

The Message

Genesis

1 <sup>1</sup> First this: God created the Heavens and Earth--all you see, all you don't see.

<sup>8</sup> he named sky the Heavens; It was evening, it was morning--Day Two.

<sup>10</sup> God named the land Earth. He named the pooled water Ocean. God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup> God spoke: "Earth, green up! Grow all varieties of seed-bearing plants, Every sort of fruit-bearing tree." And there it was.

<sup>16</sup> God made two big lights, the larger to take charge of Day, The smaller to be in charge of Night; and he made the stars.

kind and species of flying birds. God saw that it was good.

<sup>24</sup> God spoke: "Earth, generate life! Every sort and kind: cattle and reptiles and wild animals--all kinds." And there it was:

<sup>25</sup> wild animals of every kind, Cattle of all kinds, every sort of reptile and bug. God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> God spoke: "Let us make human beings in our image, make them reflecting our nature So they can be responsible for the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the cattle, And, yes, Earth itself, and every animal that moves on the face of Earth."

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them: "Prosper! Reproduce! Fill Earth! Take charge! Be responsible for fish in the sea and birds in the air, for every living thing that moves on the face of Earth."

<sup>29</sup> Then God said, "I've given you every sort of seed-bearing plant on Earth And every kind of fruit-bearing tree, given them to you for food.

<sup>30</sup> To all animals and all birds, everything that moves and breathes, I give whatever grows out of the ground for food." And there it was.

<sup>31</sup> God looked over everything he had made; it was so good, so very good! It was evening, it was morning--Day Six.

2<sup>1</sup> Heaven and Earth were finished, down to the last detail.

<sup>2</sup> By the seventh day God had finished his work. On the seventh day he rested from all his work.

<sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day. He made it a Holy Day Because on that day he rested from his work, all the creating God had done.

<sup>4</sup> This is the story of how it all started, of Heaven and Earth when they were created.

<sup>5</sup> At the time GOD made Earth and Heaven, before any grasses or shrubs had sprouted from the ground--GOD hadn't yet sent rain on Earth, nor was there anyone around to work the ground

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD planted a garden in Eden, in the east. He put the Man he had just made in it.

<sup>9</sup> GOD made all kinds of trees grow from the ground, trees beautiful to look at and good to eat. The Tree-of-Life was in the middle of the garden, also the Tree-of-Knowledge-of-Good-and-Evil.

<sup>15</sup> GOD took the Man and set him down in the Garden of Eden to work the ground and keep it in order.

<sup>19</sup> So GOD formed from the dirt of the ground all the animals of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the Man to see what he would name them. Whatever the Man called each living creature, that was its name.

3<sup>1</sup> The serpent was clever, more clever than any wild animal GOD had made. He spoke to the Woman: "Do I understand that God told you not to eat from any tree in the garden?"

<sup>5</sup> God knows that the moment you eat from that tree, you'll see what's really going on. You'll be just like God, knowing everything, ranging all the way from good to evil."

<sup>6</sup> When the Woman saw that the tree looked like good eating and realized what she would get out of it--she'd know everything!--she took and ate the fruit and then gave some to her husband, and he ate.

<sup>7</sup> Immediately the two of them did "see what's really going on"--saw themselves naked! They sewed fig leaves together as makeshift clothes for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> When they heard the sound of GOD strolling in the garden in the evening breeze, the Man and his Wife hid in the trees of the garden, hid from GOD.

<sup>9</sup> GOD called to the Man: "Where are you?"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "I heard you in the garden and I was afraid because I was naked. And I hid."

<sup>11</sup> GOD said, "Who told you you were naked? Did you eat from that tree I told you not to eat from?"

<sup>12</sup> The Man said, "The Woman you gave me as a companion, she gave me fruit from the tree, and, yes, I ate it."

<sup>13</sup> GOD said to the Woman, "What is this that you've done?" "The serpent seduced me," she said, "and I ate."

<sup>14</sup> GOD told the serpent: "Because you've done this, you're cursed, cursed beyond all cattle and wild animals, Cursed to slink on your belly and eat dirt all your life.

<sup>15</sup> I'm declaring war between you and the Woman, between your offspring and hers. He'll wound your head, you'll wound his heel."

<sup>16</sup> He told the Woman: "I'll multiply your pains in childbirth; you'll give birth to your babies in pain. You'll want to please your husband, but he'll lord it over you."

<sup>17</sup> He told the Man: "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree That I commanded you not to eat from, 'Don't eat from this tree,' The very ground is cursed because of you; getting food from the ground Will be as painful as having babies is for your wife; you'll be working in pain all your life long.

<sup>18</sup> The ground will sprout thorns and weeds, you'll get your food the hard way, Planting and tilling and harvesting,

<sup>22</sup> GOD said, "The Man has become like one of us, capable of knowing everything, ranging from good to evil. What if he now should reach out and take fruit from the Tree-of-Life and eat, and live forever? Never--this cannot happen!"

<sup>23</sup> So GOD expelled them from the Garden of Eden and sent them to work the ground, the same dirt out of which they'd been made.

<sup>9</sup> GOD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "How should I know? Am I his babysitter?"

<sup>10</sup> GOD said, "What have you done! The voice of your brother's blood is calling to me from the ground.

<sup>12</sup> You'll farm this ground, but it will no longer give you its best. You'll be a homeless wanderer on Earth."

<sup>13</sup> Cain said to GOD, "My punishment is too much. I can't take it!

<sup>14</sup> You've thrown me off the land and I can never again face you. I'm a homeless wanderer on Earth and whoever finds me will kill me."

<sup>15</sup> GOD told him, "No. Anyone who kills Cain will pay for it seven times over." GOD put a mark on Cain to protect him so that no one who met him would kill him.

<sup>23</sup> Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, listen to me; you wives of Lamech, hear me out: I killed a man for wounding me, a young man who attacked me.

<sup>25</sup> Adam slept with his wife again. She had a son whom she named Seth. She said, "God has given me another child in place of Abel whom Cain killed."

<sup>26</sup> And then Seth had a son whom he named Enosh. That's when men and women began praying and worshiping in the name of GOD.

5 <sup>1</sup> This is the family tree of the human race: When God created the human race, he made it godlike, with a nature akin to God.

<sup>3</sup> When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son who was just like him, his very spirit and image, and named him Seth.

6<sup>1</sup> When the human race began to increase, with more and more daughters being born,

<sup>2</sup> the sons of God noticed that the daughters of men were beautiful. They looked them over and picked out wives for themselves.

<sup>3</sup> Then GOD said, "I'm not going to breathe life into men and women endlessly. Eventually they're going to die; from now on they can expect a life span of 120 years."

<sup>4</sup> This was back in the days (and also later) when there were giants in the land. The giants came from the union of the sons of God and the daughters of men. These were the mighty men of ancient lore, the famous ones.

<sup>6</sup> GOD was sorry that he had made the human race in the first place; it broke his heart.

<sup>7</sup> GOD said, "I'll get rid of my ruined creation, make a clean sweep: people, animals, snakes and bugs, birds--the works. I'm sorry I made them."

<sup>12</sup> God took one look and saw how bad it was, everyone corrupt and corrupting--life itself corrupt to the core.

<sup>18</sup> "But I'm going to establish a covenant with you: You'll board the ship, and your sons, your wife and your sons' wives will come on board with you.

<sup>19</sup> You are also to take two of each living creature, a male and a female, on board the ship, to preserve their lives with you:

7 <sup>1</sup> Next GOD said to Noah, "Now board the ship, you and all your family--out of everyone in this generation, you're the righteous one.

<sup>3</sup> and seven pairs of every kind of bird, a male and a female, to insure their survival on Earth.

<sup>4</sup> In just seven days I will dump rain on Earth for forty days and forty nights. I'll make a clean sweep of everything that I've made."

<sup>15</sup> They came to Noah and to the ship in pairs--everything and anything that had the breath of life in it, <sup>16</sup> male and female of every creature came just as God had commanded Noah. Then GOD shut the door behind him.

8 <sup>1</sup> Then God turned his attention to Noah and all the wild animals and farm animals with him on the ship. God caused the wind to blow and the floodwaters began to go down.

<sup>12</sup> He waited another seven days and sent the dove out a third time. This time it didn't come back.

<sup>17</sup> And take all the animals with you, the whole menagerie of birds and mammals and crawling creatures, all that brimming prodigality of life, so they can reproduce and flourish on the Earth."

<sup>21</sup> GOD smelled the sweet fragrance and thought to himself, "I'll never again curse the ground because of people. I know they have this bent toward evil from an early age, but I'll never again kill off everything living as I've just done."

9<sup>1</sup> God blessed Noah and his sons: He said, "Prosper! Reproduce! Fill the Earth!"

<sup>9</sup> "I'm setting up my covenant with you including your children who will come after you,

<sup>11</sup> I'm setting up my covenant with you that never again will everything living be destroyed by floodwaters; no, never again will a flood destroy the Earth."

<sup>12</sup> God continued, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and everything living around you and everyone living after you.

<sup>13</sup> I'm putting my rainbow in the clouds, a sign of the covenant between me and the Earth.

<sup>14</sup> From now on, when I form a cloud over the Earth and the rainbow appears in the cloud,

<sup>16</sup> When the rainbow appears in the cloud, I'll see it and remember the eternal covenant between God and everything living, every last living creature on Earth."

<sup>9</sup> He was a great hunter before GOD. There was a saying, "Like Nimrod, a great hunter before GOD."

way over to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and on to Lasha.

11 <sup>1</sup> At one time, the whole Earth spoke the same language.

<sup>3</sup> They said to one another, "Come, let's make bricks and fire them well." They used brick for stone and tar for mortar.

<sup>4</sup> Then they said, "Come, let's build ourselves a city and a tower that reaches Heaven. Let's make ourselves famous so we won't be scattered here and there across the Earth."

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD scattered them from there all over the world. And they had to quit building the city.

<sup>9</sup> That's how it came to be called Babel, because there GOD turned their language into "babble." From there GOD scattered them all over the world.

<sup>10</sup> This is the story of Shem. When Shem was 100 years old, he had Arphaxad. It was two years after the flood.

<sup>11</sup> After he had Arphaxad, he lived 600 more years and had other sons and daughters.

12 <sup>1</sup> GOD told Abram: "Leave your country, your family, and your father's home for a land that I will show you."

<sup>2</sup> I'll make you a great nation and bless you. I'll make you famous; you'll be a blessing.

<sup>3</sup> I'll bless those who bless you; those who curse you I'll curse. All the families of the Earth will be blessed through you."

<sup>7</sup> GOD appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your children."

Abram built an altar at the place GOD had appeared to him.

<sup>8</sup> He moved on from there to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent between Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. He built an altar there and prayed to GOD.

<sup>10</sup> Then a famine came to the land. Abram went down to Egypt to live; it was a hard famine.

<sup>11</sup> As he drew near to Egypt, he said to his wife, Sarai, "Look. We both know that you're a beautiful woman.

<sup>13</sup> Do me a favor: tell them you're my sister. Because of you, they'll welcome me and let me live."

and his wife and everything he owned on their way.

<sup>6</sup> But the land couldn't support both of them; they had too many possessions. They couldn't both live there--

Canaanites and Perizzites were also living on the land at the time.

<sup>8</sup> Abram said to Lot, "Let's not have fighting between us, between your shepherds and my shepherds. After all, we're family.

<sup>15</sup> Everything you see, the whole land spread out before you, I will give to you and your children forever.

<sup>18</sup> Abram moved his tent. He went and settled by the Oaks of Mamre in Hebron. There he built an altar to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> On their way back they stopped at En Mishpat, that is, Kadesh, and conquered the whole region of the Amalekites as well as that of the Amorites who lived in Hazazon Tamar.

their food and equipment, and went on their way.

<sup>13</sup> A fugitive came and reported to Abram the Hebrew. Abram was living at the Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and Aner. They were allies of Abram.

<sup>14</sup> When Abram heard that his nephew had been taken prisoner, he lined up his servants, all of them born in his household--there were 318 of them--and chased after the captors all the way to Dan.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me back the people but keep all the plunder for yourself."

<sup>22</sup> But Abram told the king of Sodom, "I swear to GOD, The High God, Creator of Heaven and Earth, this solemn oath,

<sup>23</sup> that I'll take nothing from you, not so much as a thread or a shoestring. I'm not going to have you go around saying, 'I made Abram rich.'

15 <sup>1</sup> After all these things, this word of GOD came to Abram in a vision: "Don't be afraid, Abram. I'm your shield. Your reward will be grand!"

<sup>7</sup> GOD continued, "I'm the same GOD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldees and gave you this land to own."

<sup>8</sup> Abram said, "Master GOD, how am I to know this, that it will all be mine?"

<sup>9</sup> GOD said, "Bring me a heifer, a goat, and a ram, each three years old, and a dove and a young pigeon."

<sup>10</sup> He brought all these animals to him, split them down the middle, and laid the halves opposite each other. But he didn't split the birds.

<sup>13</sup> GOD said to Abram, "Know this: your descendants will live as outsiders in a land not theirs; they'll be enslaved and beaten down for 400 years.

<sup>15</sup> But not you; you'll have a long and full life and die a good and peaceful death.

<sup>2</sup> Sarai said to Abram, "GOD has not seen fit to let me have a child. Sleep with my maid. Maybe I can get a family from her." Abram agreed to do what Sarai said.

<sup>4</sup> He slept with Hagar and she got pregnant. When she learned she was pregnant, she looked down on her mistress.

<sup>5</sup> Sarai told Abram, "It's all your fault that I'm suffering this abuse. I put my maid in bed with you and the minute she knows she's pregnant, she treats me like I'm nothing. May GOD decide which of us is right."

<sup>13</sup> She answered GOD by name, praying to the God who spoke to her, "You're the God who sees me!" "Yes! He saw me; and then I saw him!"

17 <sup>1</sup> When Abram was ninety-nine years old, GOD showed up and said to him, "I am The Strong God, live entirely before me, live to the hilt!

<sup>5</sup> Your name will no longer be Abram, but Abraham, meaning that 'I'm making you the father of many nations.'

<sup>6</sup> I'll make you a father of fathers--I'll make nations from you, kings will issue from you.

<sup>7</sup> I'm establishing my covenant between me and you, a covenant that includes your descendants, a covenant that goes on and on and on, a covenant that commits me to be your God and the God of your descendants.

<sup>11</sup> Circumcise by cutting off the foreskin of the penis; it will be the sign of the covenant between us.

<sup>12</sup> Every male baby will be circumcised when he is eight days old, generation after generation--this includes house-born slaves and slaves bought from outsiders who are not blood kin.

<sup>13</sup> Make sure you circumcise both your own children and anyone brought in from the outside. That way my covenant will be cut into your body, a permanent mark of my permanent covenant.

<sup>19</sup> But God said, "That's not what I mean. Your wife, Sarah, will have a baby, a son. Name him Isaac (Laughter). I'll establish my covenant with him and his descendants, a covenant that lasts forever.

<sup>20</sup> "And Ishmael? Yes, I heard your prayer for him. I'll also bless him; I'll make sure he has plenty of children--a huge family. He'll father twelve princes; I'll make him a great nation.

household--and circumcised them, cutting off their foreskins that very day, just as God had told him.

<sup>5</sup> I'll get some food to refresh you on your way, since your travels have brought you across my path." They said, "Certainly. Go ahead."

<sup>7</sup> Then Abraham ran to the cattle pen and picked out a nice plump calf and gave it to the servant who lost no time getting it ready.

<sup>8</sup> Then he got curds and milk, brought them with the calf that had been roasted, set the meal before the men, and stood there under the tree while they ate.

<sup>10</sup> One of them said, "I'm coming back about this time next year. When I arrive, your wife Sarah will have a son." Sarah was listening at the tent opening, just behind the man.

<sup>13</sup> GOD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh saying, 'Me? Have a baby? An old woman like me?'"

<sup>14</sup> Is anything too hard for GOD? I'll be back about this time next year and Sarah will have a baby."

<sup>15</sup> Sarah lied. She said, "I didn't laugh," because she was afraid. But he said, "Yes you did; you laughed."

<sup>18</sup> Abraham is going to become a large and strong nation; all the nations of the world are going to find themselves blessed through him.

<sup>19</sup> Yes, I've settled on him as the one to train his children and future family to observe GOD's way of life, live kindly and generously and fairly, so that GOD can complete in Abraham what he promised him."

<sup>24</sup> What if there are fifty decent people left in the city; will you lump the good with the bad and get rid of the lot?

<sup>25</sup> Wouldn't you spare the city for the sake of those fifty innocents? I can't believe you'd do that, kill off the good and the bad alike as if there were no difference between them. Doesn't the Judge of all the Earth judge with justice?"

<sup>27</sup> Abraham came back, "Do I, a mere mortal made from a handful of dirt, dare open my mouth again to my Master?"

<sup>28</sup> What if the fifty fall short by five-- would you destroy the city because of those missing five?" He said, "I won't destroy it if there are forty-five."

<sup>29</sup> Abraham spoke up again, "What if you only find forty?" "Neither will I destroy it if for forty."

<sup>30</sup> He said, "Master, don't be irritated with me, but what if only thirty are found?" "No, I won't do it if I find thirty."

the city gate. He saw them and got up to welcome them, bowing before them

<sup>2</sup> and said, "Please, my friends, come to my house and stay the night. Wash up. You can rise early and be on your way refreshed." They said, "No, we'll sleep in the street."

<sup>3</sup> But he insisted, wouldn't take no for an answer; and they relented and went home with him. Lot fixed a hot meal for them and they ate.

<sup>4</sup> Before they went to bed men from all over the city of Sodom, young and old, descended on the house from all sides and boxed them in.

<sup>5</sup> They yelled to Lot, "Where are the men who are staying with you for the night? Bring them out so we can have our sport with them!"

<sup>8</sup> Look, I have two daughters, virgins; let me bring them out; you can take your pleasure with them, but don't touch these men--they're my guests."

<sup>9</sup> They said, "Get lost! You drop in from nowhere and now you're going to tell us how to run our lives. We'll treat you worse than them!" And they charged past Lot to break down the door.

<sup>10</sup> But the two men reached out and pulled Lot inside the house, locking the door.

<sup>16</sup> Lot was dragging his feet. The men grabbed Lot's arm, and the arms of his wife and daughters--GOD was so merciful to them!--and dragged them to safety outside the city.

plain--run for the hills or you'll be swept away."

<sup>19</sup> I know that you've taken a liking to me and have done me an immense favor in saving my life, but I can't run for the mountains--who knows what terrible thing might happen to me in the mountains and leave me for dead.

<sup>20</sup> Look over there--that town is close enough to get to. It's a small town, hardly anything to it. Let me escape there and save my life--it's a mere wide place in the road."

<sup>21</sup> He said to him, "All right. If you insist. I'll let you have your way. And I won't stamp out the town you've spotted.

<sup>25</sup> and destroyed these cities and the entire plain and everyone who lived in the cities and everything that grew from the ground.

<sup>27</sup> Abraham got up early the next morning and went to the place he had so recently stood with GOD.

<sup>28</sup> He looked out over Sodom and Gomorrah, surveying the whole plain. All he could see was smoke belching from the Earth, like smoke from a furnace.

<sup>29</sup> And that's the story: When God destroyed the Cities of the Plain, he was mindful of Abraham and first got Lot out of there before he blasted those cities off the face of the Earth.

<sup>33</sup> They got their father drunk with wine that very night. The older daughter went and lay with him. He was oblivious, knowing nothing of what she did.

<sup>34</sup> The next morning the older said to the younger, "Last night I slept with my father. Tonight, it's your turn. We'll get him drunk again and then you sleep with him. We'll both get a child through our father and keep our family alive."

<sup>35</sup> So that night they got their father drunk again and the younger went in and slept with him. Again he was oblivious, knowing nothing of what she did.

<sup>5</sup> Didn't he tell me, 'She's my sister'? And didn't she herself say, 'He's my brother'? I had no idea I was doing anything wrong when I did this."

<sup>6</sup> God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know your intentions were pure, that's why I kept you from sinning against me; I was the one who kept you from going to bed with her.

<sup>7</sup> So now give the man's wife back to him. He's a prophet and will pray for you--pray for your life. If you don't give her back, know that it's certain death both for you and everyone in your family."

<sup>8</sup> Abimelech was up first thing in the morning. He called all his house servants together and told them the whole story. They were shocked.

<sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech called in Abraham and said, "What have you done to us? What have I ever done to you that you would bring on me and my kingdom this huge offense? What you've done to me ought never to have been done."

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech went on to Abraham, "Whatever were you thinking of when you did this thing?"

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said, "I just assumed that there was no fear of God in this place and that they'd kill me to get my wife.

<sup>12</sup> Besides, the truth is that she is my half sister; she's my father's daughter but not my mother's.

<sup>13</sup> When God sent me out as a wanderer from my father's home, I told her, 'Do me a favor; wherever we go, tell people that I'm your brother.'"

<sup>14</sup> Then Abimelech gave Sarah back to Abraham, and along with her sent sheep and cattle and servants, both male and female.

<sup>15</sup> He said, "My land is open to you; live wherever you wish."

<sup>16</sup> And to Sarah he said, "I've given your brother a thousand pieces of silver--that clears you of even a shadow of suspicion before the eyes of the world. You're vindicated."

21 <sup>1</sup> GOD visited Sarah exactly as he said he would; GOD did to Sarah what he promised:

<sup>6</sup> Sarah said, God has blessed me with laughter and all who get the news will laugh with me!

<sup>7</sup> She also said, Whoever would have suggested to Abraham that Sarah would one day nurse a baby! Yet here I am! I've given the old man a son!

<sup>12</sup> But God spoke to Abraham, "Don't feel badly about the boy and your maid. Do whatever Sarah tells you. Your descendants will come through Isaac.

<sup>16</sup> and went off, fifty yards or so. She said, "I can't watch my son die." As she sat, she broke into sobs.

<sup>17</sup> Meanwhile, God heard the boy crying. The angel of God called from Heaven to Hagar, "What's wrong, Hagar? Don't be afraid. God has heard the boy and knows the fix he's in.

<sup>19</sup> Just then God opened her eyes. She looked. She saw a well of water. She went to it and filled her canteen and gave the boy a long, cool drink.

<sup>22</sup> At about that same time, Abimelech and the captain of his troops, Phicol, spoke to Abraham: "No matter what you do, God is on your side.

<sup>23</sup> So swear to me that you won't do anything underhanded to me or any of my family. For as long as you live here, swear that you'll treat me and my land as well as I've treated you."

<sup>26</sup> Abimelech said, "I have no idea who did this; you never told me about it; this is the first I've heard of it."

<sup>30</sup> Abraham said, "It means that when you accept these seven sheep, you take it as proof that I dug this well, that it's my well."

"Yes?" answered Abraham. "I'm listening."

<sup>2</sup> He said, "Take your dear son Isaac whom you love and go to the land of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I'll point out to you."

<sup>3</sup> Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey. He took two of his young servants and his son Isaac. He had split wood for the burnt offering. He set out for the place God had directed him.

<sup>4</sup> On the third day he looked up and saw the place in the distance.

<sup>5</sup> Abraham told his two young servants, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I are going over there to worship; then we'll come back to you."

<sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and gave it to Isaac his son to carry. He carried the flint and the knife. The two of them went off together.

<sup>7</sup> Isaac said to Abraham his father, "Father?" "Yes, my son." "We have flint and wood, but where's the sheep for the burnt offering?"

<sup>8</sup> Abraham said, "Son, God will see to it that there's a sheep for the burnt offering." And they kept on walking together.

<sup>9</sup> They arrived at the place to which God had directed him. Abraham built an altar. He laid out the wood. Then he tied up Isaac and laid him on the wood.

<sup>12</sup> "Don't lay a hand on that boy! Don't touch him! Now I know how fearlessly you fear God; you didn't hesitate to place your son, your dear son, on the altar for me."

<sup>13</sup> Abraham looked up. He saw a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. Abraham took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

<sup>14</sup> Abraham named that place GOD-Yireh (GOD-Sees-to-It). That's where we get the saying, "On the mountain of GOD, he sees to it."

<sup>16</sup> "I swear--GOD's sure word!--because you have gone through with this, and have not refused to give me your son, your dear, dear son, <sup>17</sup> I'll bless you--oh, how I'll bless you! And I'll make sure that your children flourish--like stars in the sky! like sand on the beaches! And your descendants will defeat their enemies.

<sup>8</sup> and said, "If you're serious about helping me give my wife a proper burial, intercede for me with Ephron son of Zohar.

<sup>9</sup> Ask him to sell me the cave of Machpelah that he owns, the one at the end of his land. Ask him to sell it to me at its full price for a burial plot, with you as witnesses."

<sup>10</sup> Ephron was part of the local Hittite community. Then Ephron the Hittite spoke up, answering Abraham with all the Hittites who were part of the town council listening:

<sup>11</sup> "Oh no, my master! I couldn't do that. The field is yours--a gift. I'll give it and the cave to you. With my people as witnesses, I give it to you. Bury your deceased wife."

take my money so that I can go ahead and bury my wife."

<sup>2</sup> Abraham spoke to the senior servant in his household, the one in charge of everything he had, "Put your hand under my thigh

<sup>3</sup> and swear by GOD--God of Heaven, God of Earth--that you will not get a wife for my son from among the young women of the Canaanites here,

<sup>4</sup> but will go to the land of my birth and get a wife for my son Isaac."

<sup>5</sup> The servant answered, "But what if the woman refuses to leave home and come with me? Do I then take your son back to your home country?"

<sup>6</sup> Abraham said, "Oh no. Never. By no means are you to take my son back there.

<sup>7</sup> GOD, the God of Heaven, took me from the home of my father and from the country of my birth and spoke to me in solemn promise, 'I'm giving this land to your descendants.' This God will send his angel ahead of you to get a wife for my son.

<sup>8</sup> And if the woman won't come, you are free from this oath you've sworn to me. But under no circumstances are you to take my son back there."

<sup>11</sup> Outside the city, he made the camels kneel at a well. It was evening, the time when the women came to draw water.

<sup>14</sup> let the girl to whom I say, 'Lower your jug and give me a drink,' and who answers, 'Drink, and let me also water your camels'--let her be the woman you have picked out for your servant Isaac. Then I'll know that you're working graciously behind the scenes for my master."

<sup>15</sup> It so happened that the words were barely out of his mouth when Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel whose mother was Milcah the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with a water jug on her shoulder.

<sup>20</sup> She promptly emptied her jug into the trough and ran back to the well to fill it, and she kept at it until she had watered all the camels.

<sup>21</sup> The man watched, silent. Was this GOD's answer? Had GOD made his trip a success or not?

gold nose ring weighing a little over a quarter of an ounce and two arm bracelets weighing about four ounces, and gave them to her.

<sup>23</sup> He asked her, "Tell me about your family? Whose daughter are you? Is there room in your father's house for us to stay the night?"

<sup>25</sup> And there's plenty of room in our house for you to stay--and lots of straw and feed besides."

<sup>30</sup> He had seen the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister and had heard her say, "The man said this and this and this to me." So he went to the man and there he was, still standing with his camels at the spring.

<sup>31</sup> Laban welcomed him: "Come on in, blessed of GOD! Why are you standing out here? I've got the house ready for you; and there's also a place for your camels."

<sup>32</sup> So the man went into the house. The camels were unloaded and given straw and feed. Water was brought to bathe the feet of the man and the men with him.

<sup>33</sup> Then Laban brought out food. But the man said, "I won't eat until I tell my story." Laban said, "Go ahead; tell us."

<sup>35</sup> GOD has blessed my master--he's a great man; GOD has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, servants and maidservants, camels and donkeys.

<sup>36</sup> And then to top it off, Sarah, my master's wife, gave him a son in her old age and he has passed everything on to his son.

<sup>38</sup> No, go to my father's home, back to my family, and get a wife for my son there.'

<sup>40</sup> He said, 'GOD before whom I've walked faithfully will send his angel with you and he'll make things work out so that you'll bring back a wife for my son from my family, from the house of my father.

<sup>41</sup> Then you'll be free from the oath. If you go to my family and they won't give her to you, you will also be free from the oath.'

<sup>42</sup> "Well, when I came this very day to the spring, I prayed, 'GOD, God of my master Abraham, make things turn out well in this task I've been given.

<sup>43</sup> I'm standing at this well. When a young woman comes here to draw water and I say to her, Please, give me a sip of water from your jug,

<sup>44</sup> and she says, Not only will I give you a drink, I'll also water your camels--let that woman be the wife GOD has picked out for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup> "I had barely finished offering this prayer, when Rebekah arrived, her jug on her shoulder. She went to the spring and drew water and I said, 'Please, can I have a drink?'

<sup>46</sup> She didn't hesitate. She held out her jug and said, 'Drink; and when you're finished I'll also water your camels.' I drank, and she watered the camels.

<sup>47</sup> I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel whose parents were Nahor and Milcah.' I gave her a ring for her nose, bracelets for her arms, <sup>48</sup> and bowed in worship to GOD. I praised GOD, the God of my master Abraham who had led me straight to the door of my master's family to get a wife for his son.

<sup>49</sup> "Now, tell me what you are going to do. If you plan to respond with a generous yes, tell me. But if not, tell me plainly so I can figure out what to do next."

<sup>53</sup> Then he brought out gifts of silver and gold and clothing and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and mother.

<sup>54</sup> He and his men had supper and spent the night. But first thing in the morning they were up. He said, "Send me back to my master."

<sup>56</sup> He said, "Oh, don't make me wait! GOD has worked everything out so well--send me off to my master."

<sup>6</sup> While he was still living, he gave gifts to the sons he had by his concubines, but then sent them away to the country of the east, putting a good distance between them and his son Isaac.

<sup>21</sup> Isaac prayed hard to GOD for his wife because she was barren. GOD answered his prayer and Rebekah became pregnant.

<sup>22</sup> But the children tumbled and kicked inside her so much that she said, "If this is the way it's going to be, why go on living?" She went to GOD to find out what was going on.

<sup>23</sup> GOD told her, Two nations are in your womb, two peoples butting heads while still in your body. One people will overpower the other, and the older will serve the younger.

26 <sup>1</sup> There was a famine in the land, as bad as the famine during the time of Abraham. And Isaac went down to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, in Gerar.

<sup>2</sup> GOD appeared to him and said, "Don't go down to Egypt; stay where I tell you.

<sup>3</sup> Stay here in this land and I'll be with you and bless you. I'm giving you and your children all these lands, fulfilling the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.

<sup>7</sup> The men of the place questioned him about his wife. He said, "She's my sister." He was afraid to say "She's my wife." He was thinking, "These men might kill me to get Rebekah, she's so beautiful."

<sup>8</sup> One day, after they had been there quite a long time, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out his window and saw Isaac fondling his wife Rebekah.

<sup>9</sup> Abimelech sent for Isaac and said, "So, she's your wife. Why did you tell us 'She's my sister'?" Isaac said, "Because I thought I might get killed by someone who wanted her."

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech said, "But think of what you might have done to us! Given a little more time, one of the men might have slept with your wife; you would have been responsible for bringing guilt down on us."

<sup>14</sup> He accumulated flocks and herds and many, many servants, so much so that the Philistines began to envy him.

<sup>18</sup> Isaac dug again the wells which were dug in the days of his father Abraham but had been clogged up by the Philistines after Abraham's death. And he renamed them, using the original names his father had given them.

<sup>19</sup> One day, as Isaac's servants were digging in the valley, they came on a well of spring water.

<sup>21</sup> They dug another well and there was a difference over that one also, so he named it Sitnah (Accusation).

<sup>22</sup> He went on from there and dug yet another well. But there was no fighting over this one so he named it Rehoboth (Wide-Open Spaces), saying, "Now GOD has given us plenty of space to spread out in the land."

<sup>24</sup> That very night GOD appeared to him and said, I am the God of Abraham your father; don't fear a thing because I'm with you. I'll bless you and make your children flourish because of Abraham my servant.

<sup>27</sup> Isaac asked them, "Why did you come to me? You hate me; you threw me out of your country."

<sup>28</sup> They said, "We've realized that GOD is on your side. We'd like to make a deal between us--a covenant <sup>29</sup> that we maintain friendly relations. We haven't bothered you in the past; we treated you kindly and let you leave us in peace. So--GOD's blessing be with you!"

27 <sup>1</sup> When Isaac had become an old man and was nearly blind, he called his eldest son, Esau, and said, "My son." "Yes, Father?"

<sup>4</sup> Then fix me a hearty meal, the kind that you know I like, and bring it to me to eat so that I can give you my personal blessing before I die."

<sup>6</sup> Rebekah spoke to her son Jacob. "I just overheard your father talking with your brother, Esau. He said,

<sup>7</sup> 'Bring me some game and fix me a hearty meal so that I can eat and bless you with GOD's blessing before I die.'

<sup>8</sup> "Now, my son, listen to me. Do what I tell you.

<sup>9</sup> Go to the flock and get me two young goats. Pick the best; I'll prepare them into a hearty meal, the kind that your father loves.

<sup>12</sup> What happens if my father touches me? He'll think I'm playing games with him. I'll bring down a curse on myself instead of a blessing."

<sup>18</sup> He went to his father and said, "My father!" "Yes?" he said. "Which son are you?"

<sup>19</sup> Jacob answered his father, "I'm your firstborn son Esau. I did what you told me. Come now; sit up and eat of my game so you can give me your personal blessing."

<sup>20</sup> Isaac said, "So soon? How did you get it so quickly?" "Because your GOD cleared the way for me."

<sup>24</sup> he pressed him, "You're sure? You are my son Esau?" "Yes. I am."

<sup>25</sup> Isaac said, "Bring the food so I can eat of my son's game and give you my personal blessing." Jacob brought it to him and he ate. He also brought him wine and he drank.

<sup>29</sup> May peoples serve you and nations honor you. You will master your brothers, and your mother's sons will honor you. Those who curse you will be cursed, those who bless you will be blessed.

<sup>31</sup> He also had prepared a hearty meal. He came to his father and said, "Let my father get up and eat of his son's game, that he may give me his personal blessing."

<sup>32</sup> His father Isaac said, "And who are you?" "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

<sup>33</sup> Isaac started to tremble, shaking violently. He said, "Then who hunted game and brought it to me? I finished the meal just now, before you walked in. And I blessed him--he's blessed for good!"

<sup>36</sup> Esau said, "Not for nothing was he named Jacob, the Heel. Twice now he's tricked me: first he took my birthright and now he's taken my blessing." He begged, "Haven't you kept back any blessing for me?"

<sup>40</sup> You'll live by your sword, hand-to-mouth, and you'll serve your brother. But when you can't take it any more you'll break loose and run free.

<sup>42</sup> When these words of her older son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she called her younger son Jacob and said, "Your brother Esau is plotting vengeance against you. He's going to kill you.

<sup>45</sup> until his anger subsides and he forgets what you did to him. I'll then send for you and bring you back. Why should I lose both of you the same day?"

28 <sup>1</sup> So Isaac called in Jacob and blessed him. Then he ordered him, "Don't take a Caananite wife.

<sup>4</sup> and pass on the blessing of Abraham to you and your descendants so that you will get this land in which you live, this land God gave Abraham."

<sup>5</sup> So Isaac sent Jacob off. He went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>9</sup> he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son. This was in addition to the wives he already had.

<sup>11</sup> He came to a certain place and camped for the night since the sun had set. He took one of the stones there, set it under his head and lay down to sleep.

<sup>12</sup> And he dreamed: A stairway was set on the ground and it reached all the way to the sky; angels of God were going up and going down on it.

<sup>13</sup> Then GOD was right before him, saying, "I am GOD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. I'm giving the ground on which you are sleeping to you and to your descendants.

<sup>14</sup> Your descendants will be as the dust of the Earth; they'll stretch from west to east and from north to south. All the families of the Earth will bless themselves in you and your descendants.

<sup>15</sup> Yes. I'll stay with you, I'll protect you wherever you go, and I'll bring you back to this very ground. I'll stick with you until I've done everything I promised you."

<sup>16</sup> Jacob woke up from his sleep. He said, "GOD is in this place--truly. And I didn't even know it!"

<sup>17</sup> He was terrified. He whispered in awe, "Incredible. Wonderful. Holy. This is God's House. This is the Gate of Heaven."

<sup>18</sup> Jacob was up first thing in the morning. He took the stone he had used for his pillow and stood it up as a memorial pillar and poured oil over it.

<sup>19</sup> He christened the place Bethel (God's House). The name of the town had been Luz until then.

<sup>20</sup> Jacob vowed a vow: "If God stands by me and protects me on this journey on which I'm setting out, keeps me in food and clothing, <sup>21</sup> and brings me back in one piece to my father's house, this GOD will be my God.

<sup>22</sup> This stone that I have set up as a memorial pillar will mark this as a place where God lives. And everything you give me, I'll return a tenth to you."

29 <sup>1</sup> Jacob set out again on his way to the people of the east.

<sup>2</sup> He noticed a well out in an open field with three flocks of sheep bedded down around it. This was the common well from which the flocks were watered. The stone over the mouth of the well was huge.

<sup>3</sup> When all the flocks were gathered, the shepherds would roll the stone from the well and water the sheep; then they would return the stone, covering the well.

<sup>8</sup> "We can't," they said. "Not until all the shepherds get here. It takes all of us to roll the stone from the well. Not until then can we water the flocks."

<sup>12</sup> He told Rachel that he was related to her father, that he was Rebekah's son. She ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup> When Laban heard the news--Jacob, his sister's son!--he ran out to meet him, embraced and kissed him and brought him home. Jacob told Laban the story of everything that had happened.

<sup>14</sup> Laban said, "You're family! My flesh and blood!" When Jacob had been with him for a month, nothing. Tell me what you want to be paid. What's a fair wage?"

<sup>18</sup> And it was Rachel that Jacob loved. So Jacob answered, "I will work for you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

<sup>25</sup> Morning came: There was Leah in the marriage bed! Jacob confronted Laban, "What have you done to me? Didn't I work all this time for the hand of Rachel? Why did you cheat me?"

<sup>26</sup> "We don't do it that way in our country," said Laban. "We don't marry off the younger daughter before the older.

<sup>27</sup> Enjoy your week of honeymoon, and then we'll give you the other one also. But it will cost you another seven years of work."

<sup>32</sup> Leah became pregnant and had a son. She named him Reuben (Look-It's-a-Boy!). "This is a sign," she said, "that GOD has seen my misery; and a sign that now my husband will love me."

<sup>33</sup> She became pregnant again and had another son. "GOD heard," she said, "that I was unloved and so he gave me this son also." She named this one Simeon (GOD-Heard).

<sup>34</sup> She became pregnant yet again-- another son. She said, "Now maybe my husband will connect with me--I've given him three sons!" That's why she named him Levi (Connect).

<sup>35</sup> She became pregnant a final time and had a fourth son. She said, "This time I'll praise GOD." So she named him Judah (Praise-GOD). Then she stopped having children.

30 <sup>1</sup> When Rachel realized that she wasn't having any children for Jacob, she became jealous of her sister. She told Jacob, "Give me sons or I'll die!"

<sup>6</sup> Rachel said, "God took my side and vindicated me. He listened to me and gave me a son." She named him Dan (Vindication).

the field and brought them home to his mother Leah. Rachel asked Leah, "Could I please have some of your son's mandrakes?"

<sup>15</sup> Leah said, "Wasn't it enough that you got my husband away from me? And now you also want my son's mandrakes?" Rachel said, "All right. I'll let him sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's love-apples."

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came home that evening from the fields, Leah was there to meet him: "Sleep with me tonight; I've bartered my son's mandrakes for a night with you." So he slept with her that night.

<sup>17</sup> God listened to Leah; she became pregnant and gave Jacob a fifth son.

<sup>18</sup> She said, "God rewarded me for giving my maid to my husband." She named him Issachar (Bartered).

<sup>20</sup> saying, "God has given me a great gift. This time my husband will honor me with gifts--I've given him six sons!" She named him Zebulun (Honor).

<sup>23</sup> She became pregnant and had a son. She said, "God has taken away my humiliation."

<sup>27</sup> Laban said, "If you please, I have learned through divine inquiry that GOD has blessed me because of you."

<sup>29</sup> Jacob replied, "You know well what my work has meant to you and how your livestock has flourished under my care.

<sup>30</sup> The little you had when I arrived has increased greatly; everything I did resulted in blessings for you. Isn't it about time that I do something for my own family?"

<sup>31</sup> "So, what should I pay you?" Jacob said, "You don't have to pay me a thing. But how about this? I will go back to pasture and care for your flocks.

<sup>32</sup> Go through your entire flock today and take out every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb, every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.

<sup>33</sup> That way you can check on my honesty when you assess my wages. If you find any goat that's not speckled or spotted or a sheep that's not black, you will know that I stole it."

servants, not to mention camels and donkeys.

31 <sup>1</sup> Jacob learned that Laban's sons were talking behind his back: "Jacob has used our father's wealth to make himself rich at our father's expense."

<sup>3</sup> That's when GOD said to Jacob, "Go back home where you were born. I'll go with you."

<sup>5</sup> He said, "I notice that your father has changed toward me; he doesn't treat me the same as before. But the God of my father hasn't changed; he's still with me.

<sup>7</sup> Still, your father has cheated me over and over, changing my wages time and again. But God never let him really hurt me.

<sup>8</sup> If he said, 'Your wages will consist of speckled animals' the whole flock would start having speckled lambs and kids. And if he said, 'From now on your wages will be streaked animals' the whole flock would have streaked ones.

<sup>11</sup> In the dream an angel of God called out to me, 'Jacob!' "I said, 'Yes?'

<sup>12</sup> "He said, 'Watch closely. Notice that all the goats in the flock that are mating are streaked, speckled, and mottled. I know what Laban's been doing to you.

<sup>13</sup> I'm the God of Bethel where you consecrated a pillar and made a vow to me. Now be on your way, get out of this place, go home to your birthplace."

mountains; Laban pitched his tents there too.

<sup>27</sup> Why did you run off like a thief in the night? Why didn't you tell me? Why, I would have sent you off with a great celebration--music, timbrels, flutes!

<sup>28</sup> But you wouldn't permit me so much as a kiss for my daughters and grandchildren. It was a stupid thing for you to do.

<sup>29</sup> If I had a mind to, I could destroy you right now, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, 'Be careful what you do to Jacob, whether good or bad.'

<sup>32</sup> But as far as your gods are concerned, if you find that anybody here has them, that person dies. With all of us watching, look around. If you find anything here that belongs to you, take it." Jacob didn't know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

<sup>34</sup> But Rachel had taken the household gods, put them inside a camel cushion, and was sitting on them. When Laban had gone through the tent, searching high and low without finding a thing,

<sup>35</sup> Rachel said to her father, "Don't think I'm being disrespectful, my master, that I can't stand before you, but I'm having my period." So even though he turned the place upside down in his search, he didn't find the household gods.

<sup>36</sup> Now it was Jacob's turn to get angry. He lit into Laban: "So what's my crime, what wrong have I done you that you badger me like this?"

<sup>37</sup> You've ransacked the place. Have you turned up a single thing that's yours? Let's see it--display the evidence. Our two families can be the jury and decide between us.

<sup>38</sup> "In the twenty years I've worked for you, ewes and she-goats never miscarried. I never feasted on the rams from your flock.

<sup>39</sup> I never brought you a torn carcass killed by wild animals but that I paid for it out of my own pocket--actually, you made me pay whether it was my fault or not.

<sup>40</sup> I was out in all kinds of weather, from torrid heat to freezing cold, putting in many a sleepless night.

<sup>41</sup> For twenty years I've done this: I slaved away fourteen years for your two daughters and another six years for your flock and you changed my wages ten times.

<sup>42</sup> If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not stuck with me, you would have sent me off penniless. But God saw the fix I was in and how hard I had worked and last night rendered his verdict."

<sup>43</sup> Laban defended himself: "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flock is my flock--everything you see is mine. But what can I do about my daughters or for the children they've had?"

<sup>48</sup> Laban said, "This monument of stones will be a witness, beginning now, between you and me." (That's why it is called Galeed--Witness Monument.)

<sup>49</sup> It is also called Mizpah (Watchtower) because Laban said, "GOD keep watch between you and me when we are out of each other's sight.

<sup>50</sup> If you mistreat my daughters or take other wives when there's no one around to see you, God will see you and stand witness between us."

<sup>53</sup> The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor (the God of their ancestor) will keep things straight between us." Jacob promised, swearing by the Fear, the God of his father Isaac.

daughters, blessed them, and then set off for home.

32 <sup>1</sup> And Jacob went his way. Angels of God met him.

<sup>2</sup> When Jacob saw them he said, "Oh! God's Camp!" And he named the place Mahanaim (Campground).

<sup>5</sup> I've acquired cattle and donkeys and sheep; also men and women servants. I'm telling you all this, my master, hoping for your approval.'"

<sup>6</sup> The messengers came back to Jacob and said, "We talked to your brother Esau and he's on his way to meet you. But he has four hundred men with him."

<sup>7</sup> Jacob was scared. Very scared. Panicked, he divided his people, sheep, cattle, and camels into two camps.

<sup>8</sup> He thought, "If Esau comes on the first camp and attacks it, the other camp has a chance to get away."

<sup>9</sup> And then Jacob prayed, "God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, GOD who told me, 'Go back to your parents' homeland and I'll treat you well.'

<sup>11</sup> Save me, please, from the violence of my brother, my angry brother! I'm afraid he'll come and attack us all, me, the mothers and the children.

<sup>12</sup> You yourself said, 'I will treat you well; I'll make your descendants like the sands of the sea, far too many to count.'"

<sup>14</sup> two hundred female goats, twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

<sup>15</sup> thirty camels with their nursing young, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

<sup>19</sup> He gave the same instructions to the second servant and to the third--to each in turn as they set out with their herds:

<sup>20</sup> "Say 'Your servant Jacob is on his way behind us.'" He thought, "I will soften him up with the succession of gifts. Then when he sees me face-to-face, maybe he'll be glad to welcome me."

he deliberately threw Jacob's hip out of joint.

<sup>26</sup> The man said, "Let me go; it's daybreak." Jacob said, "I'm not letting you go 'til you bless me."

<sup>28</sup> The man said, "But no longer. Your name is no longer Jacob. From now on it's Israel (God-Wrestler); you've wrestled with God and you've come through."

<sup>29</sup> Jacob asked, "And what's your name?" The man said, "Why do you want to know my name?" And then, right then and there, he blessed him.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob named the place Peniel (God's Face) because, he said, "I saw God face-to-face and lived to tell the story!"

<sup>4</sup> But Esau ran up and embraced him, held him tight and kissed him. And they both wept.

<sup>5</sup> Then Esau looked around and saw the women and children: "And who are these with you?" Jacob said, "The children that God saw fit to bless me with."

<sup>8</sup> Esau then asked, "And what was the meaning of all those herds that I met?" "I was hoping that they would pave the way for my master to welcome me."

<sup>10</sup> Jacob said, "Please. If you can find it in your heart to welcome me, accept these gifts. When I saw your face, it was as the face of God smiling on me.

<sup>11</sup> Accept the gifts I have brought for you. God has been good to me and I have more than enough." Jacob urged the gifts on him and Esau accepted.

<sup>13</sup> But Jacob said, "My master can see that the children are frail. And the flocks and herds are nursing, making for slow going. If I push them too hard, even for a day, I'd lose them all.

<sup>14</sup> So, master, you go on ahead of your servant, while I take it easy at the pace of my flocks and children. I'll catch up with you in Seir."

<sup>15</sup> Esau said, "Let me at least lend you some of my men." "There's no need," said Jacob. "Your generous welcome is all I need or want."

in the land of Canaan--all the way from Paddan Aram. He camped near the city.

<sup>19</sup> He bought the land where he pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. He paid a hundred silver coins for it.

<sup>20</sup> Then he built an altar there and named it El-Elohe-Israel (Mighty Is the God of Israel).

34 <sup>1</sup> One day Dinah, the daughter Leah had given Jacob, went to visit some of the women in that country.

out in the fields with the livestock so he didn't say anything until they got home.

<sup>10</sup> Live together with us as one family. Settle down among us and make yourselves at home. Prosper among us."

<sup>12</sup> Set the bridal price as high as you will--the sky's the limit! Only give me this girl for my wife."

<sup>15</sup> The only condition on which we can talk business is if all your men become circumcised like us.

<sup>19</sup> The young man was so smitten with Jacob's daughter that he proceeded to do what had been asked. He was also the most admired son in his father's family.

<sup>20</sup> So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the public square and spoke to the town council:

<sup>21</sup> "These men like us; they are our friends. Let them settle down here and make themselves at home; there's plenty of room in the country for them. And, just think, we can even exchange our daughters in marriage.

<sup>22</sup> But these men will only accept our invitation to live with us and become one big family on one condition, that all our males become circumcised just as they themselves are.

<sup>23</sup> This is a very good deal for us--these people are very wealthy with great herds of livestock and we're going to get our hands on it. So let's do what they ask and have them settle down with us."

<sup>25</sup> Three days after the circumcision, while all the men were still very sore, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each with his sword in hand, walked into the city as if they owned the place and murdered every man there.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You've made my name stink to high heaven among the people here, these Canaanites and Perizzites. If they decided to gang up on us and attack, as few as we are we wouldn't stand a chance; they'd wipe me and my people right off the map."

35 <sup>1</sup> God spoke to Jacob: "Go back to Bethel. Stay there and build an altar to the God who revealed himself to you when you were running for your life from your brother Esau."

<sup>2</sup> Jacob told his family and all those who lived with him, "Throw out all the alien gods which you have, take a good bath and put on clean clothes, <sup>3</sup> we're going to Bethel. I'm going to build an altar there to the God who answered me when I was in trouble and has stuck with me everywhere I've gone since."

<sup>5</sup> Then they set out. A paralyzing fear descended on all the surrounding villages so that they were unable to pursue the sons of Jacob.

<sup>7</sup> He built an altar there and named it El-Bethel (God-of-Bethel) because that's where God revealed himself to him when he was running from his brother.

<sup>9</sup> God revealed himself once again to Jacob, after he had come back from Paddan Aram and blessed him:

<sup>10</sup> "Your name is Jacob (Heel); but that's your name no longer. From now on your name is Israel (God-Wrestler)."

<sup>11</sup> God continued, I am The Strong God. Have children! Flourish! A nation--a whole company of nations!--will come from you. Kings will come from your loins;

<sup>12</sup> the land I gave Abraham and Isaac I now give to you, and pass it on to your descendants.

<sup>13</sup> And then God was gone, ascended from the place where he had spoken with him.

present-day Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had lived.

-all the animals and possessions he had gotten in Canaan--and moved a considerable distance away from his brother Jacob.

<sup>35</sup> When Hushan died, he was followed by Hadad son of Bedad; he was the king who defeated the Midianites in Moab; the name of his city was Avith.

37 <sup>1</sup> Meanwhile Jacob had settled down where his father had lived, the land of Canaan.

<sup>3</sup> Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons because he was the child of his old age. And he made him an elaborately embroidered coat.

<sup>4</sup> When his brothers realized that their father loved him more than them, they grew to hate him--they wouldn't even speak to him.

bundles circled around it and bowed down to mine."

<sup>8</sup> His brothers said, "So! You're going to rule us? You're going to boss us around?" And they hated him more than ever because of his dreams and the way he talked.

<sup>9</sup> He had another dream and told this one also to his brothers: "I dreamed another dream--the sun and moon and eleven stars bowed down to me!"

<sup>10</sup> When he told it to his father and brothers, his father reprimanded him: "What's with all this dreaming? Am I and your mother and your brothers all supposed to bow down to you?"

<sup>13</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers are with flocks in Shechem. Come, I want to send you to them." Joseph said, "I'm ready."

<sup>14</sup> He said, "Go and see how your brothers and the flocks are doing and bring me back a report." He sent him off from the valley of Hebron to Shechem.

<sup>25</sup> Then they sat down to eat their supper. Looking up, they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites on their way from Gilead, their camels loaded with spices, ointments, and perfumes to sell in Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> Judah said, "Brothers, what are we going to get out of killing our brother and concealing the evidence?"

<sup>27</sup> Let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, but let's not kill him--he is, after all, our brother, our own flesh and blood." His brothers agreed.

<sup>28</sup> By that time the Midianite traders were passing by. His brothers pulled Joseph out of the cistern and sold him for twenty pieces of silver to the Ishmaelites who took Joseph with them down to Egypt.

hooked up with a man in Adullam named Hirah.

brother's widow he spilled his semen on the ground so he wouldn't produce a child for his brother.

<sup>11</sup> So Judah stepped in and told his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Live as a widow at home with your father until my son Shelah grows up." He was worried that Shelah would also end up dead, just like his brothers. So Tamar went to live with her father.

<sup>13</sup> Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law has gone to Timnah to shear his sheep."

road to Timnah. She realized by now that even though Shelah was grown up, she wasn't going to be married to him.

<sup>15</sup> Judah saw her and assumed she was a prostitute since she had veiled her face.

<sup>16</sup> He left the road and went over to her. He said, "Let me sleep with you." He had no idea that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, "What will you pay me?"

<sup>17</sup> "I'll send you," he said, "a kid goat from the flock." She said, "Not unless you give me a pledge until you send it."

<sup>18</sup> "So what would you want in the way of a pledge?" She said, "Your personal seal-and-cord and the staff you carry." He handed them over to her and slept with her. And she got pregnant.

<sup>22</sup> He went back to Judah and said, "I couldn't find her. The men there said there never has been a prostitute there."

<sup>23</sup> Judah said, "Let her have it then. If we keep looking, everyone will be poking fun at us. I kept my part of the bargain--I sent the kid goat but you couldn't find her."

pregnant by the man who owns these things. Identify them, please. Who's the owner of the seal-and-cord and the staff?"

<sup>27</sup> When her time came to give birth, it turned out that there were twins in her womb.

<sup>3</sup> His master recognized that GOD was with him, saw that GOD was working for good in everything he did.

<sup>4</sup> He became very fond of Joseph and made him his personal aide. He put him in charge of all his personal affairs, turning everything over to him.

<sup>5</sup> From that moment on, GOD blessed the home of the Egyptian--all because of Joseph. The blessing of GOD spread over everything he owned, at home and in the fields, <sup>6</sup> and all Potiphar had to concern himself with was eating three meals a day. Joseph was a strikingly handsome man.

<sup>7</sup> As time went on, his master's wife became infatuated with Joseph and one day said, "Sleep with me."

<sup>8</sup> He wouldn't do it. He said to his master's wife, "Look, with me here, my master doesn't give a second thought to anything that goes on here--he's put me in charge of everything he owns.

<sup>9</sup> He treats me as an equal. The only thing he hasn't turned over to me is you. You're his wife, after all! How could I violate his trust and sin against God?"

the household servants happened to be there.

<sup>14</sup> she called to her house servants: "Look--this Hebrew shows up and before you know it he's trying to seduce us. He tried to make love to me but I yelled as loud as I could.

<sup>17</sup> She told him the same story. She said, "The Hebrew slave, the one you brought to us, came after me and tried to use me for his plaything.

<sup>23</sup> The head jailer gave Joseph free rein, never even checked on him, because GOD was with him; whatever he did GOD made sure it worked out for the best.

40 <sup>1</sup> As time went on, it happened that the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt crossed their master, the king of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> the king's cupbearer and baker, while being held in the jail, both had a dream on the same night, each dream having its own meaning.

<sup>7</sup> So he asked them, the two officials of Pharaoh who had been thrown into jail with him, "What's wrong? Why the long faces?"

<sup>8</sup> They said, "We dreamed dreams and there's no one to interpret them." Joseph said, "Don't interpretations come from God? Tell me the dreams."

<sup>9</sup> First the head cupbearer told his dream to Joseph: "In my dream there was a vine in front of me

<sup>10</sup> with three branches on it: It budded, blossomed, and the clusters ripened into grapes.

a feast for all his servants. He set the head cupbearer and the head baker in places of honor in the presence of all the guests.

41 <sup>1</sup> Two years passed and Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile River.

<sup>2</sup> Seven cows came up out of the Nile, all shimmering with health, and grazed on the marsh grass.

them and stood by them on the bank of the Nile.

<sup>8</sup> When morning came, he was upset. He sent for all the magicians and sages of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but they couldn't interpret them to him.

<sup>9</sup> The head cupbearer then spoke up and said to Pharaoh, "I just now remembered something--I'm sorry, I should have told you this long ago.

<sup>12</sup> It so happened that there was a young Hebrew slave there with us; he belonged to the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams and he interpreted them for us, each dream separately.

<sup>13</sup> Things turned out just as he interpreted. I was returned to my position and the head baker was impaled."

I've heard that just by hearing a dream you can interpret it."

<sup>26</sup> The seven healthy cows are seven years and the seven healthy ears of grain are seven years--they're the same dream.

<sup>27</sup> The seven sick and ugly cows that followed them up are seven years and the seven scrawny ears of grain dried out by the east wind are the same--seven years of famine.

<sup>28</sup> "The meaning is what I said earlier: God is letting Pharaoh in on what he is going to do.

<sup>30</sup> But on their heels will come seven years of famine, leaving no trace of the Egyptian plenty. As the country is emptied by famine,

<sup>33</sup> "So: Pharaoh needs to look for a wise and experienced man and put him in charge of the country.

authority, storing it in the towns for food.

<sup>38</sup> Then Pharaoh said to his officials, "Isn't this the man we need? Are we going to find anyone else who has God's spirit in him like this?"

<sup>39</sup> So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "You're the man for us. God has given you the inside story--no one is as qualified as you in experience and wisdom.

<sup>40</sup> From now on, you're in charge of my affairs; all my people will report to you. Only as king will I be over you."

<sup>43</sup> He put the second-in-command chariot at his disposal, and as he rode people shouted "Bravo!" Joseph was in charge of the entire country of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but no one in Egypt will make a single move without your stamp of approval."

<sup>45</sup> Then Pharaoh gave Joseph an Egyptian name, Zaphenath-Paneah (God Speaks and He Lives). He also gave him an Egyptian wife, Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On (Heliopolis). And Joseph took up his duties over the land of Egypt.

<sup>50</sup> Joseph had two sons born to him before the years of famine came. Asenath, daughter of Potiphera the priest of On, was their mother.

<sup>54</sup> and the seven years of famine arrived, just as Joseph had said. All countries experienced famine; Egypt was the only country that had bread.

<sup>55</sup> When the famine spread throughout Egypt, the people called out in distress to Pharaoh, calling for bread. He told the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph. Do what he tells you."

<sup>57</sup> Soon the whole world was coming to buy supplies from Joseph. The famine was bad all over.

42 <sup>1</sup> When Jacob learned that there was food in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why do you sit around here and look at one another?"

<sup>2</sup> I've heard that there is food in Egypt. Go down there and buy some so that we can survive and not starve to death."

<sup>5</sup> So Israel's sons joined everyone else that was going to Egypt to buy food, for Canaan, too, was hit hard by the famine.

<sup>6</sup> Joseph was running the country; he was the one who gave out rations to all the people. When Joseph's brothers arrived, they treated him with honor, bowing to him.

roughly to them. He said, "Where do you come from?" "From Canaan," they said. "We've come to buy food."

<sup>8</sup> Joseph knew who they were, but they didn't know who he was.

<sup>13</sup> They said, "There were twelve of us brothers--sons of the same father in the country of Canaan. The youngest is with our father, and one is no more."

<sup>18</sup> On the third day, Joseph spoke to them. "Do this and you'll live. I'm a God-fearing man.

<sup>19</sup> If you're as honest as you say you are, one of your brothers will stay here in jail while the rest of you take the food back to your hungry families.

<sup>20</sup> But you have to bring your youngest brother back to me, confirming the truth of your speech--and not one of you will die." They agreed.

we did to our brother--we saw how terrified he was when he was begging us for mercy. We wouldn't listen to him and now we're the ones in trouble."

<sup>24</sup> Joseph turned away from them and cried. When he was able to speak again, he took Simeon and had him tied up, making a prisoner of him while they all watched.

<sup>28</sup> He called out to his brothers, "My money has been returned; it's right here in my bag!" They were puzzled--and frightened. "What's God doing to us?"

<sup>29</sup> When they got back to their father Jacob, back in the land of Canaan, they told him everything that had happened, saying,

<sup>34</sup> Bring your youngest brother back to me, proving that you're honest men and not spies. And then I'll give your brother back to you and you'll be free to come and go in this country.'"

<sup>37</sup> Reuben spoke up: "I'll put my two sons in your hands as hostages. If I don't bring Benjamin back, you can kill them.

Trust me with Benjamin; I'll bring him back."

43 <sup>1</sup> The famine got worse. <sup>2</sup> When they had eaten all the food they had brought back from Egypt, their father said, "Go back and get some more food."

<sup>3</sup> But Judah said, "The man warned us most emphatically, 'You won't so much as see my face if you don't have your brother with you.'"

<sup>4</sup> If you're ready to release our brother to go with us, we'll go down and get you food.

<sup>5</sup> But if you're not ready, we aren't going. What would be the use? The man told us, 'You won't so much as see my face if you don't have your brother with you.'" "

<sup>6</sup> Israel said, "Why are you making my life so difficult! Why did you ever tell the man you had another brother?"

<sup>7</sup> They said, "The man pressed us hard, asking pointed questions about our family: 'Is your father alive? Do you have another brother?' So we answered his questions. How did we know that he'd say, 'Bring your brother here?'"

<sup>8</sup> Judah pushed his father Israel. "Let the boy go; I'll take charge of him. Let us go and be on our way--if we don't get going, we're all going to starve to death--we and you and our children too!"

<sup>9</sup> I'll take full responsibility for his safety; it's my life on the line for his. If I don't bring him back safe and sound, I'm the guilty one; I'll take all the blame.

<sup>10</sup> If we had gone ahead in the first place instead of procrastinating like this,

we could have been there and back twice over."

<sup>11</sup> Their father Israel gave in. "If it has to be, it has to be. But do this: stuff your packs with the finest products from the land you can find and take them to the man as gifts--some balm and honey, some spices and perfumes, some pistachios and almonds.

<sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw that they had Benjamin with them, he told his house steward, "Take these men into the house and make them at home. Butcher an animal and prepare a meal; these men are going to eat with me at noon."

<sup>18</sup> But they became anxious when they were brought into Joseph's home, thinking, "It's the money; he thinks we ran off with the money on our first trip down here. And now he's got us where he wants us--he's going to turn us into slaves and confiscate our donkeys."

money at the mouth of the bag--the exact amount we'd paid. We've brought it all back <sup>22</sup> and have plenty more to buy more food with. We have no idea who put the money in our bags."

<sup>23</sup> The steward said, "Everything's in order. Don't worry. Your God and the God of your father must have given you a bonus. I was paid in full." And with that, he presented Simeon to them.

<sup>24</sup> He then took them inside Joseph's house and made them comfortable--gave them water to wash their feet and saw to the feeding of their donkeys.

<sup>25</sup> The brothers spread out their gifts as they waited for Joseph to show up at noon--they had been told that they were to have dinner with him.

brought and bowed respectfully before him.

<sup>27</sup> Joseph welcomed them and said, "And your old father whom you mentioned to me, how is he? Is he still alive?"

<sup>28</sup> They said, "Yes--your servant our father is quite well, very much alive." And they again bowed respectfully before him.

<sup>29</sup> Then Joseph picked out his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son. He asked, "And is this your youngest brother that you told me about?" Then he said, "God be gracious to you, my son."

<sup>34</sup> When the brothers' plates were served from Joseph's table, Benjamin's plate came piled high, far more so than his brothers. And so the brothers feasted with Joseph, drinking freely.

<sup>2</sup> Then put my chalice, my silver chalice, in the top of the bag of the youngest, along with the money for his food." He did as Joseph ordered.

<sup>4</sup> They were barely out of the city when Joseph said to his house steward, "Run after them. When you catch up with them, say, 'Why did you pay me back evil for good?'"

<sup>8</sup> Why, the money we found in our bags earlier, we brought back all the way from Canaan--do you think we'd turn right around and steal it back from your master?"

<sup>10</sup> The steward said, "Very well then, but we won't go that far. Whoever is found with the chalice will be my slave; the rest of you can go free."

that a man in my position would have discovered this."

<sup>16</sup> Judah as spokesman for the brothers said, "What can we say, master? What is there to say? How can we prove our innocence? God is behind this, exposing how bad we are. We stand guilty before you and ready to be your slaves--we're all in this together, the rest of us as guilty as the one with the chalice."

<sup>17</sup> "I'd never do that to you," said Joseph. "Only the one involved with the chalice will be my slave. The rest of you are free to go back to your father."

<sup>18</sup> Judah came forward. He said, "Please, master; can I say just one thing to you? Don't get angry. Don't think I'm presumptuous--you're the same as Pharaoh as far as I'm concerned.

<sup>20</sup> And we answered honestly, 'We have a father who is old and a younger brother who was born to him in his old age. His brother is dead and he is the only son left from that mother. And his father loves him more than anything.'

<sup>22</sup> We told you, master, that it was impossible: 'The boy can't leave his father; if he leaves, his father will die.'

<sup>23</sup> "And then you said, 'If your youngest brother doesn't come with you, you won't be allowed to see me.'

<sup>24</sup> "When we returned to our father, we told him everything you said to us.

<sup>25</sup> So when our father said, 'Go back and buy some more food,'

<sup>26</sup> we told him flatly, 'We can't. The only way we can go back is if our youngest brother is with us. We aren't allowed to even see the man if our youngest brother doesn't come with us.'

<sup>27</sup> "Your servant, my father, told us, 'You know very well that my wife gave me two sons.

<sup>28</sup> One turned up missing. I concluded that he'd been ripped to pieces. I've never seen him since.

<sup>30</sup> "And now, can't you see that if I show up before your servant, my father, without the boy, this son with whom his life is so bound up, <sup>31</sup> the moment he realizes the boy is gone, he'll die on the spot. He'll die of grief and we, your servants who are standing here before you, will have killed him.

<sup>32</sup> And that's not all. I got my father to release the boy to show him to you by promising, 'If I don't bring him back, I'll stand condemned before you, Father, all my life.'

<sup>33</sup> "So let me stay here as your slave, not this boy. Let the boy go back with his brothers.

<sup>34</sup> How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? Oh, don't make me go back and watch my father die in grief!"

45 <sup>1</sup> Joseph couldn't hold himself in any longer, keeping up a front before all his attendants. He cried out, "Leave! Clear out--everyone leave!" So there was no one with Joseph when he identified himself to his brothers.

<sup>2</sup> But his sobbing was so violent that the Egyptians couldn't help but hear him. The news was soon reported to Pharaoh's palace.

<sup>3</sup> Joseph spoke to his brothers: "I am Joseph. Is my father really still alive?" But his brothers couldn't say a word. They were speechless--they couldn't believe what they were hearing and seeing.

<sup>4</sup> "Come closer to me," Joseph said to his brothers. They came closer. "I am Joseph your brother whom you sold into Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> But don't feel badly, don't blame yourselves for selling me. God was behind it. God sent me here ahead of you to save lives.

<sup>6</sup> There has been a famine in the land now for two years; the famine will continue for five more years--neither plowing nor harvesting.

<sup>7</sup> God sent me on ahead to pave the way and make sure there was a remnant in the land, to save your lives in an amazing act of deliverance.

<sup>8</sup> So you see, it wasn't you who sent me here but God. He set me in place as a father to Pharaoh, put me in charge of his personal affairs, and made me ruler of all Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> "Hurry back to my father. Tell him, 'Your son Joseph says: I'm master of all of Egypt. Come as fast as you can and join me here.

<sup>10</sup> I'll give you a place to live in Goshen where you'll be close to me--you, your children, your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds, and anything else you can think of.

<sup>11</sup> I'll take care of you there completely. There are still five more years of famine ahead; I'll make sure all your needs are taken care of, you and everyone connected with you--you won't want for a thing.'

<sup>12</sup> "Look at me. You can see for yourselves, and my brother Benjamin can see for himself, that it's me, my own mouth, telling you all this.

<sup>13</sup> Tell my father all about the high position I hold in Egypt, tell him everything you've seen here, but don't take all day--hurry up and get my father down here."

<sup>15</sup> He then kissed all his brothers and wept over them. Only then were his brothers able to talk with him.

<sup>16</sup> The story was reported in Pharaoh's palace: "Joseph's brothers have come." It was good news to Pharaoh and all who worked with him.

<sup>17</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'This is the plan: Load up your pack animals; go to Canaan, <sup>18</sup> get your father and your families and bring them back here. I'll settle you on the best land in Egypt--you'll live off the fat of the land.'

<sup>19</sup> "Also tell them this: 'Here's what I want you to do: Take wagons from Egypt to carry your little ones and your wives and load up your father and come back.

<sup>20</sup> Don't worry about having to leave things behind; the best in all of Egypt will be yours.'"

<sup>21</sup> And they did just that, the sons of Israel. Joseph gave them the wagons that Pharaoh had promised and food for the trip.

<sup>26</sup> When they told him, "Joseph is still alive--and he's the ruler over the whole land of Egypt!" he went numb; he couldn't believe his ears.

<sup>27</sup> But the more they talked, telling him everything that Joseph had told them and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him back, the blood started to flow again--their father Jacob's spirit revived.

<sup>28</sup> Israel said, "I've heard enough--my son Joseph is still alive. I've got to go and see him before I die."

46 <sup>1</sup> So Israel set out on the journey with everything he owned. He arrived at Beersheba and worshiped, offering sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Israel in a vision that night: "Jacob! Jacob!" "Yes?" he said. "I'm listening."

<sup>3</sup> God said, "I am the God of your father. Don't be afraid of going down to Egypt. I'm going to make you a great nation there.

<sup>4</sup> I'll go with you down to Egypt; I'll also bring you back here. And when you die, Joseph will be with you; with his own hand he'll close your eyes."

<sup>12</sup> Judah's sons: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (Er and Onan had already died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

his daughter Dinah. Altogether, sons and daughters, they numbered thirty-three.

<sup>20</sup> Joseph was the father of two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, from his marriage to Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. They were born to him in Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> Joseph gave orders for his chariot and went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. The moment Joseph saw him, he threw himself on his neck and wept. He wept a long time.

<sup>31</sup> Joseph then spoke to his brothers and his father's family. "I'll go and tell Pharaoh, 'My brothers and my father's family, all of whom lived in Canaan, have come to me.

<sup>34</sup> tell him, 'Your servants have always kept livestock for as long as we can remember--we and our parents also.' That way he'll let you stay apart in the area of Goshen--for Egyptians look down on anyone who is a shepherd."

47 <sup>1</sup> Joseph went to Pharaoh and told him, "My father and brothers with their flocks and herds and everything they own have come from Canaan. Right now they are in Goshen."

<sup>4</sup> We have come to this country to find a new place to live. There is no pasture for our flocks in Canaan. The famine has been very bad there. Please, would you let your servants settle in the region of Goshen?"

land--yes, give them Goshen. And if you know any among them that are especially good at their work, put them in charge of my own livestock."

<sup>9</sup> Jacob answered Pharaoh, "The years of my sojourning are 130--a short and hard life and not nearly as long as my ancestors were given."

<sup>12</sup> Joseph took good care of them--his father and brothers and all his father's family, right down to the smallest baby. He made sure they had plenty of everything.

<sup>13</sup> The time eventually came when there was no food anywhere. The famine was very bad. Egypt and Canaan alike were devastated by the famine.

got them through that year in exchange for all their livestock.

<sup>18</sup> When that year was over, the next year rolled around and they were back, saying, "Master, it's no secret to you that we're broke: our money's gone and we've traded you all our livestock. We've nothing left to barter with but our bodies and our farms.

<sup>19</sup> What use are our bodies and our land if we stand here and starve to death right in front of you? Trade us food for our bodies and our land. We'll be slaves to Pharaoh and give up our land--all we ask is seed for survival, just enough to live on and keep the farms alive."

<sup>21</sup> and the people ended up slaves; Joseph reduced the people to slavery from one end of Egypt to the other.

<sup>22</sup> Joseph made an exception for the priests. He didn't buy their land because they received a fixed salary from Pharaoh and were able to live off of that salary. So they didn't need to sell their land.

<sup>23</sup> Joseph then announced to the people: "Here's how things stand: I've bought you and your land for Pharaoh. In exchange I'm giving you seed so you can plant the ground.

<sup>24</sup> When the crops are harvested, you must give a fifth to Pharaoh and keep four-fifths for yourselves, for seed for yourselves and your families--you're going to be able to feed your children!"

<sup>29</sup> When the time came for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and said, "Do me this favor. Put your hand under my thigh, a sign that you're loyal and true to me to the end. Don't bury me in Egypt.

<sup>30</sup> When I lie down with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me alongside them." "I will," he said. "I'll do what you've asked."

48 <sup>1</sup> Some time after this conversation, Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." He took his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, and went to Jacob.

<sup>2</sup> When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come," he roused himself and sat up in bed.

<sup>3</sup> Jacob said to Joseph, "The Strong God appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me.

<sup>4</sup> He said, 'I'm going to make you prosperous and numerous, turn you into a congregation of tribes; and I'll turn this land over to your children coming after you as a permanent inheritance.'

<sup>5</sup> I'm adopting your two sons who were born to you here in Egypt before I joined you; they have equal status with Reuben and Simeon.

<sup>6</sup> But any children born after them are yours; they will come after their brothers in matters of inheritance.

<sup>7</sup> I want it this way because, as I was returning from Paddan, your mother Rachel, to my deep sorrow, died as we were on our way through Canaan when we were only a short distance from Ephrath, now called Bethlehem."

<sup>9</sup> Joseph told his father, "They are my sons whom God gave to me in this place." "Bring them to me," he said, "so I can bless them."

<sup>10</sup> Israel's eyesight was poor from old age; he was nearly blind. So Joseph brought them up close. Old Israel kissed and embraced them

<sup>11</sup> and then said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, and now God has let me see your children as well!"

<sup>15</sup> Then he blessed them: The God before whom walked my fathers Abraham and Isaac, The God who has been my shepherd all my lifelong to this very day, of Abraham and Isaac, my fathers, And may they grow covering the Earth with their children.

<sup>17</sup> When Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on Ephraim's head, he thought he had made a mistake, so he took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's,

<sup>19</sup> But his father wouldn't do it. He said, "I know, my son; but I know what I'm doing. He also will develop into a people, and he also will be great. But his younger brother will be even greater and his descendants will enrich nations."

<sup>20</sup> Then he blessed them both: Israel will use your names to give blessings: May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh. In that he made it explicit: he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Israel then said to Joseph, "I'm about to die. God be with you and give you safe passage back to the land of your fathers.

<sup>22</sup> As for me, I'm presenting you, as the first among your brothers, the ridge of land I took from Amorites with my sword and bow."

<sup>18</sup> I wait in hope for your salvation,
GOD.

<sup>19</sup> Gad will be attacked by bandits, but he will trip them up.

<sup>20</sup> Asher will become famous for rich foods, candies and sweets fit for kings.

<sup>21</sup> Naphtali is a deer running free that gives birth to lovely fawns.

donkey by a spring, spirited donkeys on a hill.

shooting their hate-tipped arrows;

<sup>24</sup> But he held steady under fire, his bow firm, his arms limber, With the backing of the Champion of Jacob, the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> The God of your father--may he help you! And may The Strong God--may he give you his blessings, Blessings tumbling out of the skies, blessings bursting up from the Earth--blessings of breasts and womb.

<sup>29</sup> Then he instructed them: "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave which is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, field Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burial plot.

<sup>5</sup> "If you have reason to think kindly of me, present Pharaoh with my request: My father made me swear, saying, 'I am ready to die. Bury me in the grave plot that I prepared for myself in the land of Canaan.' Please give me leave to go up and bury my father. Then I'll come back."

had come with him to bury his father returned with him.

<sup>15</sup> After the funeral, Joseph's brothers talked among themselves: "What if Joseph is carrying a grudge and decides to pay us back for all the wrong we did him?"

<sup>17</sup> Tell Joseph, 'Forgive your brothers' sin--all that wrongdoing. They did treat you very badly.' Will you do it? Will you forgive the sins of the servants of your father's God?" When Joseph received their message, he wept.

<sup>18</sup> Then the brothers went in person to him, threw themselves on the ground before him and said, "We'll be your slaves."

<sup>20</sup> Don't you see, you planned evil against me but God used those same plans for my good, as you see all around you right now--life for many people.

<sup>21</sup> Easy now, you have nothing to fear; I'll take care of you and your children." He reassured them, speaking with them heart-to-heart.

<sup>24</sup> At the end, Joseph said to his brothers, "I am ready to die. God will most certainly pay you a visit and take you out of this land and back to the land he so solemnly promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph made the sons of Israel promise under oath, "When God makes his visitation, make sure you take my bones with you as you leave here."

<sup>26</sup> Joseph died at the age of 110 years. They embalmed him and placed him in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1 <sup>1</sup> These are the names of the Israelites who went to Egypt with Jacob, each bringing his family members:

"There are way too many of these Israelites for us to handle.

<sup>10</sup> We've got to do something: Let's devise a plan to contain them, lest if there's a war they should join our enemies, or just walk off and leave us."

<sup>11</sup> So they organized them into work-gangs and put them to hard labor under gang-foremen. They built the storage cities Pithom and Rameses for Pharaoh.

<sup>12</sup> But the harder the Egyptians worked them the more children the Israelites had--children everywhere! The Egyptians got so they couldn't stand the Israelites

<sup>13</sup> and treated them worse than ever, crushing them with slave labor.

<sup>14</sup> They made them miserable with hard labor--making bricks and mortar and back-breaking work in the fields. They piled on the work, crushing them under the cruel workload.

<sup>15</sup> The king of Egypt had a talk with the two Hebrew midwives; one was named Shiphrah and the other Puah.

2<sup>1</sup> A man from the family of Levi married a Levite woman.

<sup>2</sup> The woman became pregnant and had a son. She saw there was something special about him and hid him. She hid him for three months.

<sup>3</sup> When she couldn't hide him any longer she got a little basket-boat made of papyrus, waterproofed it with tar and pitch, and placed the child in it. Then she set it afloat in the reeds at the edge of the Nile.

<sup>7</sup> Then his sister was before her: "Do you want me to go and get a nursing mother from the Hebrews so she can nurse the baby for you?"

you." The woman took the child and nursed him.

<sup>10</sup> After the child was weaned, she presented him to Pharaoh's daughter who adopted him as her son. She named him Moses (Pulled-Out), saying, "I pulled him out of the water."

<sup>12</sup> He looked this way and then that; when he realized there was no one in sight, he killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

<sup>13</sup> The next day he went out there again. Two Hebrew men were fighting. He spoke to the man who started it: "Why are you hitting your neighbor?"

<sup>14</sup> The man shot back: "Who do you think you are, telling us what to do? Are you going to kill me the way you killed that Egyptian?" Then Moses panicked: "Word's gotten out--people know about this."

<sup>20</sup> He said, "So where is he? Why did you leave him behind? Invite him so he can have something to eat with us."

3 <sup>1</sup> Moses was shepherding the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the west end of the wilderness and came to the mountain of God, Horeb.

<sup>2</sup> The angel of GOD appeared to him in flames of fire blazing out of the middle of a bush. He looked. The bush was blazing away but it didn't burn up.

<sup>4</sup> GOD saw that he had stopped to look. God called to him from out of the bush, "Moses! Moses!" He said, "Yes? I'm right here!"

<sup>5</sup> God said, "Don't come any closer. Remove your sandals from your feet. You're standing on holy ground."

<sup>6</sup> Then he said, "I am the God of your father: The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face, afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> GOD said, "I've taken a good, long look at the affliction of my people in Egypt. I've heard their cries for deliverance from their slave masters; I know all about their pain.

<sup>8</sup> And now I have come down to help them, pry them loose from the grip of Egypt, get them out of that country and bring them to a good land with wide-open spaces, a land lush with milk and honey, the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>10</sup> It's time for you to go back: I'm sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the People of Israel, out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> Moses answered God, "But why me? What makes you think that I could ever go to Pharaoh and lead the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup> "I'll be with you," God said. "And this will be the proof that I am the one who sent you: When you have brought my people out of Egypt, you will worship God right here at this very mountain."

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the People of Israel and I tell them, 'The God of your fathers sent me to you'; and they ask me, 'What is his name?' What do I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup> God said to Moses, "I-AM-WHO-I-AM. Tell the People of Israel, 'I-AM sent me to you.'"

<sup>15</sup> God continued with Moses: "This is what you're to say to the Israelites: 'GOD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob sent me to you.' This has always been my name, and this is how I always will be known."

<sup>16</sup> "Now be on your way. Gather the leaders of Israel. Tell them, 'GOD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, appeared to me, saying, "I've looked into what's being done to you in Egypt,

<sup>17</sup> and I've determined to get you out of the affliction of Egypt and take you to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, a land brimming over with milk and honey.'"

<sup>18</sup> "Believe me, they will listen to you. Then you and the leaders of Israel will go to the king of Egypt and say to him: 'GOD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness where we will worship GOD--our God.'

<sup>21</sup> I'll see to it that this people get a hearty send-off by the Egyptians--when you leave, you won't leave empty-handed!

<sup>22</sup> Each woman will ask her neighbor and any guests in her house for objects of silver and gold, for jewelry and extra clothes; you'll put them on your sons and daughters. Oh, you'll clean the Egyptians out!"

4 <sup>1</sup> Moses objected, "They won't trust me. They won't listen to a word I say. They're going to say, 'GOD? Appear to him? Hardly!'"

<sup>2</sup> So GOD said, "What's that in your hand?" "A staff."

<sup>4</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Reach out and grab it by the tail." He reached out and grabbed it--and he was holding his staff again.

<sup>5</sup> "That's so they will trust that GOD appeared to you, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup> GOD then said, "Put your hand inside your shirt." He slipped his hand under his shirt, then took it out. His hand had turned leprous, like snow.

<sup>7</sup> He said, "Put your hand back under your shirt." He did it, then took it back out--as healthy as before.

<sup>8</sup> "So if they don't trust you and aren't convinced by the first sign, the second sign should do it.

<sup>9</sup> But if it doesn't, if even after these two signs they don't trust you and listen to your message, take some water out of the Nile and pour it out on the dry land; the Nile water that you pour out will turn to blood when it hits the ground."

<sup>10</sup> Moses raised another objection to GOD: "Master, please, I don't talk well. I've never been good with words, neither before nor after you spoke to me. I stutter and stammer."

<sup>11</sup> GOD said, "And who do you think made the human mouth? And who makes some mute, some deaf, some sighted, some blind? Isn't it I, GOD?"

<sup>14</sup> GOD got angry with Moses: "Don't you have a brother, Aaron the Levite?"

He's good with words, I know he is. He speaks very well. In fact, at this very moment he's on his way to meet you. When he sees you he's going to be glad.

<sup>15</sup> You'll speak to him and tell him what to say. I'll be right there with you as you speak and with him as he speaks, teaching you step by step.

<sup>16</sup> He will speak to the people for you. He'll act as your mouth, but you'll decide what comes out of it.

<sup>18</sup> Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said, "I need to return to my relatives who are in Egypt. I want to see if they're still alive." Jethro said, "Go. And peace be with you."

<sup>19</sup> GOD said to Moses in Midian: "Go. Return to Egypt. All the men who wanted to kill you are dead."

<sup>20</sup> So Moses took his wife and sons and put them on a donkey for the return trip to Egypt. He had a firm grip on the staff of God.

<sup>21</sup> GOD said to Moses, "When you get back to Egypt, be prepared: All the wonders that I will do through you, you'll do before Pharaoh. But I will make him stubborn so that he will refuse to let the people go.

<sup>22</sup> Then you are to tell Pharaoh, 'GOD's Message: Israel is my son, my firstborn!

<sup>23</sup> I told you, "Free my son so that he can serve me." But you refused to free him. So now I'm going to kill your son, your firstborn.'" member with it. She said, "Oh! You're a bridegroom of blood to me!"

<sup>26</sup> Then GOD let him go. She used the phrase "bridegroom of blood" because of the circumcision.

<sup>27</sup> GOD spoke to Aaron, "Go and meet Moses in the wilderness." He went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

<sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron the message that GOD had sent him to speak and the wonders he had commanded him to do.

<sup>31</sup> And the people trusted and listened believingly that GOD was concerned with what was going on with the Israelites and knew all about their affliction. They bowed low and they worshiped.

5 <sup>1</sup> After that Moses and Aaron approached Pharaoh. They said, "GOD, the God of Israel, says, 'Free my people so that they can hold a festival for me in the wilderness.'"

<sup>2</sup> Pharaoh said, "And who is GOD that I should listen to him and send Israel off? I know nothing of this so-called 'GOD' and I'm certainly not going to send Israel off."

<sup>3</sup> They said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness so we can worship our GOD lest he strike us with either disease or death."

<sup>16</sup> Nobody gives us any straw and they tell us, 'Make bricks!' Look at us--we're being beaten. And it's not our fault."

<sup>17</sup> But Pharaoh said, "Lazy! That's what you are! Lazy! That's why you whine, 'Let us go so we can worship GOD.'

<sup>21</sup> The foremen said to them, "May GOD see what you've done and judge you--you've made us stink before Pharaoh and his servants! You've put a weapon in his hand that's going to kill us!"

<sup>22</sup> Moses went back to GOD and said, "My Master, why are you treating this people so badly? And why did you ever send me?"

<sup>23</sup> From the moment I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, things have only gotten worse for this people. And rescue? Does this look like rescue to you?"

<sup>3</sup> I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as The Strong God, but by my name GOD (I-Am-Present) I was not known to them.

<sup>5</sup> But now I've heard the groanings of the Israelites whom the Egyptians continue to enslave and I've remembered my covenant.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore tell the Israelites: "I am GOD. I will bring you out from under the cruel hard labor of Egypt. I will rescue you from slavery. I will redeem you, intervening with great acts of judgment.

<sup>7</sup> I'll take you as my own people and I'll be God to you. You'll know that I am GOD, your God who brings you out from under the cruel hard labor of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> I'll bring you into the land that I promised to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and give it to you as your own country. I AM GOD."

<sup>9</sup> But when Moses delivered this message to the Israelites, they didn't even hear him--they were that beaten down in spirit by the harsh slave conditions.

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD said to Moses,

<sup>11</sup> "Go and speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt so that he will release the Israelites from his land."

<sup>12</sup> Moses answered GOD, "Look--the Israelites won't even listen to me. How do you expect Pharaoh to? And besides, I stutter."

<sup>13</sup> But GOD again laid out the facts to Moses and Aaron regarding the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he again commanded them to lead the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

Phinehas. These are the heads of the Levite families, family by family.

<sup>29</sup> God addressed Moses, saying, "I am GOD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I say to you."

7 <sup>1</sup> GOD told Moses, "Look at me. I'll make you as a god to Pharaoh and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

<sup>2</sup> You are to speak everything I command you, and your brother Aaron will tell it to Pharaoh. Then he will release the Israelites from his land.

<sup>3</sup> At the same time I am going to put Pharaoh's back up and follow it up by filling Egypt with signs and wonders.

<sup>4</sup> Pharaoh is not going to listen to you, but I will have my way against Egypt and bring out my soldiers, my people the Israelites, from Egypt by mighty acts of judgment.

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said,

miracle,' then tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh: It will turn into a snake.'"

<sup>11</sup> Pharaoh called in his wise men and sorcerers. The magicians of Egypt did the same thing by their incantations:

<sup>13</sup> Yet Pharaoh was as stubborn as ever--he wouldn't listen to them, just as GOD had said.

<sup>14</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Pharaoh is a stubborn man. He refuses to release the people.

<sup>15</sup> First thing in the morning, go and meet Pharaoh as he goes down to the river. At the shore of the Nile take the staff that turned into a snake <sup>16</sup> and say to him, 'GOD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you with this message, "Release my people so that they can worship me in the wilderness." So far you haven't listened.

<sup>17</sup> This is how you'll know that I am GOD. I am going to take this staff that I'm holding and strike this Nile River water: The water will turn to blood;

<sup>18</sup> the fish in the Nile will die; the Nile will stink; and the Egyptians won't be able to drink the Nile water.'"

<sup>19</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and wave it over the waters of Egypt--over its rivers, its canals, its ponds, all its bodies of water--so that they turn to blood.' There'll be blood everywhere in Egypt--even in the pots and pans."

<sup>21</sup> The fish in the Nile died; the Nile stank; and the Egyptians couldn't drink the Nile water. The blood was everywhere in Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> But the magicians of Egypt did the same thing with their incantations. Still Pharaoh remained stubborn. He wouldn't listen to them as GOD had said.

8 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him, 'GOD's Message:

Release my people so they can worship me.

<sup>3</sup> The Nile will swarm with frogs--they'll come up into your houses, into your bedrooms and into your beds, into your servants' quarters, among the people, into your ovens and pots and pans.

<sup>6</sup> Aaron stretched his staff over the waters of Egypt and a mob of frogs came up and covered the country.

<sup>7</sup> But again the magicians did the same thing using their incantations--they also produced frogs in Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh called in Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to GOD to rid us of these frogs. I'll release the people so that they can make their sacrifices and worship GOD."

<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Pharaoh, "Certainly. Set the time. When do you want the frogs out of here, away from your servants and people and out of your houses? You'll be rid of frogs except for those in the Nile."

<sup>10</sup> "Make it tomorrow." Moses said, "Tomorrow it is--so you'll realize that there is no God like our GOD.

<sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that he had some breathing room, he got stubborn again and wouldn't listen to Moses and Aaron. Just as GOD had said.

<sup>16</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and strike the dust. The dust will turn into gnats all over Egypt.'"

<sup>17</sup> He did it. Aaron grabbed his staff and struck the dust of the Earth; it turned into gnats, gnats all over people and animals. All the dust of the Earth turned into gnats, gnats everywhere in Egypt.

they couldn't do it. There were gnats everywhere, all over people and animals.

<sup>19</sup> The magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is God's doing." But Pharaoh was stubborn and wouldn't listen. Just as GOD had said.

<sup>20</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he goes down to the water. Tell him, 'GOD's Message: Release my people so they can worship me.

<sup>21</sup> If you don't release my people, I'll release swarms of flies on you, your servants, your people, and your homes. The houses of the Egyptians and even the ground under their feet will be thick with flies.

<sup>22</sup> But when it happens, I'll set Goshen where my people live aside as a sanctuary--no flies in Goshen. That will show you that I am GOD in this land.

<sup>26</sup> Moses said, "That would not be wise. What we sacrifice to our GOD would give great offense to Egyptians. If we openly sacrifice what is so deeply offensive to Egyptians, they'll kill us.

<sup>27</sup> Let us go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to our GOD, just as he instructed us."

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "As soon as I leave here, I will pray to GOD that tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh, his servants, and his people. But don't play games with us and change your mind about releasing us to sacrifice to GOD."

9<sup>1</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him, 'GOD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Release my people so they can worship me.

in the fields--horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep--striking them with a severe disease.

<sup>4</sup> GOD will draw a sharp line between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. Not one animal that belongs to the Israelites will die."

<sup>5</sup> Then GOD set the time: "Tomorrow GOD will do this thing."

<sup>6</sup> And the next day GOD did it. All the livestock of Egypt died, but not one animal of the Israelites died.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh sent men to find out what had happened and there it was: none of the livestock of the Israelites had died--not one death. But Pharaoh stayed stubborn. He wouldn't release the people.

<sup>9</sup> it will become a film of fine dust all over Egypt and cause sores, an eruption of boils on people and animals throughout Egypt."

<sup>12</sup> GOD hardened Pharaoh in his stubbornness. He wouldn't listen, just as GOD had said to Moses.

<sup>13</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh. Tell him, 'GOD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Release my people so they can worship me.

<sup>14</sup> This time I am going to strike you and your servants and your people with the full force of my power so you'll get it into your head that there's no one like me anywhere in all the Earth.

<sup>15</sup> You know that by now I could have struck you and your people with deadly disease and there would be nothing left of you, not a trace.

<sup>16</sup> But for one reason only I've kept you on your feet: To make you recognize my power so that my reputation spreads in all the Earth.

people and animals, will die when the hail comes down."

people and animals and crops, was smashed. Even the trees in the fields were shattered.

<sup>27</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. He said, "I've sinned for sure this time--GOD is in the right and I and my people are in the wrong.

<sup>28</sup> Pray to GOD. We've had enough of GOD's thunder and hail. I'll let you go. The sooner you're out of here the better."

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "As soon as I'm out of the city, I'll stretch out my arms to GOD. The thunder will stop and the hail end so you'll know that the land is GOD's land.

<sup>30</sup> Still, I know that you and your servants have no respect for GOD."

<sup>34</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he kept right on sinning, stubborn as ever, both he and his servants.

<sup>35</sup> Pharaoh's heart turned rock-hard. He refused to release the Israelites, as GOD had ordered through Moses.

10 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Go to Pharaoh. I've made him stubborn, him and his servants, so that I can force him to look at these signs

<sup>2</sup> and so you'll be able to tell your children and grandchildren how I toyed with the Egyptians, like a cat with a mouse; you'll tell them the stories of the signs that I brought down on them, so that you'll all know that I am GOD."

<sup>3</sup> Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "GOD, the God of the Hebrews, says, 'How long are you going to refuse to knuckle under? Release my people so that they can worship me.

<sup>6</sup> And they'll invade your houses, filling the houses of your servants, filling every house in Egypt. Nobody will have ever seen anything like this, from the time your ancestors first set foot on this soil until today." Then he turned on his heel and left Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long are you going to let this man harass us? Let these people go and worship their GOD. Can't you see that Egypt is on its last legs?"

<sup>8</sup> So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. He said to them, "Go ahead then. Go worship your GOD. But just who exactly is going with you?"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "I'd sooner send you off with GOD's blessings than let you go with your children. Look, you're up to no good--it's written all over your faces.

<sup>11</sup> Nothing doing. Just the men are going--go ahead and worship GOD. That's what you want so badly." And they were thrown out of Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>12</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Stretch your hand over Egypt and signal the locusts to cover the land of Egypt, devouring every blade of grass in the country, everything that the hail didn't get."

<sup>13</sup> Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt. GOD let loose an east wind. It blew that day and night. By morning the east wind had brought in the locusts.

<sup>14</sup> The locusts covered the country of Egypt, settling over every square inch of Egypt; the place was thick with locusts. There never was an invasion of locusts like it in the past, and never will be again.

left but bare trees and bare fields--not a sign of green in the whole land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh had Moses and Aaron back in no time. He said, "I've sinned against your GOD and against you.

<sup>23</sup> Nobody could see anybody. For three days no one could so much as move. Except for the Israelites: they had light where they were living.

<sup>25</sup> But Moses said, "You have to let us take our sacrificial animals and offerings with us so we can sacrifice them in worship to our GOD.

<sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said to Moses: "Get out of my sight! And watch your step. I don't want to ever see you again. If I lay eyes on you again, you're dead."

11 <sup>1</sup> God said to Moses: "I'm going to hit Pharaoh and Egypt one final time, and then he'll let you go. When he releases you, that will be the end of Egypt for you; he won't be able to get rid of you fast enough.

<sup>2</sup> "So here's what you do. Tell the people to ask, each man from his neighbor and each woman from her neighbor, for things made of silver and gold."

<sup>3</sup> GOD saw to it that the Egyptians liked the people. Also, Moses was greatly admired by the Egyptians, a respected public figure among both Pharaoh's servants and the people at large.

"GOD's Message: 'At midnight I will go through Egypt

<sup>5</sup> and every firstborn child in Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the slave girl working at her hand mill. Also the firstborn of animals.

the country, lament such as has never been and never will be again.

woman, or animal--there won't be so much as a dog's bark, so that you'll know that GOD makes a clear distinction between Egypt and Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> "Then all these servants of yours will go to their knees, begging me to leave, 'Leave! You and all the people who follow you!' And I will most certainly leave." Moses, seething with anger, left Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's not going to listen to a thing you say so that the signs of my presence and work are going to multiply in the land of Egypt."

<sup>10</sup> Moses and Aaron had performed all these signs in Pharaoh's presence, but GOD turned Pharaoh more stubborn than ever--yet again he refused to release the Israelites from his land.

12 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Moses and Aaron while still in Egypt,

<sup>5</sup> Your lamb must be a healthy male, one year old; you can select it from either the sheep or the goats.

<sup>6</sup> Keep it penned until the fourteenth day of this month and then slaughter it--the entire community of Israel will do this--at dusk.

<sup>7</sup> Then take some of the blood and smear it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which you will eat it.

<sup>11</sup> "And here is how you are to eat it: Be fully dressed with your sandals on and your stick in your hand. Eat in a hurry; it's the Passover to GOD.

<sup>12</sup> "I will go through the land of Egypt on this night and strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, whether human or animal, and bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am GOD.

<sup>13</sup> The blood will serve as a sign on the houses where you live. When I see the blood I will pass over you--no disaster will touch you when I strike the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> "This will be a memorial day for you; you will celebrate it as a festival to GOD down through the generations, a fixed festival celebration to be observed always.

<sup>15</sup> You will eat unraised bread (matzoth) for seven days: On the first day get rid of all yeast from your houses--anyone who eats anything with yeast from the first day to the seventh day will be cut off from Israel.

<sup>16</sup> The first and the seventh days are set aside as holy; do no work on those days. Only what you have to do for meals; each person can do that.

<sup>17</sup> "Keep the Festival of Unraised Bread! This marks the exact day I brought you out in force from the land of Egypt. Honor the day down through your generations, a fixed festival to be observed always.

<sup>18</sup> In the first month, beginning on the fourteenth day at evening until the twenty-first day at evening, you are to eat unraised bread.

<sup>22</sup> Take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the bowl of blood and smear it on the lintel and on the two doorposts. No one is to leave the house until morning.

<sup>23</sup> GOD will pass through to strike Egypt down. When he sees the blood on the lintel and the two door posts, GOD will pass over the doorway; he won't let the destroyer enter your house to strike you down with ruin.

<sup>26</sup> And when your children say to you, 'Why are we doing this?'

<sup>27</sup> tell them: 'It's the Passover-sacrifice to GOD who passed over the homes of the Israelites in Egypt when he hit Egypt with death but rescued us.'" The people bowed and worshiped.

<sup>28</sup> The Israelites then went and did what GOD had commanded Moses and Aaron. They did it all.

<sup>30</sup> Pharaoh got up that night, he and all his servants and everyone else in Egypt--what wild wailing and lament in Egypt! There wasn't a house in which someone wasn't dead.

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh called in Moses and Aaron that very night and said, "Get out of here and be done with you--you and your Israelites! Go worship GOD on your own terms.

<sup>32</sup> And yes, take your sheep and cattle as you've insisted, but go. And bless me."

<sup>36</sup> GOD saw to it that the Egyptians liked the people and so readily gave them what they asked for. Oh yes! They picked those Egyptians clean.

<sup>42</sup> GOD kept watch all night, watching over the Israelites as he brought them out of Egypt. Because GOD kept watch, all Israel for all generations will honor GOD by keeping watch this night--a watchnight.

<sup>48</sup> "If an immigrant is staying with you and wants to keep the Passover to GOD, every male in his family must be circumcised, then he can participate in the Meal--he will then be treated as a native son. But no uncircumcised person can eat it.

<sup>2</sup> "Consecrate every firstborn to me--the first one to come from the womb among the Israelites, whether person or animal, is mine."

<sup>3</sup> Moses said to the people, "Always remember this day. This is the day when you came out of Egypt from a house of slavery. GOD brought you out of here with a powerful hand. Don't eat any raised bread.

<sup>5</sup> When GOD brings you into the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which he promised to your fathers to give you, a land lavish with milk and honey, you are to observe this service during this month:

<sup>6</sup> "You are to eat unraised bread for seven days; on the seventh day there is a festival celebration to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> "Only unraised bread is to be eaten for seven days. There is not to be a trace of anything fermented--no yeast anywhere.

<sup>8</sup> "Tell your child on that day: 'This is because of what GOD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

<sup>9</sup> "The day of observance will be like a sign on your hand, a memorial between your eyes, and the teaching of GOD in your mouth. It was with a powerful hand that GOD brought you out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> "When GOD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he promised you and your fathers, and turns it over to you, <sup>12</sup> you are to set aside the first birth out of every womb to GOD. Every first birth from your livestock belongs to GOD.

<sup>13</sup> You can redeem every first birth of a donkey if you want to by substituting a lamb; if you decide not to redeem it, you must break its neck. "Redeem every firstborn child among your sons.

<sup>14</sup> When the time comes and your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' you tell him, 'GOD brought us out of Egypt, out of a house of slavery, with a powerful hand.

<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, GOD killed every firstborn in Egypt, the firstborn of both humans and animals. That's why I make a sacrifice for every first male birth from the womb to GOD and redeem every firstborn son.'

<sup>16</sup> The observance functions like a sign on your hands or a symbol on the middle of your forehead: GOD brought us out of Egypt with a powerful hand."

<sup>17</sup> It so happened that after Pharaoh released the people, God didn't lead them by the road through the land of the Philistines, which was the shortest route, for God thought, "If the people encounter war, they'll change their minds and go back to Egypt."

<sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the Israelites solemnly swear to do it, saying, "God will surely hold you accountable, so make sure you bring my bones from here with you."

<sup>4</sup> Then I'll make Pharaoh's heart stubborn again and he'll chase after them. And I'll use Pharaoh and his army to put my Glory on display. Then the Egyptians will realize that I am GOD." And that's what happened.

<sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people were gone, he and his servants changed their minds. They said, "What have we done, letting Israel, our slave labor, go free?"

made camp by the sea--all Pharaoh's horse-drawn chariots and their riders, all his foot soldiers there at Pi Hahiroth opposite Baal Zephon.

<sup>10</sup> As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw them--Egyptians! Coming at them! They were totally afraid. They cried out in terror to GOD.

<sup>11</sup> They told Moses, "Weren't the cemeteries large enough in Egypt so that you had to take us out here in the wilderness to die? What have you done to us, taking us out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup> Back in Egypt didn't we tell you this would happen? Didn't we tell you, 'Leave us alone here in Egypt--we're better off as slaves in Egypt than as corpses in the wilderness.'"

<sup>13</sup> Moses spoke to the people: "Don't be afraid. Stand firm and watch GOD do his work of salvation for you today. Take a good look at the Egyptians today for you're never going to see them again.

<sup>14</sup> GOD will fight the battle for you. And you? You keep your mouths shut!"

<sup>15</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Why cry out to me? Speak to the Israelites. Order them to get moving.

<sup>17</sup> "Meanwhile I'll make sure the Egyptians keep up their stubborn chase--I'll use Pharaoh and his entire army, his chariots and horsemen,

<sup>19</sup> The angel of God that had been leading the camp of Israel now shifted and got behind them. And the Pillar of Cloud that had been in front also shifted to the rear.

<sup>20</sup> The Cloud was now between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. The Cloud enshrouded one camp in darkness and flooded the other with light. The two camps didn't come near each other all night.

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and GOD, with a terrific east wind all night long, made the sea go back. He made the sea dry ground. The seawaters split.

<sup>24</sup> It was now the morning watch. GOD looked down from the Pillar of Fire and Cloud on the Egyptian army and threw them into a panic.

<sup>25</sup> He clogged the wheels of their chariots; they were stuck in the mud. The Egyptians said, "Run from Israel! GOD is fighting on their side and against Egypt!"

<sup>26</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea and the waters will come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots, over their horsemen."

<sup>27</sup> Moses stretched his hand out over the sea: As the day broke and the Egyptians were running, the sea returned to its place as before. GOD dumped the Egyptians in the middle of the sea.

<sup>30</sup> GOD delivered Israel that day from the oppression of the Egyptians. And Israel looked at the Egyptian dead, washed up on the shore of the sea, <sup>31</sup> and realized the tremendous power that GOD brought against the Egyptians. The people were in reverent awe before GOD and trusted in GOD and his servant Moses.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to GOD, giving voice together, I'm singing my heart out to GOD--what a victory! He pitched horse and rider into the sea.

<sup>2</sup> GOD is my strength, GOD is my song, and, yes! GOD is my salvation. [This] is the kind of God I have and I'm telling the world! [This] is the God of my father--I'm spreading the news far and wide!

<sup>13</sup> But the people you redeemed, you led in merciful love; You guided them under your protection to your holy pasture.

Before your brandished right arm they were struck dumb like a stone,

<sup>17</sup> Until your people crossed over and entered, O GOD, until the people you made crossed over and entered. You brought them and planted them on the mountain of your heritage, The place where you live, the place you made, Your sanctuary, Master, that you established with your own hands.

<sup>18</sup> Let GOD rule forever, for eternity!

and riders went into the sea and GOD turned the waters back on them; but the Israelites walked on dry land right through the middle of the sea.

sister, took a tambourine, and all the women followed her with tambourines, dancing.

<sup>21</sup> Miriam led them in singing, Sing to GOD--what a victory! He pitched horse and rider into the sea!

<sup>24</sup> And the people complained to Moses, "So what are we supposed to drink?"

<sup>25</sup> So Moses cried out in prayer to GOD. GOD pointed him to a stick of wood. Moses threw it into the water and the water turned sweet.

<sup>26</sup> That's the place where GOD set up rules and procedures; that's where he started testing them. GOD said, "If you listen, listen obediently to how GOD tells you to live in his presence, obeying his commandments and keeping all his laws, then I won't strike you with all the diseases that I inflicted on the Egyptians; I am GOD your healer."

<sup>3</sup> The Israelites said, "Why didn't GOD let us die in comfort in Egypt where we had lamb stew and all the bread we could eat? You've brought us out into this wilderness to starve us to death, the whole company of Israel!"

<sup>4</sup> GOD said to Moses, "I'm going to rain bread down from the skies for you. The people will go out and gather each day's ration. I'm going to test them to see if they'll live according to my Teaching or not.

<sup>5</sup> On the sixth day, when they prepare what they have gathered, it will turn out to be twice as much as their daily ration."

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron told the People of Israel, "This evening you will know that it is GOD who brought you out of Egypt;

<sup>7</sup> and in the morning you will see the Glory of GOD. Yes, he's listened to your complaints against him. You haven't been complaining against us, you know, but against GOD."

<sup>8</sup> Moses said, "Since it will be GOD who gives you meat for your meal in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, it's GOD who will have listened to your complaints against him. Who are we in all this? You haven't been complaining to us--you've been complaining to GOD!"

<sup>9</sup> Moses instructed Aaron: "Tell the whole company of Israel: 'Come near to GOD. He's heard your complaints.'"

<sup>10</sup> When Aaron gave out the instructions to the whole company of Israel, they turned to face the wilderness. And there it was: the Glory of GOD visible in the Cloud.

<sup>11</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>12</sup> "'I've listened to the complaints of the Israelites. Now tell them: 'At dusk you will eat meat and at dawn you'll eat your fill of bread; and you'll realize that I am GOD, your God.'"

<sup>13</sup> That evening quail flew in and covered the camp and in the morning there was a layer of dew all over the camp.

<sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew had lifted, there on the wilderness ground was a fine flaky something, fine as frost on the ground.

<sup>15</sup> The Israelites took one look and said to one another, [man-hu] (What is it?). They had no idea what it was. So Moses told them, "It's the bread GOD has given you to eat.

<sup>18</sup> but when they measured out what they had gathered, those who gathered more had no extra and those who gathered less weren't short--each person had gathered as much as was needed.

<sup>19</sup> Moses said to them, "Don't leave any of it until morning."

<sup>21</sup> They gathered it every morning, each person according to need. Then the sun heated up and it melted.

<sup>22</sup> On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, about four quarts per person. Then the leaders of the company came to Moses and reported.

<sup>23</sup> Moses said, "This is what GOD was talking about: Tomorrow is a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to GOD. Whatever you plan to bake, bake today; and whatever you plan to boil, boil today. Then set aside the leftovers until morning."

<sup>25</sup> Moses said, "Now eat it; this is the day, a Sabbath for GOD. You won't find any of it on the ground today.

<sup>26</sup> Gather it every day for six days, but the seventh day is Sabbath; there won't be any of it on the ground."

<sup>28</sup> GOD said to Moses, "How long are you going to disobey my commands and not follow my instructions?

<sup>29</sup> Don't you see that GOD has given you the Sabbath? So on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. So, each of you, stay home. Don't leave home on the seventh day."

<sup>31</sup> The Israelites named it manna (What is it?). It looked like coriander seed, whitish. And it tasted like a cracker with honey.

<sup>32</sup> Moses said, "This is GOD's command: 'Keep a two-quart jar of it, an omer, for future generations so they can see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness after I brought you out of Egypt.'"

manna until they reached the border into Canaan.

17 <sup>1</sup> Directed by GOD, the whole company of Israel moved on by stages from the Wilderness of Sin. They set camp at Rephidim. And there wasn't a drop of water for the people to drink.

<sup>2</sup> The people took Moses to task: "Give us water to drink." But Moses said, "Why pester me? Why are you testing GOD?"

<sup>3</sup> But the people were thirsty for water there. They complained to Moses, "Why did you take us from Egypt and drag us out here with our children and animals to die of thirst?"

<sup>4</sup> Moses cried out in prayer to GOD, "What can I do with these people? Any minute now they'll kill me!"

<sup>5</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Go on out ahead of the people, taking with you some of the elders of Israel. Take the staff you used to strike the Nile. And go.

<sup>6</sup> I'm going to be present before you there on the rock at Horeb. You are to strike the rock. Water will gush out of it and the people will drink." Moses did what he said, with the elders of Israel right there watching.

<sup>7</sup> He named the place Massah (Testing-Place) and Meribah (Quarreling) because of the quarreling of the Israelites and because of their testing of GOD when they said, "Is GOD here with us, or not?"

Aaron, and Hur went to the top of the hill.

<sup>12</sup> But Moses' hands got tired. So they got a stone and set it under him. He sat on it and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on each side. So his hands remained steady until the sun went down.

<sup>14</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Write this up as a reminder to Joshua, to keep it before him, because I will most certainly wipe the very memory of Amalek off the face of the Earth."

<sup>16</sup> He said, Salute GOD's rule! GOD at war with Amalek Always and forever!

18 <sup>1</sup> Jethro, priest of Midian and father-in-law to Moses, heard the report of all that God had done for Moses and Israel his people, the news that God had delivered Israel from Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken in Zipporah, Moses' wife who had been sent back home,

<sup>3</sup> and her two sons. The name of the one was Gershom (Sojourner) for he had said, "I'm a sojourner in a foreign land";

<sup>4</sup> the name of the other was Eliezer (God's-Help) because "The God of my father is my help and saved me from death by Pharaoh."

<sup>6</sup> He had sent a message ahead to Moses: "I, your father-in-law, am coming to you with your wife and two sons."

<sup>7</sup> Moses went out to welcome his father-in-law. He bowed to him and kissed him. Each asked the other how things had been with him. Then they went into the tent.

<sup>8</sup> Moses told his father-in-law the story of all that GOD had done to Pharaoh and Egypt in helping Israel, all the trouble they had experienced on the journey, and how GOD had delivered them.

<sup>9</sup> Jethro was delighted in all the good that GOD had done for Israel in delivering them from Egyptian oppression.

<sup>10</sup> Jethro said, "Blessed be GOD who has delivered you from the power of Egypt and Pharaoh, who has delivered his people from the oppression of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> Now I know that GOD is greater than all gods because he's done this to all those who treated Israel arrogantly."

<sup>12</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a Whole-Burnt-Offering and sacrifices to God. And Aaron, along with all the elders of Israel, came and ate the meal with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.

<sup>13</sup> The next day Moses took his place to judge the people. People were standing before him all day long, from morning to night.

<sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What's going on here? Why are you doing all this, and all by yourself, letting everybody line up before you from morning to night?"

<sup>15</sup> Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me with questions about God.

<sup>16</sup> When something comes up, they come to me. I judge between a man and his neighbor and teach them God's laws and instructions."

<sup>19</sup> Now listen to me. Let me tell you how to do this so that God will be in this with you. Be there for the people before God, but let the matters of concern be presented to God.

<sup>20</sup> Your job is to teach them the rules and instructions, to show them how to live, what to do.

<sup>21</sup> And then you need to keep a sharp eye out for competent men--men who fear God, men of integrity, men who are incorruptible--and appoint them as leaders over groups organized by the thousand, by the hundred, by fifty, and by ten.

<sup>22</sup> They'll be responsible for the everyday work of judging among the people. They'll bring the hard cases to you, but in the routine cases they'll be the judges. They will share your load and that will make it easier for you.

<sup>23</sup> If you handle the work this way, you'll have the strength to carry out whatever God commands you, and the people in their settings will flourish also."

<sup>24</sup> Moses listened to the counsel of his father-in-law and did everything he said.

<sup>25</sup> Moses picked competent men from all Israel and set them as leaders over the people who were organized by the thousand, by the hundred, by fifty, and by ten.

the hard cases to Moses, but in the routine cases they were the judges.

<sup>3</sup> As Moses went up to meet God, GOD called down to him from the mountain: "Speak to the House of Jacob, tell the People of Israel:

<sup>4</sup> 'You have seen what I did to Egypt and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to me.

<sup>5</sup> If you will listen obediently to what I say and keep my covenant, out of all peoples you'll be my special treasure. The whole Earth is mine to choose from, <sup>6</sup> but you're special: a kingdom of priests, a holy nation.' "This is what I want you to tell the People of Israel."

<sup>7</sup> Moses came back and called the elders of Israel together and set before them all these words which GOD had commanded him.

<sup>8</sup> The people were unanimous in their response: "Everything GOD says, we will do." Moses took the people's answer back to GOD.

<sup>9</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Get ready. I'm about to come to you in a thick cloud so that the people can listen in and trust you completely when I speak with you." Again Moses reported the people's answer to GOD.

<sup>10</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Go to the people. For the next two days get these people ready to meet the Holy GOD.

Have them scrub their clothes

<sup>11</sup> so that on the third day they'll be fully prepared, because on the third day GOD will come down on Mount Sinai and make his presence known to all the people.

<sup>13</sup> And no one is to touch that person, he's to be stoned. That's right--stoned. Or shot with arrows, shot to death. Animal or man, whichever--put to death.' "A long blast from the horn will signal that it's safe to climb the mountain."

<sup>14</sup> Moses went down the mountain to the people and prepared them for the holy meeting. They gave their clothes a good scrubbing.

<sup>20</sup> GOD descended to the peak of Mount Sinai. GOD called Moses up to the peak and Moses climbed up.

<sup>22</sup> And the priests also, warn them to prepare themselves for the holy meeting, lest GOD break out against them."

<sup>23</sup> Moses said to GOD, "But the people can't climb Mount Sinai. You've already warned us well telling us: 'Post boundaries around the mountain. Respect the holy mountain.'"

<sup>24</sup> GOD told him, "Go down and then bring Aaron back up with you. But make sure that the priests and the people don't break through and come up to GOD, lest he break out against them."

<sup>25</sup> So Moses went down to the people.
He said to them:

20 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke all these words:
<sup>2</sup> I am GOD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a life of slavery.

<sup>4</sup> No carved gods of any size, shape, or form of anything whatever, whether of things that fly or walk or swim.

<sup>5</sup> Don't bow down to them and don't serve them because I am GOD, your God, and I'm a most jealous God, punishing the children for any sins their parents pass on to them to the third, and yes, even to the fourth generation of those who hate me.

<sup>6</sup> But I'm unswervingly loyal to the thousands who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>7</sup> No using the name of GOD, your God, in curses or silly banter; GOD won't put up with the irreverant use of his name.

<sup>8</sup> Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

<sup>10</sup> But the seventh day is a Sabbath to GOD, your God. Don't do any work--not you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your servant, nor your maid, nor your animals, not even the foreign guest visiting in your town.

<sup>11</sup> For in six days GOD made Heaven, Earth, and sea, and everything in them; he rested on the seventh day. Therefore GOD blessed the Sabbath day; he set it apart as a holy day.

<sup>12</sup> Honor your father and mother so that you'll live a long time in the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>17</sup> No lusting after your neighbor's house--or wife or servant or maid or ox or donkey. Don't set your heart on anything that is your neighbor's.

<sup>18</sup> All the people, experiencing the thunder and lightning, the trumpet blast and the smoking mountain, were afraid--they pulled back and stood at a distance.

<sup>19</sup> They said to Moses, "You speak to us and we'll listen, but don't have God speak to us or we'll die."

<sup>20</sup> Moses spoke to the people: "Don't be afraid. God has come to test you and instill a deep and reverent awe within you so that you won't sin."

<sup>23</sup> Don't make gods of silver and gods of gold and then set them alongside me.

<sup>24</sup> Make me an earthen Altar. Sacrifice your Whole-Burnt-Offerings, your Peace-Offerings, your sheep, and your cattle on it. Every place where I cause my name to be honored in your worship, I'll be there myself and bless you.

<sup>25</sup> If you use stones to make my Altar, don't use dressed stones. If you use a chisel on the stones you'll profane the Altar.

<sup>26</sup> Don't use steps to climb to my Altar because that will expose your nakedness.'

21 <sup>1</sup> "These are the laws that you are to place before them:

<sup>2</sup> "When you buy a Hebrew slave, he will serve six years. The seventh year he goes free, for nothing.

<sup>3</sup> If he came in single he leaves single. If he came in married he leaves with his wife.

<sup>4</sup> If the master gives him a wife and she gave him sons and daughters, the wife and children stay with the master and he leaves by himself.

<sup>5</sup> But suppose the slave should say, 'I love my master and my wife and children--I don't want my freedom,'

<sup>6</sup> then his master is to bring him before God and to a door or doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl, a sign that he is a slave for life.

<sup>7</sup> "When a man sells his daughter to be a handmaid, she doesn't go free after six years like the men.

doesn't have the right to sell her to foreigners since he broke his word to her.

<sup>9</sup> If he turns her over to his son, he has to treat her like a daughter.

<sup>10</sup> If he marries another woman, she retains all her full rights to meals, clothing, and marital relations.

<sup>13</sup> But if there was no intent to kill--if it was an accident, an 'act of God'--I'll set aside a place to which the killer can flee for refuge.

<sup>14</sup> But if the murder was premeditated, cunningly plotted, then drag the killer away, even if it's from my Altar, to be put to death.

<sup>15</sup> "If someone hits father or mother, the penalty is death.

<sup>18</sup> "If a quarrel breaks out and one hits the other with a rock or a fist and the injured one doesn't die but is confined to bed

<sup>19</sup> and then later gets better and can get about on a crutch, the one who hit him is in the clear, except to pay for the loss of time and make sure of complete recovery.

<sup>21</sup> But if the slave survives a day or two, he's not to be avenged--the slave is the owner's property.

<sup>22</sup> "When there's a fight and in the fight a pregnant woman is hit so that she miscarries but is not otherwise hurt, the one responsible has to pay whatever the husband demands in compensation.

<sup>28</sup> "If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox must be stoned. The meat cannot be eaten but the owner of the ox is in the clear.

<sup>29</sup> But if the ox has a history of goring and the owner knew it and did nothing to guard against it, then if the ox kills a man or a woman, the ox is to be stoned and the owner given the death penalty.

<sup>30</sup> If a ransom is agreed upon instead of death, he must pay it in full as a redemption for his life.

<sup>32</sup> If it is a slave or a handmaid the ox gores, thirty shekels of silver is to be paid to the owner and the ox stoned.

<sup>33</sup> "If someone uncovers a cistern or digs a pit and leaves it open and an ox or donkey falls into it, <sup>34</sup> the owner of the pit must pay whatever the animal is worth to its owner but can keep the dead animal.

<sup>35</sup> "If someone's ox injures a neighbor's ox and the ox dies, they must sell the live ox and split the price; they must also split the dead animal.

<sup>36</sup> But if the ox had a history of goring and the owner knew it and did nothing to guard against it, the owner must pay an ox for an ox but can keep the dead animal.

22 <sup>1</sup> "If someone steals an ox or a lamb and slaughters or sells it, the thief must pay five cattle in place of the ox and four sheep in place of the lamb.

<sup>2</sup> If the thief is caught while breaking in and is hit hard and dies, there is no bloodguilt.

<sup>3</sup> But if it happens after daybreak, there is bloodguilt. "A thief must make full restitution for what is stolen. The thief who is unable to pay is to be sold for his thieving.

<sup>4</sup> If caught red-handed with the stolen goods, and the ox or donkey or lamb is still alive, the thief pays double.

<sup>5</sup> "If someone grazes livestock in a field or vineyard but lets them loose so they graze in someone else's field, restitution must be made from the best of the owner's field or vineyard.

<sup>6</sup> "If fire breaks out and spreads to the brush so that the sheaves of grain or the standing grain or even the whole field is burned up, whoever started the fire must pay for the damages.

<sup>7</sup> "If someone gives a neighbor money or things for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, the thief, if caught, must pay back double.

<sup>8</sup> If the thief is not caught, the owner must be brought before God to determine whether the owner was the one who took the neighbor's goods.

<sup>9</sup> "In all cases of stolen goods, whether oxen, donkeys, sheep, clothing, anything in fact missing of which someone says, 'That's mine,' both parties must come before the judges. The one the judges pronounce guilty must pay double to the other.

<sup>10</sup> "If someone gives a donkey or ox or lamb or any kind of animal to another for safekeeping and it dies or is injured or lost and there is no witness, <sup>11</sup> an oath before GOD must be made between them to decide whether one has laid hands on the property of the other. The owner must accept this and no damages are assessed.

<sup>12</sup> But if it turns out it was stolen, the owner must be compensated.

<sup>13</sup> If it has been torn by wild beasts, the torn animal must be brought in as evidence; no damages have to be paid.

14 "If someone borrows an animal from a neighbor and it gets injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must pay for it.

15 But if the owner was with it, he doesn't have to pay. If the animal was hired, the payment covers the loss.

16 "If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the marriage price and marry her.

17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her away, the man must still pay the marriage price for virgins.

18 "Don't let a sorceress live.

19 "Anyone who has sex with an animal gets the death penalty.

20 "Anyone who sacrifices to a god other than GOD alone must be put to death.

21 "Don't abuse or take advantage of strangers; you, remember, were once strangers in Egypt.

22 "Don't mistreat widows or orphans.

23 If you do and they cry out to me, you can be sure I'll take them most seriously;

24 I'll show my anger and come raging among you with the sword, and your wives will end up widows and your children orphans.

25 "If you lend money to my people, to any of the down-and-out among you, don't come down hard on them and gouge them with interest.

26 "If you take your neighbor's coat as security, give it back before nightfall;

27 it may be your neighbor's only covering--what else does the person have to sleep in? And if I hear the neighbor crying out from the cold, I'll step in--I'm compassionate.

<sup>28</sup> "Don't curse God; and don't damn your leaders.

<sup>9</sup> "Don't take advantage of a stranger. You know what it's like to be a stranger; you were strangers in Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> "Sow your land for six years and gather in its crops, <sup>11</sup> but in the seventh year leave it alone and give it a rest so that your poor may eat from it. What they leave, let the wildlife have. Do the same with your vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>12</sup> "Work for six days and rest the seventh so your ox and donkey may rest and your servant and migrant workers may have time to get their needed rest.

<sup>15</sup> "Hold the spring Festival of Unraised Bread when you eat unraised bread for seven days at the time set for the month of Abib, as I commanded you. That was the month you came out of Egypt. No one should show up before me empty-handed.

<sup>16</sup> "Hold the summer Festival of Harvest when you bring in the firstfruits of all your work in the fields. "Hold the autumn Festival of Ingathering at the end of the season when you bring in the year's crops.

<sup>19</sup> "Bring the choice first produce of the year to the house of your GOD. "Don't boil a kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>20</sup> "Now get yourselves ready. I'm sending my Angel ahead of you to guard you in your travels, to lead you to the place that I've prepared.

<sup>21</sup> Pay close attention to him. Obey him. Don't go against him. He won't put up with your rebellions because he's acting on my authority.

your enemies, I'll fight those who fight you.

<sup>23</sup> When my Angel goes ahead of you and leads you to the land of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, I'll clear the country of them.

<sup>24</sup> So don't worship or serve their gods; don't do anything they do because I'm going to wipe them right off the face of the Earth and smash their sacred phallic pillars to bits.

<sup>25</sup> "But you--you serve your GOD and he'll bless your food and your water. I'll get rid of the sickness among you;

<sup>26</sup> there won't be any miscarriages nor barren women in your land. I'll make sure you live full and complete lives.

<sup>27</sup> "I'll send my Terror on ahead of you and throw those peoples you're approaching into a panic. All you'll see of your enemies is the backs of their necks.

<sup>28</sup> "And I'll send Despair on ahead of you. It will push the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites out of your way.

<sup>29</sup> I won't get rid of them all at once lest the land grow up in weeds and the wild animals take over.

<sup>31</sup> I will make your borders stretch from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea and from the Wilderness to the Euphrates River. I'm turning everyone living in that land over to you; go ahead and drive them out.

<sup>33</sup> They are not to stay in the same country with you lest they get you to sin

by worshiping their gods. Beware. That's a huge danger."

24 <sup>1</sup> He said to Moses, "Climb the mountain to GOD, you and Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. They will worship from a distance;

<sup>2</sup> only Moses will approach GOD. The rest are not to come close. And the people are not to climb the mountain at all."

<sup>3</sup> So Moses went to the people and told them everything GOD had said--all the rules and regulations. They all answered in unison: "Everything GOD said, we'll do."

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses wrote it all down, everything GOD had said. He got up early the next morning and built an Altar at the foot of the mountain using twelve pillar-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Moses took half the blood and put it in bowls; the other half he threw against the Altar.

<sup>7</sup> Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it as the people listened. They said, "Everything GOD said, we'll do. Yes, we'll obey."

<sup>8</sup> Moses took the rest of the blood and threw it out over the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which GOD has made with you out of all these words I have spoken."

<sup>9</sup> Then they climbed the mountain-- Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel--

<sup>11</sup> He didn't hurt these pillar-leaders of the Israelites: They saw God; and they ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Climb higher up the mountain and wait there for me; I'll give you tablets of stone, the teachings and commandments that I've written to instruct them."

<sup>14</sup> He told the elders of Israel, "Wait for us here until we return to you. You have Aaron and Hur with you; if there are any problems, go to them."

<sup>16</sup> The Glory of GOD settled over Mount Sinai. The Cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day he called out of the Cloud to Moses.

<sup>18</sup> Moses entered the middle of the Cloud and climbed the mountain. Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Tell the Israelites that they are to set aside offerings for me. Receive the offerings from everyone who is willing to give.

<sup>9</sup> You are to construct it following the plans I've given you, the design for The Dwelling and the design for all its furnishings.

<sup>10</sup> "First let them make a Chest using acacia wood: make it three and three-quarters feet long and two and one-quarter feet wide and deep.

<sup>21</sup> Set the Atonement-Cover as a lid over the Chest and place in the Chest The Testimony that I will give you.

<sup>22</sup> I will meet you there at set times and speak with you from above the Atonement-Cover and from between the angel-figures that are on it, speaking the commands that I have for the Israelites.

<sup>33</sup> put three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, three on the next, and so on--the same for all six branches.

<sup>17</sup> with two pegs for securing them.

Make all the frames identical:

27 <sup>1</sup> "Make an Altar of acacia wood. Make it seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high.

<sup>9</sup> "Make a Courtyard for The Dwelling. The south side is to be 150 feet long. The hangings for the Courtyard are to be woven from fine twisted linen,

<sup>15</sup> and the same for the other side.

<sup>18</sup> The Courtyard is to be 150 feet long and seventy-five feet wide. The hangings of fine twisted linen set on their bronze bases are to be seven and a half feet high.

<sup>20</sup> "Now, order the Israelites to bring you pure, clear olive oil for light so that the lamps can be kept burning.

<sup>21</sup> In the Tent of Meeting, the area outside the curtain that veils The Testimony, Aaron and his sons will keep this light burning from evening until morning before GOD. This is to be a permanent practice down through the generations for Israelites.

<sup>3</sup> Consult with the skilled craftsmen, those whom I have gifted in this work, and arrange for them to make Aaron's vestments, to set him apart as holy, to act as priest for me.

<sup>10</sup> six names on one stone and the remaining six on the other.

<sup>28</sup> Fasten the Breastpiece in place by running a cord of blue through its rings to the rings of the Ephod so that it rests secure on the decorated band of the Ephod and won't come loose.

<sup>29</sup> "Aaron will regularly carry the names of the sons of Israel on the Breastpiece of Judgment over his heart as he enters the Sanctuary into the presence of GOD for remembrance.

<sup>30</sup> Place the Urim and Thummim in the Breastpiece of Judgment. They will be over Aaron's heart when he enters the presence of GOD. In this way Aaron will regularly carry the Breastpiece of Judgment into the presence of GOD.

<sup>35</sup> Aaron has to wear it when he does his priestly work. The bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place and comes into the presence of GOD, and again when he comes out so that he won't die.

<sup>38</sup> It is to rest there on Aaron's forehead. He'll take on any guilt involved in the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate, no matter what they bring. It will always be on Aaron's forehead so that the offerings will be acceptable before GOD.

<sup>43</sup> Aaron and his sons must wear it whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the Altar to minister in the Holy Place so that they won't incur guilt and die. This is a permanent rule for Aaron and all his priest-descendants.

29 <sup>1</sup> "This is the ceremony for consecrating them as priests. Take a young bull and two rams, healthy and without defects.

<sup>2</sup> Using fine wheat flour but no yeast make bread and cakes mixed with oil and wafers spread with oil.

belting the Ephod on him with the embroidered waistband.

Their priesthood is upheld by law and is permanent. "This is how you will ordain Aaron and his sons:

<sup>10</sup> Bring the bull to the Tent of Meeting. Aaron and his sons will place their hands on the head of the bull.

<sup>11</sup> Then you will slaughter the bull in the presence of GOD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>12</sup> Take some of the bull's blood and smear it on the horns of the Altar with your finger; pour the rest of the blood on the base of the Altar.

<sup>13</sup> Next take all the fat that covers the innards, fat from around the liver and the two kidneys, and burn it on the Altar.

<sup>14</sup> But the flesh of the bull, including its hide and dung, you will burn up outside the camp. It is an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>15</sup> "Then take one of the rams. Have Aaron and his sons place their hands on the head of the ram.

<sup>18</sup> and burn the whole ram on the Altar. It is a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD, a pleasant fragrance, an offering by fire to GOD.

<sup>21</sup> Then take some of the blood that is on the Altar, mix it with some of the anointing oil, and splash it on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and their clothes so that Aaron and his clothes and his sons and his sons' clothes will be made holy.

<sup>23</sup> Also take one loaf of bread, an oil cake, and a wafer from the breadbasket that is in the presence of GOD.

<sup>24</sup> "Place all of these in the open hands of Aaron and his sons who will wave them before GOD, a Wave-Offering.

<sup>25</sup> Then take them from their hands and burn them on the Altar with the Whole-Burnt-Offering--a pleasing fragrance before GOD, a gift to GOD.

<sup>30</sup> The son who succeeds him as priest is to wear them for seven days and enter the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place.

<sup>36</sup> Offer a bull as an Absolution-Offering for atonement each day. Offer it on the Altar when you make atonement for it: Anoint and consecrate it.

<sup>37</sup> Make atonement for the Altar and consecrate it for seven days; the Altar will become soaked in holiness--anyone who so much as touches the Altar will become holy.

<sup>41</sup> The sacrifice of the second lamb, the one at evening, is also to be accompanied by the same Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering of the morning sacrifice to give a pleasing fragrance, a gift to GOD.

<sup>43</sup> that's where I'll meet the Israelites, at the place made holy by my Glory.

Egypt so that I could live with them. I am GOD, your God.

30<sup>1</sup> "Make an Altar for burning incense. Construct it from acacia wood, <sup>2</sup> one and one-half feet square and three feet high with its horns of one piece with it.

<sup>4</sup> with two rings of gold beneath the molding. Place the rings on the two opposing sides to serve as holders for poles by which it will be carried.

<sup>7</sup> Aaron will burn fragrant incense on it every morning when he polishes the lamps, <sup>8</sup> and again in the evening as he prepares the lamps for lighting, so that there will always be incense burning before GOD, generation after generation.

<sup>9</sup> But don't burn on this Altar any unholy incense or Whole-Burnt-Offering or Grain-Offering. And don't pour out Drink-Offerings on it.

<sup>10</sup> Once a year Aaron is to purify the Altar horns. Using the blood of the Absolution-Offering of atonement, he is to make this atonement every year down through the generations. It is most holy to GOD."

<sup>11</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> "When you take a head count of the Israelites to keep track of them, all must pay an atonement-tax to GOD for their life at the time of being registered so that nothing bad will happen because of the registration.

<sup>14</sup> Everyone counted, age twenty and up, is to make the offering to GOD.

<sup>15</sup> The rich are not to pay more nor the poor less than the half-shekel offering to GOD, the atonement-tax for your lives.

<sup>16</sup> Take the atonement-tax money from the Israelites and put it to the maintenance of the Tent of Meeting. It will be a memorial fund for the Israelites in honor of GOD, making atonement for your lives."

<sup>17</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>18</sup> "Make a bronze Washbasin; make it with a bronze base. Place it between the Tent of Meeting and the Altar. Put water in it.

<sup>20</sup> When they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the Altar to serve there or offer gift offerings to GOD, they are to wash so they will not die.

<sup>21</sup> They are to wash their hands and their feet so they will not die. This is the rule forever, for Aaron and his sons down through the generations."

<sup>22</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>23</sup> "Take the best spices: twelve and a half pounds of liquid myrrh; half that much, six and a quarter pounds, of fragrant cinnamon; six and a quarter pounds of fragrant cane;

<sup>27</sup> the Table and all its utensils, the Lampstand and its utensils, the Altar of Incense, <sup>28</sup> the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offerings and all its utensils, and the Washbasin and its base.

<sup>29</sup> Consecrate them so they'll be soaked in holiness, so that anyone who so much as touches them will become holy.

<sup>33</sup> Whoever mixes up anything like it, or puts it on an ordinary person, will be expelled."

<sup>35</sup> to make an aromatic incense, the art of a perfumer, salted and pure--holy.

<sup>36</sup> Now crush some of it into powder and place some of it before The Testimony in the Tent of Meeting where I will meet with you; it will be for you the holiest of holy places.

<sup>37</sup> When you make this incense, you are not to copy the mixture for your own use. It's holy to GOD; keep it that way.

<sup>38</sup> Whoever copies it for personal use will be excommunicated."

31 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "See what I've done; I've personally chosen Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>6</sup> "Not only that, but I've given him Oholiab, son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, to work with him. And to all who have an aptitude for crafts I've given the skills to make all the things I've commanded you:

<sup>7</sup> the Tent of Meeting, the Chest of The Testimony and its Atonement-Cover, all the implements for the Tent,

<sup>9</sup> the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering and all its implements, the Washbasin and its base,

<sup>10</sup> the official vestments, the holy vestments for Aaron the priest and his sons in their priestly duties,

<sup>11</sup> the anointing oil, and the aromatic incense for the Holy Place--they'll make everything just the way I've commanded you."

<sup>12</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>13</sup> "Tell the Israelites, 'Above all, keep my Sabbaths, the sign between me and you, generation after generation, to keep the knowledge alive that I am the GOD who makes you holy.

<sup>14</sup> Keep the Sabbath; it's holy to you. Whoever profanes it will most certainly be put to death. Whoever works on it will be excommunicated from the people.

<sup>15</sup> There are six days for work but the seventh day is Sabbath, pure rest, holy to GOD. Anyone who works on the Sabbath will most certainly be put to death.

<sup>16</sup> The Israelites will keep the Sabbath, observe Sabbath-keeping down through the generations, as a standing covenant.

<sup>17</sup> It's a fixed sign between me and the Israelites. Yes, because in six days GOD made the Heavens and the Earth and on the seventh day he stopped and took a long, deep breath."

<sup>18</sup> When he finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, he gave Moses two tablets of Testimony, slabs of stone, written with the finger of God.

32 <sup>1</sup> When the people realized that Moses was taking forever in coming down off the mountain, they rallied around Aaron and said, "Do something. Make gods for us who will lead us. That Moses, the man who got us out of Egypt--who knows what's happened to him?"

<sup>2</sup> So Aaron told them, "Take off the gold rings from the ears of your wives and sons and daughters and bring them to me."

<sup>4</sup> He took the gold from their hands and cast it in the form of a calf, shaping it with an engraving tool. The people responded with enthusiasm: "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from Egypt!"

<sup>6</sup> Early the next morning, the people got up and offered Whole-Burnt-Offerings and brought Peace-Offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink and then began to party. It turned into a wild party!

<sup>7</sup> GOD spoke to Moses, "Go! Get down there! Your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt have fallen to pieces.

<sup>8</sup> In no time at all they've turned away from the way I commanded them: They made a molten calf and worshiped it. They've sacrificed to it and said, 'These are the gods, O Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt!'"

<sup>9</sup> GOD said to Moses, "I look at this people--oh! what a stubborn, hard-headed people!

<sup>10</sup> Let me alone now, give my anger free reign to burst into flames and incinerate them. But I'll make a great nation out of you."

<sup>11</sup> Moses tried to calm his GOD down. He said, "Why, GOD, would you lose your temper with your people? Why, you brought them out of Egypt in a tremendous demonstration of power and strength.

<sup>12</sup> Why let the Egyptians say, 'He had it in for them--he brought them out so he could kill them in the mountains, wipe them right off the face of the Earth.' Stop your anger. Think twice about bringing evil against your people!

<sup>13</sup> Think of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants to whom you gave your word, telling them 'I will give you many children, as many as the stars in the sky, and I'll give this land to your children as their land forever.'"

<sup>14</sup> And GOD did think twice. He decided not to do the evil he had threatened against his people.

<sup>15</sup> Moses turned around and came down from the mountain, carrying the two tablets of The Testimony. The tablets were written on both sides, front and back.

<sup>16</sup> God made the tablets and God wrote the tablets--engraved them.

<sup>17</sup> When Joshua heard the sound of the people shouting noisily, he said to Moses, "That's the sound of war in the camp!"

<sup>18</sup> But Moses said, Those aren't songs of victory, And those aren't songs of defeat, I hear songs of people throwing a party.

<sup>19</sup> And that's what it was. When Moses came near to the camp and saw the calf and the people dancing, his anger flared. He threw down the tablets and smashed them to pieces at the foot of the mountain.

<sup>20</sup> He took the calf that they had made, melted it down with fire, pulverized it to powder, then scattered it on the water and made the Israelites drink it.

<sup>21</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "What on Earth did these people ever do to you that you involved them in this huge sin?"

<sup>22</sup> Aaron said, "Master, don't be angry. You know this people and how set on evil they are.

<sup>23</sup> They said to me, 'Make us gods who will lead us. This Moses, the man who brought us out of Egypt, we don't know what's happened to him.'

<sup>24</sup> "So I said, 'Who has gold?' And they took off their jewelry and gave it to me. I threw it in the fire and out came this calf."

<sup>25</sup> Moses saw that the people were simply running wild--Aaron had let them run wild, disgracing themselves before their enemies.

<sup>26</sup> He took up a position at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is on GOD's side, join me!" All the Levites stepped up.

<sup>27</sup> He then told them, "GOD's orders, the God of Israel: 'Strap on your swords and go to work. Crisscross the camp from one end to the other: Kill brother, friend, neighbor.'"

<sup>28</sup> The Levites carried out Moses' orders. Three thousand of the people were killed that day.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "You confirmed your ordination today--and at great cost, even killing your sons and brothers! And God has blessed you."

<sup>30</sup> The next day Moses addressed the people: "You have sinned an enormous sin! But I am going to go up to GOD; maybe I'll be able to clear you of your sin."

<sup>31</sup> Moses went back to GOD and said, "This is terrible. This people has sinned--it's an enormous sin! They made gods of gold for themselves.

<sup>32</sup> And now, if you will only forgive their sin. ...But if not, erase me out of the book you've written."

<sup>33</sup> GOD said to Moses, "I'll only erase from my book those who sin against me.

<sup>34</sup> For right now, you go and lead the people to where I told you. Look, my Angel is going ahead of you. On the day, though, when I settle accounts, their sins will certainly be part of the settlement."

33 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Now go. Get on your way from here, you and the people you brought up from the land of Egypt. Head for the land which I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying 'I will give it to your descendants.'

<sup>5</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You're one hard-headed people. I couldn't stand being with you for even a moment--I'd destroy you. So take off all your jewelry until I figure out what to do with you.'"

<sup>7</sup> Moses used to take the Tent and set it up outside the camp, some distance away. He called it the Tent of Meeting. Anyone who sought GOD would go to the Tent of Meeting outside the camp.

<sup>11</sup> And GOD spoke with Moses face-to-face, as neighbors speak to one another. When he would return to the camp, his attendant, the young man Joshua, stayed--he didn't leave the Tent.

<sup>12</sup> Moses said to GOD, "Look, you tell me, 'Lead this people,' but you don't let me know whom you're going to send with me. You tell me, 'I know you well and you are special to me.'

<sup>13</sup> If I am so special to you, let me in on your plans. That way, I will continue being special to you. Don't forget, this is [your] people, your responsibility."

<sup>14</sup> GOD said, "My presence will go with you. I'll see the journey to the end."

<sup>15</sup> Moses said, "If your presence doesn't take the lead here, call this trip off right now.

<sup>16</sup> How else will it be known that you're with me in this, with me and your people? Are you traveling with us or not? How else will we know that we're special, I and your people, among all other people on this planet Earth?"

<sup>17</sup> GOD said to Moses: "All right. Just as you say; this also I will do, for I know you well and you are special to me. I know you by name."

<sup>18</sup> Moses said, "Please. Let me see your Glory."

<sup>19</sup> GOD said, "I will make my Goodness pass right in front of you; I'll call out the name, GOD, right before you. I'll treat well whomever I want to treat well and I'll be kind to whomever I want to be kind."

<sup>23</sup> Then I'll take my hand away and you'll see my back. But you won't see my face."

34 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses: "Cut out two tablets of stone just like the originals and engrave on them the words that were on the original tablets you smashed.

<sup>2</sup> Be ready in the morning to climb Mount Sinai and get set to meet me on top of the mountain.

<sup>4</sup> So Moses cut two tablets of stone just like the originals. He got up early in the morning and climbed Mount Sinai as GOD had commanded him, carrying the two tablets of stone.

<sup>5</sup> GOD descended in the cloud and took up his position there beside him and called out the name, GOD.

<sup>6</sup> GOD passed in front of him and called out, "GOD, GOD, a God of mercy and grace, endlessly patient--so much love, so deeply true--

<sup>7</sup> loyal in love for a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity, rebellion, and sin. Still, he doesn't ignore sin. He holds sons and grandsons responsible for a father's sins to the third and even fourth generation."

<sup>9</sup> saying, "Please, O Master, if you see anything good in me, please Master, travel with us, hard-headed as these people are. Forgive our iniquity and sin. Own us, possess us."

<sup>10</sup> And GOD said, "As of right now, I'm making a covenant with you: In full sight of your people I will work wonders that have never been created in all the Earth, in any nation. Then all the people with whom you're living will see how tremendous GOD's work is, the work I'll do for you.

<sup>11</sup> Take careful note of all I command you today. I'm clearing your way by driving out Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

<sup>12</sup> Stay vigilant. Don't let down your guard lest you make covenant with the people who live in the land that you are entering and they trip you up.

<sup>15</sup> Be careful that you don't make a covenant with the people who live in the land and take up with their sex-and-religion life, join them in meals at their altars,

<sup>18</sup> "Keep the Feast of Unraised Bread. Eat only unraised bread for seven days in the month of Abib--it was in the month of Abib that you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> "Every firstborn from the womb is mine, all the males of your herds, your firstborn oxen and sheep.

<sup>20</sup> "Redeem your firstborn donkey with a lamb. If you don't redeem it you must break its neck. "Redeem each of your firstborn sons. "No one is to show up in my presence empty-handed.

<sup>24</sup> You won't have to worry about your land when you appear before your GOD three times each year, for I will drive out the nations before you and give you plenty of land. Nobody's going to be hanging around plotting ways to get it from you.

leftovers from the Passover Feast until morning.

<sup>26</sup> "Bring the finest of the firstfruits of your produce to the house of your GOD. "Don't boil a kid in its mother's milk."

<sup>27</sup> GOD said to Moses: "Now write down these words, for by these words I've made a covenant with you and Israel."

<sup>28</sup> Moses was there with GOD forty days and forty nights. He didn't eat any food; he didn't drink any water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.

<sup>29</sup> When Moses came down from Mount Sinai carrying the two Tablets of The Testimony, he didn't know that the skin of his face glowed because he had been speaking with GOD.

<sup>32</sup> Later all the Israelites came up to him and he passed on the commands, everything that GOD had told him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>34</sup> but when he went into the presence of GOD to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. When he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, <sup>35</sup> they would see Moses' face, its skin glowing, and then he would again put the veil on his face until he went back in to speak with GOD.

35 <sup>1</sup> Moses spoke to the entire congregation of Israel, saying, "These are the things that GOD has commanded you to do:

<sup>2</sup> "Work six days, but the seventh day will be a holy rest day, GOD's holy rest day. Anyone who works on this day must be put to death.

<sup>10</sup> "Come--all of you who have skills--come and make everything that GOD has commanded:

<sup>21</sup> Then they came back, every one whose heart was roused, whose spirit was freely responsive, bringing offerings to GOD for building the Tent of Meeting, furnishing it for worship and making the holy vestments.

<sup>22</sup> They came, both men and women, all the willing spirits among them, offering brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces-- anything made of gold--offering up their gold jewelry to GOD.

<sup>23</sup> And anyone who had blue, purple, and scarlet fabrics; fine linen; goats' hair; tanned leather; and dolphin skins brought them.

<sup>24</sup> Everyone who wanted to offer up silver or bronze as a gift to GOD brought it. Everyone who had acacia wood that could be used in the work, brought it.

<sup>29</sup> Every man and woman in Israel whose heart moved them freely to bring something for the work that GOD through Moses had commanded them to make, brought it, a voluntary offering for GOD.

<sup>30</sup> Moses told the Israelites, "See, GOD has selected Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>31</sup> He's filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability, and know-how for making all sorts of things,

<sup>32</sup> to design and work in gold, silver, and bronze;

<sup>33</sup> to carve stones and set them; to carve wood, working in every kind of skilled craft.

<sup>34</sup> And he's also made him a teacher, he and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

<sup>35</sup> He's gifted them with the know-how needed for carving, designing, weaving, and embroidering in blue, purple, and scarlet fabrics, and in fine linen. They can make anything and design anything.

36 <sup>1</sup> "Bezalel and Oholiab, along with everyone whom GOD has given the skill and know-how for making everything involved in the worship of the Sanctuary as commanded by GOD, are to start to work."

<sup>3</sup> They took from Moses all the offerings that the Israelites had brought for the work of constructing the Sanctuary. The people kept on bringing in their freewill offerings, morning after morning.

<sup>4</sup> All the artisans who were at work making everything involved in constructing the Sanctuary came, one after another,

this work that GOD has commanded us to do!"

<sup>6</sup> So Moses sent out orders through the camp: "Men! Women! No more offerings for the building of the Sanctuary!" The people were ordered to stop bringing offerings!

<sup>7</sup> There was plenty of material for all the work to be done. Enough and more than enough.

<sup>8</sup> Then all the skilled artisans on The Dwelling made ten tapestries of fine twisted linen and blue, purple, and scarlet fabric with an angel-cherubim design worked into the material.

<sup>9</sup> Each panel of tapestry was forty-six feet long and six feet wide.

<sup>10</sup> Five of the panels were joined together, and then the other five.

<sup>11</sup> Loops of blue were made along the edge of the outside panel of the first set, and the same on the outside panel of the second set.

<sup>12</sup> They made fifty loops on each panel, with the loops opposite each other.

<sup>13</sup> Then they made fifty gold clasps and joined the tapestries together so that The Dwelling was one whole.

<sup>14</sup> Next they made tapestries of woven goat hair for a tent that would cover The Dwelling. They made eleven panels of these tapestries.

<sup>15</sup> The length of each panel was forty-five feet long and six feet wide.

<sup>17</sup> by making fifty loops along the edge of the end panel and fifty loops along the edge of the joining panel,

<sup>22</sup> with two pegs for securing them.

They made all the frames identical:

<sup>38</sup> They framed the weaving with five poles of acacia wood covered with a veneer of gold, and made gold hooks to hang the weaving and five bronze bases for the poles.

37 <sup>1</sup> Bezalel made the Chest using acacia wood: He made it three and three-quarters feet long and two and a quarter feet wide and deep.

<sup>3</sup> He cast four gold rings and attached them to its four feet, two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

<sup>6</sup> Next he made a lid of pure gold for the Chest, an Atonement-Cover, three and three-quarters feet long and two and a quarter feet wide.

<sup>10</sup> He made the Table from acacia wood. He made it three feet long, one and a half feet wide and two and a quarter feet high.

<sup>11</sup> He covered it with a veneer of pure gold and made a molding of gold all around it.

<sup>16</sup> Out of pure gold he made the utensils for the Table: its plates, bowls, jars, and jugs used for pouring.

<sup>18</sup> It had six branches, three from one side and three from the other;

<sup>19</sup> three cups shaped like almond blossoms with calyxes and petals on one branch, three on the next, and so on--the same for all six branches.

<sup>25</sup> He made an Altar for burning incense from acacia wood. He made it a foot and a half square and three feet high, with its horns of one piece with it.

<sup>26</sup> He covered it with a veneer of pure gold, its top, sides, and horns, and made a gold molding around it

<sup>27</sup> with two rings of gold beneath the molding. He placed the rings on the two opposing sides to serve as holders for poles by which it will be carried.

<sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with a veneer of gold.

<sup>29</sup> He also prepared with the art of a perfumer the holy anointing oil and the pure aromatic incense.

38 <sup>1</sup> He made the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering from acacia wood. He made it seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high.

<sup>7</sup> He inserted the poles through the rings on the two sides of the Altar for carrying it. The Altar was made out of boards; it was hollow.

<sup>8</sup> He made the Bronze Washbasin and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women's work group who were assigned to serve at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Courtyard, woven from fine twisted linen, were 150 feet long,

<sup>15</sup> and the same for the other side.

<sup>17</sup> The bases for the posts were bronze and the fastening hooks and bands on the posts were of silver. The posts of the Courtyard were both capped and banded with silver.

<sup>22</sup> Bezalel, the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>24</sup> Gold. The total amount of gold used in construction of the Sanctuary, all of it contributed freely, weighed out at 1,900 pounds according to the Sanctuary standard.

<sup>25</sup> Silver. The silver from those in the community who were registered in the census came to 6,437 pounds according to the Sanctuary standard <sup>26</sup> --that amounted to a beka, or half-shekel, for every registered person aged twenty and over, a total of 603,550 men.

<sup>27</sup> They used the three and one-quarter tons of silver to cast the bases for the Sanctuary and for the hangings, one hundred bases at sixty-four pounds each.

<sup>28</sup> They used the remaining thirty-seven pounds to make the connecting hooks on the posts, and the caps and bands for the posts.

<sup>29</sup> Bronze. The bronze that was brought in weighed 4,522 pounds.

<sup>31</sup> the bases around the Courtyard, the bases for the gate of the Courtyard, and all the pegs for The Dwelling and the Courtyard.

39 <sup>1</sup> Vestments. Using the blue, purple, and scarlet fabrics, they made the woven vestments for ministering in the Sanctuary. Also they made the sacred vestments for Aaron, as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup> They mounted the onyx stones in a setting of filigreed gold and engraved the names of the sons of Israel on them,

the two rings at the two ends of the Breastpiece, <sup>17</sup> and fastened the two ends of the cords to the two rings at the end of the Breastpiece.

<sup>19</sup> Then they made two rings of gold and fastened them to the two ends of the Breastpiece on its inside edge facing the Ephod.

<sup>21</sup> The Breastpiece was fastened by running a cord of blue through its rings to the rings of the Ephod so that it rested secure on the decorated band of the Ephod and wouldn't come loose, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>27</sup> They also made the tunics of fine linen, the work of a weaver, for Aaron and his sons,

<sup>28</sup> the turban of fine linen, the linen hats, the linen underwear made of fine twisted linen,

<sup>30</sup> They made the plate, the sacred crown, of pure gold and engraved on it as on a seal: "Holy to GOD."

<sup>32</sup> That completed the work of The Dwelling, the Tent of Meeting. The People of Israel did what GOD had commanded Moses. They did it all.

<sup>41</sup> woven vestments for ministering in the Sanctuary sacred vestments for Aaron the priest, and his sons when serving as priests

<sup>43</sup> Moses saw that they had done all the work and done it exactly as GOD had commanded. Moses blessed them.

40 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>9</sup> "Then take the anointing oil and anoint The Dwelling and everything in it; consecrate it and all its furnishings so that it becomes holy.

Their anointing will bring them into a perpetual priesthood, down through the generations."

<sup>16</sup> Moses did everything GOD commanded. He did it all.

<sup>23</sup> and arranged the Bread there before GOD, just as GOD had commanded him.

<sup>37</sup> but if the Cloud did not lift, they wouldn't set out until it did lift.

<sup>38</sup> The Cloud of GOD was over The Dwelling during the day and the fire was in it at night, visible to all the Israelites in all their travels.

Leviticus

1 <sup>1</sup> GOD called Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting:

<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them, When anyone presents an offering to GOD, present an animal from either the herd or the flock.

<sup>3</sup> "If the offering is a Whole-Burnt-Offering from the herd, present a male without a defect at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting that it may be accepted by GOD.

<sup>4</sup> Lay your hand on the head of the Whole-Burnt-Offering so that it may be accepted on your behalf to make atonement for you.

<sup>5</sup> Slaughter the bull in GOD's presence. Aaron's sons, the priests, will make an offering of the blood by splashing it against all sides of the Altar that stands at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>9</sup> Scrub the entrails and legs clean. The priest will burn it all on the Altar: a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>10</sup> "If the Whole-Burnt-Offering comes from the flock, whether sheep or goat, present a male without defect.

<sup>12</sup> Cut it up and the priest will arrange the pieces, including the head and the suet, on the wood prepared for burning on the Altar.

<sup>13</sup> Scrub the entrails and legs clean. The priest will offer it all, burning it on the Altar: a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> "If a bird is presented to GOD for the Whole-Burnt-Offering it can be either a dove or a pigeon.

<sup>15</sup> The priest will bring it to the Altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the Altar. But he will first drain the blood on the side of the Altar, <sup>16</sup> remove the gizzard and its contents, and throw them on the east side of the Altar where the ashes are piled.

<sup>17</sup> Then rip it open by its wings but leave it in one piece and burn it on the Altar on the wood prepared for the fire:

a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

2<sup>1</sup> "When you present a Grain-Offering to GOD, use fine flour. Pour oil on it, put incense on it,

<sup>3</sup> The rest of the Grain-Offering is for Aaron and his sons--a most holy part of the Fire-Gifts to GOD.

<sup>5</sup> "If you bring a Grain-Offering cooked on a griddle, use fine flour mixed with oil but without yeast.

<sup>8</sup> "Bring the Grain-Offering you make from these ingredients and present it to the priest. He will bring it to the Altar,

<sup>10</sup> The rest of the Grain-Offering is for Aaron and his sons--a most holy part of the gifts to GOD.

<sup>11</sup> "All the Grain-Offerings that you present to GOD must be made without yeast; you must never burn any yeast or honey as a Fire-Gift to GOD.

<sup>12</sup> You may offer them to GOD as an offering of firstfruits but not on the Altar as a pleasing fragrance.

3 <sup>1</sup> "If your offering is a Peace-Offering and you present an animal from the herd, either male or female, it must be an animal without any defect.

<sup>2</sup> Lay your hand on the head of your offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. Aaron's sons, the priests, will throw the blood on all sides of the Altar.

<sup>3</sup> As a Fire-Gift to GOD from the Peace-Offering, present all the fat that covers or is connected to the entrails, <sup>4</sup> the two kidneys and the fat around them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver that is removed along with the kidneys.

<sup>5</sup> Aaron and his sons will burn it on the Altar along with the Whole-Burnt-Offering that is on the wood prepared for the fire: a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> "If your Peace-Offering to GOD comes from the flock, bring a male or female without defect.

<sup>7</sup> If you offer a lamb, offer it to GOD.

<sup>9</sup> As a Fire-Gift to GOD from the Peace-Offering, present its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, all the fat on and connected to the entrails, <sup>10</sup> the two kidneys and the fat around them on the loins, and the lobe of the liver which is removed along with the kidneys.

<sup>11</sup> The priest will burn it on the Altar: a meal, a Fire-Gift to GOD.

<sup>12</sup> "If the offering is a goat, bring it into the presence of GOD,

<sup>14</sup> As a Fire-Gift to GOD present the fat that covers and is connected to the entrails, <sup>15</sup> the two kidneys and the fat which is around them on the loins, and the lobe of the liver which is removed along with the kidneys.

4 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "Tell the Israelites: When a person sins unintentionally by straying from any of GOD's commands, breaking what must not be broken, <sup>3</sup> if it's the anointed priest who sins and so brings guilt on the people, he is to bring a bull without defect to GOD as an Absolution-Offering for the sin he has committed.

<sup>4</sup> Have him bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting in the presence of GOD, lay his hand on the bull's head, and slaughter the bull before GOD.

<sup>5</sup> He is then to take some of the bull's blood, bring it into the Tent of Meeting, <sup>6</sup> dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of it seven times before GOD, before the curtain of the Sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup> He is to smear some of the blood on the horns of the Altar of Fragrant Incense before GOD which is in the Tent of Meeting. He is to pour the rest of the bull's blood out at the base of the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>8</sup> He is to remove all the fat from the bull of the Absolution-Offering, the fat which covers and is connected to the entrails,

<sup>9</sup> the two kidneys and the fat that is around them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver which he takes out along with the kidneys

<sup>10</sup> --the same procedure as when the fat is removed from the bull of the Peace-Offering. Finally, he is to burn all this on the Altar of Burnt Offering.

<sup>12</sup> he is to take outside the camp to a clean place where the ashes are dumped and is to burn it on a wood fire.

<sup>13</sup> "If the whole congregation sins unintentionally by straying from one of the commandments of GOD that must not be broken, they become guilty even though no one is aware of it.

<sup>14</sup> When they do become aware of the sin they've committed, the congregation must bring a bull as an Absolution-Offering and present it at the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup> The anointed priest will then bring some of the blood into the Tent of Meeting,

<sup>18</sup> He will smear some of the blood on the horns of the Altar which is before GOD in the Tent of Meeting and pour the rest of it at the base of the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>20</sup> He will follow the same procedure with this bull as with the bull for the Absolution-Offering. The priest makes atonement for them and they are forgiven.

<sup>21</sup> They then will take the bull outside the camp and burn it just as they burned the first bull. It's the Absolution-Offering for the congregation.

<sup>22</sup> "When a ruler sins unintentionally by straying from one of the commands of his GOD which must not be broken, he is guilty.

<sup>23</sup> When he becomes aware of the sin he has committed, he must bring a goat for his offering, a male without any defect, <sup>24</sup> lay his hand on the head of the goat, and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the Whole-Burnt-Offering in the presence of GOD--it's an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>26</sup> He will burn all its fat on the Altar, the same as with the fat of the Peace-

Offering. "The priest makes atonement for him on account of his sin and he's forgiven.

<sup>28</sup> When he is made aware of his sin, he shall bring a goat, a female without any defect, and offer it for his sin,

<sup>30</sup> The priest will take some of its blood with his finger, smear it on the horns of the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering, and pour the rest at the base of the Altar.

<sup>31</sup> Finally, he'll take out all the fat, the same as with the Peace-Offerings, and burn it on the Altar for a pleasing fragrance to GOD. "In this way, the priest makes atonement for him and he's forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> "If he brings a lamb for an Absolution-Offering, he shall present a female without any defect, <sup>33</sup> lay his hand on the head of the Absolution-Offering, and slaughter it at the same place they slaughter the Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>34</sup> The priest will take some of the blood of the Absolution-Offering with his finger, smear it on the horns of the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and pour the rest at the base of the Altar.

<sup>35</sup> He shall remove all the fat, the same as for the lamb of the Peace-Offering. Finally the priest will burn it on the Altar on top of the gifts to GOD. "In this way, the priest makes atonement for him on account of his sin and he's forgiven.

5 <sup>1</sup> "If you sin by not stepping up and offering yourself as a witness to something you've heard or seen in cases of wrongdoing, you'll be held responsible.

<sup>2</sup> "Or if you touch anything ritually unclean, like the carcass of an unclean animal, wild or domestic, or a dead reptile, and you weren't aware of it at the time, but you're contaminated and you're guilty;

<sup>3</sup> "Or if you touch human uncleanness, any sort of ritually contaminating uncleanness, and you're not aware of it at the time, but later you realize it and you're guilty;

<sup>4</sup> "Or if you impulsively swear to do something, whether good or bad--some rash oath that just pops out--and you aren't aware of what you've done at the time, but later you come to realize it and you're guilty in any of these cases;

<sup>6</sup> and bring as your penalty to GOD for the sin you have committed, a female lamb or goat from the flock for an Absolution-Offering. "In this way, the priest will make atonement for your sin.

<sup>7</sup> "If you can't afford a lamb, bring as your penalty to GOD for the sin you have committed, two doves or two pigeons, one for the Absolution-Offering and the other for the Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>8</sup> Bring them to the priest who will first offer the one for the Absolution-Offering: He'll wring its neck but not sever it, <sup>9</sup> splash some of the blood of the Absolution-Offering against the Altar, and squeeze the rest of it out at the base. It's an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>10</sup> He'll then take the second bird and offer it as a Whole-Burnt-Offering, following the procedures step-by-step. "In this way, the priest will make atonement for your sin and you're forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> "If you cannot afford the two doves or pigeons, bring two quarts of fine flour for your Absolution-Offering. Don't put oil or incense on it--it's an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>12</sup> Bring it to the priest; he'll take a handful from it as a memorial and burn it on the Altar with the gifts for GOD. It's an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>13</sup> "The priest will make atonement for you and any of these sins you've committed and you're forgiven. The rest of the offering belongs to the priest, the same as with the Grain-Offering."

<sup>14</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>15</sup> "When a person betrays his trust and unknowingly sins by straying against any of the holy things of GOD, he is to bring as his penalty to GOD a ram without any defect from the flock, the value of the ram assessed in shekels, according to the Sanctuary shekel for a Compensation-Offering.

<sup>16</sup> He is to make additional compensation for the sin he has committed against any holy thing by adding twenty percent to the ram and giving it to the priest. "Thus the priest will make atonement for him with the ram of the Compensation-Offering and he's forgiven.

<sup>17</sup> "If anyone sins by breaking any of the commandments of GOD which must not be broken, but without being aware of it at the time, the moment he does realize his guilt he is held responsible.

<sup>18</sup> He is to bring to the priest a ram without any defect, assessed at the value of the Compensation-Offering. "Thus the priest will make atonement for him for his error that he was unaware of and he's forgiven.

<sup>19</sup> It is a Compensation-Offering; he was surely guilty before God."

6 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "When anyone sins by betraying trust with GOD by deceiving his neighbor regarding something entrusted to him, or by robbing or cheating or threatening him;

<sup>3</sup> or if he has found something lost and lies about it and swears falsely regarding any of these sins that people commonly commit--

<sup>4</sup> when he sins and is found guilty, he must return what he stole or extorted, restore what was entrusted to him, return the lost thing he found,

<sup>5</sup> or anything else about which he swore falsely. He must make full compensation, add twenty percent to it, and hand it over to the owner on the same day he brings his Compensation-Offering.

<sup>6</sup> He must present to GOD as his Compensation-Offering a ram without any defect from the flock, assessed at the value of a Compensation-Offering.

<sup>7</sup> "Thus the priest will make atonement for him before GOD and he's forgiven of any of the things that one does that bring guilt."

<sup>8</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>9</sup> "Command Aaron and his sons. Tell them, These are the instructions for the Whole-Burnt-Offering. Leave the Whole-Burnt-Offering on the Altar hearth through the night until morning, with the fire kept burning on the Altar.

<sup>10</sup> Then dress in your linen clothes with linen underwear next to your body. Remove the ashes remaining from the Whole-Burnt-Offering and place them beside the Altar.

<sup>11</sup> Then change clothes and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

<sup>12</sup> Meanwhile keep the fire on the Altar burning; it must not go out. Replenish the wood for the fire every morning, arrange the Whole-Burnt-Offering on it, and burn the fat of the Peace-Offering on top of it all.

<sup>16</sup> Aaron and his sons eat the rest of it. It is unraised bread and so eaten in a holy place--in the Courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>17</sup> They must not bake it with yeast. I have designated it as their share of the gifts presented to me. It is very holy, like the Absolution-Offering and the Compensation-Offering.

<sup>18</sup> Any male descendant among Aaron's sons may eat it. This is a fixed rule regarding GOD's gifts, stretching down the generations. Anyone who touches these offerings must be holy."

<sup>19</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>20</sup> "This is the offering which Aaron and his sons each are to present to GOD on the day he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour as a regular Grain-Offering, half in the morning and half in the evening.

<sup>21</sup> Prepare it with oil on a griddle. Bring it well-mixed and then present it crumbled in pieces as a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>23</sup> Every Grain-Offering of a priest is burned completely; it must not be eaten."

<sup>25</sup> "Tell Aaron and his sons: These are the instructions for the Absolution-Offering. Slaughter the Absolution-Offering in the place where the Whole-Burnt-Offering is slaughtered before GOD--the offering is most holy.

<sup>26</sup> The priest in charge eats it in a holy place, the Courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>29</sup> Any male among the priestly families may eat it; it is most holy.

<sup>30</sup> But any Absolution-Offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Sanctuary must not be eaten, it has to be burned.

7 <sup>1</sup> "These are the instructions for the Compensation-Offering. It is most holy.

<sup>4</sup> the two kidneys and the fat encasing them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver that is removed with the kidneys.

<sup>5</sup> The priest burns them on the Altar as a gift to GOD. It is a Compensation-Offering.

<sup>6</sup> Any male from among the priests' families may eat it. But it must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

<sup>7</sup> "The Compensation-Offering is the same as the Absolution-Offering--the same rules apply to both. The offering belongs to the priest who makes atonement with it.

<sup>12</sup> If you bring it to offer thanksgiving, then along with the Thanksgiving-Offering present unraised loaves of bread mixed with oil, unraised wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour, well-kneaded and mixed with oil.

<sup>13</sup> Along with the Peace-Offering of thanksgiving, present loaves of yeast bread as an offering.

<sup>14</sup> Bring one of each kind as an offering, a Contribution-Offering to GOD; it goes to the priest who throws the blood of the Peace-Offering.

<sup>15</sup> Eat the meat from the Peace-Offering of thanksgiving the same day it is offered. Don't leave any of it overnight.

<sup>16</sup> "If the offering is a Votive-Offering or a Freewill-Offering, it may be eaten the same day it is sacrificed and whatever is left over on the next day may also be eaten.

<sup>17</sup> But any meat from the sacrifice that is left to the third day must be burned up.

person who has brought it will not be accepted. It won't benefit him a bit--it has become defiled meat. And whoever eats it must take responsibility for his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup> Don't eat meat that has touched anything ritually unclean; burn it up. Any other meat can be eaten by those who are ritually clean.

<sup>20</sup> But if you're not ritually clean and eat meat from the Peace-Offering for GOD, you will be excluded from the congregation.

<sup>22</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>23</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them, Don't eat any fat of cattle or sheep or goats.

<sup>29</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them: When you present a Peace-Offering to GOD, bring some of your Peace-Offering as a special sacrifice to GOD, <sup>30</sup> a gift to GOD in your own hands. Bring the fat with the breast and then wave the breast before GOD as a Wave-Offering.

<sup>34</sup> From the Peace-Offerings of Israel, I'm giving the breast of the Wave-Offering and the thigh of the Contribution-Offering to Aaron the priest and his sons. This is their fixed compensation from the People of Israel."

<sup>35</sup> From the day they are presented to serve as priests to GOD, Aaron and his sons can expect to receive these allotments from the gifts of GOD.

<sup>36</sup> This is what GOD commanded the People of Israel to give the priests from the day of their anointing. This is the fixed rule down through the generations.

<sup>37</sup> These are the instructions for the Whole-Burnt-Offering, the Grain-Offering, the Absolution-Offering, the Compensation-Offering, the Ordination-Offering, and the Peace-Offering <sup>38</sup> which GOD gave Moses at Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the People of Israel to present their offerings to GOD in the wilderness of Sinai.

8 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses. He said,

<sup>7</sup> He put the tunic on Aaron and tied it around him with a sash. Then he put the robe on him and placed the Ephod on him. He fastened the Ephod with a woven belt, making it snug.

<sup>8</sup> He put the Breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim in the pouch of the Breastpiece.

everything that was in it, consecrating them.

<sup>12</sup> He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, anointing him and thus consecrating him.

consecrated it so atonement could be made on it.

<sup>20</sup> He cut the ram up into pieces and then burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.

<sup>21</sup> He washed the entrails and the legs with water and then burned the whole ram on the Altar. It was a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a pleasing fragrance--a gift to GOD, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>26</sup> From the basket of unraised bread that was in the presence of GOD he took one loaf of the unraised bread made with oil and one wafer. He placed these on the fat portions and the right thigh.

<sup>27</sup> He put all this in the hands of Aaron and his sons who waved them before GOD as a Wave-Offering.

<sup>28</sup> Then Moses took it all back from their hands and burned them on the Altar on top of the Whole-Burnt-Offering. These were the Ordination-Offerings, a pleasing fragrance to GOD, a gift to GOD.

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses took the breast and raised it up as a Wave-Offering before GOD; it was Moses' portion from the Ordination-Offering ram, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

consecrating Aaron and his garments and his sons and their garments.

<sup>34</sup> GOD commanded what has been done this day in order to make atonement for you.

9 <sup>1</sup> On the eighth day, Moses called in Aaron and his sons and the leaders of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> He spoke to Aaron: "Take a bull-calf for your Absolution-Offering and a ram for your Whole-Burnt-Offering, both without defect, and offer them to GOD.

<sup>3</sup> "Then tell the People of Israel, Take a male goat for an Absolution-Offering and a calf and a lamb, both yearlings without defect, for a Whole-Burnt-Offering

<sup>5</sup> They brought the things that Moses had ordered to the Tent of Meeting. The whole congregation came near and stood before GOD.

<sup>6</sup> Moses said, "This is what GOD commanded you to do so that the Shining Glory of GOD will appear to you."

<sup>7</sup> Moses instructed Aaron, "Approach the Altar and sacrifice your Absolution-Offering and your Whole-Burnt-Offering. Make atonement for yourself and for the people. Sacrifice the offering that is for the people and make atonement for them, just as GOD commanded."

<sup>8</sup> Aaron approached the Altar and slaughtered the calf as an Absolution-Offering for himself.

<sup>10</sup> He burned the fat, the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver from the Absolution-Offering on the Altar, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>13</sup> They handed him the pieces and the head and he burned these on the Altar.

<sup>14</sup> He washed the entrails and the legs and burned them on top of the Whole-Burnt-Offering on the Altar.

<sup>15</sup> Next Aaron presented the offerings of the people. He took the male goat, the Absolution-Offering for the people, slaughtered it, and offered it as an Absolution-Offering just as he did with the first offering.

<sup>18</sup> He slaughtered the bull and the ram, the people's Peace-Offerings. Aaron's sons handed him the blood and he threw it against each side of the Altar.

<sup>22</sup> Aaron lifted his hands over the people and blessed them. Having completed the rituals of the Absolution-Offering, the Whole-Burnt-Offering, and the Peace-Offering, he came down from the Altar.

<sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron entered the Tent of Meeting. When they came out they blessed the people and the Glory of GOD appeared to all the people.

<sup>24</sup> Fire blazed out from GOD and consumed the Whole-Burnt-Offering and the fat pieces on the Altar. When all the people saw it happen they cheered loudly and then fell down, bowing in reverence.

10 <sup>1</sup> That same day Nadab and Abihu, Aaron's sons, took their censers, put hot coals and incense in them, and offered "strange" fire to GOD--something GOD had not commanded.

<sup>2</sup> Fire blazed out from GOD and consumed them--they died in GOD's presence.

<sup>3</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "This is what GOD meant when he said, To the one who comes near me, I will show myself holy; Before all the people, I will show my glory." Aaron was silent.

<sup>6</sup> Moses then said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "No mourning rituals for you--unkempt hair, torn clothes--or you'll also die and GOD will be angry with the whole congregation. Your relatives--all the People of Israel, in fact--will do the mourning over those GOD has destroyed by fire.

GOD's anointing oil is on you." They did just as Moses said.

<sup>10</sup> Distinguish between the holy and the common, between the ritually clean and unclean.

<sup>11</sup> Teach the People of Israel all the decrees that GOD has spoken to them through Moses."

<sup>12</sup> Moses spoke to Aaron and his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the leftovers of the Grain-Offering from the Fire-Gifts for GOD and eat beside the Altar that which has been prepared without yeast, for it is most holy.

<sup>13</sup> Eat it in the Holy Place because it is your portion and the portion of your sons from the Fire-Gifts for GOD. This is what GOD commanded me.

<sup>14</sup> Also, you and your sons and daughters are to eat the breast of the Wave-Offering and the thigh of the Contribution-Offering in a clean place. They are provided as your portion and the portion of your children from the Peace-Offerings presented by the People of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Bring the thigh of the Contribution-Offering and the breast of the Wave-Offering and the fat pieces of the Fire-Gifts and lift them up as a Wave-Offering. This will be the regular share for you and your children as ordered by GOD."

<sup>16</sup> When Moses looked into the matter of the goat of the Absolution-Offering, he found that it had been burned up. He became angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and asked, <sup>17</sup> "Why didn't you eat the Absolution-Offering in the Holy Place since it is most holy? The offering was given to you for taking away the guilt of the community by making atonement for them before GOD.

<sup>18</sup> Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the goat in the Sanctuary as I commanded."

<sup>19</sup> Aaron replied to Moses, "Look. They sacrificed their Absolution-Offering and Whole-Burnt-Offering before GOD today, and you see what has happened to me--I've lost two sons. Do you think GOD would have been pleased if I had gone ahead and eaten the Absolution-Offering today?"

Tell them: Of all the animals on Earth, these are the animals that you may eat:

<sup>3</sup> "You may eat any animal that has a split hoof, divided in two, and that chews the cud, <sup>4</sup> but not an animal that only chews the cud or only has a split hoof. For instance, the camel chews the cud but doesn't have a split hoof, so it's unclean.

<sup>5</sup> The rock badger chews the cud but doesn't have a split hoof and so it's unclean.

<sup>6</sup> The rabbit chews the cud but doesn't have a split hoof so is unclean.

<sup>7</sup> The pig has a split hoof, divided in two, but doesn't chew the cud and so is unclean.

<sup>8</sup> You may not eat their meat nor touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup> "Among the creatures that live in the water of the seas and streams, you may eat any that have fins and scales.

<sup>10</sup> But anything that doesn't have fins and scales, whether in seas or streams, whether small creatures in the shallows or huge creatures in the deeps, you are to detest.

<sup>26</sup> "Every animal that has a split hoof that's not completely divided, or that doesn't chew the cud is unclean for you; if you touch the carcass of any of them you become unclean.

<sup>27</sup> "Every four-footed animal that goes on its paws is unclean for you; if you touch its carcass you are unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup> If you pick up its carcass you must wash your clothes and are unclean until evening. They are unclean for you.

<sup>29</sup> "Among the creatures that crawl on the ground, the following are unclean for you: weasel, rat, all lizards,

<sup>31</sup> Among the crawling creatures, these are unclean for you. If you touch them when they are dead, you are ritually unclean until evening.

<sup>32</sup> When one of them dies and falls on something, that becomes unclean no matter what it's used for, whether it's made of wood, cloth, hide, or sackcloth. Put it in the water--it's unclean until evening, and then it's clean.

<sup>33</sup> If one of these dead creatures falls into a clay pot, everything in the pot is unclean and you must break the pot.

<sup>34</sup> Any food that could be eaten but has water on it from such a pot is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean.

<sup>36</sup> A spring, though, or a cistern for collecting water remains clean, but if you touch one of these carcasses you're ritually unclean.

<sup>38</sup> But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, you must treat it as unclean.

<sup>39</sup> "If an animal that you are permitted to eat dies, anyone who touches the carcass is ritually unclean until evening.

<sup>40</sup> If you eat some of the carcass you must wash your clothes and you are unclean until evening. If you pick up the carcass you must wash your clothes and are unclean until evening.

<sup>41</sup> "Creatures that crawl on the ground are detestable and not to be eaten.

<sup>43</sup> Don't make yourselves unclean or be defiled by them, because I am your GOD.

<sup>44</sup> "Make yourselves holy for I am holy. Don't make yourselves ritually unclean by any creature that crawls on the ground.

<sup>45</sup> I am GOD who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Be holy because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup> "These are the instructions on animals, birds, fish, and creatures that crawl on the ground.

<sup>47</sup> You have to distinguish between the ritually unclean and the clean, between living creatures that can be eaten and those that cannot be eaten."

12 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Tell the People of Israel: A woman who conceives and gives birth to a boy is ritually unclean for seven days, the same as during her menstruation.

<sup>4</sup> The mother must stay home another thirty-three days for purification from her bleeding. She may not touch anything consecrated or enter the Sanctuary until the days of her purification are complete.

<sup>5</sup> If she gives birth to a girl, she is unclean for fourteen days, the same as during her menstruation. She must stay home for sixty-six days for purification from her bleeding.

<sup>6</sup> "When the days for her purification for either a boy or a girl are complete, she will bring a yearling lamb for a Whole-Burnt-Offering and a pigeon or dove for an Absolution-Offering to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>7</sup> He will offer it to GOD and make atonement for her. She is then clean from her flow of blood. "These are the instructions for a woman who gives birth to either a boy or a girl.

<sup>8</sup> "If she can't afford a lamb, she can bring two doves or two pigeons, one for the Whole-Burnt-Offering and one for the Absolution-Offering. The priest will make atonement for her and she will be clean."

13 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup> "When someone has a swelling or a blister or a shiny spot on the skin that might signal a serious skin disease on the body, bring him to Aaron the priest or to one of his priest sons.

<sup>3</sup> The priest will examine the sore on the skin. If the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears more than skin deep, it is a serious skin disease and infectious. After the priest has examined it, he will pronounce the person unclean.

<sup>4</sup> "If the shiny spot on the skin is white but appears to be only on the surface and the hair has not turned white, the priest will quarantine the person for seven days.

<sup>5</sup> On the seventh day the priest will examine it again; if, in his judgment, the sore is the same and has not spread, the priest will keep him in quarantine for another seven days.

<sup>6</sup> On the seventh day the priest will examine him a second time; if the sore has faded and hasn't spread, the priest will declare him clean--it is a harmless rash. The person can go home and wash his clothes; he is clean.

<sup>7</sup> But if the sore spreads after he has shown himself to the priest and been declared clean, he must come back again to the priest

<sup>8</sup> who will conduct another examination. If the sore has spread, the priest will pronounce him unclean--it is a serious skin disease and infectious.

<sup>9</sup> "Whenever someone has a serious and infectious skin disease, you must bring him to the priest.

<sup>10</sup> The priest will examine him; if there is a white swelling in the skin, the hair is turning white, and there is an open sore in the swelling, <sup>11</sup> it is a chronic skin disease. The priest will pronounce him unclean. But he doesn't need to quarantine him because he's already given his diagnosis of unclean.

<sup>12</sup> If a serious disease breaks out that covers all the skin from head to foot, wherever the priest looks, <sup>13</sup> the priest will make a thorough examination; if the disease covers his entire body, he will pronounce the person with the sore clean--since it has turned all white, he is clean.

<sup>14</sup> But if they are open, running sores, he is unclean.

<sup>15</sup> The priest will examine the open sores and pronounce him unclean. The open sores are unclean; they are evidence of a serious skin disease.

<sup>16</sup> But if the open sores dry up and turn white, he is to come back to the priest

<sup>17</sup> who will reexamine him; if the sores have turned white, the priest will pronounce the person with the sores clean. He is clean.

<sup>18</sup> "When a person has a boil and it heals

<sup>19</sup> and in place of the boil there is white swelling or a reddish-white shiny spot, the person must present himself to the priest

<sup>20</sup> for an examination. If it looks like it has penetrated the skin and the hair in it has turned white, the priest will pronounce him unclean. It is a serious skin disease that has broken out in the boil.

<sup>21</sup> But if the examination shows that there is no white hair in it and it is only skin deep and has faded, the priest will put him in quarantine for seven days.

<sup>22</sup> If it then spreads over the skin, the priest will diagnose him as unclean. It is infectious.

<sup>23</sup> But if the shiny spot has not changed and hasn't spread, it's only a scar from the boil. The priest will pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup> "When a person has a burn on his skin and the raw flesh turns into a reddish-white or white shiny spot, <sup>25</sup> the priest is to examine it. If the hair has turned white in the shiny spot and it looks like it's more than skin deep, a serious skin disease has erupted in the area of the burn. The priest will pronounce him unclean; it is a serious skin disease and infectious.

<sup>26</sup> But if on examination there is no white hair in the shiny spot and it doesn't look to be more than skin deep but has faded, the priest will put him in quarantine for seven days.

<sup>27</sup> On the seventh day the priest will reexamine him. If by then it has spread over the skin, the priest will diagnose him as unclean; it is a serious skin disease and infectious.

<sup>28</sup> If by that time the shiny spot has stayed the same and has not spread but has faded, it is only a swelling from the burn. The priest will pronounce him clean; it's only a scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup> "If a man or woman develops a sore on the head or chin, <sup>30</sup> the priest will offer a diagnosis. If it looks as if it is under the skin and the hair in it is yellow and thin, he will pronounce the person ritually unclean. It is an itch, an infectious skin disease.

<sup>31</sup> But if when he examines the itch, he finds it is only skin deep and there is no black hair in it, he will put the person in quarantine for seven days.

<sup>32</sup> On the seventh day he will reexamine the sore; if the itch has not spread, there is no yellow hair in it, and it looks as if the itch is only skin deep,

<sup>33</sup> the person must shave, except for the itch; the priest will send him back to quarantine for another seven days.

<sup>34</sup> If the itch has not spread, and looks to be only skin deep, the priest will pronounce him clean. The person can go home and wash his clothes; he is clean.

<sup>35</sup> But if the itch spreads after being pronounced clean, <sup>36</sup> the priest must reexamine it; if the itch has spread in the skin, he doesn't have to look any farther, for yellow hair, for instance; he is unclean.

<sup>37</sup> But if he sees that the itch is unchanged and black hair has begun to grow in it, the itch is healed. The person is clean and the priest will pronounce him clean.

<sup>38</sup> "When a man or woman gets shiny or white shiny spots on the skin,

<sup>42</sup> But if he has a reddish-white sore on scalp or forehead, it means a serious skin disease is breaking out.

<sup>46</sup> As long as anyone has the sores, that one continues to be ritually unclean. That person must live alone; he or she must live outside the camp.

<sup>47</sup> "If clothing--woolen or linen clothing,
<sup>48</sup> woven or knitted cloth of linen or wool, leather or leatherwork--is infected with a patch of serious fungus

<sup>49</sup> and if the spot in the clothing or the leather or the woven or the knitted material or anything made of leather is greenish or rusty, that is a sign of serious fungus. Show it to the priest.

<sup>50</sup> The priest will examine the spot and then confiscate the material for seven days.

<sup>51</sup> On the seventh day he will reexamine the spot. If it has spread in the garment--the woven or knitted or leather material--it is the spot of a persistent serious fungus and the material is unclean.

<sup>52</sup> He must burn the garment. Because of the persistent and contaminating fungus, the material must be burned.

<sup>53</sup> But if when the priest examines it the spot has not spread in the garment, <sup>54</sup> the priest will command the owner to wash the material that has the spot, and he will confiscate it for another seven days.

<sup>55</sup> He'll then make another examination after it has been washed; if the spot hasn't changed in appearance, even though it hasn't spread, it is still unclean. Burn it up, whether the fungus has affected the back or the front.

<sup>56</sup> If, when the priest makes his examination, the spot has faded after it has been washed, he is to tear the spot from the garment.

<sup>57</sup> But if it reappears, it is a fresh outbreak--throw whatever has the spot in the fire.

<sup>58</sup> If the garment is washed and the spot has gone away, then wash it a second time; it is clean.

<sup>59</sup> "These are the instructions regarding a spot of serious fungus in clothing of wool or linen, woven or knitted material, or any article of leather, for pronouncing them clean or unclean."

14 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "These are the instructions for the infected person at the time of his cleansing. First, bring him to the priest.

<sup>3</sup> The priest will take him outside the camp and make an examination; if the infected person has been healed of the serious skin disease,

<sup>4</sup> the priest will order two live, clean birds, some cedar wood, scarlet thread, and hyssop to be brought for the one to be cleansed.

<sup>5</sup> The priest will order him to kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

<sup>6</sup> The priest will then take the live bird with the cedar wood, the scarlet thread, and the hyssop and dip them in the blood of the dead bird over fresh water

<sup>7</sup> and then sprinkle the person being cleansed from the serious skin disease seven times and pronounce him clean. Finally, he will release the live bird in the open field.

<sup>8</sup> The cleansed person, after washing his clothes, shaving off all his hair, and bathing with water, is clean. Afterwards he may again enter the camp, but he has to live outside his tent for seven days.

<sup>9</sup> On the seventh day, he must shave off all his hair--from his head, beard, eyebrows, all of it. He then must wash his clothes and bathe all over with water. He will be clean.

<sup>10</sup> "The next day, the eighth day, he will bring two lambs without defect and a yearling ewe without defect, along with roughly six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil.

<sup>11</sup> The priest who pronounces him clean will place him and the materials for his offerings in the presence of GOD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>12</sup> The priest will take one of the lambs and present it and the pint of oil as a Compensation-Offering and lift them up as a Wave-Offering before GOD.

<sup>13</sup> He will slaughter the lamb in the place where the Absolution-Offering and the Whole-Burnt-Offering are slaughtered, in the Holy Place, because like the Absolution-Offering, the Compensation-Offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

<sup>19</sup> "Finally the priest will sacrifice the Absolution-Offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness, slaughter the Whole-Burnt-Offering <sup>20</sup> and offer it with the Grain-Offering on the Altar. He has made atonement for him. He is clean.

<sup>21</sup> "If he is poor and cannot afford these offerings, he will bring one male lamb as a Compensation-Offering to be offered as a Wave-Offering to make atonement for him, and with it a couple of quarts of fine flour mixed with oil for a Grain-Offering, a pint of oil, <sup>22</sup> and two doves or pigeons which he can afford, one for an Absolution-Offering and the other for a Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>23</sup> "On the eighth day he will bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the presence of GOD.

<sup>24</sup> The priest will take the lamb for the Compensation-Offering together with the pint of oil and wave them before GOD as a Wave-Offering.

<sup>30</sup> "At the last, he will sacrifice the doves or pigeons which are within his means,

<sup>31</sup> one as an Absolution-Offering and the other as a Whole-Burnt-Offering along with the Grain-Offering. Following this procedure the priest will make atonement for the one to be cleansed before GOD."

<sup>32</sup> These are the instructions to be followed for anyone who has a serious skin disease and cannot afford the regular offerings for his cleansing.

<sup>34</sup> "When you enter the land of Canaan, which I'm giving to you as a possession, and I put a serious fungus in a house in the land of your possession,

<sup>35</sup> the householder is to go and tell the priest, 'I have some kind of fungus in my house.'

<sup>36</sup> The priest is to order the house vacated until he can come to examine the fungus, so that nothing in the house is declared unclean.

<sup>37</sup> When the priest comes and examines the house, if the fungus on the walls of the house has greenish or rusty swelling that appears to go deeper than the surface of the wall,

<sup>39</sup> On the seventh day he is to come back and conduct another examination; if the fungus has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup> he is to order that the stones affected by the fungus be torn out and thrown in a garbage dump outside the city.

<sup>41</sup> He is to make sure the entire inside of the house is scraped and the plaster that is removed be taken away to the garbage dump outside the city.

<sup>42</sup> Then he is to replace the stones and replaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> "If the fungus breaks out again in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house has been scraped and plastered, <sup>44</sup> the priest is to come and conduct an examination; if the fungus has spread, it is a malignant fungus. The house is unclean.

<sup>45</sup> The house has to be demolished--its stones, wood, and plaster are to be removed to the garbage dump outside the city.

<sup>46</sup> Anyone who enters the house while it is closed up is unclean until evening.

<sup>48</sup> "But if when the priest comes and conducts his examination, he finds that the fungus has not spread after the house has been replastered, the priest is to declare that the house is clean; the fungus is cured.

<sup>49</sup> He then is to purify the house by taking two birds, some cedar wood, scarlet thread, and hyssop.

<sup>51</sup> Then he will take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet thread, and the living bird, dip them in the blood of the killed bird and the fresh water and sprinkle the house seven times, <sup>52</sup> cleansing the house with the blood of the bird, the fresh water, the living bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet thread.

<sup>53</sup> Last of all, he will let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field.

He has made atonement for the house;
the house is clean.

<sup>54</sup> "These are the procedures to be followed for every kind of serious skin disease or itch,

<sup>55</sup> for mildew or fungus on clothing or in a house,

<sup>56</sup> and for a swelling or blister or shiny spot

15 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron,
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them: When a man has a discharge from his genitals, the discharge is unclean.

<sup>3</sup> Whether it comes from a seepage or an obstruction he is unclean. He is unclean all the days his body has a seepage or an obstruction.

<sup>4</sup> "Every bed on which he lies is ritually unclean, everything on which he sits is unclean.

<sup>7</sup> If someone touches his bed or sits on anything he's sat on, or touches the man with the discharge, he has to wash his clothes and bathe in water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup> "If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person has to wash his clothes and bathe in water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever touches anything that has been under him becomes unclean until evening. Anyone who carries such an object must wash his clothes and bathe with water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>11</sup> If the one with the discharge touches someone without first rinsing his hands with water, the one touched must wash his clothes and bathe with water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>12</sup> "If a pottery container is touched by someone with a discharge, you must break it; a wooden article is to be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup> "When a person with a discharge is cleansed from it, he is to count off seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe in running water. Then he is clean.

<sup>14</sup> On the eighth day he is to take two doves or two pigeons and come before GOD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

<sup>15</sup> The priest then offers one as an Absolution-Offering and one as a Whole-Burnt-Offering and makes atonement for him in the presence of GOD because of his discharge.

<sup>16</sup> "When a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his entire body in water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>17</sup> Every piece of clothing and everything made of leather which gets semen on it must be washed with water; it remains unclean until evening.

<sup>18</sup> When a man sleeps with a woman and has an emission of semen, both are to wash in water; they remain unclean until evening.

<sup>25</sup> "If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, but not at the time of her monthly period, or has a discharge that continues beyond the time of her period, she is unclean the same as during the time of her period.

<sup>27</sup> Anyone who touches these things becomes unclean and must wash his clothes and bathe in water; he remains unclean until evening.

<sup>28</sup> "When she is cleansed from her discharge, she is to count off seven days; then she is clean.

<sup>29</sup> On the eighth day she is to take two doves and two pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>30</sup> The priest will offer one for an Absolution-Offering and the other for a Whole-Burnt-Offering. The priest will make atonement for her in the presence of GOD because of the discharge that made her unclean.

<sup>31</sup> "You are responsible for keeping the People of Israel separate from that which makes them ritually unclean, lest they die in their unclean condition by defiling my Dwelling which is among them.

<sup>32</sup> "These are the procedures to follow for a man with a discharge or an emission of semen that makes him unclean,

<sup>33</sup> and for a woman in her menstrual period--any man or woman with a discharge and also for a man who sleeps with a woman who is unclean."

16 <sup>1</sup> After the death of Aaron's two sons--they died when they came before GOD with strange fire--GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> "Tell your brother Aaron not to enter into the Holy of Holies, barging inside the curtain that's before the Atonement-Cover on the Chest whenever he feels like it, lest he die, because I am present in the Cloud over the Atonement-Cover.

<sup>3</sup> "This is the procedure for Aaron when he enters the Holy Place: He will bring a young bull for an Absolution-Offering and a ram for a Whole-Burnt-Offering;

<sup>4</sup> he will put on the holy linen tunic and the linen underwear, tie the linen sash around him, and put on the linen turban. These are the sacred vestments so he must bathe himself with water before he puts them on.

<sup>5</sup> Then from the Israelite community he will bring two male goats for an Absolution-Offering and a Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>6</sup> "Aaron will offer the bull for his own Absolution-Offering in order to make atonement for himself and his household.

<sup>7</sup> Then he will set the two goats before GOD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting

<sup>8</sup> and cast lots over the two goats, one lot for GOD and the other lot for Azazel.

<sup>9</sup> He will offer the goat on which the lot to GOD falls as an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>10</sup> The goat on which the lot for Azazel falls will be sent out into the wilderness to Azazel to make atonement.

<sup>11</sup> "Aaron will present his bull for an Absolution-Offering to make atonement for himself and his household. He will slaughter his bull for the Absolution-Offering.

<sup>12</sup> He will take a censer full of burning coals from the Altar before GOD and two handfuls of finely ground aromatic incense and bring them inside the curtain and

<sup>14</sup> He will take some of the bull's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the Atonement-Cover, then sprinkle the blood before the Atonement-Cover seven times.

<sup>15</sup> "Next he will slaughter the goat designated as the Absolution-Offering for the people and bring the blood inside the curtain. He will repeat what he does with the bull's blood, sprinkling it on and before the Atonement-Cover.

<sup>16</sup> In this way he will make atonement for the Holy of Holies because of the uncleannesses of the Israelites, their acts of rebellion, and all their other sins. He will do the same thing for the Tent of Meeting which dwells among the people in the midst of their uncleanness.

<sup>17</sup> There is to be no one in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Holy of Holies until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household, and the whole community of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> "Then he will come out to the Altar that is before GOD and make atonement for it. He will take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and smear it all around the four horns of the Altar.

<sup>19</sup> With his finger he will sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times to purify and consecrate it from the uncleannesses of the Israelites.

<sup>20</sup> "When Aaron finishes making atonement for the Holy of Holies, the Tent of Meeting, and the Altar, he will bring up the live goat, <sup>21</sup> lay both hands on the live goat's head, and confess all the iniquities of the People of Israel, all their acts of rebellion, all their sins. He will put all the sins on the goat's head and send it off into the wilderness, led out by a man standing by and ready.

<sup>22</sup> The goat will carry all their iniquities to an empty wasteland; the man will let him loose out there in the wilderness.

<sup>23</sup> "Finally, Aaron will come into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen clothes in which he dressed to enter the Holy of Holies and leave them there.

<sup>24</sup> He will bathe in water in a Holy Place, put on his priestly vestments, offer the Whole-Burnt-Offering for himself and the Whole-Burnt-Offering for the people, making atonement for himself and the people,

<sup>26</sup> "The man who takes the goat out to Azazel in the wilderness then will wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. After that he will be permitted to come back into the camp.

<sup>27</sup> The bull for the Absolution-Offering and the goat for the Absolution-Offering, whose blood has been taken into the Holy of Holies to make atonement, are to be taken outside the camp and burned--their hides, their meat, and their entrails.

<sup>28</sup> The man assigned to burn them up will then wash his clothes and bathe himself in water. Then he is free to come back into the camp.

<sup>29</sup> "This is standard practice for you, a perpetual ordinance. On the tenth day of the seventh month, both the citizen and the foreigner living with you are to enter into a solemn fast and refrain from all work, <sup>30</sup> because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. In the presence of GOD you will be made clean of all your sins.

<sup>31</sup> It is a Sabbath of all Sabbaths. You must fast. It is a perpetual ordinance.

<sup>32</sup> "The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father is to make the atonement: He puts on the sacred linen garments;

<sup>33</sup> He purges the Holy of Holies by making atonement; He purges the Tent of Meeting and the Altar by making atonement; He makes atonement for the priests and all the congregation.

<sup>34</sup> "This is a perpetual ordinance for you: Once a year atonement is to be made for all the sins of the People of Israel." And Aaron did it, just as GOD commanded Moses.

17 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites. Tell them, This is what GOD commands:

<sup>3</sup> Any and every man who slaughters an ox or lamb or goat inside or outside the camp

<sup>4</sup> instead of bringing it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to offer it to GOD in front of The Dwelling of GOD--that man is considered guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood and must be cut off from his people.

<sup>5</sup> This is so the Israelites will bring to GOD the sacrifices that they're in the habit of sacrificing out in the open fields. They must bring them to GOD and the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and sacrifice them as Peace-Offerings to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> The priest will splash the blood on the Altar of GOD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> They must no longer offer their sacrifices to goat-demons--a kind of religious orgy. This is a perpetual decree down through the generations.

<sup>8</sup> "Tell them: Any Israelite or foreigner living among them who offers a Whole-Burnt-Offering or Peace-Offering <sup>9</sup> but doesn't bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to GOD, that person must be cut off from his people.

<sup>10</sup> "If any Israelite or foreigner living among them eats blood, I will disown that person and cut him off from his people, <sup>11</sup> for the life of an animal is in the blood. I have provided the blood for you to make atonement for your lives on the Altar; it is the blood, the life, that makes atonement.

<sup>13</sup> "Any and every Israelite--this also goes for the foreigners--who hunts down an animal or bird that is edible, must bleed it and cover the blood with dirt,

<sup>15</sup> "Anyone, whether native or foreigner, who eats from an animal that is found dead or mauled must wash his clothes and bathe in water; he remains unclean until evening and is then clean.

<sup>16</sup> If he doesn't wash or bathe his body, he'll be held responsible for his actions."

18 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them: I am GOD, your God.

<sup>3</sup> Don't live like the people of Egypt where you used to live, and don't live like the people of Canaan where I'm bringing you. Don't do what they do.

<sup>4</sup> Obey my laws and live by my decrees. I am your GOD.

<sup>5</sup> Keep my decrees and laws: The person who obeys them lives by them. I am GOD.

8 "Don't have sex with your father's wife. That violates your father.

9 "Don't have sex with your sister, whether she's your father's daughter or your mother's, whether she was born in the same house or elsewhere.

10 "Don't have sex with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter. That would violate your own body.

11 "Don't have sex with the daughter of your father's wife born to your father. She is your sister.

12 "Don't have sex with your father's sister; she is your aunt, closely related to your father.

13 "Don't have sex with your mother's sister; she is your aunt, closely related to your mother.

14 "Don't violate your father's brother, your uncle, by having sex with his wife. She is your aunt.

15 "Don't have sex with your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; don't have sex with her.

16 "Don't have sex with your brother's wife; that would violate your brother.

17 "Don't have sex with both a woman and her daughter. And don't have sex with her granddaughters either. They are her close relatives. That is wicked.

18 "Don't marry your wife's sister as a rival wife and have sex with her while your wife is living.

19 "Don't have sex with a woman during the time of her menstrual period when she is unclean.

20 "Don't have sex with your neighbor's wife and violate yourself by her.

21 "Don't give any of your children to be burned in sacrifice to the god Molech--an act of sheer blasphemy of your God. I am GOD.

<sup>22</sup> "Don't have sex with a man as one does with a woman. That is abhorrent.

<sup>23</sup> "Don't have sex with an animal and violate yourself by it. "A woman must not have sex with an animal. That is perverse.

<sup>24</sup> "Don't pollute yourself in any of these ways. This is how the nations became polluted, the ones that I am going to drive out of the land before you.

<sup>26</sup> You must keep my decrees and laws--natives and foreigners both. You must not do any of these abhorrent things.

<sup>27</sup> The people who lived in this land before you arrived did all these things and polluted the land.

<sup>28</sup> And if you pollute it, the land will vomit you up just as it vomited up the nations that preceded you.

<sup>29</sup> "Those who do any of these abhorrent things will be cut off from their people.

<sup>30</sup> Keep to what I tell you; don't engage in any of the abhorrent acts that were practiced before you came. Don't pollute yourselves with them. I am GOD, your God."

19 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the congregation of Israel. Tell them: Be holy because I, GOD, your God, am holy.

<sup>3</sup> "Every one of you must respect his mother and father. "Keep my Sabbaths. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>4</sup> "Don't take up with no-god idols. Don't make gods of cast metal. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>5</sup> "When you sacrifice a Peace-Offering to GOD, do it as you've been taught so it is acceptable.

<sup>6</sup> Eat it on the day you sacrifice it and the day following. Whatever is left until the third day is to be burned up.

<sup>8</sup> Whoever eats it will be held responsible because he has violated what is holy to GOD. That person will be cut off from his people.

<sup>9</sup> "When you harvest your land, don't harvest right up to the edges of your field or gather the gleanings from the harvest.

<sup>10</sup> Don't strip your vineyard bare or go back and pick up the fallen grapes. Leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am GOD, your God.

12 "Don't swear falsely using my name, violating the name of your God. I am GOD.

13 "Don't exploit your friend or rob him. "Don't hold back the wages of a hired hand overnight.

14 "Don't curse the deaf; don't put a stumbling block in front of the blind; fear your God. I am GOD.

15 "Don't pervert justice. Don't show favoritism to either the poor or the great. Judge on the basis of what is right.

16 "Don't spread gossip and rumors. "Don't just stand by when your neighbor's life is in danger. I am GOD.

17 "Don't secretly hate your neighbor. If you have something against him, get it out into the open; otherwise you are an accomplice in his guilt.

18 "Don't seek revenge or carry a grudge against any of your people. "Love your neighbor as yourself. I am GOD.

<sup>19</sup> "Keep my decrees. "Don't mate two different kinds of animals. "Don't plant your fields with two kinds of seed. "Don't wear clothes woven of two kinds of material.

<sup>20</sup> "If a man has sex with a slave girl who is engaged to another man but has not yet been ransomed or given her freedom, there must be an investigation. But they aren't to be put to death because she wasn't free.

<sup>21</sup> The man must bring a Compensation-Offering to GOD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, a ram of compensation.

<sup>22</sup> The priest will perform the ritual of atonement for him before GOD with the ram of compensation for the sin he has committed. Then he will stand forgiven of the sin he committed.

<sup>23</sup> "When you enter the land and plant any kind of fruit tree, don't eat the fruit for three years; consider it inedible.

<sup>26</sup> "Don't eat meat with blood in it.

"Don't practice divination or sorcery.

<sup>27</sup> "Don't cut the hair on the sides of your head or trim your beard.

<sup>29</sup> "Don't violate your daughter by making her a whore--the whole country would soon become a brothel, filled with sordid sex.

<sup>30</sup> "Keep my Sabbaths and revere my Sanctuary: I am GOD.

<sup>31</sup> "Don't dabble in the occult or traffic with mediums; you'll pollute your souls. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>32</sup> "Show respect to the aged; honor the presence of an elder; fear your God. I am GOD.

<sup>33</sup> "When a foreigner lives with you in your land, don't take advantage of him.

<sup>34</sup> Treat the foreigner the same as a native. Love him like one of your own. Remember that you were once foreigners in Egypt. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>36</sup> Use honest scales and weights and measures. I am GOD, your God. I brought you out of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup> "Keep all my decrees and all my laws. Yes, do them. I am GOD."

20 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> "Tell the Israelites, Each and every Israelite and foreigner in Israel who gives his child to the god Molech must be put to death. The community must kill him by stoning.

<sup>3</sup> I will resolutely reject that man and cut him off from his people. By giving his child to the god Molech he has polluted my Sanctuary and desecrated my holy name.

<sup>4</sup> If the people of the land look the other way as if nothing had happened when that man gives his child to the god Molech and fail to kill him, <sup>5</sup> I will resolutely reject that man and his family, and him and all who join him in prostituting themselves in the rituals of the god Molech I will cut off from their people.

<sup>6</sup> "I will resolutely reject persons who dabble in the occult or traffic with mediums, prostituting themselves in their practices. I will cut them off from their people.

<sup>7</sup> "Set yourselves apart for a holy life. Live a holy life, because I am GOD, your God.

<sup>8</sup> Do what I tell you; live the way I tell you. I am the GOD who makes you holy.

<sup>9</sup> "Any and every person who curses his father or mother must be put to death. By cursing his father or mother he is responsible for his own death.

<sup>10</sup> "If a man commits adultery with another man's wife--the wife, say, of his neighbor--both the man and the woman, the adulterer and adulteress, must be put to death.

<sup>11</sup> "If a man has sex with his father's wife, he has violated his father. Both the man and woman must be put to death; they are responsible for their own deaths.

<sup>12</sup> "If a man has sex with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. What they have done is perverse. And they are responsible for their own deaths.

<sup>13</sup> "If a man has sex with a man as one does with a woman, both of them have done what is abhorrent. They must be put to death; they are responsible for their own deaths.

<sup>14</sup> "If a man marries both a woman and her mother, that's wicked. All three of them must be burned at the stake, purging the wickedness from the community.

<sup>15</sup> "If a man has sex with an animal, he must be put to death and you must kill the animal.

<sup>16</sup> "If a woman has sex with an animal, you must kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. And they are responsible for their deaths.

<sup>17</sup> "If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or mother, and they have sex, that's a disgrace. They must be publicly cut off from their people. He has violated his sister and will be held responsible.

18 "If a man sleeps with a woman during her period and has sex with her, he has uncovered her 'fountain' and she has revealed her 'fountain'--both of them must be cut off from their people.

19 "Don't have sex with your aunt on either your mother's or father's side. That violates a close relative. Both of you are held responsible.

20 "If a man has sex with his aunt, he has dishonored his uncle. They will be held responsible and die childless.

21 "If a man marries his brother's wife, it's a defilement. He has shamed his brother. They will be childless.

22 "Do what I tell you, all my decrees and laws; live by them so that the land where I'm bringing you won't vomit you out.

<sup>23</sup> You simply must not live like the nations I'm driving out before you. They did all these things and I hated every minute of it.

<sup>24</sup> "I've told you, remember, that you will possess their land that I'm giving to you as an inheritance, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am GOD, your God, who has distinguished you from the nations.

<sup>25</sup> So live like it: Distinguish between ritually clean and unclean animals and birds. Don't pollute yourselves with any animal or bird or crawling thing which I have marked out as unclean for you.

<sup>26</sup> Live holy lives before me because I, GOD, am holy. I have distinguished you from the nations to be my very own.

<sup>27</sup> "A man or woman who is a medium or sorcerer among you must be put to death. You must kill them by stoning.

They're responsible for their own deaths."

21 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses: "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron. Tell them, A priest must not ritually contaminate himself by touching the dead,
<sup>3</sup> or an unmarried sister who is dependent on him since she has no husband; for these he may make himself ritually unclean, <sup>4</sup> but he must not contaminate himself with the dead who are only related to him by marriage and thus profane himself.
<sup>6</sup> They must be holy to their God and must not profane the name of their God. Because their job is to present the gifts of GOD, the food of their God, they are to be holy.

<sup>7</sup> "Because a priest is holy to his God he must not marry a woman who has been a harlot or a cult prostitute or a divorced woman.

<sup>8</sup> Make sure he is holy because he serves the food of your God. Treat him as holy because I, GOD, who make you holy, am holy.

<sup>9</sup> "If a priest's daughter defiles herself in prostitution, she disgraces her father. She must be burned at the stake.

<sup>10</sup> "The high priest, the one among his brothers who has received the anointing oil poured on his head and been ordained to wear the priestly vestments, must not let his hair go wild and tangled nor wear ragged and torn clothes.

<sup>11</sup> He must not enter a room where there is a dead body. He must not ritually contaminate himself, even for his father or mother;

<sup>12</sup> and he must neither abandon nor desecrate the Sanctuary of his God because of the dedication of the anointing oil which is upon him. I am GOD.

<sup>15</sup> He must not defile his descendants among his people because I am GOD who makes him holy."

<sup>16</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>17</sup> "Tell Aaron, None of your descendants, in any generation to come, who has a defect of any kind may present as an offering the food of his God.

<sup>18</sup> That means anyone who is blind or lame, disfigured or deformed,

<sup>20</sup> hunchbacked or dwarfed, who has anything wrong with his eyes, who has running sores or damaged testicles.

<sup>21</sup> No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect is to offer gifts to GOD; he has a defect and so must not offer the food of his God.

<sup>22</sup> He may eat the food of his God, both the most holy and the holy,

<sup>23</sup> but because of his defect he must not go near the curtain or approach the Altar. It would desecrate my Sanctuary. I am GOD who makes them holy."

<sup>24</sup> Moses delivered this message to Aaron, his sons, and to all the People of Israel.

22 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,
<sup>2</sup> "Tell Aaron and his sons to treat the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate to me with reverence so they won't desecrate my holy name. I am GOD.

<sup>3</sup> "Tell them, From now on, if any of your descendants approaches in a state of ritual uncleanness the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate to GOD, he will be cut off from my presence. I am GOD.

<sup>4</sup> "Each and every one of Aaron's descendants who has an infectious skin disease or a discharge may not eat any of the holy offerings until he is clean. Also, if he touches anything defiled by a corpse, or has an emission of semen,

<sup>5</sup> or is contaminated by touching a crawling creature, or touches a person who is contaminated for whatever reason

<sup>6</sup> --a person who touches any such thing will be ritually unclean until evening and may not eat any of the holy offerings unless he has washed well with water.

<sup>7</sup> After the sun goes down he is clean and may go ahead and eat the holy offerings; they are his food.

<sup>8</sup> But he must not contaminate himself by eating anything found dead or torn by wild animals. I am GOD.

<sup>9</sup> "The priests must observe my instructions lest they become guilty and die by treating the offerings with irreverence. I am GOD who makes them holy.

<sup>10</sup> "No layperson may eat anything set apart as holy. Nor may a priest's guest or his hired hand eat anything holy.

<sup>11</sup> But if a priest buys a slave, the slave may eat of it; also the slaves born in his house may eat his food.

<sup>12</sup> If a priest's daughter marries a layperson, she may no longer eat from the holy contributions.

children and returns to her father's household as before, she may eat of her father's food. But no layperson may eat of it.

<sup>14</sup> "If anyone eats from a holy offering accidentally, he must give back the holy offering to the priest and add twenty percent to it.

<sup>15</sup> "The priests must not treat with irreverence the holy offerings of the Israelites that they contribute to GOD

<sup>16</sup> lest they desecrate themselves and make themselves guilty when they eat the holy offerings. I am GOD who makes them holy."

<sup>17</sup> GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>18</sup> "Tell Aaron and his sons and all the People of Israel, Each and every one of you, whether native born or foreigner, who presents a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD to fulfill a vow or as a Freewill-Offering, <sup>19</sup> must make sure that it is a male without defect from cattle, sheep, or goats for it to be acceptable.

<sup>20</sup> Don't try slipping in some creature that has a defect--it won't be accepted.

<sup>21</sup> Whenever anyone brings an offering from cattle or sheep as a Peace-Offering to GOD to fulfill a vow or as a Freewill-Offering, it has to be perfect, without defect, to be acceptable.

<sup>22</sup> Don't try giving GOD an animal that is blind, crippled, mutilated, an animal with running sores, a rash, or mange. Don't place any of these on the Altar as a gift to GOD.

<sup>23</sup> You may, though, offer an ox or sheep that is deformed or stunted as a Freewill-Offering, but it is not acceptable in fulfilling a vow.

<sup>25</sup> but don't accept them from foreigners and present them as food for your GOD either. Because of deformities and defects they will not be acceptable."

<sup>26</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>27</sup> "When a calf or lamb or goat is born, it is to stay with its mother for seven days. After the eighth day, it is acceptable as an offering, a gift to GOD.

<sup>28</sup> Don't slaughter both a cow or ewe and its young on the same day.

<sup>29</sup> When you sacrifice a Thanksgiving-Offering to GOD, do it right so it will be acceptable.

<sup>30</sup> Eat it on the same day; don't leave any leftovers until morning. I am GOD.

<sup>31</sup> "Do what I tell you; live what I tell you. I am GOD.

<sup>32</sup> "Don't desecrate my holy name. I insist on being treated with holy reverence among the People of Israel. I am GOD who makes you holy <sup>33</sup> and brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am GOD."

23 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Tell the People of Israel, These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of GOD which you are to decree as sacred assemblies.

<sup>3</sup> "Work six days. The seventh day is a Sabbath, a day of total and complete rest, a sacred assembly. Don't do any work. Wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to GOD.

<sup>4</sup> "These are the appointed feasts of GOD, the sacred assemblies which you are to announce at the times set for them:

You are to eat unraised bread for seven days.

<sup>9</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> "Tell the People of Israel, When you arrive at the land that I am giving you and reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain that you harvest.

<sup>11</sup> He will wave the sheaf before GOD for acceptance on your behalf; on the morning after Sabbath, the priest will wave it.

<sup>12</sup> On the same day that you wave the sheaf, offer a year-old male lamb without defect for a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD

<sup>13</sup> and with it the Grain-Offering of four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil--a Fire-Gift to GOD, a pleasing fragrance--and also a Drink-Offering of a quart of wine.

<sup>14</sup> Don't eat any bread or roasted or fresh grain until you have presented this offering to your God. This is a perpetual decree for all your generations to come, wherever you live.

<sup>15</sup> "Count seven full weeks from the morning after the Sabbath when you brought the sheaf as a Wave-Offering, <sup>16</sup> fifty days until the morning of the seventh Sabbath. Then present a new Grain-Offering to GOD.

<sup>17</sup> Bring from wherever you are living two loaves of bread made from four quarts of fine flour and baked with yeast as a Wave-Offering of the first ripe grain to GOD.

<sup>18</sup> In addition to the bread, offer seven yearling male lambs without defect, plus one bull and two rams. They will be a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD together with their Grain-Offerings and Drink-Offerings--offered as Fire-Gifts, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>19</sup> Offer one male goat for an Absolution-Offering and two yearling lambs for a Peace-Offering.

<sup>20</sup> The priest will wave the two lambs before GOD as a Wave-Offering, together with the bread of the first ripe grain. They are sacred offerings to GOD for the priest.

<sup>21</sup> Proclaim the day as a sacred assembly. Don't do any ordinary work. It is a perpetual decree wherever you live down through your generations.

<sup>22</sup> "When you reap the harvest of your land, don't reap the corners of your field or gather the gleanings. Leave them for the poor and the foreigners. I am GOD, [your] God."

<sup>23</sup> GOD said to Moses:

<sup>26</sup> GOD said to Moses,

<sup>28</sup> Don't work on that day because it is a day of atonement to make atonement for you before your GOD.

<sup>29</sup> Anyone who doesn't fast on that day must be cut off from his people.

<sup>31</sup> Don't do any work that day--none. This is a perpetual decree for all the generations to come, wherever you happen to be living.

<sup>32</sup> It is a Sabbath of complete and total rest, a fast day. Observe your Sabbath from the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening."

<sup>33</sup> GOD said to Moses,

<sup>36</sup> Offer Fire-Gifts to GOD for seven days. On the eighth day hold a sacred assembly and offer a gift to GOD. It is a solemn convocation. Don't do any ordinary work.

<sup>37</sup> "These are the appointed feasts of GOD which you will decree as sacred assemblies for presenting Fire-Gifts to GOD: the Whole-Burnt-Offerings, Grain-Offerings, sacrifices, and Drink-Offerings assigned to each day.

<sup>38</sup> These are in addition to offerings for GOD's Sabbaths and also in addition to other gifts connected with whatever you have vowed and all the Freewill-Offerings you give to GOD.

<sup>39</sup> "So, summing up: On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have brought your crops in from your fields, celebrate the Feast of GOD for seven days. The first day is a complete rest and the eighth day is a complete rest.

<sup>40</sup> On the first day, pick the best fruit from the best trees; take fronds of palm trees and branches of leafy trees and from willows by the brook and celebrate in the presence of your GOD for seven days--

<sup>41</sup> yes, for seven full days celebrate it as a festival to GOD. Every year from now on, celebrate it in the seventh month.

<sup>42</sup> Live in booths for seven days--every son and daughter of Israel is to move into booths

<sup>43</sup> so that your descendants will know that I made the People of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am GOD, your God."

<sup>44</sup> Moses posted the calendar for the annual appointed feasts of GOD which Israel was to celebrate.

24 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Order the People of Israel to bring you virgin olive oil for light so that the lamps may be kept burning continually.

<sup>5</sup> "Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves of bread, using about four quarts of flour to a loaf.

<sup>8</sup> Regularly, every Sabbath, this bread is to be set before GOD, a perpetual covenantal response from Israel.

<sup>9</sup> The bread then goes to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a Holy Place. It is their most holy share from the gifts to GOD. This is a perpetual decree."

<sup>10</sup> One day the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites. A fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite.

<sup>11</sup> The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name of GOD and cursed. They brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan.

<sup>12</sup> They put him in custody waiting for GOD's will to be revealed to them.

<sup>13</sup> Then GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>14</sup> "Take the blasphemer outside the camp. Have all those who heard him place their hands on his head; then have the entire congregation stone him.

<sup>15</sup> Then tell the Israelites, Anyone who curses God will be held accountable;

<sup>16</sup> anyone who blasphemes the Name of GOD must be put to death. The entire congregation must stone him. It makes no difference whether he is a foreigner or a native, if he blasphemes the Name, he will be put to death.

<sup>20</sup> fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. What he did to hurt that person will be done to him.

<sup>21</sup> Anyone who hits and kills an animal must make it good, but whoever hits and kills a fellow human will be put to death.

<sup>22</sup> And no double standards: the same rule goes for foreigners and natives. I am GOD, your God."

<sup>23</sup> Moses then spoke to the People of Israel. They brought the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The People of Israel followed the orders GOD had given Moses.

25 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai, <sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them: When you enter the land which I am going to give you, the land will observe a Sabbath to GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Sow your fields, prune your vineyards, and take in your harvests for six years.

<sup>4</sup> But the seventh year the land will take a Sabbath of complete and total rest, a Sabbath to GOD; you will not sow your fields or prune your vineyards.

<sup>5</sup> Don't reap what grows of itself; don't harvest the grapes of your untended vines. The land gets a year of complete and total rest.

<sup>6</sup> But you can eat from what the land volunteers during the Sabbath year--you and your men and women servants, your hired hands, and the foreigners who live in the country, <sup>7</sup> and, of course, also your livestock and the wild animals in the land can eat from it. Whatever the land volunteers of itself can be eaten.

<sup>9</sup> Then sound loud blasts on the ram's horn on the tenth day of the seventh month, the Day of Atonement. Sound the ram's horn all over the land.

<sup>10</sup> Sanctify the fiftieth year; make it a holy year. Proclaim freedom all over the land to everyone who lives in it--a Jubilee for you: Each person will go back to his family's property and reunite with his extended family.

<sup>11</sup> The fiftieth year is your Jubilee year: Don't sow; don't reap what volunteers itself in the fields; don't harvest the untended vines

<sup>15</sup> Calculate the purchase price on the basis of the number of years since the Jubilee. He is obliged to set the sale price on the basis of the number of harvests remaining until the next Jubilee.

<sup>17</sup> Don't cheat each other. Fear your God. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>18</sup> "Keep my decrees and observe my laws and you will live secure in the land.

<sup>19</sup> The land will yield its fruit; you will have all you can eat and will live safe and secure.

<sup>20</sup> Do I hear you ask, 'What are we going to eat in the seventh year if we don't plant or harvest?'

<sup>21</sup> I assure you, I will send such a blessing in the sixth year that the land will yield enough for three years.

<sup>22</sup> While you plant in the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and continue until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

<sup>23</sup> "The land cannot be sold permanently because the land is mine and you are foreigners--you're my tenants.

<sup>24</sup> You must provide for the right of redemption for any of the land that you own.

<sup>26</sup> If a man has no one to redeem it but he later prospers and earns enough for its redemption, <sup>27</sup> he is to calculate the value since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it; he can then go back to his own land.

<sup>28</sup> If he doesn't get together enough money to repay him, what he sold remains in the possession of the buyer until the year of Jubilee. In the Jubilee it will be returned and he can go back and live on his land.

<sup>29</sup> "If a man sells a house in a walled city, he retains the right to buy it back for a full year after the sale. At any time during that year he can redeem it.

<sup>30</sup> But if it is not redeemed before the full year has passed, it becomes the permanent possession of the buyer and his descendants. It is not returned in the Jubilee.

<sup>31</sup> However, houses in unwalled villages are treated the same as fields. They can be redeemed and have to be returned at the Jubilee.

<sup>32</sup> "As to the Levitical cities, houses in the cities owned by the Levites are always subject to redemption.

<sup>33</sup> Levitical property is always redeemable if it is sold in a town that they hold and reverts to them in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the People of Israel.

<sup>35</sup> "If one of your brothers becomes indigent and cannot support himself, help him, the same as you would a foreigner or a guest so that he can continue to live in your neighborhood.

<sup>36</sup> Don't gouge him with interest charges; out of reverence for your God help your brother to continue to live with you in the neighborhood.

<sup>37</sup> Don't take advantage of his plight by running up big interest charges on his loans, and don't give him food for profit.

<sup>38</sup> I am your GOD who brought you out of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup> "If one of your brothers becomes indigent and has to sell himself to you, don't make him work as a slave.

<sup>40</sup> Treat him as a hired hand or a guest among you. He will work for you until the Jubilee, <sup>41</sup> after which he and his children are set free to go back to his clan and his ancestral land.

<sup>44</sup> "The male and female slaves which you have are to come from the surrounding nations; you are permitted to buy slaves from them.

<sup>45</sup> You may also buy the children of foreign workers who are living among you temporarily and from their clans which are living among you and have been born in your land. They become your property.

<sup>46</sup> You may will them to your children as property and make them slaves for life. But you must not tyrannize your brother Israelites.

<sup>47</sup> "If a foreigner or temporary resident among you becomes rich and one of your brothers becomes poor and sells himself to the foreigner who lives among you or to a member of the foreigner's clan, <sup>48</sup> he still has the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his relatives may buy him back.

<sup>49</sup> An uncle or cousin or any close relative of his extended family may redeem him. Or, if he gets the money together, he can redeem himself.

<sup>50</sup> What happens then is that he and his owner count out the time from the year he sold himself to the year of Jubilee; the buy-back price is set according to the wages of a hired hand for that number of years.

<sup>51</sup> If many years remain before the Jubilee, he must pay back a larger share of his purchase price, <sup>52</sup> but if only a few years remain until the Jubilee, he is to calculate his redemption price accordingly.

<sup>53</sup> He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year. You must make sure that his owner does not tyrannize him.

<sup>54</sup> "If he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he goes free in the year of Jubilee, he and his children, <sup>55</sup> because the People of Israel are my servants, my servants whom I brought out of Egypt. I am GOD, your God.

26 <sup>1</sup> "Don't make idols for yourselves; don't set up an image or a sacred pillar for yourselves, and don't place a carved stone in your land that you can bow down to in worship. I am GOD, your God.

<sup>2</sup> "Keep my Sabbaths; treat my Sanctuary with reverence. I am GOD.

<sup>3</sup> "If you live by my decrees and obediently keep my commandments, <sup>4</sup> I will send the rains in their seasons, the ground will yield its crops and the trees of the field their fruit.

<sup>5</sup> You will thresh until the grape harvest and the grape harvest will continue until planting time; you'll have more than enough to eat and will live safe and secure in your land.

<sup>8</sup> Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand and do away with them.

<sup>9</sup> I'll give you my full attention: I'll make sure you prosper, make sure you grow in numbers, and keep my covenant with you in good working order.

<sup>10</sup> You'll still be eating from last year's harvest when you have to clean out the barns to make room for the new crops.

<sup>11</sup> "I'll set up my residence in your neighborhood; I won't avoid or shun you;

<sup>12</sup> I'll stroll through your streets. I'll be your God; you'll be my people.

<sup>13</sup> I am GOD, your personal God who rescued you from Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves to the Egyptians. I ripped off the harness of your slavery so that you can move about freely.

<sup>14</sup> "But if you refuse to obey me and won't observe my commandments,

<sup>15</sup> despising my decrees and holding my laws in contempt by your disobedience, making a shambles of my covenant,

<sup>16</sup> I'll step in and pour on the trouble: debilitating disease, high fevers, blindness, your life leaking out bit by bit. You'll plant seed but your enemies will eat the crops.

<sup>17</sup> I'll turn my back on you and stand by while your enemies defeat you. People who hate you will govern you. You'll run scared even when there's no one chasing you.

<sup>18</sup> "And if none of this works in getting your attention, I'll discipline you seven times over for your sins.

<sup>19</sup> I'll break your strong pride: I'll make the skies above you like a sheet of tin and the ground under you like cast iron.

<sup>21</sup> "If you defy me and refuse to listen, your punishment will be seven times more than your sins:

<sup>23</sup> "And if even this doesn't work and you refuse my discipline and continue your defiance, <sup>24</sup> then it will be my turn to defy you. I, yes I, will punish you for your sins seven times over:

<sup>25</sup> I'll let war loose on you, avenging your breaking of the covenant; when you huddle in your cities for protection, I'll send a deadly epidemic on you and you'll be helpless before your enemies;

<sup>26</sup> when I cut off your bread supply, ten women will bake bread in one oven and ration it out. You'll eat, but barely--no one will get enough.

<sup>27</sup> "And if this--even this!--doesn't work and you still won't listen, still defy me,

<sup>28</sup> I'll have had enough and in hot anger will defy you, punishing you for your sins seven times over:

<sup>29</sup> famine will be so severe that you'll end up cooking and eating your sons in stews and your daughters in barbecues;

<sup>30</sup> I'll smash your sex-and-religion shrines and all the paraphernalia that goes with them, and then stack your corpses and the idol-corpses in the same piles--I'll abhor you;

<sup>31</sup> I'll turn your cities into rubble; I'll clean out your sanctuaries; I'll hold my nose at the "pleasing aroma" of your sacrifices.

<sup>32</sup> I'll turn your land into a lifeless moonscape--your enemies who come in to take over will be shocked at what they see.

<sup>35</sup> All the time it's left there empty, the land will get rest, the Sabbaths it never got when you lived there.

<sup>36</sup> "As for those among you still alive, I'll give them over to fearful timidity--even the rustle of a leaf will throw them into a panic. They'll run here and there, back and forth, as if running for their lives even though no one is after them, <sup>37</sup> tripping and falling over one another in total confusion. You won't stand a chance against an enemy.

<sup>38</sup> You'll perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will eat you up.

<sup>41</sup> that set off my defiance that sent them off into enemy lands; if by some chance they soften their hard hearts and make amends for their sin,

<sup>42</sup> I'll remember my covenant with Jacob, I'll remember my covenant with Isaac, and, yes, I'll remember my covenant with Abraham. And I'll remember the land.

<sup>43</sup> "The land will be empty of them and enjoy its Sabbaths while they're gone. They'll pay for their sins because they refused my laws and treated my decrees with contempt.

<sup>44</sup> But in spite of their behavior, while they are among their enemies I won't reject or abhor or destroy them completely. I won't break my covenant with them: I am GOD, their God.

<sup>45</sup> For their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors whom I, with all the nations watching, brought out of Egypt in order to be their God. I am GOD."

<sup>46</sup> These are the decrees, laws, and instructions that GOD established between himself and the People of Israel through Moses at Mount Sinai.

27 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them: If anyone wants to vow the value of a person to the service of GOD, <sup>3</sup> set the value of a man between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels of silver, according to the Sanctuary shekel.

<sup>5</sup> If the person is between the ages of five and twenty, set the value at twenty shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female.

<sup>6</sup> If the person is between one month and five years, set the value at five shekels of silver for a boy and three shekels of silver for a girl.

<sup>7</sup> If the person is over sixty, set the value at fifteen shekels for a man and ten shekels for a woman.

<sup>8</sup> If anyone is too poor to pay the stated amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will then set the value for him according to what the person making the vow can afford.

<sup>9</sup> "If he vowed an animal that is acceptable as an offering to GOD, the animal is given to GOD and becomes the property of the Sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup> He must not exchange or substitute a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one; if he should dishonestly substitute one animal for another, both the original and the substitute become property of the Sanctuary.

<sup>11</sup> If what he vowed is a ritually unclean animal, one that is not acceptable as an offering to GOD, the animal must be shown to the priest, <sup>12</sup> who will set its value, either high or low. Whatever the priest sets will be its value.

<sup>13</sup> If the owner changes his mind and wants to redeem it, he must add twenty percent to its value.

<sup>14</sup> "If a man dedicates his house to GOD, into the possession of the Sanctuary, the priest assesses its value, setting it either high or low. Whatever value the priest sets, that's what it is.

<sup>15</sup> If the man wants to buy it back, he must add twenty percent to its price and then it's his again.

<sup>16</sup> "If a man dedicates to GOD part of his family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed that is needed for it at the rate of fifty shekels of silver to six bushels of barley seed.

<sup>18</sup> But if he dedicates it after the Jubilee, the priest will compute the value according to the years left until the next Jubilee, reducing the value proportionately.

<sup>19</sup> If the one dedicating it wants to buy it back, he must add twenty percent to its valuation, and then it's his again.

<sup>20</sup> But if he doesn't redeem it or sells the field to someone else, it can never be bought back.

<sup>21</sup> When the field is released in the Jubilee, it becomes holy to GOD, the possession of the Sanctuary, GOD's field. It goes into the hands of the priests.

<sup>22</sup> "If a man dedicates to GOD a field he has bought, a field which is not part of the family land,

<sup>23</sup> the priest will compute its proportionate value in relation to the next year of Jubilee. The man must pay its value on the spot as something that is now holy to GOD, belonging to the Sanctuary.

<sup>24</sup> In the year of Jubilee it goes back to its original owner, the man from whom he bought it.

<sup>26</sup> "No one is allowed to dedicate the firstborn of an animal; the firstborn, as firstborn, already belongs to GOD. No matter if it's cattle or sheep, it already belongs to GOD.

<sup>27</sup> If it's one of the ritually unclean animals, he can buy it back at its assessed value by adding twenty percent to it. If he doesn't redeem it, it is to be sold at its assessed value.

him, whether human or animal or family land, may be either sold or bought back. Everything devoted is holy to the highest degree; it's GOD's inalienable property.

<sup>29</sup> "No human who has been devoted to destruction can be redeemed. He must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup> "A tenth of the land's produce, whether grain from the ground or fruit from the trees, is GOD's. It is holy to GOD.

<sup>31</sup> If a man buys back any of the tenth he has given, he must add twenty percent to it.

<sup>32</sup> A tenth of the entire herd and flock, every tenth animal that passes under the shepherd's rod, is holy to GOD.

<sup>33</sup> He is not permitted to pick out the good from the bad or make a substitution. If he dishonestly makes a substitution, both animals, the original and the substitute, become the possession of the Sanctuary and cannot be redeemed."

<sup>34</sup> These are the commandments that GOD gave to Moses on Mount Sinai for the People of Israel.

Numbers

1 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai at the Tent of Meeting on the first day of the second month in the second year after they had left Egypt. He said, <sup>2</sup> "Number the congregation of the People of Israel by clans and families, writing down the names of every male.

<sup>3</sup> You and Aaron are to register, company by company, every man who is twenty years and older who is able to fight in the army.

<sup>18</sup> and gathered the whole congregation together on the first day of the second month. The people registered themselves in their tribes according to their ancestral families, putting down the names of those who were twenty years old and older,

fight in the army, registered by clans and families.

<sup>46</sup> The sum total of the People of Israel twenty years old and over who were able to fight in the army, counted by ancestral family, was 603,550.

<sup>47</sup> The Levites, however, were not counted by their ancestral family along with the others.

tribe of Levi; don't include them in the general census of the People of Israel.

<sup>50</sup> Instead, appoint the Levites to be in charge of The Dwelling of The Testimony--over all its furnishings and everything connected with it. Their job is to carry The Dwelling and all its furnishings, maintain it, and camp around it.

<sup>51</sup> When it's time to move The Dwelling, the Levites will take it down, and when it's time to set it up, the Levites will do it. Anyone else who even goes near it will be put to death.

<sup>52</sup> "The rest of the People of Israel will set up their tents in companies, every man in his own camp under its own flag.

<sup>53</sup> But the Levites will set up camp around The Dwelling of The Testimony so that wrath will not fall on the community of Israel. The Levites are responsible for the security of The Dwelling of The Testimony."

<sup>54</sup> The People of Israel did everything that God commanded Moses. They did it all.

2 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said,

<sup>2</sup> "The People of Israel are to set up camp circling the Tent of Meeting and facing it. Each company is to camp under its distinctive tribal flag."

<sup>9</sup> The total number of men assigned to Judah, troop by troop, is 186,400. They will lead the march.

<sup>10</sup> To the south are the companies of the camp of Reuben under its flag, led by Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>16</sup> The total number of men assigned to Reuben, troop by troop, is 151,450. They are second in the order of the march.

<sup>17</sup> The Tent of Meeting with the camp of the Levites takes its place in the middle of the march. Each tribe will march in the same order in which they camped, each under its own flag.

<sup>32</sup> These are the People of Israel, counted according to their ancestral families. The total number in the camps, counted troop by troop, comes to 603,550.

<sup>33</sup> Following GOD's command to Moses, the Levites were not counted in with the rest of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> GOD spoke to Moses. He said,

<sup>6</sup> "Bring forward the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron so they can help him.

<sup>7</sup> They shall work for him and the whole congregation at the Tent of Meeting by doing the work of The Dwelling.

<sup>8</sup> Their job is to be responsible for all the furnishings of The Dwelling, ministering to the affairs of The Dwelling as the People of Israel come to perform their duties.

<sup>9</sup> Turn the Levites over to Aaron and his sons; they are the ones assigned to work full time for him.

<sup>10</sup> Appoint Aaron and his sons to minister as priests; anyone else who tries to elbow his way in will be put to death."

<sup>11</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> "I have taken the Levites from among the People of Israel as a stand-in for every Israelite mother's firstborn son. The Levites belong to me.

<sup>13</sup> All the firstborn are mine--when I killed all the firstborn in Egypt, I consecrated for my own use every firstborn in Israel, whether human or animal. They belong to me. I am GOD."

<sup>14</sup> GOD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai:

<sup>26</sup> the hangings of the Courtyard, the screen at the entrance to the Courtyard that surrounded The Dwelling and Altar, and the cords--in short, everything having to do with these things.

<sup>27</sup> Kohath was ancestor to the clans of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites, and Uzzielites. These were known as the Kohathite clans.

<sup>28</sup> All the males who were one month and older numbered 8,600. The Kohathites were in charge of the Sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup> Merari was ancestor to the clans of the Mahlites and the Mushites, known as the Merarite clans.

<sup>35</sup> They were led by Zuriel son of Abihail and camped on the north side of The Dwelling.

<sup>36</sup> The Merarites were in charge of the frames of The Dwelling, its crossbars, posts, bases, and all its equipment-

-everything having to do with these things,

<sup>38</sup> Moses and Aaron and his sons camped to the east of The Dwelling, toward the rising sun, in front of the Tent of Meeting. They were in charge of maintaining the Sanctuary for the People of Israel and the rituals of worship. Anyone else who tried to perform these duties was to be put to death.

<sup>39</sup> The sum total of Levites counted at GOD's command by Moses and Aaron, clan by clan, all the males one month and older, numbered 22,000.

<sup>40</sup> GOD spoke to Moses: "Count all the firstborn males of the People of Israel who are one month and older. List their names.

<sup>41</sup> Then set apart for me the Levites--remember, I am GOD--in place of all the firstborn among the People of Israel, also the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. I am GOD."

<sup>42</sup> So, just as GOD commanded him, Moses counted all the firstborn of the People of Israel.

<sup>43</sup> The total of firstborn males one month and older, listed by name, numbered 22,273.

<sup>44</sup> Again GOD spoke to Moses. He said,

<sup>45</sup> "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites are mine, I am GOD.

<sup>51</sup> Moses turned over the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of GOD.

4 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said,

<sup>3</sup> Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age, all who enter the ministry to work in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>8</sup> They are to cover these with a scarlet cloth, and on top of that spread the dolphin skin, and insert the poles.

<sup>9</sup> "They are to use a blue cloth to cover the light-giving Lampstand and the lamps, snuffers, trays, and the oil jars that go with it.

<sup>10</sup> Then they are to wrap it all in a covering of dolphin skin and place it on a carrying frame.

<sup>11</sup> "They are to spread a blue cloth over the Gold Altar and cover it with dolphin skins and place it on a carrying frame.

<sup>13</sup> "They are to remove the ashes from the Altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

<sup>14</sup> They are to place on it all the articles used in ministering at the Altar--firepans, forks, shovels, bowls; everything used at the Altar--place them on the Altar, cover it with the dolphin skins, and insert the poles.

<sup>15</sup> "When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and the camp is ready to set out, the Kohathites are to come and do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy things or they will die. The Kohathites are in charge of carrying all the things that are in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup> "Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, is to be in charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular Grain-Offering, and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire Dwelling and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles."

<sup>17</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron,

<sup>18</sup> "Don't let the tribal families of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites.

<sup>19</sup> Protect them so they will live and not die when they come near the most holy things. To protect them, Aaron and his sons are to precede them into the Sanctuary and assign each man his task and what he is to carry.

<sup>20</sup> But the Kohathites themselves must not go in to look at the holy things, not even a glance at them, or they will die."

<sup>21</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>24</sup> "The Gershonites by family and clan will serve by carrying heavy loads:

<sup>25</sup> the curtains of the Sanctuary and the Tent of Meeting; the covering of the Tent and the outer covering of dolphin skins; the screens for the entrance to the Tent;

<sup>26</sup> the cords; and all the equipment used in its ministries. The Gershonites have the job of doing the work connected with these things.

supervision of Aaron and his sons. Assign them specifically what they are to carry.

<sup>32</sup> as well as the posts of the surrounding Courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, cords, and all the equipment related to their use. Assign to each man exactly what he is to carry.

<sup>33</sup> This is the ministry of the Merarite clans as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest."

<sup>36</sup> counted by clans, were 2,750.

of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them just as GOD had commanded.

<sup>46</sup> So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by clan and family.

<sup>47</sup> All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting

<sup>49</sup> At GOD's command through Moses, each man was assigned his work and told what to carry. And that's the story of their numbering, as GOD commanded Moses.

5 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Command the People of Israel to ban from the camp anyone who has an infectious skin disease, anyone who has a discharge, and anyone who is ritually unclean from contact with a dead body.

<sup>3</sup> Ban male and female alike; send them outside the camp so that they won't defile their camp, the place I live among them."

<sup>4</sup> The People of Israel did this, banning them from the camp. They did exactly what GOD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>5</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>6</sup> "Tell the People of Israel, When a man or woman commits any sin, the person has broken trust with GOD, is guilty, <sup>7</sup> and must confess the sin. Full compensation plus twenty percent must be made to whoever was wronged.

<sup>8</sup> If the wronged person has no close relative who can receive the compensation, the compensation belongs to GOD and must be given to the priest, along with the ram by which atonement is made.

<sup>9</sup> All the sacred offerings that the People of Israel bring to a priest belong to the priest.

<sup>10</sup> Each person's sacred offerings are his own, but what one gives to the priest stays with the priest."

<sup>11</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> "Tell the People of Israel, Say a man's wife goes off and has an affair, is unfaithful to him

<sup>13</sup> by sleeping with another man, but her husband knows nothing about it even though she has defiled herself. And then, even though there was no witness and she wasn't caught in the act, <sup>14</sup> feelings of jealousy come over the husband and he suspects that his wife is impure. Even if she is innocent and his jealousy and suspicions are groundless, <sup>15</sup> he is to take his wife to the priest. He must also take an offering of two quarts of barley flour for her. He is to pour no oil on it or mix incense with it because it is a Grain-Offering for jealousy, a Grain-Offering for bringing the guilt out into the open.

<sup>16</sup> "The priest then is to take her and have her stand in the presence of GOD.

<sup>17</sup> He is to take some holy water in a pottery jar and put some dust from the floor of The Dwelling in the water.

<sup>18</sup> After the priest has her stand in the presence of GOD he is to uncover her hair and place the exposure-offering in her hands, the Grain-Offering for jealousy, while he holds the bitter water that delivers a curse.

<sup>19</sup> Then the priest will put the woman under oath and say, 'If no man has slept with you and you have not had an adulterous affair and become impure while married to your husband, may this bitter water that delivers a curse not harm you.

<sup>20</sup> But if you have had an affair while married to your husband and have defiled yourself by sleeping with a man other than your husband'--

<sup>21</sup> here the priest puts the woman under this curse--'may GOD cause your people to curse and revile you when he makes your womb shrivel and your belly swell.

<sup>22</sup> Let this water that delivers a curse enter your body so that your belly swells and your womb shrivels.' "Then the woman shall say, 'Amen. Amen.'

<sup>23</sup> "The priest is to write these curses on a scroll and then wash the words off into the bitter water.

<sup>24</sup> He then is to give the woman the bitter water that delivers a curse. This water will enter her body and cause acute pain.

<sup>25</sup> The priest then is to take from her hands a handful of the Grain-Offering for jealousy, wave it before GOD, and bring it to the Altar.

<sup>26</sup> The priest then is to take a handful of the Grain-Offering, using it as an exposure-offering, and burn it on the Altar; after this he is to make her drink the water.

<sup>27</sup> If she has defiled herself in being unfaithful to her husband, when she drinks the water that delivers a curse, it will enter her body and cause acute pain; her belly will swell and her womb shrivel. She will be cursed among her people.

<sup>28</sup> But if she has not defiled herself and is innocent of impurity, her name will be cleared and she will be able to have children.

<sup>29</sup> "This is the law of jealousy in a case where a woman goes off and has an affair and defiles herself while married to her husband,

<sup>31</sup> The husband will be cleared of wrong, but the woman will pay for her wrong."

6 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel; tell them, If any of you, man or woman, wants to make a special Nazirite vow, consecrating yourself totally to GOD, <sup>3</sup> you must not drink any wine or beer, no intoxicating drink of any kind, not even the juice of grapes--in fact, you must not even eat grapes or raisins.

<sup>4</sup> For the duration of the consecration, nothing from the grapevine--not even the seeds, not even the skin--may be eaten.

<sup>5</sup> "Also, for the duration of the consecration you must not have your hair cut. Your long hair will be a continuing sign of holy separation to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> "Also, for the duration of the consecration to GOD, you must not go near a corpse.

<sup>7</sup> Even if it's the body of your father or mother, brother or sister, you must not ritually defile yourself because the sign of consecration to God is on your head.

<sup>8</sup> "For the entire duration of your consecration you are holy to GOD.

<sup>9</sup> "If someone should die suddenly in your presence, so that your consecrated head is ritually defiled, you must shave your head on the day of your purifying, that is, the seventh day.

<sup>10</sup> Then on the eighth day bring two doves or two pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>11</sup> The priest will offer one for the Absolution-Offering and one for the Whole-Burnt-Offering, purifying you from the ritual contamination of the corpse. You resanctify your hair on that day

<sup>12</sup> and reconsecrate your Nazirite consecration to GOD by bringing a yearling lamb for a Compensation-Offering. You start over; the previous days don't count because your consecration was ritually defiled.

<sup>13</sup> "These are the instructions for the time set when your special consecration to GOD is up. First, you are to be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>14</sup> Then you will present your offerings to GOD: a healthy yearling lamb for the Whole-Burnt-Offering, a healthy yearling ewe for an Absolution-Offering, a healthy ram for a Peace-Offering,

<sup>16</sup> The priest will approach GOD and offer up your Absolution-Offering and Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>17</sup> He will sacrifice the ram as a Peace-Offering to GOD with the basket of unraised bread, and, last of all, the Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>18</sup> "At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, shave off the hair you consecrated and put it in the fire that is burning under the Peace-Offering.

<sup>19</sup> "After you have shaved the hair of your consecration, the priest will take a shoulder from the ram, boiled, and a piece of unraised bread and a cracker from the basket and place them in your hands.

<sup>20</sup> The priest will then wave them before GOD, a Wave-Offering. They are holy and belong to the priest, along with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was offered. "Now you are free to drink wine.

<sup>21</sup> "These are the instructions for Nazirites as they bring offerings to GOD in their vow of consecration, beyond their other offerings. They must carry out the vow they have vowed following the instructions for the Nazirite."

<sup>22</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>23</sup> "Tell Aaron and his sons, This is how you are to bless the People of Israel. Say to them,

<sup>24</sup> GOD bless you and keep you,

<sup>25</sup> GOD smile on you and gift you,

<sup>27</sup> In so doing, they will place my name on the People of Israel--I will confirm it by blessing them."

7 <sup>1</sup> When Moses finished setting up The Dwelling, he anointed it and consecrated it along with all that went with it. At the same time he anointed and consecrated the Altar and its accessories.

<sup>2</sup> The leaders of Israel, the heads of the ancestral tribes who had carried out the census, brought offerings.

wagon from each pair of leaders and an ox from each leader.

<sup>4</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>5</sup> "Receive these so that they can be used to transport the Tent of Meeting. Give them to the Levites according to what they need for their work."

<sup>8</sup> and four wagons and eight oxen to the Merarites for their work. They were all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>9</sup> Moses didn't give any to the Kohathites because they had to carry the holy things for which they were responsible on their shoulders.

<sup>10</sup> When the Altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication and presented them before the Altar

<sup>11</sup> because GOD had instructed Moses, "Each day one leader is to present his offering for the dedication of the Altar."

<sup>13</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>16</sup> a he-goat for an Absolution-Offering;

<sup>17</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

<sup>19</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>23</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar.

<sup>24</sup> On the third day, Eliab son of Helon, the leader of the people of Zebulun, brought his offering.

<sup>25</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>29</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup> On the fourth day, Elizur son of Shedeur, the leader of the people of Reuben, brought his offering.

<sup>31</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>35</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>36</sup> On the fifth day, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, the leader of the people of Simeon, brought his offering.

<sup>37</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>41</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>42</sup> On the sixth day, Eliasaph son of Deuel, the leader of the people of Gad, brought his offering.

<sup>43</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>47</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

<sup>48</sup> On the seventh day, Elishama son of Ammihud, the leader of the people of Ephraim, brought his offering.

<sup>49</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>53</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup> On the eighth day, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, the leader of the people of Manasseh, brought his offering.

<sup>55</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>59</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

<sup>60</sup> On the ninth day, Abidan son of Gideoni, the leader of the people of Benjamin, brought his offering.

<sup>61</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>65</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

<sup>66</sup> On the tenth day, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the people of Dan, brought his offering.

<sup>67</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>71</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>72</sup> On the eleventh day, Pagiel son of Ocran, the leader of the people of Asher, brought his offering.

<sup>73</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>77</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ocran.

<sup>78</sup> On the twelfth day, Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the people of Naphtali, brought his offering.

<sup>79</sup> His offering was: a silver plate weighing three and a quarter pounds and a silver bowl weighing one and three-quarter pounds (according to the standard Sanctuary weights), each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a Grain-Offering;

<sup>83</sup> two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, and five yearling lambs to be sacrificed as a Peace-Offering. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup> These were the dedication offerings of the leaders of Israel for the anointing of the Altar: twelve silver plates, twelve silver bowls, twelve gold vessels.

<sup>85</sup> Each plate weighed three and a quarter pounds and each bowl one and three-quarter pounds. All the plates and bowls together weighed about sixty pounds (using the official Sanctuary weight).

<sup>86</sup> The twelve gold vessels filled with incense weighed four ounces each (using the official Sanctuary weight). Altogether the gold vessels weighed about three pounds.

<sup>88</sup> The sum total of animals used for the sacrifice of the Peace-Offering: twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty he-goats, sixty yearling lambs. These were the offerings for the dedication of the Altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup> When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with GOD, he heard the Voice speaking to him from between the two angel-cherubim above the Atonement-Cover on the Chest of The Testimony. He spoke with him.

8 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>4</sup> The Lampstand was made of hammered gold from its stem to its petals. It was made precisely to the design GOD had shown Moses.

<sup>5</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>6</sup> "Take the Levites from the midst of the People of Israel and purify them for doing GOD's work.

<sup>7</sup> This is the way you will do it: Sprinkle water of absolution on them; have them shave their entire bodies; have them scrub their clothes. Then they will have purified themselves.

<sup>8</sup> "Have them take a young bull with its accompanying Grain-Offering of fine flour mixed with oil, plus a second young bull for an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>9</sup> Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting and gather the entire community of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Present the Levites before GOD as the People of Israel lay their hands on them.

<sup>11</sup> Aaron will present the Levites before GOD as a Wave-Offering from the People of Israel so that they will be ready to do GOD's work.

<sup>12</sup> "Have the Levites place their hands on the heads of the bulls, selecting one for the Absolution-Offering and another for the Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD to make atonement for the Levites.

<sup>13</sup> Then have the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons and present them as a Wave-Offering to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> This is the procedure for setting apart the Levites from the rest of the People of Israel; the Levites are exclusively for my use.

<sup>15</sup> "After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a Wave-Offering to GOD, they can go to work in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup> The Levites have been selected out of the People of Israel for my exclusive use; they function in place of every firstborn male born to an Israelite woman.

<sup>17</sup> Every firstborn male in Israel, animal or human, is set apart for my use. When I struck down all the firstborn of Egypt, I consecrated them for my holy uses.

<sup>18</sup> But now I take the Levites as stand-ins in place of every firstborn son in Israel,

<sup>19</sup> selected out of the People of Israel, and I have given the Levites to Aaron and his sons to do all the work involved in the Tent of Meeting on behalf of all the People of Israel and to make atonement for them so that nothing bad will happen to them when they approach the Sanctuary."

<sup>20</sup> Moses, Aaron, and the entire community of the People of Israel carried out these procedures with the Levites, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>21</sup> The Levites purified themselves and scrubbed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a Wave-Offering before GOD and made atonement for them to purify them.

<sup>22</sup> Only then did the Levites go to work at the Tent of Meeting. Aaron and his sons supervised them following the directions GOD had given.

<sup>23</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>24</sup> "These are your instructions regarding the Levites: At the age of twenty-five they will join the work force in the Tent of Meeting;

<sup>5</sup> and they did--in the Wilderness of Sinai at evening of the fourteenth day of the first month. The People of Israel did it all just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup> But some of them couldn't celebrate the Passover on the assigned day because they were ritually unclean on account of a corpse. So they presented themselves before Moses and Aaron on Passover

<sup>7</sup> and told Moses, "We have become ritually unclean because of a corpse, but why should we be barred from bringing GOD's offering along with other Israelites on the day set for Passover?"

<sup>8</sup> Moses said, "Give me some time; I'll find out what GOD says in your circumstances."

<sup>9</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> "Tell the People of Israel, If one or another of you is ritually unclean because of a corpse, or you happen to be off on a long trip, you may still celebrate GOD's Passover.

<sup>11</sup> But celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at evening. Eat the lamb together with unraised bread and bitter herbs.

<sup>12</sup> Don't leave any of it until morning. Don't break any of its bones. Follow all the procedures.

<sup>13</sup> "But a man who is ritually clean and is not off on a trip and still fails to celebrate the Passover must be cut off from his people because he did not present GOD's offering at the set time. That man will pay for his sin.

<sup>14</sup> "Any foreigner living among you who wants to celebrate GOD's Passover is welcome to do it, but he must follow all the rules and procedures. The same procedures go for both foreigner and native-born."

<sup>16</sup> It was like that all the time, the Cloud over The Dwelling and at night looking like fire.

<sup>17</sup> When the Cloud lifted above the Tent, the People of Israel marched out; and when the Cloud descended the people camped.

<sup>19</sup> Even when the Cloud hovered over The Dwelling for many days, they honored GOD's command and wouldn't march.

<sup>20</sup> They stayed in camp, obedient to GOD's command, as long as the Cloud was over The Dwelling, but the moment GOD issued orders they marched.

<sup>21</sup> If the Cloud stayed only from sunset to daybreak and then lifted at daybreak, they marched. Night or day, it made no difference--when the Cloud lifted, they marched.

<sup>22</sup> It made no difference whether the Cloud hovered over The Dwelling for two days or a month or a year, as long as the Cloud was there, they were there. And when the Cloud went up, they got up and marched.

<sup>23</sup> They camped at GOD's command and they marched at GOD's command.

They lived obediently by GOD's orders as delivered by Moses.

10 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Make two bugles of hammered silver. Use them to call the congregation together and give marching orders to the camps.

<sup>3</sup> When you blow them, the whole community will meet you at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>4</sup> "When a bugle gives a single, short blast, that's the signal for the leaders, the heads of the clans, to assemble.

<sup>6</sup> At the second blast the camps on the south set out. The long blasts are the signals to march.

<sup>9</sup> When you go to war against an aggressor, blow a long blast on the bugle so that GOD will notice you and deliver you from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup> Also at times of celebration, at the appointed feasts and New Moon festivals, blow the bugles over your Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings: they will keep your attention on God. I am GOD, your God."

<sup>28</sup> These were the marching units of the People of Israel. They were on their way.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to his brother-in-law Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We're marching to the place about which GOD promised, 'I'll give it to you.' Come with us; we'll treat you well. GOD has promised good things for Israel."

<sup>30</sup> But Hobab said, "I'm not coming; I'm going back home to my own country, to my own family."

<sup>31</sup> Moses countered, "Don't leave us. You know all the best places to camp in the wilderness. We need your eyes.

<sup>32</sup> If you come with us, we'll make sure that you share in all the good things GOD will do for us."

<sup>33</sup> And so off they marched. From the Mountain of GOD they marched three days with the Chest of the Covenant of GOD in the lead to scout out a campsite.

<sup>34</sup> The Cloud of GOD was above them by day when they marched from the camp.

<sup>35</sup> With the Chest leading the way, Moses would say, Get up, GOD! Put down your enemies! Chase those who hate you to the hills!

<sup>36</sup> And when the Chest was set down, he would say, Rest with us, GOD, Stay with the many, Many thousands of Israel.

11 <sup>1</sup> The people fell to grumbling over their hard life. GOD heard. When he heard his anger flared; then fire blazed up and burned the outer boundaries of the camp.

<sup>2</sup> The people cried out for help to Moses; Moses prayed to GOD and the fire died down.

<sup>4</sup> The riff-raff among the people had a craving and soon they had the People of Israel whining, "Why can't we have meat?"

<sup>8</sup> The people went around collecting it and ground it between stones or pounded it fine in a mortar. Then they boiled it in a pot and shaped it into cakes. It tasted like a delicacy cooked in olive oil.

<sup>9</sup> When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna was right there with it.

<sup>10</sup> Moses heard the whining, all those families whining in front of their tents.

GOD's anger blazed up. Moses saw that things were in a bad way.

<sup>11</sup> Moses said to GOD, "Why are you treating me this way? What did I ever do to you to deserve this? Did I conceive them? Was I their mother? So why dump the responsibility of this people on me?"

<sup>12</sup> Why tell me to carry them around like a nursing mother, carry them all the way to the land you promised to their ancestors?

<sup>13</sup> Where am I supposed to get meat for all these people who are whining to me, 'Give us meat; we want meat.'

of Israel, men whom you know to be respected and responsible. Take them to the Tent of Meeting. I'll meet you there.

<sup>17</sup> I'll come down and speak with you. I'll take some of the Spirit that is on you and place it on them; they'll then be able to take some of the load of this people--you won't have to carry the whole thing alone.

<sup>18</sup> "Tell the people, Consecrate yourselves. Get ready for tomorrow when you're going to eat meat. You've been whining to GOD, 'We want meat; give us meat. We had a better life in Egypt.' GOD has heard your whining and he's going to give you meat. You're going to eat meat.

<sup>19</sup> And it's not just for a day that you'll eat meat, and not two days, or five or ten or twenty,

<sup>20</sup> but for a whole month. You're going to eat meat until its coming out your nostrils. You're going to be so sick of meat that you'll throw up at the mere mention of it. And here's why: Because you have rejected GOD who is right here among you, whining to his face, 'Oh, why did we ever have to leave Egypt?'"

<sup>21</sup> Moses said, "I'm standing here surrounded by 600,000 men on foot and you say, 'I'll give them meat, meat every day for a month.'

<sup>22</sup> So where's it coming from? Even if all the flocks and herds were butchered, would that be enough? Even if all the fish in the sea were caught, would that be enough?"

<sup>23</sup> GOD answered Moses, "So, do you think I can't take care of you? You'll see soon enough whether what I say happens for you or not."

<sup>24</sup> So Moses went out and told the people what GOD had said. He called together seventy of the leaders and had them stand around the Tent.

<sup>25</sup> GOD came down in a cloud and spoke to Moses and took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy leaders. When the Spirit rested on them they prophesied. But they didn't continue; it was a onetime event.

<sup>26</sup> Meanwhile two men, Eldad and Medad, had stayed in the camp. They were listed as leaders but they didn't leave camp to go to the Tent. Still, the Spirit also rested on them and they prophesied in the camp.

<sup>27</sup> A young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

<sup>28</sup> Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses' right-hand man since his youth, said, "Moses, master! Stop them!"

<sup>29</sup> But Moses said, "Are you jealous for me? Would that all GOD's people were prophets. Would that GOD would put his Spirit on all of them."

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses and the leaders of Israel went back to the camp.

<sup>31</sup> A wind set in motion by GOD swept quails in from the sea. They piled up to a depth of about three feet in the camp and as far out as a day's walk in every direction.

<sup>32</sup> All that day and night and into the next day the people were out gathering the quail--huge amounts of quail; even the slowest person among them gathered at least sixty bushels. They spread them out all over the camp for drying.

<sup>2</sup> They said, "Is it only through Moses that GOD speaks? Doesn't he also speak through us?" GOD overheard their talk.

<sup>3</sup> Now the man Moses was a quietly humble man, more so than anyone living on Earth.

<sup>4</sup> GOD broke in suddenly on Moses and Aaron and Miriam saying, "Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting." The three went out.

<sup>5</sup> GOD descended in a Pillar of Cloud and stood at the entrance to the Tent. He called Aaron and Miriam to him. When they stepped out, <sup>6</sup> he said, Listen carefully to what I'm telling you. If there is a prophet of GOD among you, I make myself known to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.

<sup>7</sup> But I don't do it that way with my servant Moses; he has the run of my entire house;

<sup>8</sup> I speak to him intimately, in person, in plain talk without riddles: He ponders the very form of GOD. So why did you show no reverence or respect in speaking against my servant, against Moses?

her skin like snow. Aaron took one look at Miriam--a leper!

<sup>11</sup> He said to Moses, "Please, my master, please don't come down so hard on us for this foolish and thoughtless sin.

<sup>12</sup> Please don't make her like a stillborn baby coming out of its mother's womb with half its body decomposed."

<sup>13</sup> And Moses prayed to GOD: Please, God, heal her, please heal her.

<sup>14</sup> GOD answered Moses, "If her father had spat in her face, wouldn't she be ostracized for seven days? Quarantine her outside the camp for seven days. Then she can be readmitted to the camp."

<sup>15</sup> So Miriam was in quarantine outside the camp for seven days. The people didn't march on until she was readmitted.

<sup>16</sup> Only then did the people march from Hazeroth and set up camp in the Wilderness of Paran.

13 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Send men to scout out the country of Canaan that I am giving to the People of Israel. Send one man from each ancestral tribe, each one a tried-and-true leader in the tribe."

Gaddi son of Susi

<sup>16</sup> These are the names of the men
Moses sent to scout out the land. Moses gave Hoshea (Salvation) son of Nun a new name--Joshua (GOD-Saves).

<sup>17</sup> When Moses sent them off to scout out Canaan, he said, "Go up through the Negev and then into the hill country.

<sup>18</sup> Look the land over, see what it is like.
Assess the people: Are they strong or weak? Are there few or many?

<sup>19</sup> Observe the land: Is it pleasant or harsh? Describe the towns where they live: Are they open camps or fortified with walls?

<sup>20</sup> And the soil: Is it fertile or barren?
Are there forests? And try to bring back a sample of the produce that grows there--this is the season for the first ripe grapes."

<sup>21</sup> With that they were on their way. They scouted out the land from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob toward Lebo Hamath.

<sup>26</sup> They presented themselves before Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation of the People of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. They reported to the whole congregation and showed them the fruit of the land.

<sup>27</sup> Then they told the story of their trip: "We went to the land to which you sent us and, oh! It does flow with milk and honey! Just look at this fruit!

<sup>28</sup> The only thing is that the people who live there are fierce, their cities are huge and well fortified. Worse yet, we saw descendants of the giant Anak.

<sup>29</sup> Amalekites are spread out in the Negev; Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites hold the hill country; and the Canaanites are established on the Mediterranean Sea and along the Jordan."

<sup>31</sup> But the others said, "We can't attack those people; they're way stronger than we are."

<sup>32</sup> They spread scary rumors among the People of Israel. They said, "We scouted out the land from one end to the other--it's a land that swallows people whole. Everybody we saw was huge."

<sup>33</sup> Why, we even saw the Nephilim giants (the Anak giants come from the Nephilim). Alongside them we felt like grasshoppers. And they looked down on us as if we were grasshoppers."

14 <sup>1</sup> The whole community was in an uproar, wailing all night long.

<sup>2</sup> All the People of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The entire community was in on it: "Why didn't we die in Egypt? Or in this wilderness?

<sup>3</sup> Why has GOD brought us to this country to kill us? Our wives and children are about to become plunder. Why don't we just head back to Egypt? And right now!"

<sup>7</sup> and addressed the assembled People of Israel: "The land we walked through and scouted out is a very good land--very good indeed.

<sup>8</sup> If GOD is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land, a land that flows, as they say, with milk and honey. And he'll give it to us.

<sup>9</sup> Just don't rebel against GOD! And don't be afraid of those people. Why, we'll have them for lunch! They have no protection and GOD is on our side. Don't be afraid of them!"

<sup>10</sup> But, up in arms now, the entire community was talking of hurling stones at them. Just then the bright Glory of GOD appeared at the Tent of Meeting. Every Israelite saw it.

<sup>11</sup> GOD said to Moses, "How long will these people treat me like dirt? How long refuse to trust me? And with all these signs I've done among them!

<sup>12</sup> I've had enough--I'm going to hit them with a plague and kill them. But I'll make you into a nation bigger and stronger than they ever were."

<sup>13</sup> But Moses said to GOD, "The Egyptians are going to hear about this!

You delivered this people from Egypt with a great show of strength, and now this?

They've already heard that you are GOD, that you are on the side of this people, that you are present among them, that they see you with their own eyes in your Cloud that hovers over them, in the Pillar of Cloud that leads them by day and the Pillar of Fire at night.

<sup>15</sup> If you kill this entire people in one stroke, all the nations that have heard what has been going on will say,

<sup>16</sup> 'Since GOD couldn't get these people into the land which he had promised to give them, he slaughtered them out in the wilderness.'

<sup>17</sup> "Now, please, let the power of the Master expand, enlarge itself greatly, along the lines you have laid out earlier when you said, <sup>18</sup> GOD, slow to get angry and huge in loyal love, forgiving iniquity and rebellion and sin; Still, never just whitewashing sin. But extending the fallout of parents' sins to children into the third, even the fourth generation.

<sup>19</sup> "Please forgive the wrongdoing of this people out of the extravagance of your loyal love just as all along, from the time they left Egypt, you have been forgiving this people."

<sup>20</sup> GOD said, "I forgive them, honoring your words.

<sup>21</sup> But as I live and as the Glory of GOD fills the whole Earth--

<sup>22</sup> not a single person of those who saw my Glory, saw the miracle signs I did in Egypt and the wilderness, and who have tested me over and over and over again, turning a deaf ear to me--

<sup>23</sup> not one of them will set eyes on the land I so solemnly promised to their ancestors. No one who has treated me with such repeated contempt will see it.

<sup>24</sup> "But my servant Caleb--this is a different story. He has a different spirit; he follows me passionately. I'll bring him into the land that he scouted and his children will inherit it.

<sup>26</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron:

<sup>27</sup> "How long is this going to go on, all this grumbling against me by this evil-infested community? I've had my fill of complaints from these grumbling Israelites.

<sup>28</sup> Tell them, As I live--GOD's decree--here's what I'm going to do:

<sup>29</sup> Your corpses are going to litter the wilderness--every one of you twenty years and older who was counted in the census, this whole generation of grumblers and grouzers.

<sup>30</sup> Not one of you will enter the land and make your home there, the firmly and solemnly promised land, except for Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>31</sup> "Your children, the very ones that you said would be taken for plunder, I'll bring in to enjoy the land you rejected <sup>32</sup> while your corpses will be rotting in the wilderness.

<sup>33</sup> These children of yours will live as shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, living with the fallout of your whoring unfaithfulness until the last of your generation lies a corpse in the wilderness.

<sup>34</sup> You scouted out the land for forty days; your punishment will be a year for each day, a forty-year sentence to serve for your sins--a long schooling in my displeasure.

<sup>35</sup> "I, GOD, have spoken. I will most certainly carry out these things against this entire evil-infested community which has banded together against me. In this wilderness they will come to their end. There they will die."

<sup>36</sup> So it happened that the men Moses sent to scout out the land returned to circulate false rumors about the land causing the entire community to grumble against Moses--

<sup>37</sup> all these men died. Having spread false rumors of the land, they died in a plague, confronted by GOD.

<sup>38</sup> Only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were left alive of the men who went to scout out the land.

<sup>39</sup> When Moses told all of this to the People of Israel, they mourned long and hard.

<sup>40</sup> But early the next morning they started out for the high hill country, saying, "We're here; we're ready--let's go up and attack the land that GOD promised us. We sinned, but now we're ready."

<sup>41</sup> But Moses said, "Why are you crossing GOD's command yet again? This won't work.

<sup>42</sup> Don't attack. GOD isn't with you in this--you'll be beaten badly by your enemies.

<sup>44</sup> But they went anyway; recklessly and arrogantly they climbed to the high hill country. But the Chest of the Covenant and Moses didn't budge from the camp.

<sup>45</sup> The Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in the hill country came out of the hills and attacked and beat them, a rout all the way down to Hormah.

15 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them, When you enter your homeland that I am giving to you
<sup>3</sup> and sacrifice a Fire-Gift to GOD, a Whole-Burnt-Offering or any sacrifice from the herd or flock for a Vow-Offering or Freewill-Offering at one of the appointed feasts, as a pleasing fragrance for GOD, <sup>4</sup> the one bringing the offering shall present to GOD a Grain-Offering of two quarts of fine flour mixed with a quart of oil.

<sup>6</sup> "For a ram prepare a Grain-Offering of four quarts of fine flour mixed with one and a quarter quarts of oil

<sup>7</sup> and one and a quarter quarts of wine as a Drink-Offering. Present it as a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>8</sup> "When you prepare a young bull as a Whole-Burnt-Offering or sacrifice for a special vow or a Peace-Offering to GOD, <sup>9</sup> bring with the bull a Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour and two quarts of oil.

<sup>10</sup> Also bring two quarts of wine as a Drink-Offering. It will be a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>11</sup> "Each bull or ram, each lamb or young goat, is to be prepared in this same way.

<sup>12</sup> Carry out this procedure for each one, no matter how many you have to prepare.

<sup>13</sup> "Every native-born Israelite is to follow this procedure when he brings a Fire-Gift as a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> In future generations, when a foreigner or visitor living at length among you presents a Fire-Gift as a pleasing fragrance to GOD, the same procedures must be followed.

<sup>15</sup> The community has the same rules for you and the foreigner living among you. This is the regular rule for future generations. You and the foreigner are the same before GOD.

<sup>16</sup> The same laws and regulations apply to both you and the foreigner who lives with you."

<sup>17</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>18</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them, When you enter the land into which I'm bringing you, <sup>19</sup> and you eat the food of that country, set some aside as an offering for GOD.

<sup>20</sup> From the first batch of bread dough make a round loaf for an offering--an offering from the threshing floor.

<sup>21</sup> Down through the future generations make this offering to GOD from each first batch of dough.

<sup>22</sup> "But if you should get off the beaten track and not keep the commands which GOD spoke to Moses,

<sup>23</sup> any of the things that GOD commanded you under the authority of Moses from the time that GOD first commanded you right up to this present time,

<sup>24</sup> and if it happened more or less by mistake, with the congregation unaware of it, then the whole congregation is to sacrifice one young bull as a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a pleasing fragrance to GOD, accompanied by its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering as stipulated in the rules, and a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>25</sup> The priest is to atone for the entire community of the People of Israel and they will stand forgiven. The sin was not deliberate, and they offered to GOD the Fire-Gift and Absolution-Offering for their inadvertence.

<sup>26</sup> The whole community of Israel including the foreigners living there will be absolved, because everyone was involved in the error.

<sup>27</sup> "But if it's just one person who sins by mistake, not realizing what he's doing, he is to bring a yearling she-goat as an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>28</sup> The priest then is to atone for the person who accidentally sinned, to make atonement before GOD so that it won't be held against him.

<sup>29</sup> "The same standard holds for everyone who sins by mistake; the native-born Israelites and the foreigners go by the same rules.

<sup>30</sup> "But the person, native or foreigner, who sins defiantly, deliberately blaspheming GOD, must be cut off from his people:

<sup>34</sup> They put him in custody until it became clear what to do with him.

<sup>35</sup> Then GOD spoke to Moses: "Give the man the death penalty. Yes, kill him, the whole community hurling stones at him outside the camp."

<sup>36</sup> So the whole community took him outside the camp and threw stones at him, an execution commanded by GOD and given through Moses.

<sup>37</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>38</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them that from now on they are to make tassels on the corners of their garments and to mark each corner tassel with a blue thread.

<sup>39</sup> When you look at these tassels you'll remember and keep all the commandments of GOD, and not get distracted by everything you feel or see that seduces you into infidelities.

<sup>40</sup> The tassels will signal remembrance and observance of all my commandments, to live a holy life to GOD.

<sup>41</sup> I am your GOD who rescued you from the land of Egypt to be your personal God. Yes, I am GOD, your God."

16 <sup>1</sup> Getting on his high horse one day, Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, along with a few Reubenites--Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth--

<sup>5</sup> Then he addressed Korah and his gang: "In the morning GOD will make clear who is on his side, who is holy. GOD will take his stand with the one he chooses.

<sup>6</sup> "Now, Korah, here's what I want you, you and your gang, to do: Tomorrow, take censers.

<sup>7</sup> In the presence of GOD, put fire in them and then incense. Then we'll see who is holy, see whom GOD chooses. Sons of Levi, you've overstepped yourselves!"

<sup>9</sup> Isn't it enough for you that the God of Israel has selected you out of the congregation of Israel to bring you near him to serve in the ministries of The Dwelling of GOD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them?

<sup>10</sup> He has brought you and all your brother Levites into his inner circle, and now you're grasping for the priesthood too.

<sup>11</sup> It's GOD you've ganged up against, not us. What do you have against Aaron that you're bad-mouthing him?"

<sup>12</sup> Moses then ordered Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, to appear, but they said, "We're not coming.

<sup>13</sup> Isn't it enough that you yanked us out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness? And now you keep trying to boss us around!

<sup>14</sup> Face it, you haven't produced: You haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, you haven't given us the promised inheritance of fields and vineyards. You'd have to poke our eyes out to keep us from seeing what's going on. Forget it, we're not coming."

<sup>15</sup> Moses' temper blazed white-hot. He said to GOD, "Don't accept their Grain-Offering. I haven't taken so much as a single donkey from them; I haven't hurt a single hair of their heads."

<sup>16</sup> Moses said to Korah, "Bring your people before GOD tomorrow. Appear there with them and Aaron.

<sup>17</sup> Have each man bring his censer filled with incense and present it to GOD--all 250 censers. And you and Aaron do the same, bring your censers."

<sup>20</sup> GOD said to Moses and Aaron,

<sup>21</sup> "Separate yourselves from this congregation so that I can finish them off and be done with them."

living, when one man sins are you going to take it out on the whole community?"

<sup>23</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>26</sup> He then spoke to the community: "Back off from the tents of these bad men; don't touch a thing that belongs to them lest you be carried off on the flood of their sins."

that it was GOD who sent me to do all these things and that it wasn't anything I cooked up on my own.

<sup>29</sup> If these men die a natural death like all the rest of us, you'll know that it wasn't GOD who sent me.

<sup>30</sup> But if GOD does something unprecedented--if the ground opens up and swallows the lot of them and they are pitched alive into Sheol--then you'll know that these men have been insolent with GOD."

<sup>31</sup> The words were hardly out of his mouth when the Earth split open.

<sup>32</sup> Earth opened its mouth and in one gulp swallowed them down, the men and their families, all the human beings connected with Korah, along with everything they owned.

<sup>33</sup> And that was the end of them, pitched alive into Sheol. The Earth closed up over them and that was the last the community heard of them.

<sup>34</sup> At the sound of their cries everyone around ran for dear life, shouting, "We're about to be swallowed up alive!"

<sup>35</sup> Then GOD sent lightning. The fire cremated the 250 men who were offering the incense.

<sup>36</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>37</sup> "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, Gather up the censers from the smoldering cinders and scatter the coals a distance away for these censers have become holy.

<sup>38</sup> Take the censers of the men who have sinned and are now dead and hammer them into thin sheets for covering the Altar. They have been offered to GOD and are holy to GOD. Let them serve as a sign to Israel, evidence of what happened this day."

<sup>39</sup> So Eleazar gathered all the bronze censers that belonged to those who had been burned up and had them hammered flat and used to overlay the Altar, <sup>40</sup> just as GOD had instructed him by Moses. This was to serve as a sign to Israel that only descendants of Aaron were allowed to burn incense before GOD; anyone else trying it would end up like Korah and his gang.

<sup>41</sup> Grumbling broke out the next day in the community of Israel, grumbling against Moses and Aaron: "You have killed GOD's people!"

<sup>42</sup> But it so happened that when the community got together against Moses and Aaron, they looked over at the Tent of Meeting and there was the Cloud--the Glory of GOD for all to see.

<sup>43</sup> Moses and Aaron stood at the front of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>45</sup> "Back away from this congregation so that I can do away with them this very minute." They threw themselves facedown on the ground.

<sup>46</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and fill it with incense, along with fire from the Altar. Get to the congregation as fast as you can: make atonement for them. Anger is pouring out from GOD--the plague has started!"

<sup>48</sup> He stood there between the living and the dead and stopped the plague.

<sup>49</sup> Fourteen thousand seven hundred people died from the plague, not counting those who died in the affair of Korah.

<sup>50</sup> Aaron then went back to join Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. The plague was stopped.

17 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Get staffs from them--twelve staffs in all, one from the leader of each of their ancestral tribes. Write each man's name on his staff.

<sup>4</sup> Now lay them out in the Tent of Meeting in front of The Testimony where I keep appointments with you.

<sup>5</sup> What will happen next is this: The staff of the man I choose will sprout. I'm going to put a stop to this endless grumbling by the People of Israel against you."

<sup>10</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Return Aaron's staff to the front of The Testimony. Keep it there as a sign to rebels. This will put a stop to the grumbling against me and save their lives."

<sup>12</sup> The People of Israel said to Moses, "We're as good as dead. This is our death sentence.

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who even gets close to The Dwelling of GOD is as good as dead. Are we all doomed?"

18 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Aaron, "You and your sons, along with your father's family, are responsible for taking care of sins having to do with the Sanctuary; you and your sons are also responsible for sins involving the priesthood.

<sup>2</sup> So enlist your brothers of the tribe of Levi to join you and assist you and your sons in your duties in the Tent of Testimony.

<sup>3</sup> They will report to you as they go about their duties related to the Tent, but they must not have anything to do with the holy things of the Altar under penalty of death--both they and you will die!

<sup>4</sup> They are to work with you in taking care of the Tent of Meeting, whatever work is involved in the Tent. Outsiders are not allowed to help you.

<sup>5</sup> "Your job is to take care of the Sanctuary and the Altar so that there will be no more outbreaks of anger on the People of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> I personally have picked your brothers, the Levites, from Israel as a whole. I'm giving them to you as a gift, a gift of GOD, to help with the work of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>7</sup> But only you and your sons may serve as priests, working around the Altar and inside the curtain. The work of the priesthood is my exclusive gift to you; it cannot be delegated--anyone else who invades the Sanctuary will be executed."

<sup>8</sup> GOD spoke to Aaron, "I am personally putting you in charge of my contributions, all the holy gifts I get from the People of Israel. I am turning them over to you and your children for your personal use. This is the standing rule.

<sup>10</sup> Eat it reverently; it is most holy; every male may eat it. Treat it as holy.

<sup>11</sup> "You also get the Wave-Offerings from the People of Israel. I present them to you and your sons and daughters as a gift. This is the standing rule. Anyone in your household who is ritually clean may eat it.

<sup>12</sup> I also give you all the best olive oil, the best new wine, and the grain that is offered to GOD as the firstfruits of their harvest--

<sup>13</sup> all the firstfruits they offer to GOD are yours. Anyone in your household who is ritually clean may eat it.

<sup>16</sup> When the firstborn is a month old it must be redeemed at the redemption price of five shekels of silver, using the standard of the Sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

<sup>17</sup> "On the other hand, you don't redeem a firstborn ox, sheep, or goat--they are holy. Instead splash their blood on the Altar and burn their fat as a Fire-Gift, a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>19</sup> All the holy offerings that the People of Israel set aside for GOD, I'm turning over to you and your children. That's the standard rule and includes both you and your children--a Covenant-of-Salt, eternal and unchangeable before GOD."

<sup>20</sup> GOD said to Aaron, "You won't get any inheritance in land, not so much as a small plot of ground: I am your plot of ground, I am your inheritance among the People of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> "I'm giving the Levites all the tithes of Israel as their pay for the work they do in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>22</sup> Starting now, the rest of the People of Israel cannot wander in and out of the Tent of Meeting; they'll be penalized for their sin and the penalty is death.

<sup>23</sup> It's the Levites and only the Levites who are to work in the Tent of Meeting and they are responsible for anything that goes wrong. This is the regular rule for all time. They get no inheritance among the People of Israel;

<sup>24</sup> instead I turn over to them the tithes that the People of Israel present as an offering to GOD. That's why I give the ruling: They are to receive no land-inheritance among the People of Israel."

<sup>25</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>26</sup> "Speak to the Levites. Tell them, When you get the tithe from the People of Israel, the inheritance that I have assigned to you, you must tithe that tithe and present it as an offering to GOD.

<sup>27</sup> Your offerings will be treated the same as other people's gifts of grain from the threshing floor or wine from the wine vat.

<sup>28</sup> This is your procedure for making offerings to GOD from all the tithes you get from the People of Israel: give GOD's portion from these tithes to Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup> Make sure that GOD's portion is the best and holiest of everything you get.

<sup>30</sup> "Tell the Levites, When you offer the best part, the rest will be treated the same as grain from the threshing floor or wine from the wine vat that others give.

<sup>32</sup> By offering the best part, you'll avoid guilt, you won't desecrate the holy offerings of the People of Israel, and you won't die."

19 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses and Aaron:

<sup>2</sup> "This is the rule from the Revelation that GOD commands: Tell the People of Israel to get a red cow, a healthy specimen, ritually clean, that has never been in harness.

<sup>3</sup> Present it to Eleazar the priest, then take it outside the camp and butcher it while he looks on.

<sup>5</sup> "Then under Eleazar's supervision burn the cow, the whole thing--hide, meat, blood, even its dung.

<sup>7</sup> Afterwards the priest must wash his clothes and bathe well with water. He can then come into the camp but he remains ritually unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup> The man who burns the cow must also wash his clothes and bathe with water. He also is unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup> "Then a man who is ritually clean will gather the ashes of the cow and place them in a ritually clean place outside the camp. The congregation of Israel will keep them to use in the Water-of-Cleansing, an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>10</sup> "The man who gathered up the ashes must scrub his clothes; he is ritually unclean until evening. This is to be a standing rule for both native-born Israelites and foreigners living among them.

<sup>12</sup> He must purify himself with the Water-of-Cleansing on the third day; on the seventh day he will be clean. But if he doesn't follow the procedures for the third and seventh days, he won't be clean.

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who touches the dead body of anyone and doesn't get cleansed desecrates GOD's Dwelling and is to be excommunicated. For as long as the Water-of-Cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, he remains ritually unclean.

<sup>14</sup> "This is the rule for someone who dies in his tent: Anyone who enters the tent or is already in the tent is ritually unclean for seven days,

<sup>17</sup> For this unclean person, take some ashes from the burned Absolution-Offering and add some fresh water to it in a bowl.

<sup>18</sup> Find a ritually clean man to dip a sprig of hyssop into the water and sprinkle the tent and all its furnishings, the persons who were in the tent, the one who touched the bones of the person who was killed or died a natural death, and whoever may have touched a grave.

<sup>19</sup> Then he is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days. On the seventh day he is considered cleansed. The cleansed person must then scrub his clothes and take a bath; by evening he is clean.

<sup>20</sup> But if an unclean person does not go through these cleansing procedures, he must be excommunicated from the community; he has desecrated the Sanctuary of GOD. The Water-of-

Cleansing has not been sprinkled on him and he is ritually unclean.

<sup>21</sup> This is the standing rule for these cases. "The man who sprinkles the Water-of-Cleansing has to scrub his clothes; anyone else who touched the Water-of-Cleansing is also ritually unclean until evening.

<sup>22</sup> "Anything the ritually unclean man touches becomes unclean, and the person who touches what he touched is unclean until evening."

20 <sup>1</sup> In the first month, the entire company of the People of Israel arrived in the Wilderness of Zin. The people stayed in Kadesh. Miriam died there, and she was buried.

<sup>2</sup> There was no water there for the community, so they ganged up on Moses and Aaron.

<sup>3</sup> They attacked Moses: "We wish we'd died when the rest of our brothers died before GOD.

<sup>4</sup> Why did you haul this congregation of GOD out here into this wilderness to die, people and cattle alike?

<sup>5</sup> And why did you take us out of Egypt in the first place, dragging us into this miserable country? No grain, no figs, no grapevines, no pomegranates--and now not even any water!"

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron walked from the assembled congregation to the Tent of Meeting and threw themselves facedown on the ground. And they saw the Glory of GOD.

<sup>7</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>8</sup> "Take the staff. Assemble the community, you and your brother Aaron. Speak to that rock that's right in front of them and it will give water. You will bring water out of the rock for them; congregation and cattle will both drink."

<sup>10</sup> He and Aaron rounded up the whole congregation in front of the rock. Moses spoke: "Listen, rebels! Do we have to bring water out of this rock for you?"

<sup>12</sup> GOD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you didn't trust me, didn't treat me with holy reverence in front of the People of Israel, you two aren't going to lead this company into the land that I am giving them."

<sup>13</sup> These were the Waters of Meribah (Bickering) where the People of Israel bickered with GOD, and he revealed himself as holy.

<sup>14</sup> Moses sent emissaries from Kadesh to the king of Edom with this message: "A message from your brother Israel: You are familiar with all the trouble we've run into.

<sup>15</sup> Our ancestors went down to Egypt and lived there a long time. The Egyptians viciously abused both us and our ancestors.

<sup>16</sup> But when we cried out for help to GOD, he heard our cry. He sent an angel and got us out of Egypt. And now here we are at Kadesh, a town at the border of your land.

<sup>18</sup> The king of Edom answered, "Not on your life. If you so much as set a foot on my land, I'll kill you."

<sup>19</sup> The People of Israel said, "Look, we'll stay on the main road. If we or our animals drink any water, we'll pay you for it. We're harmless--just a company of footsore travelers."

<sup>21</sup> Edom refused to let them cross through his land. So Israel had to detour around him.

will not enter the land I am giving to the People of Israel because you both rebelled against my orders at the Waters of Meribah.

<sup>29</sup> The whole congregation, getting the news that Aaron had died, went into thirty days of mourning for him.

Atharim. He attacked Israel and took prisoners of war.

<sup>2</sup> Israel vowed a vow to GOD: "If you will give this people into our power, we'll destroy their towns and present the ruins to you as a holy destruction."

<sup>3</sup> GOD listened to Israel's prayer and gave them the Canaanites. They destroyed both them and their towns, a holy destruction. They named the place Hormah (Holy Destruction).

<sup>4</sup> They set out from Mount Hor along the Red Sea Road, a detour around the land of Edom. The people became irritable and cross as they traveled.

<sup>5</sup> They spoke out against God and Moses: "Why did you drag us out of Egypt to die in this godforsaken country? No decent food; no water--we can't stomach this stuff any longer."

<sup>6</sup> So GOD sent poisonous snakes among the people; they bit them and many in Israel died.

<sup>7</sup> The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke out against GOD and you. Pray to GOD; ask him to take these snakes from us." Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it on a flagpole: Whoever is bitten and looks at it will live."

<sup>14</sup> The Book of the Wars of GOD refers to this place: Waheb in Suphah, the canyons of Arnon;

Summit) rises and overlooks Jeshimon (Wasteland).

<sup>25</sup> Israel took and occupied all the Amorite cities, including Heshbon and all its surrounding villages.

<sup>26</sup> Heshbon was the capital city of Sihon king of the Amorites. He had attacked the former king of Moab and captured all his land as far north as the river Arnon.

<sup>27</sup> That is why the folk singers sing, Come to Heshbon to rebuild the city, restore Sihon's town.

Devastation as far off as Nophah, scorched earth all the way to Medeba.

<sup>31</sup> Israel moved in and lived in Amorite country.

<sup>32</sup> Moses sent men to scout out Jazer.
They captured its villages and drove away the Amorites who lived there.

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned north on the road to Bashan. Og king of Bashan marched out with his entire army to meet Moses in battle at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Don't be afraid of him. I'm making a present of him to you, him and all his people and his land.
Treat him the same as Sihon king of the Amorites who ruled in Heshbon."

<sup>35</sup> So they attacked him, his sons, and all the people--there was not a single survivor. Israel took the land.

22 <sup>1</sup> The People of Israel marched on and camped on the Plains of Moab at Jordan-Jericho.

<sup>2</sup> Balak son of Zippor learned of all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

<sup>3</sup> The people of Moab were in a total panic because of Israel. There were so many of them! They were terrorized.

<sup>4</sup> Moab spoke to the leaders of Midian: "Look, this mob is going to clean us out--a bunch of crows picking a carcass clean." Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, <sup>5</sup> sent emissaries to get Balaam son of Beor, who lived at Pethor on the banks of the Euphrates River, his homeland. Balak's emissaries said, "Look. A people has come up out of Egypt, and they're all over the place! And they're pressing hard on me.

<sup>6</sup> Come and curse them for me--they're too much for me. Maybe then I can beat them; we'll attack and drive them out of the country. You have a reputation:

Those you bless stay blessed; those you curse stay cursed."

<sup>7</sup> The leaders of Moab and Midian were soon on their way, with the fee for the cursing tucked safely in their wallets. When they got to Balaam, they gave him Balak's message.

<sup>8</sup> "Stay here for the night," Balaam said. "In the morning I'll deliver the answer that GOD gives me." The Moabite nobles stayed with him.

<sup>9</sup> Then God came to Balaam. He asked, "So who are these men here with you?"

<sup>10</sup> Balaam answered, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent them with a message:

<sup>11</sup> 'Look, the people that came up out of Egypt are all over the place! Come and curse them for me. Maybe then I'll be able to attack and drive them out of the country.'"

<sup>12</sup> God said to Balaam, "Don't go with them. And don't curse the others--they are a blessed people."

<sup>14</sup> So the Moabite nobles left, came back to Balak, and said, "Balaam wouldn't come with us."

<sup>16</sup> They came to Balaam and said, "Balak son of Zippor says, 'Please, don't refuse to come to me.

<sup>17</sup> I will honor and reward you lavishly--anything you tell me to do, I'll do; I'll pay anything--only come and curse this people.'"

<sup>18</sup> Balaam answered Balak's servants: "Even if Balak gave me his house stuffed with silver and gold, I wouldn't be able to defy the orders of my GOD to do anything, whether big or little.

<sup>19</sup> But come along and stay with me tonight as the others did; I'll see what GOD will say to me this time."

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam that night and said, "Since these men have come all this way to see you, go ahead and go with them. But make sure you do absolutely nothing other than what I tell you."

<sup>23</sup> When the donkey saw the angel blocking the road and brandishing a sword, she veered off the road into the ditch. Balaam beat the donkey and got her back on the road.

<sup>27</sup> Seeing the angel, Balaam's donkey sat down under him. Balaam lost his temper; he beat the donkey with his stick.

<sup>28</sup> Then GOD gave speech to the donkey. She said to Balaam: "What have I ever done to you that you have beat me these three times?"

<sup>29</sup> Balaam said, "Because you've been playing games with me! If I had a sword I would have killed you by now."

<sup>30</sup> The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your trusty donkey on whom you've ridden for years right up until now? Have I ever done anything like this to you before? Have I?" He said, "No."

<sup>31</sup> Then GOD helped Balaam see what was going on: He saw GOD's angel blocking the way, brandishing a sword. Balaam fell to the ground, his face in the dirt.

<sup>32</sup> GOD's angel said to him: "Why have you beaten your poor donkey these three times? I have come here to block your way because you're getting way ahead of yourself."

<sup>33</sup> The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she hadn't, I would have killed you by this time, but not the donkey. I would have let her off."

<sup>34</sup> Balaam said to GOD's angel, "I have sinned. I had no idea you were standing in the road blocking my way. If you don't like what I'm doing, I'll head back."

<sup>35</sup> But GOD's angel said to Balaam, "Go ahead and go with them. But only say what I tell you to say--absolutely no other word." And so Balaam continued to go with Balak's nobles.

<sup>36</sup> When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him in the Moabite town that was on the banks of the Arnon, right on the boundary of his land.

<sup>37</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "Didn't I send an urgent message for help? Why didn't you come when I called? Do you think I can't pay you enough?"

23 <sup>1</sup> Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and then prepare seven bulls and seven rams."

<sup>2</sup> Balak did it. Then Balaam and Balak sacrificed a bull and a ram on each of the altars.

<sup>3</sup> Balaam instructed Balak: "Stand watch here beside your Whole-Burnt-Offering while I go off by myself. Maybe GOD will come and meet with me. Whatever he shows or tells me, I'll report to you." Then he went off by himself.

<sup>4</sup> God did meet with Balaam. Balaam said, "I've set up seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar."

<sup>5</sup> Then GOD gave Balaam a message: "Return to Balak and give him this message."

<sup>6</sup> He went back and found him stationed beside his Whole-Burnt-Offering and with him all the nobles of Moab.

<sup>8</sup> How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How can I damn whom GOD has not damned?

<sup>9</sup> From rock pinnacles I see them, from hilltops I survey them: Look! a people camping off by themselves, thinking themselves outsiders among nations.

<sup>10</sup> But who could ever count the dust of Jacob or take a census of cloud-of-dust Israel? I want to die like these right-living people! I want an end just like theirs!

<sup>11</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "What's this? I brought you here to curse my enemies, and all you've done is bless them."

<sup>12</sup> Balaam answered, "Don't I have to be careful to say what GOD gives me to say?"

<sup>13</sup> Balak said to him, "Go with me to another place from which you can only see the outskirts of their camp--you won't be able to see the whole camp. From there, curse them for my sake."

<sup>14</sup> So he took him to Watchmen's Meadow at the top of Pisgah. He built seven altars there and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Offering while I meet with him over there."

<sup>16</sup> GOD met with Balaam and gave him a message. He said, "Return to Balak and give him the message."

<sup>17</sup> Balaam returned and found him stationed beside his Whole-Burnt-Offering and the nobles of Moab with him. Balak said to him, "What did GOD say?"

<sup>19</sup> God is not man, one given to lies, and not a son of man changing his mind. Does he speak and not do what he says? Does he promise and not come through?

<sup>20</sup> I was brought here to bless; and now he's blessed--how can I change that?

<sup>21</sup> He has no bone to pick with Jacob, he sees nothing wrong with Israel. GOD is with them, and they're with him, shouting praises to their King.

<sup>25</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "Well, if you can't curse them, at least don't bless them."

<sup>26</sup> Balaam replied to Balak, "Didn't I tell you earlier: 'All God speaks, and only what he speaks, I speak'?"

<sup>27</sup> Balak said to Balaam, "Please, let me take you to another place; maybe we can find the right place in God's eyes where you'll be able to curse them for me."

24 <sup>1</sup> By now Balaam realized that GOD wanted to bless Israel. So he didn't work in any sorcery as he had done earlier. He turned and looked out over the wilderness.

<sup>2</sup> As Balaam looked, he saw Israel camped tribe by tribe. The Spirit of God came on him,

<sup>9</sup> Israel crouches like a lion and naps, king-of-the-beasts--who dares disturb him? Whoever blesses you is blessed, whoever curses you is cursed.

<sup>10</sup> Balak lost his temper with Balaam. He shook his fist. He said to Balaam: "I got you in here to curse my enemies and what have you done? Blessed them! Blessed them three times!

<sup>11</sup> Get out of here! Go home! I told you I would pay you well, but you're getting nothing. You can blame GOD."

<sup>12</sup> Balaam said to Balak, "Didn't I tell you up front when you sent your emissaries, <sup>13</sup> 'Even if Balak gave me his palace stuffed with silver and gold, I couldn't do anything on my own, whether good or bad, that went against GOD's command'?

<sup>14</sup> I'm leaving for home and my people, but I warn you of what this people will do to your people in the days to come."

<sup>15</sup> Then he spoke his oracle-message:
Decree of Balaam son of Beor, decree of the man with 20/20 vision,

<sup>16</sup> Decree of the man who hears godly speech, who knows what's going on with the High God, Who sees what The Strong God reveals, who bows in worship and sees what's real.

<sup>17</sup> I see him, but not right now, I perceive him, but not right here; A star rises from Jacob a scepter from Israel, Crushing the heads of Moab, the skulls of all the noisy windbags;

<sup>18</sup> I see Edom sold off at auction, enemy
Seir marked down at the flea market, while Israel walks off with the trophies.

<sup>19</sup> A ruler is coming from Jacob who'll destroy what's left in the city.

delivered an oracle-message. He said, Amalek, you're in first place among nations right now, but you're going to come in last, ruined.

<sup>25</sup> Balaam got up and went home. Balak also went on his way.

25 <sup>1</sup> While Israel was camped at Shittim (Acacia Grove), the men began to have sex with the Moabite women.

<sup>4</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of Israel and kill them by hanging, leaving them publicly exposed in order to turn GOD's anger away from Israel."

<sup>7</sup> Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw what he was doing, grabbed his spear, <sup>8</sup> and followed them into the tent. With one thrust he drove the spear through the two of them, the man of Israel and the woman, right through their private parts. That stopped the plague from continuing among the People of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> But 24,000 had already died.

<sup>10</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>11</sup> "Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has stopped my anger against the People of Israel. Because he was as zealous for my honor as I myself am, I didn't kill all the People of Israel in my zeal.

<sup>12</sup> So tell him that I am making a Covenant-of-Peace with him.

<sup>13</sup> He and his descendants are joined in a covenant of eternal priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the People of Israel."

<sup>14</sup> The name of the man of Israel who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the head of the Simeonite family.

<sup>15</sup> And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

<sup>18</sup> They turned out to be your enemies when they seduced you in the business of Peor and that woman Cozbi, daughter of a Midianite leader, the woman who was killed at the time of the plague in the matter of Peor."

26 <sup>1</sup> After the plague GOD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest,

<sup>2</sup> "Number the entire community of Israel by families--count every person who is twenty years and older who is able to serve in the army of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> Obeying GOD's command, Moses and Eleazar the priest addressed them on the Plains of Moab at Jordan-Jericho:

<sup>4</sup> "Count off from age twenty and older." The People of Israel who came out of the land of Egypt:

Moses and Aaron in the Korah Rebellion against GOD.

<sup>10</sup> The Earth opened its jaws and swallowed them along with Korah's gang who died when the fire ate them up, all 250 of them. After all these years, they're still a warning sign.

Elonite clan, Jahleel and the Jahleelite clan.

<sup>30</sup> The sons of Gilead: Iezer and the Iezerite clan, Helek and the Helekite clan,

<sup>58</sup> The Levite clans also included: the Libnite clan, the Hebronite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, the Korahite clan. Kohath was the father of Amram.

<sup>62</sup> The numbering of Levite males one month and older came to 23,000. They hadn't been counted in with the rest of the People of Israel because they didn't inherit any land.

<sup>63</sup> These are the ones numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, the People of Israel counted in the Plains of Moab at Jordan-Jericho.

<sup>64</sup> Not one of them had been among those counted by Moses and Aaron the priest in the census of the People of Israel taken in the Wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>65</sup> For GOD had said of them, "They'll die, die in the wilderness--not one of them will be left except for Caleb son of Jephunneh, and Joshua son of Nun."

27 <sup>1</sup> The daughters of Zelophehad showed up. Their father was the son of Hopher son of Gilead son of Makir son of Manasseh, belonging to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. The daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>2</sup> They came to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They stood before Moses and Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and the congregation and said,

<sup>9</sup> If he has no daughter, give it to his brothers.

<sup>10</sup> If he has no brothers, give it to his father's brothers.

<sup>11</sup> If his father had no brothers, give it to the nearest relative so that the inheritance stays in the family. This is the standard procedure for the People of Israel, as commanded by GOD through Moses."

<sup>12</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Climb up into the Abarim Mountains and look over at the land that I am giving to the People of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> When you've had a good look you'll be joined to your ancestors in the grave--yes, you also along with Aaron your brother.

<sup>17</sup> to lead them, to show the way ahead and bring them back home so GOD's community will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

<sup>18</sup> GOD said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun--the Spirit is in him!--and place your hand on him.

<sup>20</sup> Pass your magisterial authority over to him so that the whole congregation of the People of Israel will listen obediently to him.

<sup>21</sup> He is to consult with Eleazar the priest who, using the oracle-Urim, will prayerfully advise him in the presence of GOD. He will command the People of Israel, the entire community, in all their comings and goings."

<sup>22</sup> Moses followed GOD's orders. He took Joshua and stood him before Eleazar the priest in front of the entire community.

<sup>23</sup> He laid his hands on him and commissioned him, following the procedures GOD had given Moses.

28 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Command the People of Israel. Tell them, You're in charge of presenting my food, my Fire-Gifts of pleasing fragrance, at the set times.

<sup>3</sup> Tell them, This is the Fire-Gift that you are to present to GOD: two healthy yearling lambs each day as a regular Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>4</sup> Sacrifice one lamb in the morning, the other in the evening, <sup>5</sup> together with two quarts of fine flour mixed with a quart of olive oil for a Grain-Offering.

<sup>6</sup> This is the standard Whole-Burnt-Offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a pleasing fragrance, a Fire-Gift to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> The Drink-Offering that goes with it is a quart of strong beer with each lamb. Pour out the Drink-Offering before GOD in the Sanctuary.

<sup>8</sup> Sacrifice the second lamb in the evening with the Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering the same as in the morning--a Fire-Gift of pleasing fragrance for GOD.

<sup>9</sup> "On the Sabbath, sacrifice two healthy yearling lambs, together with the Drink-Offering and the Grain-Offering of four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil.

<sup>10</sup> This is the regular Sabbath Whole-Burnt-Offering, in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering and its Drink-Offering.

<sup>11</sup> "On the first of the month offer a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>12</sup> "A Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil goes with each bull, four quarts of fine flour mixed with oil with the ram, <sup>13</sup> and two quarts of fine flour mixed with oil with each lamb. This is for a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a pleasing fragrance, a Fire-Gift to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> Also, Drink-Offerings of two quarts of wine for each bull, one and a quarter quarts of wine for the ram, and a quart of wine for each lamb are to be poured out. "This is the first of the month Whole-Burnt-Offering to be made throughout the year.

<sup>15</sup> In addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its accompanying Drink-Offering, a he-goat is to be offered to GOD as an Absolution-Offering.

<sup>16</sup> "GOD's Passover is to be held on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of this month hold a festival. "For seven days, eat only unraised bread:

<sup>18</sup> Begin the first day in holy worship; don't do any regular work that day.

<sup>20</sup> Prepare a Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil for each bull, four quarts for the ram,

<sup>21</sup> and two quarts for each lamb,

<sup>23</sup> "Sacrifice these in addition to the regular morning Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>25</sup> "Conclude the seventh day in holy worship; don't do any regular work on that day.

<sup>26</sup> "On the Day of Firstfruits when you bring an offering of new grain to GOD on your Feast-of-Weeks, gather in holy worship and don't do any regular work.

<sup>28</sup> Prepare a Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil for each bull, four quarts for the ram,

<sup>29</sup> and two quarts for each lamb,

<sup>30</sup> plus a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering to atone for you.

29 <sup>1</sup> "On the first day of the seventh month, gather in holy worship and do no regular work. This is your Day-of-Trumpet-Blasts.

<sup>2</sup> Sacrifice a Whole-Burnt-Offering: one young bull, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs--all healthy--as a pleasing fragrance to GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Prepare a Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil for the bull, four quarts for the ram,

<sup>4</sup> and two quarts for each lamb,

Offerings with their Grain-Offerings and Drink-Offerings as prescribed, a pleasing fragrance, a Fire-Gift to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> "On the tenth day of this seventh month, gather in holy worship, humble yourselves, and do no work.

<sup>9</sup> Prepare a Grain-Offering of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil for the bull, four quarts for the ram,

<sup>11</sup> Also bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering to atone for you in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>12</sup> "Gather in holy worship on the fifteenth day of the seventh month; do no regular work. Celebrate a Festival to GOD for seven days.

<sup>13</sup> Bring a Whole-Burnt-Offering, a Fire-Gift of pleasing fragrance to GOD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs--all healthy.

<sup>16</sup> Also bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>17</sup> "On the second day: twelve young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs--all healthy.

<sup>19</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>20</sup> "On the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>22</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>23</sup> "On the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>25</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>26</sup> "On the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>28</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>29</sup> "On the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>31</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>32</sup> "On the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs--all healthy.

<sup>34</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

<sup>38</sup> And bring a he-goat as an Absolution-Offering in addition to the regular Whole-Burnt-Offering with its Grain-Offering and Drink-Offering.

30 <sup>1</sup> Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the People of Israel: "This is what GOD commands:

<sup>2</sup> When a man makes a vow to GOD or binds himself by an oath to do something, he must not break his word; he must do exactly what he has said.

<sup>3</sup> "When a woman makes a vow to GOD and binds herself by a pledge as a young girl still living in her father's house, <sup>4</sup> and her father hears of her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then she has to make good on all her vows and pledges.

<sup>5</sup> But if her father holds her back when he hears of what she has done, none of her vows and pledges are valid. GOD will release her since her father held her back.

<sup>6</sup> "If she marries after she makes a vow or has made some rash promise or pledge, <sup>7</sup> and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her, then she has to make good on whatever she vowed or pledged.

<sup>8</sup> But if her husband intervenes when he hears of it, he cancels the vow or rash promise that binds her. And GOD will release her.

<sup>9</sup> "Any vow or pledge taken by a widow or divorced woman is binding on her.

<sup>10</sup> "When a woman who is living with her husband makes a vow or takes a pledge under oath

<sup>11</sup> and her husband hears about it but says nothing and doesn't say she can't do it, then all her vows and pledges are valid.

<sup>12</sup> But if her husband cancels them when he hears about them, then none of the vows and pledges that she made are binding. Her husband has canceled them and GOD will release her.

<sup>13</sup> Any vow and pledge that she makes that may be to her detriment can be either affirmed or annulled by her husband.

<sup>14</sup> But if her husband is silent and doesn't speak up day after day, he confirms her vows and pledges--she has to make good on them. By saying nothing to her when he hears of them, he binds her to them.

<sup>15</sup> If, however, he cancels them sometime after he hears of them, he takes her guilt on himself."

<sup>16</sup> These are the rules that GOD gave Moses regarding conduct between a man and his wife and between a father and his young daughter who is still living at home.

31 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Avenge the People of Israel on the Midianites. Afterward you will go to be with your dead ancestors."

<sup>5</sup> A fighting force of a thousand from each tribe of Israel--twelve thousand in all--was recruited.

<sup>6</sup> Moses sent them off to war, a thousand from each tribe, and also Phinehas son of Eleazar, who went as priest to the army, in charge of holy vessels and the signaling bugles.

<sup>7</sup> They attacked Midian, just as GOD had commanded Moses, and killed every last man.

<sup>8</sup> Among the fallen were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba--the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

<sup>9</sup> The People of Israel took the Midianite women and children captive and took all their animals and herds and goods as plunder.

<sup>10</sup> They burned to the ground all the towns in which Midianites lived and also their tent camps.

<sup>11</sup> They looted and plundered everything and everyone--stuff and people and animals.

the priest and the company of Israel where they were camped on the Plains of Moab, at Jordan-Jericho.

<sup>13</sup> Moses, Eleazar, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet the returning army outside the camp.

<sup>14</sup> Moses was furious with the army officers--the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds--as they came back from the battlefield:

<sup>19</sup> "Now here's what you are to do: Pitch tents outside the camp. All who have killed anyone or touched a corpse must stay outside the camp for seven days. Purify yourselves and your captives on the third and seventh days.

<sup>20</sup> Purify every piece of clothing and every utensil--everything made of leather, goat hair, or wood."

<sup>21</sup> Eleazar the priest then spoke to the soldiers who had fought in the battle: "This is the ruling from the Revelation that GOD gave Moses:

<sup>23</sup> --and anything else that can survive fire--must be passed through the fire; then it will be ritually purified. It must also be ritually washed in the Water-of-Cleansing. Further, whatever cannot survive fire must be put through that water.

<sup>24</sup> On the seventh day scrub your clothes; you will be ritually clean. Then you can return to camp."

<sup>25</sup> GOD said to Moses,

<sup>26</sup> "I want you and Eleazar the priest and the family leaders in the community to count the captives, people and animals.

<sup>29</sup> It's a GOD-tax taken from their half-share to be turned over to Eleazar the priest on behalf of GOD.

who are in charge of the care of GOD's Dwelling."

<sup>35</sup> 32,000 women who were virgins

<sup>41</sup> Moses turned the tax over to Eleazar the priest as GOD's part, following GOD's instructions to Moses.

<sup>47</sup> From the half-share going to the People of Israel, Moses, just as GOD had instructed him, picked one out of every fifty persons and animals and gave them to the Levites, who were in charge of maintaining GOD's Dwelling.

<sup>49</sup> and said, "We have counted the soldiers under our command and not a man is missing.

<sup>50</sup> We've brought offerings to GOD from the gold jewelry we got--armlets, bracelets, rings, earrings, ornaments--to make atonement for our lives before GOD."

<sup>51</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all that fine-crafted jewelry.

<sup>52</sup> In total, the gold from the commanders of thousands and hundreds that Moses and Eleazar offered as a gift to GOD weighed about six hundred pounds,

<sup>54</sup> Moses and Eleazar took the gold from the commanders of thousands and hundreds and brought it to the Tent of Meeting, to serve as a reminder for the People of Israel before GOD.

32 <sup>1</sup> The families of Reuben and Gad had huge herds of livestock. They saw that the country of Jazer and Gilead was just the place for grazing livestock.

<sup>2</sup> And so they came, the families of Gad and of Reuben, and spoke to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the leaders of the congregation, saying,

<sup>5</sup> They continued, "If you think we've done a good job so far, give us this country for our inheritance. Don't make us go across the Jordan."

<sup>6</sup> Moses answered the families of Gad and Reuben: "Do you mean that you are going to leave the fighting that's ahead to your brothers while you settle down here?"

<sup>7</sup> Why would you even think of letting the People of Israel down, demoralizing them just as they're about to move into the land GOD gave them?

<sup>8</sup> That's exactly what your ancestors did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to survey the country.

<sup>9</sup> They went as far as the Valley of Eshcol, took one look and quit. They completely demoralized the People of Israel from entering the land GOD had given them.

<sup>10</sup> And GOD got angry--oh, did he get angry! He swore:

<sup>11</sup> 'They'll never get to see it; none of those who came up out of Egypt who are twenty years and older will ever get to see the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. They weren't interested in following me--their hearts weren't in it.

<sup>12</sup> None, except for Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua son of Nun; they followed me--their hearts were in it.'

<sup>13</sup> "GOD's anger smoked against Israel. He made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until that entire generation that acted out evil in his sight had died out.

<sup>14</sup> "And now here you are, just one more mob of sinners stepping up to replace your ancestors, throwing fuel on the already blazing anger of GOD against Israel.

<sup>15</sup> If you won't follow him, he'll do it again. He'll dump them in the desert and the disaster will be all your fault."

<sup>16</sup> They came close to him and said, "All we want to do is build corrals for our livestock and towns for our families.

<sup>17</sup> Then we'll take up arms and take the front lines, leading the People of Israel to their place. We'll be able to leave our families behind, secure in fortified towns, safe from those who live in the land.

<sup>18</sup> But we won't go back home until every Israelite is in full possession of his inheritance.

<sup>21</sup> and together go across the Jordan ready, before GOD, to fight until GOD has cleaned his enemies out of the land, <sup>22</sup> then when the land is secure you will have fulfilled your duty to GOD and Israel. Then this land will be yours to keep before GOD.

<sup>23</sup> "But if you don't do what you say, you will be sinning against GOD; you can be sure that your sin will track you down.

<sup>24</sup> So, go ahead. Build towns for your families and corrals for you livestock. Do what you said you'd do."

<sup>25</sup> The families of Gad and Reuben told Moses: "We will do as our master commands.

<sup>26</sup> Our children and wives, our flocks and herds will stay behind here in the towns of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup> But we, every one of us fully armed, will cross the river to fight for GOD, just as our master has said."

<sup>28</sup> So Moses issued orders for them to Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the ancestral tribes of the People of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "If the families of Gad and Reuben cross the Jordan River with you and before GOD, all armed and ready to fight, then after the land is secure, you may give them the land of Gilead as their inheritance.

<sup>30</sup> But if they don't cross over with you, they'll have to settle up with you in Canaan."

<sup>31</sup> The families of Gad and Reuben responded: "We will do what GOD has said.

<sup>32</sup> We will cross the Jordan before GOD, ready and willing to fight. But the land we inherit will be here, to the east of the Jordan."

<sup>33</sup> Moses gave the families of Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan--the land, its towns, and all the territories connected with them--the works.

<sup>39</sup> The family of Makir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and drove out the Amorites who lived there.

<sup>40</sup> Moses then gave Gilead to the Makirites, the descendants of Manasseh. They moved in and settled there.

fortieth year after the People of Israel had left Egypt.

<sup>53</sup> so that you take over the land and make yourself at home in it; I've given it to you. It's yours.

<sup>54</sup> "Divide up the land by lot according to the size of your clans: Large clans will get large tracts of land, small clans will get smaller tracts of land. However the lot falls, that's it. Divide it up according to your ancestral tribes.

<sup>55</sup> "But if you don't drive out the native population, everyone you let stay there will become a cinder in your eye and a splinter in your foot. They'll give you endless trouble right in your own backyards.

<sup>56</sup> And I'll start treating you the way I planned to treat them."

34 <sup>1</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:
<sup>2</sup> "Command the People of Israel. Tell them: When you enter Canaan, these are the borders of the land you are getting as an inheritance:

<sup>3</sup> "Your southern border will take in some of the Wilderness of Zin where it touches Edom. It starts in the east at the Dead Sea,

<sup>5</sup> where it takes a turn to the northwest to the Brook of Egypt and on to the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>13</sup> Moses then commanded the People of Israel: "This is the land: Divide up the inheritance by lot. GOD has ordered it to be given to the nine and a half tribes.

<sup>15</sup> the two tribes and the half-tribe got their inheritance east of Jordan-Jericho, facing the sunrise."

<sup>16</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

35 <sup>1</sup> Then GOD spoke to Moses on the Plains of Moab at Jordan-Jericho:

<sup>2</sup> "Command the People of Israel to give the Levites as their part of the total inheritance towns to live in. Make sure there is plenty of pasture around the towns.

<sup>3</sup> Then they will be well taken care of with towns to live in and pastures for their cattle, flocks, and other livestock.

<sup>4</sup> "The pasture surrounding the Levites' towns is to extend 1,500 feet in each direction from the city wall.

<sup>5</sup> The outside borders of the pasture are to measure three thousand feet on each of the four sides--east, south, west, and north--with the town at the center. Each city will be supplied with pasture.

<sup>6</sup> "Six of these towns that you give the Levites will be asylum-cities to which anyone who accidentally kills another person may flee for asylum. In addition, you will give them forty-two other towns--

<sup>8</sup> The towns that you give the Levites from the common inheritance of the People of Israel are to be taken in proportion to the size of each tribe-- many towns from a tribe that has many, few from a tribe that has few."

<sup>9</sup> GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> "Speak to the People of Israel. Tell them, When you cross the River Jordan into the country of Canaan, <sup>11</sup> designate your asylum-cities, towns to which a person who accidentally kills someone can flee for asylum.

<sup>12</sup> They will be places of refuge from the avenger so that the alleged murderer won't be killed until he can appear before the community in court.

<sup>14</sup> Designate three of the towns to the east side of the Jordan, the other three in Canaan proper--asylum-cities

<sup>15</sup> for the People of Israel, for the foreigner, and for any occasional visitors or guests--six asylum-cities to run to for anyone who accidentally kills another.

<sup>16</sup> "But if the killer has used an iron object, that's just plain murder; he's obviously a murderer and must be put to death.

<sup>17</sup> "Or if he has a rock in his hand big enough to kill and the man dies, that's murder; he's a murderer and must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> "Or if he's carrying a wooden club heavy enough to kill and the man dies, that's murder; he's a murderer and must be put to death.

<sup>19</sup> "In such cases the avenger has a right to kill the murderer when he meets him--he can kill him on the spot.

<sup>20</sup> "And if out of sheer hatred a man pushes another or from ambush throws something at him and he dies, <sup>21</sup> or angrily hits him with his fist and kills him, that's murder--he must be put to death. The avenger has a right to kill him when he gets him.

<sup>22</sup> "If, however, he impulsively pushes someone and there is no history of hard feelings, or he impetuously picks up something and throws it,

<sup>23</sup> or he accidentally drops a stone tool--a maul or hammer, say--and it hits and kills someone he didn't even know was there, and there's no suspicion that there was bad blood between them, <sup>24</sup> the community is to judge between the killer and the avenger following these guidelines.

<sup>25</sup> It's the task of the community to save the killer from the hand of the avenger--the community is to return him to his asylum-city to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the High Priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

<sup>26</sup> But if the murderer leaves the asylum-city to which he has fled, <sup>27</sup> and the avenger finds him outside the borders of his asylum-city, the avenger has a right to kill the murderer. And he's not considered guilty of murder.

<sup>28</sup> "So it's important that he stay in his asylum-city until the death of the High Priest. After the death of the High Priest he is free to return to his own place.

<sup>29</sup> "These are the procedures for making judgments from now on, wherever you live.

<sup>30</sup> "Anyone who kills another may be executed only on the testimony of eyewitnesses. But no one can be executed on the testimony of only one witness.

<sup>31</sup> "Don't accept bribe money in exchange for the life of a murderer. He's guilty and deserves the death penalty. Put him to death.

<sup>32</sup> "And don't accept bribe money for anyone who has fled to an asylum-city so as to permit him to go back and live in his own place before the death of the High Priest.

<sup>33</sup> "Don't pollute the land in which you live. Murder pollutes the land. The land can't be cleaned up of the blood of murder except through the blood of the murderer.

<sup>34</sup> "Don't desecrate the land in which you live. I live here too--I, GOD, live in the same neighborhood with the People of Israel."

36 <sup>1</sup> The heads of the ancestral clan of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh--they were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph--approached Moses and the leaders who were heads of the families in the People of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> They said, "When GOD commanded my master to hand over the inheritance-lands by lot to the People of Israel, my master was also commanded by GOD to hand over the inheritance-land of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

<sup>3</sup> But what happens if they marry into another tribe in the People of Israel? Their inheritance-land will be taken out of our ancestral tribe and get added into the tribe into which they married.

<sup>4</sup> And then when the Year of Jubilee comes for the People of Israel their inheritance will be lumped in with the inheritance of the tribe into which they married--their land will be removed from our ancestors' inheritance!"

<sup>7</sup> The inheritance-land of the People of Israel must not get passed around from tribe to tribe. No, keep the tribal inheritance-land in the family.

<sup>8</sup> Every daughter who inherits land, regardless of the tribe she is in, must marry a man from within her father's tribal clan. Every Israelite is responsible for making sure the inheritance stays within the ancestral tribe.

<sup>13</sup> These are the commands and regulations that GOD commanded through the authority of Moses to the People of Israel on the Plains of Moab at Jordan-Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1 <sup>1</sup> These are the sermons Moses preached to all Israel when they were east of the Jordan River in the Arabah Wilderness, opposite Suph, in the vicinity of Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

<sup>5</sup> It was east of the Jordan in the land of Moab that Moses set out to explain this Revelation. He said:

<sup>7</sup> On your way now. Get moving. Head for the Amorite hills, wherever people are living in the Arabah, the mountains, the foothills, the Negev, the seashore--the Canaanite country and the Lebanon all the way to the big river, the Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup> Look, I've given you this land. Now go in and take it. It's the land GOD promised to give your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their children after them."

<sup>9</sup> At the time I told you, "I can't do this, can't carry you all by myself.

<sup>10</sup> GOD, your God, has multiplied your numbers. Why, look at you--you rival the stars in the sky!

<sup>11</sup> And may GOD, the God-of-Your-Fathers, keep it up and multiply you another thousand times, bless you just as he promised.

<sup>12</sup> But how can I carry, all by myself, your troubles and burdens and quarrels?

<sup>15</sup> So I went ahead and took the top men of your tribes, wise and seasoned, and made them your leaders--leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens, officials adequate for each of your tribes.

<sup>16</sup> At the same time I gave orders to your judges: "Listen carefully to complaints and accusations between your fellow Israelites. Judge fairly between each person and his fellow or foreigner.

<sup>17</sup> Don't play favorites; treat the little and the big alike; listen carefully to each. Don't be impressed by big names. This is God's judgment you're dealing with. Hard cases you can bring to me; I'll deal with them."

<sup>18</sup> I issued orders to you at that time regarding everything you would have to deal with.

<sup>19</sup> Then we set out from Horeb and headed for the Amorite hill country, going through that huge and frightening wilderness that you've had more than an eyeful of by now--all under the command of GOD, our God--and finally arrived at Kadesh Barnea.

<sup>20</sup> There I told you, "You've made it to the Amorite hill country that GOD, our God, is giving us.

<sup>21</sup> Look, GOD, your God, has placed this land as a gift before you. Go ahead and take it now. GOD, the God-of-Your-Fathers, promised it to you. Don't be afraid. Don't lose heart."

<sup>22</sup> But then you all came to me and said, "Let's send some men on ahead to scout out the land for us and bring back a report on the best route to take and the kinds of towns we can expect to find."

<sup>23</sup> That seemed like a good idea to me, so I picked twelve men, one from each tribe.

<sup>24</sup> They set out, climbing through the hills. They came to the Eshcol Valley and looked it over.

<sup>25</sup> They took samples of the produce of the land and brought them back to us, saying, "It's a good land that GOD, our God, is giving us!"

<sup>26</sup> But then you weren't willing to go up. You rebelled against GOD, your God's plain word.

<sup>27</sup> You complained in your tents: "GOD hates us. He hauled us out of Egypt in order to dump us among the Amorites--a death sentence for sure!

<sup>28</sup> How can we go up? We're trapped in a dead end. Our brothers took all the wind out of our sails, telling us, 'The people are bigger and stronger than we are; their cities are huge, their defenses massive--we even saw Anakite giants there!'"

<sup>29</sup> I tried to relieve your fears: "Don't be terrified of them.

<sup>30</sup> GOD, your God, is leading the way; he's fighting for you. You saw with your own eyes what he did for you in Egypt;

<sup>31</sup> you saw what he did in the wilderness, how GOD, your God, carried you as a father carries his child, carried you the whole way until you arrived here.

<sup>32</sup> But now that you're here, you won't trust GOD, your God--

<sup>34</sup> When GOD heard what you said, he exploded in anger. He swore,

<sup>35</sup> "Not a single person of this evil generation is going to get so much as a look at the good land that I promised to give to your parents. Not one--

<sup>36</sup> except for Caleb son of Jephunneh. He'll see it. I'll give him and his descendants the land he walked on because he was all for following GOD, heart and soul."

<sup>37</sup> But I also got it. Because of you GOD's anger spilled over onto me. He said, "You aren't getting in either.

<sup>38</sup> Your assistant, Joshua son of Nun, will go in. Build up his courage. He's the one who will claim the inheritance for Israel.

<sup>39</sup> And your babies of whom you said, 'They'll be grabbed for plunder,' and all these little kids who right now don't even know right from wrong--they'll get in. I'll give it to them. Yes, they'll be the new owners.

<sup>40</sup> But not you. Turn around and head back into the wilderness following the route to the Red Sea."

<sup>41</sup> You spoke up, "We've sinned against GOD. We'll go up and fight, following all the orders that GOD, our God, has commanded." You took your weapons and dressed for battle--you thought it would be so easy going into those hills!

<sup>42</sup> But GOD told me, "Tell them, 'Don't do it; don't go up to fight--I'm not with you in this. Your enemies will waste you.'"

<sup>43</sup> I told you but you wouldn't listen. You rebelled at the plain word of GOD.

You threw out your chests and strutted into the hills.

<sup>44</sup> And those Amorites, who had lived in those hills all their lives, swarmed all over you like a hive of bees, chasing you from Seir all the way to Hormah, a stinging defeat.

<sup>45</sup> You came back and wept in the presence of GOD, but he didn't pay a bit of attention to you; GOD didn't give you the time of day.

<sup>46</sup> You stayed there in Kadesh a long time, about as long as you had stayed there earlier.

2<sup>1</sup> Then we turned around and went back into the wilderness following the route to the Red Sea, as GOD had instructed me. We worked our way in and around the hills of Seir for a long, long time.

<sup>4</sup> Command the people, You're about to cut through the land belonging to your relatives, the People of Esau who settled in Seir. They are terrified of you, but restrain yourselves.

<sup>5</sup> Don't try and start a fight. I am not giving you so much as a square inch of their land. I've already given all the hill country of Seir to Esau--he owns it all.

<sup>7</sup> GOD, your God, has blessed you in everything you have done. He has guarded you in your travels through this immense wilderness. For forty years now, GOD, your God, has been right here with you. You haven't lacked one thing.

<sup>8</sup> So we detoured around our brothers, the People of Esau who live in Seir, avoiding the Arabah Road that comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber; instead we used the road through the Wilderness of Moab.

<sup>9</sup> GOD told me, "And don't try to pick a fight with the Moabites. I am not giving you any of their land. I've given ownership of Ar to the People of Lot."

<sup>11</sup> Along with the Anakites they were lumped in with the Rephaites (Ghosts) but in Moab they were called Emites.

<sup>12</sup> Horites also used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau took over and destroyed them, the same as Israel did in the land GOD gave them to possess.

<sup>13</sup> GOD said, "It's time now to cross the Brook Zered." So we crossed the Brook Zered.

<sup>14</sup> It took us thirty-eight years to get from Kadesh Barnea to the Brook Zered.

That's how long it took for the entire generation of soldiers from the camp to die off, as GOD had sworn they would.

<sup>15</sup> GOD was relentless against them until the last one was gone from the camp.

<sup>16</sup> When the last of these soldiers had died,

<sup>17</sup> GOD said to me,

<sup>19</sup> When you approach the People of Ammon, don't try and pick a fight with them because I'm not giving you any of the land of the People of Ammon for yourselves--I've already given it to the People of Lot."

<sup>20</sup> It is also considered to have once been the land of the Rephaites.

Rephaites lived there long ago--the Ammonites called them Zamzummites (Barbarians)

<sup>21</sup> --huge mobs of them, giants like the Anakites. GOD destroyed them and the Ammonites moved in and took over.

<sup>22</sup> It was the same with the People of Esau who live in Seir--GOD got rid of the Horites who lived there earlier and they moved in and took over, as you can see.

<sup>23</sup> Regarding the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites who came from Caphtor (Crete) wiped them out and moved in.

<sup>24</sup> "On your feet now. Get started. Cross the Brook Arnon. Look: Here's Sihon the Amorite king of Heshbon and his land. I'm handing it over to you--it's all yours. Go ahead take it. Go to war with him.

<sup>28</sup> I'll pay you for any food or water we might need. Let me walk through.

<sup>29</sup> "The People of Esau who live in Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did this, helping me on my way until I can cross the Jordan and enter the land that GOD, our God, is giving us."

<sup>30</sup> But Sihon king of Heshbon wouldn't let us cross his land. GOD, your God, turned his spirit mean and his heart hard so he could hand him over to you, as you can see that he has done.

<sup>31</sup> Then GOD said to me, "Look, I've got the ball rolling--Sihon and his land are soon yours. Go ahead. Take it. It's practically yours!"

<sup>34</sup> While we were at it we captured all his towns and totally destroyed them, a holy destruction--men, women, and children. No survivors.

<sup>35</sup> We took the livestock and the plunder from the towns we had captured and carried them off for ourselves.

<sup>36</sup> From Aroer on the edge of the Brook Arnon and the town in the gorge, as far as Gilead, not a single town proved too much for us; GOD, our God, gave every last one of them to us.

of the People of Ammon, the land along the Jabbok and around the cities in the hills.

3<sup>1</sup> Then we turned north and took the road to Bashan. Og king of Bashan, he and all his people, came out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

<sup>2</sup> GOD said to me, "Don't be afraid of him; I'm turning him over to you, along with his whole army and his land. Treat him the way you treated Sihon king of the Amorites who ruled from Heshbon."

<sup>3</sup> So GOD, our God, also handed Og king of Bashan over to us--Og and all his people--and we utterly crushed them. Again, no survivors.

<sup>5</sup> All these cities were fortress cities with high walls and barred gates. There were also numerous unwalled villages.

<sup>6</sup> We totally destroyed them--a holy destruction. It was the same treatment we gave to Sihon king of Heshbon, a holy destruction of every city, man, woman, and child.

<sup>7</sup> But all the livestock and plunder from the cities we took for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> Throughout that time we took the land from under the control of the two kings of the Amorites who ruled the country east of the Jordan, all the way from the Brook Arnon to Mount Hermon.

<sup>10</sup> We took all the towns of the plateau, everything in Gilead, everything in Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, the border towns of Bashan, Og's kingdom.

<sup>11</sup> Og king of Bashan was the last remaining Rephaite. His bed, made of iron, was over thirteen feet long and six wide. You can still see it on display in Rabbah of the People of Ammon.

<sup>12</sup> Of the land that we possessed at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aroer along the Brook Arnon and half the hill country of Gilead with its towns.

<sup>13</sup> I gave the half-tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, Og's kingdom--all the region of Argob, which takes in all of Bashan. This used to be known as the Land of the Rephaites.

<sup>14</sup> Jair, a son of Manasseh, got the region of Argob to the borders of the Geshurites and Maacathites. He named the Bashan villages after himself, Havvoth Jair (Jair's Tent-Villages). They're still called that.

<sup>16</sup> I gave the Reubenites and Gadites the land from Gilead down to the Brook Arnon, whose middle was the boundary, and as far as the Jabbok River, the boundary line of the People of Ammon.

<sup>17</sup> The western boundary was the Jordan River in the Arabah all the way from the Kinnereth (the Sea of Galilee) to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea or Dead Sea) at the base of the slopes of Mount Pisgah on the east.

<sup>18</sup> I commanded you at that time, "GOD, your God, has given you this land to possess. Your men, fit and armed for the fight, are to cross the river in advance of their brothers, the People of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> Only your wives, children, and livestock (I know you have much livestock) may go ahead and settle down in the towns I have already given you

<sup>20</sup> until GOD secures living space for your brothers as he has for you and they have taken possession of the country west of the Jordan that GOD, your God, is giving them. After that, each man may return to the land I've given you here."

<sup>21</sup> I commanded Joshua at that time, "You've seen with your own two eyes everything GOD, your God, has done to these two kings. GOD is going to do the same thing to all the kingdoms over there across the river where you're headed.

<sup>23</sup> At that same time, I begged GOD:

<sup>24</sup> "GOD, my Master, you let me in on the beginnings, you let me see your greatness, you let me see your might--what god in Heaven or Earth can do anything like what you've done!

<sup>25</sup> Please, let me in also on the endings, let me cross the river and see the good land over the Jordan, the lush hills, the Lebanon mountains."

<sup>26</sup> But GOD was still angry with me because of you. He wouldn't listen. He said, "Enough of that. Not another word from you on this.

<sup>28</sup> "Then command Joshua: Give him courage. Give him strength. Single-handed he will lead this people across the river. Single-handed he'll cause them to inherit the land at which you can only look."

<sup>29</sup> That's why we have stayed in this valley near Beth Peor.

4 <sup>1</sup> Now listen, Israel, listen carefully to the rules and regulations that I am teaching you to follow so that you may live and enter and take possession of the land that GOD, the God-of-Your-Fathers, is giving to you.

<sup>2</sup> Don't add a word to what I command you, and don't remove a word from it. Keep the commands of GOD, your God, that I am commanding you.

<sup>3</sup> You saw with your own eyes what GOD did at Baal Peor, how GOD destroyed from among you every man who joined in the Baal Peor orgies.

<sup>4</sup> But you, the ones who held tight to GOD, your God, are alive and well, every one of you, today.

<sup>5</sup> Pay attention: I'm teaching you the rules and regulations that GOD commanded me, so that you may live by them in the land you are entering to take up ownership.

<sup>6</sup> Keep them. Practice them. You'll become wise and understanding. When people hear and see what's going on, they'll say, "What a great nation! So wise, so understanding! We've never seen anything like it."

<sup>7</sup> Yes. What other great nation has gods that are intimate with them the way GOD, our God, is with us, always ready to listen to us?

<sup>8</sup> And what other great nation has rules and regulations as good and fair as this Revelation that I'm setting before you today?

<sup>9</sup> Just make sure you stay alert. Keep close watch over yourselves. Don't forget anything of what you've seen. Don't let your heart wander off. Stay vigilant as long as you live. Teach what you've seen and heard to your children and grandchildren.

<sup>10</sup> That day when you stood before GOD, your God, at Horeb, GOD said to me, "Assemble the people in my presence to listen to my words so that they will learn to fear me in holy fear for as long as they live on the land, and then they will teach these same words to their children."

<sup>11</sup> You gathered. You stood in the shadow of the mountain. The mountain was ablaze with fire, blazing high into the very heart of Heaven. You stood in deep darkness and thick clouds.

<sup>12</sup> GOD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but you saw nothing--no form, only a voice.

<sup>13</sup> He announced his covenant, the Ten Words, by which he commanded you to live. Then he wrote them down on two slabs of stone.

<sup>14</sup> And GOD commanded me at that time to teach you the rules and regulations that you are to live by in the land which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.

<sup>15</sup> You saw no form on the day GOD spoke to you at Horeb from out of the fire. Remember that. Carefully guard yourselves

<sup>16</sup> so that you don't turn corrupt and make a form, carving a figure

<sup>17</sup> that looks male or female, or looks like a prowling animal or a flying bird

<sup>18</sup> or a slithering snake or a fish in a stream.

<sup>19</sup> And also carefully guard yourselves so that you don't look up into the skies and see the sun and moon and stars, all the constellations of the skies, and be seduced into worshiping and serving them. GOD set them out for everybody's benefit, everywhere.

<sup>20</sup> But you--GOD took you right out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to become the people of his inheritance--and that's what you are this very day.

<sup>21</sup> But GOD was angry with me because of you and the things you said. He swore that I'd never cross the Jordan, never get to enter the good land that GOD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>22</sup> This means that I am going to die here. I'm not crossing the Jordan. But you will cross; you'll possess the good land.

<sup>23</sup> So stay alert. Don't for a minute forget the covenant which GOD, your God, made with you. And don't take up with any carved images, no forms of any kind--GOD, your God, issued clear commands on that.

<sup>24</sup> GOD, your God, is not to be trifled with--he's a consuming fire, a jealous God.

<sup>25</sup> When the time comes that you have children and grandchildren, put on years, and start taking things for granted, if you then become corrupt and make any carved images, no matter what their form, by doing what is sheer evil in GOD's eyes and provoking his anger--

<sup>26</sup> I can tell you right now, with Heaven and Earth as witnesses, that it will be all over for you. You'll be kicked off the land that you're about to cross over the Jordan to possess. Believe me, you'll have a very short stay there. You'll be ruined, completely ruined.

<sup>27</sup> GOD will scatter you far and wide; a few of you will survive here and there in the nations where GOD will drive you.

<sup>28</sup> There you can worship your homemade gods to your hearts' content, your wonderful gods of wood and stone that can't see or hear or eat or smell.

<sup>29</sup> But even there, if you seek GOD, your God, you'll be able to find him if you're serious, looking for him with your whole heart and soul.

<sup>30</sup> When troubles come and all these awful things happen to you, in future days you will come back to GOD, your God, and listen obediently to what he says.

<sup>31</sup> GOD, your God, is above all a compassionate God. In the end he will not abandon you, he won't bring you to ruin, he won't forget the covenant with your ancestors which he swore to them.

<sup>32</sup> Ask questions. Find out what has been going on all these years before you were born. From the day God created man and woman on this Earth, and from the horizon in the east to the horizon in the west--as far back as you can imagine and as far away as you can imagine--has as great a thing as this ever happened? Has anyone ever heard of such a thing?

<sup>33</sup> Has a people ever heard, as you did, a god speaking out of the middle of the fire and lived to tell the story?

<sup>34</sup> Or has a god ever tried to select for himself a nation from within a nation using trials, miracles, and war, putting his strong hand in, reaching his long arm out, a spectacle awesome and staggering, the way GOD, your God, did it for you in Egypt while you stood right there and watched?

<sup>35</sup> You were shown all this so that you would know that GOD is, well, God. He's the only God there is. He's it.

<sup>36</sup> He made it possible for you to hear his voice out of Heaven to discipline you. Down on Earth, he showed you the big fire and again you heard his words, this time out of the fire.

<sup>37</sup> He loved your ancestors and chose to work with their children. He personally and powerfully brought you out of Egypt

<sup>38</sup> in order to displace bigger and stronger and older nations with you, bringing you out and turning their land over to you as an inheritance. And now it's happening. This very day.

<sup>39</sup> Know this well, then. Take it to heart right now: GOD is in Heaven above; GOD is on Earth below. He's the only God there is.

<sup>40</sup> Obediently live by his rules and commands which I'm giving you today so that you'll live well and your children after you--oh, you'll live a long time in the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>41</sup> Then Moses set aside three towns in the country on the east side of the Jordan

<sup>42</sup> to which someone who had unintentionally killed a person could flee and find refuge. If the murder was unintentional and there was no history of bad blood, the murderer could flee to one of these cities and save his life:

<sup>47</sup> and took his land. They also took the land of Og king of Bashan. The two Amorite kings held the country on the east of the Jordan

<sup>48</sup> from Aroer on the bank of the Brook Arnon as far north as Mount Siyon, that is, Mount Hermon, <sup>49</sup> all the Arabah plain east of the Jordan, and as far south as the Sea of the Arabah (the Dead Sea) beneath the slopes of Mount Pisgah.

5 <sup>1</sup> Moses called all Israel together. He said to them, Attention, Israel. Listen obediently to the rules and regulations I am delivering to your listening ears today. Learn them. Live them.

<sup>4</sup> GOD spoke to you personally out of the fire on the mountain.

<sup>5</sup> At the time I stood between GOD and you, to tell you what GOD said. You were afraid, remember, of the fire and wouldn't climb the mountain. He said:

<sup>6</sup> I am GOD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of a house of slaves.

<sup>9</sup> Don't bow down to them and don't serve them because I am GOD, your God, and I'm a most jealous God. I hold parents responsible for any sins they pass on to their children to the third, and yes, even to the fourth generation.

<sup>10</sup> But I'm lovingly loyal to the thousands who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>11</sup> No using the name of GOD, your God, in curses or silly banter; GOD won't put up with the irreverent use of his name.

<sup>12</sup> No working on the Sabbath; keep it holy just as GOD, your God, commanded you.

<sup>13</sup> Work six days, doing everything you have to do, <sup>14</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath, a Rest Day--no work: not you, your son, your daughter, your servant, your maid, your ox, your donkey (or any of your animals), and not even the foreigner visiting your town. That way your servants and maids will get the same rest as you.

<sup>15</sup> Don't ever forget that you were slaves in Egypt and GOD, your God, got you out of there in a powerful show of strength. That's why GOD, your God, commands you to observe the day of Sabbath rest.

<sup>16</sup> Respect your father and mother--GOD, your God, commands it! You'll have a long life; the land that God is giving you will treat you well.

<sup>21</sup> No coveting your neighbor's wife. And no lusting for his house, field, servant, maid, ox, or donkey either--nothing that belongs to your neighbor!

<sup>22</sup> These are the words that GOD spoke to the whole congregation at the mountain. He spoke in a tremendous voice from the fire and cloud and dark mist. And that was it. No more words. Then he wrote them on two slabs of stone and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup> As it turned out, when you heard the Voice out of that dark cloud and saw the mountain on fire, you approached me, all the heads of your tribes and your leaders,

<sup>24</sup> and said, "Our GOD has revealed to us his glory and greatness. We've heard him speak from the fire today! We've seen that God can speak to humans and they can still live.

<sup>25</sup> But why risk it further? This huge fire will devour us if we stay around any longer. If we hear GOD's voice anymore, we'll die for sure.

<sup>26</sup> Has anyone ever known of anyone who has heard the Voice of GOD the way we have and lived to tell the story?

<sup>27</sup> "From now on, you go and listen to what GOD, our God, says and then tell us what GOD tells you. We'll listen and we'll do it."

<sup>28</sup> GOD heard what you said to me and told me, "I've heard what the people said to you. They're right--good and true words.

<sup>29</sup> What I wouldn't give if they'd always feel this way, continuing to revere me and always keep all my commands; they'd have a good life forever, they and their children!

<sup>31</sup> But you, you stay here with me so I can tell you every commandment and all the rules and regulations that you must teach them so they'll know how to live in the land that I'm giving them as their own."

<sup>32</sup> So be very careful to act exactly as GOD commands you. Don't veer off to the right or the left.

<sup>33</sup> Walk straight down the road GOD commands so that you'll have a good life and live a long time in the land that you're about to possess.

6 <sup>1</sup> This is the commandment, the rules and regulations, that GOD, your God, commanded me to teach you to live out in the land you're about to cross into to possess.

<sup>2</sup> This is so that you'll live in deep reverence before GOD lifelong, observing all his rules and regulations that I'm commanding you, you and your children and your grandchildren, living good long lives.

<sup>4</sup> Attention, Israel! GOD, our God! GOD the one and only!

<sup>5</sup> Love GOD, your God, with your whole heart: love him with all that's in you, love him with all you've got!

<sup>6</sup> Write these commandments that I've given you today on your hearts. Get them inside of you <sup>7</sup> and then get them inside your children. Talk about them wherever you are, sitting at home or walking in the street; talk about them from the time you get up in the morning to when you fall into bed at night.

<sup>8</sup> Tie them on your hands and foreheads as a reminder;

<sup>9</sup> inscribe them on the doorposts of your homes and on your city gates.

<sup>10</sup> When GOD, your God, ushers you into the land he promised through your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give you, you're going to walk into large, bustling cities you didn't build,

<sup>11</sup> well-furnished houses you didn't buy, come upon wells you didn't dig, vineyards and olive orchards you didn't plant. When you take it all in and settle down, pleased and content, <sup>12</sup> make sure you don't forget how you got there--GOD brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> Deeply respect GOD, your God. Serve and worship him exclusively. Back up your promises with his name only.

<sup>14</sup> Don't fool around with other gods, the gods of your neighbors, <sup>15</sup> because GOD, your God, who is alive among you is a jealous God. Don't provoke him, igniting his hot anger that would burn you right off the face of the Earth.

<sup>16</sup> Don't push GOD, your God, to the wall as you did that day at Massah, the Testing-Place.

<sup>17</sup> Carefully keep the commands of GOD, your God, all the requirements and regulations he gave you.

<sup>18</sup> Do what is right; do what is good in GOD's sight so you'll live a good life and be able to march in and take this pleasant land that GOD so solemnly promised through your ancestors,

<sup>20</sup> The next time your child asks you, "What do these requirements and regulations and rules that GOD, our God, has commanded mean?"

<sup>21</sup> tell your child, "We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt and GOD powerfully intervened and got us out of that country.

<sup>22</sup> We stood there and watched as GOD delivered miracle-signs, great wonders, and evil-visitations on Egypt, on Pharaoh and his household.

<sup>23</sup> He pulled us out of there so he could bring us here and give us the land he so solemnly promised to our ancestors.

<sup>24</sup> That's why GOD commanded us to follow all these rules, so that we would live reverently before GOD, our God, as he gives us this good life, keeping us alive for a long time to come.

<sup>25</sup> "It will be a set-right and put-together life for us if we make sure that we do this entire commandment in the Presence of GOD, our God, just as he commanded us to do."

7 <sup>1</sup> When GOD, your God, brings you into the country that you are about to enter and take over, he will clear out the superpowers that were there before you: the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. Those seven nations are all bigger and stronger than you are.

<sup>2</sup> GOD, your God, will turn them over to you and you will conquer them. You must completely destroy them, offering them up as a holy destruction to GOD. Don't make a treaty with them. Don't let them off in any way.

<sup>3</sup> Don't marry them: Don't give your daughters to their sons and don't take their daughters for your sons--

<sup>4</sup> before you know it they'd involve you in worshiping their gods, and GOD would explode in anger, putting a quick end to you.

<sup>5</sup> Here's what you are to do: Tear apart their altars stone by stone, smash their phallic pillars, chop down their sex-and-religion Asherah groves, set fire to their carved god-images.

<sup>6</sup> Do this because you are a people set apart as holy to GOD, your God. GOD, your God, chose you out of all the people on Earth for himself as a cherished, personal treasure.

<sup>7</sup> GOD wasn't attracted to you and didn't choose you because you were big and important--the fact is, there was almost nothing to you.

<sup>8</sup> He did it out of sheer love, keeping the promise he made to your ancestors. GOD stepped in and mightily bought you back out of that world of slavery, freed you from the iron grip of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> Know this: GOD, your God, is God indeed, a God you can depend upon. He keeps his covenant of loyal love with those who love him and observe his commandments for a thousand generations.

<sup>10</sup> But he also pays back those who hate him, pays them the wages of death; he isn't slow to pay them off--those who hate him, he pays right on time.

<sup>11</sup> So keep the command and the rules and regulations that I command you today. Do them.

<sup>12</sup> And this is what will happen: When you, on your part, will obey these directives, keeping and following them,

GOD, on his part, will keep the covenant of loyal love that he made with your ancestors:

<sup>13</sup> He will love you, he will bless you, he will increase you. He will bless the babies from your womb and the harvest of grain, new wine, and oil from your fields; he'll bless the calves from your herds and lambs from your flocks in the country he promised your ancestors that he'd give you.

<sup>14</sup> You'll be blessed beyond all other peoples: no sterility or barrenness in you or your animals.

<sup>15</sup> GOD will get rid of all sickness. And all the evil afflictions you experienced in Egypt he'll put not on you but on those who hate you.

<sup>16</sup> You'll make mincemeat of all the peoples that GOD, your God, hands over to you. Don't feel sorry for them. And don't worship their gods--they'll trap you for sure.

<sup>17</sup> You're going to think to yourselves, "Oh! We're outnumbered ten to one by these nations! We'll never even make a dent in them!"

<sup>18</sup> But I'm telling you, Don't be afraid. Remember, yes, remember in detail what GOD, your God, did to Pharaoh and all Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> Remember the great contests to which you were eyewitnesses: the miracle-signs, the wonders, GOD's mighty hand as he stretched out his arm and took you out of there. GOD, your God, is going to do the same thing to these people you're now so afraid of.

<sup>20</sup> And to top it off, the Hornet. GOD will unleash the Hornet on them until every survivor-in-hiding is dead.

<sup>21</sup> So don't be intimidated by them. GOD, your God, is among you--GOD majestic, GOD awesome.

<sup>22</sup> GOD, your God, will get rid of these nations, bit by bit. You won't be permitted to wipe them out all at once lest the wild animals take over and overwhelm you.

<sup>23</sup> But GOD, your God, will move them out of your way--he'll throw them into a huge panic until there's nothing left of them.

<sup>24</sup> He'll turn their kings over to you and you'll remove all trace of them under Heaven. Not one person will be able to stand up to you; you'll put an end to them all.

<sup>25</sup> Make sure you set fire to their carved gods. Don't get greedy for the veneer of silver and gold on them and take it for yourselves--you'll get trapped by it for sure. GOD hates it; it's an abomination to GOD, your God.

<sup>26</sup> And don't dare bring one of these abominations home or you'll end up just like it, burned up as a holy destruction. No: It is forbidden! Hate it. Abominate it. Destroy it and preserve GOD's holiness.

8 <sup>1</sup> Keep and live out the entire commandment that I'm commanding you today so that you'll live and prosper and enter and own the land that GOD promised to your ancestors.

<sup>2</sup> Remember every road that GOD led you on for those forty years in the wilderness, pushing you to your limits, testing you so that he would know what you were made of, whether you would keep his commandments or not.

<sup>3</sup> He put you through hard times. He made you go hungry. Then he fed you with manna, something neither you nor your parents knew anything about, so you would learn that men and women don't live by bread only; we live by every word that comes from GOD's mouth.

<sup>5</sup> You learned deep in your heart that GOD disciplines you in the same ways a father disciplines his child.

<sup>6</sup> So it's paramount that you keep the commandments of GOD, your God, walk down the roads he shows you and reverently respect him.

<sup>7</sup> GOD is about to bring you into a good land, a land with brooks and rivers, springs and lakes, streams out of the hills and through the valleys.

<sup>8</sup> It's a land of wheat and barley, of vines and figs and pomegranates, of olives, oil, and honey.

<sup>9</sup> It's land where you'll never go hungry--always food on the table and a roof over your head. It's a land where you'll get iron out of rocks and mine copper from the hills.

<sup>10</sup> After a meal, satisfied, bless GOD, your God, for the good land he has given you.

<sup>12</sup> Make sure that when you eat and are satisfied, build pleasant houses and settle in,

<sup>13</sup> see your herds and flocks flourish and more and more money come in, watch your standard of living going up and up--

<sup>14</sup> make sure you don't become so full of yourself and your things that you forget GOD, your God, the God who delivered you from Egyptian slavery;

<sup>15</sup> the God who led you through that huge and fearsome wilderness, those desolate, arid badlands crawling with fiery snakes and scorpions; the God who gave you water gushing from hard rock;

<sup>16</sup> the God who gave you manna to eat in the wilderness, something your ancestors had never heard of, in order to give you a taste of the hard life, to test you so that you would be prepared to live well in the days ahead of you.

<sup>17</sup> If you start thinking to yourselves, "I did all this. And all by myself. I'm rich. It's all mine!"--

<sup>18</sup> well, think again. Remember that GOD, your God, gave you the strength to produce all this wealth so as to confirm the covenant that he promised to your ancestors--as it is today.

<sup>19</sup> If you forget, forget GOD, your God, and start taking up with other gods, serving and worshiping them, I'm on record right now as giving you firm warning: that will be the end of you; I mean it--destruction.

<sup>20</sup> You'll go to your doom--the same as the nations GOD is destroying before you; doom because you wouldn't obey the Voice of GOD, your God.

9 <sup>1</sup> Attention, Israel! This very day you are crossing the Jordan to enter the land and dispossess nations that are much bigger and stronger than you are. You're going to find huge cities with sky-high fortress-walls and

<sup>2</sup> gigantic people, descendants of the Anakites--you've heard all about them; you've heard the saying, "No one can stand up to an Anakite."

<sup>3</sup> Today know this: GOD, your God, is crossing the river ahead of you--he's a consuming fire. He will destroy the nations, he will put them under your power. You will dispossess them and very quickly wipe them out, just as GOD promised you would.

<sup>4</sup> But when GOD pushes them out ahead of you, don't start thinking to yourselves, "It's because of all the good I've done that GOD has brought me in here to dispossess these nations." Actually it's because of all the evil these nations have done.

<sup>5</sup> No, it's nothing good that you've done, no record for decency that you've built up, that got you here; it's because of the vile wickedness of these nations that GOD, your God, is dispossessing them before you so that he can keep his promised word to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>6</sup> Know this and don't ever forget it: It's not because of any good that you've done that GOD is giving you this good land to own. Anything but! You're stubborn as mules.

<sup>7</sup> Keep in mind and don't ever forget how angry you made GOD, your God, in the wilderness. You've kicked and screamed against GOD from the day you left Egypt until you got to this place, rebels all the way.

<sup>8</sup> You made GOD angry at Horeb, made him so angry that he wanted to destroy you.

<sup>9</sup> When I climbed the mountain to receive the slabs of stone, the tablets of the covenant that GOD made with you, I stayed there on the mountain forty days and nights: I ate no food; I drank no water.

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD gave me the two slabs of stone, engraved with the finger of God. They contained word for word everything that GOD spoke to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.

<sup>11</sup> It was at the end of the forty days and nights that GOD gave me the two slabs of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup> GOD said to me, "Get going, and quickly. Get down there, because your people whom you led out of Egypt have ruined everything. In almost no time at all they have left the road that I laid out for them and gone off and made for themselves a cast god."

<sup>13</sup> GOD said, "I look at this people and all I see are hardheaded, hardhearted rebels.

<sup>14</sup> Get out of my way now so I can destroy them. I'm going to wipe them off the face of the map. Then I'll start over with you to make a nation far better and bigger than they could ever be."

<sup>15</sup> I turned around and started down the mountain--by now the mountain was blazing with fire--carrying the two tablets of the covenant in my two arms.

<sup>16</sup> That's when I saw it: There you were, sinning against GOD, your God--you had made yourselves a cast god in the shape of a calf! So soon you had left the road that GOD had commanded you to walk on.

<sup>17</sup> I held the two stone slabs high and threw them down, smashing them to bits as you watched.

<sup>18</sup> Then I prostrated myself before GOD, just as I had at the beginning of the forty days and nights. I ate no food; I drank no water. I did this because of you, all your sins, sinning against GOD, doing what is evil in GOD's eyes and making him angry.

<sup>19</sup> I was terrified of GOD's furious anger, his blazing anger. I was sure he would destroy you. But once again GOD listened to me.

<sup>20</sup> And Aaron! How furious he was with Aaron--ready to destroy him. But I prayed also for Aaron at that same time.

<sup>21</sup> But that sin-thing that you made, that calf-god, I took and burned in the fire, pounded and ground it until it was crushed into a fine powder, then threw it into the stream that comes down the mountain.

<sup>22</sup> And then there was Camp Taberah (Blaze), Massah (Testing-Place), and Camp Kibroth Hattaavah (Graves-of-the-Craving)--more occasions when you made God furious with you.

<sup>23</sup> The most recent was when GOD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea, ordering you: "Go. Possess the land that I'm giving you." And what did you do? You rebelled. Rebelled against the clear orders of GOD, your God. Refused to trust him. Wouldn't obey him.

<sup>25</sup> When I was on my face, prostrate before GOD those forty days and nights after GOD said he would destroy you, <sup>26</sup> I prayed to GOD for you, "My Master, GOD, don't destroy your people, your inheritance whom, in your immense generosity, you redeemed, using your enormous strength to get them out of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> "Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; don't make too much of the stubbornness of this people, their evil and their sin,

<sup>28</sup> lest the Egyptians from whom you rescued them say, 'GOD couldn't do it; he got tired and wasn't able to take them to the land he promised them. He ended up hating them and dumped them in the wilderness to die.'

<sup>29</sup> "They are your people still, your inheritance whom you powerfully and sovereignly rescued."

10 <sup>1</sup> GOD responded. He said, "Shape two slabs of stone similar to the first ones. Climb the mountain and meet me. Also make yourself a wooden chest.

<sup>2</sup> I will engrave the stone slabs with the words that were on the first ones, the ones you smashed. Then you will put them in the Chest."

<sup>3</sup> So I made a chest out of acacia wood, shaped two slabs of stone, just like the first ones, and climbed the mountain with the two slabs in my arms.

<sup>4</sup> He engraved the stone slabs the same as he had the first ones, the Ten Words that he addressed to you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly. Then GOD gave them to me.

<sup>5</sup> I turned around and came down the mountain. I put the stone slabs in the Chest that I made and they've been there ever since, just as GOD commanded me.

<sup>6</sup> The People of Israel went from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. Aaron died there and was buried. His son Eleazar succeeded him as priest.

<sup>7</sup> From there they went to Gudgodah, and then to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water.

<sup>8</sup> That's when GOD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry GOD's Covenant Chest, to be on duty in the Presence of GOD, to serve him, and to bless in his name, as they continue to do today.

<sup>9</sup> And that's why Levites don't have a piece of inherited land as their kinsmen do. GOD is their inheritance, as GOD, your God, promised them.

<sup>10</sup> I stayed there on the mountain forty days and nights, just as I did the first time. And GOD listened to me, just as he did the first time: GOD decided not to destroy you.

<sup>11</sup> GOD told me, "Now get going. Lead your people as they resume the journey to take possession of the land that I promised their ancestors that I'd give to them."

<sup>12</sup> So now Israel, what do you think GOD expects from you? Just this: Live in his presence in holy reverence, follow the road he sets out for you, love him, serve GOD, your God, with everything you have in you, <sup>13</sup> obey the commandments and regulations of GOD that I'm commanding you today--live a good life.

<sup>14</sup> Look around you: Everything you see is GOD's--the heavens above and beyond, the Earth, and everything on it.

<sup>15</sup> But it was your ancestors that GOD fell in love with; he picked their children--that's [you]!--out of all the other peoples. That's where we are right now.

<sup>16</sup> So cut away the thick calluses from your heart and stop being so willfully hardheaded.

<sup>17</sup> GOD, your God, is the God of all gods, he's the Master of all masters, a God immense and powerful and awesome. He doesn't play favorites, takes no bribes, <sup>18</sup> makes sure orphans and widows are treated fairly, takes loving care of foreigners by seeing that they get food and clothing.

<sup>19</sup> You must treat foreigners with the same loving care--remember, you were once foreigners in Egypt.

<sup>20</sup> Reverently respect GOD, your God, serve him, hold tight to him, back up your promises with the authority of his name.

<sup>21</sup> He's your praise! He's your God! He did all these tremendous, these staggering things that you saw with your own eyes.

<sup>22</sup> When your ancestors entered Egypt, they numbered a mere seventy souls. And now look at you--you look more like the stars in the night skies in number. And your GOD did it.

11 <sup>1</sup> So love GOD, your God; guard well his rules and regulations; obey his commandments for the rest of time.

<sup>3</sup> that he let loose in Egypt on Pharaoh king of Egypt and all his land, them in the waters of the Red Sea as they pursued you. GOD drowned them. And you're standing here today alive.

<sup>5</sup> Nor was it your children who saw how GOD took care of you in the wilderness up until the time you arrived here, <sup>6</sup> what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how the Earth opened its jaws and swallowed them with their families--their tents, and everything around them--right out of the middle of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> Yes, it was you--your eyes--that saw every great thing that GOD did.

<sup>8</sup> So it's you who are in charge of keeping the entire commandment that I command you today so that you'll have the strength to invade and possess the land that you are crossing the river to make your own.

<sup>9</sup> Your obedience will give you a long life on the soil that GOD promised to give your ancestors and their children, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>10</sup> The land you are entering to take up ownership isn't like Egypt, the land you left, where you had to plant your own seed and water it yourselves as in a vegetable garden.

<sup>11</sup> But the land you are about to cross the river and take for your own is a land of mountains and valleys; it drinks water that rains from the sky.

<sup>12</sup> It's a land that GOD, your God, personally tends--he's the gardener--he alone keeps his eye on it all year long.

<sup>13</sup> From now on if you listen obediently to the commandments that I am commanding you today, love GOD, your God, and serve him with everything you have within you,

<sup>14</sup> he'll take charge of sending the rain at the right time, both autumn and spring rains, so that you'll be able to harvest your grain, your grapes, your olives.

<sup>15</sup> He'll make sure there's plenty of grass for your animals. You'll have plenty to eat.

<sup>16</sup> But be vigilant, lest you be seduced away and end up serving and worshiping other gods

<sup>17</sup> and GOD erupts in anger and shuts down Heaven so there's no rain and nothing grows in the fields, and in no time at all you're starved out--not a trace of you left on the good land that GOD is giving you.

<sup>18</sup> Place these words on your hearts. Get them deep inside you. Tie them on your hands and foreheads as a reminder.

<sup>19</sup> Teach them to your children. Talk about them wherever you are, sitting at home or walking in the street; talk about them from the time you get up in the morning until you fall into bed at night.

<sup>21</sup> so that you'll live a long time, and your children with you, on the soil that GOD promised to give your ancestors for as long as there is a sky over the Earth.

<sup>22</sup> That's right. If you diligently keep all this commandment that I command you to obey--love GOD, your God, do what he tells you, stick close to him--

<sup>23</sup> GOD on his part will drive out all these nations that stand in your way. Yes, he'll drive out nations much bigger and stronger than you.

<sup>24</sup> Every square inch on which you place your foot will be yours. Your borders will stretch from the wilderness to the mountains of Lebanon, from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>25</sup> No one will be able to stand in your way. Everywhere you go, GOD-sent fear and trembling will precede you, just as he promised.

<sup>26</sup> I've brought you today to the crossroads of Blessing and Curse.

<sup>27</sup> The Blessing: if you listen obediently to the commandments of GOD, your God, which I command you today.

<sup>28</sup> The Curse: if you don't pay attention to the commandments of GOD, your God, but leave the road that I command you today, following other gods of which you know nothing.

<sup>29</sup> Here's what comes next: When GOD, your God, brings you into the land you are going into to make your own, you are to give out the Blessing from Mount Gerizim and the Curse from Mount Ebal.

<sup>30</sup> After you cross the Jordan River, follow the road to the west through Canaanite settlements in the valley near Gilgal and the Oaks of Moreh.

<sup>31</sup> You are crossing the Jordan River to invade and take the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>32</sup> Be vigilant. Observe all the regulations and rules I am setting before you today.

12 <sup>1</sup> These are the rules and regulations that you must diligently observe for as long as you live in this country that GOD, the God-of-Your-Fathers, has given you to possess.

<sup>4</sup> Stay clear of those places--don't let what went on there contaminate the worship of GOD, your God.

<sup>5</sup> Instead find the site that GOD, your God, will choose and mark it with his name as a common center for all the tribes of Israel. Assemble there.

<sup>6</sup> Bring to that place your Absolution-Offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and Tribute-Offerings, your Vow-Offerings, your Freewill-Offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

<sup>7</sup> Feast there in the Presence of GOD, your God. Celebrate everything that you and your families have accomplished under the blessing of GOD, your God.

<sup>8</sup> Don't continue doing things the way we're doing them at present, each of us doing as we wish.

<sup>9</sup> Until now you haven't arrived at the goal, the resting place, the inheritance that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>10</sup> But the minute you cross the Jordan River and settle into the land GOD, your God, is enabling you to inherit, he'll give you rest from all your surrounding enemies. You'll be able to settle down and live in safety.

<sup>11</sup> From then on, at the place that GOD, your God, chooses to mark with his name as the place where you can meet him, bring everything that I command you: your Absolution-Offerings and sacrifices, tithes and Tribute-Offerings, and the best of your Vow-Offerings that you vow to GOD.

<sup>12</sup> Celebrate there in the Presence of GOD, your God, you and your sons and daughters, your servants and maids, including the Levite living in your neighborhood because he has no place of his own in your inheritance.

<sup>13</sup> Be extra careful: Don't offer your Absolution-Offerings just any place that strikes your fancy.

<sup>14</sup> Offer your Absolution-Offerings only in the place that GOD chooses in one of your tribal regions. There and only there are you to bring all that I command you.

<sup>15</sup> It's permissible to slaughter your nonsacrificial animals like gazelle and deer in your towns and eat all you want from them with the blessing of GOD, your God. Both the ritually clean and unclean may eat.

<sup>16</sup> But you may not eat the blood. Pour the blood out on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup> Nor may you eat there the tithe of your grain, new wine, or olive oil; nor the firstborn of your herds and flocks; nor any of the Vow-Offerings that you vow; nor your Freewill-Offerings and Tribute-Offerings.

<sup>18</sup> All these you must eat in the Presence of GOD, your God, in the place GOD, your God, chooses--you, your son and daughter, your servant and maid, and the Levite who lives in your neighborhood. You are to celebrate in the Presence of GOD, your God, all the things you've been able to accomplish.

<sup>19</sup> And make sure that for as long as you live on your land you never, never neglect the Levite.

<sup>20</sup> When GOD, your God, expands your territory as he promised he would do, and you say, "I'm hungry for meat," because you happen to be craving meat at the time, go ahead and eat as much meat as you want.

<sup>21</sup> If you're too far away from the place that GOD, your God, has marked with his name, it's all right to slaughter animals from your herds and flocks that GOD has given you, as I've commanded you. In your own towns you may eat as much of them as you want.

<sup>26</sup> And this: Lift high your Holy-Offerings and your Vow-Offerings and bring them to the place GOD designates.

<sup>27</sup> Sacrifice your Absolution-Offerings, the meat and blood, on the Altar of GOD, your God; pour out the blood of the Absolution-Offering on the Altar of GOD, your God; then you can go ahead and eat the meat.

<sup>28</sup> Be vigilant, listen obediently to these words that I command you so that you'll have a good life, you and your children, for a long, long time, doing what is good and right in the eyes of GOD, your God.

<sup>29</sup> When GOD, your God, cuts off the nations whose land you are invading, shoves them out of your way so that you displace them and settle in their land,

<sup>31</sup> Don't do this to GOD, your God. They commit every imaginable abomination with their gods. GOD hates it all with a passion. Why, they even set their children on fire as offerings to their gods!

<sup>32</sup> Diligently do everything I command you, the way I command you: don't add to it; don't subtract from it.

13 <sup>1</sup> When a prophet or visionary gets up in your community and gives out a miracle-sign or wonder,

<sup>2</sup> and the miracle-sign or wonder that he gave out happens and he says, "Let's follow other gods" (these are gods you know nothing about), "let's worship them,"

<sup>3</sup> don't pay any attention to what that prophet or visionary says. GOD, your God, is testing you to find out if you totally love him with everything you have in you.

<sup>4</sup> You are to follow only GOD, your God, hold him in deep reverence, keep his commandments, listen obediently to what he says, serve him--hold on to him for dear life!

<sup>5</sup> And that prophet or visionary must be put to death. He has urged mutiny against GOD, your God, who rescued you from Egypt, who redeemed you from a world of slavery and put you on the road on which GOD, your God, has commanded you to walk. Purge the evil from your company.

<sup>6</sup> And when your brother or son or daughter, or even your dear wife or lifelong friend, comes to you in secret and whispers, "Let's go and worship some other gods" (gods that you know nothing about, neither you nor your ancestors, <sup>7</sup> the gods of the peoples around you near and far, from one end of the Earth to the other),

<sup>8</sup> don't go along with him; shut your ears. Don't feel sorry for him and don't make excuses for him.

<sup>10</sup> Stone him with stones so that he dies. He tried to turn you traitor against GOD, your God, the one who got you out of Egypt and the world of slavery.

<sup>11</sup> Every man, woman, and child in Israel will hear what's been done and be in awe. No one will dare to do an evil thing like this again.

<sup>12</sup> When word comes in from one of your cities that GOD, your God, is giving you to live in,

<sup>13</sup> reporting that evil men have gotten together with some of the citizens of the city and have broken away, saying, "Let's go and worship other gods" (gods you know nothing about),

<sup>14</sup> then you must conduct a careful examination. Ask questions, investigate. If it turns out that the report is true and this abomination did in fact take place in your community, <sup>15</sup> you must execute the citizens of that town. Kill them, setting that city apart for holy destruction: the city and everything in it including its animals.

<sup>16</sup> Gather the plunder in the middle of the town square and burn it all--town and plunder together up in smoke, a holy sacrifice to GOD, your God. Leave it there, ashes and ruins. Don't build on that site again.

<sup>17</sup> And don't let any of the plunder devoted to holy destruction stick to your fingers. Get rid of it so that GOD may turn from anger to compassion, generously making you prosper, just as he promised your ancestors.

<sup>18</sup> Yes. Obediently listen to GOD, your God. Keep all his commands that I am giving you today. Do the right thing in the eyes of GOD, your God.

14 <sup>1</sup> You are children of GOD, your God, so don't mutilate your bodies or shave your heads in funeral rites for the dead.

<sup>2</sup> You only are a people holy to GOD, your God; GOD chose you out of all the people on Earth as his cherished personal treasure.

<sup>6</sup> any animal that has a cloven hoof and chews the cud.

<sup>7</sup> But you may not eat camels, rabbits, and rock badgers because they chew the cud but they don't have a cloven hoof--that makes them ritually unclean.

<sup>9</sup> This is what you may eat from the water: anything that has fins and scales.

<sup>10</sup> But if it doesn't have fins or scales, you may not eat it. It's ritually unclean.

<sup>21</sup> Because you are a people holy to GOD, your God, don't eat anything that you find dead. You can, though, give it to a foreigner in your neighborhood for a meal or sell it to a foreigner. Don't boil a kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>22</sup> Make an offering of ten percent, a tithe, of all the produce which grows in your fields year after year.

<sup>23</sup> Bring this into the Presence of GOD, your God, at the place he designates for worship and there eat the tithe from your grain, wine, and oil and the firstborn from your herds and flocks. In this way you will learn to live in deep reverence before GOD, your God, as long as you live.

<sup>24</sup> But if the place GOD, your God, designates for worship is too far away and you can't carry your tithe that far, GOD, your God, will still bless you:

<sup>25</sup> exchange your tithe for money and take the money to the place GOD, your God, has chosen to be worshiped.

<sup>26</sup> Use the money to buy anything you want: cattle, sheep, wine, or beer--anything that looks good to you. You and your family can then feast in the Presence of GOD, your God, and have a good time.

<sup>27</sup> Meanwhile, don't forget to take good care of the Levites who live in your towns; they won't get any property or inheritance of their own as you will.

<sup>29</sup> Keep it in reserve for the Levite who won't get any property or inheritance as you will, and for the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow who live in your neighborhood. That way they'll have plenty to eat and GOD, your God, will bless you in all your work.

15 <sup>1</sup> At the end of every seventh year, cancel all debts.

<sup>2</sup> This is the procedure: Everyone who has lent money to a neighbor writes it off. You must not press your neighbor or his brother for payment: All-Debts-Are-Canceled--GOD says so.

<sup>3</sup> You may collect payment from foreigners, but whatever you have lent to your fellow Israelite you must write off.

<sup>4</sup> There must be no poor people among you because GOD is going to bless you lavishly in this land that GOD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance, your very own land.

<sup>5</sup> But only if you listen obediently to the Voice of GOD, your God, diligently observing every commandment that I command you today.

<sup>6</sup> Oh yes--GOD, your God, will bless you just as he promised. You will lend to many nations but won't borrow from any; you'll rule over many nations but none will rule over you.

<sup>7</sup> When you happen on someone who's in trouble or needs help among your people with whom you live in this land that GOD, your God, is giving you, don't look the other way pretending you don't see him. Don't keep a tight grip on your purse.

<sup>8</sup> No. Look at him, open your purse, lend whatever and as much as he needs.

<sup>9</sup> Don't count the cost. Don't listen to that selfish voice saying, "It's almost the seventh year, the year of All-Debts-Are-Canceled," and turn aside and leave your needy neighbor in the lurch, refusing to help him. He'll call GOD's attention to you and your blatant sin.

<sup>10</sup> Give freely and spontaneously. Don't have a stingy heart. The way you handle matters like this triggers GOD, your God's, blessing in everything you do, all your work and ventures.

<sup>11</sup> There are always going to be poor and needy people among you. So I command you: Always be generous, open purse and hands, give to your neighbors in trouble, your poor and hurting neighbors.

<sup>12</sup> If a Hebrew man or Hebrew woman was sold to you and has served you for six years, in the seventh year you must set him or her free, released into a free life.

<sup>13</sup> And when you set them free don't send them off empty-handed.

<sup>14</sup> Provide them with some animals, plenty of bread and wine and oil. Load them with provisions from all the blessings with which GOD, your God, has blessed you.

<sup>15</sup> Don't for a minute forget that you were once slaves in Egypt and GOD, your God, redeemed you from that slave world. For that reason, this day I command you to do this.

<sup>16</sup> But if your slave, because he loves you and your family and has a good life with you, says, "I don't want to leave you,"

<sup>17</sup> then take an awl and pierce through his earlobe into the doorpost, marking him as your slave forever. Do the same with your women slaves who want to stay with you.

<sup>18</sup> Don't consider this an unreasonable hardship, this setting your slave free. After all, he's worked six years for you at half the cost of a hired hand. Believe me, GOD, your God, will bless you in everything you do.

<sup>19</sup> Consecrate to GOD, your God, all the firstborn males in your herds and flocks. Don't use the firstborn from your herds as work animals; don't shear the firstborn from your flocks.

<sup>20</sup> These are for you to eat every year, you and your family, in the Presence of GOD, your God, at the place that GOD designates for worship.

<sup>21</sup> If the animal is defective, lame, say, or blind--anything wrong with it--don't slaughter it as a sacrifice to GOD, your God.

<sup>22</sup> Stay at home and eat it there. Both the ritually clean and unclean may eat it, the same as with a gazelle or a deer.

<sup>23</sup> Only you must not eat its blood. Pour the blood out on the ground like water.

16 <sup>1</sup> Observe the month of Abib by celebrating the Passover to GOD, your God. It was in the month of Abib that GOD, your God, delivered you by night from Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> Offer the Passover-Sacrifice to GOD, your God, at the place GOD chooses to be worshiped by establishing his name there.

<sup>3</sup> Don't eat yeast bread with it; for seven days eat it with unraised bread, hard-times bread, because you left Egypt in a hurry--that bread will keep the memory fresh of how you left Egypt for as long as you live.

<sup>4</sup> There is to be no sign of yeast anywhere for seven days. And don't let any of the meat that you sacrifice in the evening be left over until morning.

<sup>5</sup> Don't sacrifice the Passover in any of the towns that GOD, your God, gives you

<sup>6</sup> other than the one GOD, your God, designates for worship; there and there only you will offer the Passover-Sacrifice at evening as the sun goes down, marking the time that you left Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> Boil and eat it at the place designated by GOD, your God. Then, at daybreak, turn around and go home.

<sup>8</sup> Eat unraised bread for six days. Set aside the seventh day as a holiday; don't do any work.

<sup>10</sup> Celebrate the Feast-of-Weeks to GOD, your God, by bringing your Freewill-Offering--give as generously as GOD, your God, has blessed you.

<sup>11</sup> Rejoice in the Presence of GOD, your God: you, your son, your daughter, your servant, your maid, the Levite who lives in your neighborhood, the foreigner, the orphan and widow among you; rejoice at the place GOD, your God, will set aside to be worshiped.

<sup>12</sup> Don't forget that you were once a slave in Egypt. So be diligent in observing these regulations.

<sup>13</sup> Observe the Feast-of-Booths for seven days when you gather the harvest from your threshing-floor and your wine-vat.

<sup>14</sup> Rejoice at your festival: you, your son, your daughter, your servant, your maid, the Levite, the foreigner, and the orphans and widows who live in your neighborhood.

<sup>15</sup> Celebrate the Feast to GOD, your God, for seven days at the place GOD designates. GOD, your God, has been blessing you in your harvest and in all your work, so make a day of it--really celebrate!

<sup>16</sup> All your men must appear before GOD, your God, three times each year at the place he designates: at the Feast-of-Unraised-Bread (Passover), at the Feast-of-Weeks, and at the Feast-of-Booths. No one is to show up in the Presence of GOD empty-handed;

<sup>17</sup> each man must bring as much as he can manage, giving generously in response to the blessings of GOD, your God.

<sup>18</sup> Appoint judges and officers, organized by tribes, in all the towns that GOD, your God, is giving you. They are to judge the people fairly and honestly.

really live and possess the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>21</sup> Don't plant fertility Asherah trees alongside the Altar of GOD, your God, that you build.

<sup>22</sup> Don't set up phallic sex pillars--GOD, your God, hates them.

17 <sup>1</sup> And don't sacrifice to GOD, your God, an ox or sheep that is defective or has anything at all wrong with it. That's an abomination, an insult to GOD, your God.

<sup>2</sup> If you find anyone within the towns that GOD, your God, is giving you doing what is wrong in GOD's eyes, breaking his covenant

<sup>3</sup> by going off to worship other gods, bowing down to them--the sun, say, or the moon, or any rebel sky-gods--

<sup>4</sup> look at the evidence and investigate carefully. If you find that it is true, that, in fact, an abomination has been committed in Israel, <sup>5</sup> then you are to take the man or woman who did this evil thing outside your city gates and stone the man or the woman. Hurl stones at the person until dead.

<sup>6</sup> But only on the testimony of two or three witnesses may a person be put to death. No one may be put to death on the testimony of one witness.

<sup>7</sup> The witnesses must throw the first stones in the execution, then the rest of the community joins in. You have to purge the evil from your community.

<sup>8</sup> When matters of justice come up that are too much for you--hard cases regarding homicides, legal disputes, fights--take them up to the central place of worship that GOD, your God, has designated.

<sup>9</sup> Bring them to the Levitical priests and the judge who is in office at the time. Consult them and they will hand down the decision for you.

<sup>10</sup> Then carry out their verdict at the place designated by GOD, your God. Do what they tell you, in exactly the way they tell you.

<sup>12</sup> Anyone who presumes to override or twist the decision handed down by the priest or judge who was acting in the Presence of GOD, your God, is as good as dead--root him out, rid Israel of the evil.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone will take notice and be impressed. That will put an end to presumptuous behavior.

<sup>14</sup> When you enter the land that GOD, your God, is giving you and take it over and settle down, and then say, "I'm going to get me a king, a king like all the nations around me,"

<sup>15</sup> make sure you get yourself a king whom GOD, your God, chooses. Choose your king from among your kinsmen; don't take a foreigner--only a kinsman.

<sup>16</sup> And make sure he doesn't build up a war machine, amassing military horses and chariots. He must not send people to Egypt to get more horses, because GOD told you, "You'll never go back there again!"

<sup>17</sup> And make sure he doesn't build up a harem, collecting wives who will divert him from the straight and narrow. And make sure he doesn't pile up a lot of silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup> This is what must be done: When he sits down on the throne of his kingdom, the first thing he must do is make himself a copy of this Revelation on a scroll, copied under the supervision of the Levitical priests.

<sup>19</sup> That scroll is to remain at his side at all times; he is to study it every day so that he may learn what it means to fear his GOD, living in reverent obedience before these rules and regulations by following them.

<sup>20</sup> He must not become proud and arrogant, changing the commands at whim to suit himself or making up his own versions. If he reads and learns, he will have a long reign as king in Israel, he and his sons.

18 <sup>1</sup> The Levitical priests--that's the entire tribe of Levi--don't get any land-inheritance with the rest of Israel. They get the Fire-Gift-Offerings of GOD--they will live on that inheritance.

<sup>4</sup> You must also give them the firstfruits of your grain, wine, and oil and the first fleece of your sheep, <sup>5</sup> because GOD, your God, has chosen only them and their children out of all your tribes to be present and serve always in the name of GOD, your God.

<sup>6</sup> If a Levite moves from any town in Israel--and he is quite free to move wherever he desires--and comes to the place GOD designates for worship, <sup>7</sup> he may serve there in the name of GOD along with all his brother Levites who are present and serving in the Presence of GOD.

<sup>8</sup> And he will get an equal share to eat, even though he has money from the sale of his parents' possessions.

<sup>9</sup> When you enter the land that GOD, your God, is giving you, don't take on the abominable ways of life of the nations there.

<sup>12</sup> People who do these things are an abomination to GOD. It's because of just such abominable practices that GOD, your God, is driving these nations out before you.

<sup>13</sup> Be completely loyal to GOD, your God.

<sup>14</sup> These nations that you're about to run out of the country consort with sorcerers and witches. But not you. GOD, your God, forbids it.

<sup>15</sup> GOD, your God, is going to raise up a prophet for you. GOD will raise him up from among your kinsmen, a prophet like me. Listen obediently to him.

<sup>16</sup> This is what you asked GOD, your God, for at Horeb on the day you were all gathered at the mountain and said, "We can't hear any more from GOD, our God; we can't stand seeing any more fire. We'll die!"

<sup>17</sup> And GOD said to me, "They're right; they've spoken the truth.

<sup>18</sup> I'll raise up for them a prophet like you from their kinsmen. I'll tell him what to say and he will pass on to them everything I command him.

<sup>19</sup> And anyone who won't listen to my words spoken by him, I will personally hold responsible.

<sup>20</sup> "But any prophet who fakes it, who claims to speak in my name something I haven't commanded him to say, or speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet must die."

<sup>21</sup> You may be wondering among yourselves, "How can we tell the difference, whether it was GOD who spoke or not?" Here's how:

<sup>22</sup> If what the prophet spoke in GOD's name doesn't happen, then obviously GOD wasn't behind it; the prophet made it up. Forget about him.

19 <sup>1</sup> When GOD, your God, throws the nations out of the country that GOD, your God, is giving you and you settle down in their cities and houses, <sup>2</sup> you are to set aside three easily accessible cities in the land that GOD, your God, is giving you as your very own.

<sup>3</sup> Divide your land into thirds, this land that GOD, your God, is giving you to possess, and build roads to the towns so that anyone who accidentally kills another can flee there.

<sup>4</sup> This is the guideline for the murderer who flees there to take refuge: He has to have killed his neighbor without premeditation and with no history of bad blood between them.

<sup>5</sup> For instance, a man goes with his neighbor into the woods to cut a tree; he swings the ax, the head slips off the handle and hits his neighbor, killing him. He may then flee to one of these cities and save his life.

<sup>6</sup> If the city is too far away, the avenger of blood racing in hot-blooded pursuit might catch him since it's such a long distance, and kill him even though he didn't deserve it. It wasn't his fault. There was no history of hatred between them.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore I command you: Set aside the three cities for yourselves.

<sup>8</sup> When GOD, your God, enlarges your land, extending its borders as he solemnly promised your ancestors, by giving you the whole land he promised them

<sup>9</sup> because you are diligently living the way I'm commanding you today, namely, to love GOD, your God, and do what he tells you all your life; and when that happens, then add three more to these three cities

<sup>10</sup> so that there is no chance of innocent blood being spilled in your land. GOD, your God, is giving you this land as an inheritance--you don't want to pollute it with innocent blood and bring bloodguilt upon yourselves.

<sup>11</sup> On the other hand, if a man with a history of hatred toward his neighbor waits in ambush, then jumps him, mauls and kills him, and then runs to one of these cities, that's a different story.

<sup>12</sup> The elders of his own city are to send for him and have him brought back. They are to hand him over to the avenger of blood for execution.

<sup>13</sup> Don't feel sorry for him. Clean out the pollution of wrongful murder from Israel so that you'll be able to live well and breathe clean air.

<sup>14</sup> Don't move your neighbor's boundary markers, the longstanding landmarks set up by your pioneer ancestors defining their property.

<sup>15</sup> You cannot convict anyone of a crime or sin on the word of one witness. You need two or three witnesses to make a case.

<sup>16</sup> If a hostile witness stands to accuse someone of a wrong, <sup>17</sup> then both parties involved in the quarrel must stand in the Presence of GOD before the priests and judges who are in office at that time.

<sup>18</sup> The judges must conduct a careful investigation; if the witness turns out to be a false witness and has lied against his fellow Israelite, <sup>19</sup> give him the same medicine he intended for the other party. Clean the polluting evil from your company.

<sup>20</sup> People will hear of what you've done and be impressed; that will put a stop to this kind of evil among you.

20 <sup>1</sup> When you go to war against your enemy and see horses and chariots and soldiers far outnumbering you, do not recoil in fear of them; GOD, your God, who brought you up out of Egypt is with you.

<sup>2</sup> When the battle is about to begin, let the priest come forward and speak to the troops.

<sup>4</sup> GOD, your God, is right there with you, fighting with you against your enemies, fighting to win."

<sup>5</sup> Then let the officers step up and speak to the troops: "Is there a man here who has built a new house but hasn't yet dedicated it? Let him go home right now lest he die in battle and another man dedicate it.

<sup>8</sup> The officers will then continue, "And is there a man here who is wavering in resolve and afraid? Let him go home right now so that he doesn't infect his fellows with his timidity and cowardly spirit."

<sup>10</sup> When you come up against a city to attack it, call out, "Peace?"

<sup>11</sup> If they answer, "Yes, peace!" and open the city to you, then everyone found there will be conscripted as forced laborers and work for you.

<sup>12</sup> But if they don't settle for peace and insist on war, then go ahead and attack.

<sup>13</sup> GOD, your God, will give them to you. Kill all the men with your swords.

<sup>14</sup> But don't kill the women and children and animals. Everything inside the town you can take as plunder for you to use and eat--GOD, your God, gives it to you.

<sup>15</sup> This is the way you deal with the distant towns, the towns that don't belong to the nations at hand.

<sup>16</sup> But with the towns of the people that GOD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance, it's different: don't leave anyone alive.

<sup>17</sup> Consign them to holy destruction: the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, obeying the command of GOD, your God.

<sup>18</sup> This is so there won't be any of them left to teach you to practice the abominations that they engage in with their gods and you end up sinning against GOD, your God.

<sup>19</sup> When you mount an attack on a town and the siege goes on a long time, don't start cutting down the trees, swinging your axes against them. Those trees are your future food; don't cut them down. Are trees soldiers who come against you with weapons?

<sup>20</sup> The exception can be those trees which don't produce food; you can chop them down and use the timbers to build siege engines against the town that is resisting you until it falls.

21 <sup>1</sup> If a dead body is found on the ground, this ground that GOD, your God, has given you, lying out in the open, and no one knows who killed him, <sup>2</sup> your leaders and judges are to go out and measure the distance from the body to the nearest cities.

<sup>3</sup> The leaders and judges of the city that is nearest the corpse will then take a heifer that has never been used for work, never had a yoke on it.

<sup>4</sup> The leaders will take the heifer to a valley with a stream, a valley that has never been plowed or planted, and there break the neck of the heifer.

<sup>5</sup> The Levitical priests will then step up. GOD has chosen them to serve him in these matters by settling legal disputes and violent crimes and by pronouncing blessings in GOD's name.

<sup>6</sup> Finally, all the leaders of that town that is nearest the body will wash their hands over the heifer that had its neck broken at the stream

<sup>7</sup> and say, "We didn't kill this man and we didn't see who did it.

<sup>8</sup> Purify your people Israel whom you redeemed, O GOD. Clear your people Israel from any guilt in this murder." That will clear them from any responsibility in the murder.

<sup>9</sup> By following these procedures you will have absolved yourselves of any part in the murder because you will have done what is right in GOD's sight.

<sup>10</sup> When you go to war against your enemies and GOD, your God, gives you victory and you take prisoners, <sup>11</sup> and then you notice among the prisoners of war a good-looking woman whom you find attractive and would like to marry,

<sup>13</sup> and discard the clothes she was wearing when captured. She is then to stay in your home for a full month, mourning her father and mother. Then you may go to bed with her as husband and wife.

<sup>14</sup> If it turns out you don't like her, you must let her go and live wherever she wishes. But you can't sell her or use her as a slave since you've humiliated her.

<sup>15</sup> When a man has two wives, one loved and the other hated, and they both give him sons, but the firstborn is from the hated wife, <sup>16</sup> at the time he divides the inheritance with his sons he must not treat the son of the loved wife as the firstborn, cutting out the son of the hated wife, who is the actual firstborn.

<sup>17</sup> No, he must acknowledge the inheritance rights of the real firstborn, the son of the hated wife, by giving him a double share of the inheritance: that son is the first proof of his virility; the rights of the firstborn belong to him.

<sup>18</sup> When a man has a stubborn son, a real rebel who won't do a thing his mother and father tell him, and even though they discipline him he still won't obey,

<sup>19</sup> his father and mother shall forcibly bring him before the leaders at the city gate

<sup>20</sup> and say to the city fathers, "This son of ours is a stubborn rebel; he won't listen to a thing we say. He's a glutton and a drunk."

<sup>21</sup> Then all the men of the town are to throw rocks at him until he's dead. You will have purged the evil pollution from among you. All Israel will hear what's happened and be in awe.

<sup>22</sup> When a man has committed a capital crime, been given the death sentence, executed and hung from a tree, <sup>23</sup> don't leave his dead body hanging overnight from the tree. Give him a decent burial that same day so that you don't desecrate your GOD-given land--a hanged man is an insult to God.

22 <sup>1</sup> If you see your kinsman's ox or sheep wandering off loose, don't look the other way as if you didn't see it. Return it promptly.

<sup>2</sup> If your fellow Israelite is not close by or you don't know whose it is, take the animal home with you and take care of it until your fellow asks about it. Then return it to him.

<sup>3</sup> Do the same if it's his donkey or a piece of clothing or anything else your fellow Israelite loses. Don't look the other way as if you didn't see it.

<sup>4</sup> If you see your fellow's donkey or ox injured along the road, don't look the other way. Help him get it up and on its way.

<sup>5</sup> A woman must not wear a man's clothing, nor a man wear women's clothing. This kind of thing is an abomination to GOD, your God.

<sup>6</sup> When you come across a bird's nest alongside the road, whether in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, don't take the mother with the young.

<sup>7</sup> You may take the babies, but let the mother go so that you will live a good and long life.

<sup>8</sup> When you build a new house, make a parapet around your roof to make it safe so that someone doesn't fall off and die and your family become responsible for the death.

but when I slept with her I discovered she wasn't a virgin,"

<sup>15</sup> then the father and mother of the girl are to take her with the proof of her virginity to the town leaders at the gate.

<sup>16</sup> The father is to tell the leaders, "I gave my daughter to this man as wife and he turned on her, rejecting her.

<sup>17</sup> And now he has slanderously accused her, claiming that she wasn't a virgin. But look at this, here is the proof of my daughter's virginity." And then he is to spread out her blood-stained wedding garment before the leaders for their examination.

<sup>18</sup> The town leaders then are to take the husband, whip him, <sup>19</sup> fine him a hundred pieces of silver, and give it to the father of the girl. The man gave a virgin girl of Israel a bad name. He has to keep her as his wife and can never divorce her.

<sup>20</sup> But if it turns out that the accusation is true and there is no evidence of the girl's virginity, <sup>21</sup> the men of the town are to take her to the door of her father's house and stone her to death. She acted disgracefully in Israel. She lived like a whore while still in her parents' home. Purge the evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup> If a man is found sleeping with another man's wife, both must die. Purge that evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup> If a man comes upon a virgin in town, a girl who is engaged to another man, and sleeps with her,

<sup>24</sup> take both of them to the town gate and stone them until they die--the girl because she didn't yell out for help in the town and the man because he raped her, violating the fiancĕ's  $\frac{1}{2}$  of his neighbor. You must purge the evil from among you.

<sup>25</sup> But if it was out in the country that the man found the engaged girl and grabbed and raped her, only the man is to die, the man who raped her.

<sup>26</sup> Don't do anything to the girl; she did nothing wrong. This is similar to the case of a man who comes across his neighbor out in the country and murders him;

<sup>27</sup> when the engaged girl yelled out for help, there was no one around to hear or help her.

<sup>28</sup> When a man comes upon a virgin who has never been engaged and grabs and rapes her and they are found out, <sup>29</sup> the man who raped her has to give her father fifty pieces of silver. He has to marry her because he took advantage of her. And he can never divorce her.

<sup>30</sup> A man may not marry his father's ex-wife--that would violate his father's rights.

<sup>3</sup> No Ammonite or Moabite is to enter the congregation of GOD, even to the tenth generation, nor any of his children, ever.

<sup>4</sup> Those nations didn't treat you with hospitality on your travels out of Egypt, and on top of that they also hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Mesopotamia to curse you.

<sup>5</sup> GOD, your God, refused to listen to Balaam but turned the curse into a blessing--how GOD, your God, loves you!

<sup>6</sup> Don't even try to get along with them or do anything for them, ever.

<sup>7</sup> But don't spurn an Edomite; he's your kin. And don't spurn an Egyptian; you were a foreigner in his land.

<sup>8</sup> Children born to Edomites and Egyptians may enter the congregation of GOD in the third generation.

<sup>9</sup> When you are camped out, at war with your enemies, be careful to keep yourself from anything ritually defiling.

<sup>10</sup> If one of your men has become ritually unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he must go outside the camp and stay there

<sup>13</sup> Along with your weapons have a stick with you. After you relieve yourself, dig a hole with the stick and cover your excrement.

<sup>14</sup> GOD, your God, strolls through your camp; he's present to deliver you and give you victory over your enemies. Keep your camp holy; don't permit anything indecent or offensive in GOD's eyes.

<sup>15</sup> Don't return a runaway slave to his master; he's come to you for refuge.

<sup>16</sup> Let him live wherever he wishes within the protective gates of your city. Don't take advantage of him.

<sup>17</sup> No daughter of Israel is to become a sacred prostitute; and no son of Israel is to become a sacred prostitute.

<sup>18</sup> And don't bring the fee of a sacred whore or the earnings of a priest-pimp to the house of GOD, your God, to pay for any vow--they are both an abomination to GOD, your God.

<sup>19</sup> Don't charge interest to your kinsmen on any loan: not for money or food or clothing or anything else that could earn interest.

<sup>20</sup> You may charge foreigners interest, but you may not charge your brothers interest; that way GOD, your God, will bless all the work that you take up and the land that you are entering to possess.

<sup>21</sup> When you make a vow to GOD, your God, don't put off keeping it; GOD, your God, expects you to keep it and if you don't you're guilty.

<sup>22</sup> But if you don't make a vow in the first place, there's no sin.

<sup>23</sup> If you say you're going to do something, do it. Keep the vow you willingly vowed to GOD, your God. You promised it, so do it.

<sup>24</sup> When you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you want until you're full, but you may not put any in your bucket or bag.

<sup>25</sup> And when you walk through the ripe grain of your neighbor, you may pick the heads of grain, but you may not swing your sickle there.

24 <sup>1</sup> If a man marries a woman and then it happens that he no longer likes her because he has found something wrong with her, he may give her divorce papers, put them in her hand, and send her off.

<sup>3</sup> and he also comes to hate her and this second husband also gives her divorce papers, puts them in her hand, and sends her off, or if he should die,

<sup>4</sup> then the first husband who divorced her can't marry her again. She has made herself ritually unclean, and her remarriage would be an abomination in the Presence of GOD and defile the land with sin, this land that GOD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> When a man takes a new wife, he is not to go out with the army or be given any business or work duties. He gets one year off simply to be at home making his wife happy.

<sup>6</sup> Don't seize a handmill or an upper millstone as collateral for a loan. You'd be seizing someone's very life.

<sup>7</sup> If a man is caught kidnapping one of his kinsmen, someone of the People of Israel, to enslave or sell him, the kidnapper must die. Purge that evil from among you.

<sup>9</sup> Don't forget what GOD, your God, did to Miriam on your way out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, don't enter his house to claim his pledge.

<sup>11</sup> Wait outside. Let the man to whom you made the pledge bring the pledge to you outside.

<sup>12</sup> And if he is destitute, don't use his cloak as a bedroll;

<sup>13</sup> return it to him at nightfall so that he can sleep in his cloak and bless you. In the sight of GOD, your God, that will be viewed as a righteous act.

<sup>14</sup> Don't abuse a laborer who is destitute and needy, whether he is a fellow Israelite living in your land and in your city.

<sup>15</sup> Pay him at the end of each workday; he's living from hand to mouth and needs it now. If you hold back his pay, he'll protest to GOD and you'll have sin on your books.

<sup>17</sup> Make sure foreigners and orphans get their just rights. Don't take the cloak of a widow as security for a loan.

<sup>18</sup> Don't ever forget that you were once slaves in Egypt and GOD, your God, got you out of there. I command you: Do what I'm telling you.

<sup>19</sup> When you harvest your grain and forget a sheaf back in the field, don't go back and get it; leave it for the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow so that GOD, your God, will bless you in all your work.

<sup>22</sup> Don't ever forget that you were a slave in Egypt. I command you: Do what I'm telling you.

25 <sup>1</sup> When men have a legal dispute, let them go to court; the judges will decide between them, declaring one innocent and the other guilty.

<sup>2</sup> If the guilty one deserves punishment, the judge will have him prostrate himself before him and lashed as many times as his crime deserves, <sup>3</sup> but not more than forty. If you hit him more than forty times, you will degrade him to something less than human.

<sup>5</sup> When brothers are living together and one of them dies without having had a son, the widow of the dead brother shall not marry a stranger from outside the family; her husband's brother is to come to her and marry her and do the brother-in-law's duty by her.

<sup>6</sup> The first son that she bears shall be named after her dead husband so his name won't die out in Israel.

<sup>7</sup> But if the brother doesn't want to marry his sister-in-law, she is to go to the leaders at the city gate and say, "My brother-in-law refuses to keep his brother's name alive in Israel; he won't agree to do the brother-in-law's duty by me."

<sup>8</sup> Then the leaders will call for the brother and confront him. If he stands there defiant and says, "I don't want her,"

<sup>14</sup> and don't keep two measures at hand, one large and the other small.

<sup>15</sup> Use only one weight, a true and honest weight, and one measure, a true and honest measure, so that you will live a long time on the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>19</sup> When GOD, your God, gives you rest from all the enemies that surround you in the inheritance-land GOD, your God, is giving you to possess, you are to wipe the name of Amalek from off the Earth. Don't forget!

26 <sup>1</sup> Once you enter the land that GOD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance and take it over and settle down, <sup>2</sup> you are to take some of all the firstfruits of what you grow in the land that GOD, your God, is giving you, put them in a basket and go to the place GOD, your God, sets apart for you to worship him.

<sup>3</sup> At that time, go to the priest who is there and say, "I announce to GOD, your God, today that I have entered the land that GOD promised our ancestors that he'd give to us."

<sup>4</sup> The priest will take the basket from you and place it on the Altar of GOD, your God.

<sup>5</sup> And there in the Presence of GOD, your God, you will recite, A wandering Aramean was my father, he went down to Egypt and sojourned there, he and just a handful of his brothers at first, but soon they became a great nation, mighty and many.

<sup>7</sup> We cried out to GOD, the God-of-Our-Fathers: He listened to our voice, he saw our destitution, our trouble, our cruel plight.

<sup>9</sup> And he brought us to this place, gave us this land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>10</sup> So here I am. I've brought the firstfruits of what I've grown on this ground you gave me, O GOD. Then place it in the Presence of GOD, your God.

Prostrate yourselves in the Presence of GOD, your God.

<sup>11</sup> And rejoice! Celebrate all the good things that GOD, your God, has given you and your family; you and the Levite and the foreigner who lives with you.

<sup>12</sup> Every third year, the year of the tithe, give a tenth of your produce to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow so that they may eat their fill in your cities.

<sup>13</sup> And then, in the Presence of GOD, your God, say this: I have brought the sacred share, I've given it to the Levite, foreigner, orphan, and widow. What you commanded, I've done. I haven't detoured around your commands, I haven't forgotten a single one.

<sup>14</sup> I haven't eaten from the sacred share while mourning, I haven't removed any of it while ritually unclean, I haven't used it in funeral feasts. I have listened obediently to the Voice of GOD, my God, I have lived the way you commanded me.

<sup>15</sup> Look down from your holy house in Heaven! Bless your people Israel and the ground you gave us, just as you promised our ancestors you would, this land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>16</sup> This very day GOD, your God, commands you to follow these rules and regulations, to live them out with everything you have in you.

<sup>17</sup> You've renewed your vows today that GOD is your God, that you'll live the way he shows you; do what he tells you in the rules, regulations, and commandments; and listen obediently to him.

<sup>18</sup> And today GOD has reaffirmed that you are dearly held treasure just as he promised, a people entrusted with keeping his commandments, <sup>19</sup> a people set high above all other nations that he's made, high in praise, fame, and honor: you're a people holy to GOD, your God. That's what he has promised.

27 <sup>1</sup> Moses commanded the leaders of Israel and charged the people: Keep every commandment that I command you today.

<sup>2</sup> On the day you cross the Jordan into the land that GOD, your God, is giving you, erect large stones and coat them with plaster.

<sup>3</sup> As soon as you cross over the river, write on the stones all the words of this Revelation so that you'll enter the land that GOD, your God, is giving you, that land flowing with milk and honey that GOD, the God-of-Your-Fathers, promised you.

<sup>4</sup> So when you've crossed the Jordan, erect these stones on Mount Ebal. Then coat them with plaster.

<sup>5</sup> Build an Altar of stones for GOD, your God, there on the mountain. Don't use an iron tool on the stones;

<sup>6</sup> build the Altar to GOD, your God, with uncut stones and offer your Whole-Burnt-Offerings on it to GOD, your God.

<sup>7</sup> When you sacrifice your Peace-Offerings you will also eat them there, rejoicing in the Presence of GOD, your God.

<sup>8</sup> Write all the words of this Revelation on the stones. Incise them sharply.

<sup>9</sup> Moses and the Levitical priests addressed all Israel: Quiet. Listen obediently, Israel. This very day you have become the people of GOD, your God.

<sup>10</sup> Listen to the Voice of GOD, your God. Keep his commandments and regulations that I'm commanding you today.

<sup>15</sup> GOD's curse on anyone who carves or casts a god-image--an abomination to GOD made by a craftsman--and sets it up in secret. All respond: [Yes. Absolutely.]

<sup>26</sup> GOD's curse on whoever does not give substance to the words of this Revelation by living them. All respond: [Yes. Absolutely.]

28 <sup>1</sup> If you listen obediently to the Voice of GOD, your God, and heartily obey all his commandments that I command you today, GOD, your God, will place you on high, high above all the nations of the world.

<sup>2</sup> All these blessings will come down on you and spread out beyond you because you have responded to the Voice of GOD, your God:

<sup>3</sup> GOD's blessing inside the city, GOD's blessing in the country;

<sup>5</sup> GOD's blessing on your basket and bread bowl;

<sup>7</sup> GOD will defeat your enemies who attack you. They'll come at you on one road and run away on seven roads.

<sup>8</sup> GOD will order a blessing on your barns and workplaces; he'll bless you in the land that GOD, your God, is giving you.

<sup>9</sup> GOD will form you as a people holy to him, just as he promised you, if you keep the commandments of GOD, your God, and live the way he has shown you.

<sup>10</sup> All the peoples on Earth will see you living under the Name of GOD and hold you in respectful awe.

<sup>11</sup> GOD will lavish you with good things: children from your womb, offspring from your animals, and crops from your land, the land that GOD promised your ancestors that he would give you.

<sup>12</sup> GOD will throw open the doors of his sky vaults and pour rain on your land on schedule and bless the work you take in hand. You will lend to many nations but you yourself won't have to take out a loan.

<sup>13</sup> GOD will make you the head, not the tail; you'll always be the top dog, never the bottom dog, as you obediently listen to and diligently keep the commands of GOD, your God, that I am commanding you today.

<sup>14</sup> Don't swerve an inch to the right or left from the words that I command you today by going off following and worshiping other gods.

<sup>15</sup> Here's what will happen if you don't obediently listen to the Voice of GOD, your God, and diligently keep all the commandments and guidelines that I'm commanding you today. All these curses will come down hard on you:

<sup>16</sup> GOD's curse in the city, GOD's curse in the country;

<sup>19</sup> GOD's curse in your coming in, GOD's curse in your going out.

<sup>20</sup> GOD will send The Curse, The Confusion, The Contrariness down on everything you try to do until you've been destroyed and there's nothing left of you--all because of your evil pursuits that led you to abandon me.

<sup>21</sup> GOD will infect you with The Disease, wiping you right off the land that you're going in to possess.

<sup>22</sup> GOD will set consumption and fever and rash and seizures and dehydration and blight and jaundice on you. They'll hunt you down until they kill you.

<sup>23</sup> The sky over your head will become an iron roof, the ground under your feet, a slab of concrete.

<sup>24</sup> From out of the skies GOD will rain ash and dust down on you until you suffocate.

<sup>25</sup> GOD will defeat you by enemy attack. You'll come at your enemies on one road and run away on seven roads. All the kingdoms of Earth will see you as a horror.

<sup>26</sup> Carrion birds and animals will boldly feast on your dead body with no one to chase them away.

<sup>29</sup> You'll grope around in the middle of the day like a blind person feeling his way through a lifetime of darkness; you'll never get to where you're going. Not a day will go by that you're not abused and robbed. And no one is going to help you.

<sup>30</sup> You'll get engaged to a woman and another man will take her for his mistress; you'll build a house and never live in it; you'll plant a garden and never eat so much as a carrot;

<sup>31</sup> you'll watch your ox get butchered and not get a single steak from it; your donkey will be stolen from in front of you and you'll never see it again; your sheep will be sent off to your enemies and no one will lift a hand to help you.

<sup>32</sup> Your sons and daughters will be shipped off to foreigners; you'll wear your eyes out looking vainly for them, helpless to do a thing.

<sup>33</sup> Your crops and everything you work for will be eaten and used by foreigners; you'll spend the rest of your lives abused and knocked around.

<sup>34</sup> What you see will drive you crazy.

<sup>35</sup> GOD will hit you with painful boils on your knees and legs and no healing or relief from head to foot.

<sup>36</sup> GOD will lead you and the king you set over you to a country neither you nor your ancestors have heard of; there you'll worship other gods, no-gods of wood and stone.

<sup>37</sup> Among all the peoples where GOD will take you, you'll be treated as a lesson or a proverb--a horror!

<sup>39</sup> You'll plant and hoe and prune vineyards but won't drink or put up any wine--the worms will devour them.

<sup>40</sup> You'll have groves of olive trees everywhere, but you'll have no oil to rub on your face or hands--the olives will have fallen off.

<sup>41</sup> You'll have sons and daughters but they won't be yours for long--they'll go off to captivity.

<sup>43</sup> The foreigner who lives among you will climb the ladder, higher and higher, while you go deeper and deeper into the hole.

<sup>44</sup> He'll lend to you; you won't lend to him. He'll be the head; you'll be the tail.

<sup>45</sup> All these curses are going to come on you. They're going to hunt you down and get you until there's nothing left of you because you didn't obediently listen to the Voice of GOD, your God, and diligently keep his commandments and guidelines that I commanded you.

<sup>47</sup> Because you didn't serve GOD, your God, out of the joy and goodness of your heart in the great abundance, <sup>48</sup> you'll have to serve your enemies whom GOD will send against you. Life will be famine and drought, rags and wretchedness; then he'll put an iron yoke on your neck until he's destroyed you.

<sup>52</sup> They'll lay siege to you while you're huddled behind your town gates. They'll knock those high, proud walls flat, those walls behind which you felt so safe. They'll lay siege to your fortified cities all over the country, this country that GOD, your God, has given you.

<sup>53</sup> And you'll end up cannibalizing your own sons and daughters that GOD, your God, has given you. When the suffering from the siege gets extreme, you're going to eat your own babies.

<sup>54</sup> The most gentle and caring man among you will turn hard, his eye evil, against his own brother, his cherished wife, and even the rest of his children who are still alive,

<sup>56</sup> And the most gentle and caring woman among you, a woman who wouldn't step on a wildflower, will turn hard, her eye evil, against her cherished husband, against her son, against her daughter,

<sup>57</sup> against even the afterbirth of her newborn infants; she plans to eat them in secret--she does eat them!--because she has lost everything, even her humanity, in the suffering of the siege that your enemy mounts against your fortified towns.

<sup>58</sup> If you don't diligently keep all the words of this Revelation written in this book, living in holy awe before This Name glorious and terrible, GOD, your God,

<sup>60</sup> He'll bring back and stick you with every old Egyptian malady that once terrorized you.

<sup>61</sup> And yes, every disease and catastrophe imaginable--things not even written in the Book of this Revelation--GOD will bring on you until you're destroyed.

<sup>62</sup> Because you didn't listen obediently to the Voice of GOD, your God, you'll be left with a few pitiful stragglers in place of the dazzling stars-in-the-heavens multitude you had become.

<sup>63</sup> And this is how things will end up: Just as GOD once enjoyed you, took pleasure in making life good for you, giving you many children, so GOD will enjoy getting rid of you, clearing you off the Earth. He'll weed you out of the very soil that you are entering in to possess.

<sup>64</sup> He'll scatter you to the four winds, from one end of the Earth to the other. You'll worship all kinds of other gods, gods neither you nor your parents ever heard of, wood and stone no-gods.

<sup>65</sup> But you won't find a home there, you'll not be able to settle down. GOD will give you a restless heart, longing eyes, a homesick soul.

<sup>66</sup> You will live in constant jeopardy, terrified of every shadow, never knowing what you'll meet around the next corner.

<sup>67</sup> In the morning you'll say, "I wish it were evening." In the evening you'll say, "I wish it were morning." Afraid, terrorized at what's coming next, afraid of the unknown, because of the sights you've witnessed.

<sup>68</sup> GOD will ship you back to Egypt by a road I promised you'd never see again. There you'll offer yourselves for sale, both men and women, as slaves to your enemies. And not a buyer to be found.

29 <sup>1</sup> These are the terms of the Covenant that GOD commanded Moses to make with the People of Israel in the land of Moab, renewing the Covenant he made with them at Horeb.

<sup>2</sup> Moses called all Israel together and said, You've seen with your own eyes everything that GOD did in Egypt to Pharaoh and his servants, and to the land itself--

<sup>3</sup> the massive trials to which you were eyewitnesses, the great signs and miracle-wonders.

<sup>4</sup> But GOD didn't give you an understanding heart or perceptive eyes or attentive ears until right now, this very day.

<sup>5</sup> I took you through the wilderness for forty years and through all that time the clothes on your backs didn't wear out, the sandals on your feet didn't wear out, <sup>6</sup> and you lived well without bread and wine and beer, proving to you that I am in fact GOD, your God.

<sup>7</sup> When you arrived here in this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan met us primed for war but we beat them.

<sup>8</sup> We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup> Diligently keep the words of this Covenant. Do what they say so that you will live well and wisely in every detail.

<sup>10</sup> You are all standing here today in the Presence of GOD, your God--the heads of your tribes, your leaders, your officials, all Israel:

<sup>11</sup> your babies, your wives, the resident foreigners in your camps who fetch your firewood and water

<sup>12</sup> --ready to cross over into the solemnly sworn Covenant that GOD, your God, is making with you today, <sup>13</sup> the Covenant that this day confirms that you are his people and he is GOD, your God, just as he promised you and your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>14</sup> I'm not making this Covenant and its oath with you alone.

<sup>15</sup> I am making it with you who are standing here today in the Presence of GOD, our God, yes, but also with those who are not here today.

<sup>16</sup> You know the conditions in which we lived in Egypt and how we crisscrossed through nations in our travels.

<sup>17</sup> You got an eyeful of their obscenities, their wood and stone, silver and gold junk-gods.

<sup>18</sup> Don't let down your guard lest even now, today, someone--man or woman, clan or tribe--gets sidetracked from GOD, our God, and gets involved with the no-gods of the nations; lest some poisonous weed sprout and spread among you, <sup>19</sup> a person who hears the words of the Covenant-oath but exempts himself, thinking, "I'll live just the way I please, thank you," and ends up ruining life for everybody.

<sup>20</sup> GOD won't let him off the hook. GOD's anger and jealousy will erupt like a volcano against that person. The curses written in this book will bury him. GOD will delete his name from the records.

<sup>21</sup> GOD will separate him out from all the tribes of Israel for special punishment, according to all the curses of the Covenant written in this Book of Revelation.

<sup>22</sup> The next generation, your children who come after you and the foreigner who comes from a far country, will be appalled when they see the widespread devastation, how GOD made the whole land sick.

<sup>23</sup> They'll see a fire-blackened wasteland of brimstone and salt flats, nothing planted, nothing growing, not so much as a blade of grass anywhere--like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which GOD overthrew in fiery rage.

<sup>24</sup> All the nations will ask, "Why did GOD do this to this country? What on earth could have made him this angry?"

<sup>25</sup> Your children will answer, "Because they abandoned the Covenant of the GOD of their ancestors that he made with them after he got them out of Egypt;

<sup>26</sup> they went off and worshiped other gods, submitted to gods they'd never heard of before, gods they had no business dealing with.

<sup>27</sup> So GOD's anger erupted against that land and all the curses written in this book came down on it.

<sup>28</sup> GOD, furiously angry, pulled them, roots and all, out of their land and dumped them in another country, as you can see."

<sup>29</sup> GOD, our God, will take care of the hidden things but the revealed things are our business. It's up to us and our children to attend to all the terms in this Revelation.

30 <sup>1</sup> Here's what will happen. While you're out among the nations where GOD has dispersed you and the blessings and curses come in just the way I have set them before you, and you and your children take them seriously

<sup>2</sup> and come back to GOD, your God, and obey him with your whole heart and soul according to everything that I command you today, <sup>3</sup> GOD, your God, will restore everything you lost; he'll have compassion on you; he'll come back and pick up the pieces from all the places where you were scattered.

<sup>4</sup> No matter how far away you end up, GOD, your God, will get you out of there

<sup>5</sup> and bring you back to the land your ancestors once possessed. It will be yours again. He will give you a good life and make you more numerous than your ancestors.

<sup>6</sup> GOD, your God, will cut away the thick calluses on your heart and your children's hearts, freeing you to love GOD, your God, with your whole heart and soul and live, really live.

<sup>7</sup> GOD, your God, will put all these curses on your enemies who hated you and were out to get you.

<sup>8</sup> And you will make a new start, listening obediently to GOD, keeping all his commandments that I'm commanding you today.

<sup>9</sup> GOD, your God, will outdo himself in making things go well for you: you'll have babies, get calves, grow crops, and enjoy an all-around good life. Yes, GOD will start enjoying you again, making things go well for you just as he enjoyed doing it for your ancestors.

<sup>10</sup> But only if you listen obediently to GOD, your God, and keep the commandments and regulations written in this Book of Revelation. Nothing halfhearted here; you must return to GOD, your God, totally, heart and soul, holding nothing back.

<sup>11</sup> This commandment that I'm commanding you today isn't too much for you, it's not out of your reach.

<sup>12</sup> It's not on a high mountain--you don't have to get mountaineers to climb the peak and bring it down to your level and explain it before you can live it.

<sup>13</sup> And it's not across the ocean--you don't have to send sailors out to get it, bring it back, and then explain it before you can live it.

<sup>15</sup> Look at what I've done for you today: I've placed in front of you Life and Good Death and Evil.

<sup>16</sup> And I command you today: Love GOD, your God. Walk in his ways. Keep his commandments, regulations, and rules so that you will live, really live, live exuberantly, blessed by GOD, your God, in the land you are about to enter and possess.

<sup>17</sup> But I warn you: If you have a change of heart, refuse to listen obediently, and willfully go off to serve and worship other gods, <sup>18</sup> you will most certainly die. You won't last long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

<sup>19</sup> I call Heaven and Earth to witness against you today: I place before you Life and Death, Blessing and Curse. Choose life so that you and your children will live.

<sup>20</sup> And love GOD, your God, listening obediently to him, firmly embracing him. Oh yes, he is life itself, a long life settled on the soil that GOD, your God, promised to give your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

31 <sup>1</sup> Moses went on and addressed these words to all Israel.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "I'm 120 years old today. I can't get about as I used to. And GOD told me, 'You're not going to cross this Jordan River.'

<sup>3</sup> "GOD, your God, will cross the river ahead of you and destroy the nations in your path so that you may dispossess them. (And Joshua will cross the river before you, as GOD said he would.)

<sup>4</sup> GOD will give the nations the same treatment he gave the kings of the Amorites, Sihon and Og, and their land; he'll destroy them.

<sup>5</sup> GOD will hand the nations over to you, and you'll treat them exactly as I have commanded you.

<sup>6</sup> "Be strong. Take courage. Don't be intimidated. Don't give them a second thought because GOD, your God, is striding ahead of you. He's right there with you. He won't let you down; he won't leave you."

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses summoned Joshua. He said to him with all Israel watching, "Be strong. Take courage. You will enter the land with this people, this land that GOD promised their ancestors that he'd give them. You will make them the proud possessors of it.

<sup>8</sup> GOD is striding ahead of you. He's right there with you. He won't let you down; he won't leave you. Don't be intimidated. Don't worry."

<sup>9</sup> Moses wrote out this Revelation and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, and to all the leaders of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> And he gave these orders: "At the end of every seven years, the Year-All-Debts-Are-Canceled, during the pilgrim Festival of Booths

<sup>11</sup> when everyone in Israel comes to appear in the Presence of GOD, your God, at the place he designates, read out this Revelation to all Israel, with everyone listening.

<sup>12</sup> Gather the people together--men, women, children, and the foreigners living among you--so they can listen well, so they may learn to live in holy awe before GOD, your God, and diligently keep everything in this Revelation.

<sup>13</sup> And do this so that their children, who don't yet know all this, will also listen and learn to live in holy awe before GOD, your God, for as long as you live on the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess."

<sup>14</sup> GOD spoke to Moses: "You are about to die. So call Joshua. Meet me in the Tent of Meeting so that I can commission him." So Moses and Joshua went and stationed themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>15</sup> GOD appeared in the Tent in a Pillar of Cloud. The Cloud was near the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup> GOD spoke to Moses: "You're about to die and be buried with your ancestors. You'll no sooner be in the grave than this people will be up and whoring after the foreign gods of this country that they are entering. They will abandon me and violate my Covenant that I've made with them.

<sup>17</sup> I'll get angry, oh so angry! I'll walk off and leave them on their own, won't so much as look back at them. Then many calamities and disasters will devastate them because they are defenseless. They'll say, 'Isn't it because our God wasn't here that all this evil has come upon us?'

<sup>18</sup> But I'll stay out of their lives, keep looking the other way because of all their evil: they took up with other gods!

<sup>19</sup> "But for right now, copy down this song and teach the People of Israel to sing it by heart. They'll have it then as my witness against them.

<sup>20</sup> When I bring them into the land that I promised to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey, and they eat and become full and get fat and then begin fooling around with other gods and worshiping them, <sup>21</sup> and then things start falling apart, many terrible things happening, this song will be there with them as a witness to who they are and what went wrong.

Their children won't forget this song; they'll be singing it. Don't think I don't know what they are already scheming to do, and they're not even in the land yet, this land I promised them."

<sup>22</sup> So Moses wrote down this song that very day and taught it to the People of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> Then GOD commanded Joshua son of Nun saying, "Be strong. Take courage. You will lead the People of Israel into the land I promised to give them. And I'll be right there with you."

<sup>24</sup> After Moses had finished writing down the words of this Revelation in a book, right down to the last word,

<sup>25</sup> he ordered the Levites who were responsible for carrying the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, saying,

<sup>26</sup> "Take this Book of Revelation and place it alongside the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, your God. Keep it there as a witness.

<sup>27</sup> "I know what rebels you are, how stubborn and willful you can be. Even today, while I'm still alive and present with you, you're rebellious against GOD. How much worse when I've died!

<sup>28</sup> So gather the leaders of the tribes and the officials here. I have something I need to say directly to them with Heaven and Earth as witnesses.

<sup>29</sup> I know that after I die you're going to make a mess of things, abandoning the way I commanded, inviting all kinds of evil consequences in the days ahead. You're determined to do evil in defiance of GOD--I know you are--deliberately provoking his anger by what you do."

<sup>30</sup> So with everyone in Israel gathered and listening, Moses taught them the words of this song, from start to finish.

32 <sup>1</sup> Listen, Heavens, I have something to tell you. Attention, Earth, I've got a mouth full of words.

<sup>3</sup> For it's GOD's Name I'm preaching-respond to the greatness of our God!

<sup>5</sup> His messed-up, mixed-up children, his non-children, throw mud at him but none of it sticks.

<sup>6</sup> Don't you realize it is GOD you are treating like this? This is crazy; don't you have any sense of reverence? Isn't this your father who created you, who made you and gave you a place on Earth?

<sup>7</sup> Read up on what happened before you were born; dig into the past, understand your roots. Ask your parents what it was like before you were born; ask the old-ones, they'll tell you a thing or two.

<sup>9</sup> But GOD himself took charge of his people, took Jacob on as his personal concern.

<sup>11</sup> He was like an eagle hovering over its nest, overshadowing its young, Then spreading its wings, lifting them into the air, teaching them to fly.

<sup>12</sup> GOD alone led him; there was not a foreign god in sight.

<sup>13</sup> GOD lifted him on to the hilltops, so he could feast on the crops in the fields. He fed him honey from the rock, oil from granite crags,

<sup>15</sup> Jeshurun put on weight and bucked; you got fat, became obese, a tub of lard. He abandoned the God who made him, he mocked the Rock of his salvation.

<sup>16</sup> They made him jealous with their foreign newfangled gods, and with obscenities they vexed him no end.

<sup>17</sup> They sacrificed to no-god demons, gods they knew nothing about, The latest in gods, fresh from the market, gods your ancestors would never call

"gods."

<sup>18</sup> You walked out on the Rock who gave you your life, forgot the birth-God who brought you into the world.

<sup>19</sup> GOD saw it and turned on his heel, angered and hurt by his sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> He said, "From now on I'm looking the other way. Wait and see what happens to them. Oh, they're a turned-around, upside-down generation! Who knows what they'll do from one moment to the next?

<sup>21</sup> They've goaded me with their no-gods, infuriated me with their hot-air gods; I'm going to goad them with a no-people, with a hollow nation incense them.

<sup>22</sup> My anger started a fire, a wildfire burning deep down in Sheol, Then shooting up and devouring the Earth and its crops, setting all the mountains, from bottom to top, on fire.

<sup>26</sup> I could have said, "I'll hack them to pieces, wipe out all trace of them from the Earth,"

<sup>27</sup> Except that I feared the enemy would grab the chance to take credit for all of it, Crowing, "Look what we did! GOD had nothing to do with this."

<sup>28</sup> They are a nation of ninnies, they don't know enough to come in out of the rain.

<sup>29</sup> If they had any sense at all, they'd know this; they would see what's coming down the road.

<sup>36</sup> Yes, GOD will judge his people, but oh how compassionately he'll do it. When he sees their weakened plight and there is no one left, slave or free, <sup>37</sup> He'll say, "So where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge,

<sup>39</sup> "Do you see it now? Do you see that I'm the one? Do you see that there's no other god beside me? I bring death and I give life, I wound and I heal--there is no getting away from or around me!

<sup>40</sup> I raise my hand in solemn oath; I say, 'I'm always around. By that very life I promise:

<sup>41</sup> When I sharpen my lightning sword and execute judgment, I take vengeance on my enemies and pay back those who hate me.

<sup>42</sup> I'll make my arrows drunk with blood, my sword will gorge itself on flesh, Feasting on slain and captive alike, the proud and vain enemy corpses.'"

<sup>44</sup> Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>45</sup> When Moses had finished saying all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup> he said, "Take to heart all these words to which I give witness today and urgently command your children to put them into practice, every single word of this Revelation.

<sup>48</sup> That same day GOD spoke to Moses:

<sup>49</sup> "Climb the Abarim Mountains to Mount Nebo in the land of Moab, overlooking Jericho, and view the land of Canaan that I'm giving the People of Israel to have and hold.

<sup>50</sup> Die on the mountain that you climb and join your people in the ground, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and joined his people.

<sup>51</sup> "This is because you broke faith with me in the company of the People of Israel at the Waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin--you didn't honor my Holy Presence in the company of the People of Israel.

<sup>52</sup> You'll look at the land spread out before you but you won't enter it, this land that I am giving to the People of Israel."

33 <sup>1</sup> Moses, man of God, blessed the People of Israel with this blessing before his death.

<sup>9</sup> Who said of his father and mother, 'I no longer recognize them.' He turned his back on his brothers and neglected his children, Because he was guarding your sayings and watching over your Covenant.

<sup>10</sup> Let him teach your rules to Jacob and your Revelation to Israel, Let him keep the incense rising to your nostrils and the Whole-Burnt-Offerings on your Altar.

<sup>11</sup> GOD bless his commitment, stamp your seal of approval on what he does; Disable the loins of those who defy him, make sure we've heard the last from those who hate him."

<sup>12</sup> Benjamin: "GOD's beloved; GOD's permanent residence. Encircled by GOD all day long, within whom GOD is at home."

<sup>13</sup> Joseph: "Blessed by GOD be his land: The best fresh dew from high heaven, and fountains springing from the depths;

<sup>14</sup> The best radiance streaming from the sun and the best the moon has to offer;

<sup>15</sup> Beauty pouring off the tops of the mountains and the best from the everlasting hills;

<sup>17</sup> In splendor he's like a firstborn bull, his horns the horns of a wild ox; He'll gore the nations with those horns, push them all to the ends of the Earth.
Ephraim by the ten thousands will do this, Manasseh by the thousands will do this."

Zebulun, as you go out, and Issachar, as you stay home.

<sup>19</sup> They'll invite people to the Mountain and offer sacrifices of right worship,
For they will have hauled riches in from the sea and gleaned treasures from the beaches."

<sup>20</sup> Gad: "Blessed is he who makes Gad large. Gad roams like a lion, tears off an arm, rips open a skull.

<sup>21</sup> He took one look and grabbed the best place for himself, the portion just made for someone in charge. He took his place at the head, carried out GOD's right ways and his rules for life in Israel."

<sup>27</sup> The ancient God is home on a foundation of everlasting arms. He drove out the enemy before you and commanded, "Destroy!"

<sup>28</sup> Israel lived securely, the fountain of Jacob undisturbed In grain and wine country and, oh yes, his heavens drip dew.

<sup>29</sup> Lucky Israel! Who has it as good as you? A people [saved] by GOD! The Shield who defends you, the Sword who brings triumph. Your enemies will come crawling on their bellies and you'll march on their backs.

34 <sup>1</sup> Moses climbed from the Plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the peak of Pisgah facing Jericho. GOD showed him all the land from Gilead to Dan,

<sup>4</sup> Then and there GOD said to him, "This is the land I promised to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob with the words 'I will give it to your descendants.' I've let you see it with your own eyes. There it is. But you're not going to go in."

<sup>5</sup> Moses died there in the land of Moab, Moses the servant of GOD, just as GOD said.

<sup>7</sup> Moses was 120 years old when he died. His eyesight was sharp; he still walked with a spring in his step.

<sup>8</sup> The People of Israel wept for Moses in the Plains of Moab thirty days. Then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. The People of Israel listened obediently to him and did the same as when GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup> No prophet has risen since in Israel like Moses, whom GOD knew face-to-face.

<sup>11</sup> Never since has there been anything like the signs and miracle-wonders that GOD sent him to do in Egypt, to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land

<sup>12</sup> --nothing to compare with that all-powerful hand of his and all the great and terrible things Moses did as every eye in Israel watched.

Joshua

1 <sup>1</sup> After the death of Moses the servant of GOD, GOD spoke to Joshua, Moses' assistant:

<sup>2</sup> "Moses my servant is dead. Get going. Cross this Jordan River, you and all the people. Cross to the country I'm giving to the People of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> I'm giving you every square inch of the land you set your foot on--just as I promised Moses.

<sup>4</sup> From the wilderness and this Lebanon east to the Great River, the Euphrates River--all the Hittite country--and then west to the Great Sea. It's all yours.

<sup>5</sup> All your life, no one will be able to hold out against you. In the same way I was with Moses, I'll be with you. I won't give up on you; I won't leave you.

<sup>6</sup> Strength! Courage! You are going to lead this people to inherit the land that I promised to give their ancestors.

<sup>7</sup> Give it everything you have, heart and soul. Make sure you carry out The Revelation that Moses commanded you, every bit of it. Don't get off track, either left or right, so as to make sure you get to where you're going.

<sup>8</sup> And don't for a minute let this Book of The Revelation be out of mind. Ponder and meditate on it day and night, making sure you practice everything written in it. Then you'll get where you're going; then you'll succeed.

<sup>10</sup> Then Joshua gave orders to the people's leaders:

<sup>11</sup> "Go through the camp and give this order to the people: 'Pack your bags. In three days you will cross this Jordan River to enter and take the land GOD, your God, is giving you to possess.'"

<sup>12</sup> Then Joshua addressed the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. He said, <sup>13</sup> "Remember what Moses the servant of GOD commanded you: GOD, your God, gives you rest and he gives you this land.

<sup>14</sup> Your wives, your children, and your livestock can stay here east of the Jordan, the country Moses gave you; but you, tough soldiers all, must cross the River in battle formation, leading your brothers, helping them

<sup>15</sup> until GOD, your God, gives your brothers a place of rest just as he has done for you. They also will take possession of the land that GOD, your God, is giving them. Then you will be free to return to your possession, given to you by Moses the servant of GOD, across the Jordan to the east."

<sup>16</sup> They answered Joshua: "Everything you commanded us, we'll do. Wherever you send us, we'll go.

<sup>17</sup> We obeyed Moses to the letter; we'll also obey you--we just pray that GOD, your God, will be with you as he was with Moses.

to spy out the land. They're from the People of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> The king of Jericho sent word to Rahab: "Bring out the men who came to you to stay the night in your house. They're spies; they've come to spy out the whole country."

<sup>4</sup> The woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said, "Yes, two men did come to me, but I didn't know where they'd come from."

<sup>7</sup> So the men set chase down the Jordan road toward the fords. As soon as they were gone, the gate was shut.

<sup>8</sup> Before the spies were down for the night, the woman came up to them on the roof

<sup>9</sup> and said, "I know that GOD has given you the land. We're all afraid. Everyone in the country feels hopeless.

<sup>10</sup> We heard how GOD dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you left Egypt, and what he did to the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you put under a holy curse and destroyed.

<sup>11</sup> We heard it and our hearts sank. We all had the wind knocked out of us. And all because of you, you and GOD, your God, God of the heavens above and God of the earth below.

<sup>13</sup> of life for my father and mother, my brothers and sisters--everyone connected with my family. Save our souls from death!"

<sup>14</sup> "Our lives for yours!" said the men. "But don't tell anyone our business. When GOD turns this land over to us, we'll do right by you in loyal mercy."

<sup>15</sup> She lowered them down out a window with a rope because her house was on the city wall to the outside.

<sup>16</sup> She told them, "Run for the hills so your pursuers won't find you. Hide out for three days and give your pursuers time to return. Then get on your way."

<sup>17</sup> The men told her, "In order to keep this oath you made us swear, <sup>18</sup> here is what you must do: Hang this red rope out the window through which you let us down and gather your entire family with you in your house--father, mother, brothers, and sisters.

<sup>19</sup> Anyone who goes out the doors of your house into the street and is killed, it's his own fault--we aren't responsible. But for everyone within the house we take full responsibility. If anyone lays a hand on one of them, it's our fault.

<sup>20</sup> But if you tell anyone of our business here, the oath you made us swear is canceled--we're no longer responsible."

<sup>22</sup> They headed for the hills and stayed there for three days until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers had looked high and low but found nothing.

<sup>23</sup> The men headed back. They came down out of the hills, crossed the river, and returned to Joshua son of Nun and reported all their experiences.

<sup>24</sup> They told Joshua, "Yes! GOD has given the whole country to us. Everybody there is in a state of panic because of us."

3 <sup>1</sup> Joshua was up early and on his way from Shittim with all the People of Israel with him. He arrived at the Jordan and camped before crossing over.

<sup>3</sup> and gave out orders to the people: "When you see the Covenant-Chest of GOD, your God, carried by the Levitical priests, start moving. Follow it.

<sup>4</sup> Make sure you keep a proper distance between you and it, about half a mile--be sure now to keep your distance!--and you'll see clearly the route to take.

You've never been on this road before."

<sup>5</sup> Then Joshua addressed the people: "Sanctify yourselves. Tomorrow GOD will work miracle-wonders among you."

<sup>6</sup> Joshua instructed the priests, "Take up the Chest of the Covenant and step out before the people." So they took it up and processed before the people.

<sup>7</sup> GOD said to Joshua, "This very day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel. They'll see for themselves that I'm with you in the same way that I was with Moses.

<sup>8</sup> You will command the priests who are carrying the Chest of the Covenant: 'When you come to the edge of the Jordan's waters, stand there on the river bank.'" <sup>9</sup> Then Joshua addressed the People of Israel: "Attention! Listen to what GOD, your God, has to say.

<sup>10</sup> This is how you'll know that God is alive among you--he will completely dispossess before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites.

<sup>13</sup> When the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the Chest of GOD, Master of all the earth, touch the Jordan's water, the flow of water will be stopped--the water coming from upstream will pile up in a heap."

<sup>16</sup> the flow of water stopped. It piled up in a heap--a long way off--at Adam, which is near Zarethan. The river went dry all the way down to the Arabah Sea (the Salt Sea). And the people crossed, facing Jericho.

<sup>17</sup> And there they stood; those priests carrying the Chest of the Covenant stood firmly planted on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground. Finally the whole nation was across the Jordan, and not one wet foot.

4 <sup>1</sup> When the whole nation was finally across, GOD spoke to Joshua:

<sup>3</sup> and tell them, 'From right here, the middle of the Jordan where the feet of the priests are standing firm, take twelve stones. Carry them across with you and set them down in the place where you camp tonight.'"

<sup>4</sup> Joshua called out the twelve men whom he selected from the People of Israel, one man from each tribe.

<sup>5</sup> Joshua directed them, "Cross to the middle of the Jordan and take your place in front of the Chest of GOD, your God. Each of you heft a stone to your shoulder, a stone for each of the tribes of the People of Israel, <sup>6</sup> so you'll have something later to mark the occasion. When your children ask you, 'What are these stones to you?'

<sup>7</sup> you'll say, 'The flow of the Jordan was stopped in front of the Chest of the Covenant of GOD as it crossed the Jordan--stopped in its tracks. These stones are a permanent memorial for the People of Israel.'"

<sup>8</sup> The People of Israel did exactly as Joshua commanded: They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan--a stone for each of the twelve tribes, just as GOD had instructed Joshua--carried them across with them to the camp, and set them down there.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua set up the twelve stones taken from the middle of the Jordan that had marked the place where the priests who carried the Chest of the Covenant had stood. They are still there today.

<sup>12</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh had crossed over in battle formation in front of the People of Israel, obedient to Moses' instructions.

<sup>13</sup> All told, about 40,000 armed soldiers crossed over before GOD to the plains of Jericho, ready for battle.

<sup>14</sup> GOD made Joshua great that day in the sight of all Israel. They were in awe of him just as they had been in awe of Moses all his life.

<sup>23</sup> "Yes, GOD, your God, dried up the Jordan's waters for you until you had crossed, just as GOD, your God, did at the Red Sea, which had dried up before us until we had crossed.

<sup>24</sup> This was so that everybody on earth would recognize how strong GOD's rescuing hand is and so that you would hold GOD in solemn reverence always."

5 <sup>1</sup> When all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and the Canaanite kings along the seacoast heard how GOD had stopped the Jordan River before the People of Israel until they had crossed over, their hearts sank; the courage drained out of them just thinking about the People of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> At that time GOD said to Joshua, "Make stone knives and circumcise the People of Israel a second time."

<sup>5</sup> All the people who had come out of Egypt, of course, had been circumcised, but all those born in the wilderness along the way since leaving Egypt had not been.

<sup>6</sup> The fact is that the People of Israel had walked through that wilderness for forty years until the entire nation died out, all the men of military age who had come out of Egypt but had disobeyed the call of GOD. GOD vowed that these would never lay eyes on the land GOD had solemnly promised their ancestors to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>8</sup> When they had completed the circumcising of the whole nation, they stayed where they were in camp until they were healed.

<sup>9</sup> GOD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt." That's why the place is called The Gilgal. It's still called that.

<sup>11</sup> Right away, the day after the Passover, they started eating the produce of that country, unraised bread and roasted grain.

<sup>12</sup> And then no more manna; the manna stopped. As soon as they started eating food grown in the land, there was no more manna for the People of Israel. That year they ate from the crops of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> And then this, while Joshua was there near Jericho: He looked up and saw right in front of him a man standing, holding his drawn sword. Joshua stepped up to him and said, "Whose side are you on--ours or our enemies'?"

<sup>14</sup> He said, "Neither. I'm commander of GOD's army. I've just arrived." Joshua fell, face to the ground, and worshiped. He asked, "What orders does my Master have for his servant?"

<sup>15</sup> GOD's army commander ordered Joshua, "Take your sandals off your feet. The place you are standing is holy." Joshua did it.

6 <sup>1</sup> Jericho was shut up tight as a drum because of the People of Israel: no one going in, no one coming out.

<sup>2</sup> GOD spoke to Joshua, "Look sharp now. I've already given Jericho to you, along with its king and its crack troops.

<sup>3</sup> Here's what you are to do: March around the city, all your soldiers. Circle the city once. Repeat this for six days.

<sup>4</sup> Have seven priests carry seven ram's horn trumpets in front of the Chest. On the seventh day march around the city seven times, the priests blowing away on the trumpets.

<sup>5</sup> And then, a long blast on the ram's horn--when you hear that, all the people are to shout at the top of their lungs. The city wall will collapse at once. All the people are to enter, every man straight on in."

<sup>7</sup> Then he told the people, "Set out! March around the city. Have the armed guard march before the Chest of GOD."

<sup>8</sup> And it happened. Joshua spoke, the people moved: Seven priests with their seven ram's horn trumpets set out before GOD. They blew the trumpets, leading GOD's Chest of the Covenant.

<sup>9</sup> The armed guard marched ahead of the trumpet-blowing priests; the rear guard was marching after the Chest, marching and blowing their trumpets.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua had given orders to the people, "Don't shout. In fact, don't even speak--not so much as a whisper until you hear me say, 'Shout!'--then shout away!"

<sup>11</sup> He sent the Chest of GOD on its way around the city. It circled once, came back to camp, and stayed for the night.

<sup>12</sup> Joshua was up early the next morning and the priests took up the Chest of GOD.

<sup>13</sup> The seven priests carrying the seven ram's horn trumpets marched before the Chest of GOD, marching and blowing the trumpets, with the armed guard marching before and the rear guard marching after. Marching and blowing of trumpets!

<sup>14</sup> On the second day they again circled the city once and returned to camp. They did this six days.

<sup>15</sup> When the seventh day came, they got up early and marched around the city this same way but seven times--yes, this day they circled the city seven times.

<sup>16</sup> On the seventh time around the priests blew the trumpets and Joshua signaled the people, "Shout!--GOD has given you the city!

<sup>17</sup> The city and everything in it is under a holy curse and offered up to GOD. "Except for Rahab the harlot--she is to live, she and everyone in her house with her, because she hid the agents we sent.

<sup>18</sup> "As for you, watch yourselves in the city under holy curse. Be careful that you don't covet anything in it and take something that's cursed, endangering the camp of Israel with the curse and making trouble for everyone.

<sup>19</sup> All silver and gold, all vessels of bronze and iron are holy to GOD. Put them in GOD's treasury."

<sup>21</sup> They put everything in the city under the holy curse, killing man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua ordered the two men who had spied out the land, "Enter the house of the harlot and rescue the woman and everyone connected with her, just as you promised her."

<sup>23</sup> So the young spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, mother, and brothers--everyone connected with her. They got the whole family out and gave them a place outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> But they burned down the city and everything in it, except for the gold and silver and the bronze and iron vessels--all that they put in the treasury of GOD's house.

<sup>25</sup> But Joshua let Rahab the harlot live--Rahab and her father's household and everyone connected to her. She is still alive and well in Israel because she hid the agents whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua swore a solemn oath at that time: Cursed before GOD is the man who sets out to rebuild this city Jericho. He'll pay for the foundation with his firstborn son, he'll pay for the gates with his youngest son.

<sup>27</sup> GOD was with Joshua. He became famous all over the land.

7 <sup>1</sup> Then the People of Israel violated the holy curse. Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah, took some of the cursed things. GOD became angry with the People of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai (The Ruin), which is near Beth Aven just east of Bethel. He instructed them, "Go up and spy out the land." The men went up and spied out Ai.

<sup>3</sup> They returned to Joshua and reported, "Don't bother sending a lot of people--two or three thousand men are enough to defeat Ai. Don't wear out the whole army; there aren't that many people there."

<sup>4</sup> So three thousand men went up--and then fled in defeat before the men of Ai!

<sup>5</sup> The men of Ai killed thirty-six--chased them from the city gate as far as The Quarries, killing them at the descent.

The heart of the people sank, all spirit knocked out of them.

<sup>6</sup> Joshua ripped his clothes and fell on his face to the ground before the Chest of GOD, he and the leaders throwing dirt on their heads, prostrate until evening.

<sup>7</sup> Joshua said, "Oh, oh, oh...Master, GOD. Why did you insist on bringing this people across the Jordan? To make us victims of the Amorites? To wipe us out? Why didn't we just settle down on the east side of the Jordan?"

<sup>8</sup> Oh, Master, what can I say after this, after Israel has been run off by its enemies?

<sup>9</sup> When the Canaanites and all the others living here get wind of this, they'll gang up on us and make short work of us--and then how will you keep up your reputation?"

<sup>10</sup> GOD said to Joshua, "Get up. Why are you groveling?"

<sup>12</sup> The People of Israel can no longer look their enemies in the eye--they themselves are plunder. I can't continue with you if you don't rid yourselves of the cursed things.

<sup>13</sup> "So get started. Purify the people. Tell them: Get ready for tomorrow by purifying yourselves. For this is what GOD, the God of Israel, says: There are cursed things in the camp. You won't be able to face your enemies until you have gotten rid of these cursed things.

<sup>14</sup> "First thing in the morning you will be called up by tribes. The tribe GOD names will come up clan by clan; the clan GOD names will come up family by family; and the family GOD names will come up man by man.

<sup>15</sup> The person found with the cursed things will be burned, he and everything he has, because he broke GOD's covenant and did this despicable thing in Israel."

<sup>16</sup> Joshua was up at the crack of dawn and called Israel up tribe by tribe. The tribe of Judah was singled out.

<sup>17</sup> Then he called up the clans and singled out the Zerahites. He called up the Zerahite families and singled out the Zabdi family.

<sup>18</sup> He called up the family members one by one and singled out Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>19</sup> Joshua spoke to Achan, "My son, give glory to GOD, the God of Israel. Make your confession to him. Tell me what you did. Don't keep back anything from me."

<sup>20</sup> Achan answered Joshua, "It's true. I sinned against GOD, the God of Israel. This is how I did it.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua sent off messengers. They ran to the tent. And there it was, buried in the tent with the silver at the bottom.

<sup>23</sup> They took the stuff from the tent and brought it to Joshua and to all the People of Israel and spread it out before GOD.

<sup>24</sup> Joshua took Achan son of Zerah, took the silver, the robe, the gold bar, his sons and daughters, his ox, donkey, sheep, and tent--everything connected with him. All Israel was there. They led them off to the Valley of Achor (Trouble Valley).

<sup>25</sup> Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? GOD will now trouble you. Today!" And all Israel stoned him--burned him with fire and stoned him with stones.

<sup>26</sup> They piled a huge pile of stones over him. It's still there. Only then did GOD turn from his hot anger. That's how the place came to be called Trouble Valley right up to the present time.

8 <sup>1</sup> GOD said to Joshua, "Don't be timid and don't so much as hesitate. Take all your soldiers with you and go back to Ai. I have turned the king of Ai over to you--his people, his city, and his land.

<sup>2</sup> "Do to Ai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king. Only this time you may plunder its stuff and cattle to your heart's content. Set an ambush behind the city."

<sup>3</sup> Joshua and all his soldiers got ready to march on Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand men, tough, seasoned fighters, and sent them off at night

<sup>4</sup> with these orders: "Look sharp now. Lie in ambush behind the city. Get as close as you can. Stay alert.

<sup>5</sup> I and the troops with me will approach the city head-on. When they come out to meet us just as before, we'll turn and run.

<sup>6</sup> They'll come after us, leaving the city. As we are off and running, they'll say, 'They're running away just like the first time.'

<sup>7</sup> That's your signal to spring from your ambush and take the city. GOD, your God, will hand it to you on a platter.

<sup>8</sup> Once you have the city, burn it down. GOD says it, you do it. Go to it. I've given you your orders."

<sup>9</sup> Joshua sent them off. They set their ambush and waited between Bethel and Ai, just west of Ai. Joshua spent the night with the people.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua was up early in the morning and mustered his army. He and the leaders of Israel led the troops to Ai.

<sup>11</sup> The whole army, fighting men all, marched right up within sight of the city and set camp on the north side of Ai. There was a valley between them and Ai.

<sup>12</sup> He had taken about five thousand men and put them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, west of the city.

<sup>13</sup> They were all deployed, the main army to the north of the city and the ambush to the west. Joshua spent the night in the valley.

<sup>14</sup> So it happened that when the king of Ai saw all this, the men of the city lost no time; they were out of there at the crack of dawn to join Israel in battle, the king and his troops, at a field en route to the Arabah. The king didn't know of the ambush set against him behind the city.

<sup>15</sup> Joshua and all Israel let themselves be chased; they ran toward the wilderness.

<sup>16</sup> Everybody in the city was called to the chase. They pursued Joshua and were led away from the city.

<sup>18</sup> Then GOD spoke to Joshua: "Stretch out the javelin in your hand toward Ai--I'm giving it to you." Joshua stretched out the javelin in his hand toward Ai.

<sup>19</sup> At the signal the men in ambush sprang to their feet, ran to the city, took it, and quickly had it up in flames.

<sup>20</sup> The men of Ai looked back and, oh! saw the city going up in smoke. They found themselves trapped with nowhere to run.

<sup>21</sup> The army on the run toward the wilderness did an about-face--Joshua and all Israel, seeing that the ambush had taken the city, saw it going up in smoke, turned and attacked the men of Ai.

<sup>24</sup> When it was all over, Israel had killed everyone in Ai, whether in the fields or in the wilderness where they had chased them. When the killing was complete, the Israelites returned to Ai and completed the devastation.

<sup>25</sup> The death toll that day came to 12,000 men and women--everyone in Ai.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua didn't lower his outstretched javelin until the sacred destruction of Ai and all its people was completed.

<sup>29</sup> He hanged the king of Ai from a tree. At evening, with the sun going down, Joshua ordered the corpse cut down. They dumped it at the entrance to the city and piled it high with stones--you can go see that also.

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar to the GOD of Israel on Mount Ebal.

<sup>31</sup> He built it following the instructions of Moses the servant of GOD to the People of Israel and written in the Book of The Revelation of Moses, an altar of whole stones that hadn't been chiseled or shaped by an iron tool. On it they offered to GOD Whole-Burnt-Offerings and sacrificed Peace-Offerings.

<sup>32</sup> He also wrote out a copy of The Revelation of Moses on the stones. He wrote it with the People of Israel looking on.

<sup>34</sup> After that, he read out everything written in The Revelation, the Blessing and the Curse, everything in the Book of The Revelation.

<sup>35</sup> There wasn't a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua didn't read to the entire congregation--men, women, children, and foreigners who had been with them on the journey.

9 <sup>1</sup> All the kings west of the Jordan in the hills and foothills and along the Mediterranean seacoast north toward Lebanon--the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, Girgashites, and Jebusites--got the news.

<sup>2</sup> They came together in a coalition to fight against Joshua and Israel under a single command.

<sup>5</sup> threadbare sandals on their feet, tattered clothes on their bodies, nothing but dry crusts and crumbs for food.

<sup>6</sup> They came to Joshua at Gilgal and spoke to the men of Israel, "We've come from a far-off country; make a covenant with us."

<sup>7</sup> The men of Israel said to these Hivites, "How do we know you aren't local people? How could we then make a covenant with you?"

<sup>8</sup> They said to Joshua, "We'll be your servants." Joshua said, "Who are you now? Where did you come from?"

<sup>9</sup> They said, "From a far-off country, very far away. Your servants came because we'd heard such great things about GOD, your God--all those things he did in Egypt!

<sup>10</sup> And the two Amorite kings across the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan, who ruled in Ashtaroth!

<sup>11</sup> Our leaders and everybody else in our country told us, 'Pack up some food for the road and go meet them. Tell them, We're your servants; make a covenant with us.'

<sup>14</sup> The men of Israel looked them over and accepted the evidence. But they didn't ask GOD about it.

<sup>15</sup> So Joshua made peace with them and formalized it with a covenant to guarantee their lives. The leaders of the congregation swore to it.

<sup>16</sup> And then, three days after making this covenant, they learned that they were next-door neighbors who had been living there all along!

<sup>17</sup> The People of Israel broke camp and set out; three days later they reached their towns--Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>18</sup> But the People of Israel didn't attack them; the leaders of the congregation had given their word before the GOD of Israel. But the congregation was up in arms over their leaders.

<sup>19</sup> The leaders were united in their response to the congregation: "We promised them in the presence of the GOD of Israel. We can't lay a hand on them now.

<sup>20</sup> But we can do this: We will let them live so we don't get blamed for breaking our promise."

<sup>21</sup> Then the leaders continued, "We'll let them live, but they will be woodcutters and water carriers for the entire congregation." And that's what happened; the leaders' promise was kept.

<sup>22</sup> But Joshua called the Gibeonites together and said, "Why did you lie to us, telling us, 'We live far, far away from you,' when you're our next-door neighbors?"

<sup>23</sup> For that you are cursed. From now on it's menial labor for you--woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

<sup>24</sup> They answered Joshua, "We got the message loud and clear that GOD, your God, commanded through his servant Moses: to give you the whole country and destroy everyone living in it. We were terrified because of you; that's why we did this.

<sup>27</sup> But he made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the Altar of GOD at the place GOD chooses. They still are.

10 <sup>1</sup> It wasn't long before My-Master-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and destroyed it and its king under a holy curse, just as he had done to Jericho and its king. He also learned that the people of Gibeon had come to terms with Israel and were living as neighbors.

<sup>2</sup> He and his people were alarmed: Gibeon was a big city--as big as any with a king and bigger than Ai--and all its men were seasoned fighters.

king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon:

<sup>4</sup> "Come and help me. Let's attack Gibeon; they've joined up with Joshua and the People of Israel."

<sup>6</sup> The men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua camped at Gilgal, "Don't let us down now! Come up here quickly! Save us! Help us! All the Amorite kings who live up in the hills have ganged up on us."

<sup>7</sup> So Joshua set out from Gilgal, his whole army with him--all those tough soldiers!

your thumb--not one of them will stand up to you."

<sup>10</sup> GOD threw them into total confusion before Israel, a major victory at Gibeon. Israel chased them along the ridge to Beth Horon and fought them all the way down to Azekah and Makkedah.

<sup>11</sup> As they ran from the People of Israel, down from the Beth Horon ridge and all the way to Azekah, GOD pitched huge stones on them out of the sky and many died. More died from the hailstones than the People of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> The day GOD gave the Amorites up to Israel, Joshua spoke to GOD, with all Israel listening: "Stop, Sun, over Gibeon; Halt, Moon, over Aijalon Valley."

<sup>13</sup> And Sun stopped, Moon stood stock still Until he defeated his enemies. (You can find this written in the Book of Jashar.) The sun stopped in its tracks in mid sky; just sat there all day.

<sup>19</sup> But don't you hang around--go after your enemies. Cut off their retreat. Don't let them back into their cities. GOD has given them to you."

<sup>20</sup> Joshua and the People of Israel then finished them off, total devastation. Only a few got away to the fortified towns.

<sup>21</sup> The whole army then returned intact to the camp and to Joshua at Makedah. There was no criticism that day from the People of Israel!

<sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring me those five kings."

<sup>23</sup> They did it. They brought him the five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup> When they had them all there in front of Joshua, he called up the army and told the field commanders who had been with him, "Come here. Put your feet on the necks of these kings." They stepped up and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>26</sup> Then Joshua struck and killed the kings. He hung them on five trees where they remained until evening.

<sup>28</sup> That same day Joshua captured Makkedah, a massacre that included the king. He carried out the holy curse. No survivors. Makkedah's king got the same treatment as Jericho's king.

<sup>29</sup> Joshua, all Israel with him, moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah.

<sup>30</sup> GOD gave Libnah to Israel. They captured city and king and massacred the lot. No survivors. Libnah's king got the same treatment as Jericho's king.

<sup>31</sup> Joshua, all Israel with him, moved on from Libnah to Lachish. He set up camp nearby and attacked.

<sup>32</sup> GOD gave Lachish to Israel. Israel took it in two days and killed everyone. He carried out the holy curse, the same as with Libnah.

<sup>35</sup> They captured it and killed everyone, carrying out the holy curse, the same as they had done with Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Joshua, all Israel with him, went up from Eglon to Hebron. He attacked <sup>37</sup> and captured it. They killed everyone, including its king, its villages, and their people. No survivors, the same as with Eglon. They carried out the holy curse on city and people.

<sup>38</sup> Then Joshua, all Israel with him, turned toward Debir and attacked it.

<sup>39</sup> He captured it, its king, and its villages. They killed everyone. They put everyone and everything under the holy curse. No survivors. Debir and its king got the same treatment as Hebron and its king, and Libnah and its king.

<sup>42</sup> Joshua took all these kings and their lands in a single campaign because GOD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

11 <sup>1</sup> When Jabin king of Hazor heard of all this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon; to the king of Shimron; to the king of Acshaph;

<sup>8</sup> GOD gave them to Israel, who struck and chased them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and then to the Valley of Mizpah on the east. No survivors.

<sup>13</sup> But Israel didn't burn the cities that were built on mounds, except for Hazor--Joshua did burn down Hazor.

<sup>15</sup> Just as GOD commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it. He didn't leave incomplete one thing that GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>16</sup> Joshua took the whole country: the mountains, the southern desert, all of Goshen, the foothills, the valley (the Arabah), and the Israel mountains with their foothills,

<sup>19</sup> Not one town made peace with the People of Israel, with the one exception of the Hivites who lived in Gibeon. Israel fought and took all the rest.

<sup>20</sup> It was GOD's idea that they all would stubbornly fight the Israelites so he could put them under the holy curse without mercy. That way he could destroy them just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>23</sup> Joshua took the whole region. He did everything that GOD had told Moses. Then he parceled it out as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribes. And Israel had rest from war.

12 <sup>1</sup> These are the kings that the People of Israel defeated and whose land they took on the east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon, with the whole eastern side of the Arabah Valley.

and the Maacathites (the other half of Gilead) to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

<sup>6</sup> Moses the servant of GOD and the People of Israel defeated them. And Moses the servant of GOD gave this land as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half of the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup> And these are the kings of the land that Joshua and the People of Israel defeated in the country west of the Jordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon south to Mount Halak, which towers over Seir. Joshua gave this land to the tribes of Israel as a possession, according to their divisions:

<sup>8</sup> lands in the mountains, the western foothills, and the Arabah Valley, on the slopes, and in the wilderness and the Negev desert (lands on which Hittites, Amorites and Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites had lived). The kings were:

13 <sup>1</sup> When Joshua had reached a venerable age, GOD said to him, "You've had a good, long life, but there is a lot of land still to be taken.

<sup>2</sup> This is the land that remains: all the districts of the Philistines and Geshurites;

<sup>3</sup> the land from the Shihor River east of Egypt to the border of Ekron up north, Canaanite country (there were five Philistine tyrants--in Gaza, in Ashdod, in Ashkelon, in Gath, in Ekron); also the Avvim

<sup>6</sup> all who live in the mountains, from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim; all the Sidonians. "I myself will drive them out before the People of Israel. All you have to do is allot this land to Israel as an inheritance, as I have instructed you.

<sup>7</sup> Do it now: Allot this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh."

<sup>8</sup> The other half-tribe of Manasseh, with the Reubenites and Gadites, had been given their inheritance by Moses on the other side of the Jordan eastward. Moses the servant of GOD gave it to them.

<sup>10</sup> and all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled from Heshbon, and out to the border of the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> It also included Gilead, the country of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah

<sup>13</sup> The People of Israel never did drive out the Geshurites and the Maacathites--they're still there, living in Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Levi was the only tribe that did not receive an inheritance. The Fire-Gift offerings to GOD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, just as he told them.

the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon, whom Moses put to death along with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who lived in that country, all puppets of Sihon.

<sup>22</sup> (In addition to those killed in battle, Balaam son of Beor, the soothsayer, was put to death by the People of Israel.)

<sup>23</sup> The boundary for the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan River. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites, their villages and cities, according to their clans.

<sup>26</sup> the land from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the region of Debir;

<sup>28</sup> This was the inheritance of the Gadites, their cities and villages, clan by clan.

<sup>33</sup> But Moses gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. GOD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, just as he told them.

14 <sup>1</sup> Here are the inheritance allotments that the People of Israel received in the land of Canaan. Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the family clans made the allotments.

<sup>2</sup> Each inheritance was assigned by lot to the nine and a half tribes, just as GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>3</sup> Moses had given the two and a half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan, but hadn't given an inheritance to the Levites, as he had to the others.

<sup>4</sup> Because the sons of Joseph had become two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, they gave no allotment to the Levites; but they did give them cities to live in with pasture rights for their flocks and herds.

<sup>5</sup> The People of Israel followed through exactly as GOD had commanded Moses. They apportioned the land.

<sup>6</sup> The people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite spoke: "You'll remember what GOD said to Moses the man of God concerning you and me back at Kadesh Barnea.

<sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moses the servant of GOD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. And I brought back an honest and accurate report.

<sup>8</sup> My companions who went with me discouraged the people, but I stuck to my guns, totally with GOD, my God.

<sup>9</sup> That was the day that Moses solemnly promised, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance, you and your children's, forever. Yes, you have lived totally for GOD.'

<sup>10</sup> Now look at me: GOD has kept me alive, as he promised. It is now forty-five years since GOD spoke this word to Moses, years in which Israel wandered in the wilderness. And here I am today, eighty-five years old!

<sup>11</sup> I'm as strong as I was the day Moses sent me out. I'm as strong as ever in battle, whether coming or going.

<sup>12</sup> So give me this hill country that GOD promised me. You yourself heard the report, that the Anakim were there with their great fortress cities. If GOD goes with me, I will drive them out, just as GOD said."

<sup>13</sup> Joshua blessed him. He gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.

because he gave himself totally to GOD, the God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> The name of Hebron used to be Kiriath Arba, named after Arba, the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

15 <sup>1</sup> The lot for the people of Judah, their clans, extended south to the border of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin in the extreme south.

<sup>5</sup> The eastern boundary: the Salt Sea up to the mouth of the Jordan. The northern boundary started at the shallows of the Sea at the mouth of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> went up to Beth Hoglah and around to the north of Beth Arabah and to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

<sup>13</sup> Joshua gave Caleb son of Jephunneh a section among the people of Judah, according to GOD's command. He gave him Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron. Arba was the ancestor of Anak.

<sup>18</sup> When she arrived she got him to ask for farm land from her father. As she dismounted from her donkey Caleb asked her, "What would you like?"

<sup>19</sup> She said, "Give me a marriage gift. You've given me desert land; Now give me pools of water!" And he gave her the upper and the lower pools.

<sup>20</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah, clan by clan.

- <sup>22</sup> Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,
<sup>23</sup> Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
<sup>24</sup> Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,
<sup>25</sup> Hazor Hadattah, Keriioth Hezron (that is, Hazor), <sup>26</sup> Amam, Shema, Moladah,
<sup>27</sup> Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,
<sup>28</sup> Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,
<sup>32</sup> Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon--a total of twenty-nine towns and their villages.

and Makkedah--sixteen towns and their villages.

<sup>63</sup> The people of Judah couldn't get rid of the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem. The Jebusites stayed put, living alongside the people of Judah. They are still living there in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> and then west to the Sea. From Micmethath on the north it turned eastward to Taanath Shiloh and passed along, still eastward, to Janoah.

<sup>9</sup> including the cities set aside for Ephraim within the inheritance of Manasseh--all those towns and their villages.

<sup>10</sup> But they didn't get rid of the Canaanites who were living in Gezer. Canaanites are still living among the people of Ephraim, but they are made to do forced labor.

17 <sup>1</sup>This is the lot that fell to the people of Manasseh, Joseph's firstborn. (Gilead and Bashan had already been given to Makir, Manasseh's firstborn and father of Gilead, because he was an outstanding fighter.)

<sup>2</sup>So the lot that follows went to the rest of the people of Manasseh and their clans, the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida. These are the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.

<sup>3</sup>Zelophehad son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>4</sup>They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, "GOD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our kinsmen." And Joshua did it; he gave them, as GOD commanded, an inheritance amid their father's brothers.

<sup>5</sup> Manasseh's lot came to ten portions, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> because Manasseh's daughters got an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the people of Manasseh.

cities of Manasseh.) The boundary of Manasseh ran north of the brook and ended at the Sea.

<sup>10</sup> The land to the south belonged to Ephraim; the land to the north to Manasseh, with the Sea as their western border; they meet Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

<sup>11</sup> Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also held Beth Shan, Ibleam, and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach, and Megiddo, together with their villages, and the third in the list is Naphoth.

<sup>12</sup> The people of Manasseh never were able to take over these towns--the Canaanites wouldn't budge.

<sup>13</sup> But later, when the Israelites got stronger, they put the Canaanites to forced labor. But they never did get rid of them.

<sup>14</sup> The people of Joseph spoke to Joshua: "Why did you give us just one allotment, one solitary share? There are a lot of us, and growing--GOD has extravagantly blessed us."

<sup>15</sup> Joshua responded, "Since there are so many of you, and you find the hill country of Ephraim too confining, climb into the forest and clear ground there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim."

<sup>16</sup> But the people of Joseph said, "There's not enough hill country for us; and the Canaanites who live down in the plain, both those in Beth Shan and its villages and in the Valley of Jezreel, have iron chariots."

<sup>17</sup> Joshua said to the family of Joseph (to Ephraim and Manasseh): "Yes, there are a lot of you, and you are very strong. One lot is not enough for you.

<sup>18</sup> You also get the hill country. It's nothing but trees now, but you will clear the land and make it your own from one end to the other. The powerful Canaanites, even with their iron chariots, won't stand a chance against you."

18 <sup>1</sup> Then the entire congregation of the People of Israel got together at Shiloh. They put up the Tent of Meeting. The land was under their control <sup>2</sup> but there were still seven Israelite tribes who had yet to receive their inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> Joshua addressed the People of Israel: "How long are you going to sit around on your hands, putting off taking possession of the land that GOD, the God of your ancestors, has given you?"

<sup>4</sup> Pick three men from each tribe so I can commission them. They will survey and map the land, showing the inheritance due each tribe, and report back to me.

<sup>5</sup> They will divide it into seven parts. Judah will stay in its territory in the south and the people of Joseph will keep to their place in the north.

<sup>6</sup> "You are responsible for preparing a survey map showing seven portions. Then bring it to me so that I can cast lots for you here in the presence of our GOD.

<sup>7</sup> "Only the Levites get no portion among you because the priesthood of GOD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh already have their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan, given to them by Moses the servant of GOD."

<sup>8</sup> So the men set out. As they went out to survey the land, Joshua charged them: "Go. Survey the land and map it. Then come back to me and I will cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the presence of GOD."

<sup>9</sup> So off the men went. They covered the ground and mapped the country by towns in a scroll. Then they reported back to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.

<sup>11</sup> The first lot turned up for the tribe of Benjamin with its clans. The border of the allotment went between the peoples of Judah and Joseph.

<sup>13</sup> From there the border went around to Luz, to its southern ridge (that is, Bethel), and then down from Ataroth Addar to the mountain to the south of Lower Beth Horon.

<sup>15</sup> The southern border began at the edge of Kiriath Jearim on the west, then ran west until it reached the spring, the Waters of Nephtoah.

<sup>20</sup> The east border was formed by the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the people of Benjamin for their clans, marked by these borders on all sides.

19 <sup>1</sup> The second lot went to Simeon for its clans. Their inheritance was within the territory of Judah.

<sup>10</sup> The third lot went to Zebulun, clan by clan: The border of their inheritance went all the way to Sarid.

<sup>11</sup> It ran west to Maralah, met Dabbesheth, and then went to the brook opposite Jokneam.

<sup>28</sup> It went on to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, all the way to Greater Sidon.

<sup>47</sup> But the people of Dan failed to get rid of the Westerners (Amorites), who pushed them back into the hills. The Westerners kept them out of the plain and they didn't have enough room. So the people of Dan marched up and attacked Leshem. They took it, killed the inhabitants, and settled in. They renamed it Leshem Dan after the name of Dan their ancestor.

<sup>48</sup> This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to its clans, these towns with their villages.

<sup>49</sup> They completed the dividing of the land as inheritance and the setting of its boundaries. The People of Israel then gave an inheritance among them to Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>50</sup> In obedience to GOD's word, they gave him the city which he had requested, Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He rebuilt the city and settled there.

<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun and the ancestral leaders assigned by lot to the tribes of Israel at Shiloh in the presence of GOD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They completed the dividing of the land.

20 <sup>1</sup> Then GOD spoke to Joshua:

Designate the asylum-cities, as I instructed you through Moses,

<sup>3</sup> so that anyone who kills a person accidentally--that is, unintentionally-- may flee there as a safe place of asylum from the avenger of blood.

<sup>4</sup> "A person shall escape for refuge to one of these cities, stand at the entrance to the city gate, and lay out his case before the city's leaders. The leaders must then take him into the city among them and give him a place to live with them.

<sup>5</sup> "If the avenger of blood chases after him, they must not give him up--he didn't intend to kill the person; there was no history of ill-feeling.

<sup>6</sup> He may stay in that city until he has stood trial before the congregation and until the death of the current high priest.

Then he may go back to his own home in his hometown from which he fled."

<sup>7</sup> They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hills of Naphtali, Shechem in the hills of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hills of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> On the other side of the Jordan, east of Jericho, they designated Bezer on the desert plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup> These were the designated cities for the People of Israel and any resident foreigner living among them, so that anyone who killed someone unintentionally could flee there and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood without a fair trial before the congregation.

and Joshua son of Nun and to the heads of the other tribes of the People of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> This took place at Shiloh in the land of Canaan. They said, "GOD commanded through Moses that you give us cities to live in with access to pastures for our cattle."

<sup>8</sup> So the People of Israel gave these cities with their pastures to the Levites just as GOD had ordered through Moses, that is, by lot.

<sup>11</sup> Kiriath Arba (Arba was the ancestor of Anak), that is, Hebron, in the hills of Judah, with access to the pastures around it.

<sup>12</sup> The fields of the city and its open lands they had already given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

<sup>41</sup> The Levites held forty-eight towns with their accompanying pastures within the territory of the People of Israel.

<sup>42</sup> Each of these towns had pastures surrounding it--this was the case for all these towns.

<sup>43</sup> And so GOD gave Israel the entire land that he had solemnly vowed to give to their ancestors. They took possession of it and made themselves at home in it.

<sup>44</sup> And GOD gave them rest on all sides, as he had also solemnly vowed to their ancestors. Not a single one of their enemies was able to stand up to them--GOD handed over all their enemies to them.

<sup>45</sup> Not one word failed from all the good words GOD spoke to the house of Israel. Everything came out right.

22 <sup>1</sup> Then Joshua called together the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>2</sup> He said: "You have carried out everything Moses the servant of GOD commanded you, and you have obediently done everything I have commanded you.

<sup>3</sup> All this time and right down to this very day you have not abandoned your brothers; you've shouldered the task laid on you by GOD, your God.

<sup>4</sup> And now GOD, your God, has given rest to your brothers just as he promised them. You're now free to go back to your homes, the country of your inheritance that Moses the servant of GOD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

<sup>5</sup> Only this: Be vigilant in keeping the Commandment and The Revelation that Moses the servant of GOD laid on you: Love GOD, your God, walk in all his ways, do what he's commanded, embrace him, serve him with everything you are and have."

<sup>6</sup> Then Joshua blessed them and sent them on their way. They went home.

<sup>7</sup> (To the half-tribe of Manasseh, Moses had assigned a share in Bashan. To the other half, Joshua assigned land with their brothers west of the Jordan.) When Joshua sent them off to their homes, he blessed them.

<sup>8</sup> He said: "Go home. You're going home rich--great herds of cattle, silver and gold, bronze and iron, huge piles of clothing. Share the wealth with your friends and families--all this plunder from your enemies!"

<sup>10</sup> They arrived at Geliloth on the Jordan (touching on Canaanite land). There the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar on the banks of the Jordan--a huge altar!

<sup>11</sup> The People of Israel heard of it: "What's this? The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar facing the land of Canaan at Geliloth on the Jordan, across from the People of Israel!"

<sup>12</sup> When the People of Israel heard this, the entire congregation mustered at Shiloh to go to war against them.

<sup>13</sup> They sent Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh (that is, to the land of Gilead).

<sup>14</sup> Accompanying him were ten chiefs, one chief for each of the ten tribes, each the head of his ancestral family. They represented the military divisions of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> They went to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh and spoke to them:

<sup>16</sup> "The entire congregation of GOD wants to know: What is this violation against the God of Israel that you have committed, turning your back on GOD and building your own altar--a blatant act of rebellion against GOD?"

<sup>17</sup> Wasn't the crime of Peor enough for us? Why, to this day we aren't rid of it, still living with the fallout of the plague on the congregation of GOD!

<sup>18</sup> Look at you--turning your back on GOD! If you rebel against GOD today, tomorrow he'll vent his anger on all of us, the entire congregation of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> "If you think the land of your possession isn't holy enough but somehow contaminated, come back over to GOD's possession, where GOD's Dwelling is set up, and take your land there, but don't rebel against GOD. And don't rebel against us by building your own altar apart from the Altar of our GOD.

<sup>21</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the tribes of Israel:

<sup>22</sup> The God of Gods is GOD, The God of Gods is GOD! "He knows and he'll let Israel know if this is a rebellious betrayal of GOD. And if it is, don't bother saving us.

<sup>23</sup> If we built ourselves an altar in rebellion against GOD, if we did it to present on it Whole-Burnt-Offerings or Grain-Offerings or to enact there sacrificial Peace-Offerings, let GOD decide.

<sup>24</sup> "But that's not it. We did it because we cared. We were anxious lest someday your children should say to our children, 'You're not connected with GOD, the God of Israel!

<sup>25</sup> GOD made the Jordan a boundary between us and you. You Reubenites and Gadites have no part in GOD.' And then your children might cause our children to quit worshipping GOD.

<sup>26</sup> "So we said to ourselves, 'Let's do something. Let's build an altar--but not for Whole-Burnt-Offerings, not for sacrifices.'

<sup>27</sup> "We built this altar as a witness between us and you and our children coming after us, a witness to the Altar where we worship GOD in his Sacred Dwelling with our Whole-Burnt-Offerings and our sacrifices and our Peace-Offerings. "This way, your children won't be able to say to our children in the future, 'You have no part in GOD.'

<sup>28</sup> "We said to ourselves, 'If anyone speaks disparagingly to us or to our children in the future, we'll say: Look at this model of GOD's Altar which our ancestors made. It's not for Whole-Burnt-Offerings, not for sacrifices. It's a witness connecting us with you.'

<sup>29</sup> "Rebelling against or turning our backs on GOD is the last thing on our minds right now. We never dreamed of building an altar for Whole-Burnt-Offerings or Grain-Offerings to rival the Altar of our GOD in front of his Sacred Dwelling."

<sup>30</sup> Phinehas the priest, all the heads of the congregation, and the heads of the military divisions of Israel who were also with him heard what the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh had to say. They were satisfied.

<sup>31</sup> Priest Phinehas son of Eleazar said to Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, "Now we're convinced that GOD is present with us since you haven't been disloyal to GOD in this matter. You saved the People of Israel from GOD's discipline."

and, with the chiefs, returned to the land of Canaan to the People of Israel and gave a full report.

<sup>33</sup> They were pleased with the report. The People of Israel blessed God--there was no more talk of attacking and destroying the land in which the Reubenites and Gadites were living.

<sup>34</sup> Reuben and Gad named the altar: A Witness Between Us. GOD Alone Is God.

23 <sup>1</sup> A long time later, after GOD had given Israel rest from all their surrounding enemies, and Joshua was a venerable old man, <sup>2</sup> Joshua called all Israel together--elders, chiefs, judges, and officers. Then he spoke to them: "I'm an old man. I've lived a long time.

<sup>3</sup> You have seen everything that GOD has done to these nations because of you. He did it because he's GOD, your God. He fought for you.

<sup>4</sup> "Stay alert: I have assigned to you by lot these nations that remain as an inheritance to your tribes--these in addition to the nations I have already cut down--from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west.

<sup>7</sup> Don't get mixed up with the nations that are still around. Don't so much as speak the names of their gods or swear by them. And by all means don't worship or pray to them.

<sup>8</sup> Hold tight to GOD, your God, just as you've done up to now.

<sup>9</sup> "GOD has driven out superpower nations before you. And up to now, no one has been able to stand up to you.

<sup>10</sup> Think of it--one of you, single-handedly, putting a thousand on the run! Because GOD is GOD, your God. Because he fights for you, just as he promised you.

<sup>12</sup> Because if you wander off and start taking up with these remaining nations still among you (intermarry, say, and have other dealings with them),

<sup>13</sup> know for certain that GOD, your God, will not get rid of these nations for you. They'll be nothing but trouble to you--horsewhips on your backs and sand in your eyes--until you're the ones who will be driven out of this good land that GOD, your God, has given you.

<sup>14</sup> "As you can see, I'm about to go the way we all end up going. Know this with all your heart, with everything in you, that not one detail has failed of all the good things GOD, your God, promised you. It has all happened. Nothing's left undone--not so much as a word.

<sup>15</sup> "But just as sure as everything good that GOD, your God, has promised has come true, so also GOD will bring to pass every bad thing until there's nothing left of you in this good land that GOD has given you.

<sup>16</sup> If you leave the path of the Covenant of GOD, your God, that he commanded you, go off and serve and worship other gods, GOD's anger will blaze out against you. In no time at all there'll be nothing left of you, no sign that you've ever been in this good land he gave you."

24 <sup>1</sup> Joshua called together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He called in the elders, chiefs, judges, and officers. They presented themselves before God.

<sup>2</sup> Then Joshua addressed all the people: "This is what GOD, the God of Israel, says: A long time ago your ancestors, Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor, lived to the east of the River Euphrates. They worshiped other gods.

<sup>3</sup> I took your ancestor Abraham from the far side of The River. I led him all over the land of Canaan and multiplied his descendants. I gave him Isaac.

<sup>4</sup> Then I gave Isaac Jacob and Esau. I let Esau have the mountains of Seir as home, but Jacob and his sons ended up in Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> I sent Moses and Aaron. I hit Egypt hard with plagues and then led you out of there.

<sup>6</sup> I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. You came to the sea, the Egyptians in hot pursuit with chariots and cavalry, to the very edge of the Red Sea!

<sup>7</sup> "Then they cried out for help to GOD. He put a cloud between you and the Egyptians and then let the sea loose on them. It drowned them. "You watched the whole thing with your own eyes, what I did to Egypt. And then you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

<sup>8</sup> I brought you to the country of the Amorites, who lived east of the Jordan, and they fought you. But I fought for you and you took their land. I destroyed them for you.

<sup>9</sup> Then Balak son of Zippor made his appearance. He was the king of Moab. He got ready to fight Israel by sending for Balaam son of Beor to come and curse you.

<sup>10</sup> But I wouldn't listen to Balaam--he ended up blessing you over and over! I saved you from him.

<sup>11</sup> "You then crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The Jericho leaders ganged up on you as well as the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, but I turned them over to you.

<sup>12</sup> "I sent the Hornet ahead of you. It drove out the two Amorite kings--did your work for you. You didn't have to do a thing, not so much as raise a finger.

<sup>13</sup> "I handed you a land for which you did not work, towns you did not build. And here you are now living in them and eating from vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.

<sup>14</sup> "So now: Fear GOD. Worship him in total commitment. Get rid of the gods your ancestors worshiped on the far side of The River (the Euphrates) and in Egypt. You, worship GOD.

<sup>15</sup> "If you decide that it's a bad thing to worship GOD, then choose a god you'd rather serve--and do it today. Choose one of the gods your ancestors worshiped from the country beyond The River, or one of the gods of the Amorites, on whose land you're now living. As for me and my family, we'll worship GOD."

<sup>16</sup> The people answered, "We'd never forsake GOD! Never! We'd never leave GOD to worship other gods.

<sup>17</sup> "GOD is our God! He brought up our ancestors from Egypt and from slave conditions. He did all those great signs while we watched. He has kept his eye on us all along the roads we've traveled and among the nations we've passed through.

<sup>18</sup> Just for us he drove out all the nations, Amorites and all, who lived in the land. "Count us in: We too are going to worship GOD. He's our God."

<sup>19</sup> Then Joshua told the people: "You can't do it; you're not able to worship

GOD. He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He won't put up with your fooling around and sinning.

<sup>20</sup> When you leave GOD and take up the worship of foreign gods, he'll turn right around and come down on you hard. He'll put an end to you--and after all the good he has done for you!"

<sup>21</sup> But the people told Joshua: "No! No! We worship GOD!"

<sup>22</sup> And so Joshua addressed the people: "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen GOD for yourselves--to worship him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

<sup>23</sup> Joshua said, "Now get rid of all the foreign gods you have with you. Say an unqualified Yes to GOD, the God of Israel."

<sup>24</sup> The people answered Joshua, "We will worship GOD. What he says, we'll do."

<sup>25</sup> Joshua completed a Covenant for the people that day there at Shechem. He made it official, spelling it out in detail.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua wrote out all the directions and regulations into the Book of The Revelation of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up under the oak that was in the holy place of GOD.

<sup>27</sup> Joshua spoke to all the people: "This stone is a witness against us. It has heard every word that GOD has said to us. It is a standing witness against you lest you cheat on your God."

<sup>29</sup> After all this, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of GOD, died. He was 110 years old.

<sup>31</sup> Israel served GOD through the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him, who had themselves experienced all that GOD had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup> Joseph's bones, which the People of Israel had brought from Egypt, they buried in Shechem in the plot of ground that Jacob had purchased from the sons of Hamor (who was the father of Shechem). He paid a hundred silver coins for it. It belongs to the inheritance of the family of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup> Eleazar son of Aaron died. They buried him at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son Phinehas in the mountains of Ephraim.

Judges

1 <sup>1</sup> A time came after the death of Joshua when the People of Israel asked GOD, "Who will take the lead in going up against the Canaanites to fight them?"

<sup>2</sup> And GOD said, "Judah will go. I've given the land to him."

<sup>3</sup> The men of Judah said to those of their brother Simeon, "Go up with us to our territory and we'll fight the Canaanites. Then we'll go with you to your territory." And Simeon went with them.

<sup>5</sup> They caught up with My-Master-Bezек there and fought him. They smashed the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

<sup>6</sup> My-Master-Bezек ran, but they gave chase and caught him. They cut off his thumbs and big toes.

<sup>7</sup> My-Master-Bezек said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to crawl under my table, scavenging. Now God has done to me what I did to them." They brought him to Jerusalem and he died there.

<sup>8</sup> The people of Judah attacked and captured Jerusalem, subduing the city by sword and then sending it up in flames.

<sup>9</sup> After that they had gone down to fight the Canaanites who were living in the hill country, the Negev, and the foothills.

<sup>10</sup> Judah had gone on to the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba) and brought Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi to their knees.

<sup>11</sup> From there they had marched against the population of Debir (Debir used to be called Kiriath Sepher).

<sup>14</sup> When she arrived she got him to ask for farm land from her father. As she dismounted from her donkey Caleb asked her, "What would you like?"

<sup>15</sup> She said, "Give me a marriage gift. You've given me desert land; Now give me pools of water!" And he gave her the upper and the lower pools.

<sup>16</sup> The people of Hobab the Kenite, Moses' relative, went up with the people of Judah from the City of Palms to the wilderness of Judah at the descent of Arad. They settled down there with the Amalekites.

<sup>19</sup> GOD was certainly with Judah in that they took over the hill country. But they couldn't oust the people on the plain because they had iron chariots.

<sup>22</sup> The house of Joseph went up to attack Bethel. GOD was with them.

<sup>25</sup> The man showed them a way in. They killed everyone in the city but the man and his family.

<sup>26</sup> The man went to Hittite country and built a city. He named it Luz; that's its name to this day.

<sup>28</sup> When Israel became stronger they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they never got rid of them.

<sup>29</sup> Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer. The Canaanites stuck it out and lived there with them.

<sup>30</sup> Nor did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites in Kitron or Nahalol. They kept living there, but they were put to forced labor.

<sup>33</sup> Naphtali fared no better. They couldn't drive out the people of Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath so they just moved in and lived with them. They did, though, put them to forced labor.

<sup>34</sup> The Amorites pushed the people of Dan up into the hills and wouldn't let them down on the plains.

<sup>35</sup> The Amorites stubbornly continued to live in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim. But when the house of Joseph got the upper hand, they were put to forced labor.

2 <sup>1</sup> GOD's angel went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, "I brought you out of Egypt; I led you to the land that I promised to your fathers; and I said, I'll never break my covenant with you--never!

<sup>2</sup> And you're never to make a covenant with the people who live in this land. Tear down their altars! But you haven't obeyed me! What's this that you're doing?

<sup>3</sup> "So now I'm telling you that I won't drive them out before you. They'll trip you up and their gods will become a trap."

<sup>4</sup> When GOD's angel had spoken these words to all the People of Israel, they cried out--oh! how they wept!

<sup>5</sup> They named the place Bokim (Weepers). And there they sacrificed to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> After Joshua had dismissed them, the People of Israel went off to claim their allotted territories and take possession of the land.

<sup>7</sup> The people worshiped GOD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and the time of the leaders who survived him, leaders who had been in on all of GOD's great work that he had done for Israel.

<sup>8</sup> Then Joshua son of Nun, the servant of GOD, died. He was 110 years old.

<sup>10</sup> Eventually that entire generation died and was buried. Then another generation grew up that didn't know anything of GOD or the work he had done for Israel.

<sup>12</sup> they served Baal-gods; they deserted GOD, the God of their parents who had led them out of Egypt; they took up with other gods, gods of the peoples around them. They actually worshiped them! And oh, how they angered GOD

<sup>14</sup> GOD's anger was hot against Israel: He handed them off to plunderers who stripped them; he sold them cheap to enemies on all sides. They were helpless before their enemies.

<sup>15</sup> Every time they walked out the door GOD was with them--but for evil, just as GOD had said, just as he had sworn he would do. They were in a bad way.

<sup>16</sup> But then GOD raised up judges who saved them from their plunderers.

<sup>17</sup> But they wouldn't listen to their judges; they prostituted themselves to other gods--worshiped them! They lost no time leaving the road walked by their parents, the road of obedience to GOD's commands. They refused to have anything to do with it.

<sup>18</sup> When GOD was setting up judges for them, he would be right there with the judge: He would save them from their enemies' oppression as long as the judge was alive, for GOD was moved to compassion when he heard their groaning because of those who afflicted and beat them.

<sup>19</sup> But when the judge died, the people went right back to their old ways--but even worse than their parents!--running after other gods, serving and worshipping them. Stubborn as mules, they didn't drop a single evil practice.

<sup>20</sup> And GOD's anger blazed against Israel. He said, "Because these people have thrown out my covenant that I commanded their parents and haven't listened to me,

<sup>23</sup> That's why GOD let those nations remain. He didn't drive them out or let Joshua get rid of them.

3 <sup>1</sup> These are the nations that GOD left there, using them to test the Israelites who had no experience in the Canaanite wars.

<sup>2</sup> He did it to train the descendants of Israel, the ones who had no battle experience, in the art of war.

<sup>4</sup> They were there to test Israel and see whether they would obey GOD's commands that were given to their parents through Moses.

<sup>6</sup> They married their daughters and gave their own daughters to their sons in marriage. And they worshiped their gods.

<sup>7</sup> The People of Israel did evil in GOD's sight. They forgot their GOD and worshiped the Baal gods and Asherah goddesses.

<sup>8</sup> GOD's hot anger blazed against Israel. He sold them off to Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim. The People of Israel were in servitude to Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years.

<sup>9</sup> The People of Israel cried out to GOD and GOD raised up a savior who rescued them: Caleb's nephew Othniel, son of his younger brother Kenaz. The Spirit of GOD came on him and he rallied Israel. He went out to war and GOD gave him Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim. Othniel made short work of him.

<sup>11</sup> The land was quiet for forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

<sup>12</sup> But the People of Israel went back to doing evil in GOD's sight. So GOD made Eglon king of Moab a power against Israel because they did evil in GOD's sight.

<sup>13</sup> He recruited the Ammonites and Amalekites and went out and struck Israel. They took the City of Palms.

<sup>15</sup> The People of Israel cried out to GOD and GOD raised up for them a savior, Ehud son of Gera, a Benjaminite. He was left-handed. The People of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon king of Moab.

<sup>18</sup> After Ehud finished presenting the tribute, he went a little way with the men who had carried it.

<sup>19</sup> But when he got as far as the stone images near Gilgal, he went back and said, "I have a private message for you, O king." The king told his servants, "Leave." They all left.

<sup>20</sup> Ehud approached him--the king was now quite alone in his cool rooftop room--and said, "I have a word of God for you." Eglon stood up from his throne.

<sup>22</sup> Not only the blade but the hilt went in. The fat closed in over it so he couldn't pull it out.

<sup>23</sup> Ehud slipped out by way of the porch and shut and locked the doors of the rooftop room behind him.

<sup>24</sup> Then he was gone. When the servants came, they saw with surprise that the doors to the rooftop room were locked. They said, "He's probably relieving himself in the restroom."

<sup>25</sup> They waited. And then they worried--no one was coming out of those locked doors. Finally, they got a key and unlocked them. There was their master, fallen on the floor, dead!

<sup>26</sup> While they were standing around wondering what to do, Ehud was long gone. He got past the stone images and escaped to Seirah.

<sup>27</sup> When he got there, he sounded the trumpet on Mount Ephraim. The People of Israel came down from the hills and joined him. He took his place at their head.

<sup>28</sup> He said, "Follow me, for GOD has given your enemies--yes, Moab!--to you." They went down after him and secured the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites. They let no one cross over.

<sup>29</sup> At that time, they struck down about ten companies of Moabites, all of them well-fed and robust. Not one escaped.

<sup>30</sup> That day Moab was subdued under the hand of Israel. The land was quiet for eighty years.

4 <sup>1</sup> The People of Israel kept right on doing evil in GOD's sight. With Ehud dead, <sup>2</sup> GOD sold them off to Jabin king of Canaan who ruled from Hazor. Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim, was the commander of his army.

<sup>4</sup> Deborah was a prophet, the wife of Lappidoth. She was judge over Israel at that time.

<sup>5</sup> She held court under Deborah's Palm between Ramah and Bethel in the hills of Ephraim. The People of Israel went to her in matters of justice.

<sup>6</sup> She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "It has become clear that GOD, the God of Israel, commands you: Go to Mount Tabor and prepare for battle. Take ten companies of soldiers from Naphtali and Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup> Barak said, "If you go with me, I'll go. But if you don't go with me, I won't go."

<sup>9</sup> She said, "Of course I'll go with you. But understand that with an attitude like that, there'll be no glory in it for you. GOD will use a woman's hand to take care of Sisera." Deborah got ready and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup> Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together at Kedesh. Ten companies of men followed him. And Deborah was with him.

<sup>11</sup> It happened that Heber the Kenite had parted company with the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' in-law. He was now living at Zaananim Oak near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup> They told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

<sup>13</sup> Sisera immediately called up all his chariots to the Kishon River--nine hundred iron chariots!--along with all his troops who were with him at Harosheth Haggoyim.

<sup>14</sup> Deborah said to Barak, "Charge! This very day GOD has given you victory over Sisera. Isn't GOD marching before you?"

Barak charged down the slopes of Mount Tabor, his ten companies following him.

<sup>18</sup> Jael stepped out to meet Sisera and said, "Come in, sir. Stay here with me. Don't be afraid." So he went with her into her tent. She covered him with a blanket.

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Please, a little water. I'm thirsty." She opened a bottle of milk, gave him a drink, and then covered him up again.

<sup>20</sup> He then said, "Stand at the tent flap. If anyone comes by and asks you, 'Is there anyone here?' tell him, 'No, not a soul.'"

<sup>21</sup> Then while he was fast asleep from exhaustion, Jael wife of Heber took a tent peg and hammer, tiptoed toward him, and drove the tent peg through his temple and all the way into the ground. He convulsed and died.

<sup>22</sup> Barak arrived in pursuit of Sisera. Jael went out to greet him. She said, "Come, I'll show you the man you're looking for." He went with her and there he was--Sisera, stretched out, dead, with a tent peg through his neck.

<sup>23</sup> On that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan before the People of Israel.

5 <sup>1</sup> That day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

<sup>2</sup> When they let down their hair in Israel, they let it blow wild in the wind. The people volunteered with abandon, bless GOD!

<sup>3</sup> Hear O kings! Listen O princes! To GOD, yes to GOD, I'll sing, Make music to GOD, to the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> GOD, when you left Seir, marched across the fields of Edom, Earth quaked, yes, the skies poured rain, oh, the clouds made rivers.

<sup>6</sup> In the time of Shamgar son of Anath, and in the time of Jael, Public roads were abandoned, travelers went by backroads.

<sup>7</sup> Warriors became fat and sloppy, no fight left in them. Then you, Deborah, rose up; you got up, a mother in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> God chose new leaders, who then fought at the gates. And not a shield or spear to be seen among the forty companies of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Lift your hearts high, O Israel, with abandon, volunteering yourselves with the people--bless GOD!

feet, Barak! Take your prisoners, son of Abinoam!

<sup>13</sup> Then the remnant went down to greet the brave ones. The people of GOD joined the mighty ones.

<sup>15</sup> Issachar's princes rallied to Deborah, Issachar stood fast with Barak, backing him up on the field of battle. But in Reuben's divisions there was much second-guessing.

<sup>30</sup> "Don't you think they're busy at plunder, dividing up the loot? A girl, maybe two girls, for each man, And for Sisera a bright silk shirt, a prize, fancy silk shirt! And a colorful scarf--make it two scarves--to grace the neck of the plunderer."

<sup>31</sup> Thus may all GOD's enemies perish, while his lovers be like the unclouded sun. The land was quiet for forty years.

6 <sup>1</sup> Yet again the People of Israel went back to doing evil in GOD's sight. GOD put them under the domination of Midian for seven years.

<sup>2</sup> Midian overpowered Israel. Because of Midian, the People of Israel made for themselves hideouts in the mountains--caves and forts.

<sup>6</sup> The People of Israel, reduced to grinding poverty by Midian, cried out to GOD for help.

<sup>7</sup> One time when the People of Israel had cried out to GOD because of Midian, <sup>8</sup> GOD sent them a prophet with this message: "GOD, the God of Israel, says, I delivered you from Egypt, I freed you from a life of slavery;

<sup>9</sup> I rescued you from Egypt's brutality and then from every oppressor; I pushed them out of your way and gave you their land.

<sup>10</sup> "And I said to you, 'I am GOD, your God. Don't for a minute be afraid of the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living.' But you didn't listen to me."

<sup>11</sup> One day the angel of GOD came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, whose son Gideon was threshing wheat in the winepress, out of sight of the Midianites.

<sup>12</sup> The angel of GOD appeared to him and said, "GOD is with you, O mighty warrior!"

<sup>13</sup> Gideon replied, "With [me], my master? If GOD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all the miracle-wonders our parents and grandparents told us about, telling us, 'Didn't GOD deliver us from Egypt?' The fact is, GOD has nothing to do with us--he has turned us over to Midian."

<sup>14</sup> But GOD faced him directly: "Go in this strength that is yours. Save Israel from Midian. Haven't I just sent you?"

<sup>15</sup> Gideon said to him, "Me, my master? How and with what could I ever save Israel? Look at me. My clan's the weakest in Manasseh and I'm the runt of the litter."

<sup>16</sup> GOD said to him, "I'll be with you. Believe me, you'll defeat Midian as one man."

<sup>17</sup> Gideon said, "If you're serious about this, do me a favor: Give me a sign to back up what you're telling me.

<sup>18</sup> Don't leave until I come back and bring you my gift." He said, "I'll wait till you get back."

<sup>19</sup> Gideon went and prepared a young goat and a huge amount of unraised bread (he used over half a bushel of flour!). He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot and took them back under the shade of the oak tree for a sacred meal.

<sup>20</sup> The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and unraised bread, place them on that rock, and pour the broth on them." Gideon did it.

<sup>21</sup> The angel of GOD stretched out the tip of the stick he was holding and touched the meat and the bread. Fire broke out of the rock and burned up the meat and bread while the angel of God slipped away out of sight.

<sup>22</sup> And Gideon knew it was the angel of God! Gideon said, "Oh no! Master, GOD! I have seen the angel of God face to face!"

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon built an altar there to GOD and named it "GOD's Peace." It's still called that at Ophrah of Abiezer.

<sup>25</sup> That night this happened. GOD said to him, "Take your father's best seven-year-old bull, the prime one. Tear down your father's Baal altar and chop down the Asherah fertility pole beside it.

<sup>26</sup> Then build an altar to GOD, your God, on the top of this hill. Take the prime bull and present it as a Whole-Burnt-Offering, using firewood from the Asherah pole that you cut down."

<sup>27</sup> Gideon selected ten men from his servants and did exactly what GOD had told him. But because of his family and the people in the neighborhood, he was afraid to do it openly, so he did it that night.

<sup>28</sup> Early in the morning, the people in town were shocked to find Baal's altar torn down, the Asherah pole beside it chopped down, and the prime bull burning away on the altar that had been built.

<sup>29</sup> They kept asking, "Who did this?" Questions and more questions, and then the answer: "Gideon son of Joash did it."

<sup>30</sup> The men of the town demanded of Joash: "Bring out your son! He must die! Why, he tore down the Baal altar and chopped down the Asherah tree!"

<sup>31</sup> But Joash stood up to the crowd pressing in on him, "Are you going to fight Baal's battles for him? Are you going to save him? Anyone who takes Baal's side will be dead by morning. If Baal is a god in fact, let him fight his own battles and defend his own altar."

<sup>32</sup> They nicknamed Gideon that day Jerub-Baal because after he had torn down the Baal altar, he had said, "Let Baal fight his own battles."

<sup>33</sup> All the Midianites and Amalekites (the easterners) got together, crossed the river, and made camp in the Valley of Jezreel.

<sup>34</sup> GOD's Spirit came over Gideon. He blew his ram's horn trumpet and the Abiezrites came out, ready to follow him.

<sup>35</sup> He dispatched messengers all through Manasseh, calling them to the battle; also to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali. They all came.

<sup>36</sup> Gideon said to God, "If this is right, if you are using me to save Israel as you've said, <sup>37</sup> then look: I'm placing a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If dew is on the fleece only, but the floor is dry, then I know that you will use me to save Israel, as you said."

<sup>38</sup> That's what happened. When he got up early the next morning, he wrung out the fleece--enough dew to fill a bowl with water!

<sup>39</sup> Then Gideon said to God, "Don't be impatient with me, but let me say one more thing. I want to try another time with the fleece. But this time let the fleece stay dry, while the dew drenches the ground."

<sup>40</sup> God made it happen that very night. Only the fleece was dry while the ground was wet with dew.

7 <sup>1</sup> Jerub-Baal (Gideon) got up early the next morning, all his troops right there with him. They set up camp at Harod's Spring. The camp of Midian was in the plain, north of them near the Hill of Moreh.

<sup>2</sup> GOD said to Gideon, "You have too large an army with you. I can't turn Midian over to them like this--they'll take all the credit, saying, 'I did it all myself,' and forget about me.

<sup>3</sup> Make a public announcement: 'Anyone afraid, anyone who has any qualms at all, may leave Mount Gilead now and go home.'" Twenty-two companies headed for home. Ten companies were left.

<sup>4</sup> GOD said to Gideon: "There are still too many. Take them down to the stream and I'll make a final cut. When I say, 'This one goes with you,' he'll go. When I say, 'This one doesn't go,' he won't go."

<sup>5</sup> So Gideon took the troops down to the stream. GOD said to Gideon: "Everyone who laps with his tongue, the way a dog laps, set on one side. And everyone who kneels to drink, drinking with his face to the water, set to the other side."

<sup>9</sup> That night, GOD told Gideon: "Get up and go down to the camp. I've given it to you."

<sup>10</sup> If you have any doubts about going down, go down with Purah your armor bearer;

<sup>11</sup> when you hear what they're saying, you'll be bold and confident." He and his armor bearer Purah went down near the place where sentries were posted.

<sup>12</sup> Midian and Amalek, all the easterners, were spread out on the plain like a swarm of locusts. And their camels! Past counting, like grains of sand on the seashore!

<sup>13</sup> Gideon arrived just in time to hear a man tell his friend a dream. He said, "I had this dream: A loaf of barley bread tumbled into the Midianite camp. It came to the tent and hit it so hard it collapsed. The tent fell!"

<sup>14</sup> His friend said, "This has to be the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite! God has turned Midian--the whole camp!--over to him."

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he went to his knees before God in prayer. Then he went back to the Israelite camp and said, "Get up and get going! GOD has just given us the Midianite army!"

<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three companies. He gave each man a trumpet and an empty jar, with a torch in the jar.

<sup>17</sup> He said, "Watch me and do what I do. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly what I do.

<sup>18</sup> When I and those with me blow the trumpets, you also, all around the camp, blow your trumpets and shout, 'For GOD and for Gideon!'"

<sup>19</sup> Gideon and his hundred men got to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after the sentries had been posted. They blew the trumpets, at the same time smashing the jars they carried.

<sup>22</sup> When the three hundred blew the trumpets, GOD aimed each Midianite's sword against his companion, all over the camp. They ran for their lives--to Beth Shittah, toward Zererah, to the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

<sup>23</sup> Israelites rallied from Naphtali, from Asher, and from all over Manasseh. They had Midian on the run.

<sup>25</sup> So all the men of Ephraim rallied and captured the fords of the Jordan at Beth Barah. They also captured the two Midianite commanders Oreb (Raven) and Zeeb (Wolf). They killed Oreb at Raven Rock; Zeeb they killed at Wolf Winepress. And they pressed the pursuit of Midian. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan.

8 <sup>1</sup> Then the Ephraimites said to Gideon, "Why did you leave us out of this, not calling us when you went to fight Midian?" They were indignant and let him know it.

<sup>2</sup> But Gideon replied, "What have I done compared to you? Why, even the gleanings of Ephraim are superior to the vintage of Abiezer.

<sup>3</sup> God gave you Midian's commanders, Oreb and Zeeb. What have I done compared with you?" When they heard this, they calmed down and cooled off.

<sup>4</sup> Gideon and his three hundred arrived at the Jordan and crossed over. They were bone-tired but still pressing the pursuit.

<sup>5</sup> He asked the men of Succoth, "Please, give me some loaves of bread for my troops I have with me. They're worn out, and I'm hot on the trail of Zebah and Zalmunna, the Midianite kings."

<sup>6</sup> But the leaders in Succoth said, "You're on a wild goose chase; why should we help you on a fool's errand?"

<sup>7</sup> Gideon said, "If you say so. But when GOD gives me Zebah and Zalmunna, I'll give you a thrashing, whip your bare flesh with desert thorns and thistles!"

<sup>8</sup> He went from there to Peniel and made the same request. The men of Peniel, like the men of Succoth, also refused.

<sup>11</sup> Gideon went up the caravan trail east of Nobah and Jogbehah, found and attacked the undefended camp.

<sup>12</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but he chased and captured the two kings of Midian. The whole camp had panicked.

<sup>13</sup> Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by way of the Heres Pass.

<sup>14</sup> He captured a young man from Succoth and asked some questions. The young man wrote down the names of the officials and leaders of Succoth, seventy-seven men.

<sup>15</sup> Then Gideon went to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are the wild geese, Zebah and Zalmunna, you said I'd never catch. You wouldn't give so much as a scrap of bread to my worn-out men; you taunted us, saying that we were on a fool's errand."

<sup>16</sup> Then he took the seventy-seven leaders of Succoth and thrashed them with desert thorns and thistles.

<sup>17</sup> And he demolished the tower of Peniel and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup> He then addressed Zebah and Zalmunna: "Tell me about the men you killed at Tabor." "They were men much like you," they said, "each one like a king's son."

<sup>19</sup> Gideon said, "They were my brothers, my mother's sons. As GOD lives, if you had let them live, I would let you live."

<sup>20</sup> Then he spoke to Jether, his firstborn: "Get up and kill them." But he couldn't do it, couldn't draw his sword. He was afraid--he was still just a boy.

<sup>21</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Do it yourself--if you're man enough!" And Gideon did it. He stepped up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. Then he took the crescents that hung on the necks of their camels.

<sup>22</sup> The Israelites said, "Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson. You have saved us from Midian's tyranny."

<sup>23</sup> Gideon said, "I most certainly will not rule over you, nor will my son. GOD will reign over you."

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon said, "But I do have one request. Give me, each of you, an earring that you took as plunder." Ishmaelites wore gold earrings, and the men all had their pockets full of them.

<sup>25</sup> They said, "Of course. They're yours!" They spread out a blanket and each man threw his plundered earrings on it.

<sup>26</sup> The gold earrings that Gideon had asked for weighed about forty-three pounds--and that didn't include the crescents and pendants, the purple robes worn by the Midianite kings, and the ornaments hung around the necks of their camels.

<sup>27</sup> Gideon made the gold into a sacred ephod and put it on display in his hometown, Ophrah. All Israel prostituted itself there. Gideon and his family, too, were seduced by it.

<sup>28</sup> Midian's tyranny was broken by the Israelites; nothing more was heard from them. The land was quiet for forty years in Gideon's time.

<sup>29</sup> Jerub-Baal son of Joash went home and lived in his house.

<sup>33</sup> Gideon was hardly cool in the tomb when the People of Israel had gotten off track and were prostituting themselves to Baal--they made Baal-of-the-Covenant their god.

<sup>34</sup> The People of Israel forgot all about GOD, their God, who had saved them from all their enemies who had hemmed them in.

<sup>35</sup> And they didn't keep faith with the family of Jerub-Baal (Gideon), honoring all the good he had done for Israel.

9<sup>1</sup> Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal went to Shechem to his uncles and all his mother's relatives and said to them,

<sup>2</sup> "Ask all the leading men of Shechem, 'What do you think is best, that seventy men rule you--all those sons of Jerub-Baal--or that one man rule? You'll remember that I am your own flesh and blood.'"

<sup>3</sup> His mother's relatives reported the proposal to the leaders of Shechem. They were inclined to take Abimelech. "Because," they said, "he is, after all, one of us."

<sup>5</sup> He went to his father's house in Ophrah and killed his half brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal--seventy men! And on one stone! The youngest, Jotham son of Jerub-Baal, managed to hide, the only survivor.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo gathered at the Oak by the Standing Stone at Shechem and crowned Abimelech king.

<sup>7</sup> When this was all told to Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim, raised his voice, and shouted: Listen to me, leaders of Shechem. And let God listen to you!

<sup>8</sup> The trees set out one day to anoint a king for themselves. They said to Olive Tree, "Rule over us."

<sup>9</sup> But Olive Tree told them, "Am I no longer good for making oil That gives glory to gods and men, and to be demoted to waving over trees?"

<sup>10</sup> The trees then said to Fig Tree, "You come and rule over us."

<sup>11</sup> But Fig Tree said to them, "Am I no longer good for making sweets, My mouthwatering sweet fruits, and to be demoted to waving over trees?"

<sup>12</sup> The trees then said to Vine, "You come and rule over us."

<sup>13</sup> But Vine said to them, "Am I no longer good for making wine, Wine that cheers gods and men, and to be demoted to waving over trees?"

<sup>14</sup> All the trees then said to Tumbleweed, "You come and reign over us."

<sup>15</sup> But Tumbleweed said to the trees: "If you're serious about making me your king, Come and find shelter in my shade. But if not, let fire shoot from Tumbleweed and burn down the cedars of Lebanon!"

<sup>16</sup> "Now listen: Do you think you did a right and honorable thing when you made Abimelech king? Do you think you treated Jerub-Baal and his family well, did for him what he deserved?

<sup>17</sup> My father fought for you, risked his own life, and rescued you from Midian's tyranny, <sup>18</sup> and you have, just now, betrayed him. You massacred his sons--seventy men on a single stone! You made Abimelech, the son by his maidservant, king over Shechem's leaders because he's your relative.

<sup>19</sup> If you think that this is an honest day's work, this way you have treated Jerub-Baal today, then enjoy Abimelech and let him enjoy you.

<sup>20</sup> But if not, let fire break from Abimelech and burn up the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo. And let fire break from the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo and burn up Abimelech."

<sup>21</sup> And Jotham fled. He ran for his life. He went to Beer and settled down there, because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

<sup>24</sup> Violence boomeranged: The murderous violence that killed the seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal, was now loose among Abimelech and Shechem's leaders, who had supported the violence.

<sup>26</sup> At that time Gaal son of Ebed arrived with his relatives and moved into Shechem. The leaders of Shechem trusted him.

<sup>27</sup> One day they went out into the fields, gathered grapes in the vineyards, and trod them in the winepress. Then they held a celebration in their god's temple, a feast, eating and drinking. And then they started putting down Abimelech.

<sup>28</sup> Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is this Abimelech? And who are we Shechemites to take orders from him? Isn't he the son of Jerub-Baal, and isn't this his henchman Zebul? We belong to the race of Hamor and bear the noble name of Shechem. Why should we be toadies of Abimelech?"

<sup>29</sup> If I were in charge of this people, the first thing I'd do is get rid of Abimelech! I'd say, 'Show me your stuff, Abimelech--let's see who's boss here!'"

<sup>30</sup> Zebul, governor of the city, heard what Gaal son of Ebed was saying and got angry.

<sup>31</sup> Secretly he sent messengers to Abimelech with the message, "Gaal son of Ebed and his relatives have come to Shechem and are stirring up trouble against you.

<sup>32</sup> Here's what you do: Tonight bring your troops and wait in ambush in the field.

<sup>33</sup> In the morning, as soon as the sun breaks, get moving and charge the city. Gaal and his troops will come out to you, and you'll know what to do next."

Zebul said, "That's nothing but mountain shadows; they just look like men." Gaal kept chattering away.

<sup>37</sup> Then he said again, "Look at the troops coming down off Tabbur-erez (the Navel of the World)--and one company coming straight from the Oracle Oak."

<sup>38</sup> Zebul said, "Where is that big mouth of yours now? You who said, 'And who is Abimelech that we should take orders from him?' Well, there he is with the troops you ridiculed. Here's your chance. Fight away!"

<sup>39</sup> Gaal went out, backed by the leaders of Shechem, and did battle with Abimelech.

Zebul kept Gaal and his relatives out of Shechem.

<sup>42</sup> The next day the people went out to the fields. This was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>43</sup> He took his troops, divided them into three companies, and placed them in ambush in the fields. When he saw that the people were well out in the open, he sprang up and attacked them.

<sup>44</sup> Abimelech and the company with him charged ahead and took control of the entrance to the city gate; the other two companies chased down those who were in the open fields and killed them.

<sup>45</sup> Abimelech fought at the city all that day. He captured the city and massacred everyone in it. He leveled the city to the ground, then sowed it with salt.

into the fortified God-of-the-Covenant temple.

<sup>47</sup> This was reported to Abimelech that the Shechem's Tower bunch were gathered together.

and women of the city along with the city's leaders had fled there and locked themselves in. They were up on the tower roof.

<sup>54</sup> He called urgently to his young armor-bearer and said, "Draw your sword and kill me so they can't say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" His armor bearer drove in his sword, and Abimelech died.

<sup>55</sup> When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

<sup>57</sup> And God brought down on the heads of the men of Shechem all the evil that they had done, the curse of Jotham son of Jerub-Baal.

10 <sup>1</sup> Tola son of Puah, the son of Dodo, was next after Abimelech. He rose to the occasion to save Israel. He was a man of Issachar. He lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

<sup>2</sup> He judged Israel for twenty-three years and then died and was buried at Shamir.

<sup>6</sup> And then the People of Israel went back to doing evil in GOD's sight. They worshiped the Baal gods and Ashtoreth goddesses: gods of Aram, Sidon, and Moab; gods of the Ammonites and the Philistines. They just walked off and left GOD, quit worshiping him.

<sup>7</sup> And GOD exploded in hot anger at Israel and sold them off to the Philistines and Ammonites, who, <sup>8</sup> beginning that year, bullied and battered the People of Israel mercilessly. For eighteen years they had them under their thumb, all the People of Israel who lived east of the Jordan in the Amorite country of Gilead.

<sup>9</sup> Then the Ammonites crossed the Jordan to go to war also against Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. Israel was in a bad way!

<sup>11</sup> GOD answered the People of Israel: "When the Egyptians, Amorites, Ammonites, Philistines, Sidonians

<sup>12</sup> --even Amalek and Midian!-- oppressed you and you cried out to me for help, I saved you from them.

<sup>13</sup> And now you've gone off and betrayed me, worshiping other gods. I'm not saving you anymore.

<sup>15</sup> The People of Israel said to GOD: "We've sinned. Do to us whatever you think best, but please, get us out of this!"

<sup>17</sup> The Ammonites prepared for war, setting camp in Gilead. The People of Israel set their rival camp in Mizpah.

<sup>18</sup> The leaders in Gilead said, "Who will stand up for us against the Ammonites? We'll make him head over everyone in Gilead!"

11 <sup>1</sup> Jephthah the Gileadite was one tough warrior. He was the son of a whore, but Gilead was his father.

<sup>2</sup> Meanwhile Gilead's legal wife had given him other sons, and when they grew up, his wife's sons threw Jephthah out. They told him: "You're not getting any of our family inheritance--you're the son of another woman."

<sup>3</sup> So Jephthah fled from his brothers and went to live in the land of Tob. Some riff-raff joined him and went around with him.

<sup>4</sup> Some time passed. And then the Ammonites started fighting Israel.

<sup>7</sup> But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead: "But you hate me. You kicked me out of my family home. So why are you coming to me now? Because you are in trouble. Right?"

<sup>8</sup> The elders of Gilead replied, "That's it exactly. We've come to you to get you to go with us and fight the Ammonites. You'll be the head of all of us, all the Gileadites."

<sup>9</sup> Jephthah addressed the elders of Gilead, "So if you bring me back home to fight the Ammonites and GOD gives them to me, I'll be your head--is that right?"

<sup>10</sup> They said, "GOD is witness between us; whatever you say, we'll do."

<sup>11</sup> Jephthah went along with the elders of Gilead. The people made him their top man and general. And Jephthah repeated what he had said before GOD at Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup> Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites with a message: "What's going on here that you have come into my country picking a fight?"

<sup>17</sup> There Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom saying, 'Let us pass through your land, please.' But the king of Edom wouldn't let them. Israel also requested permission from the king of Moab, but he wouldn't let them cross either. They were stopped in their tracks at Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup> So they traveled across the desert and circled around the lands of Edom and Moab. They came out east of the land of Moab and set camp on the other side of the Arnon--they didn't set foot in Moabite territory, for Arnon was the Moabite border.

<sup>19</sup> Israel then sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites at Heshbon the capital. Israel asked, 'Let us pass, please, through your land on the way to our country.'

<sup>20</sup> But Sihon didn't trust Israel to cut across his land; he got his entire army together, set up camp at Jahaz, and fought Israel.

<sup>21</sup> But GOD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his troops to Israel. Israel defeated them. Israel took all the Amorite land,

<sup>23</sup> It was GOD, the God of Israel, who pushed out the Amorites in favor of Israel; so who do you think you are to try to take it over?

<sup>24</sup> Why don't you just be satisfied with what your god Chemosh gives you and we'll settle for what GOD, our God, gives us?

<sup>25</sup> Do you think you're going to come off better than Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he get anywhere in opposing Israel? Did he risk war?

<sup>26</sup> All this time--it's been three hundred years now!--that Israel has lived in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the towns along the Arnon, why didn't you try to snatch them away then?

<sup>27</sup> No, I haven't wronged you. But this is an evil thing that you are doing to me by starting a fight. Today GOD the Judge will decide between the People of Israel and the people of Ammon."

<sup>28</sup> But the king of the Ammonites refused to listen to a word that Jephthah had sent him.

<sup>29</sup> GOD's Spirit came upon Jephthah. He went across Gilead and Manasseh, went through Mizpah of Gilead, and from there approached the Ammonites.

<sup>30</sup> Jephthah made a vow before GOD: "If you give me a clear victory over the Ammonites, <sup>31</sup> then I'll give to GOD whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in one piece from among the Ammonites--I'll offer it up in a sacrificial burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup> Then Jephthah was off to fight the Ammonites. And GOD gave them to him.

<sup>33</sup> He beat them soundly, all the way from Aroer to the area around Minnith as far as Abel Keramim--twenty cities! A massacre! Ammonites brought to their knees by the People of Israel.

<sup>34</sup> Jephthah came home to Mizpah. His daughter ran from the house to welcome him home--dancing to tambourines! She was his only child. He had no son or daughter except her.

<sup>35</sup> When he realized who it was, he ripped his clothes, saying, "Ah, dearest daughter--I'm dirt. I'm despicable. My heart is torn to shreds. I made a vow to GOD and I can't take it back!"

<sup>36</sup> She said, "Dear father, if you made a vow to GOD, do to me what you vowed; GOD did his part and saved you from your Ammonite enemies."

<sup>37</sup> And then she said to her father, "But let this one thing be done for me. Give me two months to wander through the hills and lament my virginity since I will never marry, I and my dear friends."

<sup>38</sup> "Oh yes, go," he said. He sent her off for two months. She and her dear girlfriends went among the hills, lamenting that she would never marry.

<sup>39</sup> At the end of the two months, she came back to her father. He fulfilled the vow with her that he had made. She had never slept with a man. It became a custom in Israel

<sup>40</sup> that for four days every year the young women of Israel went out to mourn for the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

12 <sup>1</sup> The men of Ephraim mustered their troops, crossed to Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you go out to fight the Ammonites without letting us go with you? We're going to burn your house down on you!"

<sup>2</sup> Jephthah said, "I and my people had our hands full negotiating with the Ammonites. And I did call to you for help but you ignored me.

<sup>3</sup> When I saw that you weren't coming, I took my life in my hands and confronted the Ammonites myself. And GOD gave them to me! So why did you show up here today? Are you spoiling for a fight with me?"

<sup>4</sup> So Jephthah got his Gilead troops together and fought Ephraim. And the men of Gilead hit them hard because they were saying, "Gileadites are nothing but half-breeds and rejects from Ephraim and Manasseh."

<sup>5</sup> Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan at the crossing to Ephraim. If an Ephraimite fugitive said, "Let me cross," the men of Gilead would ask, "Are you an Ephraimite?" and he would say, "No."

<sup>6</sup> And they would say, "Say, 'Shibboleth.'" But he would always say, "Sibboleth"--he couldn't say it right. Then they would grab him and kill him there at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two Ephraimite divisions were killed on that occasion.

<sup>10</sup> He judged Israel seven years. Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

<sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys. He judged Israel eight years.

<sup>15</sup> Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim in the Amalekite hill country.

13 <sup>1</sup> And then the People of Israel were back at it again, doing what was evil in GOD's sight. GOD put them under the domination of the Philistines for forty years.

<sup>2</sup> At that time there was a man named Manoah from Zorah from the tribe of Dan. His wife was barren and childless.

<sup>3</sup> The angel of God appeared to her and told her, "I know that you are barren and childless, but you're going to become pregnant and bear a son.

<sup>6</sup> The woman went to her husband and said, "A man of God came to me. He looked like the angel of God--terror laced with glory! I didn't ask him where he was from and he didn't tell me his name, <sup>7</sup> but he told me, 'You're pregnant. You're going to give birth to a son. Don't drink any wine or beer and eat nothing ritually unclean. The boy will be GOD's Nazirite from the moment of birth to the day of his death.'"

<sup>8</sup> Manoah prayed to GOD: "Master, let the man of God you sent come to us again and teach us how to raise this boy who is to be born."

<sup>10</sup> She jumped to her feet and ran and told her husband: "He's back! The man who came to me that day!"

<sup>11</sup> Manoah got up and, following his wife, came to the man. He said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?" He said, "I am."

<sup>12</sup> Manoah said, "So. When what you say comes true, what do you have to tell us about this boy and his work?"

<sup>13</sup> The angel of God said to Manoah,

<sup>15</sup> Manoah said to the angel of God, "Please, stay with us a little longer; we'll prepare a meal for you--a young goat."

<sup>16</sup> GOD's angel said to Manoah, "Even if I stay, I won't eat your food. But if you want to prepare a Whole-Burnt-Offering for GOD, go ahead--offer it!" Manoah had no idea that he was talking to the angel of God.

<sup>17</sup> Then Manoah asked the angel of God, "What's your name? When your words come true, we'd like to honor you."

<sup>18</sup> The angel of GOD said, "What's this? You ask for my name? You wouldn't understand--it's sheer wonder."

<sup>19</sup> So Manoah took the kid and the Grain-Offering and sacrificed them on a rock altar to GOD who works wonders.

<sup>20</sup> As the flames leapt up from the altar to heaven, GOD's angel also ascended in the altar flames. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell facedown to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> Manoah and his wife never saw the angel of GOD again. Only then did Manoah realize that this was GOD's angel.

<sup>22</sup> He said to his wife, "We're as good as dead! We've looked on God!"

<sup>23</sup> But his wife said, "If GOD were planning to kill us, he wouldn't have accepted our Whole-Burnt-Offering and Grain-Offering, or revealed all these things to us--given us this birth announcement."

<sup>24</sup> The woman gave birth to a son. They named him Samson. The boy grew and GOD blessed him.

<sup>25</sup> The Spirit of GOD began working in him while he was staying at a Danite camp between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 <sup>1</sup> Samson went down to Timnah. There in Timnah a woman caught his eye, a Philistine girl.

<sup>2</sup> He came back and told his father and mother, "I saw a woman in Timnah, a Philistine girl; get her for me as my wife."

<sup>3</sup> His parents said to him, "Isn't there a woman among the girls in the neighborhood of our people? Do you have to go get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me. She's the one I want--she's the right one."

<sup>4</sup> (His father and mother had no idea that GOD was behind this, that he was arranging an opportunity against the Philistines. At the time the Philistines lorded it over Israel.)

<sup>5</sup> Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother. When he got to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion came at him, roaring.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of GOD came on him powerfully and he ripped it open barehanded, like tearing a young goat. But he didn't tell his parents what he had done.

<sup>7</sup> Then he went on down and spoke to the woman. In Samson's eyes, she was the one.

<sup>8</sup> Some days later when he came back to get her, he made a little detour to look at what was left of the lion. And there a wonder: a swarm of bees in the lion's carcass--and honey!

<sup>9</sup> He scooped it up in his hands and kept going, eating as he went. He rejoined his father and mother and gave some to them and they ate. But he didn't tell them that he had scooped out the honey from the lion's carcass.

<sup>10</sup> His father went on down to make arrangements with the woman, while Samson prepared a feast there. That's what the young men did in those days.

<sup>11</sup> Because the people were wary of him, they arranged for thirty friends to mingle with him.

<sup>12</sup> Samson said to them: "Let me put a riddle to you. If you can figure it out during the seven days of the feast, I'll give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of fine clothing.

<sup>13</sup> But if you can't figure it out then you'll give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of fine clothing." They said, "Put your riddle. Let's hear it."

<sup>14</sup> So he said, From the eater came something to eat, From the strong came something sweet. They couldn't figure it out. After three days they were still stumped.

<sup>15</sup> On the fourth day they said to Samson's bride, "Worm the answer out of your husband or we'll burn you and your father's household. Have you invited us here to bankrupt us?"

<sup>16</sup> So Samson's bride turned on the tears, saying to him, "You hate me. You don't love me. You've told a riddle to my people but you won't even tell me the answer." He said, "I haven't told my own parents--why would I tell you?"

<sup>17</sup> But she turned on the tears all the seven days of the feast. On the seventh day, worn out by her nagging, he told her. Then she went and told it to her people.

<sup>18</sup> The men of the town came to him on the seventh day, just before sunset and said, What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion? And Samson said, If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, You wouldn't have found out my riddle.

<sup>19</sup> Then the Spirit of GOD came powerfully on him. He went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, stripped them, and gave their clothing to those who had solved the riddle. Stalking out, smoking with anger, he went home to his father's house.

15 <sup>1</sup> Later on--it was during the wheat harvest--Samson visited his bride, bringing a young goat. He said, "Let me see my wife--show me her bedroom." But her father wouldn't let him in.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "I concluded that by now you hated her with a passion, so I gave her to your best man. But her little sister is even more beautiful. Why not take her instead?"

<sup>3</sup> Samson said, "That does it. This time when I wreak havoc on the Philistines, I'm blameless."

<sup>4</sup> Samson then went out and caught three hundred jackals. He lashed the jackals' tails together in pairs and tied a torch between each pair of tails.

<sup>5</sup> He then set fire to the torches and let them loose in the Philistine fields of ripe grain. Everything burned, both stacked and standing grain, vineyards and olive orchards--everything.

<sup>6</sup> The Philistines said, "Who did this?" They were told, "Samson, son-in-law of the Timnite who took his bride and gave her to his best man." The Philistines went up and burned both her and her father to death.

<sup>7</sup> Samson then said, "If this is the way you're going to act, I swear I'll get even with you. And I'm not quitting till the job's done!"

<sup>9</sup> The Philistines set out and made camp in Judah, preparing to attack Lehi (Jawbone).

<sup>10</sup> When the men of Judah asked, "Why have you come up against us?" they said, "We're out to get Samson. We're going after Samson to do to him what he did to us."

<sup>11</sup> Three companies of men from Judah went down to the cave at Etam Rock and said to Samson, "Don't you realize that the Philistines already bully and lord it over us? So what's going on with you, making things even worse?" He said, "It was tit for tat. I only did to them what they did to me."

<sup>12</sup> They said, "Well, we've come down here to tie you up and turn you over to the Philistines." Samson said, "Just promise not to hurt me."

<sup>13</sup> "We promise," they said. "We will tie you up and surrender you to them but, believe us, we won't kill you." They proceeded to tie him with new ropes and led him up from the Rock.

<sup>14</sup> As he approached Lehi, the Philistines came to meet him, shouting in triumph. And then the Spirit of GOD came on him with great power. The ropes on his arms fell apart like flax on fire; the thongs slipped off his hands.

<sup>15</sup> He spotted a fresh donkey jawbone, reached down and grabbed it, and with it killed the whole company.

<sup>16</sup> And Samson said, With a donkey's jawbone I made heaps of donkeys of them. With a donkey's jawbone I killed an entire company.

<sup>17</sup> When he finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone. He named that place Ramath Lehi (Jawbone Hill).

<sup>18</sup> Now he was suddenly very thirsty. He called out to GOD, "You have given your servant this great victory. Are you going to abandon me to die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

<sup>19</sup> So GOD split open the rock basin in Lehi; water gushed out and Samson drank. His spirit revived--he was alive again! That's why it's called En Hakkore (Caller's Spring). It's still there at Lehi today.

16 <sup>1</sup> Samson went to Gaza and saw a prostitute. He went to her.

<sup>3</sup> Samson was in bed with the woman until midnight. Then he got up, seized the doors of the city gate and the two gateposts, bolts and all, hefted them on his shoulder, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> Some time later he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek (Grapes). Her name was Delilah.

<sup>5</sup> The Philistine tyrants approached her and said, "Seduce him. Discover what's behind his great strength and how we can tie him up and humble him. Each man's company will give you a hundred shekels of silver."

<sup>6</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me, dear, the secret of your great strength, and how you can be tied up and humbled."

<sup>7</sup> Samson told her, "If they were to tie me up with seven bowstrings--the kind made from fresh animal tendons, not dried out--then I would become weak, just like anyone else."

<sup>8</sup> The Philistine tyrants brought her seven bowstrings, not dried out, and she tied him up with them.

<sup>9</sup> The men were waiting in ambush in her room. Then she said, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He snapped the cords as though they were mere threads. The secret of his strength was still a secret.

<sup>10</sup> Delilah said, "Come now, Samson--you're playing with me, making up stories. Be serious; tell me how you can be tied up."

<sup>11</sup> He told her, "If you were to tie me up tight with new ropes, ropes never used for work, then I would be helpless, just like anybody else."

<sup>12</sup> So Delilah got some new ropes and tied him up. She said, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" The men were hidden in the next room. He snapped the ropes from his arms like threads.

<sup>13</sup> Delilah said to Samson, "You're still playing games with me, teasing me with lies. Tell me how you can be tied up." He said to her, "If you wove the seven braids of my hair into the fabric on the loom and drew it tight, then I would be as helpless as any other mortal." When she had him fast asleep, Delilah took the seven braids of his hair and wove them into the fabric on the loom <sup>14</sup> and drew it tight. Then she said, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He woke from his sleep and ripped loose from both the loom and fabric!

<sup>15</sup> She said, "How can you say 'I love you' when you won't even trust me? Three times now you've toyed with me, like a cat with a mouse, refusing to tell me the secret of your great strength."

<sup>16</sup> She kept at it day after day, nagging and tormenting him. Finally, he was fed up--he couldn't take another minute of it.

<sup>17</sup> He spilled it. He told her, "A razor has never touched my head. I've been God's Nazirite from conception. If I were shaved, my strength would leave me; I would be as helpless as any other mortal."

<sup>18</sup> When Delilah realized that he had told her his secret, she sent for the Philistine tyrants, telling them, "Come quickly--this time he's told me the truth." They came, bringing the bribe money.

<sup>19</sup> When she got him to sleep, his head on her lap, she motioned to a man to cut off the seven braids of his hair. Immediately he began to grow weak. His strength drained from him.

<sup>20</sup> Then she said, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He woke up, thinking, "I'll go out, like always, and shake free." He didn't realize that GOD had abandoned him.

<sup>21</sup> The Philistines grabbed him, gouged out his eyes, and took him down to Gaza. They shackled him in irons and put him to the work of grinding in the prison.

<sup>24</sup> And when the people saw him, they joined in, cheering their god, Our god has given Our enemy to us, The one who ravaged our country, Piling high the corpses among us.

<sup>25</sup> Then this: Everyone was feeling high and someone said, "Get Samson! Let him show us his stuff!" They got Samson from the prison and he put on a show for them. They had him standing between the pillars.

<sup>26</sup> Samson said to the young man who was acting as his guide, "Put me where I can touch the pillars that hold up the temple so I can rest against them."

<sup>27</sup> The building was packed with men and women, including all the Philistine tyrants. And there were at least 3,000 in the stands watching Samson's performance.

<sup>28</sup> And Samson cried out to GOD: Master, GOD! Oh, please, look on me again, Oh, please, give strength yet once more. God! With one avenging blow let me be avenged On the Philistines for my two eyes!

<sup>30</sup> Saying, "Let me die with the Philistines," Samson pushed hard with all his might. The building crashed on the tyrants and all the people in it. He killed more people in his death than he had killed in his life.

<sup>31</sup> His brothers and all his relatives went down to get his body. They carried him back and buried him in the tomb of Manoah his father, between Zorah and Eshtaol. He judged Israel for twenty years.

17 <sup>1</sup> There was a man from the hill country of Ephraim named Micah.

<sup>2</sup> He said to his mother, "Remember that 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you? I overheard you when you pronounced your curse. Well, I have the money; I stole it. But now I've brought it back to you." His mother said, "GOD bless you, my son!"

<sup>3</sup> As he returned the 1,100 silver pieces to his mother, she said, "I had totally consecrated this money to GOD for my son to make a statue, a cast god."

<sup>4</sup> Then she took 200 pieces of the silver and gave it to a sculptor and he cast them into the form of a god.

<sup>5</sup> This man, Micah, had a private chapel. He had made an ephod and some teraphim-idols and had ordained one of his sons to be his priest.

<sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. People did whatever they felt like doing.

<sup>7</sup> Meanwhile there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah and from a family of Judah. He was a Levite but was a stranger there.

<sup>8</sup> He left that town, Bethlehem in Judah, seeking his fortune. He got as far as the hill country of Ephraim and showed up at Micah's house.

<sup>9</sup> Micah asked him, "So where are you from?" He said, "I'm a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I'm on the road, looking for a place to settle down."

<sup>10</sup> Micah said, "Stay here with me. Be my father and priest. I'll pay you ten pieces of silver a year, whatever clothes you need, and your meals."

<sup>13</sup> Micah said, "Now I know that GOD will make things go well for me--why, I've got a Levite for a priest!"

18 <sup>1</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. But also in those days, the tribe of Dan was looking for a place to settle down. They hadn't yet occupied their plot among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The Danites sent out five robust warriors from Zorah and Eshtaol to look over the land and see what was out there suitable for their families. They said, "Go and explore the land." They went into the hill country of Ephraim and got as far as the house of Micah. They camped there for the night.

<sup>3</sup> As they neared Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They went over and said to him, "How on earth did you get here? What's going on? What are you doing here?"

<sup>4</sup> He said, "One thing led to another: Micah hired me and I'm now his priest."

<sup>5</sup> They said, "Oh, good--inquire of God for us. Find out whether our mission will be a success."

<sup>6</sup> The priest said, "Go assured. GOD's looking out for you all the way."

<sup>7</sup> The five men left and headed north to Laish. They saw that the people there were living in safety under the umbrella of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting. They had everything going for them. But the people lived a long way from the Sidonians to the west and had no treaty with the Arameans to the east.

<sup>8</sup> When they got back to Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked, "So, how did you find things?"

<sup>9</sup> They said, "Let's go for it! Let's attack. We've seen the land and it is excellent."

Are you going to just sit on your hands?
Don't dawdle! Invade and conquer!

<sup>10</sup> When you get there, you'll find they're sitting ducks, totally unsuspecting. Wide open land--God is handing it over to you, everything you could ever ask for."

<sup>11</sup> So 600 Danite men set out from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed to the teeth.

<sup>13</sup> From there they proceeded into the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.

<sup>14</sup> The five men who earlier had explored the country of Laish told their companions, "Did you know there's an ephod, teraphim-idols, and a cast god-sculpture in these buildings? What do you think? Do you want to do something about it?"

<sup>15</sup> So they turned off the road there, went to the house of the young Levite at Micah's place and asked how things had been with him.

<sup>17</sup> while the five scouts who had gone to explore the land went in and took the carved idol, the ephod, the teraphim-idols, and the god-sculpture. The priest was standing at the gate entrance with the 600 armed men.

<sup>18</sup> When the five went into Micah's house and took the carved idol, the ephod, the teraphim-idols, and the sculpted god, the priest said to them, "What do you think you're doing?"

<sup>19</sup> They said to him, "Hush! Don't make a sound. Come with us. Be our father and priest. Which is more important, that you be a priest to one man or that you become priest to a whole tribe and clan in Israel?"

<sup>20</sup> The priest jumped at the chance. He took the ephod, the teraphim-idols, and the idol and fell in with the troops.

<sup>21</sup> They turned away and set out, putting the children, the cattle, and the gear in the lead.

<sup>23</sup> They shouted at them. The Danites turned around and said, "So what's all the noise about?"

<sup>25</sup> But the Danites answered, "Don't yell at us; you just might provoke some fierce, hot-tempered men to attack you, and you'll end up an army of dead men."

<sup>26</sup> The Danites went on their way. Micah saw that he didn't stand a chance against their arms. He turned back and went home.

<sup>27</sup> So they took the things that Micah had made, along with his priest, and they arrived at Laish, that city of quiet and unsuspecting people. They massacred the people and burned down the city.

<sup>28</sup> There was no one around to help. They were a long way from Sidon and had no treaty with the Arameans. Laish was in the valley of Beth Rehob.

<sup>29</sup> When they rebuilt the city they renamed it Dan after their ancestor who was a son of Israel, but its original name was Laish.

<sup>30</sup> The Danites set up the god-figure for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his descendants were priests to the tribe of Dan down to the time of the land's captivity.

<sup>31</sup> All during the time that there was a sanctuary of God in Shiloh, they kept for their private use the god-figure that Micah had made.

19 <sup>1</sup> It was an era when there was no king in Israel. A Levite, living as a stranger in the backwoods hill country of Ephraim, got himself a concubine, a woman from Bethlehem in Judah.

<sup>2</sup> But she quarreled with him and left, returning to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah. She was there four months.

<sup>3</sup> Then her husband decided to go after her and try to win her back. He had a servant and a pair of donkeys with him. When he arrived at her father's house, the girl's father saw him, welcomed him, and made him feel at home.

<sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl's father, pressed him to stay. He stayed with him three days; they feasted and drank and slept.

<sup>5</sup> On the fourth day, they got up at the crack of dawn and got ready to go. But the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen yourself with a hearty breakfast and then you can go."

<sup>6</sup> So they sat down and ate breakfast together. The girl's father said to the man, "Come now, be my guest. Stay the night--make it a holiday."

<sup>7</sup> The man got up to go, but his father-in-law kept after him, so he ended up spending another night.

<sup>8</sup> On the fifth day, he was again up early, ready to go. The girl's father said, "You need some breakfast." They went back and forth, and the day slipped on as they ate and drank together.

<sup>9</sup> But the man and his concubine were finally ready to go. Then his father-in-law, the girl's father, said, "Look, the day's almost gone--why not stay the night? There's very little daylight left; stay another night and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get an early start and set off for your own place."

<sup>12</sup> But his master said, "We're not going into any city of foreigners. We'll go on to Gibeah."

<sup>16</sup> Then, late in the evening, an old man came in from his day's work in the fields. He was from the hill country of Ephraim and lived temporarily in Gibeah where all the local citizens were Benjaminites.

<sup>17</sup> When the old man looked up and saw the traveler in the town square, he said, "Where are you going? And where are you from?"

on our way to a remote spot in the hills of Ephraim. I come from there. I've just made a trip to Bethlehem in Judah and I'm on my way back home, but no one has invited us in for the night.

<sup>19</sup> We wouldn't be any trouble: We have food and straw for the donkeys, and bread and wine for the woman, the young man, and me--we don't need anything."

<sup>21</sup> He took them home and fed the donkeys. They washed up and sat down to a good meal.

<sup>22</sup> They were relaxed and enjoying themselves when the men of the city, a gang of local hell-raisers all, surrounded the house and started pounding on the door. They yelled for the owner of the house, the old man, "Bring out the man who came to your house. We want to have sex with him."

<sup>23</sup> He went out and told them, "No, brothers! Don't be obscene--this man is my guest. Don't commit this outrage.

<sup>24</sup> Look, my virgin daughter and his concubine are here. I'll bring them out for you. Abuse them if you must, but don't do anything so senselessly vile to this man."

<sup>26</sup> The woman came back and fell at the door of the house where her master was sleeping. When the sun rose, there she was.

<sup>27</sup> It was morning. Her master got up and opened the door to continue his journey. There she was, his concubine, crumpled in a heap at the door, her hands on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> "Get up," he said. "Let's get going." There was no answer.

<sup>29</sup> He lifted her onto his donkey and set out for home. When he got home he took a knife and dismembered his concubine--cut her into twelve pieces. He sent her, piece by piece, throughout the country of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> And he ordered the men he sent out, "Say to every man in Israel: 'Has such a thing as this ever happened from the time the Israelites came up from the land of Egypt until now? Think about it! Talk it over. Do something!'"

20 <sup>1</sup> Then all the People of Israel came out. The congregation met in the presence of GOD at Mizpah. They were all there, from Dan to Beersheba, as one person!

<sup>2</sup> The leaders of all the people, representing all the tribes of Israel, took their places in the gathering of God's people. There were 400 divisions of sword-wielding infantry.

<sup>3</sup> Meanwhile the Benjaminites got wind that the Israelites were meeting at Mizpah. The People of Israel said, "Now tell us. How did this outrageous evil happen?"

<sup>5</sup> That night the men of Gibeah came after me. They surrounded the house, intending to kill me. They gang-raped my concubine and she died.

<sup>6</sup> So I took my concubine, cut up her body, and sent her piece by piece--twelve pieces!--to every part of Israel's inheritance. This vile and outrageous crime was committed [in Israel]!

<sup>7</sup> So, Israelites, make up your minds. Decide on some action!"

<sup>8</sup> All the people were at once and as one person on their feet. "None of us will go home; not a single one of us will go to his own house.

<sup>10</sup> We'll take ten of every hundred men from all the tribes of Israel (a hundred of every thousand, and a thousand of every ten thousand) to carry food for the army. When the troops arrive at Gibeah they will settle accounts for this outrageous and vile evil that was done in Israel."

<sup>11</sup> So all the men in Israel were gathered against the city, totally united.

<sup>12</sup> The Israelite tribes sent messengers throughout the tribe of Benjamin saying,

"What's the meaning of this outrage that took place among you?

<sup>13</sup> Surrender the men right here and now, these hell-raisers of Gibeah. We'll put them to death and burn the evil out of Israel." But they wouldn't do it. The Benjaminites refused to listen to their brothers, the People of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> Instead they raised an army from all their cities and rallied at Gibeah to go to war against the People of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> They set out and went to Bethel to inquire of God. The People of Israel said, "Who of us shall be first to go into battle with the Benjaminites?" GOD said, "Judah goes first."

<sup>23</sup> The Israelites went back to the sanctuary and wept before GOD until evening. They again inquired of GOD,

"Shall we again go into battle against the Benjaminites, our brothers?" GOD said, "Yes. Attack."

<sup>26</sup> All the People of Israel, the whole army, were back at Bethel, weeping, sitting there in the presence of GOD. That day they fasted until evening. They sacrificed Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings before GOD.

<sup>27</sup> And they again inquired of GOD. The Chest of God's Covenant was there at that time with

<sup>28</sup> Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, as the ministering priest. They asked, "Shall we again march into battle against the Benjaminites, our brothers?"

Or should we call it quits?" And GOD said, "Attack. Tomorrow I'll give you victory."

<sup>31</sup> When the Benjaminites came out to meet the army, they moved out from the city. Benjaminites began to cut down some of the troops just as they had before. About thirty men fell in the field and on the roads to Bethel and Gibeah.

<sup>33</sup> But the Israelites strategized: "Now let's retreat and pull them out of the city onto the main roads." So every Israelite moved farther out to Baal Tamar; at the same time the Israelite ambush rushed from its place west of Gibeah.

<sup>34</sup> Ten crack divisions from all over Israel now arrived at Gibeah--intense, bloody fighting! The Benjaminites had no idea that they were about to go down in defeat--

<sup>36</sup> The Benjaminites saw that they were beaten. The men of Israel acted like they were retreating before Benjamin, knowing that they could depend on the ambush they had prepared for Gibeah.

<sup>37</sup> The ambush erupted and made quick work of Gibeah. The ambush spread out and massacred the city.

<sup>38</sup> The strategy for the main body of the ambush was that they send up a smoke signal from the city.

<sup>39</sup> Then the men of Israel would turn in battle. When that happened, Benjamin had killed about thirty Israelites and thought they were on their way to victory, yelling out, "They're on the run, just as in the first battle!"

<sup>40</sup> But then the signal went up from the city--a huge column of smoke. When the Benjaminites looked back, there it was, the whole city going up in smoke.

<sup>41</sup> By the time the men of Israel had turned back on them, the men of Benjamin fell apart--they could see that they were trapped.

<sup>45</sup> Five divisions turned to escape to the wilderness, to Rimmon Rock, but the Israelites caught and slaughtered them on roads. Keeping the pressure on, the Israelites brought down two more divisions.

<sup>46</sup> The total of the Benjaminites killed that day came to twenty-five divisions of infantry, their best swordsmen.

<sup>47</sup> Six hundred men got away. They made it to Rimmon Rock in the wilderness and held out there for four months.

21 <sup>1</sup> Back at Mizpah the men of Israel had taken an oath: "No man among us will give his daughter to a Benjaminite in marriage."

<sup>2</sup> Now, back in Bethel, the people sat in the presence of God until evening. They cried loudly; there was widespread lamentation.

<sup>3</sup> They said, "Why, O GOD, God of Israel, has this happened? Why do we find ourselves today missing one whole tribe from Israel?"

<sup>4</sup> Early the next morning, the people got busy and built an altar. They sacrificed Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Israelites said, "Who from all the tribes of Israel didn't show up as we gathered in the presence of GOD?" For they had all taken a sacred oath that anyone who had not gathered in the presence of GOD at Mizpah had to be put to death.

<sup>6</sup> But the People of Israel were feeling sorry for Benjamin, their brothers. They said, "Today, one tribe is cut off from Israel.

<sup>9</sup> When they took a roll call of the people, not a single person from Jabesh Gilead was there.

<sup>11</sup> These are your instructions: Every man and woman who has had sexual intercourse you must kill. But keep the virgins alive." And that's what they did.

<sup>12</sup> And they found 400 virgins among those who lived in Jabesh Gilead; they had never had sexual intercourse with a man. And they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> Then the congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the Rimmon Rock and offered them peace.

<sup>14</sup> And Benjamin came. They gave them the women they had let live at Jabesh Gilead. But even then, there weren't enough for all the men.

<sup>17</sup> How can we keep the inheritance alive for the Benjaminite survivors? How can we prevent an entire tribe from extinction?

<sup>18</sup> We certainly can't give our own daughters to them as wives." (Remember, the Israelites had taken the oath: "Cursed is anyone who provides a wife to Benjamin.")

<sup>19</sup> Then they said, "There is that festival of GOD held every year in Shiloh. It's north of Bethel, just east of the main road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem and a little south of Lebonah."

<sup>20</sup> So they told the Benjaminites, "Go and hide in the vineyards.

<sup>21</sup> Stay alert--when you see the Shiloh girls come out to dance the dances, run out of the vineyards, grab one of the Shiloh girls for your wife, and then hightail it back to the country of Benjamin.

<sup>22</sup> When their fathers or brothers come to lay charges against us, we'll tell them, 'We did them a favor. After all we didn't go to war and kill to get wives for men. And it wasn't as if you were in on it by giving consent. But if you keep this up, you will incur blame.'

<sup>24</sup> From there the People of Israel dispersed, each man heading back to his own tribe and clan, each to his own plot of land.

<sup>25</sup> At that time there was no king in Israel. People did whatever they felt like doing.

Ruth

1 <sup>1</sup> Once upon a time--it was back in the days when judges led Israel--there was a famine in the land. A man from Bethlehem in Judah left home to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

<sup>2</sup> The man's name was Elimelech; his wife's name was Naomi; his sons were named Mahlon and Kilion--all Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They all went to the country of Moab and settled there.

<sup>5</sup> But then the two brothers, Mahlon and Kilion, died. Now the woman was left without either her young men or her husband.

<sup>6</sup> One day she got herself together, she and her two daughters-in-law, to leave the country of Moab and set out for home; she had heard that GOD had been pleased to visit his people and give them food.

<sup>7</sup> And so she started out from the place she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law with her, on the road back to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> After a short while on the road, Naomi told her two daughters-in-law, "Go back. Go home and live with your mothers. And may GOD treat you as graciously as you treated your deceased husbands and me.

<sup>9</sup> May GOD give each of you a new home and a new husband!" She kissed them and they cried openly.

<sup>10</sup> They said, "No, we're going on with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup> But Naomi was firm: "Go back, my dear daughters. Why would you come with me? Do you suppose I still have sons in my womb who can become your future husbands?"

<sup>12</sup> Go back, dear daughters--on your way, please! I'm too old to get a husband. Why, even if I said, 'There's still hope!' and this very night got a man and had sons, <sup>13</sup> can you imagine being satisfied to wait until they were grown? Would you wait that long to get married again? No, dear daughters; this is a bitter pill for me to swallow--more bitter for me than for you. GOD has dealt me a hard blow."

<sup>14</sup> Again they cried openly. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye; but Ruth embraced her and held on.

<sup>16</sup> But Ruth said, "Don't force me to leave you; don't make me go home. Where you go, I go; and where you live, I'll live. Your people are my people, your God is my god;

<sup>17</sup> where you die, I'll die, and that's where I'll be buried, so help me GOD--not even death itself is going to come between us!"

<sup>18</sup> When Naomi saw that Ruth had her heart set on going with her, she gave in.

<sup>19</sup> And so the two of them traveled on together to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem the whole town was soon buzzing: "Is this really our Naomi? And after all this time!"

<sup>20</sup> But she said, "Don't call me Naomi; call me Bitter. The Strong One has dealt me a bitter blow.

2<sup>1</sup> It so happened that Naomi had a relative by marriage, a man prominent and rich, connected with Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.

<sup>2</sup> One day Ruth, the Moabite foreigner, said to Naomi, "I'm going to work; I'm going out to glean among the sheaves, following after some harvester who will treat me kindly." Naomi said, "Go ahead, dear daughter."

<sup>4</sup> A little later Boaz came out from Bethlehem, greeting his harvesters, "GOD be with you!" They replied, "And GOD bless you!"

<sup>6</sup> The foreman said, "Why, that's the Moabite girl, the one who came with Naomi from the country of Moab.

<sup>7</sup> She asked permission. 'Let me glean,' she said, 'and gather among the sheaves following after your harvesters.' She's been at it steady ever since, from early morning until now, without so much as a break."

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz spoke to Ruth: "Listen, my daughter. From now on don't go to any other field to glean--stay right here in this one. And stay close to my young women.

<sup>9</sup> Watch where they are harvesting and follow them. And don't worry about a thing; I've given orders to my servants not to harass you. When you get thirsty, feel free to go and drink from the water buckets that the servants have filled."

<sup>10</sup> She dropped to her knees, then bowed her face to the ground. "How does this happen that you should pick me out and treat me so kindly--[me], a foreigner?"

<sup>11</sup> Boaz answered her, "I've heard all about you--heard about the way you treated your mother-in-law after the death of her husband, and how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth and have come to live among a bunch of total strangers.

<sup>12</sup> GOD reward you well for what you've done--and with a generous bonus besides from GOD, to whom you've come seeking protection under his wings."

<sup>13</sup> She said, "Oh sir, such grace, such kindness--I don't deserve it. You've touched my heart, treated me like one of your own. And I don't even belong here!"

<sup>15</sup> When she got up to go back to work, Boaz ordered his servants: "Let her glean where there's still plenty of grain on the ground--make it easy for her.

<sup>17</sup> Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. When she threshed out what she had gathered, she ended up with nearly a full sack of barley!

<sup>18</sup> She gathered up her gleanings, went back to town, and showed her mother-in-law the results of her day's work; she also gave her the leftovers from her lunch.

<sup>19</sup> Naomi asked her, "So where did you glean today? Whose field? GOD bless whoever it was who took such good care of you!" Ruth told her mother-in-law, "The man with whom I worked today? His name is Boaz."

<sup>20</sup> Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Why, GOD bless that man! GOD hasn't quite walked out on us after all! He still loves us, in bad times as well as good!" Naomi went on, "That man, Ruth, is one of our circle of covenant redeemers, a close relative of ours!"

<sup>21</sup> Ruth the Moabite said, "Well, listen to this: He also told me, 'Stick with my workers until my harvesting is finished.'"

<sup>22</sup> Naomi said to Ruth, "That's wonderful, dear daughter! Do that! You'll be safe in the company of his young women; no danger now of being raped in some stranger's field."

<sup>23</sup> So Ruth did it--she stuck close to Boaz's young women, gleaning in the fields daily until both the barley and wheat harvesting were finished. And she continued living with her mother-in-law.

3<sup>1</sup> One day her mother-in-law Naomi said to Ruth, "My dear daughter, isn't it about time I arranged a good home for you so you can have a happy life?"

<sup>2</sup> And isn't Boaz our close relative, the one with whose young women you've been working? Maybe it's time to make our move. Tonight is the night of Boaz's barley harvest at the threshing floor.

<sup>3</sup> "Take a bath. Put on some perfume. Get all dressed up and go to the threshing floor. But don't let him know you're there until the party is well under way and he's had plenty of food and drink.

<sup>4</sup> When you see him slipping off to sleep, watch where he lies down and then go there. Lie at his feet to let him know that you are available to him for marriage. Then wait and see what he says. He'll tell you what to do."

<sup>5</sup> Ruth said, "If you say so, I'll do it, just as you've told me."

<sup>6</sup> She went down to the threshing floor and put her mother-in-law's plan into action.

<sup>7</sup> Boaz had a good time, eating and drinking his fill--he felt great. Then he went off to get some sleep, lying down at the end of a stack of barley. Ruth quietly followed; she lay down to signal her availability for marriage.

<sup>8</sup> In the middle of the night the man was suddenly startled and sat up. Surprise! This woman asleep at his feet!

<sup>9</sup> He said, "And who are you?" She said, "I am Ruth, your maiden; take me under your protecting wing. You're my close relative, you know, in the circle of covenant redeemers--you do have the right to marry me."

<sup>10</sup> He said, "GOD bless you, my dear daughter! What a splendid expression of love! And when you could have had your pick of any of the young men around.

<sup>11</sup> And now, my dear daughter, don't you worry about a thing; I'll do all you could want or ask. Everybody in town knows what a courageous woman you are--a real prize!

<sup>12</sup> You're right, I am a close relative to you, but there is one even closer than I am.

<sup>13</sup> So stay the rest of the night. In the morning, if he wants to exercise his customary rights and responsibilities as the closest covenant redeemer, he'll have his chance; but if he isn't interested, as GOD lives, I'll do it. Now go back to sleep until morning."

<sup>14</sup> Ruth slept at his feet until dawn, but she got up while it was still dark and wouldn't be recognized. Then Boaz said to himself, "No one must know that Ruth came to the threshing floor."

<sup>15</sup> So Boaz said, "Bring the shawl you're wearing and spread it out." She spread it out and he poured it full of barley, six measures, and put it on her shoulders. Then she went back to town.

<sup>16</sup> When she came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "And how did things go, my dear daughter?"

<sup>17</sup> Ruth told her everything that the man had done for her, adding, "And he gave me all this barley besides--six quarts! He told me, 'You can't go back empty-handed to your mother-in-law!'"

<sup>18</sup> Naomi said, "Sit back and relax, my dear daughter, until we find out how things turn out; that man isn't going to fool around. Mark my words, he's going to get everything wrapped up today."

4 <sup>1</sup> Boaz went straight to the public square and took his place there. Before long the "closer relative," the one mentioned earlier by Boaz, strolled by. "Step aside, old friend," said Boaz. "Take a seat." The man sat down.

<sup>2</sup> Boaz then gathered ten of the town elders together and said, "Sit down here with us; we've got some business to take care of." And they sat down.

<sup>3</sup> Boaz then said to his relative, "The piece of property that belonged to our relative Elimelech is being sold by his widow Naomi, who has just returned from the country of Moab.

<sup>4</sup> I thought you ought to know about it. Buy it back if you want it--you can make it official in the presence of those sitting here and before the town elders. You have first redeemer rights. If you don't want it, tell me so I'll know where I stand. You're first in line to do this and I'm next after you." He said, "I'll buy it."

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz added, "You realize, don't you, that when you buy the field from Naomi, you also get Ruth the Moabite, the widow of our dead relative, along with the redeemer responsibility to have children with her to carry on the family inheritance."

<sup>6</sup> Then the relative said, "Oh, I can't do that--I'd jeopardize my own family's inheritance. You go ahead and buy it--you can have my rights--I can't do it."

<sup>7</sup> In the olden times in Israel, this is how they handled official business regarding matters of property and inheritance: a man would take off his shoe and give it to the other person. This was the same as an official seal or personal signature in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> So when Boaz's "redeemer" relative said, "Go ahead and buy it," he signed the deal by pulling off his shoe.

<sup>9</sup> Boaz then addressed the elders and all the people in the town square that day: "You are witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech and Kilion and Mahlon, take her as my wife and keep the name of the deceased alive along with his inheritance. The memory and reputation of the deceased is not going to disappear out of this family or from his hometown. To all this you are witnesses this very day."

<sup>11</sup> All the people in the town square that day, backing up the elders, said, "Yes, we are witnesses. May GOD make this woman who is coming into your household like Rachel and Leah, the two women who built the family of Israel. May GOD make you a pillar in Ephrathah and famous in Bethlehem!

gracious gift she conceived and had a son.

<sup>14</sup> The town women said to Naomi, "Blessed be GOD! He didn't leave you without family to carry on your life. May this baby grow up to be famous in Israel!

<sup>15</sup> He'll make you young again! He'll take care of you in old age. And this daughter-in-law who has brought him into the world and loves you so much, why, she's worth more to you than seven sons!"

<sup>16</sup> Naomi took the baby and held him in her arms, cuddling him, cooing over him, waiting on him hand and foot.

<sup>19</sup> Hezron had Ram, Ram had Amminadab,

<sup>20</sup> Amminadab had Nahshon, Nahshon had Salmon,

1 Samuel

1 <sup>1</sup> There once was a man who lived in Ramathaim. He was descended from the old Zuph family in the Ephraim hills. His name was Elkanah. (He was connected with the Zuphs from Ephraim through his father Jeroham, his grandfather Elihu, and his great-grandfather Tohu.)

<sup>2</sup> He had two wives. The first was Hannah; the second was Peninnah. Peninnah had children; Hannah did not.

<sup>3</sup> Every year this man went from his hometown up to Shiloh to worship and offer a sacrifice to GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies. Eli and his two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, served as the priests of GOD there.

<sup>4</sup> When Elkanah sacrificed, he passed helpings from the sacrificial meal around to his wife Peninnah and all her children, <sup>5</sup> but he always gave an especially generous helping to Hannah because he loved her so much, and because GOD had not given her children.

<sup>7</sup> This went on year after year. Every time she went to the sanctuary of GOD she could expect to be taunted. Hannah was reduced to tears and had no appetite.

<sup>8</sup> Her husband Elkanah said, "Oh, Hannah, why are you crying? Why aren't you eating? And why are you so upset? Am I not of more worth to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup> So Hannah ate. Then she pulled herself together, slipped away quietly, and entered the sanctuary. The priest Eli was on duty at the entrance to GOD's Temple in the customary seat.

<sup>10</sup> Crushed in soul, Hannah prayed to GOD and cried and cried--inconsolably.

<sup>11</sup> Then she made a vow: Oh, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, If you'll take a good, hard look at my pain, If you'll quit neglecting me and go into action for me By giving me a son, I'll give him completely, unreservedly to you. I'll set him apart for a life of holy discipline.

<sup>13</sup> Hannah was praying in her heart, silently. Her lips moved, but no sound was heard. Eli jumped to the conclusion that she was drunk.

<sup>14</sup> He approached her and said, "You're drunk! How long do you plan to keep this up? Sober up, woman!"

<sup>15</sup> Hannah said, "Oh no, sir--please! I'm a woman hard used. I haven't been drinking. Not a drop of wine or beer. The only thing I've been pouring out is my heart, pouring it out to GOD.

<sup>16</sup> Don't for a minute think I'm a bad woman. It's because I'm so desperately unhappy and in such pain that I've stayed here so long."

<sup>17</sup> Eli answered her, "Go in peace. And may the God of Israel give you what you have asked of him."

<sup>18</sup> "Think well of me--and pray for me!" she said, and went her way. Then she ate heartily, her face radiant.

<sup>19</sup> Up before dawn, they worshiped GOD and returned home to Ramah. Elkanah slept with Hannah his wife, and GOD began making the necessary arrangements in response to what she had asked.

<sup>20</sup> Before the year was out, Hannah had conceived and given birth to a son. She named him Samuel, explaining, "I asked GOD for him."

<sup>21</sup> When Elkanah next took his family on their annual trip to Shiloh to worship GOD, offering sacrifices and keeping his vow,

<sup>22</sup> Hannah didn't go. She told her husband, "After the child is weaned, I'll bring him myself and present him before GOD--and that's where he'll stay, for good."

<sup>23</sup> Elkanah said to his wife, "Do what you think is best. Stay home until you have weaned him. Yes! Let GOD complete what he has begun!" So she did. She stayed home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

<sup>24</sup> Then she took him up to Shiloh, bringing also the makings of a generous sacrificial meal--a prize bull, flour, and wine. The child was so young to be sent off!

<sup>26</sup> Hannah said, "Excuse me, sir. Would you believe that I'm the very woman who was standing before you at this very spot, praying to GOD?"

<sup>27</sup> I prayed for this child, and GOD gave me what I asked for.

<sup>28</sup> And now I have dedicated him to GOD. He's dedicated to GOD for life." Then and there, they worshiped GOD.

2<sup>1</sup> Hannah prayed: I'm bursting with God-news! I'm walking on air. I'm laughing at my rivals. I'm dancing my salvation.

what's going on. He takes the measure of everything that happens.

<sup>6</sup> GOD brings death and GOD brings life, brings down to the grave and raises up.

<sup>7</sup> GOD brings poverty and GOD brings wealth; he lowers, he also lifts up.

<sup>8</sup> He puts poor people on their feet again; he rekindles burned-out lives with fresh hope, Restoring dignity and respect to their lives--a place in the sun! For the very structures of earth are GOD's; he has laid out his operations on a firm foundation.

<sup>10</sup> GOD's enemies will be blasted out of the sky, crashed in a heap and burned. GOD will set things right all over the earth, he'll give strength to his king, he'll set his anointed on top of the world!

<sup>11</sup> Elkanah went home to Ramah. The boy stayed and served GOD in the company of Eli the priest.

<sup>12</sup> Eli's own sons were a bad lot. They didn't know GOD and could not have cared less <sup>13</sup> about the customs of priests among the people. Ordinarily, when someone offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant was supposed to come up and, while the meat was boiling,

<sup>14</sup> stab a three-pronged fork into the cooking pot. The priest then got whatever came up on the fork. But this is how Eli's sons treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh to offer sacrifices to GOD.

<sup>15</sup> Before they had even burned the fat to GOD, the priest's servant would interrupt whoever was sacrificing and say, "Hand over some of that meat for the priest to roast. He doesn't like boiled meat; he likes his rare."

<sup>16</sup> If the man objected, "First let the fat be burned--God's portion!--then take all you want," the servant would demand, "No, I want it now. If you won't give it, I'll take it."

<sup>17</sup> It was a horrible sin these young servants were committing--and right in the presence of GOD!--desecrating the holy offerings to GOD.

<sup>18</sup> In the midst of all this, Samuel, a boy dressed in a priestly linen tunic, served GOD.

<sup>20</sup> Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "GOD give you children to replace this child you have dedicated to GOD." Then they would go home.

<sup>21</sup> GOD was most especially kind to Hannah. She had three more sons and two daughters! The boy Samuel stayed at the sanctuary and grew up with GOD.

<sup>25</sup> If you sin against another person, there's help--God's help. But if you sin against GOD, who is around to help?" But they were far gone in disobedience and refused to listen to a thing their father said. So GOD, who was fed up with them, decreed their death.

<sup>26</sup> But the boy Samuel was very much alive, growing up, blessed by GOD and popular with the people.

<sup>27</sup> A holy man came to Eli and said: "This is GOD's message: I revealed myself openly to your ancestors when they were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt.

<sup>28</sup> Out of all the tribes of Israel, I chose your family to be my priests: to preside at the altar, to burn incense, to wear the priestly robes in my presence. I put your ancestral family in charge of all the sacrificial offerings of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> So why do you now treat as mere loot these very sacrificial offerings that I commanded for my worship? Why do you treat your sons better than me, turning them loose to get fat on these offerings, and ignoring me?

<sup>30</sup> Therefore--this is GOD's word, the God of Israel speaking--I once said that you and your ancestral family would be my priests indefinitely, but now--GOD's word, remember!--there is no way this can continue. I honor those who honor me; those who scorn me I demean.

<sup>31</sup> "Be well warned: It won't be long before I wipe out both your family and your future family. No one in your family will make it to old age!

<sup>32</sup> You'll see good things that I'm doing in Israel, but you'll see it and weep, for no one in your family will live to enjoy it.

<sup>33</sup> I will leave one person to serve at my altar, but it will be a hard life, with many tears. Everyone else in your family will die before their time.

<sup>34</sup> What happens to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be the proof: Both will die the same day.

<sup>35</sup> Then I'll establish for myself a true priest. He'll do what I want him to do, be what I want him to be. I'll make his position secure and he'll do his work freely in the service of my anointed one.

<sup>36</sup> Survivors from your family will come to him begging for handouts, saying, 'Please, give me some priest work, just enough to put some food on the table.'"

3<sup>1</sup> The boy Samuel was serving GOD under Eli's direction. This was at a time when the revelation of GOD was rarely heard or seen.

<sup>2</sup> One night Eli was sound asleep (his eyesight was very bad--he could hardly see).

<sup>3</sup> It was well before dawn; the sanctuary lamp was still burning. Samuel was still in bed in the Temple of GOD, where the Chest of God rested.

<sup>5</sup> Then he ran to Eli saying, "I heard you call. Here I am." Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed." And so he did.

<sup>6</sup> GOD called again, "Samuel, Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, "I heard you call. Here I am." Again Eli said, "Son, I didn't call you. Go back to bed."

<sup>7</sup> (This all happened before Samuel knew GOD for himself. It was before the revelation of GOD had been given to him personally.)

<sup>8</sup> GOD called again, "Samuel!"--the third time! Yet again Samuel got up and went to Eli, "Yes? I heard you call me. Here I am." That's when it dawned on Eli that GOD was calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup> So Eli directed Samuel, "Go back and lie down. If the voice calls again, say, 'Speak, GOD. I'm your servant, ready to listen.'" Samuel returned to his bed.

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD came and stood before him exactly as before, calling out, "Samuel! Samuel!" Samuel answered, "Speak. I'm your servant, ready to listen."

<sup>11</sup> GOD said to Samuel, "Listen carefully. I'm getting ready to do something in Israel that is going to shake everyone up and get their attention.

<sup>12</sup> The time has come for me to bring down on Eli's family everything I warned him of, every last word of it.

<sup>13</sup> I'm letting him know that the time's up. I'm bringing judgment on his family for good. He knew what was going on, that his sons were desecrating God's name and God's place, and he did nothing to stop them.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel stayed in bed until morning, then rose early and went about his duties, opening the doors of the sanctuary, but he dreaded having to tell the vision to Eli.

<sup>16</sup> But then Eli summoned Samuel: "Samuel, my son!" Samuel came running: "Yes? What can I do for you?"

<sup>17</sup> "What did he say? Tell it to me, all of it. Don't suppress or soften one word, as God is your judge! I want it all, word for word as he said it to you."

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel told him, word for word. He held back nothing. Eli said, "He is GOD. Let him do whatever he thinks best."

4 <sup>1</sup> Whatever Samuel said was broadcast all through Israel. Israel went to war against the Philistines. Israel set up camp at Ebenezer, the Philistines at Aphek.

badly beaten--about 4,000 soldiers left dead on the field.

<sup>3</sup> When the troops returned to camp, Israel's elders said, "Why has GOD given us such a beating today by the Philistines? Let's go to Shiloh and get the Chest of GOD's Covenant. It will accompany us and save us from the grip of our enemies."

<sup>4</sup> So the army sent orders to Shiloh. They brought the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the Cherubim-Enthroned-GOD. Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, accompanied the Chest of the Covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup> When the Chest of the Covenant of GOD was brought into camp, everyone gave a huge cheer. The shouts were like thunderclaps shaking the very ground.

<sup>6</sup> The Philistines heard the shouting and wondered what on earth was going on: "What's all this shouting among the Hebrews?" Then they learned that the Chest of GOD had entered the Hebrew camp.

<sup>8</sup> We're done for! Who can save us from the clutches of these supergods? These are the same gods who hit the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues out in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup> On your feet, Philistines! Courage! We're about to become slaves to the Hebrews, just as they have been slaves to us. Show what you're made of! Fight for your lives!"

<sup>10</sup> And did they ever fight! It turned into a rout. They thrashed Israel so mercilessly that the Israelite soldiers ran for their lives, leaving behind an incredible 30,000 dead.

<sup>11</sup> As if that wasn't bad enough, the Chest of God was taken and the two sons of Eli--Hophni and Phinehas--were killed.

<sup>13</sup> he entered the town. Eli was sitting on his stool beside the road keeping vigil, for he was extremely worried about the Chest of God. When the man ran straight into town to tell the bad news, everyone wept.

life." "And so, my son," said Eli, "what happened?"

<sup>17</sup> The messenger answered, "Israel scattered before the Philistines. The defeat was catastrophic, with enormous losses. Your sons Hophni and Phinehas died, and the Chest of God was taken."

<sup>18</sup> At the words, "Chest of God," Eli fell backwards off his stool where he sat next to the gate. Eli was an old man, and very fat. When he fell, he broke his neck and died. He had led Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and ready to deliver. When she heard that the Chest of God had been taken and that both her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went to her knees to give birth, going into hard labor.

<sup>20</sup> As she was about to die, her midwife said, "Don't be afraid. You've given birth to a son!" But she gave no sign that she had heard.

<sup>21</sup> The Chest of God gone, father-in-law dead, husband dead, she named the boy Ichabod (Glory's-Gone),

5 <sup>1</sup> Once the Philistines had seized the Chest of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod,

<sup>3</sup> Next morning when the citizens of Ashdod got up, they were shocked to find Dagon toppled from his place, flat on his face before the Chest of GOD. They picked him up and put him back where he belonged.

<sup>4</sup> First thing the next morning they found him again, toppled and flat on his face before the Chest of GOD. Dagon's head and arms were broken off, strewn across the entrance. Only his torso was in one piece.

<sup>5</sup> (That's why even today, the priests of Dagon and visitors to the Dagon shrine in Ashdod avoid stepping on the threshold.)

<sup>6</sup> GOD was hard on the citizens of Ashdod. He devastated them by hitting them with tumors. This happened in both the town and the surrounding neighborhoods. He let loose rats among them. Jumping from ships there, rats swarmed all over the city! And everyone was deathly afraid.

<sup>7</sup> When the leaders of Ashdod saw what was going on, they decided, "The chest of the god of Israel has got to go. We can't handle this, and neither can our god Dagon."

<sup>8</sup> They called together all the Philistine leaders and put it to them: "How can we get rid of the chest of the god of Israel?" The leaders agreed: "Move it to Gath." So they moved the Chest of the God of Israel to Gath.

<sup>9</sup> But as soon as they moved it there, GOD came down hard on that city, too. It was mass hysteria! He hit them with tumors. Tumors broke out on everyone in town, young and old.

<sup>10</sup> So they sent the Chest of God on to Ekron, but as the Chest was being brought into town, the people shouted in protest, "You'll kill us all by bringing in this Chest of the God of Israel!"

<sup>11</sup> They called the Philistine leaders together and demanded, "Get it out of here, this Chest of the God of Israel. Send it back where it came from. We're threatened with mass death!" For everyone was scared to death when the Chest of God showed up. God was already coming down very hard on the place.

<sup>12</sup> Those who didn't die were hit with tumors. All over the city cries of pain and lament filled the air.

6 <sup>1</sup> After the Chest of GOD had been among the Philistine people for seven months,

<sup>2</sup> the Philistine leaders called together their religious professionals, the priests, and experts on the supernatural for consultation: "How can we get rid of this Chest of GOD, get it off our hands without making things worse? Tell us!"

<sup>3</sup> They said, "If you're going to send the Chest of the God of Israel back, don't just dump it on them. Pay compensation. Then you will be healed. After you're in the clear again, God will let up on you. Why wouldn't he?"

tumors and five gold rats," they said, "to match the number of Philistine leaders. Since all of you--leaders and people--suffered the same plague, <sup>5</sup> make replicas of the tumors and rats that are devastating the country and present them as an offering to the glory of the God of Israel. Then maybe he'll ease up and not be so hard on you and your gods, and on your country.

<sup>6</sup> Why be stubborn like the Egyptians and Pharaoh? God didn't quit pounding on them until they let the people go. Only then did he let up.

<sup>7</sup> "So here's what you do: Take a brand-new oxcart and two cows that have never been in harness. Hitch the cows to the oxcart and send their calves back to the barn.

<sup>8</sup> Put the Chest of GOD on the cart. Secure the gold replicas of the tumors and rats that you are offering as compensation in a sack and set them next to the Chest. Then send it off.

<sup>9</sup> But keep your eyes on it. If it heads straight back home to where it came from, toward Beth Shemesh, it is clear that this catastrophe is a divine judgment, but if not, we'll know that God had nothing to do with it--it was just an accident."

<sup>10</sup> So that's what they did: They hitched two cows to the cart, put their calves in the barn, <sup>11</sup> and placed the Chest of GOD and the sack of gold rats and tumors on the cart.

looked up and saw the Chest. Jubilant, they ran to meet it.

<sup>14</sup> The cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth Shemeshite, and stopped there beside a huge boulder. The harvesters tore the cart to pieces, then chopped up the wood and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to GOD.

<sup>15</sup> The Levites took charge of the Chest of GOD and the sack containing the gold offerings, placing them on the boulder. Offering the sacrifices, everyone in Beth Shemesh worshiped GOD most heartily that day.

<sup>16</sup> When the five Philistine leaders saw what they came to see, they returned the same day to Ekron.

<sup>17</sup> The five gold replicas of the tumors were offered by the Philistines in compensation for the cities of Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

<sup>18</sup> The five gold rats matched the number of Philistine towns, both large and small, ruled by the five leaders. The big boulder on which they placed the Chest of GOD is still there in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, a landmark.

<sup>19</sup> God struck some of the men of Beth Shemesh who, out of curiosity, irreverently peeked into the Chest of GOD. Seventy died. The whole town was in mourning, reeling under the hard blow from GOD, <sup>20</sup> and questioning, "Who can stand before GOD, this holy God? And who can we get to take this Chest off our hands?"

<sup>21</sup> They sent emissaries to Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the Chest of GOD. Come down and get it."

7 <sup>1</sup> And they did. The men of Kiriath Jearim came and got the Chest of GOD and delivered it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. They ordained his son, Eleazar, to take responsibility for the Chest of GOD.

<sup>2</sup> From the time that the Chest came to rest in Kiriath Jearim, a long time passed--twenty years it was--and throughout Israel there was a widespread, fearful movement toward GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Then Samuel addressed the house of Israel: "If you are truly serious about coming back to GOD, clean house. Get rid of the foreign gods and fertility goddesses, ground yourselves firmly in GOD, worship him and him alone, and he'll save you from Philistine oppression."

<sup>4</sup> They did it. They got rid of the gods and goddesses, the images of Baal and Ashtoreth, and gave their exclusive attention and service to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> So everyone assembled at Mizpah. They drew water from the wells and poured it out before GOD in a ritual of cleansing. They fasted all day and prayed, "We have sinned against GOD." So Samuel prepared the Israelites for holy war there at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that Israel was meeting at Mizpah, the Philistine leaders went on the offensive. Israel got the report and became frightened--Philistines on the move again!

<sup>8</sup> They pleaded with Samuel, "Pray with all your might! And don't let up! Pray to GOD, our God, that he'll save us from the boot of the Philistines."

<sup>9</sup> Samuel took a young lamb not yet weaned and offered it whole as a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD. He prayed fervently to GOD, interceding for Israel. And GOD answered.

<sup>10</sup> While Samuel was offering the sacrifice, the Philistines came within range to fight Israel. Just then GOD thundered, a huge thunderclap exploding among the Philistines. They panicked--mass confusion!--and ran helter-skelter from Israel.

<sup>14</sup> All the cities from Ekron to Gath that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored. Israel also freed the surrounding countryside from Philistine control. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>16</sup> Every year he went on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah. He gave leadership to Israel in each of these places.

<sup>17</sup> But always he would return to Ramah, where he lived, and preside from there. That is where he built an altar to GOD.

8 <sup>1</sup> When Samuel got to be an old man, he set his sons up as judges in Israel.

<sup>7</sup> GOD answered Samuel, "Go ahead and do what they're asking. They are not rejecting you. They've rejected me as their King.

<sup>8</sup> From the day I brought them out of Egypt until this very day they've been behaving like this, leaving me for other gods. And now they're doing it to you.

<sup>9</sup> So let them have their own way. But warn them of what they're in for. Tell them the way kings operate, just what they're likely to get from a king."

<sup>10</sup> So Samuel told them, delivered GOD's warning to the people who were asking him to give them a king.

<sup>11</sup> He said, "This is the way the kind of king you're talking about operates. He'll take your sons and make soldiers of them--chariotry, cavalry, infantry, <sup>12</sup> regimented in battalions and squadrons. He'll put some to forced labor on his farms, plowing and harvesting, and others to making either weapons of war or chariots in which he can ride in luxury.

<sup>13</sup> He'll put your daughters to work as beauticians and waitresses and cooks.

<sup>18</sup> The day will come when you will cry in desperation because of this king you so much want for yourselves. But don't expect GOD to answer."

<sup>19</sup> But the people wouldn't listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We will have a king to rule us!

<sup>20</sup> Then we'll be just like all the other nations. Our king will rule us and lead us and fight our battles."

<sup>21</sup> Samuel took in what they said and rehearsed it with GOD.

9 <sup>1</sup> There was a man from the tribe of Benjamin named Kish. He was the son of Abiel, grandson of Zeror, great-grandson of Becorath, great-great-grandson of Aphiah--a Benjaminite of stalwart character.

<sup>3</sup> Some of Kish's donkeys got lost. Kish said to his son, "Saul, take one of the servants with you and go look for the donkeys."

<sup>4</sup> Saul took one of the servants and went to find the donkeys. They went into the hill country of Ephraim around Shalisha, but didn't find them. Then they went over to Shaalim--no luck. Then to Jabin, and still nothing.

<sup>5</sup> When they got to Zuph, Saul said to the young man with him, "Enough of this. Let's go back. Soon my father is going to forget about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

<sup>7</sup> Saul said, "If we go, what do we have to give him? There's no more bread in our sacks. We've nothing to bring as a gift to the holy man. Do we have anything else?"

<sup>8</sup> The servant spoke up, "Look, I just happen to have this silver coin! I'll give it to the holy man and he'll tell us how to proceed!"

<sup>9</sup> (In former times in Israel, a person who wanted to seek God's word on a matter would say, "Let's visit the Seer," because the one we now call "the Prophet" used to be called "the Seer.")

<sup>10</sup> "Good," said Saul, "let's go." And they set off for the town where the holy man lived.

<sup>11</sup> As they were climbing up the hill into the town, they met some girls who were coming out to draw water. They said to them, "Is this where the Seer lives?"

<sup>12</sup> They answered, "It sure is--just ahead. Hurry up. He's come today because the people have prepared a sacrifice at the shrine.

<sup>13</sup> As soon as you enter the town, you can catch him before he goes up to the shrine to eat. The people won't eat until he arrives, for he has to bless the sacrifice. Only then can everyone eat. So get going. You're sure to find him!"

<sup>14</sup> They continued their climb and entered the city. And then there he was--Samuel!--coming straight toward them on his way to the shrine!

<sup>15</sup> The very day before, GOD had confided in Samuel,

<sup>16</sup> "This time tomorrow, I'm sending a man from the land of Benjamin to meet you. You're to anoint him as prince over my people Israel. He will free my people from Philistine oppression. Yes, I know all about their hard circumstances. I've heard their cries for help."

<sup>17</sup> The moment Samuel laid eyes on Saul, GOD said, "He's the one, the man I told you about. This is the one who will keep my people in check."

<sup>18</sup> Saul came up to Samuel in the street and said, "Pardon me, but can you tell me where the Seer lives?"

<sup>19</sup> "I'm the Seer," said Samuel. "Accompany me to the shrine and eat with me. In the morning I'll tell you all about what's on your mind, and send you on your way."

<sup>20</sup> And by the way, your lost donkeys--the ones you've been hunting for the last three days--have been found, so don't worry about them. At this moment, Israel's future is in your hands."

<sup>23</sup> Then Samuel directed the chef, "Bring the choice cut I pointed out to you, the one I told you to reserve."

<sup>24</sup> The chef brought it and placed it before Saul with a flourish, saying, "This meal was kept aside just for you. Eat! It was especially prepared for this time and occasion with these guests." Saul ate with Samuel--a memorable day!

<sup>26</sup> They woke at the break of day. Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get up and I'll send you off." Saul got up and the two of them went out in the street.

<sup>27</sup> As they approached the outskirts of town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell your servant to go on ahead of us. You stay with me for a bit. I have a word of God to give you."

10 <sup>1</sup> Then Samuel took a flask of oil, poured it on Saul's head, and kissed him. He said, "Do you see what this means? GOD has anointed you prince over his people. "This sign will confirm GOD's anointing of you as prince over his inheritance:

<sup>2</sup> After you leave me today, as you get closer to your home country of Benjamin, you'll meet two men near Rachel's Tomb. They'll say, 'The donkeys you went to look for are found. Your father has forgotten about the donkeys and is worried about you, wringing his hands--quite beside himself!'

<sup>3</sup> "Leaving there, you'll arrive at the Oak of Tabor. There you'll meet three men going up to worship God at Bethel. One will be carrying three young goats, another carrying three sacks of bread, and the third a jug of wine.

<sup>4</sup> They'll say, 'Hello, how are you?' and offer you two loaves of bread, which you will accept.

<sup>5</sup> "Next, you'll come to Gibeah of God, where there's a Philistine garrison. As you approach the town, you'll run into a bunch of prophets coming down from the shrine, playing harps and tambourines, flutes and drums. And they'll be prophesying.

<sup>6</sup> Before you know it, the Spirit of GOD will come on you and you'll be prophesying right along with them. And you'll be transformed. You'll be a new person!

<sup>7</sup> "When these confirming signs are accomplished, you'll know that you're ready: Whatever job you're given to do, do it. God is with you!

<sup>8</sup> "Now, go down to Gilgal and I will follow. I'll come down and join you in worship by sacrificing burnt offerings and peace offerings. Wait seven days. Then I'll come and tell you what to do next."

<sup>9</sup> Saul turned and left Samuel. At that very moment God transformed him--made him a new person! And all the confirming signs took place the same day.

<sup>10</sup> When Saul and his party got to Gibeah, there were the prophets, right in front of them! Before he knew it, the Spirit of God came on Saul and he was prophesying right along with them.

<sup>11</sup> When those who had previously known Saul saw him prophesying with the prophets, they were totally surprised. "What's going on here? What's come over the son of Kish? How on earth did Saul get to be a prophet?"

<sup>12</sup> One man spoke up and said, "Who started this? Where did these people ever come from?" That's how the saying got started, "Saul among the prophets! Who would have guessed?!"

<sup>13</sup> When Saul was done prophesying, he returned home.

<sup>14</sup> His uncle asked him and his servant, "So where have you two been all this time?" "Out looking for the donkeys.

We looked and looked and couldn't find them. And then we found Samuel!"

<sup>15</sup> "So," said Saul's uncle, "what did Samuel tell you?"

<sup>16</sup> Saul said, "He told us not to worry--the donkeys had been found." But Saul didn't breathe a word to his uncle of what Samuel said about the king business.

<sup>18</sup> He addressed the children of Israel, "This is GOD's personal message to you: "I brought Israel up out of Egypt. I delivered you from Egyptian oppression--yes, from all the bullying governments that made your life miserable.

<sup>19</sup> And now you want nothing to do with your God, the very God who has a history of getting you out of troubles of all sorts. "And now you say, 'No! We want a king; give us a king!' "Well, if that's what you want, that's what you'll get! Present yourselves formally before GOD, ranked in tribes and families."

<sup>20</sup> After Samuel got all the tribes of Israel lined up, the Benjamin tribe was picked.

<sup>21</sup> Then he lined up the Benjamin tribe in family groups, and the family of Matri was picked. The family of Matri took its place in the lineup, and the name Saul, son of Kish, was picked. But when they went looking for him, he was nowhere to be found.

<sup>22</sup> Samuel went back to GOD: "Is he anywhere around?" GOD said, "Yes, he's right over there--hidden in that pile of baggage."

chosen: the best! No one like him in the whole country!" Then a great shout went up from the people: "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup> Samuel went on to instruct the people in the rules and regulations involved in a kingdom, wrote it all down in a book, and placed it before GOD. Then Samuel sent everyone home.

<sup>26</sup> Saul also went home to Gibeah, and with him some true and brave men whom GOD moved to join him.

<sup>27</sup> But the riff-raff went off muttering, "'Deliverer'? Don't make me laugh!" They held him in contempt and refused to congratulate him. But Saul paid them no mind. Nahash, king of the Ammonites, was brutalizing the tribes of Gad and Reuben, gouging out their right eyes and intimidating anyone who would come to Israel's help. There were very few Israelites living on the east side of the Jordan River who had not had their right eyes gouged out by Nahash. But seven thousand men had escaped from the Ammonites and were now living safely in Jabesh.

11 <sup>1</sup> So Nahash went after them and prepared to go to war against Jabesh Gilead. The men of Jabesh petitioned Nahash: "Make a treaty with us and we'll serve you."

<sup>2</sup> Nahash said, "I'll make a treaty with you on one condition: that every right eye among you be gouged out! I'll humiliate every last man and woman in Israel before I'm done!"

<sup>3</sup> The town leaders of Jabesh said, "Give us time to send messengers around Israel--seven days should do it. If no one shows up to help us, we'll accept your terms."

<sup>4</sup> The messengers came to Saul's place at Gibeah and told the people what was going on. As the people broke out in loud wails,

<sup>5</sup> Saul showed up. He was coming back from the field with his oxen. Saul asked, "What happened? Why is everyone crying?" And they repeated the message that had come from Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of God came on Saul when he heard the report and he flew into a rage.

<sup>7</sup> He grabbed the yoke of oxen and butchered them on the spot. He sent the messengers throughout Israel distributing the bloody pieces with this message: "Anyone who refuses to join up with Saul and Samuel, let this be the fate of his oxen!" The terror of GOD seized the people, and they came out, one and all, not a laggard among them.

<sup>8</sup> Saul took command of the people at Bezek. There were 300,000 men from Israel, another 30,000 from Judah.

<sup>9</sup> Saul instructed the messengers, "Tell this to the folk in Jabesh Gilead: 'Help is on the way. Expect it by noon tomorrow.'" The messengers set straight off and delivered their message. Elated, the people of Jabesh Gilead

<sup>10</sup> sent word to Nahash: "Tomorrow we'll give ourselves up. You can deal with us on your terms."

<sup>11</sup> Long before dawn the next day, Saul had strategically placed his army in three groups. At first light they broke into the enemy camp and slaughtered Ammonites until noon. Those who were left ran for their lives, scattering every which way.

<sup>12</sup> The people came to Samuel then and said, "Where are those men who said, 'Saul is not fit to rule over us'? Hand them over. We'll kill them!"

<sup>13</sup> But Saul said, "Nobody is going to be executed this day. This is the day GOD saved Israel!

<sup>14</sup> Come, let's go to Gilgal and there reconsecrate the kingship."

<sup>15</sup> They all trooped out to Gilgal. Before GOD, they crowned Saul king at Gilgal. And there they worshiped, sacrificing peace offerings. Saul and all Israel celebrated magnificently.

12 <sup>1</sup> Samuel addressed all Israel: "I've listened to everything you've said to me, listened carefully to every word, and I've given you a king.

<sup>2</sup> See for yourself: Your king among you, leading you! But now look at me: I'm old and gray, and my sons are still here. I've led you faithfully from my youth until this very day.

<sup>3</sup> Look at me! Do you have any complaints to bring before GOD and his anointed? Have I ever stolen so much as an ox or a donkey? Have I ever taken advantage of you or exploited you? Have I ever taken a bribe or played fast and loose with the law? Bring your complaint and I'll make it right."

<sup>4</sup> "Oh no," they said, "never. You've never done any of that--never abused us, never lined your own pockets."

<sup>5</sup> "That settles it then," said Samuel. "GOD is witness, and his anointed is witness that you find nothing against me--no faults, no complaints."

<sup>6</sup> And the people said, "He is witness." Samuel continued, "This is the GOD who made Moses and Aaron your leaders and brought your ancestors out of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> Take your stand before him now as I review your case before GOD in the light of all the righteous ways in which GOD has worked with you and your ancestors.

and they cried for help to GOD. GOD sent Moses and Aaron, who led your ancestors out of Egypt and settled them here in this place.

<sup>9</sup> "They soon forgot their GOD, so he sold them off to Sisera, commander of Hazor's army, later to a hard life under the Philistines, and still later to the king of Moab. They had to fight for their lives.

<sup>10</sup> "Then they cried for help to GOD. They confessed, 'We've sinned! We've gone off and left GOD and worshiped the fertility gods and goddesses of Canaan. Oh, deliver us from the brutalities of our enemies and we'll worship you alone.'

<sup>11</sup> "So GOD sent Jerub-Baal (Gideon), Bedan (Barak), Jephthah, and Samuel. He saved you from that hard life surrounded by enemies, and you lived in peace.

<sup>12</sup> "But when you saw Nahash, king of the Ammonites, preparing to attack you, you said to me, 'No more of this. We want a king to lead us.' And GOD was already your king!

<sup>13</sup> "So here's the king you wanted, the king you asked for. GOD has let you have your own way, given you a king.

<sup>14</sup> If you fear GOD, worship and obey him, and don't rebel against what he tells you. If both you and your king follow GOD, no problem. GOD will be sure to save you.

<sup>15</sup> But if you don't obey him and rebel against what he tells you, king or no king, you will fare no better than your fathers.

<sup>16</sup> "Pay attention! Watch this wonder that GOD is going to perform before you now!

<sup>17</sup> It's summer, as you well know, and the rainy season is over. But I'm going to pray to GOD. He'll send thunder and rain, a sign to convince you of the great wrong you have done to GOD by asking for a king."

<sup>18</sup> Samuel prayed to GOD, and GOD sent thunder and rain that same day. The people were greatly afraid and in awe of GOD and of Samuel.

<sup>19</sup> Then all the people begged Samuel, "Pray to your GOD for us, your servants. Pray that we won't die! On top of all our other sins, we've piled on one more--asking for a king!"

<sup>20</sup> Samuel said to them, "Don't be fearful. It's true that you have done something very wrong. All the same, don't turn your back on GOD. Worship and serve him heart and soul!

<sup>23</sup> "And neither will I walk off and leave you. That would be a sin against GOD! I'm staying right here at my post praying for you and teaching you the good and right way to live.

<sup>24</sup> But I beg of you, fear GOD and worship him honestly and heartily. You've seen how greatly he has worked among you!

<sup>25</sup> Be warned: If you live badly, both you and your king will be thrown out."

13 <sup>1</sup> Saul was a young man when he began as king. He was king over Israel for many years.

<sup>2</sup> Saul conscripted enough men for three companies of soldiers. He kept two companies under his command at Micmash and in the Bethel hills. The other company was under Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. He sent the rest of the men home.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan attacked and killed the Philistine governor stationed at Geba (Gibeah). When the Philistines heard the news, they raised the alarm: "The Hebrews are in revolt!" Saul ordered the reveille trumpets blown throughout the land.

<sup>4</sup> The word went out all over Israel, "Saul has killed the Philistine governor—drawn first blood! The Philistines are stirred up and mad as hornets!" Summoned, the army came to Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup> The Philistines rallied their forces to fight Israel: three companies of chariots, six companies of cavalry, and so many infantry they looked like sand on the seashore. They went up into the hills and set up camp at Micmash, east of Beth Aven.

<sup>6</sup> When the Israelites saw that they were way outnumbered and in deep trouble, they ran for cover, hiding in caves and pits, ravines and brambles and cisterns--wherever.

<sup>7</sup> They retreated across the Jordan River, refugees fleeing to the country of Gad and Gilead. But Saul held his ground in Gilgal, his soldiers still with him but scared to death.

<sup>8</sup> He waited seven days, the time set by Samuel. Samuel failed to show up at Gilgal, and the soldiers were slipping away, right and left.

<sup>9</sup> So Saul took charge: "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings!" He went ahead and sacrificed the burnt offering.

<sup>10</sup> No sooner had he done it than Samuel showed up! Saul greeted him.

<sup>11</sup> Samuel said, "What on earth are you doing?" Saul answered, "When I saw I was losing my army from under me, and that you hadn't come when you said you would, and that the Philistines were poised at Micmash, <sup>12</sup> I said, 'The Philistines are about to come down on me in Gilgal, and I haven't yet come before GOD asking for his help.' So I took things into my own hands, and sacrificed the burnt offering."

<sup>13</sup> "That was a fool thing to do," Samuel said to Saul. "If you had kept the appointment that your GOD commanded, by now GOD would have set a firm and lasting foundation under your kingly rule over Israel.

<sup>14</sup> As it is, your kingly rule is already falling to pieces. GOD is out looking for your replacement right now. This time he'll do the choosing. When he finds him, he'll appoint him leader of his people. And all because you didn't keep your appointment with GOD!"

into battle. They went into the hills from Gilgal toward Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul looked over and assessed the soldiers still with him--a mere six hundred!

<sup>16</sup> Saul, his son Jonathan, and the soldiers who had remained made camp at Geba (Gibeah) of Benjamin. The Philistines were camped at Micmash.

<sup>18</sup> another was assigned to the Beth Horon road; the third took the border road that rimmed the Valley of Hyenas.

<sup>19</sup> There wasn't a blacksmith to be found anywhere in Israel. The Philistines made sure of that--"Lest those Hebrews start making swords and spears."

<sup>20</sup> That meant that the Israelites had to go down among the Philistines to keep their farm tools--plowshares and mattocks, axes and sickles--sharp and in good repair.

<sup>21</sup> They charged a silver coin for the plowshares and mattocks, and half that for the rest.

<sup>22</sup> So when the battle of Micmash was joined, there wasn't a sword or spear to be found anywhere in Israel--except for Saul and his son Jonathan; they were both well-armed.

14 <sup>1</sup> Later that day, Jonathan, Saul's son, said to his armor bearer, "Come on, let's go over to the Philistine garrison patrol on the other side of the pass." But he didn't tell his father.

<sup>2</sup> Meanwhile, Saul was taking it easy under the pomegranate tree at the threshing floor on the edge of town at Geba (Gibeah). There were about six hundred men with him.

<sup>3</sup> Ahijah, wearing the priestly Ephod, was also there. (Ahijah was the son of Ahitub, brother of Ichabod, son of Phinehas, who was the son of Eli the priest of GOD at Shiloh.) No one there knew that Jonathan had gone off.

<sup>4</sup> The pass that Jonathan was planning to cross over to the Philistine garrison was flanked on either side by sharp rock outcroppings, cliffs named Bozez and Seneh.

<sup>5</sup> The cliff to the north faced Micmash; the cliff to the south faced Geba (Gibeah).

<sup>6</sup> Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come on now, let's go across to these uncircumcised pagans. Maybe GOD will work for us. There's no rule that says God can only deliver by using a big army.

No one can stop GOD from saving when he sets his mind to it."

<sup>7</sup> His armor bearer said, "Go ahead. Do what you think best. I'm with you all the way."

<sup>8</sup> Jonathan said, "Here's what we'll do. We'll cross over the pass and let the men see we're there.

<sup>9</sup> If they say, 'Halt! Don't move until we check you out,' we'll stay put and not go up.

<sup>10</sup> But if they say, 'Come on up,' we'll go right up--and we'll know GOD has given them to us. That will be our sign."

<sup>11</sup> So they did it, the two of them. They stepped into the open where they could be seen by the Philistine garrison. The Philistines shouted out, "Look at that! The Hebrews are crawling out of their holes!"

<sup>12</sup> Then they yelled down to Jonathan and his armor bearer, "Come on up here! We've got a thing or two to show you!"

<sup>20</sup> Saul immediately called his army together and they went straight to the battle. When they got there they found total confusion--Philistines swinging their swords wildly, killing each other.

<sup>21</sup> Hebrews who had earlier defected to the Philistine camp came back. They now wanted to be with Israel under Saul and Jonathan.

<sup>22</sup> Not only that, but when all the Israelites who had been hiding out in the backwoods of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were running for their lives, they came out and joined the chase.

<sup>24</sup> Saul did something really foolish that day. He addressed the army: "A curse on the man who eats anything before evening, before I've wreaked vengeance on my enemies!" None of them ate a thing all day.

<sup>28</sup> A soldier spoke up, "Your father has put the army under solemn oath, saying, 'A curse on the man who eats anything before evening!' No wonder the soldiers are drooping!"

<sup>29</sup> Jonathan said, "My father has imperiled the country. Just look how quickly my energy has returned since I ate a little of this honey!"

<sup>30</sup> It would have been a lot better, believe me, if the soldiers had eaten their fill of whatever they took from the enemy. Who knows how much worse we could have whipped them!"

<sup>31</sup> They killed Philistines that day all the way from Micmash to Aijalon, but the soldiers ended up totally exhausted.

<sup>32</sup> Then they started plundering. They grabbed anything in sight--sheep, cattle, calves--and butchered it where they found it. Then they gluttoned themselves--meat, blood, the works.

<sup>33</sup> Saul was told, "Do something! The soldiers are sinning against GOD. They're eating meat with the blood still in it!" Saul said, "You're biting the hand that feeds you! Roll a big rock over here--now!"

<sup>34</sup> He continued, "Disperse among the troops and tell them, 'Bring your oxen and sheep to me and butcher them properly here. Then you can feast to your heart's content. Please don't sin against GOD by eating meat with the blood still in it." And so they did. That night each soldier, one after another, led his animal there to be butchered.

<sup>35</sup> That's the story behind Saul's building an altar to GOD. It's the first altar to GOD that he built.

<sup>36</sup> Saul said, "Let's go after the Philistines tonight! We can spend the night looting and plundering. We won't leave a single live Philistine!" "Sounds good to us," said the troops. "Let's do it!" But the priest slowed them down: "Let's find out what God thinks about this."

<sup>37</sup> So Saul prayed to God, "Shall I go after the Philistines? Will you put them in Israel's hand?" God didn't answer him on that occasion.

<sup>38</sup> Saul then said, "All army officers, step forward. Some sin has been committed this day. We're going to find out what it is and who did it!

<sup>39</sup> As GOD lives, Israel's Savior God, whoever sinned will die, even if it should turn out to be Jonathan, my son!" Nobody said a word.

<sup>40</sup> Saul said to the Israelites, "You line up over on that side, and I and Jonathan my son will stand on this side." The army agreed, "Fine. Whatever you say."

<sup>41</sup> Then Saul prayed to GOD, "O God of Israel, why haven't you answered me today? Show me the truth. If the sin is in me or Jonathan, then, O GOD, give the sign Urim. But if the sin is in the army of Israel, give the sign Thummim." The Urim sign turned up and pointed to Saul and Jonathan. That cleared the army.

<sup>42</sup> Next Saul said, "Cast the lots between me and Jonathan--and death to the one GOD points to!" The soldiers protested, "No--this is not right. Stop this!" But Saul pushed on anyway. They cast the lots, Urim and Thummim, and the lot fell to Jonathan.

<sup>43</sup> Saul confronted Jonathan. "What did you do? Tell me!" Jonathan said, "I licked a bit of honey off the tip of the staff I was carrying. That's it--and for that I'm to die?"

<sup>44</sup> Saul said, "Yes. Jonathan most certainly will die. It's out of my hands--I can't go against God, can I?"

<sup>45</sup> The soldiers rose up: "Jonathan--die? Never! He's just carried out this stunning salvation victory for Israel. As surely as GOD lives, not a hair on his head is going to be harmed. Why, he's been working hand-in-hand with God all day!" The soldiers rescued Jonathan and he didn't die.

<sup>50</sup> Saul's wife was Ahinoam, daughter of Ahimaaz. Abner son of Ner was commander of Saul's army (Ner was Saul's uncle).

<sup>51</sup> Kish, Saul's father, and Ner, Abner's father, were the sons of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup> All through Saul's life there was war, bitter and relentless, with the Philistines. Saul conscripted every strong and brave man he laid eyes on.

15 <sup>1</sup> Samuel said to Saul, "GOD sent me to anoint you king over his people, Israel. Now, listen again to what GOD says.

<sup>3</sup> Here's what you are to do: Go to war against Amalek. Put everything connected with Amalek under a holy ban. And no exceptions! This is to be total destruction--men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys--the works.'"

<sup>4</sup> Saul called the army together at Telaim and prepared them to go to war--two hundred companies of infantry from Israel and another ten companies from Judah.

<sup>6</sup> Then Saul got word to the Kenites: "Get out of here while you can. Evacuate the city right now or you'll get lumped in with the Amalekites. I'm warning you because you showed real kindness to the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt." And they did. The Kenites evacuated the place.

<sup>8</sup> He captured Agag, king of Amalek, alive. Everyone else was killed under the terms of the holy ban.

<sup>9</sup> Saul and the army made an exception for Agag, and for the choice sheep and cattle. They didn't include them under the terms of the holy ban. But all the rest, which nobody wanted anyway, they destroyed as decreed by the holy ban.

<sup>10</sup> Then GOD spoke to Samuel:

<sup>11</sup> "I'm sorry I ever made Saul king. He's turned his back on me. He refuses to do what I tell him." Samuel was angry when he heard this. He prayed his anger and disappointment all through the night.

<sup>12</sup> He got up early in the morning to confront Saul but was told, "Saul's gone. He went to Carmel to set up a victory monument in his own honor, and then was headed for Gilgal." By the time Samuel caught up with him, Saul had just finished an act of worship, having used Amalekite plunder for the burnt offerings sacrificed to GOD.

<sup>13</sup> As Samuel came close, Saul called out, "GOD's blessings on you! I accomplished GOD's plan to the letter!"

<sup>14</sup> Samuel said, "So what's this I'm hearing--this bleating of sheep, this mooing of cattle?"

<sup>15</sup> "Only some Amalekite loot," said Saul. "The soldiers saved back a few of the choice cattle and sheep to offer up in sacrifice to GOD. But everything else we destroyed under the holy ban."

<sup>16</sup> "Enough!" interrupted Samuel. "Let me tell you what GOD told me last night." Saul said, "Go ahead. Tell me."

<sup>17</sup> And Samuel told him. "When you started out in this, you were nothing-- and you knew it. Then GOD put you at the head of Israel--made you king over Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then GOD sent you off to do a job for him, ordering you, 'Go and put those sinners, the Amalekites, under a holy ban. Go to war against them until you have totally wiped them out.'

<sup>19</sup> So why did you not obey GOD? Why did you grab all this loot? Why, with GOD's eyes on you all the time, did you brazenly carry out this evil?"

<sup>20</sup> Saul defended himself. "What are you talking about? I did obey GOD. I did the job GOD set for me. I brought in King Agag and destroyed the Amalekites under the terms of the holy ban.

<sup>21</sup> So the soldiers saved back a few choice sheep and cattle from the holy ban for sacrifice to GOD at Gilgal--what's wrong with that?"

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel said, Do you think all GOD wants are sacrifices--empty rituals just for show? He wants you to listen to him! Plain listening is the thing, not staging a lavish religious production.

<sup>23</sup> Not doing what GOD tells you is far worse than fooling around in the occult. Getting self-important around GOD is far worse than making deals with your dead ancestors. Because you said No to GOD's command, he says No to your kingship.

<sup>24</sup> Saul gave in and confessed, "I've sinned. I've trampled roughshod over GOD's Word and your instructions. I cared more about pleasing the people. I let them tell me what to do.

<sup>25</sup> Oh, absolve me of my sin! Take my hand and lead me to the altar so I can worship GOD!"

<sup>26</sup> But Samuel refused: "No, I can't come alongside you in this. You rejected GOD's command. Now GOD has rejected you as king over Israel."

<sup>28</sup> Samuel said, "GOD has just now torn the kingdom from you, and handed it over to your neighbor, a better man than you are.

<sup>29</sup> Israel's God-of-Glory doesn't deceive and he doesn't dither. He says what he means and means what he says."

<sup>30</sup> Saul tried again, "I have sinned. But don't abandon me! Support me with your presence before the leaders and the people. Come alongside me as I go back to worship GOD."

<sup>31</sup> Samuel did. He went back with him. And Saul went to his knees before GOD and worshiped.

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, "Present King Agag of Amalek to me." Agag came, dragging his feet, muttering that he'd be better off dead.

<sup>33</sup> Samuel said, "Just as your sword made many a woman childless, so your mother will be childless among those women!" And Samuel cut Agag down in the presence of GOD right there in Gilgal.

<sup>35</sup> Samuel never laid eyes on Saul again in this life, although he grieved long and deeply over him. But GOD was sorry he had ever made Saul king in the first place.

16 <sup>1</sup> GOD addressed Samuel: "So, how long are you going to mope over Saul? You know I've rejected him as king over Israel. Fill your flask with anointing oil and get going. I'm sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem. I've spotted the very king I want among his sons."

<sup>2</sup> "I can't do that," said Samuel. "Saul will hear about it and kill me." GOD said, "Take a heifer with you and announce, 'I've come to lead you in worship of GOD, with this heifer as a sacrifice.'

<sup>3</sup> Make sure Jesse gets invited. I'll let you know what to do next. I'll point out the one you are to anoint."

<sup>5</sup> "Nothing's wrong. I've come to sacrifice this heifer and lead you in the worship of GOD. Prepare yourselves, be consecrated, and join me in worship." He made sure Jesse and his sons were also consecrated and called to worship.

<sup>11</sup> Then he asked Jesse, "Is this it? Are there no more sons?" "Well, yes, there's the runt. But he's out tending the sheep." Samuel ordered Jesse, "Go get him. We're not moving from this spot until he's here."

<sup>15</sup> Saul's advisors said, "This awful tormenting depression from God is making your life miserable."

<sup>17</sup> Saul told his servants, "Go ahead. Find me someone who can play well and bring him to me."

<sup>21</sup> David came to Saul and stood before him. Saul liked him immediately and made him his right-hand man.

<sup>23</sup> After that, whenever the bad depression from God tormented Saul, David got out his harp and played. That would calm Saul down, and he would feel better as the moodiness lifted.

<sup>8</sup> Goliath stood there and called out to the Israelite troops, "Why bother using your whole army? Am I not Philistine enough for you? And you're all committed to Saul, aren't you? So pick your best fighter and pit him against me.

<sup>9</sup> If he gets the upper hand and kills me, the Philistines will all become your slaves. But if I get the upper hand and kill him, you'll all become our slaves and serve us.

<sup>10</sup> I challenge the troops of Israel this day. Give me a man. Let us fight it out together!"

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and his troops heard the Philistine's challenge, they were terrified and lost all hope.

<sup>12</sup> Enter David. He was the son of Jesse the Ephrathite from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse, the father of eight sons, was himself too old to join Saul's army.

<sup>13</sup> Jesse's three older sons had followed Saul to war. The names of the three sons who had joined up with Saul were Eliab, the firstborn; next, Abinadab; and third, Shammah.

<sup>15</sup> David was the youngest son. While his three oldest brothers went to war with Saul, David went back and forth from attending to Saul to tending his father's sheep in Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup> Each morning and evening for forty days, Goliath took his stand and made his speech.

<sup>17</sup> One day, Jesse told David his son, "Take this sack of cracked wheat and these ten loaves of bread and run them down to your brothers in the camp.

<sup>18</sup> And take these ten wedges of cheese to the captain of their division. Check in on your brothers to see whether they are getting along all right, and let me know how they're doing

<sup>19</sup> --Saul and your brothers, and all the Israelites in their war with the Philistines in the Oak Valley."

<sup>20</sup> David was up at the crack of dawn and, having arranged for someone to tend his flock, took the food and was on his way just as Jesse had directed him. He arrived at the camp just as the army was moving into battle formation, shouting the war cry.

<sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines moved into position, facing each other, battle-ready.

<sup>25</sup> The talk among the troops was, "Have you ever seen anything like this, this man openly and defiantly challenging Israel? The man who kills the giant will have it made. The king will give him a huge reward, offer his daughter as a bride, and give his entire family a free ride."

<sup>26</sup> David, who was talking to the men standing around him, asked, "What's in it for the man who kills that Philistine and gets rid of this ugly blot on Israel's honor? Who does he think he is, anyway, this uncircumcised Philistine, taunting the armies of God-Alive?"

<sup>27</sup> They told him what everyone was saying about what the king would do for the man who killed the Philistine.

<sup>29</sup> "What is it with you?" replied David.
"All I did was ask a question."

<sup>30</sup> Ignoring his brother, he turned to someone else, asked the same question, and got the same answer as before.

<sup>31</sup> The things David was saying were picked up and reported to Saul. Saul sent for him.

<sup>34</sup> David said, "I've been a shepherd, tending sheep for my father. Whenever a lion or bear came and took a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I'd go after it, knock it down, and rescue the lamb. If it turned on me, I'd grab it by the throat, wring its neck, and kill it.

<sup>36</sup> Lion or bear, it made no difference--I killed it. And I'll do the same to this Philistine pig who is taunting the troops of God-Alive.

<sup>37</sup> GOD, who delivered me from the teeth of the lion and the claws of the bear, will deliver me from this Philistine." Saul said, "Go. And GOD help you!"

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul outfitted David as a soldier in armor. He put his bronze helmet on his head and belted his sword on him over the armor.

<sup>40</sup> Then David took his shepherd's staff, selected five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the pocket of his shepherd's pack, and with his sling in his hand approached Goliath.

<sup>44</sup> "Come on," said the Philistine. "I'll make roadkill of you for the buzzards. I'll turn you into a tasty morsel for the field mice."

<sup>45</sup> David answered, "You come at me with sword and spear and battle-ax. I come at you in the name of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God of Israel's troops, whom you curse and mock.

<sup>46</sup> This very day GOD is handing you over to me. I'm about to kill you, cut off your head, and serve up your body and the bodies of your Philistine buddies to the crows and coyotes. The whole earth will know that there's an extraordinary God in Israel.

<sup>47</sup> And everyone gathered here will learn that GOD doesn't save by means of sword or spear. The battle belongs to GOD--he's handing you to us on a platter!"

<sup>50</sup> That's how David beat the Philistine--with a sling and a stone. He hit him and killed him. No sword for David!

<sup>51</sup> Then David ran up to the Philistine and stood over him, pulled the giant's sword from its sheath, and finished the job by cutting off his head. When the Philistines saw that their great champion was dead, they scattered, running for their lives.

<sup>54</sup> David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem. But the giant's weapons he placed in his own tent.

<sup>55</sup> When Saul saw David go out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, "Tell me about this young man's family." Abner said, "For the life of me, O King, I don't know."

<sup>57</sup> As soon as David came back from killing the Philistine, Abner brought him, the Philistine's head still in his hand, straight to Saul.

<sup>58</sup> Saul asked him, "Young man, whose son are you?" "I'm the son of your servant Jesse," said David, "the one who lives in Bethlehem."

18 <sup>1</sup> By the time David had finished reporting to Saul, Jonathan was deeply impressed with David--an immediate bond was forged between them. He became totally committed to David. From that point on he would be David's number-one advocate and friend.

<sup>5</sup> Whatever Saul gave David to do, he did it--and did it well. So well that Saul put him in charge of his military operations. Everybody, both the people in general and Saul's servants, approved of and admired David's leadership.

<sup>8</sup> This made Saul angry--very angry. He took it as a personal insult. He said, "They credit David with 'ten thousands' and me with only 'thousands.' Before you know it they'll be giving him the kingdom!"

<sup>10</sup> The next day an ugly mood was sent by God to afflict Saul, who became quite beside himself, raving. David played his harp, as he usually did at such times. Saul had a spear in his hand.

<sup>14</sup> Everything David did turned out well. Yes, GOD was with him.

<sup>15</sup> As Saul saw David becoming more successful, he himself grew more fearful. He could see the handwriting on the wall.

<sup>17</sup> One day Saul said to David, "Here is Merab, my eldest daughter. I want to give her to you as your wife. Be brave and bold for my sake. Fight GOD's battles!" But all the time Saul was thinking, "The Philistines will kill him for me. I won't have to lift a hand against him."

<sup>18</sup> David, embarrassed, answered, "Do you really mean that? I'm from a family of nobodies! I can't be son-in-law to the king."

<sup>19</sup> The wedding day was set, but as the time neared for Merab and David to be married, Saul reneged and married his daughter off to Adriel the Meholathite.

<sup>21</sup> Meanwhile, Saul's daughter Michal was in love with David. When Saul was told of this, he rubbed his hands in anticipation. "Ah, a second chance. I'll use Michal as bait to get David out where the Philistines will make short work of him." So again he said to David, "You're going to be my son-in-law."

<sup>22</sup> Saul ordered his servants, "Get David off by himself and tell him, 'The king is very taken with you, and everyone at court loves you. Go ahead, become the king's son-in-law!'"

<sup>23</sup> The king's servants told all this to David, but David held back. "What are you thinking of? I can't do that. I'm a nobody; I have nothing to offer."

<sup>25</sup> When the servants reported David's response to Saul, he told them to tell David this: "The king isn't expecting any money from you; only this: Go kill a hundred Philistines and bring evidence of your vengeance on the king's behalf. Avenge the king on his enemies." (Saul expected David to be killed in action.)

<sup>27</sup> On receiving this message, David was pleased. There was something he could do for the king that would qualify him to be his son-in-law! He lost no time but went right out, he and his men, killed the hundred Philistines, brought their evidence back in a sack, and counted it out before the king--mission completed! Saul gave Michal his daughter to David in marriage.

<sup>30</sup> Whenever the Philistine warlords came out to battle, David was there to meet them--and beat them, upstaging Saul's men. David's name was on everyone's lips.

19 <sup>1</sup> Saul called his son Jonathan together with his servants and ordered them to kill David. But because Jonathan treasured David, <sup>2</sup> he went and warned him: "My father is looking for a way to kill you. Here's what you are to do. Tomorrow morning, hide and stay hidden.

<sup>3</sup> I'll go out with my father into the field where you are hiding. I'll talk about you with my father and we'll see what he says. Then I'll report back to you."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan brought up David with his father, speaking well of him. "Please," he said to his father, "don't attack David. He hasn't wronged you, has he? And just look at all the good he has done!

<sup>5</sup> He put his life on the line when he killed the Philistine. What a great victory GOD gave Israel that day! You were there. You saw it and were on your feet applauding with everyone else. So why would you even think of sinning against an innocent person, killing David for no reason whatever?"

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to Jonathan and said, "You're right. As GOD lives, David lives. He will not be killed."

<sup>7</sup> Jonathan sent for David and reported to him everything that was said. Then he brought David back to Saul and everything was as it was before.

<sup>8</sup> War broke out again and David went out to fight Philistines. He beat them badly, and they ran for their lives.

<sup>9</sup> But then a black mood from God settled over Saul and took control of him. He was sitting at home, his spear in his hand, while David was playing music.

<sup>10</sup> Suddenly, Saul tried to skewer David with his spear, but David ducked. The spear stuck in the wall and David got away. It was night.

<sup>11</sup> Saul sent men to David's house to stake it out and then, first thing in the morning, to kill him. But Michal, David's wife, told him what was going on. "Quickly now--make your escape tonight. If not, you'll be dead by morning!"

<sup>12</sup> She let him out of a window, and he made his escape.

<sup>13</sup> Then Michal took a dummy god and put it in the bed, placed a wig of goat's hair on its head, and threw a quilt over it.

<sup>16</sup> When the men entered the room, all they found in the bed was the dummy god with its goat-hair wig!

<sup>17</sup> Saul stormed at Michal: "How could you play tricks on me like this? You sided with my enemy, and now he's gotten away!" Michal said, "He threatened me. He said, 'Help me out of here or I'll kill you.'"

<sup>18</sup> David made good his escape and went to Samuel at Ramah and told him everything Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel withdrew to the privacy of Naioth.

<sup>20</sup> He immediately sent his men to capture him. They saw a band of prophets prophesying with Samuel presiding over them. Before they knew it, the Spirit of God was on them, too, and they were ranting and raving right along with the prophets!

<sup>21</sup> That was reported back to Saul, and he dispatched more men. They, too, were soon prophesying. So Saul tried a third time--a third set of men--and they ended up mindlessly raving as well!

<sup>22</sup> Fed up, Saul went to Ramah himself. He came to the big cistern at Secu and inquired, "Where are Samuel and David?" A bystander said, "Over at Naioth in Ramah."

<sup>23</sup> As he headed out for Naioth in Ramah, the Spirit of God was on him, too. All the way to Naioth he was caught up in a babbling trance!

<sup>24</sup> He ripped off his clothes and lay there rambling gibberish before Samuel for a day and a night, stretched out naked. People are still talking about it: "Saul among the prophets! Who would have guessed?"

20 <sup>1</sup> David got out of Naioth in Ramah alive and went to Jonathan. "What do I do now? What wrong have I inflicted on your father that makes him so determined to kill me?"

<sup>2</sup> "Nothing," said Jonathan. "You've done nothing wrong. And you're not going to die. Really, you're not! My father tells me everything. He does nothing, whether big or little, without confiding in me. So why would he do this behind my back? It can't be."

<sup>3</sup> But David said, "Your father knows that we are the best of friends. So he says to himself, 'Jonathan must know nothing of this. If he does, he'll side with David.' But it's true--as sure as GOD lives, and as sure as you're alive before me right now--he's determined to kill me."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan said, "Tell me what you have in mind. I'll do anything for you."

<sup>5</sup> David said, "Tomorrow marks the New Moon. I'm scheduled to eat dinner with the king. Instead, I'll go hide in the field until the evening of the third.

<sup>6</sup> If your father misses me, say, 'David asked if he could run down to Bethlehem, his hometown, for an anniversary reunion, and worship with his family.'

<sup>7</sup> If he says, 'Good!' then I'm safe. But if he gets angry, you'll know for sure that he's made up his mind to kill me.

<sup>8</sup> Oh, stick with me in this. You've entered into a covenant of GOD with me, remember! If I'm in the wrong, go ahead and kill me yourself. Why bother giving me up to your father?"

<sup>9</sup> "Never!" exclaimed Jonathan. "I'd never do that! If I get the slightest hint that my father is fixated on killing you, I'll tell you."

<sup>10</sup> David asked, "And whom will you get to tell me if your father comes back with a harsh answer?"

<sup>11</sup> "Come outside," said Jonathan. "Let's go to the field." When the two of them were out in the field, <sup>12</sup> Jonathan said, "As GOD, the God of Israel, is my witness, by this time tomorrow I'll get it out of my father how he feels about you. Then I'll let you know what I learn.

<sup>13</sup> May GOD do his worst to me if I let you down! If my father still intends to kill you, I'll tell you and get you out of here in one piece. And GOD be with you as he's been with my father!

<sup>14</sup> If I make it through this alive, continue to be my covenant friend. And if I die, <sup>16</sup> keep the covenant friendship with my family--forever. And when GOD finally rids the earth of David's enemies, stay loyal to Jonathan!"

<sup>19</sup> On the third day, when they've quit expecting you, come to the place where you hid before, and wait beside that big boulder.

<sup>21</sup> Then I'll send off my servant, 'Go find the arrows.' If I yell after the servant,

'The arrows are on this side! Retrieve them!' that's the signal that you can return safely--as GOD lives, not a thing to fear!

<sup>22</sup> But if I yell, 'The arrows are farther out!' then run for it--GOD wants you out of here!

<sup>23</sup> Regarding all the things we've discussed, remember that GOD's in on this with us to the very end!"

<sup>26</sup> Saul didn't mention it at the time, thinking, "Something's happened that's made him unclean. That's it--he's probably unclean for the holy meal."

<sup>27</sup> But the day after the New Moon, day two of the holiday, David's seat was still empty. Saul asked Jonathan his son, "So where's that son of Jesse? He hasn't eaten with us either yesterday or today."

<sup>28</sup> Jonathan said, "David asked my special permission to go to Bethlehem.

<sup>29</sup> He said, 'Give me leave to attend a family reunion back home. My brothers have ordered me to be there. If it seems all right to you, let me go and see my brothers.' That's why he's not here at the king's table."

<sup>30</sup> Saul exploded in anger at Jonathan: "You son of a slut! Don't you think I know that you're in cahoots with the son of Jesse, disgracing both you and your mother?"

<sup>31</sup> For as long as the son of Jesse is walking around free on this earth, your future in this kingdom is at risk. Now go get him. Bring him here. From this moment, he's as good as dead!"

<sup>33</sup> Saul threw his spear at him to kill him. That convinced Jonathan that his father was fixated on killing David.

<sup>36</sup> He told the servant, "Run and get the arrows I'm about to shoot." The boy started running and Jonathan shot an arrow way beyond him.

<sup>41</sup> After the servant was gone, David got up from his hiding place beside the boulder, then fell on his face to the ground--three times prostrating himself! And then they kissed one another and wept, friend over friend, David weeping especially hard.

<sup>42</sup> Jonathan said, "Go in peace! The two of us have vowed friendship in GOD's name, saying, 'GOD will be the bond between me and you, and between my children and your children forever!'"

21 <sup>1</sup> David went on his way and Jonathan returned to town. David went to Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest.

Ahimelech was alarmed as he went out to greet David: "What are you doing here all by yourself--and not a soul with you?"

<sup>3</sup> Now, what's there here to eat? Do you have five loaves of bread? Give me whatever you can scrounge up!"

<sup>4</sup> "I don't have any regular bread on hand," said the priest. "I only have holy bread. If your men have not slept with women recently, it's yours."

<sup>5</sup> David said, "None of us has touched a woman. I always do it this way when I'm on a mission: My men abstain from sex. Even when it is an ordinary mission we do that--how much more on this holy mission."

<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave them the holy bread. It was the only bread he had, Bread of the Presence that had been removed from GOD's presence and replaced by fresh bread at the same time.

<sup>7</sup> One of Saul's officials was present that day keeping a religious vow. His name was Doeg the Edomite. He was chief of Saul's shepherds.

<sup>8</sup> David asked Ahimelech, "Do you have a spear or sword of any kind around here? I didn't have a chance to grab my weapons. The king's mission was urgent and I left in a hurry."

<sup>9</sup> The priest said, "The sword of Goliath, the Philistine you killed at Oak Valley--that's here! It's behind the Ephod wrapped in a cloth. If you want it, take it. There's nothing else here."

<sup>10</sup> "Oh," said David, "there's no sword like that! Give it to me!" And at that, David shot out of there, running for his life from Saul. He went to Achish, king of Gath.

<sup>12</sup> When David realized that he had been recognized, he panicked, fearing the worst from Achish, king of Gath.

<sup>14</sup> Achish took one look at him and said to his servants, "Can't you see he's crazy? Why did you let him in here?"

<sup>15</sup> Don't you think I have enough crazy people to put up with as it is without adding another? Get him out of here!"

22 <sup>1</sup> So David got away and escaped to the Cave of Adullam. When his brothers and others associated with his family heard where he was, they came down and joined him.

<sup>2</sup> Not only that, but all who were down on their luck came around--losers and vagrants and misfits of all sorts. David became their leader. There were about four hundred in all.

<sup>3</sup> Then David went to Mizpah in Moab. He petitioned the king of Moab, "Grant asylum to my father and mother until I find out what God has planned for me."

what he told him. He went to the forest of Hereth.

<sup>7</sup> He said, "Listen here, you Benjaminites! Don't think for a minute that you have any future with the son of Jesse! Do you think he's going to hand over choice land, give you all influential jobs?"

<sup>8</sup> Think again. Here you are, conspiring against me, whispering behind my back--not one of you is man enough to tell me that my own son is making deals with the son of Jesse, not one of you who cares enough to tell me that my son has taken the side of this, this...outlaw!"

<sup>9</sup> Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul's officials, spoke up: "I saw the son of Jesse meet with Ahimelech son of Ahitub, in Nob.

<sup>10</sup> I saw Ahimelech pray with him for GOD's guidance, give him food, and arm him with the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup> Saul sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub, along with the whole family of priests at Nob. They all came to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Saul said, "You listen to me, son of Ahitub!" "Certainly, master," he said.

<sup>13</sup> "Why have you ganged up against me with the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword, even praying with him for GOD's guidance, setting him up as an outlaw, out to get me?"

<sup>14</sup> Ahimelech answered the king, "There's not an official in your administration as true to you as David, your own son-in-law and captain of your bodyguard. None more honorable either.

<sup>15</sup> Do you think that was the first time I prayed with him for God's guidance? Hardly! But don't accuse me of any wrongdoing, me or my family. I have no idea what you're trying to get at with this 'outlaw' talk."

<sup>16</sup> The king said, "Death, Ahimelech! You're going to die--you and everyone in your family!"

<sup>17</sup> The king ordered his henchmen, "Surround and kill the priests of GOD! They're hand in glove with David. They knew he was running away from me and didn't tell me." But the king's men wouldn't do it. They refused to lay a hand on the priests of GOD.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king told Doeg, "You do it--massacre the priests!" Doeg the Edomite led the attack and slaughtered the priests, the eighty-five men who wore the sacred robes.

<sup>20</sup> Only one son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub escaped: Abiathar. He got away and joined up with David.

<sup>22</sup> David said to Abiathar, "I knew it--that day I saw Doeg the Edomite there, I knew he'd tell Saul. I'm to blame for the death of everyone in your father's family.

23 <sup>1</sup> It was reported to David that the Philistines were raiding Keilah and looting the grain.

<sup>2</sup> David went in prayer to GOD: "Should I go after these Philistines and teach them a lesson?" GOD said, "Go. Attack the Philistines and save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup> But David's men said, "We live in fear of our lives right here in Judah. How can you think of going to Keilah in the thick of the Philistines?"

<sup>4</sup> So David went back to GOD in prayer. GOD said, "Get going. Head for Keilah. I'm placing the Philistines in your hands."

<sup>7</sup> Saul learned that David had gone to Keilah and thought immediately, "Good! God has handed him to me on a platter!"

He's in a walled city with locked gates, trapped!"

<sup>8</sup> Saul mustered his troops for battle and set out for Keilah to lay siege to David and his men.

<sup>9</sup> But David got wind of Saul's strategy to destroy him and said to Abiathar the priest, "Get the Ephod."

<sup>10</sup> Then David prayed to GOD: "God of Israel, I've just heard that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the city because of me.

<sup>11</sup> Will the city fathers of Keilah turn me over to him? Will Saul come down and do what I've heard? O GOD, God of Israel, tell me!" GOD replied, "He's coming down."

<sup>12</sup> "And will the head men of Keilah turn me and my men over to Saul?" And GOD said, "They'll turn you over."

<sup>13</sup> So David and his men got out of there. There were about six hundred of them. They left Keilah and kept moving, going here, there, wherever--always on the move. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he called off the raid.

<sup>14</sup> David continued to live in desert hideouts and the backcountry wilderness hills of Ziph. Saul was out looking for him day after day, but God never turned David over to him.

<sup>15</sup> David kept out of the way in the wilderness of Ziph, secluded at Horesh, since it was plain that Saul was determined to hunt him down.

<sup>16</sup> Jonathan, Saul's son, visited David at Horesh and encouraged him in God.

<sup>17</sup> He said, "Don't despair. My father, Saul, can't lay a hand on you. You will be Israel's king and I'll be right at your side to help. And my father knows it."

<sup>18</sup> Then the two of them made a covenant before GOD. David stayed at Horesh and Jonathan went home.

<sup>19</sup> Some Ziphites went to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Did you know that David is hiding out near us in the caves and canyons of Horesh? Right now he's at Hakilah Hill just south of Jeshimon.

<sup>20</sup> So whenever you're ready to come down, we'd count it an honor to hand him over to the king."

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, "GOD bless you for thinking about me!

<sup>22</sup> Now go back and check everything out. Learn his routines. Observe his movements--where he goes, who he's with. He's very shrewd, you know.

<sup>23</sup> Scout out all his hiding places. Then meet me at Nacon and I'll go with you. If he is anywhere to be found in all the thousands of Judah, I'll track him down!"

<sup>25</sup> Saul and his men arrived and began their search. When David heard of it, he went south to Rock Mountain, camping out in the wilderness of Maon. Saul heard where he was and set off for the wilderness of Maon in pursuit.

<sup>27</sup> Just then a messenger came to Saul and said, "Hurry! Come back! The Philistines have just attacked the country!"

<sup>28</sup> So Saul called off his pursuit of David and went back to deal with the Philistines. That's how that place got the name Narrow Escape.

<sup>2</sup> Saul took three companies--the best he could find in all Israel--and set out in search of David and his men in the region of Wild Goat Rocks.

<sup>3</sup> He came to some sheep pens along the road. There was a cave there and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were huddled far back in the same cave.

<sup>4</sup> David's men whispered to him, "Can you believe it? This is the day GOD was talking about when he said, 'I'll put your enemy in your hands. You can do whatever you want with him.'" Quiet as a cat, David crept up and cut off a piece of Saul's royal robe.

<sup>6</sup> He said to his men, "GOD forbid that I should have done this to my master, GOD's anointed, that I should so much as raise a finger against him. He's GOD's anointed!"

<sup>9</sup> He called out, "Why do you listen to those who say 'David is out to get you'?"

<sup>10</sup> This very day with your very own eyes you have seen that just now in the cave GOD put you in my hands. My men wanted me to kill you, but I wouldn't do it. I told them that I won't lift a finger against my master--he's GOD's anointed.

<sup>11</sup> Oh, my father, look at this, look at this piece that I cut from your robe. I could have cut you--killed you!--but I didn't. Look at the evidence! I'm not against you. I'm no rebel. I haven't sinned against you, and yet you're hunting me down to kill me.

<sup>12</sup> Let's decide which of us is in the right. God may avenge me, but it is in his hands, not mine.

<sup>13</sup> An old proverb says, 'Evil deeds come from evil people.' So be assured that my hand won't touch you.

<sup>14</sup> "What does the king of Israel think he's doing? Who do you think you're chasing? A dead dog? A flea?

<sup>16</sup> When David had finished saying all this, Saul said, "Can this be the voice of my son David?" and he wept in loud sobs.

<sup>18</sup> And now you've done it again--treated me generously. GOD put me in your hands and you didn't kill me.

<sup>19</sup> Why? When a man meets his enemy, does he send him down the road with a blessing? May GOD give you a bonus of blessings for what you've done for me today!

<sup>20</sup> I know now beyond doubt that you will rule as king. The kingdom of Israel is already in your grasp!

<sup>21</sup> Now promise me under GOD that you will not kill off my family or wipe my name off the books."

25 <sup>1</sup> Samuel died. The whole country came to his funeral. Everyone grieved over his death, and he was buried in his hometown of Ramah. Meanwhile, David moved again, this time to the wilderness of Maon.

<sup>2</sup> There was a certain man in Maon who carried on his business in the region of Carmel. He was very prosperous--three thousand sheep and a thousand goats, and it was sheep-shearing time in Carmel.

<sup>6</sup> Life and peace to you. Peace to your household, peace to everyone here!

<sup>7</sup> I heard that it's sheep-shearing time. Here's the point: When your shepherds were camped near us we didn't take advantage of them. They didn't lose a thing all the time they were with us in Carmel.

<sup>8</sup> Ask your young men--they'll tell you. What I'm asking is that you be generous with my men--share the feast! Give whatever your heart tells you to your servants and to me, David your son."

<sup>9</sup> David's young men went and delivered his message word for word to Nabal. Nabal tore into them, <sup>10</sup> "Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? The country is full of runaway servants these days.

<sup>11</sup> Do you think I'm going to take good bread and wine and meat freshly butchered for my sheepshearers and give it to men I've never laid eyes on? Who knows where they've come from?"

<sup>12</sup> David's men got out of there and went back and told David what he had said.

<sup>13</sup> David said, "Strap on your swords!" They all strapped on their swords, David and his men, and set out, four hundred of them. Two hundred stayed behind to guard the camp.

<sup>15</sup> Yet these men treated us very well. They took nothing from us and didn't take advantage of us all the time we were in the fields.

<sup>16</sup> They formed a wall around us, protecting us day and night all the time we were out tending the sheep.

<sup>17</sup> Do something quickly because big trouble is ahead for our master and all of us. Nobody can talk to him. He's impossible--a real brute!"

<sup>18</sup> Abigail flew into action. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep dressed out and ready for cooking, a bushel of roasted grain, a hundred raisin cakes, and two hundred fig cakes, and she had it all loaded on some donkeys.

<sup>19</sup> Then she said to her young servants, "Go ahead and pave the way for me. I'm right behind you." But she said nothing to her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup> As she was riding her donkey, descending into a ravine, David and his men were descending from the other end, so they met there on the road.

<sup>21</sup> David had just said, "That sure was a waste, guarding everything this man had out in the wild so that nothing he had was lost--and now he rewards me with insults. A real slap in the face!

<sup>22</sup> May God do his worst to me if Nabal and every cur in his misbegotten brood isn't dead meat by morning!"

<sup>23</sup> As soon as Abigail saw David, she got off her donkey and fell on her knees at his feet, her face to the ground in homage, <sup>24</sup> saying, "My master, let me take the blame! Let me speak to you. Listen to what I have to say.

<sup>25</sup> Don't dwell on what that brute Nabal did. He acts out the meaning of his name: Nabal, Fool. Foolishness oozes from him. "I wasn't there when the young men my master sent arrived. I didn't see them.

<sup>26</sup> And now, my master, as GOD lives and as you live, GOD has kept you from this avenging murder--and may your enemies, all who seek my master's harm, end up like Nabal!

<sup>27</sup> Now take this gift that I, your servant girl, have brought to my master, and give it to the young men who follow in the steps of my master.

<sup>28</sup> "Forgive my presumption! But GOD is at work in my master, developing a rule solid and dependable. My master fights GOD's battles! As long as you live no evil will stick to you.

<sup>29</sup> If anyone stands in your way, if anyone tries to get you out of the way, Know this: Your God-honored life is tightly bound in the bundle of God-protected life; But the lives of your enemies will be hurled aside as a stone is thrown from a sling.

<sup>30</sup> "When GOD completes all the goodness he has promised my master and sets you up as prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup> my master will not have this dead weight in his heart, the guilt of an avenging murder. And when GOD has worked things for good for my master, remember me."

<sup>32</sup> And David said, "Blessed be GOD, the God of Israel. He sent you to meet me!

<sup>33</sup> And blessed be your good sense! Bless you for keeping me from murder and taking charge of looking out for me.

<sup>34</sup> A close call! As GOD lives, the God of Israel who kept me from hurting you, if you had not come as quickly as you did, stopping me in my tracks, by morning there would have been nothing left of Nabal but dead meat."

<sup>35</sup> Then David accepted the gift she brought him and said, "Return home in peace. I've heard what you've said and I'll do what you've asked."

<sup>36</sup> When Abigail got home she found Nabal presiding over a huge banquet. He was in high spirits--and very, very drunk. So she didn't tell him anything of what she'd done until morning.

<sup>37</sup> But in the morning, after Nabal had sobered up, she told him the whole story. Right then and there he had a heart attack and fell into a coma.

<sup>38</sup> About ten days later GOD finished him off and he died.

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal was dead he said, "Blessed be GOD who has stood up for me against Nabal's insults, kept me from an evil act, and let Nabal's evil boomerang back on him." Then David sent for Abigail to tell her that he wanted her for his wife.

<sup>40</sup> David's servants went to Abigail at Carmel with the message, "David sent us to bring you to marry him."

<sup>41</sup> She got up, and then bowed down, face to the ground, saying, "I'm your servant, ready to do anything you want. I'll even wash the feet of my master's servants!"

26 <sup>1</sup> Some Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Did you know that David is hiding out on the Hakilah Hill just opposite Jeshimon?"

<sup>5</sup> Then David set out and came to the place where Saul had set up camp and saw for himself where Saul and Abner, son of Ner, his general, were staying. Saul was safely inside the camp, encircled by the army.

<sup>6</sup> Taking charge, David spoke to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother: "Who will go down with me and enter Saul's camp?" Abishai whispered, "I'll go with you."

<sup>7</sup> So David and Abishai entered the encampment by night, and there he was--Saul, stretched out asleep at the center of the camp, his spear stuck in the ground near his head, with Abner and the troops sound asleep on all sides.

<sup>8</sup> Abishai said, "This is the moment! God has put your enemy in your grasp. Let me nail him to the ground with his spear. One hit will do it, believe me; I won't need a second!"

<sup>9</sup> But David said to Abishai, "Don't you dare hurt him! Who could lay a hand on GOD's anointed and even think of getting away with it?"

<sup>10</sup> He went on, "As GOD lives, either GOD will strike him, or his time will come and he'll die in bed, or he'll fall in battle, <sup>11</sup> but GOD forbid that I should lay a finger on GOD's anointed. Now, grab the spear at his head and the water jug and let's get out of here."

<sup>12</sup> David took the spear and water jug that were right beside Saul's head, and they slipped away. Not a soul saw. Not a soul knew. No one woke up! They all slept through the whole thing. A blanket of deep sleep from GOD had fallen on them.

<sup>13</sup> Then David went across to the opposite hill and stood far away on the top of the mountain. With this safe distance between them,

<sup>14</sup> he shouted across to the army and Abner son of Ner, "Hey Abner! How long do I have to wait for you to wake up and answer me?" Abner said, "Who's calling?"

<sup>15</sup> "Aren't you in charge there?" said David. "Why aren't you minding the store? Why weren't you standing guard over your master the king, when a soldier came to kill the king your master?"

<sup>16</sup> Bad form! As GOD lives, your life should be forfeit, you and the entire bodyguard. Look what I have--the king's spear and water jug that were right beside his head!"

<sup>17</sup> By now, Saul had recognized David's voice and said, "Is that you, my son David?" David said, "Yes, it's me, O King, my master.

<sup>18</sup> Why are you after me, hunting me down? What have I done? What crime have I committed?

<sup>19</sup> Oh, my master, my king, listen to this from your servant: If GOD has stirred you up against me, then I gladly offer my life as a sacrifice. But if it's men who have done it, let them be banished from GOD's presence! They've expelled me from my rightful place in GOD's heritage, sneering, 'Out of here! Go get a job with some other god!'

<sup>21</sup> Saul confessed, "I've sinned! Oh, come back, my dear son David! I won't hurt you anymore. You've honored me this day, treating my life as most precious. And I've acted the fool--a moral dunce, a real clown."

<sup>23</sup> It's GOD's business to decide what to do with each of us in regard to what's right and who's loyal. GOD put your life in my hands today, but I wasn't willing to lift a finger against GOD's anointed.

<sup>24</sup> Just as I honored your life today, may GOD honor my life and rescue me from all trouble."

<sup>25</sup> Saul said to David, "Bless you, dear son David! Yes, do what you have to do! And, yes, succeed in all you attempt!" Then David went on his way, and Saul went home.

27 <sup>1</sup> David thought to himself, "Sooner or later, Saul's going to get me. The best thing I can do is escape to Philistine country. Saul will count me a lost cause and quit hunting me down in every nook and cranny of Israel. I'll be out of his reach for good."

Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, widow of Nabal of Carmel.

<sup>4</sup> When Saul was told that David had escaped to Gath, he called off the hunt.

<sup>5</sup> Then David said to Achish, "If it's agreeable to you, assign me a place in one of the rural villages. It doesn't seem right that I, your mere servant, should be taking up space in the royal city."

<sup>6</sup> So Achish assigned him Ziklag. (This is how Ziklag got to be what it is now, a city of the kings of Judah.)

<sup>8</sup> From time to time David and his men raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites--these people were longtime inhabitants of the land stretching toward Shur and on to Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> When David raided an area he left no one alive, neither man nor woman, but took everything else: sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels, clothing--the works. Then he'd return to Achish.

<sup>10</sup> Achish would ask, "And whom did you raid today?" David would tell him, "Oh, the Negev of Judah," or "The Negev of Jerahmeel," or "The Negev of the Kenites."

<sup>12</sup> Achish came to trust David completely. He thought, "He's made himself so repugnant to his people that he'll be in my camp forever."

28 <sup>1</sup> During this time the Philistines mustered their troops to make war on Israel. Achish said to David, "You can count on this: You're marching with my troops, you and your men."

<sup>2</sup> And David said, "Good! Now you'll see for yourself what I can do!" "Great!" said Achish. "I'm making you my personal bodyguard--for life!"

<sup>3</sup> Samuel was now dead. All Israel had mourned his death and buried him in Ramah, his hometown. Saul had long since cleaned out all those who held seances with the dead.

<sup>7</sup> So Saul ordered his officials, "Find me someone who can call up spirits so I may go and seek counsel from those spirits."

His servants said, "There's a witch at Endor."

<sup>8</sup> Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes. Then, taking two men with him, he went under the cover of night to the woman and said, "I want you to consult a ghost for me. Call up the person I name."

<sup>9</sup> The woman said, "Just hold on now! You know what Saul did, how he swept the country clean of mediums. Why are you trying to trap me and get me killed?"

<sup>10</sup> Saul swore solemnly, "As GOD lives, you won't get in any trouble for this."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said, "So whom do you want me to bring up?" "Samuel. Bring me Samuel."

<sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out loudly to Saul, "Why did you lie to me? You're Saul!"

<sup>13</sup> The king told her, "You have nothing to fear...but what do you see?" "I see a spirit ascending from the underground."

<sup>14</sup> "And what does he look like?" Saul asked. "An old man ascending, robed like a priest." Saul knew it was Samuel. He fell down, face to the ground, and worshiped.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by calling me up?" "Because I'm in deep trouble," said Saul. "The Philistines are making war against me and God has deserted me--he doesn't answer me any more, either by prophet or by dream. And so I'm calling on you to tell me what to do."

<sup>16</sup> "Why ask me?" said Samuel. "GOD has turned away from you and is now on the side of your neighbor.

<sup>17</sup> GOD has done exactly what he told you through me--ripped the kingdom right out of your hands and given it to your neighbor.

<sup>18</sup> It's because you did not obey GOD, refused to carry out his seething judgment on Amalek, that GOD does to you what he is doing today.

<sup>19</sup> Worse yet, GOD is turning Israel, along with you, over to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. And, yes, indeed, GOD is giving Israel's army up to the Philistines."

<sup>20</sup> Saul dropped to the ground, felled like a tree, terrified by Samuel's words. There wasn't an ounce of strength left in him--he'd eaten nothing all day and all night.

<sup>21</sup> The woman, realizing that he was in deep shock, said to him, "Listen to me. I did what you asked me to do, put my life in your hands in doing it, carried out your instructions to the letter.

<sup>22</sup> It's your turn to do what I tell you: Let me give you some food. Eat it. It will give you strength so you can get on your way."

<sup>23</sup> He refused. "I'm not eating anything." But when his servants joined the woman in urging him, he gave in to their pleas, picked himself up off the ground, and sat on the bed.

<sup>25</sup> Then she served it all up for Saul and his servants. After dining handsomely, they got up from the table and were on their way that same night.

<sup>6</sup> So Achish had to send for David and tell him, "As GOD lives, you've been a trusty ally--excellent in all the ways you have worked with me, beyond reproach in the ways you have conducted yourself. But the warlords don't see it that way.

<sup>7</sup> So it's best that you leave peacefully, now. It's not worth it, displeasing the Philistine warlords."

<sup>8</sup> "But what have I done?" said David. "Have you had a single cause for complaint from the day I joined up with you until now? Why can't I fight against the enemies of my master the king?"

<sup>9</sup> "I agree," said Achish. "You're a good man--as far as I'm concerned, God's angel! But the Philistine officers were emphatic: 'He's not to go with us into battle.'

<sup>10</sup> So get an early start, you and the men who came with you. As soon as you have light enough to travel, go."

<sup>11</sup> David rose early, he and his men, and by daybreak they were on their way back to Philistine country. The Philistines went on to Jezreel.

30 <sup>1</sup> Three days later, David and his men arrived back in Ziklag. Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They tore Ziklag to pieces and then burned it down.

<sup>4</sup> David and his men burst out in loud wails--wept and wept until they were exhausted with weeping.

<sup>5</sup> David's two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail widow of Nabal of Carmel, had been taken prisoner along with the rest.

<sup>6</sup> And suddenly David was in even worse trouble. There was talk among the men, bitter over the loss of their families, of stoning him. David strengthened himself with trust in his GOD.

<sup>7</sup> He ordered Abiathar the priest, son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the Ephod so I can consult God." Abiathar brought it to David.

<sup>8</sup> Then David prayed to GOD, "Shall I go after these raiders? Can I catch them?" The answer came, "Go after them! Yes, you'll catch them! Yes, you'll make the rescue!"

<sup>9</sup> David went, he and the six hundred men with him. They arrived at the Brook Besor, where some of them dropped out.

<sup>10</sup> David and four hundred men kept up the pursuit, but two hundred of them were too fatigued to cross the Brook Besor, and stayed there.

<sup>11</sup> Some who went on came across an Egyptian in a field and took him to David. They gave him bread and he ate. And he drank some water.

<sup>12</sup> They gave him a piece of fig cake and a couple of raisin muffins. Life began to revive in him. He hadn't eaten or drunk a thing for three days and nights!

<sup>13</sup> David said to him, "Who do you belong to? Where are you from?" "I'm an Egyptian slave of an Amalekite," he said. "My master walked off and left me when I got sick--that was three days ago.

<sup>14</sup> We had raided the Negev of the Kerethites, of Judah, and of Caleb. Ziklag we burned."

<sup>15</sup> David asked him, "Can you take us to the raiders?" "Promise me by God," he said, "that you won't kill me or turn me over to my old master, and I'll take you straight to the raiders."

<sup>16</sup> He led David to them. They were scattered all over the place, eating and drinking, gorging themselves on all the loot they had plundered from Philistia and Judah.

<sup>20</sup> He herded the sheep and cattle before them, and they all shouted, "David's plunder!"

<sup>21</sup> Then David came to the two hundred who had been too tired to continue with him and had dropped out at the Brook Besor. They came out to welcome David and his band. As he came near he called out, "Success!"

<sup>22</sup> But all the mean-spirited men who had marched with David, the rabble element, objected: "They didn't help in the rescue, they don't get any of the plunder we recovered. Each man can have his wife and children, but that's it. Take them and go!"

<sup>23</sup> "Families don't do this sort of thing! Oh no, my brothers!" said David as he broke up the argument. "You can't act this way with what GOD gave us! God kept us safe. He handed over the raiders who attacked us.

<sup>24</sup> Who would ever listen to this kind of talk? The share of the one who stays with the gear is the share of the one who fights--equal shares. Share and share alike!"

<sup>25</sup> From that day on, David made that the rule in Israel--and it still is.

<sup>4</sup> Saul said to his weapon bearer, "Draw your sword and put me out of my misery, lest these pagan pigs come and make a game out of killing me." But his weapon bearer wouldn't do it. He was terrified. So Saul took the sword himself and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When the weapon bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died with him.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul, his three sons, and his weapon bearer--the men closest to him--died together that day.

<sup>7</sup> When the Israelites in the valley opposite and those on the other side of the Jordan saw that their army was in full retreat and that Saul and his sons were dead, they left their cities and ran for their lives. The Philistines moved in and occupied the sites.

<sup>13</sup> They then buried the bones under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted in mourning for seven days.

2 Samuel

1 <sup>1</sup> Shortly after Saul died, David returned to Ziklag from his rout of the Amalekites.

<sup>4</sup> "So what happened?" said David. "What's the news?" He said, "The Israelites have fled the battlefield, leaving a lot of their dead comrades behind. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

<sup>5</sup> David pressed the young soldier for details: "How do you know for sure that Saul and Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup> "I just happened by Mount Gilboa and came on Saul, badly wounded and leaning on his spear, with enemy chariots and horsemen bearing down hard on him.

<sup>7</sup> He looked behind him, saw me, and called me to him. 'Yes sir,' I said, 'at your service.'

<sup>8</sup> He asked me who I was, and I told him, 'I'm an Amalekite.'"

<sup>9</sup> "Come here," he said, "and put me out of my misery. I'm nearly dead already, but my life hangs on."

<sup>10</sup> "So I did what he asked--I killed him. I knew he wouldn't last much longer anyway. I removed his royal headband and bracelet, and have brought them to my master. Here they are."

<sup>11</sup> In lament, David ripped his clothes to ribbons. All the men with him did the same.

<sup>12</sup> They wept and fasted the rest of the day, grieving the death of Saul and his son Jonathan, and also the army of GOD and the nation Israel, victims in a failed battle.

<sup>13</sup> Then David spoke to the young soldier who had brought the report: "Who are you, anyway?" "I'm from an immigrant family--an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup> "Do you mean to say," said David, "that you weren't afraid to up and kill GOD's anointed king?"

<sup>15</sup> Right then he ordered one of his soldiers, "Strike him dead!" The soldier struck him, and he died.

<sup>16</sup> "You asked for it," David told him. "You sealed your death sentence when you said you killed GOD's anointed king."

<sup>18</sup> and gave orders that everyone in Judah learn it by heart. Yes, it's even inscribed in The Book of Jashar.

<sup>19</sup> Oh, oh, Gazelles of Israel, struck down on your hills, the mighty warriors--fallen, fallen!

<sup>22</sup> Jonathan's bow was bold--the bigger they were the harder they fell. Saul's sword was fearless--once out of the scabbard, nothing could stop it.

<sup>26</sup> O my dear brother Jonathan, I'm crushed by your death. Your friendship was a miracle-wonder, love far exceeding anything I've known--or ever hope to know.

2<sup>1</sup> After all this, David prayed. He asked God, "Shall I move to one of the cities of Judah?" GOD said,

"Yes, move." "And to which city?" "To Hebron."

<sup>2</sup> So David moved to Hebron, along with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

<sup>3</sup> David's men, along with their families, also went with him and made their home in and around Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> The citizens of Judah came to Hebron, and then and there made David king over the clans of Judah. A report was brought to David that the men of Jabesh Gilead had given Saul a decent burial.

<sup>5</sup> David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead: "GOD bless you for this--for honoring your master, Saul, with a funeral.

<sup>6</sup> GOD honor you and be true to you--and I'll do the same, matching your generous act of goodness.

<sup>7</sup> Strengthen your resolve and do what must be done. Your master, Saul, is dead.

The citizens of Judah have made me their king."

<sup>8</sup> In the meantime, Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken Saul's son Ish-Bosheth to Mahanaim

<sup>9</sup> and made him king over Gilead, over Asher, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin--king, as it turns out, over all Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Ish-Bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he was made king over Israel. He lasted only two years. But the people of Judah stuck with David.

<sup>13</sup> Joab son of Zeruah, with David's soldiers, also set out. They met at the Pool of Gibeon, Abner's group on one side, Joab's on the other.

<sup>14</sup> Abner challenged Joab, "Put up your best fighters. Let's see them do their stuff." Joab said, "Good! Let them go at it!"

<sup>17</sup> The fighting went from bad to worse throughout the day. Abner and the men of Israel were beaten to a pulp by David's men.

<sup>18</sup> The three sons of Zeruiah were present: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel, as fast as a wild antelope

<sup>20</sup> Abner turned and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" "It surely is," he said.

<sup>21</sup> Abner said, "Let up on me. Pick on someone you have a chance of beating and be content with those spoils!" But Asahel wouldn't let up.

<sup>22</sup> Abner tried again, "Turn back. Don't force me to kill you. How would I face your brother Joab?"

<sup>23</sup> When he refused to quit, Abner struck him in the belly with the blunt end of his spear so hard that it came out his back. Asahel fell to the ground and died at once. Everyone who arrived at the spot where Asahel fell and died stood and gaped--Asahel dead!

<sup>24</sup> But Joab and Abishai kept up the chase after Abner. As the sun began to set, they came to the hill of Ammah that faced Giah on the road to the backcountry of Gibeon.

<sup>26</sup> Abner called out to Joab, "Are we going to keep killing each other till doomsday? Don't you know that nothing but bitterness will come from this? How long before you call off your men from chasing their brothers?"

<sup>27</sup> "As God lives," said Joab, "if you hadn't spoken up, we'd have kept up the chase until morning!"

<sup>28</sup> Then he blew the ram's horn trumpet and the whole army of Judah stopped in its tracks. They quit chasing Israel and called off the fighting.

<sup>31</sup> David's men had cut down three hundred and sixty of Abner's men, all Benjaminites--all dead.

<sup>32</sup> They brought Asahel and buried him in the family tomb in Bethlehem. Joab and his men then marched all night, arriving in Hebron as the dawn broke.

3<sup>1</sup> The war between the house of Saul and the house of David dragged on and on. The longer it went on the stronger David became, with the house of Saul getting weaker.

These six sons of David were born in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup> Abner took advantage of the continuing war between the house of Saul and the house of David to gain power for himself.

<sup>7</sup> Saul had had a concubine, Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. One day Ish-Bosheth confronted Abner: "What business do you have sleeping with my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup> Abner lost his temper with Ish-Bosheth, "Treat me like a dog, will you! Is this the thanks I get for sticking by the house of your father, Saul, and all his family and friends? I personally saved you from certain capture by David, and you make an issue out of my going to bed with a woman!

<sup>10</sup> What GOD promised David, I'll help accomplish--transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and make David ruler over the whole country, both Israel and Judah, from Dan to Beersheba. If not, may God do his worst to me."

<sup>12</sup> Abner went ahead and sent personal messengers to David: "Make a deal with me and I'll help bring the whole country of Israel over to you."

<sup>13</sup> "Great," said David. "It's a deal. But only on one condition: You're not welcome here unless you bring Michal, Saul's daughter, with you when you come to meet me."

<sup>17</sup> Abner got the elders of Israel together and said, "Only yesterday, it seems, you were looking for a way to make David your king.

<sup>18</sup> So do it--now! For GOD has given the go-ahead on David: 'By my servant David's hand, I'll save my people Israel from the oppression of the Philistines and all their other enemies.'"

<sup>19</sup> Abner took the Benjaminites aside and spoke to them. Then he went to Hebron for a private talk with David, telling him everything that Israel in general and Benjamin in particular were planning to do.

<sup>20</sup> When Abner and the twenty men who were with him met with David in Hebron, David laid out a feast for them.

<sup>21</sup> Abner then said, "I'm ready. Let me go now to rally everyone in Israel for my master, the king. They'll make a treaty with you, authorizing you to rule them however you see fit." Abner was sent off with David's blessing.

<sup>23</sup> As Joab and his raiding party arrived, they were told that Abner the son of Ner had been there with David and had been sent off with David's blessing.

"What's this you've done? Abner shows up, and you let him walk away scot-free?"

He sent messengers after Abner; they caught up with him at the well at Sirah and brought him back. David knew nothing of all this.

<sup>27</sup> When Abner got back to Hebron, Joab steered him aside at the gate for a personal word with him. There he stabbed him in the belly, killed him in cold blood for the murder of his brother Asahel.

<sup>28</sup> Later on, when David heard what happened, he said, "Before GOD I and my kingdom are totally innocent of this murder of Abner son of Ner.

<sup>33</sup> Then the king sang this tribute to Abner: Can this be? Abner dead like a nameless bum?

<sup>34</sup> You were a free man, free to go and do as you wished--Yet you fell as a victim in a street brawl. And all the people wept--a crescendo of crying!

<sup>35</sup> They all came then to David, trying to get him to eat something before dark. But David solemnly swore, "I'll not so much as taste a piece of bread, or anything else for that matter, before sunset, so help me God!"

<sup>36</sup> Everyone at the funeral took notice--and liked what they saw. In fact everything the king did was applauded by the people.

<sup>37</sup> It was clear to everyone that day, including all Israel, that the king had nothing to do with the death of Abner son of Ner.

<sup>38</sup> The king spoke to his servants: "You realize, don't you, that today a prince and hero fell victim of foul play in Israel?"

<sup>39</sup> And I, though anointed king, was helpless to do anything about it. These sons of Zeruah are too much for me. GOD, requite the criminal for his crime!"

4 <sup>1</sup> Saul's son, Ish-Bosheth, heard that Abner had died in Hebron. His heart sank. The whole country was shaken.

<sup>2</sup> Ish-Bosheth had two men who were captains of raiding bands--one was named Baanah, the other Recab. They were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, a Benjaminite. (The people of Beeroth had been assigned to Benjamin <sup>3</sup> ever since they escaped to Gittaim. They still live there as resident aliens.)

<sup>4</sup> It so happened that Saul's son, Jonathan, had a son who was maimed in both feet. When he was five years old, the report on Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and ran, but in her hurry to get away she fell, and the boy was maimed. His name was Mephibosheth.

<sup>8</sup> They presented the head of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron, telling the king, "Here's the head of Ish-Bosheth, Saul's son, your enemy. He was out to kill you, but GOD has given vengeance to my master, the king--vengeance this very day on Saul and his children!"

<sup>9</sup> David answered the brothers Recab and Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As surely as GOD lives--the One who got me out of every trouble I've ever been in <sup>10</sup> --when the messenger told me, 'Good news! Saul is dead!' supposing I'd be delighted, I arrested him and killed him on the spot in Ziklag. That's what he got for his so-called good news!

<sup>11</sup> And now you show up--evil men who killed an innocent man in cold blood, a man asleep in his own house! Don't think I won't find you guilty of murder and rid the country of you!"

<sup>12</sup> David then issued orders to his soldiers. They killed the two--chopped off their hands and feet, and hung the corpses at the pool in Hebron. But Ish-Bosheth's head they took and buried in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

5 <sup>1</sup> Before long all the tribes of Israel approached David in Hebron and said, "Look at us--your own flesh and blood!

<sup>2</sup> In time past when Saul was our king, you're the one who really ran the country. Even then GOD said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel and you'll be the prince.'"

<sup>3</sup> All the leaders of Israel met with King David at Hebron, and the king made a treaty with them in the presence of GOD. And so they anointed David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup> David was thirty years old when he became king, and ruled for forty years.

<sup>5</sup> In Hebron he ruled Judah for seven and a half years. In Jerusalem he ruled all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

<sup>6</sup> David and his men immediately set out for Jerusalem to take on the Jebusites, who lived in that country. But they said, "You might as well go home! Even the blind and the lame could keep you out. You can't get in here!" They had convinced themselves that David couldn't break through.

<sup>8</sup> That day David said, "To get the best of these Jebusites, one must target the water system, not to mention this so-called lame and blind bunch that David hates." (In fact, he was so sick and tired of it, people coined the expression, "No lame and blind allowed in the palace.") developed the city from the outside terraces inward.

<sup>10</sup> David proceeded with a longer stride, a larger embrace since the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies was with him.

<sup>11</sup> It was at this time that Hiram, king of Tyre, sent messengers to David, along with timbers of cedar. He also sent carpenters and masons to build a house for David.

<sup>12</sup> David took this as a sign that GOD had confirmed him as king of Israel, giving his kingship world prominence for the sake of Israel, his people.

<sup>13</sup> David took on more concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he left Hebron. And more sons and daughters were born to him.

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines got word that David had been made king over all Israel, they came on the hunt for him. David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

<sup>19</sup> Then David prayed to GOD: "Shall I go up and fight the Philistines? Will you help me beat them?"

<sup>20</sup> "Go up," GOD replied. "Count on me. I'll help you beat them." David then went straight to Baal Perazim, and smashed them to pieces. Afterwards David said, "GOD exploded on my enemies like a gush of water." That's why David named the place Baal Perazim (The-Master-Who-Explodes).

6<sup>1</sup> David mustered the pick of the troops of Israel--thirty divisions of them.

<sup>2</sup> Together with his soldiers, David headed for Baalah to recover the Chest of God, which was called by the Name

GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, who was enthroned over the pair of angels on the Chest.

<sup>3</sup> They placed the Chest of God on a brand-new oxcart and removed it from Abinadab's house on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, Abinadab's sons, were driving the new cart <sup>4</sup> loaded with the Chest of God, Ahio in the lead and Uzzah alongside the Chest.

<sup>5</sup> David and the whole company of Israel were in the parade, singing at the top of their lungs and playing mandolins, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals.

<sup>7</sup> GOD blazed in anger against Uzzah and struck him hard because he had profaned the Chest. Uzzah died on the spot, right alongside the Chest.

<sup>8</sup> Then David got angry because of GOD's deadly outburst against Uzzah. That place is still called Perez Uzzah (The-Explosion-Against-Uzzah).

<sup>9</sup> David became fearful of GOD that day and said, "This Chest is too hot to handle. How can I ever get it back to the City of David?"

<sup>10</sup> He refused to take the Chest of GOD a step farther. Instead, David removed it off the road and to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

<sup>11</sup> The Chest of GOD stayed at the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months. And GOD prospered Obed-Edom and his entire household.

<sup>12</sup> It was reported to King David that GOD had prospered Obed-Edom and his entire household because of the Chest of God. So David thought, "I'll get that blessing for myself," and went and brought up the Chest of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David, celebrating

<sup>16</sup> But as the Chest of GOD came into the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, happened to be looking out a window. When she saw King David leaping and dancing before GOD, her heart filled with scorn.

<sup>17</sup> They brought the Chest of GOD and set it in the middle of the tent pavilion that David had pitched for it. Then and there David worshiped, offering burnt offerings and peace offerings.

<sup>18</sup> When David had completed the sacrifices of burnt and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies <sup>19</sup> and handed out to each person in the crowd, men and women alike, a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. Then everyone went home.

<sup>20</sup> David returned home to bless his family. Michal, Saul's daughter, came out to greet him: "How wonderfully the king has distinguished himself today--exposing himself to the eyes of the servants' maids like some burlesque street dancer!"

<sup>21</sup> David replied to Michal, "In GOD's presence I'll dance all I want! He chose me over your father and the rest of our family and made me prince over GOD's people, over Israel. Oh yes, I'll dance to GOD's glory

And as far as I'm concerned...I'll gladly look like a fool...but among these maids you're so worried about, I'll be honored no end."

7 <sup>1</sup> Before long, the king made himself at home and GOD gave him peace from all his enemies.

<sup>2</sup> Then one day King David said to Nathan the prophet, "Look at this: Here I am, comfortable in a luxurious house of cedar, and the Chest of God sits in a plain tent."

<sup>3</sup> Nathan told the king, "Whatever is on your heart, go and do it. GOD is with you."

<sup>4</sup> But that night, the word of GOD came to Nathan saying, <sup>5</sup> "Go and tell my servant David: This is GOD's word on the matter: You're going to build a 'house' for me to live in?

<sup>6</sup> Why, I haven't lived in a 'house' from the time I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt till now. All that time I've moved about with nothing but a tent.

<sup>7</sup> And in all my travels with Israel, did I ever say to any of the leaders I commanded to shepherd Israel, 'Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?'

<sup>8</sup> "So here is what you are to tell my servant David: The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has this word for you: I took you from the pasture, tagging along after sheep, and made you prince over my people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> I was with you everywhere you went and mowed your enemies down before you. Now I'm making you famous, to be ranked with the great names on earth.

<sup>10</sup> And I'm going to set aside a place for my people Israel and plant them there so they'll have their own home and not be knocked around any more. Nor will evil men afflict you as they always have,

<sup>11</sup> even during the days I set judges over my people Israel. Finally, I'm going to give you peace from all your enemies. "Furthermore, GOD has this message for you: GOD himself will build you a house!

<sup>13</sup> He will build a house to honor me, and I will guarantee his kingdom's rule permanently.

<sup>14</sup> I'll be a father to him, and he'll be a son to me. When he does wrong, I'll discipline him in the usual ways, the pitfalls and obstacles of this mortal life.

<sup>15</sup> But I'll never remove my gracious love from him, as I removed it from Saul, who preceded you and whom I most certainly did remove.

<sup>17</sup> Nathan gave David a complete and accurate account of everything he heard and saw in the vision.

<sup>18</sup> King David went in, took his place before GOD, and prayed: "Who am I, my Master GOD, and what is my family, that you have brought me to this place in life?"

<sup>19</sup> But that's nothing compared to what's coming, for you've also spoken of my family far into the future, given me a glimpse into tomorrow, my Master GOD!

<sup>20</sup> What can I possibly say in the face of all this? You know me, Master GOD, just as I am.

<sup>21</sup> You've done all this not because of who I am but because of who you are--out of your very heart!--but you've let me in on it.

<sup>22</sup> "This is what makes you so great, Master GOD! There is none like you, no God but you, nothing to compare with what we've heard with our own ears.

<sup>23</sup> And who is like your people, like Israel, a nation unique in the earth, whom God set out to redeem for himself (and became most famous for it), performing great and fearsome acts, throwing out nations and their gods left and right as you saved your people from Egypt?

<sup>24</sup> You established for yourself a people--your very own Israel!--your people permanently. And you, GOD, became their God.

<sup>25</sup> "So now, great GOD, this word that you have spoken to me and my family, guarantee it permanently! Do exactly what you've promised!

<sup>26</sup> Then your reputation will flourish always as people exclaim, 'The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies is God over Israel!' And the house of your servant David will remain sure and solid in your watchful presence.

<sup>27</sup> For you, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, Israel's God, told me plainly, 'I will build you a house.' That's how I was able to find the courage to pray this prayer to you.

<sup>28</sup> "And now, Master GOD, being the God you are, speaking sure words as you do, and having just said this wonderful thing to me, <sup>29</sup> please, just one more thing: Bless my family; keep your eye on them always. You've already as much as said that you would, Master GOD! Oh, may your blessing be on my family permanently!"

8<sup>1</sup> In the days that followed, David struck hard at the Philistines-- brought them to their knees and took control of the countryside.

<sup>2</sup> He also fought and defeated Moab. He chose two-thirds of them randomly and executed them. The other third he spared. So the Moabites fell under David's rule and were forced to bring tribute.

Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of them.

<sup>6</sup> David set up a puppet government in Aram-Damascus. The Arameans became subjects of David and were forced to bring tribute. GOD gave victory to David wherever he marched.

<sup>7</sup> David plundered the gold shields that belonged to the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> He also looted a great quantity of bronze from Tebah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer.

<sup>10</sup> So he sent his son Joram to King David to greet and congratulate him for fighting and defeating them, for Toi and Hadadezer were old enemies. He brought with him gifts of silver, gold, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup> King David consecrated these along with the silver and gold from all the nations he had conquered

<sup>16</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah was head of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was clerk;

<sup>18</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; And David's sons were priests.

9 <sup>1</sup> One day David asked, "Is there anyone left of Saul's family? If so, I'd like to show him some kindness in honor of Jonathan."

<sup>2</sup> It happened that a servant from Saul's household named Ziba was there. They called him into David's presence. The king asked him, "Are you Ziba?" "Yes sir," he replied.

<sup>6</sup> When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan (who was the son of Saul), came before David, he bowed deeply, abasing himself, honoring David. David spoke his name: "Mephibosheth." "Yes sir?"

<sup>7</sup> "Don't be frightened," said David. "I'd like to do something special for you in memory of your father Jonathan. To begin with, I'm returning to you all the properties of your grandfather Saul. Furthermore, from now on you'll take all your meals at my table."

<sup>8</sup> Shuffling and stammering, not looking him in the eye, Mephibosheth said, "Who am I that you pay attention to a stray dog like me?"

<sup>9</sup> David then called in Ziba, Saul's right-hand man, and told him, "Everything that belonged to Saul and his family, I've handed over to your master's grandson.

<sup>10</sup> You and your sons and your servants will work his land and bring in the produce, provisions for your master's grandson. Mephibosheth himself, your master's grandson, from now on will take all his meals at my table." Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

<sup>11</sup> "All that my master the king has ordered his servant," answered Ziba, "your servant will surely do." And Mephibosheth ate at David's table, just like one of the royal family.

<sup>13</sup> Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, taking all his meals at the king's table. He was lame in both feet.

10 <sup>1</sup> Sometime after this, the king of the Ammonites died and Hanun, his son, succeeded him as king.

<sup>2</sup> David said, "I'd like to show some kindness to Hanun, the son of Nahash—treat him as well and as kindly as his father treated me." So David sent Hanun condolences regarding his father. But when David's servants got to the land of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup> the Ammonite leaders warned Hanun, their head delegate, "Do you for a minute suppose that David is honoring your father by sending you comforters? Don't you think it's because he wants to snoop around the city and size it up that David has sent his emissaries to you?"

halfway up their buttocks, and sent them packing.

<sup>5</sup> When all this was reported to David, he sent someone to meet them, for they were seriously humiliated. The king told them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out. Only then come back."

<sup>6</sup> When it dawned on the Ammonites that as far as David was concerned they stunk to high heaven, they hired Aramean soldiers from Beth-Rehob and Zobah--twenty thousand infantry--and a thousand men from the king of Maacah, and twelve thousand men from Tob.

Maacah took up a position out in the open fields.

<sup>9</sup> When Joab saw that he had two fronts to fight, before and behind, he took his pick of the best of Israel and deployed them to confront the Arameans.

<sup>10</sup> The rest of the army he put under the command of Abishai, his brother, and deployed them to confront the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said, "If the Arameans are too much for me, you help me. And if the Ammonites prove too much for you, I'll come and help you.

<sup>12</sup> Courage! We'll fight with might and main for our people and for the cities of our God. And GOD will do whatever he sees needs doing!"

<sup>13</sup> But when Joab and his soldiers moved in to fight the Arameans, they ran off in full retreat.

<sup>14</sup> Then the Ammonites, seeing the Arameans run for dear life, took to their heels from Abishai and went into the city. So Joab left off fighting the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> When the Arameans saw how badly they'd been beaten by Israel, they picked up the pieces and regrouped.

<sup>16</sup> Hadadezer sent for the Arameans who were across the River. They came to Helam. Shobach, commander of Hadadezer's army, led them.

<sup>17</sup> All this was reported to David. So David mustered Israel, crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Arameans went into battle formation, ready for David, and the fight was on.

Shobach, the army commander, who died on the battlefield.

<sup>19</sup> When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed by Israel, they made peace and became Israel's vassals. The Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites ever again.

11 <sup>1</sup> When that time of year came around again, the anniversary of the Ammonite aggression, David dispatched Joab and his fighting men of Israel in full force to destroy the Ammonites for good. They laid siege to Rabbah, but David stayed in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> David sent to ask about her, and was told, "Isn't this Bathsheba, daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

<sup>7</sup> When he arrived, David asked him for news from the front--how things were going with Joab and the troops and with the fighting.

an informant of the king was sent after him.

<sup>9</sup> But Uriah didn't go home. He slept that night at the palace entrance, along with the king's servants.

<sup>10</sup> David was told that Uriah had not gone home. He asked Uriah, "Didn't you just come off a hard trip? So why didn't you go home?"

<sup>11</sup> Uriah replied to David, "The Chest is out there with the fighting men of Israel and Judah--in tents. My master Joab and his servants are roughing it out in the fields. So, how can I go home and eat and drink and enjoy my wife? On your life, I'll not do it!"

<sup>12</sup> "All right," said David, "have it your way. Stay for the day and I'll send you back tomorrow." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem the rest of the day. The next day

<sup>14</sup> In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah.

<sup>15</sup> In the letter he wrote, "Put Uriah in the front lines where the fighting is the fiercest. Then pull back and leave him exposed so that he's sure to be killed."

<sup>16</sup> So Joab, holding the city under siege, put Uriah in a place where he knew there were fierce enemy fighters.

<sup>20</sup> if he flares in anger,

<sup>23</sup> He said, "The enemy was too much for us. They advanced on us in the open field, and we pushed them back to the city gate.

<sup>24</sup> But then arrows came hot and heavy on us from the city wall, and eighteen of the king's soldiers died."

<sup>25</sup> When the messenger completed his report of the battle, David got angry at Joab. He vented it on the messenger: "Why did you get so close to the city? Didn't you know you'd be attacked from the wall? Didn't you remember how Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth got killed? Wasn't it a woman who dropped a millstone on him from the wall and crushed him at Thebez? Why did you go close to the wall!" "By the way," said Joab's messenger, "your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead." Then David told the messenger, "Oh. I see. Tell Joab, 'Don't trouble yourself over this. War kills--sometimes one, sometimes another--you never know who's next. Redouble your assault on the city and destroy it.' Encourage Joab."

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah's wife heard that her husband was dead, she grieved for her husband.

<sup>27</sup> When the time of mourning was over, David sent someone to bring her to his house. She became his wife and bore him a son.

12 <sup>1</sup> But GOD was not at all pleased with what David had done, and sent Nathan to David. Nathan said to him, "There were two men in the same city--one rich, the other poor.

<sup>4</sup> "One day a traveler dropped in on the rich man. He was too stingy to take an animal from his own herds or flocks to make a meal for his visitor, so he took the poor man's lamb and prepared a meal to set before his guest."

<sup>5</sup> David exploded in anger. "As surely as GOD lives," he said to Nathan, "the man who did this ought to be lynched!"

<sup>6</sup> He must repay for the lamb four times over for his crime and his stinginess!"

<sup>7</sup> "You're the man!" said Nathan. "And here's what GOD, the God of Israel, has to say to you: I made you king over Israel. I freed you from the fist of Saul.

<sup>8</sup> I gave you your master's daughter and other wives to have and to hold. I gave you both Israel and Judah. And if that hadn't been enough, I'd have gladly thrown in much more.

<sup>9</sup> So why have you treated the word of GOD with brazen contempt, doing this great evil? You murdered Uriah the Hittite, then took his wife as your wife. Worse, you killed him with an Ammonite sword!

<sup>10</sup> And now, because you treated God with such contempt and took Uriah the Hittite's wife as your wife, killing and murder will continually plague your family.

neighbor, and he'll go to bed with them openly.

<sup>12</sup> You did your deed in secret; I'm doing mine with the whole country watching!"

<sup>13</sup> Then David confessed to Nathan, "I've sinned against GOD." Nathan pronounced, "Yes, but that's not the last word. GOD forgives your sin. You won't die for it.

<sup>14</sup> But because of your blasphemous behavior, the son born to you will die."

<sup>15</sup> After Nathan went home, GOD afflicted the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he came down sick.

<sup>16</sup> David prayed desperately to God for the little boy. He fasted, wouldn't go out, and slept on the floor.

<sup>17</sup> The elders in his family came in and tried to get him off the floor, but he wouldn't budge. Nor could they get him to eat anything.

<sup>18</sup> On the seventh day the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him. They said, "What do we do now? While the child was living he wouldn't listen to a word we said. Now, with the child dead, if we speak to him there's no telling what he'll do."

<sup>19</sup> David noticed that the servants were whispering behind his back, and realized that the boy must have died. He asked the servants, "Is the boy dead?" "Yes," they answered. "He's dead."

<sup>20</sup> David got up from the floor, washed his face and combed his hair, put on a fresh change of clothes, then went into the sanctuary and worshiped. Then he came home and asked for something to eat. They set it before him and he ate.

<sup>21</sup> His servants asked him, "What's going on with you? While the child was alive you fasted and wept and stayed up all night. Now that he's dead, you get up and eat."

<sup>22</sup> "While the child was alive," he said, "I fasted and wept, thinking GOD might have mercy on me and the child would live.

<sup>23</sup> But now that he's dead, why fast? Can I bring him back now? I can go to him, but he can't come to me."

<sup>24</sup> David went and comforted his wife Bathsheba. And when he slept with her, they conceived a son. When he was born they named him Solomon. GOD had a special love for him

<sup>29</sup> So David marshaled all the troops, went to Rabbah, and fought and captured it.

<sup>30</sup> He took the crown from their king's head--very heavy with gold, and with a precious stone in it. It ended up on David's head. And they plundered the city, carrying off a great quantity of loot.

<sup>31</sup> David emptied the city of its people and put them to slave labor using saws, picks, and axes, and making bricks. He did this to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and the whole army returned to Jerusalem.

13 <sup>1</sup> Some time later, this happened: Absalom, David's son, had a sister who was very attractive. Her name was Tamar. Amnon, also David's son, was in love with her.

<sup>3</sup> Amnon had a good friend, Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah. Jonadab was exceptionally streetwise.

<sup>4</sup> He said to Amnon, "Why are you moping around like this, day after day--you, the son of the king! Tell me what's eating at you." "In a word, Tamar," said Amnon. "My brother Absalom's sister. I'm in love with her."

<sup>5</sup> "Here's what you do," said Jonadab. "Go to bed and pretend you're sick. When your father comes to visit you, say, 'Have my sister Tamar come and prepare some supper for me here where I can watch her and she can feed me.'"

<sup>6</sup> So Amnon took to his bed and acted sick. When the king came to visit, Amnon said, "Would you do me a favor? Have my sister Tamar come and make some nourishing dumplings here where I can watch her and be fed by her."

<sup>7</sup> David sent word to Tamar who was home at the time: "Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare a meal for him."

<sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. She took dough, kneaded it, formed it into dumplings, and cooked them while he watched from his bed.

<sup>9</sup> But when she took the cooking pot and served him, he wouldn't eat. Amnon said, "Clear everyone out of the house," and they all cleared out.

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to Tamar, "Bring the food into my bedroom, where we can eat in privacy." She took the nourishing dumplings she had prepared and brought them to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.

<sup>11</sup> But when she got ready to feed him, he grabbed her and said, "Come to bed with me, sister!"

<sup>12</sup> "No, brother!" she said, "Don't hurt me! This kind of thing isn't done in Israel! Don't do this terrible thing!"

<sup>13</sup> Where could I ever show my face? And you--you'll be out on the street in disgrace. Oh, please! Speak to the king--he'll let you marry me."

<sup>14</sup> But he wouldn't listen. Being much stronger than she, he raped her.

<sup>15</sup> No sooner had Amnon raped her than he hated her--an immense hatred. The hatred that he felt for her was greater than the love he'd had for her. "Get up," he said, "and get out!"

<sup>16</sup> "Oh no, brother," she said. "Please! This is an even worse evil than what you just did to me!" But he wouldn't listen to her.

<sup>17</sup> He called for his valet. "Get rid of this woman. Get her out of my sight! And lock the door after her."

<sup>19</sup> Tamar poured ashes on her head, then she ripped the long-sleeved gown, held her head in her hands, and walked away, sobbing as she went.

<sup>20</sup> Her brother Absalom said to her, "Has your brother Amnon had his way with you? Now, my dear sister, let's keep it quiet--a family matter. He is, after all, your brother. Don't take this so hard." Tamar lived in her brother Absalom's home, bitter and desolate.

<sup>23</sup> Two years went by. One day Absalom threw a sheep-shearing party in Baal Hazor in the vicinity of Ephraim and invited all the king's sons.

<sup>24</sup> He also went to the king and invited him. "Look, I'm throwing a sheep-shearing party. Come, and bring your servants."

<sup>25</sup> But the king said, "No, son--not this time, and not the whole household. We'd just be a burden to you." Absalom pushed, but David wouldn't budge. But he did give him his blessing.

<sup>26</sup> Then Absalom said, "Well, if you won't come, at least let my brother Amnon come." "And why," said the king, "should he go with you?"

<sup>27</sup> But Absalom was so insistent that he gave in and let Amnon and all the rest of the king's sons go.

<sup>28</sup> Absalom prepared a banquet fit for a king. Then he instructed his servants, "Look sharp, now. When Amnon is well into the sauce and feeling no pain, and I give the order 'Strike Amnon,' kill him. And don't be afraid--I'm the one giving the command. Courage! You can do it!"

<sup>32</sup> Just then, Jonadab, his brother Shimeah's son, stepped up. "My master must not think that all the young men, the king's sons, are dead. Only Amnon is dead. This happened because of Absalom's outrage since the day that Amnon violated his sister Tamar.

<sup>33</sup> So my master, the king, mustn't make things worse than they are, thinking that all your sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jonadab exclaimed to the king, "See! It's the king's sons coming, just as I said!"

<sup>36</sup> He had no sooner said the words than the king's sons burst in--loud laments and weeping! The king joined in, along with all the servants--loud weeping, many tears.

<sup>38</sup> He was there three years.

14 <sup>1</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah knew that the king, deep down, still cared for Absalom.

<sup>2</sup> So he sent to Tekoa for a wise woman who lived there and instructed her, "Pretend you are in mourning. Dress in black and don't comb your hair, so you'll look like you've been grieving over a dead loved one for a long time.

<sup>3</sup> Then go to the king and tell him this..."Joab then told her exactly what to say.

<sup>4</sup> The woman of Tekoa went to the king, bowed deeply before him in homage, and said, "O King, help!"

<sup>5</sup> He said, "How can I help?" "I'm a widow," she said. "My husband is dead.

<sup>6</sup> I had two sons. The two of them got into a fight out in the field and there was no one around to step between them. The one struck the other and killed him.

<sup>7</sup> Then the whole family ganged up against me and demanded, 'Hand over this murderer so we can kill him for the life of the brother he murdered!' They want to wipe out the heir and snuff out the one spark of life left to me. And then there would be nothing left of my husband--not so much as a name--on the face of the earth.

<sup>8</sup> The king said, "Go home, and I'll take care of this for you."

<sup>10</sup> "Bring the man who has been harassing you," the king continued. "I'll see to it that he doesn't bother you anymore."

<sup>11</sup> "Let the king invoke the name of GOD," said the woman, "so this self-styled vigilante won't ruin everything, to say nothing of killing my son." "As surely as GOD lives," he said, "not so much as a hair of your son's head will be lost."

<sup>12</sup> Then she asked, "May I say one more thing to my master, the king?" He said, "Go ahead."

<sup>13</sup> "Why, then," the woman said, "have you done this very thing against God's people? In his verdict, the king convicts himself by not bringing home his exiled son.

<sup>14</sup> We all die sometime. Water spilled on the ground can't be gathered up again. But God does not take away life. He works out ways to get the exile back."

<sup>15</sup> "So now I've dared come to the king, my master, about all this. They're making my life miserable, and I'm afraid. I said to myself, 'I'll go to the king. Maybe he'll do something!

<sup>16</sup> When the king hears what's going on, he'll step in and rescue me from the abuse of the man who would get rid of me and my son and God's inheritance--the works!'

<sup>17</sup> As your handmaid, I decided ahead of time, 'The word of my master, the king, will be the last word in this, for my master is like an angel of God in discerning good and evil.' GOD be with you!"

<sup>18</sup> The king then said, "I'm going to ask you something. Answer me truthfully." "Certainly," she said. "Let my master, the king, speak."

<sup>19</sup> The king said, "Is the hand of Joab mixed up in this?" "On your life, my master king, a body can't veer an inch right or left and get by with it in the royal presence! Yes, it was your servant Joab who put me up to this, and put these very words in my mouth.

<sup>20</sup> It was because he wanted to turn things around that your servant Joab did this. But my master is as wise as God's angels in knowing how to handle things on this earth."

<sup>24</sup> The king said, "He may return to his house, but he is not to see me face to face." So Absalom returned home, but was not permitted to see the king.

<sup>25</sup> This Absalom! There wasn't a man in all Israel talked about so much for his handsome good looks--and not a blemish on him from head to toe!

<sup>26</sup> When he cut his hair--he always cut it short in the spring because it had grown so heavy--the weight of the hair from his head was over two pounds!

<sup>27</sup> Three sons were born to Absalom, and one daughter. Her name was Tamar--and she was a beauty.

<sup>28</sup> Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two years, and not once did he see the king face to face.

<sup>29</sup> He sent for Joab to get him in to see the king, but Joab still wouldn't budge. He tried a second time and Joab still wouldn't.

<sup>30</sup> So he told his servants, "Listen. Joab's field adjoins mine, and he has a crop of barley in it. Go set fire to it." So Absalom's servants set fire to the field.

<sup>31</sup> That got him moving--Joab came to Absalom at home and said, "Why did your servants set my field on fire?"

<sup>32</sup> Absalom answered him, "Listen, I sent for you saying, 'Come, and soon. I want to send you to the king to ask, "What's the point of my coming back from Geshur? I'd be better off still there!" Let me see the king face to face. If he finds me guilty, then he can put me to death.'"

<sup>33</sup> Joab went to the king and told him what was going on. Absalom was then summoned--he came and bowed deeply in reverence before him. And the king kissed Absalom.

15 <sup>1</sup> As time went on, Absalom took to riding in a horse-drawn chariot, with fifty men running in front of him.

<sup>3</sup> Then Absalom would say, "Look, you've got a strong case; but the king isn't going to listen to you."

<sup>4</sup> Then he'd say, "Why doesn't someone make me a judge for this country?"

Anybody with a case could bring it to me and I'd settle things fair and square."

<sup>5</sup> Whenever someone would treat him with special honor, he'd shrug it off and treat him like an equal, making him feel important.

<sup>6</sup> Absalom did this to everyone who came to do business with the king and stole the hearts of everyone in Israel.

<sup>7</sup> After four years of this, Absalom spoke to the king, "Let me go to Hebron to pay a vow that I made to GOD.

<sup>8</sup> Your servant made a vow when I was living in Geshur in Aram saying, 'If GOD will bring me back to Jerusalem, I'll serve him with my life.'"

<sup>9</sup> The king said, "Go with my blessing." And he got up and set off for Hebron.

<sup>10</sup> Then Absalom sent undercover agents to all the tribes of Israel with the message, "When you hear the blast of the ram's horn trumpet, that's your signal: Shout, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup> Two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem. But they had been called together knowing nothing of the plot and made the trip innocently.

<sup>12</sup> While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he managed also to involve Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's advisor, calling him away from his hometown of Giloh. The conspiracy grew powerful and Absalom's supporters multiplied.

<sup>13</sup> Someone came to David with the report, "The whole country has taken up with Absalom!"

<sup>14</sup> "Up and out of here!" called David to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem. "We've got to run for our lives or none of us will escape Absalom! Hurry, he's about to pull the city down around our ears and slaughter us all!"

<sup>15</sup> The king's servants said, "Whatever our master, the king, says, we'll do; we're with you all the way!"

<sup>18</sup> as the whole army passed by him--all the Kerethites, all the Pelethites, and the six hundred Gittites who had marched with him from Gath, went past.

<sup>20</sup> You arrived only yesterday, and am I going to let you take your chances with us as I live on the road like a gypsy? Go back, and take your family with you. And God's grace and truth go with you!"

<sup>21</sup> But Ittai answered, "As GOD lives and my master the king lives, where my master is, that's where I'll be--whether it means life or death."

<sup>23</sup> The whole country was weeping in loud lament as all the people passed by. As the king crossed the Brook Kidron, the army headed for the road to the wilderness.

<sup>24</sup> Zadok was also there, the Levites with him, carrying GOD's Chest of the Covenant. They set the Chest of God down, Abiathar standing by, until all the people had evacuated the city.

<sup>25</sup> Then the king ordered Zadok, "Take the Chest back to the city. If I get back in GOD's good graces, he'll bring me back and show me where the Chest has been set down.

<sup>26</sup> But if he says, 'I'm not pleased with you'--well, he can then do with me whatever he pleases."

<sup>27</sup> The king directed Zadok the priest, "Here's the plan: Return to the city peacefully, with Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan, Abiathar's son, with you.

<sup>29</sup> So Zadok and Abiathar took the Chest of God back to Jerusalem and placed it there,

He prayed, "Oh, GOD--turn Ahithophel's counsel to foolishness."

<sup>33</sup> David said, "If you come with me, you'll be just one more piece of luggage.

<sup>34</sup> Go back to the city and say to Absalom, 'I'm ready to be your servant, O King; I used to be your father's servant, now I'm your servant.' Do that and you'll be able to confuse Ahithophel's counsel for me.

<sup>35</sup> The priests Zadok and Abiathar are already there; whatever information you pick up in the palace, tell them.

<sup>2</sup> The king said to Ziba, "What's all this?" "The donkeys," said Ziba, "are for the king's household to ride, the bread and fruit are for the servants to eat, and the wine is for drinking, especially for those overcome by fatigue in the wilderness."

<sup>3</sup> The king said, "And where is your master's grandson?" "He stayed in Jerusalem," said Ziba. "He said, 'This is the day Israel is going to restore my grandfather's kingdom to me.'"

<sup>4</sup> "Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth," said the king, "is now yours." Ziba said, "How can I ever thank you? I'll be forever in your debt, my master and king; may you always look on me with such kindness!"

<sup>5</sup> When the king got to Bahurim, a man appeared who had connections with Saul's family. His name was Shimei son of Gera. As he followed along he shouted insults

<sup>8</sup> GOD has paid you back for all your dirty work in the family of Saul and for stealing his kingdom. GOD has given the kingdom to your son Absalom. Look at you now--ruined! And good riddance, you pathetic old man!"

<sup>9</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah said, "This mangy dog can't insult my master the king this way--let me go over and cut off his head!"

<sup>10</sup> But the king said, "Why are you sons of Zeruiah always interfering and getting in the way? If he's cursing, it's because GOD told him, 'Curse David.' So who dares raise questions?"

<sup>11</sup> "Besides," continued David to Abishai and the rest of his servants, "my own son, my flesh and bone, is right now trying to kill me; compared to that this Benjaminite is small potatoes. Don't bother with him; let him curse; he's preaching GOD's word to me.

<sup>12</sup> And who knows, maybe GOD will see the trouble I'm in today and exchange the curses for something good."

<sup>14</sup> By the time they reached the Jordan River, David and all the men of the company were exhausted. There they rested and were revived.

<sup>15</sup> By this time Absalom and all his men were in Jerusalem. And Ahithophel was with them.

<sup>16</sup> Soon after, Hushai the Arkite, David's friend, came and greeted Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>18</sup> "Because," said Hushai, "I want to be with the person that GOD and this people and all Israel have chosen. And I want to stay with him.

<sup>19</sup> Besides, who is there to serve other than the son? Just as I served your father, I'm now ready to serve you."

<sup>21</sup> Ahithophel told Absalom, "Go and sleep with your father's concubines, the ones he left to tend to the palace. Everyone will hear that you have openly disgraced your father, and the morale of everyone on your side will be strengthened."

<sup>22</sup> So Absalom pitched a tent up on the roof in public view, and went in and slept with his father's concubines.

<sup>23</sup> The counsel that Ahithophel gave in those days was treated as if God himself had spoken. That was the reputation of Ahithophel's counsel to David; it was the same with Absalom.

17 <sup>1</sup> Next Ahithophel advised Absalom, "Let me handpick twelve thousand men and go after David tonight.

<sup>2</sup> I'll come on him when he's bone tired and take him by complete surprise. The whole army will run off and I'll kill only David.

<sup>3</sup> Then I'll bring the army back to you--a bride brought back to her husband! You're only after one man, after all. Then everyone will be together in peace!"

<sup>4</sup> Absalom thought it was an excellent strategy, and all the elders of Israel agreed.

<sup>5</sup> But then Absalom said, "Call in Hushai the Arkite--let's hear what he has to say."

<sup>6</sup> So Hushai came and Absalom put it to him, "This is what Ahithophel advised. Should we do it? What do you say?"

<sup>7</sup> Hushai said, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given in this instance is not good.

<sup>8</sup> You know your father and his men, brave and bitterly angry--like a bear robbed of her cubs. And your father is an experienced fighter; you can be sure he won't be caught napping at a time like this.

<sup>9</sup> Even while we're talking, he's probably holed up in some cave or other. If he jumps your men from ambush, word will soon get back, 'A slaughter of Absalom's army!'

<sup>10</sup> Even if your men are valiant with hearts of lions, they'll fall apart at such news, for everyone in Israel knows the kind of fighting stuff your father's made of, and also the men with him.

<sup>12</sup> We'll smoke him out wherever he is, fall on him like dew falls on the earth, and, believe me, there won't be a single survivor.

<sup>13</sup> If he hides out in a city, then the whole army will bring ropes to that city and pull it down and into a gully--not so much as a pebble left of it!"

<sup>14</sup> Absalom and all his company agreed that the counsel of Hushai the Arkite was better than the counsel of Ahithophel. (GOD had determined to discredit the counsel of Ahithophel so as to bring ruin on Absalom.)

<sup>15</sup> Then Hushai told the priests Zadok and Abiathar, "Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel thus and thus, and I advised them thus and thus.

<sup>16</sup> Now send this message as quickly as possible to David: 'Don't spend the night on this side of the river; cross immediately or the king and everyone with him will be swallowed up alive.'

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting around at En Rogel. A servant girl would come and give them messages and then they would go and tell King David, for it wasn't safe to be seen coming into the city.

<sup>18</sup> But a soldier spotted them and told Absalom, so the two of them got out of there fast and went to a man's house in Bahurim. He had a well in his yard and they climbed into it.

<sup>19</sup> The wife took a rug and covered the well, then spread grain on it so no one would notice anything out of the ordinary.

<sup>20</sup> Shortly, Absalom's servants came to the woman's house and asked her, "Have you seen Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman said, "They were headed toward the river." They looked but didn't find them, and then went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> When the coast was clear, Ahimaaz and Jonathan climbed out of the well and went on to make their report to King David, "Get up and cross the river quickly; Ahithophel has given counsel against you!"

<sup>22</sup> David and his whole army were soon up and moving and crossed the Jordan. As morning broke there was not a single person who had not made it across the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup> When Ahithophel realized that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and left for his hometown. After making out his will and putting his house in order, he hanged himself and died. He was buried in the family tomb.

<sup>24</sup> About the time David arrived at Mahanaim, Absalom crossed the Jordan, and the whole army of Israel with him.

<sup>28</sup> brought beds and blankets, bowls and jugs filled with wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans and lentils,

<sup>29</sup> honey, and curds and cheese from the flocks and herds. They presented all this to David and his army to eat, "because," they said, "the army must be starved and exhausted and thirsty out in this wilderness."

18 <sup>1</sup> David organized his forces. He appointed captains of thousands and captains of hundreds.

<sup>2</sup> Then David deployed his troops, a third under Joab, a third under Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. The king then announced, "I'm marching with you."

<sup>3</sup> They said, "No, you mustn't march with us. If we're forced to retreat, the enemy won't give it a second thought. And if half of us die, they won't do so either. But you are worth ten thousand of us. It will be better for us if you stay in the city and help from there."

<sup>4</sup> "If you say so," said the king. "I'll do what you think is best." And so he stood beside the city gate as the whole army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

<sup>5</sup> Then the king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." The whole army heard what the king commanded the three captains regarding Absalom.

<sup>6</sup> The army took the field to meet Israel. It turned out that the battle was joined in the Forest of Ephraim.

<sup>7</sup> The army of Israel was beaten badly there that day by David's men, a terrific slaughter--twenty thousand men!

<sup>8</sup> There was fighting helter-skelter all over the place--the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword!

<sup>9</sup> Absalom ran into David's men, but was out in front of them riding his mule, when the mule ran under the branches of a huge oak tree. Absalom's head was caught in the oak and he was left dangling between heaven and earth, the mule running right out from under him.

<sup>10</sup> A solitary soldier saw him and reported it to Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging from an oak tree!"

<sup>11</sup> Joab said to the man who told him, "If you saw him, why didn't you kill him then and there? I'd have rewarded you with ten pieces of silver and a fancy belt."

<sup>12</sup> The man told Joab, "Even if I'd had a chance at a thousand pieces of silver, I wouldn't have laid a hand on the king's son. We all heard the king command you and Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake, protect the young man Absalom.'"

<sup>13</sup> Why, I'd be risking my life, for nothing is hidden from the king. And you would have just stood there!"

<sup>14</sup> Joab said, "I can't waste my time with you." He then grabbed three knives and stabbed Absalom in the heart while he was still alive in the tree;

<sup>15</sup> by then Absalom was surrounded by ten of Joab's armor bearers; they hacked away at him and killed him.

<sup>16</sup> Joab then blew the ram's horn trumpet, calling off the army in its pursuit of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> They took Absalom, dumped him into a huge pit in the forest, and piled an immense mound of rocks over him. Meanwhile the whole army of Israel was in flight, each man making his own way home.

<sup>18</sup> While alive, Absalom had erected for himself a pillar in the Valley of the King, "because," he said, "I have no son to carry on my name." He inscribed the pillar with his own name. To this day it is called "The Absalom Memorial."

<sup>19</sup> Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, said, "Let me run to the king and bring him the good news that GOD has delivered him from his enemies."

<sup>20</sup> But Joab said, "You're not the one to deliver the good news today; some other day, maybe, but it's not 'good news' today." (This was because the king's son was dead.)

<sup>21</sup> Then Joab ordered a Cushite, "You go. Tell the king what you've seen." "Yes sir," said the Cushite, and ran off.

<sup>22</sup> Ahimaaz son of Zadok kept at it, begging Joab, "What does it matter? Let me run too, following the Cushite." Joab said, "Why all this 'Run, run'? You'll get no thanks for it, I can tell you."

<sup>23</sup> "I don't care; let me run." "Okay," said Joab, "run." So Ahimaaz ran, taking the lower valley road, and passed the Cushite.

<sup>25</sup> The sentry called down and told the king. The king said, "If he's alone, it must be good news!" As the runner came closer,

<sup>26</sup> the sentry saw another runner and called down to the gate, "Another runner all by himself." And the king said, "This also must be good news."

<sup>27</sup> Then the sentry said, "I can see the first man now; he runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok." "He's a good man," said the king. "He's bringing good news for sure."

<sup>28</sup> Then Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "Peace!" Then he bowed deeply before the king, his face to the ground. "Blessed be your GOD; he has handed over the men who rebelled against my master the king."

<sup>30</sup> The king said, "Step aside and stand over there." So he stepped aside.

<sup>31</sup> Then the Cushite arrived and said, "Good news, my master and king! GOD has given victory today over all those who rebelled against you!"

<sup>32</sup> "But," said the king, "is the young man Absalom all right?" And the Cushite replied, "Would that all of the enemies of my master the king and all who maliciously rose against you end up like that young man."

<sup>33</sup> The king was stunned. Heartbroken, he went up to the room over the gate and wept. As he wept he cried out, O my son Absalom, my dear, dear son Absalom! Why not me rather than you, my death and not yours, O Absalom, my dear, dear son!

19 <sup>1</sup> Joab was told that David was weeping and lamenting over Absalom.

<sup>4</sup> And the king held his face in his hands and lamented loudly, O my son Absalom, Absalom my dear, dear son!

<sup>5</sup> But in private Joab rebuked the king: "Now you've done it--knocked the wind out of your loyal servants who have just saved your life, to say nothing of the lives of your sons and daughters, wives and concubines.

<sup>6</sup> What is this--loving those who hate you and hating those who love you? Your actions give a clear message: officers and soldiers mean nothing to you. You know that if Absalom were alive right now, we'd all be dead--would that make you happy?

<sup>7</sup> Get hold of yourself; get out there and put some heart into your servants! I swear to GOD that if you don't go to them they'll desert; not a soldier will be left here by nightfall. And that will be the worst thing that has happened yet."

<sup>8</sup> So the king came out and took his place at the city gate. Soon everyone knew: "Oh, look! The king has come out to receive us." And his whole army came and presented itself to the king. But the Israelites had fled the field of battle and gone home.

<sup>9</sup> Meanwhile, the whole populace was now complaining to its leaders, "Wasn't it the king who saved us time and again from our enemies, and rescued us from the Philistines? And now he has had to flee the country on account of Absalom.

<sup>10</sup> And now this Absalom whom we made king is dead in battle. So what are you waiting for? Why don't you bring the king back?"

<sup>11</sup> When David heard what was being said, he sent word to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, "Ask the elders of Judah, 'Why are you so laggard in bringing the king back home?"

<sup>12</sup> You're my brothers! You're my own flesh and blood! So why are you the last ones to bring the king back home?"

<sup>13</sup> And tell Amasa, 'You, too, are my flesh and blood. As God is my witness, I'm making you the permanent commander of the army in place of Joab.'"

<sup>14</sup> He captured the hearts of everyone in Judah. They were unanimous in sending for the king: "Come back, you and all your servants."

<sup>16</sup> Even Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, hurried down to join the men of Judah so he could welcome the king,

<sup>17</sup> a thousand Benjaminites with him. And Ziba, Saul's steward, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants, waded across the Jordan to meet the king

<sup>18</sup> and brought his entourage across, doing whatever they could to make the king comfortable. Shimei son of Gera bowed deeply in homage to the king as soon as he was across the Jordan

<sup>19</sup> and said, "Don't think badly of me, my master! Overlook my irresponsible outburst on the day my master the king left Jerusalem--don't hold it against me!

<sup>20</sup> I know I sinned, but look at me now--the first of all the tribe of Joseph to come down and welcome back my master the king!"

<sup>21</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah interrupted, "Enough of this! Shouldn't we kill him outright? Why, he cursed GOD's anointed!"

<sup>22</sup> But David said, "What is it with you sons of Zeruiah? Why do you insist on being so contentious? Nobody is going to be killed today. I am again king over Israel!"

<sup>23</sup> Then the king turned to Shimei, "You're not going to die." And the king gave him his word.

<sup>24</sup> Next Mephibosheth grandson of Saul arrived from Jerusalem to welcome the king. He hadn't combed his hair or trimmed his beard or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safe and sound.

<sup>26</sup> "My master the king," he said, "my servant betrayed me. I told him to saddle my donkey so I could ride it and go with the king, for, as you know, I am lame.

<sup>27</sup> And then he lied to you about me. But my master the king has been like one of God's angels: he knew what was right and did it.

<sup>28</sup> Wasn't everyone in my father's house doomed? But you took me in and gave me a place at your table. What more could I ever expect or ask?"

<sup>29</sup> "That's enough," said the king. "Say no more. Here's my decision: You and Ziba divide the property between you."

<sup>30</sup> Mephibosheth said, "Oh, let him have it all! All I care about is that my master the king is home safe and sound!"

<sup>31</sup> Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim. He crossed the Jordan with the king to give him a good send-off.

<sup>32</sup> Barzillai was a very old man--eighty years old! He had supplied the king's needs all the while he was in Mahanaim since he was very wealthy.

<sup>33</sup> "Join me in Jerusalem," the king said to Barzillai. "Let me take care of you."

<sup>34</sup> But Barzillai declined the offer, "How long do you think I'd live if I went with the king to Jerusalem?"

<sup>36</sup> I'll just go a little way across the Jordan with the king. But why would the king need to make a great thing of that?

<sup>37</sup> Let me go back and die in my hometown and be buried with my father and mother. But my servant Kimham here; let him go with you in my place. But treat him well!"

<sup>38</sup> The king said, "That's settled; Kimham goes with me. And I will treat him well! If you think of anything else, I'll do that for you, too."

<sup>39</sup> The army crossed the Jordan but the king stayed. The king kissed and blessed Barzillai, who then returned home.

<sup>40</sup> Then the king, Kimham with him, crossed over at Gilgal. The whole army of Judah and half the army of Israel processed with the king.

<sup>41</sup> The men of Israel came to the king and said, "Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, taken over as if they owned the king, escorting the king and his family and close associates across the Jordan?"

<sup>42</sup> The men of Judah retorted, "Because the king is related to us, that's why! But why make a scene? You don't see us getting treated special because of it, do you?"

<sup>43</sup> The men of Israel shot back, "We have ten shares in the king to your one. Besides we're the firstborn--so why are we having to play second fiddle? It was our idea to bring him back." But the men of Judah took a harder line than the men of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed committed, sticking with their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> When David arrived home in Jerusalem, the king took the ten concubines he had left to watch the palace and placed them in seclusion, under guard. He provided for their needs but didn't visit them. They were virtual prisoners until they died, widows as long as they lived.

<sup>4</sup> The king ordered Amasa, "Mustering the men of Judah for me in three days; then report in."

<sup>6</sup> So David told Abishai, "Sheba son of Bicri is going to hurt us even worse than Absalom did. Take your master's servants and hunt him down before he gets holed up in some fortress city where we can't get to him."

<sup>8</sup> They were near the boulder at Gibeon when Amasa came their way. Joab was wearing a tunic with a sheathed sword strapped on his waist, but the sword slipped out and fell to the ground.

<sup>9</sup> Joab greeted Amasa, "How are you, brother?" and took Amasa's beard in his right hand as if to kiss him.

<sup>11</sup> One of Joab's soldiers took up his post over the body and called out, "Everyone who sides with Joab and supports David, follow Joab!"

<sup>12</sup> Amasa was lying in a pool of blood in the middle of the road; the man realized that the whole army was going to stop and take a look, so he pulled Amasa's corpse off the road into the field and threw a blanket over him so it wouldn't collect spectators.

<sup>13</sup> As soon as he'd gotten him off the road, the traffic flowed normally, following Joab in the chase after Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>14</sup> Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel as far as Abel Beth Maacah; all the Bicrites clustered and followed him into the city.

<sup>15</sup> Joab's army arrived and laid siege to Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege-ramp up against the city's fortification. The plan was to knock down the wall.

<sup>16</sup> But a shrewd woman called out from the city, "Listen, everybody! Please tell Joab to come close so I can talk to him."

<sup>17</sup> When he had come, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He said, "I am." "Then," she said, "listen to what I have to say." He said, "I'm listening."

<sup>18</sup> "There's an old saying in these parts: 'If it's answers you want, come to Abel and get it straight.'

<sup>21</sup> But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba son of Bicri by name, revolted against King David; hand him over, him only, and we'll get out of here." The woman told Joab, "Sounds good. His head will be tossed to you from the wall."

<sup>22</sup> The woman presented her strategy to the whole city and they did it: They cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri and tossed it down to Joab. He then blew a blast on the ram's horn trumpet and the soldiers all went home. Joab returned to the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> Joab was again commander of the whole army of Israel. Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites;

21 <sup>1</sup> There was a famine in David's time. It went on year after year after year--three years. David went to GOD seeking the reason. GOD said, "This is because there is blood on Saul and his house, from the time he massacred the Gibeonites."

<sup>3</sup> David addressed the Gibeonites: "What can I do for you? How can I compensate you so that you will bless GOD's legacy of land and people?"

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites replied, "We don't want any money from Saul and his family. And it's not up to us to put anyone in Israel to death." But David persisted: "What are you saying I should do for you?"

<sup>5</sup> Then they told the king, "The man who tried to get rid of us, who schemed to wipe us off the map of Israel

<sup>6</sup> --well, let seven of his sons be handed over to us to be executed--hanged before GOD at Gibeah of Saul, the holy mountain." And David agreed, "I'll hand them over to you."

<sup>7</sup> The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the promise David and Jonathan had spoken before GOD.

<sup>8</sup> But the king selected Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons that Rizpah daughter of Aiah had borne to Saul, plus the five sons that Saul's daughter Merab had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

<sup>9</sup> He turned them over to the Gibeonites who hanged them on the mountain before GOD--all seven died together. Harvest was just getting underway, the beginning of the barley harvest, when they were executed.

<sup>10</sup> Rizpah daughter of Aiah took rough burlap and spread it out for herself on a rock from the beginning of the harvest until the heavy rains started. She kept the birds away from the bodies by day and the wild animals by night.

<sup>12</sup> He then went and got the remains of Saul and Jonathan his son from the leaders at Jabesh Gilead (who had rescued them from the town square at Beth Shan where the Philistines had hung them after striking them down at Gilboa).

<sup>13</sup> He gathered up their remains and brought them together with the dead bodies of the seven who had just been hanged.

<sup>14</sup> The bodies were taken back to the land of Benjamin and given a decent burial in the tomb of Kish, Saul's father. They did everything the king ordered to be done. That cleared things up: from then on God responded to Israel's prayers for the land.

<sup>15</sup> War broke out again between the Philistines and Israel. David and his men went down to fight. David became exhausted.

<sup>16</sup> Ishbi-Benob, a warrior descended from Rapha, with a spear weighing nearly eight pounds and outfitted in brand-new armor, announced that he'd kill David.

<sup>17</sup> But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to the rescue, struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, "No more fighting on the front-lines for you! Don't snuff out the lamp of Israel!"

<sup>19</sup> At yet another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaar, the weaver of Bethlehem, killed Goliath the Gittite whose spear was as big as a flagpole.

<sup>20</sup> Still another fight broke out in Gath. There was a giant there with six fingers on his hands and six toes on his feet--twenty-four fingers and toes! He was another of those descended from Rapha.

<sup>22</sup> These four were descended from Rapha in Gath. And they all were killed by David and his soldiers.

22 <sup>1</sup> David prayed to GOD the words of this song after GOD saved him from all his enemies and from Saul.

<sup>2</sup> GOD is bedrock under my feet, the castle in which I live, my rescuing knight.

<sup>3</sup> My God--the high crag where I run for dear life, hiding behind the boulders, safe in the granite hideout; My mountaintop refuge, he saves me from ruthless men.

<sup>7</sup> A hostile world! I called to GOD, to my God I cried out. From his palace he heard me call; my cry brought me right into his presence--a private audience!

<sup>8</sup> Earth wobbled and lurched; the very heavens shook like leaves, Quaked like aspen leaves because of his rage.

uncovered The moment GOD roared in protest, let loose his hurricane anger.

<sup>17</sup> But me he caught--reached all the way from sky to sea; he pulled me out

<sup>18</sup> Of that ocean of hate, that enemy chaos, the void in which I was drowning.

<sup>19</sup> They hit me when I was down, but GOD stuck by me.

<sup>20</sup> He stood me up on a wide-open field; I stood there saved--surprised to be loved!

<sup>21</sup> GOD made my life complete when I placed all the pieces before him. When I cleaned up my act, he gave me a fresh start.

<sup>22</sup> Indeed, I've kept alert to GOD's ways; I haven't taken God for granted.

<sup>25</sup> GOD rewrote the text of my life when I opened the book of my heart to his eyes.

<sup>26</sup> You stick by people who stick with you, you're straight with people who're straight with you,

<sup>28</sup> You take the side of the down-and-out, but the stuck-up you take down a peg.

<sup>29</sup> Suddenly, GOD, your light floods my path, GOD drives out the darkness.

<sup>32</sup> Is there any god like GOD? Are we not at bedrock?

<sup>33</sup> Is not this the God who armed me well, then aimed me in the right direction?

<sup>37</sup> You cleared the ground under me so my footing was firm.

<sup>38</sup> When I chased my enemies I caught them; I didn't let go till they were dead men.

<sup>39</sup> I nailed them; they were down for good; then I walked all over them.

<sup>40</sup> You armed me well for this fight; you smashed the upstarts.

<sup>42</sup> They cried "uncle" but Uncle didn't come; They yelled for GOD and got no for an answer.

<sup>43</sup> I ground them to dust; they gusted in the wind. I threw them out, like garbage in the gutter.

<sup>50</sup> That's why I'm thanking you, GOD, all over the world. That's why I'm singing songs that rhyme your name.

23 <sup>1</sup> These are David's last words:
The voice of the son of Jesse, the voice of the man God took to the top, Whom the God of Jacob made king, and Israel's most popular singer!

<sup>2</sup> GOD's Spirit spoke through me, his words took shape on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> The God of Israel spoke to me, Israel's Rock-Mountain said, "Whoever governs fairly and well, who rules in the Fear-of-God,

<sup>4</sup> Is like first light at daybreak without a cloud in the sky, Like green grass carpeting earth, glistening under fresh rain."

<sup>5</sup> And this is just how my regime has been, for God guaranteed his covenant with me, Spelled it out plainly and kept every promised word--My entire salvation, my every desire.

<sup>7</sup> Better not try to touch them; keep your distance with a rake or hoe. They'll make a glorious bonfire!

<sup>8</sup> This is the listing of David's top men. Josheb-Basshebeth, the Tahkemonite. He was chief of the Three. He once put his spear to work against eight hundred--killed them all in a day.

<sup>9</sup> Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite was the next of the elite Three. He was with David when the Philistines poked fun at them at Pas Dammim. When the Philistines drew up for battle, Israel retreated.

<sup>10</sup> But Eleazar stood his ground and killed Philistines right and left until he was exhausted--but he never let go of his sword! A big win for GOD that day. The army then rejoined Eleazar, but all there was left to do was the clean-up.

<sup>11</sup> Shammah son of Agee the Hararite was the third of the Three. The Philistines had mustered for battle at Lehi, where there was a field full of lentils. Israel fled before the Philistines,

<sup>15</sup> David had a sudden craving and said, "Would I ever like a drink of water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem!"

<sup>16</sup> So the Three penetrated the Philistine lines, drew water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem, and brought it back to David. But David wouldn't drink it; he poured it out as an offering to GOD, <sup>17</sup> saying, "There is no way, GOD, that I'll drink this! This isn't mere water, it's their life-blood--they risked their very lives to bring it!" So David refused to drink it. This is the sort of thing that the Three did.

<sup>18</sup> Abishai brother of Joab and son of Zeruah was the head of the Thirty. He once got credit for killing three hundred with his spear, but he was never named in the same breath as the Three.

<sup>19</sup> He was the most respected of the Thirty and was their captain, but never got included among the Three.

<sup>20</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel was a vigorous man who accomplished a great deal. He once killed two lion cubs in Moab. Another time, on a snowy day, he climbed down into a pit and killed a lion.

<sup>23</sup> He was held in greatest respect among the Thirty, but he never got included with the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

<sup>2</sup> So David gave orders to Joab and the army officers under him, "Canvass all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and get a count of the population. I want to know the number."

<sup>8</sup> They canvassed the whole country and after nine months and twenty days arrived back in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Joab gave the results of the census to the king: 800,000 able-bodied fighting men in Israel; in Judah 500,000.

<sup>10</sup> But when it was all done, David was overwhelmed with guilt because he had counted the people, replacing trust with statistics. And David prayed to GOD, "I have sinned badly in what I have just done. But now GOD forgive my guilt--I've been really stupid."

<sup>11</sup> When David got up the next morning, the word of GOD had already come to Gad the prophet, David's spiritual advisor,

<sup>12</sup> "Go and give David this message: 'GOD has spoken thus: There are three things I can do to you; choose one out of the three and I'll see that it's done.'"

<sup>13</sup> Gad came to deliver the message: "Do you want three years of famine in the land, or three months of running from your enemies while they chase you down, or three days of an epidemic on the country? Think it over and make up your mind. What shall I tell the one who sent me?"

<sup>14</sup> David told Gad, "They're all terrible! But I'd rather be punished by GOD, whose mercy is great, than fall into human hands."

<sup>15</sup> So GOD let loose an epidemic from morning until suppertime. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand people died.

<sup>16</sup> But when the angel reached out over Jerusalem to destroy it, GOD felt the pain of the terror and told the angel who was spreading death among the people, "Enough's enough! Pull back!" The angel of GOD had just reached the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. David looked up and saw the angel hovering between earth and sky, sword drawn and about to strike Jerusalem. David and the elders bowed in prayer and covered themselves with rough burlap.

<sup>17</sup> When David saw the angel about to destroy the people, he prayed, "Please! I'm the one who sinned; I, the shepherd, did the wrong. But these sheep, what did they do wrong? Punish me and my family, not them."

<sup>21</sup> and saying, "Why has my master the king come to see me?" "To buy your threshing floor," said David, "so I can build an altar to GOD here and put an end to this disaster."

<sup>22</sup> "Oh," said Araunah, "let my master the king take and sacrifice whatever he wants. Look, here's an ox for the burnt offering and threshing paddles and ox-yokes for fuel

<sup>23</sup> --Araunah gives it all to the king! And may GOD, your God, act in your favor."

<sup>24</sup> But the king said to Araunah, "No. I've got to buy it from you for a good price; I'm not going to offer GOD, my God, sacrifices that are no sacrifice." So David bought the threshing floor and the ox, paying out fifty shekels of silver.

<sup>25</sup> He built an altar to GOD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings. GOD was moved by the prayers and that was the end of the disaster.

1 Kings

1 <sup>1</sup> King David grew old. The years had caught up with him. Even though they piled blankets on him, he couldn't keep warm.

<sup>3</sup> So they searched the country of Israel for the most ravishing girl they could find; they found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king.

<sup>4</sup> The girl was stunningly beautiful; she stayed at his side and looked after the king, but the king did not have sex with her.

<sup>5</sup> At this time Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, puffed himself up saying, "I'm the next king!" He made quite a splash, with chariots and riders and fifty men to run ahead of him.

<sup>6</sup> His father had spoiled him rotten as a child, never once reprimanding him. Besides that, he was very good-looking and the next in line after Absalom.

<sup>9</sup> Next Adonijah held a coronation feast, sacrificing sheep, cattle, and grain-fed heifers at the Stone of Zoheleth near the Rogel Spring. He invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and everyone in Judah who had position and influence--

<sup>10</sup> but he did not invite the prophet Nathan, Benaiah, the bodyguards, or his brother Solomon.

<sup>11</sup> Nathan went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, "Did you know that Adonijah, Haggith's son, has taken over as king, and our master David doesn't know a thing about it?"

<sup>12</sup> Quickly now, let me tell you how you can save both your own life and Solomon's.

<sup>13</sup> Go immediately to King David. Speak up: 'Didn't you, my master the king, promise me, "Your son Solomon will be king after me and sit on my throne"? So why is Adonijah now king?'

<sup>14</sup> While you're there talking with the king, I'll come in and corroborate your story."

<sup>15</sup> Bathsheba went at once to the king in his palace bedroom. He was so old! Abishag was at his side making him comfortable.

<sup>16</sup> As Bathsheba bowed low, honoring the king, he said, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup> "My master," she said, "you promised me in GOD's name, 'Your son Solomon will be king after me and sit on my throne.'

<sup>19</sup> He has thrown a huge coronation feast--cattle and grain-fed heifers and sheep--inviting all the king's sons, the priest Abiathar, and Joab head of the army. But your servant Solomon was not invited.

<sup>20</sup> My master the king, every eye in Israel is watching you to see what you'll do--to see who will sit on the throne of my master the king after him.

<sup>21</sup> If you fail to act, the moment you're buried my son Solomon and I are as good as dead."

<sup>22</sup> Abruptly, while she was telling the king all this, Nathan the prophet came in <sup>23</sup> and was announced: "Nathan the prophet is here." He came before the king, honoring him by bowing deeply, his face touching the ground.

<sup>24</sup> "My master the king," Nathan began, "did you say, 'Adonijah shall be king after me and sit on my throne'?"

<sup>27</sup> Is this something that my master the king has done behind our backs, not telling your servants who you intended to be king after you?"

<sup>29</sup> The king solemnly promised, "As GOD lives, the God who delivered me from every kind of trouble, <sup>30</sup> I'll do exactly what I promised in GOD's name, the God of Israel: Your son Solomon will be king after me and take my place on the throne. And I'll make sure it happens this very day."

<sup>31</sup> Bathsheba bowed low, her face to the ground. Kneeling in reverence before the king she said, "Oh, may my master, King David, live forever!"

<sup>32</sup> King David said, "Call Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." They came to the king.

<sup>33</sup> Then he ordered, "Gather my servants, then mount my son Solomon on my royal mule and lead him in procession down to Gihon.

<sup>34</sup> When you get there, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet will anoint him king over Israel. Then blow the ram's horn trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!'

<sup>35</sup> You will then accompany him as he enters and takes his place on my throne, succeeding me as king. I have named him ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada backed the king: "Yes! And may GOD, the God of my master the king, confirm it!

<sup>37</sup> Just as GOD has been with my master the king, may he also be with Solomon and make his rule even greater than that of my master King David!"

<sup>38</sup> Then Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the king's personal bodyguard (the Kerethites and Pelethites) went down, mounted Solomon on King David's mule, and paraded with him to Gihon.

<sup>40</sup> Everyone joined the fanfare, the band playing and the people singing, the very earth reverberating to the sound.

<sup>41</sup> Adonijah and his retinue of guests were just finishing their "coronation" feast when they heard it. When Joab heard the blast of the ram's horn trumpet he said, "What's going on here? What's all this uproar?"

<sup>45</sup> Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon and the parade is headed up this way singing--a great fanfare! The city is rocking! That's what you're hearing.

<sup>47</sup> And that's not all: The king's servants have come to give their blessing to our master King David saying, 'God make Solomon's name even more honored than yours, and make his rule greater than yours!' On his death bed the king worshiped God

<sup>48</sup> and prayed, 'Blessed be GOD, Israel's God, who has provided a successor to my throne, and I've lived to see it!'"

<sup>51</sup> Solomon was told, "Adonijah, fearful of King Solomon, has taken sanctuary and seized the horns of the Altar and is saying, 'I'm not leaving until King Solomon promises that he won't kill me.'"

<sup>52</sup> Solomon then said, "If he proves to be a man of honor, not a hair of his head will be hurt; but if there is evil in him, he'll die."

2 <sup>1</sup> When David's time to die approached, he charged his son Solomon, saying, <sup>2</sup> "I'm about to go the way of all the earth, but you--be strong; show what you're made of!

<sup>4</sup> Then GOD will confirm what he promised me when he said, 'If your sons watch their step, staying true to me heart and soul, you'll always have a successor on Israel's throne.'

<sup>5</sup> "And don't forget what Joab son of Zeruah did to the two commanders of Israel's army, to Abner son of Ner and to Amasa son of Jether. He murdered them in cold blood, acting in peacetime as if he were at war, and has been stained with that blood ever since.

<sup>6</sup> Do what you think best with him, but by no means let him get off scot-free--make him pay.

<sup>7</sup> "But be generous to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite--extend every hospitality to them; that's the way they treated me when I was running for my life from Absalom your brother.

<sup>8</sup> "You also will have to deal with Shimei son of Gera the Benjaminite from Bahurim, the one who cursed me so viciously when I was on my way to Mahanaim. Later, when he welcomed me back at the Jordan, I promised him under GOD, 'I won't put you to death.'

<sup>9</sup> But neither should you treat him as if nothing ever happened. You're wise, you know how to handle these things. You'll know what to do to make him pay before he dies."

<sup>11</sup> David ruled Israel for forty years--seven years in Hebron and another thirty-three in Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> Solomon took over on the throne of his father David; he had a firm grip on the kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She said, "Do you come in peace?" He said, "In peace."

<sup>14</sup> And then, "May I say something to you?" "Go ahead," she said, "speak."

<sup>15</sup> "You know that I had the kingdom right in my hands and everyone expected me to be king, and then the whole thing backfired and the kingdom landed in my brother's lap--GOD's doing.

<sup>16</sup> So now I have one request to ask of you; please don't refuse me." "Go ahead, ask," she said.

<sup>17</sup> "Ask King Solomon--he won't turn you down--to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife."

<sup>19</sup> Bathsheba went to King Solomon to present Adonijah's request. The king got up and welcomed her, bowing respectfully, and returned to his throne. Then he had a throne put in place for his mother, and she sat at his right hand.

<sup>20</sup> She said, "I have a small favor to ask of you. Don't refuse me." The king replied, "Go ahead, Mother; of course I won't refuse you."

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered his mother, "What kind of favor is this, asking that Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah? Why don't you just ask me to hand over the whole kingdom to him on a platter since he is my older brother and has Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruah on his side!"

<sup>23</sup> Then King Solomon swore under GOD, "May God do his worst to me if Adonijah doesn't pay for this with his life!

<sup>24</sup> As surely as GOD lives, the God who has set me firmly on the throne of my father David and has put me in charge of the kingdom just as he promised, Adonijah will die for this--today!"

<sup>26</sup> The king then told Abiathar the priest, "You're exiled to your place in Anathoth. You deserve death but I'm not going to kill you--for now anyway--because you were in charge of the Chest of our ruling GOD in the company of David my father, and because you shared all the hard times with my father."

<sup>28</sup> When this news reached Joab, this Joab who had conspired with Adonijah (although he had remained loyal in the Absalom affair), he took refuge in the sanctuary of GOD, seizing the horns of the Altar and holding on for dear life.

<sup>29</sup> King Solomon was told that Joab had escaped to the sanctuary of GOD and was clinging to the Altar; he immediately sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada with orders, "Kill him."

<sup>30</sup> Benaiah went to the sanctuary of GOD and said, "King's orders: Come out." He said, "No--I'll die right here." Benaiah went back to the king and reported, "This was Joab's answer."

<sup>31</sup> The king said, "Go ahead then, do what he says: Kill him and bury him. Absolve me and my father's family of the guilt from Joab's senseless murders.

<sup>32</sup> GOD is avenging those bloody murders on Joab's head. Two men he murdered, men better by far than he ever was: Behind my father's back he brutally murdered Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army.

<sup>35</sup> The king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in place of Joab, and replaced Abiathar with Zadok the priest.

<sup>36</sup> The king next called in Shimei and told him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but you are not to leave the area.

<sup>37</sup> If you so much as cross the Brook Kidron, you're as good as dead--you will have decreed your own death sentence."

<sup>38</sup> Shimei answered the king, "Oh, thank you! Your servant will do exactly as my master the king says." Shimei lived in Jerusalem a long time.

<sup>39</sup> But it so happened that three years later, two of Shimei's slaves ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. Shimei was told, "Your slaves are in Gath."

<sup>42</sup> Solomon then called for Shimei and said, "Didn't I make you promise me under GOD, and give you a good warning besides, that you would not leave this area? That if you left you would have decreed your own death sentence? And didn't you say, 'Oh, thank you--I'll do exactly as you say'?"

<sup>43</sup> So why didn't you keep your sacred promise and do what I ordered?"

<sup>44</sup> Then the king told Shimei, "Deep in your heart you know all the evil that you did to my father David; GOD will now avenge that evil on you.

<sup>45</sup> But King Solomon will be blessed and the rule of David will be a sure thing under GOD forever."

<sup>46</sup> The king then gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he went out and struck Shimei dead. The kingdom was now securely in Solomon's grasp.

3<sup>1</sup> Solomon arranged a marriage contract with Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He married Pharaoh's daughter and brought her to the City of David until he had completed building his royal palace and GOD's Temple and the wall around Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Meanwhile, the people were worshiping at local shrines because at that time no temple had yet been built to the Name of GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Solomon loved GOD and continued to live in the God-honoring ways of David his father, except that he also worshiped at the local shrines, offering sacrifices and burning incense.

<sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon, the most prestigious of the local shrines, to worship. He sacrificed a thousand Whole-Burnt-Offerings on that altar.

<sup>5</sup> That night, there in Gibeon, GOD appeared to Solomon in a dream: God said, "What can I give you? Ask."

<sup>6</sup> Solomon said, "You were extravagantly generous in love with David my father, and he lived faithfully in your presence, his relationships were just and his heart right. And you have persisted in this great and generous love by giving him--and this very day!--a son to sit on his throne.

<sup>7</sup> "And now here I am: GOD, my God, you have made me, your servant, ruler of the kingdom in place of David my father. I'm too young for this, a mere child! I don't know the ropes, hardly know the 'ins' and 'outs' of this job.

<sup>8</sup> And here I am, set down in the middle of the people you've chosen, a great people--far too many to ever count.

<sup>9</sup> "Here's what I want: Give me a God-listening heart so I can lead your people well, discerning the difference between good and evil. For who on their own is capable of leading your glorious people?"

<sup>11</sup> And God said to him, "Because you have asked for this and haven't grasped after a long life, or riches, or the doom of your enemies, but you have asked for the ability to lead and govern well, <sup>12</sup> I'll give you what you've asked for--I'm giving you a wise and mature heart. There's never been one like you before; and there'll be no one after.

<sup>13</sup> As a bonus, I'm giving you both the wealth and glory you didn't ask for--there's not a king anywhere who will come up to your mark.

<sup>14</sup> And if you stay on course, keeping your eye on the life-map and the God-signs as your father David did, I'll also give you a long life."

<sup>15</sup> Solomon woke up--what a dream! He returned to Jerusalem, took his place before the Chest of the Covenant of God, and worshiped by sacrificing Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings. Then he laid out a banquet for everyone in his service.

<sup>17</sup> The one woman said, "My master, this woman and I live in the same house. While we were living together, I had a baby.

<sup>18</sup> Three days after I gave birth, this woman also had a baby. We were alone--there wasn't anyone else in the house except for the two of us.

<sup>19</sup> The infant son of this woman died one night when she rolled over on him in her sleep.

<sup>20</sup> She got up in the middle of the night and took my son--I was sound asleep, mind you!--and put him at her breast and put her dead son at my breast.

<sup>21</sup> When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, here was this dead baby! But when I looked at him in the morning light, I saw immediately that he wasn't my baby."

<sup>22</sup> "Not so!" said the other woman. "The living one's mine; the dead one's yours." The first woman countered, "No! Your son's the dead one; mine's the living one." They went back and forth this way in front of the king.

<sup>23</sup> The king said, "What are we to do? This woman says, 'The living son is mine and the dead one is yours,' and this woman says, 'No, the dead one's yours and the living one's mine.'"

<sup>24</sup> After a moment the king said, "Bring me a sword." They brought the sword to the king.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said, "Cut the living baby in two--give half to one and half to the other."

<sup>26</sup> The real mother of the living baby was overcome with emotion for her son and said, "Oh no, master! Give her the whole baby alive; don't kill him!" But the other one said, "If I can't have him, you can't have him--cut away!"

<sup>27</sup> The king gave his decision: "Give the living baby to the first woman. Nobody is going to kill this baby. She is the real mother."

<sup>28</sup> The word got around--everyone in Israel heard of the king's judgment. They were all in awe of the king, realizing that it was God's wisdom that enabled him to judge truly.

4 <sup>1</sup> King Solomon was off to a good start ruling Israel.

Zarethan below Jezreel, and from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah over to Jokmeam;

<sup>16</sup> Baana son of Hushai in Asher and Aloth;

<sup>19</sup> Geber son of Uri in Gilead--this was the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and also of Og king of Bashan; he managed the whole district by himself.

<sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were densely populated--like sand on an ocean beach!

All their needs were met; they ate and drank and were happy.

<sup>24</sup> Solomon was sovereign over everything, countries and kings, west of the River Euphrates from Tiphseh to Gaza. Peace reigned everywhere.

<sup>25</sup> Throughout Solomon's life, everyone in Israel and Judah lived safe and sound, all of them from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south--content with what they had.

<sup>28</sup> They also brought to the designated place their assigned quota of barley and straw for the horses.

<sup>29</sup> God gave Solomon wisdom--the deepest of understanding and the largest of hearts. There was nothing beyond him, nothing he couldn't handle.

<sup>30</sup> Solomon's wisdom outclassed the vaunted wisdom of wise men of the East, outshone the famous wisdom of Egypt.

Heman, wiser than Calcol and Darda the sons of Mahol. He became famous among all the surrounding nations.

<sup>32</sup> He created three thousand proverbs; his songs added up to 1,005.

<sup>34</sup> Sent by kings from all over the earth who had heard of his reputation, people came from far and near to listen to the wisdom of Solomon.

5 <sup>1</sup> Hiram king of Tyre sent ambassadors to Solomon when he heard that he had been crowned king in David's place. Hiram had loved David his whole life.

GOD because of the wars he had to fight on all sides, until GOD finally put them down.

<sup>4</sup> But now GOD has provided peace all around--no one against us, nothing at odds with us.

<sup>5</sup> "Now here is what I want to do: Build a temple in honor of GOD, my God, following the promise that GOD gave to David my father, namely, 'Your son whom I will provide to succeed you as king, he will build a house in my honor.'

<sup>6</sup> And here is how you can help: Give orders for cedars to be cut from the Lebanon forest; my loggers will work alongside yours and I'll pay your men whatever wage you set. We both know that there is no one like you Sidonians for cutting timber."

be GOD for giving David such a wise son to rule this flourishing people!"

<sup>8</sup> Then he sent this message to Solomon: "I received your request for the cedars and cypresses. It's as good as done--your wish is my command.

<sup>9</sup> My lumberjacks will haul the timbers from the Lebanon forest to the sea, assemble them into log rafts, float them to the place you set, then have them disassembled for you to haul away. All I want from you is that you feed my crew."

<sup>10</sup> In this way Hiram supplied all the cedar and cypress timber that Solomon wanted.

<sup>12</sup> And GOD, for his part, gave Solomon wisdom, just as he had promised. The healthy peace between Hiram and Solomon was formalized by a treaty.

<sup>14</sup> He sent them in shifts of 10,000 each month to the Lebanon forest; they would work a month in Lebanon and then be at home two months. Adoniram was in charge of the work crew.

<sup>15</sup> Solomon also had 70,000 unskilled workers and another 80,000 stonecutters up in the hills

<sup>18</sup> Solomon and Hiram's construction workers, assisted by the men of Gebal, cut and prepared the timber and stone for building The Temple.

6 <sup>1</sup> Four hundred and eighty years after the Israelites came out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's rule over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, Solomon started building The Temple of GOD.

<sup>2</sup> The Temple that King Solomon built to GOD was ninety feet long, thirty feet wide, and forty-five feet high.

<sup>3</sup> There was a porch across the thirty-foot width of The Temple that extended out fifteen feet.

<sup>5</sup> Against the outside walls he built a supporting structure in which there were smaller rooms:

<sup>6</sup> The lower floor was seven and a half feet wide, the middle floor nine feet, and the third floor ten and a half feet. He had projecting ledges built into the outside Temple walls to support the buttressing beams.

<sup>7</sup> The stone blocks for the building of The Temple were all dressed at the quarry so that the building site itself was reverently quiet--no noise from hammers and chisels and other iron tools.

<sup>8</sup> The entrance to the ground floor was at the south end of The Temple; stairs led to the second floor and then to the third.

<sup>10</sup> The supporting structure along the outside walls was attached to The Temple with cedar beams and the rooms in it were seven and a half feet tall.

<sup>12</sup> "About this Temple you are building-- what's important is that you live the way I've set out for you and [do] what I tell you, following my instructions carefully and obediently. Then I'll complete in you the promise I made to David your father.

flowers. All cedar--none of the stone was exposed.

<sup>19</sup> The Inner Sanctuary within The Temple was for housing the Chest of the Covenant of God.

<sup>20</sup> This Inner Sanctuary was a cube, thirty feet each way, all plated with gold. The Altar of cedar was also gold-plated.

<sup>27</sup> The outstretched wings of the cherubim (they were identical in size and shape) measured another fifteen feet. He placed the two cherubim, their wings spread, in the Inner Sanctuary. The combined wingspread stretched the width of the room, the wing of one cherub touched one wall, the wing of the other the other wall, and the wings touched in the middle.

<sup>29</sup> He then carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and flower blossoms on all the walls of both the Inner and the Main Sanctuary.

<sup>30</sup> And all the floors of both inner and outer rooms were gold plated.

<sup>31</sup> He constructed doors of olivewood for the entrance to the Inner Sanctuary; the lintel and doorposts were five-sided.

<sup>32</sup> The doors were also carved with cherubim, palm trees, and flowers, and then covered with gold leaf.

7 <sup>1</sup> It took Solomon another thirteen years to finish building his own palace complex.

seventy-five feet wide, and forty-five feet high.

<sup>3</sup> There were four rows of cedar columns supporting forty-five cedar beams, fifteen in each row, and then roofed with cedar.

<sup>7</sup> He built a court room, the Hall of Justice, where he would decide judicial matters, and paneled it with cedar.

<sup>8</sup> He built his personal residence behind the Hall on a similar plan. Solomon also built another one just like it for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

<sup>9</sup> No expense was spared--everything here, inside and out, from foundation to roof was constructed using high-quality stone, accurately cut and shaped and polished.

<sup>14</sup> Hiram's mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali. His father was a Tyrian and a master worker in bronze. Hiram was a real artist--he could do anything with bronze. He came to King Solomon and did all the bronze work.

<sup>15</sup> First he cast two pillars in bronze, each twenty-seven feet tall and eighteen feet in circumference.

<sup>16</sup> He then cast two capitals in bronze to set on the pillars; each capital was seven and a half feet high

<sup>21</sup> He set the pillars up in the entrance porch to The Temple; the pillar to the south he named Security (Jachin) and the pillar to the north Stability (Boaz).

<sup>22</sup> The capitals were in the shape of lilies. When the pillars were finished,

<sup>23</sup> Hiram's next project was to make the Sea--an immense round basin of cast metal fifteen feet in diameter, seven and a half feet tall, and forty-five feet in circumference.

<sup>24</sup> Just under the rim there were two bands of decorative gourds, ten gourds to each foot and a half. The gourds were cast in one piece with the Sea.

<sup>25</sup> The Sea was set on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the bulls faced outward supporting the Sea on their hindquarters.

<sup>26</sup> The Sea was three inches thick and flared at the rim like a cup, or like a lily. It held about 11,500 gallons.

<sup>27</sup> Hiram also made ten washstands of bronze. Each was six feet square and four and a half feet tall.

<sup>28</sup> They were made like this: Panels were fastened to the uprights.

Beveled wreath-work bordered the lions and bulls above and below.

<sup>32</sup> The axles were attached under the stand and the wheels fixed to them. The wheels were twenty-seven inches in diameter; uprights and handles were cast with the stand.

<sup>36</sup> Everything and every available surface was engraved with cherubim, lions, and palm trees, bordered by arabesques.

<sup>39</sup> He arranged five stands on the south side of The Temple and five on the north. The Sea was placed at the southeast corner of The Temple.

<sup>40</sup> Hiram then fashioned the various utensils: buckets and shovels and bowls. Hiram completed all the work he set out to do for King Solomon on The Temple of GOD:

<sup>41</sup> two pillars; two capitals on top of the pillars; two decorative filigrees for the capitals;

<sup>48</sup> Solomon was also responsible for all the furniture and accessories in The Temple of GOD: the gold Altar; the gold Table that held the Bread of the Presence;

<sup>50</sup> the pure gold dishes, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, ladles, and censers; the gold sockets for the doors of the Inner Sanctuary, the Holy of Holies, used also for the doors of the Main Sanctuary.

<sup>51</sup> That completed all the work King Solomon did on The Temple of GOD. He then brought in the items consecrated by his father David, the silver and the gold and the artifacts. He placed them all in the treasury of GOD's Temple.

8<sup>1</sup> Bringing all this to a climax, King Solomon called in the leaders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the family patriarchs, to bring up the Chest of the Covenant of GOD from Zion, the City of David.

<sup>2</sup> And they came, all Israel before King Solomon in the month of Ethanim, the seventh month, for the great autumn festival.

<sup>4</sup> and carried up the Chest and the Tent of Meeting and all the holy vessels that went with the Tent.

<sup>5</sup> King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel were there at the Chest worshiping and sacrificing huge numbers of sheep and cattle--so many that no one could keep track.

<sup>6</sup> Then the priests brought the Chest of the Covenant of GOD to its place in the Inner Sanctuary, the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the entrance to the Inner Sanctuary, but were not noticeable farther out. They're still there today.

<sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the Chest but the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb where GOD made a covenant with Israel after bringing them up from Egypt.

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon spoke: GOD has told us that he lives in the dark where no one can see him;

<sup>15</sup> "Blessed be GOD, the God of Israel, who spoke personally to my father David. Now he has kept the promise he made when he said,

<sup>16</sup> 'From the day I brought my people Israel from Egypt, I haven't set apart one city among the tribes of Israel to build a Temple to fix my Name there. But I did choose David to rule my people Israel.'

<sup>17</sup> "My father David had it in his heart to build a Temple honoring the Name of GOD, the God of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> But GOD told him 'It was good that you wanted to build a Temple in my honor--most commendable!

<sup>19</sup> But you are not the one to do it--your son will build it to honor my Name.'

<sup>20</sup> "GOD has done what he said he would do: I have succeeded David my father and ruled over Israel just as GOD promised; and now I've built a Temple to honor GOD, the God of Israel, <sup>21</sup> and I've secured a place for the Chest that holds the covenant of GOD, the covenant that he made with our ancestors when he brought them up from the land of Egypt."

<sup>23</sup> and prayed, O GOD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in the skies above or on the earth below who unswervingly keeps covenant with his servants and relentlessly loves them as they sincerely live in obedience to your way.

<sup>24</sup> You kept your word to David my father, your personal word. You did exactly what you promised--every detail. The proof is before us today!

<sup>25</sup> Keep it up, GOD, O God of Israel! Continue to keep the promises you made to David my father when you said, "You'll always have a descendant to represent my rule on Israel's throne, on the condition that your sons are as careful to live obediently in my presence as you have."

<sup>26</sup> O God of Israel, let this all happen; confirm and establish it!

<sup>27</sup> Can it be that God will actually move into our neighborhood? Why, the cosmos itself isn't large enough to give you breathing room, let alone this Temple I've built.

<sup>28</sup> Even so, I'm bold to ask: Pay attention to these my prayers, both intercessory and personal, O GOD, my God. Listen to my prayers, energetic and devout, that I'm setting before you right now.

<sup>29</sup> Keep your eyes open to this Temple night and day, this place of which you said, "My Name will be honored there,"

<sup>30</sup> and listen to the prayers that I pray at this place. Listen from your home in heaven and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>32</sup> listen from heaven and act accordingly: Judge your servants, making the offender pay for his offense and setting the offended free of any charges.

<sup>33</sup> When your people Israel are beaten by an enemy because they've sinned against you, but then turn to you and acknowledge your rule in prayers desperate and devout in this Temple,

<sup>34</sup> Listen from your home in heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, return them to the land you gave their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup> When the skies shrivel up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, but then they pray at this place, acknowledging your rule and quitting their sins because you have scourged them, <sup>36</sup> Listen from your home in heaven, forgive the sins of your servants, your people Israel. Then start over with them: Train them to live right and well; send rain on the land you gave your people as an inheritance.

<sup>37</sup> When disasters strike, famine or catastrophe, crop failure or disease, locust or beetle, or when an enemy attacks their defenses--calamity of any sort

<sup>38</sup> --any prayer that's prayed from anyone at all among your people Israel, hearts penetrated by the disaster, hands and arms thrown out to this Temple for help,

<sup>39</sup> Listen from your home in heaven. Forgive and go to work on us. Give what each deserves, for you know each life from the inside (you're the only one with such "inside knowledge"!)

<sup>40</sup> so that they'll live before you in lifelong reverent and believing obedience on this land you gave our ancestors.

<sup>41</sup> And don't forget the foreigner who is not a member of your people Israel but has come from a far country because of your reputation.

<sup>42</sup> People are going to be attracted here by your great reputation, your wonder-working power, who come to pray at this Temple.

<sup>43</sup> Listen from your home in heaven. Honor the prayers of the foreigner so that people all over the world will know who you are and what you're like and will live in reverent obedience before you, just as your own people Israel do; so they'll know that you personally make this Temple that I've built what it is.

<sup>44</sup> When your people go to war against their enemies at the time and place you send them and they pray to GOD toward the city you chose and this Temple I've built to honor your Name,

<sup>46</sup> When they sin against you--and they certainly will; there's no one without sin!--and in anger you turn them over to the enemy and they are taken captive to the enemy's land, whether far or near,

<sup>47</sup> but repent in the country of their captivity and pray with changed hearts in their exile, "We've sinned; we've done wrong; we've been most wicked,"

<sup>48</sup> and turn back to you heart and soul in the land of the enemy who conquered them, and pray to you toward their homeland, the land you gave their ancestors, toward the city you chose, and this Temple I have built to the honor of your Name,

<sup>49</sup> Listen from your home in heaven to their prayers desperate and devout and do what is best for them.

<sup>50</sup> Forgive your people who have sinned against you; forgive their gross rebellions and move their captors to treat them with compassion.

<sup>51</sup> They are, after all, your people and your precious inheritance whom you rescued from the heart of that iron-smelting furnace, Egypt!

<sup>52</sup> O be alert and attentive to the needy prayers of me, your servant, and your dear people Israel; listen every time they cry out to you!

<sup>53</sup> You handpicked them from all the peoples on earth to be your very own people, as you announced through your servant Moses when you, O GOD, in your masterful rule, delivered our ancestors from Egypt.

<sup>56</sup> "Blessed be GOD, who has given peace to his people Israel just as he said he'd do. Not one of all those good and wonderful words that he spoke through Moses has misfired.

<sup>57</sup> May GOD, our very own God, continue to be with us just as he was with our ancestors--may he never give up and walk out on us.

<sup>58</sup> May he keep us centered and devoted to him, following the life path he has cleared, watching the signposts, walking at the pace and rhythms he laid down for our ancestors.

<sup>59</sup> "And let these words that I've prayed in the presence of GOD be always right there before him, day and night, so that he'll do what is right for me, to guarantee justice for his people Israel day after day after day.

<sup>60</sup> Then all the people on earth will know GOD is the true God; there is no other God.

<sup>61</sup> And you, your lives must be totally obedient to GOD, our personal God, following the life path he has cleared, alert and attentive to everything he has made plain this day."

<sup>62</sup> The king and all Israel with him then worshiped, offering sacrifices to GOD.

sheep. This is how the king and all Israel dedicated The Temple of GOD.

<sup>64</sup> That same day, the king set apart the central area of the Courtyard in front of GOD's Temple for sacred use and there sacrificed the Whole-Burnt-Offerings, Grain-Offerings, and fat from the Peace-Offerings--the bronze Altar was too small to handle all these offerings.

<sup>65</sup> This is how Solomon kept the great autumn feast, and all Israel with him, people there all the way from the far northeast (the Entrance to Hamath) to the far southwest (the Brook of Egypt)--a huge congregation. They started out celebrating for seven days--and then did it another seven days! Two solid weeks of celebration!

<sup>66</sup> Then he dismissed them. They blessed the king and went home, exuberant with heartfelt gratitude for all the good GOD had done for his servant David and for his people Israel.

9 <sup>1</sup> After Solomon had completed building The Temple of GOD and his own palace, all the projects he had set his heart on doing, <sup>2</sup> GOD appeared to Solomon again, just as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup> And GOD said to him, "I've listened to and received all your prayers, your ever-so-passionate prayers. I've sanctified this Temple that you have built: My Name is stamped on it forever; my eyes are on it and my heart in it always.

<sup>4</sup> As for you, if you live in my presence as your father David lived, pure in heart and action, living the life I've set out for you, attentively obedient to my guidance and judgments,

<sup>5</sup> then I'll back your kingly rule over Israel, make it a sure thing on a solid foundation. The same guarantee I gave

David your father I'm giving you: 'You can count on always having a descendant on Israel's throne.'

<sup>6</sup> "But if you or your sons betray me, ignoring my guidance and judgments, taking up with alien gods by serving and worshiping them,

<sup>8</sup> And this Temple, splendid as it now is, will become an object of contempt; visitors will shake their heads, saying, 'Whatever happened here? What's the story behind these ruins?'

<sup>9</sup> Then they'll be told, 'The people who used to live here betrayed their GOD, the very God who rescued their ancestors from Egypt; they took up with alien gods, worshiping and serving them. That's what's behind this GOD-visited devastation.'" "

<sup>10</sup> At the end of twenty years, having built the two buildings, The Temple of GOD and his personal palace, <sup>11</sup> Solomon rewarded Hiram king of Tyre with a gift of twenty villages in the district of Galilee. Hiram had provided him with all the cedar and cypress and gold that he had wanted.

<sup>13</sup> He said, "What kind of reward is this, my friend? Twenty backwoods hick towns!" People still refer to them that way.

build The Temple of GOD, his palace, the defense complex (the Millo), the Jerusalem wall, and the fortified cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt had come up and captured Gezer, torched it, and killed all the Canaanites who lived there. He gave it as a wedding present to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

<sup>21</sup> survivors of the holy wars, were rounded up by Solomon for his gangs of slave labor, a policy still in effect.

<sup>23</sup> They were also the project managers responsible for Solomon's building operations--550 of them in charge of the workforce.

<sup>25</sup> Three times a year Solomon worshiped at the Altar of GOD, sacrificing Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, and burning incense in the presence of GOD. Everything that had to do with The Temple he did generously and well; he didn't skimp.

10 <sup>1</sup> The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon and his connection with the Name of GOD. She came to put his reputation to the test by asking tough questions.

<sup>2</sup> She made a grand and showy entrance into Jerusalem--camels loaded with spices, a huge amount of gold, and precious gems. She came to Solomon and talked about all the things that she cared about, emptying her heart to him.

<sup>5</sup> the meals that were served, the impressive array of court officials and sharply dressed waiters, the lavish crystal, and the elaborate worship extravagant with Whole-Burnt-Offerings at the steps leading up to The Temple of GOD, it took her breath away.

<sup>6</sup> She said to the king, "It's all true! Your reputation for accomplishment and wisdom that reached all the way to my country is confirmed.

<sup>7</sup> I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it for myself; they didn't exaggerate! Such wisdom and elegance--far more than I could ever have imagined.

<sup>8</sup> Lucky the men and women who work for you, getting to be around you every day and hear your wise words firsthand!

<sup>9</sup> And blessed be GOD your God, who took such a liking to you and made you king. Clearly, GOD's love for Israel is behind this, making you king to keep a just order and nurture a God-pleasing people."

<sup>10</sup> She then gave the king four and a half tons of gold, and also sack after sack of spices and expensive gems. There hasn't been a cargo of spices like that since that shipload the queen of Sheba brought to King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup> The ships of Hiram also imported gold from Ophir along with tremendous loads of fragrant sandalwood and expensive gems.

<sup>12</sup> The king used the sandalwood for fine cabinetry in The Temple of GOD and the palace complex, and for making harps and dulcimers for the musicians. Nothing like that shipment of sandalwood has been seen since.

<sup>20</sup> Lions, twelve of them, were placed at either end of the six steps. There was no throne like it in any of the surrounding kingdoms.

<sup>21</sup> King Solomon's chalices and tankards were made of gold and all the dinnerware and serving utensils in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold--nothing was made of silver; silver was considered common and cheap.

<sup>22</sup> The king had a fleet of ocean-going ships at sea with Hiram's ships. Every three years the fleet would bring in a cargo of gold, silver, and ivory, and apes and peacocks.

<sup>23</sup> King Solomon was wiser and richer than all the kings of the earth--he surpassed them all.

<sup>24</sup> People came from all over the world to be with Solomon and drink in the wisdom God had given him.

<sup>25</sup> And everyone who came brought gifts--artifacts of gold and silver, fashionable robes and gowns, the latest in weapons, exotic spices, and horses and mules--parades of visitors, year after year.

<sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common as rocks and cedar as common as the fig trees in the lowland hills.

11 <sup>1</sup> King Solomon was obsessed with women. Pharaoh's daughter was only the first of the many foreign women he loved--Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite.

<sup>3</sup> He had seven hundred royal wives and three hundred concubines--a thousand women in all! And they did seduce him away from God.

<sup>7</sup> He went on to build a sacred shrine to Chemosh, the horrible god of Moab, and to Molech, the horrible god of the Ammonites, on a hill just east of Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> He built similar shrines for all his foreign wives, who then polluted the countryside with the smoke and stench of their sacrifices.

<sup>9</sup> GOD was furious with Solomon for abandoning the GOD of Israel, the God who had twice appeared to him

<sup>10</sup> and had so clearly commanded him not to fool around with other gods. Solomon faithlessly disobeyed GOD's orders.

<sup>11</sup> GOD said to Solomon, "Since this is the way it is with you, that you have no intention of keeping faith with me and doing what I have commanded, I'm going to rip the kingdom from you and hand it over to someone else.

<sup>12</sup> But out of respect for your father David I won't do it in your lifetime. It's your son who will pay--I'll rip it right out of his grasp.

<sup>13</sup> Even then I won't take it all; I'll leave him one tribe in honor of my servant

David and out of respect for my chosen city Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup> Hadad, just a boy at the time, had escaped with some of the Edomites who had worked for his father.

<sup>18</sup> Their escape route took them through Midian to Paran. They picked up some men in Paran and went on to Egypt and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house, food, and even land.

<sup>19</sup> Pharaoh liked him so well that he gave him the sister of his wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage.

<sup>21</sup> While living in Egypt, Hadad heard that both David and Joab, commander of the army, were dead. He approached Pharaoh and said, "Send me off with your blessing--I want to return to my country."

who had deserted from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

<sup>25</sup> Like Hadad, Rezon was a thorn in Israel's side all of Solomon's life. He was king over Aram, and he hated Israel.

<sup>26</sup> And then, the last straw: Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against the king. He was an Ephraimite from Zeredah, his mother a widow named Zeruah. He served in Solomon's administration.

<sup>27</sup> This is why he rebelled. Solomon had built the outer defense system (the Millo) and had restored the fortifications that were in disrepair from the time of his father David.

Solomon observed what a good worker he was, he put the young man in charge of the entire workforce of the tribe of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup> One day Jeroboam was walking down the road out of Jerusalem. Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh, wearing a brand-new cloak, met him. The two of them were alone on that remote stretch of road.

<sup>30</sup> Ahijah took off the new cloak that he was wearing and ripped it into twelve pieces.

<sup>31</sup> Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten of these pieces for yourself; this is by order of the GOD of Israel: See what I'm doing--I'm ripping the kingdom out of Solomon's hands and giving you ten of the tribes.

<sup>32</sup> In honor of my servant David and out of respect for Jerusalem, the city I especially chose, he will get one tribe.

<sup>33</sup> And here's the reason: He faithlessly abandoned me and went off worshiping Ashtoreth goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh god of the Moabites, and Molech god of the Ammonites. He hasn't lived the way I have shown him, hasn't done what I have wanted, and hasn't followed directions or obeyed orders as his father David did.

<sup>34</sup> "Still, I won't take the whole kingdom away from him. I'll stick with him through his lifetime because of my servant David whom I chose and who did follow my directions and obey my orders.

<sup>35</sup> But after that I'll remove the kingdom from his son's control and give you ten tribes.

<sup>36</sup> I'll leave one tribe to his son, to maintain a witness to my servant David in Jerusalem, the city I chose as a memorial to my Name.

<sup>37</sup> "But I have taken you in hand. Rule to your heart's content! You are to be the king of Israel.

<sup>38</sup> If you listen to what I tell you and live the way I show you and do what pleases me, following directions and obeying orders as my servant David did, I'll stick with you no matter what. I'll build you a kingdom as solid as the one I built for David. Israel will be yours!

<sup>39</sup> I am bringing pain and trouble on David's descendants, but the trials won't last forever."

12 <sup>1</sup> Rehoboam traveled to Shechem where all Israel had gathered to inaugurate him as king.

<sup>3</sup> Rehoboam assembled Jeroboam and all the people. They said to Rehoboam,

<sup>5</sup> "Give me three days to think it over, then come back," Rehoboam said.

<sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam talked it over with the elders who had advised his father when he was alive: "What's your counsel? How do you suggest that I answer the people?"

<sup>7</sup> They said, "If you will be a servant to this people, be considerate of their needs and respond with compassion, work things out with them, they'll end up doing anything for you."

<sup>8</sup> But he rejected the counsel of the elders and asked the young men he'd grown up with who were now currying his favor,

<sup>9</sup> "What do you think? What should I say to these people who are saying, 'Give us a break from your father's harsh ways--lighten up on us?'"

<sup>10</sup> The young turks he'd grown up with said, "These people who complain, 'Your father was too hard on us; lighten up'--well, tell them this: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist."

<sup>11</sup> If you think life under my father was hard, you haven't seen the half of it. My father thrashed you with whips; I'll beat you bloody with chains!"

<sup>12</sup> Three days later Jeroboam and the people showed up, just as Rehoboam had directed when he said, "Give me three days to think it over, then come back."

<sup>13</sup> The king's answer was harsh and rude. He spurned the counsel of the elders

<sup>14</sup> and went with the advice of the younger set, "If you think life under my father was hard, you haven't seen the half of it. My father thrashed you with whips; I'll beat you bloody with chains!"

<sup>15</sup> Rehoboam turned a deaf ear to the people. GOD was behind all this, confirming the message that he had given to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah of Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel realized that the king hadn't listened to a word they'd said, they stood up to him and said, Get lost, David! We've had it with you, son of Jesse! Let's get out of here, Israel, and fast! From now on, David, mind your own business. And with that, they left.

<sup>20</sup> When the word was out that Jeroboam was back and available, the assembled people invited him and inaugurated him king over all Israel. The only tribe left to the Davidic dynasty was Judah.

<sup>22</sup> At this time the word of God came to Shemaiah, a man of God:

<sup>23</sup> "Tell this to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, along with everyone in Judah and Benjamin and anyone else who is around:

<sup>24</sup> This is GOD's word: Don't march out; don't fight against your brothers the Israelites; go back home, every last one of you; [I'm] in charge here." And they did it; they did what GOD said and went home.

<sup>26</sup> But then Jeroboam thought, "It won't be long before the kingdom is reunited under David.

<sup>27</sup> As soon as these people resume worship at The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem, they'll start thinking of Rehoboam king of Judah as their ruler. They'll then kill me and go back to King Rehoboam."

<sup>28</sup> So the king came up with a plan: He made two golden calves. Then he announced, "It's too much trouble for you to go to Jerusalem to worship. Look at these--the gods who brought you out of Egypt!"

<sup>29</sup> He put one calf in Bethel; the other he placed in Dan.

<sup>30</sup> This was blatant sin. Think of it--people traveling all the way to Dan to worship a calf!

<sup>31</sup> And that wasn't the end of it. Jeroboam built forbidden shrines all over the place and recruited priests from wherever he could find them, regardless of whether they were fit for the job or not.

<sup>32</sup> To top it off, he created a holy New Year festival to be held on the fifteenth day of the eighth month to replace the one in Judah, complete with worship offered on the Altar at Bethel and sacrificing before the calves he had set up there. He staffed Bethel with priests from the local shrines he had made.

<sup>33</sup> This was strictly his own idea to compete with the feast in Judah; and he carried it off with flair, a festival exclusively for Israel, Jeroboam himself leading the worship at the Altar.

13 <sup>1</sup> And then this happened: Just as Jeroboam was at the Altar, about to make an offering, a holy man came from Judah by GOD's command

<sup>2</sup> and preached (these were GOD's orders) to the Altar: "Altar, Altar! GOD's message! 'A son will be born into David's family named Josiah. The priests from the shrines who are making offerings on you, he will sacrifice--on you! Human bones burned on you!'"

<sup>3</sup> At the same time he announced a sign: "This is the proof GOD gives--the Altar will split into pieces and the holy offerings spill into the dirt."

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard the message the holy man preached against the Altar at Bethel, he reached out to grab him, yelling, "Arrest him!" But his arm was paralyzed and hung useless.

<sup>5</sup> At the same time the Altar broke apart and the holy offerings all spilled into the dirt--the very sign the holy man had announced by GOD's command.

<sup>6</sup> The king pleaded with the holy man, "Help me! Pray to your GOD for the healing of my arm." The holy man prayed for him and the king's arm was healed--as good as new!

<sup>7</sup> Then the king invited the holy man, "Join me for a meal; I have a gift for you."

<sup>8</sup> The holy man told the king, "Not on your life! You couldn't pay me enough to get me to sit down with you at a meal in this place.

<sup>10</sup> Then he left by a different road than the one on which he had walked to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup> There was an old prophet who lived in Bethel. His sons came and told him the story of what the holy man had done that day in Bethel, told him everything that had happened and what the holy man had said to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Their father said, "Which way did he go?" His sons pointed out the road that the holy man from Judah had taken.

<sup>13</sup> He told his sons, "Saddle my donkey." When they had saddled it, he got on <sup>14</sup> and rode after the holy man. He found him sitting under an oak tree. He asked him, "Are you the holy man who came from Judah?" "Yes, I am," he said.

<sup>15</sup> "Well, come home with me and have a meal."

<sup>17</sup> I'm under strict orders from GOD: 'Don't eat a crumb; don't drink a drop; and don't come back the way you came.'"

<sup>18</sup> But he said, "I am also a prophet, just like you. And an angel came to me with a message from GOD: 'Bring him home with you, and give him a good meal!'" But the man was lying.

<sup>19</sup> So the holy man went home with him and they had a meal together.

<sup>20</sup> There they were, sitting at the table together, when the word of GOD came to the prophet who had brought him back.

<sup>21</sup> He confronted the holy man who had come from Judah: "GOD's word to you: You disobeyed GOD's command; you didn't keep the strict orders your GOD gave you;

<sup>22</sup> you came back and sat down to a good meal in the very place GOD told you, 'Don't eat a crumb; don't drink a drop.' For that you're going to die far from home and not be buried in your ancestral tomb."

<sup>23</sup> When the meal was over, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him.

<sup>24</sup> Down the road a way, a lion met him and killed him. His corpse lay crumpled on the road, the lion on one side and the donkey on the other.

<sup>25</sup> Some passersby saw the corpse in a heap on the road, with the lion standing guard beside it. They went to the village where the old prophet lived and told what they had seen.

<sup>26</sup> When the prophet who had gotten him off track heard it, he said, "It's the holy man who disobeyed GOD's strict orders. GOD turned him over to the lion who knocked him around and killed him, just as GOD had told him."

the donkey standing there. The lion hadn't bothered either the corpse or the donkey.

<sup>29</sup> The old prophet loaded the corpse of the holy man on his donkey and returned it to his own town to give it a decent burial.

<sup>30</sup> He placed the body in his own tomb. The people mourned, saying, "A sad day, brother!"

<sup>32</sup> The message that he preached by GOD's command against the Altar at Bethel and against all the sex-and-religion shrines in the towns of Samaria will come true."

anyone who wanted to could be a priest at one of the local shrines.

<sup>34</sup> This was the root sin of Jeroboam's government. And it was this that ruined him.

14 <sup>1</sup> At about this time Jeroboam's son Abijah came down sick.

<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, "Do something. Disguise yourself so no one will know you are the queen and go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet lives there, the same Ahijah who told me I'd be king over this people.

<sup>3</sup> Take along ten loaves of bread, some sweet rolls, and a jug of honey. Make a visit to him and he'll tell you what's going on with our boy."

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam's wife did as she was told; she went straight to Shiloh and to Ahijah's house. Ahijah was an old man at this time, and blind, <sup>5</sup> but GOD had warned Ahijah, "Jeroboam's wife is on her way to consult with you regarding her sick son; tell her this and this and this." When she came in she was disguised.

<sup>6</sup> Ahijah heard her come through the door and said, "Welcome, wife of Jeroboam! But why the deception? I've got bad news for you.

<sup>7</sup> Go and deliver this message I received firsthand from GOD, the God of Israel, to Jeroboam: I raised you up from obscurity and made you the leader of my people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> I ripped the kingdom from the hands of David's family and gave it to you, but you weren't at all like my servant David who did what I told him and lived from his undivided heart, pleasing me.

<sup>9</sup> Instead you've set a new record in works of evil by making alien gods--tin gods! Pushing me aside and turning your back--you've made me mighty angry.

<sup>10</sup> "And I'll not put up with it: I'm bringing doom on the household of Jeroboam, killing the lot of them right down to the last male wretch in Israel, whether slave or free. They've become nothing but garbage and I'm getting rid of them.

<sup>11</sup> The ones who die in the city will be eaten by stray dogs; the ones who die out in the country will be eaten by carrion crows. GOD's decree!

<sup>12</sup> "And that's it. Go on home--the minute you step foot in town, the boy will die.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone will come to his burial, mourning his death. He is the only one in Jeroboam's family who will get a decent burial; he's the only one for whom GOD, the God of Israel, has a good word to say.

<sup>14</sup> "Then GOD will appoint a king over Israel who will wipe out Jeroboam's family, wipe them right off the map--doomsday for Jeroboam!

<sup>15</sup> He will hit Israel hard, as a storm slaps reeds about; he'll pull them up by the roots from this good land of their inheritance, weeding them out, and then scatter them to the four winds. And why? Because they made GOD so angry with Asherah sex-and-religion shrines.

<sup>16</sup> He'll wash his hands of Israel because of Jeroboam's sins, which have led Israel into a life of sin."

<sup>19</sup> The rest of Jeroboam's life, the wars he fought and the way he ruled, is written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>20</sup> He ruled for twenty-two years. He died and was buried with his ancestors. Nadab his son was king after him.

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he took the throne and was king for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city GOD selected from all the tribes of Israel for the worship of his Name. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah, an Ammonite.

<sup>22</sup> Judah was openly wicked before GOD, making him very angry. They set new records in sin, surpassing anything their ancestors had done.

<sup>23</sup> They built Asherah sex-and-religion shrines and set up sacred stones all over the place--on hills, under trees, wherever you looked.

<sup>24</sup> Worse, they had male sacred prostitutes, polluting the country outrageously--all the stuff that GOD had gotten rid of when he brought Israel into the land.

15 <sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of the rule of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah took over the throne of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> For David had lived an exemplary life before GOD all his days, not going off on his own in willful defiance of GOD's clear directions (except for that time with Uriah the Hittite).

<sup>13</sup> Asa spared nothing and no one; he went so far as to remove Queen Maacah from her position because she had built a shockingly obscene memorial to the whore goddess Asherah. Asa tore it down and burned it up in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>14</sup> Unfortunately, he didn't get rid of the local sex-and-religion shrines. But he was well-intentioned--his heart was in the right place, in tune with GOD.

<sup>15</sup> All the gold and silver vessels and artifacts that he and his father had consecrated for holy use he installed in The Temple.

<sup>16</sup> But through much of his reign there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> Baasha king of Israel started it by building a fort at Ramah and closing the border between Israel and Judah so no one could enter or leave Judah.

<sup>18</sup> Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of The Temple of GOD and the royal palace, gave it to his servants, and sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus, with this message:

<sup>21</sup> When Baasha got the report he quit fortifying Ramah and pulled back to Tirzah.

<sup>22</sup> Then King Asa issued orders to everyone in Judah--no exemptions--to haul away the logs and stones Baasha had used in the fortification of Ramah and use them to fortify Geba in Benjamin and Mizpah.

<sup>24</sup> Then Asa died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Jehoshaphat became king after him.

<sup>25</sup> Nadab son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa's rule in Judah. He was king of Israel two years.

<sup>26</sup> He was openly evil before GOD--he followed in the footsteps of his father who both sinned and made Israel sin.

<sup>27</sup> Baasha son of Ahijah of the tribe of Issachar ganged up on him and attacked him at the Philistine town of Gibbethon while Nadab and the Israelites were doing battle there.

<sup>28</sup> Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and became Israel's next king.

<sup>30</sup> --punishment for Jeroboam's sins and for making Israel sin, for making the GOD of Israel thoroughly angry.

<sup>31</sup> The rest of Nadab's life, everything else he did, is written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king in Tirzah over all Israel. He ruled twenty-four years.

<sup>34</sup> He was openly evil before GOD, walking in the footsteps of Jeroboam, who both sinned and made Israel sin.

16 <sup>1</sup> The word of GOD came to Jehu son of Hanani with this message for Baasha:

<sup>2</sup> "I took you from nothing--a complete nobody--and set you up as the leader of my people Israel, but you plodded along in the rut of Jeroboam, making my people Israel sin and making me seethe over their sin.

<sup>4</sup> Baasha's people who die in the city will be eaten by scavenger dogs; carrion crows will eat the ones who die in the country."

<sup>7</sup> That's the way it was with Baasha: Through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani, GOD's word came to him and his regime because of his life of open evil before GOD and his making GOD so angry--a chip off the block of Jeroboam, even though GOD had destroyed him.

<sup>10</sup> Zimri slipped in, knocked Elah to the ground, and killed him. This happened in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah. Zimri then became the king.

<sup>12</sup> Zimri totally wiped out the family of Baasha, just as GOD's word delivered by the prophet Jehu had said the GOD of Israel angry with their stupid idols.

<sup>14</sup> The rest of Elah's life, what he said and did, is written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>15</sup> Zimri was king in Tirzah for all of seven days during the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Asa king of Judah. The Israelite army was on maneuvers near the Philistine town of Gibbethon at the time.

<sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that he was surrounded and as good as dead, he entered the palace citadel, set the place on fire, and died.

<sup>19</sup> It was a fit end for his sins, for living a flagrantly evil life before GOD, walking in the footsteps of Jeroboam, sinning and then dragging Israel into his sins.

<sup>20</sup> As for the rest of Zimri's life, along with his infamous conspiracy, it's all written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>24</sup> He then bought the hill Samaria from Shemer for 150 pounds of silver. He developed the hill and named the city that he built Samaria, after its original owner Shemer.

<sup>25</sup> But as far as GOD was concerned, Omri lived an evil life--set new records in evil.

<sup>26</sup> He walked in the footsteps of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who not only sinned but dragged Israel into his sins, making GOD angry--such an empty-headed, empty-hearted life!

<sup>28</sup> Omri died and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab was the next king after him.

<sup>29</sup> Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah. Ahab son of Omri was king over Israel for twenty-two years. He ruled from Samaria.

<sup>30</sup> Ahab son of Omri did even more open evil before GOD than anyone yet--a new champion in evil!

<sup>31</sup> It wasn't enough for him to copy the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat; no, he went all out, first by marrying Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and then by serving and worshiping the god Baal.

<sup>32</sup> He built a temple for Baal in Samaria, and then furnished it with an altar for Baal.

<sup>33</sup> Worse, he went on and built a shrine to the sacred whore Asherah. He made the GOD of Israel angrier than all the previous kings of Israel put together.

is exactly what Joshua son of Nun said would happen.

17 <sup>1</sup> And then this happened: Elijah the Tishbite, from among the settlers of Gilead, confronted Ahab: "As surely as GOD lives, the God of Israel before whom I stand in obedient service, the next years are going to see a total drought--not a drop of dew or rain unless I say otherwise."

<sup>6</sup> And sure enough, ravens brought him his meals, both breakfast and supper, and he drank from the brook.

<sup>8</sup> Then GOD spoke to him:

<sup>9</sup> "Get up and go to Zarephath in Sidon and live there. I've instructed a woman who lives there, a widow, to feed you."

<sup>10</sup> So he got up and went to Zarephath. As he came to the entrance of the village he met a woman, a widow, gathering firewood. He asked her, "Please, would you bring me a little water in a jug? I need a drink."

<sup>11</sup> As she went to get it, he called out, "And while you're at it, would you bring me something to eat?"

<sup>12</sup> She said, "I swear, as surely as your GOD lives, I don't have so much as a biscuit. I have a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a bottle; you found me scratching together just enough firewood to make a last meal for my son and me. After we eat it, we'll die."

<sup>13</sup> Elijah said to her, "Don't worry about a thing. Go ahead and do what you've said. But first make a small biscuit for me and bring it back here. Then go ahead and make a meal from what's left for you and your son.

<sup>14</sup> This is the word of the GOD of Israel: 'The jar of flour will not run out and the bottle of oil will not become empty before GOD sends rain on the land and ends this drought.'"

<sup>15</sup> And she went right off and did it, did just as Elijah asked. And it turned out as he said--daily food for her and her family.

<sup>16</sup> The jar of meal didn't run out and the bottle of oil didn't become empty: GOD's promise fulfilled to the letter, exactly as Elijah had delivered it!

<sup>17</sup> Later on the woman's son became sick. The sickness took a turn for the worse--and then he stopped breathing.

<sup>18</sup> The woman said to Elijah, "Why did you ever show up here in the first place--a holy man barging in, exposing my sins, and killing my son?"

<sup>19</sup> Elijah said, "Hand me your son." He then took him from her bosom, carried him up to the loft where he was staying, and laid him on his bed.

<sup>20</sup> Then he prayed, "O GOD, my God, why have you brought this terrible thing on this widow who has opened her home to me? Why have you killed her son?"

<sup>21</sup> Three times he stretched himself out full-length on the boy, praying with all his might, "GOD, my God, put breath back into this boy's body!"

<sup>22</sup> GOD listened to Elijah's prayer and put breath back into his body--he was alive!

<sup>23</sup> Elijah picked the boy up, carried him downstairs from the loft, and gave him to his mother. "Here's your son," said Elijah, "alive!"

<sup>24</sup> The woman said to Elijah, "I see it all now--you [are] a holy man. When you speak, GOD speaks--a true word!"

18 <sup>1</sup> A long time passed. Then GOD's word came to Elijah. The drought was now in its third year. The message: "Go and present yourself to Ahab; I'm about to make it rain on the country."

<sup>2</sup> Elijah set out to present himself to Ahab. The drought in Samaria at the time was most severe.

<sup>3</sup> Ahab called for Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. Obadiah feared GOD--he was very devout.

<sup>4</sup> Earlier, when Jezebel had tried to kill off all the prophets of GOD, Obadiah had hidden away a hundred of them in two caves, fifty in a cave, and then supplied them with food and water.

<sup>5</sup> Ahab ordered Obadiah, "Go through the country; locate every spring and every stream. Let's see if we can find enough grass to keep our horses and mules from dying."

<sup>6</sup> So they divided the country between them for the search--Ahab went one way, Obadiah the other.

<sup>7</sup> Obadiah went his way and suddenly there he was--Elijah! Obadiah fell on his knees, bowing in reverence, and exclaimed, "Is it really you--my master Elijah?"

<sup>8</sup> "Yes," said Elijah, "the real me. Now go and tell your boss, 'I've seen Elijah.'"

<sup>9</sup> Obadiah said, "But what have I done to deserve this? Ahab will kill me.

<sup>10</sup> As surely as your GOD lives, there isn't a country or kingdom where my master hasn't sent out search parties looking for you. And if they said, 'We can't find him; we've looked high and low,' he would make that country or kingdom swear that you were not to be found.

<sup>12</sup> The minute I leave you the Spirit of GOD will whisk you away to who knows where. Then when I report to Ahab, you'll have disappeared and Ahab will kill me. And I've served GOD devoutly since I was a boy!

<sup>13</sup> Hasn't anyone told you what I did when Jezebel was out to kill the prophets of GOD, how I risked my life by hiding a hundred of them, fifty to a cave, and made sure they got food and water?

<sup>14</sup> And now you're telling me to draw attention to myself by announcing to my master, 'Elijah's been found.' Why, he'll kill me for sure."

<sup>15</sup> Elijah said, "As surely as GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies lives, and before whom I take my stand, I'll meet with your master face to face this very day."

<sup>16</sup> So Obadiah went straight to Ahab and told him. And Ahab went out to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> The moment Ahab saw Elijah he said, "So it's you, old troublemaker!"

<sup>18</sup> "It's not I who has caused trouble in Israel," said Elijah, "but you and your government--you've dumped GOD's ways and commands and run off after the local gods, the Baals.

<sup>19</sup> Here's what I want you to do: Assemble everyone in Israel at Mount Carmel. And make sure that the special pets of Jezebel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of the local gods, the Baals, and the four hundred prophets of the whore goddess Asherah, are there."

<sup>21</sup> Elijah challenged the people: "How long are you going to sit on the fence? If GOD is the real God, follow him; if it's Baal, follow him. Make up your minds!" Nobody said a word; nobody made a move.

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said, "I'm the only prophet of GOD left in Israel; and there are four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal.

<sup>23</sup> Let the Baal prophets bring up two oxen; let them pick one, butcher it, and lay it out on an altar on firewood--but don't ignite it. I'll take the other ox, cut it up, and lay it on the wood. But neither will I light the fire.

<sup>24</sup> Then you pray to your gods and I'll pray to GOD. The god who answers with fire will prove to be, in fact, God." All the people agreed: "A good plan--do it!"

<sup>25</sup> Elijah told the Baal prophets, "Choose your ox and prepare it. You go first, you're the majority. Then pray to your god, but don't light the fire."

<sup>26</sup> So they took the ox he had given them, prepared it for the altar, then prayed to Baal. They prayed all morning long, "O Baal, answer us!" But nothing happened--not so much as a whisper of breeze. Desperate, they jumped and stomped on the altar they had made.

<sup>27</sup> By noon, Elijah had started making fun of them, taunting, "Call a little louder--he is a god, after all. Maybe he's off meditating somewhere or other, or maybe he's gotten involved in a project, or maybe he's on vacation. You don't suppose he's overslept, do you, and needs to be waked up?"

<sup>28</sup> They prayed louder and louder, cutting themselves with swords and knives--a ritual common to them--until they were covered with blood.

<sup>29</sup> This went on until well past noon. They used every religious trick and strategy they knew to make something happen on the altar, but nothing happened--not so much as a whisper, not a flicker of response.

<sup>30</sup> Then Elijah told the people, "Enough of that--it's my turn. Gather around." And they gathered. He then put the altar back together for by now it was in ruins.

<sup>31</sup> Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes of Jacob, the same Jacob to whom GOD had said, "From now on your name is Israel."

<sup>32</sup> He built the stones into the altar in honor of GOD. Then Elijah dug a fairly wide trench around the altar.

<sup>33</sup> He laid firewood on the altar, cut up the ox, put it on the wood, and said, "Fill four buckets with water and drench both the ox and the firewood."

<sup>34</sup> Then he said, "Do it again," and they did it. Then he said, "Do it a third time,"

<sup>35</sup> and they did it a third time. The altar was drenched and the trench was filled with water.

<sup>36</sup> When it was time for the sacrifice to be offered, Elijah the prophet came up and prayed, "O GOD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, make it known right now that you are God in Israel, that I am your servant, and that I'm doing what I'm doing under your orders.

<sup>37</sup> Answer me, GOD; O answer me and reveal to this people that you are GOD, the true God, and that you are giving these people another chance at repentance."

<sup>38</sup> Immediately the fire of GOD fell and burned up the offering, the wood, the stones, the dirt, and even the water in the trench.

<sup>39</sup> All the people saw it happen and fell on their faces in awed worship, exclaiming, "GOD is the true God! GOD is the true God!"

<sup>41</sup> Elijah said to Ahab, "Up on your feet! Eat and drink--celebrate! Rain is on the way; I hear it coming."

<sup>42</sup> Ahab did it: got up and ate and drank. Meanwhile, Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bowed deeply in prayer, his face between his knees.

<sup>43</sup> Then he said to his young servant, "On your feet now! Look toward the sea." He went, looked, and reported back, "I don't see a thing." "Keep looking," said Elijah, "seven times if necessary."

<sup>44</sup> And sure enough, the seventh time he said, "Oh yes, a cloud! But very small, no bigger than someone's hand, rising out of the sea." "Quickly then, on your way. Tell Ahab, 'Saddle up and get down from the mountain before the rain stops you.'"

19 <sup>1</sup> Ahab reported to Jezebel everything that Elijah had done, including the massacre of the prophets.

<sup>3</sup> When Elijah saw how things were, he ran for dear life to Beersheba, far in the south of Judah. He left his young servant there

<sup>4</sup> and then went on into the desert another day's journey. He came to a lone broom bush and collapsed in its shade, wanting in the worst way to be done with it all--to just die: "Enough of this, GOD! Take my life--I'm ready to join my ancestors in the grave!"

<sup>5</sup> Exhausted, he fell asleep under the lone broom bush. Suddenly an angel shook him awake and said, "Get up and eat!"

<sup>6</sup> He looked around and, to his surprise, right by his head were a loaf of bread baked on some coals and a jug of water. He ate the meal and went back to sleep.

<sup>7</sup> The angel of GOD came back, shook him awake again, and said, "Get up and eat some more--you've got a long journey ahead of you."

<sup>8</sup> He got up, ate and drank his fill, and set out. Nourished by that meal, he walked forty days and nights, all the way to the mountain of God, to Horeb.

<sup>9</sup> When he got there, he crawled into a cave and went to sleep. Then the word of GOD came to him: "So Elijah, what are you doing here?"

<sup>10</sup> "I've been working my heart out for the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies," said Elijah. "The people of Israel have abandoned your covenant, destroyed the places of worship, and murdered your prophets. I'm the only one left, and now they're trying to kill me."

<sup>11</sup> Then he was told, "Go, stand on the mountain at attention before GOD. GOD will pass by." A hurricane wind ripped through the mountains and shattered the rocks before GOD, but GOD wasn't to be found in the wind; after the wind an earthquake, but GOD wasn't in the earthquake;

<sup>12</sup> and after the earthquake fire, but GOD wasn't in the fire; and after the fire a gentle and quiet whisper.

<sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard the quiet voice, he muffled his face with his great cloak, went to the mouth of the cave, and stood there. A quiet voice asked, "So Elijah, now tell me, what are you doing here?"

<sup>14</sup> Elijah said it again, "I've been working my heart out for GOD, the GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, because the people of Israel have abandoned your covenant, destroyed your places of worship, and murdered your prophets. I'm the only one left, and now they're trying to kill me."

<sup>15</sup> GOD said, "Go back the way you came through the desert to Damascus. When you get there anoint Hazael; make him king over Aram.

<sup>16</sup> Then anoint Jehu son of Nimshi; make him king over Israel. Finally, anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

<sup>17</sup> Anyone who escapes death by Hazael will be killed by Jehu; and anyone who escapes death by Jehu will be killed by Elisha.

<sup>18</sup> Meanwhile, I'm preserving for myself seven thousand souls: the knees that haven't bowed to the god Baal, the mouths that haven't kissed his image."

<sup>19</sup> Elijah went straight out and found Elisha son of Shaphat in a field where there were twelve pairs of yoked oxen at work plowing; Elisha was in charge of the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak over him.

<sup>20</sup> Elisha deserted the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please! Let me kiss my father and mother good-bye--then I'll follow you." "Go ahead," said Elijah, "but, mind you, don't forget what I've just done to you."

20<sup>1</sup> At about this same time Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his troops. He recruited in addition thirty-two local sheiks, all outfitted with horses and chariots. He set out in force and surrounded Samaria, ready to make war.

<sup>2</sup> He sent an envoy into the city to set his terms before Ahab king of Israel:

<sup>4</sup> The king of Israel accepted the terms: "As you say, distinguished lord; I and everything I have is yours."

<sup>5</sup> But then the envoy returned a second time, saying, "On second thought, I want it all--your silver and gold and all your wives and sons. Hand them over--the whole works.

<sup>6</sup> I'll give you twenty-four hours; then my servants will arrive to search your palace and the houses of your officials and loot them; anything that strikes their fancy, they'll take."

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel called a meeting of all his tribal elders. He said, "Look at this--outrageous! He's just looking for trouble. He means to clean me out, demanding all my women and children. And after I already agreed to pay him off handsomely!"

<sup>8</sup> The elders, backed by the people, said, "Don't cave in to him. Don't give an inch."

<sup>9</sup> So he sent an envoy to Ben-Hadad, "Tell my distinguished lord, 'I agreed to the terms you delivered the first time, but this I can't do--this I won't do!'" The envoy went back and delivered the answer.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel countered, "Think about it--it's easier to start a fight than end one."

<sup>12</sup> It happened that when Ben-Hadad heard this retort he was into some heavy drinking, boozing it up with the sheiks in their field shelters. Drunkenly, he ordered his henchmen, "Go after them!" And they attacked the city.

<sup>13</sup> Just then a lone prophet approached Ahab king of Israel and said, "GOD's word: Have you taken a good look at this mob? Well, look again--I'm turning it over to you this very day. And you'll know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that I am GOD."

<sup>14</sup> Ahab said, "Really? And who is going to make this happen?" GOD said, "The young commandos of the regional chiefs." "And who," said Ahab, "will strike the first blow?" GOD said, "You."

<sup>15</sup> Ahab looked over the commandos of the regional chiefs; he counted 232. Then he assessed the available troops--7,000.

<sup>16</sup> At noon they set out after Ben-Hadad who, with his allies, the thirty-two sheiks, was busy at serious drinking in the field shelters.

<sup>17</sup> The commandos of the regional chiefs made up the vanguard. A report was brought to Ben-Hadad: "Men are on their way from Samaria."

<sup>18</sup> He said, "If they've come in peace, take them alive as hostages; if they've come to fight, the same--take them alive as hostages."

But Ben-Hadad king of Aram got away on horseback, along with his cavalry.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Israel cut down both horses and chariots--an enormous defeat for Aram.

<sup>22</sup> Sometime later the prophet came to the king of Israel and said, "On the alert now--build up your army, assess your capabilities, and see what has to be done. Before the year is out, the king of Aram will be back in force."

<sup>23</sup> Meanwhile the advisors to the king of Aram said, "Their god is a god of the mountains--we don't stand a chance against them there. So let's engage them on the plain where we'll have the advantage.

<sup>24</sup> Here's the strategy: Remove each sheik from his place of leadership and replace him with a seasoned officer.

deserted earlier--horse for horse, chariot for chariot. And we'll fight them on the plain--we're sure to prove stronger than they are." It sounded good to the king; he did what they advised.

<sup>26</sup> As the new year approached, Ben-Hadad rallied Aram and they went up to Aphek to make war on Israel.

<sup>27</sup> The Israelite army prepared to fight and took the field to meet Aram. They moved into battle formation before Aram in two camps, like two flocks of goats. The plain was seething with Arameans.

<sup>28</sup> Just then a holy man approached the king of Israel saying, "This is GOD's word: Because Aram said, 'GOD is a god of the mountains and not a god of the valleys,' I'll hand over this huge mob of an army to you. Then you'll know that I am GOD."

<sup>29</sup> The two armies were poised in a standoff for seven days. On the seventh day fighting broke out. The Israelites killed 100,000 of the Aramean infantry in one day.

<sup>30</sup> The rest of the army ran for their lives back to the city, Aphek, only to have the city wall fall on 27,000 of the survivors. Ben-Hadad escaped into the city and hid in a closet.

<sup>31</sup> Then his advisors told him, "Look, we've heard that the kings of Israel play by the rules; let's dress in old gunnysacks, carry a white flag of truce, and present ourselves to the king of Israel on the chance that he'll let you live."

<sup>32</sup> So that's what they did. They dressed in old gunnysacks and carried a white flag, and came to the king of Israel saying, "Your servant Ben-Hadad said, 'Please let me live.'" Ahab said, "You mean to tell me that he's still alive? If he's alive, he's my brother."

<sup>33</sup> The men took this as a good sign and concluded that everything was going to be all right: "Ben-Hadad is most certainly your brother!" The king said, "Go and get him." They went and brought him back by chariot.

<sup>34</sup> Ahab said, "I am prepared to return the cities that my father took from your father. And you can set up your headquarters in Damascus just as my father did in Samaria; I'll send you home under safe conduct." Then he made a covenant with him and sent him off.

<sup>35</sup> A man who was one of the prophets said to a bystander, "Hit me; wound me. Do it for GOD's sake--it's his command. Hit me; wound me." But the man wouldn't do it.

<sup>36</sup> So he told him, "Because you wouldn't obey GOD's orders, as soon as you leave me a lion will attack you." No sooner had the man left his side than a lion met him and attacked.

<sup>37</sup> He then found another man and said, "Hit me; wound me." That man did it--hit him hard in the face, drawing blood.

<sup>38</sup> Then the prophet went and took a position along the road, with a bandage over his eyes, waiting for the king.

<sup>39</sup> It wasn't long before the king happened by. The man cried out to the king, "Your servant was in the thick of the battle when a man showed up and turned over a prisoner to me, saying, 'Guard this man with your life; if he turns up missing you'll pay dearly.'

<sup>40</sup> But I got busy doing one thing after another and the next time I looked he was gone." The king of Israel said, "You've just pronounced your own verdict."

<sup>41</sup> At that, the man ripped the bandage off his eyes and the king recognized who he was--one of the prophets!

<sup>42</sup> The man said to the king, "GOD's word: Because you let a man go who was under sentence by GOD, it's now your life for his, your people for his."

<sup>43</sup> The king of Israel went home in a sulk. He arrived in Samaria in a very bad mood.

21 <sup>1</sup> And then, to top it off, came this: Naboth the Jezreelite owned a vineyard in Jezreel that bordered the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

<sup>2</sup> One day Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard so I can use it as a kitchen garden; it's right next to my house--so convenient. In exchange I'll give you a far better vineyard, or if you'd prefer I'll pay you money for it."

<sup>3</sup> But Naboth told Ahab, "Not on your life! So help me GOD, I'd never sell the family farm to you!"

<sup>4</sup> Ahab went home in a black mood, sulking over Naboth the Jezreelite's words, "I'll never turn over my family inheritance to you." He went to bed, stuffed his face in his pillow, and refused to eat.

<sup>5</sup> Jezebel his wife came to him. She said, "What's going on? Why are you so out of sorts and refusing to eat?"

<sup>6</sup> He told her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite. I said, 'Give me your vineyard--I'll pay you for it or, if you'd rather, I'll give you another vineyard in exchange.' And he said, 'I'll never give you my vineyard.'"

<sup>7</sup> Jezebel said, "Is this any way for a king of Israel to act? Aren't you the boss? On your feet! Eat! Cheer up! I'll take care of this; I'll get the vineyard of this Naboth the Jezreelite for you."

<sup>10</sup> Then seat a couple of stool pigeons across from him who, in front of everybody will say, 'You! You blasphemed God and the king!' Then they'll throw him out and stone him to death."

<sup>11</sup> And they did it. The men of the city--the elders and civic leaders--followed Jezebel's instructions that she wrote in the letters sent to them.

Naboth. In front of everybody the two degenerates accused him, "He blasphemed God and the king!" The company threw him out in the street, stoned him mercilessly, and he died.

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel got word that Naboth had been stoned to death, she told Ahab, "Go for it, Ahab--take the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite for your own, the vineyard he refused to sell you. Naboth is no more; Naboth is dead."

<sup>17</sup> Then GOD stepped in and spoke to Elijah the Tishbite, <sup>18</sup> "On your feet; go down and confront Ahab of Samaria, king of Israel. You'll find him in the vineyard of Naboth; he's gone there to claim it as his own.

<sup>19</sup> Say this to him: 'GOD's word: What's going on here? First murder, then theft?' Then tell him, 'GOD's verdict: The very spot where the dogs lapped up Naboth's blood, they'll lap up your blood--that's right, your blood.'" <sup>20</sup> Ahab answered Elijah, "My enemy! So, you've run me down!" "Yes, I've found you out," said Elijah. "And because you've bought into the business of evil, defying GOD.

<sup>21</sup> 'I will most certainly bring doom upon you, make mincemeat of your descendants, kill off every sorry male wretch who's even remotely connected with the name Ahab.

<sup>22</sup> And I'll bring down on you the same fate that fell on Jeroboam son of Nebat and Baasha son of Ahijah--you've made me [that] angry by making Israel sin.'"

<sup>23</sup> As for Jezebel, GOD said, "Dogs will fight over the flesh of Jezebel all over Jezreel.

<sup>24</sup> Anyone tainted by Ahab who dies in the city will be eaten by stray dogs; corpses in the country will be eaten by carrion crows."

<sup>26</sup> He indulged in outrageous obscenities in the world of idols, copying the Amorites whom GOD had earlier kicked out of Israelite territory.

<sup>27</sup> When Ahab heard what Elijah had to say, he ripped his clothes to shreds, dressed in penitential rough burlap, and fasted. He even slept in coarse burlap pajamas. He tiptoed around, quiet as a mouse.

<sup>28</sup> Then GOD spoke to Elijah the Tishbite:

<sup>29</sup> "Do you see how penitently submissive Ahab has become to me? Because of his repentance I'll not bring the doom during his lifetime; Ahab's son, though, will get it."

22 <sup>1</sup> They enjoyed three years of peace--no fighting between Aram and Israel.

<sup>2</sup> In the third year, Jehoshaphat king of Judah had a meeting with the king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Israel's king remarked to his aides, "Do you realize that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us, and we're sitting around on our hands instead of taking it back from the king of Aram?"

<sup>4</sup> He turned to Jehoshaphat and said, "Will you join me in fighting for Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said, "You bet. I'm with you all the way--my troops are your troops, my horses are your horses."

<sup>6</sup> The king of Israel got the prophets together--all four hundred of them--and put the question to them: "Should I attack Ramoth Gilead? Or should I hold back?" "Go for it," they said. "GOD will hand it over to the king."

<sup>7</sup> But Jehoshaphat dragged his heels: "Is there still another prophet of GOD around here we can consult?"

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat, "As a matter of fact, there is still one such man. But I hate him. He never preaches anything good to me, only doom, doom, doom--Micaiah son of Imlah." "The king shouldn't talk about a prophet like that," said Jehoshaphat.

<sup>12</sup> All the prophets chimed in, "Yes! Go for Ramoth Gilead! An easy victory! GOD's gift to the king!"

<sup>13</sup> The messenger who went to get Micaiah said, "The prophets have all said Yes to the king. Make it unanimous--vote Yes!"

<sup>14</sup> But Micaiah said, "As surely as GOD lives, what GOD says, I'll say."

<sup>15</sup> With Micaiah before him, the king asked him, "So Micaiah--do we attack Ramoth Gilead, or do we hold back?"

"Go ahead," he said. "An easy victory. GOD's gift to the king."

<sup>16</sup> "Not so fast," said the king. "How many times have I made you promise under oath to tell me the truth and nothing but the truth?"

<sup>17</sup> "All right," said Micaiah, "since you insist. I saw all of Israel scattered over the hills, sheep with no shepherd. Then GOD spoke: 'These poor people have no one to tell them what to do. Let them go home and do the best they can for themselves.'"

<sup>18</sup> Then the king of Israel turned to Jehoshaphat, "See! What did I tell you? He never has a good word for me from GOD, only doom."

<sup>19</sup> Micaiah kept on: "I'm not done yet; listen to GOD's word: I saw GOD enthroned, and all the angel armies of heaven Standing at attention ranged on his right and his left.

<sup>20</sup> And GOD said, 'How can we seduce Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead?' Some said this, and some said that.

<sup>21</sup> Then a bold angel stepped out, stood before GOD, and said, 'I'll seduce him.' 'And how will you do it?' said GOD.

<sup>22</sup> 'Easy,' said the angel, 'I'll get all the prophets to lie.' 'That should do it,' said GOD. 'On your way--seduce him!'

<sup>23</sup> "And that's what has happened. GOD filled the mouths of your puppet prophets with seductive lies. GOD has pronounced your doom."

<sup>24</sup> Just then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah came up and punched Micaiah in the nose, saying, "Since when did the Spirit of GOD leave me and take up with you?"

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah said, "You'll know soon enough; you'll know it when you're frantically and futilely looking for a place to hide."

<sup>27</sup> with this message, 'King's orders: Lock him up in jail; keep him on bread and water until I'm back in one piece.'"

<sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, "If you ever get back in one piece, I'm no prophet of GOD." He added, "When it happens, O people, remember where you heard it!"

<sup>30</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Wear my kingly robe; I'm going into battle disguised." So the king of Israel entered the battle in disguise.

with anyone, whether small or great; go after the king of Israel and him only."

<sup>32</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat they said, "There he is! The king of Israel!" and took after him. Jehoshaphat yelled out,

<sup>36</sup> As the sun went down, shouts reverberated through the ranks, "Abandon camp! Head for home!

<sup>37</sup> The king is dead!" The king was brought to Samaria and there they buried him.

<sup>38</sup> They washed down the chariot at the pool of Samaria where the town whores bathed, and the dogs lapped up the blood, just as GOD's word had said.

<sup>39</sup> The rest of Ahab's life--everything he did, the ivory palace he built, the towns he founded, and the defense system he built up--is all written up in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>40</sup> He was buried in the family cemetery and his son Ahaziah was the next king.

<sup>41</sup> Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

<sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king and he ruled for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

made it; they shipwrecked at Ezion Geber.

<sup>49</sup> During that time Ahaziah son of Ahab proposed a joint shipping venture, but Jehoshaphat wouldn't go in with him.

<sup>50</sup> Then Jehoshaphat died and was buried in the family cemetery in the City of David his ancestor. Jehoram his son was the next king.

<sup>51</sup> Ahaziah son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He ruled Israel for two years.

<sup>52</sup> As far as GOD was concerned, he lived an evil life, reproducing the bad life of his father and mother, repeating the pattern set down by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>53</sup> Worshiping at the Baal shrines, he made GOD, the God of Israel, angry, oh, so angry. If anything, he was worse than his father.

2 Kings

1 <sup>1</sup> After Ahab died, Moab rebelled against Israel.

<sup>2</sup> One day Ahaziah fell through the balcony railing on the rooftop of his house in Samaria and was injured. He sent messengers off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, "Am I going to recover from this accident?"

<sup>3</sup> GOD's angel spoke to Elijah the Tishbite: "Up on your feet! Go out and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria with this word, 'Is it because there's no God in Israel that you're running off to consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron?'"

<sup>4</sup> Here's a message from the GOD you've tried to bypass: 'You're not going to get out of that bed you're in--you're as good as dead already.'" Elijah delivered the message and was gone.

<sup>5</sup> The messengers went back. The king said, "So why are you back so soon--what's going on?"

<sup>6</sup> They told him, "A man met us and said, 'Turn around and go back to the king who sent you; tell him, GOD's message: Is it because there's no God in Israel that you're running off to consult Baal-Zebub god of Ekron? You needn't bother. You're not going to get out of that bed you're in--you're as good as dead already.'"

<sup>7</sup> The king said, "Tell me more about this man who met you and said these things to you. What was he like?"

<sup>8</sup> "Shaggy," they said, "and wearing a leather belt." He said, "That has to be Elijah the Tishbite!"

<sup>9</sup> The king sent a captain with fifty men to Elijah. Meanwhile Elijah was sitting, big as life, on top of a hill. The captain said, "O Holy Man! King's orders: Come down!"

<sup>10</sup> Elijah answered the captain of the fifty, "If it's true that I'm a 'holy man,' lightning strike you and your fifty men!" Out of the blue lightning struck and incinerated the captain and his fifty.

<sup>12</sup> Elijah answered, "If it's true that I'm a 'holy man,' lightning strike you and your fifty men!" Immediately a divine lightning bolt struck and incinerated the captain and his fifty.

<sup>14</sup> Twice now lightning from out of the blue has struck and incinerated captains with their fifty men; please, I beg you, respect my life!"

<sup>15</sup> The angel of GOD told Elijah, "Go ahead; and don't be afraid." Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup> Elijah told him, "GOD's word: Because you sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron, as if there were no God in Israel to whom you could pray, you'll never get out of that bed alive--already you're as good as dead."

<sup>17</sup> And he died, exactly as GOD's word spoken by Elijah had said. Because Ahaziah had no son, his brother Joram became the next king. The succession took place in the second year of the reign of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to Bethel." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" So they both went to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup> The guild of prophets at Bethel met Elisha and said, "Did you know that GOD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes," he said, "I know it. But keep it quiet."

<sup>4</sup> Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to Jericho." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" So they both went to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup> The guild of prophets at Jericho came to Elisha and said, "Did you know that GOD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes," he said, "I know it. But keep it quiet."

<sup>6</sup> Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here. GOD has sent me on an errand to the Jordan." Elisha said, "Not on your life! I'm not letting you out of my sight!" And so the two of them went their way together.

<sup>8</sup> Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and hit the water with it. The river divided and the two men walked through on dry land.

<sup>9</sup> When they reached the other side, Elijah said to Elisha, "What can I do for you before I'm taken from you? Ask anything." Elisha said, "Your life repeated in my life. I want to be a holy man just like you."

<sup>10</sup> "That's a hard one!" said Elijah. "But if you're watching when I'm taken from you, you'll get what you've asked for. But only if you're watching."

<sup>11</sup> And so it happened. They were walking along and talking. Suddenly a chariot and horses of fire came between them and Elijah went up in a whirlwind to heaven.

<sup>12</sup> Elisha saw it all and shouted, "My father, my father! You--the chariot and cavalry of Israel!" When he could no longer see anything, he grabbed his robe and ripped it to pieces.

<sup>13</sup> Then he picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him, returned to the shore of the Jordan, and stood there.

<sup>14</sup> He took Elijah's cloak--all that was left of Elijah!--and hit the river with it, saying, "Now where is the GOD of Elijah? Where is he?" When he struck the water, the river divided and Elisha walked through.

<sup>15</sup> The guild of prophets from Jericho saw the whole thing from where they were standing. They said, "The spirit of Elijah lives in Elisha!" They welcomed and honored him.

<sup>16</sup> They then said, "We're at your service. We have fifty reliable men here; let's send them out to look for your master. Maybe GOD's spirit has swept him off to some mountain or dropped him into a remote ravine." Elisha said, "No. Don't send them."

<sup>17</sup> But they pestered him until he caved in: "Go ahead then. Send them." So they sent the fifty men off. For three days they looked, searching high and low. Nothing.

<sup>18</sup> Finally, they returned to Elisha in Jericho. He told them, "So there--didn't I tell you?"

<sup>19</sup> One day the men of the city said to Elisha, "You can see for yourself, master, how well our city is located. But the water is polluted and nothing grows."

<sup>20</sup> He said, "Bring me a brand-new bowl and put some salt in it." They brought it to him.

<sup>21</sup> He then went to the spring, sprinkled the salt into it, and proclaimed, "GOD's word: I've healed this water. It will no longer kill you or poison your land."

<sup>22</sup> And sure enough, the water was healed--and remains so to this day, just as Elisha said.

<sup>24</sup> Elisha turned, took one look at them, and cursed them in the name of GOD. Two bears charged out of the underbrush and knocked them about, ripping them limb from limb--forty-two children in all!

<sup>25</sup> Elisha went on to Mount Carmel, and then returned to Samaria.

3 <sup>1</sup> Joram son of Ahab began his rule over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He was king for twelve years.

<sup>2</sup> In GOD's sight he was a bad king. But he wasn't as bad as his father and mother--to his credit he destroyed the obscene Baal stone that his father had made.

<sup>3</sup> But he hung on to the sinful practices of Jeroboam son of Nebat, the ones that had corrupted Israel for so long. He wasn't about to give them up.

<sup>4</sup> King Mesha of Moab raised sheep. He was forced to give the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and another hundred thousand rams.

<sup>7</sup> His first move was to send a message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Would you join me and fight him?" "I'm with you all the way," said Jehoshaphat. "My troops are your troops, my horses are your horses.

<sup>9</sup> The king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom started out on what proved to be a looping detour. After seven days they had run out of water for both army and animals.

<sup>10</sup> The king of Israel said, "Bad news! GOD has gotten us three kings out here to dump us into the hand of Moab."

<sup>11</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of GOD anywhere around through whom we can consult GOD?" One of the servants of the king of Israel said, "Elisha son of Shaphat is around somewhere--the one who was Elijah's right-hand man."

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, "Good! A man we can trust!" So the three of them--the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom--went to meet him.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha addressed the king of Israel, "What do you and I have in common? Go consult the puppet-prophets of your father and mother." "Never!" said the king of Israel. "It's GOD who has gotten us into this fix, dumping all three of us kings into the hand of Moab."

<sup>14</sup> Elisha said, "As GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies lives, and before whom I stand ready to serve, if it weren't for the respect I have for Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I wouldn't give you the time of day.

<sup>15</sup> But considering--bring me a minstrel." (When a minstrel played, the power of GOD came on Elisha.)

<sup>16</sup> He then said, "GOD's word: Dig ditches all over this valley.

<sup>17</sup> Here's what will happen--you won't hear the wind, you won't see the rain, but this valley is going to fill up with water and your army and your animals will drink their fill.

<sup>18</sup> This is easy for GOD to do; he will also hand over Moab to you.

<sup>19</sup> You will ravage the country: Knock out its fortifications, level the key villages, clear-cut the orchards, clog the springs, and litter the cultivated fields with stones."

<sup>20</sup> In the morning--it was at the hour of morning sacrifice--the water had arrived, water pouring in from the west, from Edom, a flash-flood filling the valley with water.

<sup>21</sup> By this time everyone in Moab had heard that the kings had come up to make war against them. Everyone who was able to handle a sword was called into service and took a stand at the border.

<sup>23</sup> "Blood! Look at the blood!" they said. "The kings must have fought each other--a bloody massacre! Go for the loot, Moab!"

lives, Israelites relentless in pursuit--a slaughter.

<sup>25</sup> They leveled the towns, littered the cultivated fields with rocks, clogged the springs, and clear-cut the orchards. Only the capital, Kir Hareseth, was left intact, and that not for long; it too was surrounded and attacked with thrown and flung rocks.

<sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab realized that he was fighting a losing battle, he took seven hundred swordsmen to hack a corridor past the king of Edom, but they didn't make it.

<sup>27</sup> Then he took his son, his firstborn who would succeed him as king, and sacrificed him on the city wall. That set off furious anger against Israel. Israel pulled back and returned home.

4 <sup>1</sup> One day the wife of a man from the guild of prophets called out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead. You well know what a good man he was, devoted to GOD. And now the man to whom he was in debt is on his way to collect by taking my two children as slaves."

<sup>2</sup> Elisha said, "I wonder how I can be of help. Tell me, what do you have in your house?" "Nothing," she said. "Well, I do have a little oil."

<sup>3</sup> "Here's what you do," said Elisha. "Go up and down the street and borrow jugs and bowls from all your neighbors. And not just a few--all you can get.

<sup>4</sup> Then come home and lock the door behind you, you and your sons. Pour oil into each container; when each is full, set it aside."

<sup>5</sup> She did what he said. She locked the door behind her and her sons; as they brought the containers to her, she filled them.

<sup>6</sup> When all the jugs and bowls were full, she said to one of her sons, "Another jug, please." He said, "That's it. There are no more jugs." Then the oil stopped.

<sup>7</sup> She went and told the story to the man of God. He said, "Go sell the oil and make good on your debts. Live, both you and your sons, on what's left."

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha passed through Shunem. A leading lady of the town talked him into stopping for a meal. And then it became his custom: Whenever he passed through, he stopped by for a meal.

<sup>9</sup> "I'm certain," said the woman to her husband, "that this man who stops by with us all the time is a holy man of God.

<sup>10</sup> Why don't we add on a small room upstairs and furnish it with a bed and desk, chair and lamp, so that when he comes by he can stay with us?"

<sup>11</sup> And so it happened that the next time Elisha came by he went to the room and lay down for a nap.

<sup>12</sup> Then he said to his servant Gehazi, "Tell the Shunammite woman I want to see her." He called her and she came to him.

<sup>13</sup> Through Gehazi Elisha said, "You've gone far beyond the call of duty in taking care of us; what can we do for you? Do you have a request we can bring to the king or to the commander of the army?" She replied, "Nothing. I'm secure and satisfied in my family."

<sup>14</sup> Elisha conferred with Gehazi: "There's got to be something we can do for her. But what?" Gehazi said, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is an old man."

<sup>15</sup> "Call her in," said Elisha. He called her and she stood at the open door.

<sup>16</sup> Elisha said to her, "This time next year you're going to be nursing an infant son." "O my master, O Holy Man," she said, "don't play games with me, teasing me with such fantasies!"

<sup>17</sup> The woman conceived. A year later, just as Elisha had said, she had a son.

<sup>18</sup> The child grew up. One day he went to his father, who was working with the harvest hands,

<sup>21</sup> She took him up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut him in alone, and left.

to the Holy Man; I'll be back as soon as I can."

<sup>23</sup> "But why today? This isn't a holy day--it's neither New Moon nor Sabbath." She said, "Don't ask questions; I need to go right now. Trust me."

<sup>24</sup> She went ahead and saddled the donkey, ordering her servant, "Take the lead--and go as fast as you can; I'll tell you if you're going too fast."

<sup>25</sup> And so off she went. She came to the Holy Man at Mount Carmel. The Holy Man, spotting her while she was still a long way off, said to his servant Gehazi, "Look out there; why, it's the Shunammite woman!

<sup>26</sup> Quickly now. Ask her, 'Is something wrong? Are you all right? Your husband? Your child?'" She said, "Everything's fine."

<sup>27</sup> But when she reached the Holy Man at the mountain, she threw herself at his feet and held tightly to him. Gehazi came up to pull her away, but the Holy Man said, "Leave her alone--can't you see that she's in distress? But GOD hasn't let me in on why; I'm completely in the dark."

<sup>28</sup> Then she spoke up: "Did I ask for a son, master? Didn't I tell you, 'Don't tease me with false hopes'?"

<sup>29</sup> He ordered Gehazi, "Don't lose a minute--grab my staff and run as fast as you can. If you meet anyone, don't even take time to greet him, and if anyone greets you, don't even answer. Lay my staff across the boy's face."

<sup>30</sup> The boy's mother said, "As sure as GOD lives and you live, you're not leaving me behind." And so Gehazi let her take the lead, and followed behind.

<sup>31</sup> But Gehazi arrived first and laid the staff across the boy's face. But there was no sound--no sign of life. Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and said, "The boy hasn't stirred."

<sup>32</sup> Elisha entered the house and found the boy stretched out on the bed dead.

<sup>33</sup> He went into the room and locked the door--just the two of them in the room--and prayed to GOD.

<sup>34</sup> He then got into bed with the boy and covered him with his body, mouth on mouth, eyes on eyes, hands on hands. As he was stretched out over him like that, the boy's body became warm.

<sup>35</sup> Elisha got up and paced back and forth in the room. Then he went back and stretched himself upon the boy again. The boy started sneezing--seven times he sneezed!--and opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup> He called Gehazi and said, "Get the Shunammite woman in here!" He called her and she came in. Elisha said, "Embrace your son!"

<sup>37</sup> She fell at Elisha's feet, face to the ground in reverent awe. Then she embraced her son and went out with him.

<sup>38</sup> Elisha went back down to Gilgal. There was a famine there. While he was consulting with the guild of prophets, he told his servant, "Put a large pot on the fire and cook up some stew for the prophets."

<sup>39</sup> One of the men went out into the field to get some herbs; he came across a wild vine and picked gourds from it, filling his gunnysack. He brought them back, sliced them up, and put them in the stew, even though no one knew what kind of plant it was.

<sup>40</sup> The stew was then served up for the men to eat. They started to eat, and then exclaimed, "Death in the pot, O man of God! Death in the pot!" Nobody could eat it.

<sup>41</sup> Elisha ordered, "Get me some meal." Then he sprinkled it into the stew pot. "Now serve it up to the men," he said. They ate it, and it was just fine--nothing wrong with [that] stew!

<sup>42</sup> One day a man arrived from Baal Shalishah. He brought the man of God twenty loaves of fresh baked bread from the early harvest, along with a few apples from the orchard. Elisha said, "Pass it around to the people to eat."

<sup>43</sup> His servant said, "For a hundred men? There's not nearly enough!" Elisha said, "Just go ahead and do it. GOD says there's plenty."

<sup>44</sup> And sure enough, there was. He passed around what he had--they not only ate, but had leftovers.

5<sup>1</sup> Naaman was general of the army under the king of Aram. He was important to his master, who held him in the highest esteem because it was by him that GOD had given victory to Aram: a truly great man, but afflicted with a grievous skin disease.

<sup>2</sup> It so happened that Aram, on one of its raiding expeditions against Israel, captured a young girl who became a maid to Naaman's wife.

<sup>4</sup> Naaman went straight to his master and reported what the girl from Israel had said.

<sup>5</sup> "Well then, go," said the king of Aram. "And I'll send a letter of introduction to the king of Israel." So he went off, taking with him about 750 pounds of silver, 150 pounds of gold, and ten sets of clothes.

<sup>6</sup> Naaman delivered the letter to the king of Israel. The letter read, "When you get this letter, you'll know that I've personally sent my servant Naaman to you; heal him of his skin disease."

<sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he was terribly upset, ripping his robe to pieces. He said, "Am I a god with the power to bring death or life that I get orders to heal this man from his disease? What's going on here? That king's trying to pick a fight, that's what!"

<sup>8</sup> Elisha the man of God heard what had happened, that the king of Israel was so distressed that he'd ripped his robe to shreds. He sent word to the king, "Why are you so upset, ripping your robe like this? Send him to me so he'll learn that there's a prophet in Israel."

<sup>10</sup> Elisha sent out a servant to meet him with this message: "Go to the River Jordan and immerse yourself seven times. Your skin will be healed and you'll be as good as new."

<sup>11</sup> Naaman lost his temper. He turned on his heel saying, "I thought he'd personally come out and meet me, call on the name of GOD, wave his hand over the diseased spot, and get rid of the disease.

<sup>12</sup> The Damascus rivers, Abana and Pharpar, are cleaner by far than any of the rivers in Israel. Why not bathe in them? I'd at least get clean." He stomped off, mad as a hornet.

<sup>13</sup> But his servants caught up with him and said, "Father, if the prophet had asked you to do something hard and heroic, wouldn't you have done it? So why not this simple 'wash and be clean'?"

<sup>14</sup> So he did it. He went down and immersed himself in the Jordan seven times, following the orders of the Holy Man. His skin was healed; it was like the skin of a little baby. He was as good as new.

<sup>15</sup> He then went back to the Holy Man, he and his entourage, stood before him, and said, "I now know beyond a shadow of a doubt that there is no God anywhere on earth other than the God of Israel. In gratitude let me give you a gift."

<sup>16</sup> "As GOD lives," Elisha replied, "the God whom I serve, I'll take nothing from you." Naaman tried his best to get him to take something, but he wouldn't do it.

<sup>17</sup> "If you won't take anything," said Naaman, "let me ask you for something: Give me a load of dirt, as much as a team of donkeys can carry, because I'm never again going to worship any god other than GOD.

<sup>18</sup> But there's one thing for which I need GOD's pardon: When my master, leaning on my arm, enters the shrine of Rimmon and worships there, and I'm with him there, worshiping Rimmon, may you see to it that GOD forgive me for this."

<sup>19</sup> Elisha said, "Everything will be all right. Go in peace." But he hadn't gone far

<sup>20</sup> when Gehazi, servant to Elisha the Holy Man, said to himself, "My master has let this Aramean Naaman slip through his fingers without so much as a thank-you. By the living GOD, I'm going after him to get something or other from him!"

<sup>21</sup> And Gehazi took off after Naaman. Naaman saw him running after him and jumped down from his chariot to greet him, "Is something wrong?"

<sup>22</sup> "Nothing's wrong, but something's come up. My master sent me to tell you: 'Two young men just showed up from the hill country of Ephraim, brothers from the guild of the prophets. Supply their needs with a gift of seventy-five pounds of silver and a couple of sets of clothes.'" "

<sup>23</sup> Naaman said, "Of course, how about a hundred and fifty pounds?" Naaman insisted. He tied up the money in two sacks and gave him the two sets of clothes; he even gave him two servants to carry the gifts back with him.

<sup>24</sup> When they got to the fort on the hill, Gehazi took the gifts from the servants, stored them inside, then sent the servants back.

<sup>25</sup> He returned and stood before his master. Elisha said, "So what have you been up to, Gehazi?" "Nothing much," he said.

<sup>26</sup> Elisha said, "Didn't you know I was with you in spirit when that man stepped down from his chariot to greet you? Tell me, is this a time to look after yourself, lining your pockets with gifts?"

<sup>27</sup> Naaman's skin disease will now infect you and your family, with no relief in sight." Gehazi walked away, his skin flaky and white like snow.

6 <sup>1</sup> One day the guild of prophets came to Elisha and said, "You can see that this place where we're living under your leadership is getting cramped--we have no elbow room.

<sup>2</sup> Give us permission to go down to the Jordan where each of us will get a log. We'll build a roomier place." Elisha said, "Go ahead."

<sup>3</sup> One of them then said, "Please! Come along with us!" He said, "Certainly."

<sup>4</sup> He went with them. They came to the Jordan and started chopping down trees.

<sup>6</sup> The Holy Man said, "Where did it sink?" The man showed him the place. He cut off a branch and tossed it at the spot. The axhead floated up.

<sup>7</sup> "Grab it," he said. The man reached out and took it.

<sup>8</sup> One time when the king of Aram was at war with Israel, after consulting with his officers, he said, "At such and such a place I want an ambush set."

<sup>9</sup> The Holy Man sent a message to the king of Israel: "Watch out when you're passing this place, because Aram has set an ambush there."

<sup>10</sup> So the king of Israel sent word concerning the place of which the Holy Man had warned him. This kind of thing happened all the time.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Aram was furious over all this. He called his officers together and said, "Tell me, who is leaking information to the king of Israel? Who is the spy in our ranks?"

<sup>12</sup> But one of his men said, "No, my master, dear king. It's not any of us. It's Elisha the prophet in Israel. He tells the king of Israel everything you say, even what you whisper in your bedroom."

<sup>13</sup> The king said, "Go and find out where he is. I'll send someone and capture him." The report came back, "He's in Dothan."

<sup>14</sup> Then he dispatched horses and chariots, an impressive fighting force. They came by night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup> Early in the morning a servant of the Holy Man got up and went out. Surprise! Horses and chariots surrounding the city! The young man exclaimed, "Oh, master! What shall we do?"

<sup>16</sup> He said, "Don't worry about it--there are more on our side than on their side."

<sup>17</sup> Then Elisha prayed, "O GOD, open his eyes and let him see." The eyes of the young man were opened and he saw. A wonder! The whole mountainside full of horses and chariots of fire surrounding Elisha!

<sup>18</sup> When the Arameans attacked, Elisha prayed to GOD, "Strike these people blind!" And GOD struck them blind, just as Elisha said.

<sup>19</sup> Then Elisha called out to them, "Not that way! Not this city! Follow me and I'll lead you to the man you're looking for." And he led them into Samaria.

<sup>20</sup> As they entered the city, Elisha prayed, "O GOD, open their eyes so they can see where they are." GOD opened their eyes. They looked around--they were trapped in Samaria!

<sup>21</sup> When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "Father, shall I massacre the lot?"

<sup>22</sup> "Not on your life!" said Elisha. "You didn't lift a hand to capture them, and now you're going to kill them? No sir, make a feast for them and send them back to their master."

<sup>23</sup> So he prepared a huge feast for them. After they ate and drank their fill he dismissed them. Then they returned home to their master. The raiding bands of Aram didn't bother Israel anymore.

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "If GOD won't help you, where on earth can I go for help? To the granary? To the dairy?"

<sup>28</sup> The king continued, "Tell me your story." She said, "This woman came to me and said, 'Give up your son and we'll have him for today's supper; tomorrow we'll eat my son.'

<sup>29</sup> So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I told her, 'Your turn--bring your son so we can have him for supper.' But she had hidden her son away."

<sup>30</sup> When the king heard the woman's story he ripped apart his robe. Since he was walking on the city wall, everyone saw that next to his skin he was wearing coarse burlap.

<sup>31</sup> And he called out, "God do his worst to me--and more--if Elisha son of Shaphat still has a head on his shoulders at this day's end."

<sup>32</sup> Elisha was sitting at home, the elders sitting with him. The king had already dispatched an executioner, but before the man arrived Elisha spoke to the elders: "Do you know that this murderer has just now sent a man to take off my head? Look, when the executioner arrives, shut the door and lock it. Don't I even now hear the footsteps of his master behind him?"

<sup>33</sup> While he was giving his instructions, the king showed up, accusing, "This trouble is directly from GOD! And what's next? I'm fed up with GOD!"

7 <sup>1</sup> Elisha said, "Listen! GOD's word! The famine's over. This time tomorrow food will be plentiful--a handful of meal for a shekel; two handfuls of grain for a shekel. The market at the city gate will be buzzing."

<sup>2</sup> The attendant on whom the king leaned for support said to the Holy

Man, "You expect us to believe that? Trapdoors opening in the sky and food tumbling out?" "You'll watch it with your own eyes," he said, "but [you] will not eat so much as a mouthful!"

<sup>3</sup> It happened that four lepers were sitting just outside the city gate. They said to one another, "What are we doing sitting here at death's door?"

<sup>4</sup> If we enter the famine-struck city we'll die; if we stay here we'll die. So let's take our chances in the camp of Aram and throw ourselves on their mercy. If they receive us we'll live, if they kill us we'll die. We've got nothing to lose."

<sup>5</sup> So after the sun went down they got up and went to the camp of Aram. When they got to the edge of the camp, surprise! Not a man in the camp!

<sup>6</sup> The Master had made the army of Aram hear the sound of horses and a mighty army on the march. They told one another, "The king of Israel hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to attack us!"

<sup>7</sup> Panicked, they ran for their lives through the darkness, abandoning tents, horses, donkeys--the whole camp just as it was--running for dear life.

<sup>8</sup> These four lepers entered the camp and went into a tent. First they ate and drank. Then they grabbed silver, gold, and clothing, and went off and hid it. They came back, entered another tent, and looted it, again hiding their plunder.

<sup>9</sup> Finally they said to one another, "We shouldn't be doing this! This is a day of good news and we're making it into a private party! If we wait around until morning we'll get caught and punished. Come on! Let's go tell the news to the king's palace!"

<sup>10</sup> So they went and called out at the city gate, telling what had happened:

"We went to the camp of Aram and, surprise!--the place was deserted. Not a soul, not a sound! Horses and donkeys left tethered and tents abandoned just as they were."

<sup>12</sup> Roused in the middle of the night, the king told his servants, "Let me tell you what Aram has done. They knew that we were starving, so they left camp and have hid in the field, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we'll capture them alive and take the city.'"

<sup>15</sup> They went after them all the way to the Jordan. The whole way was strewn with clothes and equipment that Aram had dumped in their panicked flight. The scouts came back and reported to the king.

<sup>16</sup> The people then looted the camp of Aram. Food prices dropped overnight--a handful of meal for a shekel; two handfuls of grain for a shekel--GOD's word to the letter!

<sup>17</sup> The king ordered his attendant, the one he leaned on for support, to be in charge of the city gate. The people, turned into a mob, poured through the gate, trampling him to death. It was exactly what the Holy Man had said when the king had come to see him.

<sup>18</sup> Every word of the Holy Man to the king--"A handful of meal for a shekel, two handfuls of grain for a shekel this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria," <sup>19</sup> with the attendant's sarcastic reply to the Holy Man, "You expect us to believe that? Trapdoors opening in the sky and food tumbling out?" followed by the response, "You'll watch it with your own eyes, but you won't eat so much as a mouthful"--proved true.

<sup>20</sup> The final stroke came when the people trampled the man to death at the city gate.

8 <sup>1</sup> Years before, Elisha had told the woman whose son he had brought to life, "Leave here and go, you and your family, and live someplace else. GOD has ordered a famine in the land; it will last for seven years."

lived as aliens in the country of Philistia for seven years.

<sup>3</sup> Then, when the seven years were up, the woman and her family came back. She went directly to the king and asked for her home and farm.

<sup>4</sup> The king was talking with Gehazi, servant to the Holy Man, saying, "Tell me some stories of the great things Elisha did."

<sup>5</sup> It so happened that as he was telling the king the story of the dead person brought back to life, the woman whose son was brought to life showed up asking for her home and farm. Gehazi said, "My master the king, this is the woman! And this is her son whom Elisha brought back to life!"

<sup>6</sup> The king wanted to know all about it, and so she told him the story. The king assigned an officer to take care of her, saying, "Make sure she gets everything back that's hers, plus all profits from the farm from the time she left until now."

<sup>7</sup> Elisha traveled to Damascus. Ben-Hadad, king of Aram, was sick at the time. He was told, "The Holy Man is in town."

<sup>8</sup> The king ordered Hazael, "Take a gift with you and go meet the Holy Man. Ask GOD through him, 'Am I going to recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>9</sup> Hazael went and met with Elisha. He brought with him every choice thing he could think of from Damascus--forty camel-loads of items! When he arrived he stood before Elisha and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad, king of Aram, sent me here to ask you, 'Am I going to recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>11</sup> Elisha then stared hard at Hazael, reading his heart. Hazael felt exposed and dropped his eyes. Then the Holy Man wept.

<sup>12</sup> Hazael said, "Why does my master weep?" "Because," said Elisha, "I know what you're going to do to the children of Israel: burn down their forts, murder their youth, smash their babies, rip open their pregnant women."

<sup>13</sup> Hazael said, "Am I a mongrel dog that I'd do such a horrible thing?" "GOD showed me," said Elisha, "that you'll be king of Aram."

<sup>15</sup> But the very next day, someone took a heavy quilt, soaked it in water, covered the king's face, and suffocated him. Now Hazael was king.

<sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began his rule, and was king for eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> He copied the way of life of the kings of Israel, marrying into the Ahab family and continuing the Ahab line of sin--from GOD's point of view, an evil man living an evil life.

<sup>19</sup> But despite that, because of his servant David, GOD was not ready to destroy Judah. He had, after all, promised to keep a lamp burning through David's descendants.

surrounded him, but in the middle of the night he and his charioteers broke through the lines and hit Edom hard. But his infantry deserted him.

<sup>24</sup> Jehoram died and was buried in the family grave in the City of David. His son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

<sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began his reign.

<sup>26</sup> Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king; he ruled only a year in Jerusalem. His mother was Athaliah, granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> He lived and ruled just like the Ahab family had done, continuing the same evil-in-GOD's-sight line of sin, related by both marriage and sin to the Ahab clan.

<sup>28</sup> He joined Joram son of Ahab king of Israel in a war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The archers wounded Joram.

<sup>29</sup> Joram pulled back to Jezreel to convalesce from the injuries he had received in the fight with Hazael. Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah paid a visit to Joram son of Ahab on his sickbed in Jezreel.

9<sup>1</sup> One day Elisha the prophet ordered a member of the guild of prophets, "Get yourself ready, take a flask of oil, and go to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>2</sup> Look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi. When you find him, get him away from his companions and take him to a back room.

<sup>3</sup> Take your flask of oil and pour it over his head and say, 'GOD's word: I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and get out of there as fast as you can. Don't wait around."

<sup>5</sup> On arrival he found the army officers all sitting around. He said, "I have a matter of business with you, officer." Jehu said, "Which one of us?" "With you, officer."

<sup>6</sup> He got up and went inside the building. The young prophet poured the oil on his head and said, "GOD's word, the God of Israel: I've anointed you to be king over the people of GOD, over Israel.

<sup>7</sup> Your assignment is to attack the regime of Ahab your master. I am avenging the massacre of my servants the prophets--yes, the Jezebel-massacre of all the prophets of GOD.

<sup>8</sup> The entire line of Ahab is doomed. I'm wiping out the entire bunch of that sad lot.

<sup>9</sup> I'll see to it that the family of Ahab experiences the same fate as the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat and the family of Baasha son of Ahijah.

<sup>10</sup> As for Jezebel, the dogs will eat her carcass in the open fields of Jezreel. No burial for her!" Then he opened the door and made a run for it.

<sup>11</sup> Jehu went back out to his master's officers. They asked, "Is everything all right? What did that crazy fool want with you?" He said, "You know that kind of man--all talk."

<sup>12</sup> "That's a lie!" they said. "Tell us what's going on." He said, "He told me this and this and this--in effect, 'GOD's word: I anoint you king of Israel!'"

the top of the steps for a makeshift throne. Then they blew the trumpet and declared, "Jehu is king!"

<sup>14</sup> That ignited the conspiracy of Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi against Joram. Meanwhile, Joram and the entire army were defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram.

<sup>15</sup> Except that Joram had pulled back to Jezreel to convalesce from the injuries he got from the Arameans in the battle with Hazael king of Aram. Jehu said, "If you really want me as king, don't let anyone sneak out of the city and blab the news in Jezreel."

<sup>16</sup> Then Jehu mounted a chariot and rode to Jezreel, where Joram was in bed, resting. King Ahaziah of Judah had come down to visit Joram.

<sup>17</sup> A sentry standing duty on the watchtower in Jezreel saw the company of Jehu arrive. He said, "I see a band of men." Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him out to meet them and inquire, 'Is anything wrong?'"

<sup>18</sup> The horseman rode out to meet Jehu and said, "The king wants to know if there's anything wrong." Jehu said, "What's it to you whether things are right or wrong? Fall in behind me." The sentry said, "The messenger reached them, but he's not returning."

<sup>19</sup> The king then sent a second horseman. When he reached them he said, "The king wants to know if there's anything wrong." Jehu said, "What's it to you whether things are right or wrong? Fall in behind me."

Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his own chariot, drove out to meet Jehu. They met in the field of Naboth of Jezreel.

<sup>22</sup> When Joram saw Jehu he called out, "Good day, Jehu!" Jehu answered, "What's good about it? How can there be anything good about it as long as the promiscuous whoring and sorceries of your mother Jezebel pollute the country?"

<sup>25</sup> Jehu ordered Bidkar, his lieutenant, "Quick--throw him into the field of Naboth of Jezreel. Remember when you and I were driving our chariots behind Ahab his father? That's when GOD pronounced this doom upon him:

<sup>26</sup> 'As surely as I saw the blood of murdered Naboth and his sons yesterday, you'll pay for it on this exact piece of ground. GOD's word!' So take him and throw him out in the field. GOD's instructions carried out to the letter!"

<sup>27</sup> Ahaziah king of Judah saw what was going on and made his escape on the road toward Beth Haggan. Jehu chased him, yelling out, "Get him, too!" Jehu's troops shot and wounded him in his chariot on the hill up to Gur, near Ibleam. He was able to make it as far as Megiddo; there he died.

<sup>29</sup> In the eleventh year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.

"Take care of that damned woman; give her a decent burial--she is, after all, a king's daughter."

<sup>36</sup> They came back and told Jehu. He said, "It's GOD's word, the word spoken by Elijah the Tishbite: In the field of Jezreel, dogs will eat Jezebel;

<sup>37</sup> The body of Jezebel will be like dog-droppings on the ground in Jezreel. Old friends and lovers will say, 'I wonder, is [this] Jezebel?'"

10 <sup>1</sup> Ahab had seventy sons still living in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters addressed to the officers of Jezreel, the city elders, and those in charge of Ahab's sons, and posted them to Samaria.

master's children, chariots, horses, fortifications, and weapons.

<sup>3</sup> Pick the best and most capable of your master's sons and put him on the throne. Prepare to fight for your master's position.

<sup>4</sup> They were absolutely terrified at the letter. They said, "Two kings have already been wiped out by him; what hope do we have?"

<sup>5</sup> So they sent the warden of the palace, the mayor of the city, the elders, and the guardians to Jehu with this message: "We are your servants. Whatever you say, we'll do. We're not making anyone king here. You're in charge--do what you think best."

<sup>6</sup> Then Jehu wrote a second letter: If you are on my side and are willing to follow my orders, here's what you do: Decapitate the sons of your master and bring the heads to me by this time tomorrow in Jezreel. The king's sons numbered seventy. The leaders of the city had taken responsibility for them.

<sup>7</sup> When they got the letter, they took the king's sons and killed all seventy. Then they put the heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup> A messenger reported to Jehu: "They've delivered the heads of the king's sons." He said, "Stack them in two piles at the city gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup> In the morning Jehu came out, stood before the people, and addressed them formally: "Do you realize that this very day you are participants in GOD's righteous workings? True, I am the one who conspired against my master and assassinated him. But who, do you suppose, is responsible for this pile of skulls?"

<sup>10</sup> Know this for certain: Not a single syllable that GOD spoke in judgment on the family of Ahab is canceled; you're seeing it with your own eyes--GOD doing what, through Elijah, he said he'd do."

<sup>11</sup> Then Jehu proceeded to kill everyone who had anything to do with Ahab's family in Jezreel--leaders, friends, priests. He wiped out the entire lot.

<sup>12</sup> That done, he brushed himself off and set out for Samaria. Along the way, at Beth Eked (Binding House) of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup> he met up with some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said, "Who are you?" They said, "We're relatives of Ahaziah and we've come down to a reunion of the royal family."

<sup>14</sup> "Grab them!" ordered Jehu. They were taken and then massacred at the well of Beth Eked. Forty-two of them--no survivors.

<sup>15</sup> He went on from there and came upon Jehonadab the Recabite who was on his way to meet him. Greeting him, he said, "Are we together and of one mind in this?" Jehonadab said, "We are--count on me." "Then give me your hand," said Jehu. They shook hands on it and Jehonadab stepped up into the chariot with Jehu.

<sup>16</sup> "Come along with me," said Jehu, "and witness my zeal for GOD." Together they proceeded in the chariot.

<sup>18</sup> Next, Jehu got all the people together and addressed them: Ahab served Baal small-time; Jehu will serve him big-time.

If you don't show up, you won't live to tell about it." (Jehu was lying, of course. He planned to destroy all the worshipers of Baal.)

<sup>20</sup> Jehu ordered, "Make preparation for a holy convocation for Baal." They did and posted the date.

<sup>21</sup> Jehu then summoned everyone in Israel. They came in droves--every worshiper of Baal in the country. Nobody stayed home. They came and packed the temple of Baal to capacity.

<sup>23</sup> Jehu and Jehonadab the Recabite now entered the temple of Baal and said, "Double-check and make sure that there are no worshipers of GOD in here; only Baal-worshipers are allowed."

Meanwhile, Jehu had stationed eighty men outside with orders: "Don't let a single person escape; if you do, it's your life for his life."

<sup>25</sup> When Jehu had finished with the sacrificial solemnities, he signaled to the officers and guards, "Enter and kill! No survivors!" And the bloody slaughter began. The officers and guards threw the corpses outside and cleared the way to enter the inner shrine of Baal.

<sup>26</sup> They hauled out the sacred phallic stone from the temple of Baal and pulverized it.

<sup>27</sup> They smashed the Baal altars and tore down the Baal temple. It's been a public toilet ever since.

<sup>28</sup> And that's the story of Jehu's wasting of Baal in Israel.

<sup>29</sup> But for all that, Jehu didn't turn back from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, the sins that had dragged Israel into a life of sin--the golden calves in Bethel and Dan stayed.

<sup>30</sup> GOD commended Jehu: "You did well to do what I saw was best. You did what I ordered against the family of Ahab. As reward, your sons will occupy the throne of Israel for four generations."

<sup>31</sup> Even then, though, Jehu wasn't careful to walk in GOD's ways and honor the God of Israel from an undivided heart. He didn't turn back from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>32</sup> It was about this time that GOD began to shrink Israel. Hazael hacked away at the borders of Israel

<sup>34</sup> The rest of the life and times of Jehu, his accomplishments and fame, are written in The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>35</sup> Jehu died and was buried in the family plot in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz was the next king.

11 <sup>1</sup> Athaliah was the mother of Ahaziah. When she saw that her son was dead, she took over. She began by massacring the entire royal family.

<sup>3</sup> He was there with her, hidden away for six years in The Temple of GOD. Athaliah, oblivious to his existence, ruled the country.

<sup>4</sup> In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the captains of the bodyguards and the Palace Security Force. They met him in The Temple of GOD. He made a covenant with them, swore them to secrecy, and only then showed them the young prince.

<sup>8</sup> Then he commanded them, "These are your instructions: Those of you who come on duty on the Sabbath and guard the palace, and those of you who go off duty on the Sabbath and guard The Temple of GOD, are to join forces at the time of the changing of the guard and form a ring around the young king, weapons at the ready. Kill anyone who tries to break through your ranks. Your job is to stay with the king at all times and places, coming and going."

<sup>9</sup> The captains obeyed the orders of Jehoiada the priest. Each took his men, those who came on duty on the Sabbath and those who went off duty on the Sabbath, and presented them to Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>10</sup> The priest armed the officers with spears and shields originally belonging to King David, stored in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>12</sup> Then the priest brought the prince into view, crowned him, handed him the scroll of God's covenant, and made him king. As they anointed him, everyone applauded and shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>16</sup> So they dragged her out to the palace's horse corral; there they killed her.

<sup>17</sup> Jehoiada now made a covenant between GOD and the king and the people: They were GOD's people. Another covenant was made between the king and the people.

<sup>18</sup> The people poured into the temple of Baal and tore it down, smashing altar and images to smithereens. They killed Mattan the priest in front of the altar. Jehoiada then stationed sentries in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>19</sup> He arranged for the officers of the bodyguard and the palace security, along with the people themselves, to escort the king down from The Temple of GOD through the Gate of the Guards and into the palace. There he sat on the royal throne.

<sup>2</sup> Taught and trained by Jehoiada the priest, Joash did what pleased GOD for as long as he lived.

<sup>3</sup> (Even so, he didn't get rid of the sacred fertility shrines--people still frequented them, sacrificing and burning incense.)

<sup>5</sup> and, keeping a careful accounting, use them to renovate The Temple wherever it has fallen into disrepair."

<sup>6</sup> But by the twenty-third year of Joash's rule, the priests hadn't done one thing--The Temple was as dilapidated as ever.

<sup>7</sup> King Joash called Jehoiada the priest and the company of priests and said, "Why haven't you renovated this sorry-looking Temple? You are forbidden to take any more money for Temple repairs--from now on, hand over everything you get."

<sup>8</sup> The priests agreed not to take any more money or to be involved in The Temple renovation.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada took a single chest and bored a hole in the lid and placed it to the right of the main entrance into The Temple of GOD. All the offerings that were brought to The Temple of GOD were placed in the chest by the priests who guarded the entrance.

<sup>10</sup> When they saw that a large sum of money had accumulated in the chest, the king's secretary and the chief priest would empty the chest and count the offerings.

<sup>11</sup> They would give the money accounted for to the managers of The Temple project; they in turn would pay the carpenters, construction workers, <sup>12</sup> masons, stoneworkers, and the buyers of timber and quarried stone for the repair and renovation of The Temple of GOD--any expenses connected with fixing up The Temple.

<sup>13</sup> But none of the money brought into The Temple of GOD was used for liturgical "extras" (silver chalices, candle snuffers, trumpets, various gold and silver vessels, etc.).

<sup>14</sup> It was given to the workmen to pay for their repairing GOD's Temple.

captured it. Then he decided to try for Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> Joash king of Judah countered by gathering up all the sacred memorials--gifts dedicated for holy use by his ancestors, the kings of Judah, Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, along with the holy memorials he himself had received, plus all the gold that he could find in the temple and palace storerooms--and sent it to Hazael king of Aram. Appeased, Hazael went on his way and didn't bother Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> At the last his palace staff formed a conspiracy and assassinated Joash as he was strolling along the ramp of the fortified outside city wall.

assassins. And so Joash died and was buried in the family plot in the City of David. His son Amaziah was king after him.

13 <sup>1</sup> In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria--a rule of seventeen years.

<sup>3</sup> Exasperated, GOD was furious with Israel and turned them over to Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad son of Hazael. This domination went on for a long time.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jehoahaz prayed for a softening of GOD's anger, and GOD listened. He realized how wretched Israel had become under the brutalities of the king of Aram.

<sup>5</sup> So GOD provided a savior for Israel who brought them out from under Aram's oppression. The children of Israel were again able to live at peace in their own homes.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz died and was buried with his ancestors in Samaria. His son Jehoash succeeded him as king.

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria--a reign of sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup> In GOD's eyes he lived an evil life. He didn't deviate one bit from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin. He plodded along in the same tracks, step after step.

<sup>14</sup> Elisha came down sick. It was the sickness of which he would soon die. Jehoash king of Israel paid him a visit. When he saw him he wept openly, crying, "My father, my father! Chariot and horsemen of Israel!"

<sup>15</sup> Elisha told him, "Go and get a bow and some arrows." The king brought him the bow and arrows.

<sup>16</sup> Then he told the king, "Put your hand on the bow." He put his hand on the bow. Then Elisha put his hand over the hand of the king.

<sup>17</sup> Elisha said, "Now open the east window." He opened it. Then he said, "Shoot!" And he shot. "The arrow of GOD's salvation!" exclaimed Elisha. "The arrow of deliverance from Aram! You will do battle against Aram until there's nothing left of it."

<sup>18</sup> "Now pick up the other arrows," said Elisha. He picked them up. Then he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground." The king struck the ground three times and then quit.

<sup>19</sup> The Holy Man became angry with him: "Why didn't you hit the ground five or six times? Then you would beat Aram until he was finished. As it is, you'll defeat him three times only."

<sup>20</sup> Then Elisha died and they buried him. Some time later, raiding bands of Moabites, as they often did, invaded the country.

<sup>21</sup> One day, some men were burying a man and spotted the raiders. They threw the man into Elisha's tomb and got away. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came alive, stood up, and walked out on his own two feet.

<sup>23</sup> But GOD was gracious and showed mercy to them. He stuck with them out of respect for his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He never gave up on them, never even considered discarding them, even to this day.

<sup>25</sup> Jehoash son of Jehoahaz turned things around and took back the cities that Ben-Hadad son of Hazael had taken from his father Jehoahaz. Jehoash went to war three times and defeated him each time, recapturing the cities of Israel.

14 <sup>1</sup> In the second year of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin. She was from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He lived the way GOD wanted and did the right thing. But he didn't come up to the standards of his ancestor David; instead he lived pretty much as his father Joash had;

<sup>5</sup> When he had the affairs of the kingdom well in hand, he executed the palace guard that had assassinated his father the king.

<sup>6</sup> But he didn't kill the sons of the assassins. He was obedient to what GOD commanded, written in the Word revealed to Moses, that parents shouldn't be executed for their children's sins, nor children for those of their parents. We each pay personally for our sins.

<sup>7</sup> Amaziah roundly defeated Edom in the Valley of Salt to the tune of ten thousand dead. In another battle he took The Rock and renamed it Joktheel, the name it still bears.

<sup>8</sup> One day Amaziah sent envoys to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, challenging him to a fight: "Come and meet with me--I dare you. Let's have it out face to face!"

<sup>9</sup> Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah, "One day a thistle in Lebanon sent word to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But then a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and stepped on the thistle, crushing it.

<sup>10</sup> Just because you've defeated Edom in battle, you now think you're a big shot. Go ahead and be proud, but stay home. Why press your luck? Why bring defeat on yourself and Judah?"

<sup>13</sup> Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. But Jehoash didn't stop there; he went on to attack Jerusalem. He demolished the wall of Jerusalem all the way from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate--a stretch of about 600 feet.

<sup>14</sup> He looted the gold, silver, and furnishings--anything he found that was worth taking--from both the palace and The Temple of GOD. And, for good measure, he took hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

<sup>19</sup> At the last they cooked up a plot against Amaziah in Jerusalem and he had to flee to Lachish. But they tracked him down in Lachish and killed him there.

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash became king of Israel in Samaria. He ruled for forty-one years.

<sup>24</sup> As far as GOD was concerned he lived an evil life, never deviating an inch from all the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>25</sup> But he did restore the borders of Israel to Lebo Hamath in the far north and to the Dead Sea in the south, matching what GOD, the God of Israel, had pronounced through his servant

Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hopher.

<sup>26</sup> GOD was fully aware of the trouble in Israel, its bitterly hard times. No one was exempt, whether slave or citizen, and no hope of help anywhere was in sight.

<sup>27</sup> But GOD wasn't yet ready to blot out the name of Israel from history, so he used Jeroboam son of Jehoash to save them.

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the life and times of Jeroboam, his victories in battle and how he recovered for Israel both Damascus and Hamath which had belonged to Judah, these are all written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>29</sup> Jeroboam died and was buried with his ancestors in the royal cemetery. His son Zechariah became the next king.

15 <sup>1</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah became king in Judah.

<sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he began his rule and he was king for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah. She was from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He did well in the eyes of GOD, following in the footsteps of his father Amaziah.

<sup>4</sup> But he also failed to get rid of the local sex-and-religion shrines; they continued to be popular with the people.

<sup>7</sup> Azariah died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Jotham his son was king after him.

<sup>10</sup> Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him, assassinated him in public view, and took over as king.

<sup>12</sup> That completed the word of GOD that was given to Jehu, namely, "For four generations your sons will sit on the throne of Israel." Zechariah was the fourth.

<sup>13</sup> Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah. He was king in Samaria for only a month.

<sup>14</sup> Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh and killed him. He then became king.

<sup>15</sup> The rest of the life and times of Shallum and the account of the conspiracy are written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>16</sup> Using Tirzah as his base, Menahem opened his reign by smashing Tiphseh, devastating both the town and its suburbs because they didn't welcome him with open arms. He savagely ripped open all the pregnant women.

<sup>17</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel. He ruled from Samaria for ten years.

<sup>18</sup> As far as GOD was concerned he lived an evil life. Sin for sin, he repeated the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>19</sup> Then Tiglath-Pileser III king of Assyria showed up and attacked the country. But Menahem made a deal with him: He bought his support by handing over about thirty-seven tons of silver.

became king of Israel. He ruled in Samaria for two years.

<sup>24</sup> In GOD's eyes he lived an evil life. He stuck to the old sin tracks of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>25</sup> And then his military aide Pekah son of Remaliah conspired against him--killed him in cold blood while he was in his private quarters in the royal palace in Samaria. He also killed Argob and Arieah. Fifty Gadites were in on the conspiracy with him. After the murder he became the next king.

<sup>27</sup> In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria. He ruled for twenty years.

<sup>28</sup> In GOD's view he lived an evil life; he didn't deviate so much as a hair's breadth from the path laid down by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into a life of sin.

<sup>29</sup> During the reign of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser III king of Assyria invaded the country. He captured Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee--the whole country of Naphtali--and took everyone captive to Assyria.

<sup>30</sup> But then Hoshea son of Elah mounted a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah. He assassinated him and took over as king. This was in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup> The rest of the life and times of Pekah, everything he did, is written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah became king in Judah.

<sup>38</sup> Jotham died and joined his ancestors. They buried him in the family cemetery in the City of David. His son Ahaz was the next king.

16 <sup>1</sup> In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king and he ruled for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't behave in the eyes of his GOD; he wasn't at all like his ancestor David.

<sup>3</sup> Instead he followed in the track of the kings of Israel. He even indulged in the outrageous practice of "passing his son through the fire"--a truly abominable act he picked up from the pagans GOD had earlier thrown out of the country.

<sup>4</sup> He also participated in the activities of the neighborhood sex-and-religion shrines that flourished all over the place.

<sup>5</sup> Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel ganged up against Jerusalem, throwing a siege around the city, but they couldn't make further headway against Ahaz.

<sup>6</sup> At about this same time and on another front, the king of Edom recovered the port of Elath and expelled the men of Judah. The Edomites occupied Elath and have been there ever since.

<sup>7</sup> Ahaz sent envoys to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria with this message: "I'm your servant and your son. Come and save me from the heavy-handed invasion of the king of Aram and the king of Israel. They're attacking me right now."

<sup>8</sup> Then Ahaz robbed the treasuries of the palace and The Temple of GOD of their gold and silver and sent them to the king of Assyria as a bribe.

<sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria responded to him. He attacked and captured Damascus. He deported the people to Nineveh as exiles. Rezin he killed.

<sup>10</sup> King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria in Damascus. The altar in Damascus made a great impression on him. He sent back to Uriah the priest a drawing and set of blueprints of the altar.

Drink-Offerings, the sprinkling of blood from the Peace-Offerings--the works.

<sup>14</sup> But the old bronze Altar that signaled the presence of GOD he displaced from its central place and pushed it off to the side of his new altar.

bronze. He stripped the bronze from The Temple furnishings, even salvaged the four bronze oxen that supported the huge basin, The Sea, and set The Sea unceremoniously on the stone pavement.

<sup>18</sup> Finally, he removed any distinctive features from within The Temple that were offensive to the king of Assyria.

17 <sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel. He ruled in Samaria for nine years.

<sup>2</sup> As far as GOD was concerned, he lived a bad life, but not nearly as bad as the kings who had preceded him.

<sup>3</sup> Then Shalmaneser king of Assyria attacked. Hoshea was already a puppet of the Assyrian king and regularly sent him tribute,

<sup>4</sup> but Shalmaneser discovered that Hoshea had been operating traitorously behind his back--having worked out a deal with King So of Egypt. And, adding insult to injury, Hoshea was way behind on his annual payments of tribute to Assyria. So the king of Assyria arrested him and threw him in prison, <sup>5</sup> then proceeded to invade the entire country. He attacked Samaria and threw up a siege against it. The siege lasted three years.

<sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea's reign the king of Assyria captured Samaria and took the people into exile in Assyria. He relocated them in Halah, in Gozan along the Habor River, and in the towns of the Medes.

<sup>7</sup> The exile came about because of sin: The children of Israel sinned against GOD, their God, who had delivered them from Egypt and the brutal oppression of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They took up with other gods, <sup>8</sup> fell in with the ways of life of the pagan nations GOD had chased off, and went along with whatever their kings did.

<sup>11</sup> Everywhere you looked there was smoke from their pagan offerings to the deities--the identical offerings that had gotten the pagan nations off into exile.

They had accumulated a long list of evil actions and GOD was fed up,

<sup>12</sup> fed up with their persistent worship of gods carved out of deadwood or shaped out of clay, even though GOD had plainly said, "Don't do this--ever!"

<sup>13</sup> GOD had taken a stand against Israel and Judah, speaking clearly through countless holy prophets and seers time and time again, "Turn away from your evil way of life. Do what I tell you and have been telling you in The Revelation I gave your ancestors and of which I've kept reminding you ever since through my servants the prophets."

<sup>14</sup> But they wouldn't listen. If anything, they were even more bullheaded than their stubborn ancestors, if that's possible.

<sup>15</sup> They were contemptuous of his instructions, the solemn and holy covenant he had made with their ancestors, and of his repeated reminders and warnings. They lived a "nothing" life and became "nothings" --just like the pagan peoples all around them. They were well-warned: GOD said, "Don't!" but they did it anyway.

<sup>16</sup> They threw out everything GOD, their God, had told them, and replaced him with two statue-gods shaped like bull-calves and then a phallic pole for the whore goddess Asherah. They worshiped cosmic forces--sky gods and goddesses--and frequented the sex-and-religion shrines of Baal.

<sup>17</sup> They even sank so low as to offer their own sons and daughters as sacrificial burnt offerings! They indulged in all the black arts of magic and sorcery. In short, they prostituted themselves to every kind of evil available to them. And GOD had had enough.

<sup>18</sup> GOD was so thoroughly angry that he got rid of them, got them out of the country for good until only one tribe was left--Judah.

<sup>19</sup> (Judah, actually, wasn't much better, for Judah also failed to keep GOD's commands, falling into the same way of life that Israel had adopted.)

<sup>20</sup> GOD rejected everyone connected with Israel, made life hard for them, and permitted anyone with a mind to exploit them to do so. And then this final No as he threw them out of his sight.

<sup>21</sup> Back at the time that God ripped Israel out of their place in the family of David, they had made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Jeroboam debauched Israel--turned them away from serving GOD and led them into a life of total sin.

<sup>22</sup> The children of Israel went along with all the sins that Jeroboam did, never murmured so much as a word of protest.

<sup>23</sup> In the end, GOD spoke a final No to Israel and turned his back on them. He had given them fair warning, and plenty of time, through the preaching of all his servants the prophets. Then he exiled Israel from her land to Assyria. And that's where they are now.

<sup>24</sup> The king of Assyria brought in people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and relocated them in the towns of Samaria, replacing the exiled Israelites. They moved in as if they owned the place and made themselves at home.

<sup>25</sup> When the Assyrians first moved in, GOD was just another god to them; they neither honored nor worshiped him. Then GOD sent lions among them and people were mauled and killed.

<sup>26</sup> This message was then sent back to the king of Assyria: "The people you brought in to occupy the towns of Samaria don't know what's expected of them from the god of the land, and now he's sent lions and they're killing people right and left because nobody knows what the god of the land expects of them."

<sup>27</sup> The king of Assyria ordered, "Send back some priests who were taken into exile from there. They can go back and live there and instruct the people in what the god of the land expects of them."

<sup>29</sup> But each people that Assyria had settled went ahead anyway making its own gods and setting them up in the neighborhood sex-and-religion shrines that the citizens of Samaria had left behind--a local custom-made god for each people:

<sup>33</sup> They honored and worshiped GOD, but they also kept up their devotions to the old gods of the places they had come from.

<sup>34</sup> And they're still doing it, still worshiping any old god that has nostalgic appeal to them. They don't really worship GOD--they don't take seriously what he says regarding how to behave and what to believe, what he revealed to the children of Jacob whom he named Israel.

<sup>35</sup> GOD made a covenant with his people and ordered them, "Don't honor other gods: Don't worship them, don't serve them, don't offer sacrifices to them.

<sup>36</sup> Worship GOD, the God who delivered you from Egypt in great and personal power. Reverence and fear him. Worship him. Sacrifice to him. And only him!

<sup>37</sup> All the things he had written down for you, directing you in what to believe and how to behave--well, do them for as long as you live. And whatever you do, [don't worship other gods]!

<sup>38</sup> And the covenant he made with you, don't forget your part in that. [And don't worship other gods]!

<sup>39</sup> Worship GOD, and GOD only--he's the one who will save your from enemy oppression."

<sup>41</sup> As it turned out, all the time these people were putting on a front of worshiping GOD, they were at the same time involved with their local idols. And they're still doing it. Like father, like son.

18 <sup>1</sup> In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz began his rule over Judah.

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup> In GOD's opinion he was a good king; he kept to the standards of his ancestor David.

<sup>4</sup> He got rid of the local fertility shrines, smashed the phallic stone monuments, and cut down the sex-and-religion Asherah groves. As a final stroke he pulverized the ancient bronze serpent that Moses had made; at that time the Israelites had taken up the practice of sacrificing to it--they had even dignified it with a name, Nehushtan (The Old Serpent).

<sup>5</sup> Hezekiah put his whole trust in the GOD of Israel. There was no king quite like him, either before or after.

<sup>6</sup> He held fast to GOD--never loosened his grip--and obeyed to the letter everything GOD had commanded Moses.

<sup>7</sup> And GOD, for his part, held fast to him through all his adventures. He revolted against the king of Assyria; he refused to serve him one more day.

<sup>8</sup> And he drove back the Philistines, whether in sentry outposts or fortress cities, all the way to Gaza and its borders.

<sup>9</sup> In the fourth year of Hezekiah and the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria attacked Samaria. He threw a siege around it <sup>10</sup> and after three years captured it. It was in the sixth year of Hezekiah and the ninth year of Hoshea that Samaria fell to Assyria.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria took Israel into exile and relocated them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River, and in towns of the Medes.

<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah turned over all the silver he could find in The Temple of GOD and in the palace treasuries.

<sup>16</sup> Hezekiah even took down the doors of The Temple of GOD and the doorposts that he had overlaid with gold and gave them to the king of Assyria.

Lachish with a strong military force to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. When they arrived at Jerusalem, they stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool on the road to the laundry commons.

<sup>18</sup> They called loudly for the king. Eliakim son of Hilkiyah who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the royal secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the court historian went out to meet them.

<sup>19</sup> The third officer, the Rabshakeh, was spokesman. He said, "Tell Hezekiah: A message from The Great King, the king of Assyria: You're living in a world of make-believe, of pious fantasy.

<sup>20</sup> Do you think that mere words are any substitute for military strategy and troops? Now that you've revolted against me, who can you expect to help you?

wind and she collapses; Pharaoh king of Egypt is nothing but bluff and bluster.

<sup>22</sup> Or are you going to tell me, 'We rely on GOD'? But Hezekiah has just eliminated most of the people's access to God by getting rid of all the local God-shrines, ordering everyone in Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship at the Jerusalem altar only.'

<sup>23</sup> "So be reasonable. Make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I'll give you two thousand horses if you think you can provide riders for them.

<sup>24</sup> You can't do it? Well, then, how do you think you're going to turn back even one raw buck private from my master's troops? How long are you going to hold on to that figment of your imagination, these hoped-for Egyptian chariots and horses?

express approval of GOD? The fact is that GOD expressly ordered me, 'Attack and destroy this country!'"

<sup>26</sup> Eliakim son of Hilkiah and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please, speak to us in the Aramaic language. We understand Aramaic. Don't speak in Hebrew--everyone crowded on the city wall can hear you."

<sup>27</sup> But the Rabshakeh said, "We weren't sent with a private message to your master and you; this is public--a message to everyone within earshot. After all, they're involved in this as well as you; if you don't come to terms, they'll be eating their own turds and drinking their own pee right along with you."

<sup>28</sup> Then he stepped forward and spoke in Hebrew loud enough for everyone to hear, "Listen carefully to the words of The Great King, the king of Assyria:

<sup>30</sup> And don't let Hezekiah give you that line about trusting in GOD, telling you, 'GOD will save us--this city will never be abandoned to the king of Assyria.'

<sup>31</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah--he doesn't know what he's talking about. Listen to the king of Assyria--deal with me and live the good life; I'll guarantee everyone your own plot of ground--a garden and a well!

<sup>32</sup> I'll take you to a land sweeter by far than this one, a land of grain and wine, bread and vineyards, olive orchards and honey. You only live once--so live, really live! "No. Don't listen to Hezekiah. Don't listen to his lies, telling you 'GOD will save us.'

<sup>33</sup> Has there ever been a god anywhere who delivered anyone from the king of Assyria?

<sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? And Samaria--did their gods save them?

<sup>35</sup> Can you name a god who saved anyone anywhere from me, the king of Assyria? So what makes you think that GOD can save Jerusalem from me?"

<sup>36</sup> The people were silent. No one spoke a word for the king had ordered, "Don't anyone say a word--not one word!"

<sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator, and Shebna the royal secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the court historian went back to Hezekiah. They had ripped their robes in despair; they reported to Hezekiah the speech of the Rabshakeh.

19 <sup>1</sup> When Hezekiah heard it all, he too ripped his robes apart and dressed himself in rough burlap. Then he went into The Temple of GOD.

<sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, all of them dressed in rough burlap, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

<sup>3</sup> They said to him, "A message from Hezekiah: 'This is a black day, a terrible day--doomsday! Babies poised to be born, No strength to birth them.

<sup>4</sup> "'Maybe GOD, your God, has been listening to the blasphemous speech of the Rabshakeh who was sent by the king of Assyria, his master, to humiliate the living God; maybe GOD, your God, won't let him get by with such talk; and you, maybe you will lift up prayers for what's left of these people.'" from the king of Assyria's bootlicking errand boys--these outrageous blasphemies.

<sup>7</sup> Here's what I'm going to do: Afflict him with self-doubt. He's going to hear a rumor and, frightened for his life, retreat to his own country. Once there, I'll see to it that he gets killed."

<sup>9</sup> Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush was on his way to fight against him. So he sent another envoy with orders to deliver this message to Hezekiah king of Judah:

<sup>10</sup> "Don't let that god that you think so much of keep stringing you along with the line, 'Jerusalem will never fall to the king of Assyria.' That's a barefaced lie.

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the envoy and read it. He went to The Temple of GOD and spread it out before GOD.

<sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed--oh, how he prayed! GOD, God of Israel, seated in majesty on the cherubim-throne. You are the one and only God, sovereign over all kingdoms on earth, Maker of heaven, maker of earth.

<sup>16</sup> Open your ears, GOD, and listen, open your eyes and look. Look at this letter Sennacherib has sent, a brazen insult to the living God!

<sup>17</sup> The facts are true, O GOD: The kings of Assyria have laid waste countries and kingdoms.

<sup>19</sup> But now O GOD, [our] God, save us from raw Assyrian power; Make all the kingdoms on earth know that you are GOD, the one and only God.

<sup>21</sup> This is my response to him: The Virgin Daughter of Zion holds you in utter contempt; Daughter Jerusalem thinks you're nothing but scum.

<sup>23</sup> You dispatched your errand boys to humiliate the Master. You bragged, "With my army of chariots I've climbed the highest mountains, snow-peaked alpine Lebanon mountains! I've cut down its giant cedars, chopped down its prize pine trees. I've traveled the world, visited the finest forest retreats.

<sup>24</sup> I've dug wells in faraway places and drunk their exotic waters; I've waded and splashed barefoot in the rivers of Egypt."

<sup>25</sup> Did it never occur to you that I'm behind all this? Long, long ago I drew up the plans, and now I've gone into action,

Using you as a doomsday weapon, reducing proud cities to piles of rubble, <sup>26</sup> Leaving their people dispirited, slumped shoulders, limp souls. Useless as weeds, fragile as grass, insubstantial as wind-blown chaff.

<sup>27</sup> I know when you sit down, when you come and when you go; And, yes, I've marked every one of your temper tantrums against me.

<sup>28</sup> It's because of your temper, your blasphemous foul temper, That I'm putting my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth And turning you back to where you came from.

<sup>29</sup> And this, Hezekiah, will be for you the confirming sign: This year you'll eat the gleanings, next year whatever you can beg, borrow, or steal; But the third year you'll sow and harvest, plant vineyards and eat grapes.

<sup>30</sup> A remnant of the family of Judah yet again will sink down roots and raise up fruit.

<sup>31</sup> The remnant will come from Jerusalem, the survivors from Mount Zion. The Zeal of GOD will make it happen.

<sup>32</sup> To sum up, this is what GOD says regarding the king of Assyria: He won't enter this city, nor shoot so much as a single arrow there; Won't brandish a shield, won't even begin to set siege;

<sup>33</sup> He'll go home by the same road he came; he won't enter this city. GOD's word!

<sup>34</sup> I'll shield this city, I'll save this city, for my sake and for David's sake.

<sup>35</sup> And it so happened that that very night an angel of GOD came and massacred a hundred and eighty-five thousand Assyrians. When the people of Jerusalem got up next morning, there it was--a whole camp of corpses!

<sup>36</sup> Sennacherib king of Assyria got out of there fast, headed straight home for Nineveh, and stayed put.

<sup>37</sup> One day when he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer murdered him and then escaped to the land of Ararat. His son Esarhaddon became the next king.

20 <sup>1</sup> Some time later Hezekiah became deathly sick. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz paid him a visit and said, "Put your affairs in order; you're about to die--you haven't long to live."

<sup>3</sup> Remember, O GOD, who I am, what I've done! I've lived an honest life before you, My heart's been true and steady, I've lived to please you; lived for your approval. And then the tears flowed. Hezekiah wept.

<sup>4</sup> Isaiah, leaving, was not halfway across the courtyard when the word of GOD stopped him:

<sup>5</sup> "Go back and tell Hezekiah, prince of my people, 'GOD's word, Hezekiah! From the God of your ancestor David: I've listened to your prayer and I've observed your tears. I'm going to heal you. In three days you will walk on your own legs into The Temple of GOD.

<sup>6</sup> I've just added fifteen years to your life; I'm saving you from the king of Assyria, and I'm covering this city with my shield--for my sake and my servant David's sake."

<sup>7</sup> Isaiah then said, "Prepare a plaster of figs." They prepared the plaster, applied it to the boil, and Hezekiah was on his way to recovery.

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "How do I know whether this is of GOD and not just the fig plaster? What confirming sign is there that GOD is healing me and that in three days I'll walk into The Temple of GOD on my own legs?"

<sup>9</sup> "This will be your sign from GOD," said Isaiah, "that GOD is doing what he said he'd do: Do you want the shadow to advance ten degrees on the sundial or go back ten degrees? You choose."

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah said, "It would be easy to make the sun's shadow advance ten degrees. Make it go back ten degrees."

<sup>11</sup> So Isaiah called out in prayer to GOD, and the shadow went back ten degrees on Ahaz's sundial.

<sup>12</sup> Shortly after this, Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, having heard that the king was sick, sent a get-well card and a gift to Hezekiah.

<sup>13</sup> Hezekiah was pleased and showed the messengers around the place--silver, gold, spices, aromatic oils, his stockpile of weapons--a guided tour of all his prized possessions. There wasn't a thing in his palace or kingdom that Hezekiah didn't show them.

<sup>14</sup> And then Isaiah the prophet showed up: "And just what were these men doing here? Where did they come from and why?" Hezekiah said, "They came from far away--from Babylon."

<sup>15</sup> "And what did they see in your palace?" "Everything," said Hezekiah. "There isn't anything I didn't show them--I gave them the grand tour."

<sup>16</sup> Then Isaiah spoke to Hezekiah, "Listen to what GOD has to say about this:

<sup>17</sup> The day is coming when everything you own and everything your ancestors have passed down to you, right down to the last cup and saucer, will be cleaned out of here--plundered and packed off to Babylon. GOD's word!

<sup>18</sup> Worse yet, your sons, the progeny of sons you've begotten, will end up as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>19</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "If GOD says it, it must be good." But he was thinking to himself, "It won't happen during my lifetime--I'll enjoy peace and security as long as I live."

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the life and times of Hezekiah, along with his projects, especially the way he engineered the Upper Pool and brought water into the city, are written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Judah].

<sup>21</sup> Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors. His son Manasseh became the next king.

21 <sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king. He ruled for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

<sup>2</sup> In GOD's judgment he was a bad king--an evil king. He reintroduced all the moral rot and spiritual corruption that had been scoured from the country when GOD dispossessed the pagan nations in favor of the children of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> He rebuilt all the sex-and-religion shrines that his father Hezekiah had torn down, and he built altars and phallic images for the sex god Baal and sex goddess Asherah, exactly what Ahaz king of Israel had done. He worshiped the cosmic powers, taking orders from the constellations.

<sup>4</sup> He even built these pagan altars in The Temple of GOD, the very Jerusalem Temple dedicated exclusively by GOD's decree ("in Jerusalem I place my Name") to GOD's Name.

<sup>5</sup> And he built shrines to the cosmic powers and placed them in both courtyards of The Temple of GOD.

<sup>6</sup> He burned his own son in a sacrificial offering. He practiced black magic and fortunetelling. He held séances and consulted spirits from the underworld. Much evil--in GOD's judgment, a career in evil. And GOD was angry.

<sup>7</sup> As a last straw he placed the carved image of the sex goddess Asherah in The Temple of GOD, a flagrant and provocative violation of GOD's well-known statement to both David and Solomon, "In this Temple and in this city Jerusalem, my choice out of all the tribes of Israel, I place my Name--exclusively and forever.

<sup>8</sup> Never again will I let my people Israel wander off from this land I gave to their ancestors. But here's the condition: They must keep everything I've commanded in the instructions my servant Moses passed on to them."

<sup>9</sup> But the people didn't listen. Manasseh led them off the beaten path into practices of evil even exceeding the evil of the pagan nations that GOD had earlier destroyed.

<sup>11</sup> "Because Manasseh king of Judah has committed these outrageous sins, eclipsing the sin-performance of the Amorites before him, setting new records in evil, using foul idols to debase Judah into a nation of sinners,

<sup>12</sup> this is my judgment, GOD's verdict: I, the God of Israel, will visit catastrophe on Jerusalem and Judah, a doom so terrible that when people hear of it they'll shake their heads in disbelief, saying, 'I can't believe it!'

<sup>16</sup> The final word on Manasseh was that he was an indiscriminate murderer. He drenched Jerusalem with the innocent blood of his victims. That's on top of all the sins in which he involved his people.

As far as GOD was concerned, he'd turned them into a nation of sinners.

<sup>18</sup> Manasseh died and joined his ancestors. He was buried in the palace garden, the Garden of Uzza. His son Amon became the next king.

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king. He was king for two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz. She was from Jotbah.

22 <sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath.

<sup>3</sup> One day in the eighteenth year of his kingship, King Josiah sent the royal secretary Shaphan son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to The Temple of GOD with instructions:

<sup>4</sup> "Go to Hilkiah the high priest and have him count the money that has been brought to The Temple of GOD that the doormen have collected from the people.

<sup>5</sup> Have them turn it over to the foremen who are managing the work on The Temple of GOD so they can pay the workers who are repairing GOD's Temple, <sup>6</sup> all the carpenters, construction workers, and masons. Also, authorize them to buy the lumber and dressed stone for The Temple repairs.

<sup>7</sup> You don't need to get a receipt for the money you give them--they're all honest men."

<sup>8</sup> The high priest Hilkiah reported to Shaphan the royal secretary, "I've just found the Book of GOD's Revelation, instructing us in GOD's ways. I found it in The Temple!" He gave it to Shaphan and Shaphan read it.

<sup>9</sup> Then Shaphan the royal secretary came back to the king and gave him an account of what had gone on: "Your servants have bagged up the money that has been collected for The Temple; they have given it to the foremen to pay The Temple workers."

<sup>10</sup> Then Shaphan the royal secretary told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book." Shaphan proceeded to read it to the king.

<sup>11</sup> When the king heard what was written in the book, God's Revelation, he ripped his robes in dismay.

<sup>12</sup> And then he called for Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the royal secretary, and Asaiah the king's personal aide. He ordered them all:

<sup>13</sup> "Go and pray to GOD for me and for this people--for all Judah! Find out what we must do in response to what is written in this book that has just been found! GOD's anger must be burning furiously against us--our ancestors haven't obeyed a thing written in this book, followed none of the instructions directed to us."

<sup>14</sup> Hilkiyah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went straight to Huldah the prophetess. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, who was in charge of the palace wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter. The five men consulted with her.

<sup>15</sup> In response to them she said, "GOD's word, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you here

<sup>16</sup> that I'm on my way to bring the doom of judgment on this place and this people. Every word written in the book read by the king of Judah will happen.

<sup>17</sup> And why? Because they've deserted me and taken up with other gods, made me thoroughly angry by setting up their god-making businesses. My anger is raging white-hot against this place and nobody is going to put it out.

<sup>18</sup> "And also tell the king of Judah, since he sent you to ask GOD for direction; tell him this, GOD's comment on what he read in the book:

<sup>19</sup> 'Because you took seriously the doom of judgment I spoke against this place and people, and because you responded in humble repentance, tearing your robe in dismay and weeping before me, I'm taking you seriously.

GOD's word:

<sup>20</sup> I'll take care of you. You'll have a quiet death and be buried in peace. You won't be around to see the doom that I'm going to bring upon this place.'" The men took her message back to the king.

23 <sup>1</sup> The king acted immediately, assembling all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Then the king proceeded to The Temple of GOD, bringing everyone in his train--priests and prophets and people ranging from the famous to the unknown. Then he read out publicly everything written in the Book of the Covenant that was found in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>3</sup> The king stood by the pillar and before GOD solemnly committed them all to the covenant: to follow GOD believingly and obediently; to follow his instructions, heart and soul, on what to believe and do; to put into practice the entire covenant, all that was written in the book. The people stood in affirmation; their commitment was unanimous.

<sup>4</sup> Then the king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, his associate priest, and The Temple sentries to clean house--to get rid of everything in The Temple of GOD that had been made for worshiping Baal and Asherah and the cosmic powers. He had them burned outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron and then disposed of the ashes in Bethel.

<sup>5</sup> He fired the pagan priests whom the kings of Judah had hired to supervise the local sex-and-religion shrines in the towns of Judah and neighborhoods of Jerusalem. In a stroke he swept the country clean of the polluting stench of the round-the-clock worship of Baal, sun and moon, stars--all the so-called cosmic powers.

<sup>6</sup> He took the obscene phallic Asherah pole from The Temple of GOD to the Valley of Kidron outside Jerusalem, burned it up, then ground up the ashes and scattered them in the cemetery.

<sup>7</sup> He tore out the rooms of the male sacred prostitutes that had been set up in The Temple of GOD; women also used these rooms for weavings for Asherah.

<sup>8</sup> He swept the outlying towns of Judah clean of priests and smashed the sex-and-religion shrines where they worked their trade from one end of the country to the other--all the way from Geba to Beersheba. He smashed the sex-and-religion shrine that had been set up just to the left of the city gate for the private use of Joshua, the city mayor.

<sup>9</sup> Even though these sex-and-religion priests did not defile the Altar in The Temple itself, they were part of the general priestly corruption and had to go.

<sup>10</sup> Then Josiah demolished the Topheth, the iron furnace griddle set up in the Valley of Ben Hinnom for sacrificing children in the fire. No longer could anyone burn son or daughter to the god Molech.

<sup>11</sup> He hauled off the horse statues honoring the sun god that the kings of Judah had set up near the entrance to The Temple. They were in the courtyard next to the office of Nathan-Melech, the warden. He burned up the sun-chariots as so much rubbish.

<sup>12</sup> The king smashed all the altars to smithereens--the altar on the roof shrine of Ahaz, the various altars the kings of Judah had made, the altars of Manasseh that littered the courtyard of The Temple--he smashed them all, pulverized the fragments, and scattered their dust in the Valley of Kidron.

<sup>13</sup> The king proceeded to make a clean sweep of all the sex-and-religion shrines that had proliferated east of Jerusalem on the south slope of Abomination Hill, the ones Solomon king of Israel had built to the obscene Sidonian sex goddess Ashtoreth, to Chemosh the dirty-old-god of the Moabites, and to Milcom the depraved god of the Ammonites.

<sup>14</sup> He tore apart the altars, chopped down the phallic Asherah-poles, and scattered old bones over the sites.

<sup>15</sup> Next, he took care of the altar at the shrine in Bethel that Jeroboam son of Nebat had built--the same Jeroboam who had led Israel into a life of sin. He tore apart the altar, burned down the shrine leaving it in ashes, and then lit fire to the phallic Asherah-pole.

<sup>16</sup> As Josiah looked over the scene, he noticed the tombs on the hillside. He ordered the bones removed from the tombs and had them cremated on the ruined altars, desacralizing the evil altars. This was a fulfillment of the word of GOD spoken by the Holy Man years before when Jeroboam had stood by the altar at the sacred convocation.

<sup>17</sup> Then the king said, "And [that] memorial stone--whose is that?" The men from the city said, "That's the grave of the Holy Man who spoke the message against the altar at Bethel that you have just fulfilled."

<sup>19</sup> But Josiah hadn't finished. He now moved through all the towns of Samaria where the kings of Israel had built neighborhood sex-and-religion shrines, shrines that had so angered GOD. He tore the shrines down and left them in ruins--just as at Bethel.

<sup>20</sup> He killed all the priests who had conducted the sacrifices and cremated them on their own altars, thus desacralizing the altars. Only then did Josiah return to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> The king now commanded the people, "Celebrate the Passover to GOD, your God, exactly as directed in this Book of the Covenant."

domestic gods, and carved figures--all the vast accumulation of foul and obscene relics and images on display everywhere you looked in Judah and Jerusalem. Josiah did this in obedience to the words of GOD's Revelation written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>25</sup> There was no king to compare with Josiah--neither before nor after--a king who turned in total and repentant obedience to GOD, heart and mind and strength, following the instructions revealed to and written by Moses. The world would never again see a king like Josiah.

<sup>26</sup> But despite Josiah, GOD's hot anger did not cool; the raging anger ignited by Manasseh burned unchecked.

<sup>27</sup> And GOD, not swerving in his judgment, gave sentence: "I'll remove Judah from my presence in the same way I removed Israel. I'll turn my back on this city, Jerusalem, that I chose, and even from this Temple of which I said, 'My Name lives here.'"

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the life and times of Josiah is written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Judah].

<sup>30</sup> Josiah's servants took his body in a chariot, returned him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. By popular choice Jehoahaz son of Josiah was anointed and succeeded his father as king.

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to rule. He was king in Jerusalem for a mere three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah. She came from Libnah.

<sup>32</sup> In GOD's opinion, he was an evil king, reverting to the evil ways of his ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Neco captured Jehoahaz at Riblah in the country of Hamath and put him in chains, preventing him from ruling in Jerusalem. He demanded that Judah pay tribute of nearly four tons of silver and seventy-five pounds of gold.

<sup>34</sup> Then Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah the successor to Josiah, but changed his name to Jehoiakim. Jehoahaz was carted off to Egypt and eventually died there.

<sup>35</sup> Meanwhile Jehoiakim, like a good puppet, dutifully paid out the silver and gold demanded by Pharaoh. He scraped up the money by gouging the people, making everyone pay an assessed tax.

<sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to rule; he was king for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah. She had come from Rumah.

<sup>37</sup> In GOD's opinion he was an evil king, picking up on the evil ways of his ancestors.

24 <sup>1</sup> It was during his reign that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the country. Jehoiakim became his puppet. But after three years he had had enough and revolted.

<sup>2</sup> GOD dispatched a succession of raiding bands against him: Babylonian, Aramean, Moabite, and Ammonite. The strategy was to destroy Judah. Through the preaching of his servants and prophets, GOD had said he would do this, and now he was doing it.

<sup>3</sup> None of this was by chance--it was GOD's judgment as he turned his back on Judah because of the enormity of the sins of Manasseh--Manasseh, the killer-king, <sup>4</sup> who made the Jerusalem streets flow with the innocent blood of his victims. GOD wasn't about to overlook such crimes.

<sup>7</sup> The threat from Egypt was now over--no more invasions by the king of Egypt--for by this time the king of Babylon had captured all the land between the Brook of Egypt and the Euphrates River, land formerly controlled by the king of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king. His rule in Jerusalem lasted only three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> In GOD's opinion he also was an evil king, no different from his father.

<sup>10</sup> The next thing to happen was that the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked Jerusalem and put it under siege.

<sup>13</sup> Nebuchadnezzar emptied the treasuries of both The Temple of GOD and the royal palace and confiscated all the gold furnishings that Solomon king of Israel had made for The Temple of GOD.

This should have been no surprise--GOD had said it would happen.

<sup>14</sup> And then he emptied Jerusalem of people--all its leaders and soldiers, all its craftsmen and artisans. He took them into exile, something like ten thousand of them! The only ones he left were the very poor.

<sup>15</sup> He took Jehoiachin into exile to Babylon. With him he took the king's mother, his wives, his chief officers, the community leaders,

<sup>19</sup> As far as GOD was concerned Zedekiah was just one more evil king, a carbon copy of Jehoiakim.

<sup>20</sup> The source of all this doom to Jerusalem and Judah was GOD's anger--GOD turned his back on them as an act of judgment. And then Zedekiah revolted against the king of Babylon.

25 <sup>1</sup> The revolt dates from the ninth year and tenth month of Zedekiah's reign. Nebuchadnezzar set out for Jerusalem immediately with a full army. He set up camp and sealed off the city by building siege mounds around it.

<sup>2</sup> The city was under siege for nineteen months (until the eleventh year of Zedekiah).

<sup>3</sup> By the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, on the ninth day of the month, the famine was so bad that there wasn't so much as a crumb of bread for anyone.

<sup>4</sup> Then there was a breakthrough. At night, under cover of darkness, the entire army escaped through an opening in the wall (it was the gate between the two walls above the King's Garden). They slipped through the lines of the Babylonians who surrounded the city and headed for the Jordan on the Arabah Valley road.

<sup>5</sup> But the Babylonians were in pursuit of the king and they caught up with him in the Plains of Jericho. By then Zedekiah's army had deserted and was scattered.

<sup>6</sup> The Babylonians took Zedekiah prisoner and marched him off to the king of Babylon at Riblah, then tried and sentenced him on the spot.

<sup>7</sup> Zedekiah's sons were executed right before his eyes; the summary murder of his sons was the last thing he saw, for they then blinded him. Securely handcuffed, he was hauled off to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> In the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, on the seventh day of the fifth month, Nebuzaradan, the king of Babylon's chief deputy, arrived in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> He burned The Temple of GOD to the ground, went on to the royal palace, and then finished off the city--burned the whole place down.

<sup>10</sup> He put the Babylonian troops he had with him to work knocking down the city walls.

<sup>13</sup> The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the bronze washstands, and the huge bronze basin (the Sea) that were in The Temple of GOD and hauled the bronze off to Babylon.

<sup>14</sup> They also took the various bronze-crafted liturgical accessories used in the services of Temple worship,

<sup>16</sup> The amount of bronze they got from the two pillars, the Sea, and all the washstands that Solomon had made for

The Temple of GOD was enormous--they couldn't weigh it all!

<sup>17</sup> Each pillar stood twenty-seven feet high, plus another four and a half feet for an ornate capital of bronze filigree and decorative fruit.

<sup>23</sup> When veteran army officers among the people heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Among them were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and some of their followers.

<sup>24</sup> Gedaliah assured the officers and their men, giving them his word, "Don't be afraid of the Babylonian officials. Go back to your farms and families and respect the king of Babylon. Trust me, everything is going to be all right."

<sup>25</sup> Some time later--it was in the seventh month--Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama (he had royal blood in him), came back with ten men and killed Gedaliah, the traitor Jews, and the Babylonian officials who were stationed at Mizpah--a bloody massacre.

<sup>26</sup> But then, afraid of what the Babylonians would do, they all took off for Egypt, leaders and people, small and great.

<sup>27</sup> When Jehoiachin king of Judah had been in exile for thirty-seven years, Evil-Merodach became king in Babylon and let Jehoiachin out of prison. This release took place on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month.

<sup>29</sup> Jehoiachin took off his prison garb and for the rest of his life ate his meals in company with the king.

1 Chronicles

Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Joktan.

<sup>24</sup> The three main branches in summary:
Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,

<sup>28</sup> And Abraham had Isaac and Ishmael.

along these lines: Ishmael had Nebaioth (his firstborn), then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

<sup>30</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema,

<sup>31</sup> Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah--the Ishmael branch.

<sup>32</sup> Keturah, Abraham's concubine, gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan,

Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. Then Jokshan had Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>33</sup> And Midian had Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. These made up the Keturah branch.

And Dishan had Uz and Aran.

was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

<sup>51</sup> Last of all Hadad died. The chieftains of Edom after that were Chief Timna, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth,

<sup>3</sup> Judah had Er, Onan, and Shelah; their mother was Bathshua the Canaanite. Er, Judah's firstborn, was so bad before GOD that GOD killed him.

<sup>22</sup> Then Segub had Jair who owned twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

These all belonged to Makir the father of Gilead.

<sup>38</sup> Obed had Jehu, Jehu had Azariah,

Ziph; Ziph's son was Mareshah the father of Hebron.

Ephrathah's firstborn: Shobal who had Kiriath Jearim,

<sup>55</sup> and the families of Sopherim who lived at Jabez--the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. They made up the Kenites who came from Hammath the father of the house of Recab.

3 <sup>1</sup> These are the sons that David had while he lived at Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam of Jezreel; second, Daniel by Abigail of Carmel;

<sup>4</sup> He had these six sons while he was in Hebron; he was king there for seven years and six months. He went on to be king in Jerusalem for another thirty-three years.

<sup>10</sup> In the next generation Solomon had Rehoboam, who had Abijah, who had Asa, who had Jehoshaphat, <sup>11</sup> who had Jehoram, who had Ahaziah, who had Joash, <sup>12</sup> who had Amaziah, who had Azariah, who had Jotham,

<sup>13</sup> who had Ahaz, who had Hezekiah, who had Manasseh, <sup>14</sup> who had Amon, who had Josiah.

<sup>21</sup> Hananiah's sons were Pelatiah and Jeshaiiah. There were also sons of Rephaiah, sons of Arnan, sons of Obadiah, and sons of Shecaniah.

<sup>4</sup> Penuel had Gedor and Ezer had Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, firstborn son of Ephrathah, who was the father of Bethlehem.

<sup>8</sup> and Koz, who had Anub, Hazzobebah, and the families of Aharhel son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup> Jabez was a better man than his brothers, a man of honor. His mother had named him Jabez (Oh, the pain!), saying, "A painful birth! I bore him in great pain!"

<sup>10</sup> Jabez prayed to the God of Israel: "Bless me, O bless me! Give me land, large tracts of land. And provide your personal protection--don't let evil hurt me." God gave him what he asked.

<sup>32</sup> Other settlements in the vicinity were the five towns of Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan, <sup>33</sup> and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath. These were their settlements. And they kept good family records.

<sup>37</sup> and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah

<sup>38</sup> --all these were the leaders in their families. They prospered and increased in numbers

<sup>39</sup> so that they had to go as far as Gedor (Gerar) to the east of the valley looking for pasture for their flocks.

<sup>40</sup> And they found it--lush pasture, lots of elbow room, peaceful and quiet. Some Hamites had lived there in former times.

<sup>41</sup> But the men in these family trees came when Hezekiah was king of Judah and attacked the Hamites, tearing down their tents and houses. There was nothing left of them, as you can see today. Then they moved in and took over because of the great pastureland.

<sup>42</sup> Five hundred of these Simeonites went on and invaded the hill country of Seir, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

<sup>43</sup> They killed all the escaped Amalekites who were still around. And they still live there.

5 <sup>1</sup> The family of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Though Reuben was Israel's firstborn, after he slept with his father's concubine, a defiling act, his rights as the firstborn were passed on to the sons of Joseph son of Israel. He lost his "firstborn" place in the family tree.

<sup>7</sup> Beerah's brothers are listed in the family tree by families: first Jeiel, followed by Zechariah:

<sup>8</sup> then Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. Joel lived in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon.

<sup>12</sup> Joel was the chief, Shapham the second-in-command, and then Janai, the judge in Bashan.

<sup>13</sup> Their brothers, by families, were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber--seven in all.

<sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.

<sup>15</sup> Ahi son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their family.

<sup>17</sup> They were all written into the official family tree during the reigns of Jotham king of Judah and Jeroboam king of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> God helped them as they fought. God handed the Hagarites and all their allies over to them, because they cried out to him during the battle. God answered their prayers because they trusted him.

<sup>21</sup> They plundered the Hagarite herds and flocks: 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys. They also captured 100,000 people.

<sup>22</sup> Many were killed, because the battle was God's. They lived in that country until the exile.

<sup>23</sup> The half-tribe of Manasseh had a large population. They occupied the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir (Mount Hermon).

<sup>25</sup> But they were not faithful to the God of their ancestors. They took up with the ungodly gods of the peoples of the land whom God had gotten rid of before they arrived.

<sup>26</sup> So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria (Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria) to take the families of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He deported them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan. They've been there ever since.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the Levitical clans according to families:

<sup>31</sup> These are the persons David appointed to lead the singing in the house of GOD after the Chest was placed there.

<sup>32</sup> They were the ministers of music in the place of worship, which was the Tent of Meeting until Solomon built The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem. As they carried out their work, they followed the instructions given to them.

<sup>33</sup> These are the persons, together with their sons, who served by preparing for and directing worship: from the family of the Kohathites was Heman the choirmaster, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

<sup>34</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

<sup>35</sup> the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,

<sup>37</sup> the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>38</sup> the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

<sup>41</sup> the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

<sup>46</sup> the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, <sup>47</sup> the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

<sup>48</sup> The rest of the Levites were assigned to all the other work in the place of worship, the house of God.

<sup>49</sup> Aaron and his sons offered the sacrifices on the Altar of Burnt Offering and the Altar of Incense; they were in charge of all the work surrounding the Holy of Holies. They made atonement for Israel following the instructions commanded by Moses, servant of God.

<sup>54</sup> And these are the places where the priestly families were assigned to live.

The first assignment went by lot to the sons of Aaron of the Kohathite family;

<sup>55</sup> they were given Hebron in the land of Judah and all the neighboring pastures.

<sup>60</sup> They were also given Geba from the tribe of Benjamin, Alemeth, and Anathoth, all with pastures included. In all, thirteen cities were distributed among the Kohathite families.

7 <sup>1</sup> The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron--four sons.

<sup>3</sup> The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah; the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isshiah--five sons and all of them chiefs.

<sup>4</sup> They counted 36,000 warriors in their lineage because they had more wives and sons than their brothers.

Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar

name was Sheresh and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

<sup>17</sup> Ulam's son was Bedan. This accounts for the sons of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh.

<sup>23</sup> Then he slept with his wife again. She conceived and produced a son. He named him Beriah (Unlucky), because of the bad luck that had come to his family.

<sup>28</sup> They occupied Bethel and the neighboring country from Naaran on the east to Gezer and its villages on the west, along with Shechem and its villages, and extending as far as Ayyah and its villages.

<sup>29</sup> Stretched along the borders of Manasseh were Beth Shan, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor, together with their satellite villages. The families descended from Joseph son of Israel lived in all these places.

brave in battle--good leaders. They listed 26,000 combat-ready men in their family tree.

8 <sup>1</sup> Benjamin's firstborn son was Bela, followed by Ashbel, Aharah, <sup>2</sup> Nohah, and Rapha--five in all.

<sup>6</sup> These are the families of Ehud that lived in Geba and were exiled to Manahath:

<sup>7</sup> Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, who led them to exile and had Uzza and Ahihud.

Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,

<sup>27</sup> Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zicri.

<sup>28</sup> These were the chiefs of the families as listed in their family tree. They lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah.

<sup>30</sup> Abdon was his firstborn son, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab,

<sup>31</sup> Gedor, Ahio, Zeker, and Mikloth.

<sup>32</sup> Mikloth had Shimeah. They lived in the neighborhood of their extended families in Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> Ner had Kish, Kish had Saul, and Saul had Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

<sup>34</sup> Jonathan had Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal had Micah.

<sup>40</sup> Ulam's sons were warriors well known as archers. They had lots of sons and grandsons--at least 150. These were all in Benjamin's family tree.

9<sup>1</sup> This is the complete family tree for all Israel, recorded in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Israel and Judah] at the time they were exiled to Babylon because of their unbelieving and disobedient lives.

<sup>2</sup> The first Israelites to return from exile to their homes and cities were the priests, the Levites, and the temple support staff.

<sup>4</sup> Uthai son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the line of Perez son of Judah;

<sup>6</sup> from the family of Zerah there was Jeuel. There were 690 in the Judah group.

<sup>7</sup> From the family of Benjamin were Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah, <sup>8</sup> and Ibneiah son of Jeroham, and Elah son of Uzzi, the son of Micri, and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah.

<sup>9</sup> There were 956 in the Benjamin group. All these named were heads of families.

<sup>10</sup> From the company of priests there were Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jakin;

<sup>11</sup> Azariah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, who was in charge of taking care of the house of God;

<sup>12</sup> Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; also Maasai son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.

<sup>13</sup> The priests, all of them heads of families, numbered 1,760, skilled and seasoned servants in the work of worshipping God.

<sup>14</sup> From the Levites were Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, a Merarite;

<sup>15</sup> then Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zicri, the son of Asaph;

<sup>16</sup> also Obadiah son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and finally Berekiah son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

<sup>18</sup> and up to now the security guard at the King's Gate on the east. They also served as security guards at the camps of Levite families.

<sup>19</sup> Shallum son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, along with his brothers in the Korahite family, were in charge of the services of worship as doorkeepers of the Tent, as their ancestors had guarded the entrance to the camp of God.

<sup>20</sup> In the early days, Phinehas son of Eleazar was in charge of the security guards--God be with him!

<sup>21</sup> Now Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the security guard at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>22</sup> The number of those who had been chosen to be security guards was 212--they were officially registered in their own camps. David and Samuel the seer handpicked them for their dependability.

<sup>23</sup> They and their sons had the permanent responsibility for guarding the gates of God's house, the house of worship;

<sup>25</sup> their brothers in the villages were scheduled to give them relief weekly--the four main security guards were responsible for round-the-clock surveillance.

<sup>26</sup> Being Levites, they were responsible for the security of all supplies and valuables in the house of God.

<sup>27</sup> They kept watch all through the night and had the key to open the doors each morning.

<sup>28</sup> Some were in charge of the articles used in The Temple worship--they counted them both when they brought them in and when they took them out.

<sup>29</sup> Others were in charge of supplies in the sanctuary--flour, wine, oil, incense, and spices.

<sup>31</sup> The Levite Mattithiah, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was responsible for baking the bread for the services of worship.

<sup>32</sup> Some of the brothers, sons of the Kohathites, were assigned to preparing the bread set out on the table each Sabbath.

<sup>33</sup> And then there were the musicians, all heads of Levite families. They had permanent living quarters in The Temple; because they were on twenty-four-hour duty, <sup>34</sup> they were exempt from all other duties. These were the heads of Levite families as designated in their family tree. They lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan--the sons of Azel.

<sup>4</sup> Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and finish me off before these pagan pigs get to me and make a sport of my body." But his armor bearer, restrained by both reverence and fear, wouldn't do it. So Saul took his own sword and killed himself.

<sup>5</sup> The armor bearer, panicked because Saul was dead, then killed himself.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul and his three sons--all four the same day--died.

<sup>7</sup> When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and ran off; the Philistines came and moved in.

<sup>12</sup> All of their fighting men went into action--retrieved the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh, gave them a dignified burial under the oak at Jabesh, and mourned their deaths for seven days.

<sup>13</sup> Saul died in disobedience, disobedient to GOD. He didn't obey GOD's words. Instead of praying, he went to a witch to seek guidance.

<sup>14</sup> Because he didn't go to GOD for help, GOD took his life and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

11 <sup>1</sup> Then all Israel assembled before David at Hebron. "Look at us," they said. "We're your very flesh and blood.

<sup>2</sup> In the past, yes, even while Saul was king, you were the real leader of Israel. GOD told you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel; you are to be the ruler of my people Israel.'"

<sup>3</sup> When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them in the presence of GOD at Hebron. Then they anointed David king over Israel exactly as GOD had commanded through Samuel.

<sup>4</sup> David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (it was the old Jebus, where the Jebusites lived).

<sup>6</sup> David had said, "The first person to kill a Jebusite will be commander-in-chief." Joab son of Zeruiah was the first; and he became the chief.

<sup>9</sup> David's stride became longer, his embrace larger--yes, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies was with him!

<sup>10</sup> These are the chiefs of David's Mighty Men, the ones who linked arms with him as he took up his kingship, with all Israel joining in, helping him become king in just the way GOD had spoken regarding Israel.

<sup>11</sup> The list of David's Mighty Men: Jashobeam son of Hacmoni was chief of the Thirty. Singlehandedly he killed three hundred men, killed them all in one skirmish.

<sup>12</sup> Next was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the Big Three of the Mighty Men.

<sup>13</sup> He was with David at Pas Dammim, where the Philistines had mustered their troops for battle. It was an area where there was a field of barley. The army started to flee from the Philistines

<sup>14</sup> and then took its stand right in that field--and turned the tide! They slaughtered the Philistines, GOD helping them--a huge victory.

<sup>16</sup> David was holed up in the Cave while the Philistines were prepared for battle at Bethlehem.

<sup>18</sup> The Three penetrated the Philistine camp, drew water from the well at the Bethlehem gate, shouldered it, and brought it to David. And then David wouldn't drink it! He poured it out as a sacred offering to GOD, <sup>19</sup> saying, "I'd rather be damned by God than drink this! It would be like drinking the lifeblood of these men--they risked their lives to bring it." So he refused to drink it. These are the kinds of things that the Big Three of the Mighty Men did.

<sup>20</sup> Abishai brother of Joab was the chief of the Thirty. Singlehandedly he fought three hundred men, and killed the lot, but he never made it into the circle of the Three.

<sup>21</sup> He was highly honored by the Thirty--he was their chief--still, he didn't measure up to the Three.

<sup>22</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a Mighty Man from Kabzeel with many exploits to his credit: he killed two famous Moabites; he climbed down into a pit and killed a lion on a snowy day;

<sup>23</sup> and he killed an Egyptian, a giant seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian had a spear like a ship's boom but Benaiah went at him with a mere club, tore the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with it.

<sup>24</sup> These are some of the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did. But he was never included with the Three.

Abiel the Arbathite,

<sup>33</sup> Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba
the Shaalbonite,

<sup>34</sup> the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,

<sup>35</sup> Ahiam son of Sacar the Haranite, Eliphal son of Ur,

<sup>36</sup> Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

<sup>37</sup> Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,

<sup>38</sup> Joel brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri,

<sup>39</sup> Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

<sup>40</sup> Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

Reubenite chief of the Thirty,

12 <sup>1</sup> These are the men who joined David in Ziklag; it was during the time he was banished by Saul the son of Kish; they were among the Mighty Men, good fighters.

Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah;
Jehu the Anathothite;

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a Mighty Man among the Thirty, a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah; Jahaziel; Johanan; Jozabad the Gederathite;

<sup>8</sup> There were some Gadites there who had defected to David at his wilderness fortress; they were seasoned and eager fighters who knew how to handle shield and spear. They were wild in appearance, like lions, but as agile as gazelles racing across the hills.

<sup>14</sup> These Gadites were the cream of the crop--any one of them was worth a hundred lesser men, and the best of them were worth a thousand.

<sup>15</sup> They were the ones who crossed the Jordan when it was at flood stage in the first month, and put everyone in the lowlands to flight, both east and west.

<sup>16</sup> There were also men from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah who joined David in his wilderness fortress.

<sup>17</sup> When David went out to meet them, this is what he said: "If you have come in peace and to help me, you are most welcome to join this company; but if you have come to betray me to my enemies, innocent as I am, the God of our ancestors will see through you and bring judgment on you."

<sup>18</sup> Just then Amasai chief of the Thirty, moved by God's Spirit, said, We're on your side, O David, We're committed, O son of Jesse; All is well, yes, all is well with you, And all's well with whoever helps you. Yes, for your God has helped and does help you. So David took them on and assigned them a place under the chiefs of the raiders.

<sup>19</sup> Some from the tribe of Manasseh also defected to David when he started out with the Philistines to go to war against Saul. In the end, they didn't actually fight because the Philistine leaders, after talking it over, sent them home, saying, "We can't trust them with our lives--they'll betray us to their master Saul."

<sup>20</sup> The men from Manasseh who defected to David at Ziklag were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, all leaders among the families of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> They helped David in his raids against the desert bandits; they were all stalwart fighters and good leaders among his raiders.

<sup>32</sup> from Issachar, men who understood both the times and Israel's duties, 200 leaders with their families;

<sup>38</sup> All these soldiers came to David at Hebron, ready to fight if necessary; they were both united and determined to make David king over all Israel. And everyone else in Israel was of the same mind--"Make David king!"

<sup>39</sup> They were with David for three days of feasting celebration, with food and drink supplied by their families.

13 <sup>1</sup> David consulted with all of his leaders, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds.

<sup>2</sup> Then David addressed the entire assembly of Israel, "If it seems right to you, and it is GOD's will, let's invite all our relatives wherever they are throughout Israel, along with their relatives, including their priests and Levites from their cities and surrounding pastures, to join us.

<sup>3</sup> And let's bring the Chest of our God back--the Chest that was out of sight, out of mind during the days of Saul."

<sup>4</sup> The entire assembly of Israel agreed--everybody agreed that it was the right thing to do.

<sup>6</sup> Then David and all Israel went to Baalah (Kiriath Jearim) in Judah to bring back the Chest of God, the "Cherubim-Throne-of-GOD," where GOD's Name is invoked.

<sup>7</sup> They moved the Chest of God on a brand-new cart from the house of Abinadab with Uzzah and Ahio in charge.

<sup>8</sup> In procession with the Chest of God, David and all Israel worshiped exuberantly in song and dance, with a marching band of all kinds of instruments.

<sup>9</sup> When they were at the threshing floor of Kidon, the oxen stumbled and Uzzah grabbed the Chest to keep it from falling off.

<sup>10</sup> GOD erupted in anger against Uzzah and killed him because he grabbed the Chest. He died on the spot--in the presence of God.

<sup>12</sup> David was terrified of God that day; he said, "How can I possibly continue this parade with the Chest of God?"

<sup>13</sup> So David called off the parade of the Chest to the City of David; instead he stored it in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

<sup>14</sup> The Chest of God was in storage in the house of Obed-Edom for three months. GOD blessed the family of Obed-Edom and everything around him.

14 <sup>1</sup> King Hiram of Tyre sent an envoy to David, along with cedar lumber, masons, and carpenters to build him a royal palace.

<sup>2</sup> Then David knew for sure that GOD had confirmed him as king over Israel, because of the rising reputation that GOD was giving his kingdom for the benefit of his people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> The minute the Philistines heard that David had been made king over a united Israel, they went out in force to capture David. When David got the report, he marched out to confront them.

<sup>10</sup> David prayed to God: "Is this the right time to attack the Philistines? Will you give me the victory?" GOD answered, "Attack; I'll give you the victory."

<sup>13</sup> And then the Philistines were back at it again, plundering in the valley.

<sup>14</sup> David again prayed to God. God answered, "This time don't attack head-on; circle around and come at them out of the balsam grove.

<sup>15</sup> When you hear a sound like shuffling feet in the tops of the balsams, attack; God will be two steps ahead of you, slaughtering the Philistines."

<sup>17</sup> David was soon famous all over the place, far and near; and GOD put the fear of God into the godless nations.

15 <sup>1</sup> After David built houses for himself in the City of David, he cleared a place for the Chest and pitched a tent for it.

<sup>2</sup> Then David gave orders: "No one carries the Chest of God except the Levites; GOD designated them and them only to carry the Chest of GOD and be available full time for service in the work of worship."

<sup>3</sup> David then called everyone in Israel to assemble in Jerusalem to bring up the Chest of GOD to its specially prepared place.

<sup>11</sup> Then David called in Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab the Levites.

<sup>12</sup> He said, "You are responsible for the Levitical families; now consecrate yourselves, both you and your relatives, and bring up the Chest of the GOD of Israel to the place I have set aside for it.

<sup>13</sup> The first time we did this, you Levites did not carry it properly, and GOD exploded in anger at us because we didn't make proper preparation and follow instructions."

<sup>14</sup> So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the Chest of the GOD of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> Now they were ready. David, the elders of Israel, and the commanders of thousands started out to get the Chest of the Covenant of GOD and bring it up from the house of Obed-Edom. And they went rejoicing.

<sup>26</sup> Because God helped the Levites, strengthening them as they carried the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, they paused to worship by sacrificing seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup> They were all dressed in elegant linen--David, the Levites carrying the Chest, the choir and band, and Kenaniah who was directing the music. David also wore a linen prayer shawl (called an ephod).

<sup>28</sup> On they came, all Israel on parade bringing up the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, shouting and cheering, playing every kind of brass and percussion and string instrument.

<sup>29</sup> When the Chest of the Covenant of GOD entered the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, was watching from a window. When she saw King David dancing ecstatically she was filled with contempt.

16 <sup>1</sup> They brought the Chest of God and placed it right in the center of the tent that David had pitched for it; then they worshiped by presenting burnt offerings and peace offerings to God.

<sup>2</sup> When David had completed the offerings of worship, he blessed the people in the name of GOD.

<sup>3</sup> Then he passed around to every one there, men and women alike, a loaf of bread, a slice of barbecue, and a raisin cake.

<sup>4</sup> Then David assigned some of the Levites to the Chest of GOD to lead worship--to intercede, give thanks, and praise the GOD of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Asaph was in charge; under him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, who played the musical instruments. Asaph was on percussion.

<sup>6</sup> The priests Benaiah and Jahaziel blew the trumpets before the Chest of the Covenant of God at set times through the day.

<sup>7</sup> That was the day that David inaugurated regular worship of praise to GOD, led by Asaph and his company.

<sup>8</sup> Thank GOD! Call out his Name! Tell the whole world who he is and what he's done!

<sup>9</sup> Sing to him! Play songs for him!
Broadcast all his wonders!

<sup>10</sup> Revel in his holy Name, GOD-seekers, be jubilant!

<sup>14</sup> He is GOD, [our] God; wherever you go you come on his judgments and decisions.

<sup>17</sup> He posted it in big block letters to Jacob, this eternal covenant with Israel:

<sup>29</sup> Shout Bravo! to his famous Name, lift high an offering and enter his presence! Stand resplendent in his robes of holiness!

<sup>30</sup> God is serious business, take him seriously; he's put the earth in place and it's not moving.

<sup>31</sup> So let heaven rejoice, let earth be jubilant, and pass the word among the nations, "GOD reigns!"

<sup>32</sup> Let Ocean, all teeming with life, bellow, let Field and all its creatures shake the rafters;

<sup>35</sup> Say, "Save us, Savior God, round us up and get us out of these godless places, So we can give thanks to your holy Name, and bask in your life of praise."

<sup>36</sup> Blessed be GOD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then everybody said, "Yes! Amen!" and "Praise GOD!"

<sup>38</sup> He also assigned Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight relatives to help them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were in charge of the security guards.

<sup>39</sup> The priest Zadok and his family of priests were assigned to the Tent of GOD at the sacred mound at Gibeon

<sup>40</sup> to make sure that the services of morning and evening worship were conducted daily, complete with Whole-Burnt-Offerings offered on the Altar of Burnt Offering, as ordered in the Law of GOD, which was the norm for Israel.

<sup>41</sup> With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and others specifically named, with the job description: "Give thanks to GOD, for his love never quits!"

<sup>42</sup> Heman and Jeduthun were also well equipped with trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments for accompanying sacred songs. The sons of Jeduthun formed the security guard.

17 <sup>1</sup> After the king had made himself at home, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look at this: Here I am comfortable in a luxurious palace of cedar and the Chest of the Covenant of GOD sits under a tent."

<sup>2</sup> Nathan told David, "Whatever is on your heart, go and do it; God is with you."

<sup>3</sup> But that night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup> "Go and tell my servant David, This is GOD's word on the matter: You will not build me a 'house' to live in.

<sup>5</sup> Why, I haven't lived in a 'house' from the time I brought up the children of Israel from Egypt till now; I've gone from one tent and makeshift shelter to another.

<sup>6</sup> In all my travels with all Israel, did I ever say to any of the leaders I commanded to shepherd Israel, 'Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?'

<sup>7</sup> "So here is what you are to tell my servant David: The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has this word for you: I took you from the pasture, tagging after sheep, and made you prince over my people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> I was with you everywhere you went and mowed your enemies down before you; and now I'm about to make you famous, ranked with the great names on earth.

<sup>9</sup> I'm going to set aside a place for my people Israel and plant them there so they'll have their own home and not be knocked around anymore; nor will evil nations afflict them as they always have, <sup>10</sup> even during the days I set judges over my people Israel. And finally, I'm going to conquer all your enemies. "And now I'm telling you this: GOD himself will build you a house!

<sup>12</sup> He will build a house to honor me, and I will guarantee his kingdom's rule forever.

<sup>13</sup> I'll be a father to him, and he'll be a son to me. I will never remove my gracious love from him as I did from the one who preceded you.

<sup>14</sup> I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will always be there, rock solid."

<sup>15</sup> Nathan gave David a complete and accurate report of everything he heard and saw in the vision.

<sup>16</sup> King David went in, took his place before GOD, and prayed: Who am I, my Master GOD, and what is my family, that you have brought me to this place in life?

<sup>17</sup> But that's nothing compared to what's coming, for you've also spoken of my family far into the future, given me a glimpse into tomorrow and looked on me, Master GOD, as a Somebody.

<sup>18</sup> What's left for David to say to this--to your honoring your servant, even though you know me, just as I am?

<sup>19</sup> O GOD, out of the goodness of your heart, you've taken your servant to do this great thing and put your great work on display.

<sup>20</sup> There's none like you, GOD, no God but you, nothing to compare with what we've heard with our own ears.

<sup>21</sup> And who is like your people, like Israel, a nation unique on earth, whom God set out to redeem as his own people (and became most famous for it), performing great and fearsome acts, throwing out nations and their gods left and right as you saved your people from Egypt?

<sup>22</sup> You established for yourself a people--your very own Israel!--your people forever. And you, GOD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup> So now, great GOD, this word that you have spoken to me and my family, guarantee it forever! Do exactly what you've promised!

<sup>24</sup> Then your reputation will be confirmed and flourish always as people exclaim, "The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!" And the house of your servant David will remain rock solid under your watchful presence.

<sup>25</sup> You, my God, have told me plainly, "I will build you a house." That's how I was able to find the courage to pray this prayer to you.

<sup>26</sup> GOD, being the God you are, you have spoken all these wonderful words to me.

<sup>27</sup> As if that weren't enough, you've blessed my family so that it will continue in your presence always. Because you have blessed it, GOD, it's [really] blessed--blessed for good!

18 <sup>1</sup> In the days that followed, David struck hard at the Philistines, bringing them to their knees, captured Gath, and took control of the surrounding countryside.

<sup>5</sup> When the Arameans from Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 of them.

<sup>6</sup> David set up a puppet government in Aram-Damascus. The Arameans became subjects of David and were forced to bring tribute. GOD gave victory to David wherever he marched.

<sup>7</sup> David plundered the gold shields that belonged to the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> He also looted Tebah and Cun, cities of Hadadezer, of a huge quantity of bronze that Solomon later used to make the Great Bronze Sea, the Pillars, and bronze equipment in The Temple.

<sup>9</sup> Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck down the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah.

<sup>10</sup> He sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet and congratulate him for fighting and defeating Hadadezer. Tou and Hadadezer were old enemies. Hadoram brought David various things made of silver, gold, and bronze.

<sup>12</sup> Abishai son of Zeruah fought and defeated the Edomites in the Valley of Salt--18,000 of them.

<sup>13</sup> He set up a puppet government in Edom and the Edomites became subjects under David. GOD gave David victory wherever he marched.

<sup>15</sup> Joab son of Zeruah was head of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of public records;

<sup>16</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;

<sup>17</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the special forces, the Kerethites and Pelethites; And David's sons held high positions, close to the king.

19 <sup>1</sup> Some time after this Nahash king of the Ammonites died and his son succeeded him as king.

<sup>2</sup> David said, "I'd like to show some kindness to Hanun son of Nahash--treat him as well and as kindly as his father treated me." So David sent condolences about his father's death. But when David's servants arrived in Ammonite country and came to Hanun to bring condolences,

<sup>3</sup> the Ammonite leaders warned Hanun, "Do you for a minute suppose that David is honoring your father by sending you comforters? Don't you know that he's sent these men to snoop around the city and size it up so that he can capture it?"

<sup>5</sup> When this was all reported to David, he sent someone to meet them, for they were seriously humiliated. The king told them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; only then come back."

<sup>6</sup> When it dawned on the Ammonites that as far as David was concerned, they stank to high heaven, <sup>7</sup> they hired, at a cost of a thousand talents of silver (thirty-seven and a half tons!), chariots and horsemen from the Arameans of Naharaim, Maacah, and Zobah--32,000 chariots and drivers; plus the king of Maacah with his troops who came and set up camp at Medeba; the Ammonites, too, were mobilized from their cities and got ready for battle.

<sup>10</sup> When Joab saw that he had two fronts to fight, before and behind, he took his pick of the best of Israel and deployed them to confront the Arameans.

<sup>11</sup> The rest of the army he put under the command of Abishai, his brother, and deployed them to deal with the Ammonites.

<sup>12</sup> Then he said, "If the Arameans are too much for me, you help me; and if the Ammonites prove too much for you, I'll come and help you.

<sup>13</sup> Courage! We'll fight might and main for our people and for the cities of our

God. And GOD will do whatever he sees needs doing!"

<sup>14</sup> But when Joab and his soldiers moved in to fight the Arameans, they ran off in full retreat.

<sup>15</sup> Then the Ammonites, seeing the Arameans run for dear life, took to their heels and ran from Abishai into the city. So Joab withdrew from the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> When the Arameans saw how badly they'd been beaten by Israel, they picked up the pieces and regrouped; they sent for the Arameans who were across the river; Shophach, commander of Hadadezer's army, led them.

<sup>17</sup> When all this was reported to David, he mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, advanced, and prepared to fight. The Arameans went into battle formation, ready for David, and the fight was on.

<sup>18</sup> But the Arameans again scattered before Israel. David killed 7,000 chariot drivers and 40,000 infantry. He also killed Shophach, the army commander.

<sup>19</sup> When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. The Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites ever again.

20 <sup>1</sup> That spring, the time when kings usually go off to war, Joab led the army out and ravaged the Ammonites. He then set siege to Rabbah. David meanwhile was back in Jerusalem. Joab hit Rabbah hard and left it in ruins.

<sup>2</sup> David took the crown off the head of their king. Its weight was found to be a talent of gold and set with a precious stone. It was placed on David's head. He hauled great quantities of loot from the city

<sup>3</sup> and put the people to hard labor with saws and picks and axes. This is what he did to all the Ammonites. Then David and his army returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Later war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. That was the time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai of the clan of giants. The Philistines had to eat crow.

<sup>5</sup> In another war with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite whose spear was like a ship's boom.

<sup>6</sup> And then there was the war at Gath that featured a hulking giant who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and foot--yet another from the clan of giants.

<sup>8</sup> These came from the clan of giants and were killed by David and his men.

21 <sup>1</sup> Now Satan entered the scene and seduced David into taking a census of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Joab resisted: "May GOD multiply his people by hundreds! Don't they all belong to my master the king? But why on earth would you do a thing like this--why risk getting Israel into trouble with God?"

<sup>4</sup> But David wouldn't take no for an answer, so Joab went off and did it--canvassed the country and then came back to Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup> and reported the results of the census: There were 1,100,000 fighting men; of that total, Judah accounted for 470,000.

<sup>6</sup> Joab, disgusted by the command--it, in fact, turned his stomach!--protested by leaving Levi and Benjamin out of the census-taking.

<sup>9</sup> GOD answered by speaking to Gad, David's pastor:

<sup>12</sup> "Do you want three years of famine, three months of running from your enemies while they chase you down, or three days of the sword of GOD--an epidemic unleashed on the country by an angel of GOD? Think it over and make up your mind. What shall I tell the One who sent me?"

<sup>14</sup> So GOD unleashed an epidemic in Israel--70,000 Israelites died.

<sup>15</sup> God then sent the angel to Jerusalem but when he saw the destruction about to begin, he compassionately changed his mind and ordered the death angel, "Enough's enough! Pull back!" The angel of GOD had just reached the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup> David looked up and saw the angel hovering between earth and sky, sword drawn and about to strike Jerusalem. David and the elders bowed in prayer and covered themselves with rough burlap.

<sup>17</sup> David prayed, "Please! I'm the one who sinned; I'm the one at fault. But these sheep, what did they do wrong? Punish me, not them, me and my family; don't take it out on them."

<sup>18</sup> The angel of GOD ordered Gad to tell David to go and build an altar to GOD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>22</sup> David said to Araunah, "Give me the site of the threshing floor so I can build an altar to GOD. Charge me the market price; we're going to put an end to this disaster."

<sup>23</sup> "O master, my king," said Araunah, "just take it; do whatever you want with it! Look, here's an ox for the burnt offering and threshing paddles for the fuel and wheat for the meal offering--it's all yours!"

<sup>26</sup> He built an altar to GOD there and sacrificed Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings. He called out to GOD and GOD answered by striking the altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering with lightning.

<sup>27</sup> Then GOD told the angel to put his sword back into its scabbard.

<sup>28</sup> And that's the story of what happened when David saw that GOD answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite at the time he offered the sacrifice.

<sup>29</sup> At this time the Tabernacle that Moses had constructed in the desert, and with it the Altar of Burnt Offering, were set up at the worship center at Gibeon.

<sup>30</sup> But David, terrified by the angel's sword, wouldn't go there to pray to God anymore.

22 <sup>1</sup> So David declared, "From now on, [this] is the site for the worship of GOD; [this] is the place for Israel's Altar of Burnt Offering."

<sup>2</sup> David ordered all the resident aliens in the land to come together; he sent them to the stone quarries to cut dressed stone to build The Temple of God.

<sup>3</sup> He also stockpiled a huge quantity of iron for nails and bracings for the doors of the gates, more bronze than could be weighed,

<sup>4</sup> and cedar logs past counting (the Sidonians and Tyrians shipped in huge loads of cedar logs for David).

<sup>5</sup> David was thinking, "My son Solomon is too young to plan ahead for this. But the sanctuary that is to be built for GOD has to be the greatest, the talk of all the nations; so I'll get the construction materials together." That's why David prepared this huge stockpile of building materials before he died.

<sup>6</sup> Then he called in Solomon his son and commanded him to build a sanctuary for the GOD of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> David said to Solomon, "I wanted in the worst way to build a sanctuary to honor my GOD.

<sup>8</sup> But GOD prevented me, saying, 'You've killed too many people, fought too many wars. You are not the one to honor me by building a sanctuary--you've been responsible for too much killing, too much bloodshed.

<sup>9</sup> But you are going to have a son and he will be a quiet and peaceful man, and I will calm his enemies down on all sides. His very name will speak peace--that is, Solomon, which means Peace--and I'll give peace and rest under his rule.

<sup>10</sup> He will be the one to build a sanctuary in my honor. He'll be my royal adopted son and I'll be his father; and I'll make sure that the authority of his kingdom over Israel lasts forever.'

<sup>11</sup> "So now, son, GOD be with you. GOD-speed as you build the sanctuary for your GOD, the job God has given you.

<sup>12</sup> And may GOD also give you discernment and understanding when he puts you in charge of Israel so that you will rule in reverent obedience under GOD's Revelation.

<sup>13</sup> That's what will make you successful, following the directions and doing the things that GOD commanded Moses for Israel. Courage! Take charge! Don't be timid; don't hold back.

<sup>14</sup> Look at this--I've gone to a lot of trouble to stockpile materials for the sanctuary of GOD: 100,000 talents (3,775 tons) of gold, a million talents (37,750 tons) of silver, tons of bronze and iron--too much to weigh--and all this timber and stone. And you're free to add more.

<sup>18</sup> saying, "Isn't it obvious that your GOD is present with you; that he has given you peaceful relations with everyone around? My part in this was to put down the enemies, subdue the land to GOD and his people;

<sup>19</sup> your part is to give yourselves, heart and soul, to praying to your GOD. So get moving--build the sacred house of worship to GOD! Then bring the Chest of the Covenant of GOD and all the holy furnishings for the worship of God into the sanctuary built in honor of GOD."

23 <sup>1</sup> When David got to be an old man, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

<sup>2</sup> At the same time he brought together all the leaders of Israel, the priests, and the Levites.

<sup>4</sup> David sorted them into work groups: "24,000 are in charge of administering worship in the sanctuary; 6,000 are officials and judges;

<sup>5</sup> 4,000 are security guards; and 4,000 are to serve in the orchestra, praising GOD with instruments that I have provided for praise."

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was especially ordained to work in the Holy of Holies, to burn incense before GOD, to serve God and bless his Name always. This was a permanent appointment for Aaron and his sons.

<sup>24</sup> These are the sons of Levi twenty years and older, divided up according to families and heads of families and listed in the work groups that took care of the worship in the sanctuary of GOD.

<sup>25</sup> David said, "Now that the GOD of Israel has given rest to his people and made Jerusalem his permanent home, <sup>26</sup> the Levites no longer have to carry the Tabernacle and all the furniture required for the work of worship."

<sup>28</sup> From now on the assigned work of the Levites was to assist Aaron's sons in the work of worship in GOD's house: maintain courtyards and closets, keep the furniture and utensils of worship clean, take care of any extra work needed in the work of worship, <sup>29</sup> and provide bread for the table and flour for the Meal Offerings and the unraised wafers--all baking and mixing, all measuring and weighing.

<sup>30</sup> Also they were to be present for morning prayers, thanking and praising GOD, for evening prayers,

<sup>31</sup> and at the service of Whole-Burnt-Offerings to GOD on Sabbath, at New Moons, and at all festivals. They were on regular duty to serve GOD according to their assignment and the required number.

<sup>32</sup> In short, the Levites, with the sons of Aaron as their companions in the ministry of holy worship, were responsible for everything that had to do with worship: the place and times and ordering of worship.

24 <sup>1</sup> The family of Aaron was grouped as follows: Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>4</sup> It turned out that there were more leaders in Eleazar's family than in Ithamar's and so they divided them proportionately: sixteen clan leaders from Eleazar's family and eight clan leaders from Ithamar's family.

<sup>5</sup> They assigned the leaders by lot, treating both families alike, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among both the Eleazar and Ithamar families.

<sup>6</sup> The secretary Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, wrote down their names in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the priestly and Levitical families. They took turns: One family was selected from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

<sup>9</sup> the fifth to Malkijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

<sup>10</sup> the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

<sup>19</sup> They served in this appointed order when they entered The Temple of GOD, following the procedures laid down by their ancestor Aaron as GOD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup> And from the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the Levites by their families.

<sup>31</sup> They also cast lots, the same as their kindred the sons of Aaron had done, in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the leaders of the priestly and Levitical families. The families of the oldest and youngest brothers were treated the same.

25 <sup>1</sup> Next David and the worship leaders selected some from the family of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun for special service in preaching and music. Here is the roster of names and assignments:

<sup>2</sup> From the family of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah; they were supervised by Asaph, who spoke for GOD backed up by the king's authority.

<sup>3</sup> From the family of Jeduthun there were six sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah; they were supervised by their father Jeduthun, who preached and accompanied himself with the zither--he was responsible for leading the thanks and praise to GOD.

<sup>5</sup> These were the sons of Heman the king's seer; they supported and assisted him in his divinely appointed work. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup> Under their father's supervision they were in charge of leading the singing and providing musical accompaniment in the work of worship in the sanctuary of God (Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman took their orders directly from the king).

<sup>7</sup> They were well-trained in the sacred music, all of them masters. There were 288 of them.

<sup>8</sup> They drew names at random to see who would do what. Nobody, whether young or old, teacher or student, was given preference or advantage over another.

<sup>10</sup> third, Zaccur and his twelve sons and brothers;

<sup>11</sup> fourth, Izri and his twelve sons and brothers;

<sup>8</sup> These all came from the line of Obed-Edom--all of them outstanding and strong. There were sixty-two of them.

<sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah had eighteen sons and relatives who were outstanding.

<sup>10</sup> The sons of Hosah the Merarite were Shimri (he was not the firstborn but his father made him first),

Gate on the high road. The guards stood shoulder to shoulder:

<sup>26</sup> Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of valuables consecrated by David the king, family heads, and various generals and commanders from the army.

<sup>27</sup> They dedicated the plunder that they had gotten in war to the work of the worship of GOD.

<sup>28</sup> In addition, everything that had been dedicated by Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruah--anything that had been dedicated, ever, was the responsibility of Shelomith and his family.

<sup>29</sup> From the family of the Izharites, Kenaniah and sons were appointed as officials and judges responsible for affairs outside the work of worship and sanctuary.

<sup>30</sup> From the family of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his relatives--1,700 well-qualified men--were responsible for administration of matters related to the worship of GOD and the king's work in the territory west of the Jordan.

<sup>31</sup> According to the family tree of the Hebronites, Jeriah held pride of place. In the fortieth year of David's reign (his last), the Hebron family tree was researched and outstanding men were found at Jazer in Gilead,

<sup>32</sup> namely, Jeriah and 2,700 men of his extended family: David the king made them responsible for administration of matters related to the worship of God and the work of the king in the territory east of the Jordan--the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

27 <sup>1</sup> Here is the listing of the sons of Israel by family heads, commanders and captains, and other officers who served the king in everything military. Army divisions were on duty a month at a time for the twelve months of the year. Each division comprised 24,000 men.

<sup>2</sup> First division, first month: Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was in charge with 24,000 men.

<sup>5</sup> Commander for the third month:
Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest with 24,000 men.

<sup>6</sup> This was the same Benaiah who was a Mighty Man among the Thirty and their chief. His son Ammizabad was in charge of the division.

<sup>7</sup> Fourth division for the fourth month:
Asahel brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah succeeded him: 24,000 men.

<sup>8</sup> Fifth division, fifth month: commander
Shamhuth the Izrahite: 24,000 men.

<sup>9</sup> Sixth division, sixth month: Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: 24,000 men.

<sup>10</sup> Seventh division, seventh month:
Helez the Pelonite, an Ephraimite:
24,000 men.

<sup>11</sup> Eighth division, eighth month:
Sibbecai the Hushathite, a Zerahite:
24,000 men.

<sup>20</sup> for Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azaziah; for one half-tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiiah;

<sup>21</sup> for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; for Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;

<sup>22</sup> for Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham. These are the administrative officers assigned to the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> David didn't keep a count of men under the age of twenty, because GOD had promised to give Israel a population as numerous as the stars in the sky.

<sup>24</sup> Joab son of Zeruah started out counting the men, but he never finished.
God's anger broke out on Israel because of the counting. As it turned out, the numbers were never entered into the court records of King David.

<sup>25</sup> The king's storage facilities were supervised by Azmaveth son of Adiel.

Jonathan son of Uzziah was responsible for the warehouses in the outlying areas.

<sup>26</sup> Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers on the farms.

<sup>28</sup> Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the western hills, and Joash was in charge of the olive oil.

<sup>29</sup> Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of herds grazing in Sharon and Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of herds in the valley.

<sup>30</sup> Obil the Ismaelite was in charge of the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys,

<sup>31</sup> and Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks. These were the ones responsible for taking care of King David's property.

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan, David's uncle, a wise and literate counselor, and Jehiel son of Hacmoni, were responsible for rearing the king's sons.

28 <sup>1</sup> David called together all the leaders of Israel--tribal administrators, heads of various governmental operations, military commanders and captains, stewards in charge of the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons--everyone who held responsible positions in the kingdom.

<sup>2</sup> King David stood tall and spoke: "Listen to me, my people: I fully intended to build a permanent structure for the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, God's footstool. But when I got ready to build it,

<sup>3</sup> God said to me, 'You may not build a house to honor me--you've done too much fighting--killed too many people.'

<sup>4</sup> GOD chose me out of my family to be king over Israel forever. First he chose Judah as the lead tribe, then he narrowed it down to my family, and finally he picked me from my father's sons, pleased to make me the king over all Israel.

<sup>5</sup> And then from all my sons--and GOD gave me many!--he chose my son Solomon to sit on the throne of GOD's rule over Israel.

<sup>6</sup> He went on to say, 'Your son Solomon will build my house and my courts: I have chosen him to be my royal adopted son; and I will be to him a father.'

<sup>7</sup> I will guarantee that his kingdom will last if he continues to be as strong-minded in doing what I command and carrying out my decisions as he is doing now.'

<sup>8</sup> "And now, in this public place, all Israel looking on and God listening in, as GOD's people, obey and study every last one of the commandments of your GOD so that you can make the most of living in this good land and pass it on intact to your children, insuring a good future.

<sup>9</sup> "And you, Solomon my son, get to know well your father's God; serve him with a whole heart and eager mind, for GOD examines every heart and sees through every motive. If you seek him, he'll make sure you find him, but if you abandon him, he'll leave you for good.

<sup>10</sup> Look sharp now! GOD has chosen you to build his holy house. Be brave, determined! And do it!"

<sup>11</sup> Then David presented his son Solomon with the plans for The Temple complex: porch, storerooms, meeting rooms, and the place for atoning sacrifice.

<sup>12</sup> He turned over the plans for everything that God's Spirit had brought to his mind: the design of the courtyards, the arrangements of rooms, and the closets for storing all the holy things.

<sup>13</sup> He gave him his plan for organizing the Levites and priests in their work of leading and ordering worship in the house of God, and for caring for the liturgical furnishings.

<sup>14</sup> He provided exact specifications for how much gold and silver was needed for each article used in the services of worship:

<sup>15</sup> the gold and silver Lampstands and lamps,

<sup>17</sup> the gold forks, the bowls and the jars,
<sup>18</sup> and the incense altar. And he gave him the plan for sculpting the cherubs with their wings outstretched over the Chest of the Covenant of GOD--the cherubim throne.

<sup>19</sup> "Here are the blueprints for the whole project as GOD gave me to understand it," David said.

<sup>20</sup> David continued to address Solomon: "Take charge! Take heart! Don't be anxious or get discouraged. GOD, my God, is with you in this; he won't walk off and leave you in the lurch. He's at your side until every last detail is completed for conducting the worship of GOD.

<sup>21</sup> You have all the priests and Levites standing ready to pitch in, and skillful craftsmen and artisans of every kind ready to go to work. Both leaders and people are ready. Just say the word."

29 <sup>1</sup> Then David the king addressed the congregation: "My son Solomon was singled out and chosen by God to do this. But he's young and untested and the work is huge--this is not just a place for people to meet each other, but a house for GOD to meet us.

<sup>2</sup> I've done my best to get everything together for building this house for my God, all the materials necessary: gold, silver, bronze, iron, lumber, precious and varicolored stones, and building stones--vast stockpiles.

<sup>3</sup> Furthermore, because my heart is in this, in addition to and beyond what I have gathered, I'm turning over my personal fortune of gold and silver for making this place of worship for my God:

<sup>4</sup> 3,000 talents (about 113 tons) of gold--all from Ophir, the best--and 7,000 talents (214 tons) of silver for covering the walls of the buildings, <sup>5</sup> and for the gold and silver work by craftsmen and artisans. "And now, how about you? Who among you is ready and willing to join in the giving?"

<sup>6</sup> Ready and willing, the heads of families, leaders of the tribes of Israel, commanders and captains in the army, stewards of the king's affairs, stepped forward and gave willingly.

<sup>7</sup> They gave 5,000 talents (188 tons) and 10,000 darics (185 pounds) of gold, 10,000 talents of silver (377 tons), 18,000 talents of bronze (679 tons), and 100,000 talents (3,775 tons) of iron.

<sup>8</sup> Anyone who had precious jewels put them in the treasury for the building of The Temple of GOD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.

<sup>9</sup> And the people were full of a sense of celebration--all that giving! And all given willingly, freely! King David was exuberant.

<sup>10</sup> David blessed GOD in full view of the entire congregation: Blessed are you, GOD of Israel, our father from of old and forever.

<sup>11</sup> To you, O GOD, belong the greatness and the might, the glory, the victory, the majesty, the splendor; Yes! Everything in heaven, everything on earth; the kingdom all yours! You've raised yourself high over all.

<sup>12</sup> Riches and glory come from you, you're ruler over all; You hold strength and power in the palm of your hand to build up and strengthen all.

<sup>13</sup> And here we are, O GOD, our God, giving thanks to you, praising your splendid Name.

<sup>14</sup> "But me--who am I, and who are these my people, that we should presume to be giving something to you?

Everything comes from you; all we're doing is giving back what we've been given from your generous hand.

<sup>15</sup> As far as you're concerned, we're homeless, shiftless wanderers like our ancestors, our lives mere shadows, hardly anything to us.

<sup>16</sup> GOD, our God, all these materials--these piles of stuff for building a house of worship for you, honoring your Holy Name--it all came from you! It was all yours in the first place!

<sup>17</sup> I know, dear God, that you care nothing for the surface--you want [us], our true selves--and so I have given from the heart, honestly and happily. And now see all these people doing the same, giving freely, willingly--what a joy!

<sup>18</sup> O GOD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, keep this generous spirit alive forever in these people always, keep their hearts set firmly in you.

<sup>19</sup> And give my son Solomon an uncluttered and focused heart so that he can obey what you command, live by your directions and counsel, and carry through with building The Temple for which I have provided."

<sup>20</sup> David then addressed the congregation: "Bless GOD, your God!" And they did it, blessed GOD, the God of their ancestors, and worshiped reverently in the presence of GOD and the king.

<sup>21</sup> The very next day they butchered the sacrificial animals and offered in the worship of Israel to GOD a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand sheep, and in addition drink offerings and many other sacrifices.

joy. Then they ceremonially reenacted Solomon's coronation, anointing David's son before GOD as their leader, and Zadok as priest.

<sup>24</sup> All the leaders of the people, including all the sons of King David, accepted Solomon as their king and promised their loyalty.

<sup>25</sup> Solomon rode high on a crest of popular acclaim--it was all GOD's doing. GOD gave him position and honor beyond any king in Israel before him.

<sup>27</sup> He was king for forty years. He ruled from Hebron seven years and from Jerusalem thirty-three.

<sup>28</sup> He died at a ripe old age, full of days, wealth, and glory. His son Solomon ruled after him.

<sup>30</sup> including a full account of his rule, his exploits, and the times through which he and Israel and the surrounding kingdoms passed.

2 Chronicles

1 <sup>1</sup> Solomon son of David took a firm grip on the reins of his kingdom. GOD was with him and gave him much help.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon addressed all Israel--the commanders and captains, the judges, every leader, and all the heads of families.

<sup>3</sup> Then Solomon and the entire company went to the worship center at Gibeon--that's where the Tent of Meeting of God was, the one that Moses the servant of GOD had made in the wilderness.

<sup>4</sup> The Chest of God, though, was in Jerusalem--David had brought it up from Kiriath Jearim, prepared a special place for it, and pitched a tent for it.

<sup>5</sup> But the Bronze Altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon, in its place before the Tabernacle of GOD; and that is where Solomon and the congregation gathered to pray.

<sup>7</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon. God said, "What do you want from me? Ask."

<sup>8</sup> Solomon answered, "You were extravagantly generous with David my father, and now you have made me king in his place.

<sup>9</sup> Establish, GOD, the words you spoke to my father, for you've given me a staggering task, ruling this mob of people.

<sup>10</sup> Yes, give me wisdom and knowledge as I come and go among this people--for who on his own is capable of leading these, your glorious people?"

<sup>11</sup> God answered Solomon, "This is what has come out of your heart: You didn't grasp for money, wealth, fame, and the doom of your enemies; you didn't even ask for a long life. You asked for wisdom and knowledge so you could govern well my people over whom I've made you king.

<sup>12</sup> Because of this, you get what you asked for--wisdom and knowledge. And I'm presenting you the rest as a bonus--money, wealth, and fame beyond anything the kings before or after you had or will have."

<sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold as common as rocks, and cedar as common as the fig trees in the lowland hills.

2 <sup>1</sup> Solomon gave orders to begin construction on the house of worship in honor of GOD and a palace for himself.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon assigned 70,000 common laborers, 80,000 to work the quarries in the mountains, and 3,600 foremen to manage the workforce.

<sup>3</sup> Then Solomon sent this message to King Hiram of Tyre: "Send me cedar logs, the same kind you sent David my father for building his palace.

<sup>4</sup> I'm about to build a house of worship in honor of GOD, a holy place for burning perfumed incense, for setting out holy bread, for making Whole-Burnt-Offerings at morning and evening worship, and for Sabbath, New Moon, and Holy Day services of worship--the acts of worship required of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> "The house I am building has to be the best, for our God is the best, far better than competing gods.

<sup>6</sup> But who is capable of building such a structure? Why, the skies--the entire cosmos!--can't begin to contain him. And me, who am I to think I can build a house adequate for God--burning incense to him is about all I'm good for!

<sup>7</sup> I need your help: Send me a master artisan in gold, silver, bronze, iron, textiles of purple, crimson, and violet, and who knows the craft of engraving; he will supervise the trained craftsmen in Judah and Jerusalem that my father provided.

<sup>8</sup> Also send cedar, cypress, and algum logs from Lebanon; I know you have lumberjacks experienced in the Lebanon forests. I'll send workers to join your crews

<sup>9</sup> to cut plenty of timber--I'm going to need a lot, for this house I'm building is going to be absolutely stunning--a showcase temple!

<sup>10</sup> I'll provide all the food necessary for your crew of lumberjacks and loggers: 130,000 bushels of wheat, 120,000 gallons of wine, and 120,000 gallons of olive oil."

<sup>11</sup> Hiram king of Tyre wrote Solomon in reply: "It's plain that GOD loves his people--he made you king over them!"

<sup>12</sup> He wrote on, "Blessed be the GOD of Israel, who made heaven and earth, and who gave King David a son so wise, so knowledgeable and shrewd, to build a temple for GOD and a palace for himself.

<sup>13</sup> I've sent you Hiram-Abi--he's already on his way--he knows the construction business inside and out.

<sup>14</sup> His mother is from Dan and his father from Tyre. He knows how to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, in purple, violet, linen, and crimson textiles; he is also an expert engraver and competent to work out designs with your artists and architects, and those of my master David, your father.

<sup>15</sup> "Go ahead and send the wheat, barley, olive oil, and wine you promised for my work crews.

<sup>16</sup> We'll log the trees you need from the Lebanon forests and raft them down to Joppa. You'll have to get the timber up to Jerusalem yourself."

<sup>17</sup> Solomon then took a census of all the foreigners living in Israel, using the same census-taking method employed by his father. They numbered 153,600.

<sup>18</sup> He assigned 70,000 of them as common laborers, 80,000 to work the quarries in the mountains, and 3,600 as foremen to manage the work crews.

3 <sup>1</sup> So Solomon broke ground, launched construction of the house of GOD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, the place where GOD had appeared to his father David. The precise site, the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, had been designated by David.

<sup>2</sup> He broke ground on the second day in the second month of the fourth year of his rule.

<sup>7</sup> Everything was coated with gold veneer: rafters, doorframes, walls, and doors. Cherubim were engraved on the walls.

<sup>8</sup> He made the Holy of Holies a cube, thirty feet wide, long, and high. It was veneered with 600 talents (something over twenty-two tons) of gold.

<sup>9</sup> The gold nails weighed fifty shekels (a little over a pound). The upper rooms were also veneered in gold.

<sup>15</sup> He made two huge free-standing pillars, each fifty-two feet tall, their capitals extending another seven and a half feet.

<sup>16</sup> The top of each pillar was set off with an elaborate filigree of chains, like necklaces, from which hung a hundred pomegranates.

4 <sup>1</sup> He made the Bronze Altar thirty feet long, thirty feet wide, and ten feet high.

<sup>2</sup> He made a Sea--an immense round basin of cast metal fifteen feet in diameter, seven and a half feet high, and forty-five feet in circumference.

<sup>3</sup> Just under the rim, there were two parallel bands of something like bulls, ten to each foot and a half. The figures were cast in one piece with the Sea.

<sup>4</sup> The Sea was set on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. All the bulls faced outward and supported the Sea on their hindquarters.

<sup>5</sup> The Sea was three inches thick and flared at the rim like a cup, or a lily. It held about 18,000 gallons.

<sup>8</sup> He made ten tables and set five on the right and five on the left. He also made a hundred gold bowls.

<sup>11</sup> He also made ash buckets, shovels, and bowls. And that about wrapped it up: Hiram completed the work he had contracted to do for King Solomon:

<sup>12</sup> two pillars; two bowl-shaped capitals for the tops of the pillars; two decorative filigrees for the capitals;

<sup>13</sup> four hundred pomegranates for the filigrees (a double row of pomegranates for each filigree);

<sup>16</sup> miscellaneous buckets, forks, shovels, and bowls. All these artifacts that Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for The Temple of GOD were made of burnished bronze.

<sup>17</sup> The king had them cast in clay in a foundry on the Jordan plain between Succoth and Zarethan.

<sup>18</sup> These artifacts were never weighed--there were far too many! Nobody has any idea how much bronze was used.

<sup>19</sup> Solomon was also responsible for the furniture and accessories in The Temple of God: the gold Altar; the tables that held the Bread of the Presence;

<sup>22</sup> the gold wick trimmers, bowls, ladles, and censers; the gold doors of The Temple, doors to the Holy of Holies, and the doors to the main sanctuary.

5 <sup>1</sup> That completed the work King Solomon did on The Temple of GOD. He then brought in the holy offerings of his father David, the silver and the gold and the artifacts. He placed them all in the treasury of GOD's Temple.

<sup>2</sup> Bringing all this to a climax, Solomon got all the leaders together in Jerusalem--all the chiefs of tribes and the family patriarchs--to move the Chest of the Covenant of GOD from Zion and install it in The Temple.

<sup>3</sup> All the men of Israel assembled before the king on the feast day of the seventh month, the Feast of Booths.

<sup>4</sup> When all the leaders of Israel were ready, the Levites took up the Chest.

<sup>5</sup> They carried the Chest, the Tent of Meeting, and all the sacred things in the Tent used in worship. The priests, all Levites, carried them.

<sup>6</sup> King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel were there before the Chest, worshiping and sacrificing huge numbers of sheep and cattle--so many that no one could keep track.

<sup>7</sup> The priests brought the Chest of the Covenant of GOD to its place in the Inner Sanctuary, the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim.

<sup>8</sup> The outspread wings of the cherubim formed a canopy over the Chest and its poles.

<sup>9</sup> The ends of the poles were so long that they stuck out from the entrance of the Inner Sanctuary, but were not noticeable further out--they're still there today.

<sup>10</sup> There was nothing in the Chest itself but the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb where GOD made a covenant with Israel after bringing them up from Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> The priests then left the Holy Place. All the priests there were consecrated, regardless of rank or assignment;

<sup>12</sup> and all the Levites who were musicians were there--Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their families, dressed in their worship robes; the choir and orchestra assembled on the east side of the Altar and were joined by 120 priests blowing trumpets.

<sup>13</sup> The choir and trumpets made one voice of praise and thanks to GOD--orchestra and choir in perfect harmony singing and playing praise to GOD: Yes! God is good! His loyal love goes on forever! Then a billowing cloud filled The Temple of GOD.

<sup>14</sup> The priests couldn't even carry out their duties because of the cloud--the glory of GOD!--that filled The Temple of God.

6 <sup>1</sup> Then Solomon said, GOD said he would dwell in a cloud, <sup>2</sup> But I've built a temple most splendid, A place for you to live in forever.

<sup>3</sup> The king then turned to face the congregation that had come together and blessed them:

<sup>4</sup> "Blessed be GOD, the God of Israel, who spoke personally to my father David. Now he has done what he promised when he said, <sup>5</sup> 'From the day I brought my people Israel up from Egypt, I haven't set apart one city among the tribes of Israel in which to build a temple to honor my Name, or chosen one person to be the leader.

<sup>6</sup> But now I have chosen both a city and a person: Jerusalem for honoring my Name and David to lead my people Israel.'

<sup>7</sup> "My father David very much wanted to build a temple honoring the Name of GOD, the God of Israel, <sup>8</sup> but GOD told him, 'It was good that you wanted to build a temple in my honor--most commendable!

<sup>9</sup> But you are not the one to do it. Your son, who will carry on your dynasty, will build it for my Name.'

<sup>10</sup> "And now you see the promise completed. GOD has done what he said he would do; I have succeeded David my father and now rule Israel; and I have built a temple to honor GOD, the God of Israel, <sup>11</sup> and have secured a place for the Chest that holds the Covenant of GOD, the covenant he made with the people of Israel."

<sup>13</sup> Solomon had made a bronze dais seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high and placed it inside the court; that's where he now stood. Then he knelt in full view of the whole congregation, stretched his hands to heaven, <sup>14</sup> and prayed: GOD, O God of Israel, there is no God like you in the skies above or on the earth below, who unswervingly keeps covenant with his servants and unfailingly loves them while they sincerely live in obedience to your way.

<sup>15</sup> You kept your word to David my father, your promise. You did exactly what you promised--every detail. The proof is before us today!

<sup>16</sup> Keep it up, GOD, O God of Israel! Continue to keep the promises you made to David my father when you said, "You'll always have a descendant to represent my rule on Israel's throne, on the one condition that your sons are as careful to live obediently in my presence as you have."

<sup>17</sup> O GOD, God of Israel, let this all happen--confirm and establish it!

<sup>18</sup> Can it be that God will actually move into our neighborhood? Why, the cosmos itself isn't large enough to give you breathing room, let alone this Temple I've built.

<sup>19</sup> Even so, I'm bold to ask: Pay attention to these my prayers, both intercessory and personal, O GOD, my God. Listen to my prayers, energetic and devout, that I'm setting before you right now.

<sup>20</sup> Keep your eyes open to this Temple day and night, this place you promised to dignify with your Name. And listen to the prayers that I pray in this place.

<sup>21</sup> And listen to your people Israel when they pray at this place. Listen from your home in heaven and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup> When someone hurts a neighbor and promises to make things right, and then comes and repeats the promise before your Altar in this Temple,

<sup>23</sup> Listen from heaven and act; judge your servants, making the offender pay for the offense And set the offended free, dismissing all charges.

<sup>24</sup> When your people Israel are beaten by an enemy because they've sinned against you, but then turn to you and acknowledge your rule in prayers desperate and devout in this Temple,

<sup>25</sup> Listen from your home in heaven; forgive the sin of your people Israel, return them to the land you gave to them and their ancestors.

<sup>26</sup> When the skies shrivel up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, but then they pray at this place, acknowledging your rule and quit their sins because you have scourged them,

<sup>27</sup> Listen from your home in heaven, forgive the sins of your servants, your people Israel. Then start over with them; train them to live right and well; Send rain on the land you gave as inheritance to your people.

<sup>28</sup> When disasters strike, famine or catastrophe, crop failure or disease, locust or beetle, or when an enemy attacks their defenses--calamity of any sort--

<sup>29</sup> any prayer that's prayed from anyone at all among your people Israel, their hearts penetrated by disaster, hands and arms thrown out for help to this Temple,

<sup>30</sup> Listen from your home in heaven, forgive and reward us: reward each life and circumstance, For you know each life from the inside, (you're the only one with such inside knowledge!), <sup>31</sup> So they'll live before you in lifelong reverence and believing obedience on this land you gave our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup> And don't forget the foreigner who is not a member of your people Israel but has come from a far country because of your reputation--people are going to be attracted here by your great reputation, your wonderworking power--and who come to pray to this Temple.

<sup>33</sup> Listen from your home in heaven and honor the prayers of the foreigner, So that people all over the world will know who you are and what you're like, And live in reverent obedience before you, just as your own people Israel do, So they'll know that you personally make this Temple that I've built what it is.

<sup>34</sup> When your people go to war against their enemies at the time and place you send them and they pray to GOD toward the city you chose and The Temple I've built to honor your Name, <sup>35</sup> Listen from heaven to what they pray and ask for and do what is right for them.

<sup>36</sup> When they sin against you--and they certainly will; there's no one without sin!--and in anger you turn them over to the enemy and they are taken off captive to the enemy's land, whether far or near,

<sup>37</sup> but then repent in the country of their captivity and pray with changed hearts in their exile, "We've sinned; we've done wrong; we've been most wicked,"

<sup>38</sup> and they turn back to you heart and soul in the land of the enemy who conquered them, and pray to you toward their homeland, the land you gave their ancestors, toward the city you chose, and this Temple I have built to the honor of your Name, <sup>39</sup> Listen from your home in heaven to their prayers desperate and devout; Do what is best for them. Forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>40</sup> And now, dear God, be alert and attentive to prayer, all prayer, offered in this place.

<sup>41</sup> Up, GOD, enjoy your new place of quiet repose, you and your mighty covenant Chest; Dress your priests up in salvation clothes, let your holy people celebrate goodness.

<sup>42</sup> And don't, GOD, back out on your anointed ones, keep in mind the love promised to David your servant.

7 <sup>1</sup> When Solomon finished praying, a bolt of lightning out of heaven struck the Whole-Burnt-Offering and sacrifices and the Glory of GOD filled The Temple.

<sup>2</sup> The Glory was so dense that the priests couldn't get in--GOD so filled The Temple that there was no room for the priests!

<sup>3</sup> When all Israel saw the fire fall from heaven and the Glory of GOD fill The Temple, they fell on their knees, bowed their heads, and worshiped, thanking GOD: Yes! God is good! His love never quits!

<sup>4</sup> Then the king and all Israel worshiped, offering sacrifices to GOD.

<sup>6</sup> The priests were all on duty; the choir and orchestra of Levites that David had provided for singing and playing anthems to the praise and love of GOD were all there; across the courtyard the priests blew trumpets. All Israelites were on their feet.

for sacred use and there sacrificed the Whole-Burnt-Offerings, Grain-Offerings, and fat from the Peace-Offerings--the Bronze Altar was too small to handle all these offerings.

<sup>8</sup> This is how Solomon kept the great autumn Feast of Booths. For seven days there were people there all the way from the far northeast (the Entrance to Hamath) to the far southwest (the Brook of Egypt)--a huge congregation.

<sup>9</sup> They started out celebrating for seven days, and then did it for another seven days, a week for dedicating the Altar and another for the Feast itself--two solid weeks of celebration!

<sup>11</sup> Solomon completed building The Temple of GOD and the royal palace--the projects he had set his heart on doing. Everything was done--success! Satisfaction!

<sup>12</sup> GOD appeared to Solomon that very night and said, "I accept your prayer; yes, I have chosen this place as a temple for sacrifice, a house of worship.

<sup>13</sup> If I ever shut off the supply of rain from the skies or order the locusts to eat the crops or send a plague on my people, <sup>14</sup> and my people, my God-defined people, respond by humbling themselves, praying, seeking my presence, and turning their backs on their wicked lives, I'll be there ready for you: I'll listen from heaven, forgive their sins, and restore their land to health.

<sup>15</sup> From now on I'm alert day and night to the prayers offered at this place.

<sup>16</sup> Believe me, I've chosen and sanctified this Temple that you have built: My Name is stamped on it forever; my eyes are on it and my heart in it always.

<sup>17</sup> As for you, if you live in my presence as your father David lived, pure in heart and action, living the life I've set out for you, attentively obedient to my guidance and judgments,

<sup>18</sup> then I'll back your kingly rule over Israel--make it a sure thing on a sure foundation. The same covenant guarantee I gave to David your father I'm giving to you, namely, 'You can count on always having a descendant on Israel's throne.'

<sup>19</sup> "But if you or your sons betray me, ignoring my guidance and judgments, taking up with alien gods by serving and worshiping them,

this Temple I've just sanctified to honor my Name. And Israel will be nothing but a bad joke among the peoples of the world.

<sup>21</sup> And this Temple, splendid as it now is, will become an object of contempt; tourists will shake their heads, saying, 'What happened here? What's the story behind these ruins?'

<sup>22</sup> Then they'll be told, 'The people who used to live here betrayed their GOD, the very God who rescued their ancestors from Egypt; they took up with alien gods, worshiping and serving them. That's what's behind this God-visited devastation.'"

8 <sup>1</sup> At the end of twenty years, Solomon had quite a list of accomplishments. He had: built The Temple of GOD and his own palace; <sup>2</sup> rebuilt the cities that Hiram had given him and colonized them with Israelites;

<sup>8</sup> survivors of the holy wars, were rounded up by Solomon for his gangs of slave labor. The policy is in effect today.

<sup>9</sup> But true Israelites were not treated this way; they were used in his army and administration--government leaders and commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

<sup>10</sup> They were also the project managers responsible for Solomon's building operations--250 in all in charge of the workforce.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter from the City of David to a house built especially for her, "Because," he said, "my wife cannot live in the house of David king of Israel, for the areas in which the Chest of GOD has entered are sacred."

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon offered Whole-Burnt-Offerings to GOD on the Altar of GOD that he had built in front of The Temple porch.

<sup>13</sup> He kept to the regular schedule of worship set down by Moses: Sabbaths,

New Moons, and the three annual feasts of Unraised Bread (Passover), Weeks (Pentecost), and Booths.

<sup>14</sup> He followed the practice of his father David in setting up groups of priests carrying out the work of worship, with the Levites assigned to lead the sacred music for praising God and to assist the priests in the daily worship; he assigned security guards to be on duty at each gate--that's what David the man of God had ordered.

<sup>15</sup> The king's directions to the priests and Levites and financial stewards were kept right down to the fine print--no innovations--including the treasuries.

<sup>16</sup> All that Solomon set out to do, from the groundbreaking of The Temple of GOD to its finish, was now complete.

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom.

<sup>18</sup> Hiram sent him ships and with them veteran sailors. Joined by Solomon's men they sailed to Ophir (in east Africa), loaded on fifteen tons of gold, and brought it back to King Solomon.

9 <sup>1</sup> The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's reputation and came to Jerusalem to put his reputation to the test, asking all the tough questions. She made a showy entrance--an impressive retinue of attendants and camels loaded with perfume and much gold and precious stones. She emptied her heart to Solomon, talking over everything she cared about.

<sup>4</sup> the meals that were served, the impressive array of court officials, the sharply dressed waiters, the cupbearers, and then the elaborate worship extravagant with Whole-Burnt-Offerings at The Temple of GOD, it all took her breath away.

<sup>5</sup> She said to the king, "It's all true! Your reputation for accomplishment and wisdom that reached all the way to my country is confirmed.

<sup>6</sup> I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it for myself; they didn't exaggerate! Such wisdom and elegance--far more than I could ever have imagined.

<sup>7</sup> Lucky the men and women who work for you, getting to be around you every day and hear your wise words firsthand!

<sup>8</sup> And blessed be your GOD who has taken such a liking to you, making you king. Clearly, GOD's love for Israel is behind this, making you king to keep a just order and nurture a God-pleasing people."

<sup>9</sup> She then gave the king four and a half tons of gold and sack after sack of spices and precious stones. There hasn't been a cargo of spices like the shipload the queen of Sheba brought to King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup> The ships of Hiram also imported gold from Ophir along with fragrant sandalwood and expensive gems.

<sup>11</sup> The king used the sandalwood for fine cabinetry in The Temple of GOD and the royal palace, and for making harps and dulcimers for the musicians. Nothing like that shipment of sandalwood has been seen since.

Satisfied, she returned home with her train of servants.

<sup>14</sup> This was above and beyond the taxes and profit on trade with merchants and traders. All kings of Arabia and various and assorted governors also brought silver and gold to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup> King Solomon crafted 200 body-length shields of hammered gold--about fifteen pounds of gold to each shield

<sup>18</sup> The throne had six steps leading up to it with an attached footstool of gold. The armrests on each side were flanked by lions.

<sup>19</sup> Lions, twelve of them, were placed at either end of the six steps. There was no throne like it in any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup> King Solomon's chalices and tankards were made of gold, and all the dinnerware and serving utensils in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver; silver was considered common and cheap in the time of Solomon.

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon was richer and wiser than all the kings of the earth--he surpassed them all.

<sup>23</sup> Kings came from all over the world to be with Solomon and get in on the wisdom God had given him.

<sup>24</sup> Everyone who came brought gifts--artifacts of gold and silver, fashionable robes and gowns, the latest in weapons, exotic spices, horses, and mules--parades of visitors, year after year.

<sup>25</sup> Solomon collected horses and chariots. He had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen in barracks in the chariot-cities and in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the River Euphrates in the east, throughout the Philistine country, and as far west as the border of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common as rocks and cedar as common as the fig trees in the lowland hills.

<sup>29</sup> The rest of Solomon's life and rule, from start to finish, one can read in the records of Nathan the prophet, the prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>31</sup> Solomon died and was buried in the City of David his father. His son Rehoboam was the next king.

10 <sup>1</sup> Rehoboam traveled to Shechem where all Israel had gathered to inaugurate him as king.

<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam was then in Egypt, where he had taken asylum from King Solomon; when he got the report of Solomon's death, he came back.

<sup>3</sup> Summoned by Israel, Jeroboam and all Israel went to Rehoboam and said,

<sup>4</sup> "Your father made life hard for us--worked our fingers to the bone. Give us a break; lighten up on us and we'll willingly serve you."

<sup>5</sup> "Give me," said Rehoboam, "three days to think it over; then come back." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam talked it over with the elders who had advised his father when he was alive: "What's your counsel? How do you suggest that I answer the people?"

<sup>7</sup> They said, "If you will be a servant to this people, be considerate of their needs and respond with compassion, work things out with them, they'll end up doing anything for you."

<sup>8</sup> But he rejected the counsel of the elders and asked the young men he'd grown up with who were now currying his favor,

<sup>9</sup> "What do you think? What should I say to these people who are saying, 'Give us a break from your father's harsh ways--lighten up on us'?"

<sup>10</sup> The young turks he'd grown up with said, "These people who complain, 'Your father was too hard on us; lighten up'--well, tell them this: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist.

<sup>11</sup> If you think life under my father was hard, you haven't seen the half of it. My father thrashed you with whips; I'll beat you bloody with chains!"

<sup>12</sup> Three days later Jeroboam and the people showed up, just as Rehoboam had directed when he said, "Give me three days to think it over; then come back."

<sup>13</sup> The king's answer was harsh and rude. He spurned the counsel of the elders

<sup>14</sup> and went with the advice of the younger set: "If you think life under my father was hard, you haven't seen the half of it: my father thrashed you with whips; I'll beat you bloody with chains!"

<sup>15</sup> Rehoboam turned a deaf ear to the people. God was behind all this, confirming the message that he had given to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah of Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel realized that the king hadn't listened to a word they'd said, they stood up to him and said, Get lost, David! We've had it with you, son of Jesse! Let's get out of here, Israel, and fast! From now on, David, mind your own business. And with that they left.

11 <sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam got back to Jerusalem he called up the men of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 of their best soldiers, to go to war against Israel and recover the kingdom.

<sup>2</sup> At the same time the word of GOD came to Shemaiah, a holy man, <sup>3</sup> "Tell this to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, along with all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin,

<sup>4</sup> This is GOD's word: Don't march out; don't fight against your brothers the Israelites. Go back home, every last one of you; I'm in charge here." And they did it; they did what GOD said and went home.

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam continued to live in Jerusalem but built up a defense system for Judah all around:

<sup>12</sup> He installed arms--large shields and spears--in all the forts, making them very strong. So Judah and Benjamin were secure for the time.

<sup>13</sup> The priests and Levites from all over Israel came and made themselves available to Rehoboam.

<sup>14</sup> The Levites left their pastures and properties and moved to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had dismissed them from the priesthood of GOD

<sup>15</sup> and replaced them with his own priests to preside over the worship centers at which he had installed goat and calf demon-idols.

<sup>16</sup> Everyone from all the tribes of Israel who determined to seek the GOD of Israel migrated with the priests and Levites to Jerusalem to worship there, sacrificing to the GOD of their ancestors.

<sup>17</sup> That gave a tremendous boost to the kingdom of Judah. They stuck with Rehoboam son of Solomon for three years, loyal to the ways of David and Solomon for this period.

<sup>20</sup> Then he married Maacah, Absalom's daughter, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

<sup>21</sup> Maacah was Rehoboam's favorite wife; he loved her more than all his other wives and concubines put together (and he had a lot--eighteen wives and sixty concubines who produced twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters!).

<sup>22</sup> Rehoboam designated Abijah son of Maacah as the "first son" and leader of the brothers--he intended to make him the next king.

<sup>23</sup> He was shrewd in deploying his sons in all the fortress cities that made up his defense system in Judah and Benjamin; he kept them happy with much food and many wives.

12 <sup>1</sup> By the time Rehoboam had secured his kingdom and was strong again, he, and all Israel with him, had virtually abandoned GOD and his ways.

<sup>2</sup> In Rehoboam's fifth year, because he and the people were unfaithful to GOD, Shishak king of Egypt invaded as far as Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He came with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 cavalry, and soldiers from all over--the Egyptian army included Libyans, Sukkites, and Ethiopians.

<sup>4</sup> They took the fortress cities of Judah and advanced as far as Jerusalem itself.

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Shemaiah, accompanied by the leaders of Judah who had retreated to Jerusalem before Shishak, came to Rehoboam and said, "GOD's word: You abandoned me; now I abandon you to Shishak."

<sup>6</sup> The leaders of Israel and the king were repentant and said, "GOD is right."

<sup>7</sup> When GOD saw that they were humbly repentant, the word of GOD came to Shemaiah: "Because they are humble, I'll not destroy them--I'll give them a break; I won't use Shishak to express my wrath against Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> What I will do, though, is make them Shishak's subjects--they'll learn the difference between serving me and serving human kings."

<sup>9</sup> Then Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem. He plundered the treasury of The Temple of GOD and the treasury of the royal palace--he took everything he could lay his hands on. He even took the gold shields that Solomon had made.

<sup>10</sup> King Rehoboam replaced the gold shields with bronze shields and gave them to the guards who were posted at the entrance to the royal palace.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the king went to GOD's Temple, the guards went with him carrying the shields, but they always returned them to the guardroom.

<sup>12</sup> Because Rehoboam was repentant, GOD's anger was blunted, so he wasn't totally destroyed. The picture wasn't entirely bleak--there were some good things going on in Judah.

<sup>13</sup> King Rehoboam regrouped and reestablished his rule in Jerusalem. He was forty-one years old when he became king and continued as king for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city GOD chose out of all the tribes of Israel as the special presence of his Name. His mother was Naamah from Ammon.

<sup>14</sup> But the final verdict on Rehoboam was that he was a bad king--GOD was not important to him; his heart neither cared for nor sought after GOD.

<sup>15</sup> The history of Rehoboam, from start to finish, is written in the memoirs of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer that contain the family trees. There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam the whole time.

<sup>16</sup> Rehoboam died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Abijah ruled after him.

<sup>4</sup> Abijah took a prominent position on Mount Zemaraim in the hill country of Ephraim and gave this speech: "Listen, Jeroboam and all Israel!

<sup>5</sup> Don't you realize that GOD, the one and only God of Israel, established David and his sons as the permanent rulers of Israel, ratified by a 'covenant of salt'--GOD's kingdom ruled by GOD's king?

<sup>7</sup> All the riff-raff joined his cause and were too much for Rehoboam, Solomon's true heir. Rehoboam didn't know his way around--besides he was a real wimp; he couldn't stand up against them.

<sup>8</sup> "Taking advantage of that weakness, you are asserting yourself against the very rule of GOD that is delegated to David's descendants--you think you are so big with your huge army backed up by the golden-calf idols that Jeroboam made for you as gods!

<sup>9</sup> But just look at what you've done--you threw out the priests of GOD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests to suit yourselves, priests just like the pagans have. Anyone who shows up with enough money to pay for it can be a priest! A priest of No-God!

<sup>10</sup> "But for the rest of us in Judah, we're sticking with GOD. We have not traded him in for the latest model--we're keeping the tried and true priests of Aaron to lead us to GOD and the Levites to lead us in worship

<sup>11</sup> by sacrificing Whole-Burnt-Offerings and aromatic incense to GOD at the daily morning and evening prayers, setting out fresh holy bread on a clean table, and lighting the lamps on the golden Lampstand every night. We continue doing what GOD told us to in the way he told us to do it; but you have rid yourselves of him.

<sup>12</sup> "Can't you see the obvious? God is on our side; he's our leader. And his priests with trumpets are all ready to blow the signal to battle. O Israel--don't fight against GOD, the God of your ancestors. You will not win this battle."

<sup>13</sup> While Abijah was speaking, Jeroboam had sent men around to take them by surprise from the rear: Jeroboam in front of Judah and the ambush behind.

<sup>14</sup> When Judah looked back, they saw they were attacked front and back. They prayed desperately to GOD, the priests blew their trumpets, and the soldiers of Judah shouted their battle cry.

<sup>17</sup> Abijah and his troops slaughtered them--500,000 of Israel's best fighters were killed that day.

<sup>18</sup> The army of Israel fell flat on its face--a humiliating defeat. The army of Judah won hands down because they trusted GOD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>20</sup> Jeroboam never did recover from his defeat while Abijah lived. Later on GOD struck him down and he died.

<sup>21</sup> Meanwhile Abijah flourished; he married fourteen wives and ended up with a family of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

<sup>22</sup> The rest of the history of Abijah, what he did and said, is written in the study written by Iddo the prophet.

14 <sup>1</sup> Abijah died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Asa became the next king. For ten years into Asa's reign the country was at peace.

<sup>4</sup> He told Judah to center their lives in GOD, the God of their fathers, to do what the law said, and to follow the commandments.

<sup>5</sup> Because he got rid of all the pagan shrines and altars in the cities of Judah, his kingdom was at peace.

<sup>6</sup> Because the land was quiet and there was no war, he was able to build up a good defense system in Judah. GOD kept the peace.

<sup>7</sup> Asa said to his people, "While we have the chance and the land is quiet, let's build a solid defense system, fortifying our cities with walls, towers, gates, and bars. We have this peaceful land because we sought GOD; he has given us rest from all troubles." So they built and enjoyed prosperity.

<sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of 300,000 Judeans, equipped with shields and spears, and another 280,000 Benjaminites who were shield bearers and archers. They were all courageous warriors.

<sup>9</sup> Zerah the Ethiopian went to war against Asa with an army of a million plus 300 chariots and got as far as Mareshah.

<sup>10</sup> Asa met him there and prepared to fight from the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup> Then Asa prayed to GOD, "O GOD, you aren't impressed by numbers or intimidated by a show of force once you decide to help: Help us, O GOD; we have come out to meet this huge army because we trust in you and who you are. Don't let mere mortals stand against you!"

<sup>12</sup> GOD defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah; the Ethiopians ran for their lives.

<sup>13</sup> Asa and his men chased them as far as Gerar; so many of the Ethiopians were killed that there was no fight left in them--a massacre before GOD and his troops; Judah carted off loads of plunder.

<sup>14</sup> They devastated all the towns around Gerar whose people were helpless, paralyzed by the fear of GOD, and looted the country.

<sup>15</sup> They also attacked herdsmen and brought back a lot of sheep and camels to Jerusalem.

15 <sup>1</sup> Then Azariah son of Obed, moved by the Spirit of God, <sup>2</sup> went out to meet Asa. He said, "Listen carefully, Asa, and listen Judah and Benjamin: GOD will stick with you as long as you stick with him. If you look for him he will let himself be found; but if you leave him he'll leave you.

<sup>3</sup> For a long time Israel didn't have the real God, nor did they have the help of priest or teacher or book.

<sup>4</sup> But when they were in trouble and got serious, and decided to seek GOD, the God of Israel, GOD let himself be found.

<sup>5</sup> At that time it was a dog-eat-dog world; life was constantly up for grabs--no one, regardless of country, knew what the next day might bring.

<sup>6</sup> Nation battered nation, city pummeled city. God let loose every kind of trouble among them.

<sup>7</sup> "But it's different with you: Be strong. Take heart. Payday is coming!"

<sup>8</sup> Asa heard the prophecy of Azariah son of Obed, took a deep breath, then rolled up his sleeves, and went to work: He cleaned out the obscene and polluting sacred shrines from the whole country of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim. He spruced up the Altar of GOD that was in front of The Temple porch.

<sup>9</sup> Then he called an assembly for all Judah and Benjamin, including those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were living there at the time (for many from Israel had left their homes and joined forces with Asa when they saw that GOD was on his side).

<sup>10</sup> They all arrived in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign

<sup>11</sup> for a great assembly of worship. From their earlier plunder they offered sacrifices of 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep for the worship.

<sup>13</sup> And they agreed that anyone who refused to seek GOD, the God of Israel, should be killed, no matter who it was, young or old, man or woman.

<sup>14</sup> They shouted out their promise to GOD, a joyful sound accompanied with blasts from trumpets and rams' horns.

<sup>15</sup> The whole country felt good about the covenant promise--they had given their promise joyfully from the heart. Anticipating the best, they had sought God--and he showed up, ready to be found. GOD gave them peace within and without--a most peaceable kingdom!

<sup>16</sup> In his clean-up of the country, Asa went so far as to remove his mother, Queen Maacah, from her throne because she had built a shockingly obscene image of the sex goddess Asherah. Asa tore it down, smashed it, and burned it up in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup> Unfortunately he didn't get rid of the local sex-and-religion shrines. But he was well-intentioned--his heart was in the right place, loyal to GOD.

<sup>18</sup> All the gold and silver vessels and artifacts that he and his father had consecrated for holy use he installed in The Temple of God.

<sup>19</sup> There wasn't a trace of war up to the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16 <sup>1</sup> But in the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel attacked. He started it by building a fort at Ramah and closing the border between Israel and Judah to keep Asa king of Judah from leaving or entering.

<sup>2</sup> Asa took silver and gold from the treasuries of The Temple of GOD and the royal palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad, king of Aram who lived in Damascus, with this message:

<sup>3</sup> "Let's make a treaty like the one between our fathers. I'm showing my good faith with this gift of silver and gold. Break your deal with Baasha king of Israel so he'll quit fighting against me."

<sup>6</sup> Then King Asa issued orders to his people in Judah to haul away the logs and stones Baasha had used in the fortification of Ramah and used them himself to fortify Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> Just after that, Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said, "Because you went for help to the king of Aram and didn't ask GOD for help, you've lost a victory over the army of the king of Aram.

<sup>8</sup> Didn't the Ethiopians and Libyans come against you with superior forces, completely outclassing you with their chariots and cavalry? But you asked GOD for help and he gave you the victory.

<sup>9</sup> GOD is always on the alert, constantly on the lookout for people who are totally committed to him. You were foolish to go for human help when you could have had God's help. Now you're in trouble--one round of war after another."

<sup>10</sup> At that, Asa lost his temper. Angry, he put Hanani in the stocks. At the same time Asa started abusing some of the people.

<sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa came down with a severe case of foot infection. He didn't ask GOD for help, but went instead to the doctors.

<sup>13</sup> Then Asa died; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.

<sup>14</sup> They buried him in a mausoleum that he had built for himself in the City of David. They laid him in a crypt full of aromatic oils and spices. Then they had a huge bonfire in his memory.

17 <sup>1</sup> Asa's son Jehoshaphat was the next king; he started out by working on his defense system against Israel.

<sup>2</sup> He put troops in all the fortress cities of Judah and deployed garrisons throughout Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

<sup>3</sup> GOD was on Jehoshaphat's side because he stuck to the ways of his father Asa's early years. He didn't fool around with the popular Baal religion--

<sup>4</sup> he was a seeker and follower of the God of his father and was obedient to him; he wasn't like Israel.

<sup>5</sup> And GOD secured the kingdom under his rule, gave him a firm grip on it. And everyone in Judah showed their appreciation by bringing gifts. Jehoshaphat ended up very rich and much honored.

<sup>6</sup> He was single-minded in following GOD; and he got rid of the local sex-and-religion shrines.

<sup>7</sup> In the third year of his reign he sent his officials--excellent men, every one of them--Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah on a teaching mission to the cities of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> They were accompanied by Levites--Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah; the priests

Elishama and Jehoram were also in the company.

<sup>9</sup> They made a circuit of the towns of Judah, teaching the people and using the Book of The Revelation of GOD as their text.

<sup>10</sup> There was a strong sense of the fear of GOD in all the kingdoms around Judah--they didn't dare go to war against Jehoshaphat.

<sup>11</sup> Some Philistines even brought gifts and a load of silver to Jehoshaphat, and the desert bedouin brought flocks--7,700 rams and 7,700 goats.

<sup>12</sup> So Jehoshaphat became stronger by the day, and constructed more and more forts and store-cities--an age of prosperity for Judah!

<sup>13</sup> He also had excellent fighting men stationed in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> The captains of the military units of Judah, classified according to families, were: Captain Adnah with 300,000 soldiers;

<sup>19</sup> These were under the direct command of the king; in addition there were the troops assigned to the fortress cities spread all over Judah.

18 <sup>1</sup> But even though Jehoshaphat was very rich and much honored, he made a marriage alliance with Ahab of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Some time later he paid a visit to Ahab at Samaria. Ahab celebrated his visit with a feast--a huge barbecue with all the lamb and beef you could eat. But Ahab had a hidden agenda; he wanted Jehoshaphat's support in attacking Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>3</sup> Then Ahab brought it into the open: "Will you join me in attacking Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said, "You bet. I'm with you all the way; you can count on me and my troops."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jehoshaphat said, "But before you do anything, ask GOD for guidance."

<sup>5</sup> The king of Israel got the prophets together--all 400 of them-- and put the question to them: "Should I attack Ramoth Gilead or should I hold back?" "Go for it," they said. "God will hand it over to the king."

<sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat dragged his feet, "Is there another prophet of GOD around here we can consult? Let's get a second opinion."

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat, "As a matter of fact, there is another. But I hate him. He never preaches anything good to me, only doom, doom, doom--Micaiah son of Imlah." "The king shouldn't talk about a prophet like that!" said Jehoshaphat.

<sup>11</sup> All the prophets chimed in, "Yes! Go for Ramoth Gilead! An easy victory! GOD's gift to the king!"

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to get Micaiah told him, "The prophets have all said Yes to the king. Make it unanimous--vote Yes!"

<sup>13</sup> But Micaiah said, "As sure as GOD lives, what God says, I'll say."

<sup>14</sup> With Micaiah before him, the king asked him, "So, Micaiah--do we attack Ramoth Gilead? Or do we hold back?" "Go ahead," he said, "an easy victory! God's gift to the king."

<sup>15</sup> "Not so fast," said the king. "How many times have I made you promise under oath to tell me the truth and nothing but the truth?"

<sup>16</sup> "All right," said Micaiah, "since you insist...I saw all of Israel scattered over the hills, sheep with no shepherd. Then GOD spoke, 'These poor people have no one to tell them what to do. Let them go home and do the best they can for themselves."

<sup>17</sup> The king of Israel turned to Jehoshaphat, "See! What did I tell you? He never has a good word for me from GOD, only doom."

<sup>19</sup> And GOD said, "How can we seduce Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead?" Some said this, and some said that.

<sup>20</sup> Then a bold angel stepped out, stood before GOD, and said, "I'll seduce him." "And how will you do it?" said GOD.

<sup>21</sup> "Easy," said the angel, "I'll get all the prophets to lie." "That should do it," said GOD; "On your way--seduce him!"

<sup>22</sup> "And that's what has happened. GOD filled the mouths of your puppet prophets with seductive lies. GOD has pronounced your doom."

<sup>23</sup> Just then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah came up and slapped Micaiah in the face, saying, "Since when did the Spirit of GOD leave me and take up with you?"

<sup>24</sup> Micaiah said, "You'll know soon enough; you'll know it when you're frantically and futilely looking for a place to hide."

<sup>26</sup> with this message: 'King's orders! Lock him up in jail; keep him on bread and water until I'm back in one piece.'"

<sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, If you ever get back in one piece, I'm no prophet of GOD.

He added, When it happens, O people, remember where you heard it!

<sup>28</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went ahead and attacked Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>29</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Wear my kingly robe; I'm going into battle disguised." So the king of Israel entered the battle in disguise.

<sup>30</sup> Meanwhile, the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders (there were thirty-two of them), "Don't bother with anyone whether small or great; go after the king of Israel and him only."

<sup>31</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "There he is! The king of Israel!" and took after him. Jehoshaphat yelled out,

<sup>32</sup> and the chariot commanders realized they had the wrong man--it wasn't the king of Israel after all. God intervened and they let him go.

<sup>34</sup> All day the fighting continued, hot and heavy. Propped up in his chariot, the king watched from the sidelines. He died that evening.

<sup>2</sup> Jehu, son of Hanani the seer, confronted King Jehoshaphat: "You have no business helping evil, cozying up to GOD-haters. Because you did this, GOD is good and angry with you.

<sup>3</sup> But you're not all bad--you made a clean sweep of the polluting sex-and-religion shrines; and you were single-minded in seeking God."

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat kept his residence in Jerusalem but made a regular round of visits among the people, from Beersheba in the south to Mount Ephraim in the north, urging them to return to GOD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>5</sup> And he was diligent in appointing judges in the land--each of the fortress cities had its judge.

<sup>6</sup> He charged the judges: "This is serious work; do it carefully. You are not merely judging between men and women; these are GOD's judgments that you are passing on.

<sup>7</sup> Live in the fear of GOD--be most careful, for GOD hates dishonesty, partiality, and bribery."

<sup>8</sup> In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat also appointed Levites, priests, and family heads to decide on matters that had to do with worship and mediating local differences.

<sup>9</sup> He charged them: "Do your work in the fear of GOD; be dependable and honest in your duties.

<sup>10</sup> When a case comes before you involving any of your fellow citizens, whether it seems large (like murder) or small (like matters of interpretation of the law), you are responsible for warning them that they are dealing with GOD. Make that explicit, otherwise both you and they are going to be dealing with GOD's wrath. Do your work well or you'll end up being as guilty as they are.

<sup>11</sup> "Amariah the chief priest is in charge of all cases regarding the worship of GOD; Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, is in charge of all civil cases; the Levites will keep order in the courts. Be bold and diligent. And GOD be with you as you do your best."

20<sup>1</sup> Some time later the Moabites and Ammonites, accompanied by Meunites, joined forces to make war on Jehoshaphat.

<sup>2</sup> Jehoshaphat received this intelligence report: "A huge force is on its way from beyond the Dead Sea to fight you. There's no time to waste--they're already at Hazazon Tamar, the oasis of En Gedi."

<sup>3</sup> Shaken, Jehoshaphat prayed. He went to GOD for help and ordered a nationwide fast.

<sup>4</sup> The country of Judah united in seeking GOD's help--they came from all the cities of Judah to pray to GOD.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jehoshaphat took a position before the assembled people of Judah and Jerusalem at The Temple of GOD in front of the new courtyard

<sup>6</sup> and said, "O GOD, God of our ancestors, are you not God in heaven above and ruler of all kingdoms below? You hold all power and might in your fist--no one stands a chance against you!

<sup>7</sup> And didn't you make the natives of this land leave as you brought your people Israel in, turning it over permanently to your people Israel, the descendants of Abraham your friend?

<sup>8</sup> They have lived here and built a holy house of worship to honor you,

<sup>9</sup> saying, 'When the worst happens--whether war or flood or disease or famine--and we take our place before this Temple (we know you are personally present in this place!) and pray out our pain and trouble, we know that you will listen and give victory.'

<sup>10</sup> "And now it's happened: men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir have shown up. You didn't let Israel touch them when we got here at first--we detoured around them and didn't lay a hand on them.

<sup>11</sup> And now they've come to kick us out of the country you gave us.

<sup>12</sup> O dear God, won't you take care of them? We're helpless before this vandal horde ready to attack us. We don't know what to do; we're looking to you."

<sup>13</sup> Everyone in Judah was there--little children, wives, sons--all present and attentive to GOD.

<sup>14</sup> Then Jahaziel was moved by the Spirit of GOD to speak from the midst of the congregation. (Jahaziel was the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah the Levite of the Asaph clan.)

<sup>15</sup> He said, "Attention everyone--all of you from out of town, all you from Jerusalem, and you King Jehoshaphat--GOD's word: Don't be afraid; don't pay any mind to this vandal horde. This is God's war, not yours.

<sup>16</sup> Tomorrow you'll go after them; see, they're already on their way up the slopes of Ziz; you'll meet them at the end of the ravine near the wilderness of Jeruel.

<sup>17</sup> You won't have to lift a hand in this battle; just stand firm, Judah and Jerusalem, and watch GOD's saving work for you take shape. Don't be afraid, don't waver. March out boldly tomorrow--GOD is with you."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehoshaphat knelt down, bowing with his face to the ground. All Judah and Jerusalem did the same, worshipping GOD.

<sup>19</sup> The Levites (both Kohathites and Korahites) stood to their feet to praise GOD, the God of Israel; they praised at the top of their lungs!

<sup>20</sup> They were up early in the morning, ready to march into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they were leaving, Jehoshaphat stood up and said, "Listen Judah and Jerusalem! Listen to what I have to say! Believe firmly in GOD, your God, and your lives will be firm! Believe in your prophets and you'll come out on top!"

<sup>21</sup> After talking it over with the people, Jehoshaphat appointed a choir for GOD; dressed in holy robes, they were to march ahead of the troops, singing, Give thanks to GOD, His love never quits.

<sup>22</sup> As soon as they started shouting and praising, GOD set ambushes against the men of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir as they were attacking Judah, and they all ended up dead.

<sup>23</sup> The Ammonites and Moabites mistakenly attacked those from Mount Seir and massacred them. Then, further confused, they went at each other, and all ended up killed.

<sup>24</sup> As Judah came up over the rise, looking into the wilderness for the horde of barbarians, they looked on a killing field of dead bodies--not a living soul among them.

<sup>25</sup> When Jehoshaphat and his people came to carry off the plunder they found more loot than they could carry off--equipment, clothing, valuables. It took three days to cart it away!

<sup>26</sup> On the fourth day they came together at the Valley of Blessing (Beracah) and blessed GOD (that's how it got the name, Valley of Blessing).

<sup>27</sup> Jehoshaphat then led all the men of Judah and Jerusalem back to Jerusalem--an exuberant parade. GOD had given them joyful relief from their enemies!

<sup>28</sup> They entered Jerusalem and came to The Temple of GOD with all the instruments of the band playing.

<sup>29</sup> When the surrounding kingdoms got word that GOD had fought Israel's enemies, the fear of God descended on them.

<sup>30</sup> Jehoshaphat heard no more from them; as long as Jehoshaphat reigned, peace reigned.

<sup>31</sup> That about sums up Jehoshaphat's reign over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king and ruled as king in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

people continued to pray and worship at these idolatrous god shops.

<sup>35</sup> Late in life Jehoshaphat formed a trading syndicate with Ahaziah king of Israel--which was very wrong of him to do.

<sup>36</sup> He went in as partner with him to build ocean-going ships at Ezion Geber to trade with Tarshish.

<sup>37</sup> Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah preached against Jehoshaphat's venture: "Because you joined forces with Ahaziah, GOD has shipwrecked your work." The ships were smashed and nothing ever came of the trade partnership.

21 <sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat died and was buried in the family cemetery in the City of David. Jehoram his son was the next king.

<sup>3</sup> Their father had lavished them with gifts--silver, gold, and other valuables, plus the fortress cities in Judah. But Jehoram was his firstborn son and he gave him the kingdom of Judah.

<sup>4</sup> But when Jehoram had taken over his father's kingdom and had secured his position, he killed all his brothers along with some of the government officials.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king and ruled in Jerusalem for eight years.

<sup>6</sup> He imitated Israel's kings and married into the Ahab dynasty. GOD considered him an evil man.

<sup>10</sup> Edom continues in revolt against Judah right up to the present. Even little Libnah revolted at that time. The evidence accumulated: Since Jehoram had abandoned GOD, the God of his ancestors, God was abandoning him.

<sup>11</sup> He even went so far as to build pagan sacred shrines in the mountains of Judah. He brazenly led Jerusalem away from God, seducing the whole country.

<sup>12</sup> One day he got a letter from Elijah the prophet. It read, "From GOD, the God of your ancestor David--a message: Because you have not kept to the ways of Jehoshaphat your father and Asa your grandfather, kings of Judah,

<sup>13</sup> but have taken up with the ways of the kings of Israel in the north, leading Judah and Jerusalem away from God, going step by step down the apostate path of Ahab and his crew--why, you even killed your own brothers, all of them better men than you!--

<sup>14</sup> GOD is going to afflict your people, your wives, your sons, and everything you have with a terrible plague.

<sup>15</sup> And you are going to come down with a terrible disease of the colon, painful and humiliating."

<sup>16</sup> The trouble started with an invasion. GOD incited the Philistines and the Arabs who lived near the Ethiopians to attack Jehoram.

<sup>18</sup> The terrible and fatal disease in his colon followed. After about two years he was totally incontinent and died writhing in pain.

<sup>20</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he became king and reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. There were no tears shed when he died--it was good riddance!--and they buried him in the City of David, but not in the royal cemetery.

22 <sup>1</sup> The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, king. Raiders from the desert, who had come with the Arabs against the settlement, had killed all the older sons. That's how Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah became king.

<sup>3</sup> He lived and ruled just like the Ahab family had done, his mother training him in evil ways.

<sup>4</sup> GOD also considered him evil, related by both marriage and sin to the Ahab clan. After the death of his father, he attended the sin school of Ahab, and graduated with a degree in doom.

<sup>5</sup> He did what they taught him, went with Joram son of Ahab king of Israel in the war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. Joram, wounded by the Arameans, <sup>6</sup> retreated to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he received in Ramah in his war with Hazael king of Aram. Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah paid a visit to Joram son of Ahab on his sickbed at Jezreel.

<sup>7</sup> The fate of Ahaziah when he went to visit was God's judgment on him. When Ahaziah arrived at Jezreel, he and Joram met with Jehu son of Nimshi, whom GOD had already authorized to destroy the dynasty of Ahab.

<sup>8</sup> Jehu, already at work, executing doom on the dynasty of Ahab, came upon the captains of Judah and Ahaziah's nephews, part of the Ahaziah delegation, and killed them outright.

<sup>9</sup> Then he sent out a search party looking for Ahaziah himself. They found him hiding out in Samaria and hauled him back to Jehu. And Jehu killed him. They didn't, though, just leave his body there. Out of respect for his grandfather Jehoshaphat, famous as a sincere seeker after GOD, they gave him a decent burial. But there was no one left in Ahaziah's family capable of ruling the kingdom.

<sup>10</sup> When Ahaziah's mother Athaliah saw that her son was dead, she took over. She began by massacring the entire royal family.

<sup>11</sup> Jehosheba, daughter of King Jehoram, took Ahaziah's son Joash, and kidnapped him from among the king's sons slated for slaughter. She hid him and his nurse in a private room away from Athaliah. So Jehosheba, daughter of King Jehoram and Ahaziah's sister--she was also the wife of Jehoiada the priest--saved Joash from the murderous Queen Athaliah.

<sup>12</sup> He was there with her, hidden away for six years in The Temple of God. Athaliah, oblivious to his existence, ruled the country.

23 <sup>1</sup> In the seventh year the priest Jehoiada decided to make his move and worked out a strategy with certain influential officers in the army. He picked Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri as his associates.

<sup>2</sup> They dispersed throughout Judah and called in the Levites from all the towns in Judah along with the heads of families. They met in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> The gathering met in The Temple of God. They made a covenant there in The Temple. The priest Jehoiada showed them the young prince and addressed them: "Here he is--the son of the king. He is going to rule just as GOD promised regarding the sons of David.

<sup>4</sup> Now this is what you must do: A third of you priests and Levites who come on duty on the Sabbath are to be posted as security guards at the gates;

<sup>5</sup> another third will guard the palace; and the other third will guard the foundation gate. All the people will gather in the courtyards of The Temple of GOD.

<sup>6</sup> No one may enter The Temple of GOD except the priests and designated Levites--they are permitted in because they've been consecrated, but all the people must do the work assigned them.

<sup>7</sup> The Levites are to form a ring around the young king, weapons at the ready. Kill anyone who tries to break through your ranks. Your job is to stay with the king at all times and places, coming and going."

<sup>8</sup> All the Levites and officers obeyed the orders of Jehoiada the priest. Each took charge of his men, both those who came on duty on the Sabbath and those who went off duty on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest hadn't exempted any of them from duty.

<sup>9</sup> Then the priest armed the officers with spears and the large and small shields originally belonging to King David that were stored in The Temple of God.

<sup>10</sup> Well-armed, the guards took up their assigned positions for protecting the king, from one end of The Temple to the other, surrounding both Altar and Temple.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priest brought the prince into view, crowned him, handed him the scroll of God's covenant, and made him king. As Jehoiada and his sons anointed him they shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>12</sup> Athaliah, hearing all the commotion, the people running around and praising the king, came to The Temple to see what was going on.

<sup>15</sup> So they dragged her out to the palace's horse corral and there they killed her.

<sup>16</sup> Jehoiada now made a covenant between himself and the king and the people: they were to be GOD's special people.

<sup>17</sup> The people poured into the temple of Baal and tore it down, smashing altar and images to smithereens. They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altar.

<sup>18</sup> Jehoiada turned the care of GOD's Temple over to the priests and Levites, the way David had directed originally. They were to offer the Whole-Burnt-Offerings of GOD as set out in The Revelation of Moses, and with praise and song as directed by David.

<sup>19</sup> He also assigned security guards at the gates of GOD's Temple so that no one who was unprepared could enter.

<sup>20</sup> Then he got everyone together--officers, nobles, governors, and the people themselves--and escorted the king down from The Temple of GOD, through the Upper Gate, and placed him on the royal throne.

<sup>21</sup> Everybody celebrated the event. And the city was safe and undisturbed--Athaliah had been killed; no more Athaliah terror.

24 <sup>1</sup> Joash was seven years old when he became king; he was king for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Gazelle (Zibiah). She was from Beersheba.

<sup>2</sup> Taught and trained by Jehoiada the priest, Joash did what pleased GOD throughout Jehoiada's lifetime.

<sup>3</sup> Jehoiada picked out two wives for him; he had a family of both sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup> The time came when Joash determined to renovate The Temple of GOD.

<sup>5</sup> He got the priests and Levites together and said, "Circulate through the towns of Judah every year and collect money from the people to repair The Temple of your God. You are in charge of carrying this out."

<sup>7</sup> Then the king called in Jehoiada the chief priest and said, "Why haven't you made the Levites bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax Moses, servant of GOD and the congregation, set for the upkeep of the place of worship? You can see how bad things are--wicked Queen Athaliah and her sons let The Temple of God go to ruin and took all its sacred artifacts for use in Baal worship."

<sup>8</sup> Following the king's orders, they made a chest and placed it at the entrance to The Temple of GOD.

<sup>9</sup> Then they sent out a tax notice throughout Judah and Jerusalem: "Pay the tax that Moses the servant of GOD set when Israel was in the wilderness."

<sup>10</sup> The people and their leaders were glad to do it and cheerfully brought their money until the chest was full.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the Levites brought the chest in for a royal audit and found it to be full, the king's secretary and the official of the chief priest would empty the chest and put it back in its place. Day after day they did this and collected a lot of money.

<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave the money to the managers of The Temple project; they in turn paid the masons and carpenters for the repair work on The Temple of GOD.

<sup>13</sup> The construction workers kept at their jobs steadily until the restoration was complete--the house of GOD as good as new!

<sup>14</sup> When they had finished the work, they returned the surplus money to the king and Jehoiada, who used the money for making sacred vessels for Temple worship, vessels for the daily worship, for the Whole-Burnt-Offerings, bowls, and other gold and silver liturgical artifacts. Whole-Burnt-Offerings were made regularly in The Temple of GOD throughout Jehoiada's lifetime.

<sup>16</sup> They buried him in the royal cemetery because he had such a distinguished life of service to Israel and God and God's Temple.

<sup>17</sup> But after the death of Jehoiada things fell apart. The leaders of Judah made a formal presentation to the king and he went along with them.

<sup>18</sup> Things went from bad to worse; they deserted The Temple of GOD and took up with the cult of sex goddesses. An angry cloud hovered over Judah and Jerusalem because of this sin.

<sup>19</sup> GOD sent prophets to straighten them out, warning of judgment. But nobody paid attention.

<sup>20</sup> Then the Spirit of God moved Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest to speak up: "God's word: Why have you deliberately walked away from GOD's commandments? You can't live this way! If you walk out on GOD, he'll walk out on you."

<sup>21</sup> But they worked out a plot against Zechariah, and with the complicity of the king--he actually gave the order!--they murdered him, pelting him with rocks, right in the court of The Temple of GOD.

made him king. He murdered Jehoiada's son. Zechariah's last words were, "Look, GOD! Make them pay for this!"

<sup>23</sup> A year or so later Aramean troops attacked Joash. They invaded Judah and Jerusalem, massacred the leaders, and shipped all their plunder back to the king in Damascus.

<sup>24</sup> The Aramean army was quite small, but GOD used them to wipe out Joash's large army--their punishment for deserting GOD, the God of their ancestors. Arameans implemented God's judgment against Joash.

<sup>25</sup> They left Joash badly wounded and his own servants finished him off--it was a palace conspiracy, avenging the murder of the son of Jehoiada the priest. They killed him in his bed. Afterward they buried him in the City of David, but he was not honored with a grave in the royal cemetery.

<sup>26</sup> The temple conspirators were Zabad, whose mother was Shimeath from Ammon, and Jehozabad, whose mother was Shimrith from Moab.

<sup>27</sup> The story of his sons, the many sermons preached to Joash, and the account of his repairs on The Temple of God can be found contained in the commentary on the royal history. Amaziah, Joash's son, was the next king.

25 <sup>1</sup> Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king and reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> He lived well before GOD, doing the right thing for the most part. But he wasn't wholeheartedly devoted to God.

<sup>3</sup> When he had the affairs of the kingdom well in hand, he executed the palace guard who had assassinated his father the king.

<sup>4</sup> But he didn't kill the sons of the assassins--he was mindful of what GOD commanded in The Revelation of Moses, that parents shouldn't be executed for their childrens' sins, nor children for their parents'. We each pay personally for our sins.

<sup>5</sup> Amaziah organized Judah and sorted out Judah and Benjamin by families and by military units. Men twenty years and older had to register--they ended up with 300,000 judged capable of military service.

<sup>6</sup> In addition he hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel in the north at a cost of about four and a half tons of silver.

<sup>7</sup> A holy man showed up and said, "No, O king--don't let those northern Israelite soldiers into your army; GOD is not on their side, nor with any of the Ephraimites.

<sup>8</sup> Instead, you go by yourself and be strong. God and God only has the power to help or hurt your cause."

<sup>9</sup> But Amaziah said to the holy man, "But what about all this money--these tons of silver I have already paid out to hire these men?" "GOD's help is worth far more to you than that," said the holy man.

<sup>10</sup> So Amaziah fired the soldiers he had hired from the north and sent them home. They were very angry at losing their jobs and went home seething.

<sup>11</sup> But Amaziah was optimistic. He led his troops into the Valley of Salt and killed 10,000 men of Seir.

<sup>12</sup> They took another 10,000 as prisoners, led them to the top of the Rock, and pushed them off a cliff. They all died in the fall, smashed on the rocks.

<sup>13</sup> But the troops Amaziah had dismissed from his army, angry over their lost opportunity for plunder, rampaged through the towns of Judah all the way from Samaria to Beth Horon, killing 3,000 people and taking much plunder.

<sup>14</sup> On his return from the destruction of the Edomites, Amaziah brought back the gods of the men of Seir and installed them as his own gods, worshiping them and burning incense to them.

<sup>15</sup> That ignited GOD's anger; a fiery blast of GOD's wrath put into words by a God-sent prophet: "What is this? Why on earth would you pray to inferior gods who couldn't so much as help their own people from you--gods weaker than Amaziah?"

<sup>16</sup> Amaziah interrupted him, "Did I ask for your opinion? Shut up or get thrown out!" The prophet quit speaking, but not before he got in one last word: "I have it on good authority: God has made up his mind to throw you out because of what you've done, and because you wouldn't listen to me."

<sup>17</sup> One day Amaziah sent envoys to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, challenging him to a fight: "Come and meet with me, I dare you. Let's have it out face to face!"

<sup>18</sup> Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah, "One day a thistle in Lebanon sent word to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But then a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and stepped on the thistle, crushing it.

<sup>19</sup> Just because you've defeated Edom in battle, you now think you're a big shot. Go ahead and be proud, but stay home. Why press your luck? Why bring defeat on yourself and Judah?"

<sup>20</sup> Amaziah wouldn't take no for an answer--God had already decided to let Jehoash defeat him because he had defected to the gods of Edom.

<sup>21</sup> So Jehoash king of Israel came on ahead and confronted Amaziah king of Judah. They met at Beth Shemesh, a town of Judah.

<sup>23</sup> Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. But Jehoash didn't stop at that; he went on to attack Jerusalem. He demolished the Wall of Jerusalem all the way from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate--a stretch of about six hundred feet.

<sup>24</sup> He looted the gold, silver, and furnishings--anything he found that was worth taking--from both the palace and The Temple of God--and, for good measure, he took hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

<sup>25</sup> Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah continued as king fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the life and times of Amaziah from start to finish is written in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Judah and Israel].

<sup>27</sup> During those last days, after Amaziah had defected from GOD, they cooked up a plot against Amaziah in Jerusalem, and he had to flee to Lachish. But they tracked him down in Lachish and killed him there.

<sup>28</sup> They brought him back on horseback and buried him in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the City of David.

26 <sup>1</sup> The people of Judah then took Uzziah, who was only sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

<sup>2</sup> The first thing he did after his father was dead and buried was to recover Elath for Judah and rebuild it.

<sup>3</sup> Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king and reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He behaved well in the eyes of GOD, following in the footsteps of his father Amaziah.

<sup>5</sup> He was a loyal seeker of God. He was well trained by his pastor and teacher Zechariah to live in reverent obedience before God, and for as long as Zechariah lived, Uzziah lived a godly life. And God prospered him.

<sup>6</sup> He ventured out and fought the Philistines, breaking into the fortress cities of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod. He also built settlements around Ashdod and other Philistine areas.

<sup>7</sup> God helped him in his wars with the Philistines, the Arabs in Gur Baal, and the Meunites.

<sup>8</sup> The Ammonites also paid tribute. Uzziah became famous, his reputation extending all the way to Egypt. He became quite powerful.

<sup>10</sup> He also built towers and dug cisterns out in the country. He had herds of cattle down in the foothills and out on the plains, had farmers and vinedressers at work in the hills and fields--he loved growing things.

<sup>11</sup> On the military side, Uzziah had a well-prepared army ready to fight. They were organized by companies under the direction of Jeiel the secretary, Maaseiah the field captain, and Hananiah of the general staff.

<sup>15</sup> He also installed the latest in military technology on the towers and corners of Jerusalem for shooting arrows and hurling stones. He became well known for all this--a famous king. Everything seemed to go his way.

<sup>16</sup> But then the strength and success went to his head. Arrogant and proud, he fell. One day, contemptuous of GOD, he walked into The Temple of GOD like he owned it and took over, burning incense on the Incense Altar.

<sup>17</sup> The priest Azariah, backed up by eighty brave priests of GOD, tried to prevent him.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted Uzziah: "You must not, you [cannot] do this, Uzziah-- only the Aaronite priests, especially consecrated for the work, are permitted to burn incense. Get out of God's Temple; you are unfaithful and a disgrace!"

<sup>19</sup> But Uzziah, censer in hand, was already in the middle of doing it and angrily rebuffed the priests. He lost his temper; angry words were exchanged-- and then, even as they quarreled, a skin disease appeared on his forehead.

<sup>20</sup> As soon as they saw it, the chief priest Azariah and the other priests got him out of there as fast as they could. He hurried out--he knew that GOD then and there had given him the disease.

<sup>21</sup> Uzziah had his skin disease for the rest of his life and had to live in quarantine; he was not permitted to set foot in The Temple of GOD. His son Jotham, who managed the royal palace, took over the government of the country.

<sup>22</sup> The rest of the history of Uzziah, from start to finish, was written by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

<sup>23</sup> When Uzziah died, they buried him with his ancestors in a field next to the royal cemetery. His skin disease disqualified him from burial in the royal cemetery. His son Jotham became the next king.

27 <sup>1</sup> Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king; he reigned sixteen years at Jerusalem. His mother was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>3</sup> Jotham constructed the Upper Gate of The Temple of GOD, considerably extended the Wall of the Ophel, <sup>4</sup> and built cities in the high country of Judah and forts and towers down in the forests.

<sup>5</sup> He fought and beat the king of the Ammonites--that year the Ammonites turned over three and a quarter tons of silver and about sixty-five bushels of wheat, and another sixty-five bushels of barley. They repeated this for the next two years.

<sup>6</sup> Jotham's strength was rooted in his steady and determined life of obedience to GOD.

<sup>7</sup> The rest of the history of Jotham, including his wars and achievements, are all written in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Israel and Judah].

<sup>8</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he became king; he reigned for sixteen years at Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Jotham died and was buried in the City of David. His son Ahaz became the next king.

28 <sup>1</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't live right in the eyes of GOD; he wasn't at all like his ancestor David.

<sup>3</sup> He participated in the outlawed burning of incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and--incredibly!--indulged in the outrageous practice of "passing his sons through the fire," a truly abominable thing he picked up from the pagans GOD had earlier thrown out of the country.

<sup>4</sup> He also joined in the activities of the neighborhood sex-and-religion shrines that flourished all over the place.

<sup>5</sup> GOD, fed up, handed him over to the king of Aram, who beat him badly and took many prisoners to Damascus. God also let the king of Israel loose on him and that resulted in a terrible slaughter:

<sup>6</sup> Pekah son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in one day, all of them first-class soldiers, and all because they had deserted GOD, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>7</sup> Furthermore, Zicri, an Ephraimite hero, killed the king's son Maaseiah, Azrikam the palace steward, and Elkanah, second in command to the king.

<sup>8</sup> And that wasn't the end of it--the Israelites captured 200,000 men, women, and children, besides huge cartloads of plunder that they took to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup> GOD's prophet Oded was in the neighborhood. He met the army when it entered Samaria and said, "Stop right where you are and listen! GOD, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah and used you to punish them; but you took things into your own hands and used your anger, uncalled for and irrational, <sup>10</sup> to turn your brothers and sisters from Judah and Jerusalem into slaves. Don't you see that this is a terrible sin against your GOD?

<sup>11</sup> Careful now; do exactly what I say--return these captives, every last one of them. If you don't, you'll find out how real anger, GOD's anger, works."

<sup>12</sup> Some of their Ephraimite leaders--Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai--stood up against the returning army

<sup>13</sup> and said, "Don't bring the captives here! We've already sinned against GOD; and now you are about to compound our sin and guilt. We're guilty enough as it is, enough to set off an explosion of divine anger."

<sup>14</sup> So the soldiers turned over both the captives and the plunder to the leaders and the people.

<sup>15</sup> Personally designated men gathered the captives together, dressed the ones who were naked using clothing from the stores of plunder, put shoes on their feet, gave them all a square meal, provided first aid to the injured, put the weak ones on donkeys, and then escorted them to Jericho, the City of Palms, restoring them to their families. Then they went back to Samaria.

<sup>16</sup> At about that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria asking for personal help.

<sup>18</sup> Adding insult to injury the Philistines raided the cities in the foothills to the west and the southern desert and captured Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, and Gederoth, along with Soco, Timnah, and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages, and moved in, making themselves at home.

<sup>19</sup> Arrogant King Ahaz, acting as if he could do without God's help, had unleashed an epidemic of depravity.

Judah, brought to its knees by GOD, was now reduced to begging for a handout.

<sup>20</sup> But the king of Assyria, Tiglath-Pileser, wouldn't help--he came instead and humiliated Ahaz even more by attacking and bullying him.

<sup>21</sup> Desperate, Ahaz ransacked The Temple of GOD, the royal palace, and every other place he could think of, scraping together everything he could, and gave it to the king of Assyria--and got nothing in return, not a bit of help.

<sup>22</sup> But King Ahaz didn't learn his lesson--at the very time that everyone was turning against him, he continued to be against GOD!

<sup>23</sup> He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus. He had just been defeated by Damascus; he thought, "If I worship the gods who helped Damascus, those gods just might help me too." But things only went from bad to worse: first Ahaz in ruins and then the country.

<sup>24</sup> He cleaned out The Temple of God of everything useful and valuable, boarded up the doors of The Temple, and then went out and set up pagan shrines for his own use all over Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup> And not only in Jerusalem, but all over Judah--neighborhood shrines for worshiping any and every god on sale. And was GOD ever angry!

<sup>26</sup> The rest of Ahaz's infamous life, all that he did from start to finish, is written in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Judah and Israel].

<sup>27</sup> When Ahaz died, they buried him in Jerusalem, but he was not honored with a burial in the cemetery of the kings. His son Hezekiah was the next king.

29 <sup>1</sup> Hezekiah became king when he was twenty-five years old and was king in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>2</sup> In GOD's opinion he was a good king; he kept to the standards of his ancestor David.

<sup>6</sup> Our ancestors went wrong and lived badly before GOD--they discarded him, turned away from this house where we meet with GOD, and walked off.

<sup>7</sup> They boarded up the doors, turned out the lights, and canceled all the acts of worship of the GOD of Israel in the holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup> And because of that, GOD's anger flared up and he turned those people into a public exhibit of disaster, a moral history lesson--look and read!

<sup>9</sup> This is why our ancestors were killed, and this is why our wives and sons and daughters were taken prisoner and made slaves.

<sup>10</sup> "I have decided to make a covenant with the GOD of Israel and turn history around so that GOD will no longer be angry with us.

<sup>11</sup> Children, don't drag your feet in this! GOD has chosen you to take your place before him to serve in conducting and leading worship--this is your life work; make sure you do it and do it well."

<sup>12</sup> The Levites stood at attention: Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah from the Kohathites; Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel from the Merarites; Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah from the Gershonites;

<sup>14</sup> Jehiel and Shimei of the family of Heman; Shemaiah and Uzziel of the family of Jeduthun.

<sup>15</sup> They presented themselves and their brothers, consecrated themselves, and set to work cleaning up The Temple of GOD as the king had directed--as GOD directed!

<sup>16</sup> The priests started from the inside and worked out; they emptied the place of the accumulation of defiling junk--pagan rubbish that had no business in that holy place--and the Levites hauled it off to the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup> They began the Temple cleaning on the first day of the first month and by the eighth day they had worked their way out to the porch--eight days it took them to clean and consecrate The Temple itself, and in eight more days they had finished with the entire Temple complex.

<sup>18</sup> Then they reported to Hezekiah the king, "We have cleaned up the entire Temple of GOD, including the Altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering and the Table of the Bread of the Presence with their furnishings.

<sup>19</sup> We have also cleaned up and consecrated all the vessels which King Ahaz had gotten rid of during his misrule. Take a look; we have repaired them. They're all there in front of the Altar of GOD."

<sup>20</sup> Then Hezekiah the king went to work: He got all the leaders of the city together and marched to The Temple of GOD.

<sup>21</sup> They brought with them seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven he-goats to sacrifice as an Absolution-

Offering for the royal family, for the Sanctuary, and for Judah as a whole; he directed the Aaronite priests to sacrifice them on the Altar of GOD.

<sup>22</sup> The priests butchered the bulls and then took the blood and sprinkled it on the Altar, and then the same with the rams and lambs.

<sup>24</sup> The priests butchered them and made an Absolution-Offering with their blood at the Altar to atone for the sin of all Israel--the king had ordered that the Whole-Burnt-Offering and the Absolution-Offering be for all Israel.

and Nathan the prophet; this was GOD's command conveyed by his prophets.

<sup>27</sup> Then Hezekiah gave the signal to begin: The Whole-Burnt-Offering was offered on the Altar; at the same time the sacred choir began singing, backed up by the trumpets and the David orchestra

<sup>28</sup> while the entire congregation worshiped. The singers sang and the trumpeters played all during the sacrifice of the Whole-Burnt-Offering.

<sup>29</sup> When the offering of the sacrifice was completed, the king and everyone there knelt to the ground and worshiped.

<sup>30</sup> Then Hezekiah the king and the leaders told the Levites to finish things off with anthems of praise to GOD using lyrics by David and Asaph the seer.

They sang their praises with joy and reverence, kneeling in worship.

<sup>31</sup> Hezekiah then made this response: "The dedication is complete--you're consecrated to GOD. Now you're ready: Come forward and bring your sacrifices and Thank-Offerings to The Temple of GOD." And come they did. Everyone in the congregation brought sacrifices and Thank-Offerings and some, overflowing with generosity, even brought Whole-Burnt-Offerings, <sup>32</sup> a generosity expressed in seventy bulls, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs--all for Whole-Burnt-Offerings for GOD!

<sup>33</sup> The total number of animals consecrated for sacrifice that day amounted to 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

<sup>34</sup> They ran out of priests qualified to slaughter all the Whole-Burnt-Offerings so their brother Levites stepped in and helped out while other priests consecrated themselves for the work. It turned out that the Levites had been more responsible in making sure they were properly consecrated than the priests had been.

<sup>35</sup> Besides the overflow of Whole-Burnt-Offerings there were also choice pieces for the Peace-Offerings and lavish libations that went with the Whole-Burnt-Offerings. The worship in The Temple of GOD was on a firm footing again!

<sup>36</sup> Hezekiah and the congregation celebrated: God had established a firm foundation for the lives of the people--and so quickly!

30 <sup>1</sup> Then Hezekiah invited all of Israel and Judah, with personal letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, to come to The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover to Israel's God.

<sup>2</sup> The king and his officials and the congregation in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate Passover in the second month.

<sup>3</sup> They hadn't been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough of the priests were yet personally prepared and the people hadn't had time to gather in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Under these circumstances, the revised date was approved by both king and people

<sup>5</sup> and they sent out the invitation from one end of the country to the other, from Beersheba in the south to Dan in the north: "Come and celebrate the Passover to Israel's God in Jerusalem." No one living had ever celebrated it properly.

<sup>6</sup> The king gave the orders, and the couriers delivered the invitations from the king and his leaders throughout Israel and Judah. The invitation read: "O Israelites! Come back to GOD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he can return to you who have survived the predations of the kings of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup> Don't repeat the sins of your ancestors who turned their backs on GOD, the God of their ancestors who then brought them to ruin--you can see the ruins all around you.

<sup>8</sup> Don't be pigheaded as your ancestors were. Clasp GOD's outstretched hand. Come to his Temple of holy worship, consecrated for all time. Serve GOD, [your] God. You'll no longer be in danger of his hot anger.

<sup>9</sup> If you come back to GOD, your captive relatives and children will be treated compassionately and allowed to come home. Your GOD is gracious and kind and won't snub you--come back and he'll welcome you with open arms."

<sup>10</sup> So the couriers set out, going from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far north as Zebulun. But the people poked fun at them, treated them as a joke.

<sup>11</sup> But not all; some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun weren't too proud to accept the invitation and come to Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> It was better in Judah--God worked powerfully among them to make it unanimous, responding to the orders sent out by the king and his officials, orders backed up by the word of GOD.

<sup>13</sup> It turned out that there was a tremendous crowd of people when the time came in the second month to celebrate the Passover (sometimes called the Feast of Unraised Bread).

<sup>14</sup> First they went to work and got rid of all the pagan altars that were in Jerusalem--hailed them off and dumped them in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>15</sup> Then, on the fourteenth day of the second month, they slaughtered the Passover lambs. The priests and Levites weren't ready; but now, embarrassed in their laziness, they consecrated themselves and brought Whole-Burnt-Offerings to The Temple of GOD.

<sup>16</sup> Ready now, they stood at their posts as designated by The Revelation of Moses the holy man; the priests sprinkled the blood the Levites handed to them.

<sup>17</sup> Because so many in the congregation had not properly prepared themselves by consecration and so were not qualified, the Levites took charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs so that they would be properly consecrated to GOD.

<sup>18</sup> There were a lot of people, especially those from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, who did not eat the Passover meal because they had not prepared themselves adequately. Hezekiah prayed for these as follows: "May GOD who is all good, pardon and forgive <sup>19</sup> everyone who sincerely desires GOD, the God of our ancestors. Even--especially!--these who do not meet the literal conditions stated for access to The Temple."

<sup>20</sup> GOD responded to Hezekiah's prayer and healed the people.

<sup>21</sup> All the Israelites present in Jerusalem celebrated the Passover (Feast of Unraised Bread) for seven days, celebrated exuberantly. The Levites and priests praised GOD day after day, filling the air with praise sounds of percussion and brass.

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah commended the Levites for the superb way in which they had led the people in the worship of GOD. When the feast and festival--that glorious seven days of worship, the making of offerings, and the praising of GOD, the God of their ancestors--were over, the tables cleared and the floors swept, <sup>23</sup> they all decided to keep going for another seven days! So they just kept on celebrating, and as joyfully as they began.

<sup>24</sup> Hezekiah king of Judah gave 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep for the congregation's worship; the officials gave an additional 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. And there turned out to be plenty of consecrated priests--qualified and well-prepared.

<sup>25</sup> The whole congregation of Judah, the priests and Levites, the congregation that came in from Israel, and the resident aliens from both Israel and Judah, were all in on the joyous celebration.

<sup>26</sup> Jerusalem was bursting with joy—nothing like this had taken place in Jerusalem since Solomon son of David king of Israel had built and dedicated The Temple.

<sup>27</sup> The priests and Levites had the last word: they stood and blessed the people. And God listened, listened as the ascending sound of their prayers entered his holy heaven.

31 <sup>1</sup> After the Passover celebration, they all took off for the cities of Judah and smashed the phallic stone monuments, chopped down the sacred Asherah groves, and demolished the neighborhood sex-and-religion shrines and local god shops. They didn't stop until they had been all through Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh. Then they all went back home and resumed their everyday lives.

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah organized the groups of priests and Levites for their respective tasks, handing out job descriptions for conducting the services of worship: making the various offerings, and making sure that thanks and praise took place wherever and whenever GOD was worshiped.

<sup>3</sup> He also designated his personal contribution for the Whole-Burnt-Offerings for the morning and evening worship, for Sabbaths, for New Moon festivals, and for the special worship days set down in The Revelation of GOD.

<sup>4</sup> In addition, he asked the people who lived in Jerusalem to be responsible for providing for the priests and Levites so they, without distraction or concern, could give themselves totally to The Revelation of GOD.

<sup>5</sup> As soon as Hezekiah's orders had gone out, the Israelites responded generously: firstfruits of the grain harvest, new wine, oil, honey--everything they grew. They didn't hold back, turning over a tithe of everything.

<sup>6</sup> They also brought in a tithe of their cattle, sheep, and anything else they owned that had been dedicated to GOD. Everything was sorted and piled in mounds.

<sup>7</sup> They started doing this in the third month and didn't finish until the seventh month.

<sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and his leaders came and saw the extent of the mounds of gifts, they praised GOD and commended God's people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Hezekiah then consulted the priests and Levites on how to handle the abundance of offerings.

<sup>10</sup> Azariah, chief priest of the family of Zadok, answered, "From the moment of this huge outpouring of gifts to The Temple of GOD, there has been plenty to eat for everyone with food left over. GOD has blessed his people--just look at the evidence!"

<sup>11</sup> Hezekiah then ordered storerooms to be prepared in The Temple of GOD. When they were ready, <sup>12</sup> they brought in all the offerings of tithes and sacred gifts. They put Conaniah the Levite in charge with his brother Shimei as assistant.

<sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were project managers under the direction of Conaniah and Shimei, carrying out the orders of King Hezekiah and Azariah the chief priest of The Temple of God.

<sup>14</sup> Kore son of Imnah the Levite, security guard of the East Gate, was in charge of the Freewill-Offerings of God and responsible for distributing the offerings and sacred gifts.

<sup>15</sup> Faithful support out in the priestly cities was provided by Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah. They were even-handed in their distributions to their coworkers (all males thirty years and older) in each of their respective divisions daughters. The ardent dedication they showed in bringing themselves and their gifts to worship was total--no one was left out.

<sup>16</sup> as they entered The Temple of GOD each day to do their assigned work (their work was all organized by divisions).

<sup>17</sup> The divisions comprised officially registered priests by family and Levites twenty years and older by job description.

<sup>19</sup> The Aaronites, the priests who lived out on the pastures that belonged to the priest-cities, had reputable men on hand to distribute regular rations to every priest--everyone listed in the official family tree of the Levites.

<sup>20</sup> Hezekiah carried out this work and kept it up everywhere in Judah. He was the very best--good, right, and true before his GOD.

<sup>21</sup> Everything he took up, whether it had to do with worship in God's Temple or the carrying out of God's Law and Commandments, he did well in a spirit of prayerful worship. He was a great success.

32 <sup>1</sup> And then, after this exemplary track record, this: Sennacherib king of Assyria came and attacked Judah. He put the fortified cities under siege, determined to take them.

<sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah realized that Sennacherib's strategy was to take Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he talked to his advisors and military leaders about eliminating all the water supplies outside the city; they thought it was a good idea.

<sup>4</sup> There was a great turnout of people to plug the springs and tear down the aqueduct. They said, "Why should the kings of Assyria march in and be furnished with running water?"

<sup>5</sup> Hezekiah also went to work repairing every part of the city wall that was damaged, built defensive towers on it, built another wall of defense further out, and reinforced the defensive rampart (the Millo) of the old City of

David. He also built up a large store of armaments--spears and shields.

<sup>6</sup> He then appointed military officers to be responsible for the people and got them all together at the public square in front of the city gate. Hezekiah rallied the people, saying, <sup>7</sup> "Be strong! Take courage! Don't be intimidated by the king of Assyria and his troops--there are more on our side than on their side.

<sup>8</sup> He only has a bunch of mere men; we have our GOD to help us and fight for us!" Morale surged. Hezekiah's words put steel in their spines.

<sup>9</sup> Later on, Sennacherib, who had set up camp a few miles away at Lachish, sent messengers to Jerusalem, addressing Judah through Hezekiah:

<sup>10</sup> "A proclamation of Sennacherib king of Assyria: You poor people--do you think you're safe in that so-called fortress of Jerusalem? You're sitting ducks.

<sup>11</sup> Do you think Hezekiah will save you? Don't be stupid--Hezekiah has fed you a pack of lies. When he says, 'GOD will save us from the power of the king of Assyria,' he's lying--you're all going to end up dead.

<sup>12</sup> Wasn't it Hezekiah who cleared out all the neighborhood worship shrines and told you, 'There is only one legitimate place to worship'?

<sup>13</sup> Do you have any idea what I and my ancestors have done to all the countries around here? Has there been a single god anywhere strong enough to stand up against me?

<sup>14</sup> Can you name one god among all the nations that either I or my ancestors have ravaged that so much as lifted a finger against me? So what makes you think you'll make out any better with your god?

<sup>15</sup> Don't let Hezekiah fool you; don't let him get by with his barefaced lies; don't trust him. No god of any country or kingdom ever has been one bit of help against me or my ancestors--what kind of odds does that give your god?"

<sup>16</sup> The messengers felt free to throw in their personal comments, putting down both GOD and God's servant Hezekiah.

<sup>17</sup> Sennacherib continued to send letters insulting the GOD of Israel: "The gods of the nations were powerless to help their people; the god of Hezekiah is no better, probably worse."

<sup>19</sup> They contemptuously lumped the God of Jerusalem in with the handmade gods of other peoples.

<sup>21</sup> GOD answered by sending an angel who wiped out everyone in the Assyrian camp, both warriors and officers. Sennacherib was forced to return home in disgrace, tail between his legs. When he went into the temple of his god, his own sons killed him.

<sup>22</sup> GOD saved Hezekiah and the citizens of Jerusalem from Sennacherib king of Assyria and everyone else. And he continued to take good care of them.

<sup>23</sup> People streamed into Jerusalem bringing offerings for the worship of GOD and expensive presents to Hezekiah king of Judah. All the surrounding nations were impressed--Hezekiah's stock soared.

<sup>24</sup> Some time later Hezekiah became deathly sick. He prayed to GOD and was given a reassuring sign.

<sup>25</sup> But the sign, instead of making Hezekiah grateful, made him arrogant. This made GOD angry, and his anger spilled over on Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> But then Hezekiah, and Jerusalem with him, repented of his arrogance, and GOD withdrew his anger while Hezekiah lived.

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah ended up very wealthy and much honored. He built treasuries for all his silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and valuables, <sup>28</sup> barns for the grain, new wine, and olive oil, stalls for his various breeds of cattle, and pens for his flocks.

<sup>29</sup> He founded royal cities for himself and built up huge stocks of sheep and cattle. God saw to it that he was extravagantly rich.

<sup>30</sup> Hezekiah was also responsible for diverting the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and rerouting the water to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah succeeded in everything he did.

<sup>31</sup> But when the rulers of Babylon sent emissaries to find out about the sign from God that had taken place earlier, God left him on his own to see what he would do; he wanted to test his heart.

<sup>32</sup> The rest of the history of Hezekiah and his life of loyal service, you can read for yourself--it's written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Judah and Israel].

<sup>33</sup> When Hezekiah died, they buried him in the upper part of the King David cemetery. Everyone in Judah and Jerusalem came to the funeral. He was buried in great honor. Manasseh his son was the next king.

33 <sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king. He ruled for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> In GOD's opinion he was a bad king--an evil king. He reintroduced all the moral rot and spiritual corruption that had been scoured from the country when GOD dispossessed the pagan nations in favor of the children of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the sex-and-religion shrines that his father Hezekiah had torn down, he built altars and phallic images for the sex god Baal and the sex goddess Asherah and worshiped the cosmic powers, taking orders from the constellations.

<sup>4</sup> He built shrines to the cosmic powers and placed them in both courtyards of The Temple of GOD, <sup>5</sup> the very Jerusalem Temple dedicated exclusively by GOD's decree to GOD's Name ("in Jerusalem I place my Name").

<sup>6</sup> He burned his own sons in a sacrificial rite in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. He practiced witchcraft and fortunetelling. He held séances and consulted spirits from the underworld. Much evil--in GOD's view a career in evil. And GOD was angry.

<sup>7</sup> As a last straw he placed a carved image of the sex goddess Asherah that he had commissioned in The Temple of God, a flagrant and provocative violation of God's well-known command to both David and Solomon, "In this Temple and in this city Jerusalem, my choice out of all the tribes of Israel, I place my Name--exclusively and forever."

<sup>8</sup> He had promised, "Never again will I let my people Israel wander off from this land I've given to their ancestors. But on this condition, that they keep everything I've commanded in the instructions my servant Moses passed on to them."

<sup>9</sup> But Manasseh led Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem off the beaten path into practices of evil exceeding even the evil of the pagan nations that GOD had earlier destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> When GOD spoke to Manasseh and his people about this, they ignored him.

<sup>11</sup> Then GOD directed the leaders of the troops of the king of Assyria to come after Manasseh. They put a hook in his nose, shackles on his feet, and took him off to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> Now that he was in trouble, he went to his knees in prayer asking for help--total repentance before the God of his ancestors.

<sup>13</sup> As he prayed, GOD was touched; GOD listened and brought him back to Jerusalem as king. That convinced Manasseh that GOD was in control.

<sup>14</sup> After that Manasseh rebuilt the outside defensive wall of the City of David to the west of the Gihon spring in the valley. It went from the Fish Gate and around the hill of Ophel. He also increased its height. He tightened up the defense system by posting army captains in all the fortress cities of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> He also did a good spring cleaning on The Temple, carting out the pagan idols and the goddess statue. He took all the altars he had set up on The Temple hill and throughout Jerusalem and dumped them outside the city.

<sup>16</sup> He put the Altar of GOD back in working order and restored worship, sacrificing Peace-Offerings and Thank-Offerings. He issued orders to the people: "You shall serve and worship GOD, the God of Israel."

<sup>17</sup> But the people didn't take him seriously--they used the name "GOD" but kept on going to the old pagan neighborhood shrines and doing the same old things.

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the history of Manasseh--his prayer to his God, and the sermons the prophets personally delivered by authority of GOD, the God of Israel--this is all written in [The Chronicles of the Kings of Israel].

<sup>19</sup> His prayer and how God was touched by his prayer, a list of all his sins and the things he did wrong, the actual places where he built the pagan shrines, the installation of the sex-goddess Asherah sites, and the idolatrous images that he worshiped previous to his conversion--this is all described in the records of the prophets.

<sup>20</sup> When Manasseh died, they buried him in the palace garden. His son Amon was the next king.

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king. He was king for two years in Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup> The citizens in their turn then killed the king's assassins. The citizens then crowned Josiah, Amon's son, as king.

34 <sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he became king. He ruled for thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> He behaved well before GOD. He kept straight on the path blazed by his ancestor David, not one step to the left or right.

<sup>3</sup> When he had been king for eight years--he was still only a teenager--he began to seek the God of David his ancestor. Four years later, the twelfth year of his reign, he set out to cleanse the neighborhood of sex-and-religion shrines, and get rid of the sacred Asherah groves and the god and goddess figurines, whether carved or cast, from Judah.

<sup>4</sup> He wrecked the Baal shrines, tore down the altars connected with them, and scattered the debris and ashes over the graves of those who had worshiped at them.

<sup>5</sup> He burned the bones of the priests on the same altars they had used when alive. He scrubbed the place clean, Judah and Jerusalem, clean inside and out.

<sup>6</sup> The clean-up campaign ranged outward to the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and the surrounding neighborhoods--as far north as Naphtali.

<sup>7</sup> Throughout Israel he demolished the altars and Asherah groves, pulverized the god and goddess figures, chopped up the neighborhood shrines into firewood. With Israel once more intact, he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> One day in the eighteenth year of his kingship, with the cleanup of country and Temple complete, King Josiah sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the mayor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz the historian to renovate The Temple of GOD.

<sup>9</sup> First they turned over to Hilkiah the high priest all the money collected by the Levitical security guards from Manasseh and Ephraim and the rest of Israel, and from Judah and Benjamin and the citizens of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> It was then put into the hands of the foremen managing the work on The Temple of GOD

<sup>11</sup> who then passed it on to the workers repairing GOD's Temple--the carpenters, construction workers, and masons--so they could buy the lumber and dressed stone for rebuilding the foundations the kings of Judah had allowed to fall to pieces.

<sup>12</sup> The workmen were honest and diligent. Their foremen were Jahath and Obadiah, the Merarite Levites, and Zechariah and Meshullam from the Kohathites--these managed the project. The Levites--they were all skilled musicians--

<sup>13</sup> were in charge of the common laborers and supervised the workers as they went from job to job. The Levites also served as accountants, managers, and security guards.

<sup>14</sup> While the money that had been given for The Temple of GOD was being received and dispersed, Hilkiah the high priest found a copy of The Revelation of Moses.

<sup>15</sup> He reported to Shaphan the royal secretary, "I've just found the Book of GOD's Revelation, instructing us in GOD's way--found it in The Temple!" He gave it to Shaphan, <sup>16</sup> who then gave it to the king. And along with the book, he gave this report: "The job is complete--everything you ordered done is done.

<sup>17</sup> They took all the money that was collected in The Temple of GOD and handed it over to the managers and workers."

<sup>18</sup> And then Shaphan told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book."

Shaphan proceeded to read it out to the king.

<sup>19</sup> When the king heard what was written in the book, GOD's Revelation, he ripped his robes in dismay.

<sup>20</sup> And then he called for Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the royal secretary, and Asaiah the king's personal aide.

<sup>21</sup> He ordered them all: "Go and pray to GOD for me and what's left of Israel and Judah. Find out what we must do in response to what is written in this book that has just been found! GOD's anger must be burning furiously against us--our ancestors haven't obeyed a thing written in this book of GOD, followed none of the instructions directed to us."

<sup>22</sup> Hilkiah and those picked by the king went straight to Huldah the prophetess. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, who was in charge of the palace wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter. The men consulted with her.

<sup>23</sup> In response to them she said, "GOD's word, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you here, <sup>24</sup> 'GOD has spoken, I'm on my way to bring the doom of judgment on this place and this people. Every word written in the book read by the king of Judah will happen.

<sup>25</sup> And why? Because they've deserted me and taken up with other gods; they've made me thoroughly angry by setting up their god-making businesses. My anger is raging white-hot against this place and nobody is going to put it out.'

<sup>26</sup> "And also tell the king of Judah, since he sent you to ask GOD for direction, GOD's comment on what he read in the book:

<sup>27</sup> 'Because you took seriously the doom of judgment I spoke against this place and people, and because you responded in humble repentance, tearing your robe in dismay and weeping before me, I'm taking you seriously. GOD's word.

<sup>28</sup> I'll take care of you; you'll have a quiet death and be buried in peace. You won't be around to see the doom that I'm going to bring upon this place and people.'" The men took her message back to the king.

<sup>30</sup> and then proceeding to The Temple of GOD bringing everyone in his train--priests and prophets and people ranging from the least to the greatest. Then he read out publicly everything written in the Book of the Covenant that was found in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>31</sup> The king stood by his pillar and before GOD solemnly committed himself to the covenant: to follow GOD believingly and obediently; to follow his instructions, heart and soul, on what to believe and do; to confirm with his life the entire covenant, all that was written in the book.

<sup>32</sup> Then he made everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin commit themselves. And they did it. They committed themselves to the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> Josiah did a thorough job of cleaning up the pollution that had spread throughout Israelite territory and got everyone started fresh again, serving and worshiping their GOD. All through Josiah's life the people kept to the straight and narrow, obediently following GOD, the God of their ancestors.

35 <sup>1</sup> Josiah celebrated the Passover to GOD in Jerusalem. They killed the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>2</sup> He gave the priests detailed instructions and encouraged them in the work of leading worship in The Temple of GOD.

<sup>3</sup> He also told the Levites who were in charge of teaching and guiding Israel in all matters of worship (they were especially consecrated for this), "Place the sacred Chest in The Temple that Solomon son of David, the king of Israel, built. You don't have to carry it around on your shoulders any longer! Serve GOD and God's people Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Organize yourselves by families for your respective responsibilities, following the instructions left by David king of Israel and Solomon his son.

<sup>5</sup> "Take your place in the sanctuary--a team of Levites for every grouping of your fellow citizens, the laity.

<sup>6</sup> Your job is to kill the Passover lambs, then consecrate yourselves and prepare the lambs so that everyone will be able to keep the Passover exactly as GOD commanded through Moses."

<sup>7</sup> Josiah personally donated 30,000 sheep, lambs, and goats and 3,000 bulls--everything needed for the Passover celebration was there.

<sup>8</sup> His officials also pitched in on behalf of the people, including the priests and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, leaders in The Temple of God, gave 2,600 lambs and 300 bulls to the priests for the Passover offerings.

Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, donated 5,000 lambs and 500 bulls to the Levites for the Passover offerings.

<sup>10</sup> Preparations were complete for the service of worship; the priests took up their positions and the Levites were at their posts as instructed by the king.

<sup>12</sup> Then they set aside the Whole-Burnt-Offering for presentation to the family groupings of the people so that each group could offer it to GOD following the instructions in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle.

<sup>13</sup> They roasted the Passover lamb according to the instructions and boiled the consecrated offerings in pots and kettles and pans and promptly served the people.

<sup>14</sup> After the people had eaten the holy meal, the Levites served themselves and the Aaronite priests--the priests were busy late into the night making the offerings at the Altar.

<sup>15</sup> The Asaph singers were all in their places following the instructions of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. The security guards were on duty at each gate--the Levites also served them because they couldn't leave their posts.

<sup>16</sup> Everything went without a hitch in the worship of GOD that day as they celebrated the Passover and the offering of the Whole-Burnt-Offering on the Altar of GOD. It went just as Josiah had ordered.

<sup>17</sup> The Israelites celebrated the Passover, also known as the Feast of Unraised Bread, for seven days.

<sup>18</sup> The Passover hadn't been celebrated like this since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings had done it. But Josiah, the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were there that week, plus the citizens of Jerusalem--[they] did it.

<sup>19</sup> In the eighteenth year of the rule of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated.

<sup>20</sup> Some time later, after Josiah's reformation of The Temple, Neco king of Egypt marched out toward Carchemish on the Euphrates River on his way to war. Josiah went out to fight him.

<sup>21</sup> Neco sent messengers to Josiah saying, "What do we have against each other, O king of Judah? I haven't come to fight against you but against the country with whom I'm at war. God commanded me to hurry, so don't get in my way; you'll only interfere with God, who is on my side in this, and he'll destroy you."

<sup>22</sup> But Josiah was spoiling for a fight and wouldn't listen to a thing Neco said (in actuality it was God who said it). Though King Josiah disguised himself when they met on the plain of Megiddo, <sup>23</sup> archers shot him anyway. The king said to his servants, "Get me out of here--I'm badly wounded."

<sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of his chariot and laid him down in an ambulance chariot and drove him back to Jerusalem. He died there and was buried in the family cemetery. Everybody in Judah and Jerusalem attended the funeral.

<sup>25</sup> Jeremiah composed an anthem of lament for Josiah. The anthem is still sung by the choirs of Israel to this day. The anthem is written in the Laments.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the history of Josiah, his exemplary and devout life, conformed to The Revelation of GOD.

<sup>27</sup> The whole story, from start to finish, is written in the Royal [Annals of the Kings of Israel and Judah].

<sup>2</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to rule. He was king in Jerusalem for a mere three months.

<sup>3</sup> The king of Egypt dethroned him and forced the country to pay him nearly four tons of silver and seventy-five pounds of gold.

<sup>4</sup> Neco king of Egypt then made Eliakim, Jehoahaz's brother, king of Judah and Jerusalem, but changed his name to Jehoiakim; then he took Jehoahaz back with him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to rule; he was king for eleven years in Jerusalem. In GOD's opinion he was an evil king.

<sup>6</sup> Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made war against him, and bound him in bronze chains, intending to take him prisoner to Babylon.

<sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar also took things from The Temple of GOD to Babylon and put them in his royal palace.

<sup>8</sup> The rest of the history of Jehoiakim, the outrageous sacrilege he committed and what happened to him as a consequence, is all written in the [Royal Annals of the Kings of Israel and Judah]. Jehoiachin his son became the next king.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king. But he ruled for only three months and ten days in Jerusalem. In GOD's opinion he was an evil king.

<sup>10</sup> In the spring King Nebuchadnezzar ordered him brought to Babylon along with the valuables remaining in The Temple of GOD. Then he made his uncle Zedekiah a puppet king over Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he started out as king. He was king in Jerusalem for eleven years.

<sup>12</sup> As far as GOD was concerned, he was just one more evil king; there wasn't a trace of contrition in him when the prophet Jeremiah preached GOD's word to him.

<sup>13</sup> Then he compounded his troubles by rebelling against King Nebuchadnezzar, who earlier had made him swear in God's name that he would be loyal. He became set in his own stubborn ways--he never gave GOD a thought; repentance never entered his mind.

<sup>14</sup> The evil mindset spread to the leaders and priests and filtered down to the people--it kicked off an epidemic of evil, repeating the abominations of the pagans and polluting The Temple of GOD so recently consecrated in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> GOD, the God of their ancestors, repeatedly sent warning messages to them. Out of compassion for both his people and his Temple he wanted to give them every chance possible.

<sup>16</sup> But they wouldn't listen; they poked fun at God's messengers, despised the message itself, and in general treated the prophets like idiots. GOD became more and more angry until there was no turning back--

<sup>17</sup> GOD called in Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who came and killed indiscriminately--and right in The Temple itself; it was a ruthless massacre:

young men and virgins, the elderly and weak--they were all the same to him.

<sup>18</sup> And then he plundered The Temple of everything valuable, cleaned it out completely; he emptied the treasuries of The Temple of God, the treasuries of the king and his officials, and hauled it all, people and possessions, off to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> He burned The Temple of God to the ground, knocked down the wall of Jerusalem, and set fire to all the buildings--everything valuable was burned up.

<sup>20</sup> Any survivor was taken prisoner into exile in Babylon and made a slave to Nebuchadnezzar and his family. The exile and slavery lasted until the kingdom of Persia took over.

<sup>21</sup> This is exactly the message of GOD that Jeremiah had preached: the desolate land put to an extended sabbath rest, a seventy-year Sabbath rest making up for all the unkept Sabbaths.

<sup>22</sup> In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia--this fulfilled the message of GOD preached by Jeremiah--GOD moved Cyrus king of Persia to make an official announcement throughout his kingdom; he wrote it out as follows:

<sup>23</sup> "From Cyrus king of Persia a proclamation: GOD, the God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has also assigned me to build him a Temple of worship at Jerusalem in Judah. All who belong to GOD's people are urged to return--and may your GOD be with you! Move forward!"

Ezra

1 <sup>1</sup> In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia--this fulfilled the Message of GOD preached by Jeremiah--GOD prodded Cyrus king of Persia to make an official announcement throughout his kingdom. He wrote it out as follows:

<sup>2</sup> From Cyrus king of Persia, a Proclamation: GOD, the God of the heavens, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has also assigned me to build him a Temple of worship in Jerusalem, Judah.

<sup>3</sup> Who among you belongs to his people? GOD be with you! Go to Jerusalem which is in Judah and build The Temple of GOD, the God of Israel, Jerusalem's God.

<sup>4</sup> Those who stay behind, wherever they happen to live, will support them with silver, gold, tools, and pack animals, along with Freewill-Offerings for The Temple of God in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> The heads of the families of Judah and Benjamin, along with the priests and Levites--everyone, in fact, God prodded--set out to build The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> Also, King Cyrus turned over to them all the vessels and utensils from The Temple of GOD that Nebuchadnezzar had hauled from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his gods.

<sup>8</sup> Cyrus king of Persia put Mithredath the treasurer in charge of the transfer; he provided a full inventory for Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah, including the following:

<sup>9</sup> 30 gold dishes 1,000 silver dishes

<sup>10</sup> 29 silver pans 30 gold bowls

410 duplicate silver bowls 1,000 miscellaneous items.

<sup>11</sup> All told, there were 5,400 gold and silver articles that Sheshbazzar took with him when he brought the exiles back from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 <sup>1</sup> These are the people from the province who now returned from the captivity, exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried off captive. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his hometown.

- <sup>3</sup> Parosh, 2,172
- <sup>4</sup> Shephatiah, 372
- <sup>5</sup> Arah, 775
- <sup>6</sup> Pahath-Moab (sons of Jeshua and Joab), 2,812
- <sup>7</sup> Elam, 1,254
- <sup>8</sup> Zattu, 945
- <sup>9</sup> Zaccai, 760
- <sup>10</sup> Bani, 642

- <sup>14</sup> Bigvai, 2,056
- <sup>15</sup> Adin, 454
- <sup>16</sup> Ater (sons of Hezekiah), 98
- <sup>17</sup> Bezai, 323
- <sup>18</sup> Jorah, 112
- <sup>19</sup> Hashum, 223
- <sup>20</sup> Gibbar, 95.
- <sup>21</sup> Israelites identified by place of origin were as follows: Bethlehem, 123
- <sup>22</sup> Netophah, 56

- <sup>23</sup> Anathoth, 128
- <sup>24</sup> Azmaveth, 42
- <sup>25</sup> Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, 743
- <sup>26</sup> Ramah and Geba, 621
- <sup>27</sup> Micmash, 122
- <sup>28</sup> Bethel and Ai, 223
- <sup>29</sup> Nebo, 52
- <sup>30</sup> Magbish, 156
- <sup>31</sup> Elam (the other one), 1,254
- <sup>32</sup> Harim, 320
- <sup>33</sup> Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 725
- <sup>34</sup> Jericho, 345
- <sup>35</sup> Senaah, 3,630.
- <sup>36</sup> Priestly families: Jedaiah (sons of Jeshua), 973
- <sup>37</sup> Immer, 1,052
- <sup>38</sup> Pashhur, 1,247
- <sup>39</sup> Harim, 1,017.
- <sup>40</sup> Levitical families: Jeshua and Kadmiel (sons of Hodaviah), 74.
- <sup>41</sup> Singers: Asaph's family line, 128.

<sup>62</sup> They had thoroughly searched for their family records but couldn't find them. And so they were barred from priestly work as ritually unclean.

<sup>65</sup> That did not include the male and female slaves, which numbered 7,337. There were also 200 male and female singers,

<sup>66</sup> and they had 736 horses, 245 mules,

<sup>68</sup> Some of the heads of families, on arriving at The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem, made Freewill-Offerings toward the rebuilding of The Temple of God on its site.

<sup>69</sup> They gave to the building fund as they were able, about 1,100 pounds of gold, about three tons of silver, and 100 priestly robes.

<sup>70</sup> The priests, Levites, and some of the people lived in Jerusalem. The singers, security guards, and temple support staff found places in their hometowns. All the Israelites found a place to live.

3<sup>1</sup> When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled into their towns, the people assembled together in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brother priests, along with Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and his relatives, went to work and built the Altar of the God of Israel to offer Whole-Burnt-Offerings on it as written in The Revelation of Moses the man of God.

<sup>3</sup> Even though they were afraid of what their non-Israelite neighbors might do, they went ahead anyway and set up the Altar on its foundations and offered Whole-Burnt-Offerings on it morning and evening.

<sup>4</sup> They also celebrated the Festival of Booths as prescribed and the daily Whole-Burnt-Offerings set for each day.

<sup>5</sup> And they presented the regular Whole-Burnt-Offerings for Sabbaths,

New Moons, and GOD's Holy Festivals, as well as Freewill-Offerings for GOD.

<sup>6</sup> They began offering Whole-Burnt-Offerings to GOD from the very first day of the seventh month, even though The Temple of GOD's foundation had not yet been laid.

<sup>7</sup> They gave money to hire masons and carpenters. They gave food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and Tyrians in exchange for the cedar lumber they had brought by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, a shipment authorized by Cyrus the king of Persia.

<sup>8</sup> In the second month of the second year after their arrival at The Temple of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jozadak, in company with their brother priests and Levites and everyone else who had come back to Jerusalem from captivity, got started. They appointed the Levites twenty years of age and older to direct the rebuilding of The Temple of GOD.

<sup>9</sup> Jeshua and his family joined Kadmiel, Binnui, and Hodaviah, along with the extended family of Henadad--all Levites--to direct the work crew on The Temple of God.

<sup>10</sup> When the workers laid the foundation of The Temple of GOD, the priests in their robes stood up with trumpets, and the Levites, sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise GOD in the tradition of David king of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> They sang antiphonally praise and thanksgiving to GOD: Yes! GOD is good! Oh yes--he'll never quit loving Israel! All the people boomed out hurrahs, praising GOD as the foundation of The Temple of GOD was laid.

<sup>12</sup> As many were noisily shouting with joy, many of the older priests, Levites, and family heads who had seen the first Temple, when they saw the foundations of this Temple laid, wept loudly for joy.

<sup>13</sup> People couldn't distinguish the shouting from the weeping. The sound of their voices reverberated for miles around.

4 <sup>1</sup> Old enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building The Temple of the GOD of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> They came to Zerubbabel and the family heads and said, "We'll help you build. We worship your God the same as you. We've been offering sacrifices to him since Esarhaddon king of Assyria brought us here."

<sup>3</sup> Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the family heads of Israel said to them, "Nothing doing. Building The Temple of our God is not the same thing to you as to us. We alone will build for the GOD of Israel. We're the ones King Cyrus of Persia commanded to do it."

<sup>4</sup> So these people started beating down the morale of the people of Judah, harassing them as they built.

<sup>5</sup> They even hired propagandists to sap their resolve. They kept this up for about fifteen years, throughout the lifetime of Cyrus king of Persia and on into the reign of Darius king of Persia.

<sup>6</sup> In fact, in the reign of Xerxes, at the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against those living in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

<sup>9</sup> From: Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, backed by the rest of their associates, the judges and officials over the people from Tripolis, Persia, Erech, and Babylon, Elamites of Susa, <sup>10</sup> and all the others whom the great and honorable Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and other places in the land across the Euphrates.

<sup>11</sup> (This is the copy of the letter they sent to him.) To: King Artaxerxes from your servants from the land across the Euphrates.

<sup>12</sup> We are here to inform the king that the Jews who came from you to us have arrived in Jerusalem and have set about rebuilding that rebellious and evil city.

They are busy at work finishing the walls and rebuilding the foundations.

<sup>13</sup> The king needs to know that once that city is rebuilt and the wall completed they will no longer pay a penny of tribute, tax, or duty. The royal treasury will feel the loss.

<sup>14</sup> We're loyal to the king and cannot sit idly by while our king is being insulted--that's why we are passing this information on.

<sup>15</sup> We suggest that you look into the court records of your ancestors; you'll learn from those books that that city is a rebellious city, a thorn in the side to kings and provinces, an historic center of unrest and revolt. That's why the city was wiped out.

<sup>16</sup> We are letting the king know that if that city gets rebuilt and its walls restored, you'll end up with nothing in your province beyond the Euphrates.

<sup>17</sup> The king sent his reply to Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary, and the rest of their associates who lived in Samaria and other places beyond the Euphrates. Peace be with you.

<sup>18</sup> The letter that you sent has been translated and read to me.

<sup>19</sup> I gave orders to search the records, and sure enough it turns out that this city has revolted against kings time and again--rebellion is an old story there.

<sup>20</sup> I find that they've had their share of strong kings who have taken over beyond the Euphrates and exacted taxes, tribute, and duty.

<sup>21</sup> So do this: Order these men to stop work immediately--not a lick of rebuilding in that city unless I order it.

<sup>23</sup> The letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates. They lost no time. They went to the Jews in Jerusalem and made them quit work.

<sup>24</sup> That put a stop to the work on The Temple of God in Jerusalem. Nothing more was done until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 <sup>1</sup> Meanwhile the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo were preaching to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the authority of the God of Israel who ruled them.

<sup>2</sup> And so Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak started again, rebuilding The Temple of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were right there helping them.

<sup>3</sup> Tattenai was governor of the land beyond the Euphrates at this time. Tattenai, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates came to the Israelites and asked, "Who issued you a permit to rebuild this Temple and restore it to use?"

<sup>4</sup> Then we told them the names of the men responsible for this construction work.

<sup>5</sup> But God had his eye on the leaders of the Jews, and the work wasn't stopped until a report could reach Darius and an official reply be returned.

<sup>6</sup> Tattenai, governor of the land beyond the Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and his associates--the officials of that land--sent a letter to Darius the king.

<sup>7</sup> This is what they wrote to him: To Darius the king. Peace and blessing!

<sup>8</sup> We want to report to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to The Temple of the great God that is being rebuilt with large stones. Timbers are being fitted into the walls; the work is going on with great energy and in good time.

<sup>9</sup> We asked the leaders, "Who issued you the permit to rebuild this Temple and restore it to use?"

<sup>10</sup> We also asked for their names so we could pass them on to you and have a record of the men at the head of the construction work.

<sup>11</sup> This is what they told us: "We are servants of the God of the heavens and the earth. We are rebuilding The Temple that was built a long time ago. A great king of Israel built it, the entire structure.

<sup>12</sup> But our ancestors made the God of the heavens really angry and he turned them over to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who knocked this Temple down and took the people to Babylon in exile.

<sup>13</sup> "But when Cyrus became king of Babylon, in his first year he issued a building permit to rebuild this Temple of God.

<sup>14</sup> He also gave back the gold and silver vessels of The Temple of God that Nebuchadnezzar had carted off and put in the Babylon temple. Cyrus the king removed them from the temple of Babylon and turned them over to Sheshbazzar, the man he had appointed governor.

<sup>15</sup> He told him, 'Take these vessels and place them in The Temple of Jerusalem and rebuild The Temple of God on its original site.'

<sup>16</sup> And Sheshbazzar did it. He laid the foundation of The Temple of God in Jerusalem. It has been under construction ever since but it is not yet finished."

<sup>17</sup> So now, if it please the king, look up the records in the royal archives in Babylon and see if it is indeed a fact that

Cyrus the king issued an official building permit authorizing the rebuilding of The Temple of God in Jerusalem. And then send the king's ruling on this matter to us.

6<sup>1</sup> So King Darius ordered a search through the records in the archives in Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> Eventually a scroll was turned up in the fortress of Ecbatana over in the province of Media, with this writing on it: Memorandum

<sup>3</sup> In his first year as king, Cyrus issued an official decree regarding The Temple of God in Jerusalem, as follows: The Temple where sacrifices are offered is to be rebuilt on new foundations. It is to be ninety feet high and ninety feet wide <sup>4</sup> with three courses of large stones topped with one course of timber. The cost is to be paid from the royal bank.

<sup>5</sup> The gold and silver vessels from The Temple of God that Nebuchadnezzar carried to Babylon are to be returned to The Temple at Jerusalem, each to its proper place; place them in The Temple of God.

<sup>6</sup> Now listen, Tattenai governor of the land beyond the Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, associates, and all officials of that land: Stay out of their way.

<sup>7</sup> Leave the governor and leaders of the Jews alone so they can work on that Temple of God as they rebuild it.

<sup>8</sup> I hereby give official orders on how you are to help the leaders of the Jews in the rebuilding of that Temple of God:
1. All construction costs are to be paid to these men from the royal bank out of the taxes coming in from the land beyond the Euphrates. And pay them on time, without delays.

<sup>9</sup> 2. Whatever is required for their worship--young bulls, rams, and lambs for Whole-Burnt-Offerings to the God-of-Heaven; and whatever wheat, salt, wine, and anointing oil the priests of Jerusalem request--is to be given to them daily without delay

<sup>10</sup> so that they may make sacrifices to the God-of-Heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

<sup>11</sup> I've issued an official decree that anyone who violates this order is to be impaled on a timber torn out of his own house, and the house itself made a manure pit.

<sup>12</sup> And may the God who put his Name on that place wipe out any king or people who dares to defy this decree and destroy The Temple of God at Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued an official decree. Carry it out precisely and promptly.

<sup>13</sup> Tattenai governor of the land across the Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates did it: They carried out the decree of Darius precisely and promptly.

<sup>14</sup> So the leaders of the Jews continued to build; the work went well under the preaching of the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo. They completed the rebuilding under orders of the God of Israel and authorization by Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

<sup>15</sup> The Temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

<sup>16</sup> And then the Israelites celebrated—priests, Levites, every last exile, exuberantly celebrated the dedication of The Temple of God.

<sup>17</sup> At the dedication of this Temple of God they sacrificed a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, and four hundred lambs--and, as an Absolution-Offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> They placed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their places for the service of God at Jerusalem--all as written out in the Book of Moses.

<sup>20</sup> All the priests and Levites had purified themselves--all, no exceptions. They were all ritually clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for the exiles, their brother priests, and themselves.

<sup>21</sup> Then the Israelites who had returned from exile, along with everyone who had removed themselves from the defilements of the nations to join them and seek GOD, the God of Israel, ate the Passover.

<sup>22</sup> With great joy they celebrated the Feast of Unraised Bread for seven days. GOD had plunged them into a sea of joy; he had changed the mind of the king of Assyria to back them in rebuilding The Temple of God, the God of Israel.

7 <sup>1</sup> After all this, Ezra. It was during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia. Ezra was the son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

<sup>5</sup> son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the high priest.

<sup>6</sup> That's Ezra. He arrived from Babylon, a scholar well-practiced in the Revelation of Moses that the GOD of Israel had given. Because GOD's hand was on Ezra, the king gave him everything he asked for.

<sup>7</sup> Some of the Israelites--priests, Levites, singers, temple security guards, and temple slaves--went with him to Jerusalem. It was in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

<sup>8</sup> They arrived at Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king's reign.

<sup>9</sup> Ezra had scheduled their departure from Babylon on the first day of the first month; they arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month under the generous guidance of his God.

<sup>10</sup> Ezra had committed himself to studying the Revelation of GOD, to living it, and to teaching Israel to live its truths and ways.

<sup>11</sup> What follows is the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra, priest and scholar, expert in matters involving the truths and ways of GOD concerning Israel:

<sup>12</sup> Artaxerxes, King of Kings, to Ezra the priest, a scholar of the Teaching of the God-of-Heaven. Peace.

<sup>13</sup> I hereby decree that any of the people of Israel living in my kingdom who want to go to Jerusalem, including their priests and Levites, may go with you.

<sup>14</sup> You are being sent by the king and his seven advisors to carry out an investigation of Judah and Jerusalem in relation to the Teaching of your God that you are carrying with you.

<sup>15</sup> You are also authorized to take the silver and gold that the king and his advisors are giving for the God of Israel, whose residence is in Jerusalem,

<sup>16</sup> along with all the silver and gold that has been collected from the generously donated offerings all over Babylon, including that from the people and the priests, for The Temple of their God in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> Use this money carefully to buy bulls, rams, lambs, and the ingredients for Grain-Offerings and Drink-Offerings and then offer them on the Altar of The Temple of your God in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> You are free to use whatever is left over from the silver and gold for what you and your brothers decide is in keeping with the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup> Deliver to the God of Jerusalem the vessels given to you for the services of worship in The Temple of your God.

<sup>20</sup> Whatever else you need for The Temple of your God you may pay for out of the royal bank.

<sup>21</sup> I, Artaxerxes the king, have formally authorized and ordered all the treasurers of the land across the Euphrates to give Ezra the priest, scholar of the Teaching of the God-of-Heaven, the full amount of whatever he asks for <sup>22</sup> up to a hundred talents of silver, six hundred and fifty bushels of wheat, and six hundred and seven gallons each of wine and olive oil. There is no limit on the salt.

<sup>23</sup> Everything the God-of-Heaven requires for The Temple of God must be given without hesitation. Why would the king and his sons risk stirring up his wrath?

<sup>24</sup> Also, let it be clear that no one is permitted to impose tribute, tax, or duty on any priest, Levite, singer, temple security guard, temple servant, or any other worker connected with The Temple of God.

<sup>25</sup> I authorize you, Ezra, exercising the wisdom of God that you have in your hands, to appoint magistrates and judges so they can administer justice among all the people of the land across the Euphrates who live by the Teaching of your God. Anyone who does not know the Teaching, you teach them.

<sup>26</sup> Anyone who does not obey the Teaching of your God and the king must be tried and sentenced at once--death, banishment, a fine, prison, whatever.

<sup>27</sup> Blessed be GOD, the God-of-Our-Fathers, who put it in the mind of the king to beautify The Temple of GOD in Jerusalem!

<sup>28</sup> Not only that, he caused the king and all his advisors and influential officials actually to like me and back me. My God was on my side and I was ready to go. And I organized all the leaders of Israel to go with me.

8 <sup>1</sup> These are the family heads and those who signed up to go up with me from Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes the king:

<sup>2</sup> From the family of Phinehas: Gershom Family of Ithamar: Daniel Family of David: Hattush

<sup>3</sup> Family of Shecaniah Family of Parosh:
Zechariah, and with him 150 men signed up

<sup>4</sup> Family of Pahath-Moab: Eliehoenai son of Zerariah, and 200 men

<sup>5</sup> Family of Zattu: Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and 300 men

<sup>6</sup> Family of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 men

<sup>7</sup> Family of Elam: Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and 70 men

<sup>8</sup> Family of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 men

<sup>9</sup> Family of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel,
and 218 men

<sup>10</sup> Family of Bani: Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and 160 men

<sup>11</sup> Family of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 men

<sup>15</sup> I gathered them together at the canal that runs to Ahava. We camped there three days. I looked them over and found that they were all laymen and priests but no Levites.

<sup>16</sup> So I sent for the leaders Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, and for the teachers Joiarib and Elnathan.

<sup>17</sup> I then sent them to Iddo, who is head of the town of Casiphia, and told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives who lived there in Casiphia: "Send us ministers for The Temple of God."

<sup>18</sup> Well, the generous hand of our God was on us, and they brought back to us a wise man from the family of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel. His name was Sherebiah. With sons and brothers they numbered eighteen.

<sup>19</sup> They also brought Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah of the family of Merari, with brothers and their sons, another twenty.

<sup>20</sup> And then there were 220 temple servants, descendants of the temple servants that David and the princes had assigned to help the Levites in their work. They were all signed up by name.

<sup>21</sup> I proclaimed a fast there beside the Ahava Canal, a fast to humble ourselves before our God and pray for wise guidance for our journey--all our people and possessions.

<sup>22</sup> I was embarrassed to ask the king for a cavalry bodyguard to protect us from bandits on the road. We had just told the king, "Our God lovingly looks after all those who seek him, but turns away in disgust from those who leave him."

<sup>23</sup> So we fasted and prayed about these concerns. And he listened.

<sup>24</sup> Then I picked twelve of the leading priests--Sherebiah and Hashabiah with ten of their brothers.

<sup>25</sup> I weighed out for them the silver, the gold, the vessels, and the offerings for The Temple of our God that the king, his advisors, and all the Israelites had given:

<sup>26</sup> 25 tons of silver 100 vessels of silver valued at three and three-quarter tons three and three-quarter tons of gold

<sup>27</sup> 20 gold bowls weighing eighteen and a half pounds 2 vessels of bright red copper, as valuable as gold.

<sup>28</sup> I said to them, "You are holy to GOD and these vessels are holy. The silver and gold are Freewill-Offerings to the GOD of your ancestors.

<sup>29</sup> Guard them with your lives until you're able to weigh them out in a secure place in The Temple of our God for the priests and Levites and family heads who are in charge in Jerusalem."

<sup>30</sup> The priests and Levites took charge of all that had been weighed out to them, and prepared to deliver it to Jerusalem to The Temple of our God.

<sup>32</sup> We arrived in Jerusalem and waited there three days.

<sup>33</sup> On the fourth day the silver and gold and vessels were weighed out in The Temple of our God into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was there with him, also the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

<sup>35</sup> When they arrived, the exiles, now returned from captivity, offered Whole-Burnt-Offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls, representing all Israel 96 rams 77 lambs 12 he-goats as an Absolution-Offering. All of this was sacrificed as a Whole-Burnt-Offering to GOD.

<sup>36</sup> They also delivered the king's orders to the king's provincial administration assigned to the land beyond the Euphrates. They, in turn, gave their support to the people and The Temple of God.

9<sup>1</sup> After all this was done, the leaders came to me and said, "The People of Israel, priests and Levites included, have not kept themselves separate from the neighboring people around here with all their vulgar obscenities-- Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, Amorites.

<sup>2</sup> They have given some of their daughters in marriage to them and have taken some of their daughters for marriage to their sons. The holy seed is now all mixed in with these other peoples. And our leaders have led the way in this betrayal."

<sup>3</sup> When I heard all this, I ripped my clothes and my cape; I pulled hair from my head and out of my beard; I slumped to the ground, appalled.

<sup>4</sup> Many were in fear and trembling because of what God was saying about the betrayal by the exiles. They gathered around me as I sat there in despair, waiting for the evening sacrifice.

<sup>5</sup> At the evening sacrifice I picked myself up from my utter devastation, and in my ripped clothes and cape fell to my knees and stretched out my hands to GOD, my God.

<sup>6</sup> And I prayed: "My dear God, I'm so totally ashamed, I can't bear to face you. O my God--our iniquities are piled up so high that we can't see out; our guilt touches the skies.

<sup>7</sup> We've been stuck in a muck of guilt since the time of our ancestors until right now; we and our kings and priests, because of our sins, have been turned over to foreign kings, to killing, to captivity, to looting, and to public shame--just as you see us now.

<sup>8</sup> "Now for a brief time GOD, our God, has allowed us, this battered band, to get a firm foothold in his holy place so that our God may brighten our eyes and lighten our burdens as we serve out this hard sentence.

<sup>9</sup> We were slaves; yet even as slaves, our God didn't abandon us. He has put us in the good graces of the kings of Persia and given us the heart to build The Temple of our God, restore its ruins, and construct a defensive wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> "And now, our God, after all this what can we say for ourselves? For we have thrown your commands to the wind, <sup>11</sup> the commands you gave us through your servants the prophets. They told us, 'The land you're taking over is a polluted land, polluted with the obscene vulgarities of the people who live there; they've filled it with their moral rot from one end to the other.

<sup>12</sup> Whatever you do, don't give your daughters in marriage to their sons nor marry your sons to their daughters.

Don't cultivate their good opinion; don't make over them and get them to like you so you can make a lot of money and build up a tidy estate to hand down to your children.'

<sup>13</sup> "And now this, on top of all we've already suffered because of our evil ways and accumulated guilt, even though you, dear God, punished us far less than we deserved and even went ahead and gave us this present escape.

<sup>14</sup> Yet here we are, at it again, breaking your commandments by intermarrying with the people who practice all these obscenities! Are you angry to the point of wiping us out completely, without even a few stragglers, with no way out at all?

<sup>15</sup> You are the righteous GOD of Israel. We are, right now, a small band of escapees. Look at us, openly standing here, guilty before you. No one can last long like this."

10<sup>1</sup> Ezra wept, prostrate in front of The Temple of God. As he prayed and confessed, a huge number of the men, women, and children of Israel gathered around him. All the people were now weeping as if their hearts would break.

<sup>2</sup> Shecaniah son of Jehiel of the family of Elam, acting as spokesman, said to Ezra: "We betrayed our God by marrying foreign wives from the people around here. But all is not lost; there is still hope for Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Let's make a covenant right now with our God, agreeing to get rid of all these wives and their children, just as my master and those who honor God's commandment are saying. It's what The Revelation says, so let's do it.

<sup>5</sup> So Ezra stood up and had the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel solemnly swear to do what Shecaniah proposed. And they did it.

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra left the plaza in front of The Temple of God and went to the home of Jehohanan son of Eliashib where he stayed, still fasting from food and drink, continuing his mourning over the betrayal by the exiles.

<sup>7</sup> A notice was then sent throughout Judah and Jerusalem ordering all the exiles to meet in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Anyone who failed to show up in three days, in compliance with the ruling of the leaders and elders, would have all his possessions confiscated and be thrown out of the congregation of the returned exiles.

<sup>9</sup> All the men of Judah and Benjamin met in Jerusalem within the three days. It was the twentieth day of the ninth month. They all sat down in the plaza in front of The Temple of God. Because of the business before them, and aggravated by the buckets of rain coming down on them, they were restless, uneasy, and anxious.

<sup>10</sup> Ezra the priest stood up and spoke: "You've broken trust. You've married foreign wives. You've piled guilt on Israel.

<sup>11</sup> Now make your confession to GOD, the God of your ancestors, and do what he wants you to do: Separate yourselves from the people of the land and from your foreign wives."

<sup>12</sup> The whole congregation responded with a shout, "Yes, we'll do it--just the way you said it!"

<sup>13</sup> They also said, "But look, do you see how many people there are out here? And it's the rainy season; you can't expect us to stand out here soaking wet until this is done--why, it will take days! A lot of us are deeply involved in this transgression.

<sup>14</sup> Let our leaders act on behalf of the whole congregation. Have everybody who lives in cities and who has married a foreign wife come at an appointed time, accompanied by the elders and judges of each city. We'll keep at this until the hot anger of our God over this thing is turned away."

<sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, opposed this.

<sup>16</sup> So the exiles went ahead with the plan. Ezra the priest picked men who were family heads, each one by name. They sat down together on the first day of the tenth month to pursue the matter.

<sup>17</sup> By the first day of the first month they had finished dealing with every man who had married a foreign wife.

<sup>18</sup> Among the families of priests, the following were found to have married foreign wives: The family of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

<sup>19</sup> They all promised to divorce their wives and sealed it with a handshake. For their guilt they brought a ram from the flock as a Compensation-Offering.

<sup>44</sup> All these had married foreign wives and some had also had children by them.

Nehemiah

1 <sup>1</sup> The memoirs of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah. It was the month of Kislev in the twentieth year. At the time I was in the palace complex at Susa.

<sup>2</sup> Hanani, one of my brothers, had just arrived from Judah with some fellow Jews. I asked them about the conditions among the Jews there who had survived the exile, and about Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> They told me, "The exile survivors who are left there in the province are in bad shape. Conditions are appalling. The wall of Jerusalem is still rubble; the city gates are still cinders."

<sup>4</sup> When I heard this, I sat down and wept. I mourned for days, fasting and praying before the God-of-Heaven.

<sup>5</sup> I said, "GOD, God-of-Heaven, the great and awesome God, loyal to his covenant and faithful to those who love him and obey his commands:

<sup>6</sup> Look at me, listen to me. Pay attention to this prayer of your servant that I'm praying day and night in intercession for your servants, the People of Israel, confessing the sins of the People of Israel. And I'm including myself, I and my ancestors, among those who have sinned against you.

<sup>7</sup> "We've treated you like dirt: We haven't done what you told us, haven't followed your commands, and haven't respected the decisions you gave to Moses your servant.

<sup>8</sup> All the same, remember the warning you posted to your servant Moses: 'If you betray me, I'll scatter you to the four winds,

<sup>9</sup> but if you come back to me and do what I tell you, I'll gather up all these scattered peoples from wherever they ended up and put them back in the place I chose to mark with my Name.'

<sup>10</sup> "Well, there they are--your servants, your people whom you so powerfully and impressively redeemed.

<sup>11</sup> O Master, listen to me, listen to your servant's prayer--and yes, to all your servants who delight in honoring you--and make me successful today so that I get what I want from the king." I was cupbearer to the king.

2 <sup>1</sup> It was the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king. At the hour for serving wine I brought it in and gave it to the king. I had never been hangdog in his presence before,

<sup>2</sup> so he asked me, "Why the long face? You're not sick are you? Or are you depressed?" That made me all the more agitated.

<sup>3</sup> I said, "Long live the king! And why shouldn't I be depressed when the city, the city where all my family is buried, is in ruins and the city gates have been reduced to cinders?"

<sup>4</sup> The king then asked me, "So what do you want?" Praying under my breath to the God-of-Heaven,

<sup>5</sup> I said, "If it please the king, and if the king thinks well of me, send me to Judah, to the city where my family is buried, so that I can rebuild it."

<sup>6</sup> The king, with the queen sitting alongside him, said, "How long will your work take and when would you expect to return?" I gave him a time, and the king gave his approval to send me.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, "If it please the king, provide me with letters to the governors across the Euphrates that authorize my travel through to Judah;

<sup>8</sup> and also an order to Asaph, keeper of the king's forest, to supply me with timber for the beams of The Temple fortress, the wall of the city, and the house where I'll be living." The generous hand of my God was with me in this and the king gave them to me.

<sup>9</sup> When I met the governors across The River (the Euphrates) I showed them the king's letters. The king even sent along a cavalry escort.

<sup>10</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very upset, angry that anyone would come to look after the interests of the People of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> And so I arrived in Jerusalem. After I had been there three days, <sup>12</sup> I got up in the middle of the night, I and a few men who were with me. I hadn't told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal with us was the one I was riding.

<sup>13</sup> Under cover of night I went past the Valley Gate toward the Dragon's Fountain to the Dung Gate looking over the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken through and whose gates had been burned up.

<sup>14</sup> I then crossed to the Fountain Gate and headed for the King's Pool but there wasn't enough room for the donkey I was riding to get through.

<sup>15</sup> So I went up the valley in the dark continuing my inspection of the wall. I came back in through the Valley Gate.

<sup>16</sup> The local officials had no idea where I'd gone or what I was doing--I hadn't breathed a word to the Jews, priests, nobles, local officials, or anyone else who would be working on the job.

<sup>17</sup> Then I gave them my report: "Face it: we're in a bad way here. Jerusalem is a wreck; its gates are burned up. Come--let's build the wall of Jerusalem and not live with this disgrace any longer."

<sup>18</sup> I told them how God was supporting me and how the king was backing me up. They said, "We're with you. Let's get started." They rolled up their sleeves, ready for the good work.

<sup>19</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they laughed at us, mocking, "Ha! What do you think you're doing? Do you think you can cross the king?"

<sup>20</sup> I shot back, "The God-of-Heaven will make sure we succeed. We're his servants and we're going to work, rebuilding. You can keep your nose out of it. You get no say in this--Jerusalem's none of your business!"

3<sup>1</sup> The high priest Eliashib and his fellow priests were up and at it: They went to work on the Sheep Gate; they repaired it and hung its doors, continuing on as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

<sup>3</sup> The Fish Gate was built by the Hassenaah brothers; they repaired it, hung its doors, and installed its bolts and bars.

<sup>4</sup> Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, worked; next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel; next to him Zadok son of Baana;

<sup>5</sup> and next to him the Tekoites (except for their nobles, who wouldn't work with their master and refused to get their hands dirty with such work).

<sup>6</sup> The Jeshanah Gate was rebuilt by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah; they repaired it, hung its doors, and installed its bolts and bars.

<sup>7</sup> Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, and the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, which was under the rule of the governor from across the Euphrates, worked alongside them.

<sup>8</sup> Uzziel son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths' guild worked next to him, and next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers. They rebuilt the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

<sup>9</sup> The next section was worked on by Rephaiah son of Hur, mayor of a half-district of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Next to him Jedaiah son of Harumaph rebuilt the front of his house; Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked next to him.

<sup>11</sup> Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab rebuilt another section that included the Tower of Furnaces.

<sup>12</sup> Working next to him was Shallum son of Hallohesh, mayor of the other half-district of Jerusalem, along with his daughters.

<sup>13</sup> The Valley Gate was rebuilt by Hanun and villagers of Zanoah; they repaired it, hung its doors, and installed its bolts and bars. They went on to repair 1,500 feet of the wall, as far as the Dung Gate.

<sup>14</sup> The Dung Gate itself was rebuilt by Malkijah son of Recab, the mayor of the district of Beth Hakkerem; he repaired it, hung its doors, and installed its bolts and bars.

<sup>15</sup> The Fountain Gate was rebuilt by Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, mayor of the Mizpah district; he repaired it, roofed it, hung its doors, and installed its bolts and bars. He also rebuilt the wall of the Pool of Siloam at the King's Garden as far as the steps that go down from the City of David.

<sup>16</sup> After him came Nehemiah son of Azbuk, mayor of half the district of Beth Zur. He worked from just in front of the Tomb of David as far as the Pool and the House of Heroes.

<sup>20</sup> From the Angle to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest was done by Baruch son of Zabbai.

<sup>24</sup> The section from the house of Azariah to the Angle at the Corner was rebuilt by Binnui son of Henadad.

<sup>25</sup> Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the Angle and the tower that projects from the Upper Palace of the king near the Court of the Guard. Next to him Pedaiah son of Parosh

<sup>30</sup> then Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph; then Meshullam son of Berekiah rebuilt the wall in front of his storage shed.

<sup>31</sup> Malkijah the goldsmith repaired the wall as far as the house of The Temple support staff and merchants, up to the Inspection Gate, and the Upper Room at the Corner.

<sup>32</sup> The goldsmiths and the merchants made the repairs between the Upper Room at the Corner and the Sheep Gate.

4 <sup>1</sup> When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall he exploded in anger, vilifying the Jews.

<sup>2</sup> In the company of his Samaritan cronies and military he let loose: "What are these miserable Jews doing? Do they think they can get everything back to normal overnight? Make building stones out of make-believe?"

<sup>4</sup> Nehemiah prayed, "Oh listen to us, dear God. We're so despised: Boomerang their ridicule on their heads; have their enemies cart them off as war trophies to a land of no return;

<sup>6</sup> We kept at it, repairing and rebuilding the wall. The whole wall was soon joined together and halfway to its intended height because the people had a heart for the work.

<sup>7</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairs of the walls of Jerusalem were going so well--that the breaks in the wall were being fixed--they were absolutely furious.

<sup>8</sup> They put their heads together and decided to fight against Jerusalem and create as much trouble as they could.

<sup>9</sup> We countered with prayer to our God and set a round-the-clock guard against them.

<sup>10</sup> But soon word was going around in Judah, The builders are pooped, the rubbish piles up; We're in over our heads, we can't build this wall.

<sup>11</sup> And all this time our enemies were saying, "They won't know what hit them. Before they know it we'll be at their throats, killing them right and left. [That] will put a stop to the work!"

<sup>12</sup> The Jews who were their neighbors kept reporting, "They have us surrounded; they're going to attack!" If we heard it once, we heard it ten times.

<sup>13</sup> So I stationed armed guards at the most vulnerable places of the wall and assigned people by families with their swords, lances, and bows.

<sup>14</sup> After looking things over I stood up and spoke to the nobles, officials, and everyone else: "Don't be afraid of them. Put your minds on the Master, great and awesome, and then fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."

<sup>15</sup> Our enemies learned that we knew all about their plan and that God had frustrated it. And we went back to the wall and went to work.

<sup>16</sup> From then on half of my young men worked while the other half stood guard with lances, shields, bows, and mail armor. Military officers served as backup for everyone in Judah who was at work rebuilding the wall.

<sup>17</sup> The common laborers held a tool in one hand and a spear in the other.

<sup>18</sup> Each of the builders had a sword strapped to his side as he worked. I kept the trumpeter at my side to sound the alert.

<sup>19</sup> Then I spoke to the nobles and officials and everyone else: "There's a lot of work going on and we are spread out all along the wall, separated from each other.

<sup>20</sup> When you hear the trumpet call, join us there; our God will fight for us."

<sup>21</sup> And so we kept working, from first light until the stars came out, half of us holding lances.

<sup>22</sup> I also instructed the people, "Each person and his helper is to stay inside Jerusalem--guards by night and workmen by day."

<sup>23</sup> We all slept in our clothes--I, my brothers, my workmen, and the guards backing me up. And each one kept his spear in his hand, even when getting water.

5 <sup>1</sup> A great protest was mounted by the people, including the wives, against their fellow Jews.

<sup>2</sup> Some said, "We have big families, and we need food just to survive."

<sup>3</sup> Others said, "We're having to mortgage our fields and vineyards and homes to get enough grain to keep from starving."

<sup>4</sup> And others said, "We're having to borrow money to pay the royal tax on our fields and vineyards."

<sup>5</sup> Look: We're the same flesh and blood as our brothers here; our children are just as good as theirs. Yet here we are having to sell our children off as slaves--some of our daughters have already been sold--and we can't do anything about it because our fields and vineyards are owned by somebody else."

<sup>6</sup> I got really angry when I heard their protest and complaints.

<sup>7</sup> After thinking it over, I called the nobles and officials on the carpet. I said, "Each one of you is gouging his brother." Then I called a big meeting to deal with them.

<sup>8</sup> I told them, "We did everything we could to buy back our Jewish brothers who had to sell themselves as slaves to foreigners. And now you're selling these same brothers back into debt slavery! Does that mean that we have to buy them back again?" They said nothing. What could they say?

<sup>9</sup> "What you're doing is wrong. Is there no fear of God left in you? Don't you care what the nations around here, our enemies, think of you?"

<sup>10</sup> "I and my brothers and the people working for me have also loaned them money. But this gouging them with interest has to stop.

<sup>12</sup> They said, "We'll give it all back. We won't make any more demands on them. We'll do everything you say." Then I called the priests together and made them promise to keep their word.

<sup>13</sup> Then I emptied my pockets, turning them inside out, and said, "So may God empty the pockets and house of everyone who doesn't keep this promise--turned inside out and emptied." Everyone gave a wholehearted "Yes, we'll do it!" and praised GOD. And the people did what they promised.

<sup>14</sup> From the time King Artaxerxes appointed me as their governor in the land of Judah--from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of his reign, twelve years--neither I nor my brothers used the governor's food allowance.

<sup>15</sup> Governors who had preceded me had oppressed the people by taxing them forty shekels of silver (about a pound) a day for food and wine while their underlings bullied the people unmercifully. But out of fear of God I did none of that.

<sup>16</sup> I had work to do; I worked on this wall. All my men were on the job to do the work. We didn't have time to line our own pockets.

<sup>17</sup> I fed one hundred and fifty Jews and officials at my table in addition to those who showed up from the surrounding nations.

<sup>18</sup> One ox, six choice sheep, and some chickens were prepared for me daily, and every ten days a large supply of wine was delivered. Even so, I didn't use the food allowance provided for the governor--the people had it hard enough as it was.

<sup>19</sup> Remember in my favor, O my God, Everything I've done for these people.

6<sup>1</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that there were no more breaks in it--even though I hadn't yet installed the gates

<sup>2</sup> --Sanballat and Geshem sent this message: "Come and meet with us at Kephirim in the valley of Ono." I knew they were scheming to hurt me

<sup>3</sup> so I sent messengers back with this: "I'm doing a great work; I can't come down. Why should the work come to a standstill just so I can come down to see you?"

<sup>4</sup> Four times they sent this message and four times I gave them my answer.

<sup>5</sup> The fifth time--same messenger, same message--Sanballat sent an unsealed letter

<sup>6</sup> with this message: "The word is out among the nations--and Geshem says it's true--that you and the Jews are planning to rebel. That's why you are rebuilding the wall. The word is that you want to be king <sup>7</sup> and that you have appointed prophets to announce in Jerusalem, 'There's a king in Judah!' The king is going to be told all this--don't you think we should sit down and have a talk?"

<sup>8</sup> I sent him back this: "There's nothing to what you're saying. You've made it all up."

<sup>9</sup> They were trying to intimidate us into quitting. They thought, "They'll give up; they'll never finish it." I prayed, "Give me strength."

<sup>10</sup> Then I met secretly with Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, at his house. He said: Let's meet at the house of God, inside The Temple; Let's find safety behind locked doors because they're coming to kill you, Yes, coming by night to kill you.

<sup>11</sup> I said, "Why would a man like me run for cover? And why would a man like me use The Temple as a hideout? I won't do it."

<sup>12</sup> I sensed that God hadn't sent this man. The so-called prophecy he spoke to me was the work of Tobiah and Sanballat; they had hired him.

<sup>13</sup> He had been hired to scare me off--trick me--a layman, into desecrating The Temple and ruining my good reputation so they could accuse me.

<sup>14</sup> "O my God, don't let Tobiah and Sanballat get by with all the mischief they've done. And the same goes for the prophetess Noadiah and the other prophets who have been trying to undermine my confidence."

<sup>15</sup> The wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul. It had taken fifty-two days.

<sup>17</sup> All during this time letters were going back and forth constantly between the nobles of Judah and Tobiah.

<sup>18</sup> Many of the nobles had ties to him because he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah.

<sup>19</sup> They kept telling me all the good things he did and then would report back to him anything I would say. And then Tobiah would send letters to intimidate me.

7<sup>1</sup> After the wall was rebuilt and I had installed the doors, and the security guards, the singers, and the Levites were appointed, <sup>2</sup> I put my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah the captain of the citadel, in charge of Jerusalem because he was an honest man and feared God more than most men.

<sup>3</sup> I gave them this order: "Don't open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is up. And shut and bar the gates while the guards are still on duty. Appoint the guards from the citizens of Jerusalem and assign them to posts in front of their own homes."

<sup>4</sup> The city was large and spacious with only a few people in it and the houses not yet rebuilt.

<sup>5</sup> God put it in my heart to gather the nobles, the officials, and the people in general to be registered. I found the genealogical record of those who were in the first return from exile. This is the record I found:

<sup>6</sup> These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the Exile, the ones Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried off captive; they came back to Jerusalem and Judah, each going to his own town.

<sup>63</sup> Likewise with these priestly families: The sons of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai, who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and took that name.

<sup>64</sup> They looked high and low for their family records but couldn't find them. And so they were barred from priestly work as ritually unclean.

<sup>67</sup> That did not include the male and female slaves who numbered 7,337. There were also 245 male and female singers.

<sup>68</sup> And there were 736 horses, 245 mules,

<sup>70</sup> Some of the heads of families made voluntary offerings for the work. The governor made a gift to the treasury of 1,000 drachmas of gold (about nineteen pounds), 50 bowls, and 530 garments for the priests.

<sup>71</sup> Some of the heads of the families made gifts to the treasury for the work; it came to 20,000 drachmas of gold and 2,200 minas of silver (about one and a third tons).

<sup>72</sup> Gifts from the rest of the people totaled 20,000 drachmas of gold (about 375 pounds), 2,000 minas of silver, and 67 garments for the priests.

<sup>73</sup> The priests, Levites, security guards, singers, and Temple support staff, along with some others, and the rest of the People of Israel, all found a place to live in their own towns.

8<sup>1</sup> By the time the seventh month arrived, the People of Israel were settled in their towns. Then all the people gathered as one person in the town square in front of the Water Gate and asked the scholar Ezra to bring the Book of The Revelation of Moses that GOD had commanded for Israel.

<sup>2</sup> So Ezra the priest brought The Revelation to the congregation, which was made up of both men and women--everyone capable of understanding. It was the first day of the seventh month.

<sup>3</sup> He read it facing the town square at the Water Gate from early dawn until noon in the hearing of the men and women, all who could understand it. And all the people listened--they were all ears--to the Book of The Revelation.

<sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book. Every eye was on him (he was standing on the raised platform) and as he opened the book everyone stood.

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra praised GOD, the great God, and all the people responded, "Oh Yes! Yes!" with hands raised high. And then they fell to their knees in worship of GOD, their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah, all Levites, explained The Revelation while people stood, listening respectfully.

<sup>8</sup> They translated the Book of The Revelation of God so the people could understand it and then explained the reading.

<sup>9</sup> Nehemiah the governor, along with Ezra the priest and scholar and the Levites who were teaching the people, said to all the people, "This day is holy to GOD, your God. Don't weep and carry on." They said this because all the people were weeping as they heard the words of The Revelation.

<sup>10</sup> He continued, "Go home and prepare a feast, holiday food and drink; and share it with those who don't have anything: This day is holy to God. Don't feel bad. The joy of GOD is your strength!"

<sup>12</sup> So the people went off to feast, eating and drinking and including the poor in a great celebration. Now they got it; they understood the reading that had been given to them.

<sup>13</sup> On the second day of the month the family heads of all the people, the priests, and the Levites gathered around Ezra the scholar to get a deeper understanding of the words of The Revelation.

<sup>14</sup> They found written in The Revelation that GOD commanded through Moses that the People of Israel are to live in booths during the festival of the seventh month.

<sup>15</sup> So they published this decree and had it posted in all their cities and in Jerusalem: "Go into the hills and collect olive branches, pine branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and any other leafy branches to make booths, as it is written."

<sup>16</sup> So the people went out, brought in branches, and made themselves booths on their roofs, courtyards, the courtyards of The Temple of God, the Water Gate plaza, and the Ephraim Gate plaza.

<sup>17</sup> The entire congregation that had come back from exile made booths and lived in them. The People of Israel hadn't done this from the time of Joshua son of Nun until that very day--a terrific day! Great joy!

<sup>18</sup> Ezra read from the Book of The Revelation of God each day, from the first to the last day--they celebrated the feast for seven days. On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly in accordance with the decree.

9 <sup>1</sup> Then on the twenty-fourth day of this month, the People of Israel gathered for a fast, wearing burlap and faces smudged with dirt as signs of repentance.

<sup>2</sup> The Israelites broke off all relations with foreigners, stood up, and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their parents.

<sup>3</sup> While they stood there in their places, they read from the Book of The Revelation of GOD, their God, for a quarter of the day. For another quarter of the day they confessed and worshiped their GOD.

<sup>4</sup> A group of Levites--Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani--stood on the platform and cried out to GOD, their God, in a loud voice.

<sup>5</sup> The Levites Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah said, "On your feet! Bless GOD, your God, for ever and ever!" Blessed be your glorious name, exalted above all blessing and praise!

<sup>6</sup> You're the one, GOD, you alone; You made the heavens, the heavens of heavens, and all angels; The earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them; You keep them all alive; heaven's angels worship you!

<sup>7</sup> You're the one, GOD, [the] God who chose Abram And brought him from Ur of the Chaldees and changed his name to Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> You found his heart to be steady and true to you and signed a covenant with him, A covenant to give him the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, The Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girkashites, --to give it to his descendants. And you kept your word because you are righteous.

<sup>9</sup> You saw the anguish of our parents in Egypt. You heard their cries at the Red Sea;

<sup>10</sup> You amazed Pharaoh, his servants, and the people of his land with wonders and miracle-signs. You knew their bullying arrogance against your people; you made a name for yourself that lasts to this day.

<sup>11</sup> You split the sea before them; they crossed through and never got their feet wet; You pitched their pursuers into the deep; they sank like a rock in the storm-tossed sea.

<sup>12</sup> By day you led them with a Pillar of Cloud, and by night with a Pillar of Fire To show them the way they were to travel.

<sup>13</sup> You came down onto Mount Sinai, you spoke to them out of heaven; You gave them instructions on how to live well, true teaching, sound rules and commands;

<sup>14</sup> You introduced them to your Holy Sabbath; Through your servant Moses you decreed commands, rules, and instruction.

<sup>15</sup> You gave bread from heaven for their hunger, you sent water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to enter and take the land, which you promised to give them.

<sup>16</sup> But they, our ancestors, were arrogant; bullheaded, they wouldn't obey your commands.

<sup>17</sup> They turned a deaf ear, they refused to remember the miracles you had done for them; They turned stubborn, got it into their heads to return to their Egyptian slavery. And you, a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, Incredibly patient, with tons of love--you didn't dump them.

<sup>18</sup> Yes, even when they cast a sculpted calf and said, "This is your god Who brought you out of Egypt," and continued from bad to worse,

<sup>20</sup> You gave them your good Spirit to teach them to live wisely. You never stinted with your manna, gave them plenty of water to drink.

<sup>21</sup> You supported them forty years in that desert; they had everything they needed; Their clothes didn't wear out and their feet never blistered.

<sup>22</sup> You gave them kingdoms and peoples, establishing generous boundaries. They took over the country of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup> You multiplied children for them, rivaling the stars in the night skies, And you brought them into the land that you promised their ancestors they would get and own.

<sup>24</sup> Well, they entered all right, they took it and settled in. The Canaanites who lived there you brought to their knees before them. You turned over their land, kings, and peoples to do with as they pleased.

<sup>25</sup> They took strong cities and fertile fields, they took over well-furnished houses, Cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, and lush, extensive orchards. And they ate, grew fat on the fat of the land; they reveled in your bountiful goodness.

<sup>26</sup> But then they mutinied, rebelled against you, threw out your laws and killed your prophets, The very prophets who tried to get them back on your side--and then things went from bad to worse.

<sup>27</sup> You turned them over to their enemies, who made life rough for them. But when they called out for help in their troubles you listened from heaven; And in keeping with your bottomless compassion you gave them saviors: Saviors who saved them from the cruel abuse of their enemies.

<sup>28</sup> But as soon as they had it easy again they were right back at it--more evil. So you turned away and left them again to their fate, to the enemies who came right back. They cried out to you again; in your great compassion you heard and helped them again. This went on over and over and over.

<sup>29</sup> You warned them to return to your Revelation, they responded with haughty arrogance: They flouted your commands, spurned your rules--the very words by which men and women live! They set their jaws in defiance, they turned their backs on you and didn't listen.

<sup>30</sup> You put up with them year after year and warned them by your spirit through your prophets; But when they refused to listen you abandoned them to foreigners.

<sup>31</sup> Still, because of your great compassion, you didn't make a total end to them. You didn't walk out and leave them for good; yes, you [are] a God of grace and compassion.

<sup>32</sup> And now, our God, the great God, God majestic and terrible, loyal in covenant and love, Don't treat lightly the trouble that has come to us, to our kings and princes, our priests and prophets, Our ancestors, and all your people from the time of the Assyrian kings right down to today.

<sup>33</sup> You are not to blame for all that has come down on us; You did everything right, we did everything wrong.

<sup>34</sup> None of our kings, princes, priests, or ancestors followed your Revelation; They ignored your commands, dismissed the warnings you gave them.

<sup>35</sup> Even when they had their own kingdom and were enjoying your generous goodness, Living in that spacious and fertile land that you spread out before them, They didn't serve you or turn their backs on the practice of evil.

<sup>36</sup> And here we are, slaves again today; and here's the land you gave our ancestors So they could eat well and enjoy a good life, and now look at us--no better than slaves on this land.

<sup>37</sup> Its wonderful crops go to the kings you put over us because of our sins; They act like they own our bodies and do whatever they like with our cattle. We're in deep trouble.

<sup>38</sup> "Because of all this we are drawing up a binding pledge, a sealed document signed by our princes, our Levites, and our priests."

<sup>7</sup> Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, <sup>8</sup> Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.

<sup>9</sup> The Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,
<sup>10</sup> and their kinsmen: Shebaniah,
Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
<sup>11</sup> Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,
<sup>12</sup> Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

<sup>14</sup> The heads of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
<sup>15</sup> Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
<sup>16</sup> Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
<sup>17</sup> Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the people, priests, Levites, security guards, singers, Temple staff, and all who separated themselves from the foreign neighbors to keep The Revelation of God, together with their wives, sons, daughters--everyone old enough to understand

<sup>29</sup> --all joined their noble kinsmen in a binding oath to follow The Revelation of God given through Moses the servant of God, to keep and carry out all the commandments of GOD our Master, all his decisions and standards.

<sup>30</sup> Thus: We will not marry our daughters to our foreign neighbors nor let our sons marry their daughters.

<sup>31</sup> When the foreign neighbors bring goods or grain to sell on the Sabbath we won't trade with them--not on the Sabbath or any other holy day. Every seventh year we will leave the land fallow and cancel all debts.

<sup>32</sup> We accept the responsibility for paying an annual tax of one-third of a shekel (about an eighth ounce) for providing The Temple of our God with <sup>33</sup> bread for the Table regular Grain-Offerings regular Whole-Burnt-Offerings offerings for the Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed feasts Dedication-Offerings Absolution-Offerings to atone for Israel maintenance of The Temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup> We--priests, Levites, and the people--have cast lots to see when each of our families will bring wood for burning on the Altar of our GOD, following the yearly schedule set down in The Revelation.

<sup>35</sup> We take responsibility for delivering annually to The Temple of GOD the firstfruits of our crops and our orchards, <sup>36</sup> our firstborn sons and cattle, and the firstborn from our herds and flocks for the priests who serve in The Temple of our God--just as it is set down in The Revelation.

<sup>37</sup> We will bring the best of our grain, of our contributions, of the fruit of every tree, of wine, and of oil to the priests in the storerooms of The Temple of our God. We will bring the tithes from our fields to the Levites, since the Levites are appointed to collect the tithes in the towns where we work.

<sup>38</sup> We'll see to it that a priest descended from Aaron will supervise the Levites as they collect the tithes and make sure that they take a tenth of the tithes to the treasury in The Temple of our God.

<sup>39</sup> We'll see to it that the People of Israel and Levites bring the grain, wine, and oil to the storage rooms where the vessels of the Sanctuary are kept and where the priests who serve, the security guards, and the choir meet. We will not neglect The Temple of our God.

11 <sup>1</sup> The leaders of the people were already living in Jerusalem, so the rest of the people drew lots to get one out of ten to move to Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in their towns.

<sup>2</sup> The people applauded those who voluntarily offered to live in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> These are the leaders in the province who resided in Jerusalem (some Israelites, priests, Levites, Temple staff, and descendants of Solomon's slaves lived in the towns of Judah on their own property in various towns;

<sup>4</sup> others from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem): From the family of Judah: Athaiah son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, from the family line of Perez;

<sup>5</sup> Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

<sup>7</sup> From the family of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah,

<sup>9</sup> Joel son of Zicri was their chief and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city.

<sup>11</sup> Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor of The Temple of God,

<sup>12</sup> along with their associates responsible for work in The Temple: 822 men. Also Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, <sup>13</sup> and his associates who were heads of families: 242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, <sup>14</sup> and his associates, all valiant men: 128 men. Their commander was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim.

<sup>15</sup> From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

<sup>16</sup> Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the leaders of the Levites who were in charge of the outside work of The Temple of God;

<sup>17</sup> Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the Israelites, priests, and Levites were in all the towns of Judah, each on his own family property.

<sup>22</sup> The chief officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, singers who led worship in The Temple of God.

<sup>30</sup> Zanoah Adullam and their towns Lachish and its fields Azekah and suburbs. They were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

<sup>31</sup> The Benjaminites from Geba lived in:
Micmash Aijah Bethel and its suburbs

<sup>32</sup> Anathoth Nob and Ananiah

<sup>35</sup> Lod and Ono and the Valley of the

<sup>36</sup> Also some of the Levitical groups of Judah were assigned to Benjamin.

12 <sup>1</sup> These are the priests and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

These were the leaders of the priests during the time of Jeshua.

<sup>8</sup> And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah; Mattaniah, with his brothers, was in charge of songs of praise,

<sup>22</sup> During the time of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, the Levites were registered as heads of families. During the reign of Darius the Persian, the priests were registered.

<sup>23</sup> The Levites who were heads of families were registered in the Book of the Chronicles until the time of Johanan son of Eliashib. These were:

<sup>24</sup> Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel. Their brothers stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one side responding to the other, as had been directed by David the man of God.

<sup>26</sup> They lived during the time of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, the time of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scholar.

<sup>27</sup> When it came time for the dedication of the wall, they tracked down and brought in the Levites from all their homes in Jerusalem to carry out the dedication exuberantly: thanksgiving hymns, songs, cymbals, harps, and lutes.

<sup>30</sup> The priests and Levites ceremonially purified themselves; then they did the same for the people, the gates, and the wall.

instruments of David the man of God, came Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, <sup>36</sup> and his brothers Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. Ezra the scholar led them.

<sup>40</sup> The two choirs then took their places in The Temple of God. I was there with half of the officials,

<sup>42</sup> Also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers, directed by Jezrahiah, made the rafters ring.

<sup>43</sup> That day they offered great sacrifices, an exuberant celebration because God had filled them with great joy. The women and children raised their happy voices with all the rest. Jerusalem's jubilation was heard far and wide.

<sup>44</sup> That same day men were appointed to be responsible for the storerooms for the offerings, the firstfruits, and the tithes. They saw to it that the portion directed by The Revelation for the priests and Levites was brought in from the farms connected to the towns. Judah was so appreciative of the priests and Levites and their service;

<sup>45</sup> they, along with the singers and security guards, had done everything so well, conducted the worship of their God and the ritual of ceremonial cleansing in a way that would have made David and his son Solomon proud.

<sup>46</sup> That's the way it was done in the olden days, the days of David and Asaph, when they had choir directors for singing songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

<sup>47</sup> During the time of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily allowances for the singers and security guards. They also set aside what was dedicated to the Levites, and the Levites did the same for the Aaronites.

13 <sup>1</sup> Also on that same day there was a reading from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people. It was found written there that no Ammonite or Moabite was permitted to enter the congregation of God, <sup>2</sup> because they hadn't welcomed the People of Israel with food and drink; they even hired Balaam to work against them by cursing them, but our God turned the curse into a blessing.

<sup>3</sup> When they heard the reading of The Revelation, they excluded all foreigners from Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Some time before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of The Temple of God. He was close to Tobiah

<sup>5</sup> and had made available to him a large storeroom that had been used to store Grain-Offerings, incense, worship vessels, and the tithes of grain, wine, and oil for the Levites, singers, and security guards, and the offerings for the priests.

<sup>6</sup> When this was going on I wasn't there in Jerusalem; in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, I had traveled back to the king. But later I asked for his permission to leave again.

<sup>7</sup> I arrived in Jerusalem and learned of the wrong that Eliashib had done in turning over to him a room in the courts of The Temple of God.

<sup>8</sup> I was angry, really angry, and threw everything in the room out into the street, all of Tobiah's stuff.

<sup>9</sup> Then I ordered that they ceremonially cleanse the room. Only then did I put back the worship vessels of The Temple of God, along with the Grain-Offerings and the incense.

<sup>10</sup> And then I learned that the Levites hadn't been given their regular food allotments. So the Levites and singers who led the services of worship had all left and gone back to their farms.

<sup>11</sup> I called the officials on the carpet, "Why has The Temple of God been abandoned?" I got everyone back again and put them back on their jobs <sup>12</sup> so that all Judah was again bringing in the tithe of grain, wine, and oil to the storerooms.

<sup>13</sup> I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms. I made Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, their right-hand man. These men had a reputation for honesty and hard work. They were responsible for distributing the rations to their brothers.

<sup>14</sup> Remember me, O my God, for this. Don't ever forget the devoted work I have done for The Temple of God and its worship.

<sup>15</sup> During those days, while back in Judah, I also noticed that people treaded wine presses, brought in sacks of grain, and loaded up their donkeys on the Sabbath. They brought wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of stuff to sell on the Sabbath. So I spoke up and warned them about selling food on that day.

<sup>16</sup> Tyrians living there brought in fish and whatever else, selling it to Judeans--[in Jerusalem], mind you!--on the Sabbath.

<sup>17</sup> I confronted the leaders of Judah: "What's going on here? This evil! Profaning the Sabbath!

<sup>18</sup> Isn't this exactly what your ancestors did? And because of it didn't God bring down on us and this city all this misery? And here you are adding to it--accumulating more wrath on Jerusalem by profaning the Sabbath."

<sup>19</sup> As the gates of Jerusalem were darkened by the shadows of the approaching Sabbath, I ordered the doors shut and not to be opened until the Sabbath was over. I placed some of my servants at the gates to make sure that nothing to be sold would get in on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup> Traders and dealers in various goods camped outside the gates once or twice.

<sup>21</sup> But I took them to task. I said, "You have no business camping out here by the wall. If I find you here again, I'll use force to drive you off." And that did it; they didn't come back on the Sabbath.

<sup>22</sup> Then I directed the Levites to ceremonially cleanse themselves and take over as guards at the gates to keep the sanctity of the Sabbath day. Remember me also for this, my God. Treat me with mercy according to your great and steadfast love.

<sup>23</sup> Also in those days I saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

<sup>24</sup> Half the children couldn't even speak the language of Judah; all they knew was the language of Ashdod or some other tongue.

<sup>25</sup> So I took those men to task, gave them a piece of my mind, even slapped some of them and jerked them by the hair. I made them swear to God: "Don't marry your daughters to their sons; and don't let their daughters marry your sons--and don't you yourselves marry them!"

<sup>26</sup> Didn't Solomon the king of Israel sin because of women just like these? Even though there was no king quite like him, and God loved him and made him king over all Israel, foreign women were his downfall.

<sup>27</sup> Do you call this obedience--engaging in this extensive evil, showing yourselves faithless to God by marrying foreign wives?"

<sup>28</sup> One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite; I drove him out of my presence.

<sup>29</sup> Remember them, O my God, how they defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priests and Levites.

<sup>30</sup> All in all I cleansed them from everything foreign. I organized the orders of service for the priests and Levites so that each man knew his job.

<sup>31</sup> I arranged for a regular supply of altar wood at the appointed times and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Esther

1 <sup>1</sup> This is the story of something that happened in the time of Xerxes, the Xerxes who ruled from India to Ethiopia--127 provinces in all.

<sup>3</sup> In the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his officials and ministers. The military brass of Persia and Media were also there, along with the princes and governors of the provinces.

<sup>4</sup> For six months he put on exhibit the huge wealth of his empire and its stunningly beautiful royal splendors.

<sup>5</sup> At the conclusion of the exhibit, the king threw a weeklong party for everyone living in Susa, the capital--important and unimportant alike. The party was in the garden courtyard of the king's summer house.

<sup>7</sup> Drinks were served in gold chalices, each chalice one-of-a-kind. The royal wine flowed freely--a generous king!

<sup>10</sup> On the seventh day of the party, the king, high on the wine, ordered the seven eunuchs who were his personal servants (Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas)

<sup>12</sup> But Queen Vashti refused to come, refused the summons delivered by the eunuchs. The king lost his temper. Seething with anger over her insolence, <sup>13</sup> the king called in his counselors, all experts in legal matters. It was the king's practice to consult his expert advisors.

<sup>14</sup> Those closest to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven highest-ranking princes of Persia and Media, the inner circle with access to the king's ear.

<sup>15</sup> He asked them what legal recourse they had against Queen Vashti for not obeying King Xerxes' summons delivered by the eunuchs.

<sup>16</sup> Memucan spoke up in the council of the king and princes: "It's not only the king Queen Vashti has insulted, it's all of us, leaders and people alike in every last one of King Xerxes' provinces.

<sup>17</sup> The word's going to get out: 'Did you hear the latest about Queen Vashti? King Xerxes ordered her to be brought before him and she wouldn't do it!' When the women hear it, they'll start treating their husbands with contempt.

<sup>18</sup> The day the wives of the Persian and Mede officials get wind of the queen's insolence, they'll be out of control. Is that what we want, a country of angry women who don't know their place?

<sup>19</sup> "So, if the king agrees, let him pronounce a royal ruling and have it recorded in the laws of the Persians and Medes so that it cannot be revoked, that Vashti is permanently banned from King Xerxes' presence. And then let the king give her royal position to a woman who knows her place.

<sup>20</sup> When the king's ruling becomes public knowledge throughout the kingdom, extensive as it is, every woman, regardless of her social position, will show proper respect to her husband."

<sup>22</sup> He sent bulletins to every part of the kingdom, to each province in its own script, to each people in their own language: "Every man is master of his own house; whatever he says, goes."

2<sup>1</sup> Later, when King Xerxes' anger had cooled and he was having second thoughts about what Vashti had done and what he had ordered against her,

<sup>3</sup> Let the king appoint officials in every province of his kingdom to bring every beautiful young virgin to the palace complex of Susa and to the harem run by Hegai, the king's eunuch who oversees the women; he will put them through their beauty treatments.

<sup>4</sup> Then let the girl who best pleases the king be made queen in place of Vashti." The king liked this advice and took it.

<sup>5</sup> Now there was a Jew who lived in the palace complex in Susa. His name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish--a Benjaminite.

<sup>7</sup> Mordecai had reared his cousin Hadassah, otherwise known as Esther, since she had no father or mother. The girl had a good figure and a beautiful face. After her parents died, Mordecai had adopted her.

<sup>8</sup> When the king's order had been publicly posted, many young girls were brought to the palace complex of Susa and given over to Hegai who was overseer of the women. Esther was among them.

<sup>9</sup> Hegai liked Esther and took a special interest in her. Right off he started her beauty treatments, ordered special food, assigned her seven personal maids from the palace, and put her and her maids in the best rooms in the harem.

<sup>10</sup> Esther didn't say anything about her family and racial background because Mordecai had told her not to.

<sup>11</sup> Every day Mordecai strolled beside the court of the harem to find out how Esther was and get news of what she was doing.

<sup>12</sup> Each girl's turn came to go in to King Xerxes after she had completed the twelve months of prescribed beauty treatments--six months' treatment with oil of myrrh followed by six months with perfumes and various cosmetics.

<sup>13</sup> When it was time for the girl to go to the king, she was given whatever she wanted to take with her when she left the harem for the king's quarters.

<sup>14</sup> She would go there in the evening; in the morning she would return to a second harem overseen by Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch in charge of the concubines. She never again went back to the king unless the king took a special liking to her and asked for her by name.

<sup>15</sup> When it was Esther's turn to go to the king (Esther the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his daughter), she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch in charge of the harem, had recommended. Esther, just as she was, won the admiration of everyone who saw her.

<sup>16</sup> She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of the king's reign.

<sup>17</sup> The king fell in love with Esther far more than with any of his other women or any of the other virgins--he was totally smitten by her. He placed a royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king gave a great banquet for all his nobles and officials--"Esther's Banquet." He proclaimed a holiday for all the provinces and handed out gifts with royal generosity.

<sup>20</sup> All this time, Esther had kept her family background and race a secret as Mordecai had ordered; Esther still did what Mordecai told her, just as when she was being raised by him.

<sup>22</sup> But Mordecai learned of the plot and told Queen Esther, who then told King Xerxes, giving credit to Mordecai.

<sup>23</sup> When the thing was investigated and confirmed as true, the two men were hanged on a gallows. This was all written down in a logbook kept for the king's use.

<sup>3</sup> The king's servants at the King's Gate asked Mordecai about it: "Why do you cross the king's command?"

<sup>4</sup> Day after day they spoke to him about this but he wouldn't listen, so they went to Haman to see whether something shouldn't be done about it. Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw for himself that Mordecai didn't bow down and kneel before him, he was outraged.

<sup>6</sup> Meanwhile, having learned that Mordecai was a Jew, Haman hated to waste his fury on just one Jew; he looked for a way to eliminate not just Mordecai but all Jews throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

<sup>7</sup> In the first month, the month of Nisan, of the twelfth year of Xerxes, the pur--that is, the lot--was cast under Haman's charge to determine the propitious day and month. The lot turned up the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

<sup>8</sup> Haman then spoke with King Xerxes: "There is an odd set of people scattered through the provinces of your kingdom who don't fit in. Their customs and ways are different from those of everybody else. Worse, they disregard the king's laws. They're an affront; the king shouldn't put up with them.

<sup>9</sup> If it please the king, let orders be given that they be destroyed. I'll pay for it myself. I'll deposit 375 tons of silver in the royal bank to finance the operation."

<sup>10</sup> The king slipped his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, archenemy of the Jews.

<sup>11</sup> "Go ahead," the king said to Haman. "It's your money--do whatever you want with those people."

<sup>12</sup> The king's secretaries were brought in on the thirteenth day of the first month. The orders were written out word for word as Haman had addressed them to the king's satraps, the governors of every province, and the officials of every people. They were written in the script of each province and the language of each people in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with the royal signet ring.

<sup>13</sup> Bulletins were sent out by couriers to all the king's provinces with orders to massacre, kill, and eliminate all the Jews--youngsters and old men, women and babies--on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar, and to plunder their goods.

<sup>14</sup> Copies of the bulletin were to be posted in each province, publicly available to all peoples, to get them ready for that day.

<sup>15</sup> At the king's command, the couriers took off; the order was also posted in the palace complex of Susa. The king and Haman sat back and had a drink while the city of Susa reeled from the news.

4 <sup>1</sup> When Mordecai learned what had been done, he ripped his clothes to shreds and put on sackcloth and ashes.

Then he went out in the streets of the city crying out in loud and bitter cries.

<sup>2</sup> He came only as far as the King's Gate, for no one dressed in sackcloth was allowed to enter the King's Gate.

<sup>3</sup> As the king's order was posted in every province, there was loud lament among the Jews--fasting, weeping, wailing. And most of them stretched out on sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her. The queen was stunned. She sent fresh clothes to Mordecai so he could take off his sackcloth but he wouldn't accept them.

<sup>5</sup> Esther called for Hathach, one of the royal eunuchs whom the king had assigned to wait on her, and told him to go to Mordecai and get the full story of what was happening.

<sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him. He also told him the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to deposit in the royal bank to finance the massacre of the Jews.

<sup>8</sup> Mordecai also gave him a copy of the bulletin that had been posted in Susa ordering the massacre so he could show it to Esther when he reported back with instructions to go to the king and intercede and plead with him for her people.

<sup>9</sup> Hathach came back and told Esther everything Mordecai had said.

<sup>10</sup> Esther talked it over with Hathach and then sent him back to Mordecai with this message:

<sup>11</sup> "Everyone who works for the king here, and even the people out in the provinces, knows that there is a single fate for every man or woman who approaches the king without being invited: death. The one exception is if the king extends his gold scepter; then he or she may live. And it's been thirty days now since I've been invited to come to the king."

<sup>12</sup> When Hathach told Mordecai what Esther had said, <sup>13</sup> Mordecai sent her this message: "Don't think that just because you live in the king's house you're the one Jew who will get out of this alive.

<sup>14</sup> If you persist in staying silent at a time like this, help and deliverance will arrive for the Jews from someplace else; but you and your family will be wiped out. Who knows? Maybe you were made queen for just such a time as this."

for three days, either day or night. I and my maids will fast with you. If you will do this, I'll go to the king, even though it's forbidden. If I die, I die."

<sup>2</sup> When he noticed Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased to see her; the king extended the gold scepter in his hand. Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

<sup>3</sup> The king asked, "And what's your desire, Queen Esther? What do you want? Ask and it's yours--even if it's half my kingdom!"

<sup>4</sup> "If it please the king," said Esther, "let the king come with Haman to a dinner I've prepared for him."

<sup>5</sup> "Get Haman at once," said the king, "so we can go to dinner with Esther." So the king and Haman joined Esther at the dinner she had arranged.

<sup>6</sup> As they were drinking the wine, the king said, "Now, what is it you want? Half of my kingdom isn't too much to ask! Just ask."

<sup>8</sup> If the king favors me and is pleased to do what I desire and ask, let the king and Haman come again tomorrow to the dinner that I will fix for them. Then I'll give a straight answer to the king's question."

<sup>9</sup> Haman left the palace that day happy, beaming. And then he saw Mordecai sitting at the King's Gate ignoring him, oblivious to him. Haman was furious with Mordecai.

<sup>10</sup> But he held himself in and went on home. He got his friends together with his wife Zeresh

<sup>11</sup> and started bragging about how much money he had, his many sons, all the times the king had honored him, and his promotion to the highest position in the government.

<sup>14</sup> His wife Zeresh and all his friends said, "Build a gallows seventy-five feet high. First thing in the morning speak with the king; get him to order Mordecai hanged on it. Then happily go with the king to dinner." Haman liked that. He had the gallows built.

6<sup>1</sup> That night the king couldn't sleep. He ordered the record book, the day-by-day journal of events, to be brought and read to him.

<sup>2</sup> They came across the story there about the time that Mordecai had exposed the plot of Bigthana and Teresh--the two royal eunuchs who guarded the entrance and who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

<sup>3</sup> The king asked, "What great honor was given to Mordecai for this?"

"Nothing," replied the king's servants who were in attendance. "Nothing has been done for him."

<sup>4</sup> The king said, "Is there anybody out in the court?" Now Haman had just come into the outer court of the king's palace to talk to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had built for him.

<sup>5</sup> The king's servants said, "Haman is out there, waiting in the court." "Bring him in," said the king.

<sup>6</sup> When Haman entered, the king said, "What would be appropriate for the man the king especially wants to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "He must be talking about honoring me--who else?"

<sup>7</sup> So he answered the king, "For the man the king delights to honor, do this:

<sup>8</sup> Bring a royal robe that the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crown on its head.

<sup>9</sup> Then give the robe and the horse to one of the king's most noble princes. Have him robe the man whom the king especially wants to honor; have the prince lead him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him,

'This is what is done for the man whom the king especially wants to honor!'"

<sup>10</sup> "Go and do it," the king said to Haman. "Don't waste another minute. Take the robe and horse and do what you have proposed to Mordecai the Jew who sits at the King's Gate. Don't leave out a single detail of your plan."

<sup>11</sup> So Haman took the robe and horse; he robed Mordecai and led him through the city square, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man whom the king especially wants to honor!"

<sup>12</sup> Then Mordecai returned to the King's Gate, but Haman fled to his house, thoroughly mortified, hiding his face.

<sup>13</sup> When Haman had finished telling his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his knowledgeable friends who were there and his wife Zeresh said, "If this Mordecai is in fact a Jew, your bad luck has only begun. You don't stand a chance against him--you're as good as ruined."

<sup>14</sup> While they were still talking, the king's eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman off to the dinner that Esther had prepared.

7 <sup>1</sup> So the king and Haman went to dinner with Queen Esther.

<sup>2</sup> At this second dinner, while they were drinking wine the king again asked, "Queen Esther, what would you like? Half of my kingdom! Just ask and it's yours."

<sup>3</sup> Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor in your eyes, O King, and if it please the king, give me my life, and give my people their lives.

<sup>4</sup> "We've been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed--sold to be massacred, eliminated. If we had just been sold off into slavery, I wouldn't even have brought it up; our troubles wouldn't have been worth bothering the king over."

<sup>6</sup> "An enemy. An adversary. This evil Haman," said Esther. Haman was terror-stricken before the king and queen.

<sup>8</sup> As the king came back from the palace garden into the banquet hall, Haman was groveling at the couch on which Esther reclined. The king roared out, "Will he even molest the queen while I'm just around the corner?" When that word left the king's mouth, all the blood drained from Haman's face.

<sup>9</sup> Harbona, one of the eunuchs attending the king, spoke up: "Look over there! There's the gallows that Haman had built for Mordecai, who saved the king's life. It's right next to Haman's house--seventy-five feet high!" The king said, "Hang him on it!"

<sup>10</sup> So Haman was hanged on the very gallows that he had built for Mordecai. And the king's hot anger cooled.

<sup>3</sup> Then Esther again spoke to the king, falling at his feet, begging with tears to counter the evil of Haman the Agagite and revoke the plan that he had plotted against the Jews.

<sup>4</sup> The king extended his gold scepter to Esther. She got to her feet and stood before the king.

<sup>5</sup> She said, "If it please the king and he regards me with favor and thinks this is right, and if he has any affection for me at all, let an order be written that cancels the bulletins authorizing the plan of Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite to annihilate the Jews in all the king's provinces.

<sup>6</sup> How can I stand to see this catastrophe wipe out my people? How can I bear to stand by and watch the massacre of my own relatives?"

<sup>7</sup> King Xerxes said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew: "I've given Haman's estate to Esther and he's been hanged on the gallows because he attacked the Jews.

<sup>8</sup> So go ahead now and write whatever you decide on behalf of the Jews; then seal it with the signet ring." (An order written in the king's name and sealed with his signet ring is irrevocable.)

<sup>9</sup> So the king's secretaries were brought in on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan, and the order regarding the Jews was written word for word as Mordecai dictated and was addressed to the satraps, governors, and officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, 127 provinces in all, to each province in its own script and each people in their own language, including the Jews in their script and language.

<sup>10</sup> He wrote under the name of King Xerxes and sealed the order with the royal signet ring; he sent out the bulletins by couriers on horseback, riding the fastest royal steeds bred from the royal stud.

<sup>11</sup> The king's order authorized the Jews in every city to arm and defend themselves to the death, killing anyone who threatened them or their women and children, and confiscating for themselves anything owned by their enemies.

<sup>12</sup> The day set for this in all King Xerxes' provinces was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

<sup>13</sup> The order was posted in public places in each province so everyone could read it, authorizing the Jews to be prepared on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

<sup>14</sup> The couriers, fired up by the king's order, raced off on their royal horses. At the same time, the order was posted in the palace complex of Susa.

<sup>15</sup> Mordecai walked out of the king's presence wearing a royal robe of violet and white, a huge gold crown, and a purple cape of fine linen. The city of Susa exploded with joy.

<sup>16</sup> For Jews it was all sunshine and laughter: they celebrated, they were honored.

<sup>17</sup> It was that way all over the country, in every province, every city when the king's bulletin was posted: the Jews took to the streets in celebration, cheering, and feasting. Not only that, but many non-Jews became Jews--now it was dangerous not to be a Jew!

9 <sup>1</sup> On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the king's order came into effect. This was the very day that the enemies of the Jews had planned to overpower them, but the tables were now turned: the Jews overpowered those who hated them!

<sup>2</sup> The Jews had gathered in the cities throughout King Xerxes' provinces to lay hands on those who were seeking their ruin. Not one man was able to stand up against them--fear made cowards of them all.

<sup>3</sup> What's more, all the government officials, satraps, governors--everyone who worked for the king--actually helped the Jews because of Mordecai; they were afraid of him.

<sup>4</sup> Mordecai by now was a power in the palace. As Mordecai became more and more powerful, his reputation had grown in all the provinces.

<sup>11</sup> That day, when it was all over, the number of those killed in the palace complex was given to the king.

<sup>12</sup> The king told Queen Esther, "In the palace complex alone here in Susa the Jews have killed five hundred men, plus Haman's ten sons. Think of the killing that must have been done in the rest of the provinces! What else do you want? Name it and it's yours. Your wish is my command."

<sup>13</sup> "If it please the king," Queen Esther responded, "give the Jews of Susa permission to extend the terms of the order another day. And have the bodies of Haman's ten sons hanged in public display on the gallows."

<sup>14</sup> The king commanded it: The order was extended; the bodies of Haman's ten sons were publicly hanged.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews in Susa went at it again. On the fourteenth day of Adar they killed another three hundred men in Susa. But again they took no plunder.

<sup>16</sup> Meanwhile in the rest of the king's provinces, the Jews had organized and defended themselves, freeing themselves from oppression. On the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, they killed 75,000 of those who hated them but did not take any plunder.

<sup>17</sup> The next day, the fourteenth, they took it easy and celebrated with much food and laughter.

<sup>18</sup> But in Susa, since the Jews had banded together on both the thirteenth and fourteenth days, they made the fifteenth their holiday for laughing and feasting.

<sup>19</sup> (This accounts for why Jews living out in the country in the rural villages remember the fourteenth day of Adar for celebration, their day for parties and the exchange of gifts.)

<sup>20</sup> Mordecai wrote all this down and sent copies to all the Jews in all King Xerxes' provinces, regardless of distance,

<sup>21</sup> calling for an annual celebration on the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar

<sup>22</sup> as the occasion when Jews got relief from their enemies, the month in which their sorrow turned to joy, mourning somersaulted into a holiday for parties and fun and laughter, the sending and receiving of presents and of giving gifts to the poor.

<sup>23</sup> And they did it. What started then became a tradition, continuing the practice of what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup> Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the archenemy of all Jews, had schemed to destroy all Jews. He had cast the pur (the lot) to throw them into a panic and destroy them.

<sup>25</sup> But when Queen Esther intervened with the king, he gave written orders that the evil scheme that Haman had worked out should boomerang back on his own head. He and his sons were hanged on the gallows.

<sup>26</sup> That's why these days are called "Purim," from the word pur or "lot." Therefore, because of everything written in this letter and because of all that they had been through,

<sup>27</sup> the Jews agreed to continue. It became a tradition for them, their children, and all future converts to remember these two days every year on the specified dates set down in the letter.

<sup>28</sup> These days are to be remembered and kept by every single generation, every last family, every province and city. These days of Purim must never be neglected among the Jews; the memory of them must never die out among their descendants.

<sup>29</sup> Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, backed Mordecai the Jew, using her full queenly authority in this second Purim letter

<sup>30</sup> to endorse and ratify what he wrote. Calming and reassuring letters went out to all the Jews throughout the 127 provinces of Xerxes' kingdom

<sup>3</sup> Mordecai the Jew ranked second in command to King Xerxes. He was popular among the Jews and greatly respected by them. He worked hard for the good of his people; he cared for the peace and prosperity of his race.

Job

1 <sup>1</sup> Job was a man who lived in Uz. He was honest inside and out, a man of his word, who was totally devoted to God and hated evil with a passion.

<sup>2</sup> He had seven sons and three daughters.

<sup>3</sup> He was also very wealthy--seven thousand head of sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred teams of oxen, five hundred donkeys, and a huge staff of servants--the most influential man in all the East!

<sup>5</sup> When the parties were over, Job would get up early in the morning and sacrifice a burnt offering for each of his children, thinking, "Maybe one of them sinned by defying God inwardly." Job made a habit of this sacrificial atonement, just in case they'd sinned.

<sup>6</sup> One day when the angels came to report to GOD, Satan, who was the Designated Accuser, came along with them.

<sup>7</sup> GOD singled out Satan and said, "What have you been up to?" Satan answered GOD, "Going here and there, checking things out on earth."

<sup>8</sup> GOD said to Satan, "Have you noticed my friend Job? There's no one quite like him--honest and true to his word, totally devoted to God and hating evil."

<sup>9</sup> Satan retorted, "So do you think Job does all that out of the sheer goodness of his heart?"

<sup>10</sup> Why, no one ever had it so good! You pamper him like a pet, make sure nothing bad ever happens to him or his family or his possessions, bless everything he does--he can't lose!

<sup>14</sup> a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys grazing in the field next to us

<sup>15</sup> when Sabeans attacked. They stole the animals and killed the field hands. I'm the only one to get out alive and tell you what happened."

<sup>16</sup> While he was still talking, another messenger arrived and said, "Bolts of lightning struck the sheep and the shepherds and fried them--burned them to a crisp. I'm the only one to get out alive and tell you what happened."

<sup>17</sup> While he was still talking, another messenger arrived and said, "Chaldeans coming from three directions raided the camels and massacred the camel drivers. I'm the only one to get out alive and tell you what happened."

<sup>18</sup> While he was still talking, another messenger arrived and said, "Your children were having a party at the home of the oldest brother

<sup>19</sup> when a tornado swept in off the desert and struck the house. It collapsed on the young people and they died. I'm the only one to get out alive and tell you what happened."

<sup>20</sup> Job got to his feet, ripped his robe, shaved his head, then fell to the ground and worshiped:

<sup>21</sup> Naked I came from my mother's womb, naked I'll return to the womb of the earth. GOD gives, GOD takes. God's name be ever blessed.

<sup>22</sup> Not once through all this did Job sin; not once did he blame God.

2<sup>1</sup> One day when the angels came to report to GOD, Satan also showed up.

<sup>2</sup> GOD singled out Satan, saying, "And what have you been up to?" Satan answered GOD, "Oh, going here and there, checking things out."

<sup>3</sup> Then GOD said to Satan, "Have you noticed my friend Job? There's no one quite like him, is there--honest and true to his word, totally devoted to God and hating evil? He still has a firm grip on his integrity! You tried to trick me into destroying him, but it didn't work."

<sup>6</sup> GOD said, "All right. Go ahead--you can do what you like with him. But mind you, don't kill him."

<sup>8</sup> They itched and oozed so badly that he took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself, then went and sat on a trash heap, among the ashes.

<sup>9</sup> His wife said, "Still holding on to your precious integrity, are you? Curse God and be done with it!"

<sup>10</sup> He told her, "You're talking like an empty-headed fool. We take the good days from God--why not also the bad days?" Not once through all this did Job sin. He said nothing against God.

<sup>11</sup> Three of Job's friends heard of all the trouble that had fallen on him. Each traveled from his own country--Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuhah, Zophar from Naamath--and went together to Job to keep him company and comfort him.

<sup>12</sup> When they first caught sight of him, they couldn't believe what they saw--they hardly recognized him! They cried out in lament, ripped their robes, and dumped dirt on their heads as a sign of their grief.

<sup>13</sup> Then they sat with him on the ground. Seven days and nights they sat there without saying a word. They could see how rotten he felt, how deeply he was suffering.

3<sup>1</sup> Then Job broke the silence. He spoke up and cursed his fate:

<sup>3</sup> "Obliterate the day I was born. Blank out the night I was conceived!

<sup>4</sup> Let it be a black hole in space. May God above forget it ever happened. Erase it from the books!

<sup>5</sup> May the day of my birth be buried in deep darkness, shrouded by the fog, swallowed by the night.

<sup>6</sup> And the night of my conception--the devil take it! Rip the date off the calendar, delete it from the almanac.

<sup>7</sup> Oh, turn that night into pure nothingness--no sounds of pleasure from that night, ever!

<sup>8</sup> May those who are good at cursing curse that day. Unleash the sea beast, Leviathan, on it.

<sup>9</sup> May its morning stars turn to black cinders, waiting for a daylight that never comes, never once seeing the first light of dawn.

<sup>10</sup> And why? Because it released me from my mother's womb into a life with so much trouble.

<sup>11</sup> "Why didn't I die at birth, my first breath out of the womb my last?

<sup>12</sup> Why were there arms to rock me, and breasts for me to drink from?

<sup>13</sup> I could be resting in peace right now, asleep forever, feeling no pain,

<sup>18</sup> Prisoners sleep undisturbed, never again to wake up to the bark of the guards.

<sup>19</sup> The small and the great are equals in that place, and slaves are free from their masters.

<sup>20</sup> "Why does God bother giving light to the miserable, why bother keeping bitter people alive,

<sup>21</sup> Those who want in the worst way to die, and can't, who can't imagine anything better than death,

<sup>23</sup> What's the point of life when it doesn't make sense, when God blocks all the roads to meaning?

<sup>24</sup> "Instead of bread I get groans for my supper, then leave the table and vomit my anguish.

<sup>25</sup> The worst of my fears has come true, what I've dreaded most has happened.

<sup>26</sup> My repose is shattered, my peace destroyed. No rest for me, ever--death has invaded life."

4 <sup>1</sup> Then Eliphaz from Teman spoke up:
<sup>2</sup> "Would you mind if I said something to you? Under the circumstances it's hard to keep quiet.

<sup>3</sup> You yourself have done this plenty of times, spoken words that clarify, encouraged those who were about to quit.

<sup>4</sup> Your words have put stumbling people on their feet, put fresh hope in people about to collapse.

<sup>7</sup> "Think! Has a truly innocent person ever ended up on the scrap heap? Do genuinely upright people ever lose out in the end?

<sup>8</sup> It's my observation that those who plow evil and sow trouble reap evil and trouble.

<sup>12</sup> "A word came to me in secret--a mere whisper of a word, but I heard it clearly.

<sup>13</sup> It came in a scary dream one night, after I had fallen into a deep, deep sleep.

<sup>14</sup> Dread stared me in the face, and Terror. I was scared to death--I shook from head to foot.

<sup>16</sup> I couldn't tell what it was that appeared there--a blur...and then I heard a muffled voice:

<sup>20</sup> These bodies of ours are here today and gone tomorrow, and no one even notices--gone without a trace.

<sup>21</sup> When the tent stakes are ripped up, the tent collapses--we die and are never the wiser for having lived.'

5 <sup>1</sup> "Call for help, Job, if you think anyone will answer! To which of the holy angels will you turn?

<sup>7</sup> It's human! Mortals are born and bred for trouble, as certainly as sparks fly upward.

<sup>8</sup> "If I were in your shoes, I'd go straight to God, I'd throw myself on the mercy of God.

<sup>11</sup> He raises up the down-and-out, gives firm footing to those sinking in grief.

<sup>12</sup> He aborts the schemes of conniving crooks, so that none of their plots come to term.

<sup>13</sup> He catches the know-it-alls in their conspiracies--all that intricate intrigue swept out with the trash!

<sup>15</sup> But the downtrodden are saved by God, saved from the murderous plots, saved from the iron fist.

<sup>16</sup> And so the poor continue to hope, while injustice is bound and gagged.

<sup>17</sup> "So, what a blessing when God steps in and corrects you! Mind you, don't despise the discipline of Almighty God!

<sup>18</sup> True, he wounds, but he also dresses the wound; the same hand that hurts you, heals you.

<sup>19</sup> From one disaster after another he delivers you; no matter what the calamity, the evil can't touch you--

<sup>20</sup> "In famine, he'll keep you from starving, in war, from being gutted by the sword.

<sup>27</sup> "Yes, this is the way things are--my word of honor! Take it to heart and you won't go wrong."

6 <sup>1</sup> Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> "If my misery could be weighed, if you could pile the whole bitter load on the scales, <sup>3</sup> It would be heavier than all the sand of the sea! Is it any wonder that I'm screaming like a caged cat?

<sup>4</sup> The arrows of God Almighty are in me, poison arrows--and I'm poisoned all through! God has dumped the whole works on me.

<sup>5</sup> Donkeys bray and cows moo when they run out of pasture--so don't expect me to keep quiet in this.

<sup>6</sup> Do you see what God has dished out for me? It's enough to turn anyone's stomach!

<sup>8</sup> "All I want is an answer to one prayer, a last request to be honored:

<sup>9</sup> Let God step on me--squash me like a bug, and be done with me for good.

<sup>10</sup> I'd at least have the satisfaction of not having blasphemed the Holy God, before being pressed past the limits.

<sup>11</sup> Where's the strength to keep my hopes up? What future do I have to keep me going?

<sup>12</sup> Do you think I have nerves of steel? Do you think I'm made of iron?

<sup>13</sup> Do you think I can pull myself up by my bootstraps? Why, I don't even have any boots!

<sup>14</sup> "When desperate people give up on God Almighty, their friends, at least, should stick with them.

<sup>20</sup> They arrive so confident--but what a disappointment! They get there, and their faces fall!

<sup>21</sup> And you, my so-called friends, are no better-- there's nothing to you! One look at a hard scene and you shrink in fear.

<sup>22</sup> It's not as though I asked you for anything--I didn't ask you for one red cent--

<sup>23</sup> Nor did I beg you to go out on a limb for me. So why all this dodging and shuffling?

<sup>24</sup> "Confront me with the truth and I'll shut up, show me where I've gone off the track.

<sup>25</sup> Honest words never hurt anyone, but what's the point of all this pious bluster?

<sup>26</sup> You pretend to tell me what's wrong with my life, but treat my words of anguish as so much hot air.

<sup>27</sup> Are people mere things to you? Are friends just items of profit and loss?

<sup>28</sup> "Look me in the eyes! Do you think I'd lie to your face?

<sup>29</sup> Think it over--no double-talk! Think carefully--my integrity is on the line!

<sup>30</sup> Can you detect anything false in what I say? Don't you trust me to discern good from evil?

7 <sup>1</sup> "Human life is a struggle, isn't it?
It's a life sentence to hard labor.

<sup>2</sup> Like field hands longing for quitting time and working stiff with nothing to hope for but payday, <sup>3</sup> I'm given a life that meanders and goes nowhere--months of aimlessness, nights of misery!

<sup>4</sup> I go to bed and think, 'How long till I can get up?' I toss and turn as the night drags on--and I'm fed up!

<sup>6</sup> My days come and go swifter than the click of knitting needles, and then the yarn runs out--an unfinished life!

<sup>7</sup> "God, don't forget that I'm only a puff of air! These eyes have had their last look at goodness.

<sup>9</sup> When a cloud evaporates, it's gone for good; those who go to the grave never come back.

<sup>10</sup> They don't return to visit their families; never again will friends drop in for coffee.

<sup>11</sup> "And so I'm not keeping one bit of this quiet, I'm laying it all out on the table; my complaining to high heaven is bitter, but honest.

<sup>12</sup> Are you going to put a muzzle on me, the way you quiet the sea and still the storm?

<sup>13</sup> If I say, 'I'm going to bed, then I'll feel better. A little nap will lift my spirits,'

<sup>14</sup> You come and so scare me with nightmares and frighten me with ghosts

<sup>15</sup> That I'd rather strangle in the bedclothes than face this kind of life any longer.

<sup>16</sup> I hate this life! Who needs any more of this? Let me alone! There's nothing to my life--it's nothing but smoke.

<sup>17</sup> "What are mortals anyway, that you bother with them, that you even give them the time of day?

<sup>18</sup> That you check up on them every morning, looking in on them to see how they're doing?

<sup>19</sup> Let up on me, will you? Can't you even let me spit in peace?

<sup>20</sup> Even suppose I'd sinned--how would that hurt you? You're responsible for every human being. Don't you have better things to do than pick on me? Why make a federal case out of me?

<sup>21</sup> Why don't you just forgive my sins and start me off with a clean slate? The way things are going, I'll soon be dead. You'll look high and low, but I won't be around."

8 <sup>1</sup> Bildad from Shuhah was next to speak:

<sup>2</sup> "How can you keep on talking like this? You're talking nonsense, and noisy nonsense at that.

<sup>5</sup> Here's what you must do--and don't put it off any longer: Get down on your knees before God Almighty.

<sup>9</sup> For we're newcomers at this, with a lot to learn, and not too long to learn it.

<sup>10</sup> So why not let the ancients teach you, tell you what's what, instruct you in what they knew from experience?

<sup>13</sup> That's what happens to all who forget God--all their hopes come to nothing.

<sup>15</sup> One jiggle and the thread breaks, one jab and the web collapses.

<sup>16</sup> Or they're like weeds springing up in the sunshine, invading the garden,

<sup>17</sup> Spreading everywhere, overtaking the flowers, getting a foothold even in the rocks.

<sup>18</sup> But when the gardener rips them out by the roots, the garden doesn't miss them one bit.

<sup>19</sup> The sooner the godless are gone, the better; then good plants can grow in their place.

<sup>20</sup> "There's no way that God will reject a good person, and there is no way he'll help a bad one.

<sup>21</sup> God will let you laugh again; you'll raise the roof with shouts of joy,

<sup>22</sup> With your enemies thoroughly discredited, their house of cards collapsed."

9<sup>1</sup> Job continued by saying:

<sup>3</sup> If we wanted to bring our case before him, what chance would we have? Not one in a thousand!

<sup>4</sup> God's wisdom is so deep, God's power so immense, who could take him on and come out in one piece?

<sup>7</sup> He tells the sun, 'Don't shine,' and it doesn't; he pulls the blinds on the stars.

<sup>8</sup> All by himself he stretches out the heavens and strides on the waves of the sea.

<sup>12</sup> If he steals you blind, who can stop him? Who's going to say, 'Hey, what are you doing?'

<sup>14</sup> "So how could I ever argue with him, construct a defense that would influence God?

<sup>15</sup> Even though I'm innocent I could never prove it; I can only throw myself on the Judge's mercy.

<sup>16</sup> If I called on God and he himself answered me, then, and only then, would I believe that he'd heard me.

<sup>17</sup> As it is, he knocks me about from pillar to post, beating me up, black and blue, for no good reason.

<sup>18</sup> He won't even let me catch my breath, piles bitterness upon bitterness.

<sup>19</sup> If it's a question of who's stronger, he wins, hands down! If it's a question of justice, who'll serve him the subpoena?

<sup>20</sup> Even though innocent, anything I say incriminates me; blameless as I am, my defense just makes me sound worse.

<sup>21</sup> "Believe me, I'm blameless. I don't understand what's going on. I hate my life!

<sup>22</sup> Since either way it ends up the same, I can only conclude that God destroys the good right along with the bad.

<sup>23</sup> When calamity hits and brings sudden death, he folds his arms, aloof from the despair of the innocent.

<sup>24</sup> He lets the wicked take over running the world, he installs judges who can't tell right from wrong. If he's not responsible, who is?

<sup>25</sup> "My time is short--what's left of my life races off too fast for me to even glimpse the good.

<sup>26</sup> My life is going fast, like a ship under full sail, like an eagle plummeting to its prey.

<sup>27</sup> Even if I say, 'I'll put all this behind me, I'll look on the bright side and force a smile,' <sup>28</sup> All these troubles would still be like grit in my gut since it's clear you're not going to let up.

<sup>29</sup> The verdict has already been handed down--'Guilty!'--so what's the use of protests or appeals?

<sup>30</sup> Even if I scrub myself all over and wash myself with the strongest soap I can find, <sup>31</sup> It wouldn't last--you'd push me into a pigpen, or worse, so nobody could stand me for the stink.

<sup>32</sup> "God and I are not equals; I can't bring a case against him. We'll never enter a courtroom as peers.

<sup>33</sup> How I wish we had an arbitrator to step in and let me get on with life--

<sup>34</sup> To break God's death grip on me, to free me from this terror so I could breathe again.

<sup>35</sup> Then I'd speak up and state my case boldly. As things stand, there is no way I can do it.

10 <sup>1</sup> "I can't stand my life--I hate it!--I'm putting it all out on the table, all the bitterness of my life--I'm holding back nothing."

<sup>2</sup> Job prayed: "Here's what I want to say: Don't, God, bring in a verdict of guilty without letting me know the charges you're bringing.

<sup>3</sup> How does this fit into what you once called 'good'--giving me a hard time, spurning me, a life you shaped by your very own hands, and then blessing the plots of the wicked?

<sup>4</sup> You don't look at things the way we mortals do. You're not taken in by appearances, are you?

<sup>5</sup> Unlike us, you're not working against a deadline. You have all eternity to work things out.

<sup>6</sup> So what's this all about, anyway--this compulsion to dig up some dirt, to find some skeleton in my closet?

<sup>7</sup> You know good and well I'm not guilty. You also know no one can help me.

<sup>8</sup> "You made me like a handcrafted piece of pottery--and now are you going to smash me to pieces?"

<sup>9</sup> Don't you remember how beautifully you worked my clay? Will you reduce me now to a mud pie?

<sup>12</sup> You gave me life itself, and incredible love. You watched and guarded every breath I took.

<sup>13</sup> "But you never told me about this part. I should have known that there was more to it--

<sup>14</sup> That if I so much as missed a step, you'd notice and pounce, wouldn't let me get by with a thing.

<sup>15</sup> If I'm truly guilty, I'm doomed. But if I'm innocent, it's no better--I'm still doomed. My belly is full of bitterness. I'm up to my ears in a swamp of affliction.

<sup>17</sup> You line up fresh witnesses against me. You compound your anger and pile on the grief and pain!

<sup>18</sup> "So why did you have me born? I wish no one had ever laid eyes on me!

<sup>20</sup> Isn't it time to call it quits on my life? Can't you let up, and let me smile just once

<sup>21</sup> Before I die and am buried, before I'm nailed into my coffin, sealed in the ground,

<sup>22</sup> And banished for good to the land of the dead, blind in the final dark?"

<sup>2</sup> "What a flood of words! Shouldn't we put a stop to it? Should this kind of loose talk be permitted?"

<sup>3</sup> Job, do you think you can carry on like this and we'll say nothing? That we'll let you rail and mock and not step in?

<sup>4</sup> You claim, 'My doctrine is sound and my conduct impeccable.'

<sup>5</sup> How I wish God would give you a piece of his mind, tell you what's what!

<sup>6</sup> I wish he'd show you how wisdom looks from the inside, for true wisdom is mostly 'inside.' But you can be sure of this, you haven't gotten half of what you deserve.

<sup>7</sup> "Do you think you can explain the mystery of God? Do you think you can diagram God Almighty?"

<sup>8</sup> God is far higher than you can imagine, far deeper than you can comprehend,

<sup>10</sup> If he happens along, throws you in jail then hauls you into court, can you do anything about it?

<sup>11</sup> He sees through vain pretensions, spots evil a long way off--no one pulls the wool over his eyes!

<sup>12</sup> Hollow men, hollow women, will wise up about the same time mules learn to talk.

<sup>13</sup> "Still, if you set your heart on God and reach out to him,

<sup>14</sup> If you scrub your hands of sin and refuse to entertain evil in your home, <sup>15</sup> You'll be able to face the world unashamed and keep a firm grip on life, guiltless and fearless.

<sup>18</sup> Full of hope, you'll relax, confident again; you'll look around, sit back, and take it easy.

<sup>19</sup> Expansive, without a care in the world, you'll be hunted out by many for your blessing.

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked will see none of this. They're headed down a dead-end road with nothing to look forward to--nothing."

12 <sup>1</sup> Job answered:
<sup>2</sup> "I'm sure you speak for all the experts, and when you die there'll be no one left to tell us how to live.

<sup>3</sup> But don't forget that I also have a brain--I don't intend to play second fiddle to you. It doesn't take an expert to know these things.

<sup>4</sup> "I'm ridiculed by my friends: 'So that's the man who had conversations with God!' Ridiculed without mercy: 'Look at the man who never did wrong!'

<sup>6</sup> Crooks reside safely in high-security houses, insolent blasphemers live in luxury; they've bought and paid for a god who'll protect them.

<sup>7</sup> "But ask the animals what they think--let them teach you; let the birds tell you what's going on.

<sup>8</sup> Put your ear to the earth--learn the basics. Listen--the fish in the ocean will tell you their stories.

<sup>9</sup> Isn't it clear that they all know and agree that GOD is sovereign, that he holds all things in his hand--

<sup>10</sup> Every living soul, yes, every breathing creature?

<sup>11</sup> Isn't this all just common sense, as common as the sense of taste?

<sup>12</sup> Do you think the elderly have a corner on wisdom, that you have to grow old before you understand life?

<sup>13</sup> "True wisdom and real power belong to God; from him we learn how to live, and also what to live for.

<sup>14</sup> If he tears something down, it's down for good; if he locks people up, they're locked up for good.

<sup>15</sup> If he holds back the rain, there's a drought; if he lets it loose, there's a flood.

<sup>16</sup> Strength and success belong to God; both deceived and deceiver must answer to him.

13 <sup>1</sup> "Yes, I've seen all this with my own eyes, heard and understood it with my very own ears.

<sup>2</sup> Everything you know, I know, so I'm not taking a back seat to any of you.

<sup>3</sup> I'm taking my case straight to God Almighty; I've had it with you--I'm going directly to God.

<sup>6</sup> "Listen now while I make my case, consider my side of things for a change.

<sup>7</sup> Or are you going to keep on lying 'to do God a service'? to make up stories 'to get him off the hook'?

<sup>8</sup> Why do you always take his side? Do you think he needs a lawyer to defend himself?

<sup>9</sup> How would you fare if you were in the dock? Your lies might convince a jury--but would they convince [God]?

<sup>10</sup> He'd reprimand you on the spot if he detected a bias in your witness.

<sup>11</sup> Doesn't his splendor put you in awe?
Aren't you afraid to speak cheap lies before him?

<sup>12</sup> Your wise sayings are knickknack wisdom, good for nothing but gathering dust.

<sup>13</sup> "So hold your tongue while I have my say, then I'll take whatever I have coming to me.

<sup>14</sup> Why do I go out on a limb like this and take my life in my hands?

<sup>15</sup> Because even if he killed me, I'd keep on hoping. I'd defend my innocence to the very end.

<sup>16</sup> Just wait, this is going to work out for the best--my salvation! If I were guilt-stricken do you think I'd be doing this--laying myself on the line before God?

<sup>17</sup> You'd better pay attention to what I'm telling you, listen carefully with both ears.

<sup>18</sup> Now that I've laid out my defense, I'm sure that I'll be acquitted.

<sup>19</sup> Can anyone prove charges against me? I've said my piece. I rest my case.

<sup>20</sup> "Please, God, I have two requests; grant them so I'll know I count with you:

<sup>22</sup> Second, address me directly so I can answer you, or let me speak and then you answer me.

<sup>23</sup> How many sins have been charged against me? Show me the list--how bad is it?

<sup>24</sup> Why do you stay hidden and silent? Why treat me like I'm your enemy?

<sup>26</sup> You compile a long list of mean things about me, even hold me accountable for the sins of my youth.

<sup>27</sup> You hobble me so I can't move about. You watch every move I make, and brand me as a dangerous character.

14 <sup>1</sup> "We're all adrift in the same boat: too few days, too many troubles.

<sup>2</sup> We spring up like wildflowers in the desert and then wilt, transient as the shadow of a cloud.

<sup>3</sup> Do you occupy your time with such fragile wisps? Why even bother hauling me into court?

<sup>4</sup> There's nothing much to us to start with; how do you expect us to amount to anything?

<sup>5</sup> Mortals have a limited life span. You've already decided how long we'll live--you set the boundary and no one can cross it.

Even ditchdiggers get occasional days off.

<sup>7</sup> For a tree there is always hope. Chop it down and it still has a chance--its roots can put out fresh sprouts.

<sup>8</sup> Even if its roots are old and gnarled, its stump long dormant,

<sup>9</sup> At the first whiff of water it comes to life, buds and grows like a sapling.

<sup>10</sup> But men and women? They die and stay dead. They breathe their last, and that's it.

<sup>11</sup> Like lakes and rivers that have dried up, parched reminders of what once was,

<sup>12</sup> So mortals lie down and never get up, never wake up again--never.

<sup>13</sup> Why don't you just bury me alive, get me out of the way until your anger cools? But don't leave me there! Set a date when you'll see me again.

<sup>14</sup> If we humans die, will we live again? That's my question. All through these difficult days I keep hoping, waiting for the final change--for resurrection!

<sup>15</sup> Homesick with longing for the creature you made, you'll call--and I'll answer!

<sup>16</sup> You'll watch over every step I take, but you won't keep track of my missteps.

<sup>17</sup> My sins will be stuffed in a sack and thrown into the sea--sunk in deep ocean.

<sup>19</sup> Stones wear smooth and soil erodes, as you relentlessly grind down our hope.

<sup>20</sup> You're too much for us. As always, you get the last word. We don't like it and our faces show it, but you send us off anyway.

<sup>21</sup> If our children do well for themselves, we never know it; if they do badly, we're spared the hurt.

<sup>22</sup> Body and soul, that's it for us--a lifetime of pain, a lifetime of sorrow."

15 <sup>1</sup> Eliphaz of Teman spoke a second time:

<sup>5</sup> It's your sin that taught you to talk this way. You chose an education in fraud.

<sup>6</sup> Your own words have exposed your guilt. It's nothing I've said--you've incriminated yourself!

<sup>7</sup> Do you think you're the first person to have to deal with these things? Have you been around as long as the hills?

<sup>8</sup> Were you listening in when God planned all this? Do you think you're the only one who knows anything?

<sup>9</sup> What do you know that we don't know? What insights do you have that we've missed?

<sup>10</sup> Gray beards and white hair back us up--old folks who've been around a lot longer than you.

<sup>11</sup> Are God's promises not enough for you, spoken so gently and tenderly?

<sup>12</sup> Why do you let your emotions take over, lashing out and spitting fire, <sup>13</sup> Pitting your whole being against God by letting words like this come out of your mouth?

<sup>14</sup> Do you think it's possible for any mere mortal to be sinless in God's sight, for anyone born of a human mother to get it all together?

<sup>15</sup> Why, God can't even trust his holy angels. He sees the flaws in the very heavens themselves, <sup>16</sup> So how much less we humans, smelly and foul, who lap up evil like water?

<sup>17</sup> "I've a thing or two to tell you, so listen up! I'm letting you in on my views;

<sup>18</sup> It's what wise men and women have always taught, holding nothing back from what they were taught

<sup>19</sup> By their parents, back in the days when they had this land all to themselves:

<sup>20</sup> Those who live by their own rules, not God's, can expect nothing but trouble, and the longer they live, the worse it gets.

<sup>21</sup> Every little sound terrifies them. Just when they think they have it made, disaster strikes.

<sup>22</sup> They despair of things ever getting better--they're on the list of people for whom things always turn out for the worst.

<sup>23</sup> They wander here and there, never knowing where the next meal is coming from--every day is doomsday!

<sup>30</sup> And then death--don't think they'll escape that! They'll end up shriveled weeds, brought down by a puff of God's breath.

<sup>35</sup> They have sex with sin and give birth to evil. Their lives are wombs for breeding deceit."

16 <sup>1</sup> Then Job defended himself:
<sup>2</sup> "I've had all I can take of your talk. What a bunch of miserable comforters!

<sup>3</sup> Is there no end to your windbag speeches? What's your problem that you go on and on like this?

<sup>4</sup> If you were in my shoes, I could talk just like you. I could put together a terrific harangue and really let you have it.

<sup>5</sup> But I'd never do that. I'd console and comfort, make things better, not worse!

<sup>6</sup> "When I speak up, I feel no better; if I say nothing, that doesn't help either.

<sup>7</sup> I feel worn down. God, you have wasted me totally--me and my family!

<sup>8</sup> You've shriveled me like a dried prune, showing the world that you're against me. My gaunt face stares back at me from the mirror, a mute witness to your treatment of me.

<sup>9</sup> Your anger tears at me, your teeth rip me to shreds, your eyes burn holes in me--God, my enemy!

<sup>10</sup> People take one look at me and gasp. Contemptuous, they slap me around and gang up against me.

<sup>11</sup> And God just stands there and lets them do it, lets wicked people do what they want with me.

<sup>12</sup> I was contentedly minding my business when God beat me up. He grabbed me by the neck and threw me around. He set me up as his target, <sup>13</sup> then rounded up archers to shoot at me. Merciless, they shot me full of arrows; bitter bile poured from my gut to the ground.

<sup>14</sup> He burst in on me, onslaught after onslaught, charging me like a mad bull.

<sup>15</sup> "I sewed myself a shroud and wore it like a shirt; I lay face down in the dirt.

<sup>16</sup> Now my face is blotched red from weeping; look at the dark shadows under my eyes, <sup>17</sup> Even though I've never hurt a soul and my prayers are sincere!

<sup>18</sup> "O Earth, don't cover up the wrong done to me! Don't muffle my cry!

<sup>19</sup> There must be Someone in heaven who knows the truth about me, in highest heaven, some Attorney who can clear my name--

<sup>20</sup> My Champion, my Friend, while I'm weeping my eyes out before God.

17 <sup>1</sup> "My spirit is broken, my days used up, my grave dug and waiting.

<sup>4</sup> These people are so useless! You know firsthand how stupid they can be. You wouldn't let them have the last word, would you?

<sup>6</sup> "God, you've made me the talk of the town--people spit in my face;

<sup>7</sup> I can hardly see from crying so much; I'm nothing but skin and bones.

<sup>8</sup> Decent people can't believe what they're seeing; the good-hearted wake up and insist I've given up on God.

<sup>9</sup> "But principled people hold tight, keep a firm grip on life, sure that their clean, pure hands will get stronger and stronger!

<sup>10</sup> "Maybe you'd all like to start over, to try it again, the bunch of you. So far I haven't come across one scrap of wisdom in anything you've said.

<sup>11</sup> My life's about over. All my plans are smashed, all my hopes are snuffed out--

<sup>12</sup> My hope that night would turn into day, my hope that dawn was about to break.

<sup>13</sup> If all I have to look forward to is a home in the graveyard, if my only hope for comfort is a well-built coffin,

<sup>14</sup> If a family reunion means going six feet under, and the only family that shows up is worms, <sup>15</sup> Do you call that hope? Who on earth could find any hope in that?

<sup>16</sup> No. If hope and I are to be buried together, I suppose you'll all come to the double funeral!"

18 <sup>1</sup> Bildad from Shuhah chimed in:

<sup>3</sup> Why do you treat your friends like slow-witted animals? You look down on us as if we don't know anything.

<sup>4</sup> Why are you working yourself up like this? Do you want the world redesigned to suit you? Should reality be suspended to accommodate you?

<sup>5</sup> "Here's the rule: The light of the wicked is put out. Their flame dies down and is extinguished.

12 The hungry grave is ready to gobble them up for supper, 13 To lay them out for a gourmet meal, a treat for ravenous Death.

14 They are snatched from their home sweet home and marched straight to the death house.

15 Their lives go up in smoke; acid rain soaks their ruins.

16 Their roots rot and their branches wither.

17 They'll never again be remembered--nameless in unmarked graves.

18 They are plunged from light into darkness, banished from the world.

19 And they leave empty-handed--not one single child--nothing to show for their life on this earth.

20 Westerners are aghast at their fate, easterners are horrified:

<sup>21</sup> 'Oh no! So this is what happens to perverse people. This is how the God-ignorant end up!'"

19 <sup>1</sup> Job answered:
<sup>2</sup> "How long are you going to keep battering away at me, pounding me with these harangues?

<sup>3</sup> Time after time after time you jump all over me. Do you have no conscience, abusing me like this?

<sup>4</sup> Even if I have, somehow or other, gotten off the track, what business is that of yours?

<sup>5</sup> Why do you insist on putting me down, using my troubles as a stick to beat me?

<sup>6</sup> Tell it to God--he's the one behind all this, he's the one who dragged me into this mess.

<sup>7</sup> "Look at me--I shout 'Murder!' and I'm ignored; I call for help and no one bothers to stop.

<sup>8</sup> God threw a barricade across my path--I'm stymied; he turned out all the lights--I'm stuck in the dark.

<sup>9</sup> He destroyed my reputation, robbed me of all self-respect.

<sup>10</sup> He tore me apart piece by piece--I'm ruined! Then he yanked out hope by the roots.

<sup>11</sup> He's angry with me--oh, how he's angry! He treats me like his worst enemy.

<sup>12</sup> He has launched a major campaign against me, using every weapon he can think of, coming at me from all sides at once.

<sup>13</sup> "God alienated my family from me;

<sup>14</sup> everyone who knows me avoids me. My relatives and friends have all left; houseguests forget I ever existed.

<sup>16</sup> I call my attendant and he ignores me, ignores me even though I plead with him.

<sup>17</sup> My wife can't stand to be around me anymore. I'm repulsive to my family.

<sup>18</sup> Even street urchins despise me; when I come out, they taunt and jeer.

<sup>19</sup> Everyone I've ever been close to abhors me; my dearest loved ones reject me.

<sup>21</sup> "Oh, friends, dear friends, take pity on me. God has come down hard on me!

<sup>22</sup> Do you have to be hard on me too? Don't you ever tire of abusing me?

<sup>23</sup> "If only my words were written in a book--

<sup>25</sup> Still, I know that God lives--the One who gives me back my life--and eventually he'll take his stand on earth.

<sup>27</sup> see God myself, with my very own eyes. Oh, how I long for that day!

<sup>28</sup> "If you're thinking, 'How can we get through to him, get him to see that his trouble is all his own fault?'

<sup>29</sup> Forget it. Start worrying about yourselves. Worry about your own sins and God's coming judgment, for judgment is most certainly on the way."

20 <sup>1</sup> Zophar from Naamath again took his turn:

<sup>3</sup> How dare you insult my intelligence like this! Well, here's a piece of my mind!

<sup>4</sup> "Don't you even know the basics, how things have been since the earliest days, when Adam and Eve were first placed on earth?

<sup>8</sup> They fly off like a dream that can't be remembered, like a shadowy illusion that vanishes in the light.

<sup>14</sup> But then they get stomach cramps, a bad case of food poisoning.

<sup>15</sup> They gag on all that rich food; God makes them vomit it up.

<sup>16</sup> They gorge on evil, make a diet of that poison--a deadly diet--and it kills them.

<sup>22</sup> Just when they think they have it all, disaster strikes; they're served up a plate full of misery.

<sup>24</sup> As they run for their lives from one disaster, they run smack into another.

<sup>25</sup> They're knocked around from pillar to post, beaten to within an inch of their lives. They're trapped in a house of horrors, <sup>26</sup> and see their loot disappear down a black hole. Their lives are a total loss--not a penny to their name, not so much as a bean.

<sup>27</sup> God will strip them of their sin-soaked clothes and hang their dirty laundry out for all to see.

21 <sup>1</sup> Job replied:
<sup>2</sup> "Now listen to me carefully, please listen, at least do me the favor of listening.

<sup>3</sup> Put up with me while I have my say--then you can mock me later to your heart's content.

<sup>4</sup> "It's not [you] I'm complaining to--it's God. Is it any wonder I'm getting fed up with his silence?

<sup>5</sup> Take a good look at me. Aren't you appalled by what's happened? No! Don't say anything. I can do without your comments.

<sup>6</sup> When I look back, I go into shock, my body is racked with spasms.

<sup>7</sup> Why do the wicked have it so good, live to a ripe old age and get rich?

<sup>13</sup> They have a long life on easy street, and die painlessly in their sleep.

<sup>14</sup> They say to God, 'Get lost! We've no interest in you or your ways.'

<sup>15</sup> Why should we have dealings with God Almighty? What's there in it for us?'

<sup>16</sup> But they're wrong, dead wrong-- they're not gods. It's beyond me how they can carry on like this!

<sup>17</sup> "Still, how often does it happen that the wicked fail, or disaster strikes, or they get their just deserts?

<sup>20</sup> They deserve to experience the effects of their evil, feel the full force of God's wrath firsthand.

<sup>21</sup> What do they care what happens to their families after they're safely tucked away in the grave?

<sup>22</sup> "But who are we to tell God how to run his affairs? He's dealing with matters that are way over our heads.

<sup>23</sup> Some people die in the prime of life, with everything going for them--

<sup>25</sup> Others die bitter and bereft, never getting a taste of happiness.

<sup>26</sup> They're laid out side by side in the cemetery, where the worms can't tell one from the other.

<sup>27</sup> "I'm not deceived. I know what you're up to, the plans you're cooking up to bring me down.

<sup>28</sup> Naively you claim that the castles of tyrants fall to pieces, that the achievements of the wicked collapse.

<sup>29</sup> Have you ever asked world travelers how they see it? Have you not listened to their stories

<sup>30</sup> Of evil men and women who got off scot-free, who never had to pay for their wickedness?

<sup>31</sup> Did anyone ever confront them with their crimes? Did they ever have to face the music?

<sup>33</sup> Gently lowered into expensive graves, with everyone telling lies about how wonderful they were.

<sup>2</sup> "Are any of us strong enough to give God a hand, or smart enough to give him advice?"

<sup>3</sup> So what if you were righteous--would God Almighty even notice? Even if you gave a perfect performance, do you think he'd applaud?

<sup>4</sup> Do you think it's because he cares about your purity that he's disciplining you, putting you on the spot?

<sup>6</sup> When people came to you for help, you took the shirts off their backs, exploited their helplessness.

<sup>7</sup> You wouldn't so much as give a drink to the thirsty, or food, not even a scrap, to the hungry.

<sup>8</sup> And there you sat, strong and honored by everyone, surrounded by immense wealth!

<sup>10</sup> Now [you're] the one trapped in terror, paralyzed by fear. Suddenly the tables have turned!

<sup>11</sup> How do you like living in the dark, sightless, up to your neck in flood waters?

<sup>12</sup> "You agree, don't you, that God is in charge? He runs the universe--just look at the stars!

<sup>13</sup> Yet you dare raise questions: 'What does God know? From that distance and darkness, how can he judge?

<sup>14</sup> He roams the heavens wrapped in clouds, so how can he see us?'

<sup>15</sup> "Are you going to persist in that tired old line that wicked men and women have always used?

<sup>16</sup> Where did it get them? They died young, flash floods sweeping them off to their doom.

<sup>18</sup> And yet it was God who gave them everything they had. It's beyond me how they can carry on like this!

<sup>19</sup> "Good people see bad people crash, and call for a celebration. Relieved, they crow,

<sup>20</sup> 'At last! Our enemies--wiped out.
Everything they had and stood for is up in smoke!'

<sup>21</sup> "Give in to God, come to terms with him and everything will turn out just fine.

<sup>22</sup> Let him tell you what to do; take his words to heart.

<sup>23</sup> Come back to God Almighty and he'll rebuild your life. Clean house of everything evil.

<sup>24</sup> Relax your grip on your money and abandon your gold-plated luxury.

<sup>25</sup> God Almighty will be your treasure, more wealth than you can imagine.

<sup>26</sup> "You'll take delight in God, the Mighty
One, and look to him joyfully, boldly.

<sup>27</sup> You'll pray to him and he'll listen;
he'll help you do what you've promised.

<sup>28</sup> You'll decide what you want and it will happen; your life will be bathed in light.

<sup>29</sup> To those who feel low you'll say, 'Chin up! Be brave!' and God will save them.

<sup>30</sup> Yes, even the guilty will escape, escape through God's grace in your life."

<sup>2</sup> "I'm not letting up--I'm standing my ground. My complaint is legitimate. God has no right to treat me like this--it isn't fair!

<sup>3</sup> If I knew where on earth to find him, I'd go straight to him.

<sup>4</sup> I'd lay my case before him face-to-face, give him all my arguments firsthand.

<sup>6</sup> Do you think he'd dismiss me or bully me? No, he'd take me seriously.

<sup>7</sup> He'd see a straight-living man standing before him; my Judge would acquit me for good of all charges.

<sup>8</sup> "I travel East looking for him--I find no one; then West, but not a trace;

<sup>9</sup> I go North, but he's hidden his tracks; then South, but not even a glimpse.

<sup>10</sup> "But he knows where I am and what I've done. He can cross-examine me all he wants, and I'll pass the test with honors.

<sup>11</sup> I've followed him closely, my feet in his footprints, not once swerving from his way.

<sup>12</sup> I've obeyed every word he's spoken, and not just obeyed his advice--I've treasured it.

<sup>13</sup> "But he is singular and sovereign. Who can argue with him? He does what he wants, when he wants to.

<sup>14</sup> He'll complete in detail what he's decided about me, and whatever else he determines to do.

<sup>15</sup> Is it any wonder that I dread meeting him? Whenever I think about it, I get scared all over again.

<sup>16</sup> God makes my heart sink! God Almighty gives me the shudders!

24 <sup>1</sup> "But if Judgment Day isn't hidden from the Almighty, why are we kept in the dark?

<sup>2</sup> There are people out there getting by with murder--stealing and lying and cheating.

<sup>4</sup> Push the helpless into the ditch, bully the weak so that they fear for their lives.

<sup>14</sup> When the sun goes down, the murderer gets up--kills the poor and robs the defenseless.

<sup>17</sup> Deep darkness is morning for that bunch; they make the terrors of darkness their companions in crime.

<sup>23</sup> They may have an illusion of security, but God has his eye on them.

<sup>24</sup> They may get their brief successes, but then it's over, nothing to show for it. Like yesterday's newspaper, they're used to wrap up the garbage.

<sup>25</sup> You're free to try to prove me a liar, but you won't be able to do it."

25 <sup>1</sup> Bildad the Shuhite again attacked Job:

<sup>4</sup> How can a mere mortal presume to stand up to God? How can an ordinary person pretend to be guiltless?

<sup>5</sup> Why, even the moon has its flaws, even the stars aren't perfect in God's eyes, <sup>6</sup> So how much less, plain men and women--slugs and maggots by comparison!"

26 <sup>1</sup> Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> "Well, you've certainly been a great help to a helpless man! You came to the rescue just in the nick of time!

<sup>4</sup> Where in the world did you learn all this? How did you become so inspired?

<sup>5</sup> "All the buried dead are in torment, and all who've been drowned in the deep, deep sea.

graveyards dug up and exposed.

<sup>7</sup> He spreads the skies over unformed space, hangs the earth out in empty space.

<sup>8</sup> He pours water into cumulus cloud-bags and the bags don't burst.

<sup>9</sup> He makes the moon wax and wane, putting it through its phases.

<sup>10</sup> He draws the horizon out over the ocean, sets a boundary between light and darkness.

<sup>11</sup> Thunder crashes and rumbles in the skies. Listen! It's God raising his voice!

<sup>12</sup> By his power he stills sea storms, by his wisdom he tames sea monsters.

<sup>13</sup> With one breath he clears the sky, with one finger he crushes the sea serpent.

<sup>14</sup> And this is only the beginning, a mere whisper of his rule. Whatever would we do if he really raised his voice!"

27 <sup>1</sup> Having waited for Zophar, Job now resumed his defense:

<sup>2</sup> "God-Alive! He's denied me justice!
God Almighty! He's ruined my life!

<sup>3</sup> But for as long as I draw breath, and for as long as God breathes life into me,

<sup>4</sup> I refuse to say one word that isn't true. I refuse to confess to any charge that's false.

<sup>5</sup> There is no way I'll ever agree to your accusations. I'll not deny my integrity even if it costs me my life.

<sup>6</sup> I'm holding fast to my integrity and not loosening my grip--and, believe me,
I'll never regret it.

<sup>7</sup> "Let my enemy be exposed as wicked!
Let my adversary be proven guilty!

<sup>8</sup> What hope do people without God have when life is cut short? when God puts an end to life?

<sup>9</sup> Do you think God will listen to their cry for help when disaster hits?

<sup>10</sup> What interest have they ever shown in the Almighty? Have they ever been known to pray before?

<sup>11</sup> "I've given you a clear account of God in action, suppressed nothing regarding God Almighty.

<sup>12</sup> The evidence is right before you. You can all see it for yourselves, so why do you keep talking nonsense?

<sup>13</sup> "I'll quote your own words back to you: "This is how God treats the wicked, this is what evil people can expect from God Almighty:

<sup>14</sup> Their children--all of them--will die violent deaths; they'll never have enough bread to put on the table.

<sup>15</sup> They'll be wiped out by the plague, and none of the widows will shed a tear when they're gone.

<sup>16</sup> Even if they make a lot of money and are resplendent in the latest fashions, <sup>17</sup> It's the good who will end up wearing the clothes and the decent who will divide up the money.

28 <sup>1</sup> "We all know how silver seams the rocks, we've seen the stuff from which gold is refined,

<sup>4</sup> Far from civilization, far from the traffic, they cut a shaft, and are lowered into it by ropes.

<sup>11</sup> They discover the origins of rivers, and bring earth's secrets to light.

<sup>12</sup> "But where, oh where, will they find Wisdom? Where does Insight hide?

<sup>13</sup> Mortals don't have a clue, haven't the slightest idea where to look.

<sup>14</sup> Earth's depths say, 'It's not here';
ocean deeps echo, 'Never heard of it.'

<sup>15</sup> It can't be bought with the finest gold; no amount of silver can get it.

<sup>16</sup> Even famous Ophir gold can't buy it, not even diamonds and sapphires.

<sup>17</sup> Neither gold nor emeralds are comparable; extravagant jewelry can't touch it.

<sup>18</sup> Pearl necklaces and ruby bracelets-- why bother? None of this is even a down payment on Wisdom!

<sup>19</sup> Pile gold and African diamonds as high as you will, they can't hold a candle to Wisdom.

<sup>20</sup> "So where does Wisdom come from?
And where does Insight live?

<sup>21</sup> It can't be found by looking, no matter how deep you dig, no matter how high you fly.

<sup>22</sup> If you search through the graveyard and question the dead, they say, 'We've only heard rumors of it.'

<sup>23</sup> "God alone knows the way to Wisdom, he knows the exact place to find it.

<sup>24</sup> He knows where everything is on earth, he sees everything under heaven.

<sup>25</sup> After he commanded the winds to blow and measured out the waters,

<sup>26</sup> Arranged for the rain and set off explosions of thunder and lightning,

<sup>27</sup> He focused on Wisdom, made sure it was all set and tested and ready.

<sup>28</sup> Then he addressed the human race:
'Here it is! Fear-of-the-Lord--that's Wisdom, and Insight means shunning evil."

29<sup>1</sup> Job now resumed his response:
<sup>2</sup> "Oh, how I long for the good old days, when God took such very good care of me.

<sup>3</sup> He always held a lamp before me and I walked through the dark by its light.

<sup>4</sup> Oh, how I miss those golden years when God's friendship graced my home,

<sup>5</sup> When the Mighty One was still by my side and my children were all around me, <sup>6</sup> When everything was going my way, and nothing seemed too difficult.

<sup>7</sup> "When I walked downtown and sat with my friends in the public square, <sup>8</sup> Young and old greeted me with respect; I was honored by everyone in town.

<sup>9</sup> When I spoke, everyone listened;

<sup>11</sup> People who knew me spoke well of me; my reputation went ahead of me.

<sup>12</sup> I was known for helping people in trouble and standing up for those who were down on their luck.

<sup>13</sup> The dying blessed me, and the bereaved were cheered by my visits.

<sup>14</sup> All my dealings with people were good. I was known for being fair to everyone I met.

<sup>15</sup> I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame,

<sup>17</sup> I grabbed street thieves by the scruff of the neck and made them give back what they'd stolen.

<sup>18</sup> I thought, 'I'll die peacefully in my own bed, grateful for a long and full life,

<sup>20</sup> My soul suffused with glory and my body robust until the day I die.'

30<sup>1</sup> "But no longer. Now I'm the butt of their jokes--young ruffians! whippersnappers!

<sup>2</sup> Why, I considered their fathers mere inexperienced pups. But they are worse than dogs--good for nothing, stray, mangy animals,

<sup>10</sup> They abhor me, they abuse me. How dare those scoundrels--they spit in my face!

<sup>11</sup> Now that God has undone me and left me in a heap, they hold nothing back. Anything goes.

<sup>12</sup> They come at me from my blind side, trip me up, then jump on me while I'm down.

<sup>13</sup> They throw every kind of obstacle in my path, determined to ruin me--and no one lifts a finger to help me!

<sup>14</sup> They violate my broken body, trample through the rubble of my ruined life.

<sup>15</sup> Terrors assault me--my dignity in shreds, salvation up in smoke.

<sup>18</sup> I am tied hand and foot, my neck in a noose. I twist and turn.

<sup>20</sup> "I shout for help, God, and get nothing, no answer! I stand to face you in protest, and you give me a blank stare!

<sup>21</sup> You've turned into my tormenter-
-you slap me around, knock me about.

<sup>22</sup> You raised me up so I was riding high and then dropped me, and I crashed.

<sup>23</sup> I know you're determined to kill me, to put me six feet under.

<sup>24</sup> "What did I do to deserve this? Did I ever hit anyone who was calling for help?

<sup>25</sup> Haven't I wept for those who live a hard life, been heartsick over the lot of the poor?

<sup>26</sup> But where did it get me? I expected good but evil showed up. I looked for light but darkness fell.

<sup>27</sup> My stomach's in a constant churning, never settles down. Each day confronts me with more suffering.

<sup>28</sup> I walk under a black cloud. The sun is gone. I stand in the congregation and protest.

31 <sup>1</sup> "I made a solemn pact with myself never to undress a girl with my eyes.

<sup>3</sup> Isn't calamity reserved for the wicked? Isn't disaster supposed to strike those who do wrong?

<sup>4</sup> Isn't God looking, observing how I live? Doesn't he mark every step I take?

<sup>5</sup> "Have I walked hand in hand with falsehood, or hung out in the company of deceit?

<sup>6</sup> Weigh me on a set of honest scales so God has proof of my integrity.

<sup>7</sup> If I've strayed off the straight and narrow, wanted things I had no right to, messed around with sin, <sup>8</sup> Go ahead, then--give my portion to someone who deserves it.

<sup>10</sup> Fine, my wife has every right to go ahead and sleep with anyone she wants to.

<sup>12</sup> Adultery is a fire that burns the house down; I wouldn't expect anything I count dear to survive it.

<sup>13</sup> "Have I ever been unfair to my employees when they brought a complaint to me?

<sup>14</sup> What, then, will I do when God confronts me? When God examines my books, what can I say?

<sup>15</sup> Didn't the same God who made me, make them? Aren't we all made of the same stuff, equals before God?

<sup>16</sup> "Have I ignored the needs of the poor, turned my back on the indigent, <sup>17</sup> Taken care of my own needs and fed my own face while they languished?

<sup>19</sup> "Have I ever left a poor family shivering in the cold when they had no warm clothes?

<sup>20</sup> Didn't the poor bless me when they saw me coming, knowing I'd brought coats from my closet?

<sup>21</sup> "If I've ever used my strength and influence to take advantage of the unfortunate,

<sup>23</sup> The fear of God has kept me from these things--how else could I ever face him?

<sup>24</sup> "Did I set my heart on making big money or worship at the bank?

<sup>25</sup> Did I boast about my wealth, show off because I was well-off?

<sup>26</sup> Was I ever so awed by the sun's brilliance and moved by the moon's beauty <sup>27</sup> That I let myself become seduced by them and worshiped them on the sly?

<sup>28</sup> If so, I would deserve the worst of punishments, for I would be betraying God himself.

<sup>29</sup> "Did I ever crow over my enemy's ruin? Or gloat over my rival's bad luck?

<sup>30</sup> No, I never said a word of detraction, never cursed them, even under my breath.

<sup>31</sup> "Didn't those who worked for me say, 'He fed us well. There were always second helpings'?"

<sup>32</sup> And no stranger ever had to spend a night in the street; my doors were always open to travelers.

<sup>33</sup> Did I hide my sin the way Adam did, or conceal my guilt behind closed doors

<sup>34</sup> Because I was afraid what people would say, fearing the gossip of the neighbors so much That I turned myself into a recluse? You know good and well that I didn't.

<sup>35</sup> "Oh, if only someone would give me a hearing! I've signed my name to my defense--let the Almighty One answer! I want to see my indictment in writing.

<sup>36</sup> Anyone's welcome to read my defense; I'll write it on a poster and carry it around town.

<sup>37</sup> I'm prepared to account for every move I've ever made--to anyone and everyone, prince or pauper.

<sup>38</sup> "If the very ground that I farm accuses me, if even the furrows fill with tears from my abuse,

<sup>39</sup> If I've ever raped the earth for my own profit or dispossessed its rightful owners, <sup>40</sup> Then curse it with thistles instead of wheat, curse it with weeds instead of barley." The words of Job to his three friends were finished.

32 <sup>1</sup> Job's three friends now fell silent. They were talked out, stymied because Job wouldn't budge an inch--wouldn't admit to an ounce of guilt.

<sup>2</sup> Then Elihu lost his temper. (Elihu was the son of Barakel the Buzite from the clan of Ram.) He blazed out in anger against Job for pitting his righteousness against God's.

<sup>3</sup> He was also angry with the three friends because they had neither come up with an answer nor proved Job wrong.

<sup>4</sup> Elihu had waited with Job while they spoke because they were all older than he.

<sup>5</sup> But when he saw that the three other men had exhausted their arguments, he exploded with pent-up anger.

<sup>6</sup> This is what Elihu, son of Barakel the Buzite, said: "I'm a young man, and you are all old and experienced. That's why I kept quiet and held back from joining the discussion.

<sup>7</sup> I kept thinking, 'Experience will tell. The longer you live, the wiser you become.'

<sup>8</sup> But I see I was wrong--it's God's Spirit in a person, the breath of the Almighty

One, that makes wise human insight possible.

<sup>10</sup> So I've decided to speak up. Listen well! I'm going to tell you exactly what I think.

<sup>11</sup> "I hung on your words while you spoke, listened carefully to your arguments. While you searched for the right words, <sup>12</sup> I was all ears. And now what have you proved? Nothing. Nothing you say has even touched Job.

<sup>13</sup> And don't excuse yourselves by saying, 'We've done our best. Now it's up to God to talk sense into him.'

<sup>14</sup> Job has yet to contend with me. And rest assured, I won't be using your arguments!

<sup>15</sup> "Do you three have nothing else to say? Of [course] you don't! You're total frauds!

<sup>16</sup> Why should I wait any longer, now that you're stopped dead in your tracks?

<sup>17</sup> I'm ready to speak my piece. That's right! It's my turn--and it's about time!

<sup>18</sup> I've got a lot to say, and I'm bursting to say it.

<sup>19</sup> The pressure has built up, like lava beneath the earth. I'm a volcano ready to blow.

<sup>20</sup> I [have] to speak--I have no choice. I have to say what's on my heart, <sup>21</sup> And I'm going to say it straight--the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

<sup>22</sup> I was never any good at bootlicking; my Maker would make short work of me if I started in now!

33 <sup>1</sup> "So please, Job, hear me out, honor me by listening to me.

<sup>3</sup> I have no ulterior motives in this; I'm speaking honestly from my heart.

<sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God made me what I am, the breath of God Almighty gave me life!

<sup>5</sup> "And if you think you can prove me wrong, do it. Lay out your arguments. Stand up for yourself!

<sup>6</sup> Look, I'm human--no better than you; we're both made of the same kind of mud.

<sup>7</sup> So let's work this through together; don't let my aggressiveness overwhelm you.

<sup>8</sup> "Here's what you said. I heard you say it with my own ears.

<sup>9</sup> You said, 'I'm pure--I've done nothing wrong. Believe me, I'm clean--my conscience is clear.

<sup>10</sup> But God keeps picking on me; he treats me like I'm his enemy.

<sup>12</sup> "But let me tell you, Job, you're wrong, dead wrong! God is far greater than any human.

<sup>13</sup> So how dare you haul him into court, and then complain that he won't answer your charges?

<sup>14</sup> God always answers, one way or another, even when people don't recognize his presence.

<sup>15</sup> "In a dream, for instance, a vision at night, when men and women are deep in sleep, fast asleep in their beds--

<sup>22</sup> They hang on the cliff-edge of death, knowing the next breath may be their last.

<sup>23</sup> "But even then an angel could come, a champion--there are thousands of them!--to take up your cause,

<sup>24</sup> A messenger who would mercifully intervene, canceling the death sentence with the words: 'I've come up with the ransom!'

<sup>26</sup> "Or, you may fall on your knees and pray--to God's delight! You'll see God's smile and celebrate, finding yourself set right with God.

<sup>27</sup> You'll sing God's praises to everyone you meet, testifying, 'I messed up my life--and let me tell you, it wasn't worth it.

<sup>28</sup> But God stepped in and saved me from certain death. I'm alive again! Once more I see the light!'

<sup>29</sup> "This is the way God works. Over and over again

<sup>30</sup> He pulls our souls back from certain destruction so we'll see the light--and live in the light!

<sup>32</sup> But if you think of anything I should know, tell me. There's nothing I'd like better than to see your name cleared.

<sup>33</sup> Meanwhile, keep listening. Don't distract me with interruptions. I'm going to teach you the basics of wisdom."

34 <sup>1</sup> Elihu continued:

<sup>2</sup> "So, my fine friends--listen to me, and see what you think of this.

<sup>3</sup> Isn't it just common sense--as common as the sense of taste--

<sup>6</sup> When I defend myself, I'm called a liar to my face. I've done nothing wrong, and I get punished anyway.'

<sup>7</sup> Have you ever heard anything to beat this? Does nothing faze this man Job?

<sup>8</sup> Do you think he's spent too much time in bad company, hanging out with the wrong crowd, <sup>9</sup> So that now he's parroting their line: 'It doesn't pay to try to please God'?

<sup>10</sup> "You're veterans in dealing with these matters; certainly we're of one mind on this. It's impossible for God to do anything evil; no way can the Mighty One do wrong.

<sup>11</sup> He makes us pay for exactly what we've done--no more, no less. Our chickens always come home to roost.

<sup>12</sup> It's impossible for God to do anything wicked, for the Mighty One to subvert justice.

<sup>13</sup> He's the one who runs the earth! He cradles the whole world in his hand!

<sup>14</sup> If he decided to hold his breath,

<sup>17</sup> Can someone who hates order, keep order? Do you dare condemn the righteous, mighty God?

<sup>18</sup> Doesn't God always tell it like it is, exposing corrupt rulers as scoundrels and criminals?

<sup>19</sup> Does he play favorites with the rich and famous and slight the poor? Isn't he equally responsible to everybody?

<sup>20</sup> Don't people who deserve it die without notice? Don't wicked rulers tumble to their doom? When the so-called great ones are wiped out, we know God is working behind the scenes.

<sup>21</sup> "He has his eyes on every man and woman. He doesn't miss a trick.

<sup>24</sup> He deposes the so-called high and mighty without asking questions, and replaces them at once with others.

<sup>27</sup> Because they quit following him, no longer even thought about him or his ways.

<sup>28</sup> Their apostasy was announced by the cry of the poor; the cry of the afflicted got God's attention.

<sup>29</sup> "If God is silent, what's that to you? If he turns his face away, what can you do about it? But whether silent or hidden, he's there, ruling, <sup>30</sup> so that those who hate God won't take over and ruin people's lives.

<sup>31</sup> "So why don't you simply confess to God? Say, 'I sinned, but I'll sin no more.

<sup>32</sup> Teach me to see what I still don't see. Whatever evil I've done, I'll do it no more.'

<sup>33</sup> Just because you refuse to live on God's terms, do you think he should start living on yours? You choose. I can't do it for you. Tell me what you decide.

<sup>34</sup> "All right-thinking people say--and the wise who have listened to me concur--

<sup>36</sup> Job, you need to be pushed to the wall and called to account for wickedly talking back to God the way you have.

<sup>37</sup> You've compounded your original sin by rebelling against God's discipline, defiantly shaking your fist at God, piling up indictments against the Almighty One."

35 <sup>1</sup> Elihu lit into Job again:

<sup>2</sup> "Does this kind of thing make any sense? First you say, 'I'm perfectly innocent before God.'

<sup>3</sup> And then you say, 'It doesn't make a bit of difference whether I've sinned or not.'

<sup>4</sup> "Well, I'm going to show you that you don't know what you're talking about, neither you nor your friends.

<sup>6</sup> If you sin, what difference could that make to God? No matter how much you sin, will it matter to him?

<sup>7</sup> Even if you're good, what would God get out of that? Do you think he's dependent on your accomplishments?

<sup>8</sup> The only ones who care whether you're good or bad are your family and friends and neighbors. God's not dependent on your behavior.

<sup>9</sup> "When times get bad, people cry out for help. They cry for relief from being kicked around,

<sup>10</sup> But never give God a thought when things go well, when God puts spontaneous songs in their hearts, <sup>11</sup> When God sets out the entire creation as a science classroom, using birds and beasts to teach wisdom.

<sup>12</sup> People are arrogantly indifferent to God--until, of course, they're in trouble, and then God is indifferent to them.

<sup>14</sup> So why would he notice you just because you say you're tired of waiting to be heard, <sup>15</sup> Or waiting for him to get good and angry and do something about the world's problems?

<sup>2</sup> "Stay with me a little longer. I'll convince you. There's still more to be said on God's side.

<sup>3</sup> I learned all this firsthand from the Source; everything I know about justice I owe to my Maker himself.

<sup>4</sup> Trust me, I'm giving you undiluted truth; believe me, I know these things inside and out.

<sup>5</sup> "It's true that God is all-powerful, but he doesn't bully innocent people.

<sup>6</sup> For the wicked, though, it's a different story--he doesn't give them the time of day, but champions the rights of their victims.

<sup>7</sup> He never takes his eyes off the righteous; he honors them lavishly, promotes them endlessly.

<sup>11</sup> If they obey and serve him, they'll have a good, long life on easy street.

<sup>12</sup> But if they disobey, they'll be cut down in their prime and never know the first thing about life.

<sup>16</sup> "Oh, Job, don't you see how God's wooing you from the jaws of danger? How he's drawing you into wide-open places--inviting you to feast at a table laden with blessings?"

<sup>17</sup> And here you are laden with the guilt of the wicked, obsessed with putting the blame on God!

<sup>18</sup> Don't let your great riches mislead you; don't think you can bribe your way out of this.

<sup>19</sup> Did you plan to buy your way out of this? Not on your life!

<sup>20</sup> And don't think that night, when people sleep off their troubles, will bring you any relief.

<sup>21</sup> Above all, don't make things worse with more evil--that's what's behind your suffering as it is!

<sup>22</sup> "Do you have any idea how powerful God is? Have you ever heard of a teacher like him?

<sup>23</sup> Has anyone ever had to tell him what to do, or correct him, saying, 'You did that all wrong!'?"

<sup>24</sup> Remember, then, to praise his workmanship, which is so often celebrated in song.

<sup>27</sup> "He pulls water up out of the sea, distills it, and fills up his rain-cloud cisterns.

<sup>29</sup> Does anyone have the slightest idea how this happens? How he arranges the clouds, how he speaks in thunder?

<sup>10</sup> It's God's breath that forms the ice, it's God's breath that turns lakes and rivers solid.

<sup>11</sup> And yes, it's God who fills clouds with rainwater and hurls lightning from them every which way.

<sup>12</sup> He puts them through their paces--first this way, then that--commands them to do what he says all over the world.

<sup>13</sup> Whether for discipline or grace or extravagant love, he makes sure they make their mark.

<sup>14</sup> "Job, are you listening? Have you noticed all this? Stop in your tracks! Take in God's miracle-wonders!

<sup>15</sup> Do you have any idea how God does it all, how he makes bright lightning from dark storms, <sup>16</sup> How he piles up the cumulus clouds--all these miracle-wonders of a perfect Mind?

<sup>17</sup> Why, you don't even know how to keep cool on a sweltering hot day, <sup>18</sup> So how could you even dream of making a dent in that hot-tin-roof sky?

<sup>19</sup> "If you're so smart, give us a lesson in how to address God. We're in the dark and can't figure it out.

<sup>22</sup> As gold comes from the northern mountains, so a terrible beauty streams from God.

<sup>23</sup> "Mighty God! Far beyond our reach!
Unsurpassable in power and justice!
It's unthinkable that he'd treat anyone unfairly.

<sup>24</sup> So bow to him in deep reverence, one and all! If you're wise, you'll most certainly worship him."

38 <sup>1</sup> And now, finally, GOD answered Job from the eye of a violent storm. He said:

<sup>2</sup> "Why do you confuse the issue? Why do you talk without knowing what you're talking about?

<sup>3</sup> Pull yourself together, Job! Up on your feet! Stand tall! I have some questions for you, and I want some straight answers.

<sup>4</sup> Where were you when I created the earth? Tell me, since you know so much!

<sup>5</sup> Who decided on its size? Certainly you'll know that! Who came up with the blueprints and measurements?

<sup>6</sup> How was its foundation poured, and who set the cornerstone, <sup>7</sup> While the morning stars sang in chorus and all the angels shouted praise?

<sup>8</sup> And who took charge of the ocean when it gushed forth like a baby from the womb?

<sup>9</sup> That was me! I wrapped it in soft clouds, and tucked it in safely at night.

<sup>10</sup> Then I made a playpen for it, a strong playpen so it couldn't run loose, <sup>11</sup> And said, 'Stay here, this is your place. Your wild tantrums are confined to this place.'

<sup>13</sup> So you could seize Earth like a blanket and shake out the wicked like cockroaches?

<sup>14</sup> As the sun brings everything to light, brings out all the colors and shapes,

<sup>16</sup> "Have you ever gotten to the true bottom of things, explored the labyrinthine caves of deep ocean?

<sup>17</sup> Do you know the first thing about death? Do you have one clue regarding death's dark mysteries?

<sup>18</sup> And do you have any idea how large this earth is? Speak up if you have even the beginning of an answer.

<sup>19</sup> "Do you know where Light comes from and where Darkness lives

<sup>20</sup> So you can take them by the hand and lead them home when they get lost?

<sup>21</sup> Why, of [course] you know that. You've known them all your life, grown up in the same neighborhood with them!

22 "Have you ever traveled to where snow is made, seen the vault where hail is stockpiled, 23 The arsenals of hail and snow that I keep in readiness for times of trouble and battle and war?

24 Can you find your way to where lightning is launched, or to the place from which the wind blows?

25 Who do you suppose carves canyons for the downpours of rain, and charts the route of thunderstorms

26 That bring water to unvisited fields, deserts no one ever lays eyes on,

27 Drenching the useless wastelands so they're carpeted with wildflowers and grass?

28 And who do you think is the father of rain and dew, 29 the mother of ice and frost?

30 You don't for a minute imagine these marvels of weather just happen, do you?

<sup>32</sup> Can you get Venus to look your way, or get the Great Bear and her cubs to come out and play?

<sup>33</sup> Do you know the first thing about the sky's constellations and how they affect things on Earth?

<sup>35</sup> Can you take charge of the lightning bolts and have them report to you for orders?

<sup>36</sup> "Who do you think gave weather-wisdom to the ibis, and storm-savvy to the rooster?

<sup>37</sup> Does anyone know enough to number all the clouds or tip over the rain barrels of heaven

the ground baked hard as a brick?

<sup>39</sup> "Can you teach the lioness to stalk her prey and satisfy the appetite of her cubs

<sup>40</sup> As they crouch in their den, waiting hungrily in their cave?

<sup>41</sup> And who sets out food for the ravens when their young cry to God, fluttering about because they have no food?

39 <sup>1</sup> "Do you know the month when mountain goats give birth? Have you ever watched a doe bear her fawn?

<sup>2</sup> Do you know how many months she is pregnant? Do you know the season of her delivery,

<sup>3</sup> when she crouches down and drops her offspring?

<sup>4</sup> Her young ones flourish and are soon on their own; they leave and don't come back.

<sup>5</sup> "Who do you think set the wild donkey free, opened the corral gates and let him go?

<sup>6</sup> I gave him the whole wilderness to roam in, the rolling plains and wide-open places.

<sup>7</sup> He laughs at his city cousins, who are harnessed and harried. He's oblivious to the cries of teamsters.

<sup>9</sup> "Will the wild buffalo condescend to serve you, volunteer to spend the night in your barn?

<sup>10</sup> Can you imagine hitching your plow to a buffalo and getting him to till your fields?

<sup>11</sup> He's hugely strong, yes, but could you trust him, would you dare turn the job over to him?

<sup>12</sup> You wouldn't for a minute depend on him, would you, to do what you said when you said it?

<sup>14</sup> She lays her eggs on the hard ground, leaves them there in the dirt, exposed to the weather,

<sup>19</sup> "Are you the one who gave the horse his prowess and adorned him with a shimmering mane?

<sup>20</sup> Did you create him to prance proudly and strike terror with his royal snorts?

<sup>26</sup> "Was it through your know how that the hawk learned to fly, soaring effortlessly on thermal updrafts?

<sup>27</sup> Did you command the eagle's flight, and teach her to build her nest in the heights,

<sup>28</sup> Perfectly at home on the high cliff-face, invulnerable on pinnacle and crag?

<sup>29</sup> From her perch she searches for prey, spies it at a great distance.

<sup>30</sup> Her young gorge themselves on carrion; wherever there's a roadkill, you'll see her circling."

40 <sup>1</sup> GOD then confronted Job directly:

<sup>2</sup> "Now what do you have to say for yourself? Are you going to haul me, the Mighty One, into court and press charges?"

<sup>3</sup> Job answered:

<sup>4</sup> "I'm speechless, in awe--words fail me. I should never have opened my mouth!

<sup>6</sup> GOD addressed Job next from the eye of the storm, and this is what he said:

<sup>7</sup> "I have some more questions for you, and I want straight answers.

<sup>8</sup> "Do you presume to tell me what I'm doing wrong? Are you calling me a sinner so you can be a saint?

<sup>9</sup> Do you have an arm like my arm? Can you shout in thunder the way I can?

<sup>10</sup> Go ahead, show your stuff. Let's see what you're made of, what you can do.

<sup>12</sup> Target the arrogant and bring them to their knees. Stop the wicked in their tracks--make mincemeat of them!

<sup>14</sup> I'll gladly step aside and hand things over to you--you can surely save yourself with no help from me!

<sup>15</sup> "Look at the land beast, Behemoth. I created him as well as you. Grazing on grass, docile as a cow--

<sup>23</sup> And when the river rages he doesn't budge, stolid and unperturbed even when the Jordan goes wild.

<sup>24</sup> But you'd never want him for a pet--you'd never be able to housebreak him!

41 <sup>1</sup> "Or can you pull in the sea beast, Leviathan, with a fly rod and stuff him in your creel?

<sup>2</sup> Can you lasso him with a rope, or snag him with an anchor?

<sup>3</sup> Will he beg you over and over for mercy, or flatter you with flowery speech?

<sup>4</sup> Will he apply for a job with you to run errands and serve you the rest of your life?

<sup>5</sup> Will you play with him as if he were a pet goldfish? Will you make him the mascot of the neighborhood children?

<sup>6</sup> Will you put him on display in the market and have shoppers haggle over the price?

<sup>7</sup> Could you shoot him full of arrows like a pin cushion, or drive harpoons into his huge head?

<sup>8</sup> If you so much as lay a hand on him, you won't live to tell the story.

<sup>9</sup> What hope would you have with such a creature? Why, one look at him would do you in!

<sup>10</sup> If you can't hold your own against his glowering visage, how, then, do you expect to stand up to me?

<sup>11</sup> Who could confront me and get by with it? I'm in [charge] of all this--I [run] this universe!

13 Who would even dream of piercing that tough skin or putting those jaws into bit and bridle?

14 And who would dare knock at the door of his mouth filled with row upon row of fierce teeth?

15 His pride is invincible; nothing can make a dent in that pride.

16 Nothing can get through that proud skin--impervious to weapons and weather, 17 The thickest and toughest of hides, impenetrable!

18 "He snorts and the world lights up with fire, he blinks and the dawn breaks.

19 Comets pour out of his mouth, fireworks arc and branch.

20 Smoke erupts from his nostrils like steam from a boiling pot.

21 He blows and fires blaze; flames of fire stream from his mouth.

<sup>22</sup> All muscle he is--sheer and seamless muscle. To meet him is to dance with death.

<sup>31</sup> He roils deep ocean the way you'd boil water, he whips the sea like you'd whip an egg into batter.

<sup>32</sup> With a luminous trail stretching out behind him, you might think Ocean had grown a gray beard!

<sup>33</sup> There's nothing on this earth quite like him, not an ounce of fear in [that] creature!

<sup>34</sup> He surveys all the high and mighty--king of the ocean, king of the deep!"

42 <sup>1</sup> Job answered GOD:

<sup>3</sup> You asked, 'Who is this muddying the water, ignorantly confusing the issue, second-guessing my purposes?' I admit it. I was the one. I babbled on about things far beyond me, made small talk about wonders way over my head.

<sup>4</sup> You told me, 'Listen, and let me do the talking. Let me ask the questions. You give the answers.'

<sup>5</sup> I admit I once lived by rumors of you; now I have it all firsthand--from my own eyes and ears!

<sup>6</sup> I'm sorry--forgive me. I'll never do that again, I promise! I'll never again live on crusts of hearsay, crumbs of rumor."

<sup>7</sup> After GOD had finished addressing Job, he turned to Eliphaz the Temanite and said, "I've had it with you and your two friends. I'm fed up! You haven't been honest either with me or about me--not the way my friend Job has.

<sup>8</sup> So here's what you must do. Take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my friend Job. Sacrifice a burnt offering on your own behalf. My friend Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer. He will ask me not to treat you as you deserve for talking nonsense about me, and for not being honest with me, as he has."

<sup>9</sup> They did it. Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite did what GOD commanded. And GOD accepted Job's prayer.

<sup>10</sup> After Job had interceded for his friends, GOD restored his fortune--and then doubled it!

<sup>11</sup> All his brothers and sisters and friends came to his house and celebrated. They told him how sorry they were, and consoled him for all the trouble GOD had brought him. Each of them brought generous housewarming gifts.

<sup>12</sup> GOD blessed Job's later life even more than his earlier life. He ended up with fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand teams of oxen, and one thousand donkeys.

<sup>13</sup> He also had seven sons and three daughters.

<sup>14</sup> He named the first daughter Dove, the second, Cinnamon, and the third, Darkeyes.

<sup>15</sup> There was not a woman in that country as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father treated them as equals with their brothers, providing the same inheritance.

<sup>16</sup> Job lived on another hundred and forty years, living to see his children and grandchildren--four generations of them!

<sup>17</sup> Then he died--an old man, a full life.

Psalms

1 <sup>1</sup> How well God must like you--you don't hang out at Sin Saloon, you don't slink along Dead-End Road, you don't go to Smart-Mouth College.

<sup>2</sup> Instead you thrill to GOD's Word, you chew on Scripture day and night.

<sup>3</sup> You're a tree replanted in Eden, bearing fresh fruit every month, Never dropping a leaf, always in blossom.

2 <sup>1</sup> Why the big noise, nations? Why the mean plots, peoples?

<sup>2</sup> Earth-leaders push for position, Demagogues and delegates meet for summit talks, The God-deniers, the Messiah-defiers:

<sup>3</sup> "Let's get free of God! Cast loose from Messiah!"

<sup>4</sup> Heaven-throned God breaks out laughing. At first he's amused at their presumption;

<sup>5</sup> Then he gets good and angry.
Furiously, he shuts them up:

<sup>6</sup> "Don't you know there's a King in Zion? A coronation banquet is spread for him on the holy summit."

<sup>7</sup> Let me tell you what GOD said next.
He said, "You're my son, And today is your birthday.

<sup>8</sup> What do you want? Name it: Nations as a present? continents as a prize?

<sup>9</sup> You can command them all to dance for you, Or throw them out with tomorrow's trash."

<sup>10</sup> So, rebel-kings, use your heads;
Upstart-judges, learn your lesson:

<sup>11</sup> Worship GOD in adoring embrace,
Celebrate in trembling awe.

<sup>12</sup> Kiss Messiah! Your very lives are in danger, you know; His anger is about to explode, But if you make a run for God--you won't regret it!

3 <sup>1</sup> GOD! Look! Enemies past counting!
Enemies sprouting like mushrooms,
<sup>2</sup> Mobs of them all around me, roaring their mockery: "Hah! No help for [him] from God!"

<sup>3</sup> But you, GOD, shield me on all sides;
You ground my feet, you lift my head high;

<sup>4</sup> With all my might I shout up to GOD,
His answers thunder from the holy mountain.

<sup>5</sup> I stretch myself out. I sleep. Then I'm up again--rested, tall and steady,

<sup>6</sup> Fearless before the enemy mobs
Coming at me from all sides.

<sup>7</sup> Up, GOD! My God, help me! Slap their faces, First this cheek, then the other,
Your fist hard in their teeth!

<sup>8</sup> Real help comes from GOD. Your blessing clothes your people!

4 <sup>1</sup> When I call, give me answers. God, take my side! Once, in a tight place, you gave me room; Now I'm in trouble again: grace me! hear me!

<sup>2</sup> You rabble--how long do I put up with your scorn? How long will you lust after lies? How long will you live crazed by illusion?

<sup>3</sup> Look at this: look Who got picked by GOD! He listens the split second I call to him.

<sup>4</sup> Complain if you must, but don't lash out. Keep your mouth shut, and let your heart do the talking.

<sup>6</sup> Why is everyone hungry for [more]? "More, more," they say. "More, more." I have God's more-than-enough,

<sup>8</sup> At day's end I'm ready for sound sleep, For you, GOD, have put my life back together.

5 <sup>1</sup> Listen, GOD! Please, pay attention! Can you make sense of these ramblings,

<sup>3</sup> Every morning you'll hear me at it again. Every morning I lay out the pieces of my life on your altar and watch for fire to descend.

<sup>4</sup> You don't socialize with Wicked, or invite Evil over as your houseguest.

<sup>7</sup> And here I am, your invited guest--it's incredible! I enter your house; here I am, prostrate in your inner sanctum,

<sup>11</sup> But you'll welcome us with open arms when we run for cover to you. Let the party last all night! Stand guard over our celebration.

<sup>12</sup> You are famous, GOD, for welcoming God-seekers, for decking us out in delight.

6 <sup>1</sup> Please, GOD, no more yelling, no more trips to the woodshed.

<sup>2</sup> Treat me nice for a change; I'm so starved for affection. Can't you see I'm black and blue, beat up badly in bones <sup>3</sup> and soul? GOD, how long will it take for you to let up?

<sup>4</sup> Break in, GOD, and break up this fight; if you love me at all, get me out of here.

<sup>5</sup> I'm no good to you dead, am I? I can't sing in your choir if I'm buried in some tomb!

<sup>6</sup> I'm tired of all this--so tired. My bed has been floating forty days and nights On the flood of my tears. My mattress is soaked, soggy with tears.

<sup>7</sup> The sockets of my eyes are black holes; nearly blind, I squint and grope.

<sup>8</sup> Get out of here, you Devil's crew: at last GOD has heard my sobs.

<sup>9</sup> My requests have all been granted, my prayers are answered.

<sup>10</sup> Cowards, my enemies disappear. Disgraced, they turn tail and run.

7 <sup>1</sup> GOD! GOD! I am running to you for dear life; the chase is wild.

<sup>2</sup> If they catch me, I'm finished: ripped to shreds by foes fierce as lions, dragged into the forest and left unlooked for, unremembered.

<sup>4</sup> betrayed my friends, ripped off my enemies--If my hands are really that dirty, <sup>5</sup> let them get me, walk all over me, leave me flat on my face in the dirt.

<sup>6</sup> Stand up, GOD; pit your holy fury against my furious enemies. Wake up, God.

<sup>8</sup> Take your place on the bench, reach for your gavel, throw out the false charges against me. I'm ready, confident in your verdict: "Innocent."

<sup>9</sup> Close the book on Evil, GOD, but publish your mandate for us. You get us ready for life: you probe for our soft spots, you knock off our rough edges.

<sup>15</sup> See that man shoveling day after day, digging, then concealing, his man-trap down that lonely stretch of road? Go back and look again--you'll see him in it headfirst, legs waving in the breeze.

8 <sup>1</sup> GOD, brilliant Lord, yours is a household name.

<sup>3</sup> I look up at your macro-skies, dark and enormous, your handmade sky-jewelry, Moon and stars mounted in their settings.

<sup>4</sup> Then I look at my micro-self and wonder, Why do you bother with us? Why take a second look our way?

<sup>6</sup> You put us in charge of your handcrafted world, repeated to us your Genesis-charge,

9<sup>1</sup> I'm thanking you, GOD, from a full heart, I'm writing the book on your wonders.

<sup>2</sup> I'm whistling, laughing, and jumping for joy; I'm singing your song, High God.

<sup>3</sup> The day my enemies turned tail and ran, they stumbled on you and fell on their faces.

<sup>4</sup> You took over and set everything right; when I needed you, you were there, taking charge.

<sup>12</sup> How he tracks down killers yet keeps his eye on us, registers every whimper and moan.

<sup>13</sup> Be kind to me, GOD; I've been kicked around long enough. Once you've pulled me back from the gates of death, <sup>14</sup> I'll write the book on Hallelujahs; on the corner of Main and First I'll hold a street meeting; I'll be the song leader; we'll fill the air with salvation songs.

<sup>15</sup> They're trapped, those godless countries, in the very snares they set, Their feet all tangled in the net they spread.

<sup>16</sup> They have no excuse; the way God works is well-known. The cunning machinery made by the wicked has maimed their own hands.

10 <sup>1</sup> GOD, are you avoiding me?
Where are you when I need you?

<sup>2</sup> Full of hot air, the wicked are hot on the trail of the poor. Trip them up, tangle them up in their fine-tuned plots.

<sup>5</sup> They care nothing for what you think; if you get in their way, they blow you off.

<sup>6</sup> They live (they think) a charmed life:
"We can't go wrong. This is our lucky year!"

<sup>7</sup> They carry a mouthful of hexes, their tongues spit venom like adders.

<sup>8</sup> They hide behind ordinary people, then pounce on their victims.

<sup>9</sup> They mark the luckless, then wait like a hunter in a blind; When the poor wretch wanders too close, they stab him in the back.

<sup>10</sup> The hapless fool is kicked to the ground, the unlucky victim is brutally axed.

<sup>11</sup> He thinks God has dumped him, he's sure that God is indifferent to his plight.

<sup>12</sup> Time to get up, GOD--get moving.
The luckless think they're Godforsaken.

<sup>13</sup> They wonder why the wicked scorn God and get away with it, Why the wicked are so cocksure they'll never come up for audit.

<sup>14</sup> But you know all about it--the contempt, the abuse. I dare to believe that the luckless will get lucky someday in you. You won't let them down: orphans won't be orphans forever.

<sup>15</sup> Break the wicked right arms, break all the evil left arms. Search and destroy every sign of crime.

<sup>18</sup> Orphans get parents, the homeless get homes. The reign of terror is over, the rule of the gang lords is ended.

11 <sup>1</sup> I've already run for dear life straight to the arms of GOD. So why would I run away now when you say, "Run to the mountains;
