gold chain--and be third-in-command in the kingdom."

<sup>8</sup> One after the other they tried, but could make no sense of it. They could neither read what was written nor interpret it to the king.

<sup>9</sup> So now the king was really frightened. All the blood drained from his face. The nobles were in a panic.

<sup>10</sup> The queen heard of the hysteria among the king and his nobles and came to the banquet hall. She said, "Long live the king! Don't be upset. Don't sit around looking like ghosts.

<sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom who is full of the divine Holy Spirit.

During your father's time he was well known for his intellectual brilliance and spiritual wisdom. He was so good that your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, made him the head of all the magicians, enchanters, fortunetellers, and diviners.

<sup>12</sup> There was no one quite like him. He could do anything--interpret dreams, solve mysteries, explain puzzles. His name is Daniel, but he was renamed Belteshazzar by the king. Have Daniel called in. He'll tell you what is going on here."

<sup>15</sup> The wise men and enchanters were brought in here to read this writing on the wall and interpret it for me. They couldn't figure it out--not a word, not a syllable.

<sup>16</sup> But I've heard that you interpret dreams and solve mysteries. So--if you can read the writing and interpret it for me, you'll be rich and famous--a purple robe, the great gold chain around your neck--and third-in-command in the kingdom."

<sup>17</sup> Daniel answered the king, "You can keep your gifts, or give them to someone else. But I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.

<sup>19</sup> Because God made him so famous, people from everywhere, whatever their race, color, and creed, were totally intimidated by him. He killed or spared people on whim. He promoted or humiliated people capriciously.

<sup>20</sup> He developed a big head and a hard spirit. Then God knocked him off his high horse and stripped him of his fame.

<sup>21</sup> He was thrown out of human company, lost his mind, and lived like a wild animal. He ate grass like an ox and was soaked by heaven's dew until he learned his lesson: that the High God rules human kingdoms and puts anyone he wants in charge.

<sup>22</sup> "You are his son and have known all this, yet you're as arrogant as he ever was.

<sup>23</sup> Look at you, setting yourself up in competition against the Master of heaven! You had the sacred chalices from his Temple brought into your drunken party so that you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines, could drink from them. You used the sacred chalices to toast your gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone--blind, deaf, and imbecile gods. But you treat with contempt the living God who holds your entire life from birth to death in his hand.

"[Mene]: God has numbered the days of your rule and they don't add up.

<sup>27</sup> "[Teqel]: You have been weighed on the scales and you don't weigh much.

<sup>28</sup> "[Peres]: Your kingdom has been divided up and handed over to the Medes and Persians."

<sup>29</sup> Belshazzar did what he had promised. He robed Daniel in purple, draped the great gold chain around his neck, and promoted him to third-in-charge in the kingdom.

6 <sup>1</sup> Darius reorganized his kingdom. He appointed one hundred twenty governors to administer all the parts of his realm.

<sup>2</sup> Over them were three vice-regents, one of whom was Daniel. The governors reported to the vice-regents, who made sure that everything was in order for the king.

<sup>3</sup> But Daniel, brimming with spirit and intelligence, so completely outclassed the other vice-regents and governors that the king decided to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.

skeleton in Daniel's life that they could use against him, but they couldn't dig up anything. He was totally exemplary and trustworthy. They could find no evidence of negligence or misconduct.

<sup>5</sup> So they finally gave up and said, "We're never going to find anything against this Daniel unless we can cook up something religious."

<sup>6</sup> The vice-regents and governors conspired together and then went to the king and said, "King Darius, live forever!

<sup>7</sup> We've convened your vice-regents, governors, and all your leading officials, and have agreed that the king should issue the following decree: For the next thirty days no one is to pray to any god or mortal except you, O king. Anyone who disobeys will be thrown into the lions' den.

<sup>8</sup> "Issue this decree, O king, and make it unconditional, as if written in stone like all the laws of the Medes and the Persians."

<sup>10</sup> When Daniel learned that the decree had been signed and posted, he continued to pray just as he had always done. His house had windows in the upstairs that opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he knelt there in prayer, thanking and praising his God.

<sup>12</sup> They went straight to the king and reminded him of the royal decree that he had signed. "Did you not," they said, "sign a decree forbidding anyone to pray to any god or man except you for the next thirty days? And anyone caught doing it would be thrown into the lions' den?" "Absolutely," said the king. "Written in stone, like all the laws of the Medes and Persians."

<sup>15</sup> But then the conspirators were back: "Remember, O king, it's the law of the Medes and Persians that the king's decree can never be changed."

<sup>16</sup> The king caved in and ordered Daniel brought and thrown into the lions' den. But he said to Daniel, "Your God, to whom you are so loyal, is going to get you out of this."

<sup>20</sup> As he approached the den, he called out anxiously, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve so loyally, saved you from the lions?"

<sup>22</sup> "My God sent his angel, who closed the mouths of the lions so that they would not hurt me. I've been found innocent before God and also before you, O king. I've done nothing to harm you."

<sup>23</sup> When the king heard these words, he was happy. He ordered Daniel taken up out of the den. When he was hauled up, there wasn't a scratch on him. He had trusted his God.

<sup>25</sup> King Darius published this proclamation to every race, color, and creed on earth: Peace to you! Abundant peace!

<sup>26</sup> I decree that Daniel's God shall be worshiped and feared in all parts of my kingdom. He is the living God, world without end. His kingdom never falls. His rule continues eternally.

also in the following reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7<sup>1</sup> In the first year of the reign of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. What he saw as he slept in his bed terrified him--a real nightmare. Then he wrote out his dream:

<sup>2</sup> "In my dream that night I saw the four winds of heaven whipping up a great storm on the sea.

<sup>4</sup> "The first animal looked like a lion, but it had the wings of an eagle. While I watched, its wings were pulled off. It was then pulled erect so that it was standing on two feet like a man. Then a human heart was placed in it.

<sup>5</sup> "Then I saw a second animal that looked like a bear. It lurched from side to side, holding three ribs in its jaws. It was told, 'Attack! Devour! Fill your belly!'

<sup>6</sup> "Next I saw another animal. This one looked like a panther. It had four birdlike wings on its back. This animal had four heads and was made to rule.

<sup>7</sup> "After that, a fourth animal appeared in my dream. This one was a grisly horror--hideous. It had huge iron teeth. It crunched and swallowed its victims. Anything left over, it trampled into the ground. It was different from the other animals--this one was a real monster. It had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> "As I was staring at the horns and trying to figure out what they meant, another horn sprouted up, a little horn. Three of the original horns were pulled out to make room for it. There were human eyes in this little horn, and a big mouth speaking arrogantly.

<sup>9</sup> "As I was watching all this, "Thrones were set in place and The Old One sat down. His robes were white as snow, his hair was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, its wheels blazing.

<sup>10</sup> A river of fire poured out of the throne. Thousands upon thousands served him, tens of thousands attended him. The courtroom was called to order, and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> "I kept watching. The little horn was speaking arrogantly. Then, as I watched, the monster was killed and its body cremated in a roaring fire.

<sup>12</sup> The other animals lived on for a limited time, but they didn't really do anything, had no power to rule.

<sup>15</sup> "But as for me, Daniel, I was disturbed. All these dream-visions had me agitated.

<sup>16</sup> So I went up to one of those standing by and asked him the meaning of all this. And he told me, interpreting the dream for me:

<sup>17</sup> "'These four huge animals,' he said, 'mean that four kingdoms will appear on earth.

<sup>18</sup> But eventually the holy people of the High God will be given the kingdom and have it ever after--yes, forever and ever.'

<sup>19</sup> "But I wanted to know more. I was curious about the fourth animal, the one so different from the others, the hideous monster with the iron teeth and the bronze claws, gulping down what it ripped to pieces and trampling the leftovers into the dirt.

<sup>20</sup> And I wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the other horn that sprouted up while three of the original horns were removed. This new horn had eyes and a big mouth and spoke arrogantly, dominating the other horns.

<sup>21</sup> I watched as this horn was making war on God's holy people and getting the best of them.

<sup>22</sup> But then The Old One intervened and decided things in favor of the people of the High God. In the end, God's holy people took over the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> "The bystander continued, telling me this: 'The fourth animal is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from the first three kingdoms, a monster kingdom that will chew up everyone in sight and spit them out.

<sup>24</sup> The ten horns are ten kings, one after another, that will come from this kingdom. But then another king will arrive. He will be different from the earlier kings. He will begin by toppling three kings.

<sup>25</sup> Then he will blaspheme the High God, persecute the followers of the High God, and try to get rid of sacred worship and moral practice. God's holy people will be persecuted by him for a time, two times, half a time.

<sup>26</sup> "But when the court comes to order, the horn will be stripped of its power and totally destroyed.

<sup>27</sup> Then the royal rule and the authority and the glory of all the kingdoms under heaven will be handed over to the people of the High God. Their royal rule will last forever. All other rulers will serve and obey them.'

<sup>28</sup> "And there it ended. I, Daniel, was in shock. I was like a man who had seen a ghost. But I kept it all to myself.

8 <sup>1</sup> "In King Belshazzar's third year as king, another vision came to me, Daniel. This was now the second vision.

<sup>3</sup> Looking around, I was surprised to see a ram also standing at the gate. The ram had two huge horns, one bigger than the other, but the bigger horn was the last to appear.

<sup>4</sup> I watched as the ram charged: first west, then north, then south. No beast could stand up to him. He did just as he pleased, strutting as if he were king of the beasts.

<sup>5</sup> "While I was watching this, wondering what it all meant, I saw a billy goat with an immense horn in the middle of its forehead come up out of the west and fly across the whole country, not once touching the ground.

<sup>6</sup> The billy goat approached the double-horned ram that I had earlier seen standing at the gate and, enraged, charged it viciously.

<sup>7</sup> I watched as, mad with rage, it charged the ram and hit it so hard that it broke off its two horns. The ram didn't stand a chance against it. The billy goat knocked the ram to the ground and stomped all over it. Nothing could have saved the ram from the goat.

<sup>8</sup> "Then the billy goat swelled to an enormous size. At the height of its power its immense horn broke off and four other big horns sprouted in its place, pointing to the four points of the compass.

<sup>9</sup> And then from one of these big horns another horn sprouted. It started small, but then grew to an enormous size, facing south and east--toward lovely Palestine.

<sup>10</sup> The horn grew tall, reaching to the stars, the heavenly army, and threw some of the stars to the earth and stomped on them.

<sup>11</sup> It even dared to challenge the power of God, Prince of the Celestial Army! And then it threw out daily worship and desecrated the Sanctuary.

<sup>12</sup> As judgment against their sin, the holy people of God got the same treatment as the daily worship. The horn cast God's Truth aside. High-handed, it took over everything and everyone.

<sup>13</sup> "Then I overheard two holy angels talking. One asked, 'How long is what we see here going to last--the abolishing of daily worship, this devastating judgment against sin, the kicking around of God's holy people and the Sanctuary?'

<sup>14</sup> "The other answered, 'Over the course of 2,300 sacrifices, evening and morning. Then the Sanctuary will be set right again.'

<sup>16</sup> "Then I heard a man's voice from over by the Ulai Canal calling out, 'Gabriel, tell this man what is going on. Explain the vision to him.'

<sup>17</sup> He came up to me, but when he got close I became terrified and fell facedown on the ground. "He said, 'Understand that this vision has to do with the time of the end.'

<sup>18</sup> As soon as he spoke, I fainted, my face in the dirt. But he picked me up and put me on my feet.

<sup>19</sup> "And then he continued, 'I want to tell you what is going to happen as the judgment days of wrath wind down, for there is going to be an end to all this.

he pleases, knocking off heroes and holy ones left and right.

<sup>25</sup> He'll plot and scheme to make crime flourish--and oh, how it will flourish! He'll think he's invincible and get rid of anyone who gets in his way. But when he takes on the Prince of all princes, he'll be smashed to bits--but not by human hands.

<sup>26</sup> This vision of the 2,300 sacrifices, evening and morning, is accurate but confidential. Keep it to yourself. It refers to the far future.'

<sup>27</sup> "I, Daniel, walked around in a daze, unwell for days. Then I got a grip on myself and went back to work taking care of the king's affairs. But I continued to be upset by the vision. I couldn't make sense of it.

9<sup>1</sup> "Darius, son of Ahasuerus, born a Mede, became king over the land of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, was meditating on the Scriptures that gave, according to the Word of GOD to the prophet Jeremiah, the number of years that Jerusalem had to lie in ruins, namely, seventy.

<sup>3</sup> I turned to the Master God, asking for an answer--praying earnestly, fasting from meals, wearing rough penitential burlap, and kneeling in the ashes.

<sup>4</sup> I poured out my heart, baring my soul to GOD, my God: "'O Master, great and august God. You never waver in your covenant commitment, never give up on those who love you and do what you say.

your Word to our kings and leaders, our parents, and all the people in the land.

<sup>7</sup> You have done everything right, Master, but all we have to show for our lives is guilt and shame, the whole lot of us--people of Judah, citizens of Jerusalem, Israel at home and Israel in exile in all the places we've been banished to because of our betrayal of you.

<sup>8</sup> Oh yes, GOD, we've been exposed in our shame, all of us--our kings, leaders, parents--before the whole world. And deservedly so, because of our sin.

<sup>9</sup> "Compassion is our only hope, the compassion of you, the Master, our God, since in our rebellion we've forfeited our rights.

<sup>10</sup> We paid no attention to you when you told us how to live, the clear teaching that came through your servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> All of us in Israel ignored what you said. We defied your instructions and did what we pleased. And now we're paying for it: The solemn curse written out plainly in the revelation to God's servant Moses is now doing its work among us, the wages of our sin against you.

<sup>12</sup> You did to us and our rulers what you said you would do: You brought this catastrophic disaster on us, the worst disaster on record--and in Jerusalem!

<sup>13</sup> "Just as written in God's revelation to Moses, the catastrophe was total. Nothing was held back. We kept at our sinning, never giving you a second thought, oblivious to your clear warning, <sup>14</sup> and so you had no choice but to let the disaster loose on us in full force. You, our GOD, had a perfect right to do this since we persistently and defiantly ignored you.

<sup>15</sup> "Master, you are our God, for you delivered your people from the land of Egypt in a show of power--people are still talking about it! We confess that we have sinned, that we have lived bad lives.

<sup>16</sup> Following the lines of what you have always done in setting things right, setting [people] right, please stop being so angry with Jerusalem, your very own city, your holy mountain. We know it's our fault that this has happened, all because of our sins and our parents' sins, and now we're an embarrassment to everyone around us. We're a blot on the neighborhood.

<sup>17</sup> So listen, God, to this determined prayer of your servant. Have mercy on your ruined Sanctuary. Act out of who you are, not out of what we are.

<sup>18</sup> "Turn your ears our way, God, and listen. Open your eyes and take a long look at our ruined city, this city named after you. We know that we don't deserve a hearing from you. Our appeal is to your compassion. This prayer is our last and only hope:

<sup>19</sup> "'Master, listen to us! Master, forgive us! Master, look at us and do something! Master, don't put us off! Your city and your people are named after you: You have a stake in us!'

<sup>20</sup> "While I was pouring out my heart, baring my sins and the sins of my people Israel, praying my life out before my God, interceding for the holy mountain of my God

<sup>21</sup> --while I was absorbed in this praying, the humanlike Gabriel, the one I had seen in an earlier vision, approached me, flying in like a bird about the time of evening worship.

<sup>22</sup> "He stood before me and said, 'Daniel, I have come to make things plain to you.

<sup>23</sup> You had no sooner started your prayer when the answer was given. And now I'm here to deliver the answer to you. You are much loved! So listen carefully to the answer, the plain meaning of what is revealed:

<sup>24</sup> "'Seventy sevens are set for your people and for your holy city to throttle rebellion, stop sin, wipe out crime, set things right forever, confirm what the prophet saw, and anoint The Holy of Holies.

<sup>25</sup> "'Here is what you must understand: From the time the word goes out to rebuild Jerusalem until the coming of the Anointed Leader, there will be seven sevens. The rebuilding will take sixty-two sevens, including building streets and digging a moat. Those will be rough times.

<sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two sevens, the Anointed Leader will be killed--the end of him. The city and Sanctuary will be laid in ruins by the army of the newly arriving leader. The end will come in a rush, like a flood. War will rage right up to the end, desolation the order of the day.

<sup>27</sup> "Then for one seven, he will forge many and strong alliances, but halfway through the seven he will banish worship and prayers. At the place of worship, a desecrating obscenity will be set up and remain until finally the desecrator himself is decisively destroyed."

10 <sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia, a message was made plain to Daniel, whose Babylonian name was Belteshazzar. The message was true. It dealt with a big war. He understood the message, the understanding coming by revelation:

<sup>3</sup> I ate only plain and simple food, no seasoning or meat or wine. I neither bathed nor shaved until the three weeks were up.

<sup>4</sup> "On the twenty-fourth day of the first month I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris.

<sup>5</sup> I looked up and to my surprise saw a man dressed in linen with a belt of pure gold around his waist.

<sup>7</sup> "I, Daniel, was the only one to see this. The men who were with me, although they didn't see it, were overcome with fear and ran off and hid, fearing the worst.

<sup>9</sup> "I heard his voice. At the sound of it I fainted, fell flat on the ground, face in the dirt.

<sup>10</sup> A hand touched me and pulled me to my hands and knees.

<sup>11</sup> "'Daniel,' he said, 'man of quality, listen carefully to my message. And get up on your feet. Stand at attention. I've been sent to bring you news.' "When he had said this, I stood up, but I was still shaking.

decided to humble yourself to receive understanding, your prayer was heard, and I set out to come to you.

<sup>14</sup> and was delayed for a good three weeks. But then Michael, one of the chief angel-princes, intervened to help me. I left him there with the prince of the kingdom of Persia. And now I'm here to help you understand what will eventually happen to your people. The vision has to do with what's ahead.'

<sup>15</sup> "While he was saying all this, I looked at the ground and said nothing.

<sup>16</sup> Then I was surprised by something like a human hand that touched my lips. I opened my mouth and started talking to the messenger: 'When I saw you, master, I was terror-stricken. My knees turned to water. I couldn't move.

<sup>17</sup> How can I, a lowly servant, speak to you, my master? I'm paralyzed. I can hardly breathe!

<sup>19</sup> He said, 'Don't be afraid, friend. Peace. Everything is going to be all right. Take courage. Be strong.' "Even as he spoke, courage surged up within me. I said, 'Go ahead, let my master speak. You've given me courage.'

<sup>20</sup> "He said, 'Do you know why I've come here to you? I now have to go back to fight against the angel-prince of Persia, and when I get him out of the way, the angel-prince of Greece will arrive.

<sup>21</sup> But first let me tell you what's written in The True Book. No one helps me in my fight against these beings except Michael, your angel-prince.

11 <sup>1</sup> "And I, in my turn, have been helping him out as best I can ever since the first year in the reign of Darius the Mede.'

<sup>2</sup> "'But now let me tell you the truth of how things stand: Three more kings of Persia will show up, and then a fourth will become richer than all of them. When he senses that he is powerful enough as a result of his wealth, he will go to war against the entire kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup> "'Then a powerful king will show up and take over a huge territory and run things just as he pleases.

<sup>4</sup> But at the height of his power, with everything seemingly under control, his kingdom will split into four parts, like the four points of the compass. But his heirs won't get in on it. There will be no continuity with his kingship. Others will tear it to pieces and grab whatever they can get for themselves.

<sup>5</sup> "Next the king of the south will grow strong, but one of his princes will grow stronger than he and rule an even larger territory.

<sup>6</sup> After a few years, the two of them will make a pact, and the daughter of the king of the south will marry the king of the north to cement the peace agreement. But her influence will weaken and her child will not survive. She and her servants, her child, and her husband will be betrayed. "Sometime later

<sup>7</sup> a member of the royal family will show up and take over. He will take command of his army and invade the defenses of the king of the north and win a resounding victory.

<sup>8</sup> He will load up their tin gods and all the gold and silver trinkets that go with them and cart them off to Egypt.

Eventually, the king of the north will recover

<sup>9</sup> and invade the country of the king of the south, but unsuccessfully. He will have to retreat.

<sup>10</sup> "But then his sons will raise a huge army and rush down like a flood, a torrential attack, on the defenses of the south.

<sup>11</sup> "Furious, the king of the south will come out and engage the king of the north and his huge army in battle and rout them.

<sup>13</sup> for the king of the north will put together another army bigger than the last one, and after a few years he'll come back to do battle again with his immense army and endless supplies.

<sup>14</sup> "In those times, many others will get into the act and go off to fight against the king of the south. Hotheads from your own people, drunk on dreams, will join them. But they'll sputter out.

<sup>15</sup> "When the king of the north arrives, he'll build siege works and capture the outpost fortress city. The armies of the south will fall to pieces before him. Not even their famous commando shock troops will slow down the attacker.

<sup>16</sup> He'll march in big as you please, as if he owned the place. He'll take over that beautiful country, Palestine, and make himself at home in it.

<sup>17</sup> Then he'll proceed to get everything, lock, stock, and barrel, in his control. He'll cook up a peace treaty and even give his daughter in marriage to the king of the south in a plot to destroy him totally. But the plot will fizzle. It won't succeed.

<sup>18</sup> "Later, he'll turn his attention to the coastal regions and capture a bunch of prisoners, but a general will step in and put a stop to his bullying ways. The bully will be bullied!

<sup>19</sup> He'll go back home and tend to his own military affairs. But by then he'll be washed up and soon will be heard of no more.

<sup>20</sup> "He will be replaced shortly by a real loser, his rule, reputation, and authority already in shreds. And he won't last long. He'll slip out of history quietly, without even a fight.

<sup>21</sup> "His place will be taken by a reject, a man spurned and passed over for advancement. He'll surprise everyone, seemingly coming out of nowhere, and will seize the kingdom.

<sup>22</sup> He'll come in like a steamroller, flattening the opposition. Even the Prince of the Covenant will be crushed.

<sup>24</sup> Arbitrarily and impulsively, he'll invade the richest provinces. He'll surpass all his ancestors, near and distant, in his rape of the country, grabbing and looting, living with his cronies in corrupt and lavish luxury. "He will make plans against the fortress cities, but they'll turn out to be shortsighted.

<sup>25</sup> He'll get a great army together, all charged up to fight the king of the south. The king of the south in response will get his army--an even greater army--in place, ready to fight. But he won't be able to sustain that intensity for long because of the treacherous intrigue

<sup>26</sup> in his own ranks, his court having been honeycombed with vicious plots. His army will be smashed, the battlefield filled with corpses.

<sup>27</sup> "The two kings, each with evil designs on the other, will sit at the conference table and trade lies. Nothing will come of the treaty, which is nothing but a tissue of lies anyway. But that's not the end of it. There's more to this story.

<sup>28</sup> "The king of the north will go home loaded down with plunder, but his mind will be set on destroying the holy covenant as he passes through the country on his way home.

<sup>29</sup> "One year later he will mount a fresh invasion of the south. But the second invasion won't compare to the first.

<sup>30</sup> When the Roman ships arrive, he will turn tail and go back home. But as he passes through the country, he will be filled with anger at the holy covenant.

He will take up with all those who betray the holy covenant, favoring them.

<sup>31</sup> The bodyguards surrounding him will march in and desecrate the Sanctuary and citadel. They'll throw out the daily worship and set up in its place the obscene sacrilege.

<sup>32</sup> The king of the north will play up to those who betray the holy covenant, corrupting them even further with his seductive talk, but those who stay courageously loyal to their God will take a strong stand.

<sup>35</sup> The testing will refine, cleanse, and purify those who keep their heads on straight and stay true, for there is still more to come.

<sup>36</sup> "Meanwhile, the king of the north will do whatever he pleases. He'll puff himself up and posture himself as greater than any god. He will even dare to brag and boast in defiance of the God of gods. And he'll get by with it for a while--until this time of wrathful judgment is completed, for what is decreed must be done.

<sup>37</sup> He will have no respect for the gods of his ancestors, not even that popular favorite among women, Adonis. Contemptuous of every god and goddess, the king of the north will puff himself up greater than all of them.

<sup>38</sup> He'll even stoop to despising the God of the holy ones, and in the place where God is worshiped he will put on exhibit, with a lavish show of silver and gold and jewels, a new god that no one has ever heard of.

<sup>39</sup> Marching under the banner of a strange god, he will attack the key fortresses. He will promote everyone who falls into line behind this god, putting them in positions of power and paying them off with grants of land.

<sup>40</sup> "In the final wrap-up of this story, the king of the south will confront him. But the king of the north will come at him like a tornado. Unleashing chariots and horses and an armada of ships, he'll blow away anything in his path.

<sup>41</sup> As he enters the beautiful land, people will fall before him like dominoes. Only Edom, Moab, and a few Ammonites will escape.

<sup>42</sup> As he reaches out, grabbing country after country, not even Egypt will be exempt.

<sup>43</sup> He will confiscate the treasuries of Egyptian gold and silver and other valuables. The Libyans and Ethiopians will fall in with him.

<sup>44</sup> Then disturbing reports will come in from the north and east that will throw him into a panic. Towering in rage, he'll rush to stamp out the threat.

<sup>45</sup> But he'll no sooner have pitched camp between the Mediterranean Sea and the Holy Mountain--all those royal tents!--than he'll meet his end. And not a soul around who can help!

12 <sup>1</sup> "That's when Michael, the great angel-prince, champion of your people, will step in. It will be a time of trouble, the worst trouble the world has ever seen. But your people will be saved from the trouble, every last one found written in the Book.

<sup>2</sup> Many who have been long dead and buried will wake up, some to eternal life, others to eternal shame.

<sup>6</sup> One of them asked a third man who was dressed in linen and who straddled the river, 'How long is this astonishing story to go on?'

<sup>7</sup> "The man dressed in linen, who straddled the river, raised both hands to the skies. I heard him solemnly swear by the Eternal One that it would be a time, two times, and half a time, that when the oppressor of the holy people was brought down the story would be complete.

<sup>8</sup> "I heard all this plainly enough, but I didn't understand it. So I asked, 'Master, can you explain this to me?'

<sup>9</sup> "Go on about your business, Daniel,' he said. 'The message is confidential and under lock and key until the end, until things are about to be wrapped up.

<sup>10</sup> The populace will be washed clean and made like new. But the wicked will just keep on being wicked, without a clue about what is happening. Those who live wisely and well will understand what's going on.'

<sup>11</sup> "From the time that the daily worship is banished from the Temple and the obscene desecration is set up in its place, there will be 1,290 days.

<sup>13</sup> "And you? Go about your business without fretting or worrying. Relax. When it's all over, you will be on your feet to receive your reward."

Hosea

1 <sup>1</sup> This is God's Message to Hosea son of Beerī. It came to him during the royal reigns of Judah's kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. This was also the time that Jeroboam son of Joash was king over Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The first time GOD spoke to Hosea he said: "Find a whore and marry her. Make this whore the mother of your children. And here's why: This whole country has become a whorehouse, unfaithful to me, GOD."

<sup>3</sup> Hosea did it. He picked Gomer daughter of Diblaim. She got pregnant and gave him a son.

<sup>4</sup> Then GOD told him: "Name him Jezreel. It won't be long now before I'll make the people of Israel pay for the massacre at Jezreel. I'm calling it quits on the kingdom of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Payday is coming! I'm going to chop Israel's bows and arrows into kindling in the valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup> Gomer got pregnant again. This time she had a daughter. GOD told Hosea: "Name this one No-Mercy. I'm fed up with Israel. I've run out of mercy. There's no more forgiveness.

<sup>7</sup> Judah's another story. I'll continue having mercy on them. I'll save them. It will be their GOD who saves them, Not their armaments and armies, not their horsepower and manpower."

<sup>8</sup> After Gomer had weaned No-Mercy, she got pregnant yet again and had a son.

<sup>9</sup> GOD said: "Name him Nobody. You've become nobodies to me, and I, GOD, am a nobody to you.

<sup>10</sup> "But down the road the population of Israel is going to explode past counting, like sand on the ocean beaches. In the very place where they were once named Nobody, they will be named God's Somebody.

<sup>3</sup> If she refuses, I'll rip off her clothes and expose her, naked as a newborn. I'll turn her skin into dried-out leather, her body into a badlands landscape, a rack of bones in the desert.

<sup>5</sup> Face it: Your mother's been a whore, bringing bastard children into the world. She said, 'I'm off to see my lovers! They'll wine and dine me, Dress and caress me, perfume and adorn me!'

<sup>6</sup> But I'll fix her: I'll dump her in a field of thistles, then lose her in a dead-end alley.

<sup>7</sup> She'll go on the hunt for her lovers but not bring down a single one. She'll look high and low but won't find a one. Then she'll say, 'I'm going back to my husband, the one I started out with. That was a better life by far than this one.'

<sup>8</sup> She didn't know that it was I all along who wined and dined and adorned her, That I was the one who dressed her up in the big-city fashions and jewelry that she wasted on wild Baal-orgies.

<sup>10</sup> I'll expose her genitals to the public. All her fly-by-night lovers will be helpless to help her.

<sup>11</sup> Party time is over. I'm calling a halt to the whole business, her wild weekends and unholy holidays.

<sup>12</sup> I'll wreck her sumptuous gardens and ornamental fountains, of which she bragged, 'Whoring paid for all this!' They will soon be dumping grounds for garbage, feeding grounds for stray dogs and cats.

<sup>13</sup> I'll make her pay for her indulgence in promiscuous religion--all that sensuous Baal worship And all the promiscuous sex that went with it, stalking her lovers, dressed to kill, And not a thought for me." GOD's Message!

<sup>14</sup> "And now, here's what I'm going to do: I'm going to start all over again. I'm taking her back out into the wilderness where we had our first date, and I'll court her.

<sup>15</sup> I'll give her bouquets of roses. I'll turn Heartbreak Valley into Acres of Hope. She'll respond like she did as a young girl, those days when she was fresh out of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> "At that time"--this is GOD's Message still--"you'll address me, 'Dear husband!' Never again will you address me, 'My slave-master!'

<sup>18</sup> At the same time I'll make a peace treaty between you and wild animals and birds and reptiles, And get rid of all weapons of war. Think of it! Safe from beasts and bullies!

<sup>19</sup> And then I'll marry you for good-- forever! I'll marry you true and proper, in love and tenderness.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, I'll marry you and neither leave you nor let you go. You'll know me, GOD, for who I really am.

<sup>21</sup> "On the very same day, I'll answer"--this is GOD's Message--"I'll answer the sky, sky will answer earth, <sup>22</sup> Earth will answer grain and wine and olive oil, and they'll all answer Jezreel.

<sup>23</sup> I'll plant her in the good earth. I'll have mercy on No-Mercy. I'll say to Nobody, 'You're my dear Somebody,' and he'll say 'You're my God!'"

3 <sup>1</sup> Then GOD ordered me, "Start all over: Love your wife again, your wife who's in bed with her latest boyfriend, your cheating wife. Love her the way I,

GOD, love the Israelite people, even as they flirt and party with every god that takes their fancy."

<sup>3</sup> Then I told her, "From now on you're living with me. No more whoring, no more sleeping around. You're living with me and I'm living with you."

<sup>4</sup> The people of Israel are going to live a long time stripped of security and protection, without religion and comfort, godless and prayerless.

4 <sup>1</sup> Attention all Israelites! GOD's Message! GOD indicts the whole population: "No one is faithful. No one loves. No one knows the first thing about God.

<sup>3</sup> And because of all this, the very land itself weeps and everything in it is grief-stricken--animals in the fields and birds on the wing, even the fish in the sea are listless, lifeless.

<sup>4</sup> "But don't look for someone to blame. No finger pointing! You, priest, are the one in the dock.

<sup>5</sup> You stumble around in broad daylight, And then the prophets take over and stumble all night. Your mother is as bad as you.

<sup>6</sup> My people are ruined because they don't know what's right or true. Because you've turned your back on knowledge, I've turned my back on you priests. Because you refuse to recognize the revelation of God, I'm no longer recognizing your children.

<sup>7</sup> The more priests, the more sin. They traded in their glory for shame.

<sup>9</sup> The result: You can't tell the people from the priests, the priests from the people. I'm on my way to make them both pay and take the consequences of the bad lives they've lived.

<sup>13</sup> They worship on the tops of mountains, make a picnic out of religion. Under the oaks and elms on the hills they stretch out and take it easy. Before you know it, your daughters are whores and the wives of your sons are sleeping around.

<sup>14</sup> But I'm not going after your whoring daughters or the adulterous wives of your sons. It's the men who pick up the whores that I'm after, the men who worship at the holy whorehouses--a stupid people, ruined by whores!

<sup>15</sup> "You've ruined your own life, Israel--but don't drag Judah down with you! Don't go to the sex shrine at Gilgal, don't go to that sin city Bethel, Don't go around saying 'GOD bless you' and not mean it, taking God's name in vain.

5 <sup>1</sup> "Listen to this, priests! Attention, people of Israel! Royal family--all ears! You're in charge of justice around here. But what have you done? Exploited people at Mizpah, ripped them off on Tabor,

<sup>3</sup> "I know you, Ephraim, inside and out. Yes, Israel, I see right through you! Ephraim, you've played your sex-and-religion games long enough. All Israel is thoroughly polluted.

<sup>4</sup> They couldn't turn to God if they wanted to. Their evil life is a bad habit. Every breath they take is a whore's breath. They wouldn't recognize GOD if they saw me.

<sup>5</sup> "Bloated by arrogance, big as a house, they're a public disgrace, The lot of them--Israel, Ephraim, Judah--lurching and weaving down their guilty streets.

<sup>6</sup> When they decide to get their lives together and go off looking for GOD once again, They'll find it's too late. I, GOD, will be long gone.

<sup>9</sup> Ephraim will be left wasted, a lifeless moonscape. I'm telling it straight, the unvarnished truth, to the tribes of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> "Israel's rulers are crooks and thieves, cheating the people of their land, And I'm angry, good and angry. Every inch of their bodies is going to feel my anger.

<sup>11</sup> "Brutal Ephraim is himself brutalized--a taste of his own medicine! He was so determined to do it his own worthless way.

<sup>14</sup> "I'm a grizzly charging Ephraim, a grizzly with cubs charging Judah. I'll rip them to pieces--yes, I will! No one can stop me now. I'll drag them off. No one can help them.

<sup>15</sup> Then I'll go back to where I came from until they come to their senses. When they finally hit rock bottom, maybe they'll come looking for me."

6 <sup>1</sup> "Come on, let's go back to GOD. He hurt us, but he'll heal us. He hit us hard, but he'll put us right again.

<sup>2</sup> In a couple of days we'll feel better. By the third day he'll have made us brand-new, Alive and on our feet, fit to face him.

<sup>3</sup> We're ready to study GOD, eager for God-knowledge. As sure as dawn breaks, so sure is his daily arrival. He comes as rain comes, as spring rain refreshing the ground."

<sup>4</sup> "What am I to do with you, Ephraim? What do I make of you, Judah? Your declarations of love last no longer than morning mist and predawn dew.

<sup>5</sup> That's why I use prophets to shake you to attention, why my words cut you to the quick: To wake you up to my judgment blazing like light.

<sup>6</sup> I'm after love that lasts, not more religion. I want you to know GOD, not go to more prayer meetings.

<sup>10</sup> "I saw a shocking thing in the country of Israel: Ephraim worshiping in a religious whorehouse, and Israel in the mud right there with him.

<sup>11</sup> "You're as bad as the worst of them, Judah. You've been sowing wild oats. Now it's harvest time.

7 <sup>1</sup> "Every time I gave Israel a fresh start, wiped the slate clean and got them going again, Ephraim soon filled the slate with new sins, the treachery of Samaria written out in bold print. Two-faced and double-tongued, they steal you blind, pick you clean.

<sup>2</sup> It never crosses their mind that I keep account of their every crime. They're mud-spattered head to toe with the residue of sin. I see who they are and what they've done.

<sup>9</sup> Strangers suck him dry but he doesn't even notice. His hair has turned gray--he doesn't notice.

<sup>10</sup> Bloated by arrogance, big as a house, Israel's a public disgrace. Israel lumbers along oblivious to GOD, despite all the signs, ignoring GOD.

<sup>15</sup> I'm the one who gave them good minds and healthy bodies, and how am I repaid? With evil scheming!

<sup>16</sup> They turn, but not to me--turn here, then there, like a weather vane. Their rulers will be cut down, murdered--just deserts for their mocking blasphemies.

And the final sentence? Ridicule in the court of world opinion.

8<sup>1</sup> "Blow the trumpet! Sound the alarm! Vultures are circling over God's people Who have broken my covenant and defied my revelation.

<sup>2</sup> Predictably, Israel cries out, 'My God! We know you!' But they don't act like it.

<sup>3</sup> Israel will have nothing to do with what's good, and now the enemy is after them.

<sup>4</sup> "They crown kings, but without asking me. They set up princes but don't let me in on it. Instead, they make idols, using silver and gold, idols that will be their ruin.

<sup>5</sup> Throw that gold calf-god on the trash heap, Samaria! I'm seething with anger against that rubbish! How long before they shape up?

<sup>8</sup> Israel is swallowed up and spit out. Among the pagans they're a piece of junk.

<sup>10</sup> Now, because of their whoring life among the pagans, I'm going to gather them together and confront them. They're going to reap the consequences soon, feel what it's like to be oppressed by the big king.

<sup>11</sup> "Ephraim has built a lot of altars, and then uses them for sinning. Can you believe it? Altars for sinning!

<sup>12</sup> I write out my revelation for them in detail and they pretend they can't read it.

<sup>13</sup> They offer sacrifices to me and then they feast on the meat. GOD is not pleased! I'm fed up--I'll keep remembering their guilt. I'll punish their sins and send them back to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten his Maker and gotten busy making palaces. Judah has gone in for a lot of fortress cities. I'm sending fire on their cities to burn down their fortifications."

9 <sup>1</sup> Don't waste your life in wild orgies, Israel. Don't party away your life with the heathen. You walk away from your God at the drop of a hat and like a whore sell yourself promiscuously at every sex-and-religion party on the street.

<sup>3</sup> At this rate you'll not last long in GOD's land: Some of you are going to end up bankrupt in Egypt. Some of you will be disillusioned in Assyria.

<sup>4</sup> As refugees in Egypt and Assyria, you won't have much chance to worship GOD--Sentenced to rations of bread and water, and your souls polluted by the spirit-dirty air. You'll be starved for GOD, exiled from GOD's own country.

<sup>5</sup> Will you be homesick for the old Holy Days? Will you miss festival worship of GOD?

<sup>6</sup> Be warned! When you escape from the frying pan of disaster, you'll fall into the fire of Egypt. Egypt will give you a fine funeral! What use will all your god-inspired silver be then as you eke out a living in a field of weeds?

<sup>8</sup> The prophet is looking out for Ephraim, working under God's orders. But everyone is trying to trip him up. He's hated right in God's house, of all places.

<sup>9</sup> The people are going from bad to worse, rivaling that ancient and unspeakable crime at Gibeah. God's keeping track of their guilt. He'll make them pay for their sins.

<sup>10</sup> "Long ago when I came upon Israel, it was like finding grapes out in the desert. When I found your ancestors, it was like finding a fig tree bearing fruit for the first time. But when they arrived at Baal-peor, that pagan shrine, they took to sin like a pig to filth, wallowing in the mud with their newfound friends.

<sup>13</sup> I see Ephraim letting his children run wild. He might just as well take them and kill them outright!"

I'm wasting no more love on them.
Their leaders are a bunch of rebellious adolescents.

<sup>16</sup> Ephraim is hit hard--roots withered, no more fruit. Even if by some miracle they had children, the dear babies wouldn't live--I'd make sure of that!"

10 <sup>1</sup> Israel was once a lush vine, bountiful in grapes. The more lavish the harvest, the more promiscuous the worship. The more money they got, the more they squandered on gods-in-their-own-image.

<sup>3</sup> They go around saying, "Who needs a king? We couldn't care less about GOD, so why bother with a king? What difference would he make?"

<sup>4</sup> They talk big, lie through their teeth, make deals. But their high-sounding words turn out to be empty words, litter in the gutters.

<sup>5</sup> The people of Samaria travel over to Crime City to worship the golden calf-god. They go all out, prancing and hollering, taken in by their showmen priests. They act so important around the calf-god, but are oblivious to the sham, the shame.

<sup>6</sup> They have plans to take it to Assyria, present it as a gift to the great king. And so Ephraim makes a fool of himself, disgraces Israel with his stupid idols.

<sup>8</sup> Israel's favorite sin centers will all be torn down. Thistles and crabgrass will decorate their ruined altars. Then they'll say to the mountains, "Bury us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

<sup>9</sup> You got your start in sin at Gibeah--that ancient, unspeakable, shocking sin--And you've been at it ever since. And Gibeah will mark the end of it in a war to end all the sinning.

<sup>10</sup> I'll come to teach them a lesson. Nations will gang up on them, Making them learn the hard way the sum of Gibeah plus Gibeah.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim was a trained heifer that loved to thresh. Passing by and seeing her strong, sleek neck, I wanted to harness Ephraim, Put Ephraim to work in the fields--Judah plowing, Jacob harrowing:

<sup>12</sup> Sow righteousness, reap love. It's time to till the ready earth, it's time to dig in with GOD, Until he arrives with righteousness ripe for harvest.

<sup>13</sup> But instead you plowed wicked ways, reaped a crop of evil and ate a salad of lies. You thought you could do it all on your own, flush with weapons and manpower.

<sup>14</sup> But the volcano of war will erupt among your people. All your defense posts will be leveled As viciously as king Shalman leveled the town of Beth-arba, When mothers and their babies were smashed on the rocks.

<sup>15</sup> That's what's ahead for you, you so-called people of God, because of your off-the-charts evil. Some morning you're going to wake up and find Israel, king and kingdom, a blank--nothing.

11 <sup>1</sup> "When Israel was only a child, I loved him. I called out, 'My son!'--called him out of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> Still, I stuck with him. I led Ephraim. I rescued him from human bondage, But he never acknowledged my help, <sup>4</sup> never admitted that I was the one pulling his wagon, That I lifted him, like a baby, to my cheek, that I bent down to feed him.

<sup>5</sup> Now he wants to go [back] to Egypt or go over to Assyria--anything but return to me!

<sup>6</sup> That's why his cities are unsafe--the murder rate skyrockets and every plan to improve things falls to pieces.

<sup>7</sup> My people are hell-bent on leaving me. They pray to god Baal for help. He doesn't lift a finger to help them.

<sup>8</sup> But how can I give up on you, Ephraim? How can I turn you loose, Israel? How can I leave you to be ruined like Admah, devastated like luckless Zeboim? I can't bear to even think such thoughts. My insides churn in protest.

<sup>9</sup> And so I'm not going to act on my anger. I'm not going to destroy Ephraim. And why? Because I am God and not a human. I'm The Holy One and I'm here--in your very midst.

<sup>2</sup> GOD is bringing charges against Israel. Jacob's children are hauled into court to be punished.

<sup>3</sup> In the womb, that heel, Jacob, got the best of his brother. When he grew up, he tried to get the best of GOD.

<sup>4</sup> But GOD would not be bested. GOD bested him. Brought to his knees, Jacob wept and prayed. GOD found him at Bethel. That's where he spoke with him.

<sup>5</sup> GOD is GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, GOD-Revealed, GOD-Known.

<sup>6</sup> What are you waiting for? Return to your God! Commit yourself in love, in justice! Wait for your God, and don't give up on him--ever!

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim boasted, "Look, I'm rich! I've made it big! And look how well I've covered my tracks: not a hint of fraud, not a sign of sin!"

<sup>9</sup> "But not so fast! I'm GOD, [your] God! Your God from the days in Egypt! I'm going to put you back to living in tents, as in the old days when you worshiped in the wilderness.

<sup>12</sup> Are you going to repeat the life of your ancestor Jacob? He ran off guilty to Aram, Then sold his soul to get ahead, and made it big through treachery and deceit.

<sup>13</sup> Your real identity is formed through God-sent prophets, who led you out of Egypt and served as faithful pastors.

<sup>14</sup> As it is, Ephraim has continually and inexcusably insulted God. Now he has to pay for his life-destroying ways. His Master will do to him what he has done.

13 <sup>1</sup> God once let loose against Ephraim a terrifying sentence against Israel: Caught and convicted in the lewd sex-worship of Baal--they died!

<sup>2</sup> And now they're back in the sin business again, manufacturing god-images they can use, Religion customized to taste. Professionals see to it: Anything you want in a god you can get. Can you believe it? They sacrifice live babies to these dead gods--kill living babies and kiss golden calves!

<sup>4</sup> "I'm still your GOD, the God who saved you out of Egypt. I'm the only real God you've ever known. I'm the one and only God who delivers.

<sup>6</sup> I took care of you, took care of all your needs, gave you everything you needed. You were spoiled. You thought you didn't need me. You forgot me.

<sup>9</sup> I'm going to destroy you, Israel. Who is going to stop me?

<sup>10</sup> Where is your trusty king you thought would save you? Where are all the local leaders you wanted so badly? All these rulers you insisted on having, demanding, 'Give me a king! Give me leaders!'

<sup>11</sup> Well, long ago I gave you a king, but I wasn't happy about it. Now, fed up, I've gotten rid of him.

<sup>12</sup> I have a detailed record of your infidelities--Ephraim's sin documented and stored in a safe-deposit box.

<sup>13</sup> "When birth pangs signaled it was time to be born, Ephraim was too stupid to come out of the womb. When the passage into life opened up, he didn't show.

<sup>14</sup> Shall I intervene and pull them into life? Shall I snatch them from a certain death? Who is afraid of you, Death?

Who cares about your threats, Tomb? In the end I'm abolishing regret, banishing sorrow, <sup>15</sup> Even though Ephraim ran wild, the black sheep of the family. "GOD's tornado is on its way, roaring out of the desert. It will devastate the country, leaving a trail of ruin and wreckage. The cities will be gutted, dear possessions gone for good.

<sup>16</sup> Now Samaria has to face the charges because she has rebelled against her God: Her people will be killed, babies smashed on the rocks, pregnant women ripped open."

14 <sup>1</sup> O Israel, come back! Return to your GOD! You're down but you're not out.

<sup>2</sup> Prepare your confession and come back to GOD. Pray to him, "Take away our sin, accept our confession. Receive as restitution our repentant prayers.

<sup>3</sup> Assyria won't save us; horses won't get us where we want to go. We'll never again say 'our god' to something we've made or made up. You're our last hope. Is it not true that in you the orphan finds mercy?"

<sup>4</sup> "I will heal their waywardness. I will love them lavishly. My anger is played out.

<sup>7</sup> Those who live near him will be blessed by him, be blessed and prosper like golden grain. Everyone will be talking about them, spreading their fame as the vintage children of God.

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim is finished with gods that are no-gods. From now on I'm the one who answers and satisfies him. I am like a luxuriant fruit tree. Everything you need is to be found in me."

<sup>9</sup> If you want to live well, make sure you understand all of this. If you know what's good for you, you'll learn this inside and out. GOD's paths get you where you want to go. Right-living people walk them easily; wrong-living people are always tripping and stumbling.

Joel

1 <sup>1</sup> God's Message to Joel son of Pethuel:

booze is cut off. You're on the wagon, like it or not.

<sup>6</sup> My country's being invaded by an army invincible, past numbering, Teeth like those of a lion, fangs like those of a tiger.

<sup>7</sup> It has ruined my vineyards, stripped my orchards, And clear-cut the country. The landscape's a moonscape.

<sup>9</sup> Without grain and grapes, worship has been brought to a standstill in the Sanctuary of GOD. The priests are at a loss. GOD's ministers don't know what to do.

<sup>10</sup> The fields are sterile. The very ground grieves. The wheat fields are lifeless, vineyards dried up, olive oil gone.

<sup>11</sup> Dirt farmers, despair! Grape growers, wring your hands! Lament the loss of wheat and barley. All crops have failed.

<sup>12</sup> Vineyards dried up, fig trees withered, Pomegranates, date palms, and apple trees--deadwood everywhere! And joy is dried up and withered in the hearts of the people.

<sup>13</sup> And also you priests, put on your robes and join the outcry. You who lead people in worship, lead them in lament. Spend the night dressed in gunnysacks, you servants of my God. Nothing's going on in the place of worship, no offerings, no prayers--nothing.

<sup>15</sup> What a day! Doomsday! GOD's Judgment Day has come. The Strong God has arrived. This is serious business!

<sup>20</sup> Wild animals, dying of thirst, look to you for a drink. Springs and streams are dried up. The whole country is burning up.

2<sup>1</sup> Blow the ram's horn trumpet in Zion! Trumpet the alarm on my holy mountain! Shake the country up! GOD's Judgment's on its way--the Day's almost here!

<sup>8</sup> They don't get in each other's way. Each one knows his job and does it. Undaunted and fearless, unswerving, unstoppable.

<sup>11</sup> GOD himself bellows in thunder as he commands his forces. Look at the size of that army! And the strength of those who obey him! GOD's Judgment Day--great and terrible. Who can possibly survive this?

<sup>12</sup> But there's also this, it's not too late--GOD's personal Message!--"Come back to me and really mean it! Come fasting and weeping, sorry for your sins!"

<sup>13</sup> Change your life, not just your clothes. Come back to GOD, [your] God. And here's why: God is kind and merciful. He takes a deep breath, puts up with a lot, This most patient God, extravagant in love, always ready to cancel catastrophe.

<sup>14</sup> Who knows? Maybe he'll do it now, maybe he'll turn around and show pity. Maybe, when all's said and done, there'll be blessings full and robust for your GOD!

<sup>16</sup> Get everyone there. Consecrate the congregation. Make sure the elders come, but bring in the children, too, even the nursing babies, Even men and women on their honeymoon--interrupt them and get them there.

<sup>17</sup> Between Sanctuary entrance and altar, let the priests, GOD's servants, weep tears of repentance. Let them intercede: "Have mercy, GOD, on your people! Don't abandon your heritage to contempt. Don't let the pagans take over and rule them and sneer, 'And so where is this God of theirs?'"

<sup>19</sup> GOD answered and spoke to his people, "Look, listen--I'm sending a gift: Grain and wine and olive oil. The fast is over--eat your fill! I won't expose you any longer to contempt among the pagans.

<sup>20</sup> I'll head off the final enemy coming out of the north and dump them in a wasteland. Half of them will end up in the Dead Sea, the other half in the Mediterranean. There they'll rot, a stench to high heaven. The bigger the enemy, the stronger the stench!"

<sup>21</sup> Fear not, earth! Be glad and celebrate! GOD has done great things.

<sup>24</sup> And plenty of food for your body--silos full of grain, casks of wine and barrels of olive oil.

locusts, locusts of doom, That great locust invasion I sent your way.

<sup>26</sup> You'll eat your fill of good food. You'll be full of praises to your GOD, The God who has set you back on your heels in wonder. Never again will my people be despised.

<sup>27</sup> You'll know without question that I'm in the thick of life with Israel, That I'm your GOD, yes, [your] GOD, the one and only real God. Never again will my people be despised.

<sup>28</sup> "And that's just the beginning: After that--" I will pour out my Spirit on every kind of people: Your sons will prophesy, also your daughters. Your old men will dream, your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup> I'll even pour out my Spirit on the servants, men and women both.

<sup>31</sup> the sun turning black and the moon blood-red, Before the Judgment Day of GOD, the Day tremendous and awesome.

<sup>32</sup> Whoever calls, 'Help, GOD!' gets help. On Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be a great rescue--just as GOD said. Included in the survivors are those that GOD calls.

3<sup>1</sup> "In those days, yes, at that very time when I put life back together again for Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> I'll assemble all the godless nations. I'll lead them down into Judgment Valley And put them all on trial, and judge them one and all because of their treatment of my own people Israel. They scattered my people all over the pagan world and grabbed my land for themselves.

<sup>3</sup> They threw dice for my people and used them for barter. They would trade a boy for a whore, sell a girl for a bottle of wine when they wanted a drink.

<sup>4</sup> "As for you, Tyre and Sidon and Philistia, why should I bother with you? Are you trying to get back at me for something I did to you? If you are, forget it. I'll see to it that it boomerangs on you.

<sup>5</sup> You robbed me, cleaned me out of silver and gold, carted off everything valuable to furnish your own temples.

<sup>7</sup> But I'm going to reverse your crime. I'm going to free those slaves. I'll have done to you what you did to them:

But GOD is a safe hiding place, a granite safe house for the children of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> Then you'll know for sure that I'm [your] GOD, Living in Zion, my sacred mountain. Jerusalem will be a sacred city, posted: 'NO TRESPASSING.'

<sup>19</sup> But Egypt will be reduced to weeds in a vacant lot, Edom turned into barren badlands, All because of brutalities to the Judean people, the atrocities and murders of helpless innocents.

<sup>21</sup> The sins I haven't already forgiven, I'll forgive." GOD has moved into Zion for good.

Amos

1 <sup>1</sup> The Message of Amos, one of the shepherds of Tekoa, that he received on behalf of Israel. It came to him in visions during the time that Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam II son of Joash was king of Israel, two years before the big earthquake.

<sup>5</sup> I'm going to smash the Damascus gates and banish the crime king who lives in Sin Valley, the vice boss who gives orders from Paradise Palace. The people of the land will be sent back to where they came from--to Kir." GOD's Decree.

<sup>6</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Gaza--make that four--I'm not putting up with her any longer. She deported whole towns and then sold the people to Edom.

<sup>9</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Tyre--make that four--I'm not putting up with her any longer. She deported whole towns to Edom, breaking the treaty she had with her kin.

<sup>10</sup> For that, I'm burning down the walls of Tyre, burning up all her forts."

<sup>11</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Edom--make that four--I'm not putting up with her any longer. She hunts down her brother to murder him. She has no pity, she has no heart. Her anger rampages day and night. Her meanness never takes a timeout.

<sup>13</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Ammon--make that four--I'm not putting up with her any longer. She ripped open pregnant women in Gilead to get more land for herself.

GOD's Decree.

2 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Moab--make that four--I'm not putting up with her any longer. She violated the corpse of Edom's king, burning it to cinders.

<sup>4</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Judah--make that four--I'm not putting up with them any longer. They rejected GOD's revelation, refused to keep my commands. But they swallowed the same old lies that got their ancestors onto dead-end roads.

<sup>6</sup> GOD's Message: "Because of the three great sins of Israel--make that four--I'm not putting up with them any longer. They buy and sell upstanding people. People for them are only [things]--ways of making money. They'd sell a poor man for a pair of shoes. They'd sell their own grandmother!

they sit around drinking wine they've conned from their victims.

<sup>9</sup> "In contrast, I was always on your side. I destroyed the Amorites who confronted you, Amorites with the stature of great cedars, tough as thick oaks. I destroyed them from the top branches down. I destroyed them from the roots up.

<sup>10</sup> And yes, I'm the One who delivered you from Egypt, led you safely through the wilderness for forty years And then handed you the country of the Amorites like a piece of cake on a platter.

<sup>11</sup> I raised up some of your young men to be prophets, set aside your best youth for training in holiness. Isn't this so, Israel?" GOD's Decree.

<sup>12</sup> "But you made the youth-in-training break training, and you told the young prophets, 'Don't prophesy!'

3 <sup>1</sup> Listen to this, Israel. GOD is calling you to account--and I mean all of you, everyone connected with the family that he delivered out of Egypt. Listen!

<sup>2</sup> "Out of all the families on earth, I picked [you]. Therefore, because of your special calling, I'm holding you responsible for all your sins."

<sup>3</sup> Do two people walk hand in hand if they aren't going to the same place?

<sup>4</sup> Does a lion roar in the forest if there's no carcass to devour? Does a young lion growl with pleasure if he hasn't caught his supper?

<sup>10</sup> They can't--or won't--do one thing right." GOD said so. "They stockpile violence and blight.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore"--this is GOD's Word--"an enemy will surround the country. He'll strip you of your power and plunder your forts."

<sup>12</sup> GOD's Message: "In the same way that a shepherd trying to save a lamb from a lion Manages to recover just a pair of legs or the scrap of an ear, So will little be saved of the Israelites who live in Samaria--A couple of old chairs at most, the broken leg of a table.

<sup>15</sup> I'll tear down the winter palace, smash the summer palace--all your fancy buildings. The luxury homes will be demolished, all those pretentious houses." GOD's Decree.

4 <sup>1</sup> "Listen to this, you cows of Bashan grazing on the slopes of Samaria. You women! Mean to the poor, cruel to the down-and-out! Indolent and pampered, you demand of your husbands, 'Bring us a tall, cool drink!'

<sup>2</sup> "This is serious--I, GOD, have sworn by my holiness! Be well warned: Judgment Day is coming! They're going to rope you up and haul you off, keep the stragglers in line with cattle prods.

<sup>3</sup> They'll drag you through the ruined city walls, forcing you out single file,

And kick you to kingdom come." GOD's Decree.

<sup>4</sup> "Come along to Bethel and sin! And then to Gilgal and sin some more! Bring your sacrifices for morning worship. Every third day bring your tithe.

<sup>6</sup> "You know, don't you, that I'm the One who emptied your pantries and cleaned out your cupboards, Who left you hungry and standing in bread lines? But you never got hungry for me. You continued to ignore me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>7</sup> "Yes, and I'm the One who stopped the rains three months short of harvest. I'd make it rain on one village but not on another. I'd make it rain on one field but not on another--and that one would dry up.

<sup>8</sup> People would stagger from village to village crazed for water and never quenching their thirst. But you never got thirsty for me. You ignored me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>9</sup> "I hit your crops with disease and withered your orchards and gardens. Locusts devoured your olive and fig trees, but you continued to ignore me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>10</sup> "I revisited you with the old Egyptian plagues, killed your choice young men and prize horses. The stink of rot in your camps was so strong that you held your noses--But you didn't notice me. You continued to ignore me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>11</sup> "I hit you with earthquake and fire, left you devastated like Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning stick snatched from the flames. But you never looked my way. You continued to ignore me." GOD's Decree.

<sup>12</sup> "All this I have done to you, Israel, and this is why I have done it. Time's up, O Israel! Prepare to meet your God!"

5 <sup>1</sup> Listen to this, family of Israel, this Message I'm sending in bold print, this tragic warning:

<sup>4</sup> GOD's Message to the family of Israel:
"Seek me and live.

<sup>5</sup> Don't fool around at those shrines of Bethel, Don't waste time taking trips to Gilgal, and don't bother going down to Beer-sheba. Gilgal is here today and gone tomorrow and Bethel is all show, no substance."

<sup>6</sup> So seek GOD and live! You don't want to end up with nothing to show for your life But a pile of ashes, a house burned to the ground. For God will send just such a fire, and the firefighters will show up too late.

<sup>7</sup> Woe to you who turn justice to vinegar and stomp righteousness into the mud.

<sup>8</sup> Do you realize where you are? You're in a cosmos star-flung with constellations by God, A world God wakes up each morning and puts to bed each night. God dips water from the ocean and gives the land a drink. GOD, God-revealed, does all this.

<sup>9</sup> And he can destroy it as easily as make it. He can turn this vast wonder into total waste.

Protest and rebuke are useless, a waste of breath.

<sup>14</sup> Seek good and not evil--and live! You talk about GOD, the God-of-the-Angel-Armies, being your best friend. Well, [live] like it, and maybe it will happen.

<sup>15</sup> Hate evil and love good, then work it out in the public square. Maybe GOD, the God-of-the-Angel-Armies, will notice your remnant and be gracious.

<sup>16</sup> Now again, my Master's Message, GOD, God-of-the-Angel-Armies: "Go out into the streets and lament loudly! Fill the malls and shops with cries of doom! Weep loudly, 'Not me! Not us, Not now!' Empty offices, stores, factories, workplaces. Enlist everyone in the general lament.

<sup>17</sup> I want to hear it loud and clear when I make my visit." GOD's Decree.

<sup>18</sup> Woe to all of you who want GOD's Judgment Day! Why would you want to see GOD, want him to come? When GOD comes, it will be bad news before it's good news, the worst of times, not the best of times.

<sup>23</sup> I've had all I can take of your noisy ego-music. When was the last time you sang to me?

<sup>24</sup> Do you know what I want? I want justice--oceans of it. I want fairness--rivers of it. That's what I want. That's [all] I want.

<sup>25</sup> "Didn't you, dear family of Israel, worship me faithfully for forty years in the wilderness, bringing the sacrifices and offerings I commanded?

<sup>26</sup> How is it you've stooped to dragging gimcrack statues of your so-called rulers around, hauling the cheap images of all your star-gods here and there?

<sup>27</sup> Since you like them so much, you can take them with you when I drive you into exile beyond Damascus." GOD's Message, God-of-the-Angel-Armies.

6 <sup>1</sup> Woe to you who think you live on easy street in Zion, who think Mount Samaria is the good life. You assume you're at the top of the heap, voted the number-one best place to live.

<sup>2</sup> Well, wake up and look around. Get off your pedestal. Take a look at Calneh. Go and visit Great Hamath. Look in on Gath of the Philistines. Doesn't that take you off your high horse? Compared to them, you're not much, are you?

<sup>3</sup> Woe to you who are rushing headlong to disaster! Catastrophe is just around the corner!

<sup>4</sup> Woe to those who live in luxury and expect everyone else to serve them!

<sup>5</sup> Woe to those who live only for today, indifferent to the fate of others! Woe to the playboys, the playgirls, who think life is a party held just for them!

<sup>7</sup> But here's what's [really] coming: a forced march into exile. They'll leave the country whining, a rag-tag bunch of good-for-nothings.

<sup>8</sup> GOD, the Master, has sworn, and solemnly stands by his Word. The God-of-the-Angel-Armies speaks: "I hate the arrogance of Jacob. I have nothing but contempt for his forts. I'm about to hand over the city and everyone in it."

<sup>9</sup> Ten men are in a house, all dead.

<sup>10</sup> A relative comes and gets the bodies to prepare them for a decent burial. He discovers a survivor huddled in a closet and asks, "Are there any more?" The answer: "Not a soul. But hush! GOD must not be mentioned in this desecrated place."

<sup>12</sup> Do you hold a horse race in a field of rocks? Do you plow the sea with oxen? You'd cripple the horses and drown the oxen. And yet you've made a shambles of justice, a bloated corpse of righteousness,

<sup>14</sup> "Enjoy it while you can, you Israelites. I've got a pagan army on the move against you"--this is your GOD speaking, God-of-the-Angel-Armies--"And they'll make hash of you, from one end of the country to the other."

7 <sup>1</sup> GOD, my Master, showed me this vision: He was preparing a locust swarm. The first cutting, which went to the king, was complete, and the second crop was just sprouting.

<sup>3</sup> GOD gave in. "It won't happen," he said.

<sup>4</sup> GOD showed me this vision: Oh! GOD, my Master GOD was calling up a firestorm. It burned up the ocean. Then it burned up the Promised Land.

<sup>5</sup> I said, "God, my Master! Hold it-- please! What's going to come of Jacob? He's so small."

<sup>7</sup> GOD showed me this vision: My Master was standing beside a wall. In his hand he held a plumb line.

<sup>8</sup> GOD said to me, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A plumb line." Then my Master said, "Look what I've done. I've hung a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I've spared them for the last time. This is it!

<sup>9</sup> Isaac's sex-and-religion shrines will be smashed, Israel's unholy shrines will be knocked to pieces. I'm raising my sword against the royal family of Jeroboam.

<sup>10</sup> Amaziah, priest at the shrine at Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel: "Amos is plotting to get rid of you; and he's doing it as an insider, working from within Israel. His talk will destroy the country. He's got to be silenced. Do you know what Amos is saying?"

<sup>14</sup> But Amos stood up to Amaziah: "I never set up to be a preacher, never had plans to be a preacher. I raised cattle and I pruned trees.

<sup>15</sup> Then GOD took me off the farm and said, 'Go preach to my people Israel.'

<sup>16</sup> "So listen to GOD's Word. You tell me, 'Don't preach to Israel. Don't say anything against the family of Isaac.'

<sup>17</sup> But here's what GOD is telling you: Your wife will become a whore in town. Your children will get killed. Your land will be auctioned off. You will die homeless and friendless. And Israel will be hauled off to exile, far from [home]."

8 <sup>1</sup> My Master GOD showed me this vision: A bowl of fresh fruit.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A bowl of fresh, ripe fruit." GOD said, "Right. So, I'm calling it quits with my people Israel. I'm no longer acting as if everything is just fine."

<sup>3</sup> "The royal singers will wail when it happens." My Master GOD said so.

"Corpses will be strewn here, there, and everywhere. Hush!"

<sup>5</sup> Who say, "When's my next paycheck coming so I can go out and live it up? How long till the weekend when I can go out and have a good time?" Who give little and take much, and never do an honest day's work.

<sup>6</sup> You exploit the poor, using them--and then, when they're used up, you discard them.

<sup>8</sup> God's oath will shake earth's foundations, dissolve the whole world into tears. God's oath will sweep in like a river that rises, flooding houses and lands, And then recedes, leaving behind a sea of mud.

<sup>9</sup> "On Judgment Day, watch out!" These are the words of GOD, my Master. "I'll turn off the sun at noon. In the middle of the day the earth will go black.

<sup>10</sup> I'll turn your parties into funerals and make every song you sing a dirge. Everyone will walk around in rags, with sunken eyes and bald heads. Think of the worst that could happen--your only son, say, murdered. That's a hint of Judgment Day--that and much more.

<sup>11</sup> "Oh yes, Judgment Day is coming!" These are the words of my Master GOD. "I'll send a famine through the whole country. It won't be food or water that's lacking, but my Word.

<sup>12</sup> People will drift from one end of the country to the other, roam to the north, wander to the east. They'll go anywhere, listen to anyone, hoping to hear GOD's Word--but they won't hear it.

<sup>13</sup> "On Judgment Day, lovely young girls will faint of Word-thirst, robust young men will faint of God-thirst, <sup>14</sup> Along with those who take oaths at the Samaria Sin-and-Sex Center, saying, 'As the lord god of Dan is my witness!' and 'The lady goddess of Beer-sheba bless you!' Their lives will fall to pieces. They'll never put it together again."

9 <sup>1</sup> I saw my Master standing beside the altar at the shrine. He said: "Hit the tops of the shrine's pillars, make the floor shake. The roof's about to fall on the heads of the people, and whoever's still alive, I'll kill. No one will get away, no runaways will make it.

<sup>2</sup> If they dig their way down into the underworld, I'll find them and bring them up. If they climb to the stars, I'll find them and bring them down.

<sup>4</sup> If they're captured alive by their enemies, I'll send Sword to kill them. I've made up my mind to hurt them, not help them."

<sup>5</sup> My Master, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, touches the earth, a mere touch, and it trembles. The whole world goes into mourning. Earth swells like the Nile at flood stage; then the water subsides, like the great Nile of Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> God builds his palace--towers soaring high in the skies, foundations set on the rock-firm earth. He calls ocean waters and they come, then he ladles them out on the earth. GOD, your God, does all this.

<sup>7</sup> "Do you Israelites think you're any better than the far-off Cushites?" GOD's Decree. "Am I not involved with all nations? Didn't I bring Israel up from Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor, the Arameans from Qir?"

<sup>8</sup> But you can be sure that I, GOD, the Master, have my eye on the Kingdom of Sin. I'm going to wipe it off the face of the earth. Still, I won't totally destroy the family of Jacob." GOD's Decree.

<sup>9</sup> "I'm still giving the orders around here. I'm throwing Israel into a sieve among all the nations and shaking them good, shaking out all the sin, all the sinners. No real grain will be lost,

<sup>10</sup> but all the sinners will be sifted out and thrown away, the people who say, 'Nothing bad will ever happen in our lifetime. It won't even come close.'

<sup>11</sup> "But also on that Judgment Day I will restore David's house that has fallen to pieces. I'll repair the holes in the roof, replace the broken windows, fix it up like new. David's people will be strong again<sup>12</sup> and seize what's left of enemy Edom, plus everyone else under my sovereign judgment." GOD's Decree. He will do this.

<sup>13</sup> "Yes indeed, it won't be long now." GOD's Decree. "Things are going to happen so fast your head will swim, one thing fast on the heels of the other. You won't be able to keep up. Everything will be happening at once--and everywhere you look, blessings! Blessings like wine pouring off the mountains and hills.

uprooted from the land I've given them."
GOD, your God, says so.

Obadiah

1 <sup>1</sup> Obadiah's Message to Edom from GOD, the Master. We got the news straight from GOD by a special messenger sent out to the godless nations: "On your feet, prepare for battle; get ready to make war on Edom!

<sup>2</sup> "Listen to this, Edom: I'm turning you to a no-account, the runt of the godless nations, despised.

<sup>3</sup> You thought you were so great, perched high among the rocks, king of the mountain, Thinking to yourself, 'Nobody can get to me! Nobody can touch me!'

<sup>4</sup> Think again. Even if, like an eagle, you hang out on a high cliff-face, Even if you build your nest in the stars, I'll bring you down to earth." GOD's sure Word.

<sup>5</sup> "If thieves crept up on you, they'd rob you blind--isn't that so? If they mugged you on the streets at night, they'd pick you clean--isn't that so?

<sup>7</sup> All your old partners will drive you to the edge. Your old friends will lie to your face. Your old drinking buddies will stab you in the back. Your world will collapse. You won't know what hit you.

<sup>10</sup> Because of the murderous history compiled against your brother Jacob, You will be looked down on by everyone. You'll lose your place in history.

<sup>11</sup> On that day you stood there and didn't do anything. Strangers took your brother's army into exile. Godless foreigners invaded and pillaged Jerusalem. You stood there and watched. You were as bad as they were.

<sup>12</sup> You shouldn't have gloated over your brother when he was down-and-out. You shouldn't have laughed and joked at Judah's sons when they were facedown in the mud. You shouldn't have talked so big when everything was so bad.

<sup>13</sup> You shouldn't have taken advantage of my people when their lives had fallen apart. You of all people should not have been amused by their troubles, their wrecked nation. You shouldn't have taken the shirt off their back when they were knocked flat, defenseless.

<sup>14</sup> And you shouldn't have stood waiting at the outskirts and cut off refugees, And traitorously turned in helpless survivors who had lost everything.

<sup>15</sup> "GOD's Judgment Day is near for all the godless nations. As you have done, it will be done to you. What you did will boomerang back and hit your own head.

<sup>16</sup> Just as you partied on my holy mountain, all the godless nations will drink God's wrath. They'll drink and drink and drink--they'll drink themselves to death.

<sup>17</sup> But not so on Mount Zion--there's respite there! a safe and holy place! The family of Jacob will take back their possessions from those who took them from them.

<sup>18</sup> That's when the family of Jacob will catch fire, the family of Joseph become fierce flame, while the family of Esau will be straw. Esau will go up in flames, nothing left of Esau but a pile of ashes." GOD said it, and it is so.

<sup>19</sup> People from the south will take over the Esau mountains; people from the foothills will overrun the Philistines. They'll take the farms of Ephraim and Samaria, and Benjamin will take Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> Earlier, Israelite exiles will come back and take Canaanite land to the north at Zarephath. Jerusalem exiles from the far northwest in Sepharad will come back and take the cities in the south.

<sup>21</sup> The remnant of the saved in Mount Zion will go into the mountains of Esau And rule justly and fairly, a rule that honors GOD's kingdom.

Jonah

1 <sup>1</sup> One day long ago, GOD's Word came to Jonah, Amittai's son:

<sup>2</sup> "Up on your feet and on your way to the big city of Nineveh! Preach to them. They're in a bad way and I can't ignore it any longer."

<sup>3</sup> But Jonah got up and went the other direction to Tarshish, running away from GOD. He went down to the port of Joppa and found a ship headed for Tarshish. He paid the fare and went on board, joining those going to Tarshish--as far away from GOD as he could get.

They threw everything they were carrying overboard to lighten the ship. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship to take a nap. He was sound asleep.

<sup>6</sup> The captain came to him and said, "What's this? Sleeping! Get up! Pray to your god! Maybe your god will see we're in trouble and rescue us."

<sup>7</sup> Then the sailors said to one another, "Let's get to the bottom of this. Let's draw straws to identify the culprit on this ship who's responsible for this disaster." So they drew straws. Jonah got the short straw.

<sup>8</sup> Then they grilled him: "Confess. Why this disaster? What is your work? Where do you come from? What country? What family?"

<sup>9</sup> He told them, "I'm a Hebrew. I worship GOD, the God of heaven who made sea and land."

<sup>10</sup> At that, the men were frightened, really frightened, and said, "What on earth have you done!" As Jonah talked, the sailors realized that he was running away from GOD.

<sup>11</sup> They said to him, "What are we going to do with you--to get rid of this storm?" By this time the sea was wild, totally out of control.

<sup>12</sup> Jonah said, "Throw me overboard, into the sea. Then the storm will stop. It's all my fault. I'm the cause of the storm. Get rid of me and you'll get rid of the storm."

<sup>13</sup> But no. The men tried rowing back to shore. They made no headway. The storm only got worse and worse, wild and raging.

<sup>14</sup> Then they prayed to GOD, "O GOD Don't let us drown because of this man's life, and don't blame us for his death. You are GOD. Do what you think is best."

<sup>16</sup> The sailors were impressed, no longer terrified by the sea, but in awe of GOD. They worshiped GOD, offered a sacrifice, and made vows.

<sup>17</sup> Then GOD assigned a huge fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was in the fish's belly three days and nights.

2 <sup>1</sup> Then Jonah prayed to his God from the belly of the fish.

<sup>2</sup> He prayed: "In trouble, deep trouble, I prayed to GOD. He answered me. From the belly of the grave I cried, 'Help!' You heard my cry.

<sup>3</sup> You threw me into ocean's depths, into a watery grave, With ocean waves, ocean breakers crashing over me.

<sup>5</sup> Ocean gripped me by the throat.
The ancient Abyss grabbed me and held tight. My head was all tangled in seaweed

<sup>6</sup> at the bottom of the sea where the mountains take root. I was as far down as a body can go, and the gates were slamming shut behind me forever--Yet you pulled me up from that grave alive,
O GOD, my God!

<sup>7</sup> When my life was slipping away, I remembered GOD, And my prayer got through to you, made it all the way to your Holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who worship hollow gods, god-frauds, walk away from their only true love.

<sup>9</sup> But I'm worshiping you, GOD, calling out in thanksgiving! And I'll do what I promised I'd do! Salvation belongs to GOD!"

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah on the seashore.

3 <sup>1</sup> Next, GOD spoke to Jonah a second time:

<sup>3</sup> This time Jonah started off straight for Nineveh, obeying GOD's orders to the letter. Nineveh was a big city, very big--it took three days to walk across it.

<sup>4</sup> Jonah entered the city, went one day's walk and preached, "In forty days Nineveh will be smashed."

<sup>5</sup> The people of Nineveh listened, and trusted God. They proclaimed a citywide fast and dressed in burlap to show their repentance. Everyone did it--rich and poor, famous and obscure, leaders and followers.

<sup>7</sup> Then he issued a public proclamation throughout Nineveh, authorized by him and his leaders: "Not one drop of water, not one bite of food for man, woman, or animal, including your herds and flocks!

<sup>8</sup> Dress them all, both people and animals, in burlap, and send up a cry for help to God. Everyone must turn around, turn back from an evil life and the violent ways that stain their hands.

<sup>9</sup> Who knows? Maybe God will turn around and change his mind about us, quit being angry with us and let us live!"

<sup>10</sup> God saw what they had done, that they had turned away from their evil lives. He [did] change his mind about them. What he said he would do to them he didn't do.

4<sup>1</sup> Jonah was furious. He lost his temper.

<sup>2</sup> He yelled at GOD, "GOD! I knew it--when I was back home, I knew this was going to happen! That's why I ran off to Tarshish! I knew you were sheer grace and mercy, not easily angered, rich in love, and ready at the drop of a hat to turn your plans of punishment into a program of forgiveness!

<sup>3</sup> "So, GOD, if you won't kill them, kill [me]! I'm better off dead!"

<sup>5</sup> But Jonah just left. He went out of the city to the east and sat down in a sulk. He put together a makeshift shelter of leafy branches and sat there in the shade to see what would happen to the city.

<sup>6</sup> GOD arranged for a broad-leafed tree to spring up. It grew over Jonah to cool him off and get him out of his angry sulk. Jonah was pleased and enjoyed the shade. Life was looking up.

<sup>7</sup> But then God sent a worm. By dawn of the next day, the worm had bored into the shade tree and it withered away.

<sup>8</sup> The sun came up and God sent a hot, blistering wind from the east. The sun beat down on Jonah's head and he started to faint. He prayed to die: "I'm better off dead!"

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Jonah, "What right do you have to get angry about this shade tree?" Jonah said, "Plenty of right. It's made me angry enough to die!"

<sup>10</sup> GOD said, "What's this? How is it that you can change your feelings from pleasure to anger overnight about a mere shade tree that you did nothing to get? You neither planted nor watered it. It grew up one night and died the next night.

<sup>11</sup> So, why can't I likewise change what I feel about Nineveh from anger to pleasure, this big city of more than a hundred and twenty thousand childlike people who don't yet know right from wrong, to say nothing of all the innocent animals?"

Micah

1 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message as it came to Micah of Moresheth. It came during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. It had to do with what was going on in Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> All this because of Jacob's sin, because Israel's family did wrong. You ask,

"So what is Jacob's sin?" Just look at Samaria--isn't it obvious? And all the sex-and-religion shrines in Judah--isn't Jerusalem responsible?

<sup>7</sup> All her carved and cast gods and goddesses will be sold for stove wood and scrap metal, All her sacred fertility groves burned to the ground, All the sticks and stones she worshiped as gods, destroyed. These were her earnings from her life as a whore. This is what happens to the fees of a whore."

<sup>13</sup> All you who live in Chariotville, get in your chariots for flight. You led the daughter of Zion into trusting not God but chariots. Similar sins in Israel also got their start in you.

<sup>16</sup> Shave your heads in mourning over the loss of your precious towns. Go bald as a goose egg--they've gone into exile and aren't coming back.

2 <sup>1</sup> Doom to those who plot evil, who go to bed dreaming up crimes! As soon as it's morning, they're off, full of energy, doing what they've planned.

<sup>2</sup> They covet fields and grab them, find homes and take them. They bully the neighbor and his family, see people only for what they can get out of them.

<sup>3</sup> GOD has had enough. He says, "I have some plans of my own: Disaster because of this interbreeding evil! Your necks are on the line. You're not walking away from this. It's doomsday for you.

<sup>4</sup> Mocking ballads will be sung of you, and you yourselves will sing the blues: 'Our lives are ruined, our homes and lands auctioned off. They take everything, leave us nothing! All is sold to the highest bidder.'"

<sup>5</sup> And there'll be no one to stand up for you, no one to speak for you before GOD and his jury.

<sup>7</sup> Talk like [this] to the family of Jacob? Does GOD lose his temper? Is this the way he acts? Isn't he on the side of good people? Doesn't he help those who help themselves?"

<sup>8</sup> "What do you mean, 'good people'! You're the enemy of my people! You rob unsuspecting people out for an evening stroll. You take their coats off their backs like soldiers who plunder the defenseless.

<sup>11</sup> If someone showed up with a good smile and glib tongue and told lies from morning to night--'I'll preach sermons that will tell you how you can get anything you want from God: More money, the best wines...you name it'--you'd hire him on the spot as your preacher!

<sup>12</sup> "I'm calling a meeting, Jacob. I want everyone back--all the survivors of Israel. I'll get them together in one place--like sheep in a fold, like cattle in a corral--a milling throng of homebound people!

<sup>13</sup> Then I, GOD, will burst all confinements and lead them out into the open. They'll follow their King. I will be out in front leading them."

3 <sup>1</sup> Then I said: "Listen, leaders of Jacob, leaders of Israel: Don't you know anything of justice?"

<sup>4</sup> The time's coming, though, when these same leaders will cry out for help to GOD, but he won't listen. He'll turn his face the other way because of their history of evil.

<sup>5</sup> Here is GOD's Message to the prophets, the preachers who lie to my people: "For as long as they're well paid and well fed, the prophets preach, 'Isn't life wonderful! Peace to all!' But if you don't pay up and jump on their bandwagon, their 'God bless you' turns into 'God damn you.'

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, you're going blind. You'll see nothing. You'll live in deep shadows and know nothing. The sun has set on the prophets. They've had their day; from now on it's night.

<sup>7</sup> Visionaries will be confused, experts will be all mixed up. They'll hide behind their reputations and make lame excuses to cover up their God-ignorance."

<sup>8</sup> But me--I'm filled with GOD's power, filled with GOD's Spirit of justice and strength, Ready to confront Jacob's crime and Israel's sin.

<sup>11</sup> Judges sell verdicts to the highest bidder, priests mass-market their teaching, prophets preach for high fees, All the while posturing and pretending dependence on GOD: "We've got GOD on our side. He'll protect us from disaster."

<sup>12</sup> Because of people like you, Zion will be turned back into farmland, Jerusalem end up as a pile of rubble, and instead of the Temple on the mountain, a few scraggly scrub pines.

4 <sup>1</sup> But when all is said and done, GOD's Temple on the mountain, Firmly fixed, will dominate all mountains, towering above surrounding hills. People will stream to it

<sup>2</sup> and many nations set out for it, Saying, "Come, let's climb GOD's mountain. Let's go to the Temple of Jacob's God. He will teach us how to live. We'll know how to live God's way." True teaching will issue from Zion, GOD's revelation from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He'll establish justice in the rabble of nations and settle disputes in faraway places. They'll trade in their swords for shovels, their spears for rakes and hoes. Nations will quit fighting each other, quit learning how to kill one another.

<sup>4</sup> Each man will sit under his own shade tree, each woman in safety will tend her own garden. GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says so, and he means what he says.

<sup>5</sup> Meanwhile, all the other people live however they wish, picking and choosing their gods. But we live honoring GOD, and we're loyal to our God forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> "On that great day," GOD says, "I will round up all the hurt and homeless, everyone I have bruised or banished.

<sup>7</sup> I will transform the battered into a company of the elite. I will make a strong nation out of the long lost, A showcase exhibit of GOD's rule in action, as I rule from Mount Zion, from here to eternity.

<sup>8</sup> "And you stragglers around Jerusalem, eking out a living in shantytowns: The glory that once was will be again. Jerusalem's daughter will be the kingdom center."

<sup>9</sup> So why the doomsday hysterics? You still have a king, don't you? But maybe he's not doing his job and you're panicked like a woman in labor.

<sup>10</sup> Well, go ahead--twist and scream, Daughter Jerusalem. You [are] like a woman in childbirth. You'll soon be out of the city, on your way and camping in the open country. And then you'll arrive in Babylon. What you lost in Jerusalem will be found in Babylon. GOD will give you new life again. He'll redeem you from your enemies.

<sup>12</sup> These blasphemers have no idea what GOD is thinking and doing in this. They don't know that this is the making of GOD's people, that they are wheat being threshed, gold being refined.

<sup>13</sup> On your feet, Daughter of Zion! Be threshed of chaff, be refined of dross. I'm remaking you into a people invincible, into God's juggernaut to crush the godless peoples. You'll bring their plunder as holy offerings to GOD, their wealth to the Master of the earth.

<sup>2</sup> But you, Bethlehem, David's country, the runt of the litter--From you will come the leader who will shepherd-rule Israel. He'll be no upstart, no pretender. His family tree is ancient and distinguished.

<sup>3</sup> Meanwhile, Israel will be in foster homes until the birth pangs are over and the child is born, And the scattered brothers come back home to the family of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> He will stand tall in his shepherd-rule by GOD's strength, centered in the majesty of GOD-Revealed. And the people will have a good and safe home, for the whole world will hold him in respect--Peacemaker of the world!

<sup>5</sup> And if some bullying Assyrian shows up, invades and violates our land, don't worry. We'll put him in his place, send him packing, and watch his every move.

<sup>6</sup> Shepherd-rule will extend as far as needed, to Assyria and all other Nimrod-bullies. Our shepherd-ruler will save us from old or new enemies, from anyone who invades or violates our land.

<sup>7</sup> The purged and select company of Jacob will be like an island in the sea of peoples. They'll be like dew from GOD, like summer showers Not mentioned in the weather forecast, not subject to calculation or control.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, the purged and select company of Jacob will be like an island in the sea of peoples, Like the king of beasts among wild beasts, like a young lion loose in a flock of sheep, Killing and devouring the lambs and no one able to stop him.

-"When there will be no more war.

None. I'll slaughter your war horses and demolish your chariots.

<sup>13</sup> I will smash your carved and cast gods and chop down your phallic posts. No more taking control of the world, worshiping what you do or make.

<sup>14</sup> I'll root out your sacred sex-and-power centers and destroy the God-defiant.

6<sup>1</sup> Listen now, listen to GOD: "Take your stand in court. If you have a complaint, tell the mountains; make your case to the hills.

<sup>2</sup> And now, Mountains, hear GOD's case; listen, Jury Earth--For I am bringing charges against my people. I am building a case against Israel.

<sup>3</sup> "Dear people, how have I done you wrong? Have I burdened you, worn you out? Answer!

<sup>4</sup> I delivered you from a bad life in Egypt; I paid a good price to get you out of slavery. I sent Moses to lead you--and Aaron and Miriam to boot!

<sup>5</sup> Remember what Balak king of Moab tried to pull, and how Balaam son of Beor turned the tables on him. Remember all those stories about Shittim and Gilgal. Keep all GOD's salvation stories fresh and present."

<sup>6</sup> How can I stand up before GOD and show proper respect to the high God? Should I bring an armload of offerings topped off with yearling calves?

<sup>7</sup> Would GOD be impressed with thousands of rams, with buckets and barrels of olive oil? Would he be moved if I sacrificed my firstborn child, my precious baby, to cancel my sin?

<sup>8</sup> But he's already made it plain how to live, what to do, what GOD is looking for in men and women. It's quite simple: Do what is fair and just to your neighbor, be compassionate and loyal in your love, And don't take yourself too seriously--take God seriously.

<sup>9</sup> Attention! GOD calls out to the city! If you know what's good for you, you'll listen. So listen, all of you! This is serious business.

<sup>16</sup> You have lived by the standards of your king, Omri, the decadent lifestyle of the family of Ahab. Because you've slavishly followed their fashions, I'm forcing you into bankruptcy. Your way of life will be laughed at, a tasteless joke. Your lives will be derided as futile and fake."

sunk in a swamp of despair! I'm like someone who goes to the garden to pick cabbages and carrots and corn And returns empty-handed, finds nothing for soup or sandwich or salad.

longer: It's exam time. Look at them slinking away in disgrace!

<sup>5</sup> Don't trust your neighbor, don't confide in your friend. Watch your words, even with your spouse.

<sup>6</sup> Neighborhoods and families are falling to pieces. The closer they are--sons, daughters, in-laws--The worse they can be. Your own family is the enemy.

<sup>7</sup> But me, I'm not giving up. I'm sticking around to see what GOD will do. I'm waiting for God to make things right. I'm counting on God to listen to me.

<sup>8</sup> Don't, enemy, crow over me. I'm down, but I'm not out. I'm sitting in the dark right now, but GOD is my light.

<sup>9</sup> I can take GOD's punishing rage. I deserve it--I sinned. But it's not forever. He's on my side and is going to get me out of this. He'll turn on the lights and show me his ways. I'll see the whole picture and how right he is.

<sup>10</sup> And my enemy will see it, too, and be discredited--yes, disgraced! This enemy who kept taunting, "So where is this GOD of yours?" I'm going to see it with these, my own eyes--my enemy disgraced, trash in the gutter.

<sup>13</sup> But there'll be a reversal for everyone else--massive depopulation--because of the way they lived, the things they did.

<sup>14</sup> Shepherd, O GOD, your people with your staff, your dear and precious flock. Uniquely yours in a grove of trees, centered in lotus land. Let them graze in lush Bashan as in the old days in green Gilead.

<sup>18</sup> Where is the god who can compare with you--wiping the slate clean of guilt, Turning a blind eye, a deaf ear, to the past sins of your purged and precious people? You don't nurse your anger and don't stay angry long, for mercy is your specialty. That's what you love most.

<sup>19</sup> And compassion is on its way to us. You'll stamp out our wrongdoing. You'll sink our sins to the bottom of the ocean.

<sup>20</sup> You'll stay true to your word to Father Jacob and continue the compassion you showed Grandfather Abraham-- Everything you promised our ancestors from a long time ago.

Nahum

1 <sup>1</sup> A report on the problem of Nineveh, the way God gave Nahum of Elkosh to see it:

<sup>2</sup> GOD is serious business. He won't be trifled with. He avenges his foes. He stands up against his enemies, fierce and raging.

<sup>3</sup> But GOD doesn't lose his temper. He's powerful, but it's a patient power. Still, no one gets by with anything. Sooner or later, everyone pays. Tornadoes and hurricanes are the wake of his passage, Storm clouds are the dust he shakes off his feet.

<sup>7</sup> GOD is good, a hiding place in tough times. He recognizes and welcomes anyone looking for help,

<sup>12</sup> And GOD has something to say about all this: "Even though you're on top of the world, With all the applause and all the votes, you'll be mowed down flat. "I've afflicted you, Judah, true, but I won't afflict you again.

<sup>13</sup> From now on I'm taking the yoke from your neck and splitting it up for kindling. I'm cutting you free from the ropes of your bondage."

<sup>15</sup> Look! Striding across the mountains--a messenger bringing the latest good news: peace! A holiday, Judah!

Celebrate! Worship and recommit to God! No more worries about this enemy.
This one is history. Close the books.

2 <sup>1</sup> The juggernaut's coming! Post guards, lay in supplies. Get yourselves together, get ready for the big battle.

<sup>2</sup> GOD has restored the Pride of Jacob, the Pride of Israel. Israel's lived through hard times. He's been to hell and back.

<sup>3</sup> Weapons flash in the sun, the soldiers splendid in battle dress, Chariots burnished and glistening, ready to charge, A spiked forest of brandished spears, lethal on the horizon.

<sup>4</sup> The chariots pour into the streets.
They fill the public squares, Flaming like torches in the sun, like lightning darting and flashing.

<sup>5</sup> The Assyrian king rallies his men, but they stagger and stumble. They run to the ramparts to stem the tide, but it's too late.

<sup>11</sup> So, what happened to the famous and fierce Assyrian lion And all those cute Assyrian cubs? To the lion and lioness Cozy with their cubs, fierce and fearless?

<sup>12</sup> To the lion who always returned from the hunt with fresh kills for lioness and cubs, The lion lair heaped with bloody meat, blood and bones for the royal lion feast?

<sup>13</sup> "Assyria, I'm your enemy," says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. "I'll torch your chariots. They'll go up in smoke. 'Lion Country' will be strewn with carcasses. The war business is over--you're out of work: You'll have no more wars to report, No more victories to announce. You're out of war work forever."

in the street, corpses stacked like cordwood, Bodies in every gutter and alley, clogging every intersection!

<sup>5</sup> "I'm your enemy, Whore Nineveh--I, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies! I'll strip you of your seductive silk robes and expose you on the world stage. I'll let the nations get their fill of the ugly truth of who you really are and have been all along.

the River Nile, Protected by the great River, walled in by the River, secure?

gaping doors, inviting your enemies in.
And who's to stop them?

<sup>14</sup> Store up water for the siege. Shore up your defenses. Get down to basics: Work the clay and make bricks.

<sup>15</sup> Sorry. Too late. Enemy fire will burn you up. Swords will cut you to pieces. You'll be chewed up as if by locusts. Yes, as if by locusts--a fitting fate, for you yourselves are a locust plague.

<sup>16</sup> You've multiplied shops and shopkeepers--more buyers and sellers than stars in the sky! A plague of locusts, cleaning out the neighborhood and then flying off.

<sup>17</sup> Your bureaucrats are locusts, your brokers and bankers are locusts. Early on, they're all at your service, full of smiles and promises, But later when you return with questions or complaints, you'll find they've flown off and are nowhere to be found.

<sup>18</sup> King of Assyria! Your shepherd-leaders, in charge of caring for your people, Are busy doing everything else but. They're not doing their job, And your people are scattered and lost. There's no one to look after them.

<sup>19</sup> You're past the point of no return. Your wound is fatal. When the story of your fate gets out, the whole world will applaud and cry "Encore!" Your cruel evil has seeped into every nook and cranny of the world. Everyone has felt it and suffered.

Habakkuk

1 <sup>1</sup> The problem as God gave Habakkuk to see it:

<sup>2</sup> GOD, how long do I have to cry out for help before you listen? How many times do I have to yell, "Help! Murder! Police!" before you come to the rescue?

<sup>12</sup> GOD, you're from eternity, aren't you? Holy God, we aren't going to die, are we? GOD, you chose [Babylonians] for your judgment work? Rock-Solid God, you gave them the job of discipline?

<sup>14</sup> You're treating men and women as so many fish in the ocean, Swimming without direction, swimming but not getting anywhere.

<sup>16</sup> He praises his rod and reel, piles his fishing gear on an altar and worships it! It's made his day, and he's going to eat well tonight!

<sup>17</sup> Are you going to let this go on and on? Will you let this Babylonian fisherman Fish like a weekend angler, killing people as if they're nothing but fish?

2 <sup>1</sup> What's God going to say to my questions? I'm braced for the worst. I'll climb to the lookout tower and scan the horizon. I'll wait to see what God says, how he'll answer my complaint.

<sup>2</sup> And then GOD answered: "Write this. Write what you see. Write it out in big block letters so that it can be read on the run.

<sup>3</sup> This vision-message is a witness pointing to what's coming. It aches for the coming--it can hardly wait! And it doesn't lie. If it seems slow in coming, wait. It's on its way. It will come right on time.

<sup>4</sup> "Look at that man, bloated by self-importance--full of himself but soul-empty. But the person in right standing before God through loyal and steady believing is fully alive, [really] alive.

<sup>5</sup> "Note well: Money deceives. The arrogant rich don't last. They are more hungry for wealth than the grave is for cadavers. Like death, they always want more, but the 'more' they get is dead bodies. They are cemeteries filled with dead nations, graveyards filled with corpses.

<sup>6</sup> Don't give people like this a second thought. Soon the whole world will be taunting them: "'Who do you think you are--getting rich by stealing and extortion? How long do you think you can get away with this?'

<sup>11</sup> The bricks of your house will speak up and accuse you. The woodwork will step forward with evidence.

<sup>12</sup> "Who do you think you are--building a town by murder, a city with crime?

<sup>13</sup> Don't you know that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies makes sure nothing comes of that but ashes, Makes sure the harder you work at that kind of thing, the less you are?

<sup>14</sup> Meanwhile the earth fills up with awareness of GOD's glory as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup> "Who do you think you are--inviting your neighbors to your drunken parties, Giving them too much to drink, roping them into your sexual orgies?

<sup>16</sup> You thought you were having the time of your life. Wrong! It's a time of disgrace. All the time you were drinking, you were drinking from the cup of God's wrath.

<sup>18</sup> "What's the use of a carved god so skillfully carved by its sculptor? What good is a fancy cast god when all it tells is lies? What sense does it make to be a pious god-maker who makes gods that can't even talk?

<sup>19</sup> Who do you think you are--saying to a stick of wood, 'Wake up,' Or to a dumb stone, 'Get up'? Can they teach you anything about anything? There's nothing to them but surface. There's nothing on the inside.

<sup>20</sup> "But oh! GOD is in his holy Temple! Quiet everyone--a holy silence. Listen!"

3<sup>1</sup> A prayer of the prophet Habakkuk, with orchestra:

<sup>2</sup> GOD, I've heard what our ancestors say about you, and I'm stopped in my tracks, down on my knees. Do among us what you did among them. Work among us as you worked among them. And as you bring judgment, as you surely must, remember mercy.

<sup>8</sup> GOD, is it River you're mad at?
Angry at old River? Were you raging at Sea when you rode horse and chariot through to salvation?

<sup>9</sup> You unfurled your bow and let loose a volley of arrows. You split Earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup> Mountains saw what was coming.
They twisted in pain. Flood Waters poured in. Ocean roared and reared huge waves.

<sup>11</sup> Sun and Moon stopped in their tracks. Your flashing arrows stopped them, your lightning-strike spears impaled them.

<sup>12</sup> Angry, you stomped through Earth.
Furious, you crushed the godless nations.

<sup>13</sup> You were out to save your people, to save your specially chosen people.
You beat the stuffing out of King Wicked,
Stripped him naked from head to toe,

<sup>14</sup> Set his severed head on his own spear and blew away his army. Scattered they were to the four winds--and ended up food for the sharks!

<sup>15</sup> You galloped through the Sea on your horses, racing on the crest of the waves.

<sup>16</sup> When I heard it, my stomach did flips. I stammered and stuttered. My bones turned to water. I staggered and stumbled. I sit back and wait for Doomsday to descend on our attackers.

<sup>17</sup> Though the cherry trees don't blossom and the strawberries don't ripen, Though the apples are worm-eaten and the wheat fields stunted, Though the sheep pens are sheepless and the cattle barns empty, <sup>18</sup> I'm singing joyful praise to GOD. I'm turning cartwheels of joy to my Savior God.

<sup>19</sup> Counting on GOD's Rule to prevail, I take heart and gain strength. I run like a deer. I feel like I'm king of the mountain!

(For congregational use, with a full orchestra.)

Zephaniah

1 <sup>1</sup> GOD's Message to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah. It came during the reign of Josiah son of Amon, who was king of Judah:

<sup>2</sup> "I'm going to make a clean sweep of the earth, a thorough housecleaning." GOD's Decree.

<sup>3</sup> "Men and women and animals, including birds and fish--Anything and everything that causes sin--will go, but especially people.

<sup>4</sup> "I'll start with Judah and everybody who lives in Jerusalem. I'll sweep the place clean of every trace of the sex-and-religion Baal shrines and their priests.

<sup>5</sup> I'll get rid of the people who sneak up to their rooftops at night to worship the star gods and goddesses; Also those who continue to worship GOD but cover their bases by worshiping other king-gods as well;

<sup>6</sup> Not to mention those who've dumped GOD altogether, no longer giving him a thought or offering a prayer.

<sup>7</sup> "Quiet now! Reverent silence before me, GOD, the Master! Time's up. My Judgment Day is near: The Holy Day is all set, the invited guests made holy.

<sup>8</sup> On the Holy Day, GOD's Judgment Day, I will punish the leaders and the royal sons; I will punish those who dress up like foreign priests and priestesses,

<sup>11</sup> Wail, you shopkeepers on Market Street! Moneymaking has had its day. The god Money is dead.

<sup>12</sup> On Judgment Day, I'll search through every closet and alley in Jerusalem. I'll find and punish those who are sitting it out, fat and lazy, amusing themselves and taking it easy, Who think, 'GOD doesn't do anything, good or bad. He isn't involved, so neither are we.'

<sup>13</sup> But just wait. They'll lose everything they have, money and house and land. They'll build a house and never move in. They'll plant vineyards and never taste the wine.

<sup>14</sup> "The Great Judgment Day of GOD is almost here. It's countdown time: ...seven, six, five, four...Bitter and noisy cries on my Judgment Day, even strong men screaming for help.

2<sup>1</sup> So get yourselves together. Shape up! You're a nation without a clue about what it wants.

<sup>3</sup> Seek GOD, all you quietly disciplined people who live by GOD's justice. Seek GOD's right ways. Seek a quiet and disciplined life. Perhaps you'll be hidden on the Day of GOD's anger.

<sup>4</sup> Gaza is scheduled for demolition, Ashdod will be cleaned out by high noon, Ekron pulled out by the roots.

<sup>5</sup> Doom to the seaside people, the seafaring people from Crete! The Word of GOD is bad news for you who settled Canaan, the Philistine country: "You're slated for destruction--no survivors!"

<sup>8</sup> "I've heard the crude taunts of Moab, the mockeries flung by Ammon, The cruel talk they've used to put down my people, their self-important strutting along Israel's borders.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, as sure as I am the living God," says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's personal God, "Moab will become a ruin like Sodom, Ammon a ghost town like Gomorrah, One a field of rocks, the other a sterile salt flat, a moonscape forever. What's left of my people will finish them off, will pick them clean and take over.

<sup>11</sup> GOD will be seen as truly terrible--a Holy Terror. All earth-made gods will shrivel up and blow away; And everyone, wherever they are, far or near, will fall to the ground and worship him.

<sup>12</sup> Also you Ethiopians, you too will die--I'll see to it."

<sup>13</sup> Then GOD will reach into the north and destroy Assyria. He will waste Nineveh, leave her dry and treeless as a desert.

<sup>14</sup> The ghost town of a city, the haunt of wild animals, Nineveh will be home to raccoons and coyotes--they'll bed down in its ruins. Owls will hoot in the windows, ravens will croak in the doorways--all that fancy woodwork now a perch for birds.

<sup>15</sup> Can this be the famous Fun City that had it made, That boasted, "I'm the Number-One City! I'm King of the Mountain!" So why is the place deserted, a lair for wild animals? Passersby hardly give it a look; they dismiss it with a gesture.

3 <sup>1</sup> Doom to the rebellious city, the home of oppressors--Sewer City!

Sanctuary. They use God's law as a weapon to maim and kill souls.

<sup>5</sup> Yet GOD remains righteous in her midst, untouched by the evil. He stays at it, day after day, meting out justice. At evening he's still at it, strong as ever. But evil men and women, without conscience and without shame, persist in evil.

<sup>6</sup> "So I cut off the godless nations. I knocked down their defense posts, Filled her roads with rubble so no one could get through. Her cities were bombed-out ruins, unlivable and unlived in.

<sup>7</sup> "I thought, 'Surely she'll honor me now, accept my discipline and correction, Find a way of escape from the trouble she's in, find relief from the punishment I'm bringing.' But it didn't faze her. Bright and early she was up at it again, doing the same old things.

<sup>8</sup> "Well, if that's what you want, stick around." GOD's Decree. "Your day in court is coming, but remember I'll be there to bring evidence. I'll bring all the nations to the courtroom, round up all the kingdoms, And let them feel the brunt of my anger, my raging wrath. My zeal is a fire that will purge and purify the earth.

<sup>9</sup> "In the end I will turn things around for the people. I'll give them a language undistorted, unpolluted, Words to address GOD in worship and, united, to serve me with their shoulders to the wheel.

<sup>10</sup> They'll come from beyond the Ethiopian rivers, they'll come praying-- All my scattered, exiled people will come home with offerings for worship.

<sup>11</sup> You'll no longer have to be ashamed of all those acts of rebellion. I'll have gotten rid of your arrogant leaders. No more pious strutting on my holy hill!

<sup>13</sup> This core holy people will not do wrong. They won't lie, won't use words to flatter or seduce. Content with who they are and where they are, unanxious, they'll live at peace."

<sup>17</sup> Your GOD is present among you, a strong Warrior there to save you. Happy to have you back, he'll calm you with his love and delight you with his songs.

<sup>18</sup> "The accumulated sorrows of your exile will dissipate. I, your God, will get rid of them for you. You've carried those burdens long enough.

<sup>19</sup> At the same time, I'll get rid of all those who've made your life miserable. I'll heal the maimed; I'll bring home the homeless. In the very countries where they were hated they will be venerated.

<sup>20</sup> On Judgment Day I'll bring you back home--a great family gathering! You'll be famous and honored all over the world. You'll see it with your own eyes--all those painful partings turned into reunions!"
GOD's Promise.

Haggai

1 <sup>1</sup> On the first day of the sixth month of the second year in the reign of King Darius of Persia, GOD's Message was delivered by the prophet Haggai to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak:

<sup>2</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "The people procrastinate. They say this isn't the right time to rebuild my Temple, the Temple of GOD."

<sup>3</sup> Shortly after that, GOD said more and Haggai spoke it:

<sup>4</sup> "How is it that it's the 'right time' for you to live in your fine new homes while the Home, GOD's Temple, is in ruins?"

<sup>6</sup> You have spent a lot of money, but you haven't much to show for it. You keep filling your plates, but you never get filled up. You keep drinking and drinking and drinking, but you're always thirsty. You put on layer after layer of clothes, but you can't get warm. And the people who work for you, what are they getting out of it? Not much--a leaky, rusted-out bucket, that's what.

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD said: "Here's what I want you to do: Climb into the hills and cut some timber. Bring it down and rebuild the Temple. Do it just for me. Honor me.

<sup>9</sup> You've had great ambitions for yourselves, but nothing has come of it.

The little you have brought to my Temple I've blown away--there was nothing to it. "And why?" (This is a Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, remember.) "Because while you've run around, caught up with taking care of your own houses, my Home is in ruins.

<sup>10</sup> That's why. Because of your stinginess. And so I've given you a dry summer and a skimpy crop.

<sup>11</sup> I've matched your tight-fisted stinginess by decreeing a season of drought, drying up fields and hills, withering gardens and orchards, stunting vegetables and fruit. Nothing--not man or woman, not animal or crop--is going to thrive."

<sup>12</sup> Then the governor, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak, and all the people with them listened, really listened, to the voice of their GOD. When GOD sent the prophet Haggai to them, they paid attention to him. In listening to Haggai, they honored GOD.

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, GOD's messenger, preached GOD's Message to the people: "I am with you!" GOD's Word.

<sup>15</sup> This happened on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of King Darius.

2<sup>1</sup> On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the Word of GOD came through the prophet Haggai: "Tell Governor Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and High Priest Joshua son of Jehozadak glorious? And what do you see now?

Not much, right?

<sup>4</sup> "'So get to work, Zerubbabel!--GOD is speaking. "'Get to work, Joshua son of Jehozadak--high priest!' "'Get to work, all you people!--GOD is speaking. "'Yes, get to work! For I am with you.' The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is speaking!

<sup>6</sup> "This is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies said: 'Before you know it, I will shake up sky and earth, ocean and fields.

<sup>7</sup> And I'll shake down all the godless nations. They'll bring bushels of wealth and I will fill this Temple with splendor.' GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says so.

<sup>8</sup> 'I own the silver, I own the gold.'
Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>9</sup> "This Temple is going to end up far better than it started out, a glorious beginning but an even more glorious finish: a place in which I will hand out wholeness and holiness.' Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies."

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month (again, this was in the second year of Darius), GOD's Message came to Haggai:

<sup>12</sup> If someone carries a piece of sacred meat in his pocket, meat that is set apart for sacrifice on the altar, and the pocket touches a loaf of bread, a dish of stew, a bottle of wine or oil, or any other food, will these foods be made holy by such contact?" The priests said, "No."

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai said, "How about someone who is contaminated by touching a corpse--if that person touches one of these foods, will it be contaminated?" The priests said, "Yes, it will be contaminated."

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai said, "'So, this people is contaminated. Their nation is contaminated. Everything they do is contaminated. Whatever they do for me is contaminated.' GOD says so.

<sup>15</sup> "'Think back. Before you set out to lay the first foundation stones for the rebuilding of my Temple, <sup>16</sup> how did it go with you? Isn't it true that your foot-dragging, halfhearted efforts at rebuilding the Temple of GOD were reflected in a sluggish, halfway return on your crops--half the grain you were used to getting, half the wine?

<sup>17</sup> I hit you with drought and blight and hail. Everything you were doing got hit. But it didn't seem to faze you. You continued to ignore me.' GOD's Decree.

<sup>18</sup> "Now think ahead from this same date--this twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Think ahead from when the Temple rebuilding was launched.

<sup>19</sup> Has anything in your fields--vine, fig tree, pomegranate, olive tree--failed to flourish? From now on you can count on a blessing."

<sup>22</sup> overthrow governments, destroy foreign powers, dismantle the world of weapons and armaments, throw armies into confusion, so that they end up killing one another.

<sup>23</sup> And on that day'''--this is GOD's Message--'''"I will take you, O Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, as my personal servant and I will set you as a signet ring, the sign of my sovereign presence and authority. I've looked over the field and chosen you for this work."''' The Message of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

Zechariah

1 <sup>1</sup> In the eighth month of the second year in the reign of Darius, GOD's Message came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

<sup>3</sup> So give to the people this Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: 'Come back to me and I'll come back to you.

<sup>4</sup> Don't be like your parents. The old-time prophets called out to them, "A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: Leave your evil life. Quit your evil practices." But they ignored everything I said to them, stubbornly refused to listen.'

<sup>5</sup> "And where are your ancestors now? Dead and buried. And the prophets who preached to them? Also dead and buried. But the Message that my servants the prophets spoke, that isn't dead and buried.

<sup>6</sup> That Message did its work on your ancestors, did it not? It woke them up and they came back, saying, 'He did what he said he would do, sure enough. We didn't get by with a thing.'"

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month in the second year of the reign of Darius, the Message of GOD was given to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

<sup>9</sup> I said, "Sir, what are these horses doing here? What's the meaning of this?" The Angel-Messenger said, "Let me show you."

<sup>10</sup> Then the rider in the birch grove spoke up, "These are the riders that GOD sent to check things out on earth."

<sup>11</sup> They reported their findings to the Angel of GOD in the birch grove: "We have looked over the whole earth and all is well. Everything's under control."

<sup>12</sup> The Angel of GOD reported back, "O GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, how long are you going to stay angry with Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? When are you going to let up? Isn't seventy years long enough?"

<sup>14</sup> who then addressed me: "Tell them this. Tell them that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has spoken. This is GOD's Message: 'I care deeply for Jerusalem and Zion. I feel very possessive of them.

<sup>15</sup> But I'm thoroughly angry with the godless nations that act as if they own the whole world. I was only moderately angry earlier, but now they've gone too far. I'm going into action.

<sup>16</sup> "'I've come back to Jerusalem, but with compassion this time.' This is GOD speaking. 'I'll see to it that my Temple is rebuilt.' A Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies! 'The rebuilding operation is already staked out.'

<sup>17</sup> Say it again--a Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: 'My cities will prosper again, GOD will comfort Zion again, Jerusalem will be back in my favor again.'"

<sup>18</sup> I looked up, and was surprised by another vision: four horns!

<sup>19</sup> I asked the Messenger-Angel, "And what's the meaning of this?" He said, "These are the powers that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem abroad."

<sup>20</sup> Then GOD expanded the vision to include four blacksmiths.

<sup>21</sup> I asked, "And what are these all about?" He said, "Since the 'horns' scattered Judah so badly that no one had any hope left, these blacksmiths have arrived to combat the horns. They'll dehorn the godless nations who used their horns to scatter Judah to the four winds."

2<sup>1</sup> I looked up and was surprised to see a man holding a tape measure in his hand.

<sup>2</sup> I said, "What are you up to?" "I'm on my way," he said, "to survey Jerusalem, to measure its width and length."

<sup>6</sup> "Up on your feet! Get out of there--and now!" GOD says so. "Return from your far exile. I scattered you to the four winds." GOD's Decree.

<sup>8</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the One of Glory who sent me on my mission, commenting on the godless nations who stripped you and left you homeless, said, "Anyone who hits you, hits me--bloodies my nose, blackens my eye.

Then you'll know for sure that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies sent me on this mission.

<sup>10</sup> "Shout and celebrate, Daughter of Zion! I'm on my way. I'm moving into your neighborhood!" GOD's Decree.

<sup>11</sup> Many godless nations will be linked up with GOD at that time. ("They will become my family! I'll live in their homes!") And then you'll know for sure that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies sent me on this mission.

<sup>12</sup> GOD will reclaim his Judah inheritance in the Holy Land. He'll again make clear that Jerusalem is his choice.

<sup>13</sup> Quiet, everyone! Shh! Silence before GOD. Something's afoot in his holy house. He's on the move!

3<sup>1</sup> Next the Messenger-Angel showed me the high priest Joshua. He was standing before GOD's Angel where the Accuser showed up to accuse him.

<sup>2</sup> Then GOD said to the Accuser, "I, GOD, rebuke you, Accuser! I rebuke you and choose Jerusalem. Surprise! Everything is going up in flames, but I reach in and pull out Jerusalem!"

<sup>4</sup> The angel spoke to his attendants, "Get him out of those filthy clothes," and then said to Joshua, "Look, I've stripped you of your sin and dressed you up in clean clothes."

<sup>5</sup> I spoke up and said, "How about a clean new turban for his head also?" And they did it--put a clean new turban on his head. Then they finished dressing him, with GOD's Angel looking on.

<sup>7</sup> "Orders from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: 'If you live the way I tell you and remain obedient in my service, then you'll make the decisions around here and oversee my affairs. And all my attendants standing here will be at your service.

<sup>8</sup> "Careful, High Priest Joshua--both you and your friends sitting here with you, for your friends are in on this, too! Here's what I'm doing next: I'm introducing my servant Branch.

<sup>9</sup> And note this: This stone that I'm placing before Joshua, a single stone with seven eyes'--Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies--'I'll engrave with these words: "I'll strip this land of its filthy sin, all at once, in a single day."

4 <sup>1</sup> The Messenger-Angel again called me to attention. It was like being wakened out of deep sleep.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a lampstand of solid gold with a bowl on top. Seven lamps, each with seven spouts, are set on the bowl.

<sup>5</sup> The Messenger-Angel said, "Can't you tell?" "No, sir," I said. Then he said, <sup>6</sup> "This is GOD's Message to Zerubbabel: 'You can't force these things. They only come about through my Spirit,' says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>7</sup> 'So, big mountain, who do you think you are? Next to Zerubbabel you're nothing but a molehill. He'll proceed to set the Cornerstone in place, accompanied by cheers: Yes! Yes! Do it!'"

<sup>8</sup> After that, the Word of GOD came to me:

<sup>9</sup> "Zerubbabel started rebuilding this Temple and he will complete it. That will be your confirmation that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup> Does anyone dare despise this day of small beginnings? They'll change their tune when they see Zerubbabel setting the last stone in place!" Going back to the vision, the Messenger-Angel said, "The seven lamps are the eyes of GOD probing the dark corners of the world like searchlights."

<sup>11</sup> "And the two olive trees on either side of the lampstand?" I asked. "What's the meaning of them?"

<sup>12</sup> And while you're at it, the two branches of the olive trees that feed oil to the lamps--what do they mean?"

<sup>13</sup> He said, "You haven't figured that out?" I said, "No, sir."

<sup>14</sup> He said, "These are the two who stand beside the Master of the whole earth and supply golden lamp oil worldwide."

5 <sup>1</sup> I looked up again and saw-- surprise!--a book on the wing! A book flying!

<sup>2</sup> The Messenger-Angel said to me, "What do you see now?" I said, "I see a book flying, a huge book--thirty feet long and fifteen wide!"

<sup>3</sup> He told me, "This book is the verdict going out worldwide against thieves and liars. The first half of the book disposes of everyone who steals; the second half takes care of everyone who lies.

<sup>4</sup> I launched it"--Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies--"and so it will fly into the house of every thief and every liar. It will land in each house and tear it down, timbers and stones."

<sup>6</sup> I said, "What in the world is that?" He said, "This is a bushel basket on a journey. It holds the sin of everyone, everywhere."

<sup>7</sup> Then the lid made of lead was removed from the basket--and there was a woman sitting in it!

<sup>8</sup> He said, "This is Miss Wicked." He pushed her back down into the basket and clamped the lead lid over her.

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked up and to my surprise saw two women flying. On outstretched wings they airlifted the bushel basket into the sky.

<sup>10</sup> I said to the Messenger-Angel, "Where are they taking the bushel basket?"

<sup>11</sup> He said, "East to the land of Shinar. They will build a garage to house it."

When it's finished, the basket will be stored there."

6<sup>1</sup> Once again I looked up--another strange sight! Four chariots charging out from between two mountains. The mountains were bronze.

through the earth. The Messenger-Angel commanded: "On your way! Survey the earth!" and they were off in every direction.

<sup>8</sup> Then he called to me and said, "Look at them go! The ones going north are conveying a sense of my Spirit, serene and secure. No more trouble from that direction."

<sup>9</sup> Then this Message from GOD came to me:

<sup>11</sup> Collect silver and gold from them and fashion crowns. Place one on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest,

<sup>12</sup> and give him this message: "'A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. Be alert. We have a man here whose name is Branch. He will branch out from where he is and build the Temple of GOD.

<sup>13</sup> Yes, he's the one. He'll build the Temple of GOD. Then he'll assume the role of royalty, take his place on the throne and rule--a priest sitting on the throne!--showing that king and priest can coexist in harmony.'

<sup>14</sup> "The other crown will be in the Temple of GOD as a symbol of royalty, under the custodial care of Helem, Tobiah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah.

<sup>15</sup> "People will come from faraway places to pitch in and rebuild the Temple of GOD. This will confirm that GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies did, in fact, send me to you. All this follows as you put your minds to a life of responsive obedience to the voice of your GOD."

7<sup>1</sup> On the fourth day of the ninth month, in the fourth year of the reign of King Darius, GOD's Message again came to Zechariah.

<sup>2</sup> The town of Bethel had sent a delegation headed by Sarezzer and Regem-Melech to pray for GOD's blessing <sup>3</sup> and to confer with the priests of the Temple of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, and also with the prophets. They posed this question: "Should we plan for a day of mourning and abstinence next August, the seventieth anniversary of Jerusalem's fall, as we have been doing all these years?"

<sup>4</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies gave me this Message for them,

<sup>5</sup> for all the people and for the priests: "When you held days of fasting every fifth and seventh month all these seventy years, were you doing it for me?"

<sup>6</sup> And when you held feasts, was that for me? Hardly. You're interested in religion, I'm interested in people.

<sup>7</sup> "There's nothing new to say on the subject. Don't you still have the message of the earlier prophets from the time when Jerusalem was still a thriving, bustling city and the outlying countryside, the Negev and Shephelah, was populated?

<sup>8</sup> [[This is the message that GOD gave Zechariah.]]

<sup>9</sup> Well, the message hasn't changed. GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies said then and says now: "'Treat one another justly. Love your neighbors. Be compassionate with each other.

<sup>10</sup> Don't take advantage of widows, orphans, visitors, and the poor. Don't plot and scheme against one another--that's evil.'

<sup>12</sup> They steeled themselves against GOD's revelation and the Spirit-filled sermons preached by the earlier prophets by order of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. And GOD became angry, really angry, <sup>13</sup> because he told them everything plainly and they wouldn't listen to a word he said. "So [[this is what GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies said]] if they won't listen to me, I won't listen to them.

<sup>14</sup> I scattered them to the four winds. They ended up strangers wherever they were. Their 'promised land' became a vacant lot--weeds and tin cans and thistles. Not a sign of life. They turned a dreamland into a wasteland."

8 <sup>1</sup> And then these Messages from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies:

<sup>2</sup> "I am zealous for Zion--I [care]! I'm angry about Zion--I'm [involved]!" GOD's Message:

<sup>3</sup> "I've come back to Zion, I've moved back to Jerusalem. Jerusalem's new names will be Truth City, and Mountain of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, and Mount Holiness."

<sup>5</sup> And boys and girls will fill the public parks, laughing and playing--a good city to grow up in."

<sup>6</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "Do the problems of returning and rebuilding by just a few survivors seem too much? But is anything too much for me? Not if I have my say."

<sup>7</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "I'll collect my people from countries to the east and countries to the west.

<sup>8</sup> I'll bring them back and move them into Jerusalem. They'll be my people and I'll be their God. I'll stick with them and do right by them." A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies:

<sup>9</sup> "Get a grip on things. Hold tight, you who are listening to what I say through the preaching of the prophets. The Temple of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has been reestablished. The Temple is being rebuilt.

<sup>10</sup> We've come through a hard time: You worked for a pittance and were lucky to get that; the streets were dangerous; you could never let down your guard;

I had turned the world into an armed camp.

<sup>11</sup> "But things have changed. I'm taking the side of my core of surviving people:

<sup>12</sup> Sowing and harvesting will resume, Vines will grow grapes, Gardens will flourish, Dew and rain will make everything green. "My core survivors will get everything they need--and more.

<sup>13</sup> You've gotten a reputation as a bad-news people, you people of Judah and Israel, but I'm coming to save you. From now on, you're the good-news people. Don't be afraid. Keep a firm grip on what I'm doing."

<sup>14</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "In the same way that I decided to punish you when your ancestors made me angry, and didn't pull my punches, <sup>15</sup> at this time I've decided to bless Jerusalem and the country of Judah. Don't be afraid.

<sup>16</sup> And now here's what I want you to do: Tell the truth, the whole truth, when you speak. Do the right thing by one another, both personally and in your courts.

<sup>17</sup> Don't cook up plans to take unfair advantage of others. Don't do or say what isn't so. I hate all that stuff. Keep your lives simple and honest." Decree of GOD.

<sup>18</sup> Again I received a Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies:

<sup>19</sup> "The days of mourning set for the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months will be turned into days of feasting for Judah--celebration and holiday. Embrace truth! Love peace!"

<sup>23</sup> A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies: "At that time, ten men speaking a variety of languages will grab the sleeve of one Jew, hold tight, and say, 'Let us go with you. We've heard that God is with you.'"

9<sup>1</sup> War Bulletin: GOD's Message challenges the country of Hadrach. It will settle on Damascus. The whole world has its eyes on GOD. Israel isn't the only one.

<sup>4</sup> But God will certainly bankrupt her; he will dump all that wealth into the ocean and burn up what's left in a big fire.

<sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see it and panic, Gaza will wring its hands, Ekron will face a dead end. Gaza's king will die. Ashkelon will be emptied out, <sup>6</sup> And a villain will take over in Ashdod. "I'll take proud Philistia down a peg:

<sup>7</sup> I'll make him spit out his bloody booty and abandon his vile ways." What's left will be all God's--a core of survivors, a family brought together in Judah--But enemies like Ekron will go the way of the Jebusites, into the dustbin of history.

<sup>8</sup> "I will set up camp in my home country and defend it against invaders. Nobody is going to hurt my people ever again. I'm keeping my eye on them.

<sup>10</sup> I've had it with war--no more chariots in Ephraim, no more war horses in Jerusalem, no more swords and spears, bows and arrows. He will offer peace to the nations, a peaceful rule worldwide, from the four winds to the seven seas.

<sup>11</sup> "And you, because of my blood covenant with you, I'll release your prisoners from their hopeless cells.

<sup>13</sup> Judah is now my weapon, the bow I'll pull, setting Ephraim as an arrow to the string. I'll wake up your sons, O Zion, to counter your sons, O Greece. From now on people are my swords."

<sup>14</sup> Then GOD will come into view, his arrows flashing like lightning! Master GOD will blast his trumpet and set out in a whirlwind.

<sup>15</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will protect them--all-out war, The war to end all wars, no holds barred.

10 <sup>1</sup> Pray to GOD for rain--it's time for the spring rain--to GOD, the rainmaker, Spring thunderstorm maker, maker of grain and barley.

<sup>2</sup> "Store-bought gods babble gibberish. Religious experts spout rubbish. They pontificate hot air. Their prescriptions are nothing but smoke. And so the people wander like lost sheep, poor lost sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>3</sup> I'm furious with the so-called shepherds. They're worse than billy goats, and I'll treat them like goats." GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies will step in and take care of his flock, the people of Judah. He'll revive their spirits, make them proud to be on God's side.

<sup>4</sup> God will use them in his work of rebuilding, use them as foundations and pillars, Use them as tools and instruments, use them to oversee his work.

<sup>5</sup> They'll be a workforce to be proud of, working as one, their heads held high, striding through swamps and mud, Courageous and vigorous because GOD is with them, undeterred by the world's thugs.

<sup>6</sup> "I'll put muscle in the people of Judah; I'll save the people of Joseph. I know their pain and will make them good as new. They'll get a fresh start, as if nothing had ever happened. And why? Because I am their very own GOD, I'll do what needs to be done for them.

<sup>7</sup> The people of Ephraim will be famous, their lives brimming with joy. Their children will get in on it, too--oh, let them feel blessed by GOD!

<sup>8</sup> I'll whistle and they'll all come running. I've set them free--oh, how they'll flourish!

<sup>9</sup> Even though I scattered them to the far corners of earth, they'll remember me in the faraway places. They'll keep the story alive in their children, and they will come back.

<sup>10</sup> I'll bring them back from the Egyptian west and round them up from the Assyrian east. I'll bring them back to sweet Gilead, back to leafy Lebanon. Every square foot of land will be marked by homecoming.

<sup>11</sup> They'll sail through troubled seas, brush aside brash ocean waves. Roaring rivers will turn to a trickle. Gaudy Assyria will be stripped bare, bully Egypt exposed as a fraud.

<sup>12</sup> But my people--oh, I'll make them strong, GOD-strong! and they'll live my way." GOD says so!

11 <sup>1</sup> Open your borders to the immigrants, proud Lebanon! Your sentinel trees will burn.

cordwood. Weep Bashan oak trees! Your thick forest is now a field of stumps.

<sup>4</sup> Make room for the returning exiles! GOD commanded me, "Shepherd the sheep that are soon to be slaughtered.

<sup>5</sup> The people who buy them will butcher them for quick and easy money. What's worse, they'll get away with it. The people who sell them will say, 'Lucky me! God's on my side; I've got it made!' They have shepherds who couldn't care less about them."

<sup>6</sup> GOD's Decree: "I'm washing my hands of the people of this land. From now on they're all on their own. It's dog-eat-dog, survival of the fittest, and the devil take the hindmost. Don't look for help from me."

<sup>7</sup> So I took over from the crass, money-grubbing owners, and shepherded the sheep marked for slaughter. I got myself two shepherd staffs. I named one Lovely and the other Harmony. Then I went to work shepherding the sheep.

<sup>8</sup> Within a month I got rid of the corrupt shepherds. I got tired of putting up with them--and they couldn't stand me.

<sup>10</sup> Then I took the staff named Lovely and broke it across my knee, breaking the beautiful covenant I had made with all the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> In one stroke, both staff and covenant were broken. The money-hungry owners saw me do it and knew GOD was behind it.

<sup>12</sup> Then I addressed them: "Pay me what you think I'm worth." They paid me an insulting sum, counting out thirty silver coins.

<sup>13</sup> GOD told me, "Throw it in the poor box." This stingy wage was all they thought of me and my work! So I took the thirty silver coins and threw them into the poor box in GOD's Temple.

<sup>14</sup> Then I broke the other staff, Harmony, across my knee, breaking the concord between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> GOD then said, "Dress up like a stupid shepherd.

<sup>16</sup> I'm going to install just such a shepherd in this land--a shepherd indifferent to victims, who ignores the lost, abandons the injured, and disdains decent citizens. He'll only be in it for what he can get out of it, using and abusing any and all.

<sup>17</sup> "Doom to you, useless shepherd, walking off and leaving the sheep! A curse on your arm! A curse on your right eye! Your arm will hang limp and useless. Your right eye will go stone blind."

12 <sup>1</sup> War Bulletin: GOD's Message concerning Israel, GOD's Decree--the very GOD who threw the skies into space, set earth on a firm foundation, and breathed his own life into men and women:

<sup>2</sup> "Watch for this: I'm about to turn Jerusalem into a cup of strong drink that will have the people who have set siege to Judah and Jerusalem staggering in a drunken stupor.

<sup>3</sup> "On the Big Day, I'll turn Jerusalem into a huge stone blocking the way for everyone. All who try to lift it will rupture themselves. All the pagan nations will come together and try to get rid of it.

<sup>4</sup> "On the Big Day"--this is GOD speaking--"I'll throw all the war horses into a crazed panic, and their riders along with them. But I'll keep my eye on Judah, watching out for her at the same time that I make the enemy horses go blind.

<sup>5</sup> The families of Judah will then realize, 'Why, our leaders are strong and able through GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, their personal God.'

themselves at home--home again in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> "I, GOD, will begin by restoring the common households of Judah so that the glory of David's family and the leaders in Jerusalem won't overshadow the ordinary people in Judah.

<sup>8</sup> On the Big Day, I'll look after everyone who lives in Jerusalem so that the lowliest, weakest person will be as glorious as David and the family of David itself will be godlike, like the Angel of GOD leading the people.

<sup>10</sup> "Next I'll deal with the family of David and those who live in Jerusalem. I'll pour a spirit of grace and prayer over them. They'll then be able to recognize me as the One they so grievously wounded--that piercing spear-thrust!

And they'll weep--oh, how they'll weep!
Deep mourning as of a parent grieving the loss of the firstborn child.

<sup>12</sup> Everyone will weep and grieve, the land and everyone in it: The family of David off by itself and their women off by themselves; The family of Nathan off by itself and their women off by themselves;

<sup>14</sup> And all the rest of the families off by themselves and their women off by themselves.

13 <sup>1</sup> "On the Big Day, a fountain will be opened for the family of David and all the leaders of Jerusalem for washing away their sins, for scrubbing their stained and soiled lives clean.

<sup>2</sup> "On the Big Day"--this is GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies speaking--"I will wipe out the store-bought gods, erase their names from memory. People will forget they ever heard of them. And I'll get rid of the prophets who polluted the air with their diseased words.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone dares persist in spreading diseased, polluting words, his very own parents will step in and say, 'That's it! You're finished! Your lies about GOD put everyone in danger,' and then they'll stab him to death in the very act of prophesying lies about GOD--his own parents, mind you!

<sup>4</sup> "On the Big Day, the lying prophets will be publicly exposed and humiliated. Then they'll wish they'd never swindled people with their 'visions.' No more masquerading in prophet clothes.

<sup>6</sup> And if someone says, 'And so where did you get that black eye?' they'll say, 'I ran into a door at a friend's house.'

Decree of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.
"Kill the shepherd! Scatter the sheep!
The back of my hand against even the lambs!

<sup>8</sup> All across the country"--GOD's Decree--"two-thirds will be devastated and one-third survive.

<sup>9</sup> I'll deliver the surviving third to the refinery fires. I'll refine them as silver is refined, test them for purity as gold is tested. Then they'll pray to me by name and I'll answer them personally. I'll say,

'That's my people.' They'll say, 'GOD--my God!'"

14<sup>1</sup> Note well: GOD's Judgment Day is on the way: "Plunder will be piled high and handed out.

<sup>4</sup> That's the Day he'll take his stand on the Mount of Olives, facing Jerusalem from the east. The Mount of Olives will be split right down the middle, from east to west, leaving a wide valley. Half the mountain will shift north, the other half south.

<sup>5</sup> Then you will run for your lives down the valley, your escape route that will take you all the way to Azal. You'll run for your lives, just as you ran on the day of the great earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. Then my GOD will arrive and all the holy angels with him.

<sup>7</sup> The Day is coming--the timing is GOD's--when it will be continuous day. Every evening will be a fresh morning.

<sup>8</sup> What a Day that will be! Fresh flowing rivers out of Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea, half to the western sea, flowing year-round, summer and winter!

<sup>9</sup> GOD will be king over all the earth, one GOD and only one. What a Day that will be!

<sup>10</sup> The land will stretch out spaciouly around Jerusalem--to Geba in the north and Rimmon in the south, with Jerusalem towering at the center, and the commanding city gates--Gate of Benjamin to First Gate to Corner Gate to Hananel Tower to the Royal Winery--ringing the city

<sup>11</sup> full of people. Never again will Jerusalem be totally destroyed. From now on it will be a safe city.

<sup>12</sup> But this is what will happen to all who fought against Jerusalem: GOD will visit them with a terrible plague. People's flesh will rot off their bones while they are walking around; their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues in their mouths; people will be dying on their feet!

<sup>14</sup> And then Judah will jump into the fray! Treasures from all the nations will be piled high--gold, silver, the latest fashions.

<sup>15</sup> The plague will also hit the animals-
-horses, mules, camels, donkeys.
Everything alive in the military camps will be hit by the plague.

<sup>16</sup> All the survivors from the godless nations that fought against Jerusalem will travel to Jerusalem every year to worship the King, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, and celebrate the Feast of Booths.

<sup>17</sup> If any of these survivors fail to make the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem to worship the King, GOD-of-the-Angel-
Armies, there will be no rain.

<sup>18</sup> If the Egyptians don't make the pilgrimage and worship, there will be no rain for them. Every nation that does not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths will be hit with the plague.

<sup>19</sup> Egypt and any other nation that does not make pilgrimage to celebrate the Feast of Booths gets punished.

<sup>20</sup> On that Day, the Big Day, all the horses' harness bells will be inscribed "Holy to GOD." The cooking pots in the Temple of GOD will be as sacred as chalices and plates on the altar.

<sup>21</sup> In fact, all the pots and pans in all the kitchens of Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. People who come to worship, preparing meals and sacrifices, will use them. On that Big Day there will be no buying or selling in the Temple of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

Malachi

1 <sup>1</sup> A Message. GOD's Word to Israel through Malachi:

<sup>2</sup> GOD said, "I love you." You replied, "Really? How have you loved us?" "Look at history" (this is GOD's answer). "Look at how differently I've treated you, Jacob, from Esau: I loved Jacob <sup>3</sup> and hated Esau. I reduced pretentious Esau to a molehill, turned his whole country into a ghost town."

<sup>4</sup> When Edom (Esau) said, "We've been knocked down, but we'll get up and start over, good as new," GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies said, "Just try it and see how far you get. When I knock you down, you stay down. People will take one look at you and say, 'Land of Evil!' and 'the GOD-cursed tribe!'"

<sup>5</sup> "Yes, take a good look. Then you'll see how faithfully I've loved you and you'll want even more, saying, 'May GOD be even greater, beyond the borders of Israel!'

<sup>6</sup> "Isn't it true that a son honors his father and a worker his master? So if I'm your Father, where's the honor? If I'm your Master, where's the respect?" GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is calling you on the carpet: "You priests despise me! "You say, 'Not so! How do we despise you?' "By your shoddy, sloppy, defiling worship. "You ask, 'What do you mean, "defiling"? What's defiling about it?'

<sup>8</sup> And when you offer worthless animals for sacrifices in worship, animals that you're trying to get rid of--blind and sick and crippled animals--isn't that defiling?

Try a trick like that with your banker or your senator--how far do you think it will get you?" GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies asks you.

<sup>9</sup> "Get on your knees and pray that I will be gracious to you. You priests have gotten everyone in trouble. With this kind of conduct, do you think I'll pay attention to you?" GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies asks you.

<sup>10</sup> "Why doesn't one of you just shut the Temple doors and lock them? Then none of you can get in and play at religion with this silly, empty-headed worship. I am not pleased. The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is not pleased. And I don't want any more of this so-called worship!

<sup>11</sup> "I am honored all over the world. And there are people who know how to worship me all over the world, who honor me by bringing their best to me.

They're saying it everywhere: 'God is greater, this GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.'

<sup>12</sup> "All except you. Instead of honoring me, you profane me. You profane me when you say, 'Worship is not important, and what we bring to worship is of no account,'

<sup>13</sup> and when you say, 'I'm bored--this doesn't do anything for me.' You act so superior, sticking your noses in the air--act superior to [me], GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies! And when you do offer something to me, it's a hand-me-down, or broken, or useless. Do you think I'm going to accept it? This is GOD speaking to you!

<sup>14</sup> "A curse on the person who makes a big show of doing something great for me--an expensive sacrifice, say--and then at the last minute brings in something puny and worthless! I'm a great king, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, honored far and wide, and I'll not put up with it!

<sup>2</sup> If you refuse to obediently listen, and if you refuse to honor me, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, in worship, then I'll put you under a curse. I'll exchange all your blessings for curses. In fact, the curses are already at work because you're not serious about honoring me.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, and the curse will extend to your children. I'm going to plaster your faces with rotting garbage, garbage thrown out from your feasts. That's what you have to look forward to!

<sup>4</sup> "Maybe that will wake you up. Maybe then you'll realize that I'm indicting you in order to put new life into my covenant with the priests of Levi, the covenant of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>5</sup> My covenant with Levi was to give life and peace. I kept my covenant with him, and he honored me. He stood in reverent awe before me.

<sup>6</sup> He taught the truth and did not lie. He walked with me in peace and uprightness. He kept many out of the ditch, kept them on the road.

<sup>7</sup> "It's the job of priests to teach the truth. People are supposed to look to them for guidance. The priest is the messenger of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>8</sup> But you priests have abandoned the way of priests. Your teaching has messed up many lives. You have corrupted the covenant of priest Levi. GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says so.

<sup>9</sup> And so I am showing you up for who you are. Everyone will be disgusted with you and avoid you because you don't live the way I told you to live, and you don't teach my revelation truly and impartially."

<sup>10</sup> Don't we all come from one Father? Aren't we all created by the same God? So why can't we get along? Why do we desecrate the covenant of our ancestors that binds us together?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has cheated on GOD--a sickening violation of trust in Israel and Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the holiness of GOD by falling in love and running off with foreign women, women who worship alien gods.

<sup>12</sup> GOD's curse on those who do this! Drive them out of house and home! They're no longer fit to be part of the community no matter how many offerings they bring to GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>13</sup> And here's a second offense: You fill the place of worship with your whining and sniveling because you don't get what you want from GOD.

<sup>14</sup> Do you know why? Simple. Because GOD was there as a witness when you spoke your marriage vows to your young bride, and now you've broken those vows, broken the faith-bond with your vowed companion, your covenant wife.

<sup>15</sup> GOD, not you, made marriage. His Spirit inhabits even the smallest details of marriage. And what does he want from marriage? Children of God, that's what. So guard the spirit of marriage within you. Don't cheat on your spouse.

<sup>16</sup> "I hate divorce," says the GOD of Israel. GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says, "I hate the violent dismembering of the 'one flesh' of marriage." So watch yourselves. Don't let your guard down. Don't cheat.

<sup>17</sup> You make GOD tired with all your talk. "How do we tire him out?" you ask.

By saying, "GOD loves sinners and sin alike. GOD loves all." And also by saying, "Judgment? GOD's too nice to judge."

3<sup>1</sup> "Look! I'm sending my messenger on ahead to clear the way for me. Suddenly, out of the blue, the Leader you've been looking for will enter his Temple--yes, the Messenger of the Covenant, the one you've been waiting for. Look! He's on his way!" A Message from the mouth of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>2</sup> But who will be able to stand up to that coming? Who can survive his appearance? He'll be like white-hot fire from the smelter's furnace. He'll be like the strongest lye soap at the laundry.

fit for GOD, fit to present offerings of righteousness.

<sup>4</sup> Then, and only then, will Judah and Jerusalem be fit and pleasing to GOD, as they used to be in the years long ago.

<sup>5</sup> "Yes, I'm on my way to visit you with Judgment. I'll present compelling evidence against sorcerers, adulterers, liars, those who exploit workers, those who take advantage of widows and orphans, those who are inhospitable to the homeless--anyone and everyone who doesn't honor me." A Message from GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>6</sup> "I am GOD--yes, I AM. I haven't changed. And because I haven't changed, you, the descendants of Jacob, haven't been destroyed.

<sup>7</sup> You have a long history of ignoring my commands. You haven't done a thing I've told you. Return to me so I can return to you," says GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

"You ask, 'But how do we return?'

<sup>8</sup> "Begin by being honest. Do honest people rob God? But you rob me day after day. "You ask, 'How have we robbed you?' "The tithe and the offering--that's how!

<sup>9</sup> And now you're under a curse--the whole lot of you--because you're robbing me.

<sup>10</sup> Bring your full tithe to the Temple treasury so there will be ample provisions in my Temple. Test me in this and see if I don't open up heaven itself to you and pour out blessings beyond your wildest dreams.

<sup>11</sup> For my part, I will defend you against marauders, protect your wheat fields and vegetable gardens against plunderers." The Message of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies.

<sup>12</sup> "You'll be voted 'Happiest Nation.' You'll experience what it's like to be a country of grace." GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says so.

<sup>13</sup> GOD says, "You have spoken hard, rude words to me. "You ask, 'When did we ever do that?'

<sup>14</sup> "When you said, 'It doesn't pay to serve God. What do we ever get out of it? When we did what he said and went around with long faces, serious about GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, what difference did it make?'

<sup>15</sup> Those who take life into their own hands are the lucky ones. They break all the rules and get ahead anyway. They push God to the limit and get by with it.'"

<sup>16</sup> Then those whose lives honored GOD got together and talked it over. GOD saw what they were doing and listened in. A book was opened in God's presence and minutes were taken of the meeting, with the names of the GOD-fearers written down, all the names of those who honored GOD's name.

<sup>17</sup> GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies said, "They're mine, all mine. They'll get special treatment when I go into action. I treat them with the same consideration and kindness that parents give the child who honors them.

<sup>18</sup> Once more you'll see the difference it makes between being a person who does the right thing and one who doesn't, between serving God and not serving him.

4<sup>1</sup> "Count on it: The day is coming, raging like a forest fire. All the arrogant people who do evil things will be burned up like stove wood, burned to a crisp, nothing left but scorched earth and ash--a black day.

<sup>2</sup> But for you, sunrise! The sun of righteousness will dawn on those who honor my name, healing radiating from its wings. You will be bursting with energy, like colts frisky and frolicking.

<sup>3</sup> And you'll tromp on the wicked. They'll be nothing but ashes under your feet on that Day." GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies says so.

<sup>4</sup> "Remember and keep the revelation I gave through my servant Moses, the revelation I commanded at Horeb for all Israel, all the rules and procedures for right living.

<sup>5</sup> "But also look ahead: I'm sending Elijah the prophet to clear the way for the Big Day of GOD--the decisive Judgment Day!

<sup>6</sup> He will convince parents to look after their children and children to look up to their parents. If they refuse, I'll come and put the land under a curse."

Matthew

1 <sup>1</sup> The family tree of Jesus Christ, David's son, Abraham's son:

<sup>2</sup> Abraham had Isaac, Isaac had Jacob,
Jacob had Judah and his brothers,

mother was Tamar), Perez had Hezron, Hezron had Aram,

<sup>4</sup> Aram had Amminadab, Amminadab had Nahshon, Nahshon had Salmon,

<sup>5</sup> Salmon had Boaz (his mother was Rahab), Boaz had Obed (Ruth was the mother), Obed had Jesse,

<sup>6</sup> Jesse had David, and David became king. David had Solomon (Uriah's wife was the mother),

<sup>7</sup> Solomon had Rehoboam, Rehoboam had Abijah, Abijah had Asa,

<sup>8</sup> Asa had Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat had Joram, Joram had Uzziah, <sup>9</sup> Uzziah had Jotham, Jotham had Ahaz, Ahaz had Hezekiah,

<sup>11</sup> Josiah had Jehoiachin and his brothers, and then the people were taken into the Babylonian exile.

<sup>16</sup> Jacob had Joseph, Mary's husband, the Mary who gave birth to Jesus, the Jesus who was called Christ.

<sup>17</sup> There were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, another fourteen from David to the Babylonian exile, and yet another fourteen from the Babylonian exile to Christ.

<sup>18</sup> The birth of Jesus took place like this. His mother, Mary, was engaged to be married to Joseph. Before they came to the marriage bed, Joseph discovered she was pregnant. (It was by the Holy Spirit, but he didn't know that.)

<sup>19</sup> Joseph, chagrined but noble, determined to take care of things quietly so Mary would not be disgraced.

<sup>20</sup> While he was trying to figure a way out, he had a dream. God's angel spoke in the dream: "Joseph, son of David, don't hesitate to get married. Mary's pregnancy is Spirit-conceived. God's Holy Spirit has made her pregnant.

<sup>21</sup> She will bring a son to birth, and when she does, you, Joseph, will name him Jesus--'God saves'--because he will save his people from their sins."

<sup>23</sup> Watch for this--a virgin will get pregnant and bear a son; They will name him Emmanuel (Hebrew for "God is with us").

<sup>24</sup> Then Joseph woke up. He did exactly what God's angel commanded in the dream: He married Mary.

<sup>25</sup> But he did not consummate the marriage until she had the baby. He named the baby Jesus.

2<sup>1</sup> After Jesus was born in Bethlehem village, Judah territory--this was during Herod's kingship--a band of scholars arrived in Jerusalem from the East.

<sup>2</sup> They asked around, "Where can we find and pay homage to the newborn King of the Jews? We observed a star in the eastern sky that signaled his birth. We're on pilgrimage to worship him."

<sup>3</sup> When word of their inquiry got to Herod, he was terrified--and not Herod alone, but most of Jerusalem as well.

<sup>4</sup> Herod lost no time. He gathered all the high priests and religion scholars in the city together and asked, "Where is the Messiah supposed to be born?"

<sup>6</sup> It's you, Bethlehem, in Judah's land, no longer bringing up the rear. From you will come the leader who will shepherd-rule my people, my Israel."

Pretending to be as devout as they were, he got them to tell him exactly when the birth-announcement star appeared.

<sup>8</sup> Then he told them the prophecy about Bethlehem, and said, "Go find this child. Leave no stone unturned. As soon as you find him, send word and I'll join you at once in your worship."

<sup>9</sup> Instructed by the king, they set off. Then the star appeared again, the same star they had seen in the eastern skies. It led them on until it hovered over the place of the child.

<sup>10</sup> They could hardly contain themselves: They were in the right place! They had arrived at the right time!

<sup>11</sup> They entered the house and saw the child in the arms of Mary, his mother. Overcome, they kneeled and worshiped him. Then they opened their luggage and presented gifts: gold, frankincense, myrrh.

<sup>12</sup> In a dream, they were warned not to report back to Herod. So they worked out another route, left the territory without being seen, and returned to their own country.

<sup>13</sup> After the scholars were gone, God's angel showed up again in Joseph's dream and commanded, "Get up. Take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt. Stay until further notice. Herod is on the hunt for this child, and wants to kill him."

<sup>15</sup> They lived in Egypt until Herod's death. This Egyptian exile fulfilled what Hosea had preached: "I called my son out of Egypt."

<sup>16</sup> Herod, when he realized that the scholars had tricked him, flew into a rage. He commanded the murder of every little boy two years old and under who lived in Bethlehem and its surrounding hills. (He determined that age from information he'd gotten from the scholars.)

<sup>19</sup> Later, when Herod died, God's angel appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt:

<sup>20</sup> "Up, take the child and his mother and return to Israel. All those out to murder the child are dead."

<sup>22</sup> When he heard, though, that Archelaus had succeeded his father, Herod, as king in Judea, he was afraid to go there. But then Joseph was directed in a dream to go to the hills of Galilee.

<sup>23</sup> On arrival, he settled in the village of Nazareth. This move was a fulfillment of the prophetic words, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

<sup>6</sup> There at the Jordan River those who came to confess their sins were baptized into a changed life.

<sup>7</sup> When John realized that a lot of Pharisees and Sadducees were showing up for a baptismal experience because it was becoming the popular thing to do, he exploded: "Brood of snakes! What do you think you're doing slithering down here to the river? Do you think a little water on your snakeskins is going to make any difference?"

<sup>9</sup> And don't think you can pull rank by claiming Abraham as father. Being a descendant of Abraham is neither here nor there. Descendants of Abraham are a dime a dozen.

<sup>10</sup> What counts is your life. Is it green and blossoming? Because if it's deadwood, it goes on the fire.

<sup>11</sup> "I'm baptizing you here in the river, turning your old life in for a kingdom life. The real action comes next: The main character in this drama--compared to him I'm a mere stagehand--will ignite the kingdom life within you, a fire within you, the Holy Spirit within you, changing you from the inside out.

<sup>16</sup> The moment Jesus came up out of the baptismal waters, the skies opened up and he saw God's Spirit--it looked like a dove--descending and landing on him.

<sup>17</sup> And along with the Spirit, a voice: "This is my Son, chosen and marked by my love, delight of my life."

4 <sup>1</sup> Next Jesus was taken into the wild by the Spirit for the Test. The Devil was ready to give it.

<sup>5</sup> For the second test the Devil took him to the Holy City. He sat him on top of the Temple and said,

<sup>6</sup> "Since you are God's Son, jump." The Devil goaded him by quoting Psalm 91: "He has placed you in the care of angels. They will catch you so that you won't so much as stub your toe on a stone."

<sup>8</sup> For the third test, the Devil took him on the peak of a huge mountain. He gestured expansively, pointing out all the earth's kingdoms, how glorious they all were.

<sup>9</sup> Then he said, "They're yours--lock, stock, and barrel. Just go down on your knees and worship me, and they're yours."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus' refusal was curt: "Beat it, Satan!" He backed his rebuke with a third quotation from Deuteronomy: "Worship the Lord your God, and only him. Serve him with absolute single-heartedness."

<sup>18</sup> Walking along the beach of Lake Galilee, Jesus saw two brothers: Simon (later called Peter) and Andrew. They were fishing, throwing their nets into the lake. It was their regular work.

<sup>21</sup> A short distance down the beach they came upon another pair of brothers, James and John, Zebedee's sons. These two were sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, mending their fishnets. Jesus made the same offer to them, <sup>22</sup> and they were just as quick to follow, abandoning boat and father.

<sup>23</sup> From there he went all over Galilee. He used synagogues for meeting places and taught people the truth of God. God's kingdom was his theme--that beginning right now they were under God's government, a good government! He also healed people of their diseases and of the bad effects of their bad lives.

5 <sup>1</sup> When Jesus saw his ministry drawing huge crowds, he climbed a hillside. Those who were apprenticed to him, the committed, climbed with him. Arriving at a quiet place, he sat down <sup>2</sup> and taught his climbing companions. This is what he said:

<sup>3</sup> "You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope. With less of you there is more of God and his rule.

<sup>4</sup> "You're blessed when you feel you've lost what is most dear to you. Only then can you be embraced by the One most dear to you.

and drink in the best meal you'll ever eat.

<sup>9</sup> "You're blessed when you can show people how to cooperate instead of compete or fight. That's when you discover who you really are, and your place in God's family.

<sup>10</sup> "You're blessed when your commitment to God provokes persecution. The persecution drives you even deeper into God's kingdom.

<sup>11</sup> "Not only that--count yourselves blessed every time people put you down or throw you out or speak lies about you to discredit me. What it means is that the truth is too close for comfort and they are uncomfortable.

<sup>12</sup> You can be glad when that happens--give a cheer, even!--for though they don't like it, I do! And all heaven applauds. And know that you are in good company. My prophets and witnesses have always gotten into this kind of trouble.

<sup>13</sup> "Let me tell you why you are here. You're here to be salt-seasoning that brings out the God-flavors of this earth. If you lose your saltiness, how will people taste godliness? You've lost your usefulness and will end up in the garbage.

<sup>14</sup> "Here's another way to put it: You're here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world. God is not a secret to be kept. We're going public with this, as public as a city on a hill.

<sup>15</sup> If I make you light-bearers, you don't think I'm going to hide you under a bucket, do you? I'm putting you on a light stand.

<sup>16</sup> Now that I've put you there on a hilltop, on a light stand--shine! Keep open house; be generous with your lives. By opening up to others, you'll prompt people to open up with God, this generous Father in heaven.

<sup>17</sup> "Don't suppose for a minute that I have come to demolish the Scriptures--either God's Law or the Prophets. I'm not here to demolish but to complete. I am going to put it all together, pull it all together in a vast panorama.

<sup>18</sup> God's Law is more real and lasting than the stars in the sky and the ground at your feet. Long after stars burn out and earth wears out, God's Law will be alive and working.

<sup>19</sup> "Trivialize even the smallest item in God's Law and you will only have trivialized yourself. But take it seriously, show the way for others, and you will find honor in the kingdom.

<sup>20</sup> Unless you do far better than the Pharisees in the matters of right living, you won't know the first thing about entering the kingdom.

<sup>22</sup> I'm telling you that anyone who is so much as angry with a brother or sister is guilty of murder. Carelessly call a brother 'idiot!' and you just might find yourself hauled into court. Thoughtlessly yell 'stupid!' at a sister and you are on the brink of hellfire. The simple moral fact is that words kill.

<sup>23</sup> "This is how I want you to conduct yourself in these matters. If you enter your place of worship and, about to make an offering, you suddenly remember a grudge a friend has against you, <sup>24</sup> abandon your offering, leave immediately, go to this friend and make things right. Then and only then, come back and work things out with God.

<sup>25</sup> "Or say you're out on the street and an old enemy accosts you. Don't lose a minute. Make the first move; make things right with him. After all, if you leave the first move to him, knowing his track record, you're likely to end up in court, maybe even jail.

<sup>26</sup> If that happens, you won't get out without a stiff fine.

<sup>28</sup> But don't think you've preserved your virtue simply by staying out of bed. Your heart can be corrupted by lust even quicker than your body. Those leering looks you think nobody notices--they also corrupt.

<sup>29</sup> "Let's not pretend this is easier than it really is. If you want to live a morally pure life, here's what you have to do: You have to blind your right eye the moment you catch it in a lustful leer. You have to choose to live one-eyed or else be dumped on a moral trash pile.

<sup>30</sup> And you have to chop off your right hand the moment you notice it raised threateningly. Better a bloody stump than your entire being discarded for good in the dump.

<sup>31</sup> "Remember the Scripture that says, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him do it legally, giving her divorce papers and her legal rights'?

<sup>32</sup> Too many of you are using that as a cover for selfishness and whim, pretending to be righteous just because you are 'legal.' Please, no more pretending. If you divorce your wife, you're responsible for making her an adulteress (unless she has already made herself that by sexual promiscuity). And if you marry such a divorced adulteress, you're automatically an adulterer yourself. You can't use legal cover to mask a moral failure.

<sup>33</sup> "And don't say anything you don't mean. This counsel is embedded deep in our traditions.

<sup>34</sup> You only make things worse when you lay down a smoke screen of pious talk, saying, 'I'll pray for you,' and never doing it, or saying, 'God be with you,' and not meaning it. You don't make your words true by embellishing them with religious lace. In making your speech sound more religious, it becomes less true.

<sup>39</sup> Is that going to get us anywhere? Here's what I propose: 'Don't hit back at all.' If someone strikes you, stand there and take it.

<sup>40</sup> If someone drags you into court and sues for the shirt off your back, giftwrap your best coat and make a present of it.

<sup>41</sup> And if someone takes unfair advantage of you, use the occasion to practice the servant life.

<sup>44</sup> I'm challenging that. I'm telling you to love your enemies. Let them bring out the best in you, not the worst. When someone gives you a hard time, respond with the energies of prayer, <sup>45</sup> for then you are working out of your true selves, your God-created selves. This is what God does. He gives his best--the sun to warm and the rain to nourish--to everyone, regardless: the good and bad, the nice and nasty.

<sup>46</sup> If all you do is love the lovable, do you expect a bonus? Anybody can do that.

<sup>47</sup> If you simply say hello to those who greet you, do you expect a medal? Any run-of-the-mill sinner does that.

<sup>48</sup> "In a word, what I'm saying is, Grow up. You're kingdom subjects. Now live like it. Live out your God-created identity. Live generously and graciously toward others, the way God lives toward you.

6<sup>1</sup> "Be especially careful when you are trying to be good so that you don't make a performance out of it. It might be good theater, but the God who made you won't be applauding.

<sup>2</sup> "When you do something for someone else, don't call attention to yourself. You've seen them in action, I'm sure--'playactors' I call them--treating prayer meeting and street corner alike as a stage, acting compassionate as long as someone is watching, playing to the crowds. They get applause, true, but that's all they get.

<sup>5</sup> "And when you come before God, don't turn that into a theatrical production either. All these people making a regular show out of their prayers, hoping for stardom! Do you think God sits in a box seat?

<sup>6</sup> "Here's what I want you to do: Find a quiet, secluded place so you won't be tempted to role-play before God. Just be there as simply and honestly as you can manage. The focus will shift from you to God, and you will begin to sense his grace.

<sup>7</sup> "The world is full of so-called prayer warriors who are prayer-ignorant. They're full of formulas and programs and advice, peddling techniques for getting what you want from God.

<sup>13</sup> Keep us safe from ourselves and the Devil. You're in charge! You can do anything you want! You're ablaze in beauty! Yes. Yes. Yes.

<sup>14</sup> "In prayer there is a connection between what God does and what you do. You can't get forgiveness from God, for instance, without also forgiving others.

<sup>15</sup> If you refuse to do your part, you cut yourself off from God's part.

<sup>16</sup> "When you practice some appetite-denying discipline to better concentrate on God, don't make a production out of it. It might turn you into a small-time celebrity but it won't make you a saint.

<sup>17</sup> If you 'go into training' inwardly, act normal outwardly. Shampoo and comb your hair, brush your teeth, wash your face.

<sup>18</sup> God doesn't require attention-getting devices. He won't overlook what you are doing; he'll reward you well.

<sup>19</sup> "Don't hoard treasure down here where it gets eaten by moths and corroded by rust or--worse!--stolen by burglars.

<sup>21</sup> It's obvious, isn't it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being.

<sup>22</sup> "Your eyes are windows into your body. If you open your eyes wide in wonder and belief, your body fills up with light.

<sup>23</sup> If you live squinty-eyed in greed and distrust, your body is a dank cellar. If you pull the blinds on your windows, what a dark life you will have!

<sup>24</sup> "You can't worship two gods at once. Loving one god, you'll end up hating the other. Adoration of one feeds contempt for the other. You can't worship God and Money both.

<sup>25</sup> "If you decide for God, living a life of God-worship, it follows that you don't fuss about what's on the table at mealtimes or whether the clothes in your closet are in fashion. There is far more to your life than the food you put in your stomach, more to your outer appearance than the clothes you hang on your body.

<sup>26</sup> Look at the birds, free and unfettered, not tied down to a job description, careless in the care of God. And you count far more to him than birds.

<sup>27</sup> "Has anyone by fussing in front of the mirror ever gotten taller by so much as an inch?

<sup>28</sup> All this time and money wasted on fashion--do you think it makes that much difference? Instead of looking at the fashions, walk out into the fields and look at the wildflowers. They never primp or shop, <sup>29</sup> but have you ever seen color and design quite like it? The ten best-dressed men and women in the country look shabby alongside them.

<sup>30</sup> "If God gives such attention to the appearance of wildflowers--most of which are never even seen--don't you think he'll attend to you, take pride in you, do his best for you?

<sup>31</sup> What I'm trying to do here is to get you to relax, to not be so preoccupied with getting, so you can respond to God's giving.

<sup>32</sup> People who don't know God and the way he works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how he works.

<sup>33</sup> Steep your life in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. Don't worry about missing out. You'll find all your everyday human concerns will be met.

<sup>34</sup> "Give your entire attention to what God is doing right now, and don't get worked up about what may or may not happen tomorrow. God will help you deal with whatever hard things come up when the time comes.

7 <sup>1</sup> "Don't pick on people, jump on their failures, criticize their faults--unless, of course, you want the same treatment.

<sup>4</sup> Do you have the nerve to say, 'Let me wash your face for you,' when your own face is distorted by contempt?

<sup>6</sup> "Don't be flip with the sacred. Banter and silliness give no honor to God. Don't reduce holy mysteries to slogans. In trying to be relevant, you're only being cute and inviting sacrilege.

<sup>10</sup> If he asks for fish, do you scare him with a live snake on his plate?

<sup>11</sup> As bad as you are, you wouldn't think of such a thing. You're at least decent to your own children. So don't you think the God who conceived you in love will be even better?

<sup>12</sup> "Here is a simple, rule-of-thumb guide for behavior: Ask yourself what you want people to do for you, then grab the initiative and do it for them. Add up God's Law and Prophets and this is what you get.

<sup>16</sup> Who preachers are is the main thing, not what they say. A genuine leader will never exploit your emotions or your pocketbook. These diseased trees with their bad apples are going to be chopped down and burned.

<sup>21</sup> "Knowing the correct password--saying 'Master, Master,' for instance--isn't going to get you anywhere with me. What is required is serious obedience--doing what my Father wills.

<sup>22</sup> I can see it now--at the Final Judgment thousands strutting up to me and saying, 'Master, we preached the Message, we bashed the demons, our God-sponsored projects had everyone talking.'

<sup>23</sup> And do you know what I am going to say? 'You missed the boat. All you did was use me to make yourselves important. You don't impress me one bit. You're out of here.'

<sup>24</sup> "These words I speak to you are not incidental additions to your life, homeowner improvements to your standard of living. They are foundational words, words to build a life on. If you work these words into your life, you are like a smart carpenter who built his house on solid rock.

<sup>25</sup> Rain poured down, the river flooded, a tornado hit--but nothing moved that house. It was fixed to the rock.

<sup>26</sup> "But if you just use my words in Bible studies and don't work them into your life, you are like a stupid carpenter who built his house on the sandy beach.

<sup>27</sup> When a storm rolled in and the waves came up, it collapsed like a house of cards."

<sup>29</sup> It was apparent that he was living everything he was saying--quite a contrast to their religion teachers! This was the best teaching they had ever heard.

8 <sup>1</sup> Jesus came down the mountain with the cheers of the crowd still ringing in his ears.

<sup>2</sup> Then a leper appeared and went to his knees before Jesus, praying, "Master, if you want to, you can heal my body."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus reached out and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be clean." Then and there, all signs of the leprosy were gone.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said, "Don't talk about this all over town. Just quietly present your healed body to the priest, along with the appropriate expressions of thanks to God. Your cleansed and grateful life, not your words, will bear witness to what I have done."

<sup>5</sup> As Jesus entered the village of Capernaum, a Roman captain came up in a panic and said,

<sup>8</sup> "Oh, no," said the captain. "I don't want to put you to all that trouble. Just give the order and my servant will be fine."

<sup>9</sup> "I'm a man who takes orders and gives orders. I tell one soldier, 'Go,' and he goes; to another, 'Come,' and he comes; to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>10</sup> Taken aback, Jesus said, "I've yet to come across this kind of simple trust in Israel, the very people who are supposed to know all about God and how he works.

<sup>12</sup> Then those who grew up 'in the faith' but had no faith will find themselves out in the cold, outsiders to grace and wondering what happened."

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus turned to the captain and said, "Go. What you believed could happen has happened." At that moment his servant became well.

<sup>14</sup> By this time they were in front of Peter's house. On entering, Jesus found Peter's mother-in-law sick in bed, burning up with fever.

<sup>15</sup> He touched her hand and the fever was gone. No sooner was she up on her feet than she was fixing dinner for him.

<sup>18</sup> When Jesus saw that a curious crowd was growing by the minute, he told his disciples to get him out of there to the other side of the lake.

<sup>19</sup> As they left, a religion scholar asked if he could go along. "I'll go with you, wherever," he said.

<sup>26</sup> Jesus reprimanded them. "Why are you such cowards, such faint-hearts?" Then he stood up and told the wind to be silent, the sea to quiet down: "Silence!" The sea became smooth as glass.

<sup>27</sup> The men rubbed their eyes, astonished. "What's going on here? Wind and sea come to heel at his command!"

<sup>28</sup> They landed in the country of the Gadarenes and were met by two madmen, victims of demons, coming out of the cemetery. The men had terrorized the region for so long that no one considered it safe to walk down that stretch of road anymore.

<sup>29</sup> Seeing Jesus, the madmen screamed out, "What business do you have giving us a hard time? You're the Son of God! You weren't supposed to show up here yet!"

<sup>33</sup> Scared to death, the swineherds bolted. They told everyone back in town what had happened to the madmen and the pigs.

<sup>34</sup> Those who heard about it were angry about the drowned pigs. A mob formed and demanded that Jesus get out and not come back.

9 <sup>1</sup> Back in the boat, Jesus and the disciples recrossed the sea to Jesus' hometown.

<sup>2</sup> They were hardly out of the boat when some men carried a paraplegic on a stretcher and set him down in front of them. Jesus, impressed by their bold belief, said to the paraplegic, "Cheer up, son. I forgive your sins."

<sup>6</sup> Well, just so it's clear that I'm the Son of Man and authorized to do either, or both. ..."At this he turned to the paraplegic and said, "Get up. Take your bed and go home."

<sup>8</sup> The crowd was awestruck, amazed and pleased that God had authorized Jesus to work among them this way.

<sup>9</sup> Passing along, Jesus saw a man at his work collecting taxes. His name was Matthew. Jesus said, "Come along with me." Matthew stood up and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> Later when Jesus was eating supper at Matthew's house with his close followers, a lot of disreputable characters came and joined them.

<sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw him keeping this kind of company, they had a fit, and lit into Jesus' followers. "What kind of example is this from your Teacher, acting cozy with crooks and riff-raff?"

<sup>14</sup> A little later John's followers approached, asking, "Why is it that we and the Pharisees rigorously discipline body and spirit by fasting, but your followers don't?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus told them, "When you're celebrating a wedding, you don't skimp on the cake and wine. You feast. Later you may need to pull in your belt, but not now. No one throws cold water on a friendly bonfire. This is Kingdom Come!"

<sup>18</sup> As he finished saying this, a local official appeared, bowed politely, and said, "My daughter has just now died. If you come and touch her, she will live."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus got up and went with him, his disciples following along.

<sup>20</sup> Just then a woman who had hemorrhaged for twelve years slipped in from behind and lightly touched his robe.

<sup>23</sup> By now they had arrived at the house of the town official, and pushed their way through the gossips looking for a story and the neighbors bringing in casseroles.

<sup>24</sup> Jesus was abrupt: "Clear out! This girl isn't dead. She's sleeping." They told him he didn't know what he was talking about.

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus got home, the blind men went in with him. Jesus said to them, "Do you really believe I can do this?" They said, "Why, yes, Master!"

<sup>29</sup> He touched their eyes and said, "Become what you believe."

<sup>30</sup> It happened. They saw. Then Jesus became very stern. "Don't let a soul know how this happened."

<sup>31</sup> But they were hardly out the door before they started blabbing it to everyone they met.

<sup>32</sup> Right after that, as the blind men were leaving, a man who had been struck speechless by an evil spirit was brought to Jesus.

<sup>33</sup> As soon as Jesus threw the evil tormenting spirit out, the man talked away just as if he'd been talking all his life. The people were up on their feet applauding: "There's never been anything like this in Israel!"

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus made a circuit of all the towns and villages. He taught in their meeting places, reported kingdom news, and healed their diseased bodies, healed their bruised and hurt lives.

10 <sup>1</sup> The prayer was no sooner prayed than it was answered. Jesus called twelve of his followers and sent them into the ripe fields. He gave them power to kick out the evil spirits and to tenderly care for the bruised and hurt lives.

<sup>9</sup> "Don't think you have to put on a fund-raising campaign before you start.

<sup>10</sup> You don't need a lot of equipment. You are the equipment, and all you need to keep that going is three meals a day. Travel light.

<sup>11</sup> "When you enter a town or village, don't insist on staying in a luxury inn. Get a modest place with some modest people, and be content there until you leave.

<sup>12</sup> "When you knock on a door, be courteous in your greeting.

<sup>15</sup> You can be sure that on Judgment Day they'll be mighty sorry--but it's no concern of yours now.

<sup>16</sup> "Stay alert. This is hazardous work I'm assigning you. You're going to be like sheep running through a wolf pack, so don't call attention to yourselves. Be as cunning as a snake, inoffensive as a dove.

<sup>17</sup> "Don't be naive. Some people will impugn your motives, others will smear your reputation--just because you believe in me.

<sup>18</sup> Don't be upset when they haul you before the civil authorities. Without knowing it, they've done you--and me--a favor, given you a platform for preaching the kingdom news!

<sup>19</sup> And don't worry about what you'll say or how you'll say it. The right words will be there;

<sup>20</sup> the Spirit of your Father will supply the words.

<sup>21</sup> "When people realize it is the living God you are presenting and not some idol that makes them feel good, they are going to turn on you, even people in your own family.

<sup>22</sup> There is a great irony here: proclaiming so much love, experiencing so much hate! But don't quit. Don't cave in. It is all well worth it in the end.

<sup>23</sup> It is not success you are after in such times but survival. Be survivors! Before you've run out of options, the Son of Man will have arrived.

<sup>28</sup> "Don't be bluffed into silence by the threats of bullies. There's nothing they can do to your soul, your core being. Save your fear for God, who holds your entire life--body and soul--in his hands.

<sup>30</sup> He pays even greater attention to you, down to the last detail--even numbering the hairs on your head!

<sup>31</sup> So don't be intimidated by all this bully talk. You're worth more than a million canaries.

<sup>32</sup> "Stand up for me against world opinion and I'll stand up for you before my Father in heaven.

<sup>33</sup> If you turn tail and run, do you think I'll cover for you?

<sup>35</sup> make a sharp knife-cut between son and father, daughter and mother, bride and mother-in-law--cut through these cozy domestic arrangements and free you for God.

<sup>37</sup> If you prefer father or mother over me, you don't deserve me. If you prefer son or daughter over me, you don't deserve me.

<sup>38</sup> "If you don't go all the way with me, through thick and thin, you don't deserve me.

<sup>39</sup> If your first concern is to look after yourself, you'll never find yourself. But if you forget about yourself and look to me, you'll find both yourself and me.

<sup>40</sup> "We are intimately linked in this harvest work. Anyone who accepts what you do, accepts me, the One who sent you. Anyone who accepts what I do accepts my Father, who sent me.

<sup>41</sup> Accepting a messenger of God is as good as being God's messenger. Accepting someone's help is as good as giving someone help. This is a large work I've called you into, but don't be overwhelmed by it. It's best to start small.

11 <sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished placing this charge before his twelve disciples, he went on to teach and preach in their villages.

<sup>2</sup> John, meanwhile, had been locked up in prison. When he got wind of what Jesus was doing, he sent his own disciples

<sup>3</sup> to ask, "Are you the One we've been expecting, or are we still waiting?"

<sup>10</sup> He is the prophet that Malachi announced when he wrote, 'I'm sending my prophet ahead of you, to make the road smooth for you.'

<sup>11</sup> "Let me tell you what's going on here: No one in history surpasses John the Baptizer; but in the kingdom he prepared you for, the lowliest person is ahead of him.

<sup>12</sup> For a long time now people have tried to force themselves into God's kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> But if you read the books of the Prophets and God's Law closely, you will see them culminate in John, teaming up with him in preparing the way for the Messiah of the kingdom.

<sup>16</sup> "How can I account for this generation? The people have been like spoiled children whining to their parents,

<sup>17</sup> 'We wanted to skip rope, and you were always too tired; we wanted to talk, but you were always too busy.'

<sup>20</sup> Next Jesus let fly on the cities where he had worked the hardest but whose people had responded the least, shrugging their shoulders and going their own way.

<sup>21</sup> "Doom to you, Chorazin! Doom, Bethsaida! If Tyre and Sidon had seen half of the powerful miracles you have seen, they would have been on their knees in a minute.

<sup>23</sup> And Capernaum! With all your peacock strutting, you are going to end up in the abyss. If the people of Sodom had had your chances, the city would still be around.

<sup>27</sup> Jesus resumed talking to the people, but now tenderly. "The Father has given me all these things to do and say. This is a unique Father-Son operation, coming out of Father and Son intimacies and knowledge. No one knows the Son the way the Father does, nor the Father the way the Son does. But I'm not keeping it to myself; I'm ready to go over it line by line with anyone willing to listen.

<sup>28</sup> "Are you tired? Worn out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you'll recover your life. I'll show you how to take a real rest.

<sup>29</sup> Walk with me and work with me-- watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you.

<sup>30</sup> Keep company with me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "Really? Didn't you ever read what David and his companions did when they were hungry, <sup>4</sup> how they entered the sanctuary and ate fresh bread off the altar, bread that no one but priests were allowed to eat?

<sup>10</sup> There was a man there with a crippled hand. They said to Jesus, "Is it legal to heal on the Sabbath?" They were baiting him.

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "Is there a person here who, finding one of your lambs fallen into a ravine, wouldn't, even though it was a Sabbath, pull it out?"

<sup>12</sup> Surely kindness to people is as legal as kindness to animals!"

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." He held it out and it was healed.

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees walked out furious, sputtering about how they were going to ruin Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus, knowing they were out to get him, moved on. A lot of people followed him, and he healed them all.

<sup>16</sup> He also cautioned them to keep it quiet,

<sup>23</sup> The people who saw it were impressed--"This has to be the Son of David!"

<sup>29</sup> How in the world do you think it's possible in broad daylight to enter the house of an awake, able-bodied man and walk off with his possessions unless you tie him up first? Tie him up, though, and you can clean him out.

<sup>30</sup> "This is war, and there is no neutral ground. If you're not on my side, you're the enemy; if you're not helping, you're making things worse.

<sup>31</sup> "There's nothing done or said that can't be forgiven. But if you deliberately persist in your slanders against God's Spirit, you are repudiating the very One who forgives.

<sup>32</sup> If you reject the Son of Man out of some misunderstanding, the Holy Spirit can forgive you, but when you reject the Holy Spirit, you're sawing off the branch on which you're sitting, severing by your own perversity all connection with the One who forgives.

<sup>33</sup> "If you grow a healthy tree, you'll pick healthy fruit. If you grow a diseased tree, you'll pick worm-eaten fruit. The fruit tells you about the tree.

<sup>34</sup> "You have minds like a snake pit! How do you suppose what you say is worth anything when you are so foul-minded? It's your heart, not the dictionary, that gives meaning to your words.

<sup>35</sup> A good person produces good deeds and words season after season. An evil person is a blight on the orchard.

<sup>36</sup> Let me tell you something: Every one of these careless words is going to come back to haunt you. There will be a time of Reckoning. Words are powerful; take them seriously.

<sup>37</sup> Words can be your salvation. Words can also be your damnation."

<sup>38</sup> Later a few religion scholars and Pharisees got on him. "Teacher, we want to see your credentials. Give us some hard evidence that God is in this. How about a miracle?"

<sup>40</sup> Like Jonah, three days and nights in the fish's belly, the Son of Man will be gone three days and nights in a deep grave.

<sup>42</sup> On Judgment Day, the Queen of Sheba will come forward and bring evidence that will condemn this generation, because she traveled from a far corner of the earth to listen to wise Solomon. Wisdom far greater than Solomon's is right in front of you, and you quibble over 'evidence.'

<sup>43</sup> "When a defiling evil spirit is expelled from someone, it drifts along through the desert looking for an oasis, some unsuspecting soul it can bedevil. When it doesn't find anyone, <sup>44</sup> it says, 'I'll go back to my old haunt.' On return it finds the person spotlessly clean, but vacant.

<sup>45</sup> It then runs out and rounds up seven other spirits more evil than itself and they all move in, whooping it up. That person ends up far worse off than if he'd never gotten cleaned up in the first place. "That's what this generation is like: You may think you have cleaned out the junk from your lives and gotten ready for God, but you weren't hospitable to my kingdom message, and now all the devils are moving back in."

<sup>46</sup> While he was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers showed up. They were outside trying to get a message to him.

<sup>47</sup> Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and brothers are out here, wanting to speak with you."

<sup>48</sup> Jesus didn't respond directly, but said, "Who do you think my mother and brothers are?"

<sup>49</sup> He then stretched out his hand toward his disciples. "Look closely. These are my mother and brothers.

13 <sup>1</sup> At about that same time Jesus left the house and sat on the beach.

<sup>6</sup> so when the sun came up it withered just as quickly.

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "You've been given insight into God's kingdom. You know how it works. Not everybody has this gift, this insight; it hasn't been given to them.

<sup>12</sup> Whenever someone has a ready heart for this, the insights and understandings flow freely. But if there is no readiness, any trace of receptivity soon disappears.

<sup>14</sup> I don't want Isaiah's forecast repeated all over again: Your ears are open but you don't hear a thing. Your eyes are awake but you don't see a thing.

<sup>15</sup> The people are blockheads! They stick their fingers in their ears so they won't have to listen; They screw their eyes shut so they won't have to look, so they won't have to deal with me face-to-face and let me heal them.

<sup>16</sup> "But you have God-blessed eyes--eyes that see! And God-blessed ears--ears that hear!

<sup>17</sup> A lot of people, prophets and humble believers among them, would have given anything to see what you are seeing, to hear what you are hearing, but never had the chance.

<sup>19</sup> When anyone hears news of the kingdom and doesn't take it in, it just remains on the surface, and so the Evil One comes along and plucks it right out of that person's heart. This is the seed the farmer scatters on the road.

<sup>20</sup> "The seed cast in the gravel--this is the person who hears and instantly responds with enthusiasm.

<sup>21</sup> But there is no soil of character, and so when the emotions wear off and some difficulty arrives, there is nothing to show for it.

<sup>22</sup> "The seed cast in the weeds is the person who hears the kingdom news, but weeds of worry and illusions about getting more and wanting everything under the sun strangle what was heard, and nothing comes of it.

<sup>24</sup> He told another story. "God's kingdom is like a farmer who planted good seed in his field.

<sup>25</sup> That night, while his hired men were asleep, his enemy sowed thistles all through the wheat and slipped away before dawn.

<sup>26</sup> When the first green shoots appeared and the grain began to form, the thistles showed up, too.

<sup>27</sup> "The farmhands came to the farmer and said, 'Master, that was clean seed you planted, wasn't it? Where did these thistles come from?'

<sup>29</sup> "He said, 'No, if you weed the thistles, you'll pull up the wheat, too.'

<sup>30</sup> Let them grow together until harvest time. Then I'll instruct the harvesters to pull up the thistles and tie them in bundles for the fire, then gather the wheat and put it in the barn.'"

<sup>34</sup> All Jesus did that day was tell stories--a long storytelling afternoon.

<sup>35</sup> His storytelling fulfilled the prophecy: I will open my mouth and tell stories; I will bring out into the open things hidden since the world's first day.

<sup>36</sup> Jesus dismissed the congregation and went into the house. His disciples came in and said, "Explain to us that story of the thistles in the field."

<sup>38</sup> The field is the world, the pure seeds are subjects of the kingdom, the thistles are subjects of the Devil,

<sup>42</sup> pitch them in the trash, and be done with them. They are going to complain to high heaven, but nobody is going to listen.

<sup>43</sup> At the same time, ripe, holy lives will mature and adorn the kingdom of their Father. "Are you listening to this? Really listening?"

<sup>45</sup> "Or, God's kingdom is like a jewel merchant on the hunt for excellent pearls.

<sup>48</sup> When it is full, it is hauled onto the beach. The good fish are picked out and put in a tub; those unfit to eat are thrown away.

<sup>49</sup> That's how it will be when the curtain comes down on history. The angels will come and cull the bad fish

<sup>50</sup> and throw them in the garbage. There will be a lot of desperate complaining, but it won't do any good."

<sup>52</sup> He said, "Then you see how every student well-trained in God's kingdom is like the owner of a general store who can put his hands on anything you need, old or new, exactly when you need it."

<sup>54</sup> returned to his hometown, and gave a lecture in the meetinghouse. He made a real hit, impressing everyone. "We had no idea he was this good!" they said. "How did he get so wise, get such ability?"

<sup>55</sup> But in the next breath they were cutting him down: "We've known him since he was a kid; he's the carpenter's son. We know his mother, Mary. We know his brothers James and Joseph, Simon and Judas.

14 <sup>1</sup> At about this time, Herod, the regional ruler, heard what was being said about Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> He said to his servants, "This has to be John the Baptizer come back from the dead. That's why he's able to work miracles!"

provided the entertainment, dancing for the guests. She swept Herod away.

<sup>12</sup> Later, John's disciples got the body, gave it a reverent burial, and reported to Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus got the news, he slipped away by boat to an out-of-the-way place by himself. But unsuccessfully--someone saw him and the word got around. Soon a lot of people from the nearby villages walked around the lake to where he was.

<sup>14</sup> When he saw them coming, he was overcome with pity and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup> Toward evening the disciples approached him. "We're out in the country and it's getting late. Dismiss the people so they can go to the villages and get some supper."

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus said, "There is no need to dismiss them. You give them supper."

<sup>17</sup> "All we have are five loaves of bread and two fish," they said.

<sup>19</sup> Then he had the people sit on the grass. He took the five loaves and two fish, lifted his face to heaven in prayer, blessed, broke, and gave the bread to the disciples. The disciples then gave the food to the congregation.

<sup>22</sup> As soon as the meal was finished, he insisted that the disciples get in the boat and go on ahead to the other side while he dismissed the people.

<sup>23</sup> With the crowd dispersed, he climbed the mountain so he could be by himself and pray. He stayed there alone, late into the night.

<sup>28</sup> Peter, suddenly bold, said, "Master, if it's really you, call me to come to you on the water."

<sup>29</sup> He said, "Come ahead." Jumping out of the boat, Peter walked on the water to Jesus.

<sup>30</sup> But when he looked down at the waves churning beneath his feet, he lost his nerve and started to sink. He cried, "Master, save me!"

<sup>31</sup> Jesus didn't hesitate. He reached down and grabbed his hand. Then he said, "Faint-heart, what got into you?"

<sup>32</sup> The two of them climbed into the boat, and the wind died down.

<sup>36</sup> who asked for permission to touch the edge of his coat. And whoever touched him was healed.

15 <sup>1</sup> After that, Pharisees and religion scholars came to Jesus all the way from Jerusalem, criticizing,

<sup>2</sup> "Why do your disciples play fast and loose with the rules?"

<sup>4</sup> God clearly says, 'Respect your father and mother,' and, 'Anyone denouncing father or mother should be killed.'

<sup>5</sup> But you weasel around that by saying, 'Whoever wants to, can say to father and mother, What I owed to you I've given to God.'

<sup>6</sup> That can hardly be called respecting a parent. You cancel God's command by your rules.

<sup>10</sup> He then called the crowd together and said, "Listen, and take this to heart.

<sup>11</sup> It's not what you swallow that pollutes your life, but what you vomit up."

<sup>12</sup> Later his disciples came and told him, "Did you know how upset the Pharisees were when they heard what you said?"

<sup>14</sup> Forget them. They are blind men leading blind men. When a blind man leads a blind man, they both end up in the ditch."

washing your hands--that's neither here nor there."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus refused, telling them, "I've got my hands full dealing with the lost sheep of Israel."

<sup>29</sup> After Jesus returned, he walked along Lake Galilee and then climbed a mountain and took his place, ready to receive visitors.

<sup>30</sup> They came, tons of them, bringing along the paraplegic, the blind, the maimed, the mute--all sorts of people in need--and more or less threw them down at Jesus' feet to see what he would do with them. He healed them.

<sup>31</sup> When the people saw the mutes speaking, the maimed healthy, the paraplegics walking around, the blind looking around, they were astonished and let everyone know that God was blazingly alive among them.

<sup>32</sup> But Jesus wasn't finished with them. He called his disciples and said, "I hurt for these people. For three days now they've been with me, and now they have nothing to eat. I can't send them away without a meal--they'd probably collapse on the road."

<sup>33</sup> His disciples said, "But where in this deserted place are you going to dig up enough food for a meal?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus asked, "How much bread do you have?" "Seven loaves," they said, "plus a few fish."

<sup>35</sup> At that, Jesus directed the people to sit down.

<sup>36</sup> He took the seven loaves and the fish. After giving thanks, he divided it up and gave it to the people.

16 <sup>1</sup> Some Pharisees and Sadducees were on him again, pressing him to prove himself to them.

<sup>5</sup> On their way to the other side of the lake, the disciples discovered they had forgotten to bring along bread.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus knew what they were doing and said, "Why all these worried whispers about forgetting the bread? Runt believers!

<sup>9</sup> Haven't you caught on yet? Don't you remember the five loaves of bread and the five thousand people, and how many baskets of fragments you picked up?

<sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves that fed four thousand, and how many baskets of leftovers you collected?

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus arrived in the villages of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "What are people saying about who the Son of Man is?"

<sup>16</sup> Simon Peter said, "You're the Christ, the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus came back, "God bless you, Simon, son of Jonah! You didn't get that answer out of books or from teachers. My Father in heaven, God himself, let you in on this secret of who I really am.

<sup>18</sup> And now I'm going to tell you who you are, really are. You are Peter, a rock. This is the rock on which I will put together my church, a church so expansive with energy that not even the gates of hell will be able to keep it out.

<sup>19</sup> "And that's not all. You will have complete and free access to God's kingdom, keys to open any and every door: no more barriers between heaven and earth, earth and heaven. A yes on earth is yes in heaven. A no on earth is no in heaven."

<sup>20</sup> He swore the disciples to secrecy. He made them promise they would tell no one that he was the Messiah.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus made it clear to his disciples that it was now necessary for him to go to Jerusalem, submit to an ordeal of suffering at the hands of the religious leaders, be killed, and then on the third day be raised up alive.

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus went to work on his disciples. "Anyone who intends to come with me has to let me lead. You're not in the driver's seat; I am. Don't run from suffering; embrace it. Follow me and I'll show you how.

<sup>26</sup> What kind of deal is it to get everything you want but lose yourself? What could you ever trade your soul for?

<sup>27</sup> "Don't be in such a hurry to go into business for yourself. Before you know it the Son of Man will arrive with all the splendor of his Father, accompanied by an army of angels. You'll get everything you have coming to you, a personal gift.

<sup>28</sup> This isn't pie in the sky by and by. Some of you standing here are going to see it take place, see the Son of Man in kingdom glory."

17 <sup>1</sup> Six days later, three of them saw that glory. Jesus took Peter and the brothers, James and John, and led them up a high mountain.

<sup>3</sup> Then they realized that Moses and Elijah were also there in deep conversation with him.

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard it, they fell flat on their faces, scared to death.

<sup>8</sup> When they opened their eyes and looked around all they saw was Jesus, only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> Coming down the mountain, Jesus swore them to secrecy. "Don't breathe a word of what you've seen. After the Son of Man is raised from the dead, you are free to talk."

<sup>10</sup> The disciples, meanwhile, were asking questions. "Why do the religion scholars say that Elijah has to come first?"

<sup>12</sup> I'm telling you, Elijah has already come but they didn't know him when they saw him. They treated him like dirt, the same way they are about to treat the Son of Man."

<sup>13</sup> That's when the disciples realized that all along he had been talking about John the Baptizer.

<sup>14</sup> At the bottom of the mountain, they were met by a crowd of waiting people. As they approached, a man came out of the crowd and fell to his knees begging, <sup>15</sup> "Master, have mercy on my son. He goes out of his mind and suffers terribly, falling into seizures. Frequently he is pitched into the fire, other times into the river.

<sup>16</sup> I brought him to your disciples, but they could do nothing for him."

<sup>18</sup> He ordered the afflicting demon out--and it was out, gone. From that moment on the boy was well.

<sup>19</sup> When the disciples had Jesus off to themselves, they asked, "Why couldn't we throw it out?"

<sup>20</sup> "Because you're not yet taking God seriously," said Jesus. "The simple truth is that if you had a mere kernel of faith, a poppy seed, say, you would tell this mountain, 'Move!' and it would move. There is nothing you wouldn't be able to tackle."

<sup>22</sup> As they were regrouping in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed to some people who want nothing to do with God.

<sup>23</sup> They will murder him--and three days later he will be raised alive." The disciples felt terrible.

<sup>24</sup> When they arrived at Capernaum, the tax men came to Peter and asked, "Does your teacher pay taxes?"

<sup>25</sup> Peter said, "Of course." But as soon as they were in the house, Jesus confronted him. "Simon, what do you think? When a king levies taxes, who pays--his children or his subjects?"

<sup>27</sup> But so we don't upset them needlessly, go down to the lake, cast a hook, and pull in the first fish that bites. Open its mouth and you'll find a coin. Take it and give it to the tax men. It will be enough for both of us."

18 <sup>1</sup> At about the same time, the disciples came to Jesus asking, "Who gets the highest rank in God's kingdom?"

<sup>2</sup> For an answer Jesus called over a child, whom he stood in the middle of the room,

<sup>4</sup> Whoever becomes simple and elemental again, like this child, will rank high in God's kingdom.

<sup>5</sup> What's more, when you receive the childlike on my account, it's the same as receiving me.

middle of the lake with a millstone around your neck.

<sup>7</sup> Doom to the world for giving these God-believing children a hard time! Hard times are inevitable, but you don't have to make it worse--and it's doomsday to you if you do.

<sup>8</sup> "If your hand or your foot gets in the way of God, chop it off and throw it away. You're better off maimed or lame and alive than the proud owners of two hands and two feet, godless in a furnace of eternal fire.

<sup>9</sup> And if your eye distracts you from God, pull it out and throw it away. You're better off one-eyed and alive than exercising your twenty-twenty vision from inside the fire of hell.

<sup>10</sup> "Watch that you don't treat a single one of these childlike believers arrogantly. You realize, don't you, that their personal angels are constantly in touch with my Father in heaven?

<sup>12</sup> "Look at it this way. If someone has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders off, doesn't he leave the ninety-nine and go after the one?

<sup>13</sup> And if he finds it, doesn't he make far more over it than over the ninety-nine who stay put?

<sup>14</sup> Your Father in heaven feels the same way. He doesn't want to lose even one of these simple believers.

<sup>15</sup> "If a fellow believer hurts you, go and tell him--work it out between the two of you. If he listens, you've made a friend.

<sup>16</sup> If he won't listen, take one or two others along so that the presence of witnesses will keep things honest, and try again.

<sup>17</sup> If he still won't listen, tell the church. If he won't listen to the church, you'll have to start over from scratch, confront him with the need for repentance, and offer again God's forgiving love.

<sup>18</sup> "Take this most seriously: A yes on earth is yes in heaven; a no on earth is no in heaven. What you say to one another is eternal. I mean this.

<sup>19</sup> When two of you get together on anything at all on earth and make a prayer of it, my Father in heaven goes into action.

<sup>20</sup> And when two or three of you are together because of me, you can be sure that I'll be there."

<sup>25</sup> He couldn't pay up, so the king ordered the man, along with his wife, children, and goods, to be auctioned off at the slave market.

<sup>30</sup> But he wouldn't do it. He had him arrested and put in jail until the debt was paid.

<sup>31</sup> When the other servants saw this going on, they were outraged and brought a detailed report to the king.

<sup>32</sup> "The king summoned the man and said, 'You evil servant! I forgave your entire debt when you begged me for mercy.

<sup>33</sup> Shouldn't you be compelled to be merciful to your fellow servant who asked for mercy?'

<sup>34</sup> The king was furious and put the screws to the man until he paid back his entire debt.

<sup>35</sup> And that's exactly what my Father in heaven is going to do to each one of you who doesn't forgive unconditionally anyone who asks for mercy."

and crossed the region of Judea on the other side of the Jordan.

<sup>4</sup> He answered, "Haven't you read in your Bible that the Creator originally made man and woman for each other, male and female?"

<sup>6</sup> Because God created this organic union of the two sexes, no one should desecrate his art by cutting them apart."

<sup>7</sup> They shot back in rebuttal, "If that's so, why did Moses give instructions for divorce papers and divorce procedures?"

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said, "Moses provided for divorce as a concession to your hardheartedness, but it is not part of God's original plan.

<sup>9</sup> I'm holding you to the original plan, and holding you liable for adultery if you divorce your faithful wife and then marry someone else. I make an exception in cases where the spouse has committed adultery."

<sup>11</sup> But Jesus said, "Not everyone is mature enough to live a married life. It requires a certain aptitude and grace. Marriage isn't for everyone.

<sup>12</sup> Some, from birth seemingly, never give marriage a thought. Others never get asked--or accepted. And some decide not to get married for kingdom reasons. But if you're capable of growing into the largeness of marriage, do it."

<sup>13</sup> One day children were brought to Jesus in the hope that he would lay hands on them and pray over them. The disciples shooed them off.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Why do you question me about what's good? God is the One who is good. If you want to enter the life of God, just do what he tells you."

<sup>19</sup> honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as you do yourself."

<sup>21</sup> "If you want to give it all you've got," Jesus replied, "go sell your possessions; give everything to the poor. All your wealth will then be in heaven. Then come follow me."

<sup>22</sup> That was the last thing the young man expected to hear. And so, crestfallen, he walked away. He was holding on tight to a lot of things, and he couldn't bear to let go.

<sup>23</sup> As he watched him go, Jesus told his disciples, "Do you have any idea how difficult it is for the rich to enter God's kingdom?"

<sup>25</sup> The disciples were staggered. "Then who has any chance at all?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus looked hard at them and said, "No chance at all if you think you can pull it off yourself. Every chance in the world if you trust God to do it."

<sup>28</sup> Jesus replied, "Yes, you have followed me. In the re-creation of the world, when the Son of Man will rule gloriously, you who have followed me will also rule, starting with the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> And not only you, but anyone who sacrifices home, family, fields--whatever--because of me will get it all back a hundred times over, not to mention the considerable bonus of eternal life.

20<sup>1</sup> "God's kingdom is like an estate manager who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

<sup>5</sup> They went. "He did the same thing at noon, and again at three o'clock.

<sup>6</sup> At five o'clock he went back and found still others standing around. He said, 'Why are you standing around all day doing nothing?

<sup>7</sup> "'They said, 'Because no one hired us.' "He told them to go to work in his vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> "Those hired at five o'clock came up and were each given a dollar.

<sup>14</sup> So take it and go. I decided to give to the one who came last the same as you.

<sup>15</sup> Can't I do what I want with my own money? Are you going to get stingy because I am generous?'

<sup>16</sup> "Here it is again, the Great Reversal: many of the first ending up last, and the last first."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus, now well on the way up to Jerusalem, took the Twelve off to the side of the road and said, <sup>18</sup> "Listen to me carefully. We are on our way up to Jerusalem. When we get there, the Son of Man will be betrayed to the religious leaders and scholars. They will sentence him to death.

<sup>19</sup> They will then hand him over to the Romans for mockery and torture and crucifixion. On the third day he will be raised up alive."

<sup>20</sup> It was about that time that the mother of the Zebedee brothers came with her two sons and knelt before Jesus with a request.

<sup>21</sup> "What do you want?" Jesus asked. She said, "Give your word that these two sons of mine will be awarded the highest places of honor in your kingdom, one at your right hand, one at your left hand."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus responded, "You have no idea what you're asking." And he said to James and John, "Are you capable of drinking the cup that I'm about to drink?" They said, "Sure, why not?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "Come to think of it, you are going to drink my cup. But as to awarding places of honor, that's not my business. My Father is taking care of that."

<sup>24</sup> When the ten others heard about this, they lost their tempers, thoroughly disgusted with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup> So Jesus got them together to settle things down. He said, "You've observed how godless rulers throw their weight around, how quickly a little power goes to their heads.

<sup>26</sup> It's not going to be that way with you. Whoever wants to be great must become a servant.

<sup>28</sup> That is what the Son of Man has done: He came to serve, not be served-- and then to give away his life in exchange for the many who are held hostage."

<sup>29</sup> As they were leaving Jericho, a huge crowd followed.

<sup>30</sup> Suddenly they came upon two blind men sitting alongside the road. When they heard it was Jesus passing, they cried out, "Master, have mercy on us! Mercy, Son of David!"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stopped and called over, "What do you want from me?"

<sup>33</sup> They said, "Master, we want our eyes opened. We want to see!"

<sup>34</sup> Deeply moved, Jesus touched their eyes. They had their sight back that very instant, and joined the procession.

21 <sup>1</sup> When they neared Jerusalem, having arrived at Bethphage on Mount Olives, Jesus sent two disciples

<sup>3</sup> If anyone asks what you're doing, say, 'The Master needs them!' He will send them with you."

On a donkey, on a colt, foal of a pack animal."

<sup>9</sup> Crowds went ahead and crowds followed, all of them calling out, "Hosanna to David's son!" "Blessed is he who comes in God's name!" "Hosanna in highest heaven!"

<sup>12</sup> Jesus went straight to the Temple and threw out everyone who had set up shop, buying and selling. He kicked over the tables of loan sharks and the stalls of dove merchants.

<sup>13</sup> He quoted this text: My house was designated a house of prayer; You have made it a hangout for thieves.

<sup>14</sup> Now there was room for the blind and crippled to get in. They came to Jesus and he healed them.

<sup>15</sup> When the religious leaders saw the outrageous things he was doing, and heard all the children running and shouting through the Temple, "Hosanna to David's Son!" they were up in arms and took him to task.

<sup>16</sup> "Do you hear what these children are saying?" Jesus said, "Yes, I hear them.

And haven't you read in God's Word, 'From the mouths of children and babies I'll furnish a place of praise?'

<sup>18</sup> Early the next morning Jesus was returning to the city. He was hungry.

<sup>19</sup> Seeing a lone fig tree alongside the road, he approached it anticipating a breakfast of figs. When he got to the tree, there was nothing but fig leaves. He said, "No more figs from this tree--ever!" The fig tree withered on the spot, a dry stick.

<sup>21</sup> But Jesus was matter-of-fact: "Yes--and if you embrace this kingdom life and don't doubt God, you'll not only do minor feats like I did to the fig tree, but also triumph over huge obstacles. This mountain, for instance, you'll tell, 'Go jump in the lake,' and it will jump.

<sup>22</sup> Absolutely everything, ranging from small to large, as you make it a part of your believing prayer, gets included as you lay hold of God."

<sup>23</sup> Then he was back in the Temple, teaching. The high priests and leaders of the people came up and demanded, "Show us your credentials. Who authorized you to teach here?"

<sup>24</sup> Jesus responded, "First let me ask you a question. You answer my question and I'll answer yours.

<sup>25</sup> About the baptism of John--who authorized it: heaven or humans?" They were on the spot and knew it. They pulled back into a huddle and whispered, "If we say 'heaven,' he'll ask us why we didn't believe him;

<sup>26</sup> if we say 'humans,' we're up against it with the people because they all hold John up as a prophet."

<sup>27</sup> They decided to concede that round to Jesus. "We don't know," they answered. Jesus said, "Then neither will I answer your question.

<sup>28</sup> "Tell me what you think of this story: A man had two sons. He went up to the first and said, 'Son, go out for the day and work in the vineyard.'

<sup>29</sup> "The son answered, 'I don't want to.' Later on he thought better of it and went.

<sup>30</sup> "The father gave the same command to the second son. He answered, 'Sure, glad to.' But he never went.

<sup>31</sup> "Which of the two sons did what the father asked?" They said, "The first." Jesus said, "Yes, and I tell you that crooks and whores are going to precede you into God's kingdom.

<sup>32</sup> John came to you showing you the right road. You turned up your noses at him, but the crooks and whores believed him. Even when you saw their changed lives, you didn't care enough to change and believe him.

<sup>33</sup> "Here's another story. Listen closely. There was once a man, a wealthy farmer, who planted a vineyard. He fenced it, dug a winepress, put up a watchtower, then turned it over to the farmhands and went off on a trip.

<sup>34</sup> When it was time to harvest the grapes, he sent his servants back to collect his profits.

<sup>38</sup> "But when the farmhands saw the son arrive, they rubbed their hands in greed. 'This is the heir! Let's kill him and have it all for ourselves.'

<sup>41</sup> "He'll kill them--a rotten bunch, and good riddance," they answered. "Then he'll assign the vineyard to farmhands who will hand over the profits when it's time."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said, "Right--and you can read it for yourselves in your Bibles: The stone the masons threw out is now the cornerstone. This is God's work; we rub our eyes, we can hardly believe it!

<sup>43</sup> "This is the way it is with you. God's kingdom will be taken back from you and handed over to a people who will live out a kingdom life.

<sup>46</sup> They wanted to arrest Jesus and put him in jail, but, intimidated by public opinion, they held back. Most people held him to be a prophet of God.

22 <sup>1</sup> Jesus responded by telling still more stories.

<sup>3</sup> He sent out servants to call in all the invited guests. And they wouldn't come!

<sup>8</sup> "Then he told his servants, 'We have a wedding banquet all prepared but no guests. The ones I invited weren't up to it.'

<sup>9</sup> Go out into the busiest intersections in town and invite anyone you find to the banquet.'

<sup>10</sup> The servants went out on the streets and rounded up everyone they laid eyes on, good and bad, regardless. And so the banquet was on--every place filled.

<sup>11</sup> "When the king entered and looked over the scene, he spotted a man who wasn't properly dressed.

<sup>12</sup> He said to him, 'Friend, how dare you come in here looking like that!' The man was speechless.

<sup>15</sup> That's when the Pharisees plotted a way to trap him into saying something damaging.

<sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples, with a few of Herod's followers mixed in, to ask, "Teacher, we know you have integrity, teach the way of God accurately, are indifferent to popular opinion, and don't pander to your students.

<sup>17</sup> So tell us honestly: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>18</sup> Jesus knew they were up to no good. He said, "Why are you playing these games with me? Why are you trying to trap me?"

<sup>19</sup> Do you have a coin? Let me see it." They handed him a silver piece.

<sup>28</sup> Now here's our question: At the resurrection, whose wife is she? She was a wife to each of them."

<sup>30</sup> At the resurrection we're beyond marriage. As with the angels, all our ecstasies and intimacies then will be with God.

<sup>31</sup> And regarding your speculation on whether the dead are raised or not, don't you read your Bibles? The grammar is clear: God says, <sup>32</sup> 'I am--not was--the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob.' The living God defines himself not as the God of dead men, but of the living."

<sup>42</sup> "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said, "David's son."

<sup>44</sup> God said to my Master, "Sit here at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."

<sup>46</sup> That stumped them, literalists that they were. Unwilling to risk losing face again in one of these public verbal exchanges, they quit asking questions for good.

23 <sup>1</sup> Now Jesus turned to address his disciples, along with the crowd that had gathered with them.

<sup>3</sup> You won't go wrong in following their teachings on Moses. But be careful about following them. They talk a good line, but they don't live it. They don't take it into their hearts and live it out in their behavior. It's all spit-and-polish veneer.

<sup>4</sup> "Instead of giving you God's Law as food and drink by which you can banquet on God, they package it in bundles of rules, loading you down like pack animals. They seem to take pleasure in watching you stagger under these loads, and wouldn't think of lifting a finger to help.

<sup>8</sup> "Don't let people do that to you, put you on a pedestal like that. You all have a single Teacher, and you are all classmates.

<sup>9</sup> Don't set people up as experts over your life, letting them tell you what to do. Save that authority for God; let him tell you what to do. No one else should carry the title of 'Father'; you have only one Father, and he's in heaven.

<sup>12</sup> If you puff yourself up, you'll get the wind knocked out of you. But if you're content to simply be yourself, your life will count for plenty.

<sup>13</sup> "I've had it with you! You're hopeless, you religion scholars, you Pharisees! Frauds! Your lives are roadblocks to God's kingdom. You refuse to enter, and won't let anyone else in either.

<sup>15</sup> "You're hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You go halfway around the world to make a convert, but once you get him you make him into a replica of yourselves, double-damned.

<sup>18</sup> And what about this piece of trivia: 'If you shake hands on a promise, that's nothing; but if you raise your hand that God is your witness, that's serious'?

<sup>19</sup> What ridiculous hairsplitting! What difference does it make whether you shake hands or raise hands?

<sup>20</sup> A promise is a promise. What difference does it make if you make your promise inside or outside a house of worship? A promise is a promise. God is present, watching and holding you to account regardless.

<sup>23</sup> "You're hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You keep meticulous account books, tithing on every nickel and dime you get, but on the meat of God's Law, things like fairness and compassion and commitment--the absolute basics!--you carelessly take it or leave it. Careful bookkeeping is commendable, but the basics are required.

<sup>24</sup> Do you have any idea how silly you look, writing a life story that's wrong from start to finish, nitpicking over commas and semicolons?

<sup>25</sup> "You're hopeless, you religion scholars and Pharisees! Frauds! You burnish the surface of your cups and bowls so they sparkle in the sun, while the insides are maggoty with your greed and gluttony.

<sup>30</sup> And you say that if you had lived in the days of your ancestors, no blood would have been on your hands.

<sup>33</sup> "Snakes! Reptilian sneaks! Do you think you can worm your way out of this? Never have to pay the piper?

<sup>34</sup> It's on account of people like you that I send prophets and wise guides and scholars generation after generation--and generation after generation you treat them like dirt, greeting them with lynch mobs, hounding them with abuse.

<sup>35</sup> "You can't squirm out of this: Every drop of righteous blood ever spilled on this earth, beginning with the blood of that good man Abel right down to the blood of Zechariah, Barachiah's son, whom you murdered at his prayers, is on your head.

<sup>36</sup> All this, I'm telling you, is coming down on you, on your generation.

gathers her chicks under her wings, and you wouldn't let me.

24 <sup>1</sup> Jesus then left the Temple. As he walked away, his disciples pointed out how very impressive the Temple architecture was.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus said, "You're not impressed by all this sheer size, are you? The truth of the matter is that there's not a stone in that building that is not going to end up in a pile of rubble."

<sup>3</sup> Later as he was sitting on Mount Olives, his disciples approached and asked him, "Tell us, when are these things going to happen? What will be the sign of your coming, that the time's up?"

<sup>9</sup> "They are going to throw you to the wolves and kill you, everyone hating you because you carry my name.

<sup>10</sup> And then, going from bad to worse, it will be dog-eat-dog, everyone at each other's throat, everyone hating each other.

<sup>14</sup> All during this time, the good news--the Message of the kingdom--will be preached all over the world, a witness staked out in every country. And then the end will come.

<sup>15</sup> "But be ready to run for it when you see the monster of desecration set up in the Temple sanctuary. The prophet Daniel described this. If you've read Daniel, you'll know what I'm talking about.

<sup>17</sup> if you're working in the yard, don't return to the house to get anything;

impressive credentials and dazzling performances will pull the wool over the eyes of even those who ought to know better.

<sup>26</sup> "So if they say, 'Run to the country and see him arrive!' or, 'Quick, get downtown, see him come!' don't give them the time of day.

<sup>27</sup> The Arrival of the Son of Man isn't something you go to see. He comes like swift lightning to you!

<sup>28</sup> Whenever you see crowds gathering, think of carrion vultures circling, moving in, hovering over a rotting carcass. You can be quite sure that it's not the living Son of Man pulling in those crowds.

<sup>29</sup> "Following those hard times, Sun will fade out, moon cloud over, Stars fall out of the sky, cosmic powers tremble.

<sup>30</sup> "Then, the Arrival of the Son of Man! It will fill the skies--no one will miss it. Unready people all over the world, outsiders to the splendor and power, will raise a huge lament as they watch the Son of Man blazing out of heaven.

<sup>33</sup> So it is with you: When you see all these things, you'll know he's at the door.

<sup>34</sup> Don't take this lightly. I'm not just saying this for some future generation, but for all of you. This age continues until all these things take place.

<sup>37</sup> "The Arrival of the Son of Man will take place in times like Noah's.

<sup>40</sup> Two men will be working in the field--one will be taken, one left behind;

<sup>43</sup> But you do know this: You know that if the homeowner had known what time of night the burglar would arrive, he would have been there with his dogs to prevent the break-in.

<sup>44</sup> Be vigilant just like that. You have no idea when the Son of Man is going to show up.

<sup>45</sup> "Who here qualifies for the job of overseeing the kitchen? A person the Master can depend on to feed the workers on time each day.

<sup>46</sup> Someone the Master can drop in on unannounced and always find him doing his job. A God-blessed man or woman, I tell you.

<sup>47</sup> It won't be long before the Master will put this person in charge of the whole operation.

<sup>51</sup> and make hash of him. He'll end up in the dump with the hypocrites, out in the cold shivering, teeth chattering.

25 <sup>1</sup> "God's kingdom is like ten young virgins who took oil lamps and went out to greet the bridegroom.

<sup>10</sup> "They did, but while they were out buying oil, the bridegroom arrived. When everyone who was there to greet him had gone into the wedding feast, the door was locked.

<sup>11</sup> "Much later, the other virgins, the silly ones, showed up and knocked on the door, saying, 'Master, we're here. Let us in.'

<sup>12</sup> "He answered, 'Do I know you? I don't think I know you.'

<sup>14</sup> "It's also like a man going off on an extended trip. He called his servants together and delegated responsibilities.

<sup>24</sup> "The servant given one thousand said, 'Master, I know you have high standards and hate careless ways, that you demand the best and make no allowances for error.

<sup>25</sup> I was afraid I might disappoint you, so I found a good hiding place and secured your money. Here it is, safe and sound down to the last cent.'

<sup>26</sup> "The master was furious. 'That's a terrible way to live! It's criminal to live cautiously like that! If you knew I was after the best, why did you do less than the least?

<sup>27</sup> The least you could have done would have been to invest the sum with the bankers, where at least I would have gotten a little interest.

<sup>32</sup> Then all the nations will be arranged before him and he will sort the people out, much as a shepherd sorts out sheep and goats,

<sup>34</sup> "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Enter, you who are blessed by my Father! Take what's coming to you in this kingdom. It's been ready for you since the world's foundation.

<sup>35</sup> And here's why: I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me a drink, I was homeless and you gave me a room,

<sup>36</sup> I was shivering and you gave me clothes, I was sick and you stopped to visit, I was in prison and you came to me.'

<sup>37</sup> "Then those 'sheep' are going to say, 'Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry and feed you, thirsty and give you a drink?

<sup>38</sup> And when did we ever see you sick or in prison and come to you?'

<sup>40</sup> Then the King will say, 'I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me--you did it to me.'

<sup>42</sup> And why? Because--I was hungry and you gave me no meal, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,

<sup>43</sup> I was homeless and you gave me no bed, I was shivering and you gave me no clothes, Sick and in prison, and you never visited.'

<sup>44</sup> "Then those 'goats' are going to say, 'Master, what are you talking about? When did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or homeless or shivering or sick or in prison and didn't help?'

<sup>45</sup> "He will answer them, 'I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you failed to do one of these things to someone who was being overlooked or ignored, that was me--you failed to do it to me.'

<sup>46</sup> "Then those 'goats' will be herded to their eternal doom, but the 'sheep' to their eternal reward."

26 <sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished saying these things, he told his disciples,

<sup>2</sup> "You know that Passover comes in two days. That's when the Son of Man will be betrayed and handed over for crucifixion."

<sup>7</sup> a woman came up to him as he was eating dinner and anointed him with a bottle of very expensive perfume.

<sup>8</sup> When the disciples saw what was happening, they were furious. "That's criminal!"

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus realized what was going on, he intervened. "Why are you giving this woman a hard time? She has just done something wonderfully significant for me.

<sup>11</sup> You will have the poor with you every day for the rest of your lives, but not me.

<sup>12</sup> When she poured this perfume on my body, what she really did was anoint me for burial.

<sup>13</sup> You can be sure that wherever in the whole world the Message is preached, what she has just done is going to be remembered and admired."

<sup>14</sup> That is when one of the Twelve, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the cabal of high priests <sup>15</sup> and said, "What will you give me if I hand him over to you?" They settled on thirty silver pieces.

<sup>17</sup> On the first of the Days of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Where do you want us to prepare your Passover meal?"

<sup>18</sup> He said, "Enter the city. Go up to a certain man and say, 'The Teacher says, My time is near. I and my disciples plan to celebrate the Passover meal at your house.'"

<sup>19</sup> The disciples followed Jesus' instructions to the letter, and prepared the Passover meal.

<sup>21</sup> During the meal, he said, "I have something hard but important to say to you: One of you is going to hand me over to the conspirators."

<sup>22</sup> They were stunned, and then began to ask, one after another, "It isn't me, is it, Master?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered, "The one who hands me over is someone I eat with daily, one who passes me food at the table.

<sup>24</sup> In one sense the Son of Man is entering into a way of treachery well-marked by the Scriptures--no surprises here. In another sense that man who turns him in, turns traitor to the Son of Man--better never to have been born than do this!"

<sup>25</sup> Then Judas, already turned traitor, said, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?" Jesus said, "Don't play games with me, Judas."

<sup>27</sup> Taking the cup and thanking God, he gave it to them: Drink this, all of you.

<sup>28</sup> This is my blood, God's new covenant poured out for many people for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus told them, "Before the night's over, you're going to fall to pieces because of what happens to me. There is a Scripture that says, I'll strike the shepherd; helter-skelter the sheep will be scattered.

<sup>32</sup> But after I am raised up, I, your Shepherd, will go ahead of you, leading the way to Galilee."

<sup>34</sup> "Don't be so sure," Jesus said. "This very night, before the rooster crows up the dawn, you will deny me three times."

<sup>35</sup> Peter protested, "Even if I had to die with you, I would never deny you." All the others said the same thing.

<sup>37</sup> Taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he plunged into an agonizing sorrow.

<sup>38</sup> Then he said, "This sorrow is crushing my life out. Stay here and keep vigil with me."

<sup>39</sup> Going a little ahead, he fell on his face, praying, "My Father, if there is any way, get me out of this. But please, not what I want. You, what do you want?"

<sup>40</sup> When he came back to his disciples, he found them sound asleep. He said to

Peter, "Can't you stick it out with me a single hour?"

<sup>41</sup> Stay alert; be in prayer so you don't wander into temptation without even knowing you're in danger. There is a part of you that is eager, ready for anything in God. But there's another part that's as lazy as an old dog sleeping by the fire."

<sup>42</sup> He then left them a second time. Again he prayed, "My Father, if there is no other way than this, drinking this cup to the dregs, I'm ready. Do it your way."

<sup>43</sup> When he came back, he again found them sound asleep. They simply couldn't keep their eyes open.

<sup>44</sup> This time he let them sleep on, and went back a third time to pray, going over the same ground one last time.

<sup>45</sup> When he came back the next time, he said, "Are you going to sleep on and make a night of it? My time is up, the Son of Man is about to be handed over to the hands of sinners.

<sup>48</sup> The betrayer had worked out a sign with them: "The one I kiss, that's the one--seize him."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said, "Friend, why this charade?" Then they came on him--grabbed him and roughed him up.

<sup>53</sup> Don't you realize that I am able right now to call to my Father, and twelve companies--more, if I want them--of fighting angels would be here, battle-ready?

<sup>54</sup> But if I did that, how would the Scriptures come true that say this is the way it has to be?"

<sup>55</sup> Then Jesus addressed the mob: "What is this--coming out after me with swords and clubs as if I were a dangerous criminal? Day after day I have been sitting in the Temple teaching, and you never so much as lifted a hand against me.

<sup>56</sup> You've done it this way to confirm and fulfill the prophetic writings." Then all the disciples cut and ran.

<sup>59</sup> The high priests, conspiring with the Jewish Council, tried to cook up charges against Jesus in order to sentence him to death.

<sup>60</sup> But even though many stepped up, making up one false accusation after another, nothing was believable. Finally two men came forward

<sup>61</sup> with this: "He said, 'I can tear down this Temple of God and after three days rebuild it.'"

<sup>62</sup> The Chief Priest stood up and said, "What do you have to say to the accusation?"

<sup>63</sup> Jesus kept silent. Then the Chief Priest said, "I command you by the authority of the living God to say if you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

<sup>65</sup> At that, the Chief Priest lost his temper, ripping his robes, yelling, "He blasphemed! Why do we need witnesses to accuse him? You all heard him blaspheme!"

<sup>67</sup> Then they were spitting in his face and banging him around. They jeered as they slapped him:

<sup>68</sup> "Prophecy, Messiah: Who hit you that time?"

<sup>69</sup> All this time, Peter was sitting out in the courtyard. One servant girl came up to him and said, "You were with Jesus the Galilean."

<sup>71</sup> As he moved over toward the gate, someone else said to the people there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazarene."

<sup>74</sup> Then he got really nervous and swore. "I don't know the man!" Just then a rooster crowed.

<sup>75</sup> Peter remembered what Jesus had said: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." He went out and cried and cried and cried.

27 <sup>1</sup> In the first light of dawn, all the high priests and religious leaders met and put the finishing touches on their plot to kill Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> Then they tied him up and paraded him to Pilate, the governor.

<sup>3</sup> Judas, the one who betrayed him, realized that Jesus was doomed. Overcome with remorse, he gave back the thirty silver coins to the high priests, <sup>4</sup> saying, "I've sinned. I've betrayed an innocent man." They said, "What do we care? That's your problem!"

<sup>5</sup> Judas threw the silver coins into the Temple and left. Then he went out and hung himself.

<sup>7</sup> They decided to get rid of it by buying the "Potter's Field" and use it as a burial place for the homeless.

<sup>8</sup> That's how the field got called "Murder Meadow," a name that has stuck to this day.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jeremiah's words became history: They took the thirty silver pieces, The price of the one priced by some sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> And they purchased the potter's field. And so they unwittingly followed the divine instructions to the letter.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus was placed before the governor, who questioned him: "Are you the 'King of the Jews'?" Jesus said, "If you say so."

<sup>17</sup> With the crowd before him, Pilate said, "Which prisoner do you want me to pardon: Jesus Barabbas, or Jesus the so-called Christ?"

<sup>18</sup> He knew it was through sheer spite that they had turned Jesus over to him.

<sup>19</sup> While court was still in session, Pilate's wife sent him a message: "Don't get mixed up in judging this noble man. I've just been through a long and troubled night because of a dream about him."

<sup>20</sup> Meanwhile, the high priests and religious leaders had talked the crowd into asking for the pardon of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> The governor asked, "Which of the two do you want me to pardon?" They said, "Barabbas!"

<sup>22</sup> "Then what do I do with Jesus, the so-called Christ?" They all shouted, "Nail him to a cross!"

<sup>24</sup> When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere and that a riot was imminent, he took a basin of water and washed his hands in full sight of the crowd, saying, "I'm washing my hands of responsibility for this man's death. From now on, it's in your hands. You're judge and jury."

<sup>26</sup> Then he pardoned Barabbas. But he had Jesus whipped, and then handed over for crucifixion.

mocking reverence: "Bravo, King of the Jews!" they said. "Bravo!"

<sup>30</sup> Then they spit on him and hit him on the head with the stick.

<sup>31</sup> When they had had their fun, they took off the toga and put his own clothes back on him. Then they proceeded out to the crucifixion.

<sup>35</sup> After they had finished nailing him to the cross and were waiting for him to die, they whiled away the time by throwing dice for his clothes.

<sup>40</sup> "You bragged that you could tear down the Temple and then rebuild it in three days--so show us your stuff! Save yourself! If you're really God's Son, come down from that cross!"

<sup>41</sup> The high priests, along with the religion scholars and leaders, were right there mixing it up with the rest of them, having a great time poking fun at him:

<sup>42</sup> "He saved others--he can't save himself! King of Israel, is he? Then let him get down from that cross. We'll all become believers then!

<sup>43</sup> He was so sure of God--well, let him rescue his 'Son' now--if he wants him! He did claim to be God's Son, didn't he?"

<sup>44</sup> Even the two criminals crucified next to him joined in the mockery.

<sup>46</sup> Around mid-afternoon Jesus groaned out of the depths, crying loudly, ["Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?"] which means, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

<sup>52</sup> What's more, tombs were opened up, and many bodies of believers asleep in their graves were raised.

<sup>54</sup> The captain of the guard and those with him, when they saw the earthquake and everything else that was happening, were scared to death. They said, "This has to be the Son of God!"

<sup>55</sup> There were also quite a few women watching from a distance, women who had followed Jesus from Galilee in order to serve him.

<sup>63</sup> They said, "Sir, we just remembered that that liar announced while he was still alive, 'After three days I will be raised.'

<sup>64</sup> We've got to get that tomb sealed until the third day. There's a good chance his disciples will come and steal the corpse and then go around saying, 'He's risen from the dead.' Then we'll be worse off than before, the final deceit surpassing the first."

<sup>65</sup> Pilate told them, "You will have a guard. Go ahead and secure it the best you can."

<sup>66</sup> So they went out and secured the tomb, sealing the stone and posting guards.

28 <sup>1</sup> After the Sabbath, as the first light of the new week dawned, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to keep vigil at the tomb.

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly the earth reeled and rocked under their feet as God's angel came down from heaven, came right up to where they were standing. He rolled back the stone and then sat on it.

<sup>6</sup> He is not here. He was raised, just as he said. Come and look at the place where he was placed.

<sup>7</sup> "Now, get on your way quickly and tell his disciples, 'He is risen from the dead. He is going on ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there.' That's the message."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus met them, stopping them in their tracks. "Good morning!" he said.

They fell to their knees, embraced his feet, and worshiped him.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "You're holding on to me for dear life! Don't be frightened like that. Go tell my brothers that they are to go to Galilee, and that I'll meet them there."

<sup>11</sup> Meanwhile, the guards had scattered, but a few of them went into the city and told the high priests everything that had happened.

<sup>12</sup> They called a meeting of the religious leaders and came up with a plan: They took a large sum of money and gave it to the soldiers,

<sup>13</sup> bribing them to say, "His disciples came in the night and stole the body while we were sleeping."

<sup>14</sup> They assured them, "If the governor hears about your sleeping on duty, we will make sure you don't get blamed."

<sup>15</sup> The soldiers took the bribe and did as they were told. That story, cooked up in the Jewish High Council, is still going around.

<sup>17</sup> The moment they saw him they worshiped him. Some, though, held back, not sure about [worship], about risking themselves totally.

<sup>19</sup> Go out and train everyone you meet, far and near, in this way of life, marking them by baptism in the threefold name: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

<sup>20</sup> Then instruct them in the practice of all I have commanded you. I'll be with you as you do this, day after day after day, right up to the end of the age."

Mark

1 <sup>1</sup> The good news of Jesus Christ--the Message!--begins here, <sup>2</sup> following to the letter the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Watch closely: I'm sending my preacher ahead of you; He'll make the road smooth for you.

<sup>7</sup> As he preached he said, "The real action comes next: The star in this drama, to whom I'm a mere stagehand, will change your life.

<sup>9</sup> At this time, Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

<sup>10</sup> The moment he came out of the water, he saw the sky split open and God's Spirit, looking like a dove, come down on him.

<sup>11</sup> Along with the Spirit, a voice: "You are my Son, chosen and marked by my love, pride of my life."

<sup>19</sup> A dozen yards or so down the beach, he saw the brothers James and John, Zebedee's sons. They were in the boat, mending their fishnets.

<sup>21</sup> Then they entered Capernaum. When the Sabbath arrived, Jesus lost no time in getting to the meeting place. He spent the day there teaching.

<sup>23</sup> Suddenly, while still in the meeting place, he was interrupted by a man who was deeply disturbed and yelling out,

<sup>24</sup> "What business do you have here with us, Jesus? Nazarene! I know what you're up to! You're the Holy One of God, and you've come to destroy us!"

<sup>27</sup> Everyone there was incredulous, buzzing with curiosity. "What's going on here? A new teaching that does what it says? He shuts up defiling, demonic spirits and sends them packing!"

<sup>30</sup> Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed, burning up with fever. They told Jesus.

<sup>35</sup> While it was still night, way before dawn, he got up and went out to a secluded spot and prayed.

<sup>36</sup> Simon and those with him went looking for him.

<sup>38</sup> Jesus said, "Let's go to the rest of the villages so I can preach there also. This is why I've come."

<sup>39</sup> He went to their meeting places all through Galilee, preaching and throwing out the demons.

<sup>40</sup> A leper came to him, begging on his knees, "If you want to, you can cleanse me."

<sup>42</sup> Then and there the leprosy was gone, his skin smooth and healthy.

<sup>44</sup> "Say nothing to anyone. Take the offering for cleansing that Moses prescribed and present yourself to the priest. This will validate your healing to the people."

<sup>45</sup> But as soon as the man was out of earshot, he told everyone he met what had happened, spreading the news all over town. So Jesus kept to out-of-the-way places, no longer able to move freely in and out of the city. But people found him, and came from all over.

2<sup>1</sup> After a few days, Jesus returned to Capernaum, and word got around that he was back home.

<sup>2</sup> A crowd gathered, jamming the entrance so no one could get in or out. He was teaching the Word.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus knew right away what they were thinking, and said, "Why are you so skeptical?"

<sup>9</sup> Which is simpler: to say to the paraplegic, 'I forgive your sins,' or say, 'Get up, take your stretcher, and start walking'?

<sup>10</sup> Well, just so it's clear that I'm the Son of Man and authorized to do either, or both..."(he looked now at the paraplegic),

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went again to walk alongside the lake. Again a crowd came to him, and he taught them.

<sup>14</sup> Strolling along, he saw Levi, son of Alphaeus, at his work collecting taxes. Jesus said, "Come along with me." He came.

<sup>15</sup> Later Jesus and his disciples were at home having supper with a collection of disreputable guests. Unlikely as it seems, more than a few of them had become followers.

<sup>16</sup> The religion scholars and Pharisees saw him keeping this kind of company and lit into his disciples: "What kind of example is this, acting cozy with the riff-raff?"

<sup>18</sup> The disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees made a practice of fasting. Some people confronted Jesus: "Why do the followers of John and the Pharisees take on the discipline of fasting, but your followers don't?"

<sup>24</sup> As his disciples made a path, they pulled off heads of grain. The Pharisees told on them to Jesus: "Look, your disciples are breaking Sabbath rules!"

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said, "Really? Haven't you ever read what David did when he was hungry, along with those who were with him?"

<sup>26</sup> How he entered the sanctuary and ate fresh bread off the altar, with the Chief Priest Abiathar right there watching--holy bread that no one but priests were allowed to eat--and handed it out to his companions?"

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said, "The Sabbath was made to serve us; we weren't made to serve the Sabbath.

3<sup>1</sup> Then he went back in the meeting place where he found a man with a crippled hand.

<sup>2</sup> The Pharisees had their eyes on Jesus to see if he would heal him, hoping to catch him in a Sabbath infraction.

<sup>3</sup> He said to the man with the crippled hand, "Stand here where we can see you."

<sup>4</sup> Then he spoke to the people: "What kind of action suits the Sabbath best? Doing good or doing evil? Helping people or leaving them helpless?" No one said a word.

<sup>8</sup> also from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, across the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon--swarms of people who had heard the reports and had come to see for themselves.

<sup>9</sup> He told his disciples to get a boat ready so he wouldn't be trampled by the crowd.

<sup>10</sup> He had healed many people, and now everyone who had something wrong was pushing and shoving to get near and touch him.

<sup>11</sup> Evil spirits, when they recognized him, fell down and cried out, "You are the Son of God!"

<sup>12</sup> But Jesus would have none of it. He shut them up, forbidding them to identify him in public.

<sup>13</sup> He climbed a mountain and invited those he wanted with him. They climbed together.

<sup>14</sup> He settled on twelve, and designated them apostles. The plan was that they would be with him, and he would send them out to proclaim the Word

<sup>21</sup> His friends heard what was going on and went to rescue him, by force if necessary. They suspected he was getting carried away with himself.

<sup>28</sup> "Listen to this carefully. I'm warning you. There's nothing done or said that can't be forgiven.

<sup>29</sup> But if you persist in your slanders against God's Holy Spirit, you are repudiating the very One who forgives, sawing off the branch on which you're sitting, severing by your own perversity all connection with the One who forgives."

<sup>31</sup> Just then his mother and brothers showed up. Standing outside, they relayed a message that they wanted a word with him.

<sup>32</sup> He was surrounded by the crowd when he was given the message, "Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside looking for you."

<sup>35</sup> Obedience is thicker than blood. The person who obeys God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

4 <sup>1</sup> He went back to teaching by the sea. A crowd built up to such a great size that he had to get into an offshore boat, using the boat as a pulpit as the people pushed to the water's edge.

<sup>6</sup> so when the sun came up it withered just as quickly.

<sup>7</sup> Some fell in the weeds; as it came up, it was strangled among the weeds and nothing came of it.

<sup>8</sup> Some fell on good earth and came up with a flourish, producing a harvest exceeding his wildest dreams.

<sup>10</sup> When they were off by themselves, those who were close to him, along with the Twelve, asked about the stories.

<sup>11</sup> He told them, "You've been given insight into God's kingdom--you know how it works. But to those who can't see it yet, everything comes in stories, creating readiness, nudging them toward receptive insight.

Who avoid making an about-face and getting forgiven."

<sup>18</sup> "The seed cast in the weeds represents the ones who hear the kingdom news

<sup>19</sup> but are overwhelmed with worries about all the things they have to do and all the things they want to get. The stress strangles what they heard, and nothing comes of it.

<sup>20</sup> "But the seed planted in the good earth represents those who hear the Word, embrace it, and produce a harvest beyond their wildest dreams."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus went on: "Does anyone bring a lamp home and put it under a washtub or beneath the bed? Don't you put it up on a table or on the mantel?"

in the world on your own. Giving, not getting, is the way.

<sup>27</sup> who then goes to bed and forgets about it. The seed sprouts and grows--he has no idea how it happens.

<sup>28</sup> The earth does it all without his help: first a green stem of grass, then a bud, then the ripened grain.

<sup>32</sup> yet once it is planted it grows into a huge pine tree with thick branches. Eagles nest in it."

<sup>34</sup> He was never without a story when he spoke. When he was alone with his disciples, he went over everything, sorting out the tangles, untying the knots.

<sup>35</sup> Late that day he said to them, "Let's go across to the other side."

<sup>36</sup> They took him in the boat as he was. Other boats came along.

<sup>38</sup> And Jesus was in the stern, head on a pillow, sleeping! They roused him, saying, "Teacher, is it nothing to you that we're going down?"

<sup>39</sup> Awake now, he told the wind to pipe down and said to the sea, "Quiet! Settle down!" The wind ran out of breath; the sea became smooth as glass.

<sup>40</sup> Jesus reprimanded the disciples: "Why are you such cowards? Don't you have any faith at all?"

5<sup>1</sup> They arrived on the other side of the sea in the country of the Gerasenes.

<sup>2</sup> As Jesus got out of the boat, a madman from the cemetery came up to him.

<sup>4</sup> He had been tied up many times with chains and ropes, but he broke the chains, snapped the ropes. No one was strong enough to tame him.

<sup>5</sup> Night and day he roamed through the graves and the hills, screaming out and slashing himself with sharp stones.

<sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus a long way off, he ran and bowed in worship before him--

<sup>7</sup> then bellowed in protest, "What business do you have, Jesus, Son of the High God, messing with me? I swear to God, don't give me a hard time!"

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked him, "Tell me your name." He replied, "My name is Mob. I'm a rioting mob."

<sup>10</sup> Then he desperately begged Jesus not to banish them from the country.

<sup>13</sup> Jesus gave the order. But it was even worse for the pigs than for the man. Crazy, they stampeded over a cliff into the sea and drowned.

<sup>14</sup> Those tending the pigs, scared to death, bolted and told their story in town and country. Everyone wanted to see what had happened.

<sup>16</sup> Those who had seen it told the others what had happened to the demon-possessed man and the pigs.

<sup>17</sup> At first they were in awe--and then they were upset, upset over the drowned pigs. They demanded that Jesus leave and not come back.

<sup>18</sup> As Jesus was getting into the boat, the demon-delivered man begged to go along,

<sup>19</sup> but he wouldn't let him. Jesus said, "Go home to your own people. Tell them your story--what the Master did, how he had mercy on you."

<sup>20</sup> The man went back and began to preach in the Ten Towns area about what Jesus had done for him. He was the talk of the town.

<sup>22</sup> One of the meeting-place leaders named Jairus came. When he saw Jesus, he fell to his knees, <sup>23</sup> beside himself as he begged, "My dear daughter is at death's door. Come and lay hands on her so she will get well and live."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus went with him, the whole crowd tagging along, pushing and jostling him.

<sup>30</sup> At the same moment, Jesus felt energy discharging from him. He turned around to the crowd and asked, "Who touched my robe?"

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said, "What are you talking about? With this crowd pushing and jostling you, you're asking, 'Who touched me?' Dozens have touched you!"

<sup>32</sup> But he went on asking, looking around to see who had done it.

<sup>33</sup> The woman, knowing what had happened, knowing she was the one, stepped up in fear and trembling, knelt before him, and gave him the whole story.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to her, "Daughter, you took a risk of faith, and now you're healed and whole. Live well, live blessed! Be healed of your plague."

<sup>35</sup> While he was still talking, some people came from the leader's house and told him, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"

<sup>36</sup> Jesus overheard what they were talking about and said to the leader, "Don't listen to them; just trust me."

<sup>38</sup> They entered the leader's house and pushed their way through the gossips looking for a story and neighbors bringing in casseroles.

<sup>40</sup> Provoked to sarcasm, they told him he didn't know what he was talking about. But when he had sent them all out, he took the child's father and mother, along with his companions, and entered the child's room.

<sup>42</sup> At that, she was up and walking around! This girl was twelve years of age. They, of course, were all beside themselves with joy.

<sup>43</sup> He gave them strict orders that no one was to know what had taken place in that room. Then he said, "Give her something to eat."

6 <sup>1</sup> He left there and returned to his hometown. His disciples came along.

<sup>2</sup> On the Sabbath, he gave a lecture in the meeting place. He made a real hit, impressing everyone. "We had no idea he was this good!" they said. "How did he get so wise all of a sudden, get such ability?"

<sup>3</sup> But in the next breath they were cutting him down: "He's just a carpenter--Mary's boy. We've known him since he was a kid. We know his brothers, James, Justus, Jude, and Simon, and his sisters. Who does he think he is?" They tripped over what little they knew about him and fell, sprawling. And they never got any further.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus called the Twelve to him, and sent them out in pairs. He gave them authority and power to deal with the evil opposition.

<sup>10</sup> "And no luxury inns. Get a modest place and be content there until you leave.

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard of all this, for by this time the name of Jesus was on everyone's lips. He said, "This has to be John the Baptizer come back from the dead--that's why he's able to work miracles!"

<sup>20</sup> because Herod was in awe of John. Convinced that he was a holy man, he gave him special treatment. Whenever he listened to him he was miserable with guilt--and yet he couldn't stay away. Something in John kept pulling him back.

<sup>22</sup> Herodias's daughter entered the banquet hall and danced for the guests. She dazzled Herod and the guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me anything. I'll give you anything you want."

<sup>23</sup> Carried away, he kept on, "I swear, I'll split my kingdom with you if you say so!"

<sup>24</sup> She went back to her mother and said, "What should I ask for?" "Ask for the head of John the Baptizer."

<sup>25</sup> Excited, she ran back to the king and said, "I want the head of John the Baptizer served up on a platter. And I want it now!"

<sup>27</sup> The king sent the executioner off to the prison with orders to bring back

John's head. He went, cut off John's head,

<sup>28</sup> brought it back on a platter, and presented it to the girl, who gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup> When John's disciples heard about this, they came and got the body and gave it a decent burial.

<sup>30</sup> The apostles then rendezvoused with Jesus and reported on all that they had done and taught.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus said, "Come off by yourselves; let's take a break and get a little rest." For there was constant coming and going. They didn't even have time to eat.

<sup>32</sup> So they got in the boat and went off to a remote place by themselves.

<sup>33</sup> Someone saw them going and the word got around. From the surrounding towns people went out on foot, running, and got there ahead of them.

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus arrived, he saw this huge crowd. At the sight of them, his heart broke--like sheep with no shepherd they were. He went right to work teaching them.

<sup>35</sup> When his disciples thought this had gone on long enough--it was now quite late in the day--they interrupted: "We are a long way out in the country, and it's very late.

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said, "You do it. Fix supper for them." They replied, "Are you serious? You want us to go spend a fortune on food for their supper?"

<sup>38</sup> But he was quite serious. "How many loaves of bread do you have? Take an inventory." That didn't take long. "Five," they said, "plus two fish."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus got them all to sit down in groups of fifty or a hundred--they looked like a patchwork quilt of wildflowers spread out on the green grass!

<sup>41</sup> He took the five loaves and two fish, lifted his face to heaven in prayer, blessed, broke, and gave the bread to the disciples, and the disciples in turn gave it to the people. He did the same with the fish.

<sup>45</sup> As soon as the meal was finished, Jesus insisted that the disciples get in the boat and go on ahead across to Bethsaida while he dismissed the congregation.

<sup>56</sup> Wherever he went, village or town or country crossroads, they brought their sick to the marketplace and begged him to let them touch the edge of his coat--that's all. And whoever touched him became well.

7 <sup>1</sup> The Pharisees, along with some religion scholars who had come from Jerusalem, gathered around him.

<sup>5</sup> The Pharisees and religion scholars asked, "Why do your disciples flout the rules, showing up at meals without washing their hands?"

<sup>7</sup> They act like they are worshiping me, but they don't mean it. They just use me as a cover for teaching whatever suits their fancy,

<sup>9</sup> He went on, "Well, good for you. You get rid of God's command so you won't be inconvenienced in following the religious fashions!

<sup>10</sup> Moses said, 'Respect your father and mother,' and, 'Anyone denouncing father or mother should be killed.'

<sup>11</sup> But you weasel out of that by saying that it's perfectly acceptable to say to father or mother, 'Gift! What I owed you I've given as a gift to God,'

<sup>14</sup> Jesus called the crowd together again and said, "Listen now, all of you--take this to heart.

<sup>15</sup> It's not what you swallow that pollutes your life; it's what you vomit--that's the real pollution."

<sup>17</sup> When he was back home after being with the crowd, his disciples said, "We don't get it. Put it in plain language."

<sup>18</sup> Jesus said, "Are you being willfully stupid? Don't you see that what you swallow can't contaminate you?"

<sup>19</sup> It doesn't enter your heart but your stomach, works its way through the intestines, and is finally flushed." (That took care of dietary quibbling; Jesus was saying that all foods are fit to eat.)

<sup>24</sup> From there Jesus set out for the vicinity of Tyre. He entered a house there where he didn't think he would be found, but he couldn't escape notice.

<sup>25</sup> He was barely inside when a woman who had a disturbed daughter heard where he was. She came and knelt at his feet,

<sup>32</sup> Some people brought a man who could neither hear nor speak and asked Jesus to lay a healing hand on him.

<sup>36</sup> Jesus urged them to keep it quiet, but they talked it up all the more,

<sup>37</sup> beside themselves with excitement. "He's done it all and done it well. He gives hearing to the deaf, speech to the speechless."

8<sup>1</sup> At about this same time he again found himself with a hungry crowd on his hands. He called his disciples together and said, <sup>2</sup> "This crowd is breaking my heart. They have stuck with me for three days, and now they have nothing to eat.

<sup>3</sup> If I send them home hungry, they'll faint along the way--some of them have come a long distance."

<sup>4</sup> His disciples responded, "What do you expect us to do about it? Buy food out here in the desert?"

<sup>5</sup> He asked, "How much bread do you have?" "Seven loaves," they said.

<sup>6</sup> So Jesus told the crowd to sit down on the ground. After giving thanks, he took the seven bread loaves, broke them into pieces, and gave them to his disciples so they could hand them out to the crowd.

<sup>7</sup> They also had a few fish. He pronounced a blessing over the fish and told his disciples to hand them out as well.

<sup>8</sup> The crowd ate its fill. Seven sacks of leftovers were collected.

<sup>9</sup> There were well over four thousand at the meal. Then he sent them home.

<sup>10</sup> He himself went straight to the boat with his disciples and set out for Dalmanoutha.

<sup>11</sup> When they arrived, the Pharisees came out and started in on him, badgering him to prove himself, pushing him up against the wall.

<sup>12</sup> Provoked, he said, "Why does this generation clamor for miraculous guarantees? If I have anything to say about it, you'll not get so much as a hint of a guarantee."

<sup>16</sup> Meanwhile, the disciples were finding fault with each other because they had forgotten to bring bread.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus overheard and said, "Why are you fussing because you forgot bread? Don't you see the point of all this? Don't you get it at all?"

<sup>23</sup> Taking him by the hand, he led him out of the village. He put spit in the man's eyes, laid hands on him, and asked, "Do you see anything?"

<sup>29</sup> He then asked, "And you--what are you saying about me? Who am I?" Peter gave the answer: "You are the Christ, the Messiah."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus warned them to keep it quiet, not to breathe a word of it to anyone.

<sup>31</sup> He then began explaining things to them: "It is necessary that the Son of Man proceed to an ordeal of suffering, be tried and found guilty by the elders, high priests, and religion scholars, be killed, and after three days rise up alive."

<sup>32</sup> He said this simply and clearly so they couldn't miss it. But Peter grabbed him in protest.

of my way! Satan, get lost! You have no idea how God works."

<sup>34</sup> Calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, "Anyone who intends to come with me has to let me lead. You're not in the driver's seat; I am. Don't run from suffering; embrace it. Follow me and I'll show you how.

<sup>35</sup> Self-help is no help at all. Self-sacrifice is the way, my way, to saving yourself, your true self.

<sup>37</sup> What could you ever trade your soul for?

<sup>38</sup> "If any of you are embarrassed over me and the way I'm leading you when you get around your fickle and unfocused friends, know that you'll be an even greater embarrassment to the Son of Man when he arrives in all the splendor of God, his Father, with an army of the holy angels."

9<sup>1</sup> Then he drove it home by saying, "This isn't pie in the sky by and by. Some of you who are standing here are going to see it happen, see the kingdom of God arrive in full force."

<sup>9</sup> Coming down the mountain, Jesus swore them to secrecy. "Don't tell a soul what you saw. After the Son of Man rises from the dead, you're free to talk."

<sup>10</sup> They puzzled over that, wondering what on earth "rising from the dead" meant.

<sup>11</sup> Meanwhile they were asking, "Why do the religion scholars say that Elijah has to come first?"

of the Son of Man. They treated this Elijah like dirt, much like they will treat the Son of Man, who will, according to Scripture, suffer terribly and be kicked around contemptibly."

<sup>14</sup> When they came back down the mountain to the other disciples, they saw a huge crowd around them, and the religion scholars cross-examining them.

<sup>15</sup> As soon as the people in the crowd saw Jesus, admiring excitement stirred them. They ran and greeted him.

<sup>17</sup> A man out of the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought my mute son, made speechless by a demon, to you.

<sup>18</sup> Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and goes stiff as a board. I told your disciples, hoping they could deliver him, but they couldn't."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said, "What a generation! No sense of God! How many times do I have to go over these things? How much longer do I have to put up with this? Bring the boy here."

<sup>20</sup> They brought him. When the demon saw Jesus, it threw the boy into a seizure, causing him to writhe on the ground and foam at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup> He asked the boy's father, "How long has this been going on?" "Ever since he was a little boy.

<sup>22</sup> Many times it pitches him into fire or the river to do away with him. If you can do anything, do it. Have a heart and help us!"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "If? There are no 'ifs' among believers. Anything can happen."

<sup>24</sup> No sooner were the words out of his mouth than the father cried, "Then I believe. Help me with my doubts!"

<sup>25</sup> Seeing that the crowd was forming fast, Jesus gave the vile spirit its marching orders: "Dumb and deaf spirit, I command you--Out of him, and stay out!"

<sup>26</sup> Screaming, and with much thrashing about, it left. The boy was pale as a corpse, so people started saying, "He's dead."

<sup>28</sup> After arriving back home, his disciples cornered Jesus and asked, "Why couldn't we throw the demon out?"

<sup>29</sup> He answered, "There is no way to get rid of this kind of demon except by prayer."

<sup>30</sup> Leaving there, they went through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know their whereabouts, <sup>31</sup> for he wanted to teach his disciples. He told them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed to some people who want nothing to do with God. They will murder him. Three days after his murder, he will rise, alive."

<sup>32</sup> They didn't know what he was talking about, but were afraid to ask him about it.

<sup>33</sup> They came to Capernaum. When he was safe at home, he asked them, "What were you discussing on the road?"

<sup>34</sup> The silence was deafening--they had been arguing with one another over who among them was greatest.

<sup>35</sup> He sat down and summoned the Twelve. "So you want first place? Then take the last place. Be the servant of all."

<sup>36</sup> He put a child in the middle of the room. Then, cradling the little one in his arms, he said,

<sup>37</sup> "Whoever embraces one of these children as I do embraces me, and far more than me--God who sent me."

<sup>38</sup> John spoke up, "Teacher, we saw a man using your name to expel demons and we stopped him because he wasn't in our group."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus wasn't pleased. "Don't stop him. No one can use my name to do something good and powerful, and in the next breath cut me down.

<sup>40</sup> If he's not an enemy, he's an ally.

<sup>41</sup> Why, anyone by just giving you a cup of water in my name is on our side. Count on it that God will notice.

<sup>43</sup> "If your hand or your foot gets in God's way, chop it off and throw it away. You're better off maimed or lame and alive than the proud owner of two hands and two feet, godless in a furnace of eternal fire.

<sup>47</sup> And if your eye distracts you from God, pull it out and throw it away.

10 <sup>1</sup> From there he went to the area of Judea across the Jordan. A crowd of people, as was so often the case, went along, and he, as he so often did, taught them.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "What did Moses command?"

<sup>8</sup> he becomes one flesh with a woman--no longer two individuals, but forming a new unity.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus gave it to them straight: "A man who divorces his wife so he can marry someone else commits adultery against her.

<sup>12</sup> And a woman who divorces her husband so she can marry someone else commits adultery."

reverence, and asked, "Good Teacher, what must I do to get eternal life?"

<sup>19</sup> You know the commandments: Don't murder, don't commit adultery, don't steal, don't lie, don't cheat, honor your father and mother."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looked him hard in the eye--and loved him! He said, "There's one thing left: Go sell whatever you own and give it to the poor. All your wealth will then be heavenly wealth. And come follow me."

<sup>22</sup> The man's face clouded over. This was the last thing he expected to hear, and he walked off with a heavy heart. He was holding on tight to a lot of things, and not about to let go.

<sup>23</sup> Looking at his disciples, Jesus said, "Do you have any idea how difficult it is for people who 'have it all' to enter God's kingdom?"

<sup>24</sup> The disciples couldn't believe what they were hearing, but Jesus kept on: "You can't imagine how difficult.

<sup>25</sup> I'd say it's easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for the rich to get into God's kingdom."

<sup>26</sup> That set the disciples back on their heels. "Then who has any chance at all?" they asked.

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "Mark my words, no one who sacrifices house, brothers, sisters, mother, father, children, land-

-whatever--because of me and the Message

<sup>30</sup> will lose out. They'll get it all back, but multiplied many times in homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land--but also in troubles. And then the bonus of eternal life!

<sup>31</sup> This is once again the Great Reversal: Many who are first will end up last, and the last first."

<sup>32</sup> Back on the road, they set out for Jerusalem. Jesus had a head start on them, and they were following, puzzled and not just a little afraid. He took the Twelve and began again to go over what to expect next.

<sup>33</sup> "Listen to me carefully. We're on our way up to Jerusalem. When we get there, the Son of Man will be betrayed to the religious leaders and scholars. They will sentence him to death. Then they will hand him over to the Romans, <sup>34</sup> who will mock and spit on him, give him the third degree, and kill him. After three days he will rise alive."

<sup>35</sup> James and John, Zebedee's sons, came up to him. "Teacher, we have something we want you to do for us."

<sup>37</sup> "Arrange it," they said, "so that we will be awarded the highest places of honor in your glory--one of us at your right, the other at your left."

<sup>38</sup> Jesus said, "You have no idea what you're asking. Are you capable of drinking the cup I drink, of being baptized in the baptism I'm about to be plunged into?"

<sup>39</sup> "Sure," they said. "Why not?" Jesus said, "Come to think of it, you will drink the cup I drink, and be baptized in my baptism."

<sup>40</sup> But as to awarding places of honor, that's not my business. There are other arrangements for that."

<sup>41</sup> When the other ten heard of this conversation, they lost their tempers with James and John.

<sup>43</sup> It's not going to be that way with you. Whoever wants to be great must become a servant.

<sup>45</sup> That is what the Son of Man has done: He came to serve, not to be served--and then to give away his life in exchange for many who are held hostage."

<sup>46</sup> They spent some time in Jericho. As Jesus was leaving town, trailed by his disciples and a parade of people, a blind beggar by the name of Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, was sitting alongside the road.

<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus the Nazarene was passing by, he began to cry out, "Son of David, Jesus! Mercy, have mercy on me!"

<sup>48</sup> Many tried to hush him up, but he yelled all the louder, "Son of David! Mercy, have mercy on me!"

<sup>49</sup> Jesus stopped in his tracks. "Call him over." They called him. "It's your lucky day! Get up! He's calling you to come!"

<sup>50</sup> Throwing off his coat, he was on his feet at once and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> Jesus said, "What can I do for you?" The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see."

<sup>52</sup> "On your way," said Jesus. "Your faith has saved and healed you." In that very instant he recovered his sight and followed Jesus down the road.

11 <sup>1</sup> When they were nearing Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany on Mount Olives, he sent off two of the disciples with instructions:

<sup>3</sup> If anyone asks, 'What are you doing?' say, 'The Master needs him, and will return him right away.'"

<sup>4</sup> They went and found a colt tied to a door at the street corner and untied it.

<sup>5</sup> Some of those standing there said, "What are you doing untying that colt?"

<sup>7</sup> They brought the colt to Jesus, spread their coats on it, and he mounted.

<sup>8</sup> The people gave him a wonderful welcome, some throwing their coats on the street, others spreading out rushes they had cut in the fields.

<sup>9</sup> Running ahead and following after, they were calling out, Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in God's name!

<sup>11</sup> He entered Jerusalem, then entered the Temple. He looked around, taking it all in. But by now it was late, so he went back to Bethany with the Twelve.

nothing but fig leaves. (It wasn't yet the season for figs.)

<sup>14</sup> He addressed the tree: "No one is going to eat fruit from you again--ever!" And his disciples overheard him.

<sup>15</sup> They arrived at Jerusalem. Immediately on entering the Temple Jesus started throwing out everyone who had set up shop there, buying and selling. He kicked over the tables of the bankers and the stalls of the pigeon merchants.

<sup>17</sup> And then he taught them, quoting this text: My house was designated a house of prayer for the nations; You've turned it into a hangout for thieves.

<sup>18</sup> The high priests and religion scholars heard what was going on and plotted how they might get rid of him. They panicked, for the entire crowd was carried away by his teaching.

<sup>23</sup> and nothing will be too much for you. This mountain, for instance: Just say, 'Go jump in the lake'--no shuffling or shilly-shallying--and it's as good as done.

<sup>24</sup> That's why I urge you to pray for absolutely everything, ranging from small to large. Include everything as you embrace this God-life, and you'll get God's everything.

<sup>25</sup> And when you assume the posture of prayer, remember that it's not all asking. If you have anything against someone, forgive--only then will your heavenly Father be inclined to also wipe your slate clean of sins."

<sup>27</sup> Then when they were back in Jerusalem once again, as they were walking through the Temple, the high priests, religion scholars, and leaders came up

<sup>28</sup> and demanded, "Show us your credentials. Who authorized you to speak and act like this?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus responded, "First let me ask you a question. Answer my question and then I'll present my credentials.

<sup>30</sup> About the baptism of John--who authorized it: heaven or humans? Tell me."

<sup>31</sup> They were on the spot, and knew it. They pulled back into a huddle and whispered, "If we say 'heaven,' he'll ask us why we didn't believe John;

<sup>32</sup> if we say 'humans,' we'll be up against it with the people because they all hold John up as a prophet."

<sup>33</sup> They decided to concede that round to Jesus. "We don't know," they said. Jesus replied, "Then I won't answer your question either."

12 <sup>1</sup> Then Jesus started telling them stories. "A man planted a vineyard. He fenced it, dug a winepress, erected a watchtower, turned it over to the farmhands, and went off on a trip.

<sup>2</sup> At the time for harvest, he sent a servant back to the farmhands to collect his profits.

<sup>5</sup> He sent another and that one they killed. And on and on, many others. Some they beat up, some they killed.

<sup>7</sup> "But those farmhands saw their chance. They rubbed their hands together in greed and said, 'This is the heir! Let's kill him and have it all for ourselves.'

<sup>8</sup> They grabbed him, killed him, and threw him over the fence.

<sup>10</sup> Read it for yourselves in Scripture: That stone the masons threw out is now the cornerstone!

<sup>11</sup> This is God's work; we rub our eyes--we can hardly believe it!"

<sup>12</sup> They wanted to lynch him then and there but, intimidated by public opinion, held back. They knew the story was about them. They got away from there as fast as they could.

<sup>13</sup> They sent some Pharisees and followers of Herod to bait him, hoping to catch him saying something incriminating.

<sup>14</sup> They came up and said, "Teacher, we know you have integrity, that you are indifferent to public opinion, don't pander to your students, and teach the way of God accurately. Tell us: Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>15</sup> He knew it was a trick question, and said, "Why are you playing these games with me? Bring me a coin and let me look at it."

<sup>16</sup> They handed him one. "This engraving--who does it look like? And whose name is on it?" "Caesar," they said.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Give Caesar what is his, and give God what is his." Their mouths hung open, speechless.

<sup>18</sup> Some Sadducees, the party that denies any possibility of resurrection, came up and asked, <sup>19</sup> "Teacher, Moses wrote that if a man dies and leaves a wife but no child, his brother is obligated to marry the widow and have children.

<sup>20</sup> Well, there once were seven brothers. The first took a wife. He died childless.

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said, "You're way off base, and here's why: One, you don't know your Bibles; two, you don't know how God works.

<sup>25</sup> After the dead are raised up, we're past the marriage business. As it is with angels now, all our ecstasies and intimacies then will be with God.

<sup>26</sup> And regarding the dead, whether or not they are raised, don't you ever read the Bible? How God at the bush said to Moses, 'I am--not was--the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

<sup>28</sup> One of the religion scholars came up. Hearing the lively exchanges of question and answer and seeing how sharp Jesus was in his answers, he put in his question: "Which is most important of all the commandments?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "The first in importance is, 'Listen, Israel: The Lord your God is one;

<sup>30</sup> so love the Lord God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence and energy.'

<sup>31</sup> And here is the second: 'Love others as well as you love yourself.' There is no other commandment that ranks with these."

<sup>32</sup> The religion scholar said, "A wonderful answer, Teacher! So lucid and accurate--that God is one and there is no other.

<sup>33</sup> And loving him with all passion and intelligence and energy, and loving others as well as you love yourself. Why, that's better than all offerings and sacrifices put together!"

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus realized how insightful he was, he said, "You're almost there, right on the border of God's kingdom." After that, no one else dared ask a question.

<sup>35</sup> While he was teaching in the Temple, Jesus asked, "How is it that the religion scholars say that the Messiah is David's 'son,'

<sup>36</sup> when we all know that David, inspired by the Holy Spirit, said, God said to my Master, "Sit here at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet."

<sup>38</sup> He continued teaching. "Watch out for the religion scholars. They love to walk around in academic gowns, preening in the radiance of public flattery,

<sup>42</sup> One poor widow came up and put in two small coins--a measly two cents.

<sup>43</sup> Jesus called his disciples over and said, "The truth is that this poor widow gave more to the collection than all the others put together.

<sup>44</sup> All the others gave what they'll never miss; she gave extravagantly what she couldn't afford--she gave her all."

13 <sup>1</sup> As he walked away from the Temple, one of his disciples said, "Teacher, look at that stonework! Those buildings!"

<sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumored wars, keep your head and don't panic.

This is routine history, and no sign of the end.

<sup>8</sup> Nation will fight nation and ruler fight ruler, over and over. Earthquakes will occur in various places. There will be famines. But these things are nothing compared to what's coming.

<sup>9</sup> "And watch out! They're going to drag you into court. And then it will go from bad to worse, dog-eat-dog, everyone at your throat because you carry my name. You're placed there as sentinels to truth.

<sup>11</sup> "When they bring you, betrayed, into court, don't worry about what you'll say. When the time comes, say what's on your heart--the Holy Spirit will make his witness in and through you.

<sup>13</sup> There's no telling who will hate you because of me. "Stay with it--that's what is required. Stay with it to the end. You won't be sorry; you'll be saved.

<sup>14</sup> "But be ready to run for it when you see the monster of desecration set up where it should never be. You who can read, make sure you understand what I'm talking about. If you're living in Judea at the time, run for the hills;

<sup>19</sup> "These are going to be hard days--nothing like it from the time God made the world right up to the present. And there'll be nothing like it again.

<sup>20</sup> If he let the days of trouble run their course, nobody would make it. But because of God's chosen people, those he personally chose, he has already intervened.

<sup>21</sup> "If anyone tries to flag you down, calling out, 'Here's the Messiah!' or points, 'There he is!' don't fall for it.

<sup>22</sup> Fake Messiahs and lying preachers are going to pop up everywhere. Their impressive credentials and dazzling performances will pull the wool over the eyes of even those who ought to know better.

<sup>27</sup> He'll dispatch the angels; they will pull in the chosen from the four winds, from pole to pole.

<sup>29</sup> And so it is with you. When you see all these things, you know he is at the door.

<sup>33</sup> So keep a sharp lookout, for you don't know the timetable.

<sup>35</sup> So, stay at your post, watching. You have no idea when the homeowner is returning, whether evening, midnight, cockcrow, or morning.

14 <sup>1</sup> In only two days the eight-day Festival of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread would begin. The high priests and religion scholars were looking for a way they could seize Jesus by stealth and kill him.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why are you giving her a hard time? She has just done something wonderfully significant for me.

<sup>7</sup> You will have the poor with you every day for the rest of your lives. Whenever you feel like it, you can do something for them. Not so with me.

<sup>8</sup> She did what she could when she could--she pre-anointed my body for burial.

<sup>9</sup> And you can be sure that wherever in the whole world the Message is preached, what she just did is going to be talked about admiringly."

<sup>10</sup> Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the cabal of high priests, determined to betray him.

<sup>11</sup> They couldn't believe their ears, and promised to pay him well. He started looking for just the right moment to hand him over.

<sup>12</sup> On the first of the Days of Unleavened Bread, the day they prepare the Passover sacrifice, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make preparations so you can eat the Passover meal?"

<sup>13</sup> He directed two of his disciples, "Go into the city. A man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him.

<sup>14</sup> Ask the owner of whichever house he enters, 'The Teacher wants to know, Where is my guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'

<sup>18</sup> As they were at the supper table eating, Jesus said, "I have something hard but important to say to you: One of you is going to hand me over to the conspirators, one who at this moment is eating with me."

<sup>21</sup> In one sense, it turns out that the Son of Man is entering into a way of treachery well-marked by the Scriptures--no surprises here. In another sense, the man who turns him in, turns traitor to the Son of Man--better never to have been born than do this!"

<sup>22</sup> In the course of their meal, having taken and blessed the bread, he broke it and gave it to them. Then he said, Take, this is my body.

<sup>23</sup> Taking the chalice, he gave it to them, thanking God, and they all drank from it.

<sup>25</sup> "I'll not be drinking wine again until the new day when I drink it in the kingdom of God."

<sup>27</sup> Jesus told them, "You're all going to feel that your world is falling apart and that it's my fault. There's a Scripture that says, I will strike the shepherd; The sheep will go helter-skelter.

<sup>28</sup> "But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you, leading the way to Galilee."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, "Don't be so sure. Today, this very night in fact, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>31</sup> He blustered in protest, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you." All the others said the same thing.

<sup>36</sup> "Papa, Father, you can--can't you?--get me out of this. Take this cup away from me. But please, not what I want--what do you want?"

<sup>37</sup> He came back and found them sound asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, you went to sleep on me? Can't you stick it out with me a single hour?"

<sup>38</sup> Stay alert, be in prayer, so you don't enter the danger zone without even knowing it. Don't be naive. Part of you is eager, ready for anything in God; but another part is as lazy as an old dog sleeping by the fire."

<sup>39</sup> He then went back and prayed the same prayer.

<sup>40</sup> Returning, he again found them sound asleep. They simply couldn't keep their eyes open, and they didn't have a plausible excuse.

<sup>41</sup> He came back a third time and said, "Are you going to sleep all night? No--you've slept long enough. Time's up. The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of sinners.

<sup>44</sup> The betrayer had worked out a signal with them: "The one I kiss, that's the one--seize him. Make sure he doesn't get away."

<sup>45</sup> He went straight to Jesus and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to them, "What is this, coming after me with swords and clubs as if I were a dangerous criminal?"

<sup>49</sup> Day after day I've been sitting in the Temple teaching, and you never so much as lifted a hand against me. What you in fact have done is confirm the prophetic writings."

<sup>51</sup> A young man was following along. All he had on was a bedsheet. Some of the men grabbed him <sup>52</sup> but he got away, running off naked, leaving them holding the sheet.

<sup>53</sup> They led Jesus to the Chief Priest, where the high priests, religious leaders, and scholars had gathered together.

<sup>55</sup> The high priests conspiring with the Jewish Council looked high and low for evidence against Jesus by which they could sentence him to death. They found nothing.

<sup>57</sup> Then a few of them stood up and lied:

<sup>58</sup> "We heard him say, 'I am going to tear down this Temple, built by hard labor, and in three days build another without lifting a hand.'"

<sup>60</sup> In the middle of this, the Chief Priest stood up and asked Jesus, "What do you have to say to the accusation?"

<sup>61</sup> Jesus was silent. He said nothing. The Chief Priest tried again, this time asking, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?"

<sup>65</sup> Some of them started spitting at him. They blindfolded his eyes, then hit him, saying, "Who hit you? Prophecy!" The guards, punching and slapping, took him away.

<sup>68</sup> He denied it: "I don't know what you're talking about." He went out on the porch. A rooster crowed.

<sup>70</sup> He denied it again. After a little while, the bystanders brought it up again.

"You've got to be one of them. You've got 'Galilean' written all over you."

<sup>71</sup> Now Peter got really nervous and swore, "I never laid eyes on this man you're talking about."

<sup>72</sup> Just then the rooster crowed a second time. Peter remembered how Jesus had said, "Before a rooster crows twice, you'll deny me three times." He collapsed in tears.

15 <sup>1</sup> At dawn's first light, the high priests, with the religious leaders and scholars, arranged a conference with the entire Jewish Council. After tying Jesus securely, they took him out and presented him to Pilate.

<sup>7</sup> There was one prisoner called Barabbas, locked up with the insurrectionists who had committed murder during the uprising against Rome.

<sup>8</sup> As the crowd came up and began to present its petition for him to release a prisoner,

<sup>9</sup> Pilate anticipated them: "Do you want me to release the King of the Jews to you?"

<sup>10</sup> Pilate knew by this time that it was through sheer spite that the high priests had turned Jesus over to him.

<sup>11</sup> But the high priests by then had worked up the crowd to ask for the release of Barabbas.

<sup>29</sup> People passing along the road jeered, shaking their heads in mock lament: "You bragged that you could tear down the Temple and then rebuild it in three days--

<sup>30</sup> so show us your stuff! Save yourself! If you're really God's Son, come down from that cross!"

<sup>31</sup> The high priests, along with the religion scholars, were right there mixing it up with the rest of them, having a great time poking fun at him: "He saved others--but he can't save himself!

<sup>32</sup> Messiah, is he? King of Israel? Then let him climb down from that cross. We'll all become believers then!" Even the men crucified alongside him joined in the mockery.

<sup>34</sup> The darkness lasted three hours. At three o'clock, Jesus groaned out of the depths, crying loudly, ["Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?"] which means, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

quit breathing, he said, "This has to be the Son of God!"

<sup>40</sup> There were women watching from a distance, among them Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and Joses, and Salome.

<sup>41</sup> When Jesus was in Galilee, these women followed and served him, and had come up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup> Late in the afternoon, since it was the Day of Preparation (that is, Sabbath eve), <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a highly respected member of the Jewish Council, came. He was one who lived expectantly, on the lookout for the kingdom of God. Working up his courage, he went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.

<sup>44</sup> Pilate questioned whether he could be dead that soon and called for the captain to verify that he was really dead.

<sup>46</sup> Having already purchased a linen shroud, Joseph took him down, wrapped him in the shroud, placed him in a tomb that had been cut into the rock, and rolled a large stone across the opening.

<sup>2</sup> Very early on Sunday morning, as the sun rose, they went to the tomb.

<sup>3</sup> They worried out loud to each other, "Who will roll back the stone from the tomb for us?"

<sup>4</sup> Then they looked up, saw that it had been rolled back--it was a huge stone--and walked right in.

<sup>5</sup> They saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed all in white. They were completely taken aback, astonished.

<sup>6</sup> He said, "Don't be afraid. I know you're looking for Jesus the Nazarene, the One they nailed on the cross. He's been raised up; he's here no longer. You can see for yourselves that the place is empty.

<sup>7</sup> Now--on your way. Tell his disciples and Peter that he is going on ahead of you to Galilee. You'll see him there, exactly as he said."

<sup>8</sup> They got out as fast as they could, beside themselves, their heads swimming. Stunned, they said nothing to anyone.

<sup>9</sup> {Mark 16:9-20 [[the portion in brackets]] is contained only in later manuscripts.} [[After rising from the dead, Jesus appeared early on Sunday morning to Mary Magdalene, whom he had delivered from seven demons.

<sup>10</sup> She went to his former companions, now weeping and carrying on, and told them.

<sup>11</sup> When they heard her report that she had seen him alive and well, they didn't believe her.

<sup>12</sup> Later he appeared, but in a different form, to two of them out walking in the countryside.

<sup>14</sup> Still later, as the Eleven were eating supper, he appeared and took them to task most severely for their stubborn unbelief, refusing to believe those who had seen him raised up.

<sup>15</sup> Then he said, "Go into the world. Go everywhere and announce the Message of God's good news to one and all.

<sup>17</sup> "These are some of the signs that will accompany believers: They will throw out demons in my name, they will speak in new tongues, <sup>18</sup> they will take snakes in their hands, they will drink poison and not be hurt, they will lay hands on the sick and make them well."

<sup>19</sup> Then the Master Jesus, after briefing them, was taken up to heaven, and he sat down beside God in the place of honor.

<sup>20</sup> And the disciples went everywhere preaching, the Master working right with them, validating the Message with indisputable evidence.]]

Luke

1 <sup>1</sup> So many others have tried their hand at putting together a story of the wonderful harvest of Scripture and history that took place among us,

<sup>4</sup> so you can know beyond the shadow of a doubt the reliability of what you were taught.

descended from the daughters of Aaron. Her name was Elizabeth.

<sup>6</sup> Together they lived honorably before God, careful in keeping to the ways of the commandments and enjoying a clear conscience before God.

<sup>7</sup> But they were childless because Elizabeth could never conceive, and now they were quite old.

<sup>9</sup> it came his one turn in life to enter the sanctuary of God and burn incense.

<sup>13</sup> But the angel reassured him, "Don't fear, Zachariah. Your prayer has been heard. Elizabeth, your wife, will bear a son by you. You are to name him John.

<sup>16</sup> He will turn many sons and daughters of Israel back to their God.

<sup>17</sup> He will herald God's arrival in the style and strength of Elijah, soften the hearts of parents to children, and kindle devout understanding among hardened skeptics--he'll get the people ready for God."

<sup>18</sup> Zachariah said to the angel, "Do you expect me to believe this? I'm an old man and my wife is an old woman."

<sup>19</sup> But the angel said, "I am Gabriel, the sentinel of God, sent especially to bring you this glad news.

<sup>20</sup> But because you won't believe me, you'll be unable to say a word until the day of your son's birth. Every word I've spoken to you will come true on time--God's time."

<sup>22</sup> When he came out and couldn't speak, they knew he had seen a vision. He continued speechless and had to use sign language with the people.

herself for five months, relishing her pregnancy.

<sup>25</sup> "So, this is how God acts to remedy my unfortunate condition!" she said.

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to the Galilean village of Nazareth

<sup>30</sup> But the angel assured her, "Mary, you have nothing to fear. God has a surprise for you:

<sup>31</sup> You will become pregnant and give birth to a son and call his name Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great, be called 'Son of the Highest.' The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David;

<sup>33</sup> He will rule Jacob's house forever--no end, ever, to his kingdom."

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered, The Holy Spirit will come upon you, the power of the Highest hover over you; Therefore, the child you bring to birth will be called Holy, Son of God.

<sup>36</sup> "And did you know that your cousin Elizabeth conceived a son, old as she is? Everyone called her barren, and here she is six months' pregnant!

<sup>39</sup> Mary didn't waste a minute. She got up and traveled to a town in Judah in the hill country,

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby in her womb leaped. She was filled with the Holy Spirit, <sup>42</sup> and sang out exuberantly, You're so blessed among women, and the babe in your womb, also blessed!

<sup>43</sup> And why am I so blessed that the mother of my Lord visits me?

<sup>44</sup> The moment the sound of your greeting entered my ears, The babe in my womb skipped like a lamb for sheer joy.

<sup>45</sup> Blessed woman, who believed what God said, believed every word would come true!

<sup>46</sup> And Mary said, I'm bursting with God-news;

<sup>48</sup> God took one good look at me, and look what happened--I'm the most fortunate woman on earth! What God has done for me will never be forgotten,

<sup>49</sup> the God whose very name is holy, set apart from all others

<sup>57</sup> When Elizabeth was full-term in her pregnancy, she bore a son.

<sup>67</sup> Then Zachariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, <sup>68</sup> Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he came and set his people free.

<sup>69</sup> He set the power of salvation in the center of our lives, and in the very house of David his servant,

<sup>70</sup> Just as he promised long ago through the preaching of his holy prophets:

<sup>71</sup> Deliverance from our enemies and every hateful hand;

<sup>72</sup> Mercy to our fathers, as he remembers to do what he said he'd do,

<sup>73</sup> What he swore to our father
Abraham--

<sup>74</sup> a clean rescue from the enemy camp,
So we can worship him without a care in the world,

<sup>75</sup> made holy before him as long as we live.

<sup>76</sup> And you, my child, "Prophet of the Highest," will go ahead of the Master to prepare his ways,

<sup>77</sup> Present the offer of salvation to his people, the forgiveness of their sins.

<sup>78</sup> Through the heartfelt mercies of our God, God's Sunrise will break in upon us,

<sup>79</sup> Shining on those in the darkness, those sitting in the shadow of death,

Then showing us the way, one foot at a time, down the path of peace.

<sup>80</sup> The child grew up, healthy and spirited. He lived out in the desert until the day he made his prophetic debut in Israel.

2 <sup>1</sup> About that time Caesar Augustus ordered a census to be taken throughout the Empire.

<sup>8</sup> There were shepherders camping in the neighborhood. They had set night watches over their sheep.

<sup>9</sup> Suddenly, God's angel stood among them and God's glory blazed around them. They were terrified.

<sup>14</sup> Glory to God in the heavenly heights, Peace to all men and women on earth who please him.

<sup>15</sup> As the angel choir withdrew into heaven, the shepherders talked it over.
"Let's get over to Bethlehem as fast as we can and see for ourselves what God has revealed to us."

<sup>16</sup> They left, running, and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger.

<sup>17</sup> Seeing was believing. They told everyone they met what the angels had said about this child.

<sup>18</sup> All who heard the shepherders were impressed.

<sup>19</sup> Mary kept all these things to herself, holding them dear, deep within herself.

<sup>20</sup> The shepherders returned and let loose, glorifying and praising God for everything they had heard and seen. It turned out exactly the way they'd been told!

<sup>21</sup> When the eighth day arrived, the day of circumcision, the child was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived.

<sup>22</sup> Then when the days stipulated by Moses for purification were complete, they took him up to Jerusalem to offer him to God

<sup>23</sup> as commanded in God's Law: "Every male who opens the womb shall be a holy offering to God,"

<sup>24</sup> and also to sacrifice the "pair of doves or two young pigeons" prescribed in God's Law.

<sup>25</sup> In Jerusalem at the time, there was a man, Simeon by name, a good man, a man who lived in the prayerful expectancy of help for Israel. And the Holy Spirit was on him.

<sup>26</sup> The Holy Spirit had shown him that he would see the Messiah of God before he died.

<sup>27</sup> Led by the Spirit, he entered the Temple. As the parents of the child Jesus brought him in to carry out the rituals of the Law,

<sup>29</sup> God, you can now release your servant; release me in peace as you promised.

<sup>30</sup> With my own eyes I've seen your salvation;

<sup>33</sup> Jesus' father and mother were speechless with surprise at these words.

<sup>35</sup> the pain of a sword-thrust through you--But the rejection will force honesty, as God reveals who they really are.

<sup>36</sup> Anna the prophetess was also there, a daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She was by now a very old woman. She had been married seven years

<sup>38</sup> At the very time Simeon was praying, she showed up, broke into an anthem of praise to God, and talked about the child to all who were waiting expectantly for the freeing of Jerusalem.

<sup>40</sup> There the child grew strong in body and wise in spirit. And the grace of God was on him.

<sup>44</sup> Thinking he was somewhere in the company of pilgrims, they journeyed for a whole day and then began looking for him among relatives and neighbors.

<sup>48</sup> But his parents were not impressed; they were upset and hurt. His mother said, "Young man, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been half out of our minds looking for you."

<sup>49</sup> He said, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I had to be here, dealing with the things of my Father?"

<sup>50</sup> But they had no idea what he was talking about.

<sup>51</sup> So he went back to Nazareth with them, and lived obediently with them. His mother held these things dearly, deep within herself.

<sup>52</sup> And Jesus matured, growing up in both body and spirit, blessed by both God and people.

3 <sup>1</sup> In the fifteenth year of the rule of Caesar Tiberius--it was while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea; Herod, ruler of Galilee; his brother Philip, ruler of Iturea and Trachonitis; Lysanias, ruler of Abilene;

<sup>6</sup> Everyone will be there to see The parade of God's salvation."

<sup>7</sup> When crowds of people came out for baptism because it was the popular thing to do, John exploded: "Brood of snakes! What do you think you're doing slithering down here to the river? Do you think a little water on your snakeskins is going to deflect God's judgment?"

<sup>8</sup> It's your life that must change, not your skin. And don't think you can pull rank by claiming Abraham as 'father.' Being a child of Abraham is neither here nor there--children of Abraham are a dime a dozen. God can make children from stones if he wants.

<sup>11</sup> "If you have two coats, give one away," he said. "Do the same with your food."

<sup>12</sup> Tax men also came to be baptized and said, "Teacher, what should we do?"

<sup>13</sup> He told them, "No more extortion--collect only what is required by law."

<sup>15</sup> The interest of the people by now was building. They were all beginning to wonder, "Could this John be the Messiah?"

<sup>16</sup> But John intervened: "I'm baptizing you here in the river. The main character in this drama, to whom I'm a mere stagehand, will ignite the kingdom life, a fire, the Holy Spirit within you, changing you from the inside out.

<sup>17</sup> He's going to clean house--make a clean sweep of your lives. He'll place everything true in its proper place before God; everything false he'll put out with the trash to be burned."

<sup>18</sup> There was a lot more of this--words that gave strength to the people, words that put heart in them. The Message!

<sup>21</sup> After all the people were baptized, Jesus was baptized. As he was praying, the sky opened up

<sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit, like a dove descending, came down on him. And along with the Spirit, a voice: "You are my Son, chosen and marked by my love, pride of my life."

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus entered public life he was about thirty years old, the son (in public perception) of Joseph, who was--son of Heli,

<sup>24</sup> son of Matthat, son of Levi, son of Melchi, son of Jannai, <sup>25</sup> son of Joseph, son of Mattathias, son of Amos, son of Nahum, son of Esli, son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> son of Maath, son of Mattathias, son of Semein, son of Josech, son of Joda,

<sup>27</sup> son of Joanan, son of Rhesa, son of Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> son of Melchi, son of Addi, son of Cosam, son of Elmadam, son of Er,

<sup>29</sup> son of Joshua, son of Eliezer, son of Jorim, son of Matthat, son of Levi, <sup>30</sup> son of Simeon, son of Judah, son of Joseph, son of Jonam, son of Eliakim,

<sup>31</sup> son of Melea, son of Menna, son of Mattatha, son of Nathan, son of David,

<sup>32</sup> son of Jesse, son of Obed, son of Boaz, son of Sala, son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup> son of Amminadab, son of Admin, son of Arni, son of Hezron, son of Perez, son of Judah,

<sup>34</sup> son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham, son of Terah, son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup> son of Serug, son of Reu, son of Peleg, son of Eber, son of Shelah, <sup>36</sup> son of Cainan, son of Arphaxad, son of Shem, son of Noah, son of Lamech, <sup>37</sup> son of Methuselah, son of Enoch, son of Jared, son of Mahalaleel, son of Cainan, <sup>38</sup> son of Enos, son of Seth, son of Adam, son of God.

4<sup>1</sup> Now Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wild.

<sup>2</sup> For forty wilderness days and nights he was tested by the Devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when the time was up he was hungry.

<sup>5</sup> For the second test he led him up and spread out all the kingdoms of the earth on display at once.

<sup>6</sup> Then the Devil said, "They're yours in all their splendor to serve your pleasure. I'm in charge of them all and can turn them over to whomever I wish.

the Lord your God and only the Lord your God. Serve him with absolute single-heartedness."

<sup>9</sup> For the third test the Devil took him to Jerusalem and put him on top of the Temple. He said, "If you are God's Son, jump.

<sup>10</sup> It's written, isn't it, that 'he has placed you in the care of angels to protect you;

<sup>11</sup> they will catch you; you won't so much as stub your toe on a stone?'"

<sup>12</sup> "Yes," said Jesus, "and it's also written, 'Don't you dare tempt the Lord your God.'"

<sup>16</sup> He came to Nazareth where he had been reared. As he always did on the Sabbath, he went to the meeting place. When he stood up to read,

<sup>17</sup> he was handed the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written,

<sup>18</sup> God's Spirit is on me; he's chosen me to preach the Message of good news to the poor, Sent me to announce pardon to prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, To set the burdened and battered free,

<sup>21</sup> Then he started in, "You've just heard Scripture make history. It came true just now in this place."

<sup>22</sup> All who were there, watching and listening, were surprised at how well he spoke. But they also said, "Isn't this Joseph's son, the one we've known since he was a youngster?"

<sup>23</sup> He answered, "I suppose you're going to quote the proverb, 'Doctor, go heal yourself. Do here in your hometown what we heard you did in Capernaum.'

<sup>24</sup> Well, let me tell you something: No prophet is ever welcomed in his hometown.

<sup>25</sup> Isn't it a fact that there were many widows in Israel at the time of Elijah during that three and a half years of drought when famine devastated the land, <sup>26</sup> but the only widow to whom Elijah was sent was in Sarepta in Sidon?

<sup>28</sup> That set everyone in the meeting place seething with anger.

<sup>30</sup> but he gave them the slip and was on his way.

<sup>31</sup> He went down to Capernaum, a village in Galilee. He was teaching the people on the Sabbath.

<sup>32</sup> They were surprised and impressed--his teaching was so forthright, so confident, so authoritative, not the quibbling and quoting they were used to.

<sup>33</sup> In the meeting place that day there was a man demonically disturbed. He screamed,

<sup>38</sup> He left the meeting place and went to Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was running a high fever and they asked him to do something for her.

<sup>39</sup> He stood over her, told the fever to leave--and it left. Before they knew it, she was up getting dinner for them.

<sup>40</sup> When the sun went down, everyone who had anyone sick with some ailment or other brought them to him. One by one he placed his hands on them and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> Demons left in droves, screaming, "Son of God! You're the Son of God!" But he shut them up, refusing to let them speak because they knew too much, knew him to be the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup> He left the next day for open country. But the crowds went looking and, when they found him, clung to him so he couldn't go on.

<sup>43</sup> He told them, "Don't you realize that there are yet other villages where I have to tell the Message of God's kingdom, that this is the work God sent me to do?"

5 <sup>1</sup> Once when he was standing on the shore of Lake Gennesaret, the crowd was pushing in on him to better hear the Word of God.

<sup>3</sup> He climbed into the boat that was Simon's and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Sitting there, using the boat for a pulpit, he taught the crowd.

<sup>4</sup> When he finished teaching, he said to Simon, "Push out into deep water and let your nets out for a catch."

<sup>6</sup> It was no sooner said than done--a huge haul of fish, straining the nets past capacity.

<sup>7</sup> They waved to their partners in the other boat to come help them. They filled both boats, nearly swamping them with the catch.

<sup>9</sup> When they pulled in that catch of fish, awe overwhelmed Simon and everyone with him.

<sup>10</sup> It was the same with James and John, Zebedee's sons, coworkers with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "There is nothing to fear. From now on you'll be fishing for men and women."

<sup>12</sup> One day in one of the villages there was a man covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus he fell down before him in prayer and said, "If you want to, you can cleanse me."

<sup>13</sup> Jesus put out his hand, touched him, and said, "I want to. Be clean." Then and there his skin was smooth, the leprosy gone.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus instructed him, "Don't talk about this all over town. Just quietly present your healed self to the priest, along with the offering ordered by Moses. Your cleansed and obedient life, not your words, will bear witness to what I have done."

<sup>15</sup> But the man couldn't keep it to himself, and the word got out. Soon a large crowd of people had gathered to listen and be healed of their ailments.

<sup>16</sup> As often as possible Jesus withdrew to out-of-the-way places for prayer.

<sup>17</sup> One day as he was teaching, Pharisees and religion teachers were sitting around. They had come from nearly every village in Galilee and Judea, even as far away as Jerusalem, to be there. The healing power of God was on him.

<sup>21</sup> That set the religion scholars and Pharisees buzzing. "Who does he think he is? That's blasphemous talk! God and only God can forgive sins."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus knew exactly what they were thinking and said, "Why all this gossipy whispering?"

<sup>23</sup> Which is simpler: to say 'I forgive your sins,' or to say 'Get up and start walking'?

<sup>24</sup> Well, just so it's clear that I'm the Son of Man and authorized to do either, or both. ... "He now spoke directly to the paraplegic: "Get up. Take your bedroll and go home."

<sup>25</sup> Without a moment's hesitation, he did it--got up, took his blanket, and left for home, giving glory to God all the way.

<sup>26</sup> The people rubbed their eyes, incredulous--and then also gave glory to God. Awestruck, they said, "We've never seen anything like that!"

<sup>28</sup> And he did--walked away from everything and went with him.

<sup>29</sup> Levi gave a large dinner at his home for Jesus. Everybody was there, tax men and other disreputable characters as guests at the dinner.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus heard about it and spoke up, "Who needs a doctor: the healthy or the sick?"

<sup>33</sup> They asked him, "John's disciples are well-known for keeping fasts and saying prayers. Also the Pharisees. But you seem to spend most of your time at parties. Why?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "When you're celebrating a wedding, you don't skimp on the cake and wine. You feast. Later you may need to pull in your belt, but this isn't the time. As long as the bride and groom are with you, you have a good time.

6<sup>1</sup> On a certain Sabbath Jesus was walking through a field of ripe grain. His disciples were pulling off heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands to get rid of the chaff, and eating them.

<sup>2</sup> Some Pharisees said, "Why are you doing that, breaking a Sabbath rule?"

<sup>3</sup> But Jesus stood up for them. "Have you never read what David and those with him did when they were hungry?"

<sup>4</sup> How he entered the sanctuary and ate fresh bread off the altar, bread that no one but priests were allowed to eat? He also handed it out to his companions."

<sup>5</sup> Then he said, "The Son of Man is no slave to the Sabbath; he's in charge."

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath he went to the meeting place and taught. There was a man there with a crippled right hand.

<sup>7</sup> The religion scholars and Pharisees had their eye on Jesus to see if he would heal the man, hoping to catch him in a Sabbath infraction.

<sup>8</sup> He knew what they were up to and spoke to the man with the crippled hand: "Get up and stand here before us." He did.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus addressed them, "Let me ask you something: What kind of action suits the Sabbath best? Doing good or doing evil? Helping people or leaving them helpless?"

<sup>10</sup> He looked around, looked each one in the eye. He said to the man, "Hold out your hand." He held it out--it was as good as new!

<sup>11</sup> They were beside themselves with anger, and started plotting how they might get even with him.

<sup>12</sup> At about that same time he climbed a mountain to pray. He was there all night in prayer before God.

<sup>18</sup> They had come both to hear him and to be cured of their ailments. Those disturbed by evil spirits were healed.

<sup>19</sup> Everyone was trying to touch him--so much energy surging from him, so many people healed!

<sup>20</sup> Then he spoke: You're blessed when you've lost it all. God's kingdom is there for the finding.

<sup>21</sup> You're blessed when you're ravenously hungry. Then you're ready for the Messianic meal. You're blessed when the tears flow freely. Joy comes with the morning.

<sup>22</sup> "Count yourself blessed every time someone cuts you down or throws you out, every time someone smears or blackens your name to discredit me. What it means is that the truth is too close for comfort and that that person is uncomfortable.

<sup>23</sup> You can be glad when that happens--skip like a lamb, if you like!--for even though they don't like it, I do...and all heaven applauds. And know that you are in good company; my preachers and witnesses have always been treated like this.

<sup>24</sup> But it's trouble ahead if you think you have it made. What you have is all you'll ever get.

<sup>25</sup> And it's trouble ahead if you're satisfied with yourself. Your [self] will not satisfy you for long. And it's trouble ahead if you think life's all fun and games. There's suffering to be met, and you're going to meet it.

<sup>26</sup> "There's trouble ahead when you live only for the approval of others, saying what flatters them, doing what indulges them. Popularity contests are not truth contests--look how many scoundrel preachers were approved by your ancestors! Your task is to be true, not popular.

<sup>27</sup> "To you who are ready for the truth, I say this: Love your enemies. Let them bring out the best in you, not the worst.

<sup>28</sup> When someone gives you a hard time, respond with the energies of prayer for that person.

<sup>29</sup> If someone slaps you in the face, stand there and take it. If someone grabs your shirt, giftwrap your best coat and make a present of it.

<sup>30</sup> If someone takes unfair advantage of you, use the occasion to practice the servant life. No more tit-for-tat stuff. Live generously.

<sup>31</sup> "Here is a simple rule of thumb for behavior: Ask yourself what you want people to do for you; then grab the initiative and do it for them!

<sup>32</sup> If you only love the lovable, do you expect a pat on the back? Run-of-the-mill sinners do that.

<sup>33</sup> If you only help those who help you, do you expect a medal? Garden-variety sinners do that.

<sup>34</sup> If you only give for what you hope to get out of it, do you think that's charity? The stingiest of pawnbrokers does that.

<sup>35</sup> "I tell you, love your enemies. Help and give without expecting a return. You'll never--I promise--regret it. Live out this God-created identity the way our Father lives toward us, generously and graciously, even when we're at our worst.

<sup>36</sup> Our Father is kind; you be kind.

<sup>40</sup> An apprentice doesn't lecture the master. The point is to be careful who you follow as your teacher.

<sup>41</sup> "It's easy to see a smudge on your neighbor's face and be oblivious to the ugly sneer on your own.

<sup>42</sup> Do you have the nerve to say, 'Let me wash your face for you,' when your own face is distorted by contempt? It's this I-know-better-than-you mentality again, playing a holier-than-thou part instead of just living your own part. Wipe that ugly sneer off your own face and you might be fit to offer a washcloth to your neighbor.

<sup>45</sup> It's who you are, not what you say and do, that counts. Your true being brims over into true words and deeds.

<sup>46</sup> "Why are you so polite with me, always saying 'Yes, sir,' and 'That's right, sir,' but never doing a thing I tell you?"

<sup>47</sup> These words I speak to you are not mere additions to your life, homeowner improvements to your standard of living. They are foundation words, words to build a life on.

<sup>48</sup> "If you work the words into your life, you are like a smart carpenter who dug deep and laid the foundation of his house on bedrock. When the river burst its banks and crashed against the house, nothing could shake it; it was built to last.

<sup>49</sup> But if you just use my words in Bible studies and don't work them into your life, you are like a dumb carpenter who built a house but skipped the foundation. When the swollen river came crashing in, it collapsed like a house of cards. It was a total loss."

7<sup>1</sup> When he finished speaking to the people, he entered Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup> A Roman captain there had a servant who was on his deathbed. He prized him highly and didn't want to lose him.

<sup>3</sup> When he heard Jesus was back, he sent leaders from the Jewish community asking him to come and heal his servant.

<sup>4</sup> They came to Jesus and urged him to do it, saying, "He deserves this.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus went with them. When he was still quite far from the house, the captain sent friends to tell him, "Master, you don't have to go to all this trouble. I'm not that good a person, you know. I'd be embarrassed for you to come to my house, <sup>7</sup> even embarrassed to come to you in person. Just give the order and my servant will get well.

<sup>8</sup> I'm a man under orders; I also give orders. I tell one soldier, 'Go,' and he goes; another, 'Come,' and he comes; my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>9</sup> Taken aback, Jesus addressed the accompanying crowd: "I've yet to come across this kind of simple trust anywhere in Israel, the very people who are supposed to know about God and how he works."

<sup>10</sup> When the messengers got back home, they found the servant up and well.

<sup>11</sup> Not long after that, Jesus went to the village Nain. His disciples were with him, along with quite a large crowd.

<sup>12</sup> As they approached the village gate, they met a funeral procession--a woman's only son was being carried out for burial. And the mother was a widow.

<sup>14</sup> Then he went over and touched the coffin. The pallbearers stopped. He said, "Young man, I tell you: Get up."

<sup>15</sup> The dead son sat up and began talking. Jesus presented him to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> They all realized they were in a place of holy mystery, that God was at work among them. They were quietly worshipful--and then noisily grateful, calling out among themselves, "God is back, looking to the needs of his people!"

<sup>17</sup> The news of Jesus spread all through the country.

<sup>18</sup> John's disciples reported back to him the news of all these events taking place.

<sup>19</sup> He sent two of them to the Master to ask the question, "Are you the One we've been expecting, or are we still waiting?"

<sup>20</sup> The men showed up before Jesus and said, "John the Baptizer sent us to ask you, 'Are you the One we've been expecting, or are we still waiting?'"

<sup>21</sup> In the next two or three hours Jesus healed many from diseases, distress, and evil spirits. To many of the blind he gave the gift of sight.

<sup>22</sup> Then he gave his answer: "Go back and tell John what you have just seen and heard: The blind see, The lame walk, Lepers are cleansed, The deaf hear, The dead are raised, The wretched of the earth have God's salvation hospitality extended to them.

<sup>27</sup> He is the messenger Malachi announced when he wrote, I'm sending my messenger on ahead To make the road smooth for you.

<sup>28</sup> "Let me lay it out for you as plainly as I can: No one in history surpasses John the Baptizer, but in the kingdom he prepared you for, the lowliest person is ahead of him.

<sup>30</sup> the Pharisees and religious officials would have nothing to do with such a baptism, wouldn't think of giving up their place in line to their inferiors.

<sup>31</sup> "How can I account for the people of this generation?

<sup>32</sup> They're like spoiled children complaining to their parents, 'We wanted to skip rope and you were always too tired; we wanted to talk but you were always too busy.'

<sup>37</sup> Just then a woman of the village, the town harlot, having learned that Jesus was a guest in the home of the Pharisee, came with a bottle of very expensive perfume

<sup>38</sup> and stood at his feet, weeping, raining tears on his feet. Letting down her hair, she dried his feet, kissed them, and anointed them with the perfume.

<sup>39</sup> When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man was the prophet I thought he was, he would have known what kind of woman this is who is falling all over him."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." "Oh? Tell me."

<sup>41</sup> "Two men were in debt to a banker. One owed five hundred silver pieces, the other fifty.

<sup>42</sup> Neither of them could pay up, and so the banker canceled both debts. Which of the two would be more grateful?"

<sup>44</sup> Then turning to the woman, but speaking to Simon, he said, "Do you see this woman? I came to your home; you provided no water for my feet, but she rained tears on my feet and dried them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup> You gave me no greeting, but from the time I arrived she hasn't quit kissing my feet.

<sup>46</sup> You provided nothing for freshening up, but she has soothed my feet with perfume.

<sup>47</sup> Impressive, isn't it? She was forgiven many, many sins, and so she is very, very grateful. If the forgiveness is minimal, the gratitude is minimal."

<sup>50</sup> He ignored them and said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

8 <sup>1</sup> He continued according to plan, traveled to town after town, village after village, preaching God's kingdom, spreading the Message. The Twelve were with him.

<sup>2</sup> There were also some women in their company who had been healed of various evil afflictions and illnesses: Mary, the one called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;

<sup>6</sup> Other seed fell in the gravel; it sprouted, but withered because it didn't have good roots.

<sup>8</sup> Other seed fell in rich earth and produced a bumper crop. "Are you listening to this? Really listening?"

<sup>9</sup> His disciples asked, "Why did you tell this story?"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "You've been given insight into God's kingdom--you know how it works. There are others who need stories. But even with stories some of them aren't going to get it: Their eyes are open but don't see a thing, Their ears are open but don't hear a thing.

<sup>11</sup> "This story is about some of those people. The seed is the Word of God.

<sup>12</sup> The seeds on the road are those who hear the Word, but no sooner do they hear it than the Devil snatches it from them so they won't believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup> "The seeds in the gravel are those who hear with enthusiasm, but the enthusiasm doesn't go very deep. It's only another fad, and the moment there's trouble it's gone.

<sup>14</sup> "And the seed that fell in the weeds--well, these are the ones who hear, but then the seed is crowded out and nothing comes of it as they go about their lives worrying about tomorrow, making money, and having fun.

<sup>15</sup> "But the seed in the good earth--these are the good-hearts who seize the Word and hold on no matter what, sticking with it until there's a harvest.

<sup>16</sup> "No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a washtub or shoves it under the bed. No, you set it up on a lamp stand so those who enter the room can see their way.

<sup>17</sup> We're not keeping secrets; we're telling them. We're not hiding things; we're bringing everything out into the open.

<sup>19</sup> His mother and brothers showed up but couldn't get through to him because of the crowd.

<sup>20</sup> He was given the message, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside wanting to see you."

<sup>22</sup> One day he and his disciples got in a boat. "Let's cross the lake," he said. And off they went.

<sup>23</sup> It was smooth sailing, and he fell asleep. A terrific storm came up suddenly on the lake. Water poured in, and they were about to capsize.

<sup>24</sup> They woke Jesus: "Master, Master, we're going to drown!" Getting to his feet, he told the wind, "Silence!" and the waves, "Quiet down!" They did it. The lake became smooth as glass.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said to his disciples, "Why can't you trust me?" They were in absolute awe, staggered and stammering, "Who is this, anyway? He calls out to the winds and sea, and they do what he tells them!"

<sup>27</sup> As he stepped out onto land, a madman from town met him; he was a victim of demons. He hadn't worn clothes for a long time, nor lived at home; he lived in the cemetery.

<sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus he screamed, fell before him, and bellowed, "What business do you have messing with me? You're Jesus, Son of the High God, but don't give me a hard time!"

<sup>29</sup> (The man said this because Jesus had started to order the unclean spirit out of him.) Time after time the demon threw the man into convulsions. He had been placed under constant guard and tied with chains and shackles, but crazed and driven wild by the demon, he would shatter the bonds.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" "Mob. My name is Mob," he said, because many demons afflicted him.

<sup>31</sup> And they begged Jesus desperately not to order them to the bottomless pit.

<sup>32</sup> A large herd of pigs was browsing and rooting on a nearby hill. The demons begged Jesus to order them into the pigs. He gave the order.

<sup>34</sup> Those tending the pigs, scared to death, bolted and told their story in town and country.

<sup>35</sup> People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had been sent, sitting there at Jesus' feet, wearing decent clothes and making sense. It was a holy moment, and for a short time they were more reverent than curious.

<sup>36</sup> Then those who had seen it happen told how the demoniac had been saved.

<sup>37</sup> Later, a great many people from the Gerasene countryside got together and asked Jesus to leave--too much change, too fast, and they were scared. So Jesus got back in the boat and set off.

<sup>38</sup> The man whom he had delivered from the demons asked to go with him, but he sent him back, saying, <sup>39</sup> "Go home and tell everything God did in you." So he went back and preached all over town everything Jesus had done in him.

<sup>40</sup> On his return, Jesus was welcomed by a crowd. They were all there expecting him.

<sup>41</sup> A man came up, Jairus by name. He was president of the meeting place. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his home

<sup>42</sup> because his twelve-year-old daughter, his only child, was dying. Jesus went with him, making his way through the pushing, jostling crowd.

<sup>43</sup> In the crowd that day there was a woman who for twelve years had been afflicted with hemorrhages. She had spent every penny she had on doctors but not one had been able to help her.

<sup>44</sup> She slipped in from behind and touched the edge of Jesus' robe. At that very moment her hemorrhaging stopped.

<sup>45</sup> Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When no one stepped forward, Peter said, "But Master, we've got crowds of people on our hands. Dozens have touched you."

<sup>47</sup> When the woman realized that she couldn't remain hidden, she knelt trembling before him. In front of all the people, she blurted out her story--why she touched him and how at that same moment she was healed.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said, "Daughter, you took a risk trusting me, and now you're healed and whole. Live well, live blessed!"

<sup>49</sup> While he was still talking, someone from the leader's house came up and told him, "Your daughter died. No need now to bother the Teacher."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus overheard and said, "Don't be upset. Just trust me and everything will be all right."

<sup>55</sup> She was up in an instant, up and breathing again! He told them to give her something to eat.

<sup>56</sup> Her parents were ecstatic, but Jesus warned them to keep quiet. "Don't tell a soul what happened in this room."

9<sup>1</sup> Jesus now called the Twelve and gave them authority and power to deal with all the demons and cure diseases.

<sup>2</sup> He commissioned them to preach the news of God's kingdom and heal the sick.

<sup>5</sup> If you're not welcomed, leave town. Don't make a scene. Shrug your shoulders and move on."

<sup>7</sup> Herod, the ruler, heard of these goings on and didn't know what to think. There were people saying John had come back from the dead, <sup>8</sup> others that Elijah had appeared, still others that some prophet of long ago had shown up.

<sup>9</sup> Herod said, "But I killed John--took off his head. So who is this that I keep hearing about?" Curious, he looked for a chance to see him in action.

<sup>10</sup> The apostles returned and reported on what they had done. Jesus took them away, off by themselves, near the town called Bethsaida.

<sup>11</sup> But the crowds got wind of it and followed. Jesus graciously welcomed them and talked to them about the kingdom of God. Those who needed healing, he healed.

<sup>12</sup> As the day declined, the Twelve said, "Dismiss the crowd so they can go to the farms or villages around here and get a room for the night and a bite to eat. We're out in the middle of nowhere."

<sup>13</sup> "You feed them," Jesus said. They said, "We couldn't scrape up more than five loaves of bread and a couple of fish--unless, of course, you want us to go to town ourselves and buy food for everybody."

<sup>14</sup> (There were more than five thousand people in the crowd.) But he went ahead and directed his disciples, "Sit them down in groups of about fifty."

<sup>15</sup> They did what he said, and soon had everyone seated.

<sup>16</sup> He took the five loaves and two fish, lifted his face to heaven in prayer, blessed, broke, and gave the bread and fish to the disciples to hand out to the crowd.

<sup>17</sup> After the people had all eaten their fill, twelve baskets of leftovers were gathered up.

<sup>18</sup> One time when Jesus was off praying by himself, his disciples nearby, he asked them, "What are the crowds saying about me, about who I am?"

<sup>20</sup> He then asked, "And you--what are you saying about me? Who am I?" Peter answered, "The Messiah of God."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus then warned them to keep it quiet. They were to tell no one what Peter had said.

<sup>22</sup> He went on, "It is necessary that the Son of Man proceed to an ordeal of suffering, be tried and found guilty by the religious leaders, high priests, and religion scholars, be killed, and on the third day be raised up alive."

<sup>23</sup> Then he told them what they could expect for themselves: "Anyone who intends to come with me has to let me lead. You're not in the driver's seat--I am. Don't run from suffering; embrace it. Follow me and I'll show you how.

<sup>24</sup> Self-help is no help at all. Self-sacrifice is the way, my way, to finding yourself, your true self.

<sup>25</sup> What good would it do to get everything you want and lose you, the real you?

<sup>26</sup> If any of you is embarrassed with me and the way I'm leading you, know that the Son of Man will be far more embarrassed with you when he arrives in all his splendor in company with the Father and the holy angels. This isn't, you realize, pie in the sky by and by.

<sup>28</sup> About eight days after saying this, he climbed the mountain to pray, taking Peter, John, and James along.

<sup>29</sup> While he was in prayer, the appearance of his face changed and his clothes became blinding white.

<sup>30</sup> At once two men were there talking with him. They turned out to be Moses and Elijah--

<sup>31</sup> and what a glorious appearance they made! They talked over his exodus, the one Jesus was about to complete in Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Meanwhile, Peter and those with him were slumped over in sleep. When they came to, rubbing their eyes, they saw Jesus in his glory and the two men standing with him.

<sup>35</sup> Then there was a voice out of the cloud: "This is my Son, the Chosen! Listen to him."

<sup>37</sup> When they came down off the mountain the next day, a big crowd was there to meet them.

<sup>38</sup> A man called from out of the crowd, "Please, please, Teacher, take a look at my son. He's my only child.

<sup>40</sup> I asked your disciples to deliver him but they couldn't."

<sup>42</sup> While he was coming, the demon slammed him to the ground and threw him into convulsions. Jesus stepped in, ordered the vile spirit gone, healed the boy, and handed him back to his father.

<sup>44</sup> "Treasure and ponder each of these next words: The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into human hands."

<sup>45</sup> They didn't get what he was saying. It was like he was speaking a foreign language and they couldn't make heads or tails of it. But they were embarrassed to ask him what he meant.

<sup>48</sup> "Whoever accepts this child as if the child were me, accepts me," he said.

"And whoever accepts me, accepts the One who sent me. You become great by accepting, not asserting. Your spirit, not your size, makes the difference."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said, "Don't stop him. If he's not an enemy, he's an ally."

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers on ahead. They came to a Samaritan village to make arrangements for his hospitality.

<sup>54</sup> When the disciples James and John learned of it, they said, "Master, do you want us to call a bolt of lightning down out of the sky and incinerate them?"

<sup>57</sup> On the road someone asked if he could go along. "I'll go with you, wherever," he said.

<sup>59</sup> Jesus said to another, "Follow me." He said, "Certainly, but first excuse me for a couple of days, please. I have to make arrangements for my father's funeral."

<sup>60</sup> Jesus refused. "First things first. Your business is life, not death. And life is urgent: Announce God's kingdom!"

10 <sup>1</sup> Later the Master selected seventy and sent them ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he intended to go.

make small talk with everyone you meet along the way.

<sup>6</sup> If your greeting is received, then it's a good place to stay. But if it's not received, take it back and get out. Don't impose yourself.

<sup>7</sup> "Stay at one home, taking your meals there, for a worker deserves three square meals. Don't move from house to house, looking for the best cook in town.

<sup>8</sup> "When you enter a town and are received, eat what they set before you,

<sup>9</sup> heal anyone who is sick, and tell them, 'God's kingdom is right on your doorstep!'

<sup>10</sup> "When you enter a town and are not received, go out in the street and say,

<sup>11</sup> 'The only thing we got from you is the dirt on our feet, and we're giving it back. Did you have any idea that God's kingdom was right on your doorstep?'

<sup>12</sup> Sodom will have it better on Judgment Day than the town that rejects you.

<sup>13</sup> "Doom, Chorazin! Doom, Bethsaida! If Tyre and Sidon had been given half the chances given you, they'd have been on their knees long ago, repenting and crying for mercy.

<sup>14</sup> Tyre and Sidon will have it easy on Judgment Day compared to you.

<sup>15</sup> "And you, Capernaum! Do you think you're about to be promoted to heaven? Think again. You're on a mud slide to hell.

<sup>16</sup> "The one who listens to you, listens to me. The one who rejects you, rejects me. And rejecting me is the same as rejecting God, who sent me."

<sup>19</sup> See what I've given you? Safe passage as you walk on snakes and scorpions, and protection from every assault of the Enemy. No one can put a hand on you.

<sup>20</sup> All the same, the great triumph is not in your authority over evil, but in God's authority over you and presence with you. Not what you do for God but what God does for you--that's the agenda for rejoicing."

<sup>21</sup> At that, Jesus rejoiced, exuberant in the Holy Spirit. "I thank you, Father, Master of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the know-it-alls and showed them to these innocent newcomers. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

<sup>22</sup> "I've been given it all by my Father! Only the Father knows who the Son is and only the Son knows who the Father is. The Son can introduce the Father to anyone he wants to."

<sup>23</sup> He then turned in a private aside to his disciples. "Fortunate the eyes that see what you're seeing!

<sup>24</sup> There are plenty of prophets and kings who would have given their right arm to see what you are seeing but never got so much as a glimpse, to hear what you are hearing but never got so much as a whisper."

<sup>27</sup> He said, "That you love the Lord your God with all your passion and prayer and muscle and intelligence--and that you love your neighbor as well as you do yourself."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered by telling a story. "There was once a man traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way he was attacked by robbers. They took his clothes, beat him up, and went off leaving him half-dead.

<sup>33</sup> "A Samaritan traveling the road came on him. When he saw the man's condition, his heart went out to him.

<sup>34</sup> He gave him first aid, disinfecting and bandaging his wounds. Then he lifted him onto his donkey, led him to an inn, and made him comfortable.

<sup>35</sup> In the morning he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take good care of him. If it costs any more, put it on my bill--I'll pay you on my way back.'

<sup>36</sup> "What do you think? Which of the three became a neighbor to the man attacked by robbers?"

<sup>39</sup> She had a sister, Mary, who sat before the Master, hanging on every word he said.

<sup>40</sup> But Martha was pulled away by all she had to do in the kitchen. Later, she stepped in, interrupting them.

"Master, don't you care that my sister has abandoned the kitchen to me? Tell her to lend me a hand."

11 <sup>1</sup> One day he was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said, "Master, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup> So he said, "When you pray, say, Father, Reveal who you are. Set the world right."

<sup>5</sup> Then he said, "Imagine what would happen if you went to a friend in the middle of the night and said, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread.

<sup>6</sup> An old friend traveling through just showed up, and I don't have a thing on hand.'

<sup>8</sup> "But let me tell you, even if he won't get up because he's a friend, if you stand your ground, knocking and waking all the neighbors, he'll finally get up and get you whatever you need.

<sup>9</sup> "Here's what I'm saying: Ask and you'll get; Seek and you'll find; Knock and the door will open.

<sup>11</sup> If your little boy asks for a serving of fish, do you scare him with a live snake on his plate?

<sup>15</sup> But some from the crowd were cynical. "Black magic," they said. "Some devil trick he's pulled from his sleeve."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus knew what they were thinking and said, "Any country in civil war for very long is wasted. A constantly squabbling family falls to pieces.

<sup>18</sup> If Satan cancels Satan, is there any Satan left? You accuse me of ganging up with the Devil, the prince of demons, to cast out demons, <sup>19</sup> but if you're slinging devil mud at me, calling me a devil who kicks out devils, doesn't the same mud stick to your own exorcists?

<sup>21</sup> "When a strong man, armed to the teeth, stands guard in his front yard, his property is safe and sound.

<sup>22</sup> But what if a stronger man comes along with superior weapons? Then he's beaten at his own game, the arsenal that gave him such confidence hauled off, and his precious possessions plundered.

<sup>24</sup> "When a corrupting spirit is expelled from someone, it drifts along through the desert looking for an oasis, some unsuspecting soul it can bedevil. When it doesn't find anyone, it says, 'I'll go back to my old haunt.'

<sup>26</sup> It then runs out and rounds up seven other spirits dirtier than itself and they all move in, whooping it up. That person ends up far worse than if he'd never gotten cleaned up in the first place."

<sup>33</sup> "No one lights a lamp, then hides it in a drawer. It's put on a lamp stand so those entering the room have light to see where they're going.

<sup>34</sup> Your eye is a lamp, lighting up your whole body. If you live wide-eyed in wonder and belief, your body fills up with light. If you live squinty-eyed in greed and distrust, your body is a dank cellar.

<sup>38</sup> The Pharisee was shocked and somewhat offended when he saw that Jesus didn't wash up before the meal.

<sup>39</sup> But the Master said to him, "I know you Pharisees burnish the surface of your cups and plates so they sparkle in the sun, but I also know your insides are maggoty with greed and secret evil.

<sup>40</sup> Stupid Pharisees! Didn't the One who made the outside also make the inside?

<sup>41</sup> Turn both your pockets and your hearts inside out and give generously to the poor; then your lives will be clean, not just your dishes and your hands.

<sup>42</sup> "I've had it with you! You're hopeless, you Pharisees! Frauds! You keep meticulous account books, tithing on every nickel and dime you get, but manage to find loopholes for getting around basic matters of justice and God's love. Careful bookkeeping is commendable, but the basics are required.

<sup>46</sup> He said, "Yes, and I can be even more explicit. You're hopeless, you religion scholars! You load people down with rules and regulations, nearly breaking their backs, but never lift even a finger to help.

<sup>50</sup> What it means is that every drop of righteous blood ever spilled from the time earth began until now, .

<sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was struck down between altar and sanctuary, is on your heads. Yes, it's on the bill of this generation and this generation will pay.

12 <sup>1</sup> By this time the crowd, unwieldy and stepping on each other's toes, numbered into the thousands. But Jesus' primary concern was his disciples. He said to them, "Watch yourselves carefully so you don't get contaminated with Pharisee yeast, Pharisee phoniness.

<sup>3</sup> You can't whisper one thing in private and preach the opposite in public; the day's coming when those whispers will be repeated all over town.

<sup>4</sup> "I'm speaking to you as dear friends. Don't be bluffed into silence or insincerity by the threats of religious bullies. True, they can kill you, but then what can they do? There's nothing they can do to your soul, your core being.

<sup>5</sup> Save your fear for God, who holds your entire life--body and soul--in his hands.

<sup>6</sup> "What's the price of two or three pet canaries? Some loose change, right? But God never overlooks a single one.

<sup>7</sup> And he pays even greater attention to you, down to the last detail--even numbering the hairs on your head! So don't be intimidated by all this bully talk. You're worth more than a million canaries.

<sup>8</sup> "Stand up for me among the people you meet and the Son of Man will stand up for you before all God's angels.

<sup>9</sup> But if you pretend you don't know me, do you think I'll defend you before God's angels?

<sup>10</sup> "If you bad-mouth the Son of Man out of misunderstanding or ignorance, that can be overlooked. But if you're knowingly attacking God himself, taking aim at the Holy Spirit, that won't be overlooked.

<sup>12</sup> The right words will be there. The Holy Spirit will give you the right words when the time comes."

<sup>14</sup> He replied, "Mister, what makes you think it's any of my business to be a judge or mediator for you?"

<sup>15</sup> Speaking to the people, he went on, "Take care! Protect yourself against the least bit of greed. Life is not defined by what you have, even when you have a lot."

<sup>16</sup> Then he told them this story: "The farm of a certain rich man produced a terrific crop.

<sup>17</sup> He talked to himself: 'What can I do? My barn isn't big enough for this harvest.'

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, 'Here's what I'll do: I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I'll gather in all my grain and goods,

<sup>19</sup> and I'll say to myself, Self, you've done well! You've got it made and can now retire. Take it easy and have the time of your life!'

<sup>20</sup> "Just then God showed up and said, 'Fool! Tonight you die. And your barnful of goods--who gets it?'

<sup>23</sup> There is far more to your inner life than the food you put in your stomach, more to your outer appearance than the clothes you hang on your body.

<sup>24</sup> Look at the ravens, free and unfettered, not tied down to a job description, carefree in the care of God. And you count far more.

<sup>25</sup> "Has anyone by fussing before the mirror ever gotten taller by so much as an inch?

<sup>28</sup> If God gives such attention to the wildflowers, most of them never even seen, don't you think he'll attend to you, take pride in you, do his best for you?

<sup>29</sup> "What I'm trying to do here is get you to relax, not be so preoccupied with getting so you can respond to God's giving.

<sup>30</sup> People who don't know God and the way he works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how he works.

<sup>34</sup> It's obvious, isn't it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being.

<sup>38</sup> It doesn't matter what time of the night he arrives; they're awake--and so blessed!

<sup>39</sup> "You know that if the house owner had known what night the burglar was coming, he wouldn't have stayed out late and left the place unlocked.

<sup>40</sup> So don't you be slovenly and careless. Just when you don't expect him, the Son of Man will show up."

<sup>41</sup> Peter said, "Master, are you telling this story just for us? Or is it for everybody?"

<sup>42</sup> The Master said, "Let me ask you: Who is the dependable manager, full of common sense, that the master puts in charge of his staff to feed them well and on time?"

<sup>46</sup> the master will walk in when he least expects it, give him the thrashing of his life, and put him back in the kitchen peeling potatoes.

<sup>47</sup> "The servant who knows what his master wants and ignores it, or insolently does whatever he pleases, will be thoroughly thrashed.

<sup>49</sup> "I've come to start a fire on this earth--how I wish it were blazing right now!

<sup>50</sup> I've come to change everything, turn everything rightside up--how I long for it to be finished!

<sup>51</sup> Do you think I came to smooth things over and make everything nice? Not so. I've come to disrupt and confront!

<sup>52</sup> From now on, when you find five in a house, it will be--Three against two, and two against three;

<sup>53</sup> Father against son, and son against father; Mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; Mother-in-law against bride, and bride against mother-in-law."

<sup>55</sup> And when the wind comes out of the south, you say, 'This'll be a hot one'--and you're right.

<sup>56</sup> Frauds! You know how to tell a change in the weather, so don't tell me you can't tell a change in the season, the God-season we're in right now.

<sup>57</sup> "You don't have to be a genius to understand these things. Just use your common sense,

<sup>58</sup> the kind you'd use if, while being taken to court, you decided to settle up with your accuser on the way, knowing that if the case went to the judge you'd probably go to jail

<sup>59</sup> and pay every last penny of the fine. That's the kind of decision I'm asking you to make."

13 <sup>1</sup> About that time some people came up and told him about the Galileans Pilate had killed while they were at worship, mixing their blood with the blood of the sacrifices on the altar.

<sup>4</sup> And those eighteen in Jerusalem the other day, the ones crushed and killed when the Tower of Siloam collapsed and fell on them, do you think they were worse citizens than all other Jerusalemites?

<sup>6</sup> Then he told them a story: "A man had an apple tree planted in his front yard. He came to it expecting to find apples, but there weren't any.

<sup>7</sup> He said to his gardener, 'What's going on here? For three years now I've come to this tree expecting apples and not one apple have I found. Chop it down! Why waste good ground with it any longer?'

<sup>8</sup> "The gardener said, 'Let's give it another year. I'll dig around it and fertilize, <sup>9</sup> and maybe it will produce next year; if it doesn't, then chop it down.'"

<sup>10</sup> He was teaching in one of the meeting places on the Sabbath.

<sup>11</sup> There was a woman present, so twisted and bent over with arthritis that she couldn't even look up. She had been afflicted with this for eighteen years.

<sup>13</sup> He laid hands on her and suddenly she was standing straight and tall, giving glory to God.

<sup>14</sup> The meeting-place president, furious because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the congregation, "Six days have been defined as work days. Come on one of the six if you want to be healed, but not on the seventh, the Sabbath."

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus shot back, "You frauds! Each Sabbath every one of you regularly unties your cow or donkey from its stall, leads it out for water, and thinks nothing of it.

<sup>16</sup> So why isn't it all right for me to untie this daughter of Abraham and lead her from the stall where Satan has had her tied these eighteen years?"

faced. The congregation was delighted and cheered him on.

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, "How can I picture God's kingdom for you? What kind of story can I use?"

<sup>23</sup> A bystander said, "Master, will only a few be saved?" He said,

<sup>24</sup> "Whether few or many is none of your business. Put your mind on your life with God. The way to life--to

God!--is vigorous and requires your total attention. A lot of you are going to assume that you'll sit down to God's salvation banquet just because you've been hanging around the neighborhood all your lives.

<sup>25</sup> Well, one day you're going to be banging on the door, wanting to get in, but you'll find the door locked and the Master saying, 'Sorry, you're not on my guest list.'

<sup>29</sup> You'll watch outsiders stream in from east, west, north, and south and sit down at the table of God's kingdom. And all the time you'll be outside looking in--and wondering what happened.

<sup>30</sup> This is the Great Reversal: the last in line put at the head of the line, and the so-called first ending up last.

<sup>31</sup> Just then some Pharisees came up and said, "Run for your life! Herod's on the hunt. He's out to kill you!"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "Tell that fox that I've no time for him right now. Today and tomorrow I'm busy clearing out the demons and healing the sick; the third day I'm wrapping things up.

<sup>33</sup> Besides, it's not proper for a prophet to come to a bad end outside Jerusalem.

like a hen, Her brood safe under her wings--but you refused and turned away!

<sup>35</sup> And now it's too late: You won't see me again until the day you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of God.'

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus asked the religion scholars and Pharisees present, "Is it permitted to heal on the Sabbath? Yes or no?"

<sup>4</sup> They were silent. So he took the man, healed him, and sent him on his way.

<sup>5</sup> Then he said, "Is there anyone here who, if a child or animal fell down a well, wouldn't rush to pull him out immediately, not asking whether or not it was the Sabbath?"

<sup>6</sup> They were stumped. There was nothing they could say to that.

<sup>7</sup> He went on to tell a story to the guests around the table. Noticing how each had tried to elbow into the place of honor, he said, <sup>8</sup> "When someone invites you to dinner, don't take the place of honor. Somebody more important than you might have been invited by the host.

<sup>10</sup> "When you're invited to dinner, go and sit at the last place. Then when the host comes he may very well say, 'Friend, come up to the front.' That will give the dinner guests something to talk about!

<sup>11</sup> What I'm saying is, If you walk around with your nose in the air, you're going to end up flat on your face. But if you're content to be simply yourself, you will become more than yourself."

<sup>12</sup> Then he turned to the host. "The next time you put on a dinner, don't just invite your friends and family and rich neighbors, the kind of people who will return the favor.

<sup>14</sup> You'll be--and experience--a blessing. They won't be able to return the favor, but the favor will be returned--oh, how it will be returned!--at the resurrection of God's people."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus followed up. "Yes. For there was once a man who threw a great dinner party and invited many.

<sup>17</sup> When it was time for dinner, he sent out his servant to the invited guests, saying, 'Come on in; the food's on the table.'

<sup>18</sup> "Then they all began to beg off, one after another making excuses. The first said, 'I bought a piece of property and need to look it over. Send my regrets.'

<sup>19</sup> "Another said, 'I just bought five teams of oxen, and I really need to check them out. Send my regrets.'

<sup>20</sup> "And yet another said, 'I just got married and need to get home to my wife.'

<sup>21</sup> "The servant went back and told the master what had happened. He was outraged and told the servant, 'Quickly, get out into the city streets and alleys. Collect all who look like they need a square meal, all the misfits and homeless and wretched you can lay your hands on, and bring them here.'

<sup>22</sup> "The servant reported back, 'Master, I did what you commanded--and there's still room.'

<sup>23</sup> "The master said, 'Then go to the country roads. Whoever you find, drag them in. I want my house full!

<sup>25</sup> One day when large groups of people were walking along with him, Jesus turned and told them, <sup>26</sup> "Anyone who comes to me but refuses to let go of father, mother, spouse, children, brothers, sisters--yes, even one's own self!--can't be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup> "Is there anyone here who, planning to build a new house, doesn't first sit down and figure the cost so you'll know if you can complete it?

<sup>29</sup> If you only get the foundation laid and then run out of money, you're going to look pretty foolish. Everyone passing by will poke fun at you:

<sup>32</sup> And if he decides he can't, won't he send an emissary and work out a truce?

<sup>33</sup> "Simply put, if you're not willing to take what is dearest to you, whether plans or people, and kiss it good-bye, you can't be my disciple.

<sup>34</sup> "Salt is excellent. But if the salt goes flat, it's useless, good for nothing.

<sup>7</sup> Count on it--there's more joy in heaven over one sinner's rescued life than over ninety-nine good people in no need of rescue.

<sup>8</sup> "Or imagine a woman who has ten coins and loses one. Won't she light a lamp and scour the house, looking in every nook and cranny until she finds it?

<sup>9</sup> And when she finds it you can be sure she'll call her friends and neighbors: 'Celebrate with me! I found my lost coin!'

<sup>10</sup> Count on it--that's the kind of party God's angels throw every time one lost soul turns to God."

<sup>11</sup> Then he said, "There was once a man who had two sons.

<sup>12</sup> The younger said to his father, 'Father, I want right now what's coming to me.' "So the father divided the property between them.

<sup>14</sup> After he had gone through all his money, there was a bad famine all through that country and he began to hurt.

<sup>15</sup> He signed on with a citizen there who assigned him to his fields to slop the pigs.

<sup>16</sup> He was so hungry he would have eaten the corncobs in the pig slop, but no one would give him any.

<sup>17</sup> "That brought him to his senses. He said, 'All those farmhands working for my father sit down to three meals a day, and here I am starving to death.'

<sup>18</sup> I'm going back to my father. I'll say to him, Father, I've sinned against God, I've sinned before you;

<sup>19</sup> I don't deserve to be called your son. Take me on as a hired hand.'

<sup>20</sup> He got right up and went home to his father. "When he was still a long way off, his father saw him. His heart pounding, he ran out, embraced him, and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> The son started his speech: 'Father, I've sinned against God, I've sinned before you; I don't deserve to be called your son ever again.'

<sup>22</sup> "But the father wasn't listening. He was calling to the servants, 'Quick. Bring a clean set of clothes and dress him. Put the family ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

<sup>23</sup> Then get a grain-fed heifer and roast it. We're going to feast! We're going to have a wonderful time!

<sup>24</sup> My son is here--given up for dead and now alive! Given up for lost and now found!' And they began to have a wonderful time.

<sup>25</sup> "All this time his older son was out in the field. When the day's work was done he came in. As he approached the house, he heard the music and dancing.

<sup>27</sup> He told him, 'Your brother came home. Your father has ordered a feast--barbecued beef!--because he has him home safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> "The older brother stalked off in an angry sulk and refused to join in. His father came out and tried to talk to him, but he wouldn't listen.

<sup>29</sup> The son said, 'Look how many years I've stayed here serving you, never giving you one moment of grief, but have you ever thrown a party for me and my friends?

<sup>30</sup> Then this son of yours who has thrown away your money on whores shows up and you go all out with a feast!

<sup>31</sup> "His father said, 'Son, you don't understand. You're with me all the time, and everything that is mine is yours--

<sup>32</sup> but this is a wonderful time, and we had to celebrate. This brother of yours was dead, and he's alive! He was lost, and he's found!'"

16 <sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, "There was once a rich man who had a manager. He got reports that the manager had been taking advantage of his position by running up huge personal expenses.

<sup>2</sup> So he called him in and said, 'What's this I hear about you? You're fired. And I want a complete audit of your books.'

<sup>3</sup> "The manager said to himself, 'What am I going to do? I've lost my job as manager. I'm not strong enough for a laboring job, and I'm too proud to beg. ...

<sup>4</sup> Ah, I've got a plan. Here's what I'll do...then when I'm turned out into the street, people will take me into their houses.'

<sup>5</sup> "Then he went at it. One after another, he called in the people who were in debt to his master. He said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

<sup>6</sup> "He replied, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' "The manager said, 'Here, take your bill, sit down here--quick now--write fifty.'

<sup>7</sup> "To the next he said, 'And you, what do you owe?' "He answered, 'A hundred sacks of wheat.' "He said, 'Take your bill, write in eighty.'

<sup>8</sup> "Now here's a surprise: The master praised the crooked manager! And why?

Because he knew how to look after himself. Streetwise people are smarter in this regard than law-abiding citizens. They are on constant alert, looking for angles, surviving by their wits.

<sup>9</sup> I want you to be smart in the same way--but for what is right--using every adversity to stimulate you to creative survival, to concentrate your attention on the bare essentials, so you'll live, really live, and not complacently just get by on good behavior."

<sup>12</sup> If you're not honest in small jobs, who will put you in charge of the store?

<sup>13</sup> No worker can serve two bosses: He'll either hate the first and love the second Or adore the first and despise the second. You can't serve both God and the Bank.

<sup>14</sup> When the Pharisees, a money-obsessed bunch, heard him say these things, they rolled their eyes, dismissing him as hopelessly out of touch.

<sup>15</sup> So Jesus spoke to them: "You are masters at making yourselves look good in front of others, but God knows what's behind the appearance. What society sees and calls monumental, God sees through and calls monstrous.

<sup>16</sup> God's Law and the Prophets climaxed in John; Now it's all kingdom of God--the glad news and compelling invitation to every man and woman.

<sup>17</sup> The sky will disintegrate and the earth dissolve before a single letter of God's Law wears out.

<sup>18</sup> Using the legalities of divorce as a cover for lust is adultery; Using the legalities of marriage as a cover for lust is adultery.

<sup>22</sup> "Then he died, this poor man, and was taken up by the angels to the lap of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>23</sup> In hell and in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham in the distance and Lazarus in his lap.

his finger in water to cool my tongue. I'm in agony in this fire.'

<sup>25</sup> "But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you got the good things and Lazarus the bad things. It's not like that here. Here he's consoled and you're tormented.'

<sup>26</sup> Besides, in all these matters there is a huge chasm set between us so that no one can go from us to you even if he wanted to, nor can anyone cross over from you to us.'

<sup>27</sup> "The rich man said, 'Then let me ask you, Father: Send him to the house of my father

<sup>28</sup> where I have five brothers, so he can tell them the score and warn them so they won't end up here in this place of torment.'

<sup>29</sup> "Abraham answered, 'They have Moses and the Prophets to tell them the score. Let them listen to them.'

<sup>30</sup> "I know, Father Abraham," he said, 'but they're not listening. If someone came back to them from the dead, they would change their ways.'

<sup>31</sup> "Abraham replied, 'If they won't listen to Moses and the Prophets, they're not going to be convinced by someone who rises from the dead.'"

17 <sup>1</sup> He said to his disciples, "Hard trials and temptations are bound to come, but too bad for whoever brings them on!

<sup>2</sup> Better to wear a millstone necklace and take a swim in the deep blue sea than give even one of these dear little ones a hard time!

<sup>3</sup> "Be alert. If you see your friend going wrong, correct him. If he responds, forgive him.

<sup>4</sup> Even if it's personal against you and repeated seven times through the day, and seven times he says, 'I'm sorry, I won't do it again,' forgive him."

<sup>6</sup> But the Master said, "You don't need more faith. There is no 'more' or 'less' in faith. If you have a bare kernel of faith, say the size of a poppy seed, you could say to this sycamore tree, 'Go jump in the lake,' and it would do it."

<sup>7</sup> "Suppose one of you has a servant who comes in from plowing the field or tending the sheep. Would you take his coat, set the table, and say, 'Sit down and eat'?"

<sup>8</sup> Wouldn't you be more likely to say, 'Prepare dinner; change your clothes and wait table for me until I've finished my coffee; then go to the kitchen and have your supper'?"

<sup>9</sup> Does the servant get special thanks for doing what's expected of him?

<sup>10</sup> It's the same with you. When you've done everything expected of you, be matter-of-fact and say, 'The work is done. What we were told to do, we did.'"

<sup>11</sup> It happened that as he made his way toward Jerusalem, he crossed over the border between Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> As he entered a village, ten men, all lepers, met him. They kept their distance

They went, and while still on their way, became clean.

<sup>15</sup> One of them, when he realized that he was healed, turned around and came back, shouting his gratitude, glorifying God.

<sup>16</sup> He kneeled at Jesus' feet, so grateful. He couldn't thank him enough--and he was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Were not ten healed? Where are the nine?"

<sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, "Get up. On your way. Your faith has healed and saved you."

<sup>20</sup> Jesus, grilled by the Pharisees on when the kingdom of God would come, answered, "The kingdom of God doesn't come by counting the days on the calendar.

<sup>22</sup> He went on to say to his disciples, "The days are coming when you are going to be desperately homesick for just a glimpse of one of the days of the Son of Man, and you won't see a thing.

<sup>23</sup> And they'll say to you, 'Look over there!' or, 'Look here!' Don't fall for any of that nonsense.

<sup>24</sup> The arrival of the Son of Man is not something you go out to see. He simply comes. "You know how the whole sky lights up from a single flash of lightning? That's how it will be on the Day of the Son of Man.

<sup>25</sup> But first it's necessary that he suffer many things and be turned down by the people of today.

<sup>28</sup> "It was the same in the time of Lot--the people carrying on, having a good time, business as usual

<sup>30</sup> That's how it will be--sudden, total--when the Son of Man is revealed.

<sup>33</sup> If you grasp and cling to life on your terms, you'll lose it, but if you let that life go, you'll get life on God's terms.

<sup>34</sup> "On that Day, two men will be in the same boat fishing--one taken, the other left.

<sup>37</sup> Trying to take all this in, the disciples said, "Master, where?" He told them,

"Watch for the circling of the vultures. They'll spot the corpse first. The action will begin around my dead body."

18 <sup>1</sup> Jesus told them a story showing that it was necessary for them to pray consistently and never quit.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "There was once a judge in some city who never gave God a thought and cared nothing for people.

<sup>3</sup> A widow in that city kept after him: 'My rights are being violated. Protect me!'

<sup>4</sup> "He never gave her the time of day. But after this went on and on he said to himself, 'I care nothing what God thinks, even less what people think.

<sup>5</sup> But because this widow won't quit badgering me, I'd better do something and see that she gets justice--otherwise I'm going to end up beaten black and blue by her pounding.'"

<sup>6</sup> Then the Master said, "Do you hear what that judge, corrupt as he is, is saying?"

<sup>7</sup> So what makes you think God won't step in and work justice for his chosen people, who continue to cry out for help? Won't he stick up for them?

<sup>8</sup> I assure you, he will. He will not drag his feet. But how much of that kind of persistent faith will the Son of Man find on the earth when he returns?"

<sup>9</sup> He told his next story to some who were complacently pleased with themselves over their moral performance and looked down their noses at the common people:

<sup>10</sup> "Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax man.

<sup>11</sup> The Pharisee posed and prayed like this: 'Oh, God, I thank you that I am not like other people--robbers, crooks, adulterers, or, heaven forbid, like this tax man.

<sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week and tithe on all my income.'

<sup>13</sup> "Meanwhile the tax man, slumped in the shadows, his face in his hands, not daring to look up, said, 'God, give mercy. Forgive me, a sinner.'"

<sup>14</sup> Jesus commented, "This tax man, not the other, went home made right with God. If you walk around with your nose in the air, you're going to end up flat on your face, but if you're content to be simply yourself, you will become more than yourself."

<sup>18</sup> One day one of the local officials asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to deserve eternal life?"

<sup>20</sup> You know the commandments, don't you? No illicit sex, no killing, no stealing, no lying, honor your father and mother."

<sup>21</sup> He said, "I've kept them all for as long as I can remember."

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard that, he said, "Then there's only one thing left to do: Sell everything you own and give it away to the poor. You will have riches in heaven. Then come, follow me."

<sup>23</sup> This was the last thing the official expected to hear. He was very rich and became terribly sad. He was holding on tight to a lot of things and not about to let them go.

<sup>24</sup> Seeing his reaction, Jesus said, "Do you have any idea how difficult it is for people who have it all to enter God's kingdom?"

<sup>25</sup> I'd say it's easier to thread a camel through a needle's eye than get a rich person into God's kingdom."

<sup>26</sup> "Then who has any chance at all?" the others asked.

<sup>27</sup> "No chance at all," Jesus said, "if you think you can pull it off by yourself. Every chance in the world if you trust God to do it."

<sup>29</sup> "Yes," said Jesus, "and you won't regret it. No one who has sacrificed home, spouse, brothers and sisters, parents, children--whatever--

<sup>30</sup> will lose out. It will all come back multiplied many times over in your lifetime. And then the bonus of eternal life!"

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus took the Twelve off to the side and said, "Listen carefully. We're on our way up to Jerusalem. Everything written in the Prophets about the Son of Man will take place.

<sup>32</sup> He will be handed over to the Romans, jeered at, made sport of, and spit on. Then, after giving him the third degree, they will kill him.

<sup>36</sup> When he heard the rustle of the crowd, he asked what was going on.

<sup>39</sup> Those ahead of Jesus told the man to shut up, but he only yelled all the louder, "Son of David! Mercy, have mercy on me!"

<sup>40</sup> Jesus stopped and ordered him to be brought over. When he had come near, Jesus asked,

<sup>41</sup> "What do you want from me?" He said, "Master, I want to see again."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said, "Go ahead--see again! Your faith has saved and healed you!"

<sup>43</sup> The healing was instant: He looked up, seeing--and then followed Jesus, glorifying God. Everyone in the street joined in, shouting praise to God.

19 <sup>1</sup> Then Jesus entered and walked through Jericho.

<sup>2</sup> There was a man there, his name Zacchaeus, the head tax man and quite rich.

<sup>3</sup> He wanted desperately to see Jesus, but the crowd was in his way--he was a short man and couldn't see over the crowd.

<sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead and climbed up in a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus when he came by.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus got to the tree, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry down. Today is my day to be a guest in your home."

<sup>6</sup> Zacchaeus scrambled out of the tree, hardly believing his good luck, delighted to take Jesus home with him.

<sup>7</sup> Everyone who saw the incident was indignant and grumped, "What business does he have getting cozy with this crook?"

<sup>8</sup> Zacchaeus just stood there, a little stunned. He stammered apologetically, "Master, I give away half my income to the poor--and if I'm caught cheating, I pay four times the damages."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said, "Today is salvation day in this home! Here he is: Zacchaeus, son of Abraham!

<sup>11</sup> While he had their attention, and because they were getting close to Jerusalem by this time and expectation was building that God's kingdom would appear any minute, he told this story:

<sup>12</sup> "There was once a man descended from a royal house who needed to make a long trip back to headquarters to get authorization for his rule and then return.

<sup>13</sup> But first he called ten servants together, gave them each a sum of money, and instructed them, 'Operate with this until I return.'

<sup>14</sup> "But the citizens there hated him. So they sent a commission with a signed petition to oppose his rule: 'We don't want this man to rule us.'

<sup>15</sup> "When he came back bringing the authorization of his rule, he called those ten servants to whom he had given the money to find out how they had done.

<sup>19</sup> "He said, 'I'm putting you in charge of five towns.'

<sup>20</sup> "The next servant said, 'Master, here's your money safe and sound. I kept it hidden in the cellar.

<sup>21</sup> To tell you the truth, I was a little afraid. I know you have high standards and hate sloppiness, and don't suffer fools gladly.'

<sup>23</sup> Why didn't you at least invest the money in securities so I would have gotten a little interest on it?'

<sup>24</sup> "Then he said to those standing there, 'Take the money from him and give it to the servant who doubled my stake.'

<sup>25</sup> "They said, 'But Master, he already has double...'

<sup>26</sup> "He said, 'That's what I mean: Risk your life and get more than you ever dreamed of. Play it safe and end up holding the bag.

<sup>42</sup> "If you had only recognized this day, and everything that was good for you! But now it's too late.

<sup>43</sup> In the days ahead your enemies are going to bring up their heavy artillery and surround you, pressing in from every side.

<sup>45</sup> Going into the Temple he began to throw out everyone who had set up shop, selling everything and anything.

<sup>46</sup> He said, "It's written in Scripture, My house is a house of prayer; You have turned it into a religious bazaar."

<sup>48</sup> But with the people hanging on every word he spoke, they couldn't come up with anything.

20 <sup>1</sup> One day he was teaching the people in the Temple, proclaiming the Message. The high priests, religion scholars, and leaders confronted

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "First, let me ask you a question:

<sup>4</sup> About the baptism of John--who authorized it, heaven or humans?"

<sup>5</sup> They were on the spot, and knew it. They pulled back into a huddle and whispered, "If we say 'heaven,' he'll ask us why we didn't believe him;

<sup>6</sup> if we say 'humans,' the people will tear us limb from limb, convinced as they are that John was God's prophet."

<sup>7</sup> They agreed to concede that round to Jesus and said they didn't know.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said, "Then neither will I answer your question."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus told another story to the people: "A man planted a vineyard. He handed it over to farmhands and went off on a trip. He was gone a long time.

<sup>10</sup> In time he sent a servant back to the farmhands to collect the profits, but they beat him up and sent him off empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> He decided to try again and sent another servant. That one they beat black and blue, and sent him off empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup> He tried a third time. They worked that servant over from head to foot and dumped him in the street.

<sup>13</sup> "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'I know what I'll do: I'll send my beloved son. They're bound to respect my son.'

<sup>15</sup> They killed him and threw him over the fence. "What do you think the owner of the vineyard will do?

<sup>16</sup> Right. He'll come and clean house. Then he'll assign the care of the vineyard to others." Those who were listening said, "Oh, no! He'd never do that!"

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus didn't back down. "Why, then, do you think this was written: That stone the masons threw out--It's now the cornerstone!?

<sup>18</sup> "Anyone falling over that stone will break every bone in his body; if the stone falls on anyone, it will be a total smashup."

<sup>19</sup> The religion scholars and high priests wanted to lynch him on the spot, but they were intimidated by public opinion. They knew the story was about them.

<sup>20</sup> Watching for a chance to get him, they sent spies who posed as honest inquirers, hoping to trick him into saying something that would get him in trouble with the law.

<sup>21</sup> So they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you're honest and straightforward when you teach, that you don't pander to anyone but teach the way of God accurately.

<sup>22</sup> Tell us: Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>23</sup> He knew they were laying for him and said,

<sup>25</sup> "Caesar," they said. Jesus said, "Then give Caesar what is his and give God what is his."

<sup>27</sup> Some Sadducees came up. This is the Jewish party that denies any possibility of resurrection. They asked,

<sup>29</sup> Well, there once were seven brothers. The first took a wife. He died childless.

<sup>31</sup> then the third, and eventually all seven had their turn, but no child.

<sup>35</sup> but not there. Those who are included in the resurrection of the dead will no longer be concerned with marriage

<sup>36</sup> nor, of course, with death. They will have better things to think about, if you can believe it. All ecstasies and intimacies then will be with God.

flattery, bask in prominent positions, sit at the head table at every church function.

21 <sup>1</sup> Just then he looked up and saw the rich people dropping offerings in the collection plate.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "The plain truth is that this widow has given by far the largest offering today.

<sup>4</sup> All these others made offerings that they'll never miss; she gave extravagantly what she couldn't afford--she gave her all!"

<sup>5</sup> One day people were standing around talking about the Temple, remarking how beautiful it was, the splendor of its stonework and memorial gifts. Jesus said,

<sup>6</sup> "All this you're admiring so much--the time is coming when every stone in that building will end up in a heap of rubble."

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, "Teacher, when is this going to happen? What clue will we get that it's about to take place?"

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Watch out for the doomsday deceivers. Many leaders are going to show up with forged identities claiming, 'I'm the One,' or, 'The end is near.' Don't fall for any of that.

<sup>11</sup> Huge earthquakes will occur in various places. There will be famines. You'll think at times that the very sky is falling.

<sup>12</sup> "But before any of this happens, they'll arrest you, hunt you down, and drag you to court and jail. It will go from bad to worse, dog-eat-dog, everyone at your throat because you carry my name.

<sup>15</sup> I'll give you the words and wisdom that will reduce all your accusers to stammers and stutters.

<sup>16</sup> "You'll even be turned in by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. Some of you will be killed.

<sup>18</sup> Even so, every detail of your body and soul--even the hairs of your head!--is in my care; nothing of you will be lost.

<sup>19</sup> Staying with it--that's what is required. Stay with it to the end. You won't be sorry; you'll be saved.

<sup>20</sup> "When you see soldiers camped all around Jerusalem, then you'll know that she is about to be devastated.

<sup>25</sup> "It will seem like all hell has broken loose--sun, moon, stars, earth, sea, <sup>26</sup> in an uproar and everyone all over the world in a panic, the wind knocked out of them by the threat of doom, the powers-that-be quaking.

<sup>27</sup> "And then--then!--they'll see the Son of Man welcomed in grand style--a glorious welcome!

<sup>28</sup> When all this starts to happen, up on your feet. Stand tall with your heads high. Help is on the way!"

<sup>34</sup> "But be on your guard. Don't let the sharp edge of your expectation get dulled by parties and drinking and shopping. Otherwise, that Day is going to take you by complete surprise, spring on you suddenly like a trap, <sup>35</sup> for it's going to come on everyone, everywhere, at once.

<sup>36</sup> So, whatever you do, don't go to sleep at the switch. Pray constantly that you will have the strength and wits to make it through everything that's coming and end up on your feet before the Son of Man."

<sup>38</sup> All the people were up at the crack of dawn to come to the Temple and listen to him.

22 <sup>1</sup> The Feast of Unleavened Bread, also called Passover, drew near.

<sup>2</sup> The high priests and religion scholars were looking for a way to do away with Jesus but, fearful of the people, they were also looking for a way to cover their tracks.

<sup>6</sup> He gave them his word and started looking for a way to betray Jesus, but out of sight of the crowd.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus sent Peter and John off, saying, "Go prepare the Passover for us so we can eat it together."

<sup>9</sup> They said, "Where do you want us to do this?"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "Keep your eyes open as you enter the city. A man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him home.

<sup>11</sup> Then speak with the owner of the house: The Teacher wants to know, 'Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'

<sup>14</sup> When it was time, he sat down, all the apostles with him, <sup>15</sup> and said, "You've no idea how much I have looked forward to eating this Passover meal with you before I enter my time of suffering.

<sup>16</sup> It's the last one I'll eat until we all eat it together in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup> Taking the cup, he blessed it, then said, "Take this and pass it among you.

<sup>18</sup> As for me, I'll not drink wine again until the kingdom of God arrives."

<sup>19</sup> Taking bread, he blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, given for you. Eat it in my memory."

<sup>20</sup> He did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant written in my blood, blood poured out for you.

<sup>21</sup> "Do you realize that the hand of the one who is betraying me is at this moment on this table?

<sup>22</sup> It's true that the Son of Man is going down a path already marked out--no surprises there. But for the one who turns him in, turns traitor to the Son of Man, this is doomsday."

<sup>30</sup> so you can eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and be strengthened as you take up responsibilities among the congregations of God's people.

<sup>31</sup> "Simon, stay on your toes. Satan has tried his best to separate all of you from me, like chaff from wheat.

<sup>32</sup> Simon, I've prayed for you in particular that you not give in or give out. When you have come through the time of testing, turn to your companions and give them a fresh start."

<sup>33</sup> Peter said, "Master, I'm ready for anything with you. I'd go to jail for you. I'd die for you!"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "I'm sorry to have to tell you this, Peter, but before the rooster crows you will have three times denied that you know me."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus said, "When I sent you out and told you to travel light, to take only the bare necessities, did you get along all right?" "Certainly," they said, "we got along just fine."

<sup>36</sup> He said, "This is different. Get ready for trouble. Look to what you'll need; there are difficult times ahead. Pawn your coat and get a sword.

<sup>37</sup> What was written in Scripture, 'He was lumped in with the criminals,' gets its final meaning in me. Everything written about me is now coming to a conclusion."

<sup>38</sup> They said, "Look, Master, two swords!" But he said, "Enough of that; no more sword talk!"

<sup>39</sup> Leaving there, he went, as he so often did, to Mount Olives. The disciples followed him.

<sup>40</sup> When they arrived at the place, he said, "Pray that you don't give in to temptation."

<sup>45</sup> He got up from prayer, went back to the disciples and found them asleep, drugged by grief.

<sup>46</sup> He said, "What business do you have sleeping? Get up. Pray so you won't give in to temptation."

<sup>47</sup> No sooner were the words out of his mouth than a crowd showed up, Judas, the one from the Twelve, in the lead. He came right up to Jesus to kiss him.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said, "Judas, you would betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>51</sup> Jesus said, "Let them be. Even in this." Then, touching the servant's ear, he healed him.

<sup>52</sup> Jesus spoke to those who had come--high priests, Temple police, religion leaders: "What is this, jumping me with swords and clubs as if I were a dangerous criminal?"

<sup>55</sup> In the middle of the courtyard some people had started a fire and were sitting around it, trying to keep warm.

<sup>56</sup> One of the serving maids sitting at the fire noticed him, then took a second look and said, "This man was with him!"

<sup>60</sup> Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about." At that very moment, the last word hardly off his lips, a rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup> Just then, the Master turned and looked at Peter. Peter remembered what the Master had said to him: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>62</sup> He went out and cried and cried and cried.

<sup>66</sup> When it was morning, the religious leaders of the people and the high priests and scholars all got together and brought him before their High Council.

<sup>67</sup> They said, "Are you the Messiah?" He answered, "If I said yes, you wouldn't believe me."

<sup>68</sup> If I asked what you meant by your question, you wouldn't answer me.

<sup>70</sup> They all said, "So you admit your claim to be the Son of God?" "You're the ones who keep saying it," he said.

<sup>71</sup> But they had made up their minds, "Why do we need any more evidence? We've all heard him as good as say it himself."

23 <sup>1</sup> Then they all took Jesus to Pilate <sup>2</sup> and began to bring up charges against him. They said, "We found this man undermining our law and order, forbidding taxes to be paid to Caesar, setting himself up as Messiah-King."

<sup>4</sup> Pilate told the high priests and the accompanying crowd, "I find nothing wrong here. He seems harmless enough to me."

<sup>5</sup> But they were vehement. "He's stirring up unrest among the people with his teaching, disturbing the peace everywhere, starting in Galilee and now all through Judea. He's a dangerous man, endangering the peace."

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard that, he asked, "So, he's a Galilean?"

<sup>7</sup> Realizing that he properly came under Herod's jurisdiction, he passed the buck to Herod, who just happened to be in Jerusalem for a few days.

<sup>8</sup> Herod was delighted when Jesus showed up. He had wanted for a long time to see him, he'd heard so much about him. He hoped to see him do something spectacular.

<sup>12</sup> That day Herod and Pilate became thick as thieves. Always before they had kept their distance.

<sup>14</sup> and said, "You brought this man to me as a disturber of the peace. I examined him in front of all of you and found there was nothing to your charge.

<sup>15</sup> And neither did Herod, for he has sent him back here with a clean bill of health. It's clear that he's done nothing wrong, let alone anything deserving death.

<sup>20</sup> Pilate still wanted to let Jesus go, and so spoke out again.

<sup>29</sup> The time is coming when they'll say, 'Lucky the women who never conceived! Lucky the wombs that never gave birth! Lucky the breasts that never gave milk!'

<sup>30</sup> Then they'll start calling to the mountains, 'Fall down on us!' calling to the hills, 'Cover us up!'

<sup>32</sup> Two others, both criminals, were taken along with him for execution.

<sup>35</sup> The people stood there staring at Jesus, and the ringleaders made faces, taunting, "He saved others. Let's see him save himself! The Messiah of God--ha! The Chosen--ha!"

<sup>36</sup> The soldiers also came up and poked fun at him, making a game of it. They toasted him with sour wine:

<sup>40</sup> But the other one made him shut up: "Have you no fear of God? You're getting the same as him.

<sup>41</sup> We deserve this, but not him--he did nothing to deserve this."

<sup>42</sup> Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you enter your kingdom."

<sup>43</sup> He said, "Don't worry, I will. Today you will join me in paradise."

<sup>46</sup> Jesus called loudly, "Father, I place my life in your hands!" Then he breathed his last.

<sup>48</sup> All who had come around as spectators to watch the show, when they saw what actually happened, were overcome with grief and headed home.

<sup>49</sup> Those who knew Jesus well, along with the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a respectful distance and kept vigil.

<sup>52</sup> He lived in alert expectation of the kingdom of God. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>56</sup> Then they went back to prepare burial spices and perfumes. They rested quietly on the Sabbath, as commanded.

24 <sup>1</sup> At the crack of dawn on Sunday, the women came to the tomb carrying the burial spices they had prepared.

<sup>4</sup> They were puzzled, wondering what to make of this. Then, out of nowhere it seemed, two men, light cascading over them, stood there.

<sup>5</sup> The women were awestruck and bowed down in worship. The men said, "Why are you looking for the Living One in a cemetery?"

<sup>6</sup> He is not here, but raised up. Remember how he told you when you were still back in Galilee

<sup>7</sup> that he had to be handed over to sinners, be killed on a cross, and in three days rise up?"

<sup>8</sup> Then they remembered Jesus' words.

<sup>9</sup> They left the tomb and broke the news of all this to the Eleven and the rest.

<sup>11</sup> but the apostles didn't believe a word of it, thought they were making it all up.

<sup>12</sup> But Peter jumped to his feet and ran to the tomb. He stooped to look in and saw a few grave clothes, that's all. He walked away puzzled, shaking his head.

<sup>13</sup> That same day two of them were walking to the village Emmaus, about seven miles out of Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> They were deep in conversation, going over all these things that had happened.

<sup>15</sup> In the middle of their talk and questions, Jesus came up and walked along with them.

<sup>16</sup> But they were not able to recognize who he was.

<sup>17</sup> He asked, "What's this you're discussing so intently as you walk along?" They just stood there, long-faced, like they had lost their best friend.

<sup>18</sup> Then one of them, his name was Cleopas, said, "Are you the only one in Jerusalem who hasn't heard what's happened during the last few days?"

<sup>19</sup> He said, "What has happened?" They said, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene. He was a man of God, a prophet, dynamic in work and word, blessed by both God and all the people.

<sup>20</sup> Then our high priests and leaders betrayed him, got him sentenced to death, and crucified him.

<sup>21</sup> And we had our hopes up that he was the One, the One about to deliver Israel. And it is now the third day since it happened.

<sup>22</sup> But now some of our women have completely confused us. Early this morning they were at the tomb

<sup>23</sup> and couldn't find his body. They came back with the story that they had seen a vision of angels who said he was alive.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said to them, "So thick-headed! So slow-hearted! Why can't you simply believe all that the prophets said?

<sup>26</sup> Don't you see that these things had to happen, that the Messiah had to suffer and only then enter into his glory?"

<sup>27</sup> Then he started at the beginning, with the Books of Moses, and went on through all the Prophets, pointing out everything in the Scriptures that referred to him.

<sup>28</sup> They came to the edge of the village where they were headed. He acted as if he were going on <sup>29</sup> but they pressed him: "Stay and have supper with us. It's nearly evening; the day is done." So he went in with them.

<sup>31</sup> At that moment, open-eyed, wide-eyed, they recognized him. And then he disappeared.

<sup>32</sup> Back and forth they talked. "Didn't we feel on fire as he conversed with us on the road, as he opened up the Scriptures for us?"

<sup>33</sup> They didn't waste a minute. They were up and on their way back to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and their friends gathered together,

<sup>35</sup> Then the two went over everything that happened on the road and how they recognized him when he broke the bread.

<sup>36</sup> While they were saying all this, Jesus appeared to them and said, "Peace be with you."

<sup>40</sup> As he said this, he showed them his hands and feet.

<sup>41</sup> They still couldn't believe what they were seeing. It was too much; it seemed too good to be true. He asked, "Do you have any food here?"

<sup>44</sup> Then he said, "Everything I told you while I was with you comes to this: All the things written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets, and in the Psalms have to be fulfilled."

<sup>45</sup> He went on to open their understanding of the Word of God, showing them how to read their Bibles this way.

<sup>46</sup> He said, "You can see now how it is written that the Messiah suffers, rises from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and then a total life-change through the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed in his name to all nations--starting from here, from Jerusalem!

<sup>49</sup> What comes next is very important: I am sending what my Father promised to you, so stay here in the city until he arrives, until you're equipped with power from on high."

<sup>53</sup> They spent all their time in the Temple praising God. Yes.

John

1 <sup>1</sup> The Word was first, the Word present to God, God present to the Word. The Word was God,

<sup>8</sup> John was not himself the Light; he was there to show the way to the Light.

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, the world was there through him, and yet the world didn't even notice.

<sup>12</sup> But whoever did want him, who believed he was who he claimed and would do what he said, He made to be their true selves, their child-of-God selves.

<sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh and blood, and moved into the neighborhood. We saw the glory with our own eyes, the one-of-a-kind glory, like Father, like Son, Generous inside and out, true from start to finish.

<sup>15</sup> John pointed him out and called, "This is the One! The One I told you was coming after me but in fact was ahead of me. He has always been ahead of me, has always had the first word."

<sup>17</sup> We got the basics from Moses, and then this exuberant giving and receiving, This endless knowing and understanding--all this came through Jesus, the Messiah.

<sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God, not so much as a glimpse. This one-of-a-kind God-Expression, who exists at the very heart of the Father, has made him plain as day.

<sup>19</sup> When Jews from Jerusalem sent a group of priests and officials to ask John who he was, he was completely honest.

<sup>20</sup> He didn't evade the question. He told the plain truth: "I am not the Messiah."

<sup>21</sup> They pressed him, "Who, then? Elijah?" "I am not." "The Prophet?" "No."

<sup>22</sup> Exasperated, they said, "Who, then? We need an answer for those who sent us. Tell us something--anything!--about yourself."

<sup>27</sup> He comes after me, but he is not in second place to me. I'm not even worthy to hold his coat for him."

<sup>29</sup> The very next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and yelled out,

<sup>30</sup> "Here he is, God's Passover Lamb! He forgives the sins of the world! This is the man I've been talking about, 'the One who comes after me but is really ahead of me.'

<sup>31</sup> I knew nothing about who he was--only this: that my task has been to get Israel ready to recognize him as the God-Revealer. That is why I came here baptizing with water, giving you a good bath and scrubbing sins from your life so you can get a fresh start with God."

<sup>32</sup> John clinched his witness with this: "I watched the Spirit, like a dove flying down out of the sky, making himself at home in him.

<sup>33</sup> I repeat, I know nothing about him except this: The One who authorized me to baptize with water told me, 'The One on whom you see the Spirit come down and stay, this One will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>34</sup> That's exactly what I saw happen, and I'm telling you, there's no question about it: This is the Son of God."

<sup>38</sup> Jesus looked over his shoulder and said to them, "What are you after?" They said, "Rabbi" (which means "Teacher"),

"where are you staying?"

<sup>39</sup> He replied, "Come along and see for yourself." They came, saw where he was living, and ended up staying with him for the day. It was late afternoon when this happened.

<sup>41</sup> The first thing he did after finding where Jesus lived was find his own brother, Simon, telling him, "We've found the Messiah" (that is, "Christ").

<sup>42</sup> He immediately led him to Jesus. Jesus took one look up and said, "You're John's son, Simon? From now on your name is Cephas" (or Peter, which means "Rock").

<sup>43</sup> The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. When he got there, he ran across Philip and said, "Come, follow me."

<sup>47</sup> When Jesus saw him coming he said, "There's a real Israelite, not a false bone in his body."

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael said, "Where did you get that idea? You don't know me." Jesus answered, "One day, long before Philip called you here, I saw you under the fig tree."

<sup>49</sup> Nathanael exclaimed, "Rabbi! You are the Son of God, the King of Israel!"

<sup>51</sup> Before this is over you're going to see heaven open and God's angels descending to the Son of Man and ascending again."

2 <sup>1</sup> Three days later there was a wedding in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there.

<sup>2</sup> Jesus and his disciples were guests also.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said, "Is that any of our business, Mother--yours or mine? This isn't my time. Don't push me."

<sup>7</sup> Jesus ordered the servants, "Fill the pots with water." And they filled them to the brim.

<sup>8</sup> "Now fill your pitchers and take them to the host," Jesus said, and they did.

<sup>9</sup> When the host tasted the water that had become wine (he didn't know what had just happened but the servants, of course, knew), he called out to the bridegroom,

<sup>11</sup> This act in Cana of Galilee was the first sign Jesus gave, the first glimpse of his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

<sup>13</sup> When the Passover Feast, celebrated each spring by the Jews, was about to take place, Jesus traveled up to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> He found the Temple teeming with people selling cattle and sheep and doves. The loan sharks were also there in full strength.

<sup>18</sup> But the Jews were upset. They asked, "What credentials can you present to justify this?"

<sup>20</sup> They were indignant: "It took forty-six years to build this Temple, and you're going to rebuild it in three days?"

<sup>22</sup> Later, after he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered he had said this. They then put two and two together and believed both what was written in Scripture and what Jesus had said.

<sup>23</sup> During the time he was in Jerusalem, those days of the Passover Feast, many people noticed the signs he was displaying and, seeing they pointed straight to God, entrusted their lives to him.

3<sup>1</sup> There was a man of the Pharisee sect, Nicodemus, a prominent leader among the Jews.

<sup>2</sup> Late one night he visited Jesus and said, "Rabbi, we all know you're a teacher straight from God. No one could do all the God-pointing, God-revealing acts you do if God weren't in on it."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "You're absolutely right. Take it from me: Unless a person is born from above, it's not possible to see what I'm pointing to--to God's kingdom."

<sup>4</sup> "How can anyone," said Nicodemus, "be born who has already been born and grown up? You can't re-enter your mother's womb and be born again. What are you saying with this 'born-from-above' talk?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said, "You're not listening. Let me say it again. Unless a person submits to this original creation--the 'wind hovering over the water' creation, the invisible moving the visible, a baptism into a new life--it's not possible to enter God's kingdom.

<sup>6</sup> When you look at a baby, it's just that: a body you can look at and touch. But the person who takes shape within is formed by something you can't see and touch--the Spirit--and becomes a living spirit.

<sup>7</sup> "So don't be so surprised when I tell you that you have to be 'born from above'--out of this world, so to speak.

<sup>8</sup> You know well enough how the wind blows this way and that. You hear it rustling through the trees, but you have no idea where it comes from or where it's headed next. That's the way it is with everyone 'born from above' by the wind of God, the Spirit of God."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "You're a respected teacher of Israel and you don't know these basics?"

<sup>11</sup> Listen carefully. I'm speaking sober truth to you. I speak only of what I know by experience; I give witness only to what I have seen with my own eyes. There is nothing secondhand here, no hearsay. Yet instead of facing the evidence and accepting it, you procrastinate with questions.

<sup>12</sup> If I tell you things that are plain as the hand before your face and you don't believe me, what use is there in telling you of things you can't see, the things of God?

<sup>13</sup> "No one has ever gone up into the presence of God except the One who came down from that Presence, the Son of Man.

<sup>14</sup> In the same way that Moses lifted the serpent in the desert so people could have something to see and then believe, it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up--

<sup>15</sup> and everyone who looks up to him, trusting and expectant, will gain a real life, eternal life.

<sup>16</sup> "This is how much God loved the world: He gave his Son, his one and only Son. And this is why: so that no one need be destroyed; by believing in him, anyone can have a whole and lasting life.

<sup>17</sup> God didn't go to all the trouble of sending his Son merely to point an accusing finger, telling the world how bad it was. He came to help, to put the world right again.

<sup>18</sup> Anyone who trusts in him is acquitted; anyone who refuses to trust him has long since been under the death sentence without knowing it. And why? Because of that person's failure to believe in the one-of-a-kind Son of God when introduced to him.

<sup>19</sup> "This is the crisis we're in: God-light streamed into the world, but men and women everywhere ran for the darkness. They went for the darkness because they were not really interested in pleasing God.

<sup>21</sup> But anyone working and living in truth and reality welcomes God-light so the work can be seen for the God-work it is."

<sup>26</sup> They came to John and said, "Rabbi, you know the one who was with you on the other side of the Jordan? The one you authorized with your witness? Well, he's now competing with us. He's baptizing, too, and everyone's going to him instead of us."

<sup>27</sup> John answered, "It's not possible for a person to succeed--I'm talking about [eternal] success--without heaven's help.

<sup>28</sup> You yourselves were there when I made it public that I was not the Messiah but simply the one sent ahead of him to get things ready.

<sup>29</sup> The one who gets the bride is, by definition, the bridegroom. And the bridegroom's friend, his 'best man'--that's me--in place at his side where he can hear every word, is genuinely happy. How could he be jealous when he knows that the wedding is finished and the marriage is off to a good start? "That's why my cup is running over.

messengers from God. The earthborn is earthbound and speaks earth language; the heavenborn is in a league of his own.

<sup>33</sup> But anyone who examines this evidence will come to stake his life on this: that God himself is the truth.

<sup>34</sup> "The One that God sent speaks God's words. And don't think he rations out the Spirit in bits and pieces.

<sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son extravagantly. He turned everything over to him so he could give it away--a lavish distribution of gifts.

<sup>36</sup> That is why whoever accepts and trusts the Son gets in on everything, life complete and forever! And that is also why the person who avoids and distrusts the Son is in the dark and doesn't see life. All he experiences of God is darkness, and an angry darkness at that."

4<sup>1</sup> Jesus realized that the Pharisees were keeping count of the baptisms that he and John performed

<sup>2</sup> (although his disciples, not Jesus, did the actual baptizing). They had posted the score that Jesus was ahead, turning him and John into rivals in the eyes of the people.

<sup>6</sup> Jacob's well was still there. Jesus, worn out by the trip, sat down at the well. It was noon.

<sup>8</sup> (His disciples had gone to the village to buy food for lunch.)

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman, taken aback, asked, "How come you, a Jew, are asking me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" (Jews in those days wouldn't be caught dead talking to Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered, "If you knew the generosity of God and who I am, you would be asking me for a drink, and I would give you fresh, living water."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said, "Sir, you don't even have a bucket to draw with, and this well is deep. So how are you going to get this 'living water'?"

<sup>12</sup> Are you a better man than our ancestor Jacob, who dug this well and drank from it, he and his sons and livestock, and passed it down to us?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said, "Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again and again.

<sup>14</sup> Anyone who drinks the water I give will never thirst--not ever. The water I give will be an artesian spring within, gushing fountains of endless life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said, "Sir, give me this water so I won't ever get thirsty, won't ever have to come back to this well again!"

<sup>16</sup> He said, "Go call your husband and then come back."

you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place for worship, right?"

<sup>21</sup> "Believe me, woman, the time is coming when you Samaritans will worship the Father neither here at this mountain nor there in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> You worship guessing in the dark; we Jews worship in the clear light of day. God's way of salvation is made available through the Jews.

<sup>23</sup> But the time is coming--it has, in fact, come--when what you're called will not matter and where you go to worship will not matter. "It's who you are and the way you live that count before God. Your worship must engage your spirit in the pursuit of truth. That's the kind of people the Father is out looking for: those who are simply and honestly themselves before him in their worship.

of their very being, their spirits, their true selves, in adoration."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said, "I don't know about that. I do know that the Messiah is coming. When he arrives, we'll get the whole story."

<sup>26</sup> "I am he," said Jesus. "You don't have to wait any longer or look any further."

<sup>27</sup> Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked. They couldn't believe he was talking with that kind of a woman. No one said what they were all thinking, but their faces showed it.

<sup>29</sup> "Come see a man who knew all about the things I did, who knows me inside and out. Do you think this could be the Messiah?"

<sup>30</sup> And they went out to see for themselves.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "The food that keeps me going is that I do the will of the One who sent me, finishing the work he started.

<sup>35</sup> As you look around right now, wouldn't you say that in about four months it will be time to harvest? Well, I'm telling you to open your eyes and take a good look at what's right in front of you. These Samaritan fields are ripe. It's harvest time!

<sup>38</sup> I sent you to harvest a field you never worked. Without lifting a finger, you have walked in on a field worked long and hard by others."

<sup>39</sup> Many of the Samaritans from that village committed themselves to him because of the woman's witness: "He knew all about the things I did. He knows me inside and out!"

<sup>40</sup> They asked him to stay on, so Jesus stayed two days.

<sup>41</sup> A lot more people entrusted their lives to him when they heard what he had to say.

<sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, "We're no longer taking this on your say-so. We've heard it for ourselves and know it for sure. He's the Savior of the world!"

<sup>45</sup> So when he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, but only because they were impressed with what he had done in Jerusalem during the Passover Feast, not that they really had a clue about who he was or what he was up to.

<sup>46</sup> Now he was back in Cana of Galilee, the place where he made the water into wine. Meanwhile in Capernaum, there was a certain official from the king's court whose son was sick.

<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and asked that he come down and heal his son, who was on the brink of death.

<sup>50</sup> Jesus simply replied, "Go home. Your son lives." The man believed the bare word Jesus spoke and headed home.

<sup>52</sup> He asked them what time he began to get better. They said, "The fever broke yesterday afternoon at one o'clock."

<sup>53</sup> The father knew that that was the very moment Jesus had said, "Your son lives." That clinched it. Not only he but his entire household believed.

<sup>54</sup> This was now the second sign Jesus gave after having come from Judea into Galilee.

5 <sup>1</sup> Soon another Feast came around and Jesus was back in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him stretched out by the pool and knew how long he had been there, he said, "Do you want to get well?"

<sup>7</sup> The sick man said, "Sir, when the water is stirred, I don't have anybody to put me in the pool. By the time I get there, somebody else is already in."

<sup>10</sup> The Jews stopped the healed man and said, "It's the Sabbath. You can't carry your bedroll around. It's against the rules."

<sup>11</sup> But he told them, "The man who made me well told me to. He said, 'Take your bedroll and start walking.'"

<sup>12</sup> They asked, "Who gave you the order to take it up and start walking?"

<sup>13</sup> But the healed man didn't know, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd.

<sup>14</sup> A little later Jesus found him in the Temple and said, "You look wonderful! You're well! Don't return to a sinning life or something worse might happen."

<sup>15</sup> The man went back and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

<sup>16</sup> That is why the Jews were out to get Jesus--because he did this kind of thing on the Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus defended himself. "My Father is working straight through, even on the Sabbath. So am I."

<sup>18</sup> That really set them off. The Jews were now not only out to expose him; they were out to kill him. Not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was calling God his own Father, putting himself on a level with God.

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus explained himself at length. "I'm telling you this straight. The Son can't independently do a thing, only what he sees the Father doing. What the Father does, the Son does.

<sup>20</sup> The Father loves the Son and includes him in everything he is doing. "But you haven't seen the half of it yet,

<sup>21</sup> for in the same way that the Father raises the dead and creates life, so does the Son. The Son gives life to anyone he chooses.

<sup>22</sup> Neither he nor the Father shuts anyone out. The Father handed all authority to judge over to the Son <sup>23</sup> so that the Son will be honored equally with the Father. Anyone who dishonors the Son, dishonors the Father, for it was the Father's decision to put the Son in the place of honor.

<sup>24</sup> "It's urgent that you listen carefully to this: Anyone here who believes what I am saying right now and aligns himself with the Father, who has in fact put me in charge, has at this very moment the real, lasting life and is no longer condemned to be an outsider. This person has taken a giant step from the world of the dead to the world of the living.

<sup>25</sup> "It's urgent that you get this right: The time has arrived--I mean right now!--when dead men and women will hear the voice of the Son of God and, hearing, will come alive.

<sup>26</sup> Just as the Father has life in himself, he has conferred on the Son life in himself.

<sup>27</sup> And he has given him the authority, simply because he is the Son of Man, to decide and carry out matters of Judgment.

<sup>28</sup> "Don't act so surprised at all this. The time is coming when everyone dead and buried will hear his voice.

<sup>29</sup> Those who have lived the right way will walk out into a resurrection Life; those who have lived the wrong way, into a resurrection Judgment.

<sup>30</sup> "I can't do a solitary thing on my own: I listen, then I decide. You can trust my decision because I'm not out to get my own way but only to carry out orders.

<sup>31</sup> If I were simply speaking on my own account, it would be an empty, self-serving witness.

<sup>32</sup> But an independent witness confirms me, the most reliable Witness of all.

<sup>33</sup> Furthermore, you all saw and heard John, and he gave expert and reliable testimony about me, didn't he?

<sup>34</sup> "But my purpose is not to get your vote, and not to appeal to mere human testimony. I'm speaking to you this way so that you will be saved.

<sup>35</sup> John was a torch, blazing and bright, and you were glad enough to dance for an hour or so in his bright light.

<sup>36</sup> But the witness that really confirms me far exceeds John's witness. It's the work the Father gave me to complete. These very tasks, as I go about completing them, confirm that the Father, in fact, sent me.

<sup>39</sup> "You have your heads in your Bibles constantly because you think you'll find eternal life there. But you miss the forest for the trees. These Scriptures are all about me!

<sup>42</sup> And do you know why? Because I know you and your crowds. I know that love, especially God's love, is not on your working agenda.

<sup>43</sup> I came with the authority of my Father, and you either dismiss me or avoid me. If another came, acting self-important, you would welcome him with open arms.

<sup>44</sup> How do you expect to get anywhere with God when you spend all your time jockeying for position with each other, ranking your rivals and ignoring God?

<sup>45</sup> "But don't think I'm going to accuse you before my Father. Moses, in whom you put so much stock, is your accuser.

<sup>46</sup> If you believed, really believed, what Moses said, you would believe me. He wrote of me.

<sup>47</sup> If you won't take seriously what he wrote, how can I expect you to take seriously what I speak?"

6 <sup>1</sup> After this, Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee (some call it Tiberias).

<sup>4</sup> It was nearly time for the Feast of Passover, kept annually by the Jews.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus looked out and saw that a large crowd had arrived, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread to feed these people?"

<sup>6</sup> He said this to stretch Philip's faith. He already knew what he was going to do.

<sup>9</sup> "There's a little boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But that's a drop in the bucket for a crowd like this."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." There was a nice carpet of green grass in this place. They sat down, about five thousand of them.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the bread and, having given thanks, gave it to those who were seated. He did the same with the fish. All ate as much as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup> When the people had eaten their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the leftovers so nothing is wasted."

<sup>13</sup> They went to work and filled twelve large baskets with leftovers from the five barley loaves.

<sup>14</sup> The people realized that God was at work among them in what Jesus had just done. They said, "This is the Prophet for sure, God's Prophet right here in Galilee!"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus saw that in their enthusiasm, they were about to grab him and make him king, so he slipped off and went back up the mountain to be by himself.

<sup>16</sup> In the evening his disciples went down to the sea,

<sup>19</sup> They were maybe three or four miles out when they saw Jesus walking on the sea, quite near the boat. They were scared senseless,

<sup>21</sup> So they took him on board. In no time they reached land--the exact spot they were headed to.

<sup>22</sup> The next day the crowd that was left behind realized that there had been only one boat, and that Jesus had not gotten into it with his disciples. They had seen them go off without him.

<sup>23</sup> By now boats from Tiberias had pulled up near where they had eaten the bread blessed by the Master.

<sup>24</sup> So when the crowd realized he was gone and wasn't coming back, they piled into the Tiberias boats and headed for Capernaum, looking for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> When they found him back across the sea, they said, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, "You've come looking for me not because you saw God in my actions but because I fed you, filled your stomachs--and for free.

<sup>27</sup> "Don't waste your energy striving for perishable food like that. Work for the food that sticks with you, food that nourishes your lasting life, food the Son of Man provides. He and what he does are guaranteed by God the Father to last."

<sup>28</sup> To that they said, "Well, what do we do then to get in on God's works?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "Throw your lot in with the One that God has sent. That kind of a commitment gets you in on God's works."

<sup>30</sup> They waffled: "Why don't you give us a clue about who you are, just a hint of what's going on? When we see what's up, we'll commit ourselves. Show us what you can do.

<sup>31</sup> Moses fed our ancestors with bread in the desert. It says so in the Scriptures: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus responded, "The real significance of that Scripture is not that Moses gave you bread from heaven but that my Father is right now offering you bread from heaven, the real bread.

<sup>33</sup> The Bread of God came down out of heaven and is giving life to the world."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said, "I am the Bread of Life. The person who aligns with me hungers no more and thirsts no more, ever.

<sup>36</sup> I have told you this explicitly because even though you have seen me in action, you don't really believe me.

<sup>37</sup> Every person the Father gives me eventually comes running to me. And once that person is with me, I hold on and don't let go.

<sup>38</sup> I came down from heaven not to follow my own whim but to accomplish the will of the One who sent me.

<sup>39</sup> "This, in a nutshell, is that will: that everything handed over to me by the Father be completed--not a single detail missed--and at the wrap-up of time I have everything and everyone put together, upright and whole.

<sup>40</sup> This is what my Father wants: that anyone who sees the Son and trusts who he is and what he does and then aligns with him will enter real life, eternal life. My part is to put them on their feet alive and whole at the completion of time."

<sup>41</sup> At this, because he said, "I am the Bread that came down from heaven," the Jews started arguing over him:

<sup>42</sup> "Isn't this the son of Joseph? Don't we know his father? Don't we know his mother? How can he now say, 'I came down out of heaven' and expect anyone to believe him?"

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said, "Don't bicker among yourselves over me.

<sup>44</sup> You're not in charge here. The Father who sent me is in charge. He draws people to me--that's the only way you'll ever come. Only then do I do my work, putting people together, setting them on their feet, ready for the End.

<sup>45</sup> This is what the prophets meant when they wrote, 'And then they will all be personally taught by God.' Anyone who has spent any time at all listening to the Father, really listening and therefore learning, comes to me to be taught personally--to see it with his own eyes, hear it with his own ears, from me, since I have it firsthand from the Father.

<sup>48</sup> I am the Bread of Life.

<sup>50</sup> But now here is Bread that truly comes down out of heaven. Anyone eating this Bread will not die, ever.

<sup>51</sup> I am the Bread--living Bread!--who came down out of heaven. Anyone who eats this Bread will live--and forever! The Bread that I present to the world so that it can eat and live is myself, this flesh-and-blood self."

<sup>52</sup> At this, the Jews started fighting among themselves: "How can this man serve up his flesh for a meal?"

<sup>53</sup> But Jesus didn't give an inch. "Only insofar as you eat and drink flesh and blood, the flesh and blood of the Son of Man, do you have life within you.

<sup>54</sup> The one who brings a hearty appetite to this eating and drinking has eternal life and will be fit and ready for the Final Day.

<sup>56</sup> By eating my flesh and drinking my blood you enter into me and I into you.

<sup>57</sup> In the same way that the fully alive Father sent me here and I live because of him, so the one who makes a meal of me lives because of me.

<sup>59</sup> He said these things while teaching in the meeting place in Capernaum.

<sup>62</sup> What would happen if you saw the Son of Man ascending to where he came from?

happen. Every word I've spoken to you is a Spirit-word, and so it is life-making.

<sup>64</sup> But some of you are resisting, refusing to have any part in this." (Jesus knew from the start that some weren't going to risk themselves with him. He knew also who would betray him.)

<sup>68</sup> Peter replied, "Master, to whom would we go? You have the words of real life, eternal life.

<sup>71</sup> He was referring to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. This man--one from the Twelve!--was even then getting ready to betray him.

7 <sup>1</sup> Later Jesus was going about his business in Galilee. He didn't want to travel in Judea because the Jews there were looking for a chance to kill him.

<sup>2</sup> It was near the time of Tabernacles, a feast observed annually by the Jews.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus came back at them, "Don't crowd me. This isn't my time. It's your time--it's [always] your time; you have nothing to lose.

<sup>8</sup> You go ahead, go up to the Feast. Don't wait for me. I'm not ready. It's not the right time for me."

<sup>9</sup> He said this and stayed on in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> But later, after his family had gone up to the Feast, he also went. But he kept out of the way, careful not to draw attention to himself.

<sup>11</sup> The Jews were already out looking for him, asking around, "Where is that man?"

<sup>12</sup> There was a lot of contentious talk about him circulating through the crowds. Some were saying, "He's a good man." But others said, "Not so. He's selling snake oil."

<sup>13</sup> This kind of talk went on in guarded whispers because of the intimidating Jewish leaders.

<sup>14</sup> With the Feast already half over, Jesus showed up in the Temple, teaching.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews were impressed, but puzzled: "How does he know so much without being schooled?"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said, "I didn't make this up. What I teach comes from the One who sent me.

<sup>17</sup> Anyone who wants to do his will can test this teaching and know whether it's from God or whether I'm making it up.

<sup>18</sup> A person making things up tries to make himself look good. But someone trying to honor the one who sent him sticks to the facts and doesn't tamper with reality.

<sup>19</sup> It was Moses, wasn't it, who gave you God's Law? But none of you are living it. So why are you trying to kill me?"

<sup>22</sup> Moses prescribed circumcision--originally it came not from Moses but from his ancestors--and so you circumcise a man, dealing with one part of his body, even if it's the Sabbath.

<sup>23</sup> You do this in order to preserve one item in the Law of Moses. So why are you upset with me because I made a man's whole body well on the Sabbath?

<sup>25</sup> That's when some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this the one they were out to kill?"

<sup>26</sup> And here he is out in the open, saying whatever he pleases, and no one is stopping him. Could it be that the rulers know that he is, in fact, the Messiah?

<sup>27</sup> And yet we know where this man came from. The Messiah is going to come out of nowhere. Nobody is going to know where he comes from."

<sup>28</sup> That provoked Jesus, who was teaching in the Temple, to cry out, "Yes, you think you know me and where I'm from, but that's not where I'm from. I didn't set myself up in business. My true origin is in the One who sent me, and you don't know him at all.

<sup>29</sup> I come from him--that's how I know him. He sent me here."

<sup>30</sup> They were looking for a way to arrest him, but not a hand was laid on him because it wasn't yet God's time.

<sup>31</sup> Many from the crowd committed themselves in faith to him, saying, "Will the Messiah, when he comes, provide better or more convincing evidence than this?"

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees, alarmed at this seditious undertow going through the crowd, teamed up with the high priests and sent their police to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup> Jesus rebuffed them: "I am with you only a short time. Then I go on to the One who sent me.

<sup>34</sup> You will look for me, but you won't find me. Where I am, you can't come."

<sup>35</sup> The Jews put their heads together. "Where do you think he is going that we won't be able to find him? Do you think he is about to travel to the Greek world to teach the Jews?

<sup>36</sup> What is he talking about, anyway: 'You will look for me, but you won't find me,' and 'Where I am, you can't come!'"

<sup>37</sup> On the final and climactic day of the Feast, Jesus took his stand. He cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink.

<sup>38</sup> Rivers of living water will brim and spill out of the depths of anyone who believes in me this way, just as the Scripture says."

<sup>39</sup> (He said this in regard to the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were about to receive. The Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

<sup>40</sup> Those in the crowd who heard these words were saying, "This has to be the Prophet."

<sup>41</sup> Others said, "He is the Messiah!"
But others were saying, "The Messiah doesn't come from Galilee, does he?"

<sup>42</sup> Don't the Scriptures tell us that the Messiah comes from David's line and from Bethlehem, David's village?"

<sup>43</sup> So there was a split in the crowd over him.

<sup>44</sup> Some went so far as wanting to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him.

<sup>45</sup> That's when the Temple police reported back to the high priests and Pharisees, who demanded, "Why didn't you bring him with you?"

<sup>46</sup> The police answered, "Have you heard the way he talks? We've never heard anyone speak like this man."

<sup>47</sup> The Pharisees said, "Are you carried away like the rest of the rabble?"

<sup>48</sup> You don't see any of the leaders believing in him, do you? Or any from the Pharisees?

<sup>49</sup> It's only this crowd, ignorant of God's Law, that is taken in by him--and damned."

<sup>50</sup> Nicodemus, the man who had come to Jesus earlier and was both a ruler and a Pharisee, spoke up.

<sup>51</sup> "Does our Law decide about a man's guilt without first listening to him and finding out what he is doing?"

<sup>52</sup> But they cut him off. "Are you also campaigning for the Galilean?"

<sup>53</sup> Examine the evidence. See if any prophet ever comes from Galilee." Then they all went home.

8 <sup>1</sup> Jesus went across to Mount Olives, <sup>2</sup> but he was soon back in the Temple again. Swarms of people came to him. He sat down and taught them.

<sup>4</sup> and said, "Teacher, this woman was caught red-handed in the act of adultery.

<sup>6</sup> They were trying to trap him into saying something incriminating so they could bring charges against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger in the dirt.

<sup>11</sup> "No one, Master." "Neither do I," said Jesus. "Go on your way. From now on, don't sin."

<sup>12</sup> Jesus once again addressed them: "I am the world's Light. No one who follows me stumbles around in the darkness. I provide plenty of light to live in."

<sup>13</sup> The Pharisees objected, "All we have is your word on this. We need more than this to go on."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus replied, "You're right that you only have my word. But you can depend on it being true. I know where I've come from and where I go next. You don't know where I'm from or where I'm headed.

<sup>15</sup> You decide according to what you can see and touch. I don't make judgments like that.

<sup>16</sup> But even if I did, my judgment would be true because I wouldn't make it out of the narrowness of my experience but in the largeness of the One who sent me, the Father.

<sup>17</sup> That fulfills the conditions set down in God's Law: that you can count on the testimony of two witnesses.

<sup>18</sup> And that is what you have: You have my word and you have the word of the Father who sent me."

<sup>19</sup> They said, "Where is this so-called Father of yours?" Jesus said, "You're looking right at me and you don't see me. How do you expect to see the Father? If you knew me, you would at the same time know the Father."

<sup>20</sup> He gave this speech in the Treasury while teaching in the Temple. No one arrested him because his time wasn't yet up.

<sup>21</sup> Then he went over the same ground again. "I'm leaving and you are going to look for me, but you're missing God in this and are headed for a dead end. There is no way you can come with me."

<sup>22</sup> The Jews said, "So, is he going to kill himself? Is that what he means by 'You can't come with me'?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "You're tied down to the mundane; I'm in touch with what is beyond your horizons. You live in terms of what you see and touch. I'm living on other terms.

<sup>24</sup> I told you that you were missing God in all this. You're at a dead end. If you won't believe I am who I say I am, you're at the dead end of sins. You're missing God in your lives."

<sup>25</sup> They said to him, "Just who are you anyway?" Jesus said, "What I've said from the start.

<sup>26</sup> I have so many things to say that concern you, judgments to make that affect you, but if you don't accept the trustworthiness of the One who commanded my words and acts, none of it matters. That is who you are questioning--not me but the One who sent me."

<sup>27</sup> They still didn't get it, didn't realize that he was referring to the Father.

<sup>28</sup> So Jesus tried again. "When you raise up the Son of Man, then you will know who I am--that I'm not making this up, but speaking only what the Father taught me.

<sup>30</sup> When he put it in these terms, many people decided to believe.

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus turned to the Jews who had claimed to believe in him. "If you stick with this, living out what I tell you, you are my disciples for sure.

<sup>32</sup> Then you will experience for yourselves the truth, and the truth will free you."

<sup>33</sup> Surprised, they said, "But we're descendants of Abraham. We've never been slaves to anyone. How can you say, 'The truth will free you'?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "I tell you most solemnly that anyone who chooses a life of sin is trapped in a dead-end life and is, in fact, a slave.

<sup>35</sup> A slave is a transient, who can't come and go at will. The Son, though, has an established position, the run of the house.

<sup>36</sup> So if the Son sets you free, you are free through and through.

<sup>37</sup> I know you are Abraham's descendants. But I also know that you are trying to kill me because my message hasn't yet penetrated your thick skulls.

<sup>38</sup> I'm talking about things I have seen while keeping company with the Father, and you just go on doing what you have heard from your father."

<sup>39</sup> They were indignant. "Our father is Abraham!" Jesus said, "If you were Abraham's children, you would have been doing the things Abraham did.

<sup>40</sup> And yet here you are trying to kill me, a man who has spoken to you the truth he got straight from God! Abraham never did that sort of thing.

<sup>41</sup> You persist in repeating the works of your father." They said, "We're not bastards. We have a legitimate father: the one and only God."

<sup>42</sup> "If God was your father," said Jesus, "you would love me, for I came from God and arrived here. I didn't come on my own. He sent me.

<sup>44</sup> You're from your father, the Devil, and all you want to do is please him. He was a killer from the very start. He couldn't stand the truth because there wasn't a shred of truth in him. When the Liar speaks, he makes it up out of his lying nature and fills the world with lies.

<sup>45</sup> I arrive on the scene, tell you the plain truth, and you refuse to have a thing to do with me.

<sup>46</sup> Can any one of you convict me of a single misleading word, a single sinful act? But if I'm telling the truth, why don't you believe me?

<sup>48</sup> The Jews then said, "That clinches it. We were right all along when we called you a Samaritan and said you were crazy--demon-possessed!"

<sup>49</sup> Jesus said, "I'm not crazy. I simply honor my Father, while you dishonor me.

<sup>50</sup> I am not trying to get anything for myself. God intends something gloriously grand here and is making the decisions that will bring it about.

<sup>51</sup> I say this with absolute confidence. If you practice what I'm telling you, you'll never have to look death in the face."

<sup>52</sup> At this point the Jews said, "Now we know you're crazy. Abraham died. The prophets died. And you show up saying, 'If you practice what I'm telling you, you'll never have to face death, not even a taste.'

<sup>53</sup> Are you greater than Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you think you are!"

<sup>54</sup> Jesus said, "If I turned the spotlight on myself, it wouldn't amount to anything. But my Father, the same One you say is your Father, put me here at this time and place of splendor.

<sup>55</sup> You haven't recognized him in this. But I have. If I, in false modesty, said I didn't know what was going on, I would be as much of a liar as you are. But I do know, and I am doing what he says.

<sup>56</sup> Abraham--your 'father'--with jubilant faith looked down the corridors of history and saw my day coming. He saw it and cheered."

<sup>57</sup> The Jews said, "You're not even fifty years old--and Abraham saw you?"

<sup>58</sup> "Believe me," said Jesus, "I am who I am long before Abraham was anything."

9 <sup>1</sup> Walking down the street, Jesus saw a man blind from birth.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "You're asking the wrong question. You're looking for someone to blame. There is no such cause-effect here. Look instead for what God can do.

<sup>5</sup> For as long as I am in the world, there is plenty of light. I am the world's Light."

<sup>6</sup> He said this and then spit in the dust, made a clay paste with the saliva, rubbed the paste on the blind man's eyes, <sup>7</sup> and said, "Go, wash at the Pool of Siloam" (Siloam means "Sent"). The man went and washed--and saw.

<sup>8</sup> Soon the town was buzzing. His relatives and those who year after year had seen him as a blind man begging were saying, "Why, isn't this the man we knew, who sat here and begged?"

<sup>9</sup> Others said, "It's him all right!" But others objected, "It's not the same man at all. It just looks like him." He said, "It's me, the very one."

<sup>10</sup> They said, "How did your eyes get opened?"

<sup>11</sup> "A man named Jesus made a paste and rubbed it on my eyes and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' I did what he said. When I washed, I saw."

<sup>15</sup> The Pharisees grilled him again on how he had come to see. He said, "He put a clay paste on my eyes, and I washed, and now I see."

<sup>17</sup> They came back at the blind man, "You're the expert. He opened your eyes. What do you say about him?" He said, "He is a prophet."

<sup>18</sup> The Jews didn't believe it, didn't believe the man was blind to begin with. So they called the parents of the man now bright-eyed with sight.

<sup>19</sup> They asked them, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? So how is it that he now sees?"

<sup>20</sup> His parents said, "We know he is our son, and we know he was born blind.

<sup>21</sup> But we don't know how he came to see--haven't a clue about who opened his eyes. Why don't you ask him? He's a grown man and can speak for himself."

<sup>22</sup> (His parents were talking like this because they were intimidated by the Jewish leaders, who had already decided that anyone who took a stand that this was the Messiah would be kicked out of the meeting place.

<sup>24</sup> They called the man back a second time--the man who had been blind--and told him, "Give credit to God. We know this man is an impostor."

<sup>25</sup> He replied, "I know nothing about that one way or the other. But I know one thing for sure: I was blind...I now see."

<sup>26</sup> They said, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

<sup>27</sup> "I've told you over and over and you haven't listened. Why do you want to hear it again? Are you so eager to become his disciples?"

<sup>28</sup> With that they jumped all over him. "You might be a disciple of that man, but we're disciples of Moses.

<sup>29</sup> We know for sure that God spoke to Moses, but we have no idea where this man even comes from."

<sup>30</sup> The man replied, "This is amazing! You claim to know nothing about him, but the fact is, he opened my eyes!

<sup>31</sup> It's well known that God isn't at the beck and call of sinners, but listens carefully to anyone who lives in reverence and does his will.

<sup>32</sup> That someone opened the eyes of a man born blind has never been heard of--ever.

<sup>33</sup> If this man didn't come from God, he wouldn't be able to do anything."

<sup>34</sup> They said, "You're nothing but dirt! How dare you take that tone with us!" Then they threw him out in the street.

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and went and found him. He asked him, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

<sup>36</sup> The man said, "Point him out to me, sir, so that I can believe in him."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus then said, "I came into the world to bring everything into the clear light of day, making all the distinctions clear, so that those who have never seen will see, and those who have made a great pretense of seeing will be exposed as blind."

<sup>40</sup> Some Pharisees overheard him and said, "Does that mean you're calling us blind?"

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said, "If you were really blind, you would be blameless, but since you claim to see everything so well, you're accountable for every fault and failure.

10 <sup>1</sup> "Let me set this before you as plainly as I can. If a person climbs over or through the fence of a sheep pen instead of going through the gate, you know he's up to no good--a sheep rustler!

<sup>5</sup> They won't follow a stranger's voice but will scatter because they aren't used to the sound of it."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus told this simple story, but they had no idea what he was talking about.

<sup>7</sup> So he tried again. "I'll be explicit, then. I am the Gate for the sheep.

<sup>8</sup> All those others are up to no good--sheep stealers, every one of them. But the sheep didn't listen to them.

<sup>9</sup> I am the Gate. Anyone who goes through me will be cared for--will freely go in and out, and find pasture.

<sup>10</sup> A thief is only there to steal and kill and destroy. I came so they can have real and eternal life, more and better life than they ever dreamed of.

a wolf come and runs for it, leaving the sheep to be ravaged and scattered by the wolf.

<sup>13</sup> He's only in it for the money. The sheep don't matter to him.

<sup>14</sup> "I am the Good Shepherd. I know my own sheep and my own sheep know me.

<sup>15</sup> In the same way, the Father knows me and I know the Father. I put the sheep before myself, sacrificing myself if necessary.

<sup>16</sup> You need to know that I have other sheep in addition to those in this pen. I need to gather and bring them, too. They'll also recognize my voice. Then it will be one flock, one Shepherd.

<sup>17</sup> This is why the Father loves me: because I freely lay down my life. And so I am free to take it up again.

<sup>18</sup> No one takes it from me. I lay it down of my own free will. I have the right to lay it down; I also have the right to take it up again. I received this authority personally from my Father."

<sup>19</sup> This kind of talk caused another split in the Jewish ranks.

<sup>20</sup> A lot of them were saying, "He's crazy, a maniac--out of his head completely. Why bother listening to him?"

<sup>24</sup> The Jews, circling him, said, "How long are you going to keep us guessing? If you're the Messiah, tell us straight out."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus answered, "I told you, but you don't believe. Everything I have done has been authorized by my Father, actions that speak louder than words.

<sup>26</sup> You don't believe because you're not my sheep.

<sup>29</sup> The Father who put them under my care is so much greater than the Destroyer and Thief. No one could ever get them away from him.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "I have made a present to you from the Father of a great many good actions. For which of these acts do you stone me?"

<sup>33</sup> The Jews said, "We're not stoning you for anything good you did, but for what you said--this blasphemy of calling yourself God."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "I'm only quoting your inspired Scriptures, where God said, 'I tell you--you are gods.'

<sup>36</sup> why do you yell, 'Blasphemer! Blasphemer!' at the unique One the Father consecrated and sent into the world, just because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?

<sup>37</sup> If I don't do the things my Father does, well and good; don't believe me.

<sup>38</sup> But if I am doing them, put aside for a moment what you hear me say about myself and just take the evidence of the actions that are right before your eyes. Then perhaps things will come together for you, and you'll see that not only are we doing the same thing, we are the same--Father and Son. He is in me; I am in him."

<sup>39</sup> They tried yet again to arrest him, but he slipped through their fingers.

<sup>40</sup> He went back across the Jordan to the place where John first baptized, and stayed there.

<sup>41</sup> A lot of people followed him over. They were saying, "John did no miracles, but everything he said about this man has come true."

<sup>42</sup> Many believed in him then and there.

<sup>3</sup> So the sisters sent word to Jesus, "Master, the one you love so very much is sick."

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus got the message, he said, "This sickness is not fatal. It will become an occasion to show God's glory by glorifying God's Son."

<sup>6</sup> but oddly, when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed on where he was for two more days.

<sup>7</sup> After the two days, he said to his disciples, "Let's go back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup> They said, "Rabbi, you can't do that. The Jews are out to kill you, and you're going back?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus was talking about death, while his disciples thought he was talking about taking a nap.

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus became explicit: "Lazarus died.

<sup>15</sup> And I am glad for your sakes that I wasn't there. You're about to be given new grounds for believing. Now let's go to him."

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus finally got there, he found Lazarus already four days dead.

<sup>20</sup> Martha heard Jesus was coming and went out to meet him. Mary remained in the house.

<sup>22</sup> Even now, I know that whatever you ask God he will give you."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "Your brother will be raised up."

<sup>24</sup> Martha replied, "I know that he will be raised up in the resurrection at the end of time."

<sup>25</sup> "You don't have to wait for the End. I am, right now, Resurrection and Life. The one who believes in me, even though he or she dies, will live.

<sup>26</sup> And everyone who lives believing in me does not ultimately die at all. Do you believe this?"

<sup>27</sup> "Yes, Master. All along I have believed that you are the Messiah, the Son of God who comes into the world."

<sup>29</sup> The moment she heard that, she jumped up and ran out to him.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus had not yet entered the town but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

<sup>31</sup> When her sympathizing Jewish friends saw Mary run off, they followed her, thinking she was on her way to the tomb to weep there.

<sup>32</sup> Mary came to where Jesus was waiting and fell at his feet, saying, "Master, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her sobbing and the Jews with her sobbing, a deep anger welled up within him.

<sup>37</sup> Others among them said, "Well, if he loved him so much, why didn't he do something to keep him from dying? After all, he opened the eyes of a blind man."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Remove the stone." The sister of the dead man, Martha, said, "Master, by this time there's a stench. He's been dead four days!"

<sup>40</sup> Jesus looked her in the eye. "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup> Then, to the others, "Go ahead, take away the stone." They removed the stone. Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and prayed, "Father, I'm grateful that you have listened to me.

<sup>42</sup> I know you always do listen, but on account of this crowd standing here I've spoken so that they might believe that you sent me."

<sup>43</sup> Then he shouted, "Lazarus, come out!"

<sup>44</sup> And he came out, a cadaver, wrapped from head to toe, and with a kerchief over his face. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him loose."

<sup>45</sup> That was a turnaround for many of the Jews who were with Mary. They saw what Jesus did, and believed in him.

<sup>47</sup> The high priests and Pharisees called a meeting of the Jewish ruling body. "What do we do now?" they asked. "This man keeps on doing things, creating God-signs.

<sup>48</sup> If we let him go on, pretty soon everyone will be believing in him and the Romans will come and remove what little power and privilege we still have."

<sup>49</sup> Then one of them--it was Caiaphas, the designated Chief Priest that year--spoke up, "Don't you know anything?"

<sup>51</sup> He didn't say this of his own accord, but as Chief Priest that year he unwittingly prophesied that Jesus was about to die sacrificially for the nation,<sup>52</sup> and not only for the nation but so that all God's exile-scattered children might be gathered together into one people.

<sup>54</sup> So Jesus no longer went out in public among the Jews. He withdrew into the country bordering the desert to a town called Ephraim and secluded himself there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup> The Jewish Passover was coming up. Crowds of people were making their way from the country up to Jerusalem to get themselves ready for the Feast.

<sup>56</sup> They were curious about Jesus. There was a lot of talk of him among those standing around in the Temple: "What do you think? Do you think he'll show up at the Feast or not?"

<sup>57</sup> Meanwhile, the high priests and Pharisees gave out the word that anyone getting wind of him should inform them. They were all set to arrest him.

easily brought three hundred silver pieces."

<sup>6</sup> He said this not because he cared two cents about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of their common funds, but also embezzled them.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said, "Let her alone. She's anticipating and honoring the day of my burial.

<sup>8</sup> You always have the poor with you. You don't always have me."

<sup>9</sup> Word got out among the Jews that he was back in town. The people came to take a look, not only at Jesus but also at Lazarus, who had been raised from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> So the high priests plotted to kill Lazarus

<sup>11</sup> because so many of the Jews were going over and believing in Jesus on account of him.

<sup>12</sup> The next day the huge crowd that had arrived for the Feast heard that Jesus was entering Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> They broke off palm branches and went out to meet him. And they cheered: Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in God's name! Yes! The King of Israel!

<sup>14</sup> Jesus got a young donkey and rode it, just as the Scripture has it:

<sup>16</sup> The disciples didn't notice the fulfillment of many Scriptures at the time, but after Jesus was glorified, they remembered that what was written about him matched what was done to him.

<sup>17</sup> The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb, raising him from the dead, was there giving eyewitness accounts.

<sup>21</sup> They approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee: "Sir, we want to see Jesus. Can you help us?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered, "Time's up. The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> "Listen carefully: Unless a grain of wheat is buried in the ground, dead to the world, it is never any more than a grain of wheat. But if it is buried, it sprouts and reproduces itself many times over.

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, anyone who holds on to life just as it is destroys that life. But if you let it go, reckless in your love, you'll have it forever, real and eternal.

<sup>26</sup> "If any of you wants to serve me, then follow me. Then you'll be where I am, ready to serve at a moment's notice. The Father will honor and reward anyone who serves me.

<sup>27</sup> "Right now I am storm-tossed. And what am I going to say? 'Father, get me out of this'? No, this is why I came in the first place.

<sup>29</sup> The listening crowd said, "Thunder!" Others said, "An angel spoke to him!"

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, "The voice didn't come for me but for you.

<sup>31</sup> At this moment the world is in crisis. Now Satan, the ruler of this world, will be thrown out.

<sup>32</sup> And I, as I am lifted up from the earth, will attract everyone to me and gather them around me."

<sup>33</sup> He put it this way to show how he was going to be put to death.

<sup>34</sup> Voices from the crowd answered, "We heard from God's Law that the Messiah lasts forever. How can it be necessary, as you put it, that the Son of Man 'be lifted up'? Who is this 'Son of Man'?"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said, "For a brief time still, the light is among you. Walk by the light you have so darkness doesn't destroy you. If you walk in darkness, you don't know where you're going.

<sup>36</sup> As you have the light, believe in the light. Then the light will be within you, and shining through your lives. You'll be children of light." Jesus said all this, and then went into hiding.

<sup>37</sup> All these God-signs he had given them and they still didn't get it, still wouldn't trust him.

<sup>38</sup> This proved that the prophet Isaiah was right: God, who believed what we preached? Who recognized God's arm, outstretched and ready to act?

<sup>39</sup> First they wouldn't believe, then they couldn't--again, just as Isaiah said:

<sup>40</sup> Their eyes are blinded, their hearts are hardened, So that they wouldn't see with their eyes and perceive with their hearts, And turn to me, God, so I could heal them.

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things after he got a glimpse of God's cascading brightness that would pour through the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup> On the other hand, a considerable number from the ranks of the leaders did believe. But because of the Pharisees, they didn't come out in the open with it. They were afraid of getting kicked out of the meeting place.

<sup>43</sup> When push came to shove they cared more for human approval than for God's glory.

<sup>46</sup> I am Light that has come into the world so that all who believe in me won't have to stay any longer in the dark.

<sup>47</sup> "If anyone hears what I am saying and doesn't take it seriously, I don't reject him. I didn't come to reject the world;

<sup>48</sup> I came to save the world. But you need to know that whoever puts me off, refusing to take in what I'm saying, is willfully choosing rejection. The Word, the Word-made-flesh that I have spoken and that I am, that Word and no other is the last word.

<sup>49</sup> I'm not making any of this up on my own. The Father who sent me gave me orders, told me what to say and how to say it.

<sup>50</sup> And I know exactly what his command produces: real and eternal life. That's all I have to say. What the Father told me, I tell you."

13 <sup>1</sup> Just before the Passover Feast, Jesus knew that the time had come to leave this world to go to the Father. Having loved his dear companions, he continued to love them right to the end.

<sup>2</sup> It was suppertime. The Devil by now had Judas, son of Simon the Iscariot, firmly in his grip, all set for the betrayal.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had put him in complete charge of everything, that he came from God and was on his way back to God.

<sup>4</sup> So he got up from the supper table, set aside his robe, and put on an apron.

<sup>5</sup> Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples, drying them with his apron.

<sup>6</sup> When he got to Simon Peter, Peter said, "Master, you wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered, "You don't understand now what I'm doing, but it will be clear enough to you later."

<sup>8</sup> Peter persisted, "You're not going to wash my feet--ever!" Jesus said, "If I don't wash you, you can't be part of what I'm doing."

<sup>9</sup> "Master!" said Peter. "Not only my feet, then. Wash my hands! Wash my head!"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "If you've had a bath in the morning, you only need your feet washed now and you're clean from head to toe. My concern, you understand, is holiness, not hygiene. So now you're clean. But not every one of you."

<sup>11</sup> (He knew who was betraying him. That's why he said, "Not every one of you.")

<sup>12</sup> After he had finished washing their feet, he took his robe, put it back on, and went back to his place at the table. Then he said, "Do you understand what I have done to you?"

<sup>13</sup> You address me as 'Teacher' and 'Master,' and rightly so. That is what I am.

<sup>14</sup> So if I, the Master and Teacher, washed your feet, you must now wash each other's feet.

<sup>18</sup> "I'm not including all of you in this. I know precisely whom I've selected, so as not to interfere with the fulfillment of this Scripture: The one who ate bread at my table Turned on his heel against me.

<sup>19</sup> "I'm telling you all this ahead of time so that when it happens you will believe that I am who I say I am.

<sup>21</sup> After he said these things, Jesus became visibly upset, and then he told them why. "One of you is going to betray me."

<sup>25</sup> So, being the closest, he said, "Master, who?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said, "The one to whom I give this crust of bread after I've dipped it." Then he dipped the crust and gave it to Judas, son of Simon the Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup> As soon as the bread was in his hand, Satan entered him. "What you must do," said Jesus, "do. Do it and get it over with."

<sup>29</sup> Some thought that since Judas was their treasurer, Jesus was telling him to buy what they needed for the Feast, or that he should give something to the poor.

<sup>31</sup> When he had left, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is seen for who he is, and God seen for who he is in him. The moment God is seen in him, <sup>32</sup> God's glory will be on display. In glorifying him, he himself is glorified--glory all around!

<sup>33</sup> "Children, I am with you for only a short time longer. You are going to look high and low for me. But just as I told the Jews, I'm telling you: 'Where I go, you are not able to come.'

<sup>34</sup> "Let me give you a new command: Love one another. In the same way I loved you, you love one another.

<sup>35</sup> This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples--when they see the love you have for each other."

<sup>37</sup> "Master," said Peter, "why can't I follow now? I'll lay down my life for you!"

<sup>38</sup> "Really? You'll lay down your life for me? The truth is that before the rooster crows, you'll deny me three times."

14 <sup>1</sup> "Don't let this throw you. You trust God, don't you? Trust me.

<sup>2</sup> There is plenty of room for you in my Father's home. If that weren't so, would I have told you that I'm on my way to get a room ready for you?

<sup>3</sup> And if I'm on my way to get your room ready, I'll come back and get you so you can live where I live.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said, "I am the Road, also the Truth, also the Life. No one gets to the Father apart from me.

<sup>7</sup> If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him. You've even seen him!"

<sup>9</sup> "You've been with me all this time, Philip, and you still don't understand? To see me is to see the Father. So how can you ask, 'Where is the Father?'

<sup>10</sup> Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you aren't mere words. I don't just make them up on my own. The Father who resides in me crafts each word into a divine act.

<sup>11</sup> "Believe me: I am in my Father and my Father is in me. If you can't believe that, believe what you see--these works.

<sup>12</sup> The person who trusts me will not only do what I'm doing but even greater things, because I, on my way to the Father, am giving you the same work to do that I've been doing. You can count on it.

<sup>13</sup> From now on, whatever you request along the lines of who I am and what I am doing, I'll do it. That's how the Father will be seen for who he is in the Son. I mean it.

<sup>16</sup> I will talk to the Father, and he'll provide you another Friend so that you will always have someone with you.

<sup>17</sup> This Friend is the Spirit of Truth. The godless world can't take him in because it doesn't have eyes to see him, doesn't know what to look for. But you know him already because he has been staying with you, and will even be in you!

<sup>19</sup> In just a little while the world will no longer see me, but you're going to see me because I am alive and you're about to come alive.

<sup>20</sup> At that moment you will know absolutely that I'm in my Father, and you're in me, and I'm in you.

<sup>21</sup> "The person who knows my commandments and keeps them, that's who loves me. And the person who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and make myself plain to him."

<sup>22</sup> Judas (not Iscariot) said, "Master, why is it that you are about to make yourself plain to us but not to the world?"

<sup>23</sup> "Because a loveless world," said Jesus, "is a sightless world. If anyone loves me, he will carefully keep my word and my Father will love him--we'll move right into the neighborhood!

<sup>24</sup> Not loving me means not keeping my words. The message you are hearing isn't mine. It's the message of the Father who sent me.

<sup>25</sup> "I'm telling you these things while I'm still living with you.

<sup>26</sup> The Friend, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send at my request, will make everything plain to you. He will remind you of all the things I have told you.

<sup>27</sup> I'm leaving you well and whole. That's my parting gift to you. Peace. I don't leave you the way you're used to being left--feeling abandoned, bereft. So don't be upset. Don't be distraught.

<sup>28</sup> "You've heard me tell you, 'I'm going away, and I'm coming back.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I'm on my way to the Father because the Father is the goal and purpose of my life.

<sup>29</sup> "I've told you this ahead of time, before it happens, so that when it does happen, the confirmation will deepen your belief in me.

<sup>30</sup> I'll not be talking with you much more like this because the chief of this godless world is about to attack. But don't worry--he has nothing on me, no claim on me.

<sup>31</sup> But so the world might know how thoroughly I love the Father, I am carrying out my Father's instructions right down to the last detail. "Get up. Let's go. It's time to leave here.

15 <sup>1</sup> "I am the Real Vine and my Father is the Farmer.

<sup>2</sup> He cuts off every branch of me that doesn't bear grapes. And every branch that is grape-bearing he prunes back so it will bear even more.

<sup>3</sup> You are already pruned back by the message I have spoken.

<sup>4</sup> "Live in me. Make your home in me just as I do in you. In the same way that a branch can't bear grapes by itself but only by being joined to the vine, you can't bear fruit unless you are joined with me.

<sup>5</sup> "I am the Vine, you are the branches. When you're joined with me and I with you, the relation intimate and organic, the harvest is sure to be abundant. Separated, you can't produce a thing.

<sup>7</sup> But if you make yourselves at home with me and my words are at home in you, you can be sure that whatever you ask will be listened to and acted upon.

<sup>8</sup> This is how my Father shows who he is--when you produce grapes, when you mature as my disciples.

<sup>9</sup> "I've loved you the way my Father has loved me. Make yourselves at home in my love.

<sup>10</sup> If you keep my commands, you'll remain intimately at home in my love. That's what I've done--kept my Father's commands and made myself at home in his love.

<sup>11</sup> "I've told you these things for a purpose: that my joy might be your joy, and your joy wholly mature.

<sup>12</sup> This is my command: Love one another the way I loved you.

<sup>13</sup> This is the very best way to love. Put your life on the line for your friends.

<sup>14</sup> You are my friends when you do the things I command you.

<sup>15</sup> I'm no longer calling you servants because servants don't understand what their master is thinking and planning. No, I've named you friends because I've let you in on everything I've heard from the Father.

<sup>16</sup> "You didn't choose me, remember; I chose you, and put you in the world to bear fruit, fruit that won't spoil. As fruit bearers, whatever you ask the Father in relation to me, he gives you.

<sup>19</sup> If you lived on the world's terms, the world would love you as one of its own. But since I picked you to live on God's terms and no longer on the world's terms, the world is going to hate you.

<sup>20</sup> "When that happens, remember this: Servants don't get better treatment than their masters. If they beat on me, they will certainly beat on you. If they did what I told them, they will do what you tell them.

<sup>21</sup> "They are going to do all these things to you because of the way they treated me, because they don't know the One who sent me.

<sup>22</sup> If I hadn't come and told them all this in plain language, it wouldn't be so bad. As it is, they have no excuse.

done, they wouldn't be to blame. But they saw the God-signs and hated anyway, both me and my Father.

<sup>25</sup> Interesting--they have verified the truth of their own Scriptures where it is written, 'They hated me for no good reason.'

<sup>26</sup> "When the Friend I plan to send you from the Father comes--the Spirit of Truth issuing from the Father--he will confirm everything about me.

<sup>27</sup> You, too, from your side must give your confirming evidence, since you are in this with me from the start.

16 <sup>1</sup> "I've told you these things to prepare you for rough times ahead.

<sup>2</sup> They are going to throw you out of the meeting places. There will even come a time when anyone who kills you will think he's doing God a favor.

<sup>4</sup> I've told you these things so that when the time comes and they start in on you, you'll be well-warned and ready for them. "I didn't tell you this earlier because I was with you every day.

<sup>5</sup> But now I am on my way to the One who sent me. Not one of you has asked, 'Where are you going?'

<sup>7</sup> So let me say it again, this truth: It's better for you that I leave. If I don't leave, the Friend won't come. But if I go, I'll send him to you.

<sup>8</sup> "When he comes, he'll expose the error of the godless world's view of sin, righteousness, and judgment:

<sup>10</sup> that righteousness comes from above, where I am with the Father, out of their sight and control;

<sup>11</sup> that judgment takes place as the ruler of this godless world is brought to trial and convicted.

<sup>12</sup> "I still have many things to tell you, but you can't handle them now.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Friend comes, the Spirit of the Truth, he will take you by the hand and guide you into all the truth there is. He won't draw attention to himself, but will make sense out of what is about to happen and, indeed, out of all that I have done and said.

<sup>14</sup> He will honor me; he will take from me and deliver it to you.

<sup>15</sup> Everything the Father has is also mine. That is why I've said, 'He takes from me and delivers to you.'

<sup>16</sup> "In a day or so you're not going to see me, but then in another day or so you will see me."

<sup>17</sup> That stirred up a hornet's nest of questions among the disciples: "What's he talking about: 'In a day or so you're not going to see me, but then in another day or so you will see me'? And, 'Because I'm on my way to the Father'?"

<sup>18</sup> What is this 'day or so'? We don't know what he's talking about."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus knew they were dying to ask him what he meant, so he said, "Are you trying to figure out among yourselves what I meant when I said, 'In a day or so you're not going to see me, but then in another day or so you will see me'?"

<sup>20</sup> Then fix this firmly in your minds: You're going to be in deep mourning while the godless world throws a party. You'll be sad, very sad, but your sadness will develop into gladness.

<sup>21</sup> "When a woman gives birth, she has a hard time, there's no getting around it. But when the baby is born, there is joy in the birth. This new life in the world wipes out memory of the pain.

<sup>22</sup> The sadness you have right now is similar to that pain, but the coming joy is also similar. When I see you again, you'll be full of joy, and it will be a joy no one can rob from you.

<sup>23</sup> You'll no longer be so full of questions. "This is what I want you to do: Ask the Father for whatever is in keeping with the things I've revealed to you.

<sup>24</sup> Ask in my name, according to my will, and he'll most certainly give it to you. Your joy will be a river overflowing its banks!

<sup>25</sup> "I've used figures of speech in telling you these things. Soon I'll drop the figures and tell you about the Father in plain language.

<sup>26</sup> Then you can make your requests directly to him in relation to this life I've revealed to you. I won't continue making requests of the Father on your behalf.

<sup>27</sup> I won't need to. Because you've gone out on a limb, committed yourselves to love and trust in me, believing I came directly from the Father, the Father loves you directly.

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, "Finally! You're giving it to us straight, in plain talk--no more figures of speech.

<sup>30</sup> Now we know that you know everything--it all comes together in you. You won't have to put up with our questions anymore. We're convinced you came from God."

<sup>32</sup> In fact, you're about to make a run for it--saving your own skins and abandoning me. But I'm not abandoned. The Father is with me.

<sup>33</sup> I've told you all this so that trusting me, you will be unshakable and assured, deeply at peace. In this godless world you will continue to experience difficulties. But take heart! I've conquered the world."

17 <sup>1</sup> Jesus said these things. Then, raising his eyes in prayer, he said: Father, it's time. Display the bright splendor of your Son So the Son in turn may show your bright splendor.

<sup>2</sup> You put him in charge of everything human So he might give real and eternal life to all in his charge.

<sup>3</sup> And this is the real and eternal life: That they know you, The one and only true God, And Jesus Christ, whom you sent.

<sup>4</sup> I glorified you on earth By completing down to the last detail What you assigned me to do.

<sup>5</sup> And now, Father, glorify me with your very own splendor, The very splendor I had in your presence Before there was a world.

<sup>6</sup> I spelled out your character in detail
To the men and women you gave me.
They were yours in the first place; Then you gave them to me, And they have now done what you said.

<sup>7</sup> They know now, beyond the shadow of a doubt, That everything you gave me is firsthand from you,

<sup>8</sup> For the message you gave me, I gave them; And they took it, and were convinced That I came from you. They believed that you sent me.

<sup>9</sup> I pray for them. I'm not praying for the God-rejecting world But for those you gave me, For they are yours by right.

<sup>10</sup> Everything mine is yours, and yours mine, And my life is on display in them.

<sup>11</sup> For I'm no longer going to be visible in the world; They'll continue in the world While I return to you. Holy Father, guard them as they pursue this life That you conferred as a gift through me, So they can be one heart and mind

<sup>12</sup> As we are one heart and mind. As long as I was with them, I guarded them In the pursuit of the life you gave through me; I even posted a night watch. And not one of them got away, Except for the rebel bent on destruction (the exception that proved the rule of Scripture).

<sup>13</sup> Now I'm returning to you. I'm saying these things in the world's hearing So my people can experience My joy completed in them.

<sup>14</sup> I gave them your word; The godless world hated them because of it, Because they didn't join the world's ways, <sup>15</sup> Just as I didn't join the world's ways.

I'm not asking that you take them out of the world But that you guard them from the Evil One.

<sup>16</sup> They are no more defined by the world Than I am defined by the world.

<sup>17</sup> Make them holy--consecrated--with the truth; Your word is consecrating truth.

<sup>18</sup> In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I give them a mission in the world.

<sup>19</sup> I'm consecrating myself for their sakes So they'll be truth-consecrated in their mission.

<sup>20</sup> I'm praying not only for them But also for those who will believe in me Because of them and their witness about me.

<sup>21</sup> The goal is for all of them to become one heart and mind--Just as you, Father, are in me and I in you, So they might be one heart and mind with us. Then the world might believe that you, in fact, sent me.

<sup>22</sup> The same glory you gave me, I gave them, So they'll be as unified and together as we are--

<sup>23</sup> I in them and you in me. Then they'll be mature in this oneness, And give the godless world evidence That you've sent me and loved them In the same way you've loved me.

<sup>24</sup> Father, I want those you gave me To be with me, right where I am, So they can see my glory, the splendor you gave me, Having loved me Long before there ever was a world.

<sup>25</sup> Righteous Father, the world has never known you, But I have known you, and these disciples know That you sent me on this mission.

<sup>26</sup> I have made your very being known to them--Who you are and what you do--And continue to make it known, So that your love for me Might be in them

Exactly as I am in them.

<sup>2</sup> Judas, his betrayer, knew the place because Jesus and his disciples went there often.

<sup>3</sup> So Judas led the way to the garden, and the Roman soldiers and police sent by the high priests and Pharisees followed. They arrived there with lanterns and torches and swords.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus, knowing by now everything that was coming down on him, went out and met them. He said, "Who are you after?" They answered, "Jesus the Nazarene."

<sup>5</sup> He said, "That's me." The soldiers recoiled, totally taken aback. Judas, his betrayer, stood out like a sore thumb.

<sup>8</sup> "I told you," said Jesus, "that's me. I'm the one. So if it's me you're after, let these others go."

<sup>11</sup> Jesus ordered Peter, "Put back your sword. Do you think for a minute I'm not going to drink this cup the Father gave me?"

<sup>12</sup> Then the Roman soldiers under their commander, joined by the Jewish police, seized Jesus and tied him up.

<sup>13</sup> They took him first to Annas, father-in-law of Caiaphas. Caiaphas was the Chief Priest that year.

<sup>14</sup> It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it was to their advantage that one man die for the people.

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. That other disciple was known to the Chief Priest, and so he went in with Jesus to the Chief Priest's courtyard.

<sup>16</sup> Peter had to stay outside. Then the other disciple went out, spoke to the doorkeeper, and got Peter in.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus answered, "I've spoken openly in public. I've taught regularly in meeting places and the Temple, where the Jews all come together. Everything has been out in the open. I've said nothing in secret.

<sup>21</sup> So why are you treating me like a conspirator? Question those who have been listening to me. They know well what I have said. My teachings have all been aboveboard."

<sup>22</sup> When he said this, one of the policemen standing there slapped Jesus across the face, saying, "How dare you speak to the Chief Priest like that!"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "If I've said something wrong, prove it. But if I've spoken the plain truth, why this slapping around?"

<sup>29</sup> So Pilate came out to them and spoke. "What charge do you bring against this man?"

<sup>30</sup> They said, "If he hadn't been doing something evil, do you think we'd be here bothering you?"

<sup>31</sup> Pilate said, "You take him. Judge him by your law." The Jews said, "We're not allowed to kill anyone."

<sup>33</sup> Pilate went back into the palace and called for Jesus. He said, "Are you the 'King of the Jews'?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, "Are you saying this on your own, or did others tell you this about me?"

<sup>35</sup> Pilate said, "Do I look like a Jew? Your people and your high priests turned you over to me. What did you do?"

<sup>36</sup> "My kingdom," said Jesus, "doesn't consist of what you see around you. If it did, my followers would fight so that I wouldn't be handed over to the Jews. But I'm not that kind of king, not the world's kind of king."

<sup>37</sup> Then Pilate said, "So, are you a king or not?" Jesus answered, "You tell me. Because I am King, I was born and entered the world so that I could witness to the truth. Everyone who cares for truth, who has any feeling for the truth, recognizes my voice."

<sup>4</sup> Pilate went back out again and said to them, "I present him to you, but I want you to know that I do not find him guilty of any crime."

<sup>6</sup> When the high priests and police saw him, they shouted in a frenzy, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate told them, "You take him. You crucify him. I find nothing wrong with him."

<sup>7</sup> The Jews answered, "We have a law, and by that law he must die because he claimed to be the Son of God."

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard this, he became even more scared.

<sup>9</sup> He went back into the palace and said to Jesus, "Where did you come from?" Jesus gave no answer.

<sup>10</sup> Pilate said, "You won't talk? Don't you know that I have the authority to pardon you, and the authority to--crucify you?"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus said, "You haven't a shred of authority over me except what has been given you from heaven. That's why the one who betrayed me to you has committed a far greater fault."

<sup>13</sup> When Pilate heard those words, he led Jesus outside. He sat down at the judgment seat in the area designated Stone Court (in Hebrew, [Gabbatha]).

<sup>14</sup> It was the preparation day for Passover. The hour was noon. Pilate said to the Jews, "Here is your king."

<sup>15</sup> They shouted back, "Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!" Pilate said, "I am to crucify your king?" The high priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar."

<sup>18</sup> where they crucified him, and with him two others, one on each side, Jesus in the middle.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate wrote a sign and had it placed on the cross. It read: JESUS THE NAZARENE THE KING OF THE JEWS

<sup>20</sup> Many of the Jews read the sign because the place where Jesus was crucified was right next to the city. It was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

<sup>21</sup> The Jewish high priests objected. "Don't write," they said to Pilate, "'The King of the Jews.' Make it, 'This man said, 'I am the King of the Jews.'""

<sup>23</sup> When they crucified him, the Roman soldiers took his clothes and divided them up four ways, to each soldier a fourth. But his robe was seamless, a single piece of weaving, <sup>24</sup> so they said to each other, "Let's not tear it up. Let's throw dice to see who gets it." This confirmed the Scripture that said, "They divided up my clothes among them and threw dice for my coat." (The soldiers validated the Scriptures!) While the soldiers were looking after themselves,

<sup>28</sup> Jesus, seeing that everything had been completed so that the Scripture record might also be complete, then said, "I'm thirsty."

<sup>30</sup> After he took the wine, Jesus said, "It's done...complete." Bowing his head, he offered up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup> Then the Jews, since it was the day of Sabbath preparation, and so the bodies wouldn't stay on the crosses over the Sabbath (it was a high holy day that year), petitioned Pilate that their legs be broken to speed death, and the bodies taken down.

<sup>32</sup> So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man crucified with Jesus, and then the other.

<sup>35</sup> The eyewitness to these things has presented an accurate report. He saw it himself and is telling the truth so that you, also, will believe.

<sup>38</sup> After all this, Joseph of Arimathea (he was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, because he was intimidated by the Jews) petitioned Pilate to take the body of Jesus. Pilate gave permission. So Joseph came and took the body.

<sup>39</sup> Nicodemus, who had first come to Jesus at night, came now in broad daylight carrying a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.

<sup>40</sup> They took Jesus' body and, following the Jewish burial custom, wrapped it in linen with the spices.

<sup>41</sup> There was a garden near the place he was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been placed.

<sup>42</sup> So, because it was Sabbath preparation for the Jews and the tomb was convenient, they placed Jesus in it.

20 <sup>1</sup> Early in the morning on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone was moved away from the entrance.

<sup>2</sup> She ran at once to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, breathlessly panting, "They took the Master from the tomb. We don't know where they've put him."

<sup>5</sup> Stooping to look in, he saw the pieces of linen cloth lying there, but he didn't go in.

<sup>7</sup> and the kerchief used to cover his head not lying with the linen cloths but separate, neatly folded by itself.

<sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, the one who had gotten there first, went into the tomb, took one look at the evidence, and believed.

<sup>9</sup> No one yet knew from the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

<sup>13</sup> They said to her, "Woman, why do you weep?" "They took my Master," she said, "and I don't know where they put him."

<sup>14</sup> After she said this, she turned away and saw Jesus standing there. But she didn't recognize him.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus spoke to her, "Woman, why do you weep? Who are you looking for?" She, thinking that he was the gardener, said, "Mister, if you took him, tell me where you put him so I can care for him."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said, "Mary." Turning to face him, she said in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" meaning "Teacher!"

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Don't cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go to my brothers and tell them, 'I ascend to my Father and your Father, my God and your God.'"

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene went, telling the news to the disciples: "I saw the Master!" And she told them everything he said to her.

<sup>19</sup> Later on that day, the disciples had gathered together, but, fearful of the Jews, had locked all the doors in the house. Jesus entered, stood among them, and said, "Peace to you."

<sup>20</sup> Then he showed them his hands and side. The disciples, seeing the Master with their own eyes, were exuberant.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus repeated his greeting: "Peace to you. Just as the Father sent me, I send you."

<sup>22</sup> Then he took a deep breath and breathed into them. "Receive the Holy Spirit," he said.

<sup>25</sup> The other disciples told him, "We saw the Master." But he said, "Unless I see the nail holes in his hands, put my finger in the nail holes, and stick my hand in his side, I won't believe it."

<sup>26</sup> Eight days later, his disciples were again in the room. This time Thomas was with them. Jesus came through the locked doors, stood among them, and said, "Peace to you."

<sup>27</sup> Then he focused his attention on Thomas. "Take your finger and examine my hands. Take your hand and stick it in my side. Don't be unbelieving. Believe."

<sup>28</sup> Thomas said, "My Master! My God!"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "So, you believe because you've seen with your own eyes. Even better blessings are in store for those who believe without seeing."

<sup>31</sup> These are written down so you will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and in the act of believing, have real and eternal life in the way he personally revealed it.

<sup>3</sup> Simon Peter announced, "I'm going fishing." The rest of them replied, "We're going with you." They went out and got in the boat. They caught nothing that night.

<sup>4</sup> When the sun came up, Jesus was standing on the beach, but they didn't recognize him.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus spoke to them: "Good morning! Did you catch anything for breakfast?" They answered, "No."

<sup>6</sup> He said, "Throw the net off the right side of the boat and see what happens." They did what he said. All of a sudden there were so many fish in it, they weren't strong enough to pull it in.

<sup>7</sup> Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Master!" When Simon Peter realized that it was the Master, he threw on some clothes, for he was stripped for work, and dove into the sea.

<sup>13</sup> Jesus then took the bread and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish.

<sup>14</sup> This was now the third time Jesus had shown himself alive to the disciples since being raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup> After breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" "Yes, Master, you know I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."

<sup>16</sup> He then asked a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" "Yes, Master, you know I love you." Jesus said, "Shepherd my sheep."

<sup>17</sup> Then he said it a third time: "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was upset that he asked for the third time, "Do you love me?" so he answered, "Master, you know everything there is to know. You've got to know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.

<sup>18</sup> I'm telling you the very truth now: When you were young you dressed yourself and went wherever you wished, but when you get old you'll have to stretch out your hands while someone else dresses you and takes you where you don't want to go."

<sup>19</sup> He said this to hint at the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. And then he commanded, "Follow me."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said, "If I want him to live until I come again, what's that to you? You--follow me."

<sup>23</sup> That is how the rumor got out among the brothers that this disciple wouldn't die. But that is not what Jesus said. He simply said, "If I want him to live until I come again, what's that to you?"

<sup>24</sup> This is the same disciple who was eyewitness to all these things and wrote them down. And we all know that his eyewitness account is reliable and accurate.

<sup>25</sup> There are so many other things Jesus did. If they were all written down, each of them, one by one, I can't imagine a world big enough to hold such a library of books.

Acts of the Apostles

1 <sup>1</sup> Dear Theophilus, in the first volume of this book I wrote on everything that Jesus began to do and teach <sup>2</sup> until the day he said good-bye to the apostles, the ones he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven.

<sup>3</sup> After his death, he presented himself alive to them in many different settings over a period of forty days. In face-to-face meetings, he talked to them about things concerning the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> As they met and ate meals together, he told them that they were on no account to leave Jerusalem but "must wait for what the Father promised: the promise you heard from me.

<sup>5</sup> John baptized in water; you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit. And soon."

<sup>6</sup> When they were together for the last time they asked, "Master, are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel now? Is this the time?"

<sup>8</sup> What you'll get is the Holy Spirit. And when the Holy Spirit comes on you, you will be able to be my witnesses in Jerusalem, all over Judea and Samaria, even to the ends of the world."

<sup>9</sup> These were his last words. As they watched, he was taken up and disappeared in a cloud.

<sup>10</sup> They stood there, staring into the empty sky. Suddenly two men appeared--in white robes!

<sup>11</sup> They said, "You Galileans!--why do you just stand here looking up at an empty sky? This very Jesus who was taken up from among you to heaven will come as certainly--and mysteriously--as he left."

<sup>12</sup> So they left the mountain called Olives and returned to Jerusalem. It was a little over half a mile.

<sup>14</sup> They agreed they were in this for good, completely together in prayer, the women included. Also Jesus' mother, Mary, and his brothers.

<sup>15</sup> During this time, Peter stood up in the company--there were about one hundred twenty of them in the room at the time--

<sup>16</sup> and said, "Friends, long ago the Holy Spirit spoke through David regarding Judas, who became the guide to those who arrested Jesus. That Scripture had to be fulfilled, and now has been.

<sup>20</sup> It's exactly what we find written in the Psalms: Let his farm become haunted So no one can ever live there. "And also what was written later: Let someone else take over his post.

<sup>21</sup> "Judas must now be replaced. The replacement must come from the company of men who stayed together with us

<sup>25</sup> to take the place in this ministry and leadership that Judas threw away in order to go his own way."

<sup>26</sup> They then drew straws. Matthias won and was counted in with the eleven apostles.

2<sup>1</sup> When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.

<sup>2</sup> Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force--no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building.

<sup>5</sup> There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then, devout pilgrims from all over the world.

<sup>6</sup> When they heard the sound, they came on the run. Then when they heard, one after another, their own mother tongues being spoken, they were thunderstruck.

<sup>8</sup> How come we're hearing them talk in our various mother tongues?

<sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes, and Elamites;
Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

<sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene;
Immigrants from Rome,

<sup>11</sup> both Jews and proselytes; Even Cretans and Arabs! "They're speaking our languages, describing God's mighty works!"

<sup>12</sup> Their heads were spinning; they couldn't make head or tail of any of it.
They talked back and forth, confused:
"What's going on here?"

<sup>13</sup> Others joked, "They're drunk on cheap wine."

<sup>14</sup> That's when Peter stood up and, backed by the other eleven, spoke out with bold urgency: "Fellow Jews, all of you who are visiting Jerusalem, listen carefully and get this story straight.

<sup>17</sup> "In the Last Days," God says, "I will pour out my Spirit on every kind of people: Your sons will prophesy, also your daughters; Your young men will see visions, your old men dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> When the time comes, I'll pour out my Spirit On those who serve me, men and women both, and they'll prophesy.

<sup>20</sup> the sun turning black and the moon blood-red, Before the Day of the Lord arrives, the Day tremendous and marvelous;

<sup>21</sup> And whoever calls out for help to me, God, will be saved."

<sup>22</sup> "Fellow Israelites, listen carefully to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man thoroughly accredited by God to you--the miracles and wonders and signs that God did through him are common knowledge--

<sup>23</sup> this Jesus, following the deliberate and well-thought-out plan of God, was betrayed by men who took the law into their own hands, and was handed over to you. And you pinned him to a cross and killed him.

<sup>24</sup> But God untied the death ropes and raised him up. Death was no match for him.

<sup>25</sup> David said it all: I saw God before me for all time. Nothing can shake me; he's right by my side.

<sup>30</sup> But being also a prophet and knowing that God had solemnly sworn that a descendant of his would rule his kingdom,

<sup>31</sup> seeing far ahead, he talked of the resurrection of the Messiah--'no trip to Hades, no stench of death.'

<sup>33</sup> Then, raised to the heights at the right hand of God and receiving the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he poured out the Spirit he had just received. That is what you see and hear.

<sup>34</sup> For David himself did not ascend to heaven, but he did say, God said to my Master, "Sit at my right hand

<sup>36</sup> "All Israel, then, know this: There's no longer room for doubt--God made him Master and Messiah, this Jesus whom you killed on a cross."

<sup>37</sup> Cut to the quick, those who were there listening asked Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers! Brothers! So now what do we do?"

<sup>38</sup> Peter said, "Change your life. Turn to God and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, so your sins are forgiven. Receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>39</sup> The promise is targeted to you and your children, but also to all who are far away--whomever, in fact, our Master God invites."

<sup>42</sup> They committed themselves to the teaching of the apostles, the life together, the common meal, and the prayers.

<sup>43</sup> Everyone around was in awe--all those wonders and signs done through the apostles!

<sup>46</sup> They followed a daily discipline of worship in the Temple followed by meals at home, every meal a celebration, exuberant and joyful, <sup>47</sup> as they praised God. People in general liked what they saw. Every day their number grew as God added those who were saved.

3 <sup>1</sup> One day at three o'clock in the afternoon, Peter and John were on their way into the Temple for prayer meeting.

<sup>2</sup> At the same time there was a man crippled from birth being carried up. Every day he was set down at the Temple gate, the one named Beautiful, to beg from those going into the Temple.

<sup>6</sup> Peter said, "I don't have a nickel to my name, but what I do have, I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk!"

<sup>7</sup> He grabbed him by the right hand and pulled him up. In an instant his feet and ankles became firm.

<sup>8</sup> He jumped to his feet and walked. The man went into the Temple with them, walking back and forth, dancing and praising God.

<sup>10</sup> They recognized him as the one who sat begging at the Temple's Gate Beautiful and rubbed their eyes, astonished, scarcely believing what they were seeing.

<sup>11</sup> The man threw his arms around Peter and John, ecstatic. All the people ran up to where they were at Solomon's Porch to see it for themselves.

<sup>12</sup> When Peter saw he had a congregation, he addressed the people: "Oh, Israelites, why does this take you by such complete surprise, and why stare at us as if our power or piety made him walk?"

<sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, has glorified his Son Jesus. The very One that Pilate called innocent, you repudiated.

<sup>15</sup> You no sooner killed the Author of Life than God raised him from the dead--and we're the witnesses.

<sup>17</sup> "And now, friends, I know you had no idea what you were doing when you killed Jesus, and neither did your leaders.

<sup>18</sup> But God, who through the preaching of all the prophets had said all along that his Messiah would be killed, knew exactly what you were doing and used it to fulfill his plans.

<sup>19</sup> "Now it's time to change your ways! Turn to face God so he can wipe away your sins, pour out showers of blessing to refresh you, <sup>20</sup> and send you the Messiah he prepared for you, namely, Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> For the time being he must remain out of sight in heaven until everything is restored to order again just the way God, through the preaching of his holy prophets of old, said it would be.

<sup>22</sup> Moses, for instance, said, 'Your God will raise up for you a prophet just like me from your family. Listen to every word he speaks to you.'

<sup>23</sup> Every last living soul who refuses to listen to that prophet will be wiped out from the people.'

<sup>24</sup> "All the prophets from Samuel on down said the same thing, said most emphatically that these days would come.

<sup>25</sup> These prophets, along with the covenant God made with your ancestors, are your family tree. God's covenant-word to Abraham provides the text: 'By your offspring all the families of the earth will be blessed.'

<sup>26</sup> But you are first in line: God, having raised up his Son, sent him to bless you as you turn, one by one, from your evil ways."

4<sup>1</sup> While Peter and John were addressing the people, the priests, the chief of the Temple police, and some Sadducees came up, <sup>2</sup> indignant that these upstart apostles were instructing the people and proclaiming that the resurrection from the dead had taken place in Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> They arrested them and threw them in jail until morning, for by now it was late in the evening.

<sup>4</sup> But many of those who listened had already believed the Message--in round numbers about five thousand!

<sup>5</sup> The next day a meeting was called in Jerusalem. The rulers, religious leaders, religion scholars,

<sup>8</sup> With that, Peter, full of the Holy Spirit, let loose: "Rulers and leaders of the people,

<sup>9</sup> if we have been brought to trial today for helping a sick man, put under investigation regarding this healing, <sup>10</sup> I'll be completely frank with you--we have nothing to hide. By the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, the One you killed on a cross, the One God raised from the dead, by means of his name this man stands before you healthy and whole.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus is 'the stone you masons threw out, which is now the cornerstone.'

<sup>12</sup> Salvation comes no other way; no other name has been or will be given to us by which we can be saved, only this one."

<sup>13</sup> They couldn't take their eyes off them--Peter and John standing there so confident, so sure of themselves! Their fascination deepened when they realized these two were laymen with no training in Scripture or formal education. They recognized them as companions of Jesus, <sup>14</sup> but with the man right before them, seeing him standing there so upright--so healed!--what could they say against that?

<sup>15</sup> They sent them out of the room so they could work out a plan. They talked it over:

<sup>16</sup> "What can we do with these men? By now it's known all over town that a miracle has occurred, and that they are behind it. There is no way we can refute that.

<sup>17</sup> But so that it doesn't go any further, let's silence them with threats so they won't dare to use Jesus' name ever again with anyone."

<sup>18</sup> They called them back and warned them that they were on no account ever again to speak or teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> The religious leaders renewed their threats, but then released them. They couldn't come up with a charge that would stick, that would keep them in jail. The people wouldn't have stood for it--they were all praising God over what had happened.

<sup>22</sup> The man who had been miraculously healed was over forty years old.

<sup>23</sup> As soon as Peter and John were let go, they went to their friends and told them what the high priests and religious leaders had said.

<sup>24</sup> Hearing the report, they lifted their voices in a wonderful harmony in prayer: "Strong God, you made heaven and earth and sea and everything in them.

<sup>25</sup> By the Holy Spirit you spoke through the mouth of your servant and our father, David: Why the big noise, nations? Why the mean plots, peoples?

<sup>27</sup> "For in fact they did meet--Herod and Pontius Pilate with nations and peoples, even Israel itself!--met in this very city to plot against your holy Son Jesus, the One you made Messiah, <sup>28</sup> to carry out the plans you long ago set in motion.

<sup>30</sup> as you stretch out your hand to us in healings and miracles and wonders done in the name of your holy servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup> While they were praying, the place where they were meeting trembled and shook. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak God's Word with fearless confidence.

<sup>32</sup> The whole congregation of believers was united as one--one heart, one mind! They didn't even claim ownership of their own possessions. No one said, "That's mine; you can't have it." They shared everything.

<sup>33</sup> The apostles gave powerful witness to the resurrection of the Master Jesus, and grace was on all of them.

<sup>34</sup> And so it turned out that not a person among them was needy. Those who owned fields or houses sold them and brought the price of the sale

<sup>35</sup> to the apostles and made an offering of it. The apostles then distributed it according to each person's need.

<sup>37</sup> sold a field that he owned, brought the money, and made an offering of it to the apostles.

5 <sup>1</sup> But a man named Ananias--his wife, Sapphira, conniving in this with him--sold a piece of land, <sup>2</sup> secretly kept part of the price for himself, and then brought the rest to the apostles and made an offering of it.

<sup>3</sup> Peter said, "Ananias, how did Satan get you to lie to the Holy Spirit and secretly keep back part of the price of the field?"

<sup>4</sup> Before you sold it, it was all yours, and after you sold it, the money was yours to do with as you wished. So what got into you to pull a trick like this? You didn't lie to men but to God."

<sup>5</sup> Ananias, when he heard those words, fell down dead. That put the fear of God into everyone who heard of it.

<sup>6</sup> The younger men went right to work and wrapped him up, then carried him out and buried him.

<sup>7</sup> Not more than three hours later, his wife, knowing nothing of what had happened, came in.

<sup>8</sup> Peter said, "Tell me, were you given this price for your field?" "Yes," she said, "that price."

<sup>10</sup> No sooner were the words out of his mouth than she also fell down, dead. When the young men returned they found her body. They carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

<sup>11</sup> By this time the whole church and, in fact, everyone who heard of these things had a healthy respect for God. They knew God was not to be trifled with.

<sup>12</sup> Through the work of the apostles, many God-signs were set up among the people, many wonderful things done. They all met regularly and in remarkable harmony on the Temple porch named after Solomon.

<sup>13</sup> But even though people admired them a lot, outsiders were wary about joining them.

<sup>20</sup> He said, "Go to the Temple and take your stand. Tell the people everything there is to say about this Life."

<sup>22</sup> When the police got there, they couldn't find them anywhere in the jail. They went back and reported,

<sup>24</sup> The chief of the Temple police and the high priests were puzzled. "What's going on here anyway?"

<sup>25</sup> Just then someone showed up and said, "Did you know that the men you put in jail are back in the Temple teaching the people?"

<sup>27</sup> Bringing them back, they stood them before the High Council. The Chief Priest said,

<sup>28</sup> "Didn't we give you strict orders not to teach in Jesus' name? And here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are trying your best to blame us for the death of this man."

<sup>30</sup> The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, the One you killed by hanging him on a cross.

<sup>32</sup> And we are witnesses to these things. The Holy Spirit, whom God gives to those who obey him, corroborates every detail."

<sup>33</sup> When they heard that, they were furious and wanted to kill them on the spot.

<sup>34</sup> But one of the council members stood up, a Pharisee by the name of Gamaliel, a teacher of God's Law who was honored by everyone. He ordered the men taken out of the room for a short time, <sup>35</sup> then said, "Fellow Israelites, be careful what you do to these men.

<sup>36</sup> Not long ago Theudas made something of a splash, claiming to be somebody, and got about four hundred men to join him. He was killed, his followers dispersed, and nothing came of it.

<sup>37</sup> A little later, at the time of the census, Judas the Galilean appeared and acquired a following. He also fizzled out and the people following him were scattered to the four winds.

<sup>38</sup> "So I am telling you: Hands off these men! Let them alone. If this program or this work is merely human, it will fall apart, <sup>39</sup> but if it is of God, there is nothing you can do about it--and you better not be found fighting against God!"

<sup>40</sup> That convinced them. They called the apostles back in. After giving them a thorough whipping, they warned them not to speak in Jesus' name and sent them off.

<sup>41</sup> The apostles went out of the High Council overjoyed because they had been given the honor of being dishonored on account of the Name.

<sup>42</sup> Every day they were in the Temple and homes, teaching and preaching Christ Jesus, not letting up for a minute.

6<sup>1</sup> During this time, as the disciples were increasing in numbers by leaps and bounds, hard feelings developed among the Greek-speaking believers--"Hellenists"--toward the Hebrew-speaking believers because their widows were being discriminated against in the daily food lines.

<sup>2</sup> So the Twelve called a meeting of the disciples. They said, "It wouldn't be right for us to abandon our responsibilities for preaching and teaching the Word of God to help with the care of the poor.

<sup>6</sup> Then they presented them to the apostles. Praying, the apostles laid on hands and commissioned them for their task.

<sup>7</sup> The Word of God prospered. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased dramatically. Not least, a great many priests submitted themselves to the faith.

<sup>8</sup> Stephen, brimming with God's grace and energy, was doing wonderful things among the people, unmistakable signs that God was among them.

<sup>9</sup> But then some men from the meeting place whose membership was made up of freed slaves, Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and some others from Cilicia and Asia, went up against him trying to argue him down.

<sup>10</sup> But they were no match for his wisdom and spirit when he spoke.

<sup>14</sup> We even heard him say that Jesus of Nazareth would tear this place down and throw out all the customs Moses gave us."

<sup>15</sup> As all those who sat on the High Council looked at Stephen, they found they couldn't take their eyes off him--his face was like the face of an angel!

7 <sup>1</sup> Then the Chief Priest said, "What do you have to say for yourself?"

<sup>3</sup> and told him, 'Leave your country and family and go to the land I'll show you.'

<sup>4</sup> "So he left the country of the Chaldees and moved to Haran. After the death of his father, he immigrated to this country where you now live, <sup>5</sup> but God gave him nothing, not so much as a foothold. He did promise to give the country to him and his son later on, even though Abraham had no son at the time.

<sup>6</sup> God let him know that his offspring would move to an alien country where they would be enslaved and brutalized for four hundred years.

<sup>7</sup> 'But,' God said, 'I will step in and take care of those slaveholders and bring my people out so they can worship me in this place.'

<sup>8</sup> "Then he made a covenant with him and signed it in Abraham's flesh by circumcision. When Abraham had his son Isaac, within eight days he reproduced the sign of circumcision in him. Isaac became father of Jacob, and Jacob father of twelve 'fathers,' each faithfully passing on the covenant sign.

<sup>10</sup> he not only rescued him from all his troubles but brought him to the attention of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He was so impressed with Joseph that he put him in charge of the whole country, including his own personal affairs.

<sup>11</sup> "Later a famine descended on that entire region, stretching from Egypt to Canaan, bringing terrific hardship. Our hungry fathers looked high and low for food, but the cupboard was bare.

<sup>12</sup> Jacob heard there was food in Egypt and sent our fathers to scout it out.

<sup>13</sup> Having confirmed the report, they went back to Egypt a second time to get food. On that visit, Joseph revealed his true identity to his brothers and introduced the Jacob family to Pharaoh.

<sup>14</sup> Then Joseph sent for his father, Jacob, and everyone else in the family, seventy-five in all.

<sup>16</sup> They were taken to Shechem and buried in the tomb for which Abraham paid a good price to the sons of Hamor.

<sup>17</sup> "When the four hundred years were nearly up, the time God promised Abraham for deliverance, the population of our people in Egypt had become very large.

<sup>18</sup> And there was now a king over Egypt who had never heard of Joseph.

<sup>19</sup> He exploited our race mercilessly. He went so far as forcing us to abandon our newborn infants, exposing them to the elements to die a cruel death.

<sup>20</sup> "In just such a time Moses was born, a most beautiful baby. He was hidden at home for three months.

<sup>21</sup> When he could be hidden no longer, he was put outside--and immediately rescued by Pharaoh's daughter, who mothered him as her own son.

<sup>22</sup> Moses was educated in the best schools in Egypt. He was equally impressive as a thinker and an athlete.

<sup>25</sup> He thought his brothers would be glad that he was on their side, and even see him as an instrument of God to deliver them. But they didn't see it that way.

<sup>26</sup> The next day two of them were fighting and he tried to break it up, told them to shake hands and get along with each other: 'Friends, you are brothers, why are you beating up on each other?'

<sup>27</sup> "The one who had started the fight said, 'Who put you in charge of us?'

<sup>28</sup> Are you going to kill me like you killed that Egyptian yesterday?'

<sup>29</sup> When Moses heard that, realizing that the word was out, he ran for his life and lived in exile over in Midian. During the years of exile, two sons were born to him.

<sup>31</sup> Moses, not believing his eyes, went up to take a closer look. He heard God's voice:

<sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.'
Frightened nearly out of his skin, Moses shut his eyes and turned away.

<sup>33</sup> "God said, 'Kneel and pray. You are in a holy place, on holy ground.'

<sup>34</sup> I've seen the agony of my people in Egypt. I've heard their groans. I've come to help them. So get yourself ready; I'm sending you back to Egypt.'

<sup>35</sup> "This is the same Moses whom they earlier rejected, saying, 'Who put you in charge of us?' This is the Moses that God, using the angel flaming in the burning bush, sent back as ruler and redeemer.

<sup>36</sup> He led them out of their slavery. He did wonderful things, setting up God-signs all through Egypt, down at the Red Sea, and out in the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>37</sup> This is the Moses who said to his congregation, 'God will raise up a prophet just like me from your descendants.'

<sup>38</sup> This is the Moses who stood between the angel speaking at Sinai and your fathers assembled in the wilderness and took the life-giving words given to him and handed them over to us, <sup>39</sup> words our fathers would have nothing to do with. "They craved the old Egyptian ways,

<sup>40</sup> whining to Aaron, 'Make us gods we can see and follow. This Moses who got us out here miles from nowhere--who knows what's happened to him!'

<sup>41</sup> That was the time when they made a calf-idol, brought sacrifices to it, and congratulated each other on the wonderful religious program they had put together.

<sup>42</sup> "God wasn't at all pleased; but he let them do it their way, worship every new god that came down the pike--and live with the consequences, consequences described by the prophet Amos: Did you bring me offerings of animals and grains those forty wilderness years, O Israel?

<sup>43</sup> Hardly. You were too busy building shrines to war gods, to sex goddesses, Worshiping them with all your might. That's why I put you in exile in Babylon.

<sup>44</sup> "And all this time our ancestors had a tent shrine for true worship, made to the exact specifications God provided Moses.

<sup>45</sup> They had it with them as they followed Joshua, when God cleared the land of pagans, and still had it right down to the time of David.

<sup>48</sup> "Yet that doesn't mean that Most High God lives in a building made by carpenters and masons. The prophet Isaiah put it well when he wrote, <sup>49</sup> "Heaven is my throne room; I rest my feet on earth. So what kind of house will you build me?" says God. "Where I can get away and relax?

<sup>51</sup> "And you continue, so bullheaded! Calluses on your hearts, flaps on your ears! Deliberately ignoring the Holy Spirit, you're just like your ancestors.

<sup>52</sup> Was there ever a prophet who didn't get the same treatment? Your ancestors killed anyone who dared talk about the coming of the Just One. And you've kept up the family tradition--traitors and murderers, all of you.

<sup>53</sup> You had God's Law handed to you by angels--gift-wrapped!--and you squandered it!"

<sup>55</sup> But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, hardly noticed--he only had eyes for God, whom he saw in all his glory with Jesus standing at his side.

<sup>56</sup> He said, "Oh! I see heaven wide open and the Son of Man standing at God's side!"

<sup>60</sup> Then he knelt down, praying loud enough for everyone to hear, "Master, don't blame them for this sin"--his last words. Then he died. Saul was right there, congratulating the killers.

8<sup>1</sup> That set off a terrific persecution of the church in Jerusalem. The believers were all scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. All, that is, but the apostles.

<sup>3</sup> And Saul just went wild, devastating the church, entering house after house after house, dragging men and women off to jail.

<sup>7</sup> Many who could neither stand nor walk were healed that day. The evil spirits protested loudly as they were sent on their way.

<sup>10</sup> He had them all, from little children to old men, eating out of his hand. They all thought he had supernatural powers, and called him "the Great Wizard."

<sup>11</sup> He had been around a long time and everyone was more or less in awe of him.

<sup>12</sup> But when Philip came to town announcing the news of God's kingdom and proclaiming the name of Jesus Christ, they forgot Simon and were baptized, becoming believers right and left!

<sup>13</sup> Even Simon himself believed and was baptized. From that moment he was like Philip's shadow, so fascinated with all the God-signs and miracles that he wouldn't leave Philip's side.

<sup>14</sup> When the apostles in Jerusalem received the report that Samaria had accepted God's Message, they sent Peter and John down <sup>15</sup> to pray for them to receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> Then the apostles laid their hands on them and they did receive the Holy Spirit.

<sup>19</sup> and said, "Sell me your secret! Show me how you did that! How much do you want? Name your price!"

<sup>21</sup> You'll never be part of what God is doing by striking bargains and offering bribes.

<sup>22</sup> Change your ways--and now! Ask the Master to forgive you for trying to use God to make money.

<sup>24</sup> "Oh!" said Simon, "pray for me! Pray to the Master that nothing like that will ever happen to me!"

<sup>25</sup> And with that, the apostles were on their way, continuing to witness and spread the Message of God's salvation, preaching in every Samaritan town they passed through on their return to Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> Later God's angel spoke to Philip: "At noon today I want you to walk over to that desolate road that goes from Jerusalem down to Gaza."

<sup>27</sup> He got up and went. He met an Ethiopian eunuch coming down the road. The eunuch had been on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem and was returning to Ethiopia, where he was minister in charge of all the finances of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians.

<sup>32</sup> The passage he was reading was this: As a sheep led to slaughter, and quiet as a lamb being sheared, He was silent, saying nothing.

<sup>34</sup> The eunuch said, "Tell me, who is the prophet talking about: himself or some other?"

<sup>36</sup> As they continued down the road, they came to a stream of water. The eunuch said, "Here's water. Why can't I be baptized?"

<sup>38</sup> He ordered the chariot to stop. They both went down to the water, and Philip baptized him on the spot.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of God suddenly took Philip off, and that was the last the eunuch saw of him. But he didn't mind. He had what he'd come for and went on down the road as happy as he could be.

<sup>40</sup> Philip showed up in Azotus and continued north, preaching the Message in all the villages along that route until he arrived at Caesarea.

9 <sup>1</sup> All this time Saul was breathing down the necks of the Master's disciples, out for the kill. He went to the Chief Priest

<sup>2</sup> and got arrest warrants to take to the meeting places in Damascus so that if he found anyone there belonging to the Way, whether men or women, he could arrest them and bring them to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He set off. When he got to the outskirts of Damascus, he was suddenly dazed by a blinding flash of light.

<sup>4</sup> As he fell to the ground, he heard a voice: "Saul, Saul, why are you out to get me?"

<sup>5</sup> He said, "Who are you, Master?" "I am Jesus, the One you're hunting down.

<sup>6</sup> I want you to get up and enter the city. In the city you'll be told what to do next."

<sup>10</sup> There was a disciple in Damascus by the name of Ananias. The Master spoke to him in a vision: "Ananias." "Yes, Master?" he answered.

<sup>12</sup> He has just had a dream in which he saw a man named Ananias enter the house and lay hands on him so he could see again."

<sup>15</sup> But the Master said, "Don't argue. Go! I have picked him as my personal representative to Gentiles and kings and Jews.

<sup>16</sup> And now I'm about to show him what he's in for--the hard suffering that goes with this job."

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias went and found the house, placed his hands on blind Saul, and said, "Brother Saul, the Master sent me, the same Jesus you saw on your way here. He sent me so you could see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>18</sup> No sooner were the words out of his mouth than something like scales fell from Saul's eyes--he could see again! He got to his feet, was baptized,

<sup>19</sup> and sat down with them to a hearty meal. Saul spent a few days getting acquainted with the Damascus disciples, <sup>20</sup> but then went right to work, wasting no time, preaching in the meeting places that this Jesus was the Son of God.

<sup>21</sup> They were caught off guard by this and, not at all sure they could trust him, they kept saying, "Isn't this the man who wreaked havoc in Jerusalem among the believers? And didn't he come here to do the same thing--arrest us and drag us off to jail in Jerusalem for sentencing by the high priests?"

<sup>22</sup> But their suspicions didn't slow Saul down for even a minute. His momentum was up now and he plowed straight into the opposition, disarming the Damascus Jews and trying to show them that this Jesus was the Messiah.

<sup>23</sup> After this had gone on quite a long time, some Jews conspired to kill him, <sup>24</sup> but Saul got wind of it. They were watching the city gates around the clock so they could kill him.

<sup>25</sup> Then one night the disciples engineered his escape by lowering him over the wall in a basket.

<sup>26</sup> Back in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him. They didn't trust him one bit.

<sup>27</sup> Then Barnabas took him under his wing. He introduced him to the apostles and stood up for him, told them how Saul had seen and spoken to the Master on the Damascus Road and how in Damascus itself he had laid his life on the line with his bold preaching in Jesus' name.

<sup>28</sup> After that he was accepted as one of them, going in and out of Jerusalem with no questions asked, uninhibited as he preached in the Master's name.

<sup>29</sup> But then he ran afoul of a group called Hellenists--he had been engaged in a running argument with them--who plotted his murder.

<sup>31</sup> Things calmed down after that and the church had smooth sailing for a while. All over the country--Judea, Samaria, Galilee--the church grew. They were permeated with a deep sense of reverence for God. The Holy Spirit was with them, strengthening them. They prospered wonderfully.

<sup>32</sup> Peter went off on a mission to visit all the churches. In the course of his travels he arrived in Lydda and met with the believers there.

<sup>33</sup> He came across a man--his name was Aeneas--who had been in bed eight years paralyzed.

<sup>34</sup> Peter said, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" And he did it--jumped right out of bed.

<sup>35</sup> Everybody who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him walking around and woke up to the fact that God was alive and active among them.

<sup>36</sup> Down the road a way in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha, "Gazelle" in our language. She was well-known for doing good and helping out.

<sup>37</sup> During the time Peter was in the area she became sick and died. Her friends prepared her body for burial and put her in a cool room.

<sup>38</sup> Some of the disciples had heard that Peter was visiting in nearby Lydda and sent two men to ask if he would be so kind as to come over.

<sup>39</sup> Peter got right up and went with them. They took him into the room where Tabitha's body was laid out. Her old friends, most of them widows, were in the room mourning. They showed Peter pieces of clothing the Gazelle had made while she was with them.

<sup>40</sup> Peter put the widows all out of the room. He knelt and prayed. Then he spoke directly to the body: "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes. When she saw Peter, she sat up.

10 <sup>1</sup> There was a man named Cornelius who lived in Caesarea, captain of the Italian Guard stationed there.

<sup>2</sup> He was a thoroughly good man. He had led everyone in his house to live worshipfully before God, was always helping people in need, and had the habit of prayer.

<sup>3</sup> One day about three o'clock in the afternoon he had a vision. An angel of God, as real as his next-door neighbor, came in and said, "Cornelius."

<sup>4</sup> Cornelius stared hard, wondering if he was seeing things. Then he said, "What do you want, sir?" The angel said, "Your prayers and neighborly acts have brought you to God's attention.

<sup>8</sup> He went over with them in great detail everything that had just happened, and then sent them off to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup> The next day as the three travelers were approaching the town, Peter went out on the balcony to pray. It was about noon.

<sup>10</sup> Peter got hungry and started thinking about lunch. While lunch was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

<sup>12</sup> Every kind of animal and reptile and bird you could think of was on it.

sent by Cornelius showed up at Simon's front door.

<sup>18</sup> They called in, asking if there was a Simon, also called Peter, staying there.

<sup>19</sup> Peter, lost in thought, didn't hear them, so the Spirit whispered to him, "Three men are knocking at the door looking for you.

<sup>20</sup> Get down there and go with them. Don't ask any questions. I sent them to get you."

<sup>21</sup> Peter went down and said to the men, "I think I'm the man you're looking for. What's up?"

<sup>22</sup> They said, "Captain Cornelius, a God-fearing man well-known for his fair play--ask any Jew in this part of the country--was commanded by a holy angel to get you and bring you to his house so he could hear what you had to say."

<sup>25</sup> The minute Peter came through the door, Cornelius was up on his feet greeting him--and then down on his face worshiping him!

<sup>26</sup> Peter pulled him up and said, "None of that--I'm a man and only a man, no different from you."

<sup>27</sup> Talking things over, they went on into the house, where Cornelius introduced Peter to everyone who had come.

<sup>28</sup> Peter addressed them, "You know, I'm sure that this is highly irregular. Jews just don't do this--visit and relax with people of another race. But God has just shown me that no race is better than any other.

<sup>29</sup> So the minute I was sent for, I came, no questions asked. But now I'd like to know why you sent for me."

<sup>31</sup> He said, 'Cornelius, your daily prayers and neighborly acts have brought you to God's attention.

<sup>32</sup> I want you to send to Joppa to get Simon, the one they call Peter. He's staying with Simon the Tanner down by the sea.'

<sup>33</sup> "So I did it--I sent for you. And you've been good enough to come. And now we're all here in God's presence, ready to listen to whatever the Master put in your heart to tell us."

<sup>35</sup> It makes no difference who you are or where you're from--if you want God and are ready to do as he says, the door is open.

<sup>36</sup> The Message he sent to the children of Israel--that through Jesus Christ everything is being put together again--well, he's doing it everywhere, among everyone.

<sup>37</sup> "You know the story of what happened in Judea. It began in Galilee after John preached a total life-change.

<sup>38</sup> Then Jesus arrived from Nazareth, anointed by God with the Holy Spirit, ready for action. He went through the country helping people and healing everyone who was beaten down by the Devil. He was able to do all this because God was with him.

<sup>39</sup> "And we saw it, saw it all, everything he did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem where they killed him, hung him from a cross.

<sup>40</sup> But in three days God had him up, alive, and out where he could be seen.

<sup>41</sup> Not everyone saw him--he wasn't put on public display. Witnesses had been carefully handpicked by God beforehand--us! We were the ones, there to eat and drink with him after he came back from the dead.

<sup>42</sup> He commissioned us to announce this in public, to bear solemn witness that he is in fact the One whom God destined as Judge of the living and dead.

<sup>43</sup> But we're not alone in this. Our witness that he is the means to forgiveness of sins is backed up by the witness of all the prophets."

<sup>44</sup> No sooner were these words out of Peter's mouth than the Holy Spirit came on the listeners.

<sup>45</sup> The believing Jews who had come with Peter couldn't believe it, couldn't believe that the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on "outsider" Gentiles, <sup>46</sup> but there it was--they heard them speaking in tongues, heard them praising God. Then Peter said,

<sup>47</sup> "Do I hear any objections to baptizing these friends with water? They've received the Holy Spirit exactly as we did."

<sup>48</sup> Hearing no objections, he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay on for a few days.

11 <sup>1</sup> The news traveled fast and in no time the leaders and friends back in Jerusalem heard about it--heard that the non-Jewish "outsiders" were now "in."

<sup>3</sup> "What do you think you're doing rubbing shoulders with that crowd, eating what is prohibited and ruining our good name?"

<sup>5</sup> "Recently I was in the town of Joppa praying. I fell into a trance and saw a vision: Something like a huge blanket, lowered by ropes at its four corners, came down out of heaven and settled on the ground in front of me.

<sup>6</sup> Milling around on the blanket were farm animals, wild animals, reptiles, birds--you name it, it was there. Fascinated, I took it all in.

<sup>8</sup> I said, 'Oh, no, Master. I've never so much as tasted food that wasn't kosher.'

<sup>10</sup> This happened three times, and then the blanket was pulled back up into the sky.

<sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to go with them, no questions asked. So I went with them, I and six friends, to the man who had sent for me.

<sup>14</sup> He'll tell you something that will save your life--in fact, you and everyone you care for.'

<sup>15</sup> "So I started in, talking. Before I'd spoken half a dozen sentences, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as he did on us the first time.

<sup>16</sup> I remembered Jesus' words: 'John baptized with water; you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>17</sup> So I ask you: If God gave the same exact gift to them as to us when we believed in the Master Jesus Christ, how could I object to God?"

<sup>18</sup> Hearing it all laid out like that, they quieted down. And then, as it sank in, they started praising God. "It's really happened! God has broken through to the other nations, opened them up to Life!"

death traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, but they were still only speaking and dealing with their fellow Jews.

<sup>20</sup> Then some of the men from Cyprus and Cyrene who had come to Antioch started talking to Greeks, giving them the Message of the Master Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> God was pleased with what they were doing and put his stamp of approval on it--quite a number of the Greeks believed and turned to the Master.

<sup>22</sup> When the church in Jerusalem got wind of this, they sent Barnabas to Antioch to check on things.

<sup>23</sup> As soon as he arrived, he saw that God was behind and in it all. He threw himself in with them, got behind them, urging them to stay with it the rest of their lives.

<sup>24</sup> He was a good man that way, enthusiastic and confident in the Holy Spirit's ways. The community grew large and strong in the Master.

<sup>26</sup> He found him and brought him back to Antioch. They were there a whole year, meeting with the church and teaching a lot of people. It was in Antioch that the disciples were for the first time called Christians.

<sup>27</sup> It was about this same time that some prophets came to Antioch from Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> So the disciples decided that each of them would send whatever they could to their fellow Christians in Judea to help out.

<sup>30</sup> They sent Barnabas and Saul to deliver the collection to the leaders in Jerusalem.

12 <sup>1</sup> That's when King Herod got it into his head to go after some of the church members.

<sup>4</sup> and had him thrown in jail, putting four squads of four soldiers each to guard him. He was planning a public lynching after Passover.

<sup>5</sup> All the time that Peter was under heavy guard in the jailhouse, the church prayed for him most strenuously.

<sup>6</sup> Then the time came for Herod to bring him out for the kill. That night, even though shackled to two soldiers, one on either side, Peter slept like a baby. And there were guards at the door keeping their eyes on the place. Herod was taking no chances!

<sup>9</sup> Peter followed him, but didn't believe it was really an angel--he thought he was dreaming.

<sup>10</sup> Past the first guard and then the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city. It swung open before them on its own, and they were out on the street, free as the breeze. At the first intersection the angel left him, going his own way.

<sup>13</sup> When he knocked on the door to the courtyard, a young woman named Rhoda came to see who it was.

<sup>14</sup> But when she recognized his voice--Peter's voice!--she was so excited and eager to tell everyone Peter was there that she forgot to open the door and left him standing in the street.

<sup>15</sup> But they wouldn't believe her, dismissing her, dismissing her report. "You're crazy," they said. She stuck by her story, insisting. They still wouldn't believe her and said, "It must be his angel."

<sup>16</sup> All this time poor Peter was standing out in the street, knocking away. Finally they opened up and saw him--and went wild!

<sup>17</sup> Peter put his hands up and calmed them down. He described how the Master had gotten him out of jail, then said, "Tell James and the brothers what's happened." He left them and went off to another place.

<sup>18</sup> At daybreak the jail was in an uproar. "Where is Peter? What's happened to Peter?"

<sup>21</sup> On the day set for their meeting, Herod, robed in pomposity, took his place on the throne and regaled them with a lot of hot air.

<sup>23</sup> That was the last straw. God had had enough of Herod's arrogance and sent an angel to strike him down. Herod had given God no credit for anything. Down he went. Rotten to the core, a maggoty old man if there ever was one, he died.

13 <sup>1</sup> The congregation in Antioch was blessed with a number of prophet-preachers and teachers: Barnabas, Simon, nicknamed Niger, Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen, an advisor to the ruler Herod, Saul.

<sup>2</sup> One day as they were worshiping God--they were also fasting as they waited for guidance--the Holy Spirit spoke: "Take Barnabas and Saul and commission them for the work I have called them to do."

<sup>3</sup> So they commissioned them. In that circle of intensity and obedience, of fasting and praying, they laid hands on their heads and sent them off.

<sup>4</sup> Sent off on their new assignment by the Holy Spirit, Barnabas and Saul went down to Seleucia and caught a ship for Cyprus.

<sup>5</sup> The first thing they did when they put in at Salamis was preach God's Word in the Jewish meeting places. They had John along to help out as needed.

<sup>6</sup> They traveled the length of the island, and at Paphos came upon a Jewish wizard

<sup>7</sup> who had worked himself into the confidence of the governor, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man not easily taken in by charlatans. The wizard's name was Bar-Jesus. He was as crooked as a corkscrew. The governor invited Barnabas and Saul in, wanting to hear God's Word firsthand from them.

<sup>9</sup> But Saul (or Paul), full of the Holy Spirit and looking him straight in the eye, said, <sup>10</sup> "You bag of wind, you parody of a devil--why, you stay up nights inventing schemes to cheat people out of God.

<sup>11</sup> But now you've come up against God himself, and your game is up. You're about to go blind--no sunlight for you for a good long stretch." He was plunged immediately into a shadowy mist and stumbled around, begging people to take his hand and show him the way.

<sup>14</sup> From Perga the rest of them traveled on to Antioch in Pisidia. On the Sabbath they went to the meeting place and took their places.

<sup>15</sup> After the reading of the Scriptures--God's Law and the Prophets--the president of the meeting asked them, "Friends, do you have anything you want to say? A word of encouragement, perhaps?"

<sup>16</sup> Paul stood up, paused and took a deep breath, then said, "Fellow Israelites and friends of God, listen.

<sup>17</sup> God took a special interest in our ancestors, pulled our people who were beaten down in Egyptian exile to their feet, and led them out of there in grand style.

<sup>18</sup> He took good care of them for nearly forty years in that godforsaken wilderness

<sup>20</sup> a span in all of about four hundred fifty years. "Up to the time of Samuel the prophet, God provided judges to lead them.

<sup>21</sup> But then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, out of the tribe of Benjamin. After Saul had ruled forty years,

<sup>22</sup> God removed him from office and put King David in his place, with this commendation: 'I've searched the land and found this David, son of Jesse. He's a man whose heart beats to my heart, a man who will do what I tell him.'

<sup>24</sup> but only after John had thoroughly alerted the people to his arrival by preparing them for a total life-change.

<sup>25</sup> As John was finishing up his work, he said, 'Did you think I was the One? No, I'm not the One. But the One you've been waiting for all these years is just around the corner, about to appear. And I'm about to disappear.'

<sup>27</sup> The citizens and rulers in Jerusalem didn't recognize who he was and condemned him to death.

<sup>29</sup> They did just what the prophets said they would do, but had no idea they were following to the letter the script of the prophets, even though those same prophets are read every Sabbath in their meeting places. "After they had done everything the prophets said they would do, they took him down from the cross and buried him.

<sup>30</sup> And then God raised him from death.

<sup>31</sup> There is no disputing that--he appeared over and over again many times and places to those who had known him well in the Galilean years, and these same people continue to give witness that he is alive.

<sup>32</sup> "And we're here today bringing you good news: the Message that what God promised the fathers in the second Psalm: My Son! My very own Son! Today I celebrate you!

<sup>34</sup> "When he raised him from the dead, he did it for good--no going back to that rot and decay for him. That's why Isaiah said, 'I'll give to all of you David's guaranteed blessings.'

<sup>35</sup> So also the psalmist's prayer: 'You'll never let your Holy One see death's rot and decay.'

<sup>37</sup> But the One God raised up--no dust and ashes for him!

<sup>38</sup> I want you to know, my very dear friends, that it is on account of this resurrected Jesus that the forgiveness of your sins can be promised.

<sup>39</sup> He accomplishes, in those who believe, everything that the Law of Moses could never make good on. But everyone who believes in this raised-up Jesus is declared good and right and whole before God.

<sup>40</sup> "Don't take this lightly. You don't want the prophet's sermon to describe you:

<sup>42</sup> When the service was over, Paul and Barnabas were invited back to preach again the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> As the meeting broke up, a good many Jews and converts to Judaism went along with Paul and Barnabas, who urged them in long conversations to stick with what they'd started, this living in and by God's grace.

<sup>44</sup> When the next Sabbath came around, practically the whole city showed up to hear the Word of God.

<sup>45</sup> Some of the Jews, seeing the crowds, went wild with jealousy and tore into Paul, contradicting everything he was saying, making an ugly scene.

<sup>46</sup> But Paul and Barnabas didn't back down. Standing their ground they said, "It was required that God's Word be spoken first of all to you, the Jews. But seeing that you want no part of it--you've made it quite clear that you have no taste or inclination for eternal life--the door is open to all the outsiders. And we're on our way through it, <sup>47</sup> following orders, doing what God commanded when he said, I've set you up as light to all nations. You'll proclaim salvation to the four winds and seven seas!"

<sup>50</sup> Some of the Jews convinced the most respected women and leading men of the town that their precious way of life was about to be destroyed. Alarmed, they turned on Paul and Barnabas and forced them to leave.

14 <sup>1</sup> When they got to Iconium they went, as they always did, to the meeting place of the Jews and gave their message. The Message convinced both Jews and non-Jews--and not just a few, either.

<sup>2</sup> But the unbelieving Jews worked up a whispering campaign against Paul and Barnabas, sowing mistrust and suspicion in the minds of the people in the street.

<sup>3</sup> The two apostles were there a long time, speaking freely, openly, and confidently as they presented the clear evidence of God's gifts, God corroborating their work with miracles and wonders.

<sup>4</sup> But then there was a split in public opinion, some siding with the Jews, some with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup> One day, learning that both the Jews and non-Jews had been organized by their leaders to beat them up,

<sup>6</sup> they escaped as best they could to the next towns--Lyconia, Lystra, Derbe, and that neighborhood--

<sup>8</sup> There was a man in Lystra who couldn't walk. He sat there, crippled since the day of his birth.

<sup>9</sup> He heard Paul talking, and Paul, looking him in the eye, saw that he was ripe for God's work, ready to believe.

<sup>10</sup> So he said, loud enough for everyone to hear, "Up on your feet!" The man was up in a flash--jumped up and walked around as if he'd been walking all his life.

<sup>13</sup> The priest of the local Zeus shrine got up a parade--bulls and banners and people lined right up to the gates, ready for the ritual of sacrifice.

<sup>14</sup> When Barnabas and Paul finally realized what was going on, they stopped them. Waving their arms, they interrupted the parade, calling out, <sup>15</sup> "What do you think you're doing! We're not gods! We are men just like you, and we're here to bring you the Message, to persuade you to abandon these silly god-superstitions and embrace God himself, the living God. We don't make God; he makes us, and all of this--sky, earth, sea, and everything in them.

<sup>17</sup> But even then he didn't leave them without a clue, for he made a good creation, poured down rain and gave bumper crops. When your bellies were full and your hearts happy, there was evidence of good beyond your doing."

<sup>18</sup> Talking fast and hard like this, they prevented them from carrying out the sacrifice that would have honored them as gods--but just barely.

<sup>21</sup> After proclaiming the Message in Derbe and establishing a strong core of disciples, they retraced their steps to Lystra, then Iconium, and then Antioch,

<sup>22</sup> putting muscle and sinew in the lives of the disciples, urging them to stick with what they had begun to believe and not quit, making it clear to them that it wouldn't be easy: "Anyone signing up for the kingdom of God has to go through plenty of hard times."

<sup>27</sup> On arrival, they got the church together and reported on their trip, telling in detail how God had used them to throw the door of faith wide open so people of all nations could come streaming in.

<sup>28</sup> Then they settled down for a long, leisurely visit with the disciples.

15 <sup>1</sup> It wasn't long before some Jews showed up from Judea insisting that everyone be circumcised: "If you're not circumcised in the Mosaic fashion, you can't be saved."

<sup>2</sup> Paul and Barnabas were up on their feet at once in fierce protest. The church decided to resolve the matter by sending Paul, Barnabas, and a few others to put it before the apostles and leaders in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> After they were sent off and on their way, they told everyone they met as they traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria about the breakthrough to the Gentile outsiders. Everyone who heard the news cheered--it was terrific news!

<sup>4</sup> When they got to Jerusalem, Paul and Barnabas were graciously received by the whole church, including the apostles and leaders. They reported on their recent journey and how God had used them to open things up to the outsiders.

<sup>5</sup> Some Pharisees stood up to say their piece. They had become believers, but continued to hold to the hard party line of the Pharisees. "You have to circumcise the pagan converts," they said. "You must make them keep the Law of Moses."

<sup>7</sup> The arguments went on and on, back and forth, getting more and more heated. Then Peter took the floor: "Friends, you well know that from early on God made it quite plain that he wanted the pagans to hear the Message of this good news and embrace it--and not in any secondhand or roundabout way, but firsthand, straight from my mouth.

<sup>8</sup> And God, who can't be fooled by any pretense on our part but always knows a person's thoughts, gave them the Holy Spirit exactly as he gave him to us.

<sup>9</sup> He treated the outsiders exactly as he treated us, beginning at the very center of who they were and working from that center outward, cleaning up their lives as they trusted and believed him.

<sup>10</sup> "So why are you now trying to out-god God, loading these new believers down with rules that crushed our ancestors and crushed us, too?"

<sup>11</sup> Don't we believe that we are saved because the Master Jesus amazingly and out of sheer generosity moved to save us just as he did those from beyond our nation? So what are we arguing about?"

<sup>12</sup> There was dead silence. No one said a word. With the room quiet, Barnabas and Paul reported matter-of-factly on the miracles and wonders God had done among the other nations through their ministry.

<sup>15</sup> This is in perfect agreement with the words of the prophets:

<sup>17</sup> So outsiders who seek will find, so they'll have a place to come to, All the pagan peoples included in what I'm doing. "God said it and now he's doing it.

<sup>19</sup> "So here is my decision: We're not going to unnecessarily burden non-Jewish people who turn to the Master.

<sup>20</sup> We'll write them a letter and tell them, 'Be careful to not get involved in activities connected with idols, to guard the morality of sex and marriage, to not serve food offensive to Jewish Christians--blood, for instance.'

<sup>21</sup> This is basic wisdom from Moses, preached and honored for centuries now in city after city as we have met and kept the Sabbath."

<sup>22</sup> Everyone agreed: apostles, leaders, all the people. They picked Judas (nicknamed Barsabbas) and Silas--they both carried considerable weight in the church--and sent them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas <sup>23</sup> with this letter: From the apostles and leaders, your friends, to our friends in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Hello!

<sup>24</sup> We heard that some men from our church went to you and said things that confused and upset you. Mind you, they had no authority from us; we didn't send them.

<sup>25</sup> We have agreed unanimously to pick representatives and send them to you with our good friends Barnabas and Paul.

<sup>26</sup> We picked men we knew you could trust, Judas and Silas--they've looked death in the face time and again for the sake of our Master Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup> We've sent them to confirm in a face-to-face meeting with you what we've written.

<sup>28</sup> It seemed to the Holy Spirit and to us that you should not be saddled with any crushing burden, but be responsible only for these bare necessities:

<sup>29</sup> Be careful not to get involved in activities connected with idols; avoid serving food offensive to Jewish Christians (blood, for instance); and guard the morality of sex and marriage. These guidelines are sufficient to keep relations congenial between us. And God be with you!

<sup>30</sup> And so off they went to Antioch. On arrival, they gathered the church and read the letter.

<sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, good preachers both of them, strengthened their new friends with many words of courage and hope.

<sup>33</sup> Then it was time to go home. They were sent off by their new friends with laughter and embraces all around to report back to those who had sent them.

<sup>35</sup> Paul and Barnabas stayed on in Antioch, teaching and preaching the Word of God. But they weren't alone. There were a number of teachers and preachers at that time in Antioch.

<sup>36</sup> After a few days of this, Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back and visit all our friends in each of the towns where we preached the Word of God. Let's see how they're doing."

16 <sup>1</sup> Paul came first to Derbe, then Lystra. He found a disciple there by the name of Timothy, son of a devout Jewish mother and Greek father.

<sup>2</sup> Friends in Lystra and Iconium all said what a fine young man he was.

<sup>3</sup> Paul wanted to recruit him for their mission, but first took him aside and circumcised him so he wouldn't offend the Jews who lived in those parts. They all knew that his father was Greek.

<sup>4</sup> As they traveled from town to town, they presented the simple guidelines the Jerusalem apostles and leaders had come up with.

<sup>5</sup> That turned out to be most helpful. Day after day the congregations became stronger in faith and larger in size.

<sup>6</sup> They went to Phrygia, and then on through the region of Galatia. Their plan was to turn west into Asia province, but the Holy Spirit blocked that route.

<sup>7</sup> So they went to Mysia and tried to go north to Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus wouldn't let them go there either.

<sup>8</sup> Proceeding on through Mysia, they went down to the seaport Troas.

<sup>9</sup> That night Paul had a dream: A Macedonian stood on the far shore and called across the sea, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!"

<sup>10</sup> The dream gave Paul his map. We went to work at once getting things ready to cross over to Macedonia. All the pieces had come together. We knew now for sure that God had called us to preach the good news to the Europeans.

<sup>11</sup> Putting out from the harbor at Troas, we made a straight run for Samothrace. The next day we tied up at New City <sup>12</sup> and walked from there to Philippi, the main city in that part of Macedonia and, even more importantly, a Roman colony. We lingered there several days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath, we left the city and went down along the river where we had heard there was to be a prayer meeting. We took our place with the women who had gathered there and talked with them.

<sup>14</sup> One woman, Lydia, was from Thyatira and a dealer in expensive textiles, known to be a God-fearing woman. As she listened with intensity to what was being said, the Master gave her a trusting heart--and she believed!

<sup>15</sup> After she was baptized, along with everyone in her household, she said in a surge of hospitality, "If you're confident that I'm in this with you and believe in the Master truly, come home with me and be my guests." We hesitated, but she wouldn't take no for an answer.

<sup>16</sup> One day, on our way to the place of prayer, a slave girl ran into us. She was a psychic and, with her fortunetelling, made a lot of money for the people who owned her.

<sup>19</sup> When her owners saw that their lucrative little business was suddenly bankrupt, they went after Paul and Silas, roughed them up and dragged them into the market square. Then the police arrested them

<sup>20</sup> and pulled them into a court with the accusation, "These men are disturbing the peace--dangerous Jewish agitators

<sup>22</sup> By this time the crowd had turned into a restless mob out for blood. The judges went along with the mob, had Paul and Silas's clothes ripped off and ordered a public beating.

<sup>23</sup> After beating them black and blue, they threw them into jail, telling the jailkeeper to put them under heavy guard so there would be no chance of escape.

<sup>24</sup> He did just that--threw them into the maximum security cell in the jail and clamped leg irons on them.

<sup>25</sup> Along about midnight, Paul and Silas were at prayer and singing a robust hymn to God. The other prisoners couldn't believe their ears.

<sup>26</sup> Then, without warning, a huge earthquake! The jailhouse tottered, every door flew open, all the prisoners were loose.

<sup>27</sup> Startled from sleep, the jailer saw all the doors swinging loose on their hinges. Assuming that all the prisoners had escaped, he pulled out his sword and was about to do himself in, figuring he was as good as dead anyway,

<sup>30</sup> He led them out of the jail and asked, "Sirs, what do I have to do to be saved, to really live?"

<sup>31</sup> They said, "Put your entire trust in the Master Jesus. Then you'll live as you were meant to live--and everyone in your house included!"

<sup>32</sup> They went on to spell out in detail the story of the Master--the entire family got in on this part.

<sup>33</sup> They never did get to bed that night. The jailer made them feel at home, dressed their wounds, and then--he couldn't wait till morning!--was baptized, he and everyone in his family.

<sup>34</sup> There in his home, he had food set out for a festive meal. It was a night to remember: He and his entire family had put their trust in God; everyone in the house was in on the celebration.

to go on your way. Congratulations! Go in peace!"

<sup>37</sup> But Paul wouldn't budge. He told the officers, "They beat us up in public and threw us in jail, Roman citizens in good standing! And now they want to get us out of the way on the sly without anyone knowing? Nothing doing! If they want us out of here, let them come themselves and lead us out in broad daylight."

<sup>39</sup> They hurried over and apologized, personally escorted them from the jail, and then asked them if they wouldn't please leave the city.

<sup>40</sup> Walking out of the jail, Paul and Silas went straight to Lydia's house, saw their friends again, encouraged them in the faith, and only then went on their way.

17 <sup>1</sup> They took the road south through Amphipolis and Apollonia to Thessalonica, where there was a community of Jews.

<sup>2</sup> Paul went to their meeting place, as he usually did when he came to a town, and for three Sabbaths running he preached to them from the Scriptures.

<sup>3</sup> He opened up the texts so they understood what they'd been reading all their lives: that the Messiah absolutely had to be put to death and raised from the dead--there were no other options--and that "this Jesus I'm introducing you to is that Messiah."

they rounded up a bunch of brawlers off the streets and soon had an ugly mob terrorizing the city as they hunted down Paul and Silas. They broke into Jason's house, thinking that Paul and Silas were there.

<sup>9</sup> They made Jason and his friends post heavy bail and let them go while they investigated the charges.

<sup>10</sup> That night, under cover of darkness, their friends got Paul and Silas out of town as fast as they could. They sent them to Berea, where they again met with the Jewish community.

<sup>11</sup> They were treated a lot better there than in Thessalonica. The Jews received Paul's message with enthusiasm and met with him daily, examining the Scriptures to see if they supported what he said.

<sup>12</sup> A lot of them became believers, including many Greeks who were prominent in the community, women and men of influence.

<sup>13</sup> But it wasn't long before reports got back to the Thessalonian hard-line Jews that Paul was at it again, preaching the Word of God, this time in Berea. They lost no time responding, and created a mob scene there, too.

<sup>14</sup> With the help of his friends, Paul gave them the slip--caught a boat and put out to sea. Silas and Timothy stayed behind.

<sup>16</sup> The longer Paul waited in Athens for Silas and Timothy, the angrier he got--all those idols! The city was a junkyard of idols.

<sup>17</sup> He discussed it with the Jews and other like-minded people at their meeting place. And every day he went out on the streets and talked with anyone who happened along.

<sup>18</sup> He got to know some of the Epicurean and Stoic intellectuals pretty well through these conversations. Some of them dismissed him with sarcasm: "What an airhead!" But others, listening to him go on about Jesus and the resurrection, were intrigued: "That's a new slant on the gods. Tell us more."

<sup>19</sup> These people got together and asked him to make a public presentation over at the Areopagus, where things were a little quieter. They said, "This is a new one on us. We've never heard anything quite like it. Where did you come up with this anyway?"

<sup>20</sup> Explain it so we can understand."

<sup>22</sup> So Paul took his stand in the open space at the Areopagus and laid it out for them. "It is plain to see that you Athenians take your religion seriously.

<sup>23</sup> When I arrived here the other day, I was fascinated with all the shrines I came across. And then I found one inscribed,

TO THE GOD NOBODY KNOWS. I'm here to introduce you to this God so you can worship intelligently, know who you're dealing with.

<sup>24</sup> "The God who made the world and everything in it, this Master of sky and land, doesn't live in custom-made shrines <sup>25</sup> or need the human race to run errands for him, as if he couldn't take care of himself. He makes the creatures; the creatures don't make him.

<sup>26</sup> Starting from scratch, he made the entire human race and made the earth hospitable, with plenty of time and space for living

<sup>27</sup> so we could seek after God, and not just grope around in the dark but actually find him. He doesn't play hide-and-seek with us. He's not remote; he's near.

<sup>28</sup> We live and move in him, can't get away from him! One of your poets said it well: 'We're the God-created.'

<sup>29</sup> Well, if we are the God-created, it doesn't make a lot of sense to think we could hire a sculptor to chisel a god out of stone for us, does it?

<sup>30</sup> "God overlooks it as long as you don't know any better--but that time is past. The unknown is now known, and he's calling for a radical life-change.

<sup>31</sup> He has set a day when the entire human race will be judged and everything set right. And he has already appointed the judge, confirming him before everyone by raising him from the dead."

<sup>34</sup> There were still others, it turned out, who were convinced then and there, and stuck with Paul--among them Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris.

18 <sup>1</sup> After Athens, Paul went to Corinth.

his time to preaching and teaching, doing everything he could to persuade the Jews that Jesus was in fact God's Messiah.

<sup>6</sup> But no such luck. All they did was argue contentiously and contradict him at every turn. Totally exasperated, Paul had finally had it with them and gave it up as a bad job. "Have it your way, then," he said. "You've made your bed; now lie in it. From now on I'm spending my time with the other nations."

<sup>7</sup> He walked out and went to the home of Titius Justus, a God-fearing man who lived right next to the Jews' meeting place.

Paul, a great many Corinthians believed and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup> One night the Master spoke to Paul in a dream: "Keep it up, and don't let anyone intimidate or silence you.

<sup>10</sup> No matter what happens, I'm with you and no one is going to be able to hurt you. You have no idea how many people I have on my side in this city."

<sup>11</sup> That was all he needed to stick it out. He stayed another year and a half, faithfully teaching the Word of God to the Corinthians.

<sup>12</sup> But when Gallio was governor of Achaia province, the Jews got up a campaign against Paul, hauled him into court,

<sup>14</sup> Just as Paul was about to defend himself, Gallio interrupted and said to the Jews, "If this was a matter of criminal conduct, I would gladly hear you out.

<sup>15</sup> But it sounds to me like one more Jewish squabble, another of your endless hairsplitting quarrels over religion. Take care of it on your own time. I can't be bothered with this nonsense,"

<sup>18</sup> Paul stayed a while longer in Corinth, but then it was time to take leave of his friends. Saying his good-byes, he sailed for Syria, Priscilla and Aquila with him. Before boarding the ship in the harbor town of Cenchrea, he had his head shaved as part of a vow he had taken.

<sup>20</sup> They wanted him to stay longer, but he said he couldn't.

From Ephesus

<sup>22</sup> he sailed to Caesarea. He greeted the assembly of Christians there, and then went on to Antioch, completing the journey.

<sup>24</sup> A man named Apollos came to Ephesus. He was a Jew, born in Alexandria, Egypt, and a terrific speaker, eloquent and powerful in his preaching of the Scriptures.

<sup>25</sup> He was well-educated in the way of the Master and fiery in his enthusiasm. Apollos was accurate in everything he taught about Jesus up to a point, but he only went as far as the baptism of John.

<sup>26</sup> He preached with power in the meeting place. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and told him the rest of the story.

<sup>27</sup> When Apollos decided to go on to Achaia province, his Ephesian friends gave their blessing and wrote a letter of recommendation for him, urging the disciples there to welcome him with open arms. The welcome paid off: Apollos turned out to be a great help to those who had become believers through God's immense generosity.

<sup>28</sup> He was particularly effective in public debate with the Jews as he brought out proof after convincing proof from the Scriptures that Jesus was in fact God's Messiah.

19<sup>1</sup> Now, it happened that while Apollos was away in Corinth, Paul made his way down through the mountains, came to Ephesus, and happened on some disciples there.

<sup>2</sup> The first thing he said was, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? Did you take God into your mind only, or did you also embrace him with your heart? Did he get inside you?" "We've never even heard of that--a Holy Spirit? God within us?"

<sup>4</sup> "That explains it," said Paul. "John preached a baptism of radical life-change so that people would be ready to receive the One coming after him, who turned out to be Jesus. If you've been baptized in John's baptism, you're ready now for the real thing, for Jesus."

<sup>5</sup> And they were. As soon as they heard of it, they were baptized in the name of the Master Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> Paul put his hands on their heads and the Holy Spirit entered them. From that moment on, they were praising God in tongues and talking about God's actions.

<sup>7</sup> Altogether there were about twelve people there that day.

<sup>8</sup> Paul then went straight to the meeting place. He had the run of the place for three months, doing his best to make the things of the kingdom of God real and convincing to them.

<sup>9</sup> But then resistance began to form as some of them began spreading evil rumors through the congregation about the Christian way of life. So Paul left, taking the disciples with him, and set up shop in the school of Tyrannus, holding class there daily.

<sup>10</sup> He did this for two years, giving everyone in the province of Asia, Jews as well as Greeks, ample opportunity to hear the Message of the Master.

<sup>12</sup> The word got around and people started taking pieces of clothing--handkerchiefs and scarves and the like--that had touched Paul's skin and then touching the sick with them. The touch did it--they were healed and whole.

<sup>13</sup> Some itinerant Jewish exorcists who happened to be in town at the time tried their hand at what they assumed to be Paul's "game." They pronounced the name of the Master Jesus over victims of evil spirits, saying, "I command you by the Jesus preached by Paul!"

<sup>14</sup> The seven sons of a certain Sceva, a Jewish high priest, were trying to do this on a man

<sup>15</sup> when the evil spirit talked back: "I know Jesus and I've heard of Paul, but who are you?"

<sup>16</sup> Then the possessed man went berserk--jumped the exorcists, beat them up, and tore off their clothes. Naked and bloody, they got away as best they could.

<sup>17</sup> It was soon news all over Ephesus among both Jews and Greeks. The realization spread that God was in and behind this. Curiosity about Paul developed into reverence for the Master Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> Many of those who thus believed came out of the closet and made a clean break with their secret sorceries.

books of spells and incantations and made a huge bonfire of them. Someone estimated their worth at fifty thousand silver coins.

<sup>20</sup> In such ways it became evident that the Word of the Master was now sovereign and prevailed in Ephesus.

<sup>21</sup> After all this had come to a head, Paul decided it was time to move on to Macedonia and Achaia provinces, and from there to Jerusalem. "Then," he said, "I'm off to Rome. I've got to see Rome!"

manufacture of shrines to the goddess Artemis, employing a number of artisans in his business.

<sup>25</sup> He rounded up his workers and others similarly employed and said, "Men, you well know that we have a good thing going here--

<sup>26</sup> and you've seen how Paul has barged in and discredited what we're doing by telling people that there's no such thing as a god made with hands. A lot of people are going along with him, not only here in Ephesus but all through Asia province.

<sup>27</sup> "Not only is our little business in danger of falling apart, but the temple of our famous goddess Artemis will certainly end up a pile of rubble as her glorious reputation fades to nothing. And this is no mere local matter--the whole world worships our Artemis!"

<sup>29</sup> Great Artemis of the Ephesians!" They put the whole city in an uproar, stampeding into the stadium, and grabbing two of Paul's associates on the way, the Macedonians Gaius and Aristarchus.

<sup>30</sup> Paul wanted to go in, too, but the disciples wouldn't let him.

<sup>31</sup> Prominent religious leaders in the city who had become friendly to Paul concurred: "By no means go near that mob!"

<sup>32</sup> Some were yelling one thing, some another. Most of them had no idea what was going on or why they were there.

<sup>33</sup> As the Jews pushed Alexander to the front to try to gain control, different factions clamored to get him on their side. But he brushed them off and quieted the mob with an impressive sweep of his arms.

<sup>34</sup> But the moment he opened his mouth and they knew he was a Jew, they shouted him down: "Great Artemis of the Ephesians! Great Artemis of the Ephesians!"--on and on and on, for over two hours.

<sup>35</sup> Finally, the town clerk got the mob quieted down and said, "Fellow citizens, is there anyone anywhere who doesn't know that our dear city Ephesus is protector of glorious Artemis and her sacred stone image that fell straight out of heaven?"

<sup>38</sup> "So if Demetrius and his guild of artisans have a complaint, they can take it to court and make all the accusations they want.

<sup>39</sup> If anything else is bothering you, bring it to the regularly scheduled town meeting and let it be settled there.

<sup>2</sup> Traveling through the country, passing from one gathering to another, he gave constant encouragement, lifting their spirits and charging them with fresh hope. Then he came to Greece

<sup>3</sup> and stayed on for three months. Just as he was about to sail for Syria, the Jews cooked up a plot against him. So he went the other way, by land back through Macedonia, and gave them the slip.

<sup>5</sup> They went on ahead and waited for us in Troas.

<sup>6</sup> Meanwhile, we stayed in Philippi for Passover Week, and then set sail. Within five days we were again in Troas and stayed a week.

<sup>7</sup> We met on Sunday to worship and celebrate the Master's Supper. Paul addressed the congregation. Our plan was to leave first thing in the morning, but Paul talked on, way past midnight.

<sup>9</sup> A young man named Eutychus was sitting in an open window. As Paul went on and on, Eutychus fell sound asleep and toppled out the third-story window. When they picked him up, he was dead.

<sup>13</sup> In the meantime, the rest of us had gone on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we planned to pick up Paul. Paul wanted to walk there, and so had made these arrangements earlier.

<sup>14</sup> Things went according to plan: We met him in Assos, took him on board, and sailed to Mitylene.

<sup>16</sup> Paul had decided to bypass Ephesus so that he wouldn't be held up in Asia province. He was in a hurry to get to Jerusalem in time for the Feast of Pentecost, if at all possible.

<sup>18</sup> When they arrived, he said, "You know that from day one of my arrival in Asia I was with you totally--

<sup>19</sup> laying my life on the line, serving the Master no matter what, putting up with no end of scheming by Jews who wanted to do me in.

<sup>20</sup> I didn't skimp or trim in any way. Every truth and encouragement that could have made a difference to you, you got. I taught you out in public and I taught you in your homes, <sup>21</sup> urging Jews and Greeks alike to a radical life-change before God and an equally radical trust in our Master Jesus.

<sup>22</sup> "But there is another urgency before me now. I feel compelled to go to Jerusalem. I'm completely in the dark about what will happen when I get there.

<sup>23</sup> I do know that it won't be any picnic, for the Holy Spirit has let me know repeatedly and clearly that there are hard times and imprisonment ahead.

<sup>24</sup> But that matters little. What matters most to me is to finish what God started: the job the Master Jesus gave me of letting everyone I meet know all about this incredibly extravagant generosity of God.

<sup>25</sup> "And so this is good-bye. You're not going to see me again, nor I you, you whom I have gone among for so long proclaiming the news of God's inaugurated kingdom.

<sup>26</sup> I've done my best for you, given you my all,

<sup>27</sup> held back nothing of God's will for you.

<sup>28</sup> "Now it's up to you. Be on your toes--both for yourselves and your congregation of sheep. The Holy Spirit has put you in charge of these people--God's people they are--to guard and protect them. God himself thought they were worth dying for.

<sup>29</sup> "I know that as soon as I'm gone, vicious wolves are going to show up and rip into this flock, men

<sup>30</sup> from your very own ranks twisting words so as to seduce disciples into following them instead of Jesus.

<sup>31</sup> So stay awake and keep up your guard. Remember those three years I kept at it with you, never letting up, pouring my heart out with you, one after another.

<sup>32</sup> "Now I'm turning you over to God, our marvelous God whose gracious Word can make you into what he wants you to be and give you everything you could possibly need in this community of holy friends.

<sup>33</sup> "I've never, as you so well know, had any taste for wealth or fashion.

<sup>34</sup> With these bare hands I took care of my own basic needs and those who worked with me.

<sup>35</sup> In everything I've done, I have demonstrated to you how necessary it is to work on behalf of the weak and not exploit them. You'll not likely go wrong here if you keep remembering that our Master said, 'You're far happier giving than getting.'"

<sup>36</sup> Then Paul went down on his knees, all of them kneeling with him, and prayed.

<sup>37</sup> And then a river of tears. Much clinging to Paul, not wanting to let him go.

<sup>38</sup> They knew they would never see him again--he had told them quite plainly. The pain cut deep. Then, bravely, they walked him down to the ship.

21 <sup>1</sup> And so, with the tearful good-byes behind us, we were on our way. We made a straight run to Cos, the next day reached Rhodes, and then Patara.

<sup>2</sup> There we found a ship going direct to Phoenicia, got on board, and set sail.

<sup>3</sup> Cyprus came into view on our left, but was soon out of sight as we kept on course for Syria, and eventually docked in the port of Tyre. While the cargo was being unloaded, <sup>4</sup> we looked up the local disciples and stayed with them seven days. Their message to Paul, from insight given by the Spirit, was "Don't go to Jerusalem."

<sup>5</sup> When our time was up, they escorted us out of the city to the docks. Everyone came along--men, women, children. They made a farewell party of the occasion! We all kneeled together on the beach and prayed.

<sup>10</sup> After several days of visiting, a prophet from Judea by the name of Agabus came down to see us.

<sup>11</sup> He went right up to Paul, took Paul's belt, and, in a dramatic gesture, tied himself up, hands and feet. He said, "This is what the Holy Spirit says: The Jews in Jerusalem are going to tie up the man who owns this belt just like this and hand him over to godless unbelievers."

<sup>12</sup> When we heard that, we and everyone there that day begged Paul not to be stubborn and persist in going to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> But Paul wouldn't budge: "Why all this hysteria? Why do you insist on making a scene and making it even harder for me? You're looking at this backwards. The issue in Jerusalem is not what they do to me, whether arrest or murder, but what the Master Jesus does through my obedience. Can't you see that?"

<sup>14</sup> We saw that we weren't making even a dent in his resolve, and gave up. "It's in God's hands now," we said. "Master, you handle it."

<sup>15</sup> It wasn't long before we had our luggage together and were on our way to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and took us to the home of Mnason, who received us warmly as his guests. A native of Cyprus, he had been among the earliest disciples.

<sup>17</sup> In Jerusalem, our friends, glad to see us, received us with open arms.

<sup>18</sup> The first thing next morning, we took Paul to see James. All the church leaders were there.

<sup>19</sup> After a time of greeting and small talk, Paul told the story, detail by detail, of what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup> They listened with delight and gave God the glory. They had a story to tell, too: "And just look at what's been happening here--thousands upon thousands of God-fearing Jews have become believers in Jesus! But there's also a problem because they are more zealous than ever in observing the laws of Moses.

<sup>21</sup> They've been told that you advise believing Jews who live surrounded by Gentiles to go light on Moses, telling them that they don't need to circumcise their children or keep up the old traditions. This isn't sitting at all well with them.

<sup>22</sup> "We're worried about what will happen when they discover you're in town. There's bound to be trouble. So here is what we want you to do:

<sup>23</sup> There are four men from our company who have taken a vow involving ritual purification, but have no money to pay the expenses.

<sup>24</sup> Join these men in their vows and pay their expenses. Then it will become obvious to everyone that there is nothing to the rumors going around about you and that you are in fact scrupulous in your reverence for the laws of Moses.

<sup>25</sup> "In asking you to do this, we're not going back on our agreement regarding Gentiles who have become believers. We continue to hold fast to what we wrote in that letter, namely, to be careful not to get involved in activities connected with idols; to avoid serving food offensive to Jewish Christians; to guard the morality of sex and marriage."

<sup>26</sup> So Paul did it--took the men, joined them in their vows, and paid their way. The next day he went to the Temple to make it official and stay there until the proper sacrifices had been offered and completed for each of them.

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days of their purification were nearly up, some Jews from around Ephesus spotted him in the Temple. At once they turned the place upside-down. They grabbed Paul

<sup>28</sup> and started yelling at the top of their lungs, "Help! You Israelites, help! This is the man who is going all over the world telling lies against us and our religion and this place. He's even brought Greeks in here and defiled this holy place."

<sup>29</sup> (What had happened was that they had seen Paul and Trophimus, the Ephesian Greek, walking together in the city and had just assumed that he had also taken him to the Temple and shown him around.)

<sup>30</sup> Soon the whole city was in an uproar, people running from everywhere to the Temple to get in on the action. They grabbed Paul, dragged him outside, and locked the Temple gates so he couldn't get back in and gain sanctuary.

<sup>31</sup> As they were trying to kill him, word came to the captain of the guard, "A riot! The whole city's boiling over!"

<sup>32</sup> He acted swiftly. His soldiers and centurions ran to the scene at once. As soon as the mob saw the captain and his soldiers, they quit beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup> The captain came up and put Paul under arrest. He first ordered him handcuffed, and then asked who he was and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup> All he got from the crowd were shouts, one yelling this, another that. It was impossible to tell one word from another in the mob hysteria, so the captain ordered Paul taken to the military barracks.

<sup>35</sup> But when they got to the Temple steps, the mob became so violent that the soldiers had to carry Paul.

<sup>37</sup> When they got to the barracks and were about to go in, Paul said to the captain, "Can I say something to you?" He answered, "Oh, I didn't know you spoke Greek.

<sup>38</sup> I thought you were the Egyptian who not long ago started a riot here, and then hid out in the desert with his four thousand thugs."

<sup>39</sup> Paul said, "No, I'm a Jew, born in Tarsus. And I'm a citizen still of that influential city. I have a simple request: Let me speak to the crowd."

22<sup>1</sup> "My dear brothers and fathers, listen carefully to what I have to say before you jump to conclusions about me."

<sup>5</sup> You can ask the Chief Priest or anyone in the High Council to verify this; they all knew me well. Then I went off to our brothers in Damascus, armed with official documents authorizing me to hunt down the Christians there, arrest them, and bring them back to Jerusalem for sentencing.

<sup>6</sup> "As I arrived on the outskirts of Damascus about noon, a blinding light blazed out of the skies

<sup>7</sup> and I fell to the ground, dazed. I heard a voice: 'Saul, Saul, why are you out to get me?'

<sup>8</sup> "'Who are you, Master?' I asked. "He said, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, the One you're hunting down.'

<sup>10</sup> "Then I said, 'What do I do now, Master?' "He said, 'Get to your feet and enter Damascus. There you'll be told everything that's been set out for you to do.'

<sup>11</sup> And so we entered Damascus, but nothing like the entrance I had planned--I was blind as a bat and my companions had to lead me in by the hand.

<sup>12</sup> "And that's when I met Ananias, a man with a sterling reputation in observing our laws--the Jewish community in Damascus is unanimous on that score.

<sup>13</sup> He came and put his arm on my shoulder. 'Look up,' he said. I looked, and found myself looking right into his eyes--I could see again!

<sup>14</sup> "Then he said, 'The God of our ancestors has handpicked you to be briefed on his plan of action. You've actually seen the Righteous Innocent and heard him speak.

<sup>15</sup> You are to be a key witness to everyone you meet of what you've seen and heard.

<sup>16</sup> So what are you waiting for? Get up and get yourself baptized, scrubbed clean of those sins and personally acquainted with God.'

<sup>17</sup> "Well, it happened just as Ananias said. After I was back in Jerusalem and praying one day in the Temple, lost in the presence of God, <sup>18</sup> I saw him, saw God's Righteous Innocent, and heard him say to me, 'Hurry up! Get out of here as quickly as you can. None of the Jews here in Jerusalem are going to accept what you say about me.'

<sup>19</sup> "At first I objected: 'Who has better credentials? They all know how obsessed I was with hunting out those who believed in you, beating them up in the meeting places and throwing them in jail.

<sup>20</sup> And when your witness Stephen was murdered, I was right there, holding the coats of the murderers and cheering them on. And now they see me totally converted. What better qualification could I have?'

<sup>21</sup> "But he said, 'Don't argue. Go. I'm sending you on a long journey to outsider Gentiles.'"

<sup>22</sup> The people in the crowd had listened attentively up to this point, but now they broke loose, shouting out, "Kill him! He's an insect! Stomp on him!"

<sup>24</sup> That's when the captain intervened and ordered Paul taken into the barracks. By now the captain was thoroughly exasperated. He decided to interrogate Paul under torture in order to get to the bottom of this, to find out what he had done that provoked this outraged violence.

<sup>25</sup> As they spread-eagled him with thongs, getting him ready for the whip, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is this legal: torturing a Roman citizen without a fair trial?"

<sup>28</sup> The captain was impressed. "I paid a huge sum for my citizenship. How much did it cost you?" "Nothing," said Paul. "It cost me nothing. I was free from the day of my birth."

<sup>29</sup> That put a stop to the interrogation. And it put the fear of God into the captain. He had put a Roman citizen in chains and come within a whisker of putting him under torture!

<sup>30</sup> The next day, determined to get to the root of the trouble and know for sure what was behind the Jewish accusation, the captain released Paul and ordered a meeting of the high priests and the High Council to see what they could make of it. Paul was led in and took his place before them.

23 <sup>1</sup> Paul surveyed the members of the council with a steady gaze, and then said his piece: "Friends, I've lived with a clear conscience before God all my life, up to this very moment."

<sup>3</sup> Paul shot back, "God will slap you down! What a fake you are! You sit there and judge me by the Law and then break the Law by ordering me slapped around!"

<sup>6</sup> Paul, knowing some of the council was made up of Sadducees and others of Pharisees and how they hated each other, decided to exploit their antagonism: "Friends, I am a stalwart Pharisee from a long line of Pharisees. It's because of my Pharisee convictions--the hope and resurrection of the dead--that I've been hauled into this court."

<sup>7</sup> The moment he said this, the council split right down the middle, Pharisees and Sadducees going at each other in heated argument.

<sup>8</sup> Sadducees have nothing to do with a resurrection or angels or even a spirit. If they can't see it, they don't believe it. Pharisees believe it all.

<sup>9</sup> And so a huge and noisy quarrel broke out. Then some of the religion scholars on the Pharisee side shouted down the others: "We don't find anything wrong with this man! And what if a spirit has spoken to him? Or maybe an angel? What if it turns out we're fighting against God?"

<sup>10</sup> That was fuel on the fire. The quarrel flamed up and became so violent the captain was afraid they would tear Paul apart, limb from limb. He ordered the soldiers to get him out of there and escort him back to the safety of the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> That night the Master appeared to Paul: "It's going to be all right. Everything is going to turn out for the best. You've been a good witness for me here in Jerusalem. Now you're going to be my witness in Rome!"

<sup>15</sup> But we need your help. Send a request from the council to the captain to bring Paul back so that you can investigate the charges in more detail.

We'll do the rest. Before he gets anywhere near you, we'll have killed him. You won't be involved."

<sup>16</sup> Paul's nephew, his sister's son, overheard them plotting the ambush. He went immediately to the barracks and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup> Paul called over one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the captain. He has something important to tell him."

<sup>18</sup> The centurion brought him to the captain and said, "The prisoner Paul asked me to bring this young man to you. He said he has something urgent to tell you."

<sup>19</sup> The captain took him by the arm and led him aside privately. "What is it? What do you have to tell me?"

<sup>20</sup> Paul's nephew said, "The Jews have worked up a plot against Paul. They're going to ask you to bring Paul to the council first thing in the morning on the pretext that they want to investigate the charges against him in more detail.

<sup>21</sup> But it's a trick to get him out of your safekeeping so they can murder him. Right now there are more than forty men lying in ambush for him. They've all taken a vow to neither eat nor drink until they've killed him. The ambush is set--all they're waiting for is for you to send him over."

<sup>23</sup> The captain called up two centurions. "Get two hundred soldiers ready to go immediately to Caesarea. Also seventy cavalry and two hundred light infantry. I want them ready to march by nine o'clock tonight.

<sup>24</sup> And you'll need a couple of mules for Paul and his gear. We're going to present this man safe and sound to Governor Felix."

<sup>27</sup> I rescued this man from a Jewish mob. They had seized him and were about to kill him when I learned that he was a Roman citizen. So I sent in my soldiers.

<sup>28</sup> Wanting to know what he had done wrong, I had him brought before their council.

<sup>29</sup> It turned out to be a squabble turned vicious over some of their religious differences, but nothing remotely criminal.

<sup>30</sup> The next thing I knew, they had cooked up a plot to murder him. I decided that for his own safety I'd better get him out of here in a hurry. So I'm sending him to you. I'm informing his accusers that he's now under your jurisdiction.

<sup>33</sup> The cavalry entered Caesarea and handed Paul and the letter over to the governor.

<sup>34</sup> After reading the letter, the governor asked Paul what province he came from and was told "Cilicia."

<sup>35</sup> Then he said, "I'll take up your case when your accusers show up." He ordered him locked up for the meantime in King Herod's official quarters.

24 <sup>1</sup> Within five days, the Chief Priest Ananias arrived with a contingent of leaders, along with Tertullus, a trial lawyer. They presented the governor with their case against Paul.

<sup>2</sup> When Paul was called before the court, Tertullus spoke for the prosecution: "Most Honorable Felix, we are most grateful in all times and places for your wise and gentle rule.

<sup>3</sup> We are much aware that it is because of you and you alone that we enjoy all this peace and gain daily profit from your reforms.

<sup>4</sup> I'm not going to tire you out with a long speech. I beg your kind indulgence in listening to me. I'll be quite brief.

<sup>6</sup> He's a real bad apple, I must say. We caught him trying to defile our holy Temple and arrested him.

<sup>11</sup> I've been back in the country only twelve days--you can check out these dates easily enough. I came with the express purpose of worshiping in Jerusalem on Pentecost, and I've been minding my own business the whole time.

<sup>12</sup> Nobody can say they saw me arguing in the Temple or working up a crowd in the streets.

<sup>14</sup> "But I do freely admit this: In regard to the Way, which they malign as a dead-end street, I serve and worship the very same God served and worshiped by all our ancestors and embrace everything written in all our Scriptures.

<sup>15</sup> And I admit to living in hopeful anticipation that God will raise the dead, both the good and the bad. If that's my crime, my accusers are just as guilty as I am.

<sup>16</sup> "Believe me, I do my level best to keep a clear conscience before God and my neighbors in everything I do.

<sup>17</sup> I've been out of the country for a number of years and now I'm back. While I was away, I took up a collection for the poor and brought that with me, along with offerings for the Temple.

<sup>18</sup> It was while making those offerings that they found me quietly at my prayers in the Temple. There was no crowd, there was no disturbance.

<sup>19</sup> It was some Jews from around Ephesus who started all this trouble. And you'll notice they're not here today. They're cowards, too cowardly to accuse me in front of you.

<sup>20</sup> "So ask these others what crime they've caught me in. Don't let them hide behind this smooth-talking Tertullus.

<sup>21</sup> The only thing they have on me is that one sentence I shouted out in the council: 'It's because I believe in the resurrection that I've been hauled into this court!' Does that sound to you like grounds for a criminal case?"

<sup>22</sup> Felix shilly-shallied. He knew far more about the Way than he let on, and could have settled the case then and there. But uncertain of his best move politically, he played for time. "When Captain Lysias comes down, I'll decide your case."

<sup>23</sup> He gave orders to the centurion to keep Paul in custody, but to more or less give him the run of the place and not prevent his friends from helping him.

<sup>24</sup> A few days later Felix and his wife, Drusilla, who was Jewish, sent for Paul and listened to him talk about a life of believing in Jesus Christ.

<sup>26</sup> At the same time he was secretly hoping that Paul would offer him a substantial bribe. These conversations were repeated frequently.

25 <sup>1</sup> Three days after Festus arrived in Caesarea to take up his duties as governor, he went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> They asked Festus if he wouldn't please do them a favor by sending Paul to Jerusalem to respond to their charges. A lie, of course--they had revived their old plot to set an ambush and kill him along the way.

<sup>4</sup> Festus answered that Caesarea was the proper jurisdiction for Paul, and that he himself was going back there in a few days.

<sup>5</sup> "You're perfectly welcome," he said, "to go back with me then and accuse him of whatever you think he's done wrong."

<sup>6</sup> About eight or ten days later, Festus returned to Caesarea. The next morning he took his place in the courtroom and had Paul brought in.

<sup>7</sup> The minute he walked in, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem were all over him, hurling the most extreme accusations, none of which they could prove.

<sup>8</sup> Then Paul took the stand and said simply, "I've done nothing wrong against the Jewish religion, or the Temple, or Caesar. Period."

<sup>9</sup> Festus, though, wanted to get on the good side of the Jews and so said, "How would you like to go up to Jerusalem, and let me conduct your trial there?"

And I'm going to keep standing here. I've done nothing wrong to the Jews, and you know it as well as I do.

<sup>11</sup> If I've committed a crime and deserve death, name the day. I can face it. But if there's nothing to their accusations--and you know there isn't--nobody can force me to go along with their nonsense. We've fooled around here long enough. I appeal to Caesar."

<sup>15</sup> When I was in Jerusalem, the high priests and Jewish leaders brought a bunch of accusations against him and wanted me to sentence him to death.

<sup>16</sup> I told them that wasn't the way we Romans did things. Just because a man is accused, we don't throw him out to the dogs. We make sure the accused has a chance to face his accusers and defend himself of the charges.

<sup>17</sup> So when they came down here I got right on the case. I took my place in the courtroom and put the man on the stand.

<sup>20</sup> Since I'm a newcomer here and don't understand everything involved in cases like this, I asked if he'd be willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there.

<sup>21</sup> Paul refused and demanded a hearing before His Majesty in our highest court. So I ordered him returned to custody until I could send him to Caesar in Rome."

<sup>22</sup> Agrippa said, "I'd like to see this man and hear his story." "Good," said Festus. "We'll bring him in first thing in the morning and you'll hear it for yourself."

<sup>24</sup> Festus said, "King Agrippa and distinguished guests, take a good look at this man. A bunch of Jews petitioned me first in Jerusalem, and later here, to do away with him. They have been most vehement in demanding his execution.

<sup>25</sup> I looked into it and decided that he had committed no crime. He requested a trial before Caesar and I agreed to send him to Rome.

<sup>26</sup> But what am I going to write to my master, Caesar? All the charges made by the Jews were fabrications, and I've uncovered nothing else. "That's why I've brought him before this company, and especially you, King Agrippa: so we can come up with something in the nature of a charge that will hold water.

<sup>27</sup> For it seems to me silly to send a prisoner all that way for a trial and not be able to document what he did wrong."

26 <sup>1</sup> Agrippa spoke directly to Paul: "Go ahead--tell us about yourself." Paul took the stand and told his story.

<sup>3</sup> knowing how well you are acquainted with Jewish ways and all our family quarrels.

<sup>4</sup> "From the time of my youth, my life has been lived among my own people in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Practically every Jew in town who watched me grow up--and if they were willing to stick their necks out they'd tell you in person--knows that I lived as a strict Pharisee, the most demanding branch of our religion.

<sup>7</sup> committed myself heart and soul to what God promised my ancestors--the identical hope, mind you, that the twelve tribes have lived for night and day all these centuries--it's because I have held on to this tested and tried hope that I'm being called on the carpet by the Jews. They should be the ones standing trial here, not me!

<sup>8</sup> For the life of me, I can't see why it's a criminal offense to believe that God raises the dead.

<sup>9</sup> "I admit that I didn't always hold to this position. For a time I thought it was my duty to oppose this Jesus of Nazareth with all my might.

<sup>10</sup> Backed with the full authority of the high priests, I threw these believers--I had no idea they were God's people!--into the Jerusalem jail right and left, and whenever it came to a vote, I voted for their execution.

<sup>11</sup> I stormed through their meeting places, bullying them into cursing Jesus, a one-man terror obsessed with obliterating these people. And then I started on the towns outside Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> "One day on my way to Damascus, armed as always with papers from the high priests authorizing my action, <sup>13</sup> right in the middle of the day a blaze of light, light outshining the sun, poured out of the sky on me and my companions. Oh, King, it was so bright!

<sup>14</sup> We fell flat on our faces. Then I heard a voice in Hebrew: 'Saul, Saul, why are you out to get me? Why do you insist on going against the grain?'

<sup>15</sup> "I said, 'Who are you, Master?' "The voice answered, 'I am Jesus, the One you're hunting down like an animal.

<sup>16</sup> But now, up on your feet--I have a job for you. I've handpicked you to be a servant and witness to what's happened today, and to what I am going to show you.

<sup>18</sup> to open the eyes of the outsiders so they can see the difference between dark and light, and choose light, see the difference between Satan and God, and choose God. I'm sending you off to present my offer of sins forgiven, and a place in the family, inviting them into the company of those who begin real living by believing in me.'

<sup>19</sup> "What could I do, King Agrippa? I couldn't just walk away from a vision like that! I became an obedient believer on the spot.

<sup>20</sup> I started preaching this life-change--this radical turn to God and everything it meant in everyday life--right there in Damascus, went on to Jerusalem and the surrounding countryside, and from there to the whole world.

<sup>21</sup> "It's because of this 'whole world' dimension that the Jews grabbed me in the Temple that day and tried to kill me. They want to keep God for themselves.

<sup>22</sup> But God has stood by me, just as he promised, and I'm standing here saying what I've been saying to anyone, whether king or child, who will listen. And everything I'm saying is completely in line with what the prophets and Moses said would happen:

<sup>23</sup> One, the Messiah must die; two, raised from the dead, he would be the first rays of God's daylight shining on people far and near, people both godless and God-fearing."

<sup>25</sup> But Paul stood his ground. "With all respect, Festus, Your Honor, I'm not crazy. I'm both accurate and sane in what I'm saying.

<sup>26</sup> The King knows what I'm talking about. I'm sure that nothing of what I've said sounds crazy to him. He's known all about it for a long time. You must realize that this wasn't done behind the scenes.

<sup>27</sup> You believe the prophets, don't you, King Agrippa? Don't answer that--I know you believe."

<sup>28</sup> But Agrippa did answer: "Keep this up much longer and you'll make a Christian out of me!"

<sup>29</sup> Paul, still in chains, said, "That's what I'm praying for, whether now or later, and not only you but everyone listening today, to become like me--except, of course, for this prison jewelry!"

<sup>30</sup> The king and the governor, along with Bernice and their advisors, got up

<sup>31</sup> and went into the next room to talk over what they had heard. They quickly agreed on Paul's innocence, saying,

"There's nothing in this man deserving prison, let alone death."

<sup>32</sup> Agrippa told Festus, "He could be set free right now if he hadn't requested the hearing before Caesar."

27 <sup>1</sup> As soon as arrangements were complete for our sailing to Italy, Paul and a few other prisoners were placed under the supervision of a centurion named Julius, a member of an elite guard.

<sup>4</sup> Out to sea again, we sailed north under the protection of the northeast shore of Cyprus because winds out of the west were against us, <sup>5</sup> and then along the coast westward to the port of Myra.

<sup>7</sup> We ran into bad weather and found it impossible to stay on course. After much difficulty, we finally made it to the southern coast of the island of Crete

<sup>9</sup> By this time we had lost a lot of time. We had passed the autumn equinox, so it would be stormy weather from now on through the winter, too dangerous for sailing. Paul warned,

<sup>10</sup> "I see only disaster ahead for cargo and ship--to say nothing of our lives!--if we put out to sea now."

<sup>12</sup> But it was not the best harbor for staying the winter. Phoenix, a few miles further on, was more suitable.

<sup>13</sup> When a gentle southerly breeze came up, they weighed anchor, thinking it would be smooth sailing.

<sup>15</sup> They lost all control of the ship. It was a cork in the storm.

<sup>18</sup> Next day, out on the high seas again and badly damaged now by the storm, we dumped the cargo overboard.

<sup>19</sup> The third day the sailors lightened the ship further by throwing off all the tackle and provisions.

<sup>20</sup> It had been many days since we had seen either sun or stars. Wind and waves were battering us unmercifully, and we lost all hope of rescue.

<sup>21</sup> With our appetite for both food and life long gone, Paul took his place in our midst and said, "Friends, you really should have listened to me back in Crete. We could have avoided all this trouble and trial.

<sup>22</sup> But there's no need to dwell on that now. From now on, things are looking up! I can assure you that there'll not be a single drowning among us, although I can't say as much for the ship--the ship itself is doomed.

<sup>23</sup> "Last night God's angel stood at my side, an angel of this God I serve,

<sup>24</sup> saying to me, 'Don't give up, Paul. You're going to stand before Caesar yet--and everyone sailing with you is also going to make it.'

<sup>25</sup> So, dear friends, take heart. I believe God will do exactly what he told me.

<sup>26</sup> But we're going to shipwreck on some island or other."

<sup>28</sup> Sounding, they measured a depth of one hundred twenty feet, and shortly after that ninety feet.

<sup>29</sup> Afraid that we were about to run aground, they threw out four anchors and prayed for daylight.

<sup>30</sup> Some of the sailors tried to jump ship. They let down the lifeboat, pretending they were going to set out more anchors from the bow.

<sup>32</sup> So the soldiers cut the lines to the lifeboat and let it drift off.

<sup>33</sup> With dawn about to break, Paul called everyone together and proposed breakfast: "This is the fourteenth day we've gone without food. None of us has felt like eating!

<sup>34</sup> But I urge you to eat something now. You'll need strength for the rescue ahead. You're going to come out of this without even a scratch!"

<sup>37</sup> two hundred seventy-six of us, all told!

<sup>38</sup> With the meal finished and everyone full, the ship was further lightened by dumping the grain overboard.

<sup>39</sup> At daybreak, no one recognized the land--but then they did notice a bay with a nice beach. They decided to try to run the ship up on the beach.

<sup>40</sup> They cut the anchors, loosed the tiller, raised the sail, and ran before the wind toward the beach.

<sup>41</sup> But we didn't make it. Still far from shore, we hit a reef and the ship began to break up.

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers decided to kill the prisoners so none could escape by swimming,

<sup>43</sup> but the centurion, determined to save Paul, stopped them. He gave orders for anyone who could swim to dive in and go for it, <sup>44</sup> and for the rest to grab a plank. Everyone made it to shore safely.

28 <sup>1</sup> Once everyone was accounted for and we realized we had all made it, we learned that we were on the island of Malta.

<sup>2</sup> The natives went out of their way to be friendly to us. The day was rainy and cold and we were already soaked to the bone, but they built a huge bonfire and gathered us around it.

<sup>6</sup> They kept expecting him to drop dead, but when it was obvious he wasn't going to, they jumped to the conclusion that he was a god!

<sup>7</sup> The head man in that part of the island was Publius. He took us into his home as his guests, drying us out and putting us up in fine style for the next three days.

<sup>8</sup> Publius's father was sick at the time, down with a high fever and dysentery. Paul went to the old man's room, and when he laid hands on him and prayed, the man was healed.

<sup>9</sup> Word of the healing got around fast, and soon everyone on the island who was sick came and got healed.

<sup>10</sup> We spent a wonderful three months on Malta. They treated us royally, took care of all our needs and outfitted us for the rest of the journey.

<sup>11</sup> When an Egyptian ship that had wintered there in the harbor prepared to leave for Italy, we got on board. The ship had a carved Gemini for its figurehead: "the Heavenly Twins."

<sup>13</sup> and then went up the coast to Rhegium. Two days later, with the wind out of the south, we sailed into the Bay of Naples.

<sup>14</sup> We found Christian friends there and stayed with them for a week. And then we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> Friends in Rome heard we were on the way and came out to meet us. One group got as far as Appian Court; another group met us at Three Taverns--emotion-packed meetings, as you can well imagine. Paul, brimming over with praise, led us in prayers of thanksgiving.

<sup>16</sup> When we actually entered Rome, they let Paul live in his own private quarters with a soldier who had been assigned to guard him.

<sup>17</sup> Three days later, Paul called the Jewish leaders together for a meeting at his house. He said, "The Jews in Jerusalem arrested me on trumped-up charges, and I was taken into custody by the Romans. I assure you that I did absolutely nothing against Jewish laws or Jewish customs.

<sup>18</sup> After the Romans investigated the charges and found there was nothing to them, they wanted to set me free, <sup>19</sup> but the Jews objected so fiercely that I was forced to appeal to Caesar. I did this not to accuse them of any wrongdoing or to get our people in trouble with Rome. We've had enough trouble through the years that way.

<sup>20</sup> I did it for Israel. I asked you to come and listen to me today to make it clear that I'm on Israel's side, not against her. I'm a hostage here for hope, not doom."

<sup>21</sup> They said, "Nobody wrote warning us about you. And no one has shown up saying anything bad about you.

<sup>22</sup> But we would like very much to hear more. The only thing we know about this Christian sect is that nobody seems to have anything good to say about it."

<sup>23</sup> They agreed on a time. When the day arrived, they came back to his home with a number of their friends. Paul talked to them all day, from morning to evening, explaining everything involved in the kingdom of God, and trying to persuade them all about Jesus by pointing out what Moses and the prophets had written about him.

<sup>24</sup> Some of them were persuaded by what he said, but others refused to believe a word of it.

<sup>25</sup> When the unbelievers got cantankerous and started bickering with each other, Paul interrupted: "I have just one more thing to say to you. The Holy Spirit sure knew what he was talking about when he addressed our ancestors through Isaiah the prophet:

<sup>26</sup> Go to this people and tell them this: "You're going to listen with your ears, but you won't hear a word; You're going to stare with your eyes, but you won't see a thing.

<sup>27</sup> These people are blockheads! They stick their fingers in their ears so they won't have to listen; They screw their eyes shut so they won't have to look, so they won't have to deal with me face-to-face and let me heal them."

<sup>28</sup> "You've had your chance. The non-Jewish outsiders are next on the list. And believe me, they're going to receive it with open arms!"

<sup>30</sup> Paul lived for two years in his rented house. He welcomed everyone who came to visit.

<sup>31</sup> He urgently presented all matters of the kingdom of God. He explained everything about Jesus Christ. His door was always open.

Romans

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am a devoted slave of Jesus Christ on assignment, authorized as an apostle to proclaim God's words and acts. I write this letter to all the Christians in Rome, God's friends.

<sup>4</sup> his unique identity as Son of God was shown by the Spirit when Jesus was raised from the dead, setting him apart as the Messiah, our Master.

<sup>5</sup> Through him we received both the generous gift of his life and the urgent task of passing it on to others who receive it by entering into obedient trust in Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> You are who you are through this gift and call of Jesus Christ!

<sup>7</sup> And I greet you now with all the generosity of God our Father and our Master Jesus, the Messiah.

<sup>8</sup> I thank God through Jesus for every one of you. That's first. People everywhere keep telling me about your lives of faith, and every time I hear them, I thank him.

<sup>9</sup> And God, whom I so love to worship and serve by spreading the good news of his Son--the Message!--knows that every time I think of you

<sup>10</sup> in my prayers, which is practically all the time, I ask him to clear the way for me to come and see you.

<sup>11</sup> The longer this waiting goes on, the deeper the ache. I so want to be there to deliver God's gift in person and watch you grow stronger right before my eyes!

<sup>12</sup> But don't think I'm not expecting to get something out of this, too! You have as much to give me as I do to you.

<sup>13</sup> Please don't misinterpret my failure to visit you, friends. You have no idea how many times I've made plans for Rome. I've been determined to get some personal enjoyment out of God's work among you, as I have in so many other non-Jewish towns and communities. But something has always come up and prevented it.

<sup>14</sup> Everyone I meet--it matters little whether they're mannered or rude, smart or simple--deepens my sense of interdependence and obligation.

<sup>15</sup> And that's why I can't wait to get to you in Rome, preaching this wonderful good news of God.

<sup>16</sup> It's news I'm most proud to proclaim, this extraordinary Message of God's powerful plan to rescue everyone who trusts him, starting with Jews and then right on to everyone else!

<sup>18</sup> But God's angry displeasure erupts as acts of human mistrust and wrongdoing and lying accumulate, as people try to put a shroud over truth.

<sup>19</sup> But the basic reality of God is plain enough. Open your eyes and there it is!

<sup>20</sup> By taking a long and thoughtful look at what God has created, people have always been able to see what their eyes as such can't see: eternal power, for instance, and the mystery of his divine being. So nobody has a good excuse.

<sup>21</sup> What happened was this: People knew God perfectly well, but when they didn't treat him like God, refusing to worship him, they trivialized themselves into silliness and confusion so that there was neither sense nor direction left in their lives.

<sup>22</sup> They pretended to know it all, but were illiterate regarding life.

<sup>23</sup> They traded the glory of God who holds the whole world in his hands for cheap figurines you can buy at any roadside stand.

<sup>24</sup> So God said, in effect, "If that's what you want, that's what you get." It wasn't long before they were living in a pigpen, smeared with filth, filthy inside and out.

<sup>25</sup> And all this because they traded the true God for a fake god, and worshiped the god they made instead of the God who made them--the God we bless, the God who blesses us. Oh, yes!

<sup>26</sup> Worse followed. Refusing to know God, they soon didn't know how to be human either--women didn't know how to be women, men didn't know how to be men.

<sup>27</sup> Sexually confused, they abused and defiled one another, women with women, men with men--all lust, no love. And then they paid for it, oh, how they paid for it--emptied of God and love, godless and loveless wretches.

<sup>28</sup> Since they didn't bother to acknowledge God, God quit bothering them and let them run loose.

<sup>29</sup> And then all hell broke loose: rampant evil, grabbing and grasping, vicious backstabbing. They made life hell on earth with their envy, wanton killing, bickering, and cheating. Look at them: mean-spirited, venomous,

<sup>32</sup> And it's not as if they don't know better. They know perfectly well they're spitting in God's face. And they don't care--worse, they hand out prizes to those who do the worst things best!

2 <sup>1</sup> Those people are on a dark spiral downward. But if you think that leaves you on the high ground where you can point your finger at others, think again. Every time you criticize someone, you condemn yourself. It takes one to know one. Judgmental criticism of others is a well-known way of escaping detection in your own crimes and misdemeanors.

<sup>2</sup> But God isn't so easily diverted. He sees right through all such smoke screens and holds you to what you've done.

<sup>3</sup> You didn't think, did you, that just by pointing your finger at others you would distract God from seeing all your misdoings and from coming down on you hard?

<sup>4</sup> Or did you think that because he's such a nice God, he'd let you off the hook? Better think this one through from the beginning. God is kind, but he's not soft. In kindness he takes us firmly by the hand and leads us into a radical life-change.

<sup>5</sup> You're not getting by with anything. Every refusal and avoidance of God adds fuel to the fire. The day is coming when it's going to blaze hot and high, God's fiery and righteous judgment.

<sup>8</sup> but to those who insist on getting their own way and take the path of least resistance, Fire!

<sup>9</sup> If you go against the grain, you get splinters, regardless of which neighborhood you're from, what your parents taught you, what schools you attended.

<sup>10</sup> But if you embrace the way God does things, there are wonderful payoffs, again without regard to where you are from or how you were brought up.

<sup>11</sup> Being a Jew won't give you an automatic stamp of approval. God pays no attention to what others say (or what you think) about you. He makes up his own mind.

<sup>12</sup> If you sin without knowing what you're doing, God takes that into account. But if you sin knowing full well what you're doing, that's a different story entirely.

<sup>13</sup> Merely hearing God's law is a waste of your time if you don't do what he commands. Doing, not hearing, is what makes the difference with God.

<sup>14</sup> When outsiders who have never heard of God's law follow it more or less by instinct, they confirm its truth by their obedience.

<sup>15</sup> They show that God's law is not something alien, imposed on us from without, but woven into the very fabric of our creation. There is something deep within them that echoes God's yes and no, right and wrong.

<sup>16</sup> Their response to God's yes and no will become public knowledge on the day God makes his final decision about every man and woman. The Message from God that I proclaim through Jesus Christ takes into account all these differences.

<sup>17</sup> If you're brought up Jewish, don't assume that you can lean back in the arms of your religion and take it easy, feeling smug because you're an insider to God's revelation, <sup>18</sup> a connoisseur of the best things of God, informed on the latest doctrines!

<sup>19</sup> I have a special word of caution for you who are sure that you have it all together yourselves and, because you know God's revealed Word inside and out, <sup>20</sup> feel qualified to guide others through their blind alleys and dark nights and confused emotions to God.

<sup>21</sup> While you are guiding others, who is going to guide you? I'm quite serious. While preaching "Don't steal!" are you going to rob people blind? Who would suspect you?

<sup>24</sup> The line from Scripture, "It's because of you Jews that the outsiders are down on God," shows it's an old problem that isn't going to go away.

<sup>25</sup> Circumcision, the surgical ritual that marks you as a Jew, is great if you live in accord with God's law. But if you don't, it's worse than not being circumcised.

<sup>26</sup> The reverse is also true: The uncircumcised who keep God's ways are as good as the circumcised--

<sup>28</sup> Don't you see: It's not the cut of a knife that makes a Jew.

<sup>29</sup> You become a Jew by who you are. It's the mark of God on your heart, not of a knife on your skin, that makes a Jew. And recognition comes from God, not legalistic critics.

3<sup>1</sup> So what difference does it make who's a Jew and who isn't, who has been trained in God's ways and who hasn't?

<sup>2</sup> As it turns out, it makes a lot of difference--but not the difference so many have assumed. First, there's the matter of being put in charge of writing down and caring for God's revelation, these Holy Scriptures.

<sup>3</sup> So, what if, in the course of doing that, some of those Jews abandoned their post? God didn't abandon them. Do you think their faithlessness cancels out his faithfulness?

<sup>4</sup> Not on your life! Depend on it: God keeps his word even when the whole world is lying through its teeth. Scripture says the same: Your words stand fast and true; Rejection doesn't faze you.

<sup>5</sup> But if our wrongdoing only underlines and confirms God's rightdoing, shouldn't we be commended for helping out? Since our bad words don't even make a dent in his good words, isn't it wrong of God to back us to the wall and hold us to our word? These questions come up.

<sup>6</sup> The answer to such questions is no, a most emphatic No! How else would things ever get straightened out if God didn't do the straightening?

<sup>7</sup> It's simply perverse to say, "If my lies serve to show off God's truth all the more gloriously, why blame me? I'm doing God a favor."

<sup>8</sup> Some people are actually trying to put such words in our mouths, claiming that we go around saying, "The more evil we do, the more good God does, so let's just do it!" That's pure slander, as I'm sure you'll agree. We're All in the Same Sinking Boat others? Not really. Basically, all of us, whether insiders or outsiders, start out in identical conditions, which is to say that we all start out as sinners. Scripture leaves no doubt about it:

<sup>19</sup> This makes it clear, doesn't it, that whatever is written in these Scriptures is not what God says about others but to us to whom these Scriptures were addressed in the first place! And it's clear enough, isn't it, that we're sinners, every one of us, in the same sinking boat with everybody else?

<sup>20</sup> Our involvement with God's revelation doesn't put us right with God. What it does is force us to face our complicity in everyone else's sin.

<sup>21</sup> But in our time something new has been added. What Moses and the prophets witnessed to all those years has happened.

<sup>22</sup> The God-setting-things-right that we read about has become Jesus-setting-things-right for us. And not only for us, but for everyone who believes in him. For there is no difference between us and them in this.

<sup>23</sup> Since we've compiled this long and sorry record as sinners (both us and them) and proved that we are utterly incapable of living the glorious lives God wills for us, <sup>24</sup> God did it for us. Out of sheer generosity he put us in right standing with himself. A pure gift. He got us out of the mess we're in and restored us to where he always wanted us to be. And he did it by means of Jesus Christ.

<sup>25</sup> God sacrificed Jesus on the altar of the world to clear that world of sin. Having faith in him sets us in the clear. God decided on this course of action in full view of the public--to set the world in the clear with himself through the sacrifice of Jesus, finally taking care of the sins he had so patiently endured.

<sup>26</sup> This is not only clear, but it's now-- this is current history! God sets things right. He also makes it possible for us to live in his rightness.

<sup>27</sup> So where does that leave our proud Jewish insider claims and counterclaims? Canceled? Yes, canceled. What we've learned is this: God does not respond to what we do; we respond to what God does.

<sup>28</sup> We've finally figured it out. Our lives get in step with God and all others by letting him set the pace, not by proudly or anxiously trying to run the parade.

<sup>29</sup> And where does that leave our proud Jewish claim of having a corner on God? Also canceled. God is the God of outsider non-Jews as well as insider Jews.

<sup>30</sup> How could it be otherwise since there is only one God? God sets right all who welcome his action and enter into it, both those who follow our religious system and those who have never heard of our religion.

<sup>31</sup> But by shifting our focus from what we do to what God does, don't we cancel out all our careful keeping of the rules and ways God commanded? Not at all. What happens, in fact, is that by putting that entire way of life in its proper place, we confirm it.

4 <sup>1</sup> So how do we fit what we know of Abraham, our first father in the faith, into this new way of looking at things?

<sup>2</sup> If Abraham, by what he did for God, got God to approve him, he could certainly have taken credit for it. But the story we're given is a God-story, not an Abraham-story.

<sup>3</sup> What we read in Scripture is, "Abraham entered into what God was doing for him, and that was the turning point. He trusted God to set him right instead of trying to be right on his own."

<sup>4</sup> If you're a hard worker and do a good job, you deserve your pay; we don't call your wages a gift.

<sup>5</sup> But if you see that the job is too big for you, that it's something only God can do, and you trust him to do it--you could never do it for yourself no matter how hard and long you worked--well, that trusting-him-to-do-it is what gets you set right with God, by God. Sheer gift.

<sup>9</sup> Do you think for a minute that this blessing is only pronounced over those of us who keep our religious ways and are circumcised? Or do you think it possible that the blessing could be given to those who never even heard of our ways, who were never brought up in the disciplines of God? We all agree, don't we, that it was by embracing what God did for him that Abraham was declared fit before God?

<sup>10</sup> Now [think]: Was that declaration made before or after he was marked by the covenant rite of circumcision? That's right, [before] he was marked.

<sup>11</sup> That means that he underwent circumcision as evidence and confirmation of what God had done long before to bring him into this acceptable standing with himself, an act of God he had embraced with his whole life.

<sup>12</sup> And it means further that Abraham is father of [all] people who embrace what God does for them while they are still on the "outs" with God, as yet unidentified as God's, in an "uncircumcised" condition. It is precisely these people in this condition who are called "set right by God and with God"! Abraham is also, of course, father of those who have undergone the religious rite of circumcision [not] just because of the ritual but because they were willing to live in the risky faith-embrace of God's action for them, the way Abraham lived long before he was marked by circumcision.

<sup>13</sup> That famous promise God gave Abraham--that he and his children would possess the earth--was not given because of something Abraham did or would do. It was based on God's decision to put everything together for him, which Abraham then entered when he believed.

<sup>14</sup> If those who get what God gives them only get it by doing everything they are told to do and filling out all the right forms properly signed, that eliminates personal trust completely and turns the promise into an ironclad [contract]! That's not a holy promise; that's a business deal.

<sup>15</sup> A contract drawn up by a hard-nosed lawyer and with plenty of fine print only makes sure that you will never be able to collect. But if there is no contract in the first place, simply a [promise]--and God's promise at that--you can't break it.

<sup>16</sup> This is why the fulfillment of God's promise depends entirely on trusting God and his way, and then simply embracing him and what he does. God's promise arrives as pure gift. That's the only way everyone can be sure to get in on it, those who keep the religious traditions [and] those who have never heard of them. For Abraham is father of us all. He is not our racial father--that's reading the story backwards. He is our [faith] father.

<sup>17</sup> We call Abraham "father" not because he got God's attention by living like a saint, but because God made something out of Abraham when he was a nobody. Isn't that what we've always read in Scripture, God saying to Abraham, "I set you up as father of many peoples"? Abraham was first named "father" and then [became] a father because he dared to trust God to do what only God could do: raise the dead to life, with a word make something out of nothing.

<sup>18</sup> When everything was hopeless, Abraham believed anyway, deciding to live not on the basis of what he saw he [couldn't] do but on what God said he [would] do. And so he was made father of a multitude of peoples. God himself said to him, "You're going to have a big family, Abraham!"

<sup>20</sup> He didn't tiptoe around God's promise asking cautiously skeptical questions. He plunged into the promise and came up strong, ready for God, <sup>21</sup> sure that God would make good on what he had said.

<sup>24</sup> it's also us! The same thing gets said about us when we embrace and believe the One who brought Jesus to life when the conditions were equally hopeless.

<sup>25</sup> The sacrificed Jesus made us fit for God, set us [right with God].

5 <sup>1</sup> By entering through faith into what God has always wanted to do for us--set us right with him, make us fit for him--we have it all together with God because of our Master Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> And that's not all: We throw open our doors to God and discover at the same moment that he has already thrown open his door to us. We find ourselves standing where we always hoped we might stand--out in the wide open spaces of God's grace and glory, standing tall and shouting our praise.

<sup>3</sup> There's more to come: We continue to shout our praise even when we're hemmed in with troubles, because we know how troubles can develop passionate patience in us, <sup>4</sup> and how that patience in turn forges the tempered steel of virtue, keeping us alert for whatever God will do next.

<sup>6</sup> Christ arrives right on time to make this happen. He didn't, and doesn't, wait for us to get ready. He presented himself for this sacrificial death when we were far too weak and rebellious to do anything to get ourselves ready. And even if we hadn't been so weak, we wouldn't have known what to do anyway.

<sup>7</sup> We can understand someone dying for a person worth dying for, and we can understand how someone good and noble could inspire us to selfless sacrifice.

<sup>8</sup> But God put his love on the line for us by offering his Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to him.

<sup>9</sup> Now that we are set right with God by means of this sacrificial death, the consummate blood sacrifice, there is no longer a question of being at odds with God in any way.

<sup>10</sup> If, when we were at our worst, we were put on friendly terms with God by the sacrificial death of his Son, now that we're at our best, just think of how our lives will expand and deepen by means of his resurrection life!

<sup>11</sup> Now that we have actually received this amazing friendship with God, we are no longer content to simply say it in plodding prose. We sing and shout our praises to God through Jesus, the Messiah!

<sup>12</sup> You know the story of how Adam landed us in the dilemma we're in--first sin, then death, and no one exempt from either sin or death.

<sup>13</sup> That sin disturbed relations with God in everything and everyone, but the extent of the disturbance was not clear until God spelled it out in detail to Moses. So death, this huge abyss separating us from God, dominated the landscape from Adam to Moses.

<sup>14</sup> Even those who didn't sin precisely as Adam did by disobeying a specific command of God still had to experience this termination of life, this separation from God. But Adam, who got us into this, also points ahead to the One who will get us out of it.

<sup>15</sup> Yet the rescuing gift is not exactly parallel to the death-dealing sin. If one man's sin put crowds of people at the dead-end abyss of separation from God, just think what God's gift poured through one man, Jesus Christ, will do!

<sup>16</sup> There's no comparison between that death-dealing sin and this generous, life-giving gift. The verdict on that one sin was the death sentence; the verdict on the many sins that followed was this wonderful life sentence.

<sup>18</sup> Here it is in a nutshell: Just as one person did it wrong and got us in all this trouble with sin and death, another person did it right and got us out of it.

But more than just getting us out of trouble, he got us into life!

<sup>19</sup> One man said no to God and put many people in the wrong; one man said yes to God and put many in the right.

<sup>20</sup> All that passing laws against sin did was produce more lawbreakers. But sin didn't, and doesn't, have a chance in competition with the aggressive forgiveness we call [grace]. When it's sin versus grace, grace wins hands down.

<sup>21</sup> All sin can do is threaten us with death, and that's the end of it. Grace, because God is putting everything together again through the Messiah, invites us into life--a life that goes on and on and on, world without end.

6 <sup>1</sup> So what do we do? Keep on sinning so God can keep on forgiving?

<sup>2</sup> I should hope not! If we've left the country where sin is sovereign, how can we still live in our old house there?

<sup>3</sup> Or didn't you realize we packed up and left there for good? That is what happened in baptism. When we went under the water, we left the old country of sin behind; when we came up out of the water, we entered into the new country of grace--a new life in a new land! That's what baptism into the life of Jesus means.

<sup>4</sup> When we are lowered into the water, it is like the burial of Jesus; when we are raised up out of the water, it is like the resurrection of Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Each of us is raised into a light-filled world by our Father so that we can see where we're going in our new grace-sovereign country.

<sup>6</sup> Could it be any clearer? Our old way of life was nailed to the Cross with Christ, a decisive end to that sin-miserable life--no longer at sin's every beck and call! What we believe is this:

<sup>8</sup> If we get included in Christ's sin-conquering death, we also get included in his life-saving resurrection.

<sup>9</sup> We know that when Jesus was raised from the dead it was a signal of the end of death-as-the-end. Never again will death have the last word.

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus died, he took sin down with him, but alive he brings God down to us.

<sup>11</sup> From now on, think of it this way: Sin speaks a dead language that means nothing to you; God speaks your mother tongue, and you hang on every word. You are dead to sin and alive to God. That's what Jesus did.

<sup>12</sup> That means you must not give sin a vote in the way you conduct your lives. Don't give it the time of day.

<sup>13</sup> Don't even run little errands that are connected with that old way of life. Throw yourselves wholeheartedly and full-time--remember, you've been raised from the dead!--into God's way of doing things.

<sup>14</sup> Sin can't tell you how to live. After all, you're not living under that old tyranny any longer. You're living in the freedom of God.

<sup>15</sup> So, since we're out from under the old tyranny, does that mean we can live any old way we want? Since we're free in the freedom of God, can we do anything that comes to mind?

<sup>16</sup> Hardly. You know well enough from your own experience that there are some acts of so-called freedom that destroy freedom. Offer yourselves to sin, for instance, and it's your last free act. But offer yourselves to the ways of God and the freedom never quits. All your lives you've let sin tell you what to do.

<sup>18</sup> one whose commands set you free to live openly in [his] freedom!

<sup>19</sup> I'm using this freedom language because it's easy to picture. You can readily recall, can't you, how at one time the more you did just what you felt like doing--not caring about others, not caring about God--the worse your life became and the less freedom you had? And how much different is it now as you live in God's freedom, your lives healed and expansive in holiness?

<sup>20</sup> As long as you did what you felt like doing, ignoring God, you didn't have to bother with right thinking or right living, or right [anything] for that matter.

<sup>21</sup> But do you call that a free life? What did you get out of it? Nothing you're proud of now. Where did it get you? A dead end.

<sup>22</sup> But now that you've found you don't have to listen to sin tell you what to do, and have discovered the delight of listening to God telling you, what a surprise! A whole, healed, put-together life right now, with more and more of life on the way!

<sup>23</sup> Work hard for sin your whole life and your pension is death. But God's gift is [real life], eternal life, delivered by Jesus, our Master.

7 <sup>1</sup> You shouldn't have any trouble understanding this, friends, for you know all the ins and outs of the law--how it works and how its power touches only the living.

<sup>2</sup> For instance, a wife is legally tied to her husband while he lives, but if he dies, she's free.

<sup>3</sup> If she lives with another man while her husband is living, she's obviously an adulteress. But if he dies, she is quite free to marry another man in good conscience, with no one's disapproval.

<sup>4</sup> So, my friends, this is something like what has taken place with you. When Christ died he took that entire rule-dominated way of life down with him and left it in the tomb, leaving you free to "marry" a resurrection life and bear "offspring" of faith for God.

<sup>5</sup> For as long as we lived that old way of life, doing whatever we felt we could get away with, sin was calling most of the shots as the old law code hemmed us in. And this made us all the more rebellious. In the end, all we had to show for it was miscarriages and stillbirths.

<sup>6</sup> But now that we're no longer shackled to that domineering mate of sin, and out from under all those oppressive regulations and fine print, we're free to live a new life in the freedom of God.

<sup>7</sup> But I can hear you say, "If the law code was as bad as all that, it's no better than sin itself." That's certainly not true.

The law code had a perfectly legitimate function. Without its clear guidelines for right and wrong, moral behavior would be mostly guesswork. Apart from the succinct, surgical command, "You shall not covet," I could have dressed covetousness up to look like a virtue and ruined my life with it.

<sup>8</sup> Don't you remember how it was? I do, perfectly well. The law code started out as an excellent piece of work. What happened, though, was that sin found a way to pervert the command into a temptation, making a piece of "forbidden fruit" out of it. The law code, instead of being used to guide me, was used to seduce me. Without all the paraphernalia of the law code, sin looked pretty dull and lifeless,

<sup>9</sup> and I went along without paying much attention to it. But once sin got its hands on the law code and decked itself out in all that finery, I was fooled, and fell for it.

<sup>10</sup> The very command that was supposed to guide me into life was cleverly used to trip me up, throwing me headlong.

<sup>11</sup> So sin was plenty alive, and I was stone dead.

<sup>12</sup> But the law code itself is God's good and common sense, each command sane and holy counsel.

<sup>13</sup> I can already hear your next question: "Does that mean I can't even trust what is good [[that is, the law]]? Is good just as dangerous as evil?" No again! Sin simply did what sin is so famous for doing: using the good as a cover to tempt me to do what would finally destroy me. By hiding within God's good commandment, sin did far more mischief than it could ever have accomplished on its own.

<sup>14</sup> I can anticipate the response that is coming: "I know that all God's commands are spiritual, but I'm not. Isn't this also your experience?" Yes. I'm full of myself--after all, I've spent a long time in sin's prison.

<sup>15</sup> What I don't understand about myself is that I decide one way, but then I act another, doing things I absolutely despise.

<sup>16</sup> So if I can't be trusted to figure out what is best for myself and then do it, it becomes obvious that God's command is necessary.

<sup>17</sup> But I need something [more]! For if I know the law but still can't keep it, and if the power of sin within me keeps sabotaging my best intentions, I obviously need help!

<sup>18</sup> I realize that I don't have what it takes. I can will it, but I can't do it.

<sup>19</sup> I decide to do good, but I don't really do it; I decide not to do bad, but then I do it anyway.

<sup>20</sup> My decisions, such as they are, don't result in actions. Something has gone wrong deep within me and gets the better of me every time.

<sup>21</sup> It happens so regularly that it's predictable. The moment I decide to do good, sin is there to trip me up.

<sup>22</sup> I truly delight in God's commands,

<sup>23</sup> but it's pretty obvious that not all of me joins in that delight. Parts of me covertly rebel, and just when I least expect it, they take charge.

<sup>24</sup> I've tried everything and nothing helps. I'm at the end of my rope. Is there no one who can do anything for me? Isn't that the real question?

<sup>25</sup> The answer, thank God, is that Jesus Christ can and does. He acted to set things right in this life of contradictions where I want to serve God with all my heart and mind, but am pulled by the influence of sin to do something totally different.

8<sup>1</sup> With the arrival of Jesus, the Messiah, that fateful dilemma is resolved. Those who enter into Christ's being-here-for-us no longer have to live under a continuous, low-lying black cloud.

<sup>2</sup> A new power is in operation. The Spirit of life in Christ, like a strong wind, has magnificently cleared the air, freeing you from a fated lifetime of brutal tyranny at the hands of sin and death.

<sup>3</sup> God went for the jugular when he sent his own Son. He didn't deal with the problem as something remote and unimportant. In his Son, Jesus, he personally took on the human condition, entered the disordered mess of struggling humanity in order to set it right once and for all. The law code, weakened as it always was by fractured human nature, could never have done that. The law always ended up being used as a Band-Aid on sin instead of a deep healing of it.

<sup>4</sup> And now what the law code asked for but we couldn't deliver is accomplished as we, instead of redoubling our own efforts, simply embrace what the Spirit is doing in us.

<sup>5</sup> Those who think they can do it on their own end up obsessed with measuring their own moral muscle but never get around to exercising it in real life. Those who trust God's action in them find that God's Spirit is in them--living and breathing God!

<sup>6</sup> Obsession with self in these matters is a dead end; attention to God leads us out into the open, into a spacious, free life.

<sup>7</sup> Focusing on the self is the opposite of focusing on God. Anyone completely absorbed in self ignores God, ends up thinking more about self than God. That person ignores who God is and what he is doing.

<sup>8</sup> And God isn't pleased at being ignored.

<sup>9</sup> But if God himself has taken up residence in your life, you can hardly be thinking more of yourself than of him. Anyone, of course, who has not welcomed this invisible but clearly present God, the Spirit of Christ, won't know what we're talking about.

<sup>10</sup> But for you who welcome him, in whom he dwells--even though you still experience all the limitations of sin--you yourself experience life on God's terms.

<sup>11</sup> It stands to reason, doesn't it, that if the alive-and-present God who raised Jesus from the dead moves into your life, he'll do the same thing in you that he did in Jesus, bringing you alive to himself? When God lives and breathes in you (and he does, as surely as he did in Jesus), you are delivered from that dead life. With his Spirit living in you, your body will be as alive as Christ's!

<sup>12</sup> So don't you see that we don't owe this old do-it-yourself life one red cent.

<sup>16</sup> God's Spirit touches our spirits and confirms who we really are. We know who he is, and we know who we are: Father and children.

<sup>17</sup> And we know we are going to get what's coming to us--an unbelievable inheritance! We go through exactly what Christ goes through. If we go through the hard times with him, then we're certainly going to go through the good times with him!

<sup>18</sup> That's why I don't think there's any comparison between the present hard times and the coming good times.

<sup>20</sup> Everything in creation is being more or less held back. God reins it in <sup>21</sup> until both creation and all the creatures are ready and can be released at the same moment into the glorious times ahead. Meanwhile, the joyful anticipation deepens.

<sup>22</sup> All around us we observe a pregnant creation. The difficult times of pain throughout the world are simply birth pangs. But it's not only around us; it's [within] us. The Spirit of God is arousing us within. We're also feeling the birth pangs.

<sup>24</sup> That is why waiting does not diminish us, any more than waiting diminishes a pregnant mother. We are enlarged in the waiting. We, of course, don't see what is enlarging us.

<sup>25</sup> But the longer we wait, the larger we become, and the more joyful our expectancy.

<sup>26</sup> Meanwhile, the moment we get tired in the waiting, God's Spirit is right alongside helping us along. If we don't know how or what to pray, it doesn't matter. He does our praying in and for us, making prayer out of our wordless sighs, our aching groans.

<sup>27</sup> He knows us far better than we know ourselves, knows our pregnant condition, and keeps us present before God.

<sup>28</sup> That's why we can be so sure that every detail in our lives of love for God is worked into something good.

<sup>29</sup> God knew what he was doing from the very beginning. He decided from the outset to shape the lives of those who love him along the same lines as the life of his Son. The Son stands first in the line of humanity he restored. We see the original and intended shape of our lives there in him.

<sup>30</sup> After God made that decision of what his children should be like, he followed it up by calling people by name. After he called them by name, he set them on a solid basis with himself. And then, after getting them established, he stayed with them to the end, gloriously completing what he had begun.

<sup>31</sup> So, what do you think? With God on our side like this, how can we lose?

<sup>32</sup> If God didn't hesitate to put everything on the line for us, embracing our condition and exposing himself to the worst by sending his own Son, is there anything else he wouldn't gladly and freely do for us?

<sup>33</sup> And who would dare tangle with God by messing with one of God's chosen?

<sup>34</sup> Who would dare even to point a finger? The One who died for us--who was raised to life for us!--is in the presence of God at this very moment sticking up for us.

<sup>35</sup> Do you think anyone is going to be able to drive a wedge between us and Christ's love for us? There is no way! Not trouble, not hard times, not hatred, not hunger, not homelessness, not bullying threats, not backstabbing, not even the worst sins listed in Scripture:

<sup>36</sup> They kill us in cold blood because they hate you. We're sitting ducks; they pick us off one by one.

<sup>38</sup> I'm absolutely convinced that nothing--nothing living or dead, angelic or demonic, today or tomorrow, <sup>39</sup> high or low, thinkable or unthinkable--absolutely [nothing] can get between us and God's love because of the way that Jesus our Master has embraced us.

9<sup>1</sup> At the same time, you need to know that I carry with me at all times a huge sorrow.

<sup>2</sup> It's an enormous pain deep within me, and I'm never free of it. I'm not exaggerating--Christ and the Holy Spirit are my witnesses. It's the Israelites...

<sup>3</sup> If there were any way I could be cursed by the Messiah so they could be blessed by him, I'd do it in a minute. They're my family.

<sup>4</sup> I grew up with them. They had everything going for them--family, glory, covenants, revelation, worship, promises, <sup>5</sup> to say nothing of being the race that produced the Messiah, the Christ, who is God over everything, always. Oh, yes!

<sup>6</sup> Don't suppose for a moment, though, that God's Word has malfunctioned in some way or other. The problem goes back a long way. From the outset, not all Israelites of the flesh were Israelites of the spirit.

<sup>7</sup> It wasn't Abraham's sperm that gave identity here, but God's [promise]. Remember how it was put: "Your family will be defined by Isaac"?

<sup>8</sup> That means that Israelite identity was never racially determined by sexual transmission, but it was [God]-determined by promise.

<sup>9</sup> Remember that promise, "When I come back next year at this time, Sarah will have a son"?

<sup>10</sup> And that's not the only time. To Rebecca, also, a promise was made that took priority over genetics. When she became pregnant by our one-of-a-kind ancestor, Isaac, <sup>11</sup> and her babies were still innocent in the womb--incapable of good or bad--she received a special assurance from God. What God did in this case made it perfectly plain that his purpose is not a hit-or-miss thing dependent on what we do or don't do, but a sure thing determined by his decision, flowing steadily from his initiative.

<sup>12</sup> God told Rebecca, "The firstborn of your twins will take second place."

<sup>14</sup> Is that grounds for complaining that God is unfair? Not so fast, please.

<sup>15</sup> God told Moses, "[I'm] in charge of mercy. [I'm] in charge of compassion."

<sup>16</sup> Compassion doesn't originate in our bleeding hearts or moral sweat, but in God's mercy.

<sup>17</sup> The same point was made when God said to Pharaoh, "I picked you as a bit player in this drama of my salvation power."

<sup>18</sup> All we're saying is that God has the first word, initiating the action in which we play our part for good or ill.

<sup>19</sup> Are you going to object, "So how can God blame us for anything since he's in charge of everything? If the big decisions are already made, what say do we have in it?"

<sup>20</sup> Who in the world do you think you are to second-guess God? Do you for one moment suppose any of us knows enough to call God into question? Clay doesn't talk back to the fingers that mold it, saying, "Why did you shape me like this?"

<sup>24</sup> Either or both happens to Jews, but it also happens to the other people.

<sup>25</sup> Hosea put it well: I'll call nobodies and make them somebodies; I'll call the unloved and make them beloved.

<sup>26</sup> In the place where they yelled out, "You're nobody!" they're calling you "God's living children."

<sup>27</sup> Isaiah maintained this same emphasis: If each grain of sand on the seashore were numbered and the sum labeled "chosen of God," They'd be numbers still, not names; salvation comes by personal selection.

<sup>28</sup> God doesn't count us; he calls us by name. Arithmetic is not his focus.

<sup>29</sup> Isaiah had looked ahead and spoken the truth: If our powerful God had not provided us a legacy of living children, We would have ended up like ghost towns, like Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>30</sup> How can we sum this up? All those people who didn't seem interested in what God was doing actually [embraced] what God was doing as he straightened out their lives.

<sup>31</sup> And Israel, who seemed so interested in reading and talking about what God was doing, missed it.

<sup>32</sup> How could they miss it? Because instead of trusting God, [they] took over. They were absorbed in what they themselves were doing. They were so absorbed in their "God projects" that they didn't notice God right in front of them, like a huge rock in the middle of the road. And so they stumbled into him and went sprawling.

<sup>33</sup> Isaiah (again!) gives us the metaphor for pulling this together: Careful! I've put a huge stone on the road to Mount Zion, a stone you can't get around. But the stone is me! If you're looking for me, you'll find me on the way, not in the way.

10<sup>1</sup> Believe me, friends, all I want for Israel is what's best for Israel:

salvation, nothing less. I want it with all my heart and pray to God for it all the time.

<sup>2</sup> I readily admit that the Jews are impressively energetic regarding God--but they are doing everything exactly backwards.

<sup>4</sup> The earlier revelation was intended simply to get us ready for the Messiah, who then puts everything right for those who trust him to do it.

<sup>5</sup> Moses wrote that anyone who insists on using the law code to live right before God soon discovers it's not so easy--every detail of life regulated by fine print!

<sup>8</sup> So what exactly was Moses saying? The word that saves is right here, as near as the tongue in your mouth, as close as the heart in your chest. It's the word of faith that welcomes God to go to work and set things right for us. This is the core of our preaching.

<sup>9</sup> Say the welcoming word to God--"Jesus is my Master"--embracing, body and soul, God's work of doing in us what he did in raising Jesus from the dead.

That's it. You're not "doing" anything; you're simply calling out to God, trusting him to do it for you. That's salvation.

<sup>10</sup> With your whole being you embrace God setting things right, and then you say it, right out loud: "God has set everything right between him and me!"

<sup>11</sup> Scripture reassures us, "No one who trusts God like this--heart and soul--will ever regret it."

<sup>12</sup> It's exactly the same no matter what a person's religious background may be: the same God for all of us, acting the same incredibly generous way to everyone who calls out for help.

<sup>14</sup> But how can people call for help if they don't know who to trust? And how can they know who to trust if they haven't heard of the One who can be trusted? And how can they hear if nobody tells them?

<sup>15</sup> And how is anyone going to tell them, unless someone is sent to do it? That's why Scripture exclaims, A sight to take your breath away! Grand processions of people telling all the good things of God!

<sup>16</sup> But not everybody is ready for this, ready to see and hear and act. Isaiah asked what we all ask at one time or another: "Does anyone care, God? Is anyone listening and believing a word of it?"

<sup>18</sup> But haven't there been plenty of opportunities for Israel to listen and understand what's going on? Plenty, I'd say. Preachers' voices have gone 'round the world, Their message to earth's seven seas.

<sup>19</sup> So the big question is, Why didn't Israel understand that she had no corner on this message? Moses had it right when he predicted, When you see God reach out to those you consider your inferiors--outsiders!--you'll become insanely jealous. When you see God reach out to people you think are religiously stupid, you'll throw temper tantrums.

<sup>20</sup> Isaiah dared to speak out these words of God: People found and welcomed me who never so much as looked for me. And I found and welcomed people who had never even asked about me.

<sup>21</sup> Then he capped it with a damning indictment: Day after day after day, I beckoned Israel with open arms, And got nothing for my trouble but cold shoulders and icy stares.

11 <sup>1</sup> Does this mean, then, that God is so fed up with Israel that he'll have nothing more to do with them? Hardly. Remember that I, the one writing these things, am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham out of the tribe of Benjamin. You can't get much more Semitic than that!

<sup>2</sup> So we're not talking about repudiation. God has been too long involved with Israel, has too much invested, to simply wash his hands of them. Do you remember that time Elijah was agonizing over this same Israel and cried out in prayer?

<sup>5</sup> It's the same today. There's a fiercely loyal minority still--not many, perhaps, but probably more than you think.

<sup>6</sup> They're holding on, not because of what they think they're going to get out of it, but because they're convinced of God's grace and purpose in choosing them. If they were only thinking of their own immediate self-interest, they would have left long ago.

<sup>7</sup> And then what happened? Well, when Israel tried to be right with God on her own, pursuing her own self-interest, she didn't succeed. The chosen ones of God were those who let God pursue his interest in them, and as a result received his stamp of legitimacy. The "self-interest Israel" became thick-skinned toward God.

<sup>8</sup> Moses and Isaiah both commented on this: Fed up with their quarrelsome, self-centered ways, God blurred their eyes and dulled their ears, Shut them in on themselves in a hall of mirrors, and they're there to this day.

<sup>9</sup> David was upset about the same thing: I hope they get sick eating self-serving meals, break a leg walking their self-serving ways.

<sup>11</sup> The next question is, "Are they down for the count? Are they out of this for good?" And the answer is a clear-cut no. Ironically when they walked out, they left the door open and the outsiders walked in. But the next thing you know, the Jews were starting to wonder if perhaps they had walked out on a good thing.

<sup>12</sup> Now, if their leaving triggered this worldwide coming of non-Jewish outsiders to God's kingdom, just imagine the effect of their coming back! What a homecoming!

<sup>13</sup> But I don't want to go on about them. It's you, the outsiders, that I'm concerned with now. Because my personal assignment is focused on the so-called outsiders, I make as much of this as I can <sup>14</sup> when I'm among my Israelite kin, the so-called insiders, hoping they'll realize what they're missing and want to get in on what God is doing.

<sup>15</sup> If their falling out initiated this worldwide coming together, their recovery is going to set off something even better: mass homecoming! If the first thing the Jews did, even though it was wrong for them, turned out for your good, just think what's going to happen when they get it right!

<sup>16</sup> Behind and underneath all this there is a holy, God-planted, God-tended root.

If the primary root of the tree is holy, there's bound to be some holy fruit.

<sup>17</sup> Some of the tree's branches were pruned and you wild olive shoots were grafted in. Yet the fact that you are now fed by that rich and holy root <sup>18</sup> gives you no cause to crow over the pruned branches. Remember, you aren't feeding the root; the root is feeding you.

<sup>19</sup> It's certainly possible to say, "Other branches were pruned so that [I] could be grafted in!"

<sup>20</sup> Well and good. But they were pruned because they were deadwood, no longer connected by belief and commitment to the root. The only reason you're on the tree is because your graft "took" when you believed, and because you're connected to that belief-nurturing root. So don't get cocky and strut your branch. Be humbly mindful of the root that keeps you lithe and green.

<sup>21</sup> If God didn't think twice about taking pruning shears to the natural branches, why would he hesitate over you? He wouldn't give it a second thought.

<sup>22</sup> Make sure you stay alert to these qualities of gentle kindness and ruthless severity that exist side by side in God--ruthless with the deadwood, gentle with the grafted shoot. But don't presume on this gentleness. The moment you become deadwood, you're out of there.

<sup>23</sup> And don't get to feeling superior to those pruned branches down on the ground. If they don't persist in remaining deadwood, they could very well get grafted back in. God can do that. He can perform miracle grafts.

<sup>24</sup> Why, if he could graft [you]--branches cut from a tree out in the wild--into an orchard tree, he certainly isn't going to have any trouble grafting branches back into the tree they grew from in the first place. Just be glad you're in the tree, and hope for the best for the others.

<sup>25</sup> I want to lay all this out on the table as clearly as I can, friends. This is complicated. It would be easy to misinterpret what's going on and arrogantly assume that you're royalty and they're just rabble, out on their ears for good. But that's not it at all. This hardness on the part of insider Israel toward God is temporary. Its effect is to open things up to all the outsiders so that we end up with a full house.

<sup>26</sup> Before it's all over, there will be a complete Israel. As it is written, A champion will stride down from the mountain of Zion; he'll clean house in Jacob.

<sup>27</sup> And this is my commitment to my people: removal of their sins.

<sup>28</sup> From your point of view as you hear and embrace the good news of the Message, it looks like the Jews are God's enemies. But looked at from the long-range perspective of God's overall purpose, they remain God's oldest friends.

<sup>29</sup> God's gifts and God's call are under full warranty--never canceled, never rescinded.

<sup>30</sup> There was a time not so long ago when you were on the outs with God. But then the Jews slammed the door on him and things opened up for you.

<sup>31</sup> Now they are on the outs. But with the door held wide open for you, they have a way back in.

<sup>32</sup> In one way or another, God makes sure that we all experience what it means to be outside so that he can personally open the door and welcome us back in.

<sup>33</sup> Have you ever come on anything quite like this extravagant generosity of God, this deep, deep wisdom? It's way over our heads. We'll never figure it out.

<sup>34</sup> Is there anyone around who can explain God? Anyone smart enough to tell him what to do?

<sup>35</sup> Anyone who has done him such a huge favor that God has to ask his advice?

<sup>36</sup> Everything comes from him; Everything happens through him; Everything ends up in him. Always glory! Always praise! Yes. Yes. Yes.

12 <sup>1</sup> So here's what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life--your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life--and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him.

<sup>2</sup> Don't become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You'll be changed from the inside out. Readily recognize what he wants from you, and quickly respond to it. Unlike the culture around you, always dragging you down to its level of immaturity, God brings the best out of you, develops well-formed maturity in you.

<sup>3</sup> I'm speaking to you out of deep gratitude for all that God has given me, and especially as I have responsibilities in relation to you. Living then, as every one of you does, in pure grace, it's important that you not misinterpret yourselves as people who are bringing this goodness to God. No, God brings it all to you. The only accurate way to understand ourselves is by what God is and by what he does for us, not by what we are and what we do for him.

<sup>4</sup> In this way we are like the various parts of a human body. Each part gets its meaning from the body as a whole, not the other way around.

<sup>5</sup> The body we're talking about is Christ's body of chosen people. Each of us finds our meaning and function as a part of his body. But as a chopped-off finger or cut-off toe we wouldn't amount to much, would we? So since we find ourselves fashioned into all these excellently formed and marvelously functioning parts in Christ's body, <sup>6</sup> let's just go ahead and be what we were made to be, without enviously or pridefully comparing ourselves with each other, or trying to be something we aren't. If you preach, just preach God's Message, nothing else;

<sup>7</sup> if you help, just help, don't take over; if you teach, stick to your teaching;

<sup>8</sup> if you give encouraging guidance, be careful that you don't get bossy; if you're put in charge, don't manipulate; if you're called to give aid to people in distress, keep your eyes open and be quick to respond; if you work with the disadvantaged, don't let yourself get irritated with them or depressed by them. Keep a smile on your face.

<sup>19</sup> Don't insist on getting even; that's not for you to do. "I'll do the judging," says God. "I'll take care of it."

<sup>20</sup> Our Scriptures tell us that if you see your enemy hungry, go buy that person lunch, or if he's thirsty, get him a drink. Your generosity will surprise him with goodness.

<sup>21</sup> Don't let evil get the best of you; get the best of evil by doing good.

13 <sup>1</sup> Be a good citizen. All governments are under God. Insofar as there is peace and order, it's God's order. So live responsibly as a citizen.

<sup>2</sup> If you're irresponsible to the state, then you're irresponsible with God, and God will hold you responsible.

<sup>3</sup> Duly constituted authorities are only a threat if you're trying to get by with something. Decent citizens should have nothing to fear. Do you want to be on good terms with the government? Be a responsible citizen and you'll get on just fine, <sup>4</sup> the government working to your advantage. But if you're breaking the rules right and left, watch out. The police aren't there just to be admired in their uniforms. God also has an interest in keeping order, and he uses them to do it.

<sup>5</sup> That's why you must live responsibly--not just to avoid punishment but also because it's the right way to live.

<sup>6</sup> That's also why you pay taxes--so that an orderly way of life can be maintained.

<sup>7</sup> Fulfill your obligations as a citizen. Pay your taxes, pay your bills, respect your leaders.

<sup>8</sup> Don't run up debts, except for the huge debt of love you owe each other. When you love others, you complete what the law has been after all along.

<sup>9</sup> The law code--don't sleep with another person's spouse, don't take someone's life, don't take what isn't yours, don't always be wanting what you don't have, and any other "don't" you can think of--finally adds up to this: Love other people as well as you do yourself.

<sup>10</sup> You can't go wrong when you love others. When you add up everything in the law code, the sum total is [love].

<sup>11</sup> But make sure that you don't get so absorbed and exhausted in taking care of all your day-by-day obligations that you lose track of the time and doze off, oblivious to God.

<sup>12</sup> The night is about over, dawn is about to break. Be up and awake to what God is doing! God is putting the finishing touches on the salvation work he began when we first believed.

<sup>13</sup> We can't afford to waste a minute, must not squander these precious daylight hours in frivolity and indulgence, in sleeping around and dissipation, in bickering and grabbing everything in sight.

the way you do. And don't jump all over them every time they do or say something you don't agree with--even when it seems that they are strong on opinions but weak in the faith department. Remember, they have their own history to deal with. Treat them gently.

<sup>2</sup> For instance, a person who has been around for a while might well be convinced that he can eat anything on the table, while another, with a different background, might assume all Christians should be vegetarians and eat accordingly.

<sup>3</sup> But since both are guests at Christ's table, wouldn't it be terribly rude if they fell to criticizing what the other ate or didn't eat? God, after all, invited them both to the table.

<sup>4</sup> Do you have any business crossing people off the guest list or interfering with God's welcome? If there are corrections to be made or manners to be learned, God can handle that without your help.

<sup>5</sup> Or, say, one person thinks that some days should be set aside as holy and another thinks that each day is pretty much like any other. There are good reasons either way. So, each person is free to follow the convictions of conscience.

<sup>6</sup> What's important in all this is that if you keep a holy day, keep it for [God's] sake; if you eat meat, eat it to the glory of God and thank God for prime rib; if you're a vegetarian, eat vegetables to the glory of God and thank God for broccoli.

<sup>7</sup> None of us are permitted to insist on our own way in these matters.

<sup>8</sup> It's [God] we are answerable to--all the way from life to death and everything in between--not each other.

<sup>9</sup> That's why Jesus lived and died and then lived again: so that he could be our Master across the entire range of life and death, and free us from the petty tyrannies of each other.

<sup>10</sup> So where does that leave you when you criticize a brother? And where does that leave you when you condescend to a sister? I'd say it leaves you looking pretty silly--or worse. Eventually, we're all going to end up kneeling side by side in the place of judgment, facing God. Your critical and condescending ways aren't going to improve your position there one bit.

<sup>11</sup> Read it for yourself in Scripture: "As I live and breathe," God says, "every knee will bow before me; Every tongue will tell the honest truth that I and only I am God."

<sup>12</sup> So tend to your knitting. You've got your hands full just taking care of your own life before God.

<sup>13</sup> Forget about deciding what's right for each other. Here's what you need to be concerned about: that you don't get in the way of someone else, making life more difficult than it already is.

<sup>14</sup> I'm convinced--Jesus convinced me!--that everything as it is in itself is holy. We, of course, by the way we treat it or talk about it, can contaminate it.

<sup>15</sup> If you confuse others by making a big issue over what they eat or don't eat, you're no longer a companion with them in love, are you? These, remember, are persons for whom Christ died. Would you risk sending them to hell over an item in their diet?

<sup>16</sup> Don't you dare let a piece of God-blessed food become an occasion of soul-poisoning!

<sup>17</sup> God's kingdom isn't a matter of what you put in your stomach, for goodness' sake. It's what God does with your life as he sets it right, puts it together, and completes it with joy.

<sup>18</sup> Your task is to single-mindedly serve Christ. Do that and you'll kill two birds with one stone: pleasing the God above you and proving your worth to the people around you.

<sup>19</sup> So let's agree to use all our energy in getting along with each other. Help others with encouraging words;

<sup>20</sup> don't drag them down by finding fault. You're certainly not going to permit an argument over what is served or not served at supper to wreck God's work among you, are you? I said it before and I'll say it again: All food is good, but it can turn bad if you use it badly, if you use it to trip others up and send them sprawling.

<sup>21</sup> When you sit down to a meal, your primary concern should not be to feed your own face but to share the life of Jesus. So be sensitive and courteous to the others who are eating. Don't eat or say or do things that might interfere with the free exchange of love.

<sup>22</sup> Cultivate your own relationship with God, but don't impose it on others. You're fortunate if your behavior and your belief are coherent.

<sup>23</sup> But if you're not sure, if you notice that you are acting in ways inconsistent with what you believe--some days trying to impose your opinions on others, other days just trying to please them--then you know that you're out of line. If the way you live isn't consistent with what you believe, then it's wrong.

15 <sup>1</sup> Those of us who are strong and able in the faith need to step in and lend a hand to those who falter, and not just do what is most convenient for us. Strength is for service, not status.

<sup>3</sup> That's exactly what Jesus did. He didn't make it easy for himself by avoiding people's troubles, but waded right in and helped out. "I took on the troubles of the troubled," is the way Scripture puts it.

<sup>4</sup> Even if it was written in Scripture long ago, you can be sure it's written for us. God wants the combination of his steady, constant calling and warm, personal counsel in Scripture to come to characterize us, keeping us alert for whatever he will do next.

<sup>5</sup> May our dependably steady and warmly personal God develop maturity in you so that you get along with each other as well as Jesus gets along with us all.

<sup>6</sup> Then we'll be a choir--not our voices only, but our very lives singing in harmony in a stunning anthem to the God and Father of our Master Jesus!

<sup>7</sup> So reach out and welcome one another to God's glory. Jesus did it; now you do it!

<sup>8</sup> Jesus, staying true to God's purposes, reached out in a special way to the Jewish insiders so that the old ancestral promises would come true for them.

<sup>9</sup> As a result, the non-Jewish outsiders have been able to experience mercy and to show appreciation to God. Just think of all the Scriptures that will come true in what we do! For instance: Then I'll join outsiders in a hymn-sing; I'll sing to your name!

<sup>11</sup> And again: People of all nations, celebrate God! All colors and races, give hearty praise!

<sup>12</sup> And Isaiah's word: There's the root of our ancestor Jesse, breaking through the earth and growing tree tall, Tall enough for everyone everywhere to see and take hope!

<sup>13</sup> Oh! May the God of green hope fill you up with joy, fill you up with peace, so that your believing lives, filled with the life-giving energy of the Holy Spirit, will brim over with hope!

<sup>14</sup> Personally, I've been completely satisfied with who you are and what you are doing. You seem to me to be well-motivated and well-instructed, quite capable of guiding and advising one another.

<sup>15</sup> So, my dear friends, don't take my rather bold and blunt language as criticism. It's not criticism. I'm simply underlining how very much I need your help in carrying out this highly focused assignment God gave me, <sup>16</sup> this priestly and gospel work of serving the spiritual needs of the non-Jewish outsiders so they can be presented as an acceptable offering to God, made whole and holy by God's Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> Looking back over what has been accomplished and what I have observed, I must say I am most pleased--in the context of Jesus, I'd even say [proud], but only in that context.

<sup>18</sup> I have no interest in giving you a chatty account of my adventures, only the wondrously powerful and transformingly present words and deeds of Christ in me that triggered a believing response among the outsiders.

<sup>19</sup> In such ways I have trailblazed a preaching of the Message of Jesus all the way from Jerusalem far into northwestern Greece.

<sup>20</sup> This has all been pioneer work, bringing the Message only into those places where Jesus was not yet known and worshiped.

<sup>21</sup> My text has been, Those who were never told of him--they'll see him! Those who've never heard of him--they'll get the message!

<sup>22</sup> And that's why it has taken me so long to finally get around to coming to you.

<sup>23</sup> But now that there is no more pioneering work to be done in these parts, and since I have looked forward to seeing you for many years, <sup>24</sup> I'm planning my visit. I'm headed for Spain, and expect to stop off on the way to enjoy a good visit with you, and eventually have you send me off with God's blessing.

<sup>25</sup> First, though, I'm going to Jerusalem to deliver a relief offering to the Christians there.

<sup>26</sup> The Greeks--all the way from the Macedonians in the north to the Achaians in the south--decided they wanted to take up a collection for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup> They were happy to do this, but it was also their duty. Seeing that they got in on all the spiritual gifts that flowed out of the Jerusalem community so generously, it is only right that they do what they can to relieve their poverty.

<sup>28</sup> As soon as I have done this-- personally handed over this "fruit basket"--I'm off to Spain, with a stopover with you in Rome.

<sup>29</sup> My hope is that my visit with you is going to be one of Christ's more extravagant blessings.

<sup>30</sup> I have one request, dear friends: Pray for me. Pray strenuously with and for me--to God the Father, through the power of our Master Jesus, through the love of the Spirit--

<sup>31</sup> that I will be delivered from the lions' den of unbelievers in Judea. Pray also that my relief offering to the Jerusalem Christians will be accepted in the spirit in which it is given.

<sup>32</sup> Then, God willing, I'll be on my way to you with a light and eager heart, looking forward to being refreshed by your company.

<sup>2</sup> Help her out in whatever she asks. She deserves anything you can do for her. She's helped many a person, including me.

<sup>3</sup> Say hello to Priscilla and Aquila, who have worked hand in hand with me in serving Jesus.

<sup>4</sup> They once put their lives on the line for me. And I'm not the only one grateful to them. All the non-Jewish gatherings of believers also owe them plenty, <sup>5</sup> to say nothing of the church that meets in their house. Hello to my dear friend Epenetus. He was the very first Christian in the province of Asia.

<sup>6</sup> Hello to Mary. What a worker she has turned out to be!

<sup>7</sup> Hello to my cousins Andronicus and Junias. We once shared a jail cell. They were believers in Christ before I was. Both of them are outstanding leaders.

<sup>8</sup> Hello to Ampliatus, my good friend in the family of God.

<sup>10</sup> Hello to Apelles, a tried-and-true veteran in following Christ. Hello to the family of Aristobulus.

<sup>11</sup> Hello to my cousin Herodion. Hello to those Christians from the family of Narcissus.

<sup>12</sup> Hello to Tryphena and Tryphosa—such diligent women in serving the Master. Hello to Persis, a dear friend and hard worker in Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Hello to Rufus--a good choice by the Master!--and his mother. She has also been a dear mother to me.

<sup>14</sup> Hello to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and also to all of their families.

<sup>15</sup> Hello to Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas--and all the Christians who live with them.

<sup>17</sup> One final word of counsel, friends. Keep a sharp eye out for those who take bits and pieces of the teaching that you learned and then use them to make trouble. Give these people a wide berth.

<sup>18</sup> They have no intention of living for our Master Christ. They're only in this for what they can get out of it, and aren't above using pious sweet talk to dupe unsuspecting innocents.

<sup>19</sup> And so while there has never been any question about your honesty in these matters--I couldn't be more proud of you!--I want you also to be smart, making sure every "good" thing is the [real] thing. Don't be gullible in regard to smooth-talking evil. Stay alert like this,

<sup>20</sup> and before you know it the God of peace will come down on Satan with both feet, stomping him into the dirt.

Enjoy the best of Jesus!

<sup>21</sup> And here are some more greetings from our end. Timothy, my partner in this work, Lucius, and my cousins Jason and Sosipater all said to tell you hello.

<sup>22</sup> I, Tertius, who wrote this letter at Paul's dictation, send you my personal greetings.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius, who is host here to both me and the whole church, wants to be remembered to you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our good friend Quartus send their greetings.

<sup>25</sup> All of our praise rises to the One who is strong enough to make [you] strong, exactly as preached in Jesus Christ, precisely as revealed in the mystery kept secret for so long <sup>26</sup> but now an open book through the prophetic Scriptures. All the nations of the world can now know the truth and be brought into obedient belief, carrying out the orders of God, who got all this started, down to the very last letter.

<sup>27</sup> All our praise is focused through Jesus on this incomparably wise God!
Yes!

1 Corinthians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, have been called and sent by Jesus, the Messiah, according to God's plan, along with my friend Sosthenes.

<sup>2</sup> I send this letter to you in God's church at Corinth, Christians cleaned up by Jesus and set apart for a God-filled life. I include in my greeting all who call out to Jesus, wherever they live. He's their Master as well as ours!

<sup>3</sup> May all the gifts and benefits that come from God our Father, and the Master, Jesus Christ, be yours.

<sup>4</sup> Every time I think of you--and I think of you often!--I thank God for your lives of free and open access to God, given by Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> There's no end to what has happened in you--it's beyond speech, beyond knowledge.

<sup>6</sup> The evidence of Christ has been clearly verified in your lives.

<sup>7</sup> Just think--you don't need a thing, you've got it all! All God's gifts are right in front of you as you wait expectantly for our Master Jesus to arrive on the scene for the Finale.

<sup>8</sup> And not only that, but God himself is right alongside to keep you steady and on track until things are all wrapped up by Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> God, who got you started in this spiritual adventure, shares with us the life of his Son and our Master Jesus. He will never give up on you. Never forget that.

<sup>10</sup> I have a serious concern to bring up with you, my friends, using the authority of Jesus, our Master. I'll put it as urgently as I can: You must get along with each other. You must learn to be considerate of one another, cultivating a life in common.

<sup>11</sup> I bring this up because some from Chloe's family brought a most disturbing report to my attention--that you're fighting among yourselves!

<sup>12</sup> I'll tell you exactly what I was told: You're all picking sides, going around saying, "I'm on Paul's side," or "I'm for Apollos," or "Peter is my man," or "I'm in the Messiah group."

<sup>13</sup> I ask you, "Has the Messiah been chopped up in little pieces so we can each have a relic all our own? Was Paul crucified for you? Was a single one of you baptized in Paul's name?"

<sup>14</sup> I was not involved with any of your baptisms--except for Crispus and Gaius--and on getting this report, I'm sure glad I wasn't.

<sup>15</sup> At least no one can go around saying he was baptized in my name.

<sup>16</sup> (Come to think of it, I also baptized Stephanas's family, but as far as I can recall, that's it.)

<sup>17</sup> God didn't send me out to collect a following for myself, but to preach the Message of what he has done, collecting a following for him. And he didn't send me to do it with a lot of fancy rhetoric of my own, lest the powerful action at the center--Christ on the Cross--be trivialized into mere words.

<sup>18</sup> The Message that points to Christ on the Cross seems like sheer silliness to those hellbent on destruction, but for those on the way of salvation it makes perfect sense. This is the way God works, and most powerfully as it turns out.

<sup>19</sup> It's written, I'll turn conventional wisdom on its head, I'll expose so-called experts as crackpots.

<sup>20</sup> So where can you find someone truly wise, truly educated, truly intelligent in this day and age? Hasn't God exposed it all as pretentious nonsense?

<sup>21</sup> Since the world in all its fancy wisdom never had a clue when it came to knowing God, God in his wisdom took delight in using what the world considered dumb--[preaching], of all things!--to bring those who trust him into the way of salvation.

<sup>23</sup> we go right on proclaiming Christ, the Crucified. Jews treat this like an [anti]-miracle--and Greeks pass it off as absurd.

<sup>24</sup> But to us who are personally called by God himself--both Jews and Greeks--Christ is God's ultimate miracle and wisdom all wrapped up in one.

<sup>25</sup> Human wisdom is so tinny, so impotent, next to the seeming absurdity of God. Human strength can't begin to compete with God's "weakness."

<sup>26</sup> Take a good look, friends, at who you were when you got called into this life. I don't see many of "the brightest and the best" among you, not many influential, not many from high-society families.

<sup>27</sup> Isn't it obvious that God deliberately chose men and women that the culture overlooks and exploits and abuses,

<sup>29</sup> That makes it quite clear that none of you can get by with blowing your own horn before God.

<sup>30</sup> Everything that we have--right thinking and right living, a clean slate and a fresh start--comes from God by way of Jesus Christ.

<sup>31</sup> That's why we have the saying, "If you're going to blow a horn, blow a trumpet for God."

2 <sup>1</sup> You'll remember, friends, that when I first came to you to let you in on God's master stroke, I didn't try to impress you with polished speeches and the latest philosophy.

<sup>2</sup> I deliberately kept it plain and simple: first Jesus and who he is; then Jesus and what he did--Jesus crucified.

<sup>3</sup> I was unsure of how to go about this, and felt totally inadequate--I was scared to death, if you want the truth of it--

<sup>4</sup> and so nothing I said could have impressed you or anyone else. But the Message came through anyway. God's Spirit and God's power did it, <sup>5</sup> which made it clear that your life of faith is a response to God's power, not to some fancy mental or emotional footwork by me or anyone else.

<sup>6</sup> We, of course, have plenty of wisdom to pass on to you once you get your feet on firm spiritual ground, but it's not popular wisdom, the fashionable wisdom of high-priced experts that will be out-of-date in a year or so.

<sup>7</sup> God's wisdom is something mysterious that goes deep into the interior of his purposes. You don't find it lying around on the surface. It's not the latest message, but more like the oldest--what God determined as the way to bring out his best in us, long before we ever arrived on the scene.

<sup>8</sup> The experts of our day haven't a clue about what this eternal plan is. If they had, they wouldn't have killed the Master of the God-designed life on a cross.

<sup>9</sup> That's why we have this Scripture text: No one's ever seen or heard anything like this, Never so much as imagined anything quite like it--What God has arranged for those who love him.

<sup>10</sup> But you've seen and heard it because God by his Spirit has brought it all out into the open before you. The Spirit, not content to flit around on the surface, dives into the depths of God, and brings out what God planned all along.

<sup>11</sup> Who ever knows what you're thinking and planning except you yourself? The same with God--except that he not only knows what he's thinking, <sup>12</sup> but he lets us in on it. God offers a full report on the gifts of life and salvation that he is giving us.

<sup>13</sup> We don't have to rely on the world's guesses and opinions. We didn't learn this by reading books or going to school; we learned it from God, who taught us person-to-person through Jesus, and we're passing it on to you in the same firsthand, personal way.

<sup>14</sup> The unspiritual self, just as it is by nature, can't receive the gifts of God's Spirit. There's no capacity for them. They seem like so much silliness. Spirit can be known only by spirit--God's Spirit and our spirits in open communion.

<sup>15</sup> Spiritually alive, we have access to everything God's Spirit is doing, and can't be judged by unspiritual critics.

<sup>16</sup> Isaiah's question, "Is there anyone around who knows God's Spirit, anyone who knows what he is doing?" has been answered: Christ knows, and we have Christ's Spirit.

3 <sup>1</sup> But for right now, friends, I'm completely frustrated by your unspiritual dealings with each other and with God. You're acting like infants in relation to Christ,

<sup>2</sup> capable of nothing much more than nursing at the breast. Well, then, I'll nurse you since you don't seem capable of anything more.

<sup>3</sup> As long as you grab for what makes you feel good or makes you look important, are you really much different than a babe at the breast, content only when everything's going your way?

<sup>4</sup> When one of you says, "I'm on Paul's side," and another says, "I'm for Apollos," aren't you being totally infantile?

<sup>5</sup> Who do you think Paul is, anyway? Or Apollos, for that matter? Servants, both of us--servants who waited on you as you gradually learned to entrust your lives to our mutual Master. We each carried out our servant assignment.

<sup>6</sup> I planted the seed, Apollos watered the plants, but [God] made you grow.

<sup>7</sup> It's not the one who plants or the one who waters who is at the center of this process but God, who makes things grow.

<sup>9</sup> What makes them worth doing is the God we are serving. You happen to be God's field in which we are working. Or, to put it another way, you are God's house.

<sup>10</sup> Using the gift God gave me as a good architect, I designed blueprints; Apollos is putting up the walls. Let each carpenter who comes on the job take care to build on the foundation!

<sup>11</sup> Remember, there is only one foundation, the one already laid: Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Eventually there is going to be an inspection. If you use cheap or inferior materials, you'll be found out.

The inspection will be thorough and rigorous. You won't get by with a thing.

<sup>14</sup> If your work passes inspection, fine;

<sup>15</sup> if it doesn't, your part of the building will be torn out and started over. But you won't be torn out; you'll survive--but just barely.

<sup>16</sup> You realize, don't you, that you are the temple of God, and God himself is present in you?

<sup>17</sup> No one will get by with vandalizing God's temple, you can be sure of that. God's temple is sacred--and you, remember, [are] the temple.

<sup>18</sup> Don't fool yourself. Don't think that you can be wise merely by being up-to-date with the times.

<sup>19</sup> Be God's fool--that's the path to true wisdom. What the world calls smart, God calls stupid. It's written in Scripture, He exposes the chicanery of the chic.

<sup>21</sup> I don't want to hear any of you bragging about yourself or anyone else. Everything is already yours as a gift--

<sup>22</sup> Paul, Apollos, Peter, the world, life, death, the present, the future--all of it is yours, <sup>23</sup> and you are privileged to be in union with Christ, who is in union with God.

4 <sup>1</sup> Don't imagine us leaders to be something we aren't. We are servants of Christ, not his masters. We are guides into God's most sublime secrets, not security guards posted to protect them.

<sup>3</sup> It matters very little to me what you think of me, even less where I rank in popular opinion. I don't even rank myself. Comparisons in these matters are pointless.

<sup>4</sup> I'm not aware of anything that would disqualify me from being a good guide for you, but that doesn't mean much. The [Master] makes that judgment.

<sup>5</sup> So don't get ahead of the Master and jump to conclusions with your judgments before all the evidence is in. When he comes, he will bring out in the open and place in evidence all kinds of things we never even dreamed of--inner motives and purposes and prayers. Only then will any one of us get to hear the "Well done!" of God.

<sup>6</sup> All I'm doing right now, friends, is showing how these things pertain to Apollos and me so that you will learn restraint and not rush into making judgments without knowing all the facts. It's important to look at things from God's point of view. I would rather not see you inflating or deflating reputations based on mere hearsay.

<sup>7</sup> For who do you know that really knows you, knows your heart? And even if they did, is there anything they would discover in you that you could take credit for? Isn't everything you [have] and everything you [are] sheer gifts from God? So what's the point of all this comparing and competing?

<sup>8</sup> You already have all you need. You already have more access to God than you can handle. Without bringing either Apollos or me into it, you're sitting on top of the world--at least God's world--and we're right there, sitting alongside you!

<sup>9</sup> It seems to me that God has put us who bear his Message on stage in a theater in which no one wants to buy a ticket. We're something everyone stands around and stares at, like an accident in the street.

<sup>10</sup> We're the Messiah's misfits. You might be sure of yourselves, but we live in the midst of frailties and uncertainties. You might be well-thought-of by others, but we're mostly kicked around.

<sup>11</sup> Much of the time we don't have enough to eat, we wear patched and threadbare clothes, we get doors slammed in our faces,

<sup>12</sup> and we pick up odd jobs anywhere we can to eke out a living. When they call us names, we say, "God bless you."

<sup>13</sup> When they spread rumors about [us], we put in a good word for [them]. We're treated like garbage, potato peelings from the culture's kitchen. And it's not getting any better.

<sup>14</sup> I'm not writing all this as a neighborhood scold just to make you feel rotten. I'm writing as a father to you, my children. I love you and want you to grow up well, not spoiled.

<sup>15</sup> There are a lot of people around who can't wait to tell you what you've done wrong, but there aren't many fathers willing to take the time and effort to help you grow up. It was as Jesus helped me proclaim God's Message to you that I became your father.

<sup>16</sup> I'm not, you know, asking you to do anything I'm not already doing myself.

<sup>17</sup> This is why I sent Timothy to you earlier. He is also my dear son, and true to the Master. He will refresh your memory on the instructions I regularly give all the churches on the way of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> I know there are some among you who are so full of themselves they never listen to anyone, let alone me. They don't think I'll ever show up in person.

<sup>19</sup> But I'll be there sooner than you think, God willing, and then we'll see if they're full of anything but hot air.

<sup>21</sup> So how should I prepare to come to you? As a severe disciplinarian who makes you toe the mark? Or as a good friend and counselor who wants to share heart-to-heart with you? You decide.

5 <sup>1</sup> I also received a report of scandalous sex within your church family, a kind that wouldn't be tolerated even outside the church: One of your men is sleeping with his stepmother.

<sup>2</sup> And you're so above it all that it doesn't even faze you! Shouldn't this break your hearts? Shouldn't it bring you to your knees in tears? Shouldn't this person and his conduct be confronted and dealt with?

<sup>3</sup> I'll tell you what I would do. Even though I'm not there in person, consider me right there with you, because I can fully see what's going on. I'm telling you that this is wrong. You must not simply look the other way and hope it goes away on its own. Bring it out in the open and deal with it in the authority of Jesus our Master.

<sup>4</sup> Assemble the community--I'll be present in spirit with you and our Master Jesus will be present in power.

<sup>5</sup> Hold this man's conduct up to public scrutiny. Let him defend it if he can! But if he can't, then out with him! It will be totally devastating to him, of course, and embarrassing to you. But better devastation and embarrassment than damnation. You want him on his feet and forgiven before the Master on the Day of Judgment.

<sup>6</sup> Your flip and callous arrogance in these things bothers me. You pass it off as a small thing, but it's anything but that. Yeast, too, is a "small thing," but it works its way through a whole batch of bread dough pretty fast.

<sup>7</sup> So get rid of this "yeast." Our true identity is flat and plain, not puffed up with the wrong kind of ingredient. The Messiah, our Passover Lamb, has already been sacrificed for the Passover meal, and we are the Unraised Bread part of the Feast.

<sup>8</sup> So let's live out our part in the Feast, not as raised bread swollen with the yeast of evil, but as flat bread--simple, genuine, unpretentious.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote you in my earlier letter that you shouldn't make yourselves at home among the sexually promiscuous.

<sup>10</sup> I didn't mean that you should have nothing at all to do with outsiders of that sort. Or with crooks, whether blue- or white-collar. Or with spiritual phonies, for that matter. You'd have to leave the world entirely to do that!

<sup>11</sup> But I am saying that you shouldn't act as if everything is just fine when one of your Christian companions is promiscuous or crooked, is flip with God or rude to friends, gets drunk or becomes greedy and predatory. You can't just go along with this, treating it as acceptable behavior.

<sup>12</sup> I'm not responsible for what the [outsiders] do, but don't we have some responsibility for those within our community of believers?

<sup>13</sup> God decides on the outsiders, but we need to decide when our brothers and sisters are out of line and, if necessary, clean house.

6 <sup>1</sup> And how dare you take each other to court! When you think you have been wronged, does it make any sense to go before a court that knows nothing of God's ways instead of a family of Christians?

<sup>2</sup> The day is coming when the world is going to stand before a jury made up of Christians. If someday you are going to rule on the world's fate, wouldn't it be a good idea to practice on some of these smaller cases?

<sup>3</sup> Why, we're even going to judge angels! So why not these everyday affairs?

<sup>4</sup> As these disagreements and wrongs surface, why would you ever entrust them to the judgment of people you don't trust in any other way?

<sup>5</sup> I say this as bluntly as I can to wake you up to the stupidity of what you're doing. Is it possible that there isn't one levelheaded person among you who can make fair decisions when disagreements and disputes come up? I don't believe it.

<sup>6</sup> And here you are taking each other to court before people who don't even believe in God! How can they render justice if they don't believe in the [God] of justice?

<sup>7</sup> These court cases are an ugly blot on your community. Wouldn't it be far better to just take it, to let yourselves be wronged and forget it?

<sup>8</sup> All you're doing is providing fuel for more wrong, more injustice, bringing more hurt to the people of your own spiritual family.

<sup>9</sup> Don't you realize that this is not the way to live? Unjust people who don't care about God will not be joining in his kingdom. Those who use and abuse each other, use and abuse sex, <sup>10</sup> use and abuse the earth and everything in it, don't qualify as citizens in God's kingdom.

<sup>11</sup> A number of you know from experience what I'm talking about, for not so long ago you were on that list. Since then, you've been cleaned up and given a fresh start by Jesus, our Master, our Messiah, and by our God present in us, the Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> Just because something is technically legal doesn't mean that it's spiritually appropriate. If I went around doing whatever I thought I could get by with, I'd be a slave to my whims.

<sup>13</sup> You know the old saying, "First you eat to live, and then you live to eat"? Well, it may be true that the body is only a temporary thing, but that's no excuse for stuffing your body with food, or indulging it with sex. Since the Master honors you with a body, honor him with your body!

<sup>14</sup> God honored the Master's body by raising it from the grave. He'll treat yours with the same resurrection power.

<sup>15</sup> Until that time, remember that your bodies are created with the same dignity as the Master's body. You wouldn't take the Master's body off to a whorehouse, would you? I should hope not.

<sup>16</sup> There's more to sex than mere skin on skin. Sex is as much spiritual mystery as physical fact. As written in Scripture, "The two become one."

<sup>17</sup> Since we want to become spiritually one with the Master, we must not pursue the kind of sex that avoids commitment and intimacy, leaving us more lonely than ever--the kind of sex that can never "become one."

<sup>18</sup> There is a sense in which sexual sins are different from all others. In sexual sin we violate the sacredness of our own bodies, these bodies that were made for God-given and God-modeled love, for "becoming one" with another.

<sup>19</sup> Or didn't you realize that your body is a sacred place, the place of the Holy Spirit? Don't you see that you can't live however you please, squandering what God paid such a high price for? The physical part of you is not some piece of property belonging to the spiritual part of you.

<sup>20</sup> God owns the whole works. So let people see God in and through your body.

7 <sup>1</sup> Now, getting down to the questions you asked in your letter to me.

First, Is it a good thing to have sexual relations?

<sup>2</sup> Certainly--but only within a certain context. It's good for a man to have a wife, and for a woman to have a husband. Sexual drives are strong, but marriage is strong enough to contain them and provide for a balanced and fulfilling sexual life in a world of sexual disorder.

<sup>3</sup> The marriage bed must be a place of mutuality--the husband seeking to satisfy his wife, the wife seeking to satisfy her husband.

<sup>4</sup> Marriage is not a place to "stand up for your rights." Marriage is a decision to serve the other, whether in bed or out.

<sup>5</sup> Abstaining from sex is permissible for a period of time if you both agree to it, and if it's for the purposes of prayer and fasting--but only for such times. Then come back together again. Satan has an ingenious way of tempting us when we least expect it.

<sup>6</sup> I'm not, understand, commanding these periods of abstinence--only providing my best counsel if you should choose them.

<sup>7</sup> Sometimes I wish everyone were single like me--a simpler life in many ways! But celibacy is not for everyone any more than marriage is. God gives the gift of the single life to some, the gift of the married life to others.

<sup>8</sup> I do, though, tell the unmarried and widows that singleness might well be the best thing for them, as it has been for me.

<sup>10</sup> And if you are married, stay married. This is the Master's command, not mine.

<sup>12</sup> For the rest of you who are in mixed marriages--Christian married to non-Christian--we have no explicit command from the Master. So this is what you must do. If you are a man with a wife who is not a believer but who still wants to live with you, hold on to her.

<sup>13</sup> If you are a woman with a husband who is not a believer but he wants to live with you, hold on to him.

<sup>14</sup> The unbelieving husband shares to an extent in the holiness of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is likewise touched by the holiness of her husband. Otherwise, your children would be left out; as it is, they also are included in the spiritual purposes of God.

<sup>15</sup> On the other hand, if the unbelieving spouse walks out, you've got to let him or her go. You don't have to hold on desperately. God has called us to make the best of it, as peacefully as we can.

<sup>16</sup> You never know, wife: The way you handle this might bring your husband not only back to you but to God. You never know, husband: The way you handle this might bring your wife not only back to you but to God.

<sup>17</sup> And don't be wishing you were someplace else or with someone else. Where you are right now is God's place for you. Live and obey and love and believe right there. God, not your marital status, defines your life. Don't think I'm being harder on you than on the others. I give this same counsel in all the churches.

<sup>18</sup> Were you Jewish at the time God called you? Don't try to remove the evidence. Were you non-Jewish at the time of your call? Don't become a Jew.

<sup>20</sup> Stay where you were when God called your name.

<sup>21</sup> Were you a slave? Slavery is no roadblock to obeying and believing. I don't mean you're stuck and can't leave. If you have a chance at freedom, go ahead and take it.

<sup>22</sup> I'm simply trying to point out that under your new Master you're going to experience a marvelous freedom you would never have dreamed of. On the other hand, if you were free when Christ called you, you'll experience a delightful "enslavement to God" you would never have dreamed of.

<sup>23</sup> All of you, slave and free both, were once held hostage in a sinful society. Then a huge sum was paid out for your ransom. So please don't, out of old habit, slip back into being or doing what everyone else tells you.

<sup>24</sup> Friends, stay where you were called to be. God is there. Hold the high ground with him at your side.

<sup>25</sup> The Master did not give explicit direction regarding virgins, but as one much experienced in the mercy of the Master and loyal to him all the way, you can trust my counsel.

<sup>26</sup> Because of the current pressures on us from all sides, I think it would probably be best to stay just as you are.

<sup>27</sup> Are you married? Stay married. Are you unmarried? Don't get married.

<sup>28</sup> But there's certainly no sin in getting married, whether you're a virgin or not. All I am saying is that when you marry, you take on additional stress in an already stressful time, and I want to spare you if possible.

<sup>29</sup> I do want to point out, friends, that time is of the essence. There is no time to waste, so don't complicate your lives unnecessarily. Keep it simple--in marriage,

<sup>31</sup> Deal as sparingly as possible with the things the world thrusts on you. This world as you see it is on its way out.

<sup>32</sup> I want you to live as free of complications as possible. When you're unmarried, you're free to concentrate on simply pleasing the Master.

<sup>33</sup> Marriage involves you in all the nuts and bolts of domestic life and in wanting to please your spouse, <sup>34</sup> leading to so many more demands on your attention. The time and energy that married people spend on caring for and nurturing each other, the unmarried can spend in becoming whole and holy instruments of God.

<sup>35</sup> I'm trying to be helpful and make it as easy as possible for you, not make things harder. All I want is for you to be able to develop a way of life in which you can spend plenty of time together with the Master without a lot of distractions.

<sup>36</sup> If a man has a woman friend to whom he is loyal but never intended to marry, having decided to serve God as a "single," and then changes his mind, deciding he should marry her, he should go ahead and marry. It's no sin; it's not even a "step down" from celibacy, as some say.

<sup>37</sup> On the other hand, if a man is comfortable in his decision for a single life in service to God and it's entirely his own conviction and not imposed on him by others, he ought to stick with it.

<sup>38</sup> Marriage is spiritually and morally right and not inferior to singleness in any way, although as I indicated earlier, because of the times we live in, I do have pastoral reasons for encouraging singleness.

<sup>39</sup> A wife must stay with her husband as long as he lives. If he dies, she is free to marry anyone she chooses. She will, of course, want to marry a believer and have the blessing of the Master.

<sup>40</sup> By now you know that I think she'll be better off staying single. The Master, in my opinion, thinks so, too.

8 <sup>1</sup> The question keeps coming up regarding meat that has been offered up to an idol: Should you attend meals where such meat is served, or not? We sometimes tend to think we know all we need to know to answer these kinds of questions-- <sup>2</sup> [but] sometimes our humble hearts can help us more than our proud minds.

<sup>3</sup> We never really know enough until we recognize that God alone knows it all.

<sup>4</sup> Some people say, quite rightly, that idols have no actual existence, that there's nothing to them, that there is no God other than our one God,

<sup>5</sup> that no matter how many of these so-called gods are named and worshiped they still don't add up to anything but a tall story.

<sup>6</sup> They say--again, quite rightly--that there is only one God the Father, that everything comes from him, and that he wants us to live for him. Also, they say that there is only one Master--Jesus the Messiah--and that everything is for his sake, including us. Yes. It's true.

<sup>7</sup> In strict logic, then, nothing happened to the meat when it was offered up to an idol. It's just like any other meat. I know that, and you know that. But knowing isn't everything. If it becomes everything, some people end up as know-it-alls who treat others as know-nothings. Real knowledge isn't that insensitive. We need to be sensitive to the fact that we're not all at the same level of understanding in this. Some of you have spent your entire lives eating "idol meat," and are sure that there's something bad in the meat that then becomes something bad inside of you. An imagination and conscience shaped under those conditions isn't going to change overnight.

<sup>8</sup> But fortunately God doesn't grade us on our diet. We're neither commended when we clean our plate nor reprimanded when we just can't stomach it.

<sup>9</sup> But God [does] care when you use your freedom carelessly in a way that leads a Christian still vulnerable to those old associations to be thrown off track.

<sup>10</sup> For instance, say you flaunt your freedom by going to a banquet thrown in honor of idols, where the main course is meat sacrificed to idols. Isn't there great danger if someone still struggling over this issue, someone who looks up to you as knowledgeable and mature, sees you go into that banquet? The danger is that he will become terribly confused--maybe even to the point of getting mixed up himself in what his conscience tells him is wrong.

<sup>11</sup> Christ gave up his life for that person. Wouldn't you at least be willing to give up going to dinner for him--because, as you say, it doesn't really make any difference? But it [does] make a difference if you hurt your friend terribly, risking his eternal ruin!

<sup>12</sup> When you hurt your friend, you hurt Christ. A free meal here and there isn't worth it at the cost of even one of these "weak ones."

<sup>13</sup> So, never go to these idol-tainted meals if there's any chance it will trip up one of your brothers or sisters.

9<sup>1</sup> And don't tell me that I have no authority to write like this. I'm perfectly free to do this--isn't that obvious? Haven't I been given a job to do? Wasn't I commissioned to this work in a face-to-face meeting with Jesus, our Master? Aren't you yourselves proof of the good work that I've done for the Master?

<sup>2</sup> Even if no one else admits the authority of my commission, you can't deny it. Why, my work with you is living proof of my authority!

<sup>3</sup> I'm not shy in standing up to my critics.

<sup>4</sup> We who are on missionary assignments for God have a right to decent accommodations, <sup>5</sup> and we have a right to support for us and our families. You don't seem to have raised questions with the other apostles and our Master's brothers and Peter in these matters.

<sup>6</sup> So, why me? Is it just Barnabas and I who have to go it alone and pay our own way?

<sup>8</sup> I'm not just sounding off because I'm irritated. This is all written in the scriptural law.

<sup>9</sup> Moses wrote, "Don't muzzle an ox to keep it from eating the grain when it's threshing." Do you think Moses' primary concern was the care of farm animals?

<sup>10</sup> Don't you think his concern extends to us? Of course. Farmers plow and thresh expecting something when the crop comes in.

<sup>11</sup> So if we have planted spiritual seed among you, is it out of line to expect a meal or two from you?

<sup>12</sup> Others demand plenty from you in these ways. Don't we who have never demanded deserve even more? But we're not going to start demanding now what we've always had a perfect right to. Our decision all along has been to put up with anything rather than to get in the way or detract from the Message of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> All I'm concerned with right now is that you not use our decision to take advantage of others, depriving them of what is rightly theirs. You know, don't you, that it's always been taken for granted that those who work in the Temple live off the proceeds of the Temple, and that those who offer sacrifices at the altar eat their meals from what has been sacrificed?

<sup>14</sup> Along the same lines, the Master directed that those who spread the Message be supported by those who believe the Message.

<sup>15</sup> Still, I want it made clear that I've never gotten anything out of this for myself, and that I'm not writing now to get something. I'd rather die than give anyone ammunition to discredit me or impugn my motives.

<sup>16</sup> If I proclaim the Message, it's not to get something out of it for myself. I'm [compelled] to do it, and doomed if I don't!

<sup>17</sup> If this was my own idea of just another way to make a living, I'd expect some pay. But since it's [not] my idea but something solemnly entrusted to me, why would I expect to get paid?

<sup>18</sup> So am I getting anything out of it? Yes, as a matter of fact: the pleasure of proclaiming the Message at no cost to you. You don't even have to pay my expenses!

<sup>19</sup> Even though I am free of the demands and expectations of everyone, I have voluntarily become a servant to any and all in order to reach a wide range of people:

<sup>22</sup> the defeated, the demoralized-- whoever. I didn't take on their way of life. I kept my bearings in Christ--but I entered their world and tried to experience things from their point of view. I've become just about every sort of servant there is in my attempts to lead those I meet into a God-saved life.

<sup>23</sup> I did all this because of the Message. I didn't just want to talk about it; I wanted to be [in] on it!

<sup>24</sup> You've all been to the stadium and seen the athletes race. Everyone runs; one wins. Run to win.

<sup>25</sup> All good athletes train hard. They do it for a gold medal that tarnishes and fades. You're after one that's gold eternally.

<sup>26</sup> I don't know about you, but I'm running hard for the finish line. I'm giving it everything I've got. No sloppy living for me!

<sup>27</sup> I'm staying alert and in top condition. I'm not going to get caught napping, telling everyone else all about it and then missing out myself.

10 <sup>1</sup> Remember our history, friends, and be warned. All our ancestors were led by the providential Cloud and taken miraculously through the Sea.

<sup>2</sup> They went through the waters, in a baptism like ours, as Moses led them from enslaving death to salvation life.

<sup>4</sup> and drank identical food and drink, meals provided daily by God. They drank from the Rock, God's fountain for them that stayed with them wherever they were. And the Rock was Christ.

<sup>5</sup> But just experiencing God's wonder and grace didn't seem to mean much--most of them were defeated by temptation during the hard times in the desert, and God was not pleased.

<sup>6</sup> The same thing could happen to us. We must be on guard so that we never get caught up in wanting our own way as they did.

<sup>7</sup> And we must not turn our religion into a circus as they did--"First the people partied, then they threw a dance."

<sup>8</sup> We must not be sexually promiscuous--they paid for that, remember, with twenty-three thousand deaths in one day!

<sup>9</sup> We must never try to get Christ to serve us instead of us serving him; they tried it, and God launched an epidemic of poisonous snakes.

<sup>10</sup> We must be careful not to stir up discontent; discontent destroyed them.

<sup>11</sup> These are all warning markers-- DANGER!--in our history books, written down so that we don't repeat their mistakes. Our positions in the story are parallel--they at the beginning, we at the end--and we are just as capable of messing it up as they were.

<sup>12</sup> Don't be so naive and self-confident. You're not exempt. You could fall flat on your face as easily as anyone else. Forget about self-confidence; it's useless. Cultivate God-confidence.

<sup>13</sup> No test or temptation that comes your way is beyond the course of what others have had to face. All you need to remember is that God will never let you down; he'll never let you be pushed past your limit; he'll always be there to help you come through it.

<sup>14</sup> So, my very dear friends, when you see people reducing God to something they can use or control, get out of their company as fast as you can.

<sup>15</sup> I assume I'm addressing believers now who are mature. Draw your own conclusions:

<sup>16</sup> When we drink the cup of blessing, aren't we taking into ourselves the blood, the very life, of Christ? And isn't it the same with the loaf of bread we break and eat? Don't we take into ourselves the body, the very life, of Christ?

<sup>17</sup> Because there is one loaf, our many-ness becomes one-ness--Christ doesn't become fragmented in us. Rather, we become unified in him. We don't reduce Christ to what we are; he raises us to what he is.

<sup>18</sup> That's basically what happened even in old Israel--those who ate the sacrifices offered on God's altar entered into God's action at the altar.

<sup>19</sup> Do you see the difference? Sacrifices offered to idols are offered to nothing, for what's the idol but a nothing?

<sup>20</sup> Or worse than nothing, a minus, a demon! I don't want you to become part of something that reduces you to less than yourself.

<sup>21</sup> And you can't have it both ways, banqueting with the Master one day and slumming with demons the next.

<sup>22</sup> Besides, the Master won't put up with it. He wants us--all or nothing. Do you think you can get off with anything less?

<sup>23</sup> Looking at it one way, you could say, "Anything goes. Because of God's immense generosity and grace, we don't have to dissect and scrutinize every action to see if it will pass muster." But the point is not to just get by.

<sup>24</sup> We want to live well, but our foremost efforts should be to help others live well.

<sup>25</sup> With that as a base to work from, common sense can take you the rest of the way. Eat anything sold at the butcher shop, for instance; you don't have to run an "idolatry test" on every item.

<sup>26</sup> "The earth," after all, "is God's, and everything in it." That "everything" certainly includes the leg of lamb in the butcher shop.

<sup>27</sup> If a nonbeliever invites you to dinner and you feel like going, go ahead and enjoy yourself; eat everything placed before you. It would be both bad manners and bad spirituality to cross-examine your host on the ethical purity of each course as it is served.

<sup>28</sup> On the other hand, if he goes out of his way to tell you that this or that was sacrificed to god or goddess so-and-so, you should pass. Even though you may be indifferent as to where it came from, he isn't, and you don't want to send mixed messages to him about who [you] are worshipping.

<sup>29</sup> But, except for these special cases, I'm not going to walk around on eggshells worrying about what small-minded people might say; I'm going to stride free and easy, knowing what our large-minded Master has already said.

<sup>30</sup> If I eat what is served to me, grateful to God for what is on the table, how can I worry about what someone will say? I thanked God for it and he blessed it!

<sup>31</sup> So eat your meals heartily, not worrying about what others say about you--you're eating to God's glory, after all, not to please them. As a matter of fact, do everything that way, heartily and freely to God's glory.

<sup>32</sup> At the same time, don't be callous in your exercise of freedom, thoughtlessly stepping on the toes of those who aren't as free as you are.

<sup>33</sup> I try my best to be considerate of everyone's feelings in all these matters; I hope you will be, too.

11 <sup>1</sup> It pleases me that you continue to remember and honor me by keeping up the traditions of the faith I taught you. All actual authority stems from Christ.

<sup>3</sup> In a marriage relationship, there is authority from Christ to husband, and from husband to wife. The authority of Christ is the authority of God.

<sup>4</sup> Any man who speaks with God or about God in a way that shows a lack of respect for the authority of Christ, dishonors Christ.

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, a wife who speaks with God in a way that shows a lack of respect for the authority of her husband, dishonors her husband.

<sup>7</sup> men and women, who far too often butt heads with each other, submit their "heads" to the Head: God.

<sup>10</sup> Don't, by the way, read too much into the differences here between men and women.

<sup>11</sup> Neither man nor woman can go it alone or claim priority. Man was created first, as a beautiful shining reflection of God--that is true. But the head on a woman's body clearly outshines in beauty the head of her "head," her husband.

<sup>12</sup> The first woman came from man, true--but ever since then, every man comes from a woman! And since virtually everything comes from God anyway, let's quit going through these "who's first" routines.

<sup>13</sup> Don't you agree there is something naturally powerful in the symbolism--a woman, her beautiful hair reminiscent of angels, praying in adoration; a man, his head bared in reverence, praying in submission?

<sup>16</sup> I hope you're not going to be argumentative about this. All God's churches see it this way; I don't want you standing out as an exception.

<sup>17</sup> Regarding this next item, I'm not at all pleased. I am getting the picture that when you meet together it brings out your worst side instead of your best!

<sup>18</sup> First, I get this report on your divisiveness, competing with and criticizing each other. I'm reluctant to believe it, but there it is.

<sup>19</sup> The best that can be said for it is that the testing process will bring truth into the open and confirm it.

<sup>20</sup> And then I find that you bring your divisions to worship--you come together, and instead of eating the Lord's Supper, <sup>21</sup> you bring in a lot of food from the outside and make pigs of yourselves. Some are left out, and go home hungry. Others have to be carried out, too drunk to walk. I can't believe it!

<sup>22</sup> Don't you have your own homes to eat and drink in? Why would you stoop to desecrating God's church? Why would you actually shame God's poor? I never would have believed you would stoop to this. And I'm not going to stand by and say nothing.

<sup>23</sup> Let me go over with you again exactly what goes on in the Lord's Supper and why it is so centrally important. I received my instructions from the Master himself and passed them on to you. The Master, Jesus, on the night of his betrayal, took bread.

<sup>24</sup> Having given thanks, he broke it and said, This is my body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.

<sup>25</sup> After supper, he did the same thing with the cup: This cup is my blood, my new covenant with you. Each time you drink this cup, remember me.

<sup>26</sup> What you must solemnly realize is that every time you eat this bread and every time you drink this cup, you reenact in your words and actions the death of the Master. You will be drawn back to this meal again and again until the Master returns. You must never let familiarity breed contempt.

<sup>27</sup> Anyone who eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Master irreverently is like part of the crowd that jeered and spit on him at his death. Is that the kind of "remembrance" you want to be part of?

<sup>28</sup> Examine your motives, test your heart, come to this meal in holy awe.

<sup>29</sup> If you give no thought (or worse, don't care) about the broken body of the Master when you eat and drink, you're running the risk of serious consequences.

<sup>30</sup> That's why so many of you even now are listless and sick, and others have gone to an early grave.

<sup>31</sup> If we get this straight now, we won't have to be straightened out later on.

<sup>32</sup> Better to be confronted by the Master now than to face a fiery confrontation later.

<sup>33</sup> So, my friends, when you come together to the Lord's Table, be reverent and courteous with one another.

<sup>34</sup> If you're so hungry that you can't wait to be served, go home and get a sandwich. But by no means risk turning this Meal into an eating and drinking binge or a family squabble. It is a spiritual meal--a love feast. The other things you asked about, I'll respond to in person when I make my next visit.

12 <sup>1</sup> What I want to talk about now is the various ways God's Spirit gets worked into our lives. This is complex and often misunderstood, but I want you to be informed and knowledgeable.

<sup>2</sup> Remember how you were when you didn't know God, led from one phony god to another, never knowing what you were doing, just doing it because everybody else did it? It's different in this life. God wants us to use our intelligence, to seek to understand as well as we can.

<sup>3</sup> For instance, by using <sup>3</sup> your heads, you know perfectly well that the Spirit of God would never prompt anyone to say "Jesus be damned!" Nor would anyone be inclined to say "Jesus is Master!" without the insight of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> God's various gifts are handed out everywhere; but they all originate in God's Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> God's various ministries are carried out everywhere; but they all originate in God's Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> God's various expressions of power are in action everywhere; but God himself is behind it all.

<sup>7</sup> Each person is given something to do that shows who God is: Everyone gets in on it, everyone benefits. All kinds of things are handed out by the Spirit, and to all kinds of people!

<sup>8</sup> The variety is wonderful: wise counsel clear understanding

<sup>9</sup> simple trust healing the sick

<sup>10</sup> miraculous acts proclamation distinguishing between spirits tongues interpretation of tongues.

<sup>11</sup> All these gifts have a common origin, but are handed out one by one by the one Spirit of God. He decides who gets what, and when.

<sup>12</sup> You can easily enough see how this kind of thing works by looking no further than your own body. Your body has many parts--limbs, organs, cells--but no matter how many parts you can name, you're still one body. It's exactly the same with Christ.

<sup>13</sup> By means of his one Spirit, we all said good-bye to our partial and piecemeal lives. We each used to independently call our own shots, but then we entered into a large and integrated life in which [he] has the final say in everything. (This is what we proclaimed in word and action when we were baptized.) Each of us is now a part of his resurrection body, refreshed and sustained at one fountain--his Spirit--where we all come to drink. The old labels we once used to identify ourselves--labels like Jew or Greek, slave or free--are no longer useful. We need something larger, more comprehensive.

<sup>14</sup> I want you to think about how all this makes you more significant, not less. A body isn't just a single part blown up into something huge. It's all the different-but-similar parts arranged and functioning together.

<sup>15</sup> If Foot said, "I'm not elegant like Hand, embellished with rings; I guess I don't belong to this body," would that make it so?

<sup>16</sup> If Ear said, "I'm not beautiful like Eye, limpid and expressive; I don't deserve a place on the head," would you want to remove it from the body?

<sup>17</sup> If the body was all eye, how could it hear? If all ear, how could it smell?

<sup>18</sup> As it is, we see that God has carefully placed each part of the body right where he wanted it.

<sup>19</sup> But I also want you to think about how this keeps your significance from getting blown up into self-importance. For no matter how significant you are, it is only because of what you are a [part] of. An enormous eye or a gigantic hand wouldn't be a body, but a monster.

<sup>20</sup> What we have is one body with many parts, each its proper size and in its proper place. No part is important on its own.

<sup>22</sup> As a matter of fact, in practice it works the other way--the "lower" the part, the more basic, and therefore necessary. You can live without an eye, for instance, but not without a stomach.

<sup>23</sup> When it's a part of your own body you are concerned with, it makes [no] difference whether the part is visible or clothed, higher or lower. You give it dignity and honor just as it is, without comparisons.

<sup>24</sup> If anything, you have more concern for the lower parts than the higher. If you had to choose, wouldn't you prefer good digestion to full-bodied hair?

<sup>25</sup> The way God designed our bodies is a model for understanding our lives together as a church: every part dependent on every other part, the parts we mention and the parts we don't,

<sup>26</sup> the parts we see and the parts we don't. If one part hurts, every other part is involved in the hurt, and in the healing. If one part flourishes, every other part enters into the exuberance.

<sup>27</sup> You are Christ's body--that's who you are! You must never forget this. Only as you accept your part of that body does your "part" mean anything.

<sup>28</sup> You're familiar with some of the parts that God has formed in his church, which is his "body": apostles prophets teachers miracle workers healers helpers organizers those who pray in tongues.

<sup>29</sup> But it's obvious by now, isn't it, that Christ's church is a complete Body and not a gigantic, unidimensional Part? It's not all Apostle, not all Prophet, not all Miracle Worker, <sup>30</sup> not all Healer, not all Prayer in Tongues, not all Interpreter of Tongues.

<sup>31</sup> And yet some of you keep competing for so-called "important" parts. But now I want to lay out a far better way for you.

13 <sup>1</sup> If I speak with human eloquence and angelic ecstasy but don't love, I'm nothing but the creaking of a rusty gate.

<sup>2</sup> If I speak God's Word with power, revealing all his mysteries and making everything plain as day, and if I have faith that says to a mountain, "Jump," and it jumps, but I don't love, I'm nothing.

<sup>3</sup> If I give everything I own to the poor and even go to the stake to be burned as a martyr, but I don't love, I've gotten nowhere. So, no matter what I say, what I believe, and what I do, I'm bankrupt without love.

<sup>4</sup> Love never gives up. Love cares more for others than for self. Love doesn't want what it doesn't have. Love doesn't strut, Doesn't have a swelled head,

<sup>5</sup> Doesn't force itself on others, Isn't always "me first," Doesn't fly off the handle, Doesn't keep score of the sins of others,

<sup>6</sup> Doesn't revel when others grovel,
Takes pleasure in the flowering of truth,

<sup>7</sup> Puts up with anything, Trusts God always, Always looks for the best, Never looks back, But keeps going to the end.

<sup>8</sup> Love never dies. Inspired speech will be over some day; praying in tongues will end; understanding will reach its limit.

<sup>9</sup> We know only a portion of the truth, and what we say about God is always incomplete.

<sup>10</sup> But when the Complete arrives, our incompletes will be canceled.

<sup>11</sup> When I was an infant at my mother's breast, I gurgled and cooed like any infant. When I grew up, I left those infant ways for good.

<sup>12</sup> We don't yet see things clearly. We're squinting in a fog, peering through a mist. But it won't be long before the weather clears and the sun shines bright! We'll see it all then, see it all as clearly as God sees us, knowing him directly just as he knows us!

<sup>13</sup> But for right now, until that completeness, we have three things to do to lead us toward that consummation: Trust steadily in God, hope unswervingly, love extravagantly. And the best of the three is love.

14 <sup>1</sup> Go after a life of love as if your life depended on it--because it does. Give yourselves to the gifts God gives you. Most of all, try to proclaim his truth.

<sup>2</sup> If you praise him in the private language of tongues, God understands you but no one else does, for you are sharing intimacies just between you and him.

<sup>3</sup> But when you proclaim his truth in everyday speech, you're letting [others] in on the truth so that they can grow and be strong and experience his presence with you.

<sup>4</sup> The one who prays using a private "prayer language" certainly gets a lot out of it, but proclaiming God's truth to the church in its common language brings the whole church into growth and strength.

<sup>5</sup> I want all of you to develop intimacies with God in prayer, but please don't stop with that. Go on and proclaim his clear truth to others. It's more important that everyone have access to the knowledge and love of God in language everyone understands than that you go off and cultivate God's presence in a mysterious prayer language--unless, of course, there is someone who can interpret what you are saying for the benefit of all.

<sup>6</sup> Think, friends: If I come to you and all I do is pray privately to God in a way only he can understand, what are you going to get out of that? If I don't address you plainly with some insight or truth or proclamation or teaching, what help am I to you?

<sup>7</sup> If musical instruments--flutes, say, or harps--aren't played so that each note is distinct and in tune, how will anyone be able to catch the melody and enjoy the music?

<sup>8</sup> If the trumpet call can't be distinguished, will anyone show up for the battle?

<sup>9</sup> So if you speak in a way no one can understand, what's the point of opening your mouth?

<sup>10</sup> There are many languages in the world and they all mean something to someone.

<sup>11</sup> But if [I] don't understand the language, it's not going to do me much good.

<sup>12</sup> It's no different with you. Since you're so eager to participate in what God is doing, why don't you concentrate on doing what helps everyone in the church?

<sup>13</sup> So, when you pray in your private prayer language, don't hoard the experience for yourself. Pray for the insight and ability to bring others into that intimacy.

<sup>14</sup> If I pray in tongues, my spirit prays but my mind lies fallow, and all that intelligence is wasted.

<sup>15</sup> So what's the solution? The answer is simple enough. Do both. I should be spiritually free and expressive as I pray, but I should also be thoughtful and mindful as I pray. I should sing with my spirit, and sing with my mind.

<sup>16</sup> If you give a blessing using your private prayer language, which no one else understands, how can some outsider who has just shown up and has no idea what's going on know when to say "Amen"?

<sup>17</sup> Your blessing might be beautiful, but you have very effectively cut that person out of it.

<sup>18</sup> I'm grateful to God for the gift of praying in tongues that he gives us for praising him, which leads to wonderful intimacies we enjoy with him. I enter into this as much or more than any of you.

<sup>19</sup> But when I'm in a church assembled for worship, I'd rather say five words that everyone can understand and learn from than say ten thousand that sound to others like gibberish.

How long before you grow up and use your head--your [adult] head? It's all right to have a childlike unfamiliarity with evil; a simple [no] is all that's needed there. But there's far more to saying [yes] to something. Only mature and well-exercised intelligence can save you from falling into gullibility.

<sup>21</sup> It's written in Scripture that God said, In strange tongues and from the mouths of strangers I will preach to this people, but they'll neither listen nor believe.

<sup>22</sup> So where does it get you, all this speaking in tongues no one understands? It doesn't help believers, and it only gives unbelievers something to gawk at. Plain truth-speaking, on the other hand, goes straight to the heart of believers and doesn't get in the way of unbelievers.

<sup>23</sup> If you come together as a congregation and some unbelieving outsiders walk in on you as you're all praying in tongues, unintelligible to each other and to them, won't they assume you've taken leave of your senses and get out of there as fast as they can?

<sup>24</sup> But if some unbelieving outsiders walk in on a service where people are speaking out God's truth, the plain words will bring them up against the truth

<sup>25</sup> and probe their hearts. Before you know it, they're going to be on their faces before God, recognizing that God is among you.

<sup>26</sup> So here's what I want you to do. When you gather for worship, each one of you be prepared with something that will be useful for all: Sing a hymn, teach a lesson, tell a story, lead a prayer, provide an insight.

<sup>27</sup> If prayers are offered in tongues, two or three's the limit, and then only if someone is present who can interpret what you're saying.

<sup>29</sup> And no more than two or three speakers at a meeting, with the rest of you listening and taking it to heart.

<sup>31</sup> Then each speaker gets a chance to say something special from God, and you all learn from each other.

<sup>32</sup> If you choose to speak, you're also responsible for how and when you speak.

<sup>33</sup> When we worship the right way, God doesn't stir us up into confusion; he brings us into harmony. This goes for all the churches--no exceptions.

<sup>34</sup> Wives must not disrupt worship, talking when they should be listening, <sup>35</sup> asking questions that could more appropriately be asked of their husbands at home. God's Book of the law guides our manners and customs here. Wives have no license to use the time of worship for unwarranted speaking.

<sup>36</sup> Do you--both women [and] men--imagine that you're a sacred oracle determining what's right and wrong? Do you think everything revolves around you?

<sup>37</sup> If any one of you thinks God has something for you to say or has inspired you to do something, pay close attention to what I have written. This is the way the Master wants it.

<sup>38</sup> If you won't play by these rules, God can't use you. Sorry.

<sup>39</sup> Three things, then, to sum this up: When you speak forth God's truth, speak your heart out. Don't tell people how they should or shouldn't pray when they're praying in tongues that you don't understand.

15 <sup>1</sup> Friends, let me go over the Message with you one final time--this Message that I proclaimed and that you made your own; this Message on which you took your stand <sup>2</sup> and by which your life has been saved. (I'm assuming, now, that your belief was the real thing and not a passing fancy, that you're in this for good and holding fast.)

<sup>3</sup> The first thing I did was place before you what was placed so emphatically before me: that the Messiah died for our sins, exactly as Scripture tells it;

<sup>4</sup> that he was buried; that he was raised from death on the third day, again exactly as Scripture says;

<sup>5</sup> that he presented himself alive to Peter, then to his closest followers, <sup>6</sup> and later to more than five hundred of his followers all at the same time, most of them still around (although a few have since died);

<sup>7</sup> that he then spent time with James and the rest of those he commissioned to represent him;

<sup>8</sup> and that he finally presented himself alive to [me].

<sup>9</sup> It was fitting that I bring up the rear. I don't deserve to be included in that inner circle, as you well know, having spent all those early years trying my best to stamp God's church right out of existence.

<sup>10</sup> But because God was so gracious, so very generous, here I am. And I'm not about to let his grace go to waste. Haven't I worked hard trying to do more than any of the others? Even then, my work didn't amount to all that much. It was God giving me the work to do, God giving me the energy to do it.

<sup>11</sup> So whether you heard it from me or from those others, it's all the same: We spoke God's truth and you entrusted your lives.

<sup>12</sup> Now, let me ask you something profound yet troubling. If you became believers because you trusted the proclamation that Christ is alive, risen from the dead, how can you let people say that there is no such thing as a resurrection?

<sup>14</sup> And face it--if there's no resurrection for Christ, everything we've told you is smoke and mirrors, and everything you've staked your life on is smoke and mirrors.

<sup>15</sup> Not only that, but we would be guilty of telling a string of barefaced lies about God, all these affidavits we passed on to you verifying that God raised up Christ--sheer fabrications, if there's no resurrection.

<sup>16</sup> If corpses can't be raised, then Christ wasn't, because he was indeed dead.

<sup>17</sup> And if Christ wasn't raised, then all you're doing is wandering about in the dark, as lost as ever.

<sup>18</sup> It's even worse for those who died hoping in Christ and resurrection, because they're already in their graves.

<sup>19</sup> If all we get out of Christ is a little inspiration for a few short years, we're a pretty sorry lot.

<sup>20</sup> But the truth is that Christ [has] been raised up, the first in a long legacy of those who are going to leave the cemeteries.

<sup>21</sup> There is a nice symmetry in this: Death initially came by a man, and resurrection from death came by a man.

<sup>23</sup> But we have to wait our turn: Christ is first, then those with him at his Coming, <sup>24</sup> the grand consummation when, after crushing the opposition, he hands over his kingdom to God the Father.

<sup>25</sup> He won't let up until the last enemy is down--

<sup>26</sup> and the very last enemy is death!

<sup>27</sup> As the psalmist said, "He laid them low, one and all; he walked all over them." When Scripture says that "he walked all over them," it's obvious that he couldn't at the same time be walked on.

<sup>28</sup> When everything and everyone is finally under God's rule, the Son will step down, taking his place with everyone else, showing that God's rule is absolutely comprehensive--a perfect ending!

<sup>29</sup> Why do you think people offer themselves to be baptized for those already in the grave? If there's no chance of resurrection for a corpse, if God's power stops at the cemetery gates, why do we keep doing things that suggest he's going to clean the place out someday, pulling everyone up on their feet alive?

<sup>30</sup> And why do you think I keep risking my neck in this dangerous work?

<sup>31</sup> I look death in the face practically every day I live. Do you think I'd do this if I wasn't convinced of your resurrection and mine as guaranteed by the resurrected Messiah Jesus?

<sup>32</sup> Do you think I was just trying to act heroic when I fought the wild beasts at Ephesus, hoping it wouldn't be the end of me? Not on your life! It's resurrection, resurrection, always resurrection, that undergirds what I do and say, the way I live. If there's no resurrection, "We eat, we drink, the next day we die," and that's all there is to it.

<sup>33</sup> But don't fool yourselves. Don't let yourselves be poisoned by this anti-resurrection loose talk. "Bad company ruins good manners."

<sup>34</sup> Think straight. Awaken to the holiness of life. No more playing fast and loose with resurrection facts. Ignorance of God is a luxury you can't afford in times like these. Aren't you embarrassed that you've let this kind of thing go on as long as you have?

<sup>35</sup> Some skeptic is sure to ask, "Show me how resurrection works. Give me a diagram; draw me a picture. What does this 'resurrection body' look like?"

<sup>36</sup> If you look at this question closely, you realize how absurd it is. There are no diagrams for this kind of thing.

<sup>37</sup> We do have a parallel experience in gardening. You plant a "dead" seed; soon there is a flourishing plant. There is no visual likeness between seed and plant.

<sup>38</sup> You could never guess what a tomato would look like by looking at a tomato seed. What we plant in the soil and what grows out of it don't look anything alike. The dead body that we bury in the ground and the resurrection body that comes from it will be dramatically different.

<sup>39</sup> You will notice that the variety of bodies is stunning. Just as there are different kinds of seeds, there are different kinds of bodies--humans, animals, birds, fish--each unprecedented in its form.

<sup>40</sup> You get a hint at the diversity of resurrection glory by looking at the diversity of bodies not only on earth but in the skies--

<sup>41</sup> sun, moon, stars--all these varieties of beauty and brightness. And we're only looking at pre-resurrection "seeds"--who can imagine what the resurrection "plants" will be like!

<sup>42</sup> This image of planting a dead seed and raising a live plant is a mere sketch at best, but perhaps it will help in approaching the mystery of the resurrection body--but only if you keep in mind that when we're raised, we're raised for [good], alive forever!

body, but what a difference from when it goes down in physical mortality to when it is raised up in spiritual immortality!

<sup>45</sup> We follow this sequence in Scripture: The First Adam received life, the Last Adam is a life-giving Spirit.

<sup>48</sup> The First Man was made out of earth, and people since then are earthy; the Second Man was made out of heaven, and people now can be heavenly.

<sup>49</sup> In the same way that we've worked from our earthy origins, let's embrace our heavenly ends.

<sup>50</sup> I need to emphasize, friends, that our natural, earthy lives don't in themselves lead us by their very nature into the kingdom of God. Their very "nature" is to die, so how could they "naturally" end up in the Life kingdom?

<sup>51</sup> But let me tell you something wonderful, a mystery I'll probably never fully understand. We're not all going to die--but we are all going to be changed.

<sup>52</sup> You hear a blast to end all blasts from a trumpet, and in the time that you look up and blink your eyes--it's over. On signal from that trumpet from heaven, the dead will be up and out of their graves, beyond the reach of death, never to die again. At the same moment and in the same way, we'll all be changed.

<sup>54</sup> Then the saying will come true: Death swallowed by triumphant Life!

<sup>55</sup> Who got the last word, oh, Death?
Oh, Death, who's afraid of you now?

<sup>56</sup> It was sin that made death so frightening and law-code guilt that gave sin its leverage, its destructive power.

<sup>57</sup> But now in a single victorious stroke of Life, all three--sin, guilt, death--are gone, the gift of our Master, Jesus Christ.
Thank God!

<sup>58</sup> With all this going for us, my dear, dear friends, stand your ground. And don't hold back. Throw yourselves into the work of the Master, confident that nothing you do for him is a waste of time or effort.

16 <sup>1</sup> Regarding the relief offering for poor Christians that is being collected, you get the same instructions
I gave the churches in Galatia.

<sup>2</sup> Every Sunday each of you make an offering and put it in safekeeping. Be as generous as you can. When I get there you'll have it ready, and I won't have to make a special appeal.

<sup>3</sup> Then after I arrive, I'll write letters authorizing whomever you delegate, and send them off to Jerusalem to deliver your gift.

<sup>4</sup> If you think it best that I go along, I'll be glad to travel with them.

<sup>5</sup> I plan to visit you after passing through northern Greece. I won't be staying long there, <sup>6</sup> but maybe I can stay awhile with you--maybe even spend the winter? Then you could give me a good send-off, wherever I may be headed next.

<sup>7</sup> I don't want to just drop by in between other "primary" destinations. I want a good, long, leisurely visit. If the Master agrees, we'll have it!

<sup>9</sup> A huge door of opportunity for good work has opened up here. (There is also mushrooming opposition.)

<sup>10</sup> If Timothy shows up, take good care of him. Make him feel completely at home among you. He works so hard for the Master, just as I do.

<sup>11</sup> Don't let anyone disparage him. After a while, send him on to me with your blessing. Tell him I'm expecting him, and any friends he has with him.

<sup>12</sup> About our friend Apollos, I've done my best to get him to pay you a visit, but haven't talked him into it yet. He doesn't think this is the right time. But there will be a "right time."

<sup>13</sup> Keep your eyes open, hold tight to your convictions, give it all you've got, be resolute, of Stephanas? You know, they were among the first converts in Greece, and they've put themselves out, serving Christians ever since then. I want you to<sup>16</sup> honor and look up to people like that: companions and workers who show us how to do it, giving us something to aspire to.

<sup>17</sup> I want you to know how delighted I am to have Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus here with me. They partially make up for your absence!

<sup>18</sup> They've refreshed me by keeping me in touch with you. Be proud that you have people like this among you.

<sup>24</sup> And I love all of you in the Messiah, in Jesus.

2 Corinthians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, have been sent on a special mission by the Messiah, Jesus, planned by God himself. I write this to God's congregation in Corinth, and to believers all over Achaia province.

<sup>2</sup> May all the gifts and benefits that come from God our Father and the Master, Jesus Christ, be yours! Timothy, someone you know and trust, joins me in this greeting.

<sup>3</sup> All praise to the God and Father of our Master, Jesus the Messiah! Father of all mercy! God of all healing counsel!

<sup>4</sup> He comes alongside us when we go through hard times, and before you know it, he brings us alongside someone else who is going through hard times so that we can be there for that person just as God was there for us.

<sup>5</sup> We have plenty of hard times that come from following the Messiah, but no more so than the good times of his healing comfort--we get a full measure of that, too.

<sup>6</sup> When we suffer for Jesus, it works out for your healing and salvation. If we are treated well, given a helping hand and encouraging word, that also works to your benefit, spurring you on, face forward, unflinching. Your hard times are also our hard times.

<sup>7</sup> When we see that you're just as willing to endure the hard times as to enjoy the good times, we know you're going to make it, no doubt about it.

<sup>8</sup> We don't want you in the dark, friends, about how hard it was when all this came down on us in Asia province.

It was so bad we didn't think we were going to make it.

<sup>9</sup> We felt like we'd been sent to death row, that it was all over for us. As it turned out, it was the best thing that could have happened. Instead of trusting in our own strength or wits to get out of it, we were forced to trust God totally--not a bad idea since he's the God who raises the dead!

<sup>10</sup> And he did it, rescued us from certain doom. [And] he'll do it again, rescuing us as many times as we need rescuing.

<sup>11</sup> You and your prayers are part of the rescue operation--I don't want you in the dark about that either. I can see your faces even now, lifted in praise for God's deliverance of us, a rescue in which your prayers played such a crucial part.

<sup>12</sup> Now that the worst is over, we're pleased we can report that we've come out of this with conscience and faith intact, and can face the world--and even more importantly, face you with our heads held high. But it wasn't by any fancy footwork on our part. It was [God] who kept us focused on him, uncompromised.

<sup>13</sup> Don't try to read between the lines or look for hidden meanings in this letter. We're writing plain, unembellished truth, hoping that <sup>14</sup> you'll now see the whole picture as well as you've seen some of the details. We want you to be as proud of us as we are of you when we stand together before our Master Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Confident of your welcome, I had originally planned two great visits with you--

<sup>16</sup> coming by on my way to Macedonia province, and then again on my return trip. Then we could have had a bon-voyage party as you sent me off to Judea. That was the plan.

<sup>17</sup> Are you now going to accuse me of being flip with my promises because it didn't work out? Do you think I talk out of both sides of my mouth--a glib [yes] one moment, a glib [no] the next?

<sup>18</sup> Well, you're wrong. I try to be as true to my word as God is to his. Our word to you wasn't a careless yes canceled by an indifferent no. How could it be?

<sup>19</sup> When Silas and Timothy and I proclaimed the Son of God among you, did you pick up on any yes-and-no, on-again, off-again waffling? Wasn't it a clean, strong Yes?

<sup>20</sup> Whatever God has promised gets stamped with the Yes of Jesus. In him, this is what we preach and pray, the great Amen, God's Yes and our Yes together, gloriously evident.

<sup>21</sup> God affirms us, making us a sure thing in Christ, putting his Yes within us.

<sup>22</sup> By his Spirit he has stamped us with his eternal pledge--a sure beginning of what he is destined to complete.

<sup>23</sup> Now, are you ready for the real reason I didn't visit you in Corinth? As God is my witness, the only reason I didn't come was to spare you pain. I was being [considerate] of you, not indifferent, not manipulative.

<sup>24</sup> We're not in charge of how you live out the faith, looking over your shoulders, suspiciously critical. We're partners, working alongside you, joyfully expectant. I know that you stand by your own faith, not by ours.

2 <sup>1</sup> That's why I decided not to make another visit that could only be painful to both of us.

<sup>2</sup> If by merely showing up I would put you in an embarrassingly painful position, how would you then be free to cheer and refresh me?

<sup>3</sup> That was my reason for writing a letter instead of coming--so I wouldn't have to spend a miserable time disappointing the very friends I had looked forward to cheering me up. I was convinced at the time I wrote it that what was best for me was also best for you.

<sup>4</sup> As it turned out, there was pain enough just in writing that letter, more tears than ink on the parchment. But I didn't write it to cause pain; I wrote it so you would know how much I care--oh, more than care--[love] you!

<sup>5</sup> Now, regarding the one who started all this--the person in question who caused all this pain--I want you to know that I am not the one injured in this as much as, with a few exceptions, all of you. So I don't want to come down too hard.

<sup>7</sup> Now is the time to forgive this man and help him back on his feet. If all you do is pour on the guilt, you could very well drown him in it.

<sup>9</sup> The focus of my letter wasn't on punishing the offender but on getting you to take responsibility for the health of the church.

<sup>10</sup> So if you forgive him, I forgive him. Don't think I'm carrying around a list of personal grudges. The fact is that I'm joining in with [your] forgiveness, as Christ is with us, guiding us.

<sup>11</sup> After all, we don't want to unwittingly give Satan an opening for yet more mischief--we're not oblivious to his sly ways!

<sup>12</sup> When I arrived in Troas to proclaim the Message of the Messiah, I found the place wide open: God had opened the door; all I had to do was walk through it.

<sup>13</sup> But when I didn't find Titus waiting for me with news of your condition, I couldn't relax. Worried about you, I left and came on to Macedonia province looking for Titus and a reassuring word on you.

<sup>14</sup> And I got it, thank God! In the Messiah, in Christ, God leads us from place to place in one perpetual victory parade. Through us, he brings knowledge of Christ. Everywhere we go, people breathe in the exquisite fragrance.

<sup>15</sup> Because of Christ, we give off a sweet scent rising to God, which is recognized by those on the way of salvation--an aroma redolent with life.

<sup>16</sup> But those on the way to destruction treat us more like the stench from a rotting corpse. This is a terrific responsibility. Is anyone competent to take it on?

<sup>17</sup> No--but at least we don't take God's Word, water it down, and then take it to the streets to sell it cheap. We stand in Christ's presence when we speak; God looks us in the face. We get what we say straight from God and say it as honestly as we can.

3 <sup>1</sup> Does it sound like we're patting ourselves on the back, insisting on our credentials, asserting our authority? Well, we're not. Neither do we need letters of endorsement, either to you or from you.

<sup>2</sup> You yourselves are all the endorsement we need. Your very lives are a letter that anyone can read by just looking at you.

<sup>3</sup> Christ himself wrote it--not with ink, but with God's living Spirit; not chiseled into stone, but carved into human lives--and we publish it.

<sup>4</sup> We couldn't be more sure of ourselves in this--that [you], written by Christ himself for God, are our letter of recommendation.

<sup>5</sup> We wouldn't think of writing this kind of letter about ourselves. Only God can write such a letter.

<sup>6</sup> His letter authorizes us to help carry out this new plan of action. The plan wasn't written out with ink on paper, with pages and pages of legal footnotes, killing your spirit. It's written with Spirit on spirit, his life on our lives!

<sup>7</sup> The Government of Death, its constitution chiseled on stone tablets, had a dazzling inaugural. Moses' face as he delivered the tablets was so bright that day (even though it would fade soon enough) that the people of Israel could no more look right at him than stare into the sun.

<sup>12</sup> With that kind of hope to excite us, nothing holds us back.

<sup>13</sup> Unlike Moses, we have nothing to hide. Everything is out in the open with us. He wore a veil so the children of Israel wouldn't notice that the glory was fading away--

<sup>14</sup> and they [didn't] notice. They didn't notice it then and they don't notice it now, don't notice that there's nothing left behind that veil.

<sup>15</sup> Even today when the proclamations of that old, bankrupt government are read out, they can't see through it. Only Christ can get rid of the veil so they can see for themselves that there's nothing there.

<sup>16</sup> Whenever, though, they turn to face God as Moses did, God removes the veil and there they are--face to face!

<sup>17</sup> They suddenly recognize that God is a living, personal presence, not a piece of chiseled stone. And when God is personally present, a living Spirit, that old, constricting legislation is recognized as obsolete. We're free of it!

<sup>18</sup> All of us! Nothing between us and God, our faces shining with the brightness of his face. And so we are transfigured much like the Messiah, our lives gradually becoming brighter and more beautiful as God enters our lives and we become like him.

4 <sup>1</sup> Since God has so generously let us in on what he is doing, we're not about to throw up our hands and walk off the job just because we run into occasional hard times.

<sup>2</sup> We refuse to wear masks and play games. We don't maneuver and manipulate behind the scenes. And we don't twist God's Word to suit ourselves. Rather, we keep everything we do and say out in the open, the whole truth on display, so that those who want to can see and judge for themselves in the presence of God.

<sup>3</sup> If our Message is obscure to anyone, it's not because we're holding back in any way. No, it's because these other people are looking or going the wrong way and refuse to give it serious attention.

<sup>4</sup> All they have eyes for is the fashionable god of darkness. They think he can give them what they want, and that they won't have to bother believing a Truth they can't see. They're stone-blind to the dayspring brightness of the Message that shines with Christ, who gives us the best picture of God we'll ever get.

<sup>5</sup> Remember, our Message is not about ourselves; we're proclaiming Jesus Christ, the Master. All we are is messengers, errand runners from Jesus for you.

<sup>6</sup> It started when God said, "Light up the darkness!" and our lives filled up with light as we saw and understood God in the face of Christ, all bright and beautiful.

<sup>7</sup> If you only look at us, you might well miss the brightness. We carry this precious Message around in the unadorned clay pots of our ordinary lives. That's to prevent anyone from confusing God's incomparable power with us.

<sup>8</sup> As it is, there's not much chance of that. You know for yourselves that we're not much to look at. We've been surrounded and battered by troubles, but we're not demoralized; we're not sure what to do, <sup>9</sup> but we know that God knows what to do; we've been spiritually terrorized, but God hasn't left our side; we've been thrown down, but we haven't broken.

<sup>10</sup> What they did to Jesus, they do to us--trial and torture, mockery and murder; what Jesus did among them, he does in us--he lives!

<sup>11</sup> Our lives are at constant risk for Jesus' sake, which makes Jesus' life all the more evident in us.

<sup>13</sup> We're not keeping this quiet, not on your life. Just like the psalmist who wrote, "I believed it, so I said it," we say what we believe.

<sup>14</sup> And what we believe is that the One who raised up the Master Jesus will just as certainly raise us up with you, alive.

<sup>15</sup> Every detail works to your advantage and to God's glory: more and more grace, more and more people, more and more praise!

<sup>16</sup> So we're not giving up. How could we! Even though on the outside it often looks like things are falling apart on us, on the inside, where God is making new life, not a day goes by without his unfolding grace.

<sup>17</sup> These hard times are small potatoes compared to the coming good times, the lavish celebration prepared for us.

<sup>18</sup> There's far more here than meets the eye. The things we see now are here today, gone tomorrow. But the things we can't see now will last forever.

5 <sup>1</sup> For instance, we know that when these bodies of ours are taken down like tents and folded away, they will be replaced by resurrection bodies in heaven--God-made, not handmade

<sup>2</sup> --and we'll never have to relocate our "tents" again. Sometimes we can hardly wait to move--and so we cry out in frustration. Compared to what's coming, living conditions around here seem like a stopover in an unfurnished shack, and we're tired of it! We've been given a glimpse of the real thing, our true home, our resurrection bodies!

<sup>5</sup> The Spirit of God whets our appetite by giving us a taste of what's ahead. He puts a little of heaven in our hearts so that we'll never settle for less.

<sup>6</sup> That's why we live with such good cheer. You won't see us drooping our heads or dragging our feet! Cramped conditions here don't get us down. They only remind us of the spacious living conditions ahead.

<sup>7</sup> It's what we trust in but don't yet see that keeps us going.

<sup>8</sup> Do you suppose a few ruts in the road or rocks in the path are going to stop us? When the time comes, we'll be plenty ready to exchange exile for homecoming.

<sup>9</sup> But neither exile nor homecoming is the main thing. Cheerfully pleasing God is the main thing, and that's what we aim to do, regardless of our conditions.

<sup>10</sup> Sooner or later we'll all have to face God, regardless of our conditions. We will appear before Christ and take what's coming to us as a result of our actions, either good or bad.

<sup>11</sup> [That] keeps us vigilant, you can be sure. It's no light thing to know that we'll all one day stand in that place of Judgment. That's why we work urgently with everyone we meet to get them ready to face God. God alone knows how well we do this, but I hope you realize how much and deeply we care.

<sup>12</sup> We're not saying this to make ourselves look good to you. We just thought it would make you feel good, proud even, that we're on your side and not just nice to your face as so many people are.

<sup>13</sup> If I acted crazy, I did it for God; if I acted overly serious, I did it for you.

<sup>14</sup> Christ's love has moved me to such extremes. His love has the first and last word in everything we do. Our firm decision is to work from this focused center: One man died for everyone. That puts everyone in the same boat.

<sup>15</sup> He included everyone in his death so that everyone could also be included in his life, a resurrection life, a far better life than people ever lived on their own.

<sup>16</sup> Because of this decision we don't evaluate people by what they have or how they look. We looked at the Messiah that way once and got it all wrong, as you know. We certainly don't look at him that way anymore.

<sup>17</sup> Now we look inside, and what we see is that anyone united with the Messiah gets a fresh start, is created new. The old life is gone; a new life burgeons! Look at it!

<sup>18</sup> All this comes from the God who settled the relationship between us and him, and then called us to settle our relationships with each other.

<sup>19</sup> God put the world square with himself through the Messiah, giving the world a fresh start by offering forgiveness of sins. God has given us the task of telling everyone what he is doing.

<sup>20</sup> We're Christ's representatives. God uses us to persuade men and women to drop their differences and enter into God's work of making things right between them. We're speaking for Christ himself now: Become friends with God; he's already a friend with you.

<sup>21</sup> How? you say. In Christ. God put the wrong on him who never did anything wrong, so we could be put right with God.

6 <sup>1</sup> Companions as we are in this work with you, we beg you, please don't squander one bit of this marvelous life God has given us.

<sup>2</sup> God reminds us, I heard your call in the nick of time; The day you needed me, I was there to help. Well, now is the right time to listen, the day to be helped.

<sup>3</sup> Don't put it off; don't frustrate God's work by showing up late, throwing a question mark over everything we're doing.

<sup>4</sup> Our work as God's servants gets validated--or not--in the details. People are watching us as we stay at our post, alertly, unswervingly...in hard times, tough times, bad times;

<sup>5</sup> when we're beaten up, jailed, and mobbed; working hard, working late, working without eating;

<sup>7</sup> when we're telling the truth, and when God's showing his power; when we're doing our best setting things right;

<sup>8</sup> when we're praised, and when we're blamed; slandered, and honored; true to our word, though distrusted;

<sup>9</sup> ignored by the world, but recognized by God; terrifically alive, though rumored to be dead; beaten within an inch of our lives, but refusing to die;

<sup>10</sup> immersed in tears, yet always filled with deep joy; living on handouts, yet enriching many; having nothing, having it all.

<sup>11</sup> Dear, dear Corinthians, I can't tell you how much I long for you to enter this wide-open, spacious life.

<sup>12</sup> We didn't fence you in. The smallness you feel comes from within you. Your lives aren't small, but you're living them in a small way.

<sup>13</sup> I'm speaking as plainly as I can and with great affection. Open up your lives. Live openly and expansively!

<sup>15</sup> Does Christ go strolling with the Devil? Do trust and mistrust hold hands?

<sup>16</sup> Who would think of setting up pagan idols in God's holy Temple? But that is exactly what we are, each of us a temple in whom God lives. God himself put it this way: "I'll live in them, move into them; I'll be their God and they'll be my people.

<sup>17</sup> So leave the corruption and compromise; leave it for good," says God. "Don't link up with those who will pollute you. I want you all for myself.

<sup>18</sup> I'll be a Father to you; you'll be sons and daughters to me." The Word of the Master, God.

7 <sup>1</sup> With promises like this to pull us on, dear friends, let's make a clean break with everything that defiles or distracts us, both within and without. Let's make our entire lives fit and holy temples for the worship of God.

<sup>3</sup> Don't think I'm finding fault with you. I told you earlier that I'm with you all the way, no matter what.

<sup>4</sup> I have, in fact, the greatest confidence in you. If only you knew how proud I am of you! I am overwhelmed with joy despite all our troubles.

<sup>5</sup> When we arrived in Macedonia province, we couldn't settle down. The fights in the church and the fears in our hearts kept us on pins and needles. We couldn't relax because we didn't know how it would turn out.

<sup>6</sup> Then the God who lifts up the downcast lifted our heads and our hearts with the arrival of Titus.

<sup>7</sup> We were glad just to see him, but the true reassurance came in what he told us about you: how much you cared, how much you grieved, how concerned you were for me. I went from worry to tranquility in no time!

<sup>8</sup> I know I distressed you greatly with my letter. Although I felt awful at the time, I don't feel at all bad now that I see how it turned out. The letter upset you, but only for a while.

<sup>9</sup> Now I'm glad--not that you were upset, but that you were jarred into turning things around. You let the distress bring you to God, not drive you from him. The result was all gain, no loss.

<sup>10</sup> Distress that drives us to God does that. It turns us around. It gets us back in the way of salvation. We never regret that kind of pain. But those who let distress drive them away from God are full of regrets, end up on a deathbed of regrets.

<sup>11</sup> And now, isn't it wonderful all the ways in which this distress has goaded you closer to God? You're more alive, more concerned, more sensitive, more reverent, more human, more passionate, more responsible. Looked at from any angle, you've come out of this with purity of heart.

<sup>12</sup> And that is what I was hoping for in the first place when I wrote the letter. My primary concern was not for the one who did the wrong or even the one wronged, but for you--that you would realize and act upon the deep, deep ties between us before God.

<sup>13</sup> That's what happened--and we felt just great. And then, when we saw how Titus felt--his exuberance over your response--our joy doubled. It was wonderful to see how revived and refreshed he was by everything you did.

<sup>14</sup> If I went out on a limb in telling Titus how great I thought you were, you didn't cut off that limb. As it turned out, I hadn't exaggerated one bit. Titus saw for himself that everything I had said about you was true.

<sup>15</sup> He can't quit talking about it, going over again and again the story of your prompt obedience, and the dignity and sensitivity of your hospitality. He was quite overwhelmed by it all!

<sup>16</sup> And I couldn't be more pleased--I'm so confident and proud of you.

8 <sup>1</sup> Now, friends, I want to report on the surprising and generous ways in which God is working in the churches in Macedonia province.

<sup>2</sup> Fierce troubles came down on the people of those churches, pushing them to the very limit. The trial exposed their true colors: They were incredibly happy, though desperately poor. The pressure triggered something totally unexpected: an outpouring of pure and generous gifts.

<sup>3</sup> I was there and saw it for myself. They gave offerings of whatever they could--far more than they could afford!--

<sup>5</sup> This was totally spontaneous, entirely their own idea, and caught us completely off guard. What explains it was that they had first given themselves unreservedly to God and to us. The other giving simply flowed out of the purposes of God working in their lives.

<sup>6</sup> That's what prompted us to ask Titus to bring the relief offering to your attention, so that what was so well begun could be finished up.

<sup>7</sup> You do so well in so many things--you trust God, you're articulate, you're insightful, you're passionate, you love us--now, do your best in this, too.

<sup>8</sup> I'm not trying to order you around against your will. But by bringing in the Macedonians' enthusiasm as a stimulus to your love, I am hoping to bring the best out of you.

<sup>9</sup> You are familiar with the generosity of our Master, Jesus Christ. Rich as he was, he gave it all away for us--in one stroke he became poor and we became rich.

<sup>10</sup> So here's what I think: The best thing you can do right now is to finish what you started last year and not let those good intentions grow stale.

<sup>12</sup> Once the commitment is clear, you do what you can, not what you can't. The heart regulates the hands.

<sup>14</sup> your surplus matching their deficit, their surplus matching your deficit. In the end you come out even.

<sup>16</sup> I thank God for giving Titus the same devoted concern for you that I have.

<sup>17</sup> He was most considerate of how we felt, but his eagerness to go to you and help out with this relief offering is his own idea.

<sup>18</sup> We're sending a companion along with him, someone very popular in the churches for his preaching of the Message.

<sup>19</sup> But there's far more to him than popularity. He's rock-solid trustworthy. The churches handpicked him to go with us as we travel about doing this work of sharing God's gifts to honor God as well as we can,

<sup>20</sup> taking every precaution against scandal. We don't want anyone suspecting us of taking one penny of this money for ourselves.

<sup>21</sup> We're being as careful in our reputation with the public as in our reputation with God.

<sup>22</sup> That's why we're sending another trusted friend along. He's proved his dependability many times over, and carries on as energetically as the day he started. He's heard much about you, and liked what he's heard--so much so that he can't wait to get there.

<sup>23</sup> I don't need to say anything further about Titus. We've been close associates in this work of serving you for a long time. The brothers who travel with him are delegates from churches, a real credit to Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Show them what you're made of, the love I've been talking up in the churches. Let them see it for themselves!

9 <sup>1</sup> If I wrote any more on this relief offering for the poor Christians, I'd be repeating myself.

<sup>2</sup> I know you're on board and ready to go. I've been bragging about you all through Macedonia province, telling them, "Achaia province has been ready to go on this since last year." Your enthusiasm by now has spread to most of them.

<sup>3</sup> Now I'm sending the brothers to make sure you're ready, as I said you would be, so my bragging won't turn out to be just so much hot air.

<sup>4</sup> If some Macedonians and I happened to drop in on you and found you weren't prepared, we'd all be pretty red-faced--you and us--for acting so sure of ourselves.

<sup>5</sup> So to make sure there will be no slipup, I've recruited these brothers as an advance team to get you and your promised offering all ready before I get there. I want you to have all the time you need to make this offering in your own way. I don't want anything forced or hurried at the last minute.

<sup>7</sup> I want each of you to take plenty of time to think it over, and make up your own mind what you will give. That will protect you against sob stories and arm-twisting. God loves it when the giver delights in the giving.

<sup>8</sup> God can pour on the blessings in astonishing ways so that you're ready for anything and everything, more than just ready to do what needs to be done.

<sup>10</sup> This most generous God who gives seed to the farmer that becomes bread for your meals is more than extravagant with you. He gives you something you can then give away, which grows into full-formed lives, robust in God, <sup>11</sup> wealthy in every way, so that you can be generous in every way, producing with us great praise to God.

<sup>12</sup> Carrying out this social relief work involves far more than helping meet the bare needs of poor Christians. It also produces abundant and bountiful thanksgivings to God.

<sup>13</sup> This relief offering is a prod to live at your very best, showing your gratitude to God by being openly obedient to the plain meaning of the Message of Christ. You show your gratitude through your generous offerings to your needy brothers and sisters, and really toward everyone.

<sup>14</sup> Meanwhile, moved by the extravagance of God in your lives, they'll respond by praying for you in passionate intercession for whatever you need.

<sup>15</sup> Thank God for this gift, his gift. No language can praise it enough!

10 <sup>1</sup> And now a personal but most urgent matter; I write in the gentle but firm spirit of Christ. I hear that I'm being painted as cringing and wishy-washy when I'm with you, but harsh and demanding when at a safe distance writing letters.

<sup>2</sup> Please don't force me to take a hard line when I'm present with you. Don't think that I'll hesitate a single minute to stand up to those who say I'm an unprincipled opportunist. Then they'll have to eat their words.

<sup>3</sup> The world is unprincipled. It's dog-eat-dog out there! The world doesn't fight fair. But we don't live or fight our battles that way--never have and never will.

<sup>4</sup> The tools of our trade aren't for marketing or manipulation, but they are for demolishing that entire massively corrupt culture.

<sup>5</sup> We use our powerful God-tools for smashing warped philosophies, tearing down barriers erected against the truth of God, fitting every loose thought and emotion and impulse into the structure of life shaped by Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Our tools are ready at hand for clearing the ground of every obstruction and building lives of obedience into maturity.

<sup>7</sup> You stare and stare at the obvious, but you can't see the forest for the trees. If you're looking for a clear example of someone on Christ's side, why do you so quickly cut me out? Believe me, I am quite sure of my standing with Christ.

<sup>8</sup> You may think I overstate the authority he gave me, but I'm not backing off. Every bit of my commitment is for the purpose of building you up, after all, not tearing you down.

<sup>9</sup> And what's this talk about me bullying you with my letters?

<sup>10</sup> "His letters are brawny and potent, but in person he's a weakling and mumbles when he talks."

<sup>11</sup> Such talk won't survive scrutiny. What we write when away, we do when present. We're the exact same people, absent or present, in letter or in person.

<sup>12</sup> We're not, understand, putting ourselves in a league with those who boast that they're our superiors. We wouldn't dare do that. But in all this comparing and grading and competing, they quite miss the point.

<sup>13</sup> We aren't making outrageous claims here. We're sticking to the limits of what God has set for us. But there can be no question that those limits reach to and include you.

<sup>14</sup> We're not moving into someone else's "territory." We were already there with you, weren't we? We were the first ones to get there with the Message of Christ, right? So how can there be any question of overstepping our bounds by writing or visiting you?

<sup>15</sup> We're not barging in on the rightful work of others, interfering with their ministries, demanding a place in the sun with them. What we're hoping for is that as your lives grow in faith, you'll play a part within our expanding work.

<sup>16</sup> And we'll all still be within the limits God sets as we proclaim the Message in countries beyond Corinth. But we have no intention of moving in on what others have done and taking credit for it.

<sup>17</sup> "If you want to claim credit, claim it for God."

<sup>18</sup> What you say about yourself means nothing in God's work. It's what God says about you that makes the difference.

11 <sup>1</sup> Will you put up with a little foolish aside from me? Please, just for a moment.

<sup>2</sup> The thing that has me so upset is that I care about you so much--this is the passion of God burning inside me! I promised your hand in marriage to Christ, presented you as a pure virgin to her husband.

<sup>3</sup> And now I'm afraid that exactly as the Snake seduced Eve with his smooth patter, you are being lured away from the simple purity of your love for Christ.

<sup>4</sup> It seems that if someone shows up preaching quite another Jesus than we preached--different spirit, different message--you put up with him quite nicely.

<sup>5</sup> But if you put up with these big-shot "apostles," why can't you put up with simple me? I'm as good as they are.

<sup>6</sup> It's true that I don't have their voice, haven't mastered that smooth eloquence that impresses you so much. But when I do open my mouth, I at least know what I'm talking about. We haven't kept anything back. We let you in on everything.

<sup>7</sup> I wonder, did I make a bad mistake in proclaiming God's Message to you without asking for something in return, serving you free of charge so that you wouldn't be inconvenienced by me?

<sup>8</sup> It turns out that the other churches paid my way so that you could have a free ride.

<sup>9</sup> Not once during the time I lived among you did anyone have to lift a finger to help me out. My needs were always supplied by the Christians from Macedonia province. I was careful never to be a burden to you, and I never will be, you can count on it.

<sup>10</sup> With Christ as my witness, it's a point of honor with me, and I'm not going to keep it quiet just to protect you from what the neighbors will think.

<sup>11</sup> It's not that I don't love you; God knows I do.

<sup>12</sup> I'm just trying to keep things open and honest between us. And I'm not changing my position on this. I'd die before taking your money. I'm giving nobody grounds for lumping me in with those money-grubbing "preachers," vaunting themselves as something special.

<sup>13</sup> They're a sorry bunch--pseudo-apostles, lying preachers, crooked workers--posing as Christ's agents but sham to the core.

<sup>14</sup> And no wonder! Satan does it all the time, dressing up as a beautiful angel of light.

<sup>15</sup> So it shouldn't surprise us when his servants masquerade as servants of God. But they're not getting by with anything. They'll pay for it in the end.

<sup>16</sup> Let me come back to where I started--and don't hold it against me if I continue to sound a little foolish. Or if you'd rather, just accept that I am a fool and let me rant on a little.

<sup>18</sup> Oh, no, it's a bad habit I picked up from the three-ring preachers that are so popular these days.

<sup>19</sup> Since you sit there in the judgment seat observing all these shenanigans, you can afford to humor an occasional fool who happens along.

<sup>20</sup> You have such admirable tolerance for impostors who rob your freedom, rip you off, steal you blind, put you down--even slap your face!

<sup>21</sup> I shouldn't admit it to you, but our stomachs aren't strong enough to tolerate that kind of stuff. Since you admire the egomaniacs of the pulpit so much (remember, this is your old friend, the fool, talking), let me try my hand at it.

<sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? I can go them one better. (I can't believe I'm saying these things. It's crazy to talk this way! But I started, and I'm going to finish.) I've worked much harder, been jailed more often, beaten up more times than I can count, and at death's door time after time.

<sup>24</sup> I've been flogged five times with the Jews' thirty-nine lashes,

<sup>26</sup> In hard traveling year in and year out, I've had to ford rivers, fend off robbers, struggle with friends, struggle with foes. I've been at risk in the city, at risk in the country, endangered by desert sun and sea storm, and betrayed by those I thought were my brothers.

<sup>27</sup> I've known drudgery and hard labor, many a long and lonely night without sleep, many a missed meal, blasted by the cold, naked to the weather.

<sup>28</sup> And that's not the half of it, when you throw in the daily pressures and anxieties of all the churches.

<sup>29</sup> When someone gets to the end of his rope, I feel the desperation in my bones. When someone is duped into sin, an angry fire burns in my gut.

<sup>30</sup> If I have to "brag" about myself, I'll brag about the humiliations that make me like Jesus.

<sup>31</sup> The eternal and blessed God and Father of our Master Jesus knows I'm not lying.

<sup>32</sup> Remember the time I was in Damascus and the governor of King Aretas posted guards at the city gates to arrest me?

<sup>33</sup> I crawled through a window in the wall, was let down in a basket, and had to run for my life.

12 <sup>1</sup> You've forced me to talk this way, and I do it against my better judgment. But now that we're at it, I may as well bring up the matter of visions and revelations that God gave me.

<sup>2</sup> For instance, I know a man who, fourteen years ago, was seized by Christ and swept in ecstasy to the heights of heaven. I really don't know if this took place in the body or out of it; only God knows.

<sup>3</sup> I also know that this man was hijacked into paradise--again, whether in or out of the body, I don't know; God knows.

There he heard the unspeakable spoken, but was forbidden to tell what he heard.

<sup>5</sup> This is the man I want to talk about. But about myself, I'm not saying another word apart from the humiliations.

<sup>6</sup> If I had a mind to brag a little, I could probably do it without looking ridiculous, and I'd still be speaking plain truth all the way. But I'll spare you. I don't want anyone imagining me as anything other than the fool you'd encounter if you saw me on the street or heard me talk.

<sup>7</sup> Because of the extravagance of those revelations, and so I wouldn't get a big head, I was given the gift of a handicap to keep me in constant touch with my limitations. Satan's angel did his best to get me down; what he in fact did was push me to my knees. No danger then of walking around high and mighty!

<sup>8</sup> At first I didn't think of it as a gift, and begged God to remove it. Three times I did that,

<sup>9</sup> and then he told me, My grace is enough; it's all you need. My strength comes into its own in your weakness. Once I heard that, I was glad to let it happen. I quit focusing on the handicap and began appreciating the gift. It was a case of Christ's strength moving in on my weakness.

<sup>10</sup> Now I take limitations in stride, and with good cheer, these limitations that cut me down to size--abuse, accidents, opposition, bad breaks. I just let Christ take over! And so the weaker I get, the stronger I become.

<sup>11</sup> Well, now I've done it! I've made a complete fool of myself by going on like this. But it's not all my fault; you put me up to it. You should have been doing this for me, sticking up for me and commending me instead of making me do it for myself. You know from personal experience that even if I'm a nobody, a nothing, I wasn't second-rate compared to those big-shot apostles you're so taken with.

<sup>12</sup> All the signs that mark a true apostle were in evidence while I was with you through both good times and bad: signs of portent, signs of wonder, signs of power.

<sup>13</sup> Did you get less of me or of God than any of the other churches? The only thing you got less of was less responsibility for my upkeep. Well, I'm sorry. Forgive me for depriving you.

<sup>14</sup> Everything is in readiness now for this, my third visit to you. But don't worry about it; you won't have to put yourselves out. I'll be no more of a bother to you this time than on the other visits. I have no interest in what you have--only in you. Children shouldn't have to look out for their parents; parents look out for the children.

<sup>15</sup> I'd be most happy to empty my pockets, even mortgage my life, for your good. So how does it happen that the more I love you, the less I'm loved?

<sup>16</sup> And why is it that I keep coming across these whiffs of gossip about how my self-support was a front behind which I worked an elaborate scam? Where's the evidence?

<sup>17</sup> Did I cheat or trick you through anyone I sent?

<sup>18</sup> I asked Titus to visit, and sent some brothers along. Did they swindle you out of anything? And haven't we always been just as aboveboard, just as honest?

<sup>19</sup> I hope you don't think that all along we've been making our defense before you, the jury. You're not the jury; God is the jury--God revealed in Christ--and we make our case before him. And we've gone to all the trouble of supporting ourselves so that we won't be in the way or get in the way of your growing up.

<sup>20</sup> I do admit that I have fears that when I come you'll disappoint me and I'll disappoint you, and in frustration with each other everything will fall to pieces--quarrels, jealousy, flaring tempers, taking sides, angry words, vicious rumors, swelled heads, and general bedlam.

<sup>21</sup> I don't look forward to a second humiliation by God among you, compounded by hot tears over that crowd that keeps sinning over and over in the same old ways, who refuse to turn away from the pigsty of evil, sexual disorder, and indecency in which they wallow.

13 <sup>1</sup> Well, this is my third visit coming up. Remember the Scripture that says, "A matter becomes clear after two or three witnesses give evidence"?

<sup>2</sup> On my second visit I warned that bunch that keeps sinning over and over in the same old ways that when I came back I wouldn't go easy on them. Now, preparing for the third, I'm saying it again from a distance. If you haven't changed your ways by the time I get there, look out.

<sup>3</sup> You who have been demanding proof that Christ speaks through me will get more than you bargained for. You'll get the full force of Christ, don't think you won't.

<sup>4</sup> He was sheer weakness and humiliation when he was killed on the Cross, but oh, he's alive now--in the mighty power of God! We weren't much to look at, either, when we were humiliated among you, but when we deal with you this next time, we'll be alive in Christ, strengthened by God.

<sup>5</sup> Test yourselves to make sure you are solid in the faith. Don't drift along taking everything for granted. Give yourselves regular checkups. You need firsthand evidence, not mere hearsay, that Jesus Christ is in you. Test it out. If you fail the test, do something about it.

<sup>6</sup> I hope the test won't show that we have failed.

<sup>7</sup> But if it comes to that, we'd rather the test showed our failure than yours.

<sup>8</sup> We're rooting for the truth to win out in you.

<sup>9</sup> We couldn't possibly do otherwise. We don't just put up with our limitations; we celebrate them, and then go on to celebrate every strength, every triumph of the truth in you. We pray hard that it will all come together in your lives.

<sup>10</sup> I'm writing this to you now so that when I come I won't have to say another word on the subject. The authority the Master gave me is for putting people together, not taking them apart. I want to get on with it, and not have to spend time on reprimands.

<sup>11</sup> And that's about it, friends. Be cheerful. Keep things in good repair. Keep your spirits up. Think in harmony. Be agreeable. Do all that, and the God of love and peace will be with you for sure.

<sup>14</sup> The amazing grace of the Master, Jesus Christ, the extravagant love of God, the intimate friendship of the Holy Spirit, be with all of you.

Galatians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, and my companions in faith here, send greetings to the Galatian churches. My authority for writing to you does not come from any popular vote of the people, nor does it come through the appointment of some human higher-up. It comes directly from Jesus the Messiah and God the Father, who raised him from the dead. I'm God-commissioned.

<sup>3</sup> So I greet you with the great words, grace and peace!

<sup>4</sup> We know the meaning of those words because Jesus Christ rescued us from this evil world we're in by offering himself as a sacrifice for our sins. God's plan is that we all experience that rescue.

<sup>6</sup> I can't believe your fickleness--how easily you have turned traitor to him who called you by the grace of Christ by embracing a variant message!

<sup>7</sup> It is not a minor variation, you know; it is completely other, an alien message, a no-message, a lie about God. Those who are provoking this agitation among you are turning the Message of Christ on its head.

<sup>8</sup> Let me be blunt: If one of us--even if an angel from heaven!--were to preach something other than what we preached originally, let him be cursed.

<sup>9</sup> I said it once; I'll say it again: If anyone, regardless of reputation or credentials, preaches something other than what you received originally, let him be cursed.

<sup>10</sup> Do you think I speak this strongly in order to manipulate crowds? Or curry favor with God? Or get popular applause? If my goal was popularity, I wouldn't bother being Christ's slave.

<sup>11</sup> Know this--I am most emphatic here, friends--this great Message I delivered to you is not mere human optimism.

<sup>12</sup> I didn't receive it through the traditions, and I wasn't taught it in some school. I got it straight from God, received the Message directly from Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> I'm sure that you've heard the story of my earlier life when I lived in the Jewish way. In those days I went all out in persecuting God's church. I was systematically destroying it.

<sup>14</sup> I was so enthusiastic about the traditions of my ancestors that I advanced head and shoulders above my peers in my career.

<sup>15</sup> Even then God had designs on me. Why, when I was still in my mother's womb he chose and called me out of sheer generosity!

<sup>16</sup> Now he has intervened and revealed his Son to me so that I might joyfully tell non-Jews about him. Immediately after my calling--without consulting anyone around me

<sup>17</sup> and without going up to Jerusalem to confer with those who were apostles long before I was--I got away to Arabia. Later I returned to Damascus, <sup>18</sup> but it was three years before I went up to Jerusalem to compare stories with Peter. I was there only fifteen days--but what days they were!

<sup>22</sup> After all that time and activity I was still unknown by face among the Christian churches in Judea.

<sup>23</sup> There was only this report: "That man who once persecuted us is now preaching the very message he used to try to destroy."

<sup>24</sup> Their response was to recognize and worship God because of me!

2<sup>1</sup> Fourteen years after that first visit, Barnabas and I went up to Jerusalem and took Titus with us.

<sup>2</sup> I went to clarify with them what had been revealed to me. At that time I placed before them exactly what I was preaching to the non-Jews. I did this in private with the leaders, those held in esteem by the church, so that our concern would not become a controversial public issue, marred by ethnic tensions, exposing my years of work to denigration and endangering my present ministry.

<sup>3</sup> Significantly, Titus, non-Jewish though he was, was not required to be circumcised.

<sup>4</sup> While we were in conference we were infiltrated by spies pretending to be Christians, who slipped in to find out just how free true Christians are. Their ulterior motive was to reduce us to their brand of servitude.

<sup>5</sup> We didn't give them the time of day. We were determined to preserve the truth of the Message for you.

<sup>6</sup> As for those who were considered important in the church, their reputation doesn't concern me. God isn't impressed with mere appearances, and neither am I. And of course these leaders were able to add nothing to the message I had been preaching.

<sup>7</sup> It was soon evident that God had entrusted me with the same message to the non-Jews as Peter had been preaching to the Jews.

<sup>9</sup> Recognizing that my calling had been given by God, James, Peter, and John--the pillars of the church--shook hands with me and Barnabas, assigning us to a ministry to the non-Jews, while they continued to be responsible for reaching out to the Jews.

<sup>10</sup> The only additional thing they asked was that we remember the poor, and I was already eager to do that.

<sup>11</sup> Later, when Peter came to Antioch, I had a face-to-face confrontation with him because he was clearly out of line.

<sup>12</sup> Here's the situation. Earlier, before certain persons had come from James, Peter regularly ate with the non-Jews. But when that conservative group came from Jerusalem, he cautiously pulled back and put as much distance as he could manage between himself and his non-Jewish friends. That's how fearful he was of the conservative Jewish clique that's been pushing the old system of circumcision.

<sup>13</sup> Unfortunately, the rest of the Jews in the Antioch church joined in that hypocrisy so that even Barnabas was swept along in the charade.

<sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they were not maintaining a steady, straight course according to the Message, I spoke up to Peter in front of them all: "If you, a Jew, live like a non-Jew when you're not being observed by the watchdogs from Jerusalem, what right do you have to require non-Jews to conform to Jewish customs just to make a favorable impression on your old Jerusalem cronies?"

<sup>15</sup> We Jews know that we have no advantage of birth over "non-Jewish sinners."

<sup>16</sup> We know very well that we are not set right with God by rule-keeping but only through personal faith in Jesus Christ. How do we know? We tried it--and we had the best system of rules the world has ever seen! Convinced that no human being can please God by self-improvement, we believed in Jesus as the Messiah so that we might be set right before God by trusting in the Messiah, not by trying to be good.

<sup>17</sup> Have some of you noticed that we are not yet perfect? (No great surprise, right?) And are you ready to make the accusation that since people like me, who go through Christ in order to get things right with God, aren't perfectly virtuous, Christ must therefore be an accessory to sin? The accusation is frivolous.

<sup>18</sup> If I was "trying to be good," I would be rebuilding the same old barn that I tore down. I would be acting as a charlatan.

<sup>19</sup> What actually took place is this: I tried keeping rules and working my head off to please God, and it didn't work. So I quit being a "law man" so that I could be [God's] man.

<sup>20</sup> Christ's life showed me how, and enabled me to do it. I identified myself completely with him. Indeed, I have been crucified with Christ. My ego is no longer central. It is no longer important that I appear righteous before you or have your good opinion, and I am no longer driven to impress God. Christ lives in me. The life you see me living is not "mine," but it is lived by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

<sup>21</sup> I am not going to go back on that. Is it not clear to you that to go back to that old rule-keeping, peer-pleasing religion would be an abandonment of everything personal and free in my relationship with God? I refuse to do that, to repudiate God's grace. If a living relationship with God could come by rule-keeping, then Christ died unnecessarily.

3 <sup>1</sup> You crazy Galatians! Did someone put a hex on you? Have you taken leave of your senses? Something crazy has happened, for it's obvious that you no longer have the crucified Jesus in clear focus in your lives. His sacrifice on the Cross was certainly set before you clearly enough.

<sup>2</sup> Let me put this question to you: How did your new life begin? Was it by working your heads off to please God? Or was it by responding to God's Message to you?

<sup>3</sup> Are you going to continue this craziness? For only crazy people would think they could complete by their own efforts what was begun by God. If you weren't smart enough or strong enough to begin it, how do you suppose you could perfect it?

<sup>4</sup> Did you go through this whole painful learning process for nothing? It is not yet a total loss, but it certainly will be if you keep this up!

<sup>5</sup> Answer this question: Does the God who lavishly provides you with his own presence, his Holy Spirit, working things in your lives you could never do for yourselves, does he do these things because of your strenuous moral striving [or] because you trust him to do them in you?

<sup>6</sup> Don't these things happen among you just as they happened with Abraham? He believed God, and that act of belief was turned into a life that was right with God.

<sup>7</sup> Is it not obvious to you that persons who put their trust in Christ (not persons who put their trust in the law!) are like Abraham: children of faith?

<sup>8</sup> It was all laid out beforehand in Scripture that God would set things right with non-Jews by [faith]. Scripture anticipated this in the promise to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed in you."

<sup>9</sup> So those now who live by faith are blessed along with Abraham, who lived by faith--this is no new doctrine!

<sup>10</sup> And that means that anyone who tries to live by his own effort, independent of God, is doomed to failure. Scripture backs this up: "Utterly cursed is every person who fails to carry out every detail written in the Book of the law."

<sup>11</sup> The obvious impossibility of carrying out such a moral program should make it plain that no one can sustain a relationship with God that way. The person who lives in right relationship with God does it by embracing what God arranges for him. Doing things for God is the opposite of entering into what God does for you. Habakkuk had it right: "The person who believes God, is set right by God--and that's the real life."

<sup>12</sup> Rule-keeping does not naturally evolve into living by faith, but only perpetuates itself in more and more rule-keeping, a fact observed in Scripture: "The one who does these things [[rule-keeping]] continues to live by them."

<sup>13</sup> Christ redeemed us from that self-defeating, cursed life by absorbing it completely into himself. Do you remember the Scripture that says, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"? That is what happened when Jesus was nailed to the Cross: He became a curse, and at the same time dissolved the curse.

<sup>14</sup> And now, because of that, the air is cleared and we can see that Abraham's blessing is present and available for non-Jews, too. We are [all] able to receive God's life, his Spirit, in and with us by believing--just the way Abraham received it.

<sup>15</sup> Friends, let me give you an example from everyday affairs of the free life I am talking about. Once a person's will has been ratified, no one else can annul it or add to it.

<sup>16</sup> Now, the promises were made to Abraham and to his descendant. You will observe that Scripture, in the careful language of a legal document, does not say "to descendants," referring to everybody in general, but "to your descendant" (the noun, note, is singular), referring to Christ.

<sup>17</sup> This is the way I interpret this: A will, earlier ratified by God, is not annulled by an addendum attached 430 years later, thereby negating the promise of the will.

<sup>18</sup> No, this addendum, with its instructions and regulations, has nothing to do with the promised inheritance in the will. What is the point, then, of the law, the attached addendum? It was a thoughtful addition to the original covenant promises made to Abraham.

<sup>19</sup> The purpose of the law was to keep a sinful people in the way of salvation until Christ (the descendant) came, inheriting the promises and distributing them to us. Obviously this law was not a firsthand encounter with God. It was arranged by angelic messengers through a middleman, Moses.

<sup>20</sup> But if there is a middleman as there was at Sinai, then the people are not dealing directly with God, are they? But the original promise is the [direct] blessing of God, received by faith.

<sup>21</sup> If such is the case, is the law, then, an anti-promise, a negation of God's will for us? Not at all. Its purpose was to make obvious to everyone that we are, in ourselves, out of right relationship with God, and therefore to show us the futility of devising some religious system for getting by our own efforts what we can only get by waiting in faith for God to complete his promise. For if any kind of rule-keeping had power to create life in us, we would certainly have gotten it by this time.

<sup>23</sup> Until the time when we were mature enough to respond freely in faith to the living God, we were carefully surrounded and protected by the Mosaic law.

<sup>24</sup> The law was like those Greek tutors, with which you are familiar, who escort children to school and protect them from danger or distraction, making sure the children will really get to the place they set out for.

<sup>25</sup> But now you have arrived at your destination:

<sup>27</sup> Your baptism in Christ was not just washing you up for a fresh start. It also involved dressing you in an adult faith wardrobe--Christ's life, the fulfillment of God's original promise.

<sup>28</sup> In Christ's family there can be no division into Jew and non-Jew, slave and free, male and female. Among us you are all equal. That is, we are all in a common relationship with Jesus Christ.

<sup>29</sup> Also, since you are Christ's family, then you are Abraham's famous "descendant," heirs according to the covenant promises.

4 <sup>1</sup> Let me show you the implications of this. As long as the heir is a minor, he has no advantage over the slave. Though legally he owns the entire inheritance, <sup>2</sup> he is subject to tutors and administrators until whatever date the father has set for emancipation.

<sup>3</sup> That is the way it is with us: When we were minors, we were just like slaves ordered around by simple instructions (the tutors and administrators of this world), with no say in the conduct of our own lives.

<sup>4</sup> But when the time arrived that was set by God the Father, God sent his Son, born among us of a woman, born under the conditions of the law so that he might redeem those of us who have been kidnapped by the law.

<sup>5</sup> Thus we have been set free to experience our rightful heritage.

<sup>6</sup> You can tell for sure that you are now fully adopted as his own children because God sent the Spirit of his Son into our lives crying out, "Papa! Father!"

<sup>7</sup> Doesn't that privilege of intimate conversation with God make it plain that you are not a slave, but a child? And if you are a child, you're also an heir, with complete access to the inheritance.

<sup>8</sup> Earlier, before you knew God personally, you were enslaved to so-called gods that had nothing of the divine about them.

<sup>9</sup> But now that you know the real God--or rather since God knows you--how can you possibly subject yourselves again to those paper tigers?

<sup>10</sup> For that is exactly what you do when you are intimidated into scrupulously observing all the traditions, taboos, and superstitions associated with special days and seasons and years.

<sup>11</sup> I am afraid that all my hard work among you has gone up in a puff of smoke!

<sup>12</sup> My dear friends, what I would really like you to do is try to put yourselves in my shoes to the same extent that I, when I was with you, put myself in yours. You were very sensitive and kind then. You did not come down on me personally.

<sup>13</sup> You were well aware that the reason I ended up preaching to you was that I was physically broken, and so, prevented from continuing my journey, I was forced to stop with you. That is how I came to preach to you.

<sup>14</sup> And don't you remember that even though taking in a sick guest was most troublesome for you, you chose to treat me as well as you would have treated an angel of God--as well as you would have treated Jesus himself if he had visited you?

<sup>15</sup> What has happened to the satisfaction you felt at that time? There were some of you then who, if possible, would have given your very eyes to me--that is how deeply you cared!

<sup>16</sup> And now have I suddenly become your enemy simply by telling you the truth? I can't believe it.

<sup>17</sup> Those heretical teachers go to great lengths to flatter you, but their motives are rotten. They want to shut you out of the free world of God's grace so that you will always depend on them for approval and direction, making them feel important.

<sup>18</sup> It is a good thing to be ardent in doing good, but not just when I am in your presence. Can't you continue the same concern for both my person and my message when I am away from you that you had when I was with you?

<sup>19</sup> Do you know how I feel right now, and will feel until Christ's life becomes visible in your lives? Like a mother in the pain of childbirth.

<sup>20</sup> Oh, I keep wishing that I was with you. Then I wouldn't be reduced to this blunt, letter-writing language out of sheer frustration.

<sup>21</sup> Tell me now, you who have become so enamored with the law: Have you paid close attention to that law?

<sup>22</sup> Abraham, remember, had two sons: one by the slave woman and one by the free woman.

<sup>23</sup> The son of the slave woman was born by human connivance; the son of the free woman was born by God's promise.

<sup>24</sup> This illustrates the very thing we are dealing with now. The two births represent two ways of being in relationship with God. One is from Mount Sinai in Arabia.

<sup>25</sup> It corresponds with what is now going on in Jerusalem--a slave life, producing slaves as offspring. This is the way of Hagar.

<sup>26</sup> In contrast to that, there is an invisible Jerusalem, a free Jerusalem, and she is our mother--this is the way of Sarah.

<sup>27</sup> Remember what Isaiah wrote: Rejoice, barren woman who bears no children, shout and cry out, woman who has no birth pangs, Because the children of the barren woman now surpass the children of the chosen woman.

<sup>29</sup> In the days of Hagar and Sarah, the child who came from faithless connivance (Ishmael) harassed the child who came--empowered by the Spirit--from the faithful promise (Isaac). Isn't it clear that the harassment you are now experiencing from the Jerusalem heretics follows that old pattern?

<sup>30</sup> There is a Scripture that tells us what to do: "Expel the slave mother with her son, for the slave son will not inherit with the free son."

<sup>31</sup> Isn't that conclusive? We are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

5 <sup>1</sup> Christ has set us free to live a free life. So take your stand! Never again let anyone put a harness of slavery on you.

<sup>2</sup> I am emphatic about this. The moment any one of you submits to circumcision or any other rule-keeping system, at that same moment Christ's hard-won gift of freedom is squandered.

<sup>3</sup> I repeat my warning: The person who accepts the ways of circumcision trades all the advantages of the free life in Christ for the obligations of the slave life of the law.

<sup>4</sup> I suspect you would never intend this, but this is what happens. When you attempt to live by your own religious plans and projects, you are cut off from Christ, you fall out of grace.

<sup>6</sup> For in Christ, neither our most conscientious religion nor disregard of religion amounts to anything. What matters is something far more interior: faith expressed in love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running superbly! Who cut in on you, deflecting you from the true course of obedience?

<sup>8</sup> This detour doesn't come from the One who called you into the race in the first place.

<sup>9</sup> And please don't toss this off as insignificant. It only takes a minute amount of yeast, you know, to permeate an entire loaf of bread.

<sup>10</sup> Deep down, the Master has given me confidence that you will not defect. But the one who is upsetting you, whoever he is, will bear the divine judgment.

<sup>11</sup> As for the rumor that I continue to preach the ways of circumcision (as I did in those pre-Damascus Road days), that is absurd. Why would I still be persecuted, then? If I were preaching that old message, no one would be offended if I mentioned the Cross now and then--it would be so watered-down it wouldn't matter one way or the other.

<sup>12</sup> Why don't these agitators, obsessive as they are about circumcision, go all the way and castrate themselves!

<sup>13</sup> It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows.

<sup>14</sup> For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. That's an act of true freedom.

<sup>15</sup> If you bite and ravage each other, watch out--in no time at all you will be annihilating each other, and where will your precious freedom be then?

<sup>16</sup> My counsel is this: Live freely, animated and motivated by God's Spirit.

Then you won't feed the compulsions of selfishness.

<sup>17</sup> For there is a root of sinful self-interest in us that is at odds with a free spirit, just as the free spirit is incompatible with selfishness. These two ways of life are antithetical, so that you cannot live at times one way and at times another way according to how you feel on any given day.

<sup>18</sup> Why don't you choose to be led by the Spirit and so escape the erratic compulsions of a law-dominated existence?

<sup>19</sup> It is obvious what kind of life develops out of trying to get your own way all the time: repetitive, loveless, cheap sex; a stinking accumulation of mental and emotional garbage; frenzied and joyless grabs for happiness;

competition; all-consuming-yet-never-satisfied wants; a brutal temper; an impotence to love or be loved; divided homes and divided lives; small-minded and lopsided pursuits;

<sup>21</sup> the vicious habit of depersonalizing everyone into a rival; uncontrolled and uncontrollable addictions; ugly parodies of community. I could go on. This isn't the first time I have warned you, you know. If you use your freedom this way, you will not inherit God's kingdom.

<sup>22</sup> But what happens when we live God's way? He brings gifts into our lives, much the same way that fruit appears in an orchard--things like affection for others, exuberance about life, serenity. We develop a willingness to stick with things, a sense of compassion in the heart, and a conviction that a basic holiness permeates things and people.

We find ourselves involved in loyal commitments,

<sup>23</sup> not needing to force our way in life, able to marshal and direct our energies wisely. Legalism is helpless in bringing this about; it only gets in the way.

<sup>24</sup> Among those who belong to Christ, everything connected with getting our own way and mindlessly responding to what everyone else calls necessities is killed off for good--crucified.

<sup>25</sup> Since this is the kind of life we have chosen, the life of the Spirit, let us make sure that we do not just hold it as an idea in our heads or a sentiment in our hearts, but work out its implications in every detail of our lives.

<sup>26</sup> That means we will not compare ourselves with each other as if one of us were better and another worse. We have far more interesting things to do with our lives. Each of us is an original.

6<sup>1</sup> Live creatively, friends. If someone falls into sin, forgivingly restore him, saving your critical comments for yourself. You might be needing forgiveness before the day's out.

<sup>2</sup> Stoop down and reach out to those who are oppressed. Share their burdens, and so complete Christ's law.

<sup>3</sup> If you think you are too good for that, you are badly deceived.

<sup>4</sup> Make a careful exploration of who you are and the work you have been given, and then sink yourself into that. Don't be impressed with yourself. Don't compare yourself with others.

<sup>5</sup> Each of you must take responsibility for doing the creative best you can with your own life.

<sup>6</sup> Be very sure now, you who have been trained to a self-sufficient maturity, that you enter into a generous common life with those who have trained you, sharing all the good things that you have and experience.

<sup>7</sup> Don't be misled: No one makes a fool of God. What a person plants, he will harvest. The person who plants selfishness, ignoring the needs of others--ignoring God!--

<sup>8</sup> harvests a crop of weeds. All he'll have to show for his life is weeds! But the one who plants in response to God, letting God's Spirit do the growth work in him, harvests a crop of real life, eternal life.

<sup>9</sup> So let's not allow ourselves to get fatigued doing good. At the right time we will harvest a good crop if we don't give up, or quit.

<sup>10</sup> Right now, therefore, every time we get the chance, let us work for the benefit of all, starting with the people closest to us in the community of faith.

<sup>11</sup> Now, in these last sentences, I want to emphasize in the bold scrawls of my personal handwriting the immense importance of what I have written to you.

<sup>12</sup> These people who are attempting to force the ways of circumcision on you have only one motive: They want an easy way to look good before others, lacking the courage to live by a faith that shares Christ's suffering and death. All their talk about the law is gas.

<sup>13</sup> They [themselves] don't keep the law! And they are highly selective in the laws they [do] observe. They only want you to be circumcised so they can boast of their success in recruiting you to their side. That is contemptible!

<sup>14</sup> For my part, I am going to boast about nothing but the Cross of our Master, Jesus Christ. Because of that Cross, I have been crucified in relation to the world, set free from the stifling atmosphere of pleasing others and fitting into the little patterns that they dictate.

<sup>15</sup> Can't you see the central issue in all this? It is not what you and I do--submit to circumcision, reject circumcision. It is what [God] is doing, and he is creating something totally new, a free life!

<sup>16</sup> All who walk by this standard are the true Israel of God--his chosen people. Peace and mercy on them!

<sup>17</sup> Quite frankly, I don't want to be bothered anymore by these disputes. I have far more important things to do--the serious living of this faith. I bear in my body scars from my service to Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> May what our Master Jesus Christ gives freely be deeply and personally yours, my friends. Oh, yes!

Ephesians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am under God's plan as an apostle, a special agent of Christ Jesus, writing to you faithful Christians in Ephesus.

<sup>2</sup> I greet you with the grace and peace poured into our lives by God our Father and our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> How blessed is God! And what a blessing he is! He's the Father of our Master, Jesus Christ, and takes us to the high places of blessing in him.

<sup>4</sup> Long before he laid down earth's foundations, he had us in mind, had settled on us as the focus of his love, to be made whole and holy by his love.

<sup>5</sup> Long, long ago he decided to adopt us into his family through Jesus Christ. (What pleasure he took in planning this!)

<sup>6</sup> He wanted us to enter into the celebration of his lavish gift-giving by the hand of his beloved Son.

<sup>7</sup> Because of the sacrifice of the Messiah, his blood poured out on the altar of the Cross, we're a free people—free of penalties and punishments chalked up by all our misdeeds. And not just barely free, either. [Abundantly] free!

<sup>8</sup> He thought of everything, provided for everything we could possibly need,

<sup>9</sup> letting us in on the plans he took such delight in making. He set it all out before us in Christ, <sup>10</sup> a long-range plan in which everything would be brought together and summed up in him, everything in deepest heaven, everything on planet earth.

<sup>11</sup> It's in Christ that we find out who we are and what we are living for. Long before we first heard of Christ and got our hopes up, he had his eye on us, had designs on us for glorious living,

<sup>13</sup> It's in Christ that you, once you heard the truth and believed it (this Message of your salvation), found yourselves home free--signed, sealed, and delivered by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> This signet from God is the first installment on what's coming, a reminder that we'll get everything God has planned for us, a praising and glorious life.

<sup>15</sup> That's why, when I heard of the solid trust you have in the Master Jesus and your outpouring of love to all the Christians, <sup>16</sup> I couldn't stop thanking God for you--every time I prayed, I'd think of you and give thanks.

<sup>17</sup> But I do more than thank. I ask--ask the God of our Master, Jesus Christ, the God of glory--to make you intelligent and discerning in knowing him personally,

<sup>18</sup> your eyes focused and clear, so that you can see exactly what it is he is calling you to do, grasp the immensity of this glorious way of life he has for Christians, <sup>19</sup> oh, the utter extravagance of his work in us who trust him--endless energy, boundless strength!

<sup>20</sup> All this energy issues from Christ: God raised him from death and set him on a throne in deep heaven, <sup>21</sup> in charge of running the universe, everything from galaxies to governments, no name and no power exempt from his rule. And not just for the time being, but [forever].

<sup>22</sup> He is in charge of it all, has the final word on everything. At the center of all this, Christ rules the church.

<sup>23</sup> The church, you see, is not peripheral to the world; the world is peripheral to the church. The church is Christ's body, in which he speaks and acts, by which he fills everything with his presence.

2 <sup>1</sup> It wasn't so long ago that you were mired in that old stagnant life of sin.

<sup>2</sup> You let the world, which doesn't know the first thing about living, tell you how to live. You filled your lungs with polluted unbelief, and then exhaled disobedience.

<sup>3</sup> We all did it, all of us doing what we felt like doing, when we felt like doing it, all of us in the same boat. It's a wonder God didn't lose his temper and do away with the whole lot of us.

<sup>4</sup> Instead, immense in mercy and with an incredible love, <sup>5</sup> he embraced us. He took our sin-dead lives and made us alive in Christ. He did all this on his own, with no help from us!

<sup>6</sup> Then he picked us up and set us down in highest heaven in company with Jesus, our Messiah.

<sup>7</sup> Now God has us where he wants us, with all the time in this world and the next to shower grace and kindness upon us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Saving is all his idea, and all his work. All we do is trust him enough to let him do it. It's God's gift from start to finish!

<sup>9</sup> We don't play the major role. If we did, we'd probably go around bragging that we'd done the whole thing!

<sup>10</sup> No, we neither make nor save ourselves. God does both the making and saving. He creates each of us by Christ Jesus to join him in the work he does, the good work he has gotten ready for us to do, work we had better be doing.

<sup>11</sup> But don't take any of this for granted. It was only yesterday that you outsiders to God's ways

<sup>12</sup> had no idea of any of this, didn't know the first thing about the way God works, hadn't the faintest idea of Christ. You knew nothing of that rich history of God's covenants and promises in Israel, hadn't a clue about what God was doing in the world at large.

<sup>13</sup> Now because of Christ--dying that death, shedding that blood--you who were once out of it altogether are in on everything.

<sup>14</sup> The Messiah has made things up between us so that we're now together on this, both non-Jewish outsiders and Jewish insiders. He tore down the wall we used to keep each other at a distance.

<sup>15</sup> He repealed the law code that had become so clogged with fine print and footnotes that it hindered more than it helped. Then he started over. Instead of continuing with two groups of people separated by centuries of animosity and suspicion, he created a new kind of human being, a fresh start for everybody.

<sup>16</sup> Christ brought us together through his death on the Cross. The Cross got us to embrace, and that was the end of the hostility.

<sup>17</sup> Christ came and preached peace to you outsiders and peace to us insiders.

<sup>18</sup> He treated us as equals, and so made us equals. Through him we both share the same Spirit and have equal access to the Father.

<sup>19</sup> That's plain enough, isn't it? You're no longer wandering exiles. This kingdom of faith is now your home country. You're no longer strangers or outsiders. You [belong] here, with as much right to the name Christian as anyone. God is building a home. He's using us all--irrespective of how we got here--in what he is building.

<sup>20</sup> He used the apostles and prophets for the foundation. Now he's using you, fitting you in brick by brick, stone by stone, with Christ Jesus as the cornerstone

<sup>21</sup> that holds all the parts together. We see it taking shape day after day--a holy temple built by God, <sup>22</sup> all of us built into it, a temple in which God is quite at home.

3 <sup>1</sup> This is why I, Paul, am in jail for Christ, having taken up the cause of you outsiders, so-called.

<sup>2</sup> I take it that you're familiar with the part I was given in God's plan for including everybody.

<sup>3</sup> I got the inside story on this from God himself, as I just wrote you in brief.

<sup>4</sup> As you read over what I have written to you, you'll be able to see for yourselves into the mystery of Christ.

<sup>5</sup> None of our ancestors understood this. Only in our time has it been made clear by God's Spirit through his holy apostles and prophets of this new order.

<sup>6</sup> The mystery is that people who have never heard of God and those who have heard of him all their lives (what I've been calling outsiders and insiders) stand on the same ground before God. They get the same offer, same help, same promises in Christ Jesus. The Message is accessible and welcoming to everyone, across the board.

<sup>7</sup> This is my life work: helping people understand and respond to this Message. It came as a sheer gift to me, a real surprise, God handling all the details.

<sup>8</sup> When it came to presenting the Message to people who had no background in God's way, I was the least qualified of any of the available Christians. God saw to it that I was equipped, but you can be sure that it had nothing to do with my natural abilities. And so here I am, preaching and writing about things that are way over my head, the inexhaustible riches and generosity of Christ.

<sup>9</sup> My task is to bring out in the open and make plain what God, who created all this in the first place, has been doing in secret and behind the scenes all along.

<sup>10</sup> Through Christians like yourselves gathered in churches, this extraordinary plan of God is becoming known and talked about even among the angels!

<sup>11</sup> All this is proceeding along lines planned all along by God and then executed in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> When we trust in him, we're free to say whatever needs to be said, bold to go wherever we need to go.

<sup>13</sup> So don't let my present trouble on your behalf get you down. Be proud!

<sup>14</sup> My response is to get down on my knees before the Father, <sup>15</sup> this magnificent Father who parcels out all heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> I ask him to strengthen you by his Spirit--not a brute strength but a glorious inner strength--

<sup>17</sup> that Christ will live in you as you open the door and invite him in. And I ask him that with both feet planted firmly on love, <sup>18</sup> you'll be able to take in with all Christians the extravagant dimensions of Christ's love. Reach out and experience the breadth! Test its length! Plumb the depths! Rise to the heights!

<sup>19</sup> Live full lives, full in the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup> God can do anything, you know--far more than you could ever imagine or guess or request in your wildest dreams! He does it not by pushing us around but by working within us, his Spirit deeply and gently within us.

<sup>21</sup> Glory to God in the church! Glory to God in the Messiah, in Jesus! Glory down all the generations! Glory through all millennia! Oh, yes!

4<sup>1</sup> In light of all this, here's what I want you to do. While I'm locked up here, a prisoner for the Master, I want you to get out there and walk--better yet, run!--on the road God called you to travel. I don't want any of you sitting around on your hands. I don't want anyone strolling off, down some path that goes nowhere.

<sup>4</sup> You were all called to travel on the same road and in the same direction, so stay together, both outwardly and inwardly.

<sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who rules over all, works through all, and is present in all. Everything you are and think and do is permeated with Oneness.

<sup>7</sup> But that doesn't mean you should all look and speak and act the same. Out of the generosity of Christ, each of us is given his own gift.

<sup>8</sup> The text for this is, He climbed the high mountain, He captured the enemy and seized the booty, He handed it all out in gifts to the people.

<sup>9</sup> It's true, is it not, that the One who climbed up also climbed down, down to the valley of earth?

<sup>12</sup> to train Christians in skilled servant work, working within Christ's body, the church,

<sup>13</sup> until we're all moving rhythmically and easily with each other, efficient and graceful in response to God's Son, fully mature adults, fully developed within and without, fully alive like Christ.

<sup>14</sup> No prolonged infancies among us, please. We'll not tolerate babes in the woods, small children who are an easy mark for impostors.

<sup>15</sup> God wants us to grow up, to know the whole truth and tell it in love--like Christ in everything. We take our lead from Christ, who is the source of everything we do.

<sup>16</sup> He keeps us in step with each other. His very breath and blood flow through us, nourishing us so that we will grow up healthy in God, robust in love.

<sup>17</sup> And so I insist--and God backs me up on this--that there be no going along with the crowd, the empty-headed, mindless crowd.

<sup>18</sup> They've refused for so long to deal with God that they've lost touch not only with God but with reality itself.

<sup>19</sup> They can't think straight anymore. Feeling no pain, they let themselves go in sexual obsession, addicted to every sort of perversion.

<sup>20</sup> But that's no life for you. You learned Christ!

<sup>21</sup> My assumption is that you have paid careful attention to him, been well instructed in the truth precisely as we have it in Jesus.

<sup>22</sup> Since, then, we do not have the excuse of ignorance, everything--and I do mean everything--connected with that old way of life has to go. It's rotten through and through. Get rid of it! And then take on an entirely new way of life--a God-fashioned life,

<sup>25</sup> What this adds up to, then, is this: no more lies, no more pretense. Tell your neighbor the truth. In Christ's body we're all connected to each other, after all. When you lie to others, you end up lying to yourself.

<sup>26</sup> Go ahead and be angry. You do well to be angry--but don't use your anger as fuel for revenge. And don't stay angry. Don't go to bed angry.

<sup>27</sup> Don't give the Devil that kind of foothold in your life.

<sup>28</sup> Did you used to make ends meet by stealing? Well, no more! Get an honest job so that you can help others who can't work.

<sup>29</sup> Watch the way you talk. Let nothing foul or dirty come out of your mouth. Say only what helps, each word a gift.

<sup>30</sup> Don't grieve God. Don't break his heart. His Holy Spirit, moving and breathing in you, is the most intimate part of your life, making you fit for himself. Don't take such a gift for granted.

<sup>32</sup> Be gentle with one another, sensitive. Forgive one another as quickly and thoroughly as God in Christ forgave you.

5 <sup>1</sup> Watch what God does, and then you do it, like children who learn proper behavior from their parents.

<sup>2</sup> Mostly what God does is love you. Keep company with him and learn a life of love. Observe how Christ loved us. His love was not cautious but extravagant. He didn't love in order to get something from us but to give everything of himself to us. Love like that.

<sup>3</sup> Don't allow love to turn into lust, setting off a downhill slide into sexual promiscuity, filthy practices, or bullying greed.

<sup>4</sup> Though some tongues just love the taste of gossip, Christians have better uses for language than that. Don't talk dirty or silly. That kind of talk doesn't fit our style. Thanksgiving is our dialect.

<sup>5</sup> You can be sure that using people or religion or things just for what you can get out of them--the usual variations on idolatry--will get you nowhere, and certainly nowhere near the kingdom of Christ, the kingdom of God.

<sup>8</sup> You groped your way through that murk once, but no longer. You're out in the open now. The bright light of Christ makes your way plain. So no more stumbling around. Get on with it!

<sup>9</sup> The good, the right, the true--these are the actions appropriate for daylight hours.

<sup>11</sup> Don't waste your time on useless work, mere busywork, the barren pursuits of darkness. Expose these things for the sham they are.

<sup>12</sup> It's a scandal when people waste their lives on things they must do in the darkness where no one will see.

<sup>13</sup> Rip the cover off those frauds and see how attractive they look in the light of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> Wake up from your sleep, Climb out of your coffins; Christ will show you the light!

<sup>18</sup> Don't drink too much wine. That cheapens your life. Drink the Spirit of God, huge draughts of him.

<sup>19</sup> Sing hymns instead of drinking songs! Sing songs from your heart to Christ.

<sup>20</sup> Sing praises over everything, any excuse for a song to God the Father in the name of our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>21</sup> Out of respect for Christ, be courteously reverent to one another.

<sup>22</sup> Wives, understand and support your husbands in ways that show your support for Christ.

<sup>23</sup> The husband provides leadership to his wife the way Christ does to his church, not by domineering but by cherishing.

<sup>24</sup> So just as the church submits to Christ as he exercises such leadership, wives should likewise submit to their husbands.

<sup>25</sup> Husbands, go all out in your love for your wives, exactly as Christ did for the church--a love marked by giving, not getting.

<sup>26</sup> Christ's love makes the church whole. His words evoke her beauty. Everything he does and says is designed to bring the best out of her,

<sup>29</sup> No one abuses his own body, does he? No, he feeds and pampers it. That's how Christ treats us, the church,

<sup>31</sup> And this is why a man leaves father and mother and cherishes his wife. No longer two, they become "one flesh."

<sup>32</sup> This is a huge mystery, and I don't pretend to understand it all. What is clearest to me is the way Christ treats the church.

<sup>33</sup> And this provides a good picture of how each husband is to treat his wife, loving himself in loving her, and how each wife is to honor her husband.

<sup>2</sup> "Honor your father and mother" is the first commandment that has a promise attached to it, namely,

<sup>3</sup> "so you will live well and have a long life."

<sup>5</sup> Servants, respectfully obey your earthly masters but always with an eye to obeying the [real] master, Christ.

<sup>6</sup> Don't just do what you have to do to get by, but work heartily, as Christ's servants doing what God wants you to do.

<sup>7</sup> And work with a smile on your face, always keeping in mind that no matter who happens to be giving the orders, you're really serving God.

<sup>8</sup> Good work will get you good pay from the Master, regardless of whether you are slave or free.

<sup>9</sup> Masters, it's the same with you. No abuse, please, and no threats. You and your servants are both under the same Master in heaven. He makes no distinction between you and them.

<sup>10</sup> And that about wraps it up. God is strong, and he wants you strong.

<sup>11</sup> So take everything the Master has set out for you, well-made weapons of the best materials. And put them to use so you will be able to stand up to everything the Devil throws your way.

<sup>12</sup> This is no afternoon athletic contest that we'll walk away from and forget about in a couple of hours. This is for keeps, a life-or-death fight to the finish against the Devil and all his angels.

<sup>13</sup> Be prepared. You're up against far more than you can handle on your own. Take all the help you can get, every weapon God has issued, so that when it's all over but the shouting you'll still be on your feet.

<sup>17</sup> and salvation are more than words. Learn how to apply them. You'll need them throughout your life. God's Word is an [indispensable] weapon.

<sup>18</sup> In the same way, prayer is essential in this ongoing warfare. Pray hard and long. Pray for your brothers and sisters. Keep your eyes open. Keep each other's spirits up so that no one falls behind or drops out.

<sup>19</sup> And don't forget to pray for me. Pray that I'll know what to say and have the courage to say it at the right time, telling the mystery to one and all, the Message that I, <sup>20</sup> jailbird preacher that I am, am responsible for getting out.

<sup>21</sup> Tychicus, my good friend here, will tell you what I'm doing and how things are going with me. He is certainly a dependable servant of the Master!

<sup>22</sup> I've sent him not only to tell you about us but to cheer you on in your faith.

<sup>24</sup> Pure grace and nothing but grace be with all who love our Master, Jesus Christ.

Philippians

1 <sup>1</sup> Paul and Timothy, both of us committed servants of Christ Jesus, write this letter to all the Christians in Philippi, pastors and ministers included.

<sup>2</sup> We greet you with the grace and peace that comes from God our Father and our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Every time you cross my mind, I break out in exclamations of thanks to God.

<sup>4</sup> Each exclamation is a trigger to prayer. I find myself praying for you with a glad heart.

<sup>5</sup> I am so pleased that you have continued on in this with us, believing and proclaiming God's Message, from the day you heard it right up to the present.

<sup>6</sup> There has never been the slightest doubt in my mind that the God who started this great work in you would keep at it and bring it to a flourishing finish on the very day Christ Jesus appears.

<sup>7</sup> It's not at all fanciful for me to think this way about you. My prayers and hopes have deep roots in reality. You have, after all, stuck with me all the way from the time I was thrown in jail, put on trial, and came out of it in one piece. All along you have experienced with me the most generous help from God.

<sup>8</sup> He knows how much I love and miss you these days. Sometimes I think I feel as strongly about you as Christ does!

<sup>9</sup> So this is my prayer: that your love will flourish and that you will not only love much but well. Learn to love appropriately. You need to use your head and test your feelings

<sup>10</sup> so that your love is sincere and intelligent, not sentimental gush. Live a lover's life, circumspect and exemplary, a life Jesus will be proud of:

<sup>11</sup> bountiful in fruits from the soul, making Jesus Christ attractive to all, getting everyone involved in the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup> I want to report to you, friends, that my imprisonment here has had the opposite of its intended effect. Instead of being squelched, the Message has actually prospered.

<sup>13</sup> All the soldiers here, and everyone else too, found out that I'm in jail because of this Messiah. That piqued their curiosity, and now they've learned all about him.

<sup>14</sup> Not only that, but most of the Christians here have become far more sure of themselves in the faith than ever, speaking out fearlessly about God, about the Messiah.

<sup>15</sup> It's true that some here preach Christ because with me out of the way, they think they'll step right into the spotlight. But the others do it with the best heart in the world.

<sup>16</sup> One group is motivated by pure love, knowing that I am here defending the Message, wanting to help.

<sup>17</sup> The others, now that I'm out of the picture, are merely greedy, hoping to get something out of it for themselves. Their motives are bad. They see me as their competition, and so the worse it goes for me, the better--they think--for them.

<sup>18</sup> So how am I to respond? I've decided that I really don't care about their motives, whether mixed, bad, or indifferent. Every time one of them opens his mouth, Christ is proclaimed, so I just cheer them on! And I'm going to keep that celebration going <sup>19</sup> because I know how it's going to turn out. Through your faithful prayers and the generous response of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, everything he wants to do in and through me will be done.

<sup>20</sup> I can hardly wait to continue on my course. I don't expect to be embarrassed in the least. On the contrary, everything happening to me in this jail only serves to make Christ more accurately known, regardless of whether I live or die. They didn't shut me up; they gave me a pulpit!

<sup>22</sup> As long as I'm alive in this body, there is good work for me to do. If I had to choose right now, I hardly know which I'd choose.

<sup>24</sup> But most days, because of what you are going through, I am sure that it's better for me to stick it out here.

<sup>25</sup> So I plan to be around awhile, companion to you as your growth and joy in this life of trusting God continues.

<sup>26</sup> You can start looking forward to a great reunion when I come visit you again. We'll be praising Christ, enjoying each other.

<sup>27</sup> Meanwhile, live in such a way that you are a credit to the Message of Christ. Let nothing in your conduct hang on whether I come or not. Your conduct must be the same whether I show up to see things for myself or hear of it from a distance. Stand united, singular in vision, contending for people's trust in the Message, the good news, <sup>28</sup> not flinching or dodging in the slightest before the opposition. Your courage and unity will show them what they're up against: defeat for them, victory for you--and both because of God.

<sup>29</sup> There's far more to this life than trusting in Christ. There's also suffering for him. And the suffering is as much a gift as the trusting.

<sup>30</sup> You're involved in the same kind of struggle you saw me go through, on which you are now getting an updated report in this letter.

2 <sup>1</sup> If you've gotten anything at all out of following Christ, if his love has made any difference in your life, if being in a community of the Spirit means anything to you, if you have a heart, if you [care]--

<sup>2</sup> then do me a favor: Agree with each other, love each other, be deep-spirited friends.

<sup>6</sup> He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what.

<sup>7</sup> Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became [human]!

<sup>8</sup> Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death--and the worst kind of death at that: a crucifixion.

<sup>9</sup> Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honored him far beyond anyone or anything, ever,

<sup>10</sup> so that all created beings in heaven and on earth--even those long ago dead and buried--will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, <sup>11</sup> and call out in praise that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honor of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup> What I'm getting at, friends, is that you should simply keep on doing what you've done from the beginning. When I was living among you, you lived in responsive obedience. Now that I'm separated from you, keep it up. Better yet, redouble your efforts. Be energetic in your life of salvation, reverent and sensitive before God.

<sup>13</sup> That energy is [God's] energy, an energy deep within you, God himself willing and working at what will give him the most pleasure.

<sup>14</sup> Do everything readily and cheerfully-
-no bickering, no second-guessing allowed!

<sup>15</sup> Go out into the world uncorrupted, a breath of fresh air in this squalid and polluted society. Provide people with a glimpse of good living and of the living God. Carry the light-giving Message into the night

<sup>16</sup> so I'll have good cause to be proud of you on the day that Christ returns. You'll be living proof that I didn't go to all this work for nothing.

<sup>17</sup> Even if I am executed here and now, I'll rejoice in being an element in the offering of your faith that you make on Christ's altar, a part of your rejoicing.

<sup>18</sup> But turnabout's fair play--you must join me in my rejoicing. Whatever you do, don't feel sorry for me.

<sup>19</sup> I plan (according to Jesus' plan) to send Timothy to you very soon so he can bring back all the news of you he can gather. Oh, how that will do my heart good!

<sup>20</sup> I have no one quite like Timothy. He is loyal, and genuinely concerned for you.

<sup>22</sup> But you know yourselves that Timothy's the real thing. He's been a devoted son to me as together we've delivered the Message.

<sup>23</sup> As soon as I see how things are going to fall out for me here, I plan to send him off.

<sup>25</sup> But for right now, I'm dispatching Epaphroditus, my good friend and companion in my work. You sent him to help me out; now I'm sending him to help you out.

<sup>26</sup> He has been wanting in the worst way to get back with you. Especially since recovering from the illness you heard about, he's been wanting to get back and reassure you that he is just fine.

<sup>27</sup> He nearly died, as you know, but God had mercy on him. And not only on him--he had mercy on me, too. His death would have been one huge grief piled on top of all the others.

<sup>28</sup> So you can see why I'm so delighted to send him on to you. When you see him again, hale and hearty, how you'll rejoice and how relieved I'll be.

<sup>29</sup> Give him a grand welcome, a joyful embrace! People like him deserve the best you can give.

<sup>30</sup> Remember the ministry to me that you started but weren't able to complete? Well, in the process of finishing up that work, he put his life on the line and nearly died doing it.

3 <sup>1</sup> And that's about it, friends. Be glad in God! I don't mind repeating what I have written in earlier letters, and I hope you don't mind hearing it again. Better safe than sorry--so here goes.

<sup>2</sup> Steer clear of the barking dogs, those religious busybodies, all bark and no bite. All they're interested in is appearances--knife-happy circumcisers, I call them.

<sup>3</sup> The [real] believers are the ones the Spirit of God leads to work away at this ministry, filling the air with Christ's praise as we do it. We couldn't carry this off by our own efforts, and we know it--

<sup>4</sup> even though we can list what many might think are impressive credentials. You know my pedigree:

<sup>5</sup> a legitimate birth, circumcised on the eighth day; an Israelite from the elite tribe of Benjamin; a strict and devout adherent to God's law;

<sup>6</sup> a fiery defender of the purity of my religion, even to the point of persecuting Christians; a meticulous observer of everything set down in God's law Book.

<sup>7</sup> The very credentials these people are waving around as something special, I'm tearing up and throwing out with the trash--along with everything else I used to take credit for. And why? Because of Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, all the things I once thought were so important are gone from my life. Compared to the high privilege of knowing Christ Jesus as my Master, firsthand, everything I once thought I had going for me is insignificant--dog dung. I've dumped it all in the trash so that I could embrace Christ

<sup>9</sup> and be embraced by him. I didn't want some petty, inferior brand of righteousness that comes from keeping a list of rules when I could get the robust kind that comes from trusting Christ--[God's] righteousness.

<sup>10</sup> I gave up all that inferior stuff so I could know Christ personally, experience his resurrection power, be a partner in his suffering, and go all the way with him to death itself.

<sup>11</sup> If there was any way to get in on the resurrection from the dead, I wanted to do it.

<sup>12</sup> I'm not saying that I have this all together, that I have it made. But I am well on my way, reaching out for Christ, who has so wondrously reached out for me.

<sup>13</sup> Friends, don't get me wrong: By no means do I count myself an expert in all of this, but I've got my eye on the goal, where God is beckoning us onward--to Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> So let's keep focused on that goal, those of us who want everything God has for us. If any of you have something else in mind, something less than total commitment, God will clear your blurred vision--you'll see it yet!

<sup>17</sup> Stick with me, friends. Keep track of those you see running this same course, headed for this same goal.

<sup>18</sup> There are many out there taking other paths, choosing other goals, and trying to get you to go along with them. I've warned you of them many times; sadly, I'm having to do it again. All they want is easy street. They hate Christ's Cross.

<sup>19</sup> But easy street is a dead-end street. Those who live there make their bellies their gods; belches are their praise; all they can think of is their appetites.

<sup>20</sup> But there's far more to life for us. We're citizens of high heaven! We're waiting the arrival of the Savior, the Master, Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who will transform our earthy bodies into glorious bodies like his own. He'll make us beautiful and whole with the same powerful skill by which he is putting everything as it should be, under and around him.

4 <sup>1</sup> My dear, dear friends! I love you so much. I do want the very best for you. You make me feel such joy, fill me with such pride. Don't waver. Stay on track, steady in God.

<sup>2</sup> I urge Euodia and Syntyche to iron out their differences and make up. God doesn't want his children holding grudges.

<sup>3</sup> And, oh, yes, Syzygus, since you're right there to help them work things out, do your best with them. These women worked for the Message hand in hand with Clement and me, and with the other veterans--worked as hard as any of us. Remember, their names are also in the book of life.

<sup>4</sup> Celebrate God all day, every day. I mean, [revel] in him!

<sup>5</sup> Make it as clear as you can to all you meet that you're on their side, working with them and not against them. Help them see that the Master is about to arrive. He could show up any minute!

<sup>6</sup> Don't fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns.

<sup>7</sup> Before you know it, a sense of God's wholeness, everything coming together for good, will come and settle you down. It's wonderful what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life.

<sup>8</sup> Summing it all up, friends, I'd say you'll do best by filling your minds and meditating on things true, noble, reputable, authentic, compelling, gracious--the best, not the worst; the beautiful, not the ugly; things to praise, not things to curse.

<sup>9</sup> Put into practice what you learned from me, what you heard and saw and realized. Do that, and God, who makes everything work together, will work you into his most excellent harmonies.

<sup>10</sup> I'm glad in God, far happier than you would ever guess--happy that you're again showing such strong concern for me. Not that you ever quit praying and thinking about me. You just had no chance to show it.

<sup>11</sup> Actually, I don't have a sense of needing anything personally. I've learned by now to be quite content whatever my circumstances.

<sup>12</sup> I'm just as happy with little as with much, with much as with little. I've found the recipe for being happy whether full or hungry, hands full or hands empty.

<sup>13</sup> Whatever I have, wherever I am, I can make it through anything in the One who makes me who I am.

<sup>14</sup> I don't mean that your help didn't mean a lot to me--it did. It was a beautiful thing that you came alongside me in my troubles.

<sup>15</sup> You Philippians well know, and you can be sure I'll never forget it, that when I first left Macedonia province, venturing out with the Message, not one church helped out in the give-and-take of this work except you. You were the only one.

<sup>16</sup> Even while I was in Thessalonica, you helped out--and not only once, but twice.

<sup>17</sup> Not that I'm looking for handouts, but I do want you to experience the blessing that issues from generosity.

<sup>18</sup> And now I have it all--and keep getting more! The gifts you sent with Epaphroditus were more than enough, like a sweet-smelling sacrifice roasting on the altar, filling the air with fragrance, pleasing God no end.

<sup>19</sup> You can be sure that God will take care of everything you need, his generosity exceeding even yours in the glory that pours from Jesus.

<sup>20</sup> Our God and Father abounds in glory that just pours out into eternity. Yes.

<sup>21</sup> Give our regards to every Christian you meet. Our friends here say hello.

<sup>22</sup> All the Christians here, especially the believers who work in the palace of Caesar, want to be remembered to you.

<sup>23</sup> Receive and experience the amazing grace of the Master, Jesus Christ, deep, deep within yourselves.

Colossians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, have been sent on special assignment by Christ as part of God's master plan. Together with my friend Timothy, <sup>2</sup> I greet the Christians and stalwart followers of Christ who live in Colosse. May everything good from God our Father be yours!

<sup>3</sup> Our prayers for you are always spilling over into thanksgivings. We can't quit thanking God our Father and Jesus our Messiah for you!

<sup>4</sup> We keep getting reports on your steady faith in Christ, our Jesus, and the love you continuously extend to all Christians.

<sup>5</sup> The lines of purpose in your lives never grow slack, tightly tied as they are to your future in heaven, kept taut by hope. The Message is as true among you today as when you first heard it. It doesn't diminish or weaken over time.

<sup>6</sup> It's the same all over the world. The Message bears fruit and gets larger and stronger, just as it has in you. From the very first day you heard and recognized the truth of what God is doing, you've been hungry for more.

<sup>7</sup> It's as vigorous in you now as when you learned it from our friend and close associate Epaphras. He is one reliable worker for Christ! I could always depend on him.

<sup>8</sup> He's the one who told us how thoroughly love had been worked into your lives by the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> Be assured that from the first day we heard of you, we haven't stopped praying for you, asking God to give you wise minds and spirits attuned to his will, and so acquire a thorough understanding of the ways in which God works.

<sup>10</sup> We pray that you'll live well for the Master, making him proud of you as you work hard in his orchard. As you learn more and more how God works, you will learn how to do your work.

<sup>11</sup> We pray that you'll have the strength to stick it out over the long haul--not the grim strength of gritting your teeth but the glory-strength God gives. It is strength that endures the unendurable and spills over into joy, <sup>12</sup> thanking the Father who makes us strong enough to take part in everything bright and beautiful that he has for us.

<sup>13</sup> God rescued us from dead-end alleys and dark dungeons. He's set us up in the kingdom of the Son he loves so much, <sup>14</sup> the Son who got us out of the pit we were in, got rid of the sins we were doomed to keep repeating.

<sup>15</sup> We look at this Son and see the God who cannot be seen. We look at this Son and see God's original purpose in everything created.

<sup>16</sup> For everything, absolutely everything, above and below, visible and invisible, rank after rank after rank of angels--[everything] got started in him and finds its purpose in him.

<sup>17</sup> He was there before any of it came into existence and holds it all together right up to this moment.

<sup>18</sup> And when it comes to the church, he organizes and holds it together, like a head does a body. He was supreme in the beginning and--leading the resurrection parade--he is supreme in the end. From beginning to end he's there, towering far above everything, everyone.

<sup>19</sup> So spacious is he, so roomy, that everything of God finds its proper place in him without crowding.

<sup>20</sup> Not only that, but all the broken and dislocated pieces of the universe--people and things, animals and atoms--get properly fixed and fit together in vibrant harmonies, all because of his death, his blood that poured down from the Cross.

<sup>21</sup> You yourselves are a case study of what he does. At one time you all had your backs turned to God, thinking rebellious thoughts of him, giving him trouble every chance you got.

<sup>22</sup> But now, by giving himself completely at the Cross, actually [dying] for you, Christ brought you over to God's side and put your lives together, whole and holy in his presence.

<sup>23</sup> You don't walk away from a gift like that! You stay grounded and steady in that bond of trust, constantly tuned in to the Message, careful not to be distracted or diverted. There is no other Message--just this one. Every creature under heaven gets this same Message. I, Paul, am a messenger of this Message.

<sup>24</sup> I want you to know how glad I am that it's me sitting here in this jail and not you. There's a lot of suffering to be entered into in this world--the kind of suffering Christ takes on. I welcome the chance to take my share in the church's part of that suffering.

<sup>25</sup> When I became a servant in this church, I experienced this suffering as a sheer gift, God's way of helping me serve you, laying out the whole truth.

<sup>26</sup> This mystery has been kept in the dark for a long time, but now it's out in the open.

<sup>27</sup> God wanted everyone, not just Jews, to know this rich and glorious secret inside and out, regardless of their background, regardless of their religious standing. The mystery in a nutshell is just this: Christ is in you, therefore you can look forward to sharing in God's glory. It's that simple. That is the substance of our Message.

<sup>28</sup> We preach [Christ], warning people not to add to the Message. We teach in a spirit of profound common sense so that we can bring each person to maturity. To be mature is to be basic. Christ! No more, no less.

<sup>29</sup> That's what I'm working so hard at day after day, year after year, doing my best with the energy God so generously gives me.

2<sup>1</sup> I want you to realize that I continue to work as hard as I know how for you, and also for the Christians over at Laodicea. Not many of you have met me face-to-face, but that doesn't make any difference. Know that I'm on your side, right alongside you. You're not in this alone.

<sup>2</sup> I want you woven into a tapestry of love, in touch with everything there is to know of God. Then you will have minds confident and at rest, focused on Christ, God's great mystery.

<sup>3</sup> All the richest treasures of wisdom and knowledge are embedded in that mystery and nowhere else. And we've been shown the mystery!

<sup>4</sup> I'm telling you this because I don't want anyone leading you off on some wild-goose chase, after other so-called mysteries, or "the Secret."

<sup>5</sup> I'm a long way off, true, and you may never lay eyes on me, but believe me, I'm on your side, right beside you. I am delighted to hear of the careful and orderly ways you conduct your affairs, and impressed with the solid substance of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup> My counsel for you is simple and straightforward: Just go ahead with what you've been given. You received Christ Jesus, the Master; now [live] him.

<sup>7</sup> You're deeply rooted in him. You're well constructed upon him. You know your way around the faith. Now do what you've been taught. School's out; quit studying the subject and start [living] it! And let your living spill over into thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup> Watch out for people who try to dazzle you with big words and intellectual double-talk. They want to drag you off into endless arguments that never amount to anything. They spread their ideas through the empty traditions of human beings and the empty superstitions of spirit beings. But that's not the way of Christ.

<sup>9</sup> Everything of God gets expressed in him, so you can see and hear him clearly. You don't need a telescope, a microscope, or a horoscope to realize the fullness of Christ, and the emptiness of the universe without him.

<sup>10</sup> When you come to him, that fullness comes together for you, too. His power extends over everything.

<sup>11</sup> Entering into this fullness is not something you figure out or achieve. It's not a matter of being circumcised or keeping a long list of laws. No, you're already [in]--insiders--not through some secretive initiation rite but rather through what Christ has already gone through for you, destroying the power of sin.

<sup>12</sup> If it's an initiation ritual you're after, you've already been through it by submitting to baptism. Going under the water was a burial of your old life; coming up out of it was a resurrection, God raising you from the dead as he did Christ.

<sup>13</sup> When you were stuck in your old sin-dead life, you were incapable of responding to God. God brought you alive--right along with Christ! Think of it! All sins forgiven,

<sup>16</sup> So don't put up with anyone pressuring you in details of diet, worship services, or holy days.

<sup>17</sup> All those things are mere shadows cast before what was to come; the substance is Christ.

<sup>18</sup> Don't tolerate people who try to run your life, ordering you to bow and scrape, insisting that you join their obsession with angels and that you seek out visions. They're a lot of hot air, that's all they are.

<sup>19</sup> They're completely out of touch with the source of life, Christ, who puts us together in one piece, whose very breath and blood flow through us. He is the Head and we are the body. We can grow up healthy in God only as he nourishes us.

<sup>20</sup> So, then, if with Christ you've put all that pretentious and infantile religion behind you, why do you let yourselves be bullied by it?

<sup>22</sup> Do you think things that are here today and gone tomorrow are worth that kind of attention?

<sup>23</sup> Such things sound impressive if said in a deep enough voice. They even give the illusion of being pious and humble and ascetic. But they're just another way of showing off, making yourselves look important.

3<sup>1</sup> So if you're serious about living this new resurrection life with Christ, [act] like it. Pursue the things over which Christ presides.

<sup>2</sup> Don't shuffle along, eyes to the ground, absorbed with the things right in front of you. Look up, and be alert to what is going on around Christ--that's where the action is. See things from his perspective.

<sup>3</sup> Your old life is dead. Your new life, which is your [real] life--even though invisible to spectators--is with Christ in God. [He] is your life.

<sup>4</sup> When Christ (your real life, remember) shows up again on this earth, you'll show up, too--the real you, the glorious you.

Meanwhile, be content with obscurity, like Christ.

<sup>5</sup> And that means killing off everything connected with that way of death: sexual promiscuity, impurity, lust, doing whatever you feel like whenever you feel like it, and grabbing whatever attracts your fancy. That's a life shaped by things and feelings instead of by God.

<sup>6</sup> It's because of this kind of thing that God is about to explode in anger.

<sup>7</sup> It wasn't long ago that you were doing all that stuff and not knowing any better.

<sup>8</sup> But you know better now, so make sure it's all gone for good: bad temper, irritability, meanness, profanity, dirty talk.

<sup>10</sup> Now you're dressed in a new wardrobe. Every item of your new way of life is custom-made by the Creator, with his label on it. All the old fashions are now obsolete.

<sup>11</sup> Words like Jewish and non-Jewish, religious and irreligious, insider and outsider, uncivilized and uncouth, slave and free, mean nothing. From now on everyone is defined by Christ, everyone is included in Christ.

<sup>12</sup> So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline.

<sup>13</sup> Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you.

<sup>14</sup> And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It's your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it.

<sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness.

<sup>16</sup> Let the Word of Christ--the Message--have the run of the house. Give it plenty of room in your lives. Instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And sing, sing your hearts out to God!

<sup>17</sup> Let every detail in your lives--words, actions, whatever--be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Father every step of the way.

<sup>18</sup> Wives, understand and support your husbands by submitting to them in ways that honor the Master.

<sup>19</sup> Husbands, go all out in love for your wives. Don't take advantage of them.

<sup>21</sup> Parents, don't come down too hard on your children or you'll crush their spirits.

<sup>25</sup> The sullen servant who does shoddy work will be held responsible. Being Christian doesn't cover up bad work.

4 <sup>1</sup> And masters, treat your servants considerately. Be fair with them. Don't forget for a minute that you, too, serve a Master--God in heaven.

<sup>3</sup> Don't forget to pray for us, that God will open doors for telling the mystery of Christ, even while I'm locked up in this jail.

<sup>4</sup> Pray that every time I open my mouth I'll be able to make Christ plain as day to them.

<sup>5</sup> Use your heads as you live and work among outsiders. Don't miss a trick. Make the most of every opportunity.

<sup>6</sup> Be gracious in your speech. The goal is to bring out the best in others in a conversation, not put them down, not cut them out.

<sup>7</sup> My good friend Tychicus will tell you all about me. He's a trusted minister and companion in the service of the Master.

<sup>8</sup> I've sent him to you so that you would know how things are with us, and so he could encourage you in your faith.

<sup>9</sup> And I've sent Onesimus with him. Onesimus is one of you, and has become such a trusted and dear brother!

Together they'll bring you up-to-date on everything that has been going on here.

<sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, who is in jail here with me, sends greetings; also Mark, cousin of Barnabas (you received a letter regarding him; if he shows up, welcome him);

<sup>11</sup> and also Jesus, the one they call Justus. These are the only ones left from the old crowd who have stuck with me in working for God's kingdom. Don't think they haven't been a big help!

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, says hello. What a trooper he has been! He's been tireless in his prayers for you, praying that you'll stand firm, mature and confident in everything God wants you to do.

<sup>13</sup> I've watched him closely, and can report on how hard he has worked for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>15</sup> Say hello to our friends in Laodicea; also to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

<sup>16</sup> After this letter has been read to you, make sure it gets read also in Laodicea. And get the letter that went to Laodicea and have it read to you.

<sup>17</sup> And, oh, yes, tell Archippus, "Do your best in the job you received from the Master. Do your very best."

<sup>18</sup> I'm signing off in my own handwriting--Paul. Remember to pray for me in this jail. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, together here with Silas and Timothy, send greetings to the church at Thessalonica, Christians assembled by God the Father and by the Master, Jesus Christ. God's amazing grace be with you! God's robust peace!

<sup>2</sup> Every time we think of you, we thank God for you. Day and night you're in our prayers

<sup>3</sup> as we call to mind your work of faith, your labor of love, and your patience of hope in following our Master, Jesus Christ, before God our Father.

<sup>4</sup> It is clear to us, friends, that God not only loves you very much but also has put his hand on you for something special.

<sup>5</sup> When the Message we preached came to you, it wasn't just words. Something happened in you. The Holy Spirit put steel in your convictions. You paid careful attention to the way we lived among you, <sup>6</sup> and determined to live that way yourselves. In imitating us, you imitated the Master. Although great trouble accompanied the Word, you were able to take great joy from the Holy Spirit!--taking the trouble with the joy, the joy with the trouble.

<sup>7</sup> Do you know that all over the provinces of both Macedonia and Achaia believers look up to you?

<sup>8</sup> The word has gotten around. Your lives are echoing the Master's Word, not only in the provinces but all over the place. The news of your faith in God is out. We don't even have to say anything anymore--[you're] the message!

<sup>9</sup> People come up and tell us how you received us with open arms, how you deserted the dead idols of your old life so you could embrace and serve God, the true God.

<sup>10</sup> They marvel at how expectantly you await the arrival of his Son, whom he raised from the dead--Jesus, who rescued us from certain doom.

2 <sup>1</sup> So, friends, it's obvious that our visit to you was no waste of time.

<sup>2</sup> We had just been given rough treatment in Philippi, as you know, but that didn't slow us down. We were sure of ourselves in God, and went right ahead and said our piece, presenting God's Message to you, defiant of the opposition.

<sup>3</sup> God tested us thoroughly to make sure we were qualified to be trusted with this Message.

<sup>4</sup> Be assured that when we speak to you we're not after crowd approval--only God approval. Since we've been put through that battery of tests, you're guaranteed that both we and the Message are free of error, mixed motives, or hidden agendas.

<sup>5</sup> We never used words to butter you up. No one knows that better than you. And God knows we never used words as a smoke screen to take advantage of you.

<sup>6</sup> Even though we had some standing as Christ's apostles, we never threw our weight around or tried to come across as important, with you or anyone else.

<sup>7</sup> We weren't aloof with you. We took you just as you were. We were never patronizing, never condescending, but we cared for you the way a mother cares for her children.

<sup>8</sup> We loved you dearly. Not content to just pass on the Message, we wanted to give you our hearts. And we [did].

<sup>9</sup> You remember us in those days, friends, working our fingers to the bone, up half the night, moonlighting so you wouldn't have the burden of supporting us while we proclaimed God's Message to you.

<sup>10</sup> You saw with your own eyes how discreet and courteous we were among you, with keen sensitivity to you as fellow believers. And God knows we weren't freeloaders!

<sup>11</sup> You experienced it all firsthand. With each of you we were like a father with his child, <sup>12</sup> holding your hand, whispering encouragement, showing you step-by-step how to live well before God, who called us into his own kingdom, into this delightful life.

<sup>13</sup> And now we look back on all this and thank God, an artesian well of thanks! When you got the Message of God we preached, you didn't pass it off as just one more human opinion, but you took it to heart as God's true word to you, which it is, God himself at work in you believers!

<sup>14</sup> Friends, do you realize that you followed in the exact footsteps of the churches of God in Judea, those who were the first to follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ? You got the same bad treatment from your countrymen as they did from theirs, the Jews

<sup>15</sup> who killed the Master Jesus (to say nothing of the prophets) and followed it up by running us out of town. They make themselves offensive to God and everyone else

<sup>16</sup> by trying to keep us from telling people who've never heard of our

God how to be saved. They've made a career of opposing God, and have gotten mighty good at it. But God is fed up, ready to put an end to it.

<sup>17</sup> Do you have any idea how very homesick we became for you, dear friends? Even though it hadn't been that long and it was only our bodies that were separated from you, not our hearts, we tried our very best to get back to see you.

<sup>18</sup> You can't imagine how much we missed you! I, Paul, tried over and over to get back, but Satan stymied us each time.

<sup>19</sup> Who do you think we're going to be proud of when our Master Jesus appears if it's not you?

3 <sup>1</sup> So when we couldn't stand being separated from you any longer and could find no way to visit you ourselves, we stayed in Athens <sup>2</sup> and sent Timothy to get you up and about, cheering you on so you wouldn't be discouraged by these hard times. He's a brother and companion in the faith, God's man in spreading the Message, preaching Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Not that the troubles should come as any surprise to you. You've always known that we're in for this kind of thing. It's part of our calling.

<sup>4</sup> When we were with you, we made it quite clear that there was trouble ahead. And now that it's happened, you know what it's like.

<sup>5</sup> That's why I couldn't quit worrying; I had to know for myself how you were doing in the faith. I didn't want the Tempter getting to you and tearing down everything we had built up together.

<sup>6</sup> But now that Timothy is back, bringing this terrific report on your faith and love, we feel a lot better. It's especially gratifying to know that you continue to think well of us, and that you want to see us as much as we want to see you!

<sup>7</sup> In the middle of our trouble and hard times here, just knowing how you're doing keeps us going.

<sup>9</sup> What would be an adequate thanksgiving to offer God for all the joy we experience before him because of you?

<sup>10</sup> We do what we can, praying away, night and day, asking for the bonus of seeing your faces again and doing what we can to help when your faith falters.

<sup>11</sup> May God our Father himself and our Master Jesus clear the road to you!

<sup>12</sup> And may the Master pour on the love so it fills your lives and splashes over on everyone around you, just as it does from us to you.

<sup>13</sup> May you be infused with strength and purity, filled with confidence in the presence of God our Father when our Master Jesus arrives with all his followers.

4 <sup>1</sup> One final word, friends. We ask you--urge is more like it--that you keep on doing what we told you to do to please God, not in a dogged religious plod, but in a living, spirited dance.

<sup>4</sup> Learn to appreciate and give dignity to your body, <sup>5</sup> not abusing it, as is so common among those who know nothing of God.

<sup>6</sup> Don't run roughshod over the concerns of your brothers and sisters. Their concerns are God's concerns, and [he] will take care of them. We've warned you about this before.

<sup>7</sup> God hasn't invited us into a disorderly, unkempt life but into something holy and beautiful--as beautiful on the inside as the outside.

<sup>8</sup> If you disregard this advice, you're not offending your neighbors; you're rejecting God, who is making you a gift of his Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> Regarding life together and getting along with each other, you don't need me to tell you what to do. You're [God]-taught in these matters. Just love one another!

<sup>11</sup> Stay calm; mind your own business; do your own job. You've heard all this from us before, but a reminder never hurts.

<sup>12</sup> We want you living in a way that will command the respect of outsiders, not lying around sponging off your friends.

<sup>13</sup> And regarding the question, friends, that has come up about what happens to those already dead and buried, we don't want you in the dark any longer. First off, you must not carry on over them like people who have nothing to look forward to, as if the grave were the last word.

<sup>14</sup> Since Jesus died and broke loose from the grave, God will most certainly bring back to life those who died in Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> And then this: We can tell you with complete confidence--we have the Master's word on it--that when the Master comes again to get us, those of us who are still alive will not get a jump on the dead and leave them behind. In actual fact, they'll be ahead of us.

<sup>16</sup> The Master himself will give the command. Archangel thunder! God's trumpet blast! He'll come down from heaven and the dead in Christ will rise--they'll go first.

<sup>17</sup> Then the rest of us who are still alive at the time will be caught up with them into the clouds to meet the Master.

<sup>18</sup> Oh, we'll be walking on air! And then there will be one huge family reunion with the Master. So reassure one another with these words.

5 <sup>1</sup> I don't think, friends, that I need to deal with the question of when all this is going to happen.

<sup>2</sup> You know as well as I that the day of the Master's coming can't be posted on our calendars. He won't call ahead and make an appointment any more than a burglar would.

<sup>3</sup> About the time everybody's walking around complacently, congratulating each other--"We've sure got it made! Now we can take it easy!"--suddenly everything will fall apart. It's going to come as suddenly and inescapably as birth pangs to a pregnant woman.

<sup>4</sup> But friends, you're not in the dark, so how could you be taken off guard by any of this?

<sup>5</sup> You're sons of Light, daughters of Day. We live under wide open skies and know where we stand.

<sup>6</sup> So let's not sleepwalk through life like those others. Let's keep our eyes open and be smart.

<sup>8</sup> But not us! Since we're creatures of Day, let's act like it. Walk out into the daylight sober, dressed up in faith, love, and the hope of salvation.

<sup>9</sup> God didn't set us up for an angry rejection but for salvation by our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>10</sup> He died for us, a death that triggered life. Whether we're awake with the living or asleep with the dead, we're alive with him!

<sup>12</sup> And now, friends, we ask you to honor those leaders who work so hard for you, who have been given the responsibility of urging and guiding you along in your obedience.

<sup>13</sup> Overwhelm them with appreciation and love! Get along among yourselves, each of you doing your part.

<sup>14</sup> Our counsel is that you warn the freeloaders to get a move on. Gently encourage the stragglers, and reach out for the exhausted, pulling them to their feet. Be patient with each person, attentive to individual needs.

<sup>15</sup> And be careful that when you get on each other's nerves you don't snap at each other. Look for the best in each other, and always do your best to bring it out.

<sup>18</sup> thank God no matter what happens.

This is the way God wants you who belong to Christ Jesus to live.

<sup>23</sup> May God himself, the God who makes everything holy and whole, make you holy and whole, put you together--spirit, soul, and body--and keep you fit for the coming of our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup> The One who called you is completely dependable. If he said it, he'll do it!

<sup>28</sup> The amazing grace of Jesus Christ be with you!

2 Thessalonians

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, together with Silas and Timothy, greet the church of the Thessalonian Christians in the name of God our Father and our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Our God gives you everything you need, makes you everything you're to be.

<sup>3</sup> You need to know, friends, that thanking God over and over for you is not only a pleasure; it's a must. We [have] to do it. Your faith is growing phenomenally; your love for each other is developing wonderfully. Why, it's only right that we give thanks.

<sup>4</sup> We're so proud of you; you're so steady and determined in your faith despite all the hard times that have come down on you. We tell everyone we meet in the churches all about you.

<sup>5</sup> All this trouble is a clear sign that God has decided to make you fit for the kingdom. You're suffering now, <sup>6</sup> but justice is on the way. When the Master Jesus appears out of heaven in a blaze of fire with his strong angels, he'll even up the score by settling accounts with those who gave you such a bad time.

<sup>8</sup> Those who refuse to know God and refuse to obey the Message will pay for what they've done.

<sup>10</sup> But on that very same day when he comes, he will be exalted by his followers and celebrated by all who believe--and all because you believed what we told you.

<sup>11</sup> Because we know that this extraordinary day is just ahead, we pray for you all the time--pray that our God will make you fit for what he's called you to be, pray that he'll fill your good ideas and acts of faith with his own energy so that it all amounts to something.

<sup>12</sup> If your life honors the name of Jesus, he will honor you. Grace is behind and through all of this, our God giving himself freely, the Master, Jesus Christ, giving himself freely.

2 <sup>1</sup> Now, friends, read these next words carefully. Slow down and don't go jumping to conclusions regarding the day when our Master, Jesus Christ, will come back and we assemble to welcome him.

<sup>2</sup> Don't let anyone shake you up or get you excited over some breathless report or rumored letter from me that the day of the Master's arrival has come and gone.

<sup>3</sup> Don't fall for any line like that. Before that day comes, a couple of things have to happen. First, the Apostasy. Second, the debut of the Anarchist, a real dog of Satan.

<sup>4</sup> He'll defy and then take over every so-called god or altar. Having cleared away the opposition, he'll then set himself up in God's Temple as "God Almighty."

<sup>5</sup> Don't you remember me going over all this in detail when I was with you? Are your memories that short?

<sup>6</sup> You'll also remember that I told you the Anarchist is being held back until just the right time.

<sup>7</sup> That doesn't mean that the spirit of anarchy is not now at work. It is, secretly and underground.

<sup>8</sup> But the time will come when the Anarchist will no longer be held back, but will be let loose. But don't worry. The Master Jesus will be right on his heels and blow him away. The Master appears and--puff!--the Anarchist is out of there.

<sup>9</sup> The Anarchist's coming is all Satan's work. All his power and signs and miracles are fake, <sup>10</sup> evil sleight of hand that plays to the gallery of those who hate the truth that could save them.

<sup>11</sup> And since they're so obsessed with evil, God rubs their noses in it--gives them what they want.

<sup>12</sup> Since they refuse to trust truth, they're banished to their chosen world of lies and illusions.

<sup>13</sup> Meanwhile, we've got our hands full continually thanking God for you, our good friends--so loved by God! God picked you out as his from the very start.

Think of it: included in God's original plan of salvation by the bond of faith in the living truth.

<sup>14</sup> This is the life of the Spirit he invited you to through the Message we delivered, in which you get in on the glory of our Master, Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> So, friends, take a firm stand, feet on the ground and head high. Keep a tight grip on what you were taught, whether in personal conversation or by our letter.

<sup>16</sup> May Jesus himself and God our Father, who reached out in love and surprised you with gifts of unending help and confidence,

3 <sup>1</sup> One more thing, friends: Pray for us. Pray that the Master's Word will simply take off and race through the country to a groundswell of response, just as it did among you.

<sup>2</sup> And pray that we'll be rescued from these scoundrels who are trying to do us in. I'm finding that not all "believers" are believers.

<sup>3</sup> But the Master never lets us down. He'll stick by you and protect you from evil.

<sup>4</sup> Because of the [Master], we have great confidence in [you]. We know you're doing everything we told you and will continue doing it.

<sup>5</sup> May the Master take you by the hand and lead you along the path of God's love and Christ's endurance.

<sup>6</sup> Our orders--backed up by the Master, Jesus--are to refuse to have anything to do with those among you who are lazy and refuse to work the way we taught you. Don't permit them to freeload on the rest.

<sup>7</sup> We showed you how to pull your weight when we were with you, so get on with it.

<sup>8</sup> We didn't sit around on our hands expecting others to take care of us. In fact, we worked our fingers to the bone, up half the night moonlighting so you wouldn't be burdened with taking care of us.

<sup>9</sup> And it wasn't because we didn't have a right to your support; we did. We simply wanted to provide an example of diligence, hoping it would prove contagious.

<sup>10</sup> Don't you remember the rule we had when we lived with you? "If you don't work, you don't eat."

<sup>11</sup> And now we're getting reports that a bunch of lazy good-for-nothings are taking advantage of you.

<sup>12</sup> This must not be tolerated. We command them to get to work immediately--no excuses, no arguments--and earn their own keep.

<sup>15</sup> But don't treat him as an enemy. Sit him down and talk about the problem as someone who cares.

<sup>16</sup> May the Master of Peace himself give you the gift of getting along with each other at all times, in all ways. May the Master be truly among you!

<sup>17</sup> I, Paul, bid you good-bye in my own handwriting. I do this in all my letters, so examine my signature as proof that the letter is genuine.

<sup>18</sup> The incredible grace of our Master,
Jesus Christ, be with all of you!

1 Timothy

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am an apostle on special assignment for Christ, our living hope. Under God our Savior's command, <sup>2</sup> I'm writing this to you, Timothy, my son in the faith. All the best from our God and Christ be yours!

<sup>3</sup> On my way to the province of Macedonia, I advised you to stay in Ephesus. Well, I haven't changed my mind. Stay right there on top of things so that the teaching stays on track.

<sup>4</sup> Apparently some people have been introducing fantasy stories and fanciful family trees that digress into silliness instead of pulling the people back into the center, deepening faith and obedience.

<sup>5</sup> The whole point of what we're urging is simply love--[love] uncontaminated by self-interest and counterfeit faith, a life open to God.

<sup>6</sup> Those who fail to keep to this point soon wander off into cul-de-sacs of gossip.

<sup>7</sup> They set themselves up as experts on religious issues, but haven't the remotest idea of what they're holding forth with such imposing eloquence.

<sup>8</sup> It's true that moral guidance and counsel need to be given, but the way you say it and to whom you say it are as important as what you say.

<sup>9</sup> It's obvious, isn't it, that the law code isn't primarily for people who live responsibly, but for the irresponsible, who defy all authority, riding roughshod over God, life,

<sup>11</sup> They are contemptuous of this great Message I've been put in charge of by this great God.

<sup>12</sup> I'm so grateful to Christ Jesus for making me adequate to do this work. He went out on a limb, you know, in trusting me with this ministry.

<sup>13</sup> The only credentials I brought to it were invective and witch hunts and arrogance. But I was treated mercifully because I didn't know what I was doing--didn't know Who I was doing it against!

<sup>14</sup> Grace mixed with faith and love poured over me and into me. And all because of Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Here's a word you can take to heart and depend on: Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. I'm proof--Public Sinner Number One--

<sup>16</sup> of someone who could never have made it apart from sheer mercy. And now he shows me off--evidence of his endless patience--to those who are right on the edge of trusting him forever.

<sup>17</sup> Deep honor and bright glory to the King of All Time--One God, Immortal, Invisible, ever and always. Oh, yes!

<sup>18</sup> I'm passing this work on to you, my son Timothy. The prophetic word that was directed to you prepared us for this. All those prayers are coming together now so you will do this well, fearless in your struggle, <sup>19</sup> keeping a firm grip on your faith and on yourself. After all, this is a fight we're in. There are some, you know, who by relaxing their grip and thinking anything goes have made a thorough mess of their faith.

<sup>20</sup> Hymenaeus and Alexander are two of them. I let them wander off to Satan to be taught a lesson or two about not blaspheming.

2 <sup>1</sup> The first thing I want you to do is pray. Pray every way you know how, for everyone you know.

<sup>2</sup> Pray especially for rulers and their governments to rule well so we can be quietly about our business of living simply, in humble contemplation.

<sup>3</sup> This is the way our Savior God wants us to live.

<sup>4</sup> He wants not only us but [everyone] saved, you know, everyone to get to know the truth [we've] learned:

<sup>5</sup> that there's one God and only one, and one Priest-Mediator between God and us--Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who offered himself in exchange for everyone held captive by sin, to set them all free. Eventually the news is going to get out.

<sup>7</sup> This and this only has been my appointed work: getting this news to those who have never heard of God, and explaining how it works by simple faith and plain truth.

<sup>8</sup> Since prayer is at the bottom of all this, what I want mostly is for men to pray--not shaking angry fists at enemies but raising holy hands to God.

<sup>9</sup> And I want women to get in there with the men in humility before God, not primping before a mirror or chasing the latest fashions

<sup>10</sup> but doing something beautiful for God and becoming beautiful doing it.

<sup>11</sup> I don't let women take over and tell the men what to do.

<sup>12</sup> They should study to be quiet and obedient along with everyone else.

<sup>13</sup> Adam was made first, then Eve;

But this salvation only comes to those who continue in faith, love, and holiness, gathering it all into maturity. You can depend on this.

3 <sup>1</sup> If anyone wants to provide leadership in the church, good!

<sup>2</sup> But there are preconditions: A leader must be well-thought-of, committed to his wife, cool and collected, accessible, and hospitable. He must know what he's talking about,

<sup>5</sup> For if someone is unable to handle his own affairs, how can he take care of God's church?

<sup>6</sup> He must not be a new believer, lest the position go to his head and the Devil trip him up.

<sup>7</sup> Outsiders must think well of him, or else the Devil will figure out a way to lure him into his trap.

<sup>8</sup> The same goes for those who want to be servants in the church: serious, not deceitful, not too free with the bottle, not in it for what they can get out of it.

<sup>9</sup> They must be reverent before the mystery of the faith, not using their position to try to run things.

<sup>10</sup> Let them prove themselves first. If they show they can do it, take them on.

<sup>11</sup> No exceptions are to be made for women--same qualifications: serious, dependable, not sharp-tongued, not overfond of wine.

<sup>12</sup> Servants in the church are to be committed to their spouses, attentive to their own children, and diligent in looking after their own affairs.

<sup>13</sup> Those who do this servant work will come to be highly respected, a real credit to this Jesus-faith.

<sup>14</sup> I hope to visit you soon, but just in case I'm delayed, I'm writing this letter so <sup>15</sup> you'll know how things ought to go in God's household, this God-alive church, bastion of truth.

<sup>16</sup> This Christian life is a great mystery, far exceeding our understanding, but some things are clear enough: He appeared in a human body, was proved right by the invisible Spirit, was seen by angels. He was proclaimed among all kinds of peoples, believed in all over the world, taken up into heavenly glory.

4 <sup>1</sup> The Spirit makes it clear that as time goes on, some are going to give up on the faith and chase after demonic illusions put forth by professional liars.

<sup>2</sup> These liars have lied so well and for so long that they've lost their capacity for truth.

<sup>3</sup> They will tell you not to get married. They'll tell you not to eat this or that food--perfectly good food God created to be eaten heartily and with thanksgiving by Christians!

<sup>4</sup> Everything God created is good, and to be received with thanks. Nothing is to be sneered at and thrown out.

<sup>5</sup> God's Word and our prayers make every item in creation holy.

<sup>6</sup> You've been raised on the Message of the faith and have followed sound teaching. Now pass on this counsel to the Christians there, and you'll be a good servant of Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> Stay clear of silly stories that get dressed up as religion. Exercise daily in God--no spiritual flabbiness, please!

<sup>8</sup> Workouts in the gymnasium are useful, but a disciplined life in God is far more so, making you fit both today and forever.

<sup>9</sup> You can count on this. Take it to heart.

<sup>10</sup> This is why we've thrown ourselves into this venture so totally. We're banking on the living God, Savior of all men and women, especially believers.

<sup>14</sup> And that special gift of ministry you were given when the leaders of the church laid hands on you and prayed--keep that dusted off and in use.

<sup>15</sup> Cultivate these things. Immerse yourself in them. The people will all see you mature right before their eyes!

<sup>16</sup> Keep a firm grasp on both your character and your teaching. Don't be diverted. Just keep at it. Both you and those who hear you will experience salvation.

5 <sup>1</sup> Don't be harsh or impatient with an older man. Talk to him as you would your own father, and to the younger men as your brothers.

<sup>2</sup> Reverently honor an older woman as you would your mother, and the younger women as sisters.

<sup>4</sup> If a widow has family members to take care of her, let them learn that religion begins at their own doorstep and that they should pay back with gratitude some of what they have received. This pleases God immensely.

<sup>5</sup> You can tell a legitimate widow by the way she has put all her hope in God, praying to him constantly for the needs of others as well as her own.

<sup>7</sup> Tell these things to the people so that they will do the right thing in their extended family.

<sup>8</sup> Anyone who neglects to care for family members in need repudiates the faith. That's worse than refusing to believe in the first place.

<sup>9</sup> Sign some widows up for the special ministry of offering assistance. They will in turn receive support from the church. They must be over sixty, married only once, <sup>10</sup> and have a reputation for helping out with children, strangers, tired Christians, the hurt and troubled.

<sup>16</sup> Any Christian woman who has widows in her family is responsible for them. They shouldn't be dumped on the church. The church has its hands full already with widows who need help.

<sup>17</sup> Give a bonus to leaders who do a good job, especially the ones who work hard at preaching and teaching.

<sup>19</sup> Don't listen to a complaint against a leader that isn't backed up by two or three responsible witnesses.

<sup>20</sup> If anyone falls into sin, call that person on the carpet. Those who are inclined that way will know right off they can't get by with it.

<sup>21</sup> God and Jesus and angels all back me up in these instructions. Carry them out without favoritism, without taking sides.

<sup>22</sup> Don't appoint people to church leadership positions too hastily. If a person is involved in some serious sins, you don't want to become an unwitting accomplice. In any event, keep a close check on yourself.

6 <sup>1</sup> Whoever is a slave must make the best of it, giving respect to his master so that outsiders don't blame God and our teaching for his behavior.

<sup>2</sup> Slaves with Christian masters all the more so--their masters are really their beloved brothers! These are the things I want you to teach and preach.

<sup>3</sup> If you have leaders there who teach otherwise, who refuse the solid words of our Master Jesus and this godly instruction, <sup>4</sup> tag them for what they are: ignorant windbags who infect the air with germs of envy, controversy, bad-mouthing, suspicious rumors.

<sup>5</sup> Eventually there's an epidemic of backstabbing, and truth is but a distant memory. They think religion is a way to make a fast buck.

<sup>6</sup> A devout life does bring wealth, but it's the rich simplicity of being yourself before God.

<sup>7</sup> Since we entered the world penniless and will leave it penniless, <sup>8</sup> if we have bread on the table and shoes on our feet, that's enough.

<sup>9</sup> But if it's only money these leaders are after, they'll self-destruct in no time.

<sup>10</sup> Lust for money brings trouble and nothing but trouble. Going down that path, some lose their footing in the faith completely and live to regret it bitterly ever after.

<sup>11</sup> But you, Timothy, man of God: Run for your life from all this. Pursue a righteous life--a life of wonder, faith, love, steadiness, courtesy.

<sup>12</sup> Run hard and fast in the faith. Seize the eternal life, the life you were called to, the life you so fervently embraced in the presence of so many witnesses.

<sup>13</sup> I'm charging you before the life-giving God and before Christ, who took his stand before Pontius Pilate and didn't give an inch:

<sup>14</sup> Keep this command to the letter, and don't slack off. Our Master, Jesus Christ, is on his way.

<sup>16</sup> He's the only one death can't touch, his light so bright no one can get close. He's never been seen by human eyes--human eyes can't take him in! Honor to him, and eternal rule! Oh, yes.

<sup>17</sup> Tell those rich in this world's wealth to quit being so full of themselves and so obsessed with money, which is here today and gone tomorrow. Tell them to go after God, who piles on all the riches we could ever manage--

<sup>18</sup> to do good, to be rich in helping others, to be extravagantly generous.

<sup>19</sup> If they do that, they'll build a treasury that will last, gaining life that is truly life.

<sup>20</sup> And oh, my dear Timothy, guard the treasure you were given! Guard it with your life. Avoid the talk-show religion and the practiced confusion of the so-called experts.

<sup>21</sup> People caught up in a lot of talk can miss the whole point of faith. Overwhelming grace keep you!

2 Timothy

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am on special assignment for Christ, carrying out God's plan laid out in the Message of Life by Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> I write this to you, Timothy, the son I love so much. All the best from our God and Christ be yours!

<sup>3</sup> Every time I say your name in prayer--which is practically all the time--I thank God for you, the God I worship with my whole life in the tradition of my ancestors.

<sup>4</sup> I miss you a lot, especially when I remember that last tearful good-bye, and I look forward to a joy-packed reunion.

<sup>5</sup> That precious memory triggers another: your honest faith--and what a rich faith it is, handed down from your grandmother Lois to your mother Eunice, and now to you!

<sup>6</sup> And the special gift of ministry you received when I laid hands on you and prayed--keep that ablaze!

<sup>7</sup> God doesn't want us to be shy with his gifts, but bold and loving and sensible.

<sup>8</sup> So don't be embarrassed to speak up for our Master or for me, his prisoner. Take your share of suffering for the Message along with the rest of us. We can only keep on going, after all, by the power of God, <sup>9</sup> who first saved us and then called us to this holy work. We had nothing to do with it. It was all [his] idea, a gift prepared for us in Jesus long before we knew anything about it.

<sup>10</sup> But we know it now. Since the appearance of our Savior, nothing could be plainer: death defeated, life vindicated in a steady blaze of light, all through the work of Jesus.

<sup>11</sup> This is the Message I've been set apart to proclaim as preacher, emissary, and teacher.

<sup>12</sup> It's also the cause of all this trouble I'm in. But I have no regrets. I couldn't be more sure of my ground--the One I've trusted in can take care of what he's trusted me to do right to the end.

<sup>13</sup> So keep at your work, this faith and love rooted in Christ, exactly as I set it out for you. It's as sound as the day you first heard it from me.

<sup>14</sup> Guard this precious thing placed in your custody by the Holy Spirit who works in us.

<sup>15</sup> I'm sure you know by now that everyone in the province of Asia deserted me, even Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> But God bless Onesiphorus and his family! Many's the time I've been refreshed in that house. And he wasn't embarrassed a bit that I was in jail.

<sup>17</sup> The first thing he did when he got to Rome was look me up.

<sup>18</sup> May God on the Last Day treat him as well as he treated me. And then there was all the help he provided in Ephesus--but you know that better than I.

2 <sup>1</sup> So, my son, throw yourself into this work for Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Pass on what you heard from me--the whole congregation saying Amen!--to reliable leaders who are competent to teach others.

<sup>3</sup> When the going gets rough, take it on the chin with the rest of us, the way Jesus did.

<sup>9</sup> It's what I'm sitting in jail for right now--but God's Word isn't in jail!

<sup>10</sup> That's why I stick it out here--so that everyone God calls will get in on the salvation of Christ in all its glory.

<sup>11</sup> This is a sure thing: If we die with him, we'll live with him;

<sup>12</sup> If we stick it out with him, we'll rule with him; If we turn our backs on him, he'll turn his back on us;

<sup>13</sup> If we give up on him, he does not give up--for there's no way he can be false to himself.

<sup>15</sup> Concentrate on doing your best for God, work you won't be ashamed of, laying out the truth plain and simple.

<sup>16</sup> Stay clear of pious talk that is only talk. Words are not mere words, you know. If they're not backed by a godly life, <sup>17</sup> they accumulate as poison in the soul. Hymenaeus and Philetus are examples, <sup>18</sup> throwing believers off stride and missing the truth by a mile by saying the resurrection is over and done with.

<sup>19</sup> Meanwhile, God's firm foundation is as firm as ever, these sentences engraved on the stones: GOD KNOWS WHO BELONGS TO HIM. SPURN EVIL, ALL YOU WHO NAME GOD AS GOD

<sup>20</sup> In a well-furnished kitchen there are not only crystal goblets and silver platters, but waste cans and compost buckets--some containers used to serve fine meals, others to take out the garbage.

<sup>21</sup> Become the kind of container God can use to present any and every kind of gift to his guests for their blessing.

<sup>24</sup> God's servant must not be argumentative, but a gentle listener and a teacher who keeps cool,

<sup>25</sup> working firmly but patiently with those who refuse to obey. You never know how or when God might sober them up with a change of heart and a turning to the truth, <sup>26</sup> enabling them to escape the Devil's trap, where they are caught and held captive, forced to run his errands.

3 <sup>1</sup> Don't be naive. There are difficult times ahead.

<sup>2</sup> As the end approaches, people are going to be self-absorbed, money-hungry, self-promoting, stuck-up, profane, contemptuous of parents, crude, coarse,

<sup>6</sup> These are the kind of people who smooth-talk themselves into the homes of unstable and needy women and take advantage of them; women who, depressed by their sinfulness, take up with every new religious fad that calls itself "truth."

<sup>9</sup> But nothing will come of these latest impostors. Everyone will see through them, just as people saw through that Egyptian hoax.

<sup>10</sup> You've been a good apprentice to me, a part of my teaching, my manner of life, direction, faith, steadiness, love, patience, <sup>11</sup> troubles, sufferings--suffering along with me in all the grief I had to put up with in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. And you also well know that God rescued me!

<sup>12</sup> Anyone who wants to live all out for Christ is in for a lot of trouble; there's no getting around it.

<sup>13</sup> Unscrupulous con men will continue to exploit the faith. They're as deceived as the people they lead astray. As long as they are out there, things can only get worse.

<sup>14</sup> But don't let it faze you. Stick with what you learned and believed, sure of the integrity of your teachers--

<sup>15</sup> why, you took in the sacred Scriptures with your mother's milk! There's nothing like the written Word of God for showing you the way to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>16</sup> Every part of Scripture is God-breathed and useful one way or another--showing us truth, exposing our rebellion, correcting our mistakes, training us to live God's way.

<sup>17</sup> Through the Word we are put together and shaped up for the tasks God has for us.

4 <sup>1</sup> I can't impress this on you too strongly. God is looking over your shoulder. Christ himself is the Judge, with the final say on everyone, living and dead. He is about to break into the open with his rule, <sup>2</sup> so proclaim the Message with intensity; keep on your watch.

Challenge, warn, and urge your people. Don't ever quit. Just keep it simple.

<sup>3</sup> You're going to find that there will be times when people will have no stomach for solid teaching, but will fill up on spiritual junk food--catchy opinions that tickle their fancy.

<sup>5</sup> But [you]--keep your eye on what you're doing; accept the hard times along with the good; keep the Message alive; do a thorough job as God's servant.

<sup>6</sup> You take over. I'm about to die, my life an offering on God's altar.

<sup>8</sup> All that's left now is the shouting-- God's applause! Depend on it, he's an honest judge. He'll do right not only by me, but by everyone eager for his coming.

<sup>15</sup> Fiercely opposed to our Message, he caused no end of trouble. God will give him what he's got coming.

<sup>16</sup> At my preliminary hearing no one stood by me. They all ran like scared rabbits. But it doesn't matter--

<sup>17</sup> the Master stood by me and helped me spread the Message loud and clear to those who had never heard it. I was snatched from the jaws of the lion!

<sup>18</sup> God's looking after me, keeping me safe in the kingdom of heaven. All praise to him, praise forever! Oh, yes!

<sup>22</sup> God be with you. Grace be with you.

Titus

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am God's slave and Christ's agent for promoting the faith among God's chosen people, getting out the accurate word on God and how to respond rightly to it.

<sup>2</sup> My aim is to raise hopes by pointing the way to life without end. This is the life God promised long ago--and he doesn't break promises!

<sup>3</sup> And then when the time was ripe, he went public with his truth. I've been entrusted to proclaim this Message by order of our Savior, God himself.

<sup>4</sup> Dear Titus, legitimate son in the faith: Receive everything God our Father and Jesus our Savior give you!

<sup>5</sup> I left you in charge in Crete so you could complete what I left half-done.

Appoint leaders in every town according to my instructions.

<sup>6</sup> As you select them, ask, "Is this man well-thought-of? Are his children believers? Do they respect him and stay out of trouble?"

<sup>7</sup> It's important that a church leader, responsible for the affairs in God's house, be looked up to--not pushy, not short-tempered, not a drunk, not a bully, not money-hungry.

<sup>8</sup> He must welcome people, be helpful, wise, fair, reverent, have a good grip on himself, <sup>9</sup> and have a good grip on the Message, knowing how to use the truth to either spur people on in knowledge or stop them in their tracks if they oppose it.

<sup>10</sup> For there are a lot of rebels out there, full of loose, confusing, and deceiving talk. Those who were brought up religious and ought to know better are the worst.

<sup>11</sup> They've got to be shut up. They're disrupting entire families with their teaching, and all for the sake of a fast buck.

<sup>12</sup> One of their own prophets said it best: The Cretans are liars from the womb, barking dogs, lazy bellies.

<sup>13</sup> He certainly spoke the truth. Get on them right away. Stop that diseased talk of Jewish make-believe and made-up rules

<sup>16</sup> They say they know God, but their actions speak louder than their words. They're real creeps, disobedient good-for-nothings.

2<sup>1</sup> Your job is to speak out on the things that make for solid doctrine.

<sup>2</sup> Guide older men into lives of temperance, dignity, and wisdom, into healthy faith, love, and endurance.

<sup>3</sup> Guide older women into lives of reverence so they end up as neither gossips nor drunks, but models of goodness.

<sup>4</sup> By looking at them, the younger women will know how to love their husbands and children, <sup>5</sup> be virtuous and pure, keep a good house, be good wives. We don't want anyone looking down on God's Message because of their behavior.

<sup>6</sup> Also, guide the young men to live disciplined lives.

<sup>7</sup> But mostly, show them all this by doing it yourself, incorruptible in your teaching, <sup>8</sup> your words solid and sane. Then anyone who is dead set against us, when he finds nothing weird or misguided, might eventually come around.

<sup>9</sup> Guide slaves into being loyal workers, a bonus to their masters--no back talk, <sup>10</sup> no petty thievery. Then their good character will shine through their actions, adding luster to the teaching of our Savior God.

<sup>11</sup> God's readiness to give and forgive is now public. Salvation's available for everyone!

<sup>13</sup> and is whetting our appetites for the glorious day when our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, appears.

<sup>14</sup> He offered himself as a sacrifice to free us from a dark, rebellious life into this good, pure life, making us a people he can be proud of, energetic in goodness.

<sup>15</sup> Tell them all this. Build up their courage, and discipline them if they get out of line. You're in charge. Don't let anyone put you down.

3 <sup>1</sup> Remind the people to respect the government and be law-abiding, always ready to lend a helping hand

<sup>3</sup> It wasn't so long ago that we ourselves were stupid and stubborn, dupes of sin, ordered every which way by our glands, going around with a chip on our shoulder, hated and hating back.

<sup>4</sup> But when God, our kind and loving Savior God, stepped in, <sup>5</sup> he saved us from all that. It was all his doing; we had nothing to do with it. He gave us a good bath, and we came out of it new people, washed inside and out by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>7</sup> God's gift has restored our relationship with him and given us back our lives. And there's more life to come--an eternity of life!

<sup>8</sup> You can count on this. I want you to put your foot down. Take a firm stand on these matters so that those who have put their trust in God will concentrate on the essentials that are good for everyone.

<sup>9</sup> Stay away from mindless, pointless quarreling over genealogies and fine print in the law code. That gets you nowhere.

<sup>10</sup> Warn a quarrelsome person once or twice, but then be done with him.

<sup>11</sup> It's obvious that such a person is out of line, rebellious against God. By persisting in divisiveness he cuts himself off.

<sup>12</sup> As soon as I send either Artemas or Tychicus to you, come immediately and meet me in Nicopolis. I've decided to spend the winter there.

<sup>14</sup> Our people have to learn to be diligent in their work so that all necessities are met (especially among the needy) and they don't end up with nothing to show for their lives.

<sup>15</sup> All here want to be remembered to you. Say hello to our friends in the faith. Grace to all of you.

Philemon

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Paul, am a prisoner for the sake of Christ, here with my brother Timothy. I write this letter to you, Philemon, my good friend and companion in this work--

<sup>2</sup> also to our sister Apphia, to Archippus, a real trooper, and to the church that meets in your house.

<sup>3</sup> God's best to you! Christ's blessings on you!

<sup>4</sup> Every time your name comes up in my prayers, I say, "Oh, thank you, God!"

<sup>5</sup> I keep hearing of the love and faith you have for the Master Jesus, which brims over to other Christians.

<sup>6</sup> And I keep praying that this faith we hold in common keeps showing up in the good things we do, and that people recognize Christ in all of it.

<sup>7</sup> Friend, you have no idea how good your love makes me feel, doubly so when I see your hospitality to fellow believers.

<sup>8</sup> In line with all this I have a favor to ask of you. As Christ's ambassador and now a prisoner for him, I wouldn't hesitate to command this if I thought it necessary,

<sup>10</sup> While here in jail, I've fathered a child, so to speak. And here he is, hand-carrying this letter--Onesimus!

<sup>11</sup> He was useless to you before; now he's useful to both of us.

<sup>12</sup> I'm sending him back to you, but it feels like I'm cutting off my right arm in doing so.

<sup>13</sup> I wanted in the worst way to keep him here as your stand-in to help out while I'm in jail for the Message.

<sup>14</sup> But I didn't want to do anything behind your back, make you do a good deed that you hadn't willingly agreed to.

<sup>15</sup> Maybe it's all for the best that you lost him for a while. You're getting him back now for good--

<sup>16</sup> and no mere slave this time, but a true Christian brother! That's what he was to me--he'll be even more than that to you.

<sup>17</sup> So if you still consider me a comrade-in-arms, welcome him back as you would me.

<sup>18</sup> If he damaged anything or owes you anything, chalk it up to my account.

<sup>19</sup> This is my personal signature--Paul--and I stand behind it. (I don't need to remind you, do I, that you owe your very life to me?)

<sup>20</sup> Do me this big favor, friend. You'll be doing it for Christ, but it will also do my heart good.

<sup>21</sup> I know you well enough to know you will. You'll probably go far beyond what I've written.

<sup>22</sup> And by the way, get a room ready for me. Because of your prayers, I fully expect to be your guest again.

<sup>23</sup> Epaphras, my cellmate in the cause of Christ, says hello.

Hebrews

1 <sup>1</sup> Going through a long line of prophets, God has been addressing our ancestors in different ways for centuries.

<sup>2</sup> Recently he spoke to us directly through his Son. By his Son, God created the world in the beginning, and it will all belong to the Son at the end.

<sup>3</sup> This Son perfectly mirrors God, and is stamped with God's nature. He holds everything together by what he says--powerful words! After he finished the sacrifice for sins, the Son took his honored place high in the heavens right alongside God,

<sup>5</sup> Did God ever say to an angel, "You're my Son; today I celebrate you"? Or, "I'm his Father, he's my Son"?

<sup>6</sup> When he presents his honored Son to the world, he says, "All angels must worship him."

<sup>7</sup> Regarding angels he says, The messengers are winds, the servants are tongues of fire.

<sup>8</sup> But he says to the Son, You're God, and on the throne for good; your rule makes everything right.

<sup>9</sup> You love it when things are right; you hate it when things are wrong. That is why God, your God, poured fragrant oil on your head, Marking you out as king, far above your dear companions.

<sup>10</sup> And again to the Son, You, Master, started it all, laid earth's foundations, then crafted the stars in the sky.

<sup>11</sup> Earth and sky will wear out, but not you; they become threadbare like an old coat;

<sup>12</sup> You'll fold them up like a worn-out cloak, and lay them away on the shelf. But you'll stay the same, year after year; you'll never fade, you'll never wear out.

<sup>13</sup> And did he ever say anything like this to an angel? Sit alongside me here on my throne Until I make your enemies a stool for your feet.

<sup>14</sup> Isn't it obvious that all angels are sent to help out with those lined up to receive salvation?

2 <sup>1</sup> It's crucial that we keep a firm grip on what we've heard so that we don't drift off.

<sup>2</sup> If the old message delivered by the angels was valid and nobody got away with anything,

<sup>3</sup> do you think we can risk neglecting this latest message, this magnificent salvation? First of all, it was delivered in person by the Master, then accurately passed on to us by those who heard it from him.

<sup>4</sup> All the while God was validating it with gifts through the Holy Spirit, all sorts of signs and miracles, as he saw fit.

<sup>5</sup> God didn't put angels in charge of this business of salvation that we're dealing with here.

<sup>6</sup> It says in Scripture, What is man and woman that you bother with them; why take a second look their way?

<sup>7</sup> You made them not quite as high as angels, bright with Eden's dawn light;

<sup>8</sup> Then you put them in charge of your entire handcrafted world. When God put them in charge of everything, nothing was excluded. But we don't see it yet, don't see everything under human jurisdiction.

<sup>9</sup> What we do see is Jesus, made "not quite as high as angels," and then, through the experience of death, crowned so much higher than any angel, with a glory "bright with Eden's dawn light." In that death, by God's grace, he fully experienced death in every person's place.

<sup>10</sup> It makes good sense that the God who got everything started and keeps everything going now completes the work by making the Salvation Pioneer perfect through suffering as he leads all these people to glory.

<sup>11</sup> Since the One who saves and those who are saved have a common origin, Jesus doesn't hesitate to treat them as family, <sup>12</sup> saying, I'll tell my good friends, my brothers and sisters, all I know about you; I'll join them in worship and praise to you.

<sup>13</sup> Again, he puts himself in the same family circle when he says, Even I live by placing my trust in God. And yet again, I'm here with the children God gave me.

<sup>14</sup> Since the children are made of flesh and blood, it's logical that the Savior took on flesh and blood in order to rescue them by his death. By embracing death, taking it into himself, he destroyed the Devil's hold on death <sup>15</sup> and freed all who cower through life, scared to death of death.

<sup>16</sup> It's obvious, of course, that he didn't go to all this trouble for angels. It was for people like us, children of Abraham.

<sup>17</sup> That's why he had to enter into every detail of human life. Then, when he came before God as high priest to get rid of the people's sins,

<sup>18</sup> he would have already experienced it all himself--all the pain, all the testing-

-and would be able to help where help was needed.

3<sup>1</sup> So, my dear Christian friends, companions in following this call to the heights, take a good hard look at Jesus. He's the centerpiece of everything we believe,

<sup>2</sup> faithful in everything God gave him to do. Moses was also faithful, <sup>3</sup> but Jesus gets far more honor. A builder is more valuable than a building any day.

<sup>4</sup> Every house has a builder, but the Builder behind them all is God.

<sup>5</sup> Moses did a good job in God's house, but it was all servant work, getting things ready for what was to come.

<sup>6</sup> Christ as Son is in charge of the house. Now, if we can only keep a firm grip on this bold confidence, we're the house!

<sup>7</sup> That's why the Holy Spirit says, Today, please listen;

<sup>8</sup> don't turn a deaf ear as in "the bitter uprising," that time of wilderness testing!

<sup>9</sup> Even though they watched me at work for forty years, your ancestors refused to let me do it my way; over and over they tried my patience.

<sup>10</sup> And I was provoked, oh, so provoked! I said, "They'll never keep their minds on God; they refuse to walk down my road."

<sup>11</sup> Exasperated, I vowed, "They'll never get where they're going, never be able to sit down and rest."

<sup>12</sup> So watch your step, friends. Make sure there's no evil unbelief lying around that will trip you up and throw you off course, diverting you from the living God.

<sup>13</sup> For as long as it's still God's Today, keep each other on your toes so sin doesn't slow down your reflexes.

<sup>14</sup> If we can only keep our grip on the sure thing we started out with, we're in this with Christ for the long haul.

<sup>15</sup> These words keep ringing in our ears: Today, please listen; don't turn a deaf ear as in the bitter uprising.

<sup>16</sup> For who were the people who turned a deaf ear? Weren't they the very ones Moses led out of Egypt?

<sup>17</sup> And who was God provoked with for forty years? Wasn't it those who turned a deaf ear and ended up corpses in the wilderness?

<sup>18</sup> And when he swore that they'd never get where they were going, wasn't he talking to the ones who turned a deaf ear?

4 <sup>1</sup> For as long, then, as that promise of resting in him pulls us on to God's goal for us, we need to be careful that we're not disqualified.

<sup>2</sup> We received the same promises as those people in the wilderness, but the promises didn't do them a bit of good because they didn't receive the promises with faith.

<sup>3</sup> If we believe, though, we'll experience that state of resting. But not if we don't have faith. Remember that God said, Exasperated, I vowed, "They'll never get where they're going, never be able to sit down and rest." God made that vow, even though he'd finished his part before the foundation of the world.

<sup>6</sup> So this promise has not yet been fulfilled. Those earlier ones never did get to the place of rest because they were disobedient.

<sup>7</sup> God keeps renewing the promise and setting the date as today, just as he did in David's psalm, centuries later than the original invitation: Today, please listen, don't turn a deaf ear...

<sup>8</sup> And so this is still a live promise. It wasn't canceled at the time of Joshua; otherwise, God wouldn't keep renewing the appointment for "today."

<sup>10</sup> God himself is at rest. And at the end of the journey we'll surely rest with God.

<sup>11</sup> So let's keep at it and eventually arrive at the place of rest, not drop out through some sort of disobedience.

<sup>12</sup> God means what he says. What he says goes. His powerful Word is sharp as a surgeon's scalpel, cutting through everything, whether doubt or defense, laying us open to listen and obey.

<sup>13</sup> Nothing and no one is impervious to God's Word. We can't get away from it--no matter what.

<sup>14</sup> Now that we know what we have-- Jesus, this great High Priest with ready access to God--let's not let it slip through our fingers.

<sup>15</sup> We don't have a priest who is out of touch with our reality. He's been through weakness and testing, experienced it all--all but the sin.

<sup>16</sup> So let's walk right up to him and get what he is so ready to give. Take the mercy, accept the help.

5 <sup>1</sup> Every high priest selected to represent men and women before God and offer sacrifices for their sins

<sup>2</sup> should be able to deal gently with their failings, since he knows what it's like from his own experience.

<sup>3</sup> But that also means that he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as the people's.

<sup>4</sup> No one elects himself to this honored position. He's called to it by God, as Aaron was.

<sup>5</sup> Neither did Christ presume to set himself up as high priest, but was set apart by the One who said to him, "You're my Son; today I celebrate you!"

<sup>6</sup> In another place God declares, "You're a priest forever in the royal order of Melchizedek."

<sup>7</sup> While he lived on earth, anticipating death, Jesus cried out in pain and wept in sorrow as he offered up priestly prayers to God. Because he honored God, God answered him.

<sup>8</sup> Though he was God's Son, he learned trusting-obedience by what he suffered, just as we do.

<sup>9</sup> Then, having arrived at the full stature of his maturity and having been announced by God as high priest in the order of Melchizedek, <sup>10</sup> he became the source of eternal salvation to all who believingly obey him.

<sup>11</sup> I have a lot more to say about this, but it is hard to get it across to you since you've picked up this bad habit of not listening.

<sup>12</sup> By this time you ought to be teachers yourselves, yet here I find you need someone to sit down with you and go over the basics on God again, starting from square one--baby's milk, when you should have been on solid food long ago!

<sup>13</sup> Milk is for beginners, inexperienced in God's ways;

6<sup>1</sup> So come on, let's leave the preschool fingerpainting exercises on Christ and get on with the grand work of art. Grow up in Christ. The basic foundational truths are in place: turning your back on "salvation by self-help" and turning in trust toward God;

<sup>3</sup> God helping us, we'll stay true to all that. But there's so much more. Let's get on with it!

<sup>4</sup> Once people have seen the light, gotten a taste of heaven and been part of the work of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>5</sup> once they've personally experienced the sheer goodness of God's Word and the powers breaking in on us--

<sup>6</sup> if then they turn their backs on it, washing their hands of the whole thing, well, they can't start over as if nothing happened. That's impossible. Why, they've re-crucified Jesus! They've repudiated him in public!

<sup>7</sup> Parched ground that soaks up the rain and then produces an abundance of carrots and corn for its gardener gets God's "Well done!"

<sup>8</sup> But if it produces weeds and thistles, it's more likely to get cussed out. Fields like that are burned, not harvested.

<sup>9</sup> I'm sure that won't happen to you, friends. I have better things in mind for you--salvation things!

<sup>10</sup> God doesn't miss anything. He knows perfectly well all the love you've shown him by helping needy Christians, and that you keep at it.

<sup>11</sup> And now I want each of you to extend that same intensity toward a full-bodied hope, and keep at it till the finish.

<sup>12</sup> Don't drag your feet. Be like those who stay the course with committed faith and then get everything promised to them.

<sup>13</sup> When God made his promise to Abraham, he backed it to the hilt, putting his own reputation on the line.

<sup>14</sup> He said, "I promise that I'll bless you with everything I have--bless and bless and bless!"

<sup>15</sup> Abraham stuck it out and got everything that had been promised to him.

<sup>16</sup> When people make promises, they guarantee them by appeal to some authority above them so that if there is any question that they'll make good on the promise, the authority will back them up.

promise is likewise unchangeable. We who have run for our very lives to God have every reason to grab the promised hope with both hands and never let go.

<sup>19</sup> It's an unbreakable spiritual lifeline, reaching past all appearances right to the very presence of God

<sup>20</sup> where Jesus, running on ahead of us, has taken up his permanent post as high priest for us, in the order of Melchizedek.

7 <sup>1</sup> Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of the Highest God. He met Abraham, who was returning from "the royal massacre," and gave him his blessing.

<sup>2</sup> Abraham in turn gave him a tenth of the spoils. "Melchizedek" means "King of Righteousness." "Salem" means "Peace." So, he is also "King of Peace."

<sup>3</sup> Melchizedek towers out of the past--without record of family ties, no account of beginning or end. In this way he is like the Son of God, one huge priestly presence dominating the landscape always.

<sup>4</sup> You realize just how great Melchizedek is when you see that Father Abraham gave him a tenth of the captured treasure.

<sup>5</sup> Priests descended from Levi are commanded by law to collect tithes from the people, even though they are all more or less equals, priests and people, having a common father in Abraham.

<sup>6</sup> But this man, a complete outsider, collected tithes from Abraham and blessed him, the one to whom the promises had been given.

<sup>8</sup> Or look at it this way: We pay our tithes to priests who die, but Abraham paid tithes to a priest who, the Scripture says, "lives."

<sup>9</sup> Ultimately you could even say that since Levi descended from Abraham, who paid tithes to Melchizedek, <sup>10</sup> when we pay tithes to the priestly tribe of Levi they end up with Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup> If the priesthood of Levi and Aaron, which provided the framework for the giving of the law, could really make people perfect, there wouldn't have been need for a new priesthood like that of Melchizedek.

<sup>12</sup> But since it didn't get the job done, there was a change of priesthood, which brought with it a radical new kind of law.

<sup>13</sup> There is no way of understanding this in terms of the old Levitical priesthood, <sup>14</sup> which is why there is nothing in Jesus' family tree connecting him with that priestly line.

<sup>16</sup> not by genealogical descent but by the sheer force of resurrection life--he lives!--

<sup>18</sup> The former way of doing things, a system of commandments that never worked out the way it was supposed to, was set aside;

<sup>19</sup> the law brought nothing to maturity. Another way--Jesus!--a way that [does] work, that brings us right into the presence of God, is put in its place.

<sup>20</sup> The old priesthood of Aaron perpetuated itself automatically, father to son, without explicit confirmation by God.

<sup>21</sup> But then God intervened and called this new, permanent priesthood into being with an added promise: God gave his word; he won't take it back: "You're the permanent priest."

<sup>22</sup> This makes Jesus the guarantee of a far better way between us and God--one that really works! A new covenant.

<sup>23</sup> Earlier there were a lot of priests, for they died and had to be replaced.

<sup>24</sup> But Jesus' priesthood is permanent. He's there from now to eternity <sup>25</sup> to save everyone who comes to God through him, always on the job to speak up for them.

<sup>26</sup> So now we have a high priest who perfectly fits our needs: completely holy, uncompromised by sin, with authority extending as high as God's presence in heaven itself.

<sup>27</sup> Unlike the other high priests, he doesn't have to offer sacrifices for his own sins every day before he can get around to us and our sins. He's done it, once and for all: offered up [himself] as the sacrifice.

<sup>28</sup> The law appoints as high priests men who are never able to get the job done right. But this intervening command of God, which came later, appoints the Son, who is absolutely, eternally perfect.

8 <sup>1</sup> In essence, we have just such a high priest: authoritative right alongside God,

<sup>3</sup> The assigned task of a high priest is to offer both gifts and sacrifices, and it's no different with the priesthood of Jesus.

<sup>4</sup> If he were limited to earth, he wouldn't even be a priest. We wouldn't need him since there are plenty of priests who offer the gifts designated in the law.

<sup>5</sup> These priests provide only a hint of what goes on in the true sanctuary of heaven, which Moses caught a glimpse of as he was about to set up the tent-shrine. It was then that God said, "Be careful to do it exactly as you saw it on the Mountain."

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus' priestly work far surpasses what these other priests do, since he's working from a far better plan.

<sup>7</sup> If the first plan--the old covenant--had worked out, a second wouldn't have been needed.

<sup>8</sup> But we know the first was found wanting, because God said, Heads up! The days are coming when I'll set up a new plan for dealing with Israel and Judah.

<sup>9</sup> I'll throw out the old plan I set up with their ancestors when I led them by the hand out of Egypt. They didn't keep their part of the bargain, so I looked away and let it go.

<sup>10</sup> This new plan I'm making with Israel isn't going to be written on paper, isn't going to be chiseled in stone; This time I'm writing out the plan in them, carving it on the lining of their hearts. I'll be their God, they'll be my people.

<sup>11</sup> They won't go to school to learn about me, or buy a book called [God in Five Easy Lessons]. They'll all get to know me firsthand, the little and the big, the small and the great.

<sup>12</sup> They'll get to know me by being kindly forgiven, with the slate of their sins forever wiped clean.

9<sup>1</sup> That first plan contained directions for worship, and a specially designed place of worship.

<sup>2</sup> A large outer tent was set up. The lampstand, the table, and "the bread of presence" were placed in it. This was called "the Holy Place."

<sup>3</sup> Then a curtain was stretched, and behind it a smaller, inside tent set up. This was called "the Holy of Holies."

<sup>4</sup> In it were placed the gold incense altar and the gold-covered ark of the covenant containing the gold urn of manna, Aaron's rod that budded, the covenant tablets, <sup>5</sup> and the angel-wing-shadowed mercy seat. But we don't have time to comment on these now.

<sup>6</sup> After this was set up, the priests went about their duties in the large tent.

<sup>7</sup> Only the high priest entered the smaller, inside tent, and then only once a year, offering a blood sacrifice for his own sins and the people's accumulated sins.

<sup>8</sup> This was the Holy Spirit's way of showing with a visible parable that as long as the large tent stands, people can't just walk in on God.

<sup>9</sup> Under this system, the gifts and sacrifices can't really get to the heart of the matter, can't assuage the conscience of the people, <sup>10</sup> but are limited to matters of ritual and behavior. It's essentially a temporary arrangement until a complete overhaul could be made.

<sup>11</sup> But when the Messiah arrived, high priest of the superior things of this new covenant, he bypassed the old tent and its trappings in this created world and went straight into heaven's "tent"--the true Holy Place--once and for all.

<sup>12</sup> He also bypassed the sacrifices consisting of goat and calf blood, instead using his own blood as the price to set us free once and for all.

<sup>13</sup> If that animal blood and the other rituals of purification were effective in cleaning up certain matters of our religion and behavior, <sup>14</sup> think how much more the blood of Christ cleans up our whole lives, inside and out.

<sup>15</sup> Through the Spirit, Christ offered himself as an unblemished sacrifice, freeing us from all those dead-end efforts to make ourselves respectable, so that we can live all out for God.

<sup>16</sup> Like a will that takes effect when someone dies, the new covenant was put into action at Jesus' death. His death marked the transition from the old plan to the new one, canceling the old obligations and accompanying sins, and summoning the heirs to receive the eternal inheritance that was promised them. He brought together God and his people in this new way.

<sup>18</sup> Even the first plan required a death to set it in motion.

<sup>19</sup> After Moses had read out all the terms of the plan of the law--God's "will"--he took the blood of sacrificed animals and, in a solemn ritual, sprinkled the document and the people who were its beneficiaries.

<sup>20</sup> And then he attested its validity with the words, "This is the blood of the covenant commanded by God."

<sup>21</sup> He did the same thing with the place of worship and its furniture.

<sup>22</sup> Moses said to the people, "This is the blood of the covenant God has established with you." Practically everything in a will hinges on a death. That's why blood, the evidence of death, is used so much in our tradition, especially regarding forgiveness of sins.

<sup>23</sup> That accounts for the prominence of blood and death in all these secondary practices that point to the realities of heaven. It also accounts for why, when the real thing takes place, these animal sacrifices aren't needed anymore, having served their purpose.

<sup>24</sup> For Christ didn't enter the earthly version of the Holy Place; he entered the Place Itself, and offered himself to God as the sacrifice for our sins.

<sup>25</sup> He doesn't do this every year as the high priests did under the old plan with blood that was not their own;

<sup>26</sup> if that had been the case, he would have to sacrifice himself repeatedly throughout the course of history. But instead he sacrificed himself once and for all, summing up all the other sacrifices in this sacrifice of himself, the final solution of sin.

<sup>27</sup> Everyone has to die once, then face the consequences.

<sup>28</sup> Christ's death was also a one-time event, but it was a sacrifice that took care of sins forever. And so, when he next appears, the outcome for those eager to greet him is, precisely, [salvation].

10<sup>1</sup> The old plan was only a hint of the good things in the new plan. Since that old "law plan" wasn't complete in itself, it couldn't complete those who followed it. No matter how many sacrifices were offered year after year, they never added up to a complete solution.

<sup>2</sup> If they had, the worshipers would have gone merrily on their way, no longer dragged down by their sins.

<sup>3</sup> But instead of removing awareness of sin, when those animal sacrifices were repeated over and over they actually heightened awareness and guilt.

<sup>7</sup> So I said, "I'm here to do it your way, O God, the way it's described in your Book."

<sup>8</sup> When he said, "You don't want sacrifices and offerings," he was referring to practices according to the old plan.

<sup>9</sup> When he added, "I'm here to do it your way," he set aside the first in order to enact the new plan--

<sup>10</sup> [God's] way--by which we are made fit for God by the once-for-all sacrifice of Jesus.

<sup>11</sup> Every priest goes to work at the altar each day, offers the same old sacrifices year in, year out, and never makes a dent in the sin problem.

<sup>12</sup> As a priest, Christ made a single sacrifice for sins, and that was it! Then he sat down right beside God

<sup>14</sup> It was a perfect sacrifice by a perfect person to perfect some very imperfect people. By that single offering, he did everything that needed to be done for everyone who takes part in the purifying process.

<sup>18</sup> Once sins are taken care of for good, there's no longer any need to offer sacrifices for them.

<sup>19</sup> So, friends, we can now--without hesitation--walk right up to God, into "the Holy Place." Jesus has cleared the way by the blood of his sacrifice, acting as our priest before God. The "curtain" into God's presence is his body.

<sup>22</sup> So let's [do] it--full of belief, confident that we're presentable inside and out.

<sup>23</sup> Let's keep a firm grip on the promises that keep us going. He always keeps his word.

<sup>24</sup> Let's see how inventive we can be in encouraging love and helping out, <sup>25</sup> not avoiding worshiping together as some do but spurring each other on, especially as we see the big Day approaching.

<sup>26</sup> If we give up and turn our backs on all we've learned, all we've been given, all the truth we now know, we repudiate Christ's sacrifice

<sup>27</sup> and are left on our own to face the Judgment--and a mighty fierce judgment it will be!

<sup>28</sup> If the penalty for breaking the law of Moses is physical death, <sup>29</sup> what do you think will happen if you turn on God's Son, spit on the sacrifice that made you whole, and insult this most gracious Spirit?

<sup>30</sup> This is no light matter. God has warned us that he'll hold us to account and make us pay. He was quite explicit: "Vengeance is mine, and I won't overlook a thing," and, "God will judge his people."

<sup>32</sup> Remember those early days after you first saw the light? Those were the hard times!

<sup>33</sup> Kicked around in public, targets of every kind of abuse--some days it was you, other days your friends.

<sup>34</sup> If some friends went to prison, you stuck by them. If some enemies broke in and seized your goods, you let them go with a smile, knowing they couldn't touch your real treasure. Nothing they did bothered you, nothing set you back.

<sup>35</sup> So don't throw it all away now. You were sure of yourselves then. It's [still] a sure thing!

<sup>36</sup> But you need to stick it out, staying with God's plan so you'll be there for the promised completion.

<sup>37</sup> It won't be long now, he's on the way; he'll show up most any minute.

<sup>38</sup> But anyone who is right with me thrives on loyal trust; if he cuts and runs, I won't be very happy.

<sup>39</sup> But we're not quitters who lose out. Oh, no! We'll stay with it and survive, trusting all the way.

11 <sup>1</sup> The fundamental fact of existence is that this trust in God, this faith, is the firm foundation under everything that makes life worth living. It's our handle on what we can't see.

<sup>3</sup> By faith, we see the world called into existence by God's word, what we see created by what we don't see.

<sup>4</sup> By an act of faith, Abel brought a better sacrifice to God than Cain. It was what he [believed], not what he [brought], that made the difference. That's what God noticed and approved as righteous. After all these centuries, that belief continues to catch our notice.

<sup>5</sup> By an act of faith, Enoch skipped death completely. "They looked all over and couldn't find him because God had taken him." We know on the basis of reliable testimony that before he was taken "he pleased God."

<sup>6</sup> It's impossible to please God apart from faith. And why? Because anyone who wants to approach God must believe both that he exists [and] that he cares enough to respond to those who seek him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith, Noah built a ship in the middle of dry land. He was warned about something he couldn't see, and acted on what he was told. The result? His family was saved. His act of faith drew a sharp line between the evil of the unbelieving world and the rightness of the believing world. As a result, Noah became intimate with God.

<sup>8</sup> By an act of faith, Abraham said yes to God's call to travel to an unknown place that would become his home. When he left he had no idea where he was going.

<sup>9</sup> By an act of faith he lived in the country promised him, lived as a stranger camping in tents. Isaac and Jacob did the same, living under the same promise.

<sup>10</sup> Abraham did it by keeping his eye on an unseen city with real, eternal foundations--the City designed and built by God.

<sup>11</sup> By faith, barren Sarah was able to become pregnant, old woman as she was at the time, because she believed the One who made a promise would do what he said.

<sup>12</sup> That's how it happened that from one man's dead and shriveled loins there are now people numbering into the millions.

<sup>13</sup> Each one of these people of faith died not yet having in hand what was promised, but still believing. How did they do it? They saw it way off in the distance, waved their greeting, and accepted the fact that they were transients in this world.

<sup>14</sup> People who live this way make it plain that they are looking for their true home.

<sup>15</sup> If they were homesick for the old country, they could have gone back any time they wanted.

<sup>16</sup> But they were after a far better country than that--[heaven] country. You can see why God is so proud of them, and has a City waiting for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith, Abraham, at the time of testing, offered Isaac back to God. Acting in faith, he was as ready to return the promised son, his only son, as he had been to receive him--

<sup>18</sup> and this after he had already been told, "Your descendants shall come from Isaac."

<sup>19</sup> Abraham figured that if God wanted to, he could raise the dead. In a sense, that's what happened when he received Isaac back, alive from off the altar.

<sup>20</sup> By an act of faith, Isaac reached into the future as he blessed Jacob and Esau.

<sup>22</sup> By an act of faith, Joseph, while dying, prophesied the exodus of Israel, and made arrangements for his own burial.

<sup>26</sup> He valued suffering in the Messiah's camp far greater than Egyptian wealth because he was looking ahead, anticipating the payoff.

<sup>28</sup> By an act of faith, he kept the Passover Feast and sprinkled Passover blood on each house so that the destroyer of the firstborn wouldn't touch them.

<sup>29</sup> By an act of faith, Israel walked through the Red Sea on dry ground. The Egyptians tried it and drowned.

<sup>30</sup> By faith, the Israelites marched around the walls of Jericho for seven days, and the walls fell flat.

<sup>31</sup> By an act of faith, Rahab, the Jericho harlot, welcomed the spies and escaped the destruction that came on those who refused to trust God.

<sup>32</sup> I could go on and on, but I've run out of time. There are so many more--Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, the prophets. ...

<sup>33</sup> Through acts of faith, they toppled kingdoms, made justice work, took the promises for themselves. They were protected from lions,

<sup>35</sup> Women received their loved ones back from the dead. There were those who, under torture, refused to give in and go free, preferring something better: resurrection.

<sup>37</sup> We have stories of those who were stoned, sawed in two, murdered in cold blood; stories of vagrants wandering the earth in animal skins, homeless, friendless, powerless--

<sup>39</sup> Not one of these people, even though their lives of faith were exemplary, got their hands on what was promised.

<sup>40</sup> God had a better plan for us: that their faith and our faith would come together to make one completed whole, their lives of faith not complete apart from ours.

12 <sup>1</sup> Do you see what this means--all these pioneers who blazed the way, all these veterans cheering us on? It means we'd better get on with it. Strip down, start running--and never quit! No extra spiritual fat, no parasitic sins.

<sup>2</sup> Keep your eyes on [Jesus], who both began and finished this race we're in. Study how he did it. Because he never lost sight of where he was headed--that exhilarating finish in and with God--he could put up with anything along the way: cross, shame, whatever. And now he's [there], in the place of honor, right alongside God.

<sup>3</sup> When you find yourselves flagging in your faith, go over that story again, item by item, that long litany of hostility he plowed through. [That] will shoot adrenaline into your souls!

<sup>4</sup> In this all-out match against sin, others have suffered far worse than you, to say nothing of what Jesus went through--all that bloodshed!

<sup>5</sup> So don't feel sorry for yourselves. Or have you forgotten how good parents treat children, and that God regards you as his children? My dear child, don't shrug off God's discipline, but don't be crushed by it either.

<sup>6</sup> It's the child he loves that he disciplines; the child he embraces, he also corrects.

<sup>7</sup> God is educating you; that's why you must never drop out. He's treating you as dear children. This trouble you're in isn't punishment; it's [training], <sup>8</sup> the normal experience of children. Only irresponsible parents leave children to fend for themselves. Would you prefer an irresponsible God?

<sup>9</sup> We respect our own parents for training and not spoiling us, so why not embrace God's training so we can truly [live]?

<sup>10</sup> While we were children, our parents did what [seemed] best to them. But God is doing what is best for us, training us to live God's holy best.

<sup>12</sup> So don't sit around on your hands! No more dragging your feet!

<sup>13</sup> Clear the path for long-distance runners so no one will trip and fall, so no one will step in a hole and sprain an ankle. Help each other out. And run for it!

<sup>14</sup> Work at getting along with each other and with God. Otherwise you'll never get so much as a glimpse of God.

for weeds of bitter discontent. A thistle or two gone to seed can ruin a whole garden in no time.

<sup>16</sup> Watch out for the Esau syndrome: trading away God's lifelong gift in order to satisfy a short-term appetite.

<sup>17</sup> You well know how Esau later regretted that impulsive act and wanted God's blessing--but by then it was too late, tears or no tears.

<sup>18</sup> Unlike your ancestors, you didn't come to Mount Sinai--all that volcanic blaze and earthshaking rumble--

<sup>19</sup> to hear God speak. The earsplitting words and soul-shaking message terrified them and they begged him to stop.

<sup>20</sup> When they heard the words--"If an animal touches the Mountain, it's as good as dead"--they were afraid to move.

<sup>22</sup> No, that's not [your] experience at all. You've come to Mount Zion, the city where the living God resides. The invisible Jerusalem is populated by throngs of festive angels <sup>23</sup> and Christian citizens. It is the city where God is Judge, with judgments that make us just.

<sup>24</sup> You've come to Jesus, who presents us with a new covenant, a fresh charter from God. He is the Mediator of this covenant. The murder of Jesus, unlike Abel's--a homicide that cried out for vengeance--became a proclamation of grace.

<sup>25</sup> So don't turn a deaf ear to these gracious words. If those who ignored earthly warnings didn't get away with it, what will happen to us if we turn our backs on heavenly warnings?

<sup>26</sup> His voice that time shook the earth to its foundations; this time--he's told us this quite plainly--he'll also rock the heavens: "One last shaking, from top to bottom, stem to stern."

<sup>27</sup> The phrase "one last shaking" means a thorough housecleaning, getting rid of all the historical and religious junk so that the unshakable essentials stand clear and uncluttered.

<sup>28</sup> Do you see what we've got? An unshakable kingdom! And do you see how thankful we must be? Not only thankful, but brimming with worship, deeply reverent before God. For God is not an indifferent bystander.

<sup>29</sup> He's actively cleaning house, torching all that needs to burn, and he won't quit until it's all cleansed. God himself is Fire!

13 <sup>1</sup> Stay on good terms with each other, held together by love.

<sup>2</sup> Be ready with a meal or a bed when it's needed. Why, some have extended hospitality to angels without ever knowing it!

<sup>3</sup> Regard prisoners as if you were in prison with them. Look on victims of abuse as if what happened to them had happened to you.

<sup>4</sup> Honor marriage, and guard the sacredness of sexual intimacy between wife and husband. God draws a firm line against casual and illicit sex.

<sup>5</sup> Don't be obsessed with getting more material things. Be relaxed with what you have. Since God assured us, "I'll never let you down, never walk off and leave you,"

<sup>6</sup> we can boldly quote, God is there, ready to help; I'm fearless no matter what. Who or what can get to me?

<sup>7</sup> Appreciate your pastoral leaders who gave you the Word of God. Take a good look at the way they live, and let their faithfulness instruct you, as well as their truthfulness. There should be a consistency that runs through us all.

<sup>8</sup> For Jesus doesn't change--yesterday, today, tomorrow, he's always totally himself.

<sup>9</sup> Don't be lured away from him by the latest speculations about him. The grace of Christ is the only good ground for life. Products named after Christ don't seem to do much for those who buy them.

<sup>10</sup> The altar from which God gives us the gift of himself is not for exploitation by insiders who grab and loot.

<sup>11</sup> In the old system, the animals are killed and the bodies disposed of outside the camp. The blood is then brought inside to the altar as a sacrifice for sin.

<sup>12</sup> It's the same with Jesus. He was crucified outside the city gates--[that] is where he poured out the sacrificial blood that was brought to God's altar to cleanse his people.

<sup>13</sup> So let's go outside, where Jesus is, where the action is--not trying to be privileged insiders, but taking our share in the abuse of Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> This "insider world" is not our home. We have our eyes peeled for the City about to come.

<sup>15</sup> Let's take our place outside with Jesus, no longer pouring out the sacrificial blood of animals but pouring out sacrificial praises from our lips to God in Jesus' name.

<sup>16</sup> Make sure you don't take things for granted and go slack in working for the common good; share what you have with others. God takes particular pleasure in acts of worship--a different kind of "sacrifice"--that take place in kitchen and workplace and on the streets.

<sup>17</sup> Be responsive to your pastoral leaders. Listen to their counsel. They are alert to the condition of your lives and work under the strict supervision of God. Contribute to the joy of their leadership, not its drudgery. Why would you want to make things harder for them?

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us. We have no doubts about what we're doing or why, but it's hard going and we need your prayers. All we care about is living well before God.

<sup>19</sup> Pray that we may be together soon.

<sup>20</sup> May God, who puts all things together, makes all things whole, Who made a lasting mark through the sacrifice of Jesus, the sacrifice of blood that sealed the eternal covenant, Who led Jesus, our Great Shepherd, up and alive from the dead,

<sup>21</sup> Now put you together, provide you with everything you need to please him, Make us into what gives him most pleasure, by means of the sacrifice of Jesus, the Messiah. All glory to Jesus forever and always! Oh, yes, yes, yes.

<sup>22</sup> Friends, please take what I've written most seriously. I've kept this as brief as possible; I haven't piled on a lot of extras.

<sup>23</sup> You'll be glad to know that Timothy has been let out of prison. If he leaves soon, I'll come with him and get to see you myself.

<sup>24</sup> Say hello to your pastoral leaders and all the congregations. Everyone here in Italy wants to be remembered to you.

<sup>25</sup> Grace be with you, every one.

James

1 <sup>1</sup> I, James, am a slave of God and the Master Jesus, writing to the twelve tribes scattered to Kingdom Come:
Hello!

<sup>2</sup> Consider it a sheer gift, friends, when tests and challenges come at you from all sides.

<sup>3</sup> You know that under pressure, your faith-life is forced into the open and shows its true colors.

<sup>4</sup> So don't try to get out of anything prematurely. Let it do its work so you become mature and well-developed, not deficient in any way.

<sup>5</sup> If you don't know what you're doing, pray to the Father. He loves to help. You'll get his help, and won't be condescended to when you ask for it.

<sup>6</sup> Ask boldly, believingly, without a second thought. People who "worry their prayers" are like wind-whipped waves.

<sup>10</sup> And when the arrogant rich are brought down to size, cheer! Prosperity is as short-lived as a wildflower, so don't ever count on it.

<sup>11</sup> You know that as soon as the sun rises, pouring down its scorching heat, the flower withers. Its petals wilt and, before you know it, that beautiful face is a barren stem. Well, that's a picture of the "prosperous life." At the very moment everyone is looking on in admiration, it fades away to nothing.

<sup>12</sup> Anyone who meets a testing challenge head-on and manages to stick it out is mighty fortunate. For such persons loyally in love with God, the reward is life and more life.

<sup>13</sup> Don't let anyone under pressure to give in to evil say, "God is trying to trip me up." God is impervious to evil, and puts evil in no one's way.

<sup>14</sup> The temptation to give in to evil comes from us and only us. We have no one to blame but the leering, seducing flare-up of our own lust.

<sup>15</sup> Lust gets pregnant, and has a baby: sin! Sin grows up to adulthood, and becomes a real killer.

<sup>17</sup> Every desirable and beneficial gift comes out of heaven. The gifts are rivers of light cascading down from the Father of Light. There is nothing deceitful in God, nothing two-faced, nothing fickle.

<sup>18</sup> He brought us to life using the true Word, showing us off as the crown of all his creatures.

<sup>21</sup> So throw all spoiled virtue and cancerous evil in the garbage. In simple humility, let our gardener, God, landscape you with the Word, making a salvation-garden of your life.

<sup>22</sup> Don't fool yourself into thinking that you are a listener when you are anything but, letting the Word go in one ear and out the other. Act on what you hear!

<sup>23</sup> Those who hear and don't act are like those who glance in the mirror, <sup>24</sup> walk away, and two minutes later have no idea who they are, what they look like.

<sup>25</sup> But whoever catches a glimpse of the revealed counsel of God--the free life!--even out of the corner of his eye, and sticks with it, is no distracted scatterbrain but a man or woman of action. That person will find delight and affirmation in the action.

<sup>26</sup> Anyone who sets himself up as "religious" by talking a good game is self-deceived. This kind of religion is hot air and only hot air.

<sup>27</sup> Real religion, the kind that passes muster before God the Father, is this: Reach out to the homeless and loveless in their plight, and guard against corruption from the godless world.

2<sup>1</sup> My dear friends, don't let public opinion influence how you live out our glorious, Christ-originated faith.

<sup>4</sup> haven't you segregated God's children and proved that you are judges who can't be trusted?

<sup>5</sup> Listen, dear friends. Isn't it clear by now that God operates quite differently? He chose the world's down-and-out as the kingdom's first citizens, with full rights and privileges. This kingdom is promised to anyone who loves God.

<sup>6</sup> And here you are abusing these same citizens! Isn't it the high and mighty who exploit you, who use the courts to rob you blind?

<sup>7</sup> Aren't they the ones who scorn the new name--"Christian"--used in your baptisms?

<sup>8</sup> You do well when you complete the Royal Rule of the Scriptures: "Love others as you love yourself."

<sup>9</sup> But if you play up to these so-called important people, you go against the Rule and stand convicted by it.

<sup>10</sup> You can't pick and choose in these things, specializing in keeping one or two things in God's law and ignoring others.

<sup>11</sup> The same God who said, "Don't commit adultery," also said, "Don't murder." If you don't commit adultery but go ahead and murder, do you think your non-adultery will cancel out your murder? No, you're a murderer, period.

<sup>12</sup> Talk and act like a person expecting to be judged by the Rule that sets us free.

<sup>13</sup> For if you refuse to act kindly, you can hardly expect to be treated kindly. Kind mercy wins over harsh judgment every time.

<sup>14</sup> Dear friends, do you think you'll get anywhere in this if you learn all the right words but never do anything? Does merely talking about faith indicate that a person really has it?

<sup>15</sup> For instance, you come upon an old friend dressed in rags and half-starved

<sup>16</sup> and say, "Good morning, friend! Be clothed in Christ! Be filled with the Holy Spirit!" and walk off without providing so much as a coat or a cup of soup--where does that get you?

<sup>17</sup> Isn't it obvious that God-talk without God-acts is outrageous nonsense?

<sup>18</sup> I can already hear one of you agreeing by saying, "Sounds good. You take care of the faith department, I'll handle the works department." Not so fast. You can no more show me your works apart from your faith than I can show you my faith apart from my works. Faith and works, works and faith, fit together hand in glove.

<sup>19</sup> Do I hear you professing to believe in the one and only God, but then observe you complacently sitting back as if you had done something wonderful? That's just great. Demons do that, but what good does it do them?

<sup>20</sup> Use your heads! Do you suppose for a minute that you can cut faith and works in two and not end up with a corpse on your hands?

<sup>21</sup> Wasn't our ancestor Abraham "made right with God by works" when he placed his son Isaac on the sacrificial altar?

<sup>22</sup> Isn't it obvious that faith and works are yoked partners, that faith expresses itself in works? That the works are "works of faith"?

<sup>23</sup> The full meaning of "believe" in the Scripture sentence, "Abraham believed God and was set right with God," includes his action. It's that mesh of believing and acting that got Abraham named "God's friend."

<sup>24</sup> Is it not evident that a person is made right with God not by a barren faith but by faith fruitful in works?

<sup>25</sup> The same with Rahab, the Jericho harlot. Wasn't her action in hiding God's spies and helping them escape--that seamless unity of believing and [doing]--what counted with God?

<sup>26</sup> The very moment you separate body and spirit, you end up with a corpse. Separate faith and works and you get the same thing: a corpse.

3<sup>1</sup> Don't be in any rush to become a teacher, my friends. Teaching is highly responsible work. Teachers are held to the strictest standards.

<sup>2</sup> And none of us is perfectly qualified. We get it wrong nearly every time we open our mouths. If you could find someone whose speech was perfectly true, you'd have a perfect person, in perfect control of life.

<sup>5</sup> A word out of your mouth may seem of no account, but it can accomplish nearly anything--or destroy it! It only takes a spark, remember, to set off a forest fire.

<sup>6</sup> A careless or wrongly placed word out of your mouth can do that. By our speech we can ruin the world, turn harmony to chaos, throw mud on a reputation, send the whole world up in smoke and go up in smoke with it, smoke right from the pit of hell.

<sup>8</sup> but you can't tame a tongue--it's never been done. The tongue runs wild, a wanton killer.

<sup>9</sup> With our tongues we bless God our Father; with the same tongues we curse the very men and women he made in his image.

<sup>11</sup> A spring doesn't gush fresh water one day and brackish the next, does it?

<sup>12</sup> Apple trees don't bear strawberries, do they? Raspberry bushes don't bear apples, do they? You're not going to dip into a polluted mud hole and get a cup of clear, cool water, are you?

<sup>13</sup> Do you want to be counted wise, to build a reputation for wisdom? Here's what you do: Live well, live wisely, live humbly. It's the way you live, not the way you talk, that counts.

<sup>16</sup> Whenever you're trying to look better than others or get the better of others, things fall apart and everyone ends up at the others' throats.

<sup>17</sup> Real wisdom, God's wisdom, begins with a holy life and is characterized by getting along with others. It is gentle and reasonable, overflowing with mercy and blessings, not hot one day and cold the next, not two-faced.

<sup>18</sup> You can develop a healthy, robust community that lives right with God and enjoy its results only if you do the hard work of getting along with each other, treating each other with dignity and honor.

4<sup>1</sup> Where do you think all these appalling wars and quarrels come from? Do you think they just happen? Think again. They come about because you want your own way, and fight for it deep inside yourselves.

<sup>2</sup> You lust for what you don't have and are willing to kill to get it. You want what isn't yours and will risk violence to get your hands on it. You wouldn't think of just asking God for it, would you?

<sup>3</sup> And why not? Because you know you'd be asking for what you have no right to. You're spoiled children, each wanting your own way.

<sup>4</sup> You're cheating on God. If all you want is your own way, flirting with the world every chance you get, you end up enemies of God and his way.

<sup>5</sup> And do you suppose God doesn't care? The proverb has it that "he's a fiercely jealous lover."

<sup>6</sup> And what he gives in love is far better than anything else you'll find. It's common knowledge that "God goes against the willful proud; God gives grace to the willing humble."

<sup>7</sup> So let God work his will in you. Yell a loud [no] to the Devil and watch him scamper.

<sup>8</sup> Say a quiet yes to God and he'll be there in no time. Quit dabbling in sin. Purify your inner life. Quit playing the field.

<sup>10</sup> Get down on your knees before the Master; it's the only way you'll get on your feet.

<sup>11</sup> Don't bad-mouth each other, friends. It's God's Word, his Message, his Royal Rule, that takes a beating in that kind of talk. You're supposed to be honoring the Message, not writing graffiti all over it.

<sup>12</sup> God is in charge of deciding human destiny. Who do you think you are to meddle in the destiny of others?

<sup>13</sup> And now I have a word for you who brashly announce, "Today--at the latest, tomorrow--we're off to such and such a city for the year. We're going to start a business and make a lot of money."

<sup>14</sup> You don't know the first thing about tomorrow. You're nothing but a wisp of fog, catching a brief bit of sun before disappearing.

<sup>15</sup> Instead, make it a habit to say, "If the Master wills it and we're still alive, we'll do this or that."

<sup>16</sup> As it is, you are full of your grandiose selves. All such vaunting self-importance is evil.

<sup>17</sup> In fact, if you know the right thing to do and don't do it, that, for you, [is] evil.

5 <sup>1</sup> And a final word to you arrogant rich: Take some lessons in lament. You'll need buckets for the tears when the crash comes upon you.

<sup>5</sup> You've looted the earth and lived it up. But all you'll have to show for it is a fatter than usual corpse.

<sup>6</sup> In fact, what you've done is condemn and murder perfectly good persons, who stand there and take it.

<sup>8</sup> Be patient like that. Stay steady and strong. The Master could arrive at any time.

<sup>9</sup> Friends, don't complain about each other. A far greater complaint could be lodged against you, you know. The Judge is standing just around the corner.

<sup>10</sup> Take the old prophets as your mentors. They put up with anything, went through everything, and never once quit, all the time honoring God.

<sup>11</sup> What a gift life is to those who stay the course! You've heard, of course, of Job's staying power, and you know how God brought it all together for him at the end. That's because God cares, cares right down to the last detail.

<sup>12</sup> And since you know that he cares, let your language show it. Don't add words like "I swear to God" to your own words. Don't show your impatience by concocting oaths to hurry up God. Just say yes or no. Just say what is true. That way, your language can't be used against you.

<sup>14</sup> Are you sick? Call the church leaders together to pray and anoint you with oil in the name of the Master.

<sup>15</sup> Believing-prayer will heal you, and Jesus will put you on your feet. And if you've sinned, you'll be forgiven--healed inside and out.

<sup>16</sup> Make this your common practice: Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you can live together whole and healed. The prayer of a person living right with God is something powerful to be reckoned with.

<sup>17</sup> Elijah, for instance, human just like us, prayed hard that it wouldn't rain, and it didn't--not a drop for three and a half years.

<sup>18</sup> Then he prayed that it would rain, and it did. The showers came and everything started growing again.

<sup>19</sup> My dear friends, if you know people who have wandered off from God's truth, don't write them off. Go after them. Get them back <sup>20</sup> and you will have rescued precious lives from destruction and prevented an epidemic of wandering away from God.

1 Peter

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Peter, am an apostle on assignment by Jesus, the Messiah, writing to exiles scattered to the four winds. Not one is missing, not one forgotten.

<sup>2</sup> God the Father has his eye on each of you, and has determined by the work of the Spirit to keep you obedient through the sacrifice of Jesus. May everything good from God be yours!

<sup>3</sup> What a God we have! And how fortunate we are to have him, this Father of our Master Jesus! Because Jesus was raised from the dead, we've been given a brand-new life and have everything to live for, <sup>4</sup> including a future in heaven--and the future starts now!

<sup>5</sup> God is keeping careful watch over us and the future. The Day is coming when you'll have it all--life healed and whole.

<sup>6</sup> I know how great this makes you feel, even though you have to put up with every kind of aggravation in the meantime.

<sup>7</sup> Pure gold put in the fire comes out of it [proved] pure; genuine faith put through this suffering comes out [proved] genuine. When Jesus wraps this all up, it's your faith, not your gold, that God will have on display as evidence of his victory.

<sup>8</sup> You never saw him, yet you love him. You still don't see him, yet you trust him--with laughter and singing.

<sup>10</sup> The prophets who told us this was coming asked a lot of questions about this gift of life God was preparing.

<sup>11</sup> The Messiah's Spirit let them in on some of it--that the Messiah would experience suffering, followed by glory. They clamored to know who and when.

<sup>12</sup> All they were told was that they were serving you, you who by orders from heaven have now heard for yourselves--through the Holy Spirit--the Message of those prophecies fulfilled. Do you realize how fortunate you are? Angels would have given anything to be in on this!

<sup>13</sup> So roll up your sleeves, put your mind in gear, be totally ready to receive the gift that's coming when Jesus arrives.

<sup>14</sup> Don't lazily slip back into those old grooves of evil, doing just what you feel like doing. You didn't know any better then; you do now.

<sup>15</sup> As obedient children, let yourselves be pulled into a way of life shaped by God's life, a life energetic and blazing with holiness.

<sup>16</sup> God said, "I am holy; you be holy."

<sup>17</sup> You call out to God for help and he helps--he's a good Father that way. But don't forget, he's also a responsible Father, and won't let you get by with sloppy living. Your life is a journey you must travel with a deep consciousness of God.

<sup>18</sup> It cost God plenty to get you out of that dead-end, empty-headed life you grew up in.

<sup>19</sup> He paid with Christ's sacred blood, you know. He died like an unblemished, sacrificial lamb.

<sup>20</sup> And this was no afterthought. Even though it has only lately--at the end of the ages--become public knowledge, God always knew he was going to do this for you.

<sup>21</sup> It's because of this sacrificed Messiah, whom God then raised from the dead and glorified, that you trust God, that you know you have a future in God.

<sup>22</sup> Now that you've cleaned up your lives by following the truth, love one another as if your lives depended on it.

<sup>24</sup> That's why the prophet said, The old life is a grass life, its beauty as short-lived as wildflowers; Grass dries up, flowers droop, <sup>25</sup> God's Word goes on and on forever. This is the Word that conceived the new life in you.

2 <sup>1</sup> So clean house! Make a clean sweep of malice and pretense, envy and hurtful talk.

<sup>2</sup> Now, like infants at the breast, drink deep of God's pure kindness. Then you'll grow up mature and whole in God.

<sup>3</sup> You've had a taste of God.

<sup>4</sup> Welcome to the living Stone, the source of life. The workmen took one look and threw it out; God set it in the place of honor.

<sup>5</sup> Present yourselves as building stones for the construction of a sanctuary vibrant with life, in which you'll serve as holy priests offering Christ-approved lives up to God.

<sup>6</sup> The Scriptures provide precedent: Look! I'm setting a stone in Zion, a cornerstone in the place of honor. Whoever trusts in this stone as a foundation will never have cause to regret it.

<sup>7</sup> To you who trust him, he's a Stone to be proud of, but to those who refuse to trust him, The stone the workmen threw out is now the chief foundation stone.

<sup>8</sup> For the untrusting it's...a stone to trip over, a boulder blocking the way. They trip and fall because they refuse to obey, just as predicted.

<sup>9</sup> But you are the ones chosen by God, chosen for the high calling of priestly work, chosen to be a holy people, God's instruments to do his work and speak out for him, to tell others of the night-and-day difference he made for you--

<sup>11</sup> Friends, this world is not your home, so don't make yourselves cozy in it. Don't indulge your ego at the expense of your soul.

<sup>12</sup> Live an exemplary life among the natives so that your actions will refute their prejudices. Then they'll be won over to God's side and be there to join in the celebration when he arrives.

<sup>13</sup> Make the Master proud of you by being good citizens. Respect the authorities, whatever their level;

<sup>14</sup> they are God's emissaries for keeping order.

<sup>15</sup> It is God's will that by doing good, you might cure the ignorance of the fools who think you're a danger to society.

<sup>16</sup> Exercise your freedom by serving God, not by breaking the rules.

<sup>17</sup> Treat everyone you meet with dignity. Love your spiritual family. Revere God. Respect the government.

<sup>18</sup> You who are servants, be good servants to your masters--not just to good masters, but also to bad ones.

<sup>19</sup> What counts is that you put up with it for God's sake when you're treated badly for no good reason.

<sup>20</sup> There's no particular virtue in accepting punishment that you well deserve. But if you're treated badly for good behavior and continue in spite of it to be a good servant, that is what counts with God.

<sup>21</sup> This is the kind of life you've been invited into, the kind of life Christ lived. He suffered everything that came his way so you would know that it could be done, and also know how to do it, step-by-step.

<sup>22</sup> He never did one thing wrong, Not once said anything amiss.

<sup>23</sup> They called him every name in the book and he said nothing back. He suffered in silence, content to let God set things right.

<sup>24</sup> He used his servant body to carry our sins to the Cross so we could be rid of sin, free to live the right way. His wounds became your healing.

<sup>25</sup> You were lost sheep with no idea who you were or where you were going. Now you're named and kept for good by the Shepherd of your souls.

3 <sup>1</sup> The same goes for you wives:
Be good wives to your husbands, responsive to their needs. There are husbands who, indifferent as they are to any words about God, will be captivated <sup>2</sup> by your life of holy beauty.

<sup>3</sup> What matters is not your outer appearance--the styling of your hair, the jewelry you wear, the cut of your clothes--

<sup>4</sup> but your inner disposition. Cultivate inner beauty, the gentle, gracious kind that God delights in.

<sup>5</sup> The holy women of old were beautiful before God that way, and were good, loyal wives to their husbands.

<sup>6</sup> Sarah, for instance, taking care of Abraham, would address him as "my dear husband." You'll be true daughters of Sarah if you do the same, unanxious and unintimidated.

<sup>7</sup> The same goes for you husbands: Be good husbands to your wives. Honor them, delight in them. As women they lack some of your advantages. But in the new life of God's grace, you're equals. Treat your wives, then, as equals so your prayers don't run aground.

<sup>9</sup> That goes for all of you, no exceptions. No retaliation. No sharp-tongued sarcasm. Instead, bless--that's your job, to bless. You'll be a blessing and also get a blessing.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever wants to embrace life and see the day fill up with good, Here's what you do: Say nothing evil or hurtful;

<sup>12</sup> God looks on all this with approval, listening and responding well to what he's asked; But he turns his back on those who do evil things.

<sup>13</sup> If with heart and soul you're doing good, do you think you can be stopped?

<sup>14</sup> Even if you suffer for it, you're still better off. Don't give the opposition a second thought.

<sup>15</sup> Through thick and thin, keep your hearts at attention, in adoration before Christ, your Master. Be ready to speak up and tell anyone who asks why you're living the way you are, and always with the utmost courtesy.

<sup>16</sup> Keep a clear conscience before God so that when people throw mud at you, none of it will stick. They'll end up realizing that [they're] the ones who need a bath.

<sup>17</sup> It's better to suffer for doing good, if that's what God wants, than to be punished for doing bad.

<sup>18</sup> That's what Christ did definitively: suffered because of others' sins, the Righteous One for the unrighteous ones. He went through it all--was put to death and then made alive--to bring us to God.

<sup>19</sup> He went and proclaimed God's salvation to earlier generations who ended up in the prison of judgment

<sup>20</sup> because they wouldn't listen. You know, even though God waited patiently all the days that Noah built his ship, only a few were saved then, eight to be exact--saved [from] the water [by] the water.

<sup>21</sup> The waters of baptism do that for you, not by washing away dirt from your skin but by presenting you through Jesus' resurrection before God with a clear conscience.

<sup>22</sup> Jesus has the last word on everything and everyone, from angels to armies. He's standing right alongside God, and what he says goes.

4 <sup>1</sup> Since Jesus went through everything you're going through and more, learn to think like him. Think of your sufferings as a weaning from that old sinful habit of always expecting to get your own way.

<sup>2</sup> Then you'll be able to live out your days free to pursue what God wants instead of being tyrannized by what you want.

<sup>3</sup> You've already put in your time in that God-ignorant way of life, partying night after night, a drunken and profligate life. Now it's time to be done with it for good.

<sup>4</sup> Of course, your old friends don't understand why you don't join in with the old gang anymore. But you don't have to give an account to them.

<sup>5</sup> They're the ones who will be called on the carpet--and before God himself.

<sup>6</sup> Listen to the Message. It was preached to those believers who are now dead, and yet even though they died (just as all people must), they will still get in on the [life] that God has given in Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> Everything in the world is about to be wrapped up, so take nothing for granted. Stay wide-awake in prayer.

<sup>8</sup> Most of all, love each other as if your life depended on it. Love makes up for practically anything.

<sup>10</sup> Be generous with the different things God gave you, passing them around so all get in on it:

<sup>11</sup> if words, let it be God's words; if help, let it be God's hearty help. That way, God's bright presence will be evident in everything through Jesus, and [he'll] get all the credit as the One mighty in everything--encores to the end of time. Oh, yes!

<sup>12</sup> Friends, when life gets really difficult, don't jump to the conclusion that God isn't on the job.

<sup>13</sup> Instead, be glad that you are in the very thick of what Christ experienced. This is a spiritual refining process, with glory just around the corner.

<sup>14</sup> If you're abused because of Christ, count yourself fortunate. It's the Spirit of God and his glory in you that brought you to the notice of others.

<sup>15</sup> If they're on you because you broke the law or disturbed the peace, that's a different matter.

<sup>16</sup> But if it's because you're a Christian, don't give it a second thought. Be proud of the distinguished status reflected in that name!

<sup>17</sup> It's judgment time for Christians. We're first in line. If it starts with us, think what it's going to be like for those who refuse God's Message!

<sup>18</sup> If good people barely make it, What's in store for the bad?

<sup>19</sup> So if you find life difficult because you're doing what God said, take it in stride. Trust him. He knows what he's doing, and he'll keep on doing it.

5 <sup>1</sup> I have a special concern for you church leaders. I know what it's like to be a leader, in on Christ's sufferings as well as the coming glory.

<sup>2</sup> Here's my concern: that you care for God's flock with all the diligence of a shepherd. Not because you have to, but because you want to please God. Not calculating what you can get out of it, but acting spontaneously.

<sup>4</sup> When God, who is the best shepherd of all, comes out in the open with his rule, he'll see that you've done it right and commend you lavishly.

<sup>5</sup> And you who are younger must follow your leaders. But all of you, leaders and followers alike, are to be down to earth with each other, for--God has had it with the proud, But takes delight in just plain people.

<sup>6</sup> So be content with who you are, and don't put on airs. God's strong hand is on you; he'll promote you at the right time.

<sup>7</sup> Live carefree before God; he is most careful with you.

<sup>8</sup> Keep a cool head. Stay alert. The Devil is poised to pounce, and would like nothing better than to catch you napping.

<sup>9</sup> Keep your guard up. You're not the only ones plunged into these hard times. It's the same with Christians all over the world. So keep a firm grip on the faith.

<sup>10</sup> The suffering won't last forever. It won't be long before this generous God who has great plans for us in Christ--eternal and glorious plans they are!--will have you put together and on your feet for good.

<sup>11</sup> He gets the last word; yes, he does.

<sup>12</sup> I'm sending this brief letter to you by Silas, a most dependable brother. I have the highest regard for him. I've written as urgently and accurately as I know how. This is God's generous truth; embrace it with both arms!

<sup>13</sup> The church in exile here with me--but not for a moment forgotten by God--wants to be remembered to you. Mark, who is like a son to me, says hello.

<sup>14</sup> Give holy embraces all around! Peace to you--to all who walk in Christ's ways.

2 Peter

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Simon Peter, am a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. I write this to you whose experience with God is as life-changing as ours, all due to our God's straight dealing and the intervention of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you many times over as you deepen in your experience with God and Jesus, our Master.

<sup>3</sup> Everything that goes into a life of pleasing God has been miraculously given to us by getting to know, personally and intimately, the One who invited us to God. The best invitation we ever received!

<sup>4</sup> We were also given absolutely terrific promises to pass on to you--your tickets to participation in the life of God after you turned your back on a world corrupted by lust.

<sup>8</sup> With these qualities active and growing in your lives, no grass will grow under your feet, no day will pass without its reward as you mature in your experience of our Master Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> Without these qualities you can't see what's right before you, oblivious that your old sinful life has been wiped off the books.

<sup>10</sup> So, friends, confirm God's invitation to you, his choice of you. Don't put it off;

do it now. Do this, and you'll have your life on a firm footing, <sup>11</sup> the streets paved and the way wide open into the eternal kingdom of our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Because the stakes are so high, even though you're up-to-date on all this truth and practice it inside and out, I'm not going to let up for a minute in calling you to attention before it.

<sup>13</sup> This is the post to which I've been assigned--keeping you alert with frequent reminders--and I'm sticking to it as long as I live.

<sup>14</sup> I know that I'm to die soon; the Master has made that quite clear to me.

<sup>15</sup> And so I am especially eager that you have all this down in black and white so that after I die, you'll have it for ready reference.

<sup>16</sup> We weren't, you know, just wishing on a star when we laid the facts out before you regarding the powerful return of our Master, Jesus Christ. We were there for the preview! We saw it with our own eyes:

<sup>17</sup> Jesus resplendent with light from God the Father as the voice of Majestic Glory spoke: "This is my Son, marked by my love, focus of all my delight."

<sup>18</sup> We were there on the holy mountain with him. We heard the voice out of heaven with our very own ears.

<sup>19</sup> We couldn't be more sure of what we saw and heard--[God's] glory, [God's] voice. The prophetic Word was confirmed to us. You'll do well to keep focusing on it. It's the one light you have in a dark time as you wait for daybreak and the rising of the Morning Star in your hearts.

<sup>20</sup> The main thing to keep in mind here is that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of private opinion.

<sup>21</sup> And why? Because it's not something concocted in the human heart. Prophecy resulted when the Holy Spirit prompted men and women to speak God's Word.

2 <sup>1</sup> But there were also [lying] prophets among the people then, just as there will be lying religious teachers among you. They'll smuggle in destructive divisions, pitting you against each other--biting the hand of the One who gave them a chance to have their lives back! They've put themselves on a fast downhill slide to destruction,

<sup>3</sup> They're only out for themselves. They'll say anything, [anything], that sounds good to exploit you. They won't, of course, get by with it. They'll come to a bad end, for God has never just stood by and let that kind of thing go on.

<sup>4</sup> God didn't let the rebel angels off the hook, but jailed them in hell till Judgment Day.

<sup>7</sup> But that good man Lot, driven nearly out of his mind by the sexual filth and perversity, was rescued.

<sup>8</sup> Surrounded by moral rot day after day after day, that righteous man was in constant torment.

<sup>9</sup> So God knows how to rescue the godly from evil trials. And he knows how to hold the feet of the wicked to the fire until Judgment Day.

<sup>10</sup> God is especially incensed against these "teachers" who live by lust, addicted to a filthy existence. They despise interference from true authority, preferring to indulge in self-rule. Insolent egotists, they don't hesitate to speak evil against the most splendid of creatures.

<sup>11</sup> Even angels, their superiors in every way, wouldn't think of throwing their weight around like that, trying to slander others before God.

<sup>12</sup> These people are nothing but brute beasts, born in the wild, predators on the prowl. In the very act of bringing down others with their ignorant blasphemies, they themselves will be brought down, losers in the end.

<sup>13</sup> Their evil will boomerang on them. They're so despicable and addicted to pleasure that they indulge in wild parties, carousing in broad daylight.

<sup>14</sup> They're obsessed with adultery, compulsive in sin, seducing every vulnerable soul they come upon. Their specialty is greed, and they're experts at it. Dead souls!

<sup>18</sup> They are loudmouths, full of hot air, but still they're dangerous. Men and women who have recently escaped from a deviant life are most susceptible to their brand of seduction.

<sup>19</sup> They promise these newcomers freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption, for if they're addicted to corruption--and they are--they're [enslaved].

<sup>20</sup> If they've escaped from the slum of sin by experiencing our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ, and then slid back into that same old life again, they're worse than if they had never left.

<sup>21</sup> Better not to have started out on the straight road to God than to start out and then turn back, repudiating the experience and the holy command.

3 <sup>1</sup> My dear friends, this is now the second time I've written to you, both letters reminders to hold your minds in a state of undistracted attention.

<sup>2</sup> Keep in mind what the holy prophets said, and the command of our Master and Savior that was passed on by your apostles.

<sup>3</sup> First off, you need to know that in the last days, mockers are going to have a heyday. Reducing everything to the level of their puny feelings,

<sup>4</sup> they'll mock, "So what's happened to the promise of his Coming? Our ancestors are dead and buried, and everything's going on just as it has from the first day of creation. Nothing's changed."

<sup>5</sup> They conveniently forget that long ago all the galaxies and this very planet were brought into existence out of watery chaos by God's word.

<sup>6</sup> Then God's word brought the chaos back in a flood that destroyed the world.

<sup>7</sup> The current galaxies and earth are fuel for the final fire. God is poised, ready to speak his word again, ready to give the signal for the judgment and destruction of the desecrating skeptics.

<sup>8</sup> Don't overlook the obvious here, friends. With God, one day is as good as a thousand years, a thousand years as a day.

<sup>9</sup> God isn't late with his promise as some measure lateness. He is restraining himself on account of you, holding back the End because he doesn't want anyone lost. He's giving everyone space and time to change.

<sup>10</sup> But when the Day of God's Judgment does come, it will be unannounced, like a thief. The sky will collapse with a thunderous bang, everything disintegrating in a huge conflagration, earth and all its works exposed to the scrutiny of Judgment.

<sup>11</sup> Since everything here today might well be gone tomorrow, do you see how essential it is to live a holy life?

<sup>12</sup> Daily expect the Day of God, eager for its arrival. The galaxies will burn up and the elements melt down that day--

<sup>13</sup> but [we'll] hardly notice. We'll be looking the other way, ready for the promised new heavens and the promised new earth, all landscaped with righteousness.

<sup>14</sup> So, my dear friends, since this is what you have to look forward to, do your very best to be found living at your best, in purity and peace.

<sup>15</sup> Interpret our Master's patient restraint for what it is: salvation. Our good brother Paul, who was given much wisdom in these matters,

<sup>16</sup> refers to this in all his letters, and has written you essentially the same thing. Some things Paul writes are difficult to understand. Irresponsible people who don't know what they are talking about twist them every which way. They do it to the rest of the Scriptures, too, destroying themselves as they do it.

<sup>17</sup> But you, friends, are well-warned. Be on guard lest you lose your footing and get swept off your feet by these lawless and loose-talking teachers.

<sup>18</sup> Grow in grace and understanding of our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ. Glory to the Master, now and forever! Yes!

1 John

1 <sup>1</sup> From the very first day, we were there, taking it all in--we heard it with our own ears, saw it with our own eyes, verified it with our own hands.

<sup>2</sup> The Word of Life appeared right before our eyes; we saw it happen! And now we're telling you in most sober prose that what we witnessed was, incredibly, this: The infinite Life of God himself took shape before us.

<sup>3</sup> We saw it, we heard it, and now we're telling you so you can experience it along with us, this experience of communion with the Father and his Son, Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> Our motive for writing is simply this: We want you to enjoy this, too. Your joy will double our joy!

<sup>5</sup> This, in essence, is the message we heard from Christ and are passing on to you: God is light, pure light; there's not a trace of darkness in him.

<sup>6</sup> If we claim that we experience a shared life with him and continue to stumble around in the dark, we're obviously lying through our teeth--we're not [living] what we claim.

<sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light, God himself being the light, we also experience a shared life with one another, as the sacrificed blood of Jesus, God's Son, purges all our sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we claim that we're free of sin, we're only fooling ourselves. A claim like that is errant nonsense.

<sup>9</sup> On the other hand, if we admit our sins--make a clean breast of them--he won't let us down; he'll be true to himself. He'll forgive our sins and purge us of all wrongdoing.

<sup>10</sup> If we claim that we've never sinned, we out-and-out contradict God--make a liar out of him. A claim like that only shows off our ignorance of God.

2 <sup>1</sup> I write this, dear children, to guide you out of sin. But if anyone does sin, we have a Priest-Friend in the presence of the Father: Jesus Christ, righteous Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> When he served as a sacrifice for our sins, he solved the sin problem for good--not only ours, but the whole world's.

<sup>3</sup> Here's how we can be sure that we know God in the right way: Keep his commandments.

<sup>4</sup> If someone claims, "I know him well!" but doesn't keep his commandments, he's obviously a liar. His life doesn't match his words.

<sup>5</sup> But the one who keeps God's word is the person in whom we see God's mature love. This is the only way to be sure we're in God.

<sup>6</sup> Anyone who claims to be intimate with God ought to live the same kind of life Jesus lived.

<sup>7</sup> My dear friends, I'm not writing anything new here. This is the oldest commandment in the book, and you've known it from day one. It's always been implicit in the Message you've heard.

<sup>8</sup> On the other hand, perhaps it is new, freshly minted as it is in both Christ and you--the darkness on its way out and the True Light already blazing!

<sup>9</sup> Anyone who claims to live in God's light and hates a brother or sister is still in the dark.

<sup>10</sup> It's the person who loves brother and sister who dwells in God's light and doesn't block the light from others.

<sup>11</sup> But whoever hates is still in the dark, stumbles around in the dark, doesn't know which end is up, blinded by the darkness.

<sup>12</sup> I remind you, my dear children: Your sins are forgiven in Jesus' name.

<sup>13</sup> You veterans were in on the ground floor, and know the One who started all this; you newcomers have won a big victory over the Evil One. And a second reminder, dear children: You know the Father from personal experience.

<sup>14</sup> You veterans know the One who started it all; and you newcomers--such vitality and strength! God's word is so steady in you. Your fellowship with God enables you to gain a victory over the Evil One.

<sup>15</sup> Don't love the world's ways. Don't love the world's goods. Love of the world squeezes out love for the Father.

<sup>16</sup> Practically everything that goes on in the world--wanting your own way, wanting everything for yourself, wanting to appear important--has nothing to do with the Father. It just isolates you from him.

<sup>17</sup> The world and all its wanting, wanting, wanting is on the way out--but whoever does what God wants is set for eternity.

<sup>18</sup> Children, time is just about up. You heard that Antichrist is coming. Well, they're all over the place, antichrists everywhere you look. That's how we know that we're close to the end.

<sup>19</sup> They left us, but they were never really with us. If they had been, they would have stuck it out with us, loyal to the end. In leaving, they showed their true colors, showed they never did belong.

<sup>20</sup> But you belong. The Holy One anointed you, and you all know it.

<sup>21</sup> I haven't been writing this to tell you something you don't know, but to confirm the truth you do know, and to remind you that the truth doesn't breed lies.

<sup>22</sup> So who is lying here? It's the person who denies that Jesus is the Divine Christ, that's who. This is what makes an antichrist: denying the Father, denying the Son.

<sup>23</sup> No one who denies the Son has any part with the Father, but affirming the Son is an embrace of the Father as well.

<sup>24</sup> Stay with what you heard from the beginning, the original message. Let it sink into your life. If what you heard from the beginning lives deeply in you, you will live deeply in both Son and Father.

<sup>26</sup> I've written to warn you about those who are trying to deceive you.

<sup>27</sup> But they're no match for what is embedded deeply within you--Christ's anointing, no less! You don't need any of their so-called teaching. Christ's anointing teaches you the truth on everything you need to know about yourself and him, uncontaminated by a single lie. Live deeply in what you were taught.

<sup>28</sup> And now, children, stay with Christ. Live deeply in Christ. Then we'll be ready for him when he appears, ready to receive him with open arms, with no cause for red-faced guilt or lame excuses when he arrives.

<sup>29</sup> Once you're convinced that he is right and righteous, you'll recognize that all who practice righteousness are God's true children.

3<sup>1</sup> What marvelous love the Father has extended to us! Just look at it--we're called children of God! That's who we really are. But that's also why the world doesn't recognize us or take us seriously, because it has no idea who he is or what he's up to.

<sup>2</sup> But friends, that's exactly who we are: children of God. And that's only the beginning. Who knows how we'll end up! What we know is that when Christ is openly revealed, we'll see him--and in seeing him, become like him.

<sup>3</sup> All of us who look forward to his Coming stay ready, with the glistening purity of Jesus' life as a model for our own.

<sup>4</sup> All who indulge in a sinful life are dangerously lawless, for sin is a major disruption of God's order.

<sup>5</sup> Surely you know that Christ showed up in order to get rid of sin. There is no sin in him, and sin is not part of his program.

<sup>6</sup> No one who lives deeply in Christ makes a practice of sin. None of those who do practice sin have taken a good look at Christ. They've got him all backwards.

<sup>7</sup> So, my dear children, don't let anyone divert you from the truth. It's the person who [acts] right who [is] right, just as we see it lived out in our righteous Messiah.

<sup>8</sup> Those who make a practice of sin are straight from the Devil, the pioneer in the practice of sin. The Son of God entered the scene to abolish the Devil's ways.

<sup>9</sup> People conceived and brought into life by God don't make a practice of sin. How could they? God's seed is deep within them, making them who they are. It's not in the nature of the God-begotten to practice and parade sin.

<sup>10</sup> Here's how you tell the difference between God's children and the Devil's children: The one who won't practice righteous ways isn't from God, nor is the one who won't love brother or sister. A simple test.

<sup>11</sup> For this is the original message we heard: We should love each other.

<sup>12</sup> We must not be like Cain, who joined the Evil One and then killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because he was deep in the practice of evil, while the acts of his brother were righteous.

<sup>13</sup> So don't be surprised, friends, when the world hates you. This has been going on a long time.

<sup>14</sup> The way we know we've been transferred from death to life is that we love our brothers and sisters. Anyone who doesn't love is as good as dead.

<sup>15</sup> Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know very well that eternal life and murder don't go together.

<sup>16</sup> This is how we've come to understand and experience love: Christ sacrificed his life for us. This is why we ought to live sacrificially for our fellow believers, and not just be out for ourselves.

<sup>17</sup> If you see some brother or sister in need and have the means to do something about it but turn a cold shoulder and do nothing, what happens to God's love? It disappears. And you made it disappear.

<sup>18</sup> My dear children, let's not just talk about love; let's practice real love.

<sup>19</sup> This is the only way we'll know we're living truly, living in God's reality.

<sup>20</sup> It's also the way to shut down debilitating self-criticism, even when there is something to it. For God is greater than our worried hearts and knows more about us than we do ourselves.

<sup>21</sup> And friends, once that's taken care of and we're no longer accusing or condemning ourselves, we're bold and free before God!

<sup>22</sup> We're able to stretch our hands out and receive what we asked for because we're doing what he said, doing what pleases him.

<sup>23</sup> Again, this is God's command: to believe in his personally named Son, Jesus Christ. He told us to love each other, in line with the original command.

<sup>24</sup> As we keep his commands, we live deeply and surely in him, and he lives in us. And this is how we experience his deep and abiding presence in us: by the Spirit he gave us.

4<sup>1</sup> My dear friends, don't believe everything you hear. Carefully weigh and examine what people tell you. Not everyone who talks about God comes from God. There are a lot of lying preachers loose in the world.

<sup>2</sup> Here's how you test for the genuine Spirit of God. Everyone who confesses openly his faith in Jesus Christ--the Son of God, who came as an actual flesh-and-blood person--comes from God and belongs to God.

<sup>3</sup> And everyone who refuses to confess faith in Jesus has nothing in common with God. This is the spirit of antichrist that you heard was coming. Well, here it is, sooner than we thought!

<sup>4</sup> My dear children, you come from God and belong to God. You have already won a big victory over those false teachers, for the Spirit in you is far stronger than anything in the world.

<sup>5</sup> These people belong to the Christ-denying world. They talk the world's language and the world eats it up.

<sup>6</sup> But we come from God and belong to God. Anyone who knows God understands us and listens. The person who has nothing to do with God will, of course, not listen to us. This is another test for telling the Spirit of Truth from the spirit of deception.

<sup>7</sup> My beloved friends, let us continue to love each other since love comes from God. Everyone who loves is born of God and experiences a relationship with God.

<sup>8</sup> The person who refuses to love doesn't know the first thing about God, because God [is] love--so you can't know him if you don't love.

<sup>9</sup> This is how God showed his love for us: God sent his only Son into the world so we might live through him.

<sup>10</sup> This is the kind of love we are talking about--not that we once upon a time loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to clear away our sins and the damage they've done to our relationship with God.

<sup>11</sup> My dear, dear friends, if God loved us like this, we certainly ought to love each other.

<sup>12</sup> No one has seen God, ever. But if we love one another, God dwells deeply within us, and his love becomes complete in us--perfect love!

<sup>13</sup> This is how we know we're living steadily and deeply in him, and he in us: He's given us life from his life, from his very own Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> Also, we've seen for ourselves and continue to state openly that the Father sent his Son as Savior of the world.

<sup>15</sup> Everyone who confesses that Jesus is God's Son participates continuously in an intimate relationship with God.

<sup>16</sup> We know it so well, we've embraced it heart and soul, this love that comes from God. God is love. When we take up permanent residence in a life of love, we live in God and God lives in us.

<sup>17</sup> This way, love has the run of the house, becomes at home and mature in us, so that we're free of worry on Judgment Day--our standing in the world is identical with Christ's.

<sup>18</sup> There is no room in love for fear. Well-formed love banishes fear. Since fear is crippling, a fearful life--fear of death, fear of judgment--is one not yet fully formed in love.

<sup>19</sup> We, though, are going to love--love and be loved. First we were loved, now we love. He loved us first.

<sup>20</sup> If anyone boasts, "I love God," and goes right on hating his brother or sister, thinking nothing of it, he is a liar. If he won't love the person he can see, how can he love the God he can't see?

<sup>21</sup> The command we have from Christ is blunt: Loving God includes loving people. You've got to love both.

5<sup>1</sup> Every person who believes that Jesus is, in fact, the Messiah, is God-begotten. If we love the One who conceives the child, we'll surely love the child who was conceived.

<sup>2</sup> The reality test on whether or not we love God's children is this: Do we love God? Do we keep his commands?

<sup>3</sup> The proof that we love God comes when we keep his commandments and they are not at all troublesome.

<sup>4</sup> Every God-begotten person conquers the world's ways. The conquering power that brings the world to its knees is our faith.

<sup>5</sup> The person who wins out over the world's ways is simply the one who believes Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus--the Divine Christ! He experienced a life-giving birth and a death-killing death. Not only birth from the womb, but baptismal birth of his ministry and sacrificial death. And all the while the Spirit is confirming the truth, the reality of God's presence at Jesus' baptism and crucifixion, bringing those occasions alive for us.

<sup>8</sup> the Spirit, the Baptism, the Crucifixion. And the three in perfect agreement.

<sup>9</sup> If we take human testimony at face value, how much more should we be reassured when God gives testimony as he does here, testifying concerning his Son.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever believes in the Son of God inwardly confirms God's testimony. Whoever refuses to believe in effect calls God a liar, refusing to believe God's own testimony regarding his Son.

<sup>11</sup> This is the testimony in essence: God gave us eternal life; the life is in his Son.

<sup>12</sup> So, whoever has the Son, has life; whoever rejects the Son, rejects life.

<sup>13</sup> My purpose in writing is simply this: that you who believe in God's Son will know beyond the shadow of a doubt that you have eternal life, the reality and not the illusion.

<sup>14</sup> And how bold and free we then become in his presence, freely asking according to his will, sure that he's listening.

<sup>15</sup> And if we're confident that he's listening, we know that what we've asked for is as good as ours.

<sup>16</sup> For instance, if we see a Christian believer sinning (clearly I'm not talking about those who make a practice of sin in a way that is "fatal," leading to eternal death), we ask for God's help and he gladly gives it, gives life to the sinner whose sin is not fatal. There is such a thing as a fatal sin, and I'm not urging you to pray about that.

<sup>17</sup> Everything we do wrong is sin, but not all sin is fatal.

<sup>18</sup> We know that none of the God-begotten makes a practice of sin--fatal sin. The God-begotten are also the God-protected. The Evil One can't lay a hand on them.

<sup>19</sup> We know that we are held firm by God; it's only the people of the world who continue in the grip of the Evil One.

<sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God came so we could recognize and understand the truth of God--what a gift!--and we are living in the Truth itself, in God's Son, Jesus Christ. This Jesus is both True God and Real Life.

<sup>21</sup> Dear children, be on guard against all clever facsimiles.

2 John

1 <sup>1</sup> My dear congregation, I, your pastor, love you in very truth. And I'm not alone--everyone who knows the Truth <sup>2</sup> that has taken up permanent residence in us loves you.

<sup>3</sup> Let grace, mercy, and peace be with us in truth and love from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, Son of the Father!

<sup>4</sup> I can't tell you how happy I am to learn that many members of your congregation are diligent in living out the Truth, exactly as commanded by the Father.

<sup>5</sup> But permit me a reminder, friends, and this is not a new commandment but simply a repetition of our original and basic charter: that we love each other.

<sup>6</sup> Love means following his commandments, and his unifying commandment is that you conduct your lives in love. This is the first thing you heard, and nothing has changed.

<sup>7</sup> There are a lot of smooth-talking charlatans loose in the world who refuse to believe that Jesus Christ was truly human, a flesh-and-blood human being. Give them their true title: Deceiver! Antichrist!

<sup>8</sup> And be very careful around them so you don't lose out on what we've worked so diligently in together; I want you to get every reward you have coming to you.

<sup>9</sup> Anyone who gets so progressive in his thinking that he walks out on the teaching of Christ, walks out on God. But whoever stays with the teaching, stays faithful to both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup> If anyone shows up who doesn't hold to this teaching, don't invite him in and give him the run of the place.

<sup>12</sup> I have a lot more things to tell you, but I'd rather not use paper and ink. I hope to be there soon in person and have a heart-to-heart talk. That will be far more satisfying to both you and me.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone here in your sister congregation sends greetings.

3 John

1 <sup>1</sup> The Pastor, to my good friend Gaius: How truly I love you!

<sup>2</sup> We're the best of friends, and I pray for good fortune in everything you do, and for your good health--that your everyday affairs prosper, as well as your soul!

<sup>3</sup> I was most happy when some friends arrived and brought the news that you persist in following the way of Truth.

<sup>4</sup> Nothing could make me happier than getting reports that my children continue diligently in the way of Truth!

<sup>5</sup> Dear friend, when you extend hospitality to Christian brothers and sisters, even when they are strangers, you make the faith visible.

<sup>6</sup> They've made a full report back to the church here, a message about your love. It's good work you're doing, helping these travelers on their way, hospitality worthy of God himself!

<sup>8</sup> So they deserve any support we can give them. In providing meals and a bed, we become their companions in spreading the Truth.

<sup>9</sup> Earlier I wrote something along this line to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves being in charge, denigrates my counsel.

<sup>10</sup> If I come, you can be sure I'll hold him to account for spreading vicious rumors about us. As if that weren't bad enough, he not only refuses hospitality to traveling Christians but tries to stop others from welcoming them. Worse yet, instead of inviting them in he throws them out.

<sup>11</sup> Friend, don't go along with evil. Model the good. The person who does good does God's work. The person who does evil falsifies God, doesn't know the first thing about God.

<sup>12</sup> Everyone has a good word for Demetrius--the Truth itself stands up for Demetrius! We concur, and you know we don't hand out endorsements lightly.

<sup>13</sup> I have a lot more things to tell you, but I'd rather not use pen and ink.

<sup>14</sup> I hope to be there soon in person and have a heart-to-heart talk. Peace to you. The friends here say hello. Greet our friends there by name.

Jude

1 <sup>1</sup> I, Jude, am a slave to Jesus Christ and brother to James, writing to those loved by God the Father, called and kept safe by Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Dear friends, I've dropped everything to write you about this life of salvation that we have in common. I have to write insisting--begging!--that you fight with everything you have in you for this faith entrusted to us as a gift to guard and cherish.

<sup>4</sup> What has happened is that some people have infiltrated our ranks (our Scriptures warned us this would happen), who beneath their pious skin are shameless scoundrels. Their design is to replace the sheer grace of our God with sheer license--which means doing away with Jesus Christ, our one and only Master.

<sup>5</sup> I'm laying this out as clearly as I can, even though you once knew all this well enough and shouldn't need reminding. Here it is in brief: The Master saved a people out of the land of Egypt. Later he destroyed those who defected.

<sup>6</sup> And you know the story of the angels who didn't stick to their post, abandoning it for other, darker missions. But they are now chained and jailed in a black hole until the great Judgment Day.

<sup>7</sup> Sodom and Gomorrah, which went to sexual rack and ruin along with the surrounding cities that acted just like them, are another example. Burning and burning and never burning up, they serve still as a stock warning.

<sup>8</sup> This is exactly the same program of these latest infiltrators: dirty sex, rule and rulers thrown out, glory dragged in the mud.

<sup>9</sup> The Archangel Michael, who went to the mat with the Devil as they fought over the body of Moses, wouldn't have dared level him with a blasphemous curse, but said simply, "No you don't. God will take care of you!"

<sup>12</sup> These people are warts on your love feasts as you worship and eat together. They're giving you a black eye--carousing shamelessly, grabbing anything that isn't nailed down. They're--Puffs of smoke pushed by gusts of wind; late autumn trees stripped clean of leaf and fruit, Doubly dead, pulled up by the roots; <sup>13</sup> wild ocean waves leaving nothing on the beach but the foam of their shame; Lost stars in outer space on their way to the black hole.

<sup>14</sup> Enoch, the seventh after Adam, prophesied of them: "Look! The Master comes with thousands of holy angels <sup>15</sup> to bring judgment against them all, convicting each person of every defiling act of shameless sacrilege, of every dirty word they have spewed of their pious filth."

<sup>16</sup> These are the "grumpers," the bellyachers, grabbing for the biggest piece of the pie, talking big, saying anything they think will get them ahead.

<sup>17</sup> But remember, dear friends, that the apostles of our Master, Jesus Christ, told us this would happen:

<sup>18</sup> "In the last days there will be people who don't take these things seriously anymore. They'll treat them like a joke, and make a religion of their own whims and lusts."

<sup>19</sup> These are the ones who split churches, thinking only of themselves. There's nothing to them, no sign of the Spirit!

<sup>20</sup> But you, dear friends, carefully build yourselves up in this most holy faith by praying in the Holy Spirit,

<sup>23</sup> Go after those who take the wrong way. Be tender with sinners, but not soft on sin. The sin itself stinks to high heaven.

<sup>24</sup> And now to him who can keep you on your feet, standing tall in his bright presence, fresh and celebrating--

<sup>25</sup> to our one God, our only Savior, through Jesus Christ, our Master, be glory, majesty, strength, and rule before all time, and now, and to the end of all time. Yes.

Revelation

1 <sup>1</sup> A revealing of Jesus, the Messiah. God gave it to make plain to his servants what is about to happen. He published and delivered it by Angel to his servant John.

<sup>2</sup> And John told everything he saw: God's Word--the witness of Jesus Christ!

<sup>3</sup> How blessed the reader! How blessed the hearers and keepers of these oracle words, all the words written in this book! Time is just about up.

<sup>4</sup> I, John, am writing this to the seven churches in Asia province: All the best to you from THE GOD WHO IS, THE GOD WHO WAS, AND THE GOD ABOUT TO ARRIVE, and from the Seven Spirits assembled before his throne,

<sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ--Loyal Witness, Firstborn from the dead, Ruler of all earthly kings. Glory and strength to Christ, who loves us, who blood-washed our sins from our lives, <sup>6</sup> Who made us a Kingdom, Priests for his Father, forever--and yes, he's on his way!

<sup>7</sup> Riding the clouds, he'll be seen by every eye, those who mocked and killed him will see him, People from all nations and all times will tear their clothes in lament. Oh, Yes.

<sup>8</sup> The Master declares, "I'm A to Z. I'm THE GOD WHO IS, THE GOD WHO WAS, AND THE GOD ABOUT TO ARRIVE. I'm the Sovereign-Strong."

<sup>9</sup> I, John, with you all the way in the trial and the Kingdom and the passion of patience in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of God's Word, the witness of Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> It was Sunday and I was in the Spirit, praying. I heard a loud voice behind me, trumpet-clear and piercing:

<sup>11</sup> "Write what you see into a book. Send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup> I turned and saw the voice. I saw a gold menorah with seven branches,

<sup>13</sup> And in the center, the Son of Man, in a robe and gold breastplate,

<sup>17</sup> I saw this and fainted dead at his feet. His right hand pulled me upright, his voice reassured me: "Don't fear: I am First, I am Last, <sup>18</sup> I'm Alive. I died, but I came to life, and my life is now forever. See these keys in my hand? They open and lock Death's doors, they open and lock Hell's gates.

<sup>19</sup> Now write down everything you see: things that are, things about to be.

<sup>20</sup> The Seven Stars you saw in my right hand and the seven-branched gold menorah--do you want to know what's behind them? The Seven Stars are the Angels of the seven churches; the menorah's seven branches are the seven churches."

<sup>2</sup> "I see what you've done, your hard, hard work, your refusal to quit. I know you can't stomach evil, that you weed out apostolic pretenders.

<sup>3</sup> I know your persistence, your courage in my cause, that you never wear out.

<sup>4</sup> "But you walked away from your first love--why? What's going on with you, anyway?"

<sup>5</sup> Do you have any idea how far you've fallen? A Lucifer fall! "Turn back! Recover your dear early love. No time to waste, for I'm well on my way to removing your light from the golden circle.

<sup>6</sup> "You do have this to your credit: You hate the Nicolaitan business. I hate it, too.

<sup>7</sup> "Are your ears awake? Listen. Listen to the Wind Words, the Spirit blowing through the churches. I'm about to call each conqueror to dinner. I'm spreading a banquet of Tree-of-Life fruit, a supper plucked from God's orchard."

<sup>8</sup> Write this to Smyrna, to the Angel of the church. The Beginning and Ending, the First and Final One, the Once Dead and Then Come Alive, speaks:

<sup>9</sup> "I can see your pain and poverty-- constant pain, dire poverty--but I also see your wealth. And I hear the lie in the claims of those who pretend to be good Jews, who in fact belong to Satan's crowd.

<sup>10</sup> "Fear nothing in the things you're about to suffer--but stay on guard! Fear nothing! The Devil is about to throw you in jail for a time of testing--ten days. It won't last forever. "Don't quit, even if it costs you your life. Stay there believing. I have a Life-Crown sized and ready for you.

<sup>12</sup> Write this to Pergamum, to the Angel of the church. The One with the sharp-biting sword draws from the sheath of his mouth--out come the sword words:

<sup>13</sup> "I see where you live, right under the shadow of Satan's throne. But you continue boldly in my Name; you never once denied my Name, even when the pressure was worst, when they martyred Antipas, my witness who stayed faithful to me on Satan's turf.

<sup>14</sup> "But why do you indulge that Balaam crowd? Don't you remember that Balaam was an enemy agent, seducing Balak and sabotaging Israel's holy pilgrimage by throwing unholy parties?

<sup>15</sup> And why do you put up with the Nicolaitans, who do the same thing?

<sup>16</sup> "Enough! Don't give in to them; I'll be with you soon. I'm fed up and about to cut them to pieces with my sword-sharp words.

<sup>17</sup> "Are your ears awake? Listen. Listen to the Wind Words, the Spirit blowing through the churches. I'll give the sacred manna to every conqueror; I'll also give a clear, smooth stone inscribed with your new name, your secret new name."

<sup>18</sup> Write this to Thyatira, to the Angel of the church. God's Son, eyes pouring fire-blaze, standing on feet of furnace-fired bronze, says this:

<sup>19</sup> "I see everything you're doing for me. Impressive! The love and the faith, the service and persistence. Yes, very impressive! You get better at it every day.

<sup>20</sup> "But why do you let that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet mislead my dear servants into Cross-denying, self-indulging religion?"

<sup>21</sup> I gave her a chance to change her ways, but she has no intention of giving up a career in the god-business.

<sup>22</sup> I'm about to lay her low, along with her partners, as they play their sex-and-religion games.

<sup>23</sup> The bastard offspring of their idol-whoring I'll kill. Then every church will know that appearances don't impress me. I x-ray every motive and make sure you get what's coming to you.

<sup>24</sup> "The rest of you Thyatirans, who have nothing to do with this outrage, who scorn this playing around with the Devil that gets paraded as profundity, be assured I'll not make life any harder for you than it already is.

<sup>26</sup> "Here's the reward I have for every conqueror, everyone who keeps at it, refusing to give up: You'll rule the nations,

<sup>27</sup> your Shepherd-King rule as firm as an iron staff, their resistance fragile as clay pots. This was the gift my Father gave me; I pass it along to you--

3 <sup>1</sup> Write this to Sardis, to the Angel of the church. The One holding the Seven Spirits of God in one hand, a firm grip on the Seven Stars with the other, speaks: "I see right through your work. You have a reputation for vigor and zest, but you're dead, stone dead.

<sup>2</sup> "Up on your feet! Take a deep breath! Maybe there's life in you yet. But I wouldn't know it by looking at your busywork; nothing of [God's] work has been completed. Your condition is desperate.

<sup>3</sup> Think of the gift you once had in your hands, the Message you heard with your ears--grasp it again and turn back to God. "If you pull the covers back over your head and sleep on, oblivious to God, I'll return when you least expect it, break into your life like a thief in the night.

<sup>4</sup> "You still have a few Christians in Sardis who haven't ruined themselves wallowing in the muck of the world's ways. They'll walk with me on parade! They've proved their worth!

<sup>5</sup> "Conquerors will march in the victory parade, their names indelible in the Book of Life. I'll lead them up and present them by name to my Father and his Angels.

<sup>7</sup> Write this to Philadelphia, to the Angel of the church. The Holy, the True--David's key in his hand, opening doors no one can lock, locking doors no one can open--speaks:

<sup>8</sup> "I see what you've done. Now see what [I've] done. I've opened a door before you that no one can slam shut. You don't have much strength, I know that; you used what you had to keep my Word. You didn't deny me when times were rough.

<sup>9</sup> "And watch as I take those who call themselves true believers but are nothing of the kind, pretenders whose true membership is in the club of Satan--watch as I strip off their pretensions and they're forced to acknowledge it's you that I've loved.

<sup>10</sup> "Because you kept my Word in passionate patience, I'll keep you safe in the time of testing that will be here soon, and all over the earth, every man, woman, and child put to the test.

<sup>11</sup> "I'm on my way; I'll be there soon. Keep a tight grip on what you have so no one distracts you and steals your crown.

<sup>12</sup> "I'll make each conqueror a pillar in the sanctuary of my God, a permanent position of honor. Then I'll write names on you, the pillars: the Name of my God, the Name of God's City--the new Jerusalem coming down out of Heaven--and my new Name.

<sup>14</sup> Write to Laodicea, to the Angel of the church. God's Yes, the Faithful and Accurate Witness, the First of God's creation, says:

<sup>15</sup> "I know you inside and out, and find little to my liking. You're not cold, you're not hot--far better to be either cold or hot!

<sup>17</sup> You brag, 'I'm rich, I've got it made, I need nothing from anyone,' oblivious that in fact you're a pitiful, blind beggar, threadbare and homeless.

<sup>18</sup> "Here's what I want you to do: Buy your gold from me, gold that's been through the refiner's fire. Then you'll be rich. Buy your clothes from me, clothes designed in Heaven. You've gone around half-naked long enough. And buy medicine for your eyes from me so you can see, really see.

<sup>19</sup> "The people I love, I call to account--prod and correct and guide so that they'll live at their best. Up on your feet, then! About face! Run after God!

<sup>20</sup> "Look at me. I stand at the door. I knock. If you hear me call and open the door, I'll come right in and sit down to supper with you.

<sup>21</sup> Conquerors will sit alongside me at the head table, just as I, having conquered, took the place of honor at the side of my Father. That's my gift to the conquerors!

4 <sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and, oh!--a door open into Heaven. The trumpet-voice, the first voice in my vision, called out, "Ascend and enter. I'll show you what happens next."

<sup>6</sup> Before the Throne it was like a clear crystal sea. Prowling around the Throne were Four Animals, all eyes. Eyes to look ahead, eyes to look behind.

<sup>7</sup> The first Animal like a lion, the second like an ox, the third with a human face, the fourth like an eagle in flight.

<sup>8</sup> The Four Animals were winged, each with six wings. They were all eyes, seeing around and within. And they chanted night and day, never taking a break: Holy, holy, holy Is God our Master, Sovereign-Strong, THE WAS, THE IS, THE COMING.

<sup>11</sup> Worthy, O Master! Yes, our God! Take the glory! the honor! the power! You created it all; It was created because you wanted it.

5 <sup>1</sup> I saw a scroll in the right hand of the One Seated on the Throne. It was written on both sides, fastened with seven seals.

<sup>2</sup> I also saw a powerful Angel, calling out in a voice like thunder, "Is there anyone who can open the scroll, who can break its seals?"

<sup>3</sup> There was no one--no one in Heaven, no one on earth, no one from the underworld--able to break open the scroll and read it.

<sup>4</sup> I wept and wept and wept that no one was found able to open the scroll, able to read it.

<sup>5</sup> One of the Elders said, "Don't weep. Look--the Lion from Tribe Judah, the Root of David's Tree, has conquered. He can open the scroll, can rip through the seven seals."

<sup>6</sup> So I looked, and there, surrounded by Throne, Animals, and Elders, was a Lamb, slaughtered but standing tall. Seven horns he had, and seven eyes, the Seven Spirits of God sent into all the earth.

<sup>8</sup> The moment he took the scroll, the Four Animals and Twenty-four Elders fell down and worshiped the Lamb. Each had a harp and each had a bowl, a gold bowl filled with incense, the prayers of God's holy people.

<sup>9</sup> And they sang a new song: Worthy! Take the scroll, open its seals. Slain! Paying in blood, you bought men and women, Bought them back from all over the earth, Bought them back for God.

<sup>10</sup> Then you made them a Kingdom, Priests for our God, Priest-kings to rule over the earth.

<sup>11</sup> I looked again. I heard a company of Angels around the Throne, the Animals, and the Elders--ten thousand times ten thousand their number, thousand after thousand after thousand <sup>12</sup> in full song: The slain Lamb is worthy! Take the power, the wealth, the wisdom, the strength! Take the honor, the glory, the blessing!

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard every creature in Heaven and earth, in underworld and sea, join in, all voices in all places, singing: To the One on the Throne! To the Lamb! The blessing, the honor, the glory, the strength, For age after age after age.

<sup>14</sup> The Four Animals called out, "Oh, Yes!" The Elders fell to their knees and worshiped.

throats, killing one another. He was given a huge sword.

<sup>5</sup> When he ripped off the third seal, I heard the third Animal cry, "Come out!" I looked. A black horse this time. Its rider carried a set of scales in his hand.

<sup>6</sup> I heard a message (it seemed to issue from the Four Animals): "A quart of wheat for a day's wages, or three quarts of barley, but all the oil and wine you want."

<sup>7</sup> When he ripped off the fourth seal, I heard the fourth Animal cry, "Come out!"

<sup>8</sup> I looked. A colorless horse, sickly pale. Its rider was Death, and Hell was close on its heels. They were given power to destroy a fourth of the earth by war, famine, disease, and wild beasts.

<sup>9</sup> When he ripped off the fifth seal, I saw the souls of those killed because they had held firm in their witness to the Word of God. They were gathered under the Altar,

<sup>10</sup> and cried out in loud prayers, "How long, Strong God, Holy and True? How long before you step in and avenge our murders?"

<sup>11</sup> Then each martyr was given a white robe and told to sit back and wait until the full number of martyrs was filled from among their servant companions and friends in the faith.

<sup>12</sup> I watched while he ripped off the sixth seal: a bone-jarring earthquake, sun turned black as ink, moon all bloody,

<sup>13</sup> stars falling out of the sky like figs shaken from a tree in a high wind,

<sup>14</sup> sky snapped shut like a book, islands and mountains sliding this way and that.

<sup>15</sup> And then pandemonium, everyone and his dog running for cover--kings, princes, generals, rich and strong, along with every commoner, slave or free.

They hid in mountain caves and rocky dens,

<sup>16</sup> calling out to mountains and rocks, "Refuge! Hide us from the One Seated on the Throne and the wrath of the Lamb!

<sup>17</sup> The great Day of their wrath has come--who can stand it?"

7 <sup>1</sup> Immediately I saw Four Angels standing at the four corners of earth, standing steady with a firm grip on the four winds so no wind would blow on earth or sea, not even rustle a tree.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw another Angel rising from where the sun rose, carrying the seal of the Living God. He thundered to the Four Angels assigned the task of hurting earth and sea, <sup>3</sup> "Don't hurt the earth! Don't hurt the sea! Don't so much as hurt a tree until I've sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads!"

<sup>4</sup> I heard the count of those who were sealed: 144,000! They were sealed out of every Tribe of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> 12,000 sealed from Judah, 12,000 from Reuben, 12,000 from Gad,

<sup>8</sup> 12,000 from Zebulun, 12,000 from Joseph, 12,000 sealed from Benjamin.

<sup>9</sup> I looked again. I saw a huge crowd, too huge to count. Everyone was there—all nations and tribes, all races and languages. And they were [standing], dressed in white robes and waving palm branches, standing before the Throne and the Lamb

<sup>10</sup> and heartily singing: Salvation to our God on his Throne! Salvation to the Lamb!

<sup>11</sup> All who were standing around the Throne--Angels, Elders, Animals--fell on their faces before the Throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup> singing: Oh, Yes! The blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving, The honor and power and strength, To our God forever and ever and ever! Oh, Yes!

<sup>13</sup> Just then one of the Elders addressed me: "Who are these dressed in white robes, and where did they come from?"

<sup>14</sup> Taken aback, I said, "O Sir, I have no idea--but you must know." Then he told me, "These are those who come from the great tribulation, and they've washed their robes, scrubbed them clean in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> That's why they're standing before God's Throne. They serve him day and night in his Temple. The One on the Throne will pitch his tent there for them:

<sup>17</sup> The Lamb on the Throne will shepherd them, will lead them to spring waters of Life. And God will wipe every last tear from their eyes."

8 <sup>1</sup> When the Lamb ripped off the seventh seal, Heaven fell quiet—complete silence for about half an hour.

<sup>2</sup> I saw the Seven Angels who are always in readiness before God handed seven trumpets.

<sup>3</sup> Then another Angel, carrying a gold censer, came and stood at the Altar. He was given a great quantity of incense so that he could offer up the prayers of all the holy people of God on the Golden Altar before the Throne.

<sup>4</sup> Smoke billowed up from the incense-laced prayers of the holy ones, rose before God from the hand of the Angel.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Angel filled the censer with fire from the Altar and heaved it to earth. It set off thunders, voices, lightnings, and an earthquake.

<sup>7</sup> At the first trumpet blast, hail and fire mixed with blood were dumped on earth. A third of the earth was scorched, a third of the trees, and every blade of green grass--burned to a crisp.

<sup>8</sup> The second Angel trumpeted. Something like a huge mountain blazing with fire was flung into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood, <sup>9</sup> a third of the living sea creatures died, and a third of the ships sank.

<sup>10</sup> The third Angel trumpeted. A huge Star, blazing like a torch, fell from Heaven, wiping out a third of the rivers and a third of the springs.

<sup>11</sup> The Star's name was Wormwood. A third of the water turned bitter, and many people died from the poisoned water.

<sup>12</sup> The fourth Angel trumpeted. A third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars were hit, blacked out by a third, both day and night in one-third blackout.

<sup>13</sup> I looked hard; I heard a lone eagle, flying through Middle-Heaven, crying out ominously, "Doom! Doom! Doom to everyone left on earth! There are three more Angels about to blow their trumpets. Doom is on its way!"

9<sup>1</sup> The fifth Angel trumpeted. I saw a Star plummet from Heaven to earth. The Star was handed a key to the Well of the Abyss.

<sup>2</sup> He unlocked the Well of the Abyss-- smoke poured out of the Well, billows and billows of smoke, sun and air in blackout from smoke pouring out of the Well.

<sup>4</sup> They were given their orders: "Don't hurt the grass, don't hurt anything green, don't hurt a single tree--only men and women, and then only those who lack the seal of God on their foreheads."

<sup>5</sup> They were ordered to torture but not kill, torture them for five months, the pain like a scorpion sting.

<sup>6</sup> When this happens, people are going to prefer death to torture, look for ways to kill themselves. But they won't find a way--death will have gone into hiding.

<sup>7</sup> The locusts looked like horses ready for war. They had gold crowns, human faces,

<sup>8</sup> women's hair, the teeth of lions,

<sup>9</sup> and iron breastplates. The sound of their wings was the sound of horse-drawn chariots charging into battle.

<sup>10</sup> Their tails were equipped with stings, like scorpion tails. With those tails they were ordered to torture the human race for five months.

<sup>12</sup> The first doom is past. Two dooms yet to come.

<sup>15</sup> The Four Angels were untied and let loose, Four Angels all prepared for the exact year, month, day, and even hour when they were to kill a third of the human race.

<sup>16</sup> The number of the army of horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand. I heard the count <sup>17</sup> and saw both horses and riders in my vision: fiery breastplates on the riders, lion heads on the horses breathing out fire and smoke and brimstone.

<sup>18</sup> With these three weapons--fire and smoke and brimstone--they killed a third of the human race.

<sup>19</sup> The horses killed with their mouths and tails; their serpentlike tails also had heads that wreaked havoc.

<sup>20</sup> The remaining men and women who weren't killed by these weapons went on their merry way--didn't change their way of life, didn't quit worshiping demons, didn't quit centering their lives around lumps of gold and silver and brass, hunks of stone and wood that couldn't see or hear or move.

<sup>21</sup> There wasn't a sign of a change of heart. They plunged right on in their murderous, occult, promiscuous, and thieving ways.

10 <sup>1</sup> I saw another powerful Angel coming down out of Heaven wrapped in a cloud. There was a rainbow over his head, his face was sun-radiant, his legs pillars of fire.

<sup>4</sup> When the Seven Thunders spoke, I started to write it all down, but a voice out of Heaven stopped me, saying, "Seal with silence the Seven Thunders; don't write a word."

<sup>6</sup> and swore by the One Living Forever and Ever, who created Heaven and everything in it, earth and everything in it, sea and everything in it, that time was up--

<sup>7</sup> that when the seventh Angel blew his trumpet, which he was about to do, the Mystery of God, all the plans he had revealed to his servants, the prophets, would be completed.

<sup>8</sup> The voice out of Heaven spoke to me again: "Go, take the book held open in the hand of the Angel astride sea and earth."

<sup>9</sup> I went up to the Angel and said, "Give me the little book." He said, "Take it, then eat it. It will taste sweet like honey, but turn sour in your stomach."

<sup>10</sup> I took the little book from the Angel's hand and it was sweet honey in my mouth, but when I swallowed, my stomach curdled.

<sup>11</sup> Then I was told, "You must go back and prophesy again over many peoples and nations and languages and kings."

11 <sup>1</sup> I was given a stick for a measuring rod and told, "Get up and measure God's Temple and Altar and everyone worshiping in it.

<sup>2</sup> Exclude the outside court; don't measure it. It's been handed over to non-Jewish outsiders. They'll desecrate the Holy City for forty-two months.

<sup>3</sup> "Meanwhile, I'll provide my two Witnesses. Dressed in sackcloth, they'll prophesy for one thousand two hundred sixty days.

<sup>5</sup> If anyone tries to hurt them, a blast of fire from their mouths will incinerate them--burn them to a crisp just like that.

<sup>6</sup> They'll have power to seal the sky so that it doesn't rain for the time of their prophesying, power to turn rivers and springs to blood, power to hit earth with any and every disaster as often as they want.

<sup>7</sup> "When they've completed their witness, the Beast from the Abyss will emerge and fight them, conquer and kill them, <sup>8</sup> leaving their corpses exposed on the street of the Great City spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, the same City where their Master was crucified.

<sup>9</sup> For three and a half days they'll be there--exposed, prevented from getting a decent burial, stared at by the curious from all over the world.

<sup>10</sup> Those people will cheer at the spectacle, shouting 'Good riddance!' and calling for a celebration, for these two prophets pricked the conscience of all the people on earth, made it impossible for them to enjoy their sins.

<sup>11</sup> "Then, after three and a half days, the Living Spirit of God will enter them--they're on their feet!--and all those gloating spectators will be scared to death."

<sup>12</sup> I heard a strong voice out of Heaven calling, "Come up here!" and up they went to Heaven, wrapped in a cloud, their enemies watching it all.

<sup>13</sup> At that moment there was a gigantic earthquake--a tenth of the city fell to ruin, seven thousand perished in the earthquake, the rest frightened to the core of their being, frightened into giving honor to the God of Heaven.

<sup>15</sup> The seventh Angel trumpeted. A crescendo of voices in Heaven sang out, The kingdom of the world is now the Kingdom of our God and his Messiah! He will rule forever and ever!

<sup>17</sup> and sang, We thank you, O God, Sovereign-Strong, WHO IS AND WHO WAS. You took your great power and took over--reigned!

<sup>18</sup> The angry nations now get a taste of [your] anger. The time has come to judge the dead, to reward your servants, all prophets and saints, Reward small and great who fear your Name, and destroy the destroyers of earth.

was clearly seen surrounded by flashes of lightning, loud shouts, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and a fierce hailstorm.

12 <sup>1</sup> A great Sign appeared in Heaven: a Woman dressed all in sunlight, standing on the moon, and crowned with Twelve Stars.

<sup>3</sup> And then another Sign alongside the first: a huge and fiery Dragon! It had seven heads and ten horns, a crown on each of the seven heads.

<sup>4</sup> With one flick of its tail it knocked a third of the Stars from the sky and dumped them on earth. The Dragon crouched before the Woman in childbirth, poised to eat up the Child when it came.

<sup>5</sup> The Woman gave birth to a Son who will shepherd all nations with an iron rod. Her Son was seized and placed safely before God on his Throne.

<sup>6</sup> The Woman herself escaped to the desert to a place of safety prepared by God, all comforts provided her for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

<sup>8</sup> but were no match for Michael. They were cleared out of Heaven, not a sign of them left.

<sup>9</sup> The great Dragon--ancient Serpent, the one called Devil and Satan, the one who led the whole earth astray--thrown out, and all his Angels thrown out with him, thrown down to earth.

<sup>10</sup> Then I heard a strong voice out of Heaven saying, Salvation and power are established! Kingdom of our God, authority of his Messiah! The Accuser of our brothers and sisters thrown out, who accused them day and night before God.

<sup>11</sup> They defeated him through the blood of the Lamb and the bold word of their witness. They weren't in love with themselves; they were willing to die for Christ.

<sup>12</sup> So rejoice, O Heavens, and all who live there, but doom to earth and sea, For the Devil's come down on you with both feet; he's had a great fall; He's wild and raging with anger; he hasn't much time and he knows it.

<sup>13</sup> When the Dragon saw he'd been thrown to earth, he went after the Woman who had given birth to the Man-Child.

<sup>14</sup> The Woman was given wings of a great eagle to fly to a place in the desert to be kept in safety and comfort for a time and times and half a time, safe and sound from the Serpent.

<sup>17</sup> Helpless with rage, the Dragon raged at the Woman, then went off to make war with the rest of her children, the children who keep God's commands and hold firm to the witness of Jesus.

13 <sup>1</sup> And the Dragon stood on the shore of the sea. I saw a Beast rising from the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads--on each horn a crown, and each head inscribed with a blasphemous name.

<sup>2</sup> The Beast I saw looked like a leopard with bear paws and a lion's mouth. The Dragon turned over its power to it, its throne and great authority.

<sup>3</sup> One of the Beast's heads looked as if it had been struck a deathblow, and then healed. The whole earth was agog, gaping at the Beast.

<sup>4</sup> They worshiped the Dragon who gave the Beast authority, and they worshiped the Beast, exclaiming, "There's never been anything like the Beast! No one would dare go to war with the Beast!"

<sup>5</sup> The Beast had a loud mouth, boastful and blasphemous. It could do anything it wanted for forty-two months.

<sup>6</sup> It yelled blasphemies against God, blasphemed his Name, blasphemed his Church, especially those already dwelling with God in Heaven.

<sup>7</sup> It was permitted to make war on God's holy people and conquer them. It held absolute sway over all tribes and peoples, tongues and races.

<sup>8</sup> Everyone on earth whose name was not written from the world's foundation in the slaughtered Lamb's Book of Life will worship the Beast.

<sup>9</sup> Are you listening to this?

<sup>10</sup> They've made their bed; now they must lie in it. Anyone marked for prison goes straight to prison; anyone pulling a sword goes down by the sword. Meanwhile, God's holy people passionately and faithfully stand their ground.

<sup>11</sup> I saw another Beast rising out of the ground. It had two horns like a lamb but sounded like a dragon when it spoke.

<sup>12</sup> It was a puppet of the first Beast, made earth and everyone in it worship the first Beast, which had been healed of its deathblow.

<sup>13</sup> This second Beast worked magical signs, dazzling people by making fire come down from Heaven.

<sup>14</sup> It used the magic it got from the Beast to dupe earth dwellers, getting them to make an image of the Beast that received the deathblow and lived.

<sup>15</sup> It was able to animate the image of the Beast so that it talked, and then arrange that anyone not worshiping the Beast would be killed.

<sup>16</sup> It forced all people, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to have a mark on the right hand or forehead.

<sup>17</sup> Without the mark of the name of the Beast or the number of its name, it was impossible to buy or sell anything.

<sup>18</sup> Solve a riddle: Put your heads together and figure out the meaning of the number of the Beast. It's a human number: six hundred sixty-six.

14 <sup>1</sup> I saw--it took my breath away!--the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, One Hundred and Forty-four Thousand standing there with him, his Name and the Name of his Father inscribed on their foreheads.

<sup>2</sup> And I heard a voice out of Heaven, the sound like a cataract, like the crash of thunder. And then I heard music, harp music

<sup>3</sup> and the harpists singing a new song before the Throne and the Four Animals and the Elders. Only the Hundred and Forty-four Thousand could learn to sing the song. They were bought from earth, <sup>4</sup> lived without compromise, virgin-fresh before God. Wherever the Lamb went, they followed. They were bought from humankind, firstfruits of the harvest for God and the Lamb.

<sup>6</sup> I saw another Angel soaring in Middle-Heaven. He had an Eternal Message to preach to all who were still on earth, every nation and tribe, every tongue and people.

<sup>7</sup> He preached in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory! His hour of judgment has come! Worship the Maker of Heaven and earth, salt sea and fresh water!"

<sup>8</sup> A second Angel followed, calling out, "Ruined, ruined, Great Babylon ruined! She made all the nations drunk on the wine of her whoring!"

<sup>9</sup> A third Angel followed, shouting, warning, "If anyone worships the Beast and its image and takes the mark on forehead or hand, <sup>10</sup> that person will drink the wine of God's wrath, prepared unmixed in his chalice of anger, and suffer torment from fire and brimstone in the presence of Holy Angels, in the presence of the Lamb.

<sup>11</sup> Smoke from their torment will rise age after age. No respite for those who worship the Beast and its image, who take the mark of its name."

<sup>13</sup> I heard a voice out of Heaven, "Write this: Blessed are those who die in the Master from now on; how blessed to die that way!" "Yes," says the Spirit, "and blessed rest from their hard, hard work. None of what they've done is wasted; God blesses them for it all in the end."

<sup>14</sup> I looked up, I caught my breath!--a white cloud and one like the Son of Man sitting on it. He wore a gold crown and held a sharp sickle.

<sup>15</sup> Another Angel came out of the Temple, shouting to the Cloud-Enthroned, "Swing your sickle and reap. It's harvest time. Earth's harvest is ripe for reaping."

<sup>17</sup> Then another Angel came out of the Temple in Heaven. He also had a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup> Yet another Angel, the one in charge of tending the fire, came from the Altar. He thundered to the Angel who held the sharp sickle, "Swing your sharp sickle. Harvest earth's vineyard. The grapes are bursting with ripeness."

<sup>19</sup> The Angel swung his sickle, harvested earth's vintage, and heaved it into the winepress, the giant winepress of God's wrath.

<sup>20</sup> The winepress was outside the City. As the vintage was trodden, blood poured from the winepress as high as a horse's bridle, a river of blood for two hundred miles.

15 <sup>1</sup> I saw another Sign in Heaven, huge and breathtaking: seven Angels with seven disasters. These are the final disasters, the wrap-up of God's wrath.

<sup>2</sup> I saw something like a sea made of glass, the glass all shot through with fire. Carrying harps of God, triumphant over the Beast, its image, and the number of its name, the saved ones stood on the sea of glass.

<sup>3</sup> They sang the Song of Moses, servant of God; they sang the Song of the Lamb: Mighty your acts and marvelous, O God, the Sovereign-Strong! Righteous your ways and true, King of the nations!

<sup>4</sup> Who can fail to fear you, God, give glory to your Name? Because you and you only are holy, all nations will come and worship you, because they see your judgments are right.

<sup>5</sup> Then I saw the doors of the Temple, the Tent of Witness in Heaven, open wide.

<sup>6</sup> The Seven Angels carrying the seven disasters came out of the Temple. They were dressed in clean, bright linen and wore gold vests.

<sup>7</sup> One of the Four Animals handed the Seven Angels seven gold bowls, brimming with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup> Smoke from God's glory and power poured out of the Temple. No one was permitted to enter the Temple until the seven disasters of the Seven Angels were finished.

16 <sup>1</sup> I heard a shout of command from the Temple to the Seven Angels: "Begin! Pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath on earth!"

<sup>3</sup> The second Angel poured his bowl on the sea: The sea coagulated into blood, and everything in it died.

<sup>4</sup> The third Angel poured his bowl on rivers and springs: The waters turned to blood.

<sup>5</sup> I heard the Angel of Waters say, Righteous you are, and your judgments are righteous, THE IS, THE WAS, THE HOLY.

<sup>6</sup> They poured out the blood of saints and prophets so you've given them blood to drink--they've gotten what they deserve!

<sup>7</sup> Just then I heard the Altar chime in, Yes, O God, the Sovereign-Strong! Your judgments are true and just!

<sup>8</sup> The fourth Angel poured his bowl on the sun: Fire blazed from the sun and scorched men and women.

<sup>9</sup> Burned and blistered, they cursed God's Name, the God behind these disasters. They refused to repent, refused to honor God.

<sup>10</sup> The fifth Angel poured his bowl on the throne of the Beast: Its kingdom fell into sudden eclipse. Mad with pain, men and women bit and chewed their tongues, <sup>11</sup> cursed the God of Heaven for their torment and sores, and refused to repent and change their ways.

<sup>14</sup> These are demon spirits performing signs. They're after the kings of the whole world to get them gathered for battle on the Great Day of God, the Sovereign-Strong.

<sup>18</sup> followed by lightning flashes and shouts, thunder crashes and a colossal earthquake--a huge and devastating earthquake, never an earthquake like it since time began.

<sup>19</sup> The Great City split three ways, the cities of the nations toppled to ruin. Great Babylon had to drink the wine of God's raging anger--God remembered to give her the cup!

<sup>21</sup> Hailstones weighing a ton plummeted, crushing and smashing men and women as they cursed God for the hail, the epic disaster of hail.

17 <sup>1</sup> One of the Seven Angels who carried the seven bowls came and invited me, "Come, I'll show you the judgment of the great Whore who sits enthroned over many waters, <sup>2</sup> the Whore with whom the kings of the earth have gone whoring, show you the judgment on earth dwellers drunk on her whorish lust."

<sup>3</sup> In the Spirit he carried me out in the desert. I saw a woman mounted on a Scarlet Beast. Stuffed with blasphemies, the Beast had seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, festooned with gold and gems and pearls. She held a gold chalice in her hand, brimming with defiling obscenities, her foul fornications.

<sup>5</sup> A riddle-name was branded on her forehead: GREAT BABYLON, MOTHER OF WHORES AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

<sup>6</sup> I could see that the woman was drunk, drunk on the blood of God's holy people, drunk on the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. Astonished, I rubbed my eyes. I shook my head in wonder.

<sup>7</sup> The Angel said, "Does this surprise you? Let me tell you the riddle of the woman and the Beast she rides, the Beast with seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> The Beast you saw once was, is no longer, and is about to ascend from the Abyss and head straight for Hell. Earth dwellers whose names weren't written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will be dazzled when they see the Beast that once was, is no longer, and is to come.

<sup>9</sup> "But don't drop your guard. Use your head. The seven heads are seven hills; they are where the woman sits.

<sup>10</sup> They are also seven kings: five dead, one living, the other not yet here--and when he does come his time will be brief.

<sup>11</sup> The Beast that once was and is no longer is both an eighth and one of the seven--and headed for Hell.

<sup>12</sup> "The ten horns you saw are ten kings, but they're not yet in power. They will come to power with the Scarlet Beast, but won't last long--a very brief reign.

<sup>13</sup> These kings will agree to turn over their power and authority to the Beast.

<sup>14</sup> They will go to war against the Lamb but the Lamb will defeat them, proof that he is Lord over all lords, King over all kings, and those with him will be the called, chosen, and faithful."

<sup>15</sup> The Angel continued, "The waters you saw on which the Whore was enthroned are peoples and crowds, nations and languages.

<sup>17</sup> It was God who put the idea in their heads to turn over their rule to the Beast until the words of God are completed.

<sup>4</sup> Just then I heard another shout out of Heaven: Get out, my people, as fast as you can, so you don't get mixed up in her sins, so you don't get caught in her doom.

<sup>5</sup> Her sins stink to high Heaven; God has remembered every evil she's done.

<sup>6</sup> Give her back what she's given, double what she's doubled in her works, double the recipe in the cup she mixed;

<sup>7</sup> Bring her flaunting and wild ways to torment and tears. Because she gloated,

"I'm queen over all, and no widow, never a tear on my face,"

<sup>8</sup> In one day, disasters will crush her--death, heartbreak, and famine--Then she'll be burned by fire, because God, the Strong God who judges her, has had enough.

<sup>9</sup> "The kings of the earth will see the smoke of her burning, and they'll cry and carry on, the kings who went night after night to her brothel.

<sup>11</sup> "The traders will cry and carry on because the bottom dropped out of business, no more market for their goods:

perfumed wood and vessels of ivory, precious woods, bronze, iron, and marble;

<sup>13</sup> cinnamon and spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine and oil, flour and wheat; cattle, sheep, horses, and chariots. And slaves--their terrible traffic in human lives.

<sup>16</sup> Doom, doom, the great city doomed! Dressed in the latest fashions, adorned with the finest jewels,

<sup>17</sup> in one hour such wealth wiped out! "All the ship captains and travelers by sea, sailors and toilers of the sea, stood off at a distance

<sup>18</sup> and cried their lament when they saw the smoke from her burning: 'Oh, what a city! There was never a city like her!'

<sup>19</sup> They threw dust on their heads and cried as if the world had come to an end: Doom, doom, the great city doomed! All who owned ships or did business by sea Got rich on her getting and spending. And now it's over--wiped out in one hour!

<sup>20</sup> "O Heaven, celebrate! And join in, saints, apostles, and prophets! God has judged her; every wrong you suffered from her has been judged."

<sup>21</sup> A strong Angel reached for a boulder--huge, like a millstone--and heaved it into the sea, saying, Heaved and sunk, the great city Babylon, sunk in the sea, not a sign of her ever again.

trumpets again. Artisans of every kind--gone; you'll never see their likes again. The voice of a millstone grinding falls dumb; you'll never hear that sound again.

19 <sup>1</sup> I heard a sound like massed choirs in Heaven singing, Hallelujah! The salvation and glory and power are God's--

<sup>3</sup> Then, more singing: Hallelujah! The smoke from her burning billows up to high Heaven forever and ever and ever.

<sup>4</sup> The Twenty-four Elders and the Four Animals fell to their knees and worshiped God on his Throne, praising, Amen! Yes! Hallelujah!

<sup>5</sup> From the Throne came a shout, a command: Praise our God, all you his servants, All you who fear him, small and great!

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard the sound of massed choirs, the sound of a mighty cataract, the sound of strong thunder: Hallelujah! The Master reigns, our God, the Sovereign-Strong!

<sup>7</sup> Let us celebrate, let us rejoice, let us give him the glory! The Marriage of the Lamb has come; his Wife has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup> She was given a bridal gown of bright and shining linen. The linen is the righteousness of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> The Angel said to me, "Write this: 'Blessed are those invited to the Wedding Supper of the Lamb.'" He added, "These are the true words of God!"

<sup>10</sup> I fell at his feet to worship him, but he wouldn't let me. "Don't do that," he said. "I'm a servant just like you, and like your brothers and sisters who hold to the witness of Jesus. The witness of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw Heaven open wide--and oh! a white horse and its Rider. The Rider, named Faithful and True, judges and makes war in pure righteousness.

<sup>13</sup> He is dressed in a robe soaked with blood, and he is addressed as "Word of God."

<sup>15</sup> A sharp sword comes out of his mouth so he can subdue the nations, then rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the raging wrath of God, the Sovereign-Strong.

<sup>17</sup> I saw an Angel standing in the sun, shouting to all flying birds in Middle-Heaven, "Come to the Great Supper of God!

<sup>18</sup> Feast on the flesh of kings and captains and champions, horses and their riders. Eat your fill of them all--free and slave, small and great!"

<sup>19</sup> I saw the Beast and, assembled with him, earth's kings and their armies, ready to make war against the One on the horse and his army.

<sup>20</sup> The Beast was taken, and with him, his puppet, the False Prophet, who used signs to dazzle and deceive those who had taken the mark of the Beast and worshiped his image. They were thrown alive, those two, into Lake Fire and Brimstone.

<sup>21</sup> The rest were killed by the sword of the One on the horse, the sword that comes from his mouth. All the birds held a feast on their flesh.

20 <sup>1</sup> I saw an Angel descending out of Heaven. He carried the key to the Abyss and a chain--a huge chain.

<sup>2</sup> He grabbed the Dragon, that old Snake--the very Devil, Satan himself!--chained him up for a thousand years, <sup>3</sup> dumped him into the Abyss, slammed it shut and sealed it tight. No more trouble out of him, deceiving the nations--until the thousand years are up. After that he has to be let loose briefly.

<sup>4</sup> I saw thrones. Those put in charge of judgment sat on the thrones. I also saw the souls of those beheaded because of their witness to Jesus and the Word of God, who refused to worship either the Beast or his image, refused to take his mark on forehead or hand--they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years!

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were up. This is the first resurrection--

<sup>6</sup> and those involved most blessed, most holy. No second death for them! They're priests of God and Christ; they'll reign with him a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup> When the thousand years are up,
Satan will be let loose from his cell,

<sup>8</sup> and will launch again his old work of deceiving the nations, searching out victims in every nook and cranny of earth, even Gog and Magog! He'll talk them into going to war and will gather a huge army, millions strong.

<sup>9</sup> They'll stream across the earth, surround and lay siege to the camp of God's holy people, the Beloved City.
They'll no sooner get there than fire will pour out of Heaven and burn them up.

<sup>10</sup> The Devil who deceived them will be hurled into Lake Fire and Brimstone, joining the Beast and False Prophet, the three in torment around the clock for ages without end.

<sup>11</sup> I saw a Great White Throne and the One Enthroned. Nothing could stand before or against the Presence, nothing in Heaven, nothing on earth.

<sup>12</sup> And then I saw all the dead, great and small, standing there--before the Throne! And books were opened. Then another book was opened: the Book of Life. The dead were judged by what was written in the books, by the way they had lived.

<sup>13</sup> Sea released its dead, Death and Hell turned in their dead. Each man and woman was judged by the way he or she had lived.

<sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hell were hurled into Lake Fire. This is the second death--Lake Fire.

<sup>15</sup> Anyone whose name was not found inscribed in the Book of Life was hurled into Lake Fire.

21 <sup>1</sup> I saw Heaven and earth new-created. Gone the first Heaven, gone the first earth, gone the sea.

as ready for God as a bride for her husband.

<sup>6</sup> Then he said, "It's happened. I'm A to Z. I'm the Beginning, I'm the Conclusion. From Water-of-Life Well I give freely to the thirsty.

<sup>7</sup> Conquerors inherit all this. I'll be God to them, they'll be sons and daughters to me.

<sup>8</sup> But for the rest--the feckless and faithless, degenerates and murderers, sex peddlers and sorcerers, idolaters and all liars--for them it's Lake Fire and Brimstone. Second death!"

<sup>10</sup> He took me away in the Spirit to an enormous, high mountain and showed me Holy Jerusalem descending out of Heaven from God, <sup>11</sup> resplendent in the bright glory of God. The City shimmered like a precious gem, light-filled, pulsing light.

<sup>12</sup> She had a wall majestic and high with twelve gates. At each gate stood an Angel, and on the gates were inscribed the names of the Twelve Tribes of the sons of Israel:

<sup>13</sup> three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, three gates on the west.

<sup>14</sup> The wall was set on twelve foundations, the names of the Twelve Apostles of the Lamb inscribed on them.

<sup>15</sup> The Angel speaking with me had a gold measuring stick to measure the City, its gates, and its wall.

<sup>16</sup> The City was laid out in a perfect square. He measured the City with the measuring stick: twelve thousand stadia, its length, width, and height all equal.

<sup>17</sup> Using the standard measure, the Angel measured the thickness of its wall: 144 cubits.

<sup>18</sup> The wall was jasper, the color of Glory, and the City was pure gold, translucent as glass.

<sup>19</sup> The foundations of the City walls were garnished with every precious gem imaginable: the first foundation jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald,

<sup>20</sup> the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup> The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate a single pearl. The main street of the City was pure gold, translucent as glass.

<sup>22</sup> But there was no sign of a Temple, for the Lord God--the Sovereign-Strong--and the Lamb are the Temple.

<sup>23</sup> The City doesn't need sun or moon for light. God's Glory is its light, the Lamb its lamp!

<sup>25</sup> Its gates will never be shut by day, and there won't be any night.

<sup>26</sup> They'll bring the glory and honor of the nations into the City.

<sup>27</sup> Nothing dirty or defiled will get into the City, and no one who defiles or deceives. Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life will get in.

22 <sup>1</sup> Then the Angel showed me Water-of-Life River, crystal bright. It flowed from the Throne of God and the Lamb, <sup>2</sup> right down the middle of the street. The Tree of Life was planted on each side of the River, producing twelve kinds of fruit, a ripe fruit each month. The leaves of the Tree are for healing the nations.

<sup>3</sup> Never again will anything be cursed. The Throne of God and of the Lamb is at the center. His servants will offer God service--worshiping,

<sup>5</sup> Never again will there be any night. No one will need lamplight or sunlight.

The shining of God, the Master, is all the light anyone needs. And they will rule with him age after age after age.

<sup>6</sup> The Angel said to me, "These are dependable and accurate words, every one. The God and Master of the spirits of the prophets sent his Angel to show his servants what must take place, and soon.

<sup>7</sup> And tell them, 'Yes, I'm on my way!' Blessed be the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>8</sup> I, John, saw all these things with my own eyes, heard them with my ears. Immediately when I heard and saw, I fell on my face to worship at the feet of the Angel who laid it all out before me.

<sup>9</sup> He objected, "No you don't! I'm a servant just like you and your companions, the prophets, and all who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup> The Angel continued, "Don't seal the words of the prophecy of this book; don't put it away on the shelf. Time is just about up.

<sup>11</sup> Let evildoers do their worst and the dirty-minded go all out in pollution, but let the righteous maintain a straight course and the holy continue on in holiness."

<sup>12</sup> "Yes, I'm on my way! I'll be there soon! I'm bringing my payroll with me. I'll pay all people in full for their life's work.

<sup>13</sup> I'm A to Z, the First and the Final, Beginning and Conclusion.

<sup>14</sup> "How blessed are those who wash their robes! The Tree of Life is theirs for good, and they'll walk through the gates to the City.

<sup>15</sup> But outside for good are the filthy curs: sorcerers, fornicators, murderers, idolaters--all who love and live lies.

<sup>16</sup> "I, Jesus, sent my Angel to testify to these things for the churches. I'm the Root and Branch of David, the Bright Morning Star."

<sup>17</sup> "Come!" say the Spirit and the Bride. Whoever hears, echo, "Come!" Is anyone thirsty? Come! All who will, come and drink, Drink freely of the Water of Life!

<sup>18</sup> I give fair warning to all who hear the words of the prophecy of this book: If you add to the words of this prophecy, God will add to your life the disasters written in this book;

<sup>19</sup> if you subtract from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will subtract your part from the Tree of Life and the Holy City that are written in this book.

<sup>20</sup> He who testifies to all these things says it again: "I'm on my way! I'll be there soon!" Yes! Come, Master Jesus!
